SSB 6103 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Revising provisions on the duties of ski operators and users of commercial ski areas. Reported by Committee on Judiciary MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the sport of skiing is practiced by a large number of Washington residents and attracts a large number of nonresidents to the state, thereby significantly contributing to the economy of Washington. It further finds that there are inherent risks in the sport of skiing, which should be understood by each skier. It is the intent of the legislature to clarify the law in relation to skiing injuries and the risks inherent in the sport of skiing and to establish that certain risks are inherent in that sport.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.117 RCW to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Trails' or 'runs' means those trails or runs that have been marked, signed, or designated by the ski area operator as ski trails or ski runs within the area.

(2) 'Inherent risks of skiing' means those dangers or conditions that are an integral part of the sport of skiing, including: Changing weather conditions; variations or steepness in terrain; snow or ice conditions; surface or subsurface conditions, such as bare spots, forest growth, rocks, and stumps; collisions with lift towers, utility poles, or other structures which are clearly marked or visible with the use of reasonable attention or care; collisions with snowmaking or snowgrooming equipment which is clearly marked in accordance with RCW 70.117.010(9) or visible with the use of reasonable attention or care; collisions with other skiers; and a skier's failure to ski within his or her ability. 'Inherent risks of skiing' do not include: Dangerous latent conditions created by the operator or of which the operator knew or reasonably should have known, and which are not clearly marked or visible with the use of reasonable attention or care; the notice and sign requirements of RCW 70.117.010; or the operation, loading, or maintenance of ski lifts, lift equipment, or similar devices.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 139, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.117.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The operator of any ski area shall maintain a sign system based on international or national standards.

All signs for instruction of the public shall be bold in design with wording short, simple, and to the point. All such signs shall be prominently placed.

Entrances to all machinery, operators', and attendants' rooms shall be posted to the effect that unauthorized persons are not permitted therein.

The sign '((Men)) Working on Lift' or a similar warning sign shall be hung on the main disconnect switch and at control points for starting the auxiliary or prime mover when ((men are)) a person is working on the passenger tramway.

(2) The interior of each reversible aerial tramway and gondola lift shall be prominently posted to show:

(a) The maximum capacity of each reversible aerial tramway and gondola lift in pounds and number of passengers (which shall also be posted at each loading area); and

(b) Instructions for procedure in emergencies.

(3) The following signs shall be posted at all aerial lifts except gondola lifts:

(a) 'Prepare to Unload' (not less than fifty feet ahead of unloading area);

(b) 'Keep Ski Tips Up' (ahead of any point where skis may come in contact with a platform or the snow surface);

(c) 'Unload Here';

(d) 'Safety Gate' (if applicable);

(e) 'Remove Pole Straps from Wrists' (at loading area); and

(f) Signs visible at all points of downhill loading, listing downhill capacity of lift.

(a) 'Prepare to Unload' (not less than fifty feet ahead of unloading area);

(b) 'Stay in Track';

(c) 'Unload Here';

(e) 'Remove Pole Straps from Wrists' (at loading area).

(5) The following signs shall be posted at all tows:

       No Long Hair Exposed'
       (at loading area);
   (b) 'Stay in Track';
   (c) 'Unload Here'; and
   (d) 'Safety Gate'.

(6) All signs required for normal daytime operation shall be in place, and those pertaining to the tramway, lift, or tow operations shall be adequately lighted for night skiing.

(7) If a particular trail or ((slope)) run has been closed to the public by an operator, the operator shall place a notice thereof at the top of the trail or ((slope)) run involved, and no person shall ski on a ((slope)) run or trail which has been designated 'Closed'.

(8) An operator shall place a notice at the embarking terminal or terminals of a lift or tow which has been closed that the lift or tow has been closed and that a person embarking on such a lift or tow shall be considered to be a trespasser.

(9) ((An operator shall prominently place a notice containing the substance of RCW 70.117.030 in such places as are necessary to notify the public:

(96)) Any snow making machines or equipment shall be clearly visible and clearly marked. Snow grooming equipment or any other vehicles shall be equipped with a yellow flashing light at any time the vehicle is moving on or in the vicinity of a ski run; however, low profile vehicles, such as snowmobiles, may be identified in the alternative with a flag on a mast of not less than six feet in height.

(((9))) (10) The operator of any ski area shall maintain a readily visible sign on each rope tow, wire rope tow, j-bar, t-bar, ski lift, or other similar device, advising the users of the device assistance and/or instruction; and

(b) The skiing-ability level recommended for users of the lift and the ((slope)) runs served by the device shall be classified 'easiest', 'more difficult', and 'most difficult'.

Sec. 4, Section 2, chapter 139, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.117.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the specific requirements of this section, all skiers shall conduct themselves within the limits of their individual ability and shall not act in a manner that may contribute to the injury of themselves or any other person. A skier shall be the sole judge of his or her ability to negotiate any trail, run, or uphill track.

(2) No person shall:

object in the uphill ski track which may cause another to fail, while traveling uphill on a ski lift; or

(e) Cross the uphill track of a j-bar, t-bar, rope tow, wire rope tow, or other similar device except at designated locations.

(3) Every person shall maintain control of his or her speed and course at all times, and shall stay clear of any snowgrooming equipment, any vehicle, any lift tower, and any other equipment on the mountain. ((Snow-grooming equipment or any other vehicles shall be equipped with a flashing yellow light at any time the vehicle is moving on or in the vicinity of a ski run;)) The primary duty shall be on the person skiing downhill to avoid any collision with any person or object below him or her.

(4) ((A person shall be the sole judge of his or her ability to negotiate any trail, slope, or uphill track and no action shall be maintained against any operator by reason of the condition of the track, trail, or slope unless the condition results from the negligence of the operator.)

(5)) Any person who boards a rope tow, wire rope tow, j-bar, t-bar, ski lift, or other similar device shall be presumed to have sufficient abilities to use the ((lift)) device. No liability shall attach to any operator or attendant for failure to instruct the person on the use of the device, but a person shall follow any written or verbal instructions that are given regarding the use.

(((5))) (5) Because of the inherent risks in the sport of skiing ((all persons using the ski hill shall exercise reasonable care for their own safety. However, the primary duty shall be on the person skiing downhill to avoid any collision with any person or object below him or her), no person shall maintain any action against or recover from any ski area operator for injury, loss, or damage resulting from any of the inherent risks of skiing.
Any person skiing (or other than improved) outside the confines of trails open for skiing or (slopes) runs open for skiing within the area shall be responsible for any injuries or losses resulting from his or her action.

A person embarking on a lift or tow without authority shall be considered to be a trespasser.

(1) Any person who is involved in a skiing accident and who departs from the scene of the accident without leaving personal identification or otherwise clearly identifying himself or herself before notifying the proper authorities or obtaining assistance, knowing that any other person involved in the accident is in need of medical or other assistance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) An operator shall place a prominent notice containing the substance of this section in such places as are necessary to notify the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 70.117 RCW to read as follows:

SB 6271
Prime Sponsor, Senator Deccio: Regulating care provided in the home to ill, disabled, or infirm persons. Reported by Committee on Health Care

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the availability of home health, hospice, and home care services has improved the quality of life for Washington's citizens. However, the delivery of these services bring risks because the in-home location of services makes their actual delivery virtually invisible. Also, the complexity of products, services, and delivery systems in today's health care delivery system challenges even informed and healthy individuals.
The fact that these services are delivered to the state's most vulnerable population, the ill or disabled who are frequently also elderly, adds to these risks.

It is the intent of the legislature to protect the citizens of Washington state by licensing home health, hospice, and home care agencies. This legislation is not intended to unreasonably restrict entry into the in-home service marketplace. Standards established are intended to be the minimum necessary to ensure safe and competent care, and should be demonstrably related to patient safety and welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a notice has been sent, as required by section 5 of this act, and the total sum due has not been paid as of the date specified in the preliminary lien notice, the lien proposed by this notice attaches as of that date and the owner may deny an occupant access to the space, enter the space, inventory the goods therein, and remove any property found therein to a place of safe keeping. The owner shall then send to the occupant, addressed to the occupant’s last known address and to the alternative address specified in section 13(2) of this act by certified mail, postage prepaid, a notice of lien sale or notice of disposal which shall state all of the following:

(1) That the occupant’s right to use the storage space has terminated and that the occupuant no longer has access to the stored property.

(2) That the stored property is subject to a lien, and the amount of the lien accrued and to accrue prior to the date required to be specified in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) That the property may be sold to satisfy the lien after a specified date which is not less than fourteen days from the date of mailing the lien sale notice, or a minimum of forty-two days after the date when any part of the rent or other charges due from the occupants remain unpaid, whichever is later, unless the amount of the lien is paid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The owner may, subject to sections 10 and 11 of this act, sell the property upon complying with the requirements set forth in section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. After the date of lien sale specified in section 7(3) of this act, and after prior notice of the sale is mailed to the last known address of the occupant, or the alternative address, the owner may sell the property and may apply any income derived from the sale against the rent due the owner, including actual costs of storage of the property. Any excess income derived from the sale of the property under this section shall be held by the owner for the benefit of the occupant for a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no claim is made or action commenced by the occupant for the recovery of the proceeds prior to the expiration of that period of time, the balance shall be turned over to the state as abandonned property. No employee or owner, or family member or agent of an employee or owner, may bid on the property sold at a lien sale authorized under sections 1 through 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any person who has a perfected security interest under Article 62A.9 RCW of the uniform commercial code may claim any personal property subject to the security interest and subject to a lien pursuant to this chapter by paying the total amount due, as specified in the lien notices, for the storage of the property. Upon payment of the total amount due, the owner shall deliver possession of the particular property subject to the security interest to the person who paid the total amount due. The owner shall not be liable to any person for any action taken pursuant to this section if the owner has fully complied with sections 6 and 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Prior to any sale pursuant to section 8 of this act, any person not the occupant claiming a right to the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred for particular actions taken pursuant to this chapter. In that event, the goods shall not be sold, but shall be retained by the owner subject to rent and the terms of this chapter pending a court order directing a particular disposition of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a lien or judgment entered on the lien in favor of the owner on goods stored at a self-service storage facility takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was claimed, despite non­ compliance by the owner of the storage facility with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Each contract for the rental or lease of individual storage space in a self-service storage facility shall be in writing and shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required or permitted by law to be included, a statement requiring the occupant to disclose any lienholders or secured parties who have an interest in the property that is or will be stored in the self-service storage facility, a statement that the occupant’s property will be subject to a claim of lien and may even be sold to satisfy the lien if the rent or other charges due remain unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, and that such actions are authorized by this chapter.

(2) This chapter shall not apply, and the lien authorized by this chapter shall not attach, unless the rental agreement requests, and provides space for, the occupant to give the name and address of another person to whom the preliminary lien notice and subsequent notices required to be given under this chapter may be sent. Notices sent pursuant to section 7 of this act shall be sent to the occupant’s address and the alternative address, if both addresses are provided by the occupant. Failure of an occupant to provide an alternative address shall not affect an owner’s remedies under this chapter or under any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any insurance protecting the personal property stored within the storage space against fire, theft, or damage must be provided by the occupant and shall not be the responsibility of the owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impair or affect the right of the parties to create additional rights, duties, and obligations in and by virtue of the rental agreement. The rights provided by this chapter shall be in addition to all other rights provided by law to a creditor against his or her debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This chapter shall only apply to rental agreements entered into, extended, or renewed after the effective date of this section. Rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section which provide for monthly rental payments but providing no specific termination date shall be subject to this chapter on the first monthly rental payment date next succeeding the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. All rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section, and not extended or renewed after that date, or otherwise made subject to this chapter pursuant to section 16 of this act, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from them, shall remain valid, and may be enforced or terminated in accordance with their terms or as permitted by any other statute or law of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If an owner issues any warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the owner and the occupant are subject to Article 62A.7 RCW (commencing with RCW 62A.7-101) of the uniform commercial code and this chapter does not apply.

Sec. 19. Section 3, chapter 252, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 9, chapter 370, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.85.110 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to (1) any person who purchases property and/or a business opportunity for his own account, or that of a group of which he is a member, or who, as the owner or part owner of property, and/or a business opportunity, in any way disposes of the same; nor, (2) any duly authorized attorney in fact, or an attorney at law in the performance of his duties; nor, (3) any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, guardian, or any person acting under the order of any court, or selling under a deed of trust; nor, (4) any secretary, bookkeeper, accountant, or other office personnel who does not engage in any conduct or activity specified in any of the definitions under RCW 18.85.010; nor, (5) any owner of rental or lease property, members of the owner’s family whether or not residing on such property, or a resident manager of a complex of residential dwelling units wherein such manager resides; nor, (6) any person who manages residential dwelling units on an incidental basis and not as his principal source of income so long as that person does not advertise or hold himself out to the public by any oral or printed solicitation or representation that he is so engaged; nor, (7) only with respect to the rental or lease of individual storage space, any person who owns or manages a self-service storage facility as defined under chapter 19—RCW (sections 1 through 18 of this 1988 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 63.29 RCW to read as follows:

The excess proceeds of a sale conducted pursuant to section 9 of this act by an owner of a self-storage facility to satisfy the lien and costs of storage which are not claimed by the occupant of the storage space or any other person which remains unclaimed for more than one year is presumed abandoned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

SB 6117 Prime Sponsor, Senator Kiskaddon: Creating a pilot program of volun­

Reported by Committee on Human Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that families who care for their child with a developmental disability at home often experience difficulty providing for that person’s twenty-four hour care. The legislature further recognizes that to assist children to become as independent as possible and remain within the family unit, parents need assistance to work effectively with their child. This can be accomplished in part through parent participation in volunteer parent-to-parent support programs and in the provision of in-home family support services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The developmental disabilities planning council shall contract with local nonprofit organizations for volunteer parent-to-parent support programs that will provide access to such programs to parents in all areas of the state.

(2) Each volunteer parent-to-parent support program shall have the following components: (a) Matching volunteer experienced families who have a child with a developmental disability with parents of a newly diagnosed child with a developmental disability or parents in need of assistance related to caring for their developmentally disabled child and (b) education and training to assist families to cope with the special needs associated with raising and caring for a child with a developmental disability and in understanding the services and supports that can be available to them through specialized programs and generic services and support systems.

(3) In each location, the project contractor shall hire paid coordinators to establish, implement, and maintain the volunteer parent-to-parent programs. In addition, the coordinators shall work with local community organizations, groups, clubs, religious institutions, service groups, education entities, and other appropriate organizations and service groups to build community understanding and to explore community receptivity to establishing other methods of volunteer support for children with disabilities and their families.

(4) The volunteer parent-to-parent support programs shall be implemented in consultation with county developmental disabilities boards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The council shall prepare a report on the project to the legislature by January 1, 1990. The report shall include an evaluation of the effects of the project as well as the numbers of families needing family support services who have been formally denied assistance and those who are in need of assistance but who have not requested assistance.

SSB 6118 Prime Sponsor. Committee on Children & Family Services: Providing for the establishment of state child care policy. Reported by Committee on Human Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It shall be the policy of the state of Washington to:

(1) Recognize the family as the most important social and economic unit of society and support the central role parents play in child rearing. All parents are encouraged to participate fully in the effort to improve the quality of child care services.

(2) Promote a variety of culturally and developmentally appropriate child care settings and services of the highest possible quality in accordance with the basic principle of continuity of care. These settings shall include, but not be limited to, family day care homes, mini-centers, centers and schools.

(3) Promote the growth, development and safety of children by working with community groups including providers and parents to establish standards for quality service, training of child care providers, fair and equitable monitoring, and salary levels commensurate with provider responsibilities and support services.

(4) Promote equal access to quality, affordable, socio-economically integrated child care for all children and families.

(5) Facilitate broad community and private sector involvement in the provision of quality child care services to foster economic development and assist industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is established a child care coordinating committee to provide coordination and communication between state agencies responsible for child care and early childhood education services. The child care coordinating committee shall be composed of not less than seventeen nor more than thirty members who shall include:

(a) One representative each from the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and any other agency having responsibility for regulation, provision, or funding of child care services in the state;

(b) One representative from the governor's commission on children;

(c) One representative from the department of trade and economic development;

(d) At least one representative of family home child care providers and one representative of center care providers;

(e) At least one representative of early childhood development experts;

(f) At least one representative of school districts and teachers involved in the provision of child care and preschool programs;

(g) At least one parent education specialist;

(h) At least one representative of resource and referral programs;

(i) One pediatric or other health professional;

(j) At least one representative of college or university child care providers;

(n) At least one employer who provides child care assistance to employees;

(o) Parents of children receiving, or in need of, child care, half of whom shall be parents needing or receiving subsidized child care and half of whom shall be parents who are able to pay for child care.

The named state agencies shall select their representative to the child care coordinating committee. The department of social and health services shall select the remaining members, considering recommendations from lists submitted by professional associations and other interest groups until such time as the committee adopts a member selection process. Staff support for the child care coordinating committee shall be provided by the department of social and health services on an ongoing basis.

The committee shall elect officers from among its membership and shall adopt policies and procedures specifying the lengths of terms, methods for filling vacancies, and other matters necessary to the ongoing functioning of the committee. The secretary of social and health services shall appoint a temporary chair until the committee has adopted policies and elected a chair accordingly. Child care coordinating committee members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) The child care coordinating committee shall:

(a) Serve as an advisory coordinator for all state agencies responsible for early childhood or child care programs for the purpose of improving communication and interagency coordination, but not to review the substance of programs. The committee shall annually review state programs and make recommendations to the agencies and the legislature which will maximize funding and promote furthe enhancement of the policies set forth in section 1 of this act;

(b) Review and propose changes to the child care subsidy system by December 1, 1989;

(c) Review agency administration of the child care expansion grant program described in section 3 of this act;

(d) Review alternative models for child care service systems, in the context of the policies set forth in section 1 of this act, and recommend to the legislature a new child care service structure;

(e) Perform other functions to improve the quantity and quality of child care in the state, including compliance with existing and future prerequisites for federal funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The legislature recognizes that a severe shortage of child care exists to the detriment of all families and employers throughout the state. Many workers are unable to enter or remain in the work force due to a shortage of child care resources. The high costs of starting a child care business create a barrier to the creation of new slots, especially for children with special needs.

(2) A child care expansion grant fund is created in the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services. Grants shall be awarded on a one-time only basis to persons, organizations, or schools needing assistance to start a child care center or mini-center as defined by the department by rule, or to existing licensed child care providers, including family home providers, for the purpose of making capital improvements in order to accommodate handicapped children as defined under chapter 72.40 RCW, sick children, or infant care, or children needing night time care. No grant may exceed ten thousand dollars. Start-up costs shall not include operational costs after the first three months of business.

(3) Child care expansion grants shall be awarded on the basis of need for the proposed services in the community, within appropriated funds.

(4) The department shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW setting forth criteria, application procedures, and methods to assure compliance with the purposes described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

In computing tax there may be deducted from the measure of tax amounts expended for the capital and operation expenses to provide child care in an on-site facility for employees or to directly purchase child care services for employees.

This section shall not apply to expenditures for services provided out-of-state and shall not apply to any type of salary reduction plan.

Taxpayers who take advantage of the tax deduction allowed under this section who cease utilizing their capital investment for child care purposes within five years shall be obligated to pay tax on that portion not taxed in proportion to the amount the investment represents relative to the total tax liability of the taxpayer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are each added to chapter 74.13 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of section 3 of this act.

(2) The sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purpose of increasing the subsidy rates for regular day care, seasonal day care, and reservation day care programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

ESSB 6124 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Health Care & Corrections: Providing technical and financial assistance to assist in the delivery of rural health care systems. Reported by Committee on Health Care MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds and declares that the social and economic well-being of the people of rural areas of Washington is closely related to the state's rural health care delivery system. Demographic, economic, and financial changes have greatly affected the viability of rural health care providers. These providers include, but are not limited to, hospitals, health clinics, community clinics, nursing homes, home health providers, and individual providers. The problems faced by rural health care providers include erratic fluctuations or general decline in rural economies, the aging of the rural population, older physical plants, lack of health care professionals, and inappropriate or burdensome regulations, facility standards, and licensure requirements.

(2) Rural health providers help ensure access to and the availability of preventive, primary, and emergency health care services to rural residents and tourist populations in rural areas. A large percentage of rural health resources are used to provide services to government-sponsored patients. The availability of health care services in rural areas is essential to the integrity of the medicare and medicaid programs;

(3) Rural health providers affect the economic well-being of rural areas. Not only are these facilities a source of employment for rural residents, but also the existence of health care services in a rural community is important to its economic development and ability to attract businesses;

(4) Government regulations and standards for facility and professional licensure and certification are typically appropriate to urban facilities and are, in some cases, inordinately burdensome for rural health care facilities. Such regulations and standards can create barriers to the delivery of innovative, efficient, and cost-effective health care services to better meet the health needs of the rural communities; and

(5) The changing environment in health care delivery has changed how and where health care is provided and includes an increased emphasis on outpatient services, preventive care, home health care, and community-based care. Rural communities need to consider restructuring the delivery of health care services to insure continued availability of adequate community-based health care. Coordination among providers is essential to facilitate the planning necessary to maintain a viable health care delivery system within rural areas of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is created the Washington rural health care commission composed of eleven members; two members shall be the chair and ranking minority member from the senate health care and corrections committee and two members shall be the chair and ranking minority member from the house of representatives health care committee.

(2) The legislative members of the commission shall select seven public members, to serve on the commission, that are representative of rural health care professionals, rural health care providers, those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of rural health care services, industry, consumers, and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with rural health care public policy. The chairs of the senate health care and corrections committee and the house of representatives health care committee shall jointly chair the commission. The ranking minority members of these committees shall jointly vice-chair the commission. The legislative members shall serve as the executive committee.

(3) The commission may hire staff or contract for professional assistance with funds made available for their activities. To the extent possible, the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the house of representatives, and the senate shall provide staff support. The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and services, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs or access to health care.

(4) The public members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members, but shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as specified in RCW 44.04.120.

(5) The commission may establish ad hoc technical advisory committees to assist it with any particular matters deemed necessary and any person serving in such capacity may be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of such committee or the commission in the same manner as public members of the commission. To the extent possible, the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the department of trade and economic development, the department of employment security, the state health coordinating council, and other state agencies shall assist the commission in performing its responsibilities.

(6) The commission shall:

(a) Review current statutes and regulations governing the provision of rural health services, including the licensure, certification, and operation of rural health providers, including hospitals, health districts, rural health clinics, rural community health centers, and rural ambulatory surgical centers. The purpose of the review shall be to identify barriers to cost-effective and efficient health care delivery that are created by statute or regulation. The review shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) Licensure and certification survey processes conducted by both federal and state agencies;
(ii) Processes for review and approval of proposed facility construction or remodeling or establishing new services;
(iii) Mandated personnel requirements; and
(iv) Mandatory information gathering and reporting requirements;
(b) Review issues that affect the current delivery of rural health care. This review shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) Determination of basic health care services to be available to rural residents;
(ii) The need for and availability of emergency and nonemergency transportation to medical care facilities;
(iii) The need for and availability of appropriate health care providers;
(iv) Health care financing;
(v) Coordination among private and public health care providers on a local, regional, and state-wide basis; and
(vi) Use of modern telecommunications between rural and regional and urban medical care centers to facilitate better diagnosis and treatment of patients in rural facilities and for use in training rural health care providers;
(c) Establish operational guidelines or standards for a model alternative rural health facility. The standards shall include, but are not limited to:

(i) The basic array of health services that is appropriate in rural areas;
(ii) Minimum staffing requirements for safe, efficient, and effective operation of these services, commensurate with community practice standards; and
(iii) Other such requirements for operation as the commission deems appropriate to establish minimum standards for licensure;
(d) Develop measurements of the economic impact of rural health care facilities on the communities that they serve. The purpose of the study shall be to establish the role health facilities play in determining the economic viability and development of rural communities;
(e) Review the impact of existing government payment policies and methods on rural health facilities. The purpose of the review shall be to identify current payment practices or standards, make recommendations for change as appropriate, and establish guidelines for payment to model rural health facilities as described in this section; and
(f) Recommend, as deemed appropriate by the commission, that the department of social and health services convey to the federal health care financing administration interest in testing new models of institutional health care delivery in rural areas, and seek such waivers as may be necessary and appropriate to such demonstrations.

(7) The commission shall coordinate its activities with the study of trauma care services authorized by Second Substitute House Bill No. 1713 and other health care policy studies conducted during the commission's term.

(8) The commission shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1988. The report shall include such findings of the commission as are related to the responsibilities identified in this section. The report shall make recommendations to the legislature regarding changes to licensure, certification, and payment systems that will enhance the likelihood that high quality rural health care delivery occurs in a cost-effective and efficient manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.14 RCW to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall compile and make available to the public information regarding medicare health care facility certification options available to hospitals licensed under this title that desire to convert to nonhospital health care facilities. The information provided shall include standards and requirements for certification and procedures for acquiring certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of community development, department of trade and economic development, department of employment security, and department of social and health services are expected to use their present resources and staffing to carry out the requirements of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The sum of ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the Washington rural health care commission for the purposes identified in this act. The senate facilities and operations committee may authorize expenditures for necessary expenses directly related to commission activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "health care:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 70.14 RCW: creating new sections; making an appropriation; providing for the acquisition, use and disposition of grants, and donations." SSB 6128 Prime Sponsor. Committee on Environment & Natural Resources: Revising provisions for park and recreation service areas. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 253, Laws of 1985 and section 1, chapter 218, Laws of 1986 and RCW 36.68.400 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county shall have the power to create park and recreation service areas for the purpose of financing (the acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance or operation of) acquiring, constructing, improving, maintaining, or operating any park, senior citizen activities centers, zoos, aquariums, and recreational facilities as defined in RCW 36.69.010 which shall be owned or leased by the county and administered as other county parks or shall be owned or leased and administered by a city, town or such shall be owned or leased and administered by the park and recreation service area. A park and recreation service area may purchase athletic equipment and supplies, and provide for the upkeep of park buildings, grounds and facilities, and provide custodial, recreational and park program personnel at any park or recreational facility owned or leased by the service area or a county, city, or town. NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The provisions of sections 2 through 11 of this act do not apply:

(a) To seed or grain not intended for sowing purposes;

(b) To seed in storage by, or being transported or consigned to a conditioning establishment for conditioning if the invoice or labeling accompanying the shipment of such seed bears the statement ‘seeds for conditioning’ and if any labeling or other representation that may be made with respect to the unconditioned seed is subject to this chapter;

(c) To any carrier with respect to any seed transported or delivered for transportation in the ordinary course of its business as a carrier if the carrier is not engaged in producing, conditioning, or marketing seeds subject to this chapter; or

(d) Seed stored or transported by the grower of the seed.

(2) No person may be subject to the penalties of this chapter for having sold or offered for sale seeds subject to this chapter that were incorrectly labeled or represented as to kind, species, variety, or type, which seeds cannot be identified by examination or testing laboratory analysis thereof, unless he or she has failed to obtain an invoice, genuine grower’s declaration or other labeling information and to take such other precautions as may be reasonable to ensure the identity to be that stated. A genuine grower’s declaration of variety shall affirm that the grower holds records of proof concerning parent seed, such as invoice and labels.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) When a buyer is damaged by the failure of any agricultural, vegetable, or flower seed to produce or perform as represented by the required label, by warranty, or as a result of negligence, the buyer, as a prerequisite to maintaining a legal action against the dealer of such seed, shall have first provided for the arbitration of the claim. Any statutory period of limitations with respect to such claim shall be tolled from the date arbitration proceedings are instituted until ten days after the date on which the arbitration award becomes final.

(2) Similarly, no such claim may be asserted as a counterclaim or defense in any action brought by a dealer against a buyer until the buyer has first provided for arbitration of the claim. Upon the buyer’s filing of a written notice of intention to assert such a claim as a counterclaim or defense in the action accompanied by a copy of the buyer’s complaint in arbitration filed as provided in this chapter, the action shall be stayed, and any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled with respect to such claim from the date arbitration proceedings are instituted until ten days after the arbitration award becomes final.

(3) If the parties agree to submit the claim to arbitration and to be bound by the arbitration award, then the arbitration shall be subject to chapter 7.04 RCW and the provisions of sections 14, 15, 16, and 17 of this act will not apply to the arbitration. If the parties do not so agree, then the buyer may provide for mandatory arbitration by the arbitration committee under the provisions of sections 14, 15, 16, and 17 of this act. An award rendered in such mandatory arbitration shall not be binding upon the parties and any trial on any claim so arbitrated shall be de novo.

(4) This section applies only to claims, or counterclaims, where the relief sought is, or includes, a monetary amount in excess of ten thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The director shall adopt rules, in conformance with chapter 34.04 RCW, providing for mandatory arbitration under this chapter and governing the proceedings of the arbitration committee. The decisions and proceedings of the arbitration committee shall not be subject to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) To submit a claim to mandatory arbitration, the buyer shall make and file with the department a sworn complaint against the dealer alleging the damages sustained. The buyer shall send a copy of the complaint to the dealer by United States registered mail. A filing fee of ten dollars shall be submitted to the department with each complaint filed and may be recovered from the dealer or other seller upon recommendations of the arbitration committee.

(2) Within twenty days after receipt of a copy of the complaint, the dealer shall file with the department, by United States registered mail, the answer to the complaint. Failure of a dealer to file a timely answer to the complaint shall be so documented for the record.

(3) The director shall, upon receipt of the answer, refer the complaint and answer to the arbitration committee for investigation, findings, and recommendations.
(4) Any dealer may request an investigation by the arbitration committee for any dispute involving seed which may not otherwise be before the arbitration committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) Upon referral of a complaint for investigation, the arbitration committee shall make a prompt and full investigation of the matters complained of and report its award to the director within sixty days of such referral or such later date as parties may determine or as may be required in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The report of the arbitration committee shall include, in addition to its award, recommendations as to costs, if any.

(3) In the course of its investigation, the arbitration committee may examine the buyer and the dealer on all matters that the arbitration committee may consider relevant; may grow a representative sample of the seed referred to in the complaint if considered necessary; and may hold informal hearings at such time and place as the committee chairman may direct upon reasonable notice to all parties. If the committee decides to grow a representative sample of the seed, the sixty-day period identified in this section shall be extended an additional thirty days.

(4) After the committee has made its award, the director shall promptly transmit the report by certified mail to all parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The director shall create an arbitration committee composed of five members, including the director, or a department employee designated by the director, and four members appointed by the director. The director shall make appointments so that the committee is balanced and does not favor the interests of either buyers or dealers. The director shall also appoint four alternates to the committee. In making appointments the director, to the extent practical, shall seek the recommendations of each of the following:

(a) The dean of the college of agriculture and home economics at Washington State University;

(b) The chief officer of an organization in this state representing the interests of seed dealers;

The secretary shall keep accurate records of all such meetings and deliberations and perform such other duties for the commission as the chairman may direct.

(4) The purpose of the committee is to conduct arbitration as provided in this chapter. The committee may be called into session by or at the direction of the director or upon direction of its chairman to consider matters referred to it by the director in accordance with this chapter.

(5) The members of the committee shall receive no compensation for performing their duties but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses: expense reimbursement shall be borne equally by the parties to the arbitration.

(6) For purposes of this chapter, a quorum of four members or their alternates is necessary to conduct an arbitration investigation or to make an award. If a quorum is present, a simple majority of members present shall be sufficient to make a decision. Any member disagreeing with the award may prepare a dissenting opinion and such opinion also will be included in the committee's report.

(7) The director shall make provisions for staff support, including legal advice, as the committee finds necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The director shall have the authority under this chapter to issue and enforce civil infractions according to chapter 7.80 RCW.

PART IV
AIDS EDUCATION IN THE COMMON SCHOOLS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. The legislature finds that the public schools provide a unique and appropriate setting for educating young people about the pathology and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS). The legislature recognizes that schools and communities vary throughout the state and that locally elected school directors should have a significant role in establishing a program of AIDS education in their districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. A new section is added to chapter 28A.05 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The life-threatening dangers of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) and its prevention shall be taught in the public schools of this state. AIDS prevention education shall be limited to the discussion of the life-threatening dangers of the disease, its spread, and prevention. Students shall receive such education at least once each school year beginning no later than the fifth grade.
(2) Each district board of directors shall adopt an AIDS prevention education program which is developed in consultation with teachers, administrators, parents, and other community members including, but not limited to, persons from medical, public health, and mental health organizations and agencies so long as the curricula and materials developed for use in the AIDS education program either (a) are the model curricula and resources under subsection (3) of this section, or (b) are developed by the school district and approved for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act.

(3) Model curricula and other resources available from the superintendent of public instruction through the state clearinghouse for educational information may be reviewed by the school district board of directors, in addition to materials designed locally, in developing the district's AIDS education program. The model curricula shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act within the department of social and health services.

(4) Each school district shall, at least one month before teaching AIDS prevention education in any classroom, conduct at least one presentation during weekend and evening hours for the parents and guardians of students concerning the curricula and materials that will be used for such education. The parents and guardians shall be notified by the school district of the presentation and that the curricula and materials are available for inspection. No student may be required to participate in AIDS prevention education if the student's parent or guardian, having attended one of the district presentations, objects in writing to the participation.

(5) The office of the superintendent of public instruction with the assistance of the office on AIDS shall update AIDS education curriculum material as newly discovered medical facts make it necessary.

(6) The curriculum for AIDS prevention education shall be designed to teach students which behaviors place a person dangerously at risk of infection with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) and methods to avoid such risk including, at least:

(a) The dangers of drug abuse, especially that involving the use of hypodermic needles; and

(b) The dangers of sexual intercourse, with or without condoms.

(7) The program of AIDS prevention education shall stress the life-threatening dangers of contracting AIDS and shall stress that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain means for the prevention of the spread or contraction of the AIDS virus through sexual contact. It shall also teach that condoms and other artificial means of birth control are not a certain means of preventing the spread of the AIDS virus and reliance on condoms puts a person at risk for exposure to the disease.

Sec. 403. Section 28A.05.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 232, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.05.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All teachers shall stress the importance of the cultivation of manners, the fundamental principles of honesty, honor, industry and economy, the minimum requisites for good health including the beneficial effect of physical exercise and methods to prevent exposure to and transmission of sexually transmitted diseases, and the worth of kindness to all living creatures and the land. The prevention of child abuse may be offered as part of the curriculum in the common schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. Sections 402 and 403 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

PART VI
AIDS TRAINING FOR EMPLOYEES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. The number of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) cases in the state may reach five thousand by 1991. This makes it necessary to provide our state's workforce with the resources and knowledge to deal with the epidemic. To ensure that accurate information is available to the state's workforce, a clearinghouse for all technically correct educational materials related to AIDS should be created.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 602. There is established in the department an office on AIDS. If a department of health is created, the office on AIDS shall be transferred to the department of health, and its chief shall report directly to the secretary of health. The office on AIDS shall have as its chief a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW or a person experienced in public health who shall report directly to the assistant secretary for health. This office shall be the repository and clearinghouse for all education and training material related to the treatment, transmission, and prevention of AIDS. The office on AIDS shall have the responsibility for coordinating all publicly funded education and service activities related to AIDS. The University of Washington shall provide the office on AIDS with appropriate training and educational materials necessary to carry out its duties. The office on AIDS shall assist state agencies with information necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall work with state and county agencies and specific employee and professional groups to provide information appropriate to their needs, and shall make educational materials available to private employers and encourage them to distribute this information to their employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 603. The department shall adopt rules that recommend appropriate education and training for licensed and certified emergency medical personnel under chapter 18.73 RCW on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The department shall require appropriate education or training as a condition of certification or license issuance or renewal.

