(4) The executive board shall elect from its members a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary, who shall serve at the pleasure of the executive board. The managing director's employment is terminable at the will of the executive board.

(7) Members of the executive board shall be immune from civil liability for mistakes and errors of judgment in the good faith performance of acts within the scope of their official duties involving the exercise of judgment and discretion. This grant of immunity shall not be construed as modifying the liability of the operating agency.

The operating agency shall undertake the defense of and indemnify each executive board member made a party to any civil proceeding including any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact he or she is or was a member of the executive board, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses, actually incurred by him or her in connection with such proceeding if he or she had conducted himself or herself in good faith and reasonably believed his or her conduct to be in the best interest of the operating agency.

E2SSB 3245 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing the housing finance commission. Reported by Committee on State Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICIES—PURPOSE. It is declared to be the public policy of the state and a recognized governmental function to assist in making affordable and decent housing available throughout the state and by so doing to contribute to the general welfare. Decent housing for the people of our state is a most important public concern. Interest rates and construction costs have made it impossible for many Washington citizens to purchase their own homes. Older people, disabled persons, and low and moderate income families often cannot afford to rent decent housing. There exists throughout the state a serious shortage of safe, sanitary and energy efficient housing available at prices within the financial means of our citizens. General economic development within the state is also impeded by a lack of affordable housing. The state's economy, which is dependent on the timber, wood products, and construction industries, has been damaged by inadequate investment in housing construction and rehabilitation. The result has been high unemployment and economic hardship affecting the prosperity of all the people of the state, particularly those in the wood products industry.

It is the purpose of this chapter to establish a state housing finance commission to act as a financial conduit which, without using public funds or lending the credit of the state or local government, can issue nonrecourse revenue bonds and participate in federal, state, and local housing programs and thereby make additional funds available at affordable rates to help provide housing throughout the state. It is also a primary purpose of this chapter to encourage the use of Washington state forest products in residential construction. This chapter is enacted to accomplish these and related purposes and shall be liberally construed to carry out its purposes and objectives.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Bonds' means the bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the commission, the interest paid on which may or may not qualify for tax exemption.

(2) 'Code' means the federal internal revenue code of 1954, as now or hereafter amended, and the regulations and rulings promulgated thereunder.

(3) 'Commission' means the Washington state housing finance commission or any board, body, commission, department, or officer succeeding to the principal functions thereof or to whom the powers conferred upon the commission shall be given by law.

(4) 'Costs of housing' means all costs related to the development, design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, leasing, rehabilitation, and other improvements of housing, as determined by the commission.

(5) 'Eligible person' means a person or family eligible in accordance with standards promulgated by the commission. Such persons shall include those persons whose income is insufficient to obtain at a reasonable cost, without financial assistance, decent, safe, and sanitary housing in the area in which the person or family resides, and may include such other persons whom the commission determines to be eligible.

(6) 'Housing' means specific new, existing, or improved residential dwellings within this state or dwellings to be constructed within this state. The term includes land, buildings, and manufactured dwellings, and improvements, furnishings, and equipment, and such other nonhousing facilities, furnishings, equipment, and costs as may be incidental or appurtenant thereto if in the judgment of the commission the facilities, furnishings, equipment and costs are an integral part of the project. Housing may consist of single-family or multifamily dwellings in one or more structures located on contiguous or noncontiguous parcels or any combination thereof. Improvements may include such equipment and materials as are appropriate to accomplish energy efficiency within a dwelling. The term also includes a dwelling constructed by a person who occupies and owns the dwelling.

(7) 'Mortgage' means a mortgage, mortgage deed, deed of trust, security agreement, or other instrument securing a mortgage loan and constituting a lien on or security interest in housing. The property may be held in fee simple or on a leasehold under a lease having a remaining term, at the time the mortgage is acquired, of not less than the term of repayment of the mortgage loan secured by the mortgage. The property may also be housing which is evidenced by an interest in a cooperative association or corporation if ownership of the interest entitles the owner of the interest to occupancy of a dwelling owned by the association or corporation.

(8) 'Mortgage lender' means any of the following entities which customarily provide service or otherwise aid in the financing of housing and which are approved as a mortgage lender by the commission: A bank, trust company, savings bank, national banking association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, mortgage banker, mortgage company, credit union, life insurance company, or any other financial institution, governmental agency, municipal corporation, or any holding company for any of the entities specified in this subsection.

(9) 'Mortgage loan' means an interest-bearing loan or a participation therein, made to a borrower, for the purpose of financing the costs of housing, evidenced by a promissory note, and which may or may not be secured (a) under a mortgage agreement, (b) under any other security agreement, regardless of whether the collateral is personal or real property, or (c) by insurance or a loan guarantee of a third party. However, an unsecured loan shall not be considered a mortgage loan under this definition unless the amount of the loan is under two thousand five hundred dollars.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. BONDS NOT DEBT OF STATE. Bonds issued under this chapter shall be issued in the name of the commission. The bonds shall not be obligations of the state of Washington and shall be obligations only of the commission payable from the special fund or funds created by the commission for their payment. Such funds shall not be or constitute public moneys or funds of the state of Washington but at all times shall be kept segregated and set apart from other funds.

Bonds issued under this chapter shall contain a recital on their face to the effect that payment of the principal of, interest on, and prepayment premium, if any, on the bonds, shall be a valid claim only as against the special fund or funds relating thereto, that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state or any municipal corporation, subdivision, or agency of the state, other than the commission as set forth in this chapter, is pledged to the payment of the principal of, interest on, and prepayment premium, if any, on the bonds.

Contracts entered into by the commission shall be entered into in the name of the commission and not in the name of the state of Washington. The obligations of the commission under the contracts shall be obligations only of the commission and are not in any way obligations of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. COMMISSION CREATED. (1) There is hereby established a public body corporate and politic, with perpetual corporate succession, to be known as the Washington state housing finance commission. The commission is an instrumentality of the state exercising essential government functions and, for purposes of the code, acts as a constituted authority on behalf of the state when it issues bonds pursuant to this chapter. The commission is a 'public body' within the meaning of RCW 39.53.010.

(2) The commission shall consist of the following voting members:

- (a) The state treasurer, ex officio;
- (b) The director of the planning and community affairs agency, ex officio;
- (c) An elected local government official, ex officio, with experience in local housing programs, who shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate;
- (d) A representative of housing consumer interests, appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate;
- (e) A representative of labor interests, appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, after consultation with representatives of organized labor;
- (f) A representative of low-income persons, appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate;
- (g) Five members of the public appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, on the basis of geographic distribution and their expertise in housing, real estate, finance, energy efficiency, or construction, one of whom shall be appointed by the governor as chair of the commission and who shall serve on the commission and as chair of the commission at the pleasure of the governor.

The term of the persons appointed by the governor, other than the chair, shall be four years from the date of their appointment, except that the terms of three of the initial appointees shall be for two years from the date of their appointment. The governor shall designate the appointees who will serve the two-year terms. An appointee may be removed by the governor for cause pursuant to RCW 43.06.070 and 43.06.080. The governor shall fill any vacancy in an appointed position by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term. If the planning and community affairs agency is abolished, the resulting vacancy shall be filled by a state official who shall be appointed to the commission by the governor. If this official occupies an office or position for which senate confirmation is not required, then his appointment to the commission shall be subject to the consent of the senate. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, solely from the funds of the commission, for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties under this chapter, subject to the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. A majority of the commission constitutes a quorum. Designees shall be appointed in such manner and shall exercise such powers as are specified by the rules of the commission.

(3) The commission may adopt an official seal and may select from its membership a vice chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. The commission shall establish rules concerning its exercise of the powers authorized by this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in conformance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. HOUSING FINANCING POWERS. (1) In addition to other powers and duties prescribed in this chapter, and in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter to provide decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing for eligible persons, the commission is empowered to:

- (a) Issue bonds in accordance with this chapter: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this power to issue bonds shall cease to exist on June 30, 1986, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time;
- (b) Invest in, purchase, or make commitments to purchase or take assignments from mortgage lenders of mortgages or mortgage loans;
- (c) Make loans to or deposits with mortgage lenders for the purpose of making mortgage loans; and
- (d) Participate fully in federal and other governmental programs and to take such actions as are necessary and consistent with this chapter to secure to itself and the people of the state the benefits of those programs and to meet their requirements, including such actions as the commission considers appropriate in order to have the interest payments on its bonds and other obligations treated as tax exempt under the code.

(2) The commission shall establish eligibility standards for eligible persons, considering at least the following factors:

- (a) Income;
- (b) Family size;
- (c) Cost, condition and energy efficiency of available residential housing;
- (d) Availability of decent, safe, and sanitary housing;
- (e) Age or infirmity; and
- (f) Applicable federal, state, and local requirements.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. NO POWER OF EMINENT DOMAIN OR TAXATION. The commission does not have the power of eminent domain and the commission does not have the power to levy any taxes of any kind.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. HOUSING FINANCE PLAN. The commission shall adopt a general plan of housing finance objectives to be implemented by the commission during the period of the plan. The commission shall adopt a plan no later than December 15, 1983. The commission may exercise the powers authorized under this chapter prior to the adoption of the initial plan. In developing the plan, the commission shall consider and set objectives for:

- (1) The use of funds for single-family and multifamily housing;

(2) The use of funds for new construction, rehabilitation, including refinancing of existing debt, and home purchases;

(3) The housing needs of low-income and moderate-income persons and families, and of elderly or mentally or physically handicapped persons;

(4) The use of funds in coordination with federal, state, and local housing programs for low-income persons;

(5) The use of funds in urban, rural, suburban, and special areas of the state;

(6) The use of financing assistance to stabilize and upgrade declining urban neighborhoods;

(7) The use of financing assistance for economically depressed areas, areas of minority concentration, reservations, and in mortgage-deficient areas;

(8) The geographical distribution of bond proceeds so that the benefits of the housing programs provided under this chapter will be available to address demand on a fair basis throughout the state;

(9) The use of financing assistance for implementation of cost-effective energy efficiency measures in dwellings.

The plan shall include an estimate of the amount of bonds the commission will issue during the term of the plan and how bond proceeds will be expended.

The plan shall be adopted by resolution of the commission following at least one public hearing thereon, notice of which shall be made by mailing to the clerk of the governing body of each county and by publication in the Washington State Register no more than forty and no less than twenty days prior to the hearing. A draft of the plan shall be made available not less than thirty days prior to any such public hearing. At least every two years, the commission shall report to the legislature regarding implementation of the plan.

Prior to December 31, 1983, the commission shall submit the plan to the chief clerk of the house and secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees. The commission may periodically update the plan. Proposed changes of the plan shall be submitted to the chief clerk of the house and secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees. This submittal of proposed changes shall occur at least fourteen days before final adoption of the changes by the commission.

The commission shall adopt rules designed to result in the use of bond proceeds in a manner consistent with the plan. These rules shall be adopted and in full force and effect by February 1, 1984. The commission may periodically update its rules.

The commission is not required to adopt a plan or rules for the use of the proceeds of bonds issued prior to February, 1984. This section is designed to deal only with the use of bond proceeds and nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation on the commission's authority to issue bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. GENERAL POWERS. In addition to other powers and duties specified in this chapter, the commission may:

(1) Establish in resolutions relating to any issuance of bonds, or in any financing documents relating to such issuance, such standards and requirements applicable to the purchase of mortgages and mortgage loans or the making of loans to mortgage lenders as the commission deems necessary or desirable, including but not limited to: (a) The time within which mortgage lenders must make commitments and disbursements for mortgages or mortgage loans; (b) the location and other characteristics of single-family housing or multifamily housing to be financed by mortgages and mortgage loans; (c) the terms and conditions of mortgages and mortgage loans to be acquired; (d) the amounts and types of insurance coverage required on mortgages, mortgage loans, and bonds; (e) the representations and warranties of mortgage lenders confirming compliance with such standards and requirements; (f) restrictions as to interest rate and other terms of mortgages or mortgage loans or the return realized therefrom by mortgage lenders; (g) the type and amount of collateral security to be provided to assure repayment of any loans from the commission and to assure repayment of bonds; and (h) any other matters related to the purchase of mortgages or mortgage loans or the making of loans to lending institutions as shall be deemed relevant by the commission;

(2) Sue and be sued in its own name;

(3) Make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its purposes or powers, including but not limited to contracts or agreements for the origination, servicing, and administration of mortgages or mortgage loans, and the borrowing of money;

(4) Procure such insurance, including but not limited to insurance: (a) Against any loss in connection with its property and other assets, including but not limited to mortgages or mortgage loans, in such amounts and from such insurers as the commission deems desirable, and (b) to indemnify members of the commission for acts done in the course of their duties;

(5) Provide for the investment of any funds, including funds held in reserve, not required for immediate disbursement, and provide for the selection of investments;

(6) Fix, revise, and collect fees and charges in connection with the investigation and financing of housing or in connection with assignments, contracts, purchases of mortgages or mortgage loans, or any other actions permitted under this chapter or by the commission; and receive grants and contributions;

(7) Make such expenditures as are appropriate for paying the administrative costs of the commission and for carrying out the provisions of this chapter. These expenditures may be made only from funds consisting of the commission's receipts from fees and charges, grants and contributions, the proceeds of bonds issued by the commission, and other revenues; these expenditures shall not be made from funds of the state of Washington;

(8) Establish such special funds, and controls on deposits to and disbursements from them, as it finds convenient for the implementation of this chapter;

(9) Conduct such investigations and feasibility studies as it deems appropriate;

(10) Proceed with foreclosure actions or accept deeds in lieu of foreclosure together with the assignments of leases and rentals incidental thereto. Any properties acquired by the commission through such actions shall be sold as soon as practicable through persons licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW or at public auction, or by transfer to a public agency. In preparation for the disposition of the properties, the commission may own, lease, clear, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, repair, maintain, manage, operate, assign, or encumber the properties;

(11) Take assignments of leases and rentals;

(12) Subject to any provisions of the commission's contracts with the holders of obligations of the commission, consent to any modification with respect to rate of interest, time, and payment of any installment of principal or interest or any other term of any contract, mortgage, mortgage loan, mortgage loan commitment, contract, or agreement of any kind;

(13) Subject to provisions of the commission's contracts with the holders of bonds, permit the reduction of rental or carrying charges to persons unable to pay the regular rent or schedule of charges if, by reason of other income of the commission or by reason of payment by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or of this state, the reduction can be made without jeopardizing the economic stability of the housing being financed;

(14) Sell, at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, any mortgage, mortgage loan, or other instrument or asset held by the commission;

(15) Employ, contract with, or engage engineers, architects, attorneys, financial advisors, bond underwriters, mortgage lenders, mortgage administrators, housing construction or financing experts, other technical or professional assistants, and such other personnel as are necessary. The commission may delegate to the appropriate persons the power to execute legal instruments on its behalf;

(16) Receive contributions or grants from any source unless otherwise prohibited;

(17) Delegate any of its powers and duties if consistent with the purposes of this chapter;

(18) Exercise any other power reasonably required to implement the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The commission shall adopt written policies to provide for the selection of bond counsel. The policies shall provide for the creation and maintenance of a roster of attorneys whom the commission believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond counsel opinions which would be accepted by the underwriters, bondholders, and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in obtaining the lowest possible interest rates on the bonds issued by the commission. Any attorney may apply to have his or her name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless the attorney demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that the attorney would issue the kind of opinions required by this section.

(2) Prior to selecting an attorney or attorneys to provide bond counsel services, the commission shall provide all attorneys on the roster with a notice of its intentions to select bond counsel and shall invite each of them to submit to the commission his or her fee schedule for providing bond counsel services. The commission shall have wide discretion in selecting the attorney or attorneys it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the commission shall consider all submitted fee schedules and the public interest in achieving issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the commission. At least once every two calendar years, the commission shall select anew an attorney or attorneys to serve as bond counsel. However, the commission may retain an attorney for longer than two years when necessary to complete work on a particular bond issue. An attorney previously retained may be selected again but only after the commission has provided other attorneys on the roster with an opportunity to be selected and has made the fee schedule review required under this subsection. In addition to or as an alternative to retaining counsel for a period of time, the commission may appoint an attorney to serve as counsel in respect to only a particular bond issue or issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The commission shall adopt written policies to provide for the selection of underwriters. The policies shall provide for the creation of a roster of underwriters whom the commission believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond marketing services which would be accepted by bondholders and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in marketing the commission's bonds at the lowest possible costs. Any underwriter may apply to have its name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless it demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that it meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Whenever the commission decides that it needs the services of an underwriter, it shall provide all underwriters on the roster with a notice of its intentions and shall invite each of them to submit to the commission an itemization of its fees and other charges for providing underwriting services on the issue. The itemization shall be by categories designed by the commission. The commission shall have wide discretion in selecting the underwriter it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the commission shall consider the underwriter's fees and other charges and the public interest in achieving issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the commission.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The legislature recognizes that the demand for mortgage loans for nonrental single family housing will probably greatly exceed the supply of bond proceeds available to satisfy the demand. Therefore, the commission shall adopt rules providing procedures to assure that the bond proceeds available for that kind of housing shall be made available to qualified mortgagors in a fair and equitable manner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The commission is encouraged to adopt policies which will assure that bondholders will be protected against the failure to make mortgage payments financed under this chapter. Such policies may require, among other things, mortgage insurance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. RULES FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY. The commission shall adopt rules providing for financing assistance to implement cost-effective energy efficiency improvements.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. BOND ISSUES—TERMS—ISSUANCE—PURCHASE, ETC. (1) The commission's bonds shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, be in such denominations, be in such form, be registered or registerable in such manner, be made transferable, exchangeable, and interchangeable, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, be subject to such terms of redemption, bear such fixed or variable rate or rates of interest, be payable at such time or times, and be sold in such manner and at such price or prices, as the commission determines. The bonds shall be executed by the chair, by either its duly elected secretary or its treasurer, and by the trustee or paying agent if the commission determines to use a trustee or paying agent for the bonds. Execution of the bonds may be by manual or facsimile signature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. INTERNAL REVENUE CODE. For purposes of the code:

(1) The legislature reserves the right at any time to alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the commission and to terminate the commission, so long as the action does not impair any outstanding contracts entered into by the commission;

(2) Any net earnings of the commission beyond that necessary to retire its bonds and to carry out the purposes of this chapter shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state;

(3) Upon dissolution of the commission, title to all of its remaining property shall vest in the state;

(a) Eighty percent of the state ceiling shall be allocated to the commission and twenty percent shall be allocated to the other issuing authorities in the state.

(b) The allocation to the issuing authorities other than the commission shall be distributed to such issuing authorities in amounts as determined following public notice by the planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, pursuant to rules promulgated by it. The distribution shall be in response to applications received from such issuing authorities and shall be based on the following factors: (i) The amount of housing to be made available by such applicant; (ii) the population within the jurisdiction of the applicant; (iii) coordination with other applicable federal and state housing programs; (iv) the likelihood of implementing the proposed financing during that year; and (v) consistency with the plan of the commission. On or before February 1 of each year, the planning and community affairs agency shall distribute the state ceiling allocation among such issuing authorities and any unused portion shall be added to the allocation of the commission. However, for calendar year 1983, the distribution shall be made on or before September 1, 1983. Any portion of such allocation not so confirmed shall be added to the allocation of the commission on July 1. Prior to July 1, the commission shall provide written notice of the allocation decrease to the affected issuing authority. The reallocation shall not limit the authority of the commission to assign a portion of its allocation pursuant to subsection (5)(c) of this section.

(c) The commission may assign a portion of its allocation to another issuing agency.

(d) For calendar year 1983, the allocations to issuing authorities, other than the commission, shall include bonds issued by the authorities during the first six months of 1983. However, the planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall adopt rules to ensure that the total amount of bonds issued by the authorities during the six-month period does not exceed their twenty percent share and that the total amount of bonds issued by any single issuing authority during such period does not exceed twenty-five million dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any part of this chapter is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this chapter shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. ANNUAL FISCAL AUDIT. The commission shall select an accounting firm to perform an annual fiscal audit. ESB 3846 Prime Sponsor, Senator Talmadge: Providing for the redemption of vehicles impounded by cities and towns. Reported by Committee on Transportation

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 42, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.111 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A registered disposer shall take custody of any vehicle or hulk placed in his custody by a law enforcement officer pursuant to RCW 46.61.565 or 46.52.180 and shall remove the vehicle or hulk to the established place of business of the registered disposer where the vehicle or hulk shall be stored, and the registered disposer shall have a lien upon the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk, unless the impoundment is determined to have been invalid. However the lien does not apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle which personal property is not permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle. The registered disposer shall also have a claim against the last registered owner of the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk, not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless the removal is determined to be invalid. A registered owner who has complied with RCW 46.52.104 in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle or hulk shall be relieved of liability under this section.

(2) Within twenty-four hours after receiving custody of the vehicle or hulk from the law enforcement officer, the registered disposer shall give notice of his custody to the department of licensing and the Washington state patrol. If a vehicle impounded from private property pursuant to this chapter is in the custody of a registered disposer and remains unclaimed after seventy-two hours, the registered disposer shall without undue delay give notice of his custody to the department. The department shall supply the last known names and addresses of registered and legal owners of the vehicle(s) as the names and addresses appear on the records of the department to the registered disposer on request without charge in those cases where the information was not given to the registered disposer by the law enforcement officer.

(3) Within three days after receiving the names and addresses of the owners from the department or the law enforcement officer, the registered disposer shall send a notice to the registered and legal owners of the vehicle to the last known addresses of the owners as the addresses appear on the records of the department by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall contain a description of the vehicle or hulk including its license number and vehicle identification number and shall state the amount due the registered disposer for services in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk and the time and place of public sale if the amount remains unpaid or if possession of the vehicle is not otherwise regained pursuant to RCW 46.52.200. The notice shall not be sent if the registered owner has regained possession of the vehicle pursuant to RCW 46.52.200. If the vehicle is sold pursuant to this chapter, a copy of the notice with proof of mailing shall be retained in the registered disposer's files and available for inspection for a period of three years from the date of sale.

(4) The failure of the registered disposer to comply with the time limits provided in this chapter shall limit the accumulation of storage charges to five days except where delay is unavoidable. The providing of incorrect or incomplete identifying information to the department in the abandoned vehicle report shall be considered a failure to comply with these time limits if correct information is available.

(5) Impounded vehicles shall be redeemed only by the legal or registered owner, a person authorized by the registered owner, or one who has purchased a vehicle from the registered owner, who produces proof of ownership or authorization and signs a receipt therefor.

(6) Any person redeeming an impounded vehicle shall pay to the towing contractor the costs of impoundment before redeeming the vehicle. However, the county, city, or town with jurisdiction over the impoundment may authorize release before payment of the towing or impoundment fees if the owner requests a hearing as to the propriety of the impoundment. The towing contractor shall accept cash, major bank credit cards, certified bank drafts, money orders, and personal checks drawn on in-state banks in payment for these costs. If such a personal check is offered in payment, the person offering the check may be required to show evidence of his or her identity by two pieces of identification which may include a driver's license, Washington state identification card issued by the department of licensing, other credit cards, or similar forms of identification. If the contractor has reasonable cause to believe the tendered check is uncollectible under standards adopted by the county, city, or town with jurisdiction over the impoundment, acceptance of the check may be refused. If the vehicle was impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer and any personal check or promissory note is subsequently not paid or is dishonored, the towing firm shall be reimbursed the amount of the check or note by the municipality directing the impoundment.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 281, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.118 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person having possession or control of real property who finds an abandoned vehicle or abandoned vehicle hulk as defined in RCW 46.52.102 standing upon that property is authorized to have ~~((such))~~ the vehicle or hulk removed by a person properly registered pursuant to RCW 46.52.108. ~~((Such))~~ The vehicle shall be disposed of in accordance with the procedure prescribed in RCW ~~((46.52.111 and 46.52.112))~~ 46.52.1194 and section 4 of this act.

(c) Maintain personnel able and authorized to arrange for the release of any vehicle to its owner on a twenty-four hour basis;

(d) After removing a vehicle from private property pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.1192, report the fact of removal together with the license number, vehicle identification number, make, year, and place of impoundment to the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the place of impoundment, which agency shall maintain a log of such reports(~~(: PROVIDED, That))~~). The law enforcement agency to which the report was made shall provide the name and address of the registered and legal owner, as may appear on the records of the department, to the towing firm removing a vehicle under RCW 46.52.118 through 46.52.1198. The reporting required in this subsection shall include an immediate radio or telephone call to, and a written notification, within twenty-four hours, to such local law enforcement agency;

(e) If any vehicle removed pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.1192 remains unclaimed after twenty-four hours, send to the registered and legal owner of the vehicle by the end of the next business day a notice by certified mail, return receipt requested(~~(:))~~; (i) Advising that person of the name, location, and twenty-four hour telephone number of the person, tow truck operator, or operator of any storage facility who is empowered or authorized to return custody of any such towed, removed, or impounded motor vehicle(~~(: The notification shall also contain))~~; (ii) providing an estimate of the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of removing, impounding, or storing any such motor vehicle(~~(: For the purpose of sending such notice, the law enforcement agency to which the report was made shall provide the name and address of the registered owner, as it appears on the records of the department, to the towing firm removing a vehicle under the provisions of RCW 46.52.118 through 46.52.1198. PROVIDED, That in the event))~~; (iii) containing notice of right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing conducted pursuant to section 4 of this act; and (iv)

(3) The towing company shall give to each person who seeks to redeem an impounded vehicle written notice of right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing, which notice shall be accompanied by a form to be used for requesting a hearing, and a copy of the tow and storage receipt. The towing company shall maintain a record evidenced by the redeeming person's signature that such notification was provided.

(4) The effect of other laws notwithstanding, the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of removing, impounding, or storing any such motor vehicle shall not constitute a lien upon the legal ownership of ~~((such))~~ the motor vehicle until forty-eight hours after the notice as provided in this ~~((subsection))~~ section has been received by the local law enforcement agency or owner of the vehicle, at which time the lien may be enforced as otherwise provided by law for the enforcement of towing or storage liens or liens generally(~~(-AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That))~~).

(5) If the towing firm assesses a fee according to the miles a vehicle is towed, the lien shall be, and the towing firm shall attempt to recover, no more than the fees that would accrue for towing to the nearest storage location of any towing firm.

~~((2))~~ (6) A failure to comply with the provisions of this section or section 4 of this act in regard to any vehicle waives the lien on that vehicle, constitutes a bar to recovery of the charges accrued on that vehicle, and is grounds for the suspension or revocation of the registration of any towing firm registered under RCW 46.52.108 to dispose of the abandoned vehicle(~~(-PROVIDED That))~~). However, no storage charges ~~((shall))~~ accrue in any event until written notice as provided in this section ~~((shall have))~~ has been received by the local law enforcement agency or owner of the vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(b) An unclaimed vehicle subject to sale may be redeemed pursuant to RCW 46.52.1196, or by posting a sufficient bond to cover accrued impoundment, towing, and storage charges. The bond shall be held in trust by the registered disposer pending the outcome of a hearing.

(2) Any person seeking to redeem an impounded vehicle under this section has a right to a hearing in the district court for the jurisdiction in which the vehicle was impounded to contest the validity of the impoundment or the amount of towing and storage charges. Any request for a hearing shall be made in writing on the form provided for that purpose and must be received by the district court within ten days of the date the notification provided for in RCW 46.52.1194 was mailed or delivered. If the hearing request is not received by the district court within the ten-day period, the right to a hearing is waived and the legal and registered owners shall be liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment charges permitted under this chapter. Upon receipt of a timely hearing request, the district court shall proceed to hear and determine the validity of the impoundment.

(3)(a) The district court, within five days after the request for a hearing, shall notify the registered disposer and the registered and legal owner of the motor vehicle in writing of the hearing date and time.

(b) At the hearing, the person or persons requesting the hearing may produce any relevant evidence to show that the impoundment, towing, or storage fees charged were not proper.

(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, the district court shall determine whether the impoundment, towing, or storage fees charged were proper.

(d) If the impoundment is found proper, the impoundment, towing, and storage fees as permitted under this chapter together with court costs and the expenses of the hearing shall be assessed against the person or persons requesting the hearing.

(e) If the impoundment is determined to be invalid, then the registered and legal owners of the vehicle shall bear no impoundment, towing, or storage costs, and any bond or other security shall be returned or discharged as appropriate.

(4) Any unclaimed vehicle not redeemed within fifteen days of mailing of the notice required by RCW 46.52.1194 shall be sold at public auction in accordance with all the provisions and subject to all the conditions of RCW 46.52.112.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 281, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.1196 are each amended to read as follows:

The notification shall contain a certificate of mailing and shall inform the registered and legal owners of the impoundment, redemption procedures, and opportunity for a hearing to contest the basis for the impoundment. The notice need not be mailed if the vehicle is redeemed prior to the mailing of the notice or if the registered owner and the legal owner are not reasonably ascertainable.

Upon impoundment of a vehicle pursuant to this section, the law enforcement officer shall also provide the registered disposer with the name and address of the last registered owner and legal owner of the vehicle as may be shown by the records of the department or as otherwise reasonably ascertainable.

Any request for a hearing pursuant to this section shall be made in writing on the form provided for that purpose and must be received by the district court within ten days of the date the notification provided for in this section was mailed. MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 70.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature hereby declares that:

(1) The health and welfare of the people of the state depend on clean and pure environmental resources unaffected by hazardous waste contamination. Management and regulation of hazardous waste disposal should encourage practices which result in the least amount of waste being produced. Towards that end, the legislature finds that the following priorities in the management of hazardous waste are necessary and should be followed in order of descending priority as applicable:

- (a) Waste reduction;
- (b) Waste recycling;
- (c) Physical, chemical, and biological treatment;
- (d) Incineration;
- (e) Solidification/stabilization treatment;
- (f) Landfill.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) 'Waste reduction' means reducing waste so that hazardous byproducts are not produced;

(b) 'Waste recycling' means reusing waste materials and extracting valuable materials from a waste stream;

(c) 'Physical, chemical, and biological treatment' means processing the waste to render it completely innocuous, produce a recyclable byproduct, reduce toxicity, or substantially reduce the volume of material requiring disposal;

(d) 'Incineration' means reducing the volume or toxicity of wastes by use of an enclosed device using controlled flame combustion;

(e) 'Solidification/stabilization treatment' means the use of encapsulation techniques to solidify wastes and make them less permeable or leachable; and

(f) 'Landfill' means a disposal facility, or part of a facility, at which waste is placed in or on land and which is not a land treatment facility, surface impoundment, or injection well.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 70.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department after notice and public hearing shall:

(1) Conduct studies of the state's dangerous and extremely hazardous wastes to determine the best management practices for categories of waste for the priority waste management methods established in section 1 (b) through (f) of this act, with due consideration in the course of the study to sound environmental management and available technology. After conducting the studies, the department shall prepare new rules or modify existing rules as appropriate to promote implementation of the priorities established in section 1 (b) through (f) of this act for management practices which assure use of sound environmental management techniques and available technology. The preliminary studies shall be completed by July 1, 1985, and the rules shall be adopted by July 1, 1986.

(2) Conduct additional studies on policy direction (such as fee incentives, disposal bans, etc.) that will help achieve the goals of waste reduction for specific categories of waste. The studies shall be completed by July 1, 1987. The solid waste advisory committee shall review the studies and make recommendations regarding these policy options that could be used to encourage reduction of dangerous and extremely hazardous wastes. The review and recommendations shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 70.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Consistent with the purposes of sections 1 and 2 of this act, the department is authorized to promote the priority waste management methods listed in section 1 of this act by establishing or assisting in the establishment of: (1) Consultative services which, in conjunction with any business or industry requesting such service, study and recommend alternative waste management practices; and (2) technical assistance, such as a toll-free telephone service, to persons interested in waste management alternatives. Any person receiving such service or assistance may, in accordance with state law, request confidential treatment of information about their manufacturing or business practices.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 70.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All fines and penalties collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the waste management account, which is hereby created in the state general fund. Moneys in the account shall be expended exclusively by the department of ecology for the purposes of providing technical services under RCW 70.105.100(3), subject to legislative appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) There is appropriated to the department of ecology from the waste management account in the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of RCW 70.105.100(3).

(2) There is appropriated to the department of ecology from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of section 2 of this act. NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A bank or trust company may purchase for its own account shares of stock of a bank or a holding company that owns or controls a bank if the stock of the bank or company is owned exclusively, except to the extent directly qualifying shares are required by law, by depository institutions and the bank or company and all subsidiaries thereof are engaged exclusively in providing services for other depository institutions and their officers, directors, and employees. In no event may the total amount of such stock held by a bank or trust company in any bank or bank holding company exceed at any time ten percent of its capital stock and paid-in and unimpaired surplus, and in no event may the purchase of such stock result in a bank or trust company acquiring more than twenty-five percent of any class of voting securities of such bank or company. Such a bank or bank holding company shall be called a 'banker's bank.'

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of one business day or under a continuing contract are not 'loans or obligations' or 'liabilities' for the purposes of the loan limits established by RCW 30.04.110. However, sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of more than one business day are subject to those limits.

For the purposes of this section, 'sale of federal reserve funds' means any transaction among depository institutions involving the disposal of immediately available funds resulting from credits to deposit balances at federal reserve banks or from credits to new or existing deposit balances due from a correspondent depository institution.

Sec. 3. Section 30.04.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor, the deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit each bank and each trust company at least once in each year, and oftener if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such corporation, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director, officer, employee, or agent of such corporation. ~~((Said))~~ The supervisor may make such other full or partial examinations as deemed necessary and may examine any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington and obtain reports of condition for any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington. The supervisor may visit and examine into the affairs of any nonpublicly held corporation in which the bank, trust company, or bank holding company has an investment or any publicly held corporation the capital stock of which is controlled by the bank, trust company, or bank holding company; may appraise and revalue such corporations' investments and securities; and shall have full access to all the books, records, papers, securities, correspondence, bank accounts, and other papers of such corporations for such purposes. The supervisor may, in his or her discretion, accept in lieu of the examinations required in this section the examinations required under the terms of the federal reserve act for banks which are, or may become, members of a federal reserve bank or the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any willful false swearing in any examination ~~((shall be))~~ is perjury.

The total liability to any bank or trust company of any person for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a firm or association the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall not at any time exceed ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company; but the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values and the discount of commercial or business paper of solvent parties, actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed by him: PROVIDED, That loans secured by collateral security having an ascertained market value of at least fifteen percent more than the amount of the loans secured, shall not be limited by this section.

Loans or obligations shall not be subject under this section to any limitation based upon such capital and surplus to the extent that they are secured or covered by guaranties, or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same, made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

For the purposes of this section, 'capital' includes capital notes or debentures issued under chapter 30.36 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 194, Laws of 1963 and RCW 30.04.128 are each amended to read as follows:

Any state bank or trust company, stock savings bank, or mutual savings bank may invest in the capital stock of banking service corporations ~~((organized for the purpose of performing or providing mechanical, clerical, or record keeping services for two or more banks))~~. The total amount which any such bank may invest in the shares of such corporations may not exceed in the case of a bank or trust company or stock savings bank, ten percent of its paid in or unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus, or in the case of a mutual savings bank, ten percent of its guaranty fund. Such a bank service corporation may not engage in any activity other than ~~((the performance of services for banks))~~ those permitted by the bank service corporation act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1861, et seq., as amended by P.L. 97-320, and in effect on the effective date of this 1983 act. The performance of any service, and any records maintained by any such corporation for a bank, shall be subject to regulation and examination by the supervisor and appropriate federal agencies to the same extent as if such services or records were being performed or maintained by the bank on its own premises.

No bank or trust company shall pledge or hypothecate any of its securities or assets to any depositor, ~~((or creditor.))~~ except that it may qualify as depository for United States deposits, postal savings funds or other public funds, or funds held in trust and deposited by any public officer by virtue of his office, or funds held by the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof in trust, or for funds of corporations owned or controlled by the United States, and may give such security for such deposits as are required by law or by the officer making the same; and it may give security to its trust department for deposits with itself which represent trust funds invested in savings accounts or which represent fiduciary funds awaiting investment or distribution~~((PROVIDED: That any bank or trust company may borrow, for temporary purposes, not to exceed in the aggregate amount the paid-in capital and surplus thereof, and may pledge as security therefor assets of such corporation, not exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed))~~.

Sec. 7. Section 30.04.160, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((When it shall appear to the supervisor that any bank or trust company is habitually borrowing for the purpose of reloaning, he may require such corporation to pay off such borrowed money. Nothing herein shall prevent any bank or trust company from rediscounting in good faith and indorsing any of its negotiable notes, but all such moneys borrowed and all such rediscounts shall at all times show on its books and in its reports. No certificates of deposit shall be issued for the purpose of borrowing money.))~~ No officer of any bank or trust company shall issue the note of such corporation for money borrowed or rediscount any of its notes except when authorized by resolution of its board of directors or by an authorized committee thereof. Violation of any provision of RCW 30.04.140 or 30.04.150 or of this section shall constitute a felony.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all powers ~~((previously))~~ enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business ~~((activity. PROVIDED: That))~~ activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States Congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of the effective date of this 1983 act. At least thirty days before investment in corporations or other entities under this chapter, notification by letter shall be made to the supervisor in accordance with such terms and conditions as the supervisor might establish by rule. A bank~~((which))~~ that desires to perform an activity ~~((which))~~ that is not expressly authorized by ~~((the powers enumerated in))~~ this section~~((:))~~ shall first apply to the supervisor for authorization to conduct such activity. Within thirty days of the receipt of this application, the supervisor shall determine whether the activity is ~~((and appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted, whether the activity is apt to create an unsafe or unsound practice by the bank and whether the applicant is capable of performing such an activity. If the supervisor finds the activity to be ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking and the bank is otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant that the activity is authorized. If the supervisor determines that such activity is not ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking or the bank is not otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~. In determining whether a particular activity is ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking, the supervisor shall be guided by ~~((whether national banks under federal laws and administrative regulations and rulings have the authority to perform such activity))~~ the rulings of the board of governors of the federal reserve system in making determinations in connection with the powers exercisable by bank holding companies, and the activities performed by other commercial banks or their holding companies. The itemization shall be by categories designed by the authority. The authority shall have wide discretion in selecting the underwriter it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the authority shall consider the underwriter's fees and other charges and the public interest in achieving issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the authority. The authority may adopt rules setting forth conditions under which an institution of higher education may be permitted to exercise the notice and selection procedures set forth in this subsection. Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Each superior court shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this chapter and while sitting in the exercise of such jurisdiction shall be known and referred to as the 'family court.' A family law proceeding under this chapter is any proceeding under this title or any proceeding in which the family court is requested to adjudicate or enforce the rights of the parties or their children regarding the determination or modification of child custody, visitation, or support, or the distribution of property or obligations.

Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any controversy exists between ~~((spouses))~~ parties which may result in the dissolution ~~((or annulment))~~ of the marriage, declaration of invalidity, or the disruption of the household, and there is any minor child of the ~~((spouses))~~ parties or of either of them whose welfare might be affected thereby, the family court shall have jurisdiction over the controversy and over the parties thereto and all persons having any relation to the controversy as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Prior to the filing of ~~((any action for divorce, annulment or separate maintenance))~~ a family law proceeding, either ~~((spouse or both spouses))~~ party may file in the family court a petition invoking the jurisdiction of the court for the purpose of preserving the marriage by effecting a reconciliation between the parties or for amicable settlement of the controversy between the ~~((spouses))~~ parties so as to avoid further litigation over the issue involved. In any case where ~~((an action for divorce, annulment or separate maintenance))~~ a family law proceeding shall have been filed, either party thereto may by petition filed therein have the cause transferred to the family court for proceedings in the same manner as though action had been instituted in the family court in the first instance.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The petition shall:

(1) Briefly allege that a controversy exists between the ~~((spouses))~~ parties and request the aid of the family court to effect a reconciliation or an amicable settlement of the controversy;

(2) State the name and age of each minor child whose welfare may be affected by the controversy;

(3) State the name and address of the petitioner or petitioners;

(4) If the petition is presented by one ~~((spouse))~~ party only, name the other ~~((spouse))~~ party as respondent and state the address of that ~~((spouse))~~ party;

(5) Name any other person who has any relation to the controversy and state the address of the person if known to the petitioner; and

(6) State such other information as the court may by rule require.

Sec. 5. Section 17, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 2, chapter 151, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 26.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The hearing shall be conducted informally as a conference or series of conferences to effect the reconciliation of the ~~((spouses))~~ parties or an amicable adjustment or settlement of the issues of the controversy. To facilitate and promote the purposes of this chapter, the court may order or recommend the aid of physicians, psychiatrists, or other specialists or may recommend the aid of the pastor or director of any religious denomination to which the parties may belong. Such aid, however, shall be at the expense of the parties involved and shall not be at the expense of the court or of the county unless the board of county commissioners shall specifically authorize such aid.

If the court has reasonable cause to believe that a child of the parties has suffered abuse or neglect it may file a report with the proper law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040. Upon receipt of such a report the law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services will conduct an investigation into the cause and extent of the abuse or neglect. The findings of the investigation may be made available to the court if ordered by the court as provided in RCW 42.17.310(3). The findings shall be restricted to the issue of abuse and neglect and shall not be considered custody investigations.

Sec. 6. Section 18, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.180 are each amended to read as follows:

At or after hearing, the court may make such orders in respect to the conduct of the ~~((spouses))~~ parties and the subject matter of the controversy as the court deems necessary to preserve the marriage or to implement ~~((the reconciliation of the spouses, but in no event shall such orders be effective for more than thirty days from the filing of the petition, unless the parties mutually consent to an extension of such time))~~ an amicable settlement of the issues in controversy.

Sec. 7. Section 19, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The family court shall have full power in all pending cases to make, alter, modify and enforce all temporary orders, orders for custody of children, possession of property, attorneys' fees, suit money or costs as may appear just and equitable~~((:)).~~

(2) If, after the expiration of such thirty day period or the formal conclusion of the proceedings for conciliation, the controversy between the ~~((spouses, in the meantime not having))~~ parties has not been terminated, either ~~((spouse))~~ party may apply for ~~((divorce, annulment of marriage, or separate maintenance))~~ further relief by filing in the clerk's office additional pleadings ~~((complying with the requirements relating to divorce, annulment of marriage, or separate maintenance, respectively))~~ or by asking that the pending case be set for trial ~~((and))~~. The family court ~~((shall have))~~ has full jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine ~~((such action for divorce, annulment of marriage, or separate maintenance))~~ family law proceedings under the laws relating thereto, and to retain jurisdiction of the case for further hearings on decrees or orders to be made therein.

(3) The conciliation provisions of this chapter may be used ~~((in regard to post-divorce problems))~~ concerning support, visitation, contempt, or for modification based on changed conditions ~~((in the discretion of the family court))~~ or for other problems between the parties related to the family law proceeding.

~~((The family court may retain jurisdiction in any proceedings for a longer period than thirty days upon good cause appearing therefor on its own motion for further conciliation or upon application of either of the spouses, but in no event shall retain jurisdiction more than ninety days without the written consent of both spouses filed with the court.))~~

(4) Except as specifically so provided nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal, nullify or change the law and procedure relating to ~~((divorce, annulment or separate maintenance, and))~~ family law proceedings. The family court shall, when application for relief is made under this chapter, apply ~~((such laws))~~ provisions governing family law proceedings in the same manner as if the action had been brought thereunder in the superior court, save that the conciliation procedures of the family court shall be applied so far as appropriate to arrive at an amicable settlement of all issues in controversy.

