INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 109, by Senators Bailey, Mardesich, Matson and Lewis (Harry):

Referring to reintroduction of legislation.
MOTION
On motion of Mr. Thompson, the rules were suspended, and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 109 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Mr. Thompson moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 109 be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Mr. Thompson yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Representative Thompson, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 109 establishes some of the ground rules for the extraordinary session, wherein bills, joint memorials and resolutions will hold their highest status in the House of origin, will be repassed back to their other status. It also talks very briefly on page two about the introduction of bills—they shall be requested of the Code Reviser by 12 noon on Friday, March 21, the eighth legislative day, and beyond Monday, March 24, the eleventh legislative day, there will be no introduction of additional bills. The resolution however stops at that point and does not cover such things as previously covered in earlier resolutions, such as cut-off dates for consideration of House bills, rules under which this legislative body will operate, revenue and tax measures, general consideration of messages from the Senate and our own legislation. Is it the intent of the majority party to leave this blank end open?"

Mr. Thompson: "Representative Pardini, as you have indicated to the House, the only new element in this resolution has to do with the deadline for the introduction of additional measures. The other processes are customary. As to the matter of later cut-offs, I can provide you with assurance that these will be developed in consultation with minority members of the Rules Committee and following that, negotiations with the Senate."

The motion was carried.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 109 was adopted.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER
The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding) announced that the Speaker had signed:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 21.

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

POINT OF INFORMATION
The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "I will explain how we are going to go through this repassage of bills. Each member has on his desk a sheet showing how the bill was voted on the last time. It is our intention to announce the number of the bill and the short title, and then run the electric roll call machine on each one. These bills will then be sent to the Senate and be put in the same status they were when we adjourned yesterday."

FOURTH DAY, MARCH 17, 1975

FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The House was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Eng, Kuehnle and Luders. Representative Eng was excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Erin O'Brien and Michael Wyne.

Reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

VISITING DIGNITARIES

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) appointed Representatives Ceccarelli, Bagnariol, Margaret Hurley, Greengo, Gallagher and Parker to escort Archbishop Thomas A. Connolly; the Very Reverend Matthew Naumes, O.S.B., President of St. Martin's College; and Monsignor John P. Doogan, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Seattle to the rostrum.

Prayer was offered by Archbishop Connolly.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Today we are honoring a great man, St. Patrick. Because of this celebration it is our good fortune to have Archbishop Connolly with us. For St. Patrick's Day we have some entertainment. First I would like to present Representative Margaret Hurley who has prepared a poem in honor of St. Patrick's Day and we would like to hear from you, Mrs. Hurley."

Mrs. Hurley: "Whether I am Irish or not may or may not have anything to do with the reverence that I hold for St. Patrick, but I want to read something to you that I wrote in honor of my favorite saint. I call it 'Ode to St. Patrick' or 'Keep Washington Green'"

'Twas on the 17th of March the year so long ago,
St. Patrick came to Ireland and he made the shamrocks grow;
Then he beckoned to the serpents that crawled o'er hill and lea,
And they followed dear St. Patrick till he drowned them in the sea.
'Twas then he looked around him seeing boulders everywhere
And he piled them into fences so they could grow potatoes there.
Then God sent down a paintbrush—the biggest ever seen,
And St. Patrick took it in his hand and painted Ireland green. The folks forgot their hunger, their sorrow fled away,
And all they've done is sing and dance until this very day.
So let's all goad dear St. Patrick to hold that paintbrush in his hand
And help us keep our state as green as he did that emerald land."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Now we have the great good fortune and pleasure to have with us Barbara Coffin of the Seattle Opera Company. Accompanying her, Mr. Henry Holt, musical director of the Seattle Opera."

Miss Coffin sang "Look to the Rainbow" from "Finian's Rainbow" and "Danny Boy."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) introduced Archbishop Thomas A. Connolly and he addressed the House.

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 49.17.020 and 49.17.270, all powers and duties of any officer or agency of this state with respect to the safety of any railroad employees, whether those engaged in the operation of trains, or those whose duties require them to be in or about railroad plants, yards, premises, rooms, rights of way or equipment, or elsewhere, including but not limited to the enforcement and administration of all laws and regulations relating to safety of railroad employees, and the setting of standards and the promulgation of regulations relating to safety of railroad employees, are hereby vested in and required to be performed by the utilities and transportation commission."

Mr. Patterson: "Representative Savage, do you have any fiscal impact on the number of new employees that might be required if you split the jurisdiction in this particular case?"

Mr. Savage: "I had some advice about the fiscal impact and this in itself neither provides more employees nor any financial impact, but whether we do this or not, the Department, because of greater stress on safety, will have to have more inspectors than they have at the present time."

Mr. Patterson: "Which department, and how many more?"

Mr. Savage: "The safety division of the Department of Labor and Industries. I don't know exactly how many more, and they don't either. They don't have them hired or trained yet."

Mr. Patterson: "So we really have no idea as to how many additional dollars we are building into future budgets?"
Mr. Savage: "Whatever it costs for inspections for the Department of Labor and Industries, we are going to save that much on the utilities and transportation costs, so they figure it will balance out pretty well."

Mr. Patterson: "Are you suggesting that the commission will reduce the number of personnel that they have currently employed doing this?"

Mr. Savage: "Yes, by two, and so the Department didn't think there was going to be a great deal of change financially."

Mr. Bond spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Bond to House Bill No. 619, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 75; not voting, 0.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Bond:
On page 1, lines 22-23 after "of any" strike "public place where alcohol is being sold or where the consumption thereof by students is authorized" and insert "such campuses"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Bond withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 3, line 26 strike section 3.

Mr. Newhouse spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Deccio also spoke in favor of it.

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Newhouse, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 4 of the title strike "; and declaring an emergency"

House Bill No. 619 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 268, by Representatives Moon, Pardini, Randall and Charnley (by Department of Revenue request):

Pertaining to appeals to the board of tax appeals.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Randall spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Is it the intent of this bill, if the taxpayer would opt for such an appeal before the appeals board, that he would then give up his right of appeal in the court? Would he, by asking for an appeal, give up his right to later appeal an adverse decision to the superior court?"

Mr. Randall: "No."
FIFTH DAY, MARCH 18, 1975

Representatives Eikenberry and Nelson spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Moon.

Mr. Moon: "Representative Randall, the question of the right of appeal to the court in judicial review has been raised. Would you set for the record whether or not House Bill No. 268 has any affect on the basic rights of judicial review as established in RCW 82.03.180?"

Mr. Randall: "No, it does not. In response to whether or not we are talking about smoke screens, either Mr. Nelson does not understand the territory or he has a smoke screen going. The Department of Revenue cannot take you to court on a board of tax appeals. The only jurisdiction the Department of Revenue, the tax committee referred to, has is over utilities and tax exempt properties. Now that whole speech that talked about that horrible Department of Revenue taking you, the poor little taxpayer, to task on this board of tax appeals, is just hogwash. They can not do that—they are not entitled to do it by law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mr. Berentson.

Mr. Berentson: "Representative Pardini, I see you are a sponsor on this bill. Many of us here in this body respect your judgment and I am sure that you have looked at this bill very closely. Could you inform us as to how you plan to vote?"

Mr. Pardini: "As a sponsor of this bill, when it originally came out of the Rules Committee I prevailed upon the Rules Committee to rerefer it back to the Committee on Revenue because there are some difficulties in the bill. The Revenue Committee has attempted to answer the questions that have been raised, but in my opinion we have still not answered those questions. I guess this is one of those bills where you sign on and you haven't read it thoroughly and you end up voting against it. That is what I intend to do."

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Eikenberry again spoke in opposition to the bill, and Mr. Moon spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 268, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 52; nays, 46; not voting, 0.

Engrossed House Bill No. 268, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 357, by Representative Conner:

Permitting monthly license for certain types of dump trucks.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Conner spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Conner yielded to question by Mr. Warnke.

Mr. Warnke: "Mr. Conner, could you give me the fiscal impact on this bill, please—the loss of revenue?"
Mr. Conner: "The estimate, and it would be difficult to determine—it would depend on the years, and I suppose with a winter such as we have had it would be less—but they have estimated $73,000."

Mr. Warnke spoke against the bill, and Mr. Hansen spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 357, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 73; nays, 22; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Becker, Jueling, Leckenby.

House Bill No. 357, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 631, by Representatives King, Brown, Fortson, Sherman and Erickson:

Providing for date absentee ballots considered voted when postmark missing or illegible.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. King, Substitute House Bill No. 631 was substituted for House Bill No. 631, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 631 was read the second time.

Mr. Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, following section 2, insert a new section as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 29.36.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Enclosed with the ballot, small envelope, and large envelope sent to the absent voter shall be separate printed instructions which the absent voter must observe as follows:

'Upon receipt of this ballot you must mark it and transmit it in accordance with these instructions according to law:

(1) Designate each candidate for whom you wish to vote.
(2) You may vote for a person whose name is not listed by writing such person's name and political party affiliation along with the name of the office in the space provided on the ballot or envelope, as appropriate. Precinct committeemen may be voted for in this manner.
(3) Having marked the ballot, fold it, and enclose it in the smaller envelope, sealing the envelope.
(4) Fill out and sign the statement on the larger envelope.
(5) Place the small envelope containing the ballot in the larger one, seal that, attach sufficient first class postage and mail it so that it will be postmarked the day of election or sooner, or instead of mailing you may send it by any means which will enable it to reach the county auditor or other issuing officer on or before election day.'"

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, on the proposed amendment by Representative Charnley, I am rising to challenge the scope and object of the amendment as enlarging on the bill. The bill deals with absentee ballots, the amendment raises the question of writing ballots and election of precinct committeemen and a couple of other things beyond the scope and object of the bill."

Mr. Charnley: "It amends section .040 which is instructions for voting absentee ballot."
Mr. Newhouse: "I would like to point out that this is a similar situation when I was ruled out of order on an amendment referring to the probationary period for teachers to achieve tenure when the bill was in the same section and was, in my opinion, perfectly appropriate."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CECCARELLI PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Ceccarelli presiding): "The Speaker has examined your amendment, Representative Charnley, and House Bill No. 563, which is presently in Rules Committee. The Speaker has also examined Rule 33 which states in part, '...no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the House.' The amendment is different from House Bill No. 563 in that it deletes the words 'as necessary.' However the Speaker will rule that there is no material difference in House Bill No. 563 and the amendment as offered by you and therefore I am going to rule your amendment out of order. Your point of order is well taken, Representative Pardini."

Substitute House Bill No. 631 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 75-22, by Representatives Perry, O'Brien, Ceccarelli, Chatalas, Lysen and Williams:

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House adjourned until 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 19, 1975.

LEONARD A. SAWYER, Speaker.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.
The House was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Ilene Cochran and James Wood. Prayer was offered by Reverend Charles A. Anderson of the Calvary Temple of Seattle.

Reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Smith (Rick) and Charnley spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (Rick) yielded to question by Mr. Hansey.

Mr. Hansey: "Representative Smith, in section 3 one of the requirements is that two radars be in working order. This does not indicate whether or not those radars would both be manned or if they would be manned by the pilot only, or if they would be manned by two separate people, or what the qualifications would be. For the record, could you indicate what the intent is on that section?"

Mr. Smith (Rick): "Yes, Representative Hansey. I did have a chance to discuss this question with one of the licensed state pilots and we just have to rely on common sense and the responsibility of these people navigating these ships to use all the equipment they have available in the most professional manner. It would certainly be gross negligence to have operating radar available and not pay any attention to it."

Mr. Hansey: "Would it be your intention then that since there are two radars working that two radars would be manned by two different people for maximum safety?"

Mr. Smith (Rick): "No, it would be that they would be available and would be utilized on an as-needed basis."

Representatives Fortson, Berentson, Becker, Dunlap and Lee spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 527, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; not voting, 0.

Mandating availability of materials on abuses of alcohol in public premises where sold or consumed on campuses of institutions of higher education.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Bagnariol spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Representative Bagnariol, I am a little bit perplexed and I suppose it is preventive medicine—this is to put signs on campuses if they sell alcoholic beverages. Do any campuses sell alcoholic beverages?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I don't believe that they do. I do believe that it is permitted under current regulations and it possibly could happen. I don't believe any of them actually do it at this point. It doesn't actually call for signs, Representative Pardini, what it does is call for educational materials on the abuse of alcohol and in particular to the illnesses and consequences that result from it."

Mr. Pardini: "Under this legislation, could we put it out there even if they were not selling alcoholic beverages?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "The materials can be put out now. What this does is mandate them if they are selling alcoholic beverages."

Representatives Douthwaite, Bond and Maxie spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.
Mr. Knowles spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Knowles, as I recall the last day of the regular session this body was prepared to concur, peel off the House amendment, and pass the bill as passed by the Senate. If that is true, wouldn't it be better to go back to second reading and remove the House amendment and then pass the bill?"

Mr. Knowles: "I don't think it would make a great deal of difference. This bill is now before us as it originally came to us. I would have to look at it, Representative Newhouse."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Newhouse, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2171 was deferred, and the bill was ordered placed on the third reading calendar following Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2215.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, consideration of House Bill No. 413 was deferred, and the bill was ordered placed on the second reading calendar following House Bill No. 401.

Protecting employee's insurance benefits.
The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Ceccarelli, Substitute House Bill No. 239 was substituted for House Bill No. 239, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 239 was read the second time and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

HOUSE BILL NO. 343, by Representatives Parker, Knowles and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Permitting proceedings relating to inmates of state prisons without reference to administrative procedure act.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, further consideration of House Bill No. 343 was deferred, and the bill was ordered held for tomorrow's second reading calendar.

Substitute House Bill No. 401 was read the second time.

MOTION

Mr. Kuehnle moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 401 be deferred, and the bill be placed on the calendar after House Bill No. 651.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle yielded to question by Mr. Shinpoch.

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Kuehnle, I would like to preface my question by saying that I am probably going to oppose your motion if I don't understand your reason better. I understood that we knew yesterday that this bill would be on the calendar today and I don't really understand your reason why, if you had an amendment you wanted to make—didn't we have this on yesterday and did you not have an opportunity?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "Yes, we had it on yesterday and we had an opportunity, but I don't think this is an unusual request. I just noticed an amendment that I think is appropriate and this is a courtesy that is commonly extended. All I am asking is that courtesy be extended to me, Representative Shinpoch."

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Kuehnle, would you object if we moved it down one instead of two, to give you an opportunity to get your amendment distributed?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "If that will allow opportunity for distribution that is fine with me. I am just trying to play it safe and relieve a burden as far as the Chief Clerk is concerned."

MOTION

Mr. Shinpoch moved that Mr. Kuehnle's motion be amended to defer consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 401 after House Bill No. 431.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "What would then be the position of House Bill No. 413 on today's calendar?"

The Speaker: "When we placed it on the calendar behind House Bill No. 401 that was a place on the calendar, not that it should be considered after the bill, but merely a description of where the bill would be placed. Therefore I would say that House Bill No. 413 would be the next bill to be considered."
The motion by Mr. Shinpoch to amend Mr. Kuehnle's motion was carried.

Mr. Kuehnle's motion as amended by Mr. Shinpoch was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House moved to immediately consider House Bill No. 861.

HOUSE BILL NO. 861, by Representatives Bagnariol and Shinpoch:
Relating to appropriations.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Ways and Means – Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, Fifty-second Day, March 5, 1975.)

Mr. Shinpoch moved that the House do not adopt the committee amendments.

Representatives Shinpoch and Curtis spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

Mr. Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Bagnariol and Shinpoch:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. That a legislative budget is hereby adopted and subject to the provisions set forth in the following sections, the several amounts specified in the following sections, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish the purposes designated, are hereby appropriated and authorized to be disbursed for salaries, wages, and the other expenses of the legislature and for other specified purposes for the fiscal biennium beginning February 1, 1975 and ending January 31, 1977, except as otherwise provided, out of the several funds of the state hereinafter named.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. FOR THE STATE LEGISLATURE

General Fund Appropriation

Senate Expenses and salaries of members .................................................. $ 6,272,400
House of Representatives Expenses and salaries of members .............................. $ 6,870,351

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of state government and its existing institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Representatives Shinpoch and Curtis spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Peterson.

Mr. Peterson: "I wonder if you could explain why the Senate, with only 49 members, has a budget approximately equal to the House with 98 members?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Williams.

Mr. Williams: "Just for my information, what was the amount in the Governor's budget for this biennium for the legislature? I guess what I am getting at is that amount plus what was left over as of February 1 of this year."

Mr. Shinpoch: "I don't have those figures, do you, Representative Curtis?"

Mr. Curtis: "I can't verify the authenticity without looking at the budget book, but I think that it was $7.6 million for the House. This figure that you have in front of you is that amount with the $790,000 currently on hand backed out of it. That is my understanding and I think that's pretty close."

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, the following amendment to the title by Representatives Shinpoch and Bagnariol was adopted:

On page 1, strike the title and insert:

"AN ACT Adopting the legislative budget; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for the operations of the legislature for the fiscal biennium beginning February 1, 1975 and ending January 31, 1977; and declaring an emergency."

House Bill No. 861 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.
MOTION

On motion of Mr. Conner, the House adjourned until 10:30 a.m., Thursday, March 20, 1975.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

LEONARD A. SAWYER, Speaker.
House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Thursday, March 20, 1975.

The House was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Williams, who was excused.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 413, by Representatives Wojahn, O'Brien, Pardini, Sommers, Fortson, Valle, Brown, Haley, Lysen, Bagnariol and Maxie:
Implementing law to eliminate sex discrimination in the public schools.

The bill was read the second time.
On motion of Mr. Bauer, Substitute House Bill No. 413 was substituted for House Bill No. 413, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 413 was read the second time.

Mr. Eikenberry moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 5 after "I." strike "Inferiority" and insert "Inequality"

Representatives Eikenberry, Bauer and Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Charette moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman:
On page 2, line 10 after "sex." insert "Schools may provide separate teams for each sex: however, where separate teams are not provided, members of either sex shall have the opportunity to compete for a position on any team."

Mr. Berentson moved adoption of the following amendment to the Charette/Zimmerman amendment by Representatives Berentson and Zimmerman:
After "team." insert "However, that as to any sport in which the joint participation of the sexes is determined by the local board of school directors to be unduly hazardous, then in that event, separation upon the basis of sex shall be allowed with substantially equivalent opportunities being offered to the respective sexes, when determined to be feasible."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "The amendment to the amendment by Representatives Berentson and Zimmerman, upon examination, says that you have to have separate teams if a sport is hazardous and the amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman says that if separate teams are not provided you have to give them opportunity to compete for a position on any team. I would submit that the amendment by Representatives Berentson and Zimmerman is not appropriate to the amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman because they are contradictory."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Pardini, in reading this, I think this is just a limitation upon the provision in that if they find that it is unduly hazardous, then they may make a ruling in regard to their discretion stated in the original amendment. I would think that it is in order."

Representatives Berentson, Zimmerman and Paris spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Wojahn and Blair spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Zimmerman yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "A few minutes ago before Representative Blair spoke, I had a very similar concern about this amendment and I share some of the concerns of the people on this floor about the kinds of coeducational participation in sports. They mentioned football and wrestling, could you mention some others for the body that you would consider hazardous?"

Mr. Zimmerman: "Certainly, I think we could list a long list of them—hockey, boxing, rugby—there are many. I think that the problem of listing them is that we do then have a laundry list trying to restrict them. I was trying to provide the school boards with that option within the confines of their particular situations. There may be different situations in several hundred school districts of this state for that decision and I would like to give them some opportunity to make that decision."

Representatives Ehlers, Cochrane and Brown spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Barnes spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Charnley demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representatives Berentson and Zimmerman to the amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 66; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Leckenby, Parker, Williams.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman to Substitute House Bill No. 413.

Representatives Charette and Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representative Barnes spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Bond moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 18 after "sexes" strike the balance of the line.

Representative Bond spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "If Mr. Bond's amendment is defeated then would it be the decision of the Speaker that Representative Polk's and my amendment would not then be considered because it relates to the same section and subsection?"

The Speaker: "Representative Hurley, we are considering Representative Bond's amendment prior to yours because we feel that his amendment is perfecting the matter that you will be attempting to strike with your amendment. The House has the opportunity to perfect prior to striking."

Mr. Bond continued his remarks in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Polk spoke in opposition to the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Polk moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Polk and Hurley (Margaret):

On page 2, line 16 after "and awards." strike all material down to and including "each sex." on line 18 and insert the following: "Each school which provides showers, toilets and training room facilities for athletic purposes shall provide comparable facilities for both sexes. Such facilities may be provided either as separate facilities or shall be scheduled and used separately by each sex."

Representatives Polk, Hurley (Margaret), Hurley (George) and Wojahn spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. King: "I would like to address a question to anyone about the construction of the language 'each school which provides showers, toilets and training room facilities.' With the construction of the word 'and' there, to anybody—any attorney or anyone who follows the law—that would mean that the school would have to provide all of those facilities in order to come under the other part of the language. Shouldn't we have the word 'or' there? I just put that out as a question."

Mr. Charette: "Mr. Speaker, members of the House, I guess this would be up to the proposers of the amendment, but I would suggest that Representative King has raised a valid point. If you use the conjunctive 'and,' I don't believe you should use the disjunctive 'or.' It should be another 'or' there."

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the House, I would ask that the word 'and' be changed to 'or.' After 'toilets' and before 'training' strike 'and' and insert 'or.'"

The Speaker announced that the amendment would read as Mr. Polk had requested.

Mr. Bond spoke in opposition to the amendment.

Mr. Douthwaite demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment was adopted.
Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 26 following "sex" and before the semicolon insert "where the presence of a person would not be embarrassing to those of the opposite sex"

Representatives Kuehnle, Randall, Pardini and Bond spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Cochrane, Douthwaite and Blair spoke against it.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Kuehnle to Substitute House Bill No. 413, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 55; not voting, 6.

Not voting: Representatives Eikenberry, Jueling, Luders, Matthews, O'Brien, Williams.

Mr. Zimmerman moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman:

On page 2, beginning on line 13 strike all material down to and through line 18 ending with "sex." and insert at the beginning of line 13 the following: "opportunities to receive coaching and instruction: laundry services; assignment of game officials: opportunities for competition. publicity and awards: scheduling of games and practice times including use of courts, gyms, and pools: PROVIDED. That such scheduling of games and practice times shall be determined by local administrative authorities after consideration of the public and student interest in attending and participating in various recreational and athletic activities. Each school shall provide comparable shower, toilet, and training room facilities for both sexes. but may provide such facilities separately for each sex."

Mr. Polk moved adoption of the following amendment to the Charette/Zimmerman amendment:

On line 2 of the amendment after "line" strike "18 ending with sex" and insert "16 ending with "awards" and strike the second paragraph beginning with "Each school" and ending with "each sex."

Representatives Polk and Charette spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and it was adopted.

The amendment by Representatives Charette and Zimmerman as amended was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Ehlers, Sommers and Gaspard:

On page 2, line 18 after "each sex." insert a new paragraph as follows: "Where comparable facilities for recreational and athletic activities as described under this subsection would be otherwise unavailable, equal access to existing facilities shall be made available to each sex."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Ehlers withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Polk moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 23 after "specific sports." insert a new paragraph as follows: "Nothing in this section, or relative to the application or interpretation of these provisions, shall be construed to require the integration of both sexes in conducting intramural and/or competitive sports."

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mrs. Wojahn spoke against it.

Representatives Polk, Berentson and Barnes spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Cochrane spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Polk to Substitute House Bill No. 413, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 53; not voting, 5.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Barnes, Bender, Berentson, Bond, Chandler, Clemente, Curtis, Deccio, Dunlap, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Gilleland, Greengo, Haley, Hansey, Hayner,

Not voting: Representatives Fischer, Gaines, Knowles, Nelson, Williams.

Mr. Polk moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, line 4 after "school districts." strike all of section 4 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mrs. Wojahn spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, line 13 after "34.04 RCW" insert a period and strike all the material down to and including line 20.

Representatives Hurley (Margaret) and Blair spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Wojahn, Bauer and Pardini spoke against it.

Mrs. Hurley spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Hurley (George) spoke in opposition to it.

ROLL CALL
The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Hurley (Margaret) to Substitute House Bill No. 413, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 49; not voting, 7.

Not voting: Representatives Hansey, Haussler, Jastad, Laughlin, Newhouse, Williams, Zimmerman.

Mr. Deccio moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, line 21 add a new section as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This law will be construed to be null and void unless adequate funds are provided by the superintendent of public instruction to the school districts to fully implement the legislation."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Deccio spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mrs. Wojahn spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Mr. Deccio requested Mrs. Wojahn to yield to question, and Mrs. Wojahn refused to yield.

Mr. Freeman demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Shinpoch and Freeman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Cochrane spoke against it.

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL
The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Deccio to Substitute House Bill No. 413, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 57; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Bagnariol, Williams.

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 26 following "sex" and before the semicolon insert "unless the assignment of a member of one sex would prove embarrassing to those of the opposite sex"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, this and the subsequent amendment by Representatives Chandler and Hayner on page 1, line 26, address the same area that Representative Kuehnle tried to amend approximately 30 minutes ago. It addresses essentially the same subject and in the same manner. I would ask the Chair to rule both amendments out of order."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Reed's Rule 136 would support your point of order in that it says 'if an amendment is decided in the negative it cannot be repeated although it may be again proposed to insert the same words with others, or a part of the same words with others, provided a substantially new proposition be thereby presented.' The Speaker, in looking over the two amendments can find no new thought presented because one says 'the presence of a person' and the other says 'an assignment of a member' and the Speaker can't find where this is a difference. Therefore I will have to rule your amendment out of order; Representative Hurley."

Mr. Chandler moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Chandler and Hayner:
On page 1, line 26 following "sex" and before the semicolon insert "except where such assignment would include duty in areas of situations, such as but not limited to a shower room, where persons might be disrobed"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, I would cite to you Reed's Rule 133, and suggest to the Speaker that this amendment is also out of order."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Pardini, in considering the former amendment, I do think that this is presenting a new proposition to this extent: One is a specific act of disrobing and the other is the general area of embarrassment. I think the general area of embarrassment covers a much greater field than the more intensified area that people might consider disrobing to be, or walking around where people are in the nude. I think there is a difference in the proposition being presented to the members now."

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, I would call your attention to line 3 of the amendment which says 'such as, but not limited to.' It again opens up the entire broad field with that type of wording. It is now specifically restricted to the question of disrobing."

The Speaker: "But I think that when you are talking about the area of disrobing where people might be completely nude that it has a different connotation or a different proposition than the entire field of embarrassment."

Representatives Chandler, Hayner, Hurley (Margaret), Pardini and Greengo spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Wojahn and Douthwaite spoke against it.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Chandler and Hayner to Substitute House Bill No. 413, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 37; not voting, 2.
Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 8 following "determine." insert "No person who is injured as a result of participation in any contact sport shall have any recourse whatever against any other participant in that sport or against the sanctioning school or any of its agents."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Kuehnle, I am afraid that the Speaker is going to have to rule this amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. You are going into completely new matter—adjudication of the rights of individuals is way beyond the scope of this because we are talking here about equal rights in regard to athletics in general school events and you are going into injuries and completely new matter that I think the committee should look into in detail because it would have serious legal consequences. I think it is beyond the scope and I will have to rule it out of order."

MOTION

Mr. Kuehnle moved that Substitute House Bill No. 413 be rereferred to Committee on Education.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Charette spoke against it.

The motion was not carried.

Substitute House Bill No. 413 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House adjourned until 10:30 a.m., Friday, March 21, 1975.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

LEONARD A. SAWYER, Speaker.
The House was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative McCormick, who was excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Kay Holland and Randy Sanford. Prayer was offered by Reverend Paul J. Beeman of the First United Methodist Church of Olympia.

Reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

ROLL CALL

Voting nay: Representative Polk.

Not voting: Representative McCormick.

Substitute House Bill No. 239, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 346, by Representatives Bagnariol, Erickson and Randall (by Department of Revenue request):

Pertaining to sales and use taxes.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Bagnariol spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Eikenberry and Curtis spoke against it.

Mr. Bagnariol spoke again in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Bagnariol, all the discussion so far on this subject has been in regard to personal liability of the people in the corporation, the employees, etc. What I want to know is—assume the corporation goes bankrupt and subsequently they liquidate all the fixed assets, or whatever it is they do to put money in the pot to pay off the creditors. Does this give the Department of Revenue the top priority on this revenue that would be in the pot after all the assets are liquidated?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I think the Department has priority on those kinds of dollars now, Representative Flanagan. All the discussion so far on this subject has been in regard to personal liability of the people in the corporation, the employees, etc. What I want to know is—assume the corporation goes bankrupt and subsequently they liquidate all the fixed assets, or whatever it is they do to put money in the pot to pay off the creditors. Does this give the Department of Revenue the top priority on this revenue that would be in the pot after all the assets are liquidated?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I think the Department has priority on those kinds of dollars now, Representative Flanagan. What this bill does is allow the Department to collect the sales tax revenues that have been paid into the corporation by filing suit against the person who was responsible for referring the sales tax dollars to the state. For example, currently if you happen to be a business and you are not a corporation and you are collecting sales tax and you go bankrupt, they can come after you, personally. What has happened to us in the state is that we have had a lot of instances where people have come into our state, formed corporations, rapidly made a lot of sales, bankrupted the corporation and there was no way for the Department to go after the individuals who, in effect, stole the taxpayers' money."

Mr. Flanagan: "The point I was interested in was that you say under present law that if there are other creditors that may have sold products to this company, that the Department of Revenue would come ahead of any other person who sold anything to this corporation that hadn't been paid for, is that right?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I'm not clear on the law, Representative Flanagan, maybe somebody else can answer that. I think the Department has first call if that should be the case; however we are not talking about loans or products costs or anything else, we are talking about the sales tax paid by the consumer to the corporation that belongs to the state. I really can't clear up your question regarding the current law."

Representatives Moon and Randall spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Curtis and Eikenberry spoke in opposition to it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hurley (George) requested Mr. Curtis to yield to question, and Mr. Curtis refused to yield.

Mr. Moon spoke again in favor of the bill.

ROLL CALL

Representatives Shinpoch and Newhouse spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "I was listening closely and I think you said that if we had been able to go to a split session this year we would have been able to save 'X' number of dollars. My question, Representative Bagnariol, is—can I conclude from that that we will not be going into a split session this year?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "No, you can't, Representative Kuehnle. It doesn't appear at this point in time that that will occur but I really don't know. If it should occur I think we could get the job done in less legislative days than it will take us by going straight through, but that is only my opinion and is not a decision that has been made by anyone yet."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 861, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 5; not voting, 1.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House dispensed with further business under the Call of the House.

SENATE BILL NO. 2079, (as amended by the House) by Senators Henry, Murray and Beck (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):
Facilitating the refund of erroneously paid camper and trailer tax.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Hansen spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle: "If I understood correctly, Representative Hansen stated that the Senate had passed Senate Bill No. 2079 in the special session. Now it is my assumption that it was repassed in the form in which it was originally passed by the Senate."

The Speaker: "That is correct, Representative Kuehnle."

Mr. Kuehnle: "Then it has come over here and we are now in the process of passing the bill on third reading in the same form that we passed it on third reading after the second reading amendment, but in a different form than it was passed by the Senate?"

The Speaker: "That is correct."

Mr. Kuehnle: "So the House amendment is on the bill, we can pass it back and they can concur or ask for a conference, or whatever?"

The Speaker: "That is correct."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2079 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Senate Bill No. 2079 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Luders: "I had given notice to a number of people that I would attempt to override the Governor's partial veto on House Bill No. 1181. As a result of continued activity on my part we thought we had a good chance at this, but we couldn't get sufficient votes in either House to guarantee the two-thirds majority that would be required. I would like to state here, though, that I feel that the issue that relates to the activities of government where people are being pushed around by government is getting to be a major problem the magnitude of such that I now have in my committee a bill with 67 signatures on it which would effectively kill shorelines management. The first complaint of those signers, I am sure from what they have told me, is that a lot of little people feel that government has gone beyond what it should do and I feel that though House Bill No. 1181 is now dead, the issue is not dead."

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

Mr. Conner demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Fortson and Nelson spoke against adoption of the amendment.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Bauer, the way I read this the school district which does not comply with this ratio as established in this amendment will not be eligible for the distribution of state funds under the apportionment formula, is that right?"

Mr. Bauer: "That is correct. However the state board is directed to make rules and regulations for compliance and it must certainly take under consideration the physical impossibilities of a school district building a new room or whatever."

WHEREAS, Such health planning and marshalling of health resources is necessary on both a statewide and regional basis in order to maintain responsiveness to changing health and social needs and conditions; and

WHEREAS, Public Law 93–641, section 1511, requires the governors of the states to designate, with the approval of the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, health service area boundaries for the purpose of regional health planning and resource development;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, That the Governor designate three health service areas in the State of Washington with the following boundaries: The Northwestern Health Service Area shall include Whatcom, Skagit, Snohomish, King, Clallam, Jefferson and Kitsap Counties; Pierce, Mason, Island, Grays Harbor, Thurston, Pacific, Lewis, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark, Skamania, San Juan and Klickitat Counties shall comprise the Southwestern Area; the Eastern Area shall include Yakima, Kittitas, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, Benton, Walla Walla, Columbia, Garfield, Asotin, Adams, Whitman, Okanogan, Ferry, Franklin, Stevens, Pend Oreille, Lincoln and Spokane Counties.

Mr. Parker: "We have a subcommittee that has been discussing this piece of legislation for some time in terms of the total overall impact and we had this prepared as a discussion piece on it, but basically, the three districts philosophy was one that just came up by the sponsors of the resolution."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Williams: "As Representative Charette has said, according to our House rules the bill should be referred to the full Ways and Means Committee. My question is—is the bill, since it has proceeded in opposition to our rules, before this body?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In connection with your question as to whether or not the Ways and Means Committee has approved an appropriation of this nature, in accordance with Rule 82, it states "...any bill containing an appropriation with a financial impact over a four year period in excess of ten million dollars...shall be approved by the entire Ways and Means Committee." Apparently, the bill came out originally with the approval of the Ways and Means Subcommittee on Appropriations."

Mr. Williams: "I understand that, and I agree with that, but I am curious and my question is, if a bill has moved out of committee not according to our rules, where, in fact, does the bill reside? In other words, I am asking for a ruling of where the bill actually is."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "All you do in that case, Mr. Williams, is to do what is being done now—make a motion to rerefer it to the committee and have the committee act on it correctly."

MOTION

Mr. Newhouse moved that the motion be amended, that the rules be suspended and House Bill No. 666 be placed on the calendar for immediate consideration.
ELEVENTH DAY, MARCH 24, 1975

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The question before the House is the motion to rerefer House Bill No. 666 to Committee on Ways and Means. Mr. Newhouse, your motion is out of order. It is an incidental motion and the motion to submit is of higher rank."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charette yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Representative Charette, if this goes back to Ways and Means Committee are we assured that it will have prompt action and come out? We have been informed that the federal government may take action on this fairly soon and we have to have some action on this as soon as possible."

Mr. Charette: "Representative Amen, your question of whether it will have prompt action or not is beside the point. What I have said to this body is (and I guess maybe some of the other members ought to admit this once in awhile) we made a mistake. Now we are going back and try to correct that mistake. I don't think there is anything wrong with making a mistake so long as when you discover that you have you are either man or woman enough to stand up in public and say, 'Gosh, I goofed, now let's correct it.' I believe that this is an important piece of legislation and it will get a hearing before the Ways and Means Committee, and if it gets a majority of the votes on that committee then it will be back before the body. In my opinion, although it can only be my opinion, we will probably get a majority of the votes."

The motion by Mr. Charette to rerefer House Bill No. 666 to Committee on Ways and Means was carried.

HOUSE BILL NO. 970, by Representative Douthwaite:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Eikenberry.

Mr. Eikenberry: "My recollection of the testimony before the committee was that the redesignation of terms as carried out in this bill would (1) meet with the modern psychiatric terminology that would apply to people in these various categories, and (2) the purpose was to provide a more dignified term of reference to use in dealing with these persons. My question to you is, is there any intent on the part of the bill as you understand it, or on the part of the committee to change the category of these persons so far as funding or type of treatment that may be available?"

Mr. Knowles: "Absolutely not. It was not the intent of the bill or the committee. I believe that precise question was asked in committee and received a negative answer as to whether or not it made any particular changes in it. The purpose of the bill merely is definition, to change the terms that are currently used in the law—terms like idiot, imbecile, moron—which, if you will recall in prior law were chronologically aged. This bill merely changes those definitions as pertains to mentally incompetent and physically handicapped people—physically retarded."

On page 3, following section 3 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (I) Any manufacturer or distributor who sells goods or products in this state which are warranted, expressly, impliedly or by statute, to be free from defects in their performance or quality shall provide a facility at which the terms of such warranties will be honored and performed, including but not limited to repair or replacement of any such products or components thereof. All such facilities, whether owned, franchised or otherwise authorized to repair or replace products under the terms of a warranty shall be situated at a distance of no more than 50 miles from each point of distribution of any such warranted product in this state."
(2) If a manufacturer or distributor shall fail to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section any purchaser of his products which are warranted against defects in performance or quality may procure at an establishment of his choice all repairs or replacements obtainable under the terms of the warranty. Such purchaser shall be entitled to reimbursement from the manufacturer or distributor upon timely notice thereto of all actual expenses, direct and incidental, incurred in the repair or replacement of the product or components thereof: PROVIDED, That such reimbursement shall only cover the cost of labor and materials to which the purchaser would have been entitled under the terms of the warranty: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a purchaser who must resort to an action at law to recover such actual expenses shall also be entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys fees and costs incident to the litigation.

(3) No remedial measures taken by a purchaser under this 1975 act to secure the repair or replacement of a warranted product or component thereof at an establishment other than that authorized by the manufacturer or distributor shall be sufficient to breach any of the conditions of the warranty or to otherwise avoid or limit its coverage."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Amen: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to have you rule on the scope and object of this amendment. House Bill No. 211 pertains to reimbursement of payments to be made to dealers—certain implement dealers and car dealers—in cancellation of an agreement while the amendment pertains to warranties and defects in performance and quality of certain merchandise."

Mr. Charette: "I would call to the Speaker's attention that the title of the bill is 'An Act Relating to business regulations; and adding a new chapter.' It's all within the same chapter and I would guess that is as broad a title as you could get."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The point of order appears to be well taken. The act generally provides that implement dealers and car dealers, when dealership contracts are canceled or discontinued, shall be entitled to refunds on their parts and handling charges—provisions of this nature—whereas the amendment offered by Representative Charette goes into a whole new scope in connection with warranties and the rights of purchasers in remedial measures to be taken by purchasers; so it appears that the amendment by Representative Charette is out of order."

Mr. Warnke moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, after section 5, add new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 7 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature finds and declares that the manner in which the distribution of gasoline is made within the state of Washington affects the general economy of the state, the public interest, and the public health, safety, and welfare, and it is therefore necessary to provide certain rights and protections for the retail gasoline distributors in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Refiner" means a company, corporation, or individual who owns, controls, or controls through a substantially owned subsidiary, partnership, or joint venture a refinery used for the production of gasoline, diesel, or other motor vehicle fuels.

(2) "Distributor" means any person or corporation other than a refiner engaged in the sale, assignment, or distribution of gasoline to four or more dealer operated retail outlets.

(3) "Franchisor" shall mean a distributor or refiner who sells gasoline for the purpose of resale to franchisees.

(4) "Franchisee" means any individual, corporation, partnership, or firm engaged in the retail sale of gasoline who purchases his product from a franchisor under a franchise agreement.

(5) "Franchise" means an oral or written contract or agreement or series of agreements, either express or implied, in which the franchisee is required directly or indirectly to purchase fifty percent or more of his supply of gasoline from a franchisor, and in which the franchisee is granted permission by the franchisor to occupy premises owned, leased, or in any way controlled, directly or indirectly, by the franchisor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Prior to entry into a franchise agreement, a franchisor shall disclose to the potential franchisee facts which would reasonably be considered material to the franchisee's decision to enter into the franchise. Such facts shall include, but are not limited to:

(1) Ownership of the property of the retail outlet;
(2) If the real property is not owned by the franchisor, the nature of the relationship between the real property owner and the franchisor and, if applicable, the length of the underlying lease;
(3) Last known addresses of dealers operating the retail outlet for the last five years;
(4) The gasoline gallonage history of the station for the last five years;
(5) Any sales goals or quotas the franchisor intends to apply to the station;
(6) The nearest gasoline outlet owned, controlled, or operated by the franchisor and any plans the franchisor has to open new retail outlets within the trade area of the subject retail outlet:

(7) Any plans the franchisor has for the future of the subject retail outlet.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, specific rights and prohibitions and remedies provided franchisees in RCW 19.100.180 and RCW 19.100.190 shall apply to the relationship between the franchisor and the franchisee under this chapter, except that RCW 19.100.180(2)(e) and (j) shall not apply to franchise relationships under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A franchisor shall not terminate, cancel, or fail to renew a franchise except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of a franchisee to comply with the lawful material provisions of a franchise or other agreement between franchisor and franchisee and the failure of a franchisee to cure such default after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity to cure such default. Good cause for failure to renew may include the good faith business decision of the franchisor that he no longer intends a retail outlet at that location for the marketing of his product. A franchisor may terminate, cancel, or fail to renew a franchisee who is (1) adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, (2) who makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar disposition of assets of the franchise business, (3) who voluntarily abandons the franchise business, or (4) who is convicted of or pleads guilty or no contest to a charge of violating any law relating to the franchise business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In the event the franchisor has good cause to terminate, cancel, or fail to renew under section 6 of this act, he shall fairly compensate the franchisee for the fair market value at the time of the termination or expiration of the franchise of (1) the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the franchisor and (2) good will exclusive of (a) personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and (b) inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business. Such compensation shall be made within thirty days of the date of termination or expiration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In addition to the remedies provided in RCW 19.100.190, if a franchise is terminated, cancelled, or not renewed under section 11 of this act and the parties cannot agree as to the fair market value of the franchisee's interest in the business as defined in section 12 of this act, then either party or both upon ten days' written notice may bring an action in the superior court of the county where the business is located to determine the fair market value. The franchisee shall be entitled to his costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, if the amount awarded by the jury or court is ten percent greater than the amount offered by the franchisor, if any, ten days prior to the filing of the action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this chapter or its applicability to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provisions thereof to any other person or circumstances is not affected.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Amen: "I would ask you to again rule on the scope and object of this amendment. I think this is an entirely different thing in that this pertains to certain acts which a franchiser must disclose to his potential franchisee. I would think that this would be out of order."

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, I would like also to call your attention to the fact that this amendment is substantially the same as House Bill No. 221 presently before the committee chaired by the maker of the amendment, and would, by Rule 32, be precluded from adoption by this House."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 211 was deferred, and the bill was ordered placed on the second reading calendar following House Bill No. 569.

Ms. Becker spoke against adoption of the amendment, and Mr. Berentson spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Berentson yielded to question by Mr. Hawkins.

Mr. Hawkins: "Representative Berentson, are these features shown on a county master program for the shorelines management?"

Mr. Berentson: "The drainage system? I would have no way of knowing that at the present time. I don't believe Skagit County, like most counties, has completed their master plan under shorelines management; however the administrative code, as it now stands, does treat most of this type of facility. The reason we offered the amendment is that there is some question as to whether you are truly covered. As far as a map or anything being on record as to where these drainage districts do now exist, I just frankly couldn't answer you."

ROLL CALL

Mr. Barnes spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Kilbury and Deccio spoke against it.

Mr. Thompson demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Barnes yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Barnes, having some acquaintance with the dairy business, I would like to ask if in your times and periods when this triggering effect might go into effect, how long a period were you considering, in view of the fact that there is a very definite seasonal trend in the production of milk in an individual dairy farm and in the whole industry that will go substantially from 60% production during the winter months to 100% production during the April, May, June, July era. Would it require a period of one year or six months or one month when the triggering would occur?"

Mr. Barnes: "I would expect, Representative Newhouse, that the Department of Agriculture could deduct this on a monthly or quarterly basis."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Eikenberry, it would appear that you would have to move that the House take this action. In connection with your point of order in referring to House Rule 53, the Speaker would just like to state in this connection, that House Rule 50 states 'When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the house the member shall rise and respectfully address the Speaker, pause until recognized, shall confine all remarks to the question under debate, and avoid personalities; and no member shall impugn the motive of any member's vote or argument.' HOUSE BILL NO. 675, by Representatives Shinpoch, Polk, Bagnariol, Flanagan and North:

Regulating the receipt of unanticipated funds.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Ways and Means – Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, Sixtieth Day, March 13, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, the committee amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 675 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 802, by Representatives Shinpoch, Polk, Thompson and Wojahn:

Providing uniformity in payment of travel expenses for most state officials and employees.

Committee on Ways and Means – Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, Sixtieth Day, March 13, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, the committee amendments were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "My question relates to a bill we were discussing a few days ago regarding whether or not people traveling on state business will be required to travel by minimal expense routes. Representative Shinpoch, I would like, for the record, to have you answer whether or not, in your judgment, there is some necessity for state employees traveling to utilize the minimum expense means?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Douthwaite, I don't remember the exact wording in the bill, but it goes like 'if it is the most economical and effective use of state money or facilities.' That is the determining factor, not whether it might be the cheapest on the front end and cost more in total. The total amount is the determining factor."

On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

House Bill No. 802 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 569, by Representatives Fortson, Hendricks, Bender, Seeberger, Bauer and Clemente:

Limiting accreditation of public schools on basis of ratio of pupils to classroom teachers.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Education recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, Fifty-eighth Day, March 11, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Bauer the committee amendment to page I was adopted.

Mr. Bauer moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Bauer, you say that this amendment defines the certificated employee. Isn't the certificated employee already defined somewhere in the statutes?"

Mr. Bauer: "For various purposes, but we needed a specific definition here to imply that a certificated employee would be a person who spent his time in the education process of children, not a person who would come in and take care of nursing activities, home room activities, and other things, but a person who actually was in the process of the instruction of children. For instance, a specialist reading teacher coming in for one hour—that person would have to be included in that definition of certificated employee."

Mr. Pardini spoke against the amendment, and Mrs. Fortson spoke in favor of it.

Mrs. Fortson spoke again in favor of the committee amendment, and Mr. Pardini spoke again in opposition to it. Mr. Bauer spoke in favor of the committee amendment.

The House resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 211 on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Warnke: "Mr. Speaker, there is a point of order riding on this bill, carried over from yesterday, and that point of order has not been answered."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CHATALAS PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Chatalas presiding): "You are absolutely correct, Mr. Warnke. The Speaker has gone over this amendment and he finds that your amendment speaks to service station operators and their distribution of gas, while the amendment dealing with parts, stock and service stations may be within the scope of the bill, this particular amendment deals with the distribution of gasoline which is beyond the repair and parts scope of Substitute House Bill No. 211. Therefore, Representative Amen, your point of order is well taken and the amendment by Representative Warnke is ruled out of order."

MOTION

Mr. Warnke moved that further action on Substitute House Bill No. 211 be deferred until Friday.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Savage yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Savage, I missed this bill on second reading and I had intended to put an amendment on it to say that at least single copies of prospective employers would be made available free to people who had a legitimate request for them so that the Department would not make that charge. I am asking this in the question and answer series to establish legislative intent. Am I correct in that the intent of this legislation is that those people who have a legitimate request for one or two copies will still receive those copies free without being charged for them?"

Mr. Savage: "Yes, I discussed this with the supervisor of the Safety Division, and he indicated that was their intention—to allow smaller numbers of them still to continue to be free."

Mr. Luders spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Luders yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Luders, with your remarks about this bill, I can't resist asking you, doesn't this allow the members of this committee to be paid out of state funds? You say that they are doing so much to help themselves with their own contributions."

Mr. Luders: "This it will do. On the other hand, the full research study which they are underwriting is the real cost to the state of Washington. The other issue is that a public member who represents the Washington Environmental Council is currently on that and he is being financed by these users and with the unlikely chance that somebody might challenge it, we thought it might be worthwhile for the few dollars it involved to make it a statutorily mandated cut-off type committee."

Representatives Barnes and Haley spoke in favor of passage of the bill.
Mr. Barnes yielded to question by Mr. Randall.

Mr. Randall: "The bill as originally written and as a law refers to admitting persons to boarding homes, but the new language refers to providing medication. If you read the thing in one sentence it doesn’t fit, I don’t think. The law talks about admitting people to boarding homes or nursing facilities, but the new language refers to applying medication. It seems to me that it’s hooked together wrong and I would just like your remarks on it."

Mr. Barnes: "It does read a little awkward; however I believe the wording will take care of the situation according to the regulations which have been put together by the Department of Social and Health Services here. The regulations which read ‘...that the responsibility of the manager of a boarding home to admit and retain only persons who are capable of independent self-care and self-administration of their own medication,’ to see that the laws and regulations for boarding homes are complied with. Then it quotes the law here and has an interpretation. I feel that this wording will handle the situation. If it doesn’t, I will try to get an amendment placed on it; I will consult with the Department of Social and Health Services and if it doesn’t handle the situation, I will get the amendment placed on it in the Senate and we can concur with it later."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Charette: "Mr. Speaker, members of the House, under personal privilege, I feel that when we have run a consent calendar, that it really helps to explain to those who are observing that it is in fact a consent calendar, where all of the members of the House have agreed that this series of bills that we have just considered are bills that should be passed and sent to the Senate. All of the members have had these bills presented to them and have been briefed in caucus. It may appear to some people who are observing that the members of the House are really not paying attention, but each member of the House has known and been told what each bill was."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 569:

The House resumed consideration of House Bill No. 569 on second reading.
THIRTEENTH DAY, MARCH 26, 1975

The Speaker (Mr. Chatalas presiding) stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment to page 2.

Mr. Pardini moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:
On line 3 of the committee amendment strike "four" and insert "eight"

Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Bauer spoke against it.

The amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker (Mr. Chatalas presiding) stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment.

Mr. Bauer spoke in favor of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "We clashed over this issue and I want to build back that friendship, so this is in good intent and as a friend of this idea. I did wonder whether in terms of the amendment where it says '...exemptions for those special programs or school districts deemed unable to practically meet the pupil/teacher ratio' and then it says '...by virtue of the small number of pupils.' First of all, could you give an example of what you call a special program that would be exempt here, and then secondly, would you explain the small number of pupils virtue?"

Mr. Bauer: "Thank you, Representative Zimmerman, and get the record straight that Representative Zimmerman and I have always been friends and we always will be contrary to what has been gleaned out of what was said the other day. I probably should say that I wish I had a record as good as Representative Zimmerman's, with his ten years down here in support of education. It has been good; I applaud him for that. In responding to the second part of your question in terms of small number of pupils, we certainly are going to have school districts that have only a few first graders, a few second, and a few third. We do not want to hamper their discretion to provide the best working relationship and this may do that in those small districts. There may be some programs in school districts that, if they will get an optimum result out of having a little different relationship, we would like to leave that up to the state board to make a final decision on."

Mr. Newhouse spoke against adoption of the committee amendment.

The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Bauer, the committee amendment to page 3 was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Pardini:
On page 1, section 1, line 30 strike "three" and insert "seven"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Pardini withdrew the amendment.

Mrs. Fortson moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Fortson and Bauer:

On page 1, line 25 after "((secondary))" strike "all schools within" and insert "((schools))"
On page 1, line 28 after "no" strike "public schools" and insert "school district"

Mrs. Fortson spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mrs. Fortson yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Mrs. Fortson, I got a little bit confused by your last remarks. Did I understand you correctly to say that if a school did not comply in one elementary school in grades one through three on the student/teacher ratio, that the entire district might lose accreditation?"

Mrs. Fortson: "The purpose of the amendment is to place the whole district rather than to pick out one school. It does not mean that if you had one school that did not meet the requirement that you would lose your whole accreditation. You might be put on probationary or temporary status until that is improved as we do at the present time in the high schools."

Mr. Pardini spoke against adoption of the amendments.
ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives Fortson and Bauer to House Bill No. 569, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 62; nays, 29; not voting, 7.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House: As long as we are talking about education I thought I would bring to your attention a situation in the Edmonds school district which, in fact, captures my entire legislative district. Yesterday I had the opportunity to witness the first defeat of the central levy in the Edmonds School District in its entire history and I can guarantee you that the morale and the feelings of the people in this district is very low. They are counting on this legislature to perhaps continue what was expressed by a number of people in these halls during the campaign, to alleviate this problem of special levies. I simply want to rise and take this opportunity to urge and appeal to this body to accomplish this very thing at this time without delay, and essentially be able to alleviate the special levy problem in this state without the depletion of our available funds or our available energies. Thank you."