Each disciplining authority under chapter 18.130 RCW shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training for licensees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The disciplining authorities shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the training and educational material necessary for health professionals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 605. The state board of pharmacy shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training for licensees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The board shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the training and educational material necessary for pharmacy professionals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 606. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training, to be included as part of their present continuing education requirements, for public school employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The superintendent of public instruction shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the educational and training material necessary for school employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 607. The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and each unit of local government shall determine whether any employees under their jurisdiction have a substantial likelihood of exposure in the course of their employment to the human immunodeficiency virus. If so, the agency or unit of government shall adopt rules requiring appropriate training and education for the employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The rules shall specifically provide for such training and education for law enforcement, correctional, and health care workers. The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and each unit of local government shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the educational and training material necessary for employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 608. The department shall adopt rules requiring appropriate education and training of employees of state licensed or certified health care facilities. The education and training shall be on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS and shall not be required for employees who are covered by comparable rules adopted under other sections of this chapter. In adopting rules under this section, the department shall consider infection control standards and educational materials available from appropriate professional associations and professionally prepared publications.

PART VII
COUNSELING AND TESTING

NEW SECTION. Sec. 701. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Pretest counseling" means counseling aimed at helping the individual understand ways to reduce the risk of HIV infection, the nature and purpose of the tests, the significance of the results, and the potential dangers of the disease, and to assess the individual's ability to cope with the results.
(2) "Posttest counseling" means further counseling following testing usually directed toward increasing the individual's understanding of the human immunodeficiency virus infection, changing the individual's behavior, and, if necessary, encouraging the individual to notify persons with whom there has been contact capable of spreading HIV.

(3) "AIDS counseling" means counseling directed toward increasing the individual's understanding of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome and changing the individual's behavior.

(4) "HIV testing" means a test indicative of infection with the human immunodeficiency virus as specified by the board of health by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 702. No person may undergo HIV testing without the person's consent except:

(1) Pursuant to RCW 7.70.065 for incompetent persons;

(2) In seroprevalence studies where neither the persons whose blood is being tested know the test results nor the persons conducting the tests know who is undergoing testing;

(3) If the department of labor and industries determines that it is relevant, in which case payments made under Title 51 RCW may be conditioned on the taking of an HIV antibody test; or

(4) As otherwise expressly authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 703. (1) Local health departments authorized under this chapter shall conduct or cause to be conducted pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling of all persons:

(a) Convicted of a sexual offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW;

(b) Convicted of prostitution or offenses relating to prostitution under chapter 9A.88 RCW; or

(c) Convicted of drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW if the court determines at the time of conviction that the related drug offense is one associated with the use of hypodermic needles.

(2) Such testing shall be conducted as soon as possible after sentencing and shall be so ordered by the sentencing judge.

(3) This section applies only to offenses committed after the effective date of this section.

(4) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, or health care facility staff person, who has experienced a substantial exposure to another person's bodily fluids in the course of his or her employment, may request a state or local public health officer to order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for the person whose bodily fluids he or she has been exposed to. The person who is subject to the order shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual basis therefor. If the person who is subject to the order refuses to comply, the state or local public health officer may petition the superior court for a hearing.

The standard of review for the order is whether substantial exposure occurred and whether that exposure presents a possible risk of transmission of the HIV virus as defined by the board by rule. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue the appropriate order. The state or local public health officer shall perform counseling and testing under this subsection if he or she finds that the exposure was substantial and presents a possible risk as defined by the board of health by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 704. Local health departments, in cooperation with the regional AIDS services networks, shall make available voluntary testing and counseling services to all persons arrested for prostitution offenses under chapter 9A.88 RCW and drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW. Services shall include educational materials that outline the seriousness of AIDS and encourage voluntary participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 705. (1) Every health care practitioner attending a pregnant woman or a person seeking treatment of a sexually transmitted disease shall insure that AIDS counseling of the patient is conducted.

(2) AIDS counseling shall be provided to each person in a drug treatment program under chapter 69.54 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 706. Jail administrators, with the approval of the local public health officer, may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for persons detained in the jail if the local public health officer determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other persons. Approval of the local public health officer shall be based on section 909(3) of this act and may be contested through section 909(4) of this act. The administrator shall establish, pursuant to RCW 70.48.071, a procedure to document the possible risk which is the basis for the HIV testing. "Possible risk," as used in this section, shall be defined by the board in rule. Documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the person to try to assure that the person understands the basis for testing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 707. (1) Department of corrections facility administrators may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for inmates if the secretary of corrections or the secretary's designee determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other inmates. The department of corrections shall establish a procedure to document the possible risk which is the basis for the HIV testing. Possible risk, as used in this section, shall be defined by the department of corrections after consultation with the board. Possible risk, as used in the documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the inmate.

(2) Department of corrections administrators and superintendents who are authorized to make decisions about testing and dissemination of test information shall, at least annually, participate in training seminars on public health considerations conducted by the assistant secretary for public health or her or his designee.

(3) Administrative hearing requirements set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW do not apply to the procedure developed by the department of corrections pursuant to this section. This section shall not be construed as requiring any hearing process except as may be required under existing federal constitutional law.

(4) Section 703 of this act does not apply to the department of corrections or to inmates in its custody or subject to its jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 708. By January 1, 1989, the secretary of corrections shall report to the legislature on the necessity of an AIDS-related segregation policy for all facilities under the director of the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 709. The board of health shall adopt rules establishing minimum standards for pretest counseling, HIV testing, posttest counseling, and AIDS counseling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 710. Sections 701 through 709 of this act are each added to chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART VIII
REGIONAL AIDS SERVICE NETWORKS
NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall establish a state-wide system of regional acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) service networks as follows:

(1) The secretary of social and health services shall direct that all state or federal funds, excluding those from federal Title XIX for services or other activities authorized in this chapter, shall be allocated to the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act. The secretary shall further direct that all funds for services and activities specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be provided to lead counties through contractual agreements based on plans developed as provided in subsection (2) of this section, unless direction of such funds is explicitly prohibited by federal law, federal regulation, or federal policy. The department shall deny funding allocations to lead counties only if the denial is based upon documented incidents of nonfeasance, misfeasance, or malfeasance. However, the department shall give written notice and thirty days for corrective action in incidents of misfeasance or nonfeasance before funding may be denied. The department shall designate six AIDS service network regions encompassing the state. In doing so, the department shall use the boundaries of the regional structures in place for the community services administration on January 1, 1988.

(2) The department shall request that a lead county within each region, which shall be the county with the largest population, prepare, through a cooperative effort of local health departments within the region, a regional organizational and service plan, which meets the requirements set forth in subsection (3) of this section. Efforts should be made to use existing plans, where appropriate. The plan shall place emphasis on contracting with existing hospitals, major voluntary organizations, or health care organizations within a region that have in the past provided quality services similar to those mentioned in subsection (3) of this section and that have demonstrated an interest in providing any of the components listed in subsection (3) of this section. If any of the counties within a region do not participate, it shall be the lead county's responsibility to develop the part of the plan for the nonparticipating county or counties. If all of the counties within a region do not participate, the department shall assume the responsibility.

(3) The regional AIDS service network plan shall include the following components:

(a) A designated single administrative or coordinating agency;
(b) A complement of services to include:
   (i) Voluntary and anonymous counseling and testing;
   (ii) Mandatory testing and/or counseling services for certain individuals, as required by law;
   (iii) Notification of sexual partners of infected persons, as required by law;
   (iv) Education for the general public, health professionals, and high-risk groups;
   (v) Intervention strategies to reduce the incidence of HIV infection among high-risk groups, possibly including needle sterilization and methadone maintenance;
   (vi) Related community outreach services for runaway youth;
   (vii) Case management;
   (viii) Strategies for the development of volunteer networks;
   (ix) Strategies for the coordination of related agencies within the network; and
   (x) Other necessary information, including needs particular to the region;
(c) A service delivery model that includes:
   (i) Case management services; and
(ii) A community-based continuum-of-care model encompassing both medical, mental health, and social services with the goal of maintaining persons with AIDS in a home-like setting, to the extent possible, in the least-expensive manner; and

(d) Budget, caseload, and staffing projections.

(4) Efforts shall be made by both the counties and the department to use existing service delivery systems, where possible, in developing the networks.

(5) The University of Washington health science program, in cooperation with the office on AIDS may, within available resources, establish a center for AIDS education, which shall be linked to the networks. The center for AIDS education is not intended to engage in state-funded research related to HIV infection, AIDS, or HIV-related conditions. Its duties shall include providing the office on AIDS with the appropriate educational materials necessary to carry out that office's duties.

(6) The department shall implement this section, consistent with available funds, by October 1, 1988, by establishing six regional AIDS service networks whose combined jurisdictions shall include the entire state.

(a) Until June 30, 1991, available funding for each regional AIDS service network shall be allocated as follows:

(i) Seventy-five percent of the amount provided for regional AIDS service networks shall be allocated per capita based on the number of persons residing within each region, but in no case less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars for each regional AIDS service network per fiscal year. This amount shall be expended for testing, counseling, education, case management, notification of sexual partners of infected persons, planning, coordination, and other services required by law, except for those enumerated in (ii) of this subsection.

(ii) Twenty-five percent of the amount provided for regional AIDS service networks shall be allocated for intervention strategies specifically addressing groups that are at a high risk of being infected with the human immunodeficiency virus. The allocation shall be made by the office on AIDS based on documented need as specified in regional AIDS network plans.

(b) After June 30, 1991, the funding shall be allocated as provided by law. By December 15, 1990, the department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on proposed methods of funding regional AIDS service networks.

(7) The regional AIDS service networks shall be the official state regional agencies for AIDS information education and coordination of services. The state public health officer, as designated by the secretary of social and health services, shall make adequate efforts to publicize the existence and functions of the networks.

(8) If the department is not able to establish a network by an agreement solely with counties, it may contract with nonprofit agencies for any or all of the designated network responsibilities.

(9) The department, in establishing the networks, shall study mechanisms that could lead to reduced costs and/or increased access to services. The methods shall include capitation.

(10) The department shall reflect in its departmental biennial budget request the funds necessary to implement this section.

(11) The department shall submit an implementation plan to the appropriate committees of the legislature by July 1, 1988.

(12) The use of appropriate materials as authorized by regional AIDS service networks in the prevention or control of HIV infection shall not be deemed a violation of RCW 69.50.412.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. The department shall study the need for community residential care for persons with AIDS, including facility size, staffing, and related community health and social services, and report its finding to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 15, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 803. To assist the secretary of social and health services in the development and implementation of AIDS programs, the governor shall appoint an AIDS advisory committee. Among its duties shall be a review of insurance problems as related to persons with AIDS. The committee shall terminate on June 30, 1991.

PART IX

CONTROL OF SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature declares that sexually transmitted diseases constitute a serious and sometimes fatal threat to the public and individual health and welfare of the people of the state. The legislature finds that the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases is rising at an alarming rate and that these diseases result in significant social, health, and economic costs, including infant and maternal mortality, temporary and lifelong disability, and premature death. The legislature further finds that sexually transmitted diseases, by their nature, involve sensitive issues of privacy, and it is the intent of the legislature that all programs designed to deal with these diseases afford patients privacy, confidentiality, and dignity. The legislature also finds that medical knowledge and information about sexually transmitted diseases are rapidly changing. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to provide a program that is sufficiently flexible to meet emerging needs, deals efficiently and effectively with reducing the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases, and provides patients with a secure knowledge that information they provide will remain private and confidential.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Sensory, mental, or physical handicap shall include actual or perceived HIV infection status of an individual.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to transactions with insurance entities, health service contractors, or health maintenance organizations subject to RCW 49.60.030 (1)(e) or 49.60.178 to prohibit fair discrimination on the basis of actual HIV infection status when bona fide statistical differences in risk or exposure have been substantiated.

(3) For the purposes of this chapter, "HIV" means the human immunodeficiency virus, and includes all HIV and HIV-related viruses which damage the cellular branch of the human immune system and leave the infected person immunodeficient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may require an individual to take an HIV test, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, as a condition of hiring, promotion, or continued employment unless the absence of HIV infection is a bona fide occupational qualification for the job in question.

(2) No person may discharge or fail to hire any individual, or segregate or classify any individual in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive that individual of employment opportunities or adversely affect his or her status as an employee, or otherwise discriminate against any individual with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment on the basis of the results of an HIV test unless the absence of HIV infection is a bona fide occupational qualification of the job in question.

(3) The absence of HIV infection as a bona fide occupational qualification exists when performance of a particular job can be shown to present a significant risk, as defined by the human rights commission in consultation with the board of health, of transmitting HIV infection to other persons, and there exists no means of eliminating the risk by restructuring the job.

(4) Employers are immune from civil action for damages arising out of transmission of HIV to employees or to members of the public unless such transmission occurs as a result of the employer's gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person who has investigated, considered, or requested a test or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease, except as authorized by this chapter.

(2) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom a test for a sexually transmitted disease is performed, or the results of such a test or any information relating to diagnosis of or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease in a manner which permits identification of the subject of the test, diagnosis, or treatment except to the following persons:

(a) The subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(b) Any person who secures a specific release of test results executed by the subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(c) The state public health officer, a local public health officer, or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service in accordance with reporting requirements for a diagnosed case of a sexually transmitted disease;

(d) A health facility or health care provider that procures, processes, distributes, or uses: (i) A human body part, tissue, or blood from a deceased person with respect to medical information regarding that person; (ii) semen, including that provided prior to the effective date of this section; for the purpose of artificial insemination; or (iii) blood specimens;

(e) Any state or local public health officer conducting an investigation pursuant to section 909 of this act, provided that such record was obtained by means of court ordered HIV testing pursuant to section 703 or 909 of this act;

(f) A person allowed access to the record by a court order granted after application showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the patient, to the physician-patient relationship, and to the treatment services. Upon the granting of the order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of the record of any such test is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure. An order authorizing disclosure shall: (i) Limit disclosure to those parts of the patient's record deemed essential to fulfill the objective for which the order was granted; (ii) limit disclosure to those persons whose need for information is the basis for the order; and (iii) include any other appropriate measures to keep disclosure to a minimum for the protection of the patient, the physician-patient relationship, and the treatment services, including but not limited to the written statement set forth in subsection (5) of this section;
(g) Persons who, because of their behavioral interaction with the infected individual, have been placed at risk for acquisition of a sexually transmitted disease, as provided in section 906 of this act, if the health officer or authorized representative believes that the exposed person was unaware that a risk of disease exposure existed and that the disclosure of the identity of the infected person is necessary;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall establish reporting requirements for sexually transmitted diseases by rule. Reporting under this section may be required for such sexually transmitted diseases included under this chapter as the board finds appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The board shall adopt rules authorizing interviews and the state and local public health officers and their authorized representatives may interview, or cause to be interviewed, all persons infected with a sexually transmitted disease and all persons who, in accordance with standards adopted by the board by rule, are reasonably believed to be infected with such diseases for the purpose of investigating the source and spread of the diseases and for the purpose of ordering a person to submit to examination, counseling, or treatment as necessary for the protection of the public health and safety, subject to section 909 of this act.

(2) State and local public health officers or their authorized representatives shall investigate identified partners of persons infected with sexually transmitted diseases in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board.

(3) All information gathered in the course of contact investigation pursuant to this section shall be considered confidential.

(4) No person contacted under this section or reasonably believed to be infected with a sexually transmitted disease who reveals the name or names of sexual contacts during the course of an investigation shall be held liable in a civil action for such revelation, unless the revelation is made with a knowing or reckless disregard for the truth.

(5) Any person who knowingly or maliciously disseminates any false information or report concerning the existence of any sexually transmitted disease under this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.
Sec. 907. Section 6, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Diagnosis of a sexually transmitted disease in every instance must be confirmed by laboratory tests or examinations in a laboratory approved or conducted in accordance with procedures and such other requirements as may be established by the (state) board (of health) before any person shall be isolated or committed to quarantine and before any person committed to quarantine shall be discharged therefrom. Laboratories testing for HIV shall report anonymous HIV prevalence results to the department, for health statistics purposes, in a manner established by the board.

Sec. 908. Section 8, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of carrying out (the provisions of) this (act) chapter, the (state) board (of health) shall have the power and authority (from time to time, to divide the state into such number of quarantine districts consisting of one or more counties or parts of counties or municipalities as it shall deem expedient, and to establish at such place or places as it shall deem necessary, quarantine stations and clinics) to designate facilities for the detention and treatment of persons found to be infected with a sexually transmitted disease and to (establish) designate any such (quarantine station and clinic in connection with any county or city jail or) facility in any hospital or other public or private institution, other than a jail or correctional facility, having, or which may be provided with, such necessary detention, segregation, isolation, clinic and hospital facilities as may be required and prescribed by the board, and to enter into arrangements for the conduct of such (quarantine stations and clinics) facilities with the public officials or persons, associations, or corporations in charge of or maintaining and operating such institutions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 909. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state and local public health officers or their authorized representatives may examine and counsel or cause to be examined and counseled persons reasonably believed to be infected with or to have been exposed to a sexually transmitted disease.

(2) Orders or restrictive measures directed to persons with a sexually transmitted disease shall be used as the last resort when other measures to protect the public health have failed, including reasonable efforts, which shall be documented, to obtain the voluntary cooperation of the person who may be subject to such an order. The orders and measures shall be applied serially with the least intrusive measures used first. The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show that specified grounds exist for the issuance of the orders or restrictive measures and that the terms and conditions imposed are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health.

(3) When the state or local public health officer within his or her respective jurisdiction knows or has reason to believe, because of direct medical knowledge or reliable testimony of others in a position to have direct knowledge of a person's behavior, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and is engaging in specified conduct, as determined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, that endangers the public health, he or she shall conduct an investigation in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board to evaluate the specific facts alleged, if any, and the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing such information and, if satisfied that the allegations are true, he or she may issue an order according to the following priority to:

(a) Order a person to submit to a medical examination or testing, seek counseling, or obtain medical treatment for curable diseases, or any combination of these, within a period of time determined by the public health officer, not to exceed fourteen days.

(b) Order a person to immediately cease and desist from specified conduct which endangers the health of others by imposing such restrictions upon the person as are necessary to prevent the specified conduct that endangers the health of others only if the public health officer has determined that clear and convincing evidence exists to believe that such person has been ordered to report for counseling as provided in (a) of this subsection and continues to demonstrate behavior which endangers the health of others. Any restriction shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person to be restricted and the initial period of time, not to exceed three months, during which the order shall remain effective, the terms of the restrictions, and such other conditions as may be necessary to protect the public health. Restrictions shall be imposed in the least-restrictive manner necessary to protect the public health.

(4) (a) Upon the issuance of any order by the state or local public health officer or an authorized representative pursuant to subsection (3) of this section or section 703(4) of this act, such public health officer shall give written notice promptly, personally, and confidentially to the person who is the subject of the order stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person who is the subject of the order that, if he or she contests the order, he or she may appear at a judicial hearing on the enforceability of the order, to be held in superior court. He or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing... at public expense, if necessary. The hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of receipt of the notice, unless the person subject to the order agrees to comply. If the person contests the order, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to this subsection. If the person does not contest the order within seventy-two hours of receiving it, and the person does not comply with the order within the time period specified for compliance with the order, the state or local public health officer may request a warrant be issued by the superior court to insure appearance at the hearing. The hearing shall be within seventy-two hours of the expiration date of the time specified for compliance with the original order. The burden of proof shall be on the public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that the specified grounds exist for the issuance of the order and for the need for compliance and that the terms and conditions imposed therein are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the order.

(b) If the superior court dismisses the order of the public health officer, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the department or local department of health.

(5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by the order of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 910. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(I) When the procedures of section 909 of this act have been exhausted and the state or local public health officer, within his or her respective jurisdiction, knows or has reason to believe, because of medical information, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and that the person continues to engage in behaviors that present an imminent danger to the public health as defined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, the public health officer may bring an action in superior court to detain the person in a facility designated by the board for a period of time necessary to accomplish a program of counseling and education, excluding any coercive techniques or procedures, designed to get the person to adopt nondangerous behavior. In no case may the period exceed ninety days under each order. The board shall establish, by rule, standards for counseling and education under this subsection. The public health officer shall request the prosecuting attorney to file such action in superior court. During that period, reasonable efforts will be made in a noncoercive manner to get the person to adopt nondangerous behavior.

(2) If an action is filed as outlined in subsection (1) of this section, the superior court, upon the petition of the prosecuting attorney, shall issue other appropriate court orders including, but not limited to, an order to take the person into custody immediately, for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours, and place him or her in a facility designated or approved by the board. The person who is the subject of the order shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person that if he or she refuses to comply with the order he or she may appear at a hearing to review the order and that he or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing at public expense, if necessary. If the person contests testing or treatment, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The hearing shall be conducted no later than forty-eight hours after the receipt of the order. The person who is subject to the order has a right to be present at the hearing and may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing, at public expense if necessary. If the order being contested includes detention for a period of fourteen days or longer, the person shall also have the right to a trial by jury upon request. Upon conclusion of the hearing or trial by jury, the court shall issue appropriate orders.

The court may continue the hearing upon the request of the person who is subject to the order for good cause shown for no more than five additional judicial days. If a trial by jury is requested, the court, upon motion, may continue the hearing for no more than ten additional judicial days. During the pendency of the continuance, the court may order that the person contesting the order remain in detention or may place terms and conditions upon the person which the court deems appropriate to protect public health.

(4) The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that grounds exist for the issuance of any court order pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section. If the superior court dismisses the order, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the state or local department of health.

(5) Any hearing conducted by the superior court pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by order of the court.
(6) Any order entered by the superior court pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall impose terms and conditions no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health.

Sec. 911. Section 5, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(d) Such other relief, including an injunction, as the court may deem appropriate.

(3) Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of the subject of a test for a sexually transmitted disease to recover damages or other relief under any other applicable law.

(4) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impose civil liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of a test result for a sexually transmitted disease in accordance with any reporting requirement for a diagnosed case of sexually transmitted disease by the department or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The health of our state’s economy requires the promotion of entrepreneurship and new enterprise development as well as the retention of existing jobs. Encouraging families who are recipients of aid to families with dependent children to become self-sufficient through self-employment will improve the lives of citizens in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.12 RCW to read as follows: The secretary of social and health services shall seek an exception to federal law under the waiver authorities set forth in the federal social security act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 301 et seq., for the purposes of allowing recipients of aid for families with dependent children to become self-employed in a manner that will lead to economic independence. The application for waivers shall be sought by October 1, 1988.

If the waivers are obtained, the department shall adopt rules that allow a recipient to separate business assets from personal assets during a start-up period not exceeding two years. The rules shall provide for evaluation of business progress during the start-up period and, if it appears to the department that sufficient income exists to provide an adequate income to replace the aid to families with dependent children, the recipient has the burden of showing why the recipient is not ready to terminate the aid prior to the expiration of the start-up period. The rules shall also provide for deductions from income for business expenses including but not limited to capital expenditures, payments on the loans to the business and reasonable amounts for cash reserves. Guidelines for determining a reasonable amount of cash reserves and for evaluation of business progress shall be based primarily on criteria used by small business loan officers and others of like expertise. The rules shall be promulgated only after consultation with the private industry councils and other small business experts."

E2SSB 6277 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing the business and job retention program. Reported by Committee on Trade & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the Washington state economy has suffered as a result of plant closures, business failures, and mass layoffs. The state has experienced substantial increases in unemployment compensation and public assistance expenditures, decreases in taxes paid by workers and businesses, and increases in social and health program costs due to high levels of unemployment.

The legislature further finds that the state has a substantial and continuing interest in assuring the survival of firms currently operating in the state by assisting them in adjusting to changing economic conditions.

State agencies have recognized the importance of interagency cooperation in business and job retention efforts. It is the purpose of this chapter to further these agency efforts by authorizing and funding locally based business and job retention efforts to assist businesses which are likely to close, fail, or experience a permanent mass layoff. The legislature's primary objective is to coordinate, assist, augment, and improve existing business and job retention efforts and provide continuing financial and technical assistance and training to such efforts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is established within the department of trade and economic development the business and job retention program. An exempt position is hereby created at the assistant director level within the department of trade and economic development for the director of the business and job retention program. The director shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve under the direction of the director of trade and economic development at the governor's pleasure. In carrying out the purposes of this chapter, the director shall solicit volunteer assistance, work with the business assistance center, the small business development center, the department of community development's employee ownership program, local early warning programs, local reemployment centers, labor representatives, and other appropriate public and private agencies and organizations and, when appropriate, contract with private consultants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. By July 1, 1988, the director shall appoint no more than six people to an advisory committee. The committee shall include one representative from state-wide business organizations, one from state-wide labor organizations, and one from government. The remaining members shall be chosen from representatives of higher education, community colleges, vocational technical institutes, associate development organizations, community based economic development organizations, private industry councils, local early warning programs, local reemployment centers, and other advocates for dislocated and unemployed workers. The director shall consult with the advisory committee in developing implementation plans for carrying out this chapter and shall monitor implementation and operations of the state and regional components of the program. Staff assistance shall be provided to the committee by the department. Members of the advisory committee shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The director, after consultation with the advisory committee, shall:

1. Designate service delivery regions in the state, each of which shall have no less than one county and no more than six counties.

2. Designate an associate development organization or other appropriate locally based organization to coordinate business and job retention efforts in each region. The regional coordinating organization shall solicit the active involvement of all affected local groups. Special emphasis shall be placed on the involvement of local businesses, local governments, and local labor organizations. Other groups whose involvement should be sought include local associate development organizations, local reemployment centers, local educational institutions, community based organizations, advocates for the dislocated and unemployed workers, and local private industry councils. The regional coordinating organization shall coordinate efforts with the Washington ambassadors program and select appropriate marketing, management, training, and technical specialists to assist with efforts on any given project or group of projects. The department may subcontract with existing early warning or job retention programs to avoid duplication of effort in any region. The regional coordinating organization shall be responsible for soliciting assistance from within the region from local chambers of commerce, private industry councils, colleges, universities, local early warning programs, local reemployment centers, and any other private, public, or nonprofit group with appropriate expertise.

3. Develop model local business surveys and assist with regional business and job retention efforts to administer in each region surveys of businesses, utilities, labor unions, employees, financial institutions, and community organizations in cooperation with any existing business retention programs, reemployment centers, and associate development organizations. The surveys will gather information about business needs, expansion plans, relocation decisions, training needs, potential layoffs, financing needs, the availability of financing, and other appropriate information.

4. Designate criteria for receipt of services offered to businesses, labor unions, employee groups, community groups, local governments, and port districts. Such criteria shall include the number of employees affected, the type of business involved, reemployment potential of employees, severity of problems affecting the business or workforce, skill level of workforce, availability of financing, and the social and economic costs of layoffs or closure.

5. Be responsible for the development and implementation of training programs for regional business and job retention regional coordinating organizations and involved community participants. The training programs shall be designed to assist regional efforts to develop and coordinate local resources, assess the need for outside resources, and locate other public and private resources needed to assist firms and workers.

6. Provide or coordinate the delivery of technical and managerial assistance upon request from local business and job retention coordinating groups. Such assistance shall include financial management, marketing, product development, production process analysis, training, and other business services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Business and job retention regional coordinating organizations in service delivery regions with seventy thousand residents or above shall administer local business surveys. Regional coordinating organizations in service delivery regions with less than seventy thousand residents are encouraged to administer local business surveys. Regional coordinating organizations may not require local businesses to fill out the surveys. Regional coordinating organizations in all regions shall provide marketing, technical, managerial, regulatory, and training assistance appropriate to client businesses, unions, employee groups, and workforces.

(1) Regional coordinating organizations shall initiate contact with those firms or employees indicating by their response to the business surveys the potential for imminent closure, mass layoff, or relocation. For firms or employees not indicating such potential, the provision of services by the regional coordinating organization will be in response to direct requests from firms, labor unions, employee groups, community groups, local governments, or port districts.

(2) The regional coordinating organization shall be responsible for conducting an initial assessment of firms or workforces to determine viability, problems, and skill levels, in cooperation with any early warning programs, reemployment centers, and associate development organizations. The assessment shall include but not be limited to the public and private costs of any potential closure or layoff, the role of governmental policies or regulations in contributing to closures or layoffs, the potential for preventing a closure, business failure, business relocation, or mass layoff, the potential for a change in ownership, including worker and community buy-outs of the firm, and the costs of keeping the facility in operation.

(3) After the initial assessment, the regional coordinating organization shall coordinate the delivery of technical, managerial, financial, training, and other assistance. If the initial assessment indicates the need for a more thorough study of the feasibility of various options for retaining a firm, the director shall so notify.

(4) The regional coordinating organization shall work with the employment security department and local reemployment centers to assess the need for and to ensure the provision of training services to client businesses, prelayoff services, and the establishment of programs for dislocated workers such as job clubs, retraining counseling, and the referral and delivery of social services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The director shall develop and administer a business and job retention feasibility fund. Under this program, money shall be made available to study the feasibility of various options for continuing or renewing the operation of industrial facilities which are threatened with closure or which have already closed. Such money shall be made available as follows:

(1) Local governments, ports, local associate development organizations, or local nonprofit community organizations shall be eligible for the money.

(2) The department may require that money be matched dollar for dollar with local private or public money.

(3) A maximum of fifty thousand dollars shall be made available for each study.

(4) Only one study may be funded per industrial facility.

(5) Priority in availability of money shall be given to:

(a) Industrial facilities in distressed areas as defined under RCW 43.165.010;

(b) Industrial facilities with large numbers of employees;

(c) Employee buyouts; and

(d) Industrial facilities in mature industries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In addition to the responsibilities set forth in sections 2 through 7 of this act, the department shall draw upon its existing resources, employment and economic data from the employment security department, and data from the department of licensing and the department of revenue and other sources, to do nonduplicative analyses of trends in the state's industries and workforces. The department shall make such analyses available to relevant businesses, labor organizations or workforces, local governments, economic development organizations, early warning programs, and business and job retention regional coordinating organizations, and shall work with them to develop long-term strategies for economic growth and revitalization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The employment security department shall:

(1) Monitor industries, occupations, and substate labor markets by employment levels, and hourly wage and annual wage rates.

(2) Track numbers of dislocated workers and part-time workers in the state.

(3) Supply the director with data which will allow the state and local components of the program to prioritize delivery of service to distressed, mature, and cyclical industries.

(4) Provide information and assistance to the program on training resources available through the department.

(6) Offer any businesses assisted by the program its first source hiring services.

(7) Work with the department of social and health services to track dislocated workers who exhaust their unemployment compensation benefits and begin collecting public assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department of community development shall provide resources to regional business and job retention efforts through its various programs, such as the community development finance unit, the employee ownership program, the community revitalization team, the local development matching fund, and the development loan fund.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The state board for community college education and superintendent of public instruction shall provide coordination between the business and job retention program and the educational institutions providing the necessary academic, occupational and basic skills programs which are designated to train, upgrade, and retrain employees. These two state agencies will assist the business and job retention program in expanding partnerships between local educational institutions and the businesses and other employer groups who can benefit from the instructional programs and activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department of trade and economic development shall ensure that taxpayers eligible for assistance under the business and job retention program receive information concerning the availability of services under the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The director shall publish an annual report which shall be made available to the senate and house ways and means committees, the senate economic development and labor committee, and the house committee on trade and economic development. The report shall be issued in conjunction with the annual state economic report prepared by the department of employment security. The report shall include a description of the progress of the program to date and the following:

1. The number of businesses, labor unions, employee groups, local governments, and port districts assisted under this chapter;
2. The types of assistance provided; and
3. The number of businesses and jobs retained through assistance rendered under this chapter.

These reporting requirements shall be disaggregated by county, standard industrial classification, and size of firm.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 42.17.260 through 42.17.340, no financial or proprietary information supplied by businesses to the department of trade and economic development may be made available to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 50.13 RCW to read as follows:

1. If information provided to the department by another governmental agency is held private and confidential by state or federal law, the department may not release such information.
2. Information provided to the department by another governmental entity conditioned upon privacy and confidentiality is to be held private and confidential according to the agreement between the department and other governmental agency.
3. The department may hold private and confidential information obtained for statistical analysis, research, or study purposes if the information was supplied voluntarily, conditioned upon maintaining confidentiality of the information.
4. Persons requesting disclosure of information held by the department under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall request such disclosure from the providing agency rather than from the department.

Sec. 16. Section 7, chapter 13, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The federal interest payment fund shall consist of contributions payable by each employer (except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, and employers paying contributions under RCW 50.44.035) for any calendar quarter which begins on or after January 1, 1986, and for which the commissioner determines that the department will have an outstanding balance of accruing federal interest at the end of the calendar quarter. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined according to RCW 50.24.010. The tax rate applicable to wages paid during the calendar quarter shall be determined by the commissioner and shall not exceed fifteen one-hundredths of one percent. In determining whether to require contributions as authorized by this section, the commissioner shall consider the current balance in the federal interest payment fund and the projected amount of interest which will be due and payable as of the following September 30. Except as provided in section 19 of this 1988 act, any excess moneys in the federal interest payment fund shall be retained in the fund for future interest payments.

Contributions under this section shall become due and be paid by each employer in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may prescribe and shall not be deducted in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the employer. Any deduction in violation of this section is unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions under this section, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The sum of six hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the federal interest payment fund to the department of trade and economic development for the purposes of this act.

PART II

UNIFORM RELOCATION ASSISTANCE POLICY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. REPLACEMENT HOUSING FOR HOMEOWNERS. (1) Whenever a program or project to be undertaken by a displacing agency will result in the displacement of any person, the displacing agency shall provide for the payment to the displaced person of:

(a) Actual reasonable expenses in moving himself, his family, business, farm operation, or other personal property;

(b) Actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, but not to exceed an amount equal to the reasonable expenses that would have been required to relocate the property, in accordance with criteria established by the lead agency; and

(c) Actual reasonable expenses in searching for a replacement business or farm; and

(d) Actual reasonable expenses necessary to reestablish a displaced farm, nonprofit organization, or small business at its new site, in accordance with criteria established by the lead agency, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars.

(2) A displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (1) of this section who is displaced from a dwelling and who elects to accept the payments authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payments authorized by subsection (1) of this section may receive an expense and dislocation allowance determined according to a schedule established by the lead agency.

(3) A displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (1) of this section who is displaced from the person's place of business or farm operation and who is eligible under criteria established by the lead agency may elect to accept the payment authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payment authorized by subsection (1) of this section. The payment shall consist of a fixed payment in an amount to be determined according to criteria established by the lead agency, except that the payment shall be not less than one thousand dollars nor more than twenty thousand dollars. A person whose sole business at the displacement dwelling is the rental of that property to others does not qualify for a payment under this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. REPLACEMENT HOUSING FOR HOMEOWNERS. (1) In addition to payments otherwise authorized by this chapter, the displacing agency shall make an additional payment, not in excess of twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars, to any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling actually owned and occupied by the displaced person for at least one hundred and eighty days immediately before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property. The additional payment shall include the following elements:

(a) The amount, if any, that when added to the acquisition cost of the dwelling acquired by the displacing agency, equals the reasonable and necessary cost of a comparable replacement dwelling;

(b) The amount, if any, that will compensate the displaced person for any increased mortgage interest costs and other debt service costs that the person is required to pay for financing the acquisition of any such comparable replacement dwelling. This amount shall be paid only if the dwelling acquired by the displacing agency was encumbered by a bona fide mortgage that was a valid lien on the dwelling for not less than one hundred and eighty days immediately before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the dwelling:

(c) Reasonable expenses incurred by the displaced person for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses.

(2) The additional payment authorized under this section shall be made only to a displaced person who purchases and occupies a decent, safe, and sanitary replacement dwelling within one year after the date on which the person receives final payment from the displacing agency for the acquired dwelling or the date on which the obligation of the displacing agency under section 7 of this act is met, whichever date is later, except that the displacing agency may extend the period for good cause. If the period is extended, the payment under this section shall be based on the costs of relocating the person to a comparable replacement dwelling within one year of that date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. REPLACEMENT HOUSING FOR TENANTS AND CERTAIN OTHERS. (1) In addition to amounts otherwise authorized by this chapter, a displacing agency shall make a payment to or for a displaced person displaced from a dwelling not eligible to receive a payment under section 4 of this act if the dwelling was actually and lawfully occupied by the displaced person for not less than ninety days immediately before (a) the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of the dwelling, or (b) in any case in which displacement is not a direct result of acquisition, such other event as the lead agency prescribes. The payment shall consist of the amount necessary to enable the person to lease or rent for a period not to exceed forty-two months, a comparable replacement dwelling, but not to exceed five thousand two hundred dollars. At the discretion of the displacing agency, a payment under this subsection may be made in periodic installments. Computation of a payment under this subsection to a low-income displaced person for a comparable replacement dwelling shall take into account the person's income.

