Mr. Nelson (D): Representative Newhouse, the second section, new section 16, talks about relieving victims of sexual assault from the cost of attaining evidence about that assault. I'm wondering if your intention is to eliminate that section, too."

Mr. Newhouse: "Yes, Representative Nelson, that would be my intent. I understand the victim of crime is not presently assessed those charges. In other words, if someone is a victim of a sexual assault and hospital tests are necessary to determine that an assault has been committed, the state or the county presently picks up the tab for the hospital charge; therefore, we felt that this was not really necessary. However, in putting this amendment in a nonconcurrence position with the Senate, this is still available by any negotiation process. That's up to the conference committee."

Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of his breath only: PROVIDED, That if an individual is under arrest for the crime of negligent homicide by motor vehicle as provided in RCW 46.61.520, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.506, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as hereinbefore in this section directed, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving such notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of such hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected shall have the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county wherein he resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

Sec. 60. Section 27, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.311 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, such suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to such person any new or renewal of license until such person shall pay a reinstatement fee of ten dollars and shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked shall not be entitled to have such license or privilege renewed or restored unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, except that after the expiration of six months in cases of revocation for refusal to submit to a chemical test under the provisions of RCW 46.20.308 as now or hereafter amended, and in all other revocation cases after the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department, such person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with an additional fee in the amount of ten dollars, but the department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of such person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until such person shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

Sec. 61. Section 36, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.329 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receiving a request for a formal hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.328, the department shall fix a time and place for hearing as early as may be arranged in the county where the applicant or licensee resides, and shall give ten days' notice of the hearing to the applicant or licensee, except that the hearing may be set for a different place with the concurrence of the applicant or licensee and the period of notice may be waived.

Any decision by the department suspending or revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction of a moving violation or a finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during pendency of hearing and appeal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the department from seeking an order setting aside the stay during the pendency of such appeal in those cases where the action of the department is based upon physical or mental incapacity, or a failure to successfully complete an examination required by this chapter.

A formal hearing shall be conducted by the director or by a referee or hearing board appointed by him from officers or employees of the department. Such referee or hearing board may be authorized by the director to make final determinations regarding the issuance, denial, or suspension, or revocation of a license.

imposed in connection with each such conviction a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) The department upon receiving a record of conviction of any person or upon receiving an order by any juvenile court or any duly authorized court officer of the conviction of any juvenile under this section upon a charge of driving a vehicle while the license of such person is under suspension shall extend the period of such suspension for an additional like period and if the conviction was upon a charge of driving while a license was revoked the department shall not issue a new license for an additional period of one year from and after the date such person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license.

Sec. 63. Section 5, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 40, Laws of 1969
ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.050 are each amended to read as follows:

driving record, which abstract shall include enumeration of any motor vehicle accidents in which such person has been involved. Such abstract shall indicate the total number of vehicles involved; whether the vehicles were legally parked or moving, and; whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident; and reference to any convictions of said person for violation of the motor vehicle laws as reported to the depart-follows:

Whenever, under any law of this state, the license of any person is suspended or revoked by reason of a conviction ((or a)), forfeiture of bail, or finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, the suspension or revocation hereinbefore required shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to such person any new or renewal of license until permitted under the motor vehicle laws of this state, and not then unless and until such person shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future.

   (a) At any time after three years from the date such proof was required when, during the three-year period preceding the request, the department has not received record of a conviction ((or a)), forfeiture of bail, or finding that a traffic infraction has been committed which would require or permit the suspension or revocation of the license of the person by or for whom such proof was furnished; or

   (b) In the event of the death of the person on whose behalf such proof was filed or the permanent incapacity of such person to operate a motor vehicle; or

   (c) In the event the person who has given proof surrenders his license to the department;

2. Provided, however, that the department shall not consent to the cancellation of any bond or the return of any money or securities in the event any action for damages upon a liability covered by such proof is then pending or any judgment upon any such liability is then unsatisfied, or in the event the person who has filed such bond or deposited such money or securities has within one year immediately preceding such request been involved as a driver or owner in any motor vehicle accident resulting in injury or damage to the person or property of others. The state commission on equipment shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth requirements of safe operating condition of tires capable of being employed by a law enforcement officer by visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges. These rules shall include effects of tread wear and depth of tread.

A tire shall be considered unsafe if it has:

5. A legend which indicates the tire is not intended for use on public highways such as, 'not for highway use';
6. Any condition as may be reasonably demonstrated to render it unsafe; or
7. If not matched in tire size designation, construction, and profile to the other tire and/or tires on the same axle.

No person, firm, or corporation shall sell any vehicle for use on the public highways of this state unless the vehicle is equipped with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section. If the tires are found to be in violation of the provisions of this section, the person, firm, or corporation selling the vehicle shall cause such tires to be removed from the vehicle and shall equip the vehicle with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 74. Section 46.44.047, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 11, chapter 64, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.047 are each amended to read as follows:

A three axle truck tractor and a two axle pole trailer combination engaged in the operation of hauling logs may exceed by not more than six thousand eight hundred pounds the legal gross weight of the combination of vehicles when licensed, as permitted by law, for sixty-eight thousand pounds: PROVIDED, That the distance between the first and last axle of the vehicles in combination shall have a total wheelbase of not less than thirty-seven feet, and the weight upon two axles spaced less than seven feet apart shall not exceed thirty-three thousand six hundred pounds.

Such additional allowances shall be permitted by a special permit to be issued by the department of transportation valid only on state primary or secondary highways authorized by the department and under such rules, regulations, terms, and conditions prescribed by the department. The fee for such special permit shall be fifty dollars for a twelve-month period beginning and ending on April 1st of each calendar year. Permits may be issued at any time, but if issued after July 1st of any year the fee shall be thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents. If issued on or after October 1st the fee shall be twenty-five dollars, and if issued on or after January 1st the fee shall be twelve dollars and fifty cents. A copy of such special permit covering the vehicle involved shall be carried in the cab of the vehicle at all times. Upon the third offense a permit shall not be issued to such vehicle. The vehicle covered by such canceled special permit shall not be eligible for a new special permit until thirty days after the cancellation of the special permit issued to said vehicle. The fee for such renewal shall be at the same rate as set forth in this section which covers the issuance of such special permit. Each special permit shall be assigned to a three-axle truck tractor in combination with a two-axle pole trailer. When the department issues a duplicate permit to replace a lost or destroyed permit and where the department transfers a permit, a fee of five dollars shall be charged for each such duplicate issued or each such transfer.

All fees collected hereinabove shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the motor vehicle fund.

Permits involving city streets or county roads or using city streets or county roads to reach or leave state highways, authorized for permit by the department may be issued by the city or county or counties involved. A fee of five dollars for such city or county permit may be assessed by the city or by the legislative authority which shall be deposited in the city or county road fund. The special permit provided for herein shall be known as a 'log tolerance permit' and shall designate the route or routes to be used, which shall first be approved by the city or county engineer involved. Authorization of additional route or routes may be made at the discretion of the city or county by amending the original permit or by issuing a new permit. Said permits shall be issued on a yearly basis expiring on March 31st of each calendar year. Any person, firm, or corporation who uses any city street or county road for the purpose of transporting logs with weights authorized by state highway log tolerance permits, to reach or leave a state highway route, without first obtaining a city or county permit when required by the city or (board of) the county (commissioners) legislative authority shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by RCW 46.44.105. For the purpose of determining gross weight the actual scale weight taken by the officer shall be prima facie evidence of such total gross weight. In the event the gross weight is in excess of the weight permitted by law, the officer may, within his discretion, permit the operator to proceed with his vehicles in combination.

The chief of the state patrol, with the advice of the (state highway commission) department, may make reasonable rules and regulations to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 75. Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (Any person violating) Violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, and 46.44.041, or ((who fails)) failure to obtain a permit as provided by RCW 46.44.090 and 46.44.095, or ((misrepresents)) misrepresentation of the size or weight of any load or ((does not)) failure to follow the requirements and conditions of a permit issued hereunder (((shall be guilty of a misdemeanor))) is a traffic infraction, and upon the first (((conviction))) finding thereof shall be (((fined))) assessed a basic (((fine))) penalty of not less than fifty dollars; and upon second (((conviction))) finding thereof shall be (((fined))) assessed a basic (((fine))) penalty of not less than seventy-five dollars; and upon a third or subsequent (((conviction))) finding shall be (((fined))) assessed a basic (((fine))) penalty of not less than one hundred dollars.

(2) In addition to the (((fines levied))) penalties imposed in subsection (1) of this section any person violating RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 shall be (((fined))) assessed three cents for each pound of excess weight. PROVIDED, That upon a first violation in any calendar year, the court may suspend the (((fine))) penalty for five hundred pounds of excess weight for each axle on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, not to exceed a two thousand pound suspension. In no case shall the basic (((fines levied))) penalty assessed in subsection (1) of this section be suspended.

(3) Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is involved in two violations of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 during any twelve month period, the court may suspend the certificate of license registration of the vehicle or combination of vehicles for not less than thirty days. Upon a third or succeeding violation in any twelve month period, the court shall suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days. (((For purposes of this section, bail forfeiture shall be given the same effect as a conviction.))) Whenever the certificate of license registration is suspended, the court shall secure such certificate and immediately forward the same to the director with information concerning the suspension.

(4) Any person (((convicted of violating))) found to have violated any posted limitations of a highway or section of highway shall be (((fined))) assessed a monetary penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars, and the court shall in addition thereto upon second violation within a twelve month period involving the same power unit, suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days.

(5) Any police officer is authorized to require the driver of any vehicle or combination of vehicles to stop and submit to a weighing either by means of a portable or stationary scale and may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest public scale. Whenever a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load, determines that the weight is unlawful, such officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable location and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to such limit as permitted by law.

Any vehicle whose driver or owner represents that the vehicle is disabled or otherwise unable to proceed to a weighing location shall have its load sealed or otherwise marked by any police officer. The owner or driver shall be directed that upon completion of repairs, the vehicle shall submit to weighing with the load and markings and/or seal intact and undisturbed. Failure to report for weighing, appearing for weighing with the seal broken or the markings disturbed, or removal of any cargo prior to weighing shall be unlawful. Any person so convicted shall be fined five hundred dollars, and in addition the certificate of license registration shall be suspended for not less than thirty days.

(6) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, justice courts having venue shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts for the imposition of any penalties authorized under this section.

Mr. Patterson: "Representative Lux, I'm looking at this small map and I'm trying to interpret what the boundaries are with the proposed annexation. Does it include the present county airport which is referred to as Boeing Field?"

Mr. Lux: "Yes, Representative Patterson, north of the dark line where Boeing Field is spelled out, is in the city. The portion that is in the county that is proposed for annexation is where it says East Marginal Way. That strip there and on the other side of the river there are 110 homes and that dark line is the city limits, that runs right down the middle of Dallas Avenue about 2 to 2 1/2 blocks along the river. That area is in the county and when those folks go for police protection it has to come from a county sheriff's office and not from the city police."

Mr. Patterson: "Then, as I interpret what you're saying, is that the annexation would isolate the old county airport which I know as Boeing Field?"

Mr. Lux: "No, that's in the city now."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke against the motion to concur, and Representatives Martinis and Lux spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Warnke demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wilson yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Would you spell out what the intent is on page 2 of the bill and the language '...improvements to SR 90 from SR 5 to SR 405 (other than safety improvements) are reduced due to legal delays.' I'd like to know what length of time you are referring to?"

Mr. Wilson: "My understanding is that the case will be in court in July and we expect a decision by January or February of next year at the latest on whether the I-90 projects will continue."

Mr. Douthwaite: "So, in effect, we're giving the sixth months to decide the issue and if the delay is longer the funds will flow to the other projects?"

Mr. Wilson: "There is no specific deadline there. It speaks to when the court comes to a conclusion. Perhaps Representative Martinis has something more to add."

Mr. Martinis: "The time would be adjusted according to the determination of the DOT Commission. The initial court action is still pending and the appeals possibility is that any appeals being successful on this project, the DOT, I would imagine, would still withhold these funds or keep these funds for I-90, but when it became apparent to them at any particular time during this biennium then these funds would flow to the Category C projects. It's the statutory authority of the DOT."

Representatives Blair and Wilson spoke in favor of the bill, and Representative North spoke against it.
THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, APRIL 24, 1979

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wilson yielded to question by Mr. Lux.

Mr. Lux: "Representative Wilson, what is the amount proposed in bond funding in this budget?"

Mr. Wilson: "$100 million is proposed provided another bill is passed for the I-90 project. If that particular bill, which may come up this afternoon, is passed by the House, it will release between $8 and $9 million more for Category C. These six projects that were mentioned are the main benefits for us country mice."

Mr. Lux: "So there is only $100 million proposed in bonding in this?"

Mr. Wilson: "That's correct."

Mr. Charnley spoke against passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 871, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 76; nays, 18; not voting, 4.

Not voting: Representatives Greengo, Hughes, Thompson, Valle.

Substitute House Bill No. 871, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1032, by Representatives Wilson and Martinis:

On motion of Mr. Wilson, Substitute House Bill No. 1032 was substituted for House Bill No. 1032, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 1032 was read the second time.

Mr. Eng moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Eng and Lux:

On page 1, line 13 after "funding" insert ", or to pay the state's share of the costs of other state highway projects, including transit related projects, in the Seattle–Everett urbanized area pursuant to applicable federal laws and regulations relating to interstate withdrawal and substitution."

Representatives Eng and Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Wilson, Martinis and Patterson spoke against it.

On page 4, line 12 after "fund" insert: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the money made available under this appropriation used for I-90 amenities such as the Mercer Island and Mt. Baker lidding be reimbursed to the department of transportation by the cities of Mercer Island and Seattle

Mr. Wilson spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wilson yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Wilson, would you make clear to the body exactly what moneys would be involved in this amendment if this were to pass, since we're dealing with both state and federal matching funds?"

Mr. Wilson: "This would be the state match only. The cost of these amenities is roughly $100 million. It would be about $10 million, since there is 90% match from the federal money."

Mr. Charnley: "So your point is that the $10 million would come from Mercer Island or Seattle, proportionately, for these funds?"

Mr. Wilson: "The total cost of 7-1/2 mile extension to the state and federal transportation system, $10 million is just an eyedrop."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wilson yielded to question by Mr. Tupper.

Mr. Tupper: "It's my understanding of the way lids operate that in addition to the initial capital cost there's going to be some operating costs that will be involved on a year-in, year-out basis. Could you explain a little bit about these costs, and who's going to be picking them up?"

Mr. Wilson: "Of course, the lid requires a ventilation system, making a tunnel out of part of the freeway. If they estimated that the operation of these ventilation systems may cost as much as $2 million, that comes right out of the transportation budget."

Representatives Polk, Martinis and Dunlap spoke against the amendment, and Ms. North spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Warnke demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Wilson to Substitute House Bill No. 1032, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Not voting: Representatives Greengo, Maxie.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wilson yielded to question by Mr. Warnke.

Mr. Warnke: "Representative Wilson, can you give me the total amount of money appropriated for Category C?"
Mr. Wilson: "$63 million."

Representatives Dunlap and Isaacson spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Charnley and Lux spoke against it.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like a ruling, since this is a bond issue, on the number of votes required to pass this bill?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "Fifty-nine votes."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1032, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 35; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Greengo, Valle.

Substitute House Bill No. 1032, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

provisions of section 27 of this 1973 amendatory)) section 18 of this 1979 act a lien may be asserted by the secretary upon the real or personal property of the debtor. The claim of the department for a support debt, not paid when due, shall be a lien against all property of the debtor with priority of a secured creditor. This lien shall be separate and apart from, and in addition to, any other lien created by, or provided for, in this title. The lien shall attach to all real and personal property of the debtor on the date of filing of such statement with the county auditor of the county in which such property is located. A lien against earnings shall unless a written release or waiver signed by the secretary has been delivered to said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state or unless a determination has been made in a fair hearing pursuant to RCW ((74.20A.050) 74.20A.055 or by a superior court ordering release of said support lien on the basis that no debt exists or that the debt has been satisfied.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.080 are each amended to read as follows:

After service of a notice of debt as provided for in RCW 74.20A.040 stating a support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount required to be paid under any superior court order or (((whenever a support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060) twenty-one days after service of the notice and finding of financial responsibility or as otherwise appropriate under RCW 74.20A.055, or as appropriate under section 18 of this 1979 act the secretary is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state, an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind including, but not restricted to, earnings which are due, owing, or belonging to the debtor, when the secretary has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state property which is due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. The order to withhold and deliver (((which shall also be served upon the debtor))) shall state the amount of the support debt accrued, and shall state in summary the terms of RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100. The order to withhold and deliver shall be served in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state whom service has been made is hereby required to answer said order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of therein. The secretary may require further and additional answers to be completed by the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state. In the event there is in the possession of any such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state any property which may be subject to the claim of the department of social and health services, such property shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver and shall, after the twenty day period, upon demand, be delivered forthwith to the secretary. The secretary shall hold said property in trust for application on the indebtedness involved or for return, without interest, in accordance with final determination of liability or nonliability. In the alternative, there may be furnished to the secretary a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the secretary, conditioned upon final determination of liability. Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, express or implied, or is held by any person, firm, corporation, or association, political subdivision or department of the state subject to withdrawal by the debtor, such money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the secretary. Delivery to the secretary of the money or other property held or claimed shall satisfy the requirement of the order to withhold and deliver. Delivery to the secretary shall serve as full acquittance and the state warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons delivering money or property to the secretary pursuant to this chapter. The state also warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons withholding money or property pursuant to this chapter. The foregoing is subject to the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090 (and 74.20A.130).

The secretary shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the debtor at the debtor’s last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver shall be served on the debtor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with a concise explanation of the right to petition for a hearing. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but, if the copy is not mailed or served as in this section provided, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion on motion of the debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the debtor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver and award to the debtor an amount equal to the damages result-ning from the secretary’s failure to serve on or mail to the debtor the copy.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state has in its possession earnings, deposits, accounts, or balances in excess of the amount of the debt claimed by the department ((plus one hundred dollars)), such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state may, without liability under this chapter, release said excess to the debtor.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.160 are each amended to read as follows:

With respect to any arrearages on a support debt assessed under RCW 74.20A.040, 74.20A.055, or section 18 of this 1979 act, the secretary may at any time consistent with the income, earning capacity and resources of the debtor, set or reset a level and schedule of payments to be paid upon the debt. The secretary may, upon petition of the debtor providing sufficient evidence of hardship, after consideration of the standards established in RCW 74.20.270, release or refund moneys taken pursuant to RCW 74.20A.080 to provide for the reasonable necessities of the responsible parent or parents and minor children in the home of the responsible parent. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the secretary to take any action which would require collection of less than the obligation for current support required under a superior court order or an administrative order or to take any action which would result in a bar of collection of arrearages from the debtor by reason of the statute of limitations.

Sec. 9. Section 20, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 18, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person against whose property a support lien has been filed or an order to withhold and deliver has been served pursuant to this chapter may apply for relief to the superior court of the county wherein the property is located on the basis that no support debt is due and owing((. PROVIDED. That jurisdictional and constitutional issues, if any, shall be subject to review, but that administrative remedies be exhausted prior to judicial review.

Sec. 10. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other ((regular)) intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term ‘earnings’ means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments ((by any department or division of the state based upon inability to work or obtain employment)) made under Title 50 or 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term ‘disposable earnings’ means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount ((be)) required by law, to be withheld.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 41, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

74.20A.130)) 74.20A.260, prior to the issuance and delivery of the check or warrant therefor, be capable of being assigned, charged, or ever be taken in execution or attached or garnished, nor shall the same pass, or be paid, to any other person by operation of law, or by any form of voluntary assignment, or power of attorney. Any such assignment or charge shall be void: PROVIDED. That if any worker suffers a permanent partial injury, and dies from some other cause than the accident which produced such injury before he or she shall have received payment of his or her award for such permanent partial injury, or if any worker suffers any other injury before he or she shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering any period of time prior to his or her death, the amount of such permanent partial award, or of such monthly payment or both, shall be paid to the surviving spouse, or to the child or children if there is no surviving spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, if any worker suffers an injury and dies therefrom before he or she shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering time loss for any period of time prior to his or her death, the amount of such monthly payment shall be paid to the surviving spouse, or to the child or children if there is no surviving spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, any application for compensation under the foregoing provision of this section shall be filed with the department or self-insuring employer within one year of the date of death: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the injured worker resided in the United States as long as three years prior to the date of injury, such payment shall not be made to any surviving spouse or child who was at the time of the injury a nonresident of the United States: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any worker receiving benefits under this title who is subsequently confined in, or who subsequently becomes eligible therefor while confined in any institution under conviction and sentence shall have all payments of such compensation canceled during the period of confinement but after discharge from the institution payment of benefits thereafter due shall be paid if such worker would, but for the provisions of this proviso, otherwise be entitled thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any prisoner is injured in the course of his or her employment while participating in a work or training release program authorized by chapter 72.65 RCW and is subject to the provisions of this title, he or she shall be entitled to payments under this title subject to the requirements of chapter 72.65 RCW unless his or her participation in such program has been canceled, or unless he or she is returned to a state correctional institution, as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3), as a result of revocation of parole or new sentence: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such incarcerated worker has during such confinement period, any beneficiaries, they shall be paid directly the monthly benefits which would have been paid to him or her for himself or herself and his or her beneficiaries had he or she not been so confined. Any lump sum benefits to which the worker would otherwise be entitled but for the provisions of these provisos shall be paid on a monthly basis to his or her beneficiaries.

The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within 60 days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice is not served within 60 days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the 60 days period and before the date of notification: PROVIDED, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire 60 day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the ((secretary or his designee)) department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing((or any direct appeal to the courts from that decision)). If no timely written request for a hearing has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for a hearing as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely request for hearing. The filing of the petition for a hearing after the twenty--day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of a request for a hearing shall have the effect of staying any future collection action, pending the final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee on the hearing. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the request for a hearing shall be held in trust by the secretary or the secretary's designee pending the final order of the secretary or during the pendency of any appeal to the courts made under chapter 34.04 RCW. The department may petition the hearing examiner to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the petition for an untimely hearing is granted. The hearing examiner shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the scale of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the hearing examiner, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the hearing or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the hearing or appeal shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise appropriate when received by the department. If the final decision of the department, or of the courts on appeal, is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.

(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent.
Any such hearing shall be a 'contested case' as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and the amount to be paid thereon each month) periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the (amount of the monthly public assistance payment previously paid, or)) need alleged ((and the ability of the responsible parent to pay all, or any portion of the amount to be paid and/or being paid and/or to be paid)). The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom (assistance is being paid or)) need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is (found) alleged.

(4) The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future (determined; and the amount to be paid thereon).
The notice and finding shall (also) include a statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to request a hearing ((that)), the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

(5) If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing, including a hearing on prospective modification, shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose.

After evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by the hearing examiner, the hearing examiner shall enter an initial decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The hearing examiner shall file the original of the initial decision and order, signed by the hearing examiner, with the secretary or the sec-

(6) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or
(7) That substantial justice has not been done;
(8) Fraud or misstatement of facts by any witness, which materially affects the debt;
(9) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or
(10) That the decision and order entered because the responsible parent failed to appear at the hearing should be vacated and the matter be remanded for a hearing upon showing of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

In the event no petition for review is made as provided in this subsection by any party, the initial decision and order of the hearing examiner is final as of the date of filing and becomes the decision and order of the secretary. No appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts and the debt created is subject to collection action as authorized by this chapter.

After the receipt of a petition for review, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall consider the initial decision and order, the petition or petitions for review, the record or any part thereof, and such additional evidence and argument as the secretary or the secretary's designee may in his or her discretion allow.
The secretary or the secretary's designee may remand the proceedings to the hearing examiner for additional
The hearing examiner in his or her initial decision, or the secretary or the secretary's designee in review of the initial decision, shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent (RCW 74.20A.030) and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made (to satisfy past, present or future liability under RCW 74.20A.030 and/or 26.16.205) in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. In making these determinations, the hearing examiner, and the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall include in his or her considerations (1) the necessities and requirements of the child or children, exclusive of any income of the custodian of said child or children, (2) the amount of support debt claimed, (3) the public policy and intent of the legislature to require that children be maintained from the resources of responsible parents thereby relieving to the greatest extent possible the burden borne by the general citizenry through welfare programs, and (4) the abilities and resources of the responsible parent:

(a) All earnings and income resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;
(b) The earnings potential of the responsible parent;
(c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent;
(d) The ability of the responsible parent to borrow;
(e) The needs of the child for whom the support is sought;
(f) The amount of assistance which would be paid to the child under the full standard of need of the state's public assistance plan;
(g) The existence of other dependents; and
(h) That the child, for whom support is sought, benefits from the income and resources of the responsible parent on an equitable basis in comparison with any other minor children of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the hearing examiner shall enter an initial decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within (fifteen) thirty days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the (department) secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing examiner shall, within twenty days of the hearing, enter findings, conclusions and a final decision (determining liability and responsibility and/or future periodic support payments. The determination of the hearing examiner) entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt (RCW 74.20A.030) to the amounts stated in said decision: PROVIDED, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances. The decision and order for prospective modification entered by the hearing examiner shall be an initial decision subject to review by the secretary or the secretary's designee as provided for in this section.

The hearing examiner, in making (determinations based on objections to original determinations or on petitions to modify) the initial decision and the secretary or the secretary's designee in the final decision determining liability and/or future periodic support payments, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the hearing examiner, or the secretary or secretary's designee.

'Need' as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the schedule of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270, based on the earnings, resources, and property of the alleged responsible parent, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: PROVIDED, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance.

Sec. 13. Section 16, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.101 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever, as a result of any action, support money is paid by the person or persons responsible for support, such payment shall be through the support enforcement and collections unit of the state department of social and health services upon written notice by the department to the responsible person or to the clerk of the court, if appropriate, that the children for whom a support obligation exists are receiving public assistance or that the support debt has been assigned to the department.

After service on a responsible parent of a notice under this section or RCW 74.20A.040 or 74.20A.055, payment of moneys or in-kind provisions for the support of the responsible parent's children which are not paid to the department shall not be credited against or set-off against any obligation to provide support which has been assigned to the department, whether the obligation has been determined by court order, or pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, or is unliquidated.

Sec. 14. Section 74.09.180, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 306, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to recipients whose personal injuries are occasioned by negligence or wrong of another: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the secretary of the department of social and health services may, in his discretion, furnish assistance, under the provisions of this chapter, for the results of injuries to or illness of a recipient, and the department of social and health services shall thereby be subrogated to the recipient's right of recovery therefor to the extent of the value of the assistance furnished by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That to the end of securing reimbursement of any assistance furnished to such a recipient, the department of social and health services may, as a nonexclusive legal remedy, assert and enforce a lien upon any claim, right of action, and/or money, including any claim for benefits arising from an insurance program, to which such recipient is entitled (a) against any tort feasor and/or insurer of such tort feasor, or (b) any contract of insurance, purchased by the recipient or any other person, providing coverage to such recipient for said injuries, any illness, dental costs, costs incident to birth, or any other coverage for purposes of or costs for which the department provides assistance or meets all or part of the cost of care to a vendor, to the extent of the assistance furnished by said department to the recipient. If a recovery shall be made and the subrogation or lien is satisfied either in full or in part as a result of an independent action initiated by or on behalf of a recipient to recover the personal injuries against any tort feasor or insurer, then in that event the amount repaid to the state of Washington as a result of said action, whether concluded by entry of a judgment or compromise and settlement, shall bear its proportionate share of attorney's fees and costs incurred by the injured recipient or his widow, children, or dependents, as the case may be, to the extent that such attorney's fees and costs are approved by the court in which the action is initiated, and upon notice to the department which shall have the right to be heard on the matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW 26.26.090 requiring appointment of a general guardian or guardian ad litem to represent the child in an action brought to determine the parent and child relationship do not apply to actions brought under chapter 26.26 RCW if:

(1) The action is brought by the attorney general on behalf of the department of social and health services, the child, or the natural mother; or

(2) The action is brought by any prosecuting attorney on behalf of the state, the child, or the natural mother when referral has been made to the prosecuting attorney by the department of social and health services requesting such action.

The court, on its own motion or on motion of a party, may appoint a guardian ad litem when necessary.

Sec. 16. Section 22, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 20, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any support debt due the department from a responsible parent which the secretary deems uncollectible may be transferred from accounts receivable to a suspense account and cease to be accounted as an asset:
PROVIDED, That at any time after six years from the date a support debt was incurred, the secretary may charge off as uncollectible any support debt upon which the secretary finds there is no available, practical, or lawful means by which said debt may be collected:(Provided further, that no proceedings or action under the provisions of this chapter may be begun after expiration of said six year period to institute collection of a support debt. Nothing herein shall be construed to render invalid or nonactionable a support lien filed prior to the expiration of said six year period or an assignment of earnings or order to withhold and deliver executed prior to the expiration of said six year period). The department may accept offers of compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge-off of support arrears owed to the department up to the total amount of public assistance paid to or for the benefit of the persons for whom the support obligation was incurred. The department shall adopt rules as to the considerations to be made in the granting or denial of partial or total charge-off and offers of compromise of disputed claims of debt for support arrears.

The responsible parent owing a support debt may execute a written extension or waiver of any statute, including but not limited to RCW 4.56.210, which may bar or impair the collection of the debt and the extension or waiver shall be effective according to its terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Whenever a custodian of children, or other person, receives support moneys paid to them which moneys are paid in whole or in part in satisfaction of a support obligation which has been assigned to the department pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(A)(26)(a) or section 22 of this act or to which the department is owed a debt pursuant to RCW 74.20A.030, the moneys shall be remitted to the department within eight days of receipt by the custodian or other person. If not so remitted the custodian or other person shall be indebted to the department as a support debt in an amount equal to the amount of the support money received and not remitted.

By not paying over the moneys to the department, a custodial parent or other person is deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have made an irrevocable assignment to the department of any support delinquency owed which is not already assigned to the department or to any support delinquency which may accrue in the future in an amount equal to the amount of support money retained. The department may utilize the collection procedures in chapter 74.20A RCW to collect the assigned delinquency to effect recoupment and satisfaction of the debt incurred by reason of the failure of the custodial parent or other person to remit. The department is also authorized to make a set-off to effect satisfaction of the debt by deduction from support moneys in its possession or in the possession of any clerk of the court or other forwarding agent which are paid to the custodial parent or other person for the satisfaction of any support delinquency. Nothing in this section authorizes the department to make set-off as to current support paid during the month for which the payment is due and owing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

The secretary may issue a notice of support debt to any person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision of the state of Washington or any officer or agent thereof who is in possession of support moneys, or who has had support moneys in his or her possession at some time in the past, which support moneys were or are claimed by the department as the property of the department by assignment, subrogation, or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW, if the support moneys have not been remitted to the department as required by law.

The notice shall describe the claim of the department, stating the legal basis for the claim and shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof upon whom service is made to identify the support moneys in issue. The notice may also make inquiry as to relevant facts necessary to the resolution of the issue.

The notice may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in the manner of a summons in a civil action. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The notice shall also either acknowledge the department's right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department's claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.
If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20.040, 74.20A.250, or sections 17 or 22 of this act. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect monies determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent’s minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to section 17 of this act and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt of support moneys paid in satisfaction of the debt assigned under section 22 of this act which have been assigned to the department but were received by a recipient or ex-recipient from another responsible parent and not remitted to the department. The department may not take collection action during such period of time as the public assistance recipient remains in that status. Payments not credited against the department’s debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In order to facilitate and ensure compliance with Title IV-D of the federal social security act, now hereafter amended, wherein the state is required to undertake to establish paternity of such children as are born out of wedlock, the secretary of social and health services may pay the reasonable and proper fees of attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state, who are engaged in private practice for the purpose of maintaining actions under chapter 26.26 RCW on behalf of such children, to the end that parent and child relationships be determined and financial support obligations be established by superior court order. The secretary or the secretary’s designee shall make the determination in each case as to which cases shall be referred for representation by such private attorneys. The secretary may advance, pay, or reimburse for payment of, such reasonable costs as may be attendant to an action under chapter 26.26 RCW. The representation by a private attorney shall be on behalf of the subject child, the custodial natural parent, and the child’s personal representative or guardian ad litem, and shall not in any manner be, or be construed to be, in representation of the department of social and health services or the state of Washington, such representation being restricted to that provided pursuant to chapters 43.10 and 36.27 RCW.

Sec. 20. Section 25, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 23, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

By accepting public assistance ((for or on behalf of a child or children, the recipient shall be deemed to have made assignment to the department of any and all right, title, and interest in any support obligation owed to or for said child or children up to the amount of public assistance money paid for or on behalf of said child or children for such term of time as such public assistance moneys are paid)) the recipient ((shall also be)) is deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have appointed the secretary as his or her true and lawful attorney in fact to act in his or her name, place, and stead to perform the specific act of endorsing any and all drafts, checks, money orders or other negotiable instruments representing support payments which are received on behalf of said child or children as reimbursement for the public assistance moneys previously paid to said recipient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever any person requests an administrative hearing under RCW 74.20A.055 or section 18 of this act, after the department has notified the person of the requirements of this section, it shall be the responsibility of the person to notify the department of the person’s mailing address at the time the request for hearing is made and also to notify the department of any subsequent change of mailing address during the pendency of the action and any appeal made therefrom to the courts. Whenever the person has a duty under this section to advise the department of the person’s mailing address, mailing by the department by certified mail to the person’s last known address constitutes service as required by chapters 74.20A and 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Whenever public assistance is paid under this title, each applicant or recipient is deemed to have made assignment to the department of any rights to support from any other person the applicant or recipient may have in his or her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the applicant or recipient is applying for or receiving public assistance, including any rights which have accrued at the time the assignment is made. Payment of public assistance under this chapter operates as an assignment by operation of law.

(2) The department may, during the four months following the last month in which public assistance was paid, and thereafter if a nonassistance application for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040, pay the family, from collections made on the delinquent support assigned, an amount equal to the monthly amount required by either the superior court order for support or the administrative order entered under RCW 74.20A.055. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the department to make such payments for months in which no collections have been made on the delinquent support assigned, nor is the department permitted to make payments for the support of one person from collections on the delinquent support assigned by a different person. The department has, upon making any such payment, by operation of law an additional assignment of the unpaid obligation owed for the month in which the payment is made. The department shall take action to collect the unpaid obligation to reimburse itself and/or the federal government for the payment made.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

While discharging its responsibilities to enforce the support obligations of responsible parents, the department shall respect the right of privacy of recipients of public assistance and of other persons. Any inquiry about sexual activity shall be limited to that necessary to resolve a genuine dispute about the parentage of a child. When a custodial mother has informed the department that a particular man is the father of her child, the department shall make no further inquiry into her personal life unless the man so identified has denied that he is the father of such child.

Sec. 24. Section 2, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 364, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the responsibility of the state of Washington through the state department of social and health services to conserve the expenditure of public assistance funds, whenever possible, in order that such funds shall not be expended if there are private funds available or which can be made available by judicial process or otherwise to partially or completely meet the financial needs of the children of this state. The failure of parents to provide adequate financial support and care for their children is a major cause of financial dependency and a contributing cause of social delinquency.

