FIFTH DAY

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Brian Kenney and Dawn Bishop, presented the Colors. Reverend William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"INSPIRE THE CITIZENS OF THIS STATE WITH THAT SAME SPIRIT OF CARE AND CONCERN FOR THE NEEDS OF OTHERS THAT WILL INSPIRE LAWMAKER AND TAXPAYER TO BE WILLING TO DO THEIR FAIR SHARE IN GIVING OF WHAT IS OURS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THOSE WHO OTHERWISE WILL LIE HELPLESS ON THE ROADSIDE OF LIFE. AMEN."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

MAJORITY recommendation: That Substitute Senate Bill No. 2662 be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass.

Signed by: Senators Knoblauch, Chairman; Jones, Wanamaker, Woody.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.
PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would just like to bring to your attention today an honor that was bestowed upon one of our illustrious members, Senator John Stender, who was selected yesterday by the Nixon administration to be Assistant Secretary of Labor for OSHA. We, of course, on this side of the aisle are extremely proud of the competence of Senator Stender and in his selection. We regret very much looking forward to the loss of his dulcet tones here on the floor of the Senate and in the caucus but we, I think, join with members on the other side of the aisle in congratulations to a man who has done an excellent job for the people he represents here in the state of Washington and I just wanted to be sure that all the members of the Senate were aware of this appointment, and our congratulations to you, John."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive: "I would merely like to say that I know the federal government has gained a very pliable member, somebody that will go along with just about anything they want. There is going to be no difficulty in the future. I am sure that when anybody in the administration sends the word down, that Senator Stender will jump. I know there is going to be no problem whatsoever with him and he has already assured them of his complete and thorough cooperation in anything they want. And I think they had better have his resignation already signed if they think that is going to happen, because I am sure that Senator Stender, who has been not only a member of a minority but a very vocal member of the minority and a very strong voice for the things he believes in and a man who voted with the minority sometimes, no matter where that minority was, is going to shake that department up a little. I think they are going to find that Senator Stender is an excellent man of very strong and firm character and I think he is going to leave his impression, and along with Senator Lewis I would like to say that it has been my good fortune to be both with and against Senator Stender over a long period of years. I have a deep respect for him, as I am sure every member of this body does, and we are very proud that you have received this appointment and we feel that it is an honor bestowed not alone on you as an individual, but the state of Washington and in a sense on the Senate of the state of Washington, that one of our members would receive such a high acclaim."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Washington: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I have searched back and I do not believe any member of this body has jumped into a position as high as the one that Senator Stender has been honored with and I think it is not only an honor to the Republican Party, but I think it is an honor to the standing and respect of the Senate. And the other thing, somewhat echoing the statements of Senator Greive, I also know that with the very stiff attitude that Senator Stender many times takes, that when the battle is over and when you have had your tussle in the committee and when you have had your tussle on the floor, he still remains a friend. And this is the way a man can take a very firm position. He knows where the field of the battle is, he fights it there, but he does not fight it after the battle is over, and I think this is one of the main considerations, one of the main strengths that will help him to be a real success back in Washington."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Canfield: "Politicians have been accused of a lot of things, some good and some not, but my experience with 'Big John' has been good. He is a man who does not speak with a forked tongue. He is a man who tells it as it is. I have the utmost confidence in John Stender."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Grant: "Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I would also like to offer my congratulations to Senator Stender and I am sure that Senator Warnke, Senator Gardner and Senator Rosellini are also very pleased with this appointment."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Madesich: "I also would like to add my congratulations, but in addition to the good things that have been said about him, I think we ought to note some of the bad things so that he does not go away feeling too happy. There was nothing more irritating to me over the years than when you started talking to John and he did not like it, he would turn down the hearing aid. I also point out to our side, keep up the hope, boys. I have talked to Richard and he is going to arrange something for Atwood."

REMARKS BY SENATOR STENDER

Senator Stender: "Thank you all. You know when one of these kinds of things become a reality, you wonder sometimes whether or not you are getting involved in something that may not be to your liking after you get into it. But it is a challenge, I want to say. I have spent quite a few years in the area of labor and labor management. Not all of it has been easy because we have had, like you have here, people in the labor movement who do not agree with me and they are always wrong and it is difficult to understand why they are wrong so much. You fellows make some terrible mistakes when you vote like you do, as you know. Some of these bad bills. But the ten years, going on eleven I have spent here, I certainly regret leaving the Senate. It has been real good experience. Some of you fellows, I hope, will not forget that Washington is only five hours by jet. If you do come back, I sure hope that you would stop and call. I understand too, that this department that I am supposed to take ahold of is the OSHA and some of those that are closer to it than I have previously been involved or are currently involved say it is the swamp with the most alligators in it. And so I do hope that the challenge that is there does not end up with the alligators getting ahead of me. I do thank all of you though for your kind remarks. I am going to miss my colleagues in the Republican Caucus. I know they always agree with everything I say in there and sometimes they even vote against me out here. But I will miss it and I do thank you all for your kind thoughts and I hope I can come back and visit with you sometime.

"I am leaving in the morning. I might be back next week, though. I hope I can. I have got a call to come back and do a little orientation work and you have to be confirmed by the Senate. I do not know how that is going, but a different Senate. And then I guess I will be pulling up roots and getting another spot to settle."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Mr. President and members of the Senate and Big John, I am going to say that for one I am certainly going to miss you. We have been up in this cell tier here for a good many years. Years back when we came into more understanding, I said he did not know the difference between a purse seiner and a gill net boat, but he brought the evidence out here. We had our tussles along the line, but he has certainly been a good office companion and we have served the whole tier up there coffee. I know he hates to leave and I hate to see him leave for just that one thing only. But John, I want to wish you the best of everything. I'm certainly going to miss you up there and we hope to see you back here on a trip once in a while and best of luck to you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator, I would like to add my congratulations and compliments and in the words of the immortal Walter Hagen, "It is always nice to smell the flowers while still around to enjoy them." We are glad you were here to listen."
PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive: "I would like to bring to mind something that I think John and I will remember. I think it was about eighteen years ago. I can remember one night in Von's Cafe congratulating him because he was elected to Congress, which subsequently he lost, and I just wonder whatever happened to Don Magnuson."

WHEREAS, This labor leader in 1951 organized the Northwest Metal Crafts Trust Fund and served as chairman of the board of trustees for over ten years, which Health and Welfare program has covered thousands of industrial workers in most of the shop trades in the Northwest; and

WHEREAS, He is also president of the Labor-Management Committee on Fair Foreign Competition, and a member of the board of directors of the National Maritime Council; and

WHEREAS, State Senator John Stender was elected initially to the Upper Chamber in 1962, and is now serving his third four-year term, and is a member of the all-powerful Rules Committee, as well as Constitution and Elections, Transportation and Utilities, and of course, the Labor Committee, and also a member of the Legislative Council; and

He is also a past member of the board of trustees of the Regional Health Planning Council, as well as a past member of the National Republican Coordinating Committee, Task Force on Job Opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington in legislative session assembled, that the Senate congratulates and commends John H. Stender on his being nominated by the President of the United States to be Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health, and that the United States Senate be urged to speedily confirm this nomination;

Magnuson and Senator Henry M. Jackson, and a copy be transmitted to the President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS (HARRY)

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President and members of the Senate, in the interest of time and because we had a number of speeches this morning, I would just like to suggest to you that this is a worthwhile resolution for one of our most highly respected members, Senator John Stender.

"Recounting a little of his history as a man, as a member of the labor movement, as a member of this Senate and as a public servant with various appointments by President Eisenhower and so forth, as a member of the state welfare medical care committee appointed by Governor Arthur Langlie, and the words of congratulations to him by this body and the urging of this body of the Senate of the United States to speedily confirm his nomination are enclosed in this resolution. The resolution is on your desks or should shortly be there and I just urge everyone to join together in supporting Senator Stender in his new appointment as Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health, a position of great eminence in this land of ours and a distinct honor for any member of this Senate to receive. Our congratulations to Senator Stender and our best wishes to him, and I urge you to adopt this resolution unanimously."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "I wish to concur with all of the remarks of Senator Lewis in regard to Senator Stender. We will miss Senator Stender. He had a refreshing outlook for a Republican and one that we would commend to all Republicans that they have that refreshing outlook. He is a fine appointment and our best wishes go with him and we hope that he will complete a successful term in office. I know as far as he is concerned, he will. Some of the other candidates that have gone back there have come back to us and there will be an empty chair there and we wonder who is going to fill it. But we do wish to add our commendation on this side of the aisle to Senator Stender. Good luck."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DORE

Senator Dore: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to also concur in the remarks of Senators Lewis and Rasmussen. When Senator Stender first came to the Senate, I sat in the back row with him so I got to know him quite well. I always found him to be his own man, deeply dedicated to what he thought was right and willing to stand, which he had to do many times, stand alone in the Republican Caucus for a number of the labor bills and he did not give up his principles or what he believed in and I think on the floor and also in the caucus and the joint meetings he always expressed his opinions. Sometimes I was not so happy with what he said, but he always expressed his opinions and he acted for the best interests of the people that he represented in his district and the element that elected him to serve here in the Senate. I know he is going to do an outstanding job. He has the ability. He is going to bring an enlightened viewpoint back to Washington, D.C. to serve in a very prestigious position. I think that any of us here on this floor would gladly change his position, a chance to—not in this administration of course—if it were Democratic, we would like to go back and join the cabinet and have the chance to really put those talents and expressions and his independence in his thinking and viewpoint into action back at the national level in Washington, D.C. where things really happen. So we wish him well. We are going to miss him and I know he is going to do an outstanding job. I hope he does not stay too long, and comes home in three years."

The motions by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

MOTION

At 12:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 14, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

MOTION

Senator Sandison moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-42

By Senators Sandison, Peterson (Lowell), Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall and Woody:

WHEREAS, Ernest M. Brannon began his career with the Department of Fisheries in May of 1923 after attending Auburn High School where he was an outstanding athlete; and

WHEREAS, Ernest M. Brannon has been Superintendent of the Dungeness Salmon Hatchery since 1929 where he has developed new techniques and approaches employed in the breeding of fish; and

WHEREAS, Ernest M. Brannon has been a dedicated administrator as well as a recognized expert in the field for his extensive work with the Elwha Salmon; and

WHEREAS, Ernest M. Brannon's enthusiasm for his work has been an inspiration to others, including his son, who received his doctorate in marine biology and is currently a member of the International Pacific Salmon Commission;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Washington, recognizes the past achievements of Ernest M. Brannon, and congratulates him on the anniversary of his fiftieth year of service in the Department of Fisheries and service to the state of Washington.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of the Senate shall have this resolution suitably inscribed and transmitted to Ernest M. Brannon.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sandison, all members of the Senate were added as sponsors to Senate Resolution 1973-42.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SANDISON

Senator Sandison: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, several Senators prompted me on this because they have known Ernie Brannon and Helen for all these years. This is not only a fiftieth anniversary of a person who has been an excellent employee, but also of a person who has been unique in his contribution to fisheries in the entire United States and particularly with salmon. He has been a selfless man. The only time I have seen him gripe is when he did not get enough fish. In the years that I have been in the legislature, and I have known him since I was a small boy, the only griping I ever heard was because he was not able to get his job done. Never once have I ever heard him talk about his pension; never once have I ever heard him talk about his salary. He was just dedicated to raising fish and to doing something for the people in the state of Washington.

"I saw him leave his home many times on Sunday when he would take a little time off because some tourist drove near the hatchery, and he would literally run out there so that he could show them. I have been with him when he has been taking fish by gaff out of the stream, out of the Elwha particularly, which is a turbid, glacial stream. The water is difficult to even walk in, to say nothing of standing in there with a gaff hook, and he would point out the fish and say, 'That is a female. I do not want it. That is a male. That is not the male I want.' And I couldn't even see the fish. He has been this type of a person. He has taught people through the years; there are people who are retired that he has taught his technique in raising fish and in taking fish. And I think he has been a real asset to the state of Washington. He has given us a unique contribution."

REMARKS BY SENATOR METCALF

Senator Metcalf: "Just a quick word. In our tour of the area, it was an inspiration to see the work that he had done in that area, to tour the hatchery, to see the eggs taken from these fish, to see some of the specimens, and I just would like to add my encouragement to the Senate in commending Ernie Brannon."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Gentlemen of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the President at this time should like to introduce Mrs. Helen Brannon. And a former renowned member of the United States Congress, the Honorable Thor Tollefson, and Director of Fisheries. The President should like to say to you, Mr. Brannon, that the members of the Senate join with the President in extending our heartiest congratulations to you upon your wonderful achievements and, what is more important, to express the appreciation of the people of our state and indeed I might include the world, for your remarkable contribution to the well-being of your fellow citizens. Mr. Brannon and the former renowned scientist in the area of fisheries, a friend of mine by the name of Clarence Pautzke, I believe were natives of Auburn. Is that right? And close friends.

"This morning the news carried an item about another brilliant scientist, Dr. Donaldson of the University of Washington. The President should like to add that Senator Sandison has put in proper perspective Mr. Brannon's contributions, for indeed the fisheries industry and most notably the salmon phase of it could very well be extinct if it were not for the contributions of Mr. Brannon. So Mr. Brannon, the Senate has designated and given me the privilege to present to you this symbol of our appreciation and gratitude for your services that states, 'In recognition and appreciation of his fifty years of dedicated service in the Department of Fisheries and to the citizens of the state of Washington.'"

REMARKS BY MR. ERNEST M. BRANNON

Mr. Brannon: "I would like to say this to you. I followed you from the time that you were a football player for the University of Washington and Pautzke was with you. I tell everybody I am thirty-eight years old. I cannot fool them much longer because I have children that are older than that now. But I certainly appreciate this privilege of coming in here to meet with a group of people like this and this is what makes a person feel dedicated, to have a state like the state of Washington that you can work for. I came from Chicago when I was a small boy. I was eight years old. When I came to the state of Washington I admired the long tall evergreen trees. We moved up into the Muckleshoot Indian Reservation and that is where I started out in my fisheries. I went down to the Green River Hatchery and I harassed the superintendent there and he said, 'Well, you are in my way so since we cannot get rid of you, I am going to put you on the payroll.' That is when I started out. I think it was May 2, 1922. I have enjoyed it very much ever since and I heard one man speak of how I try to bounce out to the hatchery. Well, you never know who is coming in to meet you in your hatchery where you are working. I have people come there from all over the world. We have had eight and nine Continental buses come from Hawaii. That is the only station I think they have been coming to. So I do not care, and I have always told my help, I did not care if it was the President of the United States or a little Indian woman that came to visit the hatchery, they were to show them around the right way, and I try to do everything that I can myself. Because we had a number of people come on Saturdays and Sundays and I had a number of people come in there that were representatives of other states and they said, 'Well, believe you me this is the way that we like to see things carried out in our fisheries,' and they said, 'I hope we can get some of that brushed off up in our neck of the woods.'

"And I have met a number of our Senators and legislators. We have some of the best ones that we have ever had up there right now and they have been in the House and the Senate for a long time. I could tell lots of stories on them, but I will refrain from that now because Gordie Sandison is a wonderful hunter and a good outdoorsman. He is a good fisherman and he has the most marvelous family you could ever look at. Paul Conner is another boy that has been with us a long time. You can always talk to him. And I try to feel that regardless of politics, one way or another, I am going to work for the good of the state of Washington and for the good of the United States of America. Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY MR. THOR TOLLEFSON

Mr. Tollefson: "Mr. President and members of the Senate and distinguished guests, this is a privilege indeed. Back in Washington, D.C., one of the favorite, shall I say stunts, of members of Congress when troops of boy scouts would come from their states, was to take the troop into the chamber of the House of Representatives when it was not in session and let the boys sit in the Speaker's chair one at a time. They got a great thrill out of that. I understand better today what that thrill is because I had an opportunity to sit in the President's chair here.

"I think it is a wonderful thing that you are doing today and I personally want to thank you for it. When I first came with the state of Washington connected with the Department of Fisheries, I soon learned that the state of Washington had a lot of dedicated employees who deserved recognition and expressions of appreciation for the fine work that they were doing. This was especially true in the case of Ernie Brannon, who has been one of our finest hatchery superintendents, so much so that I never after having learned about Ernie and meeting him, had to worry about that hatchery up there on the Dungeness. When freezing weather came along and we were concerned about the water freezing and the intake pump freezing over, endangering the lives of the fish, we might have been a little bit concerned but we knew that the place was in good hands. I noted one thing that Senator Sandison said about Ernie always wanting to work. Well, he had told me a week or two ago that he was going to retire on June 1. Then about a week or two later, the word came from up there that he was going to have to postpone that for a week or two or three because he had just too much work to do. So what you said about Ernie was the truth. He has been one of the workingest people that we have had in our department, and I am so happy that you gave him this recognition and did him this honor. It is going to do a lot for the morale of other people in the department who deserve recognition too, in some form or another. Thank you very much for letting me be here."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Senator Lowell Peterson has advised the President that he thinks that the Senators have covered this situation very well. The President has extended an invitation to Mrs. Brannon to exercise her womanly privilege of having the last word but she said she is going to let it sit where it is now. Thank you."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the Senate has just received a message from the Honorable Ernest M. Brannon which is of great significance and interest to the members and to the press. With your indulgence the Secretary will please read."

The following was read by the Reading Clerk:

Dear Dad,

I thought it only appropriate to write you regarding my appointment as Dr. Donaldson's replacement. I cannot think of a more fitting retirement after having given your life for something you thought so much of, to now have your son in a position to influence the future of that profession for years to come. I believe there is no position in fisheries from which a more meaningful memorial could be given to your dedication, enthusiasm, and logic. In every way my achievement has been yours and will continue to reflect the basis that you provided for me.

Your son.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-39

By Senator Rasmussen:

WHEREAS, Certain mayors of the State of Washington and the nation energetically worked for passage of federal legislation to provide revenue sharing; and

WHEREAS, Legislation providing revenue sharing was passed by the Congress; and

WHEREAS, The result has been that the cities now are receiving less in federal funds than before revenue sharing, and many programs in the cities are now being discontinued and funds from revenue sharing will not take up the slack; and

WHEREAS, The mayors now are back in Washington, D.C. appealing to the Congress to reverse the trend established by the revenue sharing program and are now opposed to that concept of federal funding of local programs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that the mayors be advised to stay home and run the affairs of their cities; and

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2095, by Senators Bailey, Fleming and Lewis (Harry):
Allowing port districts to select a treasurer other than the county treasurer.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2095, allowing port districts to select a treasurer other than the county treasurer (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 9, after “the” and before “designate” strike “commission by resolution may” and insert “treasurer may authorize the commission, by resolution, to”.
On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "district" and before the period insert "to act with the same powers and under the same restrictions as provided by law for a county treasurer acting on behalf of a port district".

On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "if the" and before "is not" strike "treasurer" and insert "treasurer".

On page 1, section 1, line 12, before "it shall" strike "treasure" and insert "treasurer".

Signed by: Senators Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Walgren.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 9.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Fleming yield? Senator Fleming, would you say that the county treasurer has to approve this? Is this right?"

Senator Fleming: "Yes, he would have to. What happened, Senator Guess, is that in Senator Bailey's area they had some problems. In some of these areas the port has more treasury activities and moneys than the county itself. Sometimes it gets a little out of hand and the county treasurer is overworked, and they wanted to be able to designate the port to hire its own treasurer, but we felt as though the county treasurer himself should authorize this."

Senator Guess: "Well, is this going to relieve the counties of the necessity to have auditors on these jobs?"

Senator Fleming: "From my understanding, I do not think it would relieve them from having this because they would continue to have the same work. They would just be relieved of some of the work from the port commission, that is all."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Bailey, would the county treasurer then establish the procedures by which the port treasurer would operate? Is this a part of the bill?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Guess, this is definitely the intent of the bill. They would establish the procedure. They would not have a wide open way to spend money because they are still subject to the laws of the state of Washington insofar as expenditures of public funds go."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator Bailey."

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 9 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the remaining committee amendments were adopted, the last two being considered simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2095 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2095, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 14; excused, 3.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2425 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2306, by Senators Woody, Atwood and Van Hollebeke: Authorizing legislative authority of a county to employ an attorney for legal services.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2306, authorizing legislative authority of a county to employ an attorney for legal services (reported by Committee on Local Government): MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments: On page 1, section 1, line 8, after "may" and before "contract" insert "with the consent of the prosecuting attorney of the county." On page 1, line 26, strike new section 2 in its entirety and insert: "Sec. 2. Section 36.32.200, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.32.200 are each amended to read as follows: *Except as provided in section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act, it shall be unlawful for the board of county commissioners to employ, contract with, or pay any special attorney or counsel to perform any duty which the attorney general or any prosecuting attorney is authorized or required by law to perform, unless the contract of employment of such special attorney or counsel has been first reduced to writing and approved by the superior court judge of the county or a majority of the judges in writing endorsed thereon. This section shall not prohibit the appointment of deputy prosecuting attorneys in the manner provided by law."

In line 2 of the title after "RCW; and" and before "section" strike "repealing" and insert "amending".

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Gardner, Murray, Talley, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Fleming yield? Senator Fleming, it seems to me that the amendment is really going to keep the county commissioners from hiring their own attorney. Any prosecuting attorney who has a pride in his office would tell the commissioners no. Now I was all for the bill like it was submitted by the Senator when it came in. I had had requests from some of my smaller counties, because they have not been serviced by the prosecuting attorney. In one instance the county commissioners were of a different party from the prosecuting attorney and they got at cross purposes. And so I like the idea and now I hate like everything to see us come in and take the heart right out of the bill."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Guess, I can understand what you are saying because I know you were there at the committee meeting. As committee chairman I have no great pride of authorship in this committee amendment. There were several members of my committee and I forget which ones they were, that indicated that they felt as though this should be in there because they did get a lot of testimony from the prosecutors themselves, that they did not want this taken away from them, although the benefit of this would be for those smaller counties rather than the large counties."

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 26 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2306 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2306, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Durkan, Francis, Scott—4.

Excused: Senators Atwood, Stender, Whetzel—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2306, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Donohue, Senate Bill No. 2346 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 15, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2407, by Senators Sandison, Atwood, Durkan and Donohue:
Establishing a higher education assistance authority and setting out its powers, duties and functions.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sandison, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2407 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2407 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Sandison, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2407 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Sandison yield? Senator, would you please explain what involvement there is in state funds, if any?"

Senator Sandison: "The only involvement in state funds is a two hundred and fifty thousand dollar appropriation to get the operation going to set up and staff the lending authority. From then on they will be allowed to sell bonds so that will be the final state contribution."

Senator Canfield: "Will the state ever be repaid for this two hundred and fifty thousand?"

Senator Sandison: "There is nothing in there because of the uncertainty. They do not know how many students would not be able to pay back immediately. There is nothing in there to make a pay back. You may recall, in Ways and Means this matter was considered and it was the consensus of the committee that probably because of the extended payment and the contingencies of our economic situation, that it would not be feasible to have a rapid pay back."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a further question? Senator Sandison, in your opinion this will not conflict with the state Constitution regarding the loaning of the state's money?"

Senator Sandison: "Senator Rasmussen, I attended the same law school you did so my opinion on this probably is not the greatest in the world, but the best that we can ascertain from the Attorney General and from bond counsel is that this would not be in conflict."

Senator Rasmussen: "My second question is, why did the federal government phase out of this program?"

Senator Sandison: "They thought this would be a better program if administered by the state rather than by the federal government. They will only be in the position of guarantor much as the Federal Housing Administration is or in the old days the Veterans' Administration was on GI loans."

Senator Rasmussen: "The reason that I wondered why they had phased out is because there was such a tremendous loss in these student loans that they were not collecting, they have put on a new group of employees in order to track down these people that have borrowed from the student loan fund and, is the state going to have to guarantee all the losses?"
SIXTH DAY, MARCH 14, 1973 823

Senator Sandison: "No, the losses are all covered by the federal government. Initially when the federal government went into this program I think there was a lot of looseness in their lending practices and they do have about a four percent rate of noncollectibility. But I think that it can be handled and the New York picture, I think, has proven that even in a state such as New York, it can be handled and the money can be loaned out in a rational manner and collected back."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2407, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea's, 43; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Francis, Scott—3.

Excused: Senators Atwood, Stender, Whetzel—3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2407, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2488, by Senators Van Hollebeke, Woody, Atwood, Mardesich, Greive, Walgren and Twigg:

Amending the implied consent law to permit a person who has refused the test to plead guilty and keep his license.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, after subsection (6), add a new subsection as follows:

"(7) The revocation of driving privileges under this section shall be considered as a conviction for the purpose of eligibility for an occupational driver's license as determined under chapter 5, Laws of 1973 and chapter 46.20."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, my point of order is that the amendment, I believe, expands the scope and object of Senate Bill No. 2488 which relates to the implied consent law, and I think this goes into the question of occupational drivers' licenses which is an entirely different question."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senate Bill No. 2488, the amendment moved for adoption by Senator Woody, and the Point of Order by Senator Grant were ordered held for further consideration on Thursday, March 15, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2294, by Senators Whetzel and Henry (by Secretary of State request):

Implementing laws relating to the secretary of state.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, strike all the matter on lines 8 through 16 and insert: "The secretary of state’s revolving fund is hereby abolished.

There is created within the state treasury a revolving fund, to be known as the ["secretary of state’s revolving fund,"] "Washington state librarian’s revolving fund," which shall be used by the office of the [secretary of state] state librarian to defray the costs of printing, reprinting, or distributing printed matter authorized by law to be issued by the office of secretary of state. The state librarian is hereby authorized to charge a fee for such publications in an amount which will compensate for the costs of printing, reprinting, and distributing such printed matter. Fees recovered shall be placed in the Washington state librarian’s revolving fund.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator, would you explain how this amendment relates to the original purpose of the bill?”

Senator Rasmussen: “The original purpose of the bill was to allow the Secretary of State to reproduce and sell certain documents such as the corporations list and so forth that register with his office. This is a very fine purpose and we have no objection to that, but the amendment moves it over into the document center in the Washington State Library where all documents are presently distributed. It still leaves the distribution of session laws, as provided by law, in the Secretary of State’s Office.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Rasmussen, have you checked with the Secretary of State on this? Is he in agreement or is this just your individual idea?”

Senator Rasmussen: “No, I have not checked with the Secretary of State. It was the legislature that decided they wanted all documents, the sale of all documents and distribution handled in one center. Just as the Budget Committee has recommended that the Forms Committee propose.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senate Bill No. 2294, together with the pending amendment by Senator Rasmussen, was ordered held for further consideration on Thursday, March 15, 1973.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2101, by Senators Durkan, Connor and Peterson (Ted):
Providing for the regulation and licensing of plumbers.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2101 was returned to second reading.
On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 7, section 15, line 20 of the engrossed bill, being page 7, section 15, line 6 of the printed bill, after "him" and before the colon insert ". Any person performing plumbing work on a farm may do so without having a current certificate of competency or apprentice permit".

On motion of Senator Greive, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2101 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I have a question I would like to ask Senator Greive. Senator Greive, in this bill we have a grandfather clause that recognizes those engaged in the bona fide business of plumbing at the time of enactment of this act. The question I would like to ask is this: Do you consider a bona fide plumber a person who now is engaged in a business—it might be your local hardware man—that installs electric dishwashers and things of that sort? Is there any danger here that the department may rule this man is not a bona fide plumber and is not under the grandfather clause?"

Senator Greive: "It would seem to me that he is covered. As I understand, it is new section number eight. 'No examination shall be required of any applicant for a certificate of competency who, on the effective date of this act, was engaged in a bona fide business or trade of plumbing, or on said date, then it goes into the question of journeymen and so forth. So it seems to me that if he could say that he was in the business of plumbing why he is all right.'"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Greive, is it then your idea the intent of this act is not to rule out from the grandfather clause those people who have done plumbing as a part of their jobs, not necessarily as a prime part of their jobs, but as part of their jobs up to this time?"
   Senator Greive: "I would say that those first three lines say just that."
   Senator Bailey: "The intent is not to rule those people out of the grandfather clause?"
   Senator Greive: "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, in the electricians’ bill we incorporated an amendment relating to training received in a vocational school for two years. I think that Senator Gardner has been working on that and may have even spoken to you about it. Did we put into this bill with respect to plumbers a similar provision that one who has completed . . . .?"
   Senator Greive: "Yes. The one in the plumbers’ bill is more liberal than the electricians could afford to accept. In other words, electricians would have to be more restrictive than the plumbers’ bill. We adopted all of the amendments on this one."
   Senator Mardesich: "In the plumbers’ bill there is a proviso that the attendance at vocational school would substitute for the apprentice program?"
   Senator Greive: "That is right. Correct."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2101, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.
   Absent or not voting: Senator Durkan—1.
   Excused: Senators Atwood, Lewis (Harry), Stender—3.

REENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2101, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Our vote for Senate Bill No. 2101 is with the express understanding, as per the question asked of Senator Greive, that the grandfather clause relating to "those engaged in the bona fide business of plumbing" refers to all engaged in business at the time of enactment of this act who engage in any plumbing practices as part of their business. It is with this legislative intent as expressed by Senator Greive and others on the Senate floor that we supported this bill.

Signed by: Senators Bailey and Sandison.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, [other than the proceeds of the state property tax,] the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted pupil enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days, except that for kindergartens one full school year may be ninety days as provided by RCW 28A.58.180:

(1) [Eighty-five] Ninety-five percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of [fourteen] eight mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to [twenty-five] fifty percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year shall be reduced by the difference between the proceeds from the actual school district tax levy in the district and the amount the maximum levy permissible for the district under [RCW 84.52.050] section 1 of this 1973 amatory act as now or hereafter amended would produce irrespective of any delinquencies; and

(2) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

(6) [Eighty-five] Ninety-five percent of such other available revenues as the superintendent of public instruction may deem appropriate for consideration in computing state equalization support.
Sec. 7. Section 28A.41.130, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.41.130 are each amended to read as follows:

From those funds made available by the legislature for the current use of the common schools, [other than the proceeds of the state property tax,] the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute annually as provided in RCW 28A.48.010 to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education an amount which, when combined with the following revenues, will constitute an equal guarantee in dollars for each weighted pupil enrolled, based upon one full school year of one hundred eighty days, except that for kindergartens one full school year may be ninety days as provided by RCW 28A.58.180:

(2) The receipts from the one percent tax on real estate transactions which may be imposed pursuant to chapter 28A.45 RCW: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district in any county which does not impose a tax in the full amount authorized by chapter 28A.45 RCW shall be reduced by five percent; and

(3) [Eighty-five] One hundred percent of the receipts from public utility district funds distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 54.28.090; and

(4) [Eighty-five] One hundred percent of the receipts from federal forest revenues distributed to school districts pursuant to RCW 36.33.110; and

(5) [Eighty-five] One hundred percent of the proportion of the receipts from the tax imposed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291 upon harvesters of timber equal to the proportion that the millage rate for the regular property tax levy for such school district pursuant to [RCW 84.52.050] section 1 of this 1973 amenderatory act as now or hereafter amended bears to the aggregate millage rate for all property tax levies for such school district, both regular and excess; and

SENATE BILL NO. 2488, by Senators Van Hollebeke, Woody, Atwood, Mardesich, Greive, Walgren and Twigg:

Amending the implied consent law to permit a person who has refused the test to plead guilty and keep his license.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2488 and the Point of Order raised by Senator Grant on Wednesday, March 14, 1973 on the following amendment by Senator Woody which was moved for adoption on that day:

On page 4 after subsection (6) add a new subsection as follows:

"(7) The revocation of driving privileges under this section shall be considered as a conviction for the purpose of eligibility for an occupational driver's license as determined under chapter 5, Laws of 1973 and chapter 46.20 RCW."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling on the point of order as raised by Senator Grant, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 2488 is a measure which pertains solely to the issue of whether or not a driver's license shall be suspended in the event an accused offender refuses to submit to chemical or blood tests to determine alcohol content in his blood. This measure does not concern itself in any manner with occupational drivers' licenses which were the subject of Senate Bill No. 2055 previously passed by the Senate during this session.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Woody, however, pertains to the right to obtain an occupational driver's license and further provides that if a driver's privilege is suspended for refusing to submit to certain chemical or blood tests that such suspension shall be a 'conviction' within the terms of Senate Bill No. 2055, now chapter 5, Laws of 1973.

"The amendment does, therefore, increase the scope and object of the bill."

The amendment by Senator Woody was ruled out of order.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 24, strike "or of being in actual physical control of".

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Van Hollebeke moved that the amendment by Senator Washington be laid upon the table.

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Van Hollebeke failed by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 33; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob),

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, lines 29 through 31, strike all of the underlined material.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, on lines 10 and 11, strike "or of being in actual physical control of".
On page 2, line 22, strike "or of being in actual physical control of".
On page 2, lines 30 and 31, strike "or of being in actual physical control of".
On page 3, lines 19 and 20, strike "or of being in actual physical control of".
On page 3, lines 24 and 25, strike "or of being in actual physical control of".

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2488 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? My question relates to the statement you made a few minutes ago that the problem of driving without a license is taken care of elsewhere. Did you mean elsewhere in this bill or elsewhere in the law? I would like to have you explain just where that problem is taken care of."

Senator Francis: "Senator Metcalf, I do not know the citation. However, I can get it for you. But it is elsewhere in the law. There are pretty strict rules and penalties applied for driving while a license is suspended and for driving while a license is revoked. I do not believe it is covered anywhere in this bill."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Senator Francis. That is the point I wanted to check on, if that was part of this bill, because I had not seen it. I think this is a real problem that we need to look at, at a future time."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2488, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 16; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Guess, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker, Washington—16.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICh

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, for your committee chairmen and also for the members, next week on those committees that are scheduled at the two to four hours for committee meetings, we will be cutting that down to one hour from three to four; and for those committees that are scheduled at the ten-thirty to twelve a.m. hour for committee meetings, we are eliminating that hour for committee meetings. They will have to move up to the eight a.m. to nine-thirty a.m. if they can fit in there. And if there are too many conflicts they will have to hold their meetings in the evening. The reason for this, of course, is for us to have more time for floor work on the critical issues that we have before us for the next week."

MOTION

At 2:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Friday, March 16, 1973.

YOU MADE AMERICA A PROMISED LAND FOR MILLIONS SEEKING FREEDOM FROM THE SLAVERY OF POVERTY, OF RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION AND DICTATORSHIP. THIS WEEKEND AS OUR THOUGHTS TURN TO IRELAND AND ITS PEOPLE AS THEY HONOR PATRICK WHO LIKE MOSES LED THEM TO YOU, O LORD, WE GIVE THANKS FOR WHAT AMERICA HAS GIVEN TO THE IRISH EMIGRANT AND WE GIVE THANKS FOR WHAT THE EMIGRANT AND HIS CHILDREN HAVE GIVEN TO THE VARIOUS STATES IN OUR LAND. HEAL THE WOUNDS OF DIVISION IN THAT TROUBLED LAND AND HELP US WHATEVER OUR NATIONAL AND RELIGIOUS BACKGROUNDS, TO WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE OUR COUNTRY THE LEADER NOT SO MUCH IN ITS WEALTH AS IN ITS PURSUIT OF PEACE, OF JUSTICE AND FREEDOM. HELP US TO LEARN FROM IRELAND OF TODAY THAT INJUSTICE AND EXPLOITATION LEFT TO FESTER WILL POISON AND DEATH INTO THE BODY POLITIC. SAVE ALL OF US BY GIVING US LEADERS WITH THE SPIRIT OF PATRICK. MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have approved House Bill No. 240 entitled: "AN ACT Relating to alcohol beverage control."

This bill provides that for purposes of consumption of alcoholic beverages the legal age in the state of Washington shall be 19. Unfortunately, because the bill as originally submitted called for lowering the age to 18, a section of law was inadvertently repealed. This statute allowed 18-year-old persons to perform as professional musicians in establishments where alcoholic beverages were served.

When the bill was amended to change the age from 18 to 19, the repealer was not taken into account and was allowed to stand. Consequently, on the effective date of the act, many 18-year-old musicians will be unable to obtain employment in any establishment serving alcoholic beverages. Inasmuch as this was an unintended effect of this bill, I strongly urge you to favorably consider legislation that would once again allow 18-year-old musicians to perform professionally on premises licensed to serve alcoholic beverages.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 124, by Senators Lewis (Harry) and Atwood:

Providing a schedule for the special session.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 124 was advanced to second reading and ordered placed on the second reading calendar for Saturday, March 17, 1973.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 291, by Representative Charette:

Prohibiting private appraising by assistant and deputy assessors.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that if there were no objections, Engrossed House Bill No. 291 be returned to second reading.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, what are you attempting to do here?"

Senator Fleming: "First of all, when we passed this measure there was some question about the assessors being able to moonlight in counties or out of counties where these deputies were appointed. The second amendment on the second page, strikes 'unanimous' and inserts 'majority' and I think in the process of doing that we undid what we were trying to do, because you have three individuals that are involved from three different departments in setting the rates that these deputy assessors would receive. Two of these members, the Department of Revenue and assessors could go together and set the rates without the county administrator having anything to say. So we felt as though it should have stayed as a unanimous vote rather than a majority vote. It came back for concurrence or not to concur before the regular session ended, and Senator Bailey, who is from the area of concern here, had talked to Representative Charette about this measure and we felt as though we should rescind from our amendment."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Fleming, do I understand you are just going to prohibit them from doing any moonlighting at all?"

Senator Fleming: "Right."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I remove my objection, Mr. President."

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and Engrossed House Bill No. 291 was returned to second reading.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On motion of Senator Fleming, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which an amendment by the Committee on Local Government to page 1, section 1, line 13 and an amendment by Senator Fleming to page 2, line 10, were adopted on February 28, 1973.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, the two amendments, on reconsideration, were not adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed House Bill No. 291 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 291, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 7.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator Gardner, I note it would require the certification of a ski area. Would this go so far as to say that they would have to remove all of the trees? There was recently a fatality in one ski area where somebody hit a tree or a rock. By the passage of this, would this make them liable under their insurance?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Rasmussen, the accident to which you refer was where a student at the same school with my son hit a tower, not a tree. He hit a ski tower. No, this would not require that at all. There are reasonable standards required and it is unreasonable to expect that beyond a certain point required by the U.S. Forest Service the trees will be removed."

Senator Rasmussen: "My boy has had his ankle stripped, the tendons, and another one had the knee bent over backwards and was in the hospital for some period of time. This would not make them liable for injuries such as that?"

Senator Gardner: "No, they are only liable for their negligence, Senator Rasmussen, and basically in a ski area this bill relates to conveyances and the operation of those conveyances. Now the question you raise relates to the slope itself. And all areas are required to have professional ski patrol on hand at the opening of each day and that patrol procedures require it to ski the hill and to put up safety signs or no skiing signs in areas where there is potential danger. Beyond that, each individual on the hill is required to use their own judgment and be responsible for their own skiing actions."

Senator Rasmussen: "By buying a ski ticket they, in effect, sign and say that they are responsible for the injury rather than the operator?"

Senator Gardner: "Right. If the area operator has taken reasonable precautions to prevent accidents."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Gardner yield? Senator, I thought we had a pretty good bill and I know that you are a good skier and are interested in this type of legislation. My question is directed to your amendment. Would it in any way conflict with the inspection requirements and responsibility of the state Parks Commission? Is there any overlapping of authority or responsibility which your amendment would institute?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Canfield, are you referring to the first amendment on that page?"

Senator Canfield: "Yes, the one on page 4, with the standards of the American National Safety Requirements."

Senator Gardner: "Basically, Senator Canfield, it works this way. Where you have an area that is on state land with no federal land involved, the Park Commission assumes the responsibility. Where you have any federal land involved, then they subcontract with the federals. In both cases the state Park Commission and the federal U.S. Forest Service use the American Standards as their guide. So there is not an overlap in this."

Senator Canfield: "There would be no conflict in responsibility?"

Senator Gardner: "No sir."
EIGHTH DAY, MARCH 16, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Gardner yield? Senator Gardner, I note here that there are exceptions to this, and those are Hurricane Ridge, Olympic National Park, Paradise and Mount Rainier. Why is there an exception that these do not have to follow the bill?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Donohue, I believe you are looking at a note that pertains to a House bill on this subject and is not a portion of the Senate bill."

Senator Donohue: "That has been deleted? It is not in this bill then?"

Senator Gardner: "No, sir."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2662, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—43.

Absent or not voting: Senators Greive, Newschwaner, Sellar, Stender, Whetzel—5.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would the Senator yield to a question? Senator Murray, this also necessitates a change in typesetting too, doesn't it? In normal want ads you run just a plain type size but in much of this type of advertisement you have to change the size and it is quite a more complicated procedure!"

Senator Murray: "That is true in many cases. It is not always true. It is an option of the newspaper and there are some variations."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Murray yield to a question? Senator Murray, I am not necessarily against the bill, but I would like to know the impact on the state. It is a twenty-five percent increase, isn't it? What did we spend, say the last two years, on state legal notices? So that we know how much increase we are talking about in terms of the state treasury."

Senator Murray: "In my opinion this would not affect the state's expenditure of funds for legal notices. The state funds for constitutional amendments and so on that are advertised just prior to election for four weeks that are required are handled on a different basis and this would not affect that."

Senator Dore: "How are they handled?"

Senator Murray: "They are handled on a preset arrangement and they pay the normal display advertising rate."
NINTH DAY, MARCH 17, 1973

Senator Dore: "The ten cents a word?"
Senator Murray: "It is not done on a word, it is done on a column inch basis."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2312, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; absent or not voting, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Murray—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2312, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2063 was ordered held for the second reading calendar on Tuesday, March 20, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2118, by Senators Gardner, Durkan and Fleming (by Asian American Advisory Council request):
Removing citizenship requirements to teach in common schools of state.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 15, strike all of section 3.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "penalties" insert a period and strike the balance of the line.
On motion of Senator Gardner, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2118 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator, without reading the bill in detail, I would be led to believe that this repealed the law requiring a non-citizen from making a declaration that he is not a communist or fascist. Is that correct?"
Senator Gardner: "I do not understand your question."
Senator Stender: "In reading the caucus digest as it relates to Senate Bill No. 2118, I am led to believe that this proposed bill repeals the law providing that these non-citizens sign a non-communist or non-fascist loyalty oath before they could become teachers. Could you tell me if that is so?"
Senator Gardner: "That is correct. It is currently the federal law and this just repeals the state statute."
Senator Stender: "Mr. President, I just wonder what we are really up to here. I know you are talking about importing some teachers and we have lots of them. And I am just wondering whether or not we are going to something here that probably was a little out of context with reality. I just do not quite understand why we should have people here that may not want to sign a non-communist affidavit. In other words, they feel that perhaps they would be perjuring themselves in so doing maybe in some cases and we do not, I do not believe, really need anyone like that here teaching our kids. Now you want to repeal that requirement and I just cannot quite follow you. Maybe you could explain it a little better, Senator Gardner."

Senator Gardner: "Senator Stender, there are two RCW's referred to in this act, if you were to open your bill book and read the bill. One is .020 and the other is .030. This repeals .020 but does not touch .030, which in effect covers the concern which you have, Senator Stender."

Senator Stender: "Would you say that this caucus digest of the bill is accurate?"

Senator Gardner: "Not totally, Senator Stender, but I find that the case in a number of bills."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Gardner yield to a further question? Senator Gardner, in your research on this bill, are you aware, is this privilege reciprocal among other countries?"

Senator Gardner: "I have no idea of that, Senator Rasmussen, whether it is or not."

Senator Rasmussen: "We may be passing something here that other countries are barring our citizens from engaging in. Is this correct?"

Senator Gardner: "It is quite possible. Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Gardner yield? Senator, would you please look at the bill and tell me exactly what section 2 means? It just says these RCW's are repealed. And I would like to know exactly what the repeals are."

Senator Gardner: "All right, Senator Canfield. In the bill it refers to RCW 28A.67 then .020 and .030. Correct? All right, it is repealing .020 and leaving .030 in. Again correct? .020 is the section of the RCW's which requires that in order to teach in this state on the basis that Senator Woodall just said, an alien must declare that it is his intent to become a citizen of the United States, and this repeals that. Now it leaves in .030 which in effect addresses Senator Stender's concern and I know Senator Guess's too, although he is being nice to me in this instance, which is in effect that if a person gets into the schools and begins to teach in a way which is alien to the terms of citizenship as we believe it in this country, they can be decertified and not ever again allowed to teach. That is being left in, Senator Stender. That is .030."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Gardner, you are saying then that they would still not be permitted to teach if they would advocate communist or fascist doctrines? You are not repealing that?"

Senator Gardner: "That is correct. That is in .030, Senator Canfield."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2118, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 21.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Dore, Guess, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Walgren, Wamamaker—21.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2118, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
ELEVENTH DAY, MARCH 19, 1973

NOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 12:00 noon by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Sellar.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Ryan Hudson and Sharon Valdes, presented the Colors. Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of The First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD OUR FATHER, WE PUT OUR HANDS, AS IT WERE, IN THE HANDS OF THE MAN WHO STILLED THE WATERS, IN THE HANDS OF THE MAN WHO CALMED THE SEA. WE SEE IN HIS EXAMPLE OF PERSEVERANCE AND PATIENCE, HUMILITY AND FAITHFULNESS, COURAGE AND SELF-SACRIFICE, A MAGNETIC PATTERN FOR OUR LIVES. WE COVET THE INSPIRATION OF HIS PRESENCE AND HELP THROUGH THIS DAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Illustrious gentlemen of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, an event has taken place in the last few weeks which is of great import and significance to the United States of America, to the Washington State Senate and the people of the state of Washington. At this time, in order to in some measure properly signify this event, the President should like to respectfully request of Senator (Harry) Lewis, Senator Atwood, Senator Matson, Senator Connor, Senator Bailey, and Senator Mardesich that you please act as a committee of honor to escort the Honorable John H. Stender to the rostrum."
The President: "Senator Stender says he does not know why we want to do this to him. We are going to give you the business, John, right now.

"Gentlemen of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is with a great deal of pride and pleasure that the President at this time presents to you one of your own noted, renowned and capable members, Senator Harry B. Lewis, who in turn will present Senator Stender a symbol of the affection and admiration of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Thank you very much, Governor. I guess for all of us there will always be a great deal of pride in having known John Stender. From both sides of the aisle we have recognized the kind of steadfastness and stalwartness and loyalty that Senator John has presented to us in his voting and his activities in the Senate. He is a man of deep and long experience which has enabled him to do the type of job that he has done for the people he represents in the state of Washington. And for those reasons he was selected, I think, to leave us, which we regret very much, John, but at the same time we congratulate you for the position, for the honor which you have brought to us in the appointment granted you recently.

"I remember a few years ago when John Stender told me that a few years, just a few short years ago that he was actively working as a welder and a boilermaker and, of course, we recognize that he is a national vice president of the Boilermakers Union. But I would just like to remind you fellows that this husky man standing up here not too long ago was able to weld inside a thirty inch diameter pipe and turn around and come back. I do not know many of us of a much smaller size that could have done that.

"Senator John, we congratulate you sincerely on your appointment. We wish you well in Washington, D.C. We know that you will remember us and we have prepared a small memento of appreciation for you which I would like to present to you now."

REMARKS BY SENATOR STENDER

Senator Stender: "I think it is completely unfair not to let a guy know. I want to first say that I had on my desk a very stirring resolution that I understood was passed during my absence. I recall some four years ago, or nearly four years ago, when the last resolution was passed on the closing of the session at that time. This was a resolution commending me to the President for the position that he has now nominated me to. I suppose there is some coincidence in the fact that that resolution, as I understand it, was actually on the White House desk. So I have to say again, as I did four years ago, thank you so much for your kindness and your consideration. I am one, you know, of very few fancy or flowery words but I do very deeply appreciate having had a chance to work with a group of men such as the Senate of the State of Washington. It goes without saying, Governor, that you have been one of our stalwart leaders and, I know I can say for all of us here that they and I have appreciated your leadership immensely.

"There is a saying that the greatest achievements of mankind have been accomplished by two types of men, those who were smart enough to know it could be done and those too dumb to know it could not. I, as you know, have been asked to lead a department that is quite new in the United States government, a department dealing with the welfare and safety of workmen in their workplace in the industry and everywhere else, for that matter, in our country and its possessions. I suppose that I should not tell on myself, but when I had conversations with, some sixty days ago, I was asked what department I would particularly be interested in serving in if a nomination could be had. The confession is, I asked for this one if it pleased the President. Last week I spent two days in that department, in consultation and orientation, and I probably would not have made that request if I had made that two-day visit ahead of time. But it is a job that deals with the prevention of misery among man. When you look at the statistics of injuries and deaths in the workplaces of the country, it is staggering. We all talk about the casualties of war; we talk about the casualties on our highways; and we ever strive to improve our lot, but the workplace of our country does kill and maim a tremendous number of people. Many of them that are disabled, sometimes for life, become wards of the state and unfortunately they give an awful lot when you think of a man, sometimes a young man, who is disabled through his whole future.

“I do hope that, while I know the new act is a controversial matter, I do hope that my role can be directed to the needs and matters to get the labor and the management people to work together to bring about the best possible conditions of employment and reduce the misery and suffering. I accept the challenge. I have made known to the Governor my resignation as of tonight. I am going to leave with a real strong deep feeling about the last eleven years that I have spent with you here. I know I am going to come back, that I am not leaving forever. I am coming back and I hope that I will have an opportunity to visit again as we go along. I hope that I can have a hand in the new act that we have passed here called WISHE and seeing that that administration is carried out in the sense that the Senate and the House and the Governor and all of us intended it to be carried out.

“I just have to say, Harry, and all of you in my caucus, all of you in the Senate, that the work that I have done I do not want to forget. Mrs. Stender, Ida, is not here. She will be later today. She and my good secretaries that have, and not just here at the Senate, all my years that I have been in the union work and I have had the blessing of having at my right hand some very competent and capable and loyal people. I want to say for Anne Macrae and Charlotte Withrow, who is Senator Ted Peterson’s secretary, that both of them have just been a tremendous help in every way and have made the job here very easy. I know you all can say that for your secretaries, but I have to today. Anne, I see you over there. Would you step inside Anne, my loyal and true secretary.

“So with that I want to thank you, Governor, thank all of the leadership for your kindness. Thank you for the nice memento. I am going to treasure that the rest of my life. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, a few days ago some pressman who, although they want us to tell all, did not identify himself, called Cincinnatus, printed an article where he rated the members of the Senate and in one category he had about six of us. So whoever Cincinnatus is, I want to thank him because he said that Senator Guess, Senator Woodall, Senator Knoblauch, Senator Rasmussen and Senator Marsh all belong in the same class with Senator Stender. So my thanks to Mr. Cincinnatus. He put me in the category with a great guy. Thank you.”

PRESIDENT’S PRIVILEGE

The President: “Senator Stender, Senator Harry Lewis and gentlemen of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen that are fortunate enough to be present today, the President should like to address this one particular thought to you John, namely, that everyone who is acquainted with you knows that you are going to take to Washington, D.C. at least four things; unsurpassed intestinal fortitude, a strong backbone, the highest moral fiber, and great intellect. Senator Harry Lewis pointed out that you know how to use your head. I describe it as great intellect and if you could not get out of that thirty inch boiler one way or another you would use your head and get out that way. We know that. Now it has been a pleasure working with you here in the Senate and in Rules and Sid Snyder and all the rest of us and the staff. It is quite a compliment to you that so many of the staff are present to see you receive this little memento, which shows certainly affection and admiration. But we want to wish you well. We know you have made major, enduring and substantial contributions to our state and to the people of your district. And in two words, God bless.”

“Would the members of the committee please come forward and escort Senator Stender to his desk?”

POINT OF ORDER
Senator Durkan: "Who is the amendment by? By Greive and Lewis?"

PRESIDENT'S REPLY

The President: "By Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke." .

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke was adopted:

On page 1, strike lines 5 through 7.

There being no objection, Senator Lewis (Harry) withdrew all of the Lewis (Harry) amendments placed on the Secretary's desk last week to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125.
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, the copy on my desk says, 'Senate committee amendment to the amendment by Senator Lewis'. I understand Senator Lewis has withdrawn his amendment so I submit this is out of order at this time."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President has been advised by our Secretary that, if you are reading from the same document, the Senate committee is stricken, 'Senate committee' is stricken, 'to the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry)' is stricken. In other words, the amendment as corrected or revised to indicate that this amendment is proposed by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke."

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, to what?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Amendment to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125 by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke."

Senator Marsh: "Thank you, Mr. President."

The President: "It has been moved by Senator Greive that the Secretary be instructed to read the last line."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Was the information on line 5 stricken also?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The information on line 5 was stricken."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, we are now talking about adopting joint rules and amending our joint rules. My point of order that in amending the joint rules we have in here the words 'sine die' at the end of the seventh of April. That is on page 4, line 17. Now my point would be this, that in adjourning sine die since later on in this resolution we provide for the taking care of committees, I do not think we can adjourn sine die and take care of this matter in a joint rule because I think when a joint rule is adopted it dies with the sine die resolution."

Senator Greive: "I defer to Senator Dore to argue this particular point."

Senator Dore: "I did not hear the question. I was getting ready to make remarks for the amendment. I did not hear the point of order being raised."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Bailey, I think we have a substantial constitutional question in this particular set of circumstances as to whether or not this has the force of a bill where it deals only with our joint operations. It would seem to me that we are in a position, and there is considerable constitutional authority to that effect, to set ourselves in regular session and provide for matters during the interim, provided both houses act, without the signature of the Governor, because all of these matters deal only with our own operations. Even if it is not, we have to be realistic. There is another house and there will be provisions and there will be amendments. I think that it is a very proper statement of policy of this Senate, provided we can persuade enough votes on the floor of the Senate to adopt the policy and I think it is time that this entire matter be debated and that a matter of policy be transmitted to the other house."
REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, my point is this; while it is true that we can take care of this by concurrent resolution, and we have done this in many, many bills, if the joint resolutions or the joint rules carried over we would not have to adopt new joint rules every time that we had a session. Right now we have no joint rules before us and I just do not think these continue after the words sine die."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, speaking upon the point of order, it would seem to me that this is rather similar to the situation where toward the close of the regular session we adopt in effect a joint resolution which maintains the bills in their status quo with respect to another anticipated session which is subsequent to sine die. It seems to me we have a precedent in that connection."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "In the field of law we have a phrase that something goes to the weight rather than to the substance. It would seem to be that the best that Senator Bailey's argument could be, he would say that this does not have sufficient weight and that is something to be decided later. But to whether or not we can do it certainly is not a valid objection at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I invite you to go back and look at the preamble to this amendment to the joint rules. It says, 'Be it resolved that the joint rules of the forty-third legislative session be adopted as the joint rules of the first extraordinary session,' and I submit to you again that we may do it by concurrent resolution, as Senator Clarke has said, but I say that by amending the joint rules we are killing this at the time we adopt sine die."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I would like to call your attention to Senate Rule No. 57. 'Concurrent resolutions shall be subject to the rules governing the course of bills, and may be adopted without a roll call: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That concurrent resolutions authorizing,' and so forth and so on. It would seem to me that joint rules are a concurrent resolution. It is a resolution adopted by both houses for the handling of their own business."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I would like also to point out that Rule No. 57 has no force and effect before this body at this time."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President looks upon the matter raised by Senator Bailey as a parliamentary inquiry rather than a point of order and the President should like to clarify the situation in this manner. At the conclusion of each session the legislature historically has adopted a concurrent resolution either indefinitely postponing all measures or a concurrent resolution that provides other dispositions of the measures. Provisions must be made to keep the measures alive for a subsequent special session in this concurrent resolution before you or in another concurrent resolution which must be adopted before this special session adjourns sine die. Have I confused you or clarified?"
ELEVENTH DAY, MARCH 19, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Is the President saying in effect that the failure to pass another resolution with respect to this matter would render this one null and void?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Failure to pass a subsequent concurrent resolution would not render this one null and void but all bills would die with this session unless provided for in another concurrent resolution."

Senator Mardesich: "The effect would be that all the language that talks about the bills that should be considered would be of no effect, by committees and so on. This amendment provides that the bills shall stay in effect—it does not provide—it provides that committees shall study the bills which they have before them. Without another resolution there would be nothing before the committees in the interim."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes, Senator Mardesich, that your question is one that should be answered by the members."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, in attempting to answer Senator Mardesich's question as I understand it, historically we have studied bills during the interim which studies have been activated by various types of resolutions, concurrent or Senate resolutions. I see nothing in this resolution that would prohibit study of any matter in continuing committees or interim committees. I see nothing whatsoever that would prohibit that and I think that is the essence of your question and argument."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "The issue I raised at the time was not when it relates to bills, it was whether or not the joint rules would be effective after sine die. Now in effect, is it your opinion if we do not pass any further resolutions that these joint rules then will be effective after sine die?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "No, they would not be, Senator Bailey."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "It is your opinion then that we have to have a subsequent resolution in order to re-staff these committees and make these committees operate, and all we are doing here is an empty gesture. We are only adopting for now; for the interim we will have to re-adopt this before it can be effective!"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "That is true in the President’s opinion, Senator Bailey."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "In other words, I won my point."
REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In essence, the President believes you have."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WHETZEL

Senator Whetzel: "Is it also true then that the code of ethics for legislators dies at the end of the session, since that is also in the joint rules, that we have no ethics or code of ethics to guide us?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "I believe the code of ethics is provided for in a statute, Senator Whetzel."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "It may be in a statute, but it is also part of the joint rules."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RIDDER

Senator Ridder: "I think we are providing here a vehicle and I think that the vehicle, you all know, is going to go over to the House. Something will be done with it here. And I think we are providing a vehicle for doing this and looking at this as a fait accompli or the end I think is the wrong way to look at it. We must get dialogue going or we are going to stagnate. Now let us get this on the road and get our dialogue going."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Are we going to be working off of the Senate committee amendment to the amendment by Senator Lewis, by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke? Is that the one that we are going to be working off of?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes it is, Senator Durkan. The only difference is that Senator Lewis's name has been deleted."

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Marsh: "I have an amendment on the desk which would deal with lines 1 through 10. Would that not be in order at this time or will we have an opportunity to consider that after we consider Senator Whetzel's amendment?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Your amendment will be considered immediately following that of Senator Whetzel's, Senator Marsh."

On page 2, line 27, strike all of the matter down to and including "extended" on line 30 and insert: "All special sessions shall adjourn sine die within thirty consecutive days unless two-thirds of the members of each house agree to extend such special session by a specific number of days."

Debate ensued.

Senator Lewis (Harry) demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Atwood, Canfield, Connor, Ridder, Matson, Clarke, Newschunder, Stender and Metcalf.

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I assume that all that is being stricken now is the proviso?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Did you make such a motion, Senator Grant? Senator Grant has moved that the only matter stricken begins with the word 'Provided,' the proviso, Senator Mardesich."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, may I address myself to that issue then? I do not know who Senator Greive refers to when he speaks about Icelanders and Greenlanders. I can make some comments with respect to self discipline and point out that what he was talking about was while he was leader."

Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Fleming, Bailey, Bottiger, Odegaard, Connor, Grant, Woody, Dore and Donohue.

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Bailey and Grant to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 20.

Senator Newschwander: "Senator Bottiger, I was kept aware of what was going on."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Stender: "I want to raise a point of order. What is the business before the house?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The question is the adoption of the amendment proposed by Senator Marsh to the Senator Greive et al amendment."

Senator Stender: "I suggest that Senator Fleming talk to the motion."

Senator Fleming: "That is what I am talking to, and the motion is amending this area that deals with a policy question on committee setups."

Senator Stender: "You are talking about philosophy. It has nothing to do with the amendment."

Senator Fleming: "I am talking about the issue, Senator Stender."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Lewis (Harry), Peterson (Ted) and Metcalf demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "I have a question of Senator Atwood. Senator Atwood, at the beginning of the session your caucus decided to name a number of people vice chairmen of these various committees. Would you interpret this to mean that they would be considered vice chairmen?"
Senator Atwood: "They are not vice chairmen, Senator Bailey. They are called minority chairmen and in this particular measure they are called the ranking member. I think if you will read this it says ranking member, it does not say minority chairman. But they would not be vice chairmen within the meaning of this, unless somebody appointed them to be vice chairman."

Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Durkan, Bailey, Mardesich, Greive, Rasmussen, Day, Metcalf, Grant and Lewis (Harry).

ROLL CALL

Beginning on page 6, line 12, strike all of NEW RULE 40.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Henry yield to a question? Does your amendment apply to all of Rule 40?"

Senator Henry: "It might just as well."

Senator Dore: "Do you only intend to apply it to lines 19 through 24?"

Senator Henry: "Well, there have been so many drafts floating around here, including yours, that I could not make much head or tail out of it so I thought if I struck the whole rule I would probably find a nerve someplace."

MOTIONS

Senator Ridder moved that the question be divided.

Senator Henry moved that the amendment by Senator Henry to the amendment be changed to read as follows:

On page 6, beginning on line 19, strike the remainder of the paragraph on line 24.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Dore yield? Senator Dore, will you look to the language on lines 16 through 18? It says that money appropriated to any standing committee shall not be more than three times the amount appropriated to any other standing committee. Now I understand there is probably a million dollars in funds involved with respect to the Highway Committee. Does this mean then we have to appropriate three hundred and thirty-three thousand dollars to the Committee on Parks?"

Senator Dore: "Of course, we are not going to have the problem if we adopt Senator Henry's amendment, but by this we are referring to the standing committees, not to any other but the standing committees. The Highway Committee, of course, is one of the standing committees, and it is just a rule of thumb. You may recall that you asked me to take the draft of the other day, to revise it and bring it to you this afternoon, which I did. I explained it in detail in the caucus. We were open to suggestions if this was not workable, to change it. It was just a mechanical device whereby we would put a lid on the number of employees in the interim, and this was the technique used. It is not any—it has no pride of authorship, but had you desired to amend it or anything else but your response merely was to go to the floor for action. So apparently you were not desirous of considering any changes that we prepared over the weekend in your draft. We made a concerted effort to try to adopt this resolution into your joint rule last week but apparently you were not interested and wanted a vote on the floor immediately.”

Senator Mardesich: “Will you answer yes or no?”
Senator Dore: “My answer is no.”
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Henry carried and the amendment striking lines 19 through 24 on page 6 of the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke was adopted:
On page 6, line 29, after “secretary,”, strike the remainder of the paragraph.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Dore, Stortini, Connor and Van Hollebeke, as amended.
Debate ensued.
Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators and Jones.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Gardner yield? Senator Gardner, can you tell me what the fiscal impact of this is going to be if all of the schools comply?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Guess, this is a matter of judgment, but if you adopt the philosophy that in negotiation you can negotiate not only for salaries but for benefits also, you are going to have some districts that basically will prefer to negotiate for salary increases and leave the insurance benefits as they are. You will have others that recognize the fact that the insurance benefits are non-taxable to the individuals receiving them and consequently, you know, my thoughts on the answer to you would be, there would be necessarily no effective increase at all. It would just be a balanced increase. If you put a freeze on the amount of insurance benefit you can negotiate, you are just going to negotiate up in the salary level. Some districts would prefer not to have as much salary and to negotiate on the benefit level."

Senator Guess: "Senator Gardner, can you tell me what the package is costing now that the schools have negotiated and the coverage that they are giving when we are paying half of the cost, at least the twenty dollar cost?"

Senator Gardner: "No, I cannot, Senator Guess."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, what is the average contribution to insurance by the local school districts now state-wide?"

Senator Ridder: "You embarrass me. I think it is fifteen dollars. Some might go to twenty."

Senator Atwood: "Is it not true that in some of them the average is only around eight or nine dollars?"

Senator Ridder: "This is true, yes."

Senator Atwood: "That is the average."
Senator Ridder: "Some do not take the full amount that they are capable of taking."
Senator Atwood: "Most of them do not."
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Grant yield? Do I take it from your remarks then you will stand firm with us next trip around when the districts come back and say, 'Due to what you voted, we now need an increased state appropriation,'? You will stand firm with the likes of Atwood and me when we oppose giving it to them?"
Senator Grant: "A very difficult question, Senator. I would not presume to say what I might do during the next session."

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2490 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, on page 4 it reads, PROVISION, That in the event of the death of a victim who was not gainfully employed at the time of death, and who was not so employed for at least three of the twelve months immediately preceding injury, benefits payable to an eligible surviving spouse shall be limited to burial expenses as provided in RCW 51.32.050 as now or hereafter amended and a lump sum payment of seven thousand five hundred dollars with reference to children. In the event that a person was inadvertently unemployed for that period of time, he still might be a long time breadwinner of the family and under the industrial insurance the widow and children would be entitled to a pension. That widow's pension over a period of years would amount to considerably more than the seven thousand. Wouldn't you think that that should have an amendment in there to provide that if he is the breadwinner and for a period of years, that she be entitled to the pension?"

Senator Durkan: "This is one of the areas in which you have to begin drawing the lines. It is a new concept on compensation. It is mainly intended to benefit that victim of the crime. Now I recognize that the logical conclusion is that you should also take care of it, if that victim is killed, then it should be also his wife and his children. But we have reached a point in time where the state, in order to be able to fund this, we had to make some arbitrary decisions and this is one of the decisions that we made. It may be that as we go down the road of experience with this bill in a year or two that we will want to come back and provide further and enlarge the scope. There are many things not in this bill that if you were talking about social justice you could very readily put in it but, frankly speaking, it became a question of how many dollars we were going to be able to invest in the initial inception of the bill and with that in mind, this particular view as to the widow and children was limited. I think that it was at best a good compromise and as good as we could do under the circumstances and if we once get a reading on the amount of dollars that it is going to cost us, then I think we can come back in and make those additional compensations. I would hope that the bill could pass as is and give us a chance to get some experience on it, Senator, and then come back and do the things that you want to do in that provision. There are other provisions in there that I think that we could do more on, but at the present time we are limiting it to the bill as provided."

Senator Rasmussen: "I agree with Senator Durkan. One more question. Take the case of an elderly person who is knocked down and her purse is snatched. Would this pay the hospital expense of that victim?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, the bill will take care of the physical disabilities and also, under the schedule as provided, if there are any permanent disabilities, they will also be taken care of. It will not provide for any compensation for the loss of the purse. In other words, if there was money in the purse, that is not provided for in this bill. What this bill provides for is the physical disability that occurs, and just that."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2490, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Francis—1.
Excused: Senator Bottiger—1.

ENGROSGSED SENATE BILL NO. 2490, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of the Honorable Chester Biesen and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Durkan, Fleming, Atwood and Metcalf to escort the honored guest to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

Appropriate remarks were made by Senators Durkan, Washington, Atwood, Canfield, Walgren, Mardesich, Knoblauch, Talley, Woodall, Fleming, Greive, Jolly, Dore, Rasmussen, Bob Lewis and Ted Peterson.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Chester, the President believes that the cordial remarks uttered here today could be summarized in the saying that personality has the power to open many doors, but only character can keep them open. It is quite evident that you had the personality to open the doors of all of the members of the legislature, but what is really important, it is more than evident that you had the character and have the character to keep them open. We are certainly happy that you are here, and do not think that you are getting away unscathed. You have to come up and face the mike. Chester Biesen."