(2) A person eligible for a payment under subsection (1) of this section may elect to apply the payment to a down payment on, and other incidental expenses pursuant to, the purchase of a decent, safe, and sanitary replacement dwelling. The person may, at the discretion of the displacing agency, be eligible under this subsection for the maximum payment allowed under subsection (1) of this section, except that, in the case of a displaced homeowner who has owned and occupied the displacement dwelling for at least ninety days but not more than one hundred eighty days immediately before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the dwelling, the payment shall not exceed the payment the person would otherwise have received under section 4(1) of this act had the person owned and occupied the displacement dwelling one hundred eighty days immediately before the initiation of the negotiations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. RELOCATION ASSISTANCE ADVISORY SERVICES. (1) Programs or projects undertaken by a displacing agency shall be planned in a manner that (a) recognizes, at an early stage in the planning of the programs or projects and before the commencement of any actions that will cause displacements, the problems associated with the displacement of individuals, families, businesses, and farm operations, and (b) provides for the resolution of the problems in order to minimize adverse impacts on displaced persons and to expedite program or project advancement and completion.

(2) Displacing agencies shall ensure that the relocation assistance advisory services described in subsection (3) of this section are made available to all persons displaced by the agency. If the agency determines that any person occupying property immediately adjacent to the property where the displacing activity occurs is caused substantial economic injury as a result thereof, the agency may make available to the person the advisory services.

(3) Each relocation assistance advisory program required by subsection (2) of this section shall include such measures, facilities, or services as may be necessary or appropriate in order to:

(a) Determine, and make timely recommendations on, the needs and preferences, if any, of displaced persons for relocation assistance;
(b) Provide current and continuing information on the availability, sales prices, and rental charges of comparable replacement dwellings for displaced homeowners and tenants and suitable locations for businesses and farm operations;
(c) Assist a person displaced from a business or farm operation in obtaining and becoming established in a suitable replacement location;
(d) Supply (i) information concerning federal, state, and local programs that may be of assistance to displaced persons, and (ii) technical assistance to the persons in applying for assistance under those programs;
(e) Provide other advisory services to displaced persons in order to minimize hardships to them in adjusting to relocation; and
(f) Coordinate relocation activities performed by the agency with other federal, state, or local governmental actions in the community that could affect the efficient and effective delivery of relocation assistance and related services.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. ASSURANCE OF AVAILABILITY OF HOUSING. (1) If a program or project undertaken by a displacing agency cannot proceed on a timely basis because comparable replacement dwellings are not available, and the head of the displacing agency determines that the dwellings cannot otherwise be made available, the head of the displacing agency may take such action as is necessary or appropriate to provide the dwellings by use of funds authorized for the project. The displacing agency may use this section to exceed the maximum amounts that may be paid under sections 4 and 5 of this act on a case-by-case basis for good cause as determined in accordance with rules adopted by the lead agency.

(2) No person may be required to move from a dwelling on account of any program or project undertaken by a displacing agency unless the displacing agency is satisfied that comparable replacement housing is available to the person.

(3) The displacing agency shall assure that a person shall not be required to move from a dwelling unless the person has had a reasonable opportunity to relocate to a comparable replacement dwelling, except in the case of the following:
   (a) A major disaster as defined in section 102(2) of the Federal Disaster Relief Act of 1974;
   (b) A national emergency declared by the president; or
   (c) Any other emergency that requires the person to move immediately from the dwelling because continued occupancy of the dwelling by the person constitutes a substantial danger to the health or safety of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. AUTHORITY OF THE LEAD AGENCY. (1) The lead agency, after full consultation with the department of general administration, shall adopt rules and establish such procedures as the lead agency may determine to be necessary to assure:
   (a) That the payments and assistance authorized by this chapter are administered in a manner that is fair and reasonable and as uniform as practicable;
   (b) That a displaced person who makes proper application for a payment authorized for that person by this chapter is paid promptly after a move or, in hardship cases, is paid in advance; and
   (c) That a displaced person who is aggrieved by a program or project that is under the authority of a state agency or local public agency may have his application reviewed by the state agency or local public agency.

(2) The lead agency, after full consultation with the department of general administration, may adopt such other rules and procedures, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, as the lead agency deems necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter.

(3) State agencies and local public agencies shall comply with the rules adopted pursuant to this section by April 2, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. ADMINISTRATION. In order to prevent unnecessary expenses and duplication of functions, and to promote uniform and effective administration of relocation assistance programs for displaced persons, a state agency or local public agency may enter into contracts with any individual, firm, association, or corporation for services in connection with this chapter or may carry out its functions under this chapter through any federal or state agency or local public agency having an established organization for conducting relocation assistance programs. The state agency or local public agency shall, in carrying out relocation activities described in section 7 of this act, whenever practicable, use the services of state or local housing agencies, or other agencies having experience in the administration or conduct of similar housing assistance activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. FUND AVAILABILITY. (1) Funds appropriated or otherwise available to a state agency or local public agency for the acquisition of real property or an interest therein for a particular program or project shall also be available to carry out the provisions of this chapter as applied to that program or project.

(2) No payment or assistance under this chapter may be required to be made to any person or included as a program or project cost under this section, if the person receives a payment required by federal, state, or local law that is determined by the head of the displacing agency to have substantially the same purpose and effect as that payment under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RELOCATION ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS NOT INCOME OR RESOURCES. No payment received by a displaced person under sections 3 through 10 of this act may be considered as income for the purpose of determining the eligibility or extent of eligibility of any person for assistance under any state law or for the purposes of any income tax or any tax imposed under Title 82 RCW, and the payments shall not be deducted from any amount to which any recipient would otherwise be entitled under Title 74 RCW.

PART III
UNIFORM REAL PROPERTY ACQUISITION POLICY

Sec. 12. Section 18, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.180 are each amended to read as follows:
ACQUISITION PROCEDURES. Every (state) acquiring agency (and local public body acquiring real property in connection with any program or project) shall, to the greatest extent practicable, be guided by the following policies:

(1) Every reasonable effort shall be made to acquire expeditiously real property by negotiation. If a bona fide attempt to negotiate fails, the fair market value of any building, structure, or improvement shall be deemed to be a fair market value of the real property to be acquired notwithstanding the right or obligation of a tenant with a market value of such property. Any decrease or increase in the fair market value of the real property to be acquired prior to the date of valuation caused by the public improvement for which such property is acquired, or by the likelihood that the property would be acquired for such improvement, other than that due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner, will be disregarded in determining the compensation for the property. The acquiring agency shall provide the owner of real property to be acquired with a written statement of, and summary of the basis for, the amount it established as just compensation. Where appropriate the just compensation for the real property acquired, for damages to remaining real property, and for benefits to remaining real property shall be separately stated.

(2) No owner shall be required to surrender possession of real property before the agreed purchase price is paid or deposited with a court having jurisdiction of condemnation such property. In accordance with applicable law, for the benefit of the owner an amount not less than the acquiring agency's approved appraisal of the fair market value of such property, or the amount of the award in the condemnation proceeding of such property.

(3) The construction or development of a public improvement shall be so scheduled that, to the greatest extent practicable, no person lawfully occupying real property shall be required to move from a dwelling or to move his business or farm operation without at least ninety days written notice of the date by which such move is required.

(4) If an owner or tenant is permitted to occupy the real property acquired on a rental basis for a short term or for a period subject to termination on short notice, the amount of rent required shall not exceed the fair rental value of the property to a short-term occupier.

(5) In no event shall the time of condemnation be advanced, on negotiations or condemnation, and the deposit of funds in court for the use of the owner be deferred, or any other coercive action be taken to compel an agreement on the price to be paid for the property.

(6) If an interest in real property is to be acquired by exercise of the power of eminent domain, formal condemnation proceedings shall be instituted. The acquiring agency shall not intentionally make it necessary for an owner to institute legal proceedings to prove the fact of the taking of his real property.

(7) If the acquisition of only (part) a portion of a property would leave (its) the owner with an uneconomic remnant, the (acquiring) head of the agency concerned shall offer to acquire (the entire property) that remnant. For the purposes of this chapter, an uneconomic remnant is a parcel of real property in which the owner is left with an interest after the partial acquisition of the owner's property and that the head of the agency concerned has determined has little or no value or utility.

(8) A person whose real property is being acquired in accordance with this chapter may, after the person has been fully informed of his right to receive just compensation for the property, donate the property, any part thereof, any interest therein, or any compensation paid for it to any agency as the person may determine.

Sec. 13, Section 19, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.190 are each amended to read as follows:

BUILDINGS, STRUCTURES, AND IMPROVEMENTS. (1) Where any interest in real property is acquired, the acquiring agency shall acquire an equal interest in all buildings, structures, or other improvements located upon the real property so acquired and which is required to be removed from such real property or which is determined to be adversely affected by the use to which such real property will be put (shall be acquired).

(2) For the purpose of determining the just compensation to be paid for any building, structure, or other improvement required to be acquired (as above set forth) under subsection (1) of this section, such building, structure, or other improvement shall be deemed to be a part of the real property to be acquired notwithstanding the right or obligation of a tenant of the land to remain in possession and the fair market value of such building, structure, or improvement contributes to the fair market value of the real property to be acquired, or the fair market value of such building, structure, or improvement for removal from the real property, whichever is the greater, shall be paid to the ((tenant thereof)) owner of such building, structure, or improvement.

(3) Payment for such building(s), structure(s), or improvement(s as set forth above) under subsection (1) of this section shall not result in duplication of any payments otherwise authorized by state law. No such payment shall be made unless the owner of the land involved discloses all interest in the improvements of the tenant. In consideration for any such payment, the tenant shall assign, transfer, and release all his right, title, and interest in and to such improvements. Nothing with regard to the above-mentioned acquisition of buildings, structures, or other improvements shall be construed to deprive the tenant of any rights to reject payment and to obtain payment for such property interests in accordance with other laws of this state.

Sec. 14. Section 20. chapter 240. Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.200 are each amended to read as follows:

EXPENSES INCIDENTAL TO TRANSFER OF RIGHT, TITLE, OR INTEREST TO THE ACQUIRING AGENCY. ((A state agency or a local public body acquiring real property)) As soon as practicable after the date of payment of the purchase price or the date ((or)) of deposit in court of funds to satisfy the award of compensation in a condemnation proceeding to acquire real property, whichever is the earlier, the acquiring agency shall reimburse the owner, to the extent the acquiring agency deems fair and reasonable, for expenses the owner necessarily incurred for((——));

(1) Recording fees, transfer taxes, and similar expenses incidental to conveying such real property to the acquiring agency;
(2) Penalty costs for full or partial prepayment of any preexisting recorded mortgage entered into in good faith encumbering such real property; and
(3) The pro rata portion of real property taxes paid which are allocable to a period subsequent to the date of vesting title in the acquiring agency, or the effective date of possession of such real property by the acquiring agency, whichever is the earlier.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. EFFECT ON PROPERTY ACQUISITIONS. The provisions of RCW 8.26-.180. 8.26.190, and 8.26.200 create no rights or liabilities and do not affect the validity of any property acquisitions by purchase or condemnation.

Prime Sponsor. Committee on Economic Development & Labor: Providing funding for special employer services provided by the employment security department. Reported by Committee on Commerce & Labor

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Because of the significant impacts that the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 has on Washington employers and employees, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to establish a job service program with an interim emergency funding mechanism to provide certification that workers are legally entitled to work in the United States, to maintain such records as required by law, and to make such records available for inspection by the United States Immigration and Naturalization service and the United States department of labor. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) National immigration reform and control legislation mandates added documentation requirements for new workers under the threat of increased employer sanctions. The Washington state department of employment security is authorized to certify worker documentation, and can thereby alleviate the burdens placed on employers when hiring new workers through the department's agencies.

(2) Employment services provided by the department to the state's agricultural employers and workers need to be increased in view of the fluctuations in agricultural labor supply and demand experienced during the state's 1987 harvest season. It is the intent of the legislature that these services emphasize recruitment of Washington workers.

(3) Information on the labor market, particularly agricultural worker supply and demand, needs to be improved to support employer decision making.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of section 1 of this act, 'to certify' and 'certification' refer to the act of verifying that an applicant is authorized to work in the United States by examining documentation as prescribed in the federal immigration reform and control act of 1986.

Sec. 3. Section 8, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 5, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

'Terms 'contributions' and 'payments in lieu of contributions' used in this title, whether singular or plural, designate the money payments to be made to the state unemployment compensation fund, to the federal interest payment fund under RCW 50.16.070, to the special account in the administrative contingency fund under section 7 of this 1988 act. Such contributions and payments are deemed to be taxes due to the state of Washington.

Sec. 5. Section 60, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 218, chapter 202, Laws of 1987 and RCW 50.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund, an administrative contingency fund, and a federal interest payment fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 shall not be applicable. The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:

(1) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
(2) interest earned upon any moneys in the fund,
(3) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
(4) all earnings of such property or securities,
(5) any moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended,
(6) all money recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund.
(7) all money credited to this state’s account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,

(8) all money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708–712; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and

(9) all monies received for the fund from any other source.

All monies in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

The administrative contingency fund shall consist of all interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title after June 20, 1953, all fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title, all sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund, and revenue received under RCW 50.24.014 and section 7 of this 1988 act: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended. Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, or the special employer services account created under section 7 of this 1988 act, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:

(a) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the monies are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.

(b) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

Money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014 may only be expended, after appropriation, for the purposes specified in this 1985 act. Money in the special employer services account created under section 7 of this 1988 act may only be expended, after appropriation, for services described in that section.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 205, Laws of 1984 as last amended by section 3, chapter 171, Laws of 1987 and RCW 50.29.025 are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

(1) A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the following March 31st. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The fund balance ratio shall be expressed as a percentage.

(2) The interval of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

The array shall show for each qualified employer: (a) Identification number; (b) benefit ratio; (c) taxable payrolls for the four calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date and reported to the department by the cut-off date; (d) a cumulative total of taxable payrolls consisting of the employer’s taxable payroll plus the taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him or her in the array; and (e) the percentage equivalent of the cumulative total of taxable payrolls.

(4) Each employer in the array shall be assigned to one of twenty rate classes according to the percentage intervals of cumulative taxable payrolls set forth in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That if an employer’s taxable payroll falls within two or more rate classes, the employer and any other employer with the same benefit ratio shall be assigned to the lowest rate class which includes any portion of the employer’s taxable payroll.

(5) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the contribution rate for each employer in the array shall be the rate specified in the following table for the rate class to which he or she has been assigned, as determined under subsection (4) of this section, within the tax schedule which is to be in effect during the rate year:

However, if federal funding is provided or increased to provide for the financing of the services specified in this act, or if the legislature appropriates funds for such services in the 1988 omnibus appropriations act adopted prior to July 1, 1988, the appropriation under this section shall be reduced by the amount that federal funding is increased specifically for such services, or by the amount of such appropriation in the 1988 omnibus appropriations act. This portion of the state appropriation under this section shall be deposited in the unemployment compensation fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 50.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The employment security department shall report on the special employer services described under sections 1, 2 and 7 of this act to the senate economic development and labor committee and the house of representatives commerce and labor committee, or appropriate successor committees, by December 1, 1988. The report shall include a discussion of alternative funding mechanisms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. SSB 6309 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Children & Family Services: Revising rules for dependency proceedings. Reported by Committee on Human Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, as now or hereafter amended, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Such an order may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:

(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;

(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;

(iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;
(iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home; or
(v) The extent of the child’s disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child’s home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent–child ties. All aspects of the plan shall be consistent with the best interests of the child, including the goal of achieving permanence for the child.
(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody (and) what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody, and a time limit for each service plan and parental requirement.
(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent–child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.
(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child’s home as possible, preferably in the child’s own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child’s or parents’ well-being.
(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue. The review shall include findings regarding the agency and parental completion of disposition plan requirements, and if necessary, revised permanency time limits.
(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.
(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:
(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunition;
(ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;
(iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;
(iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child’s parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and
(v) When return of the child can be expected.
(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 3, chapter 311. Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.34.070 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons, one directed to the child, if the child is twelve or more years of age, and another to the parents, guardian, or custodian, and such other persons as appear to the court to be proper or necessary parties to the proceedings, requiring them to appear personally before the court at the time fixed to hear the petition. If the child is developmentally disabled and not living at home, the notice shall be given to the child’s custodian as well as to the child’s parent. The developmentally disabled child shall not be required to appear unless requested by the court. Where the custodian is summoned, the parent or guardian or both shall also be served with a summons. (The hearing on the petition shall be set for a time no later than forty-five days after the filing of the petition and shall be held at such time, unless for good cause the hearing is continued to a later time at the request of either party.) The hearing on the petition shall be held no later than seventy-five days after the filing of the petition, unless exceptional reasons for a continuance are found. The party requesting the continuance shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that exceptional circumstances do exist. To ensure that the hearing on the petition occurs within the seventy-five day time limit, the court shall schedule and hear the matter on an expedited basis.
(2) A copy of the petition shall be attached to each summons.
(3) The summons shall advise the parties of the right to counsel.
(4) The judge may endorse upon the summons an order directing any parent, guardian, or custodian having the custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing.
(5) If it appears from affidavit or sworn statement presented to the judge that there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant of arrest or that the child needs to be taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050, the Judge may endorse upon the summons an order that an officer serving the summons shall at once take the child into custody and take him to the place of shelter designated by the court.

(6) If the person summoned as provided in this section is subject to an order of the court pursuant to subsection (4) or (5) of this section, and if the person fails to abide by the order, he may be proceeded against as for contempt of court. The order endorsed upon the summons shall conspicuously display the following legend:

NOTICE: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS SUBJECT TO PROCEEDING FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT
PURSUANT TO RCW 13.34.070.

(7) If a party to be served with a summons can be found within the state, the summons shall be served upon the party personally at least five court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court. If the party is within the state and cannot be personally served, but the party's address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served upon the party by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail at least ten court days before the hearing, or such time as set by the court. If a party other than the child is without the state but can be found or the address is known, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy thereof to the party personally or by mailing a copy thereof to the party by certified mail at least ten court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court.

(8) Service of summons may be made under the direction of the court by any person eighteen years of age or older who is not a party to the proceedings or by any law enforcement officer, probation counselor, or department of social and health services social worker.

(9) In any proceeding brought under this chapter where the court knows or has reason to know that the child involved is a member of an Indian tribe, notice of the pendency of the proceeding shall also be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the child's tribe. If the identity or location of the tribe cannot be determined, such notice shall be transmitted to the secretary of the interior of the United States.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

A dependency may only be maintained for a maximum period of two years, at which time the court shall: (1) Approve a permanent plan of care which can include one of the following: Adoption, guardianship, or placement of the child in the home of the child's parent; (2) require filing of a petition for termination of parental rights; or (3) dismiss the dependency, unless the court finds, based on clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, that it is in the best interest of the child to continue the dependency beyond two years, based on a permanent plan of care. Extensions may only be granted in increments of six months or less unless a juvenile court guardianship is in effect."

FSSB 6316 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Providing for the seizure of assets in drug cases. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that: Drug offenses and crimes resulting from illegal drug use are destructive to society; the nature of drug trafficking results in many property crimes and crimes of violence; state and local governmental agencies incur immense expenses in the investigation, prosecution, adjudication, incarceration, and treatment of drug-related offenders and the compensation of their victims; drug-related offenses are difficult to eradicate because of the profits derived from the criminal activities, which can be invested in legitimate assets and later used for further criminal activities; and the forfeiture of real assets where a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the substances and the real property will provide a significant deterrent to crime by removing the profit incentive of drug trafficking, and will provide a revenue source that will partially defray the large costs incurred by government as a result of these crimes. The legislature recognizes that seizure of real property is a very powerful tool and should not be applied in cases in which a manifest injustice would occur as a result of forfeiture of an innocent spouse's community property interest.

Sec. 2. Section 15, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 9, chapter 124, Laws of 1986 and RCW 69.50.505 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture and no property right exists in them:

E2SSB 6380
Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Providing for a water use efficiency study. Reported by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:
The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto.
In order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987."
The legislature further finds that: There is a continuing agricultural water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities; and improved efficiency of water use could provide an important new supply of water in many parts of the state with which to meet future water needs and that improved efficiency of water use should receive greater emphasis in the management of the state's water resources.

In order to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate unsatisfactory water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, and for the water research center at Washington State University to carry out a comprehensive water use efficiency study for the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The water research center at Washington State University shall carry out a comprehensive study of water use efficiency in this state. The center, in consultation with other interested agencies, organizations, and the public, shall investigate and evaluate opportunities and means for achieving water use efficiency improvements. The evaluation shall include but not be limited to the following:

1. Review and analysis of water use efficiency initiatives in other states;
2. Review of the water use efficiency recommendations of the western governors association;
3. Identification of existing institutional and economic disincentives to efficient water use;
4. Identification of existing and potential incentives that could bring about improved efficiency of use;
5. Identification of alternatives for improving efficiency of use;
6. Estimation of potential water savings and public and private costs from implementing alternatives;
7. Identification of a recommended approach for improving water use efficiency; and
8. Development of recommendations for any needed changes in laws, rules, policies, procedures, and programs to facilitate improved water use efficiency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A water use efficiency policy advisory committee is hereby created to assist the water research center in completing the investigations in section 2 of this act.

(2) One representative from each of the following categories shall be a voting member of the advisory committee:
(a) The office of the governor:
(b) Indian tribes;
(c) Environmental organizations;
(d) Municipalities in heavily populated areas;
(e) Municipalities in rural agricultural areas;
(f) A state-wide water resources association created under chapter 87.76 RCW;
(g) Water utilities;
(h) Manufacturing industry;
(i) Producers of irrigated agricultural products; and
(j) Owners and operators of cattle farms.

(3) Eight members of the legislature shall be voting members of the advisory committee:
(a) Four members of the House of Representatives, appointed by the Speaker, two from each major political party of which one member from each major political party shall be a member of the agriculture and rural development committee; and
(b) Four members of the Senate, appointed by the President of the Senate, two from each major political party of which one member from each major political party shall be a member of the agriculture committee.

(4) Representatives of the appropriate state and federal agencies shall serve as nonvoting members of the advisory committee.

The governor shall appoint the members of the advisory committee listed in subsections (2) and (4) of this section. Any nominations for appointments to fill positions on the advisory committee which may be submitted to the governor for the governor's consideration shall be submitted not later than ten business days after the effective date of this section. Wherever possible, the various interest groups within a category listed in subsection (2) of this section shall attempt to identify one nominee in common for the category.

(6) The center shall consult on a regular and frequent basis with interested organizations and individuals. The center shall hold public meetings to inform the public about the study, and to receive public comments on a draft report of its study findings, its recommendations, and those of the advisory committee. Before conducting these meetings on such a draft report or recommendations, the center shall present them at a meeting of the house of representatives and senate agriculture committees, meeting jointly or separately, to receive the comments of committee members. The center shall also present the results of the public meetings on such a draft report or recommendations to the house of representatives and senate agriculture committees as well as the center's proposed response to the comments received at those public meetings before preparing its final report and recommendations.

The center shall document public comments, the advisory committee’s recommendations, and those of the center, if they differ, in a final water use efficiency report. The final report shall also include an estimate of staffing and funding needed to carry out the recommended approach. The center shall provide the final report to the house of representatives and senate agriculture committees no later than December 30, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No aspect of the study authorized by sections 1 through 3 of this act may authorize any interference whatsoever with existing water rights. The study shall in all respects be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.83B.325 to the same extent as any provision of RCW 43.83B.300 through 43.83B.345.

Sec. 5. Section 704, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

SB 6397  Prime Sponsor, Senator Barr: Revising provisions relating to forest fires.

Reported by Committee on Natural Resources

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 76.04 RCW to read as follows:

Upon arriving at the scene of a forest fire, the first priority of the employees or agents of the department shall be to attempt to extinguish the fire, and attempts to conduct a survey of contiguous property to ascertain the necessity to remove individuals or property from the area of the fire shall be secondary to that responsibility. This section shall not be construed as preventing assistance to individuals in immediate danger from the fire.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 76.04 RCW to read as follows:

1. The legislature finds and declares that forest lands within the state are increasingly being used for residential purposes; that the risk to life and property is increasing from forest fires which may destroy developed property; that the department’s primary mission is to protect forest land and suppress forest fires; that a primary mission of the rural fire districts and municipal fire departments is to protect improved property and suppress structural fires; that adjustment of the geographic areas of responsibility for the respective fire control agencies has not kept pace with the increasing use of forest lands for residential purposes; and that the department should work with the state’s other fire control agencies to define geographic areas of responsibility that are more consistent with their respective primary missions.

2. To accomplish the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall establish a procedure to clarify its geographic areas of responsibility. The areas of department protection shall be called forest protection zones. The forest protection zones shall include all forest land which the department is obligated to protect but shall not include forest land within rural fire districts or municipal fire districts which affected local fire control agencies agree, by mutual consent with the department, is not appropriate for department protection. Forest land not included within a forest protection zone shall not be assessed under RCW 76.04.610 or 76.04.630.

3. After the department and any affected local fire protection agencies have agreed on the boundary of a forest protection zone, the department shall establish the boundary by rule under chapter 34.04 RCW.

4. Except by agreement of the affected parties, the establishment of forest protection zones shall not alter any mutual aid agreement.

Sec. 3. Section 35, chapter 100, Laws of 1986 and RCW 76.04.610 are each amended to read as follows:

1. If any owner of forest land within a forest protection zone, or any owner of forest land where no zone is established, neglects or fails to provide adequate fire protection as required by RCW 76.04.600, the department shall provide such protection, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 76.04.630, at a cost to the owner of not to exceed twenty-one cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and seventeen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains: PROVIDED, That (((4))) of this proviso, the cost for any ownership parcel containing less than thirty acres shall be less than five dollars and ten cents east of the Cascade mountains and six dollars and thirty cents west of the Cascade mountains; and (((5))) of this provision, an owner of two or more parcels per county, each containing less than thirty acres, may obtain a refund of the assessments paid on all such parcels and one by applying therefor within the year the assessment was due to the department ((of natural resources)), in such form as the department may require ((upon showing to the satisfaction of the department)). Verification that all assessments and property taxes on the property have been paid ((but)) shall be provided to the department by the owner. If the total acreage of the parcels exceeds thirty acres, the per-acre rate shall apply and the refund shall be computed accordingly. Application for the refund may be made by mail.

(2) For the purpose of this chapter, the supervisor may divide the forest lands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for fire protection and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of the department of natural resources for protection of these lands from any funds at the supervisor’s disposal shall be a lien upon the property protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of the department of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by the supervisor as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of the department of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor shall upon authorization from the supervisor of the department of natural resources levy the forest ((fire)) protection assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor’s records and the assessor may then segregate on his or her records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the millage levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in RCW 52.16.170.

(3) The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the (supervisor of the) department ((of natural resources)) certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Assessments shall be known and designated as assessments of the year in which the amounts became reimbursable. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the (supervisor of the) department ((of natural resources to)). Collections shall be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section, including necessary and reasonable administrative costs incurred by the department in the enforcement of these provisions. The department may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary administrative costs in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.660.

(4) When land against which forest ((fire)) protection assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county’s delinquent tax judgment ((and)). The county treasurer, in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment, shall forthwith remit to the (supervisor of the) department ((of natural resources)) the amount of the outstanding forest ((fire)) protection assessments.

(5) All nonfederal public bodies owning or administering forest land((s)) included in a forest protection zone shall pay the forest ((fire)) protection assessments provided in this section and the special forest fire suppression account assessments under RCW 76.04.630. The forest ((fire)) protection assessments and special forest fire suppression account assessments shall be payable by nonfederal public bodies from any available funds within thirty days following receipt of the written notice from the department which is given after October 1st of the year in which the protection was provided. Unpaid assessments shall not be a lien against the nonfederal publicly owned land but shall constitute a debt by the nonfederal public body to the department and shall be subject to interest charges ((in the same amount as other unpaid forest fire protection assessments)) at the legal rate.

(6) A public body, having failed to previously pay the forest ((fire)) protection assessments required of it by this section, which fails to suppress a fire on or originating from forest lands owned or administered by it, shall be liable for the costs of suppression incurred by the department or its agent and shall not be entitled to reimbursement of any costs incurred by the public body in the suppression activities.

(7) The supervisor of the department of natural resources shall furnish the surety company bond under RCW 43.30.170(6), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

(8) The (supervisor of the) department ((of natural resources)) may adopt rules to implement this section, including, but not limited to, rules on ((the)) levying and collecting ((of)) forest ((fire)) protection assessments.

Sec. 4. Section 45, chapter 100, Laws of 1986 and RCW 76.04.750 are each amended to read as follows:
Any fire on or threatening any forest land burning uncontrolled and without proper action being taken to prevent its spread, notwithstanding the origin of the fire, is a public nuisance by reason of its menace to life and property. Any person engaged in any activity on such lands, having knowledge of the fire, notwithstanding the origin or consequent spread thereof on his or her own or other forest lands, and the landowner, shall make every reasonable effort to suppress the fire. If the person has not suppressed the fire and the fire is on or threatening forest land within a forest protection zone, the department shall summarily suppress the fire. If the owner, lessee, other possessor of such land, or an agent or contractor of the owner, lessee, or possessor, having knowledge of the fire, has not made a reasonable effort to suppress the fire, the cost thereof may be recovered from the owner, lessee, or other possessor of the land and the cost of the work shall also constitute a lien upon the real property or chattels under the person's ownership. The lien may be filed by the department in the office of the county auditor and foreclosed in the same manner provided by law for the foreclosure of mechanics' liens. The prosecuting attorney shall bring the action to recover the cost or foreclose the lien, upon the request of the department. In the absence of negligence, no costs, other than those provided in RCW 76.04.475, shall be recovered from any landowner for lands subject to the forest ((fire)) protection assessment with respect to the land on which the fire burns.

When a fire occurs in a land clearing, right of way clearing, or landowner operation it shall be fought to the full limit of the available employees and equipment, and the fire fighting shall be continued with the necessary crews and equipment in such numbers as are, in the opinion of the department, sufficient to suppress the fire. The fire shall not be left without a fire fighting crew or fire patrol until authority has been granted in writing by the department.

Sec. 5. Section 36.70.330, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1985 and RCW 36.70.330 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive plan shall consist of a map or maps, and descriptive text covering objectives, principles and standards used to develop it, and shall include each of the following elements:

1. A land use element which designates the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of land for agriculture, housing, commerce, industry, recreation, education, public buildings and lands, and other categories of public and private use of land, including a statement of the standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various areas in the jurisdiction and estimates of future population growth in the area covered by the comprehensive plan, all correlated with the land use element of the comprehensive plan.

2. The land use element shall also provide for protection of the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies and shall review drainage, flooding, and storm water run-off in the area and nearby jurisdictions and provide guidance for corrective actions to mitigate or cleanse those discharges that pollute Puget Sound or waters entering Puget Sound.

3. In any comprehensive plan adopted or amended after the effective date of this 1988 act, the land use element shall also consider the degree of fire hazard in high fire-risk forested areas in providing for the location and extent of allowable residential uses and for necessary road and water system standards for residential uses.

4. A circulation element consisting of the general location, alignment and extent of major thoroughfares, major transportation routes, trunk utility lines, and major terminal facilities, all of which shall be correlated with the land use element of the comprehensive plan.

5. Any supporting maps, diagrams, charts, descriptive material and reports necessary to explain and supplement the above elements.

SB 6408  Prime Sponsor, Senator Benitz: Revising provisions on the state energy code. Reported by Committee on Energy & Utilities

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The revised state energy code shall supersede all local government residential energy codes except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section: PROVIDED, That cities, towns, and counties may adopt more energy efficient codes for residential construction if the builder or owner of new residential construction is reimbursed by an authorized federal agency program or authorized local utility, or both, for those additional costs to the consumer attributable to the more energy efficient codes. This subsection shall not apply after January 1, ((1989)) 1990. In establishing this date it is not the legislature's intent to discourage any city, town, or county from adopting a more energy efficient code so long as the consumer is adequately reimbursed.

(2) The revised state energy code shall not preempt energy codes adopted by a city, town, or county of the state prior to ((April 24, 1985)) January 15, 1988, or first class cities with a population over three hundred thousand which operate electrical utilities, that are designed to achieve reduction in energy consumption relative to the revised state energy code.

(3) The revised state energy code shall not preempt a less energy efficient energy code adopted by a county, city, or town if it can be shown that the revised state energy code is not cost-effective for that county, city, or town.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The University of Washington college of architecture and department of mechanical engineering shall conduct in situ testing of the annual thermal transmittance of individual construction components and conservation measures proposed for new residential construction by the northwest power planning council.

(2) There shall be a committee to oversee the study. The committee shall include the director of the state energy office as chair; two members recommended by the home building industry chosen by the governor; and two members nationally renowned as experts in building energy performance chosen by the governor.

(3) The study shall include an analysis of the economic feasibility of adopting thermal performance standards for new residential construction as proposed by the northwest power planning council. The study of economic feasibility shall include but not necessarily be limited to factors which shall not require an amortization of the individual components exceeding a life cycle of seven years and a discount rate (interest) computed at the current conventional market rate of home mortgages at par.

(4) The director of the state energy office shall (((make recommendations, based on the results of the study and the residential standards demonstration program, to the legislature and the state building code advisory council regarding the cost-effectiveness of the revised state energy code developed pursuant to RCW 19.27.075 no later than January 15, 1988)) establish a scientific peer review panel to assess the validity of the results of the study, the results of the residential standards demonstration program and other relevant data sources, and any proposed recommendations based on those results. The peer review panel shall include representatives of the national laboratories, the national association of homebuilders research foundation, the electric power research institute, the gas research institute and the international conference of building officials. The director of the state energy office shall make recommendations based on the study, the residential standards demonstration program and other relevant data sources, and the conclusions of the scientific peer review panel to the legislature and the state building code council regarding the cost-effectiveness of the revised state energy code developed pursuant to RCW 19.27A.020 no later than January 15, 1989.

(5) If federal funds are not available, the study shall be funded by a surcharge on building permit fees for new building construction imposed by all local governments of the state. The department of community development, after consultation with the state energy office, shall develop and implement a method of collecting the surcharge. The surcharge shall be ten dollars on all multifamily residential building permits, fifteen dollars on all single-family residen­

Acquisition and development of an accessible state facility of international Olympic quality will promote international competition, target practice and safety training, and Olympic-type training events. Facilities throughout the state will promote tourism and provide added recreational opportunities and greater hunting safety for the citizens of this state.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 2. (1) The Washington state firearm range committee is created.

(3) There shall be four nonvoting ex officio members, one from each caucus of the senate and the house of representatives, approved by the lieutenant governor or the speaker of the house of representatives, as appropriate.

(4) The members of the committee shall select one of its members as chair. The committee shall meet at the call of the chair.

