NOON SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Monday, January 10, 1983

The Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Forty-seventh Legislature, Franz Wiechers-Gregory, called the House to order at 12:00 noon.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Tiffany Olson and John Cameron. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Ron Tellefson of Pacific Lutheran University, Parkland:

"The Book of Daniel offers these words for us: 'Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belongs wisdom and might. He changes times of seasons; he removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.' Let us pray:

"We need You, Gracious Lord. Our states needs You. Our cities and towns and our rural areas need You. The nation and the whole world depends upon You. Send Your wisdom, justice, love and peace to these men and women who face long and challenging days before them. Grant courage and strength to our governor. Nurture a spirit of understanding and fairness among the leaders of both houses. Be with all the members of this house and always support them in their public service. Keep them mindful of the common need and of the common good. We pray, particularly, for those who are new among us, that they may be guided in their work. In the heat of deliberations keep our motives pure, our vision clear, our speech clean, our judgment fair and our consciences unbetrayed. Help us to develop work patterns which sustain the spirit, nourish the mind and strengthen the will. Give us grace to make time for family and home. Finally, Lord, while the times engage many with perplexity, poverty, and even peril, give us faith to go on with good courage, confident of our goal, with Your hand leading us and Your love supporting us. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Armstrong and Padden to escort The Honorable Justice Carolyn Dimmick of the Supreme Court to the rostrum.

All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for any of the questions named in this rule and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

A motion for suspension of the rules shall not be debatable, except, however, the mover of the motion may briefly explain the purpose of the motion, and one member may briefly state the opposition to the motion.

~~(E) Question of Consideration. The question of consideration may be raised as to any measure, motion or amendment. The question shall not be put until the measure, motion or amendment has been read. The question shall be carried by a majority vote of the members present and should the question fail as to a motion or amendment the underlying measure shall stand before the body as if the motion or amendment had never been offered.~~

~~(F) Table an Amendment. A motion to lay an amendment on the table shall not carry the main question with it unless so specified in the motion to table.~~

RULE 21 17. The methods by which a member may exercise his or her right to debate are as follows:

(A) Recognition of Speaker. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the house the member shall rise and respectfully address the speaker, pause until recognized, shall confine all remarks to the question under debate, and avoid personalities; and no member shall impugn the motive of any member's vote or argument.

(B) Order of Speaking. When two or more member arise at once, the speaker shall name the one who is to speak.

(C) Right of Member to Speak. No member shall speak longer than ten minutes without consent of the house: PROVIDED, That when only five (5) days remain before a session must end by law no member shall speak more than three minutes without the consent of the house. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the house: PROVIDED, That the chairman/chairwoman of the committee or the mover of the question may close debate so long as the act is consistent with Rule 19(B) (Previous Question).

RULES OF DEBATE

RULE 22 18. The rules for debate in the house are as follows:

(A) Question of Privilege. Any member may rise to a question of privilege and explain a personal matter, by leave of the speaker, but the member shall not discuss any pending question in such explanations.

(B) Withdrawal of Motion, Bill, Etc. After a motion is stated by the speaker, or a bill, memorial, resolution, petition or remonstrance is read by the clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the house, but may be withdrawn by consent of the house at any time before decision or amendment.

(C) Reading of a Paper. When the reading of any paper is called for, and is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a vote of the house.

(D) Order of Questions. All questions, whether in committee or in the house, shall be propounded in the order in which they are named, except that in filling blanks the largest sum and the longest time shall be put first.

(E) Division of Points of Debate. Any member may call for a division of a question, ~~other than to the general appropriation bill except as provided in Rule 15,~~ which shall be divided if it embraces subjects so distinct that one being taken away a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the house; but a motion to strike out and to insert shall not be divided. The rejection of a motion to strike out and to insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and to insert a different proposition: ~~PROVIDED, That if blanks are being filled the largest sum and longest time must be put first.~~

(F) Decorum of Members. While the speaker is putting the question, no member shall walk across or out of the house; nor when a member is speaking shall any member entertain private discourse or pass between the speaking member and the rostrum.

(G) Exception to Words Spoken in Debate. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate the person calling the member to order shall repeat the words excepted to and they shall be taken down in writing at the clerk's table. No member shall be held in answer or be subject to the censure of the house for words spoken in debate if any other member has spoken before exception to them shall have been taken.

(H) Transgression of Rules--Appeal. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the house the speaker shall, or any member may, call the member to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain; and the house shall, if appealed to decide the case without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the chair shall be submitted to.

If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, the member shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case shall require it, the member shall be liable to the censure of the house.

ENDING OF DEBATE

RULE 23 19. The rules for ending debate are as follows:

(A) Putting of Question. Question shall be put in this form, to-wit: "As many as are in favor of (as the question shall be) say 'Aye';" and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "as many as are opposed say 'No'."

(B) Previous Question. The previous question upon all recognized motions or amendments which are debatable may be ordered by two-thirds (2/3) of the members present, and shall have the effect of cutting off all debate and bringing the house to a direct vote upon the motion or amendment on which it has been ordered: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That one of the sponsors of a bill, memorial, or resolution, or the chairman/chairwoman of the committee, when the measure is on final passage or when the motion to postpone indefinitely is pending, may have the privilege of closing debate after the previous question has been ordered.

(C) Putting the Motion Ending Debate. The previous question is not debatable and cannot be amended. The previous question shall be put in this form: "Representative demands the previous question. As many as are in favor of ordering the previous question will say 'Aye'; as many as are opposed will say 'No'."

The results of the motion are as follows: If determined in the negative, the consideration goes on as if the motion had never been made; if decided in the affirmative, the presiding officer, without debate, proceeds to put the question.

If an adjournment is had after the previous question is ordered, the motion or proposition on which the previous question was ordered shall be put to the house immediately following the approval of the journal on the next working day, thus making the main question privileged over all other business, whether new or unfinished.

(D) Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when the house is voting or is working under the call of the house; but this rule shall not authorize any member to move an adjournment when another member has the floor.

VOTING

RULE 24 20. Every member who was in the house when the question was put shall vote unless, for special reasons, excused by the house.

All motions to excuse a member shall be made before the house divides or before the call for yeas and nays is commenced; and any member requesting to be excused from voting may make a brief and verbal statement of the reasons for making such request, and the question shall then be taken without further debate.

(A) Voting within Bar Only. Upon a division and count of the house on the question, only members at their desk within the bar of the house shall be counted.

(B) Change of Vote—Private Interest. When the electric roll call machine is used, no member shall be allowed to vote or change a vote after the speaker has locked the roll call machine. When the oral roll call is used, no member shall be allowed to change a vote after the result has been announced. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which that member is immediately or particularly interested,* or in any case when that member is not within the bar of the house before the last name was called, unless by unanimous consent; and when any member shall ask leave to vote, the speaker shall propound the question, "Were you within the bar of the house when the last name was called?"

*"A member who has a private interest in any bill or measure proposed or pending before the legislature shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon." (See also Constitution, Art. II § 30.)

METHOD OF VOTING

RULE 25 21. ~~A method of voting shall be as follows:~~

(A) Clerk's Desk During Voting. No member or other person shall visit or remain by the clerk's desk while the yeas and nays are being called.

(B) Yeas and Nays. Upon the final passage of any measure, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and shall be recorded by the electric voting system: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That an oral roll call shall be ordered when ~~the house is sitting as the house and the same shall be~~ demanded by one-sixth (1/6) of the members present. (Art. II § 21.)

The speaker may vote last when the yeas and nays are called.

When the vote is by electric voting machine or by oral roll call on any question it shall be entered upon the journal of the house, ~~except when the house is in the committee of the whole.~~

(C) Tie Vote, Question Loses. In case of an equal division, the question shall be lost.

If the speaker is in doubt, or if division is called for and is supported by at least seventeen members, the house shall divide and a recorded vote shall be taken.

(D) Reconsideration. Notice of a motion for reconsideration ~~of any vote on the final passage of bills~~ may be made only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was made.

The motion must be made by a member who voted on the prevailing side and may be acted upon on a succeeding day: PROVIDED, That the reconsideration of the vote by which a bill passed or failed must be taken on the next working day after such vote was taken: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when only five days remain before a session must end by law then reconsideration of votes on the final passage of measures must be taken on the same day as the original date.

A motion to reconsider can be decided only once when decided in the negative.

When a motion to reconsider has been carried, its effect shall be to place the original question before the house in the exact position it occupied before it was voted upon.

(E) Veto Bills--No Reconsideration. The veto message of the governor accompanying any bill passed by the legislature, together with the bill vetoed, shall be read in the house. It shall then be in order to proceed to the reconsideration of the bill, refer it, lay it on the table, or postpone its consideration to a day certain.

The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.

In case of a bill containing several sections or items, one or more of which has been objected to by the governor, each section or item so objected to shall be voted upon separately by the house.

Action by the house upon all vetoed bills shall be endorsed upon the bill and certified by the speaker.

Vetoed bills originating in the house which have not been passed notwithstanding the veto of the governor shall remain in the custody of the officers of the house until the close of the session, after which they shall be filed with the secretary of state.

(B) Sergeant at Arms to Bring in the Absentees. The clerk shall call a roll of the members immediately and note the absentees, whose names shall be read and entered upon the journal in such manner as to show who are absent with leave and who are absent without leave.

While the house is under a call, no business shall be transacted except to receive and act on the report of the sergeant at arms; and no other motion shall be in order except a motion to proceed with business under the call of the house, a motion to suspend further proceedings under the call of the house, or a motion to excuse absentees, any of which motions shall be determined by viva voce vote unless a roll call is demanded by one-sixth of the members present. The motion to suspend further proceedings under the call or to excuse absent members shall not be adopted unless a majority of the members elected vote in favor thereof.

(D) Call of House Raised when Absentees Return. When the sergeant at arms shall make a report showing that all who were absent without leave are present the call of the house may be dispensed with; or the house may proceed under the call, on a majority vote of the members elected, with its regular business.

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved adoption of the resolution and spoke in favor of it. Mr. McDonald spoke against it.

House Resolution No. 83-1 was adopted.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The Chief Clerk announced that nominations were in order for election of Speaker of the House.

Mr. Heck: "I would place in nomination the name of Representative Wayne Ehlers of the 2nd Legislative District for Speaker of the House. It is a singular honor for me to share some observations, and I hope some insight, about our next Speaker, Wayne Ehlers. Wayne is ready for this work; in his decade of service in this Chamber, he has come to know intimately the guts of both the legislature and state government. He's served in several leadership capacities, including minority leader and Democratic organization leader. He has chaired the State Government Committee which oversees all state agencies, and for several terms has served on both the Appropriations Committee and the Legislative Budget Committee, so he has had a first-hand look at the inside of the fiscal engine of state government. Wayne is well-tempered for this work. Since the time he has been elected as Speaker-designate, there has been the obligatory flurry of press accounts about Wayne, and they have separately characterized him as 'tough,' 'smart,' 'compassionate'; a man who knows how to laugh at himself and a straightforward man of decent instincts. To these observations about the character and personality of Wayne, I would add one other: He is unafraid. Wayne is not afraid to ask for help from Democrats and Republicans. He is not afraid to delegate responsibility to veterans and freshmen. He's not afraid to share the spotlight in anything. Wayne is also not afraid of the crisis in which we find ourselves nor of the fact that all of our policy alternatives appear somewhat ugly. Wayne is confident. He's confident in himself; he's confident in each of us. He sees our circumstance as an opportunity—not his, but ours—and he's right.

"Over the last year and one-half, Wayne has brought those of us on this side of the aisle together, and now I know that he's going to bring all of us together to stare down this crisis and to realize the opportunity. It is indeed an honor, a pleasure and a privilege for me to place the name of my very good friend, Wayne Ehlers, in nomination for the position of Speaker of the Washington State House of Representatives, because, as one columnist put it, 'Wayne is a creature of the House, the best part of it.'"

Mr. Grimm: "I rise, ladies and gentlemen of the House, to second the nomination of Representative Wayne Ehlers as Speaker of the House of Representatives. I became acquainted with Wayne in 1976 when I first came down here as a member, and I came to know him as an unpretentious, good-natured individual; somebody who had held onto the spirit of youth; somebody who, as a result of working with young people as he does, brought to us that unfettered enthusiasm and curiosity and commitment—not only to people, but, as Representative Heck has pointed out, also to the legislative process.

"Since 1976, he has maintained that curiosity, that intellectual enthusiasm, and he has also been tireless. As an aside, I should point out that Wayne is the only nonfarmer I know of who can give you the farm report every morning. He gets up before the rest of us even think about it, and he begins to work. In the years since 1976, he has demonstrated a commitment to this institution, through the legislature, to the extent that he has been willing to be unpopular in the making of difficult decisions. He has been willing to give the time and the energy, and he has done so without pretension; he has done so without the pomposity; he has done so without that political pride from which too many of us, I'm afraid, occasionally suffer.

"The session before us is the most difficult in the history of this state. We knew that when each one of us filed for this office. It is no less and, indeed, it is greater today than it was six months ago. Our work will commence immediately. We know that we will be tested, each and every one of us, on each and every critical vote. No one will be tested greater than Representative Ehlers; no one is capable of rising to that test better than Representative Ehlers. He may, indeed, have shirttails that are occasionally too short, pantlegs that are occasionally too long, and his pockets may occasionally be stuffed with calendars and notes and pens and pencils and all the paraphernalia of the legislature; but, ladies and gentlemen, he is the best of us because he is committed and dedicated to bringing out the best in all of us.

"I think she's here today, and I'm probably, under protocol, abusing the privileges of the floor, but I believe Representative Ehlers' mother is here, and I just wanted to say, 'Ma, you've done a good job.'

"I also realize that not everyone here will vote for Wayne to be the next Speaker of the House of Representatives. Notwithstanding that, Wayne will work with you. He is a man of ideas and ideals, but if you have a better idea, whether you're a Democrat or a Republican, whether you're an old member or a new one, he's willing to work with you and will continue to be willing to work with you. He's even willing, on occasion, to work with the Senate; and that's a new development as far as the legislature is concerned. Just in case somebody may have a mistaken impression, I want to make sure that at least a significant number of people on this side of the aisle do realize that Wayne is supposed to win this election and if, indeed, he comes up with fewer than about fifty-four votes, you will have the opportunity to again hear Representative Heck.

"Seriously, we have a really significant opportunity before us. Wayne, in the face of adversity, will be the one to lead us as legislators through the next two or three months. I urge your support for Wayne Ehlers, and I appreciate the opportunity to say these few words."

Mr. Hastings: "I'd like to nominate the gentleman from the 21st District, Representative Gary Nelson. It's already been said a couple of times, in the small amount of talk we've had on the floor, about the crisis we're facing, about the difficult times we're facing, and I guess, indeed, if we don't know about this, we have to ask ourselves: 'Where have we been?' I think that's precisely the backdrop of the type of individual we have to have as the Speaker of the House in this 48th Legislature. I think the man I have nominated, Representative Nelson, fits that to a tee.

"This is Gary's sixth term in the House of Representatives. He has experience that's not just to one factor. As a matter of fact, Gary has served on every committee that this House has thought of since he's been here, with the exception of the Agriculture Committee; and those of us from Eastern Washington forgive him for that. When we talk about a crisis, we have to realize that this crisis probably came down from the budgetary process. Among the many committees that Gary has served on, he was Republican Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee when we had Appropriations separate from Revenue. Those were good times; but, nevertheless, you have to know what the process is all about and he learned that process. He was also a member of the Legislative Budget Committee and if that wasn't enough, he expanded himself by being on the Executive Board of the National Conference of State Legislatures. Last term he served as majority leader here in the House of Representatives. I believe that Representative Gary Nelson from Edmonds is eminently qualified to be the Speaker of the House in this 48th Session, and I urge your support."

Mr. Barrett: "It's with a great deal of pride that I represent all of the Republican delegation of this august body to second the nomination of Gary Nelson. We know him as a man of intense personal integrity and legislative ability. I think we would all remind you that he would make an ideal and perfect Speaker of the House. I join his mother in urging his election."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, nominations for election of Speaker of the House were closed.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll and Representative Ehlers was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Mr. Ehlers, 53; Mr. G. Nelson, 44; not voting, 1.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Heck and Nelson, G. to escort Representative Ehlers to the rostrum.

Justice Dimmick issued the oath of office to Representative Ehlers.

The Chief Clerk presented the gavel to the Speaker.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Nelson, G.: "It's a privilege for me to be the first to address you, Mr. Speaker, with your new title. I began to feel like it might have been fixed when I saw the scoreboard up there with your name already there, and I figured I was in trouble right away. I'd also, perhaps, like to have the privilege of being the first to ask for a ruling, and my question: Is it at all possible that the ruling of reconsideration be used in elections?"

The Speaker: "The Speaker would like to note that we do have a couple of people on this side of the aisle who would like that."

Mr. Nelson, G.: "Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Republican caucus, we certainly would like to congratulate you on your election as Speaker of this body, and we wish you the best of success in our attempts to solve the problems facing the citizens of the State of Washington. We especially would like to offer our help, and we intend to provide all the enthusiasm and dedication needed in seeking out those solutions throughout the course of this session. We pledge those efforts and, hopefully, we will have a very productive session and a very speedy one in one hundred five days."

The Speaker: "I'd like to take a couple of moments of personal time. Last Saturday, I was writing my remarks for today, and I thought about writing some comments about some people whom I feel very much for and I love very much. It seems rather presumptuous and, certainly, not something that words could describe and that I could commit to paper. I could tell about the love that I have for some people who are here today, numerous dear friends who are here--my mother, Maxine Ehlers--please stand. (Applause) Forty-four years ago she brought me into this world. My oldest son, Jeff, is here today and Mark, my thirteen-year-old, is here. I can't thank you enough for your caring and your support. There are some other people here. I have two more relatives here, Nancy and Ray Fowler, my aunt and uncle--please stand. (Applause) I have so many dear friends out there, I'm afraid I may have pushed some into the wings. I must apologize for that, but I certainly do not apologize for them being here. There are so many of them--if you could please stand, I would appreciate it. (Applause)

"It has almost become a cliché to say that an up-and-coming session of the Legislature faces a crisis not confronted at any other time in our state's history; however, in this case, it is not a cliché. This state has the highest number of unemployed citizens and business failures since the Great Depression of the 1930's. We see no clear signs of an economy that will provide relief in the near future. What then, can we in the legislature--Democrats and Republicans--do during the next two years to ease the economic impact and to prepare for the recovery that we will eventually get here? We must seize the opportunity to enact legislation and policies that, once and for all, recognize and deal with the fact that every ten years this state's economy goes into a major tailspin. Each decade it has become more pronounced. Legislators--Democrats and Republicans--have resorted to gimmicks, lightbulb switches and economic voodoo to convince the public and ourselves that the problem has been resolved. The continuing lowering of our bond rating does not speak well for our collective political courage. We must examine old programs and ideas. We must sort out the good from the bad, and not just give across-the-board increases or cuts to all agencies and programs. All that does is penalize good managers and rewards the incompetents. Spending priorities must be established. We decry inequitable taxes and then add to that problem by continuing to narrow its base so that fewer and fewer people pay more and more of the burden. We undoubtedly will add more inequity before we leave here this year, but let us not adjourn until we allow voters the opportunity this fall to consider an alternative proposal that assures equity and also funds a balanced basic budget. We must develop a mechanism that triggers revenues to fund basic programs without causing repeated sessions of this legislature. At the same time, if the revenues do unexpectedly increase, we must channel them into specific purposes such as a rainy-day reserve account; or to eliminate budget gimmicks--such as the twenty-fifty month--or to pay our pension obligations. In any case, the surplus should only be available for emergencies, not for new programs. Restoring the fiscal integrity and credit rating of our state has to be one of our highest priorities. This proposal will help achieve that.

"Legislative ethics, an independent redistricting commission, jobs and economic development are issues that have been discussed for years; now is the time to act. The threat of a default by WPPSS may cause this legislature to become more of a focal point. We must be willing to serve as a forum for the public debate that is needed to understand the potential impact on our state's citizens. Some have said, and some have certainly asked, what kind of Speaker, what kind of leader, am I going to be. I certainly lead my political party. I believe I am the Speaker of the House, not the Speaker only for the Democratic majority. We must raise the policies of cooperation rather than confrontation. We must enforce legislative compromise rather than political partisanship. We must break down the philosophical polarization that has developed in this House. We must encourage business and labor to work closer together, and help them to recognize the problems and more should bind them than separate them. We must pledge our time and efforts to achieve these goals. To do otherwise would be a disservice to the citizens of this state that we all serve.

"Thus far, Representative Gary Nelson, the Republican Minority Leader, and I have worked together with the planning of the economic development workshop, with the orientation program and with cooperation during the transition. We are going to continue to involve everyone in the process. There are forty-three new members here today. We are not interested in old wounds; we are dedicated to finding solutions to solve the problems. I commend you for that. As I speak to you today, it is clear that much of what I have outlined will take yours and my--our--best effort, and when we have finished, there will certainly be more than enough credit and blame to spread around. The people back home may not have parades to welcome our return; however, when we are evaluated for our performance, I hope that they can say that this was a legislature in action and not one of inaction."

ELECTION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The Speaker declared nominations for Speaker Pro Tem were open.

Ms. Stratton: "It is an honor for me to place in nomination for Speaker Pro Tem the name of a gentleman who is your friend and mine, John L. O'Brien. John O'Brien has been adorning these halls for more years than most of us are old. I should have said most of you are old. About the only new thing that I could add to a nomination for John O'Brien would be, perhaps, to clarify his age. I asked John if he would tell me how old he was so I could congratulate him, and he said when I tell him how old I am, he would tell me how old he is; so I do not know how old John O'Brien is.

"John brings to this legislature many, many, many years of parliamentary procedure from which we all benefit. Each incoming class of freshmen--Democrat and Republican--is carefully trained and taught by John O'Brien. Most importantly, however, John has earned the respect and admiration of members serving in the House today and of past members, too. He is a cool, calm, collected (most of the time), individual. Sometimes he gets his dander up, but he is usually not too hard to calm down when he does lose his cool. I can think of no person who can help steer us through the difficult session ahead any better than John O'Brien. He is an institution; he is, practically, this legislature. In fact, I would almost go so far as to say he is almost the State of Washington. I am very honored and very proud to place his name in nomination for Speaker Pro Tem."

Mr. Garrett: "It is a pleasure for me to rise and second the nomination of Representative John L. O'Brien. I might be able to enlighten you a little bit on John's age. When I came down here the first time, and I hate to divulge this, but in 1959 John was then Speaker of the House and had been for as long as anyone could remember. I've known him and worked with him in one way or another from that time on. He has been recognized as a leader of the National State Legislators, and he is recognized not only in the state of Washington, but also in many states and has friends among many leaders of the other states in this nation. I think we are very fortunate to have one of ours as well-schooled and knowledgeable in rules; and when you go to these training classes that he has, it may be that when you want to ask him some questions and he's talking about Reed's and Roberts' and all those others, you might ask him a question or two about O'Brien's Rules, because he has some of them, too. This is a pleasure for me, and I urge everyone--let's elect John O'Brien as Speaker Pro Tem."

Mr. Gallagher: "It has been my pleasure to serve with John for these past twenty-two years. He is one of the leading people in the State of Washington, known as a leader. He is also one of the leaders recognized throughout the United States for his legislative ability. It's further to my pleasure to give you my seconding speech."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the nominations for Speaker Pro Tempore, were closed and John L. O'Brien was unanimously elected Speaker Pro Tem.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Monohon and Hastings to escort Representative O'Brien to the rostrum. Justice Dimmick issued the oath of office to Speaker Pro Tem O'Brien.

ELECTION OF CHIEF CLERK

The Speaker declared nominations for Chief Clerk were open.

Mr. Kreidler: "I would like to place the name of Dean R. Foster in nomination for Chief Clerk. We're really quite fortunate to have somebody of Dean Foster's recognized ability to elect to this particular position of Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives. This is a job of critical importance to our body. It's a position whereby we need an individual who can supervise staff, who can maintain the Journal, and other reporting and record keeping that is essential to us. It is essential to us for carrying out the statutory and constitutional responsibilities that each of us has to the people of the State of Washington. That's why we're fortunate to have somebody of Dean Foster's ability to consider for this position. Dean Foster is a person who was first elected to the position of Chief Clerk back in 1973. Hard to imagine, but if you look at him, he was the youngest person in the United States to be Chief Clerk in 1973. As you look at him, you realize how well he has aged since that time.

"Dean Foster came to that position in 1973 with a background that enabled him to take that position and to do a very credible job as Chief Clerk. It started back in 1959 when he came here while still a high school student at Carnation High School, and he served in the Senate as a committee clerk. From there he went on to the University of Washington, earned a degree in--what else--political science. From there, during the Vietnam period, he served for five years as an Air Force intelligence officer, rising to the rank of captain, no less. After that, he had the opportunity to return to the legislature in a working position in the Chief Clerk's office. Then, in 1973, he was elected Chief Clerk. After that, he was again elected three more times, to the position of Chief Clerk; and in 1979-80, in the most trying of times with the 49-49 split. In fact, it's remarkable that he's even come back after that experience, to want to keep the position of Chief Clerk after experiencing those very troublesome days. We are really quite fortunate to have somebody of Dean's talents and abilities. During his period as Chief Clerk, he's gained a national reputation; and no less than the respect that he feels for each of us, above all, he has the keen respect for the process which he holds most dear and to which we are elected. Mr. Speaker, members, it is with a great deal of pleasure and it is an honor for me to nominate Dean R. Foster for the position of Chief Clerk of the Washington State House of Representatives."

Mr. Prince: "It gives me a great deal of pleasure to rise and second the nomination of Dean Foster for Chief Clerk. It gives me pleasure to do this today for a couple of reasons. The first is personal, purely personal; the second is, I think, important to all of you. The first reason, the personal reason, is that Dean and I both started in these chambers as bill clerks in 1959; and because of the opportunity to start at that time, one has a depth of experience. Dean has had the opportunity to understudy the man I consider to be the master Chief Clerk of our chambers, Ward Bowden. Ward Bowden in turn studied from Cy Holcomb. Sid Snyder, the current Secretary of the Senate, is also out of that legacy. Because of the opportunity when Dean first began to look at these masters--people who placed pride in the position of Chief Clerk--he brings today to that position not only the pride of the past, but also the pragmatism of the present. Because of that, he will add honor and glory to the position. As he does that, he will add honor and glory to the House of Representatives and the State of Washington."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, further nominations for the position of Chief Clerk were closed, and Dean R. Foster was unanimously elected Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Kreidler and Prince to escort Dean R. Foster to the rostrum. Justice Dimmick issued the oath of office to him.

ELECTION OF ASSISTANT CHIEF CLERK

The Speaker declared nominations for Assistant Chief Clerk were open.

Mr. Heck: "I place in nomination the name of Sharon Case of Olympia for the position of Assistant Chief Clerk. The office of Assistant Chief Clerk is one, as I remarked earlier, that is only intermittently elected on this floor. I can't think of a more appropriate person to select than Sharon Case as we reinstitute this position.

"For those of you who may not know Sharon--and I presume there are at least forty-three of you here who do not know her well--she has been a very long-time dedicated employee of the legislature, serving in a variety of capacities in both the House and the Senate, dating back (and I know she is going to be very upset when I reveal this) fourteen years now. Initially, she had primarily clerical responsibilities; in fact, I don't think there's a one around here she hasn't had. She has served as secretary for individual members, secretary for the caucus, secretary to more committees than I can remember; but about seven years ago some enlightened soul around here determined that Sharon was capable and willing to have more responsibility, so she was named coordinator of constituent services of the House, both Democrat and Republican. Then, during the tie, she served in that capacity just for the Democrats. She became probably the top legislative expert in this state on matters relating to senior citizen issues. At the same time all of that was going on, Sharon, in the evenings and on a part-time basis, was earning her Masters Degree in counseling. That is a skill that has served her in very good stead while being an employee of the legislature. In fact, it's a great utility around here especially when we get down toward the closing days and it's altogether too stressful for each of us to deal with. I know Sharon's door is always going to be open.

"There are three very important reasons that I feel such a point of pride in being a part of electing Sharon today. One is somewhat personal, like Gene's (Prince) relationship with Chief Clerk Foster, which goes back awhile. Actually, Sharon's and my paths began crossing before either of us had any notion of getting involved in politics. She was doing her student teaching at Columbia River High School in Vancouver at the same time I was attending it. It was her last year in college, and my last year in high school. The second very important reason is that Sharon's love of this institution, especially its nobler aspects, is exceeded only by her love of people, all kinds of people that are a part of this process. Thirdly, lastly and most importantly, is the simple fact that Sharon deserves it. Please join me in supporting Sharon Case for the position of Assistant Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives."