FOURTEENTH DAY, MARCH 27, 1975

Regulating use of candidates' picture in political advertising.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. McKibbin moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 17 after "unlawful." strike all language down to and including "was taken." on line 20 and insert the following: "At least one picture of the candidate used in any political advertising shall have been taken within the last five years and shall be no smaller than the largest of any other candidate picture used in the same advertisement."

Mr. McKibbin spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McKibbin yielded to question by Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson: "I am a little concerned about the application of the size of the picture that you might use. Can you delineate exactly how this would work? As I read it, you would have to make sure in your advertising campaign material that all of the pictures would have to be basically the same size."

Mr. McKibbin: "No, this would not be true. This merely requires that if you were an individual and chose to use a collage or a combination of pictures in any piece of advertising of any sort, that the largest of those pictures, or equal to the largest picture, must be a recent photograph of yourself. Of course, you may choose not to use any photograph at all. This does not put a restriction on the type of photograph or the size, but merely says that the single one will be recent within five years, will not be a small individual photograph put down in the side corner, overviewed or pushed aside by the other larger photographs."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McKibbin yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Representative McKibbin, suppose I am running against a competitor and I am running a political ad and the two of us are putting our pictures in the paper. According to this amendment it says that my picture may not be any smaller than his picture. It does not say that my picture may not be larger than his picture, however. What is the intention?"

Mr. McKibbin: "Yes, that is correct. I would suggest Mr. Douthwaite, that yours should be larger if you are paying for the advertisement."

Mr. Douthwaite: "They could be of unequal size?"

Mr. McKibbin: "Yes, they could be of unequal size and yours could be larger."

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Charette, further consideration of House Bill No. 467 was deferred, and the bill was ordered held for tomorrow's second reading calendar.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 462, by Committee on Ecology

Exempting irrigation systems from shorelines management.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Luders yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Luders, it was my intent, as prime sponsor of House Bill No. 462 in its original form, that the exemption of certain irrigation facilities and operations from the definition of 'substantial development' in the Shorelines Management Act of 1971 would be limited to those facilities and operations that were primarily for irrigation purposes. That is, it was not my intent to exempt developments constructed for a purpose secondary to irrigation nor my intent to exempt nonirrigation developments from the definition simply because such developments were to be constructed on irrigation canals, drains, reservoirs or other facilities constructed primarily for irrigation. Is that also the intent of the Ecology Committee's substitute bill?"

Mr. Luders: "Absolutely. The committee sought to limit the exemption to the irrigation support activities cited in the substitute bill and was assured by expert testimony that developments whose primary purpose was not irrigation would not be interpreted as being included within the exemption. It was on the basis of that testimony and intent that I, and I believe the other members of the committee, supported and reported favorably the substitute bill."

JIM WHITESIDE, 14th District.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 511, by Committee on Agriculture (Originally sponsored by Representatives Becker, Kilbury, Erickson, Hansen, Amen, Hansey, Moreau, Tilly, Schumaker, Berentson, Sherman, North, Laughlin and Moon):

Requiring that milk producers be paid costs of production.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Becker, Hansey and Kilbury spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Becker yielded to question by Mr. Peterson.

Mr. Peterson: "Representative Becker, you said in part of your testimony concerning this bill that this would not necessarily increase prices at the retail level. If, in fact, the director establishes prices at the wholesale level above the market, how could you avoid affecting the price to the consumer at the retail level?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Peterson, the way you can avoid that is that the handlers will absorb the cost. What we are talking about in the raise in the price at the retail level is only on the order of about thirty-five or forty cents a hundred weight. A dollar a hundred weight is eight cents a gallon; a penny a hundred weight is eight-tenths of a hundredths of a cent on a gallon; so what is a lot to the farmers is very little when you come to the retail cost of milk. The thing is that the retail cost of milk has stayed pretty much the same whereas the price that the farmers are getting for their milk has gone down. So there is no reason why the price they are getting shouldn't come up a little bit and still have the same retail price prevail. One of the factors that keeps the retail price from going up is the existence of the producer-handler category which Representative Barnes mentioned, because these are the people who already have a competitive advantage and are already selling their milk at the retail level for less than regular farmers do. They are not included in the federal milk marketing order system and they would not be included in this system. The dairy farmers do not want their retail price to go up to the point where the producer-handler or jugger is going to have even more of a competitive advantage than they do now."

Mr. Peterson: "The base of your assumption then is that the middleman is going to absorb the increase in cost?"

Ms. Becker: "That's right."

Representatives Moon and Amen spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Sommers, Brown and Bond spoke against it.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question.

After the enacting clause strike all of the remaining language and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. In each year when a president of the United States is to be nominated and elected, there shall be held a presidential preference primary at which voters may vote for any one candidate of a major political party for nomination for president. The presidential preference primary shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in May of each presidential election year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Each voter shall have the opportunity to vote on the official presidential preference primary ballot for one person to be the candidate for nomination by a major political party for president of the United States or to vote "no preference" under a single political party designation as provided for in section 6 of this 1975 act. The name of any such candidate for a major political party nomination for president of the United States shall be printed on the ballots only:

(1) if the secretary of state shall have determined that the individual's candidacy is generally advocated or recognized in the national news media throughout the United States and shall have certified to each major political party, on or before the sixty-fifth day preceding the presidential preference primary, the names of the individuals he or she has determined to be recognized candidates for the nomination of that party to the office of president; or

(2) if members of the political party of the candidate shall have presented a petition for nomination of such candidate which shall have attached thereto a sheet or sheets containing the signatures of at least a number of registered voters who declare themselves in the petition as being affiliated with the same political party as such presidential candidate, equal to one percent of the vote cast in the state for the candidate of such political party for president at the last presidential election, or at least three thousand such registered voters, whichever number is the greater. The petition shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than the seventy-fifth day prior to the presidential preference primary. The signatures sheets shall also contain the residence address and name or number of the precinct of each registered voter whose signature appears thereon and shall be certified to in the manner prescribed in RCW 29.79.200 and 29.79.210.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each major political party shall select delegates and alternate delegates to its national nominating convention by the method and under such rules and regulations as such party may prescribe: Provided, That each candidate for the position of delegate, prior to the selection of delegates, shall submit to the state chairman of the appropriate political party the following pledge:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The presidential candidate of each political party who receives the highest number of votes at the primary shall be entitled to all of the delegate votes allotted to the state by the respective national committee: Provided, That if the rules of any national party require or permit proportional representation, the presidential candidates of such political party may be awarded a pro rata portion of the authorized delegate votes of that political party to be determined as follows:

(1) The aggregate vote received by the candidates, when combined, shall be equal to one hundred percent, except that if any candidate receives less than fifteen percent of the total vote cast, such candidate shall not share in such pro rata portion of the delegate votes and the votes received by such candidate shall not be included in the aggregate vote: Provided. That for the purpose of such apportionment the pro rata share awarded to each such presidential candidate may be determined on the basis of the aggregate vote for all such eligible presidential candidates in each congressional district: and

(2) The total vote received by each candidate of such political party shall be mathematically converted to a percentage directly proportional to the aggregate vote received by all candidates of such political party who meet the requirements of this section; and

(3) Such political party shall then apportion the percentage or percentages determined in subsection (2) of this section to the total number of delegate votes as are allotted to the state by the national committee of such political party: Provided. That no delegate vote shall be fractionalized to accommodate a proportion determined in subsection (2) of this section.

If no candidate of a political party receives fifteen percent or more of the total vote cast, the delegates to a state convention of such political party shall determine how such delegate votes shall be awarded. Each delegation shall be bound at its national nominating convention to vote for each candidate as determined by the primary until released by said candidate or until two convention nominating ballots have been cast. Delegate votes released by any candidate shall be considered uncommitted. In the event of the death of a candidate who has been allotted delegate votes prior to the nomination thereof, all such delegate votes shall be uncommitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Insofar as is practicable, and where the provisions of this 1975 act do not specifically indicate otherwise, the presidential preference primary shall be conducted in the same manner as a state primary, including the certification of the election returns by the state canvassing board: Provided, That the secretary of state shall certify the names of all candidates who will appear on the presidential preference primary ballot to the respective county auditors on or before the fourth Tuesday in April of each presidential year. County auditors, at their discretion, may combine and consolidate two or more precincts for the purpose of conducting this election only: Provided. That no voter shall be required because of such consolidation to go to a location different from that of the last regular election. The secretary of state as chief election officer may make rules and regulations in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW to facilitate the operation, accomplishment, and purpose of this 1975 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The arrangement and form of presidential primary ballots shall be substantially as provided for any primary election within the state except as may be modified by this 1975 act or by rule or regulation of the secretary of state as provided for in section 5 of this 1975 act to adequately reflect the intent of this 1975 act.

The names of presidential candidates shall be listed alphabetically in separate columns according to political party affiliation. There shall be a ☐ adjacent to the name of each candidate. In each column there shall be a ☐ for the voter to indicate "no preference" under a single political party designation and a blank space following such list for writing in the name of another candidate if desired. The ballot, in providing for a choice of president, shall set forth only such candidates with their political party affiliation as have qualified for a place thereon under section 2 of this 1975 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. At a presidential preference primary, a voter may cast no more than one vote on a ballot. Any presidential preference primary ballot with more than one vote shall be void and notice to this effect, couched in clear, simple language, and printed in large type, shall appear on the face of each presidential preference primary ballot. Where voting machines or electronic voting devices are in use, the notice shall be displayed on or about each machine or device.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Whenever a presidential preference primary election is held as provided by this 1975 act, the state of Washington shall assume all costs of holding such election if held alone: Provided. That if any other election or elections shall be held at the same time, the state shall be liable only for its prorated share. The county auditor shall determine the election costs, including the state's prorated share, if applicable, and shall file a certified claim therefore with the state auditor. The state auditor shall compile such claims for presentation to the next succeeding legislature in the same manner as other legislative relief claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Section 1 through 8 of this 1975 act are added to Title 29 RCW as a new chapter thereof.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Brown, I have an interest in this proposed amendment and you say they should not be as equals—the county and the city. I rather have a feeling that they should, but I am not opposing your amendment. I would like your comment on this situation: Obviously the city will want a site for this disposal of solid waste and obviously, to me, that site will not be within the city limits. Should not then the county have an equal interest in where that site is and to how it is operated, and would not 'cooperate' be a proper word?"

Mr. Brown: "Your point is well made as far as the siting situation, Representative Newhouse, but I think we serve the same purpose by the word 'consult.' In essence it's still a problem that they—well, we are still insuring that they are going to work together in the planning stages. I think the word 'cooperate' has some implication that they are going to operate together and that is what I am trying to avoid."

Representatives Freeman and Hanna spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Douthwaite and Perry spoke in favor of it.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

March 31, 1975
TO THE HONORABLE,
THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
I have the honor to advise that on March 31, 1975, Governor Evans approved the following House Bill, entitled:

HOUSE BILL NO. 279: Providing for support of adoption of hard to place children.

Sincerely,

CHI-DOOH LI, Legal Counsel.

March 31, 1975

TO THE HONORABLE,
THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
On this date I have approved SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 395, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to anatomical gifts."

I wish to bring to your attention, however, an apparent inconsistency in the language of the act which might frustrate its intent unless corrected.

Section 1 allows the making of an anatomical gift through the Department of Motor Vehicles in one of three ways:
1. On a driver's license;
2. On a statement given with the driver's license;
3. On a statement given in person with an application for a driver's license.

Section 2(3), however, and the amendatory language therein speaks only of a statement of a gift provided on the driver's license. The question is thereby raised as to the effectiveness of a gift purported to be made either on the statement provided with the license or the statement provided in person with the application for a license.

The act will not take effect until some time in mid-June. I would urge the Legislature to consider this problem and perhaps try to remedy the situation with amendatory action prior to adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS, Governor.

April 1, 1975

Sincerely,
CHI-DOOH LI, Legal Counsel.

Only individuals who have suffered a temporary total disability and have received compensation under the industrial insurance laws of this state, any other state or the United States for a period of not less than thirteen consecutive calendar weeks by reason of such temporary total disability shall be allowed the benefits of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. An application for initial determination made pursuant to this chapter, to be considered timely, must be filed in writing with the employment security department within twenty-six weeks following the week in which the period of temporary total disability commenced. Notice from the department of labor and industries shall satisfy this requirement. The records of the agency supervising the award of compensation shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of temporary disability and the beginning date of such disability. The employment security department shall process and issue an initial determination of entitlement or nonentitlement as the case may be.

For the purpose of this chapter, a special base year is established for an individual consisting of the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately prior to the first day of the calendar week in which the individual's temporary total disability commenced, and a special individual benefit year is established consisting of the entire period of disability and a fifty-two consecutive week period commencing with the first day of the calendar week immediately following the week or part thereof with respect to which the individual received his final temporary total disability compensation under the applicable industrial insurance laws except that no special benefit year shall have a duration in excess of three hundred and twelve calendar weeks. Provided, however, That such special benefit year will not be established unless the criteria contained in RCW 50.04.030 have been met, except that an individual meeting the disability and filing requirements of this chapter and who has an unexpired benefit year established which would overlap the special benefit year provided by this chapter, notwithstanding the provisions in RCW 50.04.030 relating to the establishment of a subsequent benefit year and RCW 50.40.010 relating to waiver of rights, may elect to establish a special benefit year under this chapter. Provided, further, That the unexpired benefit year shall be terminated with the beginning of the special benefit year if the individual elects to establish such special benefit year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The individual's weekly benefit amount and maximum amount payable during the special benefit year shall be governed by the provision contained in RCW 50.20.120. The individual's basic and continuing right to benefits shall be governed by the general laws and regulations relating to the payment of unemployment compensation benefits to the extent that they are not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The fact that wages, hours or weeks worked during the special base year may have been used in the computation of a prior valid claim for unemployment compensation shall not affect a claim for benefits made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; however, wages, hours and weeks worked used in computing entitlement on a claim filed pursuant to this chapter shall not be available or used for establishing entitlement or amount of benefits in any succeeding benefit year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall be available only to individuals who suffer a temporary total disability, compensable by an industrial insurance program, after the effective date of this chapter.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Should any part of this chapter be declared unconstitutional by the final decision of any court or declared out of conformity by the United States secretary of labor, the commissioner shall immediately discontinue the payment of benefits based on this chapter, declare it inoperative and report that fact to the governor and the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 7 through 13 of this 1975 act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW and shall be codified as chapter 50.06 RCW.

Mr. Randall moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 15, line 13 strike subsection (4) of section 18.

Mr. Randall spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Eng and Parker spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Parker yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Your comments intrigue me, Representative Parker. You say that the Insurance Commissioner would have regulatory powers and yet in this section that he has exempted, the HMO's are exempted from any regulations by the insurance division. I can't quite reconcile those two statements."

Mr. Parker: "Well, Representative Newhouse, that would be under the health care contractor's portion of it. What it says really is that they are going to be licensed under the HMO act rather than under the health care contractor provision."

Mr. Randall spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Randall to page 15 of Substitute House Bill No. 40, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 36; nays, 59; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Hanna, Hendricks, Nelson.

Mr. Pardini moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 15, line 18 strike all of section 19 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Pardini and Haley spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Parker spoke against it.
Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Representative Pardini, I don't know much about this legislation, and I wonder whether you would explain a little more about what would happen in areas such as eastern Washington where the employees are maybe in a widely dispersed area, if the state has mandated that they go on something like that, if there aren't very many people within one area. How would they get the benefit from this?"

Mr. Pardini: "Representative Amen, understand that I am not a member of the Social and Health Services Committee nor the subcommittee that has worked on this. My understanding is that as a result of Representative Kuehnle and Representative Eng's amendment to this same section, that if the health maintenance organization is not within the geographic area then you don't have to worry about it. In other words, if there is a health maintenance organization in the Spokane area and that's the closest one to Ritzville, which would be 60 miles away, I would suspect that probably the decision would be made that that 60 miles does not constitute being within the geographic area. If the decision were made that it were in the geographic area, your employers, with this section in the bill, would have to offer that as an option to their employees. They might, if it were within the geographic area, and I don't know what the geographic area is—60 miles, 100 miles—how far do you go to a doctor? I guess that's one of the questions that I am raising."

Representatives Pardini and Curtis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Eng and Douthwaite spoke against it.

Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Pardini, Mr. Douthwaite in his remarks inferred that the employees could sue the health maintenance organization. In the action that was taken in turning down an amendment earlier, we have taken out the supervision by the Insurance Commissioner. Would you read this section, subsection (4), in section 19 as allowing employees to sue the health maintenance organization?"

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Newhouse, my interpretation of subsection (4) is not the same as Representative Douthwaite's. I believe Representative Douthwaite indicated that any employer could bring suit against the health maintenance organization and I believe that subsection (4) says that they can bring suit against the employer for failing to offer them the option. I do believe however that subsection (4) on page 15, if that is what Representative Douthwaite was referring to—the section that Representative Randall tried to strike, which does not bring them in under the Insurance Commissioner—might leave a great deal of doubt as to whether suit could be brought against a health maintenance organization because they are not going to be registered the same as health care contractors—the health insurance. That section of the Code provides where suit can be brought, so I think that maybe Representative Douthwaite has brought to light a very grievous error in this bill."

Representatives Eng, Douthwaite, Parker and Greengo spoke against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Eng yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "Would you define a little bit more what you would consider a geographic area that would be served by an HMO—what you would call distances that were alluded to—as to how many miles that would be?"

Mr. Eng: "I think that would be resolved in the RCW's in relation to the Insurance Commissioner as to the geographic area."

Mr. Zimmerman: "Representative Eng, I understand that it has been taken out of the Insurance Commissioner's hands and so it would not be resolved that way."

Mr. Eng: "That's not true. The whole bill specifically states that the Insurance Commissioner shall be the regulator of this act."

Mr. Zimmerman: "I'm still concerned as to our having the intention stated here on the floor as to the geographic distance, because this bill revolves around that matter."
NINETEENTH DAY, APRIL 1, 1975 751

Mr. Eng: "The intent is that if HMO's are within an area that a person can get to within a reasonable time to get quality health care that this be considered, but we have no intention here of putting any awkward regulations in the way of getting health care."

Mr. Zimmerman: "I'm concerned about the geographical size. In other words, are Cosmopolis and Aberdeen in the same geographical area?"

Mr. Eng: "I don't know that area at all, so I can't answer that."

Mr. Zimmerman: "I know this seems like rather a ridiculous question, but the distance and the involvement of that geographical thing is really what we are talking about in terms of what you mandate or not mandate. Representative Parker, maybe you could respond to that?"

Mr. Parker: "I just talked to our attorney to make sure that I was correct on this point. In the issuance of the certificates to the HMO, the geographic region of service would be outlined. Now what would happen in the process, is that when you made application for certification as an HMO, you would outline what you felt was your geographic area. Now the Insurance Commissioner, in issuing that certificate through his rules and regulations power, could establish the procedure whereby he was going to determine whether or not he should issue the certificate for that geographic area and I think you would have to show in that case that you have the ability to perform services in the geographical area that you had applied for. I don't think that this would create a problem, Representative Zimmerman. I am sure it would be very well defined by the Insurance Commissioner."

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pardini to Substitute House Bill No. 40, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 30; nays, 65; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Hanna, Hendricks, Nelson.

On page 1, line 11 after "law" strike down to and including "management" on line 14.

Representatives Brown and Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives North and Berentson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Brown, I was wondering if you might have any estimate of the amount of additional dollars out of the gas tax that would be required when we drop from cities of 15,000 down to 5,000? My second question is: I understand that we do have legislation now which changes the formula to reduce the share of the gas tax going to counties and that if we did not pass this particular piece of legislation that there would be a better opportunity to keep the counties' share up to the present ratio under the formula."

Mr. Brown: "I'm not totally sure on this and I don't think anybody could give a real accurate figure on what this would cost to change this definition of 'urban.' Simply if we take the ratio though—if we assume that they request as many projects as the present cities have, then we would in essence be increasing the demand on the fund by somewhere in the neighborhood of 20% to 25%. The fund already has a backlog so that we are just that much further in the hole. As far as the ratio of the gas tax to counties, it is my understanding that the answer to that would be yes."

Representatives Hansen and Berentson spoke in opposition to the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 2, line 3 following "arterials." strike all underlined language through line 5.

Representatives Charnley and North spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 47 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Mr. Zimmerman:
On page 1, line 13 after "clear opening" insert "of not less than twenty-two inches in least dimension and five square feet in area"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Zimmerman withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Zimmerman moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 17 after "on the inside" strike "and outside"

Mr. Zimmerman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Curtis spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Savage, Substitute House Bill No. 363 was substituted for House Bill No. 363, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Chandler: "Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House: There was a newspaper article written over the weekend in which I was quoted and there has been a lot of talk about that ever since. The writer of that article quoted me accurately and it is not my purpose to disagree with what he said. In fact I want to stand behind what I said; I do believe that money is spent to influence government and I believe that this has created or contributed to a lack of confidence in our government. I also believe that that endangers the very democratic system in which I so deeply believe.

Yesterday, Walt Knowles, a man I respect very much, said to me that in making the statement I did that the impression was given that I was saying that he and others had been influenced by campaign contributions. I think he is right; that was the impression that was given. I have no right to say that and I apologize.

There is only person in here who I can say has been influenced by campaign contributions, whose political ambition and the belief that support from special interests will be important in the future, has allowed those factors to become an influence in decision-making, and that person is me. I would like to contribute to changing the system so that will no longer be the case."

Motion

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

Third Reading

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 40, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Eng, Adams, Parker, Ceccarelli and Maxie—by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Providing for health maintenance organizations.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Eng and Adams spoke in favor of the bill, and Representative Haley spoke against it.

Point of Inquiry

Mr. Eng yielded to question by Mr. Peterson.

Mr. Peterson: "Just a point of clarification: There is a section in here requiring employers which have 25 or more employees to offer the option of a group health plan. Suppose I had a small company of exactly 25 employees and had contracted with Aetna for a group insurance plan and had gotten certain rates because I had 25 employees. Now suppose some of these employees under this bill wish to join an HMO, which would reduce my number of employees, would I be required to make that offer or is it an HMO or Aetna? Do I have to make one or the other available to the employees?"

Mr. Eng: "Representative Peterson, what is required under this bill is that if you have 25 employees or more you have to offer, under a due choice, HMO's as one of the alternatives for the employees to pick from. You can have Aetna; you can have a Group Health or an HMO or you can have Blue Cross and the employees can pick from one of these as his choice of medical care."

Mr. Peterson: "The concern I have is—suppose you have agreed with Aetna for 25 employees and that is the basis upon which you get your group rate. Now 10 employees decide to go to an HMO, and you've lost that 25-employee group rate and the other 15 employees would have to pay a higher rate. Am I correct on that?"

Mr. Eng: "In (3) on page 16 it states that 'No employer in this state shall be required to pay more for health benefits as a result of the application of this section...' and that is the section that you are referring to. What we are trying to do here is make sure that HMO's are offered as an alternative to the other plans and that this does not incur added cost to you."

Mr. Peterson: "What I am saying is that if you have a group rate that a commercial company has established at 25 employees and now, under this bill, you have to offer a choice, so some number of those employees move to an HMO and that destroys the group rate for the regular commercial insurance that you had before. Could it, in fact, increase the insurance rates for the employees of that group?"

Mr. Eng: "My understanding is that the answer is no. The HMO's can only offer competitive pricing, the same price the other insurance or health care policy offered."

Mr. Peterson: "In other words, could a company say, 'You have two choices,' and the employees can vote on it, whether in a collective bargaining unit or not, they could offer you either an HMO or x-brand insurance company, take your choice?"

Mr. Eng: "No, you have to offer both. You can offer a dual choice and the employees take whichever they want."

Mr. Freeman spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Adams yielded to question by Mr. Leckenby.

Mr. Leckenby: "Dr. Adams, I didn't get a clear answer from the questions that took place before with Representative Eng. I would like to ask if there is a company that has more than 25 employees that negotiates for a health care contract with a union, for instance, is there a clear-cut choice whether you have an HMO or an alternative from another carrier or is the company faced with the possibility of having to carry two programs?"

Mr. Adams: "As I understand it, you would have the choice of the one you wish to be under. The majority, as I understand it, would take you into that insurance or into the HMO."

Mr. Leckenby: "In other words, a company would not have to carry two programs at the same time?"

Mr. Adams: "That's the way I understand it."

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Randall spoke against it.

Mr. Newhouse demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 40, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 73; nays, 22; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Chandler, Deccio, Williams.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 44, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 58, by Committee on Commerce (Originally sponsored by Representatives Ehlers, Gallagher and Rick Smith):

Requiring emergency exits for mobile homes.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Ehlers spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eltlers yielded to question by Mr. Zimmermann.

Mr. Zimmermann: "How many mobile home fire fatalities have there been in the state of Washington in the last few years? Do you have some figures?"

Mr. Ehlers: "Somewhere in the bibliography that I gave you, Representative Zimmermann, there was an item from the fire association which included those figures. I think it's something in the neighborhood of 15 in the last few years--I can't remember exactly. It's pretty consistent with the national figures of other states which indicate that whenever there is a fire the chance of a fatality in a mobile home fire is twice that of a conventional home. As far as the number of homes, Mr. Zimmermann, I would have to search the statistics. I believe it was in the neighborhood of 15 and I believe that was in half of the fire districts who reported; half of the districts in the survey did not respond."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 58, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 93; nays, 2; not voting, 3.

Voting nay: Representatives Bond, Kuehnle.

Not voting: Representatives Chandler, Decco, Williams.

HOUSE BILL NO. 284, by Representatives Hanna and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Authorizing increased payment for juvenile probation supervision.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Hanna and Parker spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Shinpoch and Curtis spoke against it.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hanna yielded to question by Mr. Leckenby.

Mr. Leckenby: "Representative Hanna, I believe you stated that the amount that would have been paid out had this program been fully funded for the past biennium would be some $1 million in excess of what actually was paid out. Is that correct?"

Mr. Hanna: "Yes, the counties earned more by the strict application to the formula than they received. There was not the money available."

Mr. Leckenby: "If they earned more than they received—if we pass this bill, then they will earn an additional amount which presumably they will not receive, so what's the use in passing this bill?"

Mr. Hanna: "No, this doesn't mean that they will earn any more because their plan has to be in two years ahead of time. It means that the plans for the rest of the biennium will fall within the existing amount of money with this change. This change will only apply to 9 of 22 counties."

Mr. Leckenby: "Well, but all of the 22 counties, when their plans for the two years ahead come in, would suppose that they would get $6,000 individually, isn't that right?"

Mr. Hanna: "That's right, but they have not used the formula where they had to make a two-year biennium projection. In the past it was done on a year-to-year basis. This is the first time that they have actually submitted a two-year projection. Representative Shinpoch is right, this is very likely to lead to a three million dollar request in the future. I don't think that's too aggressive when we are talking about keeping kids from developing a criminal life pattern. I think that's very realistic. We are talking about sentences that will provide more time in prison; we are talking about the death penalty. I don't think that giving more money to keep kids from getting that far along the road is a bit misdirected and I would be very happy to say, 'Representative Shinpoch, yes, we will be asking for more money for juvenile prevention.'"

Mr. Leckenby spoke against passage of the bill.

Mr. Luders demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 284, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 29; not voting, 4.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Parker and May spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Haley.

Mr. Haley: "On page 2, line 12 it says, 'The practice of optometry is defined as the examination of the human eye, the examination and diagnosis of the human vision system...' I am interested in knowing, Representative Randall, the legislative intent of the phrase 'diagnosis of the human vision system' what all does this include?"

Mr. Randall: "You have asked me for about half an hour's worth of explanation and I don't think the House really wants that. To explain all that would take a half an hour."

Mr. Haley: "Well, maybe you have missed what I am driving at. The ophthalmologists are concerned about this particular phrase and whether or not the optometrists would try to expand their field of practice."

Mr. Randall: "I doubt if the wording would expand the field of practice. The term 'diagnosis of the vision system' does include not only an analysis of the visible characteristics of the eye, whether or not there is a pathological problem involved, interpretation, there are many things that go into it. What we do now, of course, is to perform almost exactly as the wording of the bill states—the diagnosis of the way you see, your reaction to it, your interpretation, color, bounds—the whole gamut that goes into the analysis is now being practiced by optometrists. I think this language just puts it down in so many words."

Mr. Haley: "In other words, you'd say that the legislative intent is not to enlarge the field of practice of the optometrists?"

Mr. Randall: "I agree."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 308, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 90; nays, 4; not voting, 4.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Hawkins withdrew the amendment.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Mr. Hawkins moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 16 after "act" insert "PROVIDED, That each person desiring to vote in the presidential preference primary shall sign his or her name on a list, at the polling place, under the designation of the major political party primary in which he or she intends to vote, at which time the precinct election worker shall give such person the appropriate primary ballot."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to clarify what amendment we are working on. The arguments and the amendment aren't balancing each other out."

The Speaker: "We are working on the first amendment on page 1, line 16, and it says after 'act' insert 'PROVIDED'."

Mr. Thompson: "That's my understanding too, and yet Representative Hawkins advanced arguments for the withdrawal of presidential candidates which is in another amendment on this page. I guess I would ask the Chair for a further clarification or else provide Representative Hawkins another opportunity to speak to the correct amendment."

Mr. Hawkins spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Brown spoke against it.

Mr. Hawkins spoke again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

Representatives Moon and Peterson spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Thompson and King spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Hawkins to the committee amendment to House Bill No. 988, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 61; not voting, 7.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Blair, Deccio, Newhouse, Seeberger, Sommers, Whiteside.
POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Brown: "Mr. Speaker, in the preceding debate Representative Moon implied that I had made a misstatement regarding charges made against the blanket primary. I wish to state categorically that he is in error. A number of these complaints have been investigated thoroughly and have been disproved—as well as my statement that they have been proven, a number have been disproved."

Mr. Hawkins moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 4, line 20 beginning with "The names" strike all material down to and including "affiliation" on line 22 and insert "A separate ballot shall be printed for each major political party which has candidates whose names have been authorized for placement on presidential preference primary ballots under section 2 of this 1975 act. The names of all presidential candidates for a party's nomination for the office of president shall be listed alphabetically in a column on that party's ballot."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "It appears to me that this amendment is out of order with the defeat of the first amendment, and it should probably be withdrawn. Would the Chair rule on the propriety of giving consideration on page 4 inasmuch as the preceding amendment had been defeated?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Pardini, I think there is a definite merit to your contention that, since the first amendment was defeated, this amendment might add confusion to the bill, but I don't think it's substantially the same. I think that is a matter for the House to determine, whether they wish to consider the amendment or not."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Hawkins withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Hawkins moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 12 after "29.79.210." insert a new paragraph as follows: "The secretary of state shall place the name of the candidate on the ballot unless the candidate at least thirty-five days prior to such presidential preference primary shall execute and file with the secretary of state an affidavit stating without qualification that he is not now and does not intend to become a candidate for the office of president of the United States at the forthcoming presidential election."

Mr. Hawkins spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Smith (Rick).

Mr. Smith (Rick): "Representative King, is there any mechanism in the presidential primary legislation by which the decision of the Secretary of State to include a candidate he deems to be a contender for presidential nomination? Is there any provision to challenge that decision?"

Mr. King: "No, other than the fact that the procedure is one in which the Secretary of State can contact the chairmen of the major political parties in advance of making the decision of who should go on there and they have an opportunity to discuss it with him—whether or not they are reliable candidates, whether some should be added—that kind of thing. But no, this direction is the direction other states are going because of the tendency on the part of some candidates to withdraw simply because they don't want to get involved in that election. There might be, in the state of Washington, for example, if we should have someone from our state running, a tendency on the part of everybody to say 'I don't want to compete against somebody who is likely to be a favorite son of that particular state.' They might well end up in the presidential preference primary in Washington the first time around with only one name on, and that could happen in other states. Other states have recognized this and so they have not allowed candidates to withdraw their names because if they do you don't really have a primary election."

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.
Mr. Hawkins moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 26 after "first" strike "two ballots" and insert "ballot"
On page 3, line 29 after "or until" strike "two convention nominating ballots have" and insert "one convention nominating ballot has"

Mr. Hawkins spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment, and Mr. King spoke against them.

On page 3, line 4 after "than" strike "fifteen" and insert "ten"

Representatives Hawkins and Hurley (George) spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Thompson spoke against them.

Mr. Hawkins spoke again in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment, and Mr. King spoke against them.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Hawkins to page 3 of the committee amendment to House Bill No. 988, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 41; not voting, 6.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Deccio, Moon, Newhouse, Seeberger, Whiteside.

Mr. Hawkins moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 7 beginning with ": PROVIDED," strike all material down to and including "district" on line 11.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1975 act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this state on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, 1975, in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the state Constitution, as amended, and laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Curtis: "I have an amendment on the desk that comes one line ahead of this one. Would I be precluded from considering mine by the consideration of this amendment?"

The Speaker: "No, you wouldn't be, because this is not a striking amendment."

Representatives Hawkins, Hurley (George) and Haley spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives King and Pardini spoke against it.
POUND OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Ms. Maxie.

Ms. Maxie: "Representative King, it has been stated that House Bill No. 988 has a fiscal note of over a million dollars. My question to you is, has this been incorporated into the budget as presented to the caucus?"

Mr. King: "I would defer that question to Representative Bagnariol or Representative Shinpoch."

Ms. Maxie: "Are you a member of Ways and Means Committee?"

Mr. King: "I'm not on the Ways and Means Committee."

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Ms. Maxie.

Ms. Maxie: "My question is, has House Bill No. 988 been incorporated into the budget?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "Not in the budget document. As you know, Representative Maxie, when bills have a fiscal impact we attempt to let the bill carry its own appropriation. We have had the dollar amount in mind as we developed the budget. Remember there is only about $4,500 that will be spent during this biennium. The way this works, in effect, the primary election is in May of 1976, the local governments pick up the tab and they bill the state. We will pay that million dollars in the next biennium, so it really won't impact this particular budget period."

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Gaspard, Thompson and O'Brien spoke in opposition to the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Peterson spoke in favor of it.

POUND OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Hurley (George).

Mr. Hurley (George): "In the Ways and Means Committee when we discussed the budget for education, did we not cut the handicapped program from $80 million to $70 million?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "We reduced it down to $73 million and the majority of the reduction came as a result of an audit as to the number of anticipated students that will be in that program—from 12,000 to less than 4,000."

Mr. Hurley (George): "But we did cut it, didn't we?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "The budget was reduced, yes."

Representatives Hurley (George), Cochrane and Ehlers spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Bagnariol spoke in opposition to it.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Hawkins to page 5 of the committee amendment to House Bill No. 988, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 50; not voting, 7.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mrs. North spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mrs. North yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "The intent I think is a good one, but as you know now there is a county official newspaper which must carry such bid specifications and now you are adding to this a second requirement which doesn't say 'or' it says 'and in a legal newspaper of general circulation.' What is the fiscal impact of this to the junior taxing districts and the other districts which must call for such bids? Do we have any such fiscal impact on that?"

Mrs. North: "Representative Ehlers, I'll try to clear up your question if I can. I'll take the last one first. I attempted to get a line on the fiscal impact. The only word I could receive was that it would be minimal. What is happening is there is indeed a newspaper which should cover all parts of the county and that would be the official newspaper. In practicality this doesn't work. Now it may work in Pierce County, but in King County, for instance, a job to be done in the Enumclaw area would appear in the Beacon Hill News, which is the official county paper. The people in Enumclaw would never see the Beacon Hill News; therefore it would be necessary to have it put in the Enumclaw Courier Herald, just to give you an example."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 301, by Representatives Hanna and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Authorizing additional leaves of absence for inmates of penal institutions.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Social and Health Services recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, Fifty-fourth Day, March 7, 1975.)

Mr. Adams moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment by Representatives Hurley (Margaret), Hanna and Berentson:

On line 4 of the House committee amendment after "purposes" insert "PROVIDED, That this item (3) shall not apply to any inmate serving a term of imprisonment for a conviction of murder in the first degree, as defined in RCW 9.48.030, or for a conviction of a crime defined in chapter 9.79.010 RCW, except during the last six months of the sentence."

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Hurley, this is a tricky question, but I would like to clarify this amendment. I was wondering of the last clause... 'except during the last six months of the sentence,'... does that apply to both those convicted of murder and those convicted of rape, or just to those convicted of rape?"

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "It was intended, I am sure, to apply to both. Representative Hanna did bring that last phrase to me, perhaps you would like to address your question to him."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hanna yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Hanna, would you care to answer that question?"

Mr. Hanna: "Could you state it one more time, please?"

Mr. Tilly: "I was wondering on the amendment by you and Mrs. Hurley whether the last clause in the amendment, 'except during the last six months of the sentence'—does that apply to both those convicted of murder and convicted of rape, or only to those convicted of rape?"

Mr. Hanna: "Both."

Mr. Randall spoke in opposition to the amendment.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.
Mr. Hanna yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Hanna, in order to be able to judge the effect of the amendment to the amendment, I wonder if you might explain to me the purpose for and the effect of the original amendment—that is, the committee amendment, changing the language in the original bill?"

Mr. Hanna: "The reason that the bill was amended in the committee was that we tried to make every effort to lean over backwards to the minority members on the committee who felt strongly that it was too general, allowed too much leeway and decision by the institution and the superintendent. So we felt that it was reasonable to go that far with it."

Representatives Berentson, Greengo, Deccio, Savage and Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Representatives Randall, Adams and Douthwaite spoke against it.

Ms. Becker: "Mr. Speaker, I believe there is an amendment to the amendment to the committee amendment on the desk. Could I speak to that?"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Eikenberry: "I believe that is one amendment too many for our rules, Mr. Speaker."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your point is well taken, Representative Eikenberry. Representative Becker, we can act on this amendment and then if it is defeated you can offer your amendment to the committee amendment."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representatives Hurley (Margaret), Hanna and Berentson to the committee amendment to House Bill No. 301, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 22; not voting, 7.

Mr. Deccio moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Deccio and Hurley (Margaret) to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 17 after "contests," strike all material down to and including "rehabilitative purposes:" and insert "and organized classes of education at an educational institution;"

Mr. Deccio spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Hanna: "I would like to request that the discussion focus on the bill at hand. So far we have been talking about three different amendments in three different ways and I think we should confine the discussion to the bill and the amendment at hand. We are not talking about the furlough bill, which never came out of committee and probably never will. I don't think we should sink this with that."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Deccio, will you confine your remarks to your amendment to the committee amendment?"

Mr. Deccio continued his remarks in favor of the amendment.
TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, APRIL 7, 1975

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Randall: "Mr. Speaker, we have already cut the committee amendment where it says 'to include rehabilitative purposes,' and the amendment in front of us strikes 'rehabilitative purposes' and I think that is contrary to our rules of operation."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The committee amendment hasn't been adopted as yet and this is an amendment to the committee amendment."

Representatives Deccio and Eikenberry spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Hanna spoke against it.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Deccio, Haley and Hurley (Margaret) spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Deccio and Hurley (Margaret) to the committee amendment to House Bill No. 301, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 34; not voting, 5.

Not voting: Representatives Eng, Flanagan, Freeman, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

Mr. Eikenberry moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 21 after "attention" insert": PROVIDED, That the superintendent who grants a leave of absence shall be personally civilly liable for acts of an inmate committed during such leave of absence when the superintendent either (1) knew or (2) in the course of exercising professional judgment and discretion, should have known that (a) granting the leave of absence would create a clear and present danger to the safety of persons and property or (b) would probably result in harm to persons or property"

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Not being an attorney, I don't know how this personal civil liability would act in a case like this. Suppose, for example in the case you mentioned, what would you come back to Warden Rhay to charge him with being civilly liable for, how much, and how would that be a practical amendment? How would this possibly be able to work?"

Mr. Eikenberry: "Representative Douthwaite, I thank you for asking the question because it's raising an important point. There is no problem here, we simply resort to the practice of civil law that has existed in the state for a hundred years or whatever the time is. In other words, law suits occur frequently because of a homicide and the problem of establishing a value and the problem of establishing liability is nothing new at all. Of course here in the proposed amendment we have set out the test, which would be that in view of the fact that the warden knew or should have known that granting the leave would create a clear and present danger—or in the alternative would probably result in harm to persons or property."

Mr. Douthwaite: "Well, about how much money would you expect that a bond, which would be required for a person like Warden Rhay to have, would cost so that he could exercise any discretion of this kind?"

Mr. Eikenberry: "That's a problem on down the road for a person in Warden Rhay's capacity to work out. Frankly, I'm not concerned about that because we are discussing here a policy issue. Are we going to put the burden on the person in Warden Rhay's position to assess these things accurately—to have insurance, or to set up a program to make sure that these things don’t occur? Or do we put the risk and the burden on the individual in the community who’s going to be killed or injured? I submit that the burden properly belongs on Warden Rhay."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry yielded to question by Mr. King.

Mr. King: "By making a particular officer of the state civilly liable, what effect would this have on the liability of the state, if any?"

Mr. Eikenberry: "Representative King, it’s entirely possible that this liability would rebound eventually to the state; however, the point of this amendment is to also make that individual, who is the superintendent exercising these professional capacities, very cognizant of that liability on both himself and the state. The point here is that individuals in a position such as the warden become so totally client-oriented or patient-oriented (or whatever the right word is) that they tend to lose track of community safety and concern. What I’m saying is that by having personal responsibilities placed on persons such as Warden Rhay then they must be doubly aware of what they are doing to the citizens when they grant a leave of absence in a case like Arthur St. Peter."

Mr. King: "Representative Eikenberry, it is my understanding then, and this is only from my memory, that citizens in this state have been successful in suits against the state of Washington for the actions of individuals who have been on leave—this is just from memory, you probably are much more aware of what has occurred than I am—but I’m concerned about whether or not this kind of language would limit the liability of the state and make the individual go to a particular individual who may not have the money to be sued in that instance. I’m concerned about whether or not by making an officer of the state liable, that the state itself can be liable."

Mr. Eikenberry: "Representative King, you raise two points: First of all, the trend has not been to hold the state responsible. You may well recall we passed appropriations here on the floor of this House to try to make whole some individuals who have suffered damage or injuries because of runaways—I believe it was from Green Hill. The decision was that the state could not be sued for not properly securing that youngster who ran away and burned down the home of this lady that we tried to make whole by passing an appropriation here. If this law passes, if this amendment becomes law, I’m sure that one of the steps that will be taken is for the warden and people in his position to take out insurance to cover themselves in this capacity or to work out a contractual arrangement so that the state will indemnify the warden. Nevertheless, by having this within the law, that individual realizes that he is on the line and that he, personally, is causing the taxpayers to have to pay out this money, or for himself, hopefully, to suffer some kind of monetary loss because of the ridiculous kind of judgment exercised in the St. Peter case."

MOTION

Mr. Charette moved that further action on today’s calendar be deferred, and the bills be ordered placed on tomorrow’s calendar.

Mr. Charette spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Eikenberry spoke against it.

Mr. Charette spoke again in favor of the motion, and Mr. Pardini spoke against it.

Mr. Charette spoke again in favor of the motion, and it was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 8, 1975.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

April 4, 1975

HOUSE BILL NO. 971, Prime Sponsor: Representative Randall, pertaining to taxation of leasehold interest. Reported by Committee on Ways and Means – Revenue.
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Beginning on page 1 after the enacting clause, strike all matter down to and including "RCW 84.36-.460." on page 10, line 18 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby recognizes that properties of the state of Washington, counties, school districts, and other municipal corporations are exempted by Article 7, section 1 of the state Constitution from property tax obligations, but that private lessees of such public properties receive substantial benefits from governmental services provided by units of government.

The legislature further recognizes that a uniform method of taxation should apply to such leasehold interests in publicly-owned property.

The legislature finds that lessees of publicly owned property are entitled to those same governmental services and does hereby provide for a leasehold excise tax to fairly compensate governmental units for services rendered to such lessees of publicly owned property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter the following terms shall be defined as follows, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Leasehold interest" shall mean an interest in publicly owned real or personal property which exists by virtue of any lease, permit, license, or any other agreement, written or verbal, between the public owner of the property and a person who would not be exempt from property taxes if that person owned the property in fee, granting possession and use, to a degree less than fee simple ownership: PROVIDED, That no interest in personal property which is owned by the United States, whether or not as trustee, or by any foreign government shall constitute a leasehold interest hereunder when the right to use such property is granted pursuant to a contract solely for the manufacture or production of articles for sale to the United States or any foreign government. The term "leasehold interest" shall not include road or utility easements.

(2) "Taxable rent" shall mean contract rent as defined in subsection (a) of this section in all cases where the lease or agreement has been established through competitive bidding, or negotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor: PROVIDED. That after January 1, 1986, with respect to any lease which has been in effect for ten years or more without renegotiation, taxable rent may be established by procedures set forth in subsection (b) of this subsection (2). All other leasehold interests shall be subject to the determination of taxable rent under the terms of subsection (b) of this section.

(a) "Contract rent" shall mean the amount of consideration due as payment for a leasehold interest, including: The total of cash payments made to the lessor or to another party for the benefit of the lessor according to the requirements of the lease or agreement; expenditures for the protection of the lessor's interest when required by the terms of the lease or agreement; and expenditures for improvements to the property to the extent that such improvements become the property of the lessor. Where the consideration conveyed for the leasehold interest is made in combination with payment for concession or other rights granted by the lessor, only that portion of such payment which represents consideration for the leasehold interest shall be part of contract rent.

"Contract rent" shall not include: (i) Expenditures made by the lessee, which under the terms of the lease or agreement, are to be reimbursed by the lessor to the lessee; (ii) Expenditures made by the lessee for the replacement or repair of facilities due to fire or other casualty or for alterations or additions made necessary by an action of government taken after the date of the execution of the lease or agreement; (iii) Improvements added to publicly owned property by a sublessee under an agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976; (iv) Improvements added by a sublessee of the same lessee under a similar agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976; (v) Improvements added to publicly owned property taxed as personal property to any person after January 1, 1976.

Any prepaid contract rent shall be considered to have been paid in the year due and not in the year actually paid with respect to prepayment for a period of more than one year. Expenditures for improvements with a useful life of more than one year which are included as part of contract rent shall be treated as prepaid contract rent and prorated over the useful life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease or agreement if the useful life is in excess of the remaining term of the lease or agreement. Rent prepaid prior to January 1, 1976, shall be prorated from the date of prepayment.

With respect to a "product lease", the value of agricultural products received as rent shall be the value at the place of delivery as of the fifteenth day of the month of delivery; with respect to all other products received as contract rent, the value shall be that value determined at the time of sale under terms of the lease.

(b) If it shall be determined by the department of revenue, upon examination of a lessee's accounts or those of a lessor of publicly owned property, that a lessee is occupying or using publicly owned property in such a manner as to create a leasehold interest and that such leasehold interest has not been established through competitive bidding, or negotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor, the department may establish a taxable rent computation for use in determining the tax payable under authority granted in this chapter based upon the following criteria: (i) Consideration shall be given to rental being paid to other lessors by lessees of similar property for similar purposes over similar periods of time; (ii) consideration shall be given to what would be considered a fair rate of return on the market value of the property leased less reasonable deductions for any... restrictions on use, special operating requirements or provisions for concurrent use by the lessor, another person or the general public.

(3) "Product lease" as used in this chapter shall mean a lease of property for use in the production of agricultural or marine products to the extent that such lease provides for the contract rent to be paid by the delivery of a stated percentage of the production of such agricultural or marine products to the credit of the lessor or the payment to the lessor of a stated percentage of the proceeds from the sale of such products.

(4) "Renegotiated" means a change in the lease agreement which changes the agreed time of possession, restrictions on use, the rate of the cash rental or of any other consideration payable by the lessee to or for the benefit of the lessor, other than any such change required by the terms of the lease or agreement. In addition "renegotiated" shall mean a continuation of possession by the lessee beyond the date when, under the terms of the lease agreement, the lessee had the right to vacate the premises without any further liability to the lessor.

(5) "City" means any city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby levied and shall be collected a leasehold excise tax on the act or privilege of occupying or using publicly owned real or personal property through a leasehold interest at a rate of twelve percent of taxable rent: PROVIDED, That after the computation of the tax there shall be allowed credit for any tax collected pursuant to section 4 of this 1975 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislative body of any county or city is hereby authorized to levy and collect a leasehold excise tax on the act or privilege of occupying or using publicly owned real or personal property through a leasehold interest in publicly owned property within the territorial limits of such county or city. The tax levied by a county under authority of this section shall not exceed six percent and the tax levied by a city shall not exceed four percent of taxable rent: PROVIDED, That any county ordinance levying such tax shall contain a provision allowing a credit against the county tax for the full amount of any city tax imposed upon the same taxable event.

The department of revenue shall perform the collection of such taxes on behalf of such county or city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The leasehold excise taxes provided for in sections 3 and 4 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be paid by the lessee to the lessor and the lessor shall collect such tax and remit the same to the department of revenue. The tax shall be payable at the same time as payments are due to the lessor for use of the property from which the leasehold interest arises, and in the case of payment of contract rent to a person other than the lessor, at the time of payment. The tax payment shall be accompanied by such information as the department of revenue may require. In the case of prepaid contract rent the payment may be prorated in accordance with instructions of the department of revenue and the prorated portion of the tax shall be due, one-half not later than May 31 and the other half not later than November 30 each year.

(2) The lessor receiving taxes payable under the provisions of this chapter shall remit the same together with a return provided by the department, to the department of revenue on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the tax is collected. The department may relieve any taxpayer or class of taxpayers from the obligation of filing monthly returns and may require the return to cover other reporting periods, but in no event shall returns be filed for a period greater than one year. The lessor shall be fully liable for collection and remittance of the tax. The amount of tax until paid by the lessee to the lessor shall constitute a debt from the lessee to the lessor. The tax required by this chapter to be fully paid by the lessee to the lessor and from the lessor to the department, the contract rent does not include the tax imposed by this chapter. Where a lessee has failed to pay to the lessor the tax imposed by this chapter and the lessor has not paid the amount of the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the lessee for collection of the tax: PROVIDED, That taxes due where contract rent has not been paid shall be reported by the lessor to the department and the lessee alone shall be liable for payment of the tax to the department.

(3) Each person having a leasehold interest subject to the tax provided for in this chapter arising out of a lease of federally owned or federal trust lands shall report and remit the tax due directly to the department of revenue in the same manner and at the same time as the lessor would be required to report and remit the tax if such lessor were a state public entity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. All administrative provisions in chapters 82.02 and 82.32 RCW, as now or hereafter amended shall be applicable to taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter: PROVIDED, That this section shall not authorize the issuance of any levy upon any property owned by the public lessor.

In selecting leasehold excise tax returns for audit the department of revenue shall give priority to any return an audit of which is specifically requested in writing by the county assessor or treasurer or chief financial officer of any city or county affected by such return. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 82.32.330, determinations of the amount of taxable rent made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be part of the public record.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. All moneys received by the department of revenue from taxes levied under provisions of section 3 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and deposited in the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The counties and cities shall contract, prior to the effective date of an ordinance imposing a leasehold excise tax, with the department of revenue for administration and collection. The department of revenue shall deduct a percentage amount, as provided by such contract, not to exceed one percent of the taxes collected, for administration and collection expenses incurred by the department.
The remainder of any portion of any tax authorized by section 4 of this 1975 amendatory act which is collected by the department of revenue shall be deposited by the state department of revenue in a special fund under the custody of the state treasurer to be known as the local leasehold excise tax revolving fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Bimonthly the state treasurer shall make distribution from the local leasehold excise tax revolving fund to the counties and cities the amount of tax collected on behalf of each county or city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any moneys received by a county from the leasehold excise tax provided for under section 4 of this 1975 amendatory act may be allocated to the county current expense fund and may, at the sole discretion of the county legislative body, be distributed to any taxing district authorized to make a regular property tax levy as defined in RCW 84.04.140 in such proportion as the county legislative body shall deem equitable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It is the intent of this chapter that any local leasehold excise tax adopted pursuant to this chapter be as consistent and uniform as possible with the state leasehold excise tax. It is further the intent of this chapter that the local leasehold excise tax shall be imposed upon any individual taxable event simultaneously with the imposition of the state leasehold excise tax upon the same taxable event. The department shall, as soon as practicable, and with the assistance of the appropriate associations of county prosecutors and city attorneys, draft a model ordinance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. After computation of the taxes imposed pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of this 1975 amendatory act there shall be allowed the following credits in determining the tax payable:

(1) With respect to a leasehold interest arising out of any lease or agreement, the terms of which were binding on the lessee prior to July 1, 1970, where such lease or agreement has not been renegotiated since that date, and excluding from such credit any leasehold interest arising out of any lease of property covered by the provisions of RCW 28B.20.394, as follows:

With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1976, a credit equal to eighty percent of the tax otherwise due.