(5) Committee members shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 3. The Washington state firearm range committee shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Assess local, state, federal, and tribal law enforcement needs in cooperation with the association of sheriffs and police chiefs and the criminal justice training commission;

(3) Survey the existing public and private firearm facilities to assess excess demands;
(4) Review similar facilities in other states or countries including the Olympic firearm training center in Colorado Springs;
(5) Develop a proposed public and private use and cost ratio and a program for phased development and cost sharing for planning, construction, and operation;
(6) In cooperation with the department of natural resources and other state and local agencies, identify state lands that may be used for those facilities;
(7) Fully investigate private and state liability issues and prepare proposals for liability limitations, insurance needs, and costs;
(8) Analyze the appropriate state role in the facility planning, development, and use, including possible public and private contracting options; and

(9) Investigate and prepare recommendations on private and public funding sources including private donations and grants and county, city, and state funding.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 4. The committee shall make recommendations on the type of facility that would be appropriate for the various sites. The type of range may include but not be limited to pistol, rifle, shotgun, archery, or any combination thereof including a comprehensive multiple-use facility.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 5. The wildlife department, the department of natural resources, the department of trade and economic development, the parks and recreation commission, the house of representatives, and the senate shall provide support staff for the committee.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 7. The committee shall prepare a report and submit it to the legislature by January 1, 1990. The committee shall terminate February 1, 1990.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 8. The committee shall study the possibility of establishing a surcharge on hunting licenses and tags and shall include recommendations in the report required by section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 77.32 RCW to read as follows:

The firearm range account is hereby created in the state wildlife fund. Moneys in the account shall be subject to legislative appropriation and shall be used for land, construction, development, and operation of firearm ranges and sporting training and practice facilities.
Sec. 10, Section 7, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 3, chapter 428, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.41.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The judge of a court of record, the chief of police of a municipality, or the sheriff of a county, shall within thirty days after the filing of an application of any person issue a license to such person to carry a pistol concealed on his person within this state for four years from date of issue, for the purposes of protection or while engaged in business, sport or while traveling. However, if the applicant does not have a valid permanent Washington driver’s license or Washington state identification card or has not been a resident of the state for the previous consecutive ninety days, the issuing authority shall have up to sixty days after the filing of the application to issue a license. Such citizen’s constitutional right to bear arms shall not be denied to him, unless he:

(b) Is under twenty-one years of age; or

(e) Has an outstanding warrant for his or her arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor.

The license shall be revoked immediately upon conviction of a crime which makes such a person ineligible to own a pistol or upon the third conviction for a violation of this chapter within five calendar years. The license shall be in triplicate, in form to be prescribed by the department of licensing, and shall bear the name, address, and description, fingerprints and signature of the licensee, and the licensee’s driver’s license number or state identification card number if used for identification in applying for the license. The license application shall contain a warning substantially as follows:

CAUTION: Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state permit is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

The license application shall contain a description of the major differences between state and federal law and an explanation of the fact that local laws and ordinances on firearms are preempted by state law and must be consistent with state law.

The original thereof shall be delivered to the licensee, the duplicate shall within seven days be sent by registered mail to the director of licensing and the triplicate shall be preserved for six years, by the authority issuing said license.

(2) The fee for the original issuance of a four-year license shall be twenty-three dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the issuance of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund;
(b) Four dollars shall be paid to the agency taking the fingerprints of the person licensed; ((cmd))
(c) Twelve dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter; and
(d) Three dollars to the firearm range account in the wildlife fund.

(3) The fee for the renewal of such license shall be ((twelve)) fifteen dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the renewal of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund; ((cmd))
(b) Eight dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter; and
(c) Three dollars to the firearm range account in the wildlife fund.

(4) A licensee may renew a license if the licensee applies for renewal within ninety days before or after the expiration date of the license. A license so renewed shall take effect on the expiration date of the prior license. A licensee renewing after the expiration date of the license must pay a late renewal penalty of ten dollars in addition to the renewal fee specified in subsection (3) of this section. The fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Three dollars shall be deposited in the state game fund and used exclusively for the printing and distribution of a pamphlet on the legal limits of the use of firearms, firearms safety, and the preemptive nature of state law. The pamphlet shall be given to each applicant for a license; and
(b) Seven dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter.

(5) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsections (1) through (4) of this section, the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county of the applicant’s residence may issue a temporary emergency license for good cause pending review under subsection (1) of this section.

(6) A political subdivision of the state shall not modify the requirements of this section or chapter, nor may a political subdivision ask the applicant to voluntarily submit any information not required by this section. A civil suit may be brought to enjoin a wrongful refusal to issue a license or a wrongful modification of the requirements of this section or chapter. The civil suit may be brought in the county in which the application was made or in Thurston county at the discretion of the petitioner. Any person who prevails against a public agency in any action in the courts for a violation of this chapter shall be awarded costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such legal action.

SSB 6513 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Providing for water supply emergencies. Reported by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to make loans or grants or combinations thereof:

(1) From funds under RCW 43.83B.010 through 43.83B.110 to eligible public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for rehabilitation or betterment of agricultural water supply facilities, and/or construction of agricultural water supply facilities required to develop new irrigated lands; or((2)) (2) from emergency agricultural water supply funds under RCW 43.83B.300 when required ((because of emergency drought conditions)) to provide water ((to previously irrigated lands)) to alleviate emergency drought conditions to assure the survival of irrigated crops and the state's fisheries. The department of ecology may make such loans or grants or combinations thereof as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds have been made available on a matching basis. A loan or combination loan and grant shall not exceed fifty percent of the approved eligible project costs for any single proposed project: PROVIDED, That for purposes authorized by RCW 43.83B.300, 43.83B.310, and 43.83B.385 the department of ecology may make a loan up to ninety percent of the total eligible project cost and the grant portion for any single project shall not exceed ((fourteen)) twenty percent of the total ((single)) project cost except that, for activities forecast to have forty percent or less of normal seasonal water supplies, the grant portion for any single project or entity shall not exceed forty percent of the total project cost. No single entity shall receive more than ten percent of the total funds available for drought relief. These funds shall not be used for nonagricultural drought relief purposes unless there are no other capital budget funds available for these purposes. The total expenditures for nonagricultural drought relief purposes shall not exceed five percent of the total funds available for drought relief purposes on the effective date of this 1988 act. Any grant or grant portion of a combination loan and grant from funds under RCW 43.83B.010 through 43.83B.110 for any single proposed project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the eligible project costs: PROVIDED, That the fifteen percent limitation established herein shall not be applicable to project commitments which the director or deputy director of the state department of ecology made to the bureau of reclamation of the United States department of interior for providing state funding at thirty-five percent of project costs during the period between August 1, 1974, and June 30, 1975.

The department of social and health services is authorized to make grants of up to forty percent of the cost of construction of any eligible project necessitated by the 1977 drought conditions. Such grants may be made only to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:
The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987 through 1989.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing (agricultural) water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities. There is an urgent need to assure the survival of irrigated crops and of the state's fisheries.

In order to provide needed (capital) money for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities (to withdraw and distribute water) and for other appropriate measures to assure the survival of irrigated crops and/or the state's fisheries to alleviate (unsatisfactory) emergency water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.310 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers previously vested in the department of ecology to permit the withdrawal of public surface and ground waters by chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW, the department of ecology is authorized to permit withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, for any period ending not later than (October 31, 1989) April 30, 1989, for any beneficial use. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.342 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to expend funds from the emergency water supply appropriations for necessary drought-related equipment and to employ a maximum of ((two and one-half)) four full-time equivalent staff positions until (October 31, 1989) April 30, 1989, for the purpose of planning and administering drought relief activities, including the development of a state drought contingency plan for responding to future drought conditions.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.344 are each amended to read as follows:

For a limited period of time ending (October 31, 1989) April 30, 1989, a water right may be temporarily changed in purpose or place of use or point of diversion consistent with existing state policies by allowing transfer or lease of waters between willing parties as provided for in RCW 90.03.380, 90.03.390, and 90.44.110 without complying with any requirements of (1) notice of newspaper publication or (2) the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW, when such changes are necessary to respond to emergency water supply conditions as determined by the department of ecology. The temporary changing of a water right as authorized under this section shall not be admissible as evidence in either the supporting or the contesting of the validity of water claims in State of Washington, Department of Ecology v. Acquavella, or any similar proceeding where the existence of a water right is at issue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

set in the quantity and distance tables adopted by the department of labor and industries by rule. The department of labor and industries shall adopt the quantity and distance tables promulgated by the federal bureau of alcohol, tobacco, and firearms unless the department determines the tables to be inappropriate. The tables shall be the basis on which applications for storage license are made and storage licenses issued as provided in RCW 70.74.110 and 70.74.120.

NEW SECONION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director of labor and industries shall require, as a condition precedent to the original issuance or renewal of any explosive license, fingerprinting and criminal history record information checks of every applicant. In the case of a corporation, fingerprinting and criminal history record information checks shall be required for the management officials directly responsible for the operations where explosives are used if such persons have not previously had their fingerprints recorded with the department of labor and industries. In the case of a partnership, fingerprinting and criminal history record information checks shall be required of all general partners. Such fingerprints as are required by the department of labor and industries shall be submitted on forms provided by the department to the identification section of the Washington state patrol and to the identification division of the federal bureau of investigation in order that these agencies may search their records for prior convictions of the individuals fingerprinted. The Washington state patrol shall provide to the director of labor and industries such criminal record information as the director may request. The applicant shall give full cooperation to the department of labor and industries and shall assist the department of labor and industries in all aspects of the fingerprinting and criminal history record information check. The applicant may be required to pay a fee not to exceed twenty dollars to the agency that performs the fingerprinting and criminal history record process.
(2) The director of labor and industries shall not issue a license to manufacture, purchase, store, use, or deal with explosives to:

(a) Any person under twenty-one years of age;

(b) Any person whose license is suspended or whose license has been revoked, except as provided in section 4 of this act;

(c) Any person who has been convicted in this state or elsewhere of a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, perjury, false swearing, or bomb threats or a crime involving a schedule I or II controlled substance, or any other drug or alcohol related offense, unless such other drug or alcohol related offense does not reflect a drug or alcohol dependency. However, the director of labor and industries may issue a license if the person suffering a drug or alcohol related dependency is participating in or has completed an alcohol or drug recovery program acceptable to the department of labor and industries and has established control of their alcohol or drug dependency. The director of labor and industries shall require the applicant to provide proof of such participation and control;

(d) Any person who has previously been adjudged to be mentally ill or insane, or to be incompetent due to any mental disability or disease and who has not at the time of application been restored to competency.

(3) The director of labor and industries may establish reasonable licensing fees for the manufacture, dealing, purchase, use, and storage of explosives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of labor and industries shall revoke and not renew the license of any person holding a manufacturer, dealer, purchaser, user, or storage license upon conviction of any of the following offenses, which conviction has become final:

(a) A violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;

(b) A crime involving perjury or false swearing, including the making of a false affidavit or statement under oath to the department of labor and industries in an application or report made pursuant to this title;

(c) A crime involving bomb threats;

(d) A crime involving a schedule I or II controlled substance, or any other drug or alcohol related offense, unless such other drug or alcohol related offense does not reflect a drug or alcohol dependency. However, the department of labor and industries may condition renewal of the license to any convicted person suffering a drug or alcohol dependency who is participating in an alcoholism or drug recovery program acceptable to the department of labor and industries and has established control of their alcohol or drug dependency.

The department of labor and industries shall require the licensee to provide proof of such participation and control;

(e) A crime relating to possession, use, transfer, or sale of explosives under this chapter or any other chapter of the Revised Code of Washington.

(2) The department of labor and industries shall revoke the license of any person adjudged to be mentally ill or insane, or to be incompetent due to any mental disability or disease. The director shall not renew the license until the person has been restored to competency.

(3) The department of labor and industries is authorized to suspend, for a period of time not to exceed six months, the license of any person who has violated this chapter or the rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(4) The department of labor and industries may revoke the license of any person who has repeatedly violated this chapter or the rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter, or who has twice had his or her license suspended under this chapter.

(5) Upon receipt of notification by the department of labor and industries of revocation or suspension, a licensee must surrender immediately to the department any or all such licenses revoked or suspended.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 111, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 13, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.110 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons engaged in the manufacture of explosives, or any process involving explosives, or where explosives are used as a component part in the manufacture of any article or device, on the date when this 1969 amendatory act takes effect, shall within sixty days thereafter, and all persons engaging in the manufacture of explosives, or any process involving explosives, or where explosives are used as a component part in the manufacture of any article or device after this act takes effect shall, before so engaging, make an application in writing, subscribed to by such person or his agent, to the department of labor and industries, the application stating:

There shall be kept in the main office on the premises of each explosives manufacturing plant a plan of said plant showing the location of all explosives manufacturing buildings and the distance they are located from other factory buildings where persons are employed and from magazines, and these plans shall at all times be open to inspection by duly authorized inspectors of the department of labor and industries. The superintendent of each plant shall upon demand of said inspector furnish the following information:

(a) The maximum amount and kind of explosive material which is or will be present in each building at one time.

Such license shall continue in full force and effect until surrendered or canceled, because of failure to comply with any of the conditions necessary for the granting of a license) expired, suspended, or revoked by the department pursuant to this chapter:

Sec. 6, Section 12, chapter 111, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 14, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.120 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons engaged in keeping or storing and all persons having in their possession explosives on the date when this 1969 amendatory act takes effect shall within sixty days thereafter, and all persons engaging in keeping or storing explosives or coming into possession thereof after this act takes effect, shall before engaging in the keeping or storing of explosives or taking possession thereof, make an application in writing subscribed to by such person or his agent, to the department of labor and industries stating:

(1) The location of the magazine, if any, if then existing, or in case of a new magazine, the proposed location of such magazine;

(2) The kind of explosives that are kept or stored or possessed or intended to be kept or stored or possessed and the maximum quantity that is intended to be kept or stored or possessed thereat;

(3) The distance that such magazine is located or intended to be located from other magazines, inhabited buildings, explosives manufacturing buildings, railroads, highways and public utility transmission systems:

(4) The name and address of the applicant;

(5) The reason for desiring to store or possess explosives;

(7) If the applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners and their citizenship;

(8) If the applicant is an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof and their citizenship;

(9) And such other pertinent information as the director of the department of labor and industries shall require to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

The department of labor and industries shall, as soon as may be after receiving such application, cause an inspection to be made of the magazine, if then constructed, and, in the case of a new magazine, as soon as may be after same is found to be constructed in accordance with the specification provided in RCW 70.74.025, such department shall determine the amount of explosives that may be kept and stored in such magazine by reference to the quantity and distance tables (set forth in RCW 70.74.030, 70.74.050 and 70.74.061; specified in or adopted under this chapter and shall issue a license to the person applying therefor unless the department shall find that such applicant is not sufficiently experienced in the handling of explosives, lacks suitable facilities therefor, has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or is disloyal to the United States) if the applicant demonstrates that either the applicant or the officers, agents, or employees of the applicant are sufficiently experienced in the handling of explosives and possess suitable storage facilities therefor, and that the applicant meets the qualifications for a license under section 3 of this 1988 act. Such license shall set forth the maximum quantity of explosives that may be had, kept or stored by said person. Such license shall be valid until canceled for one or more of the causes hereinafter provided.
Whenever by reason of change or in the physical conditions surrounding said magazine at the time of the issuance of the license therefor, such as:
(a) The erection of buildings nearer said magazine;
(b) The construction of railroads nearer said magazine;
(c) The opening for public travel of highways nearer said magazine; or
(d) The construction of public utilities transmission systems near said magazine; then the amounts of explosives which may be lawfully had, kept or stored in said magazine must be reduced to conform to such changed conditions in accordance with the quantity and distance table notwithstanding the license, and the department of labor and industries shall modify or cancel such license in accordance with the changed conditions. (Said license may also be canceled if the department of labor and industries shall find that the applicant is keeping explosives for an unlawful purpose or is disloyal to the United States.) Whenever any person to whom a license has been issued, keeps or stores in the magazine or has in his possession, any quantity of explosives in excess of the maximum amount set forth in said license, or whenever any person fails for thirty days to pay the annual license fee hereinafter provided after the same becomes due, the department is authorized to cancel such license. Whenever a license is canceled by the department for any cause herein specified, the department shall notify the person to whom such license is issued of the fact of such cancellation and shall in said notice direct the removal of all explosives stored in said magazine within ten days from the giving of said notice, or, if the cause of cancellation be the failure to pay the annual license fee, or the fact that explosives are kept for an unlawful purpose, (or the applicant is disloyal to the United States,) the department of labor and industries shall order such person to dispossess himself of said explosives within ten days from the giving of said notice. Failure to remove the explosives stored in said magazine or to dispossess oneself of the explosives as herein provided within the time specified in said notice shall constitute a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 101, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 16, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(3) Citizenship, if an individual applicant;
(4) If a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners and their citizenship;
(5) If an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof and their citizenship; and
(6) Such other pertinent information as the director of labor and industries shall require to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

The department of labor and industries shall issue the license (applied for unless the department finds that either the applicant or any of the officers, agents or employees of the applicant are not sufficiently experienced in the business of dealing in explosives, lack suitable facilities thereof, have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or are disloyal to the United States. Said license may be canceled for any cause that would prevent the initial issuance thereof) if the applicant demonstrates that either the applicant or the principal officers, agents, or employees of the applicant are experienced in the business of dealing in explosives, possess suitable facilities thereof, have not been convicted of any crime that would warrant revocation or nonrenewal of a license under this chapter, and have never had an explosives-related license revoked under this chapter or under similar provisions of any other state.

agents or employees of the applicant are (not) sufficiently experienced in the use of explosives((lack suitable facilities therefor; have been convicted of a felony involving force or violence; are ineligible to the United States. Said license may be canceled for any cause that would prevent the initial issuance thereof; or for any violation of this chapter)) to authorize a purchase license. However, no purchaser's license may be issued to any person who cannot document proof of possession or right to use approved and licensed storage facilities unless the person signs a statement certifying that explosives will not be stored.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

SSB 6603  Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources: Revising air quality opacity limitations. Reported by Committee on Environmental Affairs

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 46, chapter 238. Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 39, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and by section 13, chapter 405, Laws of 1987 and RCW 70.94.331 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall have all the powers as provided in RCW 70.94.141.
(2) The department, in addition to any other powers vested in it by law after consideration at a public hearing held in accordance with chapter 42.30 RCW and chapter 34.04 RCW shall:
   (a) Adopt rules and regulations establishing air quality objectives and air quality standards;
   (b) Adopt emission standards which shall constitute minimum emission standards throughout the state. An authority may enact more stringent emission standards, except for emission performance standards for new wood stoves and opacity levels for residential solid fuel burning devices which shall be state-wide, but in no event may less stringent standards be enacted by an authority without the prior approval of the department after public hearing and due notice to interested parties;
   (c) Adopt by rule and regulation air quality standards and emission standards for the control or prohibition of emissions to the outdoor atmosphere of radionuclides, dust, fumes, mist, smoke, other particulate matter, vapor, gas, odorous substances, or any combination thereof.
   Such requirements may be based upon a system of classification by types of emissions or types of sources of emissions, or combinations thereof, which it determines most feasible for the purposes of this chapter. However, an industry, or the air pollution control authority having jurisdiction, can choose, subject to the submittal of appropriate data that the industry has quantified, to have any limit on the opacity of emissions from a source whose emission standard is stated in terms of a weight of particulate per unit volume of air (e.g., grains per dry standard cubic foot) be based on the applicable particulate emission standard for that source, such that any violation of the opacity limit accurately indicates a violation of the applicable particulate emission standard. A reasonable fee may be assessed to the industry to which the alternate opacity standard would apply. The fee shall cover only those costs to the air pollution control authority which are directly related to the determination on the acceptability of the alternate opacity standard, including testing, oversight and review of data.
(3) The air quality standards and emission standards may be for the state as a whole or may vary from area to area, except that emission performance standards for new wood stoves and opacity levels for residential solid fuel burning devices shall be state-wide, as may be appropriate to facilitate the accomplishment of the objectives of this chapter and to take necessary or desirable account of varying local conditions of population concentration, the existence of actual or reasonable foreseeable air pollution, topographic and meteorologic conditions and other pertinent variables.
(4) The department is directed to cooperate with the appropriate agencies of the United States or other states or any interstate agencies or international agencies with respect to the control of air pollution and air contamination, or for the formulation for the submission to the legislature of interstate air pollution control compacts or agreements.
(5) The department is directed to conduct or cause to be conducted a continuous surveillance program to monitor the quality of the ambient atmosphere as to concentrations and movements of air contaminants.
(6) The department shall enforce the air quality standards and emission standards throughout the state except where a local authority is enforcing the state regulations or its own regulations which are more stringent than those of the state.
(7) The department shall encourage local units of government to handle air pollution problems within their respective jurisdictions; and, on a cooperative basis provide technical and consultative assistance therefor.
(8) The department shall have the power to require the addition to or deletion of a county from an existing authority in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no such addition or deletion shall be made without the concurrence of any existing authority involved. Such action shall only be taken after a public hearing held pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW."

SB 6638 Prime Sponsor, Senator Niemi: Providing conditional scholarships for nursing students. Reported by Committee on Health Care

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that significant changes occurring simultaneously in the health care delivery system and the demography of the national population are resulting in a shortage of qualified nursing personnel which has the potential of dramatically reducing the quality of health care in the state of Washington, particularly in long-term care and critical emergent care. One of the more important contributors to this shortage is the fall in enrollment of students wishing to pursue nursing as a career. In today's complex health care environment, a more integrated approach to the delivery of nursing care may provide comprehensive answers to the problem. The legislature finds that encouraging qualified individuals to enter the nursing profession is of paramount importance to the state in reducing this shortage. The legislature urges the health professions, industry, and philanthropic community organizations to join with state government in assuring the success of this program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.
(1) 'Conditional scholarship' means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders nursing service as a nurse serving in a nurse shortage area, as defined by the state health coordinating council.

(2) 'Institution of higher education' or 'institute' means a community college, vocational-technical school, or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board.

(3) 'Board' means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) 'Eligible student' means a student who has been accepted into a program leading to eligibility for licensure as a licensed practical nurse, or to a program leading to an associate, baccalaureate, or higher degree in nursing or continues satisfactory progress within the program; and has a declared intention to serve in a nurse shortage area upon completion of the educational program.

(5) 'Nurse shortage area' means those areas where nurses are in short supply as a result of geographic maldistribution; or specialty areas of nursing, such as geriatrics or critical care, where vacancies exist in serious numbers that jeopardize patient care and pose a threat to the public health and safety. The state health coordinating council shall determine nurse shortage areas in the state guided by federal standards of 'health manpower shortage areas.'

(6) 'Forgiven' or 'to forgive' or 'forgiveness' means to render nursing service in a nurse shortage area in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(7) 'Participant' means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The nurses conditional scholarship program is established. The program shall be administered by the higher education coordinating board in consultation with the state board for community college education. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Select students to receive conditional scholarships to attend institutions of higher education, with the assistance of a screening committee;

(2) Adopt rules and guidelines to implement this chapter;

(3) Publicize the program;

(4) Collect and manage repayments from students who do not meet their services obligations under this chapter;

(5) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program;

(6) Develop criteria for a contract for service in lieu of the five-year service in a nurse shortage area where appropriate, that may be a combination of service and payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The higher education coordinating board shall establish a planning committee to develop criteria for the screening and selection of recipients of the conditional scholarships. These criteria also may include, for approximately half of the recipients, requirements that those recipients meet the definition of 'needy student' under RCW 28B.10.802.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The board may award conditional scholarships to eligible students from the funds appropriated to the board for this purpose, or from any private donations, or any other funds given to the board for this program. The amount of the conditional scholarship awarded an individual shall not exceed three thousand dollars per academic year. Students are eligible to receive conditional scholarships for a maximum of five years while continually enrolled in an approved program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Participants in the conditional scholarship program incur an obligation to repay the conditional scholarship, with interest, unless they serve for five years in nurse shortage areas of the state of Washington. Nurse shortage areas may include geographical areas as a result of maldistribution, or specialty areas of nursing such as gerontology, critical care, or coronary care.

(2) The terms of the repayment, including deferral of the interest, shall be consistent with the terms of the federal guaranteed loan program.

(3) The period for repayment shall be five years, with payments accruing quarterly commencing nine months from the date the participant completes or discontinues the course of study.

(4) The entire principal and interest of each payment shall be forgiven for each payment period in which the participant serves in a nurse shortage area, as determined by the state health coordinating council, until the entire repayment obligation is satisfied or the borrower ceases to so serve. Should the participant cease to serve in this state before the participant's repayment obligation is completed, payments on the unsatisfied portion of the principal and interest shall begin the next payment period and continue until the remainder of the participant's repayment obligation is satisfied.

(5) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made under this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to ensure that maximum repayments are made. Collection and servicing of repayments under this section shall be pursued using the full extent of the law, including wage garnishment if necessary, and shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established in this section and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(6) Receipts from the payment of principal or interest or any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of participants under this section, shall be deposited with the higher education coordinating board and shall be used to cover the costs of granting the conditional scholarships, maintaining necessary records, and making collections under subsection (5) of this section. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant conditional scholarships to eligible students.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. After consulting with the higher education coordinating board, the governor may transfer the administration of this program to another agency with an appropriate educational mission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No conditional scholarships may be granted after June 30, 1994.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.
The legislature hereby establishes as state policy the goal of economic independence for employable adults receiving public assistance, through employment, training, and education. The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents. The legislature finds that the state has a vital interest in ensuring that citizens who are in economic need are provided appropriate financial assistance. It is the intent of the legislature to maintain the existing partnership between the state and federal government and that this program remain part of the federal welfare entitlement program. The legislature seeks federal authority for a five-year demonstration project and recognizes that waivers and congressional action may be required to achieve our purpose. The legislature does not seek a block grant approach to welfare.

The legislature recognizes that any program intended to assist new and current public assistance recipients will be more likely to succeed when the state, private sector, and recipients work together. The legislature also recognizes the value of building on successul programs that utilize the development of networking and mentoring strategies to assist public assistance recipients to gain self-sufficiency. The legislature further encourages public-private cooperation in the areas of job readiness training, education, job training, and work opportunities, including community-based organizations as service providers in these areas through contractual relationships.

The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents. The legislature recognizes the substantial participation in the workforce of women with preschool children, and the difficulty in reentering employment after long absences. The legislature further recognizes that public assistance recipients can play a major role in setting their own goals.

The objectives of this chapter are to assure that: The maximum number of recipients of public assistance become independent and self-sufficient through employment, training, and education; caseloads be correspondingly reduced on a long-term basis; financial incentives be available to recipients participating in job readiness, education, training, and work programs; the number of children growing up in poverty be substantially reduced; and unemployable recipients be afforded a basic level of financial and medical assistance consistent with the state's financial capabilities.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The executive committee shall establish a family opportunity advisory council in each of the department's regions to make recommendations on the social services, procedures, and income maintenance operations used in the family independence program. The councils shall also assist in providing mentors, mutual self-help, and information on alternatives to welfare dependency. The councils shall include: (a) Individuals currently receiving assistance; (b) individuals who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence; and (c) persons who are board members or employees of nonprofit organizations providing services of the types offered to family independence program recipients, including those with experience in developing self-esteem and individual motivation. A regional advisory council may establish panels representing specific geographic areas within the region.

(2) Each advisory council shall nominate three persons from which the executive committee shall elect one person from each region to be a member of the advisory committee authorized by RCW 74.21.060. Appointments shall be for a term of two years. Terms may be renewed for one additional two-year term. Three regional appointments shall initially be for a term of one year. The regional representatives shall constitute the consumer and enrollee representatives required by 74.21.050.

(3) Recipients and former recipients may be paid a per diem rate established by the executive committee. Members may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Recipients and former recipients may also be reimbursed for dependent care expenses required to permit their participation in the family opportunity advisory councils, the executive committee, and the family independence program advisory committee.

(4) The department may, within available funds, provide grants to each family opportunity council to assist and support their activities and to assist in the recruitment and training of volunteer mentors.

Sec. 4. Section 14, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) By January 1, 1988, the executive committee shall submit to the legislature:
   (a) A child-care plan, which may include creative solutions to assist enrollees in making child-care arrangements;
   (b) In consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, a plan for assisting high school students who are parents or pregnant to remain in school or complete their high school education;
   (c) A plan for motivating those who are discouraged to seek self-sufficiency through work, education, or training;
   (d) An employment plan for enrollees; and
   (e) A plan for phased-in implementation of the family independence program.

(2) By January 1, 1988, the legislative budget committee, after consultation with the executive committee, shall submit to the legislature:
   (a) An evaluation plan satisfactory to the federal government, including a plan for analysis, within available funds, of:
      (i) The costs and effectiveness of the family independence program;
      (ii) The extent to which education and training opportunities have led to employment and economic independence;
      (iii) The extent to which support services have been provided for such education and training opportunities;
      (iv) The impact of support services, training opportunities, and employment on the well-being of the children and families of enrollees;
      (v) The impact of the family independence program on the labor market opportunities available to nonenrollees;
      (vi) The impact of the family independence program on the early childhood education assistance program;

   (1) A comparison of the family independence program enrollees with a sample of aid to families with dependent children recipients entering assistance between July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, to determine the characteristics of the caseloads of the family independence program and the aid to families with dependent children program, including demographic characteristics, employment, training, and educational histories, spells on assistance, and reasons for entry onto and exit from assistance;

   (2) Such administrative and operational factors as may be requested by the executive committee;

   (3) A longitudinal study over time of a sample of public assistance recipients or persons at risk of becoming eligible for assistance, to determine the causes of public dependency and the impact of changes in the economy or of public programs on dependency, work, or other relevant behaviors of the sample population.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause the evaluation plan to be implemented as approved by the legislative budget committee in a manner that will insure the independence of the evaluation through appropriate arrangements, which may include contracts, with objective evaluators. The evaluation plan and all evaluation products shall receive the review and comment of evaluation advisory groups to be convened by the Washington Institute of public policy and which include representatives of the executive committee, appropriate legislative committee staffs, persons from the state's higher education institutions, staff members of the department and the employment security department, recipients, and former recipients. The reviews shall consider relevance to state policy and budget concerns, methodological procedure, implementation, and results.

(4) The first report of this evaluation shall be submitted to the legislature no later than December 1, 1989, and annually thereafter, with a final report due no later than November 15, 1993.

Sec. 5. Section 25, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.904 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall expire on June 30, 1993, unless extended by law.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:
If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, as now or hereafter amended, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.
(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:
(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.
(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Such an order may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:
(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;
(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;
(iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;
(iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home and an order under RCW 26.44.063 would not protect the child from danger; or
(v) The extent of the child's disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.
(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties.
(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody and what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:
   (i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion;
   (ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;
   (iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;
   (iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and
   (v) When return of the child can be expected.

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1985 and RCW 26.44.063 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature to minimize trauma to a child involved in an allegation of sexual or physical abuse. The legislature declares that removing the child from the home often has the effect of further traumatizing the child. It is, therefore, the legislature’s intent that the alleged offender, rather than the child, shall be removed from the home and that this should be done at the earliest possible point of intervention in accordance with RCW 10.31.100, 13.34.130, this section, and section 4 of this 1988 act.

(2) In any judicial proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse, if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that an incident of sexual or physical abuse has occurred, the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem or other parties, issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction restraining or enjoining the person accused of committing the abuse from:
   (a) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the alleged victim;
   (b) Entering the family home of the alleged victim except as specifically authorized by the court; or
   (c) Having any contact with the alleged victim, except as specifically authorized by the court.

(3) In issuing a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, the court may impose any additional restrictions that the court in its discretion determines are necessary to protect the child from further abuse or emotional trauma pending final resolution of the abuse allegations.

(4) The court shall issue a temporary restraining order prohibiting a person from entering the family home if the court finds that the order would eliminate the need for an out-of-home placement to protect the child’s right to nurturance, health, and safety and is sufficient to protect the child from further sexual or physical abuse or coercion.

(5) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the party to be restrained or other parties only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(6) A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction:
   (a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding; and
   (b) May be revoked or modified.

(7) The person having physical custody of the child shall have an affirmative duty to assist in the enforcement of the restraining order including but not limited to a duty to notify the court as soon as practicable of any violation of the order, a duty to request the assistance of law enforcement officers to enforce the order, and a duty to notify the department of social and health services of any violation of the order as soon as practicable if the department is a party to the action. Failure by the custodial party to discharge these affirmative duties shall be subject to contempt proceedings.

(3) Wilful violation of a court order entered under this section is a misdemeanor. A written order shall contain the court's directive and shall bear the legend: 'Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 26.44 RCW and will subject a violator to arrest.'

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 26.44 RCW to read as follows:
When a peace officer responds to a call alleging that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse and has probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed or responds to a call alleging that a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction has been violated, the peace officer has the authority to arrest the person without a warrant pursuant to RCW 10.31.100.

(7) For an account created under subsection (5) of this section, an agent shall direct the depository institution to:

(8) The director shall forward a copy of the reports required by subsection (7) of this section to the department of licensing to aid in the enforcement of the requirements of this section consistent with the normal enforcement and auditing practices of the department of licensing.

(9) This section does not relieve any real estate broker from any obligation with respect to the safekeeping of clients' funds.

(10) Any violation by a real estate broker of any of the provisions of this section, or RCW 18.85.230, shall be grounds for revocation of the licenses issued to the broker.

The broker's trust account board shall review grant and loan applications placed before it by the director for final approval pursuant to RCW 43.185.—— (RCW 18.85.505 as recodified by section 3 of this 1988 act).

(b) An assessment or refund may be made by the department more than four years after the date of sale except upon a showing of fraud or of misrepresentation of a material fact by the taxpayer or a failure by the taxpayer to record documents of a sale or otherwise report the sale to the county treasurer.

(6) Penalties collected pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be deposited in the housing trust fund as described in chapter 43.185.

E2SSB 6724 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Revising provisions on water resources. Reported by Committee on Natural Resources

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section I, chapter I, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the fundamentals of water resource policy in this state must be determined and established by the legislature to ensure that the water resources of the state are protected and fully utilized for the greatest benefit to the people of the state of Washington. The legislature further finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing agricultural water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities.

In order to study the fundamentals of water resource policy of the state and to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate unsatisfactory water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that proper utilization of the water resources of this state is necessary to the promotion of public health and the economic well-being of the state and the preservation of its natural resources and aesthetic values. The legislature further finds that the availability of waters of the state is being evaluated by interests who desire to remove portions thereof from the state in a manner inconsistent with the public interest of the people of the state. It is the purpose of this chapter to set forth fundamentals of water resource policy for the state as established by the legislature to insure that waters of the state are protected and fully utilized for the greatest benefit to the people of the state of Washington and, in relation thereto, to provide direction to the department of ecology and other state agencies and officials, in carrying out water and related resources programs. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide a process for the fundamental water resource policies, as established by the legislature, to be implemented by the department of ecology and other state agencies and officials.

The department shall make a reasonable attempt to have all parties with an interest in Washington’s water resource policy included in the mediation process.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of insure that the department is fully advised in relation to the performance of the water resources program provided in RCW 90.54.040, and to provide information and support to the mediation process established in section 3 of this 1988 act, the department is directed to become informed with regard to all phases of water and related resources of the state. To accomplish this objective the department shall:

(1) Collect, organize and catalog existing information and studies available to it from all sources, both public and private, pertaining to water and related resources of the state;
(2) Develop such additional data and studies pertaining to water and related resources as are necessary to accomplish the objectives of this chapter;
(3) Determine existing and foreseeable uses of, and needs for, such waters and related resources;
(4) Develop alternate courses of action to solve existing and foreseeable problems of water and related resources and include therein, to the extent feasible, the economic and social consequences of each such course, and the impact on the natural environment.

All the foregoing shall be included in a 'water resources archive' established and maintained by the department. The department shall develop a system of cataloging, storing and retrieving the information and studies of the archive so that they may be made readily available to and effectively used not only by the department but by the public generally.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department, through the adoption of appropriate rules, is directed, as a matter of high priority to insure that the waters of the state are utilized for the best interests of the people, to develop and implement in accordance with the policies of this chapter a comprehensive state water resources program which will provide a process for making decisions on future water resource allocation and use. The department may develop the program in segments so that immediate attention may be given to waters of a given physiologic region of the state or to specific critical problems of water allocation and use.

The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the elements of the water resource program established pursuant to this subsection shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with section 3(6) of this 1988 act.