Mr. Wang: "It's my pleasure and privilege to second the nomination of Sharon Case for the position of Assistant Chief Clerk. Sharon and I worked together on the staff of the House for four years; we even shared the same office over in the House Office Building for two years and despite that, we're still friends.

"Sharon is exceptionally qualified for the position. Representative Heck referred to her past history in working for the House. I just want to add a couple of things. She knows the facilities; she knows the resources, not only of the legislature, but she also knows the facilities of the entire capitol campus area. She has been a pioneer in organizing the office of legislative assistants for dealing with constituent problems. Representative Heck referred to that. I think it's important to realize the impact that she has had in dealing with constituent problems. Ever since she took over that responsibility, that kind of function has been known as 'Case-work.' It's my pleasure to second the nomination of Sharon Case."

Mr. R. King: "Dean Foster is fortunate that we are nominating and seconding the nomination of Sharon Case to the position of Assistant Chief Clerk, because of all the many, many people he might have been able to find. I think Sharon is the one who brings together so many kinds of qualities which she has learned over the years. I take some pride in being an enlightened individual, because my idea is that we needed to have that kind of function on a bipartisan basis. We got so many requests from constituents who had problems that we didn't really have the time to deal with, literally, during the legislative session, because we were making laws at the same time that people had problems with workers' compensation and problems with all areas of state government and with the federal government. Sharon took on all of that and just did an excellent job of it, and as a result, has contacts throughout the state and throughout the nation. People respect her ability, and I suppose it's that counseling skill she has. She is one person who can put herself between an angry, upset, frustrated constituent and somebody in government who has the wherewithal and the way of solving the problem of that constituent. She did an excellent job, Dean, and I think you are really going to be fortunate to have Sharon as your assistant."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, further nominations for the position of Assistant Chief Clerk were closed, and Sharon Case was unanimously elected Assistant Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Heck and Hankins to escort Sharon Case to the rostrum, and Justice Dimmick issued the oath of office to her.

ELECTION OF SERGEANT AT ARMS

The Speaker declared nominations for Sergeant at Arms was open.

Ms. Hine: "I would like to place in nomination the name of Ross Young for Sergeant at Arms. We've had a lot of very important people chosen to help lead us in this legislative session. We've all been sworn in to hold this very important office that the people have entrusted us to hold; but without Ross Young, who, in fact, makes it possible, gives us the tools to do our jobs, we would fail miserably. Ross is one who carries out that function in a very efficient, quiet manner. He is responsible for our security; he's the one to holler for if your car breaks down, if you can't get into your office or you haven't got the materials you need. Somehow or other, he will just quietly see to it that you get that material. He does all this with a twinkle in his eye, usually. Once in awhile, the eyes get a little hard, and you know you've 'maybe' stepped over the bounds. Some of you today, as Ross approaches the rostrum, will probably not recognize him. He is, in fact, out of costume. Normally, it's so easy to find Ross; you just look for the one with the deliberately garish, atrocious, loud, florescent--fill in your own adjectives--tie. Today, in honor of the occasion--maybe it forebodes the tone he intends for us to set during this session--you will not see that trademark. But rest assured, I know it will be back tomorrow; so you don't have to worry about not knowing for sure who he is.

"It is really with distinct pride and personal pleasure that I do place Ross' name in nomination. He has great respect for this institution, and has already shown great respect for each of us who work within it. Mr. Speaker, I'm pleased to put his name in nomination."

Mr. Charnley: "Everybody we've heard speak so far has said, 'it's an honor,' and although it's redundant, it is. I've known Ross since the time I have been down here, twelve years, and have watched him work. I cannot really add adequately to what has been said by our caucus chair in terms of the kind of person he is except to emphasize and to inform the freshmen here on both sides of the aisle, that he is, indeed, a rock over which all waves break but which stands afterwards. His calmness and his ability to perceive what the problem is and anticipate us is what makes this place function so well. I am very, very happy to second him, and I know we are going to be very happy working with him."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, further nominations for the position of Sergeant at Arms were closed, and Ross Young was unanimously elected Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Hine and West to escort Ross Young to the rostrum. Justice Dimmick administered the oath of office to him.

GOVERNOR'S STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

Governor Spellman: "Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the legislature, distinguished Chief Justice and members of the Supreme Court, distinguished elected officials, ladies and gentlemen, my fellow Washingtonians: I take particular pleasure today in welcoming the new members of the House and Senate. Great things are expected of you and I am certain that you will meet that challenge. I pledge both you and your colleagues my full support, my time and cooperation, in reaching the goals that the people have in this state.

"We are convened in difficult times under the most critical domestic conditions ever experienced in the state of Washington and under an unmistakable mandate from the people to turn the facilities and powers of government toward the relief and solution of those economic, social, and political problems that can be relieved and solved by legislation and by administration.

"We who have been chosen to carry out this mandate are confronted with a great responsibility, but it is reassuring and inspiring to realize that the responsibility is no greater than the opportunity. It will help if we, in our minds and in our hearts, minimize the responsibility and glorify the opportunity--the opportunity to help those who have been deprived of gainful employment.

"It is true, of course, that the restoration of prosperity, as that term is commonly understood, depends on the rest of the country, if not on the other countries of the world, but in the meantime, we in Washington have certain positive duties and responsibilities to recognize and to discharge. We have the positive duty to help ourselves, to manifest faith in ourselves, faith in our commonwealth, and faith in our future. We have the positive responsibility to put our state in the best possible fiscal order so that we may be in the proper position to join the national march of progress to the inevitable turn of the economic tide.

"Fortunately, while it may be difficult for a single state to create and maintain a distinct and a superior industrial and cultural order, Washington has the materials and the tools and the people with which to work, to work out a modern and measurably superior economic and social structure. Surely Washington is a land of plenty. Surely with such resources as we have at hand we need only the spirit to seek, the determination to build, the genius to create and the readiness to cooperate toward a common development.'

'Do you think that I have overstated the situation? I doubt that I have. But let the record show that those words were first spoken fifty years ago in these chambers, on January 11, 1933, by Governor Clarence D. Martin, to the 23rd Legislature.

'The days of the 47th session, the last two years, were not typical times for the people and for their decision-makers. The people in particular have suffered greatly in this state. Businesses have suffered. At the time I took office, and many of you took office two years ago, we inherited a state that had been pretending for a long time that there would be no tomorrow. I am reminded of the parable of the grasshopper and the ant--the state spent a good deal of time out playing in the sunshine and not storing up anything for that rainy day. Well, today did come, and it was a sobering time. We had no money in the bank and had made no provisions for such times. Never again should the state go through that type of syndrome. We extended programs in those years, reduced the base of revenues, spent surpluses and entered this depression, recession, flat on our back as a state. That should never be allowed to occur again. I think that must be one of the goals of this session.

'We have, throughout that 47th session and to date, seen plummeting revenues, hundreds of millions of dollars of revenues that were projected that did not come in. The legislature was forced to make very difficult decisions. Tax rates were repeatedly raised and deep cuts were made, and still the revenues did not come up. They didn't remain steady. They have continued to drop. There have been difficult decisions made to hold the system together: the educational system, the institutions, and those vital social programs so necessary at a time like this.

'The hardships that have been felt in the last two years have been broadly shared. The legislature itself has had an all-time record, six sessions in that period--how well you know it--and worked hard late nights to get the business of the people done. Local government has suffered along with state government. The state employees, who have a very high calling to serve the people, doing those jobs that no one in the private sector wants to do or can make a profit from, have borne more than their share of this suffering. I want to publicly thank them and tell them of my determination that we are going to keep the state employees who are here employed because they are necessary to provide those services.

'The citizens, of course, have suffered time after time with declining personal revenues, with loss of jobs, with all of the inconveniences and terrible tragedies that come from such an economic time.

'Now this 48th Legislature convenes, as Clarence Martin said, '...in difficult times under the most critical domestic conditions.' We are all aware of the conditions in the affairs of the state. This is the worst and the longest recession, if it can be called a recession, since World War II, and the highest unemployment since the Great Depression. A full quarter of a million people in the state of Washington are on the lists of the unemployed. There are more, but there are a quarter of a million on the list. Almost half of those people received no unemployment compensation because they were not insured under the program. Their families and those individuals are suffering terribly.

'We have inherited a Washington Public Power Supply System problem that is consuming our energies and our minds in trying to come up with answers. It is an overriding concern, an area of chaos. If there is appropriate legislative action that can be taken to assist at a given time, certainly I will ask for it, and I know that you will cooperate in doing that.

'What we see around us at this point, as Clarence Martin saw fifty years ago, is a global depression. Our big businesses suffer and employees are laid off. Small businesses are suffering and reserves are gone. State government directly feels the impact of the drop in the level of transactions by small and big businesses. Our revenue shortfalls are a barometer directly reflecting the transactions made in the private sector and they are way, way down.

'Unfortunately, there has been no drop in demand for the services of state government. Our product is still in demand. It is more in demand now than it is in normal times. As I said before, it is necessary for us to do those jobs that cannot be done in the private sector because nobody can make a profit providing those services.

"Indeed, we have difficult problems to face, but the spirit of cooperation within this government that came to a zenith in the special session last summer is still alive. If we will maintain that spirit, I am confident this will be remembered as a very good session in hard times. I pledge you my total efforts and support to achieve that goal.

"The 48th Legislature convenes facing an immediate $135 million shortfall. It is the latest of a long series of shortfalls. We have, for the past two years, cut repeatedly to meet those shortfalls. We have increased the rates of revenues, but the revenues have always come in in smaller amounts.

"There remain today less than six months in this biennium. After all of the cuts, there is no time for solutions other than revenue solutions. The educational system, the social system, is on the ropes now and simply cannot get by with less than the meager amount that is left in the budget. It must be funded and it must be funded immediately. It cannot be funded with gimmicks. It must be funded in this biennium and not by repeating the mistakes of the past, by somehow trying to bump it over to the next one. We need quick, decisive action. Then we should get on with the business of setting the course for the new biennium, the following two years.

"Let there be no doubt where I stand on the critical issues that are confronting this session. My program is before you on your desks in detail--in the budget documents, in the executive request bills. I would like to briefly discuss this with you.

"Let there be no doubt about where I stand on education. It is the best-spent dollar the State of Washington spends. You will never see a recession when education is not needed. It is needed more in a recession than in good times, and you will never see prosperity unless there is a sustained dedication and commitment to education in this state, to the skills and the talents necessary to meet the challenges of the modern world. Basic education simply must be fully funded. Higher education must be rebuilt to the quality necessary to provide those skills so that we may be competitive within the country and in the world. We must have increased enrollments. We must have adequate funding. This is a problem not only in this state, but also in the nation. The lamp of education is flickering. I am not prepared to watch it go out, and neither are you. This time we turn the spigot (whatever it is on a lamp) and turn the wick up a little bit and let a little brightness come. The budget that is before you does that and it is time we did that. It is an investment in the future.

"Let there be no doubt in your minds about where I stand on social services. Those services in place in the State of Washington are more needed now than they have been in fifty years. I will not go in great lengths through the trauma, the tragedy, that exists. We must restore additional dollars to those programs to meet the needs of today. That is spelled out in the budget.

"Let there be no doubt about the correctional needs of this state. We cannot wish problems away. We cannot wish there were not prisoners in our jails. There is no projection by any source that indicates that we do not need the jails, the prisons presently planned to be built. They must be built. The facilities are necessary and it is necessary to have industries within the prisons. It is necessary to have education within the prisons. That cannot be done in the current overcrowding of almost catastrophic proportion. Now, some people think we are putting everybody in jail and they say, 'Well, couldn't we ease up a bit?' The fact of the matter is the national average is that about fifty percent of those convicted of crimes go to prison. In the State of Washington, eighty percent go into alternative programs and twenty percent go to prison, and we still have this problem. So, I want to emphasize to you, unless we continue on the course that you set in the last session, we can be facing the potential of an Attica or a New Mexico. That simply is not an option we should ever undertake.

"Let there be no doubt about my position on pensions. This administration inherited a very sick pension system. You, and the others who were here in the last two years, helped to increase the ratio of funding. We must do so again. Again, there is no substitute for paying the bills. If those pensions are going to be paid when the people retire in the years to come, you have to pay in the money now, every year, just like they do on your private insurance policy. No gimmicks, no deferrals, each biennium you must pay the bills of this biennium before this biennium is over and then fully fund them again in the next biennium.

"Let there be no doubt about my position on the 25th month. It has got to go. It was another one we inherited. The 25th month, which, as you will recall, pretends there are 25 months in a two-year period and is actually not just a thirty-day month or a thirty-one-day month, it is a forty-day month. For forty days no revenues come in at the beginning of the biennium. I think it's time we end that dream, which has become a real nightmare to state government. It's time we dispel that fiction and look at the stark reality. The state will not be fiscally sound until we have removed that. The budget that I suggest buys back twenty of those forty days. I hope, by the end of this biennium, our economy will be strong enough so we can buy back the remaining twenty.

"Let there be no doubt about where we should be going on redistricting. I think the events of the last two years have shown us that it is a technical and not a political problem. The courts have, in effect, deflated the political football. I think it is time to pass that deflated football to an independent commission to do the technical task. I suggest that problem should be done by constitutional means. It is about time.

"Let there be no doubt about where I stand on the environment. Together with the people, the environment of this state is our greatest asset. Upon it depends our business, our economy and our life style. The businesses we are seeking want to come here because this is where their people want to live. There will be before you a SEPA bill -- State Environmental Policy Act bill. Two years ago, you created a committee to study that problem and the committee has worked very hard for two years and has come up with a unanimous bill. It has said the environment shall remain inviolable, and it has said we can do so by refining some of the bureaucratic roles. I think the thoughtfulness of two years of work by a committee representing all points of view requires your adoption, and not getting involved in another two years of amending and attempting to come up with a different product. Something that has been worked out that hard deserves an early consideration and your adoption.

"With regard to that I have to say, you will have my thorough cooperation in every area in which you are engaged.

"Now, I have recommended a number of executive request bills to you. They are before you and they reflect some of the principle goals of this administration.

"First is the Housing Finance Commission. That should be passed as soon as possible. It will assist our depressed housing, timber and real estate industries. It will help to provide affordable housing that is so needed by the people of this state. It will do so without creating a bureaucracy, without expending state funds, and without jeopardizing the future of the State of Washington. If it is delayed, the federal program may go away; and we will not be able to talk about it in the future.

"Secondly, there is a need for a rewriting of the state energy code to conserve energy in the construction of new buildings, both private homes and commercial buildings. Meeting the model standards that are being set by the Regional Power Council, we can save dollars for homeowners, for ratepayers--in many cases up to half the dollars--by an adequate conservation program. We can conserve the energy that is needed in this state for jobs. It will create jobs in the process, I might add.

"We must strengthen our drunk-driving laws. Many of you have suggested programs to do that, and I thank you. I hope that you will act on them soon and firmly. Carnage on the highway simply must be stopped. We did well last year in terms of past performances, but still, in December, forty people were killed. Totals represent not just statistics, but lives and permanent injuries. It is essential that that be done. I think the public is ready for such legislation. They are demanding it.

"In terms of transportation, if we are to maintain sufficient and uninterrupted service to commuters on our ferries system, we simply must pass the legislation that passed the Senate the last time through. We can't forget history; we can't pretend that this state has not had a history of collective bargaining over the years. It is a strong part of the private sector. Nor can we ignore the fact that a service like that must go on uninterrupted.

"It is important that you urge Congress to ratify the low-level nuclear compact that has been approved by the State of Washington and its neighboring states. We've hammered it out, and we are the only region in the United States to have done so. It is important that Congress adopt that, and then get on with the business of requiring the other regions of the United States to dispose of their own wastes instead of sending them to us. I would appreciate your help on that.

"There is no more profound need in this state than for jobs and economic development. You, each caucus and each House, have packages. I have a package. What we are trying to do is provide jobs--and it seems to me in the current situation--we need some jobs now, yet we always think futuristically about this--we need some retraining now to suit people in the types of industries that are emerging in our state. We need education in all levels, both academic--don't forget the academic--and vocational, technical and engineering. We, in essence, need the skills to be competitive in the modern world with the other nations in the world, and certainly in the United States.

"My 1983-85 budget proposals support these goals which I've outlined to you. But how do we pay for it? I've told you what the program is; how do we pay for it? Certainly not with gimmicks. I think that every lightbulb has been snatched. Not with higher taxes; the economy will not support that at this time. We should, and we must for the next biennium, extend the current taxes that have been enacted over the last two years. We must replace, with an optional tax, the grocery tax. That isn't going to come back. We've all agreed to that a long time ago.

"I think we should immediately begin the work of broadening the tax base, closing the loopholes. The biggest loophole that every Governor who stood at this podium--with the exception of one, I think, in modern history--has recommended is the extension of sales' taxes to the services in addition to the goods. That will broaden the tax base. It is equitable. I've heard some people say it's hard. First of all, it's fair. Why should one transaction be taxed and another not? Who ever said it was going to be easy? What tax is easy? It's fair; it broadens the base; it addresses the basic need of the state, and funds the programs. I urge you not to brush it aside because you haven't been able to do it in the past. Give it your real effort this time. I think it can be done. It really should be done.

"Income tax will come up during this session. It isn't going to come up until we have dealt with problems of the supplemental, the need for revenues to get through the next less-than six months. It shouldn't come up for any final disposition until we have figured out how we're going to fund the budget that you approve for the next biennium and provide revenues, hopefully broad-based revenues, to support that budget for the next biennium. Certainly the work of the Tax Advisory Commission should be and will be put into a bill. That bill will be put before you. It will have my serious work and consideration, together with yours, to see if we can get it passed. In essence--and I think you all know, and if you don't you should--it is not a new tax or a new level of taxes. It is not a tax increase. It is an alternative form of raising the revenues for the plan that you will adopt in this session. That's the only way the Tax Commission has recommended it, and that's the only way I think you will find the votes to get two-thirds of each House. It is certainly the only proposal the people of this state would give serious consideration. Those are the guidelines, and I'll work with you on that. I think, clearly, there must be constitutional lids in order for such a proposal to have serious consideration.

"I mentioned awhile ago the cooperation that became apparent in the summer session. I want to thank each of you for that--those of you who were here. For the first time, across the aisle, between the Houses, people started to manifest good faith and put aside the rancor and the partisanship and do the work. I am pleased that people and leadership at this point were members of the group that met regularly during that special session and learned to respect one another. I think that can bear great fruit in this session, and it should. I would urge you to do everything possible to keep that spirit of cooperation alive. I can personally assure you that I shall.

"I will continue to carry out my program of making legislators the first persons on my priority list during this session. You are the people that have my time, individually or in groups. I will cooperate with you. I will meet with you. I will share ideas with you, and I think there is reason to be optimistic that we can get our job done responsibly. As I said earlier, people will look back on this as a very good session in a very tough time.

"The Speaker last week--I heard and I think a couple of you heard--referred to a basic definition of the blues, as it is reflected in all the songs, all the blues songs. He said the blues always say essentially this: Yesterday was awful, tomorrow's going to be great. Unfortunately, it's today. And that's where we are. These have been hard times, but they are not the time to put aside our strong faith in this state and in the future.

"With resources superior to those of any other equal area, with a population that is as enterprising as it is courageous, with a climate that commends itself to all who experience it occupying a position at the gateway of the Oriental and the Occidental commerce of the future, there is no reason why the state of Washington should not, in the near future, take rank among the most prominent states in the Union; or why our people should not enjoy the priceless blessings of prosperity, health and happiness.

"Those words weren't spoken today, or fifty years ago. They were spoken almost ninety-five years ago by the state's first Governor to the first legislative session, Elisha P. Ferry, in November of 1889. What he said holds true today, many times over. He had the vision and the foresight to see what could occur in this state. It has occurred, and we have a bright future as a state.

"People want to live here. Corporations want to settle here. We have seen rapid growth, even in tough times, of high technology within this state. It is the fastest-growing industry in this state and it should be encouraged.

"We are still planting trees in the State of Washington. That timber is still worth something and will be very important in the future of the world. Our fish are still in the ocean and we should make sure there are more of them because it's an important industry in this state. Our educational institutions have been through a couple of tough years. They shouldn't be allowed to suffer longer because they are fundamental to achieving this future of the state.

"Our Director of Agriculture was talking to the freshmen, as I recall, and he said something I hadn't heard before. I'll share it with the rest of you. He said that the farmers in the State of Washington are lean, hungry and very efficient compared to the rest of the United States. They have grown up with that tradition because they not only had to grow the crop that grows more efficiently, but they also had to add a lot of transportation charges on to take it to the markets of the United States. That has changed. The markets for our agricultural products are to the west, to the rim of the Pacific. We are closer than any other part of the United States to those new markets. Our farmers are closer, our industries are closer, our educational institutions are closer. The opportunities are limitless. We are sitting in the pivotal point of our world at a critical time with the greatest opportunity. It is important that we not allow the temporary tough times to diffuse the educational and social programs that will hold this state together until we reach that future. We are on the launching pad. Let's not blow out the fuse now.

"I wish you God speed in your deliberations."

WHEREAS, The death of Tom McCall, Governor of the State of Oregon from 1967 through 1974, is a great loss to the people of Oregon, the Pacific Northwest, and this nation; and

WHEREAS, The stature of the man is demonstrated by his parting gift that despite his great pain from terminal cancer, he successfully campaigned against the passage of an initiative that would have repealed Oregon's statewide land use planning laws; and

On motion of Mr. Williams, House Resolution No. 83-4 was adopted.

The House advanced to the eleventh order of business.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. O'Brien yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative O'Brien, in the last legislative session this body asked you to sit down with pen in hand and write a book. As a matter of fact, I think everybody in the 47th Legislature signed onto that, and you were to report back at the first part of this session. Do you have a report to make to us at this time?"

Mr. O'Brien: "Your question is quite timely, as a matter of fact. All I need is $30,000 to pay the author. I have an author selected and if you can help me raise $30,000, we'll get the book going. Right now we have some of the chapters outlined, and the gentleman I'm talking with seems to be well-informed on state government. As a matter of fact, he's written a book on our state. You and I should sit down and talk this matter over."

On motion of Mr. Heck, the following remarks by Representative Pruitt were ordered inserted into the Journal:

Mr. Pruitt: "I want to announce that there will be a hearing on redistricting in House Office Building, Hearing Room A, this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. I understand that, even though it was a surprise that this would come back from the courts and we'd be in redistricting again, our committee, both sides of the aisle, is very happy and excited about dealing with redistricting. We start at 3:30 and there will be some of you who are very interested in that. We are doing what the court has suggested in the way courts suggest things --the plan of congressional redistricting, SHB 787, was unconstitutional, and that we should look at all of the plans that were put in, all of the plans that the 47th Legislature had looked at. We have tried to do that through a path of picking up everything you would see on the agenda about everything that we could find to try to comply with that request of the courts and cooperate with them. In addition to that, there will be some new ones that we will place forward, and they will be on the agenda and will be discussed. This is an opportunity for you to be there, not only the committee, but also for the rest of you to ask questions."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, January 14, 1983.

HCR 4 by Representatives Schmidt and Vekich

Referred to Committee on Transportation.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, HOUSE BILL NO. 27 was referred to Committee on Local Government.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

January 14, 1983

HB 20 Prime Sponsor, Representative Pruitt: Establishing a temporary congressional redistricting commission. Reported by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Ethics MAJORITY recommendation: The substitute bill be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass. Signed by Representatives Pruitt, Chair; Fisch, Vice Chair; Barnes, Ranking Minority Chair; Miller, Ranking Minority Vice Chair; Fisher, Jacobsen, Long, Patrick, Schoon, Sommers, Tanner, Vander Stoep and Zellinsky.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1, by Representatives Brekke, R. King, Vekich, Wang, Lewis, Sutherland, Tanner, Johnson, Fisch, Rust, B. Williams, Patrick, Isaacson, Halsan, Martinis, Locke, Silver, Todd, Jacobsen, Lux, Long and Ebersole

Modifying trigger for extended unemployment benefits to re-comply with optional federal benefit program.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Labor recommendation, Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 5th Day, January 14, 1983.)

On motion of Mr. R. King, the committee amendments were adopted.

The bill was ordered engrossed.

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Bill No. 1 be placed on final passage.

Representatives G. Nelson and Heck spoke in favor of the motion, and it was carried.

Representatives Brekke, Patrick and R. King spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative King, this bill would increase the benefit side of the formula. We do not want to get into the social security mess where benefits are always increased. What are your plans for increasing the revenue side of unemployment compensation?"

Mr. R. King: "We know that there is going to have to be something done for the fund because the fund itself is going to go broke. Passage of this bill is probably going to accelerate the time in which it will exhaust the moneys in the fund by less than one week, so that's what it's doing to us in terms of taking a look at the solution to the problem. The Senate is going to initiate hearings on that subject and move toward that. There are a variety of proposals that range from borrowing the money from the federal government, which the fund can do to continue funding at a ten percent rate. There are a whole series of different recommendations; and I say, in all candor, that there is not a particular solution that is favored at this time by any large number of people. It simply is a problem we know is there and has to be worked out this session. We will be dealing with it."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 0; not voting, 2; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McDonald, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 92.

Absent: Representatives Bond, Sommers - 2.

Excused: Representatives Belcher, Brough, Niemi, Williams B - 4.

Engrossed House Bill No. 1, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, Engrossed House Bill No. 1 was ordered immediately transmitted to the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, January 18, 1983.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 83-3, by Representatives Heck and McDonald:

BE IT RESOLVED, That pursuant to HFR 83-1, adopted on January 10, 1983, the first legislative day, the temporary rules of the House be considered by the House Rules Committee for adoption as permanent rules.

Mr. Heck moved adoption of House Resolution No. 83-3.

Mr. Heck moved adoption of the following amendment by the Rules Committee:

On page 3, line 89 insert "chairs" and delete "chairmen/chairwomen"

Representatives Heck and McDonald spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Heck, the following amendments by the Rules Committee were adopted:

On page 3, line 93 strike "elected" and insert "selected"

On page 13, line 320 before "seven" insert "in the absence of a quorum"

On page 13, line 322 after "authorized to" insert "demand a" and after "call" insert "of"

On page 21, line 516 insert "A recorded vote may be compelled by one-sixth (1/6) of the members present."

Mr. Taylor moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Taylor, G. Nelson, McDonald and Barrett:

On page 7, line 173 insert:

"Rule 10. With the exception of measures requested by state elected officials or state agencies, no member shall introduce or prime sponsor more than ten (10) measures during any legislative term unless an additional introduction shall have been approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the members present."

Renumber remaining rules consecutively.

Representatives Taylor and Lewis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Heck spoke against it.

Mr. Barrett demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heck yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Heck, as you recall when we did not have a limit on bill introductions and we had a cutoff on introduction of bills, there was a circumvention of that, which resulted in, as you recall, literally hordes of bills marked t.o., t.o., t.o., for several pages, which were, of course, the members' insurance policy to get around the cutoff. We could just take a title-only bill and put whatever we wanted on it for a later time and disregard the cutoff. Is there anything in the rules that will cover that, or do you intend to have that procedure in force during this session?"

Mr. Heck: "I think it would be highly presumptive for me to tell you what the cutoff resolution will contain before we've had a chance to discuss it with the leadership from your side of the aisle. It seems not to have been our intention thus far. I think your leadership will attest to the fact that we have allowed every participation possible in the development not only of these rules, but also, I would expect, the cutoff resolution as well. I would not speak for our side of the aisle or for your leadership at this time because it would be highly premature."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor yielded to question by Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. O'Brien: "Representative Taylor, apparently you just adopted a portion of your rule that we had last session. Why didn't you go a little further and make it a little bit more democratic, the way you had it two years ago? You apparently have eliminated three subsections that gave the members, and also your committee chairpersons, a great amount of flexibility on introduction of bills. Why did you eliminate the three subsections that you had put such great pride in last session?"

Mr. Taylor: "Representative O'Brien, as alert as you are (and I seldom have seen anybody more alert than the Speaker Pro Tem because when we break the rules, you're the first one up on the floor), I guess you missed the first part of my remarks when I admitted to this entire body that our proposed measure system really didn't work out very well. I assume that's what you are referring to, so once again I'll confess our sins. The proposed measures were not good ones."

Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment to page 7 of the House Rules by Representative Taylor and others, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 52; excused, 03.

On page 22, line 519, strike "recorded" and insert "(recorded) division"

Mr. Johnson spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Heck spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Johnson yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Johnson, your arguments to me were quite technical. I wonder if you could disclose to the rest of the body your expertise in parliamentary procedure?"

Mr. Johnson: "I've been a member of the American Institute of Parliamentarians since 1968 and I've had a professional rating with that body since 1970. I just think we're making a blunder here."

Representatives Taylor, Van Dyken and Hastings spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Heck and Rust spoke against it.

Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, now that the rules are in place, referring to House Rule 21(D) on reconsideration, it provides that notice to reconsider the final passage of a bill must be given on the same day the bill passes. My question, Mr. Speaker, is: Must notice be given on the motion for reconsideration on the same day that an amendment passes, or can reconsideration in that case be raised at any time the bill is on second reading?"

The Speaker: "When the question is in front of us, Representative Barrett, the speaker will be pleased to respond to it. Since the matter is not in front of us, the issue is moot."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McDonald: "The rules before us state that a bill having a direct negative revenue impact, or a direct appropriation of $50,000 or more, shall be referred to the Ways and Means Committee before final passage. Those words appear to be clear, but I think an interpretation ..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "The question he's asked isn't before us at this time; therefore, a ruling by the Speaker would be out of order."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Your point is well taken, Representative O'Brien."

Establishing a temporary congressional redistricting commission.

Substitute House Bill No. 20 was read the second time.

Mr. Tanner moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 1 after "elections," strike everything through "limited to" on line 2 and insert "excluding"

Mr. Tanner spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tanner yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Tanner, the intent, as I understand it, of the whole bill is to tighten it up so that you don't get partisanship in there. My question to you: Is it the intent of your amendment to have section 5, which talks about all the other criteria, at a higher priority than precinct committeeman? In other words, if we can fulfill that first, that would be the number one criteria before we get to precinct committeeman? Is that your intent?"

Mr. Tanner: "No, it is not. The amendment is a change to the definition section, and under political party office it excludes precinct committeepersons from holding a party office. It certainly has no greater or lesser priority than any other restriction."

Mr. Hastings: "That's my point; but would your intent be that the criteria in section 5 be higher than a precinct committeeman?"

Mr. Tanner: "Yes."

Representatives Hastings and Barnes spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, House Rule 21D on reconsideration does not make it clear whether or not reconsideration of a vote by which an amendment passed or failed must be made on the same day that the amendment first passed or failed, or whether the motion for reconsideration can be raised at any time the bill is on second reading. Since I did vote on the prevailing side of Representative Tanner's amendment, I would ask for your response."

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, while I do have a response, I think since you are not moving for reconsideration, then that issue is not before us. If you would like to do that, then we can talk about it."

Mr. Barrett: "I think the reason I am asking is to protect my rights. Should I decide to, somewhere along the way in what may happen to this bill and having voted on the prevailing side, would I have the right to make the motion for reconsideration? I need to know whether I must make that motion for reconsideration on this day, or whether I have the privilege of making that on any day before second reading has been completed on this measure. I feel that it is not a moot point, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker: "Once again the Speaker is going to rule at the appropriate time, as in Reed's Parliamentary Rules, Rule 204. The Speaker will rule at the time that issue is in front of us and not until that time."

Mr. Barrett: "If I may for the record, Mr. Speaker; you have just deprived me of knowing whether or not I can make that motion before second reading is completed. I accept your statement, but I want it read into the record that you have not informed me and, should you later take away this privilege, that it be part of the record that you did so deliberately by not answering today."

Mr. Taylor moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Taylor and Pruitt:

On page 2, line 8 after "1983," insert "or within five days after the effective date of this act whichever is sooner"

On page 2, line 16 after "1983," insert "or within twelve days after the effective date of this act whichever is sooner"

(b) No person while an employee of the commission may:

(1) Hold or campaign for public or political party office while an employee of the commission; or

(2) Actively participate in or contribute to any political campaign of any candidate for state or federal elective office while an employee of the commission."

Mr. Pruitt moved adoption of the following amendments to the amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment under section 4(b)(2) strike "or contribute to"

On page 1 of the amendment under section 5(b)(2) strike "or contribute to"

Representatives Pruitt and Barnes spoke in favor of the amendments to the amendment, and they were adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendments by Representative Pruitt and others as amended.

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Pruitt, under this amendment as it has been perfected, where we say 'actively participate in any political campaign,' for the record, is it your intention that participation shall not include financial contributions, as it is now written?"

Mr. Pruitt: "This is my understanding, yes. That would be my intention."

The amendments were adopted.

Mr. Bond moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Bond and Padden:

On page 3, beginning on line 25, strike "one hundred" and insert "fifty"

Representatives Bond and Padden spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Pruitt, Barnes, Schoon and Fisch spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. McDonald moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, beginning on line 24 after "(4)" strike all material through "duties." on line 25 and insert "To carry out this act, there is appropriated to the congressional redistricting commission from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1982, the sum of $49,000 dollars, or so much as may be necessary for the commission to carry out its duties."

Mr. McDonald spoke in favor of the amendment and Mr. Grimm spoke against it.

Mr. McDonald spoke again in favor of the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Hastings moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Hastings and Pruitt:

On page 6, line 13 beginning with "unless" strike everything through "term" and insert "to the legislature"

Representatives Hastings and Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment to the title by Representative Taylor:

On page 1, line 1 of the title following "to" insert "the establishment of a temporary advisory committee on"

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor: "Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment to the title which would amend the first line of the title, the subject clause. In the past this body has prohibited amendments to the subject clause of the title. Will that be your practice now?"

The Speaker: "Do you choose to move the title amendment, Representative Taylor?"

Mr. Taylor: "First, as a courtesy to you, and to save the body time, I would like to get the parliamentary..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, as the amendment was read in, I questioned its germaneness. It doesn't appear to be relevant to the body of the act, which pertains to a congressional reapportionment commission and not a temporary advisory committee."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker will rule that while Representative Taylor has not moved the amendment, it is in front of us and your point is well taken, Representative O'Brien. No amendments have been offered to effect the subject of the bill as the title amendment indicates. Your point is well taken and the amendment is ruled out of order."

Substitute House Bill No. 20 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, since we're on the area of announcing the committee action for today and the Rules Committee is going to meet, I'm wondering whether or not the Rules of the House that were passed here yesterday will apply to the Rules Committee as well as to every other standing committee?"

The Speaker: "Following the customs of this House, Representative Nelson, it's a matter of tradition of the great leaders of the past -- former Speaker Polk and Speaker Bagnariol and Speaker Berentson, Speaker Sawyer and Speaker O'Brien -- that the Speaker will operate the Rules Committee as we have always done. I think that's a fine tradition."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, January 20, 1983.

WAYNE EHLERS, Speaker

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

Mr. Heck moved that the bills listed on today's agenda under the fourth order of business be considered first reading and be referred to the committees designated.

Mr. Smith moved that the Heck motion be amended and HOUSE BILL NO. 257 be referred to Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Smith spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Heck spoke against it.

Mr. Taylor demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Smith spoke again in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith yielded to question by Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis: "Representative Smith, for the enlightenment of some of the western Washington legislators who have signed on this bill, and some of the western Washington representatives from the other party, maybe you could tell us, does this only impact eastern Washington growers and people like that?"

Mr. Smith: "This is one step, in my opinion, that will add cost to the farming industry. We were criticized in eastern Washington for supporting what we called the food tax, and---"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "The motion, Mr. Speaker, is an amendment to the motion to refer the bills and I don't think, at this time, we should discuss the merits of the bill."

The Speaker: "Representative Smith, while there is great interest in your remarks, would you confine them just to the question Representative Lewis has asked please?"

Mr. Smith: "Will you repeat the question?"

Mr. Lewis: "For the enlightenment of the western Washington counties, would this bill have a possible adverse effect on strawberry farmers and orchardists in the Whatcom-Skagit County area?"

Mr. Smith: "It certainly could. This is of great interest to me because what we have is the young kids who come to do the jobs and maybe they might be only on for one or two days. To have this type of insurance put onto them at the present time--it's not been done in the past and I don't think it should be done now. Most farmers carry that type of insurance."

Mr. Lewis spoke in favor of the motion to amend the Heck motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to refer House Bill No. 257 to Committee on Agriculture, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 49; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Egger, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 45.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 49.

Excused: Representatives Kaiser, King R, Monohon, Van Dyken - 4.

Referred to Committee on Social & Health Services.

HJM 10 by Representatives Lux, R. King, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Garrett, Moon, Sommers, D. Nelson and Belcher

Requesting that the United States Senate and House of Representatives condition health care facilities' reimbursement of medicaid and medicare cost upon participation in the social security system.

Referred to Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance.

MOTIONS

Mr. Heck moved that the bills and the memorial listed on today's agenda under the fourth order of business be considered first reading and referred to the committees designated with the exception of House Bill No. 348, to be referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. McDonald moved that the motion by Representative Heck be amended to exempt House Bill No. 310 and leave it on the agenda.

Mr. McDonald spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, it appears to me the gentleman is talking on the merits of the bill and his comments aren't germane to his motion to defer action on the bill. On that basis, I believe he's completely out of order."

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, the Speaker would wish you to confine your remarks to the motion rather than to the subject matter of the issue."

Mr. McDonald concluded his remarks in favor of the motion. Representatives Heck and Appelwick spoke against the motion and Representatives Tilly and Patrick spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Grimm, there have been a lot of people who have talked about the seriousness of this issue and, as the majority leader has said, it would go through the process and have hearings and so forth. I wonder when we can schedule these hearings on this bill so we can get on with it?"

Mr. Grimm: "There will be no question about an opportunity for hearings where everybody can testify. As suggested, we need to follow through the process to establish exactly when that will be. I have normally conferred with your lead member on the Ways and Means Committee; we have not had an opportunity to do that. We will do that at your convenience."

Mr. Hastings spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Barrett demanded an electric roll call vote on the motion, and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Lux and Martinis spoke against the motion, and Representatives Addison and Lewis spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, the motion before us is to exempt House Bill 310 from the regularly established process here in the House and place it on the calendar. I believe Representative Lewis' remarks are straying far afield."

The Speaker: "Representative Lewis, would you speak to the question before the House, please, and not on the merits of the bill or of other bills."

Representatives Hine and Moon spoke against the motion, and Representatives Barnes and McDonald spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that House Bill No. 310 retained on the first reading calendar, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 54; absent, 1; excused, 3.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: "Representative Pruitt, do you agree with the language, 'the legislative leaders of the two largest political parties of each house of the legislature shall appoint one person.' -- do you understand it to mean the Speaker, the House minority leader and the Senate majority leader and the Senate minority leader?"

Mr. Pruitt: "This is exactly what we mean--precisely."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. R. King.

Mr. R. King: "Representative Pruitt, one of the concerns many people throughout the state, and especially people from my legislative district, have had about legislative redistricting is the role that community of interest would play in the considerations of a redistricting commission. I'm asking the question especially for the people in Everett who feel that was not taken into consideration in the bill which passed the legislative session last year: Could you, as Chairman of the committee, tell us whether or not community of interest should be considered as one of the things that the redistricting commission looks at?"

Mr. Pruitt: "Yes, Representative King, the bill definitely states that community of interest should be considered."

The motion was carried.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, we're going to proceed to the fifth order of business, and I know that under Rule 11 the procedure is to refer those bills to Rules Committee. However, with past practices to expedite the movement of legislation through this body, under Rule 25D, subsection (6), if there is a fiscal impact of over $50,000, it has been past practice to move these directly to Ways and Means Committee. Is it your intention to do that on the fifth order of business, or in the Rules Committee, now and in the future, particularly on House Bill 21?"

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, I'd like to refer to Rule 25D(6), 'All bills having a direct negative impact or a direct appropriation of $50,000 or more shall be referred to the Ways and Means Committee before their final passage.' At this point, we are not to that point. The staff is reviewing the fiscal notes if they are with the bill. In many cases, bills do not have fiscal impacts or they are not prepared when they come in on the fifth order of business. In that case, if it's shown later that they do have a direct appropriation or that they have a negative revenue impact, they probably will go to Ways and Means Committee. Other than those, they will be decided on an issue-to-issue basis, based on Rule 25D(6)."

Mr. Charnley spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson: "Representative Martinis, would you inform me and the body what the general effect of this amendment is on the measure that we are discussing?"

Mr. Martinis: "Yes, Representative Wilson, I'm going to go through the amendment as I did with the caucus. The reason why these types of amendments weren't considered in committee was the possibility that some change could jeopardize or slow the passage of this piece of legislation. There had been testimony by people from the medical profession that the seat belt, as required or as deemed adequate the way the bill is presently written, would suffice for children between the ages of one and five. I read this amendment, and I'm not sure that it really does affect the bill. I would think that the ruling from the commission would be exactly the same as what the bill is presenting to us today, so if I were asked whether I favored this amendment or not, I would have a hard time answering that question. I don't think the amendment changes the bill in any way, shape or form."

Representatives Wilson, Sanders and Barrett spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Charnley and Locke spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Sanders again opposed the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

House Bill No. 66 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL WITH CERTAIN SENATE AMENDMENTS

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: "I understand that the concern in the Senate was on our wording with the diluting of the minority vote, in that the wording would indicate or give the possibility that somebody could interpret that as meaning we had to isolate or pack minority votes which would also work to the advantage of the minority. Was this the intent?"

Mr. Pruitt: "The intention is not to pack. The intention is to recognize that minorities need some consideration in the redistricting process. No, as you have asked the question, it is not the intention to do the packing."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 20 with certain Senate amendments, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 85; nays, 12; excused, 1.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Todd and D. Nelson spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Todd yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Todd, during your comments regarding the letter from the Homebuilders Association, I interpreted your comments as meaning the Homebuilders support House Bill 2 as amended. It's my understanding they do not support House Bill 2; they supported the amendment, but it's my understanding that they do not support the bill. Do the Homebuilders support House Bill No. 2 as amended?"

Mr. Todd: "Representative Sanders, in talking with the representatives of the Homebuilders, regarding amendment we adopted on Tuesday, freezing the tables in the Code, I've been informed that they now do support House Bill No. 2 as amended."

Representatives Barnes, Hine and Long spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Bond spoke against it.

Mr. Isaacson again opposed passage of the bill, and Mr. Todd again spoke in favor of it.

Referred to Committee on Local Government.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heck yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Heck, there is considerable interest in our caucus for an income tax. There are some people who would be willing to go as high as one percent, and there are probably less who would be interested in going higher. They have been told by their folks not to sign a blank check, however, and I wondered if you had landed on some kind of a number in this area -- some range that we can feel confident that it is not going to go over so that we can check whether to sign on the bill or not?"

Mr. Heck: "Representative McDonald, your question refers to the introduction of House Bill No. 404 and House Joint Resolution No. 26, which reflect a recommendation of the Tax Advisory Council. One of the specific principles that the Tax Advisory Council adopted was that an income tax proposal represent neither an increase nor a decrease in revenues available to the state. Because this would be a proposal in the form of a constitutional amendment, and, therefore, would be required to be submitted to the voters in November of this year for their acceptance or rejection. Since the spending level has not been set yet but would be prior to that time, it was necessary that these proposals, in their introductory form, have blanks where the rates are."

Mr. McDonald: "I just wondered if you have some ideas of what percent of the total state general fund would be part of this; then we could probably back up and get some idea of your notion on this bill?"

Mr. Heck: "We will have a much better idea when this legislature undertakes the deliberative process of building the budget for the 1983-85 biennium through the regular committee process--which will involve the members from your side of the aisle as well as ours--in determining our state's appropriate spending priorities. After we determine the appropriate level, then we would be able to determine what the rates would be."

SECOND READING

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, is this the proper order of business in which to make a motion to relieve a committee of a bill for the second reading calendar?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "You would have to make the motion on this order of business."

MOTION

Mr. Hastings moved that the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of HOUSE BILL NO. 310, and the bill be placed on the second reading calendar for today.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Sommers, I meant to ask Representative Grimm this question, but he's off the floor, so as Vice Chair of the Ways and Means Committee, I thought I would ask you. This bill was read in last week and we made a motion, if you will recall, to place it on the second reading calendar for immediate consideration, the reason being that it has a time-date of March 1. We were told that was not the proper thing to do, and that it would be appearing through the normal process. We questioned if you are for or against the bill as it ought to be brought up right now and acted on just because of the time line. We were assured it would go through a timely hearing process, and I have before me the calendar for the Ways and Means Committee next week and I don't see any public hearing scheduled for House Bill 310. I wonder what we can do about that?"

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Hastings, I heard Representative Grimm's response to you yesterday--that he intended to consult with your leaders in the Ways and Means Committee--and I don't know if he has had an opportunity to do that or not. I believe that these meetings were already set, so there was not an opportunity to modify this calendar in the intervening twenty-four hours."

Mr. Hastings spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Appelwick, we have had an extensive discussion on this bill. I wonder if you had talked with -- we established the fact that it is a serious bill -- if you have talked with Representative Grimm, who is Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, about putting this bill on the calendar? What was his response?"

Mr. Appelwick: "No, in fact I haven't asked him specifically, and I had not seen the calendar for next week to know that it had not been listed. That might normally trouble me a bit, but we have been getting testimony in the course of hearing the Governor's budget proposals about the impacts of the sales' tax and the sales' tax extension on food. I think, as we get the supplemental budget next week, we will have an ample opportunity to discuss the sales' tax on food as an issue if the bill is, in fact, scheduled for us. I'm certain we will discuss it in the context of the revenue facts, as the two go hand-in-hand, so I'm not as troubled as you might be."

Mr. Addison spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. McDonald demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of House Bill No. 310, and that it be placed on the second reading calendar, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

Nelson, Allen and Armstrong (by Legislative Transportation Committee request)

Requiring child restraints in motor vehicles.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Martinis and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Ms. Galloway.

Ms. Galloway: "Representative Martinis, we have been working very hard in this state to encourage tourism, and there are only three or four states that have child restraint laws on the books. Are you, as Chairman of the Transportation Committee, thinking of some way to let those people know that there is a law on the books in this state? For instance, in British Columbia there is a sign just as you go into British Columbia saying that seat belts are mandatory."

Mr. Martinis: "There are some twenty states that now have legislation of this kind on their books and, of course, Section 2, subsection (1) addresses itself to vehicles that are registered within the State of Washington. Very definitely, this is to promote child safety, and I'm quite sure the informational centers will inform the tourists of the law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Martinis, in reading the law, Section 2, subsection (3) states, 'Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not constitute negligence of a parent or legal guardian; nor shall failure to use a child restraint system be admissible as evidence of negligence in any civil action.' Representative Martinis, is the intent of the law such that this would also apply in the event of a relative driving a child, a grandparent, an aunt, uncle or possibly a neighbor?"

Mr. Martinis: "The simple answer to that would be 'no,' but I would like to explain. It's only the parent or the legal guardian who would be required to comply with this act. Many times relatives or neighbors will be transporting children, but if they were written into this and there was a strict compliance enforced, only a parent or a legal guardian would ever be the one who could possibly transport a child in this state -- this state does not have what the legal profession terms as 'seat-belt defense.' This state does not require anyone to use a seat belt, and there is nothing in this bill to extend this requirement to anyone else in the state other than the parent or legal guardian."

Within the specific limitations in this act, the department of social and health services may modify allotments after the initial three months of the biennium with the approval of the office of financial management in consultation with the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives(~~PROVIDED, That because substantial uncertainty continues to exist as to actual federal revenues available to the department of social and health services and because major changes in federal entitlement programs affecting income maintenance, community social services, and medical assistance programs may have significant effects on caseloads and expenditures in those programs, allotment modifications may include transfers between programs in sections 49, 50, 51, 53, 54, and 55 of chapter 340, Laws of 1981~~). Transfers between or within programs may occur notwithstanding any limitation, condition, or proviso in sections 49 through 59, chapter 340, Laws of 1981 as amended by chapter 14, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess.; chapter 50, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess.; and chapter 11, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. Each transfer must maximize services provided under all programs, taking into account actual program workloads.

(3) The department of social and health services may seek and receive additional federal funds not included in this act, subject to approval of the office of financial management, provided that such funding does not require additional expenditure of state funds.

(4) In anticipation of significant reductions in federal support for social service, public health, and Title XIX programs, the legislature has reduced the state's dependency on federal entitlement programs within the income maintenance, medical assistance, and social service programs. However, additional federal reductions may require further reductions to all human service programs. To ensure that the loss of federal funds does not result in an accelerated expenditure of state funds, the following requirements are placed on the department of social and health services:

~~((a))~~ The department shall prepare a contingency expenditure plan to reflect anticipated loss of federal funds. This contingency plan shall include necessary program changes and a redefinition of services or eligibility criteria which will not require expenditures in excess of any appropriation provided in this act. The contingency plan shall be transmitted to the legislature upon completion and at least ten days before implementation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department shall provide for the issuance of vessel registrations and may appoint agents to collect fees and issue vessel numbers. Each agent of the department shall retain one dollar of the registration fee for each vessel registration application processed by the agent. If the agent is a county auditor, the retained dollar shall be paid to the county treasurer and credited to the county current expense fund. The department shall not issue or renew a registration for a vessel unless the tax due under chapter 82.____ RCW (sections 15 through 18 of this act) has been paid. Vessel registration fees and taxes collected by the department shall be deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Application for a vessel registration shall be made to the department or its authorized agent in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. The application shall state the name and address of each owner of the vessel, shall be signed by at least one owner, and shall be accompanied by a vessel registration fee of six dollars and the tax imposed under chapter 82.____ RCW (sections 15 through 18 of this act).

(2) Upon receipt of the application and the registration fee, the vessel shall be assigned a vessel number, which shall be affixed to the vessel in a manner prescribed by the department. Upon receipt of a dealer's application for registration and a registration fee of twenty-five dollars, the dealer shall be registered and a vessel number assigned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) An excise tax is imposed for the privilege of using a vessel as defined in section 7 of this act upon the waters of this state. The annual amount of the excise tax is one percent of fair market value of the vessel per calendar year or part thereof, as determined under this chapter.

(2) The excise tax for a vessel registered within one month after the date the owner acquired the vessel shall be prorated for the remaining months of the calendar year, including the month in which the vessel is registered if the vessel was not registered in this state for the immediately preceding calendar year.

(3) The excise tax imposed under this chapter is due and payable to the department of licensing or its agents at the time of registration of a vessel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The department of revenue shall prepare at least once each year a depreciation schedule for use in the determination of fair market value for the excise tax imposed by this chapter. The schedule shall be based upon information available to the department of revenue pertaining to the current fair market value of vessels. The fair market value of a vessel for the purposes of the excise tax imposed by this chapter shall be based on the latest purchase price depreciated according to the year of purchase of the vessel. The latest purchase price is the consideration, whether money, credit, rights, or other property expressed in terms of money, paid or given or contracted to be paid or given by the purchaser to the seller for the vessel. The purchase price must be a reasonable representation of the fair market value of the vessel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) Whenever a person applies for registration of a vessel acquired by lease or by gift or which is sold or acquired under conditions wherein the purchase price does not represent the true fair market value of the vessel, the fair market value of the vessel shall be determined as nearly as possible according to such guidebooks, listings, or other information as the department of licensing may have available.

(2) If the vessel is homemade, a notarized declaration of fair market value shall be made by the owner. The department of revenue shall appraise the vessel to establish the value of the vessel for excise tax purposes when it appears that the declared value does not represent the true fair market value of the vessel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The following are exempt from the tax imposed under this chapter:

(1) Vessels exempt from the registration requirements of chapter 88.____ RCW (sections 7 through 14 of this act);

Sec. 20. Section 84.36.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.36.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All ships and vessels (~~taxable in the state~~), other than those (~~taxable~~) partially exempt under RCW 84.36.080 and those described in RCW 84.36.079, are exempt from all ad valorem taxes (~~except taxes levied for any state purpose and twenty percent of taxes levied for all other purposes~~).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Property taxes paid for a vessel for 1983 shall be allowed as a credit against tax due under section 15 of this act for the same vessel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 7 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 88 RCW. Sections 15 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW.

Sec. 23. Section 82.48.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 240, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.48.020 are each amended to read as follows:

An annual excise tax is hereby imposed for the privilege of using any aircraft in the state. A current certificate of air worthiness with a current inspection date from the appropriate federal agency and/or the purchase of aviation fuel shall constitute the necessary evidence of aircraft use or intended use. The tax shall be collected for each calendar year by the director of licensing, and must be paid during the month of January, except that the tax for 1983 is due on the effective date of this 1983 section. No additional tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon any aircraft upon the transfer of ownership thereof, if the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such aircraft has already been paid for the year in which transfer of ownership occurs. (A penalty of five dollars shall be levied against all aircraft not timely registered.) A violation of this chapter is a misdemeanor punishable as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 24. Section 82.48.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 82.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The amount of the tax imposed by this chapter for each calendar year or part thereof shall be (fifteen dollars for each single engine aircraft, and twenty-five dollars for each multi-engine aircraft, irrespective of make, type, year of manufacture or any other type of classification) one percent of the fair market value of the aircraft as determined under this chapter. PROVIDED, That the calendar year shall be divided into twelve parts corresponding to the months of the calendar year and the excise tax upon an aircraft registered for the first time in this state after the last day of any month shall only be levied for the remaining months of the calendar year including the month in which the aircraft is being registered: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the minimum amount payable shall be three dollars.

An aircraft shall be deemed registered for the first time in this state when such aircraft was not previously registered by this state for the year immediately preceding the year in which application for registration is made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 82.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After consultation with the department of licensing, the department of revenue shall prepare at least once each year a schedule for use in the collection of the excise tax imposed under this chapter. The schedule shall be based upon available information pertaining to the fair market value of aircraft. Aircraft shall be classified into a convenient number of classes on the basis of price, make, type, year of manufacture, or any other reasonable basis, and the rate of tax prescribed in RCW 82.48.030 shall be applied to the value of aircraft within the classes as thus determined. In determining fair market value, the department of revenue may use any guidebook, report, or compendium of recognized standing in the aircraft industry. The schedule shall show, so far as possible, the amount of excise tax for aircraft within each class and shall sufficiently describe the aircraft included within each class to enable the department of licensing and its agents to ascertain readily the amount of tax applicable to any particular aircraft.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is added to chapter 82.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever a person applies for a registration for an aircraft which does not appear on the schedule, the applicant shall apply to the county assessor of the applicant's county for computation of the amount of excise tax due. Upon application, the assessor shall appraise the aircraft at its fair market value based on any guidebook, report, or compendium of recognized standing in the aircraft industry, ascertain the amount of excise tax by applying to the appraisal the rate of the tax under this chapter, and give the applicant a certificate showing the excise tax due under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Taxes paid under chapter 82.48 RCW before April 1, 1983, for calendar year 1983 shall be allowed as a credit against tax due under RCW 82.48.030 for the same aircraft.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is added to chapter 82.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The revenue accrual account is hereby created in the state general fund. At the close of each fiscal biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer the balance in the state general fund to this account. Moneys in this account may only be spent after appropriation by statute for the purpose of reducing the period after the close of a biennium during which accrued revenue may be credited back to that biennium. If the balance of the account exceeds the amount necessary for the previously stated purpose, moneys in the account may be spent after appropriation by statute for the purpose of decreasing the unfunded liability of a state retirement system.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 29. This act shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired, or liability or obligation incurred under the sections amended in this act, nor any rule, regulation, or order adopted, nor any proceeding instituted, under those sections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 30. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 31. (1) The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of revenue for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, to carry out the purposes of sections 7 through 21 of this act.

(2) The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of revenue for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, to carry out the purposes of sections 23 through 27 of this act.

(3) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, to the department of licensing for the purposes of sections 7 through 21 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 32. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions. Sections 1 through 6, and 28 through 32 of this act shall take effect March 1, 1983. Sections 7 through 18, and 21 through 27 of this act shall take effect April 1, 1983. Sections 19 and 20 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1984, for taxes due in 1984 and thereafter. The department of revenue and the department of licensing shall immediately take necessary steps to ensure that all sections of this act are properly implemented on their effective dates. The additional taxes imposed under this act shall take effect on the dates designated in this act notwithstanding the date this act becomes law under Article III, section 12 of the state Constitution."

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3258, by Senator McDermott (By Governor Spellman Request)

Modifying taxes ('81-'83 Biennium).

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Mr. McDonald moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 be rereferred to Committee on Ways & Means.

Representatives McDonald and G. Nelson spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Heck spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, I refer you to Reed's Rule 120 -- Motion to Commit -- 'The motion to commit is debatable, but the merits of the main question are not open to discussion on this motion, since that discussion will be in order when the committee reports.'"

The Speaker: "Your point is well taken, Representative O'Brien. Will you restrain yourself to the issue, Representative Nelson."

Mr. G. Nelson continued his remarks in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, Representative O'Brien referred to Reed's Rule 120, but he didn't read quite far enough. It says, 'If, however, the proposition be to commit with instructions as to the main question, then debate can be had on the merits.' I submit that Representative McDonald, in his motion, said 'once again,' which implies, in my mind, that we are talking about something we have talked about before, namely the public hearing. To me that is with instructions, and I think the question is open and I would hope you would rule that way, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker: "Thank you for reading the rest of the rule to us, Representative Hastings."

