The department must also use these amounts to directly pay for costs that are ineligible for medicaid reimbursement in institutions of mental disease facilities for American Indian and Alaska Natives who opt to receive behavioral health services on a fee for service basis. The amounts used for these individuals must be reduced from the allocation of flexible nonmedicaid funds. The department must include the following language in medicaid contracts with behavioral health organizations unless they are provided formal notification from the center for medicaid and medicare services that the language will result in the loss of federal medicaid participation: “The contractor may voluntarily provide services that are in addition to those covered under the state plan, although the cost of these services cannot be included when determining payment rates unless including these costs are specifically allowed under federal law or an approved waiver.”

The department must monitor and ensure compliance. If the department determines that a behavioral health organization has failed to provide an adequate excess reserve corrective action plan or is not complying with an approved plan, the department must reduce payments to the behavioral health organization in accordance with remedial actions provisions included in the contract. (a) (($256,645,000)) $268,117,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2018 and $264,704,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2019 are provided solely for the authority to implement a single, standard medicaid preferred drug list to be used by all contracted medicaid managed health care systems, on or before January 1, 2018. The preferred drug list shall be developed in consultation with all contracted managed health care systems and the state pharmacy and therapeutics committee or drug utilization review board and shall further the goals and objectives of the medicaid program. The list shall be designed to maximize federal rebates and supplemental rebates and ensure access to clinically effective and appropriate drug therapies under each class. Entities eligible for 340B drug pricing shall continue to operate under their current pricing agreement, unless otherwise required by federal laws or regulations. The authority may utilize external consultants with expertise in evidence-based drug class reviews, pharmacy benefit management, and purchasing to assist with the completion of this development and implementation. The authority shall require each managed care organization that has contracted with the authority to provide care to medicaid beneficiaries to use the established preferred drug list; and shall prohibit each managed care organization and any of its agents from negotiating or collecting rebates for any medications listed in the state's medicaid single preferred drug list whether preferred or nonpreferred. To assist in the implementation of the single preferred drug list, contracted medicaid managed health care systems shall provide the authority drug-specific financial information in a format and frequency determined by the authority to include the actual amounts paid to pharmacies for prescription drugs dispensed to covered individuals compared to the cost invoiced to the health plan and individual rebates collected for prescription drugs dispensed to medicaid members. Information disclosed to the authority by the manufacturer pursuant to this provision shall only be used for the purposes of developing and implementing a single, standard state preferred drug list in accordance with this provision. The authority, medicaid managed care organizations, and all other parties shall maintain the confidentiality of drug-specific financial and other proprietary information and such information shall not be subject to the Washington public records act. The authority shall provide a report to the governor and appropriate committees of the legislature by November 15, 2018, and by November 15, 2019, including a comparison of the amount spent in the previous two fiscal years to expenditures under the new system by, at a minimum, fund source, total expenditure, drug class, and top twenty-five drugs. The data provided to the authority shall be aggregated in any report by the authority, the legislature, or the office of financial management so as not to disclose the proprietary or confidential drug-specific information, or the proprietary or confidential information that directly or indirectly identifies financial information linked to a single manufacturer. It is the intent of the legislature to revisit this policy in subsequent biennia to determine whether it is in the best interest of the state.

(c) $122,244,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 2018 and $116,038,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 2019 are provided solely for the authority through the competitive procurement process, to contract with licensed dental health plans or managed health care plans on a prepaid or fixed-sum risk basis to provide carved-out managed dental care services on a statewide basis that will result in greater efficiency and will facilitate better access and oral health outcomes for medicaid enrollees. Except in areas where only a single plan is available, the authority must contract with at least two plans. The authority shall include in the contracts: (i) Quarterly reporting requirements to include medicaid utilization and encounter data by current dental technology (CDT) code; (ii) a direction to increase the dental provider network; (iii) a commitment to retain innovative programs that improve access and care such as the access to baby and child dentistry program; (iv) a program to reduce emergency room use for dental purposes; (v) a requirement to ensure that dental care is being coordinated with the primary care provider of the patient to ensure integrated care; (vi) a provision that no less than eighty-five percent of the contracting fee be used to directly offset the cost of providing direct patient care as opposed to administrative costs; and (vii) a provision to ensure the contracting fee shall be sufficient to compensate county health departments and federally qualified health centers for dental patient care. The plan(s) awarded this contract must absorb all start-up costs associated with moving the program from fee-for-service to managed care and shall commit to achieving an overall savings to the program based on 2016 fee-for-service experience. In order to comply with state insurance underwriting standards, the authority shall ensure that savings offered by dental plans are actuarially sound. Starting January 31, 2019, and every year thereafter through December 2024, the authority shall submit an annual report to the governor and the appropriate committees of the legislature detailing how the contracted entities have met the requirements of the contract. The report shall include specific information to include utilization, how the contracted entities have increased their dental provider networks, how the emergency room use for dental purposes has been reduced, and how dental care has been integrated with patients' primary care providers. If after the end of five years the data reported does not demonstrate sufficient progress to address the stated contracted goals, the legislature will reevaluate whether carved-out dental managed care needs to be replaced with a different delivery model. The authority is authorized to seek any necessary state plan amendments or federal waivers to implement this subsection. Additional dental program savings achieved by the plans beyond those assumed in the 2017-2019 omnibus appropriations act will be used to increase dental provider reimbursement rates. By October 30, 2018, the authority shall report to the governor and the appropriate committees of the legislature anticipated savings related to reduction in dental emergency department visits and utilization once managed care dental coverage begins.

(d) \(($1,540,849,000)\) $1,505,087,000 of the general fund-state appropriation for fiscal year 2018 and \(($1,585,513,000)\) $1,538,030,000 of the general fund-state appropriation for fiscal year 2019 are provided solely for medicaid services and the medicaid program. However, the authority shall not accept or expend any federal funds received under a medicaid transformation waiver under healthier Washington except as described in (e) and (f) of this subsection until specifically approved and appropriated by the legislature. To ensure compliance with legislative directive budget requirements and terms and conditions of the waiver, the authority shall implement the waiver and reporting requirements with oversight from the office of financial management. The legislature finds that appropriate management of the innovation waiver requires better analytic capability, transparency, consistency, timeliness, accuracy, and lack of redundancy with other established measures and that the patient must be considered first and foremost in the implementation and execution of the demonstration waiver. In order to effectuate these goals, the authority shall: (i) Require the Dr. Robert Bree collaborative and the health technology assessment program to reduce the administrative burden upon providers by only requiring performance measures that are nonduplicative of other nationally established measures. The joint select committee on health care oversight will evaluate the measures chosen by the collaborative and the health technology assessment program for effectiveness and appropriateness; (ii) develop a patient satisfaction survey with the goal to gather information about whether it was beneficial for the patient to use the center of excellence location in exchange for additional out-of-pocket savings; (iii) ensure patients and health care providers have significant input into the implementation of the demonstration waiver, in order to ensure improved patient health outcomes; and (iv) in cooperation with the department of social and health services, consult with and provide notification of work on applications for federal waivers, including details on waiver duration, financial implications, and potential future impacts on the state budget, to the joint select committee on health care oversight prior to submitting waivers for federal approval. By federal standard, the medicaid transformation demonstration waiver shall not exceed the duration originally granted by the centers for medicare and medicaid services and any programs created or funded by this waiver do not create an entitlement.
(e) No more than ($479,600,000) $486,683,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation and no more than ($154,289,000) $129,103,000 of the general fund—local appropriation may be expended for transformation through accountable communities of health described in initiative 1 of the medicaid transformation demonstration waiver under healthier Washington, including preventing youth drug use, opioid prevention and treatment, and physical and behavioral health integration. Under this initiative, the authority shall take into account local input regarding community needs. In order to ensure transparency to the appropriate fiscal committees of the legislature, the authority shall provide fiscal staff of the legislature query ability into any database of the fiscal intermediary that authority staff would be authorized to access. The authority shall not increase general fund—state expenditures under this initiative. The director shall report to the joint select committee on health care oversight no less than quarterly, and include details for each accountable community of health, on the financial status and measurable health outcomes. The director shall also report to the fiscal committees of the legislature all of the expenditures under this subsection and shall provide such fiscal data in the time, manner, and form requested by the legislative fiscal committees.

(f) No more than ($42,584,000) $38,425,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation may be expended for supported housing and employment services described in initiative 3a and 3b of the medicaid transformation demonstration waiver under healthier Washington. Under this initiative, the authority and the department of social and health services shall ensure that allowable and necessary services are provided to eligible clients as identified by the department or its third party administrator. The authority and the department in consultation with the medicaid forecast work group, shall ensure that reasonable reimbursements are established for services deemed necessary within an identified limit per individual. The authority shall not increase general fund—state expenditures under this initiative. The director shall report to the joint select committee on health care oversight no less than quarterly on financial and health outcomes. The director shall also report to the fiscal committees of the legislature all of the expenditures of this subsection and shall provide such fiscal data in the time, manner, and form requested by the legislative fiscal committees.

(g) No later than November 1, 2018, and each year thereafter, the authority in collaboration with each accountable community of health shall demonstrate how it will be self-sustaining by the end of the demonstration waiver period, including sources of outside funding, and provide this reporting to the joint select committee on health care oversight. If by the third year of the demonstration waiver there are not measurable, improved patient outcomes and financial returns, the Washington state institute for public policy will conduct an audit of the accountable communities of health, in addition to the process set in place through the independent evaluation required by the agreement with centers for medicare and medicaid services. Prior to the 2018 legislative session, the human services, health care, and judiciary committees of the legislature will convene a joint work session to review models in the delivery system and the impacts on medical liability. The work sessions should include integrated delivery models with multiple health care providers and medical malpractice insurance carriers.

(h) Sufficient amounts are appropriated in this subsection to implement the medicaid expansion as defined in the social security act, section 1902(a)(10)(A)(i)(VIII).

(i) The legislature finds that medicaid payment rates, as calculated by the health care authority pursuant to the appropriations in this act, bear a reasonable relationship to the costs incurred by efficiently and economically operated facilities for providing quality services and will be sufficient to enlist enough providers so that care and services are available to the extent that such care and services are available to the general population in the geographic area. The legislature finds that the cost reports, payment data from the federal government, historical utilization, economic data, and clinical input constitute reliable data upon which to determine the payment rates.

((p)) Based on quarterly expenditure reports and caseload forecasts, if the health care authority estimates that expenditures for the medical assistance program will exceed the appropriations, the health care authority shall take steps including but not limited to reduction of rates or elimination of optional services to reduce expenditures so that total program costs do not exceed the annual appropriation authority.

((k)) In determining financial eligibility for medicaid-funded services, the health care authority is authorized to disregard recoveries by Holocaust survivors of insurance proceeds or other assets, as defined in RCW 48.104.030.

((l)) The legislature affirms that it is in the state's interest for Harborview medical center to remain an economically viable component of the state's health care system.

((m)) When a person is ineligible for medicaid solely by reason of residence in an institution for mental diseases, the health care authority shall provide the person with the same benefits as he or she would receive if eligible for medicaid, using state-only funds to the extent necessary.

((n)) $4,261,000 of the general fund-state appropriation for fiscal year 2018, $4,261,000 of the general fund-state appropriation for fiscal year 2019, and $8,522,000 of the general fund-federal appropriation are provided solely for low-income disproportionate share hospital payments.

((o)) Within the amounts appropriated in this section, the health care authority shall provide disproportionate share hospital payments to hospitals that provide services to children in the children’s health program who are not eligible for services under Title XIX or XXI of the federal social security act due to their citizenship status.

((p)) $6,000,000 of the general fund-federal appropriation is provided solely for supplemental payments to nursing homes operated by public hospital districts. The public hospital district shall be responsible for providing the required nonfederal match for the supplemental payment, and the payments shall not exceed the maximum allowable under federal rules. It is the legislature's intent that the payments shall be supplemental to and shall not in any way offset or reduce the payments calculated and provided in accordance with part E of chapter 74.46 RCW. It is the legislature's further intent that costs otherwise allowable for rate-setting and settlement against payments under chapter 74.46 RCW shall not be disallowed solely because such costs have been paid by revenues retained by the nursing home from these supplemental payments. The supplemental payments are subject to retrospective interim and final cost settlements based on the nursing homes' as-filed and final medicaid cost reports. The timing of the interim and final cost settlements shall be at the health care authority's discretion. During either the interim cost settlement or the final cost settlement, the health care authority shall recoup from the public hospital districts the supplemental payments that exceed the medicaid cost limit and/or the medicare upper payment limit. The health care authority shall apply federal rules for identifying the eligible incurred medicaid costs and the medicare upper payment limit.

((q)) The health care authority shall continue the inpatient hospital certified public expenditures program for the 2017-2019 fiscal biennium. The program shall apply to all public hospitals, including those owned or operated by the state, except those classified as critical access hospitals or state psychiatric institutions. The health care authority shall submit reports to the governor and legislature by November 1, 2017, and by November 1, 2018, that evaluate whether savings continue to exceed costs for this program. If the certified public expenditures (CPE) program in its current form is no longer cost-effective to maintain, the health care authority shall submit a report to the governor and legislature detailing cost-effective alternative uses of local, state, and federal resources as a replacement for this program. During fiscal year 2018 and fiscal year 2019, hospitals in the program shall be paid and shall retain one hundred percent of the federal portion of the allowable hospital cost for each medicaid inpatient fee-for-service claim payable by medical assistance and one hundred percent of the federal portion of the maximum disproportionate share hospital payment allowable under federal regulations. Inpatient medicaid payments shall be established using an allowable methodology that approximates the cost of claims submitted by the hospitals. Payments made to each hospital in the program in each fiscal year of the biennium shall be compared to a baseline amount. The baseline amount will be determined by the total of (i) the inpatient claim payment amounts that would have been paid during the fiscal year had the hospital not been in the CPE program based on the reimbursement rates developed, implemented, and consistent with policies approved in the 2017-2019 biennial operating appropriations act and in effect on July 1, 2015; (ii) one-half of the indigent assistance disproportionate share hospital payment amounts paid to and retained by each hospital during fiscal year 2005, and (iii) all of the other disproportionate share hospital payment amounts paid to and retained by each hospital during fiscal year 2005 to the extent the same disproportionate share hospital programs exist in the 2017-2019 fiscal biennium. If payments during the fiscal year exceed the hospital's baseline amount, no additional payments will be made to the hospital except the federal portion of allowable disproportionate share hospital payments for which the hospital can certify allowable match. If payments during the fiscal year are less than the baseline amount, the hospital will be paid a state grant equal to the difference between payments during the fiscal year and the applicable baseline amount. Payment of the state grant shall be made in the applicable fiscal year and distributed in monthly payments. The grants will be recalculated and redistributed as the baseline is updated during the fiscal year. The grant payments are subject to an interim settlement within eleven months after the end of the fiscal year. A final settlement shall be performed. To the extent that either settlement determines that a hospital has received funds in excess of what it would have received as described in this subsection, the hospital must repay the excess amounts to the state when requested. ($310,575,000) $359,000 of the general fund-state appropriation for fiscal year 2018 and ($399,575,000) $361,000 of the general fund-state appropriation for fiscal year 2019 are provided solely for state grants for the participating hospitals.

The health care authority shall seek public-private partnerships and federal funds that are or may become available to provide on-going support for outreach and education efforts under the federal children's health insurance program reauthorization act of 2009.

The health care authority shall target funding for maternity support services towards pregnant women with factors that lead to higher rates of poor birth outcomes, including hypertension, a preterm or low birth weight birth in the most recent previous birth, a cognitive deficit or developmental disability, substance abuse, severe mental illness, unhealthy weight or failure to gain weight, tobacco use, or African American or Native American race. The health care authority shall prioritize evidence-based practices for delivery of maternity support services. To the extent practicable, the health care authority shall develop a mechanism to increase federal funding for maternity support services by leveraging local public funding for those services.

The authority shall submit reports to the governor and the legislature by September 15, 2018, and no later than September 15, 2019, that delineate the number of individuals in medicaid managed care, by carrier, age, gender, and eligibility category, receiving preventative services and vaccinations. The reports should include baseline and benchmark information from the previous two fiscal years and should be inclusive of, but not limited to, services recommended under the United States preventative services task force, advisory committee on immunization practices, early and periodic screening, diagnostic, and treatment (EPSDT) guidelines, and other relevant preventative and vaccination medicaid guidelines and requirements.

Managed care contracts must incorporate accountability measures that monitor patient health and improved health outcomes, and shall include an expectation that each patient receive a wellness examination that documents the baseline health status and allows for monitoring of health improvements and outcome measures.

The health care authority shall complete medicaid applications in the HealthPlanfinder for households receiving or applying for medical assistance benefits.

(ii) Remedial actions, including planning for adaptive reuse of properties as provided for under (((e))) (c)(iv) of this subsection. The department must prioritize funding of remedial actions at:

(A) Facilities on the department's hazardous sites list with a high hazard ranking for which there is an approved remedial action work plan or an equivalent document under federal cleanup law;

(B) Brownfield properties within a redevelopment opportunity zone if the local government is a prospective purchaser of the property and there is a department-approved remedial action work plan or equivalent document under the federal cleanup law;

(iii) Stormwater pollution source projects that: (A) Work in conjunction with a remedial action; (B) protect completed remedial actions against recontamination; or (C) prevent hazardous clean-up sites;
(iv) Hazardous waste plans and programs under chapter 70.105 RCW;

(v) Solid waste plans and programs under chapters 70.95, 70.95C, 70.95I, and 70.105 RCW;

(vi) Petroleum-based plastic or expanded polystyrene foam debris cleanup activities in fresh or marine waters; and

(vii) Appropriations to the state toxics control account or the environmental legacy stewardship account created in RCW 70.105D.170, if the legislature determines that priorities for spending exceed available funds in those accounts.

(b) Funds for plans and programs must be allocated consistent with the priorities and matching requirements established in chapters 70.105, 70.95C, 70.95I, and 70.95 RCW.

(c) During the 2013-2015 fiscal biennium, the local toxics control account may also be used for local government stormwater planning and implementation activities.

(d) During the 2013-2015 fiscal biennium, the legislature may transfer from the local toxics control account to the state general fund, such amounts as reflect the excess fund balance in the account.

(e) To expedite cleanups throughout the state, the department may use the following strategies when providing grants to local governments under this subsection:

(i) Enter into an extended grant agreement with a local government conducting remedial actions at a facility where those actions extend over multiple biennia and the total eligible cost of those actions exceeds twenty million dollars. The agreement is subject to the following limitations:

(A) The initial duration of such an agreement may not exceed ten years. The department may extend the duration of such an agreement upon finding substantial progress has been made on remedial actions at the facility;

(B) Extended grant agreements may not exceed fifty percent of the total eligible remedial action costs at the facility; and

(C) The department may not allocate future funding to an extended grant agreement unless the local government has demonstrated to the department that funds awarded under the agreement during the previous biennium have been substantially expended or contracts have been entered into to substantially expend the funds;

(ii) Enter into a grant agreement with a local government conducting a remedial action that provides for periodic reimbursement of remedial action costs as they are incurred as established in the agreement;

(iii) Enter into a grant agreement with a local government prior to it acquiring a property or obtaining necessary access to conduct remedial actions, provided the agreement is conditioned upon the local government acquiring the property or obtaining the access in accordance with a schedule specified in the agreement;

(iv) Provide integrated planning grants to local governments to fund studies necessary to facilitate remedial actions at brownfield properties and adaptive reuse of properties following remediation. Eligible activities include, but are not limited to: Environmental site assessments; remedial investigations; health assessments; feasibility studies; site planning; community involvement; land use and regulatory analyses; building and infrastructure assessments; economic and fiscal analyses; and any environmental analyses under chapter 43.21C RCW;

(v) Provide grants to local governments for remedial actions related to area-wide groundwater contamination. To receive the funding, the local government does not need to be a potentially liable person or be required to seek reimbursement of grant funds from a potentially liable person;

(vi) The director may alter grant matching requirements to create incentives for local governments to expedite cleanups when one of the following conditions exists:

(A) Funding would prevent or mitigate unfair economic hardship imposed by the clean-up liability;

(B) Funding would create new substantial economic development, public recreational opportunities, or habitat restoration opportunities that would not otherwise occur; or
(C) Funding would create an opportunity for acquisition and redevelopment of brownfield property under RCW 70.105D.040(5) that would not otherwise occur;

(vii) When pending grant applications under (e)(iv) and (v) of this subsection (4) exceed the amount of funds available, designated redevelopment opportunity zones must receive priority for distribution of available funds.

(f) To expedite multiparty clean-up efforts, the department may purchase remedial action cost-cap insurance. For the 2013-2015 fiscal biennium, moneys in the local toxics control account may be spent on projects in sections 3024, 3035, 3036, and 3059, chapter 19, Laws of 2013 2nd sp. sess.