Sec. 8. Section 20, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever ~~((any action for divorce, annulment of marriage or separate maintenance))~~ a family law proceeding is filed in the superior court and it appears to the court at any time during the pendency of the action that there is any minor child of ~~((the spouses or of))~~ either ~~((of them))~~ party whose welfare may be affected by the dissolution ~~((or annulment))~~ of the marriage, declaration of invalidity, or the disruption of the household, the case may be transferred to the family court for proceedings for reconciliation of the ~~((spouses))~~ parties or amicable settlement of issues in controversy in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 9. Section 21, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever application is made to the family court ~~((for conciliation proceedings in respect to a controversy between spouses or a contested action for divorce, annulment or separate maintenance)),~~ but there is no minor child whose welfare might be affected by the results of the controversy, ~~((and it appears to the court upon recommendation of counsel or otherwise that reconciliation of the spouses or amicable adjustment of the controversy can probably be achieved, and that the work of the court in cases involving children will not be seriously impeded by acceptance of the case, the court may accept and dispose of the case in the same manner as similar cases involving the welfare of children are disposed of, in the event of such application and acceptance.))~~ the court shall have the same jurisdiction over the controversy and the parties thereto or having any relation thereto that it has under this chapter in similar cases involving the welfare of children. The court shall accept jurisdiction under this section only upon a finding by the court that the acceptance of the case will not seriously impede the work of the court in cases involving children."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 10.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No person may be subjected to a strip search by or at the direction of a law enforcement agency unless there is probable cause to believe the person is concealing on his or her body evidence of a crime, contraband, fruits of a crime, things otherwise criminally possessed, weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed.

With respect to strip searches, this section shall not apply to:

(b) A person who has voluntarily given informed written consent to a strip search;

(c) A person who has been detained for at least six hours since being booked into the holding, detention, or local correctional facility; or

(d) A person whose conduct poses a danger to himself, herself, or others within the holding, detention, or local correctional facility.

(2) No person may be subjected to a body cavity search by or at the direction of a law enforcement agency unless a search warrant is issued pursuant to superior court criminal rules.

(3) Nothing in this section may be construed as precluding or preventing the administration of medical care to persons requiring immediate medical care or requesting medical care.

(4) As used in this section:

No body cavity search shall be authorized or conducted unless these other methods do not satisfy the safety, security, or evidentiary concerns of the law enforcement agency.

(6) No law enforcement officer may seek a warrant for a body cavity search without first obtaining specific authorization for the body cavity search from the ranking shift supervisor of the law enforcement authority. Authorization for the body cavity search may be obtained electronically: PROVIDED, That such electronic authorization shall be reduced to writing by the law enforcement officer seeking the authorization and signed by the ranking supervisor as soon as possible thereafter.

(7) Persons conducting a strip search shall not touch the person being searched except as reasonably necessary to effectuate the strip search of the person.

(8) No body cavity search may be conducted except pursuant to a valid search warrant specifically authorizing a body cavity search and issued pursuant to superior court criminal rules. No such warrant shall be issued unless an application in support of the request for a warrant allowing the search has been submitted to the court passing on the request stating with specificity the type of search being requested, the person upon whom the search is to be performed and the factors constituting the probable cause justifying the search. The identity of any person supplying information justifying the search shall be kept confidential except to the extent a court determines that disclosure of the informer's identity is relevant and helpful to a defendant in a criminal trial or is essential to a fair determination of a cause. The application shall further state with specificity why the methods of search required under subsection (5) of this section do not meet the safety, security, or evidentiary concerns of the law enforcement agency.

(9) Any body cavity search must be performed under sanitary conditions and conducted by a physician, registered nurse, or physician's assistant, licensed to practice in this state, who is trained in the proper medical process and the potential health problems associated with a body cavity search. No health professional authorized by this subsection to conduct a body cavity search shall be held liable in any civil action if the search is conducted in a manner that meets the standards and requirements of RCW 4.24.290 and 7.70.040.

(10) A strip search other than a strip search conducted pursuant to subsection (19) of this section, or body cavity search, as well as presearch undressing or postsearch dressing, shall occur at a location made private from the observation of persons not physically conducting the search. A strip search or body cavity search shall be performed or observed only by persons of the same sex as the person being searched, except for licensed medical professionals as required by subsection (9) of this section.

(11) Except as provided in subsection (12) of this section, no person may be present or observe during the search unless the person is necessary to conduct the search or to insure the safety of those persons conducting the search.

(12) Nothing in this section prohibits a person upon whom a body cavity search is to be performed from having a readily available person of his or her choosing present at the time the search is conducted. However, the person chosen shall not be a person being held in custody by a law enforcement agency.

(13) A law enforcement officer requesting a body cavity search shall prepare and sign a follow-up report regarding the body cavity search. The follow-up report shall include:

(a) A copy of the written authorization required under subsection (6) of this section;

(b) A copy of the warrant and application required under subsections (2) and (8) of this section;

(c) The name and sex of all persons conducting or observing the search;

(d) The time, date, place, and description of the search; and

(e) A statement of the results of the search and a list of any items removed from the person as a result of the search.

The report shall be retained as part of the law enforcement agency's records. A copy of the report shall be given to the person subjected to the search upon that person's release from custody.

(14) Except for subsections (7), (9), and (10) of this section, this section does not apply to a person who remains in custody after a first court appearance.

(15) A person who suffers damage or harm as a result of a violation of this section may bring a civil action to recover actual damages sustained by him or her. The court may, in its discretion, award equitable relief as it deems necessary. Proper costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, shall be awarded to plaintiffs prevailing under this section.

(16) This section shall not be construed as limiting any constitutional, common law or statutory right of any person regarding any action for damages or injunctive relief, or as precluding the prosecution under another provision of law of any law enforcement officer or other person who has violated this section.

(17) 'Law enforcement agency' and 'law enforcement officer' include local departments of corrections created pursuant to RCW 70.48.090(3) and employees thereof.

(18) This section shall not be interpreted as expanding or diminishing the authority of a law enforcement officer with respect to searches incident to arrest or investigatory stop in public.

(19) A strip search of a person housed in a holding, detention, or local correctional facility to search for and seize a weapon may be conducted absent probable cause to believe the person is in fact concealing a weapon on his or her person if there arises a specific threat to institutional security which reasonably requires such a search or if all persons in the facility are being searched for the discovery of weapons or contraband.

(20) Any holding, detention, or local correctional facility which cannot fully comply with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section due to the lack of physical facilities shall so certify to the corrections standards board, detailing each reason preventing compliance. Upon verification of the reasons given, the corrections standards board may temporarily exempt compliance with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section until such date as it deems appropriate, consistent with the intent of this section. No period of exemption shall extend beyond July 1, 1984. Any holding, detention, or local correctional facility granted a temporary exemption under this subsection shall implement the requirements of subsection (1) of this section to the extent feasible and shall promulgate rules and procedures limiting the use of strip searches and implementing the intent of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1983."

SSB 4066 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Financial Institutions: Revising certain powers and duties of consumer finance companies. Reported by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

"Sec. 1. Section 13, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 3, chapter 18, Laws of 1979 and RCW 31.08.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every licensee hereunder may lend any sum of money not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars in amount and may charge, contract for, and receive thereon charges at a rate not exceeding two and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan not in excess of five hundred dollars, one and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan in excess of five hundred dollars and not in excess of one thousand dollars, and one percent per month on any remainder of such unpaid principal balance.

(2) Charges on loans made under this chapter shall not be paid, deducted, discounted, or received in advance, or compounded, but the rate of charge authorized by this section may be precomputed as provided in subsection (3) of this section. Charges on loans made under this chapter, except as permitted by subsection (3) hereof, (a) shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and (b) shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. For the purpose of this section a month shall be that period of time from any date in a month to the corresponding date in the next month and if there is no such corresponding date then to the last day of the next month; and a day shall be considered one-thirtieth of a month when computation is made for a fraction of a month.

(3) When the loan contract requires repayment in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and charges combined, the charges may be precomputed at the monthly rate on scheduled unpaid principal balances according to the terms of the contract and added to the principal of the loan. Every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed charge until the contract is fully paid. The acceptance or payment of charges on loans made under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deemed to constitute payment, deduction, or receipt thereof in advance nor compounding under subsection (2) above. Such precomputed charge shall be subject to the following adjustments:

(a) The portion of the precomputed charge applicable to any particular monthly installment period shall bear the same ratio to the total precomputed charge, excluding any adjustment made under paragraph (f) of this subsection, as the balance scheduled to be outstanding during that monthly period bears to the sum of all monthly balances scheduled originally by the contract of loan.

(b) If the loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise before the final installment date, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to the full installment periods following the installment date nearest the date of such prepayment shall be rebated. In computing any required rebate, any prepayment made on or before the fifteenth day following an installment date shall be deemed to have been made on the installment date preceding such prepayment. If prepayment in full occurs before the first installment date an additional rebate of one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment period of one month shall be made for each day from the date of such prepayment to the first scheduled installment date. If judgment is obtained before the final installment date, the contract balance shall be reduced by the rebate of precomputed charge which would be required for prepayment in full as of the date judgment is obtained.

(c) If the payment date of all wholly unpaid installments on which no default charge has been collected is deferred one or more full months and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferment charge. Such deferment charge shall not exceed the portion of the precomputed charge applicable under the original contract of loan to the first month of the deferment period multiplied by the number of months in said period. The deferment period is the month or months in which no scheduled payment has been made or in which no payment is to be required by reason of the deferment. In computing any default charge, or required rebate, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following the deferment period and prior to the deferred maturity shall remain the same as that applicable to such balances and periods under the original contract of loan. Such charge may be collected at the time of deferment or at any time thereafter. If a loan is prepaid in full during a deferment period, the borrower shall receive, in addition to the rebate required under paragraph (b) of this subsection, a rebate of that portion of the deferment charge applicable to any unexpired months of the deferment period.

(d) If the payment in full of any scheduled installment is in default more than seven days and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding five percent of the unpaid amount of the installment or five dollars, whichever is less. Said charge may not be collected more than once for the same default and may be collected when such default occurs or any time thereafter. If such default charge is deducted from any payment received after default occurs and such deduction results in the default of a subsequent installment, no charge may be made for the resulting default.

(e) If two or more full installments are in default for one full month or more at any installment date and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the contract balance by the rebate which would be required for prepayment in full on such installment date. Thereafter, charges may be received at the agreed rate computed on actual unpaid balances of the contract for the time outstanding until the contract is fully paid. Charges so collected shall be in lieu of any deferment or default charges which otherwise would accrue on the contract after such installment date.

(f) A licensee and borrower may agree that the first installment due date may be not more than fifteen days more than one month and the amount of such installment may be increased by one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment of one month for each extra day.

(4) No licensee shall induce or permit any borrower to split up or divide any loan, nor induce or permit any person, nor any husband or wife jointly or severally, to become obligated, directly or contingently or both, under more than one contract of loan at the same time.

for the purpose or with the result of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted by this section. If part or all of the consideration for a loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan with the same licensee, then the principal amount payable under such loan contract shall not include any unpaid charges on the prior loan, except charges which have accrued within sixty days before the making of such loan contract and may include the balance of a precomputed contract which remains after giving the rebate required by subsection (3) hereof.

(5) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any charges or fees except charges authorized by this chapter, the reasonable actual costs paid by the licensee to foreclose, repossess or otherwise realize on the security, reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred by the licensee and the lawful fees, if any, actually and necessarily paid out by the licensee to any public officer for the transferring of title or for filing, recording, or releasing in any public office, any instrument securing the loan, which fees may be collected when the loan is made, or at any time thereafter. If any payment on a loan is made by check and payment of that check is refused because there was no account or due to insufficient funds, the licensee may contract for and receive a charge in an amount authorized under rule by the supervisor of banking. A bona fide error in the calculation of charges or in the recording of such charges in any statement or receipt delivered to the borrower or in the licensee's records shall not be deemed to be a violation of this chapter if the licensee corrects the error.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 6, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.170 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of every licensee to:

(1) Deliver to the borrower or anyone thereof, if several, at the time any loan is made under this chapter, a statement ~~((upon which there shall be printed in the English language a copy of subsections (1) and (5) of RCW 31.08.160.))~~ showing in clear and distinct terms the ~~((principal))~~ amount ~~((of the loan excluding charges))~~ financed, the date of the loan, the agreed schedule of payments, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, the name and address of the licensee, and the ~~((agreed rate of))~~ finance charges. ~~((When charges are precomputed, the statement shall show the amount of the precomputed charge and shall contain a copy of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) of RCW 31.08.160.))~~ The licensee shall provide to the borrower at the time the loan is made a copy of RCW 31.08.160.

(3) Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any such loan at any time during regular business hours, but the licensee may apply such payment first to all charges at the agreed rate up to the date of such payment: PROVIDED, That when charges are precomputed such payment shall be equal to one or more full scheduled installments:

(4) Upon payment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every obligation signed by the borrower with the word 'paid' or 'canceled' and release any mortgage and restore all notes and collateral which no longer secures a loan and to which the borrower may be lawfully entitled: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in case any such document or obligation is in custodia legis these requirements shall not be applicable; and

(5) Obtain from the borrower prior to making the loan a statement signed by the borrower setting forth the borrower's then current financial condition ~~((and containing a statement that the borrower recognizes))~~ and describing the penalties and defenses resulting from giving false ~~((statement of))~~ financial ~~((condition))~~ information, all on a form approved by the supervisor. A copy of the statement ~~((required to))~~ shall be delivered to the borrower when the loan is made ~~((shall be acknowledged in writing by the licensee and the borrower, and a copy thereof shall be retained by the licensee)).~~

(2) It is unlawful for any employer to authorize, consent to, or condone a strike or work stoppage; or to conduct a lockout; or to pay or agree to pay any employee for any day in which the employee participates in a strike or work stoppage; or to pay or agree to pay any increase in compensation or benefits to any employee in response to or as a result of any strike or work stoppage or any act that violates subsection (1) of this section. It is unlawful for any representative of an employer to authorize, ratify, or participate in any violation of this subsection. Nothing in this subsection prevents new or renewed bargaining and agreement within the scope of negotiations as defined by this chapter, at any time. No collective bargaining agreement provision regarding suspension or modification of any court-ordered penalty provided in this section is binding on the courts.

(3) In the event of any violation or imminently threatened violation of subsection (1) or (2) of this section, any citizen domiciled within the jurisdictional boundaries of the state may petition the superior court for Thurston county for an injunction restraining the violation or imminently threatened violation. Rules of civil procedure regarding injunctions apply to the action. However, the court shall grant a temporary injunction if it appears to the court that a violation has occurred or is imminently threatened; the plaintiff need not show that the violation or threatened violation would greatly or irreparably injure him or her; and no bond may be required of the plaintiff unless the court determines that a bond is necessary in the public interest. Failure to comply with any temporary or permanent injunction granted under this section constitutes a punishable contempt. The punishment shall not exceed ten thousand dollars for an employee organization or an employer, for each day during which the failure to comply continues, or imprisonment in a county jail for officials thereof not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment. The punishment for an employee found to be in contempt shall be as provided in chapter 7.20 RCW. Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. R. King: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like a ruling about whether or not this amendment is beyond the scope and object of this bill. This bill has to do with collective bargaining and the processes and procedures for, and the amendment would strike language in another section that has been on the books for a long time that deals with the internal governments of the universities."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "Mr. Speaker, our rules provide that once the argument has begun then the timeliness is not there. Representative King's arguments are out of order as far as scope and object because the argument had already commenced."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. CHARNLEY PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Charnley presiding): "Representative Taylor had started his remarks on the amendment and your point is well taken. Representative McDonald."

Mr. Taylor continued his remarks in favor of the amendment, and Mr. R. King spoke against it.

Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of the amendment.

The Speaker (Mr. Charnley presiding) called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Taylor, as I read the RCW sections that you provided with your amendment, which say the faculty shall have charge of the immediate government of the institution, does that mean that they are part of the management of the university?"

Mr. Taylor: "In my opinion, without question, when it says they shall have charge of the immediate government of the institution, that means they are part of the people who are in charge. Yes, they have administrative decisions to make."

Mr. Isaacson: "Then if we don't pass this amendment, what we would be doing is passing a law or a bill that would, in essence, permit the faculty to bargain with themselves to make those decisions with respect to their broadening positions?"

Mr. Taylor: "Yes, that's kind of like playing a ball game against yourself and you're the referee too. You make the proposal over here and then you move to the other side of the table, so you have government and then you have labor."

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Taylor to page 15 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 55; excused, 1.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. R. King: "Mr. Speaker, I believe this amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill that's before the body."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative King, your point of order appears to be well taken. Substitute Senate Bill 3042 is a comprehensive higher education labor relations bill, and the amendment deals with the complete removal of tenure procedures in the community college systems. It is beyond the scope and object of the bill."

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, line 30 strike "may" and insert "shall"

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. R. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative King, if I understand your arguments correctly, what we're saying in section 4 is that these provisions are not mandatory even under a union security provision as stated on line 32. Is that correct?"

Mr. R. King: "If they have a union security provision then they would be required to do that, but if they don't have a union security provision, then they would not. If we leave it the way it is it would depend upon whether or not that particular kind of union security provision were bargained, but if you put the word 'shall' in there—I guess the word 'shall' doesn't make sense because the union security provision is a bargainable item and not mandated. If it were mandated then they would use the word 'shall.'"

Mr. Isaacson spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. R. King spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Barnes moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 30 strike "except to the extent that employees may" and insert ". Faculty employees shall not"

On page 2, after line 3 insert the following:

*Sec. 2, Section 7, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 and RCW 36.93.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any of the following described actions are proposed in a county in which a board has been established, the initiators of the action shall file within one hundred eighty days a notice of intention with the board, which may review any such proposed actions pertaining to:

(1) The creation, dissolution, incorporation, disincorporation, consolidation, or change in the boundary of any city, town, or special purpose district, except that a board may not review the dissolution or disincorporation of a special purpose district which was dissolved or disincorporated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 36.96 RCW and the board shall not review any change in the boundary of a special purpose district or service district unless a conflict exists between the other special purpose districts or between the other service districts; or

(2) The assumption by any city or town of all or part of the assets, facilities, or indebtedness of a special purpose district which lies partially within such city or town; or

(3) If there is a conflict with another water district, the establishment of or change in the boundaries of a mutual water and sewer system or separate sewer system by a water district pursuant to RCW 57.08.065 or chapter 57.40 RCW, as now or hereafter amended; or

(4) If there is a conflict with another sewer district, the establishment of or change in the boundaries of a mutual sewer and water system or separate water system by a sewer district pursuant to RCW 56.20.015 or chapter 56.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.(-or

(5) ~~The extension of permanent water or sewer service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district).~~

Mr. Barrett spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Barrett, could you tell me whether or not the amendment would apply to a general purpose district? That is, if a county or a city felt they had a conflict with the boundaries, or a proposed boundary change, of a special purpose district, would the boundary review board jurisdiction then be invoked, or would your amendment preclude them from being involved?"

Mr. Barrett: "The amendment as written, and in my layman's interpretation of what we have to have written, would be that there must be a dispute between two special districts--two fire districts, two water districts--before the boundary review board could be brought in. In the case you mentioned, where a county official, for example, or maybe a county board inserts itself, unless it has an ordinance that allows it to or unless it has jurisdictional superiority over the establishment of the boundaries--in many cases county commissioners have authority that is not being taken away here--but what it says is that the boundary review board will not have automatic authority to review every boundary of such a district when there is no dispute."

Representatives Van Dyken and Moon spoke against the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. J. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 3 insert a new section as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 36.93 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Actions of a boundary review board shall not constitute cause to remove from a county its exclusive jurisdiction to enforce its adopted comprehensive land use plans, zoning ordinances, subdivision and short subdivision controls, binding site plan controls, building codes, and other land use regulations in all unincorporated areas of the county."

Mr. J. Williams spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Moon spoke against it.

Authorizing payment of shared work unemployment insurance.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. R. King spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. R. King yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: "Representative King, in the event there are two companies with an equal number of employees and about the same product, so that they are direct competitors, and one company is very good at selling and really works hard to maintain the business; the other company is not aggressive and chooses to have some of its people take advantage of this bill, is there a potential that there could be abuse of this system if other people followed the same line and had their people reducing their hours between ten and fifteen percent?"

Mr. R. King: "It would depend upon whether or not the department carried out what it says in the bill. In the bill the company has to present evidence that they had to have that reduction. If they did not go into the reduced workshare plan, then they would be laying employees off. Otherwise the plan would go into effect or they would be laying them off. It wouldn't give either company an advantage over the other when both of them are capable of doing the same thing, either in a competitive market place of going out and getting the business or if they feel they are up against it and have to lay off, they both can go into this kind of plan."

Representatives Broback, Schmidt, McDonald, Clayton, J. Williams and Chandler spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives D. Nelson, Lux and J. King spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Ms. Miller.

Ms. Miller: "Representative Van Dyken, something you said triggered a mechanism in my mind. The ordinary way a LID is formed is that sixty percent of the property owners request it. I think I heard you say that there is something different about the way they form this kind of a LID that might be an exact opposite to what I described as the usual way of doing it. Is that correct?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Miller, I wouldn't describe it as opposite, but it is contrary to the common understanding regarding this bill. The service district described in this bill is formed by the following procedures: The county legislative authority in whose jurisdiction this service district would be formed would, first of all, give notice; then they would hold a public hearing and then they would vote whether or not to establish this service district according to the boundaries provided in the public notice. However, prior to that time, a petition may be given to the county legislative authority which would stop the passage or the formation of that district if the petition represented sixty percent of the property owners. It is a vote of the county legislative authority as opposed to a vote of the residents in order to establish it."

Representatives Isaacson and Padden again opposed passage of the bill.

(2) Wherever feasible, ensure that communications to parents emanating from the schools shall be appropriately bilingual for those parents of pupils in the ~~((bilingual instruction))~~ program.

(3) Annually determine ~~((by administration of a test approved by the superintendent of public instruction))~~ the number of eligible pupils enrolled in the school district.

The superintendent of public instruction ((shall)) may prepare and issue ((prior to September, 1979, program development)) guidelines to assist school districts in preparing their programs. Rules for implementation of this ((bilingual instruction)) special instruction to improve proficiency in English program shall be promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW ((no later than May 15, 1980)). Such guidelines and rules shall maximize the role of school districts in selecting programs appropriate to meet needs of eligible pupils.

The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and submit biennially to the governor and the legislature a budget request for ((bilingual instruction)) special instruction to improve proficiency in English programs. Moneys appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be allocated by the superintendent of public instruction to school districts for the sole purpose of operating ((an approved bilingual instruction program)) these programs. Priorities for funding shall exist for the early elementary grades. No moneys shall be allocated pursuant to this section to fund more than ((three school years of bilingual instruction)) two years of special instruction to improve proficiency in English for each eligible pupil within a district((-PROVIDED, That such moneys may be allocated to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for any pupil who fails to demonstrate improvement in English language skills adequate to remove impairment of learning when taught only in English. The superintendent of public instruction shall set standards and approve a test for the measurement of such English language skills)). In cases where the district can demonstrate that a pupil has failed to improve English skills sufficient to accomplish a transition to instruction in English, moneys may be allocated to fund up to one additional year of special instruction for that pupil. Any request for funds for instruction beyond this additional period shall be provided only after personal approval of the superintendent of public instruction. School districts are hereby empowered to accept grants, gifts, donations, devices and other gratuities from private and public sources to aid in accomplishing the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Van Dyken, an EIS, as I understand it, has the purpose of finding out what the impact may be for a given action. If we limit the EIS to those impacts that we think are probable before we write the EIS, or before an agency writes the EIS, are we possibly going to limit our ability to identify the impacts that may appear improbable when we start, but may, through investigation, become more probable. If we had written the EIS, done the investigation, we would have discovered an impact that we might not discover if we leave the word 'probable' in the bill?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Nelson, the answer to your question is 'No' for several reasons. First of all, it is 'No' because the situation would not change from existing SEPA, so to the extent to which you might allege that something might fall through the cracks under existing SEPA, the courts have interpreted the existing state Environmental Policy Act as meaning 'probable.' I'll give you a direct quote from the ASARCO case: It says that an EIS is required '...whenever more than a moderate effect on the quality of the environment is a reasonable probability.' That has been upheld by the State Supreme Court in four other instances and it really makes no change from existing law. Secondly, the bill provides a new mechanism to help to identify those serious impacts which may result through the scoping process in which the public is brought in earlier than under existing statute in order to try to identify those concerns and help to focus the EIS on that. In summary, the new bill, I think, will more accurately identify those concerns than does the current statute."

Mr. D. Nelson spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Lux to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3006, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 82; excused, 3.

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Vander Stoep spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Vander Stoep yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Vander Stoep, I pondered on this language--'capable of being accomplished'--and what occurs to me is that if there is going to be a litigation, it's going to cost somebody some money. Somebody has to determine then whether or not 'capable of being accomplished' or practicable or feasible--whatever you want to call it--is cost-effective for the person required to carry out that litigation. Would you agree with that? How would you suggest we define 'capable of being accomplished' in monetary terms?"

Mr. Vander Stoep: "I think that's an excellent question. I think the key point is that 'practicable' or 'capable of being performed' as the Code has already defined it--it's already in state law--so if you are looking for added cost, and if we don't adopt this amendment, you won't find it, because it's in state law now, so it really won't have any effect."

Mr. D. Nelson spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Lux moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 4, line 32 after "action" insert "or failure to act"

On page 4, line 33 after "action" insert "or failure to act"

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 66.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In recognition of the fact that over fifty percent of the traffic fatalities and over thirty-five percent of the economic loss from traffic-related accidents in Washington state are caused by persons driving under the influence of alcohol, that automobile insurance rates could be significantly reduced if drunk driving is similarly reduced, and that the growing cost of prevention and treatment of alcohol problems and law enforcement related to alcoholism should be borne primarily by those who are directly responsible for the problem, an account in the state general fund to be named the drunk driving deterrence and victims compensation account is hereby created to assist law enforcement and alcoholism rehabilitation agencies to eradicate this problem.

(2) The State treasurer shall distribute the revenues deposited in the drunk driving deterrence and victims compensation account in the following manner:

(a) Thirty percent shall be used to assist the victims of drunk driving and shall be distributed as follows: (i) Ninety-five percent to the crime victims compensation account, created by RCW 7.68.035; and (ii) five percent to county prosecuting attorneys to be used exclusively for comprehensive programs to assist victims and witnesses of crime under RCW 7.68.035;

(b) Fifty percent shall be distributed to cities and counties on a per capita basis to enhance local efforts to combat drunk driving. These funds shall be used by local governments to improve local capacity to arrest, adjudicate, punish, and provide treatment for drunk drivers. Each city and county shall determine the precise areas in which funds provided under this subparagraph can be used most beneficially. Local governments, however, shall not use these funds to provide revenue for general purposes or to substitute funds paid under this subsection for general revenues presently committed to the local share of criminal justice costs. Only cities which prosecute and incarcerate persons charged with drunk driving may receive funds under this subparagraph. A city which conducts prosecution or incarceration in county facilities shall receive funding under this subparagraph only if the city provides the prosecutor and bears the cost of prosecution and incarceration. If a city is ineligible for funding under this subparagraph, the county in which the city is located shall receive the city's portion of the funds distributed under this subparagraph; and

(c) Twenty percent to the state of Washington to improve state support for local efforts against drunk driving, including but not limited to the department of social and health services' alcohol treatment programs and the state patrol's and the superintendent of public instruction's alcohol education programs for grades kindergarten through twelve. Appropriations to agencies under this subparagraph shall clearly indicate the source of the funds.

(3) Funds distributed from the drunk driving deterrence and victims compensation account under subsection (2) of this section shall supplement, not supplant, existing local funding. The state auditor shall report to the office of financial management any indication that moneys from this account are being used to replace prior funding which has been discontinued or reallocated. Such a finding by the state auditor disqualifies the entity from receiving further funding under this section until the amount withheld equals the amount supplanted. The finding of the state auditor may be appealed to a five-person hearing panel composed of representatives from the office of financial management, the Washington state association of counties, the association of Washington cities, the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys, and the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs. Any amount withheld under this subsection shall be distributed proportionally under subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(4) The state treasurer's office shall distribute the funds payable to cities and counties under subsection (2)(b) of this section based upon current population figures supplied by the office of financial management. A county which claims such funds by reason of a city's ineligibility to receive the funds shall apply for the funds, by letter, to the state treasurer and shall provide the city with a copy of the letter. If the city contests the county's claim that the city is ineligible for funding, the treasurer shall hold the funds until the issue is resolved by the panel established under subsection (3) of this section.

On page 13, following line 28 insert:

'Sec. 9. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by ESB 3416, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Commission' means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) 'Community service' means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

(3) 'Community supervision' means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(4) 'Confinement' means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(5) 'Conviction' means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW.

(6) 'Crime-related prohibition' means an order of a court prohibiting conduct which directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(7)(a) 'Criminal history' means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) 'Criminal history' includes a defendant's convictions or pleas of guilty in juvenile court if: (i) The guilty plea or conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); and (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) the defendant was twenty-three years of age or less at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(8) 'Department' means the department of corrections.

(9) 'Determinate sentence' means a sentence which states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through 'earned early release' can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(10) 'Fines' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

(11) 'First-time offender' means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under this chapter, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(12) 'Offender' means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms 'offender' and 'defendant' are used interchangeably.

(13) 'Partial confinement' means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

(14) 'Restitution' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

(15) 'Sentence range' means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a non-appealable sentence.

(16) 'Total confinement' means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Dickie, Fisch, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 44.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 52.

Excused: Representatives Clayton, Dellwo - 2.

Mr. Addison moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 35 following "injury" insert " PROVIDED, That no employee shall be eligible to receive remuneration for unused leave for illness or injury which accrued prior to January 1, 1979"

Representatives Addison and Schoon spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Galloway spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880 as amended by the House was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4201, by Committee on Parks & Ecology (originally sponsored by Senators Williams, Fuller, Goltz, Lee and Hemstad)

Requiring that used automotive oil be recycled.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Hastings moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, following line 13 insert a new subsection as follows:

"(2) Adopt rules requiring sellers of more than one hundred gallons of automotive oil annually in containers for use off the premises to post and maintain at or near the point of sale durable and legible signs informing the public whether or not the oil they are buying is or may be recycled oil."

Re-number remaining subsection consecutively.

On page 2, line 28 following "affected" insert "except that if subsection (2) of section 3 shall be held invalid the entire act shall be invalid"

Representatives Hastings and Addison spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Rust and Charnley spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Hastings, I notice in the second part of the amendment, it says 'except that if subsection (2)...' which is the first half of your amendment, '...of section 3 shall be held invalid the entire act shall be invalid.' What does that mean? How can your amendments be held invalid?"

Mr. Hastings: "No, it doesn't say the amendment is invalid, it says the whole act would be, because I think that what we're trying to do with this whole bill is to try to conserve resources by recycling oil. It seems to me the ultimate consumer of that is obviously the consumer, and if they are going to be part of this recycling process, then they ought to know that they are buying recycled oil. I think this is a very important amendment. It seems to me that if the people don't know they are buying recycled oil, why do we try to recycle."

Mr. D. Nelson: "I wonder if you could answer my question? What does it mean when you say that if subsection (2) of section 3, which I assume is the first amendment, is held invalid the entire act will be held invalid? Why do you want to invalidate the entire act if your amendment is not valid?"

Mr. Hastings: "I don't want to invalidate the entire act, but in the case there, who knows what happens--maybe somebody would bring a frivolous lawsuit on down the line to say that this is unworkable for whatever reason. If that is the case, then it seems to me the whole thing ought to be held invalid."

Representatives D. Nelson and Zellinsky spoke against the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings yielded to question by Mr. Lux.

Mr. Lux: "Representative Hastings, in your opinion, is there a difference between recycled and refined oil?"

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Lux, I'm not really qualified to answer that because I, unfortunately, do not sit on that committee. I just have to go by the definitions and very quickly, I don't see if it makes a differentiation between those two terms, so I can't answer that right now."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Zellinsky yielded to question by Mr. Addison.

Mr. Addison: "Representative Zellinsky, you seem to have some expertise in this area. Is the reason that this oil is usually sold in larger quantities because it is cheaper and not quite as good quality?"

Mr. Zellinsky: "Truly, it is the oil that goes into all the mixes--automatic transmission fluid, water--it all goes into the ground. It is then pumped out; they filter this oil back to some form, taking the impurities out, and they, in turn, regrade this, probably dye it a little bit green--all oil has dye in it, whether we like or not--and at this point it is usually canned. It is sometimes sold in fifty-gallon drums for industrial purposes. School districts often buy it; truckers often buy it. It is definitely a less expensive oil and as the prices of oil become more and more expensive and the country becomes more dependent upon having a shortage of oil, the recycling has become more important. This is just good conservation to use something that can be legitimately reused."

Mr. Addison spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings yielded to question by Mr. Sayan.

Mr. Sayan: "Representative Hastings, you've indicated in your amendment that the signs must be durable and legible, and I wonder if you could share with us, for the record, if you have some planned maximum and minimum plans for these signs, and how high off the ground they should be? Could you tell us whether they must be posted during working hours or on Sundays or not?"

Mr. Hastings: "All of that is in the bill if you would look at the subsection above that. As far as the durability, I would suggest that they are as durable as political yard signs. That would be sufficient."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representative Hastings to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4201, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 55; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Garrett, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, McDonald, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G. Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 41.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Ristuben, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Van Dyken, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 55.

The bill was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3640, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Moore and Talmadge)

Modifying the residential landlord-tenant act.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 94th Day, April 13, 1983.)

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the committee amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Wang, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3640 was deferred.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3782, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Talmadge, McCaslin, Zimmerman, Rasmussen and Deccio)

Modifying provisions relating to firearms.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 89th Day, April 8, 1983.)

Mr. McMullen moved adoption of the committee amendment, striking everything after the enacting clause.

Mr. McMullen moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 26 strike "considered convicted" and insert "precluded from possession"

On page 9, line 12 after "Five" insert "consecutive"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McMullen yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative McMullen, this seems to be the five-day time period from the request to purchase a gun to the time the gun is handed over. Is that correct?"

Mr. McMullen: "That is correct."

Mr. D. Nelson: "This amendment would allow that five days to run over weekends and holidays. Is it possible for a law enforcement agency to do a check as required over a five-day period that includes weekends and holidays?"

Mr. McMullen: "Present law requires a three-day waiting period and so stepping this up to five was a compromise in some areas. This clarifies that the law enforcement agencies, during the weekend, when they have people working--they normally only request FBI rap sheets and so forth--that these are the things that are taking place over a weekend anyway."

Mr. D. Nelson: "So the current law, then, is three days including weekends and holidays?"

Mr. McMullen: "Yes, I believe that's correct."

The amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 15, line 25 after "or" strike everything down to and including "section." on line 28 and insert "the owner neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission involving the firearm which resulted in its forfeiture."

On motion of Mr. Van Dyken, the following amendments to the committee amendment were adopted:

On page 13, line 33 after "person" insert "who is"

On page 13, line 35 after "required." insert "and who is"

Mr. Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 8, line 15 strike "modify" and insert "reduce"

Mr. Charnley spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives McMullen and Padden spoke against it.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted. On motion of Mr. McMullen, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782 as amended by the House was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

Representative McClure was excused.

REENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3817, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Fleming, Hemstad, McDermott and Talmadge)

Mr. Armstrong moved adoption of the committee amendment. Representatives Armstrong and Locke spoke against the committee amendment, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Armstrong moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Armstrong, West and Locke:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 10.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No person may be subjected to a strip search by or at the direction of a law enforcement agency unless there is probable cause to believe the person is concealing on his or her body evidence of a crime, contraband, fruits of a crime, things otherwise criminally possessed, weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed.

With respect to strip searches, this subsection shall not apply to:

(a) A person arrested or detained for the following:

(i) A violent offense identified in RCW 9.94A.030 or as hereafter amended;

(ii) An offense involving a controlled substance or a legend drug;

(iii) An offense, other than carrying a concealed weapon without a permit, involving the use of a deadly weapon;

(iv) A violation of probation, parole, or terms of release; or

(v) Pursuant to a warrant issued by a court where bail exceeds ten thousand dollars and two hours have elapsed since booking, or the court has refused bail;

(b) A person who has voluntarily given informed written consent to a strip search;

(c) A person who has been detained for at least six hours since being booked into the holding, detention, or local correctional facility; PROVIDED, That in the case of a facility subject to a policy, adopted by the local law enforcement agency and approved by the corrections standards board, that allows detainees to be released other than by bail, this subsection does not apply to a person who has been detained for at least two hours since booking for an offense for which such release is possible under the policy; or

(d) A person whose conduct within the holding, detention, or local correctional facility poses a danger to himself, herself, or others.

(2) No person may be subjected to a body cavity search by or at the direction of a law enforcement agency unless a search warrant is issued pursuant to superior court criminal rules.

(3) Nothing in this section may be construed as precluding or preventing the administration of medical care to persons requiring immediate medical care or requesting medical care.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) 'Strip search' means having a person remove or arrange some or all of his or her clothing so as to permit an inspection of his or her genitals, buttocks, anus, or undergarments of the person or breasts of a female person.

(b) 'Body cavity search' means the touching or probing of a person's body cavity, whether or not there is actual penetration of the body cavity.

(c) 'Body cavity' means the stomach or rectum of a person and the vagina of a female person.

(5) Before any strip search requiring probable cause under subsection (1) of this section or any body cavity search is authorized or conducted, a thorough pat-down search, a thorough electronic metal-detector search when appropriate, and a thorough clothing search, must be used to search for and seize any evidence of a crime, contraband, fruits of crime, things otherwise criminally possessed, weapons, or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed. No strip search requiring probable cause under subsection (1) of this section or body cavity search shall be authorized or conducted unless these other methods do not satisfy the safety, security, or evidentiary concerns of the law enforcement agency.

(6) No law enforcement officer may seek a warrant for a body cavity search or perform a strip search requiring probable cause under subsection (1) of this section without first obtaining specific authorization for the body cavity search from the ranking shift supervisor of the law enforcement authority. Authorization for the search may be obtained electronically; PROVIDED, That such electronic authorization shall be reduced to writing by the law enforcement officer seeking the authorization and signed by the ranking supervisor as soon as possible thereafter.

(7) Persons conducting a strip search shall not touch the person being searched except as reasonably necessary to effectuate the strip search of the person.

(8) No body cavity search may be conducted except pursuant to a valid search warrant specifically authorizing a body cavity search and issued pursuant to superior court criminal rules. No such warrant shall be issued unless an application in support of the request for a warrant allowing the search has been submitted to the court passing on the request stating with specificity the type of search being requested, the person upon whom the search is to be performed and the factors constituting the probable cause justifying the search. The identity of any person supplying information justifying the search shall be kept confidential unless ordered by a court. The application shall further state with specificity why the methods of search required under subsection (5) of this section do not meet the safety, security, or evidentiary concerns of the law enforcement agency.

(9) Any body cavity search must be performed under sanitary conditions and conducted by a health professional who is licensed to practice in this state and who is trained in the proper medical process and the potential health problems associated with a body cavity search. No health professional authorized by this subsection to conduct a body cavity search shall be held liable in any civil action if the search is conducted in a manner that meets the standards and requirements of RCW 4.24.290 and 7.70.040.

(10) A strip search other than a strip search conducted pursuant to subsection (19) of this section, or body cavity search, as well as presearch undressing or postsearch dressing, shall occur at a location made private from the observation of persons not physically conducting the search. A strip search or body cavity search shall be performed or observed only by persons of the same sex as the person being searched, except for licensed health professionals as required by subsection (9) of this section.

(11) Except as provided in subsection (12) of this section, no person may be present or observe during the search unless the person is necessary to conduct the search or to ensure the safety of those persons conducting the search.

(12) Nothing in this section prohibits a person upon whom a body cavity search is to be performed from having a readily available person of his or her choosing present at the time the search is conducted. However, the person chosen shall not be a person being held in custody by a law enforcement agency.

(13) A law enforcement officer requesting a body cavity search or conducting a strip search requiring probable cause under subsection (1) of this section shall prepare and sign a follow-up report regarding the search. The follow-up report shall include:

- (a) A copy of the written authorization required under subsection (6) of this section;
- (b) A copy of the warrant and application required under subsections (2) and (8) of this section in the case of a body cavity search;
- (c) The name and sex of all persons conducting or observing the search;
- (d) The time, date, place, and description of the search; and
- (e) A statement of the results of the search and a list of any items removed from the person as a result of the search.

The report shall be retained as part of the law enforcement agency's records.

(14) Except for subsections (7), (9), (10), and (11) of this section, this section does not apply to a person who remains in custody after a first court appearance.

(15) A person who suffers damage or harm as a result of a violation of this section may bring a civil action to recover actual damages sustained by him or her. The court may, in its discretion, award equitable relief as it deems necessary. Proper costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, shall be awarded to plaintiffs prevailing under this section.

(16) This section shall not be construed as limiting any constitutional, common law or statutory right of any person regarding any action for damages or injunctive relief, or as precluding the prosecution under another provision of law of any law enforcement officer or other person who has violated this section.

(17) 'Law enforcement agency' and 'law enforcement officer' include local departments of corrections created pursuant to RCW 70.48.090(3) and employees thereof.

(18) This section shall not be interpreted as expanding or diminishing the authority of a law enforcement officer with respect to searches incident to arrest or investigatory stop in public.

(19) A strip search of a person housed in a holding, detention, or local correctional facility to search for and seize a weapon may be conducted absent probable cause to believe the person is in fact concealing a weapon on his or her person if there arises a specific threat to institutional security which reasonably requires such a search or if all persons in the facility are being searched for the discovery of weapons or contraband.

(20) Any holding, detention, or local correctional facility which cannot fully comply with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section due to the lack of physical facilities shall so certify to the corrections standards board, detailing each reason preventing compliance. Upon verification of the reasons given, the corrections standards board may temporarily exempt compliance with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section until such date as it deems appropriate, consistent with the intent of this section. The corrections standards board may grant no period of exemption extending beyond July 1, 1984. The legislature may establish dates for compliance extending beyond July 1, 1984. Any holding, detention, or local correctional facility granted a temporary exemption under this subsection shall implement the requirements of subsection (1) of this section to the extent feasible and shall promulgate rules and procedures limiting the use of strip searches and implementing the intent of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislative budget committee and the corrections standards board shall, prior to January 1984, concurrently review any exceptions granted by the corrections standards board under section 1(20) of this act. The committee shall also review and audit estimates of the cost of compliance with this act prepared by the corrections standards board. The legislative budget committee shall report to the 1984 regular session of the legislature on its findings and conclusions as to the board's estimate of the cost of compliance with this act, and may submit its own estimate of those costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on September 1, 1983."

On motion of Mr. Locke, the following amendments by Representatives Locke and West to the amendment were adopted:

On page 4, line 12 after "authorization" strike "for the body cavity search"

On page 9, line 4 after "may" strike "grant no period of" and insert "not grant any"

Mr. P. King moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives P. King and Tilly to the amendment:

On page 9, beginning on line 6 strike "1984. The legislature may establish dates for compliance extending beyond July 1, 1984" and insert "1985"

Representatives Tilly, Miller and Halsan spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. Patrick.

Mr. Patrick: "Representative Locke, I have a concern and perhaps you can address that concern. In your capacity as prosecuting attorney in dealing with search warrants, on the average, approximately how long does it take one to get a search warrant?"