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, you just acknowledged that I read further; you didn't tell me whether my point was well taken or not. I would like a ruling on my point of order."

The Speaker: "Well, next time we have something before us, Representative Hastings, now that Representative Nelson has finished his speech, we'll have an opportunity to rule on that, but since he has finished his speech, it's beyond that point; we have nothing before us."

Mr. Grimm spoke against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, once again Representative Grimm seems to be straying from the subject. The subject is the referral of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 to the Committee on Ways & Means."

The Speaker: "Representative Grimm, will you please restrain yourself to the question of rereferral."

Mr. Grimm concluded his remarks against the motion, and Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Taylor demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Barrett spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Addison.

Mr. Addison: "Representative Grimm, on what day did the Ways & Means Committee hold a hearing on Senate Bill 3258?"

Mr. Grimm: "We held a hearing on the entire issue--the supplemental budget, supplemental revenues, the governor's proposal--about a week or ten days ago. I don't recall the exact day."

Mr. Addison: "On what day did the Ways & Means Committee hold a hearing on the subject of a tax on watercraft?"

Mr. Grimm: "The very same day."

Mr. Addison: "On what day did notice go out to the public that there would be a hearing on the subject of taxation of watercraft?"

Mr. Grimm: "Maybe I can save you time on a number of questions. The notice that went out to the public--to everyone who had indicated an interest personally, through letters, or individuals who wanted to be notified, or representatives of organizations, the public, private industry, and the press, which is obviously both electronic and written, which is obviously the major conduit for the notification of individuals as to the business before the legislature--that there would be a hearing on the Governor's proposal for supplemental budget and revenue and other alternatives. Everyone knew the process to which we were entering and had an opportunity to present testimony on the entire range of issues before us at this time."

Mr. Addison spoke in favor of the motion, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Taylor: "Mr. Speaker, this is a new legislature and we are speaking to the issue at hand, not past history. Let's address the facts. My point of order is that I think we should address the fact the hearing was never held on either the biennial revenue package or the supplemental. I would ask the speaker to address herself to that point, with which she has been very well connected the past few days."

The Speaker: "I believe, Representative Taylor, and Representative Sommers, we would like you to stick to that, although there have been references to past discussions in previous legislatures on the floor all evening. We would like to, if at all possible, stick to the question of rereferral."

Ms. Sommers concluded her remarks against the motion, and Mr. Pruitt also spoke against it.

Representatives Patrick and West spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "The gentleman is completely out of order, Mr. Speaker. He's involving personalities and engaging in discussions of other members. He is in violation of our rules."

The Speaker: "I see a lot of heads nodding on both sides of the aisle, Representative O'Brien. Would you try to restrict yourself to the question, Representative West, of whether or not this bill should be rereferred to Ways & Means Committee."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to rerefer Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 to Committee on Ways and Means, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G. Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 43.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 54.

Excused: Representative Fiske - 1.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Reports of Standing Committees, today's Journal.)

Mr. Grimm moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Cantu moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, after line 5 insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act shall terminate on June 30, 1983."

Renumber the remaining sections and correct internal references.

Mr. Cantu spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I was having trouble following the arguments in favor of this amendment when we got back on the subject of scheduling meetings and hearings. I wonder if, in your judgment, the arguments were pertinent to the motion?"

The Speaker: "Representative Cantu, it's clear that this deals with the matter of whether or not this act will terminate on June 30, 1983, not on any other issue. Would you please speak to that."

Mr. Cantu concluded his remarks in favor of the amendment. Representatives Vander Stoep, Isaacson, Bond, Brough, Barnes and Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Ms. Rust spoke against it.

Mr. Barrett demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Hastings and Holland spoke in favor of the amendment and Mr. Moon spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Rust: "The speaker is not speaking on the subject of the amendment, which is whether or not we are going to terminate these taxes. He is speaking on the nature of our present tax structure."

The Speaker: "Representative Holland, would you address the question, please."

Mr. Holland continued his remarks in favor of the amendment, and Mr. B. Williams also spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, we have all been very patient in listening to the very learned Representative Williams wax eloquent for well over seven or eight minutes about matters that don't directly pertain whatsoever to the amendment. The amendment is to terminate the proposed tax increase as of June 30, and this is a wonderful dissertation about national---"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, our rules allow a member to speak for ten minutes per time. Representative Williams has spoken for less time than that, and I think he ought to be given the right to speak his full allotted time according to the House rules that we all adopted."

The Speaker: "Representative Hastings, I believe that Representative Heck had two points: One was what he was speaking about, and second, how long it was taking him to get there. Representative Heck's point is that Representative Williams should speak to the question, and if he would do that please. You still have two minutes and fifty-seven seconds of your ten minutes, Representative Williams."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, I was hoping that you would rule on points of order when they are made and not allow debate or remarks prior to stating a point."

Mr. Williams concluded his remarks in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lewis also spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. Patrick.

Mr. Patrick: "Representative Rust, I want to make sure that I heard you correctly earlier when you made your comments on this amendment. Did I hear you correctly, that there is, indeed, a good chance that we may see taxes substantially higher than those in the present Senate Bill 3258?"

Ms. Rust: "No, this bill is not as high as the Senate bill. The Senate bill eliminates the termination date that was passed during the last biennium. Those termination dates are still in effect as of the present. We will be going through the process of hearing from the public, hearing from the agencies, to establish a budget for the next biennium. At that time, we can make the decisions on what we are going to do with our termination dates. Even if we decide to continue some of the temporary taxes, the tax level, in all probability, will be lower than they are now. If we do nothing to those termination dates, leave them as they are, the tax rates will go down automatically when those taxes are terminated. Does that answer your question?"

Mr. Patrick: "Not really. Let me ask the question in a different way. Are you saying, in effect, that there is a chance that we may have higher taxes over and above those taxes that we are talking about tonight?"

Ms. Rust: "I can't say what the chances are. We will be having public hearings and we will be making decisions. I think the taxes will be lower and they will be for this time between now and the end of the biennium. A lot of people have made promises that we will terminate the sales tax on food, and I think--I can't speak for the rest of the body--but I'm certain that this will happen, and beginning the first of July, we will all enjoy no taxes, but for this period right now, we have to do this because otherwise we've heard what will happen--the Governor told us."

Representatives Patrick and Schoon spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Earlier in the evening, the lady from the First District, a member of your party and a member of Ways & Means Committee, indicated that $8 billion which would be set--assuming this amendment fails--for the next biennium would be the floor on which the next biennial budget would be built. I had understood you to say that we are going to operate on a zero-based budget, and that we are going to build from the ground up, and we are going to examine every agency's budget and not make any budget assumptions. Was her statement wrong or are we going to assume, immediately, that a zero-based budget means a minimum of $8 billion?"

Mr. Grimm: "No, Representative Rust's statement--the lady from First District--was not wrong. There is a relatively straightforward explanation as to what she said and its accuracy. We will be looking, and have been looking, at every agency. We will be looking at every expenditure that is made in the way of tax loopholes, tax exemptions, that will be addressed; there's no question about it, as far as individual expenditures. As to overall base, given our current situation, an $8 billion budget in the next biennium is not unreasonable. Why is that? First of all, the current biennium, in which we are doing our work, has a revenue shortfall that required action to meet the level of spending below which the most conservative legislature in anyone's memory would be able to go. It is not unreasonable, even though there can be changes and cuts, to assume that with the mistakes that were made in the past biennium, in which we are currently serving, that we cannot go below that. Furthermore, a current situation has been compounded as we face the next biennium, by the fact that the budget--even as it is, out of balance--deferred several major expenditures. How could one justify a budget perhaps of as much as $8 billion? The most conservative legislature in the history of the state at this time is not raising salaries of state employees, but on the last day of the biennium there will be--by action of the previous legislature--again, very conservative--a seven percent salary increase for state employees. Fair? Yes. Do I oppose it? No. In fact, neither did you, those of you who were here to vote on it. What is the effect of that seven percent increase? Even you, as a very conservative majority last year, were unable to eliminate, or didn't wish to eliminate, $290 million in the next biennium. The 25th month--the number one priority of the financial community that we have to buy back--total cost, $300 million. Starting in 1977, during Democratic control, a revenue accrual account was created into which funds were being put, rainy day funds--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the present speaker is straying considerably from the question posed by Representative Vander Stoep."

The Speaker: "Please don't stray, if you are straying, Representative Grimm. Stick to the point, would you please."

Mr. Grimm: "If you were to buy back, as I am proposing, a significant portion, a reasonable portion, and get back on schedule to buy back the 25th month, it would cost us about $250 million in the next biennium. If we were on schedule, it would only cost us about $40 or $50 additional million, but $80 million, actually more in the last current biennium, was taken to balance this current biennium, even though it is now out of balance. That adds to the problem. What about the constitutional responsibility to fund schools? More than $200 million was cut. I think we have a responsibility to meet that paramount duty in the state, so it's not difficult to explain how one, as a reasonable person, can get to an $8 billion budget. That doesn't mean, and this is what Representative Rust was pointing out, that we will not be looking at every agency, every program and every tax loophole, which is really an expenditure of state government. We will be. She's right."

Representatives Vander Stoep and Long spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representative Cantu to page 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 52; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, Martinis, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 45.

Excused: Representative Fiske - 1.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Mr. Schoon moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 7 after "transaction," insert "This section shall terminate on July 1, 1983."

Mr. Schoon spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

Mr. Taylor demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Broback, J. Williams and Barnes spoke in favor of the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representative Schoon to page 2, line 7 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 43.

Excused: Representative Fiske - 1.

Mr. Barrett moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 6 strike all of section 1 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Barrett, McDonald, Struthers and Hastings spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representative Barrett, striking section 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 56; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 41.

Excused: Representative Fiske - 1.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, eighteen minutes ago, I made a motion relative to having the hotline down on the first floor--"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "A point of personal privilege has to pertain to you and not some outside function."

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, it does. I was informed from the rostrum that my request was being fulfilled relative to having the hotline manned so the messages would be delivered. I had a security person go down, the door was locked, the door was opened and every line on that console—that group of four consoles—was—"

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, when will the hotlines be opened this evening? And, Mr Speaker, if it's too much of a problem I would be happy to volunteer people to be on those hotlines this evening. I will personally take people from the Republican staff to make sure that we receive the messages that nobody has been able to provide to the members of this body."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I have been very tolerant of you, Representative Nelson. The hotline has nothing to do with this legislative process. You are out of order."

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 23 strike "~~((one)) two and twenty-five one-hundredths percent~~" and insert "one percent on all persons whose income is exclusively from commissions and two and twenty-five one-hundredths percent on all other persons"

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tilly yielded to question by Mr. J. King.

Mr. J. King: "Representative Tilly, would it be conceivable that a trial attorney, on a contingency basis, could call that a commission under the outlines of this amendment? Or could an architect on a consultant basis shift that and call it a commission and say he's working on a commission basis?"

Mr. Tilly: "That's not the intent of the amendment, Representative King."

Mr. J. King: "Would that be conceivable with the way the amendment is drafted?"

Mr. Tilly: "That's not the intent, Representative King."

Mr. J. King spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tilly yielded to question by Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis: "Representative Tilly, while the very respected representative who has just spoken is working on this problem, hopefully in an open government form, do you mean to tell me that the person who is selling shoes door-to-door, the kid who is trying to earn his or her way through college selling encyclopedias, the kid who maybe sells newspapers on commission, is going to have to pay this horrendous rate that would possibly prevent this person from accomplishing his or her dreams or even making ends meet?"

Mr. Tilly: "That's possible."

Mr. Lewis spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. J. King yielded to question by Mr. Vander Stoep.

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Representative King, you mentioned the problem that you can't respond to your hotline messages; I'm just wondering if that might be as a result of the fact that it's shut down now?"

Mr. J. King: "The remarks that I made, Representative Vander Stoep, is not that I couldn't respond to them—I always respond to my hotlines—I said your eloquence kept me from reading them."

Representatives Cantu and Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Tilly to page 2, line 23 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 57; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Ballard, Barnes, Betrozoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 40.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barrett, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 57.

Excused: Representative Fiske - 1.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, according to Rule 21D, having voted on the prevailing side by which the preceding amendment was defeated, I have the right to file a notice of a motion for reconsideration. However, I have a problem that the rules don't seem to address, and I need your ruling before I can proceed. My question, sir, is: Do I need to file it the same day that the vote was taken? Should I do it now? Are you telling me that I cannot file this on the second day if the matter is still on second reading?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "You would have to move to reconsider immediately."

Mr. Barrett: "Does that mean, Mr. Speaker, that we are prohibited at any time from filing a motion for reconsideration on the second day that the matter is still before the body?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The second day isn't before us, so I'm not going to answer your question."

Mr. Barrett: "You did not answer my question. My question is what my rights would be on the second day?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your question is moot because we are not on the second day."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Barrett, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which the Tilly amendment to page 2, line 23 of the committee amendment failed.

Mr. Tilly spoke against the motion.

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, I am accepting the fact that what you have ruled is that second reading reconsideration is to be treated the same as final passage reconsideration, and as such, this will be taken up on the next working day and not at the present time."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Final passage is a little bit different than an amendment on second reading."

The motion was lost.

Mr. Betrozoff moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 7 after "section." insert "This section shall terminate on July 1, 1983."

Representatives Betrozoff, Long and West spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Rust spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. West.

Mr. West: "Representative Rust, my question to you would be: Do you anticipate, in the spending program I'm sure we will see, a seven percent raise for state employees with an additional five percent for state public employees in that budget?"

Ms. Rust: "A tax increase is not an increase of $8.1 billion; that's the total amount. We will be having public hearings; we will be listening to state employees and to the agencies, and the Committee on Ways & Means will make the decision on the increases that are paid."

Mr. West: "Representative Rust, do you anticipate a pay raise for public employees this year?"

Ms. Rust: "I can't speak for the body."

Mr. West: "Do you personally anticipate voting for a pay raise for the public employees?"

Ms. Rust: "I will listen to the testimony given by the agencies and by the public employees, and I will keep those facts in mind, considering what kind of revenues that we can raise."

Mr. West spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis: "Turning to you, Representative Rust, as the lead person from Ways & Means, I appreciate the clarity on this tax increase to the floor, and we could be borrowing again in the next biennium, but you mentioned something about this onerous tax that we are discussing now and trying to straighten out with this amendment. You stated that we will be developing or striving for a tax that is fair, and we will replace that with a fair tax and replace it with--in your words--'a better tax.' Again, could you clarify what you mean by a better tax or a fair tax? Are you talking about an income tax or---"

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, the questioner is not asking a question about the proposed amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "That's very true. Mr. Lewis, you are out of order with your question to Representative Rust."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Betzoff yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Betzoff, since we didn't have any public hearings on this, I'm not certain what are all the various services that are covered with the B&O tax on services? At least the ones that you are aware of?"

Mr. Betzoff: "In addition to architects—which I gave you the example of the family business in Renton for architects—there are attorneys, certified public accountants, engineers would be covered, doctors, dentists, and I believe barbers, would also be some of the categories."

Representatives Padden, Fuhrman, Addison, Schoon and Bond spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Betzoff to page 3, line 7 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

Representatives Mitchell, B. Williams, Addison and Vander Stoep spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Wang spoke against it.

Mr. Mitchell spoke again in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Appelwick: "Mr. Speaker, I've been somewhat reluctant because I've felt there has been a great deal of bad judgment this evening and certainly poor discretion and abuse to the public in the legislature, but I must demand from Representative Addison a formal apology for stating that the members of this body, myself included, were attempting to blackmail the people of the State of Washington. That statement was beneath the dignity of the members of this House and the people of the state."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "I ask you to rule on Rule 18G. I believe Representative Appelwick is out of order in presenting his point of personal privilege. There has been a speaker since Representative Addison spoke."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Speaker is certainly in sympathy with Representative Appelwick and what he wanted to say in his comments. We have really broken some of the rules here this evening, and we've been trying to do everything we can to maintain proper decorum and respect for each other, and it's gone beyond the Speaker's realm of power. We've been very tolerant up here because of the tremendous number of amendments that are before us. We would like to have, of course, the cooperation of the minority party here so that we can expedite our work before us."

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Mitchell to page 3, line 7 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

Excused: Representative Fiske - 1.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Bond moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 7 following "section." insert:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In computing tax under this chapter, a person collecting tax under chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW may credit against the amount of the tax otherwise due under this chapter one-fourth of one percent of the tax collected under chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW as compensation for collecting the tax and complying with the reporting requirements."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Bond and Struthers spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

Mr. Bond spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Hankins yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Hankins, as the ranking minority chair on State Government Committee, I think you reported in caucus a day or so ago that there is a bill passed out of the committee that allows for compensation for state employees if the payment or the check was late or something like that. Would you clarify that for me?"

Ms. Hankins: "Yes, Representative Hastings, it is a penalty if you do not meet your payroll in time. It's a one percent penalty."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Hine: "Mr. Speaker, I fail to see how this relates to this amendment before us."

The Speaker: "Representatives Hankins and Hastings, this question and answer does not appear to relate to the amendment before us. Please address your remarks to that question."

Mr. Hastings spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Bond, adding a new section to page 3 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 57; excused, 1.

Mr. Fuhrman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Fuhrman yielded to question by Mr. Sayan.

Mr. Sayan: "Representative Fuhrman, in your remarks, when you referred to state employees receiving a pay raise and the voluntary action of private sector employees, I wonder if you are aware that the state employees, as of this July, will be nearly twenty-five percent below prevailing wage? If you were aware that last July they were thirteen percent below prevailing wage, and were you aware that was not a voluntary deduction---"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, the issue here is a timber tax amendment, and the question to Representative Fuhrman deals with other compensation. I think he ought to be asking questions dealing with the timber tax issue."

The Speaker: "Representative Sayan, could you attempt to structure your questions in relationship to the amendment?"

Mr. Sayan spoke against the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Fuhrman to page 3, line 23 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 52; excused, 1.

Representatives Allen, B. Williams, West, Stratton, McDonald, Taylor, Hastings and Vander Stoep spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Heck spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Allen to page 3, line 23 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 51; excused, 1.

Representatives Clayton and Nealey spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Rust spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis: "Representative Rust, since you opened the issue on the floor during debate on exemptions and differentials, doesn't that same publication mention one of the exemptions, the sales tax on food?"

Ms. Rust: "Representative Lewis, are you speaking to the amendment before us?"

Mr. Lewis: "Yes, I am, because you have brought up the question of the tax exemptions dealing with food processors. For my own clarification, while I do believe -- my memory is coming back -- I do believe the sales tax on food is exempted, but your remarks leave open a question to me. Does this mean that as a part of the better tax and the tax that is fair, we're talking about doing away with all tax exemptions on agricultural products as well as the extension of the B&O tax to farmers?"

Ms. Rust: "Representative Lewis, I don't think you are addressing the subject of the amendment. I'll be glad to answer your questions if you are."

Mr. Lewis: "Well, I think I am. I rule that I am."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references.

Representatives Hastings and Dickie spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Rust spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Hastings, I see in the same section of the law that your amendment deals with, actually subsection (5), that the tax rate on remanufacturing by canning, preserving and dehydrating of fresh fruit and vegetables is three tenths of one percent, which currently is the same as the tax rate on the processing of meat products. Yet, you are reducing that rate by approximately fifty percent or more than that, down to .00125. What would be the difference? Why would you want to have a rate for meat products and their manufacture that's different from the manufacturing of fruits and vegetables?"

Mr. Hastings: "Very simply, Representative Nelson, for equity. Seafood processors process seafood -- meat. Beef processors process beef -- meat. The issue ought to be the same and for that reason, for the equity of it. It seems to me that this is an extremely high volume, low profit margin business. As a matter of fact, the return is somewhere less than a penny on a dollar--less than one percent. At the rate of .33, if you tack that surcharge on there, you are taxing them at an incredibly high rate. If you equate that to a corporate profit tax, it would be very close to fifty percent, and it seems to me that is an extremely high rate that hardly anybody could absorb, so it's for the equity of it, Representative Nelson, that I think the rate ought to be down to that rate."

Mr. D. Nelson: "Are you suggesting that somehow the manufacture of fruits and vegetables is a more profitable business than is the manufacture of meat?"

Mr. Hastings: "Well, Representative Nelson, I guess when you get right to the crux of the problem that we've been trying to communicate to you tonight, is the give and take had we had a public hearing. We could have had people from each industry, and they could have stood up there maybe, and we could have asked them--you're not a member of the Ways and Means Committee, but I know I served on Revenue with you before and I know at that time, we had the opportunity to ask these individuals why there is a differential in rates. I recall specifically former Speaker of the House, Charlie Hodde, at that time Director of Revenue, came in there and he had all those answers tucked in the back of his head, and he gave us a reason 'why' on all of that. Had we had the benefit of a public hearing, we probably could have gone through this whole thing and found out exactly why there is a differential."

Mr. D. Nelson: "Referring back to comments by Representative Nickell, who, I think, indicated that the manufacturer of fruits and vegetables -- I believe he was talking about that --was a low profit margin industry and since he is very expert in that area, coming from a farming area, I guess I would accept his advice as much as I would accept Mr. Hodde's advice. If he tells me that manufacturing of fruits and vegetables is a very high volume, low profit industry, then I'm wondering why we should tax them at more than double the rate that we tax meat products or seafood products?"

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Nickell chose not to run this time. He's not in the body now and I don't recall his remarks."

Mr. D. Nelson: "Citing the comments of one of your members, whose name I don't remember, but who described himself as a farmer and suggested that the industry is a low profit industry, why do you think--could you speculate as to why we should tax at a more than double rate a very important part of our agricultural economy when we have a lower rate for seafood and meat products?"

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Nelson, the first motion when we first started here tonight was to rerefer this bill back to Ways and Means Committee. If I recall the arguments of why we ought to do that, it's for the purpose of a public hearing. As a matter of fact, there is a point of order that was raised that was out of order, and I stood up. I recall, and said that as part of the motion made, '...for the purpose of public hearing.' I think probably, we could still have the time to go into reconsideration if you are as interested as I am on this subject. We could reconsider that amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Mr. Smith, in the amendment that we are considering in another part of the same section of the law, the rate on the manufacture, canning, preserving, freezing of fresh fruits and vegetables, if we adopt this amendment, would be more than twice the manufacture of meat products. Can you explain to me why those two industries that exist in your area should have that different kind of rate on their B&O tax?"

Mr. Smith: "Well, you know this is my time of night. I happen to be the kind of farmer that milks cows and I would like to explain that I do sell my cows and I sell my beef. If you should ask me, I just think anything you put on farmers is bad because we're so danged broke now we don't know what we are doing, and now you are really going to dig a hole for us. We had Mt. St. Helens that buried us once and now you are going to bury us again."

Mr. D. Nelson: "Would you say a rate that's twice as high is twice as bad then?"

Mr. Smith: "We're already buried now; we might get our heads above ground if you'd leave us alone. I think we should treat everybody alike and just go all the way and exempt everything. If you guys want to eat, you're going to have to start thinking about us farmers a little bit."

Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Hastings to page 4, adding a section to the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 52; excused, 1.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, I have 1:57 a.m., Saturday, February 12. Is this the 33rd legislative day or the 34th legislative day?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It is the 33rd legislative day."

Mr. J. King moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives J. King, Ristuben, Galloway, Sutherland, Heck and Tanner to the committee amendment:

On page 4, after line 11 insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in section 4 of this act and RCW 82.08.030, 'border counties' means those counties physically bordering on a state which does not impose a retail sales or use tax."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 5, line 19 after "price))" insert "in counties other than border counties, and equal to five and four-tenths percent of the selling price in border counties. For the purposes of determining the applicable rate under this section, where a retail sale occurs shall be determined under RCW 82.14.020."

On page 6, after line 4 insert:

"Sec. 6. Section 81.12.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected from every person in this state a tax or excise for the privilege of using within this state as a consumer any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail, or acquired by lease, gift, repossession, or bailment, or extracted or produced or manufactured by the person so using the same, or otherwise furnished to a person engaged in any business taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsections (2) or (7). This tax will not apply with respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased, extracted, produced or manufactured outside this state until the transportation of such article has finally ended or until such article has become commingled with the general mass of property in this state. This tax shall apply to the use of every article of tangible personal property, including property acquired at a casual or isolated sale, and including byproducts used by the manufacturer thereof, except as hereinafter provided, irrespective of whether the article or similar articles are manufactured or are available for purchase within this state. Except as provided in RCW 82.12.0252, payment by one purchaser or user of tangible personal property of the tax imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW shall not have the effect of exempting any other purchaser or user of the same property from the taxes imposed by such chapters. The tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate in effect for the retail sales tax under RCW 82.08.020, as now or hereafter amended, in the county in which the article is used."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references.

Representatives J. King and Galloway spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. J. King yielded to question by Mr. Addison.

Mr. Addison: "Representative King, is the intent of your amendment that the various services that are paid for by the state, such as the portion that the schools in your area and welfare benefits to people living in these counties, be reduced by a similar proportion to the lower sales tax to be paid in that area?"

Mr. J. King: "The intent of the amendment is simply to exempt residents of Clark, Skamania and Klickitat counties from paying an increase in the sales tax offset by an increase in the B&O tax."

Mr. Addison spoke against the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. J. King yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative King, since we didn't get to discuss this in the Ways and Means Committee, what is the fiscal impact of this amendment on an annual basis?"

Mr. J. King: "It's impossible to determine it with the substantial revenue loss going out of the state. There's no way to determine that."

Mr. Tilly: "You are unable to answer the question, is that correct?"

Mr. J. King: "I'm saying it's impossible to determine. Nobody can give you a firm answer on that. It's interesting that you should address an issue on that; it's the first time it's been addressed all night on any amendment offered."

Mr. Tilly spoke against the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. J. King yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Does this include the Spokane area, for instance, my district?"

Mr. J. King: "No, it doesn't. The situation is entirely different from the Spokane area."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. D. Nelson: "I think the amendment before us is addressing the B&O tax and not a budget. I would ask the speaker to stick to the amendment."

Ms. Schmidt concluded her remarks in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Brough also spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden asked Ms. Sommers to yield to question, and she refused to yield.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. B. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Williams, do you have any figures as to what the equivalent would be here on the B&O tax in this bill where we are raising it twenty-five percent additional surtax, or thirty-two percent surtax, and of course, we're increasing services from .107 to .225. Do you have any idea what the equivalent would be, and if that were a corporate income tax, what the rate would be?"

Mr. B. Williams: "The equivalent in a corporate income tax would be between thirteen and fifteen percent, which would be the highest corporate income tax in the United States, higher than even the great states of Taxachussettes and Minnesota."

Representatives Padden, Tilly, J. Williams, Smith and Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Silver striking 4 sections of the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 53; excused, 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. West.

Mr. West: "Representative Locke, you indicated, I believe, in your remarks that we'd have enough money to accomplish this. Did you give a dollar figure in the margin and the amount of money to be raised by this?"

Mr. Locke: "Yes, our figures are on the amendment. It indicates that exclusion of food from the sales tax will result in a decrease in state revenues of $13 million, but by increasing the sales tax an additional .1 of one percent for a total of 1.1

percent on nonfood items, it generates $10.1 million for a net loss of only $2.9 million."

Mr. West: "So your dollars have 2.9 to spare?"

Mr. Locke: "$2.9 less total revenue of the state for the rest of the biennium. That is based on the Ways and Means staff projection of a $42 million cushion."

Mr. Locke spoke again in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Tilly: "The answer isn't in the book. This is a policy matter that this legislature has to establish, the 98 members in the House and the 49 in the Senate, and then the Governor, but I do believe what I said about the recommendation of this, the group that put this together, certainly would support the amendment."

The Speaker: "Representative Fuhrman, will you restrict your remarks to the question."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, if I read the rules correctly, it opens up the entire debate, and it is full-ranging when you talk about a reconsideration."

The Speaker: "Well, Representative McDonald, it is true that one can talk in general terms about the subject matter, but that subject matter does not include everything in the universe."

Mr. Fuhrman concluded his remarks in favor of the motion, and Representatives B. Williams, Bond and Miller also spoke in favor of it.

