(2) The commission shall be composed of five members to be selected as follows: The legislative leader of the two largest political parties in each house of the legislature shall appoint one voting member to the commission by January 15th of each year ending in one. By January 31st of each year ending in one, the four appointed members, by an affirmative vote of at least three, shall appoint the remaining member. The fifth member of the commission, who shall be nonvoting, shall act as its chairperson. If any appointing authority fails to make the required appointment by the date established by this subsection, within five days after that date the supreme court shall make the required appointment.

(3) No elected official may serve on the commission. A commission member shall not have been an elected official within six years of his or her appointment to the commission.

(4) The legislature shall enact laws providing for the implementation of this section, to include additional qualifications for commissioners and additional standards to govern the commission. The legislature shall appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its duties.

(5) Each district shall contain a population, excluding nonresident military personnel, as nearly equal as practicable to the population of any other district. (7) The legislature may amend the redistricting plan but must do so by a two-thirds vote of the legislators elected or appointed to each house of the legislature. Any amendment must have passed both houses by the end of the thirtieth day of the first session convened after the commission has submitted its plan to the legislature. After that day, the plan, with any legislative amendments, constitutes the state districting law.

(8) The legislature shall enact laws providing for the reconvening of a commission for the purpose of modifying a districting law adopted under this section. Such reconvening requires a two-thirds vote of the legislators elected or appointed to each house of the legislature. The commission shall conform to the standards prescribed under subsection (5) of this section and any other standards or procedures that the legislature may provide by law. Any modification adopted by the commission may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the legislators elected and appointed to each house of the legislature. The state districting law shall include the modifications with amendments, if any.

(9) The legislature's amendment to a plan or modified plan shall not transfer from any legislative or congressional district contained in the commission's plan more than two percent of the population of the district.

(10) The legislature shall prescribe by law the terms of commission members and the method of filling vacancies on the commission.

(11) The supreme court has original jurisdiction to hear and decide all cases involving congressional and legislative redistricting.

(12) Legislative and congressional districts may not be changed or established except pursuant to this section. A districting plan and any legislative amendments to the plan are not subject to Article III, section 12 of this Constitution.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

WHEREAS, The Soviet Union has agreed in the past to discuss arms limitations agreements only when the United States has given it the incentive to do so by funding the defense capabilities necessary to maintain an effective deterrent; and

WHEREAS, It is in the economic and military interests of both the United States and the Soviet Union to reduce the number of nuclear weapons now possessed by both sides; and

WHEREAS, Any such agreement to reduce nuclear arms must acknowledge our commitment to safeguard our allies and citizens through maintaining a strong and effective deterrent;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that the President of the United States immediately propose to the Soviet Union a mutually fair and verifiable nuclear arms reductions program that addresses the following key issues:

(1) That any agreement to reduce nuclear weapons include mutual on-site inspections, if needed;

(2) That the Soviet Union remove all of more than three hundred forty SS-20 nuclear missiles in exchange for which the United States will cancel its deployment of cruise missiles and Pershing II nuclear missiles in Western Europe;

(3) That negotiations commence at the earliest moment to mutually reduce the number of MIRV missiles, which are the greatest cause of concern for both sides over the ability to survive a nuclear first strike and to return an effective strike in return, and that Congressman Albert Gore (D-Tennessee) and Congressman Joel Pritchard (R-Washington) be commended for their efforts to focus attention on this complex but essential area of arms control;

(4) That a joint communications center manned by Americans and Soviets be set up to avoid any accidental alarms that could touch off a nuclear conflict; and

(5) That President Reagan call for a summit conference with Soviet leader Yuri Andropov to seek additional methods of mutually reducing nuclear weapons and the tension that has accompanied their escalation between both countries."

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 179, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick and Armstrong)

Enacting the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 34 strike all of subsection (2) over to and including "payment," on page 5, line 2 and insert the following:

"(2) Winning parimutuel ticket proceeds which remain unclaimed by the owner for more than ninety days after it became payable is presumed abandoned. Winning parimutuel ticket proceeds which are abandoned under this subsection shall be reportable and deliverable under this chapter unless those proceeds are deposited within thirty days of the date of abandonment in a special account in the horse racing commission fund.

(3) Property, with the exception of unredeemed Washington state lottery tickets, is payable and distributable for the purpose of this chapter notwithstanding the owner's failure to make demand or to present any instrument or document required to receive payment."

Renumber the remaining subsection.

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Appelwick, you stated that this will have no fiscal impact. Does that mean that the state would not be receiving, under this, any of the unclaimed property that it presently is not receiving?"

Mr. Appelwick: "That is correct. Under the bill as it is presented in Substitute House Bill 179, none of the unclaimed winnings of parimutuel that are within the bill would go to the state, and with the amendment that is still true."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Would this amendment change any of the current functions of the Horse Racing Commission expenditures? You indicate that the tracks would set this up in a separate account to be used for paying some kind of special benefits for employees. Does this change anything that's in current practice?"

Mr. Appelwick: "The amendment proposed here does not work any substantive change in the duties, responsibilities or actions of the Horse Racing Commission. What it does is create an option so that if the special fund is created with special constraints on it as I have outlined, the moneys would be deposited in that fund rather than reverting to the general fund under the unclaimed properties statute. What's complicated here is that another bill that is working its way through the Senate would define this special fund and what purposes it could or could not be used for, and this body would have an opportunity to vote on the details of that fund and the details of those expenditures. What this would create is an appropriated dedicated fund for unclaimed parimutuel ticket winnings."

Mr. Van Dyken: "However, none of it would accrue to the state?"

Mr. Appelwick: "None of it does under the bill and none of it would under the amendment."

Mr. Van Dyken spoke against the amendment.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Appelwick to Substitute House Bill No. 179, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 51; absent, 2; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Betrozoff, Bond, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Garrett, Halsan, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Kaiser, Lewis, Long, Lux, Martinis, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Moon, Nealey, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Prince, Pruitt, Sanders, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker - 51.

Signed by Representatives Pruitt, Chair; Fisch, Vice Chair; Barnes, Ranking Minority Chair; Miller, Ranking Minority Vice Chair; Fisher, Jacobsen, Long, Patrick, Schoon, Sommers, Tanner and Vander Stoep.

Absent: Representative Zellinsky.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the rules were suspended, and House Bill No. 1038 was advanced to second reading and placed at the bottom of today's second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 411, by Representatives Monohon, Sommers and Fiske

Modifying water power license fees.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Monohon, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 4, after line 8 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of ecology shall, at least quarterly, compile a hydropower licensing status report. The report shall identify the status of all hydroelectric projects involved in the federal or state permitting or licensing processes for which fees have been paid."

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "fees;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 90.16 RCW."

The bill was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MOTION

Mr. Barrett moved that the rules be suspended and the Committee on Ways & Means be relieved of House Bill No. 314 and the bill be placed on the calendar for immediate consideration.

Mr. Barrett spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Grimm spoke against it.

Mr. G. Nelson rose to speak.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Rule 16(D), the last paragraph, prohibits you the opportunity to speak on this motion, Representative Nelson. It reads, 'A motion for suspension of the rules shall not be debatable, except, however, the mover of the motion may briefly explain the purpose of the motion, and one member may briefly state the opposition to the motion.'"

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. G. Nelson: "It was referenced by the previous speaker, the Ways & Means Committee Chairman, that I had made a particular motion on scope and object dealing with this bill. I want to let the body know the correct situation there, so that my motives aren't impugned--"

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, you are now straying into debating the issue."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, in reference to Rule 16(D), you say that you can only speak on one side of suspension of the rules. The motion was to simply relieve the Ways & Means Committee--"

The Speaker: "You are incorrect, Representative Hastings. The motion, which I repeated, was to suspend the rules."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, there are time when you can repeat a rule one way or the other. It has been common practice that if you want to remove a bill from a committee, it simply takes a simple motion. I would ask your ruling, Mr. Speaker, that--"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The ruling is, Representative Hastings, members place the motion the way they intend it--if Representative Barrett, who is an expert on the rules, wishes to place the motion the way he wishes to place it--I accepted that motion in the way he placed it."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, then from hereafter, since this precedent has been set, it is my assumption then, that whenever this body wants to relieve a bill from committee, it will take two-thirds under your ruling."

The Speaker: "I will accept the motion in the way it is placed. If one of our members on the Democratic side moves it the way Representative Barrett made his motion, that is the way I'll place the motion."

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to suspend the rules and relieve the Committee on Ways & Means of House Bill No. 314 and place it on the second reading calendar, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 52; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Grimm, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Waik, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 52.

Excused: Representative Hankins - 1.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, you just repeated the motion, and you said the motion was to relieve the Ways & Means Committee of the bill. There was no suspension of the rules, so I say, Mr. Speaker, that should be open for debate, just by the way you repeated the motion."

The Speaker: "Representative Hastings, if you listen, I said it failed to receive two-thirds vote. I am not planning on arguing this issue."

MOTION

Mr. G. Nelson moved that the Committee on Ways & Means be relieved of House Bill No. 314, and the bill be placed on the second reading calendar for immediate consideration.

Representatives G. Nelson, Addison, Taylor, Struthers, Lewis and Patrick spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Grimm and Appelwick spoke against it.

Mr. Patrick spoke again in favor of the motion.

A division was called.

Mr. R. King: "We didn't discuss that, but I'm sure it would. The company has a contract with the employees for a certain amount of time and, if the employees want to and the manager wants to renegotiate that contract, as long as they are both interested in doing that, they could do it any time."

Mr. Fiske spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. McDonald moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, following line 27 insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state legislature recognizes that in many instances there would be no successor employer if noncompetitive contracts had to be assumed and that rather than short term lay-offs or lower rates of compensation many Washington workers would face extended periods of unemployment if successor employer were not able to bargain wages. Nothing in this act shall be construed as prohibiting a prospective successor employer from bargaining wages and benefits with existing employees so as to secure a renegotiated contract as a condition of purchase."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1038, by Representative Pruitt

Relating to congressional redistricting.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Pruitt, Substitute House Bill No. 1038 was substituted for House Bill No. 1038, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 1038 was read the second time.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 5, strikes lines 13 and 14

On page 5, following line 18 insert

*T 325

T 326

T 328*

On page 18, following line 30 insert

*T 241

T 242*

On page 20, strike lines 31, 32 and 34

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "If we do allow this amendment—in the text beside it, it says it's in excess of 2.8% of the population— isn't that in conflict with Substitute House Bill 20, which said that any amendment would not be more than one percent?"

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative McDonald, your point is well taken with reference to Substitute House Bill 20. Also, the Speaker would like to point out that Rule 12(F) states: 'No amendment by reference. No act shall ever be revised or amended without being set forth at full length.' The Speaker finds this amendment faulty. It isn't set forth with the purpose of the amendment at full length; therefore, the Speaker will rule the amendment out of order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, there's nothing in the Constitution and there's nothing in our rules that prohibits introducing an amendment on authority. I guess Representative McDonald's point of order was whether or not this amendment is in violation of a previous bill. What I'm asking you is what is your ruling based on?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "House Rule 12(F)."

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, I'm confused. I thought the process was to try to perfect bills as they come on floor of the House, and as I understand what Rule 12(F) talks about means that you—is this not just a bill that's going through the legislative process and therefore is amendable? If that's the case, then why does Rule 12(F) apply?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Apparently the question is that the amendment should amend Substitute House Bill 20. He didn't offer the amendment to that act."

Mr. Hastings: "That's the point. He's amending Substitute House Bill 1038, not Substitute House Bill 20. So why is this amendment not in order?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "He's actually amending Substitute House Bill 20 and not Substitute House Bill No. 1038."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Padden: "It's my understanding that you ruled my amendment out of order due to a violation of House Rule 12(F) because I should have amended Substitute House Bill 20. My decision, so that the members do know, is that Substitute House Bill 20, in and of itself, is unconstitutional because it is a delegation of authority of the legislature in a direct violation of the Constitution, which says the legislature shall redistrict. Until we have a constitutional amendment adopting an independent redistricting commission, actions such as my amendment to Substitute House Bill 1038 should be in order, and the one percent restriction on Substitute House Bill 20 is unconstitutional."

Substitute House Bill No. 1038 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

* Sec. 1. Section 51.08.180, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1982 and RCW 51.08.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Worker" means every person in this state who is engaged in the employment of an employer under this title, whether by way of manual labor or otherwise in the course of his or her employment; also every person in this state who is engaged in the employment of or who is working under an independent contract, the essence of which is his or her personal labor for an employer under this title, whether by way of manual labor or otherwise, in the course of his or her employment: PROVIDED, That a person is not a worker for the purpose of this title, with respect to his or her activities attendant to operating a truck which he or she owns, and which is leased to a common or contract carrier.

(2) For the purposes of this title, any person, firm, or corporation currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW is not a worker when:

((+)) (a) Contracting to perform work for any contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

((2)) (b) The person, firm, or corporation has a principal place of business which would be eligible for a business deduction for internal revenue service tax purposes other than that furnished by the contractor for which the business has contracted to furnish services;

((3)) (c) The person, firm, or corporation maintains a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business; and

((4)) (d) The work which the person, firm, or corporation has contracted to perform is:

((a)) (i) The work of a contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010; or

((b)) (ii) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

(3) Any person, firm or corporation registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW including those performing work for any contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW is a worker when the contractor supervises or controls the means by which the result is accomplished or the manner in which the work is performed."

Mr. Sutherland: "The purpose of this amendment is to clarify when a contractor contracts with other contractors to do construction work, whether the contractors contracted with are workers for the purpose of industrial insurance. It is the intent that if the contractor letting the contracts and the contractors being contracted with all meet the requirements of subsection 2 of this amendment, that the contractors contracted with would not be workers for the purposes of industrial insurance. However, subsection 3 of the amendment provides that if the contractor letting the contract is attempting to avoid employee taxes including industrial insurance by requiring his or her employees to be contractors, that in this case, the contractors contracted with would be workers for the purposes of industrial insurance."

I view this amendment as not a friendly amendment to perfect it, but one that would simply delay its passage. It is not needed for the functioning of the collective bargaining agreements that will be negotiated."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "So, it polishes rather than perfects?"

Mr. R. King: "It probably clouds."

Mr. Vander Stoep spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. B. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Sayan.

Mr. Sayan: "Representative Williams, do your amendments, in fact, intend to delete all of sections 2, 3, 9, 10, 14 and 16?"

Mr. B. Williams: "Yes, the amendments do have the effect of deleting all of those sections, which would put back into existing state law the ability to judge state employees on pay increases, layoffs, and the ability to consider, when you bring an employee back, both his performance and his seniority--not just one but both."

Mr. Sayan: "My question then is directly related to section 3, which says, 'After consultation with state agency heads, employee organizations, and other interested parties, the state personnel director shall develop standardized employee performance evaluation procedures and forms which shall be used by state agencies for the appraisal of employee job performance at least annually.' Then it says further, 'A standardized performance evaluation procedure shall be instituted and shall apply...', and so on. How does the deletion of these things contribute to what you are attempting to accomplish?"

Mr. B. Williams: "The deletion of section 3 restores the law back to existing state law. House Bill No. 1226 which we passed two years ago, is the law currently in effect that requires the State Personnel Board to present to the legislature, by April 1st of this year, their evaluation system for management of employees. That requires a concurrent resolution by both houses of the legislature to approve before it can be implemented."

Mr. Sayan: "I guess my question is, is it in place in this law to provide standardized employee performance evaluation?"

Mr. B. Williams: "If you continue to read in section 3, the part which is deleted is the part that would take away that part of the law. For example, if you look on page 7 of the bill, you see on page 7, line 10, the deleted language says, 'This section shall expire June 30, 1985. This section shall not apply to management employees after June 30, 1984.' By deleting that language, you delete the ability for us to evaluate employees based upon merit."

Representatives Sayan and Kreidler spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Barrett and McDonald spoke in favor of it.

Mr. B. Williams spoke again in favor of the amendment.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 134:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading.

Mr. R. King moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives R. King, Sayan and Walk:

On page 6, line 31 after "agency" strike the period and insert ";" and after line 31 insert a new subsection to read as follows:

"(21) Assuring persons who are or have been employed in classified positions under chapter 28B.16 RCW will be eligible for employment, reemployment, transfer and promotion in respect to classified positions covered by this chapter and with the same preferences as are granted to employees who are or have been employed in classified positions covered by this chapter, except that persons whose employment is terminated by an agency pursuant to a reduction in force shall have preference in respect to appointment to openings in classified positions for which they are eligible in that agency."

On page 12, line 34 after "month" strike the period and insert ";" and after line 34 insert new subsections to read as follows:

"(20) Assuring that persons who are or have been employed in classified positions under chapter 41.06 RCW will be eligible for employment, reemployment, transfer and promotion in respect to classified positions covered by this chapter and with the same preferences as are granted to employees who are or have been employed in classified positions covered by this chapter, except that persons whose employment is terminated by an institution or board pursuant to a reduction in force shall have preference in respect to appointment to openings in classified positions for which they are eligible provided by such institution or board;

(21) Assuring that any person who is or has been employed in a classified position under this chapter will be eligible for employment, reemployment, transfer and promotion in respect to classified positions at any other institution of higher education or related board and with the same preferences as are granted to employees who are or have been employed in classified positions by such other institution or board, except that persons whose employment is terminated by an institution or board pursuant to a reduction in force shall have preference in respect to appointment to openings in classified positions for which they are eligible provided by such institution or board."

Mr. R. King spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. B. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Williams, looking at this amendment and then listening to some of the discussion on the previous amendment where reference was made that there was no problem with promotion, in reading this last three lines, it seems to me that there could be a problem with some promotions. If two people were hired within a day of each other, the most senior member and the most junior member were promoted and then there was a RIF; it seems to me that the more senior member could bump that senior member because he would be eligible. Is that how you read it?"

Mr. B. Williams: "As I read this, Substitute House Bill 134 does definitely affect promotions and this further discriminates, particularly against females in government service. By adding this language if you look at the position you will give preference to the person who has been on the RIF roster, as opposed to someone who has the qualifications for the job and may be promoted."

Mr. Hastings spoke against the amendments, and Mr. Sayan spoke in favor of them.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative R. King and others to Substitute House Bill No. 134, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 42; excused, 2.

(2) At any time prior to or during a hearing in such a case, when the court finds upon clear, cogent and convincing evidence that an incident of child abuse or neglect has occurred, the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem, or other parties, order the examination by a physician, psychologist or psychiatrist, of any parent or child or other person having custody of the child at the time of the alleged child abuse or neglect, if the court finds such an examination is necessary to the proper determination of the case. The hearing may be continued pending the completion of such examination. The physician, psychologist or psychiatrist conducting such an examination may be required to testify in the dispositional hearing concerning the results of such examination and may be asked to give his opinion as to whether the protection of the child requires that he not be returned to the custody of his parents or other persons having custody of him at the time of the alleged child abuse or neglect. POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Smitherman.