Mr. Locke: "It depends, and we've been able to get search warrants within about a half hour and sometimes it depends on how soon the officer wants it. The officer can call in and say he wants it within five or six hours and we will have it ready. He can call in and say he wants it within five minutes and we will have it ready. The officer can merely call up a judge immediately--he doesn't even have to go through the prosecutor's office--and have a search warrant authorized by telephone."

Mr. Patrick: "What if, in a small county, there aren't many judges and not many prosecutors--what happens if there is not a judge or a prosecutor available? What does one do for a search warrant?"

Mr. Locke: "I believe that there is a supreme court ruling which would indicate that if you felt that the evidence would be destroyed, you would immediately be able to conduct that search. With respect to body search, if you could not receive authorization from even a superior court judge in a county, and I find that hard, you might have to call long distance to that county seat, but you would be able to obtain that authorization because there is a standard telephone list of night duty judges as well as prosecutors who stand on duty in the night to handle such cases. In any event, that person could be detained and put in isolation if you fear that person has drugs or a weapon within his body cavities until that search warrant could be obtained."

Mr. West spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment and it was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charnley, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3817 was deferred.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3507, by Senators Hurley, Talmadge, Warnke and Hughes

The yeas and nays upon the question of confirmation in committee and before the senate shall be entered upon the journal."

Representatives B. Williams and G. Nelson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Walk spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative B. Williams to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3507, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 51; excused, 3.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3640, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Moore and Talmadge)

Modifying the residential landlord-tenant act.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see yesterday's Journal.)

Mr. Isaacson moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 9, line 16 strike all of section 9 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 13, following line 9 insert:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) The legislature finds that the ability of a landlord to evict a tenant using the twenty day notice procedure of RCW 59.18.200 remains the last means a landlord retains to evict in retaliation a tenant who complains about a condition which makes a rental uninhabitable or otherwise asserts the tenants' rights. The legislature further finds that the elimination of this right of the landlords could result in huge financial loss by the landlords.

(2) There is created a joint committee comprised of eight members, two from each caucus in the house of representatives and two from each caucus in the senate, to be appointed by the leader of each caucus.

(3) The committee shall study the advisability of amending RCW 59.18.240 by deleting the legality of a landlord evicting a tenant by giving a notice to terminate tenancy as provided in RCW 59.18.200 in retaliation for complaining about a condition which makes a rental uninhabitable or otherwise asserting the tenant's rights.

(4) The committee shall report its findings to the speaker of the house and the president of the senate by January 1, 1984 at which time the committee shall cease to exist."

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Armstrong spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Isaacson, in section 9 that you are attempting to remove, I see some language on page 9, lines 32 and 33 regarding giving notice and my question is: Regarding section 9 of this bill, which is in the current bill that deletes the twenty-day notice for retaliatory evictions--does that mean that a landlord could be forced on any twenty-day notice to litigate a trial in order to have his property returned even if he, and not the tenant, would prevail?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Yes, it does. The current law gives the landlord his property back upon a twenty-day notice to the tenant. Under the new changes the tenant could contest the twenty-day notice for whatever reason, and force it to trial which would cost the landlord as much or more than $1,000 on each action. If I may refer also to section 13 of the bill, 'If the defendant submits to the court a written statement signed and sworn under penalty of perjury denying that the rent alleged due in the complaint is owing based upon a legal or equitable defense or set-off arising out of the tenancy, such payment shall not be required.' In other words, what happens here is that if you do have this type of action taking place, the tenant merely needs to assert that he has an equal defense. He doesn't have to establish it; he just has to assert that he has it or that he has a set-off arising out of the tenancy or in the case of one of the other speakers here, he says the place is uninhabitable, literally he can stay there while he is contesting that case and denying both rent and payment to you while that case is in court."

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Wang and West spoke against them.

Mr. Isaacson spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Armstrong again opposed them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McMullen yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative McMullen, I'm looking at this fiscal impact note, and it shows a fiscal impact of $1.6 million for the biennium. Who is going to pick up that cost? Is it the state general fund or are the individual employers of the state going to have their premiums increased? Where is that money going to come from?"

Mr. McMullen: "That is a speculative impact. What it means is that the amount of money the department should be paying for attorney fees presently, but is not because they are getting the attorneys to recover that amount of money. This means this is the amount of money that they will not get back. What it doesn't cover is the increased number of law suits that injured workers will take against wrongdoers or the wrongful party to get back their recovery, because they will get back a fair share of the recovery and not have to pay the department back in full. It also doesn't cover the fact that if the department wishes to do that themselves, they have to hire assistant attorneys general to go do it; so that fiscal impact wouldn't show directly to the department, but the Attorney General's staff would increase, so either way the department will have to pay for it."

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charnley yielded to question by Mr. Ballard.

Mr. Ballard: "Representative Charnley, I have two questions I would like some clarification on. On the water district board we have three members on our board. If two of us wanted to go up to the site of a new reservoir simply for an informational gathering and it would actually constitute a majority of the board, but we were there not to conduct any business, would that conflict with the open meetings act?"

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Ballard, I think the language is very clear on this matter. It would not conflict. Members of a board could be going to obtain information, to bring data back to the board. They are not acting for the board in this case, as the new language clearly states. When the committee acts on behalf of the governing body, they simply would not have to worry about the language in open meetings."

Mr. Ballard: "In the section where it deals with the vacancy of elected office, the new language indicates that those interviews must be conducted in an open meeting. However, let's say that there was some sensitive information that one of the members had regarding a candidate—maybe a previous police record or something that had happened in which there were illegal activities by one of the candidates—is there anything to preclude that from being discussed in executive session before the selection has been made?"

Mr. Charnley: "Again, the answer is 'no.' There is nothing to preclude that. Existing language of the law remains over the executive sessions or regular special meetings to consider the appointments. That certainly would include times when they want to discuss those candidates and consider some sensitive matters."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Hine yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Hine, would formal notices be required when preliminary discussions were being held by members of the city council and city staff?"

Ms. Hine: "Representative Isaacson, I believe that is not the intent of this legislation."

Mr. Isaacson: "Would the bill apply to the meeting of a budget committee consisting of less than a majority of the governing body, discussing the budget with a department head?"

Ms. Hine: "No, Representative Isaacson."

Mr. Isaacson: "What are the requirements with respect to giving formal notice?"

Ms. Hine: "It's the intent of the legislation, we believe, subject to the deliberations of the governing body, that this apply only to the deliberations of the governing body or subcommittees which the governing body specifically authorizes to act on its behalf, or which policy, testimony or comments are made in its behalf. In other words, it's when making policy or rules, not for general comments or any kind of informal type meetings they may have. Those would not require the official formal notice."

Mr. B. Williams spoke in favor of the bill.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3230, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators Fleming, Bluechel, Wojahn, Hemstad, Quigg, Deccio, Fuller, McManus, von Reichbauer, Granlund, Lee, Bender, Kiskaddon and Bauer - by Governor Spellman request)

Establishing the office of minority and women's business enterprises.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Niemi, Locke and Hankins spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Barrett spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Niemi yielded to question by Mr. Fiske.

Mr. Fiske: "Representative Niemi, I know in your opening remarks you addressed this, but I think it would be important that we read this into the record. Is the intent of this legislation that the goal is not a quota?"

Ms. Niemi: "That is correct. Both goal and quota are terms of art and have been defined by case law. A goal is not something that must be mandatory and a quota is."

Mr. Fiske spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Struthers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Ms. Long.

Ms. Long: "Representative Locke, in section 7, it says, 'It is the intent of this chapter that the goals established under this chapter for participation by minority and women-owned businesses be achievable. If necessary to accomplish this intent, contracts shall be awarded to the next lowest bidder, or all bids may be rejected and new bids obtained....' That seems to conflict with what you said or maybe I just don't understand, so I would appreciate it if you would clarify that."

Mr. Locke: "I'm not sure how it conflicts with what I've said. Could you direct a more pointed question?"

Ms. Long: "I thought you said it wouldn't necessarily mean that it would go to the lower bidder, that the lowest bid would be taken and this says the next lowest bid could be taken if the lowest bid does not meet the goals established for a particular contract."

Mr. Locke: "That's correct, the awarding authority could reject the lowest bidder and could go to the next lowest bidder but the awarding authority could, in fact, decide not to go to the second lowest bidder if they wanted to--maybe they would find the differential was too great and not acceptable. They could, therefore, decide to reject all bids and put out for rebidding to insure that the next time around the lowest bidder would get the award. The reason they may want to reject the lowest bidder is because there has been no attempt by the lowest bidder to even try to comply with the goals as the requirements of the contract in terms of trying to seek or encourage women or minority participation. In some cases, certain fields are so specialized where there are not women or minority businesses, and that's why it's a goal and the awarding authority could decide to exempt the requirements of women or minority participation. Sometimes they may want to take that lowest bidder even though there are no women or minorities subcontracting for participation, but if it's a field that has many women and minority businesses, and the lowest bidder has not even made a good faith effort to try and seek or recruit women and minority subcontractors, then that awarding authority may decide to reject that low bid and go to the second low bid if the price differential is not extensive and is within the estimate of the engineers and so forth."

Ms. Long: "Do you think this could lead to anyone making bids extremely low and then going by way of change order to get the job?"

Mr. Locke: "No, I don't think you could do that because you have to bid on the job as it is. Change orders would be requested only by the awarding authority because they might want to extend the scope of the work. The engineering departments review all the bids submitted by the contractors to make sure the specifications are met, the materials are met and the equipment meets all specifications in terms of federal requirements as well as state requirements. Many times without even looking at minority business programs, low bidders are rejected because of lack of quality work or a perceived inability to do the job."

Ms. Long: "This doesn't even mention quality at all."

Mr. Locke: "The awarding authority does not have to accept any work that they feel would not meet the quality standards of the job, and if the prime bidder is a person who has no experience and is not capable of providing the services, then the awarding authority routinely, even on nonminority and nonwomen businesses, have rejected those bids because they were substandard and that would continue."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Niemi yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Niemi, in your remarks you said the overall scope of this legislation is to establish goals and if I may, on page 3, subsection (4), it states that this new office of minority business enterprises shall establish overall goals for participation, and so forth, for each agency and further, it says 'on a contract-by-contract basis,' and yet in new section 6, it says very specifically that 'each state agency and educational institution shall comply with the annual goals....' It seems to be a paradox in that language. Am I reading that incorrectly, or is there indeed a paradox?"

Ms. Niemi: "Each agency is involved in setting the goals and what those two say together is that you can't participate in the setting of the goals, as you referred to in the first subsection, and then completely ignore what you said you would do; you have to agree to those goals after you have been a part of setting them."

Mr. Schoon spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Barrett again opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Grimm, the fiscal note on this bill notes a fiscal impact of twenty full-time-equivalent employees plus a budget of about $1,518,000 for the next biennium. Was this included in the budget that was passed by this House?"

Mr. Grimm: "No, it was not, but there is a rumor that the only good change being proposed by the Senate to the House budget would incorporate money for the minority women's business enterprise."

Mr. Bond spoke against the bill, and Representatives Belcher and Brough spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3230, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 21; excused, 0.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3006, by Committee on Parks & Ecology (originally sponsored by Senators Bluechel, Williams, Fuller and Hurley)

Revising the state environmental policy act.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Hine and Wang spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Ms. Brekke spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Hine yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Hine, does the term 'probable' change the existing law?"

Ms. Hine: "No. The state supreme court has consistently stated that an environmental impact statement is required 'whenever more than a moderate effect on the quality of the environment is a reasonable probability.' This is not meant as a strict statistical probability test. An impact may be significant if its chance of occurrence is not great, but the resulting environmental impact would be severe if it occurred."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Does the phrase 'capable of being accomplished' in section 3 maintain the existing law?"

Ms. Hine: "Yes. SEPA currently requires agencies 'to use all practicable means, consistent with other essential considerations of state policy' to preserve and enhance environmental quality. The dictionary defines the word 'practicable' as 'capable of being accomplished.' This determination is made by the government agency, which is the entity responsible for SEPA compliance. Section 3 provides that an agency can deny a project if the impacts cannot be sufficiently mitigated."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Does the bill continue the right of private citizens to bring SEPA lawsuits and to seek judicial enforcement of mitigating conditions?"

Ms. Hine: "Yes. The bill expressly provides for the right to challenge substantive and procedural compliance with the act. The existing right to a healthful environment is not amended in this bill. Conditions to mitigate environmental impacts are governmental actions under section 3 of the bill, and lawsuits may be brought under section 4 to ensure that they are enforced."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Section 7(1)(f) refers to 'environmental health' as an element of the environment; does this include human health? Also, this provision refers to 'housing'; does this include low income housing?"

Ms. Hine: "Yes. Environmental health is a broader category which includes human health and the health of all living things. Housing includes low income housing affected by a proposal."

Mr. Van Dyken: "The bill lists certain elements of the built environment and examples of items to be included as subheadings in the rules. Some people call these 'socioeconomic' elements. It is my understanding that the bill clarifies but does not overrule the result in the Barrie II case and would require consideration of subheadings such as noise and aesthetics to continue to be included. It is also my understanding that agencies can discuss any types of impacts in EISs, including impacts which may not be environmental in nature. Is this correct?"

Ms. Hine: "Yes. The bill specifies the major headings, and the Department of Ecology would still be able to list subheadings in the statewide SEPA rules. The rules recommended by the Commission on Environmental Policy, which was created by the legislature in 1981, would include noise, aesthetics, housing, recreation, historic and cultural preservation, among other items, as subheadings under 'land and shoreline use.' Environmental impacts in these areas would be required to be considered under SEPA. Although other items cannot be required under SEPA, a local government or other agency has the option to include analysis of any impact in an EIS."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Sections 3 and 8 require government agencies to adopt certain policies, rules and regulations not later than one hundred eighty days after the effective date of the statewide rules to be adopted under section 7. Can they later update, amend or adopt new rules?"

Ms. Hine: "Yes."

Representatives Van Dyken and Dellwo spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

MOTION

Mr. Kaiser moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 570 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

Representatives Kaiser and Smith spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kaiser yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Representative Kaiser, before I vote, what did they do to the bill?"

Mr. Kaiser: "Well, the bill we sent over was a bill that had in it that the Superintendent of Public Instruction should appoint a director or supervisor of vocational agriculture to head up the program in the superintendent's office. The bill, as it came back, had no statement of a supervisor or director in the superintendent's office, but it said there would be adequate staffing in the area programs. There might be one area someplace that could make the vocational agriculture program much weaker than it is right now. The other thing was that the bill had in it that we should have an advisory committee that would advise, among other things, about future staffing of the department. That was taken out. They took all the people out of the bill and that was the reason for the bill in the first place."

The motion was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Haugen and Van Dyken, who were excused.

PROVIDED, That the bond for a commission merchant, a dealer acting as a processor, or a dealer in livestock, hay, grain, or straw shall be in a minimum amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars or more based upon the annual gross dollar volume of purchases by, or consignments to the licensee. A dealer in livestock shall increase his bond by five thousand dollars for each agent he has endorsed pursuant to RCW 20.01.090. The bond for any other dealer shall be in the minimum amount of three thousand dollars, or an increased amount based upon the annual gross dollar volume of purchases by, or consignments to, the licensee. The bond for such commission merchant or dealer shall be determined by taking the annual gross dollar volume of that commission merchant or dealer of net payment to growers and dividing that amount by fifty-two and the bond shall be in an amount to the next multiple of two thousand dollars larger than the sum. PROVIDED, That the gross dollar volume used in computing the bond requirements of a commission merchant or dealer handling horticultural products shall be based on the net proceeds due to growers. PROVIDED FURTHER, That bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be not less than the next multiple of five thousand dollars above the amount secured by applying the formula except that when the bond amount reaches fifty thousand dollars any amount of bond required above this shall be on a basis of ten percent of the amount arrived by applying the formula of annual gross divided by fifty-two. Such bond shall be of a standard form and approved by the director as to terms and conditions. Said bond shall be conditioned that the principal or his or her agents will not commit any fraudulent act and will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted hereunder. Said bond shall be to the state for the benefit of every consignor of an agricultural product in this state. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon the bond shall be limited to the face of such bond. Every bond filed with and approved by the director shall without the necessity of periodic renewal remain in force and effect until released by notice from the director when a superseding bond has been issued and is in effect. All such sureties on a bond, as provided herein, shall also be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond by giving notice to the principal and the director by certified mail. Upon receipt of such notice the director shall notify the surety and the principal of the effective date of termination which shall be thirty days from the receipt of such notice by the director, but this shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue (due and to become due hereunder) before the expiration period provided for above. Unless the principal shall before the expiration of such period, file a new bond, the director shall forthwith cancel the principal's license. Upon such cancellation the license and vehicle plates issued attendant to the license shall be surrendered to the director forthwith:))~~

(2) The bond shall be not less than fifteen thousand dollars for a commission merchant, or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed, hay, or straw. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the bond shall be not less than three thousand dollars for any other dealer.

(3) The bond for a dealer in livestock shall be not less than seven thousand five hundred dollars. A dealer in livestock shall increase his bond by five thousand dollars for each agent he has endorsed under RCW 20.01.090.

(4) The bond for a commission merchant or dealer, other than a commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or a dealer in hay or straw, shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of that commission merchant's or dealer's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by fifty-two and increasing that amount to the next multiple of two thousand dollars. However, bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be increased to the next multiple of five thousand dollars.

(5) The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or a dealer in hay or straw shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of that commission merchant's or dealer's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by twelve and increasing that amount to the next multiple of five thousand dollars, except that the determination of bond amounts for any portion of dollar volume directly related to proprietary seed bailment contracts shall be computed as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The bond for a new commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or dealer in hay or straw is subject to increase at any time during the licensee's first year of operation and shall be based on the monthly average of the volume of purchases of any three months of operation.

(6) When the annual dollar volume of any commission merchant or dealer reaches two million six hundred thousand dollars, the amount of the bond required above this level shall be on a basis of ten percent of the amount arrived at by applying the appropriate formula.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Starting on the date a producer delivers any agricultural product to a processor or conditioner, the producer has a first priority statutory lien, referred to as a 'processor lien.' This processor lien shall continue until twenty days after payment for the product is due and remains unpaid, without filing any notice of lien, for the contract price, if any, or the fair market value of the products delivered. The processor lien attaches to the agricultural products delivered, to the processor's or conditioner's inventory, and to the processor's or conditioner's accounts receivable.

This preparer lien shall continue until twenty days after payment for the product is due and remains unpaid, without filing any notice of lien, for the contract price, if any, or the fair market value of the products delivered. The preparer lien attaches to the agricultural products delivered and to the preparer's accounts receivable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1)(a) If a statement is filed pursuant to section 11 of this act within twenty days of the date upon which payment from the processor, conditioner, or preparer to the producer is due and remains unpaid, the processor or preparer lien evidenced by the statement continues its priority over all other liens or security interests upon agricultural products, inventory, and accounts receivable, except as provided in (b) of this subsection. Such priority is without regard to whether the other liens or security interests attached before or after the date on which the processor or preparer lien attached.

(b) The processor or preparer lien shall be subordinate to liens for taxes or labor perfected before filing of the processor or preparer lien.

(2) If the statement provided for in section 11 of this act is not filed within twenty days of the date payment is due and remains unpaid, the processor or preparer lien shall thereupon become subordinate to:

If, after payment, the producer fails to file such statement of discharge within ten days following a request to do so, the producer shall be liable to the processor, conditioner, or preparer in the sum of one hundred dollars plus actual damages caused by the failure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The processor or preparer liens may be foreclosed and enforced by civil action in the superior courts.

Any change in the capacity of a warehouse or ~~((installation))~~ addition of any new warehouse involving a change in bond liability under this chapter shall be immediately reported to the department ~~((prior to the operation thereof))~~.

~~(3)~~ The bond required for the issuance of a grain dealer license shall be in the sum of not less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount that will be required for the dealer bond which shall be computed at a rate not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the sales of agricultural commodities purchased by the dealer from producers during the dealer's last completed fiscal year or in the case of a grain dealer who has been engaged in business as a grain dealer less than one year, the estimated aggregate dollar amount to be paid by the dealer to producers for agricultural commodities to be purchased by the dealer during the dealer's first fiscal year.

~~(4)~~ An applicant making application for both a warehouse license and a grain dealer license may satisfy the bonding requirements set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section by giving to the state of Washington a single bond for the issuance of both licenses, which bond shall be in the sum of not less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount of the bond which shall be computed at a rate of not less than fifteen cents nor more than thirty cents per bushel multiplied by the number of bushels of licensed commodity storage capacity of the warehouses of the applicant furnishing the bond, or at the rate of not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the gross sales of agricultural commodities of the applicant whichever is greater.

~~(5)~~ The bonds required under this section shall be approved by the department and shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the licensee of the duties imposed upon him by this chapter. If a person has applied for warehouse licenses to operate two or more warehouses in this state, the assets applicable to all warehouses, but not the deposits except in case of a station, are subject to the liabilities of each. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon the bond are limited to the amount specified in the bond.

~~(6)~~ Any person required to submit a bond to the department under this chapter has the option to give the department a certificate of deposit payable to the director as trustee, in lieu of a bond or a portion thereof. The principal amount of the certificate shall be the same as that required for a surety bond under this chapter or may be in an amount which, when added to the applicant's bond, will satisfy the licensee's requirements for a surety bond under this chapter, and the interest thereon shall be made payable to the purchaser of the certificate. The certificate of deposit shall remain on deposit until it is released, canceled, or discharged as provided for by rule of the department. The provisions of this chapter that apply to a bond required under this chapter apply to each certificate of deposit given in lieu of such a bond.

~~(7)~~ The department may, when it has reason to believe that a grain dealer does not have the ability to pay producers for grain purchased, or when it determines that the grain dealer does not have a sufficient net worth to outstanding financial obligations ratio, or when it believes there may be claims made against the bond in excess of the face amount of the bond, require a grain dealer to post an additional bond in a dollar amount deemed appropriate by the department or may require an additional certificate of deposit. The additional bonding may exceed the maximum amount of the bond otherwise required under this section. Failure to post the additional bond or certificate of deposit constitutes grounds for suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter.

~~((4))~~ ~~(8)~~ Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the license of a warehouseman or grain dealer shall automatically be suspended in accordance with ~~((the provisions of))~~ RCW 22.09.100 for failure at any time to have or to maintain a bond or certificate of deposit, or both, in the amount and type required ~~((herein))~~ by this chapter. The department shall remove the suspension or issue a license as the case may be, when the required bond or certificate of deposit has been obtained.

~~((5))~~ Any warehouseman required to submit a bond to the department pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall have the option to file a policy of insurance with the department in lieu of the warehouseman's bond. Such insurance policy, before being accepted, shall be approved by the attorney general and the insurance commissioner of the state of Washington if they deem the coverage provided thereby is equivalent to or greater than the coverage for depositors provided by the warehouseman's bond. If such an insurance policy is accepted in place of the bond, such insurance policy, as between the department, warehouseman, and the ~~depositors, shall be treated exactly the same as if it were a bond filed with the department. It is the intention of the legislature in this subsection to have the insurance policy replace the bond, as between the department, warehouseman, and the depositors, for all purposes as though the term bond used throughout the several sections of this chapter were to contain instead the term insurance policy.;~~)

Sec. 28. Section 10, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Every bond filed with and approved by the department shall without the necessity of periodic renewal remain in force and effect until such time as the warehouseman's license is revoked for cause or otherwise canceled. The surety on a bond, as provided ~~(herein)~~ in this chapter, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on ~~(such)~~ the bond after the expiration of ~~((ninety))~~ thirty days from the date a warehouseman's license is revoked for cause or otherwise terminated or after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which ((such) the surety ((shall have)) lodged with the department a written request to be released and discharged(;;), but this provision shall not operate to relieve, release, or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or ((which shall)) that has accrued before the expiration of the respective thirty or ninety-day period. In the event of a cancellation by the surety, the surety shall simultaneously send ((such)) the notification of cancellation in writing to any other governmental agency requesting it. ((The department shall promptly)) Upon receiving any such request, the department shall promptly notify the principal who furnished the bond, and unless the principal ((shall)) files a new bond on or before the expiration of the respective thirty or ninety-day period. ((file a new bond.)) the department shall forthwith cancel the principal's license.

All commodities in storage in a warehouse shall be kept fully insured for the current market value of ~~((such))~~ the commodity for the license period against loss by fire, lightning, internal explosion, windstorm, cyclone, and tornado. Evidence of ~~((such))~~ the insurance coverage in the form of a certificate of insurance approved by the department shall be filed by the warehouseman with the department at the time of making application for an annual license to operate a warehouse as required by this chapter. The department shall not issue a license ~~((when such))~~ until the certificate of insurance is received.

Sec. 30. Section 13, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 38, chapter 296, Laws of 1981 and RCW 22.09.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every warehouseman shall receive for ~~((storage.))~~ handling, conditioning, storage, or shipment, so far as the capacity and facilities of his warehouse will permit, all commodities included in the provisions of this chapter, in suitable condition for storage, tendered him in the usual course of business from historical depositors and shall issue therefor a warehouse receipt or receipts in a form prescribed by the department as ((herein)) provided in this chapter or a scale weight ticket. Warehousemen may accept agricultural commodities from new depositors who qualify to the extent of the capacity of that warehouse. The deposit for handling, conditioning, storage, or shipment((-or handling)) of ~~((such))~~ the commodity must be credited to the depositor in the books of the warehouseman ~~((within))~~ as soon as possible, but in no event later than seven days from the date of ((such)) the deposit. If the commodity has been graded a warehouse receipt shall be issued within ten days after demand by the owner.

(2) If requested by the depositor, each lot of his commodity shall be kept in a special pile or special bin, if available, but in the case of a bulk commodity, if the lot or any portion of it does not equal the capacity of any available bin, the depositor may exercise his option to require the commodity to be specially binned only on agreement to pay charges based on the capacity of the available bin most nearly approximating the required capacity.

(3) A warehouseman may refuse to accept for storage, commodities ~~((which))~~ that are wet, damaged, insect-infested, or in other ways unsuitable for storage.

(4) Terminal and subterminal warehousemen shall receive put through agricultural commodities to the extent satisfactory transportation arrangements can be made, but may not be required to receive agricultural commodities for storage.

(2) A warehouseman's duty to deliver any commodity is fulfilled if delivery is made pursuant to the contract with the depositor or if no contract exists, then to the several owners in the order of demand as rapidly as it can be done by ordinary diligence(;;). Where delivery is made within forty-eight hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays after facilities for receiving the commodity are provided. ~~((such))~~ the delivery is deemed to comply with this subsection.

(3) No warehouseman ~~((shall))~~ may fail to deliver a commodity as provided in this section, and delivery shall be made at the warehouse or station where the commodity was received unless ~~((agreed))~~ the warehouseman and depositor otherwise agree in writing.

(4) In addition to being subject to penalties provided in this chapter for a violation of this section, if a warehouseman unreasonably fails to deliver commodities within the time as provided in this section, the person entitled to delivery of the commodity may maintain an action against the warehouseman for any damages resulting from the warehouseman's unreasonable failure to so deliver. In any such action the person entitled to delivery of the commodity has the option to seek recovery of his actual damages or liquidated damages of one-half of one percent of the value for each day's delay after ~~((such))~~ the forty-eight hour period.

Sec. 32. Section 17, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.170 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1) A commodity deposited with a warehouseman without a written agreement for sale of the commodity to the warehouseman shall be handled and considered to be a commodity in storage.

(2) A presumption is hereby created that in all written agreements for the sale of commodities, the intent of the parties is that title and ownership to the commodities shall pass on the date of payment therefor. This presumption may only be rebutted by a clear statement to the contrary in the agreement.

(3) Any warehouseman or grain dealer entering into a deferred price contract with a depositor shall first have the form of the contract approved by the director. The director shall adopt rules setting forth the standards for approval of the contracts.

Sec. 34. Section 18, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 24, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.180 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((2))~~ No warehouse receipt issued by any warehouseman as defined in this chapter and no negotiation, transfer, or pledge of any such receipt shall be defeated by reason of the fact that the goods covered by the receipt were owned, in whole or in part, by the warehouseman at the time the receipt was issued.

~~((3))~~ Every warehouseman purchasing any agricultural commodity from a depositor thereof shall promptly make and keep for one year a correct record showing in detail the following:

In those cases where the failure to comply continues for more than thirty days or where the director determines the failure to comply creates a threat of loss to depositors, the department may, in lieu of levying further fines petition the superior court of the county where the licensee's principal place of business in Washington is located, as shown by the license application, for an order:

(a) Authorizing the department to seize and take possession of all books, papers, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or the operation of the warehouseman's or grain dealer's business, and the books, papers, records, and property that pertain specifically, exclusively, and directly to that business; and

(1) Whenever it appears that there is evidence after any investigation that a warehouseman has ~~(not in his possession sufficient commodities to cover the outstanding warehouse receipts, scale weight tickets, or other evidence of storage liability issued or assumed by him, or when such warehouseman refuses to submit his books, papers, or property to lawful inspection)~~ a shortage, the department may levy a fine of one hundred dollars per day until the warehouseman covers the shortage.

(2) In any case where the director determines the shortage creates a substantial or continuing threat of loss to the depositors of the warehouseman, the department may, in lieu of levying a fine or further fines, give notice to the warehouseman to comply with all or any of the following requirements:

- (a) Cover ~~((such))~~ the shortage;
- (b) Give additional bond as requested by the department;
- (c) Submit to such inspection as the department may deem necessary;

~~((2))~~ (3) If ~~((such))~~ the warehouseman fails to comply with the terms of ~~((such))~~ the notice provided for in subsection (2) of this section within twenty-four hours from the date of its issuance, or within such further time as the department may allow, the department may petition the superior court of the county where the licensee's principal place of business in Washington is located ~~((as shown by the license application))~~; for an order:

account for the same. The department may thereupon cause an audit to be made of the affairs of such warehouse, especially with respect to the commodities in which there is an apparent shortage, to determine the amount of such shortage and compute the shortage as to each depositor as shown by the warehouseman's records, if practicable. The department shall notify the warehouseman and the surety on his bond of the approximate amount of such shortage and notify each depositor thereby affected by sending notice to the depositor's last known address as shown by the records of the warehouseman.

(4) The department shall retain possession of the commodities in the warehouse or warehouses, and of the books, papers, and property of the warehouseman, until such time as the warehouseman or the surety on the bond shall have satisfied the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, or, in case the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond, the surety on the bond shall have satisfied such claims pro rata, or until such time as the department is ordered by the court to surrender possession.

(5) If during or after the audit provided for in this section, or at any other time the department has evidence that the warehouseman is insolvent or is unable to satisfy the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, the department may petition the superior court which authorized the department to take possession, for the appointment of a receiver to operate or liquidate the business of the warehouseman in accordance with law.

(6) At any time within ten days after the department takes possession of any commodities, or the books, papers, and property of any warehouse, the warehouseman may serve notice upon the department to appear in the superior court of the county in which such warehouse is located, at a time to be fixed by such court, which shall not be less than five, nor more than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, and show cause why such commodities, books, papers, and property should not be restored to his possession.

(7) All necessary expenses incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered in a separate civil action brought by the department in the said superior court or recovered at the same time and as a part of the receivership or seizure action filed under this chapter.

(8) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department or the receiver is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out the provisions of this section.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. (1) Whenever the department, pursuant to court order, seizes and takes possession of all or a portion of special piles and special bins of commodities, all or a portion of commingled commodities in a warehouse owned, operated, or controlled by a warehouseman, or books, papers, and property of any kind used in connection with the conduct of a warehouseman's warehouse business, the department shall:

(a) Give written notice of its action to the surety on the bond of the warehouseman and may notify the holders of record, as shown by the warehouseman's records, of all warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued for commodities, to present their warehouse receipt or other evidence of deposits for inspection, or to account for the same. The department may thereupon cause an audit to be made of the affairs of the warehouse, especially with respect to the commodities in which there is an apparent shortage, to determine the amount of the shortage and compute the shortage as to each depositor as shown by the warehouseman's records, if practicable. The department shall notify the warehouseman and the surety on his bond of the approximate amount of the shortage and notify each depositor thereby affected by sending notice to the depositor's last known address as shown by the records of the warehouseman.

(b) Retain possession of the commodities in the warehouse or warehouses, and of the books, papers, and property of the warehouseman, until the warehouseman or the surety on the bond has satisfied the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, or, in case the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond, the surety on the bond has satisfied the claims pro rata.

(2) At any time within ten days after the department takes possession of any commodities or the books, papers, and property of any warehouse, the warehouseman may serve notice upon the department to appear in the superior court of the county in which the warehouse is located, at a time to be fixed by the court, which shall not be less than five nor more than fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice, and show cause why such commodities, books, papers, and property should not be restored to his possession.

(3) All necessary expenses and attorneys' fees incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered in the same action or in a separate civil action brought by the department in the superior court.

(4) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. (1) When a depositor stores a commodity with a warehouseman or sells a commodity to a grain dealer, the depositor has a first priority statutory lien on the commodity or the proceeds therefrom or on commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer if the depositor has written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale. The lien arises at the time the title is transferred from the depositor to the warehouseman or grain dealer, or if the commodity is under a storage obligation, the lien arises at the commencement of the storage obligation. The lien terminates when the liability of the warehouseman or grain dealer to the depositor terminates or if the depositor sells his commodity to the warehouseman or grain dealer, then thirty days after the time of the sale. If, however, the depositor is tendered payment by check or draft, then the lien shall not terminate until forty days after the time of sale.

(2) The lien created under this section shall be preferred to any lien or security interest in favor of any creditor of the warehouseman or grain dealer, regardless of whether the creditor's lien or security interest attached to the commodity or proceeds before or after the date on which the depositor's lien attached under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A depositor who claims a lien under subsection (1) of this section need not file any notice of the lien in order to perfect the lien.

(4) The lien created by subsection (1) of this section is discharged, except as to the proceeds therefrom and except as to commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer, upon sale of the commodity by the warehouseman or grain dealer to a buyer in the ordinary course of business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. In the event of a failure of a grain dealer or warehouseman, the department may process the claims of depositors possessing written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of a sale of commodities in the following manner:

(1) The department shall give notice and provide a reasonable time to depositors possessing written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale of commodities to file their claims with the department.

(2) The department may investigate each claim and determine whether the claimant's commodities are under a storage obligation or whether a sale of the commodities has occurred. The department may, in writing, notify each claimant and the failed grain dealer or warehouseman of the department's determination as to the status and amount of each claimant's claim. A claimant, failed warehouseman, or grain dealer may request a hearing on the department's determination within twenty days of receipt of written notification, and a hearing shall be held in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) The department may inspect and audit the failed warehouseman to determine whether the warehouseman has in his possession sufficient quantities of commodities to cover his storage obligations. In the event of a shortage, the department shall determine each depositor's pro rata share of available commodities and the deficiency shall be considered as a claim of the depositor. Each type of commodity shall be treated separately for purpose of determining shortages.

(4) The department shall determine the amount, if any, due each claimant by the surety and make demand upon the bond in the manner set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. Upon the failure of a grain dealer or warehouseman, the statutory lien created in section 50 of this act shall be liquidated by the department to satisfy the claims of depositors in the following manner:

(1) The department shall take possession of all commodities in the warehouse that are under warehouse receipts or any written evidence of ownership that discloses a storage obligation by a failed warehouseman, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, and ledger cards. These commodities shall be distributed or sold and the proceeds distributed to satisfy the outstanding warehouse receipts or other written evidences of ownership. If a shortage exists, the department shall distribute the commodities or the proceeds from the sale of the commodities on a prorated basis to the depositors. To the extent the commodities or the proceeds from their sale are inadequate to satisfy the claims of depositors with evidence of storage obligations, the depositors have a first priority lien against any proceeds received from commodities sold while under a storage obligation or against any commodities owned by the failed warehouseman or grain dealer.

(2) Depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of a commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, deferred price contracts, or similar commodity delivery contracts, who have completed delivery and pricing during a thirty-day period immediately before the failure of the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a second priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodity, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy the claim of depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(3) Upon the satisfaction of the claims of depositors qualifying for first or second priority treatment, all other depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a third priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodities, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy these claims, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(4) The director of agriculture may represent depositors whom, under section 51 of this act, the director has determined have claims against the failed warehouseman or failed grain dealer in any action brought to enjoin or otherwise contest the distributions made by the director under this section.

Sec. 53. Section 37, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If no action is commenced ~~((pursuant to RCW 22.09.360))~~ under RCW 22.09.570 within thirty days after written demand to the department, any depositor injured by the failure of a licensee to comply with the condition of his bond ~~((shall have))~~ has a right of action upon ~~((such))~~ the licensee's bond for the recovery of ~~((all))~~ his damages ~~((suffered thereby))~~. The depositor shall give the department immediate written notice of the commencement of any such action.

(2) Recovery under ~~((such))~~ the bond shall be prorated when the claims exceed the liability under ~~((such))~~ the bond.

(3) Whenever the claimed shortage exceeds the amount of ~~((such))~~ the bond, it ~~((shall))~~ is not ~~((be))~~ necessary for any depositor~~((s))~~ suing on ~~((such))~~ the bond to join other depositors in ~~((such))~~ the suit, and the burden of establishing proration ~~((shall be))~~ is on the surety as a matter of defense.

Sec. 54. Section 42, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The department's inspectors shall, at terminal warehouses, have exclusive control of the weighing, inspecting, and grading of the commodities ~~((which))~~ that are included within the provisions of this chapter, and the action and certificates of ~~((such))~~ the inspectors in the discharge of their duties, as to all commodities weighed or inspected by them, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the correctness of the above activity~~((--PROVIDED That))~~. However, an appeal may be taken as provided in RCW ~~((22.09.450--))~~ 22.09.780 to the director of the department. Suitable books and records shall be kept in which shall be entered a record of every carload, or cargo, or part of cargo of commodities inspected or weighed by them, showing the number and initial or other designation of the vehicle or boat containing ~~((such))~~ the carload, or cargo, or part of cargo, its weight, the kind of commodity, and its grade, the reason for ~~((such))~~ the grade~~((;))~~ if of inferior grade, the amount of ~~((such))~~ the dockage, the amount of fees and forfeitures and disposition of ~~((same))~~ them; and for each vehicle or cargo, or part of cargo, of commodity inspected, they shall give a certificate of inspection showing the kind and grade of the same and the reason for all grades established. They shall also keep a record of all appeals, decisions, and a complete record of every official act, which books and records shall be open to inspection by any party in interest. They shall also furnish the agent of the railroad company, or other carrier over which ~~((such))~~ the commodity was shipped or carried, a report showing the weight thereof, if requested to do so.

Sec. 55. Section 55, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 22, chapter 238, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.550 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may cooperate with and enter into agreements with governmental agencies of this state, other states, agencies of the federal government, and private associations in order to carry out the purpose and provisions of this chapter and the United States Warehouse Act (7 USCA § 241 et seq.) and the United States Grain Standards Act, as amended (7 USCA § 71, et seq.). Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter such agreements may also relate to a joint program for licensing, bonding, and inspecting stations ~~((as defined in RCW 22.09.010(8)(f)))~~. Such a program should be designed to avoid duplication of effort on the part of the licensing authority and requirements for operation, and promote more efficient enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and~~((or))~~ comparable provisions of the law of the states of Idaho or Oregon.

Sec. 56. Section 29, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.570 are each amended to read as follows:

If a depositor creditor after notification fails, refuses, or neglects to file in the office of the director his verified claim against a warehouseman or grain dealer bond as requested by the director within ~~((sixty))~~ thirty days from the date of ~~((such))~~ the request, the director shall thereupon be relieved of further duty or action ~~((hereunder))~~ under this chapter on behalf of ~~((said))~~ the depositor creditor.

Sec. 58. Section 31, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.590 are each amended to read as follows:

Where by reason of the absence of records~~((;))~~ or other circumstances making it impossible or unreasonable for the director to ascertain the names and addresses of all ~~((said))~~ the depositor creditors, the director after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure ~~((said))~~ that information from all reasonable and available sources, may make demand on ~~((said))~~ a warehouseman's or grain dealer's bond on the basis of information then in his possession, and thereafter shall not be liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims ~~((which))~~ that may subsequently appear or be discovered.

Sec. 59. Section 32, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.600 are each amended to read as follows:

The failure to file the ~~((same))~~ new bond within ten days in either case ~~((such failure shall))~~ constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of ~~((his))~~ the warehouseman's or grain dealer's license.

Furthermore, if inspection of that portion of the station located in the contiguous state is refused by the licensee, the department may give notice to the licensee to submit to such inspection as the department may deem necessary.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Niemi, with a Rotary Club auxiliary--they call it the Rotary Anns--would they, having an auxiliary, be exempt, or any other service club like the JCs?"

This is public money--both donations from taxpayers and tax money--some maybe from school districts and some from the state. The idea is to stop them from competing and saying what we need to produce from the radio stations of the state, public radio and television, and then band together to produce higher quality programs. Basically, you need one coordinating body to do this, and this is the only agency that we have that's possible. That's why I strongly urge that we give them another year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Taylor yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: "Representative Taylor, can you give me some idea as to the magnitude of the number of dollars that came into our state over the last year or two as a result of public broadcasting, this commission, or grants from the federal agency?"

Mr. Prince spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Halsan spoke against them.

Mr. Prince spoke again in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Halsan yielded to question by Mr. Broback.

Mr. Broback: "Representative Halsan, in the event that someone had mineral rights on a piece of property, could he exercise or extend those rights for any period of time without actually using his rights?"

Mr. Halsan: "Under the bill as it is proposed, if you held the mineral rights to a piece of property that I had, I would have to send you notice. Your mineral rights would be registered at the court house. I would have to send you notice that I wanted to get the rights back and you would then have to file your intention to maintain the rights. Once you did that, your rights continue for another twenty years. There is adequate protection in here for the mineral rights by the owners if they are still around."

Mr. Broback: "If I had mineral rights, and after nineteen years I wrote you a letter of intention saying that I wanted to extend it for another twenty years, could I do that?"

Mr. Halsan: "It would be my belief that what you should do is file your intention to regain the mineral rights pursuant to the statute."

Mr. Broback: "This is a point that I would like to make very clear. If we don't have that right to extend, and do not actually use the minerals, we do have the right to extend it?"

Mr. Halsan: "I would direct your attention to page 2, line 10, which is in section 4, talking about a party's filing the current registration of mineral rights within the time provided. It does provide that you can extend that. If you are still around and if you still want it, you can extend it."

Representatives McDonald, Ballard, Struthers and Dickie spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Charnley and Gallagher opposed them.

Mr. Halsan again opposed the amendments.

Mr. Moon demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. To insure that all mineral interest owners are notified of the registration provisions of this chapter, the department of natural resources is directed to give notice of the registration provisions of this chapter as follows:

(1) It shall cause a notice in writing to be placed in a prominent and conspicuous place in all newspapers of the state having a circulation of more than fifty thousand copies for each week day, and at least one newspaper published in each county of the state, at least once each year for five consecutive years.

(2) It shall cause a notice substantially the same as a notice in writing to be broadcast by each commercial television station operating in the United States and viewed in the state, and by at least one commercial radio station operating from each county of the state having such a station regularly at six month intervals for five consecutive years.

(3) It shall cause a notice in writing to be placed in a prominent and conspicuous location in each county court house in the state.