(5) Except for unanticipated receipts under RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282, moneys in the state and local toxics control accounts may be spent only after appropriation by statute.

(6) No moneys deposited into either the state or local toxics control account may be used for: Natural disasters where there is no hazardous substance contamination; high performance buildings; solid waste incinerator facility feasibility studies, construction, maintenance, or operation; or (after January 1, 2010, for) projects designed to address the restoration of Puget Sound, funded in a competitive grant process, that are in conflict with the action agenda developed by the Puget Sound partnership under RCW 90.71.310. However, this subsection does not prevent an appropriation from the state toxics control account to the department of revenue to enforce compliance with the hazardous substance tax imposed in chapter 82.21 RCW.

(7) Except during the 2011-2013 and the 2015-2017 fiscal biennia, one percent of the moneys collected under RCW 82.21.030 shall be allocated only for public participation grants to persons who may be adversely affected by a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance and to not-for-profit public interest organizations. The primary purpose of these grants is to facilitate the participation by persons and organizations in the investigation andremedying of releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances and to implement the state’s solid and hazardous waste management priorities. No grant may exceed sixty thousand dollars. Grants may be renewed annually. Moneys appropriated for public participation that are not expended at the close of any biennium revert to the state toxics control account.

(8) The department shall adopt rules for grant or loan issuance and performance. To accelerate both remedial action and economic recovery, the department may expedite the adoption of rules necessary to implement chapter 1, Laws of 2013 2nd sp. sess. using the expedited procedures in RCW 34.05.353. The department shall initiate the award of financial assistance by August 1, 2013. To ensure the adoption of rules will not delay financial assistance, the department may administer the award of financial assistance through interpretive guidance pending the adoption of rules through July 1, 2014.

(9) Except as provided under subsection (3)(k) and (q) of this section, nothing in chapter 1, Laws of 2013 2nd sp. sess. affects the ability of a potentially liable person to receive public funding.

(10) During the 2015-2017 fiscal biennium the local toxics control account may also be used for the centennial clean water program and for the stormwater financial assistance program administered by the department of ecology.

(11) During the 2017-2019 fiscal biennium:

(a) The state toxics control account, the local toxics control account, and the environmental legacy stewardship account may be used for interchangeable purposes and funds may be transferred between accounts to accomplish those purposes.

(b) The legislature may direct the state treasurer to make transfers of moneys in the state toxics control account to the water pollution control revolving account.

Sec. 912. RCW 76.04.610 and 2012 2nd sp.s. c 7 s 922 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) If any owner of forestland within a forest protection zone neglects to provide adequate fire protection as required by RCW 76.04.600, the department shall provide such protection and shall annually impose the following assessments on each parcel of such land: (i) A flat fee assessment of seventeen dollars and fifty cents; and (ii) twenty-seven cents on each acre exceeding fifty acres.

(b) Assessors may, at their option, collect the assessment on tax exempt lands. If the assessor elects not to collect the assessment, the department may bill the landowner directly.

(2) An owner who has paid assessments on two or more parcels, each containing fewer than fifty acres and each within the same county, may obtain the following refund:

(a) If all the parcels together contain less than fifty acres, then the refund is equal to the flat fee assessments paid, reduced by the total of (i) seventeen dollars and (ii) the total of the amounts retained by the county from such assessments under subsection (5) of this section.

(b) If all the parcels together contain fifty or more acres, then the refund is equal to the flat fee assessments paid, reduced by the total of (i) seventeen dollars, (ii) twenty-seven cents for each acre exceeding fifty acres, and (iii) the total of the amounts retained by the county from such assessments under subsection (5) of this section.

Applications for refunds shall be submitted to the department on a form prescribed by the department and in the same year in which the assessments were paid. The department may not provide refunds to applicants who do not provide verification that all assessments and property taxes on the property have been paid. Applications may be made by mail.

In addition to the procedures under this subsection, property owners with multiple parcels in a single county who qualify for a refund under this section may apply to the department on an application listing all the parcels owned in order to have the assessment computed on all parcels but billed to a single parcel. Property owners with the following number of parcels may apply to the department in the year indicated:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Number of Parcels</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2002</td>
<td>10 or more parcels</td>
</tr>

The department must compute the correct assessment and allocate one parcel in the county to use to collect the assessment. The county must then bill the forest fire protection assessment on that one allocated identified parcel. The landowner is responsible for notifying the department of any changes in parcel ownership.

(3) Beginning January 1, 1991, under the administration and at the discretion of the department up to two hundred thousand dollars per year of this assessment shall be used in support of those rural fire districts assisting the department in fire protection services on forestlands.

(4) For the purpose of this chapter, the department may divide the forestlands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for fire protection and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the department for protection of forestlands from funds at its disposal shall be a lien upon the property protected, unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred. The department shall be prepared to make statement thereof, upon request, to a forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved as to its adequacy, the department shall report the same to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated. The assessor shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, and upon authorization from the department shall levy the forest protection assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records. The assessor may then segregate on the records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the millage levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in RCW 52.16.170.

(5) The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the department certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Assessments shall be known and designated as assessments of the year in which the amounts became reimbursable. Upon the collection of assessments the county treasurer shall place fifty cents of the total assessments paid on a parcel for fire protection into the county current expense fund to defray the costs of listing, billing, and collecting these assessments. The treasurer shall then transmit the balance to the department. Collections shall be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section, including necessary and reasonable administrative costs incurred by the department in the enforcement of these provisions. The department may also expend sums collected from owners of forestlands or received from any other source for necessary administrative costs in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.660. During the 2017-2019 fiscal biennium, the legislature may appropriate moneys from the account for department of natural resources wildfire response and forest health activities.

(6) When land against which forest protection assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment. The county treasurer, in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment, shall immediately remit to the department the amount of the outstanding forest protection assessments.

(7) All nonfederal public bodies owning or administering forestland included in a forest protection zone shall pay the forest protection assessments provided in this section and the special forest fire suppression account assessments under RCW 76.04.630. The forest protection assessments and special forest fire suppression account assessments shall be payable by nonfederal public bodies from available funds within thirty days following receipt of the written notice from the department which is given after October 1st of the year in which the protection was provided. Unpaid assessments are not a lien against the nonfederal publicly owned land but shall constitute a debt by the nonfederal public body to the department and are subject to interest charges at the legal rate. During the 2011-2013 fiscal biennium, the forest fire protection assessment account may be appropriated to The Evergreen State College for analysis and recommendations to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the state's mechanisms for funding fire prevention and suppression activities.

(8) A public body, having failed to previously pay the forest protection assessments required of it by this section, which fails to suppress a fire on or originating from forestlands owned or administered by it, is liable for the costs of suppression incurred by the department or its agent and is not entitled to reimbursement of costs incurred by the public body in the suppression activities.

(9) The department may adopt rules to implement this section, including, but not limited to, rules on levying and collecting forest protection assessments.

Sec. 913. RCW 77.12.203 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 1 s 984 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section and notwithstanding RCW 84.36.010 or other statutes to the contrary, the director must pay by April 30th of each year on game lands, regardless of acreage, in each county, if requested by an election under RCW 77.12.201, an amount in lieu of real property taxes equal to that amount paid on similar parcels of open space land taxable under chapter 84.34 RCW or the greater of seventy cents per acre per year or the amount paid in 1984 plus an additional amount for control of noxious weeds equal to that which would be paid if such lands were privately owned. This amount may not be assessed or paid on department buildings, structures, facilities, game farms, fish hatcheries, water access sites, tidelands, or public fishing areas.
(2) "Game lands," as used in this section and RCW 77.12.201, means those tracts, regardless of acreage, owned in fee by the department and used for wildlife habitat and public recreational purposes. During the 2015-2017 fiscal biennium, the legislature may transfer moneys from the aquatic lands enhancement account to the marine resources stewardship trust account.

(2) In providing grants for aquatic lands enhancement projects, the recreation and conservation funding board shall:

(a) Require grant recipients to incorporate the environmental benefits of the project into their grant applications;

(b) Utilize the statement of environmental benefits, consideration, except as provided in RCW 79.105.610, of whether the applicant is a Puget Sound partner, as defined in RCW 90.71.010, whether a project is referenced in the action agenda developed by the Puget Sound partnership under RCW 90.71.310, and except as otherwise provided in RCW 79.105.630, and effective one calendar year following the development and statewide availability of model evergreen community management plans and ordinances under RCW 35.105.050, whether the applicant is an entity that has been recognized, and what gradation of recognition was received, in the evergreen community recognition program created in RCW 35.105.030 in its prioritization and selection process; and

HOUSE AMENDMENT TO SENATE BILL

There being no objection, the House insisted on its position in its amendment to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL
NO. 2748 and asked the Senate to concur therein.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 7, 2018

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL
NO. 2008 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that effective planning for and implementation of core state services for children requires predictability and stability in the budgeting process for these services. For these reasons, the legislature intends that costs for behavioral rehabilitation services, child protective services staff, and contracted visitation services be included in the state budgeting process at maintenance level. By implementing consistent statewide assessments, forecasting program caseloads, and incorporating forecast-based program costs into the maintenance level budget, the state can ensure predictable funding levels for this program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The children and families services program of the department of social and health services through June 30, 2018, and of the department of children, youth, and families effective July 1, 2018, shall facilitate a stakeholder work group in a collaborative effort to design a behavioral rehabilitation services rate payment methodology that is based on actual provider costs of care. The work group may consider the findings of a contracted rate analysis in designing the methodology. By November 30, 2018, and in compliance with RCW 43.01.036, the department of children, youth, and families must submit a report with the final work group findings and recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees.

(2) This section expires December 31,
2018.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 74.13 RCW to read as follows:

The office of innovation, alignment, and accountability must develop a single validated tool to assess the care needs of foster children. Once the validated tool is available for use on a statewide basis, the department of children, youth, and families must use the tool for assessing the care needs of foster children, including but not limited to whether the department should provide foster children with behavioral rehabilitation services. The department must notify the caseload forecast council, the office of financial management, and the appropriate fiscal committees of the legislature when it begins statewide use of the validated tool.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.88C.010 and 2015 c 128
s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The caseload forecast council is hereby created. The council shall consist of two individuals appointed by the governor and four individuals, one of whom is appointed by the chairperson of each of the two largest political caucuses in the senate and house of representatives. The chair of the council shall be selected from among the four caucus appointees. The council may select such other officers as the members deem necessary.

(2) The council shall employ a caseload forecast supervisor to supervise the preparation of all caseload forecasts. As used in this chapter,
"supervisor" means the caseload forecast supervisor.
(3) Approval by an affirmative vote of at least five members of the council is required for any decisions regarding employment of the supervisor. Employment of the supervisor shall terminate after each term of three years. At the end of the first year of each three-year term the council shall consider extension of the supervisor's term by one year. The council may fix the compensation of the supervisor. The supervisor shall employ staff sufficient to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(4) The caseload forecast council shall oversee the preparation of and approve, by an affirmative vote of at least four members, the official state caseload forecasts prepared under RCW 43.88C.020. If the council is unable to approve a forecast before a date required in RCW 43.88C.020, the supervisor shall submit the forecast without approval and the forecast shall have the same effect as if approved by the council.

(5) A councilmember who does not cast an affirmative vote for approval of the official caseload forecast may request, and the supervisor shall provide, an alternative forecast based on assumptions specified by the member.

(6) Members of the caseload forecast council shall serve without additional compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120 while attending sessions of the council or on official business authorized by the council. Nonlegislative members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(7) "Caseload," as used in this chapter, means:

(a) The number of persons expected to meet entitlement requirements and require the services of public assistance programs, state correctional institutions, state correctional noninstitutional supervision, state institutions for juvenile offenders, the common school system, long-term care, medical assistance, foster care, and adoption support;

(b) The number of students who are eligible for the Washington college bound scholarship program and are expected to attend an institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.92.030;

(c) The number of children who are eligible, as defined in RCW 43.215.405, to participate in, and the number of children actually served by, the early childhood education and assistance program.

(8) The caseload forecast council shall forecast the temporary assistance for needy families and the working connections child care programs as a courtesy.

(9) The caseload forecast council shall forecast youth participating in the extended foster care program pursuant to RCW 74.13.031 separately from other children who are residing in foster care and who are under eighteen years of age.

(10) The caseload forecast council shall forecast the number of youth expected to receive behavioral rehabilitation services while involved in the foster care system and the number of screened in reports of child abuse or neglect.

(11) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions provided in RCW 43.88.020 apply to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.88 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, expenditures for the following foster care, adoption support and related services, and child protective services must be forecasted and budgeted as maintenance level costs:

(1) Behavioral rehabilitation services placements;

(2) Social worker and related staff to receive, refer, and respond to screened-in reports of child abuse or neglect;

(3) Court-ordered parent-child and sibling visitations delivered by contractors; and

(4) Those activities currently being treated as maintenance level costs for budgeting or forecasting purposes on the effective date of this section including, but not limited to: (a) Adoption support and other adoption-related expenses; (b) foster care maintenance payments; (c) child-placing agency management fees; (d) support goods such as clothing vouchers; (e) child aides; and (f) child care for children in foster or relative placements when the caregiver is at work or in school.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) No later than December 1, 2020, the department of children, youth, and families shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on the actual and projected funding levels in fiscal years 2019 through 2021 for section 5 (1) through (3) of this act and compare them to expenditures prior to inclusion in the maintenance level forecasting and budgeting process.

(2) This section expires January 1, 2021.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The department of children, youth, and families shall, as part of its budget request submittal for the 2019-2021 biennial operating budget, conduct a review of the most recent caseload forecast of children in foster care and the availability and capacity of licensed foster homes. The review shall include:

(a) An analysis of the need for licensed foster homes;

(b) A listing of support resources available for parents in licensed foster homes; and

(c) A review of department policies that affect the recruitment and retention of licensed foster homes.

A report containing the results of the review shall be submitted to the office of financial management and the appropriate policy and appropriation committees of the legislature no later than October 1, 2018.

(2) This section expires October 1, 2018."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "children;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.88C.010; adding a new section to chapter 74.13 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.88 RCW; creating new sections; and providing expiration dates."

and the same is herewith transmitted,

Brad Hendrickson, Secretary

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2008, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 83; Nays, 15; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting nay: Representatives Buys, DeBolt, Jenkin, Klippert, Kretz, Maycumber, McCaslin, Nealey, Orcutt, Pike, Shea, Taylor, Vick, Walsh and Young.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2008, as amended by the Senate, having received the necessary constitutional majority, was declared passed.

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Kagi: “Mr. Speaker it has been the greatest honor of my life and I really didn’t want to get upset about this. It truly has been the greatest honor of my life to serve in this body, and this bill is the last piece of the puzzle. I’ve always said that legislation is like a puzzle and you have to get each piece in place for it to work and providing this funding base for this new department gives them so much opportunity to change the lives of children and families, which is what we have all worked so hard to do over the 20 years that I’ve been here. We have, together on a bipartisan basis, a bicameral basis, made steady progress on early learning and on family assessment response and the department and I am so proud of this Legislature and I know that I leave it and these issues in good hands. That there are many leaders who will fight for children and families when I’m gone, but I won’t really be gone, I’ll be back. I’ll be talking to you about the importance of supporting children, youth, and families. But I appreciate every one of you and I particularly appreciate the leadership that I’ve had the great privilege to serve under. You and I came in together, Mr. Speaker, and the Speaker of the House became Co-Speaker when we came in, so we have served together and I, as I said, am so proud of the work that we’ve done. Thank you Mr. Speaker.”

Representative McCaslin: “I’ll make this short, but I would really like to say that the speaker right before us has a heart for children. This is coming from a former kindergarten teacher but, her consistency and her ability to stick to what she wanted to do. Now, we disagreed about how, and sometimes the what, but there was never any question about the pureness of her vision and what she wanted to do well, and she did, and I’m sad today, rising for this reason because we, on our side, we always knew where she was coming from. There was never any ‘oh, well I’m thinking of this but I’m going to do that instead.’ No, never. And she was always open to listening to the ranking and me, the assistant ranking now on that committee. It has been an absolutely wonderful experience and my hat is off to her and I encourage her in her future pursuits, as she works on the issues of how to do our best job for children and families. Thank you Mr. Speaker.”

Representative Dent: “Thank you Mr. Speaker. Well I wasn’t ready for this, although I had a hint this morning, early. The gentlelady from the 32nd is, she’s been a real journey for me. When I was first elected and I hadn’t even taken office yet and I received a phone call from her and she knew that I had a passion for children and we had quite a conversation, and I think we began to develop a friendship before I had even met her in person. I feel privileged that I had the opportunity to serve with her. We’ve had many great conversations and many great arguments over where we think we should go with our children but every time it seems like we could come together and find a direction that would work for both of us and I do want to say, I do want to say thank you for allowing me, listening to me and taking my ideas under consideration. It has truly been an honor to serve with you and I look forward to, hopefully we can have many more conversations in the future. Thank you.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 7, 2018

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2408 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Access to health care is fundamental to the health and safety of the citizens of Washington state;

(b) Health insurance coverage is necessary for most people to access health care;

(c) Due to uncertainty in the health insurance marketplace, volatility in the current federal regulatory environment, and rising health care costs, ensuring access to the private health insurance market in every county in Washington state is becoming more difficult;

(d) The consequences of losing private health insurance coverage in a county would be catastrophic, leading to deteriorating health outcomes, lost productivity, and lower quality of life; and

(e) If the private market fails to provide coverage in a county, the state must intervene.

(2) The legislature therefore intends to:

(a) Leverage the provider networks used by private insurers offering coverage to state and school employees to ensure private insurance coverage is available in all counties where those insurers offer coverage to state and school employees; and

(b) Until such coverage is available, make coverage in the Washington state health insurance pool more affordable to persons residing in counties where no private insurance is available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.05 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For plan years beginning January 1, 2020, at least one health carrier in an insurance holding company system must offer in the exchange at least one silver and one gold qualified health plan in any county in which any health carrier in that insurance holding company system offers a fully insured health plan that was approved, on or after the effective date of this section, by the school employees' benefits board or the public employees' benefits board to be offered to employees and their covered dependents under this chapter.

(2) The rates for a health plan approved by the school employees' benefits board or the public employees' benefits board may not include the administrative costs or actuarial risks associated with a qualified health plan offered under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The authority shall perform an actuarial review during the annual rate setting process for plans approved by the school employees' benefits board or the public employees' benefits board to ensure compliance with subsection (2) of this section.

(4) For purposes of this section, "exchange" and "health carrier" have the same meaning as in RCW 48.43.005.

(5) For purposes of this section, "insurance holding company system" has the same meaning as in RCW 48.31B.005.

Sec. 3. RCW 48.41.200 and 2007 c 259 s 28 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The pool shall determine the standard risk rate by calculating the average individual standard rate charged for coverage comparable to pool coverage by the five largest members, measured in terms of individual market enrollment, offering such coverages in the state. In the event five members do not offer comparable coverage, the standard risk rate shall be established using reasonable actuarial techniques and shall reflect anticipated experience and expenses for such coverage in the individual market.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, maximum rates for pool coverage shall be as follows:

(a) Maximum rates for a pool indemnity health plan shall be one hundred fifty percent of the rate calculated under subsection (1) of this section;

(b) Maximum rates for a pool care management plan shall be one hundred twenty-five percent of the rate calculated under subsection (1) of this section; and

(c) Maximum rates for a person eligible for pool coverage pursuant to RCW 48.41.100(1)(a) who was enrolled at any time during the sixty-three day period immediately prior to the date of application for pool coverage in a group health benefit plan or an individual health benefit plan other than a catastrophic health plan as defined in RCW 48.43.005, where such coverage was continuous for at least eighteen months, shall be:

(i) For a pool indemnity health plan, one hundred twenty-five percent of the rate calculated under subsection (1) of this section; and

(ii) For a pool care management plan, one hundred ten percent of the rate calculated under subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a) Subject to (b) and (c) of this subsection:

(i) The rate for any person, other than a person eligible for a rate reduction under subsection (4) of this section, whose current gross family income is less than two hundred fifty-one percent of the federal poverty level shall be reduced by thirty percent from what it would otherwise be;

(ii) The rate for any person, other than a person eligible for a rate reduction under subsection (4) of this section, whose current gross family income is more than two hundred fifty but less than three hundred one percent of the federal poverty level shall be reduced by fifteen percent from what it would otherwise be;

(iii) The rate for any person who has been enrolled in the pool for more than thirty-six months shall be reduced by five percent from what it would otherwise be.