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE CHESTER BIESEN

Chester Biesen: "Mr. President and members of the state Senate, these words absolutely leave me speechless. This is such a surprise this morning. I certainly never anticipated anything like this in all my life. To those kind and gracious words, what can I say? If I could use one minute of personal privilege, however, I would say, gentlemen, retirement is great. You really have something to look forward to one of these days, some sooner, some later. And in no way, in no way do I miss the blood and the sweat and the tears that I spent around these marble halls for well over forty years now, ever since 1927, with just a short gap in between. But I do want to say very sincerely that I miss you gentlemen personally far more than I can say, because I consider every one of you a close personal friend. In terms of what Senator Knoblauch said about friendship, may I just say that your friendship to me, my feeling towards you, has heightened and deepened and ripened through the years because I know intimately and personally something of the great sacrifices that the gentlemen of this body make to serve the public and I wish sometimes I could tell the public that to a greater extent than I do. This is a grand group of men.

"And may I say too, that if I ever said anything unkind about any member of this body in the heat of battle, if I ever cast any aspersions about your mental prowess or what have you, when those few times, few times when one of those perfect, flawless, highly commendable bills we always sponsored went down the drain, if I ever said anything like that I take it all back and I certainly apologize now. But I would say, Mr. President and gentlemen, that you voted for far more bills than you ever turned down and we are grateful for the marvelous consideration that you gave. In fact, I think it was something like thirty or forty per session and many times Floyd Jennings and myself attempted to keep the sponsorship of some of our bills secret because we were afraid if you knew how many we were getting out of your Rules Committee and you were passing, you might think we were a little greedy, so in some cases we kept the sponsorship a rather guarded secret."
"Gentlemen, I do want to say very sincerely and humbly, this is the most unique and remarkable honor I have ever received in all my life and all I can say is thank you from the bottom of my heart and God bless you."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Chester. The President only hopes that you have not spoken a little too soon. After all, the resolution has not been adopted yet."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, in the event neither parent were considered acceptable by the court, would this particular amendment preclude the court from delivering the child unto some other relative who was best capable?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Lewis, this amendment does not change existing law on that point. I think that that is debatable. We have another bill we have been working on which will reduce the debatability of what you are talking about."

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 80, following section 91 add new sections as follows:

"Sec. 92. Section 51.08.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A [wife] spouse who has lived separate and apart from [her husband] the other spouse for the period of two years and who has not, during that time, received, or attempted by process of law to collect, funds for [her] maintenance, shall be deemed living in a state of abandonment.

Inasmuch as it has proved impossible in the case of employees of common carriers by railroad, engaged in maintenance and operation of railways doing interstate, foreign and intrastate commerce, and in maintenance and construction of their equipment, to separate and distinguish the connection of such employees with interstate or foreign commerce from their connection with intrastate commerce, and such employees have, in fact, received no compensation under this title, the provisions of this title shall not apply to work performed by such employees in the maintenance and operation of such railroads or performed in the maintenance or construction of their equipment, or to the employees of such common carriers by railroad engaged therein, but nothing herein shall be construed as excluding from the operation of this title railroad construction work, or the employees engaged thereon: PROVIDED, That common carriers by railroad engaged in such interstate or foreign commerce and in intrastate commerce shall, in all cases where liability does not exist under the laws of the United States, be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while employed by such carrier, or in case of the death of such employee, to [his] the surviving [wife] spouse and child, or children, and if no surviving [wife] spouse or child or children, then to the parents, minor sisters, or minor brothers, residents of the United States at the time of such death, and who were dependent upon such deceased for support, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as the liability now existing, or hereafter created, by the laws of the United States governing recoveries by railroad employees injured while engaged in interstate commerce: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any interstate common carrier by railroad shall also be engaged in one or more intrastate enterprises or industries (including street railways and power plants) other than its railroad, the foregoing provisions of this section shall not exclude from the operation of the other sections of this title or bring under the foregoing proviso of this section any work of such other enterprise or industry, the payroll of which may be clearly separable and distinguishable from the payroll of the maintenance or operation of such railroad, or of the maintenance or construction of its equipment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving an independent contractor engaged through or by his employees in performing work for a common carrier by railroad, from the duty of complying with the terms of this title, nor as depriving any employee of such independent contractor of the benefits of this title.

Sec. 94. Section 51.24.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 37, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

If such approval is not obtained, claim for the deficiency will be deemed to have been waived.

Any third party action brought under this title by such workman or beneficiary must be duly prosecuted; if the action is not filed or settled within one year of the notice of election, the cause of action shall be deemed assigned to the department or self-insurer if after thirty days notice the action is neither filed nor settled. If a cause of action which has been filed is not diligently prosecuted, the department or self-insurer shall have the right to petition the court in which the action is pending for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. Upon sufficient showing in the court's discretion of a lack of diligent prosecution, such an order shall issue.

In any action brought under this section wherein recovery is made by compromise and settlement or otherwise, the department or self-insurer, to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title, shall bear its proportionate share of attorney's fees and costs incurred by the injured workman or [his widow] surviving spouse, children, or dependents, as the case may be, and the court shall approve the amount of attorney's fees.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: “I would like to know the delineation of the term ‘workman’. This seems to be a male designation. I wonder if in law it has both female and male genders designation.”

Senator Francis: “Senator Ridder, by statutory interpretation we have always included the man as a generic term including both sexes and the same with workman. The term ‘workman’ can apply to a male or female workman, if you will. I could go into the history of the word, but I think it suffices to say that as a matter of statutory interpretation that is the way we have always worked and will continue to work.”

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 100, after section 114, insert the following sections:

(4) When [her] the person's resistance is prevented by stupor or weakness of mind produced by an intoxicating narcotic or anaesthetic agent administered by or with the privity of the defendant; or

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendments to the title were adopted:
On page 5, line 20 of the title, after “RCW 50.20.030;” insert: “amending section
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, are you attempting to change the criminal code because you do not think it is going to pass this session by amending it to this bill?"

Senator Francis: "Senator, I was going to get into that when we got to the code, but that is correct. I have yielded to the wishes of the prosecutors in that matter and we are going to look at it a little bit longer and I think that we need to take action on this immediately. I can get into some of the reasons for that but it is apparent that it would have a great deal of difficulty on the floor, and for that reason I feel that we have to move on these particular ones where we otherwise might be left in limbo now so that we will be able to look at the rest of it."

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2502 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, did you get a fiscal note on your amendment? Will a man who now is the surviving spouse in an industrial accident be entitled to a pension or if he remarries he can get seventy-five hundred dollars cash settlement in the event his wife would be killed in an industrial accident?"

Senator Francis: "That is in those cases where the wife was covered by industrial insurance because she had that type of employment. No, I did not get a fiscal note, Senator. The changes we have made here are compelled by the change to our state Constitution and thus it was the feeling of the majority of the committee that we had to make the changes in any event and that a fiscal note would not change what we did on it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Metcalf yield? Senator Metcalf, I appreciate your remarks and part of which I may debate if we ever get to the floor on the other matter, but you said it raises the specter of federal control. You are not talking about this bill but about the federal ERA?"

Senator Metcalf: "No way do I refer to this bill. This is a good bill and should be passed. I say section 2 of the other measure raises that specter which I am sure will be debated at length. I did not mean to leave that impression and I urge you to support this bill. It is good legislation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator, I am looking in the repealing sections and it repeals RCW 26.16.170 which states, 'Contracts may be made by a wife and liabilities incurred and the same may be enforced by or against her to the same extent and in the same manner as if she were unmarried. Now, is it the legislative intent of this to do away with the situation where a married woman contracts an obligation, she may have some separate property that a creditor may go after, is it the intent of this legislature to do away with the ability of her to contract and incur her separate liabilities?"

Senator Francis: "No, it is not the intent, Senator Woody."

Senator Woody: "In addition, there is a repealer of RCW 49.28.070 which you are familiar with. It provides basically that no female shall be employed in any mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel or restaurant, for more than eight hours during any day, and then continues on with a rather lengthy section. Is it the intent by this legislation that people can require females to work longer than eight hours a day and that there cannot be any retribution, either through the Department of Labor and Industries or anything else for that lengthy work?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Woody, it is the intention of this bill to provide that both sexes will be equal before the law in that respect. Any right to not work over a certain number of hours would apply equally to both sexes and would not apply strictly to one sex."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Francis yield to an additional question? I am not satisfied with the response. You say that the restrictions on working hours would be applied equally. Are you acquainted with any restrictions relative to working hours that apply to men in the state of Washington solely?"

Senator Francis: "No, I am not, Senator Grant."

Senator Grant: "Then, Senator Francis, there would be no eight hour work rule, should this be passed, for men or women?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Grant, if you are asking me, I will tell you that I do not know. When I said that I am not acquainted with any, that does not mean there aren't any. I do not know. There are certainly a lot of union contracts and so forth that set a number of hours per week and per day. All we are doing here is repealing a law that applies only to women and which some women regard as a benefit and others regard as a handicap in that they seem to have a separate kind of protection in the number of hours they work from that of men. All we are doing here is repealing the law which applies only to women and restricts them, so that any restrictions which we do pass on the number of hours you can work, and as one Senator commented to me just now, we are ought to apply that eight hour thing to legislators, but whatever we do in that area would apply equally to the sexes."

The President appointed the following committee to escort Commander Brunhaver to the rostrum: Senators Knoblauch, Matson, Sandison and Woodall, and Representatives Morrison, Newhouse, Ellis and Garrett. The committee escorted Commander Richard Brunhaver to the rostrum.

President Cherberg: "Commander Brunhaver, Governor Evans, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the Legislature, and ladies and gentlemen: The President indeed has a singular and precious honor this morning to introduce to you one of the most distinguished heroes of World War II. Mr. Robert Bush, who was a Hospital Apprentice First Class, serving as a medical corpsman, with a rifle company, 2nd Battalion, Fifth Marines, earned the Congressional Medal of Honor on May 2, 1945. Mr. Bush is president of the National Congressional Medal of Honor Society. He was born and raised in South Bend, Washington, and he is presently residing in Elma, Washington. I know that the people of that area of our state are especially proud, along with the other people of the state, of Mr. Bush. Mr. Bush has been active in governmental affairs and has traveled all over the world as a representative of the United States Government. He is presently president or vice president of more than ten separate corporations, with his main area of business being in Grays Harbor, Pacific and Thurston Counties. I know that you will all join with me in welcoming Mr. Bush."

Mr. Robert Bush: "Thank you, very much, Governor Evans, Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Lieutenant Commander Brunhaver, it is a real pleasure for me to be here this afternoon and participate in this very memorable occasion. It is not every day that the United States Government and the citizens of the state of Washington have the opportunity to welcome home one of their national heroes. It would do us well to give a little thought to the tremendous cost that was involved in people, manpower, and money to bring to a successful conclusion the Viet Nam War. We are indeed indebted to Commander Brunhaver. It would also do us well to note that as long as this nation would like to be the 'Land of the Free', it has to maintain the position as the 'Home of the Brave'. Thank you, very much."

President Cherberg: "At this time the President should like to present His Excellency, the Governor of the State of Washington, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans. Governor Evans."

Governor Daniel J. Evans: "Commander Brunhaver, members of this legislature, and Washingtonians gathered here: I am proud as Governor, and I know I speak as Governor for the citizens of our state, proud as a Washingtonian, and uniquely proud as a former Navy man, to welcome back one who has served as have many, many others during the course of the longest, perhaps most difficult, unquestionably the least understood, war this nation has been engaged in, in its almost two-hundred-year history. Some chose not to serve. Most, almost all, did. Many didn't thoroughly understand all of the reasons that got us into the conflict, but they served nonetheless as have many generations of fighting men before them during our history. Some were called on to give much more than many of the rest of us have ever been called on to give, to sacrifice that thing more important than anything else, and that is a good share of a person's life. Commander Brunhaver has spent almost a quarter of his entire life behind prison walls, as a prisoner of war. We welcome you back, recognizing that you have already given more than most of us will ever be called on to give. We hope in return that we, as representatives of government, all of us as citizens of this state, can pay back in some small respect, by carrying out our responsibilities, to make this a better state, a better community, and a better nation—to make the unique and overwhelming sacrifice you have given really worthwhile. I am sure you believe it is. It is up to us to help assure that. We do welcome you back. It is great to have you home, and particularly great to have this war behind us, and the opportunity to embark on what I am sure we all hope will be a generation of peace in this nation and across the world."
President Cherberg: "At this time, State Treasurer Robert O'Brien will present a symbol of the admiration and affection the people of our state hold for Commander Brunhaver."

State Treasurer O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen assembled: I have had many honors bestowed upon me as Treasurer of this state. I don't think I have had a higher one than I have today—the privilege of granting to Richard Brunhaver this token of the esteem of the people of the state. Certainly dollars will not pay back those seven and one-half years in a prison camp, but they are some indication, Commander, of our feeling toward you."

Commander Brunhaver: "This check which Mr. O'Brien has just presented to me, as he said, is a note of appreciation to me for having served my country in North Viet Nam. It is really I who must thank you—offer my appreciation to you—for the support, the wonderful thoughts and feelings that have been expressed to me since my return to the United States. And the knowledge that I had, while I was in Viet Nam, of this wonderful country, and the wonderful people in this country, that made it possible for me to survive and again to return to the land I love so much. Thank you."

President Cherberg: "Commander Brunhaver, your strength and courage and that of your colleagues, and especially Captain Lawrence Writer who is so close to the hearts of so many people in the legislature, and the others who endured so much for the citizens of this state of Washington and the world, have earned you our gratitude and respect. We welcome you home, and wish you God Speed and God Bless."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Brown: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of personal privilege. As a naval aviator for twenty years, one now long retired, I would merely like to extend to Commander Brunhaver for his courage in combat, for his perseverance in adversity, a personal and a heartfelt 'well done'."

President Cherberg: "Thank you, Representative Brown. The President has learned that Representative Savage is a very close friend of Mr. Bush. For that reason, I should like to respectfully call on Representative Savage."

Representative Savage: "Mr. President, I became a friend of Mr. Bush when he was issued the Congressional Medal of Honor upon his return from the war, and he and his bride were my guests in Washington, D.C., during the time when he was being honored by the Congressional group. I think it is appropriate that he is here today to help see that another veteran gets the kind of honor that he has earned."

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort State Treasurer Robert S. O'Brien from the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort His Excellency, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, from the House Chamber.

President Cherberg: "Commander Brunhaver, ladies and gentlemen: The President takes a great deal of personal pride in our young and honored visitor here today in that, being a native of Pensacola, Florida, I am very proud of the fact that Commander Brunhaver received his training in Pensacola. We thank you for coming, sir, and we are honored by your presence."

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort Commander Richard Brunhaver from the House Chamber.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Pardini: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, members of the House of Representatives, ladies and gentlemen: I think we have had a very fitting tribute to a man who is a hero, who is a symbol of many people who have done something for this country. There are many people on this floor who did not agree with the war, as the Governor stated. But there is a feeling of consternation among several members of this House at the expression of displeasure of some of the people in the gallery. I would suggest to these people in the gallery, who have discomfort, who do not agree, that they carry the message back that this war is over. And it is time to forget what has happened before and start pulling together for a better country. I think that all of us in Joint Session would be remiss if we did not attempt to deliver that message. I hope it is well received, and I hope they take it back. Thank you, Mr. President.”

(Applause)

President Cherberg: “Representative Pardini, the President wishes to assure you that the response to your remarks is concrete evidence that they were well chosen, well taken, and well received. Thank you very much.

“Mr. Speaker, on this happy note, it is always a pleasure to once again express the appreciation for the unsurpassed hospitality which you, the members of your House, and staff, extend to the members of the Senate and the President. I wish, once again, to compliment your staff on the wonderful arrangements. Thank you so much.”

The President of the Senate turned the gavel over to the Speaker of the House.

The Speaker: “Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, we are always honored when the distinguished members of the Senate visit us.”

MOTION

On motion of Representative Charette, the Joint Session was dissolved.

The Speaker directed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort President Cherberg, President Pro Tempore Henry, and Vice President Pro Tempore Keefe, and the members of the Senate to the Senate Chamber.

THIRD MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:40 a.m.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Walgren: “I cannot help but comment upon the fine job of lobbying that I noticed over in the joint session with the individuals who at least purported to be representing the equal rights amendment. Frankly, I am committed to support that particular position and intend to vote for the measure when it comes out to the floor. But I was ashamed, frankly, to see persons who have such an utter disregard for the proprieties, it seems to me, of the ceremony that we were witnessing over here these last few minutes. And I would think that those persons who are supporting ERA would take some position on their own to try and control some of the people that are with them in their fine group and their fine movement. But I can tell you that that type of an example as presented by some of the people who are carrying the same signs that some of you are now, did not help your cause one bit this morning, and I would not be a bit surprised to find some of the Senators here who are indeed committed to your position to switch just for something as small as that.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I want to wait until some of those babes get over here to the Senate chamber before I give my talk. I never have seen a more disgraceful thing in my entire life. I would rather hold my talk until they get over here because they have a tongue lashing coming and they are going to get it.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Washington: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think I shared the feeling that many of you did, but I think one of the things that we cannot let ourselves be carried away with is what might be termed guilt by association. The ERA movement is tremendously wide. It covers a very diverse group of people, from women who are just interested in legal rights to a very radical fringe of people. I think we would certainly be doing the entire cause a disservice if we were to allow our votes on this issue to be governed in any way by the conduct of a few people out of the many millions who are in favor of this equal rights amendment throughout the country. Again, I sympathize with Senator Walgren's feelings and I sympathize with the feelings expressed by Senator Knoblauch, and Representative Pardini, but I certainly think we have to keep this in context. If you are going to shoot, shoot with a rifle at those with whom you have a displeasure; do not shoot with a shotgun against the entire ERA movement."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, a few weeks ago I was thinking about contacting the Lieutenant Governor about inviting Lieutenant Brunhaver to the state Senate and for some reason or another I just simply did not follow through with what I wanted to do. So I was very happy yesterday when I learned that the House and the Senate of the state of Washington were going to have a joint session to honor this fine officer from Moxee, Washington, of whom all the people of America can be proud. And this morning I could not help but notice that when the Lieutenant Governor introduced Mr. Bush, the Governor of the state of Washington, our state Auditor and our very distinguished guest, that some ladies up in the gallery did not have the decency to stand up as these men were introduced. They did not have the decency to stand up when Lieutenant Brunhaver was escorted down the aisle. They sat there like a bunch of dummies that did not want to give respect to those who served our country so well. As far as I am concerned, not only the two ladies in the front row but those who sat up in back are a disgrace to their country. They are a disgrace to womanhood. They are a disgrace to the equal rights amendment group. I certainly cannot blame all of the people of the state who are for equal rights for the disgraceful thing that we saw today, but why didn't they stay away if they did not want to show their respect to our war hero? Why did they come and sit in the gallery and sit on their fannies, a disgraceful action for citizens of the state of Washington? If I had my way they would be escorted out of the Senate gallery. As far as I am concerned, they struck a new low today in the city of Olympia. How they could sit there, and I suppose they would have sat down also for the national anthem. Ladies who did not stand up today, as far as I am concerned, you are a disgrace to the state of Washington and the United States of America."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I too, agree with some of the things that Senator Knoblauch has said and I think that he was right in pinpointing some of the things that he did say. I also would like to remind the members on this floor, as Senator Washington did earlier, that to pick out two young ladies that might have been disrespectful to the ceremony in the House and label the entire equal rights movement by the women of this state and of this nation, I think that we would be remiss in doing that. I think that your point is well taken as well as the points by Representative Pardini. I would hope that we would take Senator Knoblauch's statement and words in the right vein. I would hope that the members on this floor that at some point in time had anticipated voting for the equal rights amendment that are still in the process of making up their minds to vote for the equal rights amendment will not let that incident that happened sway their minds on such an important issue. I think that if you will just sit or you were sitting there and watching the young ladies that would have indicated to you that these two young ladies were not indicative of the representation of the women of this nation who are behind the equal rights amendment. So I, too, agree with you, Senator Knoblauch, that they should not have been there if they did not want to honor these men, but I do not think we should label the entire movement and eventually possibly defeat the ratification of the equal rights amendment on such an incident."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President, not only were there two in the front row, but on top there were a good many women with the ERA signs on that also sat down. It was not just two. It was quite a large group."

Senator Odegard moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Donohue:

On page 1, section 1, line 10, strike the period and insert: "Provided, That this act shall only take effect in the event the legislature shall appropriate funds for the 1973-75 biennium to carry out the purposes of this 1973 act."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Odegard yield to a question? Senator Odegard, the figure you quoted, is that a fiscal note that we received on that?"

Senator Odegard: "Yes, it is, Senator."

Senator Bottiger: "The Attorney General's office consumer protection division is currently receiving complaints and processing them at this time. I am just wondering what the additional funds would be necessary for."

Senator Odegard: "Our fiscal note shows salaries, other goods and services such as phone costs, rental of building costs, attorney general fees, utility supplies facilities, total thirteen thousand eight hundred; and some per diem and mileage costs total nineteen hundred and eighty. That all adds up to about eighty-one thousand in a biennium."

Dear Lt. Gov. Cherberg:

Those of us who have been working for the ERA at our homes and here in Olympia want you to know we are in full accord with your statement before the Joint Session honoring our P.O.W.

We feel that the two women who raised the ire of all of us in the Chambers are not part of the women's groups who are for the ERA. They are individuals who all of us would prefer not to be associated with.
Thank you for expressing your feelings which coincided so well with our sympathies.
Respectfully,
(signed by) Beverly Corwin.”

Providing for the practice of acupuncture under the supervision of a licensed physician.

MOTION

Senator Durkan moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 14 be re-referred to the Committee on Social and Health Services.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would you be amenable to holding it on the calendar for four or five days to study it?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, I think that the issues are very deep and important and I have no objections to discussing it with you. That was one of the problems that was raised, that it does not cover the entire profession, it covers only parts of it, and it omits others. There is a question in the manner in which it is now being operated; and it was discussed with me at great length and in order to be fair about it, that was the intent that I raised in the caucus this morning so it would be, and I have talked to Dr. Day about it."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and Engrossed House Bill No. 14 was re-referred to the Committee on Social and Health Services.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2634, by Senators Clarke, Guess and Fleming (by Executive request): Enacting the State Building Code Act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2634 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2634, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Whetzel and Clarke:
On page 3, section 6, line 20, after ""(3)"" strike ""The"" and insert ""Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the"".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, I think I am in accord with your amendment. The only thing that disturbed me is subsection 3 in section 6. When I read it, it seems to almost completely negate the effect of the bill if the local authority wanted to do so. I read it earlier today and was groping for some way to make that not so possible, but if I read that language correctly, it would completely negate the effect of the bill. Your amendment would seem to do so with respect to a particular class of buildings. Do you read that the same way that I do, that it almost allows the local units to do whatever they wish in spite of section 1?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, Senator, in substance I think that would be true. That is, a local governing body can limit the application as to specified classes or types. Now the saving provision and admittedly this is a difficult situation to allow the local authority the power without giving them complete power to override, but I think the last part of section 3 where it says, 'or such other distinctions as may make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper or desirable.' In other words, I think there is still the burden on the local authority to show a proper basis for this differentiation. I do not think they could just come in on more or less of a blanket basis and completely exempt themselves from the code. They would have to show that they had something unique that would justify that exemption and that is the intent, at least, of my amendment and my reading of the provision."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment was adopted.
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2634, as amended, was placed following House Joint Resolution No. 10 on today's second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2421, by Senators Ridder, Marsh and Canfield (by Secretary of State request):
Providing for changes in the publication of notice of proposed constitutional amendments.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2421, providing for changes in the publication of notice of proposed constitutional amendments (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 16, after "65.16.150." and before "Sec. 2." insert "The secretary of state may confer with appropriate media as to format of such public notice."
Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Stottrini.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 14, after "polling places" and before the period insert: "Provided,
That the secretary of state shall not duplicate information contained in the official notice of the election as provided in RCW 29.27.080, as it now exists or is hereafter amended."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Senator Marsh, will you yield? Have you discussed this amendment with the state elections office?"
Senator Marsh: "Yes, I have."
Senator Whetzel: "And does this have their approval?"
Senator Marsh: "This has their approval. As a matter of fact they drew the language."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator, I have no amendment on page 2, but I call your attention to subsection (e) and I recall in the last election some charges were made that the statements in some parts of the pamphlet were biased, untrue, unfair. You remember that, don't you, Senator Metcalf? So my question, Senator Grant, in regard to subsection (e) is this: Would these known and responsible individuals or committees be hand picked to present only one side? Could they be picked so as to just present one side?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, I think that Senator Canfield's inquiry relates to a different matter other than the amendment under consideration. I would ask if perhaps the response might be deferred until after we had a vote on the amendment."

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, his point is well taken. I thought the amendment had been considered."

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I would like for Senator Grant to comment on the question."

Senator Grant: "I really do not understand the question, Senator. Would you mind repeating it?"

Senator Canfield: "I know that according to the present statutes, individuals or groups are asked to sponsor pro and con statements. Is that not correct?"

Senator Grant: "That is correct."

Senator Canfield: "Now subsection (e) restates that, but I have a kind of a feeling that perhaps the Secretary of State's office feels that some of the statements in the last voters' pamphlet were not completely unbiased and I am just wondering if they could load these statements to present just one side?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Canfield, I do not know that subsection (e) either having it in or deleting it, would get to the problem that you raise. There were questions raised relative to the voters' pamphlet in the last election as to some of the explanatory comments that were made by the Attorney General's office, as a matter of fact. Now this bill and that section permits the Secretary of State to advertise that there are certain groups that are sponsoring or in opposition to a given ballot issue. Now whether they are responsible or irresponsible, I do not know how we will be able to determine that. I am not, frankly, a sponsor of this measure, and perhaps one of the sponsors might be better able to answer your question."

On motion of Senator Ridder, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after line 14, add the following paragraph:

"The secretary of state shall not publish the proper name of any candidate for public office or any incumbent public official within the content of any notice published as provided in RCW 29.27.072, except when that individual is a member of a committee appointed to draft an official argument for the voters' pamphlet as provided in RCW 29.81.030, 29.81.040, 29.81.050, or 29.81.060."

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 6, after "services" and before the period insert: "PROVIDED, That the secretary of state, having such voter information services, shall not distribute any explanatory material unless such material has been verified by each known committee."

On motion of Senator Ridder, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2421 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2421, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis (Harry), Murray—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2421, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Joint Resolution No. 10 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 22, 1973.

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Lewis (Harry) was excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2513, by Senators Talley and Twigg:
Raising salaries of county officials.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2513, raising salaries of county officials (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 19, after "dollars." strike the remainder of the section and insert "The county legislative authority of such county is authorized to increase the salary of such office, beginning January 1, 1975, beyond that set by this 1973 amending act."

On page 4, section 2, beginning on line 19, after "counties:" strike the remainder of the paragraph and insert "Prosecuting attorney, thirty thousand three hundred dollars;".

On page 6, section 2, beginning on line 28, strike all of the material down to and including "1974." on page 8, line 1, and insert "The county legislative authority is authorized to increase the salary of any county officer set by this 1973 amending act, which increase shall not take effect before January 1, 1975."

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Talley, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19.

Senator Woodall moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Amend the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 as follows:

In line 2 of the amendment, after "authorized to" and before "the salary" strike "increase" and insert "establish" and in line 3 of the amendment after "office" insert a period and strike remainder of amendment.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Senator Woodall, I have been leafing through my Constitution in a hurry to see if we are running afoul of any constitutional provision on decreasing the compensation of a public official during his term of office. Have you checked this out to see whether Article XXX is violated by your amendment?"
Senator Woodall: "You probably could not for the particular year to an incumbent. However, you could establish the new schedule for that office at any time. There is nothing to stop them establishing it for new holders."

Senator Whetzel: "One other question with respect to your language. What happens if the county legislative authority takes no action? Will the present salary remain or must they take action in order to establish any salary at all for such office?"

Senator Woodall: "We merely give them the power to establish a new schedule either way they want to go."

Senator Whetzel: "I am concerned by use of the word 'established'. It might imply . . . ."

Senator Woodall: "Would the word 'set' . . . ."

Senator Whetzel: "I will make a deal with you here. How about 'increase or decrease'?"

Senator Woodall: "Good, whatever is fair. I will buy that. I would move that oral amendment to the amendment, if there be no objection."

On motion of Senator Woodall, the amendment by Senator Woodall to the committee amendment was orally amended to read as follows:

Amend the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 as follows:

In line 2 of the amendment, after "authorized to increase" and before "the salary" insert "or decrease" and in line 3 of the amendment after "office" insert a period and strike the remainder of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Will Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator, I did not see the amendment on the bill and I faintly caught the reading of it, but you did not change the intent of the committee amendment by saying that we could not set their first salary and then let them establish it thereafter?"

Senator Woodall: "No, their salary is set now by law. This does not change that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Woodall yield to a question? As I read it, it does not do anything about this present increase that we have in the bill?"

Senator Woodall: "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Will Senator Woodall yield to a further question? Would this mean that immediately upon passage of the raise to ten thousand three hundred dollars the legislative authority of the county could then increase or decrease at that time?"

Senator Woodall: "If they wanted to, yes. That is local control. They have the power to face the local voters and do what they want just like we have the power to set our salaries."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Woodall yield? As I read the amendment, Senator Woodall, we are still setting the salary of ten thousand dollars as of 1974 and then thereafter they will be able to establish their salaries."

Senator Woodall: "This gives them the immediate authority to go either direction they want. The way it read before was they did not have any authority until after 1975 and then they could only go one way. Up. I do not know how you feel up your way, but in the smaller counties, we are always hit with this. The county commissioners hide behind the law and they always say, 'Oh, we did not ask for the raise. They did it to us over in Olympia.' Of course, they come around and ask us to do it. They come around and beg us to vote these and then they go home and they say, 'But we did not really want it.' And I am just saying, let us put the local control where it should be and let them measure up and accept their full share of responsibility."
Senator Fleming: "And to the question that was put to you before, you are reading this as that they have the authority now through this to establish their salaries and receive that while in office?"
Senator Woodall: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Woodall, I would like to ask a question. We have set in here certain raises for county officials. I think we set certain raises for these county officials in here in this bill. We are making effective immediately the power of the county commissioners in your amendment to take over salary setting, but are we in effect also leaving the pay raises in here in case the county commissioners do not act? I think this is the question that Senator Fleming and Senator Ridder were getting at. Do we leave the pay raises in here or do they all come out?"
Senator Woodall: "This amendment, if nothing is done, would leave it exactly the way the bill is written. All that amendment does is to accelerate the date to the present from the '75 date which is in there and it adds the words 'up or down.'"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Woodall yield to another question? Senator Woodall, with the adoption of your amendment, we are right back to where we are now. They can do all of this anyhow and they really do not need this legislation. Isn't that correct?"
Senator Woodall: "No, I think they needed the implementing legislation after the constitutional amendment. I do not think the constitutional amendment was self-executing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, as I understand it, with the adoption of your amendment the county commissioners, the legislative authority of the county, can set the salary effective right now pursuant to the recent constitutional amendment up or down and the rest of this language in here about what we are setting has no effect."
Senator Woodall: "It does if they do not do anything about it, but they have the power to go up or down. In other words, they cannot say that we made it higher than they wanted it or that we put a burden on them by making it too costly. They have the authority to adjust right now, as soon as this amendment goes in, or they can leave it alone and do nothing."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2513, the committee amendments and the pending amendment by Senator Woodall to the committee amendment were ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Bottiger, Senate Bill No. 2256 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 22, 1973.

Implementing the law relating to motor vehicle theft.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Henry, Senate Bill No. 2416 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Bottiger please yield? What about penalties for stolen parts?"
Senator Bottiger: "It is a gross misdemeanor. There would be the possibility of a felony if it fit under the other felony statute but under this statute it is a gross misdemeanor."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2416, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.
Absent or not voting: Senators Jones, Murray, Stortini, Woodall—4.
Excused: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2416, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2435, by Senators Day, Atwood and Durkan:
Implementing the uniform alcoholism and intoxication treatment act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2435, implementing the uniform alcoholism and intoxication treatment act (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Beginning on page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.070 are each amended to read as follows:
Pursuant to the provisions of RCW 43.20A.360, there shall be a citizens advisory council composed of not less than seven nor more than fifteen members, at least two of whom shall be recovered alcoholics and two of whom shall be members of recognized organizations involved with problems of alcoholism. The remaining members shall be broadly representative of the community, shall include representation from business and industry, organized labor, the judiciary, and minority groups, [concerned] chosen for their demonstrated concern with alcoholism problems [, to advise the department, whose]. Members shall be appointed by the secretary. In addition to advising the department in carrying out the purposes of this chapter, the council shall develop and propose to the secretary for his consideration the rules and regulations for the implementation of the alcoholism programs of the department. The secretary shall thereafter adopt such rules and regulations as shall, in his judgment properly implement the alcoholism programs of the department consistent with the welfare of those to be served, the legislative intent and the public good.

In line 1 of the title, after "amending" strike the balance of the title and insert "section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sss. and RCW 70.96A.070."

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Van Hollebeke, Vice Chairman; Connor, Francis, Keefe, Murray, Woodall, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, your amendment to page 1 says, 'The members of this committee shall be appointed by the secretary'."

Senator Day: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Who appoints the secretary?"

Senator Day: "The Governor does."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then why should not the Governor appoint the members of the committee?"

Senator Day: "He never has before and in addition the Governor appoints a man he has confidence in and then he allows him to appoint some of these advisory committees and that is what this is, it is an advisory committee to the department on this specific subject. And I think that indirectly he will certainly have some input into the thing. It was acceptable and discussed with John Bright from the Governor's office and with the department also."

Senator Rasmussen: "Provides for any legislators to work on the alcoholic problem?"

Senator Day: "I do not think that is possible under this. It says the remaining members shall be broadly representative of the community, shall include representatives of business, industry, organized labor, judiciary and minority groups. Now I do not think that would preclude necessarily the appointment of a legislator. Some of them could fit under the alcoholic part."

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Day and Durkan:

Immediately following section 1, add four new sections to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 70.96 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any county or combination of counties acting jointly by agreement, hereinafter referred to as "county", may create an alcoholism administrative board. Such board shall be composed of not less than seven nor more than fifteen members, who shall be representative of the community, shall include at least two recovered alcoholics, and shall include consumer and minority group representation. No more than four elected or appointed city or county officials may serve on such board at the same time. Members of the board shall serve three year terms and until their successors are appointed and qualified. They shall not be compensated for the performance of their duties as members of the board, but may be paid subsistence rates and mileage in the amounts prescribed by RCW 36.17.030 as now or hereafter amended.

The alcoholism administrative board, the county and the department of social and health services shall, in the area of alcoholism prevention, treatment and education, and the administration, planning and funding thereof, have the same duties, responsibilities, powers, liabilities and authorities as are provided by chapter 71.24 RCW with respect to the mental health administrative board, the county and the department of social and health services.

An executive director of the board may be appointed by the county commissioners subject to the approval of the board. Applicants for such position need not be residents of the county, city or state, and may be employed on a full or part time basis.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1972 1st ex. sss. and RCW 70.96.096 are each amended as follows:

In order to be eligible to receive its share of liquor taxes and profits, each city and county shall be required to devote no less than two percent of such share of liquor taxes and profits to the support of an alcoholism program approved by the alcoholism administrative board authorized by section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act and the secretary of the state department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 70.96 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any appropriation to the state department of social and health services for alcoholism programs shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Not more than ten percent to the department of social and health services for administration;

(b) not more than twenty percent to the department of social and health services for funding of pilot and state-wide alcoholism programs, if any; and,

(c) the remainder to be provided for alcoholism programs pursuant to section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act, in the ratio of liquor taxes and profits derived from a county or within a county to the taxes and profits derived from the total sale of liquor statewide.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 111, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 30, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 71.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary is authorized, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated to effectuate its purposes, to make grants to assist counties or combinations of counties in the establishment and operation of community mental health programs to provide one or more of the following services:

(1) Outpatient diagnostic and treatment services.
(2) Inpatient psychiatric services.
(3) Rehabilitation services for patients with psychiatric illnesses.
(4) Informational services to the general public and educational services furnished by qualified mental health personnel to schools, courts, health agencies, welfare agencies, probation departments and other appropriate public or private agencies or groups.
(5) Consultant services to public or private agencies for the promotion and coordination of services that preserve mental health and for the early recognition and management of conditions that might develop into psychiatric illnesses.
(6) Inpatient or outpatient care, treatment or rehabilitation services of [alcoholics, persons incapacitated by alcohol and intoxicated persons and] persons using controlled substances in violation of chapter 69.50 RCW.
(7) Such services as are set forth in subsection (4) which pertain to the education and information about and prevention of problems of drug [and alcohol] abuse.

"Such in-service training as may be necessary in providing any of the foregoing services shall be proper items of expenditure in connection therewith."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Day yield? Senator Day, due to the ultimate closure of Northern State Hospital, we are concerning ourselves to diversification of the facility and one of the programs that we are proposing is an alcohol treatment program. Now would your amendment preclude the use of a portion of this state facility for the treatment of alcoholism in this facility?"

Senator Day: "No, it certainly would not, Senator Peterson, and as you recognize we have a facility in our county, for example, in Edgecliff Hospital, which has a wing that is not being used which we plan to bring into this program eventually. As you probably well know, the TB program and the alcoholism program really have been related by the individual problems associated with the disease even before this passes, so that there is every possibility that facilities such as Northern State and Edgecliff and others will be used in this particular program."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Day yield to a further question? Senator Day, I am a little bit concerned with your last statement to Senator Peterson, in which you indicated that we are going to put these people in institutions. Now, as Senator Woodall well knows, we are having a program proposed that the people of Walla Walla be put out in the community. Do you think that we should lock up the people in institutions that are alcoholics and do not harm anybody and then release the people in Walla Walla to circulate in the community?"

Senator Day: "No, I do not, and that is not the intent of this at all. I am just saying that there will be a necessity as this program expands and goes into effect that we have 'detox' centers, for example, and there are some people who get into a physical condition with alcohol, with the drug alcohol, who do need to be detoxified and, in answer to Senator Peterson's question, certainly there could be a detox center at the Northern State Hospital."

Senator Rasmussen: "At the present time, Senator, they are now using our local hospitals for this purpose?"

Senator Day: "No, they are using the drunk tank in most instances and facilities such as that, and of course if an alcoholic has to be hospitalized, I imagine they could send him to a local hospital. This amendment makes it possible for your local county commissioners to establish what they are going to do. It is not mandated from the state on how they handle them in your county."

Senator Rasmussen: "Further question on that amendment, Senator. This only provides that they may apply for a grant. They do not get per capita a portion of this fund automatically?"

Senator Day: "No, under the present program, you see the effective date has been set off until, I believe it is January 1, 1975, and consequently the program is not in effect. The only thing we have in effect at the moment are the pilot programs. And as it happens, one of the big pilot programs is in my county. Now the people presently involved in the pilot program would not necessarily be for this particular amendment. So really, I have changed the direction of my own county. I have taken quite a bit of heat on it, too. But the thing is that this cannot be something that is done in any manner to influence a Senator. It has got to be done in a manner that is effective and so that the program will have continuity and work. And of course that is what this establishes. Now the first amendment established a new advisory committee so that the people who have had successful experience with alcoholism can make this thing work. Now they find out that handling these patients under the mental health program just does not do the job, that they have to have some other care, some other counseling. AA has been very successful in this. The people who have been doing this on a voluntary basis have the successful program, and all we are doing is assuring that that successful program is the one we start with so that we can improve that if that is possible."

The motion of Senator Day carried and the amendment by Senators Day and Durkan was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:

Following section 5 of the amendment by Senators Day and Durkan, add the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is hereby appropriated the sum of $4,268,520 to carry out the purposes of this act."

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment to the committee amendment to the title by Senators Day and Durkan was adopted:

Amend the committee amendment to the title by inserting after "RCW 70.96A.070" and before the period "; amending section 3, chapter 111, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 30, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 71.24.030; adding a new section to chapter 70.96 RCW; and making an appropriation".

On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendment to the title, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2435 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendments were adopted:
On page 3, section 7, lines 26 and 27, strike "within the planning and community affairs agency".
On page 4, section 7, line 3, after "receive" strike "the maximum allowable".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Twigg: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, as a sponsor of this measure, can you tell me whether or not this measure in any way has anything to do with home maintenance codes?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Twigg, the bill adopts and makes available to each of the local towns, cities and counties the Uniform Building Code and Related Standards published by the International Conference of Building Officials. It also has to do with the Uniform Mechanical Code of 1973, the Uniform Fire Code, the Uniform Plumbing Code, and the American National Standard Specifications for Making Buildings and Facilities Accessible to and Usable by the Physically Handicapped. It does not have anything to do whatsoever with home maintenance codes, however."

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2634 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 782, by Representative Charette:
Regulating chain distributor business schemes.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: “Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Why was this bill sent directly to Rules and did not go to any committees? Is this the same bill as something else that had passed the Senate?”

Senator Mardesich: “This is the same bill that went through the Senate, with the exception of this amendment that is being offered now.”

Senator Greive: “What committee did it go through originally?”

Senator Mardesich: “I assume it went through yours originally.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed House Bill No. 782 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 22, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2088, by Senators Francis, Peterson (Ted) and Herr:
Permitting cosmetologists to serve men and women.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2088, the committee amendment to page 2, section 1, subsection (5), line 29 having been moved for adoption by Senator Greive earlier in the day.
The motion by Senator Greive carried and the committee amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendment to page 5, section 4, line 17 was adopted.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 1, line 3, after “Section 1.” and before “Section” insert the following:
“Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.15.010 are each amended to read as follows:
Any one or any combination of the following practices (when done upon the upper part of the human body for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental ailments, and when done for payment, either directly or indirectly, or without payment, for the public generally upon male or female) constitutes the practice of barbering: (1) Shaving or trimming the beard or cutting the hair; (2) giving facial and scalp massage or treatments with oils, creams, lotions, or other preparations, either by hand or mechanical appliances; (3) singeing, shampooing or dyeing the hair, or applying tonics; (4) applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, or lotions to the scalp, face, neck or upper part of the body: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any person employed in, or engaged in the operation of any beauty shop or hair dressing establishment or to persons engaged in the care or treatment of patients in health facilities or engaged in the care of residents of boarding homes and similar residential care facilities: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That a certified men’s hair stylist may perform the following additional practices: (1) The shaping or dressing of the hair; (2) styling and designing of the beard or mustache; (3) hair analysis, reconditioning, and restoration

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 4, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Barber examinations shall be held six times in each year in the months of February, April, June, August, October and December; and on such particular dates, within the said times, and in such particular cities and places as the director of [licenses] motor vehicles shall determine. Every applicant for a license or permit to practice barbering in this state shall be required to take an examination in each branch as follows: (1) sanitation as applied to the practice of barbering, (2) sterilization as applied to the practice of barbering, (3) and as to whether he has sufficient knowledge of the common contagious and infectious diseases of the face, skin, and scalp, to avoid spreading thereof in the practice of barbering; (4) and as to whether he has sufficient knowledge of the use of chemicals, creams, lotions, and solutions as applied in the practice of barbering; (5) and in any other portion of the curriculum as required by this law; and such applicant shall be required to demonstrate to the barber examining committee his professional skill and ability in performing the following barber services; (1) Haircutting, (2) shaving, (3) massaging, (4) shampooing, and (5) conditioning his barber tools.

Any applicant, other than one applying under the provisions of RCW 18.15.040, who secures a passing grade in each branch of not less than seventy-five percent in his examination and who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the barber examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said barber services, not less than sixty-five percent of perfect, and possesses the other particular qualifications provided in this chapter, shall be entitled to receive, and the director of licenses shall issue to him, a permit to practice barbering in this state. Every person receiving such permit shall be required to serve one and one-half years (eighteen months) under the direct supervision of a licensed barber. A year shall be construed to mean a period of not less than fifty-two weeks consisting of forty hours per week of service by the permittee. He must then pass an examination not less than seventy-five percent of perfect, and demonstrate to the satisfaction of the barber examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said barber services, not less than seventy-five percent of perfect, and possess the qualifications required in this chapter, after which the director shall issue to him a license to practice barbering.

The annual license and permit renewal fee shall be determined by the director under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. Failure to pay the annual license or permit renewal fees before delinquency shall work a forfeiture of the license or permit, but the license or permit may be renewed within three years thereafter without examination upon application therefor by the licentiate or permittee, and payment of a fee of fifteen dollars plus all lapsed fees. Should the licentiate or permittee allow his license or permit to elapse for more than three years, he must be reexamined as for a new license or permit.

Each such license shall be renewable annually on or before the expiration date, and the application for renewal shall be accompanied by a fee of four dollars. Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 75, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 12, chapter 223, Laws of 1967 and RCW 18.15.090 are each amended to read as follows:

No barber school or college shall be operated unless it is under the control of a barber licensed as a manager-instructor. Each applicant for a manager-instructor’s license shall submit an application to the director on such forms as it may prescribe. The qualifications for such a license, [examinations,] license fees and license renewal fees shall be the same as those prescribed for an instructor’s license. The name and designation of the licensee as manager-instructor shall appear on each school or college location license issued by the director. A manager-instructor’s license shall stand revoked if not used for a period of two years, after which time licentiate must be reexamined as for a new license.

The director [of licenses] upon the receipt of such application and fee shall notify the applicant of the particular date, city, and place where he is to appear for his examination for a permit to practice barbering in this state. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? On page 9, line 11, you have raised the entrance requirements here from the tenth grade to the twelfth grade. Why, Senator?"

Senator Durkan: "That was an issue that was in the House and it was, the question of whether or not they should have a high school education is one which they were trying to upgrade their profession. Now I can understand the problem that some of us thought that there are those who do not have to go to high school to understand how to cut hair. I noted to you, Senator, and have said to the others that when this bill reaches the House, I would not mind an amendment that would see to it that under certain circumstances the Director of Motor Vehicles would have the right to waive. The only thing is I do not think that you should just arbitrarily knock the years back. I think that if there is a particular instance where a person who wants to cut hair or wants to be a stylist or wants to work in a beauty salon and does not have the education but shows the desire, that he or she should be able to, but otherwise the question of the high school education does not disturb me that much. But it is not that important to me nor is it to the members of the profession that this important legislation be held up. If you wish to offer your . . . .

Senator Day: "Is it on second reading, Senator?"
Senator Durkan: "Yes, unfortunately."

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Day and Rasmussen to the amendment by Senator Durkan:

On page 9, section 7, line 11 of the amendment strike "[tenth] twelfth" and insert "tenth".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Will the GED be acceptable in this case also? When you say a tenth grade education, have we figured in the GED?"
Senator Day: "Yes."

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 124 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Friday, March 23, 1973.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of House Joint Resolution No. 10.

SECOND READING

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10, by Representatives North (Lois), Chatalas, Swayne, Charnley, Bluechel, Kilbury, Fortson, Thompson, Wojahn, Rabel, Goltz, Savage, King, Erickson, Valle, Williams, Ellis, Sommers, Maxie, North (Frances), Hayner, Patterson, Leckenby, Blair, Smythe, Ceccarelli and Shinpoch (by Executive request and Washington State Women's Council request):
Ratifying federal equal rights amendment.
Senators Mardesich, Bailey and Peterson (Ted) demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

MOTION

Senator Atwood moved that Senator Woodall be excused.
Senator Guess objected.
The motion by Senator Atwood carried on a rising vote.
The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Woodall who was excused.
The resolution was read the second time in full.
Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendments:
On page 1, section 2, line 22, after “Congress” insert “and the several states” and after “power” insert “within their jurisdictions.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: “I raise the point of order whether or not it is possible for a state to amend an amendment to the United States Constitution, which according to the United States Constitution must be started by the Congress and then sent to the states for ratification. believe the provision is that it be sent for ratification, not for ratification and amendment.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: “I raise the point of order whether or not it is possible for a state to amend an amendment to the United States Constitution, which according to the United States Constitution must be started by the Congress and then sent to the states for ratification. I believe the provision is that it be sent for ratification, not for ratification and amendment.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “The President wishes to assure Senator Greive especially that the President has given great consideration to this matter. In ruling upon the point as presented by Senator Washington, the President in examining House Joint Resolution No. 10 finds that lines 8 through 25 are merely informative of the language contained in the proposed amendment to the Constitution as drafted by the Congress of the United States. HJR No. 10 embodies this language for the purpose of apprising the members of the House and the Senate of our legislature of the language of the proposal. The substance of HJR No. 10 is contained in lines 26 and 27 on page 1 of the measure and on line 1, page 2 thereof. A reading of these lines indicates that the scope and object of the joint resolution is extremely limited and that the sole question is the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment. To attempt to change the language of Congress would obviously change the scope and object of the joint resolution. Also it would be an attempt to ratify a proposal to change the Constitution, which proposal Congress has not made. It seems that the proposed amendment of Senator Metcalf would have been appropriate on the floor of the Congress, but not on the floor of the Washington State Senate. The point as presented by Senator Washington is well taken.”

The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled out of order.
FOURTEENTH DAY, MARCH 22, 1973

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 27, after "be" strike the comma and the rest of the sentence and insert:
"ratified by the legislature of the State of Washington, provided that section 2 is amended as follows: The Congress and the several States shall have power, within their respective jurisdictions, to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: "I raise the same point of order on this amendment as I did on the previous amendment on the basis that it does extend the scope and object of the resolution and on the further grounds that a state legislature does not have the power to amend an amendment proposed by the Congress."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "The scope and object that the Chair is using, is that part of the Senate rules?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "It is a part of the state Constitution, Senator Bottiger."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the substance of the previous ruling applies to the second amendment proposed by Senator Metcalf, and therefore the point by Senator Washington is well taken."
The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled out of order.
Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President, I am sorry that I was engaged in conversation at the time that you ruled. Did you rule that we do not have the power in this body to make a qualified ratification or to amend line 27?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes, Senator Metcalf, that this body has the right to do anything it chooses if the majority prevails. However, when the point of order was presented by Senator Washington that your amendment increased the scope and object, the President stated in his remarks that the substance of House Joint Resolution No. 10 is contained in lines 26 and 27 on page 1 of the measure and on line 1, page 2 thereof. A reading of these lines indicates the scope and object of HJR No. 10. The President will read, starting on line 26:
"Now, therefore, be it resolved that said proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be, and the same is hereby ratified by the legislature of the State of Washington. The President believes that the scope and the object of this measure is quite explicit and is aimed at one target, and the Senate may in its judgment either ratify or reject the resolution."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "If the proposed amendment by Senator Metcalf had in fact been offered with respect to lines 26 through line 1 on the second page in order to make the ratification a conditional ratification instead of the ratification as originally proposed—I am not asking you to rule in advance, but I would assume that a different situation at least would then be presented for your consideration."
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woody: "Quite respectfully, I address your attention to section 19 of Article II, which states no bill shall embrace more than one subject and that shall be expressed in the title. I suggest that we are not concerned here with a bill. We are concerned here with a resolution. Therefore, scope and object is not material."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The joint rules of the legislature are quite explicit on the point, Senator Woody. Inasmuch as a House joint resolution shall take the same course as a bill up to and until the time the President signs it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, referring to my previous remarks, Senator Metcalf has now pointed out that the amendment, which as I understand it that is now before the body, does relate to lines 26 to 27 which is, as the President has pointed out, the very thing that this body is doing and therefore this amendment would appear not to be within the scope of your original ruling because it does specifically relate to exactly what the body is doing and that is either ratifying or not ratifying and it is changing that so that the ratification is conditional."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Is there any amendment before us at this time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In the opinion of the President, there is not any amendment before you, Senator Francis."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President wishes to state once again that in his opinion the substance of the resolution is in lines 26 and 27. The point is that you ratify the proposed amendment made by Congress. The President wishes to respectfully advise the members of the Senate that there is no particular pride of authorship in the ruling on the point presented by Senator Washington and if a majority of the body wishes to reverse the decision, the President believes that would be quite in order."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Rather than that I would move that, solely for the purpose of consideration of HJR 10, the Senate not be bound by the existing joint rules as to scope and object."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President cannot revoke the State Constitution, Senator Woody."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Then I am still trying to read this and understand it, but it says 'no bill' and I am wondering whether that would include that resolution in the Constitution?"
REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In the President's mind, it does. Section 38 of the State Constitution, page 62, 'Limitation on Amendments, No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill.'"

REMARKS BY SENATOR JOLLY

Senator Jolly: "Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, we are wasting a lot of time here and as Senator Metcalf said, no state can vote against their other vote so we might just as well go ahead with this resolution and vote yes or no and forget about all these amendments because it is just the same as a yes or no vote anyway."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes your remarks are well taken, Senator Jolly."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "I would like to ask a question as to the statement you made a few minutes ago about the joint rules. I have reference to Rule 33, and it says that the permanent joint rules adopted at the regular session shall govern any special session called during the same biennium. Now, can we carry over to the special session without a resolution that joint rule, even though it says this? It seems to me that we have not carried over a bill from the regular session to the special session."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Guess, the President respectfully points out that this is the First Extraordinary session of the Forty-third Washington State Legislature. Subsequent special sessions, if called, will be referred to as Two, Three, Four, etc. This is a continuation of the Forty-third Legislative Session."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, do the joint rules carry over?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The joint rules carry over. The President has ruled thusly on several occasions."

Senator Guess: "I point out though that the bills which we had died after sine die adjournment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "I would like to point out to Senator Guess that the decision made by the President was not made under the joint rules. It was made under Section 38 of the Constitution on page 62. There is no way that we can abrogate that or that this body can abrogate it."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, House Joint Resolution No. 10 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "I would like to ask Senator Francis a question or two. I will phrase it in two. I would like to know whether the quote that Senator Bottiger read from Representative Griffiths was the same as you read; and secondly, on the several amendments, including the eighteenth amendment, I think that when I read those amendments and when we talked about them, I think we read something different in those. Could you address yourself?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Fleming, the two questions you raise definitely deserve a reply, and I think that they could affect some votes here and if they do not, I certainly think you want to know what you are voting on. With regard to the first point, I think that Senator Bottiger, and I say I think because I am not sure, but I think Senator Bottiger seriously misrepresented the facts and I do not mean that he did it deliberately. I think he inadvertently misread this quotation from Representative Griffiths. Now the letter he was reading from described Public Law 92-603 which passed in 1972. It is my position that the billion dollars that she was referring to was the cost of that law which has already been passed by Congress, and not the cost of the equal rights amendment. I would like to read to you the entire quote, which is brief, from which he selected a portion. Representative Martha Griffiths said, 'The effect of the equal rights amendment on the social security system should not necessitate an increase in present social security taxes since the total amount required to equalize the benefits between men and women is relatively insignificant and could be absorbed. The cost which most probably will be incurred in equalizing the benefits between men and women are scheduled for 1973 under Public Law 92-603 but were not made retroactive by such law. The initial cost is estimated at a billion dollars but this in itself would be gradually eliminated through passage of time. At most, officials from the social security administration estimate the amendments—they are talking about Public Law 92-603—the amendments, if made retroactive, could call for an increase of one-tenth of one percent of the total social security tax. This could increase the present rate from five point eighty-five percent to five point ninety-five percent.' That is one-tenth of one percent increase.

"Now the only other point, and I think you should understand it. Senator Metcalf is sincere. I am convinced of that, since he continues to insist he is right. Senator Murray, you got very close to the point. The point with the eighteenth amendment is that the amendment was granting the states the power the states did not have, and that was the power to interfere with interstate commerce. States had been taken clear out of that and had been so held to not have any power in the area of interstate commerce, so you had to grant a power. Secondly, and Senator Metcalf, I now understand what you are saying. If you are saying that those amendments denied the states the right to, for instance, have slavery, you are absolutely correct. And this amendment will certainly deny states the right to have inequality in their laws. But if you mean whether or not states will have the power coequally with the federal government to enforce this law and to carry out the intent, then there is no question that states will continue to have the right to enforce equality before the law."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 10, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 19; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Woodall—1.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.
EXPLANATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10
THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

By Senator Jonathan Whetzel:

HJR No. 10 ratifies the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution that provides "Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex." Proponents of the amendment contend that it is necessary to amend the Constitution to eliminate economic and social discrimination of women as a result of state or federal governmental action.

The amendment follows in form the 19th Amendment to the Constitution that extended the right of vote to women. Women have subsequently participated with distinction in all branches of government. Certainly some of the most capable legislators who have served our state have been women. I have regretted that our Senate presently does not have a woman member. This is not due to lack of personal efforts on my behalf in the 1970 election to elect one of the most qualified candidates the state has ever had to the Senate. Subsequently I have worked and continued to work to encourage women to file for legislative office in my own and other legislative districts. However, the 19th Amendment ended legal impediments to political participation by women much more easily than the present amendment is likely to end economic and social discrimination. In fact, what the New York Times has called the "mischievous ambiguity" of the Equal Rights Amendment may create more problems and injustices than it provides just solutions.

The long continuing discrimination against women in employment, education, sports, property, and family law has been extensively documented. Many very intelligent, able, competent women have lived out frustrated lives of subordinate positions in their family or occupation. Efforts to alleviate this situation have given rise to one of the strongest and most powerful movements in American political and social life. I am aware of frustrations and discriminations and am in sympathy with the goals of the movement.

However, I am not persuaded the Equal Rights Amendment will accomplish these objectives better than state or federal legislation or utilization of present United States Constitution provisions.

With respect to state legislation the legislature has in recent years passed several major laws ending various forms of sex discrimination. I voted for each of these. In 1971 Ch. 81, Laws of 1971 1st Ex. Sess. prohibited sex discrimination in employment. In 1972 Ch. 108, Laws of 1972 1st Ex. Sess. gave a married woman equal control over management of community property and the right to sue in her own name. In the 1973 regular session the legislature passed Ch. 141, Laws of 1973 (HB 404 which passed the Senate 46 to 1) which ends sex discrimination in public accommodations, real estate, credit and insurance transactions, and prohibits denial of civil rights because of sex.

In 1972 the state adopted its own equal rights amendment, HJR 61, which has become the 61st Amendment to the state constitution. This passed the Senate on February 10, 1972 by a vote of 36 to 13. I voted for HJR 61.

In 1973 the legislature will almost surely pass SB 2502 of which I am a co-sponsor and which passed the Senate 47 to 0. This bill has 131 sections and runs over 100 pages. It modifies a great number of statutes to remove dissimilar treatment of men and women. This bill will clarify our statutes and eliminate the need for lawsuits in some cases challenging certain statutes under the state amendment.

This legislative and constitutional activity by the State of Washington is an indication that the state unaided by the Federal Equal Rights Amendment has been able to take care of and has moved on eliminating discrimination with respect to sex within the state's jurisdiction.

In recent years Congress has also been active in legislating away sex discrimination in employment opportunities, equal pay, education, public accommodations and denial of civil rights.

Congress has acted under its constitutional authority in interstate commerce and under the 14th Amendment. Although state courts and lower federal courts have held the Equal Protection Clause prevented discrimination on the basis of sex, the United States Supreme Court did not apply the Equal Protection Clause to sex discrimination until in Reed v. Reed 30 L.Ed. 2nd 225, November 22, 1971 it struck down an Idaho statute giving preference to men over women in the administration of estates. Justice Burger's opinion for a unanimous court said "By providing dissimilar treatment for women and men who are thus similarly situated, the challenged section violates the Equal Protection Clause." The Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution in Article 14 provides "No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

The Reed decision has taken away one of the principal arguments for the Equal Rights Amendment; namely, that the Equal Protection Clause would not be used to strike down sex discrimination or that its application would be severely limited by classification.

When the Federal Equal Rights Amendment was before Congress the proponents argued that since the Supreme Court had not extended the Equal Protection Clause to sex discrimination that a Constitutional Amendment was necessary. The Equal Rights Amendment was passed by the House of Representatives on October 12, 1971 prior to the Reed case although the Senate passed it on March 22, 1972 after the Reed case.

After studying the arguments of the proponents and opponents of the Equal Rights Amendment as best I can, it is my judgment that the standard proposed to be set by the Equal Rights Amendment is either identical to or so very close to the Equal Protection Clause that there is little or no difference. The legislative history and conflicting opinions of Constitutional law experts leave unclear what the Equal Rights Amendment will do. As stated by Paul A. Freund, Locht Professors of Law at Harvard Law School (a bona fide liberal former New Deal lawyer and an opponent), in 6 Harvard Civil Liberties-Civil Rights Law Review 234 at p. 237 (March 1971) the question of interpretation is: "A mandate that equal rights under law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of sex can have either of two conceivable meanings. It can mean that any classification based on sex must be justified by some good (or very good, or compelling) reason, or it can mean that no such classification can pass muster. To this question there is no authoritative answer to be found in the congressional history of the proposed amendment...."

The legislative proponents have disagreed amongst themselves as to whether equality of rights under the law means an absolute undeviating standard in which men and women must be treated in all cases identically or whether it permits reasonable classifications for the protection of women. The article in 80 Yale Law Journal 871 (June 1971) co-authored by Professor Thomas I. Emerson, Lines Professor of Law at Yale Law School, (a bona fide liberal former New Deal lawyer and a proponent), admits "The articulation of a clear and cohesive position on the meaning and the impact of the proposal, which would furnish a basis for legislative debate and provide a guide to future interpretation, has not emerged from prior congressional consideration of the Equal Rights Amendment." I agree with Professor Emerson that there is confusion as to what the constitutional principle is which is being adopted by the Equal Rights Amendment.

Except for some female and male extremists, most of the proponents do not feel that there is established by the Equal Rights Amendment the principle of absolute equality in all things for men and women. In fact, when faced with the question as to whether the Equal Rights Amendment prohibits separate dormitories, institutional facilities, or rest rooms, the proponents say that such prohibition is not contemplated by the Equal Rights Amendment but is subject to a qualification in these situations to the case law right of privacy.

This qualification is very similar to our state legislative qualification that Ch. 81, Laws 1971 1st Ex. Sess. prohibiting sex discrimination in employment does not prohibit segregated rest rooms in industrial establishments.

Upon the adoption of the Federal Equal Rights Amendment the Congress, federal executive branch, and the federal judiciary will have to determine if the standard of the 14th Amendment Equal Protection Clause differs from the Equal Rights Amendment with respect to their laws, actions, and decisions. The legislative, executive and judicial branches of the State of Washington in addition, have to weigh their actions against the standard of the state amendment.

Professor Freund commenting on the Reed case has said: "In view of the Reed decision, however, I believe more strongly than ever that the subject should be left to be worked out under the Equal Protection Clause, as are other questions of group classification. The Equal Protection guarantee, together with the legislative powers of Congress, is the best avenue to achieve meaningful equality of the sexes under law. This approach is greatly to be preferred to one that would force all the manifold legal relationships to men and women, from coverage under selective service to the obligation of family support, into a mold of mechanical unity." (Congressional Record March 22, 1972)

Consequently, I feel adoption of the Equal Rights Amendment with its unclear phrase "equality of rights" may in the future lead to unnecessary confusion and constant raising of questions before the various branches of government that a different standard than the Equal Protection Clause is contemplated. I do not think that this is the intent or a desirable result of the amendment, and I voted against it because of such uncertainty. In an ordinary law this uncertainty would be undesirable. It is far more undesirable in a federal constitutional amendment binding on the State of Washington, which the legislature and people of the State of Washington have relatively limited power by themselves to change or amend.

It has been difficult to analyze and consider logically and rationally the implication of the Equal Rights Amendment because it has become an important symbol to women of a long awaited end to discrimination regardless of legal implications. However, I believe whether or not there ever were an Equal Rights Amendment the time has come when discrimination has and must end by state and federal action. I pledge myself to continue to work to this end.

(signed) Senator Jonathan Whetzel.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2382. On Wednesday, March 21, 1973, on motion of Senator Woody and with the consent of the Senate, the following amendment by Senator Francis was considered before the committee amendments:

Strike all of NEW SECTION 1 and insert:

"Section 1. Section 15, chapter 267, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 2.10.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Every judge retired either for service or disability under the provisions of this chapter shall file a statement of income with the retirement board. Any retired judge who is receiving income from employment of any kind shall have his retirement allowance reduced by the amount that his combined retirement allowance and employment income exceed the current monthly salary being paid a judge of the same court in which the retired judge served immediately prior to his retirement: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That pro tempore service as a judge of a court of record shall not constitute employment as that term is used in this section and income from pro tempore service need not be reported to the retirement board. Pro tempore service shall be limited to not more than ninety days in any single year; and the combined retirement allowance of a retired judge together with his income as a pro tempore judge shall not exceed the salary being paid a judge of the same court in which the retired judge served immediately prior to his retirement.

Failure to file or the filing of a false statement shall be grounds for cancellation of all benefits payable under this chapter."

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woody, the committee amendment striking all of NEW SECTION 1 was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Woody, the committee amendment striking entire NEW SECTION 2 was adopted.

Senator Doré moved adoption of the following amendment:

Following line 11 add another section to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 286, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 30, Laws of 1971 and RCW 2.12.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Any judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court of this state who shall leave judicial service at any time after having served as a judge of any such courts for an aggregate of twelve years shall be eligible to a partial retirement pension in a percentage of the pension provided in this chapter as determined by the proportion his years of judicial service bears to eighteen and shall receive the same upon attainment of age seventy, or eighteen years after the commencement of such judicial service, whichever shall occur first. For a judge involuntarily terminated from service who has served in excess of ten years, but less than twelve years, there shall be counted the time spent in service as a judge pro tempore under the provisions of RCW 2.08.180 at the rate of one two hundred-fiftieth of a year for each day engaged therein after January 1, 1973: PROVIDED, That such judge while so serving shall make payment into the pension fund as required of judges by RCW 2.12.060: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total of such service credits and the judge's service prior thereto shall not exceed twelve years."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I raise the question of the scope and object and I would like to speak to that if I may. Mr. President, I know it has got to be up to you, and I know how you feel about the thing, and I for one do not want to be put in a position of having to vote against something that I agreed with on the original bill. I am kind of like Senator Woody. I think the bill was a good one, but we have passed it. I do not think it is appropriate to add it to this bill, which is also a good one and should stand separately, and I would rather, if it is appropriate to do so and it is so determined by the President, I think we should make a decision on the basis that it simply ought not to be a part of this bill because it is beyond the scope and object, rather than to get into the question of whether or not we are voting no on the same subject."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President in ruling upon the point of order finds that this bill deals with the salary schedule of pro tempore judges as compared with those that have retired voluntarily. The amendment by Senator Dore deals with a salary schedule or a retirement schedule of a judge that was retired involuntarily. Under the rulings as we have maintained them in the past, it is beyond the scope and object of the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Just as a matter of information, let us assume that we had a bill that says 'shall not be' whatever and then you struck the 'not', would that be beyond the scope and object since you are changing the intent? This is much the same as the voluntary or involuntary. One is the opposite of the other."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "My answer, Senator, is that you would be not enlarging the scope and object of the bill if you strike 'not'. You are reducing it somewhat."
The amendment by Senator Dore was ruled out of order.
On motion of Senator Woody, the committee amendments to the title were not adopted.
On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendments to the title by Senator
Francis were adopted:
In line 2 of the title strike "repealing" and insert "amending".
In line 3 of the title after "RCW 2.10.150" strike remainder of the paragraph down to and including the semicolon on line 4.
On motion of Senator Woody, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2382 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2382, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Francis, Gardner, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson
(Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Voting nay: Senators Dore, Grant, Knoblach, Lewis (Harry), Rasmussen—5.
Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Greive, Jones, Sellar—4.
Excused: Senator Woodall—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2382, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2473, by Senators Day and Scott: Regulating the practice of massage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2473 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2473, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendments were adopted:
On page 3, section 5, line 1, after "surgery," insert "drugless therapy."
On page 4, section 8, line 19, after "(e)" strike "Who has furnished satisfactory proof" and insert "Proof, satisfactory to the board."
On page 4, section 8, line 21, after "(f)" strike "Whose massage business" and insert "Evidence that the" and after "facilities" and before "comply" insert "of the applicant's massage business."

