SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 1, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 454 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 8 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section I. The purpose of rehabilitation in workers' compensation is to return the injured worker to suitable gainful employment as soon as possible. The policy of the state is to provide early notification and referral of qualified injured workers to vocational rehabilitation services, development of comprehensive rehabilitation plans, and independent review and evaluation of service delivery. This policy shall be implemented with the express intent of assisting the qualified injured worker while avoiding expensive litigation and unnecessary time lost from work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter, a 'qualified injured worker' means an employee who because of the effects of work-related injury or disease, whether or not combined with the effects of a prior industrial injury or disability:

(1) Is permanently precluded or likely to be precluded from engaging in the usual occupation or position in which the worker was engaged at the time of injury; and

(2) Can reasonably be expected to benefit from rehabilitation services which would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in the worker's employability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created an office of rehabilitation review within the industrial insurance division of the department of labor and industries. The office shall:

(1) Establish specific definitions, eligibility criteria, and timetables and procedures for the provision of vocational rehabilitation services;

(2) Mediate disputes;

(3) Review and approve or disapprove vocational rehabilitation plans; and

(4) Establish procedures for registration of rehabilitation counselors employed by the state, public, or private agencies and establish criteria and procedures for removal of registered rehabilitation counselors from the list for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules and regulations established by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of labor and industries shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in the manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The vocational rehabilitation plan may include modification of the worker's occupation at the time of injury, provisions for alternative work with the same employer, modification of the worker's previous employment with a new employer, direct job placement assistance, on-the-job training, or short-term retraining subject to limitation by RCW 51.32.095. The plan shall define the responsibilities of the worker, employer, and other parties in implementing the plan.

(2) The following order of priorities is preferred in determining suitable gainful employment and developing vocational rehabilitation plans:

(a) Return to the previous job with the same employer;

(b) Modification of the previous job with the same employer including transitional return to work;"
Prior to any modification of the order of these priorities, the plan shall first be submitted in writing to the office of rehabilitation review for authorization. In the cases involving return to the previous job with the same employer, modification of the previous job with the same employer, or a new job with the same employer, self-insurers shall submit a written, summary report to the office of vocational rehabilitation review but shall not be required to submit a complete, documented vocational rehabilitation plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If a determination of ineligibility is unacceptable to a worker or employer, or if a vocational rehabilitation plan is unacceptable to a worker or employer, the worker or employer may petition the supervisor of industrial insurance to review the decision. The supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, shall render a final decision within thirty days of receipt of the petition for review.

(2) The worker or employer may appeal a final decision of the supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, to the board of industrial insurance appeals for an expedited appeal which shall be heard as provided in this section. Board review of such decisions shall be limited to matters of law. A final decision rendered within thirty days of the closing of the hearing proceeding, and the procedures relating to recommended decisions and orders, and petitions for review of same, as contained in RCW 51.52.104 and 51.52.106, shall not be applicable to appeals filed under this section. Further appeals taken from the final decision of the board shall be governed by the provisions relating to judicial review of administrative decisions contained in RCW 34.04.130 and 34.04.140 as now existing or hereafter amended. The department shall have the same right of review of the board's decision as does any other aggrieved party.

(3) For purposes of this section, 'expedited appeal' means an appeal filed with the board within fifteen working days after receipt of notice of the decision from the office of rehabilitation review. An expedited appeal shall be heard within thirty calendar days following receipt of (a) the notice of appeal from an aggrieved party, or (b) a legible copy of the records of the office of rehabilitation review, whichever is later. The hearing held under this section shall be recorded and shall be confined to review of the records of the office of rehabilitation review. However, in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure not revealed by the records, testimony concerning such irregularities may be received by the board. The board shall in addition have authority, upon request by the worker or the employer, to hear oral argument and receive written information concerning the matter in dispute.

(4) The board of industrial insurance appeals shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in a manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On or before January 1st of each year, the office of financial management shall submit to the legislature a rehabilitation performance audit of the activities of the office of rehabilitation review, the industrial insurance division, self-insurers, and private rehabilitation agencies. The performance audit shall include a statistical summary of all rehabilitation cases, a cost-benefit analysis of vocational rehabilitation plans, return-to-work data, and a comparison of public and private vocational rehabilitation services. The office of financial management may contract with a private firm to conduct the performance audit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Qualified injured workers shall participate in the approved vocational rehabilitation plan. For each week that a qualified injured worker does not participate without a showing of good cause, benefits shall be reduced by one-half on the order of the supervisor. Implementation of the plan shall begin as soon as the qualified injured worker is capable of participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A qualified injured worker shall be entitled to continuation of temporary total disability benefits as defined in RCW 51.32.090:

(1) During rehabilitation; and
(2) During the pendency of any petition for review to the supervisor or appeal to the board of Industrial insurance appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing in this chapter may be construed to annul or modify any lawful employment agreement entered into before the effective date of this act between an employer and an organization of workers. If a conflict exists between an employment agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or regulation adopted under this chapter, the terms of the employment agreement shall prevail only if the employment agreement was entered into before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

One of the primary purposes of this title is the restoration of the injured worker to gainful employment. To this end, the department shall utilize the services of individuals and organizations, public or private, whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation ((or)), retraining, and job placement as may be reasonable to qualify the worker for employment consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals or organizations and prior to final evaluation of the worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor or supervisor's designee, whether or not medical treatment has been concluded, vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement is both necessary and likely to restore the injured worker to a form of gainful employment, including self-employment, the supervisor or supervisor's designee may, in his
NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 51.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Modification of the injured worker's previous job is recognized as a desirable method of returning the injured worker to suitable gainful employment. In order to assist employers in meeting the costs of job modification, and to encourage employers to modify jobs to accommodate retaining or hiring workers with disabilities resulting from work-related injury, the supervisor in his or her discretion may pay job modification costs in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars per worker per job modification. This payment is intended to be a cooperative participation with the employer and funds shall be taken from the appropriate account within the second injury fund.
(3) Assessments for the second injury fund shall be imposed on self-insurers pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the director to ensure that self-insurers shall pay to such fund in the proportion that the payments made from such fund on account of claims made against self-insurers bears to the total sum of payments from such fund.

Sec. 15. Section 51.12.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 128, Laws

The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) If the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

Sec. 19. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For persons under the age of ((sixty-two)) sixty-five receiving compensation for temporary or permanent total disability pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.32 RCW, such compensation shall be reduced by an amount equal to the benefits payable under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act as now or hereafter amended not to exceed the amount of the reduction established pursuant to 42 USC 424a. However, such reduction shall not apply when the combined compensation provided pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW and the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act is less than the total benefits to which the federal reduction would apply, pursuant to 42 USC 424a. Where any person described in this section refuses to authorize the release of information concerning the amount of benefits payable under said federal act the department's estimate of said amount shall be deemed to be correct unless and until the actual amount is established and no adjustment shall be made for any period of time covered by any such refusal.

(2) Any reduction under subsection (1) of this section shall be effective the month following the month in which the department or self-insurer is notified by the federal social security administration that the person is receiving disability benefits under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act: PROVIDED, That in the event of an overpayment of benefits the department or self-insurer may not recover more than the overpayments for the six months immediately preceding the date the department or selfinsurer notifies the worker that an overpayment has occurred: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon determining that there has been an overpayment, the department or self-insurer shall immediately notify the person who received the overpayment that he or she shall be required to make repayment pursuant to this section and RCW 51.32.230.

(3) Recovery of any overpayment must be taken from future temporary or permanent total disability benefits or permanent partial disability benefits provided by this title. In the case of temporary or permanent total disability benefits, the recovery shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the monthly amount due from the department or self-insurer or one-sixth of the total overpayment, whichever is the lesser.

(4) No reduction may be made unless the worker receives notice of the reduction prior to the month in which the reduction is made.

(5) In no event shall the reduction reduce total benefits to less than the greater amount the worker may be entitled to under this title or the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act.

(6) The director, pursuant to rules adopted in accordance with the procedures provided in the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, may exercise his discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any overpayment where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

(7) The amendment in subsection (1) of this section by this 1982 act raising the age limit during which the reduction shall be made from age sixty-two to age sixty-five shall apply with respect to workers whose effective entitlement to total disability compensation begins after the effective date of this 1982 act.

Every employer shall be liable for the penalties described in this title and (shall) may also be liable if an injury or occupational disease has been sustained by a worker prior to the time he or she has secured the payment of such compensation to a penalty in a sum (equal to) not less than fifty percent nor more than one hundred percent of the cost for such injury or occupational disease(1). Any employer who has failed to secure payment of compensation for his or her workers covered under this title may also be liable to a maximum penalty in a sum of two hundred dollars or in a sum double the amount of premiums incurred prior to securing payment of compensation under this title, whichever is greater, for the benefit of the medical aid fund.

Sec. 21. Section 51.48.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 64, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer who fails to keep the records required by this title or fails to make the reports provided in this title shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed ((one hundred dollars)) two hundred percent of the quarterly premium for each such offense.

Sec. 22. Section 51.52.120, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 81, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for an attorney engaged in the representation of any worker or beneficiary to charge for services in the department any fee in excess of a reasonable fee, of not more than thirty percent of the increase in the award secured by the attorney's services. Such reasonable fee shall be fixed by the director for services performed by an attorney for such worker or beneficiary, prior to the notice of appeal to the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary.

(2) If, on appeal to the board, the order, decision, or award of the department is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the board, the board shall fix a reasonable fee for the services of his or her attorney in proceedings before the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary. In fixing the amount of such attorney's fee, the board shall take into consideration the fee allowed, if any, by the director, for services before the department, and the board may review the fee fixed by said director. Any attorney's fee set by the department or the board may be reviewed by the superior court upon application of such attorney, worker, or beneficiary. The department or self-insured employer, as the case may be, shall be served a copy of the application and shall be entitled to appear and take part in the proceedings. Where the board, pursuant to this section, fixes the attorney's fee, it shall be unlawful for an attorney to charge or receive any fee for services before the board in excess of that fee fixed by the board. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 23. Section 51.52.130, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 82, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, on appeal to the court from the decision and order of the board, said decision and order is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the court, a reasonable fee for the services of the worker's or beneficiary's attorney shall be fixed by the court. In fixing the fee the court shall take into consideration the fee or fees, if any, fixed by the director and the board for such attorney's services before the department and the board. If the court finds that the fee fixed by the director or by the board is inadequate for services performed before the department or board, or if the director or the board has fixed no fee for such services, then the court shall fix a fee for the attorney's services before the department, or the board, as the case may be, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court. If the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified and if the accident fund is affected by the litigation then the attorney's fee fixed by the court for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable out of the administrative fund of the department.
In the case of self-insured employers, if the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified resulting in additional benefits by the litigation that would be paid from the accident fund if the employer were not self-insured, then the attorney fees fixed by the court for services before the court, only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable directly by the self-insured employer.

Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 24 with "The" strike the remainder of the bill, and insert the following:

"(The legislature declares that the interest of all of the people shall be paramount in the management of shorelines of state-wide significance. The department, in adopting guidelines for shorelines of state-wide significance, and local government, in developing master programs for shorelines of state-wide significance, shall give preference to uses in the following order of preference which:

1. Recognize and protect the state-wide interest over local interest;
2. Preserve the natural character of the shoreline;
3. Result in long term over short term benefit;
4. Protect the resources and ecology of the shoreline;
5. Increase public access to publicly owned areas of the shorelines;
6. Increase recreational opportunities for the public in the shoreline;
7. Provide for any other element as defined in RCW 90.58.100 deemed appropriate or necessary.

In the implementation of this policy the public's opportunity to enjoy the physical and aesthetic qualities of natural shorelines of the state shall be preserved to the greatest extent feasible consistent with the overall best interest of the state and the people generally. To this end uses shall be preferred which are consistent with control of pollution and prevention of damage to the natural environment, or are unique to or dependent upon use of the state's shoreline. Alterations of the natural condition of the shorelines of the state, in those limited instances when authorized, shall be given priority for single family residences, ports, shoreline recreational uses including but not limited to parks, marinas, piers, and other improvements facilitating..."
FIFTY-THIRD DAY, MARCH 4, 1982

public access to shorelines of the state, industrial and commercial developments which are particularly dependent on their location on or use of the shorelines of the state and other development that will provide an opportunity for substantial numbers of the people to enjoy the shorelines of the state.

Permitted uses in the shorelines of the state shall be designed and conducted in a manner to minimize, insofar as practical, any resultant damage to the ecology and environment of the shoreline area and any interference with the public's use of the water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the department made within one year prior to the effective date of this act, that rejected, conditionally approved, or approved proposed adjustments to a local government master program may seek review by the shorelines hearings board of such decision by filing a request for the same with the board if a request for review is filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act. The review by the shorelines hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The shorelines hearings board shall consider if the proposed adjustment is consistent with the policies of chapter 90.58 RCW and the promotion of the economic vitality of the state. A proposed adjustment may only be rejected if the shorelines hearings board finds that it is not consistent with such policies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any adjustment to its master program made after the effective date of this act, by a local government shall become effective ninety days after its adoption without approval by the department, except when an appeal is filed as hereinafter provided. An adjustment may only be adopted by the local government if, prior to its adoption, a public hearing was held on the proposal. At least three weeks prior to this hearing the local government proposing to adjust its master program shall provide written notification of the proposal to the department. The department, as the primary agency responsible for the administration of this chapter, shall notify other affected state agencies of the proposal and provide advice and counsel to the local government proposing the adjustments. After a local government adopts an adjustment to its master program, it shall immediately send a copy of its adjustment to the department. The department shall send copies of the adjustment to any state agency which may have an interest in the adjustment.

During this ninety-day period any state agency or any aggrieved person may appeal such adjustment to the shorelines hearings board as not being consistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW, except that an appeal to the superior court from a final decision of the shorelines hearings board shall only be made to the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustment if primarily located, and venue for any such action shall lie in that county. The review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located. The board, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the aggrieved party or agency, shall make a balanced determination of the validity of the local government's ordinance in light of the policies and standards for implementation set forth in the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the shorelines hearings board under sections 2 or 3 of this act may seek judicial review thereof by filing a petition in the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustments is located.

Sec. 5. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.19.020. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.100, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with sections 2, 3, and 4 of this 1982 act; (1) RCW 34.04.090, 34.04.100, and 34.04.105 do not apply to the review by the shorelines hearings board of proposed adjustments to a local government master program; and (2) RCW 34.04.130 does not apply to the superior court where review of a final decision by the shorelines hearings board of proposed adjustments to a local government master program may be sought. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Ms. Rinehart spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Chamberlain spoke against them.
Mr. Chamberlain yielded to question by Ms. Cole.

Ms. Cole: "You said that eighty percent of the project went to small businesses. In terms of dollars, how much went to small businesses?"

Mr. Chamberlain: "I thought I said that eighty percent of the deferrals granted were to companies under 5-man. I don't know the answer to your question, Representative Cole, as far as money is concerned."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. James spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. James yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Thinking about the situation with the Washington Public Power Supply System for a moment—if WPPSS decided to make a procurement in excess of $500,000—if this amendment passes and all and all of the participants in WPPSS used this amendment as a way to withdraw from WPPSS, where then would you see the bonded indebtedness relative to WPPSS going?"

Mr. James: "The purpose of this amendment is to make it difficult as you have indicated. Certainly, in regard to the management of WPPSS—and I do have a great deal of respect for the existing management of WPPSS, and I've given them a great deal of support in a good many ways and will continue to do so—this does create a method whereby we can focus on the responsibility of that management and the discharge of duties to the participants, and this certainly gives the participants a hammer."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Could I ask the question again, Representative James? If the Washington Public Power Supply System decided to make a procurement in excess of $500,000, if this amendment passes and all of the entities making up WPPSS decided to use this amendment as a way to withdraw from WPPSS, where then would the bonded indebtedness fall, in your opinion?"

Mr. James: "I would rather defer to legal counsel on that rather than give you my opinion on it; however, I think that potentiality is extremely remote."

Representatives Vander Stoep and Wang spoke against the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 1053 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.
HOUSE BILL NO. 1039, by Representatives Eberle and Sanders:

Removing authority of state liquor stores to sell beer and wine.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Williams, Substitute House Bill No. 1039 was substituted for House Bill No. 1039, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 1039 was read the second time.

Mr. Struthers moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Struthers, Sommers, Amen, Kreidler, McCormick, Flanagan and Fancher:

On page 1, beginning on line 8 strike all of sections 1 and 2 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct all internal references accordingly.

On page 2, line 15 after "public." insert:

"The legislative budget committee study shall be submitted to the legislature no later than January 15, 1983."

On page 2, beginning on line 22 strike all of section 5.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Sanders: "Mr. Speaker, this, in effect, is 180° from the intent of the bill, and Reed's Rules of Order say that is out of order."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. AMEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding): "This does not turn the intent around, so the amendment is in order."

Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Eberle spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eberle yielded to question by Ms. Brekke.

Ms. Brekke: "Representative Eberle, you are talking about gaining money, and aside from the warehouse thing which you mentioned afterwards, how would the Liquor Control Board gain money by removing wine and beer?"

Mr. Eberle: "Representative Brekke, you have hit upon the crux of the matter as a matter of fact. What happens is that beer and wine, which make up only about eighteen percent of the sales of the liquor store, use up about thirty percent of the shelf space. It turns out the Liquor Board only stocks about three or four or, maybe, five hundred varieties of liquor, and that includes many different size bottles, when there are about sixteen hundred varieties available. There are a number of quite expensive liquors, and such, that they do not stock. An analysis by a competent retail expert has shown that if they would stock the other varieties, they would undoubtedly sell some of them. If they sold the higher priced varieties, the average sale price would increase and when the average sale price increases, even for the same number of ounces sold, you get more profit. When you distribute more profit among local, county and state government, everybody has more money."

Representatives Brekke and Sommers spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives McGinnis, Owen and Thompson spoke against them.

Mr. Struthers spoke again in favor of the amendments.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eberle yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Eberle, I understood Representative Owen to say that the stores have to buy the wine and beer from a wholesaler, but the liquor stores can buy direct from the winery or the brewery. Is that true?"

Mr. Eberle: "Under certain circumstances, based on the Des Moines Convention, that is basically correct. It is not precisely correct, but in practical effect, it is correct."

Mr. Flanagan: "Why is that?"

Mr. Eberle: "That's because, Representative Flanagan, the states in the United States that do have the liquor monopoly met in Des Moines, and they made an agreement that they would not buy any liquor or wine from a wholesaler that did not sell to everyone at the same low price, so that between all the states that buy on a monopoly basis, the state of Washington then may start out any certain quarter and order at a particular price, and if they discover within that same quarter that another state is buying the same brand and variety at a lower price, then they can demand the lower price. The private sector can't do that. So the net effect is that the state of Washington gets to buy things at a lower price based on the monopoly state laws than at which the private retailers get to buy."

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Struthers and others to Substitute House Bill No. 1039, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 30; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Barr, Lewis, Teutsch.

On motion of Mr. Struthers, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

Mr. Barnes spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Nelson (G) spoke against it.

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 912, and the bill failed to pass the House by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 56; not voting, 2.

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order.

(7) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sanders yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "Representative Sanders, is it your belief that the state Legislature, by enacting this bill, is in the land use planning business?"

Mr. Sanders: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Becker yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "Representative Becker, a rezone or a spot zone is an action whereby a small area is singled out of a larger area for special treatment for the private benefit of one company. Is the shoreline identified in your home area in this bill a small area singled out of a larger area?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Armstrong, it is a stretch of shoreline of about a mile and a half. About four miles on either side of this particular shoreline is land that is zoned conservancy. Except for three piers in an entire nine-mile stretch, which were put in before the shoreline act was passed, there is no fill on the entire nine-mile stretch of shoreline. I think the answer to your question is yes."

Mr. Armstrong: "Will other landowners within the rezoned shoreline area benefit from the rezone?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Armstrong, in this particular stretch of shoreline that is identified in the bill, there are only two other companies that own land along that particular shoreline. Interestingly enough, the two oil companies that were mentioned earlier are not among them. The two companies are Intalco and Puget Power, and neither of them have any announced plans to do anything with this new kind of zoning. The fact is that the shoreline is not identified by any particular boundaries. It is just a very small mile and a half stretch of shoreline, and the effect of the bill would be that, whereas people in this shoreline could dredge and fill to build oil drilling rigs, their next door neighbors on either side of them would not be able to do that."

Mr. Armstrong: "Would we be considering this bill if it were not for CBI, and the jobs they are promising?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Armstrong, I think the only justification being held out here for this change in zoning is the promise of jobs. Even though there is a rule that says you must have changed conditions in order to justify a change in zoning, there are no changed conditions here. The company in question was well aware of the zoning that existed before they pursued this project and no conditions have changed."

Mr. Armstrong spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. King (R): "I make this point in terms of the concept of 'Group Privilege.' Normally, legislative intent can sometimes be read into the record by a series of questions and answers between members, but that is usually done between the proponents of the measure. I simply want to point out, and I think I'm doing so on behalf of a majority of the members in this body at the moment, that we've just heard a series of questions that occurred between people who oppose the measure before us and which would, in no sense, represent legislative intent."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Isaacson, I'm intrigued by the subject matter that has been brought up within the last few minutes. As Chairman of the Local Government Committee of the House of Representatives, do you feel this bill creates spot zoning by this Legislature?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Barrett, I don't see in any way how this can be construed as spot zoning. Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4831 is not spot zoning. I would like to refer to the words of Representative Van Dyken, quoting from Smith versus Skagit County last night: 'Spot zoning has come to mean arbitrary and unreasonable action by which a small area is singled out of a larger area or district and specially zoned for use classification totally different from an inconsistent list of classifications of the surrounding lands and not in accordance with a comprehensive plan.' In this case, the court was talking about a rezone by the Skagit County commissioners, not an action of the legislature, which designated a 470 acre tract in the middle of 5,500 acres on Guemas Island from resident-recreational to heavy industrial for an aluminum plant. Let's look a little more closely at what Representative Van Dyken told us. It is not the fact that a smaller area is differentiated from a larger one that makes spot zoning; it is the fact that the action must be arbitrary and capricious. The designation must be totally different and inconsistent with the classifications of the surrounding lands. This is what classifies an action as spot zoning.

"Engrossed Senate Bill 4831 represents a totally different set of facts and circumstances. Cherry Point is Whatcom County's heavy industrial zoned area. The dike we're talking about is situated between the aluminum plant and an oil refinery as has been discussed, each with a landfill and a long pier. Nearby is another oil refinery, probably owned by railroad, power companies and other oil companies. For as long as they have been planning and zoning Whatcom County, this has been the heavy industrial area. It was the act of the Legislature in 1971 that led to a conservancy area being established in an industrial site of state and regional economic significance. Cherry Point has all the factors for attracting large industries: Transcontinental railways, wholesale power, available land, all rezoned for heavy industry, abundant water supply, a nearby interstate freeway, available natural gas, and most importantly, a sheltered deep water area characterized by a nonmarshy natural cut. The work force is skilled and productive, and the climate is mild. There are vocational community colleges and higher education facilities available for training entry level personnel—"

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Rinehart: "Mr. Speaker, I believe the Representative is reading material without permission of the body."
SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Rinehart, the rule states that you may not read papers without consent of the House, and that has been generally construed to mean a text that you might read into the record, such as might happen with a congressional record or something. The members may use their own notes to reference. Representative Isaacson, if you can just refer to your notes without reading verbatim it would be appreciated."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Warnke: "Mr. Speaker, the gentlemen is now giving a speech and not answering the question that had been directed to him."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The remarks that I was understanding, Representative Warnke, were in relation to the question of whether it constituted spot zoning and, as I understood the remarks, he was responding as to why it doesn't consist of spot zoning in relation to Representative Van Dyken's reference last evening as to what does constitute spot zoning."

Mr. Isaacson: "I would like to continue my answer. Schools and colleges are available for personnel to train them for higher skills, and right now, Whatcom County has over thirteen percent unemployed. In summary, the designation is not a spot zone because these shorelines are designated as shorelines of economic significance. This definition is consistent with the surrounding land, the adjacent areas. This benefits the greater good of the community, as we have discussed, and besides that, it just makes good sense."

Representatives Ellis, Valle and Hine spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Brown and Garson spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lundquist yielded to question by Mr. Garson.

Mr. Garson: "Representative Lundquist, do you know of any landfills that are now in this area that we've been discussing this evening?"

Mr. Lundquist: "Yes, Representative Garson, there are substantial landfills in that particular area right now. I've been by them in my gillnet boat and I've looked at them. They are there because Whatcom County had zoned that portion of their county for industrial development, providing an industrial development that would have water access. That was the point of the landfills that are there. If you would like to know the size of them, I can certainly give you better than a visual inspection. This is testimony that was given in the hearing in Whatcom County: There is a landfill near the Lummi Indian agriculture project, 700 acres of marine environment, 17,000 feet long, 25 acres of intertidal marine habitat, 700 acres and 7,000 feet of conservancy shorelines was involved in this. The developments that are there, the pier that we are talking about is a mobile dock which is on the end of a 500x300 foot landfill. There is an Intalco dock, which is on the end of an 800x250 foot landfill. The Sandy Point Marina which required 55 acres, and one million yards of intertidal and shore area. There are others, but I think that establishes the fact that there are some landfills in that area now."

Mr. Garson continued his remarks in favor of the bill.

Mr. Amen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Hastings demanded an oral roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Warnke, Cole, Nisbet and Becker spoke against the bill, and Representatives Fancher and Bender spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4831 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 46; not voting, 2.

(2) In addition to any other power or authority that an agency may have, each agency, alone or in concert, may establish a small works roster consisting of all qualified contractors who have requested to be included on the roster.

(3) The small works roster may make distinctions between contractors based on the geographic areas served and the nature of the work the contractor is qualified to perform. At least once every year, the agency shall advertise in a newspaper of general circulation the existence of the small works roster and shall add to the roster those contractors who request to be included on the roster.

No agency shall be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Addison, I read in the bill report that the fiscal impact on this bill is the same as House Bill 1169 and that fiscal impact would be significant, both in terms of additional costs and potential savings, and would affect most state agencies. However, there is no way to reasonably estimate the impact without extensive research. I'm wondering if you could give us any idea of the varied factors that might be involved so we can have some rough idea of what the fiscal impact really might be on this bill?"

Mr. Addison: "We're talking about reducing the amount of paperwork by fifteen percent, so if the amount of paperwork handled by an individual bureaucrat is on the average reduced by fifteen percent, it's reasonable to believe that we would be seeing a rather dramatic cost savings to state government. While you can't estimate exactly how much the paperwork costs state government, we can say that by reducing it, we would save money. Probably more important is the savings to those business people and those individuals out there who shell out the paperwork. We all know the information collected by state government is rather horrendous and what this attempts to do is ask the agencies to prioritize that information they have been collecting but not using, to try and cut out some of those unneeded types of information they do collect."

"Sec. 4. Section 11, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess., as amended by section 8, chapter 139, Laws of 1980 and RCW 70.38.115 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the secretary of the department, or his designee, in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations proposed by the department and adopted by the board of health pursuant to this chapter. Rules and regulations shall establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program. The secretary may reconsider a decision of denial based on evidence, justification, or other information not considered in the certificate of need review process, if the applicant is a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW.

2. Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;
(b) The relationship of services reviewed to the long-range development plan, if any, of the persons providing or proposing such services;
(c) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;
(d) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;
(e) The immediate and the long-range financial feasibility of the proposal as well as the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services by the persons proposing the new institutional health service, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals;
(f) The relationship of the services proposed to be provided to the existing health care system of the area in which such services are proposed to be provided;
(g) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of resources including health manpower, management personnel, and funds for capital and operating needs for the provision of the services, (ii) the availability of alternative uses of such resources for the provision of other health services, (iii) the effect of the means proposed for the delivery of such services on the clinical needs of health professional training programs in the area in which such services are to be provided, (iv) the extent to which health professions schools in the area will have access to the services for training purposes if such services are to be available in a limited number of facilities, and (v) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served. When an application is made by an osteopathic or allopathic facility for a certificate of need to construct, expand, or modernize a health care facility, acquire major medical equipment, or add services, the need for that construction, expansion, modernization, acquisition of equipment, or addition of services shall be considered on the basis of the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;
(h) Special needs and circumstances of those entities which provide a substantial portion of their services or resources, or both, to individuals not residing in the health service areas in which the entities are located or in adjacent health service areas;
(i) The special needs and circumstances of health maintenance organizations;
(j) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;
(k) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals and nonallopathic services;
(l) The special circumstances of health service institutions and the need for conserving energy;
(m) The factors which affect the effect of competition on the supply of the health services being reviewed;
(n) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster competition and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;
(o) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed; and
(p) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past.
(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds (in accordance with criteria prescribed by the secretary of the United States department of health and human services by regulation):

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) When a hospital has developed a long-range health facility plan, pursuant to RCW 70.38.145, and the proposed new institutional health service is consistent with such plan, an expedited review process shall be instituted by the department as it has been done since the enactment of chapter 70.38 RCW in 1971.

(5) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(6) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(7) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. If the applicant is a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, any substantial evidence, justification, or other information developed subsequent to the decision of the secretary may be introduced at the hearing.

(8) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved as specified in PL 93-641, section 1527(c).

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Williams yielded to question by Ms. Stratton.

Ms. Stratton: "Representative Williams, you stated that WPPSS or the joint operating agency authority was granted in 1953 and that they were formed in 1957?"

Mr. Williams: "I didn't say anything as far as what year they were formed."

Ms. Stratton: "You indicated that in 1977, the legislature began to address some of the problems. Where was the legislature during those twenty years? Why were they not addressing the problems?"

Mr. Williams: "The legislature in the past twenty years has attempted to address the problems. I was not a member of the legislature twenty years ago, but if you would like the legislative history, I could read it to you. Unfortunately, from the original legislation which created the joint operating agency, we set up a Washington State Power Commission which was a creature of the state which had the oversight responsibilities for WPPSS. At that time there was no WPPSS, there was just JOA. The succeeding legislatures finally omitted the check and balance in the system. Coincidentally, the year that was omitted, WPPSS was formed."

Ms. Stratton spoke in favor of the amendments, and Ms. Monohon again opposed them.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Vander Stoep closed debate, speaking again in favor of the amendments.

duties necessary to carry out its responsibility to construct, operate, terminate, or decommission the nuclear and nonnuclear projects, including without limitation the power to issue and sell bonds and to adopt and amend all budgets.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.374 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) With the exception of the powers and duties of the board of directors described in RCW 43.52.370(2), the management and control of an operating agency constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement under chapter 80.50 RCW is vested in an executive board established under this subsection and consisting of eleven members.

(a) Seven members of the executive board shall be elected to four-year terms by the board of directors from among the members of the board of directors. The board of directors may provide by rule for the composition of the seven members of the executive board elected from among the members of the board of directors so as to afford fair representation which reflects the member public utility districts' and cities' participation in the joint operating agency's projects. The board of directors may also provide by rule for the removal of a member of the executive board, including the outside directors. Members of the board of directors may be elected to serve successive terms on the executive board.

(b) Four members of the executive board shall be outside directors and shall be selected and appointed by the board of directors. The outside directors shall:

(i) Serve four-year terms on the executive board. However, of the initial members of the executive board, the board of directors shall choose by lot two outside directors to serve two-year terms and two to serve four-year terms. Thereafter, all outside directors shall be appointed for four-year terms. All outside directors are eligible for reappointment; from the board of directors. The outside directors may be paid additional compensation as established by the adviser of the operating agency or any of its members or any of the participants in any of the operating agency's plants;

struction or management of such facilities as the operating agency is constructing or operating, or have expertise in the termination, disposition, or liquidation of corporate assets; and

(vi) No member of the executive board may be personally liable for mistakes and errors of judgment in the performance of his duties involving the exercise of judgment and discretion unless the duties are performed with corrupt or malicious motives or fraud or his acts are not within the scope of his official duties.

The operating agency shall undertake the defense of and indemnify each executive board member made a party to any proceeding, including any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a member of the executive board against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses actually incurred by him in connection with such proceeding. In addition, members of the executive board who are utility employees shall not be fired, forced to resign, or demoted from their utility job for decisions they make while carrying out their duties as members of the executive board except for misconduct, malfeasance in office, or incompetence.

(c) The president of the board of directors shall be a nonvoting member of the executive board and shall serve as the presiding officer of the executive board.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that an operating agency is in any manner an agency of the state.
(3) The eleven members of the executive board shall be selected with the objective of establishing an executive board which has the resources to effectively carry out its responsibilities. To the extent reasonably possible, the membership and operation of the executive board should be patterned after boards of directors of large private corporations.

   (b) The board of directors shall select and appoint the initial outside directors and the executive board shall hold its organizational meeting no later than ninety days after July 28, 1981, and the powers and duties prescribed in RCW 43.52.375, 43.52.378, and this section shall devolve upon the executive board at that time.

(6) The executive board shall select and employ a managing director of the operating agency and may delegate to the managing director such authority for the management and control of the operating agency as the executive board deems appropriate. The managing director's employment is terminable at the will of the executive board.

(7) (Any executive board created under this section shall cease to function upon the initiation of regular operations of the nuclear power plant over which it has exercised construction management powers and duties. If the operating agency is constructing two or more nuclear power plants simultaneously, the executive board shall cease exercising all powers as to each plant as it becomes operational.) The executive board shall conduct its business in a manner which in its judgment is in the interests of all ratepayers affected by the joint operating agency and its projects.

Sec. 3. Section 43.52.375, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.375 are each amended to read as follows:

The amount of such bond may be decreased or increased from time to time as the board may by resolution direct. The board shall also appoint an auditor and may require him to give a bond to the operating agency, with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington in such amount as it shall by resolution prescribe, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. If the joint operating agency is constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement under chapter 80.50 RCW, the auditor shall be appointed by the executive board. The premiums on the bonds of the auditor and the treasurer shall be paid by the operating agency. The board may provide for coverage of said officers and other persons on the same bond.

All moneys of the operating agency shall be deposited forthwith by the treasurer in such depositories, and with such securities as are designated by rules of the executive board. The treasurer shall establish a general fund and such special funds as shall be ((created)) designated by the executive board, into which ((he)) the treasurer shall place all ((money)) of those moneys of the joint operating agency ((as the board by resolution or motion may direct)) which are subject to the jurisdiction of the executive board.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 220, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.378 are each amended to read as follows:

"The executive board of any operating agency constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement issued pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall constitute an administrative auditor. The administrative auditor shall be deemed an officer under chapter 42.23 RCW. The appointment of the administrative auditor shall be in addition to the appointment of the auditor for the issuance of warrants and other purposes as provided in RCW 43.52.375. The executive board shall retain a qualified firm or firms to conduct performance audits, including such engineering expertise as the executive board deems necessary, which is in fact independent and does not have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract with the operating agency other than its employment hereunder. No member or employee of any such firm shall be connected with the operating agency as an officer, employee, or contractor. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall be independently and directly responsible to the executive board of the operating agency. The administrative auditor shall perform such other duties as the executive board shall prescribe to accomplish the purposes of this section.

In addition to the powers and duties conferred by chapter 44.28 RCW, the legislative budget committee shall evaluate such management audits as to adequacy and effectiveness of procedure and shall consult with and make reports and recommendations to the executive board. available to the department or any agencies with whom it has a cooperative or contractual arrangement to establish, enforce, or collect support moneys or support obligations.

(5) The secretary may waive the fee, or any portion thereof, as a part of a compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge off of said fee if the secretary finds there are no available, prac-remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., section 307, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.04.305 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A joint select committee on financial responsibility for residential and non-residential services shall be created. Such committee shall study the equity and fairness among the various services provided to clients and families of similar needs and the fees charged to clients and families of similar needs. The committee shall determine whether there is justification for differences in responsibilities of parents for residential services provided to children, and further determine whether fees for residential services are in excess of or less than what parents of similar income would likely expend for a child at home.

The study shall further examine methods for instituting a common, uniform and consistent approach to charging fees for residential and nonresidential services provided by the department which includes but is not limited to the following considerations:

(1) The ability of parents to pay for services;
(2) Financial considerations for encouraging parental contact with institutionalized children; and
(3) Appropriate offsets to any liabilities to be imposed on parents.

In addition, the study committee shall take the following into consideration when developing its recommendations:

(1) Methods to maximize support from third party payors, including the military where appropriate;
(2) The need to minimize disruption to the current service level because of diminished general state revenues;
(3) The financial responsibility programs utilized by other states for similar services; and
The need to ensure that the financial obligations of the parent do not discourage the participation in necessary residential and nonresidential services.

The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall appoint the joint select committee composed of six members of the house of representatives and six members of the senate, three members of the majority caucus and three members of the minority caucus each. A report of the findings of this study shall be submitted to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate no later than January 1, 1983, along with recommendations for legislative action.

On page 1, on line 27 of the title, after "74.04.706;" strike all material down through "74.04.710;" on line 28

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 7, chapter 35, Laws of 1981 and RCW 50.22.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) 'Extended benefit period' means a period which:
(a) Begins with the third week after ((whichever of the following weeks occurs first):
(i) A week for which there is a national 'on' indicator; or
(ii) A week for which there is a state 'on' indicator, and)
(b) Ends with the third week after the first week for which there is ((both a national 'off' indicator and a state)) an 'off' indicator: PROVIDED, That no extended benefit period shall last for a period of less than thirteen consecutive weeks, and further that no extended benefit period may begin by reason of ((a-state)) an 'on' indicator before the fourteenth week after the close of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(((2) There is a 'national 'on' indicator' for a week if the United States secretary of labor determines that for the period consisting of such week and the twelve weeks immediately preceding it, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent (determined by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four of the most recent six calendar quarters ending before the close of the period).

(3) There is a 'national 'off' indicator' for a week if the United States secretary of labor determines that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent (determined by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four of the most recent six calendar quarters ending before the close of the period):

((4))) (2) There is ((a 'state 'on' indicator')) an 'on' indicator for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) ((either:)
(a) equaled or exceeded one hundred twenty percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years and equaled or exceeded ((four percent; or
(b) Equaled or exceeded)) five percent.

(((5)5)) (3) There is ((a 'state 'off' indicator')) an 'off' indicator for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) was either:
Less than ((four)) five percent; or
(b) ((Four)) Five percent or more ((but less than five percent)) and the rate of insured unemployment was less than one hundred twenty percent of the average of the rates for the corresponding thirteen week period ending in each of the two preceding calendar years.

(66) (4) 'Regular benefits' means benefits payable to an individual under this title or under any state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than extended benefits or additional benefits.

(77) (5) 'Extended benefits' means benefits payable for weeks of unemployment beginning in an extended benefit period to an individual under this title or under any state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than regular or additional benefits.

(88) (6) 'Additional benefits' are benefits totally financed by the state and payable under this title to exhaustees by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors.

(99) (7) 'Eligibility period' of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his or her benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period that is in effect in this state and, if his or her benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(8) An 'additional benefit period' means a period within an extended benefit period which:
(a) Begins with the third week after a week for which:
(i) The governor determines that adverse economic conditions and high unemployment among the state's workers necessitate payment of additional benefits; and
(ii) The commissioner determines that, for the fifty-two consecutive weeks ending with such week, the rate of insured unemployment as calculated under (d) of this subsection is less than six and one-half percent: PROVIDED, That the six percent shall apply if the fifty-two week rate of insured unemployment has been less than four and one-half percent at any time within the preceding one hundred four weeks.
(b) Ends with the third week after a week for which the commissioner determines that, for the fifty-two consecutive weeks ending with such week, the rate of insured unemployment as calculated under (d) of this subsection is less than six and one-half percent: PROVIDED, That six percent shall apply if the additional benefit period began because of the proviso in (a)(ii) of this subsection, the fifty-two week rate of insured unemployment has not exceeded six and one-half percent during the additional benefit period, and the additional benefit period has been in effect for fewer than thirty-six weeks.
(c) No additional benefit period may last for a period of less than thirteen weeks, and no additional benefit period may begin before the fourteenth week after the close of a prior additional benefit period.

(d) 'Rate of insured unemployment,' for the purposes of (a) and (b) of this subsection, means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent fifty-two consecutive-week period as determined by the commissioner on the basis of his reports to the United States Secretary of Labor by the average monthly employment covered under this title for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such fifty-two week period. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with any remaining fraction disregarded.

(e) If a federally funded program of benefits is established which provides for benefits beyond thirty-nine weeks, any additional benefit period in effect shall terminate on the last day of the week preceding the effective week of the federal program. No additional benefit period may begin while such a federal program is in effect.

(9) 'Additional benefit eligibility period' of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his or her benefit year which begin in an additional benefit period that is in effect and, if his or her benefit year ends within such additional benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(10) 'Exhaustee' means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his or her eligibility period:
(a) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were payable to him or her under this title or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and regular benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his or her current benefit year that includes such week; or
(b) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him or her under this title or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and regular benefits available to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his or her current benefit year that includes such week, after the cancellation of some or all of his or her wage credits or the total or partial reduction of his or her rights to regular benefits: PROVIDED, That, for the purposes of (a) and (b), an individual shall be deemed to have received in his or her current benefit year all of the regular benefits that were payable to him or her, or available to him or her, as the case may be, even though:
(i) As a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages or employment, or both, that were not included in the original monetary determination with respect to his or her current benefit year, he or she may subsequently be determined to be entitled to more regular benefits; or
(ii) By reason of the seasonal provisions of another state law, he or she is not entitled to regular benefits with respect to such week of unemployment (although he or she may be entitled to regular benefits with respect to future weeks of unemployment in the next season, as the case may be, in his or her current benefit year), and he or she is otherwise an exhaustee within the meaning of this section with respect to his or her right to regular benefits under such state law seasonal provisions during the season or off season in which that week of unemployment occurs; or Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an otherwise eligible individual shall not be denied benefits for any week because he or she is in training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, P.L. 93–618, nor may that individual be denied benefits for any such week by reason of leaving work which is not suitable employment to enter such training, or for failure to meet any requirement of federal or state law for any such week which relates to the individual's availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to accept work.

For the purposes of this section, 'suitable employment' means, with respect to an individual, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment (as described for the purposes of the Trade Act of 1974, P.L. 93–618), if the wages for such work are not less than eighty percent of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the Trade Act of 1974, P.L. 93–618.
After having acquired jurisdiction for review, the commissioner shall review the proceedings in question. Prior to rendering his decision, the commissioner may order the taking of additional evidence by an appeal tribunal to be made a part of the record in the case. Upon the basis of evidence submitted to the appeal tribunal and such additional evidence as the commissioner may order to be taken, the commissioner shall render his decision in writing affirming, modifying, or setting aside the decision of the appeal tribunal. Alternatively, the commissioner may order further proceedings to be held before the appeal tribunal, upon completion of which the appeal tribunal shall issue a decision in writing affirming, modifying, or setting aside its previous decision. The new decision may be appealed under RCW 50.32.070. The commissioner shall mail his decision to the interested parties at their last known addresses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 50.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The commissioner may designate certain commissioner's decisions as precedents. These precedents shall govern the decisions of the appeal tribunal unless modified by subsequent precedents designated by the commissioner or by published decisions of the Washington appellate courts. The commissioner's decisions designated as precedents shall be published and made available to the public by the department.