(b) In no event shall the rate for any person be less than one hundred ten percent of the rate calculated under subsection (1) of this section.

(c) Rate reductions under (a)(i) and (ii) of this subsection shall be available only to the extent that funds are specifically appropriated for this purpose in the omnibus appropriations act.

(4) The rate for any person eligible for pool coverage under RCW 48.41.100(1)(a) shall be reduced as follows:

(a) The rate for a person whose current modified adjusted gross income is less than or equal to two hundred percent of the federal poverty level must be reduced by eighty percent from what it otherwise would be;

(b) The rate for a person whose current modified adjusted gross income is more than two hundred percent, but less than or equal to three hundred percent of the federal poverty level must be reduced by sixty percent from what it otherwise would be;

(c) The rate for a person whose current modified adjusted gross income is more than three hundred percent, but less than or equal to four hundred percent of the
The rate for a person whose current modified adjusted gross income is more than four hundred percent of the federal poverty level must be reduced by thirty percent from what it otherwise would be.

Sec. 4. RCW 48.41.090 and 2013 2nd sp.s. c 6 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Following the close of each accounting year, the pool administrator shall determine the total net cost of pool operation which shall include:

(a) Net premium (premiums less administrative expense allowances), the pool expenses of administration, and incurred losses for the year, taking into account investment income and other appropriate gains and losses; ((and))

(b) The amount of pool contributions specified in the state omnibus appropriations act for deposit into the health benefit exchange account under RCW 43.71.060, to assist with the transition of enrollees from the pool into the health benefit exchange created by chapter 43.71 RCW; and

(c) Any rate reductions received by individuals under RCW 48.41.200(4).

(2)(a) Each member's proportion of participation in the pool shall be determined annually by the board based on annual statements and other reports deemed necessary by the board and filed by the member with the commissioner; and shall be determined by multiplying the total cost of pool operation by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction equals that member's total number of resident insured persons, including spouse and dependents, covered under all health plans in the state by that member during the preceding calendar year. The denominator of the fraction equals the total number of resident insured persons, including spouses and dependents, covered under all health plans in the state by all pool members during the preceding calendar year.

(b) For purposes of calculating the numerator and the denominator under (a) of this subsection:

(i) All health plans in the state by the state health care authority include only the uniform medical plan;

(ii) Each ten resident insured persons, including spouse and dependents, under a stop loss plan or the uniform medical plan shall count as one resident insured person;

(iii) Health plans serving medical care services program clients under RCW 74.09.035 are exempted from the calculation; and

(iv) Health plans established to serve elderly clients or medicaid clients with disabilities under chapter 74.09 RCW when the plan has been implemented on a demonstration or pilot project basis are exempted from the calculation until July 1, 2009.

(c) Except as provided in RCW 48.41.037, any deficit incurred by the pool, including pool contributions for deposit into the health benefit exchange account, shall be recouped by assessments among members apportioned under this subsection pursuant to the formula set forth by the board among members. The monthly per member assessment may not exceed the 2013 assessment level. If the maximum assessment is insufficient to cover a pool deficit the assessment shall be used first to pay all incurred losses and pool administrative expenses, with the remainder being available for deposit in the health benefit exchange account.

(3) The board may abate or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of a member if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member to fulfill its contractual obligations. If an assessment against a member is abated or deferred in whole or in part, the amount by which such assessment is abated or deferred may be assessed against the other members in a manner consistent with the basis for assessments set forth in subsection (2) of this section. The member receiving such abatement or deferment shall remain liable to the pool for the deficiency.

(4) Subject to the limitation imposed in subsection (2)(c) of this section, the pool administrator shall transfer the assessments for pool contributions for the operation of the health benefit exchange to the treasurer for deposit into the health benefit exchange account with the quarterly assessments for 2014 as specified in the state omnibus appropriations act. If assessments exceed actual losses and administrative expenses of the pool and pool contributions for deposit into the health benefit exchange account, the excess shall be held at interest and used by the board to offset future losses or to reduce pool premiums. As used in this subsection, "future losses" includes reserves for incurred but not reported claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act expire December 31, 2019.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 7, 2018

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2448 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that there is need to expand housing opportunities for persons with developmental disabilities. The legislature finds it is often preferable for persons with developmental disabilities to remain residing in their home, when it is safe and appropriate, to foster ongoing stability. The legislature recognizes that securing a child's future housing and services provides the parents of persons with developmental disabilities peace of mind. The legislature further finds that providing a new mechanism for the transfer of residential property into housing for persons with developmental disabilities expands the state's housing capacity and helps meet demand. The legislature further finds that utilizing existing residential property will reduce the demands on the housing trust fund. The legislature finds that there is an opportunity and need, for advocates and the supporters of the developmental disabilities community to work together, to develop model transfer agreements that will provide peace of mind and assist parents of children with developmental disabilities more readily access this program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) This section is the tax preference performance statement for the tax preference contained in section 3, chapter . . ., Laws of 2018 (section 3 of this act). This performance statement is only intended to be used for subsequent evaluation of the tax preference. It is not intended to create a private right of action by any party or to be used to determine eligibility for preferential tax treatment.

(2) The legislature categorizes this tax preference as one intended to induce certain designated behavior by taxpayers, as indicated in RCW 82.32.808(2)(a).

(3) It is the legislature's specific public policy objective to reduce the tax burden on individuals and businesses imposed by the existing real estate excise tax rates.

(4) If a review finds that there is an increase of residential property transfers by parents of a person with developmental disabilities to a qualified entity as a result of the relief from this tax preference, then the legislature intends to extend the expiration date of this tax preference.

(5) In order to obtain the data necessary to perform the review in subsection (4) of this section, the joint legislative audit and review committee may refer to any data collected by the state.

Sec. 3. RCW 82.45.010 and 2014 c 58 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this chapter, the term "sale" has its ordinary meaning and includes any conveyance, grant, assignment, quitclaim, or transfer of the ownership of or title to real property, including standing timber, or any estate or interest therein for a valuable consideration, and any contract for such conveyance, grant, assignment, quitclaim, or transfer, and any lease with an option to purchase real property, including standing timber, or any estate or interest therein or other contract under which possession of the property is given to the purchaser, or any other person at the purchaser's direction, and title to the property is retained by the vendor as security for the payment of the purchase price. The term also includes the grant, assignment, quitclaim, sale, or transfer of improvements constructed upon leased land.

(2)(a) The term "sale" also includes the transfer or acquisition within any twelve-month period of a controlling interest in any entity with an interest in real property located in this state for a valuable consideration.

(b) For the sole purpose of determining whether, pursuant to the exercise of an option, a controlling interest was transferred or acquired within a twelve-month period, the date that the option agreement was executed is the date on which the transfer or acquisition of the controlling interest is deemed to occur. For all other purposes under this chapter, the date upon which the option is exercised is the date of the transfer or acquisition of the controlling interest.

(c) For purposes of this subsection, all acquisitions of persons acting in concert must be aggregated for purposes of determining whether a transfer or acquisition of a controlling interest has taken place. The department must adopt standards by rule to determine when persons are acting in concert. In adopting a rule for this purpose, the department must consider the following:

(i) Persons must be treated as acting in concert when they have a relationship with each other such that one person influences or controls the actions of another through common ownership; and

(ii) When persons are not commonly owned or controlled, they must be treated as acting in concert only when the unity with which the purchasers have negotiated and will consummate the transfer of ownership interests supports a finding that they are acting as a single entity. If the acquisitions are completely independent, with each purchaser buying without regard to the identity of the other purchasers, then the acquisitions are considered separate acquisitions.

(3) The term "sale" does not include:

(a) A transfer by gift, devise, or inheritance.

(b) A transfer by transfer on death deed, to the extent that it is not in satisfaction of a contractual obligation of the decedent owed to the recipient of the property.

(c) A transfer of any leasehold interest other than of the type mentioned above.

(d) A cancellation or forfeiture of a vendee's interest in a contract for the sale of real property, whether or not such contract contains a forfeiture clause, or deed in lieu of foreclosure of a mortgage.

(e) The partition of property by tenants in common by agreement or as the result of a court decree.

(f) The assignment of property or interest in property from one spouse or one domestic partner to the other spouse or other domestic partner in accordance with the terms of a decree of dissolution of marriage or state registered domestic partnership or in fulfillment of a property settlement agreement.

(g) The assignment or other transfer of a vendor's interest in a contract for the sale of real property, even though accompanied by a conveyance of the vendor's interest in the real property involved.

(h) Transfers by appropriation or decree in condemnation proceedings brought by the United States, the state or any political subdivision thereof, or a municipal corporation.

(i) A mortgage or other transfer of an interest in real property merely to secure a debt, or the assignment thereof.

(j) Any transfer or conveyance made pursuant to a deed of trust or an order of sale by the court in any mortgage, deed of trust, or lien foreclosure proceeding or upon execution of a judgment, or deed in lieu of foreclosure to satisfy a mortgage or deed of trust.

(k) A conveyance to the federal housing administration or veterans administration by an authorized mortgagee made pursuant to a contract of insurance or guaranty with the federal housing administration or veterans administration.

(l) A transfer in compliance with the terms of any lease or contract upon which the tax as imposed by this chapter has been paid or where the lease or contract was entered into prior to the date this tax was first imposed.

(m) The sale of any grave or lot in an established cemetery.

(n) A sale by the United States, this state or any political subdivision thereof, or a municipal corporation of this state.

(o) A sale to a regional transit authority or public corporation under RCW 81.112.320 under a sale/leaseback agreement under RCW 81.112.300.

(p) A transfer of real property, however effected, if it consists of a mere change in identity or form of ownership of an entity where there is no change in the beneficial ownership. These include transfers to a corporation or partnership which is wholly owned by the transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner. However, if thereafter such transferee corporation or partnership voluntarily transfers such real property, or such transferor, spouse or domestic partner, or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner voluntarily transfer stock in the transferee corporation or interest in the transferee partnership capital, as the case may be, to other than (i) the transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner, (ii) a trust having the transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner as the only beneficiaries at the time of the transfer to the trust, or (iii) a corporation or partnership wholly owned by the original transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner, within three years of the original transfer to which this exemption applies, and the tax on the subsequent transfer has not been paid within sixty days of becoming due, excise taxes become due and payable on the original transfer as otherwise provided by law.

(q)(i) A transfer that for federal income tax purposes does not involve the recognition of gain or loss for entity formation, liquidation or dissolution, and reorganization, including but not limited to nonrecognition of gain or loss because of application of 26 U.S.C. Sec. 332, 337, 351, 368(a)(1), 721, or 731 of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended.

(ii) However, the transfer described in (q)(i) of this subsection cannot be preceded or followed within a twelve-month period by another transfer or series of transfers, that, when combined with the otherwise exempt transfer or transfers described in (q)(i) of this subsection, results in the transfer of a controlling interest in the entity for valuable consideration, and in which one or more persons previously holding a controlling interest in the entity receive cash or property in exchange for any interest the person or persons acting in concert hold in the entity. This subsection (3)(q)(ii) does not apply to that part of the transfer involving property received that is the real property interest that the person or persons originally contributed to the entity or when one or more persons who did not contribute real property or belong to the entity at a time when real property was purchased receive cash or personal property in exchange for that person or persons' interest in the entity. The real estate excise tax under this subsection (3)(q)(ii) is imposed upon the person or persons who previously held a controlling interest in the entity.

(r) A qualified sale of a manufactured/mobile home community, as defined in RCW 59.20.030, that takes place on or after June 12, 2008, but before December 31, 2018.

(s)(i) A qualified transfer of residential property by a legal representative of a person with developmental disabilities to a qualified entity subject to the following conditions:

(A) The adult child with developmental disabilities of the transferor of the residential property must be allowed to reside in the residence or successor property so long as the placement is safe and appropriate as determined by the department of social and health services;

(B) The title to the residential property is conveyed without the receipt of consideration by the legal representative of a person with developmental disabilities to a qualified entity;

(C) The residential property must have no more than four living units located on it; and

(D) The residential property transferred must remain in continued use for fifty years by the qualified entity as supported living for persons with developmental disabilities by the qualified entity or successor entity. If the qualified entity sells or otherwise conveys ownership of the residential property the proceeds of the sale or conveyance must be used to acquire similar residential property and such similar residential property must be considered the successor for continued use. The property will not be considered in continued use if the department of social and health services finds that the property has failed, after a reasonable time to remedy, to meet any health and safety statutory or regulatory requirements. If the department of social and health services determines that the property fails to meet the requirements for continued use, the department of social and health services must notify the department and the real estate excise tax based on the value of the property at the time of the transfer into use as residential property for persons with developmental disabilities becomes immediately due and payable by the qualified entity. The tax due is not subject to penalties, fees, or interest under this title.

(ii) For the purposes of this subsection (3)(s) the definitions in RCW 71A.10.020 apply.

(iii) A "qualified entity" is:

(A) A nonprofit organization under Title 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, as of the effective date of this section, or a subsidiary under the same taxpayer identification number that provides residential supported living for persons with developmental disabilities; or

(B) A nonprofit adult family home, as defined in RCW 70.128.010, that exclusively serves persons with developmental disabilities.

(iv) In order to receive an exemption under this subsection (3)(s) an affidavit must be submitted by the transferor of the residential property and must include a copy of the transfer agreement and any other documentation as required by the department.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.185.050 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 12 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:
The department must use moneys from the housing trust fund and other legislative appropriations to finance in whole or in part any loans or grant projects that will provide housing for persons and families with special housing needs and with incomes at or below fifty percent of the median family income for the county or standard metropolitan statistical area where the project is located. At least thirty percent of these moneys used in any given funding cycle must be for the benefit of projects located in rural areas of the state as defined by the department. If the department determines that it has not received an adequate number of suitable applications for rural projects during any given funding cycle, the department may allocate unused moneys for projects in nonrural areas of the state.

Activities eligible for assistance from the housing trust fund and other legislative appropriations include, but are not limited to:

(a) New construction, rehabilitation, or acquisition of low and very low-income housing units;
(b) Rent subsidies;
(c) Matching funds for social services directly related to providing housing for special-need tenants in assisted projects;
(d) Technical assistance, design and finance services and consultation, and administrative costs for eligible nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations;
(e) Administrative costs for housing assistance groups or organizations when such grant or loan will substantially increase the recipient’s access to housing funds other than those available under this chapter;
(f) Shelters and related services for the homeless, including emergency shelters and overnight youth shelters;
(g) Mortgage subsidies, including temporary rental and mortgage payment subsidies to prevent homelessness;
(h) Mortgage insurance guarantee or payments for eligible projects;
(i) Down payment or closing cost assistance for eligible first-time home buyers;
(j) Acquisition of housing units for the purpose of preservation as low-income or very low-income housing;
(k) Projects making housing more accessible to families with members who have disabilities; and
(l) Remodeling and improvements as required to meet building code, licensing requirements, or legal operations to residential properties owned and operated by an entity eligible under RCW 43.185A.040, which were transferred as described in RCW 82.45.010(3)(a) by the parent of a child with developmental disabilities.

Preference must be given for projects that include an early learning facility.

Legislative appropriations from capital bond proceeds may be used only for the costs of projects authorized under subsection (2)(a), (i), and (j) of this section, and not for the administrative costs of the department.

Moneys from repayment of loans from appropriations from capital bond proceeds may be used for all activities necessary for the proper functioning of the housing assistance program except for activities authorized under subsection (2)(b) and (c) of this section.

Administrative costs associated with application, distribution, and project development activities of the department may not exceed three percent of the annual funds available for the housing assistance program. Reappropriations must not be included in the calculation of the annual funds available for determining the administrative costs.

Administrative costs associated with compliance and monitoring activities of the department may not exceed one-quarter of one percent annually of the contracted amount of state investment in the housing assistance program.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "persons;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 82.45.010 and 43.185.050; and creating new sections."

choices in its long-term services and supports system. Assisted living facilities are an important part of the state’s long-term services and supports plan;

(2) Consumers should have access to current information about assisted living facilities to make informed choices;

(3) Washingtonians choose to live in assisted living facilities for many different reasons including safety, access to care, socialization, rehabilitation, and community;

(4) Deciding where to live and what kind of facility to live in are big decisions for potential residents and families. They deserve to have access to all information collected by the state to use in making their decisions. Providing transparency will allow for more informed consumer choices;

(5) Consumers already have access to information on nursing homes and adult family homes. This act would bring assisted living facilities in line with other settings; and

(6) Assisted living facilities need to be held accountable for the residents in their care and the fine structure should be reflective of that responsibility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 18.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall provide information to consumers about assisted living facilities. This information must be made available online and must include information related to site visits, substantiated inspection and complaint investigation reports, including any citation and remedy imposed, and a listing of licensed assisted living facilities by geographic location.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.20 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall facilitate a work group process to recommend quality metrics for assisted living facilities. The department shall keep a public record of comments submitted by stakeholders throughout the work group process.

(2) The work group shall consist of representatives from the department, assisted living provider associations, the long-term care ombuds; organizations with expertise in serving persons with mental health needs in an institutional setting, as selected by the department; organizations with expertise in serving persons with developmental disability needs in an institutional setting, as selected by the department; organizations with expertise in serving culturally diverse and non-English-speaking persons in an institutional setting, as selected by the department; health care professionals with experience caring for diverse and non-English-speaking patients, as selected by the department; licensed health care professionals with experience caring for geriatric patients, as selected by the department; and an Alzheimer’s advocacy organization. The work group may solicit input from individuals with additional expertise, if necessary.

(3) The work group shall make an interim report by September 1, 2019, and final recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees by September 1, 2020, and shall include a dissent report if agreement is not achieved among stakeholders and the department.

(4) The work group must submit recommendations for a quality metric system, propose a process for monitoring and tracking performance, and recommend a process to inform consumers.

(5) The department shall include at least one meeting dedicated to review and analysis of other states with quality metric methodologies for assisted living and must include information on how well each state is achieving quality care outcomes. In addressing data metrics the work group shall consider whether the data that must be reported reflect and promote quality of care and whether reporting the data is unnecessarily burdensome upon assisted living facilities.

Sec. 4. RCW 18.20.190 and 2012 c 10 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services is authorized to take one or more of the actions listed in subsection (2) of this section in any case in which the department finds that an assisted living facility provider has:

(a) Failed or refused to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;
(b) Operated an assisted living facility without a license or under a revoked license;

(c) Knowingly, or with reason to know, made a false statement of material fact on his or her application for license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department; or

(d) Willfully prevented or interfered with any inspection or investigation by the department.

(2) When authorized by subsection (1) of this section, the department may take one or more of the following actions, using a tiered sanction grid that considers the extent of harm from the deficiency and the regularity of the occurrence of the deficiency when imposing civil fines:

(a) Refuse to issue a license;

(b) Impose reasonable conditions on a license, such as correction within a specified time, training, and limits on the type of clients the provider may admit or serve;

(c) Impose civil penalties of ((not more than)) at least one hundred dollars per day per violation. Until July 1, 2019, the civil penalties may not exceed one thousand dollars per day per violation. Beginning July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2020, the civil penalties may not exceed two thousand dollars per day per violation. Beginning July 1, 2020, the civil penalties may not exceed three thousand dollars per day per violation;

(d) Impose civil penalties of up to ten thousand dollars for a current or former licensed provider who is operating an unlicensed facility;

(e) Suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a license;

((444)) (f) Suspend admissions to the assisted living facility by imposing stop placement; or ((444)) (g) Suspend admission of a specific category or categories of residents as related to the violation by imposing a limited stop placement.

(3) When the department orders stop placement or a limited stop placement, the facility shall not admit any new resident until the stop placement or limited stop placement order is terminated. The department may approve readmission of a resident to the facility from a hospital or nursing home during the stop placement or limited stop placement when: (a) The violations necessitating the stop placement or limited stop placement have been corrected; and (b) the provider exhibits the capacity to maintain correction of the violations previously found deficient. However, if upon the revisit the department finds new violations that the department reasonably believes will result in a new stop placement or new limited stop placement, the previous stop placement or limited stop placement shall remain in effect until the new stop placement or new limited stop placement is imposed.

(4) After a department finding of a violation for which a stop placement or limited stop placement has been imposed, the department shall make an on-site revisit of the provider within fifteen working days from the request for revisit, to ensure correction of the violation. For violations that are serious or recurring or uncorrected following a previous citation, and create actual or threatened harm to one or more residents' well-being, including violations of residents' rights, the department shall make an on-site revisit as soon as appropriate to ensure correction of the violation. Verification of correction of all other violations may be made by either a department on-site revisit or by written or photographic documentation found by the department to be credible. This subsection does not prevent the department from enforcing license suspensions or revocations. Nothing in this subsection shall interfere with or diminish the department's authority and duty to ensure that the provider adequately cares for residents, including to make departmental on-site revisits as needed to ensure that the provider protects residents, and to enforce compliance with this chapter.