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2473 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, I note on page 1, 'massage' on line 7 means the treatment of the superficial parts of the body with or without the aid of mechanical or electrical devices or soaps, oils or lotions, and then the part that concerns me, 'by rubbing, stroking, tapping and kneading.' Doesn't that interfere with the chiropractor's profession? Will you have to get a massage license?"

Senator Day: "No, the chiropractic is clearly a distinct application to the articulations of the spinal column. It has absolutely nothing to do with massage."

Senator Rasmussen: "In other words, Senator, the spinal column is not a superficial part of the body?"

Senator Day: "It certainly is not."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Will Senator Day further yield? Senator Day, on page 5, line 13, subsection 3, it reads that the director may deny issuance or renewal of the license if the licensee in subsection 3 has displayed improper, unprofessional or dishonorable conduct in the practice of massage. Could you elaborate as to what you are getting at?"

Senator Day: "I think that is obvious, Senator, to most of us, and it is standard language in all of these acts. What it does is give the director the authority to not license a person who for some reason is not qualified for a license."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Gardner yield to a question? Would this massage bill have anything to do with the people that rent out or loan out their sauna for the use of other people?"

Senator Gardner: "I do not have one, if that is what you are wondering. Not to my knowledge. I am not really familiar with the bill, however, Senator Rasmussen."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "No, I think you will find that that is exempted in the bill, Senator, as are the professions that are exempted from this, a nurse can still massage your back in the hospital, and your neighbor if you are sick can come over and massage your back, or your arm if it was aching, and there would not be anything in the bill to preclude that."

Senator Rasmussen: "You could still loan your sauna to somebody else?"
Senator Day: "I would say so."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2473, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 44; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woody—44.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Greive, Keefe, Sellar—4.
Excused: Senator Woodall—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2473, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, there being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2513.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2513, by Senators Talley and Twigg:
Raising salaries of county officials.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2513. On motion of Senator Ridder, earlier in the day, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 was not adopted. On motion of Senator Ridder, an amendment by Senator Fleming to page 1, section 1, line 19 was moved for adoption earlier in the day.

The motion by Senator Ridder carried and the amendment by Senator Fleming to page 1, section 1, line 19 was adopted.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 4, section 3, beginning on line 19.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Fleming yield? That is something new, Senator Fleming. The salary is set by the Constitution. I did not notice that."

Senator Fleming: "Maybe I am stating it wrong, but from my understanding when we talked to the attorneys, that the county elected officials cannot set the prosecuting attorney's salary and in particular in King County under the home rule situation the prosecuting attorney's salary is not set by the county officials. It is set by statute."

Senator Rasmussen: "Originally, yes, but not any more. We have increased the salary here in this legislature."

Senator Fleming: "Not King County."
Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, absolutely."
Senator Fleming: "Okay, we are setting it but . . . ."
Senator Rasmussen: "We have always set the salary."
Senator Fleming: "Yes, we have, but the county council cannot set it and that is why we are putting his salary in here, and we are letting the county council set the other county employees' salaries and in the future set theirs, but they cannot set the prosecuting attorney's salary. We set that. That is why we have this in here for double A counties."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I think the basis for that, Senator, is that the state pays half of the salary."

Senator Fleming: "They pay half of the salary. Right. It is a constitutional office, and we pay half of the salary, and I mistakenly stated it. Yes, we do. On the prosecuting attorney we do, too."

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the committee amendment to page 4, section 2, beginning on line 19 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the committee amendment to page 6, section 2, beginning on line 28 was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the following amendment by Senator Fleming was adopted:

On page 6, section 2, beginning on line 28, strike all of the material down to and including "1974." on page 8, line 1, and insert "The county legislative authority of such county is authorized to increase or decrease the salary of such office: PROVIDED, That the legislative authority of the county shall not reduce the salary of any official below the amount which such official was receiving on January 1, 1973."

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2513 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2513, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Greive—1.

Excused: Senator Woodall—1.

"O THOU KINDLY LIGHT, WITH THE ENCIRCLING GLOOM ABOUT US, LEAD ON EACH SENATOR HERE GATHERED. WE COME THIS MORNING, CONFESSING THAT IN THE CONCEIT OF OUR SELF-SUFFICIENCY, TOO OFTEN WITH OUR BURNING THIRSTS WE HAVE TURNED TO THE BROKEN CISTERNS OF WORLDLY WISDOM AND OUR OWN SOPHISTICATED CLEVERNESS. THAT DELUSIVE WAY HAS BROUGHT US, AND OUR ANGUISHED GENERATION, TO TRAGEDY AND AGONY. WE HAVE BEEN BLINDED AND HAVE NOT SEEN THAT THE 'NEW MORALITY IS IN TRUTH THE OLD IMMORALITY'.

"HELP EACH OF US HERE TO FACE THE PIERCING TRUTH OF THE QUESTION, 'WHY BUILD THESE CITIES GLORIOUS IF MAN UNBUILDED GOES?' IN VAIN WE BUILD THE WORLD UNLESS THE BUILDER ALSO GROWS.

"OUR FATHER, AS WE GROW IN MORAL AND SPIRITUAL STATURE, GIVE EACH OF US HONESTY IN DEALING WITH OUR OWN BESETTING SINS, HUMILITY TO CONFESSION THEM, AND RESOLUTION TO OVERCOME THEM. THEN MAY WE WALK WITH HEAD UP HIGH, SINGING IN OUR SPIRITS THESE GREAT WORDS, 'GRANT US WISDOM, GRANT US COURAGE FOR THE FACING OF THESE DAYS.' WE ASK THIS IN THE DEAR REDEEMER'S NAME. AMEN."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardelisch, the following were ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar: Senate Bill No. 2129, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 124, and Senate Bill No. 2518.

At 9:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease.
The President called the Senate to order at 11:20 a.m.
On motion of Senator Mardelisch, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-46

By Senators Bailey, Durkan, Sandison, Fleming, Mardelisch, Lewis (Harry), Atwood, Matson, Rasmussen, Keefe and Whetzel:
WHEREAS, Greece, the land of the earliest recorded democratic republic, has valiantly withstood the threat of Communism even though she geographically stands within the shadow of the Iron Curtain; and
WHEREAS, Greece remains an important ally of the United States and other free nations in the defense of the Eastern Mediterranean from the foes of freedom; and
WHEREAS, The patriotic people of Greece challenged the forces of oppression and began a long struggle for restoration of their nation and the freedom of their people; and
WHEREAS, Their cause was just and Greek people were dedicated to freedom; strong support developed so that after many difficult years the Ottoman Sultan was forced to acknowledge the independence of Greece; and
WHEREAS, The people of Greece have clearly demonstrated that where there is a will to be free, ways and means to secure and defend freedom will be found; and
WHEREAS, Through the centuries the Greek people have continually earned the admiration of the world for their courage, self-reliance and love of freedom; and
WHEREAS, We, the members of the Senate gratefully acknowledge the many citizens of Greek ancestry within this State and their contributions to our cultural heritage; and
WHEREAS, The One Hundred Fifty-second Anniversary of Greek Independence will be Sunday, March 25, 1973;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Senate on behalf of the people of the State of Washington, now join in paying tribute to their neighbors of Greek ancestry and to the people of Greece upon the occasion of the One Hundred Fifty-second Anniversary of Greek Independence;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate be and he is hereby ordered to send a copy of this resolution to the Reverend A. Homer Demopoulos of Saint Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church; to Reverend Sam G. Poulos of Greek Orthodox Church of the Assumption, Seattle, Washington; to Reverend Anthony Tomaras of Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church, Tacoma, Washington; and to Reverend Nicholas Velis of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church of Spokane, Washington.
The business of the Senate was suspended to permit the introduction of Reverend Anthony Tomaras who gave the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, OUR HELP AND REFUGE, FOUNTAIN OF WISDOM AND TOWER OF STRENGTH WHO KNOWS THAT WE CAN DO NOTHING WITHOUT YOUR GUIDANCE AND HELP, ASSIST US, WE PRAY, AND DIRECT US THROUGH DIVINE WISDOM AND POWER THAT WE MAY ACCOMPLISH OUR TASK AND WHATEVER WE MAY UNDERTAKE TO DO FAITHFULLY AND DILIGENTLY ACCORDING TO YOUR WILL SO THAT IT MAY BE PROFITABLE TO US AND TO OTHERS AND TO THE GLORY OF GOD. AND, O LORD, IN THIS HOUR RECEIVE OUR SOULS, HALLOW OUR BODIES, CORRECT OUR THOUGHTS, PURIFY OUR MINDS AND DELIVER US FROM ALL TRIBULATION AND DISTRESS, FOR YOU ART BLESSED FROM ALL AGES TO ALL AGES. AMEN."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Father Tomaras. And now, respected members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, in order to prevent any confusion the President at this time would like to introduce the gentleman directly to his right. You have all met Father Homer Demopoulos of Seattle before, but we would like to have Father Demopoulos stand and be recognized. I did not want you to confuse him with Representative William Chatalas."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I wonder if Representative Chatalas would yield to a question? I would like to know why it is that so many Greeks have a name ending in something like 'opulos'? I understand that the gentleman who was just introduced has a name something like that and I understand that Vice President Agnew had a name like Agnewopulos or something. Could you explain that?"

Representative Chatalas: "That is right. The name is derived just like the Scandinavian's have Johnsons and that ends up with 'son' and the Greeks have 'pulos' which stands for the same thing, 'the son.'"
SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
HOUSE BILL NO. 304,
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 42.
There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

for use in making sales and not for resale."
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment by Senators Whetzel and Mardesich was adopted:
On page 4, section 3, line 16 of the engrossed bill, being line 18 of the printed bill, stamp promotion subject to the provisions of chapter 19.84 RCW by a person issuing trading stamps in connection with the retail sale of merchandise or services."

On motion of Senator Whetzel, Engrossed House Bill No. 782, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Whetzel yield? Senator Whetzel, there are a number of very good attorneys in this body and you spoke of a battery of lawyers inspecting this act and they did not know for sure what it meant. I would like for you to assure me that there is nothing in this act that would loosen up the green stamp deal to permit the redemption of the green stamps by cash."

Senator Whetzel: "Senator Canfield, I think what you are concerned about is the redemption of green stamps for merchandise."

Senator Canfield: "For merchandise, yes."

Senator Whetzel: "That is legal now, but there must be a six thousand dollar license fee paid."

Senator Canfield: "I am aware of that."

Senator Whetzel: "This bill does nothing to that as far as we have been able to ascertain. I think I can assure you that it will not permit the redemption of trading stamps for merchandise without payment of the six thousand dollar license fee."

Senator Canfield: "I mis-spoke when I said cash. I meant redemption by merchandise.
Thank you, Senator."

SENATE BILL NO. 2161, by Senators Francis and Clarke (by Judicial Council request):
Expanding responsibilities of municipal courts in passing sentences.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, I confess I must have been absent the particular day at Judiciary when this measure was considered. Hastily glancing at the section, the present law says that in all courts operating under the Municipal Act, the judge sets the sentence. We do have those rural areas where they do have the non-lawyers where the penalty is set by the jury. Now the underlined new section, does that give that local rural JP the same sentencing powers as the justices who are under this other act?"

Senator Francis: "Not at all, Senator Woodall. I have the RCW it refers to here and am looking at the bill and was just talking to Senator Greive about it. The bill only applies existing law to the Municipal Court Act, which only, you know, since it applies to cities of five hundred thousand or more is the Seattle municipal court. So it applies just this part of the justice court act to the Seattle municipal court and says thereby that if there is an offense for which the gravity is so great that he does not think he can properly deal with it, he can in effect bind it over to superior court. Now that is the way I read the law, and this just adds the municipal court in as having that power. It does not change his sentencing power except that he can bind it over to superior court."

Senator Woodall: "But you have added a new category, 35.20. Who does that relate to?"

Senator Francis: "That is saying that justices under 35.20 are under that act. Justices under 35.20 are the municipal courts in cities over five hundred thousand. That is the chapter of RCW that governs the Seattle municipal court."

Senator Woodall: "Then I take it this does not then go back and give these sentencing powers to the small rural justice?"

Senator Francis: "That is correct. In fact, quite the contrary. It does not give any sentencing powers. It gives what I interpret as the bind over power to a municipal judge only."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, consideration of Senate Bill No. 2161 was held following Senate Bill No. 2288 on today’s second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2227, by Senators Woodall, Matson, Henry and Washington: Increasing Yakima County Superior Court from four to five members.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2227 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2227, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following section 3, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 2.08 RCW a new section to read as follows: Judges of the superior court shall have such vacation time with the right to accrue unused vacation leave as is provided for officers and employees of the state under RCW 43.01.040."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "Senator Rasmussen is, of course, injecting a new subject matter into this measure. The measure starts out to provide the number of judges for certain judicial districts. This raises a new issue and a new subject, namely, how much vacation time they should have. I think there is considerable merit in the thing that the good Senator proposes and in some other measure I would be happy to join because I do feel that there has been, in certain areas, an abuse on that particular point. However, I do not feel it is proper in this bill."
SIXTEENTH DAY, MARCH 24, 1973

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, speaking to the point of order, Senate Bill No. 2227 concerns increasing the number of judges in various counties. My proposed amendment would have the effect of reducing the need for judges in various counties and that the court administrator would be able to, by moving the judges around, fill in the need for additional judges. It has been not only my experience in the House, but also in the Senate, about hearing this complaint that the courts shut down in the summertime. They have one or two presiding judges merely to set cases and the lawyers are unable to try their cases. This, of course, increases the backlog of cases and then they come down and point to the legislature that 'we have numerous cases that are a tremendous backlog and we need new judges.' So arguing toward the point of order, I would say that this is a very pertinent point that should be considered at the time when we are increasing the judges and I would hope that the President and this body would go along with this amendment as an indication that the legislature feels there should be some changes made in the way the courts are operated in order to cut down the backlog of cases. And I await your decision, Mr. President."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President, in ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Woodall, is highly impressed with the arguments offered by Senator Rasmussen, and feels that his motives are of the highest order. However, the bill is extremely limited in scope, Senator, in that it provides merely for the increase of the number of judges in certain counties, and your particular amendment pertains to the right of the judges of the superior court to have such vacation time with the rights to accrue unused vacation leave as is provided for officers and employees of the state under RCW 43.01.040. Therefore, the President does believe that your amendment does enlarge the scope and object of the measure."

The amendment by Senator Rasmussen was ruled out of order.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Is there any precedent this session, Senator Mardesich, for not sending a bill that spends money to the Ways and Means Committee? Have any bills come through the Senate floor that have not gone to Ways and Means that are money bills, this session or last?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think there have been one or two but the chairman, when he is present, usually makes sure that those bills go through his hands. But there have been a few go by here without going to Ways and Means."

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2227 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, I would appreciate it if you would inform me, who from Pierce County testified that they wanted a new judge and were the county commissioners represented?"

Senator Woody: "Yes, Jack Rogers."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I find it necessary to correct a statement that was made here. This was addressed to me. 'I did not appear on the judges' bill, and I definitely did not testify about the need for any additional judges in Pierce County. There must be a misunderstanding here.' Signed Jack Rogers. Senator Woody, you must have had another gray haired, kindly, courtly looking gentleman confused with Senator Rogers. I would like to clear up that misunderstanding and point out that I do not know any of the other Senators from Pierce County, but I have been advised in the past at the time that there has been a request in for a judge. I have been advised many times by the county commissioners that that is all they need is another bunch of cracked-brained legislators forcing more people on them that they had to provide housing for and that they did not have a need for. If there was a need for it, I would be the first one who would be up here supporting it. As it is, I am going to be forced to vote against the bill."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted on a rising vote:

On page 1, section 1, line 12, strike "thirty-one" and insert "twenty-nine".

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment by Senators Donohue and Odegaard was adopted:

On page 2, section 3, after "court" and before the period on line 9, insert ":\ PROVIDED. That this act shall only take effect in the event the legislature shall appropriate funds for the 1973-75 biennium to carry out the purposes of this 1973 act."

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2227 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill
No. 2227, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 6; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day,
Donohue, Francis, Gardner, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Mattingly, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson
(Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Matson, Newschwander, Whetzel—5.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2227, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2226, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Senators Fleming, Francis, Murray, Ridder, Bottiger, Grant, Wanamaker and Henry) (by Executive request):

Providing residential landlord tenant laws.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226. On March 16, 1973, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226 was read the second time in full.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Atwood, the amendment on the Secretary's desk by Senator Whetzel to page 1, section 1, beginning on line 19, was ordered held for consideration on Monday, March 26, 1973.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 2, line 1, section 2, after "governed" and before "by", insert "primarily".
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 2, line 2, after "any" and before "not" strike "situation" and insert "case".

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, line 2, section 2, after "not" and before "governed", insert "specifically".
Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 2, beginning with "The" in line 27, strike the remainder of the section.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Do you mean then that only those apartments and things located in the downtown or the so-called central or core areas of the cities would be affected by the act?"
Senator Rasmussen: "No."
Senator Greive: "What does your amendment mean then?"
Senator Rasmussen: "It means that everything would be covered by the act."
The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 3, line 9 after "charged" and before "the" strike "and" and insert "in".

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, section 4, line 29 after "of" and before "where" strike "RCW 47.12.020" and insert "RCW 47.12.120".
On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was adopted:
Amend the Rasmussen amendment to page 3, section 4, line 29, as follows: Strike "RCW 47.12.120" and insert "chapter 47.12 RCW".
The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 4, line 23, after "purchase," and before "or" insert "bona fide option to purchase."
Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, section 5, line 11 after "The" and before "superior" strike "district or".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, would not your remarks also address themselves appropriately to a motion to strike the entire section, because if we strike 'district' and 'superior' from there, what real purpose is there for that amendment?"
Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Francis, I am sorry you did not hear what the amendment was. It is merely striking 'the district or'. It would then remain 'superior court jurisdiction'."
Senator Francis: "I understand that. Perhaps you do not understand my question. I am saying in view of your remarks, why not simply strike the whole section? What purpose would the section have without the word 'district courts' in there, and what I am suggesting is, would you object if I amended your motion to make it strike the whole section? What need do we have for it otherwise?"
Senator Rasmussen: “Well, I would think that you need some court, the superior courts which would have the jurisdiction, Senator Francis.”

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to page 4, section 5, line 11, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 5, line 15, after “chapter” and before the period, insert “within the respective jurisdiction of the district or superior courts as provided in Article IV, section 6 of the Constitution of the State of Washington.”

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 6, line 21, after “operation” and before “if” insert “, which the legislative body enacting the applicable code, statute, ordinance or regulation could enforce as to the premises rented”.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, section 6, line 24 after “in” and before “good” insert “reasonably”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment to page 4, section 6, line 24 was adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, section 6, line 30 after “(4)” and before “insects” strike “Exterminate” and insert “Reasonably exterminate”.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was withdrawn.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, section 6, line 30, strike subsection (4) and insert:
“(4) Provide a structure-wide program for the control of infestation of insects, rodents and other pests.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Bottiger yield? I do not get the full import of this structure-wide program. You mean if you have an apartment with several units and you fumigate one, is that a structure-wide program and then someone moves in who brings the vermin with them, you know they get there from somewhere. People bring vermin in. The buildings do not produce the vermin of their own volition. Now under this amendment, how often and what do you envision this being construed to mean, that he created a structural-wide program? I just do not follow you.”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Woodall, I think what it would mean would be that if there is infestation that the landlord would have to do something about it. Now remember that there are certain exemptions of agricultural land, things of this nature where we all know there is always the problem of mice and flies and things of that nature. But if there is infestation and the tenants complain, then the burden would shift back to the landlord to show that he has a program for controlling or eliminating infestation. If he does not, the tenant would have some corrective rights. Now there is no pride of authorship. The question of infestation of rodents and insects is a substantial one in many dwelling units, and if anybody has got a better idea of how to word the obligation of the landlord to control it, I am more than willing to hear it.”

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger:
Amend the Bottiger amendment to page 4, section 6, line 30 as follows:
On line 3 of the amendment, strike “structure-wide” and insert “reasonable”.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Bottiger and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen were withdrawn.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: “I would like to say that this was no reflection on the Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, who has many, many bills before him, hundreds, and does not have the time to probably work all the bills over, and I can understand that frustration. I have many bills also in my committee. But I, at the same time, have concern for the time of the members on the floor. I do not think that any of these proposed amendments here are out of order. I have in my committee bills of major importance that I do have in my possession the fifth draft. And the reason for that is that you consolidate the proposed amendments and perfect the bill and then present it as a substitute bill. So I have no objection, as long as this body wants to continue working I will work right with them and as many hours. But I do think it is one of the duties that we as chairmen have is to encompass as many of the amendments as we can in a substitute draft and save the time on the floor. Thank you.”

On motion of Senator Mardesch, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 6, line 30, strike “Exterminate” and insert “Provide a reasonable program for the control of infestation by”.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, section 6, line 2 after “repairs” and before “keep” strike “and arrangements necessary to put and” and insert “to”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted on a rising vote:
On page 5, section 6, line 3 after “as” and before “by” strike “it was, or”.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, section 6, line 7 after “in” and before “good” insert “reasonably”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: “Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator, if the toilet only flushes half of the time, would you say it was in reasonably good working condition?”

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, I am wondering if Senator Bottiger is having trouble with his toilet and I do not know quite how to answer him. The point is that when you say ‘reasonably’ this is understandable by everybody and you may not have the appliances in new condition, but they would be in reasonably good condition and I can think many times when I have come home from the legislature and my wife has told me that the washing machine does not pump the water out. Yet it washes good. And I would say that that is reasonably good and I get by with it until I have the time to have it repaired or locate a new one that I wish to buy. That is why I am asking that you insert ‘reasonably good’ and I will be glad to consult with Mr. Bottiger further on his problem.”

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted, as orally amended by Senator Mardesch:
On page 5, section 6, line 22, after “in” strike “same county” and insert “state”.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, section 6, line 25, after “process” and before the period insert “, and if no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered such agent”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: “Would Senator Woody yield? Is there a provision here that the person to whom you pay the rent be in this state? It is very possible that you might be sending your rent to someone outside the state?”

Senator Woody: “With the prior amendments and this amendment, if the landlord or the person named as an agent is outside the state then, you can give notice to the person to whom you pay the rent, even though that person is outside the state. It is an optional. You can give notice to that person.”
The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment to page 5, section 6, line 25 was adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 6, beginning on line 33, strike the remainder of the section and insert the following:

"In the event of any conflict between the provisions of subsection (1) of this section and any other subsections of this section, the provisions of subsection (1) shall control."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Bottiger further yield? Somewhere in the course of time when we were debating this, or discussing it in committee, I proposed an amendment and it was adopted at that time. I do not know where it is right now in this bill. I have not been able to find it. It says that if the landlord cannot turn off the electricity or the utilities, then there should be no lien against him that he would be compelled to pay to get them turned on again, because then you have put the landlord in this position. You have a tenant in there who will not pay his light bill, his water bill, his garbage bill. You will not let the landlord cut him off and then the utility company will make the landlord pick up the tab before you hook him up for the next one. Now that just cannot be fair or right and I am asking, has that been preserved in this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, your amendment is still in the bill, but I must admit that there has come to the attention of at least myself and other friends of the bill that the repeal of the section language would jeopardize the bonds of all the water companies, utility, and sewer companies all over the state. The only answer I can give to your problem is that the landlord-tenant agreement whereby the tenant pays the utilities should be considered part of the tenant's rent. As soon as he does not pay them, he is in violation of the act and the landlord can immediately move him out."

Senator Woodall: "Senator Bottiger, I guess we are premature. We are not at that section, but as a practical matter you know what you have just said is theoretical only and practically cannot apply because if there is one dispute, why then he gets to carry on just the same and in the meantime he is running up ungodly light bills and water bills which the landlord is, the utility company sticks him for, before you let him come in and before they will connect for the next person. Now it would seem to me that if the contract is going to be between the power company or the phone company or whoever it is and the tenant, then they should look to him and to him alone. They should not be able to look to the landlord and make him pick up the tab for someone else's default and misdoing."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment to page 5, section 6, beginning on line 33 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Odegard, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 6, section 7, line 8, following "person" and before "in", strike "designed" and insert "designated".

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 6, section 7, line 16, after "heat" and before "or" insert "as agreed upon in the rental agreement".

On page 6, section 8, line 32, after "rent" and before "before" insert "including all utilities which the tenant has agreed in the rental agreement to pay".

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 4, section 8, strike "provided further, that this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's right in an unlawful detainer proceeding to raise the defense that there is no rent due and owing."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 8, line 33 beginning with "except" strike all material down to the period in line 4, page 7.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, are you suggesting that a person might not have an action under this bill even though his rent were not paid in the case of negligence on the part of the landlord? I do not think that follows. That action would still be open to him."

Senator Francis: "I would argue, certainly, that this section would not deprive him of it. However, in committee it was determined and in a number of subcommittee meetings it was determined that it was at least ambiguous, that some people felt that if there were no remedies that they were also deprived of a civil action for negligence and that that action was conditioned. All we are saying here is that this section will not be construed as so doing, in order to eliminate any possible ambiguity. And having worked with some much older lawyers over a period of time, I learned that when you have a chance to eliminate ambiguities, why gamble about it and take a chance of what the court is going to do. Why not make certain?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would only say that I do not believe the problem is as great as it appears to be. He would have his remedies at law with respect to this measure as I have read it so far."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment, as orally amended by Senator Mardesich, was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

At 1:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Monday, March 26, 1973.

The Senate was called to order at 12:00 noon by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President Pro Tempore that all Senators were present except Senators Francis, Keefe, Sellar and Whetzel.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Theodore Gelber and Kathleen Gregory, presented the Colors. Reverend Arthur I. Anderson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"HOW DO YOU SEE US THIS DAY, LORD, ASSEMBLED HERE IN THE MARBLE HALLS OF THIS UPPER HOUSE FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSIDERING AND PASSING JUST AND EQUITABLE LAWS ON BEHALF OF THE CITIZENRY OF THIS GREAT STATE? DO YOU FIND US PRAISING YOU WITH LIVES GIVEN WHOLLY TO DEDICATED AND UNSELFISH SERVICE? ALMIGHTY AND MERCIFUL GOD AND FATHER OF US ALL, USE NOW THESE OPENING MOMENTS OF ANOTHER LEGISLATIVE WEEK AS A MEANS OF FREEING US TO SERVE AND LOVE YOU AND OUR FELLOWMEN AS WE OUGHT. TAKE THE 'IMP' OUT OF THE SEEMINGLY IMPOSSIBLE IMPASSE AND 'LET JUSTICE ROLL ON LIKE A MIGHTY RIVER, AND INTEGRITY FLOW LIKE A NEVER FAILING STREAM!' MAY THERE BE PRAYERS OF COMMITMENT FROM EACH HEART HERE TO THAT END, FOR YOUR LOVE’S SAKE, WE ASK IT. AMEN."

MOTION

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Phillip and Steve Mahre and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Gardner, Bottiger, Washington and Matson to escort the honored guests to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

MOTION

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-47

By Senators Gardner, Bottiger, Matson, Murray, Washington, Mardesich, Durkan and Fleming:
WHEREAS, The young people of today will be the leaders of this state and nation tomorrow; and
WHEREAS, Outstanding achievement in athletic competition deserves recognition as an inspiration to all of our citizens; and
WHEREAS, On March 16th of this year Phillip Mahre won the North American Junior Alpine Ski Championship held at Crystal Mountain; and
WHEREAS, Phillip and his twin brother Steve, two of the nine Mahre children, were fine representatives of our state in the competition which had contestants from throughout the United States and Canada; and
WHEREAS, Phillip spends many of his leisure time hours skiing since the family residence is located at White Pass where his father is hill manager for White Pass Corporation; and
WHEREAS, Phillip is a sophomore at Naches High School where he is an honor student and participates in football and track;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, that Phillip Mahre be commended and congratulated for his championship skiing performance and that he be encouraged to continue his efforts on behalf of his family, school, and state;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Phillip and his family and to the principal of Naches High School.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GARDNER

Senator Gardner: “I would like to make just two quick points here. One, there is a feeling abroad that skiing is an avocation and a sport mostly for the affluent. I think the Mahres are an example. They are from a family of nine children. They are a hard working family and the boys themselves decided that they have to work very hard in their own right to support their habit which is skiing.

The second point is that we have honored champions before this body, most recently thanks to Senator Stortini, the Wilson High School swim team, and we have seen a lot of champions, and the effort and dedication required of these boys to train and in Phil’s case to win the North American Championships which means he had to win the combined in three different events is no less than any other champion that we have honored here. And so, Phil, and to you, Steve, we just as a group want to thank you and honor you for the hard work and the accomplishments that you have achieved.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: “I want to add my congratulations, particularly since they go to high school in Naches, which is a part of my new district in Yakima. And also, most of the residences at White Pass and the condominiums are in my district; most of the good skiing, I believe, is in the other districts. But it is a real pleasure to have you two as students in the high school at Naches and I really want to add my congratulations to all of those that have been given to you in the past. Thanks very much.”

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “The President would also like to add that it is my understanding that despite the time that it takes to enter all this competition, all the training, practicing, and the traveling, that these youngsters both maintain a very high, better than three point, grade average. I will not try to give the decimal point because I do not remember it, but that in itself is an achievement.”

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE’S PRIVILEGE

President Pro Tempore Henry: “At this time I would like to present to Phillip the Distinguished Citizen Award for the state of Washington. It gives me a great deal of pleasure, Phillip. And also, something that was overlooked a little earlier, you are also, this was just sent to me by the Secretary of State and the Governor's office, you are also designated as a Distinguished Washington Citizen. Again, another one. I might also say that it has been my understanding that the brother is excellent competition, and I do not know whether Phillip tripped him or not, but they say if he had not fallen it would have been a dead heat at the bottom of the hill. At any rate, the parents and the sister at the back of the room, would you please stand? You should be very proud of these nice looking young twins up here."

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the resolution was unanimously adopted.
There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

On page 7, section 9, line 5, after “notice,” and before “as” insert “and expiration of the applicable period of time.”.

On page 7, section 9, after “tenant” in line 7, strike the remainder of the section and insert “shall terminate the rental agreement and quit the premises upon written notice to the landlord without further obligation under the rental agreement, in which case he shall be discharged from payment of rent for any period following the quitting date, and shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of any prepaid rent, and shall receive a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with any refund due in accordance with section 28 of this 1973 amendatory act.”
Debate ensued.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, section 8, line 33, after “chapter” strike all the matter down to and including “act” on page 7, line 3.

POINT OF ORDER
Senator Woodall: “Didn’t we act on this particular section last time and there were specific amendments adopted to that particular section? I think he is attempting to undo what we did."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Woodall has withdrawn his point of order."
Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Murray: "Mr. President, I think Senator Woodall had an excellent point of order that he raised and withdrew. Would you rule on that same point of order at my request?"

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "His point of order was not well taken."
The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment was adopted.
Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 8, section 10, line 9 after "exceed" and before "percent" strike "ten" and insert "five".
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, you mentioned that it costs quite a bit to have a person come in and replace the gasket in a faucet."
Senator Bottiger: "I think what I said, Senator Rasmussen, is they will not even give you a bid on it. It costs more to give a bid than to put the gasket in."
Senator Rasmussen: "My question is, how many times a year can a person get this ten percent? For each individual job that he thinks needs to be done?"
Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator Rasmussen, an amount equal to ten percent in any calendar year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, if a person moves in on a month to month tenancy, there is no calculated period as to how long he will be there, can he within the first week that he is there or first month that he is there spend a sum of money equal to ten percent of a year's rental when he has himself only put up rent for one month? In other words, can he spend more the first month than he has paid to this particular landlord?"
Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, he could not spend more than that unless he: One, found one of the defective conditions that are mentioned in the act; and two, obtain bids, call this to the notice of the landlord, obtain bids, give the landlord plenty of time to make the repair himself and found the landlord who refused to. If all of those things occur, the tenant under the risk of having an arbitrator or court rule that he was wrong could make repairs up to ten percent of the annual rental."
Senator Woodall: "That did not answer my question. My question was, could he oblige his landlord for more than one month's rent and at the end of that month he could go ahead and leave after having incurred that debt? Correct?"
Senator Bottiger: "Yes, I think he could."
The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? What would happen if the tenant started to do this small plumbing job and really did not know what he was doing and broke off a pipe or something and really created a havoc, and now you have a one hundred and fifty dollar plumbing bill staring you in the face?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Day, under the terms of this bill I presume the tenant would put his hat on and walk out and the landlord would be stuck with the bill to repair the house, frankly."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 8, section 10, line 28, after "deducted" insert "in any twelve-month period" and strike "in any one calendar year" on lines 28 and 29.

On page 10, section 12, line 15 beginning with ": PROVIDED" strike the remainder of the section down to the period in line 22.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, as I read this language, it is one thing if a man has had his day in court, there has been a determination by a judge that these premises should remain closed. As I read this, the arbitrator on his own can petition and an order can come out and it then remains closed until such time as the particular landlord can get a day in court. Now you joined with me and others telling this body only a day ago how long it takes to get into King County court. Now would this not have the effect then, if the amendment of Senator Rasmussen is not adopted, that the arbitrator could on an ex-party petition get an order of closure, the man's premises would then be closed down until such time as he could get a date on the crowded King County calendar?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, the answer to your question is probably yes, but I have to add to that that this bill does not provide for mandatory arbitration. It says if the parties agree to arbitration. Now if the landlord agrees to arbitration and submits to the arbitrator whether the premises are inhabitable or not, he is bound just as he would be under 704 to a decision of that arbitrator until he could get into court on an appeal. I do not think it adds anything to the present law in that respect."

Renumber the remaining subsection.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? As I recall, we discussed this same thing in committee and it was voted out at that time. Is that not correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "The Judiciary Committee, in another rare instance, Senator Woodall, I believe, made an error."

Senator Woodall: "That was one of its finer hours. But anyway, getting back to facts, we discussed it and we voted it out on the premise that once someone was told of a condition that they would have to correct or else their tenancy would be terminated that all they would have to do would be to say, 'We have now organized an organization,' and thereafter they could not be moved. Now was not that thoroughly discussed and the Judiciary Committee decided pretty unanimously that that provision did not belong in the bill?"
Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, I simply cannot agree that that is the situation. If the tenant were otherwise entitled to stay in possession after a complaint had been registered, the landlord could not use the fact that he had joined or participated in organizing a tenant organization as a reason for harassing him. Now if you will look at the harassment section, what we are talking about, increasing the rent, reducing the services, increasing the obligations of the tenant, harassment of the tenant. What we are saying is that the reprisal or retaliatory action cannot be brought against the tenant because he joined or participated in a tenant organization. Now this, I think, to everybody that understands labor law, this is like canning the president of the union because he is the president of the union. We are saying that that is kind of the same unfair tactic as far as the tenant is concerned, as all of us would agree it would be for an officer in a union. I think the same analogy parallel follows."

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 16, section 24, line 4, after "tenant" and before the semicolon insert "other than giving a notice to terminate tenancy as provided in section 20 of this 1973 amendatory act".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, by this provision is it intended that tenants in the same apartment house who are not parties to an arbitration and who have not asked to be parties to an arbitration could be joined, or are you rather just trying to do what Senator Whetzel has been describing?”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Woody, the intent of the committee or at least of the chairman of the subcommittee, is that the individual tenants would have had to voluntarily submit to arbitration. We made that very clear in the act that it could not be compulsory and I would join with Senator Whetzel’s explanation that if you demand that there be separate arbitration for each one of the disputes, say in a thirty-unit apartment house, you are going to tie the landlord up for months. What we are trying to do here is the same thing we do in court, to consolidate cases so that you can have a speedy and adequate remedy at the least possible expense.”

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 22, section 35, line 10 after “a” and before “gives” strike “tenant” and insert “party”.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 23, after line 3, insert a new section as follows:
“NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Any violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be construed, for the purposes of application of the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, to constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce.”
Renumber the remaining sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Bottiger yield? Does this give Slade Gorton some other branch to get into and to—he is kind of overworked now isn’t he, with the cases he has over there? Do you think he needs more work?”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Woodall, the understanding that I had from Mr. Clark from that division and the understanding based on experience of my own while I was with the division is that it takes just as much time to process a complaint you cannot do anything about as it takes to process a complaint you can handle. So I do not think it would cause any more work for them except that in a serious case you might find a court action that would not otherwise be authorized without this statute. But the Attorney General’s office can by the assimilation and collection of the complaint, assist private tenants and private landlords in compiling the information necessary for private litigation.”

Senator Woodall: “You mean information or taking suits under this? They would be taking cases, wouldn’t they?”

Senator Bottiger: “He could take a case, but we are both aware of the limitations on his budget and the amount of time he has, but he has to show in order to take a case that there is a pattern of false and deceptive practices, not the isolated incident."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, I am not a lawyer and your amendment may be all right, but as I read it, it says, 'any violation of this chapter'. Now as I have been following these amendments, the violation could be on the part of the tenant; they could be on the part of the landlord, but as we follow through your amendment then, it refers to the Consumer Protection Act, and I want to know if a landlord is a consumer under that interpretation or is it just the tenant who is protected? My point is, Senator, I think if there is an abuse of the act, the protection should work both ways."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, your unique mind has touched on something I cannot answer. I would presume that as the language is written it would allow the Attorney General, if he can show a pattern of false and deceptive practices, if he can show a tenant was engaged in a pattern of false and deceptive practices, as written that amendment, and again I am guessing without researching it, might permit the Attorney General to bring retributive action against that particular tenant. In answer to Senator Woodall, let us suppose that a particular landlord was systematically withholding rent deposits. Now the amount is fifty dollars or seventy-five dollars or a hundred dollars. It is very difficult to get a good lawyer to go after some guys for a hundred bucks. So there is where the Attorney General's office by practice now is able, if he is able to show a pattern of that kind of action on behalf of a tenant, could bring an action under the Attorney General's authority for a mandatory injunction against "X" landlord to return all of those deposits rather than force the people into individual class action-type suits. Now that is the authority the Attorney General has at the present time, I believe. I have seen these clippings in newspapers where he has taken action of that kind. If we pass this statute without this section, I think we prohibit him from doing that in the future and force it into the private litigation section. Now there is the problem. I cannot be hired to bring a hundred-dollar lawsuit. Now I do not know, maybe Senator Woodall can, but I cannot afford it. And what I think is that if there is that pattern there, there ought to be the Attorney General's office that can bring that kind of class action for the mandatory injunction."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Bottiger, I think you are trying to answer my question by inference and in your discussion you referred only to actions by the tenant. So I infer that you would say that the landlord would have no recourse under the Consumer Protection Act. You further state that a pattern would have to be established, whereas your amendment says 'any violation,' and 'any violation' is singular and would not constitute a pattern, in my opinion."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, I am sorry. I thought I answered that. The amendment as written says, 'any violation of the provisions of this act.' Now there are other sections in the Attorney General's consumer protection division that talk about class actions. I am sorry, I just do not know the prior interpretations of the phrase 'any violation' except it is the standard phrase that we have added. We have passed the bill here on the campus clubs. We added this section to the camping club statute because we omitted it last time. And it is the same pattern section, as far as I know. I wish I could give you a brief answer, but I am sorry I cannot at this time."

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger:

After "Any" and before "violation" insert "pattern of".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Washington yield? It is not exactly clear to me what pattern or practices both you and Senator Bottiger are trying to refer to. What do you have in mind?"
Senator Washington: "I was following the one that Senator Bottiger gave where frequently there is a pattern of activity wherein the landlord withholds the refunds. That is a good example. Instead of just being a single violation as it says here, it would have to be a pattern of this type of violation. There may be a better word, but that is the best I can think of."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, will you yield to a question? Was that what you had in mind with your proposal?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is fine with me. I have no objection. As amended, Senator Rasmussen, in all fairness, as worded it says 'any violation', i.e. singular. The past intent and the limitation of authority on the Attorney General's office is to show a pattern of actions before he can bring anything into court. I think you and I will remember the used car dealer in Tacoma that ran for mayor. For two years we put together a file on the things he was doing, and after I left the office, Mr. Gilman brought the action showing a pattern of deceptive practices. Now that has been the limitation of the Attorney General's authority for as long as I have known."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Bottiger yield again please? Senator, if you will enlighten one who is just a lay person, would a violation under this Consumer Protection Act involve double or treble damages?"

Senator Bottiger: "There are certain classifications under the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Act that do provide treble damages, and I do not have the statute here in front of me to be able to tell you exactly what they are."

Senator Canfield: "Now Senator Fleming had some amendments awhile ago providing for double damages and now are you saying that this would come around through the other door and permit double damages or triple?"

Senator Bottiger: "There is a civil penalty under the Attorney General's authority, and again I would have to get it. I believe it goes to the state where, if you can show a pattern of deceptive practices, one of the things the court can do is award up to treble damages as a civil penalty. They are usually reserved for the antitrust-type things. But I would have to have the statute right in front of me to be able to honestly answer that question."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger was adopted.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment, as amended, was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 19, after "through" strike "37" and insert "43".

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 23, beginning on line 8, strike sections 38, 39, 40, 41 and 42 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. The plaintiff, at the time of commencing an action of forcible entry or detainer or unlawful detainer, or at any time afterwards, upon filing the complaint, may apply to the judge of the court in which the action is pending for an order directing the defendant to appear and show cause, if any he has, why a writ of restitution should not issue restoring to the plaintiff possession of the property in the complaint described, and the judge shall by order fix a time and place for a hearing of said motion, which shall not be less than six nor more than twelve days from the date of service of said order upon defendant. A copy of said order, together with a copy of the summons and complaint if not previously served upon the defendant, shall be served upon the defendant. Said order shall notify the defendant that if he fails to appear and show cause at the time and place specified by the order the court may order the sheriff to restore possession of the property to the plaintiff and may grant such other relief as may be prayed for in the complaint and provided by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. At the time and place fixed for the hearing of plaintiff's motion for a writ of restitution, the defendant, or any person in possession or claiming possession of the property, may answer, orally or in writing, and assert any legal or equitable defense or set-off arising out of the tenancy. If the answer is oral the substance thereof shall be endorsed on the complaint by the court. The court shall examine the parties and witnesses orally to ascertain the merits of the complaint and answer, and if it shall appear that the plaintiff has the right to be restored to possession of the property, the court shall enter an order directing the issuance of a writ of restitution, returnable ten days after its date, restoring to the plaintiff possession of the property and if it shall appear to the court that there is no substantial issue of material fact of the right of the plaintiff to be granted other relief as prayed for in the complaint and provided for in this chapter, the court may enter an order and judgment granting so much of such relief as may be sustained by the proof, and the court may grant such other relief as may be prayed for in the plaintiff's complaint and provided for in this chapter, then the court shall enter an order denying any relief sought by the plaintiff for which the court has determined that the plaintiff has no right as a matter of law: PROVIDED, That within three days after the service of the writ of restitution the defendant, or person in possession of the property, may, in any action for the recovery of possession of the property for failure to pay rent, stay the execution of the writ pending final judgment by paying into court or to the plaintiff, as the court directs, all rent found to be due and all the costs of the action, and in addition by paying, on a monthly basis pending final judgment, an amount equal to the monthly rent called for by the lease or rental agreement at the time the complaint was filed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That before any writ shall issue prior to final judgment the plaintiff shall execute to the defendant and file in the court a bond in such sum as the court may order, with sufficient surety to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute his action without delay, and will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the writ of restitution having been issued, should the same be wrongfully sued out. The court shall also enter an order directing the parties to proceed to trial on the complaint and answer in the usual manner.

If it appears to the court that the plaintiff should not be restored to possession of the property, the court shall deny plaintiff's motion for a writ of restitution and enter an order directing the parties to proceed to trial on the complaint and answer in the usual manner. If it appears to the court that there is a substantial issue of material fact as to whether or not the plaintiff is entitled to other relief as is prayed for in plaintiff's complaint and provided for in this chapter, or that there is a genuine issue of a material fact pertaining to a legal or equitable defense or set-off raised in the defendant's answer, the court shall grant or deny so much of plaintiff's other relief sought and so much of defendant's defenses or set-off claimed, as may be proper, and any remaining issue shall be set to be tried within thirty days of the return date as provided for in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The sheriff shall, upon receiving the writ of restitution, forthwith serve a copy thereof upon the defendant, his agent, or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, and shall not execute the same for three days thereafter, and the defendant, or person in possession of the premises within three days after the service of the writ of restitution may execute to the plaintiff a bond to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court in such sum as may be fixed by the judge, with sufficient surety to be approved by the clerk of said court, conditioned that they will pay to the plaintiff such sum as the plaintiff may recover for the use and occupation of the said premises, or any rent found due, together with all damages the plaintiff may sustain by reason of the defendant occupying or keeping possession of said premises, and also all the costs of the action. The plaintiff, his agent or attorneys, shall have notice of the time and place where the court or judge thereof shall fix the amount of the defendant's bond, and shall have notice and a reasonable opportunity to examine into the qualification and sufficiency of the sureties upon said bond before said bond shall be approved by the clerk. The writ may be served by the sheriff, in the event he shall be unable to find the defendant, an agent or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, by affixing a copy of said writ in a conspicuous place upon the premises.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. On or before the day fixed for his appearance the defendant may appear and answer. The defendant in his answer may assert any legal or equitable defense or set-off arising out of the tenancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. If upon the trial the verdict of the jury or, if the case be tried without a jury, the finding of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, judgment shall be entered for the restitution of the premises; and if the proceeding be for unlawful detainer after neglect or failure to perform any condition or covenant of a lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of the lease, agreement or tenancy. The jury, or the court, if the proceedings be tried without a jury, shall also assess the damages arising out of the tenancy occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and, if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent, find the amount of any rent due, and the judgment shall be rendered against the defendant guilty of the forcible entry, forcible detainer or unlawful detainer for the amount of damages thus assessed and for the rent, if any, found due, and the court may award statutory costs and reasonable attorney's fees. When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, execution upon the judgment shall not be issued until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term, or other party interested in the continuance of the tenancy, may pay into court the landlord the amount of the judgment and costs, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant restored to his tenancy; but if payment, as herein provided, be not made within five days the judgment may be enforced for its full amount and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately. If writ of restitution shall have been executed prior to judgment no further writ or execution for the premises shall be required."

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Whetzel:
On line 6, page 23, strike “judge of the” and insert “superior”.
On page 25, section 40, line 33, after “premises,” and before “and” insert “together with all damages which the court theretofore has awarded to the plaintiff as provided in this 1973 amendatory act,”.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “Would Senator Whetzel yield? Senator Whetzel, we made two amendments already to the existing one in section 38 redefining it to superior court and one in section 40, which your amendment does not consider.”

Senator Whetzel: “In my motion I moved that those amendments be added to my new section so that they would be reinstated as your two amendments were added to those sections.”

Senator Woody: “A further question, Senator Whetzel. Your amendment would not change any of the substantive law provided in the existing sections 38 through 42 excepting that they would not provide for commercial property. Is this correct?”

Senator Whetzel: “That is right.”

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendments to the amendment by Senator Whetzel were adopted.

The motion by Senator Whetzel carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments were adopted:
On page 27, add a new section following section 42 as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The provisions of RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, 59.12.121, and 59.12.170 shall not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of Chapter . . . (SSB No. 2226).”

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
On page 28, section 46, subsection (6), strike lines 16 and 17.
Senator Murray moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 27, line 18, after the period add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. . . . The provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall not apply to any lease of a single family dwelling for a period of a year or more or to any lease of a single family dwelling containing a bona fide option to purchase by the tenant if such lease is for a period of six months or more: PROVIDED, That an attorney for the tenant must approve on the face of the agreement any lease exempted from the provisions of this act as provided for in this section."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Murray yield? Senator Murray, the second portion of your amendment says, 'or through any lease of single family residence containing a bona fide option to purchase by the tenant if such lease is for a period of six months or more'. The Marsh amendment which is on page 3 exempted out any occupancy under a bona fide earnest money agreement to purchase or a bona fide option to purchase. It did not have the six months. The problem that I could foresee is that a court could look at the first section on page 3 of your amendment and wonder whether a lease that was to go for one month, two months, three months, anything less than six months, but had a really truly bona fide option to purchase, whether it would be subject to this act. I think it might be ruled these two provisions are inconsistent."

Senator Murray: "Senator Woody, I feel that you are probably right. The net effect of this would be to say that the option had to be for a period of six months in order to qualify for this exemption. As far as that is concerned, I would have no objection to striking that entire clause with the feeling that Senator Marsh's amendment does take care of that portion of it."

Senator Woody: "Beginning with, 'if such lease is for a period of six months or more'.

Senator Murray: "However, I do not think that this really negates the effect that Senator Marsh was looking for. It would merely require that a lease with an option would have to be for a period of at least six months in order to qualify."

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Murray was adopted:

In line 4 of the amendment, after "tenant" and before ": PROVIDED" strike "if such lease is for a period of six months or more".

The motion by Senator Murray carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Whatzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Talley:

On page 28, beginning on line 6, strike all of subsections 1 through 5, of section 46, down to and including "and" on line 15.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Whatzel carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whatzel, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 1 of the title after "property," beginning with "amending" strike all material down to and including "59.12 RCW," on lines 6 and 7.

On motion of Senator Whatzel, the following amendment by Senator Talley to the title was adopted:

Beginning on line 8 of the title after "sections", strike all material down to and including "RCW 57.08.090", on line 15.

On motion of Senator Whatzel, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Romaine Jackson and Jane Shiers, presented the Colors. Reverend Arthur I. Anderson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER GOD, YOUR WORD DECLARES THAT 'IT IS A PRIME REQUISITE IN A TRUSTEE THAT HE SHOULD PROVE WORTHY OF HIS TRUST.' WE MUST CONFESS THAT TOO OFTEN WE ARE NOT GOOD TRUSTEES OF ALL THAT YOU AND OUR FELLOWMEN HAVE ENTRUSTED TO US. WE ARE RELUCTANT TO GIVE THE OPPOSITION AN IMPARTIAL HEARING, AND TOO EASILY WE JUSTIFY OUR FAILURE TO SUPPORT A RIGHTEOUS CAUSE AS GENEROUSLY AS WE SUPPORT OUR OWN INTERESTS. WE KNOW WHAT WE WOULD LIKE OTHERS TO DO FOR US, BUT WE FIND IT DIFFICULT TO BE UNSELFISHLY CONSIDERATE OF OTHERS. FORGIVE OUR LACK OF CONCERN AND ACTION. FORGIVE US, AND THEN USE US IN BRINGING TO PASS YOUR RIGHTEOUS WILL AND PURPOSE. THROUGH CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

On motion of Senator Henry, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2250 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Wednesday, March 28, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2326, by Senators Durkan, Bailey and Rasmussen (by State Auditor request):
Authorizing state auditor to make recommendations for improved level of fiscal management.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, section 1, line 17, after "audits" insert "except to the extent such audits may be required by the federal government or any of its agencies as a condition for the receipt or expenditure of federal funds by any state agency: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Legislative Budget Committee will be notified in advance of such audits by the state auditor indicating the specific federal authority requiring the audit”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: “I am not quite sure exactly what this does. Is this a restriction of the State Auditor's authority?”

Senator Atwood: “Yes, it is in the area of performance audits.”

Senator Dore: “What is the restriction? Why should not he have the right to carry out under the statute now?”

Senator Atwood: “He does not have that right now, Senator. We took it away from him in 1971. This is restoring him to those areas that are required by federal law.”

Senator Dore: “I see.”

The motion by Senator Atwood carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 4, section 1, line 23, after the colon strike all the matter down to and including “management” on line 27 and insert “PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the state auditor during the course of the regular fiscal-legal audit observes questionable financial management practices he may include appropriate recommendations designed to aid the legislature in accomplishing its purposes under RCW 44.28.055”.

On page 5, section 1, line 8, after “general,” insert: “(4) When federal funds are granted or furnished to a state agency under any condition requiring any review or audit of that agency’s activities for compliance with federal audit standards, the state auditor shall have the authority to perform such review or audit either alone or in conjunction with any other officer or agency. The term “audit standards” for the purpose of this subsection includes the recognized body of governmental audit standards as officially published on August 1, 1972 by the Comptroller General of the United States, titled “Standards for Audit of Governmental Organizations, Programs, Activities and Functions” or any other standards required by the appropriate federal grantor agency.”

Remumber remaining subsection consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Prior to leaving second reading, would Senator Atwood yield? For the record, some time ago the auditor used to come into a little town and besides counting the money and making sure the Justice of the Peace was properly accounting for funds, he went further and delved into the matter of the expediency as to how this man was handling the cases and the continuances which were granted. He happened to be critical of continuances which were granted to one attorney member of the legislature who was gone at that time. This will not get him back into telling judicial offices how to operate?”

Senator Atwood: “This will not allow him in the field of performance auditing of state agencies except in those very limited areas where federal regulations require.”

On motion of Senator Atwood, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2326 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2326, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent or not voting, 7.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment by Senators Dore and Lewis (Harry) to the title was adopted:

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Grant moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the Senate adopted the committee amendment to page 2, section 3, line 24.
Debate ensued.
The motion for reconsideration by Senator Grant failed.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 17, after "counselor" strike the comma and insert "[, ] or" and after "librarian" strike "", or department head" and insert "[, or department head]."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Grant failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment by Senators Sandison and Bailey was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 25, after "assignments," strike the remainder down through "hereunder," on page 2, line 4, and insert "and has responsibilities to hire, dismiss, or discipline other employees. Administrators shall not be members of the bargaining unit unless a majority of such administrators and a majority of the bargaining unit elect by secret ballot for such inclusion pursuant to rules and regulations as adopted in accordance with section 5 of the 1973 Amendatory Act."

On motion of Senator Henry, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, following line 19 insert the following paragraph:

And unless other arrangements are agreed upon between the labor organization and the employee, such employee must pay an amount of money equivalent to regular dues and initiation fees and assessments, if any, to a nonreligious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the representative of the labor organization to which such employee would otherwise pay dues. The employee shall furnish written proof that this has been done. If the employee and representative of the labor organization do not reach agreement on the matter, the board shall designate such organization."

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment by Senators Sandison and Whetzel was adopted:
On page 3, beginning on line 32, add a new section as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment by Senators Sandison and Whetzel to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 8 of the title, after section and before the period insert "; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Sandison, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Sandison yield? Under this bill as amended, will it require community college personnel to belong to and pay dues to the bargaining unit?"
Senator Sandison: "The answer is no."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "I have two questions for Senator Sandison if he will yield. Section 2 of this act permits boards to delegate the negotiation responsibility, does this include hiring professionals who are not regular employees of the district?"
Senator Sandison: "Yes, this would include that."
Senator Whetzel: "If so, because many such professional negotiators are attorneys, does the amendment encompass the boards hiring an attorney who is not an assistant attorney general for this special purpose?"
Senator Sandison: "Yes, the person that would be hired would be hired as a negotiator because he was a negotiator. It may be by chance that he is an attorney but his job would be negotiation, not for legal advice."
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2245, by Senators Walgren and Wanamaker:
Providing compensation to members of the marine employees commission.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2245, providing compensation to members of the marine employees commission (reported by Committee on Transportation and Utilities):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 19, after “dollars” and before “for” strike “per diem” and insert “compensation”.

Signed by: Senators Walgren, Chairman; Stortini, Vice Chairman; Guess, Jolly, Knoblauch, Lewis (Bob), Rasmussen, Sellar, Wanamaker, Washington.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 19, after “receive” strike “forty dollars”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: “Would Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, we have all different kinds of commissions, some are almost honorary, others are quite hard working. We pay them all different sliding scales from the Utilities and Transportation Commission down to the Commission on Mexican-American Affairs. Is this commission a working commission or are they semi-honorary?”

Senator Walgren: “The testimony before the committee was that in years past there has not been a tremendous amount of work that the commission has had to become involved in. Within the last two years or so, they have been deeply involved in some of the hearings that are necessary with the employees involved with the ferry system. As a matter of fact, I think testimony was that this was taking some five or six days during a period of maybe six months for their work, and the anticipation was it was going to require some additional work on their part. So it is indeed a working commission and not an honorary one.”
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, I note that the section of law establishes a Marine Employee Commission to consist of three members, one member to be appointed from labor, one from industry and the other being a public member. Those members who are from labor and the employers, are they people who are employed as a part of the ferry system or does it not necessarily follow that they would be?"

Senator Walgren: "It does not necessarily follow that they have to be employed by the state ferry system. As a matter of fact, I believe they are not at the present time."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Walgren further yield? Do I read this correctly? Senator Lewis says that unless his amendment passes these people receive forty dollars a day plus their expenses, with no maximum set in the bill as to what they can turn in for."

Senator Walgren: "That is correct."

Senator Woodall: "That is kind of a new departure that there is no limit as to their expenses? Do we have any other commission on that unlimited plane that you know of?"

Senator Walgren: "I do not know. Senator Guess might be able to answer that particular question."

Senator Guess: "Not that I know of."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Atwood was excused.

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment was adopted:

Excused: Senators Atwood, Durkan, Talley—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2245, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, the language in the bill we just passed indicated that the commission members would receive payment for their necessary traveling in attending meetings of the commission. Did you intend in this legislation that these meetings would be within the state of Washington?"

Senator Walgren: "That was not discussed."
Senator Lewis (Harry): "Was it your understanding that the intent of the bill would preclude them from receiving expenses beyond the area of the state of Washington?"

Senator Walgren: "Senator, I will have to honestly answer that that was not discussed at all and so I cannot say what the intent was."

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Lewis (Harry) served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2245 passed the Senate.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2388 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Senator, some years ago we passed a measure in this body to require that an annexation in an unincorporated area would have to receive the permission of the county commissioners before it went into a city. Does this in any way change that statute?"
Senator Walgren: "No."

On motion of Senator Canfield, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2465 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Canfield yield? Does this not now on certain nonpaying jobs such as school boards and others require a dollar fee to run for a nonpaying job where it never used to? Is that also in the bill?”

Senator Canfield: “Yes. A dollar is not a very important fee nowadays. Mr. President, the reason for this fee was to in some way meet the costs that are entailed in the paper work in the office of the Secretary of State and the County Auditor.”

President Pro Tempore Henry: "We do not have to adopt the Constitution, Senator Lewis. We have it."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "Ruling on the point of order scope and object, there are twenty-seven lines of repealers and RCW's on the first page and 18 lines on the second page. REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

Senator Mardesich: “If you have any right to rule on the question of scope and object with respect to the point raised by Senator Lewis, you have the authority with respect to the point raised by me. Otherwise, you have no authority at all.”

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “Senator, if you would like to raise the question of constitutionality of an omnibus bill you are into—that is a horse of a different color. But unfortunately the section 36, I believe it is, of the Constitution is only a tool by which I operate just as an umpire uses an indicator to indicate balls and strikes, and I do not make all the rules for the ball game, as the Constitution does. Your point is not well taken.”

On motion of Senator Newschwaarder, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 2, line 5, after “beverages” insert “as provided in chapter 100, Laws of 1973”.

said improvement or work to all persons, mechanics, subcontractors or materialmen of whom the public body has actual knowledge of performing work or supplying materials”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: “Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Your amendment provides that the city, county and state would have to send by certified mail in seven days the final acceptance of said improvement or work to all persons, mechanics, subcontractors, materialmen, whom the public body has actual knowledge of performing work or supplying materials. Now how is that knowledge acquired? One of the clerks in the office or the supervising engineer or who? Whose knowledge would that be?”

Senator Woody: “In every instance of a major or even a minor contracting by either a political subdivision or the state of Washington, you have engineers and especially the architects who are supervising this. They know every contractor, they know every supplier and they know every materialman who has supplied because all of those matters are brought before the architects, before the board, much before time of final completion. I have not seen one situation yet where not all of them were known to the board itself.”

Senator Dore: “I am trying to inquire what person you have in mind?”

Senator Woody: “Anybody in a supervisory capacity. It would not be a clerk.”

Senator Dore: “How about a person at the counter having knowledge of it? That would not be notice, right?”

Senator Woody: “No, sir.”

Senator Dore: “Don’t you think you should put that in the amendment then?”

Senator Woody: “It would not provide anything more than already exists under this amendment because under this amendment the architect or anybody else designated under supervisory capacity would have knowledge of this anyway. They get these papers from the materialmen, they get the documents from the subcontractors throughout the project.”

Senator Dore: “One more question. Assuming there is a conflict of contractors over who is entitled to the money and there is a claim for two million dollars and another party is making a claim for three million. They are disputing the same common work. The city or county or state overlooks the requirement of giving actual notice. In the meantime, the state or city or county makes the payoff. Then under this bill, is it your understanding that the other party that did not receive notice could sue for the two million dollars or whatever it was over and above the released funds?”

Senator Woody: “The current law as it stands right now would not be changed in that respect. Within that thirty day period of time, those persons who file a claim of lien . . . .”

Senator Dore: “Senator Woody, I have a specific question. I am assuming that they do not follow this requirement. The money is released by the state to the wrong person, or the right person, but one with a claim raised the point that that should not have been paid off because no notice was given. My question specifically is, would they have a legal right to sue the state, say for two million dollars, under that factual situation?”

Senator Woody: “Under your hypothetical question, neither party filed a claim so neither party would be entitled to . . . .”

Senator Dore: “No, one party filed it. It was actually—both of them filed a claim. They both have serious legal contentions. In other words, perhaps on a dam, they may be contending over who caused the washout of the particular partial dam or whatever it was. It seems to me you are giving a cause of action to people because they do not receive actual knowledge in limbo, and it may well be they can then sue the state.”

Senator Woody: “That is precisely what I mentioned before, why I put this where I did. It does not give a new cause of action. All it does is provide that certified mail notification must be made. It does not defeat, either enlarge or shrink the lien rights under the thirty day filing requirement.”

Senator Dore: “Don’t you think you should put that sentence in your amendment then to make sure? Otherwise someone will be suing on the basis that it does.”

Senator Woody: “I would have no objection, although I think with this much dialogue there is enough legislative intent in the Journal of the Senate that there would be no question.”
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dore: "I would like to raise the scope and object of this amendment. The purpose of the bill is a very simple thing, merely to provide for interest on reserves held by public bodies to accrue to the interest of the contractor. Now we have gotten into a very complicated legal amendment in which Senator Woody and I apparently have different ideas as to the extent of it, whereby in my opinion you are giving a right to a party to have actual notice and if the state pays off wrongly to parties without giving actual notice under this provision, it seems to me in the absence of other language to be added in the amendment that they could, of course, hold the state responsible. I would like to, frankly I am not necessarily against your amendment. I think it is probably a good idea. I do not know the expense that would be involved by the municipal bodies to have to give this notice and I do not know exactly who would receive the actual notice, whether you say it is not a clerk you have got in mind but of course in law I think you can show the party dealing with the public had knowledge and you are entitled to rely upon the knowledge of the clerk. I do not think you can simply say you can discount the knowledge of the clerk."

MOTION

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Canfield, Senator Woodall was excused.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following bills were ordered held on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 29, 1973: Senate Bills 2134, 2045 and 2046 and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 124.
Senators Mardesich, Grant and Day demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE
The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Talley and Woodall who had previously been excused.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

THIRD READING
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2226, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Senators Fleming, Francis, Murray, Ridder, Bottiger, Grant, Wanamaker and Henry) (by Executive request):
Providing residential landlord tenant laws.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Rasmussen: “Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, I think considerable work has been done on this bill and through the working and reworking is improved. On page 19 it provides that ‘the landlord may sell such property and may apply any income derived therefrom against moneys due the landlord, including dryage and storage. Any excess income derived from the sale of such property shall be held by the landlord for the benefit of the tenant for a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no claim is made or action commenced by the tenant for the recovery thereof prior to the expiration of that period of time, the balance shall be the property of the landlord.’ Now my question is, in some instances where apparently the tenant has moved out or abandoned the place, it could be that he has been on a trip or died or something, been quite valuable property, and under the Unclaimed Properties Act this ordinarily would go to the state, the same as meter deposits and unclaimed bank deposits and things. Would this give too much advantage to the landlord or would the Unclaimed Properties Act that is in effect now control?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, this section applies strictly to abandonment. I do not think it gives too much right to the landlord. You know, there are many of these cases where there is an abandonment without payment of rent and the landlord comes out the loser. This might tend to balance it a little bit because there is a possibility that the person abandons and actually leaves something that is of more value than the rent he owes, which has got to be one of the rarest instances I can think of, that the landlord could actually come out a little bit ahead. I do not think it is unfair. This would supersede any other state law presently existing on that subject."

Senator Rasmussen: "There is a possibility in that rare case that you could have quite valuable articles left in an abandoned apartment. I am only raising that so that some of those questions could be answered. I have another question. Under section 33, page 20, 'Unless otherwise mutually agreed to, in the event a controversy arises under section 32 of this 1973 amending act the landlord or tenant, or both, shall complete an Application for Arbitration and deliver it to the selected arbitrator.' Now it is my understanding that that had to be mutual and not that one person could not do that."

Senator Francis: "That is correct, Senator Rasmussen. Section 32 provides for mutually agreed arbitration. They have a right to go to court if they do not both agree to go to arbitration."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, but this section 32 says 'shall complete an Application.' Either the landlord or the tenant. It does not say that both of them have to mutually agree to it in that section."

Senator Francis: "I agree, Senator, but section 33 refers back to section 32. They are talking about agreed arbitrations under section 32 and section 33 is providing a procedure for implementing section 32."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then on page 21, section 34, 'The administrative fee for this arbitration procedure shall be seventy dollars,' does this foreclose the landlord from going to small claims court and provide that he must select an arbitrator as the only way?"

Senator Francis: "No, not at all. Unless there is some change here that I do not understand. The way it came from the committee and the way it was upon my review of it, you only arbitrate if both parties agree. If both parties cannot even agree on the arbitrator you have a right to go to court. So that what you are talking about here is simply a provision, again, the interstitial function of the law, if you will, that provides that if they do not provide for another amount of money, this is the amount paid. And again they could agree to something different but they would have to all mutually agree, that is, both parties and the arbitrator would have to agree to something different. If there is no agreement and they have agreed to arbitrate, this is the price."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 12; excused, 1.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved that Senate Bill No. 2036 and Senate Bill No. 2518 be ordered held on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 29, 1973.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: “I would ask Senator Lewis what kind of information they are asking for. The bill has been on the calendar for several days, and I am just kind of curious, Senator.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Odegaard, we have all been setting bills down in trying to get the job done here. This is information that I requested. This would relate to your district as well as others in the state and I just wanted to be sure I understood the impact on the organizational structure of the total department as it would be reflected in the changes of these two bills and I would like to have another twenty-four hours unless you object, Senator.”

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried, Senate Bill No. 2036 and Senate Bill No. 2518 were ordered held on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 29, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Woody was withdrawn.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 25 after “reserved” and before the colon, insert: “and the public body shall give notice by certified mail within seven days of the final acceptance of said improvement or work to all persons, mechanics, subcontractors or materialmen of whom the public body previously has received written notification of performing work or supplying materials”.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senate Guess: "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, I cannot quite tell exactly what you are doing here and I would like to read this and then ask you a question. Say this public body is a school board that 'shall give notice by certified mail within seven days of the final acceptance,' I would suppose you mean after final acceptance?"

Senator Woody: "That is correct."