Sec. 9. Section 183, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any assignment, pledge, or encumbrance of any right to benefits which are or may become due or payable under this title shall be void. Such rights to benefits shall be exempt from levy, execution, attachment, or any other remedy whatsoever provided for the collection of debts, except as provided in section 10 of this act. Benefits received by any individual, so long as they are not commingled with other funds of the recipient, shall be exempt from any remedy whatsoever for collection of all debts except debts incurred for necessities furnished such individual or his spouse or dependents during the time when such individual was unemployed. Any waiver of any exemption provided for in this section shall be void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 50.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An individual filing a new claim for unemployment compensation shall, at the time of filing the claim, disclose whether or not the individual owes child support obligations as defined under subsection (7) of this section. If the individual discloses that he or she owes child support obligations and is determined to be eligible for unemployment compensation, the commissioner shall notify the state or local child support enforcement agency enforcing those obligations that the individual has been determined to be eligible for unemployment compensation.

The commissioner shall deduct and withhold from any unemployment compensation payable to an individual who owes child support obligations as defined under subsection (7) of this section:

(a) The amount specified by the individual to the commissioner to be deducted and withheld under this subsection, if neither (b) nor (c) of this subsection is applicable;

(b) The amount (if any) determined pursuant to an agreement submitted to the commissioner under section 454(20)(B)(i) of the Social Security Act by the state or local child support enforcement agency, unless (c) of this subsection is applicable; or

(c) Any amount otherwise required to be so deducted and withheld from such unemployment compensation pursuant to legal process, as that term is defined in section 462(e) of the Social Security Act, properly served upon the commissioner.

Any amount deducted and withheld under subsection (2) of this section shall be paid to the commissioner to the appropriate state or local child support enforcement agency.

Any amount deducted and withheld under subsection (2) of this section shall be treated for all purposes as if it were paid to the individual as unemployment compensation and paid by that individual to the state or local child support enforcement agency in satisfaction of the individual's child support obligations.

For the purposes of this section, 'unemployment compensation' means any compensation payable under this chapter including amounts payable by the commissioner under an agreement under any federal law providing for compensation, assistance, or allowances with respect to unemployment.

This section applies only if appropriate arrangements have been made for reimbursement by the state or local child support enforcement agency for the administrative costs incurred by the commissioner under this section which are attributable to child support obligations being enforced by the state or local child support enforcement agency.

'Child support obligations' as used in this section means only those obligations which are being enforced pursuant to a plan described in section 454 of the Social Security Act which has been approved by the Secretary of Health and Human Services under part D of Title IV of the Social Security Act.

'State or local child support enforcement agency' as used in this section means any agency of this state or a political subdivision thereof operating pursuant to a plan described in subsection (7) of this section.

Sec. 11. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term 'earnings' means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and section 10 of this 1982 act, or Title 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term 'disposable earnings' means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The term 'employment' shall not include services rendered by any person, firm, or corporation currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW when:

(1) Contracting to perform work for any contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

(2) The person, firm, or corporation has a principal place of business which would be eligible for a business deduction for internal revenue service tax purposes other than that furnished by the contractor for which the business has contracted to furnish services;

(3) The person, firm, or corporation maintains a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business; and

(4) The work which the person, firm, or corporation has contracted to perform is:

(a) The work of a contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010; or

(b) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

Sec. 13. Section 11, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

'Employment', subject only to the other provisions of this title, means personal service, of whatever nature, unlimited by the relationship of master and servant as known to the common law or any other legal relationship, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract calling for the performance of personal services, written or oral, express or implied.

Except as provided by section 12 of this 1982 act, personal services performed for an employing unit by one or more contractors or subcontractors acting individually or as a partnership, which do not meet the provisions of RCW 50.04.140, shall be considered employment of the employing unit: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such contractor or subcontractor shall be an employer under the provisions of this title in respect to personal services performed by individuals for such contractor or subcontractor.

Sec. 14. Section 101, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 11, chapter 190, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No employing unit which contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor who is an employer under the provisions of this title shall make any payment or advance to, or secure any credit for, such contractor or subcontractor or on account of any contract or contracts to which said employing unit is a party unless such contractor or subcontractor has paid contributions, due or to become due for wages paid or to be paid by such contractor or subcontractor for personal services performed pursuant to such contract or subcontract, or has furnished a good and sufficient bond acceptable to the commissioner for payment of contributions, interest, and penalties. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said employing unit directly liable for such contributions, interest, and penalties and the commissioner shall have all of the remedies of collection against said employing unit under the provisions of this title as though the services in question were performed directly for said employing unit.

For the purposes of this section, a contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW shall not be responsible for any contributions for the work of any subcontractor if:

(1) The subcontractor is currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

(2) The subcontractor has a principal place of business which would be eligible for a business deduction for internal revenue service tax purposes other than that furnished by the contractor for which the business has contracted to furnish services;

(b) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with his or her work and thereafter until he or she has obtained work and earned wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks. Alcoholism shall not constitute a defense to disqualification from benefits due to misconduct.
(2) An individual who has been discharged because of a felony or a gross misdemeanor of which he or she has been convicted, or has admitted committing to a competent authority, and which is connected with his or her work shall be disqualified from receiving any benefits for which base year credits are earned in any employment prior to the discharge. Such disqualification begins with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged, and all benefits paid during the period the individual was disqualified shall be recoverable, notwithstanding RCW 50.20.190, 50.24.020, or any other provision of this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 50.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Additional benefits are payable to eligible persons who are 'exhaustees' with respect to extended benefits. The term 'exhaustee' is deemed to have the same meaning with respect to extended benefits as with respect to regular benefits.

(2) Additional benefit amounts shall be calculated pursuant to RCW 50.22.050(1) and (2).

(3) Eligibility for additional benefits shall be determined and benefits shall be paid under the same terms and conditions as for extended benefits.

(2) Additional benefits are payable to otherwise eligible persons who have exhausted extended benefits on their most recent claim after July 1, 1980.

(3) The department of employment security shall develop proposals for a permanent program of additional benefits. The proposals shall address alternatives in trigger mechanisms, benefit levels, eligibility requirements, and unemployment insurance financing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 50.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Benefits under sections 16 and 17 of this act are not payable for weeks of unemployment beginning after June 30, 1983, unless extended by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The term 'employment' does not include services performed in a barber shop licensed under chapter 18.15 RCW or a hairdressing or cosmetology shop licensed under chapter 18.18 RCW if:

(1) The use of the shop facilities by the individual performing the services is contingent upon compensation to the shop owner; and

(2) The individual performing the services receives no compensation or other consideration from the owner for the services performed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

(2) ‘Oil’ shall mean crude petroleum oil, and any other hydrocarbons regardless of gravity, which are produced at the well in liquid form by ordinary production methods or which are the result of condensation of gaseous hydrocarbons before or after they leave the reservoir, other than gas produced in association with oil and commonly known as wet gas.

(3) ‘Gas’ shall mean all natural gas and other fluid or gaseous hydrocarbons not defined as oil in subsection (2) above, including wet gas, dry gas, and residue gas as those terms are generally understood in the petroleum industry.

(4) ‘Pool’ shall mean an underground reservoir proven to contain a common accumulation of oil or gas; or both. Each zone of a general structure which is completely separated from any other zone in the structure is covered by the term ‘pool’ as herein used:

(5)(a) ‘Certificate of clearance’ means a permit prescribed by the committee for the transportation or the delivery of oil, gas, or product.

(2) ‘Committee’ means the oil and gas conservation committee.

(3) ‘Developed area’ means a development unit on which a well has been completed that is capable of producing oil or gas, or the acreage that is otherwise attributed to a well by the committee for production purposes.

(4) ‘Division order’ means an instrument showing percentage of royalty or rental divisions among royalty owners.

(5) ‘Field’ shall mean the general area which is underlaid by at least one pool and shall include the underground reservoir or reservoirs containing oil or gas, or both. The words ‘field’ and ‘pool’ mean the same thing when only one underground reservoir is involved; however, ‘field’, unlike ‘pool’, may relate to two or more pools.

(6) ‘Gas’ means all natural gas, all gaseous substances, and all other fluid or gaseous hydrocarbons not defined as oil in subsection (12) of this section, including but not limited to wet gas, dry gas, and residue gas as those terms are generally understood in the petroleum industry.

(7) ‘Illegal oil’ or ‘illegal gas’ means oil or gas that has been produced from any well within the state in violation of this chapter or any rule or order of the committee.

(8) ‘Illegal product’ means any product derived in whole or part from illegal oil or illegal gas.

(9) ‘Interested person’ means a person with an ownership interest in oil or gas within a development unit.

(10) ‘Just and equitable share of the production’ means, as to each separately owned tract or combination of tracts, that part of the authorized production from a pool that is substantially in the proportion that the amount of recoverable oil or gas under the developed area of the separately owned tract or tracts bears to the recoverable oil or gas or both in the total of the developed areas in the pool.

(11) ‘Lessee’ shall mean the lessee under an oil and gas lease, or the owner of any land or mineral rights who conducts or carries on any oil and gas development, exploration and operation thereon, or any person so operating for himself or others.

(12) ‘Oil’ means crude petroleum, oil, condensate, distillate and all hydrocarbons, regardless of gravity, that are in the liquid phase in the original reservoir conditions and are produced and recovered at the wellhead in liquid form.

(13) ‘Owner’ means the person who has the right to drill into and produce from a pool and to appropriate the oil or gas that he produces therefrom, either for himself or for himself and others.

(14) ‘Operator’ means the person who operates a well or unit or who has been designated or accepted by the owners to operate the well or unit.

(15) ‘Person’ shall mean any natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, fiduciary, or representative of any kind and includes any governmental or political subdivision or any agency thereof.

(16) ‘Pool’ means an underground reservoir proven to contain a common accumulation of oil or gas, or both. Each zone of a general structure which is completely separated from any other zone in the structure is covered by the term ‘pool’ as used in this subsection.

(17) ‘Product’ means any commodity made from oil or gas.

(18) ‘Physical waste’ as that term is generally understood in the petroleum industry;

(19) ‘Operator’ means the state oil and gas supervisor.

(20) ‘Waste’ in addition to its ordinary meaning, means and includes:

(a) ‘Physical waste’ as that term is generally understood in the petroleum industry;

(b) The inefficient, excessive, or improper use of, or unnecessary dissipation of, reservoir energy; and the locating, spacing, drilling, equipping, operating, or producing of any oil or gas well in a manner which results or tends to result in reducing the quantity of oil or gas to be recovered from any pool in this state under operations conducted in accordance with prudent and proper practices or that causes or tends to cause unnecessary wells to be drilled;
(c) The inefficient above ground storage of oil; and the locating, spacing, drilling, equipping, operating, or producing of any oil or gas well in a manner causing or tending to cause unnecessary or excessive surface loss or destruction of oil or gas;
(d) Producing oil or gas in such manner as to cause unnecessary water channeling, or coning;
(e) The operation of an oil well with an inefficient gas-oil ratio;
(f) The drowning with water of any pool or part thereof capable of producing oil or gas, except insofar as and to the extent authorized by the committee;
(g) Underground waste;
(h) The creation of unnecessary fire hazards;
(i) The escape into the open air, from a well producing oil or gas, of gas in excess of the amount which is reasonably necessary in the efficient development or production of the well;
(j) The use of gas for the manufacture of carbon black, except as provided in RCW 78.52.140;
(k) Production of oil and gas in excess of the reasonable market demand;
(l) The flaring of gas from gas wells except that necessary for the drilling, completing, or testing of the well; and
(m) The unreasonable damage to natural resources through destruction of the surface, soils, wildlife, fish, or aquatic life from or by oil and gas operations.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.025 are each amended to read as follows:
The committee shall hold hearings or meetings at such times and places as may be found by the committee to be necessary to carry out its duties. The committee may establish its own rules for the conduct of public hearings or meetings consistent with other applicable provisions of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:
The department of natural resources shall be the designated agent of the committee for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter. It shall administer and enforce this chapter consistent with the policies adopted by the committee together with all rules and regulations and orders adopted by the committee as may be delegated by the committee including but not limited to issuing permits, orders, enforcement actions, and other actions or decisions authorized to be made under this chapter. The department shall designate a state oil and gas supervisor who shall be charged with such duties as may be delegated by the department. The department of natural resources may designate one or more deputy supervisors and employ all personnel necessary including the appointment of examiners as provided in section 6 of this act to carry out the provisions of this chapter and rules, regulations, and orders of the committee.

Sec. 4. Section 10, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.040 are each amended to read as follows:
It shall be the duty of the committee to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter by the adoption of policies, ((and rules)) regulations and orders promulgated hereunder, and the committee is hereby vested with jurisdiction, power and authority, over all persons and property, public and private, necessary to enforce effectively such duty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:
(1) The committee may make such investigations as deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.
(2)(a) The committee and the department may require:
(i) Identification of ownership of oil or gas wells, producing leases, tanks, plants, structures, and facilities for the transportation or refining of oil or gas;
(ii) The making and filing of well logs, core samples, directional surveys, and reports on well locations, drilling, and production;
(iii) Testing of oil and gas wells;
(iv) The drilling, casing, operating, and plugging of wells in such manner as to prevent the escape of oil or gas out of one pool into another, the intrusion of water into an oil or gas pool, and the pollution of fresh water supplies by oil, gas, or salt water and to prevent blow-outs, cavings, seepages, and fires;
(v) The furnishing of adequate security acceptable to the department, conditioned on the performance of the duty to plug each dry or abandoned well, the duty to reclaim and clean up well drilling sites, the duty to repair wells causing waste, the duty to comply with all rules and regulations adopted by the committee, orders of the committee and the department, all permit conditions, and the provisions of this chapter;
(vi) The operation of wells with efficient gas-oil and water-oil ratios and may fix these ratios and limit production from wells with inefficient gas-oil or water-oil ratios;
(vii) The production of oil and gas from wells be accurately measured by such means and upon such standards prescribed by the committee, and that every person who produces, sells, purchases, acquires, stores, transports, treats, or processes oil or gas in this state shall keep and maintain for a period of five years within this state complete and accurate records thereof, which records shall be available for examination by the committee or its agents at all reasonable times, and that every person file with the committee such reports as it may prescribe with respect to the oil or gas; and (viii) Compliance with all applicable laws and rules and regulations of this state.
(b) The committee and the department may regulate:
Notice a permit is given and such fee has been paid as herein provided. The committee shall have the authority to prescribe that the said form indicate the exact location of such well, the name and address of the owner, operator, contractor, driller, and any other person responsible for the conduct of drilling operations, the proposed depth of the well, the elevation of the well above sea level, and such other relevant and reasonable information as the committee may deem necessary or convenient to effectuate the purposes of this chapter. The committee may issue a permit if it finds that the proposed drilling will be consistent with tlie provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations and orders adopted under this chapter and new section to read as follows:

In addition to the powers and authority, either express or implied, granted to the Washington oil and gas conservation committee by virtue of the statutes of the state of Washington, the committee may, in prescribing its rules of order or procedure in connection with hearings or other proceedings before the commitete, provide for the appointment of one or more examiners to conduct a hearing or hearings with respect to any matter properly coming before the committee and to make reports and recommendations to the committee with respect thereto. Any member of the committee, or its staff or any other person designated by the committee, or the supervisor when this power is so delegated, may serve as an examiner. The committee may also provide for additional compensation to be paid to a member of the committee or any other person designated by the committee for services performed as an examiner. The committee shall promulgate rules and regulations with regard to hearings to be conducted before examiners.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

DRILLING PERMIT REQUIRED. Any person desiring or proposing to drill any well in search of oil or gas, before commencing the drilling of any such well, shall (notify) apply to the committee upon such form as the committee may prescribe, and shall pay to the state treasurer a fee of (one hundred) two thousand dollars for each such (permit) application. The drilling of any well is prohibited until (such notice) a permit is given and such fee has been paid as herein provided. The committee shall have the authority to prescribe that the said form indicate the exact location of such well, the name and address of the owner, operator, contractor, driller, and any other person responsible for the conduct of drilling operations, the proposed depth of the well, the elevation of the well above sea level, and such other relevant and reasonable information as the committee may deem necessary or convenient to effectuate the purposes of this chapter. The committee may issue a permit if it finds that the proposed drilling will be consistent with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations and orders adopted under this chapter and is not detrimental to the public interest. The committee may impose such conditions and restrictions as it deems necessary to protect the public interest and to ensure compliance with the chapter and the rules and regulations and orders adopted by the committee. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing the committee to issue a permit to drill on lands underlaid by the minerals of a nonconsenting owner in a pooled development, unless the person seeking the permit has a legal right to drill on such lands.

Sec. 8. Section 22, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.200 are each amended to read as follows:

DEVELOPMENT UNITS AUTHORIZED. When necessary to prevent waste, to avoid the drilling of unnecessary wells, or to protect correlative rights, the committee, upon its own motion or upon application of any interested persons, shall establish (well spacing areas) development units covering any pool. Development units when established shall be of uniform size and shape for the entire pool, except that when found to be necessary for any of the purposes above-mentioned, the committee is authorized to divide any pool into zones and establish (well spacing areas) development units for each zone, which (units) may differ in size and shape from those established in any other zone.

Sec. 9. Section 23, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.210 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The size and the shape of (well spacing areas) development units are to be such as will result in the efficient and economical development of the pool as a whole, and the size shall not be smaller than the maximum area that can be efficiently and economically drained by one well (nor greater than forty acres for oil or one hundred sixty acres for gas only). If sufficient data is not available to determine the area that can be efficiently and economically drained by one well, the committee may establish temporary units to ensure the orderly development of the pool pending availability of the necessary data.

2. The committee may establish development units of different sizes or shapes for different parts of a pool or may grant exceptions to the size or shape of any development unit or units. Where development units of different sizes or shapes exist in a pool, the committee shall, if necessary, make such adjustment of the allowable production from the well or wells drilled thereon so that each operator in each development unit will have a reasonable opportunity to produce or receive his just and equitable share of the production.

Sec. 10. Section 24, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.220 are each amended to read as follows:

LOCATION OF WELL. An order establishing ((well spacing areas)) development units for a pool shall specify the size and shape of each area and the location of the permitted well thereon in accordance with a reasonable uniform spacing plan. Upon application and after hearing, if the committee finds that a well drilled at the prescribed location would not produce in paying quantities, or that surface conditions would substantially add to the burden or hazard of drilling such well, or for other good cause shown, the committee is authorized to enter an order permitting the well to be drilled at a location other than that prescribed by such ((spacing)) development order; however, the committee shall include in the order suitable provisions to prevent the production from the ((well spacing areas)) drilling unit of more than its just and equitable share of the oil and gas in the pool.

Sec. 11. Section 25, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.230 are each amended to read as follows:

ORDER MUST COVER ENTIRE POOL—MODIFICATIONS. An order establishing ((well spacing areas)) development units for a pool shall cover all lands determined or believed to be underlaid by such pool, and may be modified by the committee from time to time to include additional areas determined to be underlaid by such pool. When the committee determines that it is necessary for the prevention of waste, or to avoid the drilling of unnecessary wells, or to protect correlative rights, an order establishing ((well spacing areas)) development units in a pool may be modified by the committee to increase the size of ((well spacing areas)) development units in the pool or any zone thereof, or to permit the drilling of additional wells on a reasonably uniform plan in the pool, or any zone thereof.

Sec. 12. Section 26, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.240 are each amended to read as follows:

POOLING. When two or more separately owned tracts are embraced within a ((well spacing area)) development unit, or when there are separately owned interests in all or a part of the ((well spacing area)) development unit, then the owners and lessees thereof may ((combine)) pool their interests for the development and operation of the ((well spacing area)) development unit. In the absence of this voluntary ((combining)) pooling, the committee, upon the application of any interested person, shall enter an order ((combining)) pooling all interests, including royalty interests, overriding royalty interests, and production payments, in the ((well spacing area)) development unit for the development and operation thereof. Each such ((combining)) pooling order shall be made after notice and hearing. ((and)). The applicant(s) shall have the burden of proving that all reasonable efforts have been made to obtain the consent of others owners. The order shall be upon terms and conditions that are just and reasonable((and)) and that are fair to the owners of each tract or interest in the well spacing area. In the absence of this voluntary ((combining)) pooling, the order shall make provision for the drilling and operation of a well on the ((well spacing area)) development unit covered by a ((combining)) pooling order shall be deemed, for all purposes, the conduct of such operations upon each separately owned tract in the ((well spacing area)) development unit by the several owners thereof. That portion of the production allocated to each tract included in a ((well spacing area)) development unit covered by a ((combining)) pooling order shall, when produced, be deemed for all purposes, including the payment of royalty, overriding royalty, or production payments, to have been produced from such tract by a well drilled thereon.

Sec. 13. Section 27, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.250 are each amended to read as follows:

POOLED INTEREST IN DEVELOPMENT UNITS—ALLOCATION OF COSTS. (1) Each such ((combining)) pooling order shall make provision for the drilling and operation of a well on the ((well spacing area)) development unit, and for the payment of the reasonable actual cost thereof by the owners of interests in the ((well spacing area)) development unit, plus a reasonable charge for supervision and storage facilities. In the event of any dispute as to such costs the committee shall determine the proper costs. ((If one or more of the owners shall drill and operate, or pay the expenses of drilling and operating the well for the benefit of others, then, the owner or owners so drilling or operating shall have a lien on the share of production from the well spacing area accruing to the interest of each of the other owners for the payment of his proportionate share of such expenses. Such lien shall be only against the said share of production, and not against any interest, estate, equity or title of any of the said other owners. All the oil and gas subject to the lien shall be marketed and sold and the proceeds applied in payment of the expenses secured by such lien.))

(2) As to each owner who fails or refuses to agree to bear his proportionate share of the costs of the drilling and operation of the well, the order shall provide for reimbursement of the person or persons paying for the drilling and operation of the well of the nonconsenting owner's share of the costs out of, and only out of, production from the well representing his interest, excluding royalty or other interests not obligated to pay any part of the cost thereof. The committee may provide that the consenting owners shall own and be entitled to receive all production from the well, after payment of royalty as provided in the lease, if any, applicable to each tract or interest, and obligations payable out of production, until the consenting owners have been paid the amount due under the terms of the pooling order or order settling any dispute. The order shall determine the interest of each owner in the unit and shall provide that each consenting owner shall be entitled to receive, subject to royalty or similar obligations, the share of the production of the well applicable to his interest in the unit, and, unless he has agreed otherwise, his proportionate part of the nonconsenting owner's share of the production until costs are recovered as provided in this subsection; and that each nonconsenting owner shall be entitled to receive, subject to royalty or similar obligations, the share of production from the well applicable to his interest in the unit after the consenting owners have recovered from the nonconsenting owner's share of production the following:

(a) In respect to every such well one hundred percent of the nonconsenting owner's share of the cost of surface equipment beyond the wellhead connections (including, but not limited to, stock tanks, separators, treaters, pumping equipment, and piping), plus one hundred percent of the nonconsenting owner's share of the cost of operation of the well, commencing with first production and continuing until the consenting owners have recovered these costs, it being intended that the nonconsenting owner's share of these costs and equipment will be that interest which would have been chargeable to the nonconsenting owner had he initially agreed to pay his share of the costs of the well from the beginning of the operation; and

(b) As to a well which is within a proven field as determined by the committee one hundred and fifty percent, and as to a well which is drilled to a different pool or in an area not proven for production two hundred percent, of that portion of the costs and expenses of staking the location, wellsite preparation, rights of way, rigging-up, drilling, reworking, deepening or plugging back, testing, and completing, after deducting any cash contributions received by the consenting owners, and also either one hundred and fifty percent or two hundred percent, whichever is appropriate under this subsection, of that portion of the cost of equipment in the well, up to and including the wellhead connections.

(3) The operator of a well under a pooling order in which there are nonconsenting owners shall furnish the nonconsenting owners with monthly statements of all costs incurred, together with the quantity of oil or gas produced, and the amount of proceeds realized from the sale of this production during the preceding month. If and when the consenting owners recover from a nonconsenting owner's relinquished interest the amounts provided for in subsection (2) of this section, the relinquished interest of the nonconsenting owner shall automatically revert to him; and the nonconsenting owner shall own the same interest in the well and the production from it and be liable for the further costs of the operation as if he had participated in the initial drilling and operation. A nonconsenting owner of a tract in a drilling unit which is not subject to any lease or other contract for the development thereof for oil and gas shall be deemed to have a basic landowners' royalty of one-eighth, or twelve and one-half percent, of the production allocated to the tract, unless a higher royalty has been established in the pool, then the nonconsenting owner of a nonleased tract shall receive the highest royalty. This is a presumed royalty which shall exist during the time that costs and expenses are being recovered pursuant to subsection (2) of this section only. The intent of this section is to assure that the owner of a nonleased tract receive a royalty free of all costs at all times. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, such owners shall at all times retain his entire ownership of his property, including his right to execute an oil and gas lease on any terms he desires to negotiate, and be entitled to all production subject to subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

UNITIZATION OF OIL AND GAS FIELDS. (1) The committee may upon the application of any interested party, or upon its own motion, hold a hearing to consider the need for the operation as a unit of one or more pools or parts of them in a field.

(2) The committee shall make an order providing for the unit operation of a pool or part of it, if the committee finds that:

(a) This operation will increase the ultimate recovery of oil and/or gas, or will prevent waste, or will protect correlative rights, or will prevent the drilling of unnecessary wells; and

(b) The value of the estimated additional recovery of oil and/or gas exceeds the estimated additional cost incident to conducting these operations.

(3) The order shall be upon terms and conditions that are fair and reasonable and shall prescribe a plan for unit operations that shall include:

(a) A description of the pool or pools or parts thereof to be so operated, termed the unitized area;

(b) A statement of the nature of the operations contemplated;

(c) An allocation of production and costs to the separately owned tracts in the unitized area. The allocation shall be in accord with the agreement, if any, of the interested parties. If there is no such agreement, production shall be allocated in a manner calculated to ensure that each separately owned tract or combination of tracts receives its just and equitable share of production. Costs shall be allocated on a fair and reasonable basis;

(d) A provision, if necessary, permitting any owner who was involuntarily unitized to pay his share of costs out of his share of production, plus a risk and interest penalty not to exceed fifty percent of that owner's share of the costs;

(e) A provision for the supervision and conduct of the unit operations, in respect to which each owner shall have a vote with a value corresponding to the percentage of the costs of unit operations chargeable against its interest;

(f) The time when the unit operations shall commence and the manner in which and the circumstances under which the unit operations shall terminate; and

(g) Such additional provisions are found to be appropriate for carrying out the unit operations and for the protection of correlative rights.
(4) No order of the committee providing for unit operations may become effective until the plan for unit operations approved by the committee has been approved in writing by those persons who, under the committee's order, will be required to pay at least seventy-five percent of the costs of unit operations, and also by those persons who own at least sixty-five percent of the production or proceeds thereof that will be credited to interests which are free of costs, such as royalties, overriding royalties, and production payments, and the committee has made a finding, either in the order providing for unit operations or in a supplemental order, that the plan for unit operations has been so approved. If the plan for unit operations has not been so approved at the time the order providing for unit operations is made, the committee shall make supplemental hearings to determine if and when the plan for unit operations has been so approved. If the persons owning required percentages of interest in the unitized area do not approve the plan for unit operations within a period of six months from the date on which the order providing for unit operations is made, or within such additional period or periods of time as the committee prescribes, the order will become unenforceable and shall be vacated by the committee.

(5) An order providing for unit operations may be amended by an order made by the committee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an original order providing for unit operations, but (a) if such an amendment affects only the rights and interests of the owners, the approval of the amendment by those persons who own interests that are free of costs is not required, and (b) no such amending order may change the percentage for the allocation of oil and gas as established for any separately owned tract or combination of tracts by the original order, except with the consent of all persons owning oil and gas rights in the tract, or may change the percentage for the allocation of cost as established for any separately owned tract or combination of tracts by the original order, except with the consent of all persons owning an interest in the tract or combination of tracts.

(6) The committee, by order, may provide for the unit operation of a reservoir or reservoirs or parts thereof that include a unitized area established by a previous order of the committee. The order, in providing for the allocation of unit production, shall first treat the unitized area previously established as a single tract and the portion of the new unit production allocated thereto shall then be allocated among the separately owned tracts included in the previously established unit area in the same proportions as those specified in the previous order.

(7) After the date designated by the committee the unit plan shall be effective, oil and gas leases within the unit area, or other contracts pertaining to the development thereof, shall be changed to meet the provisions and requirements of the unit plan, but otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. Operations carried on under and in accordance with the unit plan shall be regarded and considered as fulfillment of and compliance with all of the provisions, covenants, and conditions, expressed or implied, of the several oil and gas leases upon or pertaining to the unit area, or other contracts pertaining to the development thereof, insofar as the leases, or other contracts, may relate to the pool or field subject to the unit plan. The amount of production apportioned and allocated, pursuant to the unit plan, to each separately owned tract within the unit area, and only that amount, regardless of the location of the well within the unit area from which it may be produced, and regardless of whether it be more or less than the amount of production from the well, if any, on each separately owned tract, shall for all intents, uses, and purposes be regarded as production from the separately owned tract, and lessees shall not be obligated to pay royalties or make other payments, required by the oil and gas leases or other contracts affecting each such separately owned tract, on production in excess of that amount apportioned and allocated to the separately owned tract pursuant to the unit plan.

(8) The portion of the unit production allocated to any tract, and the proceeds from its sale, shall be the property and income of the several persons to whom, or to whose credit, the same are allocated or payable under the order providing for unit operations.

(9) No division order or other contract relating to the sale, purchase, or production from a separately owned tract or combination of tracts may be terminated by the order providing for unit operations but shall remain in force and shall apply to oil and gas allocated to the tract until terminated by amended division order or contract in accordance with the provisions of the order.

(10) Except to the extent that parties affected so agree, no order providing for unit operations may be construed to result in a transfer of all or any part of the title of any person to the oil and gas rights in any tract in the unit area. All property, whether real or personal, that may be acquired in the conduct of unit operations hereunder shall be acquired for the account of the owners within the unit area, and shall be the property of such owners in the proportion that the expenses of unit operations are charged.

(11) After the date designated by the order of the committee that a unit plan shall become effective, the operation of any well in the unit area defined in the order by persons other than the unit operator or under the unit operator's authority, or except in the manner and to the extent provided in such unit plan, shall be unlawful and is hereby prohibited.

(12) A certified copy of any order of the committee entered under this section is entitled to be recorded in the auditor's office in the county or counties wherein all or any portion of the unit area is located and, if recorded, shall constitute notice thereof to all persons.

RATABLE TAKES REQUIRED—OIL. Each person now or hereafter purchasing or taking for transportation oil from any owner or producer shall purchase or take ratably without discrimination in favor of any owner or operator over any other owner or producer in the same pool offering to sell his oil produced therefrom to such person. If any such person purchasing or taking for transportation oil does not have need for all such oil lawfully produced within a pool, or if for any reason it is unable to purchase all of such oil, then it shall purchase from each operator in a pool ratably, taking and purchasing the same quantity of oil from each well to the extent that each well is capable of producing its ratable portion without waste, but nothing in this section may be construed to require more than one pipeline connection for each producing well. If any such purchaser or person taking oil for transportation is likewise an operator or owner, he is hereby prohibited from discriminating in favor of his own production, or production in which he may be interested, and his own production shall be treated as that of any other operator or owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

RATABLE TAKES REQUIRED—GAS. Each person now or hereafter purchasing or taking for transportation gas produced from gas wells or from oil wells from any owner or operator shall purchase or take ratably without discrimination in favor of any owner or operator, over any other owner or operator in a pool. Such person shall not discriminate in the quantities purchased, the basis of measurement, or the gas transportation facilities afforded for gas of like quantity, quality, and pressure available from such wells. For the purpose of this section and section 15 of this act, reasonable differences in quantity taken or facilities afforded shall not constitute unreasonable discrimination if the differences bear a fair relationship to differences in quality, quantity, or pressure of the gas available or the acreage attributable to the well, market requirements, or to the relative lengths of time during which such gas will be available to the purchaser. If any such purchaser or person taking gas for transportation is likewise an operator or owner, he is hereby prohibited from discriminating in favor of his own production or production in which he may be interested, and his own production shall be treated as that of any other operator or owner producing from gas wells in the same pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The committee may administer and enforce the provisions of sections 15 and 16 of this act in the same manner and in accordance with the same procedures provided for in this chapter for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations and orders of the committee.

Sec. 18. Section 50, chapter 148, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.470 are each amended to read as follows:

OBJECTIONS TO RULE, REGULATION, ORDER—HEARING REQUIRED—MODIFICATION. Any person adversely affected by any ((rule, regulation or)) order of the committee may, within thirty days from the effective date of such ((rule, regulation or)) order, apply for a hearing with respect to any matter determined therein((of the application shall be granted or denied by the committee within fifteen days from the date the same shall be filed, and if the hearing is not granted within fifteen days it shall be taken as denied. If a hearing is granted, the matter shall be set for hearing by the committee within thirty days after the same is submitted)). No cause for action arising out of any ((rule, regulation or)) order of the committee shall accrue in any court to any ((party)) person unless such ((party)) person makes application for a hearing as herein provided. Such application shall set forth specifically the ground on which the applicant considers such ((rule, regulation or)) order to be unlawful or unreasonable. No party shall, in any court, urge or rely upon any ground not set forth in said application. ((A rule made in conformity to a decision resulting from a hearing which abrogates((of))), changes or modifies the original ((rule, regulation or)) order, shall have the same force and effect as an original. Such hearing shall constitute a 'contested case' under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be conducted in accordance with such provisions.

Sec. 19. Section 51, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.480 are each amended to read as follows:

APPEAL FROM ORDER—RIGHTS OF COMMITTEE. In proceedings for review of ((a--rule, regulation or)) an order or decision of the committee, the committee shall be a party to the proceedings and shall have all rights and privileges granted by this chapter to any other party to such proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any operation or activity that is in violation of any applicable laws, rules and regulations, orders, or permit conditions shall be subject to suspension by order of the committee. The order may suspend the operations authorized in the permit in whole or in part. The order may only be issued after the committee has first notified the operator or owner of the violations and the operator or owner has failed to comply with the directions contained in the notification within ten days of service of the notice: PROVIDED, That the committee may issue the suspension order immediately without notice if the violations are or may cause substantial harm to adjacent property, persons, or public resources or has or may result in the pollution of waters in violation of any state or federal law, rule, or regulation. Any suspension shall remain in effect until the violations are corrected or other directives are complied with unless declared invalid by the committee after hearing or an appeal. The suspension order and notification, where applicable, shall specify the violations and the actions required to be undertaken to be in compliance with such laws, rules and regulations, orders, or permit conditions. The order and notification may also require remedial actions to be undertaken to restore, prevent, or correct activities or conditions which have resulted from the violations. The order and notification may be directed at the operator or owner or both.

(2) The suspension order shall constitute a final and binding order unless the owner or operator to whom the order is directed requests a hearing before the committee within fifteen days after service of the order. Such a request shall not in itself stay or suspend the order and the operator and owner shall comply with the order immediately upon service. The committee or its chairman shall have the authority to stay or sustain in whole or in part the suspension order pending a hearing if so requested. The hearing shall constitute a contested case hearing under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

ILLEGAL OIL, GAS, AND PRODUCT. (1) The sale, purchase, acquisition, transportation, refining, processing, or handling of illegal oil, gas, or product is prohibited. However, no penalty by way of fine may be imposed upon a person who sells, purchases, acquires, transports, refines, processes, or handles illegal oil, gas, or product unless (a) the person knows, or is put on notice of, facts indicating that illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product is involved, or (b) the person fails to obtain a certificate of clearance with respect to the oil, gas, or product if prescribed by rule or order of the committee, or fails to follow any other method prescribed by an order of the committee for the identification of the oil, gas, or product.

(2) Illegal oil, illegal gas, and illegal product are declared to be contraband and are subject to seizure and sale as provided in this section. Seizure and sale shall be in addition to all other remedies and penalties provided in this chapter for violations relating to illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product. Whenever the committee believes that any oil, gas, or product is illegal, the committee acting through the attorney general, shall bring a civil action in rem in the superior court of the county where the oil, gas, or product is found, to seize and sell the same, or the committee may include such an action in rem in any suit brought for an injunction or penalty involving illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product. Any person claiming an interest in oil, gas, or product affected by any such action in rem shall have the right to intervene as an interested party.

(3) Actions for the seizure and sale of illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product shall be strictly in rem and shall proceed in the name of the state as plaintiff against the oil, gas, or product as defendant. No bond or similar undertaking may be required of the plaintiff. Upon the filing of the petition for seizure and sale, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons, with a copy of the petition attached thereto, directed to the sheriff of the county or to such other officer or person that the court may designate, for service upon all persons having or claiming any interest in the oil, gas, or product described in the petition, which summons shall command these persons to appear and answer within twenty days after the issuance and service of the summons. These persons need not be named or otherwise identified in the summons, and the summons shall be served by posting a copy of the summons, with a copy of the petition attached, on any public bulletin board or at the courthouse of a county where the oil, gas, or product involved is located, and by posting another copy at or near the place where the oil, gas, or product is located. The posting shall constitute notice of the action to all persons having or claiming any interest in the oil, gas, or product described in the petition. In addition, if the court, on a properly verified petition, or affidavits or oral testimony, finds that grounds for seizure and for sale exist, the court shall issue an immediate order of seizure, describing the oil, gas, or product to be seized, and directing the sheriff of the county to take the oil, gas, or product into his actual or constructive custody and to hold the same subject to further orders of the court. The court, in the order of seizure, may direct the sheriff to deliver the oil, gas, or product seized by him under the order to a court-appointed agent. The agent shall give bond in an amount and with such surety as the court may direct, conditioned upon his compliance with the orders of the court concerning the custody and disposition of the oil, gas, or product.

(4) Any person having an interest in oil, gas, or product described in order of seizure and contesting the right of the state to seize and sell the oil, gas, or product may obtain its release prior to sale upon furnishing to the sheriff a bond approved by the court. The bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent of the market value of the oil, gas, or product to be released and shall be conditioned upon either redemption to the sheriff of the released commodity or payment to the sheriff of its market value, if and when ordered by the court, and upon full compliance with all other further orders of the court.

(5) If the court, after a hearing upon a petition for the seizure and sale of oil, gas, or product, finds that the oil, gas, or product is contraband, the court shall order its sale by the sheriff in the same manner and upon the same notice of sale as provided by law for the sale of personal property on execution of judgment entered in a civil action, except that the court may order that the oil, gas, or product be sold in specified lots or portions and at specified intervals. Upon sale, title to the oil, gas, or product sold shall vest in the purchaser free of all claims, and it shall be legal oil, legal gas, or legal product in the hands of the purchaser.

(6) All proceeds, less costs of suit and expenses of sale, which are derived from the sale of illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product, and all amounts paid as penalties provided for by this chapter, shall be paid into the state treasury for the use of the committee in defraying its expenses in the same manner as other funds provided by law for the use of the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the oil and gas severance and conservation act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. LEGISLATIVE DECLARATION AND PURPOSE. (1) This chapter establishes an excise tax on the severance of oil and gas within this state, a conservation excise tax on the severance of oil and gas within this state to provide funds for the administration of the oil and gas conservation laws, and procedures for the efficient administration and collection of both taxes.

(2) The legislature recognizes that when nonrenewable natural resources such as oil and gas are removed from the earth or waters within the state of Washington, the development and production of these resources contribute to the economy of the state, but nonetheless create expenses of diverse nature to the state and local governments. The legislature therefore seeks to compensate for these additional costs of government through the adoption of this chapter which provides a severance tax on the privilege of removing nonrenewable resources at appropriate rates of taxation.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 22 through 33 of this act:

1. 'Department' means the department of revenue;
2. 'Oil' means crude oil, condensate, distillate or other oil, or other liquid hydrocarbon extracted from the earth or waters in this state, regardless of gravity;
3. 'Gas' means natural gas and casinghead gas, or other gaseous hydrocarbon taken from the earth or waters in this state, regardless of whether produced from a gas well or from a well also producing oil or other liquid hydrocarbons;
4. 'Value' means the market value at the time and point of production, as established by the actual price received for products, or as otherwise provided in this chapter;
5. 'Interest owner' means a person owning an entire or fractional interest of whatever kind or nature in the products at the time of severance, or who has a right to a monetary payment which is determined by the value of such products which individually or in any combination represent one hundred percent of the interests in oil and gas produced;
6. 'Purchaser' means a person who is the first purchaser of a product from the producer at or after severance;
7. 'Product' or 'products' means oil or gas, individually or any combination thereof;
8. 'Severance' means the taking from the earth or waters in this state of any product in any manner;
9. 'Person' means any individual, receiver, administrator, executor, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, copartnership, corporation, joint venture club, company, joint stock company, business trust, municipal corporation or other public entity, or any other group or combination acting as a unit;
10. 'Production' means those acts taken to sever, contain, save, and measure any product and shall include any acts otherwise necessary to bring it to merchantable condition or pipeline quality in any manner, except that production shall not include those acts which constitute the operation of a gas distribution business.
11. 'Producer' means any person who produces or extracts in any manner any oil or gas by taking it from the earth or waters of this state, whether produced or extracted by that person or some other person on his behalf, by lease, contract, or otherwise.
12. 'Point of production' means:
   a. For oil, the point where it is first metered or measured (by automatic custody transfer meter, tank gauge, or other approved method) in a condition of pipeline quality on the premises of the lease or property from which it is recovered; however, if the oil is not of pipeline quality when it is removed from the premises of the lease or property from which it is recovered or if the oil recovered from a lease or property is not metered or measured (by automatic custody transfer meter, tank gauge, or other approved method) on the premises of the lease or property from which it is recovered, then the point of production is the off premises location where the oil is first metered or measured (by automatic custody transfer meter, tank gauge, or other approved method) in a condition of pipeline quality;
   b. For gas recovered from or in association with oil, the value of the gas at the point where it is first accurately metered or measured after separation from the oil;
   c. For gas not recovered from or in association with oil, the point where it is first accurately metered or measured on or near the premises of the lease or property from which the gas is recovered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. IMPOSITION OF SEVERANCE TAX. (1) There is imposed, and the department of revenue shall collect, in addition to any other tax, an excise tax upon the severance of oil and gas from all lands or waters in this state, including all publicly owned lands or waters, and Indian, Indian tribe, and Indian lands or waters to the extent authorized or permitted by law; less the value of any part thereof, the ownership or right to which is exempt from taxation under section 28 of this act.
(2) The rate of the tax imposed is seven percent of the value of the oil and gas at the time and point of production.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. IMPOSITION OF CONSERVATION TAX. (1) There is imposed, and the department of revenue shall collect, in addition to any other tax, a conservation tax upon the severance of oil and gas from all lands or waters in this state, including all publicly owned lands or waters, and Indian, Indian tribe, and Indian lands or waters to the extent authorized or permitted by law; less the value of any part thereof, the ownership or right to which is exempt from taxation under section 28 of this act. The revenues derived from this tax shall be used for the administration of the oil and gas conservation laws of this state.
(2) The tax imposed under this section shall be one-fourth of one percent of the value of the oil and gas at the time and point of production.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. IMPOSITION, PAYMENT, AND COLLECTION OF TAX. (1) The taxes imposed by this chapter on the severance of oil and gas shall be the primary liability of the producer. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section such taxes shall be paid by the producer or the purchaser. purchasing such oil or gas from the producer. The producer or purchaser shall deduct and withhold the ratable share of such tax from payments made to other interest owners in proportion to such interest, or by the purchaser to the producer, and remit the same to the department: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the failure of the purchaser to pay such tax shall not relieve the producer from the payment of the same if the purchaser does not account for and pay the tax to the department. The department shall have a first and paramount lien on all oil and gas produced in this state in the possession of the producer or the purchaser to secure the payment of the taxes imposed by this chapter including any interest and penalties thereon. It shall be the duty of every person producing oil and gas in the state to determine that the tax has been or will be paid by the persons liable therefor. If the purchaser has failed to pay to the department the tax imposed by this chapter, the department may proceed directly against the purchaser’s bond or other asset for collection of the tax. In the event the bond and other assets fail to satisfy the tax obligation, the department may proceed directly against the producers in proportion to the ratable interest for collection of the balance of the tax due; and all other provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW including those relative to interest and penalties shall apply.