(5) RCW 43.20A.205 governs notice of a license denial, revocation, suspension, or modification. Chapter 34.05 RCW applies to department actions under this section, except that orders of the department imposing license suspension, stop placement, limited stop placement, or conditions for continuation of a license are effective immediately upon notice and shall continue pending any hearing.

(6) All receipts from civil penalties imposed under this chapter must be deposited in the assisted living facility temporary management account created in RCW 18.20.430.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "limited stop placement" means the ability to suspend admission of a specific category or categories of residents.

Sec. 5. RCW 18.20.430 and 2016 sp.s. c 36 s 912 are each amended to read as follows:

The assisted living facility temporary management account is created in the custody of the state treasurer. All receipts from civil penalties imposed under this chapter must be deposited into the account. Only the director or the director's designee may authorize expenditures from the account. The account is subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but an appropriation is not required for expenditures. Expenditures from the account may be used only for the protection of the health, safety, welfare, or property of residents of assisted living facilities found to be deficient. Uses of the account include, but are not limited to:

(1) Payment for the costs of relocation of residents to other facilities;

(2) Payment to maintain operation of an assisted living facility pending correction of deficiencies or closure, including payment of costs associated with temporary management authorized under this chapter; (and)

(3) Reimbursement of residents for personal funds or property lost or stolen when the resident's personal funds or property cannot be recovered from the assisted living facility or third-party insurer; and

(4) The protection of the health, safety, welfare, and property of residents of assisted living facilities found to be noncompliant with licensing standards.

(During the 2015-2017 fiscal biennium, the account may be expended for funding the costs associated with the assisted living program.)"

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "facilities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.20.190 and 18.20.430; adding new sections to chapter 18.20 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties."

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2750, as amended by the Senate, having received the necessary constitutional majority, was declared passed.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2990 with the following amendment:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 47.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds funding of the Tacoma Narrows bridge facility to be distinct from other Washington state tolling facilities due to its increasing debt service costs, which is the primary driver of the facility's escalating costs. Washington state has since recommended and established financing structures with steadier levels of debt service payments for subsequent tolled transportation facilities, supporting better management of the state's debt burden and a lower financial burden for toll ratepayers.

(2) The Tacoma Narrows bridge facility debt service structure resulted, in part, from a decision by the legislature to fund construction of the bridge without drawing from state tax dollars. As a result, toll revenue was committed to fund ninety-nine percent of bridge construction costs, as well as the associated interest payments and other associated debt service costs. This is not the standard more recently utilized by the legislature, as is the case of the state route 520 bridge's construction, seventy-two percent of which is to be paid for with toll revenues. In light of the maximum burden for bridge construction that was placed on Tacoma Narrows bridge toll ratepayers, there is no equitable reason that the burden of future debt service payment increases should be borne by these same toll ratepayers.

(3) The legislature established the Tacoma Narrows bridge work group in 2017 and tasked it with identifying opportunities for long-term toll payer relief from increasing toll rates on the Tacoma Narrows bridge. The work group recommended a request of up to one hundred twenty-five million dollars in state funding from the legislature to offset future debt service payment increases, allocated across the remaining years of tolling at levels that result in maintaining toll rates at fiscal year 2018 levels.

(4) Due to the findings aforementioned, an alternative is put forward by the legislature. State contribution loans for each fiscal biennium are to be made through the life of the debt service plan of up to a total of eighty-five million dollars, and will be repaid in annual amounts beginning after the debt service and deferred sales tax are fully repaid. It is the intent of the legislature that the commission will:

(a) Maintain tolls at no more than toll rates effective at the fiscal year 2018 level until fiscal year 2022; and

(b) Maintain tolls at no more than twenty-five cents higher than the toll rates effective at the fiscal year 2018 level beginning in fiscal year 2022 until such time as the debt service and deferred sales tax obligation is fully met according to the repayment schedule in place as of the effective date of this section and until any state contribution loans are fully repaid.

(5) To offset part of the toll rate increases that would otherwise be necessary to meet increases in future debt service payments, it is the intent of the legislature that the state treasurer make state contribution loan transfers to the Tacoma Narrows toll bridge account created in RCW 47.56.165 on the first day of each fiscal biennium, beginning in the 2019-2021 fiscal biennium, through the life of the debt service plan. It is the intent of the legislature that the state treasurer make state contribution loan transfers in amounts necessary to ensure debt service payments are made in full after toll revenue from the Tacoma Narrows bridge toll facility is applied to the debt payment amounts and other required costs.

(6) This section does not create a private right of action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 47.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Through 2031, the commission shall submit to the transportation committees of the legislature on an annual basis a report that includes sufficient information to enable the legislature to determine an adequate amount of contribution from nontoll sources required for each fiscal biennium to maintain tolls at no more than twenty-five cents higher than the toll rates effective at the fiscal year 2018 level, while also maintaining the debt service plan repayment schedule in place as of the effective date of this section. The report must be submitted by January 5th of each year.
(2) Beginning in 2031, and until such time as the state contribution loans described in section 1(4) of this act are repaid, the commission shall submit to the transportation committees of the legislature on an annual basis a report that includes information detailing the annual expected toll revenue to be used for repayment of the state contribution loans while maintaining tolls at no more than twenty-five cents higher than the toll rates effective at the fiscal year 2018 level. The report must be submitted by January 5th of each year.

(3) This section does not create a private right of action.

Sec. 3. RCW 47.46.110 and 2002 c 114 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall retain toll charges on any existing and future facilities constructed under this chapter and financed primarily by bonds issued by the state until:

(a) All costs of investigation, financing, acquisition of property, and construction advanced from the motor vehicle fund have been fully repaid, except as provided in subsection (2)(b) of this section;

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6140, by Senators King, Van De Wege and Sheldon

Promoting the efficient and effective management of state-managed lands.

The bill was read the second time.

There being no objection, the committee amendment by the Committee on Agriculture & Natural Resources was before the House for purpose of amendment. (For Committee amendment, see Journal, Day 50, February 26, 2018).

Representative Tharinger moved the adoption of amendment (1466) to the committee striking amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 31 of the striking amendment, strike all of section 6 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 79.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the availability of funds appropriated for this specific purpose, the department of natural resources must conduct an asset valuation of state lands and state forestlands held in trust and managed by the department. The asset valuation required in subsections (3) and (4) may be provided through contracted services.

(2) The department must describe all trust lands, by trust, including timber lands, agricultural lands, commercial lands, and other lands, and identify revenues from leases or other sources for those lands. The department must briefly describe the income from these trust lands, and potential enhancements to income, including intergenerational income, from the asset bases of these trusts.

(3) The asset valuation must estimate the current fair market value of these lands for each trust beneficiary, including the separate beneficiaries of state lands as defined in RCW 79.02.010, and the beneficiaries of state forestlands as specified in chapter 79.22 RCW. The estimation of current fair market values must specify the values by the various asset classes, including but not limited to: timber lands; irrigated agriculture; dryland agriculture, including grazing lands; commercial real estate; mining, and; other income production. The asset valuation must also estimate the value of ecosystem services and recreation benefits for asset classes that produce these benefits. The legislature encourages the department and its contractors to develop methods and tools to allow tracking of the estimated fair market values over time.

(4) For each of the different asset classes and for each of the various trusts, the asset valuation must calculate the average annual gross and net income as a percentage of estimated current asset value.

(5) The department must provide a progress report by December 1, 2018. A follow-up progress report must be provided by December 1, 2019 and may include any initial recommendations. The final report must be submitted by June 30, 2020 and must include options to:

(a) Improve the net rates of return on different classes of assets;

(b) Increase the reliability of, and enhance if possible, revenue for trust beneficiaries; and

(c) Present and explain factors that either (i) define, (ii) constrict, or (iii) define and constrict the department's management practices and revenue production. The factors to be considered include, but are not limited to: statutory, constitutional, operational, and social."

On page 6, after line 11 of the striking amendment, insert the following:

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6362, by Senate Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators Wellman, Rolfes and Billig)

Modifying basic education provisions. Revised for 2nd Substitute: Modifying basic education funding provisions.

The bill was read the second time.

There being no objection, the committee amendment by the Committee on Appropriations was not adopted. (For Committee amendment, see Journal, Day 50, February 26, 2018).
With the consent of the house, amendments (1393), (1447), (1329), (1392), (1362), (1374) and (1382) to the committee striking amendment were out of order.

Representative Dolan moved the adoption of the striking amendment (1472):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I: PROGRAM FUNDING"

Sec. 101. RCW 28A.150.260 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 402 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this section is to provide for the allocation of state funding that the legislature deems necessary to support school districts in offering the minimum instructional program of basic education under RCW 28A.150.220. The allocation shall be determined as follows:

(1) The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula for the distribution of a basic education instructional allocation for each common school district.

(2)(a) The distribution formula under this section shall be for allocation purposes only. Except as may be required under subsections (4)(b) and (c) and (9) of this section, chapter 28A.155, 28A.165, 28A.180, or 28A.185 RCW, or federal laws and regulations, nothing in this section requires school districts to use basic education instructional funds to implement a particular instructional approach or service. Nothing in this section requires school districts to maintain a particular classroom teacher-to-student ratio or other staff-to-student ratio or to use allocated funds to pay for particular types or classifications of staff. Nothing in this section entitles an individual teacher to a particular teacher planning period.

(b) To promote transparency in state funding allocations, the superintendent of public instruction must report state per-pupil allocations by grade for each school district. The superintendent must report this information in a user-friendly format on the main page of the office's web site and on school district apportionment reports. School districts must include a link to the superintendent's per-pupil allocations report on the main page of the school district's web site. In addition, the budget documents published by the legislature for the enacted omnibus operating appropriations act must report statewide average per-pupil allocations for general apportionment and the categorical programs listed in this subsection.

(3)(a) To the extent the technical details of the formula have been adopted by the legislature and except when specifically provided as a school district allocation, the distribution formula for the basic education instructional allocation shall be based on minimum staffing and nonstaff costs the legislature deems necessary to support instruction and operations in prototypical schools serving high, middle, and elementary school students as provided in this section. The use of prototypical schools for the distribution formula does not constitute legislative intent that schools should be operated or structured in a similar fashion as the prototypes. Prototypical schools illustrate the level of resources needed to operate a school of a particular size with particular types and grade levels of students using commonly understood terms and inputs, such as class size, hours of instruction, and various categories of school staff. It is the intent that the funding allocations to school districts be adjusted from the school prototypes based on the actual number of annual average full-time equivalent students in each grade level at each school in the district and not based on the grade-level configuration of the school to the extent that data is available. The allocations shall be further adjusted from the school prototypes with minimum allocations for small schools and to reflect other factors identified in the omnibus appropriations act.

(b) For the purposes of this section, prototypical schools are defined as follows:
(i) A prototypical high school has six hundred average annual full-time equivalent students in grades nine through twelve;

(ii) A prototypical middle school has four hundred thirty-two average annual full-time equivalent students in grades seven and eight; and

(iii) A prototypical elementary school has four hundred average annual full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through six.

(4)(a)(i) The minimum allocation for each level of prototypical school shall be based on the number of full-time equivalent classroom teachers needed to provide instruction over the minimum required annual instructional hours under RCW 28A.150.220 and provide at least one teacher planning period per school day, and based on the following general education average class size of full-time equivalent students per teacher:

(ii) The minimum class size allocation for each prototypical high school shall also provide for enhanced funding for class size reduction for two laboratory science classes within grades nine through twelve per full-time equivalent high school student multiplied by a laboratory science course factor of 0.0833, based on the number of full-time equivalent classroom teachers needed to provide instruction over the minimum required annual instructional hours in RCW 28A.150.220, and providing at least one teacher planning period per school day:

(ii) The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules to implement this subsection (4)(b).

(c)(i) The minimum allocation for each prototypical middle and high school shall also provide for full-time equivalent classroom teachers based on the following number of full-time equivalent students per teacher in career and technical education:

(c) Preparatory career and technical education courses for students in grades eleven and twelve offered through a skill center.

(10) In addition to the allocations otherwise provided under this section, amounts shall be provided to support the following programs and services:

(a)(i) To provide supplemental instruction and services for students who are not meeting academic standards through the learning assistance program under RCW 28A.165.005 through 28A.165.065, allocations shall be based on the district percentage of students in grades K-12 who were eligible for free or reduced-price meals in the prior school year. The minimum allocation for the program shall provide for each level of prototypical school resources to provide, on a statewide average, 2.3975 hours per week in extra instruction with a class size of fifteen learning assistance program students per teacher.

(ii) In addition to funding allocated under (a)(i) of this subsection, to provide supplemental instruction and services for students who are not meeting academic standards in (schools where at least fifty percent of students are eligible for free and reduced-price meals) qualifying schools. A qualifying school means a school in which the three-year rolling average of the prior year total annual average enrollment that qualifies for free or reduced-price meals equals or exceeds fifty percent or more of its total annual average enrollment. The minimum allocation for this additional high poverty-based allocation must provide for each level of prototypical school resources to provide, on a statewide average, 1.1 hours per week in extra instruction with a class size of fifteen learning assistance program students per teacher, under RCW 28A.165.055, school districts must distribute the high poverty-based allocation to the schools that generated the funding allocation.

(b)(i) To provide supplemental instruction and services for students whose primary language is other than English, allocations shall be based on the head count number of students in each school who are eligible for and enrolled in the transitional bilingual instruction program under RCW 28A.180.010 through 28A.180.080. The minimum allocation for each level of prototypical school shall provide resources to provide, on a statewide average, 4.7780 hours per week in extra instruction for students in grades kindergarten through six and 6.7780 hours per week in extra instruction for students in grades seven through twelve, with fifteen transitional bilingual instruction program students per teacher. Notwithstanding other provisions of this subsection (10), the actual per-student allocation may be scaled to provide a larger allocation for students needing more intensive intervention and a commensurate reduced allocation for students needing less intensive intervention, as detailed in the omnibus appropriations act.
(ii) To provide supplemental instruction and services for students who have exited the transitional bilingual program, allocations shall be based on the head count number of students in each school who have exited the transitional bilingual program within the previous two years based on their performance on the English proficiency assessment and are eligible for and enrolled in the transitional bilingual instruction program under RCW 28A.180.040(1)(g). The minimum allocation for each prototypical school shall provide resources to provide, on a statewide average, 3.0 hours per week in extra instruction with fifteen exited students per teacher.

(c) To provide additional allocations to support programs for highly capable students under RCW 28A.185.010 through 28A.185.030, allocations shall be based on 5.0 percent of each school district's full-time equivalent basic education enrollment. The minimum allocation for the programs shall provide resources to provide, on a statewide average, 2.1590 hours per week in extra instruction with fifteen highly capable program students per teacher.

(11) The allocations under subsections (4)(a), (5), (6), and (8) of this section shall be enhanced as provided under RCW 28A.150.390 on an excess cost basis to provide supplemental instructional resources for students with disabilities.

(12)(a) For the purposes of allocations for prototypical high schools and middle schools under subsections (4) and (10) of this section that are based on the percent of students in the school who are eligible for free and reduced-price meals, the actual percent of such students in a school shall be adjusted by a factor identified in the omnibus appropriations act to reflect underreporting of free and reduced-price meal eligibility among middle and high school students.

(b) Allocations or enhancements provided under subsections (4), (7), and (9) of this section for exploratory and preparatory career and technical education courses shall be provided only for courses approved by the office of the superintendent of public instruction under chapter 28A.700 RCW.

(13)(a) This formula for distribution of basic education funds shall be reviewed biennially by the superintendent and governor. The recommended formula shall be subject to approval, amendment or rejection by the legislature.

(b) In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous school year shall remain in effect.

(c) The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full-time equivalent students and part-time students as provided in RCW 28A.150.350, enrolled on the first school day of each month, including students who are in attendance pursuant to RCW 28A.335.160 and 28A.225.250 who do not reside within the servicing school district. The definition of full-time equivalent student shall be determined by rules of the superintendent of public instruction and shall be included as part of the superintendent's biennial budget request. The definition shall be based on the minimum instructional hour offerings required under RCW 28A.150.220. Any revision of the present definition shall not take effect until approved by the house ways and means committee and the senate ways and means committee.

(d) The office of financial management shall make a monthly review of the superintendent's reported full-time equivalent students in the common schools in conjunction with RCW 43.62.050.

Sec. 102. RCW 28A.150.390 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 406 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall submit to each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year a programmed budget request for special education programs for students with disabilities. Funding for programs operated by local school districts shall be on an excess cost basis from appropriations provided by the legislature for special education programs for students with disabilities and shall take account of state funds accruing through RCW 28A.150.260 (4)(a), (5), (6), and (8) and 28A.150.415.

(2) The excess cost allocation to school districts shall be based on the following:

(a) A district's annual average headcount enrollment of students ages birth through four and those five year olds not yet enrolled in kindergarten who are eligible for and enrolled in special education, multiplied by the district's base allocation per full-time equivalent student, multiplied by 1.15; and

(b) A district's annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment, multiplied by the district's funded enrollment percent, multiplied by the district's base allocation per full-time equivalent student, multiplied by $(0.9609)$.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Base allocation" means the total state allocation to all schools in the district generated by the distribution formula under RCW 28A.150.260 (4)(a), (5), (6), and (8) and 28A.150.415, to be divided by the district's full-time equivalent enrollment.

(b) "Basic education enrollment" means enrollment of resident students including nonresident students enrolled under RCW 28A.225.225 and students from nonhigh districts enrolled under RCW 28A.225.210 and excluding students residing in another district enrolled as part of an interdistrict cooperative program under RCW 28A.225.250.

(c) "Enrollment percent" means the district's resident special education annual average enrollment, excluding students ages birth through four and those five year olds not yet enrolled in kindergarten, as a percent of the district's annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment.

(d) "Funded enrollment percent" means the lesser of the district's actual enrollment percent or thirteen and five-tenths percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. A new section is added to chapter 28A.160 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the availability of amounts appropriated for this specific purpose, a transportation alternate funding grant program is created.

(2) As part of the award process for the grants, the superintendent of public instruction must include a review of the school district's efficiency rating, key performance indicators, and local school district characteristics such as unique geographic constraints, low enrollment, geographic density of students, the percentage of students served under the McKinney-Vento homeless assistance act from outside the district, or whether the district is a nonhigh district.

Sec. 104. RCW 28A.165.055 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 405 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The funds for the learning assistance program shall be appropriated in accordance with RCW 28A.150.260 and the omnibus appropriations act. The distribution formula is for school district allocation purposes only, except as provided in RCW 28A.150.260(10)(a)(ii), but all funds appropriated for the learning assistance program must be expended for the purposes of RCW 28A.165.005 through 28A.165.065.

(2) A district's high poverty-based allocation is generated by its qualifying schools as defined in RCW 28A.150.260(10) and must be expended by the district for those schools. This funding must supplement and not supplant the district's expenditures under this chapter for those schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. A new section is added to chapter 28A.300 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction must require school districts to have identification procedures for their highly capable programs that are clearly stated and implemented by school districts using the following criteria:

(a) Districts must use multiple objective criteria to identify students who are among the most highly capable. Multiple pathways for qualifications must be available and no single criterion may disqualify a student from identification;

(b) Highly capable selection decisions must be based on consideration of criteria benchmarked on local norms, but local norms may not be used as a more restrictive criteria than national norms at the same percentile;

(c) Subjective measures such as teacher recommendations or report card grades may not be used to screen out a student from assessment. These data points may be used alongside other criteria during selection to support identification, but may not be used to disqualify a student from being identified; and

(d) To the extent practicable, screening and assessments must be given in the native language of the student. If native language screening and assessments are not available, a nonverbal screening and assessment must be used.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction must disseminate guidance on referral, screening, selection, and placement best practices for highly capable programs. The guidance must be regularly updated and aligned with evidence-based practices.

Sec. 106. RCW 28A.150.392 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 407 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) To the extent necessary, funds shall be made available for safety net awards for districts with demonstrated needs for special education funding beyond the amounts provided through the special education funding formula under RCW 28A.150.390.

(b) If the federal safety net awards based on the federal eligibility threshold exceed the federal appropriation in any fiscal year, then the superintendent shall expend all available federal discretionary funds necessary to meet this need.

(2) Safety net funds shall be awarded by the state safety net oversight committee subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) The committee shall award additional funds for districts that can convincingly demonstrate that all legitimate expenditures for special education exceed all available revenues from state funding formulas.

(b) In the determination of need, the committee shall consider additional available revenues from federal sources.

(c) Differences in program costs attributable to district philosophy, service delivery choice, or accounting practices are not a legitimate basis for safety net awards.