Senate Guess: "Okay. 'To all persons, mechanics, subcontractors or materialmen of whom the public body previously has received written notification of performing work or supplies.' Now are you changing the time in which a person files a lien?"

Senator Woody: "Absolutely not, and so that the Senate Journal would reflect this, it is not the legislative intent that the time factor for filing is neither expanded or limited by this amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Whetzel, Senate Bill No. 2667, with the pending amendment by Senator Woody, was ordered held for further consideration following Substitute Senate Bill No. 2085.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2104, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Odegaard and Atwood) (by Executive request):

Adopting the operating budget.
The Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2104.

MOTION

Senators Mardesich, Rasmussen and Bailey demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Talley who had previously been excused.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Whetzel, Clarke and Guess:

On page 11, section 45, line 9, after "126,393,057" insert:

"State School Equalization Fund Appropriation for mass transit assistance distribution ....................................................... $29,000,000".

Debate ensued.

Senator Whetzel demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Clarke, Metcalf, Washington, Scott, Connor, Murray, Jones, Wanamaker and Guess.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Lewis (Bob): "I do not intend to ask every time I do not understand something in the budget, but the language confuses me and I would like a clarification. The amendment says, 'State school equalization fund appropriation for mass transit assistance distribution, twenty-nine million dollars.' And I do not understand the relationship of the state school equalization fund appropriation to the mass transit and I wonder if Senator Whetzel would explain that."

Senator Whetzel: "Mr. President, what is involved here is a bill that passed, in the 1969 session, that provided that a certain portion of the motor vehicle excise tax funds would be reconstituted in effect as a local tax and that money in effect flowed through the state school equalization fund and a part of it goes out for mass transit assistance. Some of the motor vehicle excise tax money is pledged for the support of state school bonds and in order to protect that, this money for transit comes after the bonding money is taken care of so the bonds are not impaired or affected by this. It was because of that statutory earmarking already existent that this mass transit money came in at the end of that. The money that is left over after the state school equalization fund all goes into the general fund. So in effect the mass transit money is caught after the motor vehicle excise tax has provided money to pay off the school bonds and before it gets in the general fund there a portion of it is available for mass transit distribution."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Whetzel yield to another question? Senator Whetzel, following your argument then, it would appear that we could vote down this amendment and take twenty-nine million dollars and add it to the school equalization formula to reduce the need of special levies."

Senator Whetzel: "No, that is the thing that I think is deceptive about this, about not having this amendment. And in response to Senator Atwood's remarks that if you do not put this in here, there are twenty-nine million dollars that cannot be spent for any purpose whatsoever, according to the Attorney General's ruling because of the statute we passed that has in effect earmarked this for mass transit assistance. It really does not make much difference whether we say twelve million or twenty-nine million because that money cannot be spent for any other purpose if the necessary matching arrangement is made by the cities of the state for the mass transit funds. So I do not object to any negotiations that are going on and if Senator Durkan, Senator Atwood and the Governor have these negotiations and if they are able to resolve something equitably, then we can certainly take this out of the budget. What I am afraid of is that the time is flying by and that we will miss it and we may not reach agreement. Sometimes at the end of sessions things get a little snarled up and things that people thought they were going to do, do not get done, in which case there are twenty-nine million dollars that are needed by the cities of the state for transit assistance and that money will not be spent at all by anybody for any purpose whatsoever under the Attorney General's ruling. Now this is not a Metro-King County thing entirely. Of the twenty-nine million dollars, I think Metro's maximum amount is only ten million. Two-thirds of that goes to other parts of the state. Spokane, Tacoma, Yakima, Vancouver and Bellingham are all cities I know that have transit systems where they are interested and want to get some of this money. So what we are doing is depriving the cities of a chance to get any money at all if we do not pass this amendment or if the negotiations now are going on in which I have been vitally interested, having been a sponsor of the bill in 1969, been a sponsor of the local sales tax bill, it was not until yesterday I knew there were any negotiations going on whatsoever. So if those come to pass and if they do resolve the matter equitably, we can take this out. But otherwise I think we need it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator, I have been a sponsor of Metro and I am vitally interested in it and I am very inclined to vote with Senator Whetzel. However, I understand that there are negotiations. I would like to put on the record what the negotiations are so that when I vote with you, it will be understood that we are not voting against Metro."

Senator Durkan: "We met this morning at eight-thirty. We have met once before with them. Representative Bagnariol and Representative Shinpoch and I have met with Metro. We have pointed out to them that our position simply is that we want to re-enact the state law as it was when it passed the legislature in the first instance, and that we are willing to make an appropriation to them but we want to be assured that in the appropriation we make to them that in the event that there are more funds made available, such as federal funds which President Nixon now has indicated that he wants to use, that the federal funds which are made available will be an offset against the moneys which we are going to appropriate. I would disagree with Senator Whetzel in the sense that he says it cannot be used for anything else, because it will be. Our bill will permit it. But I can assure you that I am as interested in resolving the problem and have entered into it in good faith and I am sure the Governor has and I think the Metro people would tell you that if you asked them, that we are trying to work it out."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Whetzel, Clarke and Guess was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 12; nays, 36; excused, 1.

On page 1, section 2, line 20, strike "$7,649,290" and insert "$6,149,290".

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newschwander: "I have an amendment up there striking those three lines. If this amendment is adopted, is my amendment out of order?"

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your amendment will still be in order. The amendment to reduce comes first."

Durkan was adopted.

Senator Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Newschwander and Atwood:
On page 1, section 2, line 18, strike lines 18 through 20.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, I read sometime back a rather learned article in the paper pointing out that at the present time we had fifty-four thousand eight hundred and forty-three state employees. Does this particular budget contemplate the same number, less or more than at present?"

Senator Durkan: "The budget will be below the Governor's request and it will be be approximately in line with the 1971-73 appropriations that we made. So that means, in answer to your question, there will be less than those employed between 1971 and now."

Senator Woodall: "Two or three more questions. I noticed at that time it provided for some several assistants, thirty-eight assistants in the Governor's office as compared to ten that his predecessor used to get along with. How many assistants does this contemplate? The same number as thirty-eight or up or down from that?"

Senator Durkan: "It increases it by 2.5 man years."

Senator Woodall: "That is how many more employees?"

Senator Durkan: "That will be about two, Senator."

Senator Woodall: "So he has two more helpers than he had? And one or two more questions. The office of Attorney General. Does that contemplate the same number of attorneys or more?"

Senator Durkan: "The increase that the Attorney General has is about 10.5 man years, so there will be about six more attorneys for the Attorney General's office."

Senator Woodall: "Now you also mentioned that you were putting in this matter of legal aid for the poor. Would that contemplate some of those would assist the people on the landlord-tenant act that was passed the other day? Would they be eligible to help on that one?"

Senator Durkan: "I think that is probably a classic example of a question where a tenant probably needs assistance."

Senator Woodall: "Now if a poor landlord who did not net any more after taxes on his rentals than the welfare recipient who rented from him who applied, could he likewise get aid from this particular group?"

Senator Durkan: "I would hope that he could, and if he could not get it from them, he could see you and me, Senator."

Senator Metcalf demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Guess, Atwood, Clarke, Whetzel, Jones, Newschwander, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson and

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2104 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: “Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, in the boiler plate there is a provision, section 104, and I would like you to tell us exactly what the import of that first paragraph contains, beginning on line 847 through 850.”

Senator Durkan: “The purpose is that there was a question raised in the caucus that if this proviso was not put in and the appropriation was made to the independent elected officials that they could use the money to implement the Governor’s salary survey. And in order to say that the funds here were not to be used for that purpose, we put in the proviso that clearly states that these moneys which are appropriated in this bill will not be used to implement the survey.”

Senator Atwood: “Mr. President, will Senator Durkan further yield? Are there any salary increases contained in this bill in any way, shape or form?”

Senator Durkan: “No.”

Senator Atwood: “That includes the legislative branch also?”

Senator Durkan: “Yes, that includes the legislative branch.”
POIN OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Durkan further yield? Senator Durkan, I have not had a chance to compare these items. You mention things are cut or down. Are you talking about down from what was asked for or in comparison with what similar items received in the 1971 to 1973 biennium? How does this compare percentage-wise with comparable items in our present budget? If it is up, by what percent? If it is down, by what percent?"

Senator Durkan: "It is down from what the Governor requested. It would be about equal to the 1971-1973 appropriation and the increases, if any, would be the result of substantive legislation which this legislature has passed and added to these agencies."

Senator Woodall: "But in the various agency categories themselves, you say the amounts are relatively comparable to the present biennium?"

Senator Durkan: "To the 1971-1973 biennium that we appropriated. Not to that which occurred after we left the legislature and those man years were added. We took those man years out, by and large, from every agency. So we cut back the non-appropriated increase in man years. We have met about the 1971-1973 appropriation level."

POIN OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Durkan yield? On page 14, section 58, there is a salary increase for the state patrol which I am aware of. This is not in derogation of how you answered to my last question. I am curious if they have filed their salary schedule with the Ways and Means Committee or the Budget Committee for that amount of money. In the testimony we heard the basic salary, but I would hope that they would have filed a salary schedule with us."

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, I apologize. I should have mentioned that and I did not. That is the only item that is in there and they have, by letter, submitted to us a salary schedule which, incidentally, is now already five and one-half percent behind what they were trying to reach before we even put it in the bill. The counties have already passed a five and one-half percent increase."

POIN OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, you said we still had some work to do later on in regards to salaries and pensions. I did not hear any remarks made about any relief for special levies, other than I know we will reflect tax reform before us, but do you plan before we go home to have any property relief in any form?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, it is my hope that we will be able to present the amount of dollars that we have available to you and the members on this side of the aisle, make a determination of what salaries we are willing to pay, how much money, if any, we should appropriate to the unfunded indebtedness of the pension systems and whether we should increase the help, and least but not least, whether or not this legislature is prepared to make a special levy relief appropriation."

POIN OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, you mentioned that this bill will cost two hundred and thirty-three million. Is that correct? Is that the general fund money?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes."

On page 35, line 30, strike “(6,523,872)”.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Mr. President and members of the Senate, this is a rather unusual point to make at this time but, Senator Durkan, I understand the purpose of the amendment that we have on our desks. I believe that The Evergreen College has had a very stern message handed to it. The language that you are attempting to change in your two amendments, I believe, is unnecessary as apparently you believe it is necessary to change. However, I rise on a point of personal privilege to ask you to reconsider offering the amendments that you present because of your understanding of the problems of Evergreen and the efforts that they are making as a new school to move ahead. I ask this in the spirit of trying to do a job here that is worthwhile and I ask for your understanding and I request that you give consideration now, prior to the finishing of the reading of your amendments, to withdrawing them.”
The Secretary continued reading the amendment by Senator Durkan.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Murray yield to a question? You said they provide a service that no other school can or does. What is that service?”
Senator Murray: “I think they are appealing to some of our brightest students in the state, Senator, that are not going to college and not getting a four-year education at the other four-year schools in the state, because they have two structures. Class procedure, a different way of teaching. There is something at Evergreen that appeals, I feel, to some of the brightest brains that we have in this state, and it would be a mistake to close that school or to cut it down.”
The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 35, beginning on line 31, strike all the matter down through line 4 on page 36.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 49, after line 11, insert:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is hereby appropriated for capital improvement purposes to the Washington State Historical Society from the General Fund, the sum of $150,000 for the biennium ending June 30, 1975."
Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Senator Woody: "No, it does not, Senator."

Senator Guess: "In other words, a man cannot forget to file his lien in the early period or timely and then file a written notice later and have this to perfect that lien?"

Senator Woody: "You are correct, Senator Guess. If the would-be claimant does not file within the thirty day period of time provided by RCW 39.08.030 then he is out, even though he has given written notice prior thereto to the governing body as provided in the amendment."

On page 6, beginning on line 7, strike all of section 14 and renumber the remaining sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I wanted to ask Senator Washington a question if I may? Senator, I did not know just what was in section 14, and in looking at it, it applies to the implied consent?"
Senator Washington: "Yes, it does."
Senator Canfield: "And I am wondering, are you now trying to make it so that drinking drivers can keep on the highways?"
Senator Washington: "No, as you very well know, I would like very much to have this particular bill pass. There is a bill similar to it which is now in the Rules Committee. But as far as the rules of the road are concerned, I am much interested in passing the rules which relate to the conduct of drivers. I might explain that the most important thing, as far as the federal Highway Safety Administration is concerned, is to have the laws of all states the same, particularly as they relate to the movement of a vehicle from state to state, and the primary purpose of this bill is to make the laws uniform. Included in this bill, as drafted, are the sections relating to the implied consent. And in keeping with other agreements we had made that these bills would go through Judiciary rather than through the Transportation Committee, I am agreeing to the withdrawal of the amendment."
Senator Canfield: "I thought I understood your thinking on this, Senator. You are saying then that there is no attempt being made to open the highways to drinking drivers?"
Senator Washington: "Oh, no. None whatever. This would be an amendment to our present act. I think it would be a good amendment, but I do think we should keep with the general understanding we had that this type of bill would go through Judiciary."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment by Senators Washington and Woodall was adopted.
On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment by Senators Washington and Walgren was adopted:
On page 9, section 15, lines 8 and 17, after "vehicle" and before "which" insert "or other property".

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendments by Senators Washington and Walgren were adopted:
On page 14, section 21, subsection (3) (c), line 25, after "shown" and before the period insert": PROVIDED, That such traffic may, after stopping cautiously proceed to make a right turn from a one-way or two-way street into a two-way street or into a one-way street carrying traffic in the direction of the right turn, or a left turn from a one-way street or two-way street into a one-way street carrying traffic in the direction of the left turn; unless a sign posted by competent authority prohibits such movement; but vehicular traffic

On page 15, strike lines 5 through 32 and insert:

“Whenever special pedestrian-control signals exhibiting the words “Walk” or “Don’t Walk” are in place such signals shall indicate as follows:

(2) STEADY DON’T WALK or FLASHING DON’T WALK—No pedestrian shall start to cross the roadway in the direction of either such signal, but any pedestrian who has partially completed his crossing on the walk signal shall proceed to a sidewalk or safety island while the don’t walk signal is showing.

(3) The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign shall in obedience to such sign slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions and if required for safety to stop, shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering a marked crosswalk on the near side of the intersections or if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the roadway, and then after slowing or stopping, the driver shall yield the right of way to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another [highway] roadway so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard during the time such driver is moving across or within the intersection or junction of roadways: PROVIDED, That if such a driver is involved in a collision with a vehicle in the intersection or junction of roadways, after driving past a yield sign without stopping, such collision shall be deemed prima facie evidence of his failure to yield right of way.”

On page 19, section 30, strike lines 26 through 33 in their entirety, and on page 20, strike line 1 in its entirety and insert:

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 22, section 33, strike lines 23 through 25 and insert the following:

“(2) No stop need be made at any such crossing where a police officer or a traffic control signal directs traffic to proceed.”
(2) This section shall not apply at
1. Any railroad grade crossing at which traffic is controlled by a police officer or a duly authorized flagman;
2. Any railroad grade crossing at which traffic is regulated by a traffic-control signal;
3. Any railroad grade crossing protected by crossing gates or an alternately flashing light signal intended to give warning of the approach of a railroad train;

Schmitt at the bar of the House, and the President Pro Tempore requested the committee to escort them to seats on the rostrum.

President Pro Tempore Henry: “Somebody called my attention to the fact that we do things in reverse order. One of the members of the escort committee is Representative Moon, so we sent Moon to the astronauts this time. At this time it is my great pleasure to introduce to you Captain Eugene A. Cernan, the Commander of Apollo 17, who will in turn introduce our other guests.”

Captain Eugene A. Cernan: “Thank you, Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and distinguished leaders of the State of Washington and guests: We are not going to take up much of your time today because from what I have seen outside you must be very busy during this session. All I can do is wish you an awful lot of luck, and I’m glad it’s you and not me. We have had an opportunity to come back here to the state of Washington to see some people in Seattle, to see some people back at Boeing’s who contributed so very much to making our thirteen days as successful as it was. We want to thank you ladies and gentlemen for inviting us here to the state capitol, because indeed it is very sincerely an honor and a privilege to be able to talk to the people of the state. You have a very beautiful state, I might add, and one I would like to learn more about.

“Our primary purpose in touring around the country since our flight is to give people a feeling of identity with what we believe are their accomplishments, not ours. In going back and talking to the people who did so much work on the Saturn 5 booster that took us to the moon and who did so much work on our lunar rover, our dune buggy, we had the opportunity of sharing with them our experiences and reminding them, if you will, that there is a great deal in being proud of today, to be an American.

"We have heard many words about the accomplishments of the space program and the accomplishments of Apollo 17. We have heard words such as the 'legacy of the men of Apollo,' or the 'legacy of the people of Apollo.' It may be that, and it is a very proud legacy, but it is a legacy that I firmly believe belongs to a nation. And it is a legacy that I like to think of somewhat differently than you might have heard before, because I consider it a legacy of pride. Pride when an American a few years ago was the first man of the human race we call Mankind to set foot on another planet. An American who, in answer to the shocked and astonished world, during the events of Sputnik, gained more pride and more respect and more friends for this nation of ours by that one single step than any other event, certainly in my lifetime, and perhaps in the entire history of our nation.

"I look at it as a legacy of spirit. Spirit when that same American, Neil Armstrong, planted the American flag in the surface of the moon—not as a conquest, not as a colonial influence in terms of claiming a portion of real estate out in space for our country—but I look at that one, almost simple, effort of putting our flag on the surface of the moon as a symbol of the dedication and the courage and the effort and the self-sacrifice and the ambition of the 200 million people who really made that event possible. This is so very important because it is the same courage and the same self-sacrificing and the same dedication by so many people who have preceded us, that for 200 years have made this country the greatest nation that the world has ever seen.

"I consider the legacy of Apollo, the legacy of what I call emotion. Because although it has been called the greatest technological endeavor in the history of man, and this may very well be, I think of it, because of the human aspect of it, probably as the greatest human endeavor that mankind has ever seen. For the first time we have been able not to just dream and create in our minds what our world might look like from afar (from a quarter of a million miles away), but for the first time we have sent man out there—we have sent a human being.

"We were able to look back at our earth and see it as beautiful as it really is and see the roundness and the fulfillment of that earth. We were able to look from the snow-capped North Pole to the snow-topped mountains of the south. You can look across continents. You can look from shoreline to shoreline and from ocean to ocean, and as you watch the colors of the ocean change, you can see nighttime progress—literally progress across our world as it turns. And you look, for the strings that hold our world up, because there must be something.

"You look that far away from earth and see the blackest black man can ever create in his mind, and that is something I call the infinity of time and the infinity of space. I don't really understand what that is, or what it means, but I know it exists. The most important thing I can bring back to you from that legacy of emotion is that when I think back at the beauty and think back at the logic, and I look at the purposeness at which our earth moves deliberately through the infinity of time and the infinity of space—not tumbling, not moving aimlessly—I just really affirm my convictions that it is all too beautiful to have happened by accident. That there is somebody bigger than you, and bigger than me—regardless of how we individually decide to worship Him that put it all together—that it did not happen by accident. When you look back and consider the human being, and the miracle of its creation here on earth, you know that we have endless bounds of opportunity, certainly here on this earth, and in this nation, and also throughout our universe if we so desire to use the spirit and soul and curiosity for knowledge that God gave us.

"I look at Apollo as a legacy of responsibility. Responsibility as we look back at that earth to utilize the technology and the influence that we have learned in our travels to the moon, to preserve this earth, to make it a better place for you and for me and our children to live—so that we, as mankind, may take our places in this everlasting universe.

"I look at it as a legacy of challenge that we have toward the young people in this nation and throughout the world, but particularly in this country of ours; to remind them of their heritage—the traditions under which this country was formed and achieved greatness; to give them the stimulus and the pride toward this country that it so very righteously deserves; to remind them that freedom and opportunity had to be earned—it never was given to anybody.
"I look at the legacy of Apollo in terms of a legacy of responsibility. One that requires us to pursue some sort of peaceful cooperation with countries throughout the world. And now we have that opportunity, through a common goal of space—a common adventure and a common challenge that is there for all men. We have the opportunity to learn to communicate and talk with one's great adversaries. If we don't take advantage of that opportunity today, it may never come again.

"I think there is one other legacy of Apollo, that I am reminded of from time to time, and that is the legacy of challenge. When in a decade, in the past 10 or 12 years, this nation was torn apart by civil strife, social problems, and involved in a very unpopular war, no matter what your feelings were. It was a period in our history when we could have turned in upon ourselves, turned our backs on the future, turned our backs on challenge, felt sorry for ourselves, and perhaps might have begun the decay and the dying that happens to all men and to all nations when you take away from them goals—when you take away from them frontiers. All men and all nations need something that is difficult to achieve. Everybody needs something to stand on his tiptoes for—that is hard to reach, that is hard to attain. We three, the three of us standing here, went to the moon, but believe me (and I think this is probably the most important thought I can leave with you) we did not do it alone. We had a lot of help, from a lot of people with a great heritage and a great history. We stood on the shoulders of giants—the giants of a nation—shoulders that have been nurtured and grown to near maturity. We have now led the way in teaching this entire world of ours to reach just a little bit further than our grasp—reaching with perhaps the opportunity to learn something about our past, and most certainly something about our future. And how far we can reach, ladies and gentlemen, is limited simply by the complacency of man himself. And what we can attain and what the significance of the legacy I have referred to—the legacies of Apollo—really mean to the nation, and thus to the entire world, is simply up to us. I guess only history really can judge whether or not we have allowed the true legacy of Apollo, the true spirit of Apollo, to become a reality, and that we truly did come with peace and in hope for all mankind. I am very proud to have played a part, very proud to have represented you ladies and gentlemen and young people—you as Americans—in doing something that I believe can do nothing but ultimately make our lives and our nation greater and this world a far better place for all of us to live. I thank you very much."

"Thank you. Washington has sort of become a second home to me, or at least I hope it will, because my only sister now lives up north of Bremerton, so I hope I will have the opportunity of paying many return visits to this part of the country.

"I would like to introduce the second member of our team—one of my other two colleagues of whom I am very proud. Because of time I can't tell too many stories on him, but I'm going to tell one quick one. He likes to sleep. He has a hard time getting up in the mornings—he always has, all his life. We were concerned about that particular problem in space—you can't afford to have a guy sleeping on the job, particularly when you are going a quarter of a million miles and you are worried about a half second. We were concerned about it and asked his wife, Jan, before the flight—'You must have a problem, but Ron seems to get to work on time. How do you solve the problem?' She seemed very unconcerned. She said, 'Well, that's easy, I just give him a kiss in the morning.' After 21 days in quarantine before the flight, and 13 days going to and from the moon, I want to report to you now that Ron Evans is still a virgin.

"Very fondly and very proudly, in association with the naming of our space craft, America, because it was our way of paying tribute to the people of this nation, because of the way he piloted America—Ron Evans, Captain America."

Captain Ronald E. Evans, Apollo 17 command module pilot, described the take-off and the flight of Apollo 17 and told of some of his experiences, including:

Captain Evans: "Eleven minutes and thirteen seconds into the flight you are going 18,000 miles per hour, and you are floating around the earth. What a delightful feeling. It is really great. Of course, while you are up there you have to eat. I dearly love to eat up there—that's a lot of fun, too. The food is packaged in little plastic bags and it's freeze-dried, or dehydrated, and has to be reconstituted. So you have to squirt some water into it, and you squash it around and you end up with a bowl of potato soup, or tomato soup, or pudding, and very carefully you hold your bowl of soup here, but it's still in the plastic bag, so you have to take the scissors, you open the top and there's your bowl of soup. Then you reach around and find your spoon. Just a plain old tablespoon, you dip the tablespoon down in the soup—hold it straight and narrow and reach up and take a bite. After about a day and a half I decided 'wait a minute—in zero gravity it doesn't make any difference. There isn't any up or any down.' One of the delightful things is to take your soup, turn it upside down, reach around with your spoon, and just let it float in your mouth. But the one thing you can't do is take a drink of water out of a glass. If you put water in a glass it sticks to the side of the glass and if you try to take a drink, then it sticks to your nose.

"I would like to introduce the third member of our crew, Jack Schmitt. As you all know, he found some orange soil on the lunar surface. Now what he doesn't know is that I had a little bit of Tang left over, and I dumped it out every time we went over the landing site. Seriously, Jack is our geologist. He is a scientist—he is Harrison H. Schmitt, PhD. But I'll tell you, he ran the right side of the lunar module and he ran the right side of our command module, America. I want to introduce him now as Astronaut Jack Schmitt."

Lunar Module Pilot Schmitt: "Thank you very much. I have to pause for a drink of water once in a while. I hope you will forgive me. It's the great Washington state water, or should I say the great Olympia water. But also it's a sinus problem I picked up in Arizona. I hope you don't walk on Mr. Moon as much as we walked on the moon. (I don't know whether he needed that or not.) I'd like to propose some legislation that has to do with parking out front.

"More seriously, I probably should talk to you about the geology of the moon, but I think I will forego that and maybe send you a paper or two I hope to write. I think it is more important to pause and reflect on the history of Apollo—not only the history of science, and of man, that has been made in the last decade, but also maybe what the history of the future holds for us."

Dr. Schmitt discussed the opportunities of the future, and stated:

"There are now new resources in the broadest sense of that word, which have never been available to mankind for research, for manufacturing, and possibly, most importantly, for service to our fellow man. The question before the nation as I see it is whether or not we, of this generation, will continue to develop our technological capability to use these new resources—first in nearer space, and eventually among the planets.

"I also hope that we all, as leaders of states and of the nation, have the compassion and wisdom to survive the present, and the imagination and wisdom to see the future. Thank you very much."

Command Module Pilot Evans: "We are pleased and proud to present this picture to the House of Representatives, and if I may read the inscription: 'To the Washington State House of Representatives, the Honorable Leonard A. Sawyer, Speaker. Our sincere appreciation to you individually and collectively for the faith and support you gave to America's space program. May it usher in an era of peace and progress for all mankind. With all personal best wishes from the crew of Apollo 17.'"

Lunar Module Pilot Schmitt: "Our mission in Apollo 17 is represented in this picture of our launch from Cape Kennedy. This is the capsule—of course, it's 360 feet high, but it's a capsule. We would like to present this to the Washington State Senate and in lieu of the Lieutenant Governor, I would like to have the President Pro Tempore Mr. Henry, accept this. It reads: 'The work you accomplish here is the hope of today, which becomes the reality of tomorrow. With sincere personal best wishes and appreciation for your continued support of America's space program. The Crew of Apollo 17.'"

The Speaker of the House: "Gentlemen, on behalf of the House of Representatives, I am very pleased indeed to receive this. We will hang it in an appropriate place in the Speaker's office where it can be seen by everyone. We are very, very pleased, and I think that you do represent the hope of tomorrow. We are certainly glad to have you on board with us today. Thank you very much for all you have contributed to our country."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I am sure all of you in the space program are familiar with the term 'back-up man.' And as the back-up man for Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, it is my pleasure to accept this for the Senate and the people of the state of Washington. You gentlemen made it all sound so very easy. In fact it sounds much easier than arriving at an agreement on a budget or a cut-off date for the legislature. I will say this: If I could only take the time to recount the individual accomplishments of these three gentlemen, their deeds are legend. My fellow Jayhawker here from Kansas, Captain Evans, went from 7 months combat duty in Viet Nam as a Navy combat pilot directly into the space program. There are just lots of things I could tell you about these three—but the one thing I really can’t understand is how you could sleep. It must have been a very weird feeling, to know you are sitting on top of a tremendous piece of machinery, made of millions of component parts—all furnished by the lowest bidder.”

Captain Evans: “But some of those low bidders were from Washington state.”

President Pro Tempore Henry: “That makes it all very well. Would the honor guard please come forward and escort our guests from the Chamber, with our heart-felt thanks for being here, and our thanks for making it back safely.”

The committee escorted the Crew of Apollo 17 from the rostrum.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, line 3, after "may" strike the remainder of the paragraph and insert "at the discretion of the department of natural resources, (where not inconsistent with the use of the grant holder, other lessees or the department) be opened to access by groups or individuals desiring to use the right of way for nonmotorized recreational purposes: PROVIDED, That access shall be made available subject to such rules and regulations as shall be adopted by the department of natural resources."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:

Amend the committee amendment to page 2, section 1, line 3, as follows:

After "resources" on the last line of the amendment and before the period insert "PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the state of Washington shall not be liable to users of any access provided herein".

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Woody and Rasmussen to the committee amendment:
On line 10 of the committee amendment, as previously amended by Senator Woody, after "resources" and before the colon insert "and shall not be available in watershed areas which are set aside by a state or municipal corporation for the purpose of supplying potable fresh water".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, I apologize for being late. Does the purpose of your amendment preclude the building of access roads for fire prevention in watershed areas?"

Senator Woody: "No, the purpose of this bill is to open up use of access areas. Accesses that are owned by the state of Washington, for non-motorized hikers, horseback riders, etc., if the Department of Natural Resources permits it. By the amendment the Department of Natural Resources could not open up any access routes in watershed areas to hikers or horseback riders."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Bob): "Will Senator Atwood yield please? Just as a matter of clarification, the terminology 'available for duty'. Does that mean seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day?"

Senator Atwood: "No, it does not. Lot of them, when they are on vacation or things like that, they are not available for duty. Senator Woodall, in his amendment, felt it was too broad because an officer who was skiing and broke a leg would be able to get benefits under this the way it was originally drawn."

The motion by Senator Atwood carried and the amendment by Senator Woodall was adopted.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2659 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

COMMUNICATION FROM FORMER SENATOR JOHN STENDER

THE SENATE
STATE OF WASHINGTON
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

GENTLEMEN:

My resignation and sudden departure from the Senate left me with considerable feelings of regret. The regret was not over the fact that I was leaving but rather over the fact that I was leaving a very fine group of men with whom I had the privilege to work and serve our state.

It would have been great if I had had time to see each of you personally and thank you for the touching resolution passed and presented to me on Monday the 19th of March.

During my tenure in the Senate I have enjoyed and appreciated the many kindnesses extended to me by the members and the President. The Secretary and his most able staff did so much to make a hard job much more pleasant. The sergeant at arms and his very able assistants always were so very cooperative and helpful to say the least. To our gracious and hardworking hostesses I can say that your work is indeed very important and was always appreciated very much.

As I go about my new duties I will meet many new people some of whom probably will hold very responsible positions in industry and government. Even so, I shall always hold a fond remembrance of my ten plus years as a member of the Washington State Senate.

Sincerely,
(Signed) JOHN H. STENDER
Assistant Secretary of Labor (Designate).

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2085, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Washington, Guess and Henry):
Bringing Washington traffic laws into conformity with those of other states.
The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2085, as amended on Thursday, March 29, 1973.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having given prior notice, on motion of Senator Whetzel, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the following amendment by Senators Washington and Walgren was adopted:
On page 9, section 15, lines 8 and 17, after "vehicle" and before "which" insert "or other property".
The motion for reconsideration carried.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, on reconsideration the amendment by Senators Washington and Walgren was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 9, section 15, line 15, after "(3)" strike "The" and insert "Unless otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section the".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, I have been doing some checking on section 50 which reads, 'No person shall drive any vehicle upon a sidewalk or sidewalk area except upon a permanent or duly authorized temporary driveway'. Now my concern was whether or not that included a vehicle because as you know, in the city of Seattle and some other areas, you are allowed to ride a bicycle on the sidewalk. There is often no pedestrian traffic and it is the safest place for all concerned. I also note in another bill which we have on the calendar that a bicycle would fall under the definition of vehicle, apparently, in that bill. That is Substitute Senate Bill No. 2741, where it says that the RCW be amended to include all vehicles rather than just motor vehicles under the scope of chapter 46.70. In view of all that I am concerned. Can section 50 apply to bicycles or does it clearly apply only to motor vehicles?"

Senator Washington: "Senator Francis, RCW 47.04.100, subsection 42, clearly states, and this involves the definition of vehicles, 'every device capable of being moved upon a public highway and in and upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway excepting; and this is the important part, 'excepting devices moved by human or animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks'."

Senator Francis: "You are satisfied then, Senator Washington, that section 50 does not apply in such a way that it might exclude the use of bicycles on sidewalks?"

Senator Washington: "Definitely not."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, in section 15, line 33, page 8, it says, 'The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in the injury or death of any person shall immediately stop such vehicle,' and then forthwith do something else. Supposing that driver is the one that is killed. What happens to him?"

Senator Washington: "Obviously then he has no responsibility."

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 23 add a new section following section 35 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and chapter 46.61 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Public service signs" means signs located on school bus stop shelters, which signs:

1. Identify the donor, sponsor, or contributor of said shelters;
2. Contain safety slogans or messages, which shall occupy not less than sixty percent of the area of the sign;
3. Contain no other message;
4. Are located on school bus shelters which are authorized or approved by city, county, or state law, regulation, or ordinance, and at places approved by the city, county, or state agency controlling the highway involved; and
5. May not exceed thirty-two square feet in area. Not more than one sign on each shelter may face in any one direction."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: "I am raising a point of order as to the scope and object. I really think that we are enlarging this too broadly in this particular area and I would be very glad to assist you in trying to put it someplace else."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President, in ruling upon the point of order, does believe that this particular amendment goes a little far afield from the rules of the road and therefore enlarges the scope and object, and is not in order."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Just for the record, I think this is one area that Senator Walgren indicated that if nothing is done during this session a study could be done on this particular idea."

The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Twigg, Senator Peterson (Ted) was excused.

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2085 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 204, by Representatives Adams, Zimmerman, Perry, Parker and Kelley:

On page 4, section 1, line 4, strike the period and insert:

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "He ought to speak to the amendment. He can speak to the bill on final passage."
There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) was withdrawn.
On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed House Bill No. 204, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Day yield to a question, please? I think you said that the amendment tied this down to the bare bones of the clinical matters. Is that correct?"
Senator Day: "That is correct."
Senator Dore: "But I notice the term . . . ."
Senator Day: "If you will read the second amendment you will note that part of the bill includes pharmacy as something that is not allowed. Also drugs, medication or medical supplies are added as not allowed. The amendment struck out surgical or dental care, diagnosis, treatment or services, the supplying of clinical laboratory services of any kind or other services prescribed for medical diagnosis, care or treatment, and locked it right down to any kind of clinical laboratory or other services prescribed for medical, surgical or dental diagnosis."
Senator Dore: "Let me ask you a question. I have the new amendment here. It says, 'Any kind of clinical laboratory or other services prescribed for medical, surgical or dental diagnosis.' It looks like diagnosis is the key. Now, many times you do not get that from the results in the laboratory. You get it from the consultation of another doctor. My question to you is, if I am a general practitioner and refer a patient, for the purpose of getting a diagnosis, to another doctor, am I entitled to a referral fee from that doctor?"
Senator Day: "Not under this."
Senator Dore: "Why not? It says, 'Or other services to secure a diagnosis.'"
Senator Day: "Because it only has to do with the laboratory."
Senator Dore: "Where does it say that? This is the last amendment. I am trying to say your statement as to the prohibition is not necessarily true under my interpretation."
Senator Day: "Yes it is, because you are not reading the preceding language which very clearly says, 'Provided that ownership, ownership of a financial interest in any firm, corporation or association which furnishes any kind of clinical laboratory,' etc., not another physician that furnishes that. Clearly a physician would be precluded from a kickback."
Senator Dore: "Let us put it this way. Right now I am going to a doctor and he operates in a clinic. I will not name it but there are fourteen doctors in there. They have a corporation. And if I sent him to a doctor who is a member of that corporation under this language, as a lawyer I would say that I could get a referral fee from the other doctor."
Senator Day: "But the problem is, Senator, under the present law, within a clinic arrangement they can use a common X-ray facility or a common laboratory facility and what you are talking about is participating in the benefits of that facility and they certainly can do it right now.”

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 204, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the notice of reconsideration by Senator Day prevails and the motion for reconsideration will be before the Senate on the next working day.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: “I respectfully call your attention to Reed’s Rule No. 204 which says a bill cannot be reconsidered more than once and having failed to be reconsidered, it is dead.”

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “Your point is not well taken, Senator Greive.”
SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2583, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Matson and Peterson (Lowell)):
Revising motor vehicle over-weight fee schedules.
The substitute bill was read the second time in full on Thursday, March 29, 1973 and held for Friday, April 30, 1973.
On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, following line 27, insert:
“Identification plate to facilitate purchase of moving permits per year .......................................................... $15.00”.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 3, line 11, after “Sec. 3.” strike all the material down to and including the period on line 12 and insert:

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 7 of the title, before “and” insert “declaring an emergency”.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2583 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, this authorizes combinations of vehicles to be eighty-five feet in length?”
Senator Guess: “Yes, sir.”
Senator Rasmussen: “Fourteen feet in width, fourteen feet high. Now I presume that that is mobile homes?”
Senator Guess: “No, sir, there are many pieces of the dam that we are having trouble in transporting to build the third powerhouse of Grand Coulee and primarily this was for that.”
Senator Rasmussen: “I presume this will be repealed after one year?”
Senator Guess: “The dam will not be finished until sometime in 1978.”
Senator Rasmussen: “But this does not say just the dam.”
Senator Guess: “This is only a period of one year. That fee will enable them to buy a permit for that piece of equipment for a twelve-month period. This has nothing to do with a cut-off date of one year.”
Senator Rasmussen: “Under this authorization, will they be hauling mobile homes fourteen feet wide?”
Senator Guess: “Senator, they can haul any load that meets the specifications.”
Senator Rasmussen: “Will this also provide for what they call the truck-trailer trains, where they may haul two trailers behind a loaded truck that they are already doing in some states?”
Senator Guess: “I have not been into that so I cannot answer, but they are hauling fourteen feet wide trailers on the state highways under special permits.”
Senator Rasmussen: “I guess I am not making myself clear, Senator. Are they going to authorize eighty-five foot combination of vehicles plus fourteen feet in width?”
Senator Guess: “Senator, the language is that it is continuous operation of a combination of vehicles not to exceed eighty-five feet in length, fourteen feet in width and fourteen feet in height, and the permit for a year is one hundred and fifty dollars.”
REMARKS BY SENATOR LOWELL PETERSON

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Mr. President, I can understand Senator Rasmussen's concern and I think perhaps it should be noted in the Journal that I do not believe it was the legislative intent to provide what you call add-on trailers or piggyback units. I do not think we were trying to change that part of the statute. Perhaps the language is not clear, but I do not believe the intent was there to permit what you are referring to."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The only thing that has been offered in that field, Senator Rasmussen, is the study that was made on the truck and two-trailer combination, the triple rig, and they have not been authorized on the state highways and it is not the intent of this legislation that they be authorized. I think the legislative intent is clear."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2583 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for Saturday, March 31, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 2833 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Saturday, March 31, 1973.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 351, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Lysen, Pardini, Ellis, Goltz, Eng and Van Dyk):
Increasing and reconstituting the membership of the state pharmacy board.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 351, increasing and reconstituting the membership of the state pharmacy board (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 21, after "PROVIDED, That" strike all of the material down to and including "pharmacists" on line 24 and insert "subject to the availability of qualified candidates the governor shall appoint pharmacist members representative of the areas of practice and geographically representative of the state of Washington".

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Van Hollebeke, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Connor, Francis, Jones, Woody.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Day, Substitute House Bill No. 351, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Mr. President, will Senator Day yield to a question? It seems that in past sessions we have had this same bill asking for a lay member when they had a three-member board and for some reason or other it did not fly too far. In the original bill they asked for two lay members and increased the members to five, and that was not so sharp so you got a substitute House bill here now that changed back to one, three and a pharmacist that does not own a store. My inquiry is, who really has asked for this lay member to be a part of the board? Has it been the pharmacists or the druggists of the state, or is it labor, or is it politicians, or is it the buying public?"

Senator Day: "I think it is labor and some other consumer groups who feel that the lay member should be involved relative to some decisions which have to do with the actual consumer's position. Now as I pointed out, there are four pharmacists still on this board. The lay member will have nothing to do with the technical aspects of examination giving. The lay member will only have to do with those other seven of the nine subsections which are enumerated in section 2. In other words, inspection of pharmacies, investigation of violations of the provisions and regulations, and these types of things. Also to regulate the distribution of drugs, nostrums, and to assist the regularly constituted enforcement agencies and so forth. Now that is what the lay person will be involved in. I would say this, that when a lay person is involved in that type of action, he should be someone with some expertise. However, I believe there is quite a bit of latitude for the Governor's appointment."

Senator Newshwander: "Would you state that the old board of three members of pharmacists was a failure?"

Senator Day: "I did not say they were a failure. I say this merely expands the base of it."

Senator Newshwander: "Really, why change it then? From three to five?"

Senator Day: "I think the concern here is the cost of drugs and the cost of health care, and I feel that this is similar to the hospital rate review commission. Actually, it is not going all the way and allowing them to actually set hospital rates. What it does is allow them to review, and what this will do is to re-establish some confidence that has been lost by the public in all of health care costs, including dentistry, chiropractic, and everything else. Everything is costing more nowadays and I think the idea of this is, is to get a consumer's voice on there who will engender some confidence in the public as far as the actions of this board and possibly some of these other commissions."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 351, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 4.

Voting nay: Senators Guess, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Newshwander, Twigg, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—9.

Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Mardesich, Sellar—3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2741, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Guess, Washington and Henry):

Relating to the regulation of vehicle dealers.

The substitute bill was read the second time in full on Thursday, March 29, 1973 and held for Friday, March 30, 1973.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2741 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? On page 3, line 24, in the definition of a motor vehicle dealer it says, 'Shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in new and used motor vehicles.' Does this mean if I am to be a motor vehicle dealer I must deal in both new and used?"

Senator Guess: "Not necessarily, Senator Ridder. In talking with Mr. Nelson it was the legislative intent and the department's intent, that if a firm handled only used cars they would be covered by this section and if they did not and they sold only new cars, then they would be covered by it. It is an and/or situation."

Senator Ridder: "Fine, thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, I have been told that there is a provision in this bill that will allow dealers who sell a car on a Friday night, when you cannot get current plates, to issue a paper permit like they have in Oregon and California, provided that this permit would be for about seventy-two hours in duration?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, sir, the dealer will buy these in lots of ten. He will be able to use them for his patrons and this will stop this business of the temporary plate getting out of his control. As soon as the permanent plate can be obtained on the next working day, then that paper plate is obsolete."

Senator Woody: "And is that paper plate good in Oregon or any other state?"

Senator Guess: "For transit, it is supposed to be good for transit through the state and they will recognize it as they recognize the rest of the reciprocal arrangements between the two states."

ROLL CALL

It covers the same material."

Such was not the case. We did not have this bill before the Municipal Committee, during the interim and it is not a Municipal Committee request bill."

Implementing the laws on prevention of cruelty to animals.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Murray, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2554 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2554 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Murray, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2554 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Murray yield? Senator, in new section 2, line 25, there is the phrase 'summarily to relieve'. What does this mean?"
Senator Murray: "If they actually see an animal being tortured they can take action to prevent it."
Senator Donohue: "To do what? To relieve the...."
Senator Murray: "In general, it is probably specifically aimed at feeding or watering the animal."
Senator Donohue: "Oh, it pertains to care of the animal in that area?"
Senator Murray: "Care of the animal, that is correct."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Murray yield to a further question? Senator Murray, at the present time if the local Humane Society is enforcing the laws, it is by a man in uniform, so that the homeowner or any other individual who is around there would know that this is an official enforcement officer? What protections do we have in this bill which would say you would not have numerous organizations going around enforcing the humane laws and would not be distinguished as officers?"

Senator Murray: "In essence, under existing law, all current law enforcement officers are entitled to enforce the law of the state of Washington. In addition, the Humane Society authorized within a county also has the specific responsibility of enforcing the cruelty to animals laws that are currently the law of the state of Washington. Now under this bill the change that would be made is merely that instead of the first Humane Society authorized by the county, the county is now authorized to have one or more Humane Societies set up specifically for the enforcement of animal law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Murray further yield? Does this in any wise extend or change the definition of cruelty? In other words, now there are some people who think you should not brand animals and some people think you should not bulldoze and some people think you should not lasso. Now does this in any wise bring in any new definitions or extend anything that way?"

Senator Murray: "No, sir. The fifteen pages that we cut out of the original bill might have been interpreted that way, although even that was subject to question."

Senator Woodall: "Your first bill was fifteen pages?"
Senator Murray: "The first bill was fifteen pages. The substitute bill is only one."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I would like to ask Senator Murray a question. Senator, at the bottom of page 1, it says animals being restrained or detained, or 'if sick, injured or otherwise in pain.' Now if you read on in page 2 that means that the officer or any of these people can come right into your house. Is that correct?"

Senator Murray: "They could if they have reason to believe that there is an animal that is being mistreated, under the existing law of the state. That is correct."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2554 was ordered placed on the third reading calendar for Saturday, March 31, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-51

By Senator Durkan:

WHEREAS, Every year several million wild animals are killed for their fur by trappers; and

WHEREAS, Most of them die slowly and painfully, after having a leg or paw caught in a powerful steel jaw or leghold trap; and
WHEREAS, The number of nontarget animals caught is often as high as double a trapper's total usable catch and are merely discarded, having been tortured and killed for no reason; and
WHEREAS, Many trapped animals die from hunger and thirst, loss of blood, gangrene, infection and are subject for long periods to the mercy of predatory animals without the ability to flee or defend themselves; and
WHEREAS, The steel jaw trap is a cruel and brutal device containing sharp steel teeth that pierce through flesh and muscles and often break bones; and
WHEREAS, Alternative devices presently exist designed to trap or capture specific animals in a manner by which such animals are painlessly captured or instantaneously killed;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, that the interim committee on fisheries, game and game fish or the natural resources committee, whichever shall exist, is requested to conduct a study of animal trapping in the state of Washington including a survey of the methods and purposes for trapping animals, the types of traps, snares, and capturing devices utilized, and alternative traps and devices available to capture animals in a more selective and humane manner;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That for the purpose of securing necessary research, technical and supporting services, the committee shall be authorized to utilize the staff of state agencies which deal with wild animals subject to trapping;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall report to the legislature the results of its study, together with its recommendations and such drafts of legislation as it may deem necessary prior to the next regular session of the legislature.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 596, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardisich, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2454.
SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2454, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Bottiger and Grant):
Amending the law regarding employment agencies.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2454 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, you mentioned theaters. Does this act relate to booking agencies? In other words, we have bona fide booking agents. Does this in any way get into that realm where you buy acts?"
Senator Grant: "Well, that is a good question, Senator. I am not well acquainted with the type of arrangements that you are talking about, the booking agencies for theatrical employment. The act does add the theatrical employment agency to the definitions of employment agency, and it defines them as any person procuring employment for entertainments which do not include management, which incidentally involves the seeking of employment."
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, there being no objection, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2454 was returned to second reading.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Durkan yield? This would not cover docks on the saltwater side. It is mostly in lakes?"
Senator Durkan: "If you had a home on the saltwater side and you were going to build it for less than twenty-five hundred you could do it, if you had a beach home, but you still have to remember this does not take away the fact that you have to file with the Corps, you have to file and get permission from the Corps of Army Engineers because they have the jurisdiction over all navigable waters."
Senator Peterson (Ted): "The limitation of twenty-five hundred dollars was what kind of mystified me; on the saltwater side you could not begin to put a dock in for that price."
Senator Durkan: "That is right. You cannot build, that is right."
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2833, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that the introduction and first reading of Engrossed House Bill No. 791 be delayed until Sunday, April 1, 1973.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator, is this the report of the committee which was headed by Representative Chapin for the past couple of years or so?"
Senator Rasmussen: "I think that is correct."
Senator Canfield: "Mr. President and Senator Rasmussen, I understand that hearings were held all throughout the state. I attended a couple of them and it was my understanding when I attended these sessions that it was a state land use planning and not just for local government. Am I correct in that?"
Senator Rasmussen: "This is correct. It reads, 'Enacting the Washington land use act,' The motion was to delay rather than refer to Local Government and that is why I was a little confused what Senator Fleming had in mind."
Senator Fleming moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 791 be referred to the Committee on Local Government.
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Fleming failed on a rising vote and Engrossed House Bill No. 791 was referred to the Committee on State Government.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would like to speak on a point of personal privilege and the fact that I appreciate the opportunity to make that motion that was just made and I would hope in all sincerity that Senator Rasmussen, since this is a local and state government issue, that if and when he is through considering that measure, I would hope that he would refer it to the Committee on Local Government so we can take a look at it, too."

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 21, strike all of section 2.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: “Will Senator Canfield yield to a question? Senator Canfield, I am going to concur in your proposed amendment, but I would like to make one thing clear regarding the legislative intent. The intent of the second section that you are suggesting we remove really is to re-emphasize the fact that other normal police officers, law enforcement officers, are supposed to enforce existing law. Now the repeal of this section will not, in effect, make any change of law, whether we put it in or whether we take it out. Therefore, I am willing to go along. I want to make it clear, however, that by repealing this section we are not repealing existing law. It is not the legislative intent to repeal existing law.”
Senator Canfield: “Mr. President and gentlemen, I agree heartily with Senator Murray.”

Senator Murray: “In that case, Mr. President, I concur in the proposed amendment.”

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2554 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch: “Senator Mardesich, under point of personal privilege I was going to present a couple of certificates of special award tomorrow, but since we do not meet tomorrow I would like to do it today. Some of you members of the Senate have been told that we get our reward in heaven. Well, I want to give a couple of fellows in the Senate their reward on earth. I want to tell you that I am going to campaign for floor leader in the next year and when I take over I am going to reward a couple members of the Senate. And I do not know whether they thought I would do a lousy job as Chairman of the powerful Parks and Recreation Committee but whatever they thought, I hope I have not let them down.

“I would like to, as the Chairman of the powerful Parks and Recreation Committee, make an appointment of honorary vice chairman to two members of the Senate, the term to last fifty years, dated the first of April, 1973. And for his fine work in my behalf I would like to appoint to the powerful Committee on Parks and Recreation the Honorable Senator August B. Mardesich. And then to another member of the Senate, whom I think gave me a very fine reward, I have had three meetings, three condemnations and two bills, really been overworked, I kind of feel he had a part in this and I would like to present an honorary membership to another very fine Senator, Martin J. Durkan.”

TAKE MY YOKE UPON YOU.' 'LOVE BEareth ALL THINGS, believeth ALL THINGS, hopeth ALL THINGS, endureth ALL THINGS.'
"WE REALIZE, LORD, THAT WHEN THE PRESSURE OF LIFE GETS US DOWN, WE TEND TO HATE OUR WORK AND WISH WE COULD BE FREE OF IT ALTOGETHER. BUT YOU GIVE US A NEW ATTITUDE. IN YOUR PRESENCE AND IN JOYFUL SERVICE WE LOSE THE STRAIN. SO TOUCH THIS GROUP TODAY. BLESS THEM WITH YOUR OWN WONDERFUL PRESENCE AND PEACE. IN CHRIST’S NAME. AMEN."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, apparently we are prohibiting something because it is dangerous and makes the car more likely to be involved in accidents. What is dangerous about the present system, about what we are prohibiting here?"

Senator Guess: "Under the present conditions you find that a lot of high school boys are raising cars using non-approved materials, like unsafe shackles to raise these vehicles, and if we follow the procedure that we have got here of limiting it to six inches above the sprung height of the manufacturer, then this stays within safe ranges."

Senator Francis: "Well, Senator, what my question really is, what is dangerous about it? Now you have said they are unsafe. Does it make them harder to stop? Does it make it more difficult steering? What is the problem?"

Senator Guess: "Anytime that you go away from the geometrics of the suspension system as designed by the engineers who manufactured the automobile you run the risk of creating an unsafe and unstable vehicle. You also have problems in that you change the weight ratio, you change the weight distribution on the front axle and the back axle and the braking capacity of the car is reduced. And so if you limit it to the height that we have here, then it will be still not an unsafe automobile."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Does this apply to trucks or load vehicles of any kind? Does this apply to trucks such as pickups?"
TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, APRIL 2, 1973

Senator Guess: "This would apply to pickups and any motor vehicle. One of the prime things that the boys use is the Ranchero. They had one down here on the parking lot. I went out and looked at it and it was just meeting this specification and it was an acceptable raise."

Senator Matson: "What about light trucks that are built up to take additional load in length or weight?"

Senator Guess: "It does not have to do with that. It has to do with raising the thing above the sprung height of the standard automobile. It has nothing to do with weight or the length of it."

Senator Matson: "What I am asking is whether or not a light truck that is lifted with springs in order to carry either an extra heavy or an extra long load on the--near or behind the back axle would be affected by this bill."

Senator Guess: "Yes, sir."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Guess yield? Precisely on the point of Senator Matson, would this preclude the insertion of overload springs where the original manufacturer did not include overload springs?"

Senator Guess: "No, sir."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator, now I had a three-quarter ton pickup with a four-wheel drive and on this particular deal the bed was considerably higher than a normal car. Would that be unlawful then to own a four-wheel drive pickup?"

Senator Guess: "No sir, this does not have anything to do with that because the manufacturer manufactured the vehicle in that condition and therefore it would stay. I might say that the federal government is fixing to and should about the first of June issue a new standard on bumper heights which will control that, though."

Senator Canfield: "The second question now, a lot of vehicles pull trailers, travel trailers, and they put on overloads or they put on air cushions. Would that be unlawful under this bill?"

Senator Guess: "No sir, it would not."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2264 was held for further consideration later in the day.

MOTION

At 4:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, April 3, 1973.

IF THIS ZEST FOR LIFE HAS EVAPORATED FROM ANY WITHIN THESE WALLS, FORGIVE AND PUT IT BACK AGAIN. HELP US ALL TO WALK THROUGH THIS DAY KNOWING IT IS FILLED WITH ALL KINDS OF OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES, THAT IT IS FULL OF BEAUTY AND EXCITEMENT.

"GIVE THESE LEGISLATORS THE ABILITY THEY NEED TO FACE UP TO EVERY RESPONSIBILITY OF THIS EXTRA SESSION. GUIDE THEM, DEAR LORD, INTO YOUR PERFECT WILL. GIVE TO EACH ONE THIS DAY STRENGTH OF BODY AND CLARITY OF MIND. MAY DECISIONS COME SMOOTHLY AND GREAT GOOD BE ACCOMPLISHED. WE PRAY HUMBLY, AND WE PRAY SINCERELY, AND WE PRAY IN JESUS' NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 2293.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2293, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Rasmussen, Talley, Walgren—4.

SENATE BILL NO. 2293, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment to ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 782, on page 4, section 3, line 16 of the engrossed bill, and again asks the Senate to recede therefrom., and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Henry, the Senate refused to recede from the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 782, and asks the House for a conference thereon.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2454, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Bottiger and Grant):

Amending the law regarding employment agencies.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2454 was made a special order of business immediately following the noon recess today.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the following bills be held on the second reading calendar for Thursday, April 5, 1973: Senate Bills 2762, 2134, 2046, 2518, 2366 and Engrossed House Bill No. 736.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Mardesch yield? Senate Bill No. 2366 has to do with a redistricting. Now I understand over in my area Senator Matson had to move out into a tent away from his home and his wife is there and she wants to come home to her house and they are pitched out there and I cannot see why we should delay this, because this learned gentleman who drew the lines cut through his farm and he put all of his acreage in one district but he put his home up with Nat Washington. As his wife does not want to live in Nat Washington's district, for which fact I can never blame her, they had to pitch a tent. So all this bill says is that Mrs. Matson can move back to her home. Mrs. Day can get back into her home. So I do not see any reason, why do we have to delay that particular one, Senator Mardesch?"

Senator Mardesch: "The answer is maybe. The problem is that they are still trying to achieve some agreement with respect to that measure. Apparently we are trying to get some agreement, not only with respect to Senate members which apparently we have, but also with respect to all House members and apparently there is one who seems a little reluctant. If he is reluctant Thursday, then I am afraid we will just have to handle the matter."

The motion by Senator Mardesch carried and the bills as mentioned previously were ordered placed on the second reading calendar for Thursday, April 5, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesch, Senate Bill No. 2129 was ordered to hold its place on the third reading calendar for Thursday, April 5, 1973.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 741, by Representatives Chatalas, Curtis, Swayze, Charette, Wojahn and Pardini:
Requiring continuing education for CPA's.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 741 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed House Bill No. 741 was returned to second reading.
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 1, line 7 of both the printed and engrossed bills, after "act" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That this requirement may be waived by the board for good cause".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Mr. President, I would like to address a question to Senator Woodall, if he will yield. I would like to say that this is the first time in ten years that I have dared to stand up on the floor and even ask a question of Senator Woodall, but it is my understanding from what knowledge I have of the bill, and I will have to admit not being a barrister I am perhaps not familiar with all of the intricate aspects, but I understand that the CPA's really want this bill. They feel that the profession needs it and I think without mentioning names of income tax people who prepare our income tax forms, I employ a CPA. I am sure you probably do too, but if they think that this is right for their industry and they are proposing it, why do you feel that it is objectionable from the standpoint of an industry trying to clean up their own house?"

Senator Woodall: "Number one, of course, I do not know who they are when you say they. They, as we always hear--it is an agreed bill, but no one says who agreed to it. Two people who want it agreed and then that makes it an agreed bill. Or they say they want it.
How many is they? Who are they? I do not know how to answer your question on that. I can only say that if you entrust a CPA to make your income tax report for you, cannot you also entrust the same guy to keep up with the books? Can’t you entrust him to go back to school if he feels the need? Now we are not barring him from going back, but I am only objecting to mandating him because we will have to have the plumbers go for a course, we will have everybody going back for a special course of some kind and it is only because people feel that by so doing it they are running certain other people out. But when Doctor Day goes back for a refresher course at Palmer to get the latest twists and turns of his profession, he does it voluntarily and I will never mandate him to do it because if I did, I would be afraid to go upstairs.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: “I would like to ask Senator Grant to yield to a question. Senator Grant, why did you delete the language in subsection 8 of section 2? Why is that deleted in the bill? That is relative to citizenship. Was there some specific reason for that?”

Senator Grant: “I think you are probably asking the wrong person the question, Senator Day. I am not a sponsor of the measure. I am not on the Commerce Committee.”

Senator Day: “It is a House bill. Is there anyone here who can answer that question? Senator Greive, could you answer that question?”

Senator Greive: “Yes, what is the problem?”

Senator Day: “Subsection 8 of section 2 strikes out the requirement that in a period of six years that anyone who receives a certificate must acquire citizenship.”

Senator Greive: “Yes, Senator Atwood has just given me the answer. In the Committee it was explained that we did not feel that we could, under the Constitution, make such a requirement. At least that was the way it was explained to us.”

Senator Day: “You mean that the Constitution extends and protects non-citizens as well as citizens?”

Senator Greive: “Put it this way. There was very little discussion on this point but that was the explanation given. Now it could be that there is an error. We just listened to the testimony and that was the only other discussion made, that we had a constitutional problem on that, and the rest of it all revolved around the various things that have been discussed on the floor. It is a question of philosophy and I can see Senator Woodall’s position. I could be on that side, I could be on this side. I just chose to be on this side. I do not feel very strongly.”

Senator Atwood: “Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, it is unconstitutional. There was a case that came down from our Supreme Court on the requirement that whoever takes the Bar Association has to be a citizen and they threw out the requirement. You cannot make that a requirement as admission to a profession.”

Senator Day: “Senator Atwood, would that apply to all professions or what is the distinction?”

Senator Atwood: “I think it applies to all professions, that it cannot be a requirement.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Day yield? Would you also go for an amendment that keeps his place of learning in the state of Washington?”

Senator Day: “I would not see any objection to that. I would say that in answer to that that when Senator Atwood was discussing this a minute ago, that it would not be a matter of mandating that they go out of the state. I do not think that would hold up in court myself, but I am not a lawyer, but I would say that it would be that they would provide a place out of state for the tax write-off, Senator. I doubt seriously if the board would authorize such an educational symposium if it were the only one, outside of the state somewhere, but I do not think that would hurt the bill.”
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 741, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SENATE BILL NO. 2835, by Senators Rasmussen, Gardner and Peterson (Ted):

Authorizing an additional method for the disposition of certain property owned by municipal utilities.
REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2835, authorizing an additional method for the disposition of certain property owned by municipal utilities (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
In section 1, line 7, after "any" and before "lands" strike "unimproved".
In section 1, line 7 after "lands," and before "property" strike "unusable".
In section 1, line 11, after "resolution" and before "may" insert "and after a public hearing".

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Gardner, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Talley, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendments to section 1, line 7, were adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment to section 1, line 11.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator, what is the object of a public hearing if there are no strings attached to the hearing? They just hold a hearing but the decision is not contingent upon the hearing?"

Senator Rasmussen: "This is right, but the sale of this property is a little bit more difficult. You hold a public hearing to make the public aware of what is sold or going to be sold and then the Public Utility Board must pass a resolution saying that they are going to sell it and then it must go before the city council for approval. At each stage of the game it has a hearing."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Rasmussen, I was concerned that whether or not we are getting into a policy whereby a public body can dispose of anything they deem surplus without the people having any voice in it and you do not have to put it up for bid, you just have to hold a hearing. You do not have any bid. Now I know that you are an experienced administrator and I am wondering if the city of Tacoma, while you were mayor, could sell off unimproved land or what not without a bid, just on a hearing. Do you think that is good government or not?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Quite frequently you do sell land, surplus tax properties, and it comes before the city council and there everybody has a chance to appear. I think Senator Guess has an additional amendment that he is going to offer."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the committee amendment to section 1, line 11, was adopted.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, add a new section following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. In the event that the property contained in section one of this act is real property (including lands, improvements thereon, and any interests or estates) and such real property is to be sold, the following additional procedures shall be followed: A written notice particularly describing the property to be sold and the time and place of the sale shall be posted in three public places in the city where the sale is to take place, for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the date of the proposed sale. Further, there shall be notice of the proposed sale published in a display advertisement of no less than two column by two inch or one column by four inch size in any daily or weekly legal newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated. This advertisement shall appear in the legal notices section and the real estate classified section. This publication shall appear for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the proposed sale and the notice shall particularly describe the property to be sold and the time and place of the proposed sale: PROVIDED, That if there is no legal newspaper published in this county, then such notice shall be published in the legal newspaper published in this state nearest to the place of sale."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question please? Senator Guess, as I read this language, 'this publication shall appear for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the proposed sale and the notice shall particularly describe,' and so on, what do you mean by that? Does it have to be published every day or is it just published once every week for four weeks or what?"

Senator Guess: "Every week for four weeks."

Senator Walgren: "I do not think that language says that."

Senator Guess: "It says, 'for a period of not less than,'—'the advertisement shall appear in the legal notice section and the real estate classified section. Publication shall appear for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the proposed sale.' For a period of not less than one time in each of the four weeks. Would that solve the situation?"

Senator Walgren: "If that is the intent, I think some language like that has to correct it."

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:
On line 13 of the amendment, after "appear" and before "for" insert "weekly".
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Senate Bill No. 2835, as amended, together with the pending amendment and amendment to the amendment by Senator Guess, was ordered held at the end of today's second reading calendar.

Regulating collection agencies.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Greive, Substitute House Bill No. 589 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield? You say 'crime'. Is that any crime or is it crimes involving theft or something along with property? I am thinking of negligent homicide. Now the fact a person may have committed that particular offense does not necessarily render him objectionable to run a collection—as a matter of fact, some ex-cons might be very capable collectors."

Senator Greive: "Here is what it says, the exact provision is on page 2, line 28, 'has been convicted in any court of any felony involving forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, or conspiracy to defraud and is incarcerated for that offense or five years have not elapsed since the date of such conviction:', so what it probably means is that the person who has been in trouble may, but there are all kinds of other provisions in here that would mean that the board itself probably would refuse to accept the person as a collector. In other words, they probably would never get a license but it does mean that there may be some extenuating circumstances in one of these cases to where a person would be eligible after five years."

Senator Woodall: "One other question. Would a young attorney starting out have to have a five thousand dollar bank account to take a case to collect?"

Senator Greive: "No, this has provisions where you are collecting directly for a client or a person collecting themselves, they do not have a problem. This is only if they hold themselves out as an agency, and it merely provides that if they do not have a license and they do make a collection they cannot take a fee. So the lawyer, number one, would be exempt, and the person could make all of his own collections."

Senator Woodall: "Obviously a person can make his own, you are sure the young practicing attorney starting out is exempt?"

Senator Greive: "That is my understanding of the bill. That has not been asked me before. I would want to look through, but this is the way it was explained before the committee."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 4, after “Section 1.” strike the remainder of the bill and insert: “There is added to chapter 83.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When the estate consists of a trust with a life estate in the surviving spouse and a remainder and the surviving spouse has the power to invade the corpus of the trust and where payment of a tax has been deferred on the beneficial interest in a remainder pursuant to RCW 83.16.020, the surviving spouse shall receive a reduction of the deferred tax and a reduction of the bond or return of security filed to the extent the surviving spouse by exercise of the power to invade the corpus reduces the remainder. The surviving spouse may not file a claim for such reduction with the department more often than once each calendar year. The amount of the reduction shall be determined by applying to the value of the remainder interest at date of death a fraction the numerator of which is the present amount of the reduction of the remainder and denominator of which is the present amount of the remainder.”
In line 2 of the title before "RCW," strike "83.08" and insert "83.16".
Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegard, Vice Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Grant, Metcalf, Newschwander, Ridder, Scott.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Whetzel yield? Do I take it what you are saying is this, that if the money had gone to the nieces and nephews it would have been at a lower rate, but because the widow took it and used it, you want her to use it at the same rate that it would have been had it been willed to her in the first place instead of being willed to the nieces and nephews? Is that what you are saying?"

Senator Whetzel: "I think you are essentially correct. I think you said the nephews and nieces get it at a lower rate. They get it at a higher tax."

Senator Woodall: "A higher rate, yes."

Senator Whetzel: "That is right. So what we are doing, ending up, we are taxing the people who actually receive the money rather than under who might receive the money and who do not receive it. In this case no one pays, if this bill passes, if this amendment is adopted, the people who receive the money, if the widow receives it she pays her rate, and if some of it is left and is received by the nephews and nieces, they pay their rate."

Senator Woodall: "So because the widow took it away from the nieces and the nephews who would have paid higher taxes to the state, you want her to pay lower taxes to the state?"

Senator Whetzel: "That is right, pay the tax that she would have paid as if she had received it outright."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Whetzel yield to another question? Senator Whetzel, when you began your talk you said that this was a case of where a person was being taxed, a widow, for something she did not receive. There are several bills in the Judiciary now, or they may be in Ways and Means, where the widow is being taxed or the widower, for a pension that they may never live to receive."

Senator Whetzel: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would not this fit on that bill as an amendment?"

Senator Whetzel: "No, you know I am very much in favor of eliminating that problem, Senator. I have sponsored one of those bills. This is a little different situation and they are not quite the same. This is a case where the remainder person pays the tax on something that they never received. In effect it does not come out of the pockets of the nephews or nieces, it is a deduction from the estate. The widow is paying a higher rate on the assumption that one of the nephews or nieces will receive something, which they never do."

Senator Rasmussen: "I know, I am aware of this. My only question was if we could not attach that other bill onto this as an amendment."

Senator Whetzel: "I think it would be a good amendment, but I think the President would probably say it does slightly enlarge the scope and object."