(2) In relation to the management and regulatory programs relating to water resources vested in it, the department is further directed to modify existing regulations and adopt new regulations, when needed and possible, to assure that existing regulatory programs are in accord with the water resource policy of this chapter and the program established in subsection (1) of this section. The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the department's implementation of this subsection shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The department is directed to review all statutes relating to water resources which it is responsible for implementing. When any of the same appear to the department to be ambiguous, unclear, unworkable, unnecessary, or otherwise deficient, it shall make recommendations to the legislature including appropriate proposals for statutory modifications or additions. Whenever it appears that the policies of any such statutes are in conflict with the policies of this chapter, and the department is unable to fully perform as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department is directed to submit statutory modifications to the legislature which, if enacted, would allow the department to carry out such statutes in harmony with this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 284, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 103, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and by section 96, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.22.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology may establish minimum water flows or levels for streams, lakes or other public waters for the purposes of protecting fish, game, birds or other wildlife resources, or recreational or aesthetic values of said public waters whenever it appears to be in the public interest to establish the same. In addition, the department of ecology shall, when requested by the department of fisheries or the department of wildlife to protect fish, game or other wildlife resources or under the jurisdiction of the requesting state agency, or if the department of ecology finds it necessary to preserve water quality, establish such minimum flows or levels as are required to protect the resource or preserve the water quality described in the request or determination. Any request submitted by the department of fisheries or department of wildlife shall include a statement setting forth the need for establishing a minimum flow or level. When the department acts to preserve water quality, it shall include a similar statement with the proposed rule filed with the code reviser. This section shall not apply to waters artificially stored in reservoirs, provided that in the granting of storage permits by the department of ecology in the future, full recognition shall be given to downstream minimum flows, if any there may be, which have theretofore been established hereunder.

The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the instream flow programs established pursuant to this chapter shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with section 3(6) of this 1988 act.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In conjunction with the programs provided for in RCW 90.54.040(1), whenever it appears necessary to the director in carrying out the policy of this chapter, the department may by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW:

(1) Reserve and set aside waters for beneficial utilization in the future, and

When sufficient information and data are lacking to allow for the making of sound decisions, withdraw various waters of the state from additional appropriations until such data and information are available.

Prior to the adoption of a rule under this section, the department shall conduct a public hearing in each county in which waters relating to the rule are located. The public hearing shall be preceded by a notice placed in a newspaper of general circulation published within each of said counties. Rules adopted hereunder shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.04.070 or 34.04.080.

No new rules or changes to existing rules to reserve or set aside water may be adopted pursuant to this section, as provided in section 3(6) of this 1988 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a joint select committee on water resource policy to address the recommendations reached by the mediation process pursuant to section 3 of this act. The committee shall consist of twelve members appointed jointly by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate. The membership shall be equally divided from each major political caucus and shall, to the extent possible, represent all major water interests including, but not limited to, agriculture, fisheries, municipal, environmental, and hydroelectric.

(2) The staff support shall be provided by the senate committee services and the office of program research as mutually agreed by the cochairs of the joint select committee. The cochairs shall be designated by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate.

(3) This section shall expire June 30, 1989.

ESSB 6741 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources: Relating to storage tanks. Reported by Committee on Environmental Affairs

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the planning and development of regulatory programs for storage tanks containing petroleum and regulated substances must begin as soon as possible in order to meet the requirements of federal and state laws and address public health and safety concerns. The legislature further finds that a state regulatory program for underground storage tanks needs to be developed that is at least as stringent as the minimum requirements under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991 et seq.

In addition, the legislature finds that affordable private methods of ensuring financial responsibility as required under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991b(d) may not be available. Thus, it is necessary to study the possibility of developing risk retention pools to aid underground storage tank owners and operators in meeting federal financial responsibility requirements. The legislature further finds that the economic well-being of small businesses in the state that own or operate underground storage tanks depends on a clear state policy and adequate state regulatory programs."
Since additional information is needed to develop specific tank construction, installation, operational, monitoring, reporting, closure, and financial responsibility requirements, the legislature establishes the joint select committee on storage tanks to make recommendations on program elements and to develop legislation to establish these programs by June 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) The joint select committee on storage tanks is created. The committee shall consist of six members from the senate appointed by the president of the senate and six members from the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The committee shall include equal numbers of members from the majority and minority parties of each house. The joint select committee chair and vice—chair shall be chosen by the majority vote of committee members and shall serve for the duration of the committee.

(2) The committee shall seek input from persons and organizations representing major petroleum companies, agriculture, environmental protection, petroleum jobbing, vehicle sales firms, vehicle repair firms, insurance underwriting, gasoline retailing, cities, counties, other units of local government, fuel oil retailing, the general business community, and the public.

(3) The committee shall be staffed from the senate committees on environment and natural resources, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means and the house of representatives committees on environmental affairs, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means. The department of ecology, department of general administration, and the insurance commissioner shall provide necessary staff and resources to assist the committee in carrying out its purpose and preparing legislation to establish the recommended programs by June 1, 1989.

(4) The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the senate committees on environment and natural resources, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means and the house of representatives committees on environmental affairs, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means by December 10, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The committee shall make recommendations on topics including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Elements of an underground storage tank regulatory program necessary to meet the requirements of 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991 et seq. and to allow full delegation of the federal program to the state. The committee shall specify circumstances under which it may be advisable to develop standards and requirements more stringent than those provided in federal regulations.

(2) Provisions necessary to implement a state-wide underground storage tank program, including:

(a) Whether state laws should generally preempt local laws governing the regulation of underground storage tanks but also allow for local programs that address environmentally sensitive areas; and

(b) Methods by which implementation and operation of underground storage tank programs will be coordinated between state and local governments.

(3) The cost of administering a state underground storage tank program and the methods of funding program administration, including:

(a) The need for limitations on fees charged by local governments; and

(b) Revenue sharing by the department of ecology with local governments to fund local program administration.

(4) Financial responsibility requirements for the owners and operators of underground petroleum storage tanks that meet the minimum federal financial responsibility requirements under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991b(d) and the advisability of and methods for establishing an owner and operator funded program that assures compliance with the federal requirements and which limits the state's liability, including the advisability of state administration of risk retention pools designed to provide financial responsibility for owners and operators who cannot obtain adequate and reasonably priced private insurance. If the determination is made that a state—administered risk retention pool is necessary, the committee shall develop methods for implementation, including information on:

(a) Estimates of the costs of administering risk retention pools;

(b) Adequate means of ensuring that the state will have the necessary resources to address the obligation of the risk retention pools in the event that regular contributions are insufficient, including but not limited to a petroleum products tax;

(c) Adequate yet reasonable contributions from the owner or operator;

(d) Ways to ensure that owners and operators of tanks eligible to obtain funds from the risk retention pools will comply with the applicable state storage tank regulations; and

(e) A timetable for implementation of the risk retention pools by June 1, 1989.

(5) A timetable for implementing a state underground storage tank regulatory program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) By December 10, 1988, the department of ecology shall provide a report to the legislature on the following:

(a) An inventory of above—ground tanks containing petroleum in existence in this state, including their sizes, location, types, and products stored therein:
(b) An analysis of the current practices and requirements applicable to above-ground storage tanks containing petroleum, including an examination of any causes of releases from such tanks and appropriate responses;

(c) Recommendations for a state program, if necessary for the installation, operation, and closure of above-ground storage tanks.

(2) For the purposes of this study and notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the department, with the advice of the joint select committee established in section 2 of this act, shall develop a definition of above-ground petroleum storage tanks except that the definition shall not include farm or residential tanks of one thousand one hundred gallons or less capacity used for storing motor fuel for noncommercial purposes, tanks used for storing heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored, or barrels or drums commonly used for the transportation and temporary storage of petroleum products.

(3) In carrying out the study, the department may require a person, firm, corporation, or government entity other than a federal government entity, to respond to requests for information necessary to meet the requirements of this study.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

"WHEREAS. The State of Washington faces a growing demand for recreation in urban and rural areas on both upland and aquatic sites, from passive activities to team sports, with benefits accruing to both participants and spectators; and

WHEREAS. Recent evidence illustrates that constructing and enhancing recreation facilities improves local property values, assists in attracting industry, and creates new employment opportunities; and

WHEREAS. The State of Washington has authorized the sale of over ninety million dollars in bonds for recreation in the past three decades, yet over fifty million dollars in demand exists every biennium; and
WHEREAS, A shortage of funds in 1987 meant that local governments that had raised nearly five million dollars in local money could not proceed with the projects due to a shortage of state and federal funds; and

WHEREAS, Federal legislation authorizes that nine hundred million dollars annually be allocated from the Land and Water Conservation Fund to local, state, and federal agencies for recreational land acquisition, development, and renovation; and

WHEREAS, This full nine hundred million dollar amount has never been appropriated in the twenty–one year history of the Land and Water Conservation Fund; and

WHEREAS, Allocated funds for the Land and Water Conservation Fund have declined at a time when the demands on our public outdoor recreation areas and facilities have grown rapidly and the money available from the state is declining; and

WHEREAS, The revenue in 1979 to the State of Washington from the fund amounted to six million nine hundred thousand dollars while in 1987 the state received less than one–tenth that amount; and

WHEREAS, These funds have been utilized to acquire, develop, and renovate needed recreational areas and facilities located throughout Washington State; and

WHEREAS, The Land and Water Conservation Fund is due to expire in 1989;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the federal appropriation to the state and local governments from the Land and Water Conservation Fund be increased to two hundred million dollars during 1988; and

SJM 8028 Prime Sponsor, Senator Zimmerman: Petitioning Congress and the Army Corps of Engineers to designate sites in the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area to receive spoil material to improve the recreational value of those sites. Reported by Committee on Environmental Affairs

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after line 7 and insert the following:

WHEREAS, Congress passed the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area Act to protect the resources and support the economy of the Columbia River Gorge; and

WHEREAS, Congress authorized construction of a new navigation lock at Bonneville Lock and Dam within the Scenic Area; and

WHEREAS, Construction of the new navigation lock will produce 4.7 million cubic yards of spoil material; and

WHEREAS, Congress failed to provide for recreational development on the Bonneville Pool at the time of construction of the dam, as was provided at other Columbia and Snake River dam projects; and

WHEREAS, Public access to the Columbia River in the Scenic Area is severely limited by highway and rail line and by the topography of the Gorge; and

WHEREAS, The five port districts on the Bonneville Pool and other agencies have proposed uses for all 4.7 million cubic yards of material produced by construction of the new lock; and

WHEREAS, The proposed uses would improve public access to the Columbia River and enhance the economy of the Gorge;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that: (1) Congress and the Army Corps of Engineers designate sites in the National Scenic Area as the sole eligible recipients of remaining spoil material from construction of the new navigation lock and of spoil material from other Corps projects on the Bonneville Pool;
(2) Congress and the Army Corps of Engineers assign highest priority to sites identified by the port districts on the Bonneville Pool and to sites where deposition would improve recreational access or wildlife habitat so long as those sites are found by the Columbia Gorge Com-mision and the Secretary of Agriculture to be consistent with the purposes of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area Act, P.L. 99-663; and

(3) The spoils be delivered to the designated sites at no cost to agencies which own or manage the sites.

SJM 8029 Prime Sponsor, Senator Benitz: Requesting enactment of a Hanford Federal and State Plant Closing Disaster Program. Reported by Committee on Energy & Utilities

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, after line 7, strike the remainder of the memorial and insert the following:

"WHEREAS, The United States government has announced the closure of the Hanford N-Reactor and associated plutonium production facilities; and

WHEREAS, This closure will cause the loss of 6,000 to 12,000 skilled jobs and family wages as well as an average of 400 megawatts of electric energy from the N-Reactor no longer being available to supply steam to the Hanford Generating Plant; and

WHEREAS, The communities of the Tri-Cities and the state of Washington will suffer from these job losses economic losses totaling sixty to one hundred twenty million dollars in annual lost revenues resulting from increased unemployment compensation, public assistance costs, and lost wage tax revenues, in addition to hundreds of millions in lost revenues due to lost wages and the secondary impact of business failures; and

WHEREAS, The state government on its own cannot provide sufficient reemployment or training opportunities given the immensity of this closure, nor can it solely mitigate the loss of economic activity this great; and

WHEREAS, The Tri-Cities communities have been dependent on federal government-related business and employment for decades and without major federal assistance will experience a grave economic downturn under this government shut down; and

WHEREAS, The federal government, in passing the Redwood National Park Expansion Act (P.L. 95-250) in 1978, recognized its responsibilities in actions which caused the loss of five thousand plus lumber-dependent jobs and enacted both the Redwood Employees Protection Program for these five thousand plus workers totaling over fifty million dollars in direct payments to the affected workers and a community economic development mitigation program totaling over thirty million dollars, as well as five hundred million dollars compensation to affected lumber companies; and

WHEREAS, Your Memorialists recognize that a program for the Tri-Cities proportionate to that of P.L. 95-250 would involve a much greater level of assistance than that given in 1978 and thereby is, for Congress today, simply not affordable, but yet the severity and suddenness of the economic dislocation imposed by the federal government on the Tri-Cities should impel Congress toward what for today would be a singular level of effort to mitigate the inflicted economic devastation;

NOW. THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that the federal government, as the principal employer in the Tri-Cities for over four decades, take the primary and leading role in mitigating the effects of the closing of government facilities with a comprehensive program that accelerates Hanford defense waste cleanup, promotes economic diversification, and minimizes economic dislocations.

BE IT RESOLVED, That defense waste cleanup include early construction of a waste vitrification plant, a transportable grout facility, and a waste receiving and processing facility, and that diversification include establishment of a national research center comprising at least a molecular science research center; a hazardous waste technology center, a national center for advanced materials, and a major university presence, and possibly also include reinitiated fusion research and a national center for energy research and development, and that diversification programs also include studies of agricultural and other business opportunities, nuclear energy waste heat utilization, and continuation of seismic and ground water studies, and that transition assistance include funds or programs from the Department of Defense Office of Economic Adjustment, Nuclear Waste Policy Act moneys, and the Department of Housing and Urban Development; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED. That workers receive transition assistance in job counseling, retraining, securing new employment, mortgage foreclosure prevention, and prevention of eviction from rentals; and

E2SSB 6220 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Changing provisions relating to business and industrial development corporations. Reported by Committee on Ways & Means MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Ways & Means without amendments by Committee on Trade & Economic Development:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION: Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the unavailability of capital to viable firms that do not meet current commercial bank or venture capital criteria for loans or equity investments can have a devastating impact on the state’s economic development efforts. Without reasonable access to financing, talented and aggressive entrepreneurs are cut out of the economic system and the overall economy of the state suffers.

The process of job creation and economic development requires readily available capital for small and young companies that are the major source of innovations and new jobs. To ensure the availability of capital to entrepreneurs in Washington state, the legislature hereby eliminates unnecessary restrictions which have discouraged the formation of business and industrial development corporations under current law.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:
Corporation means a Washington business and industrial development corporation created under this chapter.

(2) Financial institution means any banking corporation or trust company, national banking association, savings and loan association, insurance company or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

(3) ((Member means any financial institution authorized to do business within this state which shall undertake to lend money to a corporation created under this chapter, upon its call; and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter:

(4)) Board of directors means the board of directors of the corporation created under this chapter.

((5)) Loan limit means for any member, the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at one time on loans made by such member to the corporation, as determined under the provisions of this chapter;

(6) Business means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, cooperative, corporation, or any other organization operating in this state, and paying more than fifty percent of its contributions or payments for the purposes of unemployment insurance to this state.

(5) Associate means, if used with respect to a corporation:

(a) A controlling person, director, officer, agent, or advisor of that corporation.

(b) A director, officer, or partner of a person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(c) A person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a person referred to in (a) of this subsection directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(d) Any close relative of any person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(e) A person of which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection is a director or officer.

(i) A person in which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection, or any combination of those persons acting in concert, owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a twenty percent or greater equity interest.

For the purposes of this subsection (5)(a), a person who is in a relationship referred to in this subsection within six months before or after a corporation provides financing assistance shall be considered to be in that relationship as of the date that corporation provides that financing assistance.

If a corporation, in order to protect its interests, designates a person to serve as a director of, officer of, or in any capacity in the management of a business to which that corporation provides financing assistance, that person shall not, on that account, be considered to have a relationship with that business. This exception does not apply if the person has, directly or indirectly, any other financial interest in the business or if the person, at any time before the corporation provides the financing assistance, served as a director of, officer of, or in any other capacity in the management of the business for a period of thirty days or more.

(7) Supervisor means the state supervisor of banking.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

((Fifteen or more)) At least seven but not more than twenty-one persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, who may desire to create ("corp")) a business and industrial development corporation under the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of promoting, developing and advancing the prosperity and economic welfare of the state and, to that end, to exercise the powers and privileges hereinafter provided, may be incorporated by filing in the office of the secretary of state, as hereinafter provided, articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall contain:

(1) The name of the corporation, which shall include the words ‘Business and Industrial Development Corporation of Washington.’

(2) The location of the principal office of the corporation, but such corporation may have offices in such other places within the state as may be fixed by the board of directors.

(7) The articles of incorporation shall be in writing, subscribed by not less than five natural persons competent to contract and acknowledged by each of the subscribers before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments and filed in the office of the secretary of state for approval. A duplicate copy so subscribed and acknowledged may also be filed.

(8) The articles of incorporation shall recite that the corporation is organized under the provisions of this chapter.

The secretary of state shall not approve articles of incorporation for a corporation organized under this chapter until ((a total of at least ten national banks, state banks, savings banks, industrial savings banks, federal savings and loan associations, domestic building and loan associations, or insurance companies authorized to do business within this state, or any combi-the person is a business and industrial development corporation including, but not limited to, use of the term 'BIDCO,' and a person shall not otherwise represent that the person is a business and industrial development corporation until the person has been certified as a business and industrial development corporation.

A corporation shall be certified by the supervisor of banking as eligible to operate under

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The first meeting of the corporation shall be called by a notice signed by three or more of the incorporators, stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting, a copy of which notice shall be mailed, or delivered, to each incorporator at least five days before the day appointed for the meeting. Said first meeting may be held without such notice upon agreement in writing to that effect signed by all the incorporators. There shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting a copy of said notice or of such unanimous agreement of the incorporators.

At such first meeting, the incorporators shall organize by the choice, by ballot, of a temporary clerk; by the adoption of bylaws; by the election by ballot of directors; and by action upon such other matters within the powers of the corporation as the incorporators may see fit. (c) A business to which an associate of that corporation provides financing assistance, either contemporaneously with, or within one year before or after, the providing of financing assistance by the corporation, if the terms on which the corporation provides financing assistance are less favorable to the corporation than the terms on which the associate provides financing assistance to the business. If the financing assistance provided by the associate of the corporation is of a different kind from the financing assistance provided by the corporation, the burden shall be on the corporation to prove that the terms on which the corporation provided financing assistance were at least as favorable to the corporation as the terms on which the associate provided financing assistance to the business.

This subsection (1)(c) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) If the associate is a controlling person of the corporation and is also the only shareholder of the corporation;

(ii) If the associate is a subsidiary of the corporation; or

A natural person shall not be considered to control a person solely on account of being a director, officer, or employee of that person. A person who, directly or indirectly, owns or controls more than twenty percent of the then outstanding voting securities issued by a corporation shall be rebuttably presumed to control that corporation; and

All debt and equity instruments, including but not limited to bonds, debentures, securities, notes, and shares, issued by corporations organized under this chapter shall indicate on the face of each such document as issued that such instruments are less favorable to the corporation than the terms on which the associate provides financing assistance.

What is your understanding of the action to this bill?

Mr. Holland: Thank you, Representative Lewis. My understanding is that rather than taking the million dollars of unclaimed prizes and allocating it directly into the housing trust fund, we are putting it into the general fund and then taking money from the general fund and putting it into the trust fund, so that the housing problem is addressed under either approach. The approach we have in the bill before us is a continuing kind of thing so that the unclaimed moneys would continue to flow into the state general fund should there be an excess.

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Ms. Silver.

Ms. Silver: Representative Locke, is this for or against Spokane.

Mr. Locke: This is for Spokane.

Ms. Silver: As I understand it, it limits the increase in maximum councilmanic indebtedness to Spokane County, but the limits are in order with our fifteen million. Is that correct?

Mr. Locke: I believe that this would limit the councilmanic indebtedness for Spokane County, so that if they wanted to, they could handle the entire thirty million. The legislation before us reads to allow all counties throughout the state to lift their councilmanic indebtedness limits, and since the issue is really providing enough room for Spokane, it was thought that it was not necessary to lift the councilmanic indebtedness limits for all counties throughout the state, but just to restrict it to Spokane. No one else is asking for it, in other words.

Ms. Silver: If we had only the fifteen million, would we need to be lifted? In as much as I have just seen this amendment—it is brand new to me—I am a little bit unaware of exactly what it says.

Mr. Locke: If you are only planning on doing fifteen million, you certainly don't have to exercise the discretion that is being granted to Spokane County, but in case Spokane wanted to do other facilities, then this would allow that.

The amendment was adopted.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It shall be the policy of the state of Washington to:

(1) Recognize the family as the most important social and economic unit of society and support the central role parents play in child rearing. All parents are encouraged to participate fully in the effort to improve the quality of child care services.

(2) Promote a variety of culturally and developmentally appropriate child care settings and services of the highest possible quality in accordance with the basic principle of continuity of care. These settings shall include, but not be limited to, family day care homes, mini-centers, centers and schools.

(3) Promote the growth, development and safety of children by working with community groups including providers and parents to establish standards for quality service, training of child care providers, fair and equitable monitoring, and salary levels commensurate with provider responsibilities and support services.

(4) Promote equal access to quality, affordable, socio-economically integrated child care for all children and families.

(5) Facilitate broad community and private sector involvement in the provision of quality child care services to foster economic development and assist industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (I) There is established a child care coordinating committee to provide coordination and communication between state agencies responsible for child care and early childhood education services. The child care coordinating committee shall be composed of not less than seventeen nor more than thirty members who shall include:

(a) One representative each from the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and any other agency having responsibility for regulation, provision, or funding of child care services in the state;

(b) One representative from the governor's commission on children;

(c) One representative from the department of trade and economic development;

(d) At least one representative of family home child care providers and one representative of center care providers;

(n) At least one employer who provides child care assistance to employees;

(o) Parents of children receiving, or in need of, child care, half of whom shall be parents needing or receiving subsidized child care and half of whom shall be parents who are able to pay for child care.

The named state agencies shall select their representative to the child care coordinating committee. The department of social and health services shall select the remaining members, considering recommendations from lists submitted by professional associations and other interest groups until such time as the committee adopts a member selection process. Staff support for the child care coordinating committee shall be provided within available resources by the department of social and health services on an ongoing basis. The department shall use any federal funds which may become available to accomplish the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this act.

The committee shall elect officers from among its membership and shall adopt policies and procedures specifying the lengths of terms, methods for filling vacancies, and other matters necessary to the ongoing functioning of the committee. The secretary of social and health services shall appoint a temporary chair until the committee has adopted policies and elected a chair accordingly. Child care coordinating committee members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) To the extent possible within available funds, the child care coordinating committee shall:

(a) Serve as an advisory coordinator for all state agencies responsible for early childhood or child care programs for the purpose of improving communication and interagency coordination, but not to review the substance of programs. The committee shall annually review state programs and make recommendations to the agencies and the legislature which will maximize funding and promote furtherance of the policies set forth in section 1 of this act;

(b) Review and propose changes to the child care subsidy system by December 1, 1989;

(c) Review agency administration of the child care expansion grant program described in section 3 of this act;

(d) Review alternative models for child care service systems, in the context of the policies set forth in section 1 of this act, and recommend to the legislature a new child care service structure;

(e) Review options and make recommendations on the feasibility of establishing an allocation for day care facilities when constructing state buildings; and

(f) Perform other functions to improve the quantity and quality of child care in the state, including compliance with existing and future prerequisites for federal funding.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The legislature recognizes that a severe shortage of child care exists to the detriment of all families and employers throughout the state. Many workers are unable to enter or remain in the workforce due to a shortage of child care resources. The high costs of starting a child care business create a barrier to the creation of new slots, especially for children with special needs.

(2) A child care expansion grant fund is created in the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services. Grants shall be awarded on a one-time only basis to persons, organizations, or schools needing assistance to start a child care center or mini-center as defined by the department by rule, or to existing licensed child care providers, including family home providers, for the purpose of making capital improvements in order to accommodate handicapped children as defined under chapter 72.40 RCW, sick children, or infant care, or children needing night time care. No grant may exceed ten thousand dollars. Start-up costs shall not include operational costs after the first three months of business.

(3) Child care expansion grants shall be awarded on the basis of need for the proposed services in the community, within appropriated funds.

(4) The department shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW setting forth criteria, application procedures, and methods to assure compliance with the purposes described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are each added to chapter 74.13 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Braddock: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a ruling on scope and object on amendment number 287.

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Braddock, the Speaker has examined both Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 and the amendment offered by Representative Vekich. The bill very clearly is an act relating to sexually transmitted diseases. The amendment appears to broaden the scope and intention of the original bill by referring to "or contagious disease" which is plainly labelled. The Speaker rules that the amendment is outside the scope of the bill. Your point, Representative Braddock, is well taken.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Vekich: Mr. Speaker, with all respect to your ruling I would like to say that I think we have now ignored the workers' safety issue in this bill. In my opinion it was clearly within the scope of the bill. We are now saying that we do not care about hazardous wastes that the workers are handling and that the lab technicians, lab technologists and nurses do not deserve to be warned when they are handling infectious matters. I disagree with your ruling. I respect it, but I think we are really missing an opportunity here to provide for workers' safety and deal with the hazardous wastes.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

Representatives Braddock, Brooks, Sprenkle and Moyer spoke in favor of the committee amendment as amended, and Mr. Fuhrman opposed it.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

There being no objection, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Ebersole, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Mr. Hargrove.

Mr. Hargrove: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Representative Braddock, our current anti-discrimination laws do not prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation. Does the language in Section 902 of this bill prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation?

Mr. Braddock: I don’t believe I understand how Section 902 relates to the sexual orientation. I believe Section 902 relates to HIV status. HIV status can be discriminated against. If you have the AIDS virus and you are in a job or a position where that virus could be transmitted and you can establish that that virus can be transmitted—that is, if a public health officer would come to the conclusion that the position of employment would, for example, place the community at risk because of potential transmission of the virus and that is the blood-to-blood contact—then you could certainly discriminate against that person having that job and that employment.

Mr. Hargrove: If I may continue then, just to make this clear. If the HIV virus is not present, then this does not now prohibit discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation?

Mr. Braddock: I believe you are correct.
Mr. Hargrove: Thank you.

Representatives B. Williams and Fuhrman spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Sutherland, Anderson, Wineberry, Locke and Braddock spoke in favor of it.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The committee amendment shall be known as the ‘Washington self-service storage facility act.’

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) ‘Self-service storage facility’ means any real property designed and used for the purpose of renting or leasing individual storage space to occupants who are to have access to the space for the purpose of storing and removing personal property on a self-service basis, but does not include a garage or other storage area in a private residence. No occupant may use a self-service storage facility for residential purposes.

(2) ‘Owner’ means the owner, operator, lessor, or sublessor of a self-service storage facility, his or her agent, or any other person authorized by him or her to manage the facility, or to receive rent from an occupant under a rental agreement.

(3) ‘Occupant’ means a person, or his or her sublessee, successor, or assign, who is entitled to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility under a rental agreement, to the exclusion of others.

(4) ‘Rental agreement’ means any written agreement or lease which establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules or any other provision concerning the use and occupancy of a self-service storage facility.

(5) ‘Personal property’ means movable property not affixed to land, and includes, but is not limited to, goods, merchandise, furniture, and household items.

(6) ‘Last known address’ means that address provided by the occupant in the latest rental agreement, or the address provided by the occupant in a subsequent written notice of a change of address.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The owner of a self-service storage facility and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns have a lien upon all personal property located at a self-service storage facility for rent, labor, or other charges, present or future, incurred pursuant to the rental agreement, and for expenses necessary for the preservation, sale, or disposition of personal property subject to this chapter. The lien may be enforced consistent with this chapter. However, any lien on a motor vehicle or boat which has attached and is set forth in the documents of title to the motor vehicle or boat shall have priority over any lien created pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. When any part of the rent or other charges due from an occupant remains unpaid for six consecutive days, and the rental agreement so provides, an owner may deny the occupant access to the storage space at a self-service storage facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. When any part of the rent or other charges due from an occupant remains unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, an owner may terminate the right of the occupant to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility by sending a notice to the occupant's last known address, and to the alternative address specified in section 15(2) of this act, by first class mail, postage prepaid, containing all of the following:

1. An itemized statement of the owner's claim showing the sums due at the time of the notice and the date when the sums become due.

2. A statement that the occupant's right to use the storage space will terminate on a specified date (not less than fourteen days after the mailing of the notice) unless all sums due and to become due by that date are paid by the occupant prior to the specified date.

3. A notice that the occupant may be denied or continue to be denied, as the case may be, access to the storage space after the termination date if the sums are not paid, and that an owner's lien, as provided for in section 3 of this act, may be imposed thereafter.

4. The name, street address, and telephone number of the owner, or his or her designated agent, whom the occupant may contact to respond to the notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A notice in substantially the following form shall satisfy the requirements of section 5 of this act:

PRELIMINARY LIEN NOTICE

You owe and have not paid rent and/or other charges for the use of storage (space number) at (name and address of storage facility).

Charges that have been due for more than fourteen days and accruing on or before (date) are itemized as follows:

DUE DATE DESCRIPTION AMOUNT

If this sum is not paid in full before your right to use the storage space will terminate, you may be denied, or continue to be denied, access and an owner's lien on any stored property will be imposed. You may pay the sum due and contact the owner at:

(Owner's Signature)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a notice has been sent, as required by section 5 of this act, and the total sum due has not been paid as of the date specified in the preliminary lien notice, the lien imposed by this chapter attaches as of that date and the owner may deny an occupant access to the space, enter the space, and remove any property found therein to a place of safe keeping. The owner shall then send to the occupant, addressed to the occupant's last known address and to the alternative address specified in section 15(2) of this act by certified mail, postage prepaid, all of the following:

1. A notice of lien sale which shall state all of the following:
   a) That the occupant's right to use the storage space has terminated and that the occupant no longer has access to the stored property.

   c) That the property may be sold to satisfy the lien after a specified date which is not less than fourteen days from the date of mailing the notice unless the amount of the lien is paid or the occupant executes and returns by certified mail a declaration under penalty of perjury in opposition to the lien sale in the form set forth in subsection (2) of this section.
   d) That any excess proceeds of the sale over the lien amount and costs of sale and any personal papers and personal effects will be retained by the owner and may be reclaimed by the occupant, or claimed by another person, at any time for a period of one year from the sale and that thereafter the proceeds and personal papers and effects will be turned over to the state as abandoned property.
   e) That the occupant within one year after the date of the sale may repurchase from any purchaser any of the occupant's property sold pursuant to section 10 of this act at the price paid by the purchaser.
(2) A blank declaration in opposition to the lien sale which shall be substantially the following form:

DECLARATION IN OPPOSITION TO LIEN SALE

I, ______________ (occupant's name), have received the notice of lien sale of the property stored at ______________ (location and space). I oppose the lien sale of the property. My address is:

(state) __________________________ (zip)

I understand that the lienholder may file an action in court against me, and if a judgment is given in his or her favor, I may be liable for the court costs. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this declaration was signed by me on ______________ (date) at ______________ (place)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If a declaration in opposition to the lien sale, executed under penalty of perjury, is not received prior to the date of sale set forth in the notice of lien sale, and if the reasonable aggregate value of the property is less than one hundred dollars, the owner may donate the property to a charitable organization exempt from federal income tax under the federal Internal revenue code.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If a declaration in opposition to the lien sale, executed under penalty of perjury, is not received prior to the date of sale set forth in the notice of lien sale, the owner may, subject to sections 11 and 12 of this act, sell the property upon complying with the requirements set forth in section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) After the expiration of the time given in the notice of lien sale pursuant to section 7 of this act, an advertisement of the sale shall be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, city, or town where the self-service storage facility is located and the sale is to be held. The advertisement shall include a general description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account they are being stored, the space number of the occupant, and the name and location of the storage facility. If there is no newspaper of general circulation in the county, city, or town where the self-service storage facility is located and where the sale is to be held, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.

(2) The sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner, and, after deducting the amount of the lien and costs of sale, the owner shall retain any excess proceeds of the sale on the occupant's behalf. The occupant, or any other person having a court order or other judicial process against the property, may claim the excess proceeds, or a portion thereof sufficient to satisfy the particular claim, at any time within one year of the date of sale.

(3) No employee or owner, or family member of an employee or owner, may acquire, directly or indirectly, the property sold at a lien sale authorized under this chapter.

(4) After the sale has been completed, the owner shall provide an accounting of the disposition of the proceeds of the sale to the occupant at the occupant's last known address and at the alternative address.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any person who has a perfected security interest under Article 62A.9 RCW of the uniform commercial code may claim any personal property subject to the security interest and subject to a lien pursuant to this chapter by paying the total amount due, as specified in the lien notices, for the storage of the property, if no declaration of opposition to the lien sale is executed and returned by the occupant. Upon payment of the total amount due, the owner shall deliver possession of the particular property subject to the security interest to the person who paid the total amount due. The owner shall not be liable to any person for any action taken pursuant to this section if the owner has fully complied with sections 6 and 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Prior to any sale pursuant to section 9 of this act, any person claiming a right to the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred for particular actions taken pursuant to this chapter. In that event, the goods shall not be sold, but shall be retained by the owner subject to the terms of this chapter pending a court order directing a particular disposition of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If a declaration in opposition to the lien sale is received prior to the date set forth in the notice of lien sale, the owner may enforce the lien as follows:

(1) A civil action to enforce the owner's lien shall be commenced by the filing of a verified complaint setting forth the facts upon which the claim of lien is based. The summons and complaint shall be served in the manner provided for by court rule.

(2) If the occupant has not responded to the complaint by answer within the time allowed after service is completed, the court, upon application of the owner, shall enter the default of the occupant, and thereafter, the owner may apply to the court for judgment in the amount of the lien, including costs.

(3) Any judgment entered on the action on the lien in favor of the owner may be enforced by sale of the property by the owner. The sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner, and shall take place ten days or more from the entry of judgment, unless within that time period, or at any time prior to the sale, the occupant pays to the owner the full amount of the judgment.

(4) Enforcement of the judgment may be stayed, pending appeal, by the posting of a bond by the occupant in an amount one and one-half times the amount of the judgment, in which case the property may be released to the occupant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a lien or judgment entered on the lien in favor of the owner on goods stored at a self-service storage facility shall acquire the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was claimed. Failure of an occupant to provide an alternative address shall not affect an owner's remedies under this chapter or under any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) Each contract for the rental or lease of individual storage space in a self-service storage facility shall be in writing and shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required or permitted by law to be included, a statement requiring the occupant to disclose any lienholders or secured parties who have an interest in the property that is or will be stored in the self-service storage facility, a statement that the occupant's property will be subject to a claim of lien and may even be sold to satisfy the lien if the rent or other charges due remain unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, and that such actions are authorized by this chapter.