(d) In the determination of need, the committee shall require that districts demonstrate that they are maximizing their eligibility for all state revenues related to services for special education-eligible students and all federal revenues from federal impact aid, medicaid, and the individuals with disabilities education act-Part B and appropriate special projects. Awards associated with (e) and (f) of this subsection shall not exceed the total of a district's specific determination of need.

(e) The committee shall then consider the extraordinary high cost needs of one or more individual special education students. Differences in costs attributable to district philosophy, service delivery choice, or accounting practices are not a legitimate basis for safety net awards.

(f) Using criteria developed by the committee, the committee shall then consider extraordinary costs associated with communities that draw a larger number of families with children in need of special education services, which may include consideration of proximity to group homes, military bases, and regional hospitals. Safety net awards under this subsection (2)(f) shall be adjusted to reflect amounts awarded under (e) of this subsection.

(g) The committee shall then consider the extraordinary high cost needs of one or more individual special education students served in residential schools as defined in RCW 28A.190.020, programs for juveniles under the department of corrections, and programs for juveniles operated by city and county jails to the extent they are providing a program of education for students enrolled in special education.

(h) The maximum allowable indirect cost for calculating safety net eligibility may not exceed the federal restricted indirect cost rate for the district plus one percent.

(((i))) (i) Safety net awards shall be adjusted based on the percent of potential medicaid eligible students billed as calculated by the superintendent of public instruction in accordance with chapter 318, Laws of 1999.

(((j))) (j) Safety net awards must be adjusted for any audit findings or exceptions related to special education funding.
(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt such rules and procedures as are necessary to administer the special education funding and safety net award process. By ((September 1, 2019)) December 1, 2018, the superintendent shall review and revise the rules to achieve full and complete implementation of the requirements of this subsection and subsection (4) of this section including revisions to rules that provide additional flexibility to access community impact awards. Before revising any standards, procedures, or rules, the superintendent shall consult with the office of financial management and the fiscal committees of the legislature. In adopting and revising the rules, the superintendent shall ensure the application process to access safety net funding is streamlined, timelines for submission are not in conflict, feedback to school districts is timely and provides sufficient information to allow school districts to understand how to correct any deficiencies in a safety net application, and that there is consistency between awards approved by school district and by application period. The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall also provide technical assistance to school districts in preparing and submitting special education safety net applications.

(4) On an annual basis, the superintendent shall survey districts regarding their satisfaction with the safety net process and consider feedback from districts to improve the safety net process. Each year by December 1st, the superintendent shall prepare and submit a report to the office of financial management and the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature that summarizes the survey results and those changes made to the safety net process as a result of the school district feedback.

(5) The safety net oversight committee appointed by the superintendent of public instruction shall consist of:

(a) One staff member from the office of the superintendent of public instruction;

(b) Staff of the office of the state auditor who shall be nonvoting members of the committee; and

(c) One or more representatives from school districts or educational service districts knowledgeable of special education programs and funding.

PART II: COMPENSATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. The legislature recognizes that Initiative Measure No. 1433 was approved by the voters of the state of Washington in 2016 requiring employers to provide paid sick leave to each of its employees. The legislature acknowledges that the enactment of this initiative contributes to the costs of operations of the state's public schools and intends to provide funding in the omnibus appropriations act to support school districts with these additional costs.

Sec. 202. RCW 28A.150.410 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 101 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Through the 2017-18 school year, the legislature shall establish for each school year in the appropriations act a statewide salary allocation schedule, for allocation purposes only, to be used to distribute funds for basic education certificated instructional staff salaries under RCW 28A.150.260. For the purposes of this section, the staff allocations for classroom teachers, teacher-librarians, guidance counselors, and student health services staff under RCW 28A.150.260 are considered allocations for certificated instructional staff.

(2) Through the 2017-18 school year, salary allocations for state-funded basic education certificated instructional staff shall be calculated by the superintendent of public instruction by determining the district's average salary for certificated instructional staff, using the statewide salary allocation schedule and related documents, conditions, and limitations established by the omnibus appropriations act.

(3) Through the 2017-18 school year, no more than ninety college quarter-hour credits received by any employee after the baccalaureate degree may be used to determine compensation allocations under the state salary allocation schedule and LEAP documents referenced in the omnibus appropriations act, or any replacement schedules and documents, unless:

(a) The employee has a master's degree; or
(b) The credits were used in generating state salary allocations before January 1, 1992.

(4) Beginning in the 2007-08 school year and through the 2017-18 school year, the calculation of years of service for occupational therapists, physical therapists, speech-language pathologists, audiologists, nurses, social workers, counselors, and psychologists regulated under Title 18 RCW may include experience in schools and other nonschool positions as occupational therapists, physical therapists, speech-language pathologists, audiologists, nurses, social workers, counselors, or psychologists. The calculation shall be that one year of service in a nonschool position counts as one year of service for purposes of this chapter, up to a limit of two years of nonschool service. Nonschool years of service included in calculations under this subsection shall not be applied to service credit totals for purposes of any retirement benefit under chapter 41.32, 41.35, or 41.40 RCW, or any other state retirement system benefits.

(5) By the 2018-19 school year, the minimum state allocation for salaries for certificated instructional staff in the basic education program must be increased (beginning in the 2018-19 school year) to provide a statewide average allocation of sixty-four thousand dollars adjusted for inflation from the 2017-18 school year.

(6) By the 2018-19 school year, the minimum state allocation for salaries for certificated administrative staff in the basic education program must be increased (beginning in the 2018-19 school year) to provide a statewide average allocation of ninety-five thousand dollars adjusted for inflation from the 2017-18 school year.

(7) By the 2018-19 school year, the minimum state allocation for salaries for classified staff in the basic education program must be increased (beginning in the 2018-19 school year) to provide a statewide average allocation of forty-five thousand nine hundred twelve dollars adjusted by inflation from the 2017-18 school year.

(8) To implement the new minimum salary allocations in subsections (5) through (7) of this section, the legislature must fund fifty percent of the increased salary allocation in the 2018-19 school year and the entire increased salary allocation in the 2019-20 school year.) For school year 2018-19, a district's minimum state allocation for salaries is the greater of the district's 2017-18 state salary allocation, adjusted for inflation, or the district's allocation based on the state salary level specified in subsections (5) through (7) of this section, and as further specified in the omnibus appropriations act.

(9) Beginning with the 2018-19 school year, state allocations for salaries for certificated instructional staff, certificated administrative staff, and classified staff must be adjusted for regional differences in the cost of hiring staff. Adjustments for regional differences must be specified in the omnibus appropriations act for each school year through at least school year 2022-23. For school years 2018-19 through school year 2022-23, the school district regionalization factors are based on the median single-family residential value of each school district and proximate school district median single-family residential value as described in RCW 28A.150.412.

(10) Beginning with the 2023-24 school year and every four years thereafter, the minimum state salary allocations and school district regionalization factors for certificated instructional staff, certificated administrative staff, and classified staff must be reviewed and rebased, as provided under RCW 28A.150.412, to ensure that state salary allocations continue to align with staffing costs for the state's program of basic education.

(11) For the purposes of this section, "inflation" has the meaning provided in RCW 28A.400.205 for "inflationary adjustment index."

Sec. 203. RCW 28A.150.412 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 104 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Beginning with the 2023 regular legislative session, and every four years thereafter, the legislature shall review and rebase state basic education compensation allocations compared to school district compensation data, regionalization factors, what inflationary measure is the most representative of actual market experience for school districts, and other economic information. The legislature shall revise the minimum allocations, regionalization factors, and inflationary measure if necessary to ensure that state basic education allocations continue to provide market-rate salaries and that regionalization adjustments reflect actual economic differences between school districts.

(2)(a) For school districts with single-family residential values above the statewide median residential value, regionalization factors for school years 2018-19 through school year 2022-23 are as follows:

(i) For school districts in tercile 1, state salary allocations for school district employees are regionalized by six percent;

(ii) For school districts in tercile 2, state salary allocations for school district employees are regionalized by twelve percent; and

(iii) For school districts in tercile 3, state salary allocations for school district employees are regionalized by eighteen percent.

(b) In addition to the regionalization factors specified in (a) of this subsection, school districts located west of the crest of the Cascade mountains and sharing a boundary with any school district with a regionalization factor more than one tercile higher, are regionalized by six additional percentage points.

(c) In addition to the regionalization factors specified in this subsection, for school districts that have certificated instructional staff median years of experience that exceed the statewide average certificated instructional staff years of experience and a ratio of certificated instructional staff advanced degrees to bachelor degrees above the statewide ratio, an experience factor of four percentage points is added to the regionalization factor, beginning in the 2019-20 school year.

(d) Additional school district adjustments are identified in the omnibus appropriations act, and these adjustments are partially reduced or eliminated by the 2022-23 school year as follows:

(i) Adjustments that increase the regionalization factor to a value that is greater than the tercile 3 regionalization factor must be reduced by two percentage points each school year beginning with school year 2020-21, through 2022-23.

(ii) Adjustments that increase the regionalization factor to a value that is less than or equal to the tercile 3 regionalization factor must be reduced by one percentage point each school year beginning with school year 2020-21, through 2022-23.

(3) To aid the legislature in reviewing and rebasing regionalization factors, the department of revenue shall, by November 1, 2022, and by November 1st every four years thereafter, determine the median single-family residential value of each school district as well as the median value of proximate districts within fifteen miles of the boundary of the school district for which the median residential value is being calculated.

(4) No district may receive less state funding for the minimum state salary allocation as compared to its prior school year salary allocation as a result of adjustments that reflect updated regionalized salaries.

(5) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Median residential value of each school district" means the median value of all single-family residential parcels included within a school district and any other school district that is proximate to the school district.

(b) "Proximate to the school district" means within fifteen miles of the boundary of the school district for which the median residential value is being calculated.

(c) "School district employees" means state-funded certificated instructional staff, certificated administrative staff, and classified staff.

(d) "School districts in tercile 1" means school districts with median single-family residential values in the first tercile of districts with single-family residential values above the statewide median residential value.

(e) "School districts in tercile 2" means school districts with median single-family residential values in the second tercile of districts with single-family residential values above the statewide median residential value.

(f) "School districts in tercile 3" means school districts with median single-family residential values in the third tercile of districts with single-family residential values above the statewide median residential value.

(g) "Statewide median residential value" means the median value of single-family residential parcels located within all school districts, reduced by five percent.

Sec. 204. RCW 28A.400.006 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 703 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A school district may not ((provide any)) increase average total school district expenditures for certificated administrative staff ((with a percentage increase to total salary)) for the 2018-19 school year((, including supplemental contracts, that exceeds the previous calendar year's annual average consumer price index, using the official current base compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor, for the city of Seattle. However, if a district's average certificated administrative staff salary is less than the average certificated administrative salary allocated by the state for that year, the district may increase salaries not to exceed the point where the district's average certificated administrative staff salary equals the average certificated administrative staff salary allocated by the state)) in excess of the following:

(a) Annual salary inflationary adjustments based on the rate of the yearly increase of the previous calendar year's annual average consumer price index, using the official current base compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor, for the city of Seattle;

(b) Annual experience and education salary step increases according to what was the prior year's practice within the school district; or

(c) School districts with an average total certificated administrative staff salary less than the statewide average certificated administrative staff salary allocation used to distribute funds for basic education as estimated by the office of the superintendent of public instruction for the 2018-19 school year may provide salary increases up to the statewide average allocation.

(2) Changes to any terms of an employment contract for nonrepresented employees must comply with the same requirements established in this section.

(3) This section expires August 31, 2019.

Sec. 205. RCW 28A.400.200 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 103 are each amended to read as follows:

(i) Salaries for full-time certificated instructional staff must not be less than forty thousand dollars, to be adjusted for regional differences in the cost of hiring staff as specified in RCW 28A.150.410, and to be adjusted annually by the same inflationary measure as provided in RCW 28A.400.205;

(ii) Salaries for full-time certificated instructional staff with at least five years of experience must exceed by at least ten percent the value specified in (c)(i) of this subsection;

(iii) A district may not pay full-time certificated instructional staff a salary that exceeds ninety thousand dollars, subject to adjustment for regional differences in the cost of hiring staff as specified in RCW
28A.150.410. This maximum salary is adjusted annually by the inflationary measure in RCW 28A.400.205;

(iv) These minimum and maximum salaries apply to the services provided as part of the state's statutory program of basic education and exclude supplemental contracts for additional time, responsibility, or incentive pursuant to this section or for enrichment pursuant to RCW 28A.150.276;

(v) A district may pay a salary that exceeds this maximum salary by up to ten percent for full-time certificated instructional staff: Who are educational staff associates; who teach in the subjects of science, technology, engineering, or math; or who teach in the transitional bilingual instruction or special education programs.

(b) Through the 2018-19 school year, fringe benefit contributions for certificated instructional staff shall be included as salary under (a)(i) of this subsection only to the extent that the district's actual average benefit contribution exceeds the amount of the insurance benefits allocation, less the amount remitted by districts to the health care authority for retiree subsidies, provided per certificated instructional staff unit in the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the compensation is payable. (c)(i) Beginning September 1, 2019, supplemental contracts for certificated instructional staff are subject to the following additional restrictions: School districts may enter into supplemental contracts for certificated instructional staff under this subsection for the provision of services which are a part of the basic education program required by Article IX, section 1 of the state Constitution and RCW 28A.150.220.

(c) Salary and benefits for certificated instructional staff in programs other than basic education shall be consistent with the salary and benefits paid to certificated instructional staff in the basic education program.

(4)(a) Salaries and benefits for certificated instructional staff may exceed the limitations in subsection (3) of this section only by separate contract for additional time, for additional responsibilities, or for incentives. Supplemental contracts shall not cause the state to incur any present or future funding obligation. Supplemental contracts must be accounted for by a school district when the district is developing its four-year budget plan under RCW 28A.505.040.

(b) Supplemental contracts shall be subject to the collective bargaining provisions of chapter 41.59 RCW and the provisions of RCW 28A.405.240, shall not exceed one year, and if not renewed shall not constitute adverse change in accordance with RCW 28A.405.300 through 28A.405.380. (1) School district employees shall be provided an annual salary inflationary increase in accordance with this section.

(a) The inflationary increase shall be calculated by applying the rate of the yearly increase in the inflationary adjustment index to any state-funded salary base used in state funding formulas for teachers and other school district employees. Beginning with the (2020-21) 2019-20 school year, each school district shall be provided an inflationary adjustment allocation sufficient to grant this inflationary increase.

(b) A school district shall distribute its inflationary adjustment allocation for salaries and salary-related benefits in accordance with the district's collective bargaining agreements and compensation policies. No later than the end of the school year, each school district shall certify to the superintendent of public instruction that it has spent funds provided for inflationary increases on salaries and salary-related benefits.

(c) Any funded inflationary increase shall be included in the salary base used to determine inflationary increases for school employees in subsequent years. For teachers and other certificated instructional staff, the rate of the annual inflationary increase funded for certificated instructional staff shall be applied to the base salary used with the statewide salary allocation methodology established under RCW 28A.150.410 and to any other salary allocation methodologies used to recognize school district personnel costs.

(2) For an eligible school district, annual local effort assistance funding is equal to the school district's maximum local effort assistance multiplied by a fraction equal to the school district's actual enrichment levy divided by the school district's maximum allowable enrichment levy.

(3) The state local effort assistance funding provided under this section is not part of the state's program of basic education deemed by the legislature to comply with the requirements of Article IX, section 1 of the state Constitution.

(4) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Eligible school district" means a school district whose maximum allowable enrichment levy divided by the school district's total student enrollment in the prior school year is less than the state local effort assistance threshold.

(b) For the purpose of this section, "inflation" means ((inflation as defined in RCW 84.55.005)), for any school year, the rate of the yearly increase of the previous calendar year's annual average consumer price index for all urban consumers, Seattle area, using the official current base compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

Sec. 304. RCW 28A.505.240 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 204 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As required by RCW 84.52.053(4), before a school district may submit an enrichment levy (including a transportation vehicle enrichment levy) under RCW 84.52.053 to the voters, it must have received approval from the office of the superintendent of public instruction of an expenditure plan for the district's enrichment levy and other local revenues as defined in RCW 28A.150.276. Within thirty days after receiving the plan the office of the superintendent of public instruction must notify the school district whether the spending plan is approved. If the office of the superintendent of public instruction rejects a district's proposed spending plan, then the district may submit a revised spending plan, and the superintendent must approve or reject the revised submission within thirty days. (2)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, after a school district has received voter approval for a levy for an enrichment levy under RCW 84.52.053, a school district may change its spending plan for the voter-approved levy by submitting a revised spending plan to the office of the superintendent of public instruction for review and approval. To revise a previously approved spending plan, the district must provide notice and an opportunity for review and comment at an open meeting of the school board, and the board must adopt the revised spending plan by resolution. The board must then submit the plan to the office of the superintendent of public instruction. Within thirty days after receiving the revised spending plan the office must notify the school district whether the revised spending plan is approved. The office of the superintendent of public instruction may approve a revised spending plan only if it determines that the enrichment levy and other local revenues as defined in RCW 28A.150.276(1) will be used solely for permitted enrichment activities as provided in RCW 28A.150.276(2).

(b) If the superintendent has approved expenditures for specific purposes under (a) of this subsection, a district may change the relative amounts to be spent for those respective purposes for the same levy in subsequent years without having to first receive approval for the change from the office of the superintendent of public instruction if the district adopts the change as part of its annual budget proposal after a public hearing under RCW 28A.505.060.

Sec. 306.  RCW 84.52.053 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 201 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of taxes by school districts, when authorized so to do by the voters of such school district in the manner and for the purposes and number of years allowable under Article VII, section 2(a) and Article IX, section 1 of the Constitution of this state. Elections for such taxes shall be held in the year in which the levy is made or, in the case of propositions authorizing two-year through four-year levies for enrichment funding for a school district, authorizing two-year levies for transportation vehicle funds established in RCW 28A.160.130 ((through calendar year 2019, authorizing two-year levies for transportation vehicle enrichment beginning with calendar year 2020,)) or authorizing two-year through six-year levies to support the construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities, which includes the purposes of RCW 28A.320.330(2) (f) and (g), in the year in which the first annual levy is made.

(2)(a) Once additional tax levies have been authorized for enrichment funding for a school district for a two-year through four-year period as provided under subsection (1) of this section, no further additional tax levies for enrichment funding for the district for that period may be authorized, except for additional levies to provide for subsequently enacted increases affecting the district's maximum levy.

(ii) An election for a proposition authorizing additional tax levies may be called and held before the effective date of dissolution to provide for increases due to the dissolution.

(iii) In the event a replacement levy election under (b)(i) of this subsection is held but does not pass, the affected school district may subsequently hold a supplemental levy election pursuant to (b)(ii) of this subsection if the supplemental levy election is held before the effective date of dissolution. In the event a supplemental levy election is held under (b)(ii) of this subsection but does not pass, the affected school district may subsequently hold a replacement levy election pursuant to (b)(i) of this subsection if the replacement levy election is held before the effective date of dissolution. Failure of a replacement levy or supplemental levy election does not affect any previously approved and existing enrichment levy within the affected school district or districts.

(c) For the purpose of applying the limitation of this subsection (2), a two-year through six-year levy to support the construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities shall not be deemed to be a tax levy for enrichment funding for a school district.

(3) A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of school directors, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no."

(4) (a) Beginning September 1, 2018, school districts may use enrichment levies solely to enrich the state's statutory program of basic education as authorized under RCW 28A.150.276.

(a) For the purpose of this section, "inflation" means (inflation as defined in RCW 84.55.005), for any school year, the rate of the yearly increase of the previous calendar year's annual average consumer price index for all urban consumers, Seattle area, using the official current base compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

(b) "Maximum per-pupil limit" means two thousand five hundred dollars, multiplied by the number of average annual (resident) full-time equivalent students enrolled in the school district in the prior school year. Beginning with property taxes levied for collection in 2020, the maximum per-pupil limit shall be increased by inflation.

(c) "Prior school year" means the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(3) For districts in a high/nonhigh relationship, the enrollments of the nonhigh students attending the high school shall only be counted by the nonhigh school districts for purposes of funding under this section.

(4) For school districts participating in an innovation academy cooperative established under RCW 28A.340.080, enrollments of students attending the academy shall be adjusted so that each participant district receives its proportional share of student enrollments for purposes of funding under this section.

(5) Beginning with propositions for enrichment levies for collection in calendar year 2020 and thereafter, a district must receive approval of an enrichment levy expenditure plan under RCW 28A.505.240 before submission of the proposition to the voters.