Senator Rasmussen: "Let us hope the other bill comes out."
The motion by Senator Whetzel carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2614 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

SENATE BILL NO. 2293.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 123, by Representatives North (Lois) and Haussler:
Empowering mayor of first class city to appoint a designee to his seat on the police pension board.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 27, 1973.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 123, empowering mayor of first class city to appoint a designee to his seat on the police pension board (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 11 of the engrossed bill, being the House committee amendment, strike “who shall be an elected official of the city”.
On page 1, section 1, line 12 of the printed bill, being line 13 of the engrossed bill, after "council" and before "of each" insert "or mayor pro tem".

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Gardner, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Walgren, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 11, not be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Fleming yield? Senator, I noticed in the bill we just passed, in the title, and I have not read the bill in depth, but the title of the bill we just passed on firemen where it said 'authorizing mayors to designate a representative,' now this one said, 'empowering mayor of first class cities.' Now was the one broader than this one? If one authorizes mayors generally, should not the other one authorize mayors generally?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Woodall, on the other bill there was an amendment to make— the bill was originally drawn up for Seattle, and the amendment made it cover all first class cities. The other bill we just passed."

Senator Woodall: "Should it be limited to first or do second class have the same problem?"

Senator Fleming: "One of the things we felt, in the larger cities the mayors are quite busy and as I indicated before, the number of meetings that they held, say for instance in Seattle last year, and the mayor was only able to attend two meetings. It was the feeling that in the smaller cities the mayor probably would be in a better position to attend more of these meetings than he would in the larger cities. This is what the testimony was."

Senator Woodall: "Well, in the smaller cities he is probably more poorly compensated than he is in the larger ones and he might be more inclined to want to name someone. It would seem to me that you should have an amendment that broadens it and allows mayors of other cities to designate someone to sit in for them."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Woodall, the Association of Washington Cities and other people were there at the meeting and testified and they did not see any need to do this, and so that is one reason why we did not broaden it."

Senator Atwood: "In response to Senator Woodall's inquiry, the only ones that have the police pension boards are the first class cities, Senator. Those second and third class cities do not have the same type of pension board which this bill is amending. I served on a police pension board as a council member. The mayor very often does not have the time to attend but that is the reason it is not inclusive of all the second and third and fourth class cities."

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 11 was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 12 of the printed bill, being line 13 of the engrossed bill, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 123, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Joint Memorial No. 6, and the memorial passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Whetzel—1.

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 6, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

ENGROSSED HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 10, by Representatives Matthews, Charnley, Eng and Nelson (by Governor's Task Force on Aging request):

Requesting Congress to take action on health care services for the elderly.

The memorial was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 10 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator, in reading over this memorial, there are a number of whereases and they relate to health care for elderly persons, but when you get down to line 22 we are in a different ball game. Line 22 states that good health care is a basic right of all persons, and should be readily accessible to everyone. And then it further requests that the Congress develop a national comprehensive health system. Now I am concerned about that because I recall an article I read some time ago, a proposal by Senator Edward Kennedy, I believe, on a national comprehensive health system for all persons and a preliminary cost estimate was thirty billion dollars the first year. And so I am concerned about what this resolution means. Does it mean just more health concern for the elderly, or are we endorsing a national federally financed health care program from the cradle to the grave for all persons?"

Senator Day: "No, Senator, I think what it says is that it enumerates that health care is the right of all people and that certainly elderly people are a part of that all-encompassing group and that this is directed to elderly people. I would also correct the thirty million figure. It is probably thirty billion. Did you say thirty billion?"

Senator Canfield: "I intended to. I do not deal in millions. I intended to say thirty billion."

Senator Day: "Right. Well, I would agree with you that there are many holes in Senator Kennedy's program and we will try to plug those up before they pass such a thing. I would also say that although some type of additional health care program may be promulgated by the Congress that in my mind it will be very difficult to implement such a program until such time as we recognize some of the components of the present system. They are not going to knock all of the insurers in the United States out of business in one bill, in my opinion. I do not think that is going to happen. It would have a tremendous impact on employment within that insuring industry and I think that they are going to have to work out some kind of a compromise situation which allows people to participate in supplementing a program and which allows the present systems of payment to participate therein. But this particular memorial, as I understand it, directs itself strictly to the extension of additional services where needed to the elderly."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Day, I understand what you said but I want to direct your attention again to lines 22 and 23 stating that good health care is a basic right of all persons and should be readily accessible to everyone. Now that was the thrust of my question and I think when we talk about care of the elderly, why we are talking about a different thing, and I am not quite satisfied that we are not endorsing a very comprehensive health care program for everyone because that is what this says."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 10 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for Wednesday, April 4, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-60

WHEREAS, The Port of Longview is a vital and integral segment of the economy of the State of Washington; conducting some seventy million dollars of business each year; and

WHEREAS, The proposed elimination of Longview and Astoria as United States Customs Ports of entry for cargo vessels on the Columbia River would seriously restrict and decrease the level of business at these ports; and

WHEREAS, Such proposed status change would leave Portland, Oregon, as the sole port of entry for freighlers on the Columbia River; and

WHEREAS, Such action would confuse and discourage shippers wishing to dock at Longview; and

WHEREAS, There exists a substantial public investment in port facilities and equipment at Longview;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That such proposed change of status of Columbia River ports be firmly protested and opposed, and that the United States Commissioner of Customs be urged to reconsider such proposal.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Congressional Delegation from the State of Washington.

The memorial was read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), House Joint Memorial No. 14 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial was placed on final passage.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Lewis yield please? Senator Lewis, in committee this was discussed but I think for the Journal it should be clarified because the bill or the memorial does not specify that the intent of this resolution is devoted exclusively to the Brown farm and not the surrounding areas that are now in commercial use as other farm land and uses. Is this correct?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "That is absolutely correct, Senator Peterson. It is principally the area inside the ownership of the Game Department bounded by dikes which show on maps, and we are talking specifically and only about the Brown farm itself and the acquisition of that large area for preservation. And we are not describing or urging purchase of other lands at this time in the Nisqually Delta area."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Thank you, Senator."

(1) "Public official" means every person holding a position of public trust in or under an executive, legislative or judicial office of the state and includes judges of the superior court, the court of appeals, and justices of the supreme court, members of the legislature together with the secretary and sergeant at arms of the senate and the clerk and the sergeant at arms of the house of representatives, elective and appointive state officials and such employees of the supreme court, of the legislature, and of the state offices as are engaged in supervisory, policy making or policy enforcing work.

Senator Woodall moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Washington:

Amend line 9 of subsection (2) of the Washington amendment to page 1, section 1, line 4, as follows:

After "contain" strike the balance of the subsection and insert "at least five thousand registered voters as of the last general election in such subdivision".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Will Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, I do not think you have gotten to the point that is bothering me here. You have said it gets down to a reasonable number and I do not think you have given us any reason why this should be limited at all. If disclosure is good, why is it not good for all? Why is it good for somebody representing a local body of fifty thousand and not for somebody representing a small one?"

Senator Washington: "I think it is a matter when we are going into a newer area, into the area of appointed public officials, I see no need to expand it as far as Initiative 276 did. I think most of you feel that 276 went too far. Why are you going to perpetuate that same error when we are passing a law on the floor of this Senate that you are objecting to on the part of those who drafted 276? I was active in 276, but if I had drafted it myself and I recommended the population figure be substantially larger. I recommended a figure in this neighborhood. And I just feel that that would have been a better figure all along to have used, so when I put in a bill myself I followed what I felt would have been reasonable in the first place. I do not think we need to follow what was done in the initiative."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I still do not think you have given the reasoning. Why should we not have a disclosure on the part of any of them?"

Senator Washington: "I think possibly after we have gotten into the field you may find that you want to go that far. I personally feel that we have so many smaller districts that it just brings too many people under the bill. That is my reasoning. If you do not care for it, if you want more people to be under it, you will vote against it. That is my reasoning."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? What are the mechanics of how this population limitation works? Does it apply to the body you represent or your residency where you live?"

Senator Washington: "It would apply to . . . ."

Senator Dore: "In other words, if I lived in Moses Lake and became a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Washington, would I have to disclose? Would I be governed by the population of Moses Lake or governed by . . . .?"

Senator Washington: "You would be representing an agency of the state and, of course, the population of the state of Washington is substantially over that."

Senator Dore: "I read it several times. I just wanted to make sure. That is why I asked on the record. It is the body itself, the city, county or state and not the residency of the city, town or county where the party lives?"

Senator Washington: "No, certainly it is not tied to the residence of the official."

Debate ensued.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Rasmussen, Grant, Metcalf, Van Hollebeke, Knoblauch, Jones, Marsh and Atwood.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Woodall to the amendment by Senator Washington was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Donohue, Dore, Francis, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardeisich, Marsh, Mattingly, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall—31.

On page 1, section 2, line 21, strike "commission" and insert "secretary of state".

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after the semicolon strike all of the material down to and including "RCW" on line 2 and insert "amending section 2, chapter 150, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 106, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 42.21.020; and adding a new section to chapter 42.21 RCW".

HOUSE BILL NO. 119, by Representatives Flanagan, Moon, Bagnariol, Williams, Randall, Erickson, Hoggins and Van Dyk (by Permanent Property Tax Committee request):

Making the assessor's comparable sales data available to individuals protesting their property valuation.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 119, making the assessor's comparable sales data available to individuals protesting their property valuation (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 23, after "who" and before "lists" strike "either".
On page 1, section 1, line 24, after "appeal" and before "shall" strike "or is required to provide them by the assessor".

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Canfield, Dore, Lewis (Harry), Marsh, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Ridder.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 23 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 24 was adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 22, strike all of line 22 and insert "prior to the hearing on appeal or review".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, how would the property owner who is appealing become aware of these new comparables? Ordinarily they just receive a notice, maybe two months ahead of time that your date is set for some time in August or September and you will appear there and you have already filed your appeal with comparables that you know of at that time."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, this was the problem that we were faced with before the interim committee on property taxes. What we wrote, if you will read the whole bill, a taxpayer may ask the assessor, 'What comparables are you going to use on me at that hearing?' The bill says that the assessor has to give him the comparables. Now in our county the county assessor is doing this by administrative action but that is not true in all counties. The bill then says that if the assessor finds some new evidence that should be brought to the board of equalization, he can bring it but he has to give the taxpayer ten days' notice of this new list of comparables he might be using. Once the taxpayer has asked and received the list it cannot be changed on him unless the assessor gives him at least ten days' warning."

Senator Rasmussen: "This will be mailed to the property owner at his address then?"

Senator Bottiger: "If he has previously asked for a list of comparables, yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "You qualify that. Now if he has previously asked for a list of comparables, the average taxpayer probably does not know what a comparable is when he goes in and files his appeal."

Senator Bottiger: "I have to agree with you. Now rather than require the assessor to give every taxpayer a list of comparables, which would be extremely expensive, what we have said is that if the taxpayer asks for a list of comparables, he has to get them. They have to be given to him. If he appeals the assessor cannot use any other comparables than those given to the taxpayer and he cannot change it except on ten days' warning. Now that is what the bill does."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, does this make it easier for the taxpayer to comply with the requirements of having a review of his assessment?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Day, I think it does. It makes it fairer. I am not sure I can say easier, but it makes it more fair. I think it will also reduce the number of appeals. When the taxpayer who feels his assessment is too high goes to the assessor and gets the comparables and sees that other people are being taxed at the same rate and that the assessor used an intelligent method of arriving at the value of the property, I think many taxpayers will then be satisfied with the assessment. Probably be explained that they do not like it, but they agree that is the same that is happening to everybody else."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment by Senators Dore and Bottiger was adopted:
On page 2, section 1, line 3, after "proceedings" and before the period insert: ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board of equalization may waive the requirements contained in the preceding proviso or allow the assessor a continuance of reasonable duration to check the comparables furnished by the taxpayer".

On motion of Senator Bottiger, House Bill No. 119, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Regulating factory built commercial structures.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Ridder, House Bill No. 668 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, there is a factory-built unit producing right close to where I work in Spokane and I have been by there a number of times and he has had to add on two people on his payroll to keep up with the paper work. Now is there any way that we can get the message to the Department of Labor and Industries that we want paper work cut to a minimum?"

Senator Ridder: "I think your question to me here on the floor and this putting it in the record I think should send somewhat of a message on it, if we could get them to read it."

Senator Guess: "Thank you very much, Senator."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, does this bill carry a fiscal note with it?"
Senator Marsh: "No, it does not."
Senator Atwood: "Is there any fiscal impact at all?"
Senator Marsh: "None that I am aware of."

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wamanaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—43.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2186 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Wednesday, April 4, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2447, by Senators Bottiger and Twigg: Relating to lotteries and defining "valuable consideration".

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2447 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2447, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2447 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, the digest says that contests are held no more than three times per year and last no longer than five days per contest. Now could they possibly conduct one of these contests in five days?"

Senator Bottiger: "Those are individual particular contests and I think it pertains to the drawing period of time, Senator Day. The amendment was designed to prevent the Safeway store from having their cash and carry bingo. I am sure most of us do not want them to."

Senator Day: "What about the high school that is trying to raise some money for their championship team to go someplace and they want to raffle a car?"

Senator Bottiger: "The section, Senator, that Senator Woody has called to my attention, starts out, 'In the case of any business enterprise offering goods or services at retail, such contests are held on more than three days,' so this is directed at the Safeway store type thing."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Is this in fact, Senator, a lottery?"
Senator Bottiger: "Technically, yes. The Readers Digest, the Post Toasties contests are lotteries."
Senator Canfield: "Then what kind of a vote would it take to pass this body?"
Senator Bottiger: "I do not think it would take anything more than a simple majority. The people by constitutional amendment removed the lottery question and I think we are just going on a straight majority vote but maybe Senator Francis would know."
Senator Canfield: "My question was something else, Senator Bottiger."
Senator Francis: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, I think I should respond to Senator Canfield's concern. If you read the substitute bill which you have in front of you, you go down to line 15 on page 1 and it defines valuable consideration and what it is saying is that these items that are listed under sub 2, they are all items that do not constitute valuable consideration within the meaning of our statutes. So basically what this statute does is take these kinds of things out of the area of lotteries as far as our statutes are concerned. They are saying that listening to or watching a television or radio program, filling out a coupon or entry blank, etc., these things are not valuable consideration within the meaning of the kinds of things that we intend to regulate and control."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will this particular bill require a sixty percent vote to comply with SJR 5?"
The President: "Thank you, Senator Atwood."
Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I do not object to holding the bill over. I do not think it will take a sixty percent majority and this is what I was addressing my remarks to, but in any event if you want to move on to the next one while you are making your ruling, that is all right."
Senator Atwood: "I think the members of the body should know what the Chair rules because this does change the definition of lottery. Right now these are lotteries and SJR 5 permits lotteries with a sixty percent vote."
Senator Woodall: "I suggest we go ahead and run it. It may well carry by sixty percent and then the inquiry will be moot. If it does not, then of course we can, someone can change his vote, hold it over until tomorrow. What I was trying to ask awhile ago, I just do not want to hold up the right of Senator Bottiger and Senator Twigg to compete in that Post Toasties business."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President really believes it might be advisable to hold this measure over until tomorrow. There is considerable doubt, and the President, with all due respect to the members of the Senate who have designated this as a lottery bill, there is some question in his mind that it is a lottery bill, inasmuch as in, line 10 for instance, 'notwithstanding the fact that the skill of the contestants may also be a factor,' which would remove it from the area of a lottery. The President would like to study it further."
Senator Canfield: "I have no reason to slow action on the bill. I just wanted a clear definition of what we were doing and whether in fact we were voting on a lottery bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "I appreciate your bringing up the point, Senator Canfield. It is something that I had not thought of before, but I think your point is well taken and should be answered in a serious and responsible manner."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to request the President have his attorney frame a suitable letter to either the Attorney General and/or the Chairman of the Ethics Committee for a complete reading on the letter which has come out under the name of Ann Bradley, a very lovely girl but I do not know how much she knows about the law, concerning what 276 has everyone do. Now you received this and this is a real serious thing because as you know there are some very severe penalties in that particular infamous law. Now it says here as she quotes, 'Every legislator and every committee of the legislature shall file with the commission quarterly reports listing the names, addresses and salaries of all persons employed by the person or committee making a filing for the purpose of aiding in the preparation and enactment of legislation during the preceding quarter. The report shall be made in the form and the manner prescribed.' Now it could be very far reaching in its construction. It could be most vital and certainly this goes more to you in the majority than it does to us in the minority because you do have chairmen. But I think it does take in the matters, it may well take in the matters of caucus attorneys, caucus secretaries, do they help prepare when they type a bill, when they type an amendment? How about your own secretary? Does she help you in the preparation of legislation? Now I think this is very important and I would appreciate it if the President would have his attorney frame suitable questions based on this to the end that we get yes and no answers with definiteness as to exactly what the duties of all of us are under this particular act, because certainly none of us want to be cracked by some bounty hunter who decides under that particular bill that here is something someone should have done and someone neglected or failed to do, through a failure to understand this particular thing. And it is of particular interest to all committee chairmen. I do not know whether a particular caucus employee is an employee of only the caucus leader who put him on or is he an employee of every member of the caucus? And does every member of the caucus have to file that, yes, Joe Blow is the attorney employed by me as one member of the caucus? These are all important matters and I would like to request that hopefully you would request that your attorney prepare a detailed request and submit it for a clarification of this thing."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "We have already requested the Attorney General to get a clarification plus the fact we have asked the commission for clarification on what they mean, and I would appreciate Senator Woodall's request be answered by the Chair by his attorney also."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "I was reading that communication, Mr. President, and apparently you must list everyone who aids in the enactment of laws. Would that be your understanding, Mr. President, that you aid in the enactment of laws?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator Rasmussen."
REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "You have been a big aid to a lot of us many times in that respect, yes. Well, in that case, Mr. President, I must respectfully request you submit to me a list of all of your employees and the salaries, including your own salary because that is what that report requires under the aid to enactment of laws."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "I would like to comply with your request, Senator Rasmussen, but I am ashamed to."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "We are going to have to get another sheet of paper to add to that. But there is another part of it on the back that is of great concern. I did address a communication to the Governor asking him if there were other members of the Horse Racing Commission who had not been confirmed by the Senate. In his reply to me he indicated that they did not need confirmation and that is entirely aside from the point under consideration. Now apparently the Governor will have to list on his report all of those communications that he has received. Fortunately I have only sent him one so far. He has sent me one back so we are even. And I can list it on my report and he can list it on his report. But it can be a very cumbersome report and I just do not know how many employees would be required to read those reports and then trace down whether or not we were reporting accurately in that respect. Maybe you have some thoughts on that, Senator Woodall."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I can only say that both you and the Governor are going to be embarrassed when you list that. I will not say whether the embarrassment is similar to yours."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, maybe my question will be covered in Senator Atwood's but if we have bills drafted in the bill drafting room, are we supposed to go down there now and find out who the exact attorney was who drafted the bill and exactly who was it that prepared any amendments and things of that sort? Maybe who carried it up here and gave it to me?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I cannot add much to this intelligence but I am going to say one thing. If somebody brings a bill to me and I put it in the hopper, I just feel that I have done publicly what I can do as a public official or as a legislator and I do not think it is any of their damn business and I am not going to report it anyway."

MOTION

At 8:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease. The President called the Senate to order at 9:30 p.m. There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 124, by Senators Lewis (Harry) and Atwood:

Providing a schedule for the special session.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 124 was re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

FINAL PASSAGE OF ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 125

The President declared the question before the Senate to be final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125, as amended by the Free Conference Committee and adopted on Tuesday, April 3, 1973.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Is the Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125 still in the possession of the Senate?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Secretary has advised the President that the measure is still in the possession of the Senate, Senator Mardesich."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I should then like to move that the Senate take a roll call vote upon the final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125."

The President: "With the approval of the Senate, the question before the Senate is the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125."

Senator Woodall: "I do not understand. If it has passed once it is passed. Now how do you unpass it and re-pass it?"

Senator Mardesich: "Not being under rules, we could start anew but you raised the question last night as to whether or not it was necessary for a roll call."

Senator Woodall: "Anything less than a joint resolution does not require a roll call."

Senator Mardesich: "I agree with you on that, Senator Woodall, but the question was raised as to whether or not this may be considered an appropriating measure in view of the fact that it speaks of expenses. I do not feel that that is correct. I think that this is an authorizing measure rather than an appropriating measure, but to dispel that possibility I thought we would simply run it again."

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President, if we have any rules at all, the Chair declared a bill passed. We go into the next working day and that certainly takes it out of the scope of the body. No motions were made to hold it."

Senator Mardesich: "Except that the next motion, Senator Woodall, was the motion to adjourn by me, and therefore any motion subsequent to the action taken would be in order today since the first motion put was the motion to adjourn."

Senator Woodall: "I submit this is very new. The presiding officer declares a measure passed, you adjourn for the day, and then the following day when there has been no motions made to hold it, you want to re-vote on it."

Senator Mardesich: "What I am saying is that a motion for reconsideration would be in order now and that is, in effect, what this is. The motion was a motion to adjourn."

Senator Woodall: "You are moving to reconsider the vote by which something passed yesterday when you did not give a notice that you intended to?"

Senator Mardesich: "That is right."

Senator Woodall: "Well, that is a new Mardesich rule. It supersedes Reed and all the rest."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 39; nay, 6; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2518, by Senators Rasmussen, Woodall, Henry, Keefe and Jolly: Creating a department of institutions.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that Senate Bill No. 2518 be re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will the Senator yield to a question? Would the Senator give some explanation why this particular measure which was debated on the floor quite at length is now being taken off the calendar?"

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Woodall, the Governor has indicated that if we pass Senate Bill No. 2518 he will veto it and I think there is no sense in us wasting time in futile gestures."

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Mardesich was withdrawn.

Senate Bill No. 2518 was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Woodall, Senate Bill No. 2518 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Would Senator Woodall yield? Senator, there is nothing in this bill, as I read it, that is going to prevent furloughs from taking place. Is there language that will prevent these furloughs?"

Senator Woodall: "No, there is no language that per se prohibits furloughs. It does place it under someone, hopefully, who is skilled in knowledge of penology and takes the granting of furloughs and puts it under someone skilled in penology rather than someone who is skilled in being a do-gooder."

Senator Durkan: "I think the argument, Senator Woodall, lies with the appointing agency, not so much with who is going to be there. As I read the last two sections, and that is what deals with the question of a furlough and who is going to be eligible for it, the only thing that this bill does is it changes it from the Secretary to the Director. Now I am sure that Director Horowitz would probably be just as liberal, Senator, as is the present Secretary."

Senator Woodall: "You don't have to spoil my day. And I do not know that his name has been proposed."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2518, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Herr, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaelder, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel—31.

SENATE BILL NO. 2518, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

At 12:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.
AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.
Senators Mardesich, Bailey and Grant demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Henry and Keefe who were previously excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 109, by Senators Grant, Ridder, Mardesich, Bailey, Walgren, Bottiger and Jolly:
Amending Constitution to authorize revision in tax structure.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 109 on second reading. On Wednesday, April 4, 1973 the committee amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 109 were not adopted in the Committee of the Whole.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, beginning on line 8, strike the balance of the resolution and insert:
“Article VII, Section 14. (1) Income shall not be deemed property within the meaning of this Article, and a tax imposed upon or measured by income shall not be deemed a tax on property.
(2) The legislature shall have the power to impose a net income tax upon individuals and corporations.
(a) The highest rate of any net income tax imposed upon individuals shall not exceed eight percent and the highest rate of any net income tax imposed upon corporations shall not exceed twelve percent.
(b) The rate schedule for a net income tax imposed upon individuals shall be graduated and shall contain no less than six different rates, the difference between each of which shall be equal and shall be no less than one-half of one percent.
The rate limitations prescribed in subsections (a) and (b) above may be exceeded only if those sections of an act which change such limitations are enacted by a majority of at least two-thirds of the members of each of the two houses of the legislature and is referred to the people and approved by a majority vote thereon at a general election.
(c) From and after the initial adoption of a net income tax act by the legislature, no amendment to such act which either changes the definition of taxable income, a rate or rates, within the limitations set forth in (a) or (b) above, or an amount or amounts of taxable income in the rate schedule shall be valid unless such amendment is enacted by a majority of the legislature, and is subject to referendum petition.
(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, not later than twelve months after a state net income tax takes effect, and during the time such tax is in effect thereafter:
(a) The state shall guarantee full funding of a basic program of education, as defined by the legislature, for all school districts in accordance with an apportionment formula which, to the extent provided by Amendment XIV of the Constitution of the United States, will provide equality of educational opportunity within and between such districts.
(b) No sale or use tax shall be imposed on the consumption of the following articles as defined by the legislature: (i) food products for off-premises human consumption, and (ii) prescription drugs.
(c) The aggregate rate of any general retail sales or use tax as imposed by the state or local government may not exceed five and three-tenths percent unless those sections of an act which impose or authorize rates in excess of such limitations are enacted by a majority of at least two-thirds of the members of each of the two houses of the legislature and is referred to the people and approved by a majority vote thereon at a general election.
(d) No business and occupation tax shall be levied by the state at a rate greater than one-quarter of one percent, against that income of individuals or corporations which is subject to the net income tax.

(e) No school district in any year shall, for maintenance and operations purposes, impose a tax upon property pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of section 2, as now or hereafter amended, of this Article VII.

(i) Upon and after December 31, 1984, business inventories, as defined by law, shall be exempt from property taxes.

(g) In the case of property defined as a capital asset by the legislature and held by a taxpayer on the effective date of a state income tax act and disposed of after such effective date, such taxpayer shall be allowed to exclude from the computation of taxable income the amount of any gain attributable to a difference in value of property occurring between the time of acquisition by the taxpayer and the effective date of such act.

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1, subsection (a) of Article II of this Constitution, the state net income tax statute shall not be subject to change by the initiative process.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the legislature shall have the power:

(a) To provide for direct payments to an individual to the extent that (i) insufficient income tax liability exists for full application of an otherwise applicable credit, and (ii) such credit is granted for the purpose of providing direct or indirect relief from other state or local taxes.

(b) To coordinate the administration and collection of state income taxes with the income tax laws and procedures of the United States. The legislature may adopt by reference any federal statutes relating to federal income taxes, as existing at time of adoption and as amended from time to time.

(5) The legislature shall have the power to define terms used in this section to the extent necessary to facilitate the operation thereof.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the foregoing amendment shall be construed as a single amendment within the meaning of Article XXIII, Section 1 (Amendment 27) of this Constitution.

The legislature finds that the changes contained in the foregoing amendment constitute a single integrated plan for a balanced revision of the tax structure for state and local government. It is the intention of the legislature that in the event the foregoing amendment is held to be separate amendments, this joint resolution shall be void in its entirety and shall be of no further force and effect.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Senator Mardisich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 1, line 27 after "(c)" strike all of the material down to and including the period on page 2, line 6, and insert:

"In the first statute implementing this amendment the highest rate of the rate schedule for a net income tax imposed upon individuals shall not exceed six and one-half percent and the highest rate of the rate schedule for a net income tax imposed upon corporations shall not exceed ten percent. The rate limitations prescribed in this subsection may be exceeded only if those sections of an act which change such rates are enacted by a majority of the members of each of the two houses of the legislature and are referred to the people and approved by a majority vote thereon at a general election.

"(d) From and after the initial adoption of a net income tax act by the legislature, no amendment to such act which changes: (i) the definition of taxable income, (ii) a rate or rates, within the limitations set forth in (a), (b) or (c) above, or (iii) an amount or amounts of taxable income in the rate schedule, shall be valid unless such amendment is enacted by a majority of the members of each of the two houses of the legislature, and is subject to referendum petition."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, if I read this correctly, once this passes, there are no constitutional restrictions as to the total maximum amount that incomes can be taxed. A simple majority of both houses plus a simple majority of the electorate can extend the income tax to any limits they might want to extend it."

Senator Mardesich: "No, what this says is on page 1, subsection 2(a) and (b) and the language on lines 21 through 26, I am not touching that and that is an absolute because that is simply a restatement of the constitutional law as it is today. To raise the rates above eight and twelve percent, you would have to have a two-thirds majority in each house and absolute referendum to the people. This amendment that I make refers only to that portion between six and one-half and eight, the bill and the constitutional limit. So we still would have a two-thirds requirement in each house to go above these constitutional limits of eight and twelve percent."

Senator Woodall: "But a simple majority can jump from six and one-half to eight?"

Senator Mardesich: "A simple majority could jump from six and one-half to eight but it would be absolute referendum. The people will be allowed to vote on it before that can be put into effect."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, the last two lines of your amendment read 'that such amendment is enacted by a majority of the members of each of the two houses of the Legislature and is subject to referendum petition'. Now my question is this, all laws that we pass here are subject to referendum. This does not say that it shall go to the people for the people's vote. It just merely says it is subject to, if somebody wants to get a referendum petition out."

Senator Mardesich: "If you will look at the last sentence of the first paragraph it reads 'the rate limitations prescribed in this subsection,' then if you will read that and up above it refers to the six and one-half initial schedule with respect to individuals and the ten percent rate with respect to corporations. And then this rate limitation prescribed 'may be exceeded only if those sections of an act which would change such rates are enacted by a majority of the members of each of the two houses and are referred to the people, and approved by a majority vote thereon in a general election.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "That is for the first approval. The original approval of this measure."

Senator Mardesich: "That is for approval of any change which would increase the rates above six and one-half percent for individuals and ten percent for corporations. Then subsection (d) applies only to those changes which we might make within the internal subject matter of the bill as it provides, changes that do not necessarily go directly to the rates. As to those, you would still have simply the right to referendum."

Senator Rasmussen: "Those would not go to the people for a vote then?"

Senator Mardesich: "Those would not be absolute referendum. Those would be simply the right to referendum."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, it says that the rates are rates within the limitations set forth in (a), (b) or (c) above. If I am reading right the rate (a) is eight percent and then (b) is the schedule. Now you have said that you could change this by a majority vote. You could change (b) by a majority vote."

Senator Mardesich: "No, you have not because (d) if you will read it closely and paraphrasing by skipping parts says, 'no amendment to such act which changes a rate or rates within the limitations set forth in (a), (b) or (c) above.' So that when you say 'within the limitations set forth above,' then you have automatically excluded those possibilities."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Bob): "Will Senator Mardesich yield, please? Senator Mardesich, would you comment also on that portion in the second paragraph which says, 'the definition of taxable income,' and if I read this correctly the legislature by simple majority may or may not change the definition of taxable income. Would you comment on that please? That could be an area of concern to some, I think."

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct. That is the effect of this amendment. It merely leaves subsection (c) as it was before but merely adds as one of the exclusions the new section as I have added, new subsection (c). I have not changed the rest of it. So changes in definition of taxable income would be subject to a passage by a simple majority in each house and would be the subject of referendum, have to be instituted by the people."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was adopted.

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 1, line 16, after "percent:" insert "PROVIDED, That any adjustment of the rate of individual net income tax will be proportionately reflected in the rate of net income tax imposed on corporations and any adjustment of the rate of net income tax imposed on corporations will be proportionately reflected in the rate of net income tax imposed on individuals:"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Will Senator Canfield yield? For purposes of clarifying the record, Senator Canfield, I assume you mean by your amendment not that when the corporate tax is raised by a full percentage point and the individual rate would also have to be raised by a percentage point. You are speaking to the total amount of money raised, individuals vis-à-vis corporation. What I am driving at, if you raise the corporate rate a percent and the individual rate a percent the result might or might not be a balance or a retention of a balance."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Scott, I think that I would like to leave this to the tax experts. My thinking was that it would be a proportional increase, perhaps a ten percent corporate increase would be a ten percent personal increase. Something on that order. Now I know this bill provides for step increases and I do not think the bill necessarily means that you would have to adopt a specific step increase but I do believe that it could mean a percentage increase."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, I could not quite follow your remarks awhile ago by saying that this bill has shifted one hundred and fifty-six million dollars to, and I would suppose the individual citizen, and your rationale was that we would not want to adopt the amendment because we would not want to perpetuate the inequity. Is there some way of, is there machinery in mind to change this thing on a continuing basis so that the inequity is wiped out?"

Senator Durkan: "In answer, no, I do not think that there is any intent to all of a sudden go and put it back on corporations or any one like that. I think many of us who have sat here recognize at any given moment we do not need a constitutional amendment to pass a flat business and occupation tax or a flat corporation tax. We could always have gotten twenty-five votes for that. I think you are aware of that. But what it does do is, it eliminates the special levies on corporations, which is a very large part of the business community’s expense. It also reduces the business and occupation tax and it eliminates the inventory tax. When you do those three things and you still have to raise the additional revenue to run the state, then the only way you can do it and still limit the rates, which we have already done in the Constitution, is that the individual has to pick that up, and that is what we are doing. We are saying, in effect, that we think that the state as a whole will prosper by the fact of an income tax and the distribution of the taxing system. So we are willing to take that chance."

Senator Guess: "Now the bill establishes then the eight percent for the individual and the twelve percent for the corporation, or ten percent for the corporation. Then do we mean to march down through history in lock step or is there something in the back of somebody's mind that is going to change the relationship and change the balance? Does the amendment do anything to the rationale that we have adopted here? This is what I am trying to go for."

Senator Durkan: "No, I think the amendment is going to establish a means by which with the growth of the population in the state which will contribute to the growth of revenue and we hope which will encourage stronger business industry to come to the state. We will then begin to establish a continuous flow of revenue which will take the place of the business and occupation tax, if you will, and the inventory tax, and get rid of the special levies. So what we are really saying here today is that the members of this body are willing to take the chance that when this measure passes, along with the bill, that it is going to start producing enough revenue so that the corporate entities of this state are going to prosper too and therefore the people who work for them will. But nevertheless, let us understand clearly that there is a shift of the tax burden from the business entities onto the individual, but in order to get the revenue and in order to get participation from the business industry, we are willing to take that chance."

Senator Guess: "Then what would be the problem of tying the two rates together? One cannot go up without the other or one cannot go down without the other. This is one of those things, it seems to me, that would help sell the bill."

Senator Durkan: "Mainly because many of us have already taken the one step by which we have said we are prepared to go this far, of one hundred and thirty-eight million dollars shift. We are not prepared to say that we are going to continue that inequality in the future. There may be other times and other legislators who sit here who will want to increase the individual tax or who may want, because businesses have grown and prospered, that the business corporation should assume a larger burden. I see nothing wrong with that."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Canfield failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was adopted:

On page 1, line 24, after "legislature and" strike "is" and insert "are".

On motion of Senator Wetzel, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was adopted:

On page 2, line 25, after "legislature and" strike "is" and insert "are".

On motion of Senator Wetzel, the following amendment by Senators Wetzel and Bottiger to the amendment by Senator Grant was adopted:

On page 2, line 11, after "legislature" and before the period strike all material down through and including "districts" on line 15.

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Clarke and Jones to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 3, line 1 of the Grant amendment, strike the period and insert "in excess of an amount equal to fifteen percent of its previous year expenditures for maintenance and operation."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, my understanding from our conversation was that your intent in this is to permit a district to, in effect, raise moneys over and above the basic needs as defined by the legislature and that this would not be a substitution for the basic needs. Is that correct?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, that is quite correct and I can illustrate that by my previous illustration of assuming a thousand dollars per student. Now in the event that the state, from its five hundred, would come up to seven hundred and fifty dollars, why obviously if they wanted to maintain their present level of a thousand dollars, that is what the fifteen percent would go for. So the answer is very obviously that this would be something over and above the basic provided by the state. If they were getting the basic from the state and if they were content with that and that was the only program they wanted to offer, there would be utterly no excuse to ask the voters to contribute an additional amount because their program would be completely funded."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Whetzel yield? I hear different arguments. Some people say that if we put this on it better the chance of beating it and some say if you keep it off. I would like to find out which way better the chance of beating it and then I will know which way I want to vote."

Senator Whetzel: "Well, I would like to help you on that. I have mixed feelings myself, in terms of passing at the polls, although I am for Senate Joint Resolution No. 109."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Whetzel yield to a question? Did not you just offer an amendment striking the language on page 2, lines 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15? Would not that enable the legislature to have a formula recognizing disadvantaged children and things of that nature?"

Senator Whetzel: "We can certainly do that now, Senator Dore, but we have not done it. That is my point, that the formula ends up unfair to some districts. If we would revise our formula it could be handled fairly, we could get the money back. Now you and I are working on this to try to devise some formula for the allocation of some state money this biennium to the relief of special levies and there are a variety of ways of doing it and it has a lot of different impact on different districts. There is no one easy magic formula."

Senator Dore: "I just asked you to get your explanation in the journal because by voting for your amendment and striking that language I thought the legislature could now provide for a different formula, not equal in dollars, provide for additional dollars for those school districts such as Seattle that have disadvantaged children so we really do not need your amendment now allowing for levying additional special mills in these areas which presently are high, because we could pick that back up under...."

Senator Whetzel: "We could work out a formula that would guarantee each district that it got back from the income tax proceeds the money that it is now spending for education from special levies. Yes, we could do that. We could adopt such a formula."

Senator Dore: "Right now as a result of your first amendment which has been adopted?"

Senator Whetzel: "That is right."

Senator Dore: "So we do not need your second one?"

Senator Whetzel: "The fact that we have the power to adopt the formula that would do that is not the same thing as adopting the formula, and I think what Senator Clarke is trying to do is to see that there is some provision there for those districts that might not be back at the same level after the adoption of this constitutional amendment as they were before."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, I understand your amendment is to allow an amount equal to fifteen percent of the previous year's expenditures for M and O and on that basis I calculate that the second year you could be at thirty-two percent of the first year's previous M and O, and on the third year you would be at fifty-two percent. Would you care to comment on this?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, I think from a practical standpoint that you would not find this to be the fact because you have to have some realistic limitation. The easiest limitation is to provide just what I have done and that is fifteen percent of the previous year. Now actually, we find in these inflationary times that your budget is going up so that if you levy a tax which is fifteen percent of your previous year’s operating budget, you are not achieving fifteen percent of your current year’s operating budget. You are going to be behind at least by that inflationary amount.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “But, Senator Clarke, are you saying that my figures are incorrect? That at the third year, excluding inflationary aspects which of course we have lived with for a lot of years here, am I correct in my assumption that the accumulative effect of one hundred and fifteen percent the first year plus one hundred and fifteen percent of that, which my calculations would bring it to a hundred and thirty-two percent of the original year plus fifteen percent on one hundred and thirty-two percent would exceed one hundred and fifty percent of the original year’s levy? Are you saying that those figures are incorrect or do you agree with them?”

Senator Clarke: “I am saying that you may be mathematically correct, you are practically very incorrect.”

Further debate ensued.

Senators Matson, Canfield and Grant demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Clarke and Jones to the amendment by Senator Grant.

The motion by Senator Clarke failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore and Ridder to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 3, line 1, after the period insert a new subsection as follows:

“(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article I, section 11, of the Constitution, as amended, individuals sending their children to private schools shall be entitled to such tax credits relative to the cost of non-public education as the legislature shall authorize by law.”

Renumber the remaining subsections.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: “I raise the point of order that this amendment enlarges the scope and object of the resolution and also would bring into question, I have not had time to really thoroughly look into this, but Article I, section 11, is the one that provides that state moneys cannot be used for religious purposes, as I quickly read it and therefore by indirectness this would be an amendment to Article I, section 11, and would therefore not be proper under the very restrictive amendment provisions we have in the Constitution.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): “Would Senator Dore yield? Senator, it seems like every session something like this comes up and I sat here and I wondered as a member of Ways and Means, why this was not brought up in Ways and Means. I have had the inquiries from some of the Senators here that are not on Ways and Means, and why do you bring this important issue up now and put it up as what I call a threat. I would just like to have an answer why you did not follow the regular procedure in the Ways and Means Committee.”

Senator Dore: “When the constitutional amendment was voted out, I was not there. When I offered this the other day, I do not know if you were present or not, the constitutional amendment was not before us, only the bill, and I mentioned it to them that I would offer it on the floor because the constitutional amendment at that time was in the Rules Committee. It was not possible to offer it. But it was discussed and based on the same reasoning I gave on the floor of the Senate, I also gave in the committee the other day.”
RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling on the point of order as presented by Senator Washington, the President finds that the measure under consideration is a proposed constitutional amendment setting the limits and guidelines for a proposed income tax. The measure pertains not only to tax limits and ceilings, but prescribes what authority the legislature has to alter the original tax implementing bill. A proposal which permits the legislature to make certain exemptions or to give certain credits is properly part of the proposal under consideration. The point of order, therefore, is not well taken."

Senator Greive demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senators Dore and Ridder to the amendment by Senator Grant and the demand was sustained by Senators Day, Stortini, Dore, Van Hollebeke, Durkan, Mattingly, Scott, Knoblauch and Connor.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Talley moved that the amendment to the amendment be laid upon the table.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Van Hollebeke, Connor, Dore, Knoblauch, Metcalf, Grant, Marsh and Ridder.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talley carried and the amendment by Senators Dore and Ridder to the amendment by Senator Grant was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yees, 31; nays, 18.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Whetzel and Scott to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 2, line 11 before the period after "legislature" insert ": PROVIDED, That every school district shall receive no less than an amount equal to its per pupil expenditure for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1974, or the average of per pupil expenditures for three fiscal years prior to June 30, 1974, whichever is greater"

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senators Whetzel and Scott to the amendment by Senator Grant was withdrawn.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 3, line 4, after "property" on line 4, strike the rest of line 4 and before "held" on line 5, strike "legislature and".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "I wonder if Senator Gardner would yield? Is it your intention in leaving this language in to be restricted to the narrow definition of section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code for capital assets and exclude all those things that are considered section 1231 assets?"

Senator Gardner: "No, Senator Whetzel. That is not necessarily my intention. My intention is to stay with that definition for the time being, inasmuch as it is an accurate and factual definition, and continue to work as I have been and with others to try to expand upon it within the definition of capital assets as they relate to page 26, article 26 of the implementing statute."

Senator Whetzel: "Do not you share my concern that having used the words 'capital asset' here we may be restricting ourselves when we come to define it to things that would, by our state Supreme Court, have to be defined as capital assets? For example, do you think our Supreme Court would say that a building used in an industrial plant might or might not be considered a capital asset? They have got at least the precedent of the Internal Revenue Code that says that is not a capital asset, since that is property that is used in trade or business."

Senator Gardner: "Senator Whetzel, within the Internal Code we have sections other than 1221, such as 1231, 1235 and others which provide for exclusions based on the definitions which you just listed, even though it acknowledges that the facts that you just related are not capital assets. You still can take either depreciation deductions or other types of deductions. Now I think our job, in essence, is to go into the implementing statute and determine to the extent that we are able to do so how we want to make that definition within the state."

Senator Whetzel: "Suppose I modified my amendment to say on line 4, in the case of property defined by the legislature, would that solve the problem that I have here? We are not writing in our Constitution that it must be a capital asset, that our state Supreme Court must find it is a capital asset, and has a chance to look over our shoulder, so to speak, that if we write something in a statute saying it is a capital asset, suppose we come to the point, say inventory, that we decide that we want to exclude gain from inventory, and the Supreme Court says, 'Oh no, your hands are tied, legislature, because you said it must be a capital asset and obviously inventory is not a capital asset.' That is the kind of situation I think we lock ourselves into by using that language here in the Constitution, and I am completely sympathetic with your point that we have to define property and I am perfectly willing to do that, but do you think if I could amend my amendment to say, instead of striking out as a capital asset by the legislature, 'defined as a capital asset by the legislature' just strike 'as a capital asset' so we have 'property defined by the legislature.' That does give us the flexibility to write in the statutes a definition that will solve the problems of the taxpayers of the state."

Senator Gardner: "Senator Whetzel, you and I are in accord on what we are trying to do here, but conversely I read the language to the extent that it says, 'property defined as a capital asset by the legislature', which I would interpret in effect to mean that as a legislature we could determine what is or is not a capital asset, and on that basis I think at the moment I would be more comfortable leaving it the way it is."

Senator Whetzel: "I just think we are getting a problem because as I look under some of these things here under section 1231, if we wanted to include them, an unharvested crop, is that a capital asset? Is growing timber, is timber a capital asset? Is livestock, cattle and horses and other livestock, are they capital assets or are they not? It is going to take a state Supreme Court decision to decide. I just see the possibility of the legislature including something and the tax collector saying, 'Oh no, you have defined it but it is not a capital asset. It is an asset but not a capital asset.'"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Whetzel, as I commented when I originally began to speak in opposition to your amendment, several of us are working very hard to make the determination which you have asked here. Until, at least in my own instance and I guess the caucus to some extent is looking to me for advice on this, I am satisfied that we can switch the words 'capital assets' to some other language. I would recommend that we stay with the language which is currently in the constitutional amendment at this point in time and if in the course of working on this, which we will continue to do, we come up with a better definition, then we will work to have it changed as this gets over to the House."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Whetzel failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardelich, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Grant were adopted:

On page 1, line 12, after "corporations" and before the period insert "not subject to repeal pursuant to the provisions of section 1, subsection (a) of Article II of the Constitution".

On page 3, strike lines 11 through 13.
On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was adopted:

On page 4, line 2, strike "it is the intention of the legislature that in" and insert "In". The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wanamaker: "Will Senator Metcalf yield to a question? Senator Metcalf, I have heard you speak many times on this floor of eliminating, removing special levies on property. In your opinion, does line 32, page 2, do this?"

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Wanamaker, the intent of this constitutional amendment is clearly spelled out in lines 32 and 33 on page 2. That intent is that special school levies on property shall not be allowed while an income tax is in effect."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 10.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Matson, Mattingly, Newschwander, Twigg, Woodall – 10.

ENGROSSED SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 109, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2247, by Senators Mardesich, Grant, Bailey, Ridder, Bottiger and Walgren:

Revising state tax structure.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2247 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2247 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full. The bill was discussed in the Committee of the Whole on Wednesday, April 4, 1973.

Senator Jolly moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 14, section 6, line 22, strike "purebred" and on page 14, section 6, line 23, after "purposes" strike "where said animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association".

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, the amendment by Senator Jolly was ordered held for consideration at a later time.

MOTION

At 5:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 6:15 p.m.
EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 6:15 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senator Talley was excused.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2247, by Senators Mardesich, Grant, Bailey, Ridder, Bottiger and Walgren:

Revising state tax structure.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2247 on second reading.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, line 8, after "education" insert a period and strike the remainder of the section.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? By putting it after 'education' and striking 'for all school districts', does this mean to guarantee basic education through higher education?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, basic program of education."

Senator Clarke: "How far does that go?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I will yield to Senator Durkan."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, it is intended to mean the K-12 schools and that, in the code, in the RCW, basic education is spelled out as kindergarten through the twelfth grade. We could put in basic education, but it seems to me it is superfluous, the same as in the Constitution. If you wish we could put in 'basic education as defined by the legislature'."

Senator Clarke: "The reason for my asking the question was that first you did not strike 'school districts' and then you struck them, and I wondered what the significance of that was."

Senator Durkan: "The Constitution we have 'as defined by the legislature' and so I thought the language would be 'basic education' and probably Senator Rasmussen has said, 'basic education as defined by the legislature' would probably then dovetail in with the Constitution and we could add those words if you wish."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Whetzel and Scott:

On page 2, line 8 before the period after "education" insert ": PROVIDED, That every school district shall receive no less than an amount equal to its per pupil expenditure for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1974, or the average of per pupil expenditures for three fiscal years prior to June 30, 1974, whichever is greater."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Scott yield? Senator Scott, we gave the schools another mill in Substitute Senate Bill No. 2346 that passed the Senate. This does not take into account the way it reads is that no matter what the school's expenditure for per pupil guarantee is, that the state has to pick the whole thing up. It does not talk about just loss of special levies. It talks about everything. So you are taking the eight mills, excluding the eight mills and requiring the state to pick up the entire per pupil expenditure of funds by local school districts. That is what it says, isn't it?"
Senator Scott: “Senator Atwood, it does not say that they get any more money than they are getting now. They have to come up to the same amount of money.”

On motion of Senator Walgren, the amendment by Senators Whetzel and Scott was laid upon the table.

There being no objection, the amendment proposed by Senator Jolly to page 14 was withdrawn.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 26, line 27, after “1221” and before “of” insert “and 1231”, and after “Code” and before the period insert “: PROVIDED, That assets as defined in section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be given the same treatment accorded 1231 assets under federal tax regulations”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Whetzel failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 26, section 82A-3, line 26, after “(19) Person” and before the period insert “or Individual” and after “person” and before “shall” insert “or individual”.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 31, line 7, after “states” and before “in” insert “other than Washington state”.

On page 34, line 2, after “states” and before “in” insert “other than Washington state”.

On page 37, line 21, after “states” and before “in” insert “other than Washington state”.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 31, Section 82A-4, line 12, after “deducted” and before “in”, insert “except the tax imposed by RCW 82.04 (business and occupation tax)”.

On page 31, Section 82A-4, lines 13 through 17 strike all of subsection (c) and renumber the remaining lettered subdivisions of subsection (1) of the section consecutively.

On page 31, Section 82A-4, following line 20, insert: “(d) Add the amount of any deduction taken pursuant to section 613(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.”

Renumber the remaining lettered subdivisions of subsection (1) of the section consecutively.

On page 31, Section 82A-4, line 22, after “obligations,” strike the remainder of line 22 and through “obligations,” on line 23.

Vice President Pro Tempore Keeffe assumed the Chair.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 31, Section 82A-4, line 32, beginning with the comma following “Internal Revenue Code” strike all of the matter down to and including “tax purposes” before the period on page 32, line 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “Would Senator Gardner yield? Under the Internal Revenue Service on individuals the medical deduction is that which exceeds three percent of the adjusted gross income. At least I presume that is still the law. Are we changing that at all so that under this state income tax package the deduction would be that only which exceeds three percent of the adjusted gross income?”

Senator Gardner: “No, we are not, Senator Woody. We are not changing that at all. Those provisions still apply.”

Senator Woody: “Well then, by adopting your amendment not all of the medical bills of a family during a year would be deductible but only that which exceeded three percent. Is this correct?”

Senator Gardner: “I think I have the answer but give me the question again.”

Senator Woody: “Basically, what I want to know is, if a person has fifty dollars worth of medical bills in one year, the entire family, and they earn ten thousand dollars, the ten thousand dollars being adjusted gross income, obviously the fifty dollars does not equal three percent of their adjusted gross income. Under the Internal Revenue Code they could not deduct that fifty dollars. If we adopt your amendment, could that taxpayer in the state of Washington deduct that fifty dollars?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Woody, my understanding of this is that this does follow the federal guidelines and the amendment which I have proposed does not relate to your question at all. In other words, it makes no difference. By striking the language I have stricken it does not change what can be done by this subsection of the act."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WHETZEL

Senator Whetzel: "I disagree. I think Senator Woody has got the point that if you take this language out, unless you exceed three percent of your adjusted gross for federal tax purposes you cannot take it for state purposes. Now I do not know whether it was wise or not to allow more generously under the state income tax but that is what this proviso, I think, does that Senator Gardner is striking. If you strike it you are limited to the same degree as you are under the federal income tax. If you leave it in, it will be more generous."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "I would like to support that by looking at page 32, line 1. It says 'taken for'. That is not medical obligations incurred and paid for, that is taken for. So on your Internal Revenue Service form under the particular deduction section you can only apply and take deductions, the amount which exceeds three percent. I would rather have the entire language in so that people with perhaps amounts less than three percent or even those people with amounts more than three percent can include the entire amount of medical and hospital bills incurred that year, rather than just that which exceeds three percent."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, Senator Woody, you are correct but the language is superfluous if you accept the premise that the word 'allowable' refers back to the federal income tax and you have to itemize it and if you accept that, then the language is superfluous."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "It is correct. I am sorry. The term 'allowable' is a word of art in tax work and it is allowable under the Internal Revenue Code even though it is not, does not exceed three percent."

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 32, Section 82A-4, beginning with "(i) Deduct" in line 11, strike all of the matter down to and including the period after "uniforms" in line 16 and insert the following:

"(i) Deduct the amount paid by a taxpayer during the taxable year for necessary employee employment expenses, other than expenses deducted in arriving at adjusted gross income, including but not limited to union or professional association dues, fees to secure employment, work tools and required uniforms to the extent allowable as an itemized deduction under the Internal Revenue Code."

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 32, section 32A-4, line 16, after the period insert a new subsection as follows:

"(j) Deduct an amount equal to the itemized deductions allowable to the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes under section 163 (interest), 164 (taxes), 165 (losses), and 170 (contributions) of the Internal Revenue Code."

Reletter the remaining subsections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

President Cherberg assumed the Chair.
Senator Matson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Atwood, Bailey, Guess, Canfield, Twigg, Lewis (Bob), Wamamaker, Jones and Marsh.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator Lewis, the ordinary man starting out to buy a home, out of his first payment, say he is paying seventy-five dollars a month, about how much of that is actually interest and how much of it is going toward the principal when he first starts out?"

Senator Lewis (Bob): "It depends on the size of his down payment, of course, and the years, but quite a bit. A substantial amount. Is that good enough?"

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Whetzel was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Greive, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Mettingly, Metcalf, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sellar, Twigg, Wamamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 34, Section 82A-5, line 24, after subsection (g) add a new subsection (h) to read as follows:

"(h) Add in the case of a cooperative association patronage dividends to the extent deducted in computing federal taxable income."

Re-number the remaining subdivisions of subsection (l) consecutively.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 37, Section 82A-6, line 26, after "deducted" and before "in" insert "except the tax imposed by RCW 82.04 (business and occupation tax)".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Gardner yield? Does the professional and the personal service man who pays business and occupation tax to the cities get a deduction?"

Senator Gardner: "Yes, that was done earlier, Senator Atwood. Senator, the next three or four amendments are identical to ones we took earlier with regard to individuals in the situation which you mentioned. Now this is just going to do it for trusts in the state."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Gardner yield to a further question? Senator Gardner, does this bill preempt the cities' business and occupation tax?"

Senator Gardner: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well if not, why not? The reason I am asking, Senator Gardner, these look like the landlord-tenant amendments. They must have been drawn by an attorney."

Senator Gardner: "I hate to tell you this, but most of these were done by myself and that is why, when you get outside the area in which I have some knowledge, I really cannot answer your questions."

Senator Rasmussen: "The reason I asked that question is that this is a running fight between the cities, of course, and the rural areas, the counties that have no business and occupation tax, and there is always an argument about how much of their business is done in the city and how much is done outside the city in the case of a person who is located outside, and that is why the question arose in my mind that if you preempt the business and occupation tax, then you would equalize it."

Senator Gardner: "In answering your question, Senator Rasmussen, it is not a matter of preemption. This is a matter of whether or not you can take a deduction with regard to your tax as it relates to the business and occupation tax. If there is a city or local business and occupation tax on top of the state business and occupation tax, then that is susceptible to deductions under this statute."

Senator Rasmussen: "It will be a separate deduction?"

Senator Gardner: "It will be a business and occupation tax deduction for the same extent that you pay the tax you get the deduction."

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 37, Section 82A-6, lines 27 through 30 strike all of subdivision (c) of subsection (1) and renumber the remaining lettered subdivisions of subsection (1) of the section consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Senator Gardner, could you just give us a brief explanation?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Dore, this will be the same explanation I just gave a few minutes ago with regard to the amendment on page 31. The explanation is this, that we are not allowed by federal law to tax the income on U.S. obligations, but in the drafting of the bill we also took in the sale or exchange of those obligations. Now when you get into tax law, Senator Dore, you have to make the distinction between income and gain, income being interest in this matter and gain being the profit or loss from the sale or exchange of an obligation. What this amendment does is to clarify distinctly the fact that we cannot touch from a tax standpoint the income on a U.S. obligation but we can tax, and you can take as a deduction, any gain or loss from the sale or exchange of that obligation if you owned it."

Senator Dore: "You mean, this is the capital gains section here and you have to declare the gains and deduct the loss? Is that what you are trying to say?"

Senator Gardner: "That is correct. I am also saying at the same time, Senator Dore, that the state cannot tax the income."

Senator Dore: "They cannot? Why not?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Dore, let me go through it again. You have got to make the distinction between income and gain, which in normal terminology is the thing that we link as one and the same, but when you get into tax law, income refers to interest and gain refers to the profit or loss of the transaction. Now federal law says that we cannot tax income, or what you and I know as interest, on U.S. obligations. It also says that we can tax the gain from a sale, for example, Senator Dore, if you bought a bond at a discount and it matured at par and you had that gain, that is a taxable gain. And so we are saying in effect that is just base for the state."

Senator Dore: "Well, I thought in the first section of the bill we defined as net income all income from the tax exempt bonds and stocks under the federal system. That was the distinction. Now are we putting all these deductions back in again?"

Senator Gardner: "This is not a deduction. In fact, Senator Dore . . . ."

Senator Dore: "I am a tax lawyer. I understand. You do not have to explain."

Senator Gardner: "This is an instance where rather than a deduction, we are actually saying that the state can get a little more than it said originally."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gardner is just getting warmed up. I would like to ask him another question. Senator Gardner, I am like Senator Dore, I am a little bit confused. You mean that if I have all my money invested in U.S. notes or Fanny Mays or similar obligations, that then I will not have to pay income tax under this bill?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Rasmussen, if in fact you had money which you could have invested in U.S. obligations you would not have to pay a tax on the income, which you and I know as interest on those obligations. But suppose you bought those obligations at what we call a discount or you bought them at a premium and you waited until maturity on those obligations. The gain or the loss in that instance would be taxable."

Senator Rasmussen: "Taxable at full rates?"

Senator Gardner: "That is right. At the rate as it is taxable at the federal level."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, obviously if I have very much money I am going to get it in all U.S. government obligations then."

Senator Gardner: "Senator Rasmussen, if I were you, I would not do that."

Senator Rasmussen: "Being me, I won't, because I do not have that kind of money. But I can understand other people who would."

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Could I ask a question, Senator? Senator Gardner, you apparently passed an amendment earlier that changed the effect of the bill where income is not any income from stocks or bonds. Is that what you did earlier? Now you are making conforming amendments?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Dore, we are only talking in this particular instance about U.S. obligations which are basically bonds. It does not have anything to do with stocks."

Senator Dore: "In other words we had earlier in here that all these non-taxing municipal bonds would be taxed as income. That was changed and now you are conforming all these other sections to . . . ."

Senator Gardner: "Absolutely not. Senator Guess came in on his own and I am having even second thoughts about his amendment. But what his amendment did, Senator Dore, was this, that the law says, again, that we cannot tax the income from a U.S. obligation but between states on bonds and municipal bonds included, you can tax. So all Senator Guess said was, in effect, that if you owned a municipal bond from Alabama or New York or California we can tax that, but if you own a municipal bond of the state of Washington, any municipalities here, we cannot tax it. The purpose for Senator Guess doing that, I assume, is that he figures that if there is going to be money spent in the municipal bond area, he would like to encourage local money to be spent locally."

Senator Dore: "I have another question now. Is that a proper classification, state of Washington bonds should have special treatment under other municipal bonds?"

Senator Gardner: "That is correct, Senator Dore."

Senator Dore: "I know you can do that in bidding but I doubt whether you can do it under the Constitution, if it is a proper classification."

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 37, Section 82A-6, after line 30, insert the following:

"(c) Add the amount of deduction taken pursuant to section 613(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code."

Renumber the remaining lettered subdivisions of subsection (1) of the section consecutively.

On page 37, Section 82A-6, line 32, after "obligations," strike the remainder of line 32 and through "obligations," on line 33.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "I should have asked my question before that amendment was adopted. It still is not clear to me, Senator Gardner, if you are going to tax the gains why you should not give them credit for the losses. You do under the federal."

Senator Gardner: "They do get credit for the losses, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "It does not say that here."

Senator Gardner: "Senator Rasmussen, any time that you tax the gain, it is axiomatic that you get credit for the losses. What we are just saying in this amendment is, again, that we cannot touch the income but the gain or losses we can account for."
Senator Rasmussen: “It is taxable at full value and deductible at full value of the loss?”
Senator Gardner: “That is correct.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR GARDNER

Senator Gardner: “As long as I have the floor, Mr. President, I might add that in answer to Senator Dore’s question earlier that not all U.S. obligations are tax exempt and in fact all the current series of U.S. obligations are taxable, so this would just apply to those which on the federal basis are exempt.”

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 38, Section 82A-6, lines 10 through 14, strike all of subdivision (f) of subsection (1), and reletter the remaining subdivision.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: “I support this amendment. I just wanted to ask, I do not see that there is any exemption or standard deduction or anything allowed to a trust or an estate. Is it the intention that a trust or estate has no six hundred dollar or one hundred dollar or three hundred dollar exemption? This is piled on top of the fact that the trust is not allowed to deduct interest or taxes or any of the other things that they are allowed under the federal tax laws? Is that an oversight in this bill or did I misread somewhere that there is one? I just do not see it in here and it looks like we are . . . .”

Senator Gardner: “I think, Senator Whetzel, that it is in here, that the trusts and estates have the normal federal deductions and this section, in effect, is a deduction which is allowable at the federal level.”

Senator Whetzel: “Well, I disagree. It talks about taxable income. It does not talk about adjusted gross and it does not allow any deductions that are other than are listed here and those are not the normal deductions. It looks like not only are we not giving the trusts and estates any exemption in lieu of the personal exemption, we are also not giving them any of the other itemized deductions that they have under the federal tax law.”

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment was adopted.
Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 40, Section 82A-7, line 1, after “return.” add the following:
“On computing tax liability, an individual may average his income for the computation of his tax liability for any tax year subject to the conditions and as provided for in sections 1301 through 1305 of the Internal Revenue Code.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “Would Senator Gardner yield? My memory is not that good. I am not a tax lawyer, but is that a five year, under the federal code 1301 and 1305, that is a five year basis? Is that correct?”
Senator Gardner: “It is five years.”

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment was adopted.
Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 41, Section 82A-10, line 21, after “income” add a new section as follows:
“NEW SECTION. Sec. . . . . The tax rate on a corporation’s or financial institution’s net capital gain as defined in Section 1201 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be sixty percent of the tax imposed on corporations and financial institutions under sections 82A-8 and 82A-9.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Whetzel yield to a question? Senator Whetzel, in the case of the individual we are going to tax them on the full gain, are we not?”
Senator Whetzel: "I do not think so. I think that the one-half of the capital gain is deducted prior to computing the adjusted gross income so that the individual is taxed at fifty percent of the individual tax rate for his capital gains but the corporations are taxed at one hundred percent."

Senator Rasmussen: "That was not what I understood Senator Gardner to say."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator Whetzel was talking about only taxing the corporation on sixty percent of the capital gain. It is my understanding that you replied to a question of mine that we were taxing the individual on the full capital gain. Whatever he may have had that had capital gains on it. My concern is, are we treating the individuals in the same manner as we are treating the corporations or is Senator Whetzel's amendment that he is offering giving the corporation preferential treatment?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Rasmussen, I think you may be right. I am not going to vote for Senator Whetzel's amendment for a couple of reasons. One, I had the impression in reading through the act, the implementing statute, that the matter of capital gains of both corporations and individuals has been covered in the process of drafting the bill, and secondly, while a lot of my amendments were self-generated, I took every one of them and put them by the people to try to determine what the impact would be before I came out here. I just cannot determine what the impact of Senator Whetzel's amendment is. We have not had time to really have it looked at."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Senator Whetzel, would you yield? As I understand this section, this applies to tax imposed on financial institutions. It applies only to them, like banks?"

Senator Whetzel: "No, corporations and financial institutions, Senator Dore."

Senator Dore: "The tax rate on a corporation or a financial institution. You are reducing it to sixty percent of what item on line 21. You have 'Commencing January 1, 1985 [sic] and thereafter—Ten percent of taxable income.' Then you apply this to all those sections then.

Senator Whetzel: "That would be in the sections 82A-8 which is the tax imposed on corporations that are not financial institutions and 82A-9 are financial institutions. For other purposes in the act, the financial institutions were separated out, the tax rates are exactly the same, but I think they defined the incidents that are subject to tax a little differently for purposes."

Senator Dore: "Do you have any idea of the tax impact of this?"

Senator Whetzel: "No, I do not because I do not have any idea of what the amount of corporate and financial institutions capital gains will be. I offered it simply because I think its fairness is something that is again somewhat similar to the federal tax law and I think we should recognize that there is some difference in capital transactions from ordinary income transactions."

Senator Dore: "Senator Whetzel, as I understand it, without your amendment the corporation or financial institution is entitled to a capital gain, right?"

Senator Whetzel: "Are not. They pay tax at one hundred percent."

Senator Dore: "One hundred percent? I do not think that is correct?"

Senator Whetzel: "Well, if you can show me where that is treated separately, I would be happy to have that pointed out."

Senator Dore: "As I read your amendment it would be, right now you are entitled to a capital gain which is fifty percent and then you go down to sixty percent of that or on down to thirty percent."

Senator Whetzel: "No, the point here is that individuals are entitled to deduct from their adjusted gross income fifty percent of the gain. Corporations are not. Corporations have a separate tax rate in the Internal Revenue Code. And it may be that is why this was overlooked in this bill because we have talked about adjusted gross income for individuals.
That recognizes the fact that fifty percent of the capital gain is deducted. But when we talk about adjusted gross income for corporations they do not get the same deduction under the federal tax laws for capital gain. The only reason they have a separate treatment for capital gain is because there is a separate provision that sets forth a separate tax rate for capital gain. That is not in this bill. That is what my amendment endeavors to put in.”

Senator Dore: “In other words, Senator, there is no capital gain in any other section of the bill and your amendment is to give them, not fifty percent, but to give them sixty percent, in effect.”

Senator Whetzel: “That is my purpose.”

Senator Dore: “If the bill provides for it you are willing to come back and take this out?”

Senator Whetzel: “I certainly would if fifty percent of the capital gain is deducted elsewhere. I am not entirely familiar with this bill, but I have looked through it and I have had our caucus attorneys look through to see if there was anything that covered it and I have not found anything.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gardner: “Will Senator Dore yield? Senator Dore, would you open your bill to page 33, line 30, please? Will you read with me? Let us follow while I read. Okay, I am going to skip down to where it starts with ‘(1) “Taxable Income” in the case of a corporation including a financial institution means federal taxable income subject to the following provisions:’ Now under that definition, would not you assume that Senator Whetzel’s concern is covered by this language?”

Senator Dore: “Now turn the next page on line 11 and read the following: ‘(d) Add any capital loss carry-over which has been deducted in arriving at federal taxable income, and deduct the capital loss carry-over that would be deductible under the Internal Revenue Code if the Internal Revenue Code had become effective on January 1, 1974.’ This is highly technical, but it would indicate that you already have the capital gain there under this particular section. That is why I asked him. I have not analyzed this bill as much as I should have, but I would think that is the capital gains treatment for financial institutions and corporations. By adding this particular amendment on you are reducing the fifty, sixty percent down to thirty. Now maybe I am wrong, but that is the way it hits me off hand.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Dore yield? I am asking you now as a tax lawyer. This morning you were a constitutional lawyer. I am asking you now as a tax lawyer. Seriously, from discussion I have been hearing and I am in all seriousness, if a person sold real estate, you figure it one way for capital gains federally, does or does not your accountant figure it a different way for the purpose of paying state tax? Now, I would just like to know.”