With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1977, a credit equal to sixty percent of the tax otherwise due.

With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1978, a credit equal to forty percent of the tax otherwise due.

With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1979, a credit equal to twenty percent of the tax otherwise due.

(2) With respect to a product lease, a credit of thirty-three percent of the tax otherwise due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The following leasehold interests shall be exempt from taxes imposed pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of this 1975 amendatory act:

(1) All leasehold interests constituting a part of the operating properties of any public utility which is assessed and taxed as a public utility pursuant to chapter 84.12 RCW.

(2) All leasehold interests in facilities owned or used by a school, college or university which leasehold provides housing for students and which is otherwise exempt from taxation under provisions of RCW 84.36.010 and 84.36.050.

(3) All leasehold interests of subsidized housing where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the government of the United States, or the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof but only if income qualification exists for such housing.

(4) All leasehold interests used for fair purposes of a nonprofit fair association that sponsors or conducts a fair or fairs which receive support from revenues collected pursuant to RCW 67.16.100 and allocated by the director of the department of agriculture where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the government of the United States, the state of Washington or any of its political subdivisions: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to the leasehold interest of any sublessee of such nonprofit fair association if such leasehold interest would be taxable if it were the primary lease.

(5) All leasehold interests in state forest lands as defined in chapter 76.12 RCW.

(6) All leasehold interests in any property of any public entity used as a residence by an employee of that public entity who is required as a condition of employment to live in the publicly owned property.

(7) All leasehold interests held by enrolled Indians of lands owned or held by any Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in or held in trust by the United States.

(8) All leasehold interests for which annual taxable rent is less than two hundred fifty dollars per year. For purposes of this subsection leasehold interests held by the same lessee in contiguous properties owned by the same lessor shall be deemed a single leasehold interest.

(9) All leasehold interests to the extent that they grant to the lessee the right of use or possession of the leased property for a continuous period of less than thirty days. For purposes of this subsection successive leases or lease renewals giving continuous right of use or possession of the same property to the same lessee shall be deemed a single leasehold interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The following property shall be exempt from taxation:

Any and all rights to occupy or use any real or personal property owned in fee or held in trust by the United States, the state of Washington, or any political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state of Washington, including any leasehold interest arising from such property as defined in section 2 of this 1975 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to any such leasehold interests which are a part of operating properties of public utilities subject to assessment under chapter 84.12 RCW nor be construed to modify the provisions of RCW 84.40.230.

Sec. 15. Section 84.40.175, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.175 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time of making the assessment of real property, the assessor shall enter each description of property exempt under the provisions of RCW 84.36.005 through 84.36.060, and value and list the same in the manner and subject to the same rule as he is required to assess all other property, designating in each case to whom such property belongs, and for what purpose used, to entitle it to exemption, and he shall require from every person claiming such exemption proof of the right to such exemption: PROVIDED, That with respect to publicly owned property exempt from taxation under provisions of RCW 84.36.010, the assessor shall value only such property as is leased to or occupied by a private person under an agreement allowing such person to occupy or use such property for a private purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The department of revenue of the state of Washington shall make such rules and regulations consistent with chapter 34.04 RCW and the provisions of this 1975 amendatory act as shall be necessary to permit its effective administration including procedures for collection and remittance of taxes imposed by this chapter, and for intervention by the cities and counties levying under section 4 of this 1975 amendatory act, in proceedings involving such levies and taxes collected pursuant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. All assessments or levies of property taxes for collection in calendar year 1976 are hereby canceled with respect to values arising out of property exempted by section 14 of this 1975 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Notwithstanding any other provision of this 1975 amendatory act, improvements owned or being acquired by contract purchase or otherwise by any sublessee shall be taxable to such sublessee under Title 84 RCW.

To Committee on Rules for second reading.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 301, by Representatives Hanna and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Authorizing additional leaves of absence for inmates of penal institutions.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Eikenberry to page 1, line 21.

Mr. Leckenby moved adoption of the following amendment to the Eikenberry amendment:

On lines 1 and 3 of the amendment strike "superintendent" and insert "secretary of the department of social and health services"
Mr. Leckenby spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Eikenberry, Hanna, Deccio, Parker and Ceccarelli spoke against it.

Mr. Leckenby spoke again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hanna yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "On page 1, lines 9 and 10, it changes 'subject to the approval of the director of the department of institutions' (which has been struck) to 'this bill provides that subject to the approval of the secretary of the department of social and health services grant leaves of absence.' Would you explain to the body why that change was made?"

Mr. Hanna: "That's simply a housekeeping amendment there. We no longer have a Director of Institutions since the formation of the super agency. Now all legislation is routinely being changed to Secretary rather than Director."

Mr. Deccio: "If the arguments for Representative Eikenberry's amendment are valid, why would the approval have to lie with the Secretary of DSHS rather than with the warden or the superintendent of the institution where leaves are taking place?"

Mr. Hanna: "They would not. He has the power to delegate that responsibility, which is the normal circumstance. What we are saying in this proposed amendment is that he is personally civilly liable no matter, delegation or not."

Mr. Eikenberry again spoke against adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and it was not adopted.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be adoption of the amendment by Mr. Eikenberry.

Representatives Eikenberry and Hurley (Margaret) spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Douthwaite, Parker and Hanna spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Eikenberry to House Bill No. 301, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 51; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Hayner.

Mr. Deccio moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Deccio and Hurley (Margaret):

On page 1, line 22 after "medical attention" strike the period and insert ";"

(6) There will be required one professional guard in attendance at all times for each three prisoners granted leave;

(7) There will be required one professional guard in attendance at all times for each prisoner granted furlough.

Mr. Deccio moved adoption of the following amendment to the Deccio/Hurley amendment:

Strike subsection (7).

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Parker: "I would inquire as to scope and object of the second subsection of this amendment. Would that be brought up now or after the amendment to the amendment? I would like to request that we divide the question. I could then question his second amendment or I could challenge his entire amendment as being beyond the scope and object of the bill."
The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Chair will recognize a motion to divide the question."

On motion of Mr. Parker, the amendment by Representatives Deccio and Hurley (Margaret) was divided.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Deccio and Hurley (Margaret), adding a new subsection (6).

Representatives Deccio and Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Parker and Hanna spoke against it.

Mr. Deccio again spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Deccio yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Does this program apply in any way to the resident-release program which is in operation at the University of Washington or Washington State University?"

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Douthwaite, there are many programs conducted by the department and this deals with leaves. Of course, at some point I was hoping we could take care of furloughs and the work-release program."

Mr. Douthwaite: "In the resident-release program, these students are full-time in residence at the University studying—do they have to have a guard for every three of them?"

Mr. Deccio: "We are dealing with leaves. Now if that comes under the leave program, that's exactly what I mean."

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call vote, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Bond.

Mr. Bond: "I kind of sympathize with your objectives here; however I have a question about some other areas, such as libraries, for example. When you mandate a certain amount of money—I've already heard that in some instances they don't need that much money. How do you get around that sort of problem? They will probably spend that money anyway."

Mr. Shinpoch: "I would suggest at this time that whatever agency—and we happen to be talking about the community college agency—come in and tell this legislature that they need so much money, whether it's derived through a formula or whether it's derived straight across, both of them come out to the same thing—when they said that they needed so much money for libraries and we budgeted for that—I would suggest that it's about time that they spent it there. Now if they need it somewhere else, then let them justify to this legislature where they are going to spend it."

Mr. Smith (Edward): "I haven't had those figures, sir. As I understand the figures made by your staff this morning, the total would come up to the $12 million that I'm trying to get equity with. I can't tell you what the numbers total."

MOTION

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "I would cite to you Reed's Rule 204, 'A question can be reconsidered only once... I believe that we have reconsidered that situation once before and we are now going back the second time.'"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Pardini, we considered the language on page 2, beginning on line 17 and that's the striking language; this is the amendment regarding the increase of approximately $2 million to the appropriation on page 2, line 32, which was not reconsidered. A motion to reconsider was not made at that time."

Representatives Smith (Rick) and Bagnariol spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Curtis spoke against it.
TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, APRIL 8, 1975

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Chamley: "I am still confused about the sequence of action here. We have agreed to reconsider the amendment to page 3, line 14; Representative Smith is moving to reconsider the vote on the amendment to page 2, line 32. Is that correct?"

The Speaker: "That is correct."

Mr. Chamley: "I understand that the next one was defeated so it is no longer a considered action, but the next amendment was passed and accepted by this body, 98 to 0. Reed's Rule 205 says: 'A motion to reconsider must be made on the day on which the action sought to be revised was had, and before any action has been taken by the assembly in consequence of it.' I'm interpreting this as saying that the action we took on the amendment to page 3, line 10 is action in consequence."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "In reading Reed's Rule 204, it says: 'A motion to reconsider is not in order after action has been had by the assembly in consequence of the decision proposed to be reconsidered.' In checking this, we do not find that there was any action in between in direct consequence that the House's decision has made. I remember last session, when we got involved in the four-year colleges, there were a series of actions that were in consequence of one and we had to back up through them all. On this one, since it is a separate subject matter, the Speaker is ruling that it is not in consequence; that it is in a separate section and is a separate subject matter in that it is handling different funds."

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke again in favor of the motion for reconsideration, and Representatives Curtis and Douthwaite spoke against it.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Perry: "Is it proper to address an amendment to a bill that's been indefinitely postponed?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Perry, I think that technically any bill in committee is still before the body. Even though the particular committee might have indefinitely postponed it, that bill is still before the body and I think that it would be subject to argument if it is relevant, and in this particular case, I guess it's relevant—talking about business taxes versus student taxes."

Mr. Newhouse spoke against the motion to reconsider.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse refused to yield to question by Mr. Hurley (George).

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Perry: "I know that you ruled that the bill is still alive, but I wonder if, from here on in is it proper to write a contingency amendment on a measure which is not before us but in the committee and to assign money that's in one individual statute? I can't quite understand how one act shall deal with one subject matter and we appropriate money on a contingency basis on an act which is neither before us or passed. I can't understand how this is done. Could you tell me how you can earmark money out of a yet unpassed statute, and without any reference to what's within that statute?"

The Speaker: "The Speaker has not yet ruled on that particular proposition. When the matter is before me, if the point of order is raised, then we will have to approach it at that time."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representative Smith (Edward) to page 2, line 32 passed the House.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Mr. Leckenby moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 28 strike "16,618,808" and insert "15,618,808"

Mr. Leckenby spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Bagnariol and Pardini spoke against it.

Representatives Douthwaite and Eng spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eng yielded to question by Mr. Shinpoch.

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Eng, in the Governor's budget this item was $1,608,541 and I see by the amendment that you have upped that by another $391,000. Would you explain the rationale for that?"

Mr. Eng: "I called the OP program and I talked to one of the gentlemen who was down here and he said that this is the amount needed to see to it that the program is funded properly for this coming biennium in relation to the increased enrollment."
Mr. Shinpoch spoke in opposition to the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of it.

Beginning on page 3, line 30 strike all material down to and including "faculty member." on page 4, line 22.

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mrs. Hurley (Margaret).

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "Isn't this ratio provision that we have in the present budget bill also a floor as well as a ceiling? Aren't there some classes that are much smaller in ratio of students to teacher than what you have in the budget?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Actually, we talked to someone from each of the six institutions and it is an institution average for the level of course. If you looked at 600/700 level courses the ratio is 7 FTE students to one full-time equivalent faculty member for highest cost areas. It is an institution level."

Mrs. Hurley: "It wouldn't eliminate then the real small classes where one teacher instructs maybe five or six?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "No, I suspect that if you had three sections of a class and you had sixty students, you could conceivably wind up having ten in one class and twenty-five in two others. You could still meet the system average."

Mr. Blair spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Polk.

Mr. Polk: "Representative Shinpoch, the question seems to recur about the purpose of having these ratios inserted in the bill. I would call your attention to section 2, line 20 which states, '...the following authorizations and conditions which shall be strictly construed.' Is it your interpretation therefore of the insertion of these ratios that the institution must maintain an average in those course offerings to meet exactly those ratios?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "I think the answer to your question, very simply, is that the colleges have said that this is what they require and this is their spending plan. We are saying 'If you told us the truth, and that's really your spending plan, then here it is, in black and white for anybody to read.' You can interpret that out of it, that was not the original intent, but I think it's a good one. I think it's about time that they stood up and said 'Yes, that is our plan; what we told you we are going to do with it and what we told you that we needed at three and four level classes, six and seven level classes, that's really what we are going to spend it on. We are not going to ask for it in one place and spend it in another.' I think the end result turned out to be very good and I would suggest that is what we should be doing. If they tell us that they are going to spend it in one place, then I think they should spend it there. I don't think they should be telling us one thing and doing something else.'

Mr. Peterson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Douthwaite and Blair to page 3, line 30 of Substitute House Bill No. 864, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 64; not voting, 5.

Mr. Patterson spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patterson yielded to question by Mr. Berentson.

Mr. Berentson: "The way the amendment is worded there really isn't any reason to believe that this would earmark or take care of the problem that you are concerned about—the cost of agriculture. Could you comment on that?"

Mr. Patterson: "I recognize that, Representative Berentson. It's the only place—it's in the instructional budget. I hope that my remarks and the information that has been submitted by OPP&FM would indicate to the universities that the purpose of this amendment and the addition of these funds are to be used in the stacking formula for the college of agriculture."

Mr. Berentson: "You are depending on the discussion here on the floor to indicate legislative intent?"

Mr. Patterson: "That is right."

Mr. Patterson spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Shinpoch and Bagnariol spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Patterson to page 8, line 26 of Substitute House Bill No. 864, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 58; not voting, 3.

Mr. Shinpoch: "When you go from an older system into a data basis system that will be working off the terminals—Central is the first of the higher education institutions to have this computer and go into a consolidated system—when you change from one system to another system and go from second generation to third, then it is necessary that you go to a conversion of your program. You are using an entirely different approach; you must convert the programs in order to do that. It was my understanding originally that this was included in the data processing authorities budget, and that's where I would really have expected to see it, but my current understanding is that it is not. It doesn't really matter which one it is shown in as long as the job gets accomplished."

Representative Shinpoch, I would like you to explain please, how that will work; suppose a revision isn't necessary? It says 'nothing shall prevent revisions.' How would such revisions be able to be made under the type of provisions in the second section which Representative Polk is trying to amend?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Douthwaite, under the Budget and Accounting Act, once we have passed the budget, the agencies come in with an allotment request to OPP&FM and they either approve, modify, turn down, or whatever those allotment requests. There is a time limit that they have relative to making the allotment. Those allotments then become the spending plan and can be on a quarterly spending plan, or it is normally a monthly spending plan. What this language says is, that if in the Governor's cabinet in his department of revenue they estimate the revenues that are going to be available are less than was estimated, the Governor may declare an emergency—a fiscal emergency and may change those allotments downward in order to stay within the constitutional limitations relative to balancing this budget. If you will recall that's what we went through in 1970. We went through that same kind of procedure when the revenues did not meet the forecasts. We currently have a bill in the House that would change that allotment procedure; right now none of the elected officials have any ability to change the appropriation, even if revenues are not going to be available for any of the elected officials. Neither is higher education under the allotment procedure. In the bill that we have somewhere in the process, we would put higher education under OPP&FM's allotment procedure and we would put the elected officials under the legislature for that kind of a fiscal emergency. That's what the language is for. The rest of that section (if you will look at it) is contrary to what the maker of the motion and other people over there are saying. That section gives considerable flexibility to the department of OPP&FM if there is an emergent situation—if you can prove that there is a deviation required. Other than that, then it says that this legislature establishes policy, not OPP&FM. I would suggest to everyone who is concerned about this, read section 58 and read it very carefully; section 58 gives considerable flexibility."

Representatives Polk and Moon spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr.
Shinpoch spoke again in opposition.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Polk withdrew the amendment.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

The legislature finds that there is an emergent need to enact a program which will generate sufficient revenue and shift the tax burden away from property owners who must now support the maintenance and operation of the K-12 program of the common schools through the use of the special school levies.

In order to manifest its support for such a shift the legislature hereby creates a special account within the state general fund which shall be expended exclusively for the purpose of eliminating special or excess levies as a method of financing the K-12 program of our common schools. There is hereby appropriated to the special account created herein the sum of $500,000,000 (or so much thereof as is generated by a special levy relief act when it is passed by the legislature or the legislature and the people) for distribution by the superintendent of public instruction to the common school districts to be expended by such districts in lieu

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Whiteside.

Mr. Whiteside: "Representative Brown, if your amendment passes would it then lower the school levies in any school districts that have a static enrollment?"

Mr. Brown: "In a district with a static enrollment, if we take the freeze off, the pressure is going to be on for a decrease in the special levy. If this amendment passes it will take the pressure off for the simple reason that with the freeze removed then you would be following more closely to reality, and as your teacher-corps, as the experience factors increase, the instruction factors increase, then you would get more nearly what is actually required to pay the teachers in that district than you will with the freeze on."

Mr. Shinpoch spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Brown, in order to clarify this a little more I would like to have you explain to what extent this increases the staff experience weighting and how many more—what I call artificial pupils—are created by your amendment?"

Mr. Brown: "Well, if my memory is correct, Representative Flanagan, the factor would increase from .554 to .562, which would increase—if you wish to call them artificial pupils—by approximately five thousand."

Mr. Flanagan spoke against adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Peterson:

On page 4, line 36 insert a new section to read as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION - FOR SPECIAL LEVY RELIEF

It is the intent of the legislature that the allocation and expenditure of the funds appropriated hereby is to occur and be conditioned as follows: (a) The legislature of the state of Washington offering to the people at the next general election for their approval and ratification or rejection a tax program capable of generating revenue sufficient to replace all revenues generated or which would have been generated for the support of the common schools as a result of the imposition of excess levies approved by a vote of the people or which would have been generated as a result of such levies as were submitted to the people but which failed of approval and (b) the approval of that program by the people.

In the event of the approval by the people of that program offered by the legislature, then in that event the moneys hereby appropriated shall be allocated through such a formula as is established by the legislature at its next session.

Adopting a budget for the superintendent of public instruction.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of the following amendment by Representatives Luders, Bauer, Warnke, Fortson, King, Smith (Rick), Hanna, Ehlers, Laughlin, Douthwaite and North:

On page 4, line 35 strike "1,071,517,300" and insert "1,087,517,300"

Mr. Luders spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Representative Bagnariol, yesterday afternoon you made the statement that if this $16 million amendment were adopted there would probably be a tax increase. I realize that it was late in the afternoon; now that you have had time to think about it—I want to vote for this, but I don't want to vote for a tax increase, for a $16 million budget buster. Can you tell me specifically if this will require a tax increase, this $16 million?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "Representative Pardini, you voted for a tax increase when you increased the community college budget by $12 million. I suppose at this point in time we will have to wait and see how all of these budgets go. I think what Representative Luders is attempting to do is certainly merited as far as the meritorious issues are concerned, and I guess once we get through all these budgets we will have to readjust our totals, see just where we are in total dollars and then assess whether or not in fact we need a tax increase and in what amount."
Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on reconsideration of the amendment by Representative Luders and others to page 4, line 35 of Substitute House Bill No. 862, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 50; not voting, 0.

Mr. Luders moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Luders, Bauer, Parker, Seeberger, Kilbury, Hanna, Boldt, Hurley (Margaret), Cochrane, Warnke, Fortson, Valle, Knowles, Charette, Chatalas, Smith (Rick), King, Ehlers, McCormick, Laughlin, Douthwaite, North, Smith (Edward), Paris, Brown, Patterson, Greengo and Blair:

On page 5, line 33 strike "15" and insert "8"

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "I believe that Representative Luders' amendment comes later in the bill, deals with the same subject matter, and I have an amendment on page 5 which would increase the handicapped program by approximately $4 million. Under the circumstances the consideration of Mr. Luders' amendment first at $8 million might preclude consideration of my amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Pardini, I don't understand your point of order because yours is a striking amendment and the House always perfects the matter before it strikes."

Mr. Pardini: "I guess my question is concern about the level of spending—the amount of money. Mine is for $4 million and Representative Luders' is for $8 million. I'm fearful that, under the circumstances, by the consideration of the higher amount first, we might adopt that, and in the issue involved they might not want to drop to the lower amount."

The Speaker: "Right now, Representative Pardini, we are considering ratios and your amendment is striking the ratios. I think the House is entitled to perfect the ratios before they consider the striking of them. If you wish to modify, the easiest way would be an amendment to Representative Luders' amendment, when you get to that point that you wish to modify."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "I have an amendment that I'm interested in in the same area of special education, and mine is for less money than Representative Luders'. Will we still be able to consider mine if Mr. Luders' fails?"

The Speaker: "Representative Hurley, the way I understand these amendments is that the material that you are wishing to amend is involved in the various amendments that Representative Luders' are. When we get to the amount, which is the area that I think you are most concerned with, we usually start with the highest and then if that fails we go on down. If you want to directly attach it at that time it would be better to come in with an amendment to the amendment on the highest amendment, or take the chance that Mr. Luders' amendment would fail. If you don't want to put an amendment on the amendment, then if Representative Luders' amendment fails yours would be next in line."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Amen: "We are now on the one starting on page 5, line 33, strike '15' and insert '8'. Is that correct?"

The Speaker: "That is correct."

Mr. Amen: "Is this to be considered as one amendment? As I read it, this is written one way and Representative Hurley's is another way."
The Speaker: "These do affect different particular areas. Unless the House wanted to consider them all, they do really approach different subject matters. I think we should proceed through these individually because although they are affecting ratios, they are affecting ratios in different classroom categories."

Mr. Amen: "I see that, Mr. Speaker, but if we adopt the first three, then it would just about be mandatory that we adopt the last ones."

The Speaker: "If you didn't, then your first three would be useless. If you adopt the first three amendments, then you are talking about the next three amendments, which are the monetary ones."

Representatives Luders, Hurley (Margaret), Parker, Charnley and Cochrane spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mr. Nelson.

Mr. Nelson: "The other two speakers, Representatives Luders and Hurley, have spoken to their amendments and the thing that I am concerned about now is how your amendment fits in compared to these two. I've gotten a fair appreciation for what they are doing and I would like to hear more about what yours is doing so that I can get a complete picture of how all three of these should be considered by this body."

Mr. Pardini: "That's a difficult question to answer, but I will try. There are probably two differences between my amendment and Represenative Luders' amendment; probably the same two differences between mine and Representative Hurley's. My amendment would strike the ratio, strike it completely from the bill as we did yesterday in the university budgets. This body elected that we would not mandate those ratios. The ratios are critical in dealing with these handicapped children as to whether you have 15 to 1 or 10 to 1. My reason for striking those ratios is that the same ratios that Representatives Luders and Hurley proposed to go down to are already part of the Washington Administrative Code. They are the current ratios—isn't that correct, Representative Luders? They are part of the Washington Administrative Code, and because they are part I do not feel that they belong in the bill. Everything else that Representative Luders talks about—the 75% funding, which is going to go for psychologists, audiologists—my amendment does not touch those that would essentially remain the same. On the dollar amount I am somewhere in between Representative Hurley and Representative Luders. My amendment would add $2 million in the first year of the biennium and an additional $2 million in the second year of the biennium. Just for comparison, because there may be some confusion on this: In the 1973-75 biennium in the handicapped program, we spent $64,860,000. The bill as it is presently proposed from the Ways and Means Committee increases that to $70,325,000. My $4 million would further increase it to $74 million; Representative Luders' level of spending would be about $78 million, roughly, and Mrs. Hurley's is probably just a little bit less than that. That is essentially the difference, Representative Nelson."

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Luders yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "You mentioned that 75% of the psychologists' services would be funded and you did not clarify. I wondered, as far as intermediate school districts where they serve several counties, how will that affect those particular school districts in those counties where they serve where they have a multi-service area? Will they be losing, or will they not be served?"

Mr. Luders: "Representative Zimmerman, those psychologists and therapists who are in the ISD's will be funded. We put an amendment in yesterday which said that the remainder of the 25% can be taken from the apportionment, and this budget will raise the apportionment so it will come out an increase. For the ISD people it can be done several ways—it can be done through the SPI directly or it can be done by an assessment in the ISD. In my area there are 58 school districts and it will be done on a partial assessment so that they would jointly pick up the other 25%. There will be no decrease or no negative impact on the ISD's."

Mrs. Fortson spoke in favor of the amendment.
TWENTY-NINTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1975

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Luders and Polk spoke in opposition to it.
ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pardini to page 5, line 11 of Substitute House Bill No. 862, and the amendment failed to pass the House by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 78; not voting, 0.

Mr. Luders moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Luders, Hurley (Margaret), Boldt, Hanna, Bauer, Parker, Seeberger, Kilbury, Cochrane, Warnke, Fortson, Valle, Knowles, Charette, Chatalas, Smith (Rick), King, Ehlers, McCormick, Laughlin, Douthwaite, North, Smith (Edward), Paris, Brown, Patterson, Greengo and Blair:

On page 6, line 23 strike "33,022,112" and insert "37,382,946"

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Curtis: "Mr. Speaker, I understood you to say that if Representative Luders' amendment were to carry then we would be precluded from considering Representative Pardini's amendment which is a lower amount, unless Representative Pardini wishes to offer that as an amendment to the amendment, is that correct?"

The Speaker: "That is correct."

Mr. Pardini moved adoption of the following amendment to the Luders' amendment:

On page 6, line 23 strike "33,022,112" and insert "35,022,112"

Representatives Pardini, Amen, Polk, Hayner and Haley spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Shinpoch and Brown spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Luders yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Luders, in the 1973-75 budget I understand there was budgeted $64 million and your amendment would raise that to $78 million. Representative Pardini's would raise it to $74 million. Can you tell us how many pupils were enrolled in the program in the last biennium and how many will be enrolled in this next biennium?"

Mr. Luders: "In 1973-74 there were 26,311 and in 1974-75 there were 30,367 and we are projecting that the growth factor, based upon the kinds of definitions that we expect to get, will increase that to between 33,000 and 35,000."

Mr. Deccio: "I can't calculate that quickly in my head; what does that do to the cost per pupil over the last budget?"

Mr. Luders: "I doubt if it can be broken down that simply because it relates also to the mix. You would have to see how many more in neurologically impaired, how many more in growth handicapped, etc. When we talk about grand totals we are talking about grand totals according to projected mix."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Luders yielded to question by Mr. Bauer.

Mr. Bauer: "I have before me Substitute House Bill No. 864, the higher education bill, and on page 4, it says, '(d) In the 600/700 level courses a ratio of 7.1 full time equivalent students to 1 full time equivalent faculty member ...' Then over here in Substitute House Bill No. 862, the bill we are on now, I look at some categories here of the handicapped, 6 to 1, 8 to 1, 10 to 1, 13 to 1, 15 to 1, etc. Since you have been involved in education all of your life and I highly respect your best judgment, in all of these categories would you tell the group here what do you consider the most manageable situation—10 to 1 handicapped children in a class, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12-year olds to one teacher or a 7 to 1 ratio of 25-year-old fully grown adults in a master or doctor degree program at the University of Washington. Which would be the easiest managed classroom situation?"

Mr. Luders: "If I had my druthers, from the standpoint of all the things that you have to consider, I would prefer to be an instructor of graduate programs at the higher level in college than I would to deal with those handicapped children. I think it takes more dedication; it may not take quite as much content-type of education, but it takes a lot more dedication, I believe, to deal with those people where you have to measure your progress in smaller amounts and where the kinds of stimulations that you get have to be based upon how much you achieved in a day. You are not dealing with stimulation on the part of high-level, philosophical, conceptual-type activities."

Mr. Bauer spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Pardini demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pardini to the amendment by Representative Luders and others to page 6, line 23 of Substitute House Bill No. 862, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 74; not voting, 0.

Mr. Luders spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Curtis: "In this area that we have just completed, namely the proper level of spending on the handicapped budget, whether we agree or do not agree that it is or is not enough or too much or whatever might be, it has been a very difficult and delicate and emotional area, and on behalf of myself, individually and as chairman of our caucus, I personally would like to thank Representative Luders for the excellent job. He did take his time to come into our caucus and help explain this area to us in a very understandable manner and I wanted to take this opportunity to say that we very much appreciated it."

Mr. Thompson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, after line 21 insert:

"During the 1975-76 school year the superintendent of public instruction shall implement a system of monthly reporting by each school district of handicapped student enrollments by the redefined disability categories."

Mr. Thompson spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Thompson yielded to question by Mr. Peterson.

Mr. Peterson: "Since we have failed many school levies around the state, how much would this cost the local school districts to do this reporting system and how much money or people will the Superintendent of Public Instruction have to put into it to maintain this reporting system?"

Mr. Thompson: "I don't have a fiscal impact note on this, but the general assurances that I have, both from the SPI's office and from the Longview school district and the legislative district that I represent, is that the cost would be minimal inasmuch as these procedures are followed generally with enrollments now and it wouldn't be difficult nor expensive to add this procedure to it."

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the amendment.
ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Thompson to page 6, line 21 of Substitute House Bill No. 862, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; not voting, 0.

The Speaker introduced these famous television, movie and theater personalities to the House, and they each addressed the House briefly.

The Speaker requested the committee to escort them from the House Chamber.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 862:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Mr. Polk moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 7, line 1 after "successor" strike "The Superintendent of Public Instruction" and insert "a committee composed of ten persons (three appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, three appointed by the governor, two appointed by House Ways and Means, and two appointed by Senate Ways and Means) and which shall be provided such support services as necessary by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as are necessary to accomplish the tasks hereby imposed"

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Bagnariol spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Zimmerman moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 8, line 20 strike "61,069,427" and insert "62,069,427"

Mr. Zimmerman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Shinpoch and Newhouse spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "I'm not quite clear on how you figure this. I talked to the Superintendent this morning and he said that he is getting 90% of this year's costs and as I understand you, you said 90% was figured on the average of the last two years and we are not going on 80% for the next biennium. Is that the way you are figuring this?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Amen, my understanding is that 90% is based on a two-year lag, that this year we would be paying 90% of what the costs were the year before. In actuality, in fact, we have never paid 90%; it's around 70% and I understand Representative Newhouse's concern. I would point out to him that what we are really doing is going from what I think is 70.5% up to 80% this time and hopefully, if inflation stops and we put the same kind of money in, then it would be 90% of current in the next biennium. We are picking up a larger share of the transportation this time in this fashion than we have in the past."

Mr. Zimmerman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Luders spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Zimmerman to page 8, line 20 of Substitute House Bill No. 862, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 11; nays, 84; not voting, 3.

On motion of Mr. Luders, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 10, beginning on line 23, strike everything down through and including line 28 and insert:

"For mathematics and science education services to be provided public school students and teachers pursuant to contract with the Pacific Science Center Foundation: PROVIDED, That not more than $338,121 may be expended by the superintendent of public instruction to construct, remodel and equip an astronomy education facility upon property owned by Pacific Science Center Foundation for the purpose of providing such educational services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the superintendent of public instruction may contract to transfer title to such facility and equipment to Pacific Science Center Foundation or its successor at such time as the value of educational services provided to public school students and teachers pursuant to the contract exceeds the costs reimbursed by the superintendent of public instruction and participating school districts by an amount equivalent to at least the cost to the superintendent of public instruction for the construction and acquisition of such facility and equipment."

Mr. Barnes moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 34 insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION: Inasmuch as Article IX of the Washington State Constitution provides that it shall be the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders, without distinction or preference on account of race, color, caste, or sex, the Superintendent of Public Instruction is hereby directed to provide to the House and Senate Education Committees by June 1, 1976, the definitions of 'standard basic education curriculums' and the associated skill testing criteria so that the legislature may determine and establish the fiscal cost responsibilities as are necessary to fulfill Article IX.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Amen, Bagnariol, Barnes, Bauer, Bausch, Becker, Bender, Berentson, Boldt, Coccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Curtis, Deccio, Dunlap, Erickson,

Not voting: Representatives Gaines, Hayner, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Wilson.

Mr. Parker moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Parker, Hurley (Margaret) and Adams:

On page 11, following section 21 insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any school district shall include within its certified budget an appropriation for the salary of any administrator that exceeds the salary currently paid to the superintendent of public instruction, the superintendent of public instruction shall withhold from the funds allocated to such district an amount equal to such excess."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Parker and Hurley (Margaret) spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Bagnariol and Moon spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Parker yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "What is the present salary of the SPI and what is the projected increase as recommended by the salary committee?"

Mr. Parker: "The present salary is $23,740, but the increase that has been proposed to this point would raise the SPI's salary to $30,575. I would also say that it is my feeling that the superintendent's salary should definitely be raised and that I am voting for this with the belief that it will be raised during this session since the budget bill goes into effect on July 1, and I feel that we are going to be providing a reasonable level."

Mr. Deccio: "If you take this out of the hands of the school board where it now rests, of course (and I'm a firm believer in local control) you, in effect, set guidelines if you tie it on the basis of what the SPI gets. With this kind of an amendment when the SPI's salary is increased that could set a precedent for school boards to say that their superintendents should be raised. I think it would work the other way; don't you think that would happen?"

Mr. Parker: "No, I don't, mainly because it doesn't take any options away from the local school board. If you will read the amendment quite carefully it simply says that the state through its apportionment formula is not going to pay that additional cost, that we are only going to accept an amount in their certified budget equal to that of the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. If they exceed that amount we will simply deduct from their state moneys the amount equal to the difference. They could still go ahead and pay them whatever salary they wanted to pay, just knowing that they would receive a penalty from the state if they exceeded the amount that the Superintendent of Public Instruction gets."

Mr. Hurley (George) spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Pardini demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Parker, Hurley (Margaret) and Adams to page 11 of Substitute House Bill No. 862, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 82; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Eikenberry, Matthews, Polk.

The Clerk read the title of the bill and there were no amendments.

Substitute House Bill No. 862 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.
MOTION
On motion of Mr. Thompson, HOUSE BILL NO. 863 was placed on the calendar for immediate consideration.

HOUSE BILL NO. 863, by Representatives Bagnariol and Shinpoch:
Relating to appropriations.

On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, Substitute House Bill No. 863 was substituted for House Bill No. 863 and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 863 was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, HOUSE BILL NO. 866 was ordered placed on Monday's second reading calendar immediately following Substitute House Bill No. 863.

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, April 14, 1975.

Mr. Hanna spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hanna: "It would increase the budget $1,004,155."

Mr. Shinpoch spoke in opposition to the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Hanna moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, following subsection (e) insert:
"(f) the department shall expend $1,064,482 to continue and expand the adult probation subsidy program. The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Hanna, Pardini and Bender:
On page 3, following line 2 insert:

It is the intent of the legislature that the recommendations of the correctional development task force shall be followed concerning the continuation of the adult probation subsidy programs and that the department shall continue with the development and refinement of standards for this program. It is also the intent of the legislature that funds allocated to this program will come from staff and dollar reductions to occur in the various appropriations in this act for the program support categories. The department shall give first consideration to staff reductions that will eliminate duplication and multiple layers of management in its adult corrections program, personnel organization and in its regional staff organizations."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Hanna withdrew the amendment.

The Clerk read the following amendments by Representative Hanna:
On page 3, line 24 strike "1,227" and insert "1131.5"

Representatives Hanna, Bagnariol and Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "In looking over this amendment, I find that it strikes existing subsection (4) which provides for federal funds of $362,509 and I'm somewhat amazed that by this amendment we get less federal money but take $188,000 from state funds. Can you explain why the striking language?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I will yield to Mr. Tilly to answer this."

Mr. Tilly: "My understanding from the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management is that there was a $70,000 error and this corrects that error."

Mr. Bagnariol: "In two pieces we have $108,000 of LEAA funds available to continue the project and that's included in this thing for minorities at the penitentiaries, and then it will be $188,363 in state funds to match the $371,000 that will be available from the LEAA fund."
The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, line 36 after "session" insert ": PROVIDED, That the department is authorized to provide child welfare services to a person who at the time of attaining the age of eighteen years is receiving such services pursuant to chapter 74.13 RCW and who is attending school, through the end of the recipient's high school program but in no event shall such services be extended beyond the age of twenty-one years"

On page 6, line 23 strike "$8,306,474" and insert "$8,348,874" and insert "$9,600,827"

Mr. Kalich spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kalich yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "I'm a little bit confused by your remark when you said that this was no increase in expenditure. Did you mean specifically that this is an increase over the level that was run through 1973-75 or an increase in expenditure over the Ways and Means Committee figures?"

Mr. Kalich: "The total last year was $4.2 million to run Green Hill and actually this year it's a little under $4.4, so you're talking about just a small increase over the last biennium, but I say it isn't any expense like you see here on this paper. We're already spending this money to keep it open and actually we would have to spend that money somewhere. You can't turn 133 children out in the open that are now in correctional units."

Mr. Pardini: "Your amendment on page 6, line 7 says strike $13 million and insert $15 million—normally that means an increase."

Mr. Kalich: "Yes, I agree with you, it is an increase. I didn't deny that. What I meant to say and maybe I didn't use the exact words, it is $.2 million over the last biennium."

Representatives Jastad and Adams spoke in favor of the amendments.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Deccio spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Eikenberry.

Mr. Eikenberry: "Being very concerned about the passage or defeat of this amendment, maybe you could advise us of the reasoning as to why this particular appropriation was not included in the budget proposed by the Ways and Means Committee?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "As you were aware, it was not included in the Governor's budget and that's the base that we started from. We got down, about a week or ten days ago, to digging deeply into the capital budget and we found that. The reason that it was not in was that we basically accepted the Governor's proposal. I guess the thing that made us wonder whether we were doing it correctly, the thing that really started making us dig for the last week (and we still don't have all the answers we are looking for) is that there is about $3.5 million of capital construction in other places that seemed to be designed to house these people, and we couldn't find out what the operating impact would be for that additional capital facility. We do have about $.5 million that has to be done at this facility also. We, very frankly, were not able to do the cost trades that I would consider necessary in order to make an extremely legitimate decision. I think that somewhere we are going to have to make a decision without all of the—I say necessary, but we never have all the data that I think is necessary to make these decisions, but we make them anyway. We really haven't been able to make the cost trades and I expect that I'll be uncomfortable whichever way it goes."
THIRTY-THIRD DAY, APRIL 15, 1975

Mr. Hurley (George) spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Chatalas demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives Kalich, Jastad and Adams to Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 38; not voting, 4.

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House recessed until 1:15 p.m.

Mr. Charette demanded a Call of the House and the demand was sustained.

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Chandler, Dunlap, Haussler, Leckenby and Polk.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 863:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Mr. Matthews moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 18 strike "30" and insert "8"

Representatives Matthews, Haley and Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Charette and Conner spoke against it.

Mr. Ehlers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Ehlers, Erickson, Hawkins, Hanna, Conner, Gaspard, Randall and Smith (Rick):
- On page 10, following the paragraph ending on line 12 insert a new paragraph as follows:

"It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Social and Health Services shall not phase out domiciliary care in the veterans' home at Retsil and the soldiers' home and colony at Orting: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing in this section shall preclude the department from moving residents between nursing and domiciliary care in order to better utilize facilities."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "I would challenge the scope and object of Representative Ehlers' amendment. We are dealing with an appropriation bill, an act adopting the budget for the Department of Social and Health Services; Representative Ehlers' amendment mentions the Department of Social and Health Services, but it deals with the income of Washington veterans and excess of allowable income standards and where they are going to be deposited, where they are going to be held and how they are going to be held—excuse me, Mr. Speaker, I wasn't looking at the revised Ehlers' amendment, but now that I look at it, I also submit that it is beyond the scope and object of the bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

(MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The amendment sets forth policy matter that the legislature wants to adopt relevant to the phasing out of domiciliary care at the veterans' homes in Retsil and Orting, and I think it would enter the scope and object of the budget provisions. The amendment is in order."

Mr. Ehlers spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Ehlers and others to page 10, line 12 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 82; nays, 11; not voting, 5.

Not voting: Representatives Chandler, Dunlap, Haussler, Leckenby, Polk.

Mr. Ehlers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Ehlers, Erickson, Hawkins, Hanna, Conner, Gaspard, Randall and Smith (Rick):
- On page 10, line 27 after "SERVICES." and before the paragraph then following, insert three paragraphs to read as follows:

"The Department of Social and Health Services shall by October I, 1975, propose rules and regulations for the Washington Veterans' and Soldiers' homes defining eligibility for membership. These rules and regulations shall include definitions of allowable income. The allowable income of members accepted for membership on or before December 1, 1975, shall not be decreased during periods these members are..."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Matthews withdrew the amendments.

Mr. Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On line 4 of the amendment strike "and the Cost Reimbursement System"

Representatives Shinpoch and Parker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Pardini and Curtis spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Shinpoch, you are connected with private industry in which it is necessary to make a profit in order to exist. Are you telling us here that you expect the private nursing home industry which is now the method that we are using for the care of our older people in nursing homes, to operate with a lesser rate than you are going to expect the state-owned facilities to operate and still make a profit?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "No, Representative Deccio, I am not attempting to tell you that at all and I didn't talk to that at all. What I am attempting to say is that the Matthews and Deccio amendment talks to Title XIX and the Cost Reimbursement System and what we heard about up until the amendment to the amendment was the Title XIX requirement and the difference between. What I was attempting to point out was that Title XIX was a red herring; that it has nothing to do with the thrust of the amendment. Had Representative Matthews and Representative Deccio proposed a pilot project at Orting to find out what it actually costs to provide a particular level of service, then I think that would have probably have been legitimate, but that's not what you are attempting to do at all. What you are attempting to do is to impose a cost reimbursement system that is used in private industry on a state-owned institution and I think that isn't going to give you the answer. The nursing home people wanted the cost reimbursement system. My judgment of that cost reimbursement system that you have—I guess my opinion of it—is quite low at this point in time. Irrespective of that, it isn't going to tell you anything to pose this on; all it's going to do is cause problems and it isn't going to do anything for you. Now if you really want to know what it costs, then I suggest you put an amendment up here that will put a pilot project in there that will establish those costs and then you'll probably get some support from me. I don't find the thrust of your amendment to be in that direction at all."

Mr. Deccio spoke against adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Shinpoch to the Matthews/Deccio amendment to page 11, line 12 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 62; nays, 31; not voting, 5.

Not voting: Representatives Chandler, Dunlap, Haussler, Leckenby, Polk.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the Matthews/Deccio amendment as amended.

Mr. Matthews stated that with the request of the House, he would withdraw the amendment as amended.
THIRTY-THIRD DAY, APRIL 15, 1975

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Matthews, it appears that your amendment has now been amended, and so it isn't your amendment in its entirety."

Mr. Matthews spoke against adoption of the amendment as amended.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

On motion of Mr. Ehlers the following amendments by Representatives Ehlers, Erickson, Hawkins, Hanna, Conner, Gaspard, Randall and Smith (Rick) were adopted:

- On page 11, line 8 after the semicolon strike all language down to and including "$50,943" on line 11.

- On page 11, line 22 strike subsection (a) and renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.
- On page 11, line 13 strike "$3,462,329" and insert "$3,411,386"
- On page 11, line 14 strike "$4,138,119" and insert "$4,087,176"

On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, the following amendment was adopted:

  (a) Develop and implement as soon as possible revised program standards for continuing general assistance, after development of adequate caseload profile information, that shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, medical determination of physical or mental disabilities, more stringent eligibility criteria for caseload associated with emotional, alcoholism or drug connected cases and adequate evaluation of treatment programs and an approval process for such treatment programs. In addition, the department shall:
  (b) Submit proposed revised program standards, control systems and cost estimates to the legislative budget committee or its statutory successor no later than December 1, 1975, for its review and approval. To fund grants for general assistance clients who qualify under the standards established in (a) immediately above the department is authorized to expend not more than $3,200,000 for the period July 1, 1975 through February 28, 1976."

Representatives Becker and Cochrane spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Is it correct—my impression is that we have not adopted the two amendments by Representative Becker on page 12, lines 35 and line 36—the ones that increase it by about $3 million? They have not been before the body?"

The Speaker: "They have not been adopted for the simple reason that we have higher amounts that we have to consider first and then we progress. The first time we adopt a higher amount, then we are through."
Mr. Bagnariol spoke against adoption of the amendment. The amendment was not adopted.

Ms. Becker moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Becker and Hanna:

On page 12, line 27 strike "$54,509,432" and insert "$59,486,991"

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "The tone of this amendment seems to be that somewhere there is authority within this budget bill to grant bimonthly grants rather than monthly grants and that money would be saved by that, but this amendment would put it back on a monthly basis. Is there such language in the bill that can be identified by someone who can just read the English language?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "Starting on line 5 of page 14, I guess that's as close to the language that we will find. It reads, 'The department shall expend not more than 125.6 FTE staff years and not more than $1,414,341 shall be expended for twice-monthly grants and monthly reporting of earned income.' I believe that they have the authority to do this without that language in the budget bill, Representative Newhouse."

Representatives Cochrane and Zimmerman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Bagnariol, Hurley (Margaret) and Parker spoke against it.

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained. The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Matthews moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Matthews, Bond and Deccio:

On page 12, line 30 strike all of subsection (b)

Mr. Matthews spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Shinpoch spoke in opposition to the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Matthews, Bond and Deccio to page 12, line 30 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 65; not voting, 5.

Not voting: Representatives Chandler, Dunlap, Haussler, Leckenby, Polk.

Ms. Becker moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 12, line 35 strike "$169,642,537" and insert "$172,842,537"

On page 12, line 36 strike "$322,398,840" and insert "$325,598,840"

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the amendments.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Becker to page 12 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 43; not voting, 5.

On page 13, line 18 strike "$12,284,937" and insert "$12,688,318"
On page 13, line 19 strike "$13,743,056" and insert "$14,171,216"
On page 13, line 19 strike "$26,027,993" and insert "$26,859,534"

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Parker yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "If I follow you, Representative Parker, the first one, starting on line 12 after 'facilities,' deals with scheduled increases in the federal minimum wage law and the one you were speaking to deals with standards for intermediate care. You didn't comment about the federal minimum wage and I'm curious as to whether the first part of your amendment somehow exempts us from the requirement of the federal minimum wage?"

Mr. Parker: "No, actually, Representative Douthwaite, I was speaking to the broad concept of all the amendments since I moved all of them at one time. The Ways and Means Committee had made some provisions for increases in minimum wage. I have a letter from Neil Peterson, the director of management in the budget division, and in terms of what it would cost to lift the freeze and the department's estimate of that was $12,648,196, of which $5,880,401 would be state money to lift the freeze that we have imposed. On July 1, 1975, that would bring up the average payment for skilled nursing facilities up to about $17 per patient day and in intermediate care facilities it would bring it up to about $13 per day. I didn't really speak specifically to any one of the amendments; I spoke in terms of the broad concept of raising the standard so that we can lift the lid or the freeze that has now been imposed upon vendor payments and bring it up to an acceptable level where the state is paying its own way for state imposed standards."

Representative Matthews spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Douthwaite and Shinpoch spoke against them.

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Parker and others to page 13 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 39; not voting, 5.

- On page 13, line 21 strike "83.2" and insert "35.7"
- On page 13, line 24 strike "47.5 FTE staff years and not more than $1,081,114" and insert "$752,805"
- On page 13, line 33 strike all of subsection (c)
- On page 14, line 1 strike everything after "Appropriation:" and insert "$4,258,447"

- On page 27, line 29 strike "5,909,695" and insert "7,216,813"

Mr. Pardini moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 14, beginning on line 8 strike all of the material down to and including "income" on line 11

Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "I guess I don't understand this subject matter, but can you explain to me what kind of rationale is used to come up with a conclusion that it is cheaper to pay twice a month than it is to pay once a month? I don't follow it at all and I would like to know fundamentally what we are talking about."

Mr. Shinpoch: "What it amounts to are those people that are on once. You are having to report your income twice a month and those people who go to work in the first or second week of the month then will be off of public assistance and will not receive subsistence payments for that month—for the last two weeks of that month—they will only receive it for the first two weeks of the month. It is estimated that we are talking about $4,997,000 in that area. Now to mail those checks out, prepare those checks and do the twice—monthly thing costs about $4.9 million savings by going to a twice—monthly grant."

Mr. Kuehnle: "I follow you up to a point, but isn't there a much simpler way of doing this thing? Why do we pay them for a month just because they were off work for two weeks and then they went on for two weeks? Why can't we, on a once—a-month basis, just change the reporting forms so that we are paying them for one week of public assistance, or two weeks or three weeks, whatever they qualified for, but do it on a once—a-month basis? It would seem to me that then we could enjoy all of the savings associated with payment—once-a-month and at the same time pick up whatever savings might be associated with not paying for the full month. Paying for the whole month just because we are paying monthly is ridiculous in my estimation and this is a weird solution."

Mr. Bagnariol: "I guess the only answer I could give to your remarks, Representative Kuehnle, is that the department pays in advance for a full month of income maintenance so if a person goes to work two weeks into that month there is no way of recovering that money—that's the real problem."

Mr. Matthews spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Zimmerman spoke against it.

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pardini to page 14, line 8 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 49; not voting, 5.

Not voting: Representatives Chandler, Dunlap, Haussler, Leckenby, Polk.

The secretary of state shall design a unified voter registration form, compatible with existing records, which will permit the applicant to conveniently prepare, on a single card, an original registration, an initiative signature card as required by section 11 of this 1975 amendatory act, and a cancellation of any prior registration in this state. The applicant shall complete the required information, other than his or her signature, no more than one time. The form shall also contain instructions on its use, a warning to the applicant of the penalty for knowingly supplying false information, and space for the county auditor to enter the voter's precinct identification, taxing district identification, and registration number. The reverse side of the form shall be printed to permit prepaid mailing to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. All registration forms necessary to carry out the registration of voters as provided by this chapter shall be furnished by the secretary of state without cost to the respective counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The original voter registration records for all precincts within the county shall be filed alphabetically without regard to precincts in the office of the county auditor and shall not be open to public inspection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Each county auditor shall maintain a computer file on magnetic tape or disk, punched cards, or other form of data storage containing the records of all registered voters within the county. Where it is necessary or advisable, the auditor may provide for the maintenance of such files by private contract or through interlocal agreement as provided by chapter 39.34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. The computer file shall include, but not be limited to, each voter's name, residence address, sex, date of registration, applicable taxing district and precinct codes and the last five consecutive dates on which the individual has voted: PROVIDED, That if the voter has not voted at least five times since establishing his or her current registration record, only the available dates shall be included. The county auditor shall subsequently record each consecutive date upon which the individual votes and retain at least the last five such consecutive dates. The computer file of voter registration records shall be arranged so that individual precinct lists of registered voters may be prepared containing only the names, and other information required by this section, listed alphabetically by the surnames of the voters in that precinct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is established in the state general fund an account, entitled the voter registration assistance account, to be used to compensate county auditors in counties with fewer than twelve thousand registered voters at the time of the most recent state general election for unrecoverable costs incident to the maintenance of voter registration records on electronic data processing systems. The secretary of state shall administer the voter registration assistance account and authorize the payments therefrom under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. County auditors in counties entitled to this compensation shall be paid annually an amount equal to thirty cents times the number of registered voters in that county at the time of the most recent state general election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The expense of voter registration and the maintenance of voter registration records shall be apportioned between the county and the cities and towns within that county according to the number of voters registered in all rural areas of the county and in each city and town, respectively, at the time of the last state general election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The county auditor shall be responsible for the distribution of postage prepaid voter registration forms by which a person may register to vote and cancel any previous registration in the state. Registrations submitted on such voter registration forms need not be subscribed to by the county auditor or a deputyed registrar. The county auditor shall keep an adequate supply of voter registration forms in his or her office at all times for political parties and others interested in assisting in voter registration and he or she shall make every effort to make these forms generally available to the public through government offices, businesses, labor union offices, schools, and any other locations necessary to extend registration opportunities to areas of the county. After the initial distribution of voter registration forms to a given location, it shall be the duty of a representative designated at that location by that office, business, union, school, firm, or other establishment to notify the county auditor of the need for additional supplies of voter registration forms incurred in this manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The applicant for registration shall record on the registration form the following items concerning his or her qualifications as a voter of this state, and of the county, city, town, and precinct in which he or she applies for registration:

(1) The address of his or her last former registration as a voter in this state, if applicable;
(2) His or her full name;
(3) His or her sex;
(4) His or her date of birth;
(5) His or her place of residence for voting purposes, giving the street and number, if any, or the post office or rural mail address. After completing this information concerning his or her qualifications, the applicant shall sign a statement in the following form: "I, the undersigned, hereby declare that the facts set forth relating to my qualifications as a voter are true. I further declare that I am a citizen of the United States, that I am not presently denied my civil rights as a result of being convicted of an infamous crime, and that I will be at least eighteen years of age at the time of voting.”