Mr. Smitherman: "Representative Lux, there seems to be a great deal of conversation about mandating or not mandating. I have a question regarding health care coverage. You're on Financial Institutions, but I think you've probably seen enough of these kinds of contracts. Is it unusual for that to be written as it is in the context of Substitute House Bill 336 as 'shall'? Is that the common practice for other forms of insurance carriers?"

Mr. Lux: "If you're mandating it, 'shall' is the word to use. I imagine if you are just making it an offer, then you put 'may.' The difference between 'may' and 'shall' is mandatory."

Mr. Smitherman: "I guess my question is: If I looked at other medical care coverage, would they have 'shall'?"

Mr. Lux: "If it were hospital coverage, it would say 'shall cover hospital coverage.' If it covers prescriptions, it would say 'shall cover prescriptions.' If there are any exclusions, those would be spelled out, but whatever is covered, if it is mandatory, it would say 'shall.'"

Mr. Dickie spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lux again opposed it.

Is this correct or incorrect?"

Mr. Lux: "That is correct. We discussed that yesterday; that chiropractors practice in an outpatient setting, and it is far less costly to practice there than it is in an inpatient setting in the hospital, and that's where orthopedic physicians practice."

Ms. Long: "Then it is true also that there should not be an increased cost?"

Modifying provisions regulating school transportation.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Ms. Galloway spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Galloway yielded to question by Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Galloway, my question is the other body on the other side of the rotunda has not seen fit to fund K through 12 transportation, and my concern with this bill is what would happen to K-12 transportation? I have a document here that identifies that and I just wanted you to explain to the body, with the budget that is being proposed by the other side of the rotunda, what will happen to K-12 transportation?"

Ms. Galloway: "Well, Representative Struthers, I believe that we have not completed the budget process, and this bill leaves discretion of funding transportation to the legislature. That budget has to be approved by both bodies before it can go to the governor for finalization. I'm hoping we will do better than the 55% to 58% that we have recently in effect."

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Galloway, then it is necessary to fund K-12 transportation in order to fund and implement this bill we are speaking of on third reading?"

Ms. Galloway: "Yes, this is a policy statement. This is a direction to the legislature for funding. This is a funding formula, and it leaves the discretion to the school districts as to which students will ride and the transportation route. However, it is up to the legislature to determine the funding for pupil transportation."

Representatives Struthers, Long and Addison spoke in opposition to the bill, and Representatives Charnley, Dickie and P. King spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Galloway yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Galloway, I have a question on page 4 of the bill which defines eligible students. The definition is for a student whose route stop (it used to say 'residence') is more than one radius mile from the student's school. I guess that brings to mind the question that if a student lives inside of the one-mile radius, but the school district were to choose to assign that student to a bus stop immediately outside the one-mile radius, where the school district could still make a claim that the student's route stop is outside the one-mile radius and, therefore, request state funding for this student even though it appeared that they were attempting to circumvent the law. I'd like to know the legislative intent of the definition under the example I gave you."

Ms. Galloway: "The intent is to transport those children who live outside one radius mile; however, the school district has complete authority in determining where the route stops will be and which children will be transported. The board has that authority."

Mr. Cantu: "I understand the authority the board has, but my question is: For the purpose of determining state-funding eligibility for the student, whether or not that district would be compensated by the state if that student lived within one mile, but was assigned a route stop outside the one mile by the district for the purpose of collecting state funding for the transportation purposes?"

Ms. Galloway: "There is no way to absolutely assure that will not happen; however, the districts do have to submit a map showing where the route stops are, and if they were all on the border of the radius mile, I would guess that would be questioned. The numbers of students that will be riding also will have to be submitted for the prior year as well as the current year."

Mr. Cantu spoke against the bill, and Ms. Galloway spoke again in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Ballard.

Mr. Ballard: "Representative King, in this bill is there anything that has to do with the decision that will be made medically? For instance, will there be any negotiations from the paramedic as to what medical procedures will or will not be performed and how they shall or shall not be performed?"

Mr. R. King: "There is nothing in this bill that would change the law relative to paramedics as it has been in the past. When this issue came up before the Labor Committee, there were no examples given of paramedics attempting to negotiate medical questions, and I certainly would not see the intent of this legislature to allow the para-professional to make professional decisions. That's not the intent of this at all. It's just the working conditions and things that are normally negotiated."

Mr. Sayan spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

As I read the fiscal impact statement for this bill, I notice it has a very definite major negative impact on the revenue for the agencies for the state of Washington. I ask, Mr. Speaker, is this bill subject to scrutiny by the Ways & Means Committee, according to Rule 25B(6)?"

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, it has been the custom of the House that bills that come out of the Transportation Committee, including those of the transportation budget itself, are reviewed by that committee, and have not officially gone to Ways & Means. That would be the case here."

What I wanted this legislation in place for—I will be asking that that be included, but if I fail in that request—we at least need this in order to have any semblance of a program in place. I'd gladly have this bill be effective only in times in which there was no funding. We need this at least if we can't get that, but I don't see this as any kind of leverage for that. The term 'taxing district' for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting 'yes' on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: PROVIDED, That a proposition to levy an additional tax for the support of the common schools shall be submitted for approval of a majority of the electors at any general election: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the initial proposition to levy an additional tax for the support of the common schools fails to receive the requisite vote for approval at the general election, the proposition may be resubmitted for approval of sixty percent of the electors voting on the proposition once within the twelve months following that general election: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, any proposition pursuant to this subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools may provide such support for a two year period;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: PROVIDED, That a proposition to issue bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an additional annual tax levy for the support of the common schools shall be submitted for approval of a majority of the electors at any general election: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the initial proposition to levy an additional tax for the support of the common schools fails to receive the requisite vote for approval at the general election, the proposition may be resubmitted for approval of sixty percent of the electors voting on the proposition once within the twelve months following that general election: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Representatives Cantu and Addison spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Heck and Schoon spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Cantu yielded to question by Ms. Haugen.

Ms. Haugen: "Representative Cantu, I serve on a local school board. Will this amendment be asking me to set a levy limit on the people in my district before I know how much money I made?"

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Haugen, I served also on a school board for eight years. During those years, we ran levies when the levies were of a much larger amount than the percentage of the school funding. We were in the forty to fifty percent instead of the ten percent, and we were able to manage. We had enough information that we could do that. Yes, there will be enough information available for the district to identify the students that will be counted in September and they will be counted in October, so there will be enough information for the school districts to set their levy."

Representatives Haugen and Brough spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Cantu spoke again in favor of it.

SB 3145 Prime Sponsor, Senator Peterson: Modifying provisions on special fuel taxes. Reported by Committee on Transportation

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 3, after line 6, insert the following:

*Sec. 3, Section 16, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 40, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.38.150 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file tax reports with the department, on forms prescribed by the department, at periodic intervals as shown in the following schedule:

Estimated Yearly Tax Liability	Reporting Frequency
$ 0 - $100	Yearly
$101 - 250	Semi-yearly
$251 - 499	Quarterly
$500 and over	Monthly

The department shall establish the reporting frequency for each applicant at the time the special fuel license is issued. If it becomes apparent that any special fuel licensee is not reporting in accordance with the above schedule, the department shall change the licensee's reporting frequency by giving thirty days' notice to the licensee by mail to his address of record. A report shall be filed with the department even though no special fuel was used, or tax is due, for the reporting period. Each tax report shall contain a declaration by the person making the same, to the effect that the statements contained therein are true and are made under penalties of perjury, which declaration shall have the same force and effect as a verification of the report and shall be in lieu of such verification. The report shall show such information as the department may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter: PROVIDED, That if a special fuel dealer or special fuel user is also a special fuel supplier at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, and if separate storage is provided thereat from which special fuel is delivered or placed into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the tax report to the department need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made. The special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file the report on or before the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month following the period to which it relates.

Subject to the written approval of the department, tax reports may cover a period ending on a day other than the last day of the calendar month. Taxpayers granted approval to file reports in this manner will file such reports on or before the twenty-fifth day following the end of the reporting period. No change to this reporting period will be made without the written authorization of the department.

If the final filing date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday the next secular or business day shall be the final filing date. Such reports shall be considered filed or received on the date shown by the post office cancellation mark stamped upon an envelope containing such report properly addressed to the department, or on the date it was mailed if proof satisfactory to the department is available to establish the date it was mailed.

The department, if it deems it necessary in order to insure payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, or to facilitate the administration of this chapter, shall have the authority to require the filing of reports and tax remittances at shorter intervals than one month if, in its opinion, an existing bond has become insufficient.

The department may permit any special fuel user whose sole use of special fuel is in motor vehicles or equipment exempt from tax as provided in RCW 82.38.075 and RCW 82.38.080(1), (2), (3), and ~~((6))~~ (8), in lieu of the reports required in this section, to submit reports annually or as requested by the department, in such form as the department may require.

A special fuel user whose sole use of special fuel is for purposes other than the propulsion of motor vehicles upon the public highways of this state shall not be required to submit the reports required in this section.

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

In line 4 of the title, after "82.38.110;" insert "amending section 16, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 40, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.38.150;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Betrozoff: "My intention is to allow the employer's policies that deal with private phone calls to prevail in this situation. It would be a company policy that the employees would follow. It wouldn't be a state law. The state law would cover that if they did have a policy and if it did cover long distance or local calls and if they were personal calls, that the employer would not be able to monitor those calls."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Wang, I just want to put the overall effect of this bill in a specific circumstance. I'm sure you have had the opportunity, as has everyone else, of dealing with information operators or dealing with various telephone operators in asking for various assistance, and sometimes you will get someone who is excellent, very friendly and very professional, and other times you get someone who just hits you in a very unprofessional manner and is very grumpy. I know sometimes I feel like issuing a complaint or issuing a congratulatory letter, but it certainly goes on in my mind that I hope somebody is listening to this conversation to give that good operator a plus or that bad operator a minus.

My question is: Would the bill with your amendment as passed, prevent--other than specified prenotified evaluation periods--someone to tell whether or not we have a regular grump or a regular very excellent telephone operator?"

Mr. Wang: "Representative Van Dyken, there are several ways in which we can deal with that problem. One is you can use some sort of tone or any sort of device so that the person calling in will have some idea that the call is being recorded. I was shocked to discover that my calls might be monitored when I call through an assistance operator. This would simply put a tone in or something, so that I, when calling in, would know as well as the employee. The second way is with the evaluation or training period as provided in the bill and the final way is with complaints. So, there are a number of ways in which to respond to that problem."

Representatives Van Dyken, G. Nelson and Ballard spoke against the amendment.

Mr. Heck demanded a Call of the House and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Appelwick, does House Bill 479 have a fiscal impact to the state?"

Mr. Appelwick: "No, it does not have a separate fiscal note that I'm aware of. It's included as part of the $3 million under the unclaimed property act that was previously passed."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "When something becomes unclaimed property, it falls to the state. Is that right?"

Mr. Appelwick: "That is correct."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "So you wouldn't know whether or not there would be a fiscal impact, whether you did it in a year or two years?"

Mr. Appelwick: "The way the uniform unclaimed property act and the integration of this bill work, is that after the property has been named unclaimed for the statutory period of time, it then would be surrendered to the state to be held. The state derives its income then either from custody of the fees that are subsequently unclaimed at a future date, or from interest on those proceeds that have sold."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "But whether it was two years or six months or one year, you don't know whether or not there would be a fiscal impact of any degree?"

Mr. Appelwick: "We can't tell without looking at actual deposits what the extent of the fiscal impact would be, but certainly by the fact this shortens the period of time for surrendering those properties and a shorter period of time which financial institutions must hold them, it would, in all probability, result in some coming to the state sooner."

Mr. Armstrong spoke against the amendments, and Representatives Tilly and Locke spoke in favor of them.

Mr. Ballard spoke again in favor of the amendments.

The amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the following amendment was adopted:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Lux, who would pick up the tab for this insurance program if it went broke? We don't have a guaranty fund."

Mr. Lux: "I think what you're asking is prudently responsible. I think the responsibility as we've written the bill now, is that the insurance commissioner is responsible to make sure there are adequate reserves so there are not losses. In addition to this, any self-insurance program has an over insurance provision that would require that like any self-insured industry for workers' compensation they all have private insurance that's a reinsurance umbrella in case of a catastrophic chill or whatever happens out there. So the same thing would prevail here, and I don't see where putting these people under the guaranty fund--if you put them under the guaranty fund, it would be an out--then the citizens of the State of Washington would pick it up, and I don't think that would be appropriate. I would certainly not support putting the self-funding under the guaranty fund."

POINT OF INQUIRY

If the present carriers have so much set aside in reserve and then they have a major catastrophe and they would go way over their reserve, would they be obligated to pay those losses no matter if it went into millions of dollars over their reserve; and at the same time, if this were under a state insurance plan and they ran through their reserve and ran out of money, what would happen?"

Mr. Lux: "Well, Representative Ballard, I suppose you are asking me what would happen if an atomic bomb or a nuclear warhead landed on the capitol here. I really can't answer that. If you are going to destroy everything that's out there, you are asking me what is the back up. The only way I can explain that is that there is not insurance coverage if every home in America is demolished tomorrow. If every bank in town, every bank in America goes under tomorrow, there isn't anywhere enough in the FDIC to cover that. I don't know how you would handle those kinds of situations."

Representatives Ballard and McDonald spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Lux, on page 3 of the engrossed substitute bill, line 19 of subsection (b), it says: 'The state employees' insurance board shall keep full and adequate accounts and records of the assets, obligations, transactions and affairs of the self-insurance program.' Could you give me a definition of what 'adequate' means in this case?"

Mr. Lux: "Representative Hastings, when this was discussed it was said that this means that they have to follow exactly the same regulations and audits that other insurance companies do. The insurance commissioner is going to review and audit these funds."

Mr. Hastings: "So is it the intent to have as strict, if not stricter, regulations than what the insurance commissioner would require in the private sector?"

Mr. Lux: "That's the intent of the bill, and that's the intent of the amendment that was offered and adopted in committee."

Mr. Fuhrman spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Lux, if the states goes into the insurance business, this is insurance business which the private sector apparently has and of course, the private sector pays taxes such as the premium tax which the state would not receive as revenue if this bill passes. Correct?"

Mr. Lux: "No, that's not correct at all. We're not going into the insurance business in the first place. There's nothing in this bill that says we're going into the insurance business. It says they are being allowed to self fund and that means that they would probably hire an insurance company that would be similar to a service company in the workers' comp field to administer the programs for them. They are not going into the insurance business any more than Boeing goes into the insurance business when they self insure for worker's comp."

Mr. Sanders: "But this is taking away insurance from the private sector. It's possible that the state insurance program would hire a service company, but it would not directly contract with a private insurance company for the insurance, isn't that correct?"

Mr. Lux: "Representative Sanders, that isn't correct either. The only time they would use the self funding mechanism is when they felt in the judgment of the board that there was a margin or that they weren't getting adequate competitive bidding and that they could do better by self-funding. In any other case if there were competitive bids from reputable insurance companies, the way the statute reads, they would be obligated to take those bids."

Representatives Sanders and Addison spoke against passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 620, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 40; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Patrick, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 58.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Egger, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Lewis, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 40.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 620, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 132, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Monohon, Grimm, Kreidler, Belcher, Walk, Vander Stoep, Patrick, P. King, Johnson, Isaacson, Garrett, Ristuben and Halsan)

Modifying provisions relating to accrued vacation leave for public employees.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Ms. Monohon spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Dickie spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Monohon yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Monohon, I'm trying to get clarification on the Supreme Court ruling that you made reference to. My understanding from the bill report (I'm not an attorney) is that the challenge was brought because Senate Bill 5007 prohibited employees from cashing out their sick leave. Because they were under existing contract, the case was brought before the Supreme Court on the basis that such a prohibition would not apply to persons employed prior to the effective date of this act because of existing employee contracts. I'm asking: Does the Supreme Court ruling relate to that question or did it relate to the fact that the legislature cannot enact future contracts that would allow payment of accrued vacation?"

Ms. Monohon: "I'm not sure if I fully understand your question, but the Supreme court ruled that the existing language affected PERS I with their cash out and that was a contractual right under the pension system and we could not address the pension abuse by that method. As I said before, what we're trying to do is just strip the language off the books that the Supreme Court has said is unconstitutional and come back with a different method in a later bill to address that."

Representatives Cantu and Taylor spoke against the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Monohon yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Monohon, the question I have is regarding primarily the PUD employees and SB 5007 did effect them. In our district we have a number of districts that have allowed people to cash in up to sixty days. How does this particular measure bear upon them?"

Ms. Monohon: "The ruling addresses PERS I employees and says that we cannot use this language to address the pension ballooning situation for all PERS I employees; that to do so was unconstitutional. If that individual is a PERS I employee, then you cannot address the pension ballooning with that situation. What we are doing is bringing the language into conformity, and then we will come back with another bill that uses a different method to address the pension ballooning."

Mr. Tilly: "Is there anything in this bill that would prohibit a local PUD board of commissioners, through their own policy, from reducing from sixty or fifty-six days down to thirty days or maybe even allowing no-days cash-in for a PERS I employee?"

Ms. Monohon: "It would depend on the contract and what kind of employees they are, if they are a PERS I or PERS II or what."

Mr. Tilly: "But the intent if not to mandate that the sixty days continue?"

Ms. Monohon: "The intent of this bill is just simply to bring the statute into conformity with the Supreme Court ruling and to come back and address the pension ballooning with a different vehicle."

Mr. G. Nelson spoke against passage of the bill.

Substitute House Bill No. 300, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 606, by Representatives R. King, Patrick, Fisch, Lux, Ellis, Jacobsen and Belcher

Regulating employee-employer relationships.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representative R. King spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Struthers, Patrick, Broback, Ballard and Schoon spoke against it.

Mr. R. King spoke again in favor of the bill, and Mr. Ballard again opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative King, the last paragraph of section 1 in the first part says that if I have a contract and I desire to sell to you, I have to tell you that I have a bargaining contract. The second part of that says, 'The disclosure requirements are satisfied to include any contract of sale, agreement to purchase or similar instrument of conveyance, a statement that the successor employed is bound as provided for in the collective bargaining agreement.' My question is, what happens if I tell you that we have a collective bargaining agreement but we don't agree in any of the contract for sale, agreement of purchase, that they should carry out? What happens then?"

Mr. R. King: "All that says is that one way of satisfying the disclosure requirement would be to put it into the contract. Another way would be to have a jointly-signed statement that's not quite a contract. There would be a number of ways that the seller could protect himself without actually putting it into a sales' contract."

Mr. Hastings: "Then by what you said, it sounds to me that you really don't have to do what is in the second part. I tell you I have a contract which fulfills that part, and then if I don't have to put it in a contract--the collective bargaining, it seems to me, is rather open that way."

Mr. R. King: "In the first place, we would hope there would never be a purpose for a law like this, that nobody would violate it. If a sale occurs--say I sold a business to you--I told you verbally that I have a union contract and you are going to have to live up to that contract for the six months remaining on the contract. When it comes up for renegotiation, you are on your own and can do what you want. I don't write it down and you don't write it down anyplace. You buy the business from me and you immediately fire everybody; that violates the contract. There would be an action brought against you and one of your possible defenses would be that you were not alerted, I suppose, and then you and I would have an argument."

Mr. Hastings: "I guess that's my point. I have to tell you by written notice. My point is that if we don't put it in any other area in the contract, agreement of purchase, we just verbally say it."

Mr. R. King: "In most sales there would be attorneys involved in the transaction, and you are going to have all kinds of leases and contracts and papers and agreements and encumbrances and everything else, and the labor contract would be probably one of the most simple ones to understand. With this language in the law, any attorney who represented you to the buyer or the seller would make sure that was known and noticed."

Mr. Hastings: "If we don't agree on that second part, then where are we? What's the intent of the bill then?"

Mr. R. King: "If you can make a sales' agreement then there's no problem. You are going to have to decide if you want to buy the business and continue that contract."

Mr. Padden spoke against passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 606, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 48; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J. Voting nay: Representatives Fuhrman, Moon - 2.

Substitute House Joint Memorial No. 19, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 319, by Committee on Commerce & Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives J. King and B. Williams; by Liquor Control Board request)

Modifying provisions relating to the state liquor control board.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Van Dyken and Moon:

On page 1, line 29 after "determine" insert "after obtaining the approval of the legislative authority of the local jurisdiction."

On page 2, line 3 after "appoint" insert "after obtaining the approval of the legislative authority of the local jurisdiction."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Van Dyken withdrew the amendments.

Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Van Dyken and Moon:

On page 8, following line 27 insert "The board shall issue no beer retailer license Class A, B, D, or E or wine retailer license Class C or F or Class H license covering any premises not now licensed unless the approval of the legislative authority of the local jurisdiction is obtained."

Representatives Van Dyken and Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Schmidt spoke against it.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Van Dyken, could you tell me under what kind of procedures would a local jurisdiction make its decision on where it wanted another licensee? I'm not familiar with anything beyond zoning at the local level, which really would apply to this. There seems to be nothing at the local level to give it criteria."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Barrett, I'm glad you asked that question because it permits me to clarify what is a misunderstanding, obviously, of the intent of the amendment. This amendment has nothing to do with the location of a facility, whether it will be on 'H' street or 'Y' street; it's just the number of licensees, so that if there were an applicant for a liquor license and if the city council says they think they have enough outlets, the city council would have the authority to say that no more liquor licenses will be authorized. It just gives them that authority."

Representatives Barrett and Struthers spoke against the amendment, and Representatives G. Nelson and Moon spoke in favor of it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Dellwo moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Dellwo, Stratton, Egger, Padden and Van Dyken:

On page 8, line 31 after "the premises of any" strike "tax supported public" and insert "~~(tax supported public)~~"

On page 8, line 36 after "license" strike ", and if, after receipt by the school (~~" and insert "(and if, after receipt by the school)"~~)"

On page 9, strike lines 1 through 10 and insert "~~((church, or public institution of the notice as provided in this subsection, the board receives written notice, within twenty days after posting such notice, from an official representative or representatives of the schools and/or churches within five hundred feet of said proposed licensed premises, indicating to the board that there is an objection to the issuance of such license because of proximity to a school or church. For the purpose of this section, church shall mean a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection therewith))~~."

Representatives Dellwo, Stratton, Padden and Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives J. King and Schmidt spoke against them.

The amendments were adopted.

Mr. G. Nelson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 13, following line 18 insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 66.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The board shall cease selling, at retail, beer and wine on June 30, 1986."

Mr. G. Nelson spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Nelson, I'm told by people who frequent state liquor stores that there are beers on sale there of a higher alcohol content than are legally salable in grocery stores. That being the case, would that then make the sale of those beers illegal in the state or where could they be sold?"

Mr. G. Nelson: "We would have to change that particular statute to permit those stronger beers, but that's why we're now putting on notice, 1986. You could, I think, make that particular change rather easily. You are right, there are strong beers that are sold in liquor stores that aren't sold in the grocery stores, but this amendment would establish the stepping stone to permit that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Smitherman.

Mr. Smitherman: "Representative Nelson, it's my understanding that if we phased out the sale of beer and wine in the liquor stores in a one-year period that it would have an impact of a loss of $8 million in revenue. If we did it over a three-year period, obviously that loss would be sustained over a greater period of time, but have you estimated what that loss would be over the period you are discussing?"

Mr. G. Nelson: "That estimate was weighed, Representative Smitherman, by the State Liquor Control Board itself in an analysis they gave to the Legislative Budget Committee on July 1, 1982. That particular $8 million per year, in my opinion, would be less as we now get people oriented toward the idea of purchasing from their local grocery store. What's happening today is that those that want to buy beer or wine, in some cases, are going to two different establishments, especially in the case brought up by one of our previous colleagues on the strong beer where there may be some interest in purchasing that, or a particular different wine, or whatever the case might be. I want to point out, I want to be sure in all candor that you recognize this, in some cases the liquor control stores will have a cheaper price because they are cost subsidizing. When it's a monopoly within the State of Washington you can get away with that kind of stuff. So they took that particular point in mind, but I am convinced that we will far make up for any loss by transferring this particular business into the private sector. There wasn't, in this case, in this particular report that was made, any reduction in numbers of employees, of space that would be reduced for the storage of the wine and beer. There are just an awful lot of things that I think we are lacking that in this three-year phase-in would be taken care of and we would, in fact, likely be making more money than we are today."

Representatives Brekke, Sommers and Vander Stoep spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Clayton, Barrett and Fiske spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative G. Nelson to Substitute House Bill No. 319, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 45; excused, 0.

The bill was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Mr. R. King moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. R. King moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Mr. R. King spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson: "Mr. Speaker, can I offer a substitute amendment for the King amendment to the committee amendment?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "These two amendments would have to be acted upon by the House first, then you could offer your amendment."

Mr. Isaacson spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: "Representative Barrett, as I read the amendment, it merely states that the applicant has to be at a comparable level with other applicants, doesn't have to be superior to the other applicants as the last speaker seemed to imply. Is that correct?"

Mr. Barrett: "That's correct, Representative Schoon, and I think it should be noted that when the word 'competitive' is used in the manner in which it is done here we don't mean you have to finish first. What we're saying is that the person to be hired back--and I keep reminding you, this person was terminated because of injuries--and for that person to be hired back, they would have to be able to function at the level--and the word 'competitive' has many synonyms--at a level which is equal to that of the other applicant and equal to the nature of the job. I will remind you that there is another portion in this bill that says that they must be reemployed for any job, obviously within that company. You are correct, Representative Schoon, this does not require that you be firstest and bestest."

The amendments to the amendment were not adopted.

Mr. Ballard moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Ms. Belcher moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Dellwo moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives West and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On line 34 of the amendment following "security" strike ", or to persons in the field of public law enforcement who are seeking promotion to a rank of captain or higher" and insert "~~(-or to persons in the field of public law enforcement who are seeking promotion to a rank of captain or higher))~~"

Representatives Betrozoff, Struthers and Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Belcher spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Belcher yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Belcher, I'm wondering what the underlying logic or rationale behind the payment of twice the employee's wages, during the time they are off and the $2,000 penalty?"

Ms. Belcher: "The purpose of the penalty clause in the bill was simply to make it unreasonable for an employer to violate the law. I think that's the purpose of any penalty."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "But specifically the numbers--twice the wages--is that something that's used in other law other places?"

Ms. Belcher: "I couldn't tell you how we arrived at twice the amount of the wages, whether that was modeled after other state law or not. It simply was an amount we felt was reasonable for people who had been subjected to having to take a lie detector test and then going through a court procedure and losing. It seemed a reasonable penalty."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "The same question on the $2,000. Is there something else that matches in state law or is that just an arbitrary figure?"

Ms. Belcher: "It's a reasonable penalty for someone who has been subjected and it would be a penalty that would be awarded after the person had won a judgment in court."

Mr. Vander Stoep spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Sayan spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Belcher yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: "Representative Belcher, I noticed that in subsection (a) it says, 'Twice the amount of wages lost by an employee who is terminated....' What amount of wages would an employee lose by being terminated? Does that pay for the rest of ones life?"

Ms. Belcher: "That was not the intent. The intent would be from the date of termination until the date the award was made. I assume that's how most loss of wage judgments are determined."

Mr. Barnes: "That would be an award made through court action?"

Ms. Belcher: "Yes, upon winning the court case, the person would be awarded twice the lost wages."

Representatives Locke and R. King spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Betrozoff spoke again in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Betrozoff to House Bill No. 449, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 52; excused, 1.

Representatives Lewis and Lux spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Pruitt spoke against it.

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The amendment by Representative G. Nelson as amended was adopted.

On page 1, following line 16 insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to Title 19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

While operators of carnival rides or devices must possess and offer the protection of general liability insurance coverage to their users it shall be lawful for an operator to offer users noninsured rides so long as the price of such ride is at least eighty percent of the cost of an insured ride."

Mr. Bond spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Halsan spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bond yielded to question by Mr. Sutherland.

Mr. Sutherland: "Representative Bond, on the next to the last line it says 'at least eighty percent of the cost.' What was it that determined that figure?"

Mr. Bond: "A lot of thought goes into that and the idea is that we don't want carnival riders to say they can ride on the thing for twenty dollars insured, or one dollar uninsured. In other words, we want it to be a reasonable difference because that way, of course, nobody would buy the insured ride. This makes it a reasonable choice."

The amendment was not adopted.

House Bill No. 517 was ordered engrossed. On motion of Mr. Wang, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Grimm and Hastings spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

INTERIM COMMITTEE APPOINTMENT

The Speaker announced the appointment of Representative Tilly to the Legislative Budget Committee.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Taylor: "A communication from the Democratic Communications Office this morning indicated that there would be a full week of hearings on the budget. The question we have, we are assuming that since the Ways & Means Committee meeting has been cancelled for tonight, the time available will be expanded over the next several days to be equal to a full week of hearings. Is that correct?"

The Speaker: "I really don't know, Representative Taylor. My recollection is that a year or two ago the Ways & Means Committee unfortunately had to work all night on Good Friday. That's a good possibility, but we hope that's not the case. I guess we'll have to wait and see what's going to happen. I don't set the policy on the communications."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House was adjourned until 9:45 a.m., Tuesday, March 29, 1983.

WAYNE EHLERS, Speaker

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

SEVENTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, March 29, 1983

The House was called to order at 9:45 a.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Shelley Grant and Tom Myers. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Charles Loyer, Pastor Emeritus of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 311, by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Vekich, Lux, Kreidler, Garrett and Ristuben)

Establishing consumer credit reporting protections.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Vekich, Armstrong and Lux spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Sanders and West spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Vekich yielded to question by Ms. Hankins.

Ms. Hankins: "Representative Vekich, how many credit reporting information agencies does this affect?"

Mr. Vekich: "Every credit bureau that uses computerized agencies in the state. There are three primary computerized sources of information in the state. They are all based outside the state and they have offices in the state. It does not, however, affect the small manual noncomputerized reporting agencies."

Ms. Hankins: "How many of those that it does affect have toll-free lines already established?"

Mr. Vekich: "The big three that we call the main basis for computerized companies have toll-free lines. The language of the bill would allow the smaller agency to use those toll-free lines. You will notice, Representative Hankins, it says: 'Each consumer credit reporting agency that maintains an office in Washington state and maintains computerized files.' There are only three companies that maintain computerized files. Nobody else is plugged into one of those three companies."

Ms. Hankins spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Vekich yielded to question by Mr. West.

Mr. West: "Representative Vekich, in the bill on line 11 it says, '...and maintains computerized files.' There's nothing in this bill that says it ties into a national computerized system. Would the words 'maintains computerized files' mean to you any computerized files?"

Mr. Vekich: "Representative West, you sat in on the committee meetings, and I think you know what my intent on the bill is, and you know what computerized files we're talking about."

Mr. West: "My concern, Representative Vekich, is not your intent, but---"

SPEAKER'S ADMONITION (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative West, if you have an argument against the bill, I'd like you to speak to that rather than going into a cross-examination on the contents of the bill."

Mr. West spoke again in opposition to the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Armstrong, we had a good debate yesterday on the inclusion of the consumer protection act in section 4 by cross-reference in this bill, and it's still confusing to me. Could you give me an example of how you could apply the consumer protection act to this legislation, to the activity after we authorize it?"

Mr. Armstrong: "One example would be if a person is applying for a credit card and finds out that he or she is denied credit and a debt of $43 is somehow listed as an obligation on him. When the collection entity is informed that this is not a valid debt that should be registered against the person and it takes three months to lift the ban, whatever damages that person suffers during the three months from the period of time the collection entity was informed until the time when they finally came through with the clearing of the record which was unjustly smudged, the damages that person has from not being able to get credit are actual damages under the consumer protection act. Those could be tripled up to a maximum of $1,000 and reasonable attorney fees if it were necessary to go to trial with the collectible rate, the reasonable rate, for having to bring that action."

Mr. Fiske spoke against passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 311, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 47; excused, 0.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 449, by Representatives Belcher, Sayan, Fisher, Fisch, Patrick, Brekke, Dellwo and R. King

Regulating the use of lie detectors for employment purposes.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Belcher, R. King, Sayan and Brekke spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Barrett, Struthers, Barnes, Clayton and Isaacson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Barrett, as is frequently the case, I'm confused on this bill. You said earlier that this bill would prohibit any employer from giving any test--not just lie detector, but as I read the language, any test of honesty. In the case you cited, for example, the frosting manufacturer, the gentleman from the 38th District later stood up and said that, in fact, this wouldn't prohibit that; that if there were a case, the employer could give a test to the employees. Could you expand on that?"

Mr. Barrett: "Yes, Representative Vander Stoep, I think we come back to first a basic concept that is being talked about here, and I've heard other representatives refer to it. What we are talking about is when somebody applies for a job. I call to your attention that the bill makes reference to employees or prospective employees. Employees, in any definition in the state of Washington, does not imply someone who is making an application for a position with a company; it implies a person who is under the employ of a company. As we read the bill, without having that preset in our minds, that perhaps it only applies to people applying for jobs, as we now read the bill. Getting that out of our minds, it says that the company may not require any employee to take or be subjected to any lie detector. That means any test for examination for the purpose to detect deception or to test honesty or to verify the truth of a statement. Granted, there is one further statement in there that says, 'as a condition of employment.' I think we have to understand that when a person is suspected of--let's say--injecting a substance into that frosting that we brought up awhile ago, certainly there is a danger. I'll admit there is a danger. The employee will probably lose his or her job if found to have subjected that product to some kind of pollution. We are running a very fine line. As the proponents of this bill say, it's only for people who are applying for jobs, and we are just saying as a condition of your employment, you must be subjected to any test of honesty or a test for deception or a verification of the truth of any statement you make. In the terms that many bills are read so far as interpretation, this bill says that once employed, no employer may ever try to verify the truth of a statement from an employee by use of a lie detector or any of the broad definition of lie detector as far as any kind of examination is concerned. Your confusion should be clarified now."

Representatives Vander Stoep and Betrozoff spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Fiske spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative King, in discussion of the remarks of the question of what 'indirectly' means, if an employer, for example, upon reviewing his applicants for an opening said: 'Customarily our employees have, in the past, taken a lie detector test; would you be willing to submit to a lie detector test?' Would that be considered as a direct or indirect requirement of that employer?"

Mr. R. King: "I don't believe it would be. I think that if he went on and said the chances of getting the job are greater if you do or, if he said for some reason most people who are working there have done it, or something like that, that would be an indirect suggestion and would be very clearly prohibited. We tried to draft language here so that an employer could, especially if there were suspicion, say, 'You may take a polygraph test; you are not required to, but you may take it and it may help you feel better about it if you pass it.' The word 'indirectly' as it is used here is tied to the requirement. You are implying that if you don't do this, you will lose your job or you are not going to get the job; and that's clearly violating the law."

Mr. Isaacson: "So it's only in the broader sense of an indirect requirement, rather than an indirect statement?"

Mr. R. King: "The way I see this, you can do all the suggesting you want to that it might be a good idea, but the minute you start implying that it's tied as a requirement to either getting a job or keeping a job, then you are violating the law."

Mr. Isaacson: "If a person did then take a lie detector test and it showed there were some problems involved with an apparent deception and an expert used that and said that employee would not probably be a good employee, would that be subject to recourse under this law?"

Mr. R. King: "Under this law, no, because one of the things that was made very clear in our committee was that the polygraph test is not one hundred percent accurate. It's not allowed in many instances in a court of law. The very best operators, and we don't necessarily have the best operators in the state of Washington because they are not licensed, have about ninety percent accuracy. Nationally, there's a movement to make them absolutely illegal because of the 500,000 people who have had to take these nationwide before they could get a job. Ninety percent accuracy means that 50,000 were denied access to work because of polygraphs who had no reason to be denied that opportunity to work."

Representatives Isaacson and Vander Stoep again opposed the bill, and Ms. Brekke spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Charnley demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sayan yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Sayan, I looked at the fiscal note on this measure. You know, we keep adding benefits and we don't increase the unemployment compensation revenue side, and the unemployment compensation fund is already in deep trouble. The fiscal note says they can't estimate the cost of this or the impact to the unemployment comp fund. Could you elaborate please?"

Mr. Sayan: "I suspect the reason they can't estimate the cost is because this is not calculated as earnings in the overall unemployment compensation benefits. In other words, there aren't earnings paid in. All this suggests is if these people were to be unemployed under the current practice, how much would be deducted from their rate of earnings under their current rate. If this were to be considered as part of their earnings, their benefit level would be here. It is not considered as part of their earnings, but it is deducted, therefore, anything that is earned is down here. It would be a wash in the last analysis, but there's no way to estimate how much money these people are, in fact, giving to that fund."

Mr. Sanders: "This will not impact--"

SPEAKER'S ADMONITION

The Speaker: "Representative Sanders, we've had a debate going back and forth here. I've been sitting and listening for some time today to the debate. The purpose of a question-and-answer is primarily to put something in the record. It's a very short distance between your two desks and, unless it's a planned scenario which is going into the Journal, I suggest that the members talk with each other and let's get on with what's happening. It has become a debate."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, I agree with your remarks that asking questions and answers is to get the intent in the Journal, and sometimes those questions can't be answered very easily by 'yes' or 'no.' You have to deal sometimes a little deeper than that. I think the gentleman from the 48th District's question was to try to find out why there was no fiscal impact. I think the question was good because the rules of the House would say fiscal impacts of a certain amount should go to Ways & Means. I think that the Representative from the 48th District was trying to establish that, and I think certainly the question was in order."

The Speaker: "We are going to take this on a case-by-case basis. Representative Hastings. My observation has been that in the past, generally, it is true that this kind of debate could be handled in some discussion between the members which does not take up the time of the body. We've been on this matter for some time. The point is that it's going to be on a case-by-case basis, and the Speaker will not accept a debate back and forth. I suggest the members try to resolve it and then we'll handle it case-by-case."

Mr. Padden spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives R. King and Fuhrman spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Sayan spoke again in favor of the bill.

(1) No group disability insurance policy which provides benefits for hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state after September 8, 1975 which contains any provision whereby the insurer may reduce or refuse to pay such benefits otherwise payable thereunder solely on account of the existence of similar benefits provided under any individual disability insurance policy, or under any individual health care service contract.

(2) Except as provided under subsection (4), ((No)) no group disability insurance policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits and which contains a provision for the reduction of benefits otherwise payable thereunder on the basis of other existing coverages, shall provide that such reduction will operate to reduce total benefits payable below an amount equal to one hundred percent of total allowable expenses. The commissioner shall by rule establish guidelines for the application of this section, including: (a) The procedures by which persons insured under such policies are to be made aware of the existence of such a provision; (b) the benefits which may be subject to such a provision; (c) the effect of such a provision on the benefits provided; (d) establishment of the order of benefit determination; and (e) reasonable claim administration procedures to expedite claim payments under such a provision.

(3) The provisions of this section shall apply to health care service contractor contracts and health maintenance organization agreements.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a provision in a contract, agreement or policy negotiated by the state employees' insurance board with any health maintenance organization, health care contractor or insurer, which provision provides for a reduction in benefits below an amount equal to one hundred percent of total allowable expenses where the reduction occurs under the following circumstances: (a) the reduction totally or partially offsets a decrease in a deductible; (b) the decrease in the deductible results from coordination of benefits; and (c) the provision is based on the board's belief that employees having to pay for the reduction in benefits will result in more cost-effective use of health care services. This subsection provides authority to have such a provision in a contract, agreement or policy negotiated by the board. On page 7, after line 7 insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 51, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting, denying, or rescinding of a permit on shorelines of the state pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 as now or hereafter amended may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of the date of filing as defined in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board. Following which, the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within fifteen days from the date of the receipt by the department or the attorney general of a copy of the request for review filed pursuant to this section. The shorelines hearings board shall initially schedule review proceedings on such requests for review without regard as to whether such requests have or have not been certified or as to whether the period for the department or the attorney general to intervene has or has not expired, unless such review is to begin within thirty days of such scheduling. If at the end of the thirty-day period for certification neither the department nor the attorney general has certified a request for review, the hearings board shall remove the request from its review schedule.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines hearings board and the appropriate local government within thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board may be had as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, or guidelines (~~(- designations, or master programs for shorelines of the state)~~) adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

~~((a) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program:))~~ If the board determines that said ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline: ~~((#))~~ (a) is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or ~~((#))~~ (b) constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or ~~((#))~~ (c) is arbitrary and capricious; or ~~((#))~~ (d) was developed without fully considering and evaluating all ~~((proposed master programs))~~ material submitted to the department by the local government; or ~~((#))~~ (e) was not adopted in accordance with required procedures; the board shall enter a final decision declaring the ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline invalid, remanding the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

~~((b) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines:~~

~~(c) In an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply:))~~

(5) Rules, regulations, ~~((designations, master programs:))~~ and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section and the petition for court review is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The department and))~~ (1) Each local government shall periodically review any master programs under its jurisdiction and make such adjustments thereto as are necessary. ~~((Each local government shall submit any proposed adjustments, to the department as soon as they are completed. No such adjustment shall become effective until it has been approved by the department:))~~ Any adjustments to a master program shall be forwarded to the department for review. The department shall within 95 days of receipt of the master program adjustment approve, reject, or propose modification to the adjustment. If the department either rejects or proposes modification to the master program adjustment, it shall provide substantive written comments as to why the proposal is being rejected or modified.

(2) Any local government aggrieved by the department's decision to approve, reject, or modify a proposed master program adjustment may appeal the department's decision to the shorelines hearings board. The shorelines hearings board shall review the proposed adjustment and, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the local government's adjustment in the light of the policies and standards for implementation under this chapter. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. Whenever possible, the review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located. The department and any local government aggrieved by a final decision of the hearings board may appeal the decision to either the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located or the superior court of Thurston county.

(3) A master program amendment shall become effective after the approval of the department or after the decision of the shorelines hearings board to uphold local government's adjustment.

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 6, chapter 221, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided under RCW 34.04.290, this chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.19.020. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 90.58.190: (1) RCW 34.04.090, 34.04.100, and 34.04.105 do not apply to the review by the shorelines hearings board of proposed adjustments to a local government master program; and (2) RCW 34.04.130 does not apply to the superior court where review may be sought of a final decision by the shorelines hearings board on proposed adjustments to a local government master program. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act."

Mr. B. Williams: "OFM came before the Legislative Budget Committee and disclosed to us, over a year ago, its self-audit program, which because of funding limitations by the state legislature, it hasn't been able to do as many management audits as it would like. It developed procedure guides with the help of some of the other state agencies, for example, DSHS, and they now have a self-audit guide which is being implemented in many state agencies. In fact, it would probably be a good idea to implement that in the legislative branch for some of our operations.

It has been a very effective program. Also, if you will look at the bill, there is nothing in the bill which refers to a national CPA firm or a national consultant firm which again sets the need for this amendment."

Would you clarify that this is intended to be used only for issues?"

Mr. Nealey: "Representative Padden, the term 'frivolous'-- maybe you could give us an example of what they could offer?"

Mr. Padden: "Of course, Representative Nealey, frivolous would be determined by the judge in the post trial motion on a case-by-case basis. I would say it would be an action without merit done simply to harass somebody. Perhaps if somebody were to bring a lawsuit against you just for the fact that they say you are from from the 9th Legislative District and they don't like that, that's completely without merit. With something like that, I'm sure a judge would probably award you the cost of your attorney fees to defend an action like that."

Mr. Patrick: "Yes, Representative Hastings, that is my concern with the concept of early release. I believe our first obligation is to protect the victims and citizens of this state, not those who have been convicted of felonies. I'm very concerned that we really aren't solving any problems, we're creating more problems. I believe we can eliminate the program altogether. I believe we have a responsibility to protect our citizens in this state, and I think the concept itself was originally passed just for the sake of expediency in this state and there are other alternatives, you know. You can double up the prison cells. I know some people don't like to hear us talk about that, but there are other alternatives rather than releasing people early."

Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dellwo yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Dellwo, I certainly support the intent of this bill. I just wanted to ask a question for clarification. Section 3, 'To the extent that state, federal, or other funds designated for services to developmentally disabled persons are available....' When we fund the Department of Social & Health Services they, of course, have interfund transfer ability. Exactly what does that mean to the department in terms of what they are doing now?"

Mr. Dellwo: "The wording says that this does not appropriate any particular money amount to this purpose, but does require them to make sure that if the money is available, to provide it across the board--in other words, regardless of age or the difficulty they are having, the seriousness of the problem--that wording was put in there to avoid any implication of funding."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "I guess that shoots down the question in terms of how strong it is. Does it add a new emphasis of priority to DSHS?"

Mr. Dellwo: "It does give a new direction. It says they are not to be selective in the sense of picking one group and they must provide those services to all regardless of age. So many of them are being ignored at this time that we want to ensure they are not ignored in the future as funding allows."

Mr. Lewis spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

EIGHTY-FIRST DAY

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Laura Bayer and Brian Bonar. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Charles Loyer, Pastor Emeritus of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Monohon yielded to question by Mr. Addison.

Can you explain to the body exactly how the B&O structure is working down at Ocean Shores, and how this is going to change it?"

Ms. Monohon: "Representative Addison, Ocean Shores is no longer in my district."

Mr. Addison spoke against passage of the bill.

MOTION

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dellwo yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Representative Dellwo, I want to support this measure. I think it's a good one, but how does an attorney, if he's in court and also has hearings scheduled in his court--in other words, when he has an attorney's hat on, what does he do with a conflict when the judge he's appearing before sets a hearing for the time he has scheduled to hear somebody else as a judge?"

Mr. Dellwo: "Those things are worked out. It happens quite often where a judge is a part-time judge and a part-time attorney. The court works those out very easily. All appearances of conflict are avoided religiously."

Representatives Taylor and Vander Stoep spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dellwo yielded to question by Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Dellwo, in the statute before this bill that we're now addressing is the amount of $15,000, and this bill purports to raise that to $30,000. My question is, why don't we have something in here that relates to the consumer price index or something rather than having to go back and change the statute on a fixed number all the time? I just wondered if the committee considered that? The second question is: Does this have anything to do with Initiative 162 and the impact to local government?"

Mr. Dellwo: "The answer would be 'No' to both those questions."

Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of the bill.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 240, by Committee on Constitution, Elections & Ethics (originally sponsored by Representatives Heck, Vander Stoep, J. King, Lewis, Brække, Patrick, Fisch, Fisher, Zellinsky, Pruitt, Barnes, Miller, Long, Jacobsen, Tanner, Johnson, Ristuben and Garrett; by Secretary of State request)

Revising procedures for mail voting.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Heck spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Ballard.

Mr. Ballard: "Representative Pruitt, would water districts be covered--the election of water district commissioners--under this legislation?"

Mr. Pruitt: "Yes, the water districts would be and they are particularly in a good place to benefit from this."

Mr. Ballard spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Nealey.

Mr. Nealey: "Representative Pruitt, as I understand this, it was not for an individual or a person who was running; it was only on a ballot issue. Is that true or not?"

Mr. Pruitt: "It's a possibility in some situations where the rules of that particular jurisdiction allow this. In the case of water districts, my answer to Representative Ballard was that they are in a particularly good place from their point of view to have this happen because the water districts' bylaws are written in this way. I don't know of instances where this could be done in any fire districts. There may be some that way, but the common thing in fire districts and other jurisdictions is that it would not apply to persons. This is a very special instance because of the way their bylaws are written. In almost every other case it's true that it does not apply to persons being elected."

Representatives Hastings, Barnes, Isaacson, Hankins, Fuhrman and Addison spoke against passage of the bill, and Ms. Allen spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. G. Nelson.

Mr. G. Nelson: "Representative Pruitt, yesterday when we had a question-and-answer on this bill relative to the scope of the type of elections that can, in essence, use this prerogative of having jurisdictions ask for ballots to be automatically mailed to those precincts with one hundred or less, we talked about whether or not it was only restricted to issues. Now that you've had a chance to review the measure and to listen to the debate, is it your opinion that this particular feature can be used for special elections, such as home rule elections where a county is converting from a commissioner form of government to a county council, or any other special elections of people by the provisions that are now in this bill?"

Mr. Pruitt: "Representative Nelson, my understanding as I have looked it over more thoroughly, is that in the case of water districts a person could be replaced in a special election. The reason being that the water districts operate under general election laws; therefore, not an ordinary election. We are just talking about special elections. A water district might have that privilege because they do operate under general election laws. Other districts, jurisdictions, do not do that. As far as home rule, I doubt that would take place, but I do not know; but very specially under special elections, school districts and fire districts and so forth would not be in that classification because they are not under the general election laws. Water districts, yes."

Mr. Betzoff spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Garrett demanded the previous question, and a division was called.

The Clerk called the roll on the demand for the previous question in the debate of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 240, and the demand was not sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 44; excused, 1.

The motion was lost.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Taylor: "Mr. Speaker, there were members on the floor asking to be recognized to the point of reconsideration. You failed to recognize them. The rules require that there can be full debate on a request for reconsideration. Is it a new rule that you will not allow debate?"

The Speaker: "I didn't see anybody standing."

STATEMENTS FOR THE JOURNAL

Please include in the record that it was my intent to vote "Yes" on ESHB 240. Due to the decision of the Chair to cut off debate that I felt was important to the issue, I chose not to vote.

CLYDE BALLARD, 12th District.

I did not vote on ESHB 240 because debate was arbitrarily and capriciously cut off by the Speaker, contrary to rules of the House. My rights were violated by this unilateral action.

JOHN BETROZOFF, 45th District.

I was not afforded the opportunity to speak on ESHB 240 prior to the rushed vote on this issue. I object to the way this issue was handled. It was very undemocratic. I would have voted "No" on ESHB 240.

ART BROBACK, 28th District.

I didn't vote on ESHB 240 because the Speaker cut off debate without the consent of the body. This action runs counter to the House Rules so any vote on the issue would have been inappropriate. I also did not vote on ESHB 426 and ESHB 864 since those votes took place during an official caucus when I was not on the floor.

JEAN MARIE BROUGH, 30th District.

I voted "No" on the first vote on ESHB 240. There was a vote for reconsideration, however, the second vote was rushed through with no opportunity for the members to have additional debate. I object to the manner in which the issue was handled. It was not in keeping with the tradition and dignity of House procedures. I request that a note be entered in the House Journal that I would have voted "No" on final passage of ESHB 240.

EMILIO CANTU, 41st District.

I did not vote on ESHB 240 because I felt I was not given the process in the democratic system to truly voice the problems associated with voting by mail.

STEVE FUHRMAN, 7th District.

Having been distracted on the final passage of ESHB 863, please let the record show that I support the bill and record my vote as "Aye" on the final passage. Thank you.

RAY ISAACSON, 8th District.

I would like the Journal to reflect that I voted against ESHB 240, not because I opposed the bill, as I supported it in committee, but in protest of the abuse of the process, i.e. the Speaker cut off the debate without the concurrence of the membership at a time when members were standing with the desire to speak! Although I was not standing, I did wish to speak in support of the bill. Most of the speakers had opposed it. Also, as a courtesy, I was not standing as others already were and, as you know, it is customary to wait for the previous speaker to conclude. I strenuously object to the Speaker's refusal, arbitrarily, to close-off the process and deny me the right to speak without the vote of two-thirds of the membership. Thank you.

JEANINE LONG, 44th District.

I would like the Journal to reflect that I was deprived of the right to vote on ESHB 864 by the Speaker, who disregarded the fact that the Republican members of the House were still in caucus. He refused to wait for our caucus to conclude prior to recommencement of action on the floor.

I have made great efforts to be present for every vote, and in fact, have been present with the exception of this one vote denied me by the Speaker.

JEANINE LONG, 44th District.

I wish my vote on HB 240 (Mail voting) to be changed to "Aye."

DARWIN NEALEY, 9th District.

I did not vote on ESHB 240 and ESHB 864 due to the anti-democratic tyrannical actions of Speaker Ehlers in refusing to follow the rules of the House of Representatives by not recognizing numerous members of the minority party waiting to speak on ESHB 240.

MIKE PADDEN, 4th District.

On ESHB 240 I was in the Rotunda speaking to a superintendent from my district and I missed the vote. I wish to be recorded as an affirmative vote.

EUGENE A. PRINCE, 9th District.

It was my intent to vote in favor of both ESHB 240 and ESHB 864. However, the Speaker, Representative Wayne Ehlers, arbitrarily shut off debate before it was finished on ESHB 240. Also, the Speaker started floor action on ESHB 864 before the Republicans had completed their business in caucus. No Republican members were on the floor.

PAUL SANDERS, 48th District.

I would appreciate it if you would insert a note in the Journal that I was on the floor when the two votes were taken on ESHB 240 and did not vote because I was waiting for the Speaker to acknowledge those members of the House who had not yet had the opportunity to speak to the issues of the bill.

DICK SCHOON, 30th District.

I had intended to vote "Yes" on ESHB 240, a measure pertaining to voting by mail. I withheld my vote as a protest to the very arbitrary action by the Speaker of the House in not allowing several members to speak on this issue. My rights were violated; rules of the House were broken by the House Speaker.

EARL F. TILLY, 12th District.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 583, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Representatives Kaiser and Smith)

Modifying the duties of the department of ecology under the state reclamation act.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Kaiser and Smith spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. McDonald spoke against it.

Mr. Kaiser spoke again in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor asked Mr. Kaiser to yield to question and Mr. Kaiser refused to yield.

Mr. McDonald yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Representative McDonald, can you explain this to me? I thought this called for issuing a bond. Am I off-base here?"

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Taylor, my understanding of this bill is that it does allow for some use of the bond proceeds for some testing and other administrative costs."

Representatives Taylor and Ballard spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Smith, for the clarification of the body, could you explain and define a water right examination?"

Mr. Smith: "What happens is that you may have several different water rights. You may have riparian rights; you may have first in time, first in right; there are so many different types it's hard to explain. The adjudication process that we're going through now in the entire streams in the whole state of Washington is to find out whether or not people have a legal right to these waters. What I mean by 'legal right' is that they have published files at a certain date--it might have been back before the turn of the century on riparian rights, or any different time--but in the process of trying to find out who has the legal right to that water, we go to the first in time, the first in right--that means the person who files first and how much water he files for. So in determining that this adjudication process should get to who owns that water, we might say, and how much and the end result will be if there is any amount of water left over that will be used for the most beneficial use. That might be hydroelectric; that might be for instream for the fish; it might be for many different things, but that will be decided by the Department of Ecology. It is very important that we do adjudicate these water rights and it will take a long time, I'm telling you, because there are an awful lot of streams in the state of Washington."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Also, Representative Smith, for the record, can you explain how the Department of Ecology will examine those water rights?"

Mr. Smith: "I think to go into this process, it gets to be so complicated it might be better not to explain it on the floor and take that much time. The Department of Ecology files for a certain permit that you have to file for and then you are able to say that your claim is good. They then go through the political process of examining every stream and all the people along that stream to find out whether or not they are first in time to that water right, and if there is enough water left over for all the rights that are there. If there is water left over, Representative Vander Stoep, then you will have some left over for the Department of Ecology to make that decision."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 583, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 80; nays, 17; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barrett, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Nealey, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 80.

Voting nay: Representatives Barnes, Betzoff, Bond, Cantu, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Isaacson, McDonald, Nelson G, Padden, Sanders, Struthers, Taylor, Williams J - 17.

Excused: Representative Moon - 1.

Substitute House Bill No. 583, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, we witnessed here in the last hour one of the darkest hours in my experience in these legislative chambers where, I think, we're driving down the course of thwarting the individual rights in this body for persons to express themselves as well as to express any concerns on behalf of their constituents, which is, in reflection, a violation of our own House Rule 17. I, for one, want to see and want to see maintained a dignity of these House Chambers. I think it blemishes the spirit and morality to have conduct on this floor or for those who, perhaps, preside in front of this House of Representatives not to recognize the kind of dignity that I think should be retained here. That is, in effect, a reflection of Reed's Rule 178. I think also, the concept where we could have a part in representative government, which I think is the foundation of this body, has been violated this morning by going ahead, voting on a measure without everyone having an opportunity to be in their seats, to have had a chance to talk about those measures in an ample way, so that they can legitimately vote in a fashion which is really a reflection of themselves and the people they represent. It has now been violated this morning in disregard of House Rule 20. I sincerely hope, Mr. Speaker, that the action this morning is not going to be a continual one that would set a precedent for this House, because I think it would be a regrettable thing that would then cause a good deal of chaos and the removal of certain people from this floor who no longer want to be a part of the violation of those rules."

The Speaker: "The Speaker and the majority have been extremely patient with the minority this week, throughout the session, despite the fact that it has become obvious that the tactics have been to stall and delay at every turn. Amendments have been prepared by partisan staff, not to perfect legislation, but to delay the process. We saw another example of the organized stalling today. The objection is not with a particular issue or bill, but with the very fact that this legislature is making progress you are concerned with. The time has come to stop the political games, get on with the people's business. We have given ample opportunity for debate and for constructive work on the issues; we continue on that course, to no longer stand the amateur games being used to delay this session, and it has become obvious the debate is being used solely as a means of delay. The intent of this majority is to continue with the work of the people. I would refer the body to Reed's Rule 225, 'Duty of the Presiding Officer in Cases Where Debate and Parliamentary Motions Are Employed to Create Disorder and Impede Business.--The presiding officer should pay close attention to the debates, so as to be ready at all times to interpose for the preservation of order. He should himself always be in order and act with the same evenness of temper which he requires from others. The presiding officer has great power over debate and decorum, because he represents the consolidated power of the assembly. It sometimes happens that in the forgetfulness of temper and of party feeling the very processes of the assembly created to transact business are so abused as to be in themselves disorder. In that event the presiding officer should disregard such proceedings, after he has become entirely satisfied of their nature, and put only such motions as will expedite the declaration of the will of the assembly. Necessarily such a course is to be taken very rarely, and after the offense is clear to all."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, I think we ought to talk about the dignity of the proceedings. The rules, as everyone knows, in parliamentary procedure are for the minority. The majority has fifty votes; they have the ability to do anything and the rules are for the minority. We have few quorums in which to speak. We don't set the agenda; we don't have the committee chairmen; we cannot bring out the bills we think are important. We can only act through the amendatory process, and that's important because in this last week, we have seen a number of bills that we disagree with. We can call press conferences, but that's not really an effective tool. We can, through the amendatory process, bring out what we think are the points that the public should know—that the people on the floor should know—before they vote for that measure. We have, indeed, followed that course in the hope that it heightened the debate. I think we have made it clear that we are not trying to slow down the process. We have, in fact, suspended the rules, joined with the majority in 57 out of 67 bills. That clearly could not be seen as obstructionism. We do have serious concerns about many of the bills that are before us, and we have expressed those through the amendatory process. We have serious concerns about some of the bills on third reading and final passage, and we are going to express those. I hope that in your role as Speaker, as the leading officer of this floor, that you will allow us to have that opportunity. We will attempt to use it judiciously, but we also are wont to have our day in court and our day on the floor so that our constituents and the people in this state can be well-informed."

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Todd, Isaacson and J. Williams spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 596, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; nays, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McDonald, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representative Moon - 1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 596, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 608, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Representatives Kaiser, Smith, Pruitt, Stratton, Van Dyken, Todd, Egger, Braddock and Jacobsen)

Prohibiting the intentional undisclosed substitution of food products in food service establishments.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representative Kaiser spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives G. Nelson, Struthers and Hastings spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kaiser yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Kaiser, I happen to like Maine lobsters and, of course, Maine lobster is distinguished because it has large claws as opposed to the African or the South Carolina lobster; however, Maine lobsters are also trapped off Nova Scotia and New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Would this bill require restaurants in the state of Washington that serve Maine lobster to determine if they were caught off the state of Maine or if they were caught off New Hampshire or Massachusetts? Would the restaurant have to say they were Massachusetts lobsters?"

Mr. Kaiser: "That's not the intent of the legislation at all. Also you can serve anything. This doesn't prevent serving artificial or imitations as long as it is stated so."

Mr. Fuhrman spoke against the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kaiser yielded to question by Mr. Ballard.

Mr. Ballard: "Representative Kaiser, so I have this straight, if a person has a restaurant and has a menu that says baked potato with toppings, does it mean that they are specifying any kind of topping or that they are mandated to specify any kind of toppings. In addition, pie with toppings could be artificial or could be whipped cream. However if they say pie with whipped cream topping then it must be whipped cream topping, otherwise they could put whatever they want as long as they don't specify real or artificial on the menu. Is that correct?"

That is not my intention, I don't hate this bill, but I feel very deeply about the point that Representative Dickie brought up that the entire agricultural community has not responded to something which impacts their community entirely, while it may have a bit of an impact on us. I can't answer your question."

Ms. Miller: "Would Representative McDonald yield to question then?"

Mr. McDonald: "Yes, Representative Miller, if there were no change in the concurrent resolution to exclude this bill, the effect would be to lay it over until the next legislative session when it would be alive. A reflective placard on such vehicles would warn fire fighters of the danger so they could react properly.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.37 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Every automobile, truck, motorcycle, motor home, or off-road vehicle that is fueled by propane gas shall bear a reflective placard indicating that the vehicle is so fueled. Violation of this subsection is a traffic infraction.

~~((f))~~ (g) Farm vehicles as defined in RCW 46.04.181; or ~~((f))~~ (h) Motor vehicles exempted by the director of the department of ecology.

The provisions of subparagraph (a) of this subsection may not be construed as exempting from the provisions of subsection (1) of this section applications for the renewal of licenses for motor vehicles that are or have been leased.

(3) The department of licensing shall mail to each owner of a vehicle registered within an emission contributing area a notice regarding the boundaries of the area and restrictions established under this section that apply to vehicles registered in such areas. The legislature finds that in-state preference clauses used by other states in procuring goods and services have a discriminatory effect against Washington vendors with resulting harm to this state's revenues and the welfare of this state's citizens. This act is intended to promote fairness in state government procurement by requiring that, when appropriate, Washington exercise reciprocity with those states having in-state preferences.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of general administration shall compile a list of the statutes and regulations, relating to state purchasing, of each state, which statutes and regulations the director believes grant a preference to vendors located within the state or goods manufactured within the state. At least once every twelve months the director shall update the list.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of general administration shall adopt and apply rules designed to provide for some reciprocity in bidding between Washington and those states having statutes or regulations on the list under section 2 of this act. The rules shall provide for reciprocity only to the extent and in those instances where the director considers it appropriate. For the purpose of determining the lowest responsible bidder pursuant to RCW 43.19.1911, such rules shall (1) require the director to impose a reciprocity increase on bids when appropriate under the rules and (2) establish methods for determining the amount of the increase. In no instance shall such increase, if any, be paid to a vendor whose bid is accepted.

Sec. 4. Section 43.19.1911, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 172, Laws of 1980 and RCW 43.19.1911 are each amended to read as follows:

When purchases are made through competitive bidding, the contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, subject to any preferences provided by law to Washington products and vendors and to sections 3 and 5 of this 1983 act, taking into consideration the quality of the articles proposed to be supplied, their conformity with specifications, the purposes for which required, and the times of delivery; PROVIDED, That whenever there is reason to believe that the lowest acceptable bid is not the best price obtainable, all bids may be rejected and the division of purchasing may call for new bids or enter into direct negotiations to achieve the best possible price. Each bid with the name of the bidder shall be entered of record and each record, with the successful bid indicated, shall, after letting of the contract, be open to public inspection. In determining 'lowest responsible bidder', in addition to price, the following elements shall be given consideration:

(1) The ability, capacity, and skill of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service required;

(2) The character, integrity, reputation, judgment, experience, and efficiency of the bidder;

(3) Whether the bidder can perform the contract within the time specified;

(4) The quality of performance of previous contracts or services;

(5) The previous and existing compliance by the bidder with laws relating to the contract or services;

(6) Such other information as may be secured having a bearing on the decision to award the contract: PROVIDED, That in considering bids for purchase, manufacture, or lease, and in determining the 'lowest responsible bidder,' whenever there is reason to believe that applying the 'life cycle costing' technique to bid evaluation would result in lowest total cost to the state, first consideration shall be given by state purchasing activities to the bid with the lowest life cycle cost which complies with specifications. 'Life cycle cost' means the total cost of an item to the state over its estimated useful life, including costs of selection, acquisition, operation, maintenance, and where applicable, disposal, as far as these costs can reasonably be determined, minus the salvage value at the end of its estimated useful life. The 'estimated useful life' of an item means the estimated time from the date of acquisition to the date of replacement or disposal, determined in any reasonable manner."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 29.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Challenges of voter registration filed within thirty days of any primary or election, general or special, shall be administered wholly under sections 2 and 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 29.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Registration of a person as a voter is presumptive evidence of his or her right to vote at any primary or election, general or special, but a person's right to vote may be challenged at the polls by a precinct election officer and he or she may be required then and there to establish his or her right to vote. Each precinct election officer shall challenge a person offering to vote when the officer knows or suspects the person to be unqualified as a voter.

Challenges may be initiated by a registered voter subject to the following conditions:

(1) Challenges on grounds other than residence may be made at the polls and the person challenged may be required then and there to establish his or her right to vote to the precinct election officers:

(2) Challenges on the grounds of residence alone must be filed not later than seven days before any primary or election, general or special, at the office of the appropriate county auditor. A challenged voter may properly transfer or reregister until three days before the primary or election, general or special, by applying personally to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 29.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When the right of a person has been challenged under section 2 of this act, the officers conducting the election at the polling place shall require the challenged person to vote a ballot which shall be placed in a sealed envelope separate from other voted ballots. In precincts where voting machines are used, any person whose right to vote is challenged under section 2 of this act shall be furnished with a paper ballot, which shall be placed in a sealed envelope after being marked. The sealed ballots of challenged voters shall be transmitted at the close of the election to the canvassing board or other authority charged by law with canvassing the returns of the particular primary or election. The challenging party must prove to the canvassing board or authority by clear and convincing evidence that the challenged voter's registration is improper. If the challenging party fails to meet this burden, the challenged ballot shall be accepted as valid and counted. The canvassing board or authority shall give the challenged voter the opportunity to present testimony and evidence to the canvassing board or authority before making its determination. All challenged ballots must be determined no later than the time of canvassing for the particular primary or election. The decision of the canvassing board or other authority charged by law with canvassing the returns shall be final. Challenges of absentee ballots shall be determined according to RCW 29.36.100.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 225, Laws of 1967 and RCW 29.10.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((precinct committeeman, precinct election officer or registration officer))~~ registered voter may ~~((sign a preliminary))~~ request that the registration of another voter be canceled if that voter no longer maintains a legal voting residence at the address shown on his or her registration record. The challenger shall sign a form, subject to the penalties of perjury, to the effect that to his or her personal knowledge and belief another registered voter does not actually reside ~~((and maintain his abode))~~ at the address as given on his or her registration record and that the voter in question is not protected by the provisions of Article VI, section 4, of the Constitution of the state of Washington ~~((PROVIDED, That (1) a precinct committeeman or precinct election officer may only challenge the residence of a voter registered in the precinct wherein such precinct committeeman or precinct election officer serves and (2))~~). The person filing ~~((such))~~ the challenge must furnish the address at which the challenged voter actually resides in order to assure that proper notice will be received by the challenged voter.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 34, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.10.140 are each amended to read as follows:

All ~~((such signed forms))~~ challenges of voter registration under RCW 29.10.130 shall be delivered to the appropriate county auditor who shall ~~((cancel the registration records of the voters concerned on the thirtieth day following date of mailing or as soon thereafter as is practicable; PROVIDED, That))~~ send, by certified mail, a notice of intent to cancel the registration on account of a ~~((claimed change))~~ challenge of residence ~~((shall be mailed by certified mail))~~ to that address at which the challenged voter ~~((actually resides in order to assure that proper notice will be received by the challenged voter))~~ is alleged to reside and to the address of the challenged voter listed on the registration record.

Any voter(;) whose registration has been so (~~questioned;~~) challenged and who believes that the allegation is not true(;) shall, within twenty days of such mailing (~~or publication~~), file a written (~~protest~~) response with the county auditor. The county auditor shall immediately (~~notify~~) request, by certified mail, the challenger and the challenged voter to appear at a meeting to be held within ten days of the mailing of the request at a place, day, and hour (~~certain~~) to be stated in the (~~notice~~) request, for determination of the validity of such registration(~~-PROVIDED, That should~~). If the challenged voter (~~be~~) is unable to appear in person, he or she may file a reply by means of an affidavit stating (~~therein~~) under oath the reasons he or she believes (~~his~~) the registration to be valid, and (~~should~~) if the challenger (~~be~~) is unable to appear in person he or she may file a statement by means of affidavit stating the reasons he or she believes the registration to be invalid.

(~~The hearing shall take place at the time and place designated by the county auditor in the event~~). If both the challenger and the challenged voter file affidavits instead of appearing in person, an evaluation of (~~such~~) the affidavits by the county auditor (~~shall~~) constitutes a hearing for the purposes of this section.

The county auditor shall hold a hearing at which time both parties shall present their facts and arguments. After reviewing the facts and arguments, the county auditor shall rule as to the validity or invalidity of the challenge. His or her ruling (~~shall be~~) is final subject only to a petition for judicial review by the superior court under (~~the provisions of~~) chapter 34.04 RCW(~~-as it is now or hereafter amended~~). If the challenger fails to appear at the meeting or fails to file an affidavit, the registration in question may remain in full effect as determined by the county auditor. If the challenged voter fails to appear at the meeting or fails to file an affidavit, then the registration shall be canceled and the voter so notified.

Sec. 6. Section 29.65.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 101, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.65.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any registered voter may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be issued a certificate of election for any of the following causes:

(3) Because the person whose right is being contested was previous to the election convicted of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction, his conviction not having been reversed nor his civil rights restored after the conviction;

(4) Because the person whose right is being contested gave a bribe or reward to a voter or to an inspector or judge of election for the purpose of procuring his election, or offered to do so;

(5) On account of illegal votes.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Barrett: "I want to call the attention of the body to a document that has been distributed to each of you at your offices today. It's called "Funding of Retirement Systems," and it was prepared by Mildred Brower, who is serving as a senior intern for Representative Barnes. Mrs. Brower is from Spokane, and I rise because I am extremely proud that Mildred was involved in a project that exemplified, I think, the finest work that we can get from a senior intern. I commend to each of you this year and in future years that to have had a senior intern work on a program that completely details for us the funding of retirement systems, is a permanent document and the senior intern also has the pride of authorship acknowledged on the cover. I am not sure that we all make the best possible use we can of this grand program which is still just in its infancy.

"Number one, I ask you to read this document. I think you'll find it very helpful as a resource piece in the coming years, and second, when you have the opportunity to use a senior intern, find something for them to do that allows them to be a permanent part of our activities here."

The local jurisdiction shall also immediately confirm the satisfaction of the warrant on request of the seller so that the hold may be released if the warrant was for a crime other than a crime of violence.

(3) In any case where the chief or sheriff of the local jurisdiction has reasonable grounds based on the following circumstances: (a) Open criminal charges, (b) pending criminal proceedings, (c) pending commitment proceedings, (d) an outstanding warrant for a crime of violence, or (e) an arrest for a crime of violence if the records of disposition have not yet been reported or entered sufficiently to determine eligibility to purchase a pistol, the local jurisdiction may hold the sale and delivery of the pistol beyond five days up to thirty days in order to confirm existing records in this state or elsewhere. The seller shall deliver the pistol to the purchaser following ~~((seventy-two hours thereafter))~~ the period of time specified in this section unless the seller is notified in writing by the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county, whichever is applicable, denying the purchaser's application to purchase and the grounds thereof. The application shall not be denied unless the purchaser ~~((has been convicted in this state or elsewhere of a crime of violence, drug addiction, or habitual drunkenness, or is legally judged to be of unsound mind))~~ fails to meet the requirements specified in RCW 9.41.040. The chief of police of the municipality or the county sheriff shall maintain a file containing the original of the application to purchase a pistol.

Before the firearm may be returned, the person must pay the past due renewal fee and the current renewal fee;

(b) Commercially sold to any person without an application as required by RCW 9.41.090;

(c) Found in the possession or under the control of a person at the time the person committed or was arrested for committing a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW;

(d) Found concealed on a person in any place in which a concealed pistol license is required, under the influence of any drug or under the influence of intoxicating liquor, having 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in his blood, as shown by chemical analysis of his breath, blood, or other bodily substance;

(e) Found in the possession of a person prohibited from possessing the firearm under RCW 9.41.040;

(f) Found in the possession of a person free on bail or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed, except that violations of Title 77 RCW shall not result in forfeiture under this section;

(g) Found in the possession of a person found to have been mentally incompetent while in possession of a firearm when apprehended or who is thereafter committed pursuant to chapter 10.77 or 71.05 RCW;

(h) Known to have been used or displayed by a person in the violation of a proper written order of a court of general jurisdiction; or

(i) Known to have been used in the commission of a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniformed controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) Upon order of forfeiture, the court in its discretion shall order destruction of any firearm that is illegal for any person to possess, retention of the firearm as evidence, appropriate use by a law enforcement agency in the state, donation to a historical museum, or sale at a public auction to a commercial seller. The proceeds from any sale shall be divided as follows: The local jurisdiction shall retain its costs, including actual costs of storage and sale, and shall forward the remainder to the state game commission for use in its firearms training program pursuant to RCW 77.32.155. If the court orders delivery to a law enforcement agency and the agency no longer requires use of the firearm, the agency shall dispose of the firearm in a manner which is consistent with this subsection.

(3) The court shall order the firearm returned to the owner upon a showing that there is no probable cause to believe a violation of subsection (1) of this section existed or the firearm was stolen from the owner or was not in the possession of the owner at the time of the violation of subsection (1) of this section.

(4) A law enforcement officer of the state or of any county or municipality may confiscate a firearm found to be in the possession of a person under circumstances specified in subsection (1) of this section. After confiscation, the firearm shall not be surrendered except: (a) To the prosecuting attorney for use in subsequent legal proceedings; (b) for disposition according to an order of a court having jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section; or (c) to the owner if the proceedings are dismissed or as directed in subsection (3) of this section.

(b) Shall not require proof that either party is seeking a dissolution of marriage prior to instigation of criminal proceedings;

(c) Shall waive any requirement that the victim's location be disclosed to any person, other than the attorney of a criminal defendant, upon a showing that there is a possibility of further violence: PROVIDED, That the court may order a criminal defense attorney not to disclose to his client the victim's location; and

(d) Shall identify by any reasonable means on docket sheets those criminal actions arising from acts of domestic violence.

(2) Because of the likelihood of repeated violence directed at those who have been victims of domestic violence in the past, when any defendant charged with a crime involving domestic violence is released from custody before trial on bail or personal recognizance, the court authorizing the release may prohibit the defendant from having any contact with the victim. If the court has probable cause to believe that the defendant is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in any further acts of violence, the court may also require the defendant to surrender any deadly weapon in the defendant's immediate possession or control, or subject to the defendant's immediate possession or control, to the sheriff of the county or chief of police of the municipality in which the defendant resides or to the defendant's counsel for safekeeping. Willful violation of a court order issued under this section is a misdemeanor. The written order releasing the defendant shall contain the court's directives and shall bear the legend: Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 10.99 RCW. A certified copy of such order shall be provided to the victim.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.99.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the judge and findings of fact in support thereof shall be in writing.

Appearances required pursuant to this section are mandatory and cannot be waived.

The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

(a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring him to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in his immediate possession or control or subject to his immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding or to the restrained or enjoined party's counsel or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed;

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) A temporary order, temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified;

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed.

Sec. 11. Section 16, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 7, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.41.160 are each amended to read as follows:

MOTION

Mr. G. Nelson moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Mr. G. Nelson spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Heck spoke against it.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. B. Williams: "I went to the open bipartisan caucus, which I was assured by the Chairman of the Ways & Means Committee would be an open caucus and that we would have input into the process, and I also heard the Chairman of the Democratic caucus tell us that. I went to those Ways & Means Committee meetings, and I signed up to testify on the bill and instead of being allowed to testify, it took two hours in every session to brief some members of the Ways & Means Committee, Democrat and Republican, of what was in that bill--"

The Speaker: "Representative Williams, the question before the House is the motion by Representative Nelson and you have strayed from that, which is not truly a point of personal privilege."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, I believe the remarks by Representative Williams did fall under Rule 178 in Reed's Rules, which say that he was talking about the 'safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings.' I can't see how he was straying from the topic if he was speaking to that matter."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, Representative Williams had an opportunity to make his remarks when the motion was to substitute the bill. The question before the House is the motion by Representative Nelson and his point of personal privilege does not deal with that issue. In my reading of the rules, it is not appropriate."

Representative Zellinsky appeared at the bar of the House.

Mr. Ballard spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Ballard to page 16, line 9 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 58; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Belcher, Betzoff, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Clayton, Fisch, Fiske, Garrett, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Moon, Nealey, Nelson G, Patrick, Prince, Ristuben, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Struthers, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 39.

Excused: Representative Barrett - 1.

Mr. Armstrong moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 15, line 27 strike "$16,713,000" and insert "$17,215,000"

On page 15, line 31 strike "$17,681,000" and insert "$18,183,000"

On page 16, beginning on line 2 strike all of subsection (2) and insert the following:

"(2) $800,000 of the Public Service Revolving Fund state appropriation is provided solely for the provision of counsel to represent the public before the Utilities and Transportation Commission. If Substitute House Bill 563, or any other legislation establishing a consumer's counsel to represent the public before the Utilities and Transportation Commission, is enacted before July 1, 1983, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse."

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Grimm, earlier the majority leader explained that there are other bills that will be carrying appropriations and so forth, and that is the history of this body, so those appropriations will stand up or fall down under the decision of the body at that time. This amendment by the gentleman from the 36th District alludes to a bill in a budget document, Substitute House Bill 563. My question to you is: How or what is the decision made on how some bills will stand on their own weight and some bills get into the budget document? How is that decision made?"

Mr. Grimm: "The decision is made on the individual case--on the merits of the individual case. Representative Armstrong is introducing the amendment, which does refer to legislation. There is a precedent for that, certainly. There is also precedent for other legislation carrying an appropriation and being dealt with separately. That decision is a result of the collective wisdom of the ninety-eight members on the floor of the House."

Representatives Hastings and Cantu spoke against the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Martinis.

Mr. Martinis: "Representative Grimm, since you do understand budgets so well, and House Bill 563 is a bill before this legislature, and as I understand House Bill 563 is alive through this legislative term which runs through this entire two-year period, my question is: If this amendment passes, is this appropriation tied directly to that bill as long as that bill is before this legislative body, regardless of which session we are in?"

Mr. Grimm: "I believe that in the event House Bill 563 were to pass at any time during the legislature which would extend through the second Monday, I believe, of January 1985, that this provision of the budget would no longer be in effect and that if this bill does not pass, then this language would be in effect, so they would be mutually exclusive."

Mr. Martinis spoke against the amendments.

Mr. West moved adoption of the following amendment to the Armstrong amendments:

On line 7 of the amendment after "commission" insert "or public utility districts"

Mr. West spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Isaacson and Armstrong spoke against it.

Mr. West spoke again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment to the Armstrong amendment to page 15 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 15; nays, 82; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Barnes, Bond, Cantu, Egger, Ellis, Garrett, Lewis, McDonald, Miller, Nelson G, Sanders, Stratton, Van Dyken, West, Williams J - 15.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 82.

Excused: Representative Barrett - 1.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendments by Representative Armstrong.

Representatives West, Schmidt and Lewis spoke against the amendments, and Mr. Armstrong spoke again in favor of them.

Mr. Martinis spoke again in opposition to the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Armstrong to page 15 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 62; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Brekke, Burns, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Gallagher, Grimm, Halsan, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Moon, Nelson D, O'Brien, Powers, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Sommers, Tanner, Todd, Van Dyken, Vekich, Walk, Wang, and Mr. Speaker - 35.

Excused: Representative Barrett - 1.

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 16, line 21 strike "8,236,000" and insert "14,236,000"

On page 16, line 23 strike "37,056,000" and insert "43,056,000"

On page 17, after line 2 insert:

"(4) $6,000,000 of the general fund-state appropriation is provided solely for the tourism program including marketing and advertising expenditures."

Representatives Tilly, Lewis and Taylor spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives J. King and Smitherman spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. B. Williams.

Mr. B. Williams: "Representative Grimm, did the Department of Commerce have the opportunity to come before your committee and explain what these funds are to be utilized for?"

Mr. D. Nelson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives D. Nelson and Vekich:

On page 55, line 33 after "needs," insert "In determining demand and needs, the state board shall consider the needs of new industries, with special reference to the semi-conductor industry, and any other state economic growth that community college education can enhance in rural as well as metropolitan areas. In addition, reallocation of student enrollments that would maximize the highest quality educational offerings shall be considered."

Representatives D. Nelson and Vekich spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Nelson, I'm a little intrigued with your amendment. It sounds, maybe, a little bit like what they do in the state of North Carolina where, if an industry wants to come in, the state promises it will train the workers free of charge and have them ready to work when the plan is opened. Is it somewhere along those lines you intend to work cooperatively with industry and would this give the state board the freedom to make those decisions, even though it's going to cost the state some money to get those workers trained?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Yes, it is, Representative Tilly. We had considerable testimony before the House Higher Education Committee that indicated it would be nice to know how to link enrollment in our higher education system with economic development and job opportunities in the state, but it was clear that we don't have a mechanism to do that. This budget language that we are amending, suggest we ought to look at enrollment in our community colleges and, perhaps, adjust funding or encouragement of enrollment on the basis of the current changes in enrollment. What we are adding in language suggests that we ought to go beyond that and look at how we can change that. In other words, to anticipate where economic growth is going to occur in this state and also make it occur in certain areas in the state and design our enrollment programs to the community colleges that matches that growth and then make that growth happen. That's what we are attempting to do and it just says that the community college board should take a look at that linkage between the programs and the enrollment and the job opportunities in economic development."

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the following amendment:

Representatives Dellwo, Halsan and Grimm spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dellwo yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative Dellwo, as I look over the amendment, Eastern Washington University full-time equivalent for instructional purposes would be increased by this amendment by $30 per FTE student. Western Washington University wouldn't get any increase in the same area and Central Washington University has a $4 increase per FTE student. I'm wondering, in terms of your rationale for equalizing education throughout the state, about this?"

Mr. Dellwo: "We sat down with them and each university has a different way of breaking it out. Each university requires different funding for students. In trying to equalize, we've gone through and tried to raise up the three that we did raise up to a level that would be at a comparable level with other universities throughout the state. We did not just increase the dollars. That wasn't the method. We increased the number of students using the formula that would generate the increase in money."

Representatives Powers and Sommers spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Prince and G. Nelson spoke against them.

No academic program existing at the state universities, regional universities, or The Evergreen State College, on May 31, 1983, or thereafter, may be terminated or substantially reduced as a result of a reduction of the university or college budget or reallocation of funds within the university or college except in accordance with the procedures adopted under this subsection. This subsection shall not apply to programs as to which the board of regents or trustees have made a final decision to terminate or reduce substantially and for which all appeals procedures have been completed by April 15, 1983."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, this amendment is the subject of an issue that is still before us. It's Substitute House Bill 621, in its entirety, and that is a bill that is still before us. According to Speaker Pro Tem O'Brien's ruling of a couple days ago, it is a bill that can be before us at a future time by suspending the rules. That's the way he ruled and I would like to ask you to rule on that."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, the Speaker has examined House Bill 621, and there is a substantial difference between the bill and this particular amendment. Your point is not well taken."

Mr. Locke continued his remarks in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Locke, is it your intention that this language will extend beyond this next biennium?"

Mr. Locke: "No, it is my intent that as part of the proviso for the budget, as there are several provisos now in this House bill, that they have to come up with the rules of procedure by January 1984, within the current biennium."

Mr. Hastings: "And the effect of those rules will carry through only through the next biennium?"

Mr. Locke: "Well, if the universities decide they want to make those permanent, it is up to them. Certainly they can revise or amend them any time they want."

Mr. Hastings: "But the terms you are giving them are only for the next biennium?"

Mr. Locke: "That's correct."

"(3) The council shall conduct a study to determine whether, based on factors such as the decline of the ages 18-22 population, The Evergreen State College, as the state institution with the highest undergraduate per cost student rate, should continue to operate as an institution of higher learning or whether alternative uses for the facility including as additional state office space, would be more effective."

Representatives Braddock and Padden spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Grimm, Kreidler and Heck spoke against it.

Representatives Braddock and Padden spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Braddock and Padden to page 62 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 56; excused, 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. Addison.

Mr. Addison: "Representative Locke, what's meant by faculty?"

Mr. Locke: "That is defined in the RCW. It is the teachers and those people teaching courses."

Mr. Addison: "So would each faculty member have to vote on the rules and procedures?"

Mr. Locke: That is in the RCWs and I could not tell you offhand."

Mr. Addison: "Would this be rules and regulations that would be statewide or would there be different rules and regulations within each institution?"

Mr. Locke: "This is a local control. Each college and university could come up with their own."

Representatives Grimm, Prince, Barnes, Brough and McDonald spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Taylor spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Prince moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Prince, Taylor, Silver, Brough and Struthers:

Representatives Prince and Brough spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Jacobsen spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Brough yielded to question by Ms. Powers.

Ms. Powers: "Representative Brough, you have spoken specifically to enrollment. In looking at the amendment before me, the appropriation is fewer dollars than was in the previous amendment we adopted. I would like to know how you can deal with increased enrollment with fewer dollars?"

Ms. Brough: "It was my understanding when we heard from the people from the community colleges, this was basically how dollars were distributed to staff. Because we have seen a reduction in staff at community colleges, we have eliminated all part-time faculty and part-time faculty basically serviced, it was my understanding, twice as many students as full-time faculty. What we are talking about is termination of night schools and elimination of service to the adult population in this state."

Representatives Powers, R. King and Grimm spoke against the amendment, and Representatives McDonald and G. Nelson spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Prince to page 55 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

On page 63, line 2 strike "$889,000" and insert "$1,880,000"

On page 63, line 4 strike "$11,525,000" and insert "$23,159,000"

On page 63, after line 17 strike all material down to and including the period on line 22.

Representatives Belcher, Taylor, Lux and Broback spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Grimm spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Belcher yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: "Representative Belcher, could you advise us of what the federal funding is--what the ratio is and what we get back in return for the additional $1 million?"

Ms. Belcher: "I can tell you that there is $900,000 of state funds in this, and all those big figures are federal funds, but it's too late in the night or too early in the morning to tell you what the ratio is."

Mr. Schoon spoke in favor of the amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Belcher and others to page 63 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 64; nays, 33; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bond, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Fisch, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Garrett, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, King P., King R., Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D., Nelson G., O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Pruitt, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, West, Williams B., Williams J. - 64.

Representatives B. Williams and Schoon spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Grimm spoke against it.

Mr. B. Williams spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative B. Williams to page 65, line 4 of Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 60; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Betrozoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 37.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Todd, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 60.

Mr. Hastings spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Grimm spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings yielded to question by Mr. Fiske.

Mr. Fiske: "Representative Hastings, with respect to the remarks of the last speaker, does this amendment require additional funds--new money?"

Mr. Hastings: "No, Representative Fiske, it does not do that. As I pointed out earlier the funds would come from the heretofore available funds that previous legislatures had called the 'twenty-fifth month,' and the dollars available there would be almost the identical amount needed to bring the pension system to an actuarial sound basis."

Mr. Fiske: "But we would have to make the statutory change to what we did in the previous supplemental budget to allow us to do this. Is that correct?"

Mr. Hastings: "That is correct, and as we have heard in debate on the floor tonight, this budget has references to other pieces of legislation that will be passed before this legislative session is over, so this is consistent with what has happened in the past."

Representatives Fiske and B. Williams spoke in favor of the amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Hastings to Substitute House Bill No. 49, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 57; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Barnes, Betrozoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 40.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McDonald, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 57.

Excused: Representative Barrett - 1.

On motion of Ms. Rust, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 73, after line 20 insert:

"Salary increases shall average 6.7% for medical residents and graduate assistants of the four-year institutions of higher education."

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendments:

Representatives Appelwick and Powers spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Addison spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Ms. Miller.

Ms. Miller: "Representative Appelwick, I would like to know if the intention of this amendment is to make those increases COLA that we are allowing for merit, or if you are now going to give a portion of it as a straight across-the-board increase?"

Mr. Appelwick: "It would not be a COLA increase. It is my intention to allow the 3.1% to be used at the discretion of the institution either as a merit increase or to be used as an across-the-board increase, but it's not tied to an exact cost of living factor. We have already determined here that 6.7% is the average increase and so we've looked at the dollar base and decided that the total increase would be 6.7%. The community colleges have historically not given merit increases and opposed that, both the faculty and administration—that prerogative was taken away in this draft before us. What this will do is return that option to the local campus and they can use any part up to 3.1% for merit increases. If they do not choose to use it for merit increases, they can put that back into their across-the-board allocation or their increments."

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Brække, Burns, Charnley, Dellwo, Ellis, Fisher, Halsan, Jacobsen, King P, King R, Martinis, McClure, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, Powers, Pruitt, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Todd, Zellinsky - 24.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 74, line 22 strike all of subsection (11)

Representatives Jacobsen, D. Nelson and McDonald spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Addison and Rust spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: "Representative Nelson, I am not aware of the terminology, but is it your understanding that in subsection (11), where it says 'faculty and staff,' that they cannot be maintenance people or engineers, or is it your understanding that the staff there are only the faculty people?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "My understanding is that language does not include exempt staff which at the University of Washington includes engineers and other technical staff that are exempt from state civil service and also academic counselors, a large group of people who work at the university who should, in my opinion, be included in any merit system."

Mr. Schoon: "I'm not that familiar with staff as it is, but I do feel that when the percentage is 97% or 98%, as has been stated, that share in the merit pay, that there should be some restriction in here. Would it be possible that the amendment could be reworded to include those people? Is that basically your objection, that those people are not included?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "That is my objection, and I guess the question should be made to Representative Jacobsen, who is the sponsor of the amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Jacobsen yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: "Representative Jacobsen, is it your legislative intent that in your motion to strike that staff cannot include maintenance people, engineers?"

Mr. Jacobsen: "It is my intention to strike the subsection because it specifically refers to instructional faculty and staff and there are other staff at the University of Washington that are classified as exempt, and they are outside the state pay scales. Those are the people who would be precluded from receiving merit pay even though they are doing an outstanding job."

Ms. Powers spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Cantu moved adoption of the following amendment:

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Taylor: "I want to make a few remarks that I would have made at 7:02 on Saturday morning, but I was afraid John White would kill me if I did at that point in the proceedings. The comments, the process that led to our all-night session on Friday going into Saturday morning, the process in the Ways & Means Committee, which I feel---"

The Speaker: "Mr. Taylor, I suggest you go back and read the section of Reed's Rules having to do with points of personal privilege. It seems that you are straying into other matters. I wish if you do, in fact, have a point of personal privilege to get to that and not to a number of other things."

Mr. Taylor: "The personal privilege I'm making responds to the process and to the all-night session."

The Speaker: "That is not a point of personal privilege, Representative Taylor."

Mr. Taylor: "At what point would a person be allowed to make remarks of that sort, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker: "I suggest you read the rules."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "I guess I have read the rules, Mr. Speaker, and we have discussed Reed's Rule 178 a number of times--A question of privilege. It says that you are talking the 'safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings.' It seems to me that Representative Taylor is, indeed, doing all of those and it seems like he's well within the bounds of the rules."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, this is the fifth order of business, Committee Reports and Concurrences. The measure you are apparently speaking of could have been taken up on final passage. It is not appropriate to the fifth order of business. It's not before us today. Certainly, if the member would like to make a statement of some sort and time did not infringe upon the orderly process of this legislature, we could talk about it."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 12, 1983.

WAYNE EHLERS, Speaker

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

NINETY-THIRD DAY

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, April 12, 1983

The House was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives McMullen and Wilson, who were excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Lisa Price and Mark Eltendahl. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Lee Forstrom, Minister of the Westwood Baptist Church of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Taylor: "I would like to make a brief statement regarding the all-night session which started at roughly 4:00 o'clock Friday afternoon and concluded at about two minutes after 7:00 on Saturday morning. For some of us the all-night session represented two nights out of the last three that in order to conduct the state's business, we were required to go all night. My concession that the calling of all-night sessions whether by my party, which has done it in the past, or by the present majority party is a clear mockery of state government. There were people asleep on the floor; there were people asleep in the lounge, not due to any fault of their own, but sheer exhaustion. There was no dinner break given whatsoever. People were forced to leave the floor to go down and eat. With the seriousness of the proposition (and they weren't stalling) the amendments that were offered were very good ones. They came from that side of the aisle and they came from this side of the aisle. I think our constituents deserve to have us represent them with a clear head and a clear mind at a time when we are not exhausted from lack of sleep. I was one of the fortunate ones; I didn't fall asleep Wednesday or Friday night but believe me, I resent it deeply--the conduct of state business in a manner of this fashion. There's no need for it. No need whatsoever. The time we spent in the Ways & Means Committee, in subcommittee, were a mockery. It could have been adjusted over a given time for consideration on the floor. The only chance we had for input to this budget came in the dark of night and with exhaustion, with no one in the balconies to see the goings on, and I guess I'm very glad there weren't because the effect of this body was to be forced and to be forced hard to pass some of the most serious amendments on one of the largest budgets or the largest budget in the history of the state, deserves better. I ask, Mr. Speaker, that you give serious consideration to adopting a rule that is present in the Senate that says no business will be conducted beyond 10 p.m. I ask this in all seriousness. I think, although I'm speaking for myself, the members on both sides of the aisle would like to approach this in a much more serious vein, wide awake, with food on our stomachs, and not have to leave the floor. I urge you and I urge the body to keep your promise seriously, and I ask the Speaker to avoid, from now on, letting the House run and making a sham of state government and a sham for conducting the legislative business. We were a mockery."

(1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for or renewing a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of ~~((four))~~ six thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of ~~((two))~~ four thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. ~~((Any registered contractor with an unimpaired bond in effect on the day immediately preceding September 21, 1977, is hereby authorized to maintain such bond until the next annual renewal of such bond at which time the terms of this 1977 amendatory act must be complied with: PROVIDED, That))~~ A change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond.

At that time, the contractor shall provide a bond, cash deposit, or other security deposit as required by this chapter and comply with all of the other provisions of this chapter before the department shall renew the contractor's certificate of registration.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by ~~((serving and))~~ filing ~~((of))~~ the complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior court within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Service of process in an action upon such bond shall be exclusively by service upon the department. Three copies of the complaint and a fee of ten dollars to cover the handling costs shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Service is not complete until the department receives the ten-dollar fee and three copies of the complaint. (4) The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond ~~nor for any monetary penalty assessed pursuant to this chapter for~~

The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- ((1)) (a) Labor, including employee benefits;
- ((2)) (b) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- ((3)) (c) Material and equipment;
- ((4)) (d) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;
- ((5)) (e) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

(5) In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

(6) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

(7) Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(8) The director may promulgate rules ((and regulations)) necessary for the proper administration of the security.

Sec. 19. Section 6, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 61, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

- (c) Until the insurance expires, whichever comes first. The department shall place the expiration date on the certificate.

(3) A contractor may supply a short-term bond or insurance policy to bring its registration period to the full one year.

(4) If a contractor's surety bond or other security has an unsatisfied judgment against it or is canceled, or if the contractor's insurance policy is canceled, the contractor's registration shall be automatically suspended on the effective date of the impairment or cancellation. The department shall give notice of the suspension to the contractor.

Sec. 20. Section 5, chapter 118, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 153, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendents of the state penitentiary, the state reformatory, the state honor camps and such other penal institutions as may hereafter be established, may, subject to the approval of the secretary and under section 4 of this 1983 act, grant escorted leaves of absence to inmates confined in such institutions to:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 72.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An inmate shall not be allowed to start a leave of absence under RCW 72.01.370 until the secretary, or the secretary's designee, has notified any county and city law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the area of the inmate's destination.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to vest in the department the power to provide for a comprehensive inmate work program and to remove statutory and other restrictions which have limited work programs in the past. For purposes of establishing such a comprehensive program, the legislature recommends that the department consider adopting any or all, or any variation of, the following classes of work programs:

(1) CLASS I: FREE VENTURE INDUSTRIES. The industries in this class shall be operated and managed in total or in part by any profit or nonprofit organization pursuant to an agreement between the organization and the department. The organization shall produce goods or services for sale to both the public and private sector.

The department of corrections shall supply appropriate security and custody services without charge to the participating firms.

Inmates who work in free venture industries shall do so at their own choice. They shall be paid a wage not less than sixty percent of the approximate prevailing wage within the state for the occupation, as determined by the director of the institutional industries division. If the director finds that he cannot reasonably determine the wage, then the pay shall not be less than the federal minimum wage.

(2) CLASS II: TAX REDUCTION INDUSTRIES. Industries in this class shall be state-owned and operated enterprises designed to reduce the costs for goods and services for tax-supported agencies and for nonprofit organizations which assist persons who are poor or infirm. The industries selected for development within this class shall, as much as possible, match the available pool of inmate work skills and aptitudes with the work opportunities in the free community. The industries shall be closely patterned after private sector industries but with the objective of reducing public support costs rather than making a profit. The products and services of this industry may be sold to public agencies and to nonprofit organizations which assist persons who are poor or infirm: PROVIDED, That to avoid waste or spoilage and consequent loss to the state, when there is no public sector market for such goods, byproducts and surpluses of timber, agricultural, and animal husbandry enterprises may be sold to private persons, at private sale. Surplus by-products and surpluses of timber, agricultural and animal husbandry enterprises that cannot be sold to public agencies or to private persons may be donated to nonprofit organizations which assist the poor and infirm. All sales of surplus products shall be carried out in accordance with rules prescribed by the secretary.

Security and custody services shall be provided without charge by the department of corrections.

Inmates working in this class of industries shall do so at their own choice and shall be paid for their work on a gratuity scale which shall not exceed the federal minimum wage and which is approved by the director of institutional industries.

(3) CLASS III: INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORT INDUSTRIES. Industries in this class shall be operated by the department of corrections. They shall be designed and managed to accomplish the following objectives:

(a) Whenever possible, to provide basic work training and experience so that the inmate will be able to qualify for better work both within institutional industries and the free community. It is not intended that an inmate's work within this class of industries should be his or her final and total work experience as an inmate.

(b) Whenever possible, to provide forty hours of work or work training per week.

(c) Whenever possible, to offset tax and other public support costs.

Supervising, management, and custody staff shall be employees of the department.

All able and eligible inmates who are assigned work and who are not working in other classes of industries shall work in this class.

Except for inmates who work in work training programs, inmates in this class shall be paid for their work in accordance with an inmate gratuity scale. The scale shall be adopted by the secretary of corrections.

(4) CLASS IV: COMMUNITY WORK INDUSTRIES. Industries in this class shall be operated by the department of corrections. They shall be designed and managed to provide services in the inmate's resident community at a reduced cost. The services shall be provided to public agencies, to persons who are poor or infirm, or to nonprofit organizations which assist persons who are poor or infirm.

Inmates in this program shall reside in facilities owned by, contracted for, or licensed by the department of corrections. A unit of local government shall provide work supervision services without charge to the state and shall pay the inmate's wage.

The department of corrections shall reimburse participating units of local government for liability and workers compensation insurance costs.

Inmates who work in this class of industries shall do so at their own choice and shall receive a gratuity which shall not exceed the minimum wage for their work.

(5) CLASS V: COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAMS. Programs in this class shall be subject to supervision by the department of corrections. The purpose of this class of industries is to enable an offender, placed on probation, to work off all or part of a community service order as ordered by the sentencing court.

Employment shall be in a community service program operated by the state, local units of government, or a nonprofit agency which assists persons who are poor or infirm.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 7, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 72.62.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Products goods, wares, articles, or merchandise manufactured or produced by residents of state correctional institutions or facilities within or in conjunction with vocational education programs for the training, habilitation, and rehabilitation of inmates may be sold on the open market ~~((at public auction))~~. When services are performed by residents within or in conjunction with such vocational education programs, the cost of materials used and the value of depreciation of equipment used may be recovered.

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 20, Laws of 1973 and RCW 72.66.036 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The furlough or furloughs granted to any one resident, excluding furloughs for medical care, may not exceed thirty consecutive days or a total of sixty days during ~~((any twelve-month period))~~ a calendar year.

(2) Absent unusual circumstances, each first furlough and each second furlough granted to a resident shall not exceed a period of five days and each emergency furlough shall not exceed forty-eight hours plus travel time.

Sec. 8. Section 5, chapter 20, Laws of 1973 and RCW 72.66.016 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A furlough shall not be granted to a resident if the furlough would commence prior to the time the resident has served the minimum amounts of time provided under this section:

~~((+))~~ (a) If his minimum term of imprisonment is longer than twelve months, he shall have served at least six months of the term;

~~((#))~~ (b) If his minimum term of imprisonment is less than twelve months, he shall have served at least ninety days and shall have no longer than six months left to serve on his minimum term;

~~((@))~~ (c) If he is serving a mandatory minimum term of confinement, he shall have served all but the last six months of such term.

(2) A person convicted and sentenced for a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 is not eligible for furlough until the person has served at least one-half of the minimum term as established by the board of prison terms and paroles or the sentencing guidelines commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 43.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever any convicted offender, who is a citizen or national of a foreign country and is under the jurisdiction of the department of corrections, requests transfer to the foreign country of which he or she is a citizen or national, under a treaty on the transfer of offenders entered into between the United States and a foreign country, the governor or the governor's designee:

(1) May grant the approval of the state to such transfer as provided in the treaty; and

(2) Shall have, notwithstanding any provision of chapter 9.95 or 72.68 RCW, the plenary authority to fix the duration of the offender's sentence, if not otherwise fixed, whenever a fixed sentence is a condition precedent to transfer.

Sec. 10. Section 72.68.010, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 282, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.68.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever in its judgment the best interests of the state or the welfare of any prisoner confined in any penal institution will be better served by his or her transfer to another institution or to a foreign country of which the prisoner is a citizen or national, the secretary may effect such transfer consistent with applicable federal laws and treaties.

(2) If directed by the governor, the secretary shall, in carrying out this section and section 9 of this 1983 act, adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to effect the transfer of prisoners requesting transfer to foreign countries.

Sec. 11. Section 72.68.080, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 10, chapter 122, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 72.68.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The prisoners so confined shall be subject in all respects to discipline and treatment as though committed under the laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Interstate Corrections Compact.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. The secretary of the department of corrections is hereby authorized and requested to execute, on behalf of the state of Washington, with any other state or states legally joining therein a compact which shall be in form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

(1) The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of cooperation with one another, and with the federal government, thereby serving the best interest of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of cooperation for the confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

(2) As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) 'State' means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) 'Sending state' means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.

(c) 'Receiving state' means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.

(d) 'Inmate' means a male or female offender who is committed, under sentence to, or confined in a penal or correctional institution.

(e) 'Institution' means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates as defined in subsection (2)(d) of this section may lawfully be confined.

(3) (a) Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states, or with the federal government, for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

(i) Its duration;

(ii) Payments to be made to the receiving state or to the federal government, by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance;

(iii) Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom;

(iv) Delivery and retaking of inmates;

(v) Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

(b) The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

(4) (a) Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to subsection (3)(a) of this section, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

(c) Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state, provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of subsection (3)(a) of this section.

(d) Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact, including a conduct record of each inmate, and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

(e) All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

(f) Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record, together with any recommendations of the hearing officials, shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

(g) Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

(h) Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

(i) The parents, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

(5) (a) Any decision of the sending state in respect to any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharge from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

(b) An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

(6) Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto; and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally-aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

(7) This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

(8) This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate official of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notice provided in said statute has been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

(9) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.

(10) The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. The secretary of corrections is authorized to receive or transfer an inmate as defined in the Interstate Corrections Compact to any institution as defined in the Interstate Corrections Compact within this state or without this state, if this state has entered into a contract or contracts for the confinement of inmates in such institutions pursuant to subsection (3) of the Interstate Corrections Compact.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The courts, departments, agencies, and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall enforce this compact and shall do all things appropriate to the effectuation of its purposes and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions including but not limited to the making and submission of such reports as are required by the compact.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The secretary is authorized and directed to hold such hearings as may be requested by any other party state pursuant to subsection (4)(f) of the Interstate Corrections Compact. Additionally, the secretary may hold out-of-state hearings in connection with the case of any inmate of this state confined in an institution of another state party to the Interstate Corrections Compact.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. The secretary of corrections is empowered to enter into such contracts on behalf of this state as may be appropriate to implement the participation of this state in the Interstate Corrections Compact pursuant to subsection (3) of the compact. No such contract shall be of any force or effect until approved by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. If any agreement between this state and any other state party to the Interstate Corrections Compact enables an inmate of this state confined in an institution of another state to be released in such other state in accordance with subsection (4)(g) of this compact, then the secretary is authorized to provide clothing, transportation, and funds to such inmate in accordance with RCW 72.02.100.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. Sections 12 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 72 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

 - (4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

Notice of the proceeding shall be served upon the office of support enforcement personally, or by certified mail, and shall be given no fewer than thirty days prior to the date of the final proceeding. An original copy of the notice shall be filed with the court either before service or

For the purpose of this section, neither the husband nor the wife shall be construed to have any interest in the earnings of the other: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no separate debt, except a child support or maintenance obligation, may be the basis of a claim against the earnings and accumulations of either a husband or wife unless the same is reduced to judgment within three years of the marriage of the parties. The obligation of a parent or stepparent to support a child may be collected out of the parent's or stepparent's separate property, the parent's or stepparent's earnings and accumulations, and the parent's or stepparent's share of community personal and real property. Mr. Lux: "That's true, Representative Sanders. In talking with the Insurance Commissioner there are several other classifications of disciplines that are not included in the bill, but these are understood by the Insurance Commissioner that these are coverages that he would so deem as far as coverage under this bill, even though they are not listed here. This is just a number of listed disciplines, but there are many others that would also be covered and occupational therapy is one of them."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Padden, in the terms that we have introduced in this bill, what do we mean by 'negligent homicide'?"

Mr. Padden: "Representative Isaacson, 'negligent homicide' is defined in RCW 46.61.520 as negligent homicide by motor vehicle. That is described in that section of the RCW. That is what is meant by negligent homicide in Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3416."

Mr. Isaacson: "What is the effect of adding negligent homicide? As I understand that definition of RCW 46.61.520, it defines it as negligent homicide by motor vehicle. According to that, what are we doing by adding that word under 'violent offense'?"

Mr. Padden: "Well, what we are doing, Representative Isaacson, is we're accompanying the penalties on negligent homicide in conjunction with this and also with Engrossed House Bill 297, the other bill of sentencing guidelines, so now negligent homicide will require an eighteen-month sentence and will, in all probability, unless the judge goes outside of the guidelines, require prison terms for negligent homicide. That's the effect and it is accompanying the negligent homicide laws."

Mr. Isaacson continued his remarks in favor of the motion.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Isaacson withdrew the motion for reconsideration.

SSB 3034 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Commerce & Labor: Modifying provisions relating to consumer warranties. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Every manufacturer of motor vehicles sold in this state and for which the manufacturer has made an express warranty shall maintain in this state sufficient service and repair facilities reasonably close to all areas in which its motor vehicles are sold to carry out the terms of the warranties or designate and authorize in this state as service and repair facilities independent repair or service facilities reasonably close to all areas in which its motor vehicles are sold to carry out the terms of the warranties. As a means of complying with this section, a manufacturer may enter into warranty service contracts with independent service and repair facilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Motor vehicle' means an automobile, truck, motorcycle, moped, or motor home, if the motor vehicle is used primarily for personal, noncommercial use.

(2) 'Nonconformity' means a failure to conform with an express warranty in a manner which substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of the item.

(3) 'Buyer' means the purchaser of a motor vehicle, any person to whom the motor vehicle is transferred during an express warranty applicable to the motor vehicle and any other person entitled to enforcement of the obligations of an express warranty by its terms.

(4) (a) 'Express warranty' means:

(i) A written statement arising out of a sale to the consumer of a motor vehicle pursuant to which the manufacturer, dealer, or retailer undertakes to preserve or maintain the utility or performance of the motor vehicle as provided in the warranty or provide compensation if there is a failure in utility or performance; or

(ii) In the event of any sample or model, that the whole of the goods conforms to such sample or model.

(b) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that formal words such as 'warrant' or 'guarantee' be used, but if such words are used then an express warranty is created. An affirmation merely of the value of the vehicle or a statement purporting to be merely an opinion or commendation of the vehicle does not create a warranty.