(2) If oil or gas on which the severance and conservation taxes are due is not sold at the time of production but is retained by the producer, the producer shall pay to the department the taxes due with respect to such oil or gas not sold, and shall deduct or withhold the ratable share of the tax from payments made to other interest owners in proportion to such interest.

(3) If oil or gas is sold, retained, or used under circumstances in which the sale price or the value reported to the department does not represent the market value then prevailing for oil or gas of like kind, character, quality, or comparable source from which the product is produced, the department may require the taxes to be paid upon the basis of the prevailing price then being paid at the time and point of production of other oil or gas of the same kind, character, quality, and comparable source.

(4) The taxes imposed by this chapter shall be borne ratably by all interest owners, including royalty interests, and producers and purchasers are authorized to withhold from any payment due any interest owners the proportionate tax due: PROVIDED, That such withholding may not be required by producers and purchasers with respect to contracts or other agreements entered into prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. EXEMPTIONS. The following interests are exempt from the taxes imposed under this chapter:

(1) The interest of this state and any political subdivisions of this state in any oil or gas or in the proceeds thereof;
(2) The interest of the United States in any oil or gas or in the proceeds thereof;
(3) Any interest in oil or gas used in producing or drilling operations for repressuring or recycling purposes; and
(4) Any interest in oil or gas reinjected for storage, provided that any subsequent removal thereof from storage for sale, use, or other retention shall constitute a severance within the meaning of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. APPLICABILITY OF GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENTAL RULES, BOND. (1) All of chapter 82.32 RCW, except RCW 82.32.040 and except as otherwise provided in sections 30 and 33 of this act, applies to the tax imposed by this chapter, in addition to any other provisions of law for the payment and enforcement of the tax imposed by this chapter. The department of revenue shall by rule provide for the effective administration of this chapter by rules which shall include, but not be limited to, the determination of the time and point of production and a determination of methods of metering and measuring the production of oil and gas reasonably required for such administration.

(2) The department may require a sufficient bond from every person required to make or file a return or report or to pay tax under this chapter. The bond shall run to the state and shall be conditioned upon the making and filing of reports or returns as required by law, upon compliance with the rules of the department, and for the prompt payment, by the principal on the bond, of all taxes due the state under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. FILING OF STATEMENTS. (1) Payment of the taxes imposed by this chapter shall be due forty-five days after the end of the month in which the oil and gas is severed along with reports and forms for submission under oath as the department shall prescribe, providing:

(a) A full description of the property by lease name, control number, subdivision of quarter section, section, township, and range, or other legal description by metes and bounds, from which the oil or gas was produced;
(b) The name of the producer;
(c) The gross amount of oil or gas purchased;
(d) The total value of the oil or gas at the price paid for it, if purchased at the time of production; and
(e) The prevailing market price of oil or gas sold at the time of production.

(2) A purchaser may furnish a verified copy of the regular settlement sheet in use by the purchaser instead of the statement required by subsection (1) of this section if the settlement sheet contains the information required therein.

(3) Every person who has produced oil or gas shall file with the department a sworn statement on forms prescribed by the department, giving the following:

(a) A full description of the property by lease name, control number, subdivision of quarter section, section, township, and range, or other legal description by metes and bounds, from which the oil or gas was produced;
(b) The gross amount of oil or gas produced and saved;
(c) The name of the producer and the price received for the oil or gas;
(d) The name of each purchaser of oil or gas from the producer during the quarter; and
(e) Any other information the department requires, including but not limited to leases and contracts entered into by producers, purchasers, and other interest owners.

(4) Taxes derived from all taxable leases may be reported on one report or return by each taxpayer.
This single report or return shall contain separate schedules for oil and for gas. Such report shall contain the necessary information for each separate lease and well.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. COLLECTION AND DEPOSIT OF REVENUE FROM THE SEVERANCE TAX—SHARING OF REVENUE FROM THE SEVERANCE TAX WITH LOCAL GOVERNMEN TS. (1) The department of revenue shall deposit ninety percent of the money collected by it under section 25 of this act in the general fund.

(2) The local government severance taxation account is hereby established in the general fund into which ten percent of the severance taxes collected under section 25 of this act shall be deposited. Moneys in this account shall be used solely for making distributions to those local governments in which oil and gas production activity occurs, after appropriation by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. DISPOSITION OF CONSERVATION TAX. (1) There is hereby created in the general fund the oil and gas conservation revolving account into which the money collected under section 26 of this act shall be deposited.

(2) Money in the account shall be used exclusively for the administration of the oil and gas conservation laws of the state. The oil and gas conservation committee or its successor may use moneys in the fund for such purposes as appropriated by the legislature. At the end of each biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer any balance in the oil and gas conservation revolving account to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. LIEN FOR TAX. In addition to the lien given in section 27 of this act, a tax imposed by this chapter (including any penalties and interest thereon) is a first and paramount lien against the purchaser’s and producer’s real and personal property. The provisions of this chapter making the purchaser liable to pay the tax do not release the producer from liability to pay the tax, if the tax is not paid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The following property is exempt from taxation:

Interests in oil or gas reserves and leases on the rights to develop and operate upon or within any lands and waters of this state for oil and gas and the property rights attached to or inherent therein: PROVIDED,
That this section does not in any way exempt machinery, appliances, pipelines, tanks, vehicles, and other equipment used in the development or operation of said leases or rights, or used in the transportation of oil or gas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 22 through 33 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82
RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

Mr. Nelson (G): "I merely indicated, Representative Thompson, that there is a Rules Committee meeting at 1:00 p.m. Each measure looked at there is studied as to its merits; we take into consideration what is on the calendar, what bills need to be passed in order to improve the economy of this state, and there's no way that anyone in any position can guarantee that a bill is going to make it out of the Rules Committee."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Bond: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. It seems to me this is a simple name-change bill, and I think it should be construed narrowly in that regard."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Bond, the Speaker has examined the title of Engrossed Senate bill No. 3898 and finds that it is an act relating to state government. The amendment by Representative Ellis and others seeks to amend various sections of the bill in accordance with the sections that are in the bill. The bill, however, is a single object bill, and the object seems to be simply changing the name of the Utilities and Transportation Commission to the Washington Public Service Commission. It would appear to the Speaker that a substantive amendment to a technical correction bill is well beyond the object of the bill. I would go on to say further that if we would start making substantive amendments to technical correction bills, it would preclude in the future the making of technical bills, of any legislature being willing to take up that kind of technical correction bill for fear of it becoming more than originally intended."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Nelson (D): "Mr. Speaker, on the basis of the ruling on the first amendment, I would ask you to rule this beyond the scope and object also."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, on the basis of the previous ruling, your point of order is well taken. The amendment is out of order.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3898 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4728, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Senators Sellar and Wojahn):

Authorizing the issuance of short-term obligations by municipal corporations.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Local Government recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 47th Day, February 26, 1982.)

On motion of Mr. Isaacson, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Patrick moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick and Garrett:

On page 7, line 11 after the period insert "This section shall not apply to bonds having a total value exceeding fifteen million dollars."

Representatives Patrick, Isaacson and Garrett spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Hine spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4728 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Eng.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4728 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4425, by Senators Wojahn, Haley, Gaspar and Bottiger:

Revising the requirement for certain port district elections on the issue of increasing the number of commissioners to five.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. O'Brien moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives O'Brien, Sommers, Nelson (G), Isaacson and Nelson (D):

On page I, after line 23 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The commissions in port districts with a population of five hundred thousand or more shall join together in a study for the express purpose to promote and encourage a stable, more efficient and more economical system of port operations, and shall report the results of the study to the 1983 regular session of the legislature."

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On line 2 of the amendment after "more" strike "shall" and insert "may"

Representatives Tilly and Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Ms. Hine.

Ms. Hine: "Representative Isaacson, this is only for ports which have populations of over 500,000. Do the ports you refer to come in this category?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Thank you, Representative Hine, that's one of the problems. We do not have that population basis to argue in their behalf. I'm afraid, by a political maneuver here, business can be taken away from those ports, and they would be left literally high and dry."

Representatives Hine and O'Brien spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Tilly spoke again in favor of it.

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative O'Brien and others as amended.

Representatives O'Brien and Nelson (D) spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Salatino, Martinis and Kaiser spoke against it.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following verbal amendment to the amendment:

On line 1 of the amendment after "in" and before "port" insert "Puget Sound" and after "districts" strike "with a population of five hundred thousand or more"

Representatives Sommers and Martinis spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Ehlers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Nisbet.

Mr. Nisbet: "Representative Sommers, in your use of the words 'Puget Sound' in this amendment to the amendment, what do you consider to be part of Puget Sound? Which ports would that include?"
Ms. Sommers: "It was my intent, Representative Nisbet, that it would include any of the ports. It was my intent to include Clark County as well. I think we would be far better off to include all of the ports in Puget Sound and along the Western Washington shoreline. We're just saying to 'study it.' That's all we're saying, and I certainly meant to include the ports in your area."

Mr. Nisbet spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker again stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative O'Brien and others as amended.

Mr. O'Brien spoke again in favor of the amendment as amended, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, line 16 strike "thereafter, the same" and insert "((thenceforth, the same)), such a"

On page 1, line 17 after "commissioners" insert "of any port district"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "Mr. Speaker, in relation to Rule 14, there is a bill in committee right now, believe in Local Government Committee, that deals exactly with this particular subject matter."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Salatino, the rule states: 'No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by adding thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the house.' I would doubt seriously that there is a bill pending before the house that just says 'such a' or 'of any port district.' I would think your point of order is not well taken."

Mr. Salatino: "It's my understanding that Representative Lundquist has a bill in committee dealing with this subject."

The Speaker: "The subject is not the bill. House Rule 14 D says you cannot amend a bill; it has nothing to do with subject matter."

Representatives Lundquist, Struthers and Fiske spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Isaacson, Martinis and Hine spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Lundquist to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4425, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 55; not voting, 3.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4425, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, MARCH 8, 1982

Not voting: Representative Eng.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4425, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, is it your intention to reconvene the House at 1:30?"

The Speaker: "Yes."

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I have just been advised by the Chairman of Ways and Means that the so-called 'Gang of Eight' meets at 1:30. I really think that it is improper and unfair to expect those who represent the budget and revenue work, those members who are the members on the fiscal committee, to be expected to meet off the floor during the time that the House is in session and conducting important business. I ask you to allow us to meet at a time that does not conflict with normal floor business. We have a responsibility to be here; we have a responsibility to our constituents; we have a responsibility to the taxpayers, and I'm asking you again to allow us to meet when it is not in conflict with our responsibilities to be here on this floor."

The Speaker: "Representative Sommers, my understanding is that the bipartisan committee was established by the four caucuses, and it's up to that so-called 'Gang of Eight,' as you've called them, to find the time mutually agreeable to meet."

The Speaker declared the House to be recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the following amendment by Representatives Cantu and Wilson was adopted:

On page 1, line 26 after "financing." insert "In the event a list of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles is used for any purpose other than that authorized in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, the manufacturer, governmental agency, financial institution or their authorized agents or contractors responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or use will be denied further access to such information by the department of licensing."

Not voting: Representatives Eng, North, Warnke.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4544 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the best wishes of the Legislature be extended to the 25th NORAD Region and Air Division with the hope that they will be stationed in Washington for many peaceful years to come.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Representatives Dawson and Barnes spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 47 was adopted.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

All district elections shall be by ballot, and in case of election of officials, the ballots shall designate the term for which the person voted for is a candidate.

The counting of ballots shall in all cases be public. The ballots shall be taken out, one by one, by the inspector or one of the judges, who shall open them and read aloud the names of each person contained therein, and the office for which every such person is voted for, or the proposition and the vote thereon. Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Van Dyken, I see in sections 8 and 9 that copies of it be directed to the Director of the Department of Ecology. Could you explain the purpose of that?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Isaacson, my directions to the staff in drafting this were to bring the election laws for flood control districts into conformity with the existing election laws for other such districts. I presume the purpose of that language is to notify the Department of Ecology of the results of the election so the department knows who to contact with correspondence regarding the district."

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Van Dyken, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 8 of the title before the period insert ; amending section 63, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 4, chapter 26, Laws of 1965 and RCW 86.09.187; amending section 111, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.331; amending section 120, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.358; amending section 121, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.361; amending section 123, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.367; amending section 124, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.370; amending section 62, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.184".

On page 14, line 13 after "landlord." strike all material through line 27.

Mr. Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patrick yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Patrick, exactly what do you mean by saying it gives some powers to the tenant and not to the landlord? What kind of powers are we talking about here?"

Mr. Patrick: "Representative Erak, the landlords will have to retain certain property, and if the previous amendment flies, then that property will not have to be retained; the landlord can get rid of it in any manner he sees fit."

Representatives Isaacson, Padden and Barrett spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Patrick spoke again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Armstrong, your arguments for the measure, I understand with one exception and that is that recognizing that these materials are to be stored for sixty days requires a storage fee be established. In the landlord-tenant, act there is no provision for retaining advance deposits from the tenant and it must be returned within fourteen days. Does this law permit that extension of time?"

Mr. Armstrong: "No, this law does not provide for extending the fourteen days to sixty days, the amount of time the landlord has to return the money, but the law also does not require that the money be returned within fourteen days. The only requirement in the land­lord-tenant act is that the landlord notify the tenant within fourteen days how much money he or she is retaining for what purpose, so there is no need for such an amendment."

Mr. Isaacson spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Armstrong moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick and Armstrong to the committee amendment:
On page 14, line 16 after "memorabilia," insert "clothes."

Representatives Armstrong and Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against it.

Mr. Armstrong spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Scott.

Mr. Scott: "Representative Armstrong, I'm a little bit confused here. Why would the landlord go in and repossess these clothes out of somebody's apartment?"

Mr. Armstrong: "Just to clear it for the next tenant, but what the landlord could do is put the same items in the basement and wait sixty days and comply with the act and with the needs of the tenant."

Mr. Scott spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Ms. Houchen.

Ms. Houchen: "Representative Isaacson, I would like to give you an example of what could happen in my district. I have the Oak Harbor Naval Air Station, as you are aware, and if a fellow went out on a cruise on active duty for the Navy—I believe they go for about seven months at a time—and had a residence in an apartment in Oak Harbor, and perhaps while he was gone, his wife decided to leave him; what will he find when he gets home?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Houchen, that's a question that defines the extreme of a concern. Again, I think most landlords are honest, and I think in a case like that a landlord must make up his mind and must use good judgment. I think, if you will look at it in that light, he would save the material and store it. Unless he is notified that the place has been abandoned, he doesn't have authority to enter unless he posts a notice on the door, and having so posted a notice and not getting any response, and having it witnessed, then he must take action because he is not getting any return on that investment. In those instances, I think it would behoove him, of course, to store the material, because he would be subject to suit by the person who returned and found his material gone. There is recourse under existing law for him to recover and reclaim losses as a consequence of improper action."

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Patrick moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick and Armstrong to the committee amendment:

On page 14, line 27 after "mailing," insert "If the landlord violates the provisions of this section he shall be liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant."

Representatives Patrick, Padden and Becker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Sanders and Wang spoke against it.

The intent of this section is to establish a pilot program that will permit selected school districts to operate on a flexible school year basis. The objective of this pilot program will be to determine if cost savings, constant or improved achievement, and positive support from students, staff, parents, and the community will result from adopting a school year based on a four-day work week.

Notwithstanding the requirement of a school term of at least one hundred eighty days in RCW 28A.58.180, 28A.01.025, 28A.41.130, 28A.41.170, 28A.58.075, 28A.58.754 or 28A.59.180, or in any other provision of law, any school district chosen to participate in the flexible school year pilot program pursuant to this section shall be required to maintain a minimum school term of at least a total number of hours equal to the minimum program hour offering required for each grade level under RCW 28A.58.754. Funding shall not be reduced to any school district due to participation in this program.

Any school district may apply to the superintendent of public instruction for participation in the flexible school year project. At least one public hearing must be held prior to the application. Application must be submitted no later than May 1 of each year prior to the 1982-83 and 1983-84 school year on forms provided by the superintendent of public instruction and shall include an assurance by the school district that the following conditions will be met:

(1) The school year will be based on a four-day week;
(2) Participation will be for a minimum of one complete school year;
(3) participation for two school years, although not required, will be a goal of the district;
(4) Additional fiscal data as required by the superintendent of public instruction will be reported;
(5) A district survey of students, parents, staff, and the community will be conducted and reported as required by the superintendent of public instruction.

The superintendent of public instruction shall:
(a) Prepare and distribute project applications;
(b) Select up to ten school districts that apply for the project; every effort shall be made to select a cross section of districts based on enrollment, geographical size and location;
(c) Collect such fiscal information necessary to evaluate the cost impact of a flexible school year;
(d) Prepare, distribute to districts, and collect the results of a survey of students, district staff, parents, and the community at the end of each school year;
(e) Submit a project report to the education and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and senate by October 1, 1983 and October 1, 1984.

The program shall be effective for the 1982-83 and 1983-84 school years.

The superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education may adopt new or amended rules as necessary to carry out this pilot project."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

March 7, 1982
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4663, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Natural Resources, modifying the state timber sales program. Reported by Committee on Ways and Means.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) The legislature finds as follows:
(a) A competitive, financially healthy forest products industry is important to the economic well-being of the state and the trust beneficiaries of the state forest lands administered by the department of natural resources. The forest products industry provides employment, tax revenues, and a long-term, continuous source of income for the state educational system and other trust beneficiaries. A reduction in the number of timber companies would increase unemployment, decrease tax revenues, and reduce competition and the levels of short-term and long-term income for the trust beneficiaries.
(b) The forest products industry is currently suffering an economic downturn. Current economic conditions will hinder certain purchasers from meeting timber contract obligations to the state and may lead to business failures.
(c) The United States forest service and the state of Oregon have provided certain relief to some timber sales purchasers. Action by this state is necessary to maintain a competitive timber sales program and to insure a regular and timely harvest of timber from state lands.
(d) The interests of the state and the trust beneficiaries will be best served by modifying current state law as it applies to the state's timber sales program.
(e) The measures provided for in this act balance the needs of the trust beneficiaries for short-term revenue and cash flow with the long-term need for a competitive forest products industry which will provide a sustained income to the trusts in the future.
(2) The legislature further finds that the department of natural resources should have authority to take certain steps to:

(a) Help retain the values of existing sales of timber;
(b) Promote harvesting and the production of income to the state;
(c) Stimulate employment in the forest products industry; and
(d) Assist the forest products industry to assure future diversity and competitiveness.

(3) The legislature further finds that the board of natural resources, as the designated trust land manager, is the appropriate body to establish annual sales levels of timber from state trust lands, and that a significant volume of short-term sales offered over the course of the next two years will aid in efforts to generate sufficient trust income and help meet the goals outlined in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Sections 3 through 9 of this act shall be known as the forest products industry recovery act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 3 through 9 of this act.

(1) 'Commissioner' means the commissioner of public lands.
(2) 'Department' means the department of natural resources.
(3) 'Timber sale contract' means a contract for the purchase of state timber from the department which has a minimum appraisal value over twenty thousand dollars and has been purchased at public auction by voice or sealed bid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 79.01.132, the department, upon application by the purchaser of an existing state timber sale contract entered into between January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1980, is authorized to extend such contract without charge one day for every day the purchaser engages in or has agreed to engage in the removal of timber purchased by that purchaser under a timber sale contract: PROVIDED, That no more than sixty percent of the timber sales sold in calendar years 1982 and 1983 shall be designated by the department as sales on which a purchaser may earn extension time credits. Such extension shall be in accordance with and computed on the basis of rules adopted by the department, including specifying the minimum volume required to be removed on a daily basis to earn an extension time credit. The department's authority to grant the extensions under this section expires on December 31, 1983. The extension days earned as provided in this section may only be utilized to extend a state timber sale without charge up to and including December 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of natural resources is authorized for existing sales of timber purchased at auction between January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1980, to enter into agreements with a purchaser authorizing the credit for the removal of the extension fee to the purchase of timber if the extension fee is paid prior to the expiration date of the existing contract or an extension thereof. The credit shall be applied to the final payment for the removal, processing, or cutting of timber or other forest products conveyed. The department of natural resources may enter into agreements under this section upon application by a purchaser of a qualifying sale in accordance with rules adopted by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall only apply to defaults by purchasers of any state timber sale contract entered into between January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1980:

(a) if the default is after the effective date of this act; and
(b) if the department receives notification from the purchaser in writing prior to July 15, 1982; and
(c) limited to a total number of sales having a cumulative volume remaining under contract of not more than fifteen million board feet of timber. Such volume of each sale shall be determined by utilizing the original cruise estimates.

(2) Any purchaser defaulting on a contract under subsection (1) of this section shall not be refunded any cash moneys paid to the department or any other moneys expended as a result of the contract, including, but not limited to, cash deposits, extension fees, bond deposits, or interest charges. That purchaser shall also be charged a fee of twenty-five hundred dollars for the administrative costs of reselling the timber.

(3) The purchaser shall receive a credit from the department for the value of any road work completed. The value of the road work shall be the value of the percentage of road work completed based on the original appraisal for the entire road work on the sale as determined by the department of natural resources. Additional credits shall not be allowed on the defaulted contract and additional damages, fees, or penalties shall not be assessed by the department against the purchaser.

(4) The credit for road work completed shall be used, at the choice of the purchaser of state timber, as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of the price of stumpage being purchased, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of any cash security deposits required on a contract for the purchase of state timber, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of any extension fee due on a contract for the purchase of state timber.

(5) Defaults by a purchaser on sales not falling within the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be governed by the applicable provisions of state law, rules, and timber sale contracts in existence prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary for the administration of sections 2 through 9 of this act. However, the failure to adopt such rules shall not prevent the immediate implementation of sections 2 through 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The interest rate on extensions granted after the effective date of this act on existing state timber sale contracts purchased prior to December 31, 1980, shall not exceed thirteen percent per year.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 9 of this act do not apply to any sales of timber damaged by the eruption of Mount St. Helens.

Sec. 10. Section 33, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.01.132 are each amended to read as follows:

When any timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, or other valuable material on state lands is sold separate from the land, it may be sold as a lump sum sale or as a scale sale: PROVIDED, That upon the request of the purchaser, any lump sum sale over five thousand dollars appraised value shall be on the installment plan. Lump sum sales under five thousand dollars appraised value shall be paid for in cash. The initial deposits required in RCW 79.01.204, not to exceed twenty-five percent of the actual or projected purchase price, but in the case of lump sum sales over five thousand dollars not less than five thousand dollars, shall be made on the day of the sale. The purchaser shall notify the department of natural resources before any timber is cut and before removal or processing of any valuable materials on the sale area, at which time the department of natural resources may require, in the amount determined by the department, advance payment for the removal, processing, and/or cutting of timber or other valuable materials, or payment bonds or assignments of savings accounts acceptable to the department as adequate security. The amount of such advance payments and/or security shall at all times equal or exceed the value of timber cut and other valuable materials processed or removed until paid for. The initial deposit shall be maintained until all contract obligations of the purchaser are satisfied: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That all or a portion of said initial deposit may be applied as the final payment for said materials in the event the department of natural resources determines that adequate security exists for the performance or fulfillment of any remaining obligations of the purchaser under the sale contract.

In all cases where timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, or other valuable material is sold separate from the land, the same shall revert to the state if not removed from the land within the period specified in the sale contract. Said specified period shall not exceed five years from the date of the purchase thereof: PROVIDED, That the specified periods in the sale contract for stone, sand, fill material, or building stone shall not exceed twenty years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in all cases where, in the judgment of the department of natural resources, the purchaser is acting in good faith and endeavoring to remove such materials, the department of natural resources may extend the time for the removal thereof for any period not exceeding twenty years from the date of purchase for the stone, sand, fill material or building stone or for a total of ten years beyond the normal termination date specified in the original sale contract for all other material, upon payment to the state of a sum to be fixed by the department of natural resources, based on the estimated loss of income per acre to the state resulting from the granting of the extension but in no event less than fifty dollars per extension, plus interest on the unpaid portion of the contract. The interest rate shall be fixed, from time to time, by rule adopted by the board of natural resources and shall not be less than six percent per annum. The applicable rate of interest as fixed at the date of sale and the maximum extension payment shall be set forth in the contract. The method for calculating the unpaid portion of the contract upon which such interest shall be paid by the purchaser shall be set forth in the contract. The department of natural resources shall pay into the state treasury all sums received for such extension and the same shall be credited to the fund to which was credited the original purchase price of the material so sold: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any sale of timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, sand, fill material, or building stone of an appraised value of five hundred dollars or less may be sold directly to the applicant for cash at full appraised value without notice or advertising.

The provisions of this section apply unless otherwise provided by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 2 through 9 of this act shall expire December 31, 1984. Such expiration shall not, however, modify or terminate any rights created by this act prior to its expiration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 79.01 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 79.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When timber situated on state lands is sold separately from the land, the sale contract shall include provisions for adjustments in the sale price to reflect changes in the market index subsequent to the time of sale. The price to be paid by a purchaser for timber removed during a calendar quarter shall equal the sum of the contract bid price and the market index change amount for that quarter.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) 'Market index' means a composite index established by the department of natural resources. Each index shall consist of either the current market prices of various species and grades of logs harvested in this state, or the current market price of wood products made from logs harvested in this state. The department shall establish as many distinct indexes as it finds necessary to accurately reflect changes in market prices of various species and grades of logs or wood products made from logs.

(b) 'Market index change amount' means an amount calculated by:

(i) Subtracting the market index for the calendar quarter during which the timber was sold from the market index for the calendar quarter in which the timber was removed; and

(ii) Dividing the remainder calculated under (b)(i) of this subsection by two.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. Section 13 of this act shall take effect April 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. An advisory committee on timber contract price indexing is hereby created. The committee shall have eleven members. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint two representatives, one from each party, to be members of the committee. The president of the senate shall appoint two senators, one from each party, to be members of the committee. The commissioner of public lands shall appoint seven members of the committee representing the department of natural resources, the timber products industry, the beneficiaries of the trusts, and the public. The committee shall study section 13 of this act and make recommendations to the department of natural resources regarding the implementation of the section. The department of natural resources shall provide such assistance as may be required by the committee. The department shall report its proposed rules for timber contract price indexing to the legislature prior to January 15, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 143, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Local Government, providing the means for the payment of indebtedness on public improvements. Reported by Committee on Revenue.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike the entire resolution and insert the following:

"BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the state Constitution by adding a new section to read as follows:

Article VII, section . . . . . . Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, the legislature may by general law authorize the legislative authority of any county, city, or town to create boundaries in urban areas, within its jurisdiction, containing only that real property which is determined will be increased in true and fair value by reason of specified public improvements to redevelop deteriorated areas within those boundaries, and may provide that all or a portion of the ad valorem taxes levied within those boundaries against increases in the true and fair value of such real property may be used to pay for the specified public improvements or to pay public obligations incurred to fund the specified public improvements. Public obligations incurred for these public improvements and payable solely from revenues from these public improvements and such ad valorem taxes levied against the increases in real property value shall not constitute general indebtedness.

For the purposes of this section, 'ad valorem taxes' means:

1. Ad valorem taxes subject to the aggregate limitation on tax levies by the state and all taxing districts in section 2 of this Article; and
2. Ad valorem taxes levied by port districts and public utility districts, except for ad valorem taxes levied specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

Nothing in this section authorizes the provision of public improvements which counties, cities, and towns may not otherwise provide.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to exercise powers of eminent domain contrary to the provisions of Article I, section 16.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to pledge all or part of its full faith and credit or any other tax revenues without complying with the laws relating to the incurring of general indebtedness, including Article VIII, section 1 and Article VIII, section 6, or to aggregate tax levies in excess of the limitation on levies in section 2 of this Article: PROVIDED, That no bonds that constitute general indebtedness and which use the funding mechanism contained in this section shall be issued to fund all or a portion of such specified public improvements without the assent of a majority of the voters of the county, city, or town issuing the bonds voting at an election to be held for that purpose.

After the initial adoption of a law by the legislature authorizing the use of ad valorem taxes levied against increases in the true and fair value of real property to finance specified public improvements, no amendment to such act which expands the nature of the areas within which ad valorem taxes levied against increases in the true and fair value of real property may be used to finance specified public improvements, or adds to the purposes and types of public improvements that may be financed with such revenues, or reduces the requirements which must be met if public obligations are incurred to fund the specified public improvements, shall be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house of the legislature and is subject to referendum petition.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

Signed by Representatives Greengo, Chairman; Flanagan, Vice Chairman; Rinehart, Ranking Minority Member; Addison, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Galloway, Granlund, Hastings, Rust, Sanders.

Mr. Speaker:

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.
March 8, 1982

Mr. Speaker:
The Senate has concurred in the House amendment(s) to the following bills, and passed the bills as amended by the House:

SENATE BILL NO. 4718,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4775.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4786, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Senators Lee, Hayner, Deccio, Scott and Wojahn):

Modifying the community mental health services act.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Appropriations - Human Services recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 54th Day, March 5, 1982.)

Mr. Nisbet moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Mr. Nisbet, the following amendment by Representatives Nisbet and Becker to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 11, beginning with "The" on line 17 strike the material down to and including "services" on line 22 and insert "The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provider entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers;"

(3) Operate as a licensed service provider if it deems that doing so is more efficient and cost effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that shall provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective. Whenever a county authority chooses to operate as a licensed service provider, the secretary shall act as the county authority for that service."

Renumber the remaining subsections.

On motion of Mr. Nisbet, the following amendment by Representatives Nisbet and Becker to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 18, line 27 strike "this chapter" and insert "chapter 71.24 RCW"

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Nisbet, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Representatives Nisbet and Lewis spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nisbet yielded to question by Ms. Becker.

Ms. Becker: "Representative Nisbet, this bill contains the definition of 'acutely mentally ill,' and in order not to leave any questions about just what we're focusing on, I wonder if you could give us the benefit of your remarks and your understanding about our intent in amending this definition in the House Appropriations - Human Services Committee?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Thank you, Representative Becker. Our intent with this entire bill is to focus the state's available resources on those conditions and people in the greatest need of mental health care. The definition of acutely mentally ill speaks to a condition, not a person, and limits the condition to a short-term, severe crisis episode of a mental disorder or grave disability, or a condition presenting a likelihood of serious harm. It is our intent to make the availabilities to respond to and stabilize these conditions a priority for the community mental health system. It is not our intent to reopen the black hole of community mental health with the definition of acute mentally ill by authorizing endless hours of service at endless cost in an attempt to completely rehabilitate any person who has been in the condition of mentally ill at any time in his or her life. The key to this definition is the phrase 'short-term severe crisis episode.' It is our intent to allow the Department of Social and Health Services to establish administrative codes that will define this phrase operationally."

Ms. Becker: "Representative Nisbet, section 4 of this bill sets very clear priorities for service for 'the acutely mentally ill, the chronically mentally ill and the seriously disturbed.' Could you please tell us how members of the legislature, now and in the future, will be able to know the degree to which those priorities are being adhered by the mental health system?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Section 4 of this bill directs the department to develop evaluation standards which will result in information on the amount of service given to each priority mentioned and listed under this act. The same section directs DSHS to tell us the formula they will use in distributing funds we appropriate for community mental health to each of the priority groups. That formula is required to be based on the needs assessment done by the counties which focused on the acutely mentally ill, the chronically mentally ill and the seriously disturbed—the same priorities."

Representatives Becker, Williams and Wang spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4366, by Senators Rasmussen and Craswell:

Modifying penalties for unlawful issuance of checks or drafts.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Barr moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 27 insert:

"(6) For purposes of this section, any of the following shall be considered prima facie evidence of intent to defraud:

(a) Proof that, at the time of issuance, the person did not have an account with the drawee; or
Mr. Barr spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Armstrong spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Nickell.

Mr. Nickell: "Representative Armstrong, this is not quite clear about who initiates the settlement between the maker of the check and the person who has accepted it. Who has to initiate that agreement, the maker or the person who is holding the check?"

Mr. Armstrong: "I would suggest the maker had better initiate the settlement, had better be in town, know that his account was overdrawn, know that it was NSF and had gotten the mail. Those are all problems. I don't know whether everybody is always going to be there to get the mail that announces that the check was NSF. My real impression is that the prosecutor is going to initiate this settlement. My understanding of the Bremerton system is that someone in the police department is going to be calling people who have NSF checks and ask them if they want to be arrested."

Mr. Nickell: "In other words, you do feel that the holder of the check would have to appeal to the prosecuting attorney with this, and then he would contact the maker of the check?"

Mr. Armstrong: "Yes."

Ms. Schmidt spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Barr spoke again in favor of it.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Padden and James spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4366 was deferred, and it was ordered placed on the bottom of today's third reading calendar.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4733, by Senator Hayner:

Modifying certain methods of handling juvenile offenders.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Institutions recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 56th Day, March 7, 1982.)

On motion of Ms. Houchen, the committee amendments to page 3 were adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Van Dyken, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which the committee amendments to page 3 were adopted.

The motion was carried.

Ms. Houchen moved adoption of the committee amendments to page 3, line 5; page 3, line 33 and page 3, line 26.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the committee amendments, and Mr. Struthers spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Ms. Hine.

Ms. Hine: "Representative Van Dyken, if a child commits an offense that child may go through the normal juvenile court process rather than through the diversion, I believe. What is the cost of going through? Is there an automatic fee if they choose to go through the normal court procedure?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "To my recollection, Representative Hine, court fees can be imposed based on the ability to pay. There is no requirement, to my knowledge."
Representatives Hine, Owen, Becker, Scott, Erak and Nelson (D) spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representative Houchen spoke against them.

Representatives Struthers and Houchen spoke again in opposition to the committee amendments.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The committee amendments were adopted.

Ms. Houchen moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 3, line 24.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Struthers spoke against it.

The committee amendment to page 3, line 24 was not adopted.

Ms. Houchen moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, line 19.

Representatives Van Dyken and Becker spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Nelson (G) spoke against it.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4470, by Senators Clarke, Vognild, Benitz, Rasmussen, Hurley and Zimmerman (by Governor Spellman request):

Modifying provisions relating to pistols.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Nelson (G) moved adoption of the following amendment by Representative Salatino:

On page I, after line 25 insert new sections to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for anyone knowingly to carry onto public or private elementary or secondary school premises: (a) Any firearm, or (b) any dangerous weapon as defined in RCW 9.41.250, or (c) any device, commonly known as 'nun-chu-ka sticks,' consisting of two or more lengths of wood, metal, plastic, or similar substance connected with wire, rope, or other means, or (d) any device, commonly known as 'throwing stars,' which are multipointed, metal objects designed to embed upon impact from any aspect.

(2) Any person violating subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a class C felony.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

(a) Any person who by virtue of the person's office or public employment is vested by law with a duty to preserve public safety, maintain public order, or to make arrests for offenses, while in the performance of the duty;

(b) Any person engaged in military activities, sponsored by the federal or state governments while engaged in official duties; or

(c) Any person who has obtained prior written permission from the appropriate public school principal or equivalent private school official to carry the firearm, dangerous weapon, or other device under subsection (1) of this section onto school premises for a legitimate educational objective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, your point is not well taken. After debate has begun it is too late to raise a point of order."

Mr. Eberle spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. King (R).

Mr. King (R): "Representative Armstrong, the language in this amendment uses the term 'knowingly.' Would the fact pattern that was just presented to us of someone returning from hunting and having an unloaded rifle in the pickup, because it's illegal to have a loaded rifle, be guilty of a felony under this law, in your opinion?"

Mr. Armstrong: "I hesitate to answer because I haven't studied the issue fully, but it appears to me that 'knowingly' carrying onto public property is the only definition. If he knows he has that hunting weapon, that's 'knowingly.'"
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patrick yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Patrick, you are an experienced police officer and from the comments made by Representative Eberle, I would presume that the officer, if he did see a circumstance such as Representative Eberle described, would he use what we call 'common sense' in this particular matter, or would he automatically place somebody under arrest for a situation like that?"

Mr. Patrick: "Well, Representative Erak, I should point out that the police officer has to follow the law. If the law says it is illegal to carry that firearm on the school premises, then that's the law and it is a felony and the police officer would have to make an arrest. Let me take it one step further. I was a friend of this bill in the Ethics, Law and Justice Committee. I thought it was a good bill at that time and I voted in favor of its passage out of the committee. I didn't realize until after we had passed it out that there is one great big imperfection and that's the fact that the bill doesn't address the citizen who has a concealed weapon permit. Because of that, this is not a perfected amendment, and I would urge you to vote 'no' on the amendment."

Representatives Patrick and Nickell spoke against the amendment.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4470 was deferred.

AFTERNOON SESSION
The House was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Salatino, who was excused.

SPEAKER'S RULING
The Speaker: "The question before the House is a point of order raised by Representative Armstrong challenging the scope and object of the committee amendment by Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3112. The original text of ESB 3112 extends the litigation-related costs that may be recovered by the prevailing party in a civil action. Section 1 of the committee amendment follows this same course by allowing the prevailing party in a civil action to bring a claim or counterclaim for damages and reasonable attorney fees where the original action was malicious. Therefore, both the original Senate bill and section 1 of the committee amendment have the object of extending the recourse available to the prevailing party in a civil action. Section 2 of the committee amendment involves the original text of ESB 3112. Section 3 of the committee amendment deals with clarifying the procedures for filing satisfactions of judgments, which is one of the post-litigation procedures..." related to civil actions. The original text of ESB 3112 also involves clarifying the post-litigation procedures relating to civil actions. The Speaker will rule that the House committee amendment which strikes the Senate bill is within scope and object. Your point is not well taken.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the committee amendment.

Mr. Bickham moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Bickham and Scott to the committee amendment:
On page 2, line 30 after "fees" insert "not to exceed two dollars"

Mr. Bickham spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Ellis spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bickham yielded to question by Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang: "Representative Bickham, is it your intent to limit it to $2 per notarized item, or is it your intent to limit it to $2 total?"

Mr. Bickham: "That's $2 per document, Representative Wang."

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Nisbet spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Dawson.

Mr. Dawson: "Representative Padden, an HMO is not considered an insurance company. I would presume that the premiums would not be considered insurance premiums. Could you clarify whether or not this particular provision would exempt public facilities owned by HMO's?"

Mr. Padden: "Representative Dawson, no, this would not. It is only for hospitals and as I indicated earlier, hospitals which charge no fees to users, present no billings, either directly or indirectly to users and would only involve basically charitable institutions."

Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nisbet yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Nisbet, what would be the fiscal impact if we were to eliminate the fees from the Shriner hospitals?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Quite frankly, I don't know what they would be. I believe it's one or two hundred dollars."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Padden, would the Orthopedic Hospital be included under this amendment?"

Mr. Padden: "No, it would be my opinion that the Orthopedic Hospital would not be included because they do accept insurance moneys and as indicated in the amendment, that would exclude them, so they would not be covered."

Representatives Becker and Mitchell spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Padden spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Nisbet again opposed the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of it.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section I. Section 69.50.505, chapter 308, Laws of 1981 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 48, Laws of 1981 and by section 32, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 69.50.505 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture:

(1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, or acquired in violation of this chapter;

(2) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter;

(3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs (1) or (2);

(4) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation, for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in paragraphs (1) or (2), but:

(i) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter;"
(ii) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without his knowledge or consent;

(iii) A conveyance is not subject to forfeiture for a violation of RCW 69.50.401((e)(f)); ((and;))

(iv) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and

(v) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter the conveyance may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest.

(5) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter;

(6) All drug paraphernalia; and

(7) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other intangible property of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this chapter: PROVIDED, That no property may be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission which that owner establishes was committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent.

(b) Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(3) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(4) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(c) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (b), proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seized. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited.

(e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section.

(f) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

(2) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this title shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Fifty percent of the money remaining after payment of such expenses shall be deposited in the criminal justice training account established under RCW 43.101.210 which shall be appropriated by law to the Washington state criminal justice training commission and fifty percent shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency;

(3) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

(4) Forward it to the Bureau for disposition.

(g) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the board.

(h) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(i) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupuncy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that imitation controlled substances are being manufactured to imitate the appearance of the dosage units of controlled substances for sale to school age youths and others to facilitate the fraudulent sale of controlled substances. The legislature further finds that manufacturers are endeavoring to profit from the manufacture of these imitation controlled substances while avoiding liability by accurately labeling the containers or packaging which contain these imitation controlled substances. The close similarity of appearance between dosage units of imitation controlled substances and controlled substances is indicative of a deliberate and wilful attempt to profit by deception without regard to the tragic human consequences. The use of imitation controlled substances is responsible for a growing number of injuries and deaths, and the legislature hereby declares that this chapter is necessary for the protection and preservation of the public health and safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Controlled substance' means a substance as that term is defined in chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) 'Distribute' means the actual or constructive transfer (or attempted transfer) or delivery or dispensing to another of an imitation controlled substance.