The tax hereby imposed shall be paid by the buyer to the seller, and each seller shall collect from the buyer the full amount of the tax payable in respect to each taxable sale in accordance with the schedule of collections adopted by the department pursuant to the provisions of RCW 82.08.060. The tax required by this chapter, to be collected by the seller, shall be deemed to be held in trust by the seller until paid to the department, and any seller who appropriates or converts the tax collected to his own use or to any use other than the payment of the tax to the extent that the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the due date as prescribed in this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

In case any seller fails to collect the tax herein imposed or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of his own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond his control, he shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

The amount of tax, until paid by the buyer to the seller or to the department, shall constitute a debt from the buyer to the seller and any seller who fails or refuses to collect the tax as required with intent to violate the provisions of this chapter or to gain some advantage or benefit, either direct or indirect, and any buyer who refuses to pay any tax due under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The tax required by this chapter to be collected by the seller shall be stated separately from the selling price (~~and for purposes of determining the tax due from the buyer to the seller and from the seller to the department~~), unless the seller elects to include the tax in the selling price and clearly informs the purchaser that the tax is included, and the price list, advertisements, sales document, contract, or other agreement between the parties sets forth the current tax rate. If the seller does not so elect, it shall be conclusively presumed that the selling price quoted in any price list, advertisements, sales document, contract or other agreement between the parties does not include the tax imposed by this chapter.

Where a buyer has failed to pay to the seller the tax imposed by this chapter and the seller has not paid the amount of the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the buyer for collection of the tax, in which case a penalty of ten percent may be added to the amount of the tax for failure of the buyer to pay the same to the seller, regardless of when the tax may be collected by the department; and all of the provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW, including those relative to interest and penalties, shall apply in addition; and, for the sole purpose of applying the various provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW, the fifteenth day of the month following the tax period in which the purchase was made shall be considered as the due date of the tax.

Sec. 33. Section 82.08.120, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 51, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Whoever, excepting as expressly authorized by this chapter, refunds, remits, or rebates to a buyer, either directly or indirectly and by whatever means, all or any part of the tax levied by this chapter, or makes in any form of advertising, verbal or otherwise, any statements which might infer that he is absorbing the tax or paying the tax for the buyer (~~by an adjustment of prices, or at a price including the tax, or~~) in any (~~other~~) manner whatsoever shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That this section shall not be construed to require the seller to state the tax imposed under this chapter separately from the selling price if the buyer is informed as required under RCW 82.08.050. The violation of this section by any person holding a license granted by the state or any political subdivision thereof shall be sufficient grounds for the cancellation of the license of such person upon written notification by the department of revenue to the proper officer of the department granting the license that such person has violated the provisions of this section. Before any license shall be canceled hereunder, the licensee shall be entitled to a hearing before the department granting the license under such regulations as the department may prescribe."

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6, by Committee on Commerce & Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Tanner, B. Williams, J. King, Ebersole, Monohon, Van Dyken, West, Stratton, Haugen, Egger, Galloway, Fisch, Sayan, Belcher, Powers, Pruitt, Vekich, Charnley, Broback, Hine, Halsan, Tilly, Brekke, Garrett, Lewis, Todd and Ristuben)

Establishing the emergency commission on economic development and job creation.

The resolution was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Tanner spoke in favor of passage of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tanner yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Tanner, in the committee hearings in the Commerce and Economic Development Committee, we talked about the cost, the fiscal note and there was no official fiscal note, but I believe there was a memorandum passed out here a few days back, and I wonder if you could indicate to the House what the cost will be for this legislation?"

Mr. Tanner: "Yes, Representative Padden, the cost of this commission was estimated, using the Governor's Tax Advisory Council as a model; the per diem is to be paid based on the legislative per diem allowance, which would be $5,280 for the eight legislative members and it would be $10,560 for the nonlegislative members. The travel expense was estimated based on the average miles traveled for members of the Tax Advisory Commission, which was also a broad-based commission and that's estimated to be $14,545 for legislative members and $29,090 for nonlegislative members. This is based on an estimate of fifteen meetings by the commission, which is the number of meetings that was held by the Tax Advisory Council. There is an additional $16,000 allotted for nonlegislative staff, principally consulting services. The total cost is estimated to be $75,475, and is to be paid out of the budget of the two houses."

Mr. J. King spoke in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tanner yielded to question by Ms. Schmidt.

Ms. Schmidt: "Representative Tanner, did you say that it would also look at the tourism program for this state?"

Mr. Tanner: "I did not say that; however, there are many categories under the charge of this commission that would allow addressing the tourism issue. For one, it's just the appropriate state role in economic development and job creation, which is kind of the flagship heading in terms of the subject matters to be looked at. Also, there is an area involving small business that should be addressed and, certainly, the category 9, which is recommendation for revitalizing and strengthening of businesses currently operating. There is, however, no specific category involving tourism. There is no specific category involving any particular industry. It's a number of general areas of analysis that should be addressed by the commission with regard to getting this economy turned around."

Ms. Schmidt: "May I assume, then, that tourism is something that would be appropriate to look at as far as helping to turn the economy around?"

Mr. Tanner: "Absolutely."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 107, by Representatives R. King, Betrozoff, Clayton, Heck, O'Brien, Patrick, Galloway, Hine, Sanders and Mitchell

Allowing specified hospitals and school districts to form self-insurance groups.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, 26th Day, February 4, 1983.)

Mr. D. King moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Lux moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On line 3 after "section" insert a period and strike the last 2 lines of the committee amendment.

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Lux, could you tell the body just exactly, by putting in the period and deleting the following lines, what we are deleting as it refers to the RCW's?"

Mr. Lux: "Representative Struthers, what we are deleting--there are two classes of hospitals. There are district hospitals that have three elected commissioners that are elected by the people. There are public authority hospitals, like the public health service hospital in Seattle that are a unique sort of an entity. There are county hospitals like Harborview and a state hospital like the University Hospital. Then there are proprietary hospitals that are owned by private hospital corporations and there are private nonprofit hospitals like St. Joe's, Group Health, and any number of others. There are some alcohol treatment hospitals that are proprietary hospitals. All of these hospitals fall into two different categories: The public district hospitals are in one category and the private nonprofit and the proprietary are in another category. The department has a difficult time trying to put these in two different categories, because the way the bill is set up it applies to public school districts, which are public entities, and public entities cannot go broke. If they go broke or bankrupt, then another entity takes them over. The same thing applies to public hospital districts, but with private nonprofits, you have an altogether different situation. In the competitive world of hospitalization, there is a real problem and the department is in a real quandry about that. They are separated in the bill, and that's why there must be two classes because we have a law, a constitutional law in the State of Washington, that you cannot loan or support private enterprise with public money. That's the difference because you have a public district hospital and a private nonprofit and proprietary hospital, and they fall into two different categories."

Mr. Struthers: "Then, Representative Lux, would this prohibit one of the other groups from forming as a self-insured group if we were to eliminate the language here?"

Mr. Lux: "This would prohibit the private nonprofit and the proprietary from forming self-insured groups, yes. You should understand, Representative Struthers, that there are 113 hospitals in the state of Washington that fall under this classification. What was testified to in the committee by the Department of Labor and Industries was one hundred sixty-eight hospitals--they had some nursing homes that fell into the category that do not fall into a real hospital category as defined by the Hospital Commission or Social and Health Services. There is some confusion in that whole area, and what we are trying to do is clean up and clear up that confusion so that we don't kill the bill."

Mr. Struthers spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Lux, I'm a little bit confused. The Providence Hospital in Everett and the General Hospital in Everett--which classification would they come under?"

Mr. Lux: "Representative Mitchell, I don't know, but I imagine they are private nonprofit hospitals. I would assume they are."

Mr. Mitchell: "Does that mean that they would not be able to have a self-insured program?"

Mr. Lux: "I don't know what size those hospitals are, Representative Mitchell, but I can tell you that out of the one hundred thirteen hospitals in the State of Washington, fifty of those hospitals are already self-insured. If those hospitals have assets of $1 million and put up a $200,000 bond, they are already self-insured. You are talking about a very few hospitals in this classification. I think we should understand that all of the larger hospitals are already self-insured."

Mr. Mitchell: "If they have over $1 million assets, and if they do not have a self-insurance program or any group, would they be able to participate?"

Mr. Lux: "I think you're going to have to run that by me one more time."

Mr. Mitchell: "Our hospitals are 200-bed or more; they have assets of more than $1 million--that's the statement you made, and needless to say, if they do not have a self-insurance program or belong to a program that does have that at this time, would they be able to participate in a group insurance now?"

Mr. Lux: "I'm sure they wouldn't need to participate in a group. I think you will find that a hospital that has over $1 million in assets and can put up this $200,000 bond would not find it advisable to go into a group."

Mr. Mitchell: "But the larger the group, the more assets it has, and therefore, it would be able to have a stronger insurance program and, thereby be able to protect the individual consumer and its own employees. So my question is: If they do not have self-insurance now, would they be able to participate if your amendment goes through?"

Mr. Lux: "Not the private nonprofit or the proprietors; no, they would not be able to participate."

Representatives Mitchell and R. King spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 107, by Representatives R. King, Betrozoff, Clayton, Heck, O'Brien, Patrick, Galloway, Hine, Sanders and Mitchell

Allowing specified hospitals and school districts to form self-insurance groups.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

The Speaker (Mr. Wang presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Lux to the committee amendment.

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Lux, I thought it would be good to review the question and answer period we had last night regarding the private nonprofit hospitals. The question I asked you was: Would hospitals similar to Providence Hospital and the General Hospital in Everett be able to be involved in a group insurance program?"

Mr. Lux: "Representative Mitchell, I think the answer was that if the amendment passes, as I understand, the hospitals you are referring to are either private nonprofit or they are proprietary; they are private profit-making hospitals. There are only eleven for-profit hospitals in the State of Washington. The other fifty-five are private nonprofit, which would be St. Joe's and the General you are referring to, Group Health, all those other hospitals are private nonprofit hospitals."

Mr. Mitchell: "You said last night that if they didn't already belong to such a group, that they would not be about to incorporate their hospital in a new insurance group."

Mr. Lux: "What I said last night, Representative Mitchell, is that there are no group arrangements for hospitals at this time. The hospitals are self-insured. The fifty hospitals that are now self-insured in the State of Washington self-insure under the self-insurance laws that were passed in 1971 which allow for single entities--those with a million dollars in assets and a $200,000 bond. That would apply to hospitals, lumber yards, timber outfits--any kind of an industry in the State of Washington that has a million dollars in assets and can put up a $200,000 bond to meet the criteria of the department, can self-insure."

Representatives Mitchell and R. King spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

A division was called.

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the eleventh order of business.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Ms. Belcher: "Today is the anniversary of the birthday of one of our founding mothers, Susan B. Anthony. We currently have twenty women serving in this House of Representatives, and that could not have occurred without the outstanding efforts of women such as Susan B. Anthony. She campaigned throughout the country on behalf of our right to vote, and as a result, we have had women serving in this House since as early as 1923. It seems appropriate to me that we remember today is her birthday."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Ms. Allen: "I would like to ask the House to join us in celebrating the birthdate of a woman who I like to look at as the second greatest emancipator. She was the early leader in equal rights, attending the first convention that was held on women's rights in 1848. She was a woman of exceptional organizational ability and political acumen. After the Civil War, Susan B. Anthony gave full attention to equal rights and published, for three years, a newspaper calling for educational suffrage, irrespective of sex or color, as well as equal pay for equal work (heard that one before?), practical education of women, more liberal divorce laws. She died in 1906 at the age of 96, having attended her last suffrage convention only a month before. What a lady!

There were two states and two territories that legislated in favor of women's suffrage before the 19th Amendment, and it was all due to the work of Susan B. Anthony. She fought for the creation of the true republic: Men, their rights, and nothing more; women, their rights and nothing less."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House recessed until 5:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The House was called to order at 5:30 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

MOTION

Mr. McDonald moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 be rereferred to Committee on Ways and Means.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, it seems rather difficult to make a motion to refer something that isn't yet in front of us."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

February 14, 1983

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate refuses to concur with the House amendments to ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3258, and asks the House to recede therefrom, and said bill, together with the House amendments thereto, is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved that the House refuse to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

MOTION

Mr. McDonald moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 be rereferred to Committee on Ways and Means.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that I think a check of the parliamentary procedures by which we operate will indicate that Representative McDonald's motion is outranked by a motion that would, in effect, bring the two bodies closer together."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Your point is well taken, Representative Heck."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, we don't have joint rules at this time."

The Speaker: "That's correct."

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, if we don't have joint rules, how can we establish a conference committee?"

The Speaker: "By passing the motion Representative Heck has made and using the appropriate Reed's Rule, which I'm sure you have found, and the House rules."

Mr. McDonald: "Could you give me a citation on those rules?"

The Speaker: "House Rule 30 says, 'The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Reed's Parliamentary Rules shall govern all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the house.'"

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McDonald: "Where in Reed's are we referring?"

The Speaker: "Chapter 15, beginning on page 157."

Mr. McDonald: "What specific rule, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker: "Primarily in chapter 15, but also in numerous rules in chapter 7."

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, we have a fairly significant parliamentary procedure right here, and it would be more appropriate, it seems to me, to get a ruling from the Chair that is more comprehensive. Clearly, we want to understand it."

The Speaker: "More specific or more comprehensive?"

Mr. McDonald: "More specific and more comprehensive."

The Speaker: "This is a very cumbersome process, since we do not have joint rules, by going through the process in order to get to conference, one must use the citation of various rules in those two chapters."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 as amended by the House has passed the House and now has come back. Our rules provide, with a Senate amendment to a House bill, the House bill passed by the Senate with an amendment or amendments which change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the House shall be rereferred to the appropriate committee and shall take the same course as the original bill. This is an analysis and this points out the fact that if it were a House bill, maybe your motion might be in order, but this bill has already passed the House and now we are in communication between the House and the Senate, and the bill belongs in this process. It's gone beyond the realm of one of our committee actions. Therefore, I would say that Representative McDonald's motion is out of order."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative Heck that the House refuse to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Taylor: "Mr. Speaker, I think it was our belief that you would recognize Representative McDonald for a very sincere, honest motion. I think in spite of the Speaker Pro Tem's ruling, there's still a chance to rectify--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Representative Taylor is not addressing the body to a point of personal privilege, but is speaking to the motion and the process we are following this evening."

The Speaker: "Incidentally, Representative Taylor, if this motion doesn't pass and does fail, of course I will recognize Representative McDonald, but since Representative Heck's motion is of a higher order, I cannot in conscience deal with Representative McDonald's motion until we have dealt with Representative Heck's motion because it is of a higher order."

Mr. Taylor: "All I was trying to do (and this is a point of personal privilege) is to say that I feel strongly that people like the two hundred voters who met you Saturday morning and the others who were denied the right of a public hearing should have a chance--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "The same remarks apply."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative Heck.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House refuse to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 44; absent, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 54.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 44.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, based on the motion by Representative Heck, I guess my point is now for a reference to Reed's that first of all establishes the conference committee; and secondly, how the conference committee will be formed and, more importantly, where the rules cite the procedures used in a conference committee that, I guess, we are making up here as we go along?"

The Speaker: "The Speaker would like to make reference to Reed's Rule 240. The Speaker would then consult the minority leader for the name which he would appoint. Obviously, it is a fiscal matter and probably would be someone from a fiscal committee. Then as far as the number is concerned, Representative Nelson, the Speaker feels that three would be a fair number and that if the Senate were to concur with that request, then, of course, each of us would have three, two of the majority party and one from the minority party in each House."

Mr. G. Nelson: "In Reed's Rule 240 I find that it doesn't refer to consultation with the minority leader or does it specifically indicate the numbers as you have thus far explained. I might point out, if I may, Mr. Speaker, that it says in the last sentence of Rule 240, 'If, for example (this is an example only), three were appointed by each house, two should represent the majority in each house and one the minority.' At no time does it say that's explicit, and I would respectfully ask, Mr. Speaker, in the case of rules before this body, it has not been what the desire has been of the presiding officer, but what the desire is of the remaining 97 members of this body--together with the 49 in the Senate--in the establishment of Joint Rules that essentially provide new process and an arrangement by which we can effectively carry out disputes between the two bodies. Reed's Rules are very general, I might point out. Mr. Speaker, they are not a nuts-and-bolts provision as to how we operate and I would simply ask that this body reconsider its position and, in fact, go ahead with the adoption of Joint Rules."

The Speaker: "Do you have a better number in mind?"

Mr. G. Nelson: "Yes, my number at this time would be 98. All members of this body at this time should be voting and looking at this particular subject matter in an open hearing whereby we can effectively look at each part of the revenue package, not just those that simply were in a striking amendment that was essentially rushed through these chambers without the light of day and which will, in fact, have some impact on not only the 98 members here, but also essentially on all those who are now going to pay the tax bill. I think, before we proceed under a disguised set of rules, that we should effectively be passing Joint Rules that carry out the intent of any well-formulated body such as this one. It would seem strikingly unfair, at this point in time, to proceed any further."

The Speaker appointed Representatives Sommers and Grimm to serve on the conference committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, at this point in time, we have no rule in front of us that indicates the number of persons that could be appointed to any conference committee should such a committee be formed. Just as we have in the rules of the House, which specifically indicates the numbers of each committee before these chambers, the same should be true of every committee. I reference Representative O'Brien's remarks during the question that Representative McDonald pursued, that we do, in fact, have a committee process. The same is true with a committee and the same is true with something called a conference committee. There's a specific number that has to be addressed in this chamber, and we don't just arbitrarily pick how many members are going to be on Ways and Means, or how many are in Commerce and Economic Development, or Judiciary. We have a set number established in the rules of this body. To do anything other than that is a dictatorial operation, a tyranny, something that goes well beyond a fair, deliberative process, and I think--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, clearly Representative Nelson is impugning your motives and the rest of us. I find it interesting, Mr. Speaker--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "I believe the rules call for the fact that when someone demands a point of order, he state his point of order rather than give a speech."

The Speaker: "I would like to rule that Representative Nelson's point of order is not well taken and ask him if he has a name to submit for the conference committee."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, should there be a conference committee established by something like Joint Rules, could you advise the body under which rules and how a conference committee will act; how the report will be made, and how many signatures would be necessary, and how a Free Conference Committee would be--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, precedent has already been established in this House. In 1975, we didn't have any joint rules, but we worked out a majority that Reed's calls for so we have established precedence. I would say the conference would be appointed according to what was done in prior years and I'm sure this is the intention. It's perfectly clear that when it's set forth by precedence, by Journal--" all you have to do is look in the Journals and how it was set in 1975--and you will find out the precedent that was established."

The Speaker: "Representative O'Brien, the issue at hand is one that is a different set of circumstances than in 1975, so your point is not well taken."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, I think 1975 rules were extremely good, and I would think it would be informative if you would advise this body of those particular rules in 1975 on the joint activity of the conference. I agree with Representative O'Brien. He is absolutely right, and I believe it was Speaker Sawyer who initiated that particular arrangement at that time, and I would hope that, perhaps, we could proceed under something of the same kind. I would like to know, Mr. Speaker, should a conference committee be formed, how many signatures would be necessary to provide the conference report?"

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, I call to your attention Rule 243 and 244, 'Action of Conference Committee,' which explain that very well."

Mr. G. Nelson: "I would remind the Speaker that you had previously mentioned that we would go by virtue of the traditions established in this body, and the traditions have never indicated that a simple majority would be necessary. Is that now the rule of the Senate and the House?"

The Speaker: "What it says, Representative Nelson, is the majority of the representatives of each house--that's what's in Reed's."

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, looking back on the traditional approach, I would reference the Speaker's attention to Rule 6 of the Joint Rules of 1981-82, which effectively indicated that in the event the members of the conference committee cannot agree on a request for a Free Conference Committee, a majority of the conference committee members of each house may report back from the conference committee, and then, I'm led to believe, that would go to Free Conference. Would you advise this body, Mr. Speaker, of how the Free Conference Committee would operate?"

The Speaker: "We sincerely hope that we don't have to go to Free Conference. We will be able to rule on that matter when it is before us, if it ever is."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, is it my understanding that we are using Reed's Parliamentary Rules?"

The Speaker: "When we don't have the joint rules before us, we are going to deal with all of Reed's Parliamentary Rules which apply to the particular situation."

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, the book you are referring to says, 'Free conference is the only one known to our parliamentary law.' Does this mean that any conference we take, then, will be a Free Conference?"

The Speaker: "The Speaker has already indicated that we are not there yet and may never be there. The question the Speaker has directed to Representative Nelson is to name his appointee."

Mr. Nelson G: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to name the following forty-four members to the conference committee: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Brough--"

The Speaker: "You are out of order, Representative Nelson. I assume the first name you mentioned is the one you wish to have and the others are a support staff?"

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, I believe that would be incorrect again and I think, at this point, it is not proper for us to try and guess what the rules are on how many members there will be. At this point in time, Mr. Speaker, I would respectfully request that we bring the joint rules out here so that this body can be deliberative and open and carry out the due process that I think is beholding of the tradition of

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, at what point during the last session were the Joint Rules adopted?"

The Speaker: "My recollection was that it was February 24, 1981. Representative Heck."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, February 16, 1983.

WAYNE EHLERS, Speaker

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Thursday, February 17, 1983

The House was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative McDonald, who was excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages DeAnne Pearce and Lee Belas. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Howard Caesar, Minister of the Unity Church of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

MOTION

Mr. G. Nelson moved that the House adhere to its position with regard to the amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258.

The Speaker: "We don't have the bill before us, Representative Nelson. We will receive a message from the Senate which deals with its action with what we have sent, and for that reason, your motion is out of order."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, is Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3258 as amended in front of this body, or has it been sent to the Senate with the message asking for a conference?"

The Speaker: "The bill is in our possession; the message, however, is in the Senate and we are not in the proper order of business to make the motion which you made."

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, on which order of the day would that motion be proper other than at a time when a message has been received from the Senate?"

The Speaker: "The eighth order."

MOTION

Mr. G. Nelson moved that the House advance to the eighth order of business.

Mr. G. Nelson spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, according to Rule 15 it says, 'Messages from the governor or senate or any communication from any state officer may be read at any time.' My point of parliamentary inquiry is, why can action on this be only on eighth order when you can read in the message at any time?"

The Speaker: "We don't have a message before us, so there is nothing to make the motion on. The only order of business, therefore, where one could make the motion would be on the eighth order according to Rule 15(B)."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, it appears that we are divided. You said just a moment ago that you had the bill here, but we have a message over there. It seems to me that, somehow, they have to be tied together and my point is: How can we act on a bill when it has a message that deals with that bill over in the Senate unless we receive what the Senate has to say? I wonder how we can act on a bill unless the Senate acts one way or the other on the message?"

The Speaker: "We don't believe we can, Representative Hastings, but apparently Representative Nelson believes we can since he wants to get to the eighth order of business to make a motion on something. We agree with you."

Mr. Heck spoke against the motion.

Mr. Barrett demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House advance to the eighth order of business, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 43.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 54.

Allowing specified hospitals and school districts to form self-insurance groups.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives R. King and Clayton spoke in favor of passage of the bill and Mr. Lux spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Lux.

Mr. Lux: "Representative King, this bill requires that the Department of Labor and Industries adopt rules governing the formation of these self-insured groups for hospitals. This allows, as I understand it, the Department to require that the group be of a certain size and have a certain amount of assets. As I understand it, there are only about five or eight public hospitals out there. Would the Department be able to set the requirements to determine whether or not this would be a large enough group to self-insure? Would it have the power and the authority to do that?"

Mr. R. King: "I think the Department has the authority to set reasonable standards to make the group sufficiently large enough to meet the same standards that an individual hospital would under the existing system. I think, if the same restrictions or requirements are imposed, it would be called reasonable. That would be the million dollars and the other requirements that are in the other law. If they went much beyond that, it might be challenged in terms of legislative intent, and the intent of this legislature would be that the fund would be large enough to insure that injured workers would receive what is entitled to them over the period of their lifetime."

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

February 17, 1983

Mr. Speaker:

The President has signed:

HOUSE BILL NO. 61,

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has granted the request of the House for a conference on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3258, and the following conferees have been appointed: Senators McDermott, Gaspard, Hayner.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREE

The Speaker announced the appointment of Representative G. Nelson to the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, historical precedents in the House and under Reed's Rules of Order, have allowed for two types of conference committees; namely, what I will call simply a conference committee where the conferees would only act on the amendments and disputes that are within the amendments. Then we had the Free Conference Committee where the conferees could add, delete or even change language and report back to the House by a super majority. My point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker, is which conference are we going to act under with this conference?"

The Speaker: "I'm somewhat confused by your reference to precedent and a super majority. Be that aside, we believe that we are in a posture, under Reed's Rules, of being in conference under chapter 15."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Under chapter 15, Mr. Speaker, I believe it was yesterday that you referenced Reed's 243, and you mentioned that you were in conference, and I refer you to the last sentence of the first paragraph which says: 'It often happens that several conferences are had before an agreement is reached.' My question relates to my first point regarding conferences. Is the conference we are going to have the one that can simply add or delete on the amendments only, the one that I called a Conference Committee, which of course we've had here in historical precedents in this House before, or is it going to be the Free Conference?"

The Speaker: "A conference committee which was appointed tonight."

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, then it will be the Conference Committee and not Free Conference? Is that correct?"

Mr. Speaker: "As of right now, that is correct."

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, I wonder, then, what are the powers of this Conference Committee? Is it the historical precedents that we have had in the House in the past?"

The Speaker: "The Conference Committee generally would have the powers as outlined under Reed's 241."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, let me go a little further. In Reed's 242, the Free Conference Committee, although you have outlined that it is in 241, there is a section there that says: 'This method of conference is the only one known to our parliamentary law, at least it is the only one now in practice. When two legislative bodies in this country have a conference, it is a free conference.' I assume, sometime down the line, we will be getting a Free Conference Committee. I'm wondering if we will be operating then on the second half of the first paragraph which says: 'Instead of being confined to reasons adopted by either of the Houses, each member may present his own. A conference may therefore be a free conference though each House may have instructed its members and limited them to the terms of agreement.' That is my point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker: "Well, Representative McDonald, as I referred to Representative Hastings some time ago, we are already in the mode of a conference committee, not a Free Conference Committee, which you are citing in 242. I don't assume we are necessarily ever going to get to a Free Conference. The conferees may meet and resolve their differences and may never have to come back and ask for powers of Free Conference. Until they have had a chance to meet and discuss their differences and so forth, we'll never know."

Mr. McDonald: "If we do get to a point of Free Conference, then we have a further inquiry to get this tacked down a little more clearly. In Reed's 240, which you have referenced, it says, 'If, for example, three are appointed by each house, two should represent the majority in each house and one the minority.' This is referring to the total number of people on this committee. I assume we are operating under this. Is that what we are operating under?"

The Speaker: "Well, for one thing, the Speaker never did reference Reed's 240, but it does say, 'If, for example...' and that's all it is--an example in 240--'as far as possible,' and so forth. We'll do as much as we possibly can, but I don't see the citation there. I don't understand it; I didn't cite 240."

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, you did cite chapter 15, and that's the only reference that we've been able to find in all of chapter 15, which addresses how the

The Speaker: "Citing Reed's 240, yesterday the House appointed two conferees and now the Senate has agreed to three conferees also. We then appointed Representative Gary Nelson to that conference. If either body were to change that, of course, we would reexamine that. For example, the Senate would have five, we would have five; but the decision that has been made, at least at this point, between the two bodies is that we have as conferees three from the House and three from the Senate, two from the majority party in each House and one from the minority party."

Mr. McDonald: "We're trying to go through uncharted waters together. Further, in 244, from the way you answered Representative Hastings, it was unclear to me exactly how we are going to operate as far as the voting is concerned, but I guess in 244, starting on the second line, '...must be in writing and signed by those agreeing thereto, and must have the signatures of a majority of the representatives of each House.' I assume that must be what we are operating under."

The Speaker: "Would you repeat your point please?"

Mr. McDonald: "We're struggling with how many people it's going to take to report this bill out. It says on the second line, '...and signed by those agreeing thereto, and must have the signatures of a majority of the representatives of each House.' Is that what we are operating under?"

The Speaker: "The way it is interpreted is that two Senators and two House members must sign the report."

Mr. McDonald: "Further point of parliamentary inquiry: If then, we do revert back to 242, a Free Conference Committee Report, Mr. Speaker, how many people would we be talking about reporting that amendment out?"

The Speaker: "We don't know at this point, because, hopefully, we'll never get to Free Conference but if we do, we'll be pleased to deal with that matter at that time, Representative McDonald. Perhaps the conferees will agree and we won't have to deal with that."

Mr. McDonald: "I guess I'm still confused about this, because if we are operating under chapter 15, it clearly states in here under 242, which I understand is not recognized this far, 'This method of conference is the only one known to our parliamentary law....' It seems that if we are operating under Reed's Rules, a Free Conference is the only one we should operate under."

The Speaker: "Is it your position that the mode in which we now are is the one of Free Conference? Is that what you are saying?"