The applicant shall also sign his or her name upon a separate portion of the voter registration card which also contains spaces for his or her surname, followed by his or her given name or names, the name of the county and city or town, with post office or street address, the date on which the individual registered, and the name or number of the precinct in which the voter is registered.

The voter registration form shall provide, in a conspicuous place, the following warning: "Any person who knowingly supplies false information on this voter registration form or who knowingly makes a false declaration as to his or her qualifications for registration shall be guilty of a felony.”

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Upon receipt of a completed voter registration form, the county auditor shall immediately examine the form to see that the applicant for registration is not currently registered in that county and shall record on the form the precinct identification, taxing district identification, and other information required by law. Except as provided in section 13 of this 1975 amendatory act, the county auditor, within fifteen days of receipt of a voter registration form, shall send to the applicant by first class mail a voter registration card identifying his or her current precinct and containing such other information as may be prescribed by the secretary of state. If the voter registration form is incomplete or incorrect, or the applicant for voter registration is found to be currently registered in the county, the county auditor shall so notify the applicant, and if necessary, send him or her a new postage prepaid voter registration form. The post office shall be instructed not to forward this form or any voter registration card to any other address and to return to the county auditor all undelivered forms and voter registration cards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. To be included among the records of a given precinct for any primary or election, the applicant’s voter registration form must be received not later than thirty days prior to that primary or election. An applicant for voter registration whose application is received less than thirty days prior to a primary or election shall be notified by the county auditor that he or she is not eligible to vote in that upcoming election, explaining that his or her registration will be processed for future elections, and that a voter registration card will be sent to him or her after the upcoming election.

A voter registration form received from another county shall be processed immediately by the county auditor of the place of permanent residence of the applicant in the manner provided in sections 12 and 13 of this 1975 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. On the first Monday of each calendar month the county auditor shall transmit all initiative signature cards which have been received in his or her office during the prior month to the secretary of state for filing in his office. NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. They shall not be open to public inspection or be used for any other purpose.

The lists shall be retained by the county auditor for such time as may be prescribed pursuant to RCW 40.14.070, as now or hereafter amended. These records shall be open to public inspection under such rules and regulations as the county auditor may prescribe.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Shinpoch to the amendment by Representative Parker and others to page 18, line 34 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 35; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Adams, McCormick.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Representative Parker had some figures here as far as the ICF in this and I believe it was the average cost per day; how does this compare to other states such as Idaho and Oregon? The total cost—Representative Parker had some figures as far as the ICF and SNF costs per day if this is passed."

Mr. Shinpoch: "I really can't answer that. I don't think you can compare costs or what you pay. It's what you are paying for and we don't know what they are paying for in Idaho and we don't know what they are paying for in Oregon versus what we are paying here, so (1) I can't answer your question, and (2) I don't think it would make any difference if I did answer it. I don't think it would have any meaning unless we could compare the other side of the question of what you are buying."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Parker yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "I think it would have some meaning here because I read someplace that Idaho and Oregon are up to around $25 per day and so I would like some comparison on this."

Mr. Parker: "I can give you an example. We are the lowest of the ten western states, but one of the classics would be in the intermediate care facilities which I happen to have on the top of my head. Right now we are paying in this state $12.66 on the average for intermediate care facilities; the state of Oregon pays $17 and their legislature is now considering raising that to $18. They are substantially higher than we are. In order for us to meet the federal standards that were mandated to be met in state standards, we have to spend an additional $7.50 a day per patient day which is about $82,500. We are going to have to address that sometime down the road because when the federal government really starts auditing us—right now we are in paper compliance, but when they get down to the audit structure, we are going to have some substantial problems that we are going to have to meet. I think though, that at this time what I am asking for are the actual expenditures we are making in our nursing homes. In order to meet those expenditures we will have to raise the amount that I have set forth here—the $12.5 million of which about $11,200 is in this set of amendments."

Representatives Matthews, Parker and Paris spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Bagnariol and Shinpoch spoke against them.

On page 36, line 29 strike all material through line 5 on page 37 and insert:

"The department of social and health services shall establish regulations for reasonable nursing home accounting and reimbursement systems which recognize relevant cost related factors for department of social and health services patients, including but not limited to the scope or level of services or care, requirements of staff, physical plant, a reasonable rate of return on investment, and incentives for providing patient care over those minimums specified in federal or state law, rules, and regulations; said formula shall provide that no payment shall be made to a nursing home which does not permit inspection by the department of social and health services of every part of its premises and an examination of all records, including financial records, methods of administration, general and special dietary programs, the disbursement of drugs and methods of supply, and any other records the department deems relevant to the establishment of such a system."

Mr. Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment to the Matthews amendment:
Beginning on line 6 of the Matthews amendment strike line 6 and the material through "regulations" on line 7 and insert "and incentives for improved patient care within funds available to the department for nursing home care;"

Representatives Shinpoch and Parker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Matthews spoke against it.

Mr. Shinpoch spoke again in favor of the amendment.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Adams, Kuehnle and McCormick, who were excused.

Mr. Charette demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Adams, Kuehnle and McCormick.

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Pardini, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.
The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.
The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) called the House to order.

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, Representative Jastad was excused from the Call of the House.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 863:
The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.
Mr. Parker moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Parker, Erickson, Deccio, Knowles, Fortson, Hendricks, Fischer, Hansen, Adams, Hanna, May, Hurley (Margaret), Paris, Greengo, Barnes, Whiteside, Tilly, Matthews and Jastad:
On page 37, beginning on line 6 strike the entire paragraph ending on line 10.
On page 37, line 17 strike all language through and including "violation and".
Representatives Parker and Eikenberry spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Perry spoke against them.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "Representative Perry alluded to an amendment further on this page which would insert new language in the entire section that Representative Parker is attempting to strike. Recognizing that Representative Perry's amendment is also a striking amendment (not nearly so extensive as Representative Parker's) would it not be proper that we consider Representative Perry's amendment first, see whether that language goes in and then come back and strike later on? In other words, the general rule of perfecting before striking?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It would appear that we would have a problem if Mr. Parker's amendment is adopted. Mr. Perry would then be striking part of what the House has already acted on, lines 6 to 10, but at the present time there doesn't appear to be any conflict."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Perry: "Mr. Speaker, am I to interpret that if Mr. Parker's amendment is adopted, mine won't be considered?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "No, not necessarily. If Mr. Parker's amendment carries a portion of your amendment, the striking portion would already be stricken from the bill. Your first part, where you strike lines 6 to 18, covers the same portion that Mr. Parker has in lines 6 to 10, so you could strike from lines 11 to 18 and insert your material."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, Representatives Pardini and Newhouse were excused from the Call of the House.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendments on page 37 by Representative Parker and others.

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. King spoke against them.

Representatives May and Shinpoch spoke against adoption of the amendments.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

Representatives Hurley (George), Deccio, Hurley (Margaret) and Matthews spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Bagnariol, Perry and Douthwaite spoke against them.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Parker and others to page 37 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 55; not voting, 6.

Mr. Eikenberry moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 37, line 8 after "care" strike down to and including "violation" on line 18.

Representatives Eikenberry, Hurley (Margaret) and Haley spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Perry and Shinpoch spoke against it.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke again in favor of adopting the amendment.
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 16, 1975

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Eikenberry to page 37, line 8 of Substitute House Bill No. 863, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 60; not voting, 6.

Mr. Perry moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Perry, Cochrane, Douthwaite, Clemente, Bender, Haley, Sherman and Peterson:

On page 37, strike lines 6 through 18 and insert:

"The department shall establish which cost centers in the reimbursement system are fully funded to allow compliance with statutes and regulations, and shall adopt a citation system for the imposition of financial penalties up to $500 per violation of those standards which are fully funded. Not later than September 30, 1975, the secretary shall publish proposed regulations setting forth the conditions or specific acts that constitute violations which the department determines have a direct or immediate relationship to the health, safety or security of nursing home patients. Not later than December 31, 1975, the department shall adopt such regulations which shall prescribe a feasible time period for correction of such violations, and financial penalties for those violations which the department establishes are within fully funded cost centers."

Mr. Perry spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Perry yielded to question by Mr. Matthews.

Mr. Matthews: "In your amendment on the last line you allude to 'within fully funded cost centers.' I would like to know if those cost centers are the cost centers of the reimbursement system that we presently have or exactly what cost centers you are referring to?"

Mr. Perry: "They are within the existing cost centers."

Mr. Matthews: "Do these fines also apply to Title XIX regulations?"

Mr. Perry: "These fines would apply to anything that the state pays for—any cost centers are fully funded."

Mr. Matthews: "Which include a Title XIX regulation?"

Mr. Perry: "I will yield to Mr. Shinpoch; he's better qualified in this area than I."

Mr. Shinpoch: "I guess I need to understand what's behind your question. We have answered this question about ten times in the last two days as it applies to Title XIX. I need to understand what's behind your question to see if I can answer."

Mr. Matthews: "I would just like to know if these fines that could be levied under Mr. Perry's amendment that the secretary can now get in the rules and regulations—if those fines can apply to those regulations that are actually Title XIX federal regulations?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "I'm going to refer you to the language and I'm not going to attempt to interpret it—'... shall establish cost centers in the reimbursement system and those cost centers which are funded in compliance with the statutes and regulations shall adopt a citation system for financial penalties.' Obviously we have received federal funds and—I'm just not going to attempt to interpret that. I think the language is very clear for all of those things that are covered in the cost centers that are fully funded; then it would be liable to the citation."

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Matthews spoke in opposition to it.

The amendment was adopted.
Substitute House Bill No. 863 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 208 with the following amendments:

On page 2, beginning on line 3 strike all the matter down through "spouse." on line 7.

On page 2, line 29 strike the remainder of the material down through "offense." on page 3, line 1 and insert the following:

"(2) Evidence of the victim's past sexual behavior including but not limited to the victim's marital history, divorce history, or general reputation for promiscuity, non-chastity, or sexual mores contrary to community standards is inadmissible on the issue of credibility and is inadmissible to prove the victim's consent except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, but when the perpetrator and the victim have engaged in sexual intercourse with each other in the past, and when the past behavior is material to the issue of consent, evidence concerning the past behavior between the perpetrator and the victim may be admissible on the issue of consent to the offense.

(3) In any prosecution for the crime of rape or for an attempt to commit, or an assault with an intent to commit any such crime evidence of the victim's past sexual behavior including but not limited to the victim's marital behavior, divorce history, or general reputation for promiscuity, non-chastity, or sexual mores contrary to community standards is not admissible if offered to attack the credibility of the victim and is admissible on the issue of consent only pursuant to the following procedure:

(a) A written pre-trial motion shall be made by the defendant to the court and prosecutor stating that the defense has an offer of proof of the relevancy of evidence of the past sexual behavior of the victim proposed to be presented and its relevancy on the issue of the consent of the victim.

(b) The written motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits in which the offer of proof shall be stated.

(c) If the court finds that the offer of proof is sufficient, the court shall order a hearing out of the presence of the jury, if any, and the hearing shall be closed except to the necessary witnesses, the defendant, counsel, and those who have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.

(d) At the conclusion of the hearing, if the court finds that the evidence proposed to be offered by the defendant regarding the past sexual behavior of the victim is relevant to the issue of the victim's consent; is not inadmissible because its probative value is substantially outweighed by the probability that its admission will create a substantial danger of undue prejudice; and that its exclusion would result in denial of substantial justice to the defendant; the court shall make an order stating what evidence may be introduced by the defendant, which order may include the nature of the questions to be permitted. The defendant may then offer evidence pursuant to the order of the court.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit cross examination of the victim on the issue of past sexual behavior when the prosecution presents evidence in its case in chief tending to prove the nature of the victim's past sexual behavior, but the court may require a hearing pursuant to subsection (3) of this section concerning such evidence."

On page 3, line 33 after "facility" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That every person convicted of rape in the first degree shall be confined for a minimum of three years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board of prison terms and paroles shall have authority to set a period of confinement greater than three years but shall never reduce the minimum three-year period of confinement nor shall the board release the convicted person as a result of any type of automatic good time calculation nor shall the department of social and health services permit the convicted person to participate in any work release program or furlough program:" and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 4, 1975

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 87 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(I) "Noxious weed" means any plant growing in a county which is determined by the state noxious weed control board to be injurious to crops, livestock, or other property and which is included for purpose of control on such county's noxious weed list.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, firm, the state or any department, agency, or subdivision thereof, or any other entity.

(3) "Owner" means the person in actual control of property, or his agent, whether such control is based on legal or equitable title or on any other interest entitling the holder to possession and, for purposes of liability, pursuant to RCW 17.10.170 or 17.10.210, means the possessor of legal or equitable title or the possessor of an easement: PROVIDED, That when the possessor of an easement has the right to control or limit the growth of vegetation within the boundaries of an easement, only the possessor of such easement shall be deemed, for the purpose of this chapter, an "owner" of the property within the boundaries of such easement.

(4) As pertains to the duty of an owner, the word "control" and the term "prevent the spread of noxious weeds" shall mean conforming to the standards of noxious weed control or prevention adopted by rule or regulation by an activated county noxious weed control board.

(5) "Agent" means any occupant or any other person acting for the owner and working or in charge of the land.

(6) "Agricultural purposes" are those which are intended to provide for the growth and harvest of food and fiber.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.040 are each amended to read as follows:

An inactive county noxious weed control board may be activated by any one of the following methods:

(1) Either (a) within sixty days after a petition is filed by one hundred landowners each owning one acre or more of land within the county or, on its own motion, the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority shall hold a hearing to determine whether there is a need, due to a damaging infestation of noxious weeds, to activate the county noxious weed control board. If such a need is found to exist, then the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority shall, in the manner provided by RCW 17.10.050, appoint five persons to hold seats on the county's noxious weed control board.

(2) If the county's noxious weed control board is not activated within one year following a hearing by the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority to determine the need for activation, then upon the filing with the state noxious weed control board of a petition comprised either of the signatures of at least two hundred owners, each owning one acre of land or more within the county, or of the signatures of a majority of an adjacent county's noxious weed control board, the state board shall, within six months of the date of such filing, hold a hearing in the county to determine the need for activation. If a need for activation is found to exist, then the state board shall order the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority to activate the county's noxious weed control board and to appoint members to such board in the manner provided by RCW 17.10.050."
Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each activated county noxious weed control board shall consist of five voting members who shall, at the board's inception, be appointed by the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority and elected thereafter by the property owners subject to the board. In appointing such voting members, the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority shall divide the county into five sections, none of which shall overlap and each of which shall be of the same approximate area, and shall appoint a voting member from each section. At least four of such voting members shall be engaged in the primary production of agricultural products. There shall be one nonvoting member on such board who shall be the chief county extension agent or (a county) an extension agent appointed by the chief county extension agent. Each voting member of the board shall serve a term of two years, except that the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority shall, when a board is first activated under this chapter, designate two voting members to serve terms of one year. The board members shall not receive a salary but shall be compensated for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(2) The elected members of the board shall represent the same districts designated by the county (commissioners) legislative authority in appointing members to the board at its inception. Members of the board shall be elected at least thirty days prior to the expiration of any board member's term of office. The nomination and election of elected board members shall be conducted by the board at a public meeting held in the section where board memberships are about to expire. Elections at such meetings shall be by secret ballot, cast by the landowners residing in the section where an election for a board member is being conducted. The nominee receiving the majority of votes cast shall be deemed elected, and if there is only one nomination, said nominee shall be deemed elected unanimously.

Notice of such nomination and election meeting shall be mailed to all affected landowners thirty days prior to such meeting. Notice shall be published at least twice in a weekly or daily newspaper of general circulation in said section: PROVIDED, That mailed notice shall not be required if assessments provided for in (section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act) RCW 17.10.240 as now or hereafter amended are not invoked.

(3) Within thirty days after all the members have been appointed, the board shall conduct its first meeting. A majority of the voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and shall be necessary for any action taken by the board. The board shall elect from its members a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary.

(4) In case of a vacancy occurring in any elected position on a county noxious weed control board, the county (commissioners) legislative authority of the county in which such board is located shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers conferred on the state noxious weed control board under other provisions of this chapter, it shall have power to:

(1) Require the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority or the noxious weed control board of any county to report to it concerning the presence of noxious weeds and measures, if any, taken or planned for the control thereof;

(2) Employ a state weed supervisor who shall act as executive secretary of the board and who shall disseminate information relating to noxious weeds to county noxious weed control boards and who shall work to coordinate the efforts of the various county and regional noxious weed control boards;

(3) Do such things as may be necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The state noxious weed control board shall each year or more often, following a hearing, adopt a list comprising the names of those plants which it finds to be injurious to crops, livestock or other property. At such hearing any county noxious weed control board may request the inclusion of any plant to the list to be adopted by the state board.

Such list when adopted shall be designated as the "proposed noxious weed list", and the state board shall send a copy of the same to each activated county noxious weed control board, to each regional noxious weed control board, and to the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority of each county with an active noxious weed control board.

Sec. 6. Section 11, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A regional noxious weed control board comprising the area of two or more counties may be created as follows:

Either each (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority or each noxious weed control board of two or more counties may, upon a determination that the purpose of this chapter will be served by the creation of a regional noxious weed control board, adopt a resolution providing for a limited merger of the functions of their respective counties noxious weed control boards. Such resolution shall become effective only when a similar resolution is adopted by the other county or counties comprising the proposed regional board.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 143, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.150 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The county noxious weed control board in each county may classify lands for the purposes of this chapter. In regard to any land which is classified by the county noxious weed control board as not being used for agricultural purposes, the owner thereof shall have the following limited duty to control noxious weeds present on such land:

(a) The owner shall control and prevent the spread of noxious weeds on any portion of such land which is within the buffer strip around land used for agricultural purposes. (For lands east of the crest of the Cascade mountain range) The buffer strip shall be land which is within (two hundred) one thousand feet of land used for agricultural purposes. (For lands west of the crest of the Cascade mountain range, the buffer strip shall be land which is within one thousand feet of land used for agricultural purposes.)

(b) In any case of a serious infestation of a particular noxious weed, which infestation exists within the buffer strip of land described in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, and which extends beyond said buffer strip of land, the county noxious weed control board may require that the owner of such buffer strip of land take such measures, both within said buffer zone of land as well as on other land owned by said owner contiguous to said buffer strip of land on which such serious infestation has spread, as are necessary to control and prevent the spread of such particular noxious weed.

For purposes of this subsection, land shall not be classified as or considered as being used for agricultural purposes when the sole reason for classifying or considering it as such is that it is being used for the growing, planting or harvesting of trees for timber.

(2) In regard to any land which is classified by the county noxious weed control board as scab or range land, the board may limit the duty of the owner thereof to control noxious weeds present on such land. The board may share the cost of controlling such weeds, may provide for a buffer strip around the perimeter of such land or may take any other reasonable measures to control noxious weeds on such land at an equitable cost to the owner. The board shall classify as range or scab land all that land within the county for which the board finds ((to be of a relatively low value per acre, and on which)) that the cost of controlling all of the noxious weeds present would be disproportionately high when compared to the ((value per acre of)) benefits derived from noxious weed control on such land.

Sec. 8. Section 17, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 143, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the county noxious weed control board finds that noxious weeds are present on any parcel of land, and that the owner thereof is not taking prompt and sufficient action to control the same, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 17.10.140, it shall notify such owner that a violation of this chapter exists. Such notice shall be in writing, identify the noxious weeds found to be present, order prompt control action, and specify the time within which the prescribed action must be taken.

(2) If the owner does not take action to control the noxious weeds in accordance with the notice, the county board ((shall)) may control them, or cause their being controlled, at the expense of the owner. The amount of such expense shall constitute a lien against the property and may be enforced by proceedings on such lien except as provided for by RCW 79.44.060. The owner shall be liable for payment of the expense, and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent collection of any judgment on account thereof by any means available pursuant to law, in substitution for enforcement of the lien. Funds received in payment for the expense of controlling noxious weeds shall be transferred to the county noxious weed control board to be expended as required to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The county auditor shall record in his office any lien created under this ((section)) chapter, and any such lien shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent per annum from the date on which the county noxious weed control board approves the amount expended in controlling such weeds.

(4) As an alternative to the enforcement of any lien created under subsection (2) of this section, the county noxious weed control board may use ((such)) any appropriate media for the dissemination of information to the public as may be calculated to bring the need for noxious weed control to the attention of owners. The board may consult with individual owners concerning their problems of noxious weed control and may provide them with information and advice, including giving specific instructions and methods when and how certain named weeds are to be controlled. Such methods may include definite systems of tillage, cropping, management, and use of livestock. Publication of a notice as required by this section shall not be a condition precedent to the enforcement of this chapter.

Sec. 10. Section 24, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.240 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The activated county Weed control boards of each county shall annually submit a budget to the legislative authority of any county with an activated noxious weed control board may apply to the state noxious weed control board for state financial aid in an amount not to exceed fifty percent of the locally funded portion of the annual operating cost of such noxious weed control board. Any such aid shall be expended from the general fund from such appropriation as the legislature may provide for this purpose.

Sec. 12. Section 26, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.900 are each amended to read as follows:

Any weed district formed under chapter 17.04 or 17.06 RCW prior to the enactment of this chapter, shall continue to operate under the provisions of the chapter under which it was formed: PROVIDED, That if ten percent of the landowners subject to any such weed district, and the county legislative authority shall provide for an election to be conducted in the same manner as required for the election of directors under the provisions of chapter 17.04 RCW, to determine by majority vote of those casting votes, if such weed district shall continue to operate under the act it was formed. The land area of any dissolved weed district shall forthwith become subject to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 17.IO RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every activated county noxious weed control board performing labor upon, furnishing material, or renting, leasing or otherwise supplying equipment, to be used in the control of noxious weeds, or in causing control of noxious weeds upon any property pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17.IO RCW has a lien upon such property for the labor performed, material furnished, or equipment supplied whether performed, furnished, or supplied with the consent of the owner, or his agent, of such property, or without the consent of said owner or agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 17.IO RCW a new section to read as follows:

No lien created by section 13 of this 1975 amendatory act shall exist, and no action to enforce the same shall be maintained, unless within ninety days from the date of cessation of the performance of such labor, furnishing of materials, or the supplying of such equipment, a claim for such lien shall be filed for record as hereinafter provided, in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the property, or some part thereof to be affected thereby, is situated. Such claim shall state, as nearly as may be, the time of the commencement and cessation of performing the labor, furnishing the material, or supplying the equipment, the name of the county noxious weed control board which performed the labor, furnished the material, or supplied the equipment, a description of the property to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification, the name of the owner, or reputed owner if known, or his agent, and if the owner is not known, that fact shall be mentioned, the amount for which the lien is claimed, and shall be signed by the county noxious weed control board, and be verified by the oath of the county noxious weed control board, to the effect that the affiant believes that claim to be just; and such claim of lien may be amended in case of action brought to foreclose the same, by order of the court, as pleadings may be, insofar as the interest of third parties shall not be affected by such amendment. A claim or lien substantially in the same form provided by RCW 60.04.060 and not in conflict with this section shall be sufficient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 17.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Open areas subject to the spread of noxious weeds, other than crop land, including but not limited to subdivisions, school grounds, playgrounds, parks, and rights of way shall be subject to regulation by activated county noxious weed control boards in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided for agricultural lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 17.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:
The purpose of this chapter is to limit economic loss due to the presence and spread of noxious weeds on or near agricultural land.

The intent of the legislature is that this chapter be liberally construed, and that the jurisdiction, powers, and duties granted to the county noxious weed control boards by this chapter are limited only by specific provisions of this chapter or other state and federal law."

stitute: "Relating to control of noxious weeds; amending section 1, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) called the House to order.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, A balanced Washington State budget for the 1975--1977 biennium is of paramount concern to all citizens of Washington State and their Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The House Committee on Ways and Means is presenting to the House of Representatives a budget for the State of Washington for the 1975--77 biennium, which is divided into several segments; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives, over the past several days has been and is involved in the legitimate process of reprioritizing the nature and level of expenditures proposed under the original provisions of the various segments of the budgetary bills; and

WHEREAS, The segmentation of the budget has made more difficult the coordination of alterations in the various segments of the budget so as to insure that the expenditures authorized thereby do not exceed the estimated revenue available to the state through existing revenue sources; and

WHEREAS, It is the goal and determination of this House of Representatives to adopt a 1975--1977 budget which is balanced or may even provide a surplus from the revenue anticipated from existing revenue sources; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives shall refrain from third reading and final consideration of any of the segmented bills relating to budgetary appropriations for the 1975--1977 biennium until: (1) All segments of the biennial budget have been approved by the House upon second reading and (2) sufficient time has passed to allow the members of the House to analyze the various bills as a budgetary unit so as to insure that the expenditures authorized thereby do not exceed the revenue anticipated to be generated through existing revenue sources; and (3) opportunity be presented to return all segments of the biennial budget to the second reading for such amendments as may be necessary to insure the achievement of the goal of balancing authorized expenditures and anticipated revenue generated by existing sources.

Mr. Eikenberry moved adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the resolution, and Mr. Charette spoke against it.
POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "The resolution addresses itself to the future and not to the last general election. I believe Mr. Charette is dragging up things that have no relevance."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It seems to the Speaker that Representative Charette is in order, that he has to go to the broader aspects of this entire resolution. It encompasses many thoughts and ideas."

Mr. Charette continued his remarks in opposition to the resolution.

The resolution was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 866, by Committee on Ways and Means - Appropriations (Originally sponsored by Representatives Shinpoch and Bagnariol):

Adopting a budget for state agencies.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Kuehnle, North and Freeman:

On page 1, line 26 insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. For the Public Pension Commission General Fund Appropriation ...................................................... $200,000"
Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Bagnariol spoke against it.

Mr. Hansey demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mrs. Hayner.

Mrs. Hayner: "Representative Bagnariol, in order to make an intelligent decision on this particular amendment in view of what I have heard, I wonder if you, as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, could indicate to us whether we will have an opportunity to debate on this floor the passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2765?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I suppose that's a question I can't answer in a positive manner because the committee will make that decision. Right now the subcommittee in House Ways and Means is holding public hearings in four locations in the state—last night we went to Longview; on Friday night we are going to Bellingham; on Tuesday of next week we are going to the Tri-cities; on Thursday we are going to Tacoma—because we have had so many inquiries from employers and employee groups to go out into the field and let them have their input into this legislation. At that point in time the bill will be before the House Ways and Means—Appropriations Committee and the members will decide whether they approve it or disapprove it as far as bringing it out. They will have the opportunity to do that."

Mr. Freeman spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "In your comments about Substitute Senate Bill No. 2765, I would like to ask if that will appear and at what time and before either Appropriations or full Ways and Means?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "It's hard to give you an exact answer. As you know we had planned on having these budgets out of the House last Thursday, and here we are a week later. All I can say is that we need to finish the public hearings first and I announced that we would be finished by next Thursday; then as soon as possible right after that we will schedule the bill. By the way, the subcommittee has a meeting every Saturday morning going through the details of this legislation, so it's not just sitting there idling."
MOTION

Mr. Eikenberry moved that Substitute House Bill No. 866 be rereferred to Committee on Ways and Means – Appropriations.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Bagnariol spoke against it.

The motion was not carried.

The Speaker (Mr. O’Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Kuehnle, North and Freeman.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Kuehnle, North and Freeman to page 1, line 26 of Substitute House Bill No. 866, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 59; not voting, 4.

Not voting: Representatives Gaines, Gilleland, Hurley G. S., Williams.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Mr. Charette demanded a Call of the House and the demand was sustained.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 866:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Mr. Hansey moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Hansey, Deccio, Nelson, Eikenberry, Haley, Freeman, Greengo, Wilson, Peterson, Amen, Kuehnle, Lee, Barnes, Tilly, Matthews, Gilleland, Zimmerman, Berentson, Schumaker, Dunlap and Hayner:

On page 1, line 23 add a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of . (a) This act;
(b) The provisions of chapter ...., Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 862);
(c) The provisions of chapter ...., Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 863);
(d) The provisions of chapter ...., Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 864);
(e) The provisions of chapter ...., Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 865); or
(f) The provisions of any other law to the contrary, the office of program planning and fiscal management shall withhold from each allotment within the series of allotments made to each state agency an amount equal to five percent of the state general fund moneys appropriated pursuant to the hereinabove set forth laws: PROVIDED, That it is the intent of the legislature that the office of program planning and fiscal management shall have the authority and is hereby directed to administer the provisions of this section, in such a manner as to minimize the state's loss of anticipated federal funds or federal matching funds: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the legislature hereby directs the office of program planning and fiscal management not to withhold allotment of the required 5 percent of appropriated funds if all or any portion of a program or category within an agency which is dependent in whole or in part on federal funds would be jeopardized because of the loss or potential loss of anticipated federal funds or federal matching funds by reason of withholding a portion of required state funds.

All moneys withheld from allotment pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall be placed by the state treasurer in the 'Special Levy Relief Account with the General Fund' which is hereby created.

(2) There is hereby appropriated to the superintendent of public instruction from the special levy relief account within the state general fund the sum of $126,075,000.

The superintendent of public instruction shall allot the funds appropriated by this subsection to any common school district, on the basis of 1.0 for each full time equivalent student enrolled, if such a district has:

(a) Levied an excess levy for maintenance and operation purposes for collection in 1976; or
(b) Conducted the maximum number of excess levy elections pursuant to law for maintenance and operation purposes which, if successful, would have been collected in 1976; or
(c) Per pupil cost, exclusive of transportation, which is less than the statewide average for the respective preceding year.

Each board of directors of a common school district which receives an allotment of funds from the superintendent pursuant to the provisions of this subsection and has imposed an excess levy for operation and maintenance purposes for collection in 1976 shall certify to the respective county legislative authority a reduction in the excess levy for operation and maintenance purposes equal to the amount of money received pursuant to this subsection and shall expend the amount received pursuant thereto in lieu of the excess levy funds: PROVIDED, That any school district which fails to roll back excess levies in the manner required by this provision or fails to certify as required by this provision shall not receive any allotment from the superintendent of the funds appropriated by this subsection."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

The Clerk read the following amendment to the amendment by Representative Hurley (Margaret):

Strike the amendment by Representative Hansey, et al, and substitute the following:

"Notwithstanding the provisions of:

(1) This act;
(2) The provisions of chapter . . . , Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 862);
(3) The provisions of chapter . . . , Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 863);
(4) The provisions of chapter . . . , Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 864);
(5) The provisions of chapter . . . , Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (ESHB 865); or
(6) The provisions of any other law to the contrary, the office of program planning and fiscal management shall withhold from each allotment within the series of allotments made to each state agency an amount equal to five percent of the state general fund moneys appropriated pursuant to the hereinabove set forth laws: PROVIDED, That it is the intent of the legislature that the office of program planning and fiscal management shall have the authority and is hereby directed to administer the provisions of this section, in such a manner as to minimize the state's loss of anticipated federal funds or federal matching funds: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the legislature hereby directs the office of program planning and fiscal management not to withhold allotment of the required five percent of appropriated funds if all or any portion of a program or category within an agency which is dependent in whole or in part on federal funds would be jeopardized because of the loss or potential loss of anticipated federal funds or federal matching funds by reason of withholding a portion of required state funds.

All moneys witheld from allotment pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be placed by the state treasurer in the '1975 Special Levy Relief account within the General Fund' which is hereby created. Moneys within such reserve account shall be subject to expenditure only as provided by law."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, the amendment by Representative Hurley is improperly drawn and it goes into the amendment by Representative Hansey and others and strikes the balance of the amendment. It should be properly drafted and we should be able to consider the balance of the Hansey amendment starting with paragraph (2) without considering Mrs. Hurley's amendment as a separate amendment. Evidently great minds run in the same channel—the first two portions are identical, the only difference being that the Hansey amendment has additional language."
THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, APRIL 17, 1975

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears to the Speaker, Representative Newhouse, that Representative Hurley's amendment is in order. It's up to the body to determine whether or not they want to adopt this amendment to the amendment. The amendment does strike all of the material in the Hansey amendment. To a degree, it's identical, but the Hansey amendment also has additional material that isn't incorporated in the Hurley amendment and she is just striking it all."

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, I point out to you that she could more properly have placed her amendment as deleting the last half of the Hansey amendment, then we could properly consider the amendment that was first on the desk, which includes all of her language and additional language."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, of course, that's a question of opinion of how you want to present amendments to amendments and how you want amendments prepared. Mrs. Hurley has taken the position that she wants to strike all of the Hansey amendment."

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) moved adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "The effect of the Chair's decision is to say that Mr. Hansey cannot basically offer his amendment. Representative Hurley has drawn her amendment in such a manner to preclude consideration of Representative Hansey's amendment and it was on the desk first. We are dealing with essentially the same order of business and the rule of this House has always been that in that situation the first amendment on the desk is to be considered."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The question, Representative Pardini, is up to the House to decide whether or not they want to adopt the amendment to the amendment. If the amendment to the amendment isn't adopted, of course, then you have Representative Hansey's amendment before you. All we have now is the amendment to the amendment."

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, the point of my point of order is that the amendment to the amendment is a subterfuge. It's an attempt to—"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mrs. Hurley might have something to say on that."

Mr. Pardini: "She probably will, but I think the Speaker has the obligation to rule and not put it to the body."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Chief Clerk says, 'Ladies first.' The question is the amendment to the amendment."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Curtis: "Representative Hansey's amendment that continues on past the point where Representative Hurley's amendment would strike to, has a very important item in it and that is the distribution of the fund created by this amendment. If Representative Hurley wishes to create a fund, but in no way to disburse it, then how is the House to consider how we want the funds disbursed? According to your ruling, if we adopt Representative Hurley's amendment, then we may not consider Representative Hansey's. If that's the case then we have no means of disbursing the funds to the school districts who need them."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, Representative Curtis, it's up to the body to determine whether or not Mrs. Hurley's amendment is faulty and whether or not they want to adopt it or reject it. It's before the House now; you can point all these matters out in your arguments. At the present time the motion before us is the motion to adopt the amendment to the amendment."

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret) spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "It's most peculiar, ladies and gentlemen of this House, how Mr. Hansey's amendment is my amendment word for word down to the last sentence. Now I don't blame Mr. Hansey and I don't blame the other sponsors of this amendment; there's something wrong around here and I think the problem is that amendments are not sacred when they come out of Bill Drafting. I originated this idea in this amendment to subtract five percent from all the foregoing budgets and put them into a reserve account to be used for special levies, last Tuesday. I talked to John O'Brien about it and he said that I couldn't do that, that the budget had already passed and I couldn't do that. I said that I had to do it somehow because schools are in need, they need money for special levies and I think this legislature ought to do something to answer this problem. So I went to Dick White down in Bill Drafting and I said to him that I wanted to put some wording such as you see right on the top part of my amendment, notwithstanding the provisions of one budget after the other, until we get right down to the last budget, excluding the capital budget—I didn't want that five percent withheld from the capital budget, and Dick White said yes, he could do that and he brought in his special expert on this and we came up with this provision. We talked back and forth during the week and it was on the provision that no state money should be subtracted from those matching moneys for federal funds because we don't want to do that. He wrote that provision in explicitly because I talked to him about it. Then he had written in a different name for a reserve account and so I called Representative Moon and asked him about an amendment and he came down to my office and personally brought me a copy of the amendment. And so my secretary and I changed the name and we called it 'Special Levy Relief Account within the General Fund.' Now, it's remarkable, as I say, how great minds can run in such an identical channel. I believe Representative Shinpoch and Representative Bagnariol remember when I had the first draft—this is not the first draft—I had the first draft, and I went to each one of them and asked them to cosponsor it with me and Representative Bagnariol said, 'It's interesting.' and Representative Shinpoch said, 'Let me think about it.' I didn't want to put them on the spot; actually I was trying to be as tolerant of them as they were of me so I didn't ask them again. I even showed it to the Speaker and asked him if a Speaker had ever cosponsored an amendment and he said, 'Not yet they haven't.' On that very day that I got the first one, I signed a copy and I sent it to John Lemon over there and I said, 'John, this isn't for publication today, it isn't until we get on the last budget.' I wanted this to be a surprise thing and I kind of wanted it for yesterday when all those kids were there, but it didn't happen that we got on this budget. You say it was not on the desk ahead of yours. Well, actually I had taken it to Don Wilson, I had shown it to him and then I withdrew it because I thought it was not timely; it would get out here and a lot of people would begin rationalizing just like they do on every—you can call it a special levy vote if you want to, people rationalize on special levy votes. So I got them back and here they are, the whole batch of them. I was going to have them passed around after we got to page 48; my original amendment did say page 48 and I thought as long as they had taken some unusual privileges with my amendment I would take a little unusual privileges with them and I would steal their page and steal their line, which I did, which puts us all on the same page and on the same line. Now, Mr. Speaker, my point of personal privilege is over and if we could now vote on whether my amendment is substituted for Mr. Hansey's amendment, then I'll go into the meat of the bill."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry: "In view of the ruling of the Chair, it appears that in considering that I do favor this concept so far as it is reflected in the Hurley amendment to the amendment, the Chair is going to put me into a position of having to vote no in order to get at some additional concepts, because the way this has developed I will be precluded from asking the body to consider two additional items that are not in the amendment; specifically, the distribution of the money and particularly the amount of the money. I would like to inquire of the Chair, how may I get these two additional items to this body in view of the Chair's ruling?"

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I'll refer you to Reed's Rule 159 - Limitation as to Amendments. It states in part that '...amendments are made to perfect the main question, and to enable it to obtain the vote of the assembly, but if the assembly is opposed to the question it is not confined to a direct negative. It may oppose it in various ways. Hence the enemies of the proposition may present such amendments as will render it obnoxious to the assembly and cause its rejection. They may also change and reverse its purpose, make praise out of censure, condemn instead of approve, or otherwise alter the meaning.' And so a member of the legislative body has the right to offer amendments of this nature and it's up to the body to determine the action relative to the question. The matter before you, the amendment to the amendment, is before the body to determine."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "My amendment could, could it not, be adopted—I would welcome a lot of extra signatures on it—and then as an amendment, those portions of Mr. Hansey's that are agreed to by the House or are acceptable or relevant could then be adopted, could they not?"

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "No. If the body adopts your amendment to the amendment, you are striking all of that material offered in the original amendment."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry: "Could the Chair, because of the unusual way this situation has developed, accept an amendment to Representative Hurley's amendment so that this body can consider the issues laid out in subsection (2) of Representative Hansey's amendment?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, Representative Eikenberry, if I can refresh your memory, the other day you questioned on a second amendment to an amendment."

Mr. Eikenberry: "I'm also aware, Mr. Speaker, that the Chair can override rules like that to get at the will of the body. All I'm saying is that the peculiar parliamentary steps that we have gone through will prevent the body from considering a very important amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, let's see what happens to one of those matters before you."

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Hansey: "Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House: My motives have been impugned by Mrs. Hurley and I want you and everybody else to know precisely what happened on this measure. A week ago I went to Mr. Dave Greenwood, who is a staff member of the Ways and Means Committee, hired by your Democratic majority, a very fine young man, and I asked him to draft me a series of amendments that I could put on every budget bill that went through this legislature to require that some percentage of the general fund appropriation would be put into special levy relief. Mr. Greenwood came back to me a week ago and he handed me this amendment which I presented this morning immediately upon the convening after we had caucused. This amendment has been in my possession at least a week. I did not get it from Dick White, the Code Reviser, where Mrs. Hurley got hers. He no doubt went to a specialist to get the amendment that he gave to Mrs. Hurley and he apparently gave him the same amendment that he prepared for me; however the full purpose of this amendment is to provide for the people of this state some much needed special levy relief. I fail to see why we have to have such a political hassle over something that we are attempting to do to solve the problems of the people of this state and to make it a personal thing. If Mrs. Hurley had come to me I would have most certainly joined with her on the amendment. I really don't care, I want something done for the people, but I resent the implication that I or anyone else in this legislative body stole something from somebody else. It simply is not true and I resent the implications of that and I want the record to show that."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. Hurley (Margaret): "If I have impugned the motives of Representative Hansey or any of the members who are sponsoring this amendment, I abjectly apologize. I did make the remark that I thought there should be a date on amendments and I still think probably there should be a date on amendments just like there is a date on bills when they are drafted. I probably unrightly surmised that the problem was in Bill Drafting. I apologize if I have given anybody the impression that I impugned the motives of Mr. Hansey or anybody who signed his amendment."

Mr. Eikenberry spoke against adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Hurley (George) demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Hansey spoke against the amendment to the amendment.
Mr. Bagnariol spoke in opposition to the amendment to the amendment.

SPEAKER'S ADMONITION

The Speaker: "Representative Bagnariol, I think we have had enough explanations as to the sponsorship; let's get to the merits of the amendment. We have a budget that's a very important budget before us and I would like to see this House start moving into the merits of the question rather than talking about personalities. Quite frankly, I'm embarrassed by the conduct of the House. Let's get to work on the budget."

Mr. Bagnariol continued his remarks in opposition to the amendment.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained by an electric roll call vote.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the demand for the previous question by Mr. Charette, and the demand was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 40; not voting, 4.

MOTION

Mr. Hansey spoke in favor of the motion and Mr. Hurley (George) spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Eikenberry: "The motion before us is strictly the issue of substituting names and suspending the rules; the remarks by Representative George Hurley have nothing to do with that subject and therefore are out of order."

The Speaker: "Representative Hurley, I think the point of order is well taken. If you could confine your remarks to the issue of substituting names, I think this is what we should limit it to."

Mr. Hurley continued his remarks in opposition to the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to delete all names from the amendment by Representative Hansey and others, and substitute the names of Representatives Hurley (Margaret) and Hansey, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 62; not voting, 1.

After "agency:" strike "PROVIDED, That $700,000 may be allotted by the Governor for surveys and installations" and strike "$1,330,000" and insert "$630,000"

Representatives Shinpoch and Bagnariol spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Newhouse and Curtis spoke against it.

I wish the record to show my vote as "Aye" rather than "Nay" on the Indian Council amendment.

ALEX DECCIO, 15th District.

On page 4, line 34 strike section 14 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Amen and Hurley (Margaret) spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Parker and Eng spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Amen yielded to question by Mr. Blair.

Mr. Blair: "Did you say that you were simply transferring the existing funds from the two appropriations?"
Mr. Amen: "That's right, except for $50,000. We are cutting back $25,000 from each agency, cutting it down to the Human Rights Commission."

Representatives Polk and Amen spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment by Representatives Amen and Hurley (Margaret) was not adopted.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and change the internal references accordingly.

Mrs. Wojahn spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mrs. Wojahn.

Mrs. Wojahn: What happens if the Senate bill passes without an appropriation and there's no appropriation in the budget? We wouldn't self-destruct, but then we'd be left stranded with no funds. I am a member of the Women's Council incidentally and that's the reason that I'm concerned."

Mr. Shinpoch: "Obviously, if they change the bill then it becomes a conference item between the House and the Senate and I would assume that we would insist on our position—that it doesn't do it any good to make it a statutory agency if you are not going to fund it.""

Mrs. Wojahn: "We're running out of time, as you well know, and couldn't the House bill with the appropriation move faster than the Senate bill? If the Senate were sitting on both bills, then doesn't it make it almost impossible to believe that the Senate bill might ever get out of there in time to pass, whereas with the appropriation directly on the House bill, couldn't that become law faster, and wouldn't it be more appropriate?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "I suspect that irrespective of what happens in any other bill in this legislature, that the budget bill will pass before June 30th of this year and in that context it might be safer. I do, however, attempt to maintain at least a degree of consistency to the best of my ability working within the rules that I'm given, and to be consistent, I have to oppose this amendment."

Mrs. Wojahn spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Polk spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Wojahn, Cochrane and O'Brien to page 5, line 1 of Substitute House Bill No. 866, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 47; not voting, 1.
Not voting: Representative Williams.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Polk, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House now reconsider the vote by which the amendment to page 4, line 33 by Representative Conner was not adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hurley (George): "Mr. Speaker, in Reed's Rule 205, 'Motion for Reconsideration,' I think it throws considerable doubt on this reconsideration. It states, 'A motion to reconsider must be made on the day on which the action sought to be revised was had, and before any action has been taken by the assembly in consequence of it. Now we did take action in consequence of this; we passed another amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears to the Speaker, Representative Hurley, that your point isn't well taken; the sentence which you read relative to action taken by the assembly in consequence of it, seems that if the bill itself has been referred to committee or was in a position of action by a committee, that would be action taken in consequence of it. It has been held by rulings of Speakers, and a precedence has been established, that while a bill is on second reading, any amendment that has been acted upon can be reconsidered at any time while it is on second reading. So I will rule that the motion to reconsider the amendment is in order."

Representatives Deccio, Conner, Eng, Charnley and Hanna spoke in favor of the motion, and Representative North spoke against it.

The motion was carried.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of the amendment to page 4, line 33.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ceccarelli: "Mr. Speaker, I'm sitting here day after day, week after week seeing us fritter away a lot of time on some very well-meaning amendments, but I'm just wondering if there is any way for the Speaker of this House to hasten this action a little bit, possibly by limiting the number of speakers on each side or limiting the amount of time for debate? I know in the past we have had speakers who have limited time on each side to maybe eliminate some of the me-too speeches. I'll refer you to Reed's Rule 159 that was enacted last session to try to eliminate some of this lengthy debate that we are getting on some well-meaning amendments, some of which I'm voting for, but maybe we could hurry this along a little bit."

SPEAKER'S REPLY

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, the Speaker yesterday made a statement that he'd like to have one speaker from each side, but we have a democracy and how you are going to stop it at the present time, I don't know. POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eng yielded to question by Mr. Conner.

Mr. Conner: "Representative Eng, this amendment of yours pertains to the State Arts Commission and I wonder if you could explain the rationale behind this amendment?"

Mr. Eng: "The reason that I proposed this amendment is because I felt that there is a need for us in this heterogeneous society to emphasize the different cultural groups and the Washington State Arts Commission does some of these things in relation to origins in our state. Yesterday I talked to the head of the Commission, Mr. Hazeltine, and asked him if they are emphasizing these other areas in relation to different minority groups in our state and he said that they had spent about $20,000 last year in relation to the minorities or toward their cultural background. I asked why they didn't emphasize it more and he said that they would like to do that and if I would not continue to emphasize this amendment that they would try, within this biennium, to see if they could improve it in this area and he will get back to me with a letter and also work with me to try to change this."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Eng withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 26, line 17 strike "$290,551" and insert "$315,797" and on page 26, line 18 strike "$1,115,551" and insert "$1,140,797"

Mr. Charette: "Representative Leckenby, I am not only sympathetic but supportive of the program. There is anticipated that approximately $800,000 from the private sector will be put in. There is a great deal of interest and cooperation not only from the public sector, but from the private sector concerning this project that will be constructed within your city."

Representatives Thompson and Gaspard spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Newhouse and Eikenberry spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Thompson yielded to question by Mr. Haley.

Mr. Haley: "Whose fault was it in the first place? Where did the error come from that this occurred? Was it Pierce County's fault or was it the state's fault?"

Mr. Gaspard: "I don't think it's that simple because I don't think it's anybody's fault. I tried to point out to you that after the reevaluation process took place the legislature came back in 1971 and passed a roll-back provision. Now that passed in May of 1971 and it started to take effect on taxes payable in 1972. The citizens took it to court and said it should apply to taxes payable in 1971; the court said yes. That's where the problem has occurred. I don't think the fault is anybody's; it's just that somewhere in the governmental system there was a crack and this group of Pierce County taxpayers fell into it."

Mr. Newhouse spoke against the motion to reconsider.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Gaspard yielded to question by Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson: "I understand from the discussion that there are 16 other counties where this same situation took place. May I add that if the legislature picks up the tab for Pierce County, does that open the gate for the other 16 to come to the state of Washington and ask for the same thing to apply to them?"

Mr. Gaspard: "No, Representative Patterson, because the way this amendment is drawn it only applies to the Valentine vs. Johnston case and that was the case brought in and won in Pierce County. I might also point out that it gives a statute of limitations procedure."

Mr. Patterson: "What's the statute of limitations on this?"

Mr. Gaspard: "I'm not sure that I can answer that. One of the attorneys in the House would have to answer it."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to reconsider the amendment by Representative Gaspard and others to page 10, line 4 of Substitute House Bill No. 866, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 43; not voting, 5.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Newhouse, in regard to your point of order, the Speaker rules that the Hansey amendment dealt with a different subject matter—it dealt with a two-year appropriation. This is cutting down and limiting it to a one-year study and therefore there was not an action in consequence of the Smith amendment."

Mr. Newhouse: "The other point is that if the Smith amendment had been adopted, Mr. Hansey would have withdrawn his amendment; therefore an action was taken in consequence of it."

The Speaker: "That didn't happen, Representative Newhouse, so I think the motion to reconsider would be in order at this time."

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the motion to reconsider and Mr. Berentson spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "I would think this amendment is out of order as it is the same one we considered previously and it was lost."

Mr. Parker: "Mr. Speaker, Reed's Rule 136 says, 'If an amendment is decided in the negative, it cannot be repeated, although it may again be proposed to insert the same words with others,' I would say that the additional appropriation is more substantive than the first, so therefore the second should carry with it and be able to carry the language of the first amendment."
SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "If you'll read the next sentence, Representative Parker, it says, 'Part of the same words cannot be again proposed to be inserted, not only because the assembly has decided against it, but because that object might have been attained by an amendment to the amendment, and since it was not so attained the assembly is presumed to have decided against it specifically.'"

Mr. Parker: "Well, Mr. Speaker, I say it's not the same words because of the second words that are with it. The exact same amendment again would be out of order, but this is not the same amendment since it has the second language added to it. It's the same words with other words."

The Speaker: "But it says in the first part of that sentence that part of the same words cannot be again proposed to be inserted. Your amendment is out of order."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Bagnariol, the way I understand it, there is an increase in this budget of about $142 million for apportionment—school apportionment. According to my understanding of that, that is new money that can be used by the school districts in the next two school years either to increase salaries, reduce special levies or hire more teachers. Now I think that it was intended at first that this should be used for salary increases, but now in view of the fact that a good many special levies have failed around the state, do you think that it would be a good idea that this $142 million be used in those school districts where special levies failed, to rehire teachers that were laid off, and in those districts where special levies passed be used to reduce special levies?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I believe the figure is closer to about $156 million; I guess $149 million that we did increase the apportionment formula. That money does go out through the formula and is available to local school districts to be used for local negotiations for salaries or for special levy relief or to retain teachers. I think the decision on how that money is to be used should be left to the local school districts to decide; however, it is available and I believe the original intention for the money as it came out of the Ways and Means Committee was to have it—at least a large portion of it—available to negotiate for salaries, but if the educators and school boards at the local level agree that they would rather use it for special levies, they will have that opportunity."

Representative Moon spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Polk and Newhouse spoke against it.

Mr. Moon spoke again in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Pardini spoke in opposition to it.

Representative North appeared at the bar of the House.

RESPONSE TO THE SCHOOL FINANCING ISSUE

BY GOVERNOR DANIEL J. EVANS

Governor Evans: "Governor Cherberg, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the legislature; citizens and taxpayers:

My message today is short. I have asked to speak today not only to you who represent the people but to the citizens of the state directly. We have experienced much in our state during the past decade - urban turmoil and economic boom followed by aerospace recession. We have shared with all people in the nation our share of the shame of national political power abuse, the dislocation of energy shortages, and the tragedy of economic downturn. Washington State has survived each of these crises remarkably well and today we stand stronger and more able than virtually any state of this nation.

To effectively face the future, however, we first must know better our own history and our present strengths. State tax growth in Washington State during the past ten years has been slower than any other state in the nation. In state and local taxes combined our growth has been 44th out of the 50 states of the nation. Total tax burdens and property tax burdens in Washington State are today below the national average. Our welfare caseload is a little more than half the national average and our error and fraud rate is among the lowest in the nation. Washington State has survived each of these crises remarkably well and today we stand stronger and more able than virtually any state of this nation.