(4) The county treasurer of each county shall enclose with each mailing of one or more statements of taxes due issued in 1984 copy of a notice in writing and a declaration that it shall be the duty of the recipient of the statement of taxes due to forward the notice to the mineral interest owner, if known. A sufficient number of copies of the notice and declaration shall be supplied to each county treasurer by the director of the department of natural resources before the fifteenth day of January 1984. In the implementation of this subsection the department of natural resources shall provide reimbursement to the county treasurer for the reasonable additional costs, if any there may be, incurred by said treasurer arising from the inclusion of a notice in writing as required herein.

(5) It shall provide copies of the notice in writing to the press services with offices located in Thurston county during January of the years 1984, 1985, 1986, 1987 and 1988.

The commissioner of public lands may also in his discretion give notice in any other manner which will carry out the purposes of this section. Where notice in writing is given pursuant to subsections (1) and (3) of this section, sections 1 through 6 of this act shall be set forth and quoted in full."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references.

Ms. Miller spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Halsan spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Miller yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Miller, it doesn't say whether the mineral interests are on private property or public property. Is it the intent of this amendment to apply to private mineral interests on private property as well as public property?"

Ms. Miller: "I'm sorry, I can't answer that question, Representative Sanders."

Representatives Sanders and Prince spoke against the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Heck, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4019 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Representatives Fuhrman, Broback and Clayton spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Halsan spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Halsan yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Halsan, we've been talking about 'twenty years' and 'one hundred eighty days' tonight, if this bill were passed tonight and went through all the process and arrives at the Governor's desk, would the first filing be twenty years from now or could it start the day after the Governor signs the bill?"

Mr. Halsan: "Section 1 says, 'Any mineral interest shall, if unused for a period of twenty years, be deemed to have been abandoned....' That's the period of time of nonuse that we are looking at. It would be my interpretation that the intent of the legislation would be that, in fact, a month after the Governor signs the bill, you could start proceedings to extinguish an abandoned mineral claim. It would be my understanding and my feeling that the legislative intent would be that it could start right away."

Representatives Barrett and Prince spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Halsan yielded to question by Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang: "Representative Halsan, after further investigating the previous question asked by Representative Barrett, would you respond as to what the correct time period is for implementation?"

Mr. Halsan: "We went into the second page of the bill. There is a period of time. It's two years--the end of the twenty-day period or within two years after the effective date of this act whichever is later, so the first time would be two years from now that you could actually go through the procedure. I apologize for misleading you and want to make sure this is on the record."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings asked Mr. Halsan to yield to question and Mr. Halsan refused to yield.

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Padden, I realize that you have not been caught up in the debate on this, but I want to ask an attorney this question because I think it has something to do with the law. What we're talking about here is the use of the land--or the nonuse of the land, I guess I should say--so my question is: If the best definition of 'nonuse' is the opposite of 'use,' would it be limited simply to the definition that is set forth in section 3?"

Mr. Padden: "Not necessarily, Representative Hastings. I'm sure that could be open for interpretation by the court if it is not specifically defined in the legislation. This legislation is a little unique in that there is no definition section."

Representatives Hastings and Dickie spoke against passage of the bill.

Mr. Fuhrman again opposed passage of the bill.

Mr. Garrett demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Isaacson spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. G. Nelson spoke against it.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Heck, having voted on the prevailing side, served notice that he would move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4019 as amended by the House failed to pass the House.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Todd, could you give me an idea of what you mean by '...enforces a program reasonably calculated to prevent alcohol or alcoholic beverages not purchased....' Could you tell me what sort of program you would be talking about to back up the intent of the amendment?"

Mr. Todd: "Representative Hastings, we have gone through a very lengthy hearing process before the King County Zoning Examiner, and the finding suggests that a reasonable alcohol-check program would be a turnstile-entrance system to this particular facility."

The board shall fully consider and give substantial weight to objections filed by private schools. If a license is issued despite the proximity of a private school, the board shall state in a letter addressed to the private school the board's reasons for issuing the license."

Ms. Schmidt yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Schmidt, what do you mean by 'adversely affect'? What factors would you consider the board should weigh and carefully consider that would affect the private school?"

Ms. Schmidt: "Representative Tilly, it's not for me to decide what is adverse. The people on the Liquor Board have been making a practice of making these decisions. POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "The amendment is out of scope and object, Mr. Speaker."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has looked at the amendment. The bill is an act relating to the powers of the State Liquor Control Board to issue licenses to perform services for the State Lottery Commission. The amendment attempts to remove the current authority of the Liquor Control Board to retail beer and wine, thus it is beyond the scope of the title. Your point is well taken, Representative Sommers."

Legislative members shall be ex officio nonvoting members of the board and shall serve while members of the legislature, at the pleasure of the appointing officer. The board shall be responsible for identifying and reviewing state agency policies relating to the management of radioactive wastes; analyzing recommendations of the advisory council to determine how state agencies may be responsive to the needs of the department in carrying out its duties under this chapter; assisting the department in determining ways in which coordination among state agencies can be improved; carrying out such review activities that will enable the governor to effectively evaluate federal actions; reviewing the activities of advisory and technical committees created by the governor; advising the director on the need for additional advisory and technical committees; and assisting the department to participate in the consultation and concurrence process provided for in the federal waste management act of 1982 and the low-level waste policy act of 1980 and to monitor and comment on decisions of the northwest interstate compact committee on low-level radioactive waste management.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 117 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 9 beginning with "A" strike all material down to and including "terminated:)" on page 2, line 6 and insert: "Each community college district shall adopt a procedure by January 1, 1984, relating to reductions-in-force in the event of a financial emergency. Such procedure shall be mutually agreed to by the board of trustees and the representative of the academic employees and shall provide mechanisms for determining whether a financial emergency does exist, the magnitude and specific elements of the financial emergency, whether a reduction-in-force will occur, the magnitude of the reduction-in-force, and how the reduction-in-force will be implemented. It shall be the goals of such procedure to maintain programs and to minimize the number of layoffs. Such procedure shall only be implemented due to the following conditions:

(1) Reduction of allotments by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.88.110(2), or (2) reduction by the legislature from one biennium to the next or within a biennium of appropriated funds based on constant dollars using the implicit price deflator. Such procedure shall provide for a final determination on whether a reduction-in-force will occur within thirty days of such reduction of allotments or such reduction by the legislature. The community college district board of trustees shall have responsibility for the final decision as to whether a financial emergency exists, whether a reduction-in-force should occur, or what the magnitude of such reduction-in-force should be. When ((a district board of trustees determines)) it is determined that a reduction-in-force of tenured or probationary faculty members ((may be)) is necessary due to a financial emergency ((as declared by the state board)), written notice of the reduction-in-force and separation from employment shall be given the faculty members so affected by the president or district president as the case may be. The total cost of the compensation for the employees who are notified shall not exceed the total reduction of allotments by the governor or the reduction of the appropriated funds by the legislature. Said notice shall clearly indicate that separation is not due to the job performance of the employee and hence is without prejudice to such employee and need only state in addition the basis for the reduction-in-force ((as one or more of the reasons enumerated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section)).

Said tenured or probationary faculty members will have a right to request a formal hearing when being dismissed pursuant to ((subsections (1) and (2) of)) this section. The only issue to be determined shall be whether under the applicable policies, rules or collective bargaining agreement the particular faculty member or members advised of severance are the proper ones to be terminated."

On page 2, line 22 after "within" strike "sixty" and insert "((sixty)) forty-five"

On page 3, line 17 after "herein." strike "The right of a faculty member to request a separate hearing is not impaired" and insert "Each faculty member notified of termination because of a reduction-in-force as provided in this section shall have the right to a separate hearing if the issues and material facts concerning such faculty member's termination are not substantially similar to the issues and material facts involved in the termination of other faculty members" and the same is herewith transmitted.

April 18, 1983

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUE HOUSE BILL NO. 390 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purposes of this chapter are to permit the state and local governments to conform with registration requirements of federal law which are necessary to exempt interest payments from federal income taxes when the state or local governments issue bonds or incur other obligations and to authorize the establishment and maintenance of differing systems of registering bonds and other obligations as these systems are developed and recognized, which may be instituted, discontinued, and reinstated from time to time. It is further the purpose of this chapter to grant local governments an alternative flexible authority to structure and sell their bond issues and to include a variety of features on their bonds.

This act shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Bond' means any agreement which may or may not be represented by a physical instrument, including notes, warrants, or certificates of indebtedness, that evidences an indebtedness of the state or a local government or a fund thereof, where the state or local government agrees to pay a specified amount of money, with or without interest, at a designated time or times to either registered owners or bearers.

(2) 'Local government' means any county, city, town, special purpose district, political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi municipal corporation, including any public corporation created by such an entity.

(3) 'Obligation' means an agreement that evidences an indebtedness of the state or a local government, other than a bond, and includes, but is not limited to, conditional sales contracts, lease obligations, and promissory notes.

(4) 'State' includes the state, agencies of the state, and public corporations created by the state or agencies of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The state and local governments are authorized to establish a system of registering the ownership of their bonds or other obligations as to principal and interest, or principal only. Registration may include, without limitation: (a) A book entry system of recording the ownership of a bond or other obligation whether or not a physical instrument is issued; or (b) recording the ownership of a bond or other obligation together with the requirement that the transfer of ownership may only be effected by the surrender of the old bond or other obligation and either the reissuance of the old bond or other obligation or the issuance of a new bond or other obligation to the new owner.

(2) The system of registration shall define the method or methods by which transfer of the registered bonds or other obligations shall be effective, and by which payment of principal and any interest shall be made. The system of registration may permit the issuance of bonds or other obligations in any denomination to represent several registered bonds or other obligations of smaller denominations. The system of registration may also provide for any writing relating to a bond or other obligation that is not issued as a physical instrument, for identifying numbers or other designations, for a sufficient supply of certificates for subsequent transfers, for record and payment dates, for varying denominations, for communications to the owners of bonds or other obligations, for accounting, canceled certificate destruction, registration and release of securing interests, and for such other incidental matters pertaining to the registration of bonds or other obligations as the issuer may deem to be necessary or appropriate.

(3) The state or a local government may appoint one or more of the fiscal agencies appointed from time to time by the state finance committee in accordance with chapter 43.80 RCW to act with respect to an issue of its bonds or other obligations as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, and paying or other agent and specify the rights and duties and means of compensation of any such fiscal agency so acting. The state and local governments may also enter into agreements with the fiscal agency or agencies in connection with the establishment and maintenance by such fiscal agency or agencies of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of bonds or other obligations.

(4) Nothing in this section precludes the issuer, or a trustee appointed by the issuer pursuant to any other provision of law, from itself performing, either alone or jointly with other issuers, fiscal agencies, or trustees, any transfer, registration, authentication, payment, or other function described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A local government authorized to issue bonds shall determine for the bond issue its amount, date or dates, terms not in excess of the maximum term otherwise provided in law, conditions, bond denominations, interest rate or rates, which may be fixed or variable, interest payment dates, maturity or maturities, redemption rights, registration privileges, manner of execution, price, manner of sale, covenants, and form, including registration as to principal and interest, registration as to principal only, or bearer. Registration may be as provided in section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each local government authorized to issue bonds is authorized to establish lines of credit with any qualified public depository to be drawn upon in exchange for its bonds or other obligations, to delegate to its fiscal officer authority to determine the amount of credit extended, and to pay interest and other finance or service charges. The interest rates on such bonds or other obligations may be a fixed rate or rates set periodically or a variable rate or rates determined by agreement of the parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Where bonds are issued by the state or a local government as physical instruments, the bonds shall be printed, engraved, lithographed, typed, or reproduced and the manual or facsimile signatures of both a designated officer and chairperson of the governing body or chief executive shall be included on each bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The proceeds of any bonds issued by the state or a local government may be used to pay incidental costs and costs related to the sale and issuance of the bonds. Such costs include payments for fiscal and legal expenses, obtaining bond ratings, printing, engraving, advertising, establishing and funding reserve accounts and other accounts, an amount for working capital, capitalized interest for up to six months, necessary and related engineering, architectural, planning, and inspection costs, and other similar activities or purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall be deemed to provide a complete, additional, and alternative method for the performance of those subjects authorized by these sections and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other state laws. Whenever bonds and other obligations are issued and sold in conformance with sections 1 through 7 of this act, such issuance and sale need not comply with contrary requirements of other state laws applicable to the issuance and sale of bonds or other obligations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The local government committees of the house of representatives and the senate shall cooperate in a study of the provisions of the law related to debt limits, and the issuance and sale of bonds, notes, warrants and other obligations of the state and units of local government. The committees shall report their initial findings and recommended legislation on or before January 1, 1984 and shall submit a final report and any recommended legislation on or before January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 43.80 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The fiscal agencies designated pursuant to RCW 43.80.110 and 43.80.120 may be appointed by the state or a local government to act as registrar, authenticating agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or other agent in connection with the issuance by the state or local government of registered bonds or other obligations pursuant to a system of registration as provided by section 3 of this 1983 act and may establish and maintain on behalf of the state or local government a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of bonds or other obligations. The term 'local government' shall be as defined in section 2 of this 1983 act.

(2) Whenever in the judgment of the fiscal agencies, certain services as registrar, authenticating agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or other agent in connection with the establishment and maintenance of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of registered public obligations, or in connection with the issuance by any public entity of registered public obligations pursuant to a system of registration as provided in chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act), can be secured from private sources more economically than by carrying out such duties themselves, they may contract out all or any of such services to such private entities as such fiscal agencies deem capable of carrying out such duties in a responsible manner.

The call shall be made for publication in the city or town official newspaper in its first publication following the date of delinquency of any installment of the assessment or as soon thereafter as practicable. The call shall state that bonds No. (giving the serial number or numbers of the bonds called) will be paid on the day the next interest ~~((coupons on the bonds become))~~ payments are due and that interest on those bonds will cease upon that date.

Sec. 44. Section 2, chapter 93, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and by section 4, chapter 323, Laws of 1981 and RCW 35.45.150 are each re-enacted and amended to read as follows:

In addition to the issuance of bonds and warrants in payment of the cost and expense of any local improvement, any city or town may also issue and sell installment notes payable out of the local improvement district fund. Such installment notes may be issued any time after the thirty day period allowed by law for the payment of assessments of any district without penalty or interest, and may bear any denomination or denominations, the aggregate of which shall represent the balance of the cost and expense of the local improvement district which is to be borne by the property owners therein.

Application of local improvement district funds for the reduction of the principal and interest amounts due on any notes herein provided to finance said improvement shall be made not less than once each year beginning with the issue date thereof. Appropriate notification of such application of funds shall be made by the city or town treasurer to the registered payees of said notes, except those notes owned by funds of the issuing municipality. Such notes may be registered as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. If more than one local improvement installment note is issued for a single district, said notes shall be numbered consecutively. All notes issued shall bear on the face thereof: (1) The name of the payee; (2) the number of the local improvement district from whose funds the notes are payable; (3) the date of issue of each note; (4) the date on which the note, or the final installment thereon shall become due; (5) the rate or rates of interest, ~~((not to exceed twelve percent))~~ as provided by the city or town legislative authority, to be paid on the unpaid balance thereof, and; (6) such manual or facsimile signatures and attestations as are required by state statute or city charter to appear on the warrants of each issuing municipality.

The reverse side of each installment note issued pursuant to this section shall bear a tabular payment record which shall indicate at prescribed installment dates, the receipt of any local improvement district funds for the purpose of servicing the debt evidenced by said notes. Such receipts shall first be applied toward the interest due on the unpaid balance of the note, and any additional moneys shall thereafter apply as a reduction of the principal amount thereof. The tabular payment record shall, in addition to the above, show the unpaid principal balance due on each installment note, together with sufficient space opposite each transaction affecting said note for the manual signature of the city's or town's clerk, treasurer or other properly designated receiving officer of the municipality, or of any other registered payee presenting said note for such installment payments.

Whenever there are insufficient funds in a local improvement district to meet any payment of installment interest due on any note herein authorized, a noninterest-bearing defaulted installment interest certificate shall be issued by the city or town treasurer which shall consist of a written statement certifying the amount of such defaulted interest installment; the name of the payee of the note to whom the interest is due and the number of the local improvement district from whose funds the note and interest thereon is payable. Such certificates may be registered as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. The certificate herein provided shall bear the manual signature of the city or town treasurer or his authorized agent. The defaulted installment interest certificate so issued shall be redeemed for the face amount thereof with any available funds in the local improvement guaranty fund.

Whenever at the date of maturity of any installment note issued pursuant to this section, there are insufficient funds in a local improvement district, due to delinquencies in the collection of assessments, to pay the final installment of the principal due thereon, the note shall be redeemed with any available funds in the local improvement guaranty fund for the amount of said final installment.

All certificates and notes issued pursuant to this section are to become subject to the same redemption privileges as apply to any local improvement district bonds and warrants now accorded the protection of the local improvement guaranty fund as provided in chapter 35.54 RCW, and whenever the certificates or notes issued as herein provided are redeemed by said local improvement guaranty fund, they shall be held therein as investments thereof in the same manner as prescribed for other defaulted local improvement district obligations.

Notwithstanding any other statutory provisions, local improvement installment notes authorized by this section which are within the protection of the local improvement guaranty fund law shall be considered legal investments for any available surplus funds of the issuing municipality which now or hereafter may be authorized to be invested in the city's or town's local improvement districts' bonds or warrants and shall be considered legal investments for all national and state banks, savings and loan institutions, and any and all other commercial banking or financial institutions to the same extent that the local improvement district bonds and any coupons issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter have been and are legal investments for such institutions. Any such local improvement installment notes may be transferred or sold by said city or town upon such terms or conditions and in such manner as the local governing body of said city or town may determine, or may be issued to another fund of the city or town: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the same shall not be sold at less than par plus accrued interest.

If the assessment, or last installment thereof, against which the bonds or warrants have been issued, has been delinquent not more than thirty-two years. The maximum purchase price to be paid for said bonds or warrants shall be fixed by the municipality, and may from time to time be changed but shall never exceed fifty percent of the face value of the bonds, interest payments, interest coupons, or warrants: PROVIDED, That no warrants shall be issued payable from the revolving fund unless there is sufficient cash in said fund available for payment of such warrants.

If any of the revenue from any tax or surcharge authorized by this or any other chapter shall have been pledged to secure the payment of any bonds as herein authorized, then as long as that pledge shall be in effect the legislature shall not withdraw the authority to levy and collect the tax. Any municipality is authorized to pledge for the payment or security of the principal of and interest on any bonds issued for authorized public transportation purposes all or any portion of any taxes authorized to be levied by the issuer, including, but not limited to, the local sales and use tax authorized pursuant to RCW 82.14.045, as now or hereafter amended. Such general obligation bonds may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authorization may exceed the amount of bonds which could then lawfully be issued. Such bonds may be issued in one or more series from time to time out of such authorization but at no time shall the total general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation exceed five percent of the value of the taxable property therein, as the term 'value of the taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015. municipal corporation. The metropolitan council shall create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the metropolitan council may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of the particular utility constructed, acquired, improved, added to, or repaired out of the proceeds of sale of such bonds, as the metropolitan council shall determine and may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts out of otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership, use or operation of properties or facilities owned, used or operated incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or out of otherwise unpledged fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, rentals, special taxes or other sources of payment lawfully authorized for such purpose, as the metropolitan council shall determine. The principal of, and interest on, such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners ~~((and holders))~~ of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue of such utility or any other revenue, fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, special taxes or other authorized sources pledged to the payment of such bonds.

Such revenue bonds and the interest thereon issued against such fund or funds shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holders))~~ owners thereof only as against such fund or funds and the revenue pledged therefor, and shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation.

Each such revenue bond shall state upon its face that it is payable from such special fund or funds, and all revenue bonds issued under this chapter shall be negotiable securities within the provisions of the law of this state. Such revenue bonds may be registered either as to principal only or as to principal and interest as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, or may be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations as the metropolitan council shall deem proper; shall be payable at such time or times and at such places as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the metropolitan council, one of which signatures may be a facsimile signature, and the seal of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall be impressed or imprinted thereon; ~~((each of the))~~ any attached interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials.

The metropolitan council may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source may later be issued on a parity with revenue bonds being issued and sold.

The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of any such revenue bond issue an amount to establish necessary reserves, an amount for working capital and an amount necessary for interest during the period of construction of any such metropolitan facilities plus six months. The metropolitan council may, if it deems it to be the best interest of the metropolitan municipal corporation, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of any metropolitan facilities or additions or improvements thereto or replacements or extensions thereof that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue bonds at the par value thereof.

If the metropolitan municipal corporation shall fail to carry out or perform any of its obligations or covenants made in the authorization, issuance and sale of such bonds, the ~~((holder))~~ owner of any such bond may bring action against the metropolitan municipal corporation and compel the performance of any or all of such covenants.

Such bonds may be in any form, including coupon bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 86. Section 5, chapter 94, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When revenue bonds are issued for authorized purposes, said bonds shall be either registered as to principal only or principal and interest as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act or shall be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations, shall be numbered, shall bear such date, shall be payable at such time or times up to a maximum period of not to exceed thirty years and payable ~~((at the office of the county treasurer, and such other places))~~ as determined by the park and recreation commissioners of the district; shall bear interest payable semiannually ~~((and evidenced to maturity by coupons attached to said bonds bearing a coupon interest rate or rates as authorized by the board of park and recreation commissioners))~~; shall be executed by the chairman of the board of park and recreation commissioners, and attested by the secretary of the board, and the seal of such board shall be affixed to each bond, but not to ~~((the))~~ any coupon; and may have facsimile signatures of the chairman and the secretary imprinted on ~~((the))~~ any interest coupons in lieu of original signatures.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 87. Section 6, chapter 94, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be payable solely out of the operating revenues of the park and recreation district. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by the board of park and recreation commissioners, which resolution shall create a special fund or funds into which the board of park and recreation commissioners may obligate and bind the district to set aside and pay any part or parts of, or all of, or a fixed proportion of, or fixed amounts of gross revenue received by the district from moneys for services or activities as stated in the resolution, for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds as the same shall become due, and if deemed necessary to maintain adequate reserves therefor. Such fund or funds shall be drawn upon solely for the purpose of paying the principal and interest upon the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

The bonds shall be negotiable instruments within the provision and intent of the negotiable instruments law of this state, even though they shall be payable solely from such special fund or funds, and the tax revenue of the district may not be used to pay, secure, or guarantee the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds. The bonds and ~~((the))~~ any coupons attached thereto shall state upon their face that they are payable solely from such special fund or funds. If the county fails to set aside and pay into such fund or funds, the payments provided for in such resolution, the ~~((holder))~~ owner of any such bonds may bring suit to compel compliance with the provisions of the resolution.

Sec. 88. Section 7, chapter 94, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.390 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of park and recreation commissioners may provide covenants as it may deem necessary to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds and may, but shall not be required to, include covenants to create a reserve fund or account and to authorize the payment or deposit of certain moneys therein for the purpose of securing the payment of such principal and interest; to establish, maintain, and collect rates, charges, fees, rentals, and the like on the facilities and service the income of which is pledged for the payment of such bonds, sufficient to pay or secure the payment of such principal and interest and to maintain an adequate coverage over annual debt service; and to make any and all other covenants not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter which will increase the marketability of such bonds. The board may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source or sources may later be sold on a parity with any revenue bonds being issued and sold. The provisions of this chapter and any resolution or resolutions providing for the authorization, issuance, and sale of such bonds shall constitute a contract with the ~~((holder))~~ owner of such bonds, and the provisions thereof shall be enforceable by any owner ~~((or-holder))~~ of such bonds by mandamus or any appropriate suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 89. Section 8, chapter 94, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of parks and recreation commissioners of any district may by resolution, from time to time, provide for the issuance of funding or refunding revenue bonds to fund or refund any outstanding revenue bonds and any interest and premiums due thereon ~~((and matured coupons evidencing interest upon any such bonds))~~ at or before the maturity of such bonds, and parts or all of various series and issues of outstanding revenue bonds ~~((and matured coupons))~~ in the amount thereof to be funded or refunded.

The board shall create a special fund for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such funding or refunding revenue bonds, into which fund the board shall obligate and bind the district to set aside and pay any part or parts of, or all of, or a fixed proportion of, or a fixed amount of the revenue of the recreational facility of the district sufficient to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due, and if deemed necessary to maintain adequate reserves therefor.

Such funding or refunding bonds shall be negotiable instruments within the provisions and intent of the negotiable instruments law of this state, and the tax revenue of the district may not be used to pay, secure, or guarantee the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

The district may exchange such funding or refunding bonds for the bonds, and any coupons being funded or refunded, or it may sell such funding or refunding bonds in the manner, at such price and at such rate or rates of interest as the board shall deem to be for the best interest of the district and its inhabitants, either at public or private sale.

The provisions of this chapter relating to the terms, conditions, covenants, issuance, and sale of revenue bonds shall be applicable to such funding or refunding bonds except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this section.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 90. Section 36.76.080, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 76, Laws of 1971 and RCW 36.76.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((board))~~ legislative authority of any county may, whenever a majority thereof so decides, submit to the voters of their county the question whether the ~~((board))~~ legislative authority shall be authorized to issue negotiable ~~((coupon))~~ road bonds of the county in an amount subject to the limitations on indebtedness provided for in RCW 39.36.020(2), for the purpose of constructing a new road or roads, or improving established roads within the county, or for aiding in so doing, as herein prescribed.

The word 'improvement' wherever used in this ~~((act))~~ section and RCW 36.76.090, 36.76.100, 36.76.110, 36.76.120, and 36.76.130 shall embrace any undertaking for any or all of such purposes. The word 'road' shall embrace all highways, roads, streets, avenues, bridges, and other public ways.

The provisions of this ~~((act))~~ section and RCW 36.76.090, 36.76.100, 36.76.110, 36.76.120, and 36.76.130 shall apply not only to roads which are or shall be under the general control of the county, but also to all parts of state roads in such county and to all roads which are situated or are to be constructed wholly or partly within the limits of any incorporated city or town therein, provided the ~~((board-of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority finds that they form or will become a part of the public highway system of the county, and will connect the existing roads therein. Such finding may be made by the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority at any stage of the proceedings before the actual delivery of the bonds.

The constructing or improving of any and all such roads, or the aiding therein, is declared to be a county purpose.

The question of the issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different roads or parts thereof, whether intended to supply the whole expenditure or to aid therein, may be submitted to the voters as a single proposition in all cases where such course is consistent with the provisions of the state Constitution. If the county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority, in submitting a proposition relating to different roads or parts thereof, finds that such proposition has for its object the furtherance and accomplishment of the construction of a system of public and county highways in such county, and constitutes and has for its object a single purpose, such finding shall be presumed to be correct, and upon the issuance of the bonds the presumption shall become conclusive.

No proposition for bonds shall be submitted which proposes that more than forty percent of the proceeds thereof shall be expended within any city or town, or within any number of cities and towns.

Sec. 91. Section 36.76.090, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 53, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.76.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The ballots used must contain the words, 'Bonds, Yes,' and 'Bonds, No'. If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on the question of issuing bonds for the improvement contemplated in RCW 36.76.080 are in favor of bonds, the ~~((board))~~ county legislative authority must issue negotiable bonds in due and legal form, and negotiate them in such manner as they may deem to be the best advantage of the county, at not less than par value. The bonds authorized by this section shall be issued in the name of the county, in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; they shall ~~((be payable either (1) to some person or corporation (named therein) or the bearer, or (2) simply to the bearer, at such time as shall be stated therein;))~~ not ~~((more than))~~ have a maximum term in excess of twenty years ~~((after the date of issue;))~~ and shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority, payable semiannually. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or may be registered as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. They may be made payable in any city of the United States containing a national bank. The county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority must ascertain and levy annually a tax sufficient to pay the interest on all such bonds whenever it becomes due and to meet the annual maturities of principal as required by Title 39 RCW. All taxes levied either for interest or principal shall be a lien upon all property within the county and must be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected. The county treasurer must pay out of any money accumulated from the taxes levied to pay the interest as aforesaid, the interest upon all such bonds when it becomes due as provided on the bond or, if coupons are attached to a bond, upon presentation at the place of payment of the proper coupon. ~~((All))~~ Any interest payments or coupons so paid must be reported to the county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority at ~~((their))~~ its first meeting thereafter. Whenever ~~((the))~~ any coupons are payable at any place other than the city in which the county treasurer keeps his office, the county treasurer shall seasonably remit to the state fiscal agent the amount of money required for the payment of any coupons which are about to fall due. they be issued prior to twenty days after the thirty days allowed for the payment of assessments without penalty or interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds and warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 94. Section 36.88.200, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 5, chapter 100, Laws of 1980 and RCW 36.88.200 are each amended to read as follows:

In lieu of any signatures required in this section, the bonds and any coupons may bear the printed or engraved facsimile signatures of said officials.

No bonds shall be sold except at public sale upon competitive bids and a notice calling for bids shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the county. Whenever there shall be paid out of a guaranty fund any sum on account of principal or interest of a road improvement district bond or warrant, the county, as trustee for the fund, shall be subrogated to all the rights of the ~~(holder)~~ owner of the bond or any interest coupon or warrant so paid, and the proceeds thereof, or of the assessment underlying the same, shall become part of the guaranty fund. There shall also be paid into each guaranty fund the interest received from bank deposits or government securities of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in any local improvement fund guaranteed hereunder after the payment of all outstanding bonds or warrants payable primarily out of such road improvement fund. Warrants drawing interest at a rate or rates not to exceed the rate determined by the county legislative authority shall be issued, as other warrants are issued by the county, against a guaranty fund to meet any liability accruing against it, and at the time of making its annual budget and tax levy the county shall provide from funds available for road purposes for the deposit in the guaranty fund of a sum sufficient with other resources of such fund to pay warrants so issued during the preceding fiscal year. Every county establishing a guaranty fund for road improvement district bonds or warrants shall prescribe by resolution appropriate rules and regulations for the maintenance and operation of the guaranty fund not inconsistent herewith. So much of the money of a guaranty fund as is necessary may be used to purchase underlying bonds or warrants guaranteed by the fund, or to purchase certificates of delinquency for general taxes on property subject to local improvement assessments, or to purchase such property at tax foreclosures, for the purpose of protecting the guaranty fund. Said fund shall be subrogated to the rights of the county, and the county, acting on behalf of said fund, may foreclose the lien of general tax certificates of delinquency and purchase the property at the foreclosure sale for the account of said fund. Whenever the ~~((governing))~~ legislative authority of any county shall so cause a lien of general tax certificates of delinquency to be foreclosed and the property to be so purchased at a foreclosure sale, the court costs and costs of publication and expenses for clerical work and/or other expense incidental thereto, shall be chargeable to and payable from the guaranty fund. After so acquiring title to real property, a county may lease or sell and convey the same at public or private sale for such price and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the ~~((board of commissioners or other))~~ county legislative body, and all proceeds resulting from such sales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

The remedy of the ~~((holder or))~~ owner of a bond, or warrant in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of any assessments made in such road improvement district and to the guaranty fund. In case the bonds are guaranteed in accordance herewith a copy of the foregoing part of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond issued and guaranteed hereunder.

Sec. 98. Section 7, chapter 194, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 13, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.88.470 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall also be paid into each guaranty fund the interest received from investments of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in any county road improvement fund guaranteed hereunder after the payment of all outstanding bonds or warrants payable primarily out of such utility conversion county road improvement district fund. Warrants drawing interest at a rate or rates not to exceed the rate determined by the county legislative authority shall be issued, as other warrants are issued by the county, against the guaranty fund to meet any liability accruing against it, and at the time of making its annual budget and tax levy the county shall provide from funds available for the deposit in the guaranty fund of a sum sufficient with other resources of such fund to pay warrants so issued during the preceding fiscal year. As among the several issues of bonds or warrants guaranteed by the fund no preference shall exist, but defaulted ~~((interest coupons))~~ bonds, interest payments, and warrants shall be purchased out of the fund in the order of their presentation.

Every county establishing a guaranty fund for utility conversion road improvement district bonds or warrants shall prescribe by resolution appropriate rules and regulations for the maintenance and operation of such guaranty fund not inconsistent herewith. The fund shall be subrogated to the rights of the county and the county, acting on behalf of the fund, may foreclose the lien of general tax certificates of delinquency and purchase the property at the foreclosure sale for the account of said fund. Whenever the ~~((governing))~~ legislative authority of any county shall so cause a lien of general tax certificates of delinquency to be foreclosed and the property to be so purchased at a foreclosure sale, the court costs and costs of publication and expenses for clerical work and/or other expense incidental thereto, shall be chargeable to and payable from the guaranty fund. After so acquiring title to real property, a county may lease or sell and convey the same at public or private sale for such price and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners or other))~~ legislative ~~((body))~~ authority, and all proceeds resulting from such sales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

(4) A public corporation may issue interim notes in the manner provided for the issuance of revenue bonds to fund industrial development facilities prior to issuing other revenue bonds to fund such facilities. A public corporation may issue revenue bonds to fund industrial development facilities that are exchangeable for other revenue bonds when these other revenue bonds are executed and available for delivery.

(5) The principal of and interest on any revenue bonds issued by a public corporation shall be secured by a pledge of unexpended bond proceeds and the revenues and receipts received by the public corporation from the industrial development facilities funded by the revenue bonds pursuant to financing documents. The resolution under which the revenue bonds are authorized to be issued and any financing document may contain agreements and provisions respecting the maintenance or use of the industrial development facility covered thereby, the fixing and collection of rents, purchase price payments or loan payments, the creation and maintenance of special funds from such revenues or from revenue bond proceeds, the rights and remedies available in the event of default, and other provisions relating to the security for the bonds, all as the board of directors consider advisable which are not in conflict with this chapter.

The commission may determine to finance the project by bonds or warrants secured by assessments against the property within the local utility district: Or it may finance the project by revenue bonds, in which case no bonds or warrants shall be issued by the local utility district, but assessments shall be levied upon the taxable property therein on the basis of special benefits up to, but not exceeding the total cost of the improvement and in such cases the entire principal and interest of such assessments shall be paid into a revenue bond fund of the district, to be used for the sole purpose of the payment of revenue bonds.

(1) Whenever the commission shall deem it advisable that the public utility district purchase, purchase and condemn, acquire, or construct any such public utility, or make any additions or betterments thereto, or extensions thereof, the commission shall provide therefor by resolution, which shall specify and adopt the system or plan proposed, and declare the estimated cost thereof, as near as may be, and specify whether general or utility indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of such indebtedness, the amount of interest and the time in which all general bonds (if any) shall be paid, not to exceed thirty years. In the event the proposed general indebtedness to be incurred will bring the indebtedness of the public utility district to an amount exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property of the public utility district, as the term 'value of the taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015, the proposition of incurring such indebtedness and the proposed plan or system shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said public utility district for their assent at the next general election held in such public utility district.

Whenever the commission (or a majority of the qualified voters of such public utility district, voting at said election, when it is necessary to submit the same to said voters) shall have adopted a system or plan for any such public utility, as aforesaid, and shall have authorized indebtedness therefor by a three-fifths vote of the qualified voters of such district, voting at said election, general or public utility bonds may be used as hereinafter provided. Said general bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one upwards consecutively. The various annual maturities shall commence not later than the tenth year after the date of issue of such bonds. The general bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds shall fix the rate or rates of interest the bonds shall bear and the place and date of the payment of both principal and interest. The bonds shall be signed by the president of the commission, attested by the secretary of the commission, and the seal of the public utility district shall be affixed to each bond but not to ~~((the))~~ any coupons: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That ~~((said))~~ any coupons, in lieu of being so signed, may have printed thereon ~~((a))~~ facsimiles of the signature of such officers. The principal and interest of such general bonds shall be paid from the revenue of such public utility district after deducting costs of maintenance, operation, and expenses of the public utility district, and any deficit in the payment of principal and interest of said general bonds shall be paid by levying each year a tax upon the taxable property within said district sufficient to pay said interest and principal of said bonds, which tax shall be due and collectible as any other tax. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commission shall deem for the best interest of the district.

(2) All bonds and warrants issued under the authority of this ~~((act))~~ chapter shall be legal securities, which may be used by any bank or trust company for deposit with the state treasurer, or any county or city treasurer, as security for deposits, in lieu of a surety bond, under any law relating to deposits of public moneys.

(3) When the commission shall not desire to incur a general indebtedness in the purchase, condemnation and purchase, acquisition, or construction of any such public utility, or addition or betterment thereto, or extension thereof, it shall have the power to create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of defraying the cost of such public utility, or addition or betterment thereto, or extension thereof, into which special fund or funds it may obligate and bind the district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of such public utility, or any fixed amount out of, and not exceeding a fixed proportion of, such revenues, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, and to issue and sell revenue bonds or warrants bearing interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually, executed in such manner, and payable at such times and places as the commission shall determine, but such bonds or warrants and the interest thereon, shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds. In creating any such special fund or funds, the commission shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to, and to any proportion or part of the revenues previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds or warrants, and shall not set aside into such special fund or funds a greater amount or proportion of the revenues and proceeds than, in its judgment, will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenues so previously pledged. Any such bonds or warrants, and interest thereon, issued against any such fund, as herein provided, shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holder))~~ owner thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming such fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds and warrants shall be sold in such manner as the commission shall deem for the best interests of the district ~~(-and)~~. The commission may provide in any contract for the construction and acquisition of a proposed improvement or utility that payment therefor shall be made only in such bonds or warrants at the par value thereof. In all other respects, the issuance of such utility bonds or warrants and payment therefor shall be governed by the public utility laws for cities and towns. The revenue or utility bonds or warrants may be in any form, including bearer bonds or bearer warrants, or registered bonds or registered warrants as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) through (3) of this section, any of such bonds and warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 147. Section 2, chapter 182, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 4, chapter 218, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the commission shall deem it advisable to issue revenue obligations for the purpose of defraying the cost or part of the cost of such public utility or any additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, it shall have power as a part of such plan and system to create a special fund or funds for the purpose of defraying the cost of such public utility, or additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, into which special fund or funds it may obligate and bind the district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of such public utility, and all additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, or any fixed amount out of, and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, or an amount of such revenues equal to a fixed percentage of the aggregate principal amount of revenue obligations at any time issued against the special fund or funds, and to issue and sell revenue obligations payable as to both principal and interest only out of such fund or funds.

Such revenue obligations shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, or both, carry such registration privileges, be made transferable, exchangeable, and interchangeable, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as the commission shall by resolution determine.

Any resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of any revenue obligations maturing in not exceeding six years from the date thereof (hereinafter in this section referred to as 'short term obligations') may contain, in addition to all other provisions authorized by this title, and as an alternate method for the payment thereof, provisions which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the short term obligations thereby authorized as to:

((1)) (a) Refunding the short term obligations at or prior to maturity and, if so provided, outstanding bonds by the issuance of revenue bonds of the district either by the sale of bonds and application of the proceeds to the payment of the short term obligations and outstanding bonds or by the exchange of bonds for the short term obligations;

((2)) (b) Satisfying, paying, or discharging the short term obligations at the election of the district by the tender or delivery of revenue bonds of the district in exchange therefor: PROVIDED, That the aggregate principal amount of bonds shall not exceed by more than five percent the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations, to satisfy, pay, or discharge said short term obligations for which the bonds are tendered or delivered;

((3)) (c) Exchanging or converting the short term obligations at the election of the ~~(holder)~~ owner thereof for or into the bonds of the district: PROVIDED, That the aggregate principal amount of the bonds shall not exceed by more than five percent the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to be exchanged for or converted into bonds;

((4)) (d) Pledging bonds of the district as collateral to secure payment of the short term obligations and providing for the terms and conditions of the pledge and the manner of enforcing the pledge, which terms and conditions may provide for the delivery of the bonds in satisfaction of the short term obligations: PROVIDED, That the aggregate principal amount of the bonds pledged shall not exceed by more than five percent the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to secure said short term obligations for which they are pledged;

((5)) (e) Depositing bonds in escrow or in trust with a trustee or fiscal agent or otherwise providing for the issuance and disposition of the bonds as security for carrying out any of the provisions in any resolution adopted pursuant to this section and providing for the powers and duties of the trustee, fiscal agent, or other depository and the terms and conditions upon which the bonds are to be issued, held and disposed of;

((6)) (f) Any other matters of like or different character which relate to any provision or provisions of any resolution adopted pursuant to this section.

A district shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of revenue obligations by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase such revenue obligations from time to time on the terms and conditions stated in such contract; and a district shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such revenue obligations may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 148. Section 5, chapter 182, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In creating any special fund for the payment of revenue obligations, the commission shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system constructed or added to, and to any proportion or amount of the revenues previously pledged as a fund for the payment of revenue obligations, and shall not set aside into such special fund or funds a greater amount or proportion of the revenues and proceeds than in its judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenues so previously pledged. Any such revenue obligations and interest thereon issued against any such fund as herein provided shall be a valid claim of the ((holder)) owner thereof only as against such special fund and the proportion or amount of the revenues pledged to such fund, but shall constitute a prior charge over all other charges or claims whatsoever, including the charge or lien of any general obligation bonds against such fund and the proportion or amount of the revenues pledged thereto. Such revenue obligations shall not constitute an indebtedness of such district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each revenue obligation shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming such fund and the resolution creating it, or shall describe such alternate method for the payment thereof as shall be provided by the resolution authorizing same.

It is the intention hereof that any pledge of the revenues or other moneys or obligations made by a district shall be valid and binding from the time that the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys or obligations so pledged and thereafter received by a district shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against any parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against a district irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution or other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

Sec. 149. Section 3, chapter 182, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 6, chapter 218, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Any resolution creating any such special fund or authorizing the issue of revenue obligations payable therefrom, or by such alternate method of payment as may be provided therein, shall specify the title of such revenue obligations as determined by the commission and may contain covenants by the district to protect and safeguard the security and the rights of the ((holders)) owners thereof, including covenants as to, among other things:

(1) The purpose or purposes to which the proceeds of sale of such obligations may be applied and the use and disposition thereof;

(2) The use and disposition of the gross revenues of the public utility, and any additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, the cost of which is to be defrayed with such proceeds, including the creation and maintenance of funds for working capital to be used in the operation of the public utility and for renewals and replacements to the public utility;

(3) The amount, if any, of additional revenue obligations payable from such fund which may be issued and the terms and conditions on which such additional revenue obligations may be issued;

(4) The establishment and maintenance of adequate rates and charges for electric energy, water, and other services, facilities, and commodities sold, furnished, or supplied by the public utility;

(5) The operation, maintenance, management, accounting, and auditing of the public utility;

(6) The terms and prices upon which such revenue obligations or any of them may be redeemed at the election of the district;

(7) Limitations upon the right to dispose of such public utility or any part thereof without providing for the payment of the outstanding revenue obligations; and

(8) The appointment of trustees, depositaries, and paying agents to receive, hold, disburse, invest, and reinvest all or any part of the income, revenues, receipts, and profits derived by the district from the operation, ownership, and management of its public utility.

Sec. 150. Section 4, chapter 182, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 78, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 54.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Such utility revenue obligations shall be sold and delivered in such manner, at such rate or rates of interest and for such price or prices and at such time or times as the commission shall deem for the best interests of the district. The commission may, if it deem it to be the best interest of the district, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of the public utility, or the additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue obligations at the par value thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such obligations may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 151. Section 9, chapter 182, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 37, Laws of 1981 and RCW 54.24.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All revenue obligations, including funding and refunding revenue obligations, shall be executed in such manner as the commission may determine: PROVIDED, That warrants may be signed as provided in RCW 54.24.010. ~~((The))~~ Any interest coupons attached to any revenue obligations may be executed with facsimile or lithographed signatures, or otherwise, as the commission may determine.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such obligations may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 152. Section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1957 and RCW 54.24.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Every public utility district in the state is hereby authorized, by resolution, to create a fund for the purpose of guaranteeing, to the extent of such fund, and in the manner hereinafter provided, the payment of such of its local improvement bonds and/or warrants as the commission may determine issued to pay for any local improvement within any local utility district established within the boundaries of the public utility district. Such fund shall be designated "local improvement guaranty fund, public utility district No.". For the purpose of maintaining such fund the public utility district shall set aside and pay into it such proportion as the commissioners may direct by resolution of the monthly gross revenues of its public utilities for which local improvement bonds and/or warrants have been issued and guaranteed by said fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any obligation to make payments into said fund as herein provided shall be junior to any pledge of said gross revenues for the payment of any outstanding or future general obligation bonds or revenue bonds of the district. The proportion may be varied from time to time as the commissioners deem expedient: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That under the existence of the conditions set forth in subdivisions (1) and (2), hereunder, and when consistent with the covenants of a public utility district securing its bonds, the proportion shall be as therein specified, to wit:

(1) When bonds and/or warrants of a local utility district have been guaranteed and are outstanding and the guaranty fund does not have a cash balance equal to twenty percent of all bonds and/or warrants originally guaranteed hereunder, excluding bonds and/or warrants which have been retired in full, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues from each public utility for which such bonds and/or warrants have been issued and are outstanding but not necessarily from users in other parts of the public utility district as a whole, shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That when, under the requirements of this subdivision, the cash balance accumulates so that it is equal to twenty percent of the total original guaranteed bonds and/or warrants, exclusive of any issue of bonds and/or warrants of a local utility district which issue has been paid and/or redeemed in full, or equal to the full amount of all bonds and/or warrants guaranteed, outstanding and unpaid, which amount might be less than twenty percent of the original total guaranteed, then no further revenue need be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund so long as such condition continues:

(2) When warrants issued against the guaranty fund remain outstanding and uncalled, for lack of funds, for six months from date of issuance, or when ~~((coupons:))~~ bonds ~~((and/or))~~, warrants, or any coupons or interest payments guaranteed hereunder have been matured for six months and have not been redeemed, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenue, or such portion thereof as the commissioners determine will be sufficient to retire the warrants or redeem the coupons, interest payments, bonds and/or warrants in the ensuing six months, derived from all the users of the public utilities for which such bonds and/or warrants have been issued and are outstanding in whole or in part, shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That when under the requirements of this subdivision all warrants, coupons, bonds and/or warrants specified in this subdivision have been redeemed and interest payments made, no further income need be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund under the requirements of this subdivision unless other warrants remain outstanding and unpaid for six months or other coupons, bonds and/or warrants default or interest payments are not made: PROVIDED, FURTHER, HOWEVER, That no more than a total of twenty percent of the gross monthly revenue shall be required to be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund by these subdivisions (1) and (2).

Sec. 153. Section 3, chapter 150, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 19, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 54.24.220 are each amended to read as follows:

When a ~~((coupon:))~~ bond ~~((and/or))~~, warrant, or any coupon or interest payment guaranteed ~~((hereby))~~ by the guaranty fund matures and there are not sufficient funds in the local utility district bond redemption fund to pay it, the county treasurer shall pay it from the local improvement guaranty fund of the public utility district; if there are not sufficient funds in the guaranty fund to pay it, it may be paid by issuance and delivery of a warrant upon the local improvement guaranty fund.

When the cash balance in the local improvement guaranty fund is insufficient for the required purposes, warrants drawing interest at a rate determined by the commission may be issued by the district auditor, against the fund to meet any liability accrued against it and shall issue them upon demand of the ~~((holders))~~ owners of any matured coupons, bonds, interest payments, and/or warrants guaranteed hereby, or to pay for any certificate of delinquency for delinquent installments of assessments as provided hereinafter. Guaranty fund warrants shall be a first lien in their order of issuance upon the guaranty fund.

Sec. 154. Section 6, chapter 150, Laws of 1957 and RCW 54.24.250 are each amended to read as follows:

When there is paid out of a guaranty fund any sum on the principal or interest upon local improvement bonds, and/or warrants, or on the purchase of certificates of delinquency, the public utility district, as trustee, for the fund, shall be subrogated to all rights of the ~~((holder))~~ owner of the bonds, and/or warrants, any interest coupons, or delinquent assessment installments so paid; and the proceeds thereof, or of the assessment underlying them, shall become a part of the guaranty fund. There shall also be paid into the guaranty fund the interest received from the bank deposits of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in the local utility district funds guaranteed hereunder, after the payment of all outstanding bonds and/or warrants payable primarily out of such local utility district funds. As among the several issues of bonds and/or warrants guaranteed by the fund, no preference shall exist, but defaulted interest coupons and bonds and/or warrants shall be purchased out of the fund in the order of their presentation.

The commissioners shall prescribe, by resolution, appropriate rules for the guaranty fund consistent herewith. So much of the money of a guaranty fund as is necessary and not required for other purposes hereunder may be used to purchase property at county tax foreclosure sales or from the county after foreclosure in cases where the property is subject to unpaid local improvement assessments securing bonds and/or warrants guaranteed hereunder and such purchase is deemed necessary for the purpose of protecting the guaranty fund. In such cases the funds shall be subrogated to all rights of the district. After so acquiring title to real property, the district may lease or resell and convey it in the same manner that county property may be leased or resold and for such prices and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the commissioners. All proceeds resulting from such resales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

Sec. 155. Section 18, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 65, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any such sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for a sewer system as herein provided, or any additions and betterments thereto, or whenever any reorganized sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for any additions or betterments thereto, and the qualified voters of any such sewer district or reorganized sewer district shall hereafter authorize a general indebtedness for all the said plan, or any part thereof, or any additions and betterments thereto or for refunding in whole or in part bonds theretofore issued, general obligation bonds for the payment thereof may be issued as hereinafter provided.

The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of sewer commissioners, payable semiannually from date of said bonds until principal thereof is paid ~~((with interest coupons evidencing such interest to maturity attached))~~. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of issue of the bonds, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of said bonds and interest: PROVIDED, That only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

((Such)) The general obligation bonds shall never be issued to run for a longer period than thirty years from the date of the issue and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will be equivalent to the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issue of the bonds.

The bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the secretary of such board under the seal of the sewer district, and ~~((the))~~ any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of such board.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes in the manner provided by law an annual levy in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the said bonds maturing as herein provided upon all taxable property within such sewer district.

Said bonds shall be sold in such manner as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interest of the sewer district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 156. Section 19, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When sewer revenue bonds are issued for authorized purposes, said bonds shall be in bearer form or registered as to principal or interest or both, as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, and may provide for conversion between registered and coupon bonds; shall be in such denominations, shall be numbered, shall bear such date, shall be payable at such time or times up to a maximum period of not to exceed thirty years and at such place or places one of which must be the office of the treasurer of the county in which the district is located, or of the county in which fifty-one percent or more of the area of the district is located such place or places to be determined by the board of commissioners of the district; shall bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such time or times as authorized by the board of sewer commissioners; shall be executed by the president of the board of commissioners and attested by the secretary thereof, one of which signatures may, with the written permission of the signator whose facsimile signature is being used, be a facsimile and have the seal of the district impressed thereon; and may have facsimile signatures of the president and secretary imprinted on ~~(the)~~ any interest coupons in lieu of original signatures.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 157. Section 21, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In creating any special fund or funds the sewer commissioners of such sewer district shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to, and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds, and the interest thereon, issued against any such fund as herein provided, shall be a valid claim of the ~~(holder)~~ owner thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such sewer district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such prices and at such rate or rates of interest as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interests of the sewer district, either at public or private sale, and the said commissioners may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement that payment therefor shall be made in such bonds at par value thereof.

When any such special fund shall have been heretofore or shall be created and any such bonds shall have been heretofore or shall hereafter be issued against the same, a fixed proportion or a fixed amount out of and not to exceed such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into said special fund as provided in the resolution creating such fund or authorizing such bonds. In case any sewer district shall fail thus to set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the ~~(holder)~~ owner of any bond payable from such special fund may bring suit or action against the sewer district and compel such setting aside and payment.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 158. Section 45, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 and RCW 56.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(The)~~ Any coupons ~~(hereinbefore mentioned)~~ for the payment of interest on bonds of any sewer district shall be considered for all purposes as warrants drawn upon the general fund of the said sewer district issuing such bonds, and when presented to the treasurer of the county having custody of the funds of such sewer district at maturity, or thereafter, and when so presented, if there are not funds in the treasury to pay the said coupons, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to endorse said coupons as presented for payment, in the same manner as county warrants are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as the bonds to which they were attached. When there are no funds in the treasury to make interest payments on bonds not having coupons, the overdue interest payment shall continue bearing interest at the bond rate until it is paid, unless otherwise provided in the proceedings authorizing the sale of the bonds.

Sec. 159. Section 4, chapter 58, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 45, Laws of 1981 and RCW 56.20.015 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all of the powers and authorities set forth in Title 56 RCW, any sewer district shall have all of the powers of cities as set forth in chapter 35.44 RCW. Sewer districts may also exercise all of the powers permitted to a water district under Title 57 RCW, except that a sewer district may not exercise water district powers in any area within its boundaries which is part of an existing district which previously shall have been duly authorized to exercise water district powers in such area without the consent by resolution of the board of commissioners of such district.

A sewer district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds for water system purposes: PROVIDED, That a proposition to authorize general obligation bonds payable from excess tax levies for water system purposes pursuant to chapters 57.16 and 57.20 RCW shall be submitted to all of the qualified voters within that part of the sewer district which is not contained within another existing district duly authorized to exercise water district powers, and the taxes to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds approved by such voters shall be levied only upon all of the taxable property within such part of the sewer district. Such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 160. Section 8, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 4, chapter 299, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioners may, without submitting a proposition to the voters, authorize by resolution the district to issue revenue bonds for the construction costs, interest during the period of construction and six months thereafter, working capital or other costs of any part or all of the general comprehensive plan. The amount of the bonds to be issued shall be included in the resolution submitted.

Any resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds may include provision for refunding any local improvement district bonds of a district, out of the proceeds of sale of revenue bonds, and a district may pay off any outstanding local improvement bonds with such funds either by purchase in the open market below their par value and accrued interest or by call at par value and accrued interest at the next succeeding ~~((coupon maturity))~~ interest payment date. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided by section 3 of this 1983 act.

When a resolution authorizing revenue bonds has been adopted the commissioners may forthwith carry out the general comprehensive plan to the extent specified.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 161. Section 9, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 15, chapter 17, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A district may establish local improvement districts within its territory; levy special assessments under the mode of annual installments extending over a period not exceeding twenty years, on all property specially benefited by a local improvement, on the basis of special benefits to pay in whole or in part the damage or costs of any improvements ordered in the district; and issue local improvement bonds in the improvement district to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. The levying, collection and enforcement of such assessments and issuance of bonds shall be as provided for the levying, collection, and enforcement of local improvement assessments and the issuance of local improvement bonds by cities ~~((of the first class))~~ and towns insofar as consistent herewith. The duties devolving upon the city or town treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located for the purposes hereof. The mode of assessment shall be determined by the water commissioners by resolution. When in the petition or resolution for the establishment of a local improvement district, and in the comprehensive plan or amendment thereto or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original plan, previously adopted, it is provided that the assessments shall be for the sole purpose of payment into the revenue bond fund for the payment of revenue bonds, then the local improvement district shall be designated as a 'utility local improvement district.' No warrants or bonds shall be issued in a utility local improvement district, but the collection of interest and principal on all assessments in the utility local improvement district shall be paid into the revenue bond fund.

(2) Such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 162. Section 11, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 71, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When general district indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations has been authorized, the district may issue its general obligation bonds in payment thereof. The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively and shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of water commissioners payable semiannually ~~((with interest coupons attached))~~. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of the issue, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of the bonds and interest. Only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. The bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds and registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

The bonds shall not ((be issued to run for a longer period than)) have terms in excess of twenty years ((from the date of issue)) and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will be equivalent to the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issuance of the bonds. The bonds shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the secretary, under the seal of the district. ((The)) Any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the president and attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body charged with the duty of levying taxes, an annual levy in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the bonds upon all taxable property within the district.

The bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commissioners deem for the best interest of the district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 163. Section 16, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 as amended by section 72, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of water commissioners of any water district may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, provide for the issuance of refunding general obligation bonds to refund any outstanding general obligation bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof if they are subject to call for prior redemption or all of the ((holders)) owners thereof consent thereto.

(2) The total cost to the district over the life of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total cost to the district which the district would have incurred but for such refunding over the remainder of the life of the bonds to be refunded thereby.

(3) The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded thereby, or may be sold in such manner as the board of water commissioners deems to be for the best interest of the district, and the proceeds of such sale used exclusively for the purpose of paying, retiring, and canceling the bonds to be refunded and interest thereon. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(4) The provisions of RCW 57.20.010, ((specifying)) concerning the form and maturities of general obligation bonds and providing for annual tax levies in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations shall apply to the refunding general obligation bonds issued under this section.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (4) of this section, such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 164. Section 3, chapter 128, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 3, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any issue or issues of water revenue bonds have been authorized in compliance with the provisions of RCW 57.16.010 through 57.16.040, said bonds shall be in bearer form or registered as to principal or interest or both, as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, and may provide for conversion between registered and coupon bonds; shall be in such denominations, shall be numbered, shall bear such date, and shall be payable at such time or times up to a maximum period of not to exceed thirty years as shall be determined by the board of water commissioners of the district; shall bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such time or times as authorized by the board; shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the water district is located and may also be payable at such other place or places as the board of water commissioners may determine; shall be executed by the president of the board of water commissioners and attested and sealed by the secretary thereof, one of which signatures may, with the written permission of the signator whose facsimile signature is being used, be a facsimile; and may have facsimile signatures of said president or secretary imprinted on ((the)) any interest coupons in lieu of original signatures.

The water district commissioners shall have power and are required to create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the interest and principal of such bonds into which special fund or funds the said water district commissioners shall obligate and bind the water district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of the water supply system or any fixed amount out of and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount or amounts without regard to any fixed proportion and such bonds and the interest thereof shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, but shall be a lien and charge against all revenues and payments received from any utility local improvement district or districts pledged to secure such bonds, subject only to operating and maintenance expenses.

In creating any such special fund or funds the water district commissioners of such water district shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds and interest thereon issued against any such fund as herein provided shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holder))~~ owner thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such water district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond ~~((or warrant))~~ shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such price and at such rate or rates of interest as the water district commissioners shall deem for the best interests of the water district, either at public or private sale, and the said commissioners may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement (and for the refunding of outstanding local improvement district obligations, if any) that payment therefor shall be made in such bonds at par value thereof.

When any such special fund shall have been heretofore or shall be hereafter created and any such bonds shall have been heretofore or shall hereafter be issued against the same a fixed proportion or a fixed amount out of and not to exceed such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount or amounts without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into said special fund as provided in the resolution creating such fund or authorizing such bonds, and in case any water district shall fail thus to set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the ~~((holder))~~ owner of any bond payable from such special fund may bring suit or action against the water district and compel such setting aside and payment.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

(3) The water district commissioners of any water district, in the event that such water revenue bonds are issued, shall provide for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of water supply to those receiving such service, such rates and charges to be fixed as deemed necessary by such water district commissioners, so that uniform charges will be made for the same class of customer or service.

In classifying customers served or service furnished by such water supply system, the board of water commissioners may in its discretion consider any or all of the following factors: The difference in cost of service to the various customers; the location of the various customers within and without the district; the difference in cost of maintenance, operation, repair and replacement of the various parts of the system; the different character of the service furnished various customers; the quantity and quality of the water furnished; the time of its use; capital contributions made to the system including but not limited to assessments; and any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. Such rates shall be made on a monthly basis as may be deemed proper by such commissioners and as fixed by resolution and shall produce revenues sufficient to take care of the costs of maintenance and operation, revenue bond and warrant interest and principal amortization requirements and all other charges necessary for efficient and proper operation of the system.

Sec. 165. Section 2, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 2, chapter 102, Laws of 1937 and RCW 57.20.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall be paid out of a guaranty fund any sum on account of principal or interest upon a local improvement bond, or on account of purchase of certificates of delinquency, the water district, as trustee for the fund, shall be subrogated to all rights of the ~~((holder))~~ owner of the bonds, or any interest ((coupons)), or delinquent assessment installments, so paid; and the proceeds thereof, or of the assessment or assessments underlying the same, shall become a part of the guaranty fund. There shall also be paid into each guaranty fund the interest received from the bank deposits of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in the local improvement funds guaranteed ~~((under this act))~~ by the guaranty fund, after the payment of all outstanding bonds payable primarily out of such local improvement funds. As among the several issues of bonds guaranteed by the fund, no preference shall exist, but defaulted ~~((interest coupons))~~ bonds and any defaulted interest payments shall be purchased out of the fund in the order of their presentation.

The commissioners of every water district operating under ~~((the provisions of this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090 shall prescribe, by resolution, appropriate rules and regulations for the guaranty fund, not inconsistent herewith. So much of the money of a guaranty fund as is necessary and is not required for other purposes under ~~((the terms of this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090 may, at the discretion of the commissioners of the water district, be used to purchase property at county tax foreclosure sales or from the county after foreclosure in cases where such property is subject to unpaid local improvement assessments securing bonds guaranteed ~~((under this act))~~ by the guaranty fund and such purchase is deemed necessary for the purpose of protecting the guaranty fund. In such cases the said fund shall be subrogated to all rights of the water district. After so acquiring title to real property, the water district may lease or resell and convey the same in the same manner that county property is authorized to be leased or resold and for such prices and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the board of water commissioners. Any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, all proceeds resulting from such resales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

Sec. 166. Section 3, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 3, chapter 102, Laws of 1937 and RCW 57.20.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Neither the holder nor))~~ The owner of any local improvement bonds guaranteed under the provisions of ~~((this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090 shall not have any claim therefor against the water district by which the same is issued, except for payment from the special assessments made for the improvement for which said local improvement bonds were issued, and except as against the local improvement guaranty fund of said water district; and the water district shall not be liable to any ~~((holder or))~~ owner of such local improvement bond for any loss to the guaranty fund occurring in the lawful operation thereof by the water district. The remedy of the ~~((holder or))~~ owner of a local improvement bond, in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of the assessment and to the guaranty fund. A copy of the foregoing part of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each local improvement bond guaranteed by ~~((this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090. The establishment of a local improvement guaranty fund by any water district shall not be deemed at variance from any comprehensive plan heretofore adopted by such water district.

In the event any local improvement guaranty fund hereunder authorized at any time has a balance therein in cash, and the obligations guaranteed thereby have all been paid off, then such balance shall be transferred to the maintenance fund of the water district.

Sec. 167, Section 22, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 and RCW 57.20.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The))~~ Any coupons ~~((hereinbefore mentioned))~~ for the payment of interest on said bonds shall be considered for all purposes as warrants drawn upon the general fund of the said water district issuing such bonds, and when presented to the treasurer of the county having custody of the funds of such water district at maturity, or thereafter, and when so presented, if there are not funds in the treasury to pay the said coupons, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to endorse said coupons as presented for payment, in the same manner as county warrants are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as the bond to which it was attached. When there are no funds in the treasury to make interest payments on bonds not having coupons, the overdue interest payment shall continue bearing interest at the bond rate until it is paid, unless otherwise provided in the proceedings authorizing the sale of the bonds.

Sec. 168, Section 9, chapter 236, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 3, chapter 222, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 67.28.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To carry out the purposes of this chapter the legislative body of any municipality shall have the power to issue revenue bonds without submitting the matter to the voters of the municipality: PROVIDED, That the legislative body shall create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the legislative body may obligate the municipality to pay all or part of amounts collected from the special taxes provided for in RCW 67.28.180, and/or to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of all or any part of the facilities constructed, acquired, improved, added to, repaired or replaced pursuant to this chapter, as the legislative body shall determine: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the principal of and interest on such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners ~~((and holders))~~ of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue pledged to such fund.

Such revenue bonds and the interest thereon issued against such fund or funds shall constitute a claim of the ~~((holders))~~ owners thereof only as against such fund or funds and the revenue pledged therefor, and shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the municipality.

Each such revenue bond shall state upon its face that it is payable from such special fund or funds, and all revenue bonds issued under this chapter shall be negotiable securities within the provisions of the law of this state. Such revenue bonds may be registered either as to principal only or as to principal and interest as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, or may be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations as the legislative body shall deem proper; shall be payable at such time or times and at such places as shall be determined by the legislative body; shall be executed in such manner and bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the legislative body.

Such revenue bonds shall be sold in such manner as the legislative body shall deem to be for the best interests of the municipality, either at public or private sale.

The legislative body may at the time of the issuance of such revenue bonds make such covenants with the ~~((purchasers and holders))~~ owners of said bonds as it may deem necessary to secure and guaranty the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, including but not being limited to covenants to set aside adequate reserves to secure or guaranty the payment of such principal and interest, to pledge and apply thereto part or all of any lawfully authorized special taxes provided for in RCW 67.28.180, to maintain rates, charges or rentals sufficient with other available moneys to pay such principal and interest and to maintain adequate coverage over debt service, to appoint a trustee or trustees for the ~~((bondholders))~~ bond owners, to safeguard the expenditure of the proceeds of sale of such bonds and to fix the powers and duties of such trustee or trustees and to make such other covenants as the legislative body may deem necessary to accomplish the most advantageous sale of such bonds. The legislative body may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source may later be issued on a parity with revenue bonds being issued and sold.

The legislative body may include in the principal amount of any such revenue bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, and other services and charges incident to the acquisition or construction of public stadium facilities, convention center facilities, performing arts center facilities, and/or visual arts center facilities, an amount to establish necessary reserves, an amount for working capital and an amount necessary for interest during the period of construction of any facilities to be financed from the proceeds of such issue plus six months. The legislative body may, if it deems it in the best interest of the municipality, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of any facilities or additions or improvements thereto or replacements or extensions thereof that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue bonds.

If the municipality shall fail to carry out or perform any of its obligations or covenants made in the authorization, issuance and sale of such bonds, the ((holder)) owner of any such bond may bring action against the municipality and compel the performance of any or all of such covenants.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Such limitation shall be plainly stated upon the face of each of such bonds. The use of the municipality's name on revenue bonds authorized hereunder shall not be construed to be the giving or lending of the municipality's financial guarantee or pledge, i.e. credit to any private person, firm, or corporation as the term credit is used in Article 8, section 7 of the Washington state Constitution.

The municipality may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which the governing body may deem necessary or advantageous in connection with the authorization, sale and issuance thereof from the proceeds of the sale of said bonds or from the revenues of the facilities.

(4) All bonds issued under the authority of this chapter, and (~~and~~) any interest coupons applicable thereto shall be investment securities within the meaning of the uniform commercial code and shall be deemed to be issued by a political subdivision of the state.

(3) The proceedings authorizing any bonds under the provisions of this chapter and any mortgage securing such bonds may provide that, in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds or in the performance of any agreement contained in such proceedings or mortgage, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rents and to apply the revenues from the facilities in accordance with such proceedings or the provisions of such mortgage.

(4) Any mortgage made under the provisions of this chapter, to secure bonds issued thereunder, may also provide that, in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the mortgage may be foreclosed and the mortgaged property sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage or the ~~(holder)~~ owner of any of the bonds secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor. Any such trustee may be a bank with trust powers or a trust company and shall be located in the United States, within or without the state of Washington, shall have the immunities, powers and duties provided in said proceedings, and may, to the extent permitted by such proceedings, hold and invest funds deposited with it in direct obligations of the United States, obligations guaranteed by the United States or certificates of deposit of a bank (including the trustee) which are continuously secured by such obligations of or guaranteed by the United States. Any bank acting as such trustee may, to the extent permitted by such proceedings, buy bonds issued hereunder to the same extent as if it were not such trustee. Said proceedings may provide for one or more co-trustees, and any co-trustee may be any competent individual over the age of twenty-one years or a bank having trust powers or trust company within or without the state. The proceedings authorizing the bonds may provide that some or all of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds, the revenues of any facilities, the proceeds of the sale of any part of a facility, of any insurance policy or of any condemnation award be deposited with the trustee or a co-trustee and applied as provided in said proceedings.

Any such refunding may be effected whether the bonds to be refunded shall have then matured or shall thereafter mature, either by sale of the refunding bonds and the application of the proceeds thereof for the payment of the bonds to be refunded thereby, or by exchange of the refunding bonds for the bonds to be refunded thereby: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the ~~(holders)~~ owners of any bonds to be so refunded shall not be compelled without their consent to surrender their bonds for payment or exchange except on the terms expressed on the face thereof. Sec. 213. Section 15, page 679, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 1, chapter 119, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At ~~((such))~~ the election provided for in RCW 87.03.190, there shall be submitted to the electors of said district possessing the qualifications prescribed by law the question of whether or not the bonds of said district in the amount and of the maturities determined by the board of directors shall be issued. Bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be serial bonds payable in legal currency of the United States in such series and amounts as shall be determined and declared by the board of directors in the resolution calling the election: PROVIDED, That the first series shall mature not later than ten years and the last series not later than forty years from the date thereof: PROVIDED FURTHER, That bonds, authorized by a special election held in the district under the provisions of a former statute, which has subsequent to said authorization been amended, but not issued prior to the amendment of said former statute, may be issued in the form provided in said former statute, and any such bonds heretofore or hereafter so issued and sold are hereby confirmed and validated.

Notice of such bond election must be given by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least two weeks (three times). Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, and the amount and maturities of bonds proposed to be issued; and said election must be held and the results thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of law governing the election of the district officers: PROVIDED, That no informality in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words 'Bonds Yes' and 'Bonds No,' or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are cast 'Bonds Yes,' the board of directors shall thereupon have authority to cause bonds in said amount and maturities to be issued. If the majority of the votes cast at any bond election are 'Bonds No,' the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record; but if contract is made or is to be made with the United States as in RCW 87.03.140 provided, and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with such contract, the question submitted at such special election shall be whether contract shall be entered into with the United States. The notice of election shall state under the terms of what act or acts of congress contract is proposed to be made, and the maximum amount of money payable to the United States for construction purposes exclusive of penalties and interest. The ballots for such election shall contain the words 'Contract with the United States Yes' and 'Contract with the United States No,' or words equivalent thereto. And whenever thereafter said board, in its judgment, deems it for the best interest of the district that the question of issuance of bonds for said amount, or any amount, or the question of entering into a contract with the United States, shall be submitted to said electors, it shall so declare, by resolution recorded in its minutes, and may thereupon submit such question to said electors in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election.

(2) All bonds issued under this act shall bear interest at such rate or rates as the board of directors may determine, payable semiannually on the first day of January and of July of each year. The principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated, or if the board of directors shall so determine at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York City, said place of payment to be designated in the bond. The bonds may be in such denominations as the board of directors may in its discretion determine, except that bonds other than bond number one of any issue shall be in a denomination that is a multiple of one hundred dollars. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. Said bonds shall be negotiable in form, signed by the president and secretary, and the seal of the district shall be affixed thereto. ~~((The county treasurer shall register said bonds before the issuance thereof in a book kept for that purpose, and shall certify on each thereof under his seal that it has been so registered.))~~ The printed, engraved, or lithographed facsimile signatures of the president and secretary of the district's board of directors ~~((and the county treasurer))~~ shall be sufficient signatures on the bonds or any coupons: PROVIDED, That such facsimile signatures on the bonds may be used only after the filing, by the officer whose facsimile signature is to be used, with the secretary of state of his manual signature certified by him under oath, whereupon that officer's facsimile signature has the same legal effect as his manual signature: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That either the president of the board of directors' or the secretary's signature on the bonds shall be manually subscribed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever such facsimile reproduction of the signature of any officer is used in place of the manual signature of such officer, the district's board of directors shall specify in a written order or requisition to the printer, engraver, or lithographer the number of bonds or any coupons upon which such facsimile signature is to be printed, engraved, or lithographed and the manner of numbering the bonds or any coupons upon which such signature shall be placed. Within ninety days after the completion of the printing, engraving, or lithographing of such bonds or any coupons, the plate or plates used for the purpose of affixing the facsimile signature shall be destroyed, and it shall be the duty of the district's board of directors, within ninety days after receipt of the completed bonds or any coupons, to ascertain that such plate or plates have been destroyed. Every printer, engraver, or lithographer who, with the intent to defraud, prints, engraves, or lithographs a facsimile signature upon any bond or any coupon without written order of the district's board of directors, or fails to destroy such plate or plates containing the facsimile signature upon direction of such issuing authority, shall be guilty of felony.

(3) Whenever the electors shall vote to authorize the issuance of bonds of the district such authorization shall nullify and cancel all unsold bonds previously authorized, and if the question is submitted to and carried by the electors at the bond election, any bond issue may be exchanged in whole or in part, at par, for any or all of a valid outstanding bond issue of the district when mutually agreeable to the owner or owners thereof and the district, and the amount of said last bond issue in excess, if any, of that required for exchange purposes, may be sold as in the case of an original issue. The bonds of any issue authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds shall state on their face the amount of such issue so exchanged, and shall contain a certificate of the treasurer of the district as to the amount of the bonds exchanged, and that said outstanding bonds have been surrendered and canceled: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where bonds have been authorized and unsold, the board of directors may submit to the qualified voters of the district the question of canceling said previous authorization, which question shall be submitted upon the same notice and under the same regulations as govern the submission of the original question of authorizing a bond issue. At such election the ballots shall contain the words 'Cancellation Yes,' and 'Cancellation No,' or words equivalent thereto. If at such election a majority of the votes shall be 'Cancellation Yes,' the said issue shall be thereby canceled and no bonds may be issued thereunder. If the majority of said ballots shall be 'Cancellation No,' said original authorization shall continue in force with like effect as though said cancellation election had not been held: PROVIDED, That bonds deposited with the United States in payment or in pledge may call for the payment of such interest at such rate or rates, may be of such denominations, and call for the repayment of the principal at such times as may be agreed upon between the board and the secretary of the interior.

(4) Each issue shall be numbered consecutively as issued, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively and bear date at the time of their issue. ~~((Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond, signed by the president of the board and the secretary. The signatures of the president and secretary may, however, appear by printed, engraved or lithographed facsimile.))~~ The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. Said bonds shall express upon their face that they were issued by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and shall also state the number of issue of which such bonds are a part. ~~((The secretary shall keep a record of bonds sold, their number, the date of sale, the price received and the name of the purchaser.))~~ In case the money received by the sale of all bonds issued be insufficient for the completion of plans of the canals and works adopted, and additional bonds be not voted, or a contract calling for additional payment to the United States be not authorized and made, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to provide for the completion of said plans by levy of assessments therefor. It shall be lawful for any irrigation districts which have heretofore issued and sold bonds under the law then in force, to issue in place thereof an amount of bonds not in excess of such previous issue, and to sell the same, or any part thereof, as hereinafter provided, or exchange the same, or any part thereof, with the ~~((holders))~~ owners of such previously issued bonds which may be outstanding, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the board of directors of the district and the holders of such outstanding bonds: PROVIDED, That the question of such reissue of bonds shall have been previously voted upon favorably by the legally qualified electors of such district, in the same manner as required for the issue of original bonds, and the said board shall not exchange any such bonds for a less amount in par value of the bonds received; all of such old issue in place of which new bonds are issued shall be destroyed whenever lawfully in possession of said board. Bonds issued under the provisions of this section may, when so authorized by the electors, include a sum sufficient to pay the interest thereon for a period not exceeding the first four years. Whenever an issue of bonds shall have been authorized pursuant to law, and any of the earlier series shall have been sold, and the later series, or a portion thereof, remain unsold, the directors may sell such later series pursuant to law, or such portion thereof as shall be necessary to pay the earlier series, or said directors may exchange said later series for the earlier series at not less than the par value thereof, said sale or exchange to be made not more than six months before the maturity of said earlier series and upon said exchange being made the maturing bonds shall be disposed of as hereinbefore provided in the case of bonds authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (1) through (4) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 214, Section 16, page 681, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1933 and RCW 87.03.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board may sell the bonds of the district or pledge the same to the United States from time to time in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous to raise money for the construction, reconstruction, betterment or extension of such canals and works, the acquisition of said property and property rights, the payment of outstanding district warrants when consented to in writing by the director of conservation and development, and to such extent as shall be authorized at said election, the assumption of indebtedness to the United States for the district lands, and otherwise to fully carry out the objects and purposes of the district organization, and may sell such bonds, or any of them, at private sale whenever the board deems it for the best interest of the district so to do: PROVIDED, That no election to authorize bonds to refund outstanding warrants shall be held and canvassed after the expiration of the year 1934. The board of directors shall also have power to sell said bonds, or any portion thereof, at private sale, and accept in payment therefor, property or property rights, labor and material necessary for the construction of its proposed canals or irrigation works, power plants, power sites and lines in connection therewith, whenever the board deems it for the best interests of the district so to do. If the board shall determine to sell the bonds of the district, or any portion thereof, at public sale, the secretary shall publish a notice of such sale for at least three weeks in such newspaper or newspapers as the board may order. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board, at its office, for the purchase of the bonds to be sold, until the day and hour named in the notice. At the time named in the notice, the board shall open the proposals and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest responsible bidder and may reject all bids: PROVIDED, That such bonds shall not be sold for less than ninety percent of their face value: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the proceeds of all bonds sold for cash must be paid by the purchaser to the county treasurer of the county in which the office of the board is located, and credited to the bond fund.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 215, Section 17, page 681, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.215 are each amended to read as follows:

Said bonds and interest thereon and all payments due or to become due to the United States or the state of Washington under any contract between the district and the United States or the state of Washington accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States or the state of Washington, as in RCW 87.03.140 provided, shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property of the district, and all the real property in the district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments until fully paid as hereinafter provided. And in addition to this provision and the other provisions herein made for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon as the same may become due, said bonds, or the contract with the United States or the state of Washington accompanying which bonds have not been deposited with the United States or the state of Washington, shall become a lien upon all the water rights and other property acquired by any irrigation district formed under the provisions of this chapter, and upon any canal or canals, ditch or ditches, flumes, feeders, storage reservoirs, machinery and other works and improvements acquired, owned or constructed by said irrigation district, and if default shall be made in the payment of the principal of said bonds or interest thereon, or any payment required by the contract with the United States, or the state of Washington, according to the terms thereof, the ((holder)) owner of said bonds, or any part thereof or the United States or the state of Washington as the case may be, shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of all the water rights, canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, storage reservoirs, machinery, property and improvements of said irrigation district, and to hold and control the same, and enjoy the rents, issues and profits thereof, until the lien hereby created can be enforced in a civil action in the same manner and under the same proceedings as given in the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate. This section shall apply to all bonds heretofore issued or any contract heretofore made with the United States, or which may hereafter be issued or made by any district: PROVIDED, That when any such contract made after December 1, 1981, between any district and the United States or the state of Washington covers only the real property in a portion or portions of the district, all payments due or to become due to the United States or the state of Washington shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property only in that portion or portions of the district covered by the contract and the real property shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments until fully paid and any assessment lien which attaches thereto shall be the exclusive lien notwithstanding other liens provided for in this section. In the event of a contract between the district and the United States or the state of Washington accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States or the state of Washington as provided in RCW 87.03.140 and the contract covers real property in only a portion or portions of the district, the question of whether the district should enter the contract shall be submitted only to those qualified electors who hold title or evidence of title to real property within that portion or portions of the district and in the same manner as provided in RCW 87.03.200.

Sec. 216, Section 22, page 683, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 1, chapter 169, Laws of 1967 and RCW 87.03.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors shall in each year before said roll is delivered by the secretary to the respective county treasurers, levy an assessment sufficient to raise the ensuing annual interest on the outstanding bonds, and all payments due or to become due in the ensuing year to the United States or the state of Washington under any contract between the district and the United States or the state of Washington accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States or the state of Washington as in this act provided. Beginning in the year preceding the maturity of the first series of the bonds of any issue, the board must from year to year increase said assessment for the ensuing years in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the outstanding bonds as they mature. Similar levy and assessment shall be made for the expense fund which shall include operation and maintenance costs for the ensuing year. The board shall also at the time of making the annual levy, estimate the amount of all probable delinquencies on said levy and shall thereupon levy a sufficient amount to cover the same and a further amount sufficient to cover any deficit that may have resulted from delinquent assessments for any preceding year. The board shall also, at the time of making the annual levy, estimate the amount of the assessments to be made against lands owned by the district, including local improvement assessments, and shall levy a sufficient amount to pay said assessments. All lands owned by the district shall be exempt from general state and county taxes: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in the event any lands, and any improvements located thereon, acquired by the district by reason of the foreclosure of irrigation district assessments, shall be by said district resold on contract, then and in that event, said land, and any such improvements, shall be by the county assessor immediately placed upon the tax rolls for taxation as real property and shall become subject to general property taxes from and after the date of said contract, and the secretary of the said irrigation district shall be required to immediately report such sale within ten days from the date of said contract to the county assessor who shall cause the property to be entered on the tax rolls as of the first day of January following.

The board may also at the time of making the said annual levy, levy an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent of the whole levy for the said year for the purpose of creating a surplus fund. This fund may be used for any of the district purposes authorized by law. The assessments, when collected by the county treasurer, shall constitute a special fund, or funds, as the case may be, to be called respectively, the 'Bond Fund of Irrigation District,' the 'Contract Fund of Irrigation District,' the 'Expense Fund of Irrigation District,' the '(Coupon) Warrant Fund of Irrigation District,' the 'Surplus Fund of Irrigation District'.

If the annual assessment roll of any district has not been delivered to the county treasurer on or before the 15th day of January in the year 1927, and in each year thereafter, he shall notify the secretary of the district by registered mail that said assessment roll must be delivered to the office of the county treasurer forthwith. If said assessment roll is not delivered within ten days from the date of mailing of said notice to the secretary of the district, or if said roll when delivered is not equalized and the required assessments levied as required by law, or if for any reason the required assessment or levy has not been made, the county treasurer shall immediately notify the (~~board of county commissioners~~) legislative authority of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated, and said (~~board of~~) county (~~commissioners~~) legislative authority shall cause an assessment roll for the said district to be prepared and shall equalize the same if necessary and make the levy required by this chapter in the same manner and with like effect as if the same had been equalized and made by the said board of directors, and all expenses incident thereto shall be borne by the district. In case of neglect or refusal of the secretary of the district to perform the duties imposed by law, then the treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated must perform such duties, and shall be accountable therefor, on his official bond, as in other cases.

At the time of making the annual levy in the year preceding the final maturity of any issue of district bonds, the board of directors shall levy a sufficient amount to pay and redeem all bonds of said issue then remaining unpaid. All surplus remaining in any bond fund after all bonds are paid in full must be transferred to the surplus fund of the district.

Any surplus moneys in the surplus fund or any surplus moneys in the bond fund when so requested by the board of directors shall be invested by the treasurer of said county under the direction of said board of directors in United States (~~gold bearing~~) bonds or bonds of the state of Washington, or any bonds pronounced by the treasurer of the state of Washington as valid security for the deposit of public funds, and in addition thereto any bonds or warrants of said district, all of which shall be kept in the surplus fund until needed by the district for the purposes authorized by law.

Sec. 217. Section 34, page 688, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 22, chapter 129, Laws of 1921 and RCW 87.03.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(~~Upon the presentation of the coupons due to~~) Whenever interest payments on bonds are due, the treasurer of said county (~~:-he~~) shall pay the same from the bond fund belonging to such district and deposited with such treasurer. Whenever, after ten years from the issuance of said bonds, said fund shall amount to the sum of ten thousand dollars, the board of directors may direct the treasurer to pay such an amount of said bonds not due as the money in said fund will redeem, at the lowest value at which they may be offered for liquidation, after advertising in some daily newspaper for such period of time not less than four weeks as the board shall order for sealed proposals for the redemption of said bonds. Said proposals shall be opened by the board in open meeting, at a time to be named in the notice, and the lowest bid for said bonds must be accepted: PROVIDED, That no bond shall be redeemed under the foregoing provision at a rate above par. In case the bids are equal, the lowest numbered bond shall have the preference. In case none of the (~~holders~~) owners of said bonds shall desire to have the same redeemed, as herein provided for, said money shall be invested by the treasurer of said county, under the direction of the board, in United States (~~gold bearing~~) bonds, or the bonds of the state, which shall be kept in said bond fund, and may be used to redeem said district bonds whenever the (~~holders~~) owners thereof may desire.

Sec. 218. Section 2, chapter 276, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1979 and RCW 87.03.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The treasurer of the county in which is located the office of the district shall be ex officio treasurer of the district, and any county treasurer handling district funds shall be liable upon his official bond and to criminal prosecution for malfeasance and misfeasance, or failure to perform any duty as county or district treasurer. The treasurer of each county in which lands of the district are located shall collect and receipt for all assessments levied on lands within his county. There shall be deposited with the district treasurer all funds of the district. He shall pay out such funds upon warrants issued by the county auditor against the proper funds of the district, ~~except the sums to be paid out of the bond fund ((upon coupons or bonds presented to the treasurer)) for interest and principal payments on bonds:~~ PROVIDED, That in those districts which designate their own treasurer, the treasurer may issue the warrants or any checks when the district is authorized to issue checks. All warrants shall be paid in the order of their issuance. The district treasurer shall report, in writing, on the first Monday in each month to the directors, the amount in each fund, the receipts for the month preceding in each fund, and file the report with the secretary of the board. The secretary shall report to the board, in writing, at the regular meeting in each month, the amount of receipts and expenditures during the preceding month, and file the report in the office of the board.

The preceding paragraph of this section notwithstanding, the board of directors or board of control of an irrigation district which lies in more than one county and which had assessments in each of two of the preceding three years equal to at least five hundred thousand dollars may designate some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district. In addition, the board of directors of an irrigation district which lies entirely within one county may designate some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district if the board has the approval of the county treasurer to designate some other person. If the board designates a treasurer, it shall require a bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington in an amount and under the terms and conditions which it finds from time to time will protect the district against loss. The premium on the bond shall be paid by the district. The designated treasurer shall collect and receipt for all irrigation district assessments on lands within the district and shall act with the same powers and duties and be under the same restrictions as provided by law for county treasurers acting in matters pertaining to irrigation districts, except the powers, duties, and restrictions in RCW 87.56.110 and 87.56.210 which shall continue to be those of county treasurers.

In those districts which have designated their own treasurers, the provisions of law pertaining to irrigation districts which require certain acts to be done and which refer to and involve a county treasurer or the office of a county treasurer or the county officers charged with the collection of irrigation district assessments, except RCW 87.56.110 and 87.56.210 shall be construed to refer to and involve the designated district treasurer or the office of the designated district treasurer.

Any claim against the district for which it is liable under existing laws shall be presented to the board as provided in RCW 4.96.020 and upon allowance it shall be attached to a voucher and approved by the chairman and signed by the secretary and directed to the proper official for payment: PROVIDED, That in the event claimant's claim is for crop damage the claimant in addition to filing his claim within the one hundred twenty day limit and in the manner specified in RCW 4.96.020 must file with the secretary of the district, or in his absence one of the directors, not less than three days prior to the severance of the crop alleged to be damaged, a written preliminary notice pertaining to the crop alleged to be damaged. Such preliminary notice, so far as claimant is able, shall advise the district; that the claimant has filed a claim or intends to file a claim against the district for alleged crop damage; shall give the name and present residence of the claimant; shall state the cause of the damage to the crop alleged to be damaged and the estimated amount of damage; and shall accurately locate and describe where the crop alleged to be damaged is located. Such preliminary notice may be given by claimant or by anyone acting in his behalf and need not be verified. No action may be commenced against an irrigation district for crop damages unless claimant has complied with the provisions of RCW 4.96.020 and also with the preliminary notice requirements of this section.