(2) This chapter shall not apply, and the lien authorized by this chapter shall not attach, unless the rental agreement requests, and provides space for, the occupant to give the name and address of another person to whom the preliminary lien notice and subsequent notices required to be given under this chapter may be sent. Notices sent pursuant to section 5 or 7 of this act shall be sent to the occupant's address and the alternative address, if both addresses are provided by the occupant. Failure of an occupant to provide an alternative address shall not affect an owner's remedies under this chapter or under any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any insurance protecting the personal property stored within the storage space against fire, theft, or damage must be provided by the occupant and shall not be the responsibility of the owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impair or affect the right of the parties to create additional rights, duties, and obligations in and by virtue of the rental agreement. The rights provided by this chapter shall be in addition to all other rights provided by law to a creditor against his or her debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This chapter shall only apply to rental agreements entered into, extended, or renewed after the effective date of this section. Rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section which provide for monthly rental payments but providing no specific termination date shall be subject to this chapter on the first monthly rental payment due next succeeding the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. All rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section, and not extended or renewed after that date, or otherwise made subject to this chapter pursuant to section 18 of this act, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from them, shall remain valid, and may be enforced or terminated in accordance with their terms or as permitted by any other statute or law of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If an owner issues any warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the owner and the occupant are subject to Article 62A.7 RCW (commencing with RCW 62A.7-101) of the uniform commercial code and this chapter does not apply.

Sec. 21. Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 4, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(f) An auction of livestock or agricultural products which is conducted under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW. Auctions not regulated under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW shall be fully subject to the provisions of this chapter; or

(g) An auction held under chapter 19— RCW (sections 1 through 20 of this 1988 act).

(7) only with respect to the rental or lease of individual storage space; any person who owns or manages a self-service storage facility as defined under chapter 19. -- RCW (sections 1 through 20 of this 1988 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 63.29 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 1 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

There is created a Washington state support registry within the office of support enforcement as the agency designated in Washington state to administer the child support program under Title IV-D of the federal social security act. The registry shall:

3. Develop procedures for providing information to the parties regarding action taken by, and support payments collected and distributed by the registry;
4. The secretary of social and health services shall adopt rules for the maintenance and retention of records of support payments and for the archiving and destruction of such records when the support obligation terminates or is satisfied. When a support obligation established under court order entered in a superior court of this state has been satisfied, a satisfaction of judgment form shall be prepared by the registry and filed with the clerk of the court in which the order was entered.

The child support registry shall distribute all moneys received in compliance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. Support received by the office of support enforcement shall be distributed promptly but not later than eight days from the date of receipt unless circumstances exist which make such distribution impossible. Such circumstances include when: (1) The location of the custodial parent is unknown; (2) the child support debt is in litigation; or (3) the responsible parent or custodial parent cannot be identified. When, following termination of public assistance, the office of support enforcement collects support, all moneys collected up to the maximum of the support due for the period following termination from public assistance shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, be paid to the custodial parent before any distribution to the office of support enforcement under 42 U.S.C. Payment of public assistance under this title operates as an assignment by operation of law.

2. Upon the recipient’s request, the department (may, and under appropriate circumstances) shall(1) continue to establish the support obligation and to enforce and collect the support debt (for a period not to exceed three months from the month in which such family ceased) after the family ceases to receive public assistance, and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20-040 (2) and (3). The department shall distribute all amounts collected in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657 and RCW 26.23.030.

Distribution of any support moneys shall be made in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

Public assistance moneys shall be exempt from collection action under this chapter except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.
No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

The department may initiate, continue, maintain, or execute action to establish, enforce, and collect a support obligation, including establishing paternity and performing related services, under this chapter and chapter 74.20 RCW, or through the attorney general or prosecuting attorney under chapter 26.09, 26.18, 26.20, 26.21, or 26.26 RCW or other appropriate statutes or the common law of this state, for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which the family or any member thereof ceases to receive public assistance and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040 and RCW 26.23.030."

"Sec. 1. Section 1. chapter 1. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1. chapter 343. Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the fundamentals of water resource policy in this state must be reviewed by the legislature to ensure that the water resources of the state are protected and fully utilized for the greatest benefit to the people of the state of Washington. The legislature further finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing agricultural water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities.

In order to study the fundamentals of water resource policy of the state and to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate unsatisfactory water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director of ecology shall contract with an independent fact-finding service for the purpose of consulting with all user groups and parties interested in Washington's water resource policy, including but not limited to:

(a) The departments of ecology, agriculture, social and health services, fisheries, wildlife, and natural resources;

(b) Municipal users of water;

(c) Agricultural interests;

(d) The governor's office;

(e) Environmental interests;

(f) Interests of industrial users of water;

(g) Indian tribes;

(h) Interests of public water utilities;

(i) Interests of recreational uses other than fishing;

(j) Public and private hydropower generating utilities;

(k) Interests of sport and commercial fishing; and

(l) Interests of the forest products industry.

(2) The fact-finding service shall consult with, obtain, and document the opinions of the interested parties, and may facilitate discussions between them on the fundamentals of water resource policy and the need, if any, to change or clarify the current policy for the state. The fact-finding service shall also identify and evaluate the clarity and consistency of state water allocation laws with the current policy based on those laws.

(3) The fact-finding service shall report its findings in a written report to the joint select committee established pursuant to section 3 of this act. The report shall be submitted to the joint select committee by June 30, 1988, unless the committee provides for an extension of the due date.

(4) The fact-finding service and the joint select committee shall consider the reports and recommendations of state and federal studies pertaining to allocation, augmentation, conservation, and efficient use of the water resources of this state, including but not limited to the department of ecology's instream resources and water allocation program review. By considering these studies, the fact-finding service and the joint select committee shall not duplicate the work already completed in such studies.

(5) Until July 1, 1989, or until the legislature has passed legislation based on recommendations from the joint select committee, whichever comes first, the department of ecology:

(a) Shall not amend or alter the current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the instream flow and water allocation elements of the state water resources program established pursuant to chapters 90.22 and 90.54 RCW and set forth in chapters 173-500 to 173-596 WAC;

(b) Shall not adopt any water reservation under RCW 90.54.050, set forth in chapters 173-500 to 173-596 WAC, or the preferred alternative in the instream Resources and water allocation environmental impact statement; and

(c) For any new application for surface water received under chapter 90.03 RCW after the effective date of this act, shall not issue any permanent appropriation permits and may only issue temporary appropriation permits on streams by utilizing (i) the existing minimum or base flows adopted pursuant to chapters 90.54 and 90.22 RCW or (ii) the case-by-case process to maintain food fish and game fish populations as provided in RCW 75.20.050. These water appropriations shall not reduce flows necessary to provide for preservation of wildlife, fish, scenic, aesthetic, recreational, water quality, other environmental values, and navigational values, as provided in RCW 90.54.020 and chapters 90.03 and 90.22 RCW. These temporary permits shall be conditioned so that the appropriation may be altered based upon the enactment of legislation or adoption of regulations resulting from recommendations made pursuant to section 3 (3) and (4) of this act. This subsection does not apply to any emergency water permits or transfers authorized under RCW 43.83B.300 through 43.83B.344, and shall not affect any existing water rights established pursuant to law.

(6) The department of ecology shall provide staff support in the fact-finding process.

The committee shall consist of twelve voting members appointed jointly by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate. The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint nonvoting members to participate in the meetings of the joint select committee. The voting membership shall be equally divided from each major political caucus and shall, to the extent possible, represent all major water interests, including but not limited to agriculture, fisheries, municipal, environmental, recreational, and hydroelectric.

(3) In addition to responsibilities identified in subsection (6) of this section, the purpose of the joint select committee shall be to address and recommend in a written report to the full legislature the fundamentals of water resource policy for the state of Washington. The joint select committee shall review and evaluate the report of the fact-finding service and shall hold a minimum of four public hearings throughout the state.

The committee shall recommend in its report the procedures for allocating water resources of the state, considering the findings of the fact-finding service and the present and future demands on the use of water resources. The joint select committee shall further evaluate the need to prioritize the use of the water resources of this state.

(4) The joint select committee may include in its report recommendations for revisions to existing laws to set forth the water policies of the state and may also recommend revisions to existing law to give direction to the department of ecology and other agencies and officials in carrying out the fundamental water policies of the state as adopted by the legislature.

(5) The joint select committee shall submit its written report of findings and recommendations to the 1989 legislature. A draft report shall be completed by December 1, 1988, and distributed to interested parties. The final report shall be distributed and a public hearing shall be held no later than one week prior to the first day of the 1989 legislative session.

(6) The joint select committee shall monitor the actions taken to implement the recommendations made in the written report required in subsection (5) of this section and the results of any legislation enacted affecting the fundamental water resource policies of the state. At its discretion, the joint select committee may address issues affecting the allocation, efficient use, conservation, or distribution of surface and ground water to achieve the maximum benefits to the state. The committee shall report periodically to the legislature.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of ensuring that the department is fully advised in relation to the performance of the water resources program provided in RCW 90.54.040, and to provide information and support to the fact-finding service and the joint select committee established in sections 2 and 3 of this 1988 act, the department is directed to become informed with regard to all phases of water and related resources of the state. To accomplish this objective the department shall:

(1) Collect, organize and catalog existing information and studies available to it from all sources, both public and private, pertaining to water and related resources of the state;

(2) Develop such additional data and studies pertaining to water and related resources as are necessary to accomplish the objectives of this chapter;

(3) Determine existing and foreseeable uses of, and needs for, such waters and related resources;

(4) Develop alternate courses of action to solve existing and foreseeable problems of water and related resources and include therein, to the extent feasible, the economic and social consequences of each such course, and the impact on the natural environment.

All the foregoing shall be included in a 'water resources archive' established and maintained by the department. The department shall develop a system of cataloging, storing and retrieving the information and studies of the archive so that they may be made readily available to and effectively used not only by the department but by the public generally.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.040 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The department, through the adoption of appropriate rules, is directed, as a matter of high priority to insure that the waters of the state are utilized for the best interests of the people, to develop and implement in accordance with the policies of this chapter a comprehensive state water resources program which will provide a process for making decisions on future water resource allocation and use. The department may develop the program in segments so that immediate attention may be given to waters of a given physiographic region of the state or to specific critical problems of water allocation and use.

The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the elements of the water resource program established pursuant to this subsection shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with section 2(5) of this 1988 act.

(2) In relation to the management and regulatory programs relating to water resources vested in it, the department is further directed to modify existing regulations and adopt new regulations, when needed and possible, to insure that existing regulatory programs are in accord with the water resource policy of this chapter and the program established in subsection (1) of this section. The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the department's implementation of this subsection shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The department is directed to review all statutes relating to water resources which it is responsible for implementing. When any of the same appear to the department to be ambiguous, unclear, unworkable, unnecessary, or otherwise deficient, it shall make recommendations to the legislature including appropriate proposals for statutory modifications or additions. Whenever it appears that the policies of any such statutes are in conflict with the policies of this chapter, and the department is unable to fully perform as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department is directed to submit statutory modifications to the legislature which, if enacted, would allow the department to carry out such statutes in harmony with this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 284. Laws of 1969 ex. ses. as amended by section 103, chapter 109. Laws of 1987 and by section 96, chapter 506. Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.22.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology may establish minimum water flows or levels for streams, lakes or other public waters for the purposes of protecting fish, game, birds or other wildlife resources, or recreational or aesthetic values of said public waters whenever it appears to be in the public interest to establish the same. In addition, the department of ecology shall, when requested by the department of fisheries or the department of wildlife to protect fish, game or other wildlife resources under the jurisdiction of the requesting state agency, or if the department of ecology finds it necessary to preserve water quality, establish such minimum flows or levels as are required to protect the resource or preserve the water quality described in the request or determination. Any request submitted by the department of fisheries or department of wildlife shall include a statement setting forth the need for establishing a minimum flow or level. When the department acts to preserve water quality, it shall include a similar statement with the proposed rule filed with the code reviser. This section shall not apply to waters artificially stored in reservoirs, provided that in the granting of storage permits by the department of ecology in the future, full recognition shall be given to downstream minimum flows, if any there may be, which have theretofore been established hereunder.

The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the instream flow programs established pursuant to this chapter shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with section 2(5) of this 1988 act.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 225. Laws of 1971 ex. ses. and RCW 90.54.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In conjunction with the programs provided for in RCW 90.54.040(1), whenever it appears necessary to the director in carrying out the policy of this chapter, the department may by rule adopt appropriate rules to chapter 34.04 RCW:

(1) Reserve and set aside waters for beneficial utilization in the future, and

(2) When sufficient information and data are lacking to allow for the making of sound decisions, withdraw various waters of the state from additional appropriations until such data and information are available.

Prior to the adoption of a rule under this section, the department shall conduct a public hearing in each county in which waters relating to the rule are located. The public hearing shall be preceded by a notice placed in a newspaper of general circulation published within each of said counties. Rules adopted hereunder shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.04.070 or 34.04.080.

No new rules or changes to existing rules to reserve or set aside water may be adopted pursuant to this section, as provided in section 2(5) of this 1988 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Nothing in this act shall apply to or interfere with the processing or issuance of water rights in connection with the Yakima River Basin Water Enhancement Project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

(1) The rate of the additional taxes under RCW 54.28.020(2), 54.28.025(2), 66.24.210(2), 66.24.290(2), 82.04.2901, 82.16.020(2), 82.26.020(2), 82.27.020(5), 82.29A.030(2), and 82.44.020(6) shall be seven percent; and

(2) The rate of the additional taxes under RCW 82.08.150(4) shall be fourteen percent.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 428, Laws of 1987 and section 8, chapter 9, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.44.150 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing shall on the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August, and November of each year, commencing with November, 1971, advise the state treasurer of the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department of licensing during the preceding calendar quarter ending on the last day of March, June, September, and December, respectively, except for those payable under RCW 82.44.020(6) and 82.44.030, from motor vehicle owners residing within each municipality which has levied a tax under RCW 35.58.273, which amount of excise taxes shall be determined by the director as follows:

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.020(6) and 82.44.030, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department of licensing shall make the following apportionment and distribution of motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the general fund except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(6): A sum equal to seventeen percent thereof shall be paid to cities and towns in the proportions and for the purposes hereinafter set forth: (amend) a sum equal to two percent thereof shall be allocable to the county sales and use tax equalization account under RCW 82.14.200; and a sum equal to four and two-tenths percent of the special excise tax levied under RCW 35.58.273 by those municipalities authorized to levy a special excise tax at a rate not exceeding ninety-six one-hundredths of one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality shall be deposited in the rail development account established in RCW 47.78.010.

(3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state according to the following formula:

(a) Sixty-five percent of the sum specified in subsection (2) of this section to be paid to cities and towns shall be apportioned ratably on the basis of population as last determined by the office of financial management.
Representatives Heavey and K. Wilson spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Mr. Meyers opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heavey yielded to question by Ms. Brough.

Ms. Brough: Representative Heavey, on page 4 of this amendment, reading the language that is written here, it says "right of way acquisition, and construction of the parallel First Avenue South Bridge." My question is: Is this the First Avenue South Bridge in the unincorporated area of Federal Way? Is this the First Avenue South Bridge perhaps in the city of Seattle? Is this the First Avenue South Bridge that is plunked in the middle of the Burien area? I assume that there are other First Avenues South in this state, but those are the three that I am most familiar with.

Mr. Heavey: Representative Brough, thank you for that astute and insightful question. It is the First Avenue South Bridge that crosses the Duwamish River.

Mr. Barnes spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heavey yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: Representative Heavey, this is a pretty good amendment, but I notice that the two high occupancy vehicle lanes on the Evergreen Point Bridge were omitted from this list. Was that an inadvertent oversight on your part?

Mr. Heavey: Thank you, Representative Sanders. That was not an inadvertent oversight.

Mr. D. Sommers spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Walk and Chandler opposed it.

The amendment was not adopted.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Walk, Schmidt, Vekich and Zellinsky spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Mr. Locke.

Mr. Locke: Representative Braddock, you were the author of the amendment that was adopted by the House on page 1, line 12. What was the rationale for that amendment?
Mr. Braddock: Thank you, Representative Locke. The rationale is that the amendment is intended to clarify the original intent of this section of the nursing home reimbursement statute. Some confusion has been created by recent decisions of an administrative law judge in reviewing this language. The amendment clarifies the total amount of depreciation to be applied to a leased facility. The depreciation accumulated by the lessor, since the lessor purchased the facility, is to be included in the total depreciation used in calculating the lessee’s reimbursement rate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Ms. Silver.

Ms. Silver: In committee we understood that the reimbursement, if they owned a facility, would be the same as their leasing reimbursement. Does your amendment change that at all?

Mr. Braddock: No. It does not.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 4.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) All claims or causes of action based on intentional conduct brought by any person for recovery of damages for injury suffered as a result of childhood sexual abuse shall be commenced within three years of the act alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or three years of the time the victim discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act, whichever period expires later.
(2) The victim need not establish which act in a series of continuing sexual abuse or exploitation incidents caused the injury complained of, but may compute the date of discovery from the date of discovery of the last act by the same perpetrator which is part of a common scheme or plan of sexual abuse or exploitation.

(3) The knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall not be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years.

(4) For purposes of this section, 'child' means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(5) As used in this section, 'childhood sexual abuse' means any act committed by the defendant against a complainant who was less than eighteen years of age at the time of the act and which act would have been a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9.68A.040 or prior laws of similar effect at the time the act was committed.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1401, chapter 212, Laws of 1987 and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

(3) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in subsection (1) of this section, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission; PROVIdED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic or diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years, and such imputed knowledge shall operate to bar the claim of such minor to the same extent that the claim of an adult would be barred under this section. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred.

For purposes of this section, with respect to care provided after June 25, 1976, and before August 1, 1986, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed as of April 29, 1987, to persons under the age of eighteen years.

This section does not apply to a civil action based on intentional conduct brought against those individuals or entities specified in this section by a person for recovery of damages for injury occurring as a result of childhood sexual abuse as defined in section 1(5) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act apply to all causes of action commenced on or after the effective date of this act, regardless of when the cause of action may have arisen. To this extent, sections 1 and 2 of this act apply retrospectively."

Benefits paid to any eligible individuals shall be charged to the experience rating accounts of each of such individual's employers during the individual's base year in the same ratio that the wages paid by each employer to the individual during the base year bear to the wages paid by all employers to that individual during that base year, except as otherwise provided in this section (and in RCW 50.29.025).

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

(1) A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the following March 31st. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The fund balance ratio shall be expressed as a percentage.

(2) The interval of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal require-and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Patrick: I request a ruling on scope and object.

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Patrick, the Speaker has examined Substitute Senate Bill No. 6536 and finds that it amends the employer experience rating chapter of the unemployment compensation laws, by adding benefits paid because of a natural disaster to the list of those items which will not be charged to the employer’s experience rating account. It is a bill about how we rate employer experience rating—what is included and what is not. Amendment 270, offered by Representatives Wang and R. King, amends the definition of “employment” for unemployment compensation and the exclusion for agricultural labor to persons under eighteen years of age. I find that your point is well taken, that the amendment is outside the original scope and object of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Ebersole, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

Absent: Representatives Bristow, Grimm - 2.

Excused: Representatives Allen, McLean - 2.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 6536, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 6537, by Senators West, Smitherman, Lee and Anderson; by request of Employment Security Department

Any finding, determination, conclusion, declaration, or final order made by the commissioner, or his or her representative or delegate, or by an appeal tribunal, administrative law judge, reviewing officer, or other agent of the department for the purposes of Title 50 RCW, shall not be conclusive, nor binding, nor admissible as evidence in any separate action outside the scope of Title 50 RCW between an individual and the individual’s present or prior employer before an arbitrator, court, or judge of this state or the United States, regardless of whether the prior action was between the same or related parties or involved the same facts or was reviewed pursuant to RCW 50.32.120.'
Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 205, Laws of 1984 as last amended by section 3, chapter 171, Laws of 1987 and RCW 50.29.025 are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

(1) A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the following March 31st. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The fund balance ratio shall be expressed as a percentage.

(2) The interval of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

Employers who do not meet the definition of 'qualified employer' by reason of failure to pay contributions when due shall be assigned the contribution rate of five and four-tenths percent;

(2) The tax rate for employers newly covered under section 3 of this 1988 act and not yet qualified to be in the array shall be one percent; and

(c) For all other employers not qualified to be in the array, the contribution rate shall be a rate equal to the average industry rate as determined by the commissioner; however, the rate may not be less than one percent. Assignment of employers by the commissioner to industrial classification, for purposes of this subsection, shall be in accordance with established classification practices found in the 'Standard Industrial Classification Manual' issued by the federal office of management and budget to the third digit provided in the Standard Industrial Classification code.

Sec. 3. Section 16, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 292, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'employment' shall not include service performed by individuals under eighteen years of age in agricultural labor except as otherwise provided in RCW 50.04.155.

Agricultural labor is defined as services performed:

(2) In packing, packaging, grading, storing, or delivering to storage, or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such service is performed as an incident to ordinary farming operations. The exclusions from the term 'employment' provided in this paragraph shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to commercial packing houses, commercial storage establishments, commercial canning, commercial freezing or any other commercial processing or with respect to services performed in connection with the cultivation, raising, harvesting and processing of oysters or raising and harvesting of mushrooms or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4, If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5, Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1989."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Patrick: I request a ruling on scope and object.

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Patrick, the Speaker has examined Senate Bill No. 6537 and finds that it has to do with the admissibility of evidence in employment security hearings. Representative Wang’s amendment, on the other hand, looks similar and appears to deal with the definition of employment for unemployment compensation. I find that your point is well taken, Representative Patrick, and that the amendment is outside the original scope and object of the bill.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6537, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.
Senate Bill No. 6537, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5586, by Committee on Economic Development & Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Lee, Tanner, West and Bauer; by request of Department of Labor and Industries)

Changing provisions relating to hours of labor.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Commerce & Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendment; see Journal, 39th Day, February 18, 1988.)

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the committee amendment and spoke in favor of it. The committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Cole and Winsley:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that flexible work schedules, when developed under agreements between employers and employees, are able to provide working conditions that are advantageous to both employers and employees. However, some working conditions, such as evening hours of work, expose employees to substantial danger of injury and may result in an economic burden for both employers and employees because of lost work time, wage loss, medical expenses, and payment of industrial insurance benefits. Therefore, the purpose of this act is to allow employers and employees to enter into agreements providing for hours of labor in certain employments, but to establish security requirements in employments where needed to ensure so far as possible safe working conditions for employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.28 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 49.28.010 through 49.28.060, a contractor or subcontractor in any public works contract subject to those provisions may enter into an agreement with his or her employees in which the employees work up to ten hours in a calendar day. No such agreement may provide that the employees work ten-hour days for more than four calendar days a week. Any such agreement is subject to approval by the employees. The overtime provisions of RCW 49.28.020 shall not apply to the hours, up to forty hours per week, worked pursuant to agreements entered into under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any employer whose industry is defined by the United States office of management and budget in the 1972 standard industrial classification code manual as number 5411 or 5541, and who remains open for twenty-four hours per day is required to provide the following at the workplace:

1) Equip the workplace with sound alarm equipment that signals the police or sheriff of the jurisdiction within which the workplace is located that a robbery is taking place; and

2) Provide training for employees in robbery and violence prevention and procedures in case of robbery or other violence.

Franchisors who require franchisees to remain open twenty-four hours per day shall be liable for any costs associated with the franchisee's compliance with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This chapter shall be implemented and enforced by the department of labor and industries pursuant to the Washington industrial safety and health act, chapter 49.17 RCW. Any violation of this chapter or of any rule adopted under this chapter shall subject the employer to assessment of a civil penalty under chapter 49.17 RCW. For purposes of this section, each day of a continuing violation constitutes a separate violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An employer who refuses or fails to provide the employee training required under section 3 of this act shall be liable to the employee who is not trained for a civil penalty of one hundred dollars and for costs and such reasonable attorneys' fees as may be allowed by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Each employer shall make, keep, preserve, and make available to the director of labor and industries such records regarding the employer's activities relating to this chapter as the director may prescribe by rule as necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 3 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 49 RCW."
Mr. Patrick: I request a ruling on scope and object.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Patrick, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5586 appears to amend the law on public works contracts to authorize contractors to enter agreements with their employees for flexible work schedules up to ten hours a day. The amendment, offered by Representative Wang and others, requires certain businesses who remain open for twenty-four hours to provide worker safety equipment and training. Once again, we find that the amendment is not within the original scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken; the amendment is out of scope and object.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the point of order by Mr. R. King.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative King, Senate Bill No. 6354 deals with the definition of wages for industrial insurance purposes. It amends Chapter 51.08 RCW to change the definition of monthly wages to include reported tips for the determination of industrial insurance benefits. The committee amendment adds a new section to the State Minimum Wage Act, Chapter 49.46 RCW, to provide that tips may not be included in determining a violation of the the State Minimum Wage Act. The interest accruing on this account, net of any reasonable ((transaction-costs)) and appropriate financial institution service charges or fees, shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the Washington housing trust fund created in RCW 43.185.030. Appropriate service charges or fees are those charges made by financial institutions on other demand deposit or 'now' accounts. An agent may, but shall not be required to, notify the client of the intended use of such funds.

(6) All client funds not required to be deposited in the account specified in subsection (5) of this section shall be deposited in:

Prohibiting restriction or denial of certain agriculturally related hydraulic project permits.

Mr. Sutherland moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Kremen and Chandler:

On page 8, after line 2, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In certain agricultural areas of the state the composition of the soil and the topography combine to create flood-prone conditions. Unless accumulated sand and gravel are removed from these rivers and streams on a regular basis a heavy rainstorm may cause a disastrous flood. The practices of the department of natural resources in establishing rates charged to commercial sand and gravel businesses cause the businesses to obtain their product from upland sources rather than from rivers and streams. As a consequence, sand and gravel accumulate in the streams and many communities are threatened with periodic, severe floods. These floods are more frequent and severe because of the accumulation of material in the rivers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of natural resources and the department of ecology shall study methods of diminishing flood risks by encouraging sand and gravel businesses to remove excess accumulation of materials from the beds of rivers and streams in agricultural areas. By December 1, 1989, the department of natural resources and the department of ecology shall report the results of this study to the appropriate legislative committees. In preparing the study and report, the departments shall work with the Washington association of conservation districts, the conservation commission, representation from the private sand and gravel industry, the department of fisheries, and the department of wildlife to identify alternative aquatic land management policies to diminish the risks of flooding and identity methods of adjusting sand and gravel prices annually to reflect local market conditions.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rayburn yielded to question by Ms. Miller.

Ms. Miller: Representative Rayburn, I would like a further definition of how the perpetual permit would work. My concern is the ability to get into the stream outside of spawning time. Would the perpetual permit explain that at certain times in the season, when we do have spawning activity going on, you would not be able to work in the streams?

Ms. Rayburn: Thank you. I will try to answer that question. It is a very complicated piece of legislation, but the permitting process is not being usurped at all. There still will be a review, but by the consideration of this legislation they will look at seasonal needs such as high water and trees washing down the rivers. I would imagine that fish would be a part of that consideration. It does look at seasonal needs.

Representatives Miller and Sutherland spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

(c) For all other employers not qualified to be in the array, the contribution rate shall be a rate equal to the average industry tax rate as determined by the commissioner; however, the rate may not be less than one percent. Assignment of employers by the commissioner to industrial classification, for purposes of this subsection, shall be in accordance with established classification practices found in the ‘Standard Industrial Classification Manual’ issued by the federal office of management and budget to the third digit provided in the Standard Industrial Classification code.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 50.24 RCW to read as follows:

A separate and identifiable account to provide for the financing of special employer services provided by the department is established in the administrative contingency fund. The special employer services shall consist of:

(1) Certification of workers as defined in section 2 of this act;

(2) Working closely with employers, employer organizations, agricultural workers, and worker organizations to predict agricultural employment supply and demand and to ensure agricultural workers are provided the full range of employment services available; and

(3) Collection from agricultural workers, growers, worker and grower organizations, and other appropriate sources, and analysis, and dissemination, as needed, of agricultural labor market information for the decision-making process used by employers to hire agricultural workers.

Contributions to this account shall accrue and become payable by each employer, except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, taxable local government employers as described in RCW 50.44.035, and those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, at the rate of two one-hundredths of one percent. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined under RCW 50.24.010.

Contributions under this section shall become due and be paid by each employer under rules as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the employer. Any deduction in violation of this section is unlawful.

In the payment of any contribution under this section, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

If the commissioner determines that federal funding has been increased to provide financing for the services described in this section and sections 1 and 2 of this act, or that state funds have been appropriated for such services in the 1988 omnibus appropriations act adopted prior to July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall direct that collection of contributions under this section be decreased or terminated.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 292, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'employment' shall not include service performed by individuals under eighteen years of age in agricultural labor except as otherwise provided in RCW 50.04.155.

Agricultural labor is defined as services performed:

(1) On a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with the cultivation of the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and fur bearing animals and wild life, or in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment; or

(2) In packing, packaging, grading, storing, or delivering to storage, or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such service is performed as an incident to ordinary farming operations. However, if federal funding is provided or increased to provide for the financing of the services specified in this act, or if the legislature appropriates funds for such services in the 1988 omnibus appropriations act adopted prior to July 1, 1988, the appropriation under this section shall be reduced by the amount that federal funding is increased specifically for such services, or by the amount of such appropriation in the 1988 omnibus appropriations act. This portion of the state appropriation under this section shall be deposited in the unemployment compensation fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

would produce for the purpose of making such quantity of such commodity a substantial contribution to the economic operation of the farm on which such commodity is produced. 'Commercial quantities' as applied to handlers and/or handling means such quantities per year (or other period of time) of an agricultural commodity or product thereof as the director finds are not less than the minimum which a prudent man engaged in such handling would handle for the purpose of making such quantity a substantial contribution to the handling operation in which such commodity or product thereof is so handled. Ms. Cole: Is this the same substance as a bill that we had in Natural Resources that related to wildlife?

Mr. Bumgarner: Thank you, Representative Cole. This is only a portion of the subject considered in the Natural Resources Committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Rust: I would like to ask the Speaker to give us a scope and object ruling on this amendment.

With consent of the House, Mr. Hargrove withdrew the amendment.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Hargrove: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The reason I introduced this amendment, that has now been withdrawn, is to bring to your attention an action that our forest board has currently taken. Recently we have decided to delay selling thirty-eight sales of old growth timber on the Olympic Peninsula. These particular sales are worth close to sixty million dollars at a time....

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Sayan: I don't believe we are interested in a third reading speech on a withdrawn amendment.

The Speaker (Mr. Locke presiding): Representative Hargrove, the Speaker will allow a great deal of latitude on expressing a point of personal privilege, but you began your remarks by indicating the reasons for withdrawing your amendment and I ask that you confine your remarks to that point with some latitude.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Hargrove: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I withdrew my amendment because I didn't feel that we ought to throw the Governor and the SPI and those people in jail. However, I am still concerned with the fact that sixty million dollars worth of timber will not be cut now, and we have a three hundred million dollar shortfall in the public school construction account.

The Speaker (Mr. Locke presiding): Excuse me, Representative Hargrove. The Speaker has allowed you a great deal of latitude and the Speaker finds that you are now exceeding that latitude and that this is no longer a point of personal privilege.
POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Amondson: Mr. Speaker, if I may, I would like to comment on the amendment that was withdrawn.

The Speaker (Mr. Locke presiding): Representative Amondson, since the amendment has been withdrawn, the Speaker finds that there is no further discussion of that amendment and that a point of personal privilege would not be in order nor any further comments.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Padden: I am trying to understand the Speaker's ruling. On one hand he allowed the gentleman from the 24th district to speak on a point of personal privilege regarding the amendment—in fact, indicated that he should restrict his remarks to why the amendment was withdrawn—and yet when the gentleman from the 20th district rose on a point of personal privilege on the same matter, the Speaker did not allow it. It would appear that the Speaker's ruling could be arbitrary and capricious. I want to inquire further as to what the rationale was and see if the Speaker would reconsider that ruling, since the gentleman from the 24th district was granted some latitude.

The Speaker (Mr. Locke presiding): Representative Padden, Representative Hargrove rose to make a point of personal privilege to explain why he was withdrawing the amendment. Since he was withdrawing the amendment, the Speaker allowed him limited latitude. When he began to exceed that latitude, Representative Hargrove was found to be out of order and no further discussion was allowed. I think the Speaker has ruled consistently and is not arbitrary and capricious.

With consent of the House, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Amondson, Hargrove and Schoon spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. Schoon.

Mr. Schoon: Representative Pruitt, in the event that the range may be stated in fifteen percent increments—fifteen percent is a substantial amount. If we put it in variable, will GSA then in their responses receive from people bidding very vague quantities? In other words, with the language in the bill as it is, that it shall be stated in fifteen percent increments, we know that it will be 0-15, 15-30, 30-45. How do you envision changing it to "may"—what kind of increments would GSA then come up with?

Mr. Pruitt: Representative Schoon, the intent of the amendment is really to give GSA the authority to be flexible in what range they do set up relating to any given product.

The amendment was adopted.

March 1, 1988

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1482 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that many persons under the age of eighteen unlawfully use intoxicating liquor and controlled substances. The use of these substances by juveniles can cause serious damage to their physical, mental, and emotional well-being, and in some instances results in life-long disabilities.

The legislature also finds that juveniles who unlawfully use alcohol and controlled substances frequently operate motor vehicles while under the influence of and impaired by alcohol or drugs. Juveniles who use these substances often have seriously impaired judgment and motor skills and pose an unduly high risk of causing injury or death to themselves or other persons on the public highways.

The legislature also finds that juveniles will be deterred from the unlawful use of alcohol and controlled substances if their driving privileges are suspended or revoked for using illegal drugs or alcohol.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) (a) If a juvenile under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over, is found by juvenile court to have committed an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in (c) of this subsection, a court, upon petition of a juvenile who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, may at any time the court deems appropriate notify the department of licensing that the juvenile’s driving privileges should be reinstated.

(c) The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile’s driving privileges should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first order issued with respect to the juvenile under section 7 of this act, or for a period of one year after the issuance of the order if it is the second or subsequent such order issued with respect to the juvenile.

(2) (a) If a juvenile enters into a diversion agreement with a diversion unit pursuant to RCW 13.40.080 concerning an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the diversion unit shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after the diversion agreement is signed.

(b) If a diversion unit has notified the department pursuant to (a) of this subsection, the diversion unit shall notify the department of licensing when the juvenile has completed the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 66.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over, is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(1) When the person in charge of a treatment facility, or his or her designee, receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, the person in charge, or his or her designee, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. If the person in charge, or his or her designee, finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020. If placement in an alcohol treatment facility is deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for ((the voluntary)) detoxification or treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment by itself does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within ((two)) five days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the licensed physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning facility or the department is ((not)) eligible to be the certifying physician.
(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than ((three)) two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained ((by the)) in a facility, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120 or 71.05.210, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof. It shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment facility. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment facility is able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her ((and the treatment is likely to be beneficial)).

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the facility for treatment for a period of ((thirty)) sixty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the ((thirty)) sixty-day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the facility, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

(6) ((A person recommitted under subsection (5) of this section who has not been discharged by the facility before the end of the ninety day period shall be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the facility, before expiration of the period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for recommitment for a further period not to exceed ninety days. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists. Only two recommitment orders under subsections (5) and (6) of this section are permitted:

(7)) At the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection ((5)) ((or (6))) of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than ((three)) two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(8) The approved treatment facility shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment facility to another if transfer is medically advisable.

(9) A person committed to the custody of a facility for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself, herself, or another, ((that he or she is no longer an alcoholic or)) the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.
(b) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

(((((9)))) (2) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

(((((H)))) (10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(((((I-2)))) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility providing involuntary treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the facility designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the facility providing the initial involuntary treatment, the facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated county alcoholism specialist, and the court of original commitment. The facility designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the facility providing less restrictive care and the designated county alcoholism specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated county alcoholism specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated alcoholism specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive facility. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on condition release on the same or modified conditions.

Providing funding for special employer services provided by the employment security department.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the point of order by Representative Patrick regarding the scope and object of the amendment by Representatives Wang and R. King to the committee amendment.