(c) Statements or representations such as expressions of general policy concerning customer satisfaction which are not subject to any limitation do not create an express warranty.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. If a motor vehicle does not conform to all applicable express warranties and the nonconformity is not the result of misuse or abuse of the motor vehicle by the buyer, and the buyer reports in writing the nonconformity to the manufacturer, and its agent or authorized dealer during the term of the express warranties, the manufacturer, its agent, or its authorized dealer shall, within a reasonable period of time, begin to make such repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to such express warranties, notwithstanding the fact that such repairs are made after the expiration of such term or such one-year period. Unless the buyer agrees in writing to the contrary, the motor vehicle must be serviced or repaired so as to conform to the applicable express warranties within thirty days of the written notice of nonconformity. Delays caused by conditions beyond the control of the manufacturer, its agent, or its authorized representative shall serve to extend the thirty-day requirement. When such delay arises, the conforming services or repairs shall be rendered as soon as possible after termination of the conditions which gave rise to the delay.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. If the manufacturer or its representative or its authorized dealer is unable to service or repair the motor vehicle to conform to the applicable express warranties after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer shall reimburse the buyer in an amount equal to the purchase price paid by the buyer, less that amount directly attributable to use by the buyer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties if during the term of such express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a buyer: (1) The same nonconformity has been subject to repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents; or (2) the vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of more than thirty days since the delivery of the vehicle to the buyer. The thirty-day period includes each calendar day or portion thereof during which the service shop is open for business, but does not include periods during which repairs cannot be made due to conditions beyond the control of the service facility and does not include periods during which the buyer has been provided with a comparable replacement vehicle by the dealer or manufacturer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute resolution settlement procedure which substantially complies with the applicable provision of Title 16, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 703, as from time to time amended, the provisions of section 4 of this act concerning reimbursements do not apply unless the buyer has resorted to such procedure.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The remedies provided under this chapter are cumulative and are in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

ESB 3858 Prime Sponsor, Senator Barr: Authorizing the annexation of areas outside cities and towns upon consent of the property owners. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 35.13.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 332, Laws of 1981 and RCW 35.13.180 are each amended to read as follows:

City and town councils of second and third class cities and towns may by a majority vote annex new territory outside the city or town limits, whether contiguous or noncontiguous for park, cemetery, or other municipal purposes when ~~((such territory is owned by the city or town))~~ all owners of the real property in the new territory give their written consent to the annexation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 35.13 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All unincorporated areas that as of January 1, 1984, lie wholly within the boundaries of any city or town shall be incorporated into, and become part of, the city or town within whose boundaries the unincorporated area lies. Land which is owned by a county and used for the purposes of an agricultural fair under chapter 15.76 or 36.37 RCW or a county park, however, shall not be annexed without the consent of a majority of the members of the legislative authority of the county which owns the land. For purposes of this section, an unincorporated area which is completely bounded by both a state boundary or a body or bodies of navigable water and the particular city or town is considered to lie wholly within the boundaries of a city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 35.13 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A city or town shall not annex territory under RCW 35.10.211, 35.10.217, 35.13.015, 35.13.020, or 35.13.130 if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, any closed plane figure of unincorporated area could be drawn that includes a portion of the boundary of the newly-annexed area so that eighty percent or more of the figure's perimeter is coterminous with any of the annexing city's or town's boundaries. A city or town may, however, annex territory that lies within a corridor of unincorporated territory which existed before the effective date of this act despite the fact that it creates a closed plane figure prohibited by this section if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, another closed plane figure cannot be drawn within the corridor so that a greater percentage of the perimeter is coterminous with the boundaries of the city or town than the perimeter of the original figure. In addition, a city or town shall not annex unincorporated territory if the annexation would result in an area of unincorporated territory being entirely surrounded by a body or bodies of water and the annexing city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All unincorporated areas that as of January 1, 1984, lie wholly within the boundaries of any code city shall be incorporated into, and become part of, the code city within whose boundaries the unincorporated area lies. Land which is owned by a county and used for the purposes of an agricultural fair under chapter 15.76 or 36.37 RCW or a county park, however, shall not be annexed without the consent of a majority of the members of the legislative authority of the county which owns the land. For purposes of this section, an unincorporated area which is completely bounded by both a state boundary or a body or bodies of navigable water and the particular code city is considered to lie wholly within the boundaries of a code city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A code city shall not annex territory under RCW 35A.14.015, 35A.14.020, or 35A.14.120 if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, any closed plane figure of unincorporated area could be drawn that includes a portion of the boundary of the newly-annexed area so that eighty percent or more of the figure's perimeter is coterminous with any of the annexing code city's boundaries. A code city may, however, annex territory that lies within a corridor of unincorporated territory which existed before the effective date of this act despite the fact that it creates a closed plane figure prohibited by this section if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, another closed plane figure cannot be drawn within the corridor so that a greater percentage of the perimeter is coterminous with the boundaries of the code city than the perimeter of the original figure. In addition, a code city shall not annex unincorporated territory if the annexation would result in an area of unincorporated territory being entirely surrounded by a body or bodies of water and the annexing code city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SB 4204

Prime Sponsor, Senator Wojahn: Permitting the state board of health to exist for two additional years. Reported by Committee on Social & Health Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that certain reforms in the structure of state government affecting the public health should be enacted in light of modern day needs. With regard to the board of health, constitutionally mandated in 1889 to oversee the health of the people, a great diversity of professional health interests should be recognized, including local public health and consumers; a greater emphasis on public health problems, including prevention, should be realized, to avoid the rising costs of high technology health care; and a more rational and efficient division of responsibilities between regulation and health policy and planning formulation should be reflected in the government. There is a further need to consolidate state health responsibilities in a single organization with the power to provide oversight on state health responsibilities, identify urgent and long-term health problems affecting the health status of the people, coordinate local public health programs, and provide a public forum for the formulation of strategic state health policy.

The legislature further finds there is a need to make revisions in the health planning and certificate of need laws in order to assist the government in containing health costs more efficiently, while eliminating unnecessary and burdensome regulation impeding legitimate resource development.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 139, Laws of 1980 and RCW 70.38.015 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((in consideration of the findings made and national health priorities declared by the congress in the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974, Public Law 93-641))~~ It is declared to be the public policy of this state:

~~(1) That health planning ((for promoting, maintaining, and assuring a high level of) to promote, maintain, and assure the health ((for) of all citizens ((of) in the state, ((and for the provision of) to provide accessible health services, health manpower, health facilities, and other resources while controlling excessive increases in costs, and to recognize prevention as a high priority in health programs, is essential to the health, safety, and welfare of the people of the state. ((Such planning is necessary)) Health planning should be fostered on both a state-wide and regional basis and must maintain responsiveness to changing health and social needs and conditions. ((The marshaling of all health resources to assure the quality and availability of health services to every person must be the goal of such planning, which must likewise assure optimum efficiency, effectiveness, equity, coordination, and economy in development and implementation to reach that goal:)) Involvement in health planning from both consumers and providers throughout the state should be encouraged. Regional health planning under ((the provisions of) this chapter and in a manner consistent with RCW 36.70.015 is declared to be a proper public purpose for the expenditure of funds of counties or other public entities interested in local and regional health planning;~~

~~(2) ((That the development and offering of new institutional health services should be accomplished in a manner which is orderly, timely, economical, and consistent with the effective development of necessary and adequate means of providing quality health care for persons to be served by such facilities without unnecessary duplication or fragmentation of such facilities;~~

~~(3)) That the development of health services and resources, including the construction, modernization, and conversion of health facilities, should be accomplished in a planned, orderly fashion, consistent with identified priorities and without unnecessary duplication or fragmentation;~~

~~((4)) (3) That the development and maintenance of adequate health care information ((and), statistics and projections of need for health facilities and services is essential to effective health planning and resources development ((be accomplished));~~

~~((5)) (4) That the ((strengthening of competitive forces in the health services industry, wherever competition and consumer choice can constructively serve to advance the purposes of quality assurance, cost-effectiveness, and access, should be implemented;~~

~~This chapter has been updated to reflect amendments to the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974, Public Law 93-641, by the Health Planning and Resources Development Amendments of 1979, Public Law 96-79)) development of nonregulatory approaches to health care cost containment should be considered, including the strengthening of price competition;~~

~~(5) That health planning should be concerned with financing, access, and quality, recognizing the close interrelationship of the three and emphasizing cost control of health services, including cost-effectiveness and cost-benefit analysis;~~

~~(6) That this chapter should be construed to effectuate this policy and to be consistent with requirements of the federal health planning and resources development laws.~~

Each insurer delivering or issuing disability insurance contracts providing hospital and medical expenses and health care services in this state after the effective date of this act shall offer coverage for reconstructive breast surgery resulting from a mastectomy which resulted from disease, illness or injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 48.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each insurer issuing or renewing a group disability insurance contract which insures for hospital or medical care after the effective date of this act shall offer coverage for reconstructive breast surgery resulting from a mastectomy which resulted from disease, illness or injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 48.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each health care service contractor at the time a contract for health care is entered into or renewed after the effective date of this act shall offer to the person or persons to receive the care coverage for reconstructive breast surgery resulting from a mastectomy which resulted from disease, illness or injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 48.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Ms. Galloway.

Ms. Galloway: "Representative Lux, is it the intention of this legislation to provide reconstructive surgery for someone whose mastectomy was accomplished prior to the effective date of this act under a policy which did not include this benefit?"

Mr. Lux: "Yes, that's exactly what the intent of this legislation is."

Representatives Galloway and Sanders spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sanders yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Sanders, I wonder if you have some comments in regard to retroactivity and your understanding of the work in committee on this bill?"

Mr. Sanders: "Yes, I do, Representative McDonald. This subject of retroactivity came up in the Financial Institutions and Insurance Committee and an amendment was offered, or proposed, in that committee, to make this legislation retroactive and after considerable discussion--you know how difficult it is for us to change policy in the future and to change history is almost impossible--and because of that, and because that would include women who had mastectomies twenty or thirty years ago, the amendment was, at the request of the prime sponsor in the Senate, withdrawn. It's my feeling that it is not the intent of this legislation to be retroactive for those persons who had mastectomies a considerable length of time ago. However, if a woman has had a recent mastectomy and would like to have reconstructive breast surgery, then this legislation would apply."

Representatives P. King and Schoon spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

V. RECOMMENDED SENTENCING GUIDELINES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The sentencing guidelines and prosecuting standards apply equally to offenders in all parts of the state, without discrimination as to any element that does not relate to the crime or the previous record of the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. OFFENSE SERIOUSNESS LEVEL. The offense seriousness level is determined by the offense of conviction. Felony offenses are divided into fourteen levels of seriousness, ranging from low (seriousness level I) to high (seriousness level XIV - see section 3 of this act (Table 2)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. OFFENDER SCORE. The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are summarized in Table 3, section 4 of this act.

The offender score is computed in the following way:

(1) Include juvenile felony convictions if the offender was 15 or older at the time the offense was committed and the offender was 23 or less at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(2) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories.

(3) If the present conviction is for a violent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110) and not covered in subsection (2) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction (rounding down for uneven scores).

(4) If the present conviction is for Burglary (1 or 2), count two points for each prior adult Burglary conviction. Count two points for each prior juvenile Burglary 1, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110), count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony (rounding down for uneven scores).

(6) If the present conviction is for escape, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores).

(7) If the present conviction is for Negligent Homicide, only count the following crimes as part of the offender score: Negligent Homicide, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500). Count each adult prior conviction as one point and each juvenile prior conviction as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores).

(8) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the most serious offense, using the seriousness levels to define most serious, is scored.

(9) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in section 4 of this act are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (9) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE. The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see section 2 of this act, (Table 1)). The judge may sentence anywhere within this range. Except in decisions concerning first-time, nonviolent offenders, any sentence imposed by a sentencing judge which is outside the presumptive range is a departure from the guidelines, requires written reasons from the judge, and is reviewable on appeal.

In determining any sentence, the trial judge may use no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, and admitted to or acknowledged at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the judge must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The real facts shall be deemed proven at the evidentiary hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Real facts which establish elements of a higher crime, a more serious crime, or additional crimes cannot be used to go outside the guidelines except upon stipulation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. ALTERNATIVE CONVERSIONS. For sentences of nonviolent offenders for less than one year, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall justify its reasons if they are not used.

With the exception of the first-time offender, the judge shall establish the sentence in terms of total confinement. This sentence can be converted as follows: One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service can replace one day of total confinement. The community service conversion is limited to 240 hours or 30 working days. In addition, the judge can impose up to one year of community supervision to ensure that the terms of the alternative sentence are met. Fines can be assessed according to the following formula:

Class A felonies	$0 - 50,000
Class B felonies	$0 - 20,000
Class C felonies	$0 - 10,000

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. DEPARTURES FROM THE GUIDELINES. The presumptive sentence shall be the midpoint of the standard range as established by the crime of conviction and any applicable enhancements. The sentencing court shall impose the presumptive sentence or other sentence within the indicated standard range that it determines to be appropriate. If the court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the court may impose any sentence it deems appropriate within the statutory term. If the court sentences outside the standard range, it shall set forth its justification for doing so in written findings and conclusions, and any sentence outside the standard range shall be subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence:

Mitigating Circumstances

(1) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

(2) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(3) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(4) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(5) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

(6) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

Aggravating Circumstances

(1) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(2) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(3) The offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(a) The offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(b) The offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(c) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

(d) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(4) The offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify an offense as a major VUCSA:

(a) The offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

(b) The offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

(c) The offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

(d) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or

(e) The circumstances of the offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(f) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(g) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional).

The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. CONSECUTIVE/CONCURRENT SENTENCES. (1) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, at least one of which is a violent offense, and the offenses arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions, the sentences imposed shall run consecutively; provided that under this section, the presumptive sentence only for the most serious offense shall be determined by using the offender's actual criminal history score whereas the presumptive sentences for all other offenses shall be determined by using a criminal history score of zero.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, and either: (a) All of the offenses are nonviolent and they arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions; or (b) at least one of the offenses is a violent offense but they all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently; provided that the presumptive sentence for the most serious offense shall be enhanced by counting all other current offenses as prior offenses for purposes of calculating the criminal history score.

(4) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more nonviolent offenses which all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. CONVICTIONS FOR ATTEMPTS OR CONSPIRACIES. For persons convicted of attempted offenses or conspiracies to commit an offense, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the conviction, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. PRESUMPTIVE RANGES THAT EXCEED THE STATUTORY MAXIMUM. If the presumptive sentence duration given in the sentencing grid exceeds the statutory maximum sentence for the offense, the statutory maximum sentence shall be the presumptive sentence.

VI. RECOMMENDED PROSECUTING STANDARDS FOR CHARGING AND PLEA DISPOSITIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. INTRODUCTION. These standards are intended solely for the guidance of prosecutors in the State of Washington. They are not intended to, do not and may not be relied upon to create a right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by a party in litigation with the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. EVIDENTIARY SUFFICIENCY. (1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(1) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See Table 13 for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

(a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
 (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

(a) Charging a higher degree;
 (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
- (3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

- (1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
- (2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or

- (3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;
- (4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. PLEA DISPOSITIONS.

STANDARD: (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a defendant will normally be expected to plead guilty to the charge or charges which adequately describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct or go to trial.

(2) In certain circumstances, a plea agreement with a defendant in exchange for a plea of guilty to a charge or charges that may not fully describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct may be necessary and in the public interest. Such situations may include the following:

- (a) Evidentiary problems which make conviction on the original charges doubtful;
- (b) The defendant's willingness to cooperate in the investigation or prosecution of others whose criminal conduct is more serious or represents a greater public threat;
- (c) A request by the victim when it is not the result of pressure from the defendant;
- (d) The discovery of facts which mitigate the seriousness of the defendant's conduct;
- (e) The correction of errors in the initial charging decision;
- (f) The defendant's history with respect to criminal activity;
- (g) The nature and seriousness of the offense or offenses charged;
- (h) The probable effect on witnesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SENTENCE RECOMMENDATIONS.STANDARD:

The prosecutor may reach an agreement regarding sentence recommendations.

The prosecutor shall not agree to withhold relevant information from the court concerning the plea agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall be added to chapter 9.94A RCW.*

The common law doctrine of incompatibility of offices is hereby voided as it applies to persons sitting on the board of directors or the executive board of an operating agency and holding an elective or appointive position on a public utility district commission or municipal legislative authority or being an employee of a public utility district or municipality.

Sec. 2. Section 43.52.370, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the management and control of an operating agency shall be vested in a board of directors, herein sometimes referred to as the board. The legislative body of each member of an operating agency shall appoint a representative who may, at the discretion of the member and regardless of any charter or other provision to the contrary, be an officer or employee of the member, to serve on the board of the operating agency. Each representative shall have one vote and shall have, in addition thereto, one vote for each block of electric energy equal to ten percent of the total energy generated by the agency during the preceding year purchased by the member represented by such representative. Each member may appoint an alternative representative to serve in the absence or disability of its representative. Each representative shall serve at the pleasure of the member. The board of an operating agency shall elect from its members a president, vice president and secretary, who shall serve at the pleasure of the board. The president and secretary shall perform the same duties with respect to the operating agency as are provided by law for the president and secretary, respectively, of public utility districts, and such other duties as may be provided by motion, rule or resolution of the board. The board of an operating agency shall adopt rules for the conduct of its meetings and the carrying out of its business, and adopt an official seal. All proceedings of an operating agency shall be by motion or resolution and shall be recorded in the minute book which shall be a public record. A majority of the board members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A majority of the votes which the members present are entitled to cast shall be necessary and sufficient to pass any motion or resolution: PROVIDED, That such board members are entitled to cast a majority of the votes of all members of the board. The members of the board of an operating agency may be compensated by such agency as is provided in RCW 43.52.290: PROVIDED, That the ((per diem)) compensation to any member shall not exceed five thousand dollars in any year except for board members who are elected to serve on an executive board established under RCW 43.52.374((--in which case per diem compensation to any member shall not exceed ten thousand dollars in any year)).

(2) If an operating agency is constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement under chapter 80.50 RCW, the powers and duties of the board of directors shall include and are limited to the following:

(a) Final authority on any decision of the operating agency to purchase, acquire, construct, terminate, or decommission any power plants, works, and facilities except that once the board of directors has made a final decision regarding a nuclear power plant, the executive board established under RCW 43.52.374 shall have the authority to make all subsequent decisions regarding the plant and any of its components;

(b) Election of members to ((and)), removal from, and establishment of salaries for the elected members of the executive board under RCW 43.52.374(1)(a); and

(c) Selection and appointment of three outside directors as provided in RCW 43.52.374(1)(b).

All other powers and duties of the operating agency, including without limitation authority for all actions subsequent to final decisions by the board of directors, including but not limited to the authority to sell any power plant, works, and facilities are vested in the executive board established under RCW 43.52.374.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 43, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.374 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) With the exception of the powers and duties of the board of directors described in RCW 43.52.370(2), the management and control of an operating agency constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement under chapter 80.50 RCW is vested in an executive board established under this subsection and consisting of eleven members.

(a) Five members of the executive board shall be elected to four-year terms by the board of directors from among the members of the board of directors. The board of directors may provide by rule for the composition of the five members of the executive board elected from among the members of the board of directors so as to reflect the member public utility districts' and cities' participation in the joint operating agency's projects. Members elected to the executive board from the board of directors are ineligible for continued membership on the executive board if they cease to be members of the board of directors. The board of directors may also provide by rule for the removal of a member of the executive board, except for the outside directors. Members of the board of directors may be elected to serve successive terms on the executive board. Members elected to the executive board from the board of directors shall receive a salary from the operating agency at a rate set by the board of directors.

(b) Six members of the executive board shall be outside directors. Three shall be selected and appointed by the board of directors, and three shall be selected and appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. All outside directors shall:

(i) Serve four-year terms on the executive board. However, of the initial members of the executive board, the board of directors and the governor shall each appoint one outside director to serve a two-year term, one outside director to serve a three-year term, and one outside director to serve a four-year term. Thereafter, all outside directors shall be appointed for four-year terms. All outside directors are eligible for reappointment;

(ii) Receive ((per diem compensation and)) travel expenses on the same basis as the five members elected from the board of directors. The outside directors shall also receive a salary from the operating agency as fixed by the governor;

(iii) Not be an officer or employee of, or in any way affiliated with, the Bonneville power administration or any electric utility conducting business in the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, or Montana;

(iv) Not be involved in the financial affairs of the operating agency as an underwriter or financial adviser of the operating agency or any of its members or any of the participants in any of the operating agency's plants; and

(v) Be representative of policy makers in business, finance, or science, or have expertise in the construction or management of such facilities as the operating agency is constructing or operating, or have expertise in the termination, disposition, or liquidation of corporate assets.

(c) The governor may remove outside directors from the executive board for incompetency, misconduct, or malfeasance in office in the same manner as state appointive officers under chapter 43.06 RCW. For purposes of this subsection, misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, nonfeasance and misfeasance.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that an operating agency is in any manner an agency of the state. Nothing in this chapter alters or destroys the status of an operating agency as a separate municipal corporation or makes the state liable in any way or to any extent for any preexisting or future debt of the operating agency or any present or future claim against the agency.