(3) 'Imitation controlled substance' means a substance that is not a controlled substance, but which by appearance or representation would lead a reasonable person to believe that the substance is a controlled substance. Appearance includes, but is not limited to, color, shape, size, and markings of the dosage unit.
Representation includes, but is not limited to, representations or factors of the following nature:

(a) Statements made by an owner or by anyone else in control of the substance concerning the nature of the substance, or its use or effect;

(b) Statements made to the recipient that the substance may be resold for inordinate profit; or

(c) Whether the substance is packaged in a manner normally used for illicit controlled substances.

(4) 'Manufacture' means the production, preparation, compounding, processing, encapsulating, packaging or repackaging, or labeling or relabeling of an imitation controlled substance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute, an imitation controlled substance. Any person who violates this subsection shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a class C felony.

(2) Any person eighteen years of age or over who violates subsection (1) of this section by distributing an imitation controlled substance to a person under eighteen years of age is guilty of a class B felony.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to cause to be placed in any newspaper, magazine, handbill, or other publication, or to post or distribute in any public place, any advertisement or solicitation offering for sale imitation controlled substances. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a class C felony.

(4) No civil or criminal liability shall be imposed by virtue of this chapter on any person registered under the Uniform Controlled Substances Act pursuant to RCW 69.50.301 or 69.50.303 who manufacturers, distributes, or possesses an imitation controlled substance for use as a placebo or other use by a registered practitioner, as defined in RCW 69.50.101(1), in the course of professional practice or research.

(5) This chapter shall not apply to offenses defined and punishable under the provisions of RCW 69.50.401(c).

(6) No prosecution under this chapter shall be dismissed solely by reason of the fact that the dosage units were contained in a bottle or other container with a label accurately describing the ingredients of the imitation controlled substance dosage units. The good faith of the defendant shall be an issue of fact for the trier of fact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Imitation controlled substances shall be subject to seizure, forfeiture, and disposition in the same manner as are controlled substances under RCW 69.50.505.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The attorney general is authorized to apply for injunctive action against a manufacturer or distributor of imitation controlled substances in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any manufacturer of controlled substances licensed or registered in a state requiring such licensure or registration, may bring injunctive or other action against a manufacturer or distributor of imitation controlled substances in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 69
RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1982."

In line 1 of the title, after "substances," strike the remainder of the title, and insert "reenacting and amending section 69.50.505, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 48, Laws of 1981 and by section 32, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 69.50.505; adding a new chapter to Title 69 RCW; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.* and the same is herewith transmitted.

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 40 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 5 beginning with "Section" strike all of the material down to and including "requires." on page 6, line 32 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) During the period between the effective date of this 1982 act, and January 1, 1986, the reporting provisions of this chapter are suspended as they pertain to candidates, elected officials, and agencies in jurisdictions with less than one thousand registered voters as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction. The suspension also applies to political committees formed to support or oppose ballot propositions in such jurisdictions, and to persons making independent expenditures in support of or opposition to such ballot propositions.

(2) The suspension shall not apply in any jurisdiction from which a 'petition for disclosure' containing the valid signatures of five percent of the number of registered voters, as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction, is filed with the commission. The commission shall by rule prescribe the form of the petition. After the signatures are gathered, the petition shall be presented to the auditor or elections officer of the county, or counties, in which the jurisdiction is located. The auditor or elections officer shall verify the signatures and certify to the commission that the petition contains no less than the required number of valid signatures. The commission, upon receipt of a valid petition, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(3) The suspension shall not apply in any jurisdiction which by ordinance, resolution, or other official action has petitioned the commission to void the suspension with respect to elected officials and candidates of the jurisdiction. A copy of the action shall be sent to the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be a valid action of the appropriate governing body or authority, the commission shall issue an order voiding the suspension for that jurisdiction. The commission, upon approval of the action, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

The board of county commissioners of each county shall divide their county into three commissioner districts so that each district shall comprise as nearly as possible one-third of the population of the county: PROVIDED, That the territory comprised in any voting precincts of such districts shall remain compact, and shall not be divided by the lines of said districts; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the foregoing requirement of equal population among commissioner districts may be disregarded, at the discretion of the county commissioners, in the following instances:

(a) Where the commissioners of any county having a population of fifteen thousand inhabitants or less, in which no totally intracounty highway connection exists between the county seat and a major geographic area of the county, may disregard population in the formation of commissioner districts to the extent that one commissioner district encompassing the unconnected portion of the county may be established without regard to its population.

(b) The commissioners of any county having a population of less than thirty-five thousand may divide their county into three commissioner districts without regard to population, except that if any single island is included in more than one district, the districts on such island shall comprise, as nearly as possible, equal populations:

(2) The commissioners of any county having a population of fifteen thousand inhabitants or less, in which no totally intracounty highway connection exists between the county seat and a major geographic area of the county, may disregard population in the formation of commissioner districts to the extent that one commissioner district encompassing the unconnected portion of the county may be established without regard to its population.

The lines of the districts shall not be changed oftener than once in four years and only when a full board of commissioners is present. The districts shall be designated as districts numbered one, two and three. Sec. 5. Section 36.32.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the qualified electors of each county commissioner district, and they only, shall nominate from among their own number, candidates for the office of county commissioner of such commissioner district to be voted for at the following general election. Such candidates shall be nominated in the same manner as candidates for other county and district offices are nominated in all other respects.

(2) Where the commissioners of a county composed entirely of islands with a population of less than thirty-five thousand have chosen to divide the county into unequal-sized commissioner districts pursuant to the exception provided in RCW 36.32.020, the qualified electors of the entire county shall nominate from among their own number who reside within a commissioner district, candidates for the office of county commissioner of such commissioner district to be voted for at the following general election. Such candidates shall be nominated in the same manner as candidates for other county offices are nominated in all other respects.

"Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1980 and RCW 35.82.300 are each amended to read as follows: This section applies to all counties.

(2) (The ordinance enacted by the legislative authorities creating the joint housing authority shall prescribe the number of commissioners, the method for their appointment and length of their terms, the election of officers, and the method for removal of commissioners.) When the legislative authorities adopt an ordinance as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the mayor, or mayors, involved and the county legislative authority shall appoint five persons as commissioners of the joint city-county housing authority created. for their services for the authority, in any capacity, but are entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties.

time. Three commissioners shall constitute a quorum of the authority for the purpose of conducting its busi-of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws of the authority shall require a larger number. The mayor or mayors involved and the county legislative authority shall designate which of such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

March 7, 1982

Mr. Speaker:
The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 419 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 200, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.070 are each amended to read as follows:

After the completion of a logging operation, satisfactory reforestation as defined by the rules and regulations promulgated by the board shall be completed within three years: PROVIDED, That a longer period may be authorized if seed or seedlings are not available: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a period of up to five years may be allowed where a natural regeneration plan is approved by the department. Upon the completion of a reforestation operation a report on such operation shall be filed with the department of natural resources. Within twelve months of receipt of such a report the department shall inspect the reforestation operation, and shall determine either that the reforestation operation has been properly completed or that further reforestation and inspection is necessary.

Satisfactory reforestation is the obligation of the owner of the land as defined by forest practices regulations, except the owner of perpetual rights to cut timber owned separately from the land is responsible for satisfactory reforestation. The reforestation obligation shall become the obligation of a new owner if the land or perpetual timber rights are sold or otherwise transferred.

Prior to the sale or transfer of land or perpetual timber rights subject to a reforestation obligation, the seller shall notify the buyer of the existence and nature of the obligation and the buyer shall sign a notice of reforestation obligation indicating the buyer's knowledge thereof. The notice shall be on a form prepared by the department and shall be sent to the department by the seller at the time of sale or transfer of the land or perpetual timber rights. If the seller fails to notify the buyer about the reforestation obligation, the seller shall pay the buyer's costs related to reforestation, including all legal costs which include reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the buyer in enforcing the reforestation obligation against the seller. Failure by the seller to send the required notice to the department at the time of sale shall be prima facie evidence, in an action by the buyer against the seller for costs related to reforestation, that the seller did not notify the buyer of the reforestation obligation prior to sale.

The forest practices regulations may provide alternatives to or limitations on the applicability of reforestation requirements with respect to forest lands being converted in whole or in part to another use which is compatible with timber growing. The forest practices regulations may identify classifications and/or areas of forest land that have the likelihood of future conversion to urban development within a ten year period. The reforestation requirements may be modified or eliminated on such lands: PROVIDED, That such identification and/or such conversion to urban development must be consistent with any local or regional land use plans or ordinances.

Upon receipt of the measure, the assistant code reviser to whom it has been assigned may confer with the petitioner and shall within ((ten)) seven working days from receipt thereof review the proposal for matters of form and style, and such matters of substantive import as may be agreeable to the petitioner, and shall recommend to the petitioner such revision or alteration of the measure as may be deemed necessary and appropriate. The recommendations of the reviser’s office shall be advisory only, and the petitioner may accept or reject them in whole or in part. The code reviser shall issue a certificate of review certifying that he has reviewed the measure for form and style and that the recommendations thereon, if any, have been communicated to the petitioner, and such certificate shall issue whether or not the petitioner accepts such recommendations. When practicable, the question posed by the ballot title shall be written in such a way that an affirmative answer to such question and an affirmative vote on the measure would result in a change in then current law, and a negative answer to the question and a negative vote on the measure would result in no change to then current law."

In all cases where a determination is made that the estate of a mentally or physically deficient person who resides at a state residential school is able to pay all or any portion of the monthly charges, a notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be personally served on the guardian of the resident’s estate, or if no guardian has been appointed then to his spouse or parents or other person acting in a representative capacity and having property in his possession belonging to a resident of a state residential school and the superintendent of the state residential school. The notice shall set forth the amount the department has determined that such estate is able to pay per month, not to exceed the monthly charge as fixed in accordance with RCW 72.33.660, and the responsibility for payment to the department of social and health services shall commence thirty days after personal service of such notice and finding of responsibility. An appeal from the determination of responsibility may be made to the secretary by the guardian of the resident’s estate, or if no guardian has been appointed then by his spouse, parent or parents or other person acting in a representative capacity and having property in his possession belonging to a resident of a state residential school, within such thirty day period upon written notice of appeal being served upon the secretary by registered or certified mail. If no appeal is taken, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final. If an appeal is taken, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision of such appeal. Appeals may be heard in any county seat most convenient to the appellant. The hearing of appeals may be presided over by ((a hearing examiner)) an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW and the proceedings shall be recorded either manually or by a mechanical device. Any such appeal shall be a ‘contested case’ as defined in RCW 34.04.010, and practice and procedure shall be governed by the provisions of RCW 72.33.650 through 72.33.700, the rules and regulations of the department of social and health services, and the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 25, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent or parents a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent or parents to appear and show cause in a hearing held by the department why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent or parents are in need. Said hearing shall be held pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules and regulations of the department, which shall provide for a fair hearing.

(2) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or may be served on the responsible parent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within sixty days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice is not served within sixty days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the sixty-day period and before the date of notification: PROVIDED, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire sixty-day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing. If no timely written request for a hearing has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for a hearing as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely request for hearing. The filing of the petition for a hearing after the twenty-day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of a request for the hearing shall operate as a stay on any future collection action, pending the final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee on the hearing. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the request for the hearing shall be delivered to the department and shall be held in trust by the department pending the final order of the secretary or during the pendency of any appeal to the courts made under chapter 34.04 RCW. The department may petition the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the petition for an untimely hearing is granted. The ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the scale of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the hearing examiner, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the hearing or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the hearing or appeal shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise appropriate when received by the department. If the final decision of the department, or of the courts on appeal, is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.

(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent. Any such hearing shall be a 'contested case' as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the need alleged. The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is alleged.

(4) The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future. The notice and finding shall include a statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to request a hearing, the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

(5) If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing, including a hearing on prospective modification, shall be conducted by ((a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose)) an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW. After evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall enter an initial decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall file the original of the initial decision and order, signed by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, with the secretary or the secretary's designee. Copies of the initial decision and order shall be mailed by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge to the department and to the appellant by certified or registered mail to the last known address of each party. Within thirty days of filing, either the appellant or the department may file with the secretary or the secretary's designee a written petition for review of the initial decision and order. The petition for review shall set forth in detail the basis for the requested review and shall be mailed by the petitioning party to the other party by certified or registered mail to the last known address of the party. The petition shall be based on any of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of the petitioner:

(a) Irregularity in the proceedings of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge or adverse party, or any order of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, or abuse of discretion, by which the moving party was prevented from having a fair hearing;
(b) Misconduct of the prevailing party;
(c) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;
(d) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which the party could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing;
(e) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the decision, or that it is contrary to law;
(f) Error in mathematical computation;
(g) Error in law occurring at the hearing and objected to at the time by the party making the application;
(h) That the moving party is unable to perform according to the terms of the order without further clarification;
(i) That substantial justice has not been done;
(j) Fraud or misstatement of facts by any witness, which materially affects the debt;
(k) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or
(1) That the decision and order entered because the responsible parent failed to appear at the hearing should be vacated and the matter be remanded for a hearing upon showing of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

In the event no petition for review is made as provided in this subsection by any party, the initial decision and order of the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge is final as of the date of filing and becomes the decision and order of the secretary. No appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts and the debt created is subject to collection action as authorized by this chapter.

After the receipt of a petition for review, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall consider the initial decision and order, the petition or petitions for review, the record or any part thereof, and such additional evidence and argument as the secretary or the secretary's designee may in his or her discretion allow.

The secretary or the secretary's designee may remand the proceedings to the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge for additional evidence or argument. The secretary or the secretary's designee may deny review of the initial decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions at which time the initial decision and order shall be final as of the date of the denial and all parties shall forthwith be notified, in writing, of the denial, by certified mail to the last known address of the parties. Unless the petition is denied, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall review the initial decision and order and shall make the final decision and order of the department. The final decision and order shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each contested issue of fact and law. A copy of the decision and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal by certified mail to the last known address of the party. The decision and order shall authorize collection action, as appropriate, under this chapter.

(6) The (hearing examiner) administrative law judge in his or her initial decision, or the secretary or the secretary's designee in review of the initial decision, shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. In making these determinations, the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge, and the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall include in his or her considerations:

(a) All earnings and income resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;
(b) The earnings potential of the responsible parent;
(c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent;
(d) The ability of the responsible parent to borrow;
(e) The needs of the child for whom the support is sought;
(f) The amount of assistance which would be paid to the child under the full standard of need of the state's public assistance plan;
(g) The existence of other dependents; and
(h) That the child, for whom support is sought, benefits from the income and resources of the responsible parent on an equitable basis in comparison with any other minor children of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge shall enter an initial decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

(7) The final decision entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt to the amounts stated in said decision: PROVIDED, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, upon the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances. The decision and order for prospective modification entered by the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge shall be an initial decision subject to review by the secretary or the secretary's designee as provided for in this section.

(8) The (hearing examiner) administrative law judge, in making the initial decision and the secretary or the secretary's designee in the final decision determining liability and/or future periodic support payments, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

(9) Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge, or the secretary or the secretary's designee.

(10) 'Need' as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the schedule of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270, based on the earnings, resources, and property of the alleged responsible parent, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: PROVIDED, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The administrative hearings revolving fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of centralized funding, accounting, and distribution of the actual costs of the services provided to agencies of the state government by the office of administrative hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The amounts to be disbursed from the administrative hearings revolving fund on account of administrative hearings services provided by the office of administrative hearings shall be documented by the chief administrative law judge or his designee. The payment may be made on either an advance or reimbursable basis as approved by the director of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In cases where there are unanticipated demands for services of the office of administrative hearings or where there are insufficient funds on hand or available for payment through the administrative hearings revolving fund or in other cases of necessity, the chief administrative law judge may request payment for services directly from agencies for whom the services are performed to the extent that revenues or other funds are available. Upon approval by the director of financial management, the agency shall make the requested payment. The payment may be made on either an advance or reimbursable basis as approved by the director of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. RCW 34.12.040 shall not apply to transportation tariff docket hearings conducted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The Washington utilities and transportation commission may, however, on its own motion, refer any transportation docket item to an administrative law judge where it is determined that the transportation tariff item in question may have an overall economic impact on transportation costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 9 through 13 of this act are added to chapter 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is appropriated from the administrative hearings revolving fund to the office of administrative hearings for the operations and expenses of the office, pursuant to appropriation, in the same manner as appropriated funds are allocated to other agencies under chapter 43.88 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The office of administrative hearings shall meet or exceed timeliness standards under federal regulations in the conduct of employment security department appeals.

The director of financial management shall allot all such funds to the office of administrative hearings for the operation of the office, pursuant to appropriation, in the same manner as appropriated funds are allocated to other agencies under chapter 43.88 RCW.

Disbursements from the administrative hearings revolving fund shall be pursuant to vouchers executed by the chief administrative law judge or his designee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act shall take effect July 1, 1982.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 8, 1982

Mr. Speaker:
The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1011 with the following amendment:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. Application of the appearance of fairness doctrine to local land use decisions shall be limited to the quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies as defined in this section. Quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies are those actions of the legislative body, planning commission, hearing examiner, zoning adjuster, board of adjustment, or boards which determine the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties in a hearing or other contested case proceeding. Quasi-judicial actions do not include the legislative actions adopting, amending, or revising comprehensive, community, or neighborhood plans or other land use planning documents or the adoption of area-wide zoning ordinances or the adoption of a zoning amendment that is of area-wide significance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. No member of a local decision-making body may be disqualified by the appearance of fairness doctrine for conducting the business of his or her office with any constituent on any matter other than a quasi-judicial action then pending before the local legislative body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No legislative action taken by a local legislative body, its members, or local executive officials shall be invalidated by an application of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Prior to declaring as a candidate for public office or while campaigning for public office as defined by RCW 42.17.020(5) and (25) no public discussion or expression of an opinion by a person subsequently elected to a public office, on any pending or proposed quasi-judicial actions, shall be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A candidate for public office who complies with all provisions of applicable public disclosure and ethics laws shall not be limited from accepting campaign contributions to finance the campaign, including outstanding debts; nor shall it be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine to accept such campaign contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. During the pendency of any quasi-judicial proceeding, no member of a decision-making body may engage in ex parte communications with opponents or proponents with respect to the proposal which is the subject of the proceeding. This prohibition does not preclude a member of a decision-making body from seeking in a public hearing specific information or data from such parties relative to the decision if both the request and the results are a part of the record. Nor does such prohibition preclude correspondence between a citizen and his or her elected official if any such correspondence is made a part of the record when it pertains to the subject matter of a quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Participation by a member of a decision-making body in earlier proceedings that result in an advisory recommendation to a decision-making body shall not disqualify that person from participating in any subsequent quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Anyone seeking to rely on the appearance of fairness doctrine to disqualify a member of a decision-making body from participating in a decision must raise the challenge as soon as the basis for disqualification is made known to the individual. Where the basis is known or should reasonably have been known prior to the issuance of a decision and is not raised, it may not be relied on to invalidate the decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In the event of a challenge to a member or members of a decision-making body which would cause a lack of a quorum or would result in a failure to obtain a majority vote as required by law, any such challenged member(s) shall be permitted to fully participate in the proceeding and vote as though the challenge had not occurred, if the member or members publicly disclose the basis for disqualification prior to rendering a decision. Such participation shall not subject the decision to a challenge by reason of violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the restriction or elimination of the appearance of fairness doctrine by the appellate courts. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to expand the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Nothing in this chapter prohibits challenges to local land use decisions where actual violations of an individual’s right to a fair hearing can be demonstrated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 42 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.* and the same is herewith transmitted.

(2) Any person violating subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

(b) Any person engaged in military activities, sponsored by the federal or state governments while engaged in official duties; or

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like a ruling as to scope and object of this amendment. I believe it's beyond the scope of the bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, the Speaker has examined the title of the bill and finds it to be an act relating to firearms. Both the bill and the amendment are amending RCW 9.41. The amendment seeks to add a new section to chapter 9.41. The original bill is dealing with possession of firearms and carrying pistols. The amendment is dealing with firearms and other dangerous weapons; however, since the amendment does deal with firearms, as well as the bill, I would rule that your point of order is not well taken."

Representatives Salatino and Eberle spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Salatino, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title strike 'and defining crimes' and insert "adding a new section to chapter 9.41 RCW; defining crimes; and prescribing penalties"

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4561, by Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Deccio and Moore – by Department of Licensing request):

Revising authorized limits for certain professional and other fees.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Barrett moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 3, line 8 strike "((Charitable organization))" and insert "Charitable organization;"

Reletter the remaining subsections alphabetically.

Representatives Barrett, Rinehart and Ellis spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Sanders and Williams spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sanders yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "Representative Sanders, the last speaker said that some of these charities may not even be able to function if this fee stays in place. My understanding is that the department can set the fees to cover the cost of the licensing, and that's what is actually intended. Is that also your understanding? At what level would the fee be set?"

Mr. Sanders: "That's correct, Representative Chandler. The entire objective of the Department of Licensing fee-setting accounting system is to make revenue fees equal expenditures, and right now it would be necessary to charge each charity approximately $68.00 so that the revenue would be equal to expenditures."

Mr. Chandler spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Taylor and Nelson (D) spoke in favor of it.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Barrett to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4561, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 16; not voting, 5.

(c) No vehicle is subject to forfeiture under this section if the owner of the vehicle did not knowingly consent to the violation.

(d) A forfeiture of a vehicle encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party did not knowingly consent to the violation.

(e) A vehicle subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if the seizure is incident to an arrest for a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504.

(f) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (c) or (d), such proceedings for forfeiture shall be commenced by the seizing law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the seized vehicle and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right of interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized vehicle. POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Dickie.

Washington is one of the eleven states that has community property. Also, it seems to be a problem here as to when the seizure is going to take place. I have some real concerns about this."

If the person determined to have committed the infraction wishes to contest the determination the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be sooner than seven days from the date of the notice, except by agreement.

If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination but wishes to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the infraction the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing for that purpose and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing.

(a) If any person issued a notice of traffic infraction:

(i) Fails to respond to the notice of traffic infraction as provided in subsection (2) of this section; or

(ii) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section; the court shall enter an appropriate order assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the traffic infraction and any other penalty authorized by this chapter and shall notify the department in accordance with RCW 46.20.270, of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

(b) The department may not renew the driver's license, or in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation the vehicle license, of any person for whom the court has entered an order pursuant to (a) of this subsection until any penalties imposed pursuant to this chapter have been satisfied. For purposes of driver's license nonrenewal only, the lessee of a vehicle shall be considered to be the person to whom a notice of a standing, stopping, or parking violation has been issued for such violations of the vehicle incurred while the vehicle was leased or rented under a bona fide commercial lease or rental agreement between a lessor engaged in the business of leasing vehicles and a lessee who is not the vehicle's registered owner, if the lease agreement contains a provision prohibiting anyone other than the lessee from operating the vehicle. Such a lessor shall, upon the request of the municipality issuing the notice of infraction, supply the municipality with the name and driver's license number of the person leasing the vehicle at the time of the infraction.

Sec. 5. Section 46.20.270, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 58, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.270, of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

(1) A person found to have committed a traffic infraction shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No penalty may exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense unless authorized by this chapter or title.

(2) The supreme court may prescribe by rule a schedule of monetary penalties for designated traffic infractions.

(3) There shall be a penalty of twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction except where the infraction relates to ((overtime)) parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution or failure to pay a monetary penalty imposed pursuant to this chapter. ((The monetary penalty for failure to respond to a notice of a traffic infraction relating to overtime parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution shall be set by the local legislative body which originally enacted the local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution creating the parking offense.)) A local legislative body may set a monetary penalty not to exceed twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction relating to parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution. The local court, whether a municipal, police, or district court ((may)) shall impose the monetary penalty set by the local legislative body. ((Such locally set monetary penalty imposed under this subsection is not subject to the statutory assessments applicable to traffic offenses, including but not limited to the assessments required by RCW 46.81.030 ((and)), 43.101.210 ((and related court rules)), 2.56.100, 3.62.080, and 13.40.260.))

(4) Monetary penalties provided for in chapter 46.70 RCW which are civil in nature and penalties which may be assessed for violations of chapter 46.44 RCW relating to size, weight, and load of motor vehicles are not subject to the limitation on the amount of monetary penalties which may be imposed pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment the court shall notify the department of the failure to pay the penalty and the department may not renew the person's driver's license, or after July 1, 1984, in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation, the vehicle license, until the penalty has been paid and the penalty provided in subsection (3) of this section has been paid.

(6) There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury, a five-dollar fee in addition to the monetary penalty imposed for a traffic infraction other than a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction. The five-dollar fee shall not be suspended by the court.

Sec. 6. Section 46.20.270, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 58, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person is convicted of any offense for which this title makes mandatory the suspension or revocation of the driver's license of such person by the department, the privilege of the person to operate a vehicle is suspended until the department takes the action required by this chapter, and the court in which such conviction is had shall forthwith secure the immediate forfeiture of the driver's license of such convicted person and immediately forward such driver's license to the department, and on failure of such convicted person to deliver such driver's license the judge shall cause such person to be confined for the period of such suspension or revocation or until such driver's license is delivered to such judge: PROVIDED, That if the convicted person testifies that he or she does not and at the time of the offense did not have a current and valid vehicle driver's license, the judge shall cause such person to be charged with the operation of a motor vehicle without a current and valid driver's license and on conviction punished as by law provided, and the department may not issue a driver's license to such persons during the period of suspension or revocation: PROVIDED, ALSO, That if the driver's license of such convicted person has been lost or destroyed and such convicted person makes an affidavit to that effect, sworn to before the judge, the convicted person may not be so confined, but the department may not issue or reissue a driver's license for such convicted person during the period of such suspension or revocation: PROVIDED, That perfection of notice of appeal shall stay the execution of sentence including the suspension and/or revocation of the driver's license.

(2) Every court having jurisdiction over offenses committed under this chapter, or any other act of this state or municipal ordinance adopted by a local authority regulating the operation of motor vehicles on highways, or any federal authority having jurisdiction over offenses substantially the same as those set forth in Title 46 RCW which occur on federal installations within this state, shall forward to the department within ten days of a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure the defendant's appearance in court, a payment of a fine or penalty, a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt, or a finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction an abstract of the court record in the form prescribed by rule of the supreme court, showing the conviction of any person or the finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction in said court for a violation of any said laws other than regulations governing standing, stopping, parking, and pedestrian offenses.

(3) Every municipality having jurisdiction over offenses committed under this chapter, or any other act of this state or municipal ordinance adopted by a local authority regulating the operation of motor vehicles on highways, may forward to the department within ten days of failure to respond, failure to pay a penalty, failure to appear at a hearing to contest the determination that a violation of any statute, ordinance, or regulation relating to standing, stopping, or parking, or failure to appear at a hearing to explain mitigating circumstances, an abstract of the citation record in the form prescribed by rule of the department, showing the finding by such municipality that three or more violations of laws governing standing, stopping, and parking have been committed and indicating the nature of the defendant's failure to act. Such violations may not have occurred while the vehicle is stolen from the registered owner or is leased or rented under a bona fide commercial vehicle lease or rental agreement between a lessor engaged in the business of leasing vehicles and a lessee who is not the vehicle's registered owner. The department may enter into agreements of reciprocity with the duly authorized representatives of the states for reporting to each other violations of laws governing standing, stopping, and parking.

(4) For the purposes of Title 46 RCW the term "conviction" means a final conviction in a state or municipal court or by any federal authority having jurisdiction over offenses substantially the same as those set forth in Title 46 RCW which occur on federal installations in this state, an unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt on a traffic law violation charge, regardless of whether the imposition of sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended.

(5) For the purposes of Title 46 RCW the term "finding that a traffic infraction has been committed" means a failure to respond to a notice of infraction or a determination made by a court pursuant to this chapter. Payment of a monetary penalty made pursuant to RCW 46.63.070(2) is deemed equivalent to such a finding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 5 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1984, and shall apply to standing, stopping, and parking violations committed on or after January 1, 1984."

Representatives Ellis and Armstrong spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Patrick and James spoke against it.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 31; not voting, 2.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3944, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 44; not voting, 0.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3944, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1103, by Representatives Struthers, McCormick, Nisbet, Galloway, Lewis, Monohon, Gallagher and King (J):

Providing for a state lottery.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Sanders, Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103 was substituted for House Bill No. 1103, and the second substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.
Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103 was read the second time.

Mr. Ellis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 35 strike "forty-five percent of the gross income from such lottery," and insert "twenty-five percent of the gross income from such lottery, (ii) the payment of all expenses for free public circuses or carnivals held periodically in areas determined by the commission to have relatively high poverty or unemployment, which shall not be less than ten percent of the gross income from such lottery, (iii) the payment of costs for the purchase and distribution of bread by nonprofit organizations for feeding the poor or unemployed, which shall not be less than ten percent of the gross income from such lottery."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on scope and object. I don't believe the act refers to anything with circuses."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, in examining the amendment, it is still dealing with a state lottery, but is simply earmarking the funds to be used for a specific purpose. In one of the earlier bills there had been an earmarking of a special purpose for the use of the funds, which is no longer in the second substitute bill, but it would appear to the Speaker that would still be within the scope and object of the bill. Your point is not well taken."

Mr. Ellis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lewis spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ellis yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D):

Mr. Nelson (D): "We've had a lot of job programs proposed in this session, and I wonder, Representative Ellis, is this a new Republican proposal for jobs? Also, to take care of the unemployment problem, I'm wondering if the carnivals will substitute for unemployment compensation benefits?"

Mr. Ellis: "Representative Nelson, this obviously will not produce jobs except for carnival workers in the circus, so it could help on the unemployment."

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Lux moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, beginning on line 9, after 'act,' strike all material down to and including 'fund;' on line 13 and insert "(iv) transfer to the state general fund, for the exclusive use of the common schools, of at least thirty percent of the total revenues; and (v) transfer to the state general fund of at least five percent of the total revenues, for appropriation exclusively for (A) nonprofit organizations distributing food to the needy, and (B) medical assistance and medical care services under the limited casualty program under RCW 74.09.700;"

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Patrick and Cole spoke against it.

Mr. Lux spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Greengo and Monohan spoke against it.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The amendment was not adopted.

The clerk read the following amendment by Representative Lux:

On page 11, beginning on line 32 after 'fund' strike all material down to and including 'schools;' on line 36 and insert "exclusively for the purposes enumerated in section 3(1)(k)(iv) and (v) of this act;"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Lux withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Struthers moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 14, line 10 after "ratification" insert "by not less than sixty percent affirmative vote of the electors voting thereon."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Greengo: "Mr. Speaker, I thought I read somewhere in the Constitution that it already required sixty percent for lotteries and this amendment would not be necessary."

The Speaker: "Article II, section 24, states, 'Lotteries shall be prohibited except as specifically authorized by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the members of each house of the legislature.'" legislature or notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, by referendum or initiative approved by sixty percent of the vote of the electorate voting thereon.'"

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Ellis: "Mr. Speaker, I want to follow up on that. Am I to understand that without this amendment, it takes sixty percent vote of the legislature to put it out there?"

The Speaker: "Yes, Representative Ellis, that is correct. With this amendment it would require a sixty percent vote of the people of the state, and a fifty percent vote of the legislature."

Representatives Struthers and Monohon spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Ellis and Kreidler spoke against it.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo: "Since all lottery bills require sixty percent vote of the legislature to pass, can we adopt an amendment by a majority vote which would then allow us to do away with the sixty percent majority?"

The Speaker: "Representative Greengo, I just read you the article from the Constitution that says a lottery can be passed either by a sixty percent of the legislature or by a sixty percent vote of the people of the state."

Mr. Struthers spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Struthers, was this language in the proposition that the people voted on in 1974?"

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Tilly, I cannot tell you that, but I do have copy of the language that went on back in 1974 between two senators that makes this very plain. I'm sure one of the caucus attorneys would make that information available to you."

Mr. Tilly spoke against the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Struthers to

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Brown, Gallagher and Owen:

On page 14, beginning on line 9 strike all of section 35.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Brown withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Pruitt moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 11, line 27 after "shares" insert "tickets shall be flavored with chocolate and mint and wrapped in sanitized wrappers."

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Prince and Taylor spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pruitt to page 11 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 10; nays, 87; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Fancher.

The bill was ordered engrossed.

Mr. Hastings moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

A division was called on the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to suspend the rules and place Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103 on final passage, and the motion received the necessary two-thirds majority by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 27; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Addison, James.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Kreidler, I was interested in some of the remarks you made on the amendment by Representative Struthers, and my question is based on Amendment 56 of our state Constitution that was approved by the voters on November 7, 1972. Do you believe the measure before us, Second Substitute House Bill 1103, can be passed by the House by a simple constitutional majority of only fifty votes?"

Mr. Kreidler: "No, I do not, Representative Tilly. I think if you read the language of our state Constitution in Amendment 56, it very clearly states that it takes a sixty percent affirmative vote of both bodies of the legislature or—and then it refers to notwithstanding the other forms of referendum and initiative—that it then takes sixty percent of the votes of the people of the state of Washington. So very clearly, it will take a sixty percent vote of this body and of the Senate and of the people of the state of Washington in order to become law."

Mr. Tilly spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (G): "Mr. Speaker, how many votes will be necessary to validate and pass Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103?"

The Speaker: "Fifty votes."

Mr. Williams moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Williams spoke in favor of the amendment.

Point of Order

Mr. McGinnis: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to challenge this amendment on the basis of scope and object, and the RCW's referred to in the title are expanded by the intent of the amendment."

Speaker's Ruling

The Speaker: "Reed's Rule 112 – Time for making objections, says '...objections to present action must be presented before consideration has been entered upon. After debate has begun or other action has been taken, it is too late.' The Speaker has been trying to consistently rule that once the opening remarks and opening speeches have been made, it is too late and not a timely objection. Therefore, Representative McGinnis, I would rule your point of order is not well taken."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Chamberlain: "Mr. Speaker, my responsibility with a company that employs me includes the planning of extensions for state sales. I've applied for, and the company has received, an extension that will be affected by this bill. This causes a concern of conflict of interest. I would like a ruling from the Speaker as to the propriety of my voting on this bill."

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Chamberlain, I would call your attention to Rule 1 of the Joint Rules—Conflict of Interest, which reads: 'A legislator has a personal interest which is in conflict with the proper discharge of legislative duties if the legislator has reason to believe or expect that a direct monetary gain or a direct monetary loss will be derived by reason of the legislator’s official activity. However, a legislator that does not have a personal interest which is in conflict with the proper discharge of legislative duties if no benefit or detriment accrues to the legislator as a member of a business, profession, occupation, or group, to a greater extent than to any other member of such business, profession, occupation, or group.' The question you have posed to me would indicate that you do not have a greater interest than anyone else in that group, and I would therefore say that in the Speaker’s opinion, you do not have a conflict of interest."

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, following line 27 insert a new subsection to read as follows:

"(4) The term 'purchaser' shall include any affiliate, subsidiary or parent company thereof."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "These amendments we are going to deal with have a fiscal impact, and I don’t think the body can properly evaluate them if they don’t have the fiscal notes in front of them."

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, in order to have a point of order, you must have a rule that requires a fiscal note on the various amendments. There is no such rule so you can have no point of order."

Mr. Lundquist spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lundquist yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Lundquist, since we don’t have a fiscal note in front of us, I wonder if you would indicate whether there’s any fiscal impact of this amendment at all?"

Mr. Lundquist: "It’s my understanding that there is no fiscal impact to this state as a result of this amendment."

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. King (R) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, following line 39 insert:

"(6) All timber covered by contracts made between January 1, 1978 and January 1, 1980 and defaulted pursuant to this section must be resold, harvested and processed in the United States within two years of the date of default, and resale contracts will so provide. Where timber formerly covered by a defaulted contract is resold the new contract may not be extended; if resold timber is not harvested and processed within two years the contract will be terminated, the defaulting buyer will be liable for loss of income to the state related to timber remaining unharvested, and payments made on the contract will be forfeited. The amount forfeited will be the percentage of total payment equal to the percentage of timber covered by the contract that remains unprocessed at the end of the two year period. 'Processed' means (I) sawed into lumber; (2) pulp and pulp products broken down to a condition of separation of wood fibers; (3) veneer or plywood; (4) poles, posts or pilings, cut and treated with preservative, intended for use as such and not intended to be processed further; (5) rendered into chips; or (6) rendered into shakes or shingles conforming to the uniform building code as in effect in this state. Any timber harvested but not processed at the end of the two year period remains the property of the owner at that time (the buyer of harvested timber paid for; the state of harvested timber not paid for)."

Mr. King (R) spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Owen, Nisbet and Rosbach spoke against it.

Mr. King (R) spoke again in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Lundquist.

Mr. Lundquist: "Representative Martinis, you've been involved in this issue for a number of years. What would you have to say about the constitutionality of this amendment as it relates to domestic processing?"

Mr. Martinis: "Representative Lundquist, the domestic processing issue, while I was chairman of the House Natural Resources Committee, was before the committee, and at that time the Honorable Slade Gorton was Attorney General, and I asked for an opinion from the Attorney General's office on the constitutionality of limiting state timber to only domestic processing rather than going to the export market. That opinion, at that time, in essence said it was unconstitutional. Last year, after the Alaska case on the domestic processing and on the question again of The Honorable Ken Eikenberry, now Attorney General of the State of Washington, and it was a much clearer opinion at that time—there is very definitely a constitutional question on requiring domestic processing only of state timber. The Alaska case was very clear, concise, very parallel to the bills that were before the House Natural Resources Committee. The Alaska case went to the U.S. District Court in Alaska and it was clearly ruled unconstitutional."

Mr. Lundquist spoke against the amendment.

Mr. Struthers demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative King (R) to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 53; not voting, 4.

Mr. McDonald moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, beginning on line 9 strike all material down to and including 'act.' on page 6, line 39 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. McDonald spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Greengo, are there instances in case law that are roughly equivalent that would have something similar to a default portion, and what are they, and what was the outcome?"

Mr. Greengo: "Yes, Representative McDonald, there was a case in 1975 of Tacoma versus O'Brien, in which, due to the increase in the price of oil, firms bidding on road construction contracts were attempting to get out of their contracts, and the Washington State Legislature passed a law saying that if the prices of asphalt had risen by more than twenty percent, the state could elect either to let the firm out of its contract entirely or absorb eighty percent of the increase in the costs. This was thrown out of court based on the fact that it was an unconstitutional giving of the state's money."

Mr. Chandler spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Williams spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Greengo, apparently we are in the state's worst fiscal crisis since the Great Depression. I'm wondering what effect allowing default might have on the state's bond rating and our credit rating?"

Mr. Greengo: "Well, Representative Padden, all I know is what I've heard the bankers who have come in to talk to our various caucuses tell us—both the Seattle bankers and the ones from New York, and in addition, in September, I was back to a debt management conference. The message I got was that any action the state takes will be viewed in entirety, and if we're defaulting on moneys that could be coming in, or at least a portion of them that could be coming into the general fund, it certainly can't be a positive effect."

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Taylor and Garson spoke against it.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Lundquist, Rosbach, Martinis, Owen, Chandler and Scott to the committee amendment:
On page 6, following line 39 insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If a timber sale contract otherwise eligible for extension or default under sections 3 through 6 of this act is in default, it may be extended by paying the extension fee at the rate provided under the contract of sale from the date of the expiration of the contract, or from the date of the last extension, to the date of application for extension or default under sections 3 through 6 of this act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and make any internal references accordingly.

Mr. Lundquist spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. McDonald spoke against it.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Lundquist and others to page 6 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 64; nays, 31; not voting, 3.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The bill was read the second time.

(For amendment, see Journal, 57th Day, March 8, 1982.)

On motion of Mr. Williams, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Martinis moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Martinis and Wilson:

On page 108 after line 18 add sections as follows:

Mr. Dawson moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 101, after line 18 insert the following:

When state aquatic lands and harbor areas are used or leased for a dock to be used for personal recre­ational use by the upland owner, no rent or fee of any nature shall be charged."

Mr. Dawson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Greengo spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dawson yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "Representative Dawson, you referred to the current practice of the department with regard to these leases and rentals. Is that practice established in the statutes or in the administrative code?"

Mr. Dawson: "Representative Thompson, I'm unsure as to the last part; however, the information I have is that the Department of Natural Resources, in this last year, attempted to establish lease fees or rental fees for private docks. They took that particular measure to the Legislative Review Committee for their approval, so I assume that we did not have statutory authority or lacked authority to do so. They were turned down, I understand, by the Legislative Review Committee."

Mr. Thompson spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of it.

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Ms. Rosbach, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Martinis, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 7, the last line of the title, insert "; declaring an emergency; providing an effective date;"

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Fees need not be paid in advance of appearance of witnesses to testify or to produce books, records, or other legal evidence.

In case of disobedience of any person to comply with the order of the board or a subpoena issued by the board, or any of its members, or administrative law judges, or on the refusal of a witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the judge of the superior court of the county in which the person resides, on application of any member of the board or administrative law judge, shall compel obedience by contempt proceedings, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from said court or a refusal to testify therein.

Upon receipt of notice of the suspension or cancellation of a license, the licensee shall forthwith deliver up the license to the board. Where the license has been suspended only, the board shall return the license to the licensee at the expiration or termination of the period of suspension, with a memorandum of the suspension written or stamped upon the face thereof in red ink. The board shall notify all vendors in the city or place where the licensee has its premises of the suspension or cancellation of the license; and no employee may allow or cause any liquor to be delivered to or for any person at the premises of that licensee.

(ii) Existing business; distributed evenly on a monthly basis throughout the year.
(iii) New businesses; expiration date shall be adjusted as required to conform to a date simultaneous to the majority of the applicant's business branches.
(iv) Supplemental license(s); shall expire on the same date as the master.
(b) The board will consider requests from applicants for exceptions to assigned renewal dates. Approval shall be at the discretion of the board.

c) All applications shall be submitted with a full year's fee for the type of license or certificate of approval for which the type of application is intended.

d) All licenses or certificates of approval presently issued and covered under this title unless sooner discontinued or canceled shall be assigned not later than July 1, 1983, a license expiration date.