Sec. 219, Section 3, chapter 276, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 83, Laws of 1979 and RCW 87.03.441 are each amended to read as follows:

The directors may provide by resolution that the secretary may deposit the following temporary funds in a local bank in the name of the district: (1) A fund to be known as 'general fund' in which shall be deposited all moneys received from the sale of land, except such portion thereof as may be obligated for bond redemption, and all rentals, tolls, and all miscellaneous collections. This fund shall be transmitted to the district treasurer or disbursed in such manner as the directors may designate. (2) A fund to be known as 'fiscal fund' in which shall be deposited all collections made by the district as fiscal agent of the United States. (3) A 'revolving fund' in such amount as the directors shall by resolution determine, acquired by the issue of coupon or registered warrants or by transfer of funds by warrant drawn upon the expense fund. This fund may be disbursed by check signed by the secretary or such other person as the board may designate, in the payment of such expenditures as the board may deem necessary. This fund shall be reimbursed by submitting copies of approved vouchers and/or copy of payrolls to the county auditor with a claim voucher specifying the fund upon which warrants for such reimbursements shall be drawn. The warrants for such reimbursements shall be made out by the auditor to the 'secretary's revolving fund.'

Sec. 220. Section 41, page 692, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 28, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.470 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of directors may, at any time when in their judgment it may be advisable, call a special election and submit to the qualified electors of the district the question whether or not a special assessment shall be levied for the purpose of raising money to be applied to any of the purposes provided in this chapter including any purpose for which the bonds of the district or the proceeds thereof might be lawfully used. Such election must be called upon the notice prescribed, and the same shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects in conformity with the provisions of RCW 87.03.200. The notice must specify the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is intended to be used and the number of installments in which it is to be paid. At such election the ballot shall contain the words 'Assessment Yes' and 'Assessment No.' If the majority of the votes cast are 'Assessment Yes' the board may immediately or at intervals thereafter incur indebtedness to the amount of said special assessment for any of the purposes for which the proceeds of said assessment may be used, and may provide for the payment of said indebtedness by the issue and sale of ((coupon)) notes of the district to an amount equal to said authorized indebtedness, which ((coupon)) notes shall be payable in such equal installments not exceeding three in number as the board shall direct. Said ((coupon)) notes shall be payable by assessments levied at the time of the regular annual levy each year thereafter until fully paid. The amount of the assessments to be levied shall be ascertained by adding fifteen percent for anticipated delinquencies to the whole amount of the indebtedness incurred and interest. Each assessment so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment roll by the secretary of the board, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as other assessments provided for herein, and when collected shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county to the credit of said district, for the purposes specified in the notice of such special election: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the board of directors may at their discretion issue said ((coupon)) notes in payment for labor or material, or both, used in connection with the purposes for which such indebtedness was authorized. ((Coupon)) Notes issued under this section shall bear interest at a rate determined by the board, payable semiannually. Such notes may be in any form, including bearer notes or registered notes as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such notes may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 221. Section 42, page 693, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 29, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.475 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall incur no debt or liability in excess of the express provisions of this title. It may without an election and levy therefor pay the necessary costs and expenses of organizing and may make surveys, do engineering work, and conduct a general investigation to determine the feasibility of the proposed irrigation project, and may incur an indebtedness therefor prior to levy, which indebtedness on account of surveys, engineering and investigations shall not exceed fifty cents an acre, and shall be assessable against the lands within the district. In cases of emergency, making it necessary to incur indebtedness in order to continue the operation of the irrigation system or any part thereof, the board by resolution may incur such indebtedness not exceeding the amount actually necessary to meet the requirements of the emergency. It may incur indebtedness necessary to carry on the ordinary administrative affairs of the district and if the district acquires an irrigation system before making its first regular annual levy, the board may incur such indebtedness necessary to pay the ordinary expenses of operation and maintenance until the regular annual levy is made.

The board may issue warrants for the payment of any indebtedness incurred under this section, which shall bear interest at a rate or rates determined by the board, and it shall include in its next annual levy for the payment of the expenses of operation and maintenance, the amount of all warrants issued by virtue hereof.

The board may issue as a general obligation of the district coupon or registered warrants in denominations not in excess of five hundred dollars, bearing interest ((evidenced by coupons payable semiannually at a rate)) as determined by the board. Such warrants may be registered as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. Such warrants shall mature in not more than five years and may be used, or the proceeds thereof, in the purchase of grounds and buildings, machinery, vehicles, tools or other equipment for use in operation, maintenance, betterment, reconstruction or local improvement work, and for creating a revolving fund for carrying on such work as in this title provided. The proceeds of the warrants shall be paid to the district treasurer who shall place them in an appropriate fund and pay them out upon warrants of the district. The maximum indebtedness hereby authorized shall not exceed one dollar per acre of the total irrigable area within the district. No warrant shall be sold for less than par. They shall state on their face that they are a general obligation of the district, the purposes for which they are used, and that they are payable on or before maturity. They shall be retired by assessments levied in accordance with the provisions of this title at the time other assessments are levied.

The board may accumulate by assessment a fund to be designated as the 'capital fund' to be used for the purposes for which the above warrants may be used. The total of such fund shall not exceed one dollar per acre of the total irrigable area in the district and shall be accumulated in not less than five annual installments. The fund shall not be permanently depleted or reduced but shall be replaced from year to year by assessments on any lands of the district benefited by the use thereof. The reasonable value of all grounds, buildings, machinery, vehicles, tools or other equipment on hand, purchased with such fund, and the revolving fund, if any, derived from such fund, shall be a part of the capital fund.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Such notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which any portion of the land proposed to be included in such local improvement district lies. Such notice shall state that the lands within said described boundaries are proposed to be organized as a local improvement district, stating generally the nature of the proposed improvement; that bonds for such local improvement district are proposed to be issued as the bonds of the irrigation district, or that a contract is proposed to be entered into between the district and the United States or the state of Washington, or both, that the lands within said local improvement district are to be assessed for such improvement, that such bonds or contract will be a primary obligation of such local improvement district and a general obligation of the irrigation district and stating a time and place of hearing thereon. A notice containing a copy of said resolution must be published once a week for two consecutive weeks preceding the date of such hearing and the last publication shall not be more than seven days before such date, and shall be mailed on or before the second publication date by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each owner or reputed owner of real property within the proposed local improvement district, as shown on the rolls of the county treasurer as of a date not more than twenty days immediately prior to the date such notice was mailed, and the hearing thereon shall not be held in less than twenty days from the adoption of such resolution. Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing a conservation corps. Reported by Committee on Commerce & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The unemployment rate in the state of Washington is the highest since the great depression, with a significantly higher rate among Washington youth.

(2) The policy of the state is to conserve and protect its natural and urban resources, scenic beauty, and historical and cultural sites.

(3) It is in the public interest to target employment projects to those activities which have the greatest benefit to the local economy.

(4) There are many unemployed young adults without hope or opportunities for entrance into the labor force who are unable to afford higher education and who create a serious strain on tax revenues in community services.

(5) The severe cutbacks in community and human services funding leave many local community service agencies without the resources to provide necessary services to those in need.

(6) The talent and energy of Washington's unemployed young adults are an untapped resource which should be challenged to meet the serious shortage in community services and promote and conserve the valuable resources of the state.

Therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to enact the Washington youth employment and conservation act. As part of this act, the Washington youth employment exchange and the Washington conservation corps are established as operating programs of the employment security department. The legislature desires to facilitate the potential of youth to obtain available job opportunities in both public and private agencies. It also desires to establish a youth conservation corps that will provide for employment and training opportunities to unemployed youths and to promote and conserve natural and urban areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 20 of this act.

(1) 'Commissioner' means the commissioner of the employment security department.

(2) 'Department' means the employment security department.

(3) 'Enrollees' means those persons who have completed enrollment forms, completed a work agreement, and who have entered into service following the approval of the director of the supervising agency.

(5) 'Work agreement' means the written agreement between the department, the enrollee and the supervising agency under this act for a period of up to eighteen months.

(6) 'Supervising agencies' means those private or public agencies which develop and implement full-time service projects in which enrollees agree to participate.

(7) 'Matching funds' means funding that is provided to the employment security department by agencies or individuals as financial support for a portion of the stipend or wage and benefits paid to the enrollee.

(8) 'Financial support' means any thing of value contributed by agencies or individuals to the department for a youth employment project which is reasonably calculated to support directly the development and expansion of a particular program under this act and which represents an addition to any financial support previously or customarily provided by the individual or agency. 'Financial support' includes, but is not limited to funds, equipment, facilities, and training.

(9) 'Public lands' means any lands or waters (or interests therein) owned or administered by any agency or instrumentality of the state, federal, or local government.

(10) 'Private lands' means any land or waters (or interests therein) not owned or administered by any agency or instrumentality of the state, federal, or local government.

(14) 'Director' means the individual who shall serve simultaneously as both the director of the corps and as the director of the exchange.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Washington youth employment exchange is established within the employment security department. The commissioner shall:

(1) Appoint a director for the exchange and other personnel as necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. Such director shall be the same individual who is appointed corps director as provided in section 15(2) of this act;

(2) Coordinate youth employment and training efforts under the department's jurisdiction and cooperate with other agencies or departments providing youth services to ensure that funds appropriated for the purposes of this act will not be expended to duplicate existing services, but will increase the services of youth to the state;

(3) The employment security department is authorized to place subgrants with other federal, state, and local governmental agencies and private agencies to provide youth employment projects and to increase the numbers of youth employed;

(4) Determine appropriate financial support levels by private business, community groups, foundations, public agencies, and individuals which will provide matching funds for enrollees in service projects under work agreements. The matching funds requirement may be waived for public agencies or reduced for private agencies;

(5) Recruit enrollees who are residents of the state unemployed at the time of application and are at least sixteen years of age but not more than twenty-two years of age;

(6) Recruit supervising agencies to host the enrollees in full-time service activities which shall not exceed twelve months' duration;

(7) Assist supervising agencies in the development of scholarships and matching funds from private and public agencies, individuals, and foundations in order to support a portion of the enrollee's stipend and benefits;

(9) Match enrollees with appropriate public agencies and available service projects;

(10) Monitor enrollee activities for compliance with this act and compliance with work agreements;

(11) Assist enrollees in transition to employment upon termination from the programs, including such activities as orientation to the labor market, on-the-job training, and placement in the private sector.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The commissioner may select and enroll in the Washington youth employment exchange program any person who is at least sixteen years of age but not more than twenty-two years of age, is a resident of the state, and who is not for medical, legal, or psychological reasons incapable of service. In the selection of enrollees of the exchange, preference shall be given to youths residing in areas, both urban and rural, in which there exists substantial unemployment above the state average. Efforts shall be made to enroll youths who are economically, socially, physically, or educationally disadvantaged. The commissioner may prescribe such additional standards and procedures in consultation with supervising agencies as may be necessary in conformance with this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commissioner shall use existing local offices of the employment security department or contract with independent, private nonprofit agencies in a local community to establish the local youth employment exchange program and to insure coverage of the program state-wide. Each local youth employment exchange program shall maintain a list of available youth employment opportunities in the jurisdiction covered by the local office and the appropriate forms or work agreements to enable the youths to apply for employment in private or public supervising agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Placements in the Washington youth employment exchange shall be made in supervising agencies under work agreements as provided under this act and shall include those assignments which provide for addressing community needs and conservation problems and will assist the community in economic development efforts. Each work agreement shall:

(1) Demonstrate that the service project is appropriate for the enrollee's interests, skills, and abilities and that the project is designed to meet unmet community needs;

(2) Include a requirement of regular performance evaluation leading to a work experience credential for the enrollee. This shall include clear work performance standards set by the supervising agency and procedures for identifying strengths, recommended improvement areas and conditions for probation or dismissal of the enrollee; and

(3) Include a commitment for partial financial support for the enrollee for a private industry, public agency, community group, or foundation. The commissioner may establish additional standards for the development of placements for enrollees with supervising agencies and assure that the work agreements comply with those standards.

Agencies of the state may use the youth employment exchange for the purpose of employing youth qualifying under this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The assignment of enrollees shall not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonvertime work, wages, or other employment benefits. Supervising agencies that participate in the program may not terminate, lay-off, or reduce the working hours of any employee for the purpose of utilizing an enrollee with funds available. In circumstances where substantial efficiencies or a public purpose may result, supervising agencies may utilize enrollees to carry out essential agency work or contractual functions without displacing current employees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The commissioner shall seek and may accept, on behalf of the youth employment exchange and the conservation corps, charitable donations of cash and other assistance including, but not limited to, equipment and materials if the donations are available for appropriate use for the purposes set forth in this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. All parties entering into work agreements under this act shall agree that they will not discriminate in the providing of any service on the basis of race, creed, ethnic origin, sex, age, or political affiliation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Not more than the federal minimum wage or subsistence living allowance, comprehensive medical insurance, and medical aid shall be paid for the enrollees in the youth employment exchange by the commissioner in accordance with the standards and limitations of the appropriation provided for this act. The department shall give notice of coverage to the director of labor and industries after enrollment. The department shall not be deemed an employer of an enrollee for any other purpose.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The services of enrollees placed with supervising agencies described in chapter 50.44 RCW are exempt from unemployment compensation coverage under RCW 50.44.040(5) and the enrollees shall be so advised by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 15, 1985, indicating the number of work agreements entered into and the number of young adults enrolled under this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. In addition to any other power, duty, or function described by law or rule, the employment security department, through the program established under this act, may accept federal or private sector funds and grants and implement such programs relating to community services or employment programs and may enter into contracts respecting such funds or grants. The department may also use funds appropriated for the purposes of this act as matching funds for federal or private source funds to accomplish the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The Washington conservation corps is created to exercise the powers under this act.

(1) There is created within the employment security department an employment and conservation program which shall direct and administer a year-round conservation employment rehabilitation and improvement program which shall be known as the Washington conservation corps.

(2) The commissioner shall appoint a corps director for the program and other personnel as necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The corps director shall be the same individual who is appointed director for the exchange as provided in section 3(1) of this act.

(3) The commissioner of employment security shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on the activities undertaken by the employment and conservation program in the preceding fiscal year, including a cost-effectiveness analysis of all completed, ongoing, and proposed projects. The commissioner shall promulgate from time to time all necessary rules to carry out the purposes and objectives of the program and to regulate the standards of conduct and other operating guidelines for corps members and other personnel. The commissioner may take, but is not limited, to the following actions: (a) Recruiting and employing staff and corps member leaders and specialists; (b) adopting criteria for the selection of applicants to the program from among the enrollees of the youth employment exchange program; (c) executing agreements for furnishing the services of the employment conservation program to any federal, state, or local public agency, any local or state-wide private organization, or any private-for-profit organization as specified in this act in concern with the overall objectives of the conservation corps; (d) applying for and accepting grants or contributions of funds from any public or private source; and (e) purchasing or contracting for necessary private services, equipment, materials, and property if needed to carry out the projects approved for and undertaken by the program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The commissioner shall determine a preference for those projects which will provide long-term benefits to the public; will provide productive training and work experiences to the members involved; will be labor-intensive; may result in payments to the state for services performed; and can be promptly completed. The program established under this act may include, but shall not be limited to, projects such as:

- (1) Forestry and nursery operations, including firewood distribution and reforestation;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commissioner may enter into income-generating projects with public or private organizations to further the purposes of this act. Moneys received from contractual projects qualifying under this act shall be deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Except for corps member leaders or specialists, enrollment in the conservation corps shall be limited to individuals who at the time of enrollment are: (1) Lawful permanent residents of the state; (2) unemployed; and (3) at least eighteen but not more than twenty-two years of age. NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 318 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

:Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 and 2 of this act.

(1) 'Port charges' mean charges of a moorage facility operator for moorage and storage, and all other charges owing or to become owing under a contract between a vessel owner and the moorage facility operator, or under an officially adopted tariff including, but not limited to, costs of sale and related legal expenses.

(2) 'Vessel' means every species of watercraft or other artificial contrivance capable of being used as a means of transportation on water and which does not exceed two hundred feet in length. 'Vessel' includes any trailer used for the transportation of watercraft.

(3) 'Moorage facility' means any properties or facilities owned or operated by a moorage facility operator which are capable of use for the moorage or storage of vessels.

(4) 'Moorage facility operator' means any port district, city, town, metropolitan park district, or county which owns and/or operates a moorage facility.

(5) 'Owner' means every natural person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or organization, or agent thereof, with actual or apparent authority, who expressly or impliedly contracts for use of a moorage facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A moorage facility operator may adopt all regulations necessary for rental and use of moorage facilities and for the expeditious collection of port charges. The regulations may also establish procedures for the enforcement of these regulations by port district, city, county, metropolitan park district or town personnel. The regulations shall include the following:

(1) Procedures authorizing moorage facility personnel to take reasonable measures, including the use of chains, ropes, and locks, to secure vessels within the moorage facility so that the vessels are in the possession and control of the moorage facility operator and cannot be removed from the moorage facility. These procedures may be used if an owner mooring or storing a vessel at the moorage facility fails, for more than sixty days after being notified that charges are owing, to pay the port charges owed. Notification shall be by registered mail to the owner at his last known address. If no address was furnished by the owner, the port district, city, county, metropolitan park district, or town need not give such notice. At the time of securing the vessel, an authorized moorage facility employee shall attach to the vessel two readily visible notification stickers. The stickers shall be of a reasonable size and shall contain the following information:

(a) The date and time the stickers were attached;

(b) The identity of the authorized employee;

(c) A statement that if the account is not paid in full within one hundred eighty days from the time the stickers are attached, the vessel may be sold at public auction to satisfy the port charges; and

(d) The address and telephone number where additional information may be obtained concerning release of the vessel.

If the vessel is the subject of a delinquent moorage account, and sixty days have expired since notification pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the moorage facility operator shall review its records to ascertain the identity of the owner. The operator shall make a reasonable effort to contact the owner by registered mail in order to give the owner the information on the notification stickers.

(2) Procedures authorizing moorage facility personnel at their discretion to move moored vessels ashore for storage within properties under the operator's control or for storage with private persons under their control as bailees of the moorage facility, if the vessel is, in the opinion of port personnel, in danger of sinking or of sustaining other damage. Reasonable costs of any such procedure shall be paid by the vessel's owner.

(3) If a vessel is secured under subsection (1) of this section or moved ashore under subsection (2) of this section, the owner who is obligated to the moorage facility operator for port charges may regain possession of the vessel by:

(a) Making arrangements satisfactory with the moorage facility operator for the immediate removal of the vessel from the moorage facility or for authorized moorage; and

(b) Making payment to the operator of all port charges, or by posting with the operator a sufficient cash bond or other security acceptable to such operator, to be held in trust by the operator pending written agreement of the parties with respect to payment by the vessel owner of the amount owing, or pending resolution of the matter of the port charges in a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction. After entry of judgment, including any appeals, in a court of competent jurisdiction, the trust shall terminate and the moorage facility operator shall receive so much of the bond or other security as is necessary to satisfy any judgment, costs, and interest as may be awarded to the moorage facility operator. The balance shall be refunded immediately to the owner at his last known address.

(4) If a vessel moored or stored at a moorage facility is abandoned, the port district, city, county, metropolitan park district, or town, may, by resolution of its legislative authority, authorize the public sale of the vessel by authorized personnel to the highest and best bidder for cash as follows:

(a) If a vessel has been secured by the moorage facility operator under subsection (1) of this section and is not released to the owner under the bonding provisions of this section within one hundred eighty days after notifying the owner under subsection (1) of this section, or in all other cases, for one hundred eighty days after the operator secures the vessel, the vessel shall be conclusively presumed to have been abandoned by the owner;

(b) Before the vessel is sold, the owner of the vessel shall be given at least twenty days' notice of the sale in the manner set forth in subsection (1) of this section if the name and address of the owner is known. The notice shall contain the time and place of the sale, a reasonable description of the vessel to be sold, and the amount of port charges owed with respect to the vessel. The notice of sale shall be published at least once, more than ten but not more than twenty days before the sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the moorage facility is located. Such notice shall include the name of the vessel, if any, the last known owner and address, and a reasonable description of the vessel to be sold. The moorage facility operator may bid all or part of its port charges at the sale and may become a purchaser at the sale;

(c) The proceeds of a sale under section 2 of this act shall first be applied to the payment of port charges. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner. If the owner cannot in the exercise of due diligence be located by the moorage facility operator within one year of the date of the sale, the excess funds from the sale shall revert to the department of revenue pursuant to chapter 63.28 RCW. If the sale is for a sum less than the applicable port charges, the moorage facility operator is entitled to assert a claim for a deficiency.

(5) The regulations authorized under this section shall be enforceable only if the moorage facility has had its tariff containing such regulations conspicuously posted at all moorage facility offices at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Nothing contained in sections 1 and 2 of this act may be construed as a limitation of any rights, privileges, or remedies previously existing under any applicable laws of port districts, cities, towns, metropolitan park districts, or counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are added to chapter 53.08 RCW. The code reviser shall put cross references to sections 1 and 2 of this act in Titles 35 and 36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

April 18, 1983

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 753 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Upon the filing of a petition or upon the adoption of a resolution, as the case may be, initiating a proceeding for the formation of a local improvement district or utility local improvement district, the proper board, officer, or authority designated by charter or ordinance to make the preliminary estimates and assessment roll shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost and expense of the proposed improvement and certify it to the legislative authority of the city or town together with all papers and information in its possession touching the proposed improvement, a description of the boundaries of the district, and a statement of what portion of the cost and expense of the improvement should be borne by the property within the proposed district(~~a statement in detail of the local improvement assessments outstanding and unpaid against the property in the proposed district, and a statement of the aggregate actual valuation of the real estate including twenty-five percent of the actual valuation of the improvements in the proposed district according to the valuation last placed upon it for the purposes of general taxation~~)).

If the proceedings were initiated by petition the designated board, officer or authority shall also determine the sufficiency of the petition and whether the facts set forth therein are true. If the petition is found to be sufficient and in all proceedings initiated by resolution of the legislative authority of the city or town, the estimates must be accompanied by a diagram showing thereon the lots, tracts, and parcels of land and other property which will be specially benefited by the proposed improvement and the estimated amount of the cost and expense thereof to be borne by each lot, tract, or parcel of land or other property: PROVIDED, That no such diagram shall be required where such estimates are on file in the office of the city engineer, or other designated city office, together with a detailed copy of the preliminary assessment roll and the plans and assessment maps of the proposed improvement.

For the purpose of estimating and levying local improvement assessments, the value of property of the United States, of the state, or of any county, city, town, school district, or other public corporation whose property is not assessed for general taxes shall be computed according to the standards afforded by similarly situated property which is assessed for general taxes.

Sec. 2. Section 35.43.150, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.43.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Notice of the hearing upon a resolution declaring the intention of the legislative authority of a city or town to order an improvement shall be given by mail at least fifteen days before the day fixed for hearing to the owners or reputed owners of all lots, tracts, and parcels of land or other property to be specially benefited by the proposed improvement, as shown on the rolls of the county (~~treasurer~~) assessor, directed to the address thereon shown.

The notice shall set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the estimated cost, and the estimated benefits of the particular lot, tract, or parcel.

Sec. 3. Section 35.43.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 8, chapter 52, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.43.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The jurisdiction of the legislative authority of a city or town to proceed with any local improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by a protest filed with the city or town council within thirty days from the date of passage of the ordinance ordering the improvement, signed by the owners of the property within the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district subject to sixty percent or more of the total cost of the improvement including federally-owned or other nonassessable property as shown and determined by the preliminary estimates and assessment roll of the proposed improvement district or, if all or part of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district lies outside of the city or town, such jurisdiction shall be divested by a protest filed in the same manner and signed by the owners of property which is within the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district but outside the boundaries of the city or town, and which is subject to sixty percent or more of that part of the total cost of the improvement allocable to property within the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district but outside the boundaries of the city or town, including federally-owned or other nonassessable property: PROVIDED, That such restraint by protest shall not apply to (~~any local improvement by sanitary sewers or watermains and fire hydrants where the health officer of any city or town shall file with the legislative authority thereof a report showing the necessity for such improvement accompanied by a report of the chief of the fire department in the event such improvement includes fire hydrants, and such~~) any of the following local improvements, if the legislative body finds and recites in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the improvement that such improvement is necessary for the protection of the public health and safety and such ordinance or resolution is passed by unanimous vote of all members present: (1) Sanitary sewers or watermains where the health officer of the city or town, or department of ecology, files with the legislative authority a report showing the necessity for such improvement; and (2) fire hydrants where the chief of the fire department files a report showing the necessity for such improvement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that the abandonment of rail lines and rail freight service may alter the delivery to market of many commodities. In addition, the resultant motor vehicle freight traffic increases the burden on state highways and county roads. In many cases, the cost of upgrading the state highways and county roads exceeds the cost of maintaining rail freight service. Thus, the economy of the state will be best served by a policy of maintaining and encouraging a healthy rail freight system by creating a mechanism which keeps rail freight lines operating if the benefits of the service outweigh the cost.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The transportation commission shall prepare and periodically update a state rail plan, the objective of which is to identify, evaluate, and encourage essential rail service. The plan shall:

- (a) Identify and evaluate those rail freight lines that may be abandoned;
- (b) Quantify the costs and benefits of maintaining rail service on those lines that are likely to be abandoned; and
- (c) Establish priorities for determining which rail lines should receive state support. The priorities should include the anticipated benefits to the state and local economy, the anticipated cost of road and highway improvements necessitated by the abandonment of the rail line, the likelihood the rail line receiving funding can meet operating costs from freight charges, surcharges on rail traffic, and other funds authorized to be raised by a county or port district, and the impact of abandonment on changes in energy utilization and air pollution.

(2) The state rail plan may be prepared in conjunction with the rail plan prepared by the department pursuant to the federal railroad revitalization and regulatory reform act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The essential rail assistance account is hereby created in the state general fund. Moneys in the account may be appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

(2) Moneys in the account may be distributed to county rail districts and port districts for the purpose of:

- (a) Acquiring, maintaining, or improving branch rail lines; or
- (b) Operating railroad equipment necessary to maintain essential rail service.
- (3) County rail districts and port districts may grant franchises to private railroads for the right to operate on lines acquired, repaired, or improved under this chapter.
- (4) Moneys distributed under this section shall not exceed eighty percent of the cost of the service or project undertaken. At least twenty percent of the cost shall be provided by the county, port district, or other local sources.

(5) The amount distributed under this section shall be repaid to the state by the county rail district or port district. The repayment shall occur within ten years of the distribution of the moneys and shall be deposited in the essential rail assistance account. The repayment schedule and rate of interest, if any, shall be set at the time of the distribution of the moneys.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 4 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 47 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Subject to section 9 of this act, the legislative authority of a county may establish one or more county rail districts within the county for the purpose of providing and funding improved rail freight service. The boundaries of county rail districts shall be drawn to include contiguous property in an area from which agricultural or other goods could be shipped by the rail service provided. The district shall not include property outside this area which does not, or, in the judgment of the county legislative authority, is not expected to produce goods which can be shipped by rail, or property substantially devoted to fruit crops or producing goods that are shipped in a direction away from the district. A county rail district is a quasi municipal corporation, an independent taxing 'authority' within the meaning of Article VII, section 1 of the state Constitution, and a 'taxing district' within the meaning of Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution.

A county rail district shall constitute a body corporate and shall possess all the usual powers of a corporation for public purposes as well as all other powers that may now or hereafter be specifically conferred by statute, including, but not limited to, the authority to hire employees, staff, and services, to enter into contracts, to accept and expend or use gifts, grants, and donations, and to sue and be sued.

The county legislative authority shall be the governing body of a county rail district. The county treasurer shall act as the ex officio treasurer of the county rail district. The electors of a district are all registered voters residing within the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A county legislative authority proposing to establish a county rail district, or to modify the boundaries of an existing county rail district, or to dissolve an existing county rail district, shall conduct a hearing at the time and place specified in a notice published at least once, not less than ten days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation within the proposed county rail district. This notice shall be in addition to any other notice required by law to be published. Additional notice of the hearing may be given by mail, posting within the proposed county rail district, or in any manner the county legislative authority deems necessary to notify affected persons. All hearings shall be public and the county legislative authority shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation, modification of the boundaries, or dissolution of the county rail district.

(2) Following the hearing held under subsection (1) of this section, the county legislative authority may adopt a resolution providing for the submission of a proposal to establish a county rail district, modify the boundaries of an existing county rail district, or dissolve an existing county rail district, if the county legislative authority finds the proposal to be in the public interest. The resolution shall contain the boundaries of the district if applicable.

A proposition to create a county rail district, modify the boundaries of an existing county rail district, or dissolve an existing rail district shall be submitted to the affected voters at the next general election held sixty or more days after the adoption of the resolution providing for the submittal by the county legislative authority. The resolution shall establish the boundaries of the district and include a finding that the creation of the district is in the public interest and that the area included within the district can reasonably be expected to benefit from its creation. No portion of a city may be included in such a district unless the entire city is included.

The district shall be created upon approval of the proposition by simple majority vote. The ballot proposition submitted to the voters shall be in substantially the following form:

FORMATION OF COUNTY RAIL DISTRICT

Shall a county rail district be established for the area described in a resolution of the legislative authority of county, adopted on the day of 19 ?

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A county rail district is authorized to contract with a person, partnership, or corporation to provide rail service along a light-density essential-service rail line for the purpose of carrying commodities. The district shall also have the power to acquire, maintain, improve, or extend rail facilities within the district that are necessary for the safe and efficient operation of the contracted rail service. A county rail district may receive state rail assistance under chapter 47. RCW (sections 4 through 6 of this act). Two or more county rail districts may enter into interlocal cooperation agreements under chapter 39.34 RCW to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A county rail district is not authorized to impose a regular ad valorem property tax levy but may:

(1) Levy an ad valorem property tax, in excess of the one percent limitation, upon the property within the district for a one-year period to be used for operating or capital purposes whenever authorized by the voters of the district pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 and Article VII, section 2(a) of the state Constitution.

(2) Provide for the retirement of voter approved general obligation bonds, issued for capital purposes only, by levying bond retirement ad valorem property tax levies, in excess of the one percent limitation, whenever authorized by the voters of the district pursuant to Article VII, section 2(b) of the state Constitution and RCW 84.52.056.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) To carry out the purpose of this chapter, a county rail district may issue general obligation bonds, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of taxable property within the district, as the term 'value of taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A county rail district may additionally issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to one and one-fourth percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term 'value of taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015, as prescribed in Article VIII, section 6 of the state Constitution, and to provide for the retirement thereof by excess property tax levies as provided in section 11(2) of this act. The county rail district may submit a single proposition to the voters which, if approved, authorizes both the issuance of the bonds and the bond retirement property tax levies.

(2) General obligation bonds with a maturity in excess of forty years shall not be issued. The governing body of the county rail district shall by resolution determine for each general obligation bond issue the amount, date or dates, terms, conditions, denominations, interest rate or rates, which may be fixed or variable, maturity or maturities, redemption rights, registration privileges, manner of execution, price, manner of sale, and covenants. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds. Facsimile signatures may be used on the bonds and any coupons. Refunding general obligation bonds may be issued in the same manner as general obligation bonds are issued.

(3) Whenever general obligation bonds are issued to fund specific projects or enterprises that generate revenues, charges, user fees, or special assessments, the county rail district which issues the bonds may specifically pledge all or a portion of the revenues, charges, user fees, or special assessments to refund the general obligation bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) A county rail district may issue revenue bonds to fund revenue generating facilities which it is authorized to provide or operate. Whenever revenue bonds are to be issued, the governing body of the district shall create or have created a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the governing body may obligate the district to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of all or any part of the facilities constructed, acquired, improved, repaired, or replaced pursuant to this chapter as the governing body determines.

(2) The governing body of a county rail district issuing revenue bonds shall create a special fund or funds from which, along with any reserves created under RCW 39.44.140, the principal and interest on the revenue bonds shall exclusively be payable. The governing body may obligate the county rail district to set aside and pay into the special fund or funds a fixed proportion or a fixed amount of the revenues from the public improvements, projects, facilities, and all related additions funded by the revenue bonds. This amount or proportion shall be a lien and charge against these revenues, subject only to operating and maintenance expenses. The governing body shall consider the cost of operation and maintenance of the public improvement, project, facility, or additions funded by the revenue bonds and shall not place into the special fund or funds a greater amount or proportion of the revenues than it thinks will be available after maintenance and operation expenses have been paid and after the payment of revenue previously pledged. The governing body may also provide that revenue bonds payable from the same source or sources of revenue may later be issued on parity with any revenue bonds issued and sold.

(3) Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section shall not be an indebtedness of the county rail district issuing the bonds, and the interest and principal on the bonds shall only be payable from the revenues lawfully pledged to meet the principal and interest requirements and any reserves created pursuant to RCW 39.44.140. The owner of a revenue bond or any interest coupon issued pursuant to this section shall not have any claim against the county rail district arising from the bond or coupon except for payment from the revenues lawfully pledged to meet the principal and interest requirements and any reserves created pursuant to RCW 39.44.140. The substance of the limitations included in this subsection shall be plainly printed, written, or engraved on each bond issued pursuant to this section.

(4) Revenue bonds with a maturity in excess of thirty years shall not be issued. The governing body of the county rail district shall by resolution determine for each revenue bond issue the amount, date, terms, conditions, denominations, maximum fixed or variable interest rate or rates, maturity or maturities, redemption rights, registration privileges, manner of execution, manner of sale, callable provisions, if any, and covenants including the refunding of existing revenue bonds. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds. Facsimile signatures may be used on the bonds and any coupons. Refunding revenue bonds may be issued in the same manner as revenue bonds are issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A county rail district may exercise the power of eminent domain to obtain property for its authorized purposes in the manner counties exercise the powers of eminent domain.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The rule of strict construction does not apply to this chapter, and this chapter shall be liberally construed to permit the accomplishment of its purposes.

Sec. 16. Section 19, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by any taxing district except school districts in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, solid waste disposal district, county rail district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and RCW 84.52.043, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, solid waste disposal district, county rail district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 64 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the county legislative authority, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, solid waste disposal district, county rail district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote 'yes' and those opposed thereto to vote 'no'.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 8 through 15 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 36 RCW.

Sec. 18. Section 35.50.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1982 and RCW 35.50.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If on the first day of January in any year, two installments of any local improvement assessment are delinquent, or if the final installment thereof has been delinquent for more than one year, the city or town shall proceed with the foreclosure of the delinquent assessment or delinquent installments thereof by proceedings brought in its own name in the superior court of the county in which the city or town is situate.

The proceedings shall be commenced on or before March 1st of that year or on or before such other date in such year as may be fixed by general ordinance, but not before the city or town treasurer has notified by certified mail the persons whose names appear on the assessment roll as owners of the property charged with the assessments or installments which are delinquent, at the address last known to the treasurer, a notice thirty days before the commencement of the proceedings. If the person whose name appears on the tax rolls of the ~~((county treasurer))~~ county assessor as owner of the property, or the address shown for the owner, differs from that appearing on the city or town assessment roll, then the treasurer shall also mail a copy of the notice to that person or that address.

The notice shall state the amount due upon each separate lot, tract, or parcel of land and the date after which the proceedings will be commenced. The city or town treasurer shall file with the clerk of the superior court at the time of commencement of the foreclosure proceeding the affidavit of the person who mailed the notices. This affidavit shall be conclusive proof of compliance with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 19. Section 35.50.230, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 91, Laws of 1982 and RCW 35.50.230 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((In foreclosing local improvement assessment liens, all or any of the lots, tracts, or parcels of land or other property included in the assessment for one local improvement district or one utility local improvement district may be proceeded against in the same action:))~~ In foreclosing local improvement assessment liens, it is not necessary to bring a separate suit for each of the lots, tracts, or parcels of land or other property or for each separate local improvement district or utility local improvement district. All or any of the lots, tracts, or parcels of land or other property upon which local improvement assessments are delinquent under any and all local improvement assessment rolls in the city or town may be proceeded against in the same action. For all lots, tracts, or parcels which contain a residential structure with an assessed value of at least two thousand dollars, all persons owning or claiming to own ((or having or claiming to have any interest in or lien upon the lots, tracts, or parcels involved in the action and all persons unknown who may have an interest or claim of interest therein)) the property shall be made defendants thereto. For all other lots, tracts, or parcels, the persons whose names appear on the assessment roll and property tax rolls as owners of the property charged with the assessments or taxes shall be made defendants thereto.

Sec. 20. Section 35.50.250, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 91, Laws of 1982 and RCW 35.50.250 are each amended to read as follows:

In foreclosing local improvement assessments, ~~((summons and the service thereof shall be governed by the statutes governing the foreclosure of mortgages on real property))~~ if the lot, tract, or parcel contains a residential structure with an assessed value of at least two thousand dollars, the summons shall be served upon the defendants in the manner required by RCW 4.28.080. For all other lots, tracts, or parcels the summons shall be served by either personal service on the defendants or by certified and regular mail.

Sec. 21. Section 35.50.260, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 7, chapter 91, Laws of 1982 and RCW 35.50.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Judgment and order of sale may be entered as to any one or more separate lots, tracts, or parcels involved in the action and the court shall retain jurisdiction to others.

The judgment shall specify separately the amount of the installments with interest, penalty, and all reasonable costs, including the title searches, chargeable to each lot, tract, or parcel. The judgment shall have the effect of a separate judgment as to each lot, tract, or parcel described in the judgment, and any appeal shall not invalidate or delay the judgment except as to the property concerning which the appeal is taken. In the judgment the court shall order the lots, tracts, or parcels therein described sold~~((:))~~ by the city or town treasurer or by the county sheriff and an order of sale shall issue pursuant thereto for the enforcement of the judgment.

In all other respects, the trial, judgment (~~and order of sale~~), and appeals to the supreme court or the court of appeals shall be governed by the statutes governing the foreclosure of mortgages on real property.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

April 21, 1983

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 177 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that unnecessarily hot tap or bath water creates an extreme risk of severe burns, especially among the elderly, children, and retarded persons. Annually, numerous persons suffer severe scald burns, some resulting in death, from tap or bath water which is inordinately hot. Excessive tap and bath water temperatures in residential usage is unnecessary for sanitary purposes. Regulation of the setting of water temperatures upon installation can virtually eliminate incidences of dangerous scalding. Further, the legislature finds that projected future shortages of energy in our state could be reduced or prevented by the efficient utilization of existing energy resources. Reducing the temperature settings on thermostats to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (or forty-nine degrees Celsius) would save energy that is now unnecessarily consumed, reduce homeowners' average utility costs, and promote home safety without any loss of comfort or health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 19.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) 'Hot water heater' means the primary source of hot water for a residence.

(2) The thermostat of a new water heater offered for sale or lease in this state for use in a residential unit, shall be preset by the manufacturer no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (or forty-nine degrees Celsius) or the minimum setting on any water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature. Water heating systems may utilize higher reservoir temperature if mixing valves are set or systems are designed to restrict the temperature of water to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit.

(3) Upon occupancy of a new tenant in a residential unit leased or rented in this state, if hot water is supplied from an accessible, individual water heater, the water heater shall be set by the owner or agent at a temperature not higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (forty-nine degrees Celsius) or the minimum setting on any water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature. Water heating systems may utilize higher reservoir temperature if mixing valves are set or systems are designed to restrict the temperature of water to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an owner of an owner-occupied residential unit or resident of a leased or rented residential unit from readjusting the temperature setting after occupancy. Any readjustment of the temperature setting by the resident relieves the owner or agent of an individual residential unit and the manufacturer of water heaters from liability for damages attributed to the readjustment by the resident.

(5) The utility providing energy for any water heater under this section shall at least annually, include in its billing a statement:

(a) Recommending that water heaters be set no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit or the minimum setting on a water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature to prevent severe burns and reduce excessive energy consumption; and

(b) That the thermostat of an individual water heater furnished in a residential unit leased or rented in this state to new tenants shall be set no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit or the minimum setting on a water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature pursuant to chapter 19.27 RCW.

(6) The manufacturer of a water heater under this section which is offered for sale or installed after the effective date of this act shall have a tag attached to the thermostat access plate or immediately adjacent to exposed thermostats. The tag shall state that the thermostat settings above the preset temperature may cause severe burns and consume excessive energy.

(7) Nothing in this section requires or permits any inspections other than those otherwise required or permitted by law."

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Wang, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 177.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 179 with the following amendments:

On page 4, beginning on line 34 strike all of subsection (2) and renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Appelwick moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 179.

Representatives Appelwick and Barrett spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Van Dyken and Padden spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Representative Van Dyken, is this money used for racetrack maintenance?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "To answer your question directly, Representative Taylor, I specifically checked into that. These moneys are commingled in the general coffers of the racetrack owners along with breakage, in which all of the pennies of winning that amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars per year, that don't go to the individuals, also go to the racetrack owners. The racetrack owners then pay expenditures from these funds for racetrack maintenance and pay their employees and all those things, but the profits also come out of this fund and any additional money, of course, that comes into their general fund also turns up in the form of profits. To answer specifically, it does not go into a designated account to be used specifically for racetrack maintenance or for health care--as was alleged on the floor from other parties last session when this was discussed--but generally into the overall checkbook of the racetrack owners. That is one of the points that is specifically under consideration in this bill."

Mr. Appelwick spoke again in favor of the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 179, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 75; nays, 22; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barrett, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Brough, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Lux, Martinis, McClure, McMullen, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Niemi, O'Brien, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Todd, Vekich, Waik, Wang, West, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 75.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 289 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state (~~shall be~~) is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. ~~((Such))~~ The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test. The officer shall warn the driver that his refusal to take the test may be used against him in any subsequent criminal trial.

Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of ~~((his))~~ the breath only ~~((-- PROVIDED -- That))~~. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of ~~((negligent))~~ vehicular homicide ~~((by motor vehicle))~~ as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter ~~...~~(SB 3106), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his or her arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of ~~((six months))~~ one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as ~~((hereinbefore))~~ directed in this section ~~((directed))~~, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving ~~((such))~~ the notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of ~~((such))~~ the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court~~((--PROVIDED-- That this stay shall be effective only))~~ so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction ~~((which))~~ that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected ~~((shall have))~~ has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county ~~((wherein))~~ in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1 of this act and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(2) The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that ~~((a))~~ his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test ~~((-- The officer shall warn the driver--))~~, ~~((b))~~ that his or her privilege to drive will be suspended, revoked, or denied if the test is administered and the test indicates a concentration of alcohol in his or her blood of 0.10 percent or more, and (c) that his or her refusal to take the test may be used against him or her in ~~((any))~~ a subsequent criminal trial.

~~((Unless the person to be tested is unconscious))~~ (3) Except as provided in this subsection and subsection (4) of this section, the chemical test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter (SB 3106), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. (In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

~~(2))~~ (4) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, and the person shall be deemed to have received the warnings required under subsection (2) of this section.

~~((3))~~ (5) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under subsection (2) of this section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, ~~((after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive,))~~ no test shall be given except as authorized under subsection (3) or (4) of this section. ~~((The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.~~

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as directed in this section, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving the notice may, in writing and within ten days thereafter request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license:)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) If, after arrest and after the other applicable conditions and requirements of RCW 46.20.308 have been satisfied, a person submits to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily fluids, or such a test has been administered without that person's express consent as permitted by RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4), and the test results indicate an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more by weight, or the person refuses to submit to a test, the arresting officer or other law enforcement officer at whose direction any test has been given shall:

(a) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the department of its intention to suspend, revoke, or deny the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as required by section 5 of this act;

(b) Confiscate the person's Washington state license or permit to drive, if any;

(c) Issue a temporary license as provided for in subsection (2) of this section to any driver who surrenders a current and valid license; and

(d) Immediately notify the department of licensing of the arrest and transmit to the department of licensing any confiscated license or permit and a sworn report that states:

(i) That the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both; and

(ii) That after receipt of the warnings required by RCW 46.20.308(2) the person refused to submit, or submitted to chemical testing, or that a test was administered without the person's express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4); and

(iii) That, if a test was administered, the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were met before administration of the test and that the test was administered in accordance with RCW 46.61.506; and

(iv) That the results of any test administered indicated an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more.

(2) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies with temporary license forms and written notice statements for use under subsection (1) of this section. Any temporary license issued under subsection (1) of this section shall indicate that it is effective for forty-five days from the arrest or, until the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive is sustained at a hearing pursuant to section 6 of this act, whichever occurs first. No temporary license is valid to any greater degree than the license or permit that it replaces.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department shall suspend, revoke, or deny the arrested person's driving privileges as follows:

(a) In the case of a person who has refused a test:

(i) For a first refusal within five years, revocation or denial for one year;

(ii) For a second refusal within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(b) In the case of a person who has submitted to or been administered a test indicating a blood alcohol concentration of 0.10 percent or more:

(i) For a first incident within five years, suspension or denial for ninety days;

(ii) For a second incident within five years, revocation or denial for one year;

(iii) For a third incident within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(c) A suspension, revocation, or denial shall take effect when sustained at a hearing under section 6 of this act, or forty-five days after the person's arrest if no hearing was requested, whichever occurs first.

(2) The department shall not grant or reinstate a person's privilege to drive that has been suspended, revoked, or denied under subsection (1) of this section until it has determined the person is eligible for reinstatement under RCW 46.20.031 and 46.61.515 and is otherwise qualified.

(3) For purposes of this section and section 5 of this act, driving privileges include:

(a) A Washington state driver's license or permit;

(b) A nonresident privilege to drive; and

(c) The privilege of a person to apply for a new or duplicate license or permit or to renew a license, permit, or nonresident privilege.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No suspension, revocation, or denial of a driving privilege under section 4 of this act is effective until the department of licensing or a law enforcement officer acting on its behalf notifies the person in writing by personal service, by certified mail, or by first class mail addressed to that person's last known address of record with the department of the department's intention to suspend, revoke, or deny together with the grounds therefor and allows the person a seven-day period to request in writing that the department provide a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act. The notice shall specify the steps the person must take to obtain a hearing. If no written request for a hearing is postmarked or delivered to the department within seven days from the date of notification, the department shall issue an order effective as provided in section 4 of this act. If a request for a hearing is filed in time, the department shall give the person an opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Administrative hearings held to determine the propriety of any suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under section 4 of this act shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the director.

(2) The department shall fix a time, no more than forty-five days after arrest, and a place for a hearing to be held in the county in which the arrest was made that resulted in a report being transmitted under section 3 of this act. The hearing may be set for some other county by agreement between the department and the person. If the hearing is not held and an order issued under section 8 of this act within forty-five days after arrest, the suspension, revocation, or denial under section 4 of this act shall not be imposed.

(3) The department shall give the person at least fourteen days advance notice of the time and place of hearing, but the period of notice may be waived by the person. RCW 46.20.332 and 46.20.333 apply to the hearings. The department shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by department rule, upon a statement showing the general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought. The subpoena may be issued with like effect by the person's attorney of record or the office of the attorney general, and the form of the subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency, except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of the person's attorney or an assistant attorney general. Every party has the right of cross-examination of any witness who testifies and has the right to submit rebuttal evidence. Subpoenas issued under this section may be enforced in the manner provided by RCW 34.04.105(5).

(4) With respect to arrested drivers who have submitted to or been administered chemical tests, the department by rule may permit the admission into evidence at the hearing of (a) copies of official reports of persons who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist to perform tests or chemical analyses of the blood or breath, as to results of particular tests or analyses performed by that person when the copies have been certified as true copies of the report by the writer of the report, under oath, and (b) certificates of Breathalyzer maintenance operators who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist, as to the testing and calibration of Breathalyzers or similar machines by that person. The reports or certificates may be admitted without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them unless the arrested driver has given written notice received by the department not less than seven days before the date set for the hearing that he or she requests that the person administering the test, or the Breathalyzer maintenance operator, be produced by the department at the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The scope of the administrative hearing under section 6 of this act shall include:

(1) With respect to a person who has refused a chemical test, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest; and

(c) Whether the person refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his or her privilege to drive and that the person had the right to additional tests.

(2) With respect to a person upon whom a chemical test was administered, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest;

(c) Whether the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were satisfied before the administration of the chemical test;

(d) Whether the person either submitted to the test or a test was administered without express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308; and

(e) Whether the test indicated a concentration of alcohol in the person's blood of 0.10 percent, or more. The person may challenge whether the testing methods used were in accordance with RCW 46.61.506 and were valid and reliable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. After a hearing held under section 6 of this act, the department shall order that the appropriate suspension, revocation, or denial of privileges be imposed effective ten days after receipt of the order. In the alternative, the department may order that the administrative action be dismissed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department under section 4 of this act is sustained after a hearing, the person whose license, permit, or privilege is affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest or the county in which the person resides or, if a nonresident of this state, the superior court of Thurston county, for review of the final order of suspension, revocation, or denial by the department. The petition shall be filed within ten days following receipt by the person of the department's final order, or the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived. The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury, and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the department, not shown in the record, testimony on that issue may be taken in court. The scope of the review is limited to that prescribed by RCW 7.16.120, governing writs of certiorari.

(2) The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the suspension, revocation, or denial unless it is stayed by the court after motion and argument. Such a stay may be granted only if the court finds upon the arguments and affidavits presented that there is a reasonable probability that the petitioner will prevail upon the merits of the petition, that the public interest will not be substantially harmed by the stay, and that the petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the order is not stayed. If such a stay is granted it shall provide that it is effective only so long as there is no conviction of the petitioner for a moving violation or no finding that the petitioner has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during the pendency of the appeal.

(3) The court may affirm the department's decision, remand the matter for further administrative proceedings, or reverse the department's order of suspension, revocation, or denial.

(4) The actual costs of preparing and transmitting the record to superior court shall be borne by the petitioner and awarded by the court to the department if the department's decision is affirmed. The costs shall be borne by the department if the department's decision is remanded or reversed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. When it has been finally determined under the procedures of sections 4 through 8 of this act that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been suspended or revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which the person has a driver's license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. When the department is required to suspend, revoke, or deny a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive under either section 4 of this act or under RCW 46.61.515(5), and (1) the department has earlier imposed a suspension, revocation, or denial under the other of those two provisions or is preparing to do so, and (2) each of those two sanctions has been required as the result of civil or criminal proceedings arising from the same arrest, the department shall proceed as follows:

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions;

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under section 4 of this act but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The director, or his or her designee, shall administer and enforce the provisions of sections 3 through 11 of this act. The director may adopt such rules as he or she deems necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

(2) The department shall prescribe and provide such forms as it deems necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

Sec. 17, Section 27, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 212, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.20.311 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, ~~((such))~~ the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to ((such)) the person any new, duplicate, or renewal ((of)) license until ((such)) the person ((shall)) pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and ((shall)) give and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with ((an additional)) a reinstatement fee in the amount of twenty dollars, but if the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of ((such)) the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until ((such)) the person ((shall)) give and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 or was imposed under section 4 (1) (a) or (b) of this act, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (a) After the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department; (b) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.61.515(5) (b) or (c); (c) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; (d) after the expiration of one year in cases of revocation for the first refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; or (e) after the expiration of two years in cases of revocation for the second refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308. After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with a reinstatement fee in the amount of twenty dollars, but if the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was denied under ~~((RCW 46.20.308(3)))~~ section 4 of this act shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of another state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

(1) Until July 1, 1984, thirty dollars of any driver's license reinstatement fee paid under RCW 46.20.311 when the suspension or revocation was for a violation involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, shall be deposited by the department in the DWI impact account, hereby created, of the general fund.

(2) By December 31, 1983, and by August 1, 1984, the office of financial management shall distribute the proceeds of the DWI impact account to the counties for the increased needs of the courts, the prosecuting attorneys, the public defenders, and local law enforcement in handling cases involving driving while intoxicated. To receive a grant from the DWI impact account, a county shall establish, to the satisfaction of the office of financial management, its need for the funds, that a satisfactory effort by the county is being maintained to the extent possible with available funds, and that local resources have been exhausted.

(3) In making grants from the DWI impact account, the office of financial management shall consider the following:

(a) The number of arrests for driving while intoxicated made in the county in the immediately preceding fiscal year;

(b) The percentage of change over the corresponding number for the second preceding fiscal year;

(c) The judicial caseload predicted by the administrator for the courts for the current fiscal year;

(d) Increases in financial support provided by counties for enforcement and conviction relating to offenses involving driving while intoxicated; and

(e) The increase in efforts of law enforcement agencies to arrest persons violating laws against driving while intoxicated.

(4) This section shall expire on August 31, 1984.

Sec. 21. Section 62, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 27, chapter 47, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.515 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not more than ~~((five))~~ seven hundred fifty dollars. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course at an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services. If, after completing an alcohol evaluation at the alcohol information school, the convicted person is found to have a serious alcohol problem, the alcohol information school may recommend more intensive alcoholism treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. In the alternative, the court may bypass alcohol information school if the court determines that more intensive alcoholism treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services is appropriate. Standards for approval shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If ~~((such person))~~, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete diagnostic evaluation at an alcoholism program approved by the department of social and health services or other diagnostic evaluation as the court designates. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor ~~((PROVIDED: That))~~. All funds derived from ((such)) the penalty assessment ((shall be)) are in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.030 and shall be for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. ~~((Such))~~ The penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from ~~((such))~~ the penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either ~~((such))~~ offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age eighteen or for ((not less than thirty)) ninety days~~((PROVIDED: That the court may recommend that no suspension action be taken)), whichever is longer.~~ The treatment agency shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either ~~((such))~~ offense within a five-year period, be ~~((suspended))~~ revoked by the department for ~~((not less than sixty days))~~ one year. The treatment agency shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports as provided in RCW 46.20.031 and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction ~~((under either such offense))~~ of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, or any combination thereof within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for two years.

(6) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, ~~((such))~~ the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case ~~((such))~~ the conviction is sustained on appeal ~~((such))~~ the revocation or suspension ~~((shall))~~ takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

of the date of ~~((such))~~ the conviction, and shall continue with the same force and effect as any suspension or revocation under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Except as limited by the maximum penalties authorized by law, no city or town may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No county may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided for in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The standing committees on transportation and judiciary of the state senate and house of representatives, with the assistance of the department of licensing, shall conduct a joint study to analyze and evaluate the issues involved in authorizing administrative revocation of the driver's license of a person who operates a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. The study shall include an analysis and evaluation of other states that have enacted statutes that provide for administrative revocation of driver's licenses, the effects on reducing drunken driving, the cost of implementing and administering such a program, and any impacts on the criminal justice system.

The committees shall submit a report that includes their findings and recommendations, together with proposed legislation, to the legislature before January 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The legislature finds that previous attempts to curtail the incidence of driving while intoxicated have been inadequate. The legislature further finds that property loss, injury, and death caused by drinking drivers have reached unacceptable levels. This act is intended to convey the seriousness with which the legislature views this problem. To that end the legislature seeks to insure swift and certain punishment for those who drink and drive. The legislature does not intend to discourage or deter courts and other agencies from directing or providing treatment for problem drinkers. However, it is the intent that such treatment, where appropriate, be in addition to and not in lieu of the sanctions to be applied to all those convicted of driving while intoxicated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. Sections 3 through 12 of this act are added to chapter 46.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. Sections 2, 3 through 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, and 26 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1985. The director of licensing may immediately take such steps as are necessary to insure that all sections of this act are implemented on their respective effective dates.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 431 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 13.06.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intention of the legislature in enacting this chapter to increase the protection afforded the citizens of this state, to ~~((permit a more even administration of justice in the juvenile courts, to rehabilitate juvenile offenders, and to reduce the necessity for commitment of juveniles to state juvenile correctional institutions by strengthening and improving the supervision of juveniles placed on probation by the juvenile courts of this state))~~ require community planning, to provide necessary services and supervision for juvenile offenders in the community when appropriate, to reduce reliance on state-operated correctional institutions for offenders whose standard range disposition does not include commitment of the offender to the department, and to encourage the community to efficiently and effectively provide community services to juvenile offenders through consolidation of service delivery systems.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

From any state moneys made available for such purpose, the state of Washington, through the department of social and health services, shall, in accordance with this chapter and applicable departmental rules, share in the cost of ((supervising probationers who could otherwise be committed by the juvenile courts to the custody of the secretary of social and health services, and who are granted probation and placed in special supervision programs*)) providing services to juveniles.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall adopt rules prescribing minimum standards for the operation of (~~((special supervision programs))~~) consolidated juvenile services programs for juvenile offenders and such other rules as may be necessary for the administration of the provisions of this chapter. ((A 'special supervision program' is one embodying a degree of supervision substantially above the usual or the use of new techniques in addition to, or instead of routine supervision techniques, and which meets the standards prescribed pursuant to this section. Such)) Consolidated juvenile services is a mechanism through which the department of social and health services supports local county comprehensive program plans in providing services to offender groups. Standards shall be sufficiently flexible to ((foster the development of new and improved supervision practices)) support current programs which have demonstrated effectiveness and efficiency, to foster development of innovative and improved services for juvenile offenders, to permit direct contracting with private vendors, and to encourage community support for and assistance to local programs. The secretary of social and health services shall seek advice from appropriate (~~(county officials))~~) juvenile justice system participants in developing standards and procedures for the operation of ((special supervision programs)) consolidated juvenile services programs and the distribution of funds under this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county or group of counties may make application to the department of social and health services in the manner and form prescribed by the department for financial aid for the cost of (~~((special supervision programs))~~) consolidated juvenile services programs. Any such application must include a plan or plans for providing (~~(special supervision of juveniles on probation and a method for certifying that moneys received are spent only for these 'special supervision programs'))~~) consolidated services to juvenile offenders in accordance with standards of the department.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall be entitled to receive any state funds provided by this chapter until its application (~~(its)~~) and plan are approved, and unless and until the minimum standards prescribed by the department of social and health services are complied with and then only on such terms as are set forth (~~(hereafter)~~) in this section.

(1) (~~((A base commitment rate for each county and for the state as a whole shall be calculated by the department of social and health services. The base commitment rate shall be determined by computing the ratio of the number of juveniles committed to state juvenile correctional institutions plus the number of juveniles who have been convicted of felonies and committed to state correctional institutions after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction of their cases and remanded them for prosecution in the superior courts, to the county population, such ratio to be expressed in a rate per hundred thousand population, for each of the calendar years 1964 through 1968. The average of these rates for a county for the five year period or the average of the last two years of the period, whichever is higher, shall be the base commitment rate, as certified by the secretary. PROVIDED, That a county may elect as its base commitment rate the average of the base commitment rates of all counties in the state over the last two years of the period described above. The county and state population shall be that certified as of April 1st of each year by the office of financial management, such population figures to be provided to the secretary of social and health services not later than June 30th of each year.~~))

(2) An annual commitment rate shall be calculated by the department at the end of each year for each participating county and for the state as a whole, in a like manner as provided in subsection (1). The annual commitment rate shall exclude commitments that fall within the high risk categories as defined by the department.

(3) The amount that may be paid to a county pursuant to this chapter shall be the standard cost of the operation of a special supervision program based upon workload standards established by the department. Payment shall not exceed five thousand dollars per commitment reduction. The 'commitment reduction number' is obtained by subtracting (a) the product of the most recent annual commitment rate and population of the county for the same year from (b) the product of the base commitment rate and population of the county for the same year employed in (a).

(4) The distribution of funds to a county or a group of counties shall be based on criteria including but not limited to the county's per capita income, regional or county at-risk populations, juvenile crime or arrest rates, existing programs, and the effectiveness and efficiency of consolidating local programs towards reducing commitments to state correctional facilities for offenders whose standard range disposition does not include commitment of the offender to the department and reducing reliance on other traditional departmental services.

(2) The secretary will reimburse a county upon presentation and approval of a valid claim pursuant to the provisions of this chapter based on actual performance in (~~(reducing the annual commitment rate from its base commitment rate. Whenever a claim made by a county~~

pursuant to this chapter, covering a prior year, is found to be in error, an adjustment may be made on a current claim without the necessity of applying the adjustment to the allocation for the prior year:

(5) In the event a participating county earns in a payment period less than one-half of the sum paid in the previous payment period because of extremely unusual circumstances claimed by the county and verified by the secretary of the department of social and health services, the secretary may pay to the county a sum not to exceed actual program expenditures, provided, however, that in subsequent periods the county will be paid only the amount earned. PROVIDED: That the amendatory provisions of subsection (5) of this act may be applied to payment periods prior to May 20, 1971:

(6) If the amount received by a county in reimbursement of its expenditures in a calendar year is less than the maximum amount computed under subsection (3) above, the difference may be paid to the county as reimbursement of program costs during the next two succeeding years upon receipt of valid claims for reimbursement of program expenses:

(7) Meeting the terms and conditions of the approved plan and contract. Funds received by participating counties under this chapter shall not be used to replace local funds for existing programs ((for delinquent juveniles or to develop county institutional programs:

(8) Any county averaging less than thirty commitments annually during either the two year or five year period used to determine the base commitment rate as defined in subsection (1) above may:

(a) apply for subsidies under subsection (1); or

(b) as an alternative, elect to receive from the state the salary of one full time additional probation officer and related employee benefits; or

(c) elect to receive from the state the salary and related employee benefits of one full time additional probation officer and in addition, reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services; or

(d) elect to receive from the state reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total cost will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services:

(9) In the event a county chooses one of the alternative proposals in subsection (8), it will be eligible for reimbursement only so long as the officer and supporting services are wholly used in the performance of probation services to supervision of persons eligible for state commitment and are paid the salary referred to in this section in accordance with a salary schedule adopted by rule of the department and:

(a) if its base commitment rate is below the state average, its annual commitment rate does not exceed the base commitment rate for the entire state; or

(b) if its base commitment rate is above the state average, its annual commitment rate does not in the year exceed by two its own base commitment rate:

(10) Where any county does not have a juvenile probation officer, but obtains such services by agreement with another county or counties, or, where two or more counties mutually provide probation services by agreement for such counties, then under such circumstances the secretary may make the computations and payments under this chapter as though the counties served with probation services were one geographical unit).

Sec. 6. Section 57, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) The juvenile disposition standards commission shall propose to the legislature no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year disposition standards for all offenses. The standards shall establish, in accordance with the purposes of this chapter, ranges which may include terms of confinement and/or community supervision established on the basis of a youth's age, the instant offense, and the history and seriousness of previous offenses, but in no case may the period of confinement and supervision exceed that to which an adult may be subjected for the same offense(s). Standards proposed for offenders listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) shall include a range of confinement which may not be less than thirty days. No standard range may include a period of confinement which includes both more than thirty, and thirty or less, days. Disposition standards proposed by the commission shall provide that in all cases where a youth is sentenced to a term of confinement in excess of thirty days the department may impose an additional period of parole not to exceed eighteen months. Standards of confinement which may be proposed may relate only to the length of the proposed terms and not to the nature of the security to be imposed. In developing proposed disposition standards between the effective date of this act and June 30, 1985, the commission shall consider the capacity of the state juvenile facilities and the projected impact of the proposed standards on that capacity through June 30, 1985.

(b) The secretary shall submit guidelines pertaining to the nature of the security to be imposed on youth placed in his or her custody based on the age, offense(s), and criminal history of the juvenile offender. Such guidelines shall be submitted to the legislature for its review no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year. At the same time the secretary shall submit a report on security at juvenile facilities during the preceding two-year period. The report shall include the number of escapes from each juvenile facility, the most serious offense for which each escapee had been confined, the number and nature of offenses found to have been committed by juveniles while on escape status, the number of authorized leaves granted, the number of failures to comply with leave requirements, the number and nature of offenses committed while on leave, and the number and nature of offenses committed by juveniles while in the community on minimum security status; to the extent this information is available to the secretary. The department shall include security status definitions in the security guidelines it submits to the legislature pursuant to this section.

(2) If the commission fails to propose disposition standards as provided in this section, the existing standards shall remain in effect and may be adopted by the legislature or referred to the commission for modification as provided in subsection (3) of this section. If the standards are referred for modification, the provisions of subsection (4) shall be applicable.

(3) The legislature may adopt the proposed standards or refer the proposed standards to the commission for modification. If the legislature fails to adopt or refer the proposed standards to the commission by February 15th of the following year, the proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(4) If the legislature refers the proposed standards to the commission for modification on or before February 15th, the commission shall resubmit the proposed modifications to the legislature no later than March 1st. The legislature may adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards. If the legislature fails to adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards by April 1st, the resubmitted proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(5) In developing and promulgating the permissible ranges of confinement under this section the commission shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Where the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term in the range may be no less than fifty percent of the maximum term in the range;

(b) Where the maximum term in the range is greater than ninety days but not greater than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) Where the maximum term in the range is more than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than eighty percent of the maximum term in the range.

(17) 'Restitution' means financial reimbursement by the offender to the victim, and shall be limited to easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for medical treatment for physical injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from physical injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses. Nothing in this chapter shall limit or replace civil remedies or defenses available to the victim or offender;

Sec. 8. Section 70, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the respondent is found to be a serious offender, the court shall commit the offender to the department for the standard range of disposition for the offense.

If the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusion, that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition outside the standard range shall be determinate and shall be comprised of confinement or community supervision, or a combination thereof. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. A disposition outside the standard range is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Where the respondent is found to be a minor or first offender, the court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision. If the court determines that a disposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice the court may impose another disposition. A disposition other than a community supervision may be imposed only after the court enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusions that imposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

Any disposition other than community supervision may be appealed as provided in RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition of community supervision may not be appealed under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(3) Where a respondent is found to have committed an offense for which the respondent declined to enter into a diversion agreement, the court shall impose a term of community supervision limited to the conditions allowed in a diversion agreement as provided in RCW 13.40.080(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(4) If a respondent is found to be a middle offender:

(a) The court shall impose a determinate disposition within the standard range(s) for such offense: PROVIDED, That if the standard range includes a term of confinement exceeding thirty days, commitment shall be to the department for the standard range of confinement; or

(b) The court shall impose a determinate disposition of community supervision and/or up to thirty days confinement in which case, if confinement has been imposed, the court shall state either aggravating or mitigating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150 as now or hereafter amended.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition as provided in subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) A disposition pursuant to subsection (4)(c) of this section is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition pursuant to subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) Whenever a juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time spent in detention prior to a dispositional order, the dispositional order shall specifically state the number of days of credit for time served.

(6) In its dispositional order, the court shall not suspend or defer the imposition or the execution of the disposition.

(7) In no case shall the term of confinement imposed by the court at disposition exceed that to which an adult could be subjected for the same offense.

Sec. 9. Section 73, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 69, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.40.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In its dispositional order, the court shall require the respondent to make restitution to any persons who have suffered loss or damage as a result of the offense committed by the respondent. In addition, restitution may be ordered for loss or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which, pursuant to a plea agreement, are not prosecuted. The payment of restitution shall be in addition to any punishment which is imposed pursuant to the other provisions of this chapter. The court may determine the amount, terms, and conditions of the restitution. If the respondent participated in the crime with another person or other persons, all such participants shall be jointly and severally responsible for the payment of restitution. The court may not require the respondent to pay full or partial restitution if the respondent reasonably satisfies the court that he or she does not have the means to make full or partial restitution and could not reasonably acquire the means to pay such restitution. In cases where an offender has been committed to the department for a period of confinement exceeding fifteen weeks, restitution may be waived.

(2) A respondent under obligation to pay restitution may petition the court for modification of the restitution order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 13.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A juvenile sentenced to a term of confinement to be served under the supervision of the department shall not be released from the physical custody of the department prior to the release date established under RCW 13.40.210 except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) A juvenile serving a term of confinement under the supervision of the department may be released on authorized leave from the physical custody of the department only if consistent with public safety and if:

(a) Sixty percent of the minimum term of confinement has been served; and

(b) The purpose of the leave is to enable the juvenile:

(i) To visit the juvenile's family for the purpose of strengthening or preserving family relationships;

(ii) To make plans for parole or release which require the juvenile's personal appearance in the community and which will facilitate the juvenile's reintegration into the community; or

(iii) To make plans for a residential placement out of the juvenile's home which requires the juvenile's personal appearance in the community.

(3) No authorized leave may exceed seven consecutive days. The total of all pre-minimum term authorized leaves granted to a juvenile prior to final discharge from confinement shall not exceed thirty days.

(4) Prior to authorizing a leave, the secretary shall require a written leave plan, which shall detail the purpose of the leave and how it is to be achieved, the address at which the juvenile shall reside, the identity of the person responsible for supervising the juvenile during the leave, and a statement by such person acknowledging familiarity with the leave plan and agreeing to supervise the juvenile and to notify the secretary immediately if the juvenile violates any terms or conditions of the leave. The leave plan shall include such terms and conditions as the secretary deems appropriate and shall be signed by the juvenile.

(5) Upon authorizing a leave, the secretary shall issue to the juvenile an authorized leave order which shall contain the name of the juvenile, the fact that the juvenile is on leave from a designated facility, the time period of the leave, and the identity of an appropriate official of the department to contact when necessary. The authorized leave order shall be carried by the juvenile at all times while on leave.

(6) Prior to the commencement of any authorized leave, the secretary shall give notice of the leave to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction in which the juvenile will reside during the leave period. The notice shall include the identity of the juvenile, the time period of the leave, the residence of the juvenile during the leave, and the identity of the person responsible for supervising the juvenile during the leave.

(7) The secretary may authorize a leave, which shall not exceed forty-eight hours plus travel time, to meet an emergency situation such as a death or critical illness of a member of the juvenile's family. The secretary may authorize a leave, which shall not exceed the period of time medically necessary, to obtain medical care not available in a juvenile facility maintained by the department. In cases of emergency or medical leave the secretary may waive all or any portions of subsections (2)(a), (3), (4), (5), and (6) of this section.

(8) If requested by the juvenile's victim or the victim's immediate family prior to confinement, the secretary shall give notice of any leave to the victim or the victim's immediate family.

(9) A juvenile who violates any condition of an authorized leave plan may be taken into custody and returned to the department in the same manner as an adult in identical circumstances.

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a juvenile placed in minimum security status may participate in work, educational, community service, or treatment programs in the community up to twelve hours a day if approved by the secretary. Such a release shall not be deemed a leave of absence.

Sec. 11. Section 75, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 71, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.40.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall, except in the case of a juvenile committed by a court to a term of confinement in a state institution outside the appropriate standard range for the offense(s) for which the juvenile was found to be guilty established pursuant to RCW 13.40.030, as now or hereafter amended, set a release or discharge date for each juvenile committed to its custody which shall be within the prescribed range to which a juvenile has been committed. Such dates shall be determined prior to the expiration of sixty percent of a juvenile's minimum term of confinement included within the prescribed range to which the juvenile has been committed. The secretary shall release any juvenile committed to the custody of the department within four calendar days prior to the juvenile's release date or on the release date set under this chapter: PROVIDED, That days spent in the custody of the department shall be tolled by any period of time during which a juvenile has absented himself or herself from the department's supervision without the prior approval of the secretary or the secretary's designee.

(2) The secretary shall monitor the average daily population of the state's juvenile residential facilities. When the secretary concludes that in-residence population of residential facilities exceeds one hundred five percent of the rated bed capacity specified in statute, or in absence of such specification, as specified by the department in rule, the secretary may, until June 30, 1985, recommend reductions to the governor. On certification by the governor that the recommended reductions are necessary, the secretary may have temporary authority until June 30, 1985, to administratively release a sufficient number of offenders to reduce in-residence population to one hundred percent of rated bed capacity. The secretary shall release those offenders who have served the greatest proportion of their sentence. However, the secretary may deny release in a particular case at the request of an offender, or if the secretary finds that there is no responsible custodian, as determined by the department, to whom to release the offender, or if the release of the offender would pose a clear danger to society. The department shall notify the committing court of the release. In no event shall a serious offender, as defined in RCW 13.40.020(1) be granted release under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) Following the juvenile's release pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the secretary may require the juvenile to comply with a program of parole to be administered by the department in his or her community which shall last no longer than eighteen months. Such a parole program shall be mandatory for offenders released under subsection (2) of this section. The secretary shall, for the period of parole, facilitate the juvenile's reintegration into his or her community and to further this goal may require the juvenile to: (a) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment; (b) report as directed to a parole officer; (c) pursue a course of study or vocational training; (d) remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the department of any change in his or her address; and (e) refrain from committing new offenses. After termination of the parole period, the juvenile shall be discharged from the department's supervision.

~~((3))~~ (4) The department may also modify parole for violation thereof. If, after affording a juvenile all of the due process rights to which he or she would be entitled if the juvenile were an adult, the secretary finds that a juvenile has violated a condition of his or her parole, the secretary shall order one of the following which is reasonably likely to effectuate the purpose of the parole and to protect the public: (a) Continued supervision under the same conditions previously imposed; (b) intensified supervision with increased reporting requirements; (c) additional conditions of supervision authorized by this chapter; and (d) imposition of a period of confinement not to exceed thirty days in a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state of Washington or any city or county for a portion of each day or for a certain number of days each week with the balance of the days or weeks spent under supervision.

~~((4))~~ (5) A parole officer of the department of social and health services shall have the power to arrest a juvenile under his or her supervision on the same grounds as a law enforcement officer would be authorized to arrest such person.

Sec. 12. Section 72.05.130, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 8, chapter 217, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 72.05.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall establish, maintain, operate and administer a comprehensive program for the custody, care, education, treatment, instruction, guidance, control and rehabilitation of all persons who may be committed or admitted to institutions, schools, or other facilities controlled and operated by the department, except for the programs of education provided pursuant to RCW 28A.58.772 through 28A.58.776, as now or hereafter amended, which shall be established, operated and administered by the school district conducting the program, and in order to accomplish these purposes, the powers and duties of the secretary shall include the following:

(1) The assembling, analyzing, tabulating, and reproduction in report form, of statistics and other data with respect to children with behavior problems in the state of Washington, including, but not limited to, the extent, kind, and causes of such behavior problems in the different areas and population centers of the state. Such reports shall not be open to public inspection, but shall be open to the inspection of the governor and to the superior court judges of the state of Washington.

(2) The establishment and supervision of diagnostic facilities and services in connection with the custody, care, and treatment of mentally and physically handicapped, and behavior problem children who may be committed or admitted to any of the institutions, schools, or facilities controlled and operated by the department, or who may be referred for such diagnosis and treatment by any superior court of this state. Such diagnostic services may be established in connection with, or apart from, any other state institution under the supervision and direction of the secretary. Such diagnostic services shall be available to the superior courts of the state for persons referred for such services by them prior to commitment, or admission to, any school, institution, or other facility. Such diagnostic services shall also be available to other departments of the state. When the secretary determines it necessary, the secretary may create waiting lists and set priorities for use of diagnostic services for juvenile offenders on the basis of those most severely in need.

(3) The supervision of all persons committed or admitted to any institution, school, or other facility operated by the department, and the transfer of such persons from any such institution, school, or facility to any other such school, institution, or facility; PROVIDED, That where a person has been committed to a minimum security institution, school, or facility by any of the superior courts of this state, a transfer to a close security institution shall be made only with the consent and approval of such court. This shall not apply to the state school for the deaf or the state school for the blind.

(4) The supervision of parole, discharge, or other release, and the post-institutional placement of all persons committed to Green Hill school and Maple Lane school, or such as may be assigned, paroled, or transferred therefrom to other facilities operated by the department. Green Hill school and Maple Lane school are hereby designated as 'close security' institutions to which shall be given the custody of children with the most serious behavior problems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Section 6, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 16, chapter 141, Laws of 1979, section 1, chapter 60, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.06.060 are each repealed.

Sec. 14. Section 3, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 6, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator shall, in any county or judicial district in the state, appoint or designate one or more persons of good character to serve as probation counselors during the pleasure of the administrator. The probation counselor shall:

(1) Receive and examine referrals to the juvenile court for the purpose of considering the filing of a petition or information pursuant to RCW 13.34.040, 13.34.180, and 13.40.070 as now or hereafter amended, and RCW 13.32A.150;

(2) Make recommendations to the court regarding the need for continued detention or shelter care of a child unless otherwise provided in this title;

(3) Arrange and supervise diversion agreements as provided in RCW 13.40.080, as now or hereafter amended, and ensure that the requirements of such agreements are met except as otherwise provided in this title;

(4) Prepare predisposition studies as required in RCW 13.34.120 and 13.40.130, as now or hereafter amended, and be present at the disposition hearing to respond to questions regarding the predisposition study: PROVIDED, That such duties shall be performed by the department of social and health services for cases relating to dependency or to the termination of a parent and child relationship which is filed by the department of social and health services unless otherwise ordered by the court; and

(5) Supervise court orders of disposition to ensure that all requirements of the order are met.

All probation counselors shall possess all the powers conferred upon sheriffs and police officers to serve process and make arrests of juveniles under their supervision for the violation of any state law or county or city ordinance.

The administrator may, in any county or judicial district in the state, appoint one or more persons who shall have charge of detention rooms or houses of detention.

The probation counselors and persons appointed to have charge of detention facilities shall each receive compensation which shall be fixed by the legislative authority of the county, or in cases of joint counties, judicial districts of more than one county, or joint judicial districts such sums as shall be agreed upon by the legislative authorities of the counties affected, and such persons shall be paid as other county officers are paid.

The administrator is hereby authorized, and to the extent possible is encouraged to, contract with private agencies existing within the community for the provision of services to youthful offenders and youth who have entered into diversion agreements pursuant to RCW 13.40.080, as now or hereafter amended.

The administrator shall establish procedures for the collection of fines assessed under RCW 13.40.080 (2)(d) and (13) and for the payment of the fines into the county general fund.

Sec. 15. Section 74, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 70, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.40.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a respondent fails to comply with an order of restitution, community supervision, penalty assessments, or confinement of less than thirty days, the court upon motion of the prosecutor or its own motion, may modify the order after a hearing on the violation.

(2) The hearing shall afford the respondent the same due process of law as would be afforded an adult probationer. The court may issue a summons or a warrant to compel the respondent's appearance. The state shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the fact of the violation. The respondent shall have the burden of showing that the violation was not a (~~willful~~) wilful refusal to comply with the terms of the order. If a respondent has failed to pay a fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or to perform community service hours, as required by the court, it shall be the respondent's burden to show that he or she did not have the means and could not reasonably have acquired the means to pay the fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or perform community service.

(3) (a) If the court finds that a respondent has wilfully violated the terms of an order pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, it may impose a penalty of up to thirty days confinement.

(b) If the violation of the terms of the order under (a) of this subsection is failure to pay fines, penalty assessments, complete community service, or make restitution, the term of confinement imposed under (a) of this subsection shall be assessed at a rate of one day of confinement for each twenty-five dollars or eight hours owed.

(4) If a respondent has been ordered to pay a fine or monetary penalty and due to a change of circumstance cannot reasonably comply with the order, the court, upon motion of the respondent, may order that the unpaid fine or monetary penalty be converted to community service. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty or fine shall be converted at the rate of the prevailing state minimum wage per hour. The monetary penalties or fines collected shall be deposited in the county general fund. A failure to comply with an order under this subsection shall be deemed a failure to comply with an order of community supervision and may be proceeded against as provided in this section.

Sec. 16. Section 62, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A diversion agreement shall be a contract between a juvenile accused of an offense and a diversionary unit whereby the juvenile agrees to fulfill certain conditions in lieu of prosecution. Such agreements may be entered into only after the prosecutor, or probation counselor pursuant to this chapter, has determined that probable cause exists to believe that a crime has been committed and that the juvenile committed it.

(2) A diversion agreement shall be limited to:

(a) Community service not to exceed one hundred fifty hours, not to be performed during school hours if the juvenile is attending school;

(b) Restitution limited to the amount of actual loss incurred by the victim, and to an amount the juvenile has the means or potential means to pay; ~~((and))~~

(c) Attendance at up to two hours of counseling and/or up to ten hours of educational or informational sessions at a community agency: PROVIDED, That the state shall not be liable for costs resulting from the diversionary unit exercising the option to permit diversion agreements to mandate attendance at up to two hours of counseling and/or up to ten hours of educational or informational sessions; and

(d) A fine, not to exceed one hundred dollars. In determining the amount of the fine, the diversion unit shall consider only the juvenile's financial resources and whether the juvenile has the means to pay the fine. The diversion unit shall not consider the financial resources of the juvenile's parents, guardian, or custodian in determining the fine to be imposed.

(3) In assessing periods of community service to be performed and restitution to be paid by a juvenile who has entered into a diversion agreement, the court officer to whom this task is assigned shall to the extent possible involve members of the community. Such members of the community shall meet with the juvenile and advise the court officer as to the terms of the diversion agreement and shall supervise the juvenile in carrying out its terms.

(4) A diversion agreement may not exceed a period of six months for a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or one year for a felony and may include a period extending beyond the eighteenth birthday of the diveree. Any restitution assessed during its term may not exceed an amount which the juvenile could be reasonably expected to pay during this period. If additional time is necessary for the juvenile to complete restitution to the victim, the time period limitations of this subsection may be extended by an additional six months.

(5) The juvenile shall retain the right to be referred to the court at any time prior to the signing of the diversion agreement.

(6) Divertees and potential divertees shall be afforded due process in all contacts with a diversionary unit regardless of whether the juveniles are accepted for diversion or whether the diversion program is successfully completed. Such due process shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) A written diversion agreement shall be executed stating all conditions in clearly understandable language;

(b) Violation of the terms of the agreement shall be the only grounds for termination;

(c) No diveree may be terminated from a diversion program without being given a court hearing, which hearing shall be preceded by:

(i) Written notice of alleged violations of the conditions of the diversion program; and

(ii) Disclosure of all evidence to be offered against the diveree;

(d) The hearing shall be conducted by the juvenile court and shall include:

(i) Opportunity to be heard in person and to present evidence;

(ii) The right to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses;

(iii) A written statement by the court as to the evidence relied on and the reasons for termination, should that be the decision; and

(iv) Demonstration by evidence that the diveree has substantially violated the terms of his or her diversion agreement.

(e) The prosecutor may file an information on the offense for which the diveree was diverted:

(i) In juvenile court if the diveree is under eighteen years of age; or

(ii) In superior court or the appropriate court of limited jurisdiction if the diveree is eighteen years of age or older.

(7) The diversion unit shall be responsible for advising a diveree of his or her rights as provided in this chapter.

(8) The right to counsel shall inure prior to the initial interview for purposes of advising the juvenile as to whether he or she desires to participate in the diversion process or to appear in the juvenile court. The juvenile may be represented by counsel at any critical stage of the diversion process, including intake interviews and termination hearings. The juvenile shall be fully advised at the intake of his or her right to an attorney and of the relevant services an attorney can provide. For the purpose of this section, intake interviews mean all interviews regarding the diversion agreement process.

The juvenile shall be advised that a diversion agreement shall constitute a part of the juvenile's criminal history as defined by RCW 13.40.020(6) as now or hereafter amended. A signed acknowledgment of such advisement shall be obtained from the juvenile, and the document shall be maintained by the diversionary unit together with the diversion agreement, and a copy of both documents shall be delivered to the prosecutor if requested by the prosecutor. The supreme court shall promulgate rules setting forth the content of such advisement in simple language.

(9) When a juvenile enters into a diversion agreement, the juvenile court may receive only the following information for dispositional purposes:

- (a) The fact that a charge or charges were made;
- (b) The fact that a diversion agreement was entered into;
- (c) The juvenile's obligations under such agreement;
- (d) Whether the alleged offender performed his or her obligations under such agreement;

and

- (e) The facts of the alleged offense.

(10) A diversionary unit may refuse to enter into a diversion agreement with a juvenile. It shall immediately refer such juvenile to the court for action and shall forward to the court the criminal complaint and a detailed statement of its reasons for refusing to enter into a diversion agreement. The diversionary unit shall also immediately refer the case to the prosecuting attorney for action if such juvenile (~~fails to make restitution or perform community service as required by~~) violates the terms of the diversion agreement.

(11) A diversionary unit may, in instances where it determines that the act or omission of an act for which a juvenile has been referred to it involved no victim, or where it determines that the juvenile referred to it has no prior criminal history and is alleged to have committed an illegal act involving no threat of or instance of actual physical harm and involving not more than fifty dollars in property loss or damage and that there is no loss outstanding to the person or firm suffering such damage or loss, counsel and release or release such a juvenile without entering into a diversion agreement: PROVIDED, That any juvenile so handled shall be advised that the act or omission of any act for which he or she had been referred shall constitute a part of the juvenile's criminal history as defined by RCW 13.40.020(6) as now or hereafter amended. A signed acknowledgment of such advisement shall be obtained from the juvenile, and the document shall be maintained by the unit, and a copy of the document shall be delivered to the prosecutor if requested by the prosecutor. The supreme court shall promulgate rules setting forth the content of such advisement in simple language: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a juvenile determined to be eligible by a diversionary unit for such release shall retain the same right to counsel and right to have his or her case referred to the court for formal action as any other juvenile referred to the unit.

(12) A diversion unit may supervise the fulfillment of a diversion agreement entered into before the juvenile's eighteenth birthday and which includes a period extending beyond the diveree's eighteenth birthday.

(13) If a fine required by a diversion agreement cannot reasonably be paid due to a change of circumstance, the diversion agreement may be modified at the request of the diveree and with the concurrence of the diversion unit to convert an unpaid fine into community service. The modification of the diversion agreement shall be in writing and signed by the diveree and the diversion unit. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty shall be converted at the rate of the prevailing state minimum wage per hour.

(14) Fines imposed under this section shall be collected and paid into the county general fund in accordance with procedures established by the juvenile court administrator under RCW 13.04.040 and may be used only for juvenile services. In the expenditure of funds for juvenile services, there shall be a maintenance of effort whereby counties exhaust existing resources before using amounts collected under this section.

(15) The authority to impose and collect fines under this section shall terminate on June 30, 1985.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In no case may a juvenile offender be committed by the juvenile court to the department of social and health services for placement in a juvenile correctional institution beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday. A juvenile may be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or the authority of the department of social and health services beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday only if prior to the juvenile's eighteenth birthday:

(a) The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence consisting of the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday; or

(b) The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence outside the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile offender for that period; or

(c) Proceedings are pending seeking the adjudication of a juvenile offense or seeking a disposition order or the enforcement of such an order and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile beyond his or her eighteenth birthday.

(2) If the juvenile court previously has extended jurisdiction beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday and that period of extension has not expired, the court may further extend jurisdiction by written order setting forth its reasons.