(6) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(7) Beginning with taxes levied for collection in 2018, enrichment levy revenues must be deposited in a separate subfund of the school district's general fund pursuant to RCW 28A.320.330, and are subject to the restrictions of RCW 28A.150.276 and the audit requirements of RCW 43.09.2856.

(8) Funds collected from transportation vehicle enrichment levies shall not be subject to the levy limitations in) levies for transportation vehicles, construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities as established in RCW 84.52.053 are not subject to the levy limitations in subsections (1) through (5) of this section.

subsection for either of the respective school years or if a school district meets the criteria under subsection (2) of this section.

(a) The current school year is calculated as the sum of (a)(i) through (iii) of this subsection using the enrollments and values in effect for that school year for the school district's:

(i) Formula-driven state allocations in part V of the state omnibus appropriations act for these programs: General apportionment, employee compensation adjustments, pupil transportation, special education programs, institutional education programs, transitional bilingual programs, highly capable, and learning assistance programs;

(ii) Local effort assistance funding received under chapter 28A.500 RCW; and

(iii) The lesser of the school district's voter-approved enrichment levy collection or the maximum levy authority provided under RCW 84.52.0531 for the previous calendar year.

(b) The baseline school year is calculated as the sum of (b)(i) through (iii) of this subsection using the current school year enrollments and the values in effect during the 2017-18 school year for the school district's:

(i) Formula-driven state allocations in part V of the state omnibus appropriations act for these programs: General apportionment, employee compensation adjustments, pupil transportation, special education programs, institutional education programs, transitional bilingual programs, highly capable, and learning assistance programs;

(a) The sum of the school district's enrichment levy under RCW 84.52.0531 and 2017 3rd sp.s. c 13 s 203 and local effort assistance under RCW 28A.500.015 is less than half of the sum of the maintenance and operations levy and local effort assistance provided under law as it existed on January 1, 2017. For purposes of the calculation in this subsection, the maintenance and operations levy is limited to the lesser of the voter-approved levy as of January 1, 2017, or the maximum levy under law as of January 1, 2017; and

(b) The adjusted assessed value of property within the school district as calculated by the department of revenue is greater than twenty billion dollars in calendar year 2017.

(3) Districts eligible for hold-harmless payments under subsection (1) of this section shall receive the difference between subsection (1)(b) and (a) of this section through the apportionment payment process in RCW 28A.510.250.

The professional learning allocation shall be equal to the proportional increase resulting from adding the professional learning days provided in subsection (1) of this section to the required minimum number of school days in RCW 28A.150.220(5)(a) applied to the school district's minimum state allocation for salaries and associated fringe benefits for certificated instructional staff as specified in the omnibus appropriations act. Professional learning allocations shall be included in per-pupil calculations for programs funded on a per student rate calculation.

Representative McDonald moved adoption of HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4688

Representative McDonald: “Thank you Madame Speaker. I am so very honored to stand here and honor my seatmate. Most of you don’t know but I met Melanie when she was 14 or 15 years old and she actually served as my seatmate and for me seeing your enthusiasm, that helped. I want to ask God to bless you today. Thank you for being my seatmate and for me seeing your enthusiasm, that helped. Thank you.”

Representative Sawyer: “Thank you Madame Speaker. It’s very rare that I get up on the House floor if it’s not my bill or my committee but I wanted to take a moment and thank the Representative from the 25th for her service and just to thank you for showing us your grace and your leadership over the four years that you’ve been here. But this isn’t a retirement speech. You could live twice as long, take a decade off and still be younger than my seatmate. So one thing I’ve gotten, I’ve had the opportunity to get to know Representative Stambaugh for the last four years, and I’ve learned a lot from her. She’s shown me a lot about what it’s like to stand at a tempest and to stand by who you are no matter what’s coming at you when you feel you’re in the right, and no matter your age, I think we’ve all learned, I think, a lot from her to show what poise it takes to take such stances that you’ve taken and to be on the receiving end of what you’ve been on the receiving end of, and there are a couple of things I’ve also realized that, you know, kind of stealing from a movie a little bit, but you never get involved in a land war in Asia and you never cross a Stambaugh woman. I have seen the Representative, I asked her permission to tell this story, but I’ve, I think I’ve seen her cry on two occasions and it’s never out of sadness, it’s only out of anger and when you see that kind of resolve and her ability to handle anything, I just am, I think so blessed to know you as a friend, and I’m so blessed to have served with you and I think we all can take some lessons and I think you’ve left an imprint her for all of us, so thank you.”

“Representative Barkis: Thank you Madame Speaker. It is truly an honor to rise today for I have had a great experience, a unique experience and one that I have to tell you started with being intimidated and I was telling this to the good lady from the 25th that, you know, I’m new but I’m not young and I’ve been around in business and different various things I’ve done in my life but when I was told that I was going to be sitting in the front row, intimidation number one and then I was told that I was going to be sitting next to the good lady from the 25th I thought “Oh boy” because I’ve never seen somebody with such poise and grace Representative Senn: “Thank you Madame Speaker. It is with great honor and pride that I stand to honor the good lady from the 25th who has been a mentor to me in my first two years here. Who has helped me to be a better legislator and who I know will help countless numbers of people out in the world to be better people. To be better leaders. She is going to be truly missed and I’m going to miss sitting by her here on the floor. Thank you.”

They continue to be there. And then just lastly, you truly remind us on this House floor the importance of diversity in all that it means and obviously a number of us have mentioned this but, the importance of diversity around age as well and you constantly speak up for our youth and you make sure that we remember that there is an important youth voice. It might be different from other voices that we hear and you are an unbelievable champion and a stalwart of reflecting that voice. So, Gods speed and you’ll be missed and I’m sure we will not, this will not be the last, that we hear of you.”

There being no objection, HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4688 was adopted.

Representative Hayes moved adoption of HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4686

Representative Hayes: "Thank you Madame Speaker. You know we’re losing some great members here over the last couple of days. Something you and I can certainly agree with but here, this afternoon, I’m standing to honor a good friend of mine. A man who I’ve really come to respect and indeed love, as a brother and you know, when we were honoring Representative Stambaugh, a moment ago, there were so many great things that were said and very polite things but I must admit when I think about the stories that I have with Representative Rodne, I don’t know that I can share many of them here on this floor. That’s the kind of friend that I’m losing and Representative Rodne’s moving away. You know, I’ve got to think that the men and women of Duluth Minnesota and Kel and Kathleen Rodne must be incredibly proud of my brother Jay, because they brought forth to our nation a great man. A guy that’s known as being a gentleman, a guy that’s known as being a counselor, both in the public and in his day job as an attorney and here in the state House of Representatives but even beyond that, we have a Marine, a United States Marine. A warrior of the United States who has gone to foreign lands, demonstrated honor and come home to continue that honor as a veteran and a current member of the United States Marine Reserves as a colonel. So he came here in 1978 and after 44 years of service, I’m sorry, I guess it was 2004, 14 years of service, something like that, he’s a lot older than me, so, but now he’s moving on to a new chapter in his life and I’ll remember the first couple times I got to meet Jay was I came here to the House floor and he sat across from me and with our good friend Charley, Charley Ross, and after that he moved on to have the pleasure of sitting with my seatmate, Representative Smith. Representative Smith came to me, in my role as a whip, she said ‘Dave, I have to sit with Jay. He needs supervision.’ But all joking aside, you know, I will miss you brother. I’ll miss your sense of humor, I’ll miss your counsel, and I’ll just remind you that friendship never ends. Semper Fi. Hoo Rah!’"

Representative Jinkins: “Thank you Madame Speaker. Jay and I met, actually, in 2004, just after he’d been elected. I worked at the Department of Health and was on a rural health tour that the Legislature started and I remember very clearly being on the bus and a member pointing him out and saying to me ‘He was just elected, he ran as a Republican but he’s actually a Democrat in disguise.’ And I mean, I worked for a state agency, I took it all in, you know, and so then we fast forward to 2011 and I start my service here and I’m serving on the Health Care Committee with him and on the Transportation Committee with him and I think back to that conversation and I think, maybe I didn’t understand what a Democrat is, huh. But you know, for me, Jay and I have served together on the Judiciary Committee which is where we interacted most closely and he’s, Jay, you have held down polarities for me in the sense that you are both intense and easy going at the same time. You are very curious about things and you’re very clear on what your values are at the same time. You’re also randomly early and randomly late to things in very unpredictable ways for me but you’ve always always always been super smart and laser sharp at your abilities to hone in on questions and try and get the answers to them and the other thing that has absolutely always been true about you is your compassion and I think a lot about our work together on mental health and on getting Joel’s law across the finish line and you were such an amazing partner to make that happen and in part I know you did that because of the connection you made to Joel’s parents as did I. And so I guess that’s one thing that I would note in terms of how we became able to refer to each other as brother and sister when we’re talking and actually just to be clear, my brother also asked me to mention to the whole body that he is a very good golfer, so he is, if he says so. I did it Jay, you asked me to. But, you know, like family, we are, I think, we want the best for each other and I very much want the best for you. We’re also like family in that we’re able to criticize each other but we’re not really very good at letting anyone else criticize each other to other people and I think that’s the way family works and in fact Jay and I had, there was something we were not getting along about and he said ‘Hey, I love you sister.’ and I said ‘I know you love me but you know I have a brother that I don’t speak to because he’s kind of a jerk so don’t push me on this Jay.’ So Jay, I just really really want to say to you congratulations on your service to the people of the state of Washington. I want to wish you the very very best, brother, in what you do, especially improving your almost perfect golf game already, but whatever you do, you’ve been a wonderful family member to actually both battle with and battle against other people and other things and bad things with and I always knew that on the big things..."
we could be together on them and I love and respect you. Best wishes.”

Representative MacEwen: “Thank you Madame Speaker. It’s truly an honor to recognize our good friend here. And Colonel, I’ve got to let you know a few moments ago I was texting with my son and he was asking me what was going on. I told him, I said actually we’re getting ready to say goodbye to you and so, you’re on live right now in Camp Pendleton as well - he’s watching this and so, you know, this is one of the beauties of this institution, we go to battle against each other down here and you hear the comments from both sides of the aisle and the friendships we have down here are incredible and I’m certainly going to miss Jay. The gentleman from the 10th, he and I were commenting beforehand, like who’s going to go first because I think we’re both going to say the same things and he couldn’t come up with anything original so I let him go first. But I think back to what your career has been and I only know what you’ve told me but as a young lieutenant, there in Somalia and the terrible situation, but as I’ve gotten to know you I can only imagine the confidence and the calmness you instilled, probably, in your unit during that fight and that you brought that with you through your years here and that has carried on. Jay was and is a mentor to both of my sons who now wear the same uniform as he and I appreciate your mentorship of them and I am very grateful for that. Jay is certainly one that stands on principle, his judicial skills as a lawyer come through in everything he does and he stands firm in what he believes and that’s missing in society today oftentimes and I certainly appreciate that about you. You know when we’re caucusing on something and I sit next to him there in caucus and he’s like ‘I’m a no on this’ and I’m like ‘oh crap’ it makes you think again and he’s just that convicted in what he believes and I really appreciate that and he stands strong on his faith and again I think that’s something that is lacking in our society today and I appreciate that about Jay that your faith is important in your life and that’s a shining example to everyone as well. You’ve certainly got that sense of humor and I don’t know Madame Speaker, if you’ve ever gavede anybody when they’ve been doing these farewell speeches so I’m going to have to refrain from some of those humorous stories that I also share with him and that is our military background and maybe we don’t share the same decorum outside of here that we do inside here so rest assured to this body that we have a lot of good stories that are probably better left just between us and those that we’ve shared them with. Another interesting thing I share in common with the colonel is we’re both from Minnesota originally so good things do come out of the mid-west and we’re both here and it’s a fun background to share and one little tidbit I found out today is if you look at his jacket and tie, apparently that is the same one he wore when he was sworn in. There’s somebody who’s stayed in shape. One funny story I can share: A couple of years ago when we were honoring one of the branches of the military down here, had them in caucus and Jay decided that we should all sing our respective branches anthems so he does the Marine Corps and turns to myself and the good gentleman from the 10th to do the Navy one - I think we got through the first bar and that was about it, so he certainly showed us up on that. Again, his humor on all that is excellent. People come and go here all the time and this year it’s really hit me. I’m losing a friend from the chamber, I’m still going to have you as a friend of course and so you are going to be greatly missed here and I appreciate the contribution you’ve made to this chamber, to this state, to the people we represent and it will be missed and I wish you the best my friend. I know we’ll stay in touch and I will just end with this. We can probably think of some fictional Marine characters that have been in various movies, certainly Colonel Jessup comes to mind, and again we’ll refrain from some of those quotes, but how about Lieutenant Kendrick in A Few Good Men. I’ve certainly never been to the Colonel’s house, but I picture when Lieutenant Kendrick made the quote in the movie, he said ‘I sleep well at night because next to my bed is the Marine Corps Code of Conduct and the King James Bible.’ I’m pretty sure that applies to you as well, so I salute you Colonel. I’m going to miss you and I wish you the best. Thank you.”

Representative Cody: “Thank you Madame Speaker. Well for some reason, the Health Care Committee has had someone from the 5th on it the entire time I have been in the Legislature and I don’t know whether the 5th has just decided that they get a seat on the Health Care Committee or what. I can talk about some of his predecessors on the committee but he’s been on it for the last 14 years and I would say that during that time we’ve had some interesting debates through the years. For some reason since he’s been working for hospitals, he doesn’t think nurses deserve a break, and I do. We’ve had a few of those, but we’ve also had some good times on rural health care tours that I won’t go into – similar to some of the other comments here - but the thing many people probably don’t know is that we have something in common. We both went to Creighton, a good Jesuit school, and we’ve had a lot of philosophical debates about religion and our beliefs and for some reason the Jesuits failed him. So, I have not been able to figure out where they went wrong with him but you know there’s still hope and we will hold that out but I was actually upset when I heard that you were retiring and I thought, boy I’m really going to miss him, until yesterday when he told people I was 70 and so, don’t let the door hit you on the way out, Rodne.”

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Representative Ruth Kagi and her family.

Representative Ryu moved adoption of HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4692
Representative Ryu: “Thank you Mr. Speaker. Representative Kagi and I actually have a lot in common. We are both Huskies, we are the strong women of the 32nd Legislative District, I think that legacy goes back at least 20 years. We actually served on very complementary committees. I don’t think I served on any committees with my good seatmate here, however, the issues that we are passionate about and worked on, worked really well for us when we had many many joint tele-town halls, joint newsletters, and even joint district offices. It’s been a pleasure serving with Representative Kagi. The one thing that we do not have in common, however, is that Representative Kagi has two adorable grandchildren and I don’t. I knew that when her son Chris had a gorgeous daughter, a granddaughter for Ruth, and then Annie had a son, a grandson for Ruth, I started thinking, uh oh, some day we’re going to lose Ruth because she’s gonna want to play with them all day long and so we are going to lose Ruth and I’m going to miss you a lot. But you know what? Our loss is their gain and I’m sure we will see you here often so I look forward to seeing you as a private citizen and a constituent. May God be with you.”

Representative Dent: “Thank you Mr. Speaker. As I said earlier today when I was in shock that my first experience with Representative Kagi was after I’d won an election. So, I want you to think about this a little bit - You have this country boy, flies airplanes and raises cows, but has a passion for children, and we have this urban city girl, right, who’s been the chairman of this committee a long time and I’m just thinking what’s going through her mind - what am I going to have on my committee now? But she reached out to me and we began that relationship and it’s the one thing I knew we had in common from the beginning was relationships because we both knew that relationships are everything. I’m going to tell you, she reached out and she worked hard to build that relationship with me. In the first year on her committee, I was just on the committee, but we had the Early Start Act and that’s sort of when we began to build more of a relationship and learning about early learning and these things, and she spent time to teach me so I knew what it was about. She put up with my arguments and my pushbacks and I knew she had it in her mind that she was going to direct me in a different direction. That proved to be a little harder than she thought, I think. But it continued on and that first year, with my passion for children and her passion for children, we built that relationship but I did other things here as we all do and my first year was successful here and I was proud of my first year here and a lot of that came from the help I received from Representative Kagi because she, I’m talking to her about airplanes which she knows nothing about, but she believed that I was telling the truth and she helped me. She helped me do something that was really important to me. Right down to the end of the last special session she was hanging in there with me and I’ll never forget that because I thought I was going to lose it. I came back on a Saturday and I’m running up the stairs in the LEG building and she’s coming down, she says ‘hold on Tom, it’s ok, it’s still in there, it’s good’ and I’ll never forget that because I knew then that even though we had a lot of differences, that we were friends. The second year on our committee, our assistant ranking chose to step away from that position so they made me assistant ranking. That was interesting but we worked together and continued on and then our ranking member decided to run for the Senate at the end of that year, so, now Representative Kagi was stuck with me as the ranking member. I’m sure that she was concerned. I know she was concerned because she told me her leadership, she says ‘you know, Tom reads everything. I don’t know how I can work with this.’ But oh well, I really didn’t read everything but she thought I did. I let her think that. But we worked together on 1661, on the Children, Youth and Families, and I have to tell you, that was a lot of fun. We negotiated, we talked, we changed that bill, we looked at the direction, we still did, we had a meeting, this morning we had a meeting, still working on that direction and where we want that department to go and it was, I’ve got to say, it was probably one of the better experiences I’ve had since I’ve been here, being able to work with somebody that close and find a way to make this work because we both have the same passion. We both want this to be a better department, we both want better outcomes for children and she is so passionate for this. She’s been here a long time and she has the same passion this morning as she had the first morning I was here. I’m impressed. This year has been an experience working together. We’ve had a lot of bills, it’s been a very intense session, as everyone here knows, and I think this year we really worked well together. I’m not sure if she’s got me trained or she’s just putting up with me, but it really went well this year. I want to tell you, I’m a man of a lot of faith and I truly believe that nothing happens by accident and I believe that I was put here in this body to work with Representative Kagi, my friend Ruth Kagi, there was a reason for that and even though I may not know that reason even tonight, I know it was to be. I am so honored, I’m so grateful to have spent this time with you and I just thank you for everything you’ve given me and all the best in your future.”

Representative Goodman: “Thank you Mr. Speaker. So Mr. Speaker, we all have the name honorable in front of our name just because we got elected to this body and we’re not honorable because we got elected to this body, we’re honorable because of what we do while we’re here. We have to earn it and I can’t think of anyone who is more honorable than Ruth Kagi. We say that so-and-so, he’s my mentor, she’s my mentor and Mr. Speaker, I can say you’re my mentor but you know, you’re my buddy, actually. Ruth Kagi is my mentor. She’s been my mentor for 20 years and I really can’t think of anybody else in my last 20 years who has surpassed the influence in setting the example. Think of the legacy - we should call it not the Department of Children, Youth and Families but the Ruth Kagi Department. How many members of the Legislature can actually establish a new department of government and not just that, but one that’s focused on caring for who we say is first. We say kids are first, but you know kids are invisible around here. There’s lobbyists around here, there are adults around here and sometimes its easier to say ‘oh kids are first’ and then we just forget about it and we fund everything else and we pay attention to other policy problems. But Ruth Kagi was here to remind us that kids are first and not just that kids are our future but that kids are right now. Think of the legacy - think of home visiting programs - new mothers who are vulnerable, whose lives are turned around by these small investments. There’s no better investment of public money. Ruth Kagi championed that. Not only that but it wasn’t just public money, it was public-private partnership and that’s a fund that we now have going and it is setting an example. Think about our childcare system, which we acknowledged was troubled and needed improvement. Where childcare workers need to understand child development. And what are we doing? We’re dramatically improving the quality of childcare throughout the state. About 20 years ago, I was I guess a little bit of a troublemaker myself and I always believed that the war on drugs was a failed policy. I was a little bit of a burr under the saddle of the legislature before I got elected here, saying that we shouldn’t be incarcerating people who have drug problems, we should provide therapeutic treatment. Ruth Kagi listened and she got everybody together and changed the way we handle people who have drug problems, by not needlessly incarcerating them, but by providing therapeutic care to improve their lives. So we have a new system in the state and it’s an example for the country. It was the first time that a state Legislature did that and it was back in 2002, that’s a long time ago. Now the idea of treatment rather than incarceration for people with drug problems, is not given a second thought, of course we should be doing that. It was revolutionary back then and so I’m proud just to have been involved in that work, even before I got elected to the Legislature. I, even now as a colleague of Ruth Kagi, I have trouble calling her Ruth. You know, when I receive an email or send an email back or a phone call or just talking, I want to say Representative Kagi. I want to acknowledge the honor of the office that she occupies and because she wasn’t just Ruth, she’s Representative Kagi. Someone, a personage, not just a person. Someone with an aura. And to me, Ruth Kagi personifies compassion, personifies greatness, and personifies righteousness which is different from self-righteousness and is an example to me now and will always be an example to me in the rest of my career and the rest of my life. So thank you so much, Ruth, for your example for me.”