In recent months two national surveys were published measuring the quality of life in our nation. In the first of these the 50 states were measured one against the other with over a hundred separate measurements of life quality. Washington State ranked in the top three.
Recently Harper's Magazine conducted a similar survey of the 50 largest cities of the nation, again measuring more than a hundred elements of quality of life. The City of Seattle was first of the 50. Now we all take a great deal of pride in those measurements. We like to read about the high quality we have achieved in competition with our neighbors in other cities and in other states. But too seldom do we remember that those measurements of quality are pretty basically the measurements of our willingness to invest in public investments and to make those public investments in a wise and prudent way. The quality of life depends pretty heavily on the kind of educational system we have, our quality of health care, and what recreational opportunities are open to people, the environmental quality of our area, and the opportunity of people to earn and to live in a prosperous society. We are proud of what we have done. Let us not today destroy it.

Why repeat all of these facts? Well, it is because the scandals of failure and corruption and abuse of power fill our front pages. And I think it is long past the time that this 'scandal of excellence' gets equal billing.

But today another crisis faces us; perhaps not unexpected really, but stunning in its suddenness. For the past two weeks thousands of concerned students, parents and teachers have personally visited Olympia to ask me and to ask you the direct question, 'How are you going to lead?' and 'What are you going to do?'

Let no one be misled. This crisis is real. Six thousand lay-off notices have been issued, the equivalent of a major industrial plant in this state. And perhaps if it had been a major industrial plant there would have been either greater citizen concern and perhaps even faster governmental response. But six thousand lay-off notices have been issued, scores of schools are scheduled to close, a quarter of a million students face a new school year of shattered programs, overcrowded classrooms, and destroyed opportunities.

It is easy to point the finger of blame. Some point at me. Some point at the legislature. Some point at school administrators. Some point at the teachers. Some point at callous voters. I believe all are wrong.

The measure of the trial through which we now pass will not be our skill at escaping blame but our ability to find the best and the right solution.

I believe the legislature has tried. Twice in five years tax reform has been placed before the voters in an attempt to resolve the problem of basic school finance. Six times in twelve years in one way or another the legislature has by two-thirds vote adopted proposed constitutional amendments to ease the problem of school finance. Five out of six times those proposals were turned down. School administrators by and large have been attempting to operate with creaky and uncertain finances. Teachers, I believe, are producing basically good graduates who compete well. I mentioned earlier that educational attainment is high in this state. In recent years when we still had a military draft, the number of failures on a nationwide test of young men from the State of Washington was lower than the failure from any other state in the country. Students from this state compete exceptionally well in national merit scholar tests and other similar measurements of educational skills. Voters have patiently over the years supported increasing burdens until those burdens simply grew beyond control.

And this legislature and this governor face the challenge of response to crisis now -- during this session -- to give hope to those quarter of a million students or to turn our backs because our district wasn't directly affected, because we promised no new taxes, or simply because we just don't care.

I propose to you now a four part program designed to resolve our immediate problem and to initiate steps toward a permanent financial solution for school support. This program will require everyone to sacrifice a little. It will require administrators to manage more efficiently; this was a clear call of the voters during recent special levy elections and in hundreds of letters I have received since that time. I am confident, given the help and direction both of this legislature and of skilled citizens, administrators can manage more efficiently. This solution may very well require teachers to accept some small reduction in their ranks. Unpleasant perhaps, but it is likely to happen. There are lay-offs in other parts of government. There are lay-offs in other parts of industry. And we cannot expect given the difficult economic time in which we are now passing that education will be completely exempt from that process. Students will have to sacrifice a little. Students are going to have to help us find ways of lowering educational costs through better care of the physical facility which they all use. I hope students will turn to the task of helping to discover better ways in which to carry on the essential elements of common school education and to lower costs in doing so. A sacrifice is required of taxpayers to plow back a portion of property tax savings into more assured school support.
And perhaps most of all, the sacrifice of this legislature to provide the leadership, the courage, and the votes now to resolve this crisis.

A first and most urgent element is state revenue—state revenue to support 75 percent of the special levy requests made for school year 1975-76. This would reduce budget losses during the next school year to manageable proportions while still requiring school districts to live within tighter limits, and in doing so to so respond to taxpayer wishes.

In school districts where levies have passed, 75 percent of such levies would be rolled back and replaced by state revenues so those residents would share in property tax reductions and still not lose the benefits of already assured school budgets. Special provisions would be made for districts with especially low per pupil dollar support.

Now I am confident that this proposal for a major portion of special levy requests but not all might not meet favor with some groups, particularly some of those representing the teachers of our state. They may believe that it is inadequate. But only if we are realistic is there any hope of a reasonable solution and only if we are realistic in what we ask for should any group have any real influence with a legislature.

Secondly, revenue required to accomplish this emergency aid for the next school year will be approximately $155 million.

A $31 million portion of this can come from increased per pupil guarantees already proposed for the 1975-76 school year budget as proposed by me and as passed by the House of Representatives. The remainder will require a temporary increase of 0.6 percent in the state sales tax, a 10 percent increase in the Business and Occupation tax, and a 10 percent surcharge on utilities. This revenue package retains the same balance in taxation between business and the individual as is represented by property tax reduction.

And let me reemphasize. This revenue increase of $127 million during the next fiscal year is matched against corresponding property tax reductions of $177 million.

Even after this proposal to gain necessary support for our schools for the next fiscal year, there will still be a $50 million net bonus in terms of taxes on our citizens. In individual terms, a family of four living in a $25,000 home, this family of four at the average family income in the State of Washington, will receive an average property tax reduction of $108 during this next school year and will pay $47 more in state sales tax.

The third element of this package—to avoid a repetition of this crisis—will require the best of all of us. I call for the joint executive and legislative appointment of a broadly based citizen task force to seek alternatives for permanent, guaranteed basic school financial support. This group should seek maximum citizen input and be prepared to report back to a legislative session in September, 1975 to allow preparation of those alternatives for a citizen vote in November, 1975. Any alternative chosen in November ought to be sufficient to handle the basic needs of education for the school year 1976-77 and for the years to come.

Fourth, and perhaps most important, financial certainty is simply not enough. I believe we can improve educational management and give more specific direction to those who govern our school systems. The citizen message is clear. The price for basic financial support of education is educational excellence and prudent management.

The proposed citizen task force and the legislature should give close attention to this major challenge. And I do suggest that there be a dual request of this citizen task force to seek the alternative for permanent financial solution and at the same time to look broadly at the potential for better educational direction and a more fundamental understanding of what constitutes basic and supportable education.

Under the leadership of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and with the cooperation of the Association of Washington Business, a thorough management analysis of our school system has just been completed. I am confident that the results will assist greatly in this task of better school management.

During the past several weeks I have received many additional suggestions of this nature. They include: Merit-pay; accountability and measurement of achievement in the basics of education; tougher accreditation standards for schools and better enforcement of those standards; a uniform accounting and information base for all schools so that we may all know better what really is going on in education; extended contracts for teachers to allow extra days for teacher preparation and continuing in-service training; a probationary period for new-hires in our educational system; the continuing contract law not applying to administrators in respect to their administrative positions but rather holding those positions as administrators on the basis of a job well done; reduction in force policies conducted on other than simply seniority basis; more efficient transportation and purchasing policies throughout the state; regionalization and consolidation of some educational or educational management functions.

Now not all of these suggestions may be practical or even desirable. And they are certainly not all inclusive. But they speak loudly of a citizen demand for good management and good education. And the two should not be incompatible.

While these proposals are specific, I am prepared to work with this legislature and each member of the legislature on other practical alternatives to resolve this problem, keeping in mind four basic requirements:

1. That we do resolve the immediate financial need.
2. That we do provide real money for this immediate need.
3. That we do set in motion a means of reaching a permanent solution.
4. That we seek out methods of improving educational management.

Too seldom do any of us go back and look at the basic document of government under which we govern. The Constitution of Washington State in Article IX, Section 1 states:

'It is the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders, without distinction or preference on account of race, color, caste, or sex.'

That constitutional provision was written into our Constitution in 1889. We have all taken the same oath on assuming office which includes the words to promise to 'uphold the Constitution and the laws of the State of Washington.' The words of Article IX are clear and unmistakeable. There can be no misunderstanding.

The time is now to turn that constitutional rhetoric into reality.

I cannot believe that we will pass a budget inadequate to meet these needs, and adjourn without facing this issue. I could not and will not support such a course.

Let not the shame of inaction follow anyone from these halls, but rather the gratitude of our next generation given a renewed opportunity by thoughtful and courageous public servants.

Thank you.''

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Mr. Kuehnle, the action we took on line 29 by changing 'and' to 'or'—is the effect of this that each of the interest coupons must be signed without a facsimile; that is, by either the president or the secretary?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "Well, I guess I can't answer the question. After you called this to my attention and as I reread the bill, I'm not sure what the effect is. The intent obviously was to allow one facsimile signature on the bond, but then the last language relates to both facsimile signatures on bond coupons. I think we had better take a look at it and if the thrust of that amendment has been to require even one original signature on bond coupons, then this would just be a waste of time, but I think we had better check it out and we can catch it with committee amendments in the Senate, I think."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "I would like to know how you can make provisions for people with religious beliefs—how do you exempt them from drinking the only water that comes through their water supply?"

Mr. Pardini: "The same way that you had proposed to make provision for people who want fluoridation. You suggested that they get a separate water supply or a separate tablet. I suppose that those people who don't want fluoridation can go to a well and get fresh water."

Mr. Kuehnle spoke against adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mrs. Hurley (Margaret).

Mrs. Hurley: "You mentioned that the people could also vote it in, but isn't it also possible that the local government could require fluoridation by ordinance and it would not require any vote of the people at all?"

Mr. Pardini: "Absolutely, they could, Mrs. Hurley, that's why those local people are elected to public office, to fulfill the responsibilities as they see fit."

Mr. Haley spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

On page 2, line 28 after "owner-lessee" strike "no more than one" and insert "a"

Representatives Kuehnle and Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Knowles spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "It appears to me that the present language without Representative Kuehnle's amendment could be interpreted—maybe you could clarify it for me—if a person owns six single family dwelling units can he maintain the restriction under the present language? It appears to me that the general classification in real estate is a single family dwelling, a multiple family dwelling, a duplex, fourplex, apartment house, and I am wondering about the owner/lessor of no more than one single family dwelling unit—would that mean that he could only own one, but that if he owned two he could not discriminate on the basis of marital status?"

Mr. Knowles: "That's not the intention. The intention here is that if he owns more than one then he comes under this general law on discrimination on the basis of sex or anything else. If those individuals own two or three, that might not be so bad, but as you well know there are many landlords that own as many as 50 dwelling units. When he has only one, this would then be consistent because he could state a policy of who he wants in that one unit and there couldn't be any discrimination. When he gets to the point where he uses one kind of restriction in one unit and a different kind in another, then perhaps (I don't know for sure) he might then be discriminating."

Representatives Nelson and Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke in opposition to it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Kuehnle and Newhouse to Substitute House Bill No. 659, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 58; not voting, 7.

Mr. Pardini again spoke in favor of the motion to reconsider the amendment.
Mr. Conner demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Not voting: Representatives Gaspard, King, McCormick, North.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Thompson, HOUSE BILL NO. 662 was rereferred from Committee on Social and Health Services to Committee on Local Government.

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, April 23, 1975.

Prescribing changes to the law against discrimination.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, beginning on line 32 strike all material down to and including "involved" on line 36 and insert the following: "In addition to the foregoing exception, nothing in this section shall prohibit the owner-lessee of two or more dwelling units from limiting any rental or lease occupancy or unit to one married couple or to one individual or two or more individuals of the same sex only: PROVIDED, That such limitation is the consistent written policy of the landlord as to the premises involved"

Representatives Newhouse and Knowles spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Boldt.

Mr. Boldt: "Representative Newhouse, would it be the intention of your amendment in the term 'unit,' that a unit is one living dwelling, or could a unit be construed here to mean a complex of more than one unit?"

Mr. Newhouse: "I would interpret unit to possibly include an apartment house unit where there would be multiple unit apartment houses."

Mr. Boldt: "So the word unit here could mean a complex of multiple dwellings for more than one family or more than one tenant?"

Mr. Newhouse: "Yes."

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Bond moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Leckenby and Bond:
On page 1, line 16 add new sections to read as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:
No state agency shall establish or continue to effect any rule or regulation which would prohibit any specified communication, or inhibit communication generally, in preemployment or employment situations unless such rule or regulation is prefaced with or includes a statement noting that the prohibition applies only if such communication is used or intended to limit, specify, or discriminate as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental or physical handicap without relation to a bona fide occupational qualification.
Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 6, chapter 214, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.180 are each amended to read as follows:
It is an unfair practice for any employer:
(1) To refuse to hire any person because of such person's age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, That the prohibition against discrimination because of such handicap shall not apply if the particular disability prevents the proper performance of the particular worker involved.
(2) To discharge or bar any person from employment because of such person's age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.
(3) To discriminate against any person in compensation or in other terms or conditions of employment because of such person's age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap: PROVIDED, That it shall not be an unfair practice for an employer to segregate washrooms or locker facilities on the basis of sex, or to base other terms and conditions of employment on the sex of employees where the board by regulation or ruling in a particular instance has found the employment practice to be appropriate for the practical realization of equality of opportunity between the sexes.
(4) To print, or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, Nothing contained herein shall prohibit advertising in a foreign language: PROVIDED FURTHER, Nothing contained herein shall restrict or inhibit any communication in preemployment or employment situations if such communication is not used or intended to limit, specify, or discriminate as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Knowles: "I request that the Chair examine this amendment on the basis of scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker finds that under Rule 33, 'No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of an amendment; and no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the House.' The Speaker finds that the amendment and House Bill No. 61 are the same proposition."

Mr. Leckenby: "Mr. Speaker, I had House Bill No. 61 drafted and it was never acted upon by our Labor Committee. I felt this was an opportunity to get this information out. It is in regard to preemployment communications regulations that have been set up by the Human Rights Commission. This applies particularly to exconvicts. Having been involved for many years in attempts to employ exconvicts and to have them employed by other organizations, I feel that it is very important that the Washington State Human Rights Commission remove the restrictions they have set up or have proposed to set up in the WAC Code. There are many employers who are making a positive effort to employ exconvicts and the more restrictions put in their way the fewer times they are going to make positive efforts to employ these people. That was the purpose of my proposed amendment. I would like to get this into the statute, but perhaps if the Human Rights Commission understands the extent of the problem they are creating—that when a prospective employer would talk to an exconvict and perhaps decide not to employ him, that employer would then be exposing himself to action from the Human Rights Commission. If they didn't have these kinds of regulations those employers who have good intentions would be freer to exercise their communications with these people and I'm sure that more employment would take place. It was for that reason that I felt that this should be acted upon by this body."

The Speaker: "I would have to hold that this is the subject matter of another bill as it now stands and therefore the point of order is well taken, and I would have to rule it out of order."

Substitute House Bill No. 659 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 707, by Representatives Chatalas and Pardini:

Raising license fees and raising maximum amount small loan companies can loan.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Financial Institutions recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, Fourteenth Day, ex. sess., March 27, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Pardini, the committee amendment was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Hurley (George):

With the consent of the House, Mr. Hurley withdrew the amendment.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Hurley (George):

On page 6, line 21 after "((one))" and before "dollars" strike "three thousand five hundred" and insert "two thousand"
Mr. Blair moved adoption of the following amendment to the Hurley amendment:
On line 3 after "two thousand" insert "five hundred"

Mr. Blair spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Hurley (George) spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "Recognizing from Representative Hurley's opening comments that some of his remarks might be harsh, I believe that his opening remarks are totally out of order and inappropriate. I believe the Chair should instruct Mr. Hurley to just tone it down."

The Speaker: "Representative Hurley, I think the demeanor of the House does require that we use discretion in our debate, and further, I hope that you will restrict your remarks at this time to the amendment before us. When we get to final passage, if the bill goes that far, the entire subject matter is then open for debate. The amendment before us is whether we should add $500 onto your limitation."

Mr. Hurley (George) continued his remarks in opposition to the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Bender spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Chatalas and Pardini spoke against it.

Mr. Hurley (George) spoke again in opposition to the amendment to his amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Blair: "Representative Hurley's remarks certainly pertain to the main body of the bill, but they really have nothing to do with my amendment, or, in fact, his amendment, which doesn't relate to rates at all, but relates to maximum amounts that can be obtained from the loan institutions."

The Speaker: "Your point of order is well taken. Representative Hurley, the present subject matter before us is the amendment to the amendment which raises the limit another five hundred dollars, so I would appreciate it if you could stay within the confines of the amendment."

Mr. Hurley continued his remarks against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini yielded to question by Mr. Lysen.

Mr. Lysen: "You're in the business of financial institutions. I would just like to know, originally, when this bill was enacted, about in 1941, as I understand it there was a $300 cap and they moved it to $500 in the fifties and then in 1959 they moved it to a thousand dollars. What was the rationale at that time for the cap and the cap of $1,000, and why would we change that rationale now to go beyond inflation? I think this amendment of $2000 or $2500 is responsible in terms of the inflation from 1959 until now. I would like to know what has changed in the financial industry which would change our thinking on this?"

Mr. Pardini: "I cannot account for the rationale in 1941 or 1949; I would suspect that rationale was the same rationale that it is an obligation of the state to put some upper limit on loans with higher interest rates, such as the small loans. In answer to the second part of your question as to why it should go to $3500, my opinion would be that since 1941, since 1959, the extension of credit probably is not in direct proportion to the rise in the consumer price index. The extension of credit probably is more in proportion to the standard of living—to the color television sets, the automobile, the boat, the orthodontist, the buckle ski boots, to ten-speed bicycles, and I suspect that might be a little better criteria rather than the consumer price index."

Representatives Lysen and Moon spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Chatalas and Pardini spoke against it.

Mr. Chatalas spoke again in opposition to the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

"(6) No licensee shall knowingly make a loan to any borrower who is already indebted to another licensee under this chapter unless such prior loan is completely discharged by the payment of a portion of the proceeds of the current loan. No financial statement taken from a borrower shall be used to hold a debt nondischargeable in any bankruptcy proceeding.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Bender and Fischer.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Randall, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representative Smith (Rick) to the Bender/Fischer amendment failed to be adopted.

Whenever any public service company shall file with the commission any schedule, classification, rule or regulation, the effect of which is to change any rate, charge, rental or toll theretofore charged, the commission shall have power, either upon its own motion or upon complaint, upon notice, to enter upon a hearing concerning such proposed change and the reasonableness and justness thereof, and pending such hearing and the decision thereon the commission may suspend the operation of such rate, charge, rental or toll for a period not exceeding ((ten)) eight months from the time the same would otherwise go into effect, and after a full hearing the commission may make such order in reference thereto as would be provided in a hearing initiated after the same had become effective.

At any hearing involving any change in any schedule, classification, rule or regulation the effect of which is to increase any rate, charge, rental or toll theretofore charged, the burden of proof to show that such increase is just and reasonable shall be upon the public service company.

The commission shall have power upon complaint or upon its own motion to ascertain and determine the fair value for rate-making purposes of the property of any public service company used ((and)) or useful for service in this state and shall exercise such power whenever it shall deem such valuation or determination necessary or proper under any of the provisions of this title.

The commission shall have the power to make revaluations of the property of any public service company from time to time.

The commission shall, before any hearing is had, notify the complainants and the public service company concerned of the time and place of such hearing by giving at least thirty days' written notice thereof, specifying that at the time and place designated a hearing will be held for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the company's property, used ((and)) or useful as aforesaid, which notice shall be sufficient to authorize the commission to inquire into and pass upon the matters designated in this section.

In determining fair value for rate-making purposes of the properties of any public service company, the commission shall, if the public service company requests, consider appropriate value other than the original cost of the properties. The commission shall determine such fair value as of the end of the rate-making test period used in said proceeding.

In determining the fair value for rate-making purposes of the properties of any public service company, the commission shall include utility plant under construction to the extent requested by the public service company: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no such inclusion shall be allowed where the public service company fails to commit itself to forego the taking of interest during construction on such plant under construction: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such inclusion of utility plant under construction shall not exceed the actual costs incurred. The commission shall also consider reasonable allowance for working capital.

Sec. 3. Section 80.08.040, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 80.08.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for authorization to issue such stocks and stock certificates or other evidence of interest or ownership, and bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness shall be made to the commission stating the amount, character, terms and purpose of each proposed issue thereof, and stating such other pertinent details as the commission may require.

To enable it to determine whether it will issue such order, the commission may hold a hearing and may make such additional inquiry or investigation, and examine such witnesses, books, papers, documents, and contracts, and require the filing of such data as it may deem of assistance. The commission may by its order grant permission for the issuance of such stocks or stock certificates or other evidence of interest or ownership, or bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness in the amount applied for, or in a lesser amount, or not at all, and may attach to the exercise of its permission such condition or conditions as it may deem reasonable and necessary.

If a commission or other agency or agencies is empowered by another state to regulate and control the amount and character of securities to be issued by any public service company within such other state, then the commission shall have the power to agree with such commission or other agency or agencies of such other state on the issuance of stocks and stock certificates or other evidence of interest or ownership, and bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness by a public service company owning or operating a public utility both in such state and in this state, and shall have the power to approve such issue jointly with such commission or other agency or agencies and to issue a joint certificate of such approval: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no such joint certificate of such approval shall be required in order to express the consent to and approval of such issue by the state of Washington if said issue is separately approved by the commission.

The public service company making the application may have the decision or order of the commission reviewed in the courts in the same manner and by the same procedure as any other order or decision of the commission, when the public service company shall deem such decision or order to be in any respect or manner improper, unjust or unreasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 80.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The commission shall have the authority to authorize and approve the terms of any lease of utility facilities by a public service company, as lessee, if the public service company makes proper application to the commission certifying that such authorization or approval is necessary or appropriate to exempt any owner of the facilities from being a public utility company under the federal public utility holding company act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 80.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In determining cost of service in any proceeding before the commission which commenced after December 31, 1974, the effect of which is to change a rate, rental, or toll of a public service company, the commission shall, if requested by the public service company involved:

(1) Use as a deduction for depreciation expense in calculating income tax expense the same amount as that allowed by the commission as depreciation expense in calculating the company's net operating income for the same accounting period, or such greater amount as may be requested by the public service company. Any tax deferral resulting from the difference between the depreciation deduction so determined and depreciation expense for the same period using lives and methods used by the company for income tax purposes shall be credited to a reserve account for deferred taxes, to be amortized as a credit to income tax expense ratably over the estimated depreciable life used in recording depreciation expense for the related property on the books of the public service company or such lesser period as may be requested by such company: PROVIDED, That no such amortization or other action shall be required which would result in loss of any tax depreciation benefit by the company under the federal income tax laws.

(2) Calculate income tax expense without regard to any investment tax credit allowed under federal tax laws, except that income tax expense may be reduced by amortizing any investment tax credit ratably over a period specified by the public service company, not exceeding the book depreciation life of the related property: PROVIDED, That no reduction shall be required which would result in loss of any investment tax credit by the public service company under the federal income tax laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this 1975 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This 1975 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Mr. Charette demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Perry and Pardini to Substitute House Bill No. 435.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Sommers, Clemente, Seeberger, Sherman and Boldt to the Perry/Pardini amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment strike the last two underlined full paragraphs of section 2 and insert:

"In determining the fair value for rate-making purposes of the properties of any public service company, the commission shall include utility plant under construction unless the commission finds that the inclusion thereof is not in the public interest: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in any case where construction work in progress is considered in the rate base the public service company shall not be permitted any allowance for funds used during construction on any portion of construction work in progress included in the rate base."

Representatives Sommers, Seeberger and Bender spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Perry, Bond and Pardini spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Perry yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Perry, I have great respect for your command of the energy problems and for your understanding of the utilities questions and issues, but I stated in my remarks that the commission shall also consider reasonable allowance for working capital, would allow the utility to take consumer payments, ratepayer's money, and add them to the base and thus receive a rate of return on consumer money. When you spoke you stated that was not so, but you did not explain, and I would like to ask you to explain how that language 'the commission shall also consider reasonable allowance for working capital' would allow the commission to disallow a reasonable allowance if those funds happen to be ratepayer's funds?"

Mr. Perry: "The commission never allows you to use the ratepayer's money to increase the ratepayer's costs; that's deducted from your operation. In other words, if they allow you to use it in the company, you don't earn on the working capital. The only thing that allowing that money to stay in there does is preclude you from paying short-term interest to a bank. The ratepayer ultimately pays for the whole thing. For instance, if you have a one-time accrual of $30 or $40 million and it remains within the company (it's usually not that much money that remains) it remains for working capital, to do the things that you have to do within that structure. The only difference is that when the company borrows that money it then goes into the next rate base period and receives back from the consumer of power the total cost of all the interest on the money plus the money that they used within the working base of their company. The working capital, as such, isn't earned on; you can't take the ratepayer's money, have him pay it, put it into the system and then draw money back double-dip from the operation. The only money that stockholders can earn on is the money they invested. It just isn't done that way; the commission does not allow that kind of thing. You have the choice of retention or a flow-through. If it flows through the company rather than being used as working capital then it is either put into a rate reduction (if the company is very solvent and doesn't need the money) or it's put into the next rate case that the company has as a deduction. The following rate case, should you borrow money after that period of that rate case, goes into the rate base. I think the thing we have got to recognize here, is that every single dime paid in utilities for electric service, either public or private, is paid by the user. This is true in all utilities. The only thing here is that the amount of money that is allowed to flow back through the utilities for the investment capital; it doesn't do them any good to have any kind of a rate base that they can't earn a rate of return on. In other words, the rate base—it does good financially to borrow money, but it doesn't do any good for them to get any money to the stockholders. The states, as Representative Pardini has stated, that have normalization have lower rates of return to the stockholders because they consider more factors. You can't have your cake and eat it too."

Representatives McKibbin and Chandler spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Leckenby and Flanagan spoke against it.

FORTY-THIRD DAY, APRIL 25, 1975

Substitute House Bill No. 484, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 659, by Committee on Judiciary (Originally sponsored by Representatives Newhouse, Knowles, Curtis, Bond, Eikenberry, Greengo, Hayner, Hendricks, Leckenby, Matthews, Nelson and Wilson):

Prescribing changes to the law against discrimination.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Newhouse and Knowles spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Ms. Maxie.

Ms. Maxie: "It has been called to my attention by the American Association of University Women that perhaps the amendments adopted in this bill inadvertently permit discrimination against single parent families. I was wondering if you know for certain that this is the case? It appears that House Bill No. 659 permits exclusion of people from family housing if the head of the household is single. In your opinion, is this true?"

Mr. Newhouse: "It would not be true in my opinion. You will recall the rather extensive debate and the final amendment adopted which was prepared by committee staff and given to me by Representative Knowles which allows discrimination as to unmarried couples, but would not prohibit any single family parent with a family from getting into any type of housing unless it were for singles only."

Ms. Maxie: "Was that page 2, section 1, beginning on line 32—was that what you are referring to?"

Mr. Newhouse: "Yes."

Ms. Maxie: "So it would be your opinion that this would not permit discrimination against single families?"

Mr. Newhouse: "Yes, with the sole exception that the landlord would have the option, I think, for certain types of housing if it's a uniform policy over that area, to say 'single only.' In that case no family would be allowed. But those are rather rare."

Ms. Maxie: "Is that in operation now, do you know?"

Mr. Newhouse: "I have no way of knowing; I know it's in operation in other states of the country, but I'm not sure about this state."

Ms. Maxie: "And you don't see that as a discrimination against single people who happen to have children—to say 'single only, no children allowed?' I'm concerned about a single person—whether it's a male or a female—having a family and they can't find any dwelling. I'm wondering if maybe Representative Knowles can clarify it for me."

Mr. Knowles: "It isn't the intent in the bill to do such a thing. The real reason for the married couple thing is that it's a highly emotional area. I think Representative Pardini spoke to it the other day when he was speaking about the amendment in our particular different sections. It is the real feeling that a lot of people would like to be able to not rent to persons if they know that they are not married. Now this is a limited provision whereby if some want to take advantage of it they can set aside certain sections in their apartment complex, and say that they are only going to rent to married people. Now if they do that under some sort of a consistent policy, and that might be in the lease, might be in the rules and regulations that are presented to people applying for housing in that unit, might be posted on the wall with rules and regulations. At the same time in other areas in that particular apartment complex there may be one limited for single persons and that area then they might want to rent to single males only or in another section they might want to rent to single females only. Now that would be up to the landlord if he wants to put those kinds of restrictions on in various parts of a different unit. Or if he owns several individual single family dwelling units and he wanted to adopt that policy, he could do so without the Human Rights Commission feeling that that was discriminatory. In talking with the Human Rights Commission also on this problem, they felt that the bill, that the law that they have to work with, causes them to bring these kinds of complaints out and look into them and investigate them. They'd rather not fiddle with them, so they actually requested some kind of language that would let them off the hook so there wouldn't be any need to investigate those kinds of complaints. I don't think every landlord in the state is going to take advantage of this; I'm sure there's going to be competition in housing and several landlords willing to rent to anyone they see fit. It's just in those particular instances where there is a real emotional feeling on the part of the landlord that he does not want unmarried couples living within his dwelling unit, and this entire section was designed to accommodate that particular kind of a landlord."

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Sommers, Smith (Rick), Wojahn and Flanagan:

On page 1, line 27 after "That" insert "in any case where the board determines that private employers do not pay comparable salaries to men and women who hold positions that require or impose similar responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills and working conditions, the board may equalize such salaries for purposes of establishing the prevailing wages: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That"

On page 8, line 16 after "That" insert "in any case where the board determines that private employers do not pay comparable salaries to men and women who hold positions that require or impose similar responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills and working conditions, the board may equalize such salaries for purposes of establishing the prevailing wage: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That"

Representatives Sommers and Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Shinpoch.

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Sommers, in your remarks you used the words 'work study.' I read the amendments and it talks about similar responsibility, judgment and all these skills and working conditions; those are two different things in my judgment. The comparable work study is not necessarily based on these things and I would like to have a clarification from you whether you are talking about comparable work or whether you are talking about paying for similar responsibilities, and there is a considerable difference."

Ms. Sommers: "In my mind, a comparable work study used different words—they used accountability and some other words, but I think they were getting at the same thing. I would read it through to find the exact criteria they used, but in discussing this we felt that these were the important criteria and perhaps this language suited our purposes better."

Mr. Shinpoch: "Do you have a fiscal impact on this?"

Ms. Sommers: "No, I do not; in fact, Representative Shinpoch, I have been asking for a fiscal impact on the bill itself and we don't have one on that either."

Mr. Shinpoch: "Well, to comment on that, if you think the words in here are similar to the comparable work study then certainly there is a fiscal impact on the comparable work study. I understood your words to mean similar—at least it reached a similar position. There is a fiscal impact on the comparable work study and that has been out and well-known for quite some period of time; however, the only way that the fiscal note can go on this—the changes that we are proposing on this bill, other than these amendments—is that it has to reduce the amount of expenditures in the state. There would be a reduction as it takes out, in effect, the negotiation section which costs us $14 million in this biennium. If you did nothing else other than take that section out, this would reduce the fiscal impact. I think you are well aware that there is a considerable fiscal impact there if you are really basing it on the comparable work study."

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the amendments.

The amendments were adopted.
On motion of Mr. Shinpoch, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 15, section 8, line 6 after "RCW" strike "41.06.160" and insert "28B.16.110"

On page 10, line 24 after "industries" strike "((and other governmental units))" and insert "and other governmental units"

On page 12, line 7 after "industries" strike "((and other governmental units for positions of a similar nature in the locality in which the institution or related board is located))" and insert "and other governmental units for positions of a similar nature in the locality in which the institution or related board is located"

Representatives Douthwaite, Bausch, Moon and King spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Shinpoch and Flanagan spoke against them.

Mr. Pardini demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

Representatives Wojahn, Douthwaite and Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Shinpoch and Polk spoke against them.

ROLL CALL

insulation standards are amended to and incorporated in the Uniform Building Code and Related Stan­

Representatives Polk and Bauer spoke in favor of the amendment and it was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "I apologize for popping up with this at the last minute, but quickly glancing at the bill, particularly the language in section 3, which sets forth those instances in which the act shall become mandatory, it appears that it is not aimed at commercial buildings; it is not aimed at buildings of a temporary nature, but it appears that it would specifically include even part-time facilities, such as lake cottages, beach cottages, that type of thing, even though those facilities might only be designed for usage during a very limited period of time when the insulation requirements contained herein would add considerable cost and really wouldn't benefit anyone. I would like to know if it was your intent that we include that type of construction in this act?"

Mr. Bauer: "You are talking about residential, new construction?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "I'm talking about beach cottages and lake cottages, which could be new construction and which are dwelling units and which are designed for human occupancy but there isn't any provision here for such occupancies which are not designed for year-round use."

Mr. Bauer: "It would be my interpretation that they would be included. In fact, if they are residential in nature they would be included."

MOTION

Mr. Kuehnle moved that further consideration of the bill be deferred and it take its place on Monday's second reading calendar.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle yielded to question by Mr. Bauer.

Mr. Bauer: "For what purpose are you asking this be held until Monday?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "For the purpose of amending section 3 to exclude residences designed for part-time occupancy. I think the concept here is excellent, except that I don't think we want to extend it to lake cabins which would just substantially increase those costs and, I think, unnecessarily. I'd like time to prepare and get together with you to prepare a proper amendment to handle that area."

Mr. Bauer spoke in favor of the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Kuehnle to defer action on Substitute House Bill No. 664 and place it on Monday's second reading calendar, and the motion was

If a ballot measure requesting authorization to impose an excess millage levy for maintenance and operation has been twice submitted by the district to the voters of the district and has failed to receive voter approval for imposition, then and in that event, such local district may enter into employment contracts with certificated personnel, who have previously received nonrenewal notifications, on a month-to-month basis or any part thereof, and any such contract shall terminate automatically upon the date established by the terms of the contract without further action by either party and without further rights to or responsibilities upon either party: PROVIDED, That no contract entered into pursuant to this section shall give rise to any rights under RCW 28A.67.070 (conditions and contracts of employment).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Thompson: "Mr. Speaker, I challenge this amendment on the basis of scope and object."

Mr. Curtis: "The bill before us deals with teachers' supplemental contracts; the amendment that has been offered by Representative Hendricks and myself deals with a situation when a school district has lost their special levy twice and they have thus been confronted with the necessity of reducing or ridding some of their certificated faculty. If a school district were to meet those conditions, then our amendment would allow that school district to contract on a month-to-month basis with those teachers until such time as the problem of sufficient funding could be resolved. In my estimation that constitutes a supplemental contract and I would hope the Chair would consider that within the scope and object of the bill. In addition to that, Mr. Speaker, I would very much appreciate the opportunity to discuss this issue on the floor of the House. Representative Hendricks and I offered it as one possible part of a possible solution to the school funding problem. We are all looking at and trying to find ways to solve this problem and it seems to me that if you look down the pike a little ways that maybe one of the things this House might want to do in this legislature is to put a temporary tax increase on the ballot this fall. Maybe we'd like the people to vote even on that. If that's the case, then you're asking the schools to open their doors in September betting on what's going to happen in the election later on in September or even in November. If that is the case and they have already had to riff some teachers then it seems to me they would want the opportunity to contract on a month-to-month basis. We offer this not as an enemy of the continuing contract, and not as an enemy of House Bill No. 975, but rather as one potential piece of a solution to this bigger problem that confronts us all. I just can't see that anything other than good healthy debate would benefit each and everyone of us."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Curtis, I think that this amendment does exceed the scope and object of this bill in that this bill is dealing with supplemental contracts and the amendment is going into another area of the teacher's contract field. I feel that this should be the subject matter of a separate bill. Therefore, I will rule it beyond the scope and object."

Substitute House Bill No. 975 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

An employer violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. May spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. May yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "I was wondering if in your amendment the employer would include farm labor contractors? Who would be responsible there, the farm labor contractor or the farmer?"

Mr. May: "It would if he was illegally in the country and transporting people from Mexico or Canada. Then he would be an alien too in the same category as the noncitizen."

Mr. Tilly: "What I meant, the farm labor contractor is probably an American citizen, but if he recruited illegal aliens to work for him, would your amendment apply to the farm labor contractor or to the farmer?"

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE,
THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to advise that on April 28, 1975, Governor Evans approved the following House Bills, entitled:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 87: Revising regulations on control of noxious weeds.
HOUSE BILL NO. 377: Increasing certain fees and licenses for game and game fish.

TO THE HONORABLE,
THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have approved on this date SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 208 entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to the revision of rape laws."

This bill is the culmination of the commendable efforts of many citizens to update our antiquated rape laws and to assure that victims of rape are entitled to some basic rights of privacy and protection of reputation from indiscriminate and unwarranted defamation during trial of rape cases.

I have however, grave reservations on the effect of a floor amendment attached to the bill in the Senate. The intended purpose of the amendment was to set a three-year mandatory minimum term for first degree rape during which time an inmate would not be entitled to good time reduction of sentence or to participation in work release or furlough programs. As drafted, the amendment goes far beyond that, and prohibits an inmate, during the entire term of his sentence, from good time reduction and participation in the specified programs.

I am advised that the proponent of the amendment admits that this is the unintended consequence, and that remarks on the floor of the Senate during consideration of the amendment related to such prohibition only during the mandatory minimum three-year period. Knowing the full consequences of the amendment as drafted, it is highly probable that the amendment would not have been approved by the Senate, and if approved, would not have been accepted by the House.

My alternatives in acting on this bill have been considerably limited by the elimination of the item veto. I could veto the entire bill, but in doing so would negate the needed and positive portions of the bill as well as the hard work of all those who contributed in passing the bill. I could also veto the entire section 4 and advise the legislature in a veto message to take prompt corrective action. The risk of taking such action, which would eliminate from the act both the definition of and punishment for first degree rape, is much too great in view of approaching adjournment of this legislative session and the chances that there would be no corrective action.

I have therefore decided to approve the bill, but I cannot overemphasize the need for immediate action to correct the language of the Senate amendment, which, if left unchanged, would be unjust and would further be highly counterproductive in removing all incentive from an inmate to rehabilitate and the chance to undergo a gradual and structured transition to life outside the institution.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS, Governor.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

On page 2, line 8 of the engrossed bill, being line 7 of the printed bill, after the period insert "The department shall purchase ambulance care by contract either on a 'fee for service' basis or at a reasonable cost based on a ratio of charges to cost. Any ambulance service when requested by the department shall supply such information as necessary to justify its rate charges, or costs. The department shall establish an ambulance accounting and reimbursement system which recognizes relevant cost factors, including a reasonable rate of return on investment, in providing ambulance services generally. The contract with any ambulance service shall provide that no payment shall be made to the ambulance service if it does not permit inspection by the department of its vehicles, premises, and records, including financial records."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Shinpoch moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 278, and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "Did I understand that your motion was that we do not concur with the Senate amendment and ask them to recede?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "That is correct."

Mr. Kuehnle: "On the basis of my very limited information on this subject, I think that the Senate amendment was an attempt to provide the capability for DSHS to contract for or pay for ambulance services offered by nongovernmental ambulance services—free enterprise-type services. Up to this time, as I understand it, there has been a flat fee of some sort which they have been paying and the amount has been relatively constant for a number of years, the result being that at the present time they just simply are losing money providing this ambulance service and as a consequence the ambulance service is not anxious to provide it. They need an increase in fees in order to make this service more readily available and at least allow them to break even. I think the intent of the Senate amendment is to correct that and allow reimbursement on a cost basis and it provides for inspection of the ambulance company's records, etc., in order to make a determination of that cost. If we do not concur with the Senate amendment, how are we going to approach the problem of at least allowing the ambulance operators to break even on the services they render for DSHS?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "As the bill passed out of Appropriations Committee, it did not consider that there was going to be a $1,700,000 fiscal impact on it. I think before this body would want to accept a fiscal impact of that type we would want to look at that expenditure by itself, not as an amendment to a bill coming back to us from the Senate. On an expenditure of that magnitude, it's not good legislating to accept an amendment just because it was put on in the other house. I think we should study that problem separately."

Mr. Kuehnle: "Was this problem not studied by Ways and Means – Appropriations?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Yes, it was and it was rejected—not as a portion of this bill, however, but as a portion of the regular appropriation process. The $1,700,000 was not discussed as a portion of this bill, but as a portion of the regular appropriation process and it was rejected."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Kuehnle, further action on Engrossed House Bill No. 278 was deferred.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Moon: "Mr. Speaker, five days ago the House Ways and Means – Revenue Committee passed and signed out House Bill No. 673 which authorizes the corporate franchise tax. To date that bill has not been reported out of committee. It's still listed on today's House status sheet as in House Ways and Means Committee, and I raise the point of inquiry as to why that bill hasn't been reported out of the committee and read in and assigned to the Rules Committee."

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "Representative Moon, the rules of the House provide that a bill such as House Bill No. 673 which has the fiscal impact that it has, must be reported out of the full Ways and Means Committee. Within the internal workings of that committee it has not had a hearing and been reported out by the full committee."

SECOND READING

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that HOUSE BILL NO. 971 be placed at the top of today's second reading calendar for immediate consideration.

Mr. Moon spoke against the motion.

Mr. Thompson withdrew his motion.

Substitute House Bill No. 351 was read the second time.

Mr. Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Charnley and Sommers:

On page 4, following line 6 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(11) Accept contributions, grants or gifts in cash or otherwise from persons, associations, or corporations, such contributions to be disbursed in the same manner as money appropriated by the legislature: PROVIDED, That the donor of such gifts may stipulate the purpose for which they shall be expended."

Representatives Charnley and Sommers spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charnley yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Representative Charnley, your amendment says that the department may accept contributions, grants or gifts to be distributed in the same manner as money appropriated by the Legislature provided that the donor may stipulate the purpose. Does that mean that a person could make a grant of $100,000 or so—or a private business—to the Department of Commerce and Economic Development and say to use this money in a certain manner and therefore kind of sideways get the endorsement of the state of Washington with the use of that money, even though it might not be a policy of the state?"

Mr. Charnley: "I can't do more than quote to you from the existing law and the existing law is exactly that language. That is the present law that is in RCW 43.31.140, which is the section we are deleting in the next amendment. I simply am restating that section into the new sections of this law to bring a total consistency and to make the whole total consistent. You are simply reading a section of law that is now in effect. I felt that it should be retained in this manner."

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Charnley, the following amendments by Representatives Charnley and Sommers were adopted:

On page 4, following line 25 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(6) Section 43.31.140, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.31.140;"

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.
On page 1, line 12 of the title after "43.31.130;" insert "repealing section 43.31.140, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.31.140;"

Substitute House Bill No. 351 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 526, by Representatives Fortson, Brown and McKibbin (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):

Giving added responsibility and authority to intermediate school districts.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Education recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, Twenty-first Day ex. sess., April 3, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Bauer, the committee amendments to page 1, line 12 and page 2, line 10 were adopted.

Mr. Bauer moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, line 22, adding a new section.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "The language of the last amendment which you addressed has the effect of putting words in the mouth of the State Board of Education and indicating that the Legislature feels that we should reduce the number of intermediate school districts. This may be well and good in some areas; in my area the intermediate school district we have now is so large that I don't think they can even find all the schools in it, and I am wondering if any of the thrust of this amendment and this language contained in the law would tend in any way to have the effect of increasing the size of some districts that are already too large?"

Mr. Bauer: "I suppose that's a possibility. You see, the State Board already has that authority; this would really give the legislative intent. As you know we are now financing ISD's out of the general fund. This transition has taken place incrementally over the last few years and is to be concluded by 1980, and with the Legislature providing by 1980 all the funds for the support of the ISD's it would seem reasonable that the Legislature would take the larger role in determining, or at least encouraging the State Board to make an up-to-date assessment of their function and make some recommendations."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Luders yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "Inasmuch as you are closer to this area than any other member of this House, do you have any concern relative to this language which expresses as a foregone conclusion the fact that we should reduce the number of ISD's?"

Mr. Luders: "To the extent that the language of the amendment speaks in generalities, it doesn't seem likely to me that it would necessarily impact our area, in the event that the State Board were to take another look at it. We are already, in 101 in Eastern Washington, going beyond the geographical boundaries of the ISD's right now for a number of purposes—transportation for one and private school authorization for another—and so the district lines concept may or may not be valid in the future. What worries me is that as the Legislature absorbs more of the funding that it will sooner or later probably have to address the problem of what we are going to do in this area."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, further action on House Bill No. 526 was deferred.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Sommers, Substitute House Bill No. 378 was substituted for House Bill No. 378, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 378 was read the second time.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 13 following "gather" and before "statistical" insert "available"

Representatives Kuehnle and Sommers spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Moon spoke against it.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Moon spoke again in opposition to it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Kuehnle to Substitute House Bill No. 378, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 41; not voting, 13.

Not voting: Representatives Blair, Ceccarelli, Chatalas, Conner, Deccio, Flanagan, Greengo, Hurley M., Newhouse, O'Brien, Parker, Patterson, Wojahn.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 18 following "shall" and before "furnish" insert "insofar as is practical."

Representatives Kuehnle, Sommers and Hansen spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Moon spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "My question is directed toward your interpretation of the word 'practical.' Do you intend 'practical' should mean practical to the application of the purposes of this act, or 'practicable' insofar as the ability of the units to provide the information?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "Well, I have reference to the latter, Representative Thompson. In spite of Representative Moon's remarks, there are a lot of very small fire districts in this state that just simply do not have the personnel to process all this paperwork. They are the type of district that Representative Hansen is talking about and so the intent of the amendment and the modifying language is to indicate that if it is practical for them to furnish this information they will do so; if it isn't practical, they are not absolutely mandated to do so."

Mr. Thompson: "Then you really mean by this amendment, 'practicable,' do you not?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "No."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Kuehnle to page 1, line 18 of Substitute House Bill No. 378, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 44; not voting, 10.

Mr. Curtis moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 30 following "Marshal" strike "may" and insert "shall"

Representative Curtis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Sommers and Leckenby spoke against it.

Mr. Curtis spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Moon and Hendricks spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 378 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 695, by Representatives Smith (Rick), Eikenberry, Charette, Newhouse and Hayner:
Clarifying filing and service requirements for enforcing liens.
The bill was read the second time and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 325, by Representatives O'Brien, Bausch and Warnke:
Licensing and regulating massage therapists.
The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Warnke, Substitute House Bill No. 325 was substituted for House Bill No. 325, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 325 was read the second time.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 33 after "cosmetology," and before "physical therapy" strike "barbering."

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Warnke spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Warnke yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "Perhaps we have a matter of misinterpretation. I can understand the rationale of exempting from the licensing provisions of this act such people as doctors engaged in medicine, physical therapy, osteopathy, podiatry and nursing and all these things and the people working under their supervision. I think that it's just very logical that we should exempt from the provisions of this act those people—it would be ridiculous to require a physical therapist or an aide to one, or a podiatrist or an aide to one, or a chiropractor or
Mr. Warnke: "No, I don't agree with your interpretation. Your point that no one works under a barber—I believe that under the barber licensing act (I wish the people were here that put the act through) that an apprenticed barber, a person just coming out of the barber school, must work for a skilled barber or a licensed barber for a certain period of time so they are under the direct supervision of a craft barber. That is why they—the same as cosmetology—are now giving facial massage; the barber is giving scalp massage. I think if you exempt them it does not speak to the point that we are concerned with and I think the interpretation here is clear. I'm just not concerned that we are, in fact, going to have fronts operating. That's what you are really directing to, that we will have fronts operating as barber shops and in the back room we will have massage parlors operating. I don't think that will work at all because of the licensing under a massage practitioner. If they are practicing massage they must have a license."

The amendment was not adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 325 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1029, by Representatives Conner, Warnke, Eikenberry, Kalich, Wojahn and Gallagher:

Recognizing the Washington association of sheriffs and chiefs of police.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, Twenty-fifth Day ex. sess., April 7, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Smith (Rick), the committee amendments were adopted.

House Bill No. 1029 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that HOUSE BILL NO. 1078 be placed on the second reading calendar immediately following House Bill No. 971, and that HOUSE BILL NO. 827 be placed immediately following House Bill No. 1078.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Working with Representative Thompson and with you, Mr. Speaker, in order to develop a schedule, I want to concur with the motion by Representative Thompson, but my point of inquiry is about the preparation of amendments to the public disclosure bill—House Bill No. 827. To what should we prepare amendments?"

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "Representative Pardini, the Speaker will direct your question to Representative King."

Mr. King: "The intent of Representative Brown and myself in presenting a floor amendment sponsored by King and Brown was to present to the Legislature one document which was, as far as we could tell, completely acceptable to the Committee on Open Government. It incorporates a series of amendments that would have to have been made on the floor and we would prefer to have amendments made to that floor amendment. Of course, that depends on the willingness of the Legislature to operate that way. It was our intent to give a basic document that would eliminate the necessity of about fifteen motions on the floor that were pretty well acceptable, of a technical nature, acceptable to the Committee on Open Government, supported by both Representative Brown and myself, so if it's possible to do so that's the way we would like to work this bill."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Can I take it from those comments that the Committee on Open Government has replaced the Committee on Constitution and Elections and that you do not intend to present the proposal of the Committee on Constitution and Elections?"

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "I don't think that question is in order."

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, I'm asking on a point of parliamentary inquiry, what is going to be presented to this body—the recommendation of the Committee on Constitution and Elections or the Committee on Open Government?"

Mr. King: "The amendment by King and Brown is to the substitute bill and if this body turns it down then you'll have fifteen amendments by King and Brown to the substitute bill that came out of the Committee on Constitution and Elections."

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, I'm not trying to be dilatory; there are several members preparing several amendments. The question I am raising of the Chair is to what should we prepare our amendments?"

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "Representative Pardini, in following up on your point of parliamentary inquiry, there is a House amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 827 which has been passed out to all of the members. If that floor amendment is presented, then the amendments would have to be presented to that floor amendment. I'm sure, as always in the past, there will be complete cooperation in making sure that each member of this House has an opportunity to present his amendments no matter to which vehicle it is."

Mr. Pardini: "If we prepare the amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 827 as proposed by the Committee on Constitution and Elections and those amendments are adopted, inasmuch as Representative King and Representative Brown and the Committee on Open Government have a striking amendment, it appears to me that the amendments would be for naught if their amendment were later adopted, because they strike and insert the whole bill."

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "I believe the House Rules would provide that the committee amendment would be presented and that committee amendment would then be perfected by the body before any striking amendment was presented. I think that is as much as the Speaker can say, except that, as in the past, each member of the House will have an opportunity to present his position."

MOTION

Mr. Eikenberry moved that House Bill No. 827 be rereferred to Committee on Constitution and Elections.

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CHARETTE PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "The Speaker believes that there is a motion before us and that motion should be put first. The question before the House is the motion by Mr. Thompson that House Bill No. 1078 take it's place immediately after House Bill No. 971 and that House Bill No. 827 take its place immediately following House Bill No. 1078 on the second reading calendar."

The motion was carried.

MOTION

Mr. Eikenberry moved that House Bill No. 827 be rereferred to Committee on Constitution and Elections.

Representatives Eikenberry and Freeman spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives King, Thompson and Brown spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "The amendment you have proposed, by yourself and Representative Brown, does that incorporate the changes made by the Senate in the Senate version? Is it the Senate version of the public disclosure law?"
Mr. King: "No, it is not. It incorporates many of them, but it does not incorporate all of them. Each of the changes are listed in the booklet that is on your desks immediately after the amendment and following that is the substitute bill as it came out of the committee; behind that is the analysis telling what each section of the substitute bill deals with. Essentially what you have before you in the floor amendment is the substitute bill as it was presented to the Legislature minus the section requiring the publication of a pamphlet with the photographs of the lobbyists in it, and the addition of the amendments that are listed on the bill analysis right after the amendment. I think it should be relatively easy for the members to take a look at the format of that booklet and understand exactly what is before them."

Mr. Pardini spoke against the motion to rerefer the bill to committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Curtis.

Mr. Curtis: "Is it your intention, as chairman of the committee, when the bill is placed in front of us, to move the substitute bill or were you going to move that the substitute bill be not adopted?"