The purpose of this chapter is to provide the state of Washington, through the department of social and health services, a more effective and efficient way to effect the support of dependent children by the person or persons who, under the law, are primarily responsible for such support and to lighten the heavy burden of the taxpayer, who in many instances is paying toward the support of dependent children while those persons primarily responsible are avoiding their obligations. It is the intention of the legislature that the powers delegated to the said department in this chapter be liberally construed to the end that persons legally responsible for the care and support of children within the state be required to assume their legal obligations in order to reduce the financial cost to the state of Washington in providing public assistance funds for the care of children. It is the intention of the legislature that the department provide sufficient staff to carry out the purposes of this chapter, chapter 74.20A RCW, the abandonment and nonsupport statutes, and any applicable federal support enforcement statute administered by the department. It is also the intent of the legislature that the staff responsible for support enforcement be encouraged to conduct their support enforcement duties with fairness, courtesy, and the highest professional standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall develop workload standards for each employee classification involved in support enforcement activities for each category of support enforcement cases. The department shall submit the workload standards and a preliminary forecast of the level of staffing required to meet the workload standards to the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives revenue and appropriations committees six months before the regular legislative sessions and whenever this information is requested by the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives revenue and appropriations committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

1. Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 6, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.050; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. King, having voted on the prevailing side, moved the House reconsider the vote by which the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 335.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson: "Representative King, the inclusion of two or three school districts in one or the other of this split doesn't really affect where the students choose to go, is that correct? Give me an example of a school that would be in the Edmonds district."

Mr. King: "Snohomish would be an example."

Mr. Patterson: "Students from Snohomish High School that wanted to go to Everett certainly would have that choice, is that right?"

Mr. King: "Yes, that is correct now and I'm sure that would continue because of the natural transportation corridor. The impact of the service area is in terms of which college administers the program or which college can recruit students. In Snohomish school district, adjacent to Everett, students would have to drive right through Everett in order to go to Edmonds. It would now not be legal under existing law, if this were adopted this way, for Everett Junior College to recruit to send those students a list of their courses offered. It would be legal for Edmonds. The ratio there is even more dramatic than the overall district, so looked at this way, I think we should turn down the Senate amendments."

Representatives Patterson and Nelson (G.A.) spoke against the motion to reconsider, and Representatives Wilson, Martinis, Charnley and Teutsch spoke in favor of it.

On page 2, line 34 after "less than" insert "sixty percent of"

On motion of Mr. Struthers, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to page 3, line 1.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

April 24, 1979

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate insists on its position on the amendment to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 262 on page 2, line 16, and once again asks the House to concur in the Senate amendment, and said bill, together with the Senate amendment thereto, is herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Whiteside, the House adhered to its position with regard to the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 262.
SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 894, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Kreidler, Zimmerman, Valle, Nelson (D), Burns and Lux - by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Regulating sources and uses of radiation.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Isaacson, the following amendment by Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 17 strike all of section I. and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 20 after "commission," insert "United States department of energy"

Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I need some more information on what the intent of this amendment is.

Mr. Isaacson: "The intent, as I've said, is to show that there are two U.S. agencies, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and the U.S. Department of Energy, that will form as a consequence of ending the Atomic Energy Commission itself. It's nothing more than that, except to show that it is covered and should be covered under the definition of 'person' in this section."

Mr. Douthwaite: "Is the state still able to conduct the investigations of these programs?"

Mr. Isaacson: "That is not the intent. Again, we discussed this with Terry Strong of the Department of Social and Health Services, and of course, he is responsible for the conduct of these operations in DSHS."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Isaacson, when we add this language we're saying, as I understand it, that in addition to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the U.S. Department of Energy would not be considered a person to be regulated by the State Department of Social and Health Services in its use of ionizing radiation sources. Is that correct?"

Mr. Isaacson: "I believe you've struck a chord there. As you know, the United States has sovereignty over the states and states should not impose their will on the federal government. It's a matter of constitutional provision."

Mr. Nelson (D): "So, in effect, you're saying that the state of Washington has now no jurisdiction, no authority, over sources of ionizing radiation that are in the hands of the federal government, whether it's the Nuclear Regulatory Commission or the U.S. Department of Energy?"

Mr. Isaacson: "No, I'm not saying that. The Constitution says that the federal government shall maintain sovereignty over the individual states."

Mr. Nelson (D) spoke against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Isaacson spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Nelson (D) spoke again in opposition to it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Bond.

Mr. Bond: "Are you telling us, Representative Isaacson, that currently this is technically incorrect and would therefore be bad legislation if we do not adopt this amendment?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Bond, that's a very good simile and well–expressed."

Representatives Bond and Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite again spoke against it.
ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Isaacson to page 3, line 20 of Substitute House Bill No. 894, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 68; nays, 22; not voting, 8.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Bender, Blair, Greengo, Keller, Owen, Rohrbach, Vrooman.

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler:

On page 4, line 9 after “possessing” strike “a source of ionizing radiation” and insert “((a source of ionizing radiation)) an ionizing radiation producing device, such as an x-ray machine.”

Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

Speaker Bagnariol assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Speaker Berentson: “Mr. Speaker, can you inform this body as to the number of bills that have passed to date by both bodies?”

Speaker Bagnariol: “As of April 25th, 372 House bills passed the House and 307 Senate bills have passed the Senate. 210 House bills passed both houses, 13 more than the previous report, and 148 Senate bills passed both houses, and that number has not changed since the last report.”

Speaker Berentson: “Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I might suggest we inform the Senate of the most recent action regarding passage of these bills.”

Speaker Bagnariol: "Perhaps Representatives Polk and King will again inform them."

Speaker Bagnariol called on Mr. O’Brien to preside.

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler:

On page 5, beginning on line 9 after “materials,” strike all material down to and including “artificially” on line 11 and insert “accelerator produced and other naturally occurring radioactive materials which have been removed from their natural environment;”

Representatives Isaacson and Haley spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Nelson (D) and Valle spoke against it.

Mr. Isaacson spoke again in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite spoke against it.

Mr. Patterson demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler:

On page 6, beginning on line 7 after “evaluate” strike all material down to and including “state,” on line 8 and insert “the public health hazards associated with ionizing radiation.”

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Bond demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Nelson (D) spoke against the amendment.
POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Isaacson: "I believe he's impugning the motives of two representatives who have agreed to study the issue and provide the amendments that would make this bill what it is meant to be."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I don't believe he's impugning your motives. Legislators do have some latitude in discussing issues and I don't believe, in this instance, your motives have been impugned."

Mr. Nelson (D) continued his remarks in opposition to the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite also spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Whiteside.

Mr. Whiteside: "Representative Isaacson, is it true that the Department of Social and Health Services has worked with you on these amendments and feels assured that this is not going to limit its ability to deal with these radiations?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Yes."

Representatives Whiteside and Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. May.

Mr. May: "I talked to the Department of Labor and Industries about this when the bill was presented to our committee, and they informed me they took care of anything with a high radiation value to it and DSHS took care of small appliances. So now are we asking DSHS to take every phase of radiation?"

Mr. Isaacson: "I can't answer that in its entirety. All I can address is the question of the powers DSHS need in order to provide emergency monitoring in the state of Washington should an emergency arise. This legislation will give them the authority to set up these programs to provide protection to the people of the state."

Mr. May: "But the Department of Labor and Industries has said it wants to retain what it has and it would like an overlapping with DSHS because it is getting along very fine now. Where one leaves off, the other starts, and they'd like to not change this pattern. Would this change that?"

Mr. Isaacson: "That should not affect that. This really gives better emergency preparedness capability and the Department of Labor and Industries would monitor and work locations as they have been doing in the past and that would not change."

Representatives Warnke and Douthwaite spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Isaacson spoke again in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Isaacson and Kreidler to page 6, line 7 of Substitute House Bill No. 894, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 41; not voting, 4.

Not voting: Representatives Deccio, Dunlap, Greengo, Maxie.

On motion of Mr. Salatino, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1147 was placed on final passage.

Representatives Walk, Haley and Newhouse spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Haley yielded to question by Mr. Walk.

Mr. Walk: "Representative Haley, just to clarify something. In your comments were you meaning to prejudge the individuals currently under trial in San Francisco?"

Mr. Haley: "I certainly was not. I didn't mean to prejudge anybody there. I hope they are all found to be innocent."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1147, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

  A county legislative authority may adopt an ordinance creating an emergency medical service district in all or a portion of the unincorporated area of the county. The ordinance may only be adopted after a public hearing has been held on the creation of such a district and the county legislative authority makes a finding that it is in the public interest to create the district. The members of the county legislative authority shall be the governing body of the emergency medical service district.

  An emergency medical service district shall be a quasi-municipal corporation and an independent taxing 'authority' within the meaning of Article VII, section 1, Washington State Constitution. Emergency medical service districts shall also be 'taxing authorities' within the meaning of Article VII, section 2, Washington State Constitution.

  An emergency medical service district shall have the authority to provide emergency medical services.

Representatives Schmitten, Sommers and Charnley spoke in favor of the amendments, and they were adopted.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Sommers, Nelson (G.A.) and Craswell:

- On page 1, line 13 strike "(a)" and beginning on line 30 strike all material down to and including "exceeded." on page 2, line 5.

Ms. Sommers spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Sommers, I appreciate this may not be directly involved with this amendment, and yet it is when you talk about the 1 percent limitation. How does this bill with your amendment here, get around the constitutional provision in Article VII, section 2, that says such levy should not be submitted more than twelve months prior to the date the proposed levy is to be made? If you're going to make a six-year levy, obviously five years of those are going to be beyond that twelve-month requirement."

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Newhouse, I believe the article you are reading applies to special levies. This is a regular levy."

Mr. Newhouse: "I would believe not. It must be voted, doesn't it?"

Ms. Sommers: "Yes, but this is a new animal that we've created here and it's within the definition of regular levies that do require a vote."

Mr. Flanagan spoke against the amendment.

On motion of Mr. Schmitten, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "government;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 36.32 RCW;"

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Please change my vote on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1239 from "nay" to "yea."

WALT SPRAGUE, 21st District.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. King, the House recessed until 2:00 p.m.
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, APRIL 26, 1979

AFTERNOON

The House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Speaker Bagnariol. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Granlund, who was excused.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 22, by Representatives O'Brien, Zimmerman, Garrett, Nelson (G.A.), Sommers, Bauer, Galloway, Teutsch, Heck and Taller:

Providing the means to pay the indebtedness on public development projects.

The resolution was read the second time.

Committee on Revenue recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 21st Day ex. sess., April 10, 1979.)

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the first committee amendment to page 1, line 12.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "I understand this is a reference to project boundaries, but are the boundaries a project defined in this act?"

Ms. Sommers: "There is no definition of project boundary in the act."

The committee amendment was adopted, and on motion of Ms. Sommers, the second committee amendment was also adopted.

Mr. Flanagan moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 14 after "project." insert "A taxing district shall not pledge funds from any state or local tax source other than the taxes derived from the previously mentioned increase in true and fair value for repayment of public indebtedness incurred for the project."

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Zimmerman and O'Brien spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. O'Brien yielded to question by Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson: "If this is enacted would it, in any way, impact the general fund of the state of Washington under the current tax laws as they now exist?"

Mr. O'Brien: "No, because it freezes the revenue now and gives them project areas. They have the increased revenue that would be derived from the increased valuation of the properties that are increased by the redevelopment projects. The tax revenue itself at the present time would not suffer. We know that if this type of amendment is approved by the people, you have another implementation statute that would be adopted, but the intention, at the present time, is not to see the state's revenues suffer at any time, in any way, shape or form."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Flanagan yielded to question by Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson: "Do you see this in the same way that Representative O'Brien does?"

Mr. Flanagan: "No, I do not, because the way this is worded it includes all taxing districts, including the state, which, therefore, means the property taxes collected by the state, and, as you know, that goes for the public schools and that revenue would be frozen right along with the rest of the taxing districts. Any increase coming from that would be diverted to these projects. As you will note, if you read the amendment, there's no area defined in this amendment. It could be a city; it could be a county; it could be two counties or the whole west side of the state of Washington, so when you're impacting this state-collected property tax, it's obviously affecting the state revenue."

Mr. O'Brien: "Well, Representative Patterson, of course, if you didn't have a redevelopment project you wouldn't have any additional income to worry about and so you remain status quo. If you remain status quo, you wouldn't have any revenue. All we're talking about is a given project area and to talk about the whole state of Washington is absolutely ridiculous. It takes a given city, like Spokane, Tacoma, Everett or Vancouver. It would set up a given project area and then this area would have to be financially sound before bond counsel would ever get involved with issuing bonds. Then you have the state counsel people, the local government officials involved with this, and so it would be tight restricted area that would have to show that increased revenue would be able to fund the projects. Getting back to the original thought here, if you don’t have the project to do, you’re not going to have the increased revenue anyway. If you do permit the cities to have something like this, the cities will be able to pay off their cost of the improvements. That’s all this is about.”

Mr. Patterson: “What you’re suggesting is that it would have to be some kind of an implementing bill that will be, specifically, to the point. If this were passed by the people, and I’m wondering, is there an implementing bill under consideration at the present time?”

Mr. O’Brien: “At the present time the implementing bill hasn’t been put together, but I can assure you that states like Minnesota and Oregon, that have operated on this type of a vehicle as a financial tool for many years, have consulted with us and people involved throughout the state as well. So as far as putting it together, that would be after the people approve this constitutional amendment. I’m sure the Legislature, in its wisdom, will be able to take care of all the things you are talking about.”

Representatives Bauer, Charnley, Galloway and Smith (R) spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Addison and Craswell spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Flanagan yielded to question by Mr. Addison.

Mr. Addison: “Representative Flanagan, is there anything in your amendment that would preclude the use of federal funds?”

Mr. Flanagan: “No, I specifically restricted this amendment to the state and local general revenue. It would not prevent the use of federal funds.”

Representatives Zimmerman and Barnes spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. O’Brien yielded to question by Mr. McGinnis.

Mr. McGinnis: “Representative O’Brien, I was reading it here and the bill states, ‘that the real property tax levied against any increase in your amendment which may be reasonably construed to have arisen from the public development or redevelopment...’ It sounds to me like had this method been used the fact is the City of Spokane, within that taxing district, would have had the future growth of that tax base bonded under the use of this program, plus, of councilmatic bonds were passed, the taxes derived by the city would be used. I’m assuming that you were adding another means of tax collection, in sort of a subtle way. Would that happen, or am I incorrect?”

Mr. O’Brien: “That’s the basic premise back of this. If you increase revenue from the increased valuation of the property and weren’t able to fund the indebtedness the city incurred for the project, then they could either use councilmatic bonds or general obligation bonds or revenue bonds to help fund it. The Flanagan amendment is going to restrict it. I don’t know what project you have in mind, but I know one of your city councilmen from Spokane came over and spoke in favor of this constitutional amendment in order to be able to use it as a vehicle to fund some project in Spokane. That’s the primary purpose of this. The increased taxes derived from the community project development district would be used over and above the freeze of the taxes that they do levy and pay now. That increased increment would be used to pay off the bond indebtedness.”

Mr. McGinnis spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Charnley demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Flanagan spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Flanagan to House Joint Resolution No. 22, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 57 not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Granlund.

On motion of Ms. Sommers, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 10 after "that" insert "all or a portion of"

Mr. Salatino moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 22 be placed on final passage.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to suspend the rules and place Engrossed House Joint Resolution on final passage, and the motion received the necessary two-thirds majority by the following vote: Yeas, 71; Nays, 24; not voting, 3.

Speaker Barns declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 22.

Representatives O'Brien, Charnley, Galloway, Zimmerman and Teutsch spoke in favor of the resolution, and Representatives Dunlap, McGinnis, Berentson and Flanagan spoke against it.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, how many votes are required to pass this resolution?"

Speaker Barns: "Sixty-six votes."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 22, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 68; nays, 29; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Granlund.

Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 22, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.
MOTION

On motion of Mr. Bauer, Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 22 was ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

Speaker Bagnariol announced the Speakers were signing:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 57,
HOUSE BILL NO. 101,
HOUSE BILL NO. 330,
HOUSE BILL NO. 338,
HOUSE BILL NO. 424,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 459,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 504,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 697,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2058,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2197,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2422.

MOTION

Mr. King moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of HOUSE BILL NO. 1036, and the bill be placed at the top of today's second reading calendar.

Mr. King spoke in favor of the motion, and Speaker Berentson spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, I don't think Representative Berentson is speaking to the motion by Representative King to relieve the Rules Committee of this bill.

Speaker Berentson continued his remarks in opposition to the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "That was the most blatant impugning of motives I've ever heard."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Representative Berentson, you should confine your remarks to the subject of relieving the Rules Committee of House Bill No. 1036, which is a title only bill relating to energy."

Mr. Berentson continued his remarks against the motion.

Ms. McCormick spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "It would appear that the member is not speaking to the motion before the body. The motion is to relieve the Rules Committee of a title only bill and she is straying far from that motion."

Speaker Bagnariol: "She's answering Representative Berentson's question of what would be hung on the title only or attempted to be hung when the problem is on the floor. She was only speaking to what the amendment would be, so you would realize why you'd want the title only out here."

Ms. McCormick continued her remarks in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "Let me point out again, the motion is to take a title only bill that happens to have an energy title on it. I don't see how you can possibly think that a member can stand and explain what the intent is. Why doesn't your member, or leadership, produce what you intend to do with this? You could have placed it on our desks."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Representative Berentson, the point of order you are making has nothing to do with the resolution."

Speaker Berentson: "The point of order I'm making is that Representative McCormick cannot speak to an issue that doesn't exist. All that's on the floor right now is the motion to relieve the Rules Committee of a title only bill and place it before the body. I think we ought to just vote that up or down and if you want, later today or tomorrow, to explain to the body what you have in mind, we might very well want to take a look at that."

Speaker Bagnariol: "She is very patiently trying to explain without being a proponent of the proposed amendment to the title only, so you will be aware of what effort would be made to make that title only into an outstanding piece of legislation."

Speaker Berentson: "We have many title only bills floating around here, I realize, but the usual procedure is to have an agreement between both caucuses before we move any title only bill from any committee or the Rules Committee. I would suggest, unless you prefer to make this a strictly partisan issue—and looking back over the last several months, you've joined with us, Speaker Bagnariol—in criticizing the lack of administration on the part of our Governor..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "I'm not sure if Speaker Berentson is giving a major state of the state here, or speaking to a point of order. I would hope he'd keep his comments directly to what, I gather, we are talking about."

Speaker Bagnariol: "That's how I feel."

Speaker Berentson continued his remarks.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. McCormick yielded to question by Mr. Martinis.

Mr. Martinis: "Representative McCormick, with all this debate on points of order and all these kinds..."

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "What kind of deal is this?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "He didn't even ask the question yet."

Speaker Berentson: "He's not questioning. I didn't hear him refer to the title only bill that's before us. You know if he wants a point of personal privilege or something like that, he can get up and state what he wants to state to the body, rather than having Representative McCormick state it, but this is an unusual procedure also. We never use this question and answer routine on a measure like this which is no more than a motion to bring a title only out."

Speaker Bagnariol: "The members, Representative Berentson, are making a desperate effort to try to let the other members of the body understand what they would like to do with this piece of legislation. To just pull a title only without knowing what might be attempted to be put on that title only, would not be in fairness to open government, allowing no one to know just exactly what the intent is."

Speaker Berentson: "If I might just state that we all know we have an energy problem. The administration of the Energy Office..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Martinis: "Mr. Speaker, Speaker Berentson got up to raise a point of order on what I was almost ready to say. He was making an assumption, and now he's making a major political speech on the energy issue."

Speaker Berentson: "All I'm suggesting is that the motion is out of order because we don't have anything before us. The language is nonexistent..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "Again I don't know what Representative Berentson is speaking to. His point of order was in relation to Representative Martinis' attempt to ask a question of Representative McCormick. I wish you would rule on that so Representative McCormick will know whether to answer the question or not."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I do think before you make another point of order, Representative Berentson, you ought to at least listen to Representative Martinis' question and then you and I can, jointly, rule on whether or not his question would be out of order. I've got about fifteen points of order that are unruled on."
Mr. King: "I'm wondering, when determining what the purpose of debate is on a title only, whether or not just a simple subject matter would be an explanation of why the title only was brought from committee?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "When a title only is relieved from the Rules Committee, the Rules Committee is advised of what subject matter is intended to be placed on that title only. That procedure has been attempted here on the floor with the entire body as opposed to just the Rules Committee, but it's not a different procedure than when we have a title only relieved from the Rules Committee by a vote of that committee."

Mr. Martinis: "Representative McCormick, so that the body can understand what this is all about, so that we can find out what the intent is, would you state..."

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "I thought he was going to ask Representative McCormick a question."

Speaker Bagnariol: "He's attempting to. He keeps getting interrupted before he can get to it."

Mr. Martinis: "Representative McCormick, can we get to the point so that this body can be better informed on what you have before us and what the intent is of pulling this title only and what you expect to hang on it?"

Ms. McCormick: "What I intend to put on the title only is the creation of an energy advisory council to be comprised of five members appointed by the Governor and four legislative members who would serve on the council..."

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "Representative McCormick is breaking a House rule. She is reading a paper without the consent of the body."

Speaker Bagnariol: "With the consent of the body, she will read the paper."

Speaker Berentson: "We don't think we want to give her that consent."

Speaker Bagnariol: "She doesn't need to read the paper. Continue, Representative McCormick."

Ms. McCormick: "They will serve in an ex officio manner, the four legislative members that shall be appointed to this council. This is not a hoax. This is something I hope we can all get together on and resolve. Also, of the five members appointed by the Governor, there will be one from the public owned utilities, one from the private owned utilities, a member of labor, two from the university and a public member. This council will have the expertise that is so badly needed by the committee to help us resolve some of these problems..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, I think all that was called for was what the subject matter was. We heard it was for an energy advisory committee and I think that's all the House needs to hear. Now she's going into debating the issue and talking about all the individual points of this bill."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Please confine your remarks to the explanation of what the bill would do."

Ms. McCormick: "This bill, hopefully, will help us resolve the problems. It's very important to resolve this situation. I hope you will let us have the title only bill so we can amend it, as you see fit and let us get an energy bill out this session."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. King.

Mr. King: "Representative Martinis, could you explain to the body the duties and responsibilities of the advisory committee and what subject matters they might be able to deal with and so on?"
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, APRIL 26, 1979

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "Representative King is clearly violating the intent of our House rules in the use of a question. Questions are usually asked to establish legislative intent and I think he is abusing that intent at this point. I think all of us have a suspicion as to what you really intend. I'm a little disappointed with this motion, frankly. We had the agreement of the Democratic Speaker just a few days ago on the resolution and..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. King: "Mr. Speaker, he is giving a speech completely unrelated to the point."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Just for clarification, it seems to me we've gone far astray. We have a motion before us to relieve the Rules Committee of House Bill No. 1036, which is a title only. There has been a sincere effort to try to explain what the intent of that motion would be by explaining the subject matter, which I think is very legitimate."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, sometime ago we had a lot of conversation about the duties of a presiding officer and the duties of a floor leader and making speeches about how justified a certain effort is or how sincere it is, is not what we had in mind as the duty of a presiding officer, but should be more that of a floor leader."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I agree with that, Representative Polk. We've sincerely made no effort to have the presiding officer give a speech."

Mr. Polk: "You agree he's out of order?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "No, I do not."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Warnke: "Mr. Speaker, would you explain to me just exactly what is intended by the motion that's on the floor and what the effect of that would be?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "The motion before us is to bring a title only bill, House Bill No. 1036, from the Rules Committee and place it at the top of the second reading calendar for the purpose of amending that title only bill with a piece of legislation which, in effect, establishes an energy advisory council comprised of..."

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "I thought Representative Polk explained the Speaker just can't make speeches."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I'm not making a speech. I'm trying to answer the parliamentary inquiry."

Speaker Bagnariol declared the House to be at ease. Speaker Bagnariol called the House to order.

Mr. King demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Speaker Bagnariol stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative King that the Rules Committee be relieved of House Bill No. 1036, and the bill be placed on the calendar for second reading.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to relieve the Rules Committee of House Bill No. 1036, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 49; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Granlund.
On motion of Mr. Newhouse, House Bill No. 1036 was rereferred to Committee on Energy and Utilities.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:
The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 291 with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 82.32.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 77, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person engages in any business or performs any act upon which a tax is imposed by the preceding chapters, he shall, whether taxable or not, under such rules and regulations as the department of revenue shall prescribe, apply for and obtain from the department a registration certificate upon making a nonrefundable deposit of twenty-five dollars which shall be credited to the taxpayer's account. Such registration certificate shall be personal and nontransferable and shall be valid as long as the taxpayer continues in business and pays the tax accrued to the state. In case business is transacted at two or more separate places by one taxpayer, a separate registration certificate for each place at which business is transacted with the public shall be required, but, for such additional certificates no extra deposit shall be required. Each certificate shall be numbered and shall show the name, residence, and place and character of business of the taxpayer and such other information as the department of revenue deems necessary and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the place of business for which it is issued. Where a place of business of the taxpayer is changed, the taxpayer must return to the department the existing certificate, and a new certificate will be issued for the new place of business free of charge. No person shall engage in any business taxable hereunder without being registered in compliance with the provisions of this section, except that the department, by general regulation, may provide for the issuance of certificates of registration to temporary places of business without requiring the payment of any fee.

Sec. 2. Section 82.32.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 81, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other law, any notice or order required by this title to be mailed to any taxpayer may be served in the manner prescribed by law for personal service of summons and complaint in the commencement of actions in the superior courts of the state, but if the notice or order is mailed, it shall be addressed to the address of the taxpayer as shown by the records of the department of revenue, or, if no such address is shown, to such address as the department is able to ascertain by reasonable effort. Failure of the taxpayer to receive such notice or order whether served or mailed shall not release the taxpayer from any tax or any increases or penalties thereon.

Sec. 3. Section 82.32.340, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 184, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.32.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Any tax or penalty which the department of revenue deems to be uncollectible, may be transferred from accounts receivable, subject to approval by the director of financial management, to a suspense account and cease to be accounted an asset. Any item transferred shall continue to be a debt due the department from the taxpayer and may at any lime within twelve years from the filing of a warrant covering such amount with the clerk of the superior court be transferred back to accounts receivable for the purpose of collection. The department of revenue may charge off as finally uncollectible any tax or penalty which it deems uncollectible at any time after twelve years from the date of the filing of a warrant covering such tax and penalty with the clerk of the superior court after which the last tax return for the delinquent taxpayer was or should have been filed if the department of revenue and the attorney general are satisfied that there are no available and lawful means by which such tax or penalty may thereafter be collected.

After any tax or penalty has been charged off as finally uncollectible under the provisions of this section, the department of revenue may destroy any and all files and records pertaining to the liability of any taxpayer for such tax or penalty.

The department of revenue, subject to the approval of the state records committee, may at the expiration of five years after the close of any taxable year, destroy any and all files and records pertaining to the tax liability of any taxpayer for such taxable year, who has fully paid all taxes, penalties and interest for such taxable year, or any preceding taxable year for which such taxes, penalties and interest have been fully paid. In the event that such files and records are reproduced on film pursuant to RCW 40.20.030 for use in accordance with RCW 40.20.030, the original files and records may be destroyed immediately after reproduction and such reproductions may be destroyed at the expiration of the above five year period, subject to the approval of the state records committee.

Sec. 4. Section 82.32.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

If, upon receipt of an application by a taxpayer for a refund or for an audit of his records, or upon an examination of the returns or records of any taxpayer, it is determined by the department that within the two years immediately preceding the receipt by the department of the application by the taxpayer for a refund or for an audit, or, in the absence of such an application, within the two years immediately preceding the commencement by the department of such examination;) statute period for assessment of taxes prescribed by RCW 82.32.050 a tax has been paid in excess of that properly due, the excess amount paid within such period ((of two years)) shall be credited to the taxpayer's account or shall be refunded to the taxpayer, at his option. ((Except as to the utilization by the taxpayer of the credits in computing tax authorized by RCW 82.04.435, application for which credits must be made within two years of payment of the taxes giving rise to such credits, no refund or credit shall be allowed with respect to any payments made to the department more than two years before the date of such application or examination. Where a refund or credit may not be made because of the lapse of said two year period, the amount of the refund or credit which would otherwise be allowable for the portion of the statutory assessment period preceding the two year period may be offset against the amount of any tax deficiency which may be determined by the department for such statutory assessment period:)) No refund or credit shall be made for taxes paid more than four years prior to the beginning of the calendar year in which the refund application is made or examination of records is completed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations there shall be refunded or credited to taxpayers engaged in the performance of United States government contracts or subcontracts the amount of any tax paid, measured by that portion of the amounts received from the United States, which taxpayer is required by contract or applicable federal statute to refund or credit to the United States, if claim for such refund is filed by the taxpayer with the department within one year of the date that the amount of the refund or credit due to the United States is finally determined and filed within four years of the date on which the tax was paid: PROVIDED, That no interest shall be allowed on such refund.

Any such refunds shall be made by means of vouchers approved by the department and by the issuance of state warrants drawn upon and payable from such funds as the legislature may provide.

Any judgment for a recovery granted by any court of competent jurisdiction, not appealed from, for tax, penalties, and interest which were paid by the taxpayer, and costs, in a suit by any taxpayer shall be paid in like manner, upon the filing with the department of a certified copy of the order or judgment of the court: Except as to the credits in computing tax authorized by RCW 82.04.435, interest at the rate of three percent per annum shall be allowed by the department and by any court on the amount of any refund or recovery allowed to a taxpayer for taxes, penalties, or interest paid by him after May 1, 1949, and interest at the same rate shall be allowed on any judgment recovered by a taxpayer for taxes, penalties, or interest paid after such date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in the event any county treasurer has not provided tax statements to taxpayers in his county prior to April 1, 1979, such treasurer shall provide such statements as soon thereafter as is practicable, and such taxes shall be due and payable on the thirtieth day following the mailing of such tax statements after which date, and not before, all taxes on real and personal property in such county shall become delinquent, and interest at the rate of eight percent per annum shall be charged upon such unpaid taxes and upon unpaid personal property taxes from the date of delinquency until paid: PROVIDED, That when the total amount of tax on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more and if one-half of such tax be paid on or before the said due date, then the time for payment of the remainder thereof shall be extended and said remainder shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following, after which date such remaining one-half shall become delinquent, and interest at the rate of eight percent per annum shall be charged upon said remainder from the date of delinquency until paid: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That when the total amount of personal property taxes falling due in any year, payable by one person, is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such taxes be paid on or before said due date then the time for payment of the remainder thereof shall be extended and said remainder shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following, after which date such remaining one-half shall become delinquent, and interest at the rate of eight percent per annum shall be charged upon said remainder from the date of delinquency until paid: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That this section shall expire on December 31, 1979. This section is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW, insofar as applicable, shall have full force and application with respect to the tax imposed under RCW 82.04.291, as amended and recodified.

Any reference in chapter 6, Laws of 1979 or any other statute to RCW 82.04.291 shall be deemed to apply to RCW 82.04.291 as renumbered and recodified as a section of chapter 84.33 RCW.

This section is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "taxation;" insert "amending section 82.32.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 77, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.030; amending section 82.32.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.060; amending section 82.32.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 81, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.130; amending section 82.32.340, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 184, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.32.340; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.
MOTION
On motion of Ms. Sommers, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 291.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE
Speaker Bagnariol stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 291 as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL
The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 291 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Granlund.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 291 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS
On motion of Mr. Polk, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

Mr. Polk moved that the House immediately consider House Resolution No. 79-47.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE
Mr. King: "We usually adjourn at 3:30 p.m. It is now 3:30 and there are at least one hundred and fifty people here waiting for a Transportation Committee hearing..."

POINT OF ORDER
Speaker Berentson: "That is not a point of personal privilege. He's abusing that procedure. We have now been very patient for three days, but we have been promised without any question that we would run resolutions on the eighth order of business today. It seems somehow that commitment hasn't been made and those people will have to wait for a period of time; it this is more important, we think, that we resolve this issue than to take the gamble of maybe having two or three more days go by before we get to the energy issue here."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I think Representative King's point of personal privilege was so those who have come to Olympia to testify before the Transportation Committee will understand why they are waiting.

Speaker Berentson: "But, Mr. Speaker, that is not a point of personal privilege."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Representative King has very strong feelings for the citizens and voters of this state and that is personal."
Mr. King: "There is another aspect to the point of personal privilege and that's sometimes called a group privilege. I'd like to explain to this body why it is that we are not moving to adjourn at this time. It is so that we will have an opportunity to hear this resolution. They prefer that it not be delayed until tomorrow morning."

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Pruitt: "We're talking about a resolution that has a higher number than one that I presented. The motion was to take up that resolution first..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, my motion was to consider House Floor Resolution No. 79-47. No point of personal privilege is involved in that; it's strictly a motion."

SPEAKER BAGNARIOL'S RULING

Speaker Bagnariol: "Your point is well taken, Representative Polk. Representative Pruitt, Representative Polk did move to immediately consider House Resolution No. 79-47 and that is the motion currently before us."

Mr. Polk spoke again in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, I've been trying to read this resolution they are talking about and I don't see anything in there that addresses what Representative Polk has been referring to. I wish he would speak to the point so we could get out of here."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Your point is well taken."

The motion was carried.

MOTION

Mr. Martinis moved that the resolution be referred to Committee on Energy and Utilities. Mr. Haley spoke against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Martinis: "The speaker is not addressing the motion that is before us. He is speaking to the merits of the resolution. I'd like to have you restrict his remarks to the merits of the motion that is before us and not to the resolution."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Representative Haley, contain your remarks to the motion, which is to refer the resolution to the Committee on Energy and Utilities. The issue is really not before us at this point."

Mr. Haley continued his remarks against the motion, and Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Patterson demanded an electric roll call vote on the motion, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of the motion.
Speaker Berentson: "Mr. Pruitt is straying from the motion before us. His resolution is not before us and I don't feel we need an explanation of it."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Contain your remarks to the motion to refer the resolution to committee."

Mr. Pruitt continued his remarks in favor of the motion.

Representatives Nelson (D) and King spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Polk spoke against it.

Ms. McCormick: "I hope you all noticed, that in the meantime while we've been debating the motion before us, you have had placed on your desks the bill that we would like to put on the title only that we were asking for."

Speaker Berentson: "Mr. Speaker, we have a motion before us to send a resolution to the Energy and Utilities Committee, and now we have a point of personal privilege and a speech on an issue we just took care of. I think that's rather unusual."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I only heard her explaining that the paper distributed to your desks was..."

Mr. Martinis: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to have you explain to me, and perhaps to the body, under the rules we've been operating on, how long are energy issues still alive?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "They are exempt from the cut-off."

Mr. Martinis: "Mr. Speaker, would that be right to sine die?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "That would be right through sine die."

Mr. Wilson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to refer House Resolution No. 79-47 to Committee on Energy and Utilities, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 49; nays, 48; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Granlund.

On motion of Mr. Newhouse, the rules were suspended to allow additional sponsors to sign on the resolution.

Representatives Haley, Williams, Isaacson, Bond, Deccio, Tupper, Zimmerman, Smith (C), Oliver, Nisbet, Sprague, Wilson, Sanders, Fuller, Rosbach, Mitchell, Dunlap, Taylor, Dawson and McGinnis signed on the resolution.
POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Warnke: "Mr. Speaker, Reed's Rule 184 states that whenever a point of order is raised on the conduct or order of business of the house, that the chair shall decide the point of order. This afternoon Speaker Berentson has raised some seven or eight points of order, none of which have been ruled on, and I ask you..."

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Berentson: "Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that Representative Warnke has evidently not read the rules. In the appendix to the rules, it points out that whenever a point of order is raised, the House, in effect, will be at ease. It doesn't state that specifically, but we would not proceed until both speakers have agreed. Anytime a point of order is raised that's perfectly legitimate—we've sort of bent that rule, because for some reason we weren't able to get together and establish that point of order—but the end effect is that, if we don't agree, all action ceases on the matter before us."

Mr. Warnke: "That's exactly the point I'm raising. There has been no agreement and no ruling on any points of order that Speaker Berentson raised this afternoon. I'm suggesting, Mr. Speaker, that this body be put at ease and the two speakers go back and rule on every point of order."

Speaker Bagnariol declared the House to be at ease.

Speaker Bagnariol called the House to order.

SPEAKER BAGNARIOL'S RULING

Speaker Bagnariol: "On the points of order raised this afternoon: One-half of them were well taken, and one-half of them were not well taken."

MOTION

Mr. Amen moved that the House adjourn until 9:30 a.m., Friday, April 27, 1979.