Mr. McDonald: "I'm just trying to understand the rulings. If we are under Reed's Rules, then it seems to me that would lead us in that direction. Again, we are in uncharted waters, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker: "Last night the Speaker ruled that we were in conference and, then, possibly we would go to Free Conference in the future. If I understand what your point is, if there is no objection, I would rule that we are in Free Conference if that is your point."

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, don't we need a motion to go into Free Conference?"

The Speaker: "That's what the Speaker thought, but that's why I didn't understand your range of questions. It appears to the Speaker that you are suggesting we are under a mode of Free Conference, and we're not objecting to that. I'll be pleased to rule that way, but otherwise, we must go through the process of conference before we get to a motion to ask for Free Conference."

Mr. McDonald: "I'm certainly satisfied with your process, but we're just trying to get it packed in. One final question: If we do go into Free Conference, Rule 26 applies?"

The Speaker: "That would be correct."

Representative Todd appeared at the bar of the House.

MOTIONS

Mr. G. Nelson moved that the rules be suspended and that the Conference Committee be open to the public and to the news media for consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258, notwithstanding Reed's Rule 243.

Mr. G. Nelson spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Heck demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the Conference Committee's consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 be open to the public and the news media, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McDonald, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Fuhrman, Patrick - 2.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, what we've done here tonight, I think, needs some explanation. What we've done is something future legislators may look upon and wonder why we did it. We have broken a precedent that I think may come back to haunt all of us because--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, Representative Hastings is making a speech about the process here this evening and not making a point of personal privilege."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, under questions of privilege, Rule 178, going down to the fifth line, it says--talking about points of personal privilege, it talks about '...rights of the House collectively, its safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings.' It seems to me that Representative Hastings was certainly within the bounds of that rule."

The Speaker: "Representative Hastings, will it be short?"

Mr. Hastings: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. What we have done now is to set a precedent without Joint Rules and specifically, it's to appoint a free conference and to determine the number of votes it takes to report out of the conference committee. As I pointed out earlier, in my points of parliamentary inquiry, the House had the precedent in history of having four votes to pass out a conference report and a super majority, or five votes, to pass out a Free Conference Committee Report. What we have done tonight is set the precedent that hereafter a Free Conference Report can be passed out by only four votes. I would argue that is not good from the standpoint of legislating, because if you take that to the extreme, four people could make all the decisions in the House and the minority would be completely shut out. That's the precedent we are setting here by allowing this to go on, and I rise to this point of personal privilege simply to let you know what you are doing by condoning this. The games were played over here that go a lot further than just this bill. You ought to know that and that's the reason for my point."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Now that we have established the open government type of motion relative to the conference committee, would you be kind enough to advise this body when the conference committee will meet--hopefully, in the daylight hours--and what time and where, so that the members and the public and the news media will be able to witness the activity of this particular committee?"

The Speaker: "The Speaker has been so busy the last forty-five minutes answering points of parliamentary inquiry that he has been unable to get to his office and contact the conferees to find out when it's convenient for them to get together. Perhaps sometime tonight that will be accomplished. At this point, I've been terribly busy on the rostrum."

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, could you advise the body who the Chairman of the Committee is?"

The Speaker: "No."

Mr. G. Nelson: "Would you advise this body how the Chairman of the conference committee is selected?"

The Speaker: "I'm afraid I don't know the answer to that. I haven't studied the rules. Do you have a suggestion?"

Mr. G. Nelson: "I accept the chairmanship, Mr. Speaker. In that we wanted this open government opportunity, I willingly accept and I thank you."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House dispensed with further business under the Call of the House.

MOTION

Mr. G. Nelson moved that House Rule 26 be suspended for the purpose of consideration of the conference Committee report on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258.

Representatives G. Nelson and Heck spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House was adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, February 18, 1983.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

February 18, 1983

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3258, modifying taxes ('81-'83 Biennium), have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference.

Senators McDermott, Gaspard; Representatives Grimm, Sommers.

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee and grant the request of the committee for Free Conference.

Mr. Heck spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, now that the motion has been made to go into the mode of Free Conference, my point of parliamentary inquiry is that historically, in Free Conference, the conference report is accompanied by papers that will say what the Free Conference report will do. My point is: Is it the intent of this report to establish a new precedent whereby a Free Conference can be called without papers?"

The Speaker: "At this point we are operating under Reed's Rules rather than the Joint Rules and it is my understanding that the Conference Committee report is in place on each member's desk."

Mr. Hastings: "Since Reed's is unclear on exactly whether or not this report ought to be with or without papers, and the fact that we have historical precedent, is it the intention that this is a precedent that we would present the Conference report without the papers?"

The Speaker: "We're trying to give as much information to as many people as we can. We feel that we have done this by putting it on the members' desks."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, we are referring to Reed's 241. The last sentence says: 'While a free conference was being had neither House remained in session.' Is it the intention of the Speaker that the Houses adjourn so the Free Conference can meet?"

The Speaker: "You are referring to Reed's Rule 241, and really, you should be reading Reed's 242 which reads, 'With us the conference committee can sit during the session of both Houses.'"

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. speaker, if we are to go back to the rulings you have made the past few days, we are accepting that when Reed's says 'conference,' Reed's means the type of conference that was held this morning. When Reed's says 'Free Conference,' Reed's means Free Conference of the type we are referring to now. Would it then be possible for you to rule, please, where the word 'conference' is used in the context you were just referring to, it says: 'The conference committee can sit during the session of both Houses.' However, where it says 'Free Conference' it says neither House may remain in session. I think we need clarification."

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, the Speaker has ruled, and will continue to rule, that what we are talking about is Free Conference. Your point is not well taken."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, I just noticed at the bottom of this report of the Conference Committee that there are only four signatures. That's insufficient to ask for the powers of Free Conference if we are going by tradition. I'm wondering how you rule on that? I guess I am citing in the Joint Rules of 1981, the Rule 8."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker will rule that the majority in both the conference and Free Conference, in Rule 244, '...must have the signatures of a majority of the representatives of each House.' Under Reed's Rules, since we do not have Joint Rules, the Speaker would rule, in this case, that in the case of conference or Free Conference, this would apply."

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, then that means a departure from the past. It will be four instead of five signatures, and since there are four members of the majority party, there could be a situation in which the minority party would have absolutely no voice in this conference report. Is that about right?"

The Speaker: "I don't know how it's going to turn out, Representative McDonald."

The motion by Representative Heck that the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 be granted the powers of Free Conference was carried.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. B. Williams: "I rise under point of personal privilege, Reed's Rule 178, 179 and 180. I rise to my feet today, very sad, very heavy-hearted over this system which we are following. I'm not rising as a Republican, and those of you who have seen the events of the last hour are disturbed that I am making my point and say, 'Hey, just keep your cool; you can get a shot in later.' I'm not looking for a political shot. I have a grave concern over the dignity and the integrity of the legislative procedure. Ladies and gentlemen of the body, I am so concerned that if I thought for one minute my resignation might arouse the body to realize what is going on at the present time, I would do so. My concern is over the issue which has been going on for the past year, but more importantly, by how we have been treating parliamentary procedure and how we've been acting as a constitutionally elected body. Although at times I feel bad that I'm in the minority, and I don't have much say, I recognize that; but I also recognize that the minority does have some rights guaranteed to it by the Constitution, guaranteed to it by past practices.

"As I mentioned, my concern is over what has been happening in the body. The tremendous waste of time as we've gathered and recessed and waited; the fact that we've been here nearly one week since we passed the last revenue bill without any public hearings, without any opportunity to express our feelings on the issue. It concerns me that there are no rules before us as far as how conference committees run; that we go through countless parliamentary procedures trying to find out what the rules are. It concerns me that last night I stayed up and read the Report of the Conference Committee, which has not yet met, came in this morning and found out that the committee, which had not yet met, had changed the report overnight, and in some of the areas there were larger tax increases and in some areas, smaller tax increases than the package I had looked at after midnight last night.

"Today you saw what concerns me more than anything else. I hadn't planned to speak on it because I didn't know it would occur. You saw an attempt to shut up a member of the body because a member of the other party didn't know what he was going to say. If that ever occurs in the body again, I am shocked beyond belief. I was not recognized by the Speaker because my leadership was not here, and I had not checked in advance with them over what I would say. You saw me on my feet, and you saw the House go at recess because people wanted to inquire over what Bob Williams was going to say when he stood up.

"We are State Representatives, and I was told by some of my staff, 'Oh Bob, just be quiet, you can get a political shot in later.' I don't want a political shot. I want us to realize the impact of what we are doing, because maybe today we are doing it over this issue to the minority, a Republican; tomorrow we could do it to the farmer; another day we could do it to someone else, if we so chose. Many of us campaigned on the theme that bipartisan solutions were needed to solve the pressing problems, and I was proud of Representative Sommers and of the then-Representative Thompson and Representative McDonald, for working together in the interim before we knew what party would be in control and after the election, before we knew who would chair the Ways and Means Committee on looking at alternatives for the budget. We recognized that we probably would have to work together to come up with some kind of a compromise, and we said we supported open government and, yet, we've seen the process completely thrown out. We've seen that today the pressing issue before the State of Washington is the supplemental revenue package. I've mentioned to your caucus chairman several times -- and sometimes I kid around a lot, so she might think I'm kidding -- that I would like to come into your caucus on that side of the aisle (my caucus is tired of me) because I think that within a few minutes, we could reach agreement on the supplemental revenue package. If you had it laid out before you like it is in one of the charts right now, you would see that the House Democrat revenue proposal raises $187.5 million between now and the end of June; the Senate Democrat package raises $195.5 million, a difference of only $8 million, or a difference of one-tenth of one percent of the biennial budget, when there is a surplus of over $40 million. I think, as hard as that vote may be for some of us, we could quickly reach a solution between now and the end of the fiscal year. I think the real challenge before us is to look at what we're doing to parliamentary procedure. Look at what we're doing to what were the rights of the minority and allow open government. Allow us to participate. Today the citizens of my legislative district are looking at increased taxation without any type of representation. I'm unable to get up and to state what the effects will be in my district in an open public hearing. For that I urge you to consider the effect of what is going on."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Moon: "I've always been one who has sponsored the rights of the minorities and the rights of the oppressed. I sat through, the other night, an all-time record with the continuing session, and during all this delay, there was never an attempt to develop and adopt Joint Rules. I think, had this been attempted, maybe you wouldn't have had to go through all these things you're complaining about. I think sometimes we have to get to the key issues and the key points. I hope shortly after this thing is over, both sides will get together and develop some joint rules, so that we have some form to work under, rather than having to resort to Reed's Rules and not know for sure what the system is that we are working under. I hope you will devote some time and develop some joint rules, and not spend so much time on long speeches that go on and on through the night."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. G. Nelson: "I feel as though my motives and the motives of others who sponsored House Concurrent Resolution No. 11 that was introduced at the beginning of this week to establish Joint Rules, have been impugned. There was not a serious attempt to bring a sequence of actions that would have, in fact, caused us to come to a conclusion much earlier than Friday, the 18th of February. I feel the previous speaker, who voted against even considering those joint rules, should be corrected and the record should be clear as to our intent to cooperate and to get this process concluded in the best possible fashion. At the same time, I would like the body to know that we'll, I believe on both sides of the aisle, respect the rights and the privileges of those who speak to let their minds be known as to the things they are very concerned about that are going to be addressed by this legislature."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Heck: "I think we are now at a point in time where the rubber meets the road. There have been several questionable remarks made about the motives of others and considerable discussions here about this process. I think that when you put all of it in context as to what this legislature is valiantly struggling with, and that is the single largest fiscal crisis in the history of this state, an impoverished infant which we found on our doorstep on November 3rd, we have tried at every turn to deal with this thing in a straightforward step-up-to-it-and-solve-it fashion. I find it somewhat hard to believe that there would be criticism of the process because of the lack of joint rules, when two years ago at this point we hadn't yet adopted them. Traditionally, we do not have joint rules in the House until sometime in February or March; it's not unusual. It takes time to negotiate those differences with the Senate, and after what we did to improve the standing rules of this House--nobody here has mentioned that the gag rule was eliminated. If we had been operating under the rules of 1981-83, we would not have sat here for sixteen hours the other night; instead, we showed a great deal of tolerance and patience to allow you to engage in that filibuster. If we had engaged in that debate under the rules in 1981-83---

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, at this time there are people who are speaking who are indicating that we filibustered, and are, in fact, impugning the activities of this body during the course of establishing amendments that would clarify what was in a major tax bill that goes far beyond the immediate revenue shortfall for this biennium. I feel that when we allow members to speak in a distorted fashion and where they are now indicating something that isn't a fact, and especially using derogatory inferences as that of 'filibuster'--which was not the case--then it deludes the activities were of those members who were proposing amendments during that long session. I would ask the Speaker to maintain control over such people, who might impugn those of us who were very interested in getting a measure out of this body."

The Speaker: "If the Speaker had maintained control, he would have done it when Representative Williams spoke. Please, Representative Heck, stick to your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Nelson, the word is 'implication,' not 'inference.' I think some sincerity, by which we can measure your activity the other night, is measured more by the absence of any alternatives to the $145 to $185 million problem. At no point in time have we seen a comprehensive budget and revenue package which you would support. As Representative Taylor used to say, years ago, 'Where is your solution?' In addition to the one hundred amendments, each of which dealt---

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, under Rule 178, Question of Privilege, it talks about the 'safety, dignity and integrity of its proceedings.' It also mentions that you cannot be going on to other measures. I think Representative Heck is straying far afield in his remarks."

The Speaker: "He is; he's fallen into the tradition of the last three speakers. Would you sum up please, Representative Heck."

Mr. Heck: "I think the main reason why I chose to ask for a point of personal privilege is to clarify the incident that occurred this morning that has resulted in all this long debate. Speaker Ehlers, out of courtesy to the members of the Republican leadership, did not recognize Representative Williams because of leadership's absence from the Chamber in meeting with Governor Spellman. He certainly agreed that would occur in a timely fashion. Whether it was earlier or later did not warrant the kind of outrageous statements that we've heard today. It was all understood and a matter of courtesy that the thing developed as it did."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. An excise tax is imposed for the privilege of using a vessel for which registration is required under chapter 88, RCW (sections 14 through 22 of this act), except vessels covered by a dealer's registration number under this chapter. The annual amount of the excise tax is one percent of fair market value, as determined under this chapter, or five dollars, whichever is greater.

The excise tax upon a vessel registered for the first time in this state shall be imposed for a twelve-month period, including the month in which the vessel is registered, unless the director of licensing extends or diminishes vessel registration periods for the purpose of staggered renewal periods under section 18 of this act. A vessel is registered for the first time in this state when the vessel was not registered in this state for the immediately preceding registration year, or when the vessel was registered in another jurisdiction for the immediately preceding year. The excise tax on vessels required to be registered in this state on the effective date of this section shall be paid by June 30, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The excise tax imposed under this chapter is due and payable to the department of licensing or its agents at the time of registration of a vessel. The department of licensing shall not issue or renew a registration for a vessel until the tax is paid in full.

The excise tax collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department of revenue shall prepare at least once each year a depreciation schedule for use in the determination of fair market value for the purposes of this chapter. The schedule shall be based upon information available to the department of revenue pertaining to the current fair market value of vessels. The fair market value of a vessel for the purposes of this chapter shall be based on the most recent purchase price depreciated according to the year of the most recent purchase of the vessel. The most recent purchase price is the consideration, whether money, credit, rights, or other property expressed in terms of money, paid or given or contracted to be paid or given by the purchaser to the seller for the vessel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) If a vessel has been acquired by lease or gift, or the most recent purchase price of a vessel is not known to the owner, the department of revenue shall appraise the vessel before registration.

(2) If after registration the department of revenue determines that the purchase price stated by the owner is not a reasonable representation of the true fair market value of a vessel at the time of purchase, the department of revenue shall appraise the vessel.

(3) If a vessel is homemade, the owner shall make a notarized declaration of fair market value. The fair market value of the vessel for the purposes of this chapter shall be the declared value, unless after registration the department of revenue determines that the declared value is not a reasonable representation of the true fair market value of the vessel in which case the department of revenue shall appraise the vessel.

(4) If the department of revenue appraises a vessel, the fair market value of the vessel for the purposes of this chapter shall be the appraised value. If the vessel has been registered before appraisal, the department of revenue shall refund any overpayment of tax to the owner or notify the owner of any additional tax due. The owner shall pay any additional tax due within thirty days after notification by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Any vessel owner disputing an appraised value under section 12 of this act may petition for a conference with the department as provided under RCW 82.32.160, or for reduction of the tax due as provided under RCW 82.32.170.

(2) Any vessel owner having received a notice of denial of a petition or a notice of determination made for the owner's vessel under RCW 82.32.160 or 82.32.170 may appeal to the board of tax appeals as provided under RCW 82.03.190. In deciding a case appealed under this section, the board of tax appeals may require an independent appraisal of the vessel. The cost of the independent appraisal shall be apportioned between the department and the vessel owner as provided by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Vessel" means every watercraft used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water, other than a seaplane.

(2) "Owner" means a person who has a lawful right to possession of a vessel by purchase, exchange, gift, lease, inheritance, or legal action whether or not the vessel is subject to a security interest.

(3) "Dealer" means a person, partnership, association, or corporation engaged in the business of selling vessels at wholesale or retail in this state.

(4) "Department" means the department of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Except as provided in this chapter, no person may own or operate any vessel on the waters of this state unless the vessel has been registered and displays a registration number and a valid decal in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Vessel registration is required under this chapter except for the following:

(1) Vessels owned and operated by the United States, another state, or a political subdivision thereof;

(2) Vessels owned and operated by this state, or by any municipality or political subdivision thereof;

(3) Vessels owned by a resident of a country other than the United States or Canada if the vessel is not physically located upon the waters of this state for a period of more than sixty days;

(4) Vessels owned by a resident of another state or a Canadian province if the vessel is registered in accordance with the laws of the state or province in which the owner resides, but only to the extent that a similar exemption or privilege is granted under the laws of that state or province for vessels registered in this state: PROVIDED, That any vessel which is validly registered in another state or a Canadian province and which is physically located in this state for a period of more than sixty days is subject to registration under this chapter;

(5) Vessels used as a ship's tender or lifeboat;

(6) Vessels under sixteen feet in length or whose primary propulsion is human power;

(7) Vessels which are temporarily in this state undergoing repair or alteration and vessels which are designed and used exclusively for racing;

(8) Vessels used exclusively for commercial fishing purposes; and

(9) Vessels which have or are required to have a valid marine document as a vessel of the United States and which are primarily engaged in commerce.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The department shall provide for the issuance of vessel registrations and may appoint agents for collecting fees and issuing registration numbers and decals. Fees for vessel registrations collected by the director shall be deposited in the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Application for a vessel registration shall be made to the department or its authorized agent in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. The application shall state the name and address of each owner of the vessel and such other information as may be required by the department, shall be signed by at least one owner, and shall be accompanied by a vessel registration fee of six dollars per year and the excise tax imposed under chapter 82.____ RCW (sections 9 through 13 of this act). Any fees required for licensing agents under RCW 46.01.140 shall be in addition to the six-dollar annual registration fee.

Upon receipt of the application and the registration fee, the department shall assign a registration number and issue a decal for each vessel. The registration number and decal shall be affixed to the vessel in a manner prescribed by the department. A valid decal affixed as prescribed shall indicate compliance with the annual registration requirements of this chapter.

The vessel registrations and decals are valid for a period of one year, except that the director of licensing may extend or diminish vessel registration periods, and the decals therefor, for the purpose of staggered renewal periods. For registration periods of more or less than one year, the department may collect prorated annual registration fees and excise taxes based upon the number of months in the registration period. Vessel registrations are renewable every year in a manner prescribed by the department upon payment of the vessel registration fee and excise tax. Upon renewing a vessel registration, the department shall issue a new decal to be affixed as prescribed by the department.

A person acquiring a vessel from a dealer or a vessel already validly registered under this chapter shall, within fifteen days of the acquisition or purchase of the vessel, apply to the department or its authorized agent for transfer of the vessel registration, and the application shall be accompanied by a transfer fee of one dollar.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. (1) Each dealer of vessels in this state shall register with the department in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. Upon receipt of a dealer's application for registration and the registration fee provided in subsection (2) of this section, the dealer shall be registered and a registration number assigned.

(2) The registration fee for dealers shall be twenty-five dollars per year, and the fee shall cover all vessels owned by the dealer for sale and not rented on a regular commercial basis by the dealer. Rented vessels shall be registered separately under sections 15 through 18 of this act.

(3) Dealer registration numbers are nontransferable.

(4) Section 15 of this act does not apply to any dealer or employee or prospective customer of the dealer with respect to any vessel covered by the dealer's registration number and used for a business purpose of the dealer, such as a demonstration vessel or for purposes of testing or making repairs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. The department may adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Any person charged with the enforcement of this chapter may request for inspection the certificate of registration from any vessel owner or operator to ascertain the legal and registered ownership of such vessel. Failure to provide such certificate for inspection upon the request of any person charged with enforcement of this chapter constitutes a violation of this chapter and subjects the person requested to produce such document to the penalties provided by section 22 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. (1) A violation of this chapter is a misdemeanor punishable only by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars per vessel for the first violation. Subsequent violations in the same year are subject to the following fines:

(a) For the second violation, a fine of two hundred dollars per vessel;

(b) For the third and successive violations, a fine of four hundred dollars per vessel.

(2) Moneys collected under this section shall be used by the jurisdiction collecting the fine exclusively for law enforcement purposes.

(3) All law enforcement officers shall have the authority to enforce this chapter within their respective jurisdictions.

Sec. 23. Section 84.36.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.36.080 are each amended to read as follows:

All ships and vessels (~~taxable in the state of Washington, engaged in interstate commerce, foreign commerce or commerce between ports of the state of Washington and the high seas;~~) which are exempt from excise tax under subsections (8) and (9) of section 16 of this 1983 act shall be and are hereby made exempt from all ad valorem taxes, except taxes levied for any state purpose.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. Property taxes paid for a vessel for 1983 shall be allowed as a credit against tax due under section 9 of this act for the same vessel.

An annual excise tax is hereby imposed for the privilege of using any aircraft in the state. A current certificate of air worthiness with a current inspection date from the appropriate federal agency and/or the purchase of aviation fuel shall constitute the necessary evidence of aircraft use or intended use. The tax shall be collected for each calendar year by the director of licensing, and must be paid during the month of January, except that the tax for 1983 is due on the effective date of this 1983 section. No additional tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon any aircraft upon the transfer of ownership thereof, if the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such aircraft has already been paid for the year in which transfer of ownership occurs. ~~((A penalty of five dollars shall be levied against all aircraft not timely registered))~~ A violation of this chapter is a misdemeanor punishable as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 28. Section 82.48.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 82.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

An aircraft shall be deemed registered for the first time in this state when such aircraft was not previously registered by this state for the year immediately preceding the year in which application for registration is made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is added to chapter 82.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After consultation with the department of licensing, the department of revenue shall prepare at least once each year a schedule for use in the collection of the excise tax imposed under this chapter. Aircraft shall be classified into a convenient number of classes on the basis of price, make, type, year of manufacture, or any other reasonable basis, and the rate of tax prescribed in RCW 82.48.030 shall be applied to the value of aircraft within the classes as thus determined. In determining fair market value, the department of revenue may use any guidebook, report, or compendium of recognized standing in the aircraft industry. The schedule shall show, so far as possible, the amount of excise tax for aircraft within each class and shall sufficiently describe the aircraft included within each class to enable the department of licensing and its agents to ascertain readily the amount of tax applicable to any particular aircraft.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 82.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Grimm, for the purpose of clarifying section 6, regarding limitation of retail sales in border counties, and for the use of the Department of Revenue could you explain how retailers are to determine the correct place of sale?"

Mr. Grimm: "For the purpose of becoming the location of a retail sale for local sales tax purposes, the Department of Revenue has adopted rules under the local sales tax, Revised Code of Washington 82.14.020. It is the intent of the bill that these same rules will be used to determine the place of sales for border towns and counties."

Representatives Cantu, Vander Stoep, Fiske and B. Williams spoke against the motion, and Mr. Grimm spoke again in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Walk.

Mr. Walk: "Representative Grimm, regarding the buy-back of the twenty-fifth month, I've heard it said here that it's an appropriation item as such. Could you clarify that for me? Is the Conference Committee Report, through an appropriation, trying to buy back the twenty-fifth month, or is it some other means?"

Mr. Grimm: "Representative Walk, I apologize for any confusion that may have occurred on this question. The easiest thing to do is to refer to the spread sheet you have. As you can see when you add up all the tax increases, it shows a proposed 1983-85 revenue total of $8,556,500,000. Immediately below that it says the twenty-fifth month buy-back. The important thing to note is that the buy-back is in parentheses. It seems to connote an appropriation and in the past (and I apologize for any incorrect implication I've given), that this entails an appropriation. It does not. We are actually cutting the Senate's revenue proposal by $293.4 million, so the taxes raised in the next biennium are only $8,263,100,000, not $8,556,500,000. There will be no appropriation for the twenty-fifth month. It will not appear in the budget that's coming back to us from the Senate, and it will not appear in the biennial budget. The twenty-fifth month--all we're doing is saying that instead of counting revenue derived from the next biennium through August 20, of 1985, we will say 'no,' that revenue will not accrue to us in the next biennium; it cannot be used for the development of any budget. We will count the revenue only through July 10, generally accepted accounting procedures. It is not an appropriation. It is simply a revenue deduct because you will not be counting that revenue in the current biennium. Now--and I think this is what caused the humor a moment ago--that revenue will be raised, but it will not be counted in the '83-'85 biennium; it will be counted in the '85-'87 biennium. It does get rid of the gimmick; it says that it is going to be raised in the biennium in which it occurs. That's what the twenty-fifth month buy-back is."

Representative Sommers spoke in favor of the motion and Representatives Berozoff, Taylor, Brough, Isaacson and Long spoke against it.

Mr. Struthers demanded an oral roll call vote on the motion, and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Addison and Barrett spoke against the motion.

SPEAKER'S ADMONITION

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, you have bordered, on a number of occasions, on a violation of our rules. The Speaker has let it go quite long enough. Please be careful with your remarks."

Mr. Barrett continued his remarks against the motion. Representatives Tilly, Patrick, Lewis, Holland and McDonald spoke against the motion, and Mr. Sayan spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 be adopted, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 43; excused, 5.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 as amended by Free Conference Committee.

Representatives Grimm and Heck spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives G. Nelson and Struthers spoke against it.

Mr. Wang demanded an oral roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Appelwick: "Under a point of personal privilege, I must share with the members of the House, and respectfully request the Clerk to insert in the House Journal, my strong and continuing opposition to the sales tax on food, and my strong opposition to an increase in the sales tax while it applies to food. But today, I will cast my vote in favor of the revenue package on ESB 3258 because I feel the impending crisis and disruption of state services, of education, and of the administration of government is a far greater woe to inflict on this state. I dare not risk the failure of the bill or the ensuing cuts, and I encourage other members to join me in signing this bill.

"I express this sentiment for myself and for Representative McClure, specifically, and I am sure others will share our concerns."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 43; excused, 5.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Egger, Fiske, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, Martinis, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Smith, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 43.

Excused: Representatives Bond, Fuhrman, Padden, Silver, West - 5.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3258 as amended by Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Isaacson, Haugen, Nealey and Broback:

On page 2, line 4 after "qualified" insert "After the election to establish the district, such a landowner must own land that is determined to receive benefits from the improvements or proposed improvements by the diking district, before he or she may be an elector"

On page 3, line 35 after "qualified" insert "After the election to establish the district, such a landowner must own land that is determined to receive benefits from the improvements or proposed improvements by the drainage district, before he or she may be an elector"

On page 5, line 36 after "election" insert "which land is determined to receive benefits from the improvements of proposed improvements."

On page 8, line 6 after "qualified" insert "After the election to establish the district, such a landowner must own land that is determined to receive benefits from the improvements or proposed improvements by the diking and drainage district, before he or she may be an elector"

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Isaacson, I know what you are trying to get at here because we had this discussion in the Local Government Committee. Who determines that a landowner will receive benefits or not? What is the mechanism for deciding this person may vote and that person may not?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Again, the language has been carefully constructed to read that after the direction to establish the district, such a landowner must own land that is determined to receive benefits from the improvements or proposed improvements by the diking district. In other words, it is incumbent upon the diking district when it is formed to determine that a landowner lives within that district for which that diking district would apply. It's incumbent upon the commissioners of the district to assure that the landowners own land in the area to be benefited by the diking district."

Mr. Charnley: "So the commission would make that decision if there was an appeal or if the landowner decided he wanted to or didn't want to be included? The commissioners would be the people he would appeal to?"

Mr. Isaacson: "That is correct. The commissioners of that district must make that determination."