Senator Dore: “As I understand it, you are giving them the same deductions, as I read this, and I do a little tax work, but as I read this section that Senator Gardner indicated and that page 34, line 11, it looks to me that you have the capital gain right in that section. By Senator Whetzel’s amendment he further liberalizes the capital gains by making it sixty percent of the fifty percent so sixty percent of fifty percent is thirty percent, because you already have that on the federal. That is my understanding. Now maybe I am wrong, Senator, I do not know.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Murray yield? Senator Murray, this is a serious question. We understand capital gains as it now is, if you hold under six is short term, over six is long and so forth. Now a piece of property under this law which you have held over six months, under federal you would only pay on half. Do you get the same in this or do you pay on a different schedule?”
Senator Murray: "I believe that Senator Whetzel is correct, and the reason for that is that the individual will handle a capital loss or a capital gain above adjusted gross income, but the corporation does not have that. So you end up where the taxable income of a corporation has no provision for making the capital gains variation. Taking it one step further, the clause that Senator Dore pointed to, where you add the capital loss carry-over back in and deduct the capital loss gain would indicate that they want to nullify any prior year capital gains or loss. So therefore, I am certain that the net effect of the bill as we now have it would be to negate any deduction for capital gain or any special privilege for capital gain and you will be paying at full hundred percent rate. Now Senator Whetzel's amendment would change the corporation to paying a rate at sixty percent and the individual will pay at fifty percent of the net effect of the gain and/or loss."

Senator Woodall: "Just one more question. You are saying then that Senator Whetzel's amendment, if adopted, would put us on the same as the federal basis. A person buys a piece of land, they hold it more than six months, they net two thousand dollars on it, one thousand goes in your taxable income column at the present time."

Senator Murray: "That is correct."
Senator Woodall: "Will that be the way it is if the Whetzel amendment is adopted?"
Senator Murray: "The Whetzel amendment will affect only the corporation and this would mean that the corporation would then pay on sixty percent of the gain rather than on one hundred percent."
Senator Woodall: "But the individual will still pay on one hundred?"
Senator Murray: "The individual will pay on fifty percent."
Senator Woodall: "So far as an individual is concerned, they will be the same as the federal?"
Senator Murray: "That is correct."
Senator Woodall: "If his amendment is adopted? Or right now?"
Senator Murray: "His amendment will not affect the individual."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment by Senator Whetzel was held for further consideration later today.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 41, Section 82A-10, line 26, after the period after "had been made" insert ": PROVIDED, That the tax rate on a subchapter S corporation shall be the highest rate imposed upon individuals under section 82A-7."

On page 41, Section 82A-10, line 29, after "tax year" strike all of the matter down to and including "dividend" before the period on line 30, and add "and may deduct any loss of the subchapter S corporation to the extent allowed by the taxpay on in computing his federal income tax liability for the tax year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would not there also be an advantage in having it handled the same way as under the federal tax, that it would be easier than to make the return?"

Senator Gardner: "The argument as it was given to me, Senator Clarke, and let me preface by saying that I rather had the thought that you have just expressed, was that by taxing it as a corporation you have an identifiable unit there available and the statement from that unit forthwith and that you can assess your tax at one time, whereas if you treat it as a partnership then you have got the problem of tracing down the individual income."

Senator Clarke: "But of course the same thing is being done on a federal level. I personally would prefer handling it identically with the federal level rather than having a differential. It seems to me that that would be the easiest way to do it."

Senator Gardner: "One final comment and then I think others should speak on it. I have proposed two alternatives here for that very reason, Senator Clarke, and I think the members of this body should take a look and make their own decisions. I am not making a recommendation."

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Under that alternative then, as I understand it, you would, the subchapter corporation would pay at a supposed six and one-half percent rate and then when those earnings were distributed to the stockholders of that corporation they would also pay again on that income at whatever rate they fell under."

Senator Gardner: "In subsection 2, Senator Matson, it says, 'a stockholder of a subchapter S corporation may deduct from his otherwise taxable income any income of a subchapter S corporation attributable to him for the tax year,' so if he pays tax on the income then he can deduct it for his own personal taxes."

Senator Matson: "You say then the answer to my question is no?"

Senator Gardner: "That is the way I read it, Senator Matson. That would also certainly be my intent. I do not think he should get nicked twice."

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 42, Section 82A-11, line 11, after "only" and before "income" strike "when business" and insert "non-business".

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 61, Section 82A-42, line 25, after "assessment" and before the semicolon strike "may be made at any time" and insert "may be made at any time within two years of the date on which the department first learned of the correction".

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Gardner was adopted:

Amend line 3 of the Gardner amendment to page 61, line 25, as follows:
After "within" strike "two" and insert "one".

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 66, Section 82A-54, on lines 4 and 5, strike "It is the intent of this section that the" and insert "The".

On page 66, Section 82A-54, line 5, after "review" and before "provided" insert "of the Board of Tax Appeals decision."

On page 66, Section 82A-56, line 32, strike "elected" and add "held".

On page 67, Sections 82A-57, line 15, beginning with "(4)" strike all of "(4)" and all of "(5)" ending with "employees;" on line 21 and renumber remaining subsections consecutively.

On page 68, Section 82A-57, line 4, after "subsections" strike "(4), (5), ".

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Donohue, Atwood, Durkan and Sandison:

On page 69, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. There is hereby appropriated to the secretary of state from the general fund the sum of one hundred ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, to transmit by mail, with postage fully prepaid, the full text of this 1973 act to each individual place of residence in the state and he shall make such additional distribution as he shall deem necessary to reasonably assure that each voter will have an opportunity to study the act at least six weeks prior to the next general election: PROVIDED, That Senate Joint Resolution No. 109, or a similar constitutional amendment, is to be submitted to the people."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "I raise a point of order that if we want to do this I think we ought to do it in a separate bill because my recollection was that when you have an appropriations bill and a tax bill in the same chapter, it is unconstitutional. The Supreme Court ruled this in 1951 and we had to come back into special session in August of that year and reenact the appropriation bill and the tax bill separately. I raise that point of order at this time."
REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I think the case that he is talking about, of course, was when they threw a brand new tax bill and the entire appropriation act were merged together. This, of course, is not an appropriation act. It merely provides for implementation of, as I listened to the Senator, an implementation of this particular measure. So it is not any other new or foreign matter."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesch: "I should like to move an amendment to the amendment. Beginning with line 1, strike the words, 'There is hereby appropriated to' and insert in lieu thereof the following language: 'In lieu of the printing and advertising otherwise required by law'. Then on line 2, strike the words, 'from the general fund the sum of one hundred ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as,' leave the word 'shall' in, strike the words 'be necessary to' on the same line so it would then read: 'In lieu of the printing and advertising otherwise required by law, the Secretary of State shall transmit by mail with postage fully prepaid' and so on."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesch yield to a question? Senator Mardesch, you have me thoroughly confused. I did not know that it was necessary that we advertise any of the laws we pass. A constitutional amendment is a different matter. I would appreciate it if you change your amendment to the amendment to say that the money would be appropriated to the Department of Revenue to explain to the taxpayers after the bill is passed and only if the bill is passed, how to fill out the forms."

Senator Mardesch: "Mr. President, then in view of the fact this is an act rather than a constitutional amendment and does not require any amending, I would change that language when I strike the words on the first line, 'There is hereby appropriated to the', I would insert in there, 'In lieu of any other printing and advertising the Secretary of State shall transmit by mail' and so on. The rest would stay the same. We will have to make an appropriation then in the appropriations bill. If you run into conflict as to whether or not you can appropriate and tax at the same time then we would have to put the appropriation in a separate bill, and the supplemental which we have yet to pass."

There being no objection, the amendment by Senators Donohue, Atwood, Durkan and Sandison was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 8, after "education" and before the period insert "as defined by the legislature".

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Whetzel to page 41, line 21 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2247 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

I was willing to put in a hundred dollars myself and start it, but then I had my secretary call the Acme Poultry Company. I know this is of interest to most in Seattle. They were down to a balance of six hundred dollars and somebody walked in here just ten minutes ago and wrote out a check for six hundred dollars so the poultry of one hundred and thirty thousand pounds for the Neighbors in Need will be on its way to Seattle directly."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Francis yield? This question of contingency fee or getting a part of the action in addition, is this true that you get a part of the increase that is gained plus reasonable fees?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Ridder, the fee between the client and the attorney, and I spelled this out on the floor a year ago, but the fee between the client and the attorney is a matter of a relationship between them and that would depend on how they had contracted. The award of the reasonable attorney's fee is set forth in this bill and it is not set forth as a contingent fee. However, you do, I hope, recognize that this is not one where the attorney is guaranteed payment by his client in most cases. It is only if he wins, only if he exceeds by at least ten percent in excess of what the state offers. So what we are talking about is where the state did not offer people enough money or as much money as their home was worth or their property was worth. And in those kinds of situations we are saying if the state was so far short of what the fair market value was, then the state should also have to pay an attorney's fee for having forced those people to have to go to court to get a fair price for their homes."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DORE

Senator Dore: "I would like to answer Senator Ridder's question. The answer is, yes, it is possible. There is nothing to prohibit it. In other words, in that example I gave you earlier, if the state offered ten thousand dollars and the jury awarded you twenty thousand dollars, which is more than ten percent, then you would be entitled to your contingent fee and there is nothing to prohibit you from also retaining all of the reasonable attorney's fee offered on top of it. In other words, if the judge thought a reasonable attorney's fee was equal to the contingent fee amount he could award another three thousand three hundred dollars and then the attorney, and I have known some of them, could if the contract read that way get one-third of the increment, thirty-three hundred dollars, plus the reasonable attorney's fee of thirty-three hundred dollars or sixty-six hundred dollars. Now it is possible that the contract would read as I provided in the one I had, about four months ago, the state offered forty-seven thousand. We did not go to court on that but we got eighty thousand in a settlement. They missed it by a long ways. Well, I got a third of the increment in that particular case. So if we went to court and got that particular deal then I would be entitled to a reasonable fee for trying a case which got an award of forty thousand dollars more. And I think a reasonable fee, taking in the hours we spent, the responsiveness of the attorney and the cleverness of the attorney and the result accomplished, which is a big element, I think if I were a judge I would give . . . .”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: “The code of ethics. No attorney is supposed to publicly proclaim how clever he is and how good he is and brag about his achievements. That comes under the head of advertising, Senator Dore.”

Senator Dore: “Senator, in answer to Senator Ridder’s question, it is yes, it is possible it would be offset, possible he could keep it entirely. It is possible he could add it to the total award and then take a third of the increment plus the attorney’s fee. It is done all three ways. Perhaps the bill should have been amended after this was raised and put a new section in saying the attorney’s fee awarded shall be offset against any attorney’s fee agreement in the retainer agreement. But for this reason, I am voting against the bill.”

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2399, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 16; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Talley—2.

Excused: Senator Lewis (Bob)—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2399, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 1:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 3:05 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 3:05 p.m.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 736, by Representatives Bausch, Anderson and Hendricks:
Establishing base year formula for certain tax districts' excess levies.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 736, establishing base year formula for certain tax districts' excess levies (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, add a new section following section 1 as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The provisions of this act shall expire on December 31, 1978."

In line 1 of the title after the semicolon and before "amending" strike "and".
On line 2 of the title, after "RCW 84.55.010" and before the period insert "; and providing an expiration date".
Signed by: Senators Donohue, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bailey, Fleming, Gardner, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Marsh, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Scott.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Dore, the committee amendment to page 2, adding a new section, was adopted.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bailey and Dore:
On page 1, line 17 of the engrossed bill, being the House Committee amendment to page 1, line 17 of the printed bill, strike "or has levied at a lesser rate than that otherwise allowable by law".

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Dore yield? Senator, I know you are a tax authority but it seems to me what you are doing here is to permit a district which has not been levying these taxes to now all of a sudden levy them all and go ahead on top of that, to the one hundred and six percent."

Senator Dore: "If the law was rigidly followed that we do not pass this bill, in the event a port district wanted to assess for a new construction project, it was not assessed for the last three years, it would have to limit it to the assessed valuation as of the last year of the assessment. This allows them, we have had the reappraisal program in the meantime so it allows them to go to the reappraised value as of 1973 plus a factor for new construction during the last three years, plus six percent. The way it was written with the house amendment they could have accumulated six percent more each year of those three years. This limits it to just one six percent. I worked this out with the port attorneys and they are satisfied. They would have liked it the way it came out of the house, but this is a rigid tie down of the assessed valuation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY
Senator Bailey: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Canfield, I can point out one instance of this in the port of Grays Harbor which was not levying its levy as it was making enough on its income but it has to look ahead and protect its income as far as bonding, maybe for a warehouse or something like that. The very fact that next year six percent of nothing remains nothing forced the port district to go into a levy of one mill and at a cost of something like two hundred and forty thousand dollars to the citizens of the county. They said they had no use for it but to protect themselves from coming under the six percent limitation in the next two years they had to levy this amount. This bill merely says if a district does not levy anything, they still have not given up their basic right to levy."
Now this could be true in a fire district, say, that was established a few years ago or any other district that has not gotten into active participation that has a legal right to levy. The mere fact that they have not needed the money now is no reason to force them into that levy they do not need. Six percent of nothing remains nothing and this gives them the base to work from. It is an effort really to lower and not force taxes to the limit."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Senator Bailey, if I understand correctly then, if they have not levied these taxes in the past three years it still would not destroy the new base. Is that what you are saying?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Canfield, it does not only say that, it says if they have not levied the tax, you see the way the new tax bill was written, this year's budget is the base year. Next year they can only levy six percent above that, so those districts that are not levying now have no base to start from. This would establish and give them—if they do not levy for the next two or three or four years they still can come back to the year 1973 and use that as a base. This is all that it does."

Senator Canfield: "What I am trying to say, it does not allow them to go back and pick up back levies but simply establishes a new base."

Senator Bailey: "Just a new base. That is what Senator Dore took out of it to avoid the possibility that it could establish an accumulative six percent and things of that sort."

Senator Canfield: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator Dore, I am under the impression that the Port of Seattle has always levied its limit. Right?"

Senator Dore: "Right. They have one mill and so this will be of no benefit to them."

Senator Fleming: "Okay, but in your testimony that was before your committee, was there any discussion at any point in time recognizing the fact that the Port of Seattle does do a great job in operating their port and they are in the black, from my understanding, and doing a good job of it. Was there any discussion at any point in time of them not levying their full amount, why are they still levying their full amount if they are operating in the black?"

Senator Dore: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, why are they levying their full amount?"

Senator Fleming: "Was there any discussion of them not levying their full amount?"

Senator Dore: "First of all, this was not before my committee, but they levied their full mill on the basis that they needed the money, so this bill will have no effect on them and at the end of the fifth year of the reappraisal program they cannot assess more than six percent of the dollars assessed during the fourth year of the . . . ."

Senator Fleming: "The reason for the question—I did not know that the bill was not before your committee but recognizing that you had dealt with the attorney from the port, recognizing that this is dealing with those ports that have not levied their limit, recognizing the fact that this body itself has been talking so much about levy relief, tax relief, property tax relief and so forth, that it has just been a concern of mine why if the Port of Seattle is doing a great job operating in the black, making it a profit, that they have not thought about maybe reducing some of their levy."

Senator Dore: "Frankly, a lot of people thought they should not have levied the full mill because they raised a great number of more dollars, because when the property assessment went up from twenty-five percent to fifty percent, they were allowed two mills under twenty-five percent, they cut the mill one percent but they did not adjust because the fact that we were actually about eighteen percent, so in dollars they picked up the difference between eighteen from twenty-five times two. They picked up fourteen percent in dollars and a lot of people thought they should then have not levied the full mill but had reduced the mill proportionately. But they did not. So this bill would give no relief to those ports that levied their full millage. This pertains to only those ports that have not levied anything for a period of three years. That is the point. That is in the bill. Three years, that have not made any assessment for a period of three years.

"In answer to Senator Canfield, they will assess not in their last time they assessed, but they will take cognizance of the reappraisal program and base it on the assessed valuation as of the year 1973. And so then they will be able to go just six percent higher than that. Under the way the bill was originally amended in the House and came before us they would have been able to pick up six percent more for each of those three years, or eighteen percent. So this amendment is stricken out so it is limited rigidly to six percent."

Senator Fleming: "Thank you, Senator Dore, but I just wanted to bring out, Mr. President and members, that point that there are differences in the ports and the way they levy and, recognizing the honorable intentions of the Port of Grays Harbor being one of those who is not levying to their limit but it is something I think this body should be aware of and that we should also be thinking about in the future, because if there are ports that are operating at a profit, working with private industry and so forth, and we are talking about trying to give a little relief to our citizens, these are some of the things that I think we have got to look at in the future."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Dore carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendments by Senators Bailey and Dore were adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 22 of the engrossed bill, being line 21 of the printed bill, after "1973," strike all the material down to and including "from 1973," on line 23 of the engrossed bill, being line 22 of the printed bill.

Senator Dore, I noticed that section 6 of the bill increases from thirty to fifty percent of the guaranteed fund, undivided profits, reserve, etc., of the amount mutual savings banks may invest in their own land and buildings. Would you amplify on that a little bit? It seems like a quantum jump to me."

Senator Dore: "It is a little jump but it had no objection from the other banks. Their competitors are not worried."

Senator Scott: "No, but what is the practical effect when you raise from thirty to fifty percent the amount of the guaranteed fund and the reserves and so forth that is investable? It seems to me that implies a basic change of policy."

Senator Dore: "I assume that is to help in branch banking. That particular point was not raised in committee and, of course, with inflation perhaps they need more money to build the branches now."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Henry: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Right out of a clear sky I heard you say something about the Department of Natural Resources sinking some wells on their dry land and so forth to improve the value of their land."
Senator Mardesich: "The state's land."
Senator Henry: "The state lands, yes. Well, Mr. President and members of the Senate, they sank some wells, over in Klickitat County and they, in sinking the wells took the water supply away from some of the farmers' wells and also some of their ponds that they had for watering their cattle. And we made a number of protests to this. They said perhaps they could case the well down but so far there has been cockeyed little relief for some of the water supply that has been drained off by some of the state wells on some of their dry land."
Senator Mardesich: "In response, I would only point out that before the department can take such action as this they now have to clear with the Department of Ecology."
Senator Henry: "I have much more faith in the Department of Natural Resources than I have in the Department of Ecology. They cleared this with the Department of Ecology and that is the problem we have."
Senator Mardesich: "I am sorry I used the example of the wells. It also applies to other things."

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, could somebody on the Commerce Committee tell me why we should hold this off for a year? I realize there is a matter here of getting stocks off of the shelves and things of that sort but I wonder if this is not outweighed by the danger it has to children or whoever happens to be wearing these flammable fabrics. I wonder if we have to consider waiting for a year to let a few more children burn up so that some merchants can get it off of their shelves."

Senator Wanamaker: "The reason, Senator Bailey, in the committee when we studied this bill was to allow the stores that had already had stocks on hand some opportunity of getting rid of it. Now if we do not, especially in your smaller stores, rural area stores, they are going to be stuck with a pretty large item if we do not allow them some opportunity of being able to clear their shelves. Also, it was found that it was going to take this much time before manufacturers were going to be able to comply with this act. In other words, there would be no sleepwear for probably a year until they were able to comply and come out with the materials that would be nonflammable."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, it seems to me like there should be some provision in here that these flammable fabrics should have some warning signs attached to them so when they sell this stock that the warning would be on it. I just cannot conceive for a merchant's benefit of letting him sell out his stock, knowing full well we may burn up some kids or somebody else, just so that he can get his money back. I think if we are going to let them have a period of time in closing out their stock that there should be some amendment here that provides for a label or something on this material that says 'this is flammable, this is dangerous, and after a certain day it will be illegal.'"

Senator Wanamaker: "That probably could be done in the stores with a sign on the shelf or on the table, but as I say, the most important reason for allowing this amount of time was to allow the manufacturer to have some opportunity of being able to provide it."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woody, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993, together with the pending committee amendments, was ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

On motion of Senator Maresch, Senate Bill No. 2366 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Sunday, April 8, 1973.

On motion of Senator Maresch, the following Senate bills were ordered to hold their places on the second reading calendar for Monday, April 9, 1973: 2134, 2046 and 2144.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 392, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Representatives Wojahn, Shinpoch, Knowles, Kelley, Smith, Jueling, Adams, Douthwaite, Erickson, Johnson, Kraabel, North (Lois), and Swayze) (by Judicial Council request): Revising the laws of divorce.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Substitute House Bill No. 392 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator Atwood, up until now, as you know, the divorce settlements require court approval to be binding. I guess the theory was that probably the woman was not in as good a bargaining position. Now in view of the lib amendment, does this sort of carry the idea that she is as competent to enter into a settlement as the man and therefore we have taken away from her the protection of going before the court for court approval?"
THIRTIETH DAY, APRIL 7, 1973

Senator Atwood: "On these separation contracts I would think that observation is correct because both parties have to sign them, although the law still is, in these separation agreements where there is a divorce, that the court is still required to confirm them. So if you will look in the act, it still carries that particular carry over from the existing law, although I think that the woman is on par now with the man. She does not have more rights than the man does in this particular instance but, nevertheless, the court still has jurisdiction to confirm the separation agreements in the event there is a divorce."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 392, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 22; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Durkan, Greive—3.

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Francis served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 392 failed to pass the Senate.

On page 8, beginning on line 6, strike all of subsection (7) and renumber the remaining subsection.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 8, after "provided," and before "the" in line 13, strike "the director shall determine" and on page 8, line 14, after "such employment" strike the remainder of the subsection and insert the following:

"shall be the maximum applicable to such applicant pursuant to a current maximum fee schedule which has been approved by the director. Such a maximum fee schedule and any subsequent amendments thereto shall be submitted by each employment agency to the director for his approval and may be accompanied by explanations of the bases for setting maximum fees. The director shall approve or disapprove such maximum fee schedules for each agency on an individual basis.“

Debate ensued.

Senator Francis moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2454 and Senate Bill No. 2542 be re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

Defining environmental impact statement requirements.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Twigg, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2531 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2531 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Twigg moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, line 5 after “within” strike “forty-five” and insert “sixty”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: “Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Could you give me somewhat of an idea of the difference between an individual single family residence and any private project?”

Senator Washington: “Any private project could be an apartment house, it could be an office building, it could be a resort development. They still have to comply with the impact statement. However, the statute of limitations would run. They would have to publish their notice, and then you would have the sixty days after the final notice. Then any member of the public could come in and challenge, could appeal or take court action.”

The motion by Senator Twigg carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Twigg, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2531 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Providing for the financial support of mass public transportation programs.

MOTION

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2813 was ordered placed on the second reading calendar for Sunday, April 8, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2570, by Senators Ridder, Bailey, Woodall and Van Hollebeke:
Revising operation of the Washington state patrol retirement system.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Ridder, Senate Bill No. 2570 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Ridder yield? What is the effect of that five-year military service provision in the state patrol? How much unfunded liability?"
Senator Ridder: "They have here that the impact is two hundred and forty-six thousand. There are three hundred . . . ."
Senator Atwood: "I mean the total unfunded liability."
Senator Ridder: "They say here in a six-year period . . . ."
Senator Atwood: "I am not interested in a six-year period. You are putting in forty-year funding in this thing."
Senator Ridder: "Right."
Senator Atwood: "So I want to know what the actuaries came up with in the total creation of unfunded liability by putting the five-year military service credit in here."
Senator Ridder: "All right. According to the system, they have almost an ongoing washing out of their unfunded liability. They raise and lower their contribution to fit this."
This is the way the system will run, so they do not pick up the unfunded liability. On the next actuarial reading of this system, if it is necessary to raise their contribution in order to take care of that unfunded liability they will take care of it. So it is an automatic cancelling unfunded liability. That is the way the system runs.”

Senator Atwood: “Will Senator Ridder further yield? That fiscal note you gave is just the six-year impact, though?”
Senator Ridder: “Right.”
Senator Atwood: “But the employer also has to, his contribution goes up the same rate.”
Senator Ridder: “Yes.”
Senator Atwood: “I would think it would be extremely important, before asking any member of this Senate to vote for anything like this, that they know what their unfunded liability is, regardless of the method of payment.”
Senator Ridder: “If you contract some unfunded liability what they will have to do on the next actuarial evaluation would be to up their contribution in order to take care of that and fund it.”
Senator Atwood: “What about the state?”
Senator Ridder: “The state would not have to, under this system.”
Senator Atwood: “We do not have to increase our contribution? Just the employee?”
Senator Ridder: “Right. We are putting this in at the beginning of the system. This is the way I understand it.”
Senator Atwood: “I do not think you are exactly correct on that, Senator, but I am very skeptical about this.”
Senator Ridder: “I understand your concern. It is the concern of many of us not to create unfunded liability, but the way they do it, they fund it over a period of time and keep to that forty-year funding.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, Senator Atwood was asking a question. My understanding is that the raise would be twelve percent for the state, which is the same as it is for the legislators, for their pension.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: “Senator Ridder, it would be my understanding the way you interpret it then, if they raise the rate on themselves to take care of the unfunded liability that results from this proviso, then we have got to expect them to come in and expect them to raise their rate, not the state’s rate comparably, but their rate enough to take up all unfunded liability created by this. Where do you find a precedent for that?”
Senator Ridder: “This is just a method of taking care of that unfunded liability. You just spread it over the forty years and pick it up as you go. The unfunded liability is not going to be that great on the three hundred and eighty-five employees coming under this. If you want to hold this and we can straighten it out, perhaps that is the best way because so many people seem to be shocked here.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senate Bill No. 2570 was ordered placed at the end of today’s calendar on third reading.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2099, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Bottiger, Murray and Grant):
Authorizing a fire protection district service charge.
The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2099 and the pending amendment by Senator Grant to page 2, line 18 which was moved for adoption on Friday, April 6, 1973.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 18, after "commissioner" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That no service charge specified under this chapter shall be applicable to the personal property or improvements to real property of any firm whose fire protection and training system has been accepted by a fire insurance underwriter maintaining a fire protection engineering and inspection service authorized by the state insurance commissioner to do business in this state".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Is it in order to ask Senator Bottiger a question? Senator, I think this bill is in pretty fair shape now. It is better than it was when we started, but I would like to ask you this question. Why do we still exempt all the religious properties from fire protection? Now we are exempting them from other things and I do not raise that point at all, but you say in this bill that the fire protection charges should be levied in accordance with the services rendered. You say that later in the bill, and yet in this case in the services rendered to a church property, why it would seem to me we are talking both ways. You say we should assess according to the benefits received but they are to be excused. And I am just wondering if that logic is consistent."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, to me it is not consistent. I originally proposed this bill to be applicable to the religiously owned property, schools, things of this nature. I found by the process that I could not get the bill through the legislature with that in it so the amendment was agreed to in order to provide the financial relief for some of the fire districts. It is just a case of practical political application to the legislative process."

Senator Canfield: "I might say, Senator, that some years ago I made an inquiry asking for an Attorney General's opinion on whether rendering fire protection and police protection service to a religious organization was a violation of the Constitution on separation of church and state, and his opinion was in the negative. It was not in conflict, but I still think there is an ethical point here that people should pay for the services rendered."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, I would join with you and I would point out that many religious organizations voluntarily pay for fire and police protection, the congregation of the church to which I belong being one of them."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Clarke yield? You are quite an authority on insurance, are you not? The companies that you speak for, do they give free insurance to churches on fire protection?"

Senator Clarke: "No, Senator, but I think what you have is a completely different philosophy here. As I was saying, this is something that the public presumptively is willing to furnish as a public service to these tax-free institutions. Naturally, churches when they buy bread or when they buy anything else have to pay the regular price for it, but it is a question of what your taxing philosophy is and what institutions should be exempt from all sorts of taxes. My observation was merely meant to point that this was being consistent with many other situations where this type of institution is exempt from tax."

Senator Canfield: "I would just point out that when it comes out of the taxpayer's pocket it is all right to give the service, but the insurance companies do not give out of their pockets. They still charge the premium."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2099 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschlander: "Just a short remark. Senator Bottiger mentioned the fire districts. They have quite a few of them and they are in need of money. I would like to remind Senator Bottiger that I do not have a large college university church school in my district, I think Pacific Lutheran is in your district, isn’t it? I think they are exempt.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Newschlander, for the record, I have written and responded to numerous correspondence from that University, I do not want that exemption in there.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: “Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, will this take the place of the demand for the fire districts requesting an additional half mill?”

Senator Bottiger: “I am not in a position to answer that question. If you take a fire district like Spokane 1 that is running a current four-mill maintenance and operation levy, this will not take the place for their need for additional funds. I think if this bill passes the pressure on that half mill will diminish.”

Senator Atwood: “That is the way I look at it, Senator, but I am very concerned. I was approached today and informed that on my bill over in the House they wanted to switch the millage around and take another half mill from the county road fund and put it into the fire districts and I would be inclined to support this method rather than the method the fire districts were suggesting and I wanted assurance if this passed it would relieve the pressure on that.”

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2657 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "I mentioned yesterday, I do have information from the Attorney General which indicates it would take a two-thirds majority for this amendment to be carried, an amendment to the shorelands initiative."

ROLL CALL

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 993, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Rabel, Adams, Warnke, Kraabel, Eng, Kilbury, Swayze, Ceccarelli, Charnley, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Matthews and Maxie):

Enacting the flammable fabrics act.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993. The committee amendments to page 1 and page 2 were adopted previously today. Senator Walgren had moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 3, line 11.
Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Woody and Jones to the committee amendment to page 3, line 11 adding a new section.

On line 2 of new section 7 added by the committee amendment, after "section 4" insert "or section 11".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, one thing troubles me about this amendment. If you were a department store owner or some small store owner, how could you tell whether the product that you had on your shelf complied or did not comply?"

Senator Woody: "Well, the first answer to that is by the effective date of this Substitute House Bill No. 993, that is one year from—that one year period. They would have to know in any event. The federal act right now has determined what children’s sleepwear is or is not within the prohibitions of the flammable fabrics act. Those items, although they are manufactured within the state and sold within the state, would be outside of the Interstate Commerce provisions and therefore outside of the federal act. The whole purpose of 993 is to bring those situations within the state act. Those same stores would be faced with that problem in one year in any event so they are going to know it by the same technique as they would know one year from now."

Senator Bottiger: "Of course within a year from now they will know when they purchase it whether it complies because the manufacturer will have to make certain warranties to them and I think that both the federal act and our state act prohibit the wholesale sale of such things. What I am thinking about is a pajama set that is in the store right now that may comply but under the provisions of this amendment a store owner is going to have to make a decision as to whether to attach the label or not and I just wonder if he is qualified to be able to determine that."

Senator Woody: "I would yield to Senator Greive because the matters that were before the Commerce Committee of the Senate took into consideration those same standards that would be in one year from now."

Senator Greive: "I would strongly support the amendment. Not only was I in the position to have heard this as the chairman of the Commerce Committee during this particular session, but during the interim where we had the same problem come up and this is one of those amendments that come along every once in a while which you wish you had thought of yourself. It seems to me that it is a good amendment. It is something that did not occur to us but it is a way of handling the problem. The real problem is that people do not know nor do not appreciate the flammability of these fabrics. And at least this means that they will have warning so they can keep their children away from a candle or some other type of open flame and they will be aware of what they have got. The big problem when we were conducting the hearings during the interim, not since the bill has been introduced, was that the people did not know. The fact is, at one time it was thought that that might be the way to handle the whole problem rather than to even prohibit the garments from being sold. The important thing was that it was assumed this type of fabric where a woman or a grown person wore it, they could make some decisions but children do not understand about things that might ignite and if their parents do not understand, they do not know enough to keep them off the children or to at least protect the children from open flames."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, when I raised this point this morning I thought of two alternatives. One is not to have any time period on it which would mean that immediately on the effective date of the act they would have to take these off the shelf, Senator Bottiger. And the other thing was that, of course, the merchant is concerned because he has these materials on the shelf. I really think that this is not the best bill I have ever seen because I think that if there is danger they ought to come off the shelves just as fast as we can force them off the shelves. This is a compromise and it does give warning and I do not think it is any more difficult to conform to this than it would be if we forced them on July 14 to remove these items from the shelf, but if they are duly warned it is much better than holding it off for a year because I cannot see how we can put a price tag on even one child being burned just to allow a merchant to keep this material on his shelf. If it is dangerous it is dangerous now and we should not tolerate it for twelve months more and dream it away, but this is a compromise and I am happy to support the compromise."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "I think I can answer Senator Bottiger's question. I think it is a fairly simple thing. You pick up the telephone and ask the man who gave you the goods and he will tell you what it is made of and if it is dangerous. I do not think it is that hard. I believe it is just that simple."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, do I have the latest amendment here that was just passed around saying that on July 14, 1973 they should carry the label?"

Senator Woody: "That is correct."

Senator Canfield: "That means if we pass this a week from today the ninety days would expire by that time. It would not be effective until July 14, 1973, and then all of a sudden they have got to get rid of the whole stock. Is that the effective date you intended? I think you should have an emergency clause on here."

Senator Woody: "I would have to defer to Senator Jones as to why the July 14 date itself was picked out, although it was my recollection in our conversation that it was an estimate, the best estimate with the amendments going over to the House, the House would have to either concede or recede from them. And it is from the date of adjourning, which I think is still, if I have read the newspapers correctly, the 14th."

Senator Jones: "That was my understanding, that we would be adjourning and that was ninety days after adjournment. I have all the faith in the world that we will work hard towards that date."

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment by Senators Jones and Woody to the committee amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Walgren carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 3, section 10, line 12.

On motion of Senator Jones, the following amendment by Senators Jones and Woody to the committee amendment was adopted:

Amend the committee amendment to page 3, line 11 as follows:

In line 3 of the amendment after "legislature" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That any article which will come within the provisions of this act shall carry the following label as of July 14, 1973:

"WARNING: This garment does not comply with federal or Washington state standards for the flammability of children's sleepwear."

Further, this label shall be clearly visible and brought to the attention of any prospective purchaser."

The motion by Senator Greive carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Jones, the following amendment by Senators Woody and Jones to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "crimes;" strike "and" and after "penalties" and before the period insert "; and setting an effective date".

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblach, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newenschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—47.
Absent or not voting: Senator Twigg—1.
Excused: Senator Whetzel—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 993, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SENATE BILL NO. 2572, by Senators Whetzel, Ridder and Talley:
Clarifying the authority of sewer districts.
The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2572.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, line 19, after section 4 insert the following new sections:
"Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 40, Laws of 1965 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.20.020 are each hereby amended to read as follows:
Utility local improvement districts to carry out all or any portion of the comprehensive plan, or additions and betterments thereof, adopted for the sewer district may be initiated either by resolution of the board of sewer commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the office of the county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the utility local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of sewer commissioners shall desire to initiate the formation of a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed utility local improvement district, describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district [••], which date shall, unless there is an emergency, be no less than 30 days and no more than 90 days from the day the resolution of intention was adopted.

In case any such utility local improvement district shall be initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition with the secretary of the board of sewer commissioners, the board shall determine whether the same shall be sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person shall withdraw his name from said petition after the filing thereof with the secretary of the board of sewer commissioners. If the board shall find the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of said improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district, describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of sewer commissioners.
Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing said notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer at the address shown thereon. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. Said notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time and place of the hearing before the board of sewer commissioners; and in the case of improvements initiated by resolution, said notice shall also state that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of sewer commissioners before the time fixed for said public hearing. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land or other property.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 272, Laws of 1971 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.20.030 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary:
PROVIDED, That the board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included therein without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time herein provided for the original notice.

After said hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution: PROVIDED, That the jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested: (a) by protests filed with the secretary of the board prior to said public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district or (b) by the commissioners not adopting a resolution ordering the improvement at a public hearing held not more than 90 days from the day the resolution of intention was adopted, unless the commissioners file with the county auditor a copy of the notice required by RCW 56.20.020, and in no event at a hearing held more than two years from the day the resolution of intention was adopted.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution order the improvement, provide the general funds of the sewer district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the sewer district such eminent domain proceedings and supplemental assessment or reassessment proceedings to pay all eminent domain awards as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board of sewer commissioners shall proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of each county in which the real property is to be assessed its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the local improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement."
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, I am in complete accord with some of the remarks that Senator Grant has made, but I would have to raise the scope and object of this amendment. I think it really enlarges the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, the amendment by Senator Grant, the point of order as raised by Senator Talley and the pending ruling by the President were ordered held for Sunday, April 8, 1973.

THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2570, by Senators Ridder, Bailey, Woodall and Van Hollebeke:
Revising operation of the Washington state patrol retirement system.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senate Bill No. 2570 was returned to second reading.
Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, section 3, beginning on line 27 strike all of subsection (3) and substitute the following:

"(3) The Public Pension Commission and the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System shall conduct a study of the various military credit provisions of the state's retirement systems, the fiscal impact of those various provisions and the possibilities for creation of any unfunded liabilities through such provisions and shall report to the next legislative session with viable recommendations for legislative action that will insure parity between the various systems in regard to military credit without the creation of further unfunded liabilities."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, you do not mind taking a hard look at something you do not know the answer to, do you?"

Senator Ridder: "I would say in a situation like this when we are talking about equity, it is not a problem of taking a good hard look at it. I think this is due the state patrol people. I do not think it is going to be that great and it is not a question of taking a long hard look. We are begging the issue."

Senator Woodall: "Well, in other words then, I understood that all Senator Atwood wanted you to do was for you to take a good hard look at something."

Senator Ridder: "It is hardly couched in that. It says, 'strike all of subsection 2', which means take out the whole military and insert a study. Now I will tell you, in this body we make a study every time we get to a point where we hit the rock hard place and we have so many studies going that it makes your head roll. The problem here is whether we are going to grant military equal to PERS for the state patrol or we are not. And I think it just comes down to that. If you want to vote it up, vote it up; if you want to vote it down, vote it down, and that is the way she goes."

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bottiger, Washington, Dore, Knoblauch, Stortini, Grant, Marsh, Jones and Lewis (Bob).

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Atwood was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.
THIRTIETH DAY, APRIL 7, 1973

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Gardner, Guess, Jolly, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Wamaker, Woodall—20.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2266, by Senators Durkan, Ridder and Peterson (Ted) (by Public Employees', Law Enforcement Officers' and Firefighters' Retirement Board request):

Amending the Law Enforcement and Firefighters' Retirement System Act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2266 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2266 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 19, section 9, line 9, after "fighter," strike "including" and insert "[including] excluding".

On motion of Senator Ridder, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 24, line 9, after "where" strike "a member becomes employed" and insert "an active member or member hereafter retired for disability or service becomes an employee".

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 30 following section 19 add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any member of this system with the rank of chief of a department or the equivalent may receive service credit for out-of-state service as a law enforcement officer or firefighter."
Such out-of-state service shall be credited upon payment to the Washington law enforcement officers' and firefighters' retirement system of an amount equal to the contribution which would have been made during those periods of out-of-state service had the service then been creditable under this system, all with interest to the date of payment. Such normal contribution shall include the employee contribution, the employer contribution and that portion of the state contribution which would have been attributable to funding current service liability for such service, all as provided in RCW 41.26.080. Said payment may be made in one lump sum or by installments over a limited period of time, all as approved by the retirement board. The payments may be made by the employee and/or the employer. Out-of-state service credit may be credited in annual increments when payments sufficient to cover such periods of service have been made. Out-of-state service credit shall not be counted in determining whether the individual qualifies to vest pursuant to RCW 41.26.090(2). Any out-of-state service credit which has been vested in an out-of-state retirement plan shall not be creditable in this system: PROVIDED, That employee contributions for such service may be paid after the member is eligible to vest under the provisions of RCW 41.26.090(2).

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Durkan, would you yield? If a man comes from California and picks up five or ten years of service and receives credit in this state, is there anything to stop him from collecting his pension here and then moving back to California and redepositing his money there and adding a couple of years down there and start picking up the California pension?"

Senator Durkan: "I do not know the answer to that question. I would guess that if the system which he goes back to would have a provision like we have here that he could probably qualify. If the system does not permit him to come back and use the credit then I would guess that he could not qualify. I do not think that you could make a generalization on it, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I am going to support the amendment because I think that perhaps they have worked this out with the cities, but I think that the people of Seattle or any other city should be well informed that if there is some kind of a deal on the city will fork over one hundred and thirty thousand dollars or something to pay up somebody's pension, then I think that that is a problem the people of Seattle or someone have, not me, as long as it does not come to the state of Washington. Perhaps there is some merit in it. It is a matter now between the people of the city, the officials of the city and the individuals they are going to take care of, and I do not usually favor these double pensions because I think actually what we may be doing, and I do not know how we could control it between states, Senator Durkan, so I am not criticizing the amendment, but I do think that there is a possibility here that we could have a man for a couple of years and go out at an extremely high pension, which we owe him if he deposits that money in our system. But then he can go back to another state and build up another pension which probably would not be fair to the people of that other state."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, what is the top amount of your salary you can draw under this bill now with the five years military service credit in here?"

Senator Ridder: "He would have to have twenty-five years to get the five years."

Senator Atwood: "All right, but is there a sixty percent cap in this bill like there is in PERS and TRS or proposed to be in TRS?"

Senator Ridder: "There is no cap because retirement officers, I understand, must leave at age sixty."
Senator Atwood: "What is the maximum amount of salary they can draw? Let us assume they were employed at age eighteen or twenty."
Senator Ridder: "The average age is about twenty-three now and they are going up."
Senator Atwood: "Let us assume, what is the maximum amount if they start at twenty-three."
Senator Ridder: "Twenty-three from sixty gives him thirty-seven years times two is seventy-four percent. That is the ultimate."
Senator Atwood: "That is fourteen percent above what the TRS and PERS can get."
Senator Ridder: "But you must remember, Senator Atwood..."
Senator Atwood: "Plus the five years of military service credit?"
Senator Ridder: "Yes, if he lasts twenty-five years."
Senator Atwood: "If he lasts thirty-seven years. Now we have right in front of us here a prime example of leapfrogging and a classic. PERS and TRS will be right back here, ERS incidentally can do that now, but I just want to call it to the attention of the group here what we have in front of us."
Senator Ridder: "I think in this case we get a little shook when we think of the upper limits. You have to remember though that PERS and Teachers have more sedentary occupations, that policemen and state patrolmen and firefighters have a completely different way of life. The job that they serve is one that is potentially incapacitating, back injuries, heart trouble, can you imagine a man triggered to action every night by the sound of a gong, the fire signal? I know many of you men have seen action. But aside from that, the strain on a human being in the position of a firefighter."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Ridder, would he yield to another question? Senator Ridder, I have been looking over this amendment and I do not see any place in here that it says that he has to withdraw his contributions from the California retirement system."
Senator Ridder: "Okay, 'any out of state service credit which has been vested in an out-of-state retirement plan shall not be creditable in this system.' If he has seventeen years vested in California, he cannot apply to this system until he un-vests it, and the only way he can un-vest it is to take his portion out and come up here."
Senator Rasmussen: "We are speaking, of course, of the chief of Seattle?"
Senator Ridder: "Right."
Senator Rasmussen: "Now I can also see this type of an amendment coming onto the PERS system at such a time as the Governor wants to reach out and make some appointment from out of state."
Senator Ridder: "Gentlemen, we have the right here on this floor to make that decision when the time comes."
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, I notice the word 'equivalent', chief of the department or the equivalent, and so on. Now Senator Grant just put his finger on it that a lot of these department heads are called chief. Would they be eligible for the same benefits? Like Chief Booth in the King County Sheriff's Department. They call him chief, he is kind of the assistant chief."
Senator Ridder: "No, what we were trying to get at is that they call the King County Sheriff by different names and the equivalent of chief, if he is called by a different name, but it only takes chief."
Senator Dore: "Just for the journal then, it would be number one head of a police department, not the number two, regardless of what they call him?"
Senator Ridder: "Right. Regardless of what they call him."
Senator Dore: "Now the second question is, the way I read the amendment you indicated earlier that he would have to take the money out of the California system. It looks to me that he could use other money and pay into our system, the way it is worded, and get a pension and also use the same years down there in California and draw a pension there. I see no exclusion in the language here. I will read it to you. It says, 'such out-of-state service shall be credited upon payment to the Washington Law Enforcement Officers' and Firefighters' Retirement System of an amount equal to the contribution'. In other words, it does not say he has to take it out of there. 'Equal to the contributions which have been made during those periods of out-of-state service had the service then been creditable under this system, all of interest to the date of payment.' In other words, he could go down to the bank, borrow the money, pay it into our system and use those seventeen years as in the case in Seattle and then go down and also use them down there which would kind of be a double dip, wouldn't it? And would not an amendment here to exclude that possibility be in order?"

Senator Ridder: "He could not use them because if he remained vested with those seventeen years in California, any time he takes that money out, and he has to, if he is vested at all it cannot be added to this."

Senator Dore: "That is the question, Senator. Where in the amendment does it require him to take the money out? It does not."

Senator Ridder: "Then he does not get credit for it?"

Senator Dore: "No, it just says an amount equal to that."

Senator Ridder: "No, it says right down here in the fifth line up, 'Any out-of-state service credit which has been vested in an out-of-state retirement plan shall not be creditable.'"

Senator Dore: "You have got a different amendment. I have, 'such out-of-state service shall be credited upon payment to the Washington Law Enforcement Officers' and Firefighters' Retirement System of an amount equal', it does not say out of that fund—'an amount equal to the contribution which would have been made during those periods of out-of-state service had the service then been creditable under this system all of interest to the date of payment.' In other words, he is not required to divest himself of the money paid in in California."

Senator Ridder: "Right. He could keep it to himself. But if he stays vested in that system so he can back into it, then he cannot count that time."

Senator Dore: "In the state system here you are vested after ten years. I assume down there he is vested, not for a full pension, but he is vested for some partial pension in California now."

Senator Ridder: "Right."

Senator Dore: "So he can use those same seventeen years by going to the bank and borrowing an amount equal to that and paying in this system."

Senator Ridder: "No."

Senator Dore: "Well, that is the way it reads, as I read it."

Senator Ridder: "It says that if he leaves anything in there that is vested if he has any vested credit in the other system, then he cannot take any credit for it in this system."

Senator Dore: "Where does it say that?"

Senator Ridder: "It says, 'any out-of-state service credit which has been vested in an out-of-state retirement plan shall not be creditable to this system.' If he kept five years vested down there . . . ."

Senator Dore: "What line is that, Senator?"

Senator Ridder: "It is about the fifth line up from the bottom."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I think the rules call for questions and answers and not conversation."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Senator's point is well taken."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Ridder further yield? Now you talk about out-of-state service. How about people who work for the Indian Department? We have Indian policemen over my way. Would they count the same as out-of-state people because they are not under any other system? They are under federal system. Would they count? Would they be able to come in and claim the time they had worked in the Indian police?"

Senator Ridder: "Well, now, we are talking here about a chief."

Senator Woodall: "Well, they are all chiefs."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, in order to get this out of the way, I raise the question of scope and object of the amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Bottiger has raised the point that the amendment does increase the scope and object. The President, in ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Bottiger, finds that the proposed amendment pertains to service credits in the LEFF system for service rendered in other states. The measure before the Senate, Senate Bill No. 2266, does not pertain to either out-of-state service credits or separate credit rules for department chiefs. The amendment therefore does increase the scope and object of the bill and the point is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Durkan was ruled out of order.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 12 after section 3 add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 4. Section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 131, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.100 are each amended to read as follows:

“A member upon retirement for service shall receive a monthly retirement allowance computed according to his completed creditable service, as follows: Five years but under ten years, one-twelfth of one percent of his final average salary for each month of service; ten years but under twenty years, one-twelfth of one and one-half percent of his final average salary for each month of service; and twenty years and over, one-twelfth of two percent of his final average salary for each month of service: PROVIDED, That completed creditable service shall not exceed thirty years:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That the recipient of a retirement allowance who shall return to service as a law enforcement officer or firefighter shall be considered to have terminated his retirement status and he shall immediately become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership he had as of the date of his retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of his return to service and he shall make contributions and receive service credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire at any time and his retirement allowance shall be recomputed, and paid, based upon additional service rendered and any change in final average salary."

Renumber the remaining sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? Supposing a fellow has this job and he is entitled to benefits, then let us suppose he decides he does not want to do it anymore and he drops out for ten years, then he comes back and in the meantime salary scales have been raised substantially and he serves for a short time and quits again. Now, does your amendment say that he will receive his benefits based upon his last two years of salary when he has been out of the profession for ten years?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would assume that he could do that under the PERS system and it would apply as well here, assuming that you can leave for a period of ten years under PERS, which I believe you can."
Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator, several years ago several of us were in favor of a pension commission to try to resolve these problems to prevent leapfrogging and I know you are well aware of all that. It seems to me today now we are really doing a lot of things. We are distributing goodies like we are going to run out pretty soon, and I am wondering if we are doing anything to establish parity and equality and, what you said awhile ago, equity in these systems, or are just finding what you call loopholes to plug and plugging them up with money?"

Senator Ridder: "I think when you look at the fiscal notes you will find that we have been fiscally responsible, that the money going into this system, thirty-two million dollars in the course of five and one-half years is more than going to take care of the little twenty-five thousand dollar item here on military and it is going to take care of a lot of other items that we talked about. This is perfectly within the realm. I think you people are cutting it even further. Now we got with the police and firemen and the cities and we ground this bill out. The Public Pension Commission has met time and time again on this. The various pension subcommittees talked about this. It has never come up until we get to this floor, and making amendments like this, right off, shooting from the hip, is not the way to build the pension system. I can understand how you people feel but I think you are working from emotion rather than from actuarial soundness. I think that we should take a long look at it before we move into this."

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Ridder yield? What is the unfunded liability created by the five years military service credit you are now allowing in this bill?"

Senator Ridder: "You go on again to unfunded liability. One just does not know until you actuarially cost it out. This system would assume that possibly the same way that the state patrol would assume it."

Senator Atwood: "Senator Ridder, the cities of the state were not given an opportunity to meet this until just very recently here and the cities have informed us that the unfunded liability, as near as they can tell without an actuarial costing, is eighty-four millions of dollars. Now I am not sure whether they are right or wrong, but I just would hope that everyone is aware what this five years additional does."

Senator Ridder: "Mr. Bleakney, who has worked with pension systems and who is acquainted with all of the systems, sat in with us at length and we have discussed these things. Never once has the situation of sixty percent come up or even been discussed. This is something new that is thrown out here. I can understand your feelings and I think we should look at it, but this has not been part of the long term negotiations to get to this point. It just comes out and jumps out on the floor. Now as to unfunded liability, the actuary feels that it is a sound system, that it can assume this within its present system without any strain. The problem is now you are taking quite a hunk away from the fireman and policeman with no added increases in his. Now you just take a look at it, what he has done. He has put in one percent more on his contribution level, over a million dollars, and he has given his six months disability contribution which is another eight hundred seventy-five thousand, and he is taking twenty-five thousand in military out of there and now you are going to say, 'Okay, we are going to take away the down to sixty percent and lower your ability to get a fair pension out of this.' I think you are going a little too far. I really do."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a further question? Senator Ridder, what are the statistics? Is it true that the average fireman and policeman retire after twenty-five years?"

Senator Ridder: "This is not necessarily true, but there is a limit of sixty that they get out of the system, when they are sixty years of age, because we just cannot have older policemen and firemen. So this limits them automatically to getting more than that."
THIRTIETH DAY, APRIL 7, 1973

Senator Rasmussen: "So then this thirty percent would be all right, the thirty years, which would give them five years leeway over the average in which they retire after twenty-five years of service?"

Senator Ridder: "You give an opportunity to a man that goes in at the age of twenty-five to put in that extra little bit of time if he can make it, but many of them have back injuries, kidney injuries, smoke inhalation emphysema, and it gives them a little chance to go on. It also, and I must remind you, gives you a chance to sort of keep them off of the disability and going out under disability, if this is what you want."

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Durkan, Day, Connor, Greive, Bailey, Metcalf, Talley, Walgren and Van Hollebeke.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted by the following vote: Yea's, 26; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Guess, Jolly, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall—26.

On motion of Senator Ridder, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2266 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.
(through the Secretary of State)

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section SENATE BILL NO.
2459 entitled:
"An Act relating to domestic relations."

This bill creates rights and processes relating to the custody of children, which recognizes that neither parent may be absolutely barred from custody of a child. The necessity for this legislation arises from the decisional law of the U.S. Supreme Court, which has held that the fact of non-marriage between parents is not sufficient grounds to deny a father all chance of having custody of his children.

As a direct consequence of the decision of the Supreme Court, fathers must now be given adequate notice of proceedings, within the meaning of the due process clause of the Constitution, when their illegitimate children are put up for adoption. Failure to give such notice can mean that adoptive parents may lose their child at some point in the future if the parent who was not notified attacks the adoption in court. The processes and procedures provided for in this act are designed to render as secure as possible any adoption which is finalized in a legal manner.

Section ten of the act further provides that a parent who successfully attacks an adoption to obtain custody of the adoptive child must pay the adoptive parents all direct and indirect costs of child support which the adoptive parents had previously incurred. Section eleven provides that, before a natural parent may file suit to obtain custody of his child from adoptive parents, he must file a bond in the amount of $100 a month for every month the adoptive parents had custody of the child, such bond to be security for any damages which might be adjudged under section ten. Section eleven clearly discriminates against those persons who have insufficient resources to obtain the bond, preventing those persons from even getting into a court to test the merits of their claim. The random impact of such a provision, denying only those who have limited resources full access to the courts, deters the basic function of the judicial system, to decide the issues of a law suit on its merits. Accordingly, I have determined to veto section eleven for the reasons set forth above.

With the exception of section eleven, I have approved Senate Bill No. 2459.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

SENATE BILL NO. 2459, by Senators Bottiger and Scott:

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 19, chapter 203, Laws of 1919 and RCW 26.24.190 are each amended to read as follows:

[If the mother be a suitable person she shall be awarded the custody and control of said child, if she be not a suitable person, the court may deliver] In any filiation proceeding where the accused is found to be the father of the child, the court shall include in its judgment an award of custody of the child to that parent who is the more fit from the standpoint of furthering the child’s welfare: PROVIDED, That if the court finds both parents unfit to have custody of the child, then the court shall provide for the care and custody of said child [to] by any reputable person, [including the accused, charitable or state institution] appropriate private agency licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW, or appropriate public agency. Such order and judgment may further provide, in the discretion of the court, that the surname of the [accused] child shall henceforth be [the lawful surname of such child] that parent’s surname which the court finds would be in the best interest of the child.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Written consent to such adoption must be filed prior to a hearing on the petition, as follows:

(1) By the person to be adopted, if such person is fourteen years of age or older, but the filing of such consent shall not obviate the necessity of securing any other consent herein required;

(2) If the person to be adopted is of legitimate birth or legitimizet thereafter, and a minor, then by each of his living parents, except as hereinafter provided:

(3) If the person to be adopted is illegitimate and a minor, then by his mother and father, if living, except as [hereinafter] provided in this 1973 amendatory act:
(4) If a legal guardian has been appointed for the person of the child, then by such guardian;

(5) If the person to be adopted is a minor and has been permanently committed upon due notice to his parents by any court of general jurisdiction to an approved agency, then by such approved agency, in which event neither notice to nor consent by its parents in the adoption proceeding shall be necessary: PROVIDED, That if the approved agency refuses to consent to the adoption, the court, in its discretion, may order that such consent be dispensed with.

Sec. 3, Section 4, chapter 291, Law of 1955 and RCW 26.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No consent for the adoption of a minor shall be required as follows:

(1) From a parent deprived of civil rights when in a hearing for that purpose, as provided in RCW 26.32.050, the court finds that the circumstances surrounding the loss of said parent's civil rights were of such a nature that the welfare of the child would be best served by a permanent deprivation of parental rights;

(2) From a parent who has been deprived of the custody of the child by a court of competent jurisdiction, after notice: PROVIDED, That a decree in an action for divorce, separate maintenance, or annulment, which grants to a parent any right of custody, control, or visitation of a minor child, or requires of such parent the payment of support money for such child, shall not constitute such deprivation of custody;

(3) From a parent who, more than one year prior to filing of a petition hereunder, has been adjudged to be mentally ill or otherwise mentally incompetent, and who has not thereafter been restored to competency by the court making such adjudication, and the court at a hearing called for such purpose, as provided in RCW 26.32.050, finds that the best interests of the child will be served by a permanent deprivation of custody;

(4) From a parent who has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction, upon notice as herein provided to such parent, to have deserted or abandoned such child under circumstances showing a willful substantial lack of regard for parental obligations;

(5) From a [father] parent of an illegitimate child who prior to entry of the interlocutory decree of adoption has not contested the proposed adoption after having been provided with notice of a hearing on an adoption petition pursuant to the notice provisions of section 6 of this 1973 amendatory act;

(6) From a parent who has surrendered the child pursuant to section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court in an adoption proceeding, after a hearing for that purpose upon notice thereof as hereinbefore provided having been given to a parent, finds any of the conditions set forth in RCW 26.32.040 to be a fact as to the parent, the court may decree that consent of such parent shall not be required prior to adoption [: PROVIDED, That the father of an illegitimate child shall not be entitled to notice of such hearing].

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall direct notice of any hearing under RCW 26.32.050 to be given to any nonconsenting parent or guardian, if any, and to any person or association having the actual care, custody, or control of the child: PROVIDED, That where a parent has been

Sec. 7, Section 1, chapter 49, Laws of 1903 and RCW 26.37.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of receiving, caring for or placing out for adoption, or improving the condition of orphan, homeless, neglected or abused minor children of this state shall have authority to receive, control, and dispose of children under eighteen years of age under the following provisions:

(1) When the father and mother or the person or persons legally entitled to act as guardian of the person of any minor child shall, in writing, surrender such child to the care and custody of said society, such child shall thereafter be in legal custody of such society for the purposes herein provided.

(2) In case of death or legal incapacity of a father or his abandonment or neglect to provide for his family, the mother shall have authority to make such surrender, and in case of the death or legal incapacity of a mother, or her abandonment of such child, then the father shall have authority to make such surrender.

(3) In all cases where the person or persons legally authorized to make such surrender are not known, any judge of superior court may cause a notice of hearing to be published in any newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county, and if he deems it best for such orphan, homeless, neglected or abused child, he may surrender it to any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of Washington and having for its object the care of such children.

(4) In cases where the child to be surrendered is illegitimate and is surrendered in writing by either parent, but not both parents, then the court shall hold a hearing on the surrender in the manner provided under section 8 of this 1973 amendatory act, and if the parent who has not agreed to the surrender in writing does not contest the surrender at such hearing, then such parent shall be deemed to have surrendered the child and the court shall authorize the surrender. This subsection shall not apply to or bar surrenders authorized under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) When any child shall have been surrendered in accordance with any of the preceding clauses and such child shall have been accepted by such society, then, (but not otherwise), the rights of its natural parents or of the guardian of its person (if any) shall cease and such corporation shall become entitled to the custody of such child, and shall have authority to care for and educate such child or place it either temporarily or permanently in a suitable private home in such manner as shall best secure its welfare. Such corporation shall have authority when any such child has been surrendered to it in accordance with any of the preceding provisions, and it is still in its control, to consent to its adoption under the laws of Washington. The custody or control of any such child by any such corporation or by any other corporation, institution, society or person may be inquired into, and, in the discretion of the court, terminated at any time by the superior court of the county where the child may be, upon the complaint of any person, and a showing that such custody is not in the interest of the child.

The court shall grant such petition if the parent who did not provide the surrender in writing fails to contest the petition at the hearing held thereon.

The notice required under this subsection shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of summons upon the person entitled thereto at least ten days prior to the hearing. In the event that a person entitled to notice under this subsection is a nonresident of the state or cannot after diligent search be found within the state, then:

(a) If the last known place of residence of such person is known, a copy of the notice shall be deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, directed to such person at his last known place of residence.

(b) If the last known place of residence of such person is not known then notice shall be made by publication in the manner required under subsection (3) of this section and as prescribed under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) Notice by publication shall be made in every case, except where service of the notice has been made on a person who either:

(a) acknowledges that he is a parent and the court finds him to be a parent, or

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 26.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The parents of an illegitimate child shall have primary rights to the custody of such child. Between the parents of an illegitimate child, that parent who is the more fit from the standpoint of furthering the child's welfare shall have the superior right to custody. In any dispute between the natural parents of an illegitimate child and person or persons who have (1) commenced adoption proceedings or who have been granted an order of adoption, and (2) pursuant to court order or placement by the department of social and health services or licensed agency have had actual custody of the child for a period of one year or more before court action is commenced by the natural parent or parents, the court shall consider the best welfare and interests of the child, including the child's need for situation stability, in determining the matter of custody, and the parent or person who is more fit shall have the superior right to custody.

MOTION

Senator Sandison moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-71

By Senators Sandison, Canfield and Odegaard:

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Washington has continuously during recent legislative sessions addressed the need to provide for effective and efficient vocational education services within the common schools and the community college systems; and

WHEREAS, Senate Concurrent Resolution 1971-23 directed that a study be made of the delivery systems for vocational education and the results of that study which have been presented to this Legislature indicated in summary that adequate data to answer the complex problems related to this issue had not been made available to date to advise the Legislature on organizational matters, although certain program and management systems proposals were recommended; and

WHEREAS, The recommendations from Senate Concurrent Resolution 23 proposed a continuation of the study to build upon the information already collected; and

WHEREAS, Two sharply differing philosophic approaches to confronting this problem have been introduced before the 1973 Legislature, and the Legislature has concluded it does not have sufficient information to determine whether these proposals are complementary or conflicting, and to what degree either would improve the delivery systems for vocational education in the State;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate that the Committee on Higher Education and the Committee on Education shall appoint a joint six-member study committee composed of the respective chairmen and two members from each committee, including representatives of both caucuses, to carry out a special study and report their recommendations concerning the desirability of modifying the state’s vocational education systems, such study to include but not be limited to the following issues:

1. development of planning, administrative and budgetary systems to provide efficient and effective secondary and post-secondary vocational education;

2. definition of the structural changes necessary to accomplish the goals in subsection (1);

3. determination of state planning mechanisms to assure coordination in policy development and consistency with the state’s plans for secondary and post-secondary education;

4. need for immediate expansion of vocational educational programs and facilities, and the funding thereof; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study committee may appoint an advisory committee composed of state educational administrators and representatives of industry and labor organizations to sit with the study committee during its deliberations to assist in framing the scope and direction of the study, and such advisory committee members will be allowed to critique and present views upon the data and information gathered in carrying out this study; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Coordinating Council for Occupational Education and the Advisory Council for Vocational Education shall provide the study committee with all data and documents relating to the Senate Concurrent Resolution 1971-23 study; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study committee may ask for and shall receive the cooperation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board for Community College Education, the Coordinating Council for Occupational Education, the Advisory Council for Vocational Education and the Council on Higher Education in conducting this study; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study committee during the course of its study will hold such public meetings as are deemed necessary and will consult with members of the trades, professions, and affected organizations for the purpose of determining the needs for vocational preparation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study committee may retain consultants to advise on technical areas as deemed appropriate; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of this study shall be reported not later than November 1, 1974, to the respective standing committees for their review and recommendation to be submitted to the 1975 regular legislative session.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? I have really two questions. First of all, had you ever considered making this a bipartisan committee; and the second thing, we had a little problem with this in the House side. Did you consider maybe having House members so that there is no reason for us to come up with a possible solution that would pass the Senate and get stalled in the House the next time we come back here?"
Senator Sandison: "No. In answer to your first question, if you will notice in the resolution it says from both caucuses, which would take care of that problem. As far as the House set-up, I do not know. We have not worked with resolutions on a joint study. I would presume that they would come up with one that it would be easy enough to make a joint study. But at least this signifies the intent of the Senate that they think that it is important enough that it should be looked at."

Senator Newschwander: "My first question, I probably did not ask the question correctly but I think the problem is so important that I was wondering whether you would consider equal representation and take it out of the field of politics. Personally, I would like to see the resolution rewritten so that there would be some House members of equal number and possibly consider having equal representation so that maybe if we came up with the conclusion that we did have a chance to get it through both the House and the Senate. We all remember the fight we had in 1967 and this is kind of the easy way out this session and I think we should come up with something that we have a chance."

Senator Sandison: "Of course, you remember in 1967 the agreement was that the community colleges would not take them over and that the vocational-technical institutes would not expand. I would have no particular objection to the House being involved in this. However, we do have a motion from Senator Gardner that the matter be held over, which is certainly amenable with me and that can be discussed later."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gardner, Senate Resolution 1973-1 was ordered held for consideration on the eighth order of business for Monday, April 9, 1973.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 782 and the Senate amendment thereto, Senators Mardesich, Whetzel and Grant.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the appointments were confirmed.

MOTION

At 7:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 6:30 p.m., Sunday, April 8, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
THIRTY-FIRST DAY

EVENING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 6:30 p.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Rasmussen and Whetzel. On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Whetzel was excused. There being no objection, Senator Rasmussen was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Dean Christopherson and Jeannine Roe, presented the Colors. Reverend Al Hulten, associate pastor of Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, EVERY TIME WE SEE THIS FLAG BROUGHT DOWN THE AISLE THERE COMES TO US A SENSE OF GRATITUDE FOR THIS GREAT NATION, AND FOR OUR GREAT PRIVILEGES. THANK YOU FOR THIS DAY OF FREEDOM. WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO WORSHIP YOU FREELY, AND TO SHARE WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS. MAY YOUR HAND EVER REST UPON THIS GREAT LAND AND ITS PEOPLE. BLESS THIS DAY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND HIS CABINET. GIVE THESE MEN THE STRENGTH THEY NEED IN THESE DAYS OF INTERNATIONAL STRESS. BLESS OUR GOVERNOR AND OUR STATE LEGISLATURE, AS WELL AS ALL LOCAL OFFICIALS IN GOVERNMENT AROUND THIS STATE. WE ARE TOLD IN SCRIPTURE TO PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE THE RULE OVER US, SO WE LIFT THEM UP BEFORE YOU NOW. GIVE STRENGTH OF CHARACTER AND OF PURPOSE TO ALL, WE PRAY. NOW GRANT, DEAR LORD, THE SMOOTH FLOW OF BUSINESS IN THIS EVENING SESSION OF THE SENATE. MAY EACH ONE HERE ASSEMBLED KNOW THE LIFT THAT ONLY YOU CAN GIVE. BLESS THEIR FAMILIES AND ALL THAT CONCERNS THEM. MAY THEIR MINDS AND HEARTS BE AT EASE TO DO THE WORK BEFORE THEM. THIS IS OUR PRAYER, THROUGH CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Perhaps Senator Walgren would know the answer to this question. Senator Sandison and myself and two or three other Senators signed a floor resolution which passed the Senate last time requesting that the committee study and prepare legislation for the possible fishing on the Hood Canal Bridge. This is something that has been before us for a long time. I wonder where is that legislation? Is it around? I have not seen it."

Senator Walgren: "The legislation has been prepared. It was introduced and is in the Committee on Utilities and Transportation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Henry: "Will Senator Walgren yield to a question? I notice a little figure called seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. If this should happen to be the standing committee, do you have any idea where the seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars is coming from?"

Senator Walgren: "Senator Henry, anticipating that type of a question, we just struck that by amendment."

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), House Bill No. 628 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Peterson yield to a question? Senator Peterson, I signed this bill out and I agreed to it, but I have had second thoughts. Don't you think they should pay these catch fees? A lot of this money goes into research and they benefit from that, too."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Talley, I think it would be rather unfair to impose a catch fee in addition to the present license that we have already established. Now if we reach a point in time to where we determine that the fee for the license that we grant them for the performance of aquaculture and raising fish in their own ponds is not heavy enough, I would say yes, but under the present circumstances all we are doing is exempting them from present catch fees because actually they are not catching them. They are in rearing ponds, they are in holding ponds. I would agree that perhaps this should be maybe put into an interim study. Perhaps their license fees are not big enough, but I do not think they should be subject to an open catch fee."