Mr. Amen stated that with the consent of the House, he would withdraw his motion.

Consent of the House was not given, and a division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion for adjournment, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 48; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Granlund, Zimmerman.

MOTION

Ms. Houchen moved adoption of the resolution and spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. King: "I believe Representative Houchen is reading without the consent of the House."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Representative Houchen, please continue your remarks but refrain from reading the paper."

Ms. Houchen continued her remarks in favor of the resolution.
Ms. Houchen yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Houchen, I've been reading the resolution, and one of the things you are speaking of doing here is setting up a standing committee that will develop this comprehensive master plan and then you are setting up a subcommittee in the form of an advisory board. You speak of state utilities and private utilities, gas companies, the Energy Office, the Department of Revenue, etc., but nowhere do I see public utilities, which are a major section of energy generators and distributors and sellers in the state. State utilities, I would think, are the operating energy agency, WWPPS, but I'm wondering about all the public utilities, the municipal utilities in the state and the other public bodies that are involved in energy? Did you mean to leave those agencies out of this comprehensive plan?"

Ms. Houchen: "No, I did not. There is another paragraph that says, 'Assuring that public utilities will offer to sell power to, or buy power from...'."

Mr. Nelson (D): "It is true though, would you agree, that public utilities are not included in the advisory board?"

Ms. Houchen: "State utilities are included, Representative Nelson."

Representatives Nelson (D) and Becker spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Haley and Polk spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Haley yielded to question by Mr. Martinis.

Mr. Martinis: "Representative Haley, Co-chairman of the Energy Committee, one of the sponsors of this resolution, could you tell me, to accomplish this thing by January of 1980, how many full time staffers will it take and how many dollars will it take to accomplish what this resolution has set out to do?"

Mr. Haley: "I couldn't tell you how many dollars. In my own mind I thought maybe four or five, possibly six, staff people to work this thing out. At the present time I would hope that maybe the Senate could participate in it. In fact, I'm sure they could; they've already got many of the answers that are included in it. How many dollars would be needed to pay for four, five or six staffers to work on this? I think you could answer that as well as I."

Mr. Martinis spoke against the resolution, and Speaker Berentson spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Patterson demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of House Resolution No. 79-47, and the resolution was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 48; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Granlund, Pruitt.

On motion of Mr. Martinis, House Resolution No. 79-47 was referred to Committee on Energy and Utilities.
MOTION

On motion of Mr. King, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, April 27, 1979.

Such written findings shall include detailed reasons why the land cannot advantageously be used for park purposes. If such lands are school or other grant lands, control thereof shall be relinquished by resolution of the commission to the proper state officials. If such lands were acquired under restrictive conveyances by which the state may hold them only so long as they are used for park purposes, they may be returned to the donor or grantors by the commission. All other such lands may be either sold by the commission to the highest bidder or exchanged for other lands of equal value by the commission, and all conveyance documents shall be executed by the governor. Sealed bids on all sales shall be solicited at least twenty days in advance of the sale date by an advertisement appearing at least in three consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land to be sold is located. If the commission ((feels)) makes a written finding that no bid received adequately reflects the fair market value of the land to be sold, it may reject all bids, and may call for new bids. Such written findings shall include detailed reasons why no bid received by the commission adequately reflects the fair market value of the lands to be sold. All proceeds derived from the sale of such park property shall be paid into the real property acquisition/development accounts in the state general fund. Such an account is hereby created within the general fund for each county within the state. All proceeds derived from the sale of any surplus park property shall be placed within the account of the county where the surplus property is situated. Moneys within these accounts shall be expended for acquisition or development by the commission, in accordance with RCW 43.51.040(4) and (7), of property in the county from which the funds were derived. In addition, before disposing of any surplus park property to any person, corporation, firm, organization, or other nongovernmental entity, the commission shall give the right to purchase the property to each governmental entity which has jurisdiction in the county wherein the property is located and which agrees to pay the fair market value for the property. In acquisitions authorized by this section, the power of eminent domain shall not be exercised unless agreed to by the seller and buyer for the purpose of determining price: PROVIDED, That this section shall not authorize the commission to sell any property which is part of Riverside state park.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. (a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody and what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child’s home as possible, preferably in the child’s own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child’s or parents’ well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue.

(a) A child shall be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section still exists. When a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

Only eligible common school dropouts shall be enrolled in a certified educational clinic for reimbursement by the superintendent of public instruction as provided in RCW 28A.97.040. No person shall be considered an eligible common school dropout who (1) has completed high school, (2) who has not reached his or her thirteenth birthday or has passed his or her eighteenth birthday, or (3) shows proficiency beyond the high school level in a test approved by the superintendent of public instruction to be given as part of the initial diagnostic procedure, or (4) until (three) months after he or she has dropped out of any common school and the educational clinic has received written verification from a school official of the common school last attended in this state that such person is no longer in attendance at such school, unless such clinic has been requested to admit such person by written communication of the board of directors or the superintendent, of that common school, or unless such person is unable to attend a particular common school because of disciplinary reasons, including suspension and/or expulsion therefrom. The fact that any person may be subject to chapter 28A.27 RCW shall not affect his or her qualifications as an eligible common school dropout under this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 341, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.97.040 are each amended to read as follows:

From funds appropriated for that purpose, the superintendent of public instruction shall pay to a certified clinic on a monthly basis for each student enrolled in compliance with RCW 28A.97.020, fees in accordance with the following conditions:

(b) Reimbursements shall not be made for students who are absent (Absences will be paid for, but after three consecutive absences or two unexcused absences in any one week, the student's enrollment will be..."
terminated and no further fees will be payable. PROVIDED, That students may be re-enrolled at any time).

(c) No clinic shall make any charge to any student, or his parent, guardian or custodian, for whom a fee is being received under the provisions of this section.

(2) Payments shall be made from available funds first to those clinic(s) which have in the judgment of the superintendent demonstrated superior performance based upon consideration of students' educational gains taking into account such students' backgrounds, and upon consideration of cost effectiveness. In considering the cost effectiveness of nonprofit clinics the superintendent shall take into account not only payments made under this section but also factors such as tax exemptions, direct and indirect subsidies or any other cost to taxpayers at any level of government which result from such nonprofit status.

(3) To be eligible for such payment, every such clinic, without prior notice, shall permit a review of its accounting records by personnel of the state auditor during normal business hours.

(4) If total funds for this purpose approach depletion, the superintendent shall notify the clinics of the date after which further funds for reimbursement of the clinics' services will be exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 341, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.97 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislative budget committee shall prepare a report to the legislature before each regular session, detailing the fiscal impact of the several certified educational clinics receiving reimbursements from the state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The legislative budget committee shall require such clinics to furnish such information as it deems necessary to meet the requirements of this section. Included within the information to be reported by the legislative budget committee on each clinic shall be the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

In line 1 of the title after "clinics;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 341, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.97.020; amending section 4, chapter 341, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.97.040; creating new sections; and adding a new section to chapter 341, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.97 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "On page 2, lines 12 through 15 of the Senate committee amendment, could you explain to me what, specifically, that means?"

Mr. Taylor: "It has to do with the age of a dropout and the grade level. It makes specific reference to that law and I cannot quote you the wording of the law, Representative Ehlers."

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Ehlers, I think I can clarify this for you. This is the section of the law that requires compulsory school attendance until they have completed a certain grade or reached a certain age and, in effect, it's saying it doesn't matter whether or not he's within that age group or has completed that grade."

Representatives Taylor and Ehlers spoke against the motion to concur in the Senate amendments, and Representatives Heck, Chandler and Nelson (G.A.) spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Heck spoke again in favor of the motion.

The motion was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 25, 1979

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 557 with the following amendments:

After the enacting clause strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature recognizes that the transportation of common school students is an integral part of the constitutional mandate to "...make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders...". The legislature therefore declares that legislative intent in sections 1 through 15 of this amendatory act is to provide each local school district with sufficient funds to provide eligible students with a basic transportation program, by the 1980-81 school year, as such basic education program is defined in sections 1 through 15 of this amendatory act. Furthermore, the operation and maintenance of each local school district's student transportation program is declared to be the responsibility of the respective board of directors, and each board of directors shall determine such matters as which individual students shall be transported and what routes shall be most efficiently utilized. State moneys allocated to local districts for student transportation shall be spent only for student transportation activities, but need not be spent by the local district in the same manner as calculated and allocated by the state.

In implementing student transportation programs, local districts should utilize to the best of their ability any operational criteria contained in sections 1 through 15 of this amendatory act. While the legislature realizes the importance to an educational program of student transportation activities other than those to and from school, it is not the responsibility of the state to fully reimburse local school districts for such costs: PROVIDED, That the legislature may appropriate additional funds for such other activities, or for pilot transportation programs to individual school districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Except where the context shall clearly indicate otherwise, the following terms shall have the following meanings for the purpose of determining the state calculation of the student transportation allocation pursuant to sections 1 through 15 of this amendatory act: PROVIDED, That such definitions should not be construed as mandated operational criteria which local districts must implement in operation of their student transportation programs.

(1) 'Eligible student' means any student, as defined in RCW 28A.41.140, residing more than one mile from his or her appropriate school of attendance. Any handicapped student as defined in chapter 28A.13 RCW and as determined by the district to require special transportation services for health and safety reasons shall be considered an eligible student. Furthermore, students whose appropriate school of attendance is in a district other than their resident district, as determined in subsection (7) of this section, shall be considered an eligible student in the resident district.

(2) 'Basic student transportation' means the transporting of an eligible student from his or her appropriate route stop to his or her appropriate school of attendance at the beginning of that student's school day, as defined in RCW 28A.58.754, and from his or her appropriate school of attendance to his or her appropriate route stop at the end of that school day in a transportation vehicle. Transportation activities beyond the end of the school day as defined in RCW 28A.58.754 for the purposes of activities held after the end of the normal school day shall not be considered basic student transportation.

(3) 'Student transportation allocation' means those funds appropriated by the legislature and allocated by the superintendent to individual districts for use in providing student transportation for basic education as defined in RCW 28A.58.754. Such allocation shall be comprised of (a) the approved basic student transportation allocation, (b) the vehicle acquisition allocation as defined in subsection (6) of this section; and (c) the supplemental student transportation allocation.

(4) 'Basic student transportation allocation' means those funds appropriated by the legislature pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 through 15 of this amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended, to fulfill the obligations of RCW 28A.41.160 for operational costs.

(5) 'Supplemental student transportation allocation' means those funds appropriated by the legislature pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 through 15 of this amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended, for district transportation activities other than basic student transportation. Such other activities shall include but not be limited to extended runs, intradistrict and interdistrict transportation of students for less than the full day's program hour offering as defined in RCW 28A.58.754, health and safety transportation, and extracurricular transportation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each district's annual basic student transportation allocation shall be determined by the superintendent in the following manner:

(1) Each district shall submit to the superintendent by June 1st of each year a report containing the following: (a) The number of eligible students in the district; (b) the location of each school in the district; (c) the route stops, grade level, and appropriate school of attendance for every eligible student anticipated for the following school year; (d) district maps indicating all road miles and/or radius miles traveled by eligible students; and (e) the number of road and/or radius miles necessary to transport all eligible students to and from the appropriate school of attendance as calculated by the local district: PROVIDED, That if road miles are to be used as the basis of the allocation process, each district shall utilize the most efficient combination of routes, road miles and nonpassenger miles.

(2) The superintendent shall approve the annual report received from each district on the basis of the most efficient combination of routes, road miles or radius miles, and nonpassenger miles.

(3) The superintendent shall annually calculate the standard student seat cost per mile for each district as defined in section 2(12) of this amendatory act: PROVIDED, That prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, the senate ways and means committee, and the house appropriations committee, a report outlining the methodology and rationale used in determining the standard student seat cost per mile to be used by districts the following school year. The superintendent shall then determine the preliminary, estimated basic student transportation allocation for each district based on the following: (a) The number of eligible students, which for purposes of calculating each district allocation, shall be equal to one student seat utilized; (b) the number of road miles and/or radius miles necessary to transport eligible students to and from the appropriate school of attendance; (c) the standard student seat cost per mile; and (d) the statutory number of days in the school year.

(4) The superintendent shall notify districts of their estimated basic student transportation allocation for the following school year by August 1st of the school year. By October 15th of the following school year every district shall have notified the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary basic student transportation allocation as defined in section 2(4) of this amendatory act. The superintendent shall make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final basic student transportation allocation before December 1st of each school year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Each district's annual supplemental student transportation allocation shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) The basic student transportation allocation shall be determined according to the provisions of section 3 of this amendatory act;

(2) In addition to the basic student transportation allocation, the district shall receive up to twenty percent of its basic student transportation allocation for other, supplemental, student transportation activities: PROVIDED, That no such moneys shall be allocated by the superintendent for such supplemental transportation from funds otherwise to be allocated to provide basic student transportation. After determining the supplemental student transportation allocation, the superintendent shall follow the procedures outlined in section 3 of this amendatory act in notifying the districts of their annual supplemental student allocation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The superintendent shall determine the vehicle acquisition allocation in the following manner:
(1) By June 1st of each year, the superintendent shall develop preliminary categories of student transportation vehicles to ensure adequate student transportation fleets for districts. The categories shall include, but not be limited to, variables such as vehicle capacity, type of chassis, type of fuel, engine and body type, special equipment and life of vehicle. Such categories shall be developed in conjunction with the local districts and shall be applicable to the following school year. The categories shall be designed to produce minimum long range operating costs, including costs of equipment and all costs incurred in operating it. Each category description shall include the estimated state–determined purchase price, which shall be based on the anticipated market price. By July 15th of each year, the superintendent shall notify districts of the preliminary vehicle categories and state–determined purchase price for the ensuing school year. By October 15th of each year, the superintendent shall finalize the categories and the associated state–determined purchase price and shall notify districts of any changes: PROVIDED, That while it is the responsibility of each district to select each student transportation vehicle to be purchased by the district, each district shall be reimbursed a sum equal only to the amount of the state–determined purchase price and inflation as recognized by the depreciation schedule established in this section as set by the superintendent for the category of vehicle purchased: PROVIDED, That in event the vehicular requirements of the district, for reasons of safety, or in the interests of minimum long term operating costs, are not satisfied by the categories established by the superintendent, the district may petition the superintendent for the inclusion of additional equipment or specifications, setting forth the costs thereof, beyond those contemplated by categories of the superintendent, and if, in the opinion of the superintendent, the additional equipment or specifications are necessary for adequate safety or will reduce long term operating costs, including capital costs, the additional costs of such equipment may be included in the state–determined purchase price: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if after receiving competitive bids on a vehicle the lowest acceptable bid is in excess of the state–determined purchase price, the district may petition the superintendent to increase the state–determined purchase price for that category of vehicle for that district.

(2) The superintendent shall annually develop a depreciation schedule to reimburse districts for the cost of student transportation vehicles purchased during that school year. The schedule shall be written on the basis of the categories of student transportation vehicles, the state–determined purchase price and the anticipated life of the vehicles, and shall include factors recognizing inflation and the cost of depreciation to districts contracting with public or private carriers for student transportation services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Each district may, at its discretion, rent or lease its vehicles in the following instances:

(a) Transporting of personnel, supplies, and/or evacuees by governmental agencies in the event of flood, fire, or other natural emergencies: PROVIDED, That the state director of emergency services or any of his agents so authorized has, at the request of an involved governmental agency, declared that an emergency exists in a designated area insofar as the need for additional transport is concerned.

(b) Transporting of handicapped children or persons sixty years of age or older by nonprofit organizations to and from the site of such activities or programs deemed beneficial to such persons by such organizations.

(c) Furnishing, by contract, the use of school buses of that district to other users who are engaged in conducting an educational or recreational program supported wholly or in part by tax funds or programs for persons sixty years of age or older at times when those buses are not needed by that district and under such terms as will fully reimburse such school district for all costs related or incident thereto.

(d) Using school buses and drivers hired by the district for the transportation of school children and the school employees necessary for their supervision to and from any school activities within or without the school district during or after school hours and whether or not a required school activity, so long as the school board has officially designated it as a school activity. For any extracurricular uses, the school board shall charge an amount sufficient to reimburse the district for its cost.

(2) If a district decides to rent or lease its vehicles for the purposes of this section, they will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) No such use of vehicles shall be permitted except where other public or private transportation certificated or licensed by the Washington utilities and transportation commission is not reasonably available to the user: PROVIDED, That no user shall be required to accept in lieu of district transportation vehicular service any charter bus service which the user believes might place the health or safety of the passengers in jeopardy.

(b) Such leases of vehicles do not conflict with regular school purposes.

(c) Such leases shall be determined by the district on the basis of criteria established by the district including, but not limited to, minimum costs, driver requirements, and providing an indemnity agreement protecting the district against any type of claim or legal action whatsoever, including all legal costs incidental thereto.

(3) Whenever any school children or elderly persons are transported by the school district in its own motor vehicles and by its own employees, the board may provide insurance to protect the district against loss, whether by reason of theft, fire or property damage to the motor vehicle or by reason of liability of the district to persons from the operation of such motor vehicle.

The board may provide insurance by contract purchase for payment of hospital and medical expenses in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars per person per injury for the benefit of persons injured while they are on, getting on, or getting off any vehicles enumerated in this subsection without respect to any fault or liability on the part of the school district or operator. This insurance may be provided without cost to the persons notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 28A.58.420.
If the transportation of children or elderly persons is arranged for by contract of the district with some person, the board may require such contractor to procure such insurance as the board deems advisable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Individual transportation, board and room, and other arrangements may be authorized or provided and, in whole or part, paid for or reimbursed by a school district, when approved by the educational service district superintendent or his or her designee pursuant to rules promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction for that purpose: PROVIDED, That the total of payments for board and room and transportation incidental thereto shall not exceed the amount which would otherwise be paid for such individual transportation.

This section shall not apply to the letting of any contract for the driving of a school bus in a second ((or third)) class school district ((provided the remuneration to the driver of such school bus shall not exceed thirty-six hundred dollars in any calendar year)).

PROVIDED, That the provision of RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, and 59.12.170 shall not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of this chapter. RCW 59.18.370 through 59.18.410 shall be applicable to any action of forcible entry or detainer or unlawful detainer arising from a tenancy under the provisions of this chapter. Rentals of mobile homes themselves are governed by the Residential Landlord-Tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

1. On and after September 21, 1977, no landlord may offer a mobile home lot for rent without offering to a prospective tenant a written rental agreement for a term of one year or more. No landlord may offer to a tenant or prospective tenant any rental agreement for a term of one year or more for which the monthly rental is greater, or the terms of payment or other material conditions more burdensome to the tenant, than any month-to-month rental agreement also offered to such tenant or prospective tenant. A prospective tenant who desires to occupy a mobile home lot for other than a term of one year or more may have the option to be on a month-to-month basis but must waive, in writing, the right to such one year or more term. Except pursuant to such waiver, no landlord shall allow a mobile home to be moved into a mobile home park in this state until a written rental agreement has been signed by the landlord and the tenant and a copy provided for the tenant: PROVIDED, That if the landlord allows the tenant to move a mobile home into a mobile home park without obtaining a written rental agreement for a term of one year or more, or a written waiver of the right to a one-year term or more, the term of the tenancy shall be deemed to be for one year from the date of occupancy of the mobile home lot:
2. The requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if:
   a. The mobile home park or part thereof has been acquired or is under imminent threat of condemnation for a public works project,
   b. An employer-employee relationship exists between a landlord and tenant,
   c. The provisions of this section shall apply to any tenancy in existence prior to September 21, 1977, upon expiration of the term of any oral or written rental agreement governing such tenancy.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Any ((rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant)) mobile home lot tenancy regardless of the term, shall be based upon a written rental agreement, signed by the parties, which shall contain:
   a. The terms for the payment of rent, including time and place, and any additional charges to be paid by the tenant. Additional charges that occur less frequently than monthly shall be itemized in a billing to the tenant;
(b) Reasonable rules for guest parking which shall be clearly stated;
(c) The rules and regulations of the park;
(d) The name and address of the person who is the landlord, and if such person does not reside in the state where the mobile home park is located there shall also be designated by name and address a person who resides in the county where the mobile home park is located who is authorized to act as agent for the purposes of service of notices and process. If no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered the agent; (end)
(e) The terms and conditions under which any deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement if any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement;
(f) A listing of those utilities and services which will be provided at the time the rental agreement is executed and will continue to be offered for the term of tenancy and the nature of the fees, if any, to be charged; and
(g) A description of the boundaries of a mobile home lot sufficient to inform the tenant of the exact location of his lot in relation to other tenants' lots.

(2) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall not contain:
(a) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guest parking unless a violation of the rules for guest parking occurs: PROVIDED, That a fee may be charged for guest parking which covers an extended period of time as defined in the rental agreement;
(b) Any provision which authorizes the towing or impounding of a vehicle except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner of said vehicle;
(c) Any provision which allows the landlord to increase the rent or alter the due date for rent payment during the term of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the mobile home park's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year;
(d) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter;
(e) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an 'entrance fee' or an 'exit fee'; or
(f) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guests: PROVIDED, That a landlord may establish rules charging for guests who remain on the premises for more than fifteen days in any sixty-day period.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.070 are each amended to read as follows:
A landlord shall not:
(1) Deny any tenant the right to sell such tenant's mobile home within a park or require the removal of the mobile home from the park solely because of the sale thereof: PROVIDED, That:
(a) A rental agreement for a fixed term shall be assignable by the tenant to any person to whom he sells or transfers title to the mobile home, subject to the approval of the landlord after fifteen days' written notice of such intended assignment;
(b) The assignee of the rental agreement shall assume all the duties and obligations of his assignor for the remainder of the term of the rental agreement unless, by mutual agreement, a new rental agreement is entered into with the landlord; and
(c) The landlord shall approve or disapprove of the assignment of a rental agreement on the same basis that the landlord approves or disapproves of any new tenant; (end)
(2) Restrict the tenant's freedom of choice in purchasing goods or services but may reserve the right to approve or disapprove any exterior structural improvements on a mobile home lot: PROVIDED, That door-to-door solicitation in the mobile home park may be restricted in the rental agreement;
(3) Prohibit meetings by tenants of the mobile home park to discuss mobile home living and affairs, conducted at reasonable times and in an orderly manner on the premises, nor penalize any tenant for participation in such activities;
(4) (a) Evict a tenant, terminate a rental agreement, decline to renew a rental agreement, increase rental or other tenant obligations, decrease services, or modify park rules in retaliation for any of the following actions on the part of a tenant taken in good faith:
(i) Filing a complaint with any state, county, or municipal governmental authority relating to any alleged violation by the landlord of an applicable statute, regulation, or ordinance;
(ii) Requesting the landlord to comply with the provision of this chapter or other applicable statute, regulation, or ordinance of the state, county, or municipality;
(iii) Filing suit against the landlord for any reason;
(iv) Participation or membership in any homeowners association or group;
(b) In determining whether an action by a landlord is retaliatory, the presumptions set forth in RCW 59.18.250 shall apply; or
(5) Charge to any tenant a utility fee in excess of actual utility costs.
Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.080 are each amended to read as follows:
THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, APRIL 27, 1979

((Tenancy during the term of a rental agreement may be terminated by the landlord only))

1. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the landlord shall not terminate a tenancy, of whatever duration, except for one or more of the following reasons:

   (a) Substantial or repeated violation of the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant or for violation of the tenant's duties as provided in section 9 of this act as now or hereafter amended. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to comply or vacate; PROVIDED, That in the case of a violation of a 'material change' in park rules with respect to pets, tenants with minor children living with them, or recreational facilities, the tenant shall be given written notice of a six month period in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, said notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination;

   (b) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

   (c) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate;

   (d) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobile homes or mobile home living within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of such noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency;

   (e) Change of land use of the mobile home park: PROVIDED, That the landlord shall give the tenants twelve months' notice in advance of the proposed effective date of such change.

2. A landlord may terminate any tenancy without cause. Such termination shall be effective six months from the date the landlord serves notice of termination upon the tenant or at the end of the current tenancy, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That a landlord may not terminate a tenancy for any reason or basis which is prohibited under RCW 59.20.070(3) or (4), as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.090 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Unless otherwise agreed rental agreements shall be for a term of one year. Any rental agreement (for a term of one year and any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term) of whatever duration shall be automatically renewed for an additional six-month term or for the term of the original rental agreement, whichever is shorter unless:

   (a) ((Otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement)) A different specified term is agreed upon; or

   (b) The landlord ((notifies the tenant in writing three months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in such notice)) serves notice of termination without cause upon the tenant prior to the expiration of the rental agreement; PROVIDED, That under such circumstances, at the expiration of the prior rental agreement the tenant shall be considered a month-to-month tenant upon the same terms as in the prior rental agreement until the tenancy is terminated.

2. A landlord seeking to increase the rent upon expiration of the term of a rental agreement of any duration shall notify the tenant in writing three months prior to the effective date of any increase in rent: PROVIDED, That if a landlord serves a tenant with notice of a rental increase at the same time or subsequent to serving the tenant with notice of termination without cause, such rental increase shall not become effective until the date the tenant is required to vacate the leased premises pursuant to the notice of termination or three months from the date notice of rental increase is served, whichever is later.

3. A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

   (a) ((Otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement)) A different specified term is agreed upon;

   (b) The landlord ((notifies the tenant in writing three months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in such notice)) serves notice of termination without cause upon the tenant prior to the expiration of the rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the landlord to:

1. Maintain the common premises and prevent the accumulation of stagnant water and to prevent the detrimental effects of moving water when such condition is not the fault of the tenant;

2. Keep any shared or common premises reasonably clean, sanitary, and safe from defects to reduce the hazards of fire or accident;

3. Keep all common premises of the mobile home park, not in the possession of tenants, free of weeds or plant growth noxious and detrimental to the health of the tenants and free from potentially injurious or unsightly objects and condition;

4. Exterminate or make a reasonable effort to exterminate rodents, vermin, or other pests dangerous to the health and safety of the tenant whenever infestation exists on the common premises or whenever infestation occurs in the interior of a mobile home as a result of infestation existing on the common premises;

5. Maintain and protect all utilities provided to the mobile home in good working condition. Maintenance responsibility shall be determined at that point where the normal mobile home utilities 'hook-ups' connect to those provided by the landlord or utility company;
NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the tenant to pay the rental amount at such times and in such amounts as provided for in the rental agreement or as otherwise provided by law and comply with all obligations imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of all municipal, county, and state codes, statutes, ordinances and regulations, and in addition the tenant shall:

(1) Keep the mobile home lot which he occupies and uses as clean and sanitary as the conditions of the premises permit;

(2) Properly dispose of all rubbish, garbage, and other organic or flammable waste, in a clean and sanitary manner at reasonable and regular intervals, and assume all costs of extermination and fumigation for infestation caused by the tenant on the tenant's leased premises;

(3) Not intentionally or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any facilities, equipment, furniture, furnishings, fixtures or appliances provided by the landlord, or permit any member of his family, invitee, or licensee, or any person acting under his control to do so; and

(4) Not permit a nuisance or common waste.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any notice required by this chapter to be given to a tenant shall be served on behalf of the landlord: (a) By delivering a copy personally to the tenant; or (b) if the tenant is absent from the mobile home, by leaving a copy at the mobile home with some person of suitable age and discretion and by sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant's place of residence; or (c) if the tenant is absent from the mobile home and a person of suitable age and discretion cannot be found to leave a copy with, then by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the mobile home and also sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant at the tenant's last known address.

(2) Any notice required by this chapter to be given to the landlord shall be served by the tenant in the same manner as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, or by mail to the landlord at such place as shall be expressly provided in the rental agreement.

(3) The landlord shall state in any notice of eviction required by RCW 59.20.080(1) as now or hereafter amended the specific reason for eviction in a clear and concise manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement, such rental agreement shall include the terms and conditions under which the deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement. If all or part of the deposit may be withheld to indemnify the landlord for damages to the mobile home lot for which the tenant is responsible, the rental agreement shall so specify.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. All moneys paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement shall promptly be deposited by the landlord in a trust account, maintained by the landlord for the purpose of holding such security deposits for tenants of the landlord, in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the landlord shall be entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account deposits. The landlord shall provide the tenant with a written receipt for the deposit and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. If during a tenancy the status of landlord is transferred to another, any sums in the deposit trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor landlord, and the successor landlord shall promptly notify the tenant of the transfer and of the name, address and location of the new depository. The tenant's claim to any moneys paid under this section shall be prior to that of any creditor of the landlord, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Within fourteen days after the termination of the rental agreement and vacation of the mobile home lot, the landlord shall give a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with the payment of any refund due the tenant under the terms and conditions of the rental agreement. No portion of any deposit shall be withheld on account of wear resulting from ordinary use of the mobile home lot.

The statement shall be delivered to the tenant personally or by mail to the last known address. If the landlord fails to give such statement together with any refund due the tenant within the time limits specified above such landlord shall be liable to the tenant for the full amount of the refund due. In any action brought by the tenant to recover the deposit, the prevailing party shall be entitled to the cost of suit or arbitration including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the landlord from proceeding against, and the landlord shall have the right to proceed against a tenant to recover sums exceeding the amount of the tenant's damage or security deposit for damage to the property for which the tenant is responsible together with reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.
Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 190, Laws of 1915 as amended by section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1955 and RCW 19.48.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every hotel and trailer camp shall keep a record of the arrival and departure of its guests in such a manner that the record will be a permanent one for at least one year from the date of departure; PROVIDED, That this requirement shall not apply with respect to guests of tenants in mobile home parks, as defined in RCW 59.20.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 8 through 12 of this 1979 act are each added to chapter 59.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This chapter may be known and cited as the floating home landlord-tenant act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Every duty under this chapter and every act which must be performed as a condition precedent to the exercise of a right or remedy under this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Landlord' means the owner of a floating home moorage business and includes the agents of a landlord;

(2) 'Floating home site' means a portion of a floating home moORAGE located over water designated or otherwise made available and intended by the owner as the moorage location of a floating structure, and its accessory buildings, constructed on a float or nonnavigable barge, the primary use of which is intended for the nontransient human habitation use of the occupants of the floating home. A navigable waterborne boat, ship, or vessel, regardless of size or propellant power, is not a floating home within the meaning and definition of floating home or accessory building(s) set forth in this chapter;

(3) 'Floating home moorage' means any waterfront or wetland facility for the mooring, anchoring, or other securing of one or more floating homes, and the land and water premises on which the moorage is located, any portion of which is rented or held out for rent to others for the placement of one or more floating homes for the primary purpose of production of rental or moorage fee income to the lessor.

The definition of floating home moorage does not apply to those portions of real properties, waterfront, or wetland facilities used by a landlord for the placement of floating homes for the purpose of service, repair, storage without human habitation, use, or for day-to-day transient human habitation use for periods not to exceed thirty days of continuous duration where the transient day-to-day habitation is related to the purpose of service, repair, storage without human habitation use, or transient use;

(4) 'Tenant' means any person, except a transient, who rents a floating home site;

(5) 'Transient' means any person who rents a floating home site for a period of less than one month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter regulates and determines legal rights, remedies, and obligations arising from any rental agreement between a landlord and a tenant regarding a floating home site. All such rental agreements shall be unenforceable to the extent of any conflict with any provision of this chapter. Chapter 59.12 RCW is applicable only in implementation of this chapter and not as an alternative remedy to this chapter, which shall be exclusive where applicable: PROVIDED, That RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, and 59.12.170 do not apply to any rental agreement included under this chapter. RCW 59.18.370 through 59.18.410 are applicable to any action of forcible entry or detention or unlawful detention arising from a tenancy under this chapter; and RCW 90.58.050 applies to floating home moorages and sites. Rentals of floating homes themselves are governed by the Residential Landlord-tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) On and after September 30, 1979, no landlord may offer a floating home site for rent or moorage fee without offering to the prospective tenant a written rental agreement for a term of not less than one year. A prospective tenant who desires to occupy a floating home site for less than a term of one year or more may have the option to be on a month-to-month oral or written lease basis but must waive, in writing, the right to such one year or more term. Except pursuant to such waiver, no landlord shall allow a floating home to be moved into a floating home moorage in this state until a written rental or moorage fee agreement has been signed by the landlord and the tenant and a copy provided the tenant: PROVIDED, That if the landlord allows the tenant to move his or her floating home into a floating home moorage and a written rental or mortgage fee agreement has not been executed by the parties or the rental agreement or moorage fee agreement is silent as to the length of the term and no written waiver of the one-year term requirement has been executed, the term will be presumed to be for one year from the date of occupancy of the moorage site.

(2) The requirements of subsection (1) of this section do not apply if:

(a) The respective floating home moorage or respective part thereof has been acquired or is under imminent threat of condemnation for a public works project;

(b) An employer-employee relationship exists between the landlord and tenant;

(c) The landlord is a lessee or devisee for term of the floating home moorage and, at the time of the offer to rent or for moorage fee to the prospective tenant, the landlord's tenancy or devise will expire in less than the otherwise one-year term, and there exists no option to extend or renew, in which event the offer to rent to the prospective tenant may be on a written month-to-month tenancy conditioned on the tenant being offered a new written rental agreement by the landlord for a term as provided in subsection (1) of this section if the landlord during any such monthly tenancy acquires or is devised a fee or leasehold interest in the floating home moorage; whereby from the date of the acquisition or devise the landlord's fee or leasehold interest would enable a rental or moorage for a term of not less than one year.

(3) This section applies to any floating home site tenancy in existence prior to September 30, 1979, upon expiration of the term of any oral or written rental agreement governing the tenancy.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall contain:

(a) The terms for the payment of rent, including time, place, and person within the county of the floating home moorage to whom the rent or moorage fee shall be delivered, and any additional charges to be paid by the tenant. Additional charges that occur less frequently than monthly shall be itemized when billed to the tenant;

(b) Reasonable rules for applicable land or water guest parking or guest moorage, which shall be clearly stated;

(c) The rules and regulations of the floating home moorage;

(d) The name and address of the person who is the landlord. If the person does not reside in the county where the floating home moorage is located, there shall also be designated by name and address a person who resides in the county where the floating home moorage is located who is authorized to act as agent for the purposes of service of notice and process. If no designation is so made of a person to act as agent, then the person who is named by the landlord to whom rental payments are to be made or delivered within the county of the moorage shall be considered the agent; and

(e) The terms and conditions under which any deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement if any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in the rental agreement.

(2) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall not contain:

(a) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guest parking or guest boat moorage unless a violation of the rules for guest parking or boat moorage occurs: PROVIDED, That a fee may be charged for guest parking or boat moorage which covers an extended period of time of twelve hours or more as defined in the rental agreement;

(b) Any provision which authorizes the towing or impounding of a vehicle or boat except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner or user of the vehicle or boat. 'Vehicle' includes an automobile, truck, tractor, whether of the wheel or crawler type, and aircraft;

(c) Any provision which allows the landlord to increase the rent or alter the due date for rent payment during the term of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the floating home moorage's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year;

(d) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter; or

(e) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an 'entrance fee' or an 'exit fee.'

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A landlord shall not:

(1) Deny any tenant the right to sell the tenant's floating home within a moorage or require the removal of the floating home from the moorage solely because of the sale thereof: PROVIDED, That:

(a) A rental agreement for a fixed term shall be assignable by the tenant to any person to whom the tenant sells or transfers title to the floating home, subject to the approval of the landlord after fifteen days' written notice to the landlord of such intended assignment and the landlord's right to require guarantee of the tenant for the balance of rentals or moorage fees to the end of the assigned term;

(b) The assignee of the rental agreement shall assume all the duties and obligations of the assignor for the remainder of the term of the rental agreement unless, by mutual agreement, a new rental agreement is entered into with the landlord; and

(c) The landlord shall approve or disapprove of the assignment of a rental agreement on the same basis that the landlord approves or disapproves of any new tenant; or

(2) Restrict the tenant's freedom of choice in purchasing goods or services but may reserve the right to approve or disapprove any exterior structural improvements to the floating home or to the floating home moorage site: PROVIDED, That door-to-door solicitation in the floating home moorage may be restricted in the rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Tenancy during the term of a rental agreement may be terminated by the landlord only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Substantial or repeated violation of the rules of the floating home moorage as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen-day period in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, the notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination;

(2) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(3) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which has threatened or interfered with the health, safety, or welfare of the other floating home moorage tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen-day period following conviction, whether appealed, in which to vacate;

(4) Failure of the tenant, after receiving written notice of objection from the landlord, to abate a nuisance for which tenant or tenant's household members or guests are responsible in or about tenant's moorage site, causing substantial damage to the moorage property, or substantially interfering with the quiet and peaceful possession, safety, and enjoyment of other tenants and their properties.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, rental agreements shall be for a term of not less than one year. Any rental agreement for a term of one year and any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term shall be automatically renewed for one additional six-month term unless:
(a) Otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement; or
(b) The landlord notifies the tenant in writing three months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement or of any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in the notice.

A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

(2) Except as in this chapter provided for payment of rent or moorage fee, the tenant may otherwise terminate the rental agreement upon thirty days written notice whenever a change in the location, of not less than twenty miles ground distance each way from the leased site, of the tenant's employment requires a change in the tenant's residence, and shall not be liable for rental following the termination unless after due diligence and reasonable effort the landlord is not able to rent the floating home site at a fair rental or moorage fee. Unless otherwise defined in the rental agreement, fair rental or moorage fee as used in this subsection may not be less than eighty percent nor more than one hundred percent of the rental or moorage fee specified in the terminated agreement. If the landlord is not able to rent the site, the tenant shall remain liable for the rental specified in the rental agreement until the site is rented or the original term or renewal thereof ends.

(3) Any tenant who is a member of the armed forces may terminate a rental agreement and payment of rent from date of vacating the site with less than thirty days notice if the tenant receives change of duty station orders which do not allow greater notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Structural or affixed moorage improvements, purchased and installed by a tenant on a floating home site, shall remain the property of the landlord and may not be removed or disposed of by the tenant prior to or at termination of the tenancy unless otherwise agreed to by the landlord: PROVIDED, That a tenant shall leave the floating home site in substantially the same or better condition than upon taking possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. In any action arising out of this chapter, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Venue for any action arising under this chapter shall be in the district or superior court of the county in which the floating home site is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed so as to preempt any local ordinance which is not inconsistent with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 14 through 26 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

The same is herewith transmitted.

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state shall be deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Such officer shall inform the person of his right to refuse the test, and of his right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he refuses to submit to the test. Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of his breath only: PROVIDED, That if an individual is under arrest for the crime of negligent homicide by motor vehicle as provided in RCW 46.61.520, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in ((RCW 46.61 -566)) section 1 of this 1979 act, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as hereinbefore in this section directed, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving such notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege or permit is so affected shall have the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county wherein he resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state (in which he has a license) in which he has a license.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Newhouse moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 665.

Mr. Chandler spoke in favor of the motion.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Chandler yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Chandler, I'm concerned with the Senate amendment to page 10, line 12 and to page 10, line 34, where they remove the word 'substantial.' What kind of risks are we talking about here?"

Mr. Chandler: "The word 'substantial' was stricken, but I think it was the intention of the Judiciary Committee that put this language in, and certainly the intent of the sponsor of the bill, that there should be a serious list of physical or mental harm being done to the person who faces this one-day in jail. It is not intended to allow a judge to permit a member of the Chamber of Commerce or a bank president not to go to jail just because that's going to be embarrassing to him or her. The intent is that someone who has a very real need not to go to jail because of some risk to their well-being and then, in that case, for the judge to put that in writing and clarify what that reason was."

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the motion to concur.

MOTION

Mr. Knowles moved that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 665 be deferred until Monday.

Mr. Polk spoke against the motion to defer, and Mr. Knowles spoke for it.

Mr. Polk spoke again in opposition to the motion.

Mr. Smith (R) spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Knowles: "I don't think Mr. Newhouse was speaking to the motion. Representative Dunlap and I have cooperated for the past two weeks in trying to be floor managers to these concurrences. I wasn't consulted about this bill running and that violates a sort of working agreement we have had for the past two weeks. Had you come to me, I would have gone to Representative Smith and asked if he were ready for this bill to go. Had he assured me he was not, we would have had no problem. Representative Dunlap and I have done that constantly. I don't think it is unreasonable that we do that now, as we have been doing for the past weeks."

Mr. Dunlap spoke against the motion to defer.

Mr. Ehlers demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to defer consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 665, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 53; not voting, 4.

Not voting: Representatives Grimm, Martinis, McDonald, Valle.

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding) stated the question before the House to be the motion to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 665.

MOTION

Mr. Smith moved that the question be divided, and each Senate amendment be considered separately.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Smith, is it your intent that you would challenge only the one major amendment having to do with the driving while under the influence, and would it be possible that we divide out only that one amendment?"

Mr. Smith (R): "Representative Newhouse, I only object to the amendment to page 2, line 26. I understand there are others who object to other amendments."

The motion was carried.

On motion of Mr. Chandler, the House concurred in the two Senate amendments to page 2, line 22.

Mr. Smith (R) moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendment to page 2, line 26.

Representatives Smith (R) and Knowles spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Chandler spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Knowles, in this section we are now considering, I believe in the mid-60's or so, that it was presented to the people of the state under an initiative movement, and I think it passed by better than a fifty percent majority. Is that correct?"

Mr. Knowles: "I couldn't give you the tally on it, but it did pass the vote of the people."

Mr. Erak spoke against the motion, and Mr. Knowles again spoke in favor of it.

MOTION

Ms. Sommers moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to page 2, line 26.

Representatives Sommers and Becker spoke against the motion to concur, and Mr. Rohrbach spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Chandler yielded to question by Mr. Smith (R).

Mr. Smith (R): "Representative Chandler, on the motion to concur with the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1308, how did you vote?"

Mr. Chandler: "That's totally irrelevant to this question."

Mr. Smith (R) spoke against the motion to concur.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Page 2, line 26 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 665, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 38; not voting, 4.

Not voting: Representatives Eberle, Martinis, Owen, Valle.

On motion of Mr. Newhouse, the House concurred in the remaining Senate amendments.

Not voting: Representatives Haley, Martinis, Valle.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2095, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Marsh, Henry and Talley):

Creating additional superior court judge positions.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 10th Day ex. sess., March 30, 1979.)

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the committee amendment striking everything after the enacting clause.

The Clerk read the following amendment to the committee amendment by Representatives Smith (R) and Dawson:

On page 2, line 11 of the committee amendment, strike "1981" and insert "1980"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Smith (R) withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Knowles moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 3 of the amendment after "Sec. 6." strike all the material down to and including "1980." on page 4

Representatives Knowles and Smith (R) spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment, and Representatives Newhouse and Taller spoke against them.

Representatives Knowles and Smith (R) spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Newhouse again opposed them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Dunlap.

Mr. Dunlap: "Representative Newhouse, is the interpretation of this amendment, provided by the last speaker, your understanding of the purpose of the amendment?"

Mr. Newhouse: "No, the reference to constitutionality should not have been in such an explanation. A vote yes for the amendment will allow for the appointment of judges by the Governor."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment by Representative Knowles, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 45; not voting, 7.
FORTY-FIRST DAY, APRIL 30, 1979

Speaker Baghval called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Mr. Blair moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:
On page 4 of the amendment, following line 24 insert a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 267, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and to chapter 2.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All judges just appointed or elected to the courts covered by chapter 2.08 RCW after June 30, 1979, shall be members of the Washington public employees' retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Knowles: "Mr. Speaker, I challenge the order of this amendment on the basis of scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears the amendment offered by Representative Blair is not germane to the committee amendment. It provides for the election of superior court judges after June 30, 1979, and the House committee amendment pertains to the appointment of additional court judges in certain counties. In accordance with our House Rule 31, it states: 'No proposition or motion on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.' The Speaker will rule the amendment is not germane."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2095.

Mr. Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Keller yielded to question by Mr. Owen.

Mr. Owen: "Representative Keller, you were the original sponsor of the Thurston-Mason County section of the bill before they brought all these bills together, and it's my understanding that it is not your intention that the new judge would replace the court commissioners in Thurston or Mason County by putting in this new fifth judge. The judge will not replace the court commissioner, is that right?"

Mr. Keller: "It's my understanding that this is an additional judge to take care of the additional case load and work load in the courts."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2095 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; nays, 0; not voting, 2.

On page 4, beginning on line 5 strike "or increasing patronage of a bowling business at an established bowling center"

On page 15, beginning on line 12 strike "or primarily engaged in the operation of a bowling center"

On page 22, beginning on line 31 strike "or primarily engaged in the operation of a bowling center,"

Representatives Tilly and Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Struthers spoke against them.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment by Representatives Tilly, Kreidler and Pruitt, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 48; not voting, 5.

(a) That compulsive gambling is a serious social problem and there is evidence that availability of gambling increases the risk of becoming a compulsive gambler; and

(b) That Washington, having legalized certain types of gambling, has an obligation to provide a program of treatment for those persons who become addicted to gambling to the extent that it seriously disrupts lives and families.

(2) For purposes of this section, 'compulsive gambler' means a person with a progressive behavior disorder in which the victim has a psychologically uncontrollable preoccupation and urge to gamble.

(3) The Washington state gambling commission shall establish a pilot project for a period of two years for the purpose of treating compulsive gamblers. The commission shall include its conclusions and recommendations in its 1980 annual report to the governor and the legislature."

On motion of Mr. Greengo, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Mr. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Greengo explained the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "I'm wondering, Representative Greengo, it is a very big bill, and I'm wondering if this bill is large enough—how many camels can get into the tent now?"

Mr. Greengo: "We've already got a camel's head into the tent now, so I don't know how much more will get in."

Mr. Tilly spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Ms. North.

Ms. North: "Representative Greengo, I'm a little concerned about the local government issue of this bill. With the expansion of bingo, golf calcuttas, slot machines, and all these goodies, there's going to be some expansion of monitoring by the local government forces, and I can see this as a dollar amount. How would that be recovered by the local governments?"

Mr. Greengo: "As I understand it, the gambling fees, the money is to be allocated for local law enforcement. I've heard there is a problem. There is nothing the state has done to force a local government to, in fact, spend the money in law enforcement. Therein is your problem. They are getting the money now. They are getting back from the results of the fees and the licenses and taxes, and it's up to the local government to take that money and pump it into their police departments. There seems to be some tendency not to do that. We did not address that problem in this bill."

Ms. North spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "Representative Greengo, is it correct that under the terms of Senate Bill No. 2044, a bowling alley cannot only conduct social card games, but also punch boards and pull tabs?"

Mr. Greengo: "That is true. They generally have an associated restaurant and that's generally where the pull tabs and punch boards are. The Liquor Control Board has ruled that if the bowling establishment doesn't directly control and run the associated restaurant, they cannot have the pull tabs and punch boards. There is one or two such establishments in the state simply because they lease out the restaurant, and the Liquor Board has determined that they can't have pull tabs and punch boards. It's really not changing the way it is today. Most bowling alleys today have pull tabs and punch boards."

Representatives Chandler and McDonald spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Warnke spoke in favor of it.

Mr. King demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House, and the bill failed to pass the House by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 54; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Eng, Valle.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 491, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; nays, 0; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Eng, Valle.

Engrossed House Bill No. 491, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Fuller, having served on the prevailing side, served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House failed to pass the House.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Tilly: "Mr. Speaker, I believe under House Rule 68, there has been intervening business."
Speaker Bagnariol: "There has not been intervening business affecting that issue."

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2062, by Senators Jones, Fleming, North, Morrison and Conner:

Authorizing municipal performing and visual arts centers.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Greengo moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 21 after "Sec. 5." insert "Section 13, chapter 236, Laws of 1967 and RCW 67.28.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any seller, as defined in RCW 82.08.010, who is required to collect any tax under RCW 67.28.180 for any municipality shall pay over such tax to such municipality as provided in RCW 67.28.200 (and such tax). If the municipality for which the tax is collected has entered into binding obligations as of the effective date of this act, to construct or pay for the construction of public stadium facilities and/or convention center facilities then the taxes which are collected up to the amount equal to the municipalities obligations on the effective date of this act shall be deducted from the amount of tax such seller would otherwise be required to collect and to pay over to the department of revenue under chapter 82.08 RCW."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like you to rule on whether or not Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062 is eligible for action by the House in view of the cut-off which says that measures which have no fiscal impact should not be considered following such and such date. I might point out that proponents of the bill say this bill has no fiscal impact. It strictly allows a broad authority for use of money already in their account."

Speaker Bagnariol declared the House to be ease until 1:30 p.m.

Speaker Bagnariol called the House to order.

SPEAKER BAGNARIOL'S RULING

Speaker Bagnariol: "Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062 is still eligible for consideration by this body based on our cut-off."

Speaker Bagnariol declared the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Greengo.

Representatives Greengo and Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Greengo, the first sentence of the amendment says that if a municipality has levied a tax they do receive it. The second part then refers to the deduction against the state money and that is only to those that have contracts as of the effective date of the act, so that anybody who enters into a contractual obligation or bond against them after the effective date of the act would not have to do that. Could you clarify what your intent is and if you think this language does satisfy that?"

Mr. Greengo: "Well, Representative Sommers, I think you have stated the wording of the amendment correctly. In other words, if a municipality or county has made an obligation against this hotel/motel tax—let's say a bond issue or some other obligation they have incurred—they would continue to be allowed that deduction of that tax; however, if in the future, after the effective date of this act, they authorize any sort of facility the tax would simply not be deductible. For instance, if it were two percent you would have to pay the four and a half percent states sales tax plus the two percent hotel/motel tax. It would be a total of six and a half percent. The public would be very well aware that you were adding a new tax rather than coming along and slipping this money out of the state general fund. All I'm saying is that if people want to build things like bridges, or art facilities, or stadiums or anything else, that's fine, let them go ahead and do it, but let them tax themselves to do it and not come in without essentially anyone's knowledge and make an appropriation out of the general fund."

Mr. Flanagan again spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Greengo to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 67; nays, 23; not voting, 8.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Flanagan:

On page 5, after line 36 insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 67.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After the effective date of this 1979 act, taxes shall not be levied under RCW 67.28.180 unless the project for which the tax revenue shall be used has been approved by the legislature: PROVIDED, That taxes sufficient to repay bonds issued prior to the effective date of this 1979 act may be levied without such approval."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Flanagan withdrew the amendment.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Sommers, Dunlap, Thompson and Tilly:

Beginning on page 5, line 33 after "chapter," strike all the material down to and including "hereunder," on page 6, line 1

Representatives Sommers and Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Fuller and Becker spoke against it.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Ms. Sommers: "I'm very reluctant to say that I feel my motives have been impugned by the last speaker and I want to say that I do support the general thrust of the bill for all counties and cities and that is the help and construction of art centers, convention facilities and so forth, but I do oppose the use of the money for operating purposes or for public purposes for all counties, including King County."

Representatives Flanagan and Dunlap spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Barr spoke against it.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Bond, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representative Greengo to page 5, line 21 was adopted.

Representatives Bond, Polk and Van Dyken spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Greengo and Charnley spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to reconsider the Greengo amendment to page 5, line 21, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 34; not voting, 6.

Not voting: Representatives Blair, Newhouse, Taller, Thompson, Whiteside, Wilson.

Speaker Bagnariol stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of the Greengo amendment to page 5, line 21.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Greengo to page 5, line 21 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 58; not voting, 2.
FORTY-FIRST DAY, APRIL 30, 1979

Not voting: Representatives Maxie, Newhouse.

Mr. Flanagan moved adoption of the following amendment:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 67.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:
After the effective date of this 1979 act, taxes shall not be levied under RCW 67.28.180 unless the project for which the tax revenue shall be used has been approved by the legislature: PROVIDED, That taxes sufficient to repay bonds issued prior to the effective date of this 1979 act may be levied without such approval."

Representatives Flanagan and Greengo spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Charnley spoke against it.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Ms. Becker, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representatives Sommers, Dunlap, Thompson and Tilly to page 5, line 33 passed.

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson: "Representative Sommers, this whole law was authorized back in 1971 that allowed several of our major communities to construct facilities. Is there anything in the law that terminates this collection of this tax? In other words, once the bonded obligation was paid off, does that automatically end the collection of the tax as far as the local jurisdiction is concerned?"

Ms. Sommers: "No, Representative Patterson, it does not. The wording is very loose and vague. It can continue to be collected, or I should say, deducted against the general fund."

Mr. Patterson: "Then in responding to your answer, if we were to extend the opportunity to use these moneys for the promotional materials to attract tourists and so on, then would we, in effect, under the present law be authorizing forever roughly a two percent deduction from the state general fund for that purpose?"

Ms. Sommers: "With regard to the tax on hotels/motels, yes. When you offer an expenditure to government for free, so to speak, they tend to go on forever."

Representatives Patterson, Sommers and Fuller spoke against the motion, and Representatives Barr, McGinnis and Zimmerman spoke in favor of it.

The motion was lost.

Speaker Bagarriol stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Flanagan to page 5, line 36.

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Flanagan to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 36; nays, 57; not voting, 5.

Voting nay: Representatives Addision, Bauer, Becker, Bender, Berentson, Blair, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Craswell, Deccio, Douthwaite, Eberle, Ehlers, Erak, Erickson, Fuller, Galloway,

Not voting: Representatives Dawson, Maxie, McGinnis, Owen, Williams.

On motion of Ms. Sommers, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 6, line 4 after "law" insert "; PROVIDED, That no taxes which are levied and collected pursuant to chapter 67.28 RCW may be expended on operation of such facilities after December 31, 1982"

On motion of Mr. Dunlap, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Charnley spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Barr spoke against it.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 191. FOR THE ARTS COMMISSION—ART WORK ALLOWANCE

In accordance with RCW 43.17.200, all state agencies or departments shall expend, as a nondeductible item, out of any moneys appropriated for the original construction of any state building, an amount of one-half of one percent of the appropriation for the acquisition of works of art which may be an integral part of the structure, attached to the structure, detached within or outside of the structure, or can be exhibited by the agency in other public facilities. In case the amount shall not be required in toto or in part for any project, such unrequired amounts may be accumulated and expended for art in other projects of the agency. For the purpose of this section, 'building' does not include highway construction sheds, warehouses, or other buildings of a temporary nature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 192. The director of general administration shall transfer to the department of social and health services the facility known as Northern State Hospital, along with all attached real estate under the jurisdiction of the department of general administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 193. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 82, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., the house of representatives, the senate, and the permanent statutory committees shall pay expenses quarterly to the department of general administration facilities and services revolving fund for services rendered by the department for operations, maintenance, and supplies relating to buildings, structures, and facilities utilized by the legislature for the biennium beginning July 1, 1979.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 194. The word 'agency' used herein means and includes every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board, and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

The phrase 'agencies headed by elective officials' used herein means those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it does not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above-mentioned officials serve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 195. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of financial management, with the approval of the governor, may:

(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment: PROVIDED, That the director of the office of financial management shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative committee; or the judicial branch of state government: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved appropriations or to incur a deficiency and any obligations so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revisions of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues;

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds;

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above; and

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1979, for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies, or services for delivery after July 1, 1979: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1979.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 196. In the event that receipts are less than those appropriated in the budget from any source, expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 195 of this act. Receipts for purposes of this section include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 197. State funds appropriated for the specific purpose of matching federal funds and which are not required wholly or in part to qualify for such federal funds shall be placed in reserve and shall revert to the fund from which appropriated at the end of the respective fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 198. Any programs which are supported in whole or in part by federal funds shall not receive any additional state funds for the programs in the event that federal funds are reduced or eliminated for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 199. Unless otherwise provided for by this act with respect to any specific agency, program, or revenue source, any receipts from federal or other sources, or from gifts or grants, in excess of estimates for the budget expenditures as approved by the legislature and which are not otherwise available for general governmental purposes, may be received and allotted by the governor in accordance with RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 200. If a scheduled program or project funded by the appropriations contained in this act has not been fully implemented during any quarter of the respective fiscal year, then the office of financial management shall withhold the equivalent amount of the appropriation and full time equivalent staff years from such program or project and shall place the same in reserve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. Whenever allocations are made from the governor’s emergency appropria­tion to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of financial management shall direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution, bond retirement and interest, and interest on registered warrants, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 39.34.130 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of financial management, which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor’s budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services, and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. The chairmen of the senate committee on ways and means and the house appropriations committee shall review monthly reports of state agency expenditures prepared by the legisla­tive evaluation and accountability program and shall advise their respective committee members of substan­tial deviations from an agency’s allotment expenditure plan. The chairmen may request from an agency, or the office of financial management, such information as may be necessary to determine the reasons for such deviations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. The office of financial management shall place in reserve status 3% of the general fund—state appropriations contained in this act. Such moneys shall remain in reserve status and may not be authorized for expenditure through the allotment process in any fiscal quarter unless the govern­nor determines that projected economic conditions warrant additional expenditures: PROVIDED, That for institutions of higher education the requirements of this section are in addition to any enrollment reserve requirements set forth in section 207 of this act.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to sections 34, 38, or 100 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. In accordance with the provisions of this section, the office of financial management shall use the allotment process during the 1979–81 biennium to control the funding of the for­mula portion of the instruction services program of all the institutions of higher education. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, deviations in the formula entitlements for faculty staffing shall be the controlling factor for the four-year institutions of higher education while full time equivalent student enroll­ment will be the controlling factor for the community college system. For the purpose of this section, the ‘contract level’ is defined as the level upon which the budget is based, and the ‘base level’ is defined as the level corresponding to the prior year’s actual enrollment level. Controls shall be applied to each four-year institution separately and to the community college system as a total entity. ‘Growth funding’ is defined as that portion of the state general fund appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level.
Growth funds may be allotted or placed in reserve at the option of the institution or system. Unearned growth funds will be reverted to the state general fund prior to the end of the fiscal year in which such growth fails to materialize. If The Evergreen State College’s enrollments for the first year of the biennium exceed the contract level, additional funding will be considered. Olympia Technical Community College shall not become comprehensive and shall offer only courses essential to vocational education. No expendi­tures shall be allowed for the rental of off-campus facilities by community college district number twelve for housing students which would reduce regularly scheduled on-campus class enrollments.

Reversions are not required when an institution’s faculty formula entitlement as generated by actual enrollment, or in the case of the community colleges the actual annual average full time equivalent student enrollment, is within a set range of the contracted level. The allowable tolerances are as follows: University of Washington, Washington State University, and the community colleges as a system, 1 percent; Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, and Western Washington University, 2 percent; and
The Evergreen State College, 3 percent.

Contract enrollments for the second year of the biennium will be renegotiated if the first year’s actual enrollment falls below the base level of the first year of the biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. Leases with purchase options are prohibited without prior legislative approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. It is the expressed intention of the legislature that agency operational activity shall be regularly monitored by the office of financial management, under its statutory authority relating to the allotment control function, in order to limit fluctuations in the respective fiscal year spending.
patterns which tend to inflate the expenditures in the second fiscal year of the biennium. Particular control emphasis shall be placed on those instances in which the full time equivalent staff years authorization is deliberately delayed in order to increase the agency's full time equivalent staff years as substantiation for the second fiscal year of the ensuing biennial request. Unanticipated receipts, which are authorized by the governor and expended by any state agency, shall be allotted, monitored, and controlled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. In order to determine distribution of the funds appropriated in section 14(10) and (11) of this act, the office of financial management shall employ the following procedures:

(1) Determine the actual average salaries in the 1978–79 year for the following groups of employees in each district:

(a) Central and unit FTE administrators in the basic education program (00), the secondary vocational program (30), and in the general support program (97).
(b) Other FTE certificated staff in the basic education program (00), the secondary vocational program (30) and in the general support program (97).

(2) Place each district's 1978–79 staff, referenced in subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section, on the education and experience table developed in accordance with actual local district practice.

(a) Determine a composite district education and experience factor for central and unit administrators as defined in subsection (1)(a) of this section.
(b) Determine a composite education and experience factor for other basic education certificated staff as defined in subsection (1)(b) of this section.

(3) Calculate each district's average base salaries as follows:

(a) Subsection (1)(a) amount divided by subsection (2)(a) amount;
(b) Subsection (1)(b) amount divided by subsection (2)(b) amount.

(4) Calculate state-wide average base salaries as follows:

(a) Sum of all districts (subsection (3)(a) amount times subsection (1)(a) FTE staff) divided by the sum of all districts (subsection (1)(a) FTE's).
(b) The sum of all districts (subsection (3)(b) amount times subsection (1)(b) FTE staff) divided by the sum of all districts (subsection (1)(b) FTE's).

(5) Calculate percentage salary increases for each district as follows:

(a) If subsection (3)(a) amount is greater than subsection (4)(a) amount, percent increase equals 6%.
(b) If subsection (3)(a) amount is less than or equals subsection (4)(a) amount, percent increase equals amount necessary to drive a system-wide 7% increase.
(c) If subsection (3)(b) amount is greater than subsection (4)(b) amount, percent increase equals 6%.
(d) If subsection (3)(b) amount is less than or equals subsection (4)(b) amount, percent increase equals amount necessary to drive a system-wide 7% increase.

(6) Apply percentage salary increase for each district as follows:

(a) Aggregate total 1978–79 basic education FTE certificated staff and state-funded certificated staff in categorical programs.
(b) Divide 1978–79 basic education FTE central and unit administrators by subsection (6)(a) amount.
(c) Subtract amount determined in subsection (6)(b) from 1.00.
(d) Multiply amount determined in subsection (5) (a) or (b) by amount determined in subsection (6)(b).
(e) Multiply amount determined in subsection (5) (c) or (d) by amount determined in subsection (6)(c).
(f) Add amounts determined in subsection (6) (d) and (e).
(g) Apply subsection (6)(f) amount to 1978–80 actual salaries (prior to applying increases) for all 1978–80 basic education FTE entitlement staff including classified employees and to the 1979–80 unimproved actual salaries for all 1979–80 state-supported FTE staff including classified employees in the following programs: Vocational-technical institutes, state institutions, pupil transportation, handicapped excess cost, and special needs.

(7) Apply incremental fringe benefits to the salary increase amounts determined in subsection (6)(g) as follows:

(a) For the 1979–80 certificated staff — certificated staff salary amount in subsection (6)(g) times 0.0613.
(b) For the 1979–80 classified staff — classified staff salary amount in subsection (6)(g) times 0.1313.

(8) Determine 1980–81 salary increase percentages for each district as follows:

(a) Improve 1979–80 actual salaries (prior to applying increases) by amounts indicated in subsection (6)(g).

(b) Place 1979–80 staff on the education and experience table referenced in subsection (2).
(c) Calculate average base salaries as indicated in subsection (3).
(d) Calculate state-wide average base salaries as indicated in subsection (4).
(e) Perform conditional tests as indicated in subsection (5).
(f) Apply percentage increases as indicated in subsection (6) with the following changes:

(i) Substitute 1979–80 for 1978–79 in subsection (6) (a) and (b).

(g) Apply incremental fringe benefit factors to the 1980–81 salary increase amounts as follows:

(i) For 1980–81 certificated staff, 0.0648.
(ii) For 1980–81 classified staff, 0.1348.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. In order to ensure adherence with the provisions of subsections (3), (4), and (10) of section 14 of this act, the director of the office of financial management shall review salary increases granted by each four-year institution of higher education, each community college district, and each local school district. If the director's review indicates that salary increases granted by a four-year institution of higher education, a community college district, or a local school district exceeds the provisions of subsection (3), (4), or (10) of section 14 of this act, the director shall withhold an amount of state funds otherwise distributable to that educational unit equal to the amount by which the salary increase exceeded the above-referenced provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. The superintendent of public instruction and the director of the state board for community college education, in conjunction with the director of the office of financial management, shall develop rules and regulations directing placement of local educational units' employees with nonstandard teaching certificates on the state-wide education and experience schedules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. Any rate increases proposed for the legal services revolving fund or the general administration facilities and services revolving fund, or any change in the method of calculating changes from those funds, shall be subject to approval by the director of the office of financial management prior to implementation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. To obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the aeronautics division in the department of transportation, in accordance with chapter 39.34 RCW, is hereby authorized to lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the department of transportation and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the department of transportation is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance, and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act, no state agency may purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the department of transportation and without prior approval of the director of the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act; the rules and regulations under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. State agencies shall not receive or make a contractual agreement to receive any donation of real property or an interest therein which commits the agency to assume on a current basis or request at a future time appropriated funds for operating, development, or acquisition costs without prior approval of the legislative budget committee or the senate ways and means committee and house appropriations committees if the legislature is in session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. Any capital improvements or capital project involving construction or major expansion of a state office facility, to include district headquarters, detachment offices, and off-campus faculty offices shall be reviewed by the department of general administration for possible consolidation and compliance with state office standards prior to allotment of funds. The intent of the requirement imposed by this section is to eliminate duplication and reduce total office space requirements where feasible, while ensuring proper service to the public.

To effectively carry out the provisions of this act, the governor may assign responsibility for planning, engineering, construction, and other related activities to any appropriate agency.

Reappropriations shall be limited to the unexpended balances remaining June 30, 1979, in the current appropriation for each project.

The governor, through the director of the office of financial management, may authorize a transfer of appropriation authority provided for a capital project which is in excess of the amount required for the completion of such project to another capital project for which the appropriation is insufficient. No such transfer shall be used to expand the capacity of any facility beyond that intended by the legislature in making the appropriation. Such transfers may be effected only between capital appropriations to a specific department, commission, agency, or institution of higher education and only between capital projects which are funded from the same fund or account.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the governor, through the director of the office of financial management, from authorizing the transfer of appropriation authority for capital projects for the parks and recreation commission, department of fisheries, department of game, department of natural resources, and the interagency committee for outdoor recreation which utilize the following funds: General Fund—ORA (Ref. 28), General Fund—ORA (Ref. 18), General Fund—ORA (Int. 215), and General Fund—ORA (LWCF). The governor, through the director of the office of financial management, may authorize similar transfers which utilize General Fund—ORA (HJR 52) funds, but only with the prior approval of the senate ways and means committee and the house appropriations committee if the legislature is in session, or the legislative budget committee if the legislature is not in session. Such transfers shall only be made to a specific department, commission, agency, or institution of higher education and only between capital projects which are funded from the same fund or account.

A report of any transfer effected under this section shall be filed with the legislative auditor by the director of the office of financial management within thirty days of the date the transfer is effected. The legislative auditor shall review and compile these filings and periodically report thereon to the legislative auditor.

The depreciation schedule developed by the department of personnel used in rent assessments of state employees living in state-owned housing shall be based on the actual housing cost to the state including any maintenance and interest costs depreciated over thirty years. Utility charges shall be at cost.

If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1979."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 30, 1979

TO THE HONORABLE,
THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval, SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 29 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state government."

This bill would establish two new legislative review committees, and provide the necessary procedures to review any rule promulgated by a state agency. The purpose of this review would be: (1) to determine if agency rules and/or amendments to rules are within the intent of the statute which the rule implements; or (2) to determine if agency rules have been adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of the law. If the review committees determine that there has been a violation, their objections are filed with the Washington State Code Reviser who must publish the committee's notice of objection in the Washington State Register and the Washington Administrative Code.

The authority to promulgate administrative rules comes from the legislature. There is no question that the legislature, as a body, can review administrative rules that have been previously used and thereby determine whether to draft new laws to restrict or more specifically define the overall rulemaking authority. However, a Separation of Powers problem arises when the legislature reviews each individual rule as the executive agency promulgates it.

Substitute House Bill No. 29 violates the Separation of Powers Doctrine in two ways. It interferes with the ability of the executive branch to perform its constitutional function, and it duplicates the role of the judiciary.

It is the constitutional duty of the executive branch to implement the law, i.e., to apply the legislature's general laws to specific situations as they occur. This is day to day management which the executive branch performs within the authority granted to it. The executive branch needs stable authority to be effective and cannot function if each management decision must be continually defended against the legislature's after the fact determinations.

There is also a real question of the necessity for a formal legislative review of all administrative rules. Indeed, few specific examples have been cited in defense of the proposed legislation. Whether the executive branch is acting within its authority is a question that the state's Constitution gives to the judiciary department to decide, not the legislature. Yet this bill would... give that function to a legislative review committee by allowing them to determine, in retro­spect, what their legislative intent was and consequently what the authority granted was.

Since this bill would be interfering with effective executive services to the public and duplicating the job of the judiciary, both of which do not serve the best interest of this state's taxpayers, I cannot support it. Particularly, when there are currently adequate safeguards available to ensure proper administrative rulemaking that do not violate the Constitution's Separation of Powers.

If there is a problem with administrative rulemaking, the legislature can alleviate it by more clearly setting forth its intent in statute or other formal methods. In this way, the executive department can look to and rely on recorded tangible evidence for guidance. This allows the executive department to function within explicit authority and provides the judiciary adequate evidence to review the executive's authority. This is the relationship set out in the state Constitution and it should not be weakened. In addition, the legislature has available to it a variety of informal mechanisms that can operate effectively to mitigate against administrative departures from intent.

For the foregoing reasons, I have determined to veto Substitute House Bill No. 29.

Respectfully submitted,

DIXY LEE RAY, Governor.

MOTION

Mr. Ehlers moved that the House pass Substitute House Bill No. 29 notwithstanding the Governor's veto.

Speaker Berentson declared the House to be at ease.

Speaker Berentson called the House to order.

Representatives Ehlers and Taller spoke in favor of the motion to pass Substitute House Bill No. 29 notwithstanding the veto of the Governor.

On motion of Mr. King, the remarks of Representatives Ehlers and Taller were ordered placed in the Journal.

Mr. Ehlers: "Substitute House Bill No. 29 passed this legislature unanimously in the House and in the Senate. It's a measure that all of us on this floor, I think, are concerned with—the concept of Separation of Powers. It would certainly seem so in the Governor's veto message. The importance of this bill and this vote is not a matter of personality; that's not the issue. The issue is whether or not the legislature is going to be a full partner in the system of government that we have. We dealt with the sunset bill two years ago (which was legislative oversight). This is also legislative oversight. It is not legislative interference. We have a responsibility in this legislature to make sure that the laws we pass are executed—carried out in the way we have passed that legislation. In the discussion with the Governor prior to her veto, we stressed the importance of this bill as it relates to the process. By that attempt, I think all of us in this House at least, assured her that we did not wish to get involved in the rights of the executive.

"A similar bill passed the Senate, sponsored by Senators Odegaard, Walgren, Wilson, Donohue, Rasmussen, Day and others. It is a much tougher concept. One that a good number of us suggested the Governor would probably veto because it did interfere. This bill does not.

"I want to take just a couple of minutes to tell you about and react to the Governor's message. She indicated that it violates the Separation of Powers Doctrine in two ways. One, it interferes with the executive branch to carry out the laws; and two, infringes upon and duplicates the powers of the judiciary to interpret the laws. The best way to respond to the Governor's veto message is to remind you precisely what that bill does and does not do. It is clear that the bill does not interfere with the executive agency rule-making authority, nor does it usurp the law of the judiciary. We drafted this bill very carefully to make the new legislative review mechanism totally consistent with the current administrative rule-making procedures under the current RCW's. Nothing in this bill gives the legislature or its review committee the powers to impede, suspend or annul an agency rule. In fact, we are aware of every constitutional question regarding the Separation of Powers and the full review of processes which have been raised in other states. The legislature, this body and the Senate, has rejected the power to suspend such a rule. We leave that up to the legislature as a whole, to the committee process, and to the passing of such legislation.
"The only sanction contained in the legislation is publication of a notice of objection in the Washington Register. It is up to an agency to change its rules to conform with the recommendations of the two review committees, acting jointly. That's the only time. Such notice will not interfere with 'the ability of the executive branch to perform its constitutional function.' In fact, the systematic legislative excluding of agency rules, proposed by this bill, may have the opposite effect of clarifying legislative intent for agencies and helping them to carry out the difficult tasks they have.