(3) In no event may the juvenile court have authority to extend jurisdiction over any juvenile offender beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday.

~~((3))~~ (4) Notwithstanding any extension of jurisdiction over a person pursuant to this section, the juvenile court has no jurisdiction over any offenses alleged to have been committed by a person eighteen years of age or older.

Sec. 18. Section 61, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Complaints referred to the juvenile court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint to determine whether:

(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile did commit the offense.

(2) If the identical alleged acts constitute an offense under both the law of this state and an ordinance of any city or county of this state, state law shall govern the prosecutor's screening and charging decision for both filed and diverted cases.

(3) If the requirements of subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section are met, the prosecutor shall either file an information in juvenile court or divert the case, as set forth in subsections ~~((4-))~~ (5) ~~((and))~~, (6), and (7) of this section. If the prosecutor neither files nor diverts the case, he shall maintain a record, for one year, of such decision and the reasons therefor. In lieu of filing an information or diverting an offense a prosecutor may file a motion to modify community supervision where such offense constitutes a violation of community supervision.

~~((3))~~ (4) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

~~((4))~~ (5) Where a case is legally sufficient, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if:

(a) An alleged offender is accused of a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, assault in the third degree, rape in the third degree, or any other offense listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) (b) or (c); or

(b) An alleged offender is accused of a felony and has a criminal history of at least one class A or class B felony, or two class C felonies, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least two misdemeanors and one additional misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, or at least one class C felony and one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor; or

(c) An alleged offender has been referred by a diversion unit for prosecution or desires prosecution instead of diversion.

~~((5))~~ (6) Where a case is legally sufficient the prosecutor shall divert the case if the alleged offense is a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or violation and the alleged offense(s) in combination with the alleged offender's criminal history do not exceed three offenses or violations and do not include any felonies: PROVIDED, That if the alleged offender is charged with a related offense that must or may be filed under subsections ~~((4))~~ (5) and ~~((6))~~ (7) of this section, a case under this subsection may also be filed.

~~((6))~~ (7) Where a case is legally sufficient and falls into neither subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) nor ~~((5))~~ (6) of this section, it may be filed or diverted. In deciding whether to file or divert an offense under this section the prosecutor shall be guided only by the length, seriousness, and recency of the alleged offender's criminal history and the circumstances surrounding the commission of the alleged offense.

~~((7))~~ (8) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversionary interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile.

~~((8))~~ (9) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through ~~((7))~~ (8) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult, if the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

Sec. 19. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 19, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding may be released to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system may be released to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 20. Section 10, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records not covered by RCW 13.50.050.

(2) Records covered by this section shall be confidential and shall be released only pursuant to this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(3) Records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility of supervising the juvenile. Records covered under this section and maintained by the juvenile courts which relate to the official actions of the agency may be entered in the state-wide juvenile court information system.

(4) A juvenile, his or her parents, the juvenile's attorney and the juvenile's parent's attorney, shall, upon request, be given access to all records and information collected or retained by a juvenile justice or care agency which pertain to the juvenile except:

(a) If it is determined by the agency that release of this information is likely to cause severe psychological or physical harm to the juvenile or his or her parents the agency may withhold the information subject to other order of the court: PROVIDED, That if the court determines that limited release of the information is appropriate, the court may specify terms and conditions for the release of the information; or

(b) If the information or record has been obtained by a juvenile justice or care agency in connection with the provision of counseling, psychological, psychiatric, or medical services to the juvenile, and the juvenile has a legal right to receive those services without the consent of any person or agency, then the information or record may not be disclosed to the juvenile's parents without the informed consent of the juvenile.

(5) A juvenile or his or her parent denied access to any records following an agency determination under subsection (4) of this section may file a motion in juvenile court requesting access to the records. The court shall grant the motion unless it finds access may not be permitted according to the standards found in subsections (4) (a) and (b) of this section.

(6) The person making a motion under subsection (5) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties to the original action and to any agency whose records will be affected by the motion.

(7) Subject to the rules of discovery in civil cases, any party to a proceeding seeking a declaration of dependency or a termination of the parent-child relationship and any party's counsel and the guardian ad litem of any party, shall have access to the records of any natural or adoptive child of the parent, subject to the limitations in subsection (4) of this section.

(8) Information concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family contained in records covered by this section may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Section 7, chapter 214, Laws of 1959, section 203, chapter 141, Laws of 1979, section 94, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.13.070 are each repealed.

(2) The secretary of the department of social and health services may, with the consent of the secretary of the department of corrections, transfer a juvenile offender to the department of corrections if it is established at a hearing before a review board that continued placement of the juvenile offender in an institution for juvenile offenders presents a continuing and serious threat to the safety of others in the institution. The department of social and health services shall establish rules for the conduct of the hearing, including provision of counsel for the juvenile offender.

(3) A juvenile offender transferred to an institution operated by the department of corrections shall not remain in such an institution beyond the maximum term of confinement imposed by the juvenile court.

(4) A juvenile offender who has been transferred to the department of corrections under this section may, in the discretion of the secretary of the department of social and health services and with the consent of the secretary of the department of corrections, be transferred from an institution operated by the department of corrections to a facility for juvenile offenders deemed appropriate by the secretary.

The juvenile and adult sentences shall be served consecutively. In no case shall the secretary credit time served as a result of an adult conviction against the term of confinement ordered by the juvenile court.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 433 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature reaffirms its declarations under RCW 13.34.020 that the family unit is the fundamental resource of American life which should be nurtured and that the family unit should remain intact in the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary. The legislature declares that the goal of serving emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children, potentially dependent children, and families-in-conflict in their own homes to avoid out-of-home placement of the child, when that form of care is premature, unnecessary, or inappropriate, is a high priority of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of social and health services shall address the needs of emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children, potentially dependent children, and families-in-conflict by:

(1) Serving children and families as a unit in the least restrictive setting available and in close proximity to the family home, consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child;

(2) Ensuring that appropriate social and health services are provided to the family unit both prior to the removal of a child from the home and after family reunification;

(3) Developing and implementing comprehensive, preventive, and early intervention social and health services which have demonstrated the ability to delay or reduce the need for out-of-home placements and ameliorate problems before they become chronic or severe;

(4) Developing coordinated social and health services which:

- (a) Identify problems experienced by children and their families early and provide services which are adequate in availability, appropriate to the situation, and effective;
- (b) Seek to bring about meaningful change before family situations become irreversibly destructive and before disturbed psychological behavioral patterns and health problems become severe or permanent;
- (c) Serve children and families in their own homes thus preventing unnecessary out-of-home placement or institutionalization;
- (d) Focus resources on social and health problems as they begin to manifest themselves rather than waiting for chronic and severe patterns of illness, criminality, and dependency to develop which require long-term treatment, maintenance, or custody;
- (e) Reduce duplication of and gaps in service delivery;
- (f) Improve planning, budgeting, and communication among all units of the department serving children and families; and
- (g) Develop outcome standards for measuring the effectiveness of social and health services for children and families.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall address the needs of juvenile offenders whose standard range sentences do not include commitment by developing nonresidential community-based programs designed to reduce the incidence of manifest injustice commitments when consistent with public safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department shall involve a juvenile offender's family as a unit in the treatment process. The department need not involve the family as a unit in cases when family ties have by necessity been irrevocably broken. When the natural parents have been or will be replaced by a foster family or guardian, the new family will be involved in the treatment process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall develop a plan in cooperation with an advisory committee of community representatives appointed by the secretary for the implementation of sections 2 through 4 of this act for submission to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and the senate by November 15, 1983. The plan shall include:

- (1) Policies and procedures for the coordinated and cooperative functioning of all units of the department serving children and families which eliminate duplications, inconsistencies, and conflicting rules;
- (2) Policies and procedures for the coordinated and cooperative functioning of the department with agencies of local government, schools, courts, and the private sector;
- (3) An evaluation of the desirability and feasibility of locating out-of-home placements, treatment programs, and institutions in close geographical proximity to the area or residence of the child and the family;
- (4) Priorities for all departmental units serving children and families;
- (5) Training initiatives directed toward all departmental units and contractors serving children and families;
- (6) Policies and procedures which address the appropriate role of the department of social and health services in fostering services which address the special needs of parents and their young children. The policies and procedures shall pay attention to the unique needs of culturally diverse groups;
- (7) Policies and procedures designed to ensure coordination between all departmental units serving children and families and the public schools;
- (8) Policies for the evaluation, treatment, and referral of children and families by all departmental units serving children and families;
- (9) Procedures for all departmental units serving children and families to use in identifying and meeting the needs of children and families at the local level;
- (10) Changes which may be necessary in statutes to permit the full implementation of sections 2 through 4 of this act;
- (11) An evaluation of whether the existing organizational structure of the department will permit the full implementation of sections 2 through 4 of this act or whether an alternative organizational structure is more appropriate;
- (12) Outcome standards which can be used to measure the effectiveness of social and health service programs; and
- (13) Procedures for the establishment of local volunteer oversight groups within each department service area. The oversight group shall be comprised of parents, professionals in the field of children and family services not employed by the department, local government employees in law enforcement or children and family services, and members of other nonprofit organizations participating in children and family services activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act may be known and cited as the "children and family services act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 4 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 74 RCW; creating new sections; and providing an effective date," and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Mr. D. Nelson moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 520.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Nelson, in most cases in our statutes we have inserted in a number of places 'low-income' and in some sections we have identified and defined what 'low-income' is. Is there any definition of 'poor' in the statute? Do we know what 'poor' is and how it should be referred to?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Isaacson, I do not know if there is a definition of 'poor' in the statutes. I assume that it could be a subject of litigation to determine what 'poor' means. It would be up to the sewer and water districts to make a definition of 'poor' and then to sell that to their customers. There may have been some cases on this, but I'm not aware of them."

The motion was carried.

Mr. Locke: "No, Representative McMullen. That section was deleted because the bill is essentially procedural and clarifies the original intent of the legislature and, therefore, would apply retroactively. Section 2 was considered unnecessary. I've confirmed this with the members of the Senate Judiciary Committee who made the motion to delete section 2."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 289 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state (~~shall be~~) is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. ~~(Such)~~ The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test. The officer shall warn the driver that his refusal to take the test may be used against him in any subsequent criminal trial.

Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of ~~(his)~~ the breath only ~~(-PROVIDED-That)~~. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of ~~(negligent)~~ vehicular homicide ~~(by motor vehicle)~~ as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter ...~~(SB 3106)~~, Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his or her arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of ~~((six months))~~ one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as ~~((hereinbefore))~~ directed in this section ~~((directed))~~, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving ~~((such))~~ the notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of ~~((such))~~ the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court ~~((:PROVIDED: That this stay shall be effective only))~~ so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction ~~((which))~~ that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected ~~((shall have))~~ has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county ~~((wherein))~~ in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1 of this act and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(2) The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that (a) his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test ~~((: The officer shall warn the driver))~~, (b) that his or her privilege to drive will be suspended, revoked, or denied if the test is administered and the test indicates a concentration of alcohol in his or her blood of 0.10 percent or more, and (c) that his or her refusal to take the test may be used against him or her in ~~((any))~~ a subsequent criminal trial.

~~((Unless the person to be tested is unconscious))~~ (3) Except as provided in this subsection and subsection (4) of this section, the chemical test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter ..., (SB 3106), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. ~~((In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.~~

~~((2)) (4) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, and the person shall be deemed to have received the warnings required under subsection (2) of this section.~~

~~((3)) (5) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under subsection (2) of this section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, ~~((after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive.))~~ no test shall be given except as authorized under subsection (3) or (4) of this section. ~~((The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege, if the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.~~~~

~~(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as directed in this section, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving the notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.~~

~~(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.~~

~~(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.)~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) If, after arrest and after the other applicable conditions and requirements of RCW 46.20.308 have been satisfied, a person submits to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily fluids, or such a test has been administered without that person's express consent as permitted by RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4), and the test results indicate an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more by weight, or the person refuses to submit to a test, the arresting officer or other law enforcement officer at whose direction any test has been given shall:

(a) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the department of its intention to suspend, revoke, or deny the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as required by section 5 of this act;

(b) Confiscate the person's Washington state license or permit to drive, if any;

(c) Issue a temporary license as provided for in subsection (2) of this section to any driver who surrenders a current and valid license; and

(d) Immediately notify the department of licensing of the arrest and transmit to the department of licensing any confiscated license or permit and a sworn report that states:

(i) That the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both; and

(ii) That after receipt of the warnings required by RCW 46.20.308(2) the person refused to submit, or submitted to chemical testing, or that a test was administered without the person's express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4); and

(iii) That, if a test was administered, the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were met before administration of the test and that the test was administered in accordance with RCW 46.61.506; and

(iv) That the results of any test administered indicated an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more.

(2) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies with temporary license forms and written notice statements for use under subsection (1) of this section. Any temporary license issued under subsection (1) of this section shall indicate that it is effective for forty-five days from the arrest or, until the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive is sustained at a hearing pursuant to section 6 of this act, whichever occurs first. No temporary license is valid to any greater degree than the license or permit that it replaces.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department shall suspend, revoke, or deny the arrested person's driving privileges as follows:

(a) In the case of a person who has refused a test:

(i) For a first refusal within five years, revocation or denial for one year;

(ii) For a second refusal within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(b) In the case of a person who has submitted to or been administered a test indicating a blood alcohol concentration of 0.10 percent or more:

(i) For a first incident within five years, suspension or denial for ninety days;

(ii) For a second incident within five years, revocation or denial for one year;

(iii) For a third incident within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(c) A suspension, revocation, or denial shall take effect when sustained at a hearing under section 6 of this act, or forty-five days after the person's arrest if no hearing was requested, whichever occurs first.

(2) The department shall not grant or reinstate a person's privilege to drive that has been suspended, revoked, or denied under subsection (1) of this section until it has determined the person is eligible for reinstatement under RCW 46.20.031 and 46.61.515 and is otherwise qualified.

(3) For purposes of this section and section 5 of this act, driving privileges include:

(a) A Washington state driver's license or permit;

(b) A nonresident privilege to drive; and

(c) The privilege of a person to apply for a new or duplicate license or permit or to renew a license, permit, or nonresident privilege.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No suspension, revocation, or denial of a driving privilege under section 4 of this act is effective until the department of licensing or a law enforcement officer acting on its behalf notifies the person in writing by personal service, by certified mail, or by first class mail addressed to that person's last known address of record with the department of the department's intention to suspend, revoke, or deny together with the grounds therefor and allows the person a seven-day period to request in writing that the department provide a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act. The notice shall specify the steps the person must take to obtain a hearing. If no written request for a hearing is postmarked or delivered to the department within seven days from the date of notification, the department shall issue an order effective as provided in section 4 of this act. If a request for a hearing is filed in time, the department shall give the person an opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Administrative hearings held to determine the propriety of any suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under section 4 of this act shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the director.

(2) The department shall fix a time, no more than forty-five days after arrest, and a place for a hearing to be held in the county in which the arrest was made that resulted in a report being transmitted under section 3 of this act. The hearing may be set for some other county by agreement between the department and the person. If the hearing is not held and an order issued under section 8 of this act within forty-five days after arrest, the suspension, revocation, or denial under section 4 of this act shall not be imposed.

(3) The department shall give the person at least fourteen days advance notice of the time and place of hearing, but the period of notice may be waived by the person. RCW 46.20.332 and 46.20.333 apply to the hearings. The department shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by department rule, upon a statement showing the general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought. The subpoena may be issued with like effect by the person's attorney of record or the office of the attorney general, and the form of the subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency, except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of the person's attorney or an assistant attorney general. Every party has the right of cross-examination of any witness who testifies and has the right to submit rebuttal evidence. Subpoenas issued under this section may be enforced in the manner provided by RCW 34.04.105(5).

(4) With respect to arrested drivers who have submitted to or been administered chemical tests, the department by rule may permit the admission into evidence at the hearing of (a) copies of official reports of persons who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist to perform tests or chemical analyses of the blood or breath, as to results of particular tests or analyses performed by that person when the copies have been certified as true copies of the report by the writer of the report, under oath, and (b) certificates of Breathalyzer maintenance operators who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist, as to the testing and calibration of Breathalyzers or similar machines by that person. The reports or certificates may be admitted without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them unless the arrested driver has given written notice received by the department not less than seven days before the date set for the hearing that he or she requests that the person administering the test, or the Breathalyzer maintenance operator, be produced by the department at the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The scope of the administrative hearing under section 6 of this act shall include:

(1) With respect to a person who has refused a chemical test, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest; and

(c) Whether the person refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his or her privilege to drive and that the person had the right to additional tests.

(2) With respect to a person upon whom a chemical test was administered, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest;

(c) Whether the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were satisfied before the administration of the chemical test;

(d) Whether the person either submitted to the test or a test was administered without express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308; and

(e) Whether the test indicated a concentration of alcohol in the person's blood of 0.10 percent, or more. The person may challenge whether the testing methods used were in accordance with RCW 46.61.506 and were valid and reliable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. After a hearing held under section 6 of this act, the department shall order that the appropriate suspension, revocation, or denial of privileges be imposed effective ten days after receipt of the order. In the alternative, the department may order that the administrative action be dismissed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department under section 4 of this act is sustained after a hearing, the person whose license, permit, or privilege is affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest or the county in which the person resides or, if a nonresident of this state, the superior court of Thurston county, for review of the final order of suspension, revocation, or denial by the department. The petition shall be filed within ten days following receipt by the person of the department's final order, or the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived. The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury, and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the department, not shown in the record, testimony on that issue may be taken in court. The scope of the review is limited to that prescribed by RCW 7.16.120, governing writs of certiorari.

(2) The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the suspension, revocation, or denial unless it is stayed by the court after motion and argument. Such a stay may be granted only if the court finds upon the arguments and affidavits presented that there is a reasonable probability that the petitioner will prevail upon the merits of the petition, that the public interest will not be substantially harmed by the stay, and that the petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the order is not stayed. If such a stay is granted it shall provide that it is effective only so long as there is no conviction of the petitioner for a moving violation or no finding that the petitioner has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during the pendency of the appeal.

(3) The court may affirm the department's decision, remand the matter for further administrative proceedings, or reverse the department's order of suspension, revocation, or denial.

(4) The actual costs of preparing and transmitting the record to superior court shall be borne by the petitioner and awarded by the court to the department if the department's decision is affirmed. The costs shall be borne by the department if the department's decision is remanded or reversed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. When it has been finally determined under the procedures of sections 4 through 8 of this act that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been suspended or revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which the person has a driver's license.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. When the department is required to suspend, revoke, or deny a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive under either section 4 of this act or under RCW 46.61.515(5), and (1) the department has earlier imposed a suspension, revocation, or denial under the other of those two provisions or is preparing to do so, and (2) each of those two sanctions has been required as the result of civil or criminal proceedings arising from the same arrest, the department shall proceed as follows:

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions;

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under section 4 of this act but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) The director, or his or her designee, shall administer and enforce the provisions of sections 3 through 11 of this act. The director may adopt such rules as he or she deems necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of ~~((such))~~ the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until ~~((such))~~ the person ~~((shall))~~ gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. (1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 or was imposed under section 4 (1) (a) or (b) of this act, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (a) After the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department; (b) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.61.515(5) (b) or (c); (c) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; (d) after the expiration of one year in cases of revocation for the first refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; or (e) after the expiration of two years in cases of revocation for the second refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308. After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with a reinstatement fee in the amount of twenty dollars, but if the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was denied under (~~RCW 46.20.308(3)~~) section 4 of this act shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(3) Whenever the driver's license of any person is suspended pursuant to Article IV of the nonresident violators compact or RCW 46.23.020, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars. If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of another state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 46.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Until July 1, 1984, thirty dollars of any driver's license reinstatement fee paid under RCW 46.20.311 when the suspension or revocation was for a violation involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, shall be deposited by the department in the DWI impact account, hereby created, of the general fund.

(2) By December 31, 1983, and by August 1, 1984, the office of financial management shall distribute the proceeds of the DWI impact account to the counties for the increased needs of the courts, the prosecuting attorneys, the public defenders, and local law enforcement in handling cases involving driving while intoxicated. To receive a grant from the DWI impact account, a county shall establish, to the satisfaction of the office of financial management, its need for the funds, that a satisfactory effort by the county is being maintained to the extent possible with available funds, and that local resources have been exhausted.

(3) In making grants from the DWI impact account, the office of financial management shall consider the following:

(a) The number of arrests for driving while intoxicated made in the county in the immediately preceding fiscal year;

(b) The percentage of change over the corresponding number for the second preceding fiscal year;

(c) The judicial caseload predicted by the administrator for the courts for the current fiscal year;

(d) Increases in financial support provided by counties for enforcement and conviction relating to offenses involving driving while intoxicated; and

(e) The increase in efforts of law enforcement agencies to arrest persons violating laws against driving while intoxicated.

(4) This section shall expire on August 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 46.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After June 30, 1984, thirty dollars of any driver's license reinstatement fee paid under RCW 46.20.311 when the suspension or revocation was for a violation involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, shall be deposited by the department in the highway safety fund for the exclusive use of the department in implementing sections 3 through 12 of this act.

Sec. 21. Section 62, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter ... (SHB 498), Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.61.515 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not more than ~~(five)~~ seven hundred fifty dollars. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The convicted person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services, as determined by the court. A diagnostic evaluation and treatment recommendation shall be prepared under the direction of the court by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. A copy of the report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. Based on the diagnostic evaluation, the court shall determine whether the convicted person shall be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. Standards for approval for alcohol treatment programs shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a diagnostic evaluation by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. The report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeterrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. All funds derived from the penalty assessment are in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.030 and are for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. The penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from the penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age nineteen or for ((not less than thirty)) ninety days (~~PROVIDED, That the court may recommend that no suspension action be taken~~), whichever is longer. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated alcoholism agency or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either offense within a five-year period, be (~~suspended~~) revoked by the department for ((not less than sixty days)) one year. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated alcoholism agency or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction ((under either such offense)) of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, or any combination thereof within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for two years.

(6) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case the conviction is sustained on appeal the revocation or suspension takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A suspension or revocation of the license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive that is required to be imposed by the department of licensing under RCW 46.61.515 shall be coordinated by the department with any suspension or revocation which has been imposed by the department following any civil action it may have taken pursuant to sections 3 through 12 of this act arising out of the same arrest, as required by section 11 of this act.

The court upon determining that the petitioner is engaged in an occupation or trade ((which)) that makes it essential that the petitioner operate a motor vehicle may stay the effect of the mandatory suspension or revocation, notwithstanding RCW 46.20.270, for a period of not more than thirty days and may set definite restrictions as ((to hours of the day which may not exceed twelve hours in any one day, days of the week, type of occupation, and areas or routes of travel permitted under the occupational driver's license)) provided in section 25 of this act. No person may apply for, and the department may not issue, an occupational license for the first thirty days of any suspension or revocation imposed under RCW 46.61.515.

(4) The director shall cancel an occupational driver's license upon receipt of notice that the holder thereof has been convicted of operating a motor vehicle in violation of its restrictions, or of an offense ~~((which))~~ that pursuant to chapter 46.20 RCW would warrant suspension or revocation of a regular driver's license. The cancellation is effective as of the date of the conviction, and continues with the same force and effect as any suspension or revocation under this title.

Sec. 24. Section 1, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 23 of this act and RCW 46.20.391 are each amended to read as follows:

Counties may acquire, build, operate, and maintain holding, detention, special detention, and correctional facilities as defined in RCW 70.48.020 at any place designated by the county legislative authority within the territorial limits of the county. The facilities comply with the provisions of chapter 70.48 RCW and rules adopted (~~(thereto)~~) thereunder.

Sec. 39. Section 17, chapter 232, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 70.48.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All cities and counties are authorized to establish and maintain farms, camps, and work release programs and facilities, as well as special detention facilities. The facilities shall meet the requirements of chapter 70.48 RCW and any rules adopted thereunder.

(2) Farms and camps may be established either inside or outside the territorial limits of a city or county. A sentence of confinement in a city or county jail may include placement in a farm or camp. Unless directed otherwise by court order, the chief law enforcement officer or department of corrections, may transfer the prisoner to a farm or camp. The sentencing court, chief law enforcement officer, or department of corrections may not transfer to a farm or camp a greater number of prisoners than can be furnished with constructive employment and can be reasonably accommodated.

(3) The city or county may establish a city or county work release program and housing facilities for the prisoners in the program. In such regard, factors such as employment conditions and the condition of jail facilities should be considered. When a work release program is established the following provisions apply:

(a) A person convicted of a felony and placed in a city or county jail is eligible for the work release program. A person sentenced to a city or county jail is eligible for the work release program. The program may be used as a condition of probation for a criminal offense. Good conduct is a condition of participation in the program.

(b) The court may permit a person who is currently, regularly employed to continue his or her employment. The chief law enforcement officer or department of corrections shall make all necessary arrangements if possible. The court may authorize the person to seek suitable employment and may authorize the chief law enforcement officer or department of corrections to make reasonable efforts to find suitable employment for the person. A person participating in the work release program may not work in an establishment where there is a labor dispute.

(c) The work release prisoner shall be confined in a work release facility or jail whenever the prisoner is not employed and between the hours or periods of employment unless the court directs otherwise.

(d) The chief law enforcement officer or (~~(his)~~) a designee shall collect the work release prisoner's earnings and from the earnings make payments for the prisoner's board, personal expenses inside and outside the jail, and share of the administrative expenses of this section. Support payments for the prisoner's dependents, if any, shall be made as directed by the court. With the prisoner's consent, the remaining funds may be used to pay the prisoner's preexisting debts. Any balance shall be retained and paid to the prisoner when the prisoner is discharged.

(e) With court approval the prisoner's sentence may be reduced by one-fourth if the prisoner's conduct, diligence, and general attitude merit the reduction.

(f) If the work release prisoner violates the conditions of custody or employment, the prisoner shall be returned to the sentencing court. The sentencing court may require the prisoner to spend the remainder of the sentence in actual confinement and may cancel any earned reduction of the sentence.

(4) A special detention facility may be operated by a noncorrectional agency or by noncorrectional personnel by contract with the governing unit. The employees shall meet the standards of training and education established by the criminal justice training commission as authorized by RCW 43.101.080. The special detention facility may use combinations of features including, but not limited to, low-security or honor prisoner status, work farm, work release, community review, prisoner facility maintenance and food preparation, training programs, or alcohol or drug rehabilitation programs, with or without cost to the prisoners.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Except as limited by the maximum penalties authorized by law, no city or town may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No county may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided for in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. There is added to chapter 43.59 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington traffic safety commission shall produce and disseminate through all possible media, informational and educational materials explaining the extent of the problems caused by drinking drivers, the need for public involvement in their solution, and the penalties of existing and new laws against driving while intoxicated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The standing committees on transportation and judiciary of the state senate and house of representatives, with the assistance of the department of licensing, shall conduct a joint study to analyze and evaluate the issues involved in authorizing administrative revocation of the driver's license of a person who operates a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. The study shall include an analysis and evaluation of other states that have enacted statutes that provide for administrative revocation of driver's licenses, the effects on reducing drunken driving, the cost of implementing and administering such a program, and any impacts on the criminal justice system.

The committees shall submit a report that includes their findings and recommendations, together with proposed legislation, to the legislature before January 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The legislature finds that previous attempts to curtail the incidence of driving while intoxicated have been inadequate. The legislature further finds that property loss, injury, and death caused by drinking drivers have reached unacceptable levels. This act is intended to convey the seriousness with which the legislature views this problem. To that end the legislature seeks to insure swift and certain punishment for those who drink and drive. The legislature does not intend to discourage or deter courts and other agencies from directing or providing treatment for problem drinkers. However, it is the intent that such treatment, where appropriate, be in addition to and not in lieu of the sanctions to be applied to all those convicted of driving while intoxicated.

Sec. 45. Section 12, chapter 244, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 10.05.120 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(Two)~~ Five years from the date of the court's approval of deferred prosecution for an individual defendant, those dockets that remain in the special court deferred prosecution file relating to such defendant shall be dismissed and the records removed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. Sections 3 through 12 of this act are added to chapter 46.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. Sections 2, 3 through 12, 14, 16, 18, 22, 24, and 26 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1985. The remainder of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1983. The director of licensing may immediately take such steps as are necessary to insure that all sections of this act are implemented on their respective effective dates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

*Sec. 1. Section 50, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 193, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.500 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Membership in the retirement system is terminated when a member retires for service or disability, dies, withdraws his accumulated contributions or does not establish service credit with the retirement system for five consecutive years; however, a member may retain membership in the teachers' retirement system by leaving his accumulated contributions in the teachers' retirement fund under one of the following conditions:

((1)) (a) If he is eligible for retirement;

((2)) (b) If he is a member of another public retirement system in the state of Washington by reason of change in employment and has arranged to have membership extended during the period of such employment;

((3)) (c) If he is not eligible for retirement but has established five or more years of Washington membership service credit.

The prior service certificate becomes void when a member dies, withdraws his accumulated contributions or does not establish service credit with the retirement system for five consecutive years, and any prior administrative interpretation of the board of trustees, consistent with this section, is hereby ratified, affirmed and approved.

(2) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1983 act through June 30, 1984, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(3) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 20, chapter 52, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any member die, or should the individual separate or be separated from service without leave of absence before attaining age sixty years, or should the individual become a beneficiary, except a beneficiary of an optional retirement allowance as provided by RCW 41.40.185 or 41.40.190, the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member except:

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee not previously retired who reenters service shall upon completion of six months of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the director, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following the member's first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which the member held at time of separation.

(3) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1983 act through June 30, 1984, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(4) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(5) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of absence from service for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed;

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance elected to office or appointed to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of return to membership until the date when the member again retires and the member shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3), the member shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and the individual's retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

((5*)) (7) Any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the Washington public employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in RCW 41.40.180(1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Those currently employed members who were eligible to recover service earned prior to July 1, 1953, under a retirement system authorized pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.430, but who failed to do so, shall have until June 30, 1984, to pay the appropriate employee and employer contributions plus interest, as determined by the director of retirement systems, for such service which was not so recovered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A bank or trust company may purchase for its own account shares of stock of a bank or a holding company that owns or controls a bank if the stock of the bank or company is owned exclusively, except to the extent directly qualifying shares are required by law, by depository institutions and the bank or company and all subsidiaries thereof are engaged exclusively in providing services for other depository institutions and their officers, directors, and employees. In no event may the total amount of such stock held by a bank or trust company in any bank or bank holding company exceed at any time ten percent of its capital stock and paid-in and unimpaired surplus, and in no event may the purchase of such stock result in a bank or trust company acquiring more than twenty-five percent of any class of voting securities of such bank or company. Such a bank or bank holding company shall be called a 'banker's bank.'

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of one business day or under a continuing contract are not 'loans or obligations' or 'liabilities' for the purposes of the loan limits established by RCW 30.04.110. However, sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of more than one business day are subject to those limits.

For the purposes of this section, 'sale of federal reserve funds' means any transaction among depository institutions involving the disposal of immediately available funds resulting from credits to deposit balances at federal reserve banks or from credits to new or existing deposit balances due from a correspondent depository institution.

Sec. 3. Section 30.04.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor, the deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit each bank and each trust company at least once in each year, and oftener if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such corporation, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director, officer, employee, or agent of such corporation. ~~((Said))~~ The supervisor may make such other full or partial examinations as deemed necessary and may examine any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington and obtain reports of condition for any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington. The supervisor may visit and examine into the affairs of any nonpublicly held corporation in which the bank, trust company, or bank holding company has an investment or any publicly held corporation the capital stock of which is controlled by the bank, trust company, or bank holding company; may appraise and revalue such corporations' investments and securities; and shall have full access to all the books, records, papers, securities, correspondence, bank accounts, and other papers of such corporations for such purposes. The supervisor may, in his or her discretion, accept in lieu of the examinations required in this section the examinations required under the terms of the federal reserve act for banks which are, or may become, members of a federal reserve bank or the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any wilful false swearing in any examination ~~((shall be))~~ is perjury in the second degree.

Sec. 4. Section 30.04.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The total liability to any bank or trust company of any person for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a firm or association the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall not at any time exceed ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company; but the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values and the discount of commercial or business paper of solvent parties, actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed by him: PROVIDED, That loans secured by collateral security having an ascertained market value of at least fifteen percent more than the amount of the loans secured, shall not be limited by this section.

Loans or obligations shall not be subject under this section to any limitation based upon such capital and surplus to the extent that they are secured or covered by guaranties, or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same, made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

For the purposes of this section, 'capital' includes capital notes or debentures issued under chapter 30.36 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 194, Laws of 1963 and RCW 30.04.128 are each amended to read as follows:

Any state bank or trust company, stock savings bank, or mutual savings bank may invest in the capital stock of banking service corporations ~~((organized for the purpose of performing or providing mechanical, clerical, or record-keeping services for two or more banks))~~. The total amount which any such bank may invest in the shares of such corporations may not exceed in the case of a bank or trust company or stock savings bank, ten percent of its paid in or unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus, or in the case of a mutual savings bank, ten percent of its guaranty fund. Such a bank service corporation may not engage in any activity other than ~~((the performance of services for banks))~~ those permitted by the bank service corporation act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1861, et seq., as amended by P.L. 97-320, and in effect on the effective date of this 1983 act. The performance of any service, and any records maintained by any such corporation for a bank, shall be subject to regulation and examination by the supervisor and appropriate federal agencies to the same extent as if such services or records were being performed or maintained by the bank on its own premises.

Sec. 6. Section 30.04.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1967 and RCW 30.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank or trust company shall pledge or hypothecate any of its securities or assets to any depositor, ~~((or creditor:))~~ except that it may qualify as depository for United States deposits, postal savings funds or other public funds, or funds held in trust and deposited by any public officer by virtue of his office, or funds held by the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof in trust, or for funds of corporations owned or controlled by the United States, and may give such security for such deposits as are required by law or by the officer making the same; and it may give security to its trust department for deposits with itself which represent trust funds invested in savings accounts or which represent fiduciary funds awaiting investment or distribution (~~(- PROVIDED: That any bank or trust company may borrow, for temporary purposes, not to exceed in the aggregate amount the paid-in capital and surplus thereof, and may pledge as security therefor assets of such corporation, not exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed).~~).

Sec. 7. Section 30.04.160, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(When it shall appear to the supervisor that any bank or trust company is habitually borrowing for the purpose of reloaning, he may require such corporation to pay off such borrowed money. Nothing herein shall prevent any bank or trust company from rediscounting in good faith and indorsing any of its negotiable notes, but all such moneys borrowed and all such rediscounts shall at all times show on its books and in its reports. No certificates of deposit shall be issued for the purpose of borrowing money.)~~ No officer of any bank or trust company shall issue the note of such corporation for money borrowed or rediscount any of its notes except when authorized by resolution of its board of directors or by an authorized committee thereof. Violation of any provision of RCW 30.04.140 or 30.04.150 or of this section shall constitute a felony.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all powers (~~(previously)~~) enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business ((activity- PROVIDED: That)) activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States Congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of the effective date of this 1983 act. At least thirty days before investment in corporations or other entities under this chapter, notification by letter shall be made to the supervisor in accordance with such terms and conditions as the supervisor might establish by rule. A bank((- which)) that desires to perform an activity ((which)) that is not expressly authorized by ((the powers enumerated in)) this section(;) shall first apply to the supervisor for authorization to conduct such activity. Within thirty days of the receipt of this application, the supervisor shall determine whether the activity is ((and appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted, whether the activity is apt to create an unsafe or unsound practice by the bank and whether the applicant is capable of performing such an activity. If the supervisor finds the activity to be ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking and the bank is otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant that the activity is authorized. If the supervisor determines that such activity is not ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking or the bank is not otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant in writing. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW((- as now or hereafter amended)). In determining whether a particular activity is ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking, the supervisor shall be guided by ((whether national banks under federal laws and administrative regulations and rulings have the authority to perform such activity)) the rulings of the board of governors of the federal reserve system in making determinations in connection with the powers exercisable by bank holding companies, and the activities performed by other commercial banks or their holding companies. Any activity which may be performed by a bank, except the taking of deposits, may be performed by a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the bank. A bank shall not invest a sum greater than twenty-five percent of its capital and surplus in the capital stock of corporations organized to perform activities authorized by this section.

Sec. 9. Section 30.04.230, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A corporation or association organized under the laws of this state or licensed to transact business in the state, other than a bank or trust company, may acquire any or all shares of stock of any bank, trust company, or national banking association. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the merger, consolidation, or reorganization of a bank or trust company in accordance with this title(~~(-or to permit a)~~).

(2) ~~Unless the terms of this section are complied with, an out-of-state bank holding company ((the operations of which are principally conducted outside this state to)) shall not~~ acquire more than five percent of the shares of the voting stock or all or substantially all of the assets of a bank, trust company, or national banking association the principal operations of which are conducted within this state.

(3) As used in this section a 'bank holding company' means a company that is a bank holding company as defined by the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1941 et seq.). An 'out-of-state bank holding company' is a bank holding company that principally conducts its operations outside this state, as measured by total deposits held or controlled by its bank subsidiaries on the date on which it became a holding company. A 'domestic bank holding company' is a bank holding company that principally conducts its operations within this state, as measured by total deposits held or controlled by its bank subsidiaries on the date on which it became a bank holding company.

(4) Any such acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section by an out-of-state bank holding company requires the express written approval of the supervisor of banking. Approval shall not be granted unless and until the following conditions are met:

(a) An out-of-state bank holding company desiring to make an acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section and the bank, trust company, national banking association, or domestic bank holding company parent thereof, if any, proposed to be acquired shall file an application in writing with the supervisor of banking and pay an investigation fee of five thousand dollars to the supervisor of banking. The application shall contain such information as the supervisor of banking may prescribe by rule as necessary or appropriate for the purpose of making a determination under this section. The application and supporting information and all examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting its investigation shall be confidential and privileged and not subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW. The application and information may be disclosed to federal bank regulatory agencies and to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. In any civil action in which such application or information is sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor and other parties, petition for an in camera review. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions that are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. The application and information shall be discoverable in any judicial action challenging the approval of an acquisition by the supervisor as arbitrary and capricious or unlawful.

(b) The supervisor of banking shall find that:

(i) The bank, trust company, or national banking association that is proposed to be acquired or the domestic bank holding company controlling such bank, trust company, or national banking association is in such a liquidity or financial condition as to be in danger of closing, failing, or insolvency. In making any such determination the supervisor shall be guided by the criteria developed by the federal regulatory agencies with respect to emergency acquisitions under the provisions of 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828(c);

(ii) There is no state bank, trust company, or national banking association doing business in the state of Washington or domestic bank holding company with sufficient resources willing to acquire the entire bank, trust company, or national banking association on at least as favorable terms as the out-of-state bank holding company is willing to acquire it;

(iii) The applicant out-of-state bank holding company has provided all information and documents requested by the supervisor in relation to the application; and

(iv) The applicant out-of-state bank holding company has demonstrated an acceptable record of meeting the credit needs of its entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, consistent with the safe and sound operation of such institution.

(c) The supervisor shall consider:

(i) The financial institution structure of this state; and

(ii) The convenience and needs of the public of this state.

(5) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit, limit, restrict, or subject to further regulation the ownership by a bank of the stock of a bank service corporation or a banker's bank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 30.04.150, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.150 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 241, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.095; and

(2) Section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.112.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 10 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Signed by Senators Moore, Jones, Warnke; Representatives Wang, Sanders.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Wang, the House adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 3182.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3182 as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

Representatives Wang, Sanders, Taylor, West and Sommers spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Kreidler and Lux spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Under the language of the bill, must the appropriate federal regulatory agency be involved?"

Mr. Wang: "Yes. The Federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 requires that the Federal Reserve Board approve the transaction. The existing language of SB 3182 further requires that the state Supervisor of Banking make his findings in accordance with the criteria established by the federal regulatory agencies. In practice, this means that the state Supervisor of Banking must work very closely in consultation with the appropriate federal regulators."

Mr. Sanders: "Will in-state institutions be given information allowing them to make an informed decision as to whether or not they desire to compete for acquisition of the troubled institution?"

Mr. Wang: "Yes. Under section 9(4)(b)(ii), the supervisor must provide such information to potential in-state bidders to make a knowledgeable finding as required by this subsection to the effect that there are no bank or bank holding companies within the state willing to acquire the troubled institutions on at least as favorable terms as the offer made by an out-of-state entity. Thus, at the appropriate time, information must be shared, while avoiding premature disclosure that could endanger further the troubled financial institution. The supervisor is thereby enabled to properly resolve the emergent situation."

Mr. Sanders: "Does the language of the bill ensure that Washington state financial institutions will have an opportunity to match out-of-state offers?"

Mr. Wang: "Yes. That is the explicit requirement of section 9(4)(b)(ii) on page 13. Under the terms of this in-state preference clause, in-state financial institutions which have submitted bids will be given the opportunity to match the terms of the most favorable out-of-state bid, if the out-of-state bid is superior to all in-state bids. If this has not been done, then the supervisor would not be in a position to make a determination under the provisions of section 9(4)(b)(ii)."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3182 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 72; nays, 24; excused, 2.

HB 1094 Prime Sponsor, Representative Moon: Relating to local government. Reported by Committee on Energy & Utilities

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The exercise by public officials of their duties in an objective manner during litigation relating to such duties is a most important public concern. It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to eliminate personal liability and related consequences accruing to public officials resulting from certain acts pertaining to participants' agreements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 5 of this act, unless the context indicates or requires another or different meaning or intent.

(1) 'Joint operating agency' means a municipal corporation created pursuant to RCW 43.52.360.

(2) 'Litigation' means judicial proceedings in which a joint operating agency and a participant are subject to the jurisdiction of the court, and the validity or enforceability of a participants' agreement to which the joint operating agency and the participant are parties is in issue and is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the court.

(3) 'Participant' means any political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi municipal corporation under the laws of the state of Washington that has entered into a contract with a joint operating agency to participate in the construction or acquisition of a project.

(4) 'Participants' agreement' means an agreement pursuant to which a participant has contracted to pay sums to a joint operating agency in connection with a project and which agreement is the subject of litigation.

(5) 'Project' means an installation or facility that is an energy facility as defined in chapter 80.50 RCW, whether or not acquisition or construction, or both, are completed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Neither the members of the legislative body of the participant nor any public official or officer, employee, or agent of any participant acting in good faith pursuant to motion, resolution, or ordinance passed or adopted by the legislative body during litigation, shall have any personal, direct, or vicarious liability by virtue of having approved or disapproved, voted for or against, executed or delivered, or failed to execute or deliver, any agreement or instrument relating to, or carried out, or failed to carry out, performed, or enforced, any covenant or provision in any participants' agreement during litigation. However, nothing in this section exempts any such member of a legislative body or such public official, officer, employee, or agent from mandamus, injunction, and orders, or judgments or decrees in furtherance of such mandamus, injunction, and orders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. When acting in good faith, the carrying out, or causing to be carried out in any capacity, and the refusal to carry out or cause to be carried out in any capacity, of any payment or performance of any participant's obligation under a participants' agreement during litigation regardless of outcome, shall not constitute a misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office for the purposes of chapter 43.09 RCW. However, nothing in this section may be construed to limit rights of legal voters of the state, or of any political subdivision, granted by sections 33 and 34 of Article I of the state Constitution or chapter 29.82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall be added to chapter 43.52 RCW.