Mr. King: "What I would normally do would be to move the substitute bill and then to move the floor amendment to the substitute bill. The way this amendment is drafted, I would have to do that. The King/Brown amendment is an amendment to the substitute bill."

Mr. Curtis: "But it's a total striking amendment and you catch us in the crunch here, because those of us who want to prepare floor amendments must do so technically to the substitute bill. If those amendments are adopted and then later on when your amendment is offered, which is a striking amendment, those amendments will go out the window. What I would suggest, is for you to move the substitute bill, we'll prepare our amendments to that, we'll work our way through that and then when your striking amendment is offered, perhaps we can hold it over for another day so we can prepare amendments to that bill."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. King: "Would it be possible to not adopt the substitute bill and with the original bill before us, this amendment could be to the original bill and we could take care of the problem facing us?"

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CHARETTE PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "If the substitute bill is not adopted by the House, the original bill would be before the House."

Mr. Eikenberry withdrew his motion to rerefer the bill to committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "The remarks that you made a moment ago indicated that the members should prepare their amendments to the King/Brown amendment to the substitute bill. My concern is that if we do that (and I'm sure there will be a number of those amendments prepared) then some of them will hang and others will not hang to the King/Brown amendment and ultimately, should the King/Brown amendment fail, then with it would be all of the amendments to that amendment failing. Therefore it would appear appropriate to me that the members should prepare their amendments to both the King/Brown amendment and to the substitute bill, if in fact, they want to be sure that their amendments are going to be duly considered. Wouldn't you agree with this?"

Mr. Eikenberry: "I would agree that your rhetorical question has some well-taken advice."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, if the King/Brown amendment is offered and we are to prepare our amendments to that amendment, then that effectively precludes anyone from offering an amendment to the amendment that any of us would be preparing to the King/Brown amendment, is that true?"
SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CHARETTE PRESIDING)
The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "I believe that's right under the House rules."

MOTION
Mr. Berentson moved that House Bill No. 827 be placed at the top of tomorrow's second reading calendar.

Representatives Berentson and King spoke in favor of the motion.

MOTION
Mr. Pardini moved that the rules be suspended, the King/Brown amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 827 be considered Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the second substitute bill be placed at the top of tomorrow's second reading calendar.

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CHARETTE PRESIDING)
The Speaker (Mr. Charette presiding): "The Speaker believes that your motion is out of order because that is of a lower rank than a motion to commit, recommit or postpone to a day certain."

Mr. Berentson withdrew his motion.

MOTION
Mr. Pardini moved that the rules be suspended, the King/Brown amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 827 be considered Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the second substitute bill be placed at the top of tomorrow's second reading calendar.

Mr. Thompson spoke in favor of the motion and the motion was carried.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Polk.

Mr. Polk: "The second substitute bill that we are now going to be considering tomorrow—does it differ other than technical additions from the bill that has been passed out by the Constitution and Elections Committee?"

Mr. King: "Yes. All of those explanations are in the booklet you have. There are about three substantive amendments and one of them was adopted by the Senate. The others are spelled out for you—there's a deletion, which is of a substantive nature, taking out the publication of a booklet that has photographs of the lobbyists; it includes language in here which is called to your attention which exempts per diem as well as legislative salary. Most of the amendments are spelled out in the bill analysis which is immediately after the bill."

HOUSE BILL NO. 1204, by Representatives Becker, Kilbury, Zimmerman and Tilly: Relating to artificial honey products.
The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Kilbury, Substitute House Bill No. 1204 was substituted for House Bill No. 1204, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 1204 was read the second time.

Mr. Kilbury moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Kilbury and Becker:
On page 2, line 8 strike section 3 and insert:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 69.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Whenever the director shall find, or shall have probable cause to believe, that any honey or product subject to the provisions of this 1975 amendatory act is in intrastate commerce, which was introduced into such intrastate commerce in violation of the provisions of this 1975 amendatory act, he is hereby authorized to affix to such honey or product a notice placing an embargo on such honey or product, and prohibiting its sale in intrastate commerce, and no person shall move or sell such honey or product without first receiving permission from the director to move or sell such honey or product. But if, after such honey or product has been embargoed, the director shall find that such honey or product does not involve a violation of this 1975 amendatory act, such embargo shall be forthwith removed."

Mr. Kilbury spoke in favor of the amendment.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kilbury yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "My attention is gathered by the question of the statement of embargo. I wonder if you could give me any examples of the other areas or other commodities on which the state presently authorizes embargoes or authorizes officials to embargo such things?"

Mr. Kilbury: "Yes, in the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, Title 69, you will find many embargo sections. We just passed an embargo section in House Bill No. 575 on hazardous substances. It appears in several areas of Title 16."

The amendment was adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 1204 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

Such surcharge shall be collected with the leasehold excise taxes in the manner provided by section 5 of this amendatory act. Such surcharge tax revenues shall be distributed by the department of revenue to the respective taxing districts."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Moon spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Randall and Kuehnle spoke against it.

Mr. Moon again spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Randall again spoke against it.

Strike all material after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) The term "department" means the department of natural resources.

(2) The term "owner" means the owner of any forest land.

(3) The term "adequate restocking or stocking" means a stand of not less than three hundred thrifty established live seedlings per acre of commercial species predominant on the area cut of which at least one hundred shall be well distributed, or not less than three hundred surviving trees per acre which were established by artificial means."
(4) The term "merchantable stand of timber" means any stand of timber consisting of not less than two thousand board feet per acre of currently merchantable live timber as measured by the Scribner Decimal C log rule, or three hundred cubic feet as measured by the Sorenson log rule, or four standard cords.

(5) The term "seed trees" means trees of commercial species that are sixteen inches or more in diameter breast high having a moderately dense live crown making up at least one-third of the total tree height. Seed trees must be thrifty and must be undamaged.

(6) The term "operator" means any person who engages in logging of timber for commercial purposes from any land within the state.

(7) The term "additional fire hazard" means an additional fire hazard as defined in RCW 76.04.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Keeping the forest land of this state continuously and fully productive is one of the most important steps toward perpetuation and conservation of its forest resources. One of the most important means of effectuating such public policy is to keep timber lands productive by seeking to maintain continuous growth of timber on all lands suitable for such purposes, and in order to accomplish this end it is necessary, and in the public interest, to prescribe certain rules of forest practices to be observed in the harvesting of timber.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any bona fide owner or operator of land in the state supporting a merchantable stand of timber to be cut during the current calendar year must first obtain a written permit from the department.

To obtain such a permit, the owner or operator must make written application to the department submitting a map showing the area to be logged, legal description, and acreage. If the application is made by the operator, the department may require as a condition precedent to the issuance of a permit either that the operator secure from the owner and file with the department an agreement that the owner will be jointly responsible with the operator for carrying out the requirements of this chapter, or that the operator furnish a bond or other security satisfactory to the department to insure satisfactory compliance with this chapter.

Each application shall be signed by the owner or operator, and shall set forth the provisions of this chapter as to the responsibility of the owner or operator, and shall further state that the owner or operator is familiar with its provisions and agrees to abide thereby. All permits shall expire at the end of each calendar year but shall be renewable for another year upon written application of the owner, if there has been no violation of this chapter.

Any person operating without a permit as provided for herein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and each day of operation shall constitute a separate offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every permittee shall, during the process of logging, take adequate precautions to leave reserve trees of commercial species deemed adequate under normal conditions to maintain continuous forest growth, or provide adequate stocking to insure future forest production. Every permittee, prior to cutting, shall plainly mark or otherwise designate required seed trees, or trees that are to be cut, or the boundaries of required seed blocks in a manner and at a time acceptable to the department and shall during the process of logging provide protection for reproduction of commercial species. In the conduct of logging operations and prior to and during slash disposal, proper precautions shall be taken and every reasonable effort made by the operator to protect residual stands and trees left uncut as a source of seed supply, from destruction by fire or unnecessary damage resulting from logging operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to have been complied with in the area east of the summit of the Cascade mountains if the department finds that an additional fire hazard created by logging operations has been abated or five years have elapsed after completion of such logging, and there shall have been reserved a sufficient number of thrifty undamaged seedlings and/or trees to adequately stock the areas cut over or there shall have been left uncut seed trees of commercial species predominant in the stand that are sixteen inches in diameter or larger breast high outside the bark in a quantity sufficient to aggregate four thrifty seed trees per acre well distributed over each forty acre subdivision or portion thereof cut over by the permittee: PROVIDED, That the distance from seed trees to cut over areas that are not adequately stocked shall not be more than two hundred feet.

On areas which support stands other than Ponderosa pine the permittee may leave five percent of each forty-acre subdivision or portion thereof reserved and uncut and well stocked with thrifty commercial species predominant in the stand that are sixteen inches or more in diameter or are of a diameter representative of the stand harvested.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to have been complied with in the area west of the summit of the Cascade mountains, if the department finds that an additional fire hazard created by logging operations has been abated or five years have elapsed after completion of such logging, except ten years where fifty percent or more of the volume was cedar, and there has been reserved and left uncut not less than five percent of each quarter section, or lesser subdivision, well stocked with commercial coniferous trees not less than sixteen inches in diameter breast high outside the bark until such time as the area is adequately stocked by natural means. On areas that support stands where the average tree is less than sixteen inches in diameter the designated seed area left uncut shall be not less than five percent of each quarter section or lesser subdivision and shall be left untouched unless the entire subdivision is being cut on the basis of thinning for stand improvement. The foregoing may be accomplished by leaving marginal long corners of timber between logged areas, or strips of timber across valleys, or along ridges and natural firebreaks, or by leaving staggered settings and uncut settings.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In the event that any owner or operator shall desire to adopt other practical methods than those contained in sections 5 and 6 of this act for providing for future forest growth within the meaning of section 4 of this act, including but not limited to artificial restocking or partial or selective cutting of the entire stand, said methods may be substituted in lieu of the provisions of sections 5 and 6 of this act, if approved by the department. Said plans shall be filed with the department previous to application for permit.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department may employ a sufficient number of technically trained foresters as inspectors to enable it to maintain an inspection service deemed adequate to secure compliance with the provisions of this chapter. In the event that an owner or operator fails, refuses, or neglects to comply with the provisions of this chapter, the department may order the particular operation in which the violation occurs discontinued until the owner or operator gives satisfactory assurance that he will resume operations in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and furnishes cash deposit or bond in lieu thereof as fixed by the department, on the basis of not to exceed twenty-four dollars per acre for that portion of the area which through his failure to carry out the provisions of this chapter does not have sufficient source of seed to adequately restock the area. Such order may be enforced by injunction proceedings. The cash deposit or bond shall be furnished to assure that the owner or operator will artificially restock the area for which the money was collected within five years. If at the end of the five years the owner or operator has not artificially restocked the area, or the area has not become adequately restocked, the cash deposit shall be forfeited, or if the owner or operator has posted bond in lieu of making cash deposit he shall within thirty days after notification in writing by the department furnish the amount of money for which he posted bond. The department shall place this money in a special deposit fund of the state treasury to be used for artificially restocking the land on which the deposit was made. The department shall artificially restock the area within two years after the deposit was forfeited, using the money in the special deposit fund collected from the owner for that purpose. In the event that the full amount of money forfeited for any specified area is not required by the department to restock the area, the unexpended balance shall be returned to the depositor. Until compliance is so assured, the department shall also have power to prevent any new operation or operations in this state by the delinquent operator. If a violation occurs resulting from failure to provide adequate seed sources as provided in this chapter and a bond or cash deposit has not been furnished by the owner or operator and the area or any part thereof is not adequately restocked five years after cutting, then one year after written notice to the owner and operator to their last known address, and if such owner or operator has not adequately restocked the area, it shall be restocked by the department; however, the department shall not expend more than twenty-four dollars per acre in restocking such areas. Expenses reasonably incurred by the department in restocking the area may be recovered by the department from the owner and/or operator, and they shall constitute a lien upon the land restocked, which lien may be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as a mechanics' lien.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable where, upon application to the department, it has issued a permit for the removal of trees from lands best suited for purposes other than the growing of forest crops. Such permits shall be issued where removal is sought for any of the following purposes:

1. To benefit the general health and increase the annual growth of residual stands of timber or for the purpose of removing dying or diseased trees;
2. To clear the land upon which the trees are situated for bona fide mining, business, or residential purposes;
3. To clear rights-of-way, landings, campsites, or firebreaks;
4. To clear lands when classified as best suited for agricultural purposes on the basis of the best soils and land use information available.

(a) In the event of refusal by the department of a request for an agricultural permit the owner or operator may appeal to the board of land commissioners for a review of the request.

(b) If an agricultural permit is granted on forest land by the board of land commissioners, the department may cause an inspection to be made at the end of five years after cutting. If no attempt has been made to place the area in agricultural use and it has not restocked with commercial coniferous species it shall be replanted by the department or the owner. If planted by the department, the costs of planting shall not exceed the amount specified in section 8 of this act and shall constitute a lien in favor of the state of Washington upon the land therefor, which lien shall be perfected and enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as a mechanics' lien.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

1. Sections 1 through 29 and 31 through 37, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.010 through 76.09.280, 76.09.900, 76.09.905, 76.09.910, 76.09.915, 76.09.920, 76.09.925, 76.09.930, and 76.09.935; and
2. Section 30, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 90.48.420.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Mr. Hansey spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kalich yielded to question by Mr. Schumaker.

Mr. Schumaker: "You were aware, of course, that during our committee work on these amendments, Representative Haussler and I presented an amendment and the general text of that amendment as I saw it would have considerable to do with whether or not I could vote for this repealer. My understanding was, although it was not specifically spelled out in language, that we were putting an 11-member board in position instead of the 9-member board and in so doing we were getting things in shape to give the small forest wood lot owners a commission member and also the small logging contractors a commission member. Am I correct in this assumption?"

Mr. Kalich: "Yes, you are correct, Representative Schumaker. The thing is that we could not tie it down. We worked closely with the Governor's office and the Governor's aides on what he would accept and would not accept. He didn't want to be tied down to this, but I have confidence in the Governor that he is going to appoint two members of this category on the 11-member board."

Representatives Conner and Berentson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Kalich and Charette spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kalich yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "You mentioned about the permits not being so hard to get; how long does it take before you do get the permits?"

Mr. Kalich: "Right now it would be 30 days, but under the new law it would be 14 days and we could actually start sooner. A small logging operation could start quicker than that."

Mr. Amen: "You have received that permit in that time?"

Mr. Kalich: "Yes. You have to remember that most of the loggers are going to start ahead of time on this permit. You are going to put in ahead of time if you know you are going to log a piece."

Mr. Amen: "I've heard comments that the small owner of forest lands can't live up to the reforestation portion of this. Is this so?"

Mr. Kalich: "Well, I think the reforestation portion is going to make it more difficult than we've had it before, but we still have three years to do it and if we want to change the use of the land we can put in an application to do that—farming or something else."

Mr. Amen: "The liability portion of it is not so strict that you can still survive?"

Mr. Kalich: "Not as I interpret it."

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Hansey and Berentson to Substitute House Bill No. 1078, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays, 73; not voting, 8.

Mr. Conner moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike all material after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) The term "department" means the department of natural resources.
(2) The term "owner" means the owner of any forest land.
(3) The term "adequate restocking or stocking" means a stand of not less than three hundred thrifty established live seedlings per acre of commercial species predominant on the area cut of which at least one hundred shall be well distributed, or not less than three hundred surviving trees per acre which were established by artificial means.
(4) The term "merchantable stand of timber" means any stand of timber consisting of not less than two thousand board feet per acre of currently merchantable live timber as measured by the Scribner Decimal C log rule, or three hundred cubic feet as measured by the Sorenson log rule, or four standard cords.
(5) The term "seed trees" means trees of commercial species that are sixteen inches or more in diameter breast high having a moderately dense live crown making up at least one-third of the total tree height. Seed trees must be thrifty and must be undamaged.
(6) The term "operator" means any person who engages in logging of timber for commercial purposes from any land within the state.
(7) The term "additional fire hazard" means an additional fire hazard as defined in RCW 76.04.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Keeping the forest land of this state continuously and fully productive is one of the most important steps toward perpetuation and conservation of its forest resources. One of the most important means of effectuating such public policy is to keep timber lands productive by seeking to maintain continuous growth of timber on all lands suitable for such purposes, and in order to accomplish this end it is necessary, and in the public interest, to prescribe certain rules of forest practices to be observed in the harvesting of timber.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any bona fide owner or operator of land in the state supporting a merchantable stand of timber to be cut during the current calendar year must first obtain a written permit from the department.

To obtain such a permit, the owner or operator must make written application to the department submitting a map showing the area to be logged, legal description, and acreage. If the application is made by the operator, the department may require as a condition precedent to the issuance of a permit either that the operator secure from the owner and file with the department an agreement that the owner will be jointly responsible with the operator for carrying out the requirements of this chapter, or that the operator furnish a bond or other security satisfactory to the department to insure satisfactory compliance with this chapter.

Each application shall be signed by the owner or operator, and shall set forth the provisions of this chapter as to the responsibility of the owner or operator, and shall further state that the owner or operator is familiar with its provisions and agrees to abide thereby. All permits shall expire at the end of each calendar year but shall be renewable for another year upon written application of the owner, if there has been no violation of this chapter.

Any person operating without a permit as provided for herein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and each day of operation shall constitute a separate offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every permittee shall, during the process of logging, take adequate precautions to leave reserve trees of commercial species deemed adequate under normal conditions to maintain continuous forest growth, or provide adequate stocking to insure future forest production. Every permittee, prior to cutting, shall plainly mark or otherwise designate required seed trees, or trees that are to be cut, or the boundaries of required seed blocks in a manner and at a time acceptable to the department and shall during the process of logging provide protection for reproduction of commercial species. In the conduct of logging operations and prior to and during slash disposal, proper precautions shall be taken and every reasonable effort made by the operator to protect residual stands and trees left uncut as a source of seed supply, from destruction by fire or unnecessary damage resulting from logging operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to have been complied with in the area east of the summit of the Cascade mountains if the department finds that an additional fire hazard created by logging operations has been abated or five years have elapsed after completion of such logging, and there shall have been reserved a sufficient number of thrifty undamaged seedlings and/or trees to adequately stock the areas cut over or there shall have been left uncut seed trees of commercial species predominant in the stand that are sixteen inches in diameter or larger breast high outside the bark in a quantity sufficient to aggregate four thrifty seed trees per acre well distributed over each forty acre subdivision or portion thereof cut over by the permittee: PROVIDED, That the distance from seed trees to cut over areas that are not adequately stocked shall not be more than two hundred feet.
On areas which support stands other than Ponderosa pine the permittee may leave five percent of each forty-acre subdivision or portion thereof reserved and uncut and well stocked with thrifty commercial species predominant in the stand that are sixteen inches or more in diameter or are of a diameter representative of the stand harvested.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to have been complied with in the area west of the summit of the Cascade mountains, if the department finds an additional fire hazard created by logging operations has been abated or five years have elapsed after completion of such logging, except ten years where fifty percent or more of the volume was cedar, and there has been reserved and left uncut not less than five percent of each quarter section, or lesser subdivision, well stocked with commercial coniferous trees not less than sixteen inches in diameter breast high outside the bark until such time as the area is adequately stocked by natural means. On areas that support stands where the average tree is less than sixteen inches in diameter the designated seed area left uncut shall be not less than five percent of each quarter section or lesser subdivision and shall be left untouched unless the entire subdivision is being cut on the basis of thinning for stand improvement. The foregoing may be accomplished by leaving marginal long corners of timber between logged areas, or strips of timber across valleys, or along ridges and natural firebreaks, or by leaving staggered settings and uncut settings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In the event that any owner or operator shall desire to adopt other practical methods than those contained in sections 5 and 6 of this act for providing for future forest growth within the meaning of section 4 of this act, including but not limited to artificial restocking or partial or selective cutting of the entire stand, said methods may be substituted in lieu of the provisions of sections 5 and 6 of this act, if approved by the department. Said plans shall be filed with the department previous to application for permit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department may employ a sufficient number of technically trained foresters as inspectors to enable it to maintain an inspection service deemed adequate to secure compliance with the provisions of this chapter. In the event that an owner or operator fails, refuses, or neglects to comply with the provisions of this chapter, the department may order the particular operation in which the violation occurs discontinued until the owner or operator gives satisfactory assurance that he will resume operations in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and furnishes cash deposit or bond in lieu thereof as fixed by the department, on the basis of not to exceed twenty-four dollars per acre for that portion of the area which through his failure to carry out the provisions of this chapter does not have sufficient source of seed to adequately restock the area. Such order may be enforced by injunction proceedings. The cash deposit or bond shall be furnished to insure that the owner or operator will artificially restock the area for which the money was collected within five years. If at the end of the five years the owner or operator has not artificially restocked the area, or the area has not become adequately restocked, the cash deposit shall be forfeited, or if the owner or operator has posted bond in lieu of making cash deposit he shall within thirty days after notification in writing by the department furnish the amount of money for which he posted bond. The department shall place this money in a special deposit fund of the state treasury to be used for artificially restocking the land on which the deposit was made. The department shall artificially restock the area within two years after the deposit was forfeited, using the money in the special deposit fund collected from the owner for that purpose. In the event that the full amount of money forfeited for any specified area is not required by the department to restock the area, the unexpended balance shall be returned to the depositor. Until compliance is so assured, the department shall also have power to prevent any new operations or operations in this state by the delinquent operator. If a violation occurs resulting from failure to provide adequate seed sources as provided in this chapter and a bond or cash deposit has not been furnished by the owner or operator and the area or any part thereof is not adequately restocked five years after cutting, then one year after written notice to the owner and operator to their last known address, and if such owner or operator has not adequately restocked the area, it shall be restocked by the department; however, the department shall not expend more than twenty-four dollars per acre in restocking such areas. Expenses reasonably incurred by the department in restocking the area may be recovered by the department from the owner and/or operator, and they shall constitute a lien upon the land restocked, which lien may be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as a mechanics' lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 76.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable where, upon application to the department, it has issued a permit for the removal of trees from lands best suited for purposes other than the growing of forest crops. Such permits shall be issued where removal is sought for any of the following purposes:

(1) To benefit the general health and increase the annual growth of residual stands of timber or for the purpose of removing dying or diseased trees;
(2) To clear the land upon which the trees are situated for bona fide mining, business, or residential purposes;
(3) To clear rights-of-way, landings, campsites, or firebreaks;
(4) To clear lands when classified as best suited for agricultural purposes on the basis of the best soils and land use information available.

(a) In the event of refusal by the department of a request for an agricultural permit the owner or operator may appeal to the board of land commissioners for a review of the request.
(b) If an agricultural permit is granted on forest land by the board of land commissioners, the department may cause an inspection to be made at the end of five years after cutting. If no attempt has been made to place the area in agricultural use and it has not restocked with commercial coniferous species it shall be replanted by the department or the owner. If planted by the department, the costs of planting shall not exceed the amount specified in section 8 of this act and shall constitute a lien in favor of the state of Washington upon the land therefor, which lien shall be perfected and enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as a mechanics' lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The provisions of sections 1 through 37, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and chapter 76.09 RCW and RCW 90.48.420 shall be totally suspended and held in abeyance until January 1, 1976, except that obligations under such provisions of law or permits issued thereunder and in effect on the effective date of this section shall continue in full force and effect, and no liability thereunder, civil or criminal, shall be in any way modified: PROVIDED, That proceedings instituted and actions begun under such provisions shall be completed, insofar as practicable, pursuant to sections 1 through 9 of this act. On January 1, 1976, such provisions shall resume their full force and effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 9, chapter __ (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1078), Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 76.08.__ through 76.08.__ are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 10 and 12 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, and section 11 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1976."

Mr. Hansey moved adoption of the following amendment to the Conner amendment:
On page 7, section 13 strike all of section 13 and insert:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 10 and 12 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, and section 11 of this act shall take effect two years after the effective date of such other sections of this act."

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2408, Prime Sponsor: Senator Grant, establishing the public employment relations commission. Reported by Committee on Labor.
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike all of the bill after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) It is the intent of the legislature by the adoption of sections 1 through 31 of this 1975 amendatory act to provide, in the area of public employment, for the more uniform and impartial (a) adjustment and settlement of complaints, grievances, and disputes arising out of employer-employee relations and, (b) selection and certification of bargaining representatives by transferring jurisdiction of such matters to the public employment relations commission from other boards and commissions. It is further the intent of the legislature, by such transfer, to achieve more efficient and expert administration of public labor relations administration and to thereby ensure the public quality public services.

(2) Nothing contained in sections 1 through 31 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing bargaining agreement.

(3) Nothing contained in sections 1 through 31 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be construed to alter any power or authority regarding the scope of collective bargaining in the employment areas affected by sections 1 through 31 of this 1975 amendatory act, but sections 1 through 31 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be construed as transferring existing jurisdiction and authority to the public employment relations commission.

(4) Nothing contained in sections 1 through 31 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be construed to prohibit the consideration or adjustment of complaints or grievances by the public employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is hereby created the public employment relations commission (hereafter called the "commission") to administer the provisions of this chapter. The commission shall consist of three members who shall be citizens appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate; PROVIDED: That no member appointed when the legislature was not in session shall continue to be a member of the commission after the thirtieth day of the next legislative session unless his appointment shall have been approved by the senate. One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he succeeds. Commission members shall be eligible for reappointment. The governor shall designate one member to serve as chairman of the commission. Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor, upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause.

(2) No person may be appointed, reappointed, or continue to serve as a member of the commission who is employed by the state or any agency or subdivision thereof, or who is employed by an association of persons employed by the state or any agency or subdivision thereof.

(3) In making citizen member appointments initially, and subsequently thereafter, the governor shall be cognizant of the desirability of appointing persons knowledgeable in the area of labor relations in the state.

(4) A vacancy in the commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all of the powers of the commission, and two members of the commission shall, at all times, constitute a quorum of the commission.

(5) The commission shall at the close of each fiscal year make a report in writing to the legislature and to the governor stating the cases it has heard, the decisions it has rendered, the names, salaries, and duties of all employees and officers in the employ or under the supervision of the commission, and an account of all moneys it has disbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Each member of the commission shall be paid fifty dollars for each day in which he has actually attended a meeting of the commission officially held. The members of the commission may receive any number of daily payments for official meetings of the commission actually attended. Members of the commission shall also be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties on the same basis as is provided for state officers and employees generally in chapter 43.03 RCW.

(2) The commission shall appoint an executive director whose annual salary shall be determined under the provisions of RCW 43.03.028. He shall perform such duties and have such powers as the commission shall prescribe in order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including assisting employees and employers in the settlement of labor disputes through mediation and fact-finding. The executive director, with such assistance as may be provided by the attorney general and such additional legal assistance consistent with chapter 43.10 RCW, shall have authority on behalf of the commission, in matters concerning the investigation of charges and issuances of complaints under this chapter.

(3) The commission shall employ such employees as it may from time to time find necessary for the proper performance of its duties, consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) All of the expenses of the commission, including all necessary traveling and subsistence expenses outside the city of Olympia incurred by the members or employees of the commission under its orders, shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the commission or by any individual it designates for that purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) It shall be the duty of the commission, in order to prevent or minimize interruptions growing out of labor disputes, to assist employers and employees to settle such disputes through mediation and fact-finding.

(2) The commission, through the director, may proffer its services in any labor dispute involving a political subdivision, municipal corporation, or the community college system of the state, either upon its..."
own motion or upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, whenever in its judgment such dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(3) If the director is not able to bring the parties to agreement by mediation within a reasonable time, he shall seek to induce the parties to voluntarily seek other means of settling the dispute without resort to strike or other coercion, including submission to the employees in the bargaining unit of the employer's last offer of settlement for approval or rejection in a secret ballot. The failure or refusal of either party to agree to any procedure suggested by the director shall not be deemed a violation of any duty or obligation imposed by this chapter.

(4) Final adjustment by a method agreed upon by the parties is declared to be the desirable method for settlement of grievance disputes arising over the application or interpretation of an existing collective bargaining agreement. The commission is directed to make its mediation and fact-finding services available in the settlement of such grievance disputes only as a last resort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The principal office of the commission shall be in the city of Olympia, but it may meet and exercise any or all of its powers at any other place in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In order to prevent or minimize disruptions to the public welfare growing out of labor disputes, employers and employees and their representatives shall:

(1) Exert every reasonable effort to make and maintain agreements concerning rates of pay, hours, and working conditions, including provision for adequate notice of any proposed change in the terms of such agreements;

(2) Whenever a dispute arises over the terms or application of a collective bargaining agreement and a conference is requested by a party or prospective party thereto, arrange promptly for such a conference to be held and endeavor in such conference to settle such dispute expeditiously; and

(3) In case such dispute is not settled by conference, participate fully and promptly in such meetings as may be undertaken by the commission under this chapter for the purpose of aiding in a settlement of the dispute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The commission shall have authority from time to time to make, amend, and rescind, in the manner prescribed by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(2) "Public employee" means any employee of a public employer except any person (a) elected by popular vote, or (b) appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (c) whom duties as deputy, administrative assistant or secretary necessarily imply a confidential relationship to the executive head or body of the applicable bargaining unit, or any person elected by popular vote or appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer who is a confidential employee as defined in this section.

(3) "Bargaining representative" means any lawful organization which has as one of its primary purposes the representation of employees in their employment relations with employers.

(4) "Collective bargaining" means the performance of the mutual obligations of the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times, to confer and negotiate in good faith, and to execute a written agreement with respect to grievance procedures and collective negotiations on personnel matters, including wages, hours and working conditions, which may be peculiar to an appropriate bargaining unit of such public employer, except that by such obligation neither party shall be compelled to agree to a proposal or be required to make a concession unless otherwise provided in this chapter.

(5) "Department" means the department of labor and industries; "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(6) "Uniformed personnel" means: (a) law enforcement officers as defined in RCW 41.26.030 as now or hereafter amended, of cities with a population of fifteen thousand or more or law enforcement officers employed by the governing body of AA counties or (b) fire fighters as that term is defined in RCW 41.26.030, as now or hereafter amended.

(7) "Supervisor" means any individual having authority, in the interest of the employer, to hire, transfer, suspend, layoff, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or responsibly to direct them, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend such action, if in connection with the foregoing the exercise of such authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature, but requires the use of independent judgment.

(8) "Professional employee" means:

(a) Any employee engaged in work: (i) Predominantly intellectual and varied in character as opposed to routine mental, manual, mechanical, or physical work; (ii) involving the consistent exercise of discretion and judgment in its performance; (iii) of such a character that the output produced or the result accomplished cannot be standardized in relation to a given period of time; (iv) requiring knowledge of an advanced type in a field of science or learning customarily acquired by a prolonged course of specialized intellectual instruction and study in an institution of higher learning or a hospital, as distinguished from a

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that a public employer and public employees are in disagreement as to the selection of a bargaining representative the ((department)) commission shall be invited to intervene as is provided in RCW 41.56.060 through 41.56.090, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 10. Section 6, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((department)) commission, after hearing upon reasonable notice, shall decide in each application for certification as an exclusive bargaining representative, the unit appropriate for the purpose of collective bargaining: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not decide that an unit is appropriate for such purposes if such unit includes both supervisors and/or professional employees and employees who are not supervisors and/or professional employees unless a majority of the supervisors and/or professional employees vote for inclusion in such unit. In determining, modifying, or combining the bargaining unit, the ((department)) commission shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions of the public employees; the history of collective bargaining by the public employees and their bargaining representatives; the extent of organization among the public employees; and the desire of the public employees. The ((department)) commission shall determine the bargaining representative by (1) examination of organization membership rolls, (2) comparison of signatures on organization bargaining authorization cards, or (3) by conducting an election specifically therefor.

Sec. 11. Section 7, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event the ((department)) commission elects to conduct an election to ascertain the exclusive bargaining representative, and upon the request of a prospective bargaining representative showing written proof of at least thirty percent representation of the public employees within the unit, the ((department)) commission shall hold an election by secret ballot to determine the issue. The ballot shall contain the name of such bargaining representative and of any other bargaining representative showing written proof of at least ten percent representation of the public employees within the unit, together with a choice for any public employee to designate that he does not desire to be represented by any bargaining agent. Where more than one organization is on the ballot and neither of the three or more choices receives a majority vote of the public employees within the bargaining unit, a run-off election shall be held. The run-off ballot shall contain the two choices which received the largest and second-largest number of votes. No question concerning representation may be raised within one year of a certification or attempted certification. Where there is a valid collective bargaining agreement in effect, no question of representation may be raised except during the period not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the expiration date of the agreement. Any agreement which contains a provision for automatic renewal or extension of the agreement shall not be a valid agreement unless any agreement be valid if it provides for a term of existence for more than three years). A valid collective bargaining agreement may provide for a maximum term of existence not to exceed three years and any such agreement which exceeds the maximum term shall expire three years after it becomes effective.

Sec. 12. Section 8, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The bargaining representative which has been determined to represent a majority of the employees in a bargaining unit shall be certified by the ((department)) commission as the exclusive bargaining representative of, and shall be required to represent, all the public employees within the unit without regard to membership in said bargaining representative: PROVIDED, That any public employee at any time may present his grievance to the public employer and have such grievance adjusted without the intervention of the exclusive bargaining representative, if the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement then in effect, and if the exclusive bargaining representative has been given reasonable opportunity to be present at any initial meeting called for the resolution of such grievance.

Sec. 13. Section 9, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((department)) commission shall promulgate, revise or rescind such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary or appropriate to administer the provisions of this chapter in conformity with the intent and purpose of this chapter and consistent with the best standards of labor-management relations: PROVIDED, That the rules, precedents, and practices of the national labor relations board, if consistent with this chapter, shall be considered by the commission in its interpretation of this chapter, and prior to adoption of any aforesaid commission rules and regulations.
Sec. 14. Section 10, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.100 are each amended to read as follows:

A public employer shall have the authority to engage in collective bargaining with the exclusive bargaining representative and no public employer shall refuse to engage in collective bargaining with the exclusive bargaining representative: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall require any public employer to bargain collectively with any bargaining representative concerning any matter which by ordinance, resolution or charter of said public employer has been delegated to any civil service commission or personnel board similar in scope, structure and authority to the board created by chapter 41.06 RCW. Upon the failure of the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to conclude a collective bargaining agreement, any matter in dispute may be submitted by either party to the state mediation service of the department of labor and industries).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 41.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Either a public employer or an exclusive bargaining representative may declare that an impasse has been reached between them in collective bargaining and may request the commission to appoint a mediator for the purpose of assisting them in reconciling their differences and resolving the controversy on terms which are mutually acceptable. If the commission determines that its assistance is needed, not later than five days after the receipt of a request therefor, it shall appoint a mediator in accordance with rules and regulations for such appointment prescribed by the commission. The mediator shall meet with the parties or their representatives, or both, forthwith, either jointly or separately, and shall take such other steps as he may deem appropriate in order to persuade the parties to resolve their differences and effect a mutually acceptable agreement. The mediator, without the consent of both parties, shall not make findings of fact or recommend terms of settlement. The services of the mediator, including, if any, per diem expenses, shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties. Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prevent the parties from mutually agreeing upon their own mediation procedure, and in the event of such agreement, the commission shall not appoint its own mediator unless failure to do so would be inconsistent with the effectuation of the purposes and policy of this chapter.

(2) If the mediator is unable to effect settlement of the controversy within ten days after his or her appointment, either party, by written notification to the other, may request that their differences be submitted to fact-finding with recommendations, except that the time for mediation may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties. Within five days after receipt of the aforesaid written request for fact-finding the parties shall select a person to serve as fact-finder and obtain a commitment from that person to serve. If they are unable to agree upon a fact-finder or to obtain such a commitment within that time, either party may request the commission to designate a fact-finder. The commission, within five days after receipt of such request, shall designate a fact-finder in accordance with rules and regulations for such designation prescribed by the commission. The fact-finder so designated shall not be the same person who was appointed mediator pursuant to subsection (1) of this section without the consent of both parties.

The fact-finder, within five days after his appointment, shall meet with the parties or their representatives, or both, either jointly or separately, and make inquiries and investigations, hold hearings, and take such other steps as he may deem appropriate. For the purpose of such hearings, investigations and inquiries, the fact-finder shall have the power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence. If the dispute is not settled within ten days after his appointment, the fact-finder shall make findings of fact and recommend terms of settlement within thirty days after his appointment, which recommendations shall be advisory only.

(3) Such recommendations, together with the findings of fact, shall be submitted in writing to the parties and the commission, any matter in dispute which are mutually acceptable.

(4) The costs for the services of the fact-finder, including, if any, per diem expenses and actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses, and any other incurred costs, shall be borne by the commission without cost to the parties.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a public employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, their own procedure for resolving impasses in collective bargaining for that provided in this section or from agreeing to utilize for the purposes of this section any other governmental or other agency or person in lieu of the commission.

(6) Any fact-finder designated by a public employer and an exclusive representative or the commission for the purposes of this section shall be deemed an agent of the state.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.122 are each amended to read as follows:

A collective bargaining agreement may:

(1) Contain union security provisions: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall authorize a closed shop provision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That agreements involving union security provisions must safeguard the right of nonassociation of public employees based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such public employee is a member. Such public employee shall pay an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues and initiation fee to a nonreligious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the public employee affected and the bargaining representative to which such public employee would otherwise pay the dues and initiation fee. The public employee shall furnish written proof that such payment has been made. If the public employee and the bargaining representative do not reach agreement on such matter, the ((department of labor and industries)) commission shall designate the charitable organization. When there is a conflict between any collective bargaining agreement reached by a public employer and a bargaining representative on a union security provision and any charter, ordinance, rule, or regulation adopted by the public employer or its agents, including but not limited to, a civil service commission, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

(2) Provide for binding arbitration of a labor dispute arising from the application or the interpretation of the matters contained in a collective bargaining agreement.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 59, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.125 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other method for selecting arbitrators, the parties may request the ((department of labor and industries)) public employment relations commission to, and the ((department)) commission shall, appoint a qualified person who may be an employee of the ((department)) commission to act as an arbitrator to assist in the resolution of a labor dispute between such public employer and such bargaining representative arising from the application of the matters contained in a collective bargaining agreement. The arbitrator shall conduct such arbitration of such dispute in a manner as provided for in the collective bargaining agreement: PROVIDED, That the ((department)) commission shall not collect any fees or charges from such public employer or such bargaining representative for services performed by the ((department)) commission under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of chapter 49.08 RCW shall have no application to this chapter.

Sec. 18. Section 3, chapter 215, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((department)) commission is empowered and directed to prevent any unfair labor practice and to issue appropriate remedial orders. This power shall not be affected or impaired by any means of adjustment, mediation or conciliation in labor disputes that have been or may hereafter be established by law.

Sec. 19. Section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a charge has been made concerning any unfair labor practice, the ((department)) commission shall have power to issue and cause to be served a complaint stating the charges in that respect, and containing a notice of hearing before the ((department)) commission at a place therein fixed to be held not less than seven days after the serving of said complaint. Any such complaint may be amended by the ((department)) commission any time prior to the issuance of an order based thereon. The person so complained of shall have the right to file an answer to the original or amended complaint within five days after the service of such original or amended complaint and to appear in person or otherwise to give testimony at the place and time set in the complaint. In the discretion of the ((department)) commission, any other person may be allowed to intervene in the said proceedings and to present testimony. In any such proceeding the ((department)) commission shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence prevailing in the courts of law or equity.

Sec. 20. Section 5, chapter 215, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.180 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of all hearings and investigations, which, in the opinion of the ((department)) commission, are necessary and proper for the exercise of the powers vested in it by RCW 41.56.140 through 41.56.190, as now or hereafter amended, the ((department)) commission shall at all reasonable times have access to, for the purposes of examination, and the right to examine, copy or photograph any evidence, including payrolls or lists of employees, of any person being investigated or proceeded against that relates to any matter under investigation or in question. The ((department)) commission shall have power to issue subpoenaas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any evidence that relates to any matter under investigation or in question before the ((department)) commission. The ((department)) commission, or any agent, or agency designated by the ((department)) commission for such purposes, may administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence.

Sec. 21. Section 6, chapter 215, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((department)) commission, or any party to the ((department)) commission proceedings, thirty days after the ((department)) commission has entered its findings of fact, shall have power to petition the superior court of the state within the county wherein the unfair labor practice in question occurred or wherein any person charged with the unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, or if such court be on vacation or in recess, then to the superior court of any county adjoining the county wherein the unfair labor practice in question occurred or wherein any person charged with the unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of such order and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order, and shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding, including the pleadings and testimony upon which such order was made and the findings and order of the ((department)) commission. Upon such filing, the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon such person, and thereupon shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined therein, and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript a decree enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the ((department)) commission.

Sec. 22. Section 3, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.440 are each amended to read as follows:

Negotiations between representatives of the public employer and uniformed personnel shall be commenced at least five months prior to the submission of the budget to the legislative body of the public employer. If after a forty-five day period of negotiation between representatives of the public employer and uniformed personnel, an agreement has not been concluded, then an impasse is declared to exist, and either party may voluntarily submit the matters in dispute to mediation, as provided for in RCW 41.56.100.
If the parties have still not reached agreement after a ten day period of mediation, a fact-finding panel shall be created in the following manner: Each party shall appoint one member within two days; the two appointed members shall then choose a third member within two days who shall act as chairman of the panel. If the two members so appointed cannot agree within two days to the appointment of a third member, either party may request, and the ((department)) commission shall name a third member who shall be chairman of the fact-finding panel and who may be an employee of the ((department)) commission. The panel shall begin hearings on the matters in dispute within five days of the formation of the fact-finding panel and shall conclude such hearings and issue findings of fact and recommendations to the parties within thirty days of the date upon which hearings were commenced.

Reasonable notice of such hearings shall be given to the parties who shall appear and be heard either in person or by counsel or other representative. Hearings shall be informal and the rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding. Minutes of the proceedings shall be taken. Any oral or documentary evidence and other data deemed relevant by the panel may be received in evidence. The panel shall have the power to administer oaths, require the attendance of witnesses, and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be deemed by the panel material to a just determination of the issues in dispute and to issue subpoenas. Costs of each party's appointee shall be paid by the party, and the costs of proceedings otherwise shall be borne by the ((department)) commission.

In making its findings, the fact-finding panel shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and as additional standards of guidelines to aid it in developing its recommendations, it shall take into consideration those factors set forth in RCW 41.56.460.

Sec. 23. Section 4, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.450 are each amended to read as follows:

If an agreement has not been reached within forty-five days after mediation and fact-finding has commenced, an arbitration panel shall be created in the following manner: Each party shall submit a list of three persons to the ((department)) commission, which shall then name one from each list as members to the panel, all within two days. The two appointed members shall utilize one of the two following options in the appointment of the third member, who shall act as chairman of the panel: (1) By mutual consent, the two appointed members may jointly request the ((department)) commission, and the ((department)) com­ mmission shall appoint a third member within two days of such request. Costs of each party's appointee shall be borne by each party respectively; other costs of the arbitration proceedings shall be borne by the ((department)) commission; or (2) The two appointed members shall choose a third member within two days. The costs of each party's appointee shall be borne by each party respectively, and the costs of the proceedings otherwise shall be shared equally between the parties.

If the two members so appointed under alternative (2) cannot agree within two days to the appointment of a third member, either party may apply to the superior court of the county where the labor disputes exist and request that the third member of the panel be appointed as provided by RCW 7.04.050. The panel thus composed shall be deemed an agency of the executive director and a state agency for the purposes of this 1973 amendatory act. The panel shall hold hearings on the matters in dispute within five days after the formation of the arbitration panel and take oral or written testimony.

Reasonable notice of such hearings shall be given to the parties who shall appear and be heard either in person or by counsel or other representative. Hearings shall be informal and the rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding. A recording of the proceedings shall be taken. Any oral or documentary evidence and other data deemed relevant by the panel may be received in evidence. The panel shall have the power to administer oaths, require the attendance of witnesses, and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements and documents as may be deemed by the panel material to a just determination of the issues in dispute and to issue subpoenas. If any person refuses to obey such subpoena or refuses to be sworn to testify, or any witness, party or attorney of a party is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at any hearing held hereunder, the panel may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court in the county where a labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order.

Any failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

The hearing conducted by the panel shall be concluded within twenty days of the time of commencement and, within fifteen days after conclusion of the hearings, the chairman shall make written findings of fact and a written determination of the dispute based upon the issues presented, a copy of which shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to the employees' negotiating agent or its attorney or other designated representative and to the employer or the employer's attorney or designated representative. The decision made by the panel shall be final and binding upon both parties, subject to review by the superior court upon the application of either party solely upon the question of whether the decision of the panel was arbitrary or capricious.

Sec. 24. Section 7, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.480 are each amended to read as follows:

If the representative of either or both the uniformed personnel and the public employer refuse to submit to the procedures set forth in RCW 41.56.440 and 41.56.450, the parties, or the ((department)) com­ mmission on its own motion, may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court for the county in which the labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. A failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. A decision of the arbitration panel shall be final and binding on the parties, and may be enforced at the instance of either party, the arbitration panel or the ((department)) commission in the superior court for the county where the dispute arose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 41.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This chapter shall supersede existing statutes not expressly repealed to the extent that there is a conflict between a provision of this chapter and those other statutes. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to annul, modify or preclude the renewal or continuation of any lawful agreement entered into prior to the effective date of sections 1 through 33 of this 1975 amendatory act between an employer and an employee organization covering wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment. Where there is a conflict between any collective bargaining agreement and any resolution, rule, policy or regulation of the employer or its agents, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

The commission shall make such surveys of wages, hours and working conditions as it deems necessary, shall consider the prevailing practices for similarly skilled trades in the area in which the employee is employed, and the commission shall adjust complaints, grievances and disputes concerning labor arising out of the operation of the ferry or ferry system.

In such case the (((director of labor and industries))) chairman of the public employment relations commission shall, at the request of any employee organization, arbitrate any dispute between employee organizations and enter a binding award in such dispute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Section 47.64.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.64.020 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. Sections 1 through 7 of this 1975 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 41 RCW.

A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which item(s) are mandatory subjects for bargaining and which item(s) are nonmandatory.

(3) The term "commission" means the public employment relations commission created by section 2 of this 1975 amendatory act.

(ii) Any person who assists and acts in a confidential capacity to such person.
(d) Unless included within a bargaining unit pursuant to section 39 of this 1975 amendatory act, any supervisor, which means any employee having authority, in the interest of an employer, to hire, assign, promote, transfer, layoff, recall, suspend, discipline, or discharge other employees, or to adjust their grievances, or to recommend effectively such action, if in connection with the foregoing the exercise of such authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature but calls for the consistent exercise of independent judgment, and shall not include any persons solely by reason of their membership on a faculty tenure or other governance committee or body. The term "supervisor" shall include only those employees who perform a preponderance of the above-specified acts of authority.

(e) Unless included within a bargaining unit pursuant to section 39 of this 1975 amendatory act, principals and assistant principals in school districts.

(5) The term "employer" means any school district or community college district, including the board of directors or trustees thereof.

(6) The term "exclusive bargaining representative" means any employee organization which has:
(a) Been selected or designated pursuant to the provisions of sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or
(b) Prior to January 1, 1976, been recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining or negotiations unit.

(7) The term "person" means one or more individuals, organizations, unions, associations, partnersships, corporations, boards, committees, commissions, agencies, or other entities, or their representatives.

(8) The term "nonsupervisory employee" means all educational employees other than principals, assistant principals and supervisors.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 37. (1) Employees shall have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and shall also have the right to refrain from any or all of such activities except to the extent that employees may be required to pay a fee to any employee organization under an agency shop agreement authorized in this chapter.

(2) The exclusive bargaining representative shall have the right to have deducted from the salary of employees, upon receipt of an appropriate authorization form which shall not be irrevocable for a period of more than one year, an amount equal to the fees and dues required for membership. Such fees and dues shall be deducted monthly from the pay of all appropriate employees by the employer and transmitted as provided for by agreement between the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative, unless an automatic payroll deduction service is established pursuant to law, at which time such fees and dues shall be transmitted as therein provided. If an agency shop provision is agreed to and becomes effective pursuant to section 39 of this 1975 amendatory act, except as provided in that section, the agency fee equal to the fees and dues required of membership in the exclusive bargaining representative shall be deducted from the salary of employees in the bargaining unit.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 38. (1) Any employee organization may file a request with the commission for recognition as the exclusive representative. Such request shall allege that a majority of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit wish to be represented for the purpose of collective bargaining by such organization, shall describe the grouping of jobs or positions which constitute the unit claimed to be appropriate, shall be supported by credible evidence demonstrating that at least thirty percent of the employees in the appropriate unit desire the organization requesting recognition as their exclusive representative, and shall indicate the name, address, and telephone number of any other interested employee organization, if known to the requesting organization.

(2) The commission shall determine the exclusive representative by conducting an election by secret ballot, except under the following circumstances:
(a) In instances where a serious unfair labor practice has been committed which interfered with the election process and precluded the holding of a fair election, the commission shall determine the exclusive bargaining representative by an examination of organization bargaining authorization cards.
(b) In instances where there is then in effect a lawful written collective bargaining agreement between the employer and another employee organization covering any employees included in the unit described in the request for recognition, the request for recognition shall not be entertained unless it shall be filed within the time limits prescribed in subsection (3) of this section for decertification or a new recognition election.
(c) In instances where within the previous twelve months another employee organization has been lawfully recognized or certified as the exclusive bargaining representative of any employees included in the unit described in the request for recognition, the request for recognition shall not be entertained.
(d) In instances where the commission has within the previous twelve months conducted a secret ballot election involving any employees included in the unit described in the request for recognition in which a majority of the valid ballots cast chose not to be represented by any employee organization, the request for recognition shall not be entertained.
(e) Whenever the commission conducts an election to ascertain the exclusive bargaining representative, the ballot shall contain the name of the proposed bargaining representative and of any other bargaining representative showing written proof of at least ten percent representation of the educational employees within the unit, together with a choice for any educational employee to designate that he or she does not desire to be represented by any bargaining agent. Where more than one organization is on the ballot and neither of the three or more choices receives a majority of the valid ballots cast by the educational employees within the bargaining unit, a run-off election shall be held. The run-off ballot shall contain the two choices which receive the largest and second largest number of votes. No question concerning representation may be raised within one year of a certification or attempted certification. Where there is a valid collective bargaining agreement in effect, no question of representation may be raised except during the period not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the expiration date of the agreement. In the event that a valid collective bargaining agreement, together with any renewals or extensions thereof, has been or will be in existence for three years, then the question of representation may be raised not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the third anniversary date of the agreement or any renewals or extensions thereof as long as such renewals and extensions do not exceed three years; and if the exclusive bargaining representative is removed as a result of such procedure, the then existing collective bargaining agreement shall be terminable by the new exclusive bargaining representative so selected within sixty days after its certification or terminated on its expiration date, whichever is sooner, or if no exclusive bargaining representative is so selected, then the agreement shall be deemed to be terminated at its expiration date or as of such third anniversary date, whichever is sooner.