Representative Caldier: “Thank you Mr. Speaker. You know, 20 years ago, Ruth, when you first came into the Legislature, I still had family members who were still in foster care and we both know how horrible the foster care system was and I have to say that later on when I became a foster parent, there was a lot of improvements and I know that you had a lot to do with that and I am so grateful for all of your work over these years. There’s still a lot of work to do but I am so grateful for everything that you’ve done and the impact that you’ve made. For children who really, a lot of times they never felt like they had a voice and they didn’t have much of a hope but you were always there, and words cannot express how grateful that I am, my family is and many other children are for you. You know, I saw how hard you worked last year to pass the Department of Children, Youth and Family Services. I mean, essentially you changed government. Think about that for a second. I can barely pass a bill out of this place. You literally changed government. You are so amazing. I’m very grateful. I am honored to call you my friend, I’m honored to have served with you and thank you so much.”

There being no objection, HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4692 was adopted.

THIRD READING

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2444 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 82.45.010 and 2014 c 58 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this chapter, the term "sale" also includes any conveyance, grant, assignment, quitclaim, or transfer of the ownership of or title to real property, including standing timber, or any estate or interest therein for a valuable consideration, and any contract for such conveyance, grant, assignment, quitclaim, or transfer, and any lease with an option to purchase real property, including standing timber, or any estate or interest therein or other contract under which possession of the property is given to the purchaser, or any other person at the purchaser's direction, and title to the property is retained by the vendor as security for the payment of the purchase price. The term also includes the grant, assignment, quitclaim, sale, or transfer of improvements constructed upon leased land.

(2)(a) The term "sale" also includes the transfer or acquisition within any twelve-month period of a controlling interest in any entity with an interest in real property located in this state for a valuable consideration.

(b) For the sole purpose of determining whether, pursuant to the exercise of an option, a controlling interest was transferred or acquired within a twelve-month period, the date that the option agreement was executed is the date on which the transfer or acquisition of the controlling interest is deemed to occur. For all other purposes under this chapter, the date upon which the option is exercised is the date of the transfer or acquisition of the controlling interest."
For purposes of this subsection, all acquisitions of persons acting in concert must be aggregated for purposes of determining whether a transfer or acquisition of a controlling interest has taken place. The department must adopt standards by rule to determine when persons are acting in concert. In adopting a rule for this purpose, the department must consider the following:

(i) Persons must be treated as acting in concert when they have a relationship with each other such that one person influences or controls the actions of another through common ownership; and

(ii) When persons are not commonly owned or controlled, they must be treated as acting in concert only when the unity with which the purchasers have negotiated and will consummate the transfer of ownership interests supports a finding that they are acting as a single entity. If the acquisitions are completely independent, with each purchaser buying without regard to the identity of the other purchasers, then the acquisitions are considered separate acquisitions.

The term "sale" does not include:

(a) A transfer by gift, devise, or inheritance.

(b) A transfer by transfer on death deed, to the extent that it is not in satisfaction of a contractual obligation of the decedent owed to the recipient of the property.

(c) A transfer of any leasehold interest other than of the type mentioned above.

(d) A cancellation or forfeiture of a vendee's interest in a contract for the sale of real property, whether or not such contract contains a forfeiture clause, or deed in lieu of foreclosure of a mortgage.

(e) The partition of property by tenants in common by agreement or as the result of a court decree.

(f) The assignment of property or interest in property from one spouse or one domestic partner to the other spouse or other domestic partner in accordance with the terms of a decree of dissolution of marriage or state registered domestic partnership or in fulfillment of a property settlement agreement.

(g) The assignment or other transfer of a vendor's interest in a contract for the sale of real property, even though accompanied by a conveyance of the vendor's interest in the real property involved.

(h) Transfers by appropriation or decree in condemnation proceedings brought by the United States, the state or any political subdivision thereof, or a municipal corporation.

(i) A mortgage or other transfer of an interest in real property merely to secure a debt, or the assignment thereof.

(j) Any transfer or conveyance made pursuant to a deed of trust or an order of sale by the court in any mortgage, deed of trust, or lien foreclosure proceeding or upon execution of a judgment, or deed in lieu of foreclosure to satisfy a mortgage or deed of trust.

(k) A conveyance to the federal housing administration or veterans administration by an authorized mortgagee made pursuant to a contract of insurance or guaranty with the federal housing administration or veterans administration.

(l) A transfer in compliance with the terms of any lease or contract upon which the tax as imposed by this chapter has been paid or where the lease or contract was entered into prior to the date this tax was first imposed.

(m) The sale of any grave or lot in an established cemetery.

(n) A sale by the United States, this state or any political subdivision thereof, or a municipal corporation of this state.

(o) A sale to a regional transit authority or public corporation under RCW 81.112.320 under a sale/leaseback agreement under RCW 81.112.300.

(p) A transfer of real property, however effected, if it consists of a mere change in identity or form of ownership of an entity where there is no change in the beneficial ownership. These include transfers to a corporation or partnership which is wholly owned by the transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner. However, if thereafter such transferee corporation or partnership voluntarily transfers such real property, or such transferor, spouse or domestic partner, or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner voluntarily transfer stock in the transferee corporation or interest in the transferee partnership capital, as the case may be, to other than (i) the transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner, (ii) a trust having the transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner as the only beneficiaries at the time of the transfer to the trust, or (iii) a corporation or partnership wholly owned by the original transferor and/or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner or children of the transferor or the transferor's spouse or domestic partner, within three years of the original transfer to which this exemption applies, and the tax on the subsequent transfer has not been paid within sixty days of becoming due, excise taxes become due and payable on the original transfer as otherwise provided by law.

(q)(i) A transfer that for federal income tax purposes does not involve the recognition of gain or loss for entity formation, liquidation or dissolution, and reorganization, including but not limited to nonrecognition of gain or loss because of application of 26 U.S.C. Sec. 332, 337, 351, 368(a)(1), 721, or 731 of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended.

(ii) However, the transfer described in (q)(i) of this subsection cannot be preceded or followed within a twelve-month period by another transfer or series of transfers, that, when combined with the otherwise exempt transfer or transfers described in (q)(i) of this subsection, results in the transfer of a controlling interest in the entity for valuable consideration, and in which one or more persons previously holding a controlling interest in the entity receive cash or property in exchange for any interest the person or persons acting in concert hold in the entity. This subsection (3)(q)(ii) does not apply to transfers of a qualified low-income housing development occurring on or after July 1, 2035.

(r) A qualified sale of a manufactured/mobile home community, as defined in RCW 59.20.030, that takes place on or after June 12, 2008, but before December 31, 2018.

(s)(i) A transfer of a qualified low-income housing development or controlling interest in a qualified low-income housing development, unless, due to noncompliance with federal statutory requirements, the seller is subject to recapture, in whole or in part, of its allocated federal low-income housing tax credits within the four years prior to the date of transfer.

(ii) For purposes of this subsection (3)(s), "qualified low-income housing development" means real property and improvements in respect to which the seller or, in the case of a transfer of a controlling interest, the owner or beneficial owner, was allocated federal low-income housing tax credits authorized under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 42 or successor statute, by the Washington state housing finance commission or successor state-authorized tax credit allocating agency.

(iii) This subsection (3)(s) does not apply to transfers of a qualified low-income housing development occurring on or after July 1, 2035.

(iv) The Washington state housing finance commission, in consultation with the department, must gather data on: (A) The fiscal savings, if any, accruing to transferees as a result of the exemption provided in this subsection (3)(s); (B) the extent to which transferors of qualified low-income housing developments receive consideration, including any assumption of debt, as part of a transfer subject to the exemption provided in this subsection (3)(s); and (C) the continued use of the property for low-income housing. The Washington state housing finance commission must provide this information to the joint legislative audit and review committee. The committee must conduct a review of the tax preference created under this subsection
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act applies with respect to transfers occurring before, on, or after the effective date of this section. However, this act may not be construed by the department of revenue, state board of tax appeals, or any court as authorizing the refund of any tax liability imposed or authorized under chapter 82.45 or 82.46 RCW and properly paid before the effective date of section 1 of this act with respect to a transfer of qualified low-income housing as defined in RCW 82.45.010(3)(s).

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "housing;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 82.45.010; creating a new section; and providing an effective date."

Representative Fey moved adoption of House Resolution 4691.

Representative Fey: “Well Madam Speaker, in my career here as a legislator I feel probably more honored right now than any time before, and I’m honored that I get to be the one to make the motion and start the remarks about a great, very great person, Judy Clibborn. You know, Madame Speaker, when I got to the Legislature, even before I started here, I was told because I had an interest in transportation that I better go over and interview with Judy Clibborn and see if she would take me. I’m so glad she did because its been the best five years, five-six years, that I’ve had - especially since the time we had adjoining offices here in the Legislature. So Madame Speaker, I’m going to go through a lot of adjectives that describe my friend Judy Clibborn, but I want to say at the outset, I’m going to say these words but it’s not that Judy is mediocre about all these terms I’m going to use, she’s excellent – excels at all of these things and so let me just say, gracious, generous, facilitating, forgiving, empowering, caring, enabling, unflappable, empathetic, and what I’ve learned, which I can’t begin to do myself, the patience of a saint. I know that Judy has a great family so I feel very jealous of that because not everyone gets blessed with a great family and I know that she has a great family. She talks about her family and her grandchildren and I’m just so excited that she gets to spend more time with those young kids. This is very hard for me because I’ve gotten to know Judy in a way that not many of us got to know Judy and I know that having talked to other members in the caucus there’s members here that have known Judy a lot longer than I have. I’ll just have to give one example of a kind of, sort of typical situation that happened today – her last day here of the session. I was working on an issue and Judy, as she graciously has done, allowed me to carry the ball on it and we got it to a certain point and I told Judy we need to go over to the Senate because I need you to be the closer on this deal. We went over there and it was very interesting because we were met by a majority member and we walked over to a minority member across the way and on the way he said, ‘Oh, I don’t know if we’re going to be able to get this.’ and Judy just said ‘$25?’ and they said, ‘it’s a deal.’ And as we were walking back with the Senator, the Senator remarked ‘I don’t know how you do that, I mean I have been working on this for a long, long time and you just came in and said one word and it was done.’ So that’s the continuing best example of the personality, the wonderfulness of Judy Clibborn that it took one word and the deal was done. So Judy, I’m going to miss you in a way that I can’t begin to express but I know that you’re going to have a great rest of your life and I hope that I can share a moment or two in the future. Thank you very much.”

Representative Orcutt: “Thank you Madame Speaker. When we had the Transportation OPR staff down front, I went down and shook hands with all of them, and came walking back and about that time the gentlelady from the 41st was getting up and I literally just got to here when she said that that was her last budget and I froze in my tracks. I couldn’t believe it and I’m sitting there, standing there, I don’t even know what I was doing at that point because I was shocked that she was leaving because she has been transportation in this Legislature for so many years. I came in a year before she did but I didn’t come onto the Transportation Committee until many many years after she had actually been chair and I voted, you know, I had seatmates that didn’t vote for transportation budgets and I didn’t vote for transportation budgets and somewhere along the way I voted for one and I got this really nice note from Judy saying thank you so much for supporting the budget and I thought wow, all I did was vote yes and I got this really really nice note and I just thought, you know, that’s a pretty wonderful person right there that would do that - very thoughtful, and it was a few years later that somebody decided it was a good idea to put me on Transportation as Ranking Member. I still don’t know who was more shocked or more concerned about me being Ranking Member, whether it was me or whether it was Judy. She brought it up and I tended to agree with her that yeah I was pretty much as concerned about it as she was and we’d met actually a week before session started in 2013 and that’s when the Senate Majority Coalition Caucus was forming and they hadn’t figured out how they were going to operate over there yet and so Judy was, we sat down and met in Judy’s office and she said ‘Well, we don’t really know how they’re going to operate over there. We don’t know if they’re going to do co-chairs or, you know, or if the Republicans are going to be the chairs or just how they’re going to do it.’ and I said ‘Well you know Judy, if they do co-chairs in the Senate, we really should do co-chairs here too.’ She caught on a little too quick to what I was trying to do there but I think maybe when I said that, I maybe helped put her a little bit at ease that the only experience she really had with me was we didn’t sit on any committees together, so all she saw was my floor speeches and that’s really all she had to go on. Some of them were kind of powerful and passionate floor speeches and she just was like whoa, what’s this going to be like sitting next to this guy three or four days a week and being in Budget Cabinet and all of that. As we talked a little bit more during that meeting I think we both got a little bit more comfortable with the situation and so starting in January 2013 is when I started spending a lot of quality time with Judy. We made it through that first session, there was a tax package that was proposed. We were writing a two-year budget and she’s got a brand new ranking member that had never actually sat on Transportation before and she told me how Budget Cabinet worked. She invited me to be part of Budget Cabinet and I’m still learning a lot, I mean, well six years later, I’m still learning a lot. But whenever I spoke up about something, Judy listened. She considered the thoughts that I had, the ideas that I had, the concerns that I had and she always gave them consideration – very serious consideration, and once in a while she actually agreed with me and I was able to get something changed in the budget. We get into committee and we have all those amendments and she didn’t take a lot of my amendments, but one of the things that I really appreciated about Judy was when your amendment got turned down, it wasn’t the last word on the amendment or the idea behind the amendment. It actually, frequently was the start and she always said that, too – ‘We’re not going to adopt that right now but I’m intrigued by the idea, I want to talk more about this,’ and we did. It wasn’t just words, it was actions. That’s the way she has operated the entire time and I have so appreciated being included in Budget Cabinet. I’ve so appreciated being able to work with the gentlelady and, I pop off with jokes, you’ve probably heard a few of them. Well, sitting right next to her, she’s heard a lot of them – probably more than her share, probably more than she deserves to hear, but I’d cut off some joke or something like that, while we’re in committee, and she’d tell me later on, she’d go ‘People are looking and going, you guys are having way too much fun up there, what’s going on, what’s going on?’ she said ‘they’re getting a little suspicious.’ I said ‘that’s really not a bad thing. Let’s just let them wonder.’ But, in all that time, we worked well together, we’ve become very good friends. In fact, when I went down and talked with her after she made her announcement, that’s one thing she said to me, she said ‘We’ll always be friends.’ And I will always cherish the six years that we’ve spent together working on Transportation. Whether it be in committee or being in negotiations, Budget Cabinet, being on a tour somewhere into Eastern Washington or Central Washington or down south into Clark County, you know, all of the things we’ve had to do. In fact the one last thing I want to mention is when the Skagit Bridge went down, Judy decided that she wanted to go up and see for herself and I said ‘Yes, I’d like to go too.’ And I drove up to Mercer Island very very early on a Sunday morning and stopped at the park-and-ride in Mercer Island and got into the car with her and Bruce and we rode up together and we showed up there together and we had a chance to see it together and talk about it together and just have some time for friendship and fellowship on the way up and the way back and I really have appreciated all of that throughout the six years that we’ve worked together. You will very much be missed, Judy. Thank you so much for your friendship and your work.”

Representative Springer: “Thank you Madame Chair. I think I’ve recovered from yesterday. It was a little difficult yesterday Mrs. Clibborn, so, I’m not happy with you. I will mention a couple of things. There is an adjective that the good gentleman from the 27th I think left off and that’s tenacious, and let me mention two or three or four things that took tenacity. The almost immediate miraculous repair of the Skagit River Bridge. The almost immediate and rapid response to a mudslide in the 14th. The fact that we’re about to open a tunnel in downtown Seattle. The fact that the 520 Bridge actually got built, and after how many years of trying there is a north-south bypass in Spokane. Those things don’t happen by accident, they happen because somebody leads the way and you’ve done that. If you would indulge me, Madame Speaker, I’d like to read a text I got from somebody just a few minutes ago. That is if I can open my phone. It goes something like this: What seems like a long time ago, it actually was, many of us in local government were recruited to come to Olympia and make a difference. To bring our local government experience to state issues. We have - Judy Clibborn showed us how. I wish we could bring more of that bipartisan nature that she used on the eastside to our national dialogue. We would all be the better for it. I miss you all, not that much, but still happy to be out of it, Love Deb Eddy. That’s by way of just remembering that 25 years ago, you and I and Deb started cohorting around on the eastside in local politics. We were mayors together – all three of us. We were, all three, chairs of the Suburban Cities Association that used to meet every month in the Mercer Island City Hall and then somehow or other we just all ended up here and you were first and we all followed in those footsteps. I am going to work really hard at continuing to follow in your footsteps. I think the state of Washington for generations to come will see your fingerprints all over it. I love you, I wish you the best.”

Representative Johnson: “Thank you Madame Speaker. Judy, Judy, Judy. You’re leaving us, but let’s take a little trip down memory lane. Do you remember when I first met you? Here was this articulate, poised, charming lady and she was the Mayor of Mercer Island and I was the Mayor of Toppenish. Little difference in the two communities I’ll have to admit, but it was at an Association of Washington Cities convention. That was just a few years before either one of us came here to Olympia. When I came to Olympia 10 years ago I was assigned to the Transportation Committee and again I had the pleasure of meeting this charming, poised, articulate lady. We had interesting times in those days and you will remember the ranking republican at that time was my seatmate up here from Wenatchee and I frankly didn’t know much about this place because I had never thought I would be here because my predecessor was younger and had been here for a number of years. We got into one of our very first caucuses in Transportation. We had a younger member in our caucus in Transportation who kept yelling ‘Lock up, Lock up’ you remember that Judy? Anyway, I thought maybe they were going to throw her in jail or something. I wasn’t quite sure what this term ‘lock up’ meant but my seatmate here on the floor from Wenatchee, turned to me and turned to another fellow who had come back for one year to fill out a term and said ‘We’re not going to do that. This lady is probably the fairest person you will ever do business with.’ He certainly knew what he was talking about, and one of the things that we all appreciated about Judy was she’d come over to see us once in a while and she’d say, ‘Boys, I need some help,’ and you know, it was kind of flattering being called a boy at my age, and even Representative Armstrong, ‘I need some votes on that tunnel in Seattle.’ You remember that? And so Armstrong said ‘how many do you need?’ and she said ‘Oh, probably three, four’ he said ‘I’ll get em for you.’ He pointed to me and said ‘you’ll vote that way’ and he pointed to my other seatmate Charles Ross and said ‘You’re gonna vote that way too, because this lady needs some help.’ And so we did what we were told to do and when that vote was taken, the good chairlady came over to thank us and the ranking said ‘You know we told you we’d get you three’ she said ‘no, I took a count, you got me seven.’ And that’s the way this lady operated. I can remember that first session serving with her. She came to me and she said ‘You turned in a couple of projects that I have some extra money. Which one would you like?’ and I said ‘Well I’d really like the Natches project.’ She said ‘I might have guessed, it was the most expensive one.’ And then we had the landslide. You remember the landslide! We got a call that the river was dammed, the highway was out and my Senator then was on the Transportation Committee in the Senate - Chair, I believe at the time. No, he was not Chair, he was the ranking to Senator Haugen and he was told ‘You call Senator Haugen’ and I was told ‘You call Judy’ and I called you, Judy. It was on a Sunday morning, early in the morning. Judy says ‘Don’t worry, I’ll take care of it.’ Next thing we knew, we had Judy, Senator Haugen, the Governor and I don’t know who else in an airplane in Yakima and she had us walking that slide. That’s the type of person that lady is, and you know, it’s a huge loss to, not just to this body, because we all consider her to be a friend, but it’s a loss to the state of Washington people. Not to demean anybody but I don’t know who in the world can fill her shoes and it’s not going to be an easy job. You know, the word “lady” was invented for that lady right there, and I’ll tell you, I’ve never worked with anybody that was more fair, just, and charming than that lady. Never seen her lose her temper, maybe once at kind of a little bit of a hiccup but nothing too serious. Judy, we’re going to miss you and I think you know we love you, and I mean that from the depth of my heart. Thank you for your service, lady.”

The Speaker assumed the chair.

Representative DeBolt moved adoption of HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4687?