SPEAKER’S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Patrick, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6294 amends state unemployment compensation laws to establish a special job services program funded through a surcharge on employer rates. The program covers several areas including certification services relating to the Federal Immigration and Control Act of 1986, improved data collection and analysis of employment in the agricultural industry, and funds to increase employment services for agricultural workers "to ensure farmworkers are provided the full range of employment services available." Amendment 346 strikes and reinserts several sections of the Senate bill. In addition, it changes the definition of "employment" within the unemployment compensation law for persons employed in the agricultural industry. The Speaker finds that the scope of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6294 covers a broad range of issues on unemployment laws, especially in the area of services to farmworkers. Therefore, the Speaker finds that amendment 346 is within the scope and object of the bill. The point of order is not well taken.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 4, 1988

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4446.

and the same is herewith transmitted.

W. D. Naismith, Assistant Secretary.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

MOTION

Mr. Meyers moved that the House immediately consider Substitute Senate Bill No. 6512 on second reading. The motion was carried.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6512, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Senators Hansen, Barr, Halsan, Bailey and Rinehart)

Exempting land enrolled in the federal conservation reserve program from state property and excise taxes.

The bill was read the second time. There being no objection, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Grant, Schoon and Rayburn spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Ms. Rust opposed it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Schoon: Would you please have the Representative from the 1st District address this bill and not other bills that we have had before us?

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): Representative Rust, could you hold your remarks to the subject matter and then perhaps talk about the effects of tax exemption relative to the state revenues? I would like you to hold your remarks generally to the subject matter of the bill.

Ms. Rust continued her remarks in opposition to passage of the bill.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Brough: Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that it would be appropriate to remind the speaker before she is allowed to go on and on regarding a subject that has nothing to do with the bill before us, especially after it has been pointed out once before.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. H. Sommers: No, I cannot. I think that is indicative of the kind of thing that we are dealing with. We do not have before us exactly what this is costing us.

Mr. Bumgarner spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: Representative Grimm, can you tell us the fiscal impact of this tax exemption?

Mr. Grimm: In response to the question from the gentleman from the 48th Legislative District, the answer is that Substitute Senate Bill No. 6512 puts into statute what is currently in rule and regulation of the Department of Revenue relative to sales, business and occupation, and property taxation under the Open Space Act provisions. As a result, there is no fiscal impact that can be identified solely from this change, because the rules and regulations are, of course, promulgated under the authority of statute.

Mr. Sanders: Thank you, Representative Grimm. Is there any estimate of what this would be as a fiscal impact if we actually applied it?

Mr. Grimm: In response to your second question, the answer is I don't know.

Mr. Sanders spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Baugher and Nealey again spoke in favor of it.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1404 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the need to increase the pool of available nursing resources to meet new demands on the health care delivery system. The more complex nature of illnesses, constraints on reimbursement pressuring accelerated treatment and earlier patient discharge, the explosion of technology, and the parameters established by third-party payers requiring intense monitoring, may be diverting nurses from the bedside into early burnout, retirement, or employment elsewhere.

The state’s nursing educational program, encompassing nursing assistants, licensed practical nurses, and licensed (registered) nurses should be better articular for career mobility in order to make the nursing profession more attractive to individuals and for retaining qualified nurses in the health care delivery system. Barriers to licensure and employment should be eliminated to increase the number of nurses available for patient care.

The legislature declares this act is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The state board of nursing, in consultation with the state board of practical nursing, the superintendent of public instruction, vocational education agencies, the state board for community college education, and the higher education coordinating board, shall:

(1) Investigate current education programs for nurses in all settings, such as high schools, vocational-technical schools, community colleges, and universities, to identify the scope of nursing education programs in the state;

(2) Develop, for the purpose of approving nursing education programs for applicants for licensure, a model for articulation and career mobility to enable nurses at every level of the profession to progress to higher levels and advance their professional status by integrating into a recognized nursing curriculum;

(3) Develop innovative nursing education programs that include flexibility in classroom hours, in education program schedules, and through satellite locations so that individuals throughout the state have greater access to a nursing education program; and

(4) Investigate and support innovative models in clinical practice settings for the organization and delivery of nursing services.

The board of nursing shall present its final findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989, with a work plan for this study to be submitted to the legislature in August 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.78 RCW to read as follows:

An applicant holding a credential in another state may be licensed by endorsement to practice in this state without examination if the board determines that the other state’s credentialing standards are substantially equivalent to the standards in this state.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 222, Laws of 1949, as last amended by section 129, chapter 259, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.78.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall conduct examinations for all applicants for licensure under this chapter and shall certify qualified applicants to the department of licensing for licensing. The board shall also determine and formulate what constitutes the curriculum for an approved practical nursing program preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement.

The board may adopt rules or issue advisory opinions in response to questions from professional health associations, health care practitioners, and consumers in this state concerning licensed practical nurse practice. The board shall establish criteria for proof of reasonable currency of knowledge and skill as a basis for safe practice after three years inactive or lapsed status.

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 15, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 14, chapter 133, Laws of 1973 and RCW 18.88.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon board approval of the application, the department shall issue a license by endorsement to practice nursing as a registered nurse without examination to an applicant who is at least eighteen years of age; is of good moral character; is of good physical and mental health; has completed at least a tenth grade course or its equivalent, as determined by the board; has completed an approved program of not less than nine months for the education of practical nurses, or its equivalent, as determined by the board.

To be licensed as a practical nurse, each applicant shall be required to pass an examination in such subjects as the board may determine within the scope of and commensurate with the work to be performed by a licensed practical nurse. Upon approval by the board, the department shall issue an interim permit authorizing the applicant to practice nursing as authorized under this chapter pending notification of the results of the first licensing examination following verification of satisfactory completion of an approved program of practical nursing. Any applicant failing to pass such an examination may apply for reexamination. If the applicant fails the examination, the interim permit expires upon notification and is not renewable. Upon passing such examination as determined by the board, the director shall issue to the applicant a license to practice as a licensed practical nurse, providing the license fee is paid by the applicant and the applicant meets all other requirements of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 6 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect April 1, 1988. The director of licensing may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that section 6 of this act is implemented on its effective date.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 50, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.88.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law, as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. The board shall approve curricula and shall establish criteria for minimum standards for schools preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. It shall keep a record of all its proceedings and make such reports to the governor as may be required. The board shall define by regulation what constitutes specialized and advanced levels of nursing practice as recognized by the medical and nursing professions. The board may adopt regulations or issue advisory opinions in response to questions put to it by professional health associations, nursing practitioners, and consumers in this state concerning the authority of various categories of nursing practitioners to perform particular acts.

The board shall approve such schools of nursing as meet the requirements of this chapter and the board, and the board shall approve establishment of basic nursing education programs and shall establish criteria as to the need for and the size of a program and the geographical location. The board shall establish criteria for proof of reasonable currency of knowledge and skill as a basis for safe practice after three years (nonpracticing) inactive or lapsed status. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement. The board shall examine all applications for registration under this chapter, and shall certify to the director for licensing duly qualified applicants.

The department shall furnish to the board such secretarial, clerical and other assistance as may be necessary to effectively administer the provisions of this chapter. Each member of the board shall, in addition to travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 while away from home, be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240.

Sec. 9. Section 19, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 69, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.88.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Every license issued under the provisions of this chapter, whether in an active or inactive status, shall be renewed, except as hereinafter provided. ((The board shall by regulation establish requirements of continuing nursing education as a condition of license renewal: PROVIDED, That membership in an organization shall not be a prerequisite or condition to the fulfillment of any continuous education requirement established as provided herein: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board shall validate all educational programs established as provided herein:)) At least thirty days prior to expiration, the director shall mail a notice for renewal of license to every person licensed for the current licensing period. The applicant shall return the notice to the department with a renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 before the expiration date. Upon receipt of the notice and appropriate fee, ((and if requirements for continuing nursing education have been met)) the department shall issue to the applicant a license which shall render the holder thereof a legal practitioner of nursing in either active or inactive status for the period stated on the license: PROVIDED, That the requirement of continuing nursing education may for good cause shown be waived by the board. The department's costs for nurses' continuing education shall be borne from license fees: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the power of the board to establish continuing nursing education requirements as a condition of license renewal shall terminate on January 1, 1986, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time).

Sec. 10. Section 20, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 70, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.88.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Any licensee who allows his or her license to lapse by failing to renew the license, shall upon application for renewal pay a penalty determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. If the applicant fails to renew the license before the end of the current licensing period, the license shall be issued for the next licensing period by the department upon written application and fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Persons on lapsed status for three or more years must provide evidence of knowledge and skill of current practice as required by the board.
Sec. 11. Section 22, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 20, chapter 133, Laws of 1973 and RCW 18.88.220 are each amended to read as follows:

A person licensed under the provisions of this chapter desiring to retire temporarily from the practice of nursing in this state shall send a written notice to the director.

Upon receipt of such notice the name of such person shall be placed on inactive status. While remaining on this status the person shall not practice nursing in the state as provided in this chapter. When such person desires to resume practice, application for renewal of license shall be made to the board and renewal fee payable to the state treasurer. Persons on inactive status for three years or more must provide evidence of knowledge and skill of current practice as required by the board or as hereinafter in this chapter provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 18.78 RCW to read as follows:

An individual may place his or her license on inactive status with proper notification to the department. The holder of an inactive license shall not practice practical nursing in this state. The inactive renewal fee shall be established by the director pursuant to RCW 43.24.086. Failure to renew an inactive license shall result in cancellation in the same manner as an active license. An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon compliance with the rules established by the board.

The provisions relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive or lapsed license. When proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall not be reinstated until the proceedings have been completed.

Upon approval by the board and following verification of satisfactory completion of an advanced formal education, the department of licensing shall issue an interim permit authorizing the applicant to practice specialized and advanced nursing practice pending notification of the results of the first certification examination. If the applicant passes the examination, the interim permit shall expire upon notification and is not renewable. The holder of the interim permit is subject to chapter 18.130 RCW.

(1) When any practitioner, professional school personnel, registered or licensed nurse, social service counselor, psychologist, pharmacist, licensed or certified child care providers or their employees, employee of the department, or juvenile probation officer has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person has suffered abuse or neglect, he or she shall report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department as provided in RCW 26.44.040. The report shall be made at the first opportunity, but in no case longer than forty-eight hours after there is reasonable cause to believe that the child or adult has suffered abuse or neglect.

(2) Any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person has suffered abuse or neglect may report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040.

(3) The department, upon receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing to the proper law enforcement agency.

receiving child protective services or department case services for the developmentally disabled. Upon request, the department shall conduct such planning and consultation with those persons required to report under this section, with consultants designated by the department, if the department determines it is in the best interests of the child or developmentally disabled person. Information considered privileged by statute and not directly related to reports required by this section shall not be divulged without a valid written waiver of the privilege.

(7) Any case referred to the department by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW on the basis of an expert medical opinion that child abuse, neglect, or sexual assault has occurred and that the child's safety will be seriously endangered if returned home, the department shall file a dependency petition unless a second licensed physician of the parents' choice believes that such expert medical opinion is incorrect. If the parents fail to designate a second physician, the department may make the selection. If a physician finds that a child has suffered abuse or neglect but that such abuse or neglect does not constitute imminent danger to the child's health or safety, and the department agrees with the physician's assessment, the child may be left in the parents' home while the department proceeds with reasonable efforts to remedy parenting deficiencies.

(8) Persons or agencies exchanging information under subsection (6) of this section shall not further disseminate or release the information except as authorized by state or federal statute. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor.

(9) Upon receiving reports of abuse or neglect, the department or law enforcement agency may interview children. The interviews may be conducted on school premises, at day-care facilities, at the child's home, or at other suitable locations outside of the presence of parents. Parental notification of the interview shall occur at the earliest possible point in the investigation that will not jeopardize the safety or protection of the child or the course of the investigation. Prior to commencing the interview the department or law enforcement agency shall determine whether the child wishes a third party to be present for the interview and, if so, shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the child's wishes. Unless the child objects, the department or law enforcement agency shall make reasonable efforts to include a third party in any interview so long as the presence of the third party will not jeopardize the course of the investigation.

(10) Upon receiving a report of incidents, conditions, or circumstances of child abuse and neglect, the department shall have access to all relevant records of the child in the possession of mandated reporters and their employees.

(11) The department shall maintain investigation records and conduct timely and periodic reviews of all cases constituting abuse and neglect. The department shall maintain a log of screened-out nonabusive cases.

(12) The department of social and health services shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, use a risk assessment tool when investigating child abuse and neglect referrals. The tool shall be used, on a pilot basis, in three local office service areas. The department shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, offer enhanced community-based services to persons who are determined not to require further state intervention.

The department shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives on the use of the tool by December 1, 1988. The report shall include recommendations on the continued use and possible expanded use of the tool.

(13) Upon receipt of such report the law enforcement agency may arrange to interview the person making the report and any collateral sources to determine if any malice is involved in the reporting.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 129, Laws of 1982 and RCW 26.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

This prohibition does not apply to (1) extraordinary legislative sessions held after the close of the filing period for legislative office and before the general election, (2) caucuses of major political parties of the state senate or state house of representatives, or (3) a legislator whose recall is demanded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

The published notice shall be reasonably calculated to inform voters of the candidate's noncompliance. Notice of the noncompliance shall also be posted in a conspicuous place at each polling place where the noncomplying candidate's name appears on the ballot.

(((t(0))) (7) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.057.

Sec. 2. Section 51.32.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed two thousand dollars shall be paid.

(2) (a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage payments according to the following schedule:

(i) If there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars:

(ii) If there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars:

(iii) If there are two children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars:

(iv) If there are three children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars:

(v) If there are four children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars; or

(vi) If there are five or more children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars.

(b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the monthly benefits payable as a result of the worker’s death for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.

(c) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED. That ((the)) a monthly payment shall be made to the child or children of the deceased worker (((shall))) from the month following such remarriage ((but)) in a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. If the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker, or if after the death of the worker, legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children.

(d) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in subsection (2) of this section exceed ((seventy-five)) one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018.

(e) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(5) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs. However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 1, 1971, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect, or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)(f)(i) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.060. Sec. 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in subsections (4) through (6) of RCW 51.32.060 (as amended) (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.
(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent. However, during the period a worker returns to light-duty work, receives disability leave supplement payments pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530, and is otherwise eligible for compensation under this section, the worker shall continue to receive such compensation at the rate provided under RCW 51.32.060 (1) ((through (19))) and (2).

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages. This limitation does not apply to disability leave supplement payments made pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed the seven hundred and fifty percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 4. Section 51.32.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and by section 3 of this 1988 act and RCW 51.32.090 are each reenacted to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in RCW 51.32.060 (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker... is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, prove inadequate to enable him or her to return to work to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 5. Section 51.32.180, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 53, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Every worker who suffers disability from an occupational disease in the course of employment under the mandatory or elective adoption provisions of this title, or his or her family and dependents in case of death of the worker from such disease or infection, shall receive the same compensation benefits and medical, surgical and hospital care and treatment as would be paid and provided for a worker injured or killed in employment under this title provided, however, that:

except as follows: (a) This section and RCW 51.16.040 shall not apply where the last exposure to the hazards of the disease or infection occurred prior to January 1, 1937; and (b) for claims filed on or after July 1, 1988, the rate of compensation for occupational diseases shall be established as of the date the disease requires medical treatment or becomes totally or partially disabling, whichever occurs first, and without regard to the date of the contraction of the disease or the date of filing the claim.

Sec. 6. Section 51.32.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the permanent partial disabilities here specifically described, the injured worker shall receive compensation as follows:

(2) Compensation for amputation of a member or part thereof at a site other than those above specified, and for loss of central visual acuity and loss of hearing other than complete, shall be in proportion to that to which such other amputation or partial loss of visual acuity or hearing most closely resembles and approximates. Compensation for any other permanent partial disability not involving amputation shall be in the proportion which the extent of such other disability, called unspecified disability, shall bear to that above specified, which most closely resembles and approximates in degree of disability such other disability, compensation for any other unspecified permanent partial disability shall be in an amount as measured and compared to total bodily impairment: PROVIDED, That in order to reduce litigation and establish more certainty and uniformity in the rating of unspecified permanent partial disabilities, the department shall enact rules having the force of law classifying such disabilities in the proportion which the department shall determine such disabilities reasonably bear to total bodily impairment. In enacting such rules, the department shall give consideration to, but need not necessarily adopt, any nationally recognized medical standards or guides for determining various bodily impairments. For purposes of calculating monetary benefits, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be deemed to be ninety thousand dollars: PROVIDED, (That compensation for unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability shall be determined at an amount equal to seventy-five percent of the monetary value of such disability as related to total bodily impairment: PROVIDED FURTHER:) That the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of ninety thousand dollars: (except that the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability and resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of sixty-seven thousand five hundred dollars): PROVIDED FURTHER, That in case permanent partial disability compensation is followed by permanent total disability compensation, any portion of the permanent partial disability compensation which exceeds the amount that would have been paid the injured worker if permanent total disability compensation had been paid in the first instance, shall be deducted from the pension reserve of such injured worker and his or her monthly compensation payments shall be reduced accordingly.

(3) Should a worker receive an injury to a member or part of his or her body already, from whatever cause, permanently partially disabled, resulting in the amputation thereof or in an aggravation or increase in such permanent partial disability but not resulting in the permanent total disability of such worker, his or her compensation for such partial disability shall be adjusted with regard to the previous disability of the injured member or part and the degree or extent of the aggravation or increase of disability thereof.

(4) When the compensation provided for in subsections (1) and (2) exceeds three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, payment shall be made in monthly payments in accordance with the schedule of temporary total disability payments set forth in RCW 51.32.090 until such compensation is paid to the injured worker in full, except that the first monthly payment shall be in an amount equal to three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, and interest shall be paid at the rate of eight percent on the unpaid balance of such compensation commencing with the second monthly payment: PROVIDED, That upon application of the injured worker or survivor the monthly payment may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment, in which event the monthly payment shall cease in whole or in part. Such conversion may be made only upon written application of the injured worker or survivor to the department and shall rest in the discretion of the department depending upon the merits of each individual application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon death of a worker all unpaid installments accrued shall be paid according to the payment schedule established prior to the death of the worker to the widow or widower, or if there is no widow or widower surviving, to the dependent children of such claimant, and if there are no such dependent children, then to such other dependents as defined by this title.

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 203, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.32.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The compensation or death benefits payable pursuant to the provisions of this chapter for temporary total disability, permanent total disability, or death arising out of injuries or occupational diseases shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) On July 1, 1982, there shall be an adjustment for those whose right to compensation was established on or after July 1, 1971, and before July 1, 1982. The adjustment shall be determined by multiplying the amount of compensation to which they are entitled by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 for the fiscal year in which such person's right to compensation was established, and the numerator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 on July 1, 1982.

(2) In addition to the adjustment established by subsection (1) of this section, there shall be another adjustment on July 1, 1983, for those whose right to compensation was established on or after July 1, 1971, and before July 1983, which shall be determined by multiplying the amount of compensation to which they are entitled by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 for the fiscal year in which such person's right to compensation was established, and the numerator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 on July 1, 1983.

(3) In addition to the adjustments under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, further adjustments shall be made beginning on July 1, 1984, and on each July 1st thereafter for those whose right to compensation was established on or after July 1, 1971. The adjustment shall be determined by multiplying the amount of compensation to which they are entitled by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 for the fiscal year in which such person's right to compensation was established, and the numerator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 on July 1st of the year in which the adjustment is being made. The department or self-insurer shall adjust the resulting compensation rate to the nearest whole cent, not to exceed the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018.

Sec. 8. Section 51.44.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 29, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.44.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall notify the state treasurer from time to time, of such transfers as a whole from the state fund to the reserve fund and the interest or other earnings of the reserve fund shall become a part of the reserve fund itself. As soon as possible after June 30th of each year the state insurance commissioner shall report the reserve fund to ascertain its standing as of June 30th of that year and the relation of its outstanding annuities at their then value ((on-the-bases-currently-employed-for-new-cases)) to the cash on hand or at interest belonging to the fund. He shall promptly report the result of his examination to the department and to the state treasurer in writing not later than September 30th following. If the report shows that there was on said June 30th, in the reserve fund in cash or at interest, a greater sum than the then annuity value of the outstanding pension obligations, the surplus shall be forthwith turned over to the state fund but, if the report shows the contrary condition of the reserve fund, the deficiency shall be forthwith made good out of the state fund.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 2, chapter 339, Laws of 1985 and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) One of the primary purposes of this title is to enable the injured worker to become employable at gainful employment. To this end, the department or self-insurers shall utilize the services of individuals and organizations, public or private, whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation as may be reasonable to make the worker employable consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals or organizations and prior to final evaluation of the worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor or supervisor's designee, whether or not medical treatment has been concluded, vocational rehabilitation is both necessary and likely to enable the injured worker to become employable at gainful employment, the supervisor or supervisor's designee may, in his or her sole discretion, pay or, if the employer is a self-insurer, direct the self-insurer to pay the cost as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) When in the sole discretion of the supervisor or the supervisor's designee vocational rehabilitation is both necessary and likely to make the worker employable at gainful employment, then the following order of priorities shall be used:

(a) Return to the previous job with the same employer:
(b) Modification of the previous job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

(c) A new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions;

(d) Modification of a new job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

(e) Modification of the previous job with a new employer:

(()) (f) A new job with a new employer or self-employment based upon transferable skills:

(()) (g) Modification of a new job with a new employer:

(h) A new job with a new employer or self-employment involving on-the-job training:

(()) (i) Short-term retraining and job placement.

(3) Costs for vocational rehabilitation benefits allowed by the supervisor or supervisor’s designee under subsection (1) of this section may include the cost of books, tuition, fees, supplies, equipment, transportation, child or dependent care, and other necessary expenses for any such worker in an amount not to exceed three thousand dollars in any fifty-two week period, and the cost of continuing the temporary total disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 while the worker is actively and successfully undergoing a formal program of vocational rehabilitation. Such expenses may include training fees for on-the-job training and the cost of furnishing tools and other equipment necessary for self-employment or reemployment: PROVIDED, That such compensation or payment of retraining with job placement expenses may not be authorized for a period of more than fifty-two weeks: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such period may, in the sole discretion of the supervisor after his or her review, be extended for an additional fifty-two weeks or portion thereof by written order of the supervisor.

In cases where the worker is required to reside away from his or her customary residence, the reasonable cost of board and lodging shall also be paid. Said costs shall be chargeable to the employer’s cost experience or shall be paid by the self-insurer as the case may be.

(4) The department shall establish criteria to monitor the quality and effectiveness of rehabilitation services provided by the individuals and organizations used under subsection (1) of this section. The state fund shall make referrals for vocational rehabilitation services based on these performance criteria.

(5) The department shall engage in, where feasible and cost-effective, a cooperative program with the state employment security department to provide job placement services under this section.

(6) The benefits in this section shall be provided for the injured workers of self-insured employers. Self-insurers shall report both benefits provided and benefits denied under this section in the manner prescribed by the department by rule adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The director may, in his or her sole discretion and upon his or her own initiative or at any time that a dispute arises under this section, promptly make such inquiries as circumstances require and take such other action as he or she considers to protect the rights of the parties.

(7) The benefits provided for in this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury. However, claims shall not be reopened solely for vocational rehabilitation purposes.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 63, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 3, chapter 70, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.32.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Modification of the injured worker’s previous job or modification of a new job is recognized as a desirable method of returning the injured worker to (suitable) gainful employment. In order to assist employers in meeting the costs of job modification, and to encourage employers to modify jobs to accommodate retaining or hiring workers with disabilities resulting from work-related injury, the supervisor or the supervisor’s designee, in his or her discretion, may pay job modification costs in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars per worker per job modification. This payment is intended to be a cooperative participation with the employer and funds shall be taken from the appropriate account within the second injury fund.

The benefits provided for in this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury.

Sec. 11. Section 51.32.160, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If aggravation, diminution, or termination of disability takes place ((or be discovered after the date of compensation shall have been established or compensation terminated, in any case)), the director (through and by means of the division of industrial insurance) may, upon application of the beneficiary, made within seven years ((after the establishment or termination of such compensation)) from the date the first closing order becomes final, or at any time upon his or her own motion, readjust ((for further application)) the rate of compensation in accordance with the rules in this section provided for the same, or in a proper case terminate the payment: PROVIDED, That the director may, upon application of the worker made at any time, provide proper and necessary medical and surgical services as authorized under RCW 51.36.010. ‘Closing order’ as used in this section means an order based on factors which include medical recommendation, advice, or examination. Applications for benefits where the claim has been closed without medical recommendation, advice, or examination are not subject to the seven year limitation of this section. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any closing order issued prior to July 1, 1981. First closing orders issued between July 1, 1981, and July 1, 1985, shall, for the purposes of this section only, be deemed issued on July 1, 1985. The time limitation of this section shall be ten years in claims involving loss of vision or function of the eyes. If an order denying an application to reopen filed on or after July 1, 1988, is not issued within ninety days of receipt of such application by the self-insured employer or the department, such application shall be deemed granted. However, for good cause, the department may extend the time for making the final determination on the application for an additional

If a worker receiving a pension for total disability returns to gainful employment for wages, the director may suspend or terminate the rate of compensation established for the disability without producing medical evidence that shows that a diminution of the disability has occurred.

No act done or ordered to be done by the director, or the department prior to the signing and filing in the matter of a written order for such readjustment shall be ground for such readjustment.

Sec. 12. Section 5, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.08.178 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this title, the monthly wages the worker was receiving from all employment at the time of injury shall be the basis upon which compensation is computed unless otherwise provided specifically in the statute concerned. In cases where the worker’s wages are not fixed by the month, they shall be determined by multiplying the daily wage the worker was receiving at the time of the injury:

(a) By five, if the worker was normally employed one day a week;
(b) By nine, if the worker was normally employed two days a week;
(c) By thirteen, if the worker was normally employed three days a week;
(d) By eighteen, if the worker was normally employed four days a week;
(e) By twenty-two, if the worker was normally employed five days a week;
(f) By twenty-six, if the worker was normally employed six days a week;
(g) By thirty, if the worker was normally employed seven days a week.

The term "wages" shall include the reasonable value of board, housing, fuel, or other consideration of like nature received from the employer as part of the contract of hire, but shall not include overtime pay except in cases under subsection (2) of this section. However, tips shall also be considered wages only to the extent such tips are reported to the employer for federal income tax purposes. The daily wage shall be the hourly wage multiplied by the number of hours the worker is normally employed. The number of hours the worker is normally employed shall be determined by the department in a fair and reasonable manner, which may include averaging the number of hours worked per day.

(2) In cases where (a) the worker’s employment is exclusively seasonal in nature or (b) the worker’s current employment or his or her relation to his or her employment is essentially part­ time or intermittent, the monthly wage shall be determined by dividing by twelve the total wages earned, including overtime, from all employment in any twelve successive calendar months preceding the injury which fairly represent the claimant’s employment pattern.

(3) If, within the twelve months immediately preceding the injury, the worker has received from the employer at the time of injury a bonus as part of the contract of hire, the average monthly value of such bonus shall be included in determining the worker’s monthly wages.

(4) In cases where a wage has not been fixed or cannot be reasonably and fairly deter­ dined, the monthly wage shall be computed on the basis of the usual wage paid other employees engaged in like or similar occupations where the wages are fixed.

Sec. 13. Section 46, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.058 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) One purpose of this title is to restore the injured worker as near as possible to the condition of self-support as an able-bodied worker. Benefits for permanent disability shall be determined under the director’s supervision only after the injured worker’s condition becomes fixed.

(2) All determinations of permanent disabilities shall be made by the department. Either the worker, employer, or self-insurer may make a request or such inquiry may be initiated by the director on his or her own motion. Such determinations shall be required in every instance where permanent disability is likely to be present. All medical reports and other pertinent information in the possession of or under the control of the employer or self-insurer shall be forwarded to the director with such requests.

(3) A request for determination of permanent disability shall be examined by the department and an order shall issue in accordance with RCW 51.52.050.

(4) The department may require that the worker present himself or herself for a special medical examination by a physician, or physicians, selected by the department, and the department may require that the worker present himself or herself for a personal interview. In such event the costs of such examination or interview, including payment of any reasonable travel expenses, shall be paid by the department or self-insurer as the case may be.
(5) The director may establish a medical bureau within the department to perform medical examinations under this section. Physicians hired or retained for this purpose shall be grounded in industrial medicine and in the assessment of industrial physical impairment. Self-insurers shall bear a proportionate share of the cost of such medical bureau in a manner to be determined by the department.

(6) Where dispute arises from the handling of any claims prior to the condition of the injured worker becoming fixed, the worker, employer, or self-insurer may request the department to resolve the dispute or the director may initiate an inquiry on his or her own motion. In such cases the department shall proceed as provided in this section and an order shall issue in accordance with RCW 51.52.050.

(a) In the case of claims accepted by self-insurers after June 30, 1986, and before July 1, (1990) 1990, which involve only medical treatment and/or the payment of temporary disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 and which at the time medical treatment is concluded do not involve permanent disability, if the claim is one with respect to which the department has not intervened under subsection (6) of this section, and the injured worker has returned to work with the self-insured employer of record, such claims may be closed by the self-insurer, subject to reporting of claims to the department in a manner prescribed by department rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(b) All determinations of permanent disability for claims accepted by self-insurers after June 30, 1986, and before July 1, (1990) 1990, shall be made by the self-insured section of the department under subsections (1) through (4) of this section.

If for any reason you disagree with the conditions or duration of your return to work or the medical benefits or the temporary disability compensation that has been provided, you may protest in writing to the department of labor and industries, self-insurance section, within sixty days of the date you received this order.' In the event the department receives such a protest the self-insurer's closure order shall be held in abeyance. The department shall review the claim closure action and enter a determinative order as provided for in RCW 51.52.050.

(d) If within two years of claim closure the department determines that the self-insurer has made payment of benefits because of clerical error, mistake of identity, or innocent misrepresentation, or the department discovers a violation of the conditions of claim closure, the department may require the self-insurer to correct the benefits paid or payable. This paragraph shall not limit in any way the application of RCW 51.32.240.

(8) In the case of claims accepted by self-insurers after June 30, (1990) 1990, which involve only medical treatment and which do not involve payment of temporary disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 and which at the time medical treatment is concluded do not involve permanent disability, such claims may be closed by the self-insurers subject to reporting of claims to the department in a manner prescribed by department rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon such closure the self-insurers shall enter a written order, communicated to the worker, which contains the following statement clearly set forth in bold-face type: 'This order constitutes notification that your claim is being closed with medical benefits only, as provided. If for any reason you disagree with this closure, you may protest in writing to the Department of Labor and Industries, Olympia, within 60 days of the date you received this order. The department will then review your claim and enter a further determinative order.' In the event the department receives such a protest it shall review the claim and enter a further determinative order as provided for in RCW 51.52.050.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1835 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Cutbacks in federal funds and programs to the Tri-Cities pose a substantial threat to the region and the state with massive lay-offs, loss of personal income, and declines in state revenues;

(2) The Tri-Cities is of critical significance to the state because of its leading role in the nuclear industry and its concentration of excellent scientists and engineers. Because of the presence of this highly trained workforce, this region requires a special state effort to diversify the local economy;

(3) There are key opportunities to broaden the economic base in the Tri-Cities including agriculture, high-technology, tourism, and regional exports; and

(4) A coordinated state, local, and private sector effort offers the greatest potential to promote economic diversification and to provide support for new projects within the region.

In evaluating these goals, the department, in conjunction with the Tri-Cities diversification board, shall determine which objectives of these priority goals are most likely to lead to economic diversification. Consideration shall be given to potential jobs and income benefits, generation of additional fiscal support, increased private sector participation, and market forces supporting the proposed objectives. The department shall consider such additional studies and governmental agencies which could support the priority goals determined under this section.

For the purposes of sections 1 through 12 of this act, ‘department’ means the department of trade and economic development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The sum of one million five hundred fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of sections 1 through 12 of this act. The board shall review for approval or disapproval proposals for the diversification of the Tri-Cities area presented to it by the department.

Members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(ii) Only one study may be funded per business; and

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1891 and RCW 2.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

It shall be the duty of a ((superior)) judge to excuse from further jury service any juror, who in the opinion of the judge, has manifested unfitness as a juror by reason of bias, prejudice, indifference, inattention or any physical or mental defect or by reason of conduct or practices incompatible with proper and efficient jury service.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 57, Laws of 1911 and RCW 2.36.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If for any reason the jurors drawn for service upon a ((petit)) jury for any term shall not be sufficient to dispose of the pending jury business, or where no jury is in regular attendance and the business of the court may require the attendance of a juror before a regular term, the judge or judges of ((the superior)) any court may ((draw)) direct the random selection and summoning from the master jury list such additional names as they may consider necessary. The persons whose names are so drawn shall thereafter be summoned to serve as jurors with the jury in that action. The judge or judges drawing such additional names, may, in his or her discretion, order and direct that, of such additional jurors, only those living nearest to the county seat or most conveniently reached and found shall be at first summoned by the sheriff, and at any time when a sufficient number of such persons has been summoned and produced in court, such judge or judges may, in his or her discretion, order and direct the sheriff to summon the remainder of the additional jurors so drawn. By stipulation or agreement made in open court as a part of the record, the parties to any action may agree that an open venire may be issued to make up a jury in that action, and upon order of the court approving such stipulation and directing the number of jurors to be drawn, the clerk shall issue an open venire, and the sheriff shall fill the same by summoning from the bystanders, or elsewhere, a sufficient number of persons to fill the open venire.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 2.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An employer shall provide an employee with a sufficient leave of absence from employment to serve as a juror when that employee is summoned pursuant to chapter 2.36 RCW.

(2) An employer shall not deprive an employee of employment or threaten, coerce, or harass an employee, or deny an employee promotional opportunities because the employee receives a summons, responds to the summons, serves as a juror, or attends court for prospective jury service.

(3) An employer who intentionally violates subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(4) If an employer commits an act in violation of subsection (2) of this section the employee may bring a civil action for damages as a result of the violation and for an order requiring the reinstatement of the employee. If the employee prevails, the employee shall be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the court.

(5) For purposes of this section employer means any person, association, partnership, or private or public corporation who employs or exercises control over wages, hours, or working conditions of one or more employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 2.36 RCW to read as follows:

Sec. 15. Section 3, chapter 213, Laws of 1955 and RCW 8.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The order shall direct that determination be had of the compensation and damages to be paid all parties interested in the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated for the taking and appropriation thereof, together with the injury, if any, caused by such taking and appropriation to the remainder of the lands, real estate, premises, or other property from which the same is to be taken and appropriated after offsetting against any and all such compensation and damages the special benefits, if any, accruing to such remainder by reason of the appropriation and the use by the state of the lands, real estate, premises, and other property described in the petition. The determination shall be made within thirty days after the entry of such order, before a jury if trial by jury is demanded at the hearing either by the petitioner or by the respondents, otherwise by the court sitting without a jury. If no regular venire has been called so as to be available to serve within such time on application of the petitioner at the hearing, the court may by its order continue such determination to the next regular jury term if a regular venire will be called within sixty days, otherwise the court shall call a special jury within said sixty days and direct (the sheriff to summon) that a jury panel be selected and summoned pursuant to chapter 2.36 RCW, from the citizens of the county in which the lands, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated are situated, as many qualified persons as may be necessary in order to form a jury of twelve persons, unless the petitioner and respondents both consent to a less number of jurors (such number to be not less than three), and such consent is entered by the clerk in the minutes of such hearing. In any third class county or lesser classification, the costs of such special jury for the trial of such condemnation cases only shall be borne by the state.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 4, 1988

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1729 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:
(1) Corporations that offer employment and health, retirement, and other benefits to (a large number of) citizens of the state of Washington are vital to the economy of this state and the well-being of all of its citizens;

(2) The welfare of the employees of these corporations is of paramount interest and concern to this state;

(3) Many businesses in this state rely on these corporations to purchase goods and services;

(4) Hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held corporations can cause corporate management to dissipate a corporation’s assets in an effort to resist the takeover by selling or distributing cash or assets, redeeming stock, or taking other steps to increase the short-term gain to shareholders and to dissipate energies required for strategic planning, market development, capital investment decisions, assessment of technologies, and evaluation of competitive challenges that can damage the long-term interests of shareholders and the economic health of the state by reducing or eliminating the ability to finance investments in research and development, new products, facilities and equipment, and by undermining the planning process for those purposes;

(5) Hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control or influence otherwise publicly held corporations are often highly leveraged pursuant to financing arrangements which assume that an acquirer will promptly obtain access to an acquired corporation’s cash or assets and use them, or the proceeds of their sale, to repay acquisition indebtedness;

(6) Hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held corporations can harm the economy of the state by weakening corporate performance, and causing unemployment, plant closings, reduced charitable donations, declining population base, reduced income to fee-supported local government services, reduced tax base, and reduced income to other businesses; and

(7) The state has a substantial and legitimate interest in regulating domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that have their most significant business contacts with this state and in regulating hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that employ a large number of citizens of the state, pay significant taxes, and have a substantial economic base in the state.