Mr. Moon spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

The bill was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

Speaker Pro Tempore John L. O'Brien

"We are assembled here today to pay tribute to lives and services of distinguished former members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington who have passed from among us during the past two years. On behalf of the people of our state, the Forty-Eighth Legislative Session conveys its respect to these deceased legislators who once sat in the Chambers of the House and Senate as we are doing today, answering roll calls on sometimes critical measures, attending committee meetings and, above all else, serving to the best of their abilities to make our state a better and more enjoyable place to live for their constituencies. While they have passed to the Great Beyond, their achievements, records and valued services have been recorded in the Journals of the Senate and House and are acknowledged forever more, a permanent part of the history of the State of Washington. We express our sympathies to the bereaved families and their friends and also share with them on this memorable occasion, the fond and happy memories of these former legislators who served beyond the call of duty and responsibilities, and who truly loved their state. They have left a legacy of dedicated service that will remain always in our hearts. I will now call the roll of former members."

When any application, report, statement, notice, or payment required to be made under the provisions of this chapter has been deposited postpaid in the United States mail properly addressed, it shall be deemed to have been received on the date of mailing. Mr. Pruitt: "I'm not acquainted with the exact rules they may require. I know we gave them the possibility that when there are difficulties--it would seem to me that what we are talking about is: If in the intent of the bill, living with the intent of the bill, they were not able under the intent of the bill to receive the information; that they might find some glitch in this, they might be able to change the rule in order to more nearly fit those requirements. This would be the kind of rule that I would think they would be allowed to change. We did agree in committee that there are some difficulties in receiving those reports in a timely manner. There might have to be, I would think, some changes; but I know they would still be within the intent of this bill."

Engrossed House Bill No. 150, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 152, by Representatives Pruitt, Barnes, Fisch, Miller, Fisher, Long, Zellinsky, Tanner, Sommers, Jacobsen, B. Williams, Kaiser, Armstrong, Ristuben, Wang, Lewis, McMullen, Patrick, Johnson, Isaacson, Burns, Silver, Stratton, Haugen, McDonald, Todd, Moon, Halsan, Hine, Allen, Dellwo, Lux, Holland, Schmidt, D. Nelson, Brekke and Locke Regulating fund-raising activities during legislative sessions.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Pruitt, in section 1 it points out that if you have a recall election in front of you that it would be permissible to raise funds. I'm reminded that we did have a special session during the November period when some of the members had to run because of an open seat. Would they be precluded from certain things during that period?"

Mr. Pruitt: "The legislation, I think, does apply to the open seat and it is not designated in there, so it would apply to the open seat."

Mr. Isaacson: "In other words, a person who was in a special session of the legislature would be precluded from soliciting funds if he was in special session and he had to run for that open seat?"

Mr. Pruitt: "That's correct. It's just like the rest of us during the legislative session or a special session up to the time designated in the bill, which is March through May. That's true, all of us, whether or not it's an open seat, are in the same category in the bill."

Representatives Isaacson and Moon spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Patrick and Barnes spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang: "Representative Pruitt, for purposes of straightening this out one more time here, can a person who is a candidate for an open seat in November for a central election hold a fund raiser during a regular legislative session?"

Mr. Pruitt: "No."

Mr. Wang: "Can that person hold an individual fund raiser during a special session in the period from March through May?"

Mr. Pruitt: "The answer is still 'no.'"

Mr. Wang: "Can that person hold an individual fund raiser at any other time period other than a regular session or a special session during the time frame of March through May?"

Mr. Pruitt: "Yes, and the rest of us can, too."

Mr. Wang spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Pruitt, this bill, the way I understand it, would preclude me from holding a fund raiser the day after it's passed for my own reelection campaign. Were someone to form a political action committee for the reelection of Roger Van Dyken to the state legislature, would that political action committee be precluded from holding that same fund raiser?"

Mr. Pruitt: "It's not at all certain that that could not be done. However, we do state that if you are involved in solicitation or in any way are a part of that, this would be illegal. It does leave that question in mind."

Mr. Van Dyken: "So, if you send the invitations to the Roger Van Dyken political action committee fund raiser, it's okay, as long as I don't sign the invitation?"

Mr. Pruitt: "I would say you would not be a part of that solicitation, but I would be very wary and very careful of that myself, according to this bill."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Could I attend the function?"

Mr. Pruitt: "I would say for me, as I read this bill, I would not attend the function. You, Roger Van Dyken, could choose to if you wish."

Mr. Van Dyken spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "Representative Pruitt, is a legislator who is running for governor barred from raising funds when the lieutenant governor may solicit funds during a session?"

Mr. Pruitt: "Yes, Representative Armstrong, that person would not be able to solicit funds because the law does cover all legislators, no matter what other office they might be running for."

Mr. Armstrong spoke against passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 152, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 6; excused, 1.

Establishing additional requirements for reports of transfers of funds by political candidates or committees.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Pruitt, in as much as each campaign for each reelection to the House is a separate campaign, would transfer of funds from one campaign to the next campaign for the same legislator be construed as to be required to be reported separately under this bill?"

Mr. Pruitt: "It would be construed to be reported in the one given calendar year, from one campaign to another, yes. Any of those funds that were reported within that campaign year, yes, they would need to be reported. They need to be reported now and then only emphasized from one campaign to another campaign."

House Bill No. 111, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 6, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives D. Nelson, Brekke, Vekich, Rust, Patrick, Jacobsen and Lux)

Modifying the definition of suitable work for unemployment compensation purposes.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. D. Nelson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Nelson, in reading through the bill a number of questions come to my mind. What is the definition of 'part time'?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Part time, according to the Department of Employment Security, is any work less than eight hours. It could be seven and one-half hours a day or thirty-eight hours a week or less than that."

Mr. McDonald: "You stated earlier that there was minimal fiscal impact. Is that correct?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "That is by the fiscal impact report done by the Department of Employment Security. If you'll look in your bill analysis, you'll find that's what the estimate is."

Mr. McDonald: "I see that it says they are unable to determine fiscal impact, but it seems to me that under the conditions today there would be substantial impact of some kind. I understand that they can't estimate it at this point."

Mr. D. Nelson: "They have assured me there is no problem. If you read it, they say that it would be difficult to assess and that's true, because we have no good statistics on part-time employees currently in the work force, especially permanent part-time employees. Their best estimate is that the number of people who would fit the conditions in this bill is very small and, hence, the fiscal impact is very slight."

Mr. McDonald: "The thing that strikes me is: What happens in the case of somebody who is working part-time presently, is laid off, a full time job is available, but refuses to take that job even though there is no good reason to do so?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "He would be denied. Under the second condition in the bill, there has to be available part-time work in their field. If there is no available part-time work, then he does not qualify."

Mr. McDonald: "It does say in section 3, 'There exist in the individual's labor market reasonable opportunities for finding part-time work in the individual's occupation.' That still doesn't address the problem, at least in my mind. Those opportunities may exist out there; they may all be filled at that particular time."

Mr. D. Nelson: "That's the same condition that applies to full-time workers. The same condition applies to that person. If they are filled, they can't get work. There's no difference; we're putting it on an equitable basis between full time and part time."

Mr. McDonald spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Dickie.

Mr. Dickie: "Representative Nelson, I would like to support this bill and when I heard you define it, I was very much impressed by it; however, I got to thinking, would a seven-hour day worker working for one hundred eighty-three days a year be classified as one of those people?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Someone working less than eight hours a day is a part-time worker according to the department's definition. To qualify for unemployment compensation, one has to have worked six hundred eighty hours in that base year to qualify."

Mr. Dickie: "So what you are telling me is that an employee who works seven hours a day, one hundred eighty-three days a year would qualify for unemployment compensation?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Not if he is a salaried employee. He would have to also meet the conditions in this bill."

Mr. Dickie: "Would we be talking about classified employees in the school districts?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "I do not believe that is the case."

Mr. Dickie: "This does not apply to classified employees in a school district?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "I would yield to Representative Dick King."

Mr. R. King: "When the department testified in front of the committee, it was said that there are different definitions of what full-time employment would be, depending on the type of job. Classifications vary from one area to another. For other reasons, the bill will not apply to classified employees, but if the person were working less than what was considered to be full time for a classified, which might be less than eight hours a day, I'm not sure how the department would classify that. It's a job-by-job classification."

Representatives Clayton and Struthers spoke against the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative King, this is another unemployment compensation bill where we add to the benefit side. Several weeks ago we had another bill on unemployment compensation which added to the benefit side of the equation and, at the time, I asked you what the majority party was doing about the revenue side of the equation since our unemployment compensation fund is rapidly being depleted. I think your answer was that the Senate was working on it. How's the Senate coming along about doing something about the revenue side?"

Mr. R. King: "I believe there have been several hearings on the subject. So far, they have not increased the rates for employers. It's obvious that, at some time, we are going to have to do that but, perhaps, they will be able to see a way of not doing it until the next session of the legislature."

Representatives R. King and Brekke spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Bond spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative King, during some of the previous discussions it was pointed out that it may not apply to salaried or professional employees. Would it apply to someone working for hourly wages who would work for less than seven hours on a regular basis? To be specific, would it apply to school bus drivers at the end of the school term? Could they, at the end of the school term, claim unemployment compensation to carry them through until the next school term?"

Mr. R. King: "They can do that now unless they have a contract for the following year. School employees immediately would be eligible for unemployment compensation if they didn't have a contract or a letter of agreement. In the condition that they do not have a letter of agreement, they would be eligible under existing law and what this bill might do for them is, if they had been working only part time and could demonstrate that they had a long history of part-time work, it might make them eligible for unemployment compensation while they are only seeking comparable part-time employment. I would think the number involved would be at a minimum."

Mr. D. Nelson spoke again in favor of passage of the bill.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Isaacson, having served prior notice, moved that the House now reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 6 passed the House.

Mr. D. Nelson spoke against the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Nelson, how would this measure affect the seasonal farm workers?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Isaacson, my understanding is that it would not affect seasonal farm workers. Seasonal farm workers are now covered under the law under very strict provisions that require that the employer must employ at least ten employees and that there must be, I believe, $20,000 of salaries paid to those farm workers within a month's period. So there is coverage right now that restricts the ability of farm workers who are seasonal, who move from one employer to another or, putting it another way, the small farms that hire people on a seasonal harvest basis; it restricts the law and does not apply to those workers. This bill would not at all change those strict positions that really limit unemployment compensation to only the permanent workers who work in agriculture."

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Nelson, how would the measure then affect the seasonal processing of those farm products, such as the food processors?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "I think you could simply say that this bill applies to permanent part-time employees. People now work in seasonal employment and are able to attain unemployment benefits -- and many do, many seasonal employees obtain benefits including loggers, fishermen and, I believe, some people who work in the processing of agricultural products. This bill in no way affects those industries because those people now can obtain benefits under the current law."

Mr. Isaacson: "These are the questions, of course, that keep being raised that I think we need to address. The final question would be: Does this open up any form of employment to unemployment compensation that is not covered by present law? In other words, is the fact that they are part-time workers the only fact that we are looking at as to classification of employees, and not opening up new areas or new classifications of part-time employment?"

Mr. D. Nelson "I think the answer to that is 'no.' It would not open up new categories of employment. The current unemployment compensation law covers all workers except -- then there's a whole host of exceptions in the law of employment categories that are not covered--for example, salaried management employees, except if the employer wants them to be covered. There's a whole set of these in there. This bill does not expand or subtract from those exceptions in the coverage of the unemployment compensation law."

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the motion for reconsideration.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Ms. Long.

Ms. Long: "Representative Nelson, one question that has been raised is whether or not employers who have a high number of claims -- if their rate would change? My understanding is that employers presently pay three percent of the wage base of $11,400, and there is a concern that if a given employer has part-time employees as opposed to full-time then there would be more claims filed. Would that employer's rate be changed?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Long, my understanding is that the rate is now fixed in the law except if the fund reaches a certain level. Then there could be a change in the rate. It could go then to an experience-rating basis that would have variable rates, but I see no way that this bill would cause a change in the rate of payment."

Ms. Long: "Could you tell us how this bill might affect school employees?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "I think the question was raised last Friday with the situation of school bus drivers who work less than eight hours a day on a regular basis. My understanding is that those employees now are considered full-time employees even though they only work, perhaps, six hours a day. Within the school year, those employees would be already covered in the unemployment law. If they are not working in the summer period, and if there is no reasonable assurance that they will be rehired in the fall, then they are eligible for unemployment compensation as full-time employees are. If there is some reasonable assurance that they will be rehired, then they are not eligible, so I don't see that this bill changes that whole area of unemployment compensation as it applies to those full-time people."

Ms. Long: "Also there was a question on the fiscal note. Apparently some people did not have it in their books or didn't understand what was there. Would you address that? Would you address the fiscal impact? In my book it states that the impact would be minimal."

Mr. D. Nelson: "When the department turns down someone who applies for unemployment compensation because they have not shown enough work within the base year, namely six hundred eighty hours, it currently does not ask them why they didn't earn more than that, why they did not receive more hours' work. It also does not keep specific records of why they turn down some people who happen to earn more than those who are eligible but did not say that they were available for full-time work in their area. The department currently does not have specifics on permanent part-time employees unfortunately. What they have said in the fiscal note is that, in their best estimate, there are few people in the permanent part-time category that would become eligible, and so the fiscal impact would be low. They also say -- not in the fiscal note, but they have said to me privately -- that, currently, part-time employees who say that they are available for full-time work and who then receive unemployment compensation often, in reality, are not eligible. You have the situation where those people who are not truthfully saying they are eligible are receiving it whereas those employees who say that is my work--part-time work--are then turned down. That's the situation with respect to the fiscal note. They have done their best to estimate, and they think it is a minimal impact on the system."

Ms. Long spoke against the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Representative Nelson, let me paint a picture for you. A bus driver drives until June and, normally, he would be off for the summer so he would not collect unemployment; he doesn't have a letter from the district saying he is rehired. At what point does his unemployment insurance start? Keep in mind that, normally, he is off for the summer anyway. Would it be September?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "I believe, and maybe others know more about this than I, but I believe there is a one-week waiting period under the existing law and the department, according to the rules, says that if there is not reasonable assurance that there will be a rehiring in the fall, then that person is eligible. I don't know the exact date the department uses, but my guess is that it's a week into the summer."

Mr. Taylor: "So, in your interpretation, even though he would not have been employed at all during the summer, this time he gets to collect unemployment insurance in the time frame when he normally would not have been eligible?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "This law in no way changes the current situation for those bus drivers. They are considered full-time employees even though they work less than eight hours."

Mr. Taylor: "I realize that, but without a letter then, they could collect unemployment one week after the school year is out even if they normally didn't work then?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "That's the way it is right now, Representative Taylor. This wouldn't change that situation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Nealey.

Mr. Nealey: "Representative Nelson, I'm sort of concerned about those who have two part-time jobs. I know one example is the bus drivers and I happen to know that some of those bus drivers go back and work part time as mechanics or in grocery stores and so forth. Is there a great chance for abuse or, even if they are considered full time as a bus driver, they could somehow draw unemployment on that other part-time job that they are holding?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Nealey, I'm trying to remember how the current law affects people who hold two jobs and whether or not they can draw unemployment compensation while holding down another job whether or not it's full time or part time. MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. R. King, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the amendments by Representative Struthers were adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, I distinctly heard the Speaker direct the Clerk to read the next amendment. We're in the process of that and have gone beyond the point where a reconsideration can be asked."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "No, your point is not well taken. There is nothing in the next amendment that affects the action of the previous one."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McDonald: "I think Representative Barrett brought up the question regarding procedure since we don't have procedures clearly spelled out in our rules and we go back into Reed's Rules. If this motion for reconsideration is accepted, would we have it immediately? Is that the procedure we will be following? Or would we be going on to the next day?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The question of reconsideration has just been placed before us and it is now before us."

Mr. McDonald: "Then could you instruct me as to the correct time for my point of parliamentary inquiry? Before Representative Barrett has tried to tack this down as far as what the procedure for reconsideration of amendments is. Is it going to be on the next working day or is it to be immediately? At that time, you told Representative Barrett that was not before us. It is now before us, and I'm wondering what your ruling will be from here to eternity."

The Speaker: "The Speaker has recognized the motion for reconsideration and the matter is now before us."

Mr. McDonald: "That wasn't exactly the answer to my question. You recognized it, but what is your ruling going to be as far as reconsideration on amendments? Is it going to be in the next working day or is it going to be immediately?"

The Speaker: "Rule 21(D) deals with reconsideration on final passage. Right now the issue has been made on an amendment and, when the time comes, the Speaker will rule."

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 117 be deferred and that the bill take its place on the second reading calendar following House Bill No. 334.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, I note on my ranking of motions that the motion to reconsider is of higher rank than the motion to defer further consideration, so I think the majority leader's motion is out of order."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "You are right, we did in fact recognize his motion to serve notice for reconsideration, which does have a higher rank. We recognized that and that matter has been placed before us. Now, there is another motion by Representative Heck to hold it on the calendar. We've taken care of one matter."

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, would you be kind enough to reread the motion by Representative King that was placed before this body?"

The Speaker: "The motion was to immediately reconsider. Now we have a motion to delay consideration and move it down on the calendar."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Mr. G. Nelson: "Is it not true that the motion to reconsider by Representative King is of a higher rank than that of Representative Heck to now defer consideration?"

The Speaker: "Only the right to first place the motion, which we have accepted. It was in front of us and we recognized that, Representative Nelson, and then it is not a matter of any question about rank. We are now on the question of the motion by Representative Heck to move the issue down on the calendar."

Mr. G. Nelson: "I want to be clear on this. From now on, if a motion to place a reconsideration before this body is made, that matter can be deferred to some subsequent time lower on the calendar, whether or not it be an amendment or final passage?"

The Speaker: "Regarding amendments. Rule 21, I believe, already speaks to final passage. It's in regard to final passage, which is another matter. If you are asking about the matter before us, which is amendments, the answer to your question is 'yes.'"

The motion to defer consideration of the bill was carried.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see Journal, 50th Day, February 28, 1983.)

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of the amendments by Representative Struthers.

Representatives Prince and Miller spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. R. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Prince yielded to question by Mr. Sayan.

Mr. Sayan: "Representative Prince, I'm seeking some information with regard to the source of your documentation for the $5,000 hearing charge. I will share with you that for the past fifteen years this has been my responsibility as an agency manager in higher education. Our hearing costs, which I budgeted over those years, accounted for $200 for each hearing and $100 to write up the hearings, and such travel and per diem as was related to all other state employees. I'm amazed, since we have such a history of this against which we could actually calculate costs in the neighborhood of $400, that we have a $5,000 figure, and I respectfully ask your documentation."

Mr. Prince: "My source for this figure is the representative from the Council on Community Colleges. I have no reason not to take his figure and accept it."

Mr. Sayan: "A representative from the State Board of Community College Education told you that?"

Mr. Prince: "Yes, that's correct."

On page 33, beginning on line 23 after "misdemeanor" strike all material through "RCW" on line 28 and insert ", and upon a conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which the offense is committed for not less than thirty days or more than one year, or by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment"

Ms. Haugen spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Halsan spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "I understand, Representative Martinis, that you have some experience in the fishing industry and that you have been involved with the recodification of the Fisheries Act for several years. I also understand that you have done research into how the courts have assessed the penalties on the fishing violations to date. I have two questions I would like to ask you: How have the courts applied the penalties to date and how would this amendment affect the way the courts will address the fisheries violations in the future?"

Mr. Martinis: "There are presently about three different penalties in the Code. Four years ago we enacted a penalty of up to $5,000 for violations of time and area closures that was mainly to help the federal court decision, so fishermen who did not violate the law would not have to stand extra time tied up to the dock. The other area of penalty is what they called the super-fine. If there is a violation of the Fisheries Code that involves $250 or more worth of fish, then you are also subject to up to $5,000 and a year in jail. Section 42 that is affected by this amendment was bringing it up to being consistent with other criminal codes. In practical application of these penalties, I have had some court records checked by people who were not on either side of this issue. The application of the penalties as regards the Fisheries Code, even with the super-fine or with the time and area closures or with section 42, rarely ever go above the penalties that are called for in this amendment and that are presently in the Fisheries Code. In those instances where those penalties have gone above the $500 fine, they have been suspended and there's only been one jail sentence imposed under the Fisheries Code in state court, and that jail term was also suspended. We could not find anywhere in court records--not that there aren't any--but we could not find, in the short time we had to research this amendment, a violation that was imposed by the courts that would call for stiffer penalties than are called for in this amendment. I had that research done in opposition to this amendment and I would hope my answer, Representative Mitchell, does not influence either side. Those arguments could be used by both sides."

Representatives Mitchell and Vekich spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Haugen yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Haugen, in your remarks you said that the penalties might be invoked upon the fishermen at no fault of their own. If a fisherman is causing an offense, why isn't it his fault?"

Ms. Haugen: "There are a lot of things to take into consideration regarding this. The gillnetter, for instance, if he gets a log in his net is apt to drift across the line. You know you just don't cut a $5,000 net, and so that is one instance. Another instance, you might get a net in the wheel and wouldn't be able to get it pulled in time and drift across the line. Perhaps they have an illegal sized fish when the fishery patrol comes aboard the boat. You really can't sell that fish, but you might have it in your possession at that time and you just haven't gotten it thrown back. I think if you will check the violations, there have only been three percent of these violations in the last year, and I think the fishermen themselves feel that right now they are operating on such a thin line that a $1,000 violation is severe, even a $5,000 violation is just more than they feel they can afford at this time."

Mr. Sanders spoke against the amendment, and Ms. Haugen spoke again in favor of it.

On motion of Mr. Walk, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 5, line 30 after "governor," insert "If this official occupies an office or position for which senate confirmation is not required, then his appointment to the commission shall be subject to the consent of the senate."

On page 7, line 36 strike "Prior to the expiration of the plan, but at" and insert "At"

On page 8, line 2 after "plan," strike all material down to and including "chapter," on line 6 and insert "Prior to December 31, 1983, the commission shall submit the plan to the chief clerk of the house and secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees. The commission may periodically update the plan. Proposed changes of the plan shall be submitted to the chief clerk of the house and secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees. This submittal of proposed changes shall occur at least fourteen days before final adoption of the changes by the commission."

The commission shall adopt rules designed to result in the use of bond proceeds in a manner consistent with the plan. These rules shall be adopted and in full force and effect by February 1, 1984. The commission may periodically update its rules.

The commission is not required to adopt a plan or rules for the use of the proceeds of bonds issued prior to February, 1984. This section is designed to deal only with the use of bond proceeds and nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation on the commission's authority to issue bonds."

Mr. McDonald moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, after line 26 insert the following new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No part of the proceeds of bonds issued under this chapter may be used to finance the purchase of nonrental housing in which the purchase price exceeds ninety percent of the average purchase price of nonrental housing in the area. The commission shall adopt rules to ensure that this section is not violated. In adopting these rules, the commission shall consider the definition of 'average area purchase price' under 26 U.S.C. 103A and its implementing regulations."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references in section 27 and other sections.

Representatives McDonald and Addison spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Barrett, Ebersole and Walk spoke against it.

Mr. McDonald spoke again in favor of the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Mr. Addison moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, after line 26 insert the following new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall adopt rules to provide for preferential interest rates on mortgage loans for nonrental housing where the loans are made under this chapter to persons with a family income below the median income for the area in which the housing is located. Such rules shall provide for a schedule of interest rates which will result in the interest rates on these loans decreasing in accordance with family income. The commission shall adopt rules providing for a decrease in rates for a person whose family income over the previous twelve months would qualify that person for a lower rate under the interest rate schedule. If during any twelve month period the family income of a person granted a preferential interest rate should exceed the income limit prescribed in the schedule for that rate, then the rate shall be increased to reflect the increased income."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references in section 27 and other sections.

Representative Addison spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Barrett and Ebersole spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Lux moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, line 13 after "chapter." insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In the employment of workers on construction projects financed under this act, preference shall first be given to citizens of the state of Washington who have been residents of the state for at least six months at the commencement of their employment, and if they cannot be obtained in sufficient numbers, then to citizens of the United States. The specifications for each project shall contain a provision to this effect."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Ms. Niemi.

Ms. Niemi: "Representative Lux, I have some questions on the last sentence. 'The specifications for each project shall contain a provision to this effect.' Do you have any idea how this would be administered? Could a payment be withheld subject to a head count? Moreover, how is one going to prove that one has been in the state for a certain amount of time? As I read this, every single employee could be subject to some kind of proof of residency. My last question would be: Could the funds not be paid subject to presenting this kind of proof?"

Mr. Lux: "Representative Niemi, I think obviously there would have to be some checks and balances. You would have to have some sort of obvious control over this, and I think the department that would be in charge, whether it be the Department of Labor & Industries or whoever, would be monitoring this, would have to set some rules. It says here that the commission would set the rules and adopt the rules. I think we would leave that to the commission."

Representatives Lewis and Bond spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Broback, Smitherman, Niemi and Barnes spoke against it.

Mr. Lux spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Lux to Substitute House Bill No. 254, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 69; absent, 1; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Barrett, Bond, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Fuhrman, Garrett, Isaacson, Lewis, Long, Lux, McDonald, Mitchell, Nelson D, Nelson G, Schmidt, Smith, Stratton, Taylor, Tilly, Vander Sloep, West, Williams J, Wilson - 28.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Broback, Burns, Charnley, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Silver, Smitherman, Sommers, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Van Dyken, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 69.

Absent: Representative Brekke - 1.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Padden and Lux:

On page 9, after line 26 insert the following new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The commission shall adopt rules to provide for the selection of bond counsel. The rules shall provide for the creation of a roster of attorneys whom the commission believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond counsel opinions which would be accepted by the underwriters, bondholders and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in obtaining the lowest possible interest rate on the bonds issued by the commission. Any attorney may apply to have his name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless he demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that he would issue the kind of opinions required by this section.

(2) Whenever the commission decides to issue bonds in respect to which a bond counsel opinion will be needed, it shall provide all attorneys on the roster with a notice of its intentions and shall invite each of them to submit to the commission his fee schedule for providing bond counsel services on the issue. The commission shall have wide discretion in selecting the attorney it considers to be most appropriate to provide the bond counsel services, but in the exercise of this discretion the commission shall consider the attorney's fee schedule and the public interest in achieving savings in bond counsel fees."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references in section 27 and other sections.

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Walk yielded to question by Mr. Locke.

Mr. Locke: "Representative Walk, do you feel that this proposed amendment by Representative Padden would destroy or weaken the concept and the ideas embodied within Substitute House Bill No. 254?"

Mr. Walk: "No, I do not think it will damage the bill. I am not going to support the amendment because it raises some issues that frankly, I'm not that familiar with, but in glancing over it, it does not appear to harm the intent or the ability of the commission to operate. My fear is that it deals with an issue that maybe the legislature should look at in all revenue bond issues, rather than attacking it on a piecemeal basis as this amendment would do on this one issue. I do not see it as a critical issue regarding this bill."

Mr. Locke spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Appelwick.

Mr. Appelwick: "Representative Padden, would the fees that are submitted by attorneys in the bid process be, in your mind, available to the public for inspection?"

Mr. Padden: "I would presume that other sections of the act would make that information available. The commission itself could decide to make that information available to the public. The idea is that it would be a factor, Representative Appelwick, that the commission could use in making a determination. It's not binding."

Mr. Appelwick: "Would you feel that the Washington Attorney General, if he found or suspected a sweetheart deal between bond counsel and the commissioners, could use the records of these fees to prevent again, for the litigate, a challenge that the bonds were not properly selected?"

Mr. Padden: "Representative Appelwick, I really don't feel that would apply because normally, of course, the bond counsel fees are simply on a percentage of the bonds that are issued. That is my understanding, anyway, and I think any sweetheart deal would have to have other evidence before the Attorney General could act--some sort of collusion or something like that."

Mr. Appelwick: "But this might be a piece of evidence?"

Mr. Padden: "Well, I don't think, in and of itself, it would be."

Representatives Appelwick and Ebersole spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Lux moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, after line 26 insert the following new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall adopt rules prescribing a fee schedule for the commissions, fees and charges of licensed real estate brokers and agents who assist in the selling of nonrental housing financed by the commission. The commission may not purchase or take any assignment of any mortgage loan if (1) the loan is for the financing of the purchase of nonrental housing; and (2) in respect to the purchase, the total of the commissions, fees and charges of any licensed real estate broker or agent is in excess of the fee schedule."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references in section 27 and other sections.

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Walk, J. Williams and Barrett spoke against it.

Mr. Lux spoke again in favor of the amendment. The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Addison moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 30 after "demand," strike the remainder of the section and insert "Therefore, unless the commission finds that a bond's proceeds earmarked for that kind of housing will probably be sufficient to meet the demands of those persons who would be qualified mortgagors, it shall institute a lottery as a means of selecting those persons who have applied for the mortgage loans."