(e) Licenses issued under the provisions of RCW 66.24.310, as now or hereafter amended, are excluded from provisions of this subsection and unless sooner canceled shall expire at midnight of the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which issued.

(6) Every license issued under this section shall be subject to all conditions and restrictions imposed by this title or by the regulations in force from time to time.

(7) Every licensee shall post and keep posted its license, or licenses, in a conspicuous place on the premises.

(8) Before the board shall issue a license to an applicant it shall give notice of such application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application be for a license within an incorporated city or town, or to the county legislative authority, if the application be for a license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns; and such incorporated city or town, through the official or employee selected by it, or the county legislative authority or the official or employee selected by it, shall have the right to file with the board within twenty days after date of transmission of such notice, written objections against the applicant or against the premises for which the license is asked, and shall include with such objections a statement of all facts upon which such objections are based, and in case written objections are filed, may request and the liquor control board may in its discretion hold a formal hearing subject to the applicable provisions of Title 34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Upon the granting of a license under this title the board shall send a duplicate of the license or written notification to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the county legislative authority if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(9) Before the board issues any license to any applicant, it shall give (a) due consideration to the location of the business to be conducted under such license with respect to the proximity of churches, schools, and public institutions; (b) written notice by certified mail of the application to churches, schools, and public institutions within five hundred feet of the premises to be licensed. The board shall issue no beer retailer license class A, B, D, or E or wine retailer license class C or F or class H license covering any premises not now licensed, if such premises are within five hundred feet of the premises of any church, parochial, or tax-supported public elementary or secondary school measured along the most direct route over or across established public walks, streets, or other public passageway from the outer property line of the church or school grounds to the nearest public entrance of the premises proposed for license, unless and if, after receipt by the school, church, or public institution of the notice as provided in this subsection, the board receives written notice, within twenty days after posting such notice, from an official representative or representatives of the schools and/or churches within five hundred feet of said proposed licensed premises, indicating to the board that there is an objection to the issuance of such license because of proximity to a school or church. For the purpose of this section, church mean a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection therewith.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4559, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 10, 1982

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4603, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Ways and Means, providing the means for the payment of public indebtedness on public improvements. Reported by Committee on Revenue.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be known and cited as the Community Redevelopment Financing Act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DECLARATION. It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to promote and facilitate the orderly development and economic stability of its urban areas. The provision of adequate government services and the creation of employment opportunities for the citizens within urban areas depends upon the economic growth and the strength of their tax base. The construction of necessary public improvements in accordance with local community planning will encourage investment in job-producing private development and will expand the public tax base.

It is the purpose of this chapter to allocate a portion of regular property taxes for limited periods of time to assist in the financing of public improvements which are needed to encourage private development of urban areas; to prevent or arrest the decay of urban areas due to the inability of existing financing methods to provide needed public improvements; to encourage local taxing districts to cooperate in the allocation of future tax revenues arising in urban areas in order to facilitate the long-term growth of their common tax base; and to encourage private investment within urban areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter the following terms have the following meanings unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(1) 'Apportionment district' means the geographic area, within an urban area, from which regular property taxes are to be apportioned to finance a public improvement contained therein.

(2) 'Assessed value of real property' means the valuation of real property as placed on the last completed assessment roll of the county.

(3) 'City' means any city or town.

(4) 'Ordinance' means any appropriate method of taking a legislative action by a county or city, whether known as a statute, resolution, ordinance, or otherwise.

(5) 'Public improvement' means an undertaking to provide public facilities in an urban area which the sponsor has authority to provide.

(6) 'Public improvement costs' means the costs of design, planning, acquisition, site preparation, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, and installation of the public improvement; costs of relocation, maintenance, and operation of property pending construction of the public improvement; costs of utilities relocated as a result of the public improvement; costs of financing, including interest during construction, legal and other professional services, taxes, and insurance; costs incurred by the assessor to revalue real property for the purpose of determining the tax allocation base value that are in excess of costs incurred by the assessor in accordance with his revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW, and the costs of apportioning the taxes and complying with this chapter and other applicable law; and administrative costs reasonably necessary and related to these costs. These costs may include costs incurred prior to the adoption of the public improvement ordinance, but subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(7) 'Public improvement ordinance' means the ordinance passed under section 5(4) of this act.

(8) 'Regular property taxes' means regular property taxes as now or hereafter defined in RCW 84.04-.140, except regular property taxes levied by port districts or public utility districts specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

(9) 'Sponsor' means any county or city initiating and undertaking a public improvement.

(10) 'Tax allocation base value of real property' means the true and fair value of real property within an apportionment district for the year in which the apportionment district was established.

(11) 'Tax allocation bonds' means any bonds, notes, or other obligations issued by a sponsor pursuant to section 10 of this act.

(12) 'Tax allocation revenues' means those tax revenues allocated to a sponsor under section 8(1)(b) of this act.

(13) 'Taxing districts' means any governmental entity which levies or has levied for it regular property taxes upon real property located within a proposed or approved apportionment district.

(14) 'Value of taxable property' means value of taxable property as defined in RCW 39.36.015.

(15) 'Urban area' means an area in a city or located outside of a city that is characterized by intensive use of the land for the location of structures and receiving such urban services as sewers, water, and other public utilities and services normally associated with urbanized areas. Not more than twenty-five percent of the area within the urban area proposed apportionment district may be vacant land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. AUTHORITY—LIMITATIONS. (1) Only public improvements which are determined by the legislative authority of the sponsor to meet the following criteria are eligible to be financed under this chapter:

(a) The public improvement is located within an urban area;
(b) The public improvement will encourage private development within the apportionment district;
(c) The public improvement will increase the fair market value of the real property located within the apportionment district;
(d) The private development which is anticipated to occur within the apportionment district as a result of the public improvement is consistent with an existing comprehensive land use plan and approved growth policies of the jurisdiction within which it is located;
(e) A public improvement located within a city has been approved by the legislative authority of such city; and
(f) A public improvement located within an urban area in an unincorporated area has been approved by the legislative authority of the county within whose boundaries the area lies.

(2) Apportionment of regular property tax revenues to finance the public improvements is subject to the following limitations:

(a) No apportionment of regular property tax revenues may take place within a previously established apportionment district where regular property taxes are still apportioned to finance public improvements without the concurrence of the sponsor which established the district;
(b) No apportionment district may be established which includes any geographic area included within a previously established apportionment district which has outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues;
(c) The total amount of outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues arising from property located within a city shall not exceed two percent of the value of taxable property within the city, and the total amount of outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues arising from property located within the unincorporated areas of a county shall not exceed two percent of the value of taxable property within the entire unincorporated area of the county; and
(d) No taxes other than regular property taxes may be apportioned under this chapter.

(3) Public improvements may be undertaken and coordinated with other programs or efforts undertaken by the sponsor or others and may be funded in whole or in part from sources other than those provided by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTION OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT. Public improvements funded by tax allocation revenues may only be located within an urban area. In order to secure an allocation of regular property taxes to finance a public improvement, a sponsor shall:

(1) Propose by ordinance a plan for the public improvement which includes a description of the contemplated public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the boundaries of the apportionment district, the estimated period during which tax revenue apportionment is contemplated, and the ways in which the sponsor plans to use tax allocation revenues to finance the public improvement, and which sets at least three public hearings thereon before the legislative authority of the sponsor or a committee thereof: PROVIDED, That public hearings for the public improvement that is undertaken in combination or coordination by two or more sponsors may be held jointly; and public hearings, held before the legislative authority or a committee of a majority thereof may be combined with public hearings held for other purposes;

(2) At least fifteen days in advance of the hearing:
(a) Deliver notice of the hearing to all taxing districts, the county treasurer, and the county assessor, which notice includes a map or drawing showing the location of the contemplated public improvement and the boundaries of the proposed apportionment district, a brief description of the public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the anticipated increase in property values within the apportionment district, the location of the sponsor's principal business office where it will maintain information concerning the public improvement for public inspection, and the date and place of hearing; and

(b) Post notice in at least six public places located in the proposed apportionment district and publish notice in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the sponsor's jurisdiction briefly describing the public improvement, the proposed apportionment, the boundaries of the proposed apportionment district, the location where additional information concerning the public improvement may be inspected, and the date and place of hearing;

(3) At the time and place fixed for the hearing under subsection (1) of this section, and at such times to which the hearing may be adjourned, receive and consider all statements and materials as may be submitted, and objections and letters filed before or within ten days thereafter;

(4) Within one hundred twenty days after completion of the public hearings, pass an ordinance establishing the apportionment district and authorizing the proposed public improvement, including any modifications which in the sponsor's opinion the hearings indicated should be made, which includes the boundaries of the apportionment district, a description of the public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the portion of the estimated cost thereof to be reimbursed from tax allocation revenues, the estimated time during which regular property taxes are to be apportioned, the date upon which apportionment of the regular property taxes will commence, and a finding that the public improvement meets the conditions of section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. NOTICE OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT. Within fifteen days after enactment of the public improvement ordinance, the sponsor shall publish notice in a legal newspaper circulated within the designated apportionment district summarizing the final public improvement, including a brief description of the public improvement, the boundaries of the apportionment district, and the location where the public improvement ordinance and any other information concerning the public improvement may be inspected.

Within fifteen days after enactment of the public improvement ordinance, the sponsor shall deliver a certified copy thereof to each taxing district, the county treasurer, and the county assessor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DISAGREEMENTS BETWEEN TAXING DISTRICTS. (1) Any taxing district that objects to the apportionment district, the duration of the apportionment, the manner of apportionment, or the propriety of cost items established by the public improvement ordinance of the sponsor may, within thirty days after receipt of the ordinance, petition for review thereof by the state board of tax appeals. The state board of tax appeals shall meet within a reasonable time, hear all the evidence presented by the parties on matters in dispute, and determine the issues upon the evidence as may be presented to it at the hearing. The board may approve or deny the public improvement ordinance as enacted or may grant approval conditioned upon modification of the ordinance by the sponsor. The decision by the state board of tax appeals shall be final and conclusive but shall not preclude modification or discontinuation of the public improvement.

(2) If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be effective without further hearings or findings and shall not be subject to any further appeal. If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance in a manner other than as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be subject to the procedures established pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. APPORTIONMENT OF TAXES. (1) Upon the date established in the public improvement ordinance, but not sooner than the first day of the calendar year following the passage of the ordinance, the regular property taxes levied upon the assessed value of real property within the apportionment district shall be divided as follows:

(a) That portion of the regular property taxes produced by the rate of tax levied each year by or for each of the taxing districts upon the tax allocation base value of real property, or upon the assessed value of real property in each year, whichever is smaller, shall be allocated to and paid to the respective taxing districts; and

(b) That portion of the regular property taxes levied each year by or for each of the taxing districts upon the assessed value of real property within an apportionment district which is in excess of the tax allocation base value of real property shall be allocated and paid to the sponsor, or the sponsor's designated agent, until all public improvement costs to be paid from the tax allocation revenues have been paid, except that the sponsor may agree to receive less than the full amount of such portion as long as bond debt service, reserve, and other bond covenant requirements are satisfied, in which case the balance of the taxes shall be allocated to the respective taxing districts as the sponsor and the taxing districts may agree.

(2) The county assessor shall revalue the real property within the apportionment district for the purpose of determining the tax allocation base value for the apportionment district and shall certify to the sponsor the tax allocation base value as soon as practicable after the assessor receives notice of the public improvement or incurrence and shall certify to the sponsor the total assessed value of real property within thirty days after the property values for each succeeding year have been established, except that the assessed value of state-assessed real property within the apportionment district shall be certified as soon as the values are provided to the assessor by the department of revenue. Nothing in this section authorizes revaluations of real property by the assessor for property taxation that are not made in accordance with the assessor's revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW.

(3) The date upon which the apportionment district was established shall be considered the date upon which the public improvement ordinance was enacted by the sponsor.
(4) The apportionment of regular property taxes under this section shall cease when tax allocation revenues are no longer necessary or obligated to pay public improvement costs or to pay principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance public improvement costs and payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues. At the time of termination of the apportionment, any excess money and any earnings thereon held by the sponsor shall be returned to the county treasurer and distributed to the taxing districts which were subject to the allocation in proportion to their regular property tax levies due for the year in which the funds are returned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. APPLICATION OF TAX ALLOCATION REVENUES. Tax allocation revenues may be applied as follows:

1. To pay public improvement costs;
2. To pay principal of and interest on, and to fund any necessary reserves for, tax allocation bonds;
3. To pay into bond funds established to pay the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued pursuant to law to finance public facilities that are specified in the public improvement ordinance and constructed following the establishment of and within the apportionment district; or
4. To pay any combination of the foregoing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. TAX ALLOCATION BONDS. (1) A sponsor may issue such tax allocation bonds as it may deem appropriate for the financing of public improvement costs and a reasonable bond reserve and for the refunding of any outstanding tax allocation bonds.

2. The principal and interest of tax allocation bonds may be made payable from:
   a. Tax allocation revenues;
   b. Project revenues which may include (i) nontax income, revenues, fees, and rents from the public improvement financed with the proceeds of the bonds, or portions thereof, and (ii) contributions, grants, and nontax money available to the sponsor for payment of costs of the public improvement or the debt service of the bonds issued therefor;
   c. Any combination of the foregoing.

3. Tax allocation bonds shall not be the general obligation of or guaranteed by all or any part of the full faith and credit of the sponsor or any other state or local government, or any tax revenues other than tax allocation revenues, and shall not be considered a debt of the sponsor or other state or local government for general indebtedness limitation purposes.

4. The terms and conditions of tax allocation bonds may include provisions for the following matters, among others:
   a. The date of issuance, maturity date or dates, denominations, form, series, negotiability, registration, rank or priority, place of payment, interest rate or rates which may be fixed or may vary over the life of the tax allocation bonds, bond reserve, coverage, and such other terms related to repayment of the tax allocation bonds;
   b. The application of tax allocation bond proceeds; the use, sale, or disposition of property acquired; consideration or rents and fees to be charged in the sale or lease of property acquired; consideration or rents and fees to be charged in the sale or lease of property within a public improvement; the application of rents, fees, and revenues within a public improvement; the maintenance, insurance, and replacement of property within a public improvement; other encumbrances, if any, upon all or part of property within a public improvement, then existing or thereafter acquired; and the type of debts that may be incurred;
   c. The creation of special funds; the money to be so applied; and the use and disposition of the money;
   d. The securing of the tax allocation bonds by a pledge of property and property rights, by assignment of income generated by the public improvement, or by pledging such additional specifically described resources other than tax revenues as are available to the sponsor;
   e. The terms and conditions for redemption;
   f. The replacement of lost and destroyed bond instruments;
   g. Procedures for amendment of the terms and conditions of the tax allocation bonds;
   h. The powers of a trustee to enforce covenants and take other actions in event of default; the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach of any covenant, condition, or obligation; and
   i. When consistent with the terms of this chapter, such other terms, conditions, and provisions which may make the tax allocation bonds more marketable and further the purposes of this chapter.

5. Tax allocation bonds may be issued and sold in such manner as the legislative authority of the sponsor shall determine.

6. The sponsor may also issue or incur obligations in anticipation of the receipt of tax allocation bond proceeds or other money available to pay public improvement costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 84.55 RCW a new section to read as follows:

ADJUSTMENT TO TAX LIMITATION. Pursuant to chapter 39.... RCW (sections 1 through 10 and 12 through 15 of this act), any increase in the assessed value of real property within an apportionment district resulting from new construction, improvements to property, or any increase in the assessed value of state-assessed property shall not be included in the increase in assessed value resulting from new construction, improvements, or any increase in the assessed value of state-assessed property for purposes of calculating any limitations upon regular property taxes under this chapter until the termination of apportionment as set forth in section 8(4) of this act, as now or hereafter amended, except to the extent a taxing district actually will receive the taxes levied upon this value. Tax allocation revenues, as defined in section 3 of this act, as now or hereafter amended, shall not be deemed to be 'regular property taxes' for purposes of this chapter.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. LEGAL INVESTMENTS. Tax allocation bonds authorized in this chapter shall be legal investments for any of the funds of the state and of municipal corporations, for trustees, and for other fiduciaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. NOTICE TO STATE. Whenever notice is required to be given to the state, notice shall be given to the director of revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CONCLUSIVE PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY. No direct or collateral attack on any public improvement, public improvement ordinance, or apportionment district purported to be authorized or created in conformance with applicable legal requirements, including the requirements of this chapter, may be commenced more than thirty days after publication of notice as required by section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. SUPPLEMENTAL NATURE OF CHAPTER. This chapter supplements and neither restricts nor limits any powers which the state or any municipal corporation might otherwise have under any laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. CAPTIONS NOT PART OF LAW. As used in this act, captions constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 10 and 12 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 42, by Representatives Rosbach, Martinis, Nisbet, Owen, Lundquist, North, Chamberlain, Stratton, Vander Stoep, Mitchell, Dawson, Erak, Barr and Garson:

Requesting modification of state timber sales procedures.

The resolution was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Rosbach, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 27 after "sales" insert "volume"

Ms. Rinehart moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, line 16 after "trusts;" insert "and

WHEREAS, It is in the interests of the human communities and natural resource base of the state that an assured supply of timber from state-owned lands be available over time; and

WHEREAS, RCW 79.68.040 directs the department of natural resources to manage state-owned forest lands on a sustained yield basis; and

WHEREAS, No area of the state should incur a prolonged cessation or curtailment of harvest from state timber lands;

On page 2, after line 5 insert:

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in carrying out the state timber sale program, the department of natural resources shall apply the sustained yield concept as defined in RCW 79.68.030 to each department administrative area."

Ms. Rinehart spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Rosbach and Chamberlain spoke against them.

Ms. Rinehart spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Ms. Rosbach again opposed them.

Representatives Barr and Martinis spoke against the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rinehart yielded to question by Ms. Cole.

Ms. Cole: "Representative Rinehart, would you define what 'sustained yield' is?"

Ms. Rinehart: "Yes, Representative Cole, the word—word definition out of the statute, rather than being an outmoded concept, is current law and this is simply what it says: 'Sustained yield is management of the forests to provide harvesting on a continuing basis without major prolonged curtailment or cessation of harvest.'"
The amendment was not adopted.

Ms. Rinehart moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 20 after "than" strike "seven hundred and fifty million board feet of timber per year" and insert "eighty percent of the yearly allowable cut"

Ms. Rinehart spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lundquist spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives McDonald, Padden and Taylor:
On page 1, line 21 after the comma strike "plus" and insert "including"

With the consent of the House, Mr. McDonald withdrew the amendment.

The resolution was ordered engrossed. On motion of Ms. Fancher, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Representatives Rosbach and Owen spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Hastings demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Barr spoke in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rosbach yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Rosbach, I notice on the bill report that the department did not testify. Could you tell me what their opinion is on this resolution? Will they honor the resolution?"

Ms. Rosbach: "The department did testify. I read a transcript from the Senate hearing on it. They agreed to the provisions in the concurrent resolution during the hearing."

Mr. Nelson (D): "How does this cutting program differ from the plan they had previously?"

Ms. Rosbach: "They have said they were going to harvest 759 million board feet annually, and that has not been their past performance. They had harvested 758, 734, 829, 744—and so on, but then in 1978, they sold 413 million board feet and in 1981, 436; 1980, 893. They've not had a sustained yield basis. This is legislative intent, and we did not put it in the bill because we want to give them some latitude. It is legislative intent that they will offer for sale what their sustained yield basis has been."

Mr. Nelson (D): "In looking at the final resolve, it says that any timber sales offered during the calendar years of 1982 and 1983 should be appraised at the then current market prices for manufacturing timber into lumber products. It doesn't really say that we're going to receive the current price. I'm not sure what that resolve really says. Could you explain it to me?"

Ms. Rosbach: "The present policy is that the appraised value is based on manufactured lumber, plywood, shakes and shingles on the domestic market. That is the present policy. We've put that in the resolution even though it is present policy because we do not want it to be based on the export market. If it were based on the export market, the price would be so high that none would sell probably. This is present policy."

Mr. Nelson (D): "I guess I'm wondering what it means in terms of the sales and the prices the state receives. Maybe you can explain what kind of price the state will receive? Will it receive the depressed prices that are in the lumber products market right now?"

Ms. Rosbach: "We will receive a good market price—a price in which people can afford to build and manufacture and produce and put the people back to work. If it is a low price—say the appraised value is $175 and it doesn't come up to that price—they don't have to offer it for sale."

Representatives Nelson (D) and Sommers spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Martinis, Barr, Flanagan and Rosbach spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 74; nays, 22; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Armstrong, Becker.

Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42, having received the constitutional majority, was declared adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Chandler yielded to question by Mr. Heck.

Mr. Heck: "Representative Chandler, I wonder if you could enlighten the body as to the effect of this change on the levy lid capacity as it relates to grants out of districts?"

Mr. Chandler: "There's no way to know what the fiscal impact would be because this simply gives districts the option to do this. It would depend on how many of them utilize the option."

Mr. Heck: "Did anybody do a run on what the increased capacity would be? Do we have any idea what the potential impact is?"

Mr. Chandler: "It's an impossible question to answer, Representative Heck. No, we don't have any runs on it. We're talking about local funds. The impact it would have to the state would be a positive one this biennium, maybe, and a negative next, but other than that there's really no way to answer it."

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 127, by Senators Metcalf, Vognild, Rasmussen, Moore, McCaslin, Pullen, Guess, Hansen, Bauer, Lysen, Craswell and Fuller:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in the event either or both of these actions are lost, then the Senate, from the funds that have been or shall be appropriated for Senate operations, (1) shall reimburse the office of attorney general for the entire cost of the lost action or actions and (2) shall pay any court costs and damages charged against the state in such lost action or actions: PROVIDED, That no supplementary appropriation or other budgetary consideration may be made to offset the entire cost of such reimbursement and/or payment from being borne exclusively by the Senate and not directly or indirectly by state taxpayers through increased appropriations to the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, could we have a ruling on the scope and object of these amendments?"

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. AMEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding): "Representative Padden, the first amendment is within the scope and object, and the second one relates directly to the lawsuit which is requested by the resolution, so the Speaker would rule it is within the scope and object."

Representatives Dawson and Nisbet spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Eberle, Addison, Patrick, Salatino and Bond spoke against them.

Mr. Brown demanded an electric roll call vote on the amendments, and the demand was sustained.
Mr. Dawson spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Williams opposed them.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Dawson to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 127, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays, 79; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Barrett, Thompson.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Representatives Eberle and O'Brien spoke in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eberle yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "If this joint resolution passes, what would be the result? What would it accomplish?"

Mr. Eberle: "Representative Flanagan, I think what we have done is to express the intent of the legislature. I don't think there would be any suit filed until further action was taken by the legislature, but this clearly expresses the intent of the legislature. I think, for our part, the important thing to remember is that it sends a clear message to the Federal Reserve."

Mr. Flanagan: "I still don't see where you said what it accomplishes. You said sending a message to the Federal Reserve with some vague intent, but I don't know what the intent is. Could you answer that?"

Mr. Eberle: "The intent is two-fold. Number one: The question of constitutionality of the Congress delegating the authority to create money to private organizations or a private commission run by a major U.S. Bank; and number two: To ask for an audit of that organization which has never been performed since 1913."

Representatives Flanagan and Dawson spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Hastings and Addison spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Williams, I have a little concern. I've heard people say, and I read, that it is the intent of our filing this document that a suit will be filed. I heard Representative Eberle's answer to a question a minute ago that this has no impact on any suit being filed. And now if I may, may I ask you, as another person who has studied this, will or will we not be mandating a suit by the state of Washington if this is passed?"

Mr. Williams: "That would be the decision of the Attorney General. I would sincerely hope that we would, but it would be his decision."

Representatives Nisbet, Grimm and Barnes spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Walk, Heck, Patrick and Lux spoke in favor of it.

Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 127 was adopted.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Berleen yielded to question by Ms. Hine.

Ms. Hine: "Representative Berleen, I believe that permission must be granted from general purpose government before this can cross. Is that true?"

Ms. Berleen: "Yes, Representative Hine, right now cities and counties must approve these projects before they can be built within their jurisdiction. It says that in RCW 43.99F.020. My amendment would extend this same approval to water and sewer districts."

Ms. Hine spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Berleen spoke again in favor of it.

On page 2, line 20 after "investment board" insert "and that prior to paying and delivering state funds the state treasurer shall require that the issuing corporation shall deliver to the public deposit protection commission securities enumerated in RCW 39.58.050 having a market value of not less than one hundred and ten percent of the maturity value of any such note or other commercial paper as a pledge of collateral to guarantee repayment of the public funds thus invested by the state treasurer"

Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Struthers, in your remarks you were speaking to the policy of not investing outside the state, but the amendment doesn't speak to that issue. It simply states that if our Treasurer, the guardian of our state taxpayer money, made a decision to purchase one of these securities, he would have to put up a guarantee of one hundred and ten percent of maturity value. What effect would that have on investments and the liquid position of our state funds?"

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Sommers, if you were to pass this amendment there would not be the ability, for those people who would offer the thirty–one day notes, to fulfill what this would require—the one hundred ten percent. Therefore, this is a very substantial striking amendment to the bill.

Ms. Sommers spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "Representative Struthers, after you read this into your dictaphone and had it typed, did you run it by the commercial bankers to make sure it was all right?"

Mr. Struthers: "Yes, I believe this is the one I did happen to run by one of the bankers that I passed in the hall."

On page 1, line 24 after subsection (c) insert:

"(d) Assaults a person sixty years of age or older; or"

(e) Assaults a handicapped person. As used in this section 'handicapped person' means a person who is disabled because of the loss of or permanent loss of use of a hand or foot or because of blindness or the permanent impairment of vision in both eyes to such a degree as to constitute blindness as defined in RCW 74.16.030(1)."
Representatives Tilly and Sanders spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Ellis and Patrick spoke against them.

Mr. Tilly spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Nelson (D) spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tilly yielded to question by Mr. Heck.

Mr. Heck: "Representative Tilly, as I read this proposed amendment, especially in subsection (e), the definition of handicapped appears to be extremely narrow, including only those who have a permanent loss of a hand or foot or are blind. You indicated that other states have proceeded on this course, and I am wondering if this is picked up from model legislation or if any other states have actually adopted this exact language?"

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Heck, it's almost word for word with what Colorado has adopted. I could show it to you or read it to you, whatever you would like."

Mr. Heck spoke against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Nelson (G) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Tilly to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4483, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

(4) The perimeter of the premises of the school shall be posted at reasonable intervals to alert the public as to the existence of the prohibitions of this act.""

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Nelson (G): "Mr. Speaker, I would raise a point of order on scope and object of this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. HASTINGS PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Hastings presiding): "Representative Nelson, the bill title is an act dealing with assault. The amendment has something to do with handguns. The amendment has nothing to do with assault or transiets; therefore, your point is well taken and the amendment is out of order."
On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patrick yielded to question by Ms. Maxie.

Ms. Maxie: "Representative Patrick, I appreciate your knowledge about the subject. I was wondering if you could give us the percentage of women who are bus drivers in the metropolitan area?"

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Sanders spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

"Sec. 3. Section 8, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 54, Laws of 1977 and RCW 90.62.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by any final decision of a state agency, as defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended, contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to RCW 90.62.060(6) may obtain review thereof by filing a request, with the board, within thirty days of the transmittal under RCW 90.62.060(6) by the department of ecology of the document, for all final decisions other than a final decision relating to the granting or denial of a substantial development permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 in which case the filing of such request shall be with the shorelines hearings board. Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the board shall review all final decisions other than a final decision on a substantial development permit which shall be reviewed by the shorelines hearings board. In the event a request for review includes a final decision involving a substantial development permit and other permits, there shall be single staged hearing of the permits by the boards. The board shall be authorized to adopt rules and regulations implementing such staged hearings and the filing of requests so as to eliminate all unnecessary duplication.

(2) Any hearing held pursuant to this section by the pollution control hearings board or the shorelines hearings board or by the boards jointly shall be a de novo quasi judicial hearing and shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) The board or boards shall make written findings of fact based upon a preponderance of the evidence and shall prepare written conclusions of law and an order, which order may affirm with or without condition, remand for further proceedings, or reverse the appealed decision in accordance with the findings and conclusions.

(4) Judicial review of decisions of the boards shall be controlled by RCW 43.21B.180 through 43.21B.200 except as they relate to decisions pertaining to substantial development permits under RCW 90.58.140 which shall be controlled by RCW 90.58.180.

(5) (a) Any person aggrieved by and desiring to appeal any final decision of a local government contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to RCW 90.62.060(6) as now or hereafter amended shall obtain review thereof in the same manner as would apply had the local government not utilized the procedures provided by this chapter.

(b) The provisions of subsection (5)(a) of this section shall not apply to a decision concerning any permit required by a 'state agency' as that term is defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended.

(6) The board shall keep a record of all appeals of amendments or revisions to shoreline master programs that have been reviewed by the shorelines hearings board. If a request for review of a final decision of a state agency is filed for a proposed project or activity that would be constructed or conducted within the area of land or water governed by such an amendment or revision, the board shall relinquish jurisdiction to the shorelines hearings board which shall review the request. For the purposes of this section, the phrase 'area of land or water' applies, but is not limited to applying, to marine lands or waters lying not more than six hundred feet seaward from the line of ordinary high tide of lands that are governed by such a revision or amendment and are adjacent to tidal saltwater."
Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, line 10 after "thereto" and before the period insert "economic vitality of the state."

On page 8, after line 36 insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the department made within one year prior to the effective date of this act, that rejected, conditionally approved, or approved proposed adjustments to a local government master program may seek review by the shorelines hearings board of such decision by filing a request for the same with the board if a request for review is filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act. The review by the shorelines hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The shorelines hearings board shall consider if the proposed adjustment is consistent with the policies of chapter 90.58 RCW in accordance with that chapter as now or hereafter amended, and shall specifically include the contemplation of maintaining and promoting the economic vitality of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any adjustment to its master program made after the effective date of this act, by a local government shall become effective sixty days after its adoption without approval by the department, except when an appeal is filed as hereinafter provided. An adjustment may only be adopted by the local government if, prior to its adoption, a public hearing was held on the proposal. At least three weeks prior to this hearing the local government proposing to adjust its master program shall provide written notification of the proposal to the department. The department, as the primary state agency responsible for the administration of this chapter, shall both notify other affected state agencies of the proposal and provide advice and counsel to the local government proposing the adjustments. After a local government adopts an adjustment to its master program, it shall immediately send a copy of its adjustment to the department. The department shall send copies of the adjustment to any state agency which may have an interest in the adjustment.

During this sixty-day period any state agency or any aggrieved person may appeal such adjustment to the shorelines hearings board as not being consistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW, except that an appeal to the superior court from a final decision of the hearings board shall only be made to the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located, and venue for any such action shall lie in that county. The review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located. The board, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the aggrieved party or agency, shall make a balanced determination of the validity of the state government's ordinances in light of the policies and standards for implementation set forth in the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the shorelines hearings board under sections 3 or 4 of this act may, within thirty days of that decision, seek judicial review thereof by filing a petition in the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustments is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the hearing required to be held by a local government seeking to adjust its master program is conducted as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW and a record is made of that hearing, the shorelines hearings board shall be confined to a review of that record. In any other circumstance, the shorelines hearings board may conduct a de novo hearing on the local government adjustment and may conduct the hearing as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.19.020. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with sections 3, 4, and 5 of this 1982 act: (1) RCW 34.04.090, 34.04.100, and 34.04.105 do not apply to the review by the shorelines hearings board on proposed adjustments to a local government master program; and (2) RCW 34.04.130 does not apply to the superior court where review of a final decision by the shorelines hearings board on proposed adjustments to a local government master program may be sought. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each repealed. This section shall take effect only if section 11, chapter ... (ESB 4831), Laws of 1982 fails to become law. If that section does become law, this section shall be of no force or effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the amendment.
SIXTIETH DAY, MARCH 11, 1982

POINT OF INQUIRY.

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Ms. Houchen.

Ms. Houchen: "Representative Van Dyken, on the first page of your amendment, on line 27 it says, '...filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act.' Doesn't that narrow it down? It seems to me it's no indication of what you just explained."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Houchen, section 3 is the grandfather provision that I referred to, whereby a county that was denied by the Department of Ecology would be able to appeal within thirty days after this bill passes and becomes law. They would be able to decide then whether or not they want to appeal the DOE denial to the Shoreline Hearings Board."

A division was called.

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Commercial vehicle' means any vehicle which is operated in more than one state and used for the transportation of persons for hire, compensation, or profit, or designed or used primarily for the transportation of property.

(2) 'Jurisdiction' means and includes a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a foreign country, and a state or province of a foreign country.

(3) 'Owner' means a person who holds the legal title to a vehicle, or in the event a vehicle is the subject of an agreement for the conditional sale thereof with the right of purchase upon performance of the conditions stated in the agreement and with an immediate right of possession vested in the conditional vendee, or in the event a vehicle is subject to a lease, contract, or other legal arrangement vesting right of possession or control, for security or otherwise, or in the event a mortgagor of a vehicle is entitled to possession, then the owner shall be deemed to be such person in whom is vested right of possession or control.

(4) 'Properly registered,' as applied to place of registration, means:

(a) The jurisdiction where the person registering the vehicle has his legal residence; or

(b) In the case of a commercial vehicle, the jurisdiction in which it is registered if the commercial enterprise in which such vehicle is used has a place of business therein, and, if the vehicle is most frequently dispatched, garaged, serviced, maintained, operated, or otherwise controlled in or from such place of business, and, the vehicle has been assigned to such place of business; or

(c) In the case of a commercial vehicle, the jurisdiction where, because of an agreement or arrangement between two or more jurisdictions, or pursuant to a declaration, the vehicle has been registered as required by said jurisdiction.

In case of doubt or dispute as to the proper place of registration of a vehicle, the department shall make the final determination, but in making such determination, may confer with departments of the other jurisdictions affected.

(5) 'Fleet' means three or more commercial vehicles: PROVIDED, That the department may require proportional registration and licensing of a fleet of less than three vehicles whenever in its judgment the interests of this state will be best served and protected thereby.

(6) The words 'department,' 'motor vehicle,' 'person,' and 'vehicle' each have the meanings ascribed to them, respectively, by RCW 46.04.690, 46.04.320, 46.04.405, and 46.04.670.
(7) 'Preceding year' means a period of twelve consecutive months fixed by the department which period shall be within the sixteen months immediately preceding the commencement of the registration or license year for which proportional registration is sought; and the department in fixing such period shall make it conform to the terms, conditions and requirements of any applicable agreement or arrangement for the proportional registration of vehicles.

(8) 'Registration year' means the period from January 1st through December 31st of each calendar year.

Sec. 19. Section 3, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 222, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.85.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"((tt)) The reciprocity commission, hereby created, shall consist of the director of licensing or a designee, the chief of the Washington state patrol or a designee, a designee of the state transportation commission; and, ex officio, the chairman and vice chairman of the legislative transportation committee or their duly designated representatives. The department shall provide such assistance and facilities to the commission as it may require. The members of the commission shall receive no additional compensation for their services except that they shall be allowed reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.040 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended (to be paid from funds made available for the use of the commission.) The ((commission)) department of licensing shall have the authority to execute agreements, arrangements, or declarations to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

"((ff)) The (reciprocity commission) department may enter into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prescribes a different definition of any terms defined in chapter 46.85 RCW. The agreement definition shall control unless appropriate exception is taken thereto.

If the (reciprocity commission) department enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prescribes a different procedure for vehicle identification, the agreement procedures shall control.

If the (reciprocity commission) department enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which requires this state to perform acts in a quasi agency relationship, the department may collect and forward applicable registration fees and applications to other jurisdictions on behalf of the applicant or on behalf of another jurisdiction and may take such other action as will facilitate the administration of such agreement.

If the (reciprocity commission) department enters into a multistate proportional registration agreement which prohibits the collection of minimum fees or taxes provided for in this chapter or elsewhere for the ownership or operation of motor vehicles, the prohibitions contained in the agreement shall control.

It is the purpose and intent of this subsection to facilitate the membership in the International Registration Plan and at the same time allow the (reciprocity commission) department to continue to participate in such agreements and compacts as may be necessary and desirable in addition to the International Registration Plan.

Sec. 20. Section 4, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.85.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The (reciprocity commission) department may enter into an agreement or arrangement with the duly authorized representatives of another jurisdiction, granting to vehicles or to owners of vehicles which are properly registered or licensed in such jurisdiction and for which evidence of compliance is supplied, benefits, privileges and exemptions from such payment, wholly or partially, of any taxes, fees, or other charges imposed upon such vehicles or owners with respect to the operation or ownership of such vehicles under the laws of this state, except gallonage taxes on motor fuels. Such an agreement or arrangement shall provide that vehicles properly registered or licensed in this state when operated upon highways of such other jurisdiction shall receive exemptions, benefits, and privileges of a similar kind or to a similar degree as are extended to vehicles properly registered or licensed in such jurisdiction when operated in this state. Each such agreement or arrangement shall, in the judgment of the (reciprocity commission) department, be in the best interest of this state and the citizens thereof and shall be fair and equitable to this state and the citizens thereof, and all of the same shall be determined on the basis and recognition of the benefits which accrue to the economy of this state from the uninterrupted flow of commerce.

Sec. 21. Section 6, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.85.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In the absence of an agreement or arrangement with another jurisdiction, the (reciprocity commission) department may examine the laws and requirements of such jurisdiction and declare the extent and nature of exemptions, benefits and privileges to be extended to vehicles properly registered or licensed in such other jurisdiction, or to the owners of such vehicles, which shall, in the judgment of the (reciprocity commission) department, be in the best interest of this state and the citizens thereof and which shall be fair and equitable to this state and the citizens thereof, and all of the same shall be determined on the basis and recognition of the benefits which accrue to the economy of this state from the uninterrupted flow of commerce.

Sec. 22. Section 10, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 114, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.85.100 are each amended to read as follows:
All agreements, arrangements, or declarations or amendments thereto shall be in writing and shall be filed ((in the office of the reciprocity commission. A copy of each agreement, arrangement or declaration, or amendment thereto, shall be filed by the reciprocity commission in the office of the director within ten days after execution or the effective date of the instrument whichever is later)) with the department. Upon becoming effective, they shall supersede the provisions of RCW 46.16.030 to the extent that they are inconsistent therewith. The department shall provide copies for public distribution upon request.

Sec. 23. Section 27, chapter 106, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.85.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((reciprocity commission)) department may require the display of a special reciprocity identification plate upon any commercial vehicle operating within this state under the provisions of any reciprocal agreement between this state and the state or other jurisdiction in which such vehicle is properly licensed: PROVIDED, That such reciprocal agreement is on file with the department: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the issuance and display of such identification plate shall not be deemed to enlarge upon, restrict, or in any manner affect the terms or conditions of such reciprocal agreement.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 82–156, by Representative Nelson, G:

BE IT RESOLVED, That a committee of three members be appointed by the Speaker to notify the Senate that the House is ready to adjourn sine die.
On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the resolution was adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

In accordance with the terms of House Resolution NO. 82–156, the Speaker appointed Representatives Gallagher, Hankins and Fiske to notify the Senate that the House was ready to adjourn sine die.

WHEREAS, There is one member of this House who has undoubtedly — due to his length of service and attentive nature — accumulated a substantial wealth of knowledge about this operation; and

WHEREAS, That knowledge probably surpasses the combined information contained in the heads of all of the other ninety-seven members of the 1982 edition of this body; and

WHEREAS, This member has served on all major legislative committees; as minority and majority leader; not to mention four terms as Speaker of the House; and

WHEREAS, It is recognized throughout these halls that there is probably no other man in the history of our great state who has ever possessed such extensive familiarity with the process of state government and parliamentary procedures; and

WHEREAS, This member has devoted a significant portion of his life to the finer things in life — like art and literature — not necessarily in that order; and

WHEREAS, After almost forty—two years as a member of this hallowed institution, this legislator has yet to place his knowledge on any sort of document available to the general public;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That John L. O'Brien, Democratic State Representative from the 35th — or is it 37th District — of King County be compelled through this document to sit down with pen and paper during the interim and begin writing a book about his experiences in this legislature; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That when this book is written the names be changed to protect the innocent; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Representative O'Brien be required to immediately respond to this demand on the floor of the House after this resolution is approved — assuming it is; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be hand delivered by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Representative O'Brien and mailed to all the members of his rather large family, so that they may also apply some pressure on him to get started on what is bound to be as good as Profiles In Courage or One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest.

Mr. Hastings moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Hastings and Nelson (G) spoke in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. O'Brien yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (G).

Mr. Nelson (G): "Representative O'Brien, as indicated by Representative Hastings, he's looking forward to your bringing forth to this body some memoirs and some items you could share with everyone in this state regarding your experiences in this legislative assembly. We're wondering if you have any idea what the cost is going to be to put that together? It might turn out that we can, perhaps, help with some appropriation—not promising, mind you—but I'm wondering if you have any idea what it will cost to put that 'rogue's volume' together?"

Mr. O'Brien: "Of course, this is all a great surprise. I have had great experiences, as I think all of us have. To be a member of this body and to be exposed to so many fine people on both sides of the aisle who come from every walk of life, all parts of our state, and the experiences and the knowledge gained by this sort of relationship is just invaluable. It makes it all worthwhile. Sometimes we get a little bit frustrated in our efforts, and we think the operation could go a little bit better and more efficiently, but ever since I've been here, we've had problems. We've had problems like this in the last days of every session.

*Getting back to your point about the costs. There's a multitude of things that have happened to me, I can assure you, in these legislative chambers—great experiences—great experiences outside these chambers, too, and some very outstanding investigations that I've been involved with over a period of time. It would be hard for me, right now, to enumerate all of them, but I've been involved in the World's Fair investigation in Seattle, John Cherberg's firing investigation up at the University of Washington, the investigation on the Port of Seattle. Of course, I was involved with the coalition that happened to me right here on the floor of the House—another great experience. The murals have been another great experience.

*Of course, in some of the earlier days I had experiences, too, like some of you people who come down here for the first time. I know what it means to come here and have the medals. The first time I came to the Legislature, I know I was very close to the Speaker of the House, and he told me the first sixty days I was going to be a king, I was going to have a medal, that everybody was just going to honor me and after the sixty days, the medals come off. We do have that kind of experience, of course, in being here in a world all of our own with the relationships that we have with each other and it's great. I think I've learned this much about it: You have to respect each and everyone's different attitudes and viewpoints. Maybe they don't coincide with yours, but when that roll call is going against you, and you see that thing popping up there red, you might as well ride with it because there's nothing you can do and maybe the next time you're going to be on the positive side.