"One other item, and that's the judicial. There's nothing in this bill that duplicates or infringes upon the functions of the judiciary. Nothing in this bill authorizes the legislative branch to determine the rights or obligations of any controversy. The bill provides no method for requiring anyone to do anything, nor from prohibiting anyone from doing anything pursuant to an agency rule. In short, the review process in no way affects the legal impact of the agency rules. In fact, the bill contains an express declaration of intent to avoid encroachment on the judicial branch. Section 9 of the bills says, 'in no way can this act serve to establish a presumption as to the legality or constitutionality of a rule in any subsequent judicial proceedings interpreting such rules."

"It was pointed out in the executive veto message that there was no indication that this bill was necessary; that there was not violations by any agency of the rulemaking authority. I sent out a letter to a number of different groups about specific examples. I have pages of them—pages of lawsuits—where the agency was overruled because they were outside the legislative intent. DSHS—I have examples by the Association of Washington Cities, I have examples by the Association of Washington Counties, the Association of Washington Business. I have examples from numerous legislators. The preponderance of evidence is such that this bill is necessary, and I believe, in summary, that if we are going to continue to establish ourselves as a partner in the system of government, this issue is far more important than any personalities involved. I urge support of the veto override."

Mr. Taller: "I also rise to support the motion to override the Governor's veto. I think, as Representative Ehlers has stated, that this is a very critical item and it has been approached on a bi-partisan basis. All through the deliberations people on both sides of the aisle had attempted to work together to come up with a reasonable approach. We had informal conferences with the Senate on this and again it was bi-partisan. I think we have to approach an override of a veto very carefully. In effect what we are saying is that the legislative body disagrees with the Governor and believes the Governor has made a serious mistake. That's what an override is. It's a message saying that we insist on our position. I think it's critical on this bill because what we're talking about is legislative oversight—bi-partisan oversight by a select committee of both houses. This currently is not occurring and I believe that's one reason why we don't have more examples of problems that the public identifies with rules. The public really sees the rules and has to live with them. We pass the laws then we have the bureaucrats write interpretations of those rules. I believe right now there are many things occurring we can't identify that are causing problems that we in the legislature are being blamed for. Basically, what we're seeing are the bureaucrats interpreting our laws and not the way we really intended.

"Many times on this floor, when a bill comes up, people will say this is necessary because it will really change the law the way we operate it. I disagree with that because what we're saying is that somebody has gone against our will as stated in the law without coming back to us to change it. In addition, the argument was brought up that the standing committees could do this. I don't think that's possible. When you look at the fact that we'd have to have joint meetings of standing committees and we can't even get a conference committee on the budget of these two houses, how are we going to get all of the standing committees of the legislature to meet and address the problems? I think we have to look at it in that regard.

"What we're doing is trying to establish the legislature as an equal partner in the balance of powers as I believe the framers of the Constitution intended. That we are to set policy, the executive is supposed to be the chief administrative function and in this state we have many executive departments when we have independent elected officials, so it isn't the Governor that we're talking about or looking at, and then with the judiciary doing their interpretation. No way do I feel that this bill infringes upon areas of equal power in this state, but this bill does put us back into the position of legislative oversight. It's a very responsible position; not a very hard-nosed approach, like saying that we're going to suspend things, because I have serious questions on that from a constitutional point of view. I would urge your support of this motion to override the Governor's veto on Substitute House Bill No. 29."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taller yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Taller, isn't it true that under existing law if an agency exceeds its administrative authority granted to them under the statutes and makes a rule that exceeds that authority, the agency can be taken to court and that would be the remedy?"

Mr. Taller: "I believe that's true, Representative Flanagan, but I think that's a pretty expensive remedy for the public to have to take, to force them to court. We hope this bill would circumvent that and make it easier to identify the problems."

Mr. Flanagan spoke against the motion, and Mr. Polk spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 29 notwithstanding the veto of the Governor, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 89; nays, 9; not voting, 0.

Substitute House Bill No. 29 notwithstanding the veto of the Governor, having received the two-thirds constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Taller, Substitute House Bill No. 29 was ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

Speaker Berentson called on Mr. Amen to preside.

Sec. 3. Section 14, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.279 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes levied and collected under RCW 35.58.273 shall be credited to a special fund in the treasury of the municipality imposing such tax. Such taxes shall be levied and used solely for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, equipping or operating a publicly owned mass transportation system, or contracting for the services thereof, or to pay or secure the payment of all or part of the principal of or interest on any general obligation bonds or revenue bonds issued for public transportation capital purposes and until withdrawn for use, the moneys accumulated in such fund or funds may be invested by the treasurer of such municipality in the manner authorized by the legislative body of the municipality.

If any of the revenue from any such special excise tax shall have been pledged by any municipality to secure the payment of any bonds as herein authorized, then as long as such pledge shall be in effect the legislature shall not withdraw from the municipality the authority to levy and collect the tax. (Up to the date of this 1969 act) After August 11, 1969, any municipality is authorized to pledge that the tax authorized by RCW 35.58.273 shall be levied, collected and applied as provided (in this 1969 act) by law to pay or secure the payment of any bonds issued by such municipality after such ((effective)) date but before the effective date of sections 1 through 3 of this 1979 act for authorized public transportation purposes.

(1) The director of ((motor vehicles)) licensing shall on the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August and November of each year, commencing with November, 1971, advise the state treasurer of the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department of ((motor vehicles)) licensing during the preceding calendar quarter ending on the last day of March, June, September and December, respectively, except for those payable under RCW 82.44.030 and 82.44.070, from motor vehicle owners residing within each municipality which has levied a tax under RCW 35.58.273, which amount of excise taxes shall be determined by the director as follows:

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.030 and 82.44.070, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole.

Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of ((program planning and fiscal)) financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.
(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department of (motor vehicles) licensing shall make the following apportionment and distribution of motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the general fund. A sum equal to seventeen percent thereof shall be paid to cities and towns in the proportions and for the purposes hereinafter set forth; a sum equal to seventy percent of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts shall be allocable to the state school equalization fund and credited and transferred each year in the following order of priority:

(a) The amount required and certified by the state finance committee each year as being necessary for payment of principal of and interest on bonds authorized by chapter 26, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session in the ensuing twelve months and any additional amounts required by the covenants of such bonds shall be transferred from the state school equalization fund to the 1963 public school building bond retirement fund.

(b) Any remaining amounts in the state school equalization fund from the motor vehicle excise taxes not required for debt service on the above bond issues shall be transferred and credited to the general fund.

(3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state ratably, on the basis of the population as last determined by the board.

(4) When so apportioned, the amount payable to each such city and town shall be transmitted to the city treasurer thereof, and shall be utilized by such city or town for the purposes of police and fire protection and the preservation of the public health therein, and not otherwise. In case it be adjudged that revenue derived from the excise tax imposed by this chapter cannot lawfully be apportioned or distributed to cities or towns, all moneys directed by this section to be apportioned and distributed to cities and towns shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

(5) (a) The amount required to remit to a municipality the proceeds of the tax authorized under RCW 35.58.273 shall be remitted to the municipality levying such tax. The amount required to be remitted by the state treasurer to the treasurer of any municipality levying such tax shall not exceed in any one calendar year the amount of locally-generated tax revenues, excluding the excise tax imposed under RCW 35.58.273, for the purposes of this section, which shall have been budgeted by such municipality to be collected in such calendar year for any public transportation purposes including but not limited to operating costs, capital costs and debt service on general obligation or revenue bonds issued for such purposes.

(b) In no event may the amount remitted in a single calendar quarter exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during the calendar quarter next preceding the immediately preceding quarter.

(6) At the close of each calendar year accounting period, but not later than April 1, each municipality that has received motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section shall transmit to the director of licensing a written report showing by source the previous year's budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted without legislative appropriation.

(7) The motor vehicle excise taxes imposed under RCW 35.58.273 and required to be remitted under this section shall be remitted without legislative appropriation.

(8) Any municipality levying and collecting a tax under RCW 35.58.273 which does not have an operating, public transit system or a contract for public transportation services in effect within one year from the initial effective date of the tax shall return to the state treasurer all motor vehicle excise taxes received under subsection (5) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 4 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1980.

MOTION

Mr. Martinis moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 138.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Martinis: "Mr. Speaker, I question the scope and object of the Senate amendment. It does not pertain to the original content of the bill. The amendment has two completely different subject matters."

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding) declared the House to be at ease until 1:30 p.m. Speaker Berentson called the House to order.

SPEAKER BERENTSON'S RULING

Speaker Berentson: "The Speaker is going to rule that under Rule 30 this point of order is well taken. House Bill No. 138 is rereferred to the Committee on Transportation."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

April 30, 1979

Mr. Speaker:
The Senate insists on its position on its amendments to ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 335, and once again asks the House to concur therewith, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Grimm, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 335.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

Speaker Berentson stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 335 as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (G.A.) yielded to question by Mr. King.

Mr. King: "As this bill now reads, the concern of the House is the inclusion of the Snohomish School District in the Edmonds Community College District. Is that correct?"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "Yes, that is correct. Historically, the Snohomish School District has related to Everett Community College. In addition, the criteria established by the State Board for Community College Education would put Snohomish with Everett."

Mr. King: "Can the State Board for Community College Education change the boundary lines in this bill?"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "Yes. The State Board cannot establish districts, but it can change the boundary lines within existing districts. However, without some direction from the legislature, the State Board would probably be reluctant to revise lines so recently set by the legislature."
Mr. King: "I believe that the present boundaries are unsatisfactory and that the State Board should revise the boundaries by assigning the Snohomish School District to Community College District 5. Do you agree?"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "I fully concur. Under the existing conditions, the best solution is for the State Board to revise the lines as you have suggested."

Mr. King: "Do you concur with me that the best available solution is to ask the State Board to draw the boundaries and to do so as quickly as possible so that the Governor can appoint the trustees in advance of July 1?"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "Under the present conditions, I do concur that your suggestion is the best one available to us."

Mr. King: "I have one additional question. Since this is the first time the legislature has changed community college boundaries since 1967, what is the role of the state in the distribution of the assets of the present district?"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "House Bill No. 335 provides a central role for the State Board. I expect the State Board to be a party to the process at every step of the way. An independent third party is needed, and it is our intent that the State Board be that independent third party."

Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Scott spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 335 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 90; nays, 8; not voting, 0.

Engrossed House Bill No. 335 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3033:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Speaker Berentson stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment.

On motion of Mr. Kreidler, the following amendments by Representatives Kreidler and Fancher to the committee amendment were adopted:

On page 29, strike all of line 37 down through line 1 on page 30 and insert the following:

"As used in this chapter, in accordance with RCW 87.03.440, the term 'county treasurer' or 'treasurer of the county' or other reference to that office means the treasurer of the district, if the district has designated its own treasurer, unless the context clearly requires otherwise."

On page 30, strike all of line 5 down through line 8 and insert the following:

"As used in this chapter, in accordance with RCW 87.03.440, the term 'county treasurer' or 'treasurer of the county' or other reference to that office means the treasurer of the district, if the district has designated its own treasurer, unless the context clearly requires otherwise."

Representatives Kreidler and Struthers spoke in favor of the committee amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Dunlap, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3033 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.
ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3033 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 3; not voting, 1.

The provisions of this subsection (6) shall only apply to excess levies for collection prior to calendar year 1983.

(7) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this (1977 amendatory act) section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on September 1, 1979.

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Chandler, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 227.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

Speaker Berentson stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 227 as amended by the Senate.
JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heck yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "I'm a little concerned about the Senate amendatory language on the level of the grandfather clause beginning on page 6, line 37. As I recall, this is similar to the language in Substitute House Bill No. 227 which we changed by floor amendment to avoid any confusion on the time frame to be used for calculation of the grandfather levy amount. Presently, the grandfather provision is calculated to guarantee a stated percentage, here 106 percent, of one school year over the previous school years' revenue per FTE student. Do you see any ambiguity here that could change this?"

Mr. Heck: "There have been some concerns expressed that this language could call for the grandfather amount to be calculated for a tax collection year as a percentage of the previous school year. You are correct concerning the change in this particular wording that was done as a floor amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 227, the purpose of which was to clarify the intent of the legislature that the grandfather calculation continue to be on a school year to school year basis. We have discussed this with the Attorney General's office, and feel confident that this wording, although not ideal, will not result in any change in the time frame used presently to calculate the grandfather levy amount."

Mr. Chandler: "Do you know why the Senate changed this wording back from Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 227?"

Mr. Heck: "It is my understanding that some of this amendment was drafted from the substitute bill rather than the engrossed substitute bill which contained the change to this section. I believe their intent is to continue the present grandfather calculation, with a new percentage level of 106 percent."

Mr. Heck spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 227 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; nays, 1; not voting, 1.

Voting nay: Representative Craswell.
Not voting: Representative Eng.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 227 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Fuller, having given notice on the previous day, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House failed to pass the House.

Representatives Fuller, King and Struthers spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives McDonald, Pruitt and Van Dyken spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I think I heard you say that card rooms can be established in bowling alleys under present law?"

Mr. Struthers: "Yes, if a bowling alley has a food and drink establishment on the premise now, it would be the food and drink facility that would apply to the card room license."
Mr. Douthwaite: 'The intent of the language reads, 'If the establishment is primarily engaged in the operation of a bowling center...'. Primarily if the intent is entirely bowling, they could, under this law, have a card room, too?"

Mr. Struthers: "That is correct."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke against the motion to reconsider, and Mr. Struthers spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Fuller spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Chandler spoke against it.

Speaker Bagnariol demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House was not passed by the House, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 46; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Isaacson.

Speaker Berentson stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Fuller: "How many votes does it take to pass this bill?"

Speaker Berentson: "Fifty-nine votes."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Polk, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2044 as amended by the House was deferred and the bill was ordered placed on tomorrow's third reading calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Polk, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, May 2, 1979.

JOHN BAGNARIOL, Speaker
DUANE BERENTSON, Speaker

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Eberle and Rohrbach to the Greengo/Nelson amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 312, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays, 79; not voting, 2.

Mr. McDonald spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McDonald yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: "Representative McDonald, if your amendment passes, there are certain engineering branches that are not spoken to in Washington State law. Two examples are geophysical engineers and geological engineers, two specialties of which we have some working in the state, or at least we could have, in the area of nuclear plant siting. How would this bill affect those two and other branches with or without your amendment?"

Mr. McDonald: "Your analysis is correct. With or without my amendment to the amendment, it would not affect those two areas. I guess the standard answer is that they are taken care of in some of the other branches, for instance, in civil engineering or structural engineering. Those licenses and those categories would cover them in a general sense. I think you have a good argument that those probably should be the subject of a separate bill which would allow some of those other areas in, but with my amendment or not, it doesn't affect them."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Warnke spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative McDonald to the Greengo/Nelson amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 312, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 32; not voting, 5.

Mr. Eberle spoke again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Eberle moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 23, after line 18 insert the following:

"(vi) Experience-Liability Affidavit. A person with a specific record of eight years or more of progressive experience on engineering projects and who files a duly sworn affidavit with the board verifying that the individual accepts all legal and professional liability for engineering services performed pursuant to this chapter, and whose application is accompanied by verifiable evidence of professional liability insurance and/or bonding in an amount determined by the board to be reasonable and proper in relation to the type of engineering the applicant intends to practice, shall be registered without further examination: PROVIDED, That the applicant has the right to judicial review in superior court if the applicant believes the amount of liability insurance or bonding required by the board is not reasonable and proper."

Mr. Eberle spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Greengo spoke against it.

TO THE HONORABLE,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

While I have signed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 144, an act relating to state correctional institutions and state reimbursement for certain criminal justice costs, I wish to raise a point of concern. This bill must not serve as precedent for shifting additional community costs to the state level.

The original and subsequent state investment and the continuing payroll of our institutions have traditionally served to offset the occasional and infrequent costs to local government caused by residents of our institutions. I also feel we must strive to keep the fiscal responsibility with the governmental level that is actually providing the public service.

As a final comment, I urge you to explore other methods to provide any necessary fiscal relief to local governments. Specific contracts, for example, may be a more manageable and exacting approach.

I look forward to working with you on this situation.
Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY, Governor.

May 2, 1979

TO THE HONORABLE,
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have signed HOUSE BILL NO. 645. This bill permits local school districts to use their facilities and resources to enrich the recreational, cultural, and educational atmosphere in their community. This is an excellent use of the large investment the citizens of this state have made in school buildings.

Section 2 of this bill allows districts to use basic education apportionment funds to support community programs. Unfortunately, no upper limit is placed on the amount of funds a district may divert from basic education to community programs. I urge the legislature and the Superintendent of Public Instruction to consider adopting statutory or regulatory language to carefully limit the funds devoted to community programs.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY, Governor.

Nothing in this section may be construed as establishing or creating any new rights to the use of water. This section relates exclusively to the confirmation of water rights established or created under other provisions of state law or federal laws.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 117, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 2, chapter 357, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 90.03.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Service of said summons shall be made in the same manner and with the same force and effect as service of summons in civil actions commenced in the superior courts of the state: PROVIDED, That for good cause, the court, at the request of the supervisor, as an alternative to personal service, may authorize service of summons to be made by certified mail, with [(acknowledgment of)] return receipt [(of summons executed)] signed by defendant [(required, as an alternative to personal service)], a spouse of a defendant, or another person authorized to accept service. If the defendants, or either of them, cannot be found within the state of Washington, of which the return of the sheriff of the county in which the proceeding is pending shall be prima facie evidence, upon the filing of an affidavit by the supervisor of water resources, or his attorney, in conformity with the statute relative to the service of summons by publication in civil actions, such service may be made by publication in a newspaper of general circulation [(printed and published at the county seat of)] in the county in which such proceeding is pending, and also publication of said summons in a newspaper [(published at the county seat)] of general circulation in each county in which any portion of the water is situated, once a week for six consecutive weeks (six publications) [(before the return day thereof)]. The summons by publication shall state that statements of claim must be filed within twenty days after the last publication or before the return date, whichever is later.

The supervisor of water resources shall keep a record of the expenses incurred by him in the determination of the rights on any stream, including the proportionate share of the expense of his office, such expense to date from the filing of a petition or the institution of any investigation as provided in RCW 90.03.110. Immediately upon receipt of a decree of the superior court determining the rights of parties as provided in RCW 90.03.200, the supervisor shall prepare and file in the superior court a statement of such expense, showing the total expense of the determination and apportioning one-half of such expense to the various rights. And where ((such)) the expense subject to apportionment does not exceed five dollars for each water right, as determined by the court, it shall be divided equally between such rights. If such expense exceeds five dollars for each water right, such allotee shall pay five dollars plus a share of the amount remaining, which shall be equitably apportioned to the various irrigation and other consumptive rights in such proportion as the quantity of water allotted to each right bears to the total amount of water awarded taking into account priorities of the various rights, and to non-consumptive rights on such basis as the supervisor may determine to be equitable. Such records shall be subject to audit by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices as are other accounts of state offices. (b) Waters of the state have been applied to beneficial use continuously (with no period of nonuse exceeding five consecutive years) from the date of entry of a court decree confirming a water right and any failure to register a claim resulted from a reasonable misinterpretation of the requirements as they related to such court decreed rights.

Sec. 6. Section 20, chapter 233, Laws of 1967 and RCW 90.14.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever an application for a permit to make beneficial use of public waters embodied in a reservation, established after the effective date of this act, is filed with the department of ecology after the effective date of such reservation, the priority date for a permit issued pursuant to an approval by the department of ecology of the application shall be the effective date of the reservation.

Further, based on the tenet of water law which precludes wasteful practices in the exercise of rights to the use of waters, the department of ecology shall reduce these practices to the maximum extent practicable, taking into account sound principles of water management and the most effective use of public and private funds, and, when appropriate, to work to that end in concert with the agencies of the United States and other public and private entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 90.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:
When feasible, the department of ecology shall cooperate with the United States and other public entities, including Indian tribes, in the planning, development, and operation of comprehensive water supply projects designed primarily to resolve controversies and conflicts over water use by increasing water quantity and improving water quality within a stream or river system, or other bodies of water, as well as to enhance opportunities for both instream and diversionary water uses within the system, and, in relation thereto, the department may:

1. Participate with the federal government and other public entities in the planning, development, operation, and management of various phases of water projects hereafter authorized by Congress;
2. Provide rights to the use of public waters under the state's surface and ground water codes for these projects when the waters are available for allocation; and
3. Provide financial assistance through grants and loans for projects when moneys are made available to the department for this assistance by other provisions of this code.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is appropriated to the department of ecology from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1981, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

day of October following and shall be deemed delinquent after that date.

Delinquent taxes under this section shall be subject to interest at the rate of ten percent per annum computed on a monthly basis from the date of delinquency until paid. All collections of interest on delinquent taxes shall be credited to the county current expense fund; but the cost of foreclosure and sale of real property, and the fees and costs of distraint and sale of personal property, for delinquent taxes, shall, when collected, be credited to the operation and maintenance fund of the county treasurer prosecuting the foreclosure or distraint or sale; and shall be used by the county treasurer as a revolving fund to defray the cost of further foreclosure, distraint and sale for delinquent taxes without regard to budget limitations.

Sec. 8. Section 84.64.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 84, Laws of 1972
ex. sess. and RCW 84.64.050 are each amended to read as follows:

After the expiration of (five years) the appropriate grace period from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county((;)) PROVIDED,
That the grace period is five years for an owner exempt from a portion of property taxes under RCW 84.36.381 as now or hereafter amended, five years for an owner who is a claimant as defined in RCW 84.38.020 as now or hereafter amended, and three years for all other owners. The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1980. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county commissioners shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PRO­ VIDED, That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners or, if a mailing address is unavailing, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to describing the property as the same is described on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address, if any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codefendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder PROVIDED, That, at least thirty days prior to the sale of the property, if such property is shown on the tax rolls under unknown owners or as having an assessed value of three thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to be sold to determine the legal description of the property to be sold and the record title holder, and if the record title holder or holders differ from the person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners, the record title holder or holders shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and shall be entitled to the notice provided for in this section.

Modifying tort and product liability law.

The bill was read the second time.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeants at Arms were instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333 on second reading.

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Newhouse, Knowles, Smith (R) and Tilley:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) In an action based on fault seeking to recover damages for injury or death to person or harm to property, any contributory fault chargeable to the claimant diminishes proportionately the amount awarded as compensatory damages for an injury attributable to the claimant's contributory fault, but does not bar recovery. This rule applies whether or not under prior law the claimant's contributory fault constituted a defense or was disregarded under applicable legal doctrines, such as last clear chance.

(2) 'Fault' includes acts or omissions that are in any measure negligent or reckless toward the person or property of the actor or others, or that subject a person to strict tort liability. The term also includes breach of warranty, unreasonable assumption of risk not constituting an enforceable express consent, misuse of a product for which the defendant otherwise would be liable, and unreasonable failure to avoid an injury or to mitigate damages. Legal requirements of causal relation apply both to fault as the basis for liability and to contributory fault.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In all actions involving fault of more than one party to the action, including third-party defendants, persons released by the claimant, persons immune from liability to the claimant, and persons with any other individual defense against the claimant, the court, unless otherwise agreed by all parties, shall instruct the jury to answer special interrogatories or, if there is no jury, shall make findings, indicating:

(a) The amount of damages each claimant would be entitled to recover if contributory fault is disregarded; and

(b) The percentage of the total fault of all of the parties to each claim that is allocated to each claimant, defendant, third-party defendant, persons released by the claimant, persons immune from liability to the claimant, and persons with any other individual defense against the claimant.

(2) In determining the percentages of fault, the trier of fact shall consider both the nature of the conduct of each party at fault and the extent of the causal relation between the conduct and the damages claimed.

(3) The court shall determine the award of damages to each claimant in accordance with the findings and enter judgment against each party liable in the amount of the equitable share of damages allocated against that party. The equitable share of each party is calculated by multiplying the party's percentage of fault determined in subsection (1)(b) of this section times the amount of damages determined in subsection (1)(a) of this section. Each party liable shall only be responsible for payment of that party's equitable share, except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a party shall be responsible for the fault of another person or for payment of the equitable share of another party liable only where both were acting in concert or in a relationship justifying imposition of vicarious liability or where provided by statute. In a product liability action, a manufacturer shall be responsible for any fault attributable to its component suppliers; but a retailer, wholesaler, distributor, or other seller shall not be responsible for the fault of a manufacturer unless:

(a) The retailer, wholesaler, distributor, or other seller exercised control or substantial influence over the product design, manufacture, warnings, or instructions alleged to be defective; or

(b) The retailer, wholesaler, distributor, or other seller upon request refuses to disclose a prior seller in the chain of distribution from which the product was obtained; or
(c) Personal jurisdiction cannot be obtained over any known prior seller in the chain of distribution.

(5) Upon motion made not later than one year after judgment is entered, the court shall determine whether all or part of the judgment entered against a party liable has not been satisfied within a reasonable period of time. If either the claimant was not at fault or the defendant does not show that the unsatisfied amount is collectible by the claimant through reasonable efforts, the court shall reallocate the unsatisfied amount among all other parties who were allocated a percentage of fault under subsection (1)(b) of this section, including a claimant at fault, according to their respective percentages of fault and shall adjust the judgment accordingly. The party whose liability is reallocated is nonetheless subject to contribution and to any continuing liability to the claimant on the judgment.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the claimant is entitled to compensation or benefits pursuant to Title 51 RCW, his or her employer or fellow employees shall not be joined as parties to the action or allocated a percentage of fault or an equitable share unless either (a) the employer or the department of labor and industries intervenes to establish the right to recover or discontinue compensation or benefit payments under chapter 51.24 RCW or (b) the defendant makes a claim against the employer under section 12 of this act or (c) the defendant makes a claim against the employer based on a contractual right to contribution or indemnity which is dependent on an assessment of employer fault. If the employer or the department of labor and industries does not intervene, the judgments against the parties liable shall be reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the compensation benefits paid and the present value of the future compensation and benefit payments under Title 51 RCW. The reduction shall be allocated against the judgments of the parties liable according to their respective percentages of fault. If the self-insurer or the department of labor and industries intervenes, the percentages of fault and the equitable shares of the employer and the other parties to the action and the judgments against the parties liable shall be determined pursuant to subsections (1) and (3) of this section, but the judgments against the parties liable to the claimant shall never be less than if the employer or the department of labor and industries had not intervened.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A claim and counterclaim shall be set off, and only the difference between them is recoverable in the judgment. However, if either or both of the claims are covered by liability insurance and an insurance carrier’s liability under its policy is reduced by reason of the set-off, the insured is entitled to recover from the carrier the amount of the reduction. Amounts so recovered shall be credited against pertinent liability policy limits. For purposes of uninsured motorist and similar coverages, the amounts so recovered shall be treated as payment of those amounts to the insured by the party liable. In the event of a set-off, the court shall equitably award costs, if any, among all parties to the lawsuit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A party liable shall have a right to contribution, including a right to full indemnity, from any person whose fault caused claimant’s damage if that person was not allocated a percentage of fault under section 2(1)(b) of this act or if the party liable was responsible for that person’s fault under section 2(4) of this act or for payment of a reallocated portion of that person’s equitable share under section 2(5) of this act. The right to contribution, including the right to full indemnity, may be enforced either in the original action or by a separate action brought for that purpose. The basis for contribution is each person’s equitable share of the obligation, including the equitable share of a claimant at fault, as determined in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of this act.

(2) Contribution is available to a person who enters into a settlement with a claimant only if that person had a reasonable expectation of potential liability to the claimant, if the liability of the person against whom contribution is sought has been extinguished, and to the extent that the amount paid in settlement was reasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) If the equitable shares of the parties to a claim for contribution have been established pursuant to section 2 of this act, a party paying more than his equitable share of the obligation, upon motion, may recover judgment for contribution.

(2) If the equitable shares of the parties to the claim for contribution have not been established, contribution may be enforced in a separate action, whether or not a judgment has been rendered against either the person seeking contribution or the person from whom contribution is being sought.

(3) If a judgment has been rendered, the action for contribution shall be commenced within one year after the judgment becomes final. If no judgment has been rendered, the person bringing the action for contribution either shall have:

(a) Discharged by payment the liability within the period of the statute of limitations applicable to the claimant’s right of action against him and commenced the action for contribution within one year after payment; or

(b) Agreed while action was pending to discharge the liability and, within one year after the agreement, have paid the liability and commenced an action for contribution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person liable discharges that person from all liability for contribution, but the agreement does not discharge any other persons liable upon the same claim unless the agreement so provides.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) For the purpose of this chapter and chapter 4.22 RCW, the following term shall have the meaning set forth in this section:
Product liability action' means an action brought against the seller of a product by a person seeking to recover damages for injury or death to a person or harm to property caused by a defective condition of a product, including without limitation:

(a) Any defect in product design;
(b) Any defect in product manufacture, including inspection and testing;
(c) Any failure to warn regarding the product; or
(d) Any failure to properly instruct in the use of the product.

A product liability action includes all actions based upon negligence, breach of warranty, strict liability in tort, and any other substantive legal theory, except fraud, intentionally caused injury, or consumer protection under chapter 19.86 RCW.

(2) As used in this section, the term 'seller' includes the manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, or retailer of a product.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In any product liability action based on a design defect, it is an affirmative defense that the product's design was in conformance with the technology economically feasible and generally known or reasonably available at the time the product was manufactured, but such conformance shall not constitute an affirmative defense if the defendant knew or should have known that despite such conformance the hazards inherent in the product outweigh its utility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In any product liability action it is an affirmative defense that the damage was proximately caused by an alteration, modification, or misuse of the product which was not reasonably foreseeable by the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In any product liability action the following rules of evidence apply:

(1) When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove fault in connection with the event. This rule does not require exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment; and

(2) Evidence of technology which became economically feasible and generally known or reasonably available only after the product was manufactured is inadmissible; and

(3) If the plaintiff offers evidence that an alternative design would have reduced or prevented the injury, the defendant may introduce evidence to show that such alternative design would increase other hazards so as to degrade overall product safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 4.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In any product liability action, the plaintiff shall commence the action within three years of the time the injury is or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been discovered by the plaintiff, except that no product liability action may be commenced more than ten years after the manufacturer relinquished possession or control of the product or sold the product, whichever occurred later in time. Where the defendant has expressly warranted in writing that the product has a longer useful life, the action must be commenced within one year after the expiration of the longer period.

(2) Where the plaintiff's cause of action is based upon a duty to alter, repair, recall, inspect, or issue warnings or instructions, or to otherwise take any action or precaution for the benefit of the injured party, which duty is based upon a contract, statute, or an actual or anticipated administrative or judicial ruling specifically applicable to the product or results from actual knowledge of a design defect which has caused injury and (b) arose after the defendant relinquished possession or control of the product or sold the product, whichever occurred later in time, the plaintiff shall commence the action within three years of the time the injury is or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been discovered by the plaintiff, except that no such action may be commenced more than six years after the defendant first came under the subsequent duty. The period in this subsection shall not act to bar any action brought within the time limited by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If a person otherwise entitled to bring an action is, at the time the cause of action accrues, under a legal disability, as defined in RCW 4.16.190, the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for commencement of action by subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) The limitations set forth in subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any product liability action based upon the use of any drug as defined in RCW 18.64.011 or the cumulative effects of exposure to radiation or a chemical.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If an employer, with willful disregard of the safety of an employee and in knowing disregard of written recommendations by the product supplier or in knowing disregard of an administrative agency's written notice of a violation of a safety regulation, intentionally (1) removes, authorizes the removal of, or fails to install permanent safety features or devices for the product, or (2) misuses the product, and if the product supplier is sued by an employee injured as a result of such employer conduct, the product supplier shall have a right to join the employer and seek recovery from the employer of the amount by which the equitable share of the employer exceeds the judgment reduction under section 2(7) of this act for benefits and compensation paid and payable.

Sec. 13. Section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An election not to proceed against the third person operates as an assignment of the cause of action to the department or self-insurer, which may prosecute or compromise the action in its discretion in the name of the injured worker, beneficiary or legal representative.
(2) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be entitled to the remaining balance of any award or settlement recovered by the department or self-insurer after deduction of the following amounts:

(a) The expenses incurred in making the recovery including reasonable costs of legal services; and
(b) The compensation and benefits paid to or on behalf of the injured worker or beneficiary by the department or self-insurer, and only to the extent compensation and benefits paid exceed the total of the equitable shares allocated to the employer and others in the same employ, as determined under section 2 of this act.

(3) Thereafter ((no)) payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of ((any further)) all compensation or benefits paid shall equal ((any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no third party person claim had been made)) the total of the equitable shares allocated to the employer and others in the same employ, as determined under section 2 of this act. However, payments may not be discontinued unless the remaining balance recovered for the injured worker or beneficiary exceeds the present value of compensation and benefits payable in the future.

Sec. 14. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In an action by the injured worker or beneficiary against the third person, any award or settlement shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid;
(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award.

PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;
(c) The department or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the award, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department or self-insurer for compensation or benefits paid, and only to the extent compensation and benefits paid exceed the total of the equitable shares allocated to the employer and others in the same employ, as determined under section 2 of this act;
(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;
(e) Thereafter ((no)) payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of ((any further)) all compensation or benefits paid shall equal ((any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no third party person claim had been made)) the total of the equitable shares allocated to the employer and others in the same employ, as determined under section 2 of this act.

(2) The award or settlement shall be subject to a lien by the department or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The right to recover or discontinue compensation or benefit payments under subsection (1) of this section applies only if the department or self-insurer intervenes in the action by the injured worker or beneficiary against the third person and obtains a determination of the employer's percentage of fault and equitable shares determined under section 2 of this act, or as part of a settlement.

Sec. 15. Section 6, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, notice of the election must be given to the department or self-insurer. The notice shall be by registered mail, certified mail, or personal service. If an action is filed by the injured worker or beneficiary, a copy of the complaint must be sent by registered mail to the department or self-insurer.
(2) A return showing service of the notice on the department or self-insurer shall be filed with the court but shall not be a part of the record except as necessary to give notice to the defendant of the lien imposed by ((section 4(3)) RCW 51.24.060(2).
(3) If the department or self-insurer intends to intervene to establish a right to recover or discontinue compensation and benefit payments, notice of such intent must be given to the injured worker or beneficiary within thirty days of notice of the election to seek damages from the third person, and an appearance must be entered within thirty days of receipt of a copy of the complaint.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 4.92 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In any action for damages against the state or a political subdivision thereof, or against its officers, agents, employees, or contractors, the following affirmative defense is applicable, but nothing contained herein creates any cause of action or may be held or interpreted as altering or diminishing any other existing defenses:

In any action involving the design of any portion or aspect of a highway, road, bridge, street, or sidewalk, it is an affirmative defense that such design is not in violation of statutes or ordinances establishing or adopting design standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 4.92 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In any action for damages against the state or a political subdivision thereof, or against its officers, agents, employees, or contractors, the following affirmative defenses are applicable, but nothing contained herein creates any cause of action or may be held or interpreted as altering or diminishing any other existing defenses. In any action involving inspections, or failure to inspect, made for the purpose of determining compliance with applicable laws, it is an affirmative defense that the governmental agency:

(1) Was not aware of the noncompliance; or
(2) Has made a reasonable attempt to notify the owner, operator, or agent responsible for compliance of the noncompliance.

Neither affirmative defense applies where the property inspected is owned by the governmental agency or where inspection procedures pursuant to specific standards required by applicable laws have not been followed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is hereby appropriated to the office of financial management the sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary from the general fund for the purpose of conducting a study of the effects of the apportionment and reallocation provisions of section 2 of this act on injured party recoveries in future cases where one of the parties at fault is insolvent or has an immunity or individual defense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 4.22 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 7 through 10 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 4 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 4.22.010 are each repealed. This repeal shall not be construed as affecting any action which has been filed prior to or on the effective date of this act."

On page 1, beginning on line 6 add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions, this 1979 act shall not apply to any action for sickness, injury or death to persons or harm to property due to fault attributable to the construction, maintenance or operation of any thermal power plant, including nuclear, as defined in RCW 80.50.020(10)."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Douthwaite and others to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 17; not voting, 0.

Ms. Becker moved adoption of the following amendments to the amendment by Representative Newhouse and others:

On page 2, at the beginning of line 7 strike "persons released by the claimant,"

On page 2, line 25 after "defendant" strike "persons released by the claimant"

On page 5, line 1 after "of" strike "a person released by the claimant,"

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Tilly and Newhouse spoke against them.

Ms. Becker spoke again in favor of the amendments to the amendment.
Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Salatino.

Mr. Salatino: "Representative Smith, under current law can unfair settlements increase the liability of the remaining defendants?"

Mr. Smith (R): "That's a very good question. There seems to be some apprehension that it would be possible under current law, without the provisions in the Newhouse amendment, for the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney to arrange a settlement with one of the defendants that would somehow prejudice the interest of the remaining defendant. The way this is handled in actual trial practice is, it's necessary to go before a judge and explain the facts of the settlement so that the judge can make an independent assessment of whether the settlement that's being offered by the defendant to the plaintiff is fair to meet the liability exposure they have. If a defendant's exposure was probably $50,000, any good lawyer would assess it at that, and should the plaintiff agree to take $10,000, the judge would no doubt reject that because it may prejudice the interest of the remaining defendant. Under current law, the settlement has to be reasonable and has to be approved by the judge before it becomes effective."

Representatives Newhouse and Smith (R) spoke against the amendments.

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Ms. Hurley.

Ms. Hurley: "I want to have it clarified if a person, for instance, who might have a relative who was ten percent at fault, and he doesn't want to sue that relative, but wants to release him, would that ten percent of the relative's fault be reallocated to all of the other defendants so that a person could sue?"

Mr. Smith (R): "No, Representative Hurley, under the reallocation in the Newhouse amendment, you don't get into reallocation unless the party is liable and if they are released they are no longer liable to the claimant. However, if you settled, that settlement must be reviewed by the judge, as I stated earlier, and would have to be approved as reasonable. Under both the Newhouse amendment and the Becker amendment, any party, any defendant, can bring somebody else in as a third party defendant under current law and under these, too, so if one of the defendant's felt that someone else was also liable, under both the Newhouse amendment and the Becker amendment, we are establishing contribution for the first time in the state of Washington, so they could bring that person in and get retribution from that. They would bring them in as a third party defendant also."

Ms. Hurley: "I guess I understood that as it relates to the money amount, but when it relates to the percentage of fault, does it also release that percentage of fault that was attributed to that person?"

Mr. Smith (R): "Under the Becker amendment, you don't change that distribution of fault, you have joint severable liability. In order for anybody to be found liable for the accident the jury or the judge would have to determine that but for the negligent act of that particular defendant, there would not have been an accident."

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Smith, what if there were two people and one was twenty percent at fault and was released, and the damages were found to be $100,000. My understanding under the Becker amendment, is that the person who was found to be eighty percent at fault would pay the $100,000, and the other person who was released would not pay anything. If that individual had not been released the amount would have been spread, $80,000 and $20,000. Do I interpret that correctly?"

Mr. Smith (R): "In order to be released the court would have to approve the settlement. The court wouldn't release somebody if they hadn't made a settlement. If the settlement were $20,000, there would be no change. It may be if the settlement was accepted at, say $10,000, under current law and under the Becker amendment, the party who settles for $10,000 must—let's remember in the cases we're talking about, every defendant is represented by an attorney; it could be an insurance company attorney, and they don't settle for any figure unless they think they are liable for that—they make their best guess as to what the jury would determine and they offer that. It's very difficult to settle a case. Under the Becker amendment, if the settlement is reasonable and in good faith, the judge will approve it and that defendant can go home. He no longer has to pay the sixty or seventy dollars an hour or whatever it is for attorney fees. Any judgment that is rendered against the other defendant is reduced by the amount of money the plaintiff has received from the defendant who has settled."

Ms. Sommers: "What if the person didn't have any money and was released because they didn't have any money?"

Mr. Smith (R): "They would never do that under the Newhouse amendment. This is another reason there would be no settlement under this bill or the Newhouse amendment, because there is a reallocation provision whereby if you can't collect all of your judgment from one of the defendants and if the plaintiff is wholly innocent, you get to reallocate from the other defendant. If you settle, the defendant is no longer liable to the plaintiff, so you'll never settle these cases."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "It appears the question and answer process has deteriorated into a dialogue which is very much contrary to our rules. Also, the position in which Mr. Smith has put himself in his discussion of the amendment, and to which he has already spoken twice, would appear that they are very unusual and peculiar circumstances."

Speaker Berentson: "The speaker is going to suggest that we not abuse the question and answer process for inserting into the record. I think we will continue and hope you will not abuse the privilege."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Smith, going back to the example, let's take the $100,000 for the parties who are eighty percent and twenty percent at fault and let's say there was a settlement for $2,000. Would the person who was eighty percent at fault, then _have to pay the $98,000?"

Mr. Smith (R): "That's correct, if that settlement had been approved."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Becker to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 70; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Bauer, Becker, Bender, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Charnley, Douthwaite, Eng, Erak, Gallagher, Granlund, Gruger, Hughes, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Lux, Maxie, May, Monohon, Nelson D., Pruitt, Salatino, Sherman, Thompson, Van Dyken, Walk, Warnke, Whiteside, Williams, Winsley, Zimmerman.

Mr. Bender moved adoption of the following amendments to the Newhouse amendment:
On page 2, line 7 after "claimant," insert "and"
On page 2, line 9 after "claimant," strike "and persons with any other individual defense against the claimant."
On page 2, line 26 after "claimant" insert "and"
On page 2, line 27 after "claimant," strike "and persons with any other individual defense against the claimant."

Mr. Bender spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against them.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "I wish Representative Newhouse would speak to the amendments pertaining to the situation that has been brought up on the floor."

Speaker Berentson: "I believe, Representative Salatino, that Representative Bender did refer to the Warsaw Pact and I believe that opens up the discussion. I believe Representative Newhouse is covering the subject matter contained in these amendments."
Mr. Newhouse continued his remarks against the Bender amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Salatino.

Mr. Salatino: "Representative Newhouse, I am confused on one thing you mentioned, and I think this has been part of the problem in this debate. You mentioned that an aircraft carrier is ninety-eight percent at fault, Boeing, two percent at fault because of a minor technical problem with a plane and the Boeing Company, as an example, gets stuck with a $10 million judgment. Do you have any examples you could give members of this House for some type of situation that's taken place like that to an aircraft carrier or manufacturer or airline where an individual party has been two percent at fault and been stuck with a huge judgment?"

Mr. Newhouse: "No."

Representatives Douthwaite, Barnes and Becker spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Tilly spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Rohrbach yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Mr. Rohrbach, there has been some comment here as to the reduction in insurance premiums in the discussion of the cost of insurance as a result of whether this amendment should or should not pass. Do you know of any definite plans or announcements in general by any insurance carrier that their liability rates are going to be reduced as a result of the passage of the Newhouse amendment to Senate Bill No. 2333?"

Mr. Rohrbach: "In response to that question, no; I can quote you no specific companies or any specific rate reduction. I do think, however, we should look at the general philosophy behind insurance. We, as individuals, buy insurance because we do not want to face a potential risk and we're willing to trade a set expense, an insurance premium, to cover a potential risk that might wipe out our life savings and things like that. In return, an insurance company is willing to absorb that risk for us for that premium and the premium they are going to charge is going to be based on the potential of that risk, the amount of risk and the chance of it occurring. The more predictable and the lower those risks are, the lower the premiums will be, so there's the direct effect, but I can quote no specific companies."

Representatives Charnley and Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendments to the Newhouse amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Salatino.

Mr. Salatino: "Representative Smith, Representative Tilly mentioned a concern of most members of this House that not just the large businesses, but the middle-size businesses and small businesses could be affected by this. Is it true that the particular section with which we are dealing only deals with, in the case of individual defense, aircraft manufacturers, or is it broader than that?"

Mr. Smith (R): "I think this is the key question with regard to this amendment and it is terribly, terribly obtuse as to what that language means. Our committee looked at that language for two years without knowing what it meant. When we did finally understand the meaning of the language, we put some additional language in to define exactly what is meant by a person who has an individual defense against a claimant. That appears on page 5 of the Newhouse amendment, subsection (6) of section 2. The definition provided there is that the individual defense means any defense which results in an exclusion or limitation of liability or damages. Obviously, the limitation of liability covers the Warsaw Pact situation. I know of no other situation in the law where there is a limitation on your liability. Certainly there are none that apply to small manufacturers, so the question of whether the exclusion of liability or damages would cover anything else is not quite clear. It is the opinion of the attorneys that staffed our committee that it would be difficult to establish the proposition that exclusion from liability means the affirmative consent, for instance, that's in the bill for governmental entities or the affirmative consent that's in the bill for manufacturers because you don't allocate fault unless there is liability. If you've established an affirmative defense you don't have liability. You don't have fault, you have an affirmative defense and you're out. So I think the answer would be that it's extremely limited to the Warsaw Pact situation."
FORTY-FOURTH DAY, MAY 3, 1979

Mr. Salatino: "That's because of the particular agreement in which Boeing and other aircraft manufacturers are involved with the Warsaw Pact?"

Mr. Smith (R): "That's correct."

Mr. Newhouse again spoke against the amendments to the amendment.

Mr. King demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Bender to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 66; not voting, 0.

On motion of Mr. Polk, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by Speaker Berentson. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333 on second reading.

Ms. Becker moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Becker and Sherman to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 8 strike "persons immune from liability to the claimant."

On page 2, line 26 after "claimant" strike "persons immune from liability to the claimant."

On page 5, line 2 after "claimant" strike "a person immune from liability to the claimant."

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against them.

ROLL CALL

On page 5, line 2 after "claimant," insert "or"

On page 5, line 3 after "claimant," strike "or a person with any other individual defense"

On page 5, line 10 after "subsection." strike the remainder of the subsection down to and including "damages." on line 14.
With the consent of the House, Mr. Bender withdrew the amendments.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Becker and Sherman to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 5, beginning on line 15 strike all of subsection (7)

With the consent of the House, Ms. Becker withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Martinis moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 6, after line 21 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In any action involving the collision of a motor vehicle with an ambulance attending at the scene of an accident, and where the defendant is an attorney licensed to practice in this state, the jury may award punitive damages up to triple the amount of actual damages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The placing of any advertising or notice relating to availability of legal services on the ceiling of an ambulance is a gross misdemeanor."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ehlers: "I believe Representative Martinis is impugning the motives of those people who practice the profession of law, and I think he should speak only to the amendment."

Speaker Berentson: "I was wondering whether he was being that specific. Continue, Representative Martinis."

Mr. Martinis continued with his remarks in favor of the amendment to the Newhouse amendment.

Mr. Martinis stated, that with the consent of the House, he would withdraw his amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smith (R): "Mr. Speaker, I object to the procedure we're going through here and I think if Representative Martinis is going to offer such an amendment we ought to have a vote on it."

Speaker Berentson stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Martinis to the Newhouse amendment.

Mr. Smith (R) spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Martinis: "Mr. Speaker, the speaker is not speaking to the amendment."

Speaker Berentson: "Your point is well taken. Would you speak directly to the amendment, Representative Smith."

Mr. Smith (R) continued his remarks against the amendment.

Mr. Newhouse spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Martinis: "I believe Representative Newhouse is impugning my motives."

Speaker Berentson: "Your point is not well taken. I think he was defending the profession."

* With the consent of the House, Mr. Martinis withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 5, following line 14 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(7) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this 1979 act once the comparative fault of the parties to a lawsuit has been established the method of determining which party shall pay the judgment and seek contribution shall be as follows:

(a) If the plaintiff is found to be the party most at fault, then the plaintiff must seek payment from each solvent/liable defendant in the amount of their fault as originally computed or computed following a reallocation due to insolvency of a defendant."
(b) If there are one or more solvent/liable defendants with a greater amount of fault than the plaintiff, then the solvent/liable defendant with the greatest amount of fault shall be responsible for paying the judgment of all solvent/liable defendants and for that defendant to then seek contribution from those defendants if such contribution is desired.*

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Representatives Van Dyken and Becker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse again opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Van Dyken to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 58; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Oliver.

Ms. Becker moved adoption of the following amendments to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 8, line 38 after "A" insert "good faith"

On page 9, line 8 after "provides." insert "However, the claim of the releasing person is reduced by the amount paid pursuant to the agreement unless the agreement was not made in good faith."

All parties desiring to enter such an agreement shall give ten days' written notice to all other parties to the action. Notice shall include the terms of the agreement and shall, by way of motion, secure court approval that the agreement is made in good faith.*

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the amendments to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against them.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Becker to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 58; not voting, 0.

Mr. Salatino moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Any defendant in a product liability action based on a claim that a defect in the design of the product caused the injury may introduce evidence that the product alleged by the plaintiff to have caused the harm giving rise to the suit was designed in conformity with all safety considerations for the user which were then technologically and economically feasible, and which were generally known, or reasonably discoverable through a systematized program of risk anticipation;

(2) In any product liability action it is an affirmative defense that the product is not defective because the alternative design, manufacture, warnings, or instructions proposed by plaintiff to reduce or eliminate plaintiff's injury would increase other hazards so as to degrade overall product safety; or

(3) In any product liability action it is an affirmative defense that the damage was proximately caused entirely by substantial alteration, modification, or misuse of the product which was not reasonably foreseeable by the defendant.*

Representatives Salatino, Douthwaite, Valle and Becker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.
Point of Inquiry

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (G.A.)

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "Representative Newhouse, I want to take Representative Becker's example where a small child was burned in a walker, and I wonder if you can answer whether or not in this law, under this situation, the right of obtaining any damages by that baby would be prohibited?"

Mr. Newhouse: "No, it would not, because you could easily prove that fabrics were available for that walker which were not explosive, would not burn, and the rights of that child and his family to progress through the courts would not at all be impaired by the amendment we are proposing. As a matter of fact, I talked to several of the individuals who were here, brought down by attorneys for that hearing last Friday, and in each case their rights of recovery would not have been impaired by this bill."

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Bender.

Mr. Bender: "Representative Smith, I was at the hearing on products liability, and I heard an attorney who specializes in this type of case say, that under this section of the bill, that child would be prohibited from recovering damages. Is that true?"

Mr. Smith (R): "Yes, in my judgment that is true. I think it's important to the members to understand the reason. This isn't really all that complicated. Under product liability law in the state of Washington and every other state, strict liability applies. It's called the Restatement of Tort 402A. It says a manufacturer is strictly liable for any damages that occur to a consumer or a worker because of an unreasonable danger or defect in a product. Our state Supreme Court set up a standard for what is unreasonable danger and the court said that any product that is more dangerous than the average reasonable, prudent consumer would expect, is unreasonably dangerous. The state of the art statement here says regardless of unreasonable danger, if the product met the state of the art, economically feasible, technologically feasible, if affirmative consent—unless we put a proviso in there during these negotiations—unless the manufacturer knew or should have known that the products' hazard exceeds its utility. The problem with the case that was mentioned in the Judiciary Committee hearing or the one that Seattle attorney, Doug Hewitt, indicated had changed his mind on the bill, is that the manufacturer submitted the product to fire testing under U.S. government flammable fabrics standard, and the product passed the test. In many of these flammable fabric's cases, they do pass because of unique and strange sets of circumstances. In that case the fabric melted; it didn't burn. The outer layer of fabric in the walker was fire retardant. It didn't burn but the hot coal lay in it for a sufficient period of time and it melted through the fire retardant fabric, igniting the flammable lining inside. It's clear to me the manufacturer could have established, to the satisfaction of the jury, that there was not reason to know of the hazard of the product."

Representatives Hurley and Newhouse spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "Representative Newhouse, the Salatino amendment refers to a 'systemized program of risk anticipation.' The language in your amendment has no such clause in it. My question is, does the designer or manufacturer, under your law, have any responsibility to anticipate the risks with his design?"

Mr. Newhouse: "Yes, surely every manufacturer has that responsibility in the selling of the products which he makes for the public and that same responsibility is involved in exactly the type of legislation we talked about."

Representatives Douthwaite and Salatino spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Barnes and Smith (R) spoke against it.

Ms. Hurley: "In your new section 8, the bottom line, it says '...shall not constitute an affirmative defense if the defendant knew or should have known, that despite such conformance, the hazards inherent in the product outweigh the utility.' That bothers me. We've been talking about a stroller and, of course, the utility of a stroller is to cart a little child around. It couldn't possibly outweigh the utility of the stroller because you use a stroller day after day and just in case one in seven hundred strollers would catch on fire, how did that apply?"

Mr. Newhouse: "I would say that language would not apply to the stroller situation. For the stroller situation you would go to the language where the product's design was in conformance with the technical, economically feasible and generally available. In this hazardous situation you would rule that it was something where there was hazard inherent in the product, such as the use of dynamite, perhaps, which some people must buy. But certainly for a consumer product there is a very high standard of safety required."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Salatino to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 57; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Amen, Blair, Zimmerman.

Mr. Salatino moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 11, following section 10 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In any products liability action where the plaintiff shows that the defendant had knowledge of the defect in the product which caused the injury, and with wilful disregard for the safety of the product users proceeded to sell such product, the plaintiff shall be entitled to punitive damages, in addition to general and special damages, in such amount as the jury may determine proper."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Salatino spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.

Mr. Salatino spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. McGinnis.

Mr. McGinnis: "Mr. Newhouse, if I understood right, you suggested the courts can actually take criminal action in this type of a setting in which there was wilful and deliberate neglect of the public interest. Is that correct or is that false?"

Mr. Newhouse: "Such things have happened and are presently happening in our state where a large corporation is being charged criminally. Not that the courts have instituted it obviously, but the prosecutor brings such a charge to court and that can be done. I'm just suggesting that in civil acts, as we're talking about here, we should not set a criminal penalty."

Mr. McGinnis spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Salatino to the Newhouse amendment, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 53; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Addison.
Ms. Granlund moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Granlund, Winsley and Hurley to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 13, line 3 after "drug" insert ",," and on line 6 after "chemical" insert ", or to school buses used for school purposes."

Representatives Granlund and Hurley spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Ms. Granlund.

Ms. Granlund: "Are you asking why other trucks that are built to the same specifications aren't put into this amendment?"

Mr. Newhouse: "No, that's not the question. It's just that we do set a higher standard for trucks that are used for one purpose and then you get into a legal problem of why not that same standard for trucks used for another purpose."

Ms. Granlund: "But we're not talking about trucks, Representative Newhouse."

Mr. Newhouse: "We certainly are because a truck is the basic chassis on which a bus is constructed."

Ms. Granlund spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Granlund and others to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 49; nays, 48; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Eberle.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Representative Smith (R), having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representatives Granlund, Winsley and Hurley to the Newhouse amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Smith (R) spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Tilly spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ehlers: "I believe we are speaking about whether or not we should reconsider, not on the merits of the amendment."

SPEAKER BERENTSON'S RULING

Speaker Berentson: "Reed's Rule 203 says, 'A motion to reconsider, if agreed to, reopens the entire question for further action as if there had been no final decision.' So I believe Representative Tilly can speak to the merits of the issue."

Mr. Tilly concluded his remarks in opposition to the motion to reconsider.

Representatives Sommers, Salatino, Granlund and Douthwaite spoke in favor of the motion, and Representative Nisbet spoke against it.

Mr. Ehlers demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representative Granlund and others to the Newhouse amendment failed to pass the House, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 50; not voting, 0.
FORTY-FOURTH DAY, MAY 3, 1979

Mr. Nelson (D) moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Nelson (D), Granlund, Burns, Bender, Charnley and Pruitt to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 13, line 1 after "apply" insert "(a)"

On page 13, line 6 after "or" strike "a chemical" and insert "chemicals, which term shall include elements in their various forms, mixtures, and compounds, or"

(b) To any product liability action arising from an injury or illness which manifests no observable symptoms until five years following exposure to the product which caused the injury

Mr. Nelson (D) spoke in favor of the amendments to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sherman yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Sherman, the word 'chemical' has been construed by the courts in a variety of ways, both fairly broad and rigorously narrow. As a member of the Judiciary Committee that worked on this bill, I wonder if you could tell me what your understanding of the term 'chemical' is in this section we are dealing with that excludes exposure to a chemical from the statute of limitations?"

Ms. Sherman: "Representative Nelson, because of the increasing number of fatal and crippling injuries and diseases resulting from a number of substances and products, my opinion is that the word 'chemical' must be interpreted in its broadest sense. 'Chemical' includes all matter, whether in the form of atoms, compounds, or mixtures of atoms or compounds, whether organic or inorganic, whether crystalline or noncrystalline, whether mineral or non-mineral, whether inert or active, whether natural or synthetic, whether gas, liquid or solid form, whether the size of atoms, microscopic particles or larger molecular structures."

Representatives Nelson (D), Becker and Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke again in opposition to it.

Representatives Nelson (D) and Isaacson spoke again in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Bender demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (D) yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Nelson, what is the intent of the amendment under the language of part (b)?"

Mr. Nelson (D): "The amendment, under part (b), says that in any product liability action, regardless of whether there is a statute of limitations, if observable symptoms appear later than five years following exposure to a product which caused the injury, then there can be a cause for recovery for that injury."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Newhouse, is that your interpretation of what this does?"

Mr. Newhouse: "The (b) section of the amendment on page 13, line 6 would add new language which would weaken any statute of limitations for that period."

Representatives Isaacson and Nelson (D) again spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Haley spoke against it.
ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Nelson (D) and others to the Newhouse amendment, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 52; not voting, 0.

Mr. Salatino moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment:

Beginning on page 11, line 17 of the amendment strike all of section 11 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 4.16-RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A product seller may be liable to a claimant for harm caused by the seller's product during the useful safe life of that product. 'Useful safe life' refers to the time during which the product reasonably can be expected to perform in a safe manner. In determining whether a product's useful safe life has expired, the trier of fact may consider:

(a) The effect on the product of wear and tear or deterioration from natural causes;
(b) The effect of climatic and other local conditions in which the product was used;
(c) The policy of the user and similar users as to repairs, renewals, and replacements;
(d) Representations, instructions, and warnings made by the product seller about the product's useful safe life; and
(e) Any modification or alteration of the product by a user or third party.

(2) A product seller shall not be liable for injuries or damage caused by a product beyond its useful safe life unless the seller has so expressly warranted.

(3) If a person otherwise entitled to bring an action is, at the time the cause of action accrues, under a legal disability, as defined in RCW 4.16.190, the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for commencement of action by subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) The limitations set forth in subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any product liability action based upon the use of any drug as defined in RCW 18.64.011 or the cumulative effects of exposure to radiation or a chemical."

Mr. Salatino spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) asked Mr. Newhouse to yield to question, and Mr. Newhouse refused to yield.

Mr. Bender spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Salatino spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Salatino to the Newhouse amendment, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 50; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives McDonald, Warnke, Zimmerman.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Wilson to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 13, beginning on line 7 strike all language through line 9 on page 15. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
With the consent of the House, Mr. Wilson withdrew the amendment to the amendment.

The Clerk read the following amendments by Representatives Becker and Sherman to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 13, beginning on line 7 strike all of sections 12, 13, 14 and 15 down to and including "complaint." on line 33 of page 17.

On page 19, beginning on line 34 strike "through 17" and insert "and 13"

With the consent of the House, Ms. Becker withdrew the amendments.

Mr. Douthwaite moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Douthwaite and Salatino to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 19 of the amendment following line 21 add the following paragraph:

"The office of financial management shall also gather data on products liability and municipal tort insurance premiums written and earned, losses paid and incurred, the number of claims filed, loss adjustment expenses, total loss reserves, loss ratios, and net profits and losses.*

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Deccio: "Mr. Speaker, I challenge Representative Douthwaite's amendment on scope and object."

Speaker Berentson: "The Speaker is going to rule that the amendment to the amendment is within the scope and object of the bill."

Representatives Newhouse, Deccio and Rohrbach spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Douthwaite again spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Douthwaite and Salatino to the Newhouse amendment, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 57; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Erickson, Martinis, Zimmerman.

Mr. King demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeants at Arms were instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

On motion of Mr. Newhouse, the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2333:

On page 19, following line 29 insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 4.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The court may award a defendant in a tort action attorney's fees and costs incurred in defense of the suit if the court finds that the claim against the defendant seeking attorney's fees and costs was frivolous, unfounded or otherwise without merit.*

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Newhouse and Smith (R) spoke against it.

Mr. Tilly again spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Smith (R) spoke again in opposition to it.
Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Smith, if a suit is unfounded or otherwise a suit without merit, is there anything in present law which gives a defendant his court costs to defend himself against such a frivolous or unfounded lawsuit?"

Mr. Smith (R): "Yes, there is. An individual can claim what we call an abusive process, an action that has been in the law for many years."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Becker moved adoption of the following amendment to the Newhouse amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, beginning on line 6, strike all material down to and including line 23 on page 20 and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) In an action based on fault seeking to recover damages for injury or death to person or harm to property, any contributory fault chargeable to the claimant diminishes proportionately the amount awarded as compensatory damages for an injury attributable to the claimant's contributory fault, but does not bar recovery. This rule applies whether or not under prior law the claimant's contributory fault constituted a defense or was disregarded under applicable legal doctrines, such as last clear chance.

(2) 'Fault' includes acts or omissions that are in any measure negligent or reckless toward the person or property of the actor or others, or that subject a person to strict tort liability. The term also includes breach of warranty, unreasonable assumption of risk not constituting an enforceable express consent, misuse of a product for which the defendant otherwise would be liable, and unreasonable failure to avoid an injury or to mitigate damages. Legal requirements of causal relation apply both to fault as the basis for liability and to contributory fault.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In all actions involving fault of more than one party to the action, including third-party defendants, the court, unless otherwise agreed by all parties, shall instruct the jury to answer special interrogatories or, if there is no jury, shall make findings, indicating:

(a) The amount of damages each claimant would be entitled to recover if contributory fault is disregarded; and
(b) The percentage of the total fault of all of the parties to each claim that is allocated to each claimant, defendant, and third party defendant. For this purpose the court may determine that two or more persons are to be treated as a single party.

(2) In determining the percentages of fault, the trier of fact shall consider both the nature of the conduct of each party at fault and the extent of the causal relation between the conduct and the damages claimed.

(3) The court shall determine the award of damages to each claimant in accordance with the findings and enter judgment against each party liable on the basis of rules of joint-and-several liability. For purposes of contribution under sections 4 and 5 of this act, the court also shall determine and state in the judgment each party's equitable share of the obligation to each claimant in accordance with the respective percentages of fault.

(4) In a product liability action, as defined in section 7 of this act, a manufacturer shall be responsible for any fault attributable to its component suppliers; but a retailer, wholesaler, distributor, or other seller shall not be responsible for the fault of a manufacturer unless:

(a) The retailer, wholesaler, distributor or other seller exercised control or substantial influence over the product design, manufacture, warnings, or instructions alleged to be defective; or

(b) The retailer, wholesaler, distributor or other seller upon request refuses to disclose a prior seller in the chain of distribution from which the product was obtained; or

(c) Personal jurisdiction cannot be obtained over any known prior seller in the chain of distribution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A claim and counterclaim shall be set off, and only the difference between them is recoverable in the judgment. However, if either or both of the claims are covered by liability insurance and an insurance carrier's liability under its policy is reduced by reason of the set-off, the insured is entitled to recover from the carrier the amount of the reduction. Amounts so recovered shall be credited against pertinent liability policy limits. For purposes of uninsured-motorist and similar coverages, the amounts so recovered shall be treated as payment of those amounts to the insured by the party liable. In the event of a set-off, the court shall equitably award costs, if any, among all parties to the lawsuit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A party liable shall have a right to contribution, including a right to full indemnity, from any person whose fault caused claimant's damage. The right to contribution, including the right to full indemnity, may be enforced either in the original action or by a separate action brought for that purpose. The basis for contribution is each person's equitable share of the obligation, including the equitable share of a claimant at fault, as determined in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of this act.

(2) Contribution is available to a person who enters into a settlement with a claimant only if that person had a reasonable expectation of potential liability to the claimant, if the liability of the person against whom contribution is sought has been extinguished, and to the extent that the amount paid in settlement was reasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) If the equitable shares of the parties to a claim for contribution have been established pursuant to section 2 of this act, a party paying more than his equitable share of the obligation, upon motion, may recover judgment for contribution.

(2) If the equitable shares of the parties to the claim for contribution have not been established, contribution may be enforced in a separate action, whether or not a judgment has been rendered against either the person seeking contribution or the person from whom contribution is being sought.

(3) If a judgment has been rendered, the action for contribution shall be commenced within one year after the judgment becomes final. If no judgment has been rendered, the person bringing the action for contribution either shall have:

(a) Discharged by payment the liability within the period of the statute of limitations applicable to the claimant's right of action against him and commenced the action for contribution within one year after payment; or

(b) Agreed while action was pending to discharge the common liability and, within one year after the agreement, have paid the liability and commenced an action for contribution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A good faith release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person liable discharges that person from all liability for contribution, but the agreement does not discharge any other persons liable upon the same claim unless the agreement so provides. However, the claim of the releasing person is reduced by the amount paid pursuant to the agreement unless such agreement was not made in good faith.

All parties desiring to enter into such an agreement shall give ten days' written notice to all other parties. Notice shall include the terms of the agreement and shall, by way of motion, secure court approval that the agreement is made in good faith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) For the purpose of this chapter, the following term shall have the meaning set forth in this section:

'Product liability action' means an action brought against the seller of a product by a person seeking to recover damages for injury or death to a person or harm to property caused by a defective condition of a product, including without limitation:

(a) Any defect in product design;

(b) Any defect in product manufacture, including inspection and testing;

(c) Any failure to warn regarding the product; or

(d) Any failure to properly instruct in the use of the product.
A product liability action includes all actions based upon negligence, breach of warranty, strict liability in tort, and any other substantive legal theory, except fraud, intentionally caused injury, or consumer protection under chapter 19.86 RCW.

(2) As used in this section, the term 'seller' includes the manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, or retailer of a product.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any defendant in a product liability action based on a claim that a defect in the design of the product caused the injury may introduce evidence that the product alleged by the plaintiff to have caused the harm giving rise to the suit was designed in conformity with all safety considerations for the user which were then technologically and economically feasible, and which were generally known, or reasonably discoverable through a systematized program of risk anticipation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In any product liability action it is an affirmative defense that the damage was proximately caused by an alteration, modification, or misuse of the product which was not reasonably foreseeable by the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In any product liability action the following rules of evidence apply:

(1) When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove fault in connection with the event. This rule does not require exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment.

(2) Evidence of technology which became economically feasible and generally known or reasonably available only after the product was manufactured is inadmissible.

(3) If the plaintiff offers evidence that an alternative design would have reduced or prevented the injury, the defendant may introduce evidence to show that such alternative design would increase other hazards so as to degrade overall product safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 4.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A product seller may be liable to a claimant for harm caused by the seller's product during the useful safe life of that product. 'Useful safe life' refers to the time during which the product reasonably can be expected to perform in a safe manner. In determining whether a product's useful safe life has expired, the trier of fact may consider:

(a) The effect on the product of wear and tear or deterioration from natural causes;
(b) The effect of climatic and other local conditions in which the product was used;
(c) The policy of the user and similar users as to repairs, renewals, and replacements;
(d) Representations, instructions, and warnings made by the product seller about the product's useful safe life; and
(e) Any modification or alteration of the product by a user or third party.

(2) A product seller shall not be liable for injuries or damage caused by a product beyond its useful safe life unless the seller has so expressly warranted.

(3) It shall be a rebuttable presumption that a product's useful safe life has expired ten years following delivery to the first purchaser or lessor who was not engaged in selling products of that type.

(4) If a person otherwise entitled to bring an action is, at the time the cause of action accrues, under a legal disability, as defined in RCW 4.16.190, the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for commencement of action by this section.

(5) The presumption set forth in subsection (3) of this section shall not apply to any product liability action based upon the use of any drug as defined in RCW 18.64.011 or the cumulative effects of exposure to radiation or a chemical.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In any action for damages against the state or a political subdivision thereof, or against its officers, agents, employees, or contractors, the following affirmative defense shall be applicable, but nothing contained herein shall create any cause of action or be held or interpreted as altering or diminishing any other existing defenses.

In any action involving the design of any portion or aspect of a highway, road, bridge, street, or sidewalk, it shall be an affirmative defense that such design was not in violation of statutes or ordinances establishing or adopting design standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In any action for damages against the state or a political subdivision thereof, or against its officers, agents or employees, the following affirmative defenses shall be applicable, but nothing contained herein shall create any cause of action or be held or interpreted as altering or diminishing any other existing defenses. In any action involving inspections, or failure to inspect, made for the purpose of determining compliance with applicable laws, it shall be an affirmative defense that the governmental agency:

(1) Was not aware of the noncompliance; or
(2) Has made a reasonable attempt to notify the owner, operator, or agent responsible for compliance of the noncompliance.

Neither affirmative defense shall apply where the property inspected is owned by the governmental agency or where inspection procedures pursuant to specific standards required by applicable laws have not been followed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is hereby appropriated to the legislative budget committee the sum of sixty thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary from the general fund for the purpose of conducting a study of the unique problems presented by product liability actions which arise from workplace injuries.
The legislative budget committee shall prepare a written report of its findings and shall submit the report to the financial institutions and insurance committee and judiciary committee of the senate and the insurance committee and the judiciary committee of the house of representatives no later than January 1, 1981.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 10 and sections 12 and 13 of this 1979 act shall apply to all actions filed after the effective date of this 1979 act. Section 11 of this 1979 act shall apply to all causes of action arising after the effective date of this 1979 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the provision of the act to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 4.22 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 7 through 10 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 4 RCW.

Beginning on page 2, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the intent of the legislature that chapter 71.05 RCW as amended by this 1979 act be carefully construed to accomplish the purposes stated in RCW 71.05.010 and hereby reaffirmed.

Sec. 2. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 7, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(2) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

(3) A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

(4) A regular physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient, but this exception shall not apply in any judicial proceeding regarding a child's injuries, neglect or sexual abuse, or the cause thereof.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 117, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 198, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 10.77.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If at any time during the pendency of an action and prior to judgment, the court finds following a report as provided in RCW 10.77.060, as now or hereafter amended, that the defendant is incompetent, the court shall order the proceedings against him be stayed, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, and, if the defendant is charged with a felony, may commit the defendant to the custody of the secretary, who shall place such defendant in an appropriate facility of the department for evaluation and treatment, or the court may alternatively order the defendant to undergo evaluation and treatment at some other facility, or under the guidance and control of some other person, until he has regained the competency necessary to understand the proceedings against him and assist in his own defense, but in any event, for no longer than a period of ninety days. A copy of the report shall be sent to the facility. On or before expiration of the initial ninety day period of commitment the court shall conduct a hearing, at which it shall determine whether or not the defendant is incompetent. If the defendant is charged with a crime which is not a felony, the court may stay or dismiss proceedings and detain the defendant for sufficient time to allow the county mental health professional to evaluate the defendant and commence proceedings under chapter 71.05 RCW if appropriate; and subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall not be applicable: PROVIDED, That, upon order of the court, the prosecutor may directly petition for fourteen days of involuntary treatment under chapter 71.05 RCW.

(2) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is incompetent, the court shall have the option of extending the order of commitment or alternative treatment for an additional ninety day period, but it must at the time of extension set a date for a prompt hearing to determine the defendant's competency before the expiration of the second ninety day period. The defendant, his attorney, the prosecutor, or the judge shall have the right to demand that the hearing on or before the expiration of the second ninety day period be before a jury. If no demand is made, the hearing shall be before the court. The court or jury shall determine whether or not the defendant has become competent.

(3) At the hearing upon the expiration of the second ninety day period if the jury or court, as the case may be, finds that the defendant is incompetent, the charges shall be dismissed without prejudice, and either civil commitment proceedings shall be instituted, if appropriate, or the court shall order the release of the defendant: PROVIDED, That the criminal charges shall not be dismissed if at the end of the second ninety day period the court or jury finds that the defendant is a substantial danger to other persons, or presents a substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security, and that there is a substantial probability that the defendant will regain competency within a reasonable period of time. In the event that the court or jury makes such a finding, the court may extend the period of commitment for an additional six months. At the end of said six month period, if the defendant remains incompetent, the charges shall be dismissed without prejudice and either civil commitment proceedings shall be instituted, if appropriate, or the court shall order release of the defendant.

(4) The fact that the defendant is unfit to proceed does not preclude any pretrial proceedings which do not require the personal participation of the defendant.

(5) A defendant receiving medication for either physical or mental problems shall not be prohibited from standing trial, if the medication either enables him to understand the proceedings against him and to assist in his own defense, or does not disable him from so understanding and assisting in his own defense.

(6) At or before the conclusion of any commitment period provided for by this section, the facility providing evaluation and treatment shall provide to the court a written report of examination which meets the requirements of RCW 10.77.060(3).

Sec. 4. Section 11, chapter 117, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 198, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 10.77.110 are each amended to read as follows:

If a defendant is acquitted of a felony by reason of insanity, and it is found that he is not a substantial danger to other persons, or does not present a substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security, unless kept under further control by the court or other persons or institutions, the court shall direct his final discharge. If it is found that (the) such defendant is a substantial danger to himself or others and in need of control by the court or other persons or institutions, the court shall order his hospitalization, or any appropriate alternative treatment less restrictive than detention in a state mental hospital, pursuant to the terms of this chapter. If it is found that (the) such defendant is not a substantial danger to other persons, or does not present a substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security, but that he is in need of control by the court or other persons or institutions, the court shall direct his conditional release. If the defendant is acquitted by reason of insanity of a crime which is not a felony, the court shall order the defendant's release or order the defendant's continued custody only for a reasonable time to allow the county-designated mental-health professional to evaluate the individual and to proceed with civil commitment pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW, if considered appropriate.

Sec. 7. Section 17, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.120 are each amended to read as follows:

((determining or releasing a person)) performing his duties pursuant to this (((1974 amendatory act at or before the end of the period for which he was admitted or committed)) chapter with regard to the decision of whether to admit, release, or detain a person for evaluation ((or)) and treatment: PROVIDED, That such duties were performed in good faith and without gross negligence.

Sec. 8. Section 18, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.130 are each amended to read as follows:

In any judicial proceeding for involuntary commitment or detention, or in any proceeding challenging such commitment or detention, the prosecuting attorney for the county in which the proceeding was initiated shall represent the individual or agencies petitioning for commitment or detention and shall defend all challenges to such commitment or detention: PROVIDED, That after January 1, 1980, the attorney general shall represent and provide legal services and advice to state hospitals or institutions with regard to all provisions of and proceedings under this chapter except in proceedings initiated by such hospitals and institu-

Sec. 9. Section 20, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) When a mental health professional designated by the county receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is generally disabled, such mental health professional, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged, and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons, if any, providing information to initiate detention, may summon such person to appear at an evaluation and treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period; the summons shall state whether the required seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment services may be delivered on an outpatient or inpatient status. The mental health professional shall also designate, at the time of the summons, from a list provided by the court, an attorney who will be appointed, if any is to be appointed, and state the name, business address, and telephone number of this attorney in the summons.

(b) The summons shall state a date and time to appear not less than twenty-four hours after the service of the summons. The summons shall state the address of the evaluation and treatment facility to which such person is to report and the business address and phone number of the mental health professional designated by the county. The summons shall state that if the person named in the summons fails to appear at the evaluation and treatment facility at or before the date and time stated in the summons, such person may be involuntarily taken into custody. Accompanying the summons to such person shall be a copy of the petition for initial detention and a notice of rights.

(c) If such mental health professional decides to summon such person for up to a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period, the mental health professional must file in court the summons, the petition for initial detention, and all documentary evidence. The mental health professional shall then serve or cause to be served on such person, his guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the summons together with a notice of rights and a petition for initial detention. After service on such person the mental health professional shall file the return of service in court and provide copies of all papers in the court file to the evaluation and treatment facility and the designated attorney. The mental health professional shall notify the court and the prosecuting attorney that a probable cause hearing will be held within seventy-two hours of the date and time specified on the summons if such person is not released prior to the expiration of such period.

(d) If the person summoned appears on or before the date and time specified, the evaluation and treatment facility may admit such person as required by RCW 71.05.170 or may provide treatment on an outopatient basis. If the person summoned fails to appear on or before the date and time specified, the evaluation and treatment facility shall immediately notify the mental health professional designated by the county who may notify a peace officer to take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility. Should the mental health professional notify a peace officer authorizing him to take a person into custody under the provisions of this subsection, he shall file with the court a copy of such authorization and a notice of detention. At the time such person is taken into custody there shall commence to be served on such person, his guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the original summons together with a notice of detention, a notice of rights, and a petition for initial detention.

(2) When a mental health professional designated by the county receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a mental disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the mental health professional may take such person, or cause by oral or written order such person to be taken into emergency custody in an evaluation and treatment facility for not more than seventy-two hours as described in RCW 71.05.180.

(3) A peace officer may take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility pursuant to subsection ((1)(d)) of this section.

(4) A peace officer may, without prior notice of the proceedings provided for in subsection (1) of this section, take or cause such person to be taken into custody and immediately delivered to an evaluation and treatment facility:

(a) Only pursuant to subsections ((1)(d) and (2)) of this section; or
(b) When he has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a mental disorder and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled.

(5) Persons delivered to evaluation and treatment facilities by peace officers pursuant to subsection (4)(b) of this section may be held by the facility for a period of up to twelve hours: PROVIDED, That they are examined by a mental health professional within three hours of their arrival. Within twelve hours of their arrival, the designated county mental health professional must file a supplemental petition for detention, and the county, the person, or the designated attorney for the detained person.

Sec. 10. Section 23, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.180 are each amended to read as follows:

If the evaluation and treatment facility admits the person, it may detain him for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours from the time of acceptance as set forth in RCW 71.05-170. The computation of such seventy-two hour period shall (include Saturdays but) exclude Sundays and holidays.

Sec. 11. Section 24, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.190 are each amended to read as follows:

If the person is not approved for admission by a facility providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment, and the individual has not been arrested, the facility shall furnish transportation, if not otherwise available, for the person to his place of residence or other appropriate place. If the individual has been arrested, the evaluation and treatment facility shall detain the individual for not more than eight hours at the request of the peace officer in order to enable a peace officer to return to the facility and take the individual back into custody.

Sec. 12. Section 29, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.240 are each amended to read as follows:

If a petition is filed for fourteen day involuntary treatment, the court shall hold a probable cause hearing within seventy-two hours of the initial detention of such person as determined in RCW 71.05.180, as now or hereafter amended. If requested by the detained person or his attorney, the hearing may be postponed for a period not to exceed forty-eight hours. The hearing may also be continued subject to the conditions set forth in RCW 71.05.220 or subject to the petitioner's showing of good cause for a period not to exceed twenty-four hours.

At the conclusion of the probable cause hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that such person, as the result of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, finds that no such alternatives are in the best interests of such person or others, the court shall order that such person be detained for involuntary treatment not to exceed fourteen days in a facility certified to provide treatment by the department of social and health services. If the court finds that such person, as the result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, but that treatment in a less restrictive setting than detention is in the best interest of such person or others, the court shall order an appropriate less restrictive course of treatment for not to exceed fourteen days.

The court shall specifically state to such person and give such person notice in writing that if involuntary treatment beyond the fourteen day period is to be sought, such person will have the right to a full hearing or jury trial as required by RCW 71.05.310.

Sec. 13. Section 33, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.280 are each amended to read as follows:

At the expiration of the fourteen day period of intensive treatment, a person may be confined for further treatment pursuant to RCW 71.05.320 for an additional period, not to exceed ninety days if:

(1) Such person after having been taken into custody for evaluation and treatment has threatened, attempted, or inflicted: (a) Physical harm upon the person of another or himself ((after having been taken into custody for evaluation and treatment), or substantial damage upon the property of another, and((c))) (b) as a result of mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself; or

(2) Such person was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he attempted or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another or himself, and continues to present, as a result of mental disorder, a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself; or

(3) Such person ((is in custody because he)) has been determined to be incompetent and criminal charges have been dismissed pursuant to RCW 10.77.090(3), as now or hereafter amended, and has committed acts constituting a felony, and as a result of a mental disorder, presents a substantial likelihood of repeating similar acts. In any proceeding pursuant to this subsection it shall not be necessary to show intent, wilfulness, or state of mind as an element of the felony; or

(4) Such person is gravely disabled.

For the purposes of this chapter 'custody' shall mean involuntary detention under the provisions of this chapter or chapter ((10-76)) 10.77 RCW, uninterrupted by any period of unconditional release from a facility providing involuntary care and treatment.

Sec. 14. Section 37, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280 have been proven and that the best interests of the person or others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an alternative to detention, the court shall remand him to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department of social and health services for a further period of intensive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment. An order for treatment less restrictive than involuntary detention may include conditions, and if such conditions are not adhered to, the designated mental health professional may order the person apprehended under the terms and conditions of RCW 71.05.340 as now or hereafter amended.

If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280 have been proven, but finds that the treatment less restrictive than detention will be in the best interest of the person or others, then the court shall remand him to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department of social and health services or to a less restrictive alternative for a further period of less restrictive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment.

(2) Said person shall be released from involuntary treatment at the expiration of ninety days unless the superintendent or professional person in charge of the facility in which he is confined, or in the event of a less restrictive alternative, the designated mental health professional, files a new petition for involuntary treatment on the grounds that the committed person;
(a) During the current period of court ordered treatment: (i) Has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of another (during the current period of court ordered treatment and) substantial damage upon the property of another, and (ii) as a result of mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm to others; or
(b) Was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he attempted or inflicted serious physical harm upon the person of another, and continues to present, as a result of mental disorder a likelihood of serious harm to others; or (c) Is in custody pursuant to RCW 71.05.280(3) and as a result of mental disorder presents a substantial likelihood of repeating similar acts; or
(d) Continues to be gravely disabled.

If the conduct required to be proven in subsections (b) and (c) of this section was found by a judge or jury in a prior trial under this chapter, it shall not be necessary to reprove that element. Such new petition for involuntary treatment shall be filed and heard in the superior court of the county of the facility which is filing the new petition for involuntary treatment unless good cause is shown for a change of venue. The cost of the proceedings shall be borne by the state.

The hearing shall be held as provided in RCW 71.05.310, and if the court or jury finds that the grounds for additional confinement as set forth in this subsection are present, the court may order the committed person returned for an additional period of treatment not to exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment. At the end of the one hundred eighty day period of commitment, the committed person shall be released unless a petition for another one hundred eighty day period of continued treatment is filed and heard in the same manner as provided herein above. Successive one hundred eighty day commitments are permissible on the same grounds and pursuant to the same procedures as the original one hundred eighty day commitment. No person committed as herein provided may be detained unless a valid order of commitment is in effect. No order of commitment can exceed one hundred eighty days in length.

Sec. 15. Section 39, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 24, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.340 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) When, in the opinion of the superintendent or the professional person in charge of the hospital or facility providing involuntary treatment, the committed person can be appropriately served by outpatient (care) treatment prior to or at the expiration of the period of commitment, ((then such outpatient care may be required as a condition for immediate release for a period during which, when added to the inpatient treatment period, shall not exceed the period of the commitment) then outpatient treatment may be required for a period which shall not exceed ninety days. If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient ((care)) treatment is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated county mental health professional in the county in which the patient is to receive outpatient treatment, and to the court of original commitment.

(2) The hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care or the secretary may modify the conditions for continued release when such modification is in the best interest of the person. Notification of such changes shall be sent to all persons receiving a copy of the original conditions.

(3) If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care, the designated county mental health professional or the secretary determines that a conditionally released person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his release, ((and because of that failure has become a substantial danger to himself or other persons;)) then, upon notification by the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care, or on his own motion, the designated county mental health professional or the secretary may order that the condi-tionally released person be apprehended and taken into custody and temporarily detained in an evaluation and treatment facility in or near the county in which he is receiving outpatient treatment until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he had been conditionally released. The designated county mental health professional or the secretary may modify or rescind such order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing. The court that originally ordered commitment shall be notified within two judicial days of a person's detention under the provisions of this section, and the designated county mental health professional or the secretary shall file his petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court and serve them upon the person detained. His attorney, if any, and his guardian or conservator, if any, shall receive a copy of such papers as soon as possible. Such person shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for an involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section and except that there shall be no right to jury trial. The issues to be determined shall be whether the conditionally released person did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his release; and, if he failed to adhere to such terms and conditions, whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person shall be returned to the facility. Pursuant to the determination of the court upon such hearing, the conditionally released person shall either continue to be conditionally released on the same or modified conditions or shall be returned for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis subject to release at the end of the period for which he was committed for involuntary treatment, or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such hearing may be waived by the person and his counsel and his guardian or conservator, if any, but shall not be waivable unless all such persons agree to waive, and upon such waiver the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

(4) The proceedings set forth in subsection (3) of this section may be initiated by the designated county mental health professional or the secretary on the same basis set forth therein without requiring or ordering the apprehension and detention of the conditionally released person, in which case the court hearing shall take place in not less than fifteen days from the date of service of the petition upon the conditionally released person.

Upon expiration of the period of commitment, or when the person is released from outpatient care, notice in writing to the court which committed the person for treatment shall be provided.

Sec. 16. Section 44, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.390 are each amended to read as follows:

The fact of admission and all information and records compiled, obtained, or maintained in the course of providing services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services at public or private agencies shall be confidential.

Information and records may be disclosed only:

(1) In communications between qualified professional persons to meet the requirements of this chapter, in the provision of services or appropriate referrals, or in the course of guardianship proceedings. (2) When the communications regard the special needs of a patient and the necessary circumstances giving rise to such needs and the disclosure is made by a facility providing outpatient services to the operator of a care facility in which the patient resides.

Such rules shall include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that all evaluators and researchers must sign an oath of confidentiality substantially as follows:

'As a condition of conducting evaluation or research concerning persons who have received services from (fill in the facility, agency, or person) I, .................. agree not to divulge, publish, or otherwise make known to unauthorized persons or the public any information obtained in the course of such evaluation or research regarding persons who have received services such that the person who received such services is identifiable.

I recognize that unauthorized release of confidential information may subject me to civil liability under the provisions of state law.

(((6))) (7) To law enforcement officers or public health officers necessary to carry out the responsibilities of their office: PROVIDED, That

(b) The law enforcement and public health officers shall be obligated to keep such information confidential in accordance with this chapter; and

(c) Additional information shall be disclosed only after giving notice to said person and his counsel and upon a showing of clear, cogent and convincing evidence that such information is necessary and that appropriate safeguards for strict confidentiality are and will be maintained: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That in the event the said person has escaped from custody, said notice prior to disclosure is not necessary and that the facility from which the person escaped shall include an evaluation as to whether the person is of danger to persons or property and has a propensity toward violence.

(((7))) (8) To the attorney of the detained person.

The records and files maintained in any court proceeding pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential and available subsequent to such proceedings only to the person who was the subject of the proceeding or his attorney. In addition, the court may order the subsequent release or use of such records or files only upon good cause shown if the court finds that appropriate safeguards for strict confidentiality are and will be maintained.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) called the House to order.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2388 as amended by the House.

MOTION

Mr. Schmitten moved that the rules be suspended and the bill be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. Schmitten spoke in favor of the motion, and Ms. Craswell spoke against it.

The motion was lost.

Representatives Greengo and Smith (R) spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Jovanovich and Schmitten spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Smith, when this bill came before the Revenue Committee I was concerned about the fairness of removing this tax and whether it would be fair to other people in the fish business that were raising fish. I asked the gentleman from the Fisheries Department whether there would be some adjustment in the charges made for the eggs that these people will have to pay and he assured me there would be. It seems to me that what he was saying is that the state cannot lend its credit. We can't give away any value or any valuable product of the state to any private person. Even though, as Representative Schmitten has said, there was a price set that took into account the taxes that were previously paid, if we change those taxes, as we are now, limiting those taxes, there would have to be an adjustment in those prices to reflect the true value. I'm wondering if you would comment on that, and if you think that would have to be done legally so they would be paying for the true value of the eggs?"

Mr. Smith (R): "Yes, that is my understanding, Representative Nelson. The fishermen, the aquaculture, that purchase these eggs have to pay the fair value of them otherwise the state would be lending its credit to private corporations which would not be appropriate. I think it's important for us to keep in mind that the aquaculture is paying the five percent tax, or are being asked to pay the five percent tax, not on the value of the things they purchase from the enhancement program, the eggs, but five percent on the value of the product that it sells for after they've vaccinated the fish, paid for the research costs that are inherent in their program, paid for all the fees to raise the fish up from eggs to marketable size. If it was five percent from what they were getting from the enhancement program, that would be fine. Ironically, the larger the state's enhancement program is the lower the surplus is. Actually, aquaculture is being hurt by the enhancement program because it's creating a much larger need for eggs."

Mr. Jovanovich again opposed the bill, and Ms. Craswell spoke in favor of it.
Ms. Craswell yielded to question by Mr. Fuller.

Mr. Fuller: "Representative Craswell, I presume that people that do this sea farming appeared before the Revenue Committee. Were there cases where this five percent was going to force them out of business, or be a substantial burden?"

Ms. Craswell: "There was only one attorney who came and testified, but I talked to numerous owners of the fish growers, and yes, there is every indication that they cannot make it. They are a new industry, just getting off the ground, and many of them have indicated to me there is no way they can stay in business if this tax is imposed."

Mr. Fuller spoke in favor of the bill.

Mr. Jovanovich asked Ms. Craswell to yield to question, and Ms. Craswell refused to yield.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2388 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 60; nays, 34; not voting, 4.

Regulating certain educational institutions.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Higher Education recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, 16th Day ex. sess., April 5, 1979.)

On motion of Mr. Barnes, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Haley moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Haley and McCormick:

On page 5, after line 7 add the following new sections:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated to the state energy office from the general fund, the sum of two hundred fifty-one thousand dollars or so much thereof as shall be necessary for the biennium ending June 30, 1981. The appropriation provided for in this section shall be expended exclusively for the additional staff which may be needed to handle fuel allocation requirements. If federal funds are received for this purpose an equal amount of this appropriation shall be placed in reserve.

On page 1, line 1 strike "and"
On page 1, line 4 after "RCW 43.21G.040" insert "; and making an appropriation"

Representatives Haley and Blair spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Haley yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I'd like a bit more detail on what it is we're allocating here, Representative Haley. Representative Blair mentioned rationing. Are we talking about diesel, home heating fuel or auto fuel, or what are we talking about?"

Mr. Haley: "We're talking about all those things. You know about the way the state is able to hold back on three percent of the supplies of gasoline and, I believe, four percent of the diesel fuel and distillates because of the apparent shortage. Because of the problems of supplying dealers with gasoline and the problems with supplying the necessary diesel fuel needed, the Energy Office has been quite busy with applications for additional allocations needed. They had one thousand applications last month and that averages out at two hundred fifty applications for each of the four areas in the state. These applications come through because some fisherman or trucker or some gas station operator can't get his usual supply of gasoline for his operation. Apparently this is something that has just come up along with the fuel crunch that we're in, creating a necessity for this."

Mr. Douthwaite: "The bottom line says we're now going to need twelve full time employees to take care of the impending rationing problem which applies to fishermen, as well as auto drivers, and home furnaces? Twelve people just continually to do the job?"

Mr. Haley: "They are asking for six per year which comes to twelve totally. One for each area, one to supervise the whole program and one to handle the special problems of special cases."

Mr. Williams spoke in favor of the amendments.

The amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2442 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Haley spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

"(7) Schools or training programs whose course content is regulated or approved by a Washington state agency under the authority of an occupational or professional licensing law as to the portion or program of the school or training program approved or regulated."

Ms. Teutsch spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Grimm spoke against it.

On page 7, line 12 following "fee" strike "of two hundred dollars" and insert "equal to the amount necessary to pay all of the agency's costs generated by the educational institution's registration as such amount is determined by the agency."

Representatives Tupper and Barnes spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Grimm and Becker spoke against it.

Mr. Tupper spoke again in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tupper, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 14 following "fee" strike "of one hundred dollars" and insert "equal to the amount necessary to pay all of the agency's costs generated by the educational institution's registration as such amount is determined by the agency. The agency shall set such registration fees as may be necessary to insure that this 1979 act is self funding."

On motion of Mr. Salatino, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2434 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Grimm spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "Would you name a couple of 'diploma mills' in the state?"

Mr. Grimm: "A couple of the examples we have, we have a number of out-of-state, supposedly colleges, that a lot of us have never heard of that are licensed as businesses. One of them, for instance, is from the state of Missouri and they offer a program—they come into this state and advertise themselves as, let's say, 'The Zimmerman University,' and they build up in their advertising that they are an established institution from another state when they are not—at least from every analysis we are able to find in a lot of instances. They say if you come and take so many English classes, or whatever, to get a degree in English or any other major, and absolutely we have no indication that the faculty they have is at all qualified to teach or any way recognized as a justifiable institution from any state. Another example is vocational schools. They come in and say you can get placement within six months and in actuality the students pay the fees and learn a trade, I’m not sure of that, but they get no placement. As a result, it’s very shoddy advertising and misleading. That’s the kind of example of diploma mill I mean."

Mr. Zimmerman: "Most of these that you have mentioned are from out of state. Are they going to be able to be controlled through this law? I’m wondering about how you do control the out-of-state ones?"

Mr. Grimm: "The method by which they would be controlled is that they offer a program within the state of Washington right here in this state. We would not be able to stop any other state in their own state, but we could control and make sure they offer quality programs in this state."

Mr. Eberle spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Barnes spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2434 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 5; not voting, 2.

Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "Representative Martinis, I’m confused about what you are suggesting the Senate has done. It’s my understanding as a practice in the House, when we have a lot of amendments and large amendments, we do not divide the question. Apparently that is not the case with the Senate. The language I see here is the amendment added by Representative Rohrbach on the floor. Is that what you’re asking us to not recede from?"

Mr. Martinis: "Representative Ehlers, the rules of the House provide for dividing an issue when an amendment is proposed. What happened here is the Senate divided an amendment that the House passed and there is no provision in either Senate rules, House rules or joint rules for this provision. I agree with the intent of what the Senate was trying to do because what they are trying to take out of there we have AG opinions on similar situations which were
Mr. Ehlers: "My understanding then is that when they recede we will eliminate this section, this entire amendment, from the bill, including this language?"

Mr. Martinis: "That is my understanding."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Dunlap, as I read this, it could include a study of all utilities and similar taxation and if we did this, that would include legislation such as House Bill No. 294, which would tax utility that generates electricity. Do you intend it to include the whole gamut of energy taxation as well as other utility taxation?"

Mr. Dunlap: "I think that might very well be within the scope of the floor resolution, but that decision, in my judgment, should be left to the Co-Chairmen of the Energy and Utilities Committee."

House Resolution No. 79-54 was adopted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1013 with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The state or Washington has a large and growing need for electrical energy. The state or Washington possesses a great potential for the generation of electrical or mechanical power and useful heat energy through the process or cogeneration. It is the purpose and intent of the legislature to promote the growth of cogeneration in the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Cogeneration' means the sequential generation of electrical or mechanical power and useful heat from the same primary energy source or fuel.

(2) 'Cogeneration facility' means any machinery, equipment, structure, process, or property, or any part thereof, installed or acquired for the primary purpose of cogeneration by a person or corporation other than an electric utility.

(3) 'Certificate' means a cogeneration tax credit certificate granted by the department.

(4) 'Cost' means only the cost of a cogeneration facility which is in addition to the cost that the applicant otherwise would incur to meet the applicant's demands for useful heat. 'Cost' does not include expenditures which are offset by cost savings, including but not limited to savings resulting from early retirement of existing equipment.

(5) 'Department' means the department of revenue.

(6) 'Electric utility' means any person, corporation, or governmental subdivision authorized and operating under the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington which is primarily engaged in the generation or sale of electric energy.

(7) 'Office' means the state energy office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) An application for a certificate shall be filed with the department. The application shall contain the estimated or actual cost, plans, and specifications of the cogeneration facility, including all materials incorporated or to be incorporated therein, and a list describing and showing all expenditures made by the applicant for the purpose of cogeneration, together with the operating procedure for the facility, and if the facility has not been constructed, a time schedule for the acquisition and installation or attachment of the cogeneration facility and the proposed operating procedure for the cogeneration facility.

(2) The department shall provide a copy of the application to the energy office within ten days after receipt thereof. Within sixty days after receipt of the application from the department, the office shall approve the application but only if it first determines that construction of the cogeneration facility began or will begin after the effective date of this act, that the cogeneration facility is designed and is operated or will be operated primarily for cogeneration, and that the cogeneration facility is suitable, reasonably adequate, and meets the intent and purposes of this chapter.

(3) Within ten days after approval of the application, the office shall provide a copy thereof to the department. Within thirty days after receipt thereof the department shall issue the certificate but only if it finds that the cost data in the application is accurate. If the application contains estimated cost data, the certificate shall be conditioned upon the applicant providing sufficient information for the department to determine the actual cost of the cogeneration facility on the date it becomes operational. Within sixty days after the cogeneration facility is operational the department shall review the certificate. If the actual cost of the cogeneration facility is less than the cost shown in the certificate, the department shall issue a modified certificate or a supplement to the original certificate, showing the actual cost of the cogeneration facility.

(4) The department, with the approval of the office, may adopt rules specifying the administrative procedures applicable to applications for certification, the form and manner in which the applications shall be filed and additional information to be contained therein. The rules shall apply to administrative procedures before both the office and the department. An applicant shall have the opportunity for a hearing before the office and the department in respect to their respective decisions granting or denying approval or certification.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) No certificate or supplement may be issued after December 31, 1984.

(2) The department shall keep a running tabulation of the total cogeneration facility costs incurred or planned to be incurred pursuant to certificates or supplements issued under this chapter. The department may not issue any new certificate or any supplement if the certificate or supplement would result in the tabulation exceeding one hundred million dollars. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to bar any certificate holder from amending the certificate or obtaining a supplement thereto so long as the amendment or supplement is issued prior to December 1, 1984, and does not increase the total amount of cogeneration facility costs incurred or planned to be incurred under the original certificate.

(3) The department may adopt any rules under chapter 34.04 RCW it considers necessary for the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. When a cogeneration facility is operational and a certificate pertaining thereto has been issued, a credit may be claimed against taxes imposed under chapter 82.04 RCW, if the due date for payment of the taxes is after the effective date of the certificate: PROVIDED, That the date on which the facility is operational is no more than four years after the date of issuance of the certificate. The amount of the credit shall be two percent of the cost of a facility covered by the certificate for each year the certificate remains in force. The credits shall be cumulative and shall be subject only to the following limitations:

(1) The tax credit shall apply to capital costs only and shall not apply to operating costs.

(2) A person, firm, corporation, or organization which acquires a cogeneration facility shall be entitled to the credit only to the extent that it has previously not been taken. Under no circumstances may a credit be taken more than once against any cost or portion thereof of a cogeneration facility.

(3) No credit exceeding fifty percent of the taxes payable under chapter 82.04 RCW shall be allowed in any reporting period.

(4) The total cumulative amount of the credits allowed for any cogeneration facility covered by a certificate shall not exceed fifty percent of the cost of the cogeneration facility.

(5) The total cumulative amount of credits against state taxes authorized by this chapter shall be reduced by the total amount of any federal investment credit or other federal tax credit actually received by the certificate holder applicable to the cogeneration facility. This reduction shall be made as an offset against the credit claimed in the first reporting period following the allowance of the investment credit, or other credit, and thereafter as an offset against any credit balance as it shall become available to the certificate holder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If subsequent to the issuance of a certificate for a cogeneration facility and prior to December 31, 1984, a determination is made to modify or replace the cogeneration facility, the holder of the certificate may file an application for a modified certificate or supplement to the existing certificate covering the modified or replacement cogeneration facility in accordance with the procedures set forth in this chapter for original certificates and supplements. After the issuance by the department of any modified certificate or supplement, all subsequent tax credits and exemptions for the cogeneration facility shall be based on the modified certificate or supplement and shall be exclusively based on the cost shown in the modified or supplemented certificate.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department shall send a certificate or supplement, when issued, by certified mail to the applicant. Notice of the department's refusal to issue a certificate or supplement shall likewise be sent to the applicant by certified mail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall revoke any certificate issued under this chapter if it finds that any of the following have occurred with respect to the certificate:

(a) The certificate was obtained by fraud or deliberate misrepresentation;

(b) The certificate was obtained through the use of inaccurate data but without any intention to commit fraud or misrepresentation;

(c) The facility was constructed or operated in violation of any provision of this chapter or provision imposed by the department as a condition of certification; or

(d) The cogeneration facility is no longer capable of being operated for the primary purpose of cogeneration.

(2) If the department finds that there are few inaccuracies under subsection (1)(b) of this section and that cumulatively they are insignificant in terms of the cost or operation of the facility or that the inaccurate data is not attributable to carelessness or negligence and its inclusion was reasonable under the circumstances, then the department may provide for the continuance of the certificate and whatever modification it considers in the public interest.
(3) Any person, firm, corporation, or organization that obtains a certificate revoked under this section shall be liable for the total amount of money saved by claiming the credits and exemptions provided under this chapter and section 9 of this act. The total amount of the credits shall be collected as delinquent business and occupation taxes, and the total of the exemptions shall be collected and distributed as delinquent property taxes. Interest shall accrue on the amounts of the credits and exemptions from the date the taxes were otherwise due.

(4) The office shall provide technical assistance to the department in carrying out its responsibilities under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Cogeneration facilities which have been granted a cogeneration tax credit certificate under chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this act) shall be exempt from property taxation for a period of seven years from the date on which the facility is operational or until the certificate is revoked, whichever is first. For the purposes of the exemption under this section the value of the cogeneration facility shall be based upon the cost shown in the certificate.

Claims for the exemption authorized by this section shall be filed with the county assessor on forms prescribed by the department of revenue and furnished by the assessor. The assessor shall verify and approve such claims as he or she determines to be justified in accordance with this section.

The department of revenue shall promulgate such rules and regulations, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW as are necessary and convenient to properly administer the provisions of this section.

Sec. 10. Section 80.04.010, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 47, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 80.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In accordance with RCW 43.17.200, all state agencies or departments shall expend, as a nondeductible item, out of any moneys appropriated for the original construction of any state building, an amount of one-half of one percent of the appropriation for the acquisition of works of art which may be an integral part of the structure, attached to the structure, detached within or outside of the structure, or can be exhibited by the agency in other public facilities. In case the amount shall not be required in toto or in part for any project, such unrequired amounts may be accumulated and expended for art in other projects of the agency. For the purpose of this section, 'building' does not include highway construction sheds, warehouses, or other buildings of a temporary nature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 199. The director of general administration shall transfer to the department of social and health services the facility known as Northern State Hospital, along with all attached real estate under the jurisdiction of the department of general administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 200. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 82, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., the house of representatives, the senate, and the permanent statutory committees shall pay expenses quarterly to the department of general administration facilities and services revolving fund for services rendered by the department for operations, maintenance, and supplies relating to buildings, structures, and facilities utilized by the legislature for the biennium beginning July 1, 1979.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. The word 'agency' used herein means and includes every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board, and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

The phrase 'agencies headed by elective officials' used herein means those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it does not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above-mentioned officials serve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of financial management, with the approval of the governor, may:

(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment: PROVIDED, That the director of the office of financial management shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative committee; or the judicial branch of state government: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved appropriations or to incur a deficiency and any obligations so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revisions of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues;

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds;

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. In the event that receipts are less than those appropriated in the budget from any source, expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 202 of this act. Receipts for purposes of this section include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. State funds appropriated for the specific purpose of matching federal funds and which are not required wholly or in part to qualify for such federal funds shall be placed in reserve and shall revert to the fund from which appropriated at the end of the respective fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. Any programs which are supported in whole or in part by federal funds shall not receive any additional state funds for the programs in the event that federal funds are reduced or eliminated for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. Unless otherwise provided for by this act with respect to any specific agency, program, or revenue source, any receipts from federal or other sources, or from gifts or grants, in excess of estimates for the budget expenditures as approved by the legislature and which are not otherwise available for general governmental purposes, may be received and allotted by the governor in accordance with RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. If a scheduled program or project funded by the appropriations contained in this act has not been fully implemented during any quarter of the respective fiscal year, then the office of financial management shall withhold the equivalent amount of the appropriation and full time equivalent staff years from such program or project and shall place the same in reserve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of financial management shall direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution, bond retirement and interest, and interest on registered warrants, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 39.34.130 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of financial management, which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services, and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. The chairmen of the senate committee on ways and means and the house appropriations committee shall review monthly reports of state agency expenditures prepared by the legislative evaluation and accountability program and shall advise their respective committee members of substantial deviations from an agency's allotment expenditure plan. The chairmen may request from an agency, or the office of financial management, such information as may be necessary to determine the reasons for such deviations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. The office of financial management shall place in reserve status 3% of the general fund—state appropriations contained in this act. Such moneys shall remain in reserve status and may not be authorized for expenditure through the allotment process in any fiscal quarter unless the governor determines that projected economic conditions warrant additional expenditures: PROVIDED, That for institutions of higher education the requirements of this section are in addition to any enrollment reserve requirements set forth in section 214 of this act.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to sections 34, 38, or 100 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. In accordance with the provisions of this section, the office of financial management shall use the allotment process during the 1979–81 biennium to control the funding of the formula portion of the instruction services program of all the institutions of higher education. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, deviations in the formula entitlements for faculty staffing shall be the controlling factor for the four-year institutions of higher education while full time equivalent student enrollment will be the controlling factor for the community college system. For the purpose of this section, the 'contract level' is defined as the level upon which the budget is based, and the 'base level' is defined as the level corresponding to the prior year's actual enrollment level. Controls shall be applied to each four-year institution separately and to the community college system as a total entity. 'Growth funding' is defined as that portion of the state general fund appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level. Growth funds may be allotted or placed in reserve at the option of the institution or system. Uncollected growth funds will be reverted to the state general fund prior to the end of the fiscal year in which such growth fails to materialize. If the Evergreen State College's enrollments for the first year of the biennium exceed the contract level, additional funding will be considered. Olympia Technical Community College shall not become comprehensive and shall offer only courses essential to vocational education. Expenditures shall be authorized for the rental of off-campus classroom facilities by community college district number twelve when such rentals would not reduce the current utilization of facilities already constructed on either of its campuses.
Reversions are not required when an institution's faculty formula entitlement as generated by actual enrollment, or in the case of the community colleges the actual annual average full time equivalent student enrollment, is within a set range of the contracted level. The allowable tolerances are as follows: University of Washington, Washington State University, and the community colleges as a system, 1 percent; Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, and Western Washington University, 2 percent; and The Evergreen State College, 3 percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. Real property leases with purchase options are prohibited without prior legislative approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. It is the expressed intention of the legislature that agency operational activity shall be regularly monitored by the office of financial management, under its statutory authority relating to the allotment control function, in order to limit fluctuations in the respective fiscal year spending patterns which tend to inflate the expenditures in the second fiscal year of the biennium. Particular control emphasis shall be placed on those instances in which the full time equivalent staff years authorization is deliberately delayed in order to increase the agency's full time equivalent staff years as substantiation for the second fiscal year of the ensuing biennial request. Unanticipated receipts, which are authorized by the governor and expended by any state agency, shall be allotted, monitored, and controlled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. In order to ensure adherence with the provisions of sections 14(2) (b) and (c), 102, and 103 of this act, the director of the office of financial management shall review salary increases granted by each four-year institution of higher education, each community college district, and each local school district. If the director's review indicates that salary increases granted by a four-year institution of higher education, a community college district, or a local school district exceeds the provisions of sections 14(2) (b) and (c), 102, and 103 of this act, the director shall withhold an amount of state funds otherwise distributable to that educational unit equal to the amount by which the salary increase exceeded the above-referenced provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. The superintendent of public instruction and the director of the state board for community college education, in conjunction with the director of the office of financial management, shall develop rules and regulations directing placement of local educational units' employees with nonstandard teaching certificates on the state-wide education and experience schedules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 219. Any rate increases proposed for the legal services revolving fund or the general administration facilities and services revolving fund, or any change in the method of calculating changes from those funds, shall be subject to approval by the director of the office of financial management prior to implementation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 220. To obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the aeronautics division in the department of transportation, in accordance with chapter 39.34 RCW, is hereby authorized to lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the department of transportation and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the department of transportation is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance, and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act, no state agency may purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the department of transportation and without prior approval of the director of the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 221. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act; the rules and regulations under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 222. State agencies shall not receive or make a contractual agreement to receive any donation of real property or an interest therein which commits the agency to assume on a current basis or request at a future time appropriated funds for operating, development, or acquisition costs without prior approval of the legislative budget committee or the senate ways and means committee and house appropriations committee if the legislature is in session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 223. Any capital improvements or capital project involving construction or major expansion of a state office facility, to include district headquarters, detachment offices, and off-campus satellite offices shall be reviewed by the department of general administration for possible consolidation and compliance with state office standards prior to allotment of funds. The intent of the requirement imposed by this section is to eliminate duplication and reduce total office space requirements where feasible, while ensuring proper service to the public.

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 236.

Representatives Thompson, King and Bagnariol spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Polk, Blair, Berentson and Amen spoke against it.

Mr. Thompson spoke again in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Owen.

Mr. Owen: "Representative Struthers, section 53 of Substitute House Bill No. 236, the 1979–81 biennial budget, contains an appropriation of $100,000 for the implementation of House Bill No. 144. Since that bill was developed by the House Institutions Committee, would you explain its intent and how these funds are to be used?"

Mr. Struthers: "Yes. House Bill No. 144 is an attempt to address a problem faced by cities and counties which have certain state penal institutions within their jurisdiction. For years, these governmental units have incurred criminal justice costs as the result of the criminal activity of offenders from institutions, like the penitentiary, the Corrections Center, the Reformationary, Green Hill School and Western State Hospital. When there is an escape or when crimes are committed inside an institution, it is the local jurisdiction which must pick up the cost of apprehension, prosecution, incarceration and adjudication. Such additional financial burdens are not borne by jurisdictions without such institutions within their vicinity. For these reasons, House Bill No. 144 created an institutional impact fund which shall reimburse local jurisdictions for such costs."

Mr. Owen: "Is it your opinion that this bill provides enough safeguards against excessive or improper reimbursements?"

Mr. Struthers: "Yes, it is. First, the law strictly limits reimbursements to criminal justice costs which can be directly attributed to the criminal behavior of offenders from such institutions.

Second, the law clearly designates which institutions are involved by citing the statute under which the offenders are committed:

Regular Adult Offender RCW 10.64
Criminally Insane RCW 10.77
Sexual Psychopath RCW 71.06
Juvenile Offender RCW 13.40

Third, the Secretary of Social and Health Services has the final authority regarding reimbursement and must promulgate rules for the process.

Fourth, reimbursements can only be made to the extent that funds are appropriate, in this case $100,000, for the ensuing biennium."

Representatives Taller, McDonald, Deccio and Zimmerman spoke against the motion to concur, and Representatives Bagnariol and Hughes spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Chandler spoke against the motion.

Mr. Salatino: "We're talking about the budget; we're not talking about corruption in government in Pierce County. I would hope the Speaker would keep us more in line with the serious situation we have before us right now."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your point is well taken, Representative Salatino. Will you confine your remarks to the budget and the amendment placed by the Senate."

Mr. Chandler concluded his remarks in opposition to the motion.

Representatives Salatino, Douthwaite, Owen and Lux spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Sanders, McDonald, Haley, Nisbet, Williams, Nelson (G.A.), Deccio, Taylor, Barnes and Berentson spoke against it.

(3) Including any leasehold interest arising from (such) the property identified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section as defined in RCW 82.29A.020: PROVIDED, That (this) the exemption under this section shall not apply to any such leasehold interests which are a part of operating properties of public utilities subject to assessment under chapter 84.12 RCW nor be construed to modify the provisions of RCW 84.40.230.

Sec. 13. Section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.29A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) 'Leasehold interest' shall mean an interest in publicly owned real or personal property which exists by virtue of any lease, permit, license, or any other agreement, written or verbal, between the public owner of the property and a person who would not be exempt from property taxes if that person owned the property in fee, granting possession and use, to a degree less than fee simple ownership: PROVIDED, That no interest in personal property (excluding land or buildings) which is owned by the United States, whether or not as trustee, or by any foreign government shall constitute a leasehold interest hereunder when the right to use such property is granted pursuant to a contract solely for the manufacture or production of articles for sale to the United States or any foreign government. The term 'leasehold interest' shall include an interest in property which is owned in fee or held in trust by a public corporation, commission, or authority created under RCW 35.21.730 or 35.21.660 if the property is listed on or is within a district listed on any federal or state register of historical sites. The term 'leasehold interest' shall not include road or utility easements or rights of access, occupancy or use granted solely for the purpose of removing materials or products purchased from a public owner or the lessee of a public owner.

(2) 'Taxable rent' shall mean contract rent as defined in subsection (a) of this subsection in all cases where the lease or agreement has been established or renegotiated through competitive bidding, or negotiated or renegotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated or renegotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor: PROVIDED, That after January 1, 1986, with respect to any lease which has been in effect for ten years or more without renegotiation, taxable rent may be established by procedures set forth in subsection (b) of this subsection. All other leasehold interests shall be subject to the determination of taxable rent under the terms of subsection (b) of this subsection.

(a) 'Contract rent' shall mean the amount of consideration due as payment for a leasehold interest, including: The total of cash payments made to the lessor or to another party for the benefit of the lessor according to the requirements of the lease or agreement; expenditures for the protection of the lessor's interest when required by the terms of the lease or agreement; and expenditures for improvements to the property to the extent that such improvements become the property of the lessor. Where the consideration conveyed for the leasehold interest is made in combination with payment for concession or other rights granted by the lessor, only that portion of such payment which represents consideration for the leasehold interest shall be part of contract rent.

'Contract rent' shall not include: (i) Expenditures made by the lessee, which under the terms of the lease or agreement, are to be reimbursed by the lessor to the lessee; (ii) expenditures made by the lessee for the replacement or repair of facilities due to fire or other casualty or for alterations or additions made necessary by an action of government taken after the date of the execution of the lease or agreement; (iii) improvements added to publicly owned property by a sublessee under an agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976, which have been taxed as personal property of the sublessee prior to January 1, 1976, or improvements made by a sublessee of the same lessee under a similar agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976, and such improvements shall be taxable to the sublessee as personal property; (iv) improvements added to publicly owned property if such improvements are being taxed as personal property to any person.

Any prepaid contract rent shall be considered to have been paid in the year due and not in the year actually paid with respect to prepayment for a period of more than one year. Expenditures for improvements with a useful life of more than one year which are included as part of contract rent shall be treated as prepaid contract rent and prorated over the useful life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease or agreement if the useful life is in excess of the remaining term of the lease or agreement. Rent prepaid prior to January 1, 1976, shall be prorated from the date of prepayment.

With respect to a 'product lease', the value of agricultural products received as rent shall be the value at the place of delivery as of the fifteenth day of the month of delivery; with respect to all other products received as contract rent, the value shall be that value determined at the time of sale under terms of the lease.

(b) If it shall be determined by the department of revenue, upon examination of a lessee's accounts or those of a lessor of publicly owned property, that a lessee is occupying or using publicly owned property in such a manner as to create a leasehold interest and that such leasehold interest has not been established through competitive bidding, or negotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessee, the department may establish a taxable rent computation for use in determining the tax payable under authority granted in this chapter based upon the following criteria:

(i) Consideration shall be given to rental being paid to other lessors by lessees of similar property for similar purposes over similar periods of time; (ii) consideration shall be given to what would be considered a fair rate of return on the market value of the property leased less reasonable deductions for any restrictions on use, special operating requirements or provisions for concurrent use by the lessor, another person or the general public.

(3) 'Product lease' as used in this chapter shall mean a lease of property for use in the production of agricultural or marine products to the extent that such lease provides for the contract rent to be paid by the delivery of a stated percentage of the production of such agricultural or marine products to the credit of the lessor or the payment to the lessor of a stated percentage of the proceeds from the sale of such products.

(4) 'Renegotiated' means a change in the lease agreement which changes the agreed time of possession, restrictions on use, the rate of the cash rental or of any other consideration payable by the lessee to or for the benefit of the lessor, other than any such change required by the terms of the lease or agreement. In addition 'renegotiated' shall mean a continuation of possession by the lessee beyond the date when, under the terms of the lease agreement, the lessee had the right to vacate the premises without any further liability to the lessor.

(5) 'City' means any city or town.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. (1) If the decedent was at the time of his death a resident of the state and the application of sections 26 through 34 of this act is elected by filing the agreement referred to in section 29 of this act, then, for purposes of this chapter, the value of qualified real property shall be its value for the use under which it qualifies, under section 27 of this act, as qualified real property.

(2) The aggregate decrease in the value of qualified real property taken into account for purposes of this chapter which results from the application of subsection (1) of this section with respect to any decedent shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. (1) For purposes of sections 26 through 34 of this act, the term 'qualified real property' means real property located in the state which is acquired or passed from the decedent to a qualified heir of the decedent and which, on the date of the decedent's death, was being used for a qualified use, but only if:

(a) Fifty percent or more of the adjusted value of the gross estate consists of the adjusted value of real or personal property which:

(i) On the date of the decedent's death, was being used for a qualified use; and

(ii) Was acquired from or passed from the decedent to a qualified heir of the decedent;

(b) Twenty-five percent or more of the adjusted value of the gross estate consists of the adjusted value of real property which meets the requirements of subsection (1)(a)(ii) and (c) of this section;
(c) During the eight-year period ending on the date of the decedent's death there have been periods aggregating five years or more during which:

(i) The real property was owned by the decedent or a member of the decedent's family and used for a qualified use; and

(ii) There was material participation by the decedent or a member of the decedent's family in the operation of the farm or other business; and

(d) The real property is designated in the agreement referred to in section 29(2) of this act.

(2) For purposes of sections 26 through 34 of this act, the term 'qualified use' means the devotion of the property to any of the following:

(a) Use as a farm for farming purposes; or

(b) Use in a trade or business other than the trade or business of farming.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the term 'adjusted value' means:

(a) In the case of the gross estate, the value of the gross estate for purposes of this chapter (determined without regard to sections 26 through 34 of this act), reduced by any unpaid mortgages on or any indebtedness in respect to property where the value of the decedent's interest therein, undiminished by the mortgage or indebtedness, is included in the value of the gross estate; or

(b) In the case of any real or personal property, the value of the property for purposes of this chapter (determined without regard to this section), reduced by any unpaid mortgages on or any indebtedness in respect to property where the value of the decedent's interest therein, undiminished by the mortgage or indebtedness, is included in the value of the gross estate.

(4) For the purposes of this title, 'gross estate' means all property subject to the inheritance tax under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. (1) If within fifteen years after the decedent's death and before the death of the qualified heir:

(a) The qualified heir disposes of any interest in qualified real property (other than by a disposition to a member of his family); or

(b) The qualified heir ceases to use for the qualified use the qualified real property which was acquired (or passed) from the decedent, then there is hereby imposed an additional inheritance tax.

(2) (a) The amount of the additional tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section with respect to any interest shall be the amount equal to the lesser of:

(i) The adjusted tax difference attributable to the interest; or

(ii) The excess of the amount realized with respect to the interest (or, in any case other than a sale or exchange at arm's length, the fair market value of the interest) over the value of the interest determined under section 26 of this act.

(b) For purposes of subsection (2)(a) of this section, the adjusted tax difference attributable to an interest is the amount which bears the same ratio to the adjusted tax difference with respect to the inheritance (determined under subsection (2)(c) of this section) as:

(i) The value determined under section 26 of this act taken into account under subsection (2)(a)(ii) of this section with respect to the portion shall be its pro rata share of the value of the interest; and

(ii) The adjusted tax difference attributable to the interest taken into account with respect to the transaction involving the second or any succeeding portion shall be reduced by the amount of the tax imposed by this section with respect to all prior transactions involving portions of the interest.

(3) If the date of the disposition or cessation referred to in subsection (1) of this section occurs more than one hundred twenty months and less than one hundred eighty months after the date of the death of the decedent, the amount of the tax imposed by this section shall be reduced (but not below zero) by an amount determined by multiplying the amount of the tax (determined without regard to this subsection) by a fraction:

(a) The numerator of which is the number of full months after the death in excess of one hundred twenty; and

(b) The denominator of which is sixty.

(4) In the case of an interest acquired from (or passing from) any decedent, if subsection (1) of this section applies to any portion of an interest, subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section, as the case may be, shall not apply with respect to the same portion of the interest.

(5) The additional tax imposed by this section shall become due and payable on the day which is six months after the date of the disposition or cessation referred to in subsection (1) of this section. If the additional tax is not paid within the time prescribed by this subsection, interest shall accrue at the rate of eight percent per year on the unpaid amount.
(6) The qualified heir shall be personally liable for the additional tax imposed by this section with respect to his interest unless the heir furnishes a bond which meets the requirements of section 30(9) of this act.

(7) For purposes of subsection (1)(b) of this section, real property shall cease to be used for the qualified use if:

(a) The property ceases to be used for the qualified use set forth in section 27(2)(a) or (b) of this act under which the property qualified under section 27 of this act; or

(b) During any period of eight years ending after the date of the decedent’s death and before the date of the death of the qualified heir, there had been periods aggregating three years or more during which:

(i) In the case of periods during which the property was held by the decedent, there was no material participation by the decedent or any member of his family in the operation of the farm or other business; and

(ii) In the case of periods during which the property was held by any qualified heir, there was no material participation by the qualified heir or any member of his family in the operation of the farm or other business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. (1) The election under sections 26 through 34 of this act shall be made not later than the time prescribed by RCW 83.44.010 for filing the return of tax imposed by this title (including extensions thereof) and shall be made in such manner as the director shall prescribe by rule.

(2) The election referred to in this section is a written agreement signed by each person in being, or the personal representative of the person, who has an interest (whether or not in possession) in any property designated in the agreement consenting to the application of section 28 of this act with respect to the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. For purposes of sections 26 through 34 of this act:

(1) The term ‘qualified heir’ means, with respect to any property, a member of the decedent’s family who acquired the property (or to whom the property passed) from the decedent. If a qualified heir disposes of any interest in qualified real property to any member of his family, the member shall thereafter be treated as the qualified heir with respect to the interest.

(2) The term ‘member of the family’ means, with respect to any individual, only the individual’s ancestor or lineal descendant, a lineal descendant of a grandparent of the individual, the spouse of the individual, or the spouse of such a descendant. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a legally adopted child of an individual shall be treated as a child of the individual by blood.

(3) In the case of real property which meets the requirements of section 27(1)(c) of this act, residential buildings and related improvements on the real property occupied on a regular basis by the owner or lessee of the real property or by persons employed by the owner or lessee for the purpose of operating or maintaining the real property, and roads, buildings, and other structures and improvements functionally related to the qualified use shall be treated as real property devoted to the qualified use.

(4) The term ‘farm’ includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, furbearing animals, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nursery, ranges, greenhouses, or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards and woodlands.

(5) The term ‘farming purposes’ means:

(a) Cultivating the soil or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity (including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of animals) on a farm;

(b) Handling, drying, packing, grading, or storing on a farm any agricultural or horticultural commodity in its unmanufactured state, but only if the owner, tenant, or operator of the farm regularly produces more than one-half of the commodity so treated; and

(c) (i) The planting, cultivating, caring for, or cutting of trees; or

(ii) The preparation (other than milling) of trees for market.

(6) Material participation shall be determined in a manner similar to the manner used for purposes of section 1402(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to net earnings from self-employment).

(7) Property shall be considered to have been acquired or passed from the decedent if:

(a) The property is so considered under RCW 82.04.010 (property subject to inheritance tax);

(b) The property is acquired by any person from decedent’s estate in satisfaction of the right of the person to a pecuniary bequest; or

(c) The property is acquired by any person from a trust in satisfaction of a right (which the person has by reason of the death of the decedent) to receive from the trust a specific dollar amount which is the equivalent of a pecuniary bequest.

(8) If the decedent and the surviving spouse at any time held qualified real property as community property, the interest of the surviving spouse in the property shall be taken into account under this section to the extent necessary to provide a result under this section with respect to the property which is consistent with the result which would have been obtained under this section if the property had not been community property.

(9) If the qualified heir makes written application to the director for determination of the maximum amount of the additional tax which may be imposed by section 26 of this act with respect to the qualified heir’s interest, the director (as soon as possible and in any event within one year after the making of the application) shall notify the heir of the maximum amount. The qualified heir, on furnishing a bond in such amount and for such period as may be required, shall be discharged from personal liability for any additional tax imposed by section 26 of this act and shall be entitled to a receipt or writing showing the discharge.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. (1) (a) Except as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section the value of a farm for farming purposes shall be determined by dividing:
   (i) The excess of the average annual gross cash rental for comparable land used for farming purposes and located in the locality of the farm over the average annual state and local real estate taxes for the comparable land by
   (ii) The average annual effective interest rate for all new Federal Land Bank loans.

   For purposes of the preceding sentence, each average annual computation shall be made on the basis of the five most recent calendar years ending before the date of the decedent's death.

   (b) The formula provided by subsection (1)(a) of this section shall not be used:
   (i) Where it is established that there is no comparable land from which the average annual gross cash rental may be determined; or
   (ii) Where the election under section 29 of this act specifies that the value of the farm for farming purposes is to be determined under subsection (2) of this section.

   (2) In any case to which subsection (1)(a) of this section does not apply, the following factors shall apply in determining the value of any qualified real property:
   (a) The capitalization of income which the property can be expected to yield for farming or closely held business purposes over a reasonable period of time under prudent management using traditional cropping patterns for the area, taking into account soil capacity, terrain configuration, and similar factors;
   (b) The capitalization of the fair rental value of the land for farmland or closely held business purposes;
   (c) Assessed land values in the state;
   (d) Comparable sales of other farm or closely held business land in the same geographical area far enough removed from a metropolitan or resort area so that nonagricultural use is not a significant factor in the sales price; and
   (e) Any other factor which fairly values the farm or closely held business value of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. If qualified real property is disposed of or ceases to be used for a qualified use, then:

   (1) The statutory period for the assessment of any additional tax under section 28 of this act attributable to the disposition or cessation shall not expire before the expiration of three years from the date the director is notified (in such manner as the director may by rule prescribe) of the disposition or cessation; and
   (2) The additional tax may be assessed before the expiration of the three-year period notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent the assessment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1)(a) If there is an involuntary conversion of an interest in qualified real property and the qualified heir makes an election under this section:
   (i) By not taking into account periods after the involuntary conversion and before the acquisition of the qualified replacement property:
   (ii) By treating material participation with respect to the converted property as material participation with respect to the qualified replacement property.

   (b) The term 'qualified replacement property' means:
   (i) Into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted; or
   (ii) Into money or into property not similar or related in service or use to the converted property;

   (2) For the purposes of section 28 of this act:
   (a) Any qualified replacement property shall be treated in the same manner as if it were a portion of the qualified replacement property.

   (3) For purposes of this section:
   (a) The term 'involuntary conversion' means property that (as a result of its destruction in whole or in part, theft, seizure, or requisition or condemnation or threat or imminence thereof) is compulsorily or involuntarily converted:
   (i) Into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted; or
   (ii) Into money or into property not similar or related in service or use to the converted property;

   (b) The term 'qualified replacement property' means:
   (i) In the case of an involuntary conversion described in (a)(i) of this subsection, an additional tax imposed on such conversion reduced by an amount which:
   (ii) If (a)(i) of this subsection does not apply, the amount of the tax imposed by section 28 of this act on such conversion is determined under section 28(7) of this act.

   (4) The additional tax shall be assessed before the expiration of the three-year period notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent the assessment.
replacing the qualified real property. This term only includes property which is to be used for the qualified use set forth in section 27(2)(a) or (b) of this act under which the qualified real property qualified under section 26 of this act.

(4) The period referred to in subsection (3)(b)(ii) of this section shall be the period beginning with the date of the disposition of the converted property, or the earliest date of the threat or imminence of requisition or condemnation of the converted property, whichever is the earlier, and ending:

(a) Two years after the close of the first taxable year for federal income tax purposes in which any part of the gain upon the conversion is realized; or

(b) Subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified by the director, at the close of such later date as the director may designate on application by the taxpayer. Such application shall be made at such time and in such manner as the director may by rule prescribe.

(5) Any election under this section shall be made at such time and in such manner as the director may by rule prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. The director shall prescribe rules setting forth the application of sections 26 through 34 of this act (relating to tax liens) in the case of an interest in a partnership, corporation, or trust which, with respect to the decedent, is an interest in a closely held business (within the meaning of section 6166(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. If an election is made to value property at current use for federal but not state purposes, the current use value of the property determined for federal purposes shall not affect the value of the property for purposes of the state inheritance tax.

If an election is made to value the same property at current use for federal and state purposes, then RCW 83.40.040 (federal audit) shall apply to the property. An election to value property at current use under sections 26 through 34 of this act for state inheritance tax purposes may be made whether or not an election is made to value property at current use under section 2032(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for federal estate tax purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 83.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In the case of any interest in qualified real property (within the meaning of section 27 of this act) an amount equal to the adjusted tax difference attributable to the interest (within the meaning of section 28(2)(b) of this act) shall be a lien in favor of the state on the property in which the interest exists.

(2) The lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time an election is filed under section 29 of this act and shall relate back to the date of death of the decedent and continue with respect to any interest in the qualified real property until:

(a) The liability for tax under section 28 of this act with respect to the interest has been satisfied or has become unenforceable by reason of lapse of time; or

(b) It is established to the satisfaction of the director that no further tax liability may arise under section 28 of this act with respect to the interest.

(3) The notice of the lien imposed by this section shall be filed with the auditor of the county wherein the property is located. The notice of the lien shall not be required to be refiled.

(4) If there is a lien under this section on any property with respect to any estate, there shall not be any lien under RCW 83.04.023.

(5) To the extent provided in rules prescribed by the director, the furnishing of security may be substituted for the lien imposed by this section.

(6) The lien imposed by this section may be subordinated to any subsequent lien if the director determines that the state will be adequately secured after the subordination.

Sec. 37. Section 83.16.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 83.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All property of the estate of a deceased person, for the purposes of computing the inheritance tax, shall be valued and appraised at the fair market value (thereof), unless current use valuation is elected under sections 26 through 34 of this 1979 act, on the day of the death of the decedent owner thereof and subsequent sales shall not affect the value so used. The executor, administrator or trustee in preparing the inventory in all probate cases, shall insert at the right of each real estate tract, the assessed valuation of such tract for purposes of the state inheritance tax.

EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 35 OF THIS ACT, IF AFTER THE VALUES HAVE BEEN DETERMINED UNDER THIS TITLE FOR INHERITANCE TAX PURPOSES, THE SAME ESTATE IS VALUED UNDER THE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX STATUTE AND THE DATE OF DEATH VALUE OF THE PROPERTY, OR ANY PORTION THEREOF, FIXED UNDER THE FEDERAL LAW, IS INCREASED ABOVE OR DECREASED BELOW THE VALUE THEREFORE FIXED UNDER THE INHERITANCE TAX PROVISIONS OF THIS TITLE, AND THIS VALUATION UNDER THE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX IS ACCEPTED BY THE ESTATE EITHER BY AGREEMENT OR THROUGH FINAL DETERMINATION IN THE FEDERAL COURT, THE VALUE AS FIXED UNDER THE INHERITANCE TAX PROVISIONS OF THIS TITLE UPON SUCH PROPERTY OR PORTION THEREOF SHALL BE INCREASED OR DECREASED TO THIS AMOUNT.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 8, 1979

THE HONORABLE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section, House Bill No. 923, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to public employee's collective bargaining;"

Section 1 contains a proviso that will allow the Senate to reject gubernatorial appointments to the commission by inaction.

When making an appointment, the Governor is committed publicly. If the law is to require confirmation by the Senate, then its members should also go on record as either confirming or rejecting the appointment. To permit the Senate to refuse an appointment by neglect is not in the interest of the public, the appointee, or the Governor. Open government requires that the public have the right to know who is opposed to an appointment and their reasons. The appointment proviso in Section 1 is contrary to this objective.

Additional compelling reasons are of a pragmatic nature. The Public Employment Relations Commission is a quasi-judicial administrative agency which is involved in the timely response to labor disputes. The state cannot afford the possibility that this crisis-responsive agency be incapacitated by Senate inaction on two or more members of the Commission. Under such circumstances it would increase the difficulty of finding qualified and acceptable persons willing to have their names submitted.

With the exception of Section 1, which I have vetoed, the remainder of House Bill No. 923 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY, Governor.

May 8, 1979

The agencies have the authority to grant this exemption under section 13 of the bill. We will have the results of their study before the next regular session."

Mr. Grimm: "The Higher Education Committee will ask the Commission for Vocational Education and the Council for Postsecondary Education to maintain a careful record of costs incurred and report to us by September 1980 their analysis of the fees required to fund the registration function on a self-sustaining basis. MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval, HOUSE BILL NO. 335, entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to community college districts."

This bill would split the existing Community College District 5 into two autonomous districts, the fifth centered around Everett and the twenty-third centered around Edmonds. A review of this bill's history indicates considerable uncertainty over the wisdom of making this change at this time. It is an uncertainty that I share.

The Community College system was formed in 1967 to bring coordination and efficiency to this state's educational programs at the community college level. It is now time to examine how that system has performed compared with the goals originally laid out for it, and to examine whether the system needs to be altered to meet current needs. This should include a review of all the multicampus districts. I am pleased that the House and Senate intend to sponsor such a study in the coming year.

Moreover, the acrimonious situation that has given rise to this bill appears to have resulted from a centralized district organization that impedes the responsible functioning of each of the two colleges. This is the problem that must be resolved in the 5th district. It is my intention to ask the State Board for Community College Education to undertake an immediate review of the need for a district office. Such review should also consider reducing the size and limiting the activities of such unit to proper service and coordination functions only, thus eliminating all unnecessary overlap and bureaucratic overview.

For this reason, I have determined to veto House Bill No. 335.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY, Governor.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Speaker Berentson: "I thought it might be well, in view of the time we spent yesterday in caucus looking at what we think is a responsible Republican approach to solving our dilemma, to just point out..."

POINT OF ORDER

Speaker Bagnariol: "This doesn't appear to me to be a point of personal privilege. I don't believe Speaker Berentson's motives have been impugned or anything of that sort."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, I want to draw the attention of the Chair to the fact that a point of personal privilege can relate to the entire House of Representatives. Anything that relates to the body as a whole can be addressed under point of personal privilege, so I would suggest..."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Continue your remarks, Speaker Berentson."

Speaker Berentson: "I thought a few remarks might be in order in relation to some of the information we heard on the floor yesterday. I want to point out that our approach to solving the dilemma in which we find ourselves, we think, is a responsible approach. We heard yesterday that we were taking away from low income, the elderly, and on down the line, and I think I heard a remark about false teeth, and so forth. I think it might be interesting to know that in the important areas, human resources, the overall increase in human resources in the budget that we are now looking at is fourteen percent over the current biennium. I would also like to point out to you that most of the figures that I'll give you right now are very, very close to what we did in the operating budget that we sent out of here a little earlier with better than thirty votes from your Democratic caucus. Adult corrections were twenty-three percent over the current biennium; mental health, an overall increase of thirty-six percent over the current biennium. If you will recall the Governor's budget level was about twenty-eight percent. In income maintenance for those people who need help the most, 17.8 percent over the current biennium; medical assistance, again for people in need, the level is still 13.4 percent higher than the current biennium; in nursing homes, for those people who need assistance in the nursing home area, thirty-five percent higher than the current biennium. I would point out that, unfortunately in the state and across the nation we have about a thirteen percent inflation rate right now, and even taking that into consideration, the approach we have taken is certainly above the current inflation factors that we meet. I would like to close by pointing out that any inference on the part of the Democratic caucus or your Democratic Speaker that we're suddenly taking from those people who need it the most, is absolutely false. We hope sometime today your Democratic colleagues in the Senate will sit down for some meaningful dialogue on this budget we are suggesting. The responsibility for this dilemma has to rest fully with you. You've taken one firm, hard position only, and that's the only thing you've offered. We have offered to sit down and work through the budget at any level you would want to work from and see if we can't come up with a solution. Many of us would like very much today sometime to be able to sit down with the four leaders in this legislative body and see if we can't actually work something out without just stonewalling it. That's what you're guilty of now—you're stonewalling and hoping that something will happen to get you out of here."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Speaker Bagnariol: "I believe Representative Berentson referred to us as 'stonewalling.' I'm not sure what that means but I think perhaps he's impugned our motives. It's unfortunate we had to sit and listen to this again. It's the same statement that was made at the press conference this morning. It will be well published throughout the state. The budget that is currently before us, and the one that was given to me to look at that is being proposed by the Republican caucus, reduces the funding in the handicapped and K-12 by $4.7 million; the URRD program by $3.3 million; vocational and technical institutions, by $600,000; food services, by $1.3 million; community and mental health they propose to reduce by $6.5 million; nursing homes' patient care, $5.9 million; public and business grants, $19 million; medical assistance (there's cuts in dental work, that's where the false teeth come out for the senior citizens), $11 million. These are the kinds of cuts that are being proposed in the budget that we are currently looking at."

Speaker Bagnariol demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeants at Arms were instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

MOTION

Mr. Douthwaite moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1121.

Representatives Douthwaite and Haley spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Douthwaite yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Douthwaite, for the record, does this bill require that those who form their own insurance companies for their own professions have the same requirements as insurance companies, as far as capital, and are they also under the direct supervision of the Insurance Commissioner?"

Mr. Douthwaite: 'The answer to the first question is, essentially, yes. If there are five hundred or more medical practitioners, then their capitalization is one million dollars, which is the same as a stock company. If there are less than five hundred in the organization, for example, podiatry, then they have the same rules as a reciprocal insurance company which requires a capitalization of about three hundred thousand dollars. So the answer is essentially 'yes.' The second question you raised as to whether or not they come under the purview of the Insurance Commissioner's office, is, essentially no, but they do come under it to some extent. The Insurance Commissioner must find that the types of insurance we are talking about is either cost prohibitive or unavailable before he will allow them to go ahead. They do not come under the full review by the Commissioner. That's the reason the Commissioner dislikes the bill.'
Mr. Douthwaite yielded to question by Mr. Rohrbach.

Mr. Rohrbach: "Representative Douthwaite, this act will be put into effect when the Insurance Commissioner determines that professional liability insurance is unavailable. What does that mean, if one or two persons with several claims can't get insurance, should the commissioner then declare that a self-insurance company can be formed?"

Mr. Douthwaite: "The Commissioner should make a judgment on the basis that if this insurance is not generally available to the great majority of the persons in the profession, and the association leadership, such as the Washington State Medical Association, concurs that it is not available, and the Commissioner finds the insurance industry is resisting to open the market to all, or almost all, licensees then he could find the insurance is unavailable."

Mr. Rohrbach: "How will the Insurance Commissioner determine what 'cost prohibitive' means?"

Mr. Douthwaite: "The Commissioner will have to confer with both those in the profession and with the insurance industry and reach a settlement if there is a dispute. Again, he can't make a judgment based on one or two; he'll have to work with the associations, such as the medical and the bar associations, and, of course, use his own good judgment."

Mr. Rohrbach spoke in favor of the motion to concur.

Mr. Douthwaite again yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Douthwaite, I realize the difficulty in malpractice insurance, but I'm also mindful of the fact that you said this was not under the Insurance Commissioner's Office. Who regulates these companies if we don't have the Insurance Commissioner do that?"

Mr. Douthwaite: "No one would directly regulate the company. The individuals involved, of course, are all professional folks. I would comment also that an analogous situation exists now, and has existed for three years, relative to hospital insurance which is a self-insurance enterprise. They regulate themselves and they've done very well in their three years of experience. They've cut their costs. It's based to some extent on the fact that the professionals involved here are responsible people."

Mr. Deccio spoke against the motion, and Mr. Haley spoke in favor of it.

The motion was carried.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1121 as amended by the Senate.

Article II, section 3. (1) After each decennial census made by the authority of the United States, beginning with the 1980 census, there shall be a reapportionment and redistricting of the state into as many state legislative and congressional districts as are required by law. The house of representatives and the senate shall each be composed of an odd number of members.

(2) A legislative redistricting commission shall be established between May 1st and August 1st of each year ending in one to assist the legislature in accomplishing state legislative redistricting.

(3) The redistricting commission shall be composed of five members. Each leader of the two largest political parties in each house of the legislature shall appoint one member to the commission by July 1st of each year ending in one. If there are more than two political parties in a house, then the leader of the second largest party has no power of appointment, and the members of the political parties, excluding the party with the largest share of legislators, shall elect a legislator who shall appoint a member of the commission. Within thirty days, the four appointed members, by an affirmative vote of at least three, shall appoint the remaining member. The fifth member shall be a nonvoting member of the commission and act as its chairperson. No elected official may serve on the commission.

(b) Be composed of compact, convenient, and contiguous territory;

(c) Be separated from adjoining districts by natural geographic barriers or artificial barriers whenever possible;

(d) Be drawn to coincide with the boundaries of local subdivisions, when not inconsistent with the other criteria; and

(e) Be drawn without purposely favoring any political party, incumbent legislator, or other person or group.

The legislature may establish by law additional standards to guide the commission in preparing the redistricting plan.

(7) Upon approval of a redistricting plan by a majority of the voting members of the commission, and not later than December 1st of the year ending in one, the commission shall submit the plan to the legislature.

(8) After submission of the plan by the commission, the legislature shall have the next thirty days during any regular or special session to amend the commission's plan. If the legislature amends the commission's plan the legislature's amendment must be approved by an affirmative vote in each house of a majority of the members elected or appointed thereto, and may not affect more than five percent of the population of any legislative district contained in the commission's plan.

(9) The plan approved by the commission, with any amendment approved by the legislature, shall be final upon approval of such amendment or after expiration of the time provided for legislative amendment by subsection (8) of this section whichever occurs first, and shall constitute the districts and apportionment law applicable to this state for legislative elections, beginning with the next elections held in an even-numbered year.

(10) If a majority of the voting members of the commission fail to approve and submit a plan within the time limitations provided in subsection (7) of this section, the supreme court shall adopt a plan by January 1st of the year ending in two in conformance with the standards set forth in subsection (6) of this section. The supreme court shall direct the commission to immediately approve and submit this plan to the legislature for amendment in accordance with subsection (8) of this section.

(11) The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction to hear and decide all cases involving congressional and legislative redistricting.

(12) The commission shall cease to exist ninety days after the date established by subsection (7) of this section for submission of a plan, unless the legislature extends the commission's term by law.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Speaker's Ruling (Mr. O'Brien Presiding)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Reed's Rule 142 states, 'If the motion to strike out and insert be decided in the negative it cannot be renewed in the same terms; but inasmuch as it is a combination of the motion to strike out and the motion to insert, the negative result does not prevent a great variety of subsequent motions..." It inserts additional years of time in the phase-out of the tax."