Representative DeBolt: “You know, this is a hard one for me. I promised him I would roast him and not be sentimental and I would be funny and talk about some of the great stories that he has as he’s been in this body. Sixteen years, Dan, 16 years. We’ve been together a long time. We have served in, I think, a great friendship and capacity that has changed this institution, changed my life, helped me become a better person. We all know, including Speaker Chopp, that we don’t swear around you as much as we swear around everybody else, that’s great. You know, you lead by example and that doesn’t happen very often these days. I remember when you came in and you used to be a member of the big guy caucus – Representative Pettigrew and there were several other large human beings that occupied this building at that time, and I remember that I could come over and I would feel demure by you but you loved being here and you loved this institution and our family really appreciates what you’ve done for us. When we have issues, you stepped up and you’ve helped. You’ve served as caucus lead for us, you’ve been in Transportation, you’ve put your nose to the grindstone to fix problems that we’ve had but most of all, you’ve been a person that we can go to to be a confidante and your last six years as leader have been wonderful for us. It’s been an awesome opportunity for all of us to grow and flourish. You know you have Captain Picard leadership skills and for those that don’t watch Star Trek, its like this: He says, the problem, somebody will state the problem and he’ll say ‘Options?’ right, and he’ll look around the table and everyone will give their feedback to Dan and then he picks one. But what he does best is he picks that person to say go make it so, make that work. You never held your command and control so tight that you choked the institution. You should be very proud of that. Not very many leaders here have been able to master that and you know as I think about all the things that you’ve done for so many different people, the one thing I can’t get past is your family and how proud they are of you. Your wife has been there for our caucus and your kids have grown up with us and you managed to balance it all. I will tell you a special moment for me was when I was trying to decide what to do after some issues with my health and I was just going to go home, be done because this place takes its toll on you, especially those corner offices – you can ask this one over here – he’s been here a long time though, by the way. You told me one thing that was so important to me. You told me I was a good legislator and that I could effect change and that I should find my joy again in being here, and I did, and I will never ever forgive you for that. Lastly, you know, so many of us don’t understand the pressures that that office faces, I do. You handled them with grace and dignity. You’ve dealt with the other body very well, but most of all, you’ve given us a role model that we all look up to and you’ve allowed sunshine and joy into a process that can sometimes be dark and cloudy. Thank you very much for everything you’ve done for us.”

“Speaker Chopp: Thanks for doing a great job up there Larry, by the way. I am very honored to stand her to thank you, Dan, for your many years of service. Just to start with, you always talked about the folks back home in your own district. You gave lots of examples of, not only your experiences in the community but as a business leader and all sorts of issues that were being dealt with – the folks back home, basically, they had a tremendous representative in you. I can’t think of anybody who’s done a better job of representing their constituents than you. You have done outstanding. At the same time, you were looking out for the people all across the state and these were trying times trying to figure out how we were going to proceed here, but one of our most critical important duties was in fact to try to figure out how to better fund our schools and bring reform to our school system and you played an incredible role in that. It would not have happened without you in many ways. In part because when we were trying to figure out how to do it with,
Representative Wilcox: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, it’s hard to express how hard this is for all of us over here and probably for some of those on the other side because Dan Kristiansen represents the best that you can do here. It’s a different thing being in the minority. There’s less publicity, there’s less press, you have to influence here. It’s a different thing being in the minority. There’s already which was great because he got the job as leader in time and he came into this job with a ton of experience and one of the things I’ve learned is that the legacy that we really have is the legacy amongst ourselves. The people that we get to know. The people that we sometimes fight with, that’s our legacy. That’s how we live on for years. You know, another moment that was really hard to be left with, well that’s what Dan has had under his thumb for Dan, but I think it was one of his finest moments, came when there was a tragedy in his district and Dan, you know, his district, the people who live in his district are like his children and I don’t mean that in a condescending way, I mean that he cares and he loves them and when the slide happened in Oso I think he spent most of several weeks down there. I don’t know if any of you noticed this but I did as soon as the TV coverage got there. Dan was there every night I’ve seen here was a few years ago when we were doing the transportation package and that was really hard in our caucus. Dan had his leadership team in his office, and by the way I’ve never known anyone more inclusive than Dan either, and it was a really difficult situation for him. It turns out that Republicans don’t like to vote for taxes, maybe you’ve noticed, and he was in a very tough situation because, and sadly I put him in this, and mostly I was responsible for this because he had a small number of members that were going to vote for this. He, over the course of five or six minutes, remember him rubbing his hands through his hair which is kind of comical anyway, and he figured out in about five minutes how to make that ok in his caucus. We went from potentially the most divisive moment that you can have in a caucus to one of the most unifying moments you can have and we did that and we came out as more unified caucus than we had been before. Now there’s a few other things that Dan is responsible for and some of them are kind of famous like the cuss cup. I know that most people know about that. I used to put in $20 and he’d tell me when it was time to put in some more. The thing that you don’t know that he’s responsible for is, you know, we do some crazy stunts out here on the floor, some of them work, some of them become a disaster, but you would probably have seen about 10 times more of them without Dan. I heard the good lady from the 40th talk about those crazies that she’s going to be left with, well that’s what Dan has had under his thumb for years. You know, another moment that was really hard for Dan, but I think it was one of his finest moments, came when there was a tragedy in his district and Dan, you know, his district, the people who live in his district are like his children and I don’t mean that in a condescending way, I mean that he cares and he loves them and when the slide happened in Oso I think he spent most of several weeks down there. I don’t know if any of you noticed this but I did as soon as the TV coverage got there. Dan was there every day. I don’t think he showed up in one picture or one press conference or one TV shot. He knew that his job was to comfort the people that he represented, help any way that he could, facilitate the governmental action and get absolutely no recognition for that and that probably tells you more about Dan than anything else that we could talk about. Dan, nobody is going to replace you but we’re all going to try our best to live up to your example. Thank you.”

Representative Pettigrew: “You know I’ve been in this body for as long as Dan has, 16 years and I’ve learned a lot and one of the things I learned is this fantasy of being a political rock star doesn’t really happen out in the public. Other than what we do as a body and what we do really as a caucus, nobody really knows that we’ve done it. Nobody’s walking down the street and going like ‘Oh, there’s the guy that saved healthcare, there’s the woman that saved education, you know, that legacy isn’t there. But here, one of the things I’ve learned is that the legacy that we really have is the legacy amongst ourselves. The people that we get to know. The people that we sometimes fight with, that we’re friends with, that’s our legacy. That’s how we live on and on and on. You see all the pictures on the fourth floor? No one can tell me one thing they passed. If you talk to their friends and their colleagues, they tell you many a story. For me, Dan is one of those people and I can sum up Dan in three stories that start with “P’s.” My first story is one of professionalism – being a professional. You know when I first got elected to the Legislature, I was really excited, like most people. I was feeling pretty good, I was, you know, I’d run a tough race and I won and my head was pretty big and I was pretty anxious about doing a whole lot of things here like passing a bill and all that stuff but my biggest worry coming here was I had no clue how to talk to a Republican. I had no idea what they ate, what language they spoke, I was literally freaked out and the one thing, the one place that I connected was our size. The good gentleman from the 20th just mentioned that. Dan and I are tall guys. Dan came, saw me right off the bat, stuck his hand out, shook my hand and we had a conversation and I learned Republicans are just like me! Oh my goodness, wow, they have feelings and families and concerns and ideals and they eat the same food. We ate a steak that night and it just blew me away so that helped me definitely professionally. The other P is politically. My freshman year, I was assigned a bill that would allow former drug felons to get their food stamps. It was a political year and I was really anxious and excited about my first bill - oh man this is a good idea and everybody is going to vote for this - and of course everybody in my caucus was for it. I went to the speaker at the time, that speaker there, who was there at the time when I was a freshman, went to him and I said ‘I want this bill’ and he said ‘We’re not doing this. This is just too hot, no way, the Republicans are going to go crazy on this thing, this is like, this is soft on crime, and we’re not going to do it’ and I said ‘Mr. Speaker, please, this is the right thing to do’ ‘No! We’re not going to do it’ he said ‘well if you want to do it…’ I bugged him enough to where he gave me this long list of assignments - go run around the block four times, talk to 12 Republicans, get some D’s to not vote for it and these R’s to vote for it and come back to me. So I ran around like a young legislator doing all these things, came back to him and he said ‘I’m still not going to do that’ I said ‘Let me please, lets do this!’ and I did. So the one person, my one Republican friend, one of my Republican friends at the time was Dan. So I went to him and I said ‘Dan, are you guys going to ramp up with this?’ He said ‘Let me go and check this out’ So he went back and talked to his caucus, and believe me, this was kind of contentious because in committee it came out party line, so I went back and talked to Dan, Dan came back and said ‘there will be some no’s but we’re not going to vote against it, you know we’re not going to ramp up against it’ I was like ‘OK, that’s cool’ so I went back and told Frank, or, the Speaker at the time (I still gotta work with him) and he’s like ‘Oh, FINE, FINE, we’re going to do it, FINE. But I tell you Eric, if there’s a problem, you’re going to pay for it!’ ‘Yes Sir, yes Sir, yes Sir’ my knees were shaking but I knew this was the right thing and sure enough when the vote came up, it was 98 to nothing. Not one no vote, and that was because Dan Kristiansen walked in and said ‘hey, let’s make this happen’, as a freshman. The third P is personally. My freshman year, that first year, I went home, I got a call that August that my father had been in a car accident and was paralyzed from the neck down, down in California. I flew down there, a bunch of times. Me and my dad, to be honest, we were estranged. We really hadn’t talked to each other for the entire, really consistently, for years. Although we had some contact, we weren’t really close and for some reason this accident, God had this accident that brought us together. So for a year or so, I was flying back and forth to California, we were building this great relationship, we got to the place where I really couldn’t fly back and forth all the time so I flew my dad up here to be at the VA hospital. We continued to get close, and after a month of being up here, he died. And he had no friends, he had just a few family, just me, my brother – flew him up, had a couple friends down here, they just would support me because he knew he was my dad. The day of the funeral, we buried him at Mt. Tahoma, and I pulled in to Mt. Tahoma and the first person I saw, once I got out of the car, was Dan Kristiansen. His arms were wide open, I don’t remember what happened after that point other than I fell into his arms and I thanked him for being there for me and for my father and that taught me that to be a good politician, to be a good person, to be a good man, you just have to be yourself. I thank God that I had that opportunity to meet you and learn all those three things from you, to be yourself. I can’t even say thank you, there’s not even, I don’t even think there’s a word out there that can show my gratitude, and know that we will always be connected and you’ll always be in my heart. Godspeed.”

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, House Bill No. 1085 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to regulation of the minimum dimensions of habitable spaces in single-family residential buildings.”

House Bill 1085 authorizes the governing body of a city or county to adopt ordinances eliminating floor space requirements for single-family dwellings or reduce the requirements for floor space below the minimum gross floor area standards of the state building code. Currently, the state building code requires that habitable rooms have a minimum floor area of at least 70 square feet and must be at least seven feet wide. While I support the broader intent of this legislation, which allows for ecologically sustainable and affordable small home construction, I am concerned that Section 1 establishes legislative intent and precedent to create exemptions to the building code standards, without considering how these exemptions will be implemented consistently by local governments.

The Washington State Building Codes Council adopts statewide residential construction standards in consultation with technical experts, after rigorous review of international best practices. Smaller sleeping and living spaces should only be allowed after a rigorous review to ensure safety and health of occupants. I am asking the Council to develop, through a technical advisory group or other such means, appropriate guidance for consideration by local jurisdictions in implementation of this statute so that life, health and safety considerations are properly addressed when square footage of habitable space is reduced.

I encourage the local jurisdictions to request opinions from the State Building Codes Council with respect to reducing gross floor area requirements as they relate to other performance standards and objectives. This guidance will be beneficial to local officials in determining how best to adopt any proposed reduction to minimum gross floor area requirements while ensuring occupant health, safety and quality of life.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 1 of House Bill No. 1085.

With the exception of Section 1, House Bill No. 1085 is approved.
Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, Engrossed House Bill No. 1237 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to modifying collective bargaining law to authorize providing additional compensation to academic employees at community and technical colleges.”

Engrossed House Bill 1237 authorizes boards of trustees of community and technical colleges to use local funds, such as tuition, to provide salary increases that exceed the amount established by the Legislature. This is an important step in ensuring that faculty and staff at community and technical colleges are fairly compensated. Section 1 of this bill is an intent section, but addresses decisions that are budgetary in nature and should be dealt with in future budget processes. For this reason, I have vetoed section 1 of this bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 1 of Engrossed House Bill No. 1237.

With the exception of Section 1, Engrossed House Bill No. 1237 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1561 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to open educational resources.”

Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill 1561 will help expand the use of Open Educational Resources at public higher education institutions. It also intended to make the Open Educational Resources project at the Office of the Superintendent for Public Instruction permanent. I agree with the intended purpose of the bill to increase access to free educational resources to more students. The final budget provided funding to support some of the goals of this bill, including funding for the Washington Student Achievement Council and Washington State Institute for Public Policy; however, funding to continue the Open Educational Resources project at the Office of the Superintendent for Public Instruction in fiscal year 2019 was unintentionally omitted from the final budget. The Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is committed to continuing this project and will request the funding for the 2019 supplemental budget. Section 3 is a funding null and void clause that would impact the entire bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1561.

With the exception of Section 3, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1561 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, Engrossed House Bill No. 2008 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to the budgeting process for core state services for children.”

Section 1 is a legislative intent section that also makes certain findings. Statements in this section assume that this bill can ensure predictable future funding levels for several child welfare programs and services. As much as I might want that to be true, no bill can guarantee that adequate funding will always be available for a specific purpose or can prevent a future Legislature from changing policies by amending statutes.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 1 of Engrossed House Bill No. 2008.

With the exception of Section 1, Engrossed House Bill No. 2008 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 6, Engrossed House Bill No. 2097 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to limiting disclosure of information about the religious affiliation of individuals.”

Engrossed House Bill 2097 prohibits employers, state or local governments from providing, collecting, and/or disclosing an individual’s religious belief, practice or affiliation. In a time when divisive rhetoric is used and our liberties are threatened from a national level, I stand with you and will not allow for the government or employers to begin collecting religious information on our residents. We have seen governments collect individuals’ religious information before and we know what happens next, but it will certainly not happen on our watch.

Our country was founded by people who came to this country in search of religious freedom, a fundamental value of our democracy. The establishment and free exercise clauses of the First Amendment prevents the government from promoting religion in any way, provides you with the right to worship (or not) as you wish, and prohibits the government from penalizing you for your religious beliefs. The separation of church and state is one of the very reasons why individuals have sought refuge by immigrating to this country.

The intent section of the bill eloquently outlines these values and I believe its codification is necessary so that the horrors of the past will not be repeated. I am, therefore, vetoing Section 6 of the bill, which will enable the Code Reviser to codify the intent language in Section 1. A veto of Section 6 does not impact the bill’s policy; rather it strengthens the bill by celebrating the rich cultural heritage and diversity of our residents and reminding us that the freedom of religion is one of the founding ideals of the nation.

In signing this bill, I want to make it clear that it is our duty as public servants to ensure that we are not only meeting the letter of the law, but the spirit as well. It is my intent that this law be implemented fully and consistently by all public agencies across the state. Accordingly, I am directing the Office of Financial Management, in consultation with key legislators and others, to prepare guidance for use by public agencies and institutions, consistent with the following interpretations of the bill:

Section 3(3) prohibits state and local governments and public employees from sharing personally identifiable information with any entity that is investigating or enforcing a government program that compiles a list based on religion, national origin, or ethnicity for law enforcement or immigration purposes. In practice, any personally identifiable information of individuals based on religion, national origin, or ethnicity shall not be shared with any government agency that is compiling a list or database for law enforcement or immigration purposes.

Section 4(2) prohibits state and local law enforcement agencies from using public resources to investigate, enforce, or assist in the investigation or enforcement of any requirement that individuals register with the federal government or any federal agency based on religion. Our state and local law enforcement agencies shall not assist the federal government in any attempt to require individuals to register based on religion. As specified in Section 4(1)(a) of the bill, this prohibition does not apply when assisting an investigation of an individual based on reasonable suspicion that the individual has engaged in criminal activity, and when there is a nexus between the criminal activity and the specific information collected about religious belief, practice, or affiliation.

Section 5 requires the termination of any portion of an agreement that shares any state or local government information or databases in conflict with this new law. In this context, agreements are not limited to only accords, memorandum of understandings, and contracts, but include any understanding, even those without a legal obligation. Agreements that violate this law shall be identified and the terms renegotiated to bring the agreement into compliance with the law.

I thank you for your unanimous support for this bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 6 of Engrossed House Bill No. 2097.

With the exception of Section 6, Engrossed House Bill No. 2097 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 6, 8, 11, 17, and 18, Engrossed House Bill No. 2777 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to improving and updating administrative provisions related to the board of tax appeals.”

Section 6 mandates the number of tax referees the Board must maintain. I have concerns that mandating the Board to hire a specific number of staff could change the Board’s ability to be flexible with future budgetary decisions needed to reduce the backlog.

Section 8 requires the Board to hold regular meetings on both sides of the Cascade. Although I agree with providing this access, we must continue to work towards using technology to find other ways of convening and providing access to all citizens.

Section 11 requires the Department of Revenue to adhere to precedential rulings by the Board of Tax Appeals, but does not differentiate between formal and informal proceedings. This leaves open the possibility for precedential rulings handed down by the Board of Tax Appeals that are exempt from appeals.

Section 17 mandates settlement conferences and providing a mediation process. I have concerns with the practical application of requiring attendance at a settlement conference. The Board of Tax Appeals is able to offer voluntary mediation services, per stakeholder demands, without requiring legislation.

Section 18 requires the Board to award attorney’s fees and costs. Typically, the authority to grant attorney’s fees and costs is limited to courts and not given to one executive agency with respect to another. There also appears to be an unintended drafting error that would require local boards of equalization to pay attorney's fees and expenses rather than the county assessor which is party to the action.

Finally, the Department of Revenue and Office of the Attorney General will have a fiscal impact of $1.2 million in fiscal year 2019 and $2.2 million in the 2019-21 biennium. Both agencies did not receive the funding needed to fulfill the duties of this bill in the 2018 Supplemental Budget.
For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 6, 8, 11, 17, and 18 of Engrossed House Bill No. 2777.

With the exception of Sections 6, 8, 11, 17, and 18, Engrossed House Bill No. 2777 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 9 and 10, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2938 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to campaign finance law enforcement and reporting.”

Section 9 addresses independent expenditure reporting requirements. Due to an inadvertent drafting error, Section 9 does not provide clear guidance regarding independent expenditure reporting requirements for ballot measures. I understand that the changes in this section were intended to eliminate the need to adjust disclosure thresholds for inflation in the future, and I appreciate that this unintended consequence was brought to my attention by the Attorney General and the proponents of the legislation. By vetoing Section 9, current law, which does provide adequate guidance regarding independent expenditure reporting requirements for ballot measures, will remain in place. I look forward to working with the Legislature on this issue in the next legislative session. For these reasons, I am vetoing Section 9.

Section 10 addresses special reporting requirements for large contributions. I understand that the intent of this section was to simplify reporting requirements that shine a light on last minute large contributions. However, due to an inadvertent drafting error, proposed changes in this section could result in delayed reporting of some large expenditures made close to election day. Again, I appreciate that this drafting error was brought to my attention, and I understand that stakeholders will continue to work on this issue and propose a solution in the next legislative session. For these reasons, I am vetoing Section 10.

I encourage the Public Disclosure Commission to work closely with the Legislature and the Attorney General's Office (AGO) over the interim to clarify the role of the AGO as it relates to large and significant cases, to adopt rules that allow for expedited referrals to the AGO, and to draft agency-request legislation to be introduced next session that will make necessary improvements to the new statute.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 9 and 10 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2938.

With the exception of Sections 9 and 10, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2938 is approved.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, Engrossed House Bill No. 2957 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to reducing escape of nonnative finfish from marine finfish aquaculture facilities.”

Section 1 is unnecessary to implement the bill and I do not agree with all the assertions made in this section.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 1 of Engrossed House Bill No. 2957.

With the exception of Section 1, Engrossed House Bill No. 2957 is approved.

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Substitute House Bill No. 1656 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to a community aviation revitalization loan program.”

Substitute House Bill 1656 creates a program that is substantially similar to that in the enacted capital budget, which appropriates $5 million to that program. Substitute House Bill 1656 creates a Community Aviation Revitalization Board and an associated revolving loan program for small airports to help address their capital and preservation needs. The Board includes four legislators as voting members. I support the original appropriation of $5 million in the enacted capital budget for these loans to revitalize small airports across Washington.

Although I appreciate the Legislature’s work on this program I am vetoing this bill. The Legislature, in its vital role of passing law and appropriating funds, should not place its members in the position to also implement the law, which is in within the powers of the executive branch. I would like to work with the Legislature on a permanent committee structure that resolves this conflict. For this reason, I have vetoed Substitute House Bill 1656, but I will support the original appropriation of $5 million to the substantially similar program in the enacted capital budget.

For these reasons I have vetoed Substitute House Bill No. 1656 in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,