The legislature intends this chapter to balance the substantial and legitimate interests of the state in domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that employ a large number of citizens of the state and that have a substantial economic base in the state with: The interests of citizens of states who own shares of such corporations; the interests of the state of incorporation of such foreign corporations in regulating the internal affairs of corporations incorporated in that state; and the interests of promoting interstate commerce. To this effect, the legislature intends to regulate certain transactions between publicly held corporations and acquiring persons that will tend to harm the long-term health of domestic corporations and foreign corporations that have their principal executive office and a majority of their assets in this state and that employ a large number of citizens of this state.

This section shall expire December 31, 1988.)

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) ‘Acquiring person’ means a person or group of persons, other than the target corporation or a subsidiary of the target corporation, who beneficially owns ten percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation. The term ‘acquiring person’ does not include a person who (a) beneficially owns ten percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation on the effective date of this section; (b) acquires its shares by gift, inheritance, or in a transaction in which no consideration is exchanged; or (c) exceeds the ten percent threshold as a result of action taken solely by the target corporation, such as redemption of shares, unless, that person, by its own action, acquires additional shares of the target corporation. An agent, bank, broker, nominee, or trustee for another person (if the other person is not an acquiring person) who acts in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this chapter, is not an acquiring person.

(2) ‘Affiliate’ means a person who directly or indirectly controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, a person.

(3) ‘Associate’ means (a) a domestic or foreign corporation or organization of which a person is an officer, director, or partner or in which a person performs a similar function; (b) a direct or indirect beneficial owner of ten percent or more of any class of equity securities of a person; (c) a trust or estate in which a person has a beneficial interest or as to which a person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity; and (d) if having the same residence as a person, the person’s relative, spouse, or spouse’s relative.

(4) ‘Beneficial ownership,’ when used with respect to any shares, means ownership by a person:

(a) Who, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, beneficially owns such shares, directly or indirectly; or

(b) Who, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, has (i) the right to acquire the shares, whether the right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time, pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, or upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options, or otherwise. A person is not the beneficial owner of shares tendered pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made by the person or any affiliate or associate until the tendered shares are accepted for purchase or exchange; or if the right to vote the shares pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing. A person is not the beneficial owner of any shares under subsection (4)(b)(i) of this section if the agreement, arrangement, or understanding to vote the shares arises solely from a revocable proxy or consent given in response to a proxy or consent solicitation made in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations under the exchange act and is not then reportable on a schedule 13D under the exchange act, or any comparable or successor report; or

(c) Who has any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting (except voting pursuant to a revocable proxy or consent as described in (b)(ii) of this subsection), or disposing of the shares with any other person who beneficially owns, or whose affiliates or associates beneficially own, directly or indirectly, the shares.

(5) 'Control,' 'controlling,' 'controlled by,' and 'under common control with,' means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract, or otherwise. A person's beneficial ownership of ten percent or more of a domestic or foreign corporation's outstanding voting shares shall create a presumption that such person has control of such corporation. However, a person does not have control of a domestic or foreign corpo-rlation if the person holds voting shares, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this chapter, as an agent, bank, broker, nominee, custodian, or trustee for one or more beneficial owners who do not individually or as a group have control of such corporation.

(b) A sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer, or other disposition or encumbrance, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, or with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person of assets of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation (i) having an aggregate market value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the assets, determined on a consolidated basis, of the target corporation, (ii) having an aggregate market value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the outstanding shares of the target corporation, or (iii) representing five percent or more of the earning power or net income, determined on a consolidated basis, of the target corporation:

(c) The termination, whether at one time or over a period of time, of five percent or more of the employees of the target corporation and/or its subsidiaries employed in this state after the acquiring person's share acquisition date, unless the target corporation demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that the termination of employees is not due to the acquiring person's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation) The termination, while the corporation has an acquiring person and as a result of the acquiring person's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation, of five percent or more of the employees of the target corporation and/or its subsidiaries employed in this state, whether at one time or over the five-year period following the share acquisition date. For the purposes of this subsection (c), a termination other than an employee's death or disability or bona fide voluntary retirement, transfer, resignation, or leave of absence shall be presumed to be a termination resulting from the acquiring person's acquisition of shares, which presumption may be rebuted by clear and convincing evidence. A bona fide voluntary transfer of employees

(d) The issuance, transfer, or redemption by a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, of shares or of options, warrants, or rights to acquire shares of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation to or beneficially owned by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person except pursuant to the exercise of warrants or rights to purchase shares offered, or a dividend, distribution, or redemption paid or made pro rata to, all shareholders holders of options, warrants, or rights to acquire shares of the target corporation, and except for involuntary redemptions permitted by the target corporation's charter or by the law of this state or the state of incorporation:

(e) The adoption of a plan or proposal for the sale of assets, liquidation, or dissolution of a target corporation proposed by, or pursuant to an agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person;

(f) A reclassification of securities, including, without limitation, any stock split, stock dividend, or other distribution of stock in respect of stock, or any reverse stock split, or recapitalization of a target corporation, or a merger or consolidation of a target corporation with a subsidiary of the target corporation, or any other transaction, whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an acquiring person, proposed by, or pursuant to an agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person, that has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of a class or series of voting shares or securities convertible into voting shares of a target corporation or a subsidiary of the target corporation that is directly or indirectly owned by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person, except as a result of immaterial changes due to fractional share adjustments;

(g) A receipt by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person of the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a shareholder of a target corporation, of loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial assistance or tax credits or other tax advantages provided by or through a target corporation; or

(h) An agreement, contract, or other arrangement providing for any of the transactions in this subsection.

(10) 'Share acquisition date' means the date on which a person first becomes an acquiring person of a target corporation.

(11) 'Subsidiary' means a domestic or foreign corporation that has a majority of its outstanding voting shares owned, directly or indirectly, by another domestic or foreign corporation.

(12) 'Tangible assets' means tangible real and personal property of all kinds. It shall also include leasehold interests in tangible real and personal property.

(13) 'Target corporation' means:

(a) Every domestic corporation organized under chapter 23A.12 RCW or any predecessor provision (and every foreign corporation required to have a certificate of authority to transact business in this state pursuant to chapter 23A.32 RCW, if, as of the share acquisition date:

(b) The assessed valuation of the domestic or foreign corporation's and its subsidiaries' personal and real property in the state for purposes of computing state and local property taxes in the state exceeds the aggregate assessed valuation of its personal and real property in all other states for purposes of computing state and local property taxes in such states;

(c) The domestic or foreign corporation's principal executive office is located in the state;

(d) A majority of the domestic or foreign corporation's and its subsidiaries' employees are residents of the state;

(e) The domestic or foreign corporation and its subsidiaries employ more than twenty thousand residents of the state; and

(f) The domestic or foreign corporation and its subsidiaries have: (i) More than ten percent of its shareholders of record resident in the state; or (ii) more than ten percent of its shares owned of record by state residents; or (iii) five thousand or more shareholders of record resident in the state) if, as of the share acquisition date, the corporation's principal executive office is located in the state and either a majority of the corporation's employees, together with those of its subsidiaries, are residents of the state or the corporation, together with its subsidiaries, employs more than one thousand residents of the state; and

(b) Every foreign corporation required to have a certificate of authority to transact business in this state pursuant to chapter 23A.32 RCW, if, as of the share acquisition date:

(i) The corporation's principal executive office is located in the state;

(iv) A majority of the corporation's tangible assets, together with those of its subsidiaries, measured by market value, are located in the state or the corporation, together with its subsidiaries, has more than fifty million dollars' worth of tangible assets located in the state.

For purposes of this subsection, the record date for determining the percentages and numbers of shareholders and shares shall be the last shareholder record date before the event requiring that the determination be made. A shareholder record date shall be determined pursuant to RCW 23A.08.270 for a domestic corporation and the comparable provision of the of the state in which a foreign corporation is incorporated. If a shareholder record date has not been fixed by the board of directors within the preceding four months, the determination shall be made as of the end of the domestic or foreign corporation's most recent fiscal quarter.

The residence of each shareholder is presumed to be the address appearing in the records of the domestic or foreign corporation. Shares held of record by brokers or nominees shall be disregarded for purposes of calculating the percentages and numbers specified in this subsection. Shares of a domestic or foreign corporation allocated to the account of an employee or former employee or beneficiaries of employees or former employees of a domestic or foreign corporation and held in a plan that is qualified under section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, and is a defined contribution plan within the meaning of section 414(q) of the code shall be deemed, for the purposes of this subsection, to be held of record by the employee to whose account such shares are allocated.

A domestic or foreign corporation shall be deemed to be a target corporation if the domestic or foreign corporation's failure to satisfy the requirements of this subsection is caused by the action of, or is the result of a proposal by, an acquiring person or affiliate or associate of an acquiring person.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, property claimed exempt under RCW 6.15.010 shall be selected by the individual entitled to the exemption, or by the husband or wife entitled to a community exemption, in the manner described in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If, at the time of seizure under execution or attachment of property exemptible under RCW 6.15.010(3) (a), (b), or (c), the individual or the husband or wife entitled to claim the exemption is not present, then the sheriff or deputy shall make a selection equal in value to the applicable exemptions and, if no appraise ment is required and no objection is made by the creditor as permitted under subsection (4) of this section, the officer shall return the same as exempt by inventory. Any selection made as provided shall be prima facie evidence (a) that the property so selected is exempt from execution and attachment, and (b) that the property so selected is not in excess of the values specified for the exemptions.

(3)(a) A debtor who claims personal property as exempt against execution or attachment shall, at any time before sale, deliver to the officer making the levy a list by separate items of the property claimed as exempt, together with an itemized list of all the personal property owned or claimed by the debtor, including money, bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, with the residence of the person indebted upon the said bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, and shall verify such list by affidavit. The officer shall immediately advise the creditor, attorney, or agent of the exemption claim and, if no appraise ment is required and no objection is made by the creditor as permitted under subsection (4) of this section, the officer shall return with the process the list of property claimed as exempt.

(b) A debtor who claims personal property exempt against garnishment shall proceed as provided in RCW 6.27.160.

(c) A debtor who claims as a homestead, under chapter 6.13 RCW, a mobile home that is not yet occupied as a homestead and that is located on land not owned by the debtor shall claim the homestead as against a specific levy by delivering to the sheriff who levied on the mobile home, before sale under the levy, a declaration of homestead that contains (i) a declaration that the debtor owns the mobile home, intends to reside therein, and claims it as a homestead, and (ii) a description of the mobile home, a statement where it is located or was located before the levy, and an estimate of its actual cash value.

(4)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, a creditor, or the agent or attorney of a creditor, who wishes to object to a claim of exemption shall proceed as provided in RCW 6.27.160 and shall give notice of the objection to the officer not later than seven days after the officer's giving notice of the exemption claim.

(b) A creditor, or the agent or attorney of the creditor, who wishes to object to a claim of exemption made to a levying officer, upon the ground that the property claimed exceeds exemptible value, may demand appraisement. ([In the absence of such demand within seven days following the officer's giving of notice of the claim, the officer shall release to the debtor the property claimed as exempt.]) If the creditor, or the agent or attorney of the creditor, demands an appraisement, two disinterested persons shall be chosen to appraise the property, one by the debtor and the other by the creditor, agent or attorney, and these two, if they cannot agree, shall select a third; but if either party fails to choose an appraiser, or the two fail to select a third, or if one or more of the appraisers fail to act, the court shall appoint one or more as the circumstances require. The appraisers shall forthwith proceed to make a list by separate items, of the personal property selected by the debtor as exempt, which they shall decide as exempt, stating the value of each article, and annexing to the list their affidavit to the following effect: 'We solemnly swear that to the best of our judgment the above is a fair cash valuation of the property therein described,' which affidavit shall be signed by two appraisers at least, and be certified by the officer administering the oaths. The list shall be delivered to the officer holding the execution or attachment and be annexed to and made part of the return, and the property therein specified shall be exempt from levy and sale, but the other personal estate of the debtor shall remain subject to execution, attachment, or garnishment. Each appraiser shall be entitled to fifteen dollars or such larger fee as shall be fixed by the court, to be paid by the creditor if all the property claimed by the debtor shall be exempt; otherwise to be paid by the debtor.
(c) If, within seven days following the giving of notice to a creditor of an exemption claim, the officer has received no notice from the creditor of an objection to the claim or a demand for appraisal, the officer shall release the claimed property to the debtor.

Sec. 8, Section 4, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 410, chapter 442. Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.17.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before a writ of execution may issue on any real property, the judgment creditor must file with the court an affidavit as described in subsection (4) of this section and must mail a copy of the affidavit to the judgment debtor at the debtor’s last known address.

(2) If the affidavit attests that the premises are occupied or otherwise claimed as a homestead by the judgment debtor, the execution for the enforcement of a judgment obtained in a case not within the classes enumerated in RCW 6.13.080 must comply with RCW 6.13.100 through 6.13.170.

(3) The term ‘due diligence,’ as used in subsection (4) of this section, includes but is not limited to the creditor or the creditor’s representative personally visiting the premises, contacting the occupants and inquiring about their relationship to the judgment debtor, contacting immediate neighbors of the premises, and searching the records of the auditor of the county in which the property is located to determine if a declaration of homestead or nonabandonment has been recorded by the judgment debtor. An examination of the debtor in supplemental proceedings on the points to be covered in the affidavit constitutes ‘due diligence.’

(4) The affidavit required by this section shall include:

(a) A statement that the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the judgment debtor has sufficient nonexempt personal property to satisfy the judgment with interest and believes that there is not sufficient nonexempt personal property belonging to the judgment debtor to so satisfy the judgment. A list of personal property located shall be attached with an indication of any items that the judgment creditor believes to be exempt.

(b) A statement that the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the property is occupied or otherwise claimed by the judgment debtor as a homestead as defined in chapter 6.13 RCW.

(c) A statement based on belief whether the judgment debtor is currently occupying the property as the judgment debtor’s principal residence and whether there is a declaration of homestead or nonabandonment of record. If the affidavit alleges that the property is not occupied or claimed as a homestead, the creditor must list the facts relied upon to reach that conclusion.

(d) If the judgment debtor is not occupying the property and there is no declaration of nonabandonment of record, a statement based on belief whether the judgment debtor has been absent for a period of at least six months, with facts relied upon to reach that conclusion, and, if known, the judgment debtor’s current address.

Sec. 9, Section 4, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 411, chapter 442. Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.17.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The writ of execution shall be issued in the name of the state of Washington, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk of the court in which the judgment was entered or to which it has been transferred, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the property is situated. The writ shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county where the judgment was rendered, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment if it be for money, and the amount actually due thereon; and if the judgment has been recorded, the writ shall so indicate and shall state the recording number.

(2) Before an execution is delivered on a judgment of a district court of this state, the amount of the judgment, or damages and costs, and the fees due to each person separately shall be entered in the docket and on the back of the execution. In any proceeding to enforce a judgment certified to a district court from the small claims department under RCW 12.40.110, the execution shall include the amount of the judgment owed plus reasonable costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by the judgment creditor in seeking enforcement of the judgment in district court.

(3) A writ shall require substantially as follows:

(a) If the execution is against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of the personal property of the debtor unless an affidavit has been filed with the court pursuant to RCW 6.17.100. In which case it shall require that the judgment be satisfied out of the real property of the debtor.

(b) If the execution is against real or personal property in the hands of a personal representative, heir, devisee, legatee, tenant of real property, or trustee, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of such property.

(c) If the execution is for the delivery of real or personal property, it shall particularly describe the property and state its value and require the officer to deliver possession of it to the party entitled thereto, and may, at the same time, require the officer to satisfy any charges, damages, or rents and profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered. If the property described in the execution cannot be delivered, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, it shall be satisfied out of the real property of the party against whom the judgment was rendered.

(d) If the execution is to enforce obedience to any order, it shall particularly command what is required to be done or to be omitted.

(e) If the nature of the case requires it, the execution may embrace two or more of the requirements of this section.

(f) In all cases the execution shall require the collection of all interest, costs, and increased costs thereon.

Delivery of this notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO A PROMPT HEARING. If notice of a hearing date and time is not served with this notice, you have a right to request the hearing. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else your property will be released.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE YOUR PROPERTY RELEASED if it is exempt property as described in the copies of statutes included with this notice and if you claim your exemptions in the way described in the statutes.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To Defendant:

A writ of attachment has been issued in the above-captioned case, directed to the Sheriff of ........ County, commanding the Sheriff as follows:

‘WHEREAS, . . . (Quoting body of writ of attachment)’

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO ASK FOR A HEARING. If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE YOUR PROPERTY RELEASED if it is exempt property as described in Washington exemption statutes, including sections 6.13.010, 6.13.030, 6.13.040, 6.15.010, and 6.15.060 of the Revised Code of Washington, in the manner described in those statutes.

(2) If it is desired to attach real estate only, and such fact is stated in the affidavit for attachment, and the ground of attachment is that the defendant is a foreign corporation or is not a resident of the state, or conceals himself or herself or has absconded or is absent from his or her usual place of abode so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him or her, the writ of attachment shall issue without bond or undertaking by or on behalf of the plaintiff.

(3) If the plaintiff sues on an assigned claim and the plaintiff’s immediate or any other assignor thereof retains or has any interest in the claim, then the plaintiff and every assignor who retains or has any interest therein shall be jointly and severally liable for all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant and for all damages that the defendant may sustain by reason of the attachment, should the same be wrongfully, oppressively or maliciously sued out.

After the first writ has issued, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to file any further affidavit or bond unless the court otherwise directs, but the plaintiff shall be entitled to as many writs as may be necessary to secure the amount claimed.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the court shall issue the writ without prior notice to the defendant and without an opportunity for a prior hearing only if:

(a) A ground alleged in the plaintiff's affidavit is: (i) A ground appearing in RCW 6.26.010(2)(c) if the writ is to be directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing the defendant's earnings; or (ii) a ground appearing in RCW 6.25.030 (5) through (7) or in RCW 6.25.040(1) of the attachment chapter; or (iii) if garnishment is necessary to permit the court to acquire jurisdiction over the action, the ground alleged is one appearing in RCW 6.25.030 (1) through (4) or in RCW 6.26.010(2)(a) or (b); and

(b) The court finds on the basis of specific facts, after an ex parte hearing, that there is probable cause to believe the allegations of the plaintiff's affidavit.

(3) If a writ is issued under subsection (2) of this section without prior notice to the defendant, after service of the writ on the garnishee, the defendant shall be entitled to prompt notice of the garnishment and a right to an early hearing, if requested, at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF Plaintiff, vs.

Defendant

Garnishee Defendant

THE STATE OF WASHINGTON TO:

Garnishee Defendant

AND TO:

The above-named plaintiff has applied for a writ of garnishment against you, claiming that the above-named defendant is indebted to plaintiff and that the amount to be held to satisfy that indebtedness is $ . . . . . . . consisting of:

Balance on Judgment or Amount of Claim $ . . . . . . .

Interest under Judgment from . . . . . . .

((Allowed)) Taxable Costs and Attorneys' Fees $ . . . . . . .

Estimated Garnishment Costs:

Filing Fee $ . . . . . . .

Service and Affidavit Fees $ . . . . . . .

Postage and Costs of Certified Mail $ . . . . . . .

((Attorney's Fee $ . . . . . . . 50.00))

Answer Fee or Fees $ . . . . . . .

((Other)) Garnishment Attorney Fee $ . . . . . . .

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, unless otherwise directed by the court or by this writ, not to pay any debt, whether ((wages)) earnings subject to this garnishment or any other debt, owed to the defendant at the time this writ was served and not to deliver, sell, or transfer, or recognize any sale or transfer of, any personal property or effects of the defendant in your possession or control at the time when this writ was served. Any such payment, delivery, sale, or transfer is void to the extent necessary to satisfy the plaintiff’s claim and costs for this writ with interest.

YOU ARE FURTHER COMMANDED to answer this writ by filling in the attached form according to the instructions in this writ and in the answer forms and, within twenty days after the service of the writ upon you, to mail or deliver the original of such answer to the court, one copy to the plaintiff or the plaintiff’s attorney, and one copy to the defendant. In the envelopes provided.

If, at the time this writ was served, you owed the defendant any earnings (that is, wages, salary, commission, bonus, or other compensation for personal services or any periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program), the defendant is entitled to receive amounts that are exempt from garnishment under federal and state law. You must pay the exempt amounts to the defendant on the day you would customarily pay the compensation or other periodic payment. As more fully explained in the answer, the basic exempt amount is the greater of seventy-five percent of disposable earnings or (for each week of compensation or other periodic payment due) a minimum amount determined by reference to the employee’s pay period, to be calculated as provided in the answer. However, if this writ carries a statement in the heading that ‘This garnishment is based on a judgment or court order for child support,’ the basic exempt amount is forty percent of disposable earnings.

If you owe the defendant a debt payable in money in excess of the amount set forth in the first paragraph of this writ, hold only the amount set forth in the first paragraph and release all additional funds or property to defendant.

YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER THIS WRIT AS COMMANDED WILL RESULT IN A JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED AGAINST YOU FOR THE FULL AMOUNT OF THE PLAINTIFF’S CLAIM AGAINST THE DEFENDANT WITH ACCRUING INTERESTS AND COSTS WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE DEFENDANT.

In the alternative, on or before the day of the service of the writ on the garnishee or within two days thereafter, the stated documents shall be served on the judgment debtor in the same manner as is required for personal service of summons upon a party to an action.

(2) The requirements of this section shall not be jurisdictional, but (a) no disbursement order or judgment against the garnishee defendant shall be entered unless there is on file the return or affidavit of service or mailing required by subsection (3) of this section, and (b) if the copies of the writ and judgment or affidavit, and the notice and claim form if the defendant is an individual, are not mailed or served as hereinafter, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the court, in its discretion, on motion of the judgment debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the judgment debtor has suffered substantial injury from the plaintiff's failure to mail or otherwise to serve such copies, may set aside the garnishment and award to the judgment debtor an amount equal to the damages suffered because of such failure.

(3) If the service on the judgment debtor is made by a sheriff, the sheriff shall file with the clerk of the court that issued the writ a signed return showing the time, place, and manner of service and that the copy of the writ was accompanied by a copy of a judgment or affidavit, and by a notice and claim form if required by this section, and shall note thereon fees for making such service. Garnishee Defendant

At the time of service of the writ of garnishment on the garnishee there was due and owing from the garnishee to the above-named defendant $ . . . . (On the reverse side of this answer form, or on an attached page, give an explanation of the dollar amount stated, or give reasons why there is uncertainty about your answer.)

If the above amount or any part of it is for personal earnings (that is, compensation payable for personal services, whether called wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and including periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program): Garnishee has deducted from this amount $ . . . . which is the exemption to which the defendant is entitled.
leaving $................ that garnishee holds under the writ. The exempt amount is calculated as follows:

Total compensation due defendant $ ................
LESS deductions for social security and withholding taxes and any other deduction required by law $ ................
Disposable (wages) earnings $ ................

If the title of this writ indicates that this is a garnishment under a child support judgment, enter forty percent of disposable (wages) earnings: $ ................ This amount is exempt and must be paid to the defendant at the regular pay time.

If this is not a garnishment for child support, enter seventy-five percent of disposable (wages) earnings: $ ................ From the listing in the following paragraph, choose the amount for the relevant pay period and enter that amount: $ ................ (If amounts for more than one pay period are due, multiply the preceding amount by the number of pay periods and/or fraction of pay period for which amounts are due and enter that amount: $ ................ )

The greater of the amounts entered in this paragraph is the exempt amount and must be paid to the defendant at the regular pay time.

Minimum exempt amounts for different pay periods: Weekly $ ................ ; Biweekly $ ................ ; Semimonthly $ ................ ; Monthly $ ................

List all of the personal property or effects of defendant in the garnishee’s possession or control when the writ was served. (Use the reverse side of this answer form or attach a schedule if necessary.)

An attorney may answer for the garnishee.

If the garnishee fails to answer the writ within the time prescribed in the writ, after the time to answer the writ has expired and after required returns or affidavits have been filed, showing service on the garnishee and service on or mailing to the defendant, it shall be lawful for the court to render judgment by default against such garnishee, in accordance with rules relating to entry of default judgments, for the full amount claimed by the plaintiff against the defendant, or in case the plaintiff has a judgment against the defendant, for the full amount of the plaintiff’s unpaid judgment against the defendant with all accruing interest and costs as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090. PROVIDED. That upon motion by the garnishee at any time prior to issuance of a writ of execution) within seven days following service on, or mailing to, the garnishee defendant of a copy of a writ of execution or a writ of garnishment under such judgment, the judgment against the garnishee shall be reduced to the amount of any nonexempt funds or property which was actually in the possession of the garnishee at the time the writ was served, plus the cumulative amount of the nonexempt earnings subject to the lien provided for in RCW 6.27.350, or the sum of one hundred dollars, whichever is more, but in no event to exceed the full amount claimed by the plaintiff or the amount of the unpaid judgment against the principal defendant plus all accruing interest and costs and attorney’s fees as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090, and in addition the plaintiff shall be entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee for the plaintiff’s response to the garnishee’s motion to reduce said judgment against the garnishee under this proviso and the court may allow additional attorney’s fees for other actions taken because of the garnishee’s failure to answer.

Sec. 32. Section 20, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1025, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If it appears from the answer of the garnishee or if it is otherwise made to appear that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant in any amount, not exempt, when the writ of garnishment was served, and if the required return or affidavit showing service on or mailing to the defendant is on file, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against such garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount exceeds the amount of the plaintiff’s claim or judgment against the defendant with accruing interest and costs and attorney’s fees as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090, in

(2) If it shall appear from the answer of the garnishee and the same is not controverted, or if it shall appear from the hearing or trial on controversy or by stipulation of the parties that the garnishee is indebted to the principal defendant in any sum, but that such indebtedness is not matured and is not due and payable, and if the required return or affidavit showing service on or mailing to the defendant is on file, the court shall make an order requiring the garnishee to pay such sum into court when the same becomes due, the date when such payment is to be made to be specified in the order, and in default thereof that judgment shall be entered against the garnishee for the amount of such indebtedness so admitted or found due. That if judgment is rendered in favor of the principal defendant, or if any judgment rendered against the principal defendant is satisfied prior to the date of payment specified in an order of payment entered under this subsection, the garnishee shall not be required to make the payment, nor shall any judgment in such case be entered against the garnishee.

Sec. 33. Section 22. chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1027, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.270 are each amended to read as follows:

If it appears from the garnishee's answer or otherwise that the garnishee had possession or control, when the writ was served, of any personal property or effects of the defendant liable to execution, and if the required return or affidavit showing service on or mailing to the defendant is on file, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff on demand, and after making arrangements with the sheriff as to time and place of delivery, such personal property or effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. If a judgment has been rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such personal property or effects may be sold in the same manner as any other property is sold upon an execution issued on said judgment. If judgment has not been rendered in the principal action, the sheriff shall retain possession of the personal property or effects until the rendition of judgment therein, and, if judgment is thereafter rendered in favor of the plaintiff, said personal property or effects, or sufficient of them to satisfy such judgment, may be sold in the same manner as other property is sold on execution, by virtue of an execution issued on the judgment in the principal action. If judgment is rendered in the action against the plaintiff and in favor of the defendant, such effects and personal property shall be returned to the defendant by the sheriff: PROVIDED, HOWEVER. That if such effects or personal property are of a perishable nature, or the interests of the parties will be subserved by making a sale thereof before judgment, the court may order a sale thereof by the sheriff in the same manner as sales upon execution are made, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the clerk of the court that issued the writ, and the same disposition shall be made of the proceeds at the termination of the action as would have been made of the personal property or effects under the provisions of this section in case the sale had not been made.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 1, 1988

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1817 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. PURPOSE. The legislature finds that there is an increasing need for local and regional transportation improvements as the result of both existing demands and the foreseeable future demands from economic growth and development within the state, including residential, commercial, and industrial development.

The legislature intends with this chapter to enable local governments to develop and adopt programs for the purpose of jointly funding, from public and private sources, transportation improvements necessitated in whole or in part by economic development and growth within their respective jurisdictions. The programs should provide a fair and predictable method for allocating the cost of necessary transportation improvements between the public and private sectors. The programs should include consideration of public transportation as a method of reducing off-site transportation impacts from development. The legislature finds that the private funds authorized to be collected pursuant to this chapter are for the purpose of mitigating the impacts of development and are not taxes. The state shall encourage and give priority to the state funding of local and regional transportation improvements that are funded in part by local, public, and private funds.

The authority provided by this act for local governments to create and implement local transportation programs is intended to be supplemental, except as expressly provided in sections 3(9), 6, and 7 of this act, to the existing authorities and responsibilities of local governments to regulate development and provide public facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) ‘Developer’ means an individual, group of individuals, partnership, corporation, association, municipal corporation, state agency, or other person undertaking development and their successors and assigns.

(2) ‘Development’ means the subdivision or short platting of land or the construction or reconstruction of residential, commercial, industrial, public, or any other building, building space, or land.

(3) ‘Direct result of the proposed development’ means those quantifiable transportation impacts that are caused by vehicles or pedestrians whose trip origin or destination is the proposed development.

(4) ‘Local government’ means all counties, cities, and towns in the state of Washington and transportation benefit districts created pursuant to chapter 36.73 RCW.

(5) ‘Off-site transportation improvements’ means those transportation capital improvements designated in the local plan adopted under this chapter that are authorized to be undertaken by local government and that serve the transportation needs of more than one development.
(6) 'Transportation impact fee' means a monetary charge imposed on new development for the purpose of mitigating off-site transportation impacts that are a direct result of the proposed development.

(7) 'Fair market value' means the highest price in terms of money that a property will bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions of a fair sale, the buyer and seller each prudently knowledgeable, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus, measured at the time of the dedication to local government of land or improved transportation facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. LOCAL PROGRAMS AUTHORIZED. Local governments may develop and adopt programs for the purpose of jointly funding, from public and private sources, transportation improvements necessitated in whole or in part by economic development and growth within their respective jurisdictions. Local governments shall adopt the programs by ordinance after notice and public hearing. Each program shall contain the elements described in this section.

(1) The program shall identify the geographic boundaries of the entire area or areas generally benefited by the proposed off-site transportation improvements and within which transportation impact fees will be imposed under this chapter.

(2) The program shall be based on an adopted comprehensive, long-term transportation plan identifying the proposed off-site transportation improvements reasonable and necessary to meet the future growth needs of the designated plan area and intended to be covered by this joint funding program, including acquisition of right of way, construction and reconstruction of all major and minor arterials and intersection improvements, and identifying design standards, levels of service, capacities, and costs applicable to the program. The program shall also indicate how the transportation plan is coordinated with applicable transportation plans for the region and for adjacent jurisdictions. The program shall also indicate how public transportation and ride-sharing improvements and services will be used to reduce off-site transportation impacts from development.

(3) The program shall include at least a six-year capital funding program, updated annually, identifying the specific public sources and amounts of revenue necessary to pay for that portion of the cost of all off-site transportation improvements contained in the transportation plan that will not foreseeably be funded by transportation impact fees. The program shall include a proposed schedule for construction and expenditures of funds. The funding plan shall consider the additional local tax revenue estimated to be generated by new development within the plan area if all or a portion of the additional revenue is proposed to be earmarked as future appropriations for such off-site transportation improvements.

(4) The program shall authorize transportation impact fees to be imposed on new development within the plan area for the purpose of providing a portion of the funding for reasonable and necessary off-site transportation improvements to solve the cumulative impacts of planned growth and development in the plan area. Off-site transportation impacts shall be measured as a pro rata share of the capacity of the off-site transportation improvements being funded under the program. The fees shall not exceed the amount that the local government can demonstrate is reasonably necessary as a direct result of the proposed development.

(5) The program shall provide that the funds collected as a result of a particular new development shall be used in substantial part to pay for improvements mitigating the impacts of the development or be refunded to the property owners of record. Fees paid toward more than one transportation improvement may be pooled and expended on any one of the improvements mitigating the impact of the development. The funds shall be expended in all cases within six years of collection by the local government or the unexpended funds shall be refunded.

(6) The program shall also describe the formula, timing, security, credits, and other terms and conditions affecting the amount and method of payment of the transportation impact fees as further provided for in section 4 of this act. In calculating the amount of the fee, local government shall consider and give credit for the developer's participation in public transportation and ride-sharing improvements and services.

(7) The administrative element of the program shall include: an opportunity for administrative appeal by the developer and hearing before an independent examiner of the amount of the transportation impact fee imposed; establishment of a designated account for the public and private funds appropriated or collected for the transportation improvements identified in the plan; methods to enforce collection of the public and private funds identified in the program; designation of the administrative departments or other entities responsible for administering the program, including determination of fee amounts, transportation planning, and construction; and provisions for future amendment of the program including the addition of other off-site transportation improvements. The program shall not be amended in a manner to relieve local government of any contractual obligations made to prior developers.

(8) The program shall provide that private transportation impact fees shall not be collected for any off-site transportation improvement that is incapable of being reasonably carried out because of lack of public funds or other foreseeable impediment.
(9) The program shall provide that no transportation impact fee may be imposed on a development by local government pursuant to this program when mitigation of the same off-site transportation impacts for the development is being required by any government agency pursuant to any other local, state, or federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. TRANSPORTATION IMPACT FEE. The program shall describe the formula or method for calculating the amount of the transportation impact fees to be imposed on new development within the plan area. The program may require developers to pay a transportation impact fee for off-site transportation improvements not yet constructed and for those jointly-funded improvements constructed since the commencement of the program.

The program shall define the event in the development approval process that triggers a determination of the amount of the transportation impact fees and the event that triggers the obligation to make actual payment of the fees. However, the payment obligation shall not commence before the date the developer has obtained a building permit for the new development or, in the case of residential subdivisions or short plats, at the time of final plat approval, at the developer's option. If the developer of a residential subdivision or short plat elects to pay the fee at the date a building permit has been obtained, the option to pay the transportation impact fee by installments as authorized by this section is deemed to have been waived by the developer. The developer shall be given the option to pay the transportation impact fee in a lump sum, without interest, or by installment with reasonable interest over a period of five years or more as specified by the local government.

The local government shall require security for the obligation to pay the transportation impact fee, in the form of a recorded agreement, deed of trust, letter of credit, or other instrument determined satisfactory by the local government. The developer shall also be given credit against its obligations for the transportation impact fee, for the fair market value of off-site land or improved transportation facilities dedicated to the local government. If the value of the dedication exceeds the amount of transportation impact fee obligation, the developer is entitled to reimbursement from transportation impact fees attributable to the dedicated facilities and paid by subsequent developers within the plan area.

Payment of the transportation impact fee entitles the developer and its successors and assigns to credit against any other fee, local improvement district assessment, or other monetary imposition made specifically for the designated off-site transportation improvements intended to be covered by the transportation impact fee imposed pursuant to this program. The program shall also define the criteria for establishing periodic fee increases attributable to construction and related cost increases for the improvements designated in the program.