*Anyway, I certainly appreciate this Resolution and I know Representative Hastings has talked to me about this book and putting something together. I have a great interest in the history of Washington and the now-retired Hugh Bone, who is a great historian and has a great interest in government and political science, has talked to me on the thought that some part of this should be in the record.

*I suppose one great thing that happened was the four-day filibuster in 1961 that I was involved with here. It was the longest filibuster in the history of the state. We prevailed after Avery Garrett was here and a few more, and that was also a great moment and occasion. Let me try to do it. Maybe I can get a writer out of somewhere. Many of my papers are out at the University of Washington. They asked for my records some time ago. It would be interesting, there's no question about it. I just ran into some papers the other day about some of the things that have occurred. All I can tell you is that I've had all of the honors any legislator could have, being President of the National Conference of State Legislative Leaders, like Gary Nelson talked about, and meeting so many fine people from throughout the United States. It has been a great experience and having to come here to our state on three different occasions, I was chairman of the committee that handled conventions for legislators.

*Anyway, you're a great group; leaders in your own communities and you have the conviction of power to do the things that, I think in your opinions, are right, and I know I relish the experience. I don't think any legislator could have any better experiences than I've had with people like yourselves. Even tonight I was talking about apples being shipped through the Port of Seattle, and we're talking about digging for oil. I just point this out—the great multitude of things that have happened here and the great variety of issues and topics that make it so tremendously interesting.

*I want to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart for this Resolution, and I will try to do something about the many things that have happened and the experiences I've had here in the Legislature. Thank you very much."

Representative Ehlers spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Resolution No. 82-155 was adopted.
SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 778,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 922.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of inquiry. I have in front of me the Governor's Proclamation delivered to us this evening. In his proclamation, the Governor lists those subject areas to be considered by the legislature and states this extraordinary session shall not last longer than ten days. My point of inquiry is: May the Governor limit this House to subject and/or time?"

SPEAKER'S REPLY

The Speaker: "Representative Ehlers, Article II, Section 12 of our State Constitution as amended by the 68th amendment, provides that special legislative sessions may be convened for a period not more than thirty consecutive days by proclamation of the Governor. It also provides that the resolution concerning the legislature shall specify a purpose or purposes for the convening of the special session and notes that the specification of purpose by the Governor shall be considered by the Legislature but shall not be mandatory.

In answer to your point of parliamentary inquiry, therefore, the Speaker would rule that, in accordance with the State Constitution, the Governor may not limit the subject matter that this body may consider during a special session and may not restrict the Legislature's time to act to less than the thirty days given to us by the Constitution."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House reverted to the fourth order of business.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and resolution was placed on final passage and adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 12, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted:

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 150, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 150, by Senators Hayner, Jones, Bottiger and Fleming:

Specifying subjects to be considered in 1982 First Special Session.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, and Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Mr. Ehlers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Ehlers, Heck, Grimm and King (J):

On page 1, line 5 after "issues;" insert "jobs and employment enhancement issues;"

Representatives Ehlers and Heck spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Nelson (G) spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Ehlers, Representative Nelson said that the idea behind this amendment is certainly laudable because we know that if we get people working, then the revenues will be coming in. You said that there is no specific bill, as did Representative Heck, but Representative Heck said there were several others besides Senate Bill 4661 that Representative Nelson spoke about. Could you tell me the other bills you are thinking about that we could consider?"

Mr. Ehlers: "Senate Bill 4761, which is a tax incentive; high unemployment areas, which is one of your package, I believe; House Bill 906, community revitalization board and HJR 21, community redevelopment bonds, which are also in your package— those are some of the examples and there may be additional ones. Those are the kinds of things we're talking about that we think are important. Some of them may fit under the fiscal definition, but some of our people aren't sure that they do, Representative Hastings, and we want to make sure that we don't preclude consideration of those important bills."

Mr. Hastings spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Ehlers spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Brown demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Ehlers and others to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 53; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative Padden.
On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Mr. Ehlers: "I know that there are numerous members on this floor who are historians and who always like to share with us little things from United States history and our state's history. I guess it's my turn today. I don't know if this comes under the category of 'thought you'd like to know,' or 'thought you'd like to forget,' or what the category. We have today a new record in this state. This is the 194th day in a two-year biennium, which makes it the second longest legislative session in the history. That's a factual matter. As to whether or not those 194 days are the most productive days in our history is up for some conjecture. When we're back in July and we break the Guinness Book of Records and break our all-time record, then we'll let the historians judge what we've done."

Mr. Nelson (G): "I'd like to bring to the attention of the body, if I may, a little historic-type note that the first Regular Session of this 47th Legislature of 105 days was the first time in forty years that the legislature had ever completed its business in a regular session. It is interesting to note that during the last sixty-day session an all-time record was set on the number of measures passed by any regular session in the history of the state of Washington, with 221 measures passed by this legislature. Some very notable things were accomplished that had gone by the wayside for a number of years, especially with regard to helping the people of the state of Washington in seeking jobs. I think it's an historic note that even though some of us may not have wanted to contribute to the process, the majority party was able—even through some of the rhetoric and other insults that were hurled—to be able to get through this process and finish the session in a record-breaking time frame."

The Speaker declared the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

"His green feast day gives us all a chance to wear the green of spring and life. Four days from now our old friend Winter will lose his lease on life. The green of this day foretells of rich vegetation; proclaims the fresh and new to the tired and weary; announces to one and all that Spring is on her way.

"As Patrick sent snakes slithering out of Ireland by Your blessed touch, may we each be freed from any evil in our lives. As he showered his strong compassion and care, may we, too, show that same compassion and care for our fellow citizens.

"And may justice and peace come to those troubled parts of his beloved country.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ellis yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Ellis, if I drove into Seattle and I got a parking fine and I didn't pay that, would this legislation enable the state to take away my driver's license?"

Mr. Ellis: "Representative Sanders, this bill does not relate to the driver's license at all. Existing statute tries to tie it to the driver's license, but it is the opinion that nobody's trying to enforce this; it's unconstitutional. The amendment on the bill only relates to your motor vehicle license tabs; it's not tied to the driver's license. Secondly, the basic bill puts the cap on how much penalty can be levied on any traffic violation to twenty-five dollars. That's the basic Senate bill."

Mr. Sanders: "Would the state have the authority to not renew my automobile tabs?"

Mr. Ellis: "Representative Sanders, the bill only triggers: First, if the city wants to use the process by sending notice of unpaid parking tickets to Olympia; and secondly, there has to be a minimum of three parking tickets before the procedure can be instituted. So, if there were three and that particular city had used this process, that is correct."

Mr. Sanders: "If there were three parking tickets in Seattle, for instance, this legislation would authorize the state not to grant me a renewal of my automobile tabs, so I wouldn't be able to drive the car in the state of Washington?"

Mr. Ellis: "Representative Sanders, that is not correct. The procedure is that when you receive notice for the renewal of your license tabs, it would have an entry on it of the amount of the unpaid parking tickets. You would simply pay that and you would get your tabs. So, no, it does not just automatically say that you are not going to get them. Anytime in between this time, you walked into the local agency before you got the notice, then you could pay it in the city of Seattle, and it would never show up on your record. By the way, California law does apply to one ticket, but we thought we should minimize it at three."

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of the bill.

Mr. Padden demanded an oral roll call vote and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Barrett spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 42; not voting, 5.

SENATE BILL NO. 3394, by Senators Goltz, Bottiger and Quigg:
Increasing the tax credit for cogeneration facilities.

The bill was read the second time.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Sommers, Barnes, Greengo and Nelson (D):

Beginning on page 1, line 10 after "follows:" strike all material down to and including "exhausted." on page 3, line 2 and insert the following:

The amount of the credit shall be ((two)) three percent of the cost of a facility covered by the certificate for each year the certificate remains in force. The credits shall be cumulative and shall be subject only to the following limitations:

(1) The tax credit shall apply to capital costs only and shall not apply to operating costs.
(2) A person, firm, corporation, or organization which acquires a cogeneration facility shall be entitled to the credit only to the extent that it has previously not been taken. Under no circumstances may a credit be taken more than once against any cost or portion thereof of a cogeneration facility.
(3) No credit exceeding fifty percent of the taxes payable under chapter 82.04 RCW shall be allowed in any reporting period.
(4) The total cumulative amount of the credits allowed for any cogeneration facility covered by a certificate shall not exceed fifty percent of the cost of the cogeneration facility less the total amount of federal investment credit or other federal tax credits applicable to the cogeneration facility.
(5) ((The total cumulative amount of credits against state taxes authorized by this chapter shall be reduced by the total amount of any federal investment credit or other federal tax credit actually received by the certificate holder applicable to the cogeneration facility. This reduction shall be made as an offset against the credit claimed in the first reporting period following the allowance of the investment credit, or other credit, and thereafter as an offset against any credit balance as it shall become available to the certificate holder)) State credits shall not become available until one year after final cost verification by the department."

March 17, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 828 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 10, chapter 302, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 7.68.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person is found guilty in any court of competent jurisdiction of having committed ((an act prohibited under the provisions of Title 9A RCW as now or hereafter amended, which act involved a victim and is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor)) a crime, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there shall be imposed by the court upon such convicted person a penalty assessment ((in the amount of twenty-five dollars or ten percent of any other penalty or fine, whichever is greater), that penalty assessment shall be in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law) of fifty dollars for a felony or gross misdemeanor and twenty-five dollars for a misdemeanor. The assessment shall be in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law:

(2) The assessment imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to motor vehicle crimes defined in Title 46 RCW, except those defined in the following sections: RCW 46.61.520, 46.61.024, 46.52.090, 46.52.140, 46.52.502, 46.61.504, 46.52.100, 46.61.410, 46.52.020, 46.10.130, 46.52.125, 46.61.685, 46.61.530, 46.61.500, 46.61.015, 46.52.010, 46.44.180, 46.10.090(2) and 46.09.120(2).

(3) Wherever any person accused of having committed a criminal act (as prohibited under the provisions of Title 9A RCW as now or hereafter amended, which act involves a victim and is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor), posts bail pursuant to the provisions of chapter 10.19 RCW, and such bail is forfeited, there shall be deducted from the proceeds of such forfeited bail a penalty assessment ((of twenty-five dollars)), in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law, equal to the assessment which would be applicable under subsection (1) of this section if the person had been convicted of the criminal act.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such penalty assessments shall be paid by the clerk of the court to the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, who shall monthly transmit eighty percent of such penalty assessments to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall deposit such assessments in an account within the state general fund to be known as the crime victims compensation account, hereby created, and all moneys (derived from such assessments) placed in the account shall be used exclusively for the administration of this chapter, after appropriation by statute. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the remaining twenty percent of such assessments shall be provided to the county prosecuting attorney to be used exclusively for comprehensive programs to encourage and facilitate testimony by the victims of crimes and witnesses to crimes. A program shall be considered "comprehensive" only after approval of the department upon application by the county prosecuting attorney. The department shall approve as comprehensive only programs which:

(a) Provide comprehensive services to victims and witnesses of all types of crime with particular emphasis on serious crimes against persons and property. It is the intent of the legislature to make funds available only to programs which do not restrict services to victims or witnesses of a particular type or types of crime and that such funds supplement, not supplant, existing local funding levels;

(b) Are administered by the county prosecuting attorney either directly through the prosecuting attorney's office or by contract between the county and agencies providing services to victims of crime;

(c) Make a reasonable effort to inform the known victim or his surviving dependents of the existence of this chapter and the procedure for making application for benefits;

(d) Assist victims in the restitution and adjudication process and

(e) Assist victims of violent crimes in the preparation and presentation of their claims to the department of labor and industries under this chapter.

(5) If a county prosecuting attorney has failed to obtain approval of a program from the department under subsection (4) of this section, the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, shall monthly transmit one hundred percent of such penalty assessments to the state treasurer for deposit in the crime victims compensation account within the state general fund.

(6) County prosecuting attorneys are responsible to make every reasonable effort to assure that the penalty assessments of this chapter are imposed and collected.

(7) Penalty assessments under this section shall also be imposed in juvenile offense dispositions under Title 13 RCW.

Whenever any person shall be convicted of any crime except murder, burglary in the first degree, arson in the first degree, robbery, carnal knowledge of a female child under the age of ten years, or rape, the court may in its discretion, at the time of imposing sentence upon such person, direct that such sentence be stayed and suspended until otherwise ordered by such court, and that the sentenced person be placed under the charge of a parole or peace officer during the term of such suspension, upon such terms as the court may determine: PROVIDED, That as a condition to suspension of sentence, the court shall require the payment of the penalty assessment required by RCW 7.68.035: PROVIDED FURTHER, That as a condition to sus-

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 42, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.95.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The court in granting probation, may suspend the imposing or the execution of the sentence and may direct that such suspension may continue for such period of time, not exceeding the maximum term of sentence, except as hereinafter set forth and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine.

The court in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, may in its discretion imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year or may fine the defendant any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars plus the costs of the action, and may in connection with such probation impose both imprisonment in the county jail and fine and court costs. As a condition of probation, the court shall require the payment of the penalty assessment required by RCW 7.68.035. The court may also require the defendant to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (1) to comply with any order of the court for the payment of family support, (2) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question, (3) to pay such fine as may be imposed and court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, and (4) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and may require bonds for the faithful observance of any and all conditions imposed in the probation. The court shall order the probationer to report to the secretary of corrections or such officer as the secretary may designate and as a condition of said probation to follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary. If the probationer has been ordered to make restitution, the officer supervising the probationer shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain whether restitution has been made. If restitution has not been made as ordered, the officer shall inform the prosecutor of that violation of the terms of probation not less than three months prior to the termination of the probation period. The secretary of corrections will promulgate rules and regulations for the conduct of such person during the term of his probation: PROVIDED, That for defendants found guilty in justice court, like functions as the secretary performs in regard to probation may be performed by probation officers employed for that purpose by the board of county commissioners of the county wherein the court is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 2.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Beginning in 1983, the administrator for the courts shall annually compile a report, covering the previous year, showing: (1) For each superior court district, the number of convictions and the amount of assessments paid and amount due for felonies, gross misdemeanors, and misdemeanors; (2) for each county, the number of gross misdemeanor and misdemeanor convictions in courts of limited jurisdiction and the amount of assessments paid and the amount due. This information shall be provided by class of crime (felony, gross misdemeanor, and misdemeanor). "Assessment" means the crime victims compensation assessment required under RCW 7.68.035.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is appropriated to the department of labor and industries from the crime victims compensation account in the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of three million two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purposes of chapter 7.68 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is appropriated to the department of labor and industries from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of chapter 7.68 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except sections 2 through 6 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The intent of the legislature is that the victim of crime program will be self-funded. Toward that end, the department of labor and industries shall not pay benefits beyond the resources of the account. The department of labor and industries and the administrator for the courts shall cooperatively prepare a report on the collection of penalty assessments and the level of expenditures, and recommend adjustments to the revenue collection mechanism to the legislature before January 1, 1983. It is further the intent of the legislature that the percentage of funds devoted to comprehensive programs for victim assistance, as provided in section 1 of this act, be re-examined to ensure that it does not unreasonably conflict with the higher priority of compensating victims. To that end, the county prosecuting attorneys shall report to the legislature no later than January 1, 1984, either individually or as a group, on their experience and costs associated with such programs, describing the nature and extent of the victim assistance provided.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 987 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No school district board of directors or administrators may:
   (a) Increase an employee's salary or compensation to include a payment in lieu of providing a fringe benefit;
   (b) Allow payment to any employee for unused vacation leave; except, that contracts may provide a mechanism for all accumulated vacation leave to be taken as vacation leave; or
   (c) Allow any payment to an employee which is partially or fully conditioned on the termination or retirement of the employee, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A school district board of directors may compensate an employee for termination of the employee's contract in accordance with the termination provisions of the contract. If no such provisions exist the compensation must be reasonable based on the proportion of the uncompleted contract. Compensation received under this subsection shall not be included for the purposes of computing a retirement allowance under any public retirement system in this state.

(3) Provisions of any contract in force on the effective date of this act which conflict with the requirements of this section shall continue in effect until contract expiration. After expiration, any new contract including any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of an existing contract executed between the parties shall be consistent with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of retirement systems shall make a review of each member employed by a school district being retired on and after July 1, 1982, and whose benefits are determined by RCW 41.32.497 or 41.32.498. The purpose of the review is to identify any retiree whose average annual earnable compensation for purposes of determining retirement benefits exceeds the average annual earnable compensation during the two year period immediately preceding the years used in computing retirement benefits by more than the percentage increase determined as set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(1) For the retirees average final compensation period, the basis for making the comparison required by this section, shall be a percentage increase equal to one percentage point in excess of the average percentage salary increase granted to certificated employees of such employees district in accordance with the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the salary is payable, adjusted for incremental increases for seniority and educational attainment and staff position changes.

(2) For all retirees identified in this section, the department of retirement systems shall calculate the increase in the basic retirement benefit which results from any increase in salary granted an employee in excess of the district average certificated salary increase. The department of retirement systems will then, utilizing tables developed by the state actuary, determine the extra pension cost attributable to exceeding such average and shall bill the retiree's employer who shall remit the entire amount determined to the retirement system within thirty days, except that the director of the department of retirement systems shall be empowered to omit billing an amount less than fifty dollars.

(3) Any post-retirement increases resulting from the excess benefit identified in subsection (2) of this section shall be billed to the last employer as they occur on the basis set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1084 with the following amendments:

On page 3, following section 2 add three new sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 28A.04.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 179, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28A.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Section 28A.04.020, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Taylor moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1084 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

Representatives Greengo and O'Brien spoke against the motion, and Representatives Galloway and Taylor spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "The question of raising a constitutional issue relative to this proposed amendment seems to me, Mr. Speaker, to be not germane to the subject matter. He's raising another issue on the constitutional question. You have often stated in your rulings that the question of constitutionality is something for the courts to decide, not for the legislative body."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative O'Brien, it states in Reed's Rule 216, 'Nevertheless, a patient presiding officer and a good-natured assembly can do much to confine debate to its proper channels....' In the nature of being a good-natured assembly, Representative O'Brien, I would draw to your attention, Reed's Rule 161 that says, 'So, the question of constitutionality is not for him [that is the presiding officer] to decide. Incompatibility, inconsistency and unconstitutionality are matters of argument.' So, being a very patient presiding officer and expecting a good-natured assembly, I would rule your point of order is not well taken."

Mr. Taylor continued his remarks in favor of the motion, and Representatives Ellis and Stratton spoke against it.

Mr. King (R) spoke in favor of the motion and Representatives Van Dyken and McDonald spoke against it.

Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of the motion.

MOTION

Mr. King (R) moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1084.

Mr. King (R) spoke against the motion to concur.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Van Dyken: "Is it permissible, while debate has commenced on a motion, for a member to interrupt that debate and offer a contravening motion to concur?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Van Dyken, if you would refer to Reed's Rule 247, you will find a relationship between the various motions relating to agreement or disagreement between the two houses, and you will find the motion to concur is of the highest order, and in Reed's Rule 249, you will find that, even when the motion to not concur is pending before the House, a motion to concur would be in order and would be of higher precedence."

Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, a member gets to speak only twice on an issue without leave of the House. My point is, is the first question not to concur and the second question the motion to concur?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "I'm afraid so. We have a new question before the House now which is the motion that the House do concur and the members may speak twice on that issue."
Mr. Taylor spoke against the motion, and Representatives O'Brien and Nelson (G) spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor yielded to question by Mr. Heck.

Mr. Heck: "Representative Taylor, you are Chairman of the Education Committee of the House, and I'm wondering if you are aware of whether or not this major substantive change in policy ever received the benefit of either a full public hearing in the Senate or a full public hearing in the House?"

Mr. Taylor: "It certainly didn't in the House, Representative Heck. The bill never came before us; it was never introduced in the House, and it is of great concern to me that an historical move of this sort could not have had the attention of the full House Education Committee. In the Senate, there was very brief, I believe, cursory attention, but most of the action came directly on the floor without the committee. We didn't have a chance to delve into this issue."

Mr. Barrett spoke in favor and Ms. Galloway spoke against the motion.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1084, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 50; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Bond, Martinis.

The Speaker declared that the House, by its action, had refused to concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1084, and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:

SENATE BILL NO. 4025.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 16, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4963, and asks the House to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Sanders moved that the House do recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4963.

Mr. Sanders spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Addison spoke against it.

Mr. Sanders spoke again in favor of the motion, and Mr. Brown spoke against it.

Ms. Monohan spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Kaiser spoke against it.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, Representative Brown’s remarks were ordered inserted in the Journal.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE BROWN

Mr. Brown: "Speaking against the motion, a few days ago this bill came before us and we voted to add an amendment to the bill which would give the people back home an opportunity to make a decision. That decision is whether or not they want to be taxed. A majority of you voted for that, and by going along with this motion you are going to recede from your position, and I’m saying that’s not what we want to do. What we want to do is give the people back home an opportunity to vote on whether or not they want to be taxed. This is a tax; it’s nothing less; it’s nothing more, but it is a tax. If you want to shove another one out of here without the people back home having an opportunity to say something about it, vote in favor of the motion, but if you want the people to have an opportunity to say ‘no’ when they have had enough, and God knows they have had enough, then vote against this motion. The only way we can hold this thing together is to insist on our position. So vote ‘no’ on this motion, then we’ll come back, insist and we’ll put this in conference. By putting it in conference, we’ll make the Senate be as responsible as this body has been when we put it here in the first place. It’s very ridiculous to stand out here and tell the people back home we’re trying to be responsible, and when we come down here and vote to give them an opportunity to vote, then come back here and take it off. I can’t believe we’re doing this. It’s a very important vote. It’s very important for us to vote against this motion, and I’m asking you to do that."

Mr. Addison again opposed the motion, and Mr. King (J) spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4963, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 38; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Bond, Martinis, Warnke.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL WITHOUT HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4963 without the House amendments, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1230, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Committee on Ways and Means and Representative Chandler):

Modifying appropriations for capital facilities.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 1, line 21 strike "five million four hundred thousand" and insert "six million"

On page 2, line 6 strike "1,900,000" and insert "2,500,000"

On page 2, line 12 strike "6,353,000" and insert "6,953,000"

On page 2, after line 12 insert the following:

"PROVIDED, That six hundred thousand dollars of the appropriated sum, or as much thereof as necessary, shall be used for the construction of a marine fire training structure."

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Addison, Berleen, Pruitt and Valle:

On page 6, line 20 after "state." insert:

"(g) No more than $15 million may be awarded to any municipality if the funds are utilized in any project:"

MR. WANG: It was an error for me to vote "Nay."
(i) which downgrades the level of sewage treatment from advanced secondary to conventional secondary treatment or from secondary to primary treatment; or

(ii) which would cause effluent to reach and to impact a separate jurisdiction which has not consented to the project; PROVIDED, That this paragraph (g) shall not apply if the department of ecology in cooperation with the municipality commissions an independent comprehensive study of alternative projects for the treatment and discharge of effluent from the service area. The study shall measure the costs of the various alternatives as well as any adverse impacts on environmental quality and human health. The study shall include all aspects of treating and disposing of sewage wastes reasonably anticipated in the area served for at least twenty years and shall include consideration of decentralized treatment facilities, upgrading the level of sewage treatment, and short and long term capital and operating costs. The study shall be conducted by an independent consultant, public or private, which has never contracted with or been employed by the department of ecology or the municipality or which agrees not to be eligible for contracts with the department of ecology or the municipality for a period of three years after commencement of this study. The department of ecology and the municipality shall provide ample opportunity for public hearings on the study."

Representatives Wang, Berleen, Addison, Granlund, Hine, Valle and Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Greengo, Sommers and McDonald spoke against it.

Mr. Wang spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson D): “Representative Wang, how much would this study cost and how long would it take?”

Mr. Wang: “I can’t answer specifically in detail how long it would take or how much it would cost. It would depend on what Metro determined was needed to do an adequate job here. There has been some information which has been gathered, and I think Metro can take advantage of that and use it to a great extent. We don’t need to reinvest in wheels, but we do need an independent look instead of just having Metro evaluate its own premise, and base things under an original assumption and just pursue that.”

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representative Wang and others to Substitute House Bill No. 1230, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 54; not voting, 3.

Not voting: Representatives Bond, Houchen, Martinis.

On motion of Mr. Chandler, the following amendment by Representatives Chandler and Sommers was adopted:

On page 17, line 4 after "designs" strike "for the" and insert "and begin"

On motion of Mr. Mitchell, the following amendment by Representatives Mitchell, Galloway, Fiske, King (J), Nelson (G) and Salatino was adopted:

On page 17, after line 21 add a new section as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 43.99 C RCW a new section to read as follows: The department of social and health services is authorized to proceed with Phase III of Referendum 37 according to the department’s recommendation, involving nineteen projects and totaling $1,211,731.00.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 18, after line 1 insert the following:

The legislature also recognizes that the current economic recession has created extraordinarily high rates of unemployment in these communities. Would it also be true, as you explained the provisions of the bill as it currently stands unamended, that if you had a tough manager or substandard employees, that even though it may be warranted to have everyone, or a majority of the employees, rated poorly, that this amendment would preclude that type of action as well?"

Mr. Owen: "The answer to your question, Representative Grimm, is 'yes.' If I can have the permission of the House, I will read the particular section that brings that out: 'The board shall adopt rules designed to assure that performance evaluations of employees do not result in the undue concentration of ratings in any one or more of the rating classes, i.e., below average, average, or superior.' Each county assessor shall maintain an active and systematic program of revaluation on a continuous basis, and shall establish a revaluation schedule which will result in revaluation of all taxable real property within the county at least once each four years and physical inspection of all taxable real property within the county at least once each six years.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 131, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 214, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.41.041 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county assessor shall cause taxable real property to be physically inspected and valued at least once every (four) six years in accordance with RCW 84.41.030, and in accordance with a plan filed with and approved by the department of revenue. Such revaluation plan shall provide that a reasonable portion of all taxable real property within a county shall be revalued and these newly-determined values placed on the assessment rolls each year. If the revaluation plan provides for physical inspection at least once each four years, during the intervals between each physical inspection of real property, the valuation of such property may be adjusted to its current true and fair value, such adjustments to be based upon appropriate statistical data. If the revaluation plan provides for physical inspection less frequently than once each four years, during the intervals between each physical inspection of real property, the valuation of such property shall be adjusted to its current true and fair value, such adjustments to be made once each year and to be based upon appropriate statistical data.

The assessor may require property owners to submit pertinent data respecting taxable property in their control including data respecting any sale or purchase of said property within the past five years, the cost and characteristics of any improvement on the property and other facts necessary for appraisal of the property.

Sec. 3. Section 84.41.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 200, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.41.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of revenue shall by rule establish appropriate statistical methods for use by assessors in adjusting the valuation of property between physical inspections. The department of revenue shall make and publish such additional rules, regulations and guides which it determines are needed to supplement materials presently published by the department of revenue for the general guidance and assistance of county assessors. Each assessor is hereby directed and required to value property in accordance with the standards established by RCW 84.40.030 and in accordance with the applicable rules, regulations and valuation manuals published by the department of revenue.

Sec. 4. Section 36.21.080, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 274, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.21.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) If, on or before December 31 in any calendar year, any real or personal property placed upon the assessment roll of that year is destroyed in whole or in part, or is in an area that has been declared a disaster area by the governor and has been reduced in value by more than twenty percent as a result of a natural disaster, the true cash value of such property shall be reduced for that year by an amount determined as follows, without necessity of taxpayer application under chapter 84.70 RCW:

(a) First take the true cash value of such taxable property before destruction or reduction in value and deduct therefrom the true cash value of the remaining property after destruction or reduction in value.

(b) Then divide any amount remaining by twelve and multiply the quotient by the number of months or major fraction thereof remaining after the date of the destruction or reduction in value of the property.

The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: PROVIDED, That the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course at an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services. ((One day)) If, after completing an alcohol evaluation at the alcohol information school, the convicted person is found to have a serious alcohol problem, the alcohol information school may recommend more intensive alcoholism treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. In the alternative, the court may bypass alcohol information school if the court determines that more intensive alcoholism treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services is appropriate. Standards for approval shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction ((under RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504)) for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine not more than one thousand dollars. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If such person at the time of a second or subsequent conviction is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be thirty days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete diagnostic evaluation at an approved alcoholism program approved by the department of social and health services or other diagnostic evaluation as the court designates. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor: PROVIDED, That all funds derived from such penalty assessment shall be in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.030 and shall be for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a statewide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. Such penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from such penalty assessments shall be paid into the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of ((either of the offenses named in RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504)) driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either such offense, be suspended by the department for not less than thirty days: PROVIDED, That the court may recommend that no suspension action be taken. The treatment agency shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports and shall deny reinstatement until compliance and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either such offense within a five year period, be suspended by the department for not less than sixty days. The treatment agency shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports as provided in RCW 46.20.031 and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified.
(c) On a third or subsequent conviction under either such offense within a five year period, be revoked by the department.

(6) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, such revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case such conviction is sustained on appeal such revocation or suspension shall take effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

(((7) The provisions of this section limiting the authority of a court to defer or suspend a sentence shall not take effect until January 1, 1980. The division of criminal justice, no later than December 31, 1980, shall submit a study to the house of representatives and to the senate which details the impact of the sentencing provisions established by this section. The impact study shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following information. The impact of the provisions upon county jail conditions and bed space; the cost impact of the provisions upon local and state governments; and the existence of alternative facilities to which individuals sentenced under this section may be committed.))

MOTION

Mr. Struthers moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1092.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "Representative Struthers, could you briefly describe what the Senate amendments do?"

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Ehlers, this increases the fee for a license to be a tobacco distributor at the wholesale level from $350 to $600. At the retail level, the license is increased from $5 to $10. It is agreed upon within the industry, and the purpose of raising the $69,000 that this bill will raise is to go to the fund to hire two more auditors for the Department of Revenue to be sure that everybody is complying with the unfair cigarette sales act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Struthers, if I understand this right, if we do not adopt this, then they wouldn't be able to administer the act?"

Mr. Struthers: "No, the act would still be administered. We're not making any substantive law, all we're doing here is increasing the fee that goes into the general fund. This way we hope to hire two more auditors in order to keep them in compliance. Really what we're going to do is create more general fund revenue by keeping everybody in compliance."

Mr. McDonald: "But if they didn't have the money to administer it, then they really wouldn't have any ability to administer. Is that correct?"

Mr. Struthers: "Currently there isn't enough money, according to the Department of Revenue, to hire the auditors to administer the law. Our thinking is that if you have a law, enforce the law, so the tobacco industry has imposed this increase of fees upon themselves to be sure the law is administered."

Representatives McDonald, Ehlers, Barnes, Flanagan and Addison spoke against the motion to concur, and Representatives Greengo, Garrett, King (J) and Struthers spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1092, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 52; nays, 38; not voting, 8.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of House Bill No. 1092 as amended by the Senate.

All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire water district.

([In any water district hereafter formed ]) Three water district commissioners shall be elected at the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether such water district shall be formed. The commissioner ([residing]) elected in commissioner ([district]) position number one shall hold office for the term of six years; the commissioner ([residing]) elected in commissioner ([district]) position number two shall hold office for the term of four years; and the commissioner ([residing]) elected in commissioner ([district]) position number three shall hold office for the term of two years: PROVIDED, That the members of the first commission shall take office immediately upon their election and qualification. The terms of all commissioners first to be elected ([as above provided]) shall also include the time intervening between the date that the results of their election are declared in the canvass of returns thereof and the first day of January following the next general district election as provided in RCW 29.13.020.

Sec. 15. Section 9, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 13, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A district may establish local improvement districts within its territory; levy special assessments under the mode of annual installments extending over a period not exceeding twenty years, on all property specially benefited by a local improvement, on the basis of special benefits to pay in whole or in part the damage or costs of any improvements ordered in the district; and issue local improvement bonds in the improvement district to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments. The levying, collection and enforcement of such assessments and issuance of bonds shall be as provided for the levying, collection, and enforcement of local improvement assessments and the issuance of local improvement bonds by cities of the first class insofar as consistent herewith. The duties devolving upon the city treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located for the purposes hereof. The mode of assessment shall be determined by the water commissioners by resolution. When in the petition or resolution for the establishment of a local improvement district, and in the comprehensive plan or amendment thereto or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original plan, previously adopted, it is provided that the assessments shall be for the sole purpose of payment into the revenue bond fund for the payment of revenue bonds, then the local improvement district shall be designated as a 'utility local improvement district.'
Local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts to carry out the whole or any portion of the general comprehensive plan of improvements or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general comprehensive plan previously adopted may be initiated either by resolution of the board of water commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of the land within the limits of the local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of water commissioners shall desire to initiate the formation of a local improvement district or a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district, and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

In case any such local improvement district or utility local improvement district shall be initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of the proposed improvement requested to be ordered and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall determine whether the same shall be sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person shall withdraw his name from the petition after the same has been filed with the board of water commissioners. If the board shall find the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of said improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of water commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing said notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located at the address shown thereon. Whenever such notices are mailed, the water commissioners shall maintain a list of such reputed property owners, which list shall be kept on file at a location within the water district and shall be made available for public perusal. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. Said notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time and place of the hearing before the board of water commissioners. In the case of improvements initiated by resolution, said notice shall also: (1) State that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of water commissioners before the time fixed for said public hearing; (2) state that if owners of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed district file written protests with the secretary of the board, the power of the water commissioners to proceed with the creation of the proposed district shall be divested; (3) provide the name and address of the secretary of the board; and (4) state the hours and location within the water district where the names of the property owners within the proposed district are kept available for public perusal. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land or other property.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in the plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary: PROVIDED, That the board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included therein without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time herein provided for the original notice.

After said hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution: PROVIDED, That the jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by protests filed with the secretary of the board prior to said public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the applicable county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district.
If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution order the improvement, provide the general funds of the water district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefore, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the water district such eminent domain proceedings as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board shall thereupon proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

Sec. 17. Section 12, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Before approval of the roll a notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the local district, stating that the roll is on file and open to inspection in the office of the secretary, and fixing the time, not less than fifteen or more than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice, within which protests must be filed with the secretary against any assessments shown thereon, and fixing a time when a hearing will be held by the commissioners on the protests. Notice shall also be given by mailing, at least fifteen days before the hearing, a similar notice to the owners or reputed owners of the land in the local district as they appear on the books of the treasurer of the county in which the (water district) real property is located. At the hearing, or any adjournment thereof, the commissioners may correct, change or modify the roll, or any part thereof, or set aside the roll and order a new assessment, and may then by resolution approve it. If an assessment is raised a new notice similar to the first shall be given, after which final approval of the roll may be made. When property has been entered originally upon the roll and the assessment thereon is not raised, no objection thereto shall be considered by the commissioners or by any court on appeal unless the objection is made in writing at, or prior, to the date fixed for the original hearing upon the roll.

Sec. 18. Section 13, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 126, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 57.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the water district commission upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the secretary of said water district commission and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which (such water district) the real property is situated within ten days after publication of a notice that the resolution confirming such assessment roll has been adopted, and such notice of appeal shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of (such) the court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and (his) the appellant's objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the water district commission with reference to (such) the assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by (such) the secretary of (such) the water district commission (and by him) certified by the secretary to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful to pay all costs to which the water district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, (as aforesaid) the appellant shall give written notice to the secretary of such water district, that such transcript is filed. (Send) The notice shall state a time (not less than three days from the service thereof), when the appellant will call up the (said) cause for hearing; and the superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury; and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in (such) the court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain (in such water district) and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment roll, (and he) who shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the judgment of the superior court, in other cases: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such appeal must be taken within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court; and the record and opening brief of the appellant in (such) the cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this (act) title. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. (Amd) The supreme court or the court of appeals on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.
Sec. 19. Section 23, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any land against which there has been levied any special assessment by any water district shall have been sold in part or subdivided, the board of water commissioners of such district shall have the power to order a segregation of the assessment.

Any person desiring to have such a special assessment against a tract of land segregated to apply to smaller parts thereof shall apply to the board of commissioners of the water district which levied the assessment. If the water commissioners determine that a segregation should be made, they shall by resolution order the (county) treasurer of the county in which the real property is located to make segregation on the original assessment roll as directed in the resolution. The segregation shall be made as nearly as possible on the same basis as the original assessment was levied, and the total of the segregated parts of the assessment shall equal the assessment before segregation. The resolution shall describe the original tract, the amount and date of the original assessment, and shall define the boundaries of the divided parts and the amount of the assessment chargeable to each part. A certified copy of the resolution shall be delivered to the (county) treasurer of the county in which the real property is located who shall proceed to make the segregation ordered upon being tendered a fee of three dollars for each tract of land for which a segregation is to be made. In addition to such charge the board of water commissioners may require as a condition to the order of segregation that the person seeking it pay the district the reasonable engineering and clerical costs incident to making the segregation.

Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 20, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 57.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every water district in the state is hereby authorized to create a fund for the purpose of guaranteeing, to the extent of such fund, and in the manner hereinafter provided, the payment of all of its local improvement bonds issued, subsequent to (the effective date of this act) June 9, 1937, to pay for any local improvement within its confines. Such fund shall be designated 'Local Improvement Guaranty Fund, Water District No. . . . .', and shall be established by resolution of the board of water commissioners. For the purpose of maintaining such fund, every water district, after the establishment thereof, shall at all times set aside and pay into such a fund such proportion of the monthly gross revenues of the water supply system of such water district as the commissioners thereof may direct by resolution. This proportion may be varied from time to time as the commissioners deem expedient or necessary: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That under the existence of the conditions set forth in subsections (1) and (2) next hereunder, then the proportion must be as therein specified, to wit:

(1) Whenever any bonds of any local improvement district have been guaranteed under this act and the guaranty fund does not have a cash balance equal to twenty percent of all bonds originally guaranteed under this act, (excluding issues which have been retired in full) then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues derived from all water users in the territory included in said local improvement district (but not necessarily from users in other parts of the water district as a whole) shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever, under the requirements of this subsection, said cash balance accumulates so that it is equal to twenty percent of all bonds guaranteed, or to the full amount of all bonds guaranteed, outstanding and unpaid (which amount might be less than twenty percent of the original total guaranteed), then no further moneys need be set aside and paid into said guaranty fund so long as said condition shall continue.

(2) Whenever any warrants issued against the guaranty fund, as hereinbelow provided, remain outstanding and uncalled for lack of funds for six months from date of issuance thereof; or whenever any coupons or bonds guaranteed under this act have been matured for six months and have not been redeemed either in cash or by issuance and delivery of warrants upon the guaranty fund, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues (or such portion thereof as the commissioners of the water district determine will be sufficient to retire said warrants or redeem said coupons or bonds in the ensuing six months) derived from all water users in the water district shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever under the requirements of this subsection all warrants, coupons, or bonds specified in this subsection above have been redeemed, no further income need be set aside and paid into said guaranty fund under the requirements of this subsection until and unless other warrants remain outstanding and unpaid for six months or other coupons or bonds default.

(3) For the purpose of complying with the requirements of setting aside and paying into the local improvement guaranty fund a proportion of the monthly gross revenues of the water supply system of any water district, as hereinabove provided, said water district shall bind and obligate itself to maintain and operate said system and further bind and obligate itself to establish, maintain and collect such rates for water as will produce gross revenues sufficient to maintain and operate said water supply system and to make necessary provision for the local improvement guaranty fund as specified by this section and RCW 57.20.080 and 57.20.090. And said water district shall alter its rates for water from time to time and shall vary the same in different portions of its territory to comply with the said requirements.

(4) Whenever any coupon or bond guaranteed by this act shall mature and there shall not be sufficient funds in the appropriate local improvement district bond redemption fund to pay same, then the applicable county treasurer shall pay same from the local improvement guaranty fund of the water district; if there shall not be sufficient funds in the said guaranty fund to pay same, then the same may be paid by issuance and delivery of a warrant upon the local improvement guaranty fund.
(5) Whenever the cash balance in the local improvement guaranty fund is insufficient for the required purposes, warrants drawing interest at a rate determined by the commissioners may be issued by the applicable county auditor (of the county in which the water district is located), against the said fund to meet any liability accrued against it and must be issued upon demand of the holders of any maturing coupons and/or bonds guaranteed by this section, or to pay for any certificates of delinquency for delinquent installments of assessments as provided in subsection (6) (hereunder) of this section. Guaranty fund warrants shall be a first lien in their order of issuance upon the gross revenues set aside and paid into said fund.

(6) Within twenty days after the date of delinquency of any annual installment of assessments levied for the purpose of paying the local improvement bonds of any water district guaranteed under the provisions of this act, it shall be mandatory for the county treasurer of the county in which (water district) the real property is located to compile a statement of all installments delinquent, together with the amount of accrued interest and penalty appurtenant to each of said installments. Thereupon the applicable county treasurer shall forthwith purchase (for the water district) certificates of delinquency for all such delinquent installments. Payment for all such certificates of delinquency shall be made from the local improvement guaranty fund and if there shall not be sufficient moneys in said fund to pay for such certificates of delinquency, the applicable county treasurer shall accept said local improvement guaranty fund warrants in payment thereof. All such certificates of delinquency shall be issued in the name of the local improvement guaranty fund and all guaranty fund warrants issued in payment therefor shall be issued in the name of the appropriate local improvement district fund. Whenever any market is available and the commissioners of the water district so direct, the applicable county treasurer shall sell any certificates of delinquency belonging to the local improvement guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That any such sale must not be for less than face value thereof plus accrued interest from date of issuance to date of sale.

Such certificates of delinquency, as above provided, shall be issued by the county treasurer of the county in which the (water district) real property is located, shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum, shall be in each instance for the face value of the delinquent installment, plus accrued interest to date of issuance of certificate of delinquency, plus a penalty of five percent of such face value, and shall set forth:

(a) Description of property assessed;
(b) Date installment of assessment became delinquent;
(c) Name of owner or reputed owner, if known.

Such certificates of delinquency may be redeemed by the owner of the property assessed at any time up to two years from the date of foreclosure of such certificate of delinquency.

If any such certificate of delinquency be not redeemed on the second occurring first day of January subsequent to its issuance, the county treasurer who issued the certificate of delinquency shall then proceed to foreclose such certificate of delinquency in the manner specified for the foreclosure of the lien of local improvement assessments, pursuant to (chapter 9 of the Session Laws of 1933 and amendments thereto) chapter 35.50 RCW and if no redemption be made within the succeeding two years shall execute and deliver a deed conveying fee simple title to the property described in the foreclosed certificate of delinquency.

Sec. 21. Section 15, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The territory adjoining or in close proximity to (and in the same county with) a district may be annexed to and become a part of the district in the following manner: Twenty percent of the number of registered voters residing in the territory proposed to be annexed who voted at the last election may file a petition with the district commissioners and cause the question to be submitted to the electors of the territory whether such territory will be annexed and become a part of the district. If the commissioners concur in the petition, they shall file it with the county (auditor) election officer of each county in which the real property proposed to be annexed is located, who shall, within ten days, examine and validate the signatures thereon and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and for such purpose (here) the county election officer shall have access to all registration books in the possession of the officers of any city or town in the proposed district. If the petition contains a sufficient number of signatures, the (auditor) county election officer of the county in which the real property proposed to be annexed is located shall transmit it, together with (here) a certificate of sufficiency attached thereto to the water commissioners of the district. If there are no electors residing in the territory to be annexed, the petition may be signed by such a number as appear of record to own at least a majority of the acreage in the territory, and the petition shall disclose the total number of acres of land in the territory and the names of all record owners of land therein. If the commissioners are satisfied as to the sufficiency of the petition and concur therein, they shall send it, together with their certificate of concurrence attached thereto to the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority of each county in which the territory proposed to be annexed is located.

The county (commissioners) legislative authority, upon receipt of a petition certified to contain a sufficient number of signatures of electors, or upon receipt of a petition signed by such a number as own at least a majority of the acreage, together with a certificate of concurrence signed by the water commissioners, at a regular or special meeting shall cause to be published once a week for at least two weeks in ((two successive issues of some weekly)) a newspaper (printed in the county, and) in general circulation throughout the territory proposed to be annexed, a notice that the petition has been filed, stating the time of the meeting at which it shall be presented, and setting forth the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed.
Sec. 22. Section 16, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

When such petition is presented for hearing, the (said board of county commissioners) legislative authority of each county in which the territory proposed to be annexed is located shall hear the (same) petition or may adjourn (said) the hearing from time to time not exceeding one month in all, and any person, firm, or corporation may appear before the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority and make objections to the proposed boundary lines or to (the) annexation of the territory described in the petition. Upon a final hearing (the said board of) each county (commissioners) legislative authority shall make such changes in the proposed boundary lines within the county as they deem to be proper and shall establish and define such boundaries and shall find whether the proposed annexation (of the said territory) as established by the (said board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority to the (said) water district will be conducive to the public health, welfare and convenience and will be of special benefit to the land included within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed to the (said) water district (as so established by the said board of county commissioners: PROVIDED, That), No lands which will not, in the judgment of (said board) the county legislative authority, be benefited by inclusion therein, shall be included within the boundaries of (said) the territory as so established and defined (AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That). No change shall be made by the (said board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority in the (said) boundary lines, including any territory outside of the boundary lines described in the petition (PROVIDED FURTHER, That), No person having signed such petition (as herein provided for) shall be allowed to withdraw his name therefrom after the filing of the (same) petition with the board of water commissioners (to said water district).

Upon the entry of the findings of the final hearing (to the said petition by the said) each county (commissioners of such county) legislative authority, if they find the (said) proposed annexation (of the territory to the said water district) to be conducive to the public health, welfare and convenience and to be of special benefit to the land proposed to be annexed and included within the boundaries of the district, (they) shall give notice of a special election to be held within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed to (the) the water district for the purpose of determining whether the same shall be annexed to the (said) water district (as provided for). The notice shall particularly describe the boundaries established by the (board of) county (commissioners as its final hearing of the said petition) legislative authority, and shall state the name of the water district to which the (said) territory is proposed to be annexed, and the (same) notice shall be published (for at least two weeks prior to such election in a weekly newspaper printed and published within the county in which said district is located, and in case no such newspaper be printed or published in such county, then in some such) in a newspaper of general circulation (therein for) in the territory proposed to be annexed at least once a week for a minimum of two successive (issues thereof) weeks prior to the election and shall be posted for the same period in at least four public places within the boundaries of the (district) territory proposed to be annexed, which notice shall designate the places within the territory proposed to be annexed (to said water district) where the (said) election shall be held, and (shall require the voters to cast) the proposition to the voters shall be expressed on ballots which (shall) contain the words:

For Annexation to Water District or Against Annexation to Water District

The (said) county (commissioners) legislative authority shall name the persons to act as judges at such election.

Sec. 23. Section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1941 and RCW 57.28.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For such purpose the county (auditor) election officer shall have access to all appropriate registration books in the possession of the election officers of any incorporated city or town within the water district. The petition shall be transmitted to the election officer of the county in which the largest land area of the district is located, who shall certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures. If such petition be found by ((the)) such county (auditor) election officer to contain sufficient signatures, ((he shall transmit the same)) the petition, together with ((this)) a certificate of sufficiency attached thereto, shall be transmitted to the commissioners of the water district.

If the (said) findings of (the) any county (commissioners) legislative authority answer any of such questions of fact in the negative, or if any of the findings of the county (commissioners) legislative authority are not the same as the findings of the water district commissioners upon the same question, then in either of such events, the petition for withdrawal shall be deemed denied. Thereupon, and in such event, the (said-county-commissioners) county legislative authority of each county in which the district is located shall by resolution cause a special election to be held not less than thirty days or more than sixty days from the date of the final hearing of (the said) any county (commissioners) legislative authority upon the (said) petition for withdrawal, at which election the proposition expressed on the ballots shall be substantially as follows:

The consolidation may be initiated in either of the following ways: Ten percent of the legal electors residing within each of the water districts proposed to be consolidated may petition the board of water commissioners of each of their respective water districts to cause the question to be submitted to the legal electors of the water districts proposed to be consolidated; or the boards of water commissioners of each of the water districts proposed to be consolidated may petition the board of water commissioners of each of their respective water districts to cause the question to be submitted to the legal electors of the water districts proposed to be consolidated; or the boards of water commissioners of each of the water districts proposed to be consolidated may by resolution determine that the consolidation of the districts shall be conducive to the public health, welfare, and convenience and to be of special benefit to the lands of the districts.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 21, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 286 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Section 1. Section 2, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that homemakers are an unrecognized part of the work force who make an invaluable contribution to the strength, durability, and purpose of our state.

The legislature further finds that there is an increasing number of persons in this state who, having fulfilled a role as homemaker, find themselves "displaced" in their middle years through divorce, death of spouse, disability of spouse, or other loss of family income of a spouse. As a consequence, displaced homemakers are very often left with little or no income; they are ineligible for categorical welfare assistance; they are subject to the highest rate of unemployment of any sector of the work force; they face continuing discrimination in employment because of their age and lack of recent paid work experience; they are ineligible for unemployment insurance because they have been engaged in unpaid labor in the home; they are ineligible for social security benefits because they are too young, and many never qualify because they have been divorced from the family wage earner; they may have lost beneficiaries' rights under employer's pension and health plans through divorce or death of spouse; and they are often unacceptable to private health insurance plans because of their age.
It is the purpose of this chapter to establish (a two-year pilot project) guidelines under which the council for postsecondary education shall contract to establish multipurpose service centers and programs to provide necessary training opportunities, counseling, and services for displaced homemakers so that they may enjoy the independence and economic security vital to a productive life.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The council, in consultation with state and local governmental agencies, community groups, and local and national organizations concerned with displaced homemakers, shall receive applications and may contract with public or private nonprofit organizations to establish multipurpose service centers for displaced homemakers. In determining sites and administering agencies or organizations for the centers, the council shall consider the experience and capabilities of the public or private nonprofit organizations making application to provide services to a center.

(2) Not later than ninety days after June 7, 1979, the council shall issue rules prescribing the standards to be met by each center in accordance with the (policies) policies set forth in this chapter. Continuing funds for the maintenance of each center shall be contingent upon the determination by the council that the center is in compliance with the contractual conditions and with the rules prescribed by the council.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each center contracted for under this chapter shall include or provide information and referral to the following services:

(a) Job counseling services which shall:

(i) Be specifically designed for displaced homemakers;

(ii) Counsel displaced homemakers with respect to appropriate job opportunities; and

(iii) Take into account and build upon the skills and experience of a homemaker and emphasize job readiness as well as skill development;

(b) Job training and job placement services which shall:

(i) Emphasize short-term training programs and programs which expand upon homemaking skills and volunteer experience and which lead to gainful employment;

(ii) Develop, through cooperation with state and local government agencies and private employers, model training and placement programs for jobs in the public and private sectors;

(iii) Assist displaced homemakers in gaining admission to existing public and private job training programs and opportunities, including vocational education and apprenticeship training programs; and

(iv) Assist in identifying community needs and creating new jobs in the public and private sectors;

(c) Health counseling services, including referral to existing health programs, with respect to:

(i) General principles of preventative health care;

(ii) Health care consumer education, particularly in the selection of physicians and health care services, including, but not limited to, health maintenance organizations and health insurance;

(iii) Family health care and nutrition;

(iv) Alcohol and drug abuse; and

(v) Other related health care matters;

(d) Financial management services which provide information and assistance with respect to insurance, taxes, estate and probate problems, mortgages, loans, and other related financial matters;

(e) Educational services, including:

(i) Outreach and information about courses offering credit through secondary or postsecondary education programs, and other re-entry programs, including bilingual programming where appropriate; and

(ii) Information about such other programs as are determined to be of interest and benefit to displaced homemakers by the council;

(f) Legal counseling and referral services; and

(g) Outreach and information services with respect to federal and state employment, education, health, public assistance, and unemployment assistance programs which the council determines would be of interest and benefit to displaced homemakers.

(2) The staff positions of each multipurpose center contracted for in accordance with RCW ((28B.04-030)) 28B.04.040, including supervisory, technical, and administrative positions, shall, to the maximum extent possible, be filled by displaced homemakers.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The council may contract, where appropriate, with public or private nonprofit groups or organizations serving the needs of displaced homemakers for programs designed to:

(1) Provide direct services to displaced homemakers, including job counseling, job training and placement, health counseling, financial management, educational counseling, legal counseling, and referral services as described in RCW ((28B.04-040)) 28B.04.050;

(2) Provide state-wide outreach and information services for displaced homemakers; and

(3) Provide training opportunities for persons serving the needs of displaced homemakers, including those persons in areas not directly served by programs and centers established under this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The council shall submit to the legislature ((a fiscal)) an evaluation at the end of the (a two-year project) first two years and a biennial evaluation beginning in January 1984. The evaluations may include recommendation for future programs as ((submitted by the centers established under this chapter)) determined by the council.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The council shall consult and cooperate with the department of social and health services; the state board for community college education; the superintendent of public instruction; the commission for vocational education; the employment security department; the department of labor and industries; sponsoring agencies under the federal comprehensive employment and training act (87 Stat. 839; 29 U.S.C. Sec. 801 et seq.), and any other persons or agencies as the council deems appropriate to facilitate the coordination of centers established under this chapter with existing programs of a similar nature.

(2) Annually on July 1st, each agency listed in subsection (1) of this section shall submit a description of each service or program under its jurisdiction which would support the programs and centers established by this chapter and the funds available for such support.

(3) The council shall serve as a clearinghouse for displaced homemaker information and resources and shall compile and disseminate (the) state-wide information to the centers, related agencies, and interested persons upon request.

Sec. 7. Section 36.18.010, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 12, chapter ... (3SHB 179), Laws of 1982 and RCW 36.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Ms. Rinehart.

Ms. Rinehart: "Representative Greengo, could you comment on the similarity between this amendment and Substitute House Bill No. 612, which is on the third reading calendar?"

Mr. Greengo: "My understanding is that it's very similar."

Ms. Rinehart spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment as amended.

Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of the amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

Mr. Greengo moved adoption of the committee amendment to the title of the bill.
On motion of Mr. Greengo, the following amendment to the title amendment was adopted:

On page 8 of the title amendment, on line 7, after "84.40.040;" insert "amending section 42, chapter 26, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 284, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 82.03-130; amending section 3, chapter 284, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.075; amending section 43, chapter 26, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 82.03.140; amending section 47, chapter 26, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 82.03.180; adding a new section to chapter 84.40 RCW;"

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Greengo, Van Dyken, Nisbet and Addison spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Ms. Hine.

Ms. Hine: "Representative Greengo, the statistical basis for making this assessment concerns me a little. I wonder if you could explain a bit more about what that is? I'm concerned because I've seen instances where property has been assessed at a high level based upon the sale of another piece of property. Sometimes there are agreements made when property is sold so that the price doesn't necessarily show what an honest market price might be. Is there any way that kind of thing is covered in the statistical basis?"

Mr. Greengo: "At the request of the Association of County Officials, we have in the bill the requirement that the Department of Revenue will come up with a rule as to how this is to be implemented so that we will be well aware of the local idiosyncrasies that could occur and will be accounted for. It's left open in the bill as to exactly what this procedure will be, but it will be a uniform procedure for all counties. We're advised that we could get into some rather weird variations from county to county if we don't do that, and many of the county assessors might not have the capability to set up a good system. I think, with the county assessors advising and looking over the shoulders of the Department of Revenue, that—I'm assured anyway—we will have an equitable system that will be workable."

Ms. Rust spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Greengo, has the King County Assessor indicated his interest in this bill?"

Mr. Greengo: "Yes, he has. The amendment offered by Representative Addison and myself was in response to a concern of his."

Mr. Nelson (D): "He will support the bill then?"

Mr. Greengo: "Well, let's put it this way: He did not come down and testify on the bill, either for or against it, and I have not heard from him in either support of or opposition to the bill, other than this one point which we have clarified for him by the amendment."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, at what point on the calendar, either the second or third reading, is it timely to raise the issue of whether or not the bill before us falls within the purview of the cutoff resolution?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Heck, the language of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150, states, 'The subject to be considered at the special session be limited to the following:... Therefore, it would seem to me that it could be raised on either second reading or any reading—first, second or third."

Mr. Kreidler spoke against the committee amendments to page 8, line 8 and page 9, line 8.

The committee amendments were not adopted.

Mr. Nisbet moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 9, line 22.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4285 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Reletter the remaining subsections consecutively.

Mr. Kaiser spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kaiser yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Kaiser, 'whenever possible' is a pretty vague term; could you give me an idea of what the frequency would be?"

Mr. Kaiser: "I can't exactly answer that except to say the reason it's worded like that is that I wanted to take care of those people who are disabled and those situations where there isn't a self-service island."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Addison, could you clarify the term 'whenever possible,' or, at least, explain how it looks to the Chairman of the State Government Committee?"

Mr. Addison: "Representative Hastings, I think that's a good question. I would say that if a car—a state car—is driven in to a service station and there's a self-service island at that station, that state employee should use the self-service pump, in that instance. If they go into a station that doesn't have one, of course, they probably wouldn't be able to do it, but when reasonable. Clearly, in a case where there are two islands, they should go to the self-service one."

Mr. Hastings spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4705 as amended by the House was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4733, by Senator Hayner:

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Owen: "Mr. Speaker, in this process, do we go back and readopt the committee amendments that were passed in the regular session?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Owen, the procedure that the House has been following on the bills that have been passed by the Senate that previously had House amendments adopted in the first session, is that we've been making a motion on the floor that all the amendments previously adopted by the House be again adopted. The question then can be decided as to whether or not the body wishes to readopt those amendments."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Becker: "Mr. Speaker, House Rule 25 provides that notice of reconsideration may be made only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was made. Reed's Rule 205 provides a motion to reconsider must be made on the day on which the action sought to be revised was had. The action sought to be revised was had yesterday; the vote to be reconsidered was made yesterday. By both of these rules, a motion to reconsider is now untimely and may not be considered."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Becker, House Rule 25D states a notice of a motion for reconsideration of any vote may be made only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was made. The term 'notice of motion for reconsideration' has long reflected the action on third reading. The reason for that has been, as one turns to Reed's 204, 'A motion to reconsider is not in order after action has been had by the assembly in consequence of the decision proposed to be reconsidered. For instance, a motion to commit may not be reconsidered after the committee has taken the papers...' Therefore, on second reading if an action has sent it to the Rules Committee, for example, it would be too late for reconsideration. This body has never allowed a notice of reconsideration to be issued on second reading because it would make it impossible for the House to proceed with consideration of the bill. In Reed's 205, cited by you, and further down in the same paragraph, it states, 'It has been laid down by very good authority that motions to reconsider can be made any time during the session, that is, during the whole period for which the assembly sits.' I would also bring to your attention a Speaker having ruled with Representative O'Brien presiding, 'Anytime a bill is pending before the House it may be reconsidered.' You will find that citation in the Journal for 1980, page 702. So with those authorities, Representative Becker, I would rule that your point of order is not well taken."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Becker: "Mr. Speaker, in the section of Reed's 205 that you cited, where it says: 'It has been laid down by very good authority that motions to reconsider can be made any time during the session, that is, during the whole period for which the assembly sits'; it is followed by the sentence which reads, 'But this would lead to such abuse and to so many bad practices, that modern opinion has become settled as stated above.' I further raise a point of parliamentary inquiry, with respect to the ruling by former Speaker O'Brien, as to whether or not that ruling affected a bill on final passage or affected an amendment."

The Speaker: "It did affect an amendment."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative Schmidt that the House reconsider the vote by which the committee amendments were adopted.

Ms. Schmidt spoke in favor of the motion, and Ms. Cole spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Schmidt: "Mr. Speaker, I don't believe the speaker is addressing the question of reconsideration. I was simply giving my reasons why I asked for reconsideration, but she is arguing the amendments."
The Speaker: "Representative Schmidt, it has generally been the practice here that the motion to reconsider would open up the entire question to debate."

Ms. Cole continued her remarks in opposition to the motion. Representatives Ehlers, Van Dyken and Becker spoke against the motion, and Representatives Struthers and Houchen spoke in favor.

Mr. Brown demanded an electric roll call vote on the motion, and the demand was sustained.

Ms. Stratton spoke against the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House reconsider the vote by which the committee amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4733 were adopted, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 46; not voting, 4.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of the adoption of the committee amendments.

Ms. Houchen spoke against the amendments, and Ms. Cole spoke in favor of them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Cole yielded to question by Mr. Nisbet.

Mr. Nisbet: "Representative Cole, you mentioned that you are intimately and closely involved with this diversion system; is that correct?"

Ms. Cole: "Yes."

Mr. Nisbet: "Would you lobby fines in your area? Would you engage in a bounty system?"

Ms. Cole: "Well, the board would set up the policy. I am on the board that the state law provides for."

Mr. Nisbet: "Would you set up a policy of this bounty system?"

Ms. Cole: "I think the records of the youth services would certainly be pressured to encourage their boards to do this because they are always starving for funds to keep the program going."

Mr. Nisbet: "My question is, would you, as a member of this board, be unduly influenced if it wasn't in the best interest of the child to do this? Would you be unduly influenced to put this system in effect?"

Ms. Cole: "I don't believe I can answer that question. It would depend on the particular situation and that sort of thing. I simply do not think the program replaces community service."

Representatives Nisbet and Struthers spoke against adoption of the amendments, and Representatives Becker, Brekke and Van Dyken spoke in favor of them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nisbet yielded to question by Ms. Stratton.

Ms. Stratton: "Representative Nisbet, we talked the other day about pending legislation or some authority for the counties to levy some type of taxation to support the programs we are giving to them. Do you see, in your committee work in that area, a possibility that if a county does not get a tax or some sort of revenue coming in to cover these programs, that perhaps this, in fact, would be a user fee that would be given out of the diversion program working in a community?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Representative Stratton, unless there is a source of funding for this passed down to the communities, we won't do anything on that. The only way that we will shift those programs to the local level is if we provide an adequate funding base. Right now the computer runs come out to about .12 of one percent in order to do this. We are also finding as we run the computer runs that, in some cases, counties do not have a sufficient tax base to offset the amount of the programs now; we're now reexamining some of the programs that we would incorporate into this bill, and quite frankly, the juvenile parole portion, for example, is one that we may drop out because of the imbalance as far as county funding is concerned. I can assure you that I am a firm supporter of the diversion program, and we will not harm the program by way of passing these down to the counties."

Mr. Scott spoke in favor of the committee amendments.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on reconsider of the committee amendments to Engrossed Senate bill No. 4733, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 42; not voting, 5.

The resolution may also provide for additional, ex officio, nonvoting members consisting of elected officials or appointed officials from the counties, cities, or municipalities which are located all or partially within the boundaries of such a district and who do not have elected or appointed officials sitting on the governing body.

Any member of the governing body, or any ex officio member, who is not an elective official whose office is a full-time position may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses actually incurred in attending meetings or engaging in other district business as provided in RCW 42.24.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. COMPREHENSIVE PLAN—DEVELOPMENT—ELEMENTS. The cultural arts, stadium and convention district, as authorized in this chapter, shall develop a comprehensive cultural arts, stadium and convention plan for the district. (2) Whether such plan is eligible for matching federal funds.

After reviewing the comprehensive cultural arts, stadium and convention plan, the state planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall have sixty days in which to approve such plan and to certify to the state treasurer that such district shall be eligible to receive funds. To be approved a plan shall provide for coordinated cultural arts, stadium and convention planning, and be consistent with the public cultural arts, stadium and convention coordination criteria in a manner prescribed by chapter 35.60 RCW. In the event such comprehensive plan is disapproved and ruled ineligible to receive funds, the state planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall provide written notice to the district within thirty days as to the reasons for such plan’s disapproval and such ineligibility. The district may resubmit such plan upon reconsideration and correction of such deficiencies cited in such notice of disapproval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. ANNEXATION ELECTION. NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. DISTRICT AS QUASI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION—GENERAL POWERS: A cultural arts, stadium and convention district is a quasi municipal corporation, an independent taxing ‘authority’ within the meaning of Article VII, section 1, of the state Constitution, and a ‘taxing district’ within the meaning of Article VII, section 2, of the state Constitution. A district shall constitute a body corporate and shall possess all the usual powers of a corporation for public purpose. In addition to the powers specifically granted by this chapter, a district shall have all powers which are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district may contract with the United States or any agency thereof, any state or agency thereof, any other cultural arts, stadium and convention district, any county, city, metropolitan municipal corporation, special district, or governmental agency, within or without the state, and any private person, firm or corporation for the purpose of receiving gifts or grants or securing loans or advances for preliminary planning and feasibility studies, or for the design, construction or renovation or operation of cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities. In addition, a district may contract with any governmental agency or with any private person, firm or corporation for the use by either contracting party of all or any part of the facilities, structures, lands, interests in lands, air rights over lands and rights of way of all kinds which are owned, leased or held by the other party and for the purpose of planning, constructing or operating any facility or performing any service which the cultural arts, stadium and convention district may be authorized to operate or perform, on such terms as may be agreed upon by the contracting parties. Before any contract for the lease or operation of any cultural arts, stadium and convention district facilities shall be let to any private person, firm or corporation, competitive bids shall be called upon such notice, bidder qualifications and bid conditions as the district shall determine.

A district may sue and be sued in its corporate capacity in all courts and in all proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. ADDITIONAL POWERS. The governing body of a cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the following powers in addition to the general powers granted by this chapter:

1. To prepare, adopt and carry out a general comprehensive plan for cultural arts, stadium and convention service which will best serve the residents of the district and to amend said plan from time to time to meet changed conditions and requirements.

2. To acquire by purchase, gift or grant and to lease, convey, construct, add to, improve, replace, repair, maintain, and operate cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities and properties within the district, including portable and mobile facilities and parking facilities and properties and such other facilities and properties as may be necessary for passenger and vehicular access to and from such facilities and properties, together with all lands, rights of way, property, equipment and accessories necessary for such systems and facilities. Cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities and properties which are presently owned by any component city, county or municipality may be acquired or used by the district only with the consent of the legislative authority, council or governing body of the component city, county or municipality owning such facilities. A component city, county or municipality is hereby authorized to convey or lease such facilities to a district or to contract for their joint use on such terms as may be fixed by agreement between the component city, county or municipality and the district, without submitting the matter to the voters of such component city, county or municipality.

3. To fix rates and charges for the use of such facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. ISSUANCE OF GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS—MATURITY—METHODS OF PAYMENT. To carry out the purpose of this chapter, any cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of taxable property within such district, as the term 'value of taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district is additionally authorized to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term 'value of taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015, and to provide for the retirement thereof by excess levies when approved by the voters at a special election called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by section 6, Article VIII and section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056. General obligation bonds may not be issued with a maturity in excess of forty years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. REVENUE BONDS—ISSUANCE, SALE, TERM, PAYMENT. To carry out the purposes of this chapter, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the power to issue revenue bonds: PROVIDED, That the district governing body shall create or have created a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the governing body may obligate the district to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of all or any part of the facilities constructed, acquired, improved, repaired or replaced pursuant to this chapter, as the governing body shall determine: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the principal of and interest on such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners and holders of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue pledged to such fund.

The governing body of a district shall have such further powers and duties in carrying out the purposes of this chapter as provided in RCW 67.28.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. CULTURAL ARTS, STADIUM AND CONVENTION DISTRICT TAX LEVIES. The governing body of a cultural arts, stadium and convention district may levy or cause to levy the following ad valorem taxes:

1. A regular ad valorem property tax levy in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the district in each year for six consecutive years. This six year levy must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition, at which election the number of persons voting 'yes' on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting yes on the proposition exceeds forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election.

In the event cultural arts, stadium and convention districts are levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts result in taxes in excess of the one percent limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2, of our state Constitution, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced: PROVIDED, That no cultural arts, stadium, and convention district may pledge anticipated revenues derived from the property tax herein authorized as security for payments of bonds.
issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That such limitation shall not apply to property taxes approved pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall apply to levies after the first levy authorized under this section following the approval of such levy by voters pursuant to this section.

(2) An annual excess ad valorem property tax for general district purposes when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

(3) Multi-year excess ad valorem property tax levies used to retire general obligation bond issues when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056.

The district shall include in its regular property tax levy for each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal on all outstanding general obligation bonds issued without voter approval pursuant to section 11 of this amendatory act and may include a sum sufficient to create a sinking fund for the redemption of all outstanding bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CONTRIBUTION OF SUMS FOR EXPENSES. The county or counties and each component city included in the district collecting or planning to collect the hotel/motel tax pursuant to RCW 67.28.180 may contribute such revenue towards the expense for maintaining and operating the cultural arts, stadium and convention system in such manner as shall be agreed upon between them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TREASURER AND AUDITOR—BOND—DUTIES—FUNDS—DEPOSITARIES. Unless the cultural arts, stadium and convention district governing body, by resolution, designates some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district, the treasurer of the county in which a cultural arts, stadium and convention district is located shall be ex officio treasurer of the district: PROVIDED, That in the case of a multicounty cultural arts, stadium and convention district, the county treasurer of the county with the greatest amount of area within the district shall be the ex officio treasurer of the district. The district may, and if the treasurer is not a county treasurer shall, require a bond for such treasurer with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington, in an amount and under the terms and conditions as agreed to by the district, by resolution, in such amount from time to time which will protect the authority against loss. The premium on any such bond shall be paid by the authority.

All district funds shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be disbursed by the treasurer only on warrants issued by an auditor appointed by the district, upon orders or vouchers approved by the governing body. The treasurer shall establish a 'cultural arts, stadium and convention fund,' into which shall be paid district funds as provided in section 14 of this amendatory act and the treasurer shall maintain such special funds as may be created by the governing body into which said treasurer shall place all moneys as the governing body may, by resolution, direct.

If the treasurer of the district is a treasurer of the county, all district funds shall be deposited with the county depository under the same restrictions, contracts, and security as provided for county depositaries; the county auditor of such county shall keep the records of the receipts and disbursements, and shall draw, and such county treasurer shall honor and pay all warrants, which shall be approved before issuance and payment as directed by the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district established in accordance with this chapter shall be dissolved and its affairs liquidated when so directed by a majority of persons in the district voting on such question. An election placing such question before the voters may be called in the following manner:

(1) By resolution of the cultural arts, stadium and convention district governing authority;

(2) By resolution of the county legislative body or bodies with the concurrence therein by resolution of the city council of a component city; or

(3) By petition calling for such election signed by at least ten percent of the qualified voters residing within the district filed with the auditor of the county wherein the largest portion of the district is located. The auditor shall examine the same and certify to the sufficiency of the signatures thereon: PROVIDED, That to be validated, signatures must have been collected within a ninety-day period as designated by the auditor.

With dissolution of the district, any outstanding obligations and bonded indebtedness of the district shall be satisfied or allocated by mutual agreement to the county or counties and component cities of the cultural arts, stadium and convention district.

Sec. 17. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by any taxing district except school districts in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and RCW 84.52.043, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 64 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the county legislative authority, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city ((or)), town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote 'yes' and those opposed thereto to vote 'no'.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. LEGISLATIVE DIRECTIVE. Sections 1 through 17 of this amendatory act are added to Title 67 RCW as a new chapter thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. CAPTIONS NOT LAW. Section captions as used in this amendatory act shall not be construed as and do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Any city with a population of twenty-five thousand or more, but less than four hundred thousand, may impose a special excise tax of up to three percent on the sale or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, or trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, except that no such tax may be levied on any premises having fewer than fifteen lodging units. It shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same. The proceeds of this tax may only be used to fund the acquisition, design, and construction of convention or trade facilities.

This tax is in addition to the sales taxes that cities are authorized to impose in chapter 82.14 RCW and RCW 67.28.180. The tax shall not be a deduction from sales taxes imposed by the state.

Any city imposing the sales tax authorized in this section may contract with the state department of revenue for its collection and distribution as provided in chapter 82.14 RCW for the collection and distribution of general sales taxes imposed by cities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

To The Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise you that on March 27, 1982, Governor Spellman approved the following House Bills, entitled:
EIGHTEENTH DAY, MARCH 29, 1982

To The Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to Section 1(1)(b), SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 987, entitled: "An Act Relating to school district employees."

This section would prohibit school boards from paying school employees for unused vacation leave.

Since other state employees are not similarly restricted, it is inequitable to single out one group of employees for differential treatment. Any reform in this area should be uniform.

With the exception of Section 1(1)(b), which I have vetoed, the remainder of Second Substitute House Bill No. 987 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN SPELLMAN, Governor.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:
SENATE BILL NO. 4133,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4285,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4824.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease until 4:00 p.m.
The Speaker called the House to order at 4:00 p.m.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), HOUSE BILL NO. 784 was rereferred from Committee on Rules to Committee on Ways and Means.

The Speaker announced he was signing:
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4216, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Commerce and Labor, modifying provisions relating to unemployment compensation. Reported by Committee on Labor and Economic Development.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 9, after line 21 insert the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1981 and RCW 50.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has left work voluntarily without good cause and thereafter until he or she has obtained bona fide work and earned wages of not less than his or her suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks.

The disqualification shall continue if the work obtained is a mere sham to qualify for benefits and is not bona fide work. In determining whether work is of a bona fide nature, the commissioner shall consider factors including but not limited to the following:

(a) The duration of the work;
(b) The extent of direction and control by the employer over the work; and
(c) The level of skill required for the work in light of the individual's training and experience.

(2) An individual shall not be considered to have left work voluntarily without good cause when:
(a) He or she has left work to accept a bona fide offer of bona fide work as described in subsection (1) of this section; or
(b) The separation was because of the illness or disability of the claimant or the death, illness, or disability of a member of the claimant's immediate family if the claimant took all reasonable precautions, in accordance with any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, to protect his or her employment status by having promptly notified the employer of the reason for the absence and by having promptly requested reemployment when again able to assume employment: PROVIDED, That these precautions need not have been taken when they would have been a futile act, including those instances when the futility of the act was a result of a recognized labor/management dispatch system.

(3) In determining under this section whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause, the commissioner shall only consider work-connected factors such as the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness for the work, the individual's ability to perform the work, and such other work connected factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies. Good cause shall not be established for voluntarily leaving work because of its distance from an individual's residence where the distance was known to the individual at the time he or she accepted the employment and where, in the judgment of the department, the distance is customarily traveled by workers in the individual's job classification and labor market, nor because of any other significant work factor which was generally known and present at the time he or she accepted employment, unless the related circumstances have so changed as to amount to a substantial involuntary deterioration of the work factor or unless the commissioner determines that other related circumstances would work an unreasonable hardship on the individual were he or she required to continue in the employment.

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) of this section shall not apply to an individual whose marital status or domestic responsibilities cause him or her to leave employment. Such an individual shall not be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits until he or she has requalified, either by obtaining bona fide work and earning wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks or by reporting in person to the department during ten different calendar weeks and certifying on each occasion that he or she is ready, able, and willing to immediately accept any suitable work which may be offered, is actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices, and is utilizing such employment counseling and placement services as are available through the department.*

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "50.12.200;" insert "amending section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1981 and RCW 50.20.050;"

Signed by Representatives Sanders, Chairman; Patrick, Vice Chairman; King (J), Ranking Minority Member; Barr, Barrett, Brekke, Brown, Clayton, Cole, Eberle, Flanagan, Garrett, Hankins, Lux, Monohon, Smith.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

March 26, 1982

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4609, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Transportation, revising laws governing labor relations for ferry workers. Reported by Committee on Transportation.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. PUBLIC POLICY. The legislature declares that it is the public policy of the state of Washington to: (1) Provide continuous operation of the Washington state ferry system at reasonable cost to users; (2) efficiently provide levels of ferry service consistent with trends and forecasts of ferry usage; (3) promote harmonious and cooperative relationships between the ferry system and its employees by permitting ferry employees to organize and bargain collectively; (4) protect the citizens of this state by assuring effective and orderly operation of the ferry system in providing for their health, safety, and welfare; (5) prohibit and prevent all strikes or work stoppages by ferry employees; (6) protect the rights of ferry employees with respect to employee organizations; and (7) promote equality in compensation, benefits, and working conditions between ferry system employees, private sector employees within the state, and other Washington state employees in directly comparable positions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section shall apply.

(1) 'Arbitration' means the procedure whereby the parties involved in an impasse submit their differences to a third party for a final and binding decision or as provided in this chapter.

(2) 'Arbitrator' means either a single arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators as provided in section 14 of this act.

(3) 'Collective bargaining representative' means the persons designated by the secretary of transportation and employee organizations to be the exclusive representatives during collective bargaining negotiations.

(4) 'Department of transportation' means the department as defined in RCW 47.01.021.

(2) 'Ferry system management' means those management personnel of the marine transportation division of the department of transportation who have been vested with the day-to-day management responsibilities of the Washington state ferry system by the transportation commission and who are not members of a collective bargaining unit represented by a ferry employee organization.

(3) 'Lockout' means the refusal of ferry system management to furnish work to ferry employees in an effort to get ferry employee organizations to make concessions during collective bargaining, grievance, or other labor relation negotiations. Curtailment of employment of ferry employees due to lack of work resulting from a strike or work stoppage, as defined in subsection (11) of this section, shall not be considered a lockout.

(4) 'Marine employees' commission' means the commission created in section 18 of this act.

(5) Office of financial management' means the office as created in RCW 43.41.050.

(6) 'Strike or work stoppage' means a ferry employee's refusal, in concerted action with others, to report to duty, or his or her willful absence from his or her position, or his or her stoppage or slowdown of work, or his or her abstinence in whole or in part from the full, faithful, and proper performance of the duties of employment, for the purpose of inducing, influencing, or coercing a change in conditions, compensation, rights, privileges, or obligations of his, her, or any other ferry employee's employment. A refusal, in good faith, to work under conditions which pose an endangerment to the health and safety of ferry employees or the public, as determined by the master of the vessel, shall not be considered a strike for the purposes of this chapter.

(7) 'Transportation commission' means the commission as defined in RCW 47.01.021.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Scope of Negotiations. Ferry system management and ferry system employee organizations, through their collective bargaining representatives, shall meet at reasonable times, to negotiate in good faith with respect to wages, hours, working conditions, automatic employee deductions, insurance, and health care benefits as limited by section 17 of this act, and other matters mutually agreed upon. Employer funded retirement benefits shall be provided under the public employees retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW and shall not be included in the scope of collective bargaining. Negotiations shall also include grievance procedures for resolving any questions arising under the agreement, which shall be embodied in a written agreement and signed by the parties. The payroll statement for ferry employees shall set forth the full amount of any automatic employee deduction and the full amount of any employer contribution to insurance and health care plans for such employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Scope of Negotiations. Ferry system management and ferry system employee organizations, through their collective bargaining representatives, shall meet at reasonable times, to negotiate in good faith with respect to wages, hours, working conditions, automatic employee deductions, insurance, and health care benefits as limited by section 17 of this act, and other matters mutually agreed upon. Employer funded retirement benefits shall be provided under the public employees retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW and shall not be included in the scope of collective bargaining. Negotiations shall also include grievance procedures for resolving any questions arising under the agreement, which shall be embodied in a written agreement and signed by the parties. The payroll statement for ferry employees shall set forth the full amount of any automatic employee deduction and the full amount of any employer contribution to insurance and health care plans for such employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unfair Labor Practices for Employer, Employee Organization, Enumerated. (1) It is an unfair labor practice for ferry system management or its representatives:

(a) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter;

(b) To dominate or interfere with the formation or administration of any employee organization or contribute financial or other support to it;

(c) To discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because he has filed charges or given testimony under this chapter;

(d) To refuse to bargain collectively with the representatives of its employees.

(2) It is an unfair labor practice for an employee organization:

(a) To restrain or coerce (i) employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter: PROVIDED, That this paragraph does not impair the right of an employee organization to prescribe its own rules with respect to the acquisition or retention of membership therein, or (ii) an employer in the selection of his representatives for the purposes of collective bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;

(b) To refuse to bargain collectively with an employer, when it is the representative of its employees subject to section 8 of this act.

(3) The expression of any view, argument, or opinion, or the dissemination thereof to the public, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under any of the provisions of this chapter, if such expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Strikes, Work Stoppages, and Lockouts Prohibited. (1) It is unlawful for any ferry system employee or any employee organization, directly or indirectly, to induce, instigate, encourage, authorize, ratify, or participate in a strike or work stoppage against the ferry system.

(2) It is unlawful for ferry system management to authorize, consent to, or condone a strike or work stoppage; or to conduct a lockout; or to pay or agree to pay any ferry system employee for any day in which the employee participates in a strike or work stoppage; or to pay or agree to pay any increase in compensation or benefits to any ferry system employee in response to or as a result of any strike or work stoppage or any act which violates subsection (1) of this section. It is unlawful for any official, director, or representative of the ferry system to authorize, ratify, or participate in any violation of this subsection. Nothing in this subsection prevents new or renewed bargaining and agreement within the scope of negotiations as defined by this chapter, at any time. No collective bargaining agreement provision regarding suspension or modification of any court-ordered penalty provided in this section shall be binding on the courts.

(3) In the event of any violation or imminently threatened violation of subsection (1) or (2) of this section, any citizen domiciled within the jurisdictional boundaries of the state may petition the superior court of any county in which the violation has occurred or is imminently threatened for an injunction restraining such violation or imminently threatened violation. Rules of civil procedure regarding injunctions shall apply. However, the court shall grant a temporary injunction if it appears to the court that a violation has occurred or is imminently threatened; the plaintiff need not show that the violation or threatened violation would greatly or irreparably injure him or her; and no bond shall be required of the plaintiff unless the court determines that a bond is necessary in the public interest. Failure to comply with any temporary or permanent injunction granted pursuant to this section shall constitute a punishable contempt. The punishment shall not exceed ten thousand dollars for an employee organization or the ferry system, for each day during which the failure to comply continues, or imprisonment in a county jail for officials thereof not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment. The punishment for a ferry employee found to be in contempt shall be as provided in chapter 7.20 RCW, except that the fine fixed by the court may be in an amount up to but not exceeding three hundred dollars for each day during which the ferry employee participates or engages in a strike or work stoppage. An individual or an employee organization which makes an active good faith effort to comply fully with the injunction shall not be deemed to be in contempt.

(4) Every person sustaining any loss which is directly caused by a strike or other work stoppage by employees of the Washington state ferries is entitled to recover for such loss against the employees engaged in such strike or work stoppage and against any ferry employee organization organizing or otherwise participating in such strike or work stoppage. Neither the state nor the ferry system may be a party in any suit brought pursuant to this subsection.

(5) No ferry system employee may engage in a strike or work stoppage or work slowdown.

(6) Each of the remedies and penalties provided by this section is separate and several, and is in addition to any other legal or equitable remedy or penalty.

(7) Every person sustaining any loss which is directly caused by a lockout by the Washington state ferries is entitled to recover for such loss against the state ferry system. Neither individual ferry employees nor any ferry employee organization may be a party in any suit brought pursuant to this subsection.

(8) In addition to the remedies and penalties provided by this section the successful litigant shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in the litigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. UNION SECURITY PROVISIONS—SCOPE—AGENCY SHOP PROVISION, COLLECTION OF DUES OR FEES. A collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions, but not a union or closed shop. At any time after an agency shop provision is agreed to, members of any bargaining unit may decertify the unit by the majority vote of the members. Such vote shall be conducted by the marine employees' commission not less than one month nor more than two months after a petition requesting such a vote and signed by thirty percent of the members is filed with the marine employees' commission. Upon decertification, agency shop status shall immediately terminate and may not be included in any future bargaining agreement without the approval of a majority of the employees who would be members of the proposed bargaining unit. All union security provisions shall safeguard the right of nonassociation of employees based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member. Such employee shall pay an amount of money equivalent to regular dues and fees to a nonreligious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the bargaining representative to which such employee would otherwise pay the dues and fees. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payment has been made. If the employee and the bargaining representative do not reach agreement on such matter, the commission shall designate the charitable organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES. An agreement with a ferry employee organization which is the exclusive representative of ferry employees in an appropriate unit may provide procedures for the consideration of ferry employee grievances and of disputes over the interpretation and application of agreements. Negotiated procedures may provide for binding arbitration of ferry employee grievances and of disputes over the interpretation and application of existing agreements. An arbitrator's decision on a grievance may not change or amend the terms, conditions, or applications of the collective bargaining agreement. Such procedures shall provide for the invoking of arbitration only with the approval of the employee organization. The costs of arbitrators shall be shared equally by the parties.

Ferry system employees shall follow either the grievance procedures provided in a collective bargaining agreement, or in the event that no such procedures are so provided, shall submit such grievances to the marine employees' commission as provided in section 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCEDURES. (1) Any ferry employee organization certified as the bargaining representative shall be the exclusive representative of all ferry employees in the bargaining unit and shall represent all such employees fairly.

(2) All ferry employee organizations shall collectively designate an individual or individuals as their representative to engage in collective bargaining negotiations with the representative or representatives designated by the secretary of transportation.

(3) Negotiating sessions, including strategy meetings of ferry system management or employee organizations, mediation, and the deliberative process of arbitrators are exempt from the provisions of chapter 42.30 RCW. Hearings conducted by arbitrators may be open to the public by mutual consent of the parties. Any meeting of the transportation commission, during which a collective bargaining agreement is subject to ratification, shall be open to the public.