Senator Talley: "Would you join then with me in sponsoring a resolution to study this matter?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Talley, I would be very happy to."

Implementing laws relating to recall of elected public officials.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 21, after “including the” strike “time, date, location and”, and after “complained of” insert “and, to the extent known, the time, date, and location of each such act”.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 2, line 26, after “Sec. 2.” strike the remainder of the section and insert:
“Section 29.82.015, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.82.015 are each amended to read as follows:
In case the officer whose recall is to be demanded be a state officer, the person making the charge shall file the same with the secretary of state. In case the officer whose recall is to be demanded be a county officer, the person or persons making the charge shall file the same with the county auditor. In case the officer whose recall is to be demanded be an officer of an incorporated city or town, the persons making the charge shall file the same with the clerk of said city or town. In case the officer whose recall is to be demanded is an officer of any other political subdivision of the state, the persons making the charge shall file the same with the officer whose duty it is to receive and file petitions for nomination of candidates for the office concerning the incumbent of which the recall is to be demanded. The officer with whom the charge is filed shall serve a copy of such charge upon the officer whose recall is demanded not less than seven days prior to formulation of the ballot synopsis. Manner of service shall be the same as for commencement of a civil action in superior court.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would the Senator yield? You have a seven-day deal here.”
Senator Ridder: “Right.”
Senator Woodall: “Do not you think that is a little bit short? Seven days to reply and answer?”
Senator Ridder: “No, this is seven days prior to the formulation of the ballot synopsis.”

Senator Woodall: “That gives him seven days to get a different opinion now. Suppose he is out of town or on a vacation or something else? I think this recall thing should be based on fairness. Because some disgruntled people are angry at someone so a person is out of town, he is on a two-week vacation, you have a seven-day notice, I am just asking, isn’t that a bit short, in fairness?”

Senator Ridder: “Now this came from a situation in which some people were charged and they felt that this seven days was sufficient. However, I am more than willing to go along with you if you would like to change this to fourteen days.”

Senator Woodall: “I just happened to think, you know, before you recall a man from office, because you rule something one day, you are a county commissioner, you are a school board member, you are a city commissioner. So a group of people do not like how you voted or how you ruled and out comes this recall. And I think a seven-day deal is ridiculously short and I do not know what committee considered this or where you got the information to come up with your proposed amendment, but seven days to find out what you are accused of has just got to be absolutely un-American and contrary to all of our concepts of fairness. A seven-day notice to come back and answer your charges is wrong."

MOTION

At 11:20 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 12:45 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:45 p.m.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2825, by Senators Donohue and Jolly:
Providing for emergency alteration of streams by riparian owners.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Donohue and Talley:

On page 2, section 1, line 23, strike all the matter on lines 23, 24 and down to the period on line 25 and insert "secure an emergency permit designating the work to be done from the county engineer who shall report such activity to the director of the department of fisheries and the director of the department of game within twenty-four hours after issuance of the emergency permit".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Donohue Yield? Senator Donohue, my question is, I am not sure that you realize what you are doing to the department of hydraulics when you make such a change. As far as I have been able to judge, I have not found where at any time anyone has not received immediate oral permission to do these things. It seems like maybe you have a problem down there with a few people who have had problems with the Game Department or--not Game Department, with the people who have maybe infringed but you are really breaking down something here. You say that, in your verbal analysis, it will avoid the breakdown of the stream banks and things but you know with this you can go right into the middle of the stream and you can do things to a stream with spawning salmon coming up and bothering the spawn, the gravel and all that that goes with it. I do not know whether you realize that the department of hydraulics should be considered in something like this. I wish you would give me an answer on that."

Senator Donohue: "I understand what you are saying, Senator, and the point that I think that we have to realize is that sometimes in the flooding conditions when high, very high water is eroding away a stream bank that could be stopped in five minutes by placing a log or by moving some gravel or some heavy rock in the area, putting some riprap in, it probably is more damaging than what you are referring to. Now the reason, and this was the question that Senator Talley had and Senator Sandison, this is why we worked this out together, because we did not want a riparian owner to have the capability of just going into the stream at will and tearing it up and doing what you are saying. So this permit, under this amendment, would be issued only in an emergency by the county engineer and that work would be so designated as to exactly what he could do. It is not the intention of anyone, I am sure that you realize, to disrupt the spawning areas, but it is also very important and probably extremely important, as important I should say, that a property owner in case of emergency should be able to get in there and protect the property that he is paying taxes on. And this is what I am really talking about.”

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Donohue and Talley was adopted:

Amend the Donohue-Talley amendment to page 2, line 23 as follows:

On line 5 of the amendment, after “fisheries” insert “, the director of the department of ecology,”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): “Would Senator Donohue further yield? Senator Donohue, what I do not like about this is that it takes the Department of Game, which really means to do the right thing and in most cases where I have called they say there is no question. They give them the oral permission. Have you ever had a case in your particular case where you might have called them where you did not get speedy recovery on anything that you wanted? I think this should be clarified because the Department is trying to do the right thing and it sounds like here that they are being called in and suggested that they are not cooperating and I am sure we do not want that to be the case.”

Senator Donohue: “Senator, it has been my experience in Walla Walla and Columbia County and in Garfield County, which I am more acquainted with, and I think Senator Odgaard just mentioned that he has had the same problem, where the delay is so long in coming and it is usually in writing that they are just not doing what the law provides for them to do now. In the meantime, Senator, to protect the property many farmers go out and do the job anyway, which is illegal. This would give them an area where they could go and secure an emergency permit and be legal, because most farmers, most riparian owners, if at all possible, regardless of whether they get a permit or not, are going to try to protect their property. But I am interested in the spawn and I am interested in game and fisheries and the problems and I want to provide a way that will hopefully solve both problems where a permit shall be issued and where the Department of Fisheries and Game and Ecology now would be notified of this, and I see no problem. I think it is much better than we have now.”

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2825 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2825, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Doré, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Murray, Newschwander, Odgaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall. SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2897, by Committee on Financial Institutions (originally sponsored by Senator Clarke):
Making certain changes in the laws relating to small loan companies.
The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2897.
THIRTY-SECOND DAY, APRIL 9, 1973

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive, Francis and Dore:

On page 1, section 1, line 27 after "[one]" and before "thousand" strike "five" and insert "two".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, I was listening to your arguments on behalf of the amendment and several aspects of that amendment, and what I would like to know is that you indicated that the average loan at the small loan companies is six hundred and thirty-seven dollars. Right?"

Senator Greive: "Something about that."

Senator Fleming: "Something of that nature. Okay. And under the proposed amended bill, up to about seven hundred dollars, the person would pay less interest. Now what I want to know is, I agree with some of the aspects of your amendment and maybe it would be a little too harsh or unsellable to the small loan companies, why did not you do your amendment as it is and leave the thirty percent rather than the thirty-six because under the proposed amendment it was making it cheaper for the persons who are looking and need credit to get a loan that could not get them other places?"

Senator Greive: "The answer to that was that I received a letter yesterday, we all did, April 8, from Bob Seeber, Seeber and Shannon, in which he talks about the very small return which the small loan companies were making on their investments. Now in the first place, I have some question about that. For instance, our figures and the figures I have, and I have the commissioner's financial reports here with me, the annual report, indicate that before interest charges they earned in 1969 twenty-five point two percent, in 1970 twenty-three point four percent, in 1971 twenty-two point five percent and in 1972 twenty-three point six percent, but I do admit that their charges were as he had set them out; four point eight in 1967, in 1968 four point nine percent, in 1969 five point two percent, in 1970 five point one percent, in 1971 five point three percent, but then I flipped over and compared that with what the banks made in the same period and during the same period, 1967, when they were making four point eight the banks made one point one; in 1968 the banks made one point three as opposed to four point nine. In 1969 the banks made one point four as opposed to five point two. In 1970 the banks made one point three as opposed to five point one. In 1971 the banks made less than one percent, eight-tenths of one percent as opposed to five point three. I then attempted to go a little further and to my amazement these loan companies, virtually all of which are national companies, have about eleven percent that is transmitted, before they do anything, to the home office which is figured in here. I was unable to figure accurately whether or not when they showed this return on investment whether they included the borrowed money, and I thought that they did. So after looking at the whole dilemma I thought that if I was going to propose an amendment, I changed it actually because the original amendment did not, I changed it because I thought I had better be sure that nobody could get on this floor and say that they are going to lose money. And so I just left it that way so I knew it would be better than what they had, so to say lay the argument that somehow we were forcing them out of business."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Greive, continuing, in view of those percentages you read out and the possibility of what we are trying to do here, it would seem to me that they probably would not be losing money, and secondly, recognizing that many of the people that you say that you are interested in would probably not get up to the four and five thousand dollars anyway and as the average would be somewhere between five and eight hundred dollars, seemingly though you would have tried to in some manner make it easier in those first areas for these people to borrow."

Senator Greive: "In answer to that, Senator, if you will offer an amendment to strike the thirty percent, I will support it. I was merely trying to get away from the idea that I was trying to break the loan companies. It was in the interest of fairness, not in any interest of what anybody wanted. If you want to make it thirty percent for the first three hundred dollars, that is perfectly all right with me except that I just was not able, as best I could in analyzing the financial reports to the supervisor of banking, to be sure because I did not quite know what they included in their capital investment. To be sure that I was not doing something disastrous to them and I did not want to waylay the argument, but put the amendment up and I will support it.”

Debate ensued.

Senators Peterson (Lowell), Clarke and Atwood demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Guess demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Walgren, Jolly, Scott, Woodall and Dore.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Greive, Francis and Dore.

  On page 11, section 9, line 6 after "[twenty-five]" and before "and" strike "sixty" and insert "thirty-six".
  Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield please? As I understand it, you are reducing the term from five years which would be sixty months down to three years. Is that what this amendment does?"
Senator Greive: "Actually, this particular amendment would require another amendment which is still on the desk but that is what it eventually would do, yes."
Senator Woodall: "I mean, that is what you are getting at? You are reducing the term, is that what you are doing? That is your plan? Just so everyone knows what we are voting on is all I want to know. Thank you for that answer, Senator, you made it very clear."
Senator Greive: "Precisely as clear as I wanted to make it."
The motion by Senator Greive lost and the amendment was not adopted.

There being no objection, the remaining amendments on the Secretary's desk by Senators Greive, Francis and Dore were withdrawn.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
  On page 12, following section 12, add a new section to read as follows:

  "NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 31.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

  Before making a loan to any person, a licensee under this chapter shall make an investigation to determine if such person has given a security interest, perfected under Article 9 of Title 62A RCW, to another licensee under this chapter for a prior loan. No licensee shall make a loan to any person who is already indebted to another licensee under this chapter unless such prior loan is completely discharged by the payment of a portion of the proceeds of the current loan.

  Any violation of this section shall operate to totally discharge any obligation to pay either the principal or the interest on such current loan."
  Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger was adopted:
  On line 9 of the Bottiger amendment, after "shall" insert "knowingly".
  Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? I take it that you have not changed the second paragraph of your amendment? The entire obligation is discharged and no longer due and payable?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is right, Senator Atwood. If you do not check to see if there is not an outstanding security or if you knowingly lend to somebody that is already indebted, the penalty is you cannot collect your principal or interest."

Senator Woodall moved that the amendment by Senator Bottiger, as amended by Senator Grant, be laid upon the table.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Woody, Stortini, Connor, Grant, Rasmussen, Bailey, Washington and Bottiger.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a licensee may lend a sum of money in excess of two thousand dollars, except that the licensee then may charge, contract for, and receive thereon charges at a single rate not exceeding one percent per month on the total of the unpaid principal balance of the loan."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "My point of order is I believe this duplicates an amendment of Senator Greive's which we previously voted down. I believe it duplicates that amendment."
REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "I would like to explain why it did not duplicate it. That is why I could not answer your question, Senator. You said is this for three or five years. I knew this amendment was going to come. I knew there was an amendment on the floor at that time to limit it to three years. This does not have any three-year limitation and I felt at that time although I knew the answer, it was unwise to say it. The other amendment dealt with three years. This deals with five years. It does not duplicate what was done before."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "And the amendment had been withdrawn, was not acted upon."

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Day, Stortini, Washington, Bottiger, Francis, Ridder, Grant, Bailey and Dore.

On page 12, following Sec. 12 insert a new section to read as follows:

If, subsequent to the making of the loan, the borrower shall receive a discharge in bankruptcy the lender subsequent to such discharge in bankruptcy shall be prohibited from instituting an action in any of the courts of this state on the grounds that at the time of obtaining the loan the borrower had misrepresented or misstated his financial condition."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator Woodall, do you really want the Senate to believe that the small loan companies do not check those financial statements out through their credit bureau and all the other sources?"

Senator Woodall: "I do not know the details of a small loan organization. I have never represented one or been a part of one. I am only saying that there are instances where you take people at their word. I know in a bank you do. You do not double check everything they put down on a list, and again you have not answered the question. This amendment would reward a man who lied. And no man should profit for having lied to another."

Senator Greive demanded a roll call. The demand was not sustained.

The motion by Senator Woody failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2897 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardisich: “Will Senator Harry Lewis yield? Did we pass a bill yesterday directly related to the new section 2 that you are seeking to add here?”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “There were no amendments adopted yesterday.”

Senator Mardisich: “Does it conflict in any way with the other one and which would prevail if there is any distinction in the language?”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “We have checked with counsel, Senator Mardisich, and there is no conflict between section 2 and the bill passed the other day. It will not be a problem in the opinion of counsel.”

Regulatory purposes within the meaning of this provision shall include but not be limited to the salaries of all officials and personnel at the meet, the cost of services and equipment for the film patrol, the photo finish and the laboratory work, but shall exclude amounts paid to commissioners pursuant to RCW 67.16.017, per diem and travel expenses of employees, the cost of equipment and supplies used in connection with the licensing of personnel, and shall also exclude the cost of personnel and operating expense of the office of the commission at Olympia, Washington: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation on expenditures shall not apply to those race meets nonprofit in nature which are licensed pursuant to RCW 67.16.130 nor shall the limitation prevent the commission from spending up to $800.00 per day for regulatory purposes at any race meet.”

On page 8, section 10, line 33 of the engrossed bill, being page 8, line 20 of the printed bill, after "commission" insert "or its successor".

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 14, section 17, after line 14, insert a new subsection to read as follows:

"(1) Section 12, chapter 193, Laws of 1969 and RCW 39.58.120;"

Renumber the remaining subsections appropriately.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mar-desich: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, I recall when we passed that bill three or four years ago, the reason that we were asked to establish the treasury bill rate was the fact that it would raise our interest income. What has changed from then to now? Is this a peculiar drop in treasury note rates that happened a short while ago and if we do this now, would it be harming the situation later?"

Senator Ridder: "No, the problem is that we did not know at the time that we passed this just what would happen to that ninety-day bill auction rate and, as I said, last year it fell to 3.06. I do not think the people understood at the time the bill was passed that it would ever go that low, but you can see the differential there, that this is extremely harmful to public moneys and what we make off of them."

Senator Mar-desich: "I understand what you are saying but I am wondering whether that was a peculiar situation that caused that drop in the treasury rate, because as I recall the debate at that time, it was that it would render us the greater interest rate."

Senator Ridder: "I think, personally, from what I have talked to the people out here that the public deposit protection commission has the power to regulate this. It can set these fees and it is well within their power to set an equitable rate and I think that this hampers them considerably from doing the job they are supposed to do."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mard-esich, Engrossed House Bill No. 376, as amended by the Senate, was ordered held for further consideration on second reading following Engrossed House Bill No. 576.

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2586 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: “Can you tell me, Senator Durkan, what the impact of the recent social security increases would be on persons who are retired under these pensions and whether this bill takes that into consideration? Any coordination of social security increases to those persons that both have the benefits and the higher social security payment?”

Senator Durkan: “First, those that are receiving social security would receive it in addition to these benefits, and most of them do not have social security benefits that are in this category. Their average age, I think, is seventy-six years old and most of them do not receive the social security benefit.”
Senator Whetzel: "We were told in committee that some of them did. Will they receive both the increase in social security and the increase in pension?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes."

Senator Whetzel: "Do you consider that desirable for the state to pay for the increase in this pension when actually they may be at a satisfactory pension level with a higher social security?"

Senator Durkan: In answer, the number is decreasing so fast that I do not think that the inequities that occur in it are going to be that great."

Senator Whetzel: "Is this cost going to be picked up by the state or is it by the city?"

Senator Durkan: "No, it is not. The cities are going to have to pay for this and it is about a million dollars."

Senator Whetzel: "This is mandatory on the cities?"

Senator Durkan: "That is right. It is about a million and, Senator, probably this afternoon or tomorrow morning we are going to be on a little metro bill that the state then will have to pick up the tab."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2586, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 3.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 369, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

SENATE BILL NO. 2887, by Senators Donohue and Odegaard:
Limiting the transfer to justice courts of income from state traffic violations.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2887, limiting the transfer to justice courts of income from state traffic violations (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 14, after “than” and before “percent”, strike “forty-five” and insert “fifty”.
Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Canfield, Doré, Fleming, Grant, Ridder, Scott.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Donohue moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “Would Senator Donohue yield? We have not had a chance to caucus on this. Could you explain, not only what your amendment does, but what the entire Senate bill does? I think we ought to caucus on this before we bring this out for final vote.”

Senator Donohue: “Senator, I think that I can go through this and explain it very quickly and you will get the idea of what we are trying to do. In 1969 the legislature passed an act which distributed the schedule of fines and forfeitures. It was revised to give the court the first distribution for expenses, then the remainder, including drivers' education, was also distributed. In 1971 the distribution schedule was again revised to give traffic safety education a full amount of assessment. In 1968 the revenue from the fines and forfeitures was five point six million dollars. They spent at that time two point four million dollars. In 1972 the fines and forfeitures have increased to where they are collecting eight point one five million dollars and they were expending four point eight-nine million dollars. Now what this bill does actually is take some of this money and put it back where it originally was in the safety division of the Department of Motor Vehicles. The whole bill amounts to, according to the fiscal note, five hundred and forty-four thousand dollars. The point is that there is plenty of money there. This money is distributed by the counties today and it does not hurt drivers' education in any way and the Department of Motor Vehicles has built into its budget the need for this amount of money for its traffic safety division. In essence, that is the whole bill right there.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Donohue, Senate Bill No. 2887, together with the pending committee amendment, was ordered placed on the second reading calendar following Substitute House Bill No. 53.
SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 418, by Representatives Ceccarelli, Bagnariol and Gaspard (by Department of General Administration request):

Providing additional regulations for bank and trust company investments.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 418, the pending amendment by Senator Whetzel and the Point of Order raised by Senator Henry previously today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Henry, the President finds that House Bill No. 418 is a banking measure which limits loaning authority of financial institutions with regard to taking its own stock for security, amends the laws with reference to the right to hold real estate and corrects filing procedures for application for new certificates. The amendment proposed by Senator Whetzel, however, pertains to the acquisition of local financial institutions by alien financial institutions. Therefore, the President believes that the amendment does increase the scope and object of House Bill No. 418 and the point as presented by Senator Henry is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Whetzel was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Dore, House Bill No. 418 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

SENATE BILL NO. 2385, by Senators Durkan, Peterson (Ted) and Bailey (by Washington State Teachers' Retirement System request):
Implementing law relating to the state teachers' retirement system.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 7, 1973.

SENATE BILL NO. 2385, implementing law relating to the state teachers' retirement system (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"Section 1. Section 16, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.497 are each amended to read as follows:
Any member who qualifies for a retirement allowance which is effective on or after July 1, 1970 shall receive a retirement allowance consisting of: (1) an annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at his age of retirement, (2) [A] a basic service pension of one hundred dollars per annum, and (3) [A] a service pension which shall be equal to one one-hundredth of his average earnable compensation for his two highest compensated consecutive years of service times the total years of creditable service established with the retirement system: PROVIDED, That no member or retired member shall receive a pension of less than [five] six dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of creditable service established with the retirement system. Pension benefits payable under the provisions of this section shall be prorated on a monthly basis and paid at the end of each month.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any member of the teachers' retirement system who decides to retire after the effective date of this act shall be entitled to receive any new or increased benefits resulting from (a) the enactment of legislation creating a new retirement system through a merger of the public employees' retirement system and the teachers' retirement system; or, (b) benefit liberalizations of the teachers' retirement system.
This section shall not be effective after June 30, 1974."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Strike all of the title and insert the following:

"An Act relating to the Washington state teachers' retirement system; amending section 16, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.497; adding a new section to chapter 41.32 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Canfield, Dore, Fleming, Gardner, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Marsh, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Scott.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment by Senators Woodall and Mardesich to the committee amendment was adopted:

Amend the committee amendment to section 1 as follows:

In line 13 of the amendment after "system:" insert "PROVIDED, That for the purpose of retirement the highest two consecutive years of average final compensation shall be calculated at the contract rate without regard to deductions which may be occasioned by reason of leave for governmental service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That employee contribution must be calculated and paid at the contract rate;" and on line 13, after "PROVIDED" insert "FURTHER".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator Woodall, does your amendment provide that they will pay at the contract rate into the retirement fund?"

Senator Woodall: "Yes, they do anyway. Senator Mardesich has answered that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, is it your understanding that the effort is to be made and that it is our intent in this legislature, within the next year after the Touche-Ross report is in, that we bring this system up and bring as much equity between the PERS and teachers' retirement systems as possible?"

Senator Ridder: "The intent is to improve benefits and I think that we can say we will improve benefits, and I would amplify that outside the record."

Senator Bailey: "Is the answer yes or no?"

Senator Ridder: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, I think you were off the floor. There was an amendment adopted that would say that for teacher legislators that their salary will be considered for the pension purposes at their contract rate. And I wish that you would have the Pension Commission and the attorneys take a look at that amendment because I think it is kind of fouled up as to how they are going to get the contribution. At the present time, of course, the contribution is going in at the five percent rate as a legislator on the three hundred dollars a month and I cannot see how they are going to get that contribution rate up on the teachers' salaries so I think it needs some clearing up."

Senator Ridder: "As you noticed, I did not vote on this measure and I will not vote on this measure and the House will have this bill shortly and they will be able to deliberate on the wisdom of what we have done. I think we should leave it to them and I think they can handle it."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, whether you vote on it or not is immaterial to my question. I thought that Senator Rasmussen was asking you how it was to be financed and you just answered that you were not going to vote on the measure."

Senator Ridder: "Senator, I feel that this is a conflict of interest as far as I am concerned. I am a teacher legislator. I am going to leave the floor. I am not going to vote on this issue and I do not feel that I should take part in discussion of this. Senator Woodall drew the amendment. Ask Senator Woodall how he feels it shall be funded because I think this is his problem."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, will Senator Woodall yield? Senator, do you have a conflict of interest?"

Senator Woodall: "No, I have no conflict of interest. Of course not. Senator Durkan made an oral amendment which told you how it would be funded. It said, 'provided that it was paid in at the same contract rate.' It has already been amended."

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, I am not satisfied with his answer."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "In view of a possible conflict of interest, I ask that my vote be expunged and I will withdraw from the floor if necessary, Mr. President."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Under the provision of the Constitution, Senator Canfield will not vote."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Does that conflict of interest, I know there is a conflict sometimes. I am married to a school teacher. Does that extend also to my vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President thinks not, Senator Rasmussen. The President believes that Senator Canfield, in his own honest opinion, should not vote, and the President is willing to accept his statement."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "I was asking only for my purpose, too. There are conflicts in being married to a school teacher sometimes, yes. There are good conflicts, too."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Rasmussen, Senator Canfield made his own determination. The President believes the same situation applies to you. Do you wish to vote, Senator Rasmussen?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, under 276 there are so many questions I had probably better be listed as an expunged vote. Merely list me as not voting, Mr. President."
REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "If Senator Rasmussen is so inclined, it is so ordered."

The motion by Senator Ridder carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2385 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2385, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 6.

Voting nay: Senator Greive—1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Canfield, Metcalf, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison—6.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2385, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 685, by Representatives Kuehnle, Anderson and North (Lois):

Providing that fire districts may contract with the state authority owning adjacent lands for fire protection.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Talley, Engrossed House Bill No. 685 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Talley yield? Senator, the bill says that the state shall contract with the local fire districts. I was just wondering what happens if the state and the fire districts cannot agree on the amounts? What is contemplated there, no fire protection?"

Senator Talley: "I am sure that would not happen. If they cannot agree to the amount they will probably be back in the next session and we will be putting some legislation through here to compel them to, but I am sure they will be able to get fire service, yes."

ROLL CALL

WHEREAS, Such service resulted in his being captured and held as a prisoner of war for over five years under very primitive conditions, evidenced by a lack of adequate food, medical and dental care; and

WHEREAS, In an attempt to cause Larry much mental and emotional distress, during long periods of his captivity he was permitted little or no contact with his wife, Molly, his daughters, Laurie and Brenda, his mother, Mary Lou, or his father, Joe; and

WHEREAS, Larry has now been reunited with his family and has returned to his native city, Lacey, Washington to meet with many of his friends and relatives; and

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Before I make the motion to advance, I would like to explain to the Senate what is involved. Captain Larry Writer was honored today in the House and brought to the rostrum and it was at my suggestion that, because he is tired and because the Senate has so much work, that we would just pass a resolution honoring Captain Larry Writer who is from Thurston County and recently came home. He spent five years in Viet Nam. Many of you, I think, knew his mother, Mary Lou Writer, who worked in the House for many years. He is home and he is back with his family and there were many boys from across the state who did serve over there. There were twenty-eight from Thurston County who did not return. And so in presenting this resolution today, gentlemen, to honor Captain Larry Writer, I do so in the name of those twenty-eight men from Thurston County who did not return and in the names of those many men from across the state who also did not return, and in the names of those who did serve so valiantly and are back with us again, and in the name of Captain Larry Writer who we are proud to have back with us, who is an outstanding American boy who was honored in Lacey recently, last weekend, and a boy who I hope you will all get to know. We are proud of him.”

Senator Day: "On the water. By that I mean right on the water."

Senator Donohue: The last time I flew over there, there were several people in the water but I did not see anybody living on the water."

Senator Day: "Thank you."

On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2366 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2366, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Durkan, Greive, Murray, Newschwander, Van Hollebeke—5.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis (Harry), Metcalf, Ridder—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2366, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House refuses to recede from the House amendments to ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2096, and asks the Senate for a conference thereon, and the Speaker has appointed as conferees: Representatives Bauer, Goltz and Tilly.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Henry, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2096 and the House amendments thereto.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2096 and the House amendments thereto: Senators Gardner, Guess and Odegaard.
THIRTY-THIRD DAY, APRIL 10, 1973

MOTION

On motion of Senator Atwood, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MOTION

At 5:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Madesich, the Senate recessed until 8:00 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 8:00 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Madesich, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 376, as amended by the Senate.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 376, by Representatives Gallagher, Johnson, Polk and King:

Creating an investment advisory committee and providing for the investment of certain public funds.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 376, as amended by the Senate, and the pending amendment by Senator Ridder to page 14, section 17 inserting new subsection (1).

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Madesich: "I raise the question of scope and object."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Madesich, it develops that House Bill No. 376 is a measure setting up an investment advisory committee to assist and advise in the investment policies of the State Finance Committee. The amendment proposed by Senator Ridder, however, changes the duties and powers of the Public Deposit Protection Commission with reference to fixing rates on all public funds invested in public depositories. The President believes, as Senator Clarke stated, that the amendment obviously deals with a subject much broader than the bill and therefore changes the scope and object of the bill. Therefore, the point of order as presented by Senator Madesich is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Ridder was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Engrossed House Bill No. 376, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 376, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Madesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Voting nay: Senator Newschwanter—1.
Absent or not voting: Senators Grant, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Talley, Twigg—5.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 376, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2749.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2749, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senator Walgren):
Implementing law relating to the environmental impact of highways.
On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2749 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Did I hear you correctly that there was a lawsuit based on a holdup due to the national environmental act? Was that your statement?"
Senator Walgren: "That is one, yes."
Senator Woodall: "Then what has that got to do with this bill? You are not suggesting that we can amend the national environmental act?"
Senator Walgren: "No, I am not."
Senator Woodall: "So that the four million dollar lawsuit you talked about has no relationship to the state of Washington then. It is a federal problem."
Senator Walgren: "We have a similar example, however, Senator Woodall, with regard to . . . ."
Senator Woodall: "Would you just answer that first question? My first question was, what you cited has nothing to do with this act at all. That was a federal matter."
Senator Walgren: "The holdup, as far as the construction up on Snoqualmie Pass, was based predominantly upon NEPA, the National Environmental Protection Act."
Senator Woodall: "Right. So that four million dollar suit has nothing to do with this state act. It is a federal matter."
Senator Walgren: "Well, it is an action that is brought against the state of Washington and something that we as taxpayers are going to have to pay."
Senator Woodall: "Yes, but it has nothing to do with our act and we cannot amend the federal act."
Senator Walgren: "Except that our act is patterned very basically under the National Environmental Policy Act."
Senator Woodall: "Senator, as a very good lawyer you know we cannot amend the federal act."
Senator Walgren: "I am not trying to amend it, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Walgren yield to a question? I notice on page 7, line 13, section 9, it says, 'The provisions of this chapter shall apply to every highway project in the state highway system for which a public hearing was held or will be held after August 9, 1971. I just wonder how many projects will this legalize by the passage of this act and which ones you are talking about. What do you have in mind?"

Senator Walgren: "I do not know."

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2749 be re-referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Walgren was amended by Senator Mardesich that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2749 be re-referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities with instructions that the committee report back in September should the Governor call the legislature into session.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "I would like to ask a question of Senator Rasmussen. Senator Mattingly and I were a little concerned. He said Tom Garlington was the leading ecologist and I said environmentalist. Which was it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "It is a combination of both. I have known Tom a long time and he has a great concern, not alone for the Highway Department as the employer, but for the country as a whole."

Senator Jones: "He is a combination of both, then. This comes as a real surprise. Thank you."

Senator Rasmussen: "I might, in further answer, in all concern with Senator Woodall, of course as an attorney for the Highway Department he is supposed to defend the Highway Department as you, an attorney representing someone else, defend them. So he should not be condemned for that. And as far as the drafting of the bill goes, it is an excellent bill and I think when Senator Washington gets a chance to look at it and Senator Murray gets it explained by Senator Washington, they will probably agree it is a fine bill."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Washington: "I want to perhaps try to put something into the proper perspective. I do not think this should be a question of personality as far as an attorney for the Department of Highways is concerned. I happen to feel very close to Tom Garlington, who worked with me as an attorney in the Transportation Committee. He was probably the first real ecologist who worked with the legislature in working for the billboard control, which was really one of the first moves towards environment. I know he has a concern for the environment and I know that he also is an attorney for the Highway Department. He is not the one who makes policy. He is the one who handles the legal side. He is the one who attempts to draft legislation that will bring about what is needed by his client, the Department of Highways. And I really think that those of us who do feel that the environment needs protection, that we should talk about the issues and I do not think we should bring Tom Garlington into this as a personality. I just happen to feel that he is a fine man, a fine attorney, and he is attempting to do a job for his client."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "I wonder if Senator Mardesich will yield to a question? I was off the floor and you amended that motion and I heard you say September and I wanted to find out which September we were talking about, 1978, '80 or . . . ."

Senator Mardesich: "I suspect it will be every one from now on."

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, APRIL 10, 1973 1339
SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2813, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Durkan and Atwood):
Providing financial support for public mass transit programs.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 9, beginning on line 11, strike all of section 7, and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 35.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:
(1) During the two fiscal years from July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1975, no municipality as defined in RCW 35.58.272 which has been authorized to levy a special excise tax pursuant to RCW 35.58.273 may levy an amount in each of such fiscal years greater than the maximum amount established pursuant to the following formula:
For each of the fiscal years 1973-74 and 1974-75 the total amount of such special excise taxes levied by all municipalities shall be $6,000,000 per year and each municipality may levy not to exceed the proportion of such total amount which its population bears to the total population of all municipalities levying such tax. Prior to May 1, 1973 and May 1, 1974 each municipality desiring to levy an excise tax during the immediately following fiscal year shall so advise the director of the department of motor vehicles. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied by the office of program planning and fiscal management to the director of the department of motor vehicles, who shall determine the maximum amount of the excise tax levy for each qualifying municipality and shall certify such amount to each such municipality prior to June 1 of each of the years 1973 and 1974.
(2) In addition to any other authority now provided by law, any municipality, including a metropolitan municipal corporation, shall be authorized to issue general obligation bonds for public mass transportation purposes with the principal and interest on said bonds to be paid from such taxes as shall be authorized to be levied by such municipality including motor vehicle excise taxes. Such bonds shall be issued and sold subject to the terms and limitations and in the manner provided in RCW 35.58.450: PROVIDED, That no municipality may issue general obligation bonds secured by or payable from motor vehicle excise taxes which bonds mature later than June 30, 1981.
(3) Any federal funds received in excess of those anticipated in annual local transit budgets shall be used in lieu of state funds distributed to municipalities pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act. An amount equal to the excess federal funds received shall be returned to the state treasurer and deposited in the state general fund."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator Atwood, I note in your discussion that the bill that we sent down to the Governor had a closed end on it. Is that correct?"

Senator Atwood: "That is correct."

Senator Woodall: "As the bill was sent down to him it would have cost the state how much?"

Senator Atwood: "I think the bill that we sent down the last time carried a three million dollar appropriation and had an expiration date of June 30, 1973, which is this year."

Senator Woodall: "It would have cost three million. So after we go home the old item veto comes out, takes off the end and now we are up to eighty-nine million."

Senator Atwood: "Well, that is over the next five years' minimum."

Senator Woodall: "So we spend three million while we are here. We go home and unbeknownst to us, with the use of a pencil, we spend up to that added sum of eighty-nine. Is that true?"

Senator Atwood: "I might point out, Senator, that we spent more than that because Metro and the other agencies were enabled to get an additional six point nine three five million this biennium without any appropriation, by virtue of match."

Senator Woodall: "That is just some of the added benefits of the item veto."
Senator Atwood: "That is probably true."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Bob): "Will Senator Durkan yield? I need merely clarification. I have been told by Dick Hemstad that if this bill fails there is no appropriation, no part of the twenty-nine million nor the twelve million will be available for Metro or the municipalities. My caucus leader has an opinion to the contrary. Would you please be kind enough to enlighten me as to what you see the facts as being?"

Senator Durkan: "The answer is that we have agreed, I think on the floor someone asked me when the main budget went through and I told them that we were trying to work out the answer as to the twelve million, but in any event, the twelve million would be appropriated, so Senator Atwood was correct."

Senator Mardesich demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Lewis (Harry), Jones, Woodall, Bottiger, Rasmussen, Sandison, Walgren, Scott and Jolly.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 22; nays, 20; excused, 7.

Absent or not voting: Senators Grant, Greive, Henry, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Talley, Twigg—7.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 12, section 9, line 14, after "Sec. 9," and before "1973" strike "This" and insert "Sections 1 through 6 and section 8 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not take effect until June 30, 1981, and the remainder of this" and on page 12, section 11, beginning on line 29, after "distribution" strike the matter down to "to" on line 30.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 8 of the title after "adding" and before "to" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections" and on line 17 of the title after "appropriation," and before "and" insert "prescribing an effective date".

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2813 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

Senator Matson moved that Senators Peterson (Ted), Newschwander and Twigg be excused.

Debate ensued.

The motion carried on a rising vote, and Senators Peterson (Ted), Newschwander and Twigg were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2813, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 17; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Clarke, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Day, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison, Sellar, Stortini, Wanamaker, Woodall, Woody—17.

Absent or not voting: Senators Grant, Greive, Talley—3.

Excused: Senators Newschwander, Peterson (Ted)—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2813, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

Last Tuesday night during the debate on the Metro Bill a motion was made to excuse Senators Ted Peterson, Newschwander and Twigg. I objected because a few minutes before the Metro amendment, providing state matching funds for metro, had passed by a vote of 22 to 20. I thought that the motion was an attempt to excuse Senators and make them not subject to the call. One of the Senators sought to be excused was Senator Ted Peterson, who I knew to be a yes vote for Metro. There was absolutely no intent on my part to embarrass Senator Peterson or to force him into an unexcused absence. We needed 25 votes to pass Metro and my objection was to secure those needed 3 votes.

(signed by) Senator Fred Dore.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 52.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 52, by Committee on Ways and Means—Revenue (originally sponsored by Representatives Newhouse, Randall, North (Lois) and Zimmerman) (by Legislative Council request):

Providing for a limited leasehold in lieu tax.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 52, providing for a limited leasehold in lieu tax (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, section 4, line 33, being line 5 of the House Amendment to page 4, line 31, after "this act" strike the period and insert ", and (3) all leasehold estates of lands owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in the United States; and (5) all leasehold estates held by enrolled Indians of lands owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribe where the fee ownership of such property is vested in or held in trust by the United States".

On page 8, section 11, line 30, being line 4 of the House amendment to page 8, line 20, after "United States" strike all the matter down to the period on line 32 of the engrossed bill, being through and including page 9, line 2 of the printed bill.

On page 10, section 14, line 14, being line 4 of the House amendment to page 10, line 23, after "United States" strike all the matter down to the period on line 15 of the engrossed bill, being line 26 of the printed bill.

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman: Atwood, Canfield, Fleming, Marsh, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the committee amendments were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Durkan yield? This is kind of far-reaching, this taxing a leasehold interest. What does that do to leasehold interest on federal lands? In other words, someone leases from an Indian, to be specific."

Senator Durkan: "We just took care of that with the amendment, Senator. This does not require any economic rent requirement as far as leasehold interest on Indian lands is concerned."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, what is implied by the definition of 'renegotiated' in section 3, subsection (3) on page 4?"

Senator Durkan: "It is the intent of this legislation that there is a 'renegotiation' only when there is an adjustment of rent or other consideration payable to the lessor at the time of an extension or renewal of the lease itself.

"Long-term leases including escalator clauses or rental readjustment clauses are not deemed renegotiated unless they are extended or renewed at the time of readjustment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 52, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 52, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Grant, Greive, Henry, Talley--4.

Excused: Senators Newschwander, Peterson (Ted)--2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 52, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

An owner of open space or timber land desiring current use classification under subsections (1) and (3) of section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act shall make application to the county legislative authority upon forms prepared by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. Said application shall require only such information reasonably necessary to properly classify an area of land under this [chapter] 1973 amendatory act with a notarized verification of the truth thereof and shall include a statement that the applicant is aware of the potential tax liability involved when such land ceases to be designated as open space, farm and agricultural or timber land. An owner who receives notice that his application has been denied may appeal such denial to the county board of equalization. Within ten days following approval of the application, the assessor shall submit notification of such approval to the county auditor for recording in the place and manner provided for the public recording of state tax liens on real property.

The assessor shall, as to any such land, make a notation each year on the assessment list and the tax roll of the assessed value of such land for the use for which it is classified in addition to the assessed value of such land were it not so classified.

The assessor shall also file notice of both such values with the county treasurer, who shall record such notice in the place and manner provided for recording delinquent taxes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Applications for classification under section 2 subsection (1) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act shall be made to the county legislative authority. An application made for classification of land under section 2 subsection (1)(b), or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act which is in an area subject to a comprehensive plan shall be acted upon in the same manner in which an amendment to the comprehensive plan is processed. Application made for classification of land which is in an area not subject to a comprehensive plan shall be acted upon after a public hearing and after notice of the hearing shall have been given by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area at least ten days before the hearing: PROVIDED, That applications for classification of land in an incorporated area shall be acted upon by a determining authority composed of three members of the county legislative body and three members of the city legislative body in which the land is located.

In determining whether an application made for classification under section 2, subsection (1)(b), or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act should be approved or disapproved, the granting authority may take cognizance of the benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property which is the subject of application, and may consider whether or not preservation of current use of the land will (1) conserve or enhance natural or scenic resources, (2) protect streams or water supplies, (3) promote conservation of soils, wetlands, beaches or tidal marshes, (4) enhance the value of abutting or neighboring parks, forests, wildlife preserves, nature reservations, sanctuaries, or other open spaces, (5) enhance recreation opportunities, (6) preserve historic sites, (7) affect any other factors relevant in weighing benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property against the potential loss in revenue which may result from granting the application: PROVIDED, That the granting authority may approve the application with respect to only part of the land which is the subject of the application: PROVIDED
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1973

FURTHER, That if any part of the application is denied, the applicant may withdraw the entire application: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting authority in approving in part or whole an application for land classified pursuant to section 2(1) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act may also require that certain conditions be met, including but not limited to the granting of easements: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting or denial of the application for current use classification is a legislative determination and shall be reviewable only for arbitrary and capricious actions.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The granting authority shall immediately notify the county assessor and the applicant of its approval or disapproval which shall in no event be more than six months from the receipt of said application. No land other than farm and agricultural land shall be considered qualified under this chapter until an application in regard thereto has been approved by the appropriate legislative authority.

(2) When the granting authority finds that land qualifies under this chapter, it shall file notice of the same with the assessor within ten days. The assessor shall, as to any such land, make a notation each year on the assessment list and the tax roll of the assessed value of such land for the use for which it is classified in addition to the assessed value of such land were it not so classified.

(3) Within ten days following receipt of the notice from the granting authority that such land qualifies under this chapter, the assessor shall submit such notice to the county auditor for recording in the place and manner provided for the public recording of state tax liens on real property.

(4) The assessor shall also file notice of both such value with the county treasurer, who shall record such notice in the place and manner provided for recording delinquent taxes.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining the true and fair value of open space land[,] farm and agriculture land[,] and timber land, which has been classified as such under the provisions of this chapter, the assessor shall consider only the use to which such property and improvements is currently applied and shall not consider potential uses of such property. The assessor shall compute the assessed value of such property by using the same assessment ratio which he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property: PROVIDED, That the assessed valuation of open space land with no current use shall not be less than that which would result if it were to be assessed for agricultural uses.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When land other than farm and agricultural land has once been classified under this chapter, it shall remain under such classification and shall not be applied to other use for at least ten years from the date of classification and shall continue under such classification until and unless withdrawn from classification after notice of request for withdrawal shall be made by the owner. During any year after [seven] eight years of the initial ten-year classification period have elapsed, notice of request for withdrawal of all or a portion of the land, which shall be irrevocable, may be given by the owner to the county assessor or assessors of the county or counties in which such land is situated. In the event that a portion of a parcel is removed from classification, the remaining portion must meet the same requirements as did the entire parcel when such land was originally granted classification pursuant to this chapter. Within seven days the county assessor shall transmit one copy of such notice to the legislative body which originally approved the application. The county assessor or assessors, as the case may be, shall, when [three] two assessment years have elapsed following the date of receipt of such notice, withdraw such land from such classification [: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall impose and collect upon the property for the seven years last past an amount which would be the difference between the property tax paid as “open space land”, “farm and agricultural land”, or “timber land” and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable had the land not been so classified, and the owner shall be liable therefore, and the same may be collected, as in the case of any other property taxes levied against the land: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the county treasurer shall impose and collect interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty each year if the land had been assessed at a value computed without regard to this chapter and the land shall be subject to the additional tax due under section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That agreement to tax according to use shall not be considered to be a contract and can be abrogated at any time by the [state] legislature in which event no additional tax or penalty shall be imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When farm and agricultural land has once been classified under this chapter, it shall remain under such classification and shall not be applied to other uses unless withdrawn from classification after notice of request for withdrawal shall be made by the owner. Notice of request for withdrawal of all or a portion of such land, which shall be irrevocable, may be given by the owner to the county assessor or assessors of the county or counties in which such land is situated. In the event that a portion of the land is removed from classification, the remaining portion must meet all applicable requirements of section 2 (2) of this 1973 amendatory act. The county assessor or assessors, as the case may be, shall withdraw such land from such classification and the land shall be subject to the additional tax due under section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That agreement to tax according to use shall not be considered to be a contract and can be abrogated at any time by the state in which event no additional tax or penalty shall be imposed.

Sec. 10. Section 8, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.080 are each amended to read as follows:

When land which has been [assessed] classified under this chapter as open space land [, farm and agricultural land,] or timber land is applied to some other use, except through compliance with RCW 84.34.070, or except as a result [of the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or except as a result of a sale to a public body] solely from any one of the conditions listed in section 13 (5) of this 1973 amendatory act, the owner shall within sixty days notify the county assessor of such change in use and additional real property tax shall be imposed upon such land in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

1. The total amount [, if any, which would be the difference between the property tax paid as “open space land”, “farm and agricultural land”, or “timber land”, and the property tax otherwise due and payable had the land not been so classified during a maximum of twenty years for timber land, or fourteen years for other land preceding the year in which the assessor extends such additional tax on the tax roll] of the additional tax due under section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act, plus

2. A penalty amounting to twenty percent of the amount determined in subsection (1) of this section [, plus].

3. Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax and penalty until paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty each year if the land had been assessed at a value computed without regard to this chapter.

4. The provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall not apply in the event that the change in use results from the sale of land classified under this chapter within two years after the death of the owner of at least fifty percent of such land.]

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The true and fair value of farm and agricultural land shall be determined by consideration of the earning or productive capacity of comparable lands from crops grown most typically in the area averaged over not less than five years, capitalized at indicative rates. The earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be the “net cash rental”, capitalized at a “rate of interest” charged on long term loans secured by a mortgage on farm or agricultural land plus a component for property taxes.

For the purposes of the above computation:

1. The term “net cash rental” shall mean the average rental paid on an annual basis, in cash or its equivalent, for the land being appraised and other farm and agricultural land of similar quality and similarly situated that is available for lease for a period of at least three years to any reliable person without unreasonable restrictions on its use for production of agricultural crops. There shall be allowed as a deduction from the rental received or computed any costs of crop production charged against the landlord if the costs are such as are customarily paid by a landlord. If "net cash rental" data is not available, the earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be determined by the cash value of typical or usual crops grown on land of similar quality and similarly situated averaged over not less than five years. Standard costs of production shall be allowed as a deduction from the cash value of the crops.

The current "net cash rental" or "earning capacity" shall be determined by the assessor with the advice of the advisory committee as provided in section 12 of this 1973 amendatory act, and through a continuing study within his office, assisted by studies of the department of revenue. This net cash rental figure as it applies to any farm and agricultural land may be challenged before the same boards or authorities as would be the case with regard to assessed values on general property.

(2) The term "rate of interest" shall mean the rate of interest charged by the farm credit administration and other large financial institutions regularly making loans secured by farm and agricultural lands through mortgages or similar legal instruments, averaged over the immediate past five years.

The "rate of interest" shall be determined annually by the revenue department of the state of Washington with the advice of the state advisory committee as provided in section 12 of this 1973 amendatory act, and such determination shall be published not later than January 1 of each year for use in that assessment year. The determination of the revenue department may be appealed to the state board of tax appeals by any owner of farm or agricultural land or the assessor of any county containing farm and agricultural land.

(3) The "component for property taxes" shall be a percentage equal to the estimated millage rate times the legal assessment's ratio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The county legislative authority shall appoint a five member committee representing the active farming community within the county to serve in an advisory capacity to the county assessor in implementing assessment guidelines as established by the department of revenue for the assessment of open space, farms and agricultural lands, and timber lands classified pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act.

A state advisory committee consisting of the director of the department of revenue or his designated representative, one member of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, and one member of the house appointed by the speaker of the house, and three members from the agricultural business community appointed by the agriculture commodity council shall serve in an advisory capacity to the state department of revenue as provided in sections 11 and 18 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When land has once been classified under this 1973 amendatory act, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls and such land shall be valued pursuant to sections 7 or 11 of this 1973 amendatory act until removal of all or a portion of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove all or a portion of such designation;

(b) Passage of sixty days following the sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner without receipt of a notice of compliance from the new owner. Notice of compliance forms shall be prepared by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. Said notice shall contain a statement that the new owner is aware of the use classification of the land and of the potential tax liability involved when such land ceases to be designated as open space, farm and agricultural or timber land;

(c) Sale or transfer to an ownership making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for the purposes under which it was granted classification.
(2) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.
(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies.
Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, an additional tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. The assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax shall be equal to:
(a) The difference between the property tax paid as "open space land", "farm and agricultural land", or "timber land" and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified; plus
(b) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the land had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter.
(4) Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050 now or as hereafter amended.
From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.
(5) The additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:
(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other land located within the state of Washington;
(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;
(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.
(d) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the landowner changing the use of such property.
(e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located which disallows the present use of such land.
(f) Transfer to a church and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.020.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:
The owner of any land as to which additional tax is imposed as provided in this 1973 amendatory act shall have with respect to valuation of the land and imposition of the additional tax all remedies provided by Title 84 RCW.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The assessor may require owners of land classified under this chapter to submit pertinent data regarding the use of the land, productivity of typical crops, and such similar information pertinent to continued classification and appraisal of the land.

chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

of this 1973 amendatory act which meets the definition of farm and agricultural land under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, upon request for such change made by the owner to the county assessor, shall be reclassified by the county assessor under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act. This change in classification shall be made without additional tax, penalty, or other requirements: PROVIDED, That subsequent to such reclassification, the land shall be fully subject to the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Nothing in this 1973 amendatory act shall be construed as in any manner affecting the method for valuation of timber standing on timber land which has been classified under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act.

This change in classification shall be made without additional tax, penalty, or other requirements set forth in chapter 84.34 RCW: PROVIDED, That subsequent to such reclassification, the land shall be fully subject to the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: “Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? I am very much in favor of this bill and the concept but you mentioned that presently it would lose, I think you said roughly six million dollars, but with your last three amendments which we are really debating, the loss would be much less. By these amendments, who will not be able to get the tax break under this bill?”

Senator Donohue: “Senator, the rollback provision that we put back in here, that is the thing that we are talking about and this is the thing that has been bandied around for quite awhile. The important thing, I think, is that when we speak about a decrease in ad valorem property taxes that we are presently paying, you have to remember, that we are speaking about a decrease of anticipated revenue. The steady increase of property taxes. This is the main reason for the decline.”

Senator Metcalf: “Okay. One other question. Does this bill in its present form now help the small person, the retired person living on the outskirts of Lynnwood who has an eight-acre place that he has and he is renting out for horse pasture, maybe at five dollars a month?”

Senator Donohue: “With Senator Talley’s amendment, yes, this is true.”
Senator Metcalf: “Then Senator Talley’s amendment applies to more than just timber?”

Senator Donohue: “This is primarily for timber. The present open space law says that you have to have six acres producing a thousand dollars an acre or twenty acres producing five hundred dollars an acre. We have not changed that. That is the present law.”

Senator Metcalf: “So we are really not helping the person with the eight acres that he is renting out for horse pasture just for a minor amount?”
Senator Donohue: “No, Senator, it does not.”
Senator Metcalf: Maybe next year. I keep asking every year. Maybe next year we will start helping the vast majority of people who are interested in this green belt type concept. I urge you to vote for the amendment, for the bill, but it is only again another step. This is a long way from being the kind of thing we really need.”
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to ask some one of the sponsors of this what this does for the little homeowner who is primarily interested in raising kids and has a back yard garden, what it does for him that he is able to hold his home and receive reduced taxes? Now I am not against the concept of retaining agricultural land and I think, as Senator Metcalf asked, if Senator Talley’s amendment only provided five acres solely devoted to timber it would not take care of anything else. But that little homeowner who is finding it very hard to raise his crop of kids and he has an agriculture patch out in the back of his house because he is finding it very difficult to buy the food at these high prices, as far as I can read this bill it does not do one thing for him. Now if some sponsor would tell me that I would be much happier in voting for this measure. Now I know that up in the Ways and Means Committee there is a bill proposed that would allow a ten thousand dollar exemption of taxes for the first ten thousand. That would help the little homeowner, but I have not seen that come out of the Ways and Means Committee yet. The people apparently for whom we are going to do the most helping are the large timber growers and the large agricultural producers. So with that I will sit down and expect some answers.”

Senator Donohue: “Senator, number one, the home that is on land today that is open space or land that is being used for agricultural use is not exempt under this. As you know, several days ago we did pass through this Senate a tax reform measure. This is the area that would help the people you are talking about by reducing special levies, by reducing the dollars that you say are needed for this individual to raise that family. And as you know, it is languishing in the House. We have done our part here in that area. We have sent them a measure that should go to the people that would help do exactly what you are talking about. I think probably the most important thing about this particular bill is that it brings all of industry and all of business under the same type of assessment. This is an assessment method only. It is nothing else. And I agree with you. We need to do something for those people, those low income people who are living in a ten thousand dollar home. And we are trying to do something for them. We have a proposal that we are going to present in the next day or two that is going to help that situation, and that is a proposal for some special levy relief, for some homeowner relief. For the first time in many years we, our caucus, and I think many on the other side of the aisle are very interested in doing something for these people. So we are thinking about all these areas and I think before we get through, and this is an advantage of being able to run these committees and study these things and come back here in September and do a job, and I agree with you. We need to do something.”

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Substitute House Bill No. 53, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sandison, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2669 on second reading.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2669, by Senators Van Hollebeke, Marsh, Gardner, Whetzel, Greive and Knoblauch:

Relating to unemployment compensation and requiring employing units to report refusal of offers of reemployment.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2669. On Tuesday, April 10, 1973, Senator Mardesich had moved adoption of an amendment to page 1, section 1, line 9. There being no objection, Senator Mardesich withdrew his pending amendment.

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

In section 1, line 8, after “offer of” strike “reemployment” and insert “suitable employment”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Canfield failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Bob), the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 8, delete all of the material after “reemployment” down to and including “elsewhere” on line 10.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 12, strike “five” and insert “ten”.

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 15, add the following:

“It shall likewise be unlawful and shall constitute a misdemeanor for any individual, his agent or representative or an officer or member of his union to threaten or take retaliatory action against an employing unit or agent thereof for reporting said individual in accordance with the provisions of this section.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: “Would Senator Canfield yield to a question? Senator Canfield, would you explain the amendment again? I do not quite understand what you are trying to get at.”

Senator Canfield: “You will notice, Senator Grant, that on lines 13 to 15, failure on the part of the employing unit to comply with this section is a misdemeanor. The amendment says that it shall likewise be unlawful for any individual, his agent or representative or an officer or a member of his union to threaten retaliatory action against an employer or his agent for reporting said individual in accordance with the provisions of this section. It simply makes it a two-way street, Senator. I think this will really improve the bill. It makes it a fair bill both ways.”

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2669 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "May I ask one question? I notice in the morning paper that the superior court judge ruled that pregnant women cannot be deprived of unemployment compensation and I wonder under the bill here how the mechanics of this would work. They have notified and have offered them a job, but would you not have to inquire whether or not they are pregnant to be deprived of the benefits of your bill?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I am not much of an expert on pregnancy, Senator Dore. I suppose I should be, shouldn't I? The idea is that this raises a red flag. The department finds out that this person has been offered employment, then they have got to go through the other and find out whether the other conditions are met. And if a woman's pregnancy was found to be so far advanced that she could not work, then the refusal would be considered valid and it would be okay."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2669, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1. Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Francis, Gardner, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefer, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Maredesich, Marsh, Matson, Mattingly, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaiger, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellor, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—46. Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Grant—2. Excused: Senator Whetzel—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2669, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2226 with the exception of the following:

On page 3, section 4, line 5; page 6, section 7, lines 4 and 5; page 6, section 8, line 20; page 13, section 23, line 33; page 14, section 23, line 11; page 15, section 24, line 21; page 20, section 33, line 26; and page 26, beginning on line 31 striking all of section 43 and renumbering the remaining sections consecutively, and asks the House to recede therefrom.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, I think we are pretty much in agreement with the objectives that you have outlined. My question has to do with the amendment on page 5, section 6, the subsection requiring substantial compliance with the governmental code and that the code would prevail. We would like to not concur with that amendment. On page 5, section 6, line 22, reading 'When the duty imposed by subsection (1) of this section is incompatible with and greater than the duty imposed by any other provisions of this section, then the landlord's duty shall be determined pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.' Would you object to separating that one item out, Senator Bottiger?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lewis, I understand that that is not a caucus position."
Senator Lewis (Harry): "Oh, I see. It is not on your caucus's part, a position?"
Senator Bottiger: "No, it is not our caucus position, that is correct."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? For purposes of legislative intent in the record, could you tell me whether or not the intent of the House amendment would cause a person to have to bring a place up to current code as opposed to any other sections in this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "It is not my understanding of the House intent nor my intent that this would require a homeowner to bring his premises up to current code. Most codes are written for installation and usually as a new code is passed they grandfather in existing premises so that every time we pass a code you do not have to go back and wire your house. Codes are written, however, for installation and not maintenance. The landlord-tenant act refers to maintenance of premises and not to construction so the House amendment, as I read it, and at least my intent would be that if a particular premise needs maintenance, when you maintain it you bring it up to the code that was in effect when it was built and not necessarily to existing codes. I think it would be an atrocious thing if you had to bring everything up, every time a light switch burned out you had to bring the whole house up to existing code."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a further question? Senator Bottiger, you stated it was not the intent of this section of the law to require a home or a building to be brought up to the present existing code. Is that correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is correct, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, Senator Bottiger, what would you do in the event that this particular building was in an urban renewal area and where the lack of having it up to the current code would be declared a blighted area or a blighted home or building? Now let me give you an example. For instance, under the urban renewal if you do not have a landing area prior to the stairway down into the basement, if your stairs go right down to the basement when you open the door, that is not approved under the urban renewal code. This would make the area blighted. And there are numerous other instances under the urban renewal law. Now that would not require you to bring it up to the code but it would declare your place as blighted and you could have it then be torn down because of the blight."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, this bill does not have anything to do with urban renewal or blighted areas. If I could use an example, if your hot water heater went out and it required the installation of a new hot water heater, when you hooked it up you would have to comply with existing code as to the hook-up. For example, twenty years ago they did not require grounding wires. Now you have to run a third wire and attach it to the pipe. You would have to do it in accordance with repair codes. But we are not talking anything about blighted areas or urban renewal in this bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "This law would apply, urban renewal is being extended to complete cities. This law would apply to every building within that city then as a landlord and tenant law and would require it to bring it up to the code so it would not be declared blighted any more. This is my contention."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I just cannot agree with you. It is not my intent or the intent of anybody else I have talked to here that this bill in any way apply to urban renewal or blighted areas. That is an entirely different subject."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the Senate concurred in certain of the House amendments and refused to concur in others and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The Senate resumed consideration of the House message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2306 and the following House amendments thereto which were considered on Tuesday, April 11, 1973:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 8, after "county may" strike all the material down to and including "county," on line 9.

On page 1, section 1, line 19 after "writing" insert "and shall provide that the amount of compensation of any such contracting attorneys shall not exceed, in any one calendar year, the salary of the prosecuting attorney".

MOTIONS

Senator Woody moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2306.

Senator Talley moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2306.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "I believe that a motion to concur takes precedence over a motion to not concur."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "That is correct, Senator Woody."
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Don Brockett, the prosecuting attorney for Spokane County, and I graduated from law school together and he has contacted me on this bill. He is concerned about that second amendment. We had an amendment on it that said it could be done with the prosecutor's consent and then the House took that off so you are suggesting we concur to that and I would like perhaps if you could reply to his objections. They provide a legal opinion separate from the county commissioners' and he is concerned that the county commissioners, without this amendment in, will go ahead and when they disagree by a concurring opinion. Could you respond to that?"

Senator Woody: "Yes, I can respond to that. First, as I mentioned earlier the provisions on lines 19 through 22 require that any agreement by the county commissioners retaining through their attorney's advice on civil matters only, I underline that, civil matters only, be reduced to writing and shall to the satisfaction of the prosecuting attorney of the said county clearly delineate responsibilities and authority of the prosecuting attorney and of the contracting attorney or attorneys. Now with that provision in there, there could be no situation in which the county commissioners could retain their civil attorneys on civil advice in areas that would overlap on responsibility of the prosecuting attorney because the prosecutor would have to go in and clearly delineate the responsibilities and authority. In answer to one of the things mentioned by Senator Talley as to the cost of this, one of the amendments that the House put on, which is a very good amendment, states that the amount of compensation of any contracting attorney shall not exceed in any one calendar year the salary of the prosecuting attorney. So in no event could you hire anybody to spend more time and cost the county more money than the prosecuting attorney."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Senator Woody, would you say that we can just pay the same salary we are paying for a prosecuting attorney any time the county commissioners get ready then to pay up to that amount? Any time a county commissioner gets unhappy with the prosecuting attorney then he says, 'Well, we do not like your advice. We will go get some other advice.' This is one of the damndest bills I ever saw come before this Senate."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Woody yield? You and I are the original co-sponsors on this, Senator. I notice that the House has limited it to the prosecuting attorney's salary for any one year. These smaller counties might have very large civil matters where hundreds of thousands of dollars would be involved. You would never be able to get an attorney to take them, especially in the antitrust field or public utility law or specialized condemnation actions where a lot of these prosecutors use specialized attorneys like the bond counsel out of Seattle. I think the House has put on a very severe limitation, especially where the county has a very highly specialized problem. We have one in our county."

Senator Woody: "My answer to that is that if you will look at the repealer section, there is no repealer of the existing statute that permits county commissioners, with, and this is totally with the approval and consent of the superior court in unusual cases, such as the antitrust situations that you mentioned, to hire special attorneys just for those major cases."

Senator Atwood: "Okay." Senator Woody: "And I might also comment in answer that at the present time if the county commissioners' work load gets too high, what they do is hire another attorney by means of putting him on the prosecuting attorney's payroll so it amounts to the same thing."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator Dore, I am sure I heard wrong. You said it depends on which way the opinion goes by who is signing the paycheck?"

Senator Dore: "I think who you work for, maybe that is the wrong way to state it, but I think sometimes attorneys bend over backwards to please their clients. And they have a different viewpoint or representation to follow. Just like if you got charged with a crime, Senator, I am sure your attorney that you would hire would try to see it from your viewpoint which might be a little different than that of the prosecutor."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question is this, you are arguing against the county commissioners being able to employ their own attorney?"

Senator Dore: "Yes, I think they should have their attorney but I think the prosecuting attorney in the original language of the bill had a hook on it to make the selection."

Senator Rasmussen: "He makes the selection. Who makes the selection in the case of the local school board or for the community college or for our state colleges and universities?"

Senator Dore: "That is under the attorney—that is my very point. In other words, they have their own attorneys but they are selected by the Attorney General after he advises with them, but he is the employer and they are responsible to him. He sets down the guidelines and so on and he has the statutory duty to advise the various agencies of government. The same principle is involved here in county government. We do not permit the university and the community colleges to hire their own attorneys and render opinions which they can proceed on. We have the Attorney General advise them. I think it is a good rule. There is some centralization. In fact, if you read the statute on the Attorney General you will see that he alone has that power. In other words, I think at the time the statute went through, maybe fifty years ago, they thought there should be one authority to issue opinions because if you did not have it that way you would have different attorneys in different departments issuing conflicting opinions. So they thought there should be a single opinion."

Senator Rasmussen: "You are talking about opinions now, Senator, but what I am talking about, the attorneys, they do hire their own attorneys separately but if they ask for an opinion they must ask it of the prosecuting attorney?"

Senator Dore: "That is correct. He may be authorized to write it but he has to check back to home base to get the guidelines."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Woody failed and the motion by Senator Talley that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2306 carried.

preservation of historic buildings or areas by returning them to economically productive uses which are compatible with or enhance the historic character of such buildings or areas; to stimulate and assist in the development of business or other activities which have an impact upon the preservation of historic buildings or areas; to cooperate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of historical preservation activities; and to provide financing through loans, investments or other business transactions for the promotion, development, and conduct of all kinds of business activity which encourages or relates to historic preservation. An industrial development corporation created to carry out the purposes of this section shall not engage in the broad economic and business promotion activities permitted by RCW 31.24.020(3) which are not related to the purposes of this section. Any such industrial development corporation shall in all other respects be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Dore moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 2571.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "I would like to ask Senator Dore a question, if he will yield? Senator Dore, it says the industrial development corporation created to carry out the purposes of this section shall not engage in the broad economic and business promotion activities permitted by RCW 31.24.020. Does not this prevent them from doing just exactly what you said they are going to do, promote economic activity?"

Senator Dore: "I would not consider retaining historical sites to be exactly an economic progression. In other words, they already have the authority to do that under the original part of the bill that passed over. The only thing this amendment added was the additional power to band together ten or more financial institutions, in order to make loans to preserve historic buildings and development of historic sites, so indirectly perhaps through tourist trade and promotion maybe you are correct on that. But I think we should not worry about that."

Senator Rasmussen: "One further question. Is there any public money involved?"

Senator Dore: "No public money. This will be done by the banks organized into a private corporation. They may get matching funds but there is no money involved here."

Senator Rasmussen: "They may get matching funds?"

Senator Dore: "I do not know. They may ask sometime for that. In Pioneer Square we had Mr. Case of United Parcel Service who donated, I think, one hundred and fifty dollars to preserve some part of the original Pioneer Square. That type of reconverting we are talking about here. It is very expensive and it has tourist attractions which may indirectly bring about economic development but it is primarily to preserve historical sites and buildings."

Senator Rasmussen: "This does not give them tax relief?"

Senator Dore: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator."

The motion by Senator Dore carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 2571.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sandison, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

The Senate resumed consideration of the following resolution moved for adoption by Senator Sandison on April 7, 1973:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-71

By Senators Sandison, Canfield and Odegaard:

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Washington has continuously during recent legislative sessions addressed the need to provide for effective and efficient vocational education services within the common schools and the community college systems; and

WHEREAS, Senate Concurrent Resolution 1971-23 directed that a study be made of the delivery systems for vocational education and the results of that study which have been presented to this Legislature indicated in summary that adequate data to answer the complex problems related to this issue had not been made available to date to advise the Legislature on organizational matters, although certain program and management systems proposals were recommended; and

WHEREAS, The recommendations from Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 23 proposed a continuation of the study to build upon the information already collected; and

WHEREAS, Two sharply differing philosophic approaches to confronting this problem have been introduced before the 1973 Legislature, and the Legislature has concluded it does not have sufficient information to determine whether these proposals are complementary or conflicting, and to what degree either would improve the delivery systems for vocational education in the State;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate that the Committee on Higher Education and the Committee on Education shall appoint a joint six-member study committee composed of the respective chairmen and two members from each committee, including representatives of both caucuses, to carry out a special study and report their recommendations concerning the desirability of modifying the state's vocational education systems, such study to include but not be limited to the following issues:

(1) development of planning, administrative and budgetary systems to provide efficient and effective secondary and post-secondary vocational education.
(2) definition of the structural changes necessary to accomplish the goals in subsection (1);
(3) determination of state planning mechanisms to assure coordination in policy development and consistency with the state's plans for secondary and post-secondary education;
(4) need for immediate expansion of vocational educational programs and facilities, and the funding thereof; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study committee may appoint an advisory committee composed of state educational administrators and representatives of industry and labor organizations to sit with the study committee during its deliberations to assist in framing the scope and direction of the study, and such advisory committee members will be allowed to critique and present views upon the data and information gathered in carrying out this study; and

Senator Canfield: “Will Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator Sandison, in line 10, could we in this resolution interpret industry to include agriculture? I am not asking for an amendment but could we interpret it that way?”