Representatives Addison and Bond spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Ebersole, Smitherman and Barrett spoke against it.

Mr. Addison spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Ebersole again opposed it.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Addison, the following amendment by Representatives Addison and Lux was adopted:

On page 9, after line 26 insert the following new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The commission shall adopt rules to provide for the selection of underwriters. The rules shall provide for the creation of a roster of underwriters whom the commission believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond marketing services which would be accepted by bondholders and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in marketing the commission's bonds at the lowest possible costs. Any underwriter may apply to have its name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless it demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that it meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Whenever the commission decides that it needs the services of an underwriter, it shall provide all underwriters on the roster with a notice of its intentions and shall invite each of them to submit to the commission an itemization of its fees and other charges for providing underwriting services on the issue. The itemization shall be by categories designed by the commission. The commission shall have wide discretion in selecting the underwriter it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the commission shall consider the underwriter's fees and other charges and the public interest in achieving savings in the total costs of underwriting services."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references in section 27 and other sections.

On motion of Mr. Isaacson, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 14, line 28 strike "except" and insert "exempt"

On motion of Mr. Ebersole, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 15, line 28 after "agency," insert the following new paragraph:

"(d) For calendar year 1983, the allocations to issuing authorities, other than the commission, shall include bonds issued by the authorities during the first six months of 1983. However, the planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall adopt rules to ensure that the total amount of bonds issued by the authorities during the six month period does not exceed their twenty percent share."

Ms. Niemi moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 22, after line 25 insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS. There is added to chapter 300, Laws of 1981 and to chapter 39.84 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The state housing finance commission is authorized to issue nonrecourse revenue bonds and other nonrecourse revenue obligations and to use the proceeds of such bonds and other obligations for industrial development projects in the exercise of its powers under this 1983 act; this authorization is supplemental to and shall not be construed as a limitation on the state housing finance commission's authority, exercisable under the Constitution and laws of this state other than this chapter, to issue nonrecourse revenue bonds and other nonrecourse revenue obligations. For purposes of this section and in order to meet the requirements of Article XXXII, section 1 of the Constitution, the term 'industrial development projects' includes 'housing' financed by the commission, as 'housing' is defined in this 1983 act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references in section 27 and other sections.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Addison: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like you to rule on whether or not this amendment is within the scope and object of this bill."

Ms. Haugen spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Haugen yielded to question by Mr. R. King.

Mr. R. King: "Representative Haugen, would the passage of this bill in any way indicate the intent of the legislature or of the Department of Game or the Department of Fisheries that it is their intent to make game fish, such as a steelhead, a commercial fish?"

Ms. Haugen: "No, this will not. This will just simply give them a resource to get some money to help with monitoring and the managing of this. They still will retain their game fish classification."

King, Johnson, Silver, Smitherman, Ballard, Wang, Niemi, Burns, Holland, Halsan, Jacobsen, McClure, Locke, Garrett, Crane, Hine, Stratton, Dellwo, O'Brien, Haugen, Ristuben, P. King and Powers; by Governor Spellman request)

Establishing a state housing finance commission.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the point of order raised by Representative Addison on the amendment by Representative Niemi to page 22, line 25.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Addison, your point is not well taken. The title of the bill is 'An Act relating to housing financing.' I have also examined the body of the bill. The amendment in question by Representative Niemi provides one of the methods for funding the housing bonds. Therefore, the amendment is within the scope and object of the bill."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, since this is the first ruling regarding a challenge of scope and object, would you be so kind as to advise the body of the specific criteria that is used by the Speaker in determining whether or not an amendment is within the scope and object?"

The Speaker: "In making a ruling, the Speaker looks to the title of the bill, looks to the subject matter of the bill and the intent of the various sections within the bill. All these things are taken into account in making a ruling as to whether or not an amendment is within the scope and object of the bill. This is a quote from the Journal of the House, Regular Session, 1981, page 1281, Speaker Polk presiding."

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Niemi.

Ms. Niemi spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Niemi yielded to question by Ms. Silver.

Ms. Silver: "Representative Niemi, we worked long and hard on this with the Housing Finance Commission in trying to get a bill that all the committee members would agree to and yet I do not remember hearing industrial revenue bonds brought forward at all as one of the main vehicles of financing. What we discussed mostly was the main vehicle which was the tax exempt bonds, which would be the engine that would drive the train. I am surprised by this amendment inasmuch as it was not thoroughly discussed in committee at all or brought up. Could you explain to me, outside of illegal constitutionality, why you wished industrial revenue bonds brought in; and what other reason there might be?"

Ms. Niemi: "You mean the reason we didn't discuss it before? I think we worked long and hard in committee on every issue that we could think of and this issue came up afterward. Many of us were concerned about it in studying it, and our final conclusion was that it probably is necessary for the entire bill to be constitutional. This provides a separate and independent legal authority for the issuance of state housing finance commission bonds. It's a separate basis for the constitutionality. In the bill that we worked so hard on, we took every single page where the constitutionality of lending the state's credit had been discussed, and we worked into the wording of the bill in committee, and I know you were part of that, the wording of all these cases. This is like having an extra insurance policy."

Ms. Silver: "I was of the opinion that the intent of the industrial revenue bonds was for industrial development. I didn't realize it was for housing."

Ms. Niemi: "It isn't for housing. That's why the amendment is necessary. It is for a narrowly defined group of industrial definitions. We are asking that it be expanded to revenue bonds for the State Housing Commission only. No more than that. It's not for housing generally; it can't be used for housing generally."

Ms. Silver: "Are we not expanding the entire intent of the industrial revenue bonds by this one amendment?"

Ms. Niemi: "We are expanding it very narrowly to encompass what the State Housing Finance Commission would be doing, yes."

Ms. Silver: "So this amendment will expand the industrial revenue bonds to housing?"

Ms. Niemi: "It will expand it only to housing for industrial revenue bonds issued by the State Housing Finance Commission; not to housing in general."

Ms. Silver: "But we are changing the intent of the industrial revenue bonds?"

Ms. Niemi: "No, we are not changing the intent of it; we're changing the intent to encompass this one narrow part of industry."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Addison: "Mr. Speaker, Article XXXII of the Constitution provides that when we are expanding the definition of industrial development, that it be a sixty percent majority of both the House and the Senate. Will a sixty percent majority be required on this vote and on the vote for final passage?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The vote on adoption of the amendment will require a majority vote. The passage of the act will require fifty-nine votes."

Mr. Addison spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Walk spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Niemi yielded to question by Mr. Walk.

Mr. Walk: "Representative Niemi, once again, to clarify some things that have been said and make sure all the members understand what the intent of this amendment is, is this amendment necessary for the constitutionality of the bill?"

Ms. Niemi: "No. This amendment provides a separate and independent legal authority for the issuance of state housing finance commission bonds. The commission's primary authority to issue bonds, consistent with the lending of credit restrictions of the Constitution, is that the bond proceeds are not public funds. That's what we wrote in the language of the housing authority. In addition, because people have recently provided us with the 73rd Amendment for industrial development bonds with that amendment, we think it is appropriate to provide a separate basis for the constitutionality of these bonds based on Article XXXII. There are circumstances where industrial development, for the Constitution, would not apply to the bonds issued by the Housing Commission. For example, we anticipate taxable bonds will be issued by the commission and that's clearly not allowed under industrial development bonds under the Constitution. They would be issued by other independent authorities for issuing bonds. Furthermore, there may be certain points of housing that might be considered as industrial development projects, so we simply are asking that there be two independent legal bases for issuing these bonds and having these two approaches, we believe, strengthens the constitutionality of the bond issue."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Addison, you've done quite a bit of research into this and I wonder if you could reflect on the constitutionality and the effect of the Niemi amendment on the constitutionality of the revenue bonds?"

Mr. Addison: "Representative McDonald, that's a question I've been pondering for the past half day or so, and I think the action the body is going to take will, in my opinion, put the Housing Finance Commission clearly under the definition of industrial development. It does require a sixty-percent majority vote of this body, and it seems to me that is the hat the legislation is hanging on itself. There is no other reference to any other provision in the Constitution. For instance, the hospital case decided some years ago by the courts, hung its hat on the treatment of infirm people and that provision in the Constitution. There is no mention in the bill of any other article in the Constitution dealing with poor people, for instance. There is some discussion in the preamble of the bill that this is meant to help low income, but later when you get into the bill, there are no definitions of poor; there's no mention of that, and I don't think anybody here is suggesting that this is a bill to help poor people. Clearly, the hook that this legislation is attempting to hang its hat on—if the amendment passes—will be the industrial revenue statute in 39.84."

Mr. McDonald spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Addison, you were here when we discussed the constitutional amendment regarding industrial revenue bonds. What was the intent of the legislature regarding that?"

Mr. Addison: "To enter into the record of what I believe was the intent of the legislature at that time; I was here then, and I would like to refer back again to a question asked by Representative Flanagan who dealt with an amendment that specifically talked about industrial development. To the question regarding the definition of industrial development he said: 'Yes, we defined that. We went into detail in defining that in the implementing bill, House Bill No. 741. That bill goes into detail in defining industrial development.' So the purpose of answering the question and entering it into the Journal is what the tone and tenor of the legislature was at that time. What I will attempt to do is to differentiate between housing, which does not produce any permanent jobs--it certainly provides a place for people to rest their heads, but the tenor of the legislature at the time when the industrial revenue bonds constitutional amendment was passed by this body was that permanent jobs were going to be provided. Again, I'll read from 3984 in industrial development's definition. It says, '...means manufacturing....' Again, we're talking about jobs. 'Processing...' talking about jobs--'production, assembly, warehousing, transportation, pollution control, solid waste disposal and energy disposal.' I think to stretch the definition that passed in the constitutional amendment, to mean housing, is that the court will have a very hard time, even though we pass technical language the court is going to have a very hard time when they understand that the tenor of the body in 1981 was in no way to go into a housing kind of situation. It's far different from a manufacturing process, and I would suggest that the court look hard and long before they would allow the legislature by a simple sixty-percent majority to expand the definition. If the expansion was simply going to talk about a redefinition of transportation or a redefinition of manufacturing, I think that would be clearly within the bounds, but to expand it this way, I don't think you can turn an apple into a pear."

Ms. Niemi spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Schoon and Isaacson spoke against it.

Representatives Hine and Ebersole spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 46, following line 22 insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 52. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 52 through 55 of this act.

(1) 'Law enforcement agency' means the Washington state patrol or a local law enforcement agency.

(2) 'Local law enforcement agency' means the law enforcement agency of a county, city or town.

(3) 'Randomly stopping' means either stopping every motor vehicle which passes a roadblock, or stopping every nth motor vehicle which passes a roadblock where 'n' is a number no larger than the number determined by a law enforcement agency to be necessary to prevent undue traffic interference under conditions existing at the time and place of the roadblock.

(4) 'Roadblock' means a temporary checkpoint, barricade, or other device or procedure for randomly stopping motor vehicles on public highways to ascertain whether the drivers of those vehicles are properly licensed or are under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or drug.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 53. (1) The legislature recognizes the right of a motor vehicle driver to expect freedom from an unnecessary invasion of privacy. Nevertheless, the legislature also recognizes that driving is a legislatively granted privilege. Furthermore, the safety and welfare of the public at large must be protected from the irresponsible behavior of some drivers. Therefore, law enforcement agencies may periodically establish roadblocks to detect drivers who are not properly licensed or who are under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or drug. The roadblocks shall be conducted so as to protect a driver's right to be free from unreasonable search and seizure, and to have due process and equal protection under the law. The roadblock shall be conducted so as to maximize the detection of unlicensed or intoxicated drivers while minimizing inconvenience to other drivers to the extent practicable.

(2) A roadblock authorized by sections 52 through 55 of this act shall not be designed, scheduled, located, or conducted for a law enforcement purpose other than the detection, citation, or arrest of drivers who are not properly licensed or who are under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or drug. However, nothing in sections 52 through 55 of this act prevents the lawful arrest or citation, incident to a roadblock, of a person for any violation of law.

Before establishing a roadblock a law enforcement agency shall at a public hearing adopt procedures for scheduling, locating, and conducting roadblocks. Scheduling and locating procedures shall be based on traffic accident and arrest records or other information related to driving, or being in actual physical control of, a motor vehicle while under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or drug. The time and place of a roadblock shall not be made public prior to its establishment.

(4) A driver who is stopped at a roadblock may be required to show a valid driver's license as required under chapter 46.20 RCW.

(5) The law enforcement agency conducting a roadblock shall attempt lawfully to ascertain as to each driver stopped whether a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 has occurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. A local law enforcement agency may establish roadblocks under sections 52 through 55 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. The state patrol, independently or in cooperation with one or more local law enforcement agencies, may establish roadblocks under sections 52 through 54 of this act. The state patrol shall, before January 1, 1985, report to the legislature on the conduct and results of those roadblocks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. Sections 52 through 55 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 46 RCW."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Van Dyken, I'm wondering if a local government authority, a city council or a county council or commission, would, under your amendment, have the authority to conduct hearings and to make the final decision as to whether or not the local law enforcement agency would be allowed to conduct road blocks?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Nelson, the words of the amendment provide, '...law enforcement agencies may periodically establish road blocks.' Now that would apply to state law enforcement agencies directly. They would have the option to use that around the state; however, local law enforcement agencies, in my opinion, would operate under the direction of their local legislative authority in response to their direction. In specific answer, if a city council or a county legislative authority directed their law enforcement agencies not to conduct road blocks, they would not do so."

Mr. D. Nelson: "So, in other words, this could be a local decision?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "That's right; as far as the local law enforcement agency is concerned, yes."

Mr. Van Dyken spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Van Dyken to page 46 of Substitute House Bill No. 289, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 53; excused, 4.

No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, he has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, if you will look down the right-hand column of the flash calendar today, you will find that all the sponsors are Democrats. That's not too bad a trend realizing, of course, that you are the majority party, but if you've gone back two weeks, you would find that all the sponsors on all the flash calendars to date in the House were Democrats. It doesn't appear to be getting better because if you go to February-March 4, Second Reading of House Bills and Third Reading of House Bills in the Rules Committee, you'll find that the sponsorship was, again, all Democrats. I think we, on this side of the aisle, understand the cold realities of majority and minority and that, indeed, you are not going to have half the bills Democrat and half Republican, but I think we realize that when we were in the majority two years ago that there was wisdom; that we did not have a lock on all the good ideas, and that's why actually seventy-five passed through this House with Democratic sponsorship and thirty-six passed into law. That was the substance of a memo to you from Gary Nelson. I understand that it is early in the session, the trend doesn't look good and I wanted to bring it to the attention of this body, because at the beginning of the session, there was a lot of talk about bipartisan cooperation and I guess this is one test of that cooperation. We hope the trend gets better."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Heck: "Representative McDonald, I think your timing is perfect to raise this point of personal privilege. I'm expressing a little wonderment at the timing of Representative McDonald's point of personal privilege. He did so immediately following the passage of House Bill 441, that while having a Democratic prime sponsor, is especially for the benefit of an area of the state that has predominately Republican legislators. He does so three days after a bill that he has prime sponsored, and that I have joined him in supporting, House Bill 784--it has had a hearing, a very receptive hearing, I might add--a very important bill--in the Ways and Means Committee. I can understand his frustration; I didn't pass a single bill last year either, that I recall. In fact, I had to get Representative Garrett to give me one of these pens that say Governor Spellman on them. I haven't passed a bill since I was in the tie, and I understand your frustration at the vacuum of good ideas that seem to be coming forth, to some people's way of thinking in this legislature. As a matter of fact, fewer ideas have been introduced by this legislature than were introduced two years ago. We've cut down on the accepted number of bills introduced this session by a total of--well, there were 1,626 bills introduced at this point in 1981, and this very efficient legislature has managed to cut that down to 1,188, so the universe that we are dealing with is much smaller. We seem to be focusing more of our time and attention on budget matters. The fact of the matter is that one of the reasons that accounts for this reduction in paperwork and the paper blizzard around here is that there are at least five members on that side of the aisle who simply haven't prime sponsored any bills whatsoever. Of course, that's counterbalanced by the seven over there who have prime sponsored more than ten bills notwithstanding their support of the amendment to the rule which, fortunately for them, failed at the beginning of the session that would have limited bill introductions to ten. I think the bottom line of this whole thing, however, is that we are a long way from the end of either this session or the next session. I'm very comfortable that when all is said and done, we'll all be pleased that this session was conducted in a spirit of bipartisan cooperation. There will be Republican prime-sponsored bills passed and I'm very confident of it, as a matter of fact."

Representative Crane appeared at the bar of the House.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 117, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives R. King, Fisch, Charnley, Martinis, Garrett, Rust, Lux, Jacobsen, D. Nelson and Hankins)

Modifying procedures for the reduction in force of community college faculty members due to a financial emergency.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives R. King, Sayan and Fisch spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Struthers, Prince and Tilly spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Betzoff.

Mr. Betzoff: "Mr. King, one of the provisions of this bill is that the local people can elect individual hearings. Is it your understanding that if this were to be elected, would all these hearings need to be accomplished within sixty days?"

Mr. R. King: "I would think, under the law they would have to be. The election of an individual hearing would come about, I would think, only because an individual felt he had a different problem or was somehow in conflict with the other people who were involved in it. The cost of these hearings to the individual or to the labor group that might represent them is very high, so there is tremendous reason for all the individuals to group together. I would expect they would only separate when one individual felt that there was a need for reduction in force, but not as much as the total of what the college wanted to reduce, and he was the one who wanted to stay and felt he had some conflict with the other people. I don't expect it would happen very often and, when it did, it should occur simultaneously.

In that case, there might even be a separate or different hearing officer brought in."

Mr. Betzoff: "And still within the sixty-day period?"

Mr. R. King: "That's the intent."

Mr. Betzoff: "One other question. Another provision is that the hearings are open to all issues. Can you tell me what other issues might be involved other than the ruff procedures that would be open by an individual hearing?"

Mr. R. King: "I would expect that the most obvious one that wouldn't be covered under the existing law would be the question of whether or not the college had adequate finances to continue the programs that the special tenure faculty were involved in. That's not covered under current law, and it certainly would apply to fifty percent of the cases. I expect there might also be a possibility if there were a question of academic freedom involved. If faculty members had been saying things publicly that upset the board and that was the reason they were being ruffed, they would want to bring that in as an argument. When you talk about tenure, one of the reasons for having tenure is to protect the right of the college faculty to do research and to have freedom of speech in the classroom and things like that--on a rare occasion there have been examples, both in the state and nationwide, where a particular board would go ahead and try to use any way they could to get rid of a faculty member, not because a member wasn't a good teacher, but might be saying something the board didn't like to hear."

Representatives Barnes and Dickie spoke against passage of the bill.

Mr. B. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is the policy of the state of Washington to expand both short and long-term employment opportunities for the citizens of the state. State government has a vital and undeniable interest in the strengthening of the state's economic base through the encouragement of industry and commerce and the orderly growth and redevelopment of communities. In addition, it has been determined that public facilities available for needed industrial and commercial expansion in communities throughout the state are inadequate and that local governmental entities lack the resources to provide for such facilities. These conditions can most effectively be addressed by an accelerated public facilities construction program targeted to high priority economic and community development projects. State government can most efficiently assist the political subdivisions of the state to provide an immediate economic stimulus by: (1) Providing low-interest loan and/or grant funds for eligible public facilities projects required to improve opportunities for the successful maintenance, establishment, and expansion of industrial or commercial plants or which will otherwise assist in the creation or retention of long-term economic opportunities; and (2) providing grant funds for the completion of unfunded community development projects that are high priorities of local government and will address community needs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 9 of this act.

(1) 'Eligible public facilities projects' means those economic development related projects with long-term job creation or retention potential submitted to the community economic revitalization board.

(2) 'Unfunded community development projects' means projects submitted to the planning and community affairs agency by October 1, 1982, for funding under the community development block grant program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing grants and loans under this chapter for needed eligible public facilities projects, including, but not limited to sewer or other waste disposal facilities, arterials, bridge access roads, port facilities, water distribution purification facilities, or unfunded community development projects, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of thirty million dollars to finance these projects and all costs incidental thereto. The bonds authorized in this section may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act shall be deposited in the public facilities construction loan revolving fund and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in section 3 of this act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds deposited under section 4 of this act in the public facilities construction loan revolving fund shall be administered by the community economic revitalization board. Ten percent of the proceeds of the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act shall be used exclusively for unfunded community development projects.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The planning and community affairs agency shall identify, evaluate, and certify a list of unfunded community development projects for grant awards under sections 2 through 9 of this act. The criteria utilized shall include: (1) The rating of projects under the state community development block grant program; (2) unemployment in the project area; (3) short-term jobs created; and (4) project readiness. Projects certified by the planning and community affairs agency shall be reviewed for approval by the community economic revitalization board.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The state general obligation bond retirement fund shall be used for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet the bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the general obligation bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on the payment date.

Bonds issued under section 3 of this act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act, and section 7 of this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for the payment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The bonds authorized in section 3 of this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

Sec. 10. Section 8, chapter 40, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.160.080 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a fund known as the public facilities construction loan revolving fund, which shall consist of all moneys collected under this chapter and any moneys appropriated to it by law: PROVIDED, That seventy-five percent of all principal and interest payments on loans made with the proceeds deposited in the fund under section 4 of this 1983 act shall be deposited in the general fund. ((Funds remaining in any accounts created under RCW 43.31A.320 shall be automatically transferred to the public facilities construction loan revolving fund when the economic assistance authority is terminated.)) The state treasurer shall be custodian of the revolving fund. Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be on authorization of the board. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, the public facilities construction loan revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from the fund.

Moneys in this fund not needed to meet the current expenses and obligations of the board shall be invested in the manner authorized for moneys in revolving funds. Any interest earned shall be deposited in this fund and shall be used for the purposes specified in this chapter. The state treasurer shall render reports to the board advising of the status of any funds invested, the market value of the assets as of the date the statement is rendered, and the income received from the investments during the period covered by the report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 43.160 RCW."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 10, 1983

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3100, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Heck moved that the rules be suspended and the House immediately consider the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3100.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, tradition of this House has been that Free Conference Reports be reported by five signatures. I see there are only four on this Free Conference Report, and I wonder, Mr. Speaker, does it require five signatures or four signatures?"

The Speaker: "It requires four, Representative Hastings."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Hastings: "I just want to bring to the body's attention now, that this is the second time we have the Free Conference Report, and it's only going to be reported with four signatures. That is against tradition that has been held in the past, and I suppose once you do it the second time, you set a precedent in this body. I would just remind you that it's not a very good precedent. It may come back sometime to haunt us. I just want to let you know that what we're doing is precedent-setting and it's not a very good idea."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative Heck to immediately consider the Free Conference Report on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3100.

The motion was carried.

THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

(2) Funds appropriated by this act to the department of social and health services shall be allotted and expended reflecting the legislative intent of this act. Within the specific limitations in this act, the department of social and health services may modify allotments after the initial three months of the biennium with the approval of the office of financial management in consultation with the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives(~~((: PROVIDED, That because substantial uncertainty continues to exist as to actual federal revenues available to the department of social and health services and because major changes in federal entitlement programs affecting income maintenance, community social services, and medical assistance programs may have significant effects on caseloads and expenditures in those programs, allotment modifications may include transfers between programs in sections 49, 50, 51, 53, 54, and 55 of chapter 340, Laws of 1981)). (3) The department of social and health services may seek and receive additional federal funds not included in this act, subject to approval of the office of financial management, provided that such funding does not require additional expenditure of state funds.

(4) In anticipation of significant reductions in federal support for social service, public health, and Title XIX programs, the legislature has reduced the state's dependency on federal entitlement programs within the income maintenance, medical assistance, and social service programs. However, additional federal reductions may require further reductions to all human service programs. To ensure that the loss of federal funds does not result in an accelerated expenditure of state funds, the following requirements are placed on the department of social and health services:

~~((*))~~ The department shall prepare a contingency expenditure plan to reflect anticipated loss of federal funds. This contingency plan shall include necessary program changes and a redefinition of services or eligibility criteria which will not require expenditures in excess of any appropriation provided in this act. MOTION

Mr. Grimm moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3100.

Mr. Grimm spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Cantu: "I am a member of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3100. On March 8th, you had a Conference Committee report placed on your desks with six names typed on there and there were five signatures on it. Mine was missing. I would like the record to show that the reason my name was not on the report is that I had no opportunity to participate. The first time I saw the report was when it was placed on my desk as it was placed on your desks. I was not given any notice; I was not given any opportunity to participate. As far as the Free Conference report is concerned, I received no notice of any committee meetings; I was not given an opportunity to participate; there were no committee meetings held. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I can accept the fact that I probably could not have changed the outcome of the report; I understand that, but I cannot accept the fact that we did not maintain the integrity of the process of the proceedings. No meetings were held; no notice was given and no opportunity was offered for me to participate."

Representatives G. Nelson and B. Williams spoke against the motion to adopt the report, and Mr. Grimm spoke again in favor of it.

The report was adopted.

Representative Barrett appeared at the bar of the House.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 245:

Mr. B. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, strike lines 26 through 34 and insert:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. For the purpose of providing grants and loans under this chapter for needed eligible public facilities projects, including, but not limited to sewer or other waste disposal facilities, arterials, bridge access roads, port facilities, water distribution purification facilities, or unfunded community development projects, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of thirty million dollars to finance these projects and all costs incidental thereto. The bonds authorized in this section may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in section 6 of this act shall be deposited in the public facilities construction loan revolving fund and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in section 6 of this act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds deposited under section 7 of this act in the public facilities construction loan revolving fund shall be administered by the community economic revitalization board. Ten percent of the proceeds of the bonds authorized in section 6 of this act shall be used exclusively for unfunded community development projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The planning and community affairs agency shall identify, evaluate, and certify a list of unfunded community development projects for grant awards under sections 1 through 11 of this act. The criteria utilized shall include: (1) the rating of projects under the state community development block grant program; (2) unemployment in the project area; (3) short-term jobs created; and (4) project readiness. Projects certified by the planning and community affairs agency shall be reviewed for approval by the community economic revitalization board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The state general obligation bond retirement fund shall be used for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 6 of this act.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet the bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the general obligation bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on the payment date.

Bonds issued under section 6 of this act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The bonds authorized in section 6 of this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 6 through 11 of this act are each added to chapter 43.160 RCW."

Mr. B. Williams spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. J. King spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

The bill was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

Mr. Egger spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 285, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 4; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Armstrong, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Chamley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, Martinis, McClure, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Vander Sloep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 88.

Excused: Representatives Appelwick, Ballard, Bond, McDonald, McMullen, Tanner - 6.

HOUSE BILL NO. 531, by Representatives Hine and Charnley

Authorizing certain studies by groups of local government entities formed for joint insurance purposes.

The bill was read the second time and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 27, by Representatives Locke, Allen, Pruitt, Miller, Long, Jacobsen, Tanner, Brough, Zellinsky, Haugen, Wang, Holland, Fisher, Lux and Belcher

Ratifying the U.S. constitutional amendment giving voting rights to the District of Columbia.

The resolution was read the second time.

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Tilly and Barnes:

On page 2, line 3 after "Washington" insert ", subject to the approval of the electorate as provided for in the following paragraph.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, Section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Wang: "Mr. Speaker, I would like you to rule as to whether or not this amendment is in order based on the U.S. Constitution not having a referendum clause and based on U.S. Supreme Court cases on this subject in dealing with previous cases with the House of Representatives."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Wang, your point is well taken. The Speaker would rule that it is outside the scope and object because it makes a referendum on an amendment which is amending the federal Constitution. There have been U.S. Supreme Court cases. Also precedent in this body can be found, on the 40th Day, February 16, 1973, on page 721, in a very similar case with Speaker John O'Brien presiding."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, this body does not, as I understand it, have rules that refer to any case law or any previous decisions. Since the Speaker has been so diligent in following Reed's Rules all along with respect to many other things that we have been doing, and since we don't have Joint Rules, I would ask the Speaker to rule on Reed's Rule 161 that talks about incompatibility or inconsistency as they might be challenged by members of this body with respect to constitutionality which was the point of order raised by Representative Wang. I might point out that on page 102 of Rule 161, it says, "...the question of constitutionality is not for him to decide. Incompatibility, inconsistency, and unconstitutionality are matters of argument." They are left to argument by members on this floor to decide, not for the person who is now holding the gavel, so I would ask the Speaker to reconsider that point of order and let the body decide whether or not this particular amendment should be passed or defeated."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Your point is not well taken. The Speaker made reference to a previous ruling."

House Joint Resolution No. 27 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.