(4) Terms of any collective bargaining agreement may be enforced by civil action in Thurston county superior court upon the initiative of either party.

(5) Ferry system employees or any employee organization shall not negotiate or attempt to negotiate directly with a member of the transportation commission if the commission has appointed or authorized a bargaining representative for the purpose of bargaining with the ferry employees or their representative, unless the member of the commission is the designated bargaining representative of the ferry system.

(6) The negotiation of a proposed collective bargaining agreement by the representative or representatives of management and the representative or representatives designated by all the organizations representing ferry employees to represent them collectively shall commence in each odd-numbered year immediately following adoption by the legislature and approval by the governor of the biennial budget.

(7) Until a new collective bargaining agreement is negotiated, or until an award is made by the arbitrator, the terms and conditions of the previous collective bargaining agreement shall remain in force. The wage and benefit provisions of any collective bargaining agreement, or arbitrator's award in lieu thereof, which is concluded after July 1st of an odd-numbered year shall be retroactive to July 1st. It is the intent of this section that the collective bargaining agreement or arbitrator's award shall commence on July 1st of each odd-numbered year and shall terminate on June 30th of the next odd-numbered year to coincide with the ensuing biennial budget year, as defined by RCW 43.88.020(7), to the extent practical.

(8) Any ferry union contract terminating prior to July 1, 1983, shall, with the agreement of the parties, remain in effect until a contract can be concluded under sections 1 through 18 of this act. Such contract shall be retroactive to the expiration date of the prior contract, and the cost to the department of three months retroactive compensation and benefits shall not be included in calculating the limitation imposed by section 9 of this act. If the parties cannot agree to contract extension, any increase agreed to for the three month period shall be included in calculating the limit imposed by section 9 of this act.

(9) Any ferry union contract which would terminate after July 1, 1983, may, by agreement of the parties, be terminated as of July 1, 1983, and a new contract concluded pursuant to sections 1 through 18 of this act. Any contract terminating after July 1, 1983, shall be subject to this act only upon its expiration and shall not be renewed for a period beyond July 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. WAIVER OF MEDIATION AND FACT-FINDING. By mutual agreement, the transportation commission or the department of transportation authorize an increase in tolls subsequent to the enactment of the budget which, together with any increase previously adopted within the preceding twelve months, is in excess of the implicit price deflator for the preceding twelve months for the purpose of providing revenue to fund a collective bargaining agreement or arbitrator's award. This subsection shall not apply to fare increases under RCW 47.60.326(4) which are due to increased operating expenses, such as fuel price escalation, which are not labor-related and which are beyond the direct control of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. IMPASSE PROCEDURES. As the first step in the performance of their duty to bargain, ferry system management and the employee organization shall endeavor to agree upon impasse procedures. Such agreement shall provide for implementation of these impasse procedures not later than July 1st in each odd-numbered year following enactment of the biennial budget. If the parties fail to agree upon impasse procedures under this section, the impasse procedures provided in sections 11 through 14 of this act shall apply. It is unlawful for either party to refuse to participate in the impasse procedures provided in sections 11 through 14 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. MEDIATION. In the absence of an impasse agreement between the parties or the failure of either party to utilize its procedures by August 1st in each odd-numbered year, the marine employees' commission shall, upon the request of either party, appoint an impartial and disinterested person to act as mediator pursuant to section 18 of this act. It shall be the function of the mediator to bring the parties together to effectuate a settlement of the dispute, but the mediator may not compel the parties to agree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. FACT-FINDING. Prior to collective bargaining, the marine employees' commission shall conduct a salary survey which shall be a public document comparing wages, hours, employee benefits, and conditions of employment of involved ferry employees with those of private sector employees within the state and Washington state employees doing directly comparable work, giving consideration to factors peculiar to the area and the classifications involved. The commission shall make such other findings of fact as the parties may request during bargaining or impasse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. WAIVER OF MEDIATION AND FACT-FINDING. By mutual agreement, the parties may waive mediation and fact-finding, as provided for in sections 11 and 12 of this act, and proceed with binding arbitration as provided for in section 14 of this act. Such waiver shall be in writing and signed by the representatives of the parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. BINDING ARBITRATION. (1) If impasse persists fourteen days after the mediator has been appointed, or beyond any other date mutually agreed to by the parties, the dispute shall be submitted to arbitration pursuant to this section, and such arbitration shall be binding upon the parties.

(2) Each party shall submit to the other within four days of request a final offer with proof of service of a copy upon the other party. The final offer shall consist of the party's proposal for a total collective bargaining agreement, excluding those items upon which the parties have reached agreement. Each party shall also submit a copy of a draft of the proposed collective bargaining agreement to the extent to which agreement has been reached and the name of its selected arbitrator. The parties may continue to negotiate until an agreement is reached or a decision rendered by the panel of arbitrators.

As an alternative procedure, the two parties may agree to submit the dispute to a single arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on the arbitrator within four days, the selection shall be made pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. The full costs of arbitration under this provision shall be shared equally by the parties to the dispute.

(3) The panel of arbitrators shall consist of three members appointed in the following manner:
(a) One member shall be appointed by the secretary of transportation;
(b) One member shall be appointed by the ferry employee organization;
(c) One member shall be appointed mutually by the members appointed by the secretary of transportation and the employee organization. The last member appointed shall be the chairman of the panel of arbitrators. No member appointed shall be an employee of the parties;
(d) Ferry system management and the employee organization shall each pay the fees and expenses incurred by the arbitrator each selected. The fee and expenses of the chairman of the panel shall be shared equally by each party.

(4) If the third member has not been selected within four days of notification as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a list of seven arbitrators shall be submitted to the parties by the marine employees' commission. The two arbitrators selected by ferry system management and the ferry employee organization shall determine by lot which arbitrator shall remove the first name from the list submitted by the marine employees' commission. The second arbitrator and the first arbitrator shall alternately remove one additional name until only one name remains. The person whose name remains shall become the chairman of the panel of arbitrators and shall call a meeting within thirty days, or at such time mutually agreed to by the parties, at a location designated by him or her. In lieu of a list of seven nominees for the third member being submitted by the marine employees' commission, the parties may mutually agree to have either the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or the American Arbitration Association submit a list of seven nominees.

(5) If a vacancy occurs on the panel of arbitrators, the selection for replacement of such member shall be in the same manner and within the same time limits as the original member was chosen. No final award under subsection (12) of this section shall be made by the panel until three arbitrators have been chosen.

(6) The panel of arbitrators shall at no time engage in an effort to mediate or otherwise settle the dispute in any manner other than that prescribed in this section.

(7) From the time of appointment until such time as the panel of arbitrators makes its final determination, there shall be no discussion concerning recommendations for settlement of the dispute by the members of the panel of arbitrators with parties other than those who are direct parties to the dispute. The panel of arbitrators may conduct formal or informal hearings to discuss offers submitted by both parties.

(8) The panel of arbitrators shall consider, in addition to any other relevant factors, the following factors:
(a) Past collective bargaining contracts between the parties including the bargaining that led up to such contracts;
(b) Comparison of wages, hours, employee benefits, and conditions of employment of the involved ferry employees with those of private sector employees within the state and Washington state employees doing directly comparable work, giving consideration to factors peculiar to the area and the classifications involved;
(c) The interests and welfare of the public, the ability of the ferry system to finance economic adjustments and the effect of such adjustments on the normal standard of services;
(d) The right of the legislature to appropriate and to limit funds for the conduct of the ferry system;
(e) The limitations on ferry toll increases and operating subsidies as may be imposed by the legislature; and
(f) The aggregate fiscal effect of all contracts negotiated or arbitrated under this chapter.

(9) The chairman of the panel of arbitrators may hold hearings and administer oaths, examine witnesses and documents, take testimony and receive evidence, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of records, and delegate such powers to other members of the panel of arbitrators. The chairman of the panel of arbitrators may petition the superior court in Thurston county, or any county in which any hearing is held, to enforce the order of the chairman compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of records.

(10) A majority of the panel of arbitrators shall select within thirty days after its first meeting the most reasonable offer, in its judgment, of the final offers submitted by the parties. The arbitration panel award shall be restricted to the final offer selected by the panel.

(11) The final offer selected by the panel of arbitrators and items agreed upon by the ferry system management and the employee organization shall be deemed to be the collective bargaining agreement between the parties.

(12) The determination of the panel of arbitrators shall be by majority vote and shall be final and binding, subject to section 9 of this act. The panel of arbitrators shall give written explanation for its selection and inform the parties of its decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. LEGAL ACTIONS. (1) Any ferry employee organization and the department of transportation may sue or be sued as an entity under this chapter. Service upon any party shall be in accordance with law or the rules of civil procedure. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to make any individual or his assets liable for any judgment against the department of transportation or a ferry employee organization if such individual was acting in his official capacity.
(2) Any legal action by any ferry employee organization or the department of transportation under this chapter shall be filed in Thurston county superior court within ten days of when the cause of action arose. The court shall consider such actions on a priority basis and determine the merits of such actions within thirty days of filing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. NOTICE AND SERVICE. Any notice required under this chapter shall be in writing, but service thereof shall be sufficient if mailed by restricted certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the last known address of the parties, unless otherwise provided in this chapter. Refusal of restricted certified mail by any party shall be considered service. Prescribed time periods shall commence from the date of the receipt of the notice. Any party may at any time execute and deliver an acceptance of service in lieu of mailed notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. INSURANCE AND HEALTH CARE. Absent a collective bargaining agreement to the contrary, the department of transportation shall provide contributions to insurance and health care plans for ferry system employees and dependents, as determined by the state employees' insurance board, pursuant to chapter 41.05 RCW. The ferry system management and employee organizations may collectively bargain for other insurance and health care plans, and employer contributions may exceed that of other state agencies as provided in RCW 41.05.050. However, any amount by which the employer contribution exceeds that provided for other state agencies shall reduce the funds available for compensation purposes, pursuant to section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. MARINE EMPLOYEES' COMMISSION. (1) There is created the marine employees' commission. The governor shall appoint the commission with the consent of the senate. The commission shall consist of three members: One member to be appointed from labor, one member from industry, and one member from the public who has significant knowledge of maritime affairs. The public member shall be chairman of the commission. One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he succeeds. Commission members shall be eligible for reappointment. Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor, upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause. Commission members shall not be eligible for state retirement under chapter 41.40 RCW by virtue of their service on the commission. Members of the commission shall be compensated and receive reimbursement for official travel and other expenses at the same rate and on the same terms as provided for the transportation commission by RCW 47.01.061, as now or hereafter amended. Such payments shall be made from the Puget Sound ferry operations account.

(2) The marine employees' commission shall: (a) Adjust all complaints, grievances, and disputes between labor and management arising out of the operation of the ferry system as provided in section 7 of this act; (b) provide for impasse mediation as required in section 11 of this act; (c) conduct fact-finding and provide salary surveys as required in section 12 of this act; and (d) provide for the selection of an impartial arbitrator as required in section 14(4) of this act.

(3) In adjudicating all complaints, grievances, and disputes, the party claiming labor disputes shall, in writing, notify the marine employees' commission who shall make careful inquiry into the cause thereof and issue an order advising the ferry employee, or the ferry employee organization representing him or her, and the department of transportation, as to the decision of the commission.

The parties shall be entitled to offer evidence relating to disputes at all hearings conducted by the commission. The orders and awards of the commission shall be final and binding upon any ferry employee or employees or their representative affected thereby and upon the department.

The commission shall by regulation prescribe its rules of procedure.

The commission shall have the authority to subpoena any ferry employee or employees, or their representatives, and any member or representative of the department, and any witnesses. The commission may require attendance of witnesses and the production of all pertinent records at any hearings held by the commission. The subpoenas of the commission shall be enforceable by order of any superior court in the state of Washington for the county within which such proceeding may be pending.

Such survey shall be reported to the board for its use in setting the amount of the recommended employer contribution to the employee insurance benefit program covered by this chapter. The board shall transmit a recommendation for the amount of the employer contribution to the governor and the director of financial management for inclusion in the proposed budgets submitted to the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 41.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sec. 21. Section 46.68.030, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 342, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.68.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All fees received by the director for vehicle licenses under the provisions of chapter 46.16 RCW shall be forwarded to the state treasurer, accompanied by a proper identifying detailed report, and be by him deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund, except that the proceeds from the vehicle license fee and renewal license fee shall be deposited by the state treasurer as hereinafter provided. After July 1, 1981, that portion of each vehicle license fee in excess of $7.40 and that portion of each renewal license fee in excess of $3.40 shall be deposited in the state patrol highway account in the motor vehicle fund, hereby created. Vehicle license fees, renewal license fees, and all other funds in the state patrol highway account shall be for the sole use of the Washington state patrol for highway activities of the Washington state patrol, subject to proper appropriations and reappropriations therefor, for any fiscal biennium after June 30, 1981, and twenty-seven and three-tenths percent of the proceeds from $7.40 of each vehicle license fee and $3.40 of each renewal license fee shall be deposited each biennium in the Puget Sound ferry operations account to partially finance, together with other funds in the account, any budgeted state ferry system maintenance and operating deficit for that biennium. The deficit shall be calculated by subtracting from total costs the sum of all unappropriated funds available to the state ferry system, including revenues from tolls that are adjusted ("amortized") by the transportation commission ((to correspond with changes in the consumer price index for the city of Seattle pursuant to RCW 47.60.325)). Any remaining amounts of vehicle license fees and renewal license fees that are not deposited in the Puget Sound ferry operations account shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 22. Section 47.60.310, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1977 and RCW 47.60.310 are each amended to read as follows:

In order that local representation may be established, the ("authority") department shall give prior notice of the review to the ("board of county commissioners of each county wherein a terminal of the Washington state ferries is located and the board of county commissioners of any other county adjacent to Puget Sound or the Strait of Juan de Fuca which by resolution has notified the authority of its intent to participate in the review") legislative authorities of Clallam, Island, Jefferson, King, Kitsap, Pierce, San Juan, Skagit, and Snohomish counties.

(2) Each such ("board of") county ("commissioners is hereby directed") legislative authority shall appoint a committee to consist of ("ne more than") five members to serve as an advisory committee to the ("authority") department or its designated representative in such review.

(3) The members of each county ferry advisory committee shall be appointed for four-year terms. The initial terms shall commence on July 1, 1982, and end on June 30, 1986. Any vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the appointing authority. At least one person appointed to each advisory committee shall be representative of an established ferry-user group or of frequent users of the ferry system, at least one shall be representative of persons or firms using or depending upon the ferry system for commerce, and one member shall be representative of a local government transportation planning body or its staff. MINORITY recommendation: Do not pass. Signed by Representatives Clayton, Vice Chairman; Schmidt, Smith.

Voting nay: Representatives Clayton, Vice Chairman; Cantu, Chamberlain, Eberle, Hankins, Owen, Prince, Schmidt, Smith, Sprague.

Changing from yea to nay: Representative Chamberlain.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 17, by Committee on Revenue (originally sponsored by Representative Sprague):

Modifying the 106% limit.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Sprague spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 17, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Not voting: Representative King R.

Substitute House Bill No. 17, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 755, by Representatives Prince, Fiske and Erickson:

Deducting trade-in allowances from the selling price for sales tax purposes.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Prince and Tilly spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Rust and Rinehart spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Prince yielded to question by Mr. Lux.

Mr. Lux: "Representative Prince, if you had a used automobile or a used combine and you traded it in, you wouldn't pay the sales tax on the used piece of equipment, but if you bought a used combine or a used automobile, you would pay the sales tax on that?"
Mr. Prince: "Did you have a trade-in when you bought the used piece?"

Mr. Lux: "No."

Mr. Prince: "If you don't have a trade-in, there's no credit, but if you do have a trade-in there would be a credit."

Mr. Lux: "So if you had a used automobile you could take it and trade it in on another used automobile that was fifty dollars more and you'd only pay sales tax on the fifty dollars?"

Mr. Prince: "That's correct."

Mr. Lux spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Barr spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Prince yielded to question by Ms. Galloway.

Ms. Galloway: "Representative Prince, I live in a community which borders on the state of Oregon. If someone purchased a car in Oregon under our current law, he/she would pay sales tax to our state. Would this law apply if it was passed? Would they have the same option of trading in and only paying sales tax on the balance?"

Mr. Prince: "My understanding is that it would be completely dependent on how they made the trade. If you purchased a car in Oregon and came back to Washington to buy the license without ever having licensed it in Oregon first, then as you came into the state you would have the bill of sale from the dealer which would show the trade-in, and you'd probably get the credit, but if you licensed it in Oregon first and used it in Oregon, in essence, it would be a new vehicle with no trade-in."

Mr. Nelson (D) spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Lewis, McGinnis and Clayton spoke in favor of it.

Ms. Rinehart spoke again in opposition to the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 755, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 67; nays, 29; not voting, 2.

The Speaker called on Mr. Amen to preside.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1216, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Committee on Ways and Means and Representative Chandler):

Authorizing institutions of higher education to purchase private sector services.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1216, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 31; not voting, 2.

Sprague, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Williams, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representatives King R., Salatino.

Establishing a joint select committee to study the management options and potential uses of the Milwaukee Road.

The resolution was read the second time.

Mr. Smith moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, line 2 strike "authorized purchase of" and insert "purchased"

On page 1, beginning on line 2 after "Road" strike "through the sale of several million dollars of bonds"

On page 1, strike all language on lines 7 and 8.

On page 1, beginning on line 13 strike "of the trail in the light of the state's investment"

Mr. Smith spoke in favor of the amendments.

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4216, and that it be placed on today's second reading calendar.

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Mr. Nelson (G) raised a question of consideration of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "I don't believe it's appropriate to interrupt a speech once it has begun for a point such as raised by Representative Nelson. It's not appropriate for the Chair to recognize him for that."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. AMEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding): "Representative Heck, you had not started on the debate, and if you had, the question of consideration is of higher rank."

Mr. Heck demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, it's my understanding that once debate has begun, no matter what may have higher rank, Representative Nelson could not interrupt the speaker. If I understand, Representative Amen's ruling was that it was of higher order."

The Speaker: "From what I understand, Representative Ehlers, the debate had not begun in Speaker Amen's view."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the question of consideration of the motion to relieve Rules Committee of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4216, and the House indicated they wished not to consider the motion by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 55; not voting, 1.

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MARCH 29, 1982

Not voting: Representative King R.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendments by Representative Smith to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143.

Mr. Ehlers demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Scott and Kreidler spoke against the amendments, and Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of them.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Smith to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 45; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives King R., and Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 26 after "Office," insert "the Association of Washington Counties,"

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tilly yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "Representative Tilly, I'm curious about this amendment. I have no problem with this notion of local government on it, but I'm just trying to remember another instance when we've named a particular organization specifically in the statutes. I don't believe that's customary. Normally don't we say 'representatives from local government?' Is this customary to put the name of a specific organization into the statutes?"

Mr. Tilly: "I don't know about custom, but the county officials have been in contact with me—the county commissioners—and I feel they are the ones, especially in the more rural areas, who we should use in a resolution of this type. This is a study resolution rather than a statute."

Mr. Brown demanded an oral roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Tilly to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 73; nays, 24; not voting, 1.

Voting nay: Representatives Bender, Berleen, Brekke, Burns, Cole, Grimm, Isaacson, James, King J., Kreidler, Leonard, Lux, Martinis, McDonald, Owen, Padden, Rinchart, Rust, Salatino, Sanders, Scott, Sherman, Walk, Warnke.

Not voting: Representative King R.

Mr. Hastings moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third and the resolution be placed on final passage.
POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Ehlers: "Earlier Representative Heck attempted to make a motion to relieve the Rules Committee of the unemployment compensation bill. In our view he had begun his remarks, was interrupted by a motion raising a question of consideration, which is a gag rule. It's our feeling that we have tried to operate in our caucus in a courteous manner. I believe that our caucus, from the very beginning, has been understanding and that we were not going to obstruct the process. There have been very few bills that we have not agreed to bump to final passage and my recollection is that this is the third time—the second time on this particular issue—to raise to relieve the Rules Committee of a bill. It has not been our policy to do so. Representative Heck was not given the opportunity to complete his remarks on the motion because it was ruled that the question of consideration had a higher rank. We don't want to quibble over that particular issue, except to say that we feel Representative Heck was not dealt with in a fair manner. That was why this caucus decided to go through a period of oral roll calls. It's my understanding that this body is going to have an opportunity to vote on the unemployment compensation bill tomorrow, and that's all well and good, but it does not, in fact, condone what I consider to be a discourtesy to one of our members."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Amen: "I was presiding at the time that Representative Ehlers is commenting about. I did not hear Representative Heck start making any remarks whatsoever. I think I resent the implication that was being made by Representative Ehlers. I did not hear any remarks at all."

The motion to suspend the rules and advance Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143 as amended by the House to final passage was carried.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143 as amended by the House, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 4; not voting, 2.

Not voting: Representatives Becker, King R.

Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143 as amended by the House, was declared adopted.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4603, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Zimmerman, Fleming, Bottiger, Hemstad, Bauer, Benitz and Fuller — by Governor Spellman request):

Providing the means for the payment of public indebtedness on public improvements.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Revenue recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, 1st Day, 1st ex. sess., March 12, 1982.)

Mr. Greengo moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Addison moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Addison and Flanagan to the committee amendment:

On page 4, after line 12 strike all material down through "established." on line 18 and insert the following:
"(10) 'Tax allocation base' means the value of property within an apportionment district as established in section 9 of this act for tax allocation purposes."
On page 4, line 22 strike "10" and insert "11"
On page 12, beginning on line 1, strike "value of real property"
On page 12, beginning on line 13, strike "value of real property"
On page 12, beginning on line 29, strike all of subsection (2) and renumber the subsections consecutively
On page 14, after line 3, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The tax allocation base of an apportionment district shall be established as provided in this section:

(1) The initial tax allocation base shall be established by the assessor revaluing real property within the apportionment district as soon as practicable after the assessor receives notice of the public improvement ordinance. The initial tax allocation base shall be the true and fair value of the real property within the apportionment district for the year in which the apportionment district is established.

(2) During each subsequent year in which the assessor revalues real property within the apportionment district, in accordance with the assessor’s plan under chapter 84.41 RCW, a new tax allocation base shall be calculated by the assessor. The new tax allocation base shall be equal to the existing tax allocation base multiplied by the sum of one plus seventy-five one-hundredths of the sum of the annual county-wide percentage changes in market value of locally assessed real property, excluding increased value resulting from new construction and improvements, since the existing tax allocation base was calculated.

(3) The department of revenue shall for each year following 1982 annually calculate the county-wide percentage change in market value of locally assessed real property for each county, excluding increased value resulting from new construction and improvements.

(4) The initial tax allocation base shall remain in effect until the tax allocation base is recalculated pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. Any recalculated tax allocation base shall remain in effect until subsequently recalculated pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(5) Nothing in this section authorizes revaluation of real property by the assessor for property taxation purposes that are not made in accordance with the assessor's revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW.

Renumber the sections consecutively.
On page 17, beginning on line 27, strike "10 and 12 through 15" and insert "11 and 13 through 16"
On page 18, line 6, strike "8(4)" and insert "8(3)"
On page 19, beginning on line 24, strike "10 and 12 through 15" and insert "11 and 13 through 16"

Mr. Addison spoke in favor of the amendments.

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Addison, as I read the language on line 12, page 3, where we figure what the tax allocation base shall be for the property in question, it says that we take the allocation base as of the day the project was most previously tax assessed, then it says to take the sum of one plus three-fourths of the county-wide percentage change. Let’s assume the county-wide percentage increase is eight percent, so that would say we would take one plus six making the sum of seven; then we take seven times the tax allocation base. If the tax allocation base is $100,000, does that mean that we take seven times that and give this property a $700,000 tax base for next year?"

Mr. Addison: "Let me clarify how the bill works. If the county-wide inflation, just general inflation, not counting new construction, goes up by ten percent, then you would assume that the property values within the district are also increasing by ten percent, so that would raise the tax allocation base by ten percent. Let me clarify a bit further: The language says to take seventy-five one-hundredths of that change, and the philosophy behind that is these properties are supposed to be coming from a depressed area, the amendments make the assumption that their values are not raising at exactly the same rate as the county’s, so what the amendment does, is you only take seventy-five percent of the increased value due to inflation. If there was a ten percent general increase in the county, you would take seventy-five percent of that or three-fourths."

Mr. Barrett: "I guess one of my problems is that it doesn’t say anything about percentages in here. It says you add one and then take three-fourths of whatever the percentage. Let’s say the percentage is eight, so three-fourths of that would be six. It says you take one plus six. It doesn’t say anything about a percentage. It doesn’t say one hundred six percent or one hundred four percent. It says the sum of one plus three-fourths and you multiply the allocation base by seven, not by one hundred seven percent. Is there an error in the drafting?"

Mr. Addison: "In your example where you say there’s an eight percent general inflation rate, you would add one to, in essence, .06, so the inflated value would be one times 1.06, so it would be one hundred six percent."
Representatives Rust and Greengo spoke against the amendments.

The amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted.

Mr. Greengo moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Greengo, Rinehart and Bond to the committee amendment:

On page 14, after line 24 insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS. General obligation bonds which are issued to finance public facilities that are specified in the public improvement ordinance, and for which part or all of the principal or interest is paid by tax allocation revenues, shall be subject to the following requirements:

(1) The intent to issue such bonds and the maximum amount which the sponsor contemplates issuing are specified in the public improvement ordinance; and

(2) A statement of the intent of the sponsor to issue such bonds is included in all notices required by sections 5 and 6 of this act.

In addition, the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of such general obligation bonds shall be subject to potential referendum approval by the voters of the issuing entity when the bonds are part of the nonvoter approved indebtedness limitation established pursuant to RCW 39.36.020. If the voters of the county or city issuing such bonds otherwise possess the general power of referendum on county or city matters, the ordinance or resolution shall be subject to that procedure. If the voters of the county or city issuing such bonds do not otherwise possess the general power of referendum on county or city matters, the referendum shall conform to the requirements and procedures for referendum petitions provided for code cities in RCW 35A.11.100."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Flanagan spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Lux.

Mr. Lux: "Representative Greengo, is it true that the limit in the local areas where you're going to have councilmatic bonds, is based on three-fourths of a percent of the total valuation, that you can do that without a vote of the people, and now you are saying here that it would—where would these bonds fall—in the first limitation or the second limitation?"

Mr. Greengo: "Representative Lux, I cannot, off the top of my head, tell you what the limits are of putting out GO bonds without a vote of the people, but what this amendment says is that even if you are under that limit, so that you'd normally not have to have a vote of the people—you could have something like councilmatic bonds—even if you are under those conditions. If these bonds are to support that particular development, they must be made a part of the package from the beginning, and you must notify and it must be in all of the publicity and it is subject to the initiative process, if they want to have a vote."

Mr. Lux spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Flanagan again opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Greengo and others to the committee amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4603, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 31; not voting, 6.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 30, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 26, 1982

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675, modifying the funding method for pupil transportation, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the House amendment not be adopted and the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

'Section 1. Section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.162 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with (RCW 28A.41.160) this chapter, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Each district's annual student transportation allocation shall be based on differential rates determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the following manner:

(1) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard student mile allocation rate for each district. 'Standard student mile allocation rate,' as used in this (section) chapter, means the per mile allocation rate for transporting an eligible student. The standard student mile allocation rate may consist of no more than (five) differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall include but not be limited to such factors as climate and terrain; restricted passenger load; nonpassenger miles; and the costs of insurance, district or contracted employee salaries, and benefits, maintenance, fuel, supplies, and materials to the extent that they are not under the direct control of the district. The standard student mile allocation rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(1).

(2) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard unit mile rate for each district. 'Standard unit mile rate,' as used in this section, means the cost of operating an approved transportation vehicle for one mile. The standard unit mile rate may consist of no more than (five) differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall be based on the factors used in subsection (1) of this section. The standard unit mile rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(2) and (3). For purposes of allocating funds for RCW 28A.41.505(2), the superintendent shall use the average number of miles reported by the district for the two school years, excluding field trips.

(3) Prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, and the committees on education and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives a report
sec. 3. section 5, chapter 265, laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the preliminary, estimated student transportation allocation for each district and notify districts of their preliminary student transportation allocation by June 15. By the following October 15th, every district shall notify the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary student transportation allocation. The superintendent shall then make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final student transportation allocation before the following December 1st. If the number of eligible students in a school district changes ten percent or more from the final October 15 number, and the change is maintained for a period of twenty consecutive school days or more, the district may submit revised eligible student data to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent shall, to the extent funds are available, recalculate the district's allocation for the transportation of pupils to and from school.

The superintendent shall make the student transportation allocation in accordance with the apportionment payment schedule in RCW 28A.48.010, as now or hereafter amended. For the 1982-83 school year, no school district shall receive a reduction or increase in funds of over three percent of what it received the previous year as adjusted to its proportional share of funds appropriated by the legislature for 1982-83 transportation services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature which shall:

(1) Identify the factors that will be used to recognize cost differentials between districts, and the data elements that will be used to measure the factors that contribute to these cost differentials;
(2) Collect the appropriate financial and workload data necessary to measure cost differentials between districts;
(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;
(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the 'eligible student' definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one-half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students;
(5) Present a method of measuring potential ridership of eligible students within the formula utilizing factors which account for the variations associated with student demand on the district's transportation system;
(6) Compare the distribution of pupil transportation resources utilizing eligible student data, eligible student data modified by the student demand factor specified in (5) above, and eligible students actually transported plus ten percent, with an analysis of the fiscal and program implications of each distribution method; and
(7) Present options for a continued phase-in of the eligible student allocation formula, with a description of the fiscal impact on school districts.

The report shall be submitted to the senate and house committees on education no later than December 15, 1982.

All data collected by the superintendent and requested by the committees on ways and means or education of the house or senate pertaining to the funding of pupil transportation shall be delivered to the legislative evaluation and accountability program (LEAP) as soon as possible in a machine readable form acceptable to the LEAP committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this amendatory act shall take effect September 1, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On line 1 of the title after "transportation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert the following "amending section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.162; amending section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520; amending section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525; creating new sections; repealing section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified); and providing an effective date."

Signed by Senators Kiskaddon, Wilson, Lee; Representatives Taylor, Johnson, Cole.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1196, by Representatives Maxie, Sprague, O'Brien, Johnson, Rinehart and Lux:

Establishing the anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr., as a state holiday.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, is this within the cut-off resolution?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150 states that a special session shall be limited to the Washington Public Power Supply System; government reorganization; fiscal issues; bills referenced as being necessary to the implementation of the budget; bills in dispute in the 1982 regular session; Substitute Senate Bill No. 4609, the ferry labor legislation, and resolutions and matters relating to the operation of the legislature. House Bill 1196, which would designate Martin Luther King's birthday as a state holiday, does not appear to fit reasonably into any of the subject categories which may be considered under this resolution. The Speaker will rule that House Bill 1196 does not represent a government reorganization or any of the other permitted subjects and, therefore, in accordance with ESCR 150 which was adopted by this body and by the Senate, may not be properly considered. Your point is well taken, Representative Hastings."

The Speaker called on Mr. Amen to preside.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 143, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Senators Gallaghan, Fleming, Bottiger, Zimmerman, Hemstad, Bauer and Benitz – by Governor Spellman request):

ROLL CALL

Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Greengo, I understand what you are saying here all the way down to that potential referendum item and your definition of it. I've asked a couple of lawyers what a potential referendum is, and neither one of them gave me the description that you've given to us. If lay citizens or someone else were to pick this up, I don't think they could tell us exactly what a potential referendum is. That is the only section that I have a hang-up with. I don't think that's spelled out with clarity. Could you be more definite?"
Mr. Greengo: "Representative Erak, it refers to Article VIII of the Constitution, section 6, which, in my understanding, addresses the referendum procedure, and then the implementing statute which we worked yesterday, 4603, spells out the specific RCW section wherein if you have the initiative and referendum procedure in your local counties and cities, whatever the class is—and there is some variation there—then you use that. If you don't have that, you use the state authority, but in any case, you will have the availability to gather signatures to force a vote of the people on this particular issue before it goes into effect."

Mr. Erak spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Ms. Leonard.

Ms. Leonard: "Representative Greengo, I read in this amendment that it says, '...shall be subject to potential referendum.' In your remarks you referred to an initiative, and an initiative process is very different from a referendum process. You are correct in that a referendum process allows thirty days to gather the signatures, but in first class cities, and those particularly with the initiative and referendum provided in their charters, an initiative has an unlimited amount of time in which to gather the signatures. Which are we really talking about here? Potential referendums or initiatives?"

Mr. Greengo: "In my talks with Mr. Lundin, my understanding is that it is a referendum process. A referendum can occur in two ways: Either the local governing authority can refer an issue to the voters; or the voters can petition the council by getting a certain number of signatures to submit it to a referendum. That's what I'm talking about."

Ms. Galloway spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Greengo, as I read the amendment, it appears that in an effort to have a public hearing and public disclosure of the impact of general obligation bonds, you have required that a hearing on those bonds be held prior to the time that the boundaries are drawn. Is it your intent then that once the boundaries are drawn that unless a hearing on the general obligation bonds had been included prior to that time, there would be no obligation for the city to hold, at a later time, a hearing and submit general obligation bonds?"

Mr. Greengo: "My understanding is that when you first pass the enabling ordinance to do this, you would have to have in that ordinance the disclosure that you may want to use G.O. bonds so that when you hold your hearings and talk about boundaries, you talk about the financing methods, and you would also be discussing the fact that you might want to use G.O. bonds, and if you don't do all of that, I think it would be subject to court challenge."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Then I would interpret subparagraph (3) of your amendment, where it refers to an estimate of the dollar amount for the debt service on such general obligation bonds, that would be in a general and not a specific nature, since the specific amount of the general obligation bonds would not necessarily be known at that time?"

Mr. Greengo: "I think that's correct. This would have to be something that would develop as you developed the proposal and got it more refined so you could make more refined projections as to what it was going to cost."

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Flanagan yielded to question by Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. O'Brien: "Representative Flanagan, this full disclosure matter that you would like to pass and have passed as a constitutional amendment on your debt service obligations, whatever happened to those constitutional amendments in the Senate? Do they see it differently than we do?"

Mr. Flanagan: "No, I just didn't get over there and lobby it enough. I was told by one of the Senators that he had it taken care of, and so I didn't bother to look at the voter's pamphlet for a week, and then I woke up and found out that the bill was on the calendar but never passed. It went through all the committees, and the Rules Committee, but still didn't pass."
Representatives Hastings, Padden, Lux, McDonald and Leonard spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment, and Representatives Rust, Galloway, Van Dyken and Flanagan spoke in favor of it.

Mr. McDonald again opposed the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Greengo spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Struthers demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) The right of a person to a retirement allowance, disability allowance, or death benefit, the retirement, disability or death allowance itself, any optional benefit, any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this chapter, and the moneys in the fund created under this chapter, are hereby exempt from any state, county, municipal, or other local tax and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, or any other process of law whatsoever: PROVIDED, That benefits under this chapter shall be payable to a spouse or ex-spouse to the extent expressly provided for in any court decree of dissolution or legal separation or in any court order or court-approved property settlement agreement incident to any court decree of dissolution or legal separation.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a beneficiary of a retirement allowance from authorizing deductions therefrom for payment of premiums due on any group insurance policy or plan issued for the benefit of a group comprised of public employees of the state of Washington.

(3) Deductions made in the past from retirement benefits are hereby expressly recognized, ratified, and affirmed. Future deductions may only be made in accordance with this section.

Any judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court of the state of Washington who heretofore and/or hereafter shall have served as a judge of any such courts for eighteen years in the aggregate or who shall have served ten years in the aggregate and shall have attained the age of seventy years or more may, during or at the expiration of his term of office, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, be retired and receive the retirement pay herein provided for. In computing such term of service, there shall be counted the time spent by such judge in active service in the armed forces of the United States of America, under leave of absence from his judicial duties as provided for under chapter 201, Laws of 1941 (chapter 73:16 RCW)): PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in computing such credit for such service in the armed forces of the United States of America no allowance shall be made for service beyond the date of the expiration of the term for which such judge was elected. Any judge desiring to retire under the provisions of this section shall file with the ((state treasurer, who is hereby created treasurer, ex officio, of the fund here-inafter established, and who is hereinafter referred to as 'the treasurer,')) director of retirement systems, a notice in duplicate in writing, verified by his affidavit, fixing a date when he desires his retirement to commence, one copy of which the ((treasurer)) director shall forthwith file with the administrator for the courts.
The notice shall state his name, the court or courts of which he has served as judge, the period of service thereon and the dates of such service. (No retirement shall be made within a period of less than thirty days after such statement is filed, and no retirement after separation from office by expiration of term shall be allowed unless the statement be filed within thirty days thereafter)

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 229, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 2, chapter 18, Laws of 1982 and RCW 2.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court of the state of Washington, who heretofore and/or hereafter shall have served as a judge of any such courts for a period of ten years in the aggregate, and who shall believe he has become physically or otherwise permanently incapacitated for the full and efficient performance of the duties of his office, may file with the ((treasurer)) director of retirement systems an application in duplicate in writing, asking for retirement, which application shall be signed and verified by the affidavit of the applicant or by someone in his behalf and which shall set forth his name, the office then held, the court or courts of which he has served as judge, the period of service thereon, the dates of such service and the reasons why he believes himself to be, or why they believe him to be incapacitated. Upon filing of such application the ((treasurer)) director shall forthwith transmit a copy thereof to the governor who shall appoint three physicians of skill and repute, duly licensed to practice their professions in the state of Washington, who shall, within fifteen days thereafter, for such compensation as may be fixed by the governor, to be paid out of the fund hereinafter created, examine said judge and report, in writing, to the governor their findings in the matter. If a majority of such physicians shall report that in their opinion said judge has become permanently incapacitated for the full and efficient performance of the duties of his office, and if the governor shall approve such report, he shall file the report, with his approval endorsed thereon, in the office of the ((treasurer)) director and a duplicate copy thereof with the administrator for the courts, and from the date of such filing the applicant shall be deemed to have retired from office and be entitled to the benefits of this chapter to the same extent as if he had retired under the provisions of RCW 2.12.010.

(2) The retirement for disability of a judge, who has served as a judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court of the state of Washington for a period of ten years in the aggregate, by the supreme court under Article IV, section 31 of the Constitution of the state of Washington (House Joint Resolution No. 37, approved by the voters November 4, 1980), with the concurrence of the retirement board, shall be considered a retirement under subsection (1) of this section.

For the purpose of the internal accounting record of the retirement ((board)) system and not the segregation of moneys on deposit with the state treasurer there are hereby created the employees' savings fund, the benefit account fund, the income fund and such other funds as may from time to time be required.

1. The employees' savings fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions from the compensation members. The (retirement board) director shall provide for the maintenance of an individual account ((with)) for each member of the retirement system showing the amount of the member's contributions together with interest accumulations thereon. The contributions of a member returned to ((thems)) the former employee upon ((his)) the individual's withdrawal from service, or paid in event of ((his)) the employee's or former employee's death, as provided in this chapter, shall be paid from the employees' savings fund. ((Any accumulated contributions forfeited by failure of a member, or his estate, to claim the same as provided for in this chapter shall be transferred from the employees' savings fund to the income fund:)) The accumulated contributions of a member, upon the commencement of ((his)) the individual's retirement, shall be transferred from the employees' savings fund to the benefit account fund.

2. The benefit account fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the reserves for the payment of all retirement allowances and death benefits, if any, in respect of any beneficiary. The amounts contributed by ((the)) all employers to provide pension benefits shall be credited to the benefit account fund. The benefit account fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all retirement allowances, or benefits in lieu thereof because of which reserves have been transferred from the employees' savings fund to the benefit account fund. At the time a recipient of a retirement allowance again becomes a member there shall be transferred from the benefit account fund to the employees' savings fund and credited to the individual account of such a member a sum that shall be equal to the excess, if any, of ((his)) the individual's account at the date of ((his)) the member's retirement over any service retirement allowance received since that date.

3. An income fund is hereby created for the purpose of crediting interest on the amounts in the various other funds with the exception of the department of retirement systems expense fund, and to provide a contingent fund out of which special requirements of any of the other funds may be covered. ((Transfers for such special requirements shall be made only when the amount in the income fund exceeds the ordinary requirements of such fund as evidenced by a resolution of the retirement board recorded in its minutes. The retirement board shall quarterly allow interest to each of the funds enumerated in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section, and the amount so allowed shall be due and payable to said funds and shall be quarterly credited to the preceding quarterly balance by the retirement board and paid from the income fund:)) The director shall determine when a distribution of interest and other earnings of the retirement system shall take place. The amounts to be credited and the methods for distribution to each of the funds enumerated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section and for special requirements previously mentioned in this subsection shall be at the director's discretion.

1. All accumulated contributions standing to the account of a terminated member ((and unclaimed after the expiration of fifteen years from the date of such termination)) except as provided in RCW 41.40.150(3) and (5), 41.40.170, 41.40.710, and 41.40.720 shall (thereafter become an integral part of the income fund) be transferred from the employees' savings fund to the income fund. If the former employee, the former employee's beneficiary, or the former employee's estate at a future date requests the unclaimed contributions or reinstatement of the rights previously provided thereunder, the former employee's contributions shall be transferred from the income fund to the savings fund and the former employee's account reestablished with all the rights which would have been due the former employee, the former employee's beneficiary, or the former employee's estate as if in fact the transfer to the income fund had not occurred. All income, interest, and dividends derived from the deposits and investments authorized by this chapter shall be paid into the income fund with the exception of interest derived from sums deposited in the department of retirement systems expense fund. The ((retirement board)) director on behalf of the retirement system is hereby authorized to accept gifts and bequests. Any funds that may come into the possession of the retirement system in such manner, or any funds which may be transferred from the employees' savings fund by reason of lack of claimant, or because of a surplus in any fund created by this chapter, or any other moneys the disposition of which is not otherwise provided for ((herein)), shall be credited to the income fund.

2. The board shall have sole discretion to determine the amount of interest to be credited to the employees' savings fund which will thereupon be credited as regular interest to the individual members' accounts. The board may specifically allocate not more than one percent per annum of the investment earnings for the purpose of making sufficient funds available to facilitate the adjustment in service retirement allowances provided by RCW 41.40.195 as now or hereafter amended:)

(2) For all retirees identified in this section, the department shall calculate the increase in the basic retirement benefit which results from any increase in salary granted an employee in excess of the authorized salary increase. The department will then, utilizing tables developed by the state actuary, determine the extra pension cost attributable to exceeding such average and shall bill the retiree's employer, who shall remit the entire amount determined to the retirement system within thirty days, except that the director is empowered to omit billing for an amount less than fifty dollars.