(4) Within the time limits prescribed in subsection (3) of this section, a petition may be filed signed by at least thirty percent of the employees of a collective bargaining unit, then represented by an exclusive bargaining representative, alleging that a majority of the employees in that unit do not wish to be represented by an employee organization, requesting that the exclusive bargaining representative be decertified, and indicating the name, address and telephone number of the exclusive bargaining representative and any other interested employee organization, if known. Upon the verification of the signatures on the petition, the commission shall conduct an election by secret ballot as prescribed by subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. The commission, upon proper application for certification as an exclusive bargaining representative or upon petition for change of unit definition by the employer or any employee organization within the time limits specified in section 38(3) of this 1975 amendatory act, and after hearing upon reasonable notice, shall determine the unit appropriate for the purpose of collective bargaining. In determining, modifying or combining the bargaining unit, the commission shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions of the educational employees; the history of collective bargaining; the extent of organization among the educational employees; and the desire of the educational employees; except that in school districts:

(1) A unit including nonsupervisory educational employees shall not be considered appropriate unless it includes all such nonsupervisory educational employees of the employer; and

(2) A unit that includes only supervisors may be considered appropriate if a majority of the employees in such category indicate by vote that they desire to be included in such a unit; and

(3) A unit that includes only principals and assistant principals may be considered appropriate if a majority of such employees indicate by vote that they desire to be included in such a unit; and

(4) A unit that includes both principals and assistant principals and other supervisory employees may be considered appropriate if a majority of the employees in each category indicate by vote that they desire to be included in such a unit; and

(5) A unit that includes supervisors and/or principals and assistant principals and nonsupervisory educational employees may be considered appropriate if a majority of the employees in each category indicate by vote that they desire to be included in such a unit; and

(6) A unit that includes only employees in vocational-technical institutes or occupational skill centers may be considered to constitute an appropriate bargaining unit if the history of bargaining in any such school district so justifies; and

(7) Notwithstanding the definition of collective bargaining, a unit that contains only supervisors and/or principals and assistant principals shall be limited in scope of bargaining to compensation, hours of work, and the number of days of work in the annual employment contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The employee organization which has been determined to represent a majority of the employees in a bargaining unit shall be certified by the commission as the exclusive bargaining representative of, and shall be required to represent all the employees within the unit without regard to membership in that bargaining representative: PROVIDED, That any employee at any time may present his grievance to the employer and have such grievance adjusted without the intervention of the exclusive bargaining representative, as long as such representative has been given an opportunity to be present at that adjustment and to make its views known, and as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement then in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. A collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions including agency shop, but not a union or closed shop. If an agency shop provision is agreed to, the employer shall enforce it by deducting from the salary payments to members of the bargaining unit the dues required of membership in the bargaining representative, or, for nonmembers thereof, a fee equivalent to such dues. All union security provisions must safeguard the right of nonassociation of employees based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member. Such employee shall pay an amount of money equivalent to regular dues and fees to a nonreligious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the bargaining representative to which such employee would otherwise pay the dues and fees. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payment has been made. If the employee and the bargaining representative do not reach agreement on such matter, the commission shall designate the charitable organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. (1) The commission shall promulgate, revise, or rescind, in the manner prescribed by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and appropriate to administer the provisions of sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act, in conformity with the intent and purpose of sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act, and consistent with the best standards of labor-management relations.
(2) The rules, precedents, and practices of the national labor relations board, provided they are consistent with sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act, shall be considered by the commission in its interpretation of this chapter, and prior to adoption of any aforesaid commission rules and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. (1) Either an employer or an exclusive bargaining representative may declare that an impasse has been reached between them in collective bargaining and may request the commission to appoint a mediator for the purpose of assisting them in reconciling their differences and resolving the controversy on terms which are mutually acceptable. If the commission determines that its assistance is needed, not later than five days after the receipt of a request therefor, it shall appoint a mediator in accordance with rules and regulations for such appointment prescribed by the commission. The mediator shall meet with the parties or their representatives, or both, forthwith, either jointly or separately, and shall take such other steps as he may deem appropriate in order to persuade the parties to resolve their differences and effect a mutually acceptable agreement. The mediator, without the consent of both parties, shall not make findings of fact or recommend terms of settlement. The services of the mediator, including, if any, per diem expenses, shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties. Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prevent the parties from mutually agreeing upon their own mediation procedure, and in the event of such agreement, the commission shall not appoint its own mediator unless failure to do so would be inconsistent with the effectuation of the purposes and policy of this chapter.

(2) If the mediator is unable to effect settlement of the controversy within ten days after his or her appointment, either party, by written notification to the other, may request that their differences be submitted to fact-finding with recommendations, except that the time for mediation may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties. Within five days after receipt of the aforesaid written request for fact-finding, the parties shall select a person to serve as fact-finder and obtain a commitment from that person to serve. If they are unable to agree upon a fact-finder or to obtain such a commitment within that time, either party may request the commission to designate a fact-finder. The commission, within five days after receipt of such request, shall designate a fact-finder in accordance with rules and regulations for such designation prescribed by the commission. The fact-finder so designated shall not be the same person who was appointed mediator pursuant to subsection (1) of this section without the consent of both parties.

The fact-finder, within five days after his appointment, shall meet with the parties or their representatives, or both, either jointly or separately, and make inquiries and investigations, hold hearings, and take such other steps as he may deem appropriate. For the purpose of such hearings, investigations and inquiries, the fact-finder shall have the power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence. If the dispute is not settled within ten days after his appointment, the fact-finder shall make findings of fact and recommend terms of settlement within thirty days after his appointment, which recommendations shall be advisory only.

(3) Such recommendations, together with the findings of fact, shall be submitted in writing to the parties and the commission privately before they are made public. Either the commission, the fact-finder, the employer, or the exclusive bargaining representative may make such findings and recommendations public if the dispute is not settled within five days after their receipt from the fact-finder.

(4) The costs for the services of the fact-finder, including, if any, per diem expenses and actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses, and any other incurred costs, shall be borne by the commission without cost to the parties.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, their own procedure for resolving impasses in collective bargaining for that provided in this section or from agreeing to utilize for the purposes of this section any other governmental or other agency or person in lieu of the commission.

(6) Any fact-finder designated by an employer and an exclusive representative or the commission for the purposes of this section shall be deemed an agent of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. An employer and an exclusive bargaining representative who enter into a collective bargaining agreement may include in such agreement procedures for binding arbitration of such disputes as may arise involving the interpretation or application of such agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. (1) It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employer:

(a) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in section 37 of this 1975 amendatory act.

(c) To encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization by discrimination in regard to hire, tenure of employment or any term or condition of employment, but nothing contained in this subsection shall prevent an employer from requiring, as a condition of continued employment, payment of periodic dues and fees uniformly required to an exclusive bargaining representative pursuant to section 41 of this 1975 amendatory act;

(d) To discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because he has filed charges or given testimony under sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act;

(e) To refuse to bargain collectively with the representatives of its employees.

(2) It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employee organization:
(a) To restrain or coerce (i) employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in section 37 of this 1975 amendatory act: PROVIDED, that this paragraph shall not impair the right of an employee organization to prescribe its own rules with respect to the acquisition or retention of membership therein; or (ii) an employer in the selection of his representatives for the purposes of collective bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;

(b) To cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of subsection (1)(c) of this section;

(c) To refuse to bargain collectively with an employer, provided it is the representative of its employees subject to section 40 of this 1975 amendatory act.

(3) The expressing of any views, argument, or opinion, or the dissemination thereof to the public, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under any of the provisions of sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act, if such expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. (1) The commission is empowered to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice as defined in section 45 of this 1975 amendatory act. This power shall not be affected by any other means of adjustment or prevention that has been or may be established by agreement, law, equity or otherwise.

(2) If the commission determines that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any such unfair labor practices as defined in section 45 of this 1975 amendatory act, then the commission shall issue and cause to be served upon such person an order requiring such person to cease and desist from such unfair labor practice, and to take such affirmative action as will effectuate the purposes and policy of sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act, such as the payment of damages and/or the reinstatement of employees.

(3) The commission may petition the superior court for the county in which the main office of the employer is located or wherein the person who has engaged or is engaging in such unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of its order and for appropriate temporary relief.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. Actions taken by or on behalf of the commission shall be pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, or rules and regulations adopted in accordance therewith, and the right of judicial review provided by chapter 34.04 RCW shall be applicable to all such actions and rules and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. (2) Any collective bargaining agreement may provide for the increase of any wages, salaries and other benefits during the term of such agreement or the term of any individual employee contracts concerned, in the event that the employer receives by increased appropriation or from other sources, additional moneys for such purposes.

(3) Collective bargaining agreements which provide for increases of wages, salaries or other benefits to be funded in whole or in part from moneys other than those appropriated by the state legislature for specific purposes shall be effective and enforceable to the extent such other moneys are used, notwithstanding any disbursement or budgetary powers exercised or guidelines issued by any state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, nothing in sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be construed to deny or otherwise abridge any rights, privileges or benefits granted by law to employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, nothing contained in sections 34 through 50 and section 53 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be construed to deny or otherwise abridge any rights, privileges or benefits granted by law to employees.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Moon: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to make an inquiry about House Bill No. 673 that was reported out of the Committee on Ways and Means - Revenue and has as yet not been assigned to Rules Committee."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Rule 82 states as follows in part: '... any bill estimated to raise or lower a revenue source by five million dollars or more over a four year period shall be acted upon and reported by the whole Ways and Means Committee.'"

Mr. Moon: "Mr. Speaker, is this the same rule that applied to House Bill No. 86 which is now in the Senate that passed this body? The fiscal impact on that biennially was $12 million to the state and $1.6 million locally according to the fiscal note."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "You raised a question on House Bill No. 86; your question on the other bill is not before us."

Mr. Moon: "I want to know if the same rule applied."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears that your question is moot, Representative Moon, as the bill is over in the Senate."

Mr. Moon: "I want a note of clarification. I think that if there could possibly be some notation made when bills are reported out of a major committee, either the Revenue Committee or the Appropriations Committee and they are then assigned to the full Ways and Means Committee, that if we could have some notation made about this we would at least know where the bill stands. As it is now the status sheet—something happened to the computer apparently because the status sheet shows that House Bill No. 673 is still in House Ways and Means - Revenue. If we could make some notation so that we are able to follow the progress of bills it would serve the interests of the members better, I believe."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Moon, I think our Rule 82 sets forth the procedure rather clearly. If there is any question on a bill that you might have in relation to Rule 82, at that time you should raise a direct point of order. There is nothing before us right now."

Mr. Hawkins spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Smith (Rick) and Martinis spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2647 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (Rick) yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "You mentioned that it wouldn't set a precedent, but I wondered if you had in any way considered the possible uses that this property could be used for by the state that would be far more valuable as a state resource—of income to the state—than just as recreational purposes as it is presently being used for? It seems to me that we are setting a precedent and I wonder if you could elaborate on that?"

Mr. Smith (Rick): "There is no shoreline nor tidelands involved here at all. It's all upland water; it's not forest land; there are no trees on it, just bramble bushes, and I can't envision a usage that the state might want to make of it other than what the county intends to make of it."
Mr. Zimmerman: "In other words, the Department of Natural Resources has indicated to you, and you do not feel that in any way this will make it possible for us to do something, as has happened in Edmonds and other places where we have gotten into considerable difficulties over the trading of state property?"

Mr. Smith (Rick): "I do not anticipate any of those."

A legislative budget as set forth in section 2 of this act is hereby adopted and subject to the provisions set forth in the

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Shinpoch moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 861.

Mr. Shinpoch spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "I have a question involved in the agency budget, House Bill No. 866, which appropriated more money for the legislature and that was, of course, the biennial appropriation having to do from July 1st this year to 1977. Would that appropriation go into the legislative appropriation and be handled on the January to January basis or will it be handled on the July to July basis?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "I just don't know. I can only speak to the intent that we have. The intent would be to move it to the January to January basis so that we can account for it on a January to January basis, and I guess we didn't think about it and didn't write the language into the bill. Possibly we can get to the Senate and get it done. I can try."

Mr. Newhouse: "One more question: In reviewing the Senate amendment, is it your understanding that the full responsibility to audit is still vested in the State Auditor? Does this amendment that the Senate has put on, that you are moving that we concur with, in any way weaken the Auditor's right and duties to go in and audit legislative expenditures?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "No, it does not weaken that at all. In fact it states specifically that we do come under the State Auditor and we will be audited by the State Auditor and we must set up the auditing and accounting practices that allow that audit trail. It will continue to be as it is now; the intent of this House and the Chief Clerk of this House is that all of our books relative to expenditures will be open and will be public record. Any member of the House can go in and find out what is being expended today and it is our intent and it will continue to be our intent in this House that this will continue to be so. You can get down to just as finite as you want—if you want to find out down to goods and services, how much we spent on paper, or how much on machines, it's all there and it's all available and it will continue to be available."

Mr. Curtis spoke in opposition to the motion to concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. Shinpoch spoke again in favor of the motion, and Mr. Curtis again spoke against it.

Mr. Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the motion and Mr. Williams spoke against it.
FORTY-EIGHTH DAY, APRIL 30, 1975

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "I think you answered this sufficiently a few minutes ago, but for the record, a question of intent. Is there anything in this bill, in your mind, that precludes the right of the public to have complete access to financial records of this legislature?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "I can't speak for sure that there is anything in this act; I can only tell you the intent of this House and how this House will operate. I have the assurance from the Chief Clerk that we will continue, as we are now, to operate with our records completely open as they are today and it will continue to be that way."

The motion by Mr. Shinpoch that the House do concur in the Senate amendments was carried.

Not voting: Representative Kuehnle.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

April 30, 1975

Mr. Speaker:

The President has signed:

HOUSE BILL NO. 155,
HOUSE BILL NO. 451,
HOUSE BILL NO. 486,

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Mr. Charette demanded a Call of the House and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) announced that the Speaker had signed:

HOUSE BILL NO. 474,
HOUSE BILL NO. 861.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.
THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 435, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (Originally sponsored by Representatives McCormick, Martinis, Newhouse, Zimmerman and Gallagher):

Revising law relating to rate setting and financing of public service companies.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Perry and Newhouse spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Seeberger spoke against it.

Mr. Conner demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Flanagan, Bond and Zimmerman spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Randall, Douthwaite, McKibbin, Hurley (George), Moon and Charnley spoke against it.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

MOTION

Ms. Sommers moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435 be returned to second reading for the purpose of considering one amendment.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Attempting to clarify the situation so that I think we can get to the matter that I think you are talking about, if you suspend the rules to consider one amendment, it will be the first amendment on the desk, so if you have a particular amendment I guess you had better spell it into your motion otherwise it will be the first one up here that we will have to accept. I would say that this is an unusual motion that you are placing so this will be our interpretation."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "My contention would be that her motion is out of order because it contains two factors and is not just a simple motion."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "I think you might be correct except that she is moving to suspend the rules and once you suspend the rules it's pretty wide open on just what she could be able to do. If she is suspending the rules to consider a certain amendment, I think that would be a proper suspension of the rules, although we normally aren't involved with a particular amendment."

Mr. Newhouse: "I would just contend that the proper motion, even if so stated, would be to return the bill to second reading. Once it is returned it is open to all amendments until the House decides otherwise."

The Speaker: "Unless the House directs to the contrary by a suspension of the rules and this is what she is attempting to do."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative Sommers to suspend the rules and return Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435 to second reading for the purpose of consideration of one amendment.

Ms. Sommers spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Berentson: "I believe Representative Sommers made this same basic amendment when we had the bill before us on second reading and therefore the amendment would not be acceptable again as it has been acted upon previously."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The question presently before us, Representative Berentson, is the motion to suspend the rules for the purpose of presenting an amendment. She has informed the House of the amendment, but it is not included in the motion, so your point of order would have to be taken once the amendment is placed before us officially. The particular amendment is not part of the motion."
Mr. Berentson asked Ms. Sommers to yield to question.

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: "Under a suspension of the rules only one member is allowed to speak on each side of the issue, and once you go into a question I’m afraid you might be within the realm of taking up the negative speech. You may do that if you wish."

The motion by Representative Sommers failed.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435.

Mr. Deccio spoke in favor of the bill.

SPEAKER’S ADMONITION

The Speaker: "Representative Deccio, I think you are going beyond the scope of the argument on this bill. I hope we can stay away from the whole gauntlet of public versus private power or we’ll be here the rest of the week."

Mr. Deccio continued his remarks in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Bender, Sherman and Randall spoke against it.

Mr. Newhouse demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 44; not voting, 0.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Bender, having voted on the prevailing side, served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435 passed the House.

The Speaker called on Mr. Charette to preside.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 971, by Representatives Randall, Pardini, Sommers and Newhouse:

Pertaining to taxation of leasehold interests.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Randall spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "It has been suggested in a recent article in the paper that this bill will exceedingly and unfairly impact small lessees, not the major ones. It is the small lessees, such as those people renting homes from the Highway Department along right-of-ways, etc. I wondered if you might comment on that?"

Mr. Randall: "I think that you could find instances where a tax bill will, in fact, increase under this 12% leasehold tax, more than the current taxes now paid on the property. I think you are particularly referring to those kinds of homes that the Highway Department has purchased and that are now being rented, either 30 or 60 day leases. These are often $30,000 or $40,000 homes of considerable value that are being rented for $100 or $120 per month based on the fact that it is such a short-term lease. Under this, as a matter of fact, I think there are some instances where those taxes will increase for those particular people. As I said earlier, it is not possible to write a bill that takes into account every specific situation that may develop. It's a bill of averages; it's a bill that we've looked at back and forth and upside down and around until we finally arrived at that rate level that we knew reflected the kind of return that the private lessee who is occupying public property should pay. Again we based it on the return that would approximate $15 per thousand or 1.6 percent. There are cases of industrial leases where the lessee is going to pay less than he is now paying. There are just as many cases where the lessee is going to pay considerably more than he is paying right now. I appreciate the problem that you have stated and in all honesty there are some small leases that will take an increase."

Mr. Charnley spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Is there something in this bill, if it passes, that makes it mandatory that the leaseholder will be given relief on this—that he does not have to pay twice on this?"

Mr. Randall: "I think you are asking the question, is a private lessee going to be stuck with a personal property tax bill as well as a 12% excise tax on the value of his lease. The answer is no. I think we've precluded that from happening in the bill."

Mr. Amen: "Doesn't this go back to the local taxing district and is it then up to them to refund that or not? Is credit given to the local taxing district?"

Mr. Randall: "There won't be a refund necessary, because there won't be an initial tax bill. This year's collection is based on current law, chapter 187, and this year's tax bill is due and payable under the old law and it's based on what we would call a permitted use lease or permitted use value. This act takes effect January 1, 1976 and from that point on the only tax due will be the 12% due as an excise tax on the value of the taxable rent. This year, for instance, assessments will not be valuing private lessees because the tax bill will not be due next year. There's no way that a refund posture could develop."

Mr. Newhouse spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "I just made some quick calculations and it appears to me that on this 12% rate, a piece of property paying 12% of the rent on the average would be considerably less tax than if that same piece of property was privately owned and on the tax rolls. Is that right?"

Mr. Randall: "You can't go cash rent. You see we are talking about taxable rent. Taxable rent includes a whole laundry list of things other than cash rent that transpires between the lessor and the lessee. Let's take the home you are talking about that is on public property that you build and your 20-year lease is reverted to the lessor. You bring up so many conditions when you say that it is pretty hard to answer. If, in fact, the property does revert to the lessor, then the value of that property that reverts is prorated over the life of the lease and that becomes part of taxable rent in addition to cash rent."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Perry.

Mr. Perry: "Does this bill in any way apply to public housing?"

Mr. Randall: "No, there's an exempt section that exempts public housing."

Ms. Sommers spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Moon spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 971, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 63; nays, 35; not voting, 0.

Engrossed House Bill No. 971, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1029, by Representatives Conner, Warnke, Eikenberry, Kalich, Wojahn and Gallagher:

Recognizing the Washington association of sheriffs and chiefs of police.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Conner spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives North, Haussler and Kilbury spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Conner yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "I wonder if you could tell me if the executive director of the association would come under the public employment pension system or one of the public pension programs that we have in the state?"

Mr. Conner: "Well, they haven’t discussed that as far as an executive secretary—they do not at the present time. In talking to the individuals from law enforcement who are pushing this, they feel that they would come under it."

Representatives Conner, Hanna, Eikenberry and May spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1029, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 29; not voting, 0.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

Voting nay: Representatives Berentson, Conner, Fortson, Hansey.

Substitute House Bill No. 1078, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Mr. Eikenberry: "Yes, the point being, may he do so without having checked with the parents of the child first?"

Mr. Warnke: "I think you are getting into the area of the Good Samaritan Act. I don't know whether you are meaning in the case of an accident in school or in the case of prescribed medicine. I simply couldn't answer that."

Mr. Eikenberry: "I wasn't getting to the immediate need situation or the accident area. I just wanted to know whether you are meaning in the case of an accident in school or in the case of prescribed medicine. I simply couldn't answer that."

Mr. Warnke: "I wasn't getting to the immediate need situation or the accident area. I just wanted to know if this bill would expand the authority of a physician to administer medication in a routine situation without prior authorization from the parents of the child?"

Mr. Warnke: "I would answer no. I was not trying to address that question with this bill, but really we are trying to address the question of employees who work in a school district, who, within the scope of their job, might be requested by the parent or the doctor to give prescribed medicine to the children in that school. I guess I would have to refer you to Representative Knowles. He could interpret this bill in that area for you; I'm not an attorney."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Polk yielded to question by Mr. Smith (Rick).

Mr. Smith (Rick): "Could you help me to understand what that 20% figure is that you mentioned? Would you relate some samples of home construction that would be below or above that 20%?"

Mr. Polk: "If you had a house that if you measured around the outside of the house and it was 100 feet perimeter, and in linear measurement 20 feet of that would be glass, then I would judge it to be 20% of the exterior wall surface as being glass. I think there is a reasonable question of interpretation whether it is just linear measurement or if it is the square footage of the perimeter that is to be measured and then 20% of that square footage. I believe there is some question as to how that is to be interpreted. Most appropriate I believe would be the square footage, but if you had 20% of that perimeter, then you would have to do one of three things: (1) Either buy thermal pane, which is premanufactured, presealed double pane glass; or (2) put in double thickness of glass with ventilation to relieve the space in between to prevent condensation; or (3) what is referred to in the bill as approved storm sash. I don't know what approved storm sash is or who approves it, but those are the three options that the 20% requires."

Mr. Smith (Rick): "Could you give me any idea of what percentage of conventional home construction, single family residence, today would be above that 20%? Do you have any guess at all?"

Mr. Polk: "No, I can't."

Mr. Perry spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Kuehnle again spoke against it.

Representatives Kilbury and Hansen spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hansen yielded to question by Mrs. North.

Mrs. North: "In the case where a renter installs the system, how do you handle the real estate tax?"
Mr. Hansen: "It would be part of the consideration, I believe, Representative North. It would be the same as if you rented a piece of property and you built, and it was part of the consideration, to put a barn on this property. It would remain part of the real property. You're talking about a hand-moved system that is movable—the biggest part of our sprinkler systems are not movable and if it would be the desire of the lessee to make this stipulation then he would have the right to remove it, the same as you would have the right to remove the barn if that is in the contract when you leased the land."

Mrs. North: "I was thinking of the case where you may have a lease for 5 years or so and the lessee has installed this equipment sometime during that time, need the lease be redrawn?"

Mr. Hansen: "Yes. The Department of Natural Resources, when they break out a piece of land and put it out for bids, the bids come in for a certain amount of money and the installation of the system. The system at the end of the lease period becomes part of the Department of Natural Resources ground."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Thompson yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "Representative Thompson, in light of the new trust account language contained in House Bill No. 796, I would like to clarify a point. If a property management firm holds in its trust account on behalf of the owner of the property those damage deposits belonging to the tenants, would the terms of this bill require, in case the property is sold but the same management company is retained, that the damage deposits be transferred to a different trust account?"

Mr. Thompson: "Representative Kuehnle, the answer is no. The same account would qualify in accordance with this act, but I think in order to carry out the intent and to clear the act, the tenant should be notified of such transfer."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Thompson: "Earlier today Representative Perry and I were the object of some levity here on the floor of the House and I would like to comment on that if I may. I'm not suggesting that our motives have been impugned, but I would like to point out to the membership that my vote against reconsideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435 was consistent with my vote for the bill yesterday. I would also like to describe for some of the newer members of the House something that I was involved in as a new member of the House of Representatives. In 1967 Representative Perry introduced a floor resolution which called upon the Bonneville Power Administration not to grant a large block of power to an aluminum company that was seeking sites within this state. The 'Whereases' in that resolution pointed to an impending power shortage, to the low employment afforded by this industry and to the dirty process that was proposed to be employed by this plant. The House of Representatives adopted that floor resolution and the next day I sponsored a floor resolution which rescinded that action. I learned later that Representative Perry had shown considerable foresight in anticipating the power shortage and the labor problems and the environmental problems that we have today. I have apologized to Representative Perry privately for that action, admitting that he was right; this gives me a chance to do it publicly. I think he has shown the same foresight in this issue and I was happy to support him on this bill."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, all bills passed to this point in the proceedings were ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Randall: "Mr. Speaker, I think after some of the actions on the floor of the House today, it strengthens my convictions of the exemplary posture of the bicameral legislature."

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Kilbury spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kilbury yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "The environmental impact statement in connection with the thermal power plant sites is an extremely significant matter since these are very large power plants we are talking about. My question is: Why does the present law require both a federal environmental impact statement and a state environmental impact statement? If we, by this act, exempt the requirement for the state EIS, are you positive that we will not run afoul of any of the federal and state requirements pursuant to the CEPA, NEPA acts?"

Mr. Kilbury: "In answer to the first part of your question, I can only speculate. In response to your second question, I would say that it does not eliminate any requirements."

Mr. Douthwaite: "What kind of a guarantee can you give us that by this act we are not jeopardizing some of the protections which we have guaranteed to ourselves in the past?"

Mr. Kilbury: "I don't think there are any guarantees that we have made in the past that are not assured by this, primarily because the environmental impact statement under NEPA is almost precisely the exact same statement that has been submitted under CEPA."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike all material after the enacting clause and insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.010. TITLE, EFFECTIVE DATE, APPLICATION, SEVERABILITY, CAPTIONS. (1) This title shall be known and may be cited as the Washington Criminal Code and shall become effective on July 1, 1976.

(2) The provisions of this title shall apply to any offense committed on or after July 1, 1976, which is defined in this title or the general statutes, unless otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires, and shall also apply to any defense to prosecution for such an offense.

(3) The provisions of this title do not apply to or govern the construction or punishment for any offense committed prior to the effective date of this title, or to the construction and application of any defense to a prosecution for such an offense. Such an offense must be construed and punished according to the provisions of law existing at the time of the commission thereof in the same manner as if this title had not been enacted.

(4) If any provision of this title, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the title, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected, and to this end the provisions of this title are declared to be severable.

(5) Chapter, section, and subsection captions are for organizational purposes only and shall not be construed as part of this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.020. PURPOSES—PRINCIPLES OF CONSTRUCTION. (1) The general purposes of the provisions governing the definition of offenses are:

(a) To forbid and prevent conduct that inflicts or threatens substantial harm to individual or public interests;

(b) To safeguard conduct that is without culpability from condemnation as criminal;

(c) To give fair warning of the nature of the conduct declared to constitute an offense;

(d) To differentiate on reasonable grounds between serious and minor offenses, and to prescribe proportionate penalties for each.

(2) The provisions of this title shall be construed according to the fair import of their terms but when the language is susceptible of differing constructions it shall be interpreted to further the general purposes stated in this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.030. STATE CRIMINAL JURISDICTION. The following persons are liable to punishment:

(1) A person who commits in the state any crime, in whole or in part.

(2) A person who commits out of the state any act which, if committed within it, would be theft and is afterward found in the state with any of the stolen property.

(3) A person who being out of the state, counsels, causes, procures, aids, or abets another to commit a crime in this state.

(4) A person who, being out of the state, abducts or kidnaps by force or fraud, any person, contrary to the laws of the place where the act is committed, and brings, sends, or conveys such person into this state.

(5) A person who commits an act without the state which affects persons or property within the state, which, if committed within the state, would be a crime.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.040. CLASSES OF CRIMES. (1) An offense defined by this title or by any other statute of this state, for which a sentence of imprisonment is authorized, constitutes a crime. Crimes are classified as felonies, gross misdemeanors, or misdemeanors.

(2) A crime is a felony if it is so designated in this title or by any other statute of this state or if persons convicted thereof may be sentenced to imprisonment for a term in excess of one year. A crime is a misdemeanor if it is so designated in this title or by any other statute of this state or if persons convicted thereof may be sentenced to imprisonment for no more than ninety days. Every other crime is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.050. PEOPLE CAPABLE OF COMMITTING CRIMES. Children under the age of eight years are incapable of committing crime. Children of eight and under twelve years of age are presumed to be incapable of committing crime, but this presumption may be removed by proof that they have sufficient capacity to understand the act or neglect, and to know that it was wrong. Whenever in legal proceedings it becomes necessary to determine the age of a child, he may be produced for inspection, to enable the court or jury to determine the age thereby; and the court may also direct his examination by one or more physicians, whose opinion shall be competent evidence upon the question of his age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.060. COMMON LAW TO SUPPLEMENT STATUTE. The provisions of the common law relating to the commission of crime and the punishment thereof, insofar as not inconsistent with the constitution and statutes of this state, shall supplement all penal statutes of this state and all persons offending against the same shall be tried in the courts of this state having jurisdiction of the offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.070. WHO AMENABLE TO CRIMINAL STATUTES. Every person, regardless of whether or not he is an inhabitant of this state, may be tried and punished under the laws of this state for an offense committed by him therein, except when such offense is cognizable exclusively in the courts of the United States.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.080. LIMITATION OF ACTIONS. Prosecutions for the offenses of murder, and arson where death ensues, may be commenced at any period after the commission of the offense; for offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, committed by any public officer in connection with the duties of his office or constituting a breach of his public duty or a violation of his oath of office, within ten years after their commission; for all other offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, within three years after their commission; two years for gross misdemeanors; and for all other offenses, within one year after their commission: PROVIDED, That any length of time during which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this state shall not be reckoned within the one, two, three, and ten years respectively: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That where an indictment has been found, or complaint or an information filed, within the time limited for the commencement of a criminal action, if the indictment, complaint or information be set aside, the time of limitation shall be extended by the length of time from the time of filing of such indictment, complaint, or information, to the time such indictment, complaint, or information was set aside.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.090. APPLICATION OF GENERAL PROVISIONS OF THE CODE. The provisions of chapters 9A.04 through 9A.28 of this title are applicable to offenses defined by this title or another statute, unless this title or such other statute specifically provides otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.100. PROOF BEYOND A REASONABLE DOUBT. (1) Every person charged with the commission of a crime is presumed innocent unless proved guilty. No person may be convicted of a crime unless each element of such crime is proved by competent evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

(2) When a crime has been proven against a person, and there exists a reasonable doubt as to which of two or more degrees he is guilty, he shall be convicted only of the lowest degree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9A.04.110. DEFINITIONS. In this title unless a different meaning plainly is required:

(ii) The value of a ticket or equivalent instrument which evidences a right to receive transportation, entertainment, or other service shall be deemed the price stated thereon, if any; and if no price is stated thereon, the value shall be deemed the price of such ticket or equivalent instrument which the issuer charged the general public;

(3) When a person not an issuer or agent thereof has in his possession or under his control stolen credit cards issued in the names of two or more persons, he shall be presumed to know that they are stolen. (3) An oath is "required or authorized by law" when the use of the oath is specifically provided for by statute or regulatory provision;

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 827, by Representatives King and Brown:

Providing changes in public disclosure provisions.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see Journal, Forty-eighth Day ex. sess., April 29, 1975.)

Mr. Thompson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Thompson, Zimmerman and Wilson:

On page I, line 4 insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) That political campaign and lobbying contributions and expenditures be fully disclosed to the public and that secrecy is to be avoided.
(2) That the people have the right to expect from their elected representatives at all levels of government the utmost of integrity, honesty and fairness in their dealings.
(3) That the people shall be assured that the private financial dealings of their public officials, and of candidates for those offices, present no conflict of interest between the public trust and private interests.
(4) That our representative form of government is founded on a belief that those entrusted with the offices of government have nothing to fear from full public disclosure of their financial and business holdings, provided those officials deal honestly and fairly with the people.
(5) That public confidence in government at all levels is essential and must be promoted by all possible means.
(6) That public confidence in government at all levels can best be sustained by assuring the people of the impartiality and honesty of the officials in all public transactions and decisions.
(7) That the concept of attempting to increase financial participation of individual contributors in political campaigns is encouraged by the passage of the Revenue Act of 1971 by the congress of the United States, and in consequence thereof, it is desirable to have implementing legislation at the state level.
(8) That the concepts of disclosure and limitation of election campaign financing are established by the passage of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 by the congress of the United States, and in consequence thereof it is desirable to have implementing legislation at the state level."
(9) That small contributions by individual contributors are to be encouraged, and that not requiring the reporting of small contributions may tend to encourage such contributions.

(10) That the public's right to know of the financing of political campaigns and lobbying and the financial affairs of elected officials and candidates (for outweigh any right that these matters remain secret and private) shall be safeguarded against misuse for arbitrary and capricious purposes, and that elected officials and candidates shall be protected from harassment and unfounded allegations based on information they have freely disclosed.

(11) That, mindful of the right of individuals to privacy and of the desirability of the efficient administration of government, full access to information concerning the conduct of government on every level must be assured as a fundamental and necessary precondition to the sound governance of a free society.

The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to promote complete disclosure of all information respecting the financing of political campaigns and lobbying, and the financial affairs of elected officials and candidates, and full access to public records so as to assure continuing public confidence in fairness of elections and governmental processes, and so as to assure that the public interest will be fully protected."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Thompson, King and Zimmerman spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 15 after "PROVIDED" insert "That the term 'compensation' in the case of rental income, shall mean that rental income which is reportable as 'taxable income' under current definitions established by the Internal Revenue Service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That 'compensation' as relates to the sale of personal property, shall mean 'taxable income' under current definitions established by the Internal Revenue Service: PROVIDED FURTHER, For the purposes of this chapter 'compensation' shall not include ordinary interest or dividends on invested savings: PROVIDED FURTHER."

Representatives Kuehnle, Tilly and Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Moon and Brown spoke against it.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite spoke against it.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Polk, the question was divided.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Mr. Kuehnle to page 2, line 15 beginning with "That the term" and ending "Internal Revenue Service:"

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Leckenby.

Mr. Leckenby: "What kind of a definition is the commission proposing to adopt to cover this subject of compensation, which has obviously been a problem over the last two years?"

Mr. King: "I guess the answer to that is I don't know."

Mr. Leckenby spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Kuehnle to page 2, line
15 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was not adopted by the follow-

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Amen, Barnes, Berentson, Bond, Curtis, Deccio, Dunlap, Fischer, Flanagan, Freeman, Gaspard, Gilleland, Greengo, Hansen, Hansey, Hayner, Hurley M., Knowles, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, McCormick, Nelson, Newhouse, Pardini, Patterson, Polk, Schumaker, Tilly, Whiteside, Wilson, Zimmerman, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Becker, Bender, Blair, Boldt, Brown, Ceccarelli, Chandler, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Cochrane, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Haley, Hanna, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hurley G. S., Jastad, Jueling, Kalich, Kilbury, King, Laughlin, Lee, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McKibbin, Moon, Moreau, North, O'Brien, Paris, Parker, Perry, Peterson, Randall, Savage, Seeberger, Sherman, Shippeck,

Not voting: Representatives Hausler, Luders.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the second part of the Kuehnle amendment beginning "PROVIDED FURTHER," and ending "PROVIDED FURTHER,"
The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 15 after "kind" strike everything down to and through "entity" on line 20.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Brown and King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Greengo.

Mr. Greengo: "Could you tell us if the per diem that lobbyists take should have to be reported under this disclosure law?"

Mr. Brown: "I'm not sure I can answer that because I'm not familiar with the L-form, which is the lobbyist reporting form, but I believe that all of their expenses are reported, and I'm reasonably certain at this point that they would have to, although they work on a slightly different basis than we do. They are very dependent upon the process used by their particular employer and I'm not sure how many of them are even on per diem in the same sense that you and I are drawing per diem here. We may be talking apples and oranges and I don't believe there is a total consistent pattern within the lobbying profession."

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "You say that it is required that we do declare the amount we receive from per diem in our income tax, I presume. I think this is true. My question is, if we take this language out of there and compensation, including per diem, is not required to be disclosed, you say that it is required to be disclosed—where does the law require that I disclose it if we strike this?"

Mr. King: "It's a matter of public record, as any expenditure of public funds have to be kept—I believe by the Chief Clerk. If you want to find out you could find out from him. The per diem we get now is less than what the federal government allows as a complete exemption from recording as income. This year your per diem will not have to reported under the federal income tax laws."

Representatives Douthwaite, Pardini and Kuehnle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Perry and Shinpoch spoke against it.

Mr. Thompson demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Kuehnle to page 2, line 15 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 58; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Leckenby, Luders.

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, line 15 after "voters" insert ": PROVIDED, That an election in which the qualifications for voting include other than being a registered voter shall not be considered an election for purposes of this act."

Representatives Newhouse and Thompson spoke in favor of the amendment.
FIFTIETH DAY, MAY 2, 1975

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Moon.

Mr. Moon: "Would this also include those offices that require an individual to be an attorney to qualify for the office, that is the prosecuting attorney's office and this type of elected official?"

Mr. Newhouse: "It was not so intended. I didn't read that into the act. I'm looking at the definition of an election, which states the qualifications for voting—we are talking about the elector, not the elected. You see, the only qualifications that I know of in any election in the state to be an elector, other than being a registered voter, would be in the case where you must be a landowner and then in that case not everybody that lives within the district votes, but only those who own land."

Mr. Moon: "That would be for flood control districts and that type of thing?"

Mr. Newhouse: "That is right."

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Kuehnle, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 28 after "campaign" insert ": PROVIDED, That in reporting expenditures under this section, agreements to make expenditures, contracts and promises to pay may be reported as estimated obligations until actual payment is made."

On motion of Mr. Gallagher, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 31 after "spouse" strike the remainder of the subsection and insert "(and children living in the household and other relatives living in the household) , dependent children, and other dependent relatives, if living in the household"

Mr. Leckenby moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 1, line 34 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(17) 'Individual' means a natural person."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Leckenby: "This amendment is part and parcel of another amendment on page 26. They should be discussed and acted upon as one, I believe."

The Speaker: "I think since you haven't got it before us, that we will just consider it when it comes up. I'm sure that we'll be on this for more than a day and if this passes, I'm sure the House would pass the second one later on. I'd rather keep them separate."

Mr. Leckenby: "If this amendment were to pass and the other one to fail, there would be no point in passing this one and vice versa. I wonder if we could hold this over until we could take the next one?"

The Speaker: "There's no problem with holding this on the desk while you prepare the other portion. If you wish, we'll do that."

Mr. Leckenby spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. King: "My point of order is based on the idea that, taking the proposed amendment before us in context, the reason for adopting it is to go along with an amendment which will come later on, which results in restricting who can participate in political campaigns. The object of the public disclosure law is simply that, to make available to the public the necessary knowledge about how much money is spent in political campaigns and where it came from. The act does not, the object of the act, does not go to the question of saying who can participate in that process. My point of order is that the only purpose of presenting this proposed amendment, according to the maker of the motion, is to tie into another one which results in the limitation of who can participate in the political process and it far exceeds the object of the public disclosure law."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative King, I think the reasoning behind Mr. Leckenby's offering of an amendment would go into the scope and object of this particular amendment. This amendment does reflect to the word 'individual' as used in other contexts throughout the bill.
I don't see any real effect of this amendment, but the thing is that we would have to take your objection when we come to the particular amendment that is beyond the scope and object in your mind, rather than this, because 'individual' is used throughout this chapter."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. King: "If the amendment to page 26, which couples with this one to result in the limitation, is presented and it is ruled out of order, will it, in effect, go back and pick up the action on this definition insofar as it applies to that section of the bill?"

The Speaker: "My reaction to this particular amendment is that it doesn't mean anything anyway because that would be, I would think, the normal interpretation to the statute, because in other places in the statute it describes person and then says 'individual, corporation, partnership,' etc., etc. I think the word 'individual' is already used throughout the act with this in mind, so this could very well just merely be a definition of the word 'individual' in other portions of the act. About the most this would mean right now, would be clarifying the definition of what 'individual' means."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Lysen: "There is a bill presently in the Constitution and Elections Committee and also in the Subcommittee on Open Government that is identical to this amendment. I'm wondering if that is not a violation of the house rules to consider as an amendment a subject where a bill is identical?"

The Speaker: "If I understand your objection, Representative Lysen, this is a bill in its entirety that refers to page 3, section 1, line 34 inserting a new subsection to read as follows: '(17) Individual means a natural person,' Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively?"

Mr. Lysen: "Mr. Speaker, the bill deals with the subject matter of 'individuals' in limiting of campaign contributions, which these two amendments address themselves to."

The Speaker: "In my mind we are not to that portion yet, Representative Lysen. I think that's an objection that should be raised when you get to page 26. I think this amendment is purely a definition of what 'individual' is, although Representative Leckenby discussed it in relation to a future amendment, why he thought it necessary to have such a definition. The matter of page 26, line 7 I do not think is before the House at this time."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Brown: "Since we are looking at a definition and the way this law is drafted, the definition section in the very front of the bill does a number of things—my question is that suppose this particular amendment in the definition section were to be defeated and then subsequently Mr. Leckenby's amendment on page 26, which is an addition of a new section into the bill, were to pass and then it were determined that the definition of individual was necessary, would it be permissible at that time to submit another amendment like this and would it be considered at that time?"

The Speaker: "The House would have to reconsider their action, because the matter would have been already stricken. The Speaker doesn't like to rule ahead of time but the word 'individual' is perfectly clear to me and I don't see where it is inconsistent to adopt it later on."

Mr. King spoke against adoption of the amendment.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Leckenby withdrew the amendment.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Amen, Luders and Randall, who were excused.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Moon, Lysen, Charnley and Thompson spoke against it.

ROLL CALL
The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Kuehnle to page 5, line 28 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 9; nays, 85; not voting, 4.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Luders, Parker, Wojahn.

Mr. Smith (Rick) moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Smith (Rick) and Patterson:
On page 5, line 28 after "exceeding" strike "five" and insert "((five)) twenty-five"

Representatives Smith (Rick), Patterson and Peterson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Charnley, Moon and Lysen spoke against it.

Mr. Pardini demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL
The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Smith (Rick) and Patterson to Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 62; nays, 34; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Luders, Randall.

Mr. Kuehnle moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, line 14 beginning with "((4))" strike down to and including "fund." on line 21 and insert "((Accumulated contributions in excess of one percent of the total accumulated contributions received or three hundred dollars (whichever is less), shall not be deposited, used or expended, but shall be returned to the donor, if his identity can be ascertained. If the donor cannot be ascertained, the contribution shall escheat to the state, and shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund;))"

Representatives Kuehnle and Curtis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Brown, King and Smith (Rick) spoke against it.

Mr. Curtis spoke again in favor of the amendment.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Eikenberry, Luders, Newhouse.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. King, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representatives Thompson, Wilson and Zimmerman to page 1, line 4 was adopted.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Thompson: "Would it be possible to set aside as Representative King suggests the question of reconsideration of the amendment to give an opportunity to rework the language?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "If Representative King should withdraw his motion to reconsider at this time for the purpose of consulting with you then I think this would be possible. This is one way of handling the matter."

With the consent of the House, Mr. King withdrew the motion.

POINT OF INFORMATION

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (Rick) yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "Representative Smith, if, as Representative Brown asserts, a campaign—perhaps your own—if you felt there was some game playing going on, what recourse would you have? How could you determine the names and addresses of the contributors to that campaign under this or the present law?"

Mr. Smith (Rick): "That's a very good question, Representative Chandler. I think it's amply covered under the provisions of Initiative 276. Any candidate would still have to report his total expenditures. The raising from five dollars to twenty-five dollars wouldn't change that, and you'd have to do that on a regular basis during the campaign and it would be, I think, fairly obvious if the kind of game playing Representative Brown referred to were going on and someone was raising a lot of money with $25 contributions that were not being disclosed in your C-3 report. The commission then has the power to come in, as does anybody, and look at the records at the treasurer's office or the candidate's home and see where this money is coming from, and I think it would be fairly obvious if these kinds of games were being played."

Mr. Chandler spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. King spoke against it.

Representatives Parker and Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Charnley spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charnley yielded to question by Mr. Matthews.

Mr. Matthews: "If this amendment is adopted, would the public disclosure commission be able to draft regulations that would distinguish between the full-time salaried professional lobbyist on the one hand and on the other hand the small businessman, the college president, the labor union business agent or the minister or priest or any other salaried individual who is just here to tell us why a certain bill would help or hurt his organization? What reasoning could the public disclosure commission use in drawing that distinction in your proposed language?"

Mr. Charnley: "I believe the commission has that authority right now. The point of this is that if a businessman comes down here to lobby for, or to urge the consideration of a bill that he needs, he is only a casual lobbyist, he's not being paid to lobby. This is what my language intended—to help clarify the fact that they would clarify by rule and regulation that he is only a casual lobbyist and would not have to register. If he came down to lobby for, or to discuss with a legislator a concern that is of direct effect on his business, then under the same description he would be a lobbyist and not a casual lobbyist. Being an officer of that company he would be being paid and would therefore have to be registered."

Mr. Charnley spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Matthews spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, May 6, 1975.

SECOND READING
SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 827, by Representatives King and Brown:
Providing changes in public disclosure provisions.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see Journal, Forty-eighth Day ex. sess., April 30, 1975; Fiftieth Day ex. sess., May 2, 1975 and Fifty-third Day ex. sess., May 5, 1975.)

On motion of Mr. Perry the following amendment was adopted:
Mr. Peterson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 28 after "any" strike "one person" and insert "((one-person)) individual acting in a private capacity".

Mr. Peterson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Brown spoke against it.

Mr. Peterson again spoke in favor of adopting the amendment.

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "It has been alleged here a number of times that if anyone wants to find out exactly where all a campaigner's money came from he need only consult the campaign treasurer and obtain from him a complete list of contributions regardless of how big or small they may be. I would like to know at this point whether that is true or not. The fact that we have changed 'five' to 'twenty-five' and that proviso dealing with contributions made from one person seem to me to state that this is not so, that if I received contributions of less than $25 they need not be identified."

Mr. Brown: "No, you're right they need not be identified on your official report; however you shall retain a list of those and your treasurer would have a record of them. The whole purpose of the $300 exemption is to use it for whatever purpose the candidate wants to use it for. You could have up to $300 worth of contributions that you would not even have to have on that list that you maintain or the list that you report."

Mr. Douthwaite: "But the treasurer's list would have to identify contribution amounts and sources by names and addresses?"

Mr. Brown: "No, you can maintain $300 in contributions without having any record of where it came from whatsoever."

Mr. Douthwaite: "But other than that they are identified?"

Mr. Brown: "Correct."

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Peterson to page 5, line 28 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 60; not voting, 7.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Mr. Peterson, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the amendment to page 5, line 28 failed to pass the House.

Representatives Peterson and Eikenberry spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives King and Smith (Rick) spoke against it.

Mr. Peterson spoke again in favor of the motion for reconsideration.

Mr. May: "On reconsideration aren't we supposed to have debate, one from each side instead of all this harangue we are having here?"
FIFTY-FOURTH DAY, MAY 6, 1975

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "No, it's a regular motion and it opens up the entire matter for debate."

Mr. Parker spoke in opposition to the motion.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. King: "If we were to reconsider and adopt this proposed amendment would that preclude a point of order from being raised at a later time that would have to do with the question of whether or not the scope and object of this bill would include limitation of campaign donations?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative King, I think that this could very well open up the entire scope of the bill, but the prohibition of different people making contributions could possibly be within the scope and object."

The motion was not carried.

Mr. Parker moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Parker and Curtis:

On page 12, following line 16 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(4) Persons who restrict their lobbying activities to no more than four days or parts thereof during any three-month period and whose total expenditures during such three-month period for or on behalf of any one or more members of the legislature or state elected officials or public officers or employees of the state of Washington in connection with such lobbying do not exceed fifteen dollars: PROVIDED, That the commission shall have authority to promulgate regulations which limit the use of this exemption by entities which sponsor or coordinate lobbying activities should it find that such regulations are necessary to prevent frustration of the purposes of this chapter or the limited purposes of this casual lobbying exemption. Any person exempt under this subsection (4) may at his option register and report under this chapter."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Mr. Brown moved adoption of the following amendment to the Parker/Curtis amendment:

On line 7 after "shall" strike down to and including "exemption" on line 12 and insert "promulgate regulations to require disclosure by casual lobbyists or their employers or entities which sponsor or coordinate the lobbying activities of casual lobbyists if it determines that such regulations are necessary to prevent frustration of the purposes of this chapter."

Mr. Brown spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Brown yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "As I read your amendment where an employer might be required to disclose, I look to the current situation where school teachers are in town lobbying. Would their employer or the school board be required to report by regulations that would be promulgated?"

Mr. Brown: "According to this one, yes, if they exceed four days in a three-month period or if there is an attempt to relay-lobby. They would then be required to report."

Mr. Newhouse: "My point is that the teachers are down here, not lobbying in the interest of the employers perhaps, yet you are going to require the employers to report, which seems inconsistent to me."

Mr. Brown: "We have left that discretion with the PDC whether it's to be the lobbyist himself or the employer or the entity directing the activities. This doesn't dictate to that level, it merely establishes a policy that some reporting may be required."

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and it was adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Parker and Curtis as amended.

Representatives Parker, Curtis, Brown and Haley spoke in favor of the amended amendment, and Mr. King spoke against it.

The motion was carried.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of the Haley amendment.

Representatives Haley, Brown, Curtis and Smith (Rick) spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representative Charnley spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Representative Hayner moved that Second Substitute House Bill No. 827 be returned to the Committee on Constitution and Elections.

Representatives Hayner, Blair and Charnley spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. King spoke against it.

Mr. Pardini demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Nelson:

On page 13, line 2 after "interim" strike "weekly" and insert "((weekly)) monthly"

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 17, line 14 after "months:" insert "PROVIDED, That no individual shall be required to file more than once in any calendar year:"

Mr. Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mrs. Hayner.

Mrs. Hayner: "I assume that as Chairman of the Constitution and Elections Committee you have had testimony on all facets of this bill; can you tell me, since this bill is in effect, what abuses have been revealed as a result of filing these F-1 forms? I understand that the purpose of the Public Disclosure Act is to show conflict of interest. Will you please tell me if any of that has been shown or where the abuses have been revealed?"

Mr. King: "The purpose of the public disclosure bill is simply to disclose, it's not to show. It's to let the public decide whether or not there has been a conflict of interest. That becomes an issue in debates that occur. I don't know to what extent, in campaigns and so on, that may have had an impact on the outcome of the election, but I assume that it may have a greater impact in the future."

Mrs. Hayner: "I know that there are groups carefully monitoring the C forms; is there any group, outside of individuals, who are looking at the F-1 forms?"

Mr. King: "There are amendments that we'll be dealing with in this bill later on, in which some members of the legislature want to make it mandatory that whoever looks at a form must indicate their name and address and who they represent. I assume that kind of amendment wouldn't be there unless some members of this legislature felt that there was some activity in that area. Now which groups, I don't know. I would assume that this bill is set up to provide a system to make it an adversary system where our political opponents who disagree with us are going to be the primary check on what's happening. If you come from an area where your people are completely satisfied with you as an individual, you probably won't have very much activity in the individual files at all; if there are some campaigns in your area, then you are likely to have a lot of people looking at those files. I've been told that some of them are pretty well thumbed."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Newhouse to page 17, line 14 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 60; not voting, 11.

On page 22, line 31 following the period strike all material down to and including "appropriation." on line 33.

Mr. Thompson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Thompson, Zimmerman and Wilson:

On page 23, line 22 after "authorize" insert ": PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to persons who file complaints with the Public Disclosure Commission about any elected official or candidate for elective office: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the Public Disclosure Commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant"

Representatives Thompson, Hansey, Smith (Rick) and Parker spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representative King spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Lysen moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Lysen and King:

On page 25 following section 19, after line 31 insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Each lobbyist shall at the time he registers submit to the commission a recent three inch by five inch black-and-white photograph of himself together with the name of the lobbyist's employer, the length of his employment as a lobbyist before the legislature, a brief biographical description, and any other information he may wish to submit not to exceed fifty words in length; such photograph and information to be published at least annually in a booklet form by the commission for distribution to legislators and the public.

(2) There is established a fund to be known as the 'lobbyists' booklet revolving fund' which shall consist of all receipts from sales of the booklets described in subsection (1) of this section. This fund shall be used for expenses of production and sale of such booklets and for no other purpose."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Lysen and King to page 25, line 31 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 29; not voting, 16.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Bagnariol, Bausch, Blair, Deccio, Eikenberry, Gilleland, Jueling, Kalich, Lee, Luders, Maxie, North, Shinpoch, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Leckenby moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 26, line 7 insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A contribution to a candidate or to any campaign entity supporting a candidate may be made only by an individual or a political party. A contribution to a political party may be made only by an individual. A contribution from an individual to a candidate or to any campaign entity supporting a candidate or political party must be made directly to a candidate, campaign entity or the political party. No individual shall make any contribution through an agent or other intermediary of whatsoever nature.

(2) No candidate, campaign entity or political party shall accept a contribution not made in compliance with subsection (1) of this section. Every candidate, campaign entity or political party shall record the name and amount of any contribution received by him/her or it from each individual.

(3) A violation of this section shall be punishable by the imposition of a fine which shall not exceed five thousand dollars.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
Mr. King: "The proposed amendment is, in my opinion, beyond the object of this bill and of the disclosure act in that it deals with who can contribute to a political campaign. The object of the Public Disclosure Act has dealt entirely with the question of public disclosure and not with limitations upon who can contribute and who can't. This particular amendment would prohibit associations and individuals from contributing."

Mr. Leckenby: "I think the scope of this is to make it public as to who is funding who and to try to make the funding to various candidates from the general public instead of the special interest groups. I think that it is within the purpose of the Public Disclosure Act."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears that the amendment offered does go beyond the scope and object of the bill. As a matter of fact, the material you add, Representative Leckenby, should comprise a bill of its own. The subject matter should be contained in a separate measure rather than added to the disclosure act which deals with public disclosure by way of reporting contributions, expenditures, etc. On that basis and in view of the fact that our House Rule 33 states, 'No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment;...', and also supported by Reed's Rule 160, that amendments must be germane. The Speaker is going to rule that the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the measure and the material should be contained in a separate bill of its own."

Mr. King moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 27, line 12 after "chapter." insert a new section as follows:

"Sec. 22. Section 36, chapter I, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Develop and provide forms for the reports and statements required to be made under this chapter;

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 28, line 32 insert the following:

"Sec. 23. Section 30, chapter I, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(I) The attorney general and the prosecuting authorities of political subdivisions of this state may bring civil actions in the name of the state for any appropriate civil remedy, including but not limited to the special remedies provided in RCW 42.17.390.

(2) The attorney general and the prosecuting authorities of political subdivisions of this state may investigate or cause to be investigated the activities of any person who there is reason to believe is or has been acting in violation of this chapter, and may require any such person or any other person reasonably believed to have information concerning the activities of such person to appear at a time and place designated in the county in which such person resides or is found, to give such information under oath and to produce all accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents which may be relevant or material to any investigation authorized under this chapter.

(3) When the attorney general or the prosecuting authority of any political subdivision of this state requires the attendance of any person to obtain such information or the production of the accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents which may be relevant or material to any investigation authorized under this chapter, he shall issue an order setting forth the time when and the place where attendance is required and shall cause the same to be delivered to or sent by registered mail to the person at least fourteen days before the date fixed for attendance. Such order shall have the same force and effect as a subpoena, shall be effective statewide, and, upon application of the attorney general or said prosecuting authority, obedience to the order may be enforced by any superior court judge in the county where the person receiving it resides or is found, to give such information under oath and to produce all accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents which may be relevant or material to any investigation authorized under this chapter.

(4) When the attorney general or the prosecuting authority of any political subdivision of this state requires the attendance of any person to obtain such information or the production of the accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents which may be relevant or material to any investigation authorized under this chapter, he shall issue an order setting forth the time when and the place where attendance is required and shall cause the same to be delivered to or sent by registered mail to the person at least fourteen days before the date fixed for attendance. Such order shall have the same force and effect as a subpoena, shall be effective statewide, and, upon application of the attorney general or said prosecuting authority, obedience to the order may be enforced by any superior court judge in the county where the person receiving it resides or is found, in the same manner as though the order were a subpoena. The court, after hearing, for good cause, and upon application of any person aggrieved by the order, shall have the right to alter, amend, revise, suspend, or postpone all or any part of its provisions. In any case where the order is not enforced by the court according to its terms, the reasons for the court's actions shall be clearly stated in writing, and such action shall be subject to review by the appellate courts by certiorari or other appropriate proceeding.

(4) Any person who has notified the attorney general in writing that there is reason to believe that some provision of this chapter is being or has been violated may himself bring in the name of the state any of the actions hereinafter referred to as a citizen's action) authorized under this chapter if the attorney general has failed to commence an action hereunder within forty days after such notice and if the attorney general has failed to commence an action within ten days after a notice in writing delivered to the attorney general advising him that a citizen's action will be brought if the attorney general does not bring an action. If the person who brings the citizen's action prevails, he shall be entitled to one-half of any judgment

PROVIDED, That in the case of a citizen's action which is dismissed and which the court also finds was brought without reasonable cause, the court may order the person commencing the action to pay all costs of trial and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the defendant:

(5)) In any action brought under this section, the court may award to the state all costs of investigation and trial, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. If the violation is found to have been intentional, the amount of the judgment, which shall for this purpose include the costs, may be trebled as punitive damages. If damages or treble damages are awarded in such an action brought against a lobbyist, the judgment may be awarded against the lobbyist, and the lobbyist's employer or employers joined as defendants, jointly, severally, or both. If the defendant prevails, he shall be awarded all costs of trial, and may be awarded a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court to be paid by the state of Washington."

The committees shall report their findings and

On page 29, line 10 insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A contribution to a candidate or a candidate's campaign for the office of state senator or state representative may be made only by an individual as defined in RCW 42.17.020 (28) as now or hereafter amended. An individual making such a contribution is hereby required to be a resident of the same legislative district as the candidate. No individual shall make any contribution through an agent or other intermediary.

(2) No candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives shall accept a contribution which is not made in compliance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section. Each candidate receiving a contribution governed by the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall record the name of the individual making the contribution and the amount thereof.

(3) A violation of any provision of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months or by both such fine and imprisonment."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. King: "I believe that this proposed amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill and it does deal again with saying who can contribute to a political campaign rather than dealing with the question of public disclosure. This amendment says that you have to live in the candidate's district in order to participate in that campaign."

Mr. Chandler: "Mr. Speaker, I am aware of your previous ruling, but one point wasn't made at that time. In the original draft of Initiative 276 this measure did deal with campaign spending limitations. That was stricken by the Supreme Court in the Baer vs. Gorton decision. It seems appropriate that with that having taken place the legislature now address this same bill in a similar way attempting to place back into the law something dealing with the subject matter of contributions, their size, etc."
SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Speaker will rule in the same manner as was made relative to Representative Leckenby's amendment. The area covered by your proposed new section is in the same realm, although somewhat different from Representative Leckenby's, relative to limitations on campaign contributions. It appears that your amendment, Representative Chandler, is in violation and not in accordance with Rule 33, that the amendment should be germane to the subject matter and any matter different from that under consideration shall not be admitted under color of an amendment, and also Reed's Rule 160 states that an amendment should be germane to the original subject matter. You are attempting to limit campaign contributions, narrowing the scope of campaign contributions, and the bill pertains to disclosure and reporting of campaign contributions, contributors, compensation and financial interests; therefore, the Speaker rules that the amendment by Representative Chandler is not germane to the subject matter of the bill and is out of order."

Mr. Gaspard moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Gaspard, Sommers and Smith (Rick):

On page 5, line 29 after "contributor" insert "so long as the campaign treasurer maintains a separate list of the names, addresses and amounts of each contributor"

On page 10, line 8 after "separate" strike "and private" and insert "((and private))"

Mr. Gaspard spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Gaspard yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "This may be a Freedom of the Press amendment, Representative Gaspard. Would this permit the members of the working press to inspect the records and publish lists of contributors?"

Mr. Gaspard: "If it's public record, it certainly would."

The amendments were adopted.

Mr. Pardini moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 29, line 10 add new sections to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Section 24, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.240 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 11 and 23 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at a special election hereby ordered by the legislature, which election shall be held in conjunction with the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, all in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the Constitution of the state of Washington, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. In the event that the people, at the election held pursuant to section 24 vote for the repeal of RCW 42.17.240, then section 11 shall be void and of no effect."

Representatives Pardini, Flanagan, Curtis and Leckenby spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Brown, Hurley (George) and King spoke against it.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pardini to page 29, line 10 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 827, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 70; not voting, 7.

Not voting: Representatives Berentson, Blair, Lee, Matthews, Maxie, North, and Mr. Speaker.

Ms. Wojahn moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1 strike all material after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Section I. Sections I through 50, chapter I, Laws of 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276) and RCW 42.17.010 through 42.17.940 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at a special election hereby ordered by the legislature, which election shall be held in conjunction with the general election to be held in this state on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, 1975, all in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the Constitution of the state of Washington, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

Representative Wojahn spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives King and Haley spoke against it.

Mr. Thompson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. King, the following amendment to the title by Representatives King and Brown was adopted:

On page 29, line 25 of the title after "42.17.300;" insert "amending section 36, chapter I, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.360;"

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the following amendment to the title by Representatives Thompson, Zimmerman and Wilson was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "open government;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 1, chapter I, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.010;"

Second Substitute House Bill No. 827 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 24, 1975

Mr. Speaker:
The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 95 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to Title 69 RCW a new chapter to read as set forth in sections 2 through 38 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Eggs and egg products are an important source of the state's total supply of food, and are used in food in various forms. They are consumed throughout the state and the major portion thereof moves in intrastate commerce. It is essential, in the public interest, that the health and welfare of consumers be protected by the adoption of measures prescribed herein for assuring that eggs and egg products distributed to them and used in products consumed by them are wholesome, otherwise not adulterated, and properly labeled and packaged. Lack of effective regulation for the handling or disposition of unwholesome, otherwise adulterated, or improperly labeled or packaged egg products and certain qualities of eggs is injurious to the public welfare and destroys markets for wholesome, unadulterated, and properly labeled and packaged eggs and egg products and results in sundry losses to producers and processors, as well as injury to consumers. Unwholesome, otherwise adulterated, or improperly labeled or packaged products can be sold at lower prices and compete unfairly with the wholesome, unadulterated, and properly labeled and packaged products, to the detriment of consumers and the public generally. It is hereby found that all egg products and the qualities of eggs which are regulated under this chapter are either in intrastate commerce, or substantially affect such commerce, and that regulation by the director, as contemplated by this chapter, is appropriate to protect the health and welfare of consumers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. When used in this chapter the following terms shall have the indicated meanings, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Department" means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington.
(2) "Director" means the director of the department or his duly authorized representative.
(3) "Person" means any natural person, firm, partnership, exchange, association, trustee, receiver, corporation, and any member, officer, or employee thereof, or assignee for the benefit of creditors.
(4) "Adulterated" applies to any egg or egg product under one or more of the following circumstances:
(a) If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health; but in case the substance is not an added substance, such article shall not be considered adulterated under this clause if the quantity of such substance in or on such article does not ordinarily render it injurious to health;
(b) If it bears or contains any added poisonous or added deleterious substance (other than one which is: (i) A pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity; (ii) a food additive; or (iii) a color additive) which may, in the judgment of the director, make such article unfit for human food;
(c) If it is, in whole or in part, a raw agricultural commodity and such commodity bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of RCW 69.04.392, as enacted or hereafter amended;
(d) If it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of RCW 69.04.394, as enacted or hereafter amended;
(e) If it bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of RCW 69.04.396, as enacted or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That an article which is not otherwise deemed adulterated under subsection (4)(c), (d), or (e) of this section shall nevertheless be deemed adulterated if use of the pesticide chemical, food additive, or color additive, in or on such article, is prohibited by regulations of the director in official plants;

(i) If it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance, or if it is otherwise unfit for human food;

(g) If it has been prepared, packaged, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have become contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered injurious to health;

(b) If it is an egg which has been subjected to incubation or the product of any egg which has been subjected to incubation;

(i) If its container is composed, in whole or in part, of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health;

(j) If it has been intentionally subjected to radiation, unless the use of the radiation was in conformity with a regulation or exemption in effect pursuant to RCW 69.04.394; or

(k) If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom; or if any substance has been substituted, wholly or in part therefor; or if damage or inferiority has been concealed in any manner; or if any substance has been added thereto or mixed or packed therewith so as to increase its bulk or weight, or reduce its quality or strength, or make it appear better or of greater value than it is.

(5) "Capable of use as human food" shall apply to any egg or egg product unless it is denatured, or otherwise identified, as required by regulations prescribed by the director, to deter its use as human food.

(6) "Intrastate commerce" means any eggs or egg products in intrastate commerce, whether such eggs or egg products are intended for sale, held for sale, offered for sale, sold, stored, transported, or handled in this state in any manner and prepared for eventual distribution in this state, whether at wholesale or retail.

(12) "Egg" means the shell egg of the domesticated chicken, turkey, duck, goose, or guinea, or any other specie of fowl.

(13) "Check" means an egg that has a broken shell or crack in the shell but has its shell membranes intact and contents not leaking.

(15) "Dirty egg" means an egg that has a shell that is unbroken and has adhering dirt or foreign material.

(16) "Incubator reject" means an egg that has been subjected to incubation and has been removed from incubation during the hatching operations as infertile or otherwise unhatchable.

(17) "Inedible" means eggs of the following descriptions: Black rots, yellow rots, white rots, mixed rots (addled eggs), sour eggs, eggs with green whites, eggs with stuck yolks, moldy eggs, musty eggs, eggs showing blood rings, and eggs containing embryo chicks (at or beyond the blood ring stage).

(18) "Leaker" means an egg that has a crack or break in the shell and shell membranes to the extent that the egg contents are exposed or are exuding or free to exeude through the shell.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The purpose of this chapter is to promote uniformity of state legislation and regulations with the federal egg products inspection act, 21 U.S.C. sec. 1031, et seq., and regulations adopted thereunder. In accord with such declared purpose, any regulations adopted under the federal egg products inspection act relating to eggs and egg products, as defined in section 3 (11) and (12) of this act, in effect on July 1, 1975, are hereby deemed to have been adopted under the provisions hereof. Further, to promote such uniformity, any regulations adopted hereafter under the provisions of the federal egg products inspection act relating to eggs and egg products, as defined in section 3 (11) and (12) of this act, and published in the federal register, shall be deemed to have been adopted under the provisions of this chapter in accord with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. The director may, however, within thirty days of the publication of the adoption of any such regulation under the federal egg products inspection act, give public notice that a hearing will be held to determine if such regulations shall not be applicable under the provisions of this chapter. Such hearing shall be in accord with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

The director, in addition to the foregoing, may adopt any rule and regulation necessary to carry out the purpose and provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The adoption, amendment, modification, or revocation of any rules or regulations under the provisions of this chapter, or the holding of a hearing in regard to a license issued or which may be issued or denied under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to the applicable provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No person shall act as an egg handler or dealer without first obtaining an annual license and permanent dealer's number from the department; such license shall expire on the thirtieth day of June following issuance. Application for a license shall be on a form prescribed by the director and accompanied by a ten dollar annual license fee. Duplicate copies of the license may be issued upon payment of five dollars. A copy of said license shall be posted at each location where such licensee operates. Such application shall include the full name of the applicant for the license and the location of each facility he intends to operate. If such applicant is an individual, receiver, trustee, firm, partnership, association or corporation, the full name of each member of the firm or partnership or the names of the officers of the association or corporation shall be given on the application. Such application shall further state the principal business address of the applicant in the state and elsewhere and the name of a person domiciled in this state authorized to receive and accept service of summons of legal notices of all kinds for the applicant and any other necessary information prescribed by the director. Upon the approval of the application and compliance with the provisions of this chapter, including the applicable regulations adopted hereunder by the department, the applicant shall be issued a license or renewal thereof. Such license and permanent egg handler or dealer's number shall be nontransferable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If the application for the renewal of an egg handler's or dealer's license is not filed before July 1st of any year, an additional fee of five dollars shall be assessed and added to the original fee and shall be paid by the applicant before the renewal license shall be issued: PROVIDED, That such additional fee shall not be charged if the applicant furnishes an affidavit certifying that he has not acted as an egg handler or dealer subsequent to the expiration of his license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department may deny, suspend, revoke, or issue a license or a conditional license if it determines that an applicant or licensee has committed any of the following acts:

(1) That the applicant or licensee is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations adopted thereunder.

(2) That the application contains any materially false or misleading statement or involves any misrepresentation by any officer, agent, or employee of the applicant.
(3) That the applicant or licensee has concealed or withheld any facts regarding any violation of this chapter by any officer, agent, or employee of the applicant or licensee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) For the purpose of preventing the entry into or movement in intrastate commerce of any egg product which is capable of use as human food and is misbranded or adulterated, the director shall, whenever processing operations are being conducted, unless under inspection by the United States department of agriculture, cause continuous inspection to be made, in accordance with the regulations promulgated under this chapter, of the processing of egg products, in each plant processing egg products for commerce, unless exempted under section 18 of this act. Without restricting the application of the preceding sentence to other kinds of establishments within its provisions, any food manufacturing establishment, institution, or restaurant which uses any eggs that do not meet the requirements of section 18(1)(a) of this act in the preparation of any articles for human food, shall be deemed to be a plant processing egg products, with respect to such operations.

(2) The director, at any time, shall cause such retention, segregation, and reinspection as he deems necessary of eggs and egg products capable of use as human food in each official plant.

(3) Eggs and egg products found to be adulterated at official plants shall be condemned, and if no appeal be taken from such determination or condemnation, such articles shall be destroyed for human food purposes under the supervision of an inspector: PROVIDED, That articles which may by reprocessing be made not adulterated need not be condemned and destroyed if so reprocessed under the supervision of an inspector and thereafter found to be not adulterated. If an appeal be taken from such determination, the eggs or egg products shall be appropriately marked and segregated pending completion of an appeal inspection, which appeal shall be at the cost of the appellant if the director determines that the appeal is frivolous. If the determination of condemnation is sustained, the eggs or egg products shall be destroyed for human food purposes under the supervision of an inspector.

(4) The director shall cause such other inspections to be made of the business premises, facilities, inventory, operations, and records of egg handlers, and the records and inventory of other persons required to keep records under section 15 of this act, as he deems appropriate (and in the case of shell egg packers, packing eggs for the ultimate consumer, at least once each calendar quarter) to assure that only eggs fit for human food are used for such purpose, and otherwise to assure compliance by egg handlers and other persons with the requirements of section 15 of this act, except that the director shall cause such inspections to be made as he deems appropriate to assure compliance with such requirements at food manufacturing establishments, institutions, and restaurants, other than plants processing egg products. Representatives of the director shall be afforded access to all such places of business for purposes of making the inspections provided for in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The operator of each official plant shall operate such plant in accordance with such sanitary practices and shall have such premises, facilities, and equipment as are required by regulations promulgated by the director to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including requirements for segregation and disposition of restricted eggs.

(2) The director shall refuse to render inspection to any plant whose premises, facilities, or equipment, or the operation thereof, fail to meet the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any such determination by the director shall be conclusive unless, within thirty days after receipt of notice of such final determination, the person adversely affected thereby appeals to the superior court in the county in which such person has its principal place of business.

(7) No person, while an official or employee of the state or local governmental agency, or thereafter, shall use to his own advantage, or reveal other than to the authorized representatives of the United States government or the state in their official capacity, or as ordered by a court in a judicial proceeding, any information acquired under the authority of this chapter concerning any matter which the originator or relator of such information claims to be entitled to protection as a trade secret.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The director shall, whenever he determines that it would effectuate the purposes of this chapter, cooperate with any state, federal or other governmental agencies in carrying out any provisions of this chapter. In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the director may conduct such examinations, investigations, and inspections as he determines practicable through any officer or employee of any such agency commissioned by him for such purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Inspection shall not be provided under this chapter at any plant for the processing of any egg products which are not intended for use as human food, but such articles, prior to their offer for sale or transportation in intrastate commerce, shall be denatured or identified as prescribed by regulations of the director to deter their use for human food. No person shall buy, sell, transport or offer to buy or sell, or offer or receive for transportation, in intrastate commerce, any restricted eggs or egg products which are not intended for use as human food unless they are denatured or identified as required by the regulations of the director.

When construing or enforcing the provisions of section 12 of this act, the act, omission, or failure of any person acting for or employed by any individual, partnership, corporation, or association within the scope of his employment or office shall in every case be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such individual, partnership, corporation, or association, as well as of such person.

(2) No carrier or warehouseman shall be subject to the penalties of this chapter, other than the penalties for violation of section 15 of this act, or subsection (3) of this section, by reason of his receipt, carriage, holding, or delivery, in the usual course of business, as a carrier or warehouseman of eggs or egg products owned by another person unless the carrier or warehouseman has knowledge, or is in possession of facts which would cause a reasonable person to believe that such eggs or egg products were not eligible for transportation under, or were otherwise in violation of, this chapter, or unless the carrier or warehouseman refuses to furnish on request of a representative of the director the name and address of the person from whom he received such eggs or egg products and copies of all documents, if there be any, pertaining to the delivery of the eggs or egg products to, or by, such carrier or warehouseman.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law any person who forcibly assaults, resists, impedes, intimidates, or interferes with any person while engaged in or on account of the performance of his official duties under this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than three years, or both. Whoever, in the commission of any such act, uses a deadly or dangerous weapon, shall be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Before any violation of this chapter, other than of section 16(3) of this act, is reported by the director to any prosecuting attorney for institution of a criminal proceeding, the person against whom such proceeding is contemplated shall be given reasonable notice of the alleged violation and opportunity to present his views orally or in writing with regard to such contemplated proceeding. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the director to report for criminal prosecution violation of this chapter whenever he believes that the public interest will be adequately served and compliance with this chapter obtained by a suitable written notice of warning.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) The director may, by regulation and under such conditions and procedures as he may prescribe, exempt from specific provisions of this chapter:

(a) The sale, transportation, possession, or use of eggs which contain no more restricted eggs than are allowed by the tolerance in the official state standards for consumer grades for shell eggs;

(b) The processing of egg products at any plant where the facilities and operating procedures meet such sanitary standards as may be prescribed by the director, and where the eggs received or used in the manufacture of egg products contain no more restricted eggs than are allowed by the official standards of the state consumer grades for shell eggs, and the egg products processed at such plant;

(c) The sale of eggs by shell egg packers on their own premises directly to household consumers for use by such consumer and members of his household and his nonpaying guests and employees, and the transportation, possession, and use of such eggs in accordance with this subsection.

(2) The director may modify or revoke any regulation granting exemption under this chapter whenever he deems such action appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The director may limit the entry of eggs and egg products and other materials into official plants under such conditions as he may prescribe to assure that the entry of such articles into such plants will be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Whenever any eggs or egg products subject to this chapter are found by any authorized representative of the director upon any premises and there is reason to believe that they are or have been processed, bought, sold, possessed, used, transported, or offered or received for sale or transportation in violation of this chapter, or that they are in any other way in violation of this chapter, or whenever any restricted eggs capable of use as human food are found by such a representative in the possession of any person not authorized to acquire such eggs under the regulations of the director, such articles may be embargoed by such representative for a reasonable period but not to exceed twenty days, pending action under section 21 of this act or notification of any federal or other governmental authorities having jurisdiction over such articles, and shall not be moved by any person from the place at which they are located when so detained until released by such representative. All official marks may be required by such representative to be removed from such articles before they are released unless it appears to the satisfaction of the director that the articles are eligible to retain such marks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. When the director has embargoed any eggs or egg products, he shall petition the superior court of the county in which the eggs or egg products are located for an order affirming such embargo. Such court shall have jurisdiction for cause shown and after a prompt hearing to any claimant of eggs or egg products, shall issue an order which directs the removal of such embargo or the destruction or correction and release of such eggs and egg products. An order for destruction or the correction and release of such eggs and egg products shall contain such provision for the payment of pertinent court costs and fees and administrative expenses as is equitable and which the court deems appropriate in the circumstances. An order for correction and release may contain such provisions for a bond as the court finds indicated in the circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The director need not petition the superior court as provided for in section 21 of this act if the owner or claimant of such eggs or egg products agrees in writing to the disposition of such eggs or egg products as the director may order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Two or more petitions under section 21 of this act which pend at the same time and which present the same issue and claimant hereunder may be consolidated for simultaneous determination by one court of competent jurisdiction, upon application to any court of jurisdiction by the director or claimant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The claimant in any proceeding by petition under section 21 of this act shall be entitled to receive a representative sample of the article subject to such proceeding upon application to the court of competent jurisdiction made at any time after such petition and prior to the hearing thereon.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. No state court shall allow the recovery of damages for administrative action for condemnation under the provisions of this chapter, if the court finds that there was probable cause for such action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is hereby levied an assessment not to exceed two and one-half mills per dozen eggs entering intrastate commerce, as prescribed by rules and regulations issued by the director. Such assessment shall be applicable to all eggs entering intrastate commerce except as provided in sections 18 and 30. Such assessment shall be paid to the director on a monthly basis on or before the tenth day following the month such eggs enter intrastate commerce. The director may require reports by egg handlers or dealers along with the payment of the assessment fee. Such reports may include any and all pertinent information necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The director may, by regulations, require egg container manufacturers to report on a monthly basis all egg containers sold to any egg handler or dealer and bearing such egg handler or dealer's license number.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Any egg handler or dealer may prepay the assessment provided for in section 26 of this act by purchasing Washington state egg seals from the director to be placed on egg containers showing that the proper assessment has been paid. Any carton manufacturer may apply to the director for a permit to place reasonable facsimiles of the Washington state egg seals to be imprinted on egg containers. The director shall, from time to time, prescribe rules and regulations governing the affixing of seals and he is authorized to cancel any such permit issued pursuant to this chapter, whenever he finds that a violation of the terms under which the permit has been granted has been violated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Every egg handler or dealer who pays assessments required under the provisions of this chapter on a monthly basis in lieu of seals shall be subject to audit by the director on an annual basis or more frequently if necessary. The cost to the director for performing such audit shall be chargeable to and payable by the egg handler or dealer subject to audit. Failure to pay assessments when due or refusal to pay for audit costs may be cause for a summary suspension of an egg handler's or dealer's license and a charge of one percent per month, or fraction thereof shall be added to the sum due the director, for each remittance not received by the director when due. The conditions and charges applicable to egg handlers and dealers set forth herein shall also be applicable to payments due the director for facsimiles of seals placed on egg containers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The proceeds from assessment fees paid to the director shall be retained for the inspection of eggs and carrying out the provisions of this chapter relating to eggs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. All containers used by an egg handler or dealer to package eggs shall bear the name and address or the permanent number issued by the director to said egg handler or dealer. Such permanent number shall be displayed in a size and location prescribed by the director. It shall constitute a gross misdemeanor for any egg handler or dealer to reuse a container which bears the permanent number of another egg handler or dealer unless such number is totally obliterated prior to reuse. The director may in addition require the obliteration of any or all markings that may be on any container which will be reused for eggs by an egg handler or dealer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. In addition to any other records required to be kept and furnished the director under the provisions of this chapter, the director may require any person who sells to any retailer, or to any restaurant, hotel, boarding house, bakery, or any institution or concern which purchases eggs for serving to guests or patrons thereof or for its use in preparation of any food product for human consumption, eggs other than those of his own production sold and delivered on the premises where produced, to furnish that retailer or other purchaser with an invoice covering each such sale, showing the exact grade or quality, and the size or weight of the eggs sold, according to the standards prescribed by the director, together with the name and address of the person by whom the eggs were sold. The person selling and the retailer or other purchaser shall keep a copy of said invoice on file at his place of business for a period of thirty days, during which time the copy shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by the director: PROVIDED, That no retailer or other purchaser shall be guilty of a violation of this chapter if he can establish a guarantee from the person from whom the eggs were purchased to the effect that they, at the time of purchase, conformed to the information required by the director on such invoice: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the retailer or other purchaser having labeled any such eggs in accordance with the invoice keeps them for such a time after they are purchased as to cause them to deteriorate to a lower grade or standard, and sells them under the label of the invoice grade or standard, he shall be guilty of a violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the sale of eggs by any poultry producer from his own flocks directly to a household consumer exclusively for use by such consumer and members of his household and his nonpaying guests and employees, and the transportation, possession, and use of such eggs or the sale of eggs by any egg producer with an annual egg production from a flock of three thousand or less hens.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. The enactment of this chapter shall not have the effect of terminating or in any way modifying any liability, civil or criminal, which shall already be in existence on the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. Any person violating any provision of this chapter or regulations for which a penalty is not specifically provided for in this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and guilty of a gross misdemeanor for any subsequent violation: PROVIDED, That any offense committed more than five years after a previous conviction shall be considered a first offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall not affect any other remedy at law.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Benefiting the above activities and resources will generally enhance recreational opportunities and scenic beauty.

(2) The legislature further finds and declares it to be in the public interest of this state to create and maintain through the adoption of this chapter a comprehensive state-wide system of laws and forest practices regulations which to the extent feasible will achieve the following purposes and policies:

(a) Afford protection to, promote, foster and encourage timber growth, and require such minimum reforestation of commercial tree species on forest lands as will reasonably utilize the timber growing capacity of the soil following current timber harvest;

(b) Afford protection to forest soils and public resources by utilizing all reasonable methods of technology in conducting forest practices;

(c) Recognize both the public and private interest in the profitable growing and harvesting of timber;

(d) Promote efficiency by permitting maximum operating freedom consistent with the other purposes and policies stated herein;

(e) Provide for regulation of forest practices so as to avoid unnecessary duplication in such regulation;

(f) Provide for interagency input and intergovernmental coordination and cooperation;

(g) Achieve compliance with all applicable requirements of federal and state law with respect to non-point sources of water pollution from forest practices; and

The board, assisted by the department, shall prepare proposed forest practices regulations. ((In addition to any forest practices regulations relating to water quality protection proposed by the board, the department of ecology shall prepare proposed forest practices regulations relating to water quality protection))

Prior to initiating the rule making process, the proposed regulations shall be submitted for review and comments to the department of fisheries, the department of game, the department of ecology, and to the counties of the state. After receipt of the proposed forest practices regulations, the departments of fisheries (em), game, ecology, and the counties of the state shall have thirty days in which to review and submit comments to the board((and to the department of ecology with respect to its proposed regulations relating to water quality protection)). After the expiration of such thirty day period the board (and) through the department ((of ecology)) shall ((jointly)) hold one or more hearings on the proposed regulations pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. At such hearing(s) any county may propose specific forest practices regulations relating to problems existing within such county. The board ((and the department of ecology)) may adopt such proposals if they find the proposals are consistent with the purposes and policies of this chapter.

Sec. 4, Section 5, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall establish by rule which forest practices shall be included within each of the following classes:

Class I: Minimal or specific forest practices that have no direct potential for damaging a public resource that may be conducted without submitting an application((Provided, That no forest practice shall be within Class I if it has a direct potential for damaging a public resource)).

Class II: Forest practices ((for)) which ((the application must be approved or disapproved by the department within fourteen calendar days from the date the department receives the application)) may have a moderate potential for damaging a public resource that may be conducted after notification by the operator to the department in writing in the manner, content, and form as prescribed by the department before commencing operations without submitting an application: PROVIDED, That such classification shall not include forest practices on lands platted after January 1, 1960, or being converted to another use; or include those forest practices which would require approvals under the provisions of RCW 75.20.100.

Class III: Forest practices ((for which the)) other than those contained in Class I, II, or IV. Such application must be approved or disapproved by the department within ((thirty)) fourteen calendar days from the date the department receives the application.

Class IV: Forest practices other than those contained in Class I or II on lands platted after January 1, 1960, or being converted to another use. Such application must be approved or disapproved by the department within thirty calendar days from the date the department receives the application.

(2) No Class II ((for)), Class III, or Class IV forest practice shall be commenced or continued after January 1, 1975 unless the department has received a notification with regard to a Class II forest practice or approved an application containing all information required by RCW 76.09.060 as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That any person commencing a forest practice during 1974 may continue such forest practice until April 1, 1975, if such person has submitted an application to the department prior to January 1, 1975: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That in the event forest practices regulations necessary for the scheduled implementation of this chapter and RCW 90.48.420 have not been adopted in time to meet such schedules, the department shall have the authority to approve applications on such terms and conditions consistent with this chapter and RCW 90.48.420 and the purposes and policies of RCW 76.09.010 as now or hereafter amended until applicable forest practices regulations are in effect.

(3) Forest practices shall be conducted in accordance with the forest practices regulations and orders and directives of the department as authorized by this chapter, the forest practices regulations, and the terms and conditions of any approved applications.

(4) The department of natural resources shall notify the applicant in writing of either its approval of the application or its disapproval of the application and the specific manner in which the application fails to comply with the provisions of this section or with the forest practices regulations. If the department fails to either approve or disapprove an application or any portion thereof within the applicable time limit, then, on petition of the applicant the chairman of the appeals board shall issue an order directing the department to approve or disapprove the application within five days or issue a temporary approval until the application is either finally approved or disapproved: PROVIDED, That the temporary approval shall be issued only if it meets the conditions set by the board for such temporary approvals: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the department shall have until April 1, 1975 to approve or disapprove an application involving forest practices allowed to continue to April 1, 1975 under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section. Upon receipt of any satisfactorily completed application the department shall in any event no later than two business days after such receipt transmit a copy to the departments of ecology, game, and fisheries, and to the county in which the forest practice is to be commenced. Any comments by such agencies shall be directed to the department of natural resources.

(5) If the county believes that an application is inconsistent with this chapter, the forest practices regulations, or any local authority consistent with RCW 76.09.240 as now or hereafter amended, it may so notify the department and the applicant, specifying its objections.

(6) The department shall not approve portions of applications to which a county objects if:

(a) The department receives written notice from the county of such objections within ((seven business days for a Class II or)) fourteen business days for a Class ((IV)) IV application from the time of its transmission to the county, or one day before the department acts on the application, whichever is later; and

(b) The objections relate to lands either:

(i) Platted after January 1, 1960; or
The department shall either disapprove those portions of such application or appeal the county objections to the appeals board. If the objections related to subparagraph (b)(i) and (ii) of this subsection are based on local authority consistent with RCW 76.09.240 as now or hereafter amended, the department shall disapprove the application until such time as the county consents to its approval or such disapproval is reversed on appeal. The applicant shall be a party to all department appeals of county objections. Unless the county either consents or has waived its rights under this subsection, the department shall not approve portions of an application affecting such lands until the minimum time for county objections has expired.

(3) In addition to any rights under the above paragraph, the county may appeal any department approval of an application with respect to any lands within its jurisdiction. The appeals board may suspend the department's approval in whole or in part pending such appeal where there exists potential for immediate and material damage to a public resource.

(4) Appeals under this section shall be made to the appeals board in the manner and time provided in RCW 76.09.220(9) as now or hereafter amended. In such appeals there shall be no presumption of correctness of either the county or the department position.

(5) The department shall, within four business days notify the county of all notifications, approvals and disapprovals of an application affecting lands within the county, except to the extent the county has waived its right to such notice.

(6) A county may waive in whole or in part its rights under this section, and may withdraw or modify any such waiver, at any time by written notice to the department.

Sec. 5, Section 6, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall prescribe the form and contents of the notification and application. The forest practices regulations shall specify by whom and under what conditions the notification and application shall be signed. The application or notification shall be delivered in person or sent by certified mail to the department. The information required may include, but shall not be limited to:

(a) Name and address of the forest land owner, timber owner, and operator;
(b) Description of the proposed forest practice or practices to be conducted;
(c) Legal description of the land on which the forest practices are to be conducted;
(d) Planimetric and topographic maps showing location and size of all lakes and streams and other public waters in and immediately adjacent to the operating area and showing all existing and proposed roads and tractor roads;
(e) Description of the silvicultural, harvesting, or other forest practice methods to be used, including the type of equipment to be used and materials to be applied;
(f) Proposed plan for reforestation and for any revegetation necessary to reduce erosion potential from roadsides and yarding roads, as required by the forest practices regulations;
(g) Soil, geological, and hydrological data with respect to forest practices;
(h) The expected dates of commencement and completion of all forest practices specified in the application;
(i) Provisions for continuing maintenance of roads and other construction or other measures necessary to afford protection to public resources; and
(j) An affirmation that the statements contained in the notification or application are true.

(2) At the option of the applicant, the application or notification may be submitted to cover a single forest practice or any number of forest practices within reasonable geographic or political boundaries as specified by the department. Long range plans may be submitted to the department for review and approval.

(3) The application shall indicate whether any land covered by the application will be converted or is intended to be converted to a use other than commercial timber production within three years after completion of the forest practices described in it. (a) If the application states that any such land will be or is intended to be so converted:

(i) The reforestation requirements of this chapter and of the forest practices regulations shall not apply if the land is in fact so converted unless applicable alternatives or limitations are provided in forest practices regulations issued under RCW 76.09.070 as now or hereafter amended;
(ii) Completion of such forest practice operations shall be deemed conversion of the lands to another use for purposes of chapters 84.28, 84.33 and 84.34 RCW unless the conversion is to a use permitted under a current use tax agreement permitted under chapter 84.34 RCW;
(iii) The forest practices described in the application are subject to applicable county, city and regional governmental authority permitted under RCW 76.09.240 as now or hereafter amended as well as the forest practices regulations.

(b) If the application does not state that any land covered by the application will be or is intended to be so converted:

(i) For six years after the date of the application the county or city and regional governmental entities may deny any or all applications for permits or approvals, including building permits and subdivision approvals, relating to nonforestry uses of land subject to the application;
(ii) Failure to comply with the reforestation requirements contained in any final order or decision shall constitute a removal from classification under the provisions of RCW 84.28.065, a removal of designation under the provisions of RCW 84.33.140, and a change of use under the provisions of RCW 84.34.080, and, if applicable, shall subject such lands to the payments and/or penalties resulting from such removals or changes; and

(iii) Conversion to a use other than commercial timber operations within three years after completion of the forest practices without the consent of the county or municipality shall constitute a violation of each of the county, municipal and regional authorities to which the forest practice operations would have been subject if the application had so stated.

(4) The application shall be either signed by the forest land owner or accompanied by a statement signed by the forest land owner indicating his intent with respect to conversion and acknowledging that he is familiar with the effects of this subsection.

(5) Whenever an approved application authorizes a forest practice which, because of soil condition, proximity to a water course or other unusual factor, has a greater than ordinary potential for causing material damage to a public resource, as determined by the department, the applicant shall notify the department five days before the commencement of actual operations.

(6) Before commencing any forest practice in a manner or to an extent significantly different from that described in a previously approved application or notification, the applicant shall submit to the department a new application or notification in the manner set forth in this section.

(7) The notification to or the approval given by the department to an application to conduct a forest practice shall be effective for a term of one year from the date of approval or notification and shall not be renewed unless a new application is filed and approved or a new notification has been filed.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no prior application shall be required for any emergency forest practice necessitated by fire, flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other emergency as defined by the board, but the operator shall submit an application or notification, whichever is applicable to the department within forty-eight hours after commencement of such practice.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.070 are each amended to read as follows:

After the completion of a logging operation, satisfactory reforestation as defined by the rules and regulations promulgated by the board shall be completed within three years: PROVIDED, That a longer period may be authorized if seed or seedlings are not available: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a period of up to five years may be allowed where a natural regeneration plan is approved by the department. Upon the completion of a reforestation operation a report on such operation shall be filed with the department of natural resources. Within ((six)) twelve months of receipt of such a report the department shall inspect the reforestation operation, and shall determine either that the reforestation operation has been properly completed or that further reforestation and inspection is necessary.

The forest practices regulations may provide alternatives or limitations on the applicability of reforestation requirements with respect to forest lands being converted in whole or in part to another use which is compatible with timber growing.

The forest practices regulations may identify classifications and/or areas of forest land that have the potential for future conversion to urban development on which reforestation requirements may be modified or eliminated: PROVIDED, That in such modifications or limitations on reforestation reasonable land use planning goals and concepts shall be considered.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall have the authority to serve upon an operator a stop work order which shall be a final order of the department if:

(a) There is any violation of the provisions of this chapter or the forest practices regulations; or

(b) There is a deviation from the approved application; or

(c) Immediate action is necessary to prevent continuation of or to avoid material damage to a public resource.

(2) The stop work order shall set forth:

(a) The specific nature, extent, and time of the violation, deviation, damage, or potential damage;

(b) An order to stop all work connected with the violation, deviation, damage, or potential damage;

(c) The specific course of action needed to correct such violation or deviation or to prevent damage and to correct and/or compensate for damage to public resources which has resulted from any violation or unauthorized deviation; and those courses of action necessary to prevent continuing damage to public resources where the damage has not resulted from any violation, unauthorized deviation, or negligence; and

(d) The right of the operator to a hearing before the appeals board.

The department shall immediately file a copy of such order with the appeals board and mail a copy thereof to the timber owner and forest land owner at the addresses shown on the application. The operator, timber owner, or forest land owner may commence an appeal to the appeals board within fifteen days after service upon the operator. If such appeal is commenced, a hearing shall be held not more than twenty days after copies of the notice of appeal were filed with the appeals board. Such proceeding shall be a contested case within the meaning of chapter 34.04 RCW. The operator shall comply with the order of the department immediately upon being served, but the appeals board if requested shall have authority to continue or discontinue in whole or in part the order of the department under such conditions as it may impose pending the outcome of the proceeding.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.090 are each amended to read as follows:
If a violation, a deviation, material damage or potential for material damage to a public resource has occurred and the department determines that a stop work order is unnecessary, then the department shall issue and serve upon the operator a notice, which shall clearly set forth:

1. (a) The specific nature, extent, and time of failure to comply with the approved application; or identifying the damage or potential damage; and/or

(b) The relevant provisions of this chapter or of the forest practice regulations relating thereto;

2. The right of the operator to a hearing before the department pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW; and

3. The specific course of action ordered by the department to be followed by the operator to correct such failure to comply and to prevent, correct and/or compensate for material damage to public resources which resulted from any violations or unauthorized deviations from forest practices and those courses of action necessary to prevent continuing damage to public resources where the damage has not resulted from any violation, unauthorized deviation, or negligence.

The department shall mail a copy thereof to the forest land owner and the timber owner at the addresses shown on the application, showing the date of service upon the operator. Such notice to comply shall become a final order of the department and such operator shall undertake the course of action so ordered by the department unless, within fifteen days after the date of service of such notice to comply, the operator, forest land owner, or timber owner, shall request the department in writing to schedule a hearing. If so requested, the department shall schedule a hearing on a date not more than twenty days after receiving such request. Within ten days after such hearing, the department shall issue a final order either withdrawing its notice to comply or clearly setting forth the specific course of action to be followed by such operator. Such operator shall undertake the course of action so ordered by the department unless within thirty days after the date of such final order, the operator, forest land owner, or timber owner appeals such final order to the appeals board.

Sec. 9. Section 14, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.140 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The department of natural resources, through the attorney general, may take any necessary action to enforce any final order or final decision, or to enjoin any forest practices by any person for a one year period after such person has failed to comply with a final order or a final decision.

2. The right of the operator to a hearing before the department pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW; and

3. The specific course of action ordered by the department to be followed by the operator to correct such failure to comply and to prevent, correct and/or compensate for material damage to public resources which resulted from any violations or unauthorized deviations from forest practices and those courses of action necessary to prevent continuing damage to public resources where the damage has not resulted from any violation, unauthorized deviation, or negligence.

The department shall mail a copy thereof to the forest land owner and the timber owner at the addresses shown on the application, showing the date of service upon the operator. Such notice to comply shall become a final order of the department and such operator shall undertake the course of action so ordered by the department unless, within fifteen days after the date of service of such notice to comply, the operator, forest land owner, or timber owner, shall request the department in writing to schedule a hearing. If so requested, the department shall schedule a hearing on a date not more than twenty days after receiving such request. Within ten days after such hearing, the department shall issue a final order either withdrawing its notice to comply or clearly setting forth the specific course of action to be followed by such operator. Such operator shall undertake the course of action so ordered by the department unless within thirty days after the date of such final order, the operator, forest land owner, or timber owner appeals such final order to the appeals board.

Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. In case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. Every person who through an act of commission or omission procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this section and shall be subject to the penalty herein provided for: PROVIDED, That no civil or criminal penalties shall be imposed under this section upon any governmental official, an employee of any governmental department, agency, or entity, or a member of any board or advisory committee created by this chapter for any act or omission in his duties in the administration of this chapter or of any regulation promulgated thereunder.

The penalty herein provided for shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department (of natural resources, or the department of ecology if water quality protection is involved) describing the violation with reasonable particularity. Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

Representatives Flanagan and Kilbury spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Luders spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Flanagan yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Could you tell us how irrigation districts are formed? Does this require a vote by the property owners or could a large corporation form an irrigation district now or would they have to have an agreement with other landowners?"

Mr. Flanagan: "RCW 87.03.005 says, 'Whenever fifty or a majority of the holders of title to, or of evidence of title to land susceptible of "irrigation" desire to organize an irrigation district for any or all of the purposes mentioned in RCW 87.03.010 and 87.03.015, they may propose the organization of an irrigation district in the manner provided herein; ...' It takes either fifty landowners or a majority greater than fifty, and it also requires, 'For the purpose of organizing an irrigation district, a petition signed by the required number of holders of title, or evidence of title to land within the proposed district, shall be presented to the board of county commissioners...' which I assume means the minimum of fifty landowners."

Mr. Amen: "Then a corporation could not form a new district now as you interpret this?"

Mr. Flanagan: "Not unless there were forty--nine more individual landowners that went along at the same time."

Representatives Amen, Hansen and Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Pardini spoke against it.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute House Bill No. 1011 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Savage spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Savage yielded to question by Mr. Curtis.

Mr. Curtis: "I'm in sympathy basically with this bill, but I have a concern because it looks to me, the way I read it, that these people are locked into that program. In other words, they take with them that tenure even though that contract may be transferred from one community college to another. Those same people that are there now would remain in Shelton teaching this same program regardless of which community college administered it, is that correct?"

Mr. Savage: "That's correct. One of the main reasons that this is essential is that the community colleges have a fear that if they took them in and gave them tenure with that community college that they might bump somebody else on the campus and that's not the intention. So, instead of being tied to Centralia College for tenure, they will be tied to the contract for tenure and the department will have the responsibility of negotiations."

Representatives Maxie and Conner spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Maxie yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Does the tenure which is transferred here apply absolutely or may it be terminated if the program in which one is employed with this tenure is terminated?"
Ms. Maxie: "I believe that was discussed and it was my understanding that the tenure would be continued with the employee and would be up for negotiation. I may not be correct on that and I would defer the remarks on that to Representative Savage."

Mr. Douthwaite: "Can you answer that question better, Representative Savage? I'm concerned about lines 23 through 26. It seems to me that the service contract shall terminate if the contract is terminated; in other words, it seems to me that tenure is conditional with the program as it is elsewhere within higher education."

Mr. Savage: "What the people we were negotiating with plan is that the educational program, which is now in a minimal stage, be broadened, and they will need this type of people one place or another, because there are now correctional educators and they are going to need more. There is no problem of getting rid of some teachers and not being able to use them, because they are only beginning the real education program."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1011, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 34; not voting, 7.

HOUSE BILL NO. 671, Prime Sponsor: Representative Sommers, modifying timber tax revenue distribution dates. Reported by Committee on Ways and Means - Revenue.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section I. Section 7, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.291 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the appropriate rate as follows:

(a) For timber harvested between October 1, 1972 and September 30, 1973 inclusive, the rate shall be one and three-tenths percent;

(b) For timber harvested between October 1, 1973 and September 30, 1974 inclusive, the rate shall be two and nine-tenths percent and between October 1, 1974 and December 31, 1978, inclusive, six and one-half percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Harvester" means every person who from his own privately owned land or from the privately owned land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down on privately owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) "Stumpage value of timber" means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(3) (On or before July 1, 1972 and as necessary thereafter,) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. (Before September 1, 1972 for use during the fourth quarter of 1972 and all of 1973; and before December 1 of each year commencing with 1973, for use during the succeeding year) Each year on or before December 1 for the following January through June 30 and on or before June 30, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. (If, on or before April 1 of any year commencing with 1972, the department shall determine that the stumpage value index as of January 1 of such year is greater or smaller, by ten percent or more, than the stumpage value index as of July 1 of the preceding year it shall, in the same manner prescribed for annual stumpage value determinations, prepare revised tables setting forth such revised values. Such revised tables shall be applicable to timber harvested between July 1 and December 31 of such year, inclusive. The term stumpage value index as of any date shall mean a weighted average price of state and federal timber sales for all species during the twelve months prior to such date, such weighting to be based upon the actual volumes of the several species or subclassifications of timber harvested during the four most recent calendar quarters for which such information is available from tax returns filed by harvesters. Such index and the procedures to be followed in calculating it shall be further defined in regulations to be prepared by the department of revenue and reviewed by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to promulgation by the department.) Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(5) There are hereby created in the state treasury a state timber tax fund A and a state timber tax fund B, separate and apart from the state general fund. The revenues from the tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall be deposited in state timber tax fund A and state timber tax fund B as follows:

(6) In addition to the rates specified in subsection (1) of this section, there shall be imposed upon such persons a surtax at a rate of .5% of the stumpage value of timber as specified in such subsection (1) upon timber harvested between October 1, 1972 and September 30, 1974 inclusive. The revenues from such surtax shall be deposited in a separate fund designated the state timber reserve fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury separate and apart from the state general fund. Such surtax shall be reimposed for one year upon timber harvested in any calendar year following any fourth quarter during which transfers from such reserve fund pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.080 reduce the balance in such fund to less than five hundred thousand dollars, but in no event shall such surtax be imposed in any year after 1980.

(7) The tax imposed under this section shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments and remittance therefor shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrued. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

(9) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter shall be excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due."

The hearing may be continued pending the completion of such examination. The physician, psychologist or psychiatrist conducting such an examination may be required to testify in the dispositional hearing concerning the results of such examination and may be asked to give his opinion as to whether the protection of the child requires that he not be returned to the custody of his parents or other persons having custody of him at the time of the alleged child abuse or neglect. MOTION
On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 231, by Representatives Wojahn, Brown, Bender, King, Erickson, Ehlers, Hawkins and Parker (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):

Mandating certain school districts to divide into director districts and providing for election of directors thereunder.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mrs. Wojahn spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Bond.

Mr. Bond: "It's my understanding that the existing situation, without this bill, allows the school districts to select their own procedure—their own methods; in other words, they could choose to be a director district or they could choose to be at large. Is that correct?"

Mr. Bauer: "There is a provision that would allow a school district to organize into director districts if the county committee so desires and initiates that action. Generally that doesn't happen and so you really don't have anything here that's mandatory at all. We're having those problems in those districts; the county committee is sympathetic with those people who don't want to change their situation and consequently have nothing. This is absolutely necessary to achieve the objectives which are the original intent of the bill."

Mr. Bond: "Under this bill, would this not require that districts be director districts?"

Mr. Bauer: "No, it provides for a petitioning process of ten percent of the people who voted at the last general election to petition to have this take place and then it calls for an election so really you have all the safeguards in the world. Any district that goes into a director district—certainly, the intent is there and there has to be a lot of support for it."

Representatives Brown, Parker and Bauer spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Bond, Polk and Hayner spoke against it.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 231, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 31; not voting, 10.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 720, by Committee on Higher Education (Originally sponsored by Representatives Moreau, Becker, Conner, Maxie, Hansey, Nelson, Berentson and Luders):

Authorizing state colleges to offer degrees which accurately reflect the subject matter of the study programs.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Moreau spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Moreau yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "As I would interpret this bill, it would authorize the three colleges to issue masters degrees in areas where they have not up until now been able to issue those degrees. In fact, up until now the legislature has had to statutorily approve any master's degree that they could award, is that correct?"

Mr. Moreau: "They would not be able to grant new degrees on this new program without first receiving the review and recommendation from the Council on Higher Education and if it were determined that an additional fiscal impact were to come about, then it also requires the approval of the legislature."

Mr. Shinpoch spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry: "Where on the calendar is Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2715?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It's on the calendar at the bottom of second reading of Senate bills."

MOTION

Mr. Eikenberry moved that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2715 be placed on the second reading calendar for immediate consideration.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Charette spoke against it.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charette yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "The question involved in Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2715 is the preliminary budget of school districts, which, according to statute, must be submitted by the 10th of May. Tomorrow being the 10th of May, if this bill is to pass and become effective, obviously it should be today. Can the questions you mentioned be resolved if we consider this bill during this afternoon's session?"

Mr. Charette: "I'm not sure whether they can be resolved this afternoon, but if you want to take a look at your RCW you might read 28A.65.075, which indicates that school districts can adopt a preliminary budget if the legislature has not passed a budget. That was a law that was enacted in 1971. When this statute came to our attention, and a number of other statutes, we thought that we should hold this bill until we get the answers to these questions. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2715 doesn't seem to be amending this portion of the statute and that question should be answered also. I guess what I'm saying is—maybe."

Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the motion.

SPEAKER'S ADMONITION

The Speaker: "Representative Pardini, we are talking about a motion to advance Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2715 and I don't know where it has anything to do with riffing. Let's talk about the bill. I've seen your amendment and it's so far beyond the scope, I don't know what you're wasting our time for."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "It's probably a probable point of parliamentary inquiry, but is it the Speaker's intention to rule any amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2715 that are now sitting on the desk, as beyond the scope and object of the bill?"