Senator Sandison: “Yes, I would think that industry would certainly include agriculture. It has before. Most of the input that we have, particularly in the field of proprietary education, for instance, comes from Perry Institute in Yakima. There is an association of Smith Hughes teachers and the various schools have always been very helpful and it would be my intention, anyway, that they would somehow from agriculture, agricultural education too, they would have someone who would be on the committee in the advisory group.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, at the beginning of your talk you said that it had readjusted or shifted the funds that had been going to the research projects at the University of Washington and at Washington State University. Did it do away totally with the money that was going from the Class H licenses?"
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1973

Senator Durkan: "The answer is no."
Senator Guess: "How much is it still to go there?"
Senator Durkan: "The same percentages as before, but under the distribution the dollar amount I am not sure of, Senator, but this is an amount that as a result of the new bill goes back to the department for the same type of a treatment program." Senator Guess: "They were doing research projects down there. This means that they will not have to stop that research?"
Senator Durkan: "Well, they will not be doing as much because they will not have that kind of money. It was felt that the new bill which you voted on and supported, that the moneys could be better used in the treatment of the alcoholics on that level and to that extent this amount of money has been diverted back to the local control."
Senator Guess: "Thank you."
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? There is the note on page 37 that legislators' salaries are to be ten thousand five hundred and sixty. There is also the notation that these salaries can only be paid in accordance with the Constitution. I believe, it is my understanding and I would like to know if it is yours, that under constitutional provisions legislators are the only officers who are not able to receive an increase in salary until after their next term of election."
Senator Durkan: "That is correct."
Senator Washington: "In other words, the amount of the raise could not go to anyone who is sitting here at the present time. They would all have to be reelected before they could get this salary increase?"
Senator Durkan: "That is correct. I would suggest we all resign as soon as this session is over."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, on our calendar today, down at the bottom, there is a little item that costs twenty-six million dollars to the general fund. If that should pass, how do you plan to fund the forty million dollars for special school levy relief?"
Senator Durkan: "The Legislative Budget Committee, Senator, has said with all of the operating budgets that we have and it is on your desk, I came over personally to give it to you, that the surplus including all of the add-ons, including all of the substantive legislation that has passed, is in excess of forty-one million. That is the answer. Whether or not that will be used for that I do not know, but there still is forty-one million according to the Governor's revenue estimate that is available and perhaps tomorrow morning in Ways and Means we can meet and figure a way to spend it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Ridder yield? Senator, you alluded to this pension program and the item at the bottom of the single sheet of approximately seventy million dollars. Do you have that single sheet at hand? At any rate, bracketed in after that is eight million three hundred and sixty thousand dollars for warrants. What is your understanding of the amount of outstanding warrants that are chargeable at this time against the pension system? I mean warrants that are bearing interest because there was not enough money to pay them at the time they were drawn."
Senator Ridder: "My understanding was that there was twelve million. I do not know whether this is a partial funding of that or not. It is thirty-three million of basic funds and twelve million of interest."
Senator Canfield: "Thirty-three million?"
Senator Ridder: "Yes, of the warrants. Thirty-three million of warrants. I think it is twelve million of interest to be paid. That is on the money that was paid out on the money that was nonexistent for the payment of current pensions in the teachers' system."
Senator Canfield: "It is not just clear to me how this eight million dollars applies here in view of those figures."
Senator Ridder: "You have me sort of lost. I do not know which one you are referring to."
Senator Canfield: "Perhaps I could question Senator Durkan."
Senator Ridder: "Maybe this would be better. I think he understands this sheet."
Senator Durkan: "As of July 1 there will be approximately thirty-three million dollars of warrants in the Treasurer's office. And of the sixty-nine million plus these, which is in there, there is a provision in here which provides that out of that sixty-nine million, thirty-three million or so much thereof that is necessary will be paid to retire the teachers' warrants. We had two choices. We could have, you recall in 1972 we passed the bill which provided that any surplus that was available went to the system and that will amount to about twenty-five million and with the eight million which was in there for the two percent, had that eight million been used for the two percent, it would have been thirty-three and we were going to do it that way but instead of doing it that way we just took the thirty-three million out. The 1972 proviso will remain and the surplus will still go to the teachers' retirement."
Senator Atwood: "Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, after we talked to you, Senator Durkan, we decided to work it the other way. If you will look at page 32 you will see how it works. Of the thirty-two million dollars in teachers' warrants, or TRS warrants, we took twenty-five million of the 1971-1972 surplus which is carried in the 1972 supplemental from the surplus revenue made available TRS pursuant to chapter 155, Laws of 1972. That is the supplemental budget which was passed last January which allocated all the surplus monies from the end of the biennium to the TRS or to the Teachers' Retirement System. And then if you will see we pick up that eight point three million out of the general fund for the 1973-1975 biennium to pick up the warrants. And if you will look back on the teachers' retirement appropriation you will see a sum of sixty-one million instead of sixty-nine. The reason for this is it was much easier to do this way. The Treasurer was very skeptical about us trying to otherwise go back and try and take it all out of the sixty-nine which was what I thought we had agreed on but they brought this up later and that is where your eight point three which is on the long sheet. That is how the registered warrants are picked up. So the actual appropriation to TRS this time is over eighty-some million dollars when you count the unfunded warrants we are picking up July 1."

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, APRIL 11, 1973

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2854 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Durkan: “Mr. President, I personally want to thank Senator Twigg. I know it was not easy.”

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

On my nay vote on Substitute Senate Bill No. 2854, I voted against this section of the total budget for the following reasons:

First, the appropriation for the retirement system was insufficient. Last biennium the legislature shorted the Teachers’ system $63 million and the LEOFF system $43 million. This budget not only makes no attempt to fund these shortages, but it further short hours the Teachers’ system by $14 million more and the LEOFF system is further shorted by $51 million. Such action creates a $71 million dollar unfunded liability to the systems that becomes an increasingly impossible obligation to meet in light of the recurring revenue shortage.

The inclusion of special levy relief, increase in legislature and state executive pay raises, and state employee and teacher pay raises uses money that by laws of 1947 and 1961 Retirement Acts should be a first lien upon the state revenue for funding retirement programs. Loss of funding jeopardizes the contractual relation between the state and members of both mentioned systems.

In light of this budget’s not providing this contractual obligation as a first responsibility, I find myself unable to vote for it.

Signed by: Senator Robert Ridder.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I am essentially in the same position as Senator Ridder. In addition to his objections, I object to the salary increases for elected officials. In particular, the provision that would triple the salary for legislators. But unlike Senator Ridder, I chose not to vote at all rather than against the entire budget, because I felt that I did not want to indicate: (1) That I was dissatisfied with other worthwhile appropriations in the budget; and (2) in any event refusing to vote had the same effect as a “no” vote, since 25 votes were needed to pass it.

Signed by: Senator R. R. Bob Greive.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, I am looking at what I think is your amendment here and although this says by Committee on Ways and Means, is that the one we are looking at now or do you have an amendment to that amendment? All right, that is what I am looking at. Now what I would like to ask you is, basically, what does this do as compared to the bill? You have stated some very narrowly stated functions. This will be the bill. The bill itself takes the percentage tax off and replaces it with a per gallon flat tax. And this does the same thing except that it has a per gallon flat tax of seventy-five cents a gallon instead of fifty cents a gallon."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, in line 6 beginning with "Any" strike all matter down to and including the period in line 9 and insert the following:

"(1) Any person licensed under the provisions of this chapter may sell a used mobile home as defined in RCW 84.36.370 without obtaining a license required by chapter 46.70 RCW: PROVIDED, That the mobile home is no longer subject to chapter 46.12 RCW and the title has been turned in to the department of motor vehicles with a written statement from the county assessor of the county in which the mobile home is located, that said mobile home is no longer personal property and has been assessed as real property for a period of at least one year: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the mobile home is sold in one transaction with the land on which it rests.

(2) In order to carry out the provisions of this section, the director of the department of motor vehicles shall prescribe by rule or regulation methods and procedures to assure compliance with the requirements of Title 46 RCW pertaining to mobile homes, collection of taxes, and transaction documentation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I have a question on this bill. I am not sure who to ask. I will ask the question and maybe somebody can answer it. If not, I would like to hold it over until tomorrow. If a mobile home is considered real property, it is placed there permanently and then the real estate salesman is able to sell it as real property, does the value of the mobile home then, is a sales tax paid on that or is the real estate tax paid, the one percent tax? I do not know if anybody could answer that here today."

Senator Wanamaker: "In committee it was determined that it would be on a property tax. If you read the amendment it says that it has been placed on the land permanently and has been assessed by the assessor."

Senator Odegaard: "So they would pay then the one percent real estate transfer tax rather than the sales tax?"

Senator Wanamaker: "Right."

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Woody, Senate Bill No. 2540 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, would you describe the weekly duties of a part-time JP?"
Senator Woody: "Normally on a Monday morning they will take in some miscreants from Renton that travel through their area and they will examine them to determine whether they have any funds and if they do not have any funds then under Senate Bill No. 2069 that we just passed through here and the Governor signed, he will assign some poor attorney to represent them. That will, of course, come out of the budget that is turned in to the Treasurer and in the event then the poor miscreant from Renton decides to go to trial for that minor offense they set it down for trial a week, two, three weeks later. This goes on daily, day in and day out and at night for these poor little JP’s."
Senator Grant: "Thank you, Senator Woody. I can understand why the minimum wage for these poor justices should be increased and I want to assure you that I am going to support this increase for the judges, the first vote I have given you this session."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Woody yield? Senator, in looking over these salary increases, you said they had no fiscal impact. Would you explain that again? Perhaps I missed it."
Senator Woody: "The state of Washington pays no money toward part-time justices of the peace. The county commissioners pay their entire fee. They set them out there to handle all these trials."
Senator Canfield: "Out of their own pockets, I presume?"
Senator Woody: "The county commissioners have, of course, the county pocket."
Senator Canfield: "Well, there would be a fiscal impact upon the county, surely, and upon the local taxpayers or offenders or whoever. Is that correct?"
Senator Woody: "Yes."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 862, by Committee on Ecology (originally sponsored by Representative Luders):

Making certain changes in the state air pollution control laws.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 862, making certain changes in the state air pollution control laws (reported by Committee on Ecology):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 9, section 8, line 3, after "wood" and before the comma strike "and paper". On page 9, section 8, line 3, after "as" and before "been" strike "neither have" and insert "it has not".
On page 9, section 9, line 21, after "1976" and before "state" insert a comma.
On page 9, section 9, line 21, after "quality" and before "for" strike "standards" and insert "goals".

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Guess, Murray, Stortini.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments were adopted.
Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 9, section 9, line 13, after "substance" and before "which" insert "other than natural vegetation".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Washington yield? Will this fix it now so that the man raising certified seed can burn his field off before he plants?"
Senator Washington: "Not this particular amendment. There is a provision in this act to allow that."
Senator Woodall: "You are covered?"
Senator Washington: "Yes, it is covered."
The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment was adopted.
Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 9, section 10, line 25, after "law," and before "may" on line 26, strike "the legislative body of a fire protection authority" and insert "the governmental agency authorized to issue burning permits".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschander: "I wonder if Senator Washington would yield to a question? On that governmental agency, could that be in Seattle the Puget Sound Air Pollution?"

Senator Washington: "No, that would not."

Senator Newschander: "Could it be the local fire district or county commissioners?"

Senator Washington: "Any agency that is authorized to issue burning permits at the present time is authorized to do that."

Senator Newschander: "In my area though we had to get a burning permit from the Puget Sound Air Pollution and in many areas they do not authorize them."

Senator Washington: "We have gone a long ways by specifically providing here that you can have home burning which goes quite a ways along the bill. We are not cutting down on the right of whoever can issue them at the present time. That I can tell you."

Senator Newschander: "In my area the Puget Sound Air Pollution, there are some areas under the old law you can burn and some areas they can give you a permit. Now what I am worried about with this amendment is that when you say 'governmental agency' we are going to go right back to the old law and burn."

Senator Washington: "No, this is an extension rather than a restriction. In other words, this was an extension to make sure that the Department of Natural Resources would be in a position to issue permits. This is not intended to cut down on the amount of permits."

The motion by Senator Newschander was adopted of a rising vote:

On line 5 of the Washington amendment, after "permits" insert "on state land."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "I wanted to ask a question of Senator Washington. I would like to know the status, for instance, of outdoor barbeque. Is this burning under the context of these amendments and sections 8 and 9 here?"

Senator Washington: "It is my understanding that there is no permit needed and that they can continue to be used."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Matson and Washington:

On page 9, section 9, line 15, after "RCW 70.94.650" insert ": PROVIDED, That agricultural heating devices which otherwise meet the requirements of this chapter shall not be considered outdoor fires under this section."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Matson yield? Senator, I am in favor of this amendment but I would like to get an interpretation from you regarding these fires that are a paraffin impregnated material. Remember, you see some of them in orchards? Sort of sawdust impregnated with paraffin and materials of that sort. Now I wonder if that is equipment or what. Now you spoke a minute ago of orchard heating equipment and I would like to have such material interpreted as coming within the permissiveness of this act."

Senator Matson: "Of course, if they are not, if they do not contain petroleum products or rubber products or plastics why then they are not covered under this section."

Senator Canfield: "Do not these contain some paraffin products but they do not emit any smoke?"

Senator Matson: "As far as I am concerned, the answer is if they come within the emission standards that all the other equipment does why they would be excluded from control."

Senator Canfield: "I do not know what proportion of the orchard people use these. I think it is a rather small percentage, but I think there are some who are using these materials, and I did not want them banned as long as they came within the emission standards."

Senator Matson: "My interpretation is they would not be banned under this."

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment by Senators Matson and Washington was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Guess, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 862, as amended by the Senate, was made a special order of business for 11:00 a.m. today.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 346, by Representatives Swayne, Knowles and Eikenberry (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 346 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 346, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Connor, Whetzel—3.
Excused: Senator Durkan—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 346, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Senator Atwood was excused.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 264, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Representatives Smythe, May, Kuehnle and Luders):
Implementing laws relating to mechanics' and materialmen's liens and construction loan mortgages.
THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, APRIL 12, 1973

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 264, implementing laws relating to mechanics’ and materialmen’s liens and construction loan mortgages (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, section 2, line 9, after “contractor” strike “or” and insert “and”.
On page 3, section 3, line 27, strike “mortgage on” and insert “mortgage or” and after “liens,” strike “mortgages” and insert “mortgages”.
Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Clarke, Durkan, Van Hollebeke.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Francis, Bottiger, Woody and Clarke:

On page 1, section 1 (4), line 27, after “chapter” and before the period insert “and has otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter”.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Francis, Bottiger, Woody and Clarke:

After “chapter” on the last line of the Francis amendment, insert “and the requirements of chapter 18.27 RCW if required by the provisions thereof”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: “Would Senator Woody yield? I had understood that material suppliers also came within the scope of this lien, right? What are you doing to them by this amendment?”

Senator Woody: “Not a thing because they are not within RCW chapter 18.27.”

Senator Clarke: “However, you say ‘as otherwise complied with that chapter’, and are you not in substance by your amendment requiring all lien claimants to comply with that chapter? I really have not had an opportunity to read this through carefully but I am a little concerned about the rights of materialmen.”

Senator Woody: “I am too, Senator, and that is why I wrote the amendment very carefully. It says, ‘and the requirements of RCW chapter 18.27 if required by the provisions thereof.’”

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: “I would like to add to that. The requirements of the chapter are that a person has to be engaged in improving real estate, so the materialman, while furnishing the material is not engaged primarily in the purpose of improving that land which he delivers the material to.”

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senators Francis, Bottiger, Woody and Clarke was adopted.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Clarke:

On page 3, following line 23, add a new sentence as follows:
“The amount claimed in any notice of claim which is adjudged to be unreasonably excessive shall be set off against the recovery allowed by the court.”

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Will Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, two questions. The first one I think I know the answer. I am concerned with the situation here of a small bank, they have loaned a man fifty thousand dollars, a fight ensues between the subs and the suppliers and the main contractor and of course the bank is not mad at anybody. All they want to do is just pay the money out and chalk it off the books. Now the right of interpleader which we use frequently in other cases, and I want this for the record, is it your idea that the right of interpleader would still be open in this particular case? In other words, there is a difference of some five thousand between the claim of a subcontractor and a contractor. Can the lending institution pay the five thousand into court and be out of the case?"

Senator Woody: "There is absolutely no question but that interpleader would be not only allowable but would be the favorable device to use. The same as the bonding companies do under RCW chapter 18.27, if there is more than one claimant on the bond, they just interplead them in, tender the full amount of the bond into court and let the claimants fight over the proceeds."

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 2, line 19, after "less" and before the period insert "; PROVIDED, That notwithstanding such subordination of lien the owner's obligation secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other encumbrance shall not be accelerated or otherwise be deemed in default nor shall such subordination reduce or affect the owner's rights upon any commitment for a permanent mortgage."

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Day, the amendment by Senator Woody was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 264, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 264, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Metcalf—1.

Excused: Senators Atwood, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 264, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

(4) "Raffle" means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from said tickets.

(5) "Punch boards" and "pull-tabs" shall be given their usual and ordinary meaning as of the effective date of this chapter, except that such definition may be revised by the commission pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(6) "Social card game" shall mean any card game having a monetary limit of not more than one dollar by each participant therein on each wager, in which success depends upon the knowledge, attention, experience, and skill of the player whereby the elements of chance in any such card game are overcome, improved, or turned to the advantage of said player, and in which no percentage of the money is returned to any individual or organization other than the participants: PROVIDED, That the types of card games and game rules may be further limited by rules and regulations promulgated by the commission as provided for herein.

(7) "Amusement game" means a game played for entertainment in which:

(a) The contestant actively participates;
(b) The outcome depends in a material degree upon the skill of the contestant;

(d) The outcome is not in the control of the operator;
(e) The wagers are placed or the fee for participation is paid, the winners are determined, and a distribution of prizes or property is made in the presence of all persons who participated in such game; and

(f) Said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, and no person other than a bona fide member of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game except as provided in section 13(1) of this act, including the furnishing of equipment, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting such game or said game is conducted as part of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW.

(8) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

(9) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance.

(10) "Player", except as otherwise in section 31 of this act provided, means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant orbettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein: PROVIDED, That employees or officials of a nonprofit organization whose premises are not open to the general public are not engaged in "professional gambling" as defined herein by the act of providing a room, table, chairs, cards and other facilities and permitting their use by members to engage in social card games on equal terms with other participants, such social card games being those of skill, in which the success of the player depends upon the knowledge, attention, memory, experience and skill of the player or players whereby the elements of chance are overcome, improved or turned to the advantage of the players where there is no charge to participate in the game. A person who engages in “bookmaking” as defined in this section is not a “player”.

(11) A person is engaged in “professional gambling” when:

(a) Acting other than as a player or in the manner set forth in section 31 of this act, he knowingly engages in conduct which materially aids any other form of gambling activity;

or

(b) Acting other than as a player, or in the manner set forth in section 31 of this act, he knowingly accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity; or

(c) He engages in bookmaking; or

(d) He conducts a lottery as defined in subsection (19) of this section.

Conduct under subparagraph (a), except as exempted under section 31 of this act, includes but is not limited to conduct directed toward the creation or establishment of the particular game, contest, scheme, device or activity involved, toward the acquisition or maintenance of premises, paraphernalia, equipment or apparatus therefor, toward the solicitation or inducement of persons to participate therein, toward the actual conduct of the playing phases thereof, toward the arrangement of any of its financial or recording phases, or toward any other phase of its operation. If a person having substantial proprietary or other authoritative control over any premises shall permit said premises to be used with the person’s knowledge for the purpose of conducting gambling activity other than activities as set forth in section 31 of this act, and acting other than as a player, and said person permits such to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation, he shall be considered as being engaged in professional gambling: PROVIDED, That the proprietor of a bowling establishment who awards prizes obtained from player contributions to players successfully knocking down pins upon the contingency of identifiable pins being placed in a specified position or combination of positions, as designated by the posted rules of the bowling establishment, where the proprietor does not participate in the proceeds of the “prize fund” shall not be construed to be engaging in professional gambling within the meaning of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the books and records of such bowling games shall be open to public inspection.

(12) “Gambling device” means: (a) Any device or mechanism used for professional gambling by the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism used for professional gambling which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation used in professional gambling. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay, on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won, or have a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device.

(13) “Gambling premises” means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition, any place where a gambling device is found shall be presumed to be intended to be used for professional gambling.

(14) “Gambling information” means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

(15) "Thing of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise, directly or indirectly, contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.

(16) "Gambling record" means any record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation given, made, used or intended to be used in connection with professional gambling.

(17) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(18) "Whoever" and "person" include natural persons, corporations and partnerships and associations of persons; and when any corporate officer, director or stockholder or any partner authorizes, participates in, or knowingly accepts benefits from any violation of this chapter committed by his corporation or partnership, he shall be punishable for such violation as if it had been directly committed by him.

(19) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

For the purpose of this chapter, "valuable consideration" shall not include a commercial benefit to any promoter so long as money or its equivalent does not pass to the promoter as a requirement of participation, nor do the following activities constitute "valuable consideration" as an element of a lottery:

(a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program or subscribing to a cable television service.

(b) Filling out a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is received through the mail or published in a newspaper or magazine, or the purchase of a newspaper or magazine, or the purchase of a program sold in conjunction with and at a regularly scheduled sporting event.

(c) Furnishing proof of purchase if the proof required does not consist of more than the container of any product as packaged by the manufacturer, or a part thereof, or a facsimile of either.

(d) To send a coupon or entry blank or proof of purchase by United States mail to a designated address.

For purposes of this chapter, radio and television broadcasting is hereby declared to be preempted by federal statutes 18 United States Code sections 1304 and the rules applicable thereto by the federal communications commission. Broadcast programming, including advertising and promotion, that complies with said federal statutes and regulations is hereby authorized.

No person shall be a member of the commission if such person is an officer or manager of any charitable or nonprofit organization, or any organization which conducts any gambling activity in this state. Members shall receive fifty dollars per diem for each day or major portion thereof spent in performance of their duties plus reimbursement for actual travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same manner as provided for state officials generally in chapter 43.03 RCW as now or hereafter amended. such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court.
The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the tribunal shall be final. Removal of any member of the commission by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

(4) Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said members of the commission shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor in

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby authorizes the conducting of bingo and raffles when conducted by charitable or nonprofit organizations or governmental entities holding permits pursuant to this chapter, when conducted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislative authority of any county, city, or town may prohibit, but not regulate, bingo and raffles within its jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Bingo" means a game in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and in which no cards are sold except at the time and place of said game, when said game is conducted by a charitable or nonprofit organization as defined in subsection (2) of this section or by a governmental entity as defined in subsection (5) of this section.

2. "Charitable or nonprofit organization" means any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20 or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, which has been organized and is operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of bingo games and raffles.

3. "Commission" means the Washington state bingo and raffle commission created in section 4 of this act.

4. "Raffle" means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from said tickets.

5. "Governmental entity" means all state agencies and all local agencies. "State agency" includes every state office, public official, department, division, bureau, board, commission or other state agency. "Local agency" includes every county, city, city and county, school district, municipal corporation, district, political subdivision, or any board, commission or agency thereof, or other local public agency.

6. "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

7. "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include pari-mutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bingo and raffles as defined in this section, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance.

8. "Player", except as otherwise in section 33 of this act provided, means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant orbettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in this section is not a "player".
(9) A person is engaged in "professional gambling" when:
(a) Acting other than as a player or in the manner set forth in section 33 of this act, he knowingly engages in conduct which materially aids any other form of gambling activity; or
(b) Acting other than as a player, or in the manner set forth in section 33 of this act, he knowingly accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity; or

If a person having substantial proprietary or other authoritative control over any premises shall permit said premises to be used with the person's knowledge for the purpose of conducting gambling activity other than activities as set forth in section 33 of this act, and acting other than as a player, and said person permits such to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation, he shall be considered as being engaged in professional gambling.

(10) "Gambling device" means: (a) Any device or mechanism used for professional gambling by the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism used for professional gambling which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation used in professional gambling. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won, or have a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device.

(11) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition, any place where a gambling device is found shall be presumed to be intended to be used for professional gambling.

(12) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

(13) "Thing of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise, directly or indirectly, contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.

(14) "Gambling record" means any record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation given, made, used or intended to be used in connection with professional gambling.
(15) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(16) "Whoever" and "person" include natural persons, corporations and partnerships and associations of persons; and when any corporate officer, director or stockholder or any partner authorizes, participates in, or knowingly accepts benefits from any violation of this chapter committed by his corporation or partnership, he shall be punishable for such violation as if it had been directly committed by him.

(17) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

For the purpose of this chapter, "valuable consideration" shall not include a commercial benefit to any promoter so long as money or its equivalent does not pass to the promoter as a requirement of participation, nor do the following activities constitute "valuable consideration" as an element of a lottery:

(a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program.
(b) Filling out a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is received through the mail or published in a newspaper or magazine.
(c) Furnishing proof of purchase if the proof required does not consist of more than the container of any product as packaged by the manufacturer, or a part thereof, or a facsimile of either.
(d) To send a coupon or entry blank or proof of purchase by United States mail to a designated address.
(e) Visitation to any business establishment to obtain a coupon, entry blank, or proof of purchase.
(f) Mere registration without purchase of goods or services.
(g) Expenditure of time, thought, attention and energy in pursuing promotional material.
(h) Placing or answering a telephone call in a prescribed manner or otherwise making a prescribed response or answer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There shall be a commission, known as the "Washington state bingo and raffle commission", consisting of five members, to be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. No person shall be appointed as a member of the commission if such person is an officer or manager of any charitable or nonprofit organization which conducts bingo or raffles in this state. Members shall receive fifty dollars per diem for each day or major portion thereof spent in performance of their duties plus reimbursement for actual travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same manner as provided for state officials generally in chapter 43.03 RCW as now or hereafter amended. shall be held at least quarterly and at such other times as may be called by the chairman or a majority of the commission.

(3) Any member of the commission may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final. Removal of any member of the commission by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

(4) Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said members of the commission shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for elective state officers, which oath and bond shall be filed with the secretary of state. Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Walgren to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 10, section 10, line 30, after "legislature" and before the period insert:

"PROVIDED, That the first commission appointed pursuant to section 4 of this act shall conduct a thorough study of the types of gambling activity permitted and the types of gambling activity prohibited by this act and shall submit to the session of the legislature convened in September, 1973, if there be one, or, if not, to the session of the legislature convened in January, 1974, a report making specific recommendations as to: (1) Gambling activity that ought to be permitted; (2) gambling activity that ought to be prohibited; (3) the types of licenses and permits that ought to be required; (4) the appropriate fee for each type of license and permit; and (5) the type and amount of tax that ought to be applied to each type of permitted gambling activity."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "As I understand it, the first motion is a motion to amend a House bill by in fact inserting this substituted bill. Then we have a motion to amend the substituted bill by putting the first bill on it. Now, is this a further amendment to amend the amendment to the amendment? It seems to me that we are going to have to vote up or down the motion on the first amendment before we start taking amendments to the amendments to the amendments."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, we recognized this problem would very likely arise when we made the motion to put the Judiciary Committee amendment on 711. However, we felt that in view of the fact that we have not yet adopted rules that this would be a perfectly proper order of business, and in view of that fact have allowed this to happen here."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "It seems to me that what Senator Walgren has done is move to strike everything in the 711 and substitute his measure, which incidentally was the original Senate bill, which would be very much in order. The mere fact that there may be other possible amendments pending is one thing, but this is a complete striking of the amendment so that this would be the bill and therefore it could be amended. I do not think there is any parliamentary problem at all."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I think there is some confusion on the floor of the Senate on just what we are trying to do procedurally-wise and so let me ask Senator Mardesich a question if he will yield, just to clear the air. Senator Mardesich, it is my understanding that the amendment you suggested would be placed on Senator Walgren's amendment so we would then in effect have the municipal bill with the amendment you suggest attached to it. At that point we would have one package as Senator Walgren suggests. Then is it my understanding that we would honor Senator Greive's motion which would bring back the bill that Senator Francis describes before the Senate and we would then consider the amendments that are on our desks and after completing that work you may or may not offer the other bill? We would have the choices all before us. We would have out in the open here in front of the Senate and in front of the people of the state through the media our procedure on the gambling legislation and that this orderly procedure would resolve itself in that manner. Is this your intent, Senator?"

Senator Mardesich: "That is exactly what I had in mind. I indicated when I asked Senator Greive to withdraw his motion that I thought that this would be an attempt merely to perfect the Walgren or the Municipal Committee approach and then we would set it aside and continue with the amendments to the measure as it now stands before us, other than the Walgren amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Mardesich yield again? As I understand it then, all this material would be turned over to a committee, a commission, which has not yet been appointed, has it?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, as I understand it, however, Senator Canfield, each of these versions has the commission in it. And in effect all my amendment would be doing is saying that if we accept the Senator Walgren amendment or the Municipal Committee approach, which is very restrictive, what we would then be doing by my amendment is directing that commission to come back to us with a report indicating where they felt we have gone too far even in that version or where we should go further, where we could allow other forms of gambling. And that seems to me would be a very logical approach because if you finally decide today to accept neither of the other two versions but go to Senator Walgren's Municipal Committee approach, then under a very restrictive approach we should have the so-called regulators come in and recommend as to what other forms of gambling should be allowed or that they think we may have gone too far because they will have had some experience by that time."

Senator Canfield: "Of course, Senator, one of the important things in this proposal is the make-up of the commission and what attitude they would have and what consideration they would give to these various proposals, and I do not know who this commission is going to be, do you?"

Senator Mardesich: "You do not have that knowledge, nor do I, under any of the three forms being offered here today."

Senator Canfield: "And when would this commission make these recommendations back to the legislature?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would assume that they would come back the next time we are in session. If they do not come back then with recommendations we might act of our own volition or ask them to work further. It would be up to us to make the decision at that time."

Senator Canfield: "One final question. Would this commission have any input from anybody while they are considering these various proposals?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would assume they are going to have plenty of input because if we adopt any proposal they are going to have, I am sure, a great number of requests for the issuances of licenses of various sorts. They are going to have input from all of the people of the state with respect to whatever measure we do pass. And if the Walgren amendment is laid aside now, I will again offer this amendment even with respect to the other version."
The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Walgren to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that the amendment by Senator Walgren to the amendment by Senator Francis be considered at the conclusion of consideration of the amendment by Senator Francis to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 711 and the amendments pending, on the Secretary's desk.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Woodall: "Some of us have amendments at the desk and we have designated, I think, another bill. They will be construed and attached to this, will they?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator Woodall."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "I would like to ask Senator Greive a question. If we are going to adopt the Senator Walgren amendment as amended, is not this a lot of futility to go through all these other amendments, because this in effect will effectively amend the existing orange bill before us?"

Senator Greive: "As I pointed out, we have never really had a complete discussion of all the alternatives. True, in caucus at least, the Democrats have had a chance to consider the Senate bill, I do not think adequately, but we have had some consideration and some discussion. Nobody really at that time carefully considered 711 as it was coming out of the House. All we got were some newspaper reports and some conversations between us. We really never got down to the hard cold provisions. I would assume that as we go through the Senate version we are going to have comparisons, that people will have amendments, that there will be comparisons made between the two bills, and I think we are going to be a lot better informed. When we are all done I would like to place us in a position where we have the 711 version from the House, we have the more restrictive version from the Senate and the very restrictive version that we have presently before us and that we can make an intelligent choice and I think it will be a lot easier to make that choice when we have heard the debate."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "We had, Mr. President, by motion a special order of business at eleven a.m. I would move that rather than take that special order now we would make Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 862 a special order of business after the completion of action on the bill we are now considering."

The motion by Senator Greive carried. The amendment by Senator Francis will be considered prior to consideration of the amendment by Senator Walgren to the amendment by Senator Francis.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 16, after "Section 1." insert "It is declared to be public policy to permit participation by individuals in certain games and social pastimes, which activities and social pastimes are designed more for amusement and entertainment than for profit, and which do not maliciously affect the public, nor breach the peace."

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 21, after "pull-tabs," and before "and" insert "Mah Jongg".
Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Bottiger to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 2, section 2, line 27, after "town" insert "may prohibit but".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I would like to ask you a question, Senator Bottiger. Does this amendment and the language in new section 2 mean that the legislative authority of any county, city or town may prohibit any activity, may they close down one card room which is operating in a bad manner or must they close them all down? Would you clarify that please?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lewis, I wish you had not added that last thing on there because I am afraid it does not do that. I think the intent of the amendment, the intent of Senator Atwood and me when we sat down with the attorney to make sure that we agreed to what we were doing was that a city or town would have the option of saying, 'No card rooms in town but you can have pull-tabs, punch boards, things like this.' You cannot regulate, the key word there, Senator Lewis, is regulate. You cannot regulate. You can prohibit any activity but you cannot license or tax or treat one class within an activity differently from another. This is what we intended to do. I disagree with Senator Woody that it is all or nothing. It is all punch boards or no punch boards, it is all card rooms or no card rooms, or any combination of activity regulated within the bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Murray yield? Senator Murray, some years back Attorney General Robert Kennedy had quite a crime investigation. Now at that time he came up with the viewpoint that, as I recall reading it, one of the evils, of course, was prostitution, one of the evils was the slot machine and then also they put out some legislation attempting to control the placing of bets by wires. Was there anything in the Kennedy crime report that said that social card games were an evil thing?"

Senator Murray: "I do not claim to be an authority on the Kennedy Report."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Francis yield? Substitute Senate Bill No. 2145 having been in the Judiciary Committee and being the chairman of that, could you tell me on page 2, line 27 what the import of the single word 'cannot' is?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Woody, that is not what I would regard as a narrowly drawn question but I take it you are saying with regard to the veto the word 'cannot' is one word with six letters in it."

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment by Senators Atwood and Bottiger to the amendment by Senator Francis was not adopted on a rising vote.

There being no objection, the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Bottiger was withdrawn:

On page 3, section 2, line 24, strike "having a monetary limit of not more than one dollar by each participant therein on each wager."

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 3, section 3, following line 33, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(7) "Mah Jongg" means a game of Chinese origin played, usually by four persons, with one hundred thirty-six or one hundred forty-four pieces marked in suits and called "tiles" which by drawing, discarding and exchanging are built into combinations or sets."

Renumere the remaining subsections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 5, section 3, line 21, after "games" insert "or Mah Jongg."

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:
On page 5, section 3(10), line 22, after "participants" and beginning with "such" strike all the matter down to the period on line 26.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Grant to page 7, section 3, line 13 to the amendment by Senator Francis was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 9, section 3(19), line 6, after "(d)", strike "To send" and insert "Sending".

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 9, section 3 (19)(h), line 14, after "answer" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That where any drawing is held by in-state retail outlets in connection with business promotions authorized under subsections (e) and (f) hereof, no such in-state retail outlet may conduct more than one such drawing during each calendar year and the period of the drawing and its promotion shall not extend for more than seven consecutive days: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the sponsoring organization has more than one outlet in the state such drawings must be held in all such outlets at the same time except that a sponsoring organization with more than one outlet may conduct a separate drawing in connection with the initial opening of such outlet."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Bob), the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Woody to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On line 6 of the amendment, after "than" strike "seven" and insert "ten".

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment by Senator Woody, as amended by Senator Lewis (Bob) to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted.

There being no objection, the following amendment by Senator Dore to the amendment by Senator Francis was withdrawn:

On page 11, section 6, line 15, after "revenue" strike "shall have the responsibility of auditing" and insert "on requests of the commission shall audit".

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore, Woody and Woodall to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 11, section 6, line 27, add a new sentence:

"Auditing by the department of revenue is not mandatory and may be waived by the director of the department at his discretion."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

At 12:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 711, the amendment by Senator Francis and the pending amendment by Senators Dore, Woody and Woodall to the amendment.

There being no objection, Senator Dore withdrew the proposed amendment to page 11, section 6, line 27.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment by Senators Dore, Woody and Woodall to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 11, section 6, line 27, after "section." add a sentence as follows:

"Auditing by the department of revenue is not mandatory in every case and may be waived by the director of the department at his discretion."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 12, section 10, line 30, after "legislature" and before the period insert:

": PROVIDED, That the first commission appointed pursuant to section 4 of this act shall conduct a thorough study of the types of gambling activity permitted and the types of gambling activity prohibited by this act and shall submit to the session of the legislature convened in September, 1973, if there be one, or, if not, to the session of the legislature convened in January, 1974, a report making specific recommendations as to: (1) Gambling activity that ought to be permitted; (2) gambling activity that ought to be prohibited; (3) the types of licenses and permits that ought to be required; (4) the appropriate fee for each type of license and permit; and (5) the type and amount of tax that ought to be applied to each type of permitted gambling activity”.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 13, section 11(1), line 8, after “and” and before “revoke” strike “to” and insert “may”.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 13, section 11, line 14, strike all of subsection (2) and renumber remaining subsections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Will Senator Canfield yield? Senator Canfield, the amendment that I proposed would permit the county fairs to conduct bingo for any length of time that they felt was necessary. It broadens rather than inhibits and my question is, why do you oppose it?”

Senator Canfield: “Mr. President and members of the body, the fairs have no desire to do exactly the thing that he is mentioning. We do not want to expand bingo as a commercial operation. We do want to restrict it, just to the few days of the fair.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I do not understand that argument at all. Most fairs that I am familiar with are about two weeks in length anyway so there would not be any expansion unless you are going to lengthen the time of your fair.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Knoblauch: “Would Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator, are you suggesting here that one organization should be able to hold bingo four, five, six, seven nights a week instead of three?”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Yes, I am, Senator, the same way as I think if somebody wants to go out and play bingo six nights a week at one location I see nothing wrong with that, anymore than I see if they want to go and buy a loaf of bread at a grocery store, the same grocery store six nights a week rather than drive across town and split the business up between two people. I think this is the people’s choice in the free market, Senator, and I just do not want to talk to Alice Barnes down at the hotel here in Olympia and I do not want to say, ‘Alice, you can only play Monday, Wednesday and Friday but Thursday night you stay home and watch television and Thursday night you stay home because this legislature in its wisdom says that if you want to play elsewhere you have to drive to Tumwater and you do not have a car. Or you have to get a bus and go to Lacey and the busses don’t operate after nine o’clock.’ And I do not want Alice Barnes on my back and she wants to play bingo.”

Senator Knoblauch: “I am glad I asked that question. I have been worried about Alice for a long time.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Francis would yield to a question? Senator Francis, you argue so strenuously for limiting bingo to three nights a week, which rationale I disagree with, but for consistency’s sake if none other, it would seem to me that if you feel that strongly about limiting bingo to three nights a week, can you tell me why you do not restrict card room operations to only three nights a week? I do not see any consistency whatsoever in your arguments unless you can show it to me.”

Senator Francis: “Senator, you seem to also have confused lumber operations and so forth with charitable organizations. The idea is that bingo and raffles are to be used by eleemosynary organizations, charitable organizations. All right. The idea behind this restriction is to allow more than one charity to be able to use bingo as a means of raising funds, perhaps in the same building. There is no limit on how often the same premises can be used. They could be used seven nights a week and Alice Barnes could be playing seven nights a week but the profits would be benefiting different charities on different nights of the week. Now the social card games and where they are located are an entirely different thing and it is not for the purpose of raising money for charity.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Francis, would you mind calling Alice Barnes for me?”

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 13, section 11, line 15, after “week” and before the colon insert “or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than 12 days, which days must be consecutive, during a single calendar year.”

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Grant and Keeffe to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 13, section 11, line 23, after “pull-tabs” and before “and” insert “, certain gambling devices authorized by the commission pursuant to section 12”.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Will Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, have you ever played pinball machines?”

Senator Ridder: “Yes.”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “How do you do it?”

Senator Ridder: “Which kind, single coin?”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “How do you play the multiple coin?”

Senator Ridder: “Okay, you put the coin in and you ring up the odds and you put another coin and you ring up the odds and you pull back the little handle and you shoot the ball. It rolls up and bangs down and bangs around and your odds keep going up and up and up and if you hit the right amount it pays off.”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “You mean when the ball comes down the odds go up?”

Senator Ridder: “As it hits various places on the board. And by multiple coin you can increase those or double those odds that you get at each time until you can get some tremendous odds and, of course, if you get the right place then they pay off by jingling into the box.”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Senator Ridder, you are probably not going to vote for this bill anyway but . . . .”

Senator Ridder: “That is untrue. I am going to vote for it.”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Do you understand the body English that is necessary to build those odds up?”

Senator Ridder: “Boy, I have seen that too. Right. A game of skill and chance.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: “Will Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, are you going to offer additional amendments to take care of the percentage part and perhaps also meter them like we originally had this? We had pinball machines metered so that every coin going in was metered and every coin paid off is metered. And the reason is to get as complete control as possible and, of course, to get all the tax dollars that are rightfully . . . ."

Senator Grant: “Yes, Senator Van Hollebeke, the amendment which will provide a new section 12 of the gambling bill has been carefully drawn. I think you have a copy of it on your desk, and it does permit the gambling commission to meter the pinball machines, requires them to do that. ‘The device confers recorded rights of replay on the players thereof which right of replay are recorded on a sealed meter approved by the commission,’ subsection (2) in the new section 12 that I am offering.”

The motion by Senator Grant failed and the amendment by Senators Grant and Keeffe to the amendment by Senator Francis was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Francis were adopted:

On page 13, section 11 (3), line 25, after “and” and before “revoke” strike “to” and insert “may”.

On page 13, section 11 (3), line 30, after “chapter” and before “any” strike “on” and insert “or”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Woody yield please? Senator Woody, on page 14, line 21, 22 it says, ‘All fees required by this section shall be submitted with the application and shall not be refundable.’ Would you explain that? If you apply for a liquor license and you get turned down you get your fee back. If you apply for any other thing and it is not granted you get your fee refunded. Why is this non-refundable?”

Senator Woody: “Senator Woodall, I do not know why you are asking me. I am not the, I was going to say godfather, to this bill but I suppose that is not a good word. I think if my memory is correct that this came out of the original bill, the original Senate Bill No. 2145, and I cannot speak on it any further than that.”

Senator Woodall: “I will hope that when we get to that area you will give me a chance to prepare an amendment. It seems grossly unfair if a man sends in two hundred and fifty dollars and it is denied that you go ahead and keep the money. Maybe Senator Francis knows.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, in order to help Senator Woodall with his amendment I can explain what the testimony was before the committee and that was that it was felt, number one, people who wanted a gambling permit might want to take their chances on this and so maybe there is a little element of chance there, but there is certainly good reason for letting them pay their money and leave it in and that is that it costs money to investigate. It costs money to process the application and they need the money to process it whether they grant it or not. That was the theory and that was the reason that we decided to go along with that.”

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 14, section 11, line 6, after “commission” and before the semicolon insert “: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That a private individual conducting bingo in his private residence for entertainment and not for profit or a nonprofit or charitable organization conducting bingo raffles or amusement games in which the gross revenue per annum does not exceed $500 shall be exempt from said permits, fees, taxes and reporting otherwise required”.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: “Senator Francis could be right but in reading over this bill I do not quite follow his reasoning. I remember when I was a kid they used to give, among other Christmas presents, a little game called Lotto. Do you gentlemen know what that word means? Well, it is the Italian word for lottery. And we played lotteries when we were kids under this game of Lotto and nobody thought they were committing any crimes. And what I am trying to do in this amendment, Senator Francis, I could be wrong, you remember I asked for a little help on some of these. My intentions are good but I do want to have the right to have a bingo game in my home and invite any of you and your wives in and play a little bingo game and not be put in the jug for five years and fined a hundred thousand bucks which I haven’t got. Now, if you can show me where in this bill that we are off the hook, I would like to have it specifically pointed out. Furthermore, before I sit down, I am opposed to the general thesis that every citizen is a crook or a criminal until proven otherwise. When we talk about the distrust that people have for government there is one of the reasons. If we think that everybody is a crook and it says in this bill in a later amendment that I have that you are a crook, that you are guilty, until you prove yourself innocent. How do you like that one, Senator Francis?"

Senator Francis: "I certainly agree with the last part of what you say. In fact my basic attitude, and this is the reason we have punch boards, pull-tubs and other things in here, is that people ought to be able to do what they want unless there is a very strong overriding public problem that is created by it and this is why we have the tight control. And you ask specifically, Senator Canfield, if I could spell out the player exemption for you. I could read it for you if you want. It is . . . ."

Senator Canfield: "If you will please. I like to be very clear as to the wording and intent that will permit that bingo game in a private home for your friends and guests."

Senator Francis: "All right. ‘Player’ except as otherwise in section 31 of this act provided means the natural person who engages on equal terms with the other participants and solely as a contestant or bettor in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing without fee or remuneration acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. That is basically it. There is a proviso for employees and officials of nonprofit organizations who assist also, but for the purpose of people who want to be able to socially gamble the player exemption takes them out of this act."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, maybe if I spell it out in simpler terms, at least my understanding of what Senator Francis read and of the full provisions of the bill. If you invite Senator Francis and me to your house to play bingo and we are all equal, you are not taking any house cut out of it but we are all equal, then the player exemption applies and you do not have to register, you do not have to pay fees, you do not have to do anything. But if you do anything in that game to give you a better shot than we, then you are a professional gambler and you have to register. Now that is as simple as I think it can be made."

Senator Murray: "Mr. President, to be specific to Senator Canfield’s request to play bingo in his own home, I would recommend that under the player exemption that you have that you take one card at a time, everybody pays a dime for it, you put in a pot and you have fifty cents in the pot if five of us are playing, the one who says ‘bingo’ first gets the full fifty cents so that we all have an equal opportunity at it. If it accumulates for the evening or to make anything else that would make the bookkeeping more complicated, then I would suggest that you are probably running into problems with the law. Now that is the reason that I am suggesting that we not adopt your amendment, is that the bookkeeping becomes virtually impossible. A gross of five hundred dollars would have to be an accumulation of three hundred and sixty-five days of activity and would be virtually impossible for a private nonprofit individual running it strictly for fun to keep track of any kind of records that would prove or disprove that you had only operated with something not exceeding five hundred dollars in an entire year. This is one of the things that I was talking about earlier about your request that we be able to do something that I think we all agree with. You should be able to have an activity in your home with personal friends that is strictly an even chance for everybody type of game and we do not want a law against that. By the same token, when you start trying to write a law that specifically permits that, you also open up wide loopholes for the kind of activity that we are trying to stop. I urge that we vote down this amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would either Senator Bottiger or Senator Francis answer the question? Frequently I have been speaker at some service club where at the noon hour, for example, they sometimes play bingo and they have a winner but maybe he only gets paid back half of what the total amount that they paid for cards amounted to or they just plain put their names in a hat and they all ante a quarter and again the winner only gets half of it back, the balance goes into this Lions or Kiwanis or whatever it is or crippled children's fund and so forth. Now where are we on that sort of thing under this act as now written?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, there is an amendment on the desk that comes, I think, one or two next to handle the raffle part of your question. That is where you have the little plastic container and all the members' names are in there and they use it to stimulate attendance because if you are not present you do not win. And they build the pot up and half goes to some charity. We have an amendment up there on that. The bingo question you have asked, I think you would have to register. If the Lions are running a once a week bingo game or once a month bingo game at their meeting and taking half for a charitable purpose or any purpose I think they would have to register under the act and if you do not want them to, I think you need an amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, I am not learned in the law as some of you gentlemen are but I have been reading over this section, Senator Francis. I have read it over several times and I find nothing in there to answer my question. All it does is define player but it does not give any exemption as I read the paragraph. Now maybe you can show me precisely where it does."

Senator Francis: "Senator Canfield, I had earlier read starting at the bottom line of page 13 is where the player exemption is given its effect. It says, 'Provided Further, That no permit shall be required of any player, as defined in section 3 of this act, unless such permit is otherwise required by this chapter' so that is what takes the player out of this act. Players, as defined in the definition section do not have to register or acquire a permit under this act.
They are not subject to the controls of this act."

Senator Canfield: "Now where do you go from the definition? What part did you quote first?"

Senator Francis: "The quote I just made is at the bottom of page 13, refers back to the definition section and says players do not have to have a permit. The part I read earlier defined players. This says players, as I have defined, do not have to have a permit. The bottom of page 13 and the top of page 14, top two lines of page 14."

Senator Canfield: "You can assure me then, your good legal advice says that my question would be answered by this bill as now written?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Canfield, you give me pause when I say that. I had been satisfied. I had checked this out myself and had the same concern you did. That language satisfied me where it says, 'No permit shall be required of any player as defined in section 3 of this act unless such permit is otherwise required by this chapter."

Senator Canfield: "Thank you."

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Canfield to the amendment by Senator Francis was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 14, line 7, after "permits" and before "issued" insert "except for agricultural fairs authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW".

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:
On page 14, section 11, line 7, strike "(3) (a)" and insert "(4) (a)".
Reletter remaining subsections consecutively.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Bottiger to the amendment by Senator Francis:
On page 14, section 11, line 10, after "raffle" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That if the value of the prize is $200 or less and the value of the ticket is $1.00 or less, no permit fee shall be required".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Is there anywhere in this a limitation with respect to the number of raffles which may be held?"

Senator Bottiger: "I have been advised by Senator Woody and others working that there is none."

Senator Mardesich: "Then would it be possible to hold a raffle with a prize of two hundred dollars each consecutive day?"

Senator Bottiger: "You would still have to register with the commission. You would not have to pay the fee. This is a policy question, Senator Mardesich. I do not know the answer because some of these clubs meet once a week, some of them meet once a month. I cannot conceive of anybody being able to organize a going raffle with the limitation of two hundred dollars in the prize and a dollar for the ticket. If there is any other language that you would like to add I would be . . . ."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? I notice that you and I submitted the amendment on the same section here. I add the difference being two hundred dollars in prizes in the aggregate. You have it one dollar or less per ticket and two hundred dollars for the prize. In other words, under Senator Mardesich's suggestion you could have one hundred and ninety-nine dollar prizes all night and dollar tickets and not pay the twenty-five dollars at all. I might suggest to you, I wonder if an oral amendment, I think two hundred dollars is rather high as I think about it, and I just wonder, an oral amendment maybe to take your deal down to fifty dollars or adopt the language in mine that makes it prizes in the aggregate of two hundred dollars in any one day."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Dore, I like your aggregate idea and I had not even thought of, frankly, the possibility of running several raffles."

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Bottiger was held for consideration later today.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:
On page 14, section 11, line 13, after "location" and before the period insert "per annum".

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:
On page 14, section 11, line 18, after "card" and before "rooms" insert "or Mah Jongg".

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:
On page 14, subsection (4) (vi), line 20, insert ": PROVIDED, That no card game provided for in this subsection may operate without a house dealer or house supervised take-off."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Henry: "Will Senator Woody yield to a question? Well, in that particular section I notice that you have a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars in a year for the one table and one hundred dollars a year for the rest of them. How do you propose to pay this if the house is not allowed to make any money?"

Senator Woody: "At the committee hearings, of which there were many, we had people from the tavern industries, we had an interesting fellow, I cannot recall his name, up from California who ran a sandwich shop and a card room. All of them maintained, this fellow from California interests me, had three tables. He charged, and this would be allowable if the commission were to permit it, he charged fifty cents every thirty minutes for a person to be in there. Now under the rules that we have it here for the commission, the commission can permit this if they want to. The tavern people said that two hundred and fifty dollars for the first table, one hundred dollars for each additional table, this we can live with because you are going to have people in there, they are not going to sit there just smoking cigarettes. I suppose one of them will have a drink now and then. They figure they are going to make money just like they make money having pool tables in their establishments now. It is a form of entertainment, people come to their place rather than go into the place next door. They have a pool table. They have a better card table. They have better clientele. All of them said they could live with this. We got the fee, the two hundred and fifty dollar thing up and one hundred dollars per extra table up as high as we possibly could push it in our estimation."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Day failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was not adopted.

There being no objection, the following amendment by Senator Dore to the amendment by Senator Francis was withdrawn:

On page 14, section 11, line 10, strike the period and insert "where prizes awarded exceed a market value in excess of $200.00."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Dore to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 14, line 10, after "raffle" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That if the aggregate of prizes awarded in any calendar month does not exceed $200 and the price of a ticket is $1.00 or less, no permit fee shall be required."

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 14, after line 20, insert "(vii) Agricultural fairs authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW:

Bingo—five dollars per day per concession."

Raffles—twenty-five dollars per raffle.

Amusement games—twenty-five dollars per fair per annum."

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 14, line 22, after "permit" strike the rest of the sentence and insert "and not less than 50% shall be refunded if the application is denied."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Canfield yield to a question? Would you say there is some expense involved? In other words, an application is made. Is not an investigation made so there is some cost to the state? Is it the purpose of your amendment in only taking back fifty percent as to allow some cost to the commission for the manpower and expense they have incurred in investigating into the particular application?"

Senator Canfield: "Senator Dore, I think I would be inaccurate to say there is not some cost in processing any kind of a document of any kind whatsoever for anybody, but I think that is covered in the fees which are granted and I do not think we should keep a person's money who is denied."

Senator Dore: "I was just trying to go along with your thinking. You think that your amendment is fair then, that fifty percent would be returned, fifty percent retained?"

Senator Canfield: "I suggested fifty percent. Senator Woodall feels that a complete refund would be more in order and I do not question that. I would accept that if the body will."

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Canfield to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

Amend the Canfield amendment to section 11, line 22, as follows:
After "and" strike "not less than 50%".

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment, as amended, to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 14, section 11, line 25, after "waive" and before "all" insert "or increase".
Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Dore failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 15, section 11, after line 9, insert "(e) In the case of agricultural fairs authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW the tax on bingo games, raffles and amusement games shall not exceed 5% of the gross receipts from said sources."

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 15, section 11, line 29, after "(8)" being renumbered now as "(9)" strike "To" and insert "Except in the case of an agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, and service clubs as part of a community celebration, to".

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 15, section 11, line 33, after "for" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That each agricultural fair as defined in RCW 15.76 and 36.37 shall report income from bingo, raffles and amusement games to the commission not later than 30 days after the termination of the fair"

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 16, section 11, line 8, after "commission," and before "cause" insert "and".

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

On page 16, section 11, line 25, after "compensation" strike the remainder of the subsection through "law" on line 30.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Francis were adopted:

On page 17, line 21, after "activity" and before "may" insert ", organizations".

On page 17, line 24, after the comma and before "no" insert "and".

Senator Van Hollebeke moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On page 17, section 13, line 21, after "activity" strike all the material down to the comma on line 24, and on line 25 after "member" and before "of a" insert "or employee".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke failed and the amendment was not adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Mr. President, are not we still under a Senate rule that when we have material distributed to our desks that it is put there at the request of a Senator?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that is correct, Senator."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "There has just been a circular put out, I notice it was distributed to my desk and to all the members of the Senate, that has no Senator's name on it. It is a direct lobby for a particular measure and I think this is a breach of Senate rules. If we allow this to start happening, I cannot keep track of the amendments on my desk, let alone keeping track of some agency lobbying a bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "You are correct, Senator. They are not supposed to do it unless a Senator has requested it."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, under what Senate rule that is in effect now is this governed by?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The tradition and custom."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "It is contained in our Senate rules which we have not adopted."

POINT OF INQUIRY

years ago we had some problems with Southwest Washington Pollution and Air Control Authority that we thought that they were being somewhat unreasonable and the legislators from the area called in the concerned people both from the Air Pollution Control Authority and the Department of Ecology to point out some of the problems on which we thought that they were not being too cooperative; for example, with some of our people in working out these new requirements and regulations. We had it worked out quite well. We have not had the problems in the last year or so. But it is possible in the future that those problems could arise again and I am reading in page 9, new section 10, line 27, the word 'nuisances.'
In addition to any other powers granted to them by law it now reads, 'The fire protection agency authorized to issue burning permits may regulate or prohibit outdoor burning in order to prevent or abate the nuisances caused by such burning.' Now is there any definition of nuisances in here? It would seem to me it might be quite a broad . . . ."

Senator Washington: "No, I think your answer may be that your Southwest Fire Protection Agency is not an agency which grants permits. This would allow, as at the present time, would allow, make clear, that cities and towns can pass ordinances relating to this matter. Many towns do. This just makes it clear that we are not taking powers away from the local agencies, that they continue to have that power. Probably Centralia and cities do have nuisance statutes. It would be possible for them to amend a nuisance statute and cover burning."

On page 2, following section 2, add the following new sections:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 60.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If any delay in issuance of notice to proceed or in construction following an award of any public construction contract is primarily caused by acts or omissions of persons or agencies other than the contractor and a preliminary, special or permanent restraining order of a court of competent jurisdiction is issued pursuant to litigation and the appropriate public contracting body does not elect to delete the completion of the contract or order funds reserved paid to the contractor as provided by RCW 60.28.010(3) and 60.28.070 respectively, the appropriate contracting body will issue a change order or force account directive to cover reasonable costs incurred by the contractor as a result of such delay. These costs shall include but not be limited to contractor’s costs for wages, labor costs other than wages, wage taxes, materials, equipment rentals, insurance, bonds, professional fees, and subcontracts, attributable to such delay plus a reasonable sum for overhead and profit.

In the event of a dispute between the contracting body and the contractor, arbitration procedures may be commenced under the applicable terms of the construction contract, or, if the contract contains no such provision for arbitration, under the then obtaining rules of the American Arbitration Association.

If the delay caused by litigation exceeds six months, the contractor may then elect to terminate the contract and to delete the completion of the contract and receive payment in proportion to the amount of the work completed plus the cost of the delay. Amounts retained and accumulated under RCW 60.28.010 shall be held for a period of thirty days following the election of the contractor to terminate. Election not to terminate the contract by the contractor shall not affect the accumulation of costs incurred as a result of the delay provided above.

(2) This section shall not apply to any contract awarded pursuant to an invitation for bid issued on or before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision or part of this 1973 act shall be judged to be invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall not affect the validity of any provision or part of this 1973 act not adjudged invalid or unconstitutional.

The motion by Senator Atwood carried on a rising vote and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.
The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, Engrossed House Bill No. 476, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Gardner yield? Senator, I would like to know why you struck the Senate committee amendment, and the reason I am asking I do not really know why but I had quite a number of communications from the school districts in my area and they were uniformly opposed to this bill. Yes, opposed. But I got a number of letters from individuals who were for the bill and I am wondering if you would take just a moment to explain why that could be. Is it because more and more would be called certificated personnel and get on a higher pay scale or a pension program or something of that sort or what is the reason for it?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Canfield, I personally have had no communication with regard to opposition to this bill. I thought I would add that, one. Secondly, what it does basically, it has nothing to do with the wage structure. It simply clarifies those personnel within a school building who are termed to be certificated for purposes of coming under the professional negotiations act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, would the school nurse now be a certificated personnel?"

Senator Ridder: "In some cases she is, in some cases she is not. In the case where she does educate, and there are cases where school nurses carry on classes within schools and carry on a health education program, then that person would be a certificated person and would come under the RCW. Now if the Superintendent of Public Instruction through the state school board came to the conclusion that nurses were in fact educators and were able to set that as a rule of certification, they might be able to say that all nurses are certificated. I do not know whether that would be true or not, whether they would make that kind of a rule."

Senator Guess: "What classification do janitors carry?"

Senator Ridder: "Those are non-classified or non-certificated as we call it. These are only the people who work with children and the people who have an educational part to play in the school."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Perhaps I was confused, there was quite a bit of noise going on. Was the pink slip section 1 stricken? Or just section 2? Was section 1 stricken?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "No, Senator Canfield."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2059 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2059 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Greive yield? Senator Greive, we had a discussion of this in the Rules Committee yesterday and I am sorry I did not think to ask you about it. When we brought this bill out we knew there was another bill coming over from the House that was almost identical. I have no opposition to your amendment but I question whether or not maybe we should not take Substitute House Bill No. 674, amend this bill on to it and send it over. It looks to me like a useless gesture to send another Senate bill back to the House at this late time with the three day rule in effect."

Senator Greive: "We have the bill in the committee. There are some substantial differences between the two measures as I understand it."

Senator Bailey: "I have no objection to striking everything after the bill number, and putting your bill on."

Senator Greive: "I am not that familiar with the other bill that I am prepared at this time to say what the other bill does. I will attempt to get the other bill out but I have to take a look at it."

Debate ensued.

The state highway commission is hereby authorized to undertake the following study in cooperation with the interested local jurisdictions and to report its findings and recommendations in connection therewith to the legislative transportation committee or to the standing committees of the legislature on transportation and utilities by August, 1974:

(1) The highway commission shall conduct a study of the most feasible method to allow the general public, through the state, to regain and share a portion of the private economic benefits which are conferred on adjacent property owners by the expenditures of public money for the construction and improvement of public transportation facilities including highways, roads, and streets and to expedite the construction of such transportation improvements. The following proposals shall be considered and included in the findings and recommendations:

(a) That the ad valorem taxes levied by the state or by any taxing district be segregated so that the taxes levied against any increase in the true and fair value of real property, which increase is attributable to the construction or planned construction of a public transportation facility, shall be used to reimburse prior public expenditures or to pay any indebtedness incurred for that project.

(b) That subsequent to the first official public announcement that a public transportation facility is to be developed, an excise tax be levied upon all real estate transactions involving properties lying within a specified distance of any point of access to such transportation facility. A fixed percentage of the increased valuation of such a land parcel being transferred within a specified period of time following such announcement shall be paid to the public transportation agency. In the event no real estate transaction has occurred within that specified period of time, other methods of recouping a reasonable part of the unrealized gains shall be developed.

(c) That a local improvement district be formed to assist in the financing of the development of a proposed public transportation facility within a specified distance of the access points of such facility. Varying rates could be applied as the distance from the access points increases.

(d) That a public transportation agency be allowed, within appropriate limitations and safeguards, to acquire rights of way beyond the limits of the proposed transportation facility itself in anticipation of a later resale of such properties to aid in the financing of the transportation facility.

(e) That upon the first public announcement of a proposed public transportation facility, the fair market value of all lands, or parts thereof, within a specified distance of the proposed facility, shall be discounted for any subsequent increases in value attributable to the transportation improvement when the necessary rights of way are acquired.

(2) Based on the findings and recommendations of the results of the study outlined under subsection (1) of this section the department of highways, in cooperation with the interested local jurisdictions, shall study methods by which the design, acquisition of rights of way, and construction of an interchange at state route number 5 and state route number 325 from the Swamp Creek interchange at state route number 5 to 164th Street, southwest, in south Snohomish county can be financed.

(3) There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to conduct the studies outlined under subsections (1) and (2) of this section: PROVIDED, That the study under subsection (2) of this section shall be undertaken only if the interested local jurisdictions agree to pay fifty percent of the cost thereof, up to a maximum amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars."

Sec. 40. Section 36.69.140, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 20, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.140 are each amended to read as follows:

A park and recreation district shall not have power to levy an annual authorized levy, but it shall have the power to levy a tax upon the property included within the district, in the manner prescribed for cities for the purpose of exceeding the limitations established by Article VII, section 2, [as amended by Amendment 17.] of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052. Such special, voted levy may be either for operating funds or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund. A park and recreation district may issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within such district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of [millage] dollar rate limitations in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.52.056.

Sec. 41. Section 36.82.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.82.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of raising revenue for establishing, laying out, constructing, altering, repairing, improving, and maintaining county roads, bridges, and wharves necessary for vehicle ferriage and for other proper county purposes, the board shall annually at the time of making the levy for general purposes make a uniform tax levy throughout the county, or any road district thereof, of not to exceed [ten mills on the dollar] two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the last assessed valuation of the taxable property in the county, or road district thereof, unless other law of the state requires a lower maximum levy, in which event such lower maximum levy shall control. All funds accruing from such levy shall be credited to and deposited in the county road fund except that revenue diverted under RCW 36.33.220 shall be placed in a separate and identifiable account within the county current expense fund.

Sec. 42. Section 11, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.93.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of annexation to a city or a town, where the area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than [two] eight hundred thousand dollars in assessed valuation, the chairman of the review board may by written statement declare that review by the board is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case the board shall not review such annexation.

Sec. 43. Section 6, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy, to levy and place in the fund a tax of [one-half of one mill on] twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all the taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary on the condition of the fund establishes that the whole or any part of said [millage] dollar rate is not necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the fund, the levy of said [one-half of one mill] twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of said [millage] dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy and in addition to the city levy limit set forth in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, to levy and place in the fund an additional tax of [one-half of one mill on] twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary establishes that all or any part of the additional [one-half of one mill] twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value levy is unnecessary to meet the estimated demands on the fund under this chapter for the ensuing budget year, the levy of said additional [one-half of one mill] twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of such [millage] dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

Sec. 44. Section 4, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby created for firefighters and law enforcement officers.

(1) All fire fighters and law enforcement officers employed as such on or after March 1, 1970, on a full time fully compensated basis in this state shall be members of the retirement system established by this chapter with respect to all periods of service as such, to the exclusion of any pension system existing under any prior act except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any employee serving as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter on March 1, 1970, who is then making retirement contributions under any prior act shall have his membership transferred to the system established by this chapter as of such date. Upon retirement for service or for disability, or death, of any such employee, his retirement benefits earned under this chapter shall be computed and paid. In addition, his benefits under the prior retirement act to which he was making contributions at the time of this transfer shall be computed as if he had not transferred. For the purpose of such computations, the employee's creditability of service and eligibility for service or disability retirement and survivor and all other benefits shall continue to be as provided in such prior retirement act, as if transfer of membership had not occurred. The excess, if any, of the benefits so computed, giving full value to survivor benefits, over the benefits payable under this chapter shall be paid. If the employee's prior retirement system was the Washington public employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by that system; if the employee's prior retirement system was the state-wide city employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred; PROVIDED, That any death in line of duty lump sum benefit payment shall continue to be the obligation of that system as provided in RCW 41.44.210; in the case of all other prior retirement systems, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred.

(3) All funds held by any firemen's or policemen's relief and pension fund shall remain in that fund for the purpose of paying the obligations of the fund. The municipality shall continue to levy the [millage] dollar rate as provided in RCW 41.16.060, and this [millage] dollar rate shall be used for the purpose of paying the benefits provided in chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW. The obligations of chapter 41.20 RCW shall continue to be paid from whatever financial sources the city has been using for this purpose.

(4) Any member transferring from the Washington public employees' retirement system or the state-wide city employees' retirement system shall have transferred from the appropriate fund of the prior system of membership, a sum sufficient to pay into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund the amount of the employees' and employers' contributions plus credited interest in the prior system for all service, as defined in this chapter, from the date of the employee's entrance therein until March 1, 1970. Except as provided for in subsection (2), such transfer of funds shall discharge said state retirement systems from any further obligation to pay benefits to such transferring members with respect to such service.

(5) All unfunded liabilities created by this or any other section of this chapter shall be computed by the actuary in his biennial evaluation. Such computation shall provide for amortization of the unfunded liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from March 1, 1970. The amount thus computed as necessary shall be reported to the governor by the board of the retirement system for inclusion in the budget. The legislature shall make the necessary appropriation to fund the unfunded liability from the state general fund beginning with the 1971-1973 biennium.
Sec. 45. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1911 and RCW 45.72.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be levied annually at the same time the levy for general county taxes is made, and by the officers levying the said county tax, a tax of not more than [five mills on the dollar] one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value on all taxable property within the territorial limits of every such road district as the same existed at the time of the adoption of such township organization for the payment of and until the full amount of all indebtedness, together with all accrued and accruing interest thereon, existing against any such road district, shall have been paid in full.

Sec. 46. Section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 45.82.020 are each amended to read as follows:
