STATE OF WASHINGTON

FORTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE

FIRST DAY

The Forty-third Senate of the state of Washington assembled in the State Capitol, pursuant to law, at noon. Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate, called the Senate to order.

The Color Guard consisting of Pages Kevin Triplett and Jeny Donohue, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John’s Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, WHO ART THE FOUNTAIN OF WISDOM AND THE SOURCE OF ALL STRENGTH, WE TURN TO YOU AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS LEGISLATIVE SESSION AND ASK YOUR BLESSING UPON THE EFFORTS OF THOSE WHO WORK IN THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. MAY THE MEMBERS OF THIS BODY REMEMBER THEY ARE HERE TO SERVE THE WELFARE OF ALL THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE, AND BY THEIR WORK PASS SUCH LEGISLATION AS WILL TEND TOWARD THE GOOD OF ALL OUR CITIZENS.

"GUIDE AND DIRECT THEM, OUR FATHER, THROUGH THE MANY MEETINGS THEY WILL ATTEND; PROTECT THEM BY YOUR EVER-PRESENT LOVE FROM THE ERRORS CAUSED BY FATIGUE AND THE MISTAKES Brought ABOUT BY HASTE. CONFIRM IN THEM A DESIRE TO BE A SERVANT IN OUR FREE SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT AND DEFEND THEM FROM THE TEMPTATIONS TO CLOSE THE DOOR TO THE PUBLIC AND HEAR ONLY THE VOICES OF SELF-INTEREST AND POWER.

"BY YOUR GRACE WE ARE SUSTAINED, O LORD. YOUR SPIRIT IN US HAS DRIVEN US TO BE FREE. HELP US NEVER TO BE AFRAID OR TOO PROUD TO STOP AND ASK WHAT YOU IN YOUR WISDOM WOULD HAVE US DO, AND GIVE US THE COURAGE TO FOLLOW WHERE YOU LEAD THE WAY.

ROLL CALL

The Acting Secretary called the following roll of holdover members of the Senate and all were present: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Frank Connor, Fred H. Dore, Martin James Durkan, George Fleming, Peter D. Francis, Booth Gardner, R. R. Bob Greive, Sam C. Guess, Gordon Herr, August P. Mardiesich, Jack Metcalf, John Murray, Ted G. Peterson, Robert C. Ridder, George W. Scott, John H. Stender, Robert W. Twigg, Nat Washington, Jonathan Whetzel, Perry B. Woodall.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President of the Senate appointed a committee of honor consisting of Senators Woodall and Francis to escort the Honorable Robert F. Brachtenbach, Justice of the Supreme Court of the state of Washington, to the Senate Chamber and a seat upon the rostrum.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Office of the Secretary, January 8, 1973.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON,
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

SIR:

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the State of Washington, do hereby certify that the following is a full, true and correct list of persons elected to the office of State Senator at the General Election held in the several voting precincts in the State of Washington on the seventh day of November, 1972, as shown by the official returns of said election now on file in the office of the Secretary of State; together with a list of "holdover" Senators from the forty-second session of the Legislature and that all of the following are entitled to seats in the Senate of the Legislature of the State of Washington, at its forty-third biennial session commencing on the eighth day of January, A.D., 1973, as appears from said election returns:

I further certify that as of December 27, 1972, James A. Andersen resigned as State Senator, 48th Legislative District.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington at Olympia, this eighth day of January, A.D., 1973.

A. LUDLOW KRAMER, Secretary of State.

(Seal of the state of Washington)

ROLL CALL

The Acting Secretary called the roll of the following newly re-elected Senators and all were present: Robert C. Bailey, George W. Clarke, William S. Day, Hubert F. Donohue, Al Henry, Dan Jolly, James E. Keefe, Reuben Knoblauch, Harry B. Lewis, Jim Matson, Charles E. Newschander, Gary M. Odegard, Lowell Peterson, A. L. "Slim" Rasmussen, Gordon Sandison, George L. Sellar, Joe Stortini, Don Talley, Gordon Walgren.

The President requested the Acting Sergeant at Arms to conduct all of the newly re-elected Senators to the bar of the Senate to receive their oath of office.

Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court thereupon administered the oath of office to each of the newly re-elected Senators.

The President presented to each of the newly re-elected Senators his certificate of election.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen in the audience, during this particular station break, Reverend Perry has requested that I make an unpaid announcement to the effect that the rising and sitting that you are going through is remarkably good preparation for membership in the Episcopal Church. Do you wish equal time, Senator Keefe?"

ROLL CALL

The Acting Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the following newly elected members of the Senate and all were present: R. Ted Bottiger, Gary Grant, R. H. (Bob) Lewis, Dan Marsh, Raymon Van Hollebeke, F. Pat Wanamaker, Frank Woody.

The Acting Sergeant at Arms escorted each of the newly elected members of the Senate to the bar of the Senate to receive his oath of office.

Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court thereupon administered the oath of office to each of the newly elected members.
The President presented to each of the newly elected Senators his certificate of election.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the President is sure that you join with him in expressing our deepest thanks and appreciation to Judge Brachtenbach for performing so nobly and valiantly here today. The President should also like to say how happy he is to be back with you holdover members of the Senate and to extend greetings and salutations to the newly re-elected members and the newly elected members. This morning is usually and traditionally a happy and joyous occasion when we can forget the rigors of the campaign and look forward to the opportunities to serve the people of our district and state. It is nice to see so many wives and, I am sure, some parents and children here today to find your loved one sworn into one of the highest offices of the country. It is a signal honor and in each instance is certainly deserved. We are happy that you are with us today. We would like to greet you and welcome you and invite you to come back often. It is a pleasure, gentlemen, to see you in such familiar surroundings. Thank you so much."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The President declared nominations to be open for President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, I would like to at this time place in nomination the name of Senator Al Henry.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Henry is a distinguished colleague of ours who has served his state and his district well. He has been President Pro Tem of this body before. He has done an outstanding job as a presiding officer, being fair to both sides of the aisle, and throughout all of the time that I have known him he has not been afraid to take a stand on unpopular issues when he thinks that he is right. And at the same time Senator Henry has never been afraid to cast a hard vote when it is necessary for the welfare and being of this state. I hope that you will cast your vote for Senator Al Henry."

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, I rise to second the nomination of Senator Al Henry as President Pro Tem of the Senate. I have had the privilege of working with Senator Henry in connection with the Interim Committee on Transportation, as many of us have had here in this body. We have found him to be most fair to all of us in connection with that obligation. We have had all the opportunity, of course, of seeing his splendid work when he has assumed the responsibilities of yourself, and has guided us here in this Senate. I think that the remarks of Senator Durkan are well taken and it is a pleasure for me to second Senator Henry's nomination."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I rise also to second the nomination of Senator Henry and I would like to say that I have worked very closely with Senator Henry in the Interim Committee on Transportation. I have found that he has always been extremely fair. The term 'highways are not a partisan matter' has flourished under his administration of this committee. I think that we have worked very diligently for the betterment of the state and for the expenditure of the tax dollars. Senator Henry has been in the legislative halls since 1941 when he first came to the House. He served four terms there and then came to the Senate in 1957 and has a very distinguished career. This will be his fifth term as pro tem and I am sure that we all have watched with a great deal of admiration the way he handles the gavel and sometimes he has earned the appellation of 'the fastest gavel in the west', but I believe it has always been with a great deal of fairness and it gives me a great deal of pleasure to second the nomination of Senator Henry."

MOTIONS

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Mardesich the nominations were closed.
FIRST DAY, JANUARY 8, 1973

On motion of Senator Mardesich, a unanimous ballot was cast for Senator Al Henry as President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

The President appointed Senators Durkan and Guess to act as a committee of honor to escort Senator Henry to the rostrum.

Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court administered the oath of office to Senator Henry.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Mr. President, honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the people of the audience and all of you, I am sure, agree that what you have just accorded Senator Henry is an honor that is richly deserved. And Al, certainly this action on the part of the Senate is positive proof, concrete evidence of the high regard and respect and affection each member of the Senate holds for you. I am very proud to have, over the years, the opportunity to serve with you, Al. You are one of the greatest and I would like, before you get up and hog all the limelight, to introduce the beautiful Mrs. Henry. Won't you please step forth. And Al, welcome back once again. It is a joy to be with you. Congratulations."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Thank you, Governor and thank you, members of the Senate. I am glad they made it unanimous and we did not have a roll call because in years past when this honor was accorded me, I always wanted to vote for Perry Woodall. And when they did not put up any opposition this time I did not know, just having a conflict of interest at stake under the rules, I did not know how the heck I was going to vote. So I am glad that the floor leader was on his toes.

"This is a great honor to me and I can assure you, I think you all know that from the past sessions that I have served, that when you get to your feet I cannot see whether you are wearing an elephant or a donkey. You are a Senator, a brother Senator, and the floor is yours and I will do my best to do a very fair and impartial job. Thank you so much."

The President declared the nominations were now in order for the office of Vice President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

Senator Greive: "I rise at this time to nominate Senator Keefe. Mr. President, I think that I am a fitting person to place Senator Keefe's name in nomination since the office was created during my time in the Senate, and Senator Keefe's. Originally, when I first came to the Senate, the office of President Pro Tempore did not exist. And it was Senator Rosellini and I that dreamed up the idea and put it into effect and along through the years we have had many different Senators hold the office. Senator Keefe first came to this body in 1949. He is known affectionately in his home district as the people's Senator. He is a man of loyalty, principle and courage. He has a strong voice and a real expert in the previous question. And finally I would like to again place in nomination the name of the illustrious, powerful doctor, Senator James Keefe."

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President, I too would like to second the nomination of Doctor of Juris James Keefe. We lawyers who are declining in total strength welcome him to our ranks. I received a letter from the President of Gonzaga last year, possibly because he knew that Senator Keefe and I have shared office space for the past four sessions, inviting me to the graduation exercises. I came and I witnessed his installation as a Doctor of Jurisprudence. It was a very touching ceremony and one thing the learned Father said that I recall is that the phrase, 'public service is public trust' had always been justified by James Keefe. Proof of what he is thought of in his own community, of course, is proven by the fact that he has never been defeated there and last time he faced a very vigorous challenger and the people again returned him. It has been a pleasure to office with him, to work with him. I have found him pleasant and always congenial. It is a pleasure this morning, Doctor, to second your nomination."
MOTIONS

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Mardesich the nominations were closed.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, a unanimous ballot was cast for Senator James E. Keefe as Vice President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

The President appointed Senators Washington and Twigg to act as a committee of honor to escort Senator Keefe to the rostrum.

Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court administered the oath of office to Senator Keefe.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the next item on the agenda indicates appropriate remarks. Senator Keefe, you are not getting away so easily. It is impossible to find appropriate remarks to describe you, Senator. The President will merely say that he agrees with the remarks that were made by the members in your behalf. And at this time the members of the Senate and the ladies and gentlemen present would be honored to hear your pearls of wisdom emanate from your lips in your own inimitably clever style."

Senator Keefe: "Thank you, Governor. I wish to thank the people who stood up for me and made such fine remarks and especially my roommate, Senator Woodall, and Senator Greive. If I am called upon I mean to serve you in my fair manner. For the last eight years, Senator Henry has been red-shirting me. I only sit in that chair. So thank you very much and I hope that we have a nice session and do the job for the people of the state of Washington. Thank you."

STATE OF WASHINGTON—DEPARTMENT OF STATE

I, A. LUDLOW KRAMER, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office the attached are true and correct copies of the papers relating to the appointment of JOHN D. JONES as of January 8, 1973 to the position of State Senator, 48th Legislative District to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Senator James A. Andersen.

In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, January 8, 1973.

A. LUDLOW KRAMER, Secretary of State.

KING COUNTY COUNCIL
Tracy J. Owen, Chairman
Room 403, King County Court House
Seattle, Washington 98104

January 8, 1973

Mr. A. Ludlow Kramer
Secretary of State
State of Washington
Olympia, Washington

Dear Mr. Kramer:

This is to confirm the appointment of Mr. John D. Jones to the Washington State Senate effective January 8, 1973. Representative Jones was at the top of the list submitted by the State Central Committee and the County Central Committee.

Yours very truly,
Tracy J. Owen, Chairman
King County Council
FIRST DAY, JANUARY 8, 1973

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
Snohomish County, Washington

RESOLUTION
APPOINTMENT OF STATE SENATOR

WHEREAS, it appears that there is a vacancy in the office of STATE SENATOR for the 48th Legislative District, due to the resignation of Senator JAMES A. ANDERSEN, and,

WHEREAS, it appears that the 48th Legislative District was at the time of Senator Andersen’s election to said office, comprised of a portion of King County and Snohomish County, therefore, making it necessary for the joint action of the King and Snohomish County Boards of County Commissioners to fill this vacancy, and,

WHEREAS, pursuant to the 32nd Amendment to the Washington State Constitution, the State Republican Central Committee has submitted the names of three nominees for this appointment of which State Representative JOHN D. JONES of Kirkland, Washington, was one.

NOW, THEREFORE, ON MOTION, in conjunction with the KING COUNTY COUNCIL, JOHN D. JONES of 18 Bridlewood Circle, Kirkland, Washington is hereby appointed STATE SENATOR for the 48th Legislative District, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Senator James A. Andersen. Said appointment is to become effective Monday, January 8, 1973.

Done in regular Session this 8th day of January, 1973.

E. SAM KRAETZ, Chairman.
CHARLES HILL, Commissioner.
N. RICHARD FORSGREN, Commissioner.

Constituting the board of county commissioners of Snohomish County, Washington.

ATTEST: STANLEY DUBUQUE, County Auditor and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Board

By Cathy Seay, Deputy Auditor.

The President asked the Sergeant at Arms to escort the Honorable Senator John D. Jones to the bar of the Senate. Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court administered the oath of office to the newly appointed Senator John D. Jones.

PRESIDENT’S PRIVILEGE

The President: “Congratulations, Senator Jones. In lieu of certificate, the Secretary has suggested that I present you this statement from the Secretary of State. However, I must advise you that if you do not return it at a later date, your appointment won’t take. Thank you and congratulations.”

The President declared the nominations were now in order for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

Senator Bailey: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I submit the name of Sid Snyder as Secretary of the State Senate. I do not think I have to belabor the good job that Sid has been doing for all of us. I have known Sid for a long time, he is a long-time friend of mine. He is a long-time friend of each and every one of you. And he first started in the House, I think it was 1947 or ’49 as a bill clerk. He went up the ladder rather rapidly and was soon helping Si Holcomb in the House as Assistant Chief Clerk, later as Chief Clerk of the House, and then was again Assistant Chief Clerk when we brought him to the Senate on the death of Ward Bowden. It is a real privilege and an honor that I submit his name to you for consideration as Secretary of the Senate.”

Senator Odegard: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I rise to second the nomination of Sid Snyder, who happens to be one of my new constituents in my new legislative district. He has done a very fine job as Secretary of the Senate here, runs an efficient organization, is very accommodating and helpful and I am sure that any time that you are in the Long Beach area he would be happy if you would stop by at Sid’s Market.”
Senator Lewis (Harry): "I too would like to second the nomination for Sid Snyder. I was quite concerned this summer whether, knowing how busy Sid is in his business, as to whether he would be able to come back with us and I was even more concerned when I saw the Mark IV in the garage as to whether he would be able to come back, but I recognize he probably needed to to afford it. I would like to say that I think probably the greatest, seriously, the greatest tribute that the Republican caucus can make to Sid is his no opposition, no opposition candidate for him. He has long advocated impartial treatment for both sides of the aisle and I think his native intelligence in hiring competent and good staff to do the work which provides the base for all of us to develop good legislation is another good reason for supporting Sid Snyder."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: "I want to point out that Senator Jones, who you just witnessed his taking the oath, is the speediest man in all legislative history in the state of Washington. He took the oath of the House at 12:00, resigned at 12:30, and at 1:10 became a member of the Senate. He is the only man in the history of the state that within a seventy-minute period was a member of both bodies."

MOTIONS

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Mardesich the nominations were closed.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, a unanimous ballot was cast for Sidney R. Snyder as Secretary of the Senate.

The President appointed Senators Bailey and Lewis (Harry) to escort Sidney R. Snyder to the rostrum.

Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court administered the oath of office to Sidney R. Snyder.

PRESIDENT’S PRIVILEGE

The President: “Mr. Secretary, members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, Sid, everyone who knows you realizes the truth and the friendliness behind the remarks made by Senator Odegard, Senator Lewis and Senator Bailey. And the flowers they tossed your way, I am sure, will be just as big if not bigger at the end of this session. You do such a grand job you cannot help but be rewarded in that way. Congratulations, it is wonderful to have you back with us, and now we would love to hear from you.”

REMARKS BY SIDNEY R. SNYDER

Sidney R. Snyder: “Thank you, Governor. After all these kind remarks there is not much left for me to say. Like you said, wait until the end of the session. But I want to thank all of the members for the vote of confidence and that whatever success we have during the session in making your job easier, I have to give full credit to the staff. We have an excellent staff lined up and we hope that it will make your task just a little bit easier and that we are going to be available virtually around the clock to try to help you get your job done in a very speedy fashion this session. Thank you all very kindly.”

PRESIDENT’S PRIVILEGE

The President: “Just like our Secretary to put in a strong plug for the front four here and perhaps at this time we should ask each to stand. Pat Knowlton, the Liberace of the keyboard; Dorothy Greeley; old leather lungs Sawyer himself; and William Gleason.”

The President declared nominations for the office of Sergeant at Arms of the Senate now in order.

Senator Henry: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, if I had not been as successful in my campaign for re-election myself, I could have just made a recording and sent it down to make the same remarks that I made in behalf of Charlie Johnson for Sergeant at Arms I have made since 1955 when I first nominated him in the House of Representatives. Charlie has been a good Sergeant at Arms. He works hard. He takes a lot of guff that neither you nor I would take and I think that his record is outstanding and he should be re-elected.

Senator Francis: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I rise to second the nomination of a distinguished gentleman, a classy Sergeant at Arms and a treasured personal friend, Charlie Johnson."

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President, Senators. I arise to propose the name of Mr. Charles Gerold for Sergeant at Arms. I realize this is a lesson in futility when I look around and see the count on this floor. I am aware that both sides, the minority and the majority, have known Charlie for twenty-some years. He has served as our caucus clerk, a man with a quiet voice and a firm grip. Charlie has the experience, he knows protocol and he knows rules. Charlie has made it much easier for the minority party since I have been here in our jobs of making life a little easier. He has control of our caucus, caucus room and the alcoves on the side here. So it is indeed a pleasure for me to stand here today and propose the name of Charlie Gerold for Sergeant at Arms of this Senate."

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, it is an honor and it is with real pleasure that I second the nomination of Charlie Gerold as Senate Sergeant at Arms. Charlie Gerold has adequate experience. As mentioned, he has served fourteen years in his present position. During this service he has been absolutely responsible, absolutely sincere and totally dedicated in this service. I can think of no one who would better serve the Senate as Sergeant at Arms."

MOTION

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Mardesich the nominations were closed.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the election of Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and Charles Johnson was elected by the following vote: Charles Johnson, 30; Charles Gerold, 19. Voting for Charles Johnson were: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Koblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Washington, Woody—30.

Voting for Charles Gerold were: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Stender, Twigg, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

The President declared that Charles Johnson, having received the constitutional majority vote of the Senate, was elected Sergeant at Arms of the Senate.

The President appointed Senators Henry and Francis to act as a committee of honor to escort Charles Johnson to the rostrum.

Justice Brachtenbach of the Washington State Supreme Court administered the oath of office to Charles Johnson.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "It was a tough fight, Charlie, but you won. Heartiest congratulations. I am sure the members of the Senate would like to hear from at this time."

REMARKS BY CHARLES JOHNSON

Charles Johnson: "Thank you, Governor. Thank you, Senators. I appreciate your vote and I will serve you again as I have in the past and I believe that this time that I am elected, I have been elected longer than any other sergeant at arms of the Senate consecutively since the Washington State Senate started and it is quite an honor for me. Senator Henry, I appreciate your kind words, and I have some cigars for you gentlemen. I will give you a cigar and I hope I am the first one that passes out cigars to you. I appreciate it from the bottom of my heart. Thank you very much."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, January 9, 1973.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Craig Dennis and Paula Raymond, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Almighty God, each day gives us a new opportunity to do good or to do ill. Our problem is that we sometimes can do ill easier than we can do good. Help us by your grace to choose the better way and seek to do good. Each day, our Father, brings us a new outpouring of your energy within us. Help us to be aware of your love in our hearts and to use the energy you give us as your servants. Our Father, in our better moments, we are able to admit that this is your world and not ours. Help us to treat your gifts with respect, to use them carefully. May we happily learn the lessons of sonship and not strive over-much to be gods.

"Many times, O Lord, we walk in darkness, not knowing the way to light. Come, O God, and be for us the light that brings hope to every human heart.

"Give us this day not only our daily bread but also a deeper sense of ourselves as those for whom you care. Perhaps by remembering you care for us we can care more about ourselves and dare to be noble as you are noble; strong as you are strong; merciful as you are merciful; and then this day we can do more good than ill. We need your help, our Father. Be not far from us to strengthen and encourage us, through Jesus Christ, who was strong and courageous in his time. Amen."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The special committee consisting of Senators Bailey, Mardesich and Atwood appeared before the bar of the Senate and reported that under provisions of House Concurrent Resolution No. 1, the Governor had been notified that the legislature was organized and ready to transact business.

President Pro Tempore Henry referred Senate Bill No. 2022 to the Judiciary Committee.

POINT OF INFORMATION
Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, what would be the appropriate time to re-refer the bill to a different committee?”
President Pro Tempore Henry: “You can make the motion at any time, Senator.”

MOTION
Senator Rasmussen moved that Senate Bill No. 2022 be re-referred from the Judiciary Committee to the Transportation Committee.
Debate ensued.
SECOND DAY, JANUARY 9, 1973

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Metcalf: "I would like to ask—perhaps I missed it—but where was the bill referred last time, in the last session, the bill that passed? To what committee did it go?"

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, Senator Metcalf, the bill was in the Judiciary Committee in the past. That has always been the committee that considered the subject.

"I would object to referring that matter to any committee other than Judiciary. The Judiciary Committee has considered that subject in the past and it should continue to. It relates to the criminal law and criminal penalties and it is an appropriate bill for the Judiciary Committee and I think that it should be left in the Judiciary Committee."

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Bailey, Stortini, Scott, Donohue, Dore, Knoblauch, Talley and Newschwarder.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and Senate Bill No. 2022 was referred to the Judiciary Committee by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Sandison, Stender—2.

Excused: Senator Bottiger—1.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-5

By Senators Keefe, Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall and Woody:

WHEREAS, John Spiller has had an illustrious career at the state and federal bar and is well respected and highly regarded by the state and federal judges for his legal ability, his unfailing courtesy, his vigorous efforts in behalf of his clients, and his sense of compassion and his wisdom; and

WHEREAS, John Spiller, during the past thirty years rendered invaluable services to both houses of the Legislature of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, During the past several sessions John Spiller, in his capacity as Senate caucus attorney, through his industry, his legal ability, his imagination and ingenuity, contributed greatly in helping the members of the Senate to fulfill their constitutional and legislative obligations; and

WHEREAS, John Spiller unstintingly and often beyond the call of duty assisted individual members of the Senate in various endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Following the conclusion of the 1972 Extraordinary Legislative Session, John Spiller incurred a serious illness from which he has unfortunately not yet recovered;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that as a token of its appreciation for the faithful service rendered by John Spiller during many years of employment takes this occasion to thank him and we, the undersigned members of the Senate, wish him a speedy recovery and pray for his well-being.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate present and deliver this resolution in suitable form to John Spiller, Jr. for transmission to John Spiller.

Senator Greive: "Gentlemen of the Senate, I suppose that the reason Jimmy asked me to say a few words for John is because he and I were good friends. We, like so many of us here in the Senate, served in a sense as comrades in slightly different capacities for many years. I was always very proud to have John as my friend. I might add that as a legislator I always considered him my personal lawyer. When I had any difficult problem, I would go to him and discuss with him the difficult problems I had, whether it be in procedure or in some particular bill or to draw an amendment. I have always considered myself reasonably close to John, including when he appeared on the redistricting matter in federal court and drew a number of the pleadings. I would like to say that all that was said in this particular resolution is true. He was a self-effacing, a very good lawyer, a very kind and gentle individual. He carried no rancor. He was a good hard worker. We put a lot more hours in than were necessary. And I think the most important thing about him was that he had tremendous integrity. You could not talk to him without constantly finding that he believed certain things were right and if those things were right he insisted that this is the way it should be. If there was anything that was quick or the easy way of doing something that he felt was improper or took advantage of somebody, John Spiller always said, 'Well, we do not do that. We give them notice. We give them a chance,' and that sort of thing. It is a wonderful thing, I think, that we as a body pass this resolution because it is for a man who deserves it."

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Keefe asked me if I felt as he did in this matter. I stated I did and he asked me if I would say a few words. I think the paragraph in this particular resolution which appeals to me particularly is the one that says, 'Whereas, John Spiller unstintingly and often beyond the call of duty assisted individual members of the Senate in various endeavors.' It appeals to me particularly because he did not regard himself as the property of any one Senator or any one party. And on the committees that he came up to serve, if you would suggest that he prepare an amendment or suggest that he brief something out, I never once had him ever remind me that he belonged to the majority party and that I should go hunt up the minority attorney. Or if I asked him to explore a certain point for me he always was very, very willing to do it, and as pointed out by Senator Greive, you would find him sitting here many, many times long hours after the regular session and what would be normally the regular working day was over. It is regrettable that sometimes the reward for this extra service seems to be that mother nature pays you off sometimes by striking you down with an illness. Sometimes those who work the hardest and do the most seem to somehow suffer because of it. I know that every member here joins with us in this particular regard.

"Senator Keefe, a thought has just occurred to me. I hate to spring it on you but I know how much it means to someone when there is a resolution from every member of the Senate. If you would have no objections to this, if it would be the wish of the body, I think the son would perhaps be much more thrilled—yours could be the leadoff name but I am sure it would increase the thrill to the son, if this could reflect the fact that it was joined in by the entire body."

Senator Whetzel: "I would like to second the comments of Senator Greive and Senator Woodall with respect to John Spiller, whom I have known for many years, nearly twenty years now as a lawyer, as a neighbor and as a political candidate. When I first ran for the legislature in 1964 in a district that then, prior to two redistrictings, was somewhat more substantially Republican than it is now, it was quite often difficult for the minority party in our district, the majority party in some other parts of the state, to find candidates to run, and in 1964 when George Clarke and I were running for the House there was an open spot on the Democratic ticket. John Spiller volunteered, or was volunteered for that, and it was an experience for me to meet and on one or two occasions debate some of the issues with him and increase my respect for him. And when the campaign was over the Seattle Times ran an editorial, not on the victorious campaign that George Clarke and I had run, because I guess that is what they expected of us, but to congratulate John Spiller for the fine effort that he had done and the effort that he had made instead of letting that position go by default, to file and run for the office. And many years since then we have chuckled over that particular editorial and the campaign and it has been a pleasure to work with John Spiller in the Senate the many times that he has sat over there when we have come close to the end of the session with difficult amendments and the help that he has given me and all the other members of the Senate and I know we all wish him well."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, all members of the Senate were allowed to sponsor Senate Resolution 1973-5.

The motion by Senator Keefe carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the standing committee appointments as announced were confirmed.
THIRD DAY, JANUARY 10, 1973

At 2:20 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, January 10, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President Pro Tempore that all Senators were present except Senator Fleming.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Kim Burgess and Joy Keniston, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER, WHO HAST SET A RESTLESSNESS IN OUR HEARTS, AND MADE US ALL SEEKERS AFTER THAT WHICH WE CAN NEVER FULLY FIND, FORBID US TO BE SATISFIED WITH WHAT WE MAKE OF LIFE. DRAW US FROM BASE CONTENT, AND SET OUR EYES AND MINDS ON FAR-OFF GOALS. KEEP US AT TASKS TOO HARD FOR US, THAT WE MAY BE DRIVEN TO THEE FOR STRENGTH. DELIVER US FROM FRETFULNESS AND SELF PITY; MAKE US SURE OF THE GOAL WE CANNOT SEE, AND OF THE HIDDEN GOOD IN THE WORLD. OPEN OUR EYES TO SIMPLE BEAUTY ALL AROUND US, AND OUR HEARTS TO THE LOVELINESS MEN HIDE FROM US BECAUSE WE DO NOT TRY ENOUGH TO UNDERSTAND THEM. SAVE US FROM OURSELVES, AND SHOW US A VISION OF A WORLD MADE NEW. MAY THY SPIRIT OF PEACE AND ILLUMINATION SO ENLIGHTEN OUR MINDS THAT ALL LIFE SHALL GLOW WITH NEW MEANING AND NEW PURPOSE; THROUGH JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

At 9:45 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 11:25 a.m.
SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:25 a.m.

At 11:25 a.m., the Senate retired to the House Chamber to meet in Joint Session for the purpose of administering the oath of office to the constitutional elective officials of the state of Washington and receiving the inaugural address by Governor Daniel J. Evans.

JOINT SESSION

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate announced the arrival of the Senate at the bar of the House.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the President of the Senate, John A. Cherberg, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Al Henry, and the Vice President Pro Tempore of the Senate, James E. Keefe, to seats on the rostrum beside the Speaker.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the Senators to seats within the House.

The President of the Senate presided.

The President of the Senate called the Joint Session to order.

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate, and all members were present.

The Clerk called the roll of the House, and all members were present.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort the Chief Justice of the Washington State Supreme Court, Frank Hale, to the rostrum: Senators Francis and Woodall, and Representatives Gaspard and Barden.

The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival at the bar of the House of Chief Justice Frank Hale, and the President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort the Chief Justice to a seat on the rostrum.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort the Justices of the Supreme Court of the state of Washington to the bar of the House: Senators Knoblauch, Peterson (Ted) and Connor; and Representatives O'Brien, Sommers, Amen and Zimmerman.

The committee retired.

The President of the Senate: "At this time, ladies and gentlemen of the legislature, and ladies and gentlemen who are present today, the President should like to request the lovely and charming bride of our Governor, Mrs. Nancy Evans, and her handsome young sons, to please stand in order that the members of the legislature and those present may acknowledge her presence here today." (Applause)

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival at the bar of the House of the Justices of the Supreme Court: Justices Robert C. Finley, Robert T. Hunter, Hugh J. Rosellini, Robert F. Utter, Robert F. Brachtenbach, Charles F. Stafford and Charles T. Wright. The President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort the Justices to seats at the front of the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort the elected state officials from the reception room to the bar of the House: Senators Bottiger, Dore, Twigg and Clarke; and Representatives Kelley, May, Julin and Hayner.

The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the following elected state officials at the bar of the House: Secretary of State A. Ludlow Kramer, State Treasurer Robert S. O'Brien, State Auditor Robert V. Graham, Attorney General Slade Gorton, Superintendent of Public Instruction Frank B. Brouilet, Commissioner of Public Lands Bert Cole, and Insurance Commissioner Karl V. Herrmann. The President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort the elected state officials to seats at the front of the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort Governor Daniel J. Evans from his chambers to the rostrum: Senators Bailey, Atwood and Mardesich; and Representatives Chatalas, Perry and Swayne.
The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of His Excellency, Governor Daniel J. Evans, at the bar of the House, and the President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort Governor Evans to a seat on the rostrum.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Paul F. McCann of the United Churches of Olympia:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, WHOSE EARNEST DESIRE FOR ALL YOUR CHILDREN IS THAT THEY BE GOVERNED WITH JUSTICE AND MERCY; WE GIVE YOU THANKS TODAY FOR THE FREE PROCESS OF CHOICE IN OUR LAND, BY WHICH WE PLACE THE MANTLE OF LEADERSHIP ON MEN AND WOMEN; WE THANK YOU FOR RAISING UP AND EQUIPPING PERSONS OF INTEGRITY, SKILL, AND VISION TO BE LEADERS FOR ALL THE PEOPLE; WE ASK YOU TODAY TO GRANT YOUR PERSONAL PRESENCE AND WISE GUIDANCE TO OUR GOVERNOR, DANIEL EVANS. GIVE HIM A GENEROUS PORTION OF STRONG CONVINCION, BLENDED WITH GOOD JUDGMENT, AND WARMED BY A SENSE OF HUMOR. MAY HE BEGIN EACH DAY IN THIS NEW TERM OF OFFICE WITH A RENEWED SENSE OF COMMITMENT TO THE TASK, AND A RENEWED AWARENESS OF YOUR STRENGTHENING PRESENCE, THEN GIVE US ALL, OUR FATHER, SUCH AN UNDERSTANDING OF THE RIGHT, AND SUCH AN ABHORENCE OF THE WRONG, THAT WE WILL WORK HARD TOGETHER TOWARD THE ENDS YOU DESIRE—OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND TRUE LIBERTY FOR ALL THE PEOPLE. FOR YOUR NAME'S SAKE WE PRAY. AMEN."

The President of the Senate announced that the joint session was called for the purpose of administering the oath of office to the constitutional elective officials of the state of Washington and receiving the inaugural address of the Governor.

The President of the Senate signed the election certificates for the elected state officials.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives signed the election certificates for the elected state officials.

The President of the Senate turned the gavel over to the Speaker of the House.

OATH OF OFFICE TO ELECTIVE OFFICIALS

Chief Justice Frank Hale administered the oath of office to John A. Cherberg, Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker presented him his certificate of election.

The Speaker: "John, it is with a great deal of pleasure I give to you your certificate of election to the office of Lieutenant Governor. May you continue to reign in your splendor."

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Lenny. It is more than a pleasure to take the 'Fifth' from you—the fifth term, that is.

"Honored members of the Legislature, Governor Evans, Chief Justice Hale, and ladies and gentlemen: I especially wish to thank Judge Hale for doing me the honor of administering the oath of office. The Chief Justice and I were classmates and teammates at the University of Washington a few years ago. And I am driven to remark that the hell that Frank caught at the Battle of the Bulge was nothing to what he got on the mudflats adjacent to Lake Washington back in the early 30's, and it's more than a pleasure to be with Frank today. I am very grateful to the people of this state for the honor and privilege of serving them once again, and I promise that I will try to do my best. I am especially appreciative that most of my family is present, including my brothers and sisters. I want to thank Betty for her wonderful patience and understanding. Won't you please stand?" (Applause)

The Speaker of the House turned the gavel over to the President of the Senate.

The elected officials were escorted to the rostrum by the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and House to take their oaths of office in the following order:

Justice Robert C. Finley administered the oath of office to Secretary of State A. Ludlow Kramer, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

Justice Robert T. Hunter administered the oath of office to State Treasurer Robert S. O'Brien, and the President presented him his certificate of election.
Justice Hunter: “Bob, it was my privilege to administer this oath of office to you eight years ago as a former neighbor, former fellow townsman, and a former fellow public official of Grant County. I am glad to be able to do it again. Congratulations.” (Applause)

Justice Hugh J. Rosellini administered the oath of office to State Auditor Robert V. Graham, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

Justice Robert F. Utter administered the oath of office to Attorney General Slade Gorton, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

Justice Robert F. Brachtenbach administered the oath of office to Superintendent of Public Instruction Frank B. Brouillet, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

Justice Brachtenbach: “I trust that applause was for both of the former House members, and not just Mr. Brouillet.” (Applause)

President Cherberg: “It is quite evident that the Judge and the new Superintendent are former House boys.”

Justice Charles F. Stafford administered the oath of office to Commissioner of Public Lands Bert Cole, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

Justice Charles T. Wright administered the oath of office to Insurance Commissioner Karl V. Herrmann, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

President Cherberg: “Honored members of the Senate, honored members of the House, esteemed ladies and gentlemen in the audience, Governor Evans, members of the Supreme Court, and the state elected officials: It seems as if the President has known Governor Daniel J. Evans almost longer than many members of his family. Back in 1937 it was my privilege to teach and coach two of the Governor’s cousins at Cleveland High School, Bill Evans and Dick Evans. They were certainly fine young men then, and they are even better now, Governor. Ladies and gentlemen, it is my high honor and deep privilege to present to you and the people of the broadcast audience throughout the state, His Excellency, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, to deliver his inaugural address.

“Oh, wait a minute—the Governor was not sworn in. (The Governor is always bringing up those petty details.) Frank, you are on tap—it’s your job now—we are going to inaugurate the Governor.”

OATH OF OFFICE TO GOVERNOR

Chief Justice Frank Hale administered the oath of office to Governor Daniel J. Evans, and the President presented him his certificate of election.

The President: “Well, the rehearsal was O.K. If I have any friends among the television stations represented here, they can at least cut that tape and put it in proper order. Now ladies and gentlemen, I repeat, it is my high honor and deep privilege to present to you and to the ladies and gentlemen of the television-viewing audience, His Excellency, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, for the purpose of delivering his inaugural address. Governor Evans.”

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

The Governor: “Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, distinguished justices of the court, members of the legislature, and my fellow Washingtonians:

“Mr. President, I suspect it is the first time in the annals of the legislature and inaugural proceedings that we have had an instant replay. We have worked very closely together during the past eight years, and I have never detected until just a few moments ago, a lack of partnership. I thought for a moment you were going to cast me aside and step into the spot yourself.

“A personal note before I begin my formal remarks. I fully realize the uniqueness of this occasion, and recognize that it really only came about because of thousands of involved citizens throughout this state, a dedicated staff and administration who have worked with me well and hard during these past eight years. And most of all, seated in the south gallery, my family—my wife Nancy, our three sons Danny, Mark and Bruce, my mother and father, my mother-in-law, and my brother Roger and his wife Cami. I’d like all of them to stand, because I wouldn’t be standing here if it weren’t for them. (Applause)
THIRD DAY, JANUARY 10, 1973

"I bring to you today a message of hope, of great opportunity, and of even greater responsibility."

"Twice in the past, I have stood before this assembly to take the oath of office and to begin a new administration of government. In 1965, we began on the threshold of unprecedented growth and prosperity, secure in the belief that so long as men could control the progress of events, the future outcome was not seriously in doubt."

"In 1969, we began from a new vantage point, confronted with the inevitability of economic depression, dismayed by a declining faith in government at all levels, and deeply concerned over the ability of any administration to deliver demanded services with the taxes people were prepared to pay.

"In those eight arduous years we have seen both the best of times and the worst of times, and if we have not emerged unscathed, then at least we have been tested and tempered by a severe and demanding decade of trial."

"We have learned that prosperity can harbor false promise and we have learned that the lessons of adversity are brutal but they are not insurmountable. But most of all, I think we have learned, each one of us, of the compassion and generosity of our people under trial.

A NEW THRESHOLD OF OPPORTUNITY

"We stand now in this year 1973 on the threshold of new opportunity for our people—a new opportunity to make Washington an international market place and the focus of renewed American interest in those lands touched by the Pacific Ocean. We possess not only the wealth of resources and products but the heritage of many Washington citizens of foreign origin who give us a rare insight into this unique and promising future. Here at home we are entering into a new era of regional cooperation with Oregon and Idaho and with our neighboring Province of British Columbia. And the Premier of that Province will come to Olympia to talk to legislative and administration leaders just next week. We can now begin to speak out with one voice for the New West of this Nation—A West of opportunity still as boundless as Horace Greeley envisioned so many years ago when he said, 'Go West, young man.' Not a second California suffocated by the excesses of growth, but a specific region of special concern for nature and for man. We know that our natural environment is a precious asset and a priceless legacy. We know that the quality of our lives is at least equal in importance to the quantity of goods we enjoy. Yet now more clearly than ever we know that growth and conservation must not be mutually exclusive—that our natural environment and our total environment must be pursued as one.

A SHOWCASE OF HUMAN PROGRESS

"We still hold that rare opportunity, then, to make Washington a showcase of human progress. But our new prosperity must not succumb to greed or selfishness or self-satisfaction. Our mandate—the mandate of this Legislature and Administration—so long as hunger and poverty still exist; so long as medical catastrophe can destroy life's savings; so long as we provide inadequate care for those with special needs; so long as the forgotten aged are cast aside; so long as true brotherhood is an elusive myth—so long as these exist, we have work to do.

"Our unfinished agenda is a long and difficult one. During the course of the next several days, I will set forth the details of this administration's program. My purpose today, however, is to deal with the longer term and to outline what I believe to be the six most compelling challenges before us.

THE CHALLENGE OF MANAGING GROWTH

"The first of these is the management of growth. There is no question that Washington will continue to grow. As prosperity returns, more diversified than ever before, we will reach new job records in 1973. The rate of population growth may diminish—it may even approach that hypothetical balance between the birth and death rate—but growth itself will continue. If it does not continue in terms of quantity then most assuredly it will, and must, continue in terms of quality, as we seek to improve the human condition and the wider sharing of wealth. For the first time, through the passage of the many Washington Futures bond issues, we have that commanding position over growth—the ability to use and invest for the common good, more than one and one-half billion dollars in the improvement of our communities. The passage of these issues does more than simply make money available, however. It allows government and the people to take the initiative, to act in their own behalf instead of reacting to needs long past the threshold of urgency. It is the chance of a lifetime. It is a mandate of incredible magnitude. We, all of us, cannot afford to squander that mandate.

"I will propose in my budget message that we first, in carrying out the Washington Futures issues, plan wisely so that the dollars are invested efficiently, that the priorities are sound and maximum benefits are received. To spend without planning is to act without thinking and I am confident that what the people really want is not a windfall, but a way to their own future.

"But the management of growth has another side—the establishment of state policies which guide development of an overall plan for the future we all so earnestly covet. This year we took the first important step by enacting into law the Shorelines Management Act—legislation which will be viewed by later generations as an act of great wisdom, just as it is viewed by many today as an act of great controversy. Shortly we will receive from the Washington State Land Planning Commission its initial report. I do not expect that report to be received with loud and universal enthusiasm, but I do expect it to become the basis for an eventual land management policy for the State of Washington and its people. In the same manner, this administration will propose the formation of a state energy policy, a reasoned and rational policy designed to guide the state in 'bridging the gap' between our fuel supplies and energy needs over the remainder of this century. In developing an energy policy, no less than in shorelines management or land utilization itself, we come to grips with the fact that the utilization of our basic resources simply cannot be an 'either-or' proposition. We have an obligation to the natural environment and to our magnificent natural heritage—but we have an equal obligation to the individual's total health and welfare in a complex and highly urbanized society. There is no glory but only failure in the supremacy of one over the other; but there is a potential triumph in finding the common path, where both can progress and all, therefore, can benefit. That is the real challenge of managing growth—not compromise for its own sake, but common sense for the sake of human progress.

CHALLENGE OF MANAGING GOVERNMENT

"The second challenge is the management of government itself. I shall ask for a continuation of departmental reorganization to bring greater efficiency and responsiveness of state government to its citizens. Most urgently needed and long overdue is a Department of Transportation to give integrated direction to this most fundamental of modern needs.

"An Office of Community Development will be initiated to give a focal point for local government input to state agencies.

"I will shortly appoint a citizen Task Force on Governmental Efficiency, which I believe can equal the splendid performance of a similar body appointed eight years ago. The pursuit of governmental efficiency should be a continuing one and a task force of this nature should report regularly to the Legislature and to the Governor.

"Governmental management is of little value unless the laws under which we operate are responsive to today's needs. Proposals will be presented to modernize some of these laws—some of which have been untouched for almost a century—laws to modernize civil and criminal commitment, consumer protection, tenant-landlord relationships, and to provide new systems of medical examiners and environmental coordination.

"It is not enough to manage the policies of government effectively if the machinery of government itself is unresponsive—if we are shackled by too much government, at the wrong place and at the wrong time. State government gives birth to all local government, and in our eighty-three-year history as a state, we have created forty-one separate types of special local districts and over fifteen hundred sometimes conflicting and overlapping local governmental units. We are, in the name of local control, in clear and present danger of becoming so fractionated that no matter which way we proceed, the people cannot get their full dollar value from their taxes.

"We must join together in our relationship with the Federal Government to continue the struggle for the new federalism proposed by the President but not yet a reality. Federal revenue sharing is a welcome first step, but the pending special revenue sharing proposals are of even greater urgency. Without them, the tightening bonds of more than six hundred categorical grant programs strangle our independence and distort the priorities of this state.

"The final governmental management relationship is that between two great and independent branches of government, the executive and legislative. I believe strongly that we should strengthen each in its ability to do its task, but not one at the expense of the other. To this end, I will once again propose annual sessions of the Legislature and annual elections to relieve the massive ballots of recent years. The growing complexity of government has sharply increased legislative responsibilities and I shall propose in my Budget Message tomorrow a doubling of legislative salaries to match these new responsibilities.

THE CHALLENGE OF CITIZEN PARTICIPATION

"The third great challenge is in government's relationships with its citizens.

"In the past several years we have made strides envied by other states in bringing governmental services back to the community. Today hundreds of the handicapped, mentally retarded, and the mentally ill find treatment and assistance in their home communities. In the next four years, we must exchange the isolated and impersonal institutions of yesterday for the community facilities of today and tomorrow. Here—at the local level—the potent combination of dedicated volunteers, local professional expertise and state financial assistance can combine to provide fuller, richer lives for all of these less fortunate citizens.

"I recognize very well, as you do, the personal and economic trauma of institutional closure, especially when it occurs in a small community, and I shall propose by executive request a comprehensive measure which can markedly ease this difficult transition and protect both the community and those dedicated people who have served an institution for years.

"This community concept will work only if we tap the enormous reservoir of thousands of potential citizen volunteers. The widening gap between people's expectation for service and their willingness to provide tax resources to support those services can best be bridged by an infusion of citizen volunteer support. Today, twenty-nine thousand volunteers are working as student tutors, foster grandparents, counselors in our correctional institutions, and in a myriad of other vital tasks. Our goal during the next four years is to mobilize one hundred thousand Washington citizens into an army of concerned, dedicated, and able volunteers who can make the community concept a reality.

"I have long been convinced that the youth of our state would respond, overwhelmingly, to a call for service in community action. In the next several weeks, an announcement will be made which will join the federal government, our state government and a number of local communities together to test that belief and to provide opportunity for young citizens to voluntarily serve their community in peace, rather than today's mandated draft for war. To further the growth of this community concept, we will propose an adult probation subsidy program and a similar assistance program in mental health to match the spectacularly successful juvenile probation subsidy program of recent years.

"I shall also seek a comprehensive compensation bill for the victims of crime and the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to our Federal Constitution guaranteeing women equal status in our society.

THE CHALLENGE OF TAX REFORM

"Tax reform, as a challenge, is not new, but the need for action is immediate. Our recovering economy will allow for a balanced budget this next biennium, but will not allow resolution of the mushrooming problem of special levy support for basic education. The people of this state deserve and our school children require a guaranteed continuing source of basic educational finance, and it is time now for us to act.

"I shall propose no specific bill, but let there be no mistake, I intend to exert every effort and search every avenue toward passage of a comprehensive tax reform measure. This is no time for half-hearted attempts or half-way measures. A full and complete proposal embodying at least these fundamental elements should be presented for a vote by our people:

"A prohibition against special property tax levies for the maintenance and operation of basic education;

"Substantial reduction in property tax burdens on our citizens, and better protection against future increase;

"A constitutional limitation on all major taxes;

"An income tax with initial revenue sufficient to replace, but not exceed, reductions made in other taxes.

"In addition to the comprehensive tax reform proposal, I believe it important to adopt two additional protections in the property tax field. Our present open space act should be amended to make it a meaningful tool for those who earn their living from the land. By streamlining the application procedures and allowing land to be assessed on its earning capacity, no good farmer need be driven from his land by excessive taxation.

"Those who suffer most under our present property tax structure are the elderly, the poor, those living on fixed incomes. I will recommend to this Legislature that a constitutional amendment be prepared which would limit property taxes on a person's home to no more than five percent of his income. These changes, collectively, can give to Washington citizens a new hope for equity, protection and, perhaps most of all, for decision-making in our tax system.

THE CHALLENGE OF INNOVATION

"In the challenge of innovation lies the future, not only of our free enterprise system, but of government itself. Here in this state we have many opportunities to explore new ground in making government more responsive to the people.

"I will shortly appoint a special commission to examine the potential of insurance against catastrophic illness. I am aware that this is a national issue and under consideration by the present Congress, but Washington citizens need not wait for a Congress which may not act.

"While we traditionally have provided comprehensive educational opportunity for all children, we have not given equal attention to early childhood development. Prenatal and early childhood care is virtually unavailable to many of our people. No child should be cheated—at the beginning—of an opportunity for a full and successful life. And shortly, proposals will be made in this field too, which can guarantee our interest and concern for these youngsters—the adults of tomorrow.

"As our birthrate drops and resulting common school enrollments diminish, the opportunity grows for new concepts in education and in the utilization of schools as community centers:

"—Community centers in which we could provide not only basic education, but also child care;

"—Community centers which could provide meals and limited health care for the aged and utilize their great talents in child care assistance;

"—School buildings made available to the community at night and on weekends for a variety of productive and creative uses.

"In all of this we should recognize that innovation is not limited by the age of the innovator. Our rapidly growing population of retired citizens must bring recognition of their special abilities. This huge reservoir of talent and years of experience is being virtually ignored and it is well past time that we brought our senior citizens back into the mainstream of state service.

"There is indeed no limit to what can be accomplished by the young and the old, as well as the rest of us, if only we will take the time to innovate, to think in new dimensions and act in new directions. If the government is ever to be dynamic and responsive to the needs of the people, and respected by the citizens it serves—if it is to serve the people well—then innovation must become the constant companion of progress and the open door to citizen participation.

THE CHALLENGE OF QUALITY IN LIFE

"The sixth and final challenge is the quality of our life itself. In the larger sense, all that we have done and all that we propose to do is aimed at the quality of life which our citizens enjoy, or failing that, deserve.

"Quality is more than compassion, more than economic opportunity, more than social justice. It is all of these, bound up in the single proposition that we here in this state, at this time, we—of all people—have the resources and the ability to do so much for the best and least among us, for the now and tomorrows which confront us, and for the hope and opportunity which belong—as never before—to every one of us.

"We have learned our lessons over the past eight years. Now let us use them. Let us hope that never again will economic opportunity simply be taken for granted.

"Let us hope that social justice, for the victim as well as the violator, becomes more than mere lip service—that it becomes a true and conscious reality of our lives and our laws.

"Let us hope that the compassion we found in a time of economic misfortune does not disappear in a time of progress, but remains as a continuing principle of our mutual regard and concern.

"It should not be our purpose here to deal only in the small and immediate issues. It should rather be to pursue the goal of greatness with vigilance, and to seek for every citizen that eloquent promise of a decent life, the full measure of liberty and a real and human happiness.

"I believe that the people of Washington are now ready to meet these challenges. In the last eight years, they have seen prosperity and learned how fickle it can be. They have seen depression and deprivation and they have shouldered that burden with rare courage.

THE MANDATE OF THE PEOPLE

"In November just past, facing a long and complicated ballot—only months removed from serious economic difficulty and still with the signs ever present—they expressed themselves decisively in favor of Washington Futures and the resumption of progress.

"They have said this: 'You asked for a new mandate for progress and we have given it to you.

"'You asked for the opportunity to invest wisely in the future of Washington—in our future and the future of our children—and we have given that to you.

"'You asked for money and authority at a time when money is dear and governmental authority is greatly suspect—and we have given that to you, too.'

"Now, we ask of you in return—we ask of this Administration and this Legislature—

"'To do not what is easy, but what is right;

"'To exercise our mandate to you with skill and honest dedication;

"'To take the political risks that are necessary;

"'To make the decisions that recent history has made clear and that present circumstances demand—and in so doing give us our state and our future in good hands and good conscience.

"This, I believe, is our challenge above all—to deliver to the people their state in good hands and good conscience.

"We share this test equally. There is no guarantee of success, no insurance against failure. But I believe that this Administration and this Legislature are bound more surely in common cause than they are separated by political difference and that we can, with patience and help and conviction, do what needs to be done.

"I would rather cross the political aisle than cross the people—and let that be our common pledge.

"Let us share together these tasks of leadership so all may share together the benefits, the opportunity, and the blessings of success.

"Thank you."
The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort His Excellency, Governor Daniel J. Evans to the State Reception Room.

The special committee thereupon escorted the Governor from the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort the state elected officials to the State Reception Room.

FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Francis, Scott and Woodall. On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Francis was excused. On motion of Senator Newschwaner, Senators Scott and Woodall were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Mark Armstrong and Marcella Donovan, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"WITH WHAT SHALL I COME BEFORE THE LORD, AND BOW MYSELF BEFORE GOD ON HIGH? HE HAS SHOWED YOU, O MAN, WHAT IS GOOD. AND WHAT DOES THE LORD REQUIRE OF YOU BUT TO DO JUSTICE, AND TO LOVE KINDNESS, AND TO WALK HUMBLY WITH YOUR GOD?"

"ALMIGHTY GOD, OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, LOOK MERCIFULLY, WE PRAY, UPON THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. GRANT TO THEM INTEGRITY OF PURPOSE, AND UNFAILING DEVOTION TO THE CAUSE OF JUSTICE AND RIGHTEOUSNESS. IN THE MIDST OF CONTROVERSY AND DIFFERENCE OF OPINION, MAY THEY SEEK YOUR GUIDANCE THAT ALL THEIR LEGISLATION MAY BE SUCH AS WILL PROMOTE THE WELFARE OF THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE: RAISING UP THE POOR, STRENGTHENING AND RELIEVING THE OPPRESSED, PUTTING DOWN ALL SOCIAL EVILS, FAIRLY DISTRIBUTING THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR TAXATION, AND MAINTAINING THE WHOLESOME USE OF THE NATURAL RESOURCES OF THIS LAND. IN THEIR HEARTS MAY THEY KNOW YOUR PEACE, WHICH PASSES ALL HUMAN UNDERSTANDING, AND WHICH IS YOUR GIFT TO THOSE WHO SEEK TO WALK HUMBLY WITH YOU. LORD, HEAR OUR PRAYER, AND LET OUR CRY COME UNTO YOUR THRONES, FOR WE PRAY IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST WHO TAUGHT US THAT LOVE IS BETTER THAN HATE; HOPE IS BETTER THAN FEAR; TRUST IS BETTER THAN SUSPICION AND UNSELFISHNESS IS BETTER THAN SELF-SEEKING. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

At 11:20 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.
There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 55, relating to revenue and taxation (reported by Committee on Education):
FOURTH DAY, JANUARY 11, 1973

RECOMMENDATION: Do pass.
Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Ted):
Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

At 2:05 p.m., the Senate was declared to be at ease for the purpose of a meeting of the Committee on Rules.
The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-7

By Senators Bailey and Mardesich:
BE IT RESOLVED, That the rules of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-second Legislature be adopted as the permanent rules of the Forty-third Legislature with the following amendments:
Amend Rule 2 to read as follows:
“Rule 2. The president shall appoint all conference, special, joint and hereinafter named standing committees on the part of the senate: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the appointment of the said conference, special, and joint and hereinafter named standing committees shall be subject to the confirmation of the senate.
In the event the senate shall refuse to confirm any such conference, special or joint committee or committees, such committee or committees shall be forthwith elected by the senate.
In appointing the committee members to the hereinafter named standing committees, the president shall name members in the same ratio as the membership of the respective parties in the senate. Committee members will be selected by each party’s caucus.

The following standing committees shall constitute the standing committees of the Senate:

[ 1. Agriculture and Horticulture ............................................. 9
2. Cities, Towns and Counties ............................................. 15
3. Commerce and Regulatory Agencies ..................................... 20
4. Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes .................. 14

   Committee on Claims and Auditing .................................... 7]

1. Agriculture .............................................................. 7
2. Commerce ................................................................. 7
3. Constitution and Elections ............................................. 7
Amend Rule 12 to read as follows:

"ORDER OF BUSINESS

"Rule 12. After the roll is called and journal read and approved, business shall be disposed of in the following order:
FIRST. Reports of standing committees.
SECOND. Reports of select committees.
THIRD. Messages from the governor and other state officers.
FOURTH. Messages from the house of representatives.
FIFTH. Introduction, first reading and reference of bills, memorials and resolutions.
SIXTH. [Presentation of petitions, memorials, resolutions and motions.] Second reading of bills.
SEVENTH. [Second reading of bills.] Third reading of bills.
EIGHTH. [Third reading of bills.] Presentation of petitions, memorials, resolutions and motions.

The order of business established by this rule may be changed and any order of business already dealt with may be reverted or advanced to by a majority vote of those present. (See also Rule 46, Paragraph 4.)

Amend the second paragraph of Rule 17 to read as follows:

"SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senate resolutions shall be acted upon in the same manner as motions. All senate floor resolutions shall be on the secretary's desk at least twenty-four hours prior to consideration."

Amend Rule 28 as follows:

Strike the Amendment to Senate Rule 28 adopted January 18, 1972, and restore the original language.

Amend Rule 46, Duties of Committees, by deleting "and joint rules" wherever it may appear in the rule.

Amend the first paragraph of Rule 47 to read as follows:

"COMMITTEE REPORTS

Rule 47. Bills reported to the senate from a standing committee must have a majority report, which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form, shall carry one of the following recommendations, and shall be [signed] adopted by those members of the committee subscribing thereto [...] in a regularly or specially called meeting:"

Amend Rule 47 by deleting "and joint rules" wherever it may appear in the rule.

Amend Rule 58 to read as follows:

"INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Rule 58. All bills, resolutions and memorials to be introduced shall be in quintuplet, each shall be endorsed with a statement of the title and the name of the member introducing the same. Not more than three senators may sponsor a bill, except committee
bills which shall be in accordance with the joint rules of the senate and house: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any member desiring to introduce a bill, joint resolution or memorial shall file the same with the secretary of the senate by five o'clock on the evening of the day before the convening of the session at which said bill, resolution or memorial is to be introduced; and that no bill, resolution or memorial is to be introduced which has not been in the hands of the secretary at the time above stated.

The original bill is for the use of the senate, one copy for the printer, two for the secretary and the other for use by the members of the press. After the thirty-sixth day of the session no bill shall be introduced, except as the legislature shall direct by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, said vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered upon the journal, or unless the same be at a special session: PROVIDED, That the time limitation for introduction of bills shall not apply to substitute bills reported by standing committees for bills pending before such committees [], bills relating to redistricting or reapportionment] and general appropriation and revenue bills.

Members and members-elect to the senate may pre-file bills with the secretary of the senate on any day commencing with the first Monday in December preceding any session year; or twenty days prior to any extraordinary session of the legislature. Such bills will be printed, distributed and prepared for introduction on the first legislative day: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no bill, memorial or resolution shall be filed by title and/or preamble only. (See also Rule 4.)"

Amend Rules 61, 67, 69, 70 and 73 by deleting "and joint rules" wherever it may appear in the rule.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, the amendment to Rule 2 was adopted.
On motion of Senator Bailey, the amendment to Rule 12 was adopted.
Senator Bailey moved adoption of the amendment to Rule 17.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, will Senator Bailey yield to a question? Senator Bailey, this change in the action on the resolution reads, 'shall be on the Secretary's desk.' Do you mean that they shall be on the members' desks twenty-four hours before action? If they were just on the Secretary's desk they could be there and we would not see them."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Rasmussen, I would assume that the Secretary would make those available right away. The problem we have had is they have always been available up there but sometimes they were presented before they had time to even reproduce them. That has been our biggest trouble. This is one of the things we are trying to iron out, to give the Secretary the time, and he has assured us that as soon as he received those they would be on your desks."

Senator Rasmussen: "Reproduced and put on..."

Senator Bailey: "You will be reading them today for what appears on the calendar tomorrow."

Senator Rasmussen: "Very good. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, would Senator Bailey yield? Senator Bailey, if you had a resolution that you thought was rather emergent, is there anything in the rules that would permit you then to introduce that resolution without following this, by majority vote?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Canfield, I am not an expert on Rules, I got into this thing just accidentally, but I think that to suspend the rules would require a two-thirds vote. If you had anything of an emergency nature I see no problem that you would have. I have never seen the Senate turn down an emergency situation on a resolution. If you have something of a political nature that is to spring a trap on some of your enemies or some of your friends, then I think you would have trouble getting the rules suspended. The purpose of this is not to have you voting on things without being able to read them. I see no problem if you have a real emergency but what the Senate would suspend the rules if so moved."

The motion carried and the amendment to Rule 17 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, the amendment to Rule 28 was adopted.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the amendment to Rule 46.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would like to suggest, if we could, that we could go through this matter and preserve the rights of Senator Greive and Senator Clarke, who have amendments, to go back tomorrow and consider these. We are not going to have time to finish. Let's get this one sheet out of the way and then go back and reserve their right to submit the rules changes as they wish and then we will have more time to look them over and consider them. Do you have any objection to that, Senator Lewis?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I do not have any objection, Senator Bailey, if the Chair will rule that way."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, having once adopted the major amendment on the desks, will other amendments be in order for consideration?"

Senator Greive: "Since we have no rules, I presume we would revert to Reed's. That is the only thing we have. Reed's has a Rule 52 that indicates the majority can do just about what it wishes. And I would suggest that until such time as these rules are finally adopted, why we can just continue on."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the consensus of the Senate is to this effect, namely; that the amendment to Rule 46 may be adopted, but if subsequent amendments to Rule 46 are proposed tomorrow that the Senate will consider them."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, one further question. In the event that we adopt the major amendment you have described and then a further amendment is placed upon that or another rule tomorrow, can another amendment to that same rule be considered by the Senate under your interpretation?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes. For instance, Senator Lewis, a specific example, if Senator Clarke wishes to propose an amendment to Rule 46 tomorrow, even though the members in their wisdom adopt the amendment to Rule 46 today, that the consensus of the Senate is that the Senate will consider Senator Clarke's amendment tomorrow."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would like to clarify what I was trying to get at for Senator Lewis and that was that in caucus we more or less promised Senator Greive the right to present his amendments which he did not have time to prepare. Some of them are prepared, some of them are not. We promised him that we would consider these tomorrow and it would be my thought if we would get some of these out of the way today, then go on to the additional ones tomorrow, it would help us a lot."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "To be more specific, Senator Lewis, the President would like to point out that all amendments will be considered before adoption of the resolution."

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the amendment to Rule 46 was adopted.
MOTION

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the amendment to Rule 47.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would Senator Bailey yield to a question? I merely wanted to endeavor to clarify the intent and I do think it is a very excellent idea and probably goes about as far as we practically can go in this connection. One thing is not clear to me, however, and that is where it is stated that it shall be adopted by those members of the committee subscribing in a regularly or specially called meeting. Now as I understand the mechanics, we quite often will have a committee meeting at which a quorum will be present but nevertheless those voting in favor to pass out a bill may not be the required majority of the entire committee. So the adoption at that particular meeting would be by a majority of the quorum but not a majority of the entire committee. Then it is stated that the subscribers, which must be a majority of the entire committee, must in effect adopt the resolution at an open meeting. I would assume then that the procedure would be that after the initial meeting where a bill was voted out by a majority, if that majority was not a majority of the entire committee, that then the bill would be brought up again in a subsequent special or regular committee meeting, at which time anyone else desiring to vote in favor of it would so vote in open committee, but that the actual signing of the majority report could be done at any time and any place after this formality of adoption by a majority of the committee in open meeting, which could be either in one meeting or two meetings. Do you follow that reasoning?"

Senator Bailey: "Yes and no. I think you have the intent. Senator Clarke, I think we have the power now under any rule, written or unwritten, that anybody can stand and challenge whether or not a quorum is present and that sort of thing in a committee meeting. I think that there is enough leeway here if somebody wants to say that action has been adopted by a majority of the quorum present, that perhaps you have a point, but you are not going to win your point in the end if you are fighting the majority because all we have to do is come on the floor and have a specially called committee meeting and walk into the other room and come out with the signatures. I cannot see mechanically how it would do any more than just be a holding up process in that respect. I think that you are not going to sign, your members are not going to sign something they do not believe in when it comes out on the floor. If they are against it they are not going to sign the bill out of committee, that is a sure thing, because their name is then on the written record."

Senator Clarke: "Well, Senator, then what is meant by the wording, 'shall be adopted by those members of the committee subscribing thereto, which must be a majority of the entire committee in a regularly or specially called meeting.' Now this is somewhat similar to a rule that we had in the House, which was adopted, incidentally, by the Republican majority of the House at the request of the Democratic minority. And that rule, however, is even stricter in that it requires the actual signing of the bill in an open meeting. I do not think that that is necessary or desirable because quite often there will be amendments and so forth that need to be typed up and the signing can be handled some other time. However, we did handle it over on the House side by requiring that the actual vote be taken at an open meeting. Now the reason for this in reality was that it provided an opportunity for the public or the press or anyone else who was attending and watching these meetings to be able to know and be advised at which time the actual majority, the requisite majority of the entire committee had in reality adopted or acted to adopt the passing out of the bill. And I think actually that that is what your proposed rules now state. If the idea is, and I rather assumed from your answer that the idea was that after a bill was voted out by a majority of the quorum, which however was less than the number required to sign out, that then it could be signed subsequently at other than an open meeting. That is not the way I read your rule and that is the reason that I asked for clarification."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Clarke, I think we are talking about secret meetings and things like that. The committee meetings themselves are open. If there is only a majority of the quorum there, certainly if the press is very diligent and wants to ferret out anything and if they really want to take the trouble to go to a committee hearing, they can tell who is voting and who isn’t. If there are enough absent that it looks bad they can go after those people. But when you go to a special meeting and go out in a room and sign it, it might be a secret meeting but it certainly is not a secret when that form comes out and everybody’s name is for it or against it on the public record. I do not see that that is really any problem. We tried to leave a little leeway here on the word ‘adopted’ so we would not in one fell swoop tie the committees up in a knot we could not get out of a little later in the session. We are trying to do just exactly what you are talking about. If it is abused we will have to tighten it up. If it isn’t, it is a step in the right direction anyway.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: “Would Senator Bailey yield? Senator Bailey, when we talk in this Rule 47 about a majority report, I think I am going to what Senator Clarke was driving at, is this a majority of the committee or a majority of a quorum?”

Senator Bailey: “Majority of a quorum.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Canfield, if I might respond for Senator Bailey, I would like to clarify the situation. The language that the Republican leadership presented was substantially different from this language. I think that it is clear that the language in the amendment we are looking at does not accomplish the total purpose that was our objective. However, we did agree with the leadership on the other side that we would support this amendment. I think that we should even though I think it is possible that members of our caucus will present additional amendments tomorrow. I would ask you to support the amendment on the basis that it is an improvement over the present rule. It does in essence require a meeting prior to circulation of bills. This is basically the only difference that we are talking about from our present position. So I would suggest that we adopt this amendment and then perhaps consider our original amendment for a vote of the entire Senate at a later time.”

MOTION

At 3:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 6:15 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 6:15 p.m.

At 6:15 p.m., the Senate retired to the House chamber to meet in Joint Session for the purpose of receiving the Budget Message of Governor Daniel J. Evans.

JOINT SESSION

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate announced the arrival of the Senate at the bar of the House.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the President of the Senate, John A. Cherberg, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Al Henry, and the Vice President Pro Tempore of the Senate, James E. Keefe, to seats on the rostrum beside the Speaker.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the Senators to seats within the House.

The President of the Senate presided.

The President called the Joint Session to order.

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate, and all members were present.

The Clerk of the House called the roll of the House, and all members were present.

The President of the Senate announced that the Joint Session was called for the purpose of receiving a message from Governor Daniel J. Evans.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to notify the Governor that the Senate and the House were in Joint Session and ready to receive his message and to stand ready to escort the Governor to the rostrum: Senators Canfield and Day; and Representatives Martinis and Morrison.

The committee retired.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort the Justices of the Supreme Court of the state of Washington to the bar of the House: Senators Washington, Jolly, Whetzel and Grant; and Representatives Bagnariol, Knowles, Johnson, Cunningham and Leckenby.

The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival at the bar of the House of Chief Justice Frank Hale and the Justices of the Supreme Court, and the President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort the Justices of the Supreme Court to seats at the front of the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort the elected state officials to the bar of the House: Senators Donohue, Guess, Scott and Knoblauch; and Representatives Luders, Bausch, Newhouse and Hendricks.

The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the elected state officials at the bar of the House. The President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort the elected state officials to seats at the front of the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate: "Honored members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen: The Governor will arrive at approximately 6:55, and will be escorted in, in sufficient time to begin his address at 7:00 p.m. sharp. This is for the benefit of the vast number of people in the state of Washington who will be viewing this particular Joint Session and listening to the Governor’s address throughout the state. Inasmuch as there are about ten minutes left, the President thought perhaps the Honorable Frank Hale, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, would present the members of the court to those present."

Chief Justice Frank Hale: "Thank you, Mr. President. It gives me a great deal of pleasure, and I consider it an honor at this time, to introduce to you my colleagues on the Supreme Court. First, our senior Justice, Justice Robert C. Finley; and from the big sky country of Grant County, Mr. Justice Robert T. Hunter; and from our own district here, where the court sits—a judge who served among you for over twenty-two years as a superior court judge, Mr. Justice Charles T. Wright; and a big city judge from the largest county in the state and one of the great metropolitan areas of this country, Mr. Justice Robert F. Utter; it gives me pleasure now to introduce a former colleague of the members of this House from the Yakima District, Mr. Justice Robert F. Brachtenbach."

The President of the Senate: "The President at this time would like the following state elected officials to stand and be recognized: The Honorable Karl V. Herrmann, Insurance Commissioner; the Honorable Slade Gorton, Attorney General; the Honorable Frank Brouillet, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Honorable Robert Graham, State Auditor; Honorable A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State.

"Here on the rostrum, of course, you are familiar with Mr. Speaker, Lenny Sawyer, and the first team of the Senate parliamentary team, President Pro Tem Al Henry; the tight end on this team. And, of course, you all recognize Senator Dr. Jimmy Keefe, the wide receiver. Jimmy told me this afternoon he would have been an All American football player, but he had a bad habit of running for the sidelines. I would ask Jimmy to come up and give you some witty sayings, but he told me he killed vaudeville a number of years ago. Rather than bore you for five minutes, we will just be at ease."

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of His Excellency, Governor Daniel J. Evans, at the bar of the House, and the President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort Governor Evans to a seat on the rostrum.

The President: "Esteemed members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen: It is a privilege and a pleasure for the President at this time to present His Excellency, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington."

GOVERNOR'S STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS TO THE LEGISLATURE

The Governor: "Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the Legislature, and again my fellow Washingtonians: If yesterday was a day of beginning, and last night was a night of celebration, then perhaps tonight is a night of reality of attempting to translate those high ideas and best wishes into the reality of a budget for the next two years of this state.

"Tonight I will bring to you and to the people of this state the budget details which will translate into reality many of the high hopes and challenges expressed in my Inaugural Address of yesterday. This comprehensive budget represents thousands of hours of agency time and my own personal involvement, but I want to pay special tribute tonight to our office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management and particularly to those twenty-five budget analysts who were key men and women in the development of this budget. They accumulated over 7,000 hours of overtime in its preparation—few of those hours ever to be compensated.

"Two years ago I presented a budget which was austere and a reflection of the economic difficulties which the state was then experiencing. I predicted that the economy would continue to decline during fiscal year 1971, then level off, and that we would see a resumption of moderate growth during fiscal year 1973. Tonight I can report that economic recovery has come faster and more buoyantly than we expected then, or even during intervening months. Employment today is thirty-eight thousand higher than a year ago and represents a new diversity unmatched in previous recovery periods. Personal income growth in 1972 will exceed eight and a half percent, which is a growth rate, once again far above the national average and much greater than the continued growth in cost of living. As we look ahead to the upcoming biennium, we anticipate that the state’s economy will continue to improve and that by 1975 there will be sixty thousand more people employed than during the previous peak boom year of 1969. This Legislature a year ago helped speed our economic recovery by passage of the ‘Jobs Now’ program and the presentation of Washington Future to our voters. During this past year the ‘Jobs Now’ program effort has produced thirty-nine new public works projects, scattered in communities across this state, designed to prepare for long-range business activity and permanent jobs. These efforts have resulted in over fourteen hundred primary jobs and forty-seven hundred permanent jobs either created or saved from these projects. One million dollars has gone into special economic assistance to Indian tribes of this state, and most have taken part with the expectation that unemployment on those reservations will be cut in half, from over 2,000 to 1,000 with the full utilization of these funds. Drainage basin planning and local planning assistance has helped us prepare for the wise utilization of the Washington Future Bond Issues and these programs—the ‘Jobs Now’ programs—have generated over 10 million dollars in additional matching money for the communities of this state. The efforts of government, labor, business and the private individual have combined to bring us through a period of economic trial and set us on the road to recovery faster than anyone could have anticipated. According to nationally prepared forecasts of the United States Department of Commerce, Washington will lead all states in the nation in per capita income growth during the remainder of this decade.

“These economic improvements which we have achieved and the forecasts of continued improvement hold special significance to the members of the Legislature and to the citizens of our state. I am able to present to you a budget for the biennium 1971-73 which is balanced and which will require no new or increased taxes of any kind. It is clear with the budget I am presenting, that we can continue to maintain the highly enviable record we have achieved, which according again to the United States Department of Commerce is the lowest rate of state tax growth of any of the fifty states of this nation during the past five years.

"The General Fund budget for the upcoming biennium totals 2.77 billion dollars—an increase of 14 percent over the previous biennium. The total state budget—including all funds—is 4.83 billion dollars—an increase of 11 percent over current expenditures. This budget does provide relief—relief of taxing pressures at the local governmental level. For example, I am proposing that 37 million dollars of the state’s federal revenue sharing money be allocated to local school districts to replace property taxes and we will utilize 34.5 million dollars of general revenue sharing money to replace a like decrease in state property tax revenues. These combined efforts will reduce the burden on property taxes throughout this state by over 70 million dollars.

"Much has been said of economy and efficiency in government. Eight years ago I appointed a Citizen Task Force on Governmental Efficiency, which resulted in 382 separate organizational and procedural improvements which have provided annual savings of more than $8 million each succeeding year. I believe it is time to renew this effort and will shortly establish a new and continuing Citizen Task Force to assist us in bringing the best in business management methods to the operation of our state agencies. I am also recommending a new approach in this upcoming budget to encourage a continuing search for efficiency in each of our major departments. The budget contains an employee productivity factor of 2.5 percent for each of the years of the biennium. I will monitor carefully this target to assure that the 2.5 percent per year savings comes not in a cut in service but in a true increase in productivity, through use of new methods and new management techniques. The potential impact of this new feature is more than 40 million dollars in savings during the next two years.

"The people of this state have given to this Legislature a unique mandate and a special opportunity. The 415 million dollars Washington Future Bond issues will provide matching money for more than a billion dollars in state and local funds to create a massive capital investment program for the betterment of our state. Some are already suggesting that major amounts of this investment be made now for projects which have merit but no overall sense of priority. I shall resist that concept, for I believe it is essential that proper planning precede the major capital investments which will follow. This budget proposes a total expenditure of 71 million state dollars, which when fully matched equals a 183 million dollars stimulus to the state's economy and will create 22,000 man years of construction and secondary jobs. In 1974 we will have an opportunity to come back and review the progress on planning and I expect that we will be able to take a further step in fund utilization of the Washington Future Program. A major share of the initial investment will be in three areas: 33 million dollars of state money in water pollution control and solid waste management and water supply, including irrigation, 12 million dollars in recreation and 25 million dollars for state community college facilities.

"In 1967 the Washington State Legislature enacted the Community Services Act for Mental Health and Mental Retardation. This far-sighted legislation has a long-range goal of providing a system of community-based programs for the mentally ill and the mentally retarded. This budget continues to stress the need for community-based programs with a de-emphasis on large institutional care facilities. In community retardation we expect to expand the group home concept and program by several hundred with a resulting reduction in the number of institutional residents of almost 700 during the next two years. We will experience a parallel drop in the population of our mental health institutions to slightly over 1,600 at the end of the biennium. This compares with over 7,000 in those three institutions just a little over a decade ago. New and better treatment methods for tuberculosis will result in a continued rapid drop in long-term hospital care. The spectacular success of our Juvenile Probation Subsidy Program will further reduce the population of our juvenile institutions.

"With the success of our community programs the time has clearly come to review continued operation of a number of state institutions. I will therefore propose the closure of four institutions during the course of this biennium and the shift in program at a fifth. I recognize the economic and human trauma in institutional closure and, therefore, will introduce an Economic Impact Act designed to assist the employees whose jobs are affected by termination of a facility, as well as provide economic assistance to the community whose economic base is threatened. The essential elements of this act allow special payments for the movement of household goods for those who may transfer, and a state sharing in potential financial loss on the sale of a home for those employees transferred. It also provides for early retirement programs for those employees who have substantial years of service in state government, as well as liberal termination pay agreements for those who leave the state service with fewer years. The community involved could qualify for community assistance grants of substantial proportions to aid in the development of economic alternatives. The future of our community programs—the whole thrust of what we have engaged in over the last six years—depends on this legislature's willingness to face necessary changes and institutional closures where better alternatives are available. I am confident this Economic Impact Act will make the transition much more realistic.

"The success of the Community Health Program will mandate the closure of Northern State Hospital at the end of calendar year 1973. The Economic Impact Act will aid both the employees of that facility and the community in which they reside. In addition $500,000 is being set aside for the four northwestern Washington counties for special assistance in community mental health activities.

"Success in our tuberculosis treatment program will allow the closure of Firlands Hospital in Seattle as a specialized tuberculosis treatment facility and the substitution of treatment in local existing hospital facilities. With that closure, the savings to the nineteen western Washington counties involved will approach one million dollars.

"The success of the Juvenile Probation Subsidy Program will allow the closure of the Spruce Canyon Youth Camp and the transfer of the Indian Ridge Youth Camp to the adult corrections system where it will serve as a prototype for a community correction facility for first-time adult offenders. One of the great benefits of that juvenile probation subsidy program is this opportunity to test out the concepts of a small community-oriented adult facility without additional capital investment, and with an existing staff, essentially already at hand. The Larch Mountain Honor Camp will be merged into the Clearwater Honor Camp to allow it to run at full capacity. Both today are running at half capacity.

"I shall propose an Adult Probation Subsidy Program and a Mental Health Subsidy Program which will match and parallel the operation of the spectacularly successful Juvenile Probation Subsidy Program. This will allow local communities to establish effective Adult Correction and Mental Health Programs and receive funding from the state level for their support. We intend to move moderately in this field—not too rapidly, but to take these strides which I believe will prove as successful as those we have already taken. The next few years offer unique opportunity for Washington to lead the nation in community care for citizens with special problems.

"During the past decade one of the most pressing financial problems placed on state resources came as a result of ever-increasing enrollments in the public education system as the baby boom following World War II passed through our school system. Sharp declines in the birth rate over the last few years, however, have resulted in a leveling of enrollments and the forecast for the next biennium indicates that there will be an absolute decline of several thousand in student enrollment in our common schools. Community college, college and university enrollment will continue to climb but at a slower rate than in past years. This easing in the previous unrelentless enrollment pressure provides, not only welcome financial relief, but also an opportunity for each sector of our public education system to rededicate itself to a program of excellence in education. Education continues to be the single, most important investment of state government with general fund expenditures of $1.3 billion dollars scheduled for the next biennium. This represents virtually half of the total general fund budget.

"In order to reestablish an actuarially sound funding program for the Teacher's Retirement System, I am including 70 million dollars in the budget for the 1973-75 biennium which, when coupled with the 18 million dollars in surplus revenue from the current biennium, will provide a significant step toward the establishment of the full level funding program for the retirement system. We have consulted with professional actuaries on the soundness of this approach, and I am confident it will be acceptable to this Legislature and to those teachers the system serves.

"The operation and construction programs of the Washington State Patrol, the Department of Highways and the Department of Motor Vehicles depend heavily on the state's Motor Vehicle Fund for their operation. The 1973-75 biennial budget requests of these agencies exceeded the amount of revenue available by more than 30 million dollars. We have carefully scrutinized and reduced each of these budgets to develop a program—a very importantly limited program—which will meet the essential staffing required and allow for full matching of all potential federal highway fund dollars. The Toll Bridge Authority Budget includes 1.2 million dollars to construct holding tanks on the remaining ferries to eliminate pollution caused by state ferries, and to lead the way toward similar action by others in the marine field. In order to more effectively meet the growing demand for passenger ferry service between cross-sound points, this budget includes 3 million dollars to be matched with additional federal funds so that we can add fast passenger vessels to our ferry fleet as a means of improving the service to foot passengers as well as reducing automobile congestion. The State Patrol's Budget allows for the addition of thirty-six troopers in the field force so we can continue the splendid record of traffic death reductions of recent years. Hundreds of Washington motorists are alive today because of the increased safety activities of our State Patrol and 1972 proved to be the best year in Washington history in terms of traffic safety.

“The projected rising enrollments in colleges and universities, as well as community colleges, will require additional personnel in those facilities. Suggested new programs also will require additional personnel. In other areas of government, however, there will be consistent personnel reductions and the total employment during the upcoming biennium will be unchanged from its present levels. This represents the first time in years that state government personnel levels have stabilized. Only through increases in governmental efficiency can this record be maintained.

“The final area I wish to share with you, specifically, is that of compensation for those who work in public service. One of the important elements in our economic recovery and in our ability to maintain a balanced budget during the depths of the recent recession was the willingness of public employees to forgo salary increases while a large majority of those in private employment continued to receive salary increases regularly. I believe now is the time to begin to close that gap between compensation for public employees and compensation for those working in equivalent jobs in private enterprise or for other governmental entities. I am therefore proposing an increase of 4 percent or $40 per month, whichever is higher, to take effect on January 1, 1973, for all classified employees of state government and higher education systems. I will ask for a 4 percent salary increase for all school teachers as well as professors and instructors in higher education. I will ask for additional 3 percent increase effective January 1, 1974, and I will ask that there be an increase of $5 a month in medical insurance payments effective July 1, 1973. In addition to these general benefits, I will ask for the authority for incremental payments or longevity payments to college and university professional staff and will seek a substantial betterment of their retirement program. I will also ask that teachers retirement benefits be raised to the equivalent of state employees.

“This budget, unquestionably, does not meet all the desires and needs presented to us in the budget-making process. It does, however, allow for substantial progress and opens the door to new ideas and new directions in state government. It is a budget which emphasizes efficiency and innovation. It is a budget which embarks us on the Washington Future Program and a better opportunity to plan for Washington’s future. It is important that we monitor the expenditures set forth in this budget to insure that progress toward the goals we have previously set is truly made.

“I expect to work closely with you and to offer the full resources of the departments of the executive branch of this government in turning our great hopes and the people’s expectations into reality through the Appropriations Act of 1973.

“Through our joint efforts let us begin the task which over the next decade will provide the kind of quality state which will be a proud heritage to those who succeed us.

“Thank you.”

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort His Excellency, Governor Daniel J. Evans to his office. The special committee thereupon escorted the Governor from the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort the Chief Justice and the members of the Washington State Supreme Court from the House Chamber. The special committee thereupon escorted the Justices of the Supreme Court from the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort the state elected officials from the House Chamber. The special committee thereupon escorted the elected state officials from the House Chamber.

The President: “Mr. Speaker, members of the House: Thanks once again for the wonderful hospitality.”

The President of the Senate turned the gavel over to the Speaker of the House.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the Joint Session was dissolved.

The Speaker directed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort
President Cherberg, President Pro Tempore Henry, and Vice President Pro Tempore Keefe, and the members of the Senate to the Senate Chamber.

The Senate reconvened at 7:30 p.m.

MOTION

At 7:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Friday, January 12, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jim Roper and Truel Jaton, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John’s Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"JESUS SAID: 'PEACE I LEAVE WITH YOU: MY PEACE I GIVE UNTO YOU'. O GOD, FROM WHOM ALL HOLY DESIRES, ALL GOOD THOUGHTS AND ALL JUST ACTIONS DO PROCEED: GIVE TO THY MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON YOUR PEACE AND YOUR BLESSING. MAY THEY SEEK FROM YOU WISDOM, TRUTH AND UNDERSTANDING THAT THE WORK THEY DO FOR THE PEOPLE OF OUR STATE MAY BRING A BETTER CHANCE FOR ALL MEN TO LIVE THE ABUNDANT LIFE. HELP THEM TO REMEMBER THE POOR AND THOSE TRAPPED BY THE CRUELTY OF POVERTY, IGNORANCE, FEAR AND PREJUDICE, AND GIVE THEM A WILL TO CREATE AMONGST US A BETTER SOCIETY FOR US ALL. THESE ARE NOT EASY TIMES AND THE PROBLEMS BEFORE MEN, OUR FATHER, ARE COMPLICATED—HELP THE MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE TO HAVE THE PATIENCE TO SEEK FAIR AND HONORABLE SOLUTIONS TO THEM, THAT WHAT IS DONE HERE WILL BE FOR THE GOOD OF ALL THE PEOPLE IN OUR STATE. OUR PRAYER, O LORD, IS FOR THE COURAGE TO BE HONEST, THE ZEAL TO BE FAITHFUL PUBLIC SERVANTS AND THE HUMILITY OF HEART TO REMEMBER THAT YOU ARE THE JUDGE OF ALL MEN. HEAR OUR PRAYER, O GOD, FOR WE OFFER IT IN THE FAITH AND NAME OF JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."
FIFTH DAY, JANUARY 12, 1973

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-7, consideration having commenced on the previous day.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, when we adjourned yesterday we were discussing the amendment to Rule 47. Senator Clarke had raised an issue and I think it was a very good one so we now have an amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger, if it is possible to present it at this time."

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7:
   Amend the first paragraph of Senate Rule 47 to read as follows:

   "COMMITTEE REPORTS

   Rule 47. Bills reported to the senate from a standing committee must have a majority report, which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form, shall carry one of the following recommendations, and shall be [signed] adopted [by these members of the committee subscribing thereto.] at a regularly or specially called meeting and shall be signed by a majority of the committee:"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, would this mean that a committee chairman could call a meeting and attend the meeting himself only and then circulate a bill or is it your intent that a majority of the committee should meet at such a meeting as Reed's Rules describe?"

Senator Walgren: "Of course, Senator Lewis, there would not be any prohibition upon a committee chairman calling a meeting and having as many committee members as possible in attendance. The opportunity of a particular member of a committee to call for a quorum is still available and would have to be honored by the committee chairman if such was done."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I think that answers my question. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would like to explain this. I do not think we intend to put anything over on the minority. The effort here was to stop the passing around of bills on the floor and Senator Clarke raised a good issue. I think this amendment does what we intended to do, Senator Lewis, when we were sitting in the leadership meeting and compromised on this. It will mean that action will have to be taken in a committee before you can pass a report out. If they raise a question of quorum in a committee I judge that meeting would not be a special or it would not be a regular meeting, that is a sure thing. You would have to take the action in a meeting with a quorum, if the question of a quorum was raised. Remember, the majority still has the upper hand because if we came to a meeting and we could not get a quorum there we would just come on the floor and call a special meeting and see a quorum was there. The point here is to clarify the issue Senator Clarke raised yesterday which we think may have caused some confusion a little later in the session."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Bailey yield? There is no meeting notice provision in this amendment. Is it possible the way this is written for the chairman to call a meeting and without notice. Then no one could raise the question of a quorum in accordance with Reed's Rules and a bill could be flying around here being signed. Shouldn't it have a notice provision?"

Senator Walgren: "I recognize, Senator Atwood, that that is certainly a possibility and has been the possibility and perhaps the practice on some occasions here in the past. I think it is understood that it is the desire of the minority here and certainly the majority to avoid that in all possible instances. So I think that you would agree that there are occasions when some speed is required in having a meeting and considering important measures that are before this body. And consequently while the practice might be avoided just as much as possible I think quite likely that the chairman should have this prerogative to take emergent action when required."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Will Senator Bailey yield? Senator Bailey, in this proposal it says that the bill shall be adopted at a regular or specially called meeting. I think there is some confusion as to how many members of the committee have to be present to adopt and I wonder if you would say whether you mean it must be adopted by a majority of the full membership of the committee, a majority of a quorum of the committee, which quorum consists of a majority, or a majority of the committee members present."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Whetzel, I think I am correct in saying that in the past, I see no reason why it should not hold true in the future, that if a quorum is present when a majority votes on a bill, the bill is then, if it can get a majority of the whole committee, is out on the floor. Our effort here is the same thing Senator Clarke raised yesterday and that is not to go the full gamut the first time. We would like now to force at least an action of the committee in meeting before any bill can be passed around. You know we have had in the past a large number of bills that have never been heard in committee that come out in front of you with a report form, and this we are trying to discourage in one step. If it works out all right that is enough. If it does not work out all right, the next time I think we will be around to saying you have to be in committee and vote on it before it comes out. That was their original proposal on the Republican side, to require no passing around of any report. We then realized it had several handicaps and we decided that maybe if we could take this one step we would at least make a step in the right direction and see how it works out this session."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Will Senator Bailey yield again? Senator Bailey, I am not trying to belabor this. I am in agreement with the remarks of Senators Clarke and Day, that this is an improvement and we are not trying to shackle people. I am just trying to clear up some ambiguities at this stage in adopting it so that the members will clearly understand what we are doing. I would like to raise a question as the understanding of the words 'specially called.' Does that mean called in some special manner rather than a regular calling of a meeting, that is possibly an irregular calling of a meeting, or does it simply refer to a meeting with relatively short notice such as we give notice on the floor of a committee meeting and advise the members of the bill that will be presented at the meeting? In other words, when we say 'specially called' meeting, we are referring to a special meeting rather than the method that it is called would be called in some unusual manner that is not provided for in the rules."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Whetzel, I might go back and point out that the Republican proposal at first just mentioned regular meetings. We discussed this and were a little fearful that this would mean a meeting that was on the schedule—you know we are trying to schedule every meeting at a certain time. We were fearful this would mean a meeting that was on the schedule only and that in the event we had some emergency come up toward the end of the session, this could be construed as meaning that we would have to wait until that regularly called meeting would be set. So without the thought in mind of any skulduggery, we decided that maybe it would not hurt anything to add 'specially called.' Now back to Senator Atwood's question, would this mean that we could hold a meeting without notifying all members? I never recall in the history of the Senate where a committee chairman has called a meeting and only notified one side. I think that we have always called every member. If it is specially called from the floor, every member has a right to hear it. If it is called by a notice, every member gets that notice. And I certainly would want to assure you the majority has no thought like that in mind, but we would not want to shackle ourselves by a ruling later that we had to wait to go to a regular meeting which might be construed as being one that is on the calendar only and maybe have to wait two or three days for it."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, the amendment to Rule 58 as proposed in Senate Resolution 1973-7 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment as proposed in Senate Resolution 1973-7 was adopted:

"Amend Rules 61, 67, 69, 70 and 73 by deleting "and joint rules" wherever it may appear in the rule."

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

Amend the amendments to the Senate Rules by insertion of the following:

Amend the sixth paragraph of Rule 46 on page 286 of the 1971 Legislative Manual to read as follows:

"No vote in any standing committee shall be taken by secret ballot nor shall any committee have a policy of secrecy as to any vote on action taken in such committee. Only such bills as are included on the written notice of a committee meeting may be considered at that meeting except upon the vote of a majority of the entire membership of the committee to consider another bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Is there any provision here for the calling of a meeting such as was called the other day for implementing of the special school levy voting that we had to get out in a certain record piece of time? Is there any way that such things as this could be taken care of because you are going to hamstring yourself if there is not some provision?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I think that I actually answered that in my opening statement to the effect that all it requires is that the bill be on the written notice for the committee meetings. There is no requirement whatsoever as to the length of time that there must be between the giving of the written notice and the holding of the committee meeting. So I would assume under a situation of this kind that there would be a circulation of the notice just as, for instance, this particular amendment is. When I put it on the desk it is immediately reproduced and given to the members. That could constitute a written notice of the committee meeting and I see no reason at all why there could not be an emergency handling."

The motion by Senator Clarke was lost and the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 by Senators Washington, Greive, Connor, Ridder and Stortini:
Amend Rule 46, under the heading "Rules Committee Daily Calendar" by adding the following paragraph:
"The rules committee of the senate shall publish before four o'clock p.m. of each day an agenda of the bills which will be considered by that committee on the next following legislative day."

Debate ensued.

Senators Herr, Talley and Guess demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Washington, Greive, Connor, Ridder and Stortini to Senate Resolution 1973-7.

The motion by Senator Washington failed and the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Stender moved adoption of the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7:
Amend the amendments to Senate Rules by inserting the following:
On page 287 of the 1971 Legislative Manual add a new paragraph to Rule 46 as follows:
"QUORUM REQUIRED—No committee shall transact any business absent a quorum. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum."

MOTION

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Stender to Senate Resolution 1973-7:
After "constitute a quorum," at the end of the Stender amendment, insert "A quorum is presumed to be present, even if the vote does not indicate it, if no member raises the question."

Debate ensued.

Senators Herr, Day and Fleming demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Whetzel to the amendment by Senator Stender.

The motion by Senator Whetzel failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The motion by Senator Stender failed and the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was not adopted.
FIFTH DAY, JANUARY 12, 1973

MOTION
At 12:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

On page 4 amend Rule 58 by adding a new paragraph as follows:

"A member or members of the House of Representatives may join in sponsoring a senate bill, resolution, or memorial endorsed by a senator as the principal sponsor."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was laid upon the table.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

Strike the amendment to Rule 73 adopted January 8, 1972, and insert as Rule 73:

"VOTE RECORD OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Rule 73. On any vote in a standing committee one-sixth of the members of such committee may demand that the vote be recorded and filed with the Secretary of the Senate, who shall preserve such record for a period of four years."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bailey: “After listening to the explanation, I have no great objection to the two-member concept. I do not see any great harm in it, Senator Talley. I wanted to make that clear. There is one question we are arguing over here about the number and Senator Mardesich wanted to ask a question but if that question is answered, all right. I have no objection to going along with the amendment.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: “Senator Lewis, we have most of our committees with seven members and one-sixth of seven is 1.15. Does that mean two and is it to be the understanding that it should be two and if it is, why don’t we put two?

“We cannot do that because we have varying sizes. If it is an understanding that if it is the greater portion of the fraction then I would be perfectly willing to accede to this, but I think that if you just leave it up to one man you can get the situation where someone becomes upset because his bill is not passing and then you get into the delaying type tactics and all that sort of thing, and if you would make it clear that that is what the situation is for the record, then I think the majority could go along with this amendment.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Mardesich, in response to your question our mathematicians calculated that out carefully and that was the specific intent, that in a seven man committee we would require the additional percentage of the fraction, it would require two members to demand the vote.”

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was adopted.
MOTION

Senator Stortini moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Stortini, Greive, Connor and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7: There is added to the Senate Rules a new rule to read as follows: “Rule . The chairman of each senate committee shall keep a written public record of the attendance of committee members at each committee meeting. Any member of a committee shall have the privilege to resign his membership on any committee by presenting to the chairman of that committee a signed written letter of resignation. The resignation shall be effective upon receipt by the chairman.” Senator Herr moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Stortini, Greive, Connor and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7: After “chairman.” at the end of the amendment, add the following: “Members may be excused by a vote of a majority of the committee members present.”

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the amendment by Senator Herr to the amendment by Senators Stortini, Greive, Connor and Ridder was laid upon the table. Senator Walgren moved that the amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7 be laid upon the table. Senator Stortini demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Woody, Talley, Donohue, Bailey, Ridder, Herr, Metcalf, Durkan and Bottiger.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Stortini, Greive, Connor and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 20. Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Walgren, Woodall, Woody—29. Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Connor, Dore, Greive, Herr, Jones, Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel—20.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Francis: “I voted aye on this motion to table but I hope that the members will be somewhat cautious in the use of this kind of a motion. I feel that there were many reasons for voting down that amendment that were not advanced and that is because of the lack of thorough debate and I feel that these matters are very important and I think you will all agree that they are important and I think that it is important that we have thorough debate on these issues as they are coming before us. And I hope that there will be very cautious and conscientious use of motions which cut off debate.”

MOTION

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Washington and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7: There is added to the Senate Rules a new rule to read as follows: “Rule Every senator who is a lawyer, insurance broker, real estate appraiser, accountant or other professional, and who individually or whose firm has a client which is a person, corporation, partnership, joint venture, union, association or other entity regulated by the state, shall publish a schedule of fees charged such client and state the amount of time spent performing the work during the twenty-four months immediately preceding the first day of a legislative session.”
Debate ensued.
Senator Woodall: "I suggest the reading of the last word."
President Pro Tempore Henry: "If no objection, the Secretary will read the last word."
Senator Greive: "I object."

MOTION

Senator Woodall: "I move that the Secretary be directed to read the last word."
Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was not sustained.
The motion by Senator Woodall carried.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator Atwood, as you read this proposed rule of Senator Greive's, if a tavern owner who is regulated by the state came to your office and asked for help in writing a lease or asked you to represent him in a personal injury suit, would you have to report what you charged him for doing that work?"

Senator Atwood: "I do not believe that that is the way this rule reads but it states, as I read it, that you have to publish your list of fees. Well, I guess it is possible to read that way but may I say in response to that I do not think that . . . it is possible to interpret it that way. I do not think that that is a correct interpretation. I do not know what Senator Greive had in mind. I will say this. I think we have been debating rules and procedure here and this properly belongs in the code of ethics type of legislation and not in our rules and procedure, but that is just my personal opinion."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Will Senator Greive yield? Senator Greive, two questions. Does this change in any way the face of Initiative 276?"
Senator Greive: "No, it does not. I am perfectly willing to have it put down the calendar some and work out the problem that Senator Francis has in mind."
Senator Bailey: "Senator Greive, does this cover the attorney that takes the claims cases against the Labor and Industries and takes out of the poor worker's salary one-third of the claim that he has coming in the first place and has to go to an attorney for?"
Senator Greive: "Yes."
Senator Bailey: "You would have to report your fees and lay them on the table?"
Senator Greive: "Yes."

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that further consideration of the amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Washington and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7 be placed at the end of the consideration of the resolution today.
The motion by Senator Greive carried and further consideration of the amendment will be had at the end of consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-7.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I would also like to explain, if I may, the reason I am presiding this afternoon. I presume some of you know that some ribbon clerk connected with the SCC decided that it was more feasible to subpoena three well known public servants in the state of Washington than to ask them to appear. So Lieutenant Governor Cherberg is in Seattle."
MOTION

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive, Washington, Connor, Ridder and Stortini to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

There is added to the Senate Rules a new rule to read as follows:

"Rule . Every senator shall disclose the provisions of any contract between the state, its agencies or any of its political subdivisions and any employer from which he receives an annual compensation of fifteen hundred dollars or more."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, isn’t that the law now? We have to file annually any retainers, I only have one. I am kind of embarrassed that I only have one to file. What is new about this rule?"

Senator Greive: "When you see the amendment you will soon see."

MOTION

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Washington and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

On line 3 of the amendment, after "he" and before "receives" insert "or his spouse or his business partner"

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that the amendment by Senator Francis to the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Connor and Washington to Senate Resolution 1973-7 be laid upon the table.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Connor, Washington, Stortini, Stender, Whetzel, Dore, Knoblauch, Metcalf and Ridder.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Francis to the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Connor and Washington was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 20.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Guess, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Newschwaner, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Woodall, Woody—29.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Connor and Washington to Senate Resolution 1973-7 be laid upon the table.

There being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn by Senator Greive.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Connor and Washington to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

There is added to the Senate Rules a new rule to read as follows:

"Rule . No senator shall accept lodging or travel provided by a lobbyist, or allow a lobbyist to pay bills for travel and lodging which, over a twenty-four month period, total more than one hundred dollars in value:
PROVIDED, This rule shall not apply where such traveling and lodging is received by the senator in pursuing an occupation other than that of legislator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Greive yield? Senator, you have made it very plain that you have been in favor of Initiative 276 which passed the people. In the body of the initiative there is a section that gave the commission that will be appointed by the Governor the right to make rules and regulations. Could we not assume then that the commission will in fact make rules and regulations that perhaps would cover exactly what you are trying to do by putting this into rules?"

Senator Greive: "I am sure that if we pass this amendment and it is placed before the commission and they know that one of the bodies of state government is doing it, it will be a very persuasive force in getting them to adopt it for others."

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that the amendment by Senators Greive, Ridder, Connor and Washington to Senate Resolution 1973-7 be laid upon the table.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was not sustained.

The motion by Senator Walgren carried and the amendment was laid upon the table.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Ridder and Washington to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

There is added to the Senate Rules a new rule to read as follows:

"Rule 46. Every senator shall disclose the provisions of any contract between the state, or any of its political subdivisions and himself, any partnership, trust, or joint venture in which he has a ten percent financial interest or any corporation in which he holds ten percent of the outstanding shares of stock."

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was not sustained.

The amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Ridder and Washington to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

Amend Rule 46, page 287, Legislative Manual, by adding a new paragraph as follows:

"QUORUM REQUIRED

Committees shall be considered to have a quorum present unless the question is raised. No committee shall transact official business absent a quorum. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "I raise the point of order that we considered the same issue this morning. Isn't this the same issue basically the Senate voted down this morning. At that it is clearer exactly what you intended this morning. What I am getting at is that this morning we discussed this very thing. Senator Woodall discussed the matter of people coming into a hearing and here we are bound by not even being able to hear these people appearing before the committee because somebody can say there is not a quorum of the committee present. This is not exactly an advancement in legislative procedure. I would say it would be good if everybody was there but why penalize the people that come from Spokane or some other place just because some member is busy talking to a school group or something of that sort."
Senator Atwood: "There are no rules of this Senate at this time and the majority rules. And I do not think that his point of order is well taken."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Metcalf yield? Senator, the way I read this it says, 'Committees shall be considered to have a quorum present unless the question is raised.' And then it continues in a new sentence to say, 'No committee shall,' which is mandatory, 'transact official business absent a quorum.' Now it does not say when the question has to be raised. Let us say that my committee meets and instead of thirteen people this particular day there is a snow storm and there are only six, or seven there which is absent a quorum. No one raises the question. And then pursuant to that meeting someone does raise the question. Then what happens?"

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Day, I would have to defer to the attorneys present as to specifically answering that question. If the wording is faulty and I do not believe it is, not being an attorney—I do not believe the wording is faulty—but I would defer to an attorney on the floor who might wish to change the wording if the wording is faulty."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Bailey, your point of order is not well taken."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Metcalf yield? Senator Metcalf, what is your intended definition of official business?"

Senator Metcalf: "My view of official business is an official vote. That would be the way I would view it. Again, I think that that would be a matter to define here. If anyone wishes to try another definition they can go ahead on it. I thought that official business would give us the flexibility that we need in cases of a hearing or discussion and so forth."

Senator Odegaard: "One other question, Senator. What, you say a majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum. Is that a majority of the committee present or the full committee membership?"

Senator Metcalf: "A numerical majority of the total committee. More than half."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Stender: "Mr. President, I would like to have the President or the Parliamentarian or the Secretary make a judgment on whether or not Reed's Rules, specifically Rule 12, applies to committee meetings of the Senate, standing committee meetings of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "Number one, of course, until we adopt our own rules and refer to Reed's Rules, then Reed's Rules has nothing to do with us. And of course at this juncture we have not adopted any Senate rules and we have not at this stage of the proceedings for this session referred to Reed's Rules. Reed's Rules do not apply to us now. They did last time. They do not apply to us now until we adopt something that says Reed's apply to us. After that they would."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "With Senator Stender's permission, I would like to rephrase his question and to say that if we adopt the rules as presently before us, namely Rule 36 which makes Reed's Rules govern, would this apply? Would that be all right, Senator?"

Senator Stender: "That was my intent, Senator. Thank you."
FIFTH DAY, JANUARY 12, 1973

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Rule 12 of Reed's says, 'Where a body is a representative one, performing the functions of government for a constituency or a final one managing the business of a corporation which selected it, the quorum is a majority and can neither be increased nor diminished by a vote of the body. City councils, boards of directors are of this class.' So I would presume Reed's Rules, if and when adopted, if we ever get through with this debacle or whatever you want to call it, would apply."

MOTION

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf to Senate Resolution 1973-7:

After "quorum" and before the period, insert "except to conduct a hearing"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Peterson (Ted) was excused.

Senator Newschwander demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senator Whetzel to the amendment by Senator Metcalf to Senate Resolution 1973-7 and the demand was sustained by Senators Lewis (Harry), Sellar, Scott, Ridder, Greive, Clarke, Metcalf, Whetzel and Herr.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Newschwander, is your request to the amendment to the amendment itself or to the full amendment, the original amendment?"

Senator Newschwander: "The amendment to the amendment by Senator Whetzel."

Senator Mardesich: "You want a roll call with respect to this?"

Senator Newschwander: "Yes."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Whetzel to the amendment by Senator Metcalf to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Francis, Herr—2.

Excused: Senator Peterson (Ted)—1.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bailey: "My point is this, as a member of this body, as the chairman of the majority caucus, I think we should clarify on the record the fact that this last rule need not be a rule to give the minority a chance to stymie all actions of committees because if this is done we will come on the floor and recess if necessary under guard and see to it that a quorum of a committee is present for a meeting. I just want it clear that we do not intend in any way to have one or two members hold up the whole proceedings of the Senate during this session."

Senator Newschwander demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senator Metcalf as amended by Senator Whetzel and the demand was sustained by Senators Stender, Scott, Whetzel, Greive, Canfield, Murray, Sellar, Clarke and Ridder.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Metcalf, as amended by Senator Whetzel, to Senate Resolution 1973-7 was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 12; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Greive, Guess, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaner, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—36.

Excused: Senator Peterson (Ted)—1.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Washington and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7 which had previously been moved for adoption by Senator Greive.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the amendment by Senators Greive, Connor, Washington and Ridder to Senate Resolution 1973-7 be laid upon the table.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was not sustained.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was laid upon the table.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution 1973-7, as amended.

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and Senate Resolution 1973-7, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

At 4:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, January 15, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
EIGHTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Connor, Dore, Keefe and Woodall. On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senator Woodall was excused. There being no objection, Senators Connor, Dore and Keefe were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Kenneth Orton and Sharon Colwell, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul McCann, associate pastor of United Churches of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

An Act relating to the state canal commission; and making an appropriation.
Referred to Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

SENATE BILL NO. 2131, by Senators Murray, Gardner, Newschwander, Bottiger and Ridder: Referred to Committee on Education.

SENATE BILL NO. 2132, by Senators Murray, Fleming and Bottiger:
An Act relating to criminal justice; creating a new chapter in Title 43 RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.010; repealing section 2, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.020; repealing section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1965, section 1, chapter 220, Laws of 1969 ex. sss. and RCW 43.100.030; repealing section 4, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.040; repealing section 5, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.050; repealing section 6, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.060; repealing section 7, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.070; repealing section 8, chapter 158, Laws of 1965, section 2, chapter 220, Laws of 1969 ex. sss. and RCW 43.100.080; repealing section 9, chapter 220, Laws of 1969 ex. sss. and RCW 43.100.085; repealing section 10, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.090; repealing section 11, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.110; repealing section 12, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.120; repealing section 13, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.130; repealing section 14, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.140; repealing section 15, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.150; repealing section 16, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.160; repealing section 17, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.170; repealing section 18, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.190; repealing section 21, chapter 158, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.100.910; and making appropriations.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that Senate Bill No. 2132 be referred to the Committee on Local Government.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Would Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, is this not the bill that cleared the Legislative Council? Did we strip the appropriation in that or what is the condition of the bill in this regard?”

Senator Fleming: “It is the bill that cleared the Legislative Council, but in terms of the appropriation I think the prime sponsor should talk to you about that, Senator Murray.”

Senator Murray: “Just to keep the record straight, the Legislative Council action was twelve to four in favor of the bill. However, it needed sixteen votes and therefore did not pass the full Legislative Council. From the standpoint of the last motion made at the time the appropriation was stripped off the bill. However, the bill as it came out of committee and as now introduced does have an appropriation. That is subject to amendment when we have more exact figures.”

The motion by Senator Fleming failed on a rising vote. Senate Bill No. 2132 was referred to the Committee on State Government.
SENATE BILL NO. 2133, by Senators Odegaard, Whetzel, Donohue, Talley and Lewis (Harry):
An Act relating to revenue and taxation; amending section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.030; and declaring an emergency and prescribing an effective date.
Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the rules were suspended and the names of Senators Talley and Lewis (Harry) were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Bill No. 2133.

SENATE BILL NO. 2134, by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Twigg and Bailey (by Insurance Commissioner request):
An Act relating to insurance; adding new sections to Title 48 RCW as a new chapter thereof; and making an effective date.
Referred to Judiciary Committee.

SENATE BILL NO. 2135, by Senators Francis, Ridder and Scott:
An Act relating to public employment; amending section 3, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 131, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.030; amending section 13, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 4, chapter 271, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.120; and adding a new section to chapter 41.26 RCW.
Referred to Committee on Higher Education.

SENATE BILL NO. 2136, by Senators Wanamaker, Guess and Washington (by Legislative Transportation Committee request):

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2021, by Senators Stortini, Grant, Metcalf, Ridder, Odenaard, Canfield, Herr and Gardner:

Providing for annual general elections.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2021, providing for annual general elections (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike all material after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"Section 1. Section 29.13.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All state, county, city, town, and district general elections for the election of federal, state, legislative, judicial, county, city, town, district, and precinct officers, and for the submission to the voters of the state of any measure for their adoption and approval or rejection, shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, in the year in which they may be called. A state-wide general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November of each year: PROVIDED, That the state-wide general election held in odd-numbered years shall be limited to (1) the election of city, town, and district officers as provided for in RCW 29.13.040, or as otherwise provided by law; (2) the election of state and county officers for the remainder of any unexpired terms as provided for in Article II, section 15, Article III, section 10, and Article IV, sections 3 and 5 of the state Constitution; (3) the election of county officers in any county governed by a charter containing provisions calling for general county elections at this time; and (4) the approval or rejection of state measures, including proposed constitutional amendments, matters pertaining to any proposed constitutional convention, initiative measures and referendum measures proposed by the electorate, referendum bills, and any other matter provided by the legislature for submission to electorate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not be construed as fixing the time for holding primary elections, or elections for the recall of county, city, town, or district officers; nor special elections to fill vacancies [in any state office, or] in the membership of either branch of the congress of the United States: PROVIDED [FURTHER] HOWEVER, That the board of county commissioners may, if they deem an emergency to exist, call a special county election at any time by presenting a resolution to the county auditor at least forty-five days days prior to the proposed election date. Such county special election shall be noticed and conducted in the manner provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.13 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever state measures are voted upon at a state general election held in November of an odd-numbered year as provided for in section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act, the state of Washington shall assume its prorated share of such election costs. The county auditor shall apportion the state's share of such expenses when prorating election costs as provided under RCW 29.04.020 and 29.13.045 and shall file such expense claims with the state auditor. The state auditor shall compile such claims for presentation to the next succeeding legislature in the same manner as other legislative relief claims."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.13 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever it shall be necessary to hold a special election in an odd-numbered year to fill an unexpired term of any office which is scheduled to be voted upon for a full term in an even-numbered year, no September primary election shall be held in the odd-numbered year if, after the last day allowed for candidates to withdraw, either of the following circumstances exist:

(1) No more than one candidate of each qualified political party has filed a declaration of candidacy for the same partisan office to be filled; or

(2) No more than two candidates have filed a declaration of candidacy for a single non-partisan office to be filled.

In either event, the officer with whom the declarations of candidacy were filed shall immediately notify all candidates concerned and the names of the candidates that would have been printed upon the September primary ballot, but for the provisions of this section, shall be printed as nominees for the positions sought upon the November general election ballot.

Sec. 4. Section 29.39.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 109, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.39.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Election" used alone means a general election except where the context indicates that a special election is meant or included. "Election" used without qualification never means a primary. ["Election" does not include a municipal election.]

In addition to the above, for the purpose of this chapter, the term "primary" means the [state] primary elections held on the third Tuesday in September of [the even-numbered] each year. The term "election" means the [state] general elections held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November of [the even-numbered and the odd-numbered years: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the absentee ballots for service voters of such odd-numbered year election shall be restricted to state measures being submitted for approval or rejection] each year.

The purpose of this section is to authorize absentee voters qualifying as service voters as defined by RCW 29.39.010, as now existing or hereafter amended, to cast the same ballots, including those for special elections, as any registered voter would receive under the provisions of RCW 29.36.030 for any September primary or November general election.

Sec. 5. Section 29.42.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.42.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The county central committee of each major political party shall consist of the precinct committeemen of the party from the several voting precincts of the county. This committee shall meet for the purpose of organization at the county court house at two o'clock p.m. on the second Saturday in December after each state general election in the even-numbered year unless some other time and place are designated by a sufficient notice to all the newly elected committeemen by the authorized officers of the retiring committee. For the purpose of this paragraph, a notice mailed at least seventy-two hours prior to the date of the meeting shall constitute sufficient notice.

At its organization meeting, the county central committee shall elect a chairman and vice chairman who must be of opposite sexes; it shall also elect a state committeeman and a state committeewoman.

Sec. 6. Section 29.42.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.42.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member of a major political party who is a registered voter in the precinct may upon payment of a fee of one dollar file his declaration of candidacy with the county auditor for the office of precinct committeeman of his party in that precinct. When elected he shall serve so long as he remains an eligible voter in that precinct and until his successor has been elected at the next ensuing state general election in the even-numbered year.

Sec. 7. Section 29.42.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.42.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The statutory requirements for filing as a candidate at the primaries shall apply to candidates for precinct committeeman except that the filing period for this office alone shall be extended to and include the Friday immediately following the last day for political parties to fill vacancies in the ticket as provided by RCW 29.18.150, and the office shall not be voted upon at the primaries, but the names of all candidates must appear under the proper party and office designations on the ballot for the general November election for each even-numbered year and the one receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected: PROVIDED, That to be declared elected, a candidate must receive at least ten percent of the number of votes cast for the candidate of his party receiving the greatest number of votes in his precinct. Any person elected to the office of precinct committeeman who has not filed a declaration of candidacy shall pay the fee of one dollar to the county auditor for a certificate of election. The term of office of precinct committeeman shall be for two years, commencing upon completion of the official canvass of votes by the county canvassing board of election returns. Should any vacancy occur in this office by reason of death, resignation, or disqualification of the incumbent, or because of failure to elect, the respective county chairman of the county central committee shall be empowered to fill such vacancy by appointment: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in legislative districts having a majority of its precincts in a class AA county, such appointment shall be made only upon the recommendation of the legislative district chairman: PROVIDED, That the person so appointed shall have the same qualifications as candidates when filing for election to such office for such precinct: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when a vacancy in the office of precinct committeeman exists because of failure to elect at a state general election, such vacancy shall not be filled until after the organization meeting of the county central committee and the new county chairman selected as provided by RCW 29.42.030.

Sec. 8. Section 29.80.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.80.010 are each amended to read as follows:

[There shall be mailed by the secretary of state to all voters of the state] As soon as possible prior to each state general election at which federal or state officials are to be elected, the secretary of state shall publish and mail to each individual place of residence of the state a candidates' pamphlet containing photographs and campaign statements of eligible nominees who desire to participate therein.

Sec. 9. Section 29.81.100, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 145, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.81.100 are each amended to read as follows:

As soon as possible prior to any state general election at which any initiative [or] measure, referendum measure, or amendment to the state Constitution is to be submitted to the people, the secretary of state shall cause to be printed in pamphlet form a true copy of the serial designation [and] or number, the ballot title, the legislative title, if any, the full text of and the arguments for and arguments against each such measure [including amendments to the Constitution proposed by the legislature] to be submitted to the people, and such other information pertaining to elections as may be required by law or in the judgment of the secretary of state is deemed informative to the voters.”

In line 1 of the title after “elections;” strike all material down to and including the period on line 14 and insert the following: “amending section 29.13.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.13.010; amending section 29.39.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 109, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.39.030; amending section 29.42.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.42.030; amending section 29.42.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.42.040; amending section 29.42.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.42.050; amending section 29.80.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.80.010; amending section 29.81.100, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 145, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.81.100; and adding new sections to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.13 RCW.”

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Metcalf, Stortini, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendments to the committee amendment were adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 18, after “RCW” strike “29.13.040” and insert “29.13.020”
On page 6, section 8, line 3, after "therein" insert ": PROVIDED, That in odd-numbered years no candidate's pamphlet shall be published"

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 17, strike "the election of" and after "district" strike "officers" and insert "general elections"

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 6 of the committee amendment, add a new section following section 9 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

The motion by Senator Grant carried the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 7, of the committee amendment, amend the title as follows: After "RCW" add "; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2021 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Stortini yield? Senator Stortini, do you have a fiscal note that goes with this as to the added cost to the state for the holding of a general election every year?"

Senator Stortini: "The cost the first year on the part of the state will be roughly two hundred and six thousand dollars."

Senator Atwood: "That is for the election coming up? Does that include the voters' pamphlet preparation and everything?"

Senator Stortini: "Yes. Two hundred and six thousand three hundred and fifty dollars."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2021 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 44; nays, 2; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Guess—2.

Excused: Senators Greive, Keefe, Woodall—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2021 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gardner, House Bill No. 55 was ordered held for the second reading calendar Tuesday, January 16, 1973.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended and the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-9.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-9

By Senators Durkan, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Herr, Fleming, Greive, Talley and Dore:

WHEREAS, The International Brotherhood of Teamsters is one of this nation’s largest labor organizations; and

WHEREAS, That organization has only three vice presidents on the West Coast; and

WHEREAS, On Tuesday, January 16th, the general executive board of the union will swear in Arnie Weinmeister, of Seattle, as a vice president; and

WHEREAS, This is the first time since 1958 that this state has had a vice president of the Teamsters Union; and

WHEREAS, Arnie Weinmeister has been well known in this state since the days when he starred in football for the University of Washington and in the professional ranks; and

WHEREAS, He has been associated with Teamsters Local 117 for several years and is currently serving as secretary thereof; and

WHEREAS, He has been secretary of Teamsters Joint Council No. 28 and currently serves that body as president;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate expresses its most sincere congratulations to Arnie Weinmeister on his elevation to the vice presidency of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Arnie Weinmeister, Frank E. Fitzsimmons, General President of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and to Teamsters Joint Council No. 28.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-8

By Senators Fleming, Keefe, Peterson (Ted), Gardner, Francis, Grant, Murray, Washington, Dore, Riddler, Talley and Whetzel:

WHEREAS, We the members of the Senate gathered together here this fifteenth day of January at the seat of honor of the State to do the business of and to carry out the responsibilities to the citizens of this state, recognize that in our desire to reach the peak of achievement we have the example of a Great American to show us the way; and

WHEREAS, This man, a man of God, dedicated his life to bettering the quality of this society and the possibility of world peace; and

WHEREAS, This man dared us to trust God as he dedicated his life to the services of God; and

WHEREAS, This man had a dream, that some day this great country of ours would realize the potential of its Constitution, its Declaration of Independence, and its Bill of Rights, to free all men of the injustices of this society; and

WHEREAS, This man taught us how to be true Americans; his bravery forcefully reminds us that we are citizens in the land of the brave and his dedication to truth and equality has set us on our way to “One Nation under God with Liberty and Justice for all”; and

WHEREAS, The Montgomery Bus Strike is not so far away in our memories nor is the group which he founded, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, whose very name bespeaks a chapter in our Nation’s history:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on this day we, the Senate of the State of Washington, pause in our deliberation to give honor to one of our most honorable citizens, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and call the attention of the citizens of this state to his contributions to the Unity of our Nation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to his widow and members of his family.
EIGHTH DAY, JANUARY 15, 1973

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think the resolution itself has done an admirable job in sort of describing and putting forth what I as an individual and I think many people in this state and nation feel about the many contributions that Doctor Martin Luther King contributed to American society and the world at large. I think that a resolution such as this is very fine in trying to honor the memory of a great American, but I think that this body itself did something even more memorable and more honorable two years ago when it passed a bill through this Senate body making Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King’s birthday a school holiday. Unfortunately the bill died the last few days in the Rules Committee of the House. But I think that it is particularly noteworthy that all over the city of Seattle and many areas of western Washington in our parochial schools and so forth, young people of our state are out today in honor of this great American. I think that we as a body can continue to work for progress in this society and to reflect on the ideas and the contribution that this great American made to our state and to our nation. I think that this is the time right now that we as a body can sort of reflect back on those kinds of things that he stood for and try and rededicate ourselves to make this a better place for all Americans to live in. And I would hope that this body would rise with me for one moment of silence in honor of this great American."

The Senate observed one moment of silence in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

MOTION

At 2:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, January 16, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Keefe and Woodall. On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senator Woodall was excused. There being no objection, Senator Keefe was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Tom Caudill and Susan Stone, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul McCann, pastor of United Churches of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, WE CANNOT LOVE UNLESS FIRST WE LOVE OUR BROTHERS. THANK YOU FOR WORK TO DO TODAY, WORK THAT RIGHTLY DONE CAN FURTHER AID OUR CITIZENRY AND EVEN BY YOUR GRACE ADVANCE YOUR KINGDOM ON EARTH. WE ASK YOU TODAY TO HELP US TO ENABLE US TO WORK TOGETHER. BEYOND OUR PARTISANSHIP GIVE US HONEST AND OPEN RELATIONSHIPS WITH ONE ANOTHER. HELP US TO EXERCISE TRUST TOWARD OTHERS AND IN TURN TO DESERVE THEIR TRUST OURSELVES. IN SHORT, O GOD, GIVE US THE MIND AND SPIRIT OF JESUS, YOUR SON AND OUR LORD IN Whose NAME WE PRAY AND FOR Whose KINGDOM WE WORK TOGETHER. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Henry, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.
At 9:10 a.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.
At 9:25 a.m., the President declared the Senate to be in order.

MOTION

At 9:25 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardisich, the Senate recessed until 11:15 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:15 a.m.

MOTION

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, with permission of the Senate, I would like to move that Senator Connor be placed on the Social and Health Services Committee instead of on Transportation and Utilities, that Senator Jolly be placed on the Transportation and Utilities Committee instead of Ways and Means and that Senator Ridder be placed on the Ways and Means Committee instead of Social and Health Services."

The motion carried. There being no objection, the President declared the committee assignments to be confirmed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Stender, the rules were suspended and the names of Senators Dore and Marsh were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Bill No. 2111.

At 11:25 a.m., the Senate retired to the House Chamber to meet in Joint Session for the purpose of hearing an address by the Premier of British Columbia, the Honorable David Barrett.

JOINT SESSION

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate announced the arrival of the Senate at the bar of the House.
The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the President of the Senate, John A. Cherberg, and the President Pro Tempore, Al Henry, to seats on the rostrum beside the Speaker.
The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the Senators to seats within the House.
The President of the Senate presided.
The President of the Senate called the Joint Session to order.
The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate, and all members were present except Senators Keefe and Woodall who were excused.

The Clerk of the House called the roll of the House, and all members were present.

The President: "Honored members of the Legislature: The purpose of the Joint Session is to receive a message from the Premier of British Columbia, His Excellency David Barrett, and to greet an illustrious and renowned group of his colleagues from British Columbia."

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to act as a committee of honor to escort the Premier of British Columbia, the Honorable David Barrett, to the rostrum and the visiting cabinet ministers from British Columbia to a place of honor at the bar of the House: Senators Van Hollebeke, Bailey, Mardesich, Atwood and Lewis (Harry), and Representatives Goltz, Haussler, Anderson, Bluechel, Schumaker, Van Dyk and Berentson.
The committee retired.
The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival at the bar of the House of the Premier of British Columbia, the Honorable David Barrett, and the visiting cabinet ministers. The President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort the Premier to a seat on the rostrum and the visiting cabinet ministers to a place of honor at the bar of the House.
The President: “Esteemed members of the Legislature, our illustrious visitors from British Columbia, His Excellency, the Honorable David Barrett, ladies and gentlemen: The invocation will be given by the Reverend Father A. A. Lemieux, Director of Development, Seattle University.”

Father Lemieux: “Almighty God, gracious loving Father of us all, and concerned with our actions, bless this assembly and prosper the purpose for which it has been convened. Bless our distinguished visitor, the newly-elected youthful and dynamic Premier of British Columbia who honors our state by his visit. No stranger among us, but a beloved alumnus of our own Seattle University, he comes in a spirit of genuine friendship to promote social relations between our two sovereign regions, to discuss areas of common concern, and to seek solutions of mutual benefit to all. O God, grant Your blessings on our esteemed Governor who has already manifested before this assembly a renewed commitment to regional planning and cooperation with Oregon, Idaho and our neighboring Province of British Columbia. We ask You, O Lord, to give vision and direction, courage and steadfastness, to these two young and progressive leaders, to their legislative bodies and cabinet members, wisely and vigorously to push forward these goals of cooperation and understanding, so promising and so far-reaching, for the common good of the people of all classes and of both countries.

“Unto Your glory, and the betterment of their fellow men, help them to go on to labor and to plan for the countries they love, as we ask for them, Your guidance and help, while knowing that here on earth the work of building and growth also be truly our own. Amen.”

The President introduced the visiting cabinet ministers from British Columbia: The Honorable Ernest Hall, Provincial Secretary; the Honorable A. B. Macdonald, Attorney-General, and Mrs. Macdonald; the Honorable L. T. Nimsick, Minister of Mines, and Mrs. Nimsick; the Honorable R. M. Strachan, Minister of Highways and Mrs. Strachan; the Honorable W. S. King, Minister of Labor; the Honorable J. G. Lormier, Minister of Municipal Affairs, and Mrs. Lormier; the Honorable D. G. Cocke, Minister of Health, and Mrs. Cocke; the Honorable Norman Levi, Minister of Rehabilitation and Social Improvement; the Honorable F. A. Calder, Minister Without Portfolio; Consul-General Raymond C. Anderson of Canada, who is a guest.

The President introduced the following persons who were included in the group of visitors: John Twigg, Press Secretary; Lawrie Wallace, Deputy Provincial Secretary; John Wood, Premier’s Executive Assistant; and Harvey Beech, Administrative Assistant to the Premier.

President Cherberg: “Now, Mr. Speaker, Father Lemieux, members of the Legislature, our distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen: This morning the President has been accorded the most distinct and singular honor of introducing to you a very inspiring and highly successful alumnus of Seattle University. This gentleman, in a sense, was a protege of our beloved Father Lemieux, and I do not think I have to remind you that there is a great deal of mutual respect, admiration and affection between these two gentlemen. Because of the Premier’s natural closeness to people, and his inviting and cordial personality, many of you have had the opportunity within the past few hours to greet this renowned leader of Parliament from our closest neighbor to the north. The Premier’s plans and programs for the progress of British Columbia, and for the strengthening of ties between the Province and the state of Washington have already caused him to become a legend in his own time. His empathy with the common man, and his unique ability to deal with complex economic and ecological issues in this difficult time have caused his presence to be observed with admiration and respect throughout the world. May I now present to you His Excellency, Premier David Barrett, of the Province of British Columbia, Canada.”

Premier Barrett: “Father Lemieux, Governor Evans, Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, Mr. Speaker, members of the Senate and the Legislative Assembly:

“After hearing that introduction, I was just wondering if the Lieutenant Governor was talking about the same person who is now going to address you. I was surprised to learn that I am such a renowned figure. Actually, Father Lemieux’ presence here is not only to finally get me to the point where I listen to one of his prayers (which those of you who know my personal background will understand some difficulty there), but also to present Ray Van Hollebeke and myself with an old bill that we haven’t paid in the cafeteria. I just want the Father to understand that it is Van Hollebeke who owes the money, Father, not me.
"I was delighted and pleased to meet so many of our old friends, and to have the opportunity of returning in a somewhat different role from our visit last year. I want to tell you that our visit last year was the beginning, I think and I hope, of a new relationship between these two separate, distinct and great jurisdictions in the Pacific Northwest.

There is no reason to believe that the purposes and goals of political life in British Columbia and in Washington State have very great differences. All of us have been elected in common to serve to the best of our ability in attempting to solve the problems that are essentially related to our region in our respective jurisdictions.

I want to spend just a few moments of my brief address talking about some of the technical aspects of being a politician. I want to, on behalf of all the people of the Northwest, thank all of you for standing for office. I think there is a very great wrong impression abroad, in some segments of the North American communities, that politics or politicians are essentially bad. That is wrong, and I think people should appreciate the fact of how much time and how much energy, and how much of your life you people give up in your efforts to serve your state. I must say that the talents and the skills that you bring with you to your deliberations perhaps go overlooked by the people of this great state. I want to say, in my brief experience in politics, I have not met such a group of experienced and dedicated legislators as you have, both in the Senate and in this House. I think as politicians you have a great deal to offer to the people of Washington. Politics is good. The in-fighting, the out-fighting, the dynamic exchange of ideas and opinions, the clashes of ideals, are absolutely essential in the democratic process. Politics is raw, it's tough, it's mean, it's cruel, and it's hard. But it's real life, and it is out of that cauldron that decisions are made on behalf of the people. So people should understand that politicians do fight among themselves just like families do. People should understand that politicians have differences of opinion, just like neighbors do. But the common purpose of politicians here in Washington State and in British Columbia is to serve their constituents to the best of their ability.

In the past ten years in North America, there has been a dynamic change in the nature of politics and politicians. There are brand new problems, brand new awarenesses, that have brought us to understand that we cannot operate in a vacuum on some of these problems. The primary motivation of our visit last year, and again our visit this year, is to discuss with you the problems of our environment, those problems which know no boundary and no barrier. When we poison our water, or you poison your air, we affect each other. When you clog your roads, and we clog our ferries, we affect each other. We have common burgeoning problems created by large populations with new measures of affluence. And unless we are able to control this affluence in a manner to meet common good, all of us will suffer from what we know as progress and growth. There are very great dangers around the growth syndrome, and it is my opinion that we must be very, very cautious in the Pacific Northwest in how we approach growth. The resources we have in many instances are nonrenewable. And when we share a common direction in the use of those resources, we can learn from each other. When we share a common husbanding of those resources, we can also learn from each other.

"Public expectations from politicians have changed dramatically, even in the last year. Some of the things that we talk about in terms of curbing growth, two or three years ago would be considered political suicide. Yet now the public is demanding an awareness of the necessity of conserving what we have and finding new directions in our society. It is my opinion that North America cannot continue on a path of developing an acquisitive society with no understanding of the very fragile nature of the world we live in. It is absolutely essential, in my opinion, for us to get together and begin to find answers to our common problems and reach our common destiny in a far more rational way.

"In British Columbia I have announced that the period of boomism is over. We are not committed to growth for growth's sake. We must preserve this region as an area that is refreshing, that is new in terms of being untouched, and a sample of what other areas can, perhaps, do. I am delighted with your Governor's attitude toward conservation. I am delighted with the awareness of your legislators and your Senators about the need to husband the resources in a fruitful manner. But more than anything else, I am impressed by the concern that all of you have shown for the ordinary people who live in this area—the ordinary people who have all the fears and insecurities of a rapidly developing life and a changing pattern in their life style that they can't cope with.

"It is my opinion that as politicians we are elected to cushion changes for our people with as much concern for their individuality as possible. It is out of this general statement of philosophy that we seek further legislative guidance, counsel and cooperation with you. It is my intention upon returning to British Columbia, when we open our forthcoming session of the legislature, to have the House name a permanent committee of liaison with Washington State, dealing with common problems.

"I do hope that in response to our visit some of you will come back to British Columbia and visit us. It is absolutely essential that we get to know each other as human beings, more than just politicians, more than just a political identity.

"In conclusion, I want to thank you on behalf of my colleagues, I want to thank you on behalf of their wives, and I want to thank you on behalf of all the legislators in the Province of British Columbia. More than anything else, I want to express my appreciation for your concern, for your awareness of our problems in British Columbia. I want to express my appreciation on behalf of all our citizens in that wonderful province. We are your neighbors. We are your friends. Sometimes it is necessary for the best friends you have to be the ones to tell you whether or not you've got bad breath. We expect you to tell us when you think we haven't been brushing our teeth and we will be telling you the same. We have too many things in common to have just a superficial warm relationship. Our people come from a common heritage, and there is much to be done together. I look forward to that future cooperation.

"Thanks very much."

The President: "Thank you, very much, Premier Barrett. I really did not expect you to agree with my introduction, but I am sure that everyone else does agree, and that is what is truly important. We wish to express our appreciation and gratitude to you, and to your colleagues, for your friendly visit to Olympia. You have left us a great deal richer as to what is the proper procedure for the welfare and benefit of our people. We are indeed grateful to you. We all join in wishing you, Premier Barrett, and your colleagues, 'Godspeed'."

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort His Excellency, Premier David Barrett, from the House Chamber. The special committee thereupon escorted Premier Barrett from the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort the visiting cabinet ministers from the House Chamber. The special committee thereupon escorted the visiting cabinet ministers from the House Chamber.

The President: "Mr. Speaker, members of the House: Thank you once again for your wonderful hospitality, and thank you, Father Lemieux."

The President of the Senate turned the gavel over to the Speaker of the House.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the Joint Session was dissolved.

The Speaker directed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort President Cherberg, President Pro Tempore Henry, and the members of the Senate to the Senate Chamber.

NOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:05 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended and the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-10. Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-10

By Senators Metcalf, Woody and Van Hollebeke:
WHEREAS, The Warrior Band of Woodway High School, Edmonds School District, Woodway, Washington is under the able direction of Bruce Caldwell and is composed of some of the most dedicated high school students in our state; and

WHEREAS, The many hours of practice have resulted in the band receiving outstanding recognition for its past performances in this state and neighboring Canadian provinces; and

WHEREAS, The Warrior Band will be representing the state of Washington at the Presidential Inauguration Day ceremonies in Washington, D.C. on January 20th; and

WHEREAS, This is the first time in over fifteen years that a high school band from west of the Cascades has been selected to perform in Washington, D.C.;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE, That the Warrior Band be commended for its outstanding achievements in the field of music and for its selection as a representative of this state at the President's inauguration.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate extends its congratulations and best wishes to the band on its impending journey to the nation's capital.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Principal of Woodway High School and to Mr. Bruce Caldwell on behalf of the Warrior Band.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, we have agreed over here to suspend the rules and pass this resolution. This is very timely today and will not be timely tomorrow. However, I would point out to the other members that we have done this three times now and if we are not careful, every member is going to expect that this is something that each has coming to him because someone else had it, and I think we are going to look with real caution on any floor resolutions that come before us hereafter that could have been prepared in time for the twenty-four hour notice."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, I want to echo Senator Bailey's remarks. I brought this up in caucus today and one of our fellows violates it the first chance. So I thank you for that. I would hope that our people would observe the same thing, Senator Bailey."

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

At 12:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, January 17, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
TENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Day, Durkan and Scott. On motion of Senator Newschwander, Senator Scott was excused. There being no objection, Senators Day and Durkan were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Linda Magden and Tim Štensager, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul F. McCann, pastor of United Churches of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardisich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING

Conforming statutory excess levy election provisions with constitutional changes made by HJR 47.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Gardner and Lewis (Harry):
TENTH DAY, JANUARY 17, 1973

On page 3, section 1, line 14, strike the period and insert the following: "at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levies shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote “yes” and those opposed thereto to vote “no”.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: “Would Senator Gardner yield? In other words, you do not want it to be as confusing as the HJR 47 itself is?”

Senator Gardner: “You said it, sir.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 55, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 55, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 46; excused, 3.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed Senators Bailey, Connor, Keefe, Woodall and Twigg to escort Freddie Steele, former boxing great, to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, there are many members of the Senate and people present in the galleries today who were not on this particular planet when this man was at the height of his career. We have with us today an idol who is a native of Tacoma, Washington, who in his youth became one of the most famous people in the world, if not the most famous at the time. Freddie Steele is a legendary figure in the athletic world and in the entertainment field. He has in his lifetime achieved great success in three distinguished careers. He was world's middleweight champion at one time and was one of the greatest. He has become and was a very successful movie actor and is presently a highly successful business and civic leader of Westport, Washington. It is with the greatest pride and pleasure that the President presents to you Mr. Freddie Steele."

REMARKS BY MR. STEELE

Freddie Steele: "Well, John, I should have put you on the list years ago. I thank you very much for having me here. I am enjoying it very much. Thank you very much."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Freddie. I am sure that you and another former participant in the squared ring, Senator James E. Keefe over here, will have many nostalgic experiences. You can tell from Senator Keefe's physiognomy that he also stopped a few."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Do you have the concurrent resolution up there on the cutoff on the desk?"

Senator Mardesich: "They are preparing the cutoff dates and the joint rules in the House and I have asked them to submit to us the amendments in written form and they will be on your desks very shortly. If not very shortly at least they will be sent to your offices."

Senator Atwood: "Do you plan to take those up tomorrow?"

Senator Mardesich: "If they get over here from the House."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Secretary has advised the President that a copy will be placed on your desks in the Senate Chamber and another copy sent to your office."

MOTION

At 9:50 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Friday, January 19, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
TWELFTH DAY, JANUARY 19, 1973

TWELFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by the President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Durkan, Murray, Odegaard, Stender, Twigg and Whetzel. On motion of Senator Guess, Senators Stender and Murray were excused. On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Whetzel was excused. On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Odegaard was excused. There being no objection, Senators Durkan and Twigg were excused.

The Color Guard consisting of Pages Stephen Jones and Shanna Southern presented the Colors. Reverend Paul F. McCann, pastor, of United Churches of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"NEW EVERY MORNING IS YOUR LOVE, O GOD. YOU WHO HAVE BEEN OUR HELP IN AGES PAST: YOU WHO ARE OUR TRUE HOPE IN YEARS TO COME. WE PAUSE AT THE BEGINNING OF OUR WORK DAY TO ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU ARE WORKING STILL, THROUGH US AND IN US, AND SOMETIMES DESPITE US. WE KNOW THAT YOU WORK FOR GOOD IN THE WORLD: WE WANT TO WORK WITH YOU. MAY WE THEREFORE, TODAY AND EVERY DAY, ALIGN OURSELVES WITH THOSE CAUSES AND CONCERNS THAT ARE MOST LIKE YOURS, O GOD, JUSTICE, MERCY, BROTHERHOOD, EQUALITY, OPPORTUNITY, AND THE PERENNIAL PRIORITY OF PERSONS. WE PRAY IN THE NAME OF THE MAN WHO HAS SHOWN US YOUR WAY MOST PERFECTLY, JESUS THE CHRIST. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SENATE BILL NO. 2100, correcting code error in methods upon increasing number of school directors in consolidated districts (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass.

Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted).

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mardesich: "I should like to explain to the members on the floor the reason for the brief Rules Committee meeting which we had. In order to facilitate the work of the Rules Committee, we have been trying to set up a procedure where Rules members will have at least one day's notice as to what bills will be coming before Rules. This will give them a chance to educate themselves before being required to vote on any particular measure. We were spelling out the procedure which we will follow in Rules. That is all we were doing. I suppose that many of you may have many questions as to what that procedure will be or is. We called the meeting simply for the membership of Rules to decide on what procedure we would follow."

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2228, by Senators Greive, Ridder, Twigg and Knoblauch:

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; and amending section 4, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.370.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended and Senator Knoblauch was permitted as an additional sponsor on Senate Bill No. 2228.

SENATE BILL NO. 2229, by Senators Bottiger, Clarke and Woody (by Department of Social and Health Services request):
An Act relating to administrative procedures; amending section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 17, chapter 57, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 34.04.150; and declaring an emergency.
Referred to Committee on Social and Health Services.

SENATE BILL NO. 2230, by Senators Greive, Bottiger, Ridder and Connor:
An Act relating to motor vehicles; adding a new chapter to Title 46 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 169, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 46.29 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date.
Referred to Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the Senate be at recess until 11:00 a.m.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, before we go to caucus I would suggest that the bill which you just referred to Transportation be referred to Judiciary where all the other no-fault bills were referred. It is a no-fault bill. I think they all belong in the same committee. I wouldn't care where it goes but I think all of them should be in the same committee."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, that has been the prior ruling consistently this session and I think that we should continue to follow that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "I recognize that probably some people do not like to ask me about these things, what my views are on it, but probably it will be the first time I will agree with Senator Greive this session. And I do think that the bill probably should be sent to Judiciary. I have no objection."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "I think I made the motion to recess which takes precedence over the matter brought up subsequent to that motion."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "That is true, Senator. We were in the middle of a bill and I was trying to decide whether to leave it in limbo or to follow the democratic process. Did I understand Senator Walgren to say that you had no objections particularly?"
Senator Walgren: "If it is a no-fault bill."
President Pro Tempore Henry: "Well, if there is no objection the Senate will now recess in order of priority and when we come back then I will refer it to the Committee on Judiciary."
MOTION

At 10:30 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesch, the Senate recessed until 11:10 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 11:10 a.m.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dore: “Senator Atwood made a misstatement that I held up this body in the conference committee for two weeks. I never held it up for a single day. The budget and the tax bill had never been completed at that time and I think it is necessary for me to clarify the record when this is made public.”

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Ridder, Connor, Washington, Greive and Van Hollebeke to Joint Rule No. 12 on page 262 of the 1971 Legislative Manual as follows:
Strike the last sentence of the rule and insert “[The report must be voted upon in its entirety and cannot be amended.] All conference committee reports shall be submitted subject to amendment at least three days before final action is taken by the committee.”

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that the amendment by Senators Ridder, Connor, Washington, Greive and Van Hollebeke be laid upon the table.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Dore, Connor, Washington, Grant, Van Hollebeke, Francis, Stortini and Knoblauch.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 7; excused, 6.

Voting yeas: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gardner, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardisich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwendter, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Walgren, Wamaker, Woodall, Woody–36.

MOTION

At 12:00 noon, on motion of Senator Mardisich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.
There being no objection, Senator Bailey was excused.
There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed HOUSE BILL NO. 55, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: HOUSE BILL NO. 55.
SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 10 (by Committee on Rules):
Adopting the joint rules.
The Senate resumed consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 on second reading.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Ridder, Connor, Washington, Greive and Van Hollebeke to Joint Rule No. 12 on page 262 of the 1971 Legislative Manual:

"Strike the last sentence of the rule and insert "[The report must be voted upon in its entirety and cannot be amended.] A conference committee report may be amended on the floor and returned to the committee which shall have three days to either accept or reject such floor amendments without change."

MOTIONS

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Greive, the amendment by Senators Ridder, Connor, Washington, Greive and Van Hollebeke was withdrawn.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment:

"NEW RULE. Rule .... There is added to the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives a new rule to read as follows:

Every legislator shall disclose the provisions of any contract between the state or any of its political subdivisions and himself, any partnership trust, or joint venture in which he has a ten percent financial interest or any corporation in which he holds ten percent of the outstanding shares of stock."

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and eight members, Senators Connor, Washington, Stortini, Ridder, Dore, Knoblauch, Metcalf and Greive stood to sustain the demand.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the demand for the roll call was not sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I think you will find that eight does sustain the demand for a roll call. It goes by how many members are on the floor and that happens to be one-sixth of those presently sitting on the floor. I raise that question at this time."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The point of order as raised by Senator Greive is well taken."

The demand for the roll call was sustained under the ruling by the President Pro Tempore.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Greive yield? Senator, as you know, an open spaces act and supposing any legislator in the House or the Senate had some real estate which was put in the open spaces act under an arrangement with the county assessor as provided, would those arrangements have to be filed under this amendment?"

Senator Greive: "Senator, this is the first time I have ever faced this particular question so I will only have to do the best I can with what we lawyers call a ‘horseback opinion’, one that has not been briefed. In my opinion it would not have to be disclosed. It would seem to me that that is not a contract. That merely a provisional law and you are invoking it just as a person might invoke some tax exemptions if you are beyond a certain age and you fit certain categories with respect to income as we have put it in there. So I do not think that that is covered here. It conceivably might. Does that answer your question?"

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Going back to that same problem, would we have to file an arrangement with regard to a soil conservation district, for instance, or with an irrigation district, which are political subdivisions? I think we are getting into a lot of deals here that would be very complicated and are not really relevant to what you are trying to get at."

Senator Greive: "I think the answer to that is simple. That is already disclosed. Nothing here says it has to be disclosed nor is it intended to have to be disclosed with your code of ethics particularly. For instance, we have got one Senator who represents a city as a lawyer. That is disclosed. I am sure that it is in the budget and there would be no reason why we would have to have it disclosed again. His contract I am sure is public property as it would have to be. So I would suspect that the contract with which you are dealing is already disclosed and the rule would have no particular effect on it. All it says here is every legislator shall disclose, that does not mean that he has to disclose in his code of ethics statement."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Greive failed by the following vote: Yeas, 10; nays, 32; excused, 7.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gardner, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Newshwander, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Sellar, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall, Woody—32.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment:

"NEW RULE. Rule . . . . There is added to the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives a new rule to read as follows:

Every legislator who is a lawyer, insurance broker, real estate appraiser, accountant or other professional, and who individually or whose firm has a client which is a person, corporation, partnership joint venture, union, association or other entity regulated by the state, shall publish a schedule of fees charged such client and state the amount of time spent performing the work during the twenty-four months immediately preceding the first day of a legislative session."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the amendment by Senator Greive be laid upon the table.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call on the motion by Senator Mardesich and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Stortini, Connor, Ridder, Dore, Van Hollebeke, Knoblauch and Greive.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Mardesich carried. The amendment by Senator Greive was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Newshwander, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sellar, Talley, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall, Woody—26.

Absent or not voting: Senators Francis, Gardner—2.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment:

"NEW RULE. Rule ... There is added to the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives a new rule to read as follows:

No legislator shall accept lodging or travel provided by a lobbyist, or allow a lobbyist to pay bills for travel and lodging which, over a twenty-four month period, total more than one hundred dollars in value:

PROVIDED, That this rule shall not apply where such traveling and lodging is received by the legislator in pursuing an occupation other than that of legislator."

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that the amendment by Senator Greive be laid upon the table.
Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Stortini, Greive, Van Hollebeke, Ridder, Jolly, Washington, Connor and Knoblauch.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Walgren failed by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Donohue, Guess, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Matson, Newschwaeter, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Walgren, Woodall, Woody—19.

Absent or not voting: Senators Francis, Gardener—2.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, on an occasion when there was a death in my family, a utility company offered to and did fly me in their plane to eastern Washington and return. Now under this particular provision as written, would that be verboten if the gas and oil consumed in this particular plane on flying me home to attend a funeral and back exceeded the sum of one hundred dollars? Would I be barred under this provision of accepting that ride to eastern Washington?"

Senator Greive: "Senator, in the first place I think that the proviso would cover it but I am perfectly willing to put this matter off for a very few minutes and to cover that if it does not, but I will read it to you. This rule shall not apply where the traveling and lodging is received by the legislator pursuing an occupation other than that of a legislator. I do not know that you went home in any way connected with legislation. I do not see any reason why they could not do anything they wanted in that particular connection. However, if you do not think this is sufficient, I would be perfectly willing to make such an amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Greive yield to another question? Senator Greive, in an actual circumstance this fall the WEA advised me that there was to be an important hearing in Washington, D.C. and asked if I would take the time from my business and my family to go back and attend this hearing. I was unable to do that but possibly they asked Senator Ridder or other members of this body to go back in the hope that what we would receive would help us have a better understanding of problems as they relate to this state. Would the cost of this type of trip be prohibited in your proposed new rule?"

Senator Greive: "A great deal would depend upon what you are doing back there. I believe it would not. 'This rule shall not apply to traveling and lodging received by a legislator pursuing an occupation other than that of legislator.' For instance, if you were asked to observe for them and to bring back to their organization information, you would not be involved or it would not involve the rule. However, if it was in some way designed in your legislative capacity, for instance, let us assume that you had the right to the trip and they were going to pay for it and you were going to pocket the money by the state which I presume you have the right to do if you went by some other means, I do not know. I imagine that it would be covered. So now we have the two extremes. Again I make the same offer that I have made before. I am perfectly willing to delay this long enough to cover both of these situations, because I think both of them are legitimate. In discussing it it seemed to me that in most cases where a person would be traveling, they would be asked to make a speech to an organization, which is not in their capacity as a legislator. It is true being a legislator is something that gives them the status but the speech itself is to the organization, for the organization’s benefit. If they ask you to bring back information to their organization, then you would be exempt because you did it for their benefit and so I really think that that situation is exempt.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: “Will Senator Greive yield further? Senator, I want your interpretation on this. ‘No legislator shall accept lodging or travel provided by a lobbyist. Does this mean that you could receive one hundred dollars from one hundred lobbyists or one hundred dollars total from all lobbyists?’

Senator Greive: “Senator, it is going to be tough enough to get this passed if we do.”

Senator Canfield: “I know that but that does not answer my question.”

Senator Greive: “To want to make it tougher is to put the onus on those of us who think the rule should be adopted. I would suggest that we pass this one and if you have another one that makes it tougher let us discuss that. Right now it probably means that a number of different lobbyists could give you money and maybe even two lobbyists in the same company. But at least this is a beginning.”

Senator Canfield: “I am not clear yet. Would the sum total you were permitted to receive under this without reporting be one hundred dollars?”

Senator Greive: “This is meant to be . . .”

Senator Canfield: “Senator, could we have a yes or no and make it crystal clear?”

Senator Greive: “The trouble is a yes or no will not make it crystal clear.”

Senator Canfield: “Thank you.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Greive.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Connor, Van Hollebeke, Jolly, Ridder, Dore, Greive, Knoblauch and Stortini.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 11; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 6.

Absent or not voting: Senators Francis, Gardner, Rasmussen—3.

There being no objection, the amendment on the secretary’s desk by Senator Greive to the Joint Rules adding a NEW RULE was withdrawn.

Senator Mardesich served notice that every Senator who wishes to explain his vote today, may make entry in the journal with respect to the subject matter before the Senate this date.

Senator Greive served notice that he would agree providing that any Senator who desired to make a rejoinder be permitted the same privilege.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Both notices are duly received. The only comment I have heard I have agreed with so far is in the charging of fees. And I think that most professions charge according to the amount of money you have."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Mardesich yield? You mean by that that we could make an explanation as to why we voted as we did here? Mr. President, could I do that now?"

President Pro Tempore Henry: "You would submit it in writing, Senator."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson (Ted): I have felt right along that this is the wrong place to insert anything in the rules like this. But I do feel that we should have followed through on the legislative code of ethics which really would have meant something. I think 276 would cover it but because of my uncertainty there I felt that I should be on record as having been for this because I think this is what we need. We have needed it right along and with the condition of the Senate now and with the things that are going on we need it that much more. I would like to have my people know that I am responsible and I am willing to disclose anything. It happens that I have done business and do business with the state and I could not in good conscience vote against this."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "This is not personal privilege."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "The Senator does not want me to tell the facts, I am just telling you now that this is the way I feel and I think I have the right to explain this on the floor. And it is about time that we do some explaining so that the public will know where we stand."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, the resolution was placed on final passage and adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended and the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-11.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-11

By Senator Mardesich:
BE IT RESOLVED, That the permanent rules of the Forty-third Legislature be adopted as the permanent rules with the following amendment:
Amend the first paragraph of Rule 58 to read as follows:
"Rule 58. All bills, resolutions and memorials to be introduced shall be in quintuplet, each shall be endorsed with a statement of the title and the name of the member introducing the same. Not more than three senators may sponsor a bill, except committee bills which shall be in accordance with the joint rules of the senate and house: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any member desiring to introduce a bill, joint resolution or memorial shall file the same with the secretary of the senate by [five o'clock] three o'clock [on the evening] in the afternoon of the day before the convening of the session at which said bill, resolution or memorial is to be introduced: PROVIDED FURTHER, That on the thirty-fifth legislative day of the session the filing with the secretary of the senate will be extended to five o'clock in the evening; and that no bill, resolution or memorial is to be introduced which has not been in the hands of the secretary at the time above stated."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Committee on Ways and Means was relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 2233.

Senator Walgren moved that Senate Bill No. 2233 be referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I would like to question Senator Walgren a little bit about what your purpose is in moving this bill?"

Senator Walgren: "Senator Lewis, it was originally referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities. I thought that because it was a matter relating to an increase in the gas tax that perhaps it should go to Ways and Means and it appears that if it is a gas tax measure that it should be considered by Transportation and Utilities as these measures have been considered before."

The motion by Senator Walgren carried. Senate Bill No. 2233 was re-referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

MOTION

At 2:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, January 22, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FIFTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore and Durkan. There being no objection, Senators Dore and Durkan were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Bob Seamans and Jeri Hudlow, presented the Colors. Reverend J. Alan Justad, minister of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GOD AND FATHER OF US ALL, WE KNOW OF NO BETTER WAY TO BEGIN THE WEEK THAN BY LIFTING OUR HEARTS UNTO THEE IN PRAYER, AND BY PLEDGING UNTO THEE THE DESIRE OF OUR HEARTS TO SERVE THEE BY DEVOTING OURSELVES TO THE WELFARE OF OUR GREAT STATE OF WASHINGTON AND TO THE WELL-BEING OF OUR FELLOW CITIZENS. BLESS THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR AND EACH SENATOR HERE GATHERED AND WE WOULD LIFT UNTO THY LOVING PRESENCE THEIR FELLOW LEGISLATORS IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. THE GOVERNOR AND HIS EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND THE JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT AS SERVING TOGETHER THESE ELECTED PUBLIC SERVANTS SEEK THY WILL TO PERFORM THEIR CHALLENGING DUTIES FOR THE GOOD OF ALL.

"IN THE TENSE WILDERNESS OF OUR HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS REVEAL TO US THY WILL. IN THE DENSE DARKNESS OF OUR DAY, LET THY LIGHT SHINE UPON OUR PATH. IN THE CONFUSION OF CONFLICTING COUNSELS GIVE US WISDOM TO SEE CLEARLY THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES AND THE COURAGE TO WALK WORTHILY IN THE WAY OF THY WORD TO US. WE WOULD PRAY THAT THE LASTING VALUES OF OUR DECISIONS MADE HERE WILL BE COMPARED BY THE GENERATIONS TO COME AS MATCHING THE BEAUTY AND GLORY OF OUR GREAT PACIFIC NORTHWEST. IN THE MASTER'S NAME WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Washington, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-12

By Senators Washington and Sellar:
WHEREAS, The health needs of the Grand Coulee Dam area cannot be adequately met without the services of a local hospital which is open to all citizens of the area; and
WHEREAS, The privately owned hospital which operated successfully for a number of years recently closed because of financial difficulties; and
WHEREAS, The U. S. Bureau of Reclamation and the prime contractor on the construction of the Grand Coulee Dam Third Power Plant are required to provide adequate health care for their employees; and

WHEREAS, St. Luke's Hospital of Spokane is willing to operate the recently closed hospital on a contract basis and provide hospital service for the Bureau of Reclamation, the contractor and the general public; and

WHEREAS, The U. S. Bureau of Reclamation must expend a substantial amount of public money to carry out its medical responsibilities by establishing a private infirmary for the sole use of its own employees and those of the contractor or by subsidizing the operation of the existing hospital facilities which can be utilized by all the people in the area; and

WHEREAS, Since federal public funds will be used in one way or another for hospital services in the Grand Coulee Dam area, it appears that the money should be expended to provide the best possible health facilities for all residents of the area and not just to provide services for the employees of the Bureau of Reclamation and the contractor;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE, That the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, in expending funds for health purposes in the Grand Coulee Dam area, give serious consideration to utilizing such funds for the reopening of the existing hospital, to the end that hospital service may be made available to all citizens of the area.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Commissioner of Reclamation and to the Washington State Congressional Delegation.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2048, by Senators Woody, Francis and Jones:
Changing the control period for destruction of court records.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Woody, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2048 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2048, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Tailey, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—47.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2048, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2054, by Senators Henry and Wamaker (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):
Providing a ten dollar fee for reinstatement of drivers' licenses.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2054 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Henry would submit to a question? The way I read this bill it requires a ten dollar payment to get your driver's license back if you have been convicted in court. Now this would not apply to somebody who has lost it for medical reasons or otherwise?"

Senator Henry: "That is correct. Part 3 of the bill also says that the time of suspension starts at the time that the driver's license has been turned in, because, that is the new matter in the bill for anybody that is interested in it. The reason being is that a lot of people ignore suspension and do not turn their driver's licenses in. And this will start the suspension at the time that the licenses have been received. The purpose of raising the fees, of course, is that the study shows it costs nine dollars and fifty cents to process a suspended driver's license now and some two million drivers who do not have bad driving records are subsidizing those that do."

Senator Talley: "That was the only point that I wanted to bring out, that it does not apply to somebody that has lost it for medical reasons or purposes like that."

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Henry answer a question? Senator Henry, I thought an amendment was being prepared for this bill but do you read this bill then to mean that if a man has his license suspended for three years, and he surrenders it to the judge or to the officer, and that officer or judge is not a very good bookkeeper and doesn't bother to get it up to DMV for six or eight months, then would you mean that the driver is not going to get his license for three years and eight months, due to no fault of his own?"

Senator Henry: "The legislative intent, I think that is what you are trying to get into the record, is that his suspension starts from the time that he surrenders his driver's license, no matter who he . . . ."

Senator Bailey: "To any official?"

Senator Henry: "To any official."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Will Senator Henry yield to a further question? I am interested in knowing how they separate this cost that they are setting out in front of us here as the difference or the extra cost that is involved in processing these so-called suspended and revoked licenses? How do they come by that figure?"

Senator Henry: "Well, not having made the study I cannot tell you but as I recall the testimony the procedure for processing a license that has been suspended, where you have to go back and check to be sure they do not have any late convictions or have not been in trouble with the law and so forth, is nine dollars and fifty cents. That was the figure furnished to us by the department."

Senator Stender: "Let me ask you the other way then. How much does it cost to process one that has not been revoked?"

Senator Henry: "One that has not been revoked, for instance, I have another bill that will allow a person to replace his license for two dollars if he has lost his license or run it through the washing machine or other such things."

Senator Stender: "We renew our licenses every two years and they are processed somewhere through the system. The point I am getting at is how do they arrive at these costs?"

Senator Henry: "Well I would presume that where you are doing a routine thing such as renewing your driver's licenses on a regular basis where they send the cards out to you, it is done by IBM. When you have to go back by hand and pick out twenty-five thousand suspended renewals a year, it costs more money."

Senator Stender: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2054, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Grant, Stender—2.
Absent or not voting: Senator Woodall—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2054, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senate Bill No. 2055 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Tuesday, January 23, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2067, by Senators Rasmussen, Odegaard and Gardner:
Abolishing mobile home I.D. Tags.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2067 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2067, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senator Francis—1.
Absent or not voting: Senator Woodall—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2067, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2089, by Senators Atwood, Newschwander, Sandison and Durkan (by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Providing for a state-wide forms management program.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2089, providing for a state-wide forms management program (reported by Committee on State Government):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass as amended.
On page 1, section 1, line 14 after "the" and before "management" strike "claims" and insert "forms"

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Henry, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Scott, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2089 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator Atwood, we have a number of printing plants in the various colleges in the state. Will this law apply to the community colleges and to the colleges and universities?"

Senator Atwood: "Not at this time."

Senator Guess: "I have been told already, Senator, that they have to clear with the state printer now."

Senator Atwood: "That is correct but that is an informal... Eventually all of the printing or all of the forms will come under the direction of this particular committee."

Senator Guess: "Now do you mean that the state printer is then going to take over the printing of the forms that the colleges are now doing?"

Senator Atwood: "No, the form itself. We are going to try to get some commonality in forms instead of having ten thousand different forms for the same subject matter."

Senator Guess: "Then will they save the money from the fact that they just will not approve a new form and they will wait six, eight months before they approve it?"

Senator Atwood: "Well, I cannot answer that. You would have to ask the forms management people on that. But eventually we should get a handle on these forms that are generated. Every community college has its own form for the same information they are trying to get. There are twenty-two different districts using twenty-two different forms."

Senator Guess: "Will it apply to community colleges?"

Senator Atwood: "You bet."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Will Senator Rasmussen or Senator Atwood yield? This intention is to use this in other agencies rather than just the colleges and universities, is it not?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Washington, all state agencies, any place that forms are used. We can maybe just get one universal form and handle everything."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2089, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Woodall—1.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2089, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
FIFTEENTH DAY, JANUARY 22, 1973

SENATE BILL NO. 2073, by Senator Atwood:
Directing codification of section 12, Laws of 1969 ex. sess.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2073, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2073, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.
Absent or not voting: Senator Woodall—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2073, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I thought I would mention this on a day when it is not an issue and before we get too long into session. I really think the Senate should be a deliberative body and I think we have been. Very much so. And I would like to mention two things as far as cutting off debate. The move to table, and moving the previous question. And I just mention it as a comment for the future. I do not think we have ever used it too much but I would like to just say that, for my part, I think we should use this very sparingly. If a member wants to make a legitimate point I think he should be given the opportunity to do so. I think we have all been tired by endless Senate debate but I think this is one of the problems that we have to suffer being here. And I would mention the demand by a member for a roll call vote. It takes one-sixth of the members and when any member on this floor wishes to get a recorded vote on anything I will support him. We have talked about our open committee meetings and I have not been very favorable to that. I am afraid of the special interests getting too much power in our committee meetings. But any vote on the floor of this Senate I think should be open. Any time that any member here wants to get a recorded vote on any issue he can sure count on my support in standing up and I would urge the other members to do the same."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Two things, both somewhat out of order. I would rise to support Senator Metcalf. I think those are very laudable goals and I am sure that all of us on the majority side, most of us at least, in almost every occasion would agree with him.
"Secondly, out of order, I would like to make a motion for the record Mr. President, and that motion would be that Senators Washington and Bottiger be excused from now through January 26 for purposes of attending in Washington, D.C. a national conference on criminal justice. That conference meets January 23 through 26 and both Senators Washington and Bottiger have served for several years on the state committee on law and justice and I would like the record to show that they are excused during that period and the purpose of such excuse."
The motion by Senator Madesich carried. Senators Washington and Bottiger will be excused from January 23 through January 26, 1973.

MOTION

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Madesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, January 23, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

SIXTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Guess, Washington and Woodall. On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senators Guess and Woodall were excused. Senators Bottiger and Washington were excused previously by Senator Madesich to attend the National Conference on Criminal Justice in Washington, D.C. from January 23 through January 26, 1973.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Donald Letteer and Tracy Walgren, presented the Colors. Reverend J. Alan Justad, minister of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER, AS WE PAUSE IN PRAYER BEFORE THEE, MAY WE JOIN WITH OUR FELLOW AMERICANS IN PAYING TRIBUTE TO OUR DEPARTED PRESIDENT, LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON. MAY WE ALWAYS REMEMBER HIS DEEDS IN CIVIL RIGHTS WHICH RELIGHTED THE AMERICAN DREAM FOR PERSONS OF ALL RACES AND GIVES US HOPE THAT WE TOO SHALL OVERCOME. OUR FATHER, THOU HAST GIVEN US THE MORNING LIGHT, GIVE US ALSO THE MORNING BLESSING AS WE LIFT OUR HEARTS TO THEE IN PRAYER. GRANT UNTO EACH SENATOR HERE THE BLESSING OF THY WISDOM—TO MAKE WISE CHOICES, TO FIND THE RIGHT PATHS WE OUGHT TO TAKE. LIFT HIGH OUR VISION THAT WE MAY SEE CLEARLY AND BE GIVEN COURAGE TO WALK IN THY WAY. GRANT UNTO EACH PERSON HERE, THE BLESSING OF THY LOVE. DEEPEN OUR UNDERSTANDING, EXPAND OUR SYMPATHY AND ENLARGE OUR CAPACITY FOR GOOD WILL. GIVE TO EACH SENATOR HERE THE GRACE TO RISE ABOVE ANY PREJUDICES THAT SEPARATE PERSON FROM PERSON AND HELP US TO ENTER THE REALM OF HIGH PRINCIPLES WHERE MEN ARE BROUGHT TOGETHER IN SPIRIT AND IN LOVE. GRANT UNTO US THE BLESSING OF FAITH, AND IN THESE HECTIC AND TRYING DAYS MAY WE KEEP OUR FAITH IN THEE AND IN OUR FELLOW LEGISLATORS. AS STATESMEN, IN THIS DISTINGUISHED BODY, GRANT WISDOM, GRANT LOVE, GRANT FAITH, THAT IN THESE DAYS THEY FAIL NOT MAN NOR THEE. IN THE MASTER’S NAME WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Senator Bailey served notice that Senator Washington had placed on each member’s desk, a notice of a rule change to be considered during the following week.

On page 1, line 10, after "forth in" and before "RCW 77.16.030" insert "RCW 77.16.020 or"
On page 1, line 11, after "license" and before "for" insert ", nor shall any person so convicted be granted a hunting license,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Peterson yield to a question? The intent of this is only to get at those who kill by gun or by arrow. What would happen if you accidentally hit a deer on the road, out of season in a closed area?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "This would have no effect on that particular statute to the best of my knowledge. You would report it to your nearest law enforcement agency and if you elected to take that deer home now you would be subject to the same penalty that you would be under this act. So you would, Senator Ridder, put it in your trunk and if you took it home and the Game Department found it in your freezer, you would probably get the five year suspension. It is still illegal possession."
Senator Ridder: "If you accidentally hit one with an automobile you would not be subject to a thousand dollar fine?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Peterson, would you yield to a question? Is this mandatory or is there some discretion in terms of the leveling of the fine or penalty?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Well, the fines are already built into the statute. This is not changing the fine structure at all. The only thing it does, in addition to the present fine that you would pay if you were convicted, you would not be able to obtain a hunting license for a five-year period following."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Will Senator Peterson yield please? Senator, all of these offenses carry a penalty of both a jail sentence and a fine, is that correct?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "That is up to the discretion of the courts. This bill has nothing to do with the statutory fines that are presently in effect."
Senator Van Hollebeke: "Does this carry the possibility of both fine and/or jail sentence?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "That is true."
Senator Van Hollebeke: "About what do they run?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Two hundred and fifty to a thousand in most cases."
Senator Van Hollebeke: "And jail sentences?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I do not know of any cases where jail sentences have been invoked. It is in the statutes but if it has ever happened I do not know of any. It is usually suspended."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Peterson yield to a question? I would like to ask you whether it is intended, and I am doing it for legislative intent purposes, to include the situation where a perfectly good sportsman is certain he saw horns on that buck and it turned out not to have any horns at all, in fact it turned out to be a doe. That is an intentional killing, of course, but he certainly did not mean to do that terrible thing."
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Well, Senator Woody, you put me in a very embarrassing situation because I happen to have had that happen to me at one particular point in time in my life. I do not think that this would either take away or add to the present jurisdiction in that particular area. It is going to go to court in any instance and I think that the jurisdictional authority would handle the matter in an appropriate way. It certainly is not the intent but obviously it is the statute."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Senator Peterson, Lowell, would you yield to a question? Senator Peterson, a little bit earlier the question was raised about the possible killing of an elk or a deer on a road by an automobile and you retorted that you thought the nearest authority should be notified. What is done with the carcasses of those animals that are reported that way? Are they just left to go to waste or is there some purpose that they can be used for?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "In most cases the carcass is mutilated to the point and it has not been dressed out soon enough to where it is non-edible and they are disposed of in disposal sites. But when an animal, for instance, perhaps with a broken leg gets hit on the highway, the Game Department usually will dress the animal out properly. I know in my town they have taken them to the schools and they have taken them to Northern State Hospital and places like that."
Senator Stender: "One further question, then if one were to seriously injure an animal, make them immobile and it would be illegal for the driver, say to possibly bleed the animal and maybe save the carcass by doing so at that time?"
Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I do not, in my recollection, know of any conviction that has ever been made by anybody that attempted to save an animal in this manner and it has been done. And when the authorities are properly notified they may in turn dispose of the carcass as they see fit, but never has a conviction been made."

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2006 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2006, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 5; excused, 4.

SENATE BILL NO. 2079, by Senators Durkan, Atwood, Newschwander and Gardner (by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Implementing duties of state printing and duplicating committee.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2079 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2079, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woody–43.
Absent or not voting: Senator Scott–1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2079, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-13

By Senators Bailey, Keefe, Mardesich, Lewis (Harry), Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Bob), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall and Woody:
WHEREAS, Lyndon Baines Johnson, Thirty-sixth President of the United States, and prior to his death the only living former President, has been lost to the nation and his loved ones by untimely death; and
WHEREAS, President Johnson was a great leader who demonstrated a sense of deep compassion for the less fortunate citizens of the nation, who achieved during his tenure of office the greatest progress in the development of civil rights of minorities and in comprehensive health care for the nation; and
WHEREAS, President Johnson is deeply mourned by all from the Pedernales to the Columbia for his love and devotion to this nation; and
WHEREAS, Lyndon Baines Johnson brought new hope and new dignity to the poor, the aged and the disabled of this nation with his vision and ability to implement needed changes in the domestic programs of our country; and
WHEREAS, President Johnson displayed the strength of character, not only to accept victory modestly, but to face adversity courageously; and
WHEREAS, The United States and the State of Washington have suffered a grievous loss in the untimely passing of Lyndon Baines Johnson;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate place upon the record the deep sense of loss felt as the result of the death of President Johnson, and convey to Mrs. Johnson and her family the deepest sympathy of the membership.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be suitably engraved and transmitted to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson and her family.
The Senate observed a moment of silence in memory of former President Lyndon Baines Johnson.
The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the Committee on State Government was relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 2132.
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 2132 was referred to the Committee on Local Government.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, with your permission the President would like to exercise the privilege of presenting two charming and lovely guests seated in the south gallery, my sister Mrs. Annie Haggerty and my niece, Mrs. Anne Maureen Johnson of Pensacola, Florida. They are accompanied by Mrs. Cherberg. Won't you please stand in order that the members may properly recognize and welcome you."

MOTION

At 11:25 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, January 24, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
SEVENTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Grant, Stender, Washington and Woody. On motion of Senator Keefe, Senators Grant and Woody were excused. On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senator Stender was excused. Senators Bottiger and Washington were excused previously by Senator Mardesich to attend the National Conference on Criminal Justice in Washington, D.C. from January 23 through January 26, 1973.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Michael Sletivet and Kathleen Carl, presented the Colors. Reverend J. Alan Justad, minister of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER WE COME IN JOY THIS MORNING BECAUSE OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT BY OUR PRESIDENT OF THE IMPENDING PEACE FOR VIET NAM. OUR FATHER, WHOSE APPROVAL WE SEEK ABOVE ALL THE HOLLOW APPLAUSE OR BLAME OF MEN, WE PAUSE IN THE MIDST OF THRONGING DUTIES AND CONFUSING ISSUES THAT THOU MIGHT LIFT UPON US THE LIGHT OF THY GUIDANCE. INSPIRE AND GUIDE WITH THE SPIRIT OF UNDERSTANDING, THESE DISTINGUISHED SENATORS. THE FEW AMONG THE MANY IN A CRUCIAL PERIOD LIFTED BY THEIR FELLOWS TO HIGH PEDESTALS OF POWER AND INFLUENCE. MAY THEIR WORDS AND COUNSELS ADD TO THE WORLD'S STORE OF GOOD WILL AND BE FOR THE HEALING OF OUR GREAT STATE. IN THE LIGHT OF THIS CHALLENGE, WE PRAY FOR ALL GATHERED HERE THAT THEY MAY NOT FAIL THEIR GENERATION AND THEE, BUT RATHER THAT THEY RETAIN THEIR INTEGRITY AND SERVE THIS SACRED TRUST OF PUBLIC OFFICE IN DECENCY, JUSTICE AND MERCY AND IN THE UNITING BROTHERHOOD OF THY SON WHO TAUGHT US TO PRAY THAT HIS RADIANT KINGDOM MAY COME. WE ASK THIS IN HIS NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SENATE BILL NO. 2078, by Senators Durkan, Atwood, Newschwander and Gardner
(by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Implementing law relating to public records and their retention, protection, disposal or reproduction.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, add a new section following section 5 as follows:

"Sec. 6. Section 48.08.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.01.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The director, as specifically authorized and directed herein, shall have the power and it shall be his duty upon request and payment of the fee as provided herein to furnish under seal of the director certified copies of any records of the department, including lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes, except those for confidential use only. The director shall charge and collect therefor the actual cost to the department. Any funds accruing to the director of motor vehicles under this section shall be certified and sent to the state treasurer and by him deposited to the credit of the highway safety fund."

Renumber section 6 to read "Sec. 7."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Day, would you yield please? Senator Day, in 1965 and again in 1967 we argued this procedure of selling the lists of automobile holders very bitterly here on the floor and in the committee. We at that time were trying to preserve the privacy of the lists held by the state and this is really a very far and a divergent attitude that the legislature took at that time. We beat the lists down because we did not think that we wanted to be on all the sucker lists in the whole country. And this is certainly going to make it far easier for those people who want sucker lists to buy them from the state and particularly if the departments are required to comply. For instance, General Motors wants to buy a list of all of the Buicks in the state, then they have got to go to the expense of doing this. I think that there should be some safeguards put into the law that would protect those people whose names they do not want to be disseminated all over the nation and the protection is needed there. I think that this would let the bars down from what we have fought in the past."

Senator Day: "Senator, I do not know specifically what your question was."

Senator Guess: "I want to know, is this opening up the bar to the sale of our lists to any type of organization that wants it?"

Senator Day: "I think that it certainly is allowing an organization to get the lists but I do not think it is going to affect particularly mailing lists for the purposes that you are discussing because of course we still have telephone books and we still have city directories that are available to these firms with everyone's name in them. I just feel that what this is doing is allowing lists for specific purposes, a professional organization, for example, such as my own or such as the state medical society may want to know exactly where a licentiate is. And maybe the only way they can find out is by having a list procured from the department. I think that that is what the intent of this amendment is and I cannot for the life of me see why it would open up any more than the city directory or the telephone directory list of almost everyone that would become available through those sources that are already available to them now."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, will Senator Day yield? Senator, would this take away the disabled veterans to receive these lists?"

Senator Day: "To the contrary, it is going to make it possible for them to get the lists and also anyone who gets the list is going to have to pay for it."

Senator Durkan: "That is what I wanted to know. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Day, would you yield to a question? As I read your proposed amendment, it will enlarge the availability of the lists of people required by law to register with the department. This is going to open up the lists completely for commercial purposes. Is that right?"
Senator Day: "It is already open."
Senator Rasmussen: "No, I do not think it is."
Senator Day: "If you will look you will see the underlined material is the only new part."
Senator Rasmussen: "Well as I read your proposed amendment 'including lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes.'"
Senator Day: "That is correct."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Day:
On the last line of the amendment, after "fund" and before the period insert "
Provided, however, That any individual may request of the director of the department of motor vehicles that his name shall not be furnished to any non-official user"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? If I understand this now, if a person buys a car, then they have to affirmatively write in and notify that you do not want your name included in these lists?"
Senator Mardesich: "No, it is my intention under the amendment to the amendment, as suggested by Senator Guess, that all the person would have to do is notify the director of the Department of Motor Vehicles that he does not want his name to be given to such non-official users and that would be the end of it. I think that the prohibition would hold good until such time as the person revoked that."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senate Bill No. 2078, the amendment by Senator Day and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich, were ordered placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Thursday, January 25, 1973.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2080 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, January 25, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2082, by Senators Woody, Francis and Clarke:
Establishing a position for a county clerk on the judicial council.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2082 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2082, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, C.ore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Greive, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwanter, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellor, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—43.
Absents or not voting: Senator Harr—1.
SENATE BILL NO. 2082, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Joint Resolution No. 107 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, January 25, 1973.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-14

By Senators Lewis (Harry), Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Doe, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keeffe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaner, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody:

WHEREAS, On the eve of the two-hundredth anniversary of the Republic of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, Thirty-seventh President of the United States, has announced the first significant step toward a just and honorable peace in Viet Nam through execution of a Cease Fire Agreement which provides for a return of American prisoners of war and a cessation of armed hostilities in Southeast Asia;

NOW, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE WASHINGTON STATE SENATE, That the Senate accept and wear the white carnations now being distributed as a symbol of peace and as a tribute to those who have given their lives, to the prisoners of war, to those missing in action and to their families as they have given far more than any of us to preserve freedom and justice in this land and in the world.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we wear these symbolic white carnations with pride in our country and in our flag and with heads held high in evidence of our dedication and loyalty to the Constitution and to the principles for which so many have sacrificed so selflessly.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate, all of us assembled, stand in silent prayer, rededicating ourselves to make every effort to prevent future conflicts and to work for a continuing and lasting peace in Viet Nam and over the entire world.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): “I think the Resolution pretty well speaks for itself. I believe that it is important that the Senate of the State of Washington stand together as Senator Mardesich has suggested, rededicating ourselves in honor of those who have given so much for the principle of peace. And I would ask that all of you join with me in standing for one moment of silent prayer in rededicating ourselves and our efforts for this purpose of peace in honoring those who have sacrificed with their lives and their time.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I speak today not as a Democrat or a Republican but as a proud American. And perhaps I may speak too long but this happens to be a moment I have waited for for a long, long time. I always hated to pick up the papers and to see what man from Pierce County was going to be listed as killed in action in Viet Nam. I can close my eyes and see in the rice paddies of the Philippines the arms and the legs of the enemy sticking up through the waters in the rice paddies. I can close my eyes and see the truckloads of young dead Americans going down the road in the Philippines stacked like cordwood in the trucks. This is a day that all Americans have waited for. No war in America's history has divided our country as much as the one nearing completion. Like all good Americans I am sick and tired of the demonstrations we have seen in the past few years, of so-called good American young people carrying the American flags upside down, so-called good young Americans burning the American flag, of seeing our winners in the Olympic games turn up their noses when the Star Spangled Banner is played. I am sick and tired of the Jane Fondas who went to Viet Nam and sided with our enemy and turned their backs on America. I wonder if America would now come back to its senses. We have seen sons and daughters turned against parents and parents turned against sons and daughters. My heart goes out today to those mothers and fathers, the families and wives and sweethearts of the men who have been prisoners of war and who have waited so long for their loved ones to come home. My heart goes out to those parents and wives whose boys are missing in action and also people who have waited for so long. And my heart goes out to the mothers and fathers who lost their sons in this tragic war. Yes, America has waited a long time for the announcement made last night by President Nixon. I came back up to the Senate lounge last night hoping to hear the good news that I did. Remember yesterday I said I was proud that Lyndon Johnson had not once criticized Richard Nixon in any manner, and last night I was so proud when Richard Nixon remembered this in his announcement about the cease fire in Viet Nam. And I would like to read these few words of tribute paid by our president:

'Just yesterday a great American who once occupied this office died. In his life President Johnson endured the vilification of those who sought to portray him as a man of war, but there was nothing he cared about more deeply than achieving a lasting peace in this world. I remember the last time I talked with him. It was just the day after New Year's. He spoke then of his concern with bringing peace, with making it the right kind of peace. And I was grateful that he once again expressed his support for my efforts to gain such a peace. No one would have welcomed this peace more than he.'

"Yes, this is the day that all Americans have waited and prayed for. This is a great day in my life and it should be a great day in yours."

The Senate observed a moment of silence in rededication to work for continuing and lasting peace.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesch, all members of the Senate were sponsors of the resolution.

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

MOTION

At 10:50 a.m., on motion of Senators Mardesch, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Thursday, January 25, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
EIGHTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Fleming, Stender and Washington. On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Stender was excused. On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Metcalf was excused. On motion of Senator Keefe, Senator Fleming was excused. Senators Bottiger and Washington were excused previously by Senator Mardesich to attend the National Conference on Criminal Justice in Washington, D.C. from January 23 through January 26, 1973.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Thomas Mayrand and Nancy Price, presented the Colors. Reverend J. Alan Justad, minister of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GOD OF GLORY AND LIFE, WE COME TO THEE IN THIS OUR MORNING PRAYER AND WAITING UPON THEE WE WOULD TURN AWAY FROM THE CLAMOR AND CLATTER OF THE CONFUSED WORLD ABOUT US. HELP US TO GREET THIS NEW DAY WITH THE JOY OF GRATITUDE, TO OVERCOME OUR DIFFICULTIES WITH INCREASED DEVOTION, TO CARRY OUR BURDENS WITH ADDED STRENGTH, AND TO MEET ALL ILLS AND ACCIDENTS WITH A GALLANT AND HIGH-HEARTED HAPPINESS, GIVING THEE THANKS ALWAYS FOR ALL THINGS. MAY WE JOIN IN THE GREAT ST. PATRICK WHO PRAYED, 'GOD BE IN OUR HEADS AND IN OUR UNDERSTANDING, GOD BE IN OUR EYES AND IN OUR LOOKING, GOD BE IN OUR MOUTHS AND IN OUR SPEAKING, GOD BE IN OUR MINDS AND IN OUR THINKING, GOD BE AT OUR END AND AT OUR DEPARTING.' IN THE MIDST OF SUCH BUSY DAYS MAY WE BE EVER MINDFUL THAT AS WE SERVE THEE WE IN TURN SERVE THE PEOPLE OF THIS GREAT STATE AND TO KEEP OUR STATE PHYSICALLY STRONG, MENTALLY AWARE AND MORALLY STRAIGHT. IN THE MASTER'S NAME WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The Washington State Constitution provides for three departments of government. Each is equal. Neither is supposed to be more or less important than the others.

Service in the Legislative branch, however, since the inception of statehood, has been part-time. No one contends that compensation is for full-time employment. This means that, unless a citizen is retired, he must have some form of profession, business, or employment, and students of government agree that it is beneficial to attract persons from a wide spectrum of activity.
This cumbersome, unnecessary, reporting of personal business of members and their spouses, would restrict membership from many professions.

Joint Rules of the House and the Senate are for the primary purpose of facilitating business between both houses, and presently contain adequate ethics requirements. Assuming there is any merit to the proposed amendments by Senator Greive and others, they would not belong in the Joint Rules, but should have been submitted as proposed amendments to the Code of Ethics Law and have had committee hearings, as in the usual practice.

We feel these proposed Rules were designed more to obtain news releases than to achieve any worthwhile good. We particularly resent the implication that any member of the Legislature could be influenced for such “piddling” gratuities, as suggested by the proposed Rules.

Because these proposals were inappropriate and did not belong in the Joint Rules, we voiced our opposition.

Signed by: Senators Woodall, Matson, Henry, Lewis (Harry), Keefe, Sandison, Sellar, Woody, Lewis (Bob), Wanamaker, Jones, Clarke, Newschwander, Metcalf, Atwood, Canfield, Peterson (Ted), Stender, Guess, Walgren, Donohue, Peterson (Lowell), Grant, Odegard, Day, Bailey.

REGARDING EXPLANATION OF VOTE

As I read the Explanation of Vote made by those Senators who opposed the reforms which would require the reporting of the sources of income of members of the Washington Legislature, they seem to be trying very hard to convince anyone reading their Explanation of Vote that these reforms belong in the Code of Ethics and not in the Joint Rules of the House and Senate. In my opinion, this Explanation is an evasion of the question. As the members who signed that Explanation know, there are many ways to trap, amend, and prevent an issue so embarrassing to some members from ever coming to a vote, and we are fearful that if left to their own devices, some who voted against this legislation will do just that.

If we are to have a roll call vote or any meaningful discussion, it is absolutely essential that we make the amendments on the floor in public view so that members of the public can determine for themselves the attitudes of their individual legislator towards this vital reform. These reforms were offered as amendments to the Senate Rules and Joint Rules of the House and Senate because these rules are necessary for the operation of both Houses, and must be acted upon each legislative session.

There may be still other members who claim they voted against these reforms because they did not agree with the precise wording of the amendments. This proposition can be answered by pointing out that on several occasions, during the debate on this measure, offers were made to strike the proposed rules from the Rules of the House and Senate, if the same provisions were later enacted into the Code of Ethics. Furthermore, repeated invitations have been made to the members of the Senate to revise these measures, if they were unworkable, which offers were ignored.

The only conclusion that we can reach from all the debate was that the members signing the explanation of vote simply did not want this full disclosure as proposed.

Signed by: Senators Greive and Ridder.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Senator Vern Cook, State Senator from Oregon, and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Knoblauch, Sellar and Marsh to escort Senator Cook to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

The Senator from Oregon was introduced to the Senate by Senator Dan Marsh.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Senator Cook to address the Senate.

The special committee escorted the honored guest from the rostrum.

NINETEENTH DAY, JANUARY 26, 1973

NINETEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Madesich, Scott, Twigg and Washington. On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senators Scott and Twigg were excused. On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Madesich was excused. Senators Bottiger and Washington were excused previously by Senator Madesich to attend the National Conference on Criminal Justice in Washington, D.C. from January 23 through January 26, 1973.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Girard and Melissa Smith, presented the Colors. Reverend J. Alan Justad, of First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GOD, WHO ART OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH, OUR HELP IN TROUBLE, WE PRAY THAT THOU WILT LEAD US TO A HIGHER PLANE OF COURAGE AND FAITH AND THAT THE INFLUENCE OF OUR LIVES AND THE EXAMPLE OF OUR SPIRITS MAY ALWAYS BE FOR THY GLORY AND FOR THE GOOD OF THIS GREAT STATE OF WASHINGTON. RENEW IN US A DEEPER DEVOTION TO THEE, A GREATER LOVE FOR OUR FELLOW MAN AND A STRONGER FAITH THAT RIGHT IS RIGHT AND WILL ULTIMATELY PREVAIL EVEN IN UNCERTAIN TIMES. TO THEE WE COMMEND OUR STATE. BE THOU THE SOURCE OF HER STRENGTH AND MAKE HER EVER MINDFUL OF THY PROVIDENCE. WE PRAY FOR SPECIAL BLESSINGS UPON OUR GOVERNOR, OUR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, EVERY MEMBER OF THIS BODY, EVERY OFFICER, EVERY CLERK, EVERY SECRETARY, EVERY REPORTER, EVERY PAGE, AND EVERY GUEST. AS MEN AND WOMEN SELECTED FOR SPECIAL SERVICE TO OUR GREAT STATE, MAY WE KEEP OUR RECORD TRUE—TO THINK WITHOUT CONFUSION CLEARLY, TO LOVE OUR FELLOWMAN SINCERELY, TO ACT FROM HONEST MOTIVES PURELY, TO TRUST IN GOD AND HEAVEN SECURELY. WE ASK THIS IN THY NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Guess: "I would like to express my appreciation to the chaplain for the prayer we have just had. I feel that this pause each day and the asking of support by our God to sustain us is a very strong factor in renewing the strength of each one of us to serve as we do. And I appreciate it very much and I would move that a copy of the prayer be placed on the desk of each Senator."

A copy of the prayer was placed on each Senator’s desk.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson (Ted): “I do not like to becloud the morning session when we start out but last year we had suggested, I do not think you were on the podium then, that we announce that we are now saluting the flag. There were at least nine in the gallery that did not even put their hand up and salute the flag and it might be that they did not realize that this is the procedure we follow in the mornings when we get up and salute the flag of the United States.”

MOTION

At 9:45 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 11:00 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:00 a.m.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to advise that on January 25, 1973, Governor Evans approved the following Senate Bill entitled:

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2021: Providing for annual general elections.

Sincerely,

JOHN H. BRIGHT
Legislative Counsel to the Governor.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Parks and Recreation.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Parks and Recreation.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:
Mr. William A. Gissberg, appointed January 15, 1973 for a term ending July 1, 1978, succeeding Matthew Hill as a member of the Pollution Control Hearings Board.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended and the appointment of the Honorable William A. Gissberg to the position of member of the Pollution Control Hearings Board was confirmed.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I know that I need not go into any detail with regard to Senator Gissberg and his certainly illustrious service as a member of this legislature. We know him all well and we know certainly the very fine work that he has done in this legislature, particularly with regard to matters involving the ecology and the fine work that he did in connection with the Shorelines Management Bill and, of course, all the other fine works of legislation that he accomplished while he was a member with us. We have all missed him, of course, already as a member of this body. We are sorry he is not with us now but he will be with us in connection with his duties as a member of the hearings board which he has been appointed to and I certainly recommend his confirmation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I would like to pay tribute to Mr. Gissberg. I have served with him longer than anyone on this side of the aisle. I served with him on the Judiciary Committee of which he was chairman here in the Senate, and then in the interim I was chairman of the Legislative Council’s Judiciary Committee and he served with me. Last year when he announced that he was not going to seek reelection I had the committee clerk call and ask him, was he going to be active in the interim or should we look for a substitute. He wrote back and said he was going to be the most active lame duck committee member that we had ever known. And he certainly was. He carried on on every committee meeting, his attendance record was better than some of those who planned to return. He was particularly helpful on a disclosure bill that we were working on on this matter of real estate disclosure. And he came down and attended the last meeting of the full Council to fully explain that particular measure and help to get it through. He is eminently qualified as all of us know and we all know his fine service and his fine record here. It is a real pleasure to be able to speak in his behalf and to vote for his confirmation."

APPOINTMENT OF HONORABLE WILLIAM A. GISSBERG

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of the Honorable William A. Gissberg to the position of member of the Pollution Control Hearings Board was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keeffe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—43.

Absent or not voting: Senator Ridder—1.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:
NINETEENTH DAY, JANUARY 26, 1973

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation: Mr. Kenneth Kennedy, appointed December 14, 1972, for a term ending December 31, 1976, as a member of the Public Disclosure Commission.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Constitution and Elections.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:
I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation: Mrs. Jean Davis, appointed December 14, 1972 for a term ending December 31, 1974, as a member of the Public Disclosure Commission.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Constitution and Elections.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:
I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation: Mr. Fred Haley, appointed December 14, 1972 for a term ending December 31, 1973, as a member of the Public Disclosure Commission.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Constitution and Elections.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:
I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation: Mr. Sam Kinville, appointed December 29, 1972 for a term ending January 4, 1979, as a member of the State Personnel Board.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:
I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:
Francis Holman, appointed December 14, 1972 for a term ending December 31, 1977, as a member of the Public Disclosure Commission.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended and the appointment of the Honorable Francis Holman to the position of member of the Public Disclosure Commission was confirmed.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WHETZEL

Senator Whetzel: "Mr. President, I would like to speak in behalf of the confirmation of Francis Holman to the Public Disclosure Commission. I served with ex-Senator Holman in the House and sat behind him the last two sessions in the Senate and am now occupying his seat. This close relationship proximity gave me a great deal of knowledge and acquaintanceship of Senator Holman while he was in the Senate and I was certainly impressed, as I am sure all of us were, with his tremendous knowledge on so many areas of state government, his indefatigable energy to involve himself in so many particular matters, and I know I can speak for the members here on our side that we have respected his ability to handle so many things and feel a great loss that he is not with us any longer, and I think for the members of the other side where Senator Holman had many friends throughout his term of service in the legislature that they know him as a person who is fair-minded, knowledgeable and judicious and I think as the only person, to my knowledge, on the Public Disclosure Commission served in the legislature, he will be an extremely valuable member of that commission and will enable it to perform its duties in the best possible manner for the benefit of the public and for the public officials who are subject to the jurisdiction of that commission, and I urge his confirmation."

APPOINTMENT OF HONORABLE FRANCIS HOLMAN

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of the Honorable Francis Holman to the position of member of the Public Disclosure Commission was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

Voting yeas: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—43.

Absent or not voting: Senator Van Hollebeke—1.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Mr. Elmer Huntley, appointed January 24, 1973 for a term ending January 1, 1979, succeeding Ed Harris as a member of the Utilities and Transportation Commission.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended and the appointment of the of Honorable Elmer Huntley to the position of member of the Utilities and Transportation Commission was confirmed.
NINETEENTH DAY, JANUARY 26, 1973

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, for me to try to say too many nice things about Elmer Huntley would be putting the frosting on the cake. We all know him, we have all served with him, we know his ability. He was a personal friend as well as a Senate colleague. He has been a member of the Highway Commission; he is successful in his own business; he is a fine level-headed upstanding American citizen and I think that it is one of the finest appointments that has been made."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, I would like to echo Senator Henry's remarks. Elmer Huntley is an outstanding public servant. He has been the chairman of the State Highway Commission, former State Senator and now, hopefully, with our confirmation a member of the Utilities and Transportation Committee. We miss Elmer here on this side of the aisle although I know that you fellows do not, and I am glad to find him back in state government because he is a first class public servant and I would urge your support on this confirmation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "I too would like to support the nomination of Elmer Huntley. He is a man whom we all know. He is a man who has a very fine record in many fields of endeavor in both public and private life. He is a man who is highly respected in his home community and throughout the state as a citizen, as a legislator both in House and Senate, a man who has been very successful in business, a former chairman of the state Highway Commission. I feel very strongly that Elmer Huntley is eminently qualified for this appointment and I heartily approve it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I too want to join with the other members of the Senate in affirming the appointment of Senator Elmer Huntley. As everyone knows, Senator Huntley and I recently had a little confab between the two of us. Senator Huntley was a gentleman and is a gentleman and is a good friend. I have served with him and introduced legislation the past four years and I want to join with everybody in voting for his confirmation."

APPOINTMENT OF HONORABLE ELMER HUNTLEY

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Honorable Elmer Huntley to the position of member of the Utilities and Transportation Commission was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; excused, 5.

Voting yeas: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwanter, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—44.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Mr. James T. Quigg, appointed January 12, 1973 for a term ending April 3, 1975, as a member of the Board of Trustees of Community College District No. 2, succeeding Oliver Tibbetts.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Higher Education.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:
Mr. Stewart Bledsoe, appointed January 24, 1973 for a term ending at the pleasure of the Governor as Director of the Department of Agriculture, succeeding Cameron Adams.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on Agriculture.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 14 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 14 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2078, by Senators Durkan, Atwood, Newschwander and Gardner (by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Implementing law relating to public records and their retention, protection, disposal or reproduction.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2078 and the pending amendment by Senator Day and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich which had been under consideration by the Senate on Wednesday, January 24, 1973.

MOTION

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Day, the amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich and the amendment by Senator Day were withdrawn.
Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, following line 11, add a new section as follows:
"Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.01.250 are each amended to read as follows:
The director, as specifically authorized and directed herein, shall have the power and it shall be his duty upon request and payment of the fee as provided herein to furnish under seal of the director certified copies of any records of the department, including lists of individuals requested, for commercial and other lawful purposes, except those for confidential use only: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That any individual may request of the director that his name shall be omitted from such lists and the director shall honor the request of such individual. The director shall charge and collect therefor the actual cost to the department. Any funds accruing to the director of motor vehicles under this section shall be certified and sent to the state treasurer and by him deposited to the credit of the highway safety fund."
Remunerate the following section.
Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Day:
On line 10 of the Day amendment, after "individual" and before the period insert ":
PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the director shall cause to be imprinted upon each motor vehicle registration application and on each driver's license application a blank space in which each applicant may signify his desire as to whether or not his name shall be on such list to be sold"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, your amendment only relates to driver's licenses and motor vehicle licenses. The original amendment relates that the lists in the Department of Motor Vehicles they also have all of the professional licensing. And this would include many, many different lists of professional people that would not come under particularly the driver's licensing."

Senator Guess: "Senator Rasmussen, I will have to admit that I was not aware that that was going to be as broad as that. Therefore I would like the opportunity to revise my amendment and if possible maybe we could get this bill set over until Monday and have an opportunity to get the Department of Motor Vehicles over here to help me draft the amendment."

MOTION

Senator Guess moved that Senate Bill No. 2078 and the pending amendments be held for further consideration on Monday, January 29, 1973.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "I would suggest that the motion is out of order at this stage of Senator Guess's discussion. I would like to point out that just the opposite of his argument is entirely true relative to this because the reason for the need for this list, as I pointed out the other day, is that after three years through the efforts of Mr. Nader and others, it is needed to recall some vehicles. If someone has purchased a vehicle and then the next year he purchased a different one and traded that one off, his name could be removed from the list at a time when it would be in his interest or in the interest of someone to have their name on that list relative to that particular vehicle and the need for its modification as to safety. Now in deference to the arguments of Senator Guess, I feel that we should give this thing a whirl and we should defeat the amendment to the amendment and pass this amendment and get this bill on its way and then next year, we are surely going to be back here and with continuing legislature, and if this proves to be an actual problem relative to these lists, I will join with you, Senator Guess, in modifying it again."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The point of order raised by Senator Day in regard to Senator Guess's motion to hold the measure over is well taken."

POINT OF INQUIRY,

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, the amendment that you have does not require the director to take the name off the list for state purposes but only to omit it for purposes of distribution to commercial purchasers of lists. And the name would still be on the list for other purposes other than commercial purposes, is that correct?"

Senator Day: "Yes, it is the intent of this that the removal of the name would only occur if the list were sold for some commercial or business purpose."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Guess, Senate Bill No. 2078 and the pending amendment by Senator Day and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Guess were ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar for further consideration.

On motion of Senator Grant, Senate Joint Resolution No. 103 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, January 29, 1973.

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the appointment of A. H. "IKE" PARKER as a member of the Washington State Highway Commission was confirmed.
APPOINTMENT OF A. H. "IKE" PARKER

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Riddr, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—45.

Absent or not voting: Senator Sellar—1.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2038, by Senators Whetzel, Murray and Gardner (by Legislative Council request):

Revising the tax exemption for nature conservancy lands.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2038 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Whetzel yield to a question? Senator Whetzel, is there any limit to the size of this property that can be relieved of taxes?"

Senator Whetzel: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would it be possible for a timber company to put a certain area of land under this provision tax free for the study of animal and plant life?"

Senator Whetzel: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "Why not?"

Senator Whetzel: "Because the property has to be held by a nonprofit corporation or association, the primary purpose of which is the conducting or facilitating of scientific research or the conserving of natural resources for the general public, and if you had a timber company that met that I would be very surprised."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2038 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Riddr, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—46.

SENATE BILL NO. 2038, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2078, by Senators Durkan, Atwood, Newschwander and Gardner (by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Implementing law relating to public records and their retention, protection, disposal or reproduction.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2078, the pending amendment by Senator Day and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Guess.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Guess to the amendment by Senator Day was withdrawn.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Day:

On line 10 of the Day amendment, after "individual" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the director shall cause to be imprinted upon all application forms a space in which each applicant may signify his desire as to whether or not his name shall be on any list to be sold by the director"

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive moved that the amendment by Senator Guess to the amendment by Senator Day be laid upon the table.

Senator Guess demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Connor, Ridder, Rasmussen, Wanamaker, Woodall, Grant, Lewis (Bob), Lewis (Harry) and Metcalf.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Guess to the amendment by Senator Day was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Henry—1.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Day.

The motion by Senator Day carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 8 of the title, after "RCW 40.14.070" and before the period insert "; and amending section 46.08.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.01.025"

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2078 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "A question for Senator Day. Senator Day, I am looking at your amendment and want to clarify one part there that may not be clear. It says 'the director shall charge and collect therefor the actual cost of the department.' Am I correct in assuming that therefor refers to the cost of the lists of individuals requested for commercial and other lawful purposes and does not refer to the request of an individual that his name be omitted from the list, which the director must honor?"

Senator Day: "Yes, that is correct, and you will note that that particular language you are questioning is already in the statute."

Senator Whetzel: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2078
and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Durkan, Guess, Jones, Metcalf, Rasmussen, Sellar – 7.

Absent or not voting: Senator Henry – 1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2078, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Francis, the Judiciary Committee was relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 2004.

On motion of Senator Francis, Senate Bill No. 2004 was referred to the Committee on State Government.

MOTION

At 12.20 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Monday, January 29, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
TWENTY-SECOND DAY

NOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 12:00 noon by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore, Durkan and Stender. On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Stender was excused. There being no objection, Senators Dore and Durkan were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Michael Blanchard and Linda Aldridge, presented the Colors. Reverend Robert M. Keller, pastor of The Lutheran Church of The Good Shepherd of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY FATHER, ON THIS MONDAY MORNING AS WE BUSY OURSELVES ABOUT OUR APPOINTED TASKS, MAY WE ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR PRESENCE. MAY WE STRIVE, THIS DAY, TO MAKE THE WORLD YOU HAVE INTRUSTED TO US BETTER. AND MAY WE KNOW YOUR PEACE IN OUR LIFE. WE PRAY THIS IN THE NAME OF JESUS. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed:
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 18,
HOUSE BILL NO. 41,
HOUSE BILL NO. 47,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 98,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 117,
HOUSE BILL NO. 119,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 130, and the same are herewith transmitted.
DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14, and the same is herewith transmitted.
DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14.

MOTION

At 12:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 12:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 12:30 p.m.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the President should like to exercise the privilege, with the consent of the Senate, to present two outstanding and distinguished visitors who are the guests of Senator Frank Connor. The President at this time should like to ask Mr. William Marx, the famous football coach at the University of Washington, and Mr. Edmund Vervynck to please stand in order that the members of the Senate may properly recognize and welcome you. Thank you very much."
MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that all bills be referred to committee as indicated on the Senate Short Title and Referral Sheet with the exception of Senate Bill No. 2370 which would be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Elections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? The other day a point was made by Senator Greive that we might have constitutional difficulties. Have you resolved that now, that by this method still qualifies as a first reading and reference of bills?"

Senator Mardesich: "This action has been taken in the House, I think all of last session, and we have thought that we might do it here in the interest of saving time. If there were a constitutional question I think the court would not look behind the record. The record would show that these bills have been referred individually."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "I am going to object and for this reason. It is already publicly on the record and it would seem to me that the courts would know for at least this session it was done. I would suggest if we are going to do it next session that the discussion be had between the caucuses and that we just start doing it, because it would be very, very obvious now. This is all recorded. The record would be there and somebody is certain not to like the bill and try to knock it out."

Senator Mardesich: "The objection having been made again, I will have to withdraw my motion at this time."

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Arnie Weinmeister and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Bailey, Connor, Durkan, Stender, Matson and Canfield to escort Mr. Weinmeister to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Gentlemen of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is a great pleasure and privilege for the President to present a long-time friend, Mr. Arnie Weinmeister, who was recently to become a member of the General Executive Board of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Arnie's rise in the Teamsters official family has been similar to that of a successful moon shot, inasmuch as he has risen so fast and has been such a great success. It may be of interest to many of us present that Arnie is the first Vice President from the Pacific Northwest to serve on the powerful General Executive Board of the Teamsters, in fact the first since 1958. It is a huge territory which includes the state of Washington, northern Idaho, Oregon and Alaska. And Arnie represents over one hundred thousand Teamsters.

"He is a native of Canada but chose to live in Portland but then realized that the wonderful athletic program of the University of Washington was inviting so decided to play football for Jimmie Phelan in the early forties but then he answered the call to serve in World War II with real distinction. Following the war, Arnie returned to the University of Washington to play for a mutual good friend, Ralph 'Pest' Welch. And incidentally yours truly was supposed to be the backfield coach in those days and Arnie really made me look pretty good. Following a very successful career at the University, Arnie was drafted by the New York Yankees, a member of the old American League, and after great success there but after the League folded Arnie became an all star professional tackle for the New York Giants. He had very successful seasons there. I think it was five times all told, isn't that right, consecutive, Arnie? And after that he thought he would return to the Pacific Northwest but was not quite ready to give up football and decided to have a whirl with the British Columbia Lions which he did with great success.

"But then he found his true calling in the labor movement and became very active in that particular movement after declining very wisely to serve with me as a football coach at the University of Washington. This had a very integral part in Arnie's later success but I will not go into that. But at any rate, ladies and gentlemen, it certainly is with pride and pleasure that I at this time present to you Arnie Weinmeister, a great guy. Arnie."

REMARKS BY ARNIE WEINMEISTER

Mr. Weinmeister: "Thank you very much, Mr. President, honorable members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen and boys and girls. I must say that it is a real privilege to be asked here today. I would like to use this opportunity if I may, to personally thank you for the resolution that you passed on my behalf.

"It is very nice to be recognized by one’s organization and our headquarters are in Washington, D.C., a long ways from home. It is really more significant to be recognized here at home. I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate it. It is the signal honor for me in my own position but it is also, in my opinion, a signal honor for the territory which I represent. I am on the General Executive Board which will enable me to do many things on behalf of our community interests which are mutual, and I want to thank the President, my good friend John Cherberg, for that nice introduction. I do not believe I have ever had a nicer one than that but we have been personal friends for a long time and he read it just exactly as I had presented it to him. So I want to sincerely thank you for the privilege of being asked here today and I really do thank you for the resolution that you sent on my behalf. Thank you."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Arnie. You have earned your position in our community but the members of the Senate and I wanted to present you with this distinguished citizen award just as something concrete and as evidence, presented in recognition and appreciation of your outstanding citizenship and remarkable and enduring contribution of the well being of your fellow citizens. Congratulations and continued success."
TWENTY-THIRD DAY, JANUARY 30, 1973

The special committee escorted the honored guest from the rostrum.

Making certain changes in the veterans bonus law.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2017 and the motion pending from Tuesday, January 30, 1973 by Senator Fleming that Senate Bill No. 2017 be returned to second reading.

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Fleming was withdrawn.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2017 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Clarke, Guess, Herr, Jones, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Wanamaker, Whetzel—13.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis (Harry), Woodall—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2017, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2163, by Senators Sandison, Washington, Lewis (Harry) and Stortini (by Joint Committee on Higher Education request):

Authorizing conduct of certain educational programs for military personnel by community colleges.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 2, line 26, after “system” insert “within the state of Washington”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): “Would Senator Mardesich yield? I understand they are just furnishing the curriculum and things like that. Does any school personnel go to these bases?”

Senator Mardesich: “I understand that if personnel does go they are financed on a repayment basis to the state, by the federal government.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: “Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? I understand that this bill arises from an honor that is being paid to Big Bend Community College and not necessarily in the interest of expanding the community college subsidiary campuses. Is it the intent of this bill merely to so honor Big Bend Community College with this program, or is the ultimate attempt to expand or add subsidiary campuses to the community college system as we know it?”

Senator Sandison: “Senator Ridder, you are making a lot of statements in prerequisite to your question that I want it shown on the record I am not answering. It is my understanding that this program is one that Big Bend Community College has been asked to participate in without completely reimbursable expense and that the program was given to them because of some other contractual obligations they fulfilled very well working with the Air Force and the Army, particularly at Larson Air Force Base and that at the present time I know of no plan for them to work with any other military units other than what they are working with now."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 17, after "FURTHER," strike all the material down to and including the period on line 19 and insert "That the superintendent of public instruction shall issue the certificate or diploma in recognition of high school completion education provided pursuant to this section."

On motion of Senator Sandison, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2163 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2163 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dare, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaender, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellars, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—49.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2163, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2309, by Senators Day, Guess, Lewis (Bob), Keefe, Twigg and Donohue:

Authorizing Expo '74 bonds.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2309 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2309, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 42; nays, 6; absent or not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Sellars, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—42.

Absent or not voting: Senator Durkan—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2309, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Jolly, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1973-18

WHEREAS, Horace W. Bozarth served the Twelfth Legislative District as a member of the House of Representatives from 1955 through 1972; and

WHEREAS, Representative Bozarth served this district comprised of Chelan and Douglas Counties with honor and distinction; and

WHEREAS, Horace always placed the needs of his constituency foremost in his mind in making legislative decisions; and

WHEREAS, Horace W. Bozarth served as Douglas County Commissioner from 1932 through 1938; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the immense amount of benefit his service gave to the state of Washington, Horace also donated much of his time as a member of the Board of Regents at Gonzaga University, worked as an Executive Board member of the Washington State Grange and made significant contributions as an active Eagle Lodge Board member; and

WHEREAS, Horace Bozarth, who was born in Fairfield, Washington, has brought credit to himself and his family as a dedicated and hardworking public servant, as a farmer and as an honorable businessman; and

WHEREAS, The Senate of the state of Washington recognizes the value of the efforts of Horace Bozarth and is appreciative of his many worthwhile and beneficial acts for the benefit of the people of Chelan and Douglas counties and of the state of Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington does hereby commend Horace W. Bozarth for his many years of public service and express to him appreciation for many benefits which have resulted from his extensive efforts for the citizens of Chelan and Douglas counties and of the state of Washington;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Horace W. Bozarth.

NOTICE FROM SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington served notice that on Tuesday, February 6, 1973 he would move for consideration by the Senate a Rule change.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1973-17

By Senators Bottiger, Gardner, Stortini, Knoblauch, Rasmussen and Newschwander:

WHEREAS, Noting the unique and valuable contribution of the Northwest Trek to the State of Washington and the considerable sacrifice that was made in donating this property for the welfare of the people of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Legislature recognize the truly exceptional and praiseworthy goals of the Northwest Trek and the Tacoma Metropolitan Park Board both for increasing the tourism and revenue of the state and for protecting our ecology; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Legislature commend the Tacoma Metropolitan Park Board and urge the people of the Tacoma area to carefully consider the upcoming general obligation bond issue on February 6 that would allow Northwest Trek to reach its full potential and would greatly benefit the people of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Legislature recognize that Northwest Trek is the only exhibit of its kind in North America providing the people of the State of Washington with the opportunity to view this area’s wildlife in its native environment and will safeguard this privilege for future generations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE, That Dr. and Mrs. David T. Hellyer be commended for their donation of this irreplaceable land to the people of the State of Washington, and that the members of the Tacoma Metropolitan Park Board be commended for their efforts to bring this project to its final realization.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably inscribed copy of this resolution be prepared and forwarded to Dr. and Mrs. David T. Hellyer and the members of the Tacoma Metropolitan Park Board by the Secretary of the Senate.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1973-15

By Senators Atwood, Lewis (Harry), Newschwaender, Woodall and Stender:

WHEREAS, As Thirty-seventh President of the United States you have been recently inaugurated to your second term of office having received a decisive and overwhelming election victory; and

WHEREAS, The previous four years in the United States under your administration have been marked by major progress in the reduction of conflict at home and an increase in domestic tranquility through the implementation of significant social and economic programs and reforms that provide for a better way of life; and

WHEREAS, You have undertaken historic visits in an attempt to break down the overwhelming and depressing barriers which have existed between our country and other major nations in the world, and have made significant strides in the reduction of those barriers which will aid the economy and welfare of the entire country and of the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Your inaugural goals for the next four years and beyond spell out a new hope for mankind bringing down the walls of hostility and building bridges of understanding in their place; and

WHEREAS, Through four years of tedious, heartbreaking struggle, hard bargaining and firm resolve, resisting the pressures of the amateur military and foreign affairs experts who for the boon of personal popularity denounced you, you have nevertheless achieved a just and honorable peace in Viet Nam; and

WHEREAS, Your efforts for peace at home and abroad have shown great personal sacrifice, courage and devotion to the welfare of the United States and its people which transcend individual goals or programs of particular parties or politics.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate in legislative session assembled, do hereby congratulate Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States, for all of his above accomplishments.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Resolution be suitably engraved and transmitted to Richard M. Nixon, the President of the United States.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of former Senator Frances Haddon Morgan and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Walgren, Greive, Atwood, Woodall, Herr, Stender and Mardesich to escort the Honorable Senator Morgan to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Gentlemen of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is a rare privilege to have the opportunity to present Frances to you this morning. For the benefit of those who are in attendance in the galleries and the newer members of the Senate, the President should like to remind you that this very charming and capable lady served with distinction in the House of Representatives and in the State Senate. Incidentally, her mother also served in those two capacities. Frances enjoyed great success during her service to the people of her district and the state of Washington, and in addition has been a highly successful businesswoman in the Bremerton area and has been most active in charitable and philanthropic work. She has been especially helpful to those children who are less fortunate than most of us. She was born in Bremerton, is a member of the ladies Elks, Soroptimists, Parent-Teachers Association and the Washington Association for Retarded Children. Frances indeed has an illustrious career both behind her and ahead. And Frances, it is with the greatest pleasure that I present you to the Senate of the State of Washington, Frances Haddon Morgan."

REMARKS BY FORMER SENATOR FRANCES HADDON MORGAN

Senator Morgan: "Believe me, you are the finest people on earth. My mother told me this when I was in the House in '59 and Augie and Freddie and some of us were all over there and she said, 'You will enjoy the Senate. You really will love the Senate.' And I came in and I looked at these gentlemen in their club and I thought, no, that is not for me. But I learned and I have certainly known the great good that is in all of you. When I read the papers sometimes and see so much negativism, I still know the great positive that is in all of you. Without a single negative vote one night, you gentlemen all voted for our Olympic Center and so many other good causes in this state. And Augie marshalled through a hospital over at Lakeland Village in '59 over in the House. I remember Senator Greive and all the good that he has done. I look on all of you with a great deal of love and understanding and I am very happy to be in your august club, Senator Gordon Walgren who is our Senator from our district. He is the same age as one of my kids and I have known him since he was a little boy. That is right, isn't that Gordie? And I believe my mother helped hire both of his parents.

"I will conclude my remarks in saying I am glad to be here. I have never been brought up front before but I like to see your shining faces."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Frances. Those of us who had the privilege of serving with you remember you with the greatest affection, admiration and respect. And thank you so much for visiting us today."

The special committee escorted the honored guest from the rostrum.

MOTION

At 11:30 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Thursday, February 1, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Thursday, February 1, 1973.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Durkan, Murray and Whetzel. On motion of Senator Scott, Senators Murray and Whetzel were excused. On motion of Senator Donohue, Senator Durkan was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Charles Kasmir and Barbara Remington, presented the Colors. Reverend Robert M. Keller, pastor of The Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"FATHER, ALL THE MEN AND WOMEN IN THIS ROOM, YOUNG AND OLD, HERE ON THE FLOOR OR UP IN THESE GALLERIES, ARE YOUR CREATION. EACH UNIQUELY FASHIONED BY YOUR HAND AND GIVEN TO BREATH OF LIFE. FATHER, HELP US TO REMEMBER AS WE LOOK INTO EACH OTHER’S FACES AND EYES, HOW FRAGILE AND PRECIOUS LIFE IS, AND HELP US EVEN THOUGH WE MAY STRUGGLE OVER ISSUES AND CONCEPTS AND PROGRAMS TO TREAT ONE ANOTHER WITH THE DIGNITY AND RESPECT DUE YOUR HANDIWORK. WE PRAY THIS IN CHRIST’S NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: “I am sure the two visitors in the gallery from some other country should be told they are welcome here today. I know they are from some other country because they failed to place their hand over their hearts when the flag came by and no American would fail to do it.”

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2042, by Senators Francis, Twigg and Woodall:
Providing for allowances of attorneys' fees as costs in certain actions.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2042, providing for allowances of attorneys' fees as costs in certain actions (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 7, after “pleaded” and before the comma insert “by the prevailing party as hereinafter defined.”

On page 1, section 2, line 14, after “by the” strike “adverse party” and insert “plaintiff, or party seeking relief,”

On page 1, section 3, line 20, after “by” strike “said party” and insert “the defendant, or the party resisting relief,”

On page 1, section 4, line 23 after “rules” strike all the language down to, but not including the “period” on line 24.

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Clarke, Dore, Durkan, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 7.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: “Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, what is considered a reasonable attorney’s fee?”

Senator Francis: “Well, you have to present evidence of that to the court. You put in the number of hours worked, the amount involved and so forth. There are several other kinds of statutes now that provide reasonable attorney’s fees. In those cases the court decides it on the basis of the evidence before it.”

Senator Ridder: “Would the Senator yield to a question? Besides getting a court fee for this, is it possible to make some contract to get another fee, besides?”

Senator Francis: “Quite often, yes. But not besides. Quite often a case would be taken, say for an indigent plaintiff who has had his automobile damaged by someone who had no insurance. It might be taken on a one-third contingent fee. That is, the attorney would take it for a third of whatever he could collect for him. Well, if he collects more for him than the five hundred dollars actual damage, maybe he collects seven hundred, then his fee would be a third of the seven hundred rather than a third of the five hundred. No, he is not limited to the attorney’s fee that is granted but it is the total amount that would increase the recovery to both sides, to both the attorney and his client.”

Senator Stender: “Would Senator Francis yield? Senator, do I understand it would accrue to the client? This is a lawyers’ relief bill, isn’t it? In other words you have an agreement with your client for one-third and you won the case and got some more attorney’s fees, that would not accrue to the client, would it?”

Senator Francis: “It certainly could accrue to the client, Senator Stender. Another way of handling this, if the attorney and client have agreed that the attorney would handle it for, say one hundred and fifty dollars. The court awards the full hundred and fifty dollar attorney’s fee, then the client does not have to pay out of his share so he, in effect, gets one hundred and fifty dollars more. It may all accrue to the client’s benefit in other words. The second part about the attorney's relief, all I can say is I think of it as a taxpayer relief because the idea is to discourage trials of these small cases by encouraging settlement of them."

Senator Stender: "I just wanted to get your version of this straight in my mind. You say it would accrue as well to the client and I just wanted to pose a particular hypothetical situation. Say that you had a thousand dollar claim that would come under this act and you have agreed with your client to handle it for one-third. And you prevailed in the court and received attorney's fees. Do you mean to tell me that that attorney's fee that was awarded by the court could in part accrue to the client?"

Senator Francis: "Certainly, Senator Stender. The way it would work is this. If the agreement was for one-third, the judgment was for one thousand and the judge added an additional two hundred dollars as reasonable attorney's fees, then there would be a twelve hundred dollar judgment. In one of those contingent cases the attorney would then have to collect it which may involve a lot more work than what has ended up in court that day. If he collects the full twelve hundred his fee would be one-third of that and the client would get the rest. Yes, anytime the judgment is larger in a contingent fee case like that the client is going to get two-thirds of any additional amount."

Senator Stender: "In other words you are saying then that the court awarded attorney's fees would be a part of the judgment?"

Senator Francis: "That is correct."

Senator Stender: "Then it would run over a thousand dollars and would you be disqualified under the act?"

Senator Francis: "The way I read it, no. The jurisdiction of the court is based on the original plea, the original prayer for relief, and they can award attorney's fees over and above that."

The committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 7 was adopted.
On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments to sections 2, 3 and 4 were adopted.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2042 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2042 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yes, 44; nays, 1; excused, 4.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keeffe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalfe, Newschwaelder, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Riddier, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—44.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2042, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2246 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Friday, February 2, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2039, by Senators Francis and Woody:
Requiring ramps on curbs for physically handicapped.
REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2039, requiring ramps on curbs for physically handicapped (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

In section 1, line 10, after “block” and before “on” strike “giving”.

On line 10, following “on” and before “the” add “or near”.

In section 1, line 11, after “least” and before “inches” strike “forty” and add “thirty”.

On line 11, after “wide”, and before “and” add “at a slope not to exceed one-inch rise per eight-inch run”.

In section 1, line 13, after “persons” delete “and bicycles”.

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Gardner, Murray, Sellar, Talley, Walgren, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendments to section 1, line 10 were adopted.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to section 1, line 11, after “least” and before “inches” strike “forty” and add “thirty”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: “Would Senator Fleming yield? It seems so unusual that we would have this just to the bare minimum. You know today’s wheel chairs may not be the same tomorrow. And why, if we are putting something as permanent as concrete, do we want to fool around with a difference between thirty and forty inches in relation to this kind of measure?”

Senator Fleming: “Well basically, the cities and the people that are supporting the measure, the handicapped clubs and so forth, felt this would be ample. We cannot predict what is going to happen in the year 2000 but they felt as though this would be sufficient and they did feel as though the possibility of making wheel chairs past thirty or thirty-five inches wide was sort of remote.”

Senator Stender: “I might further ask, are you aware that they are now building a chair that is self-propelled? It possibly has a wider wheelbase.”

Senator Fleming: “Senator Stender, I am not aware of that but I am sure that the people that are involved, people such as the handicapped, sheltered workshops, retarded children, Seattle handicapped clubs, are aware of these kinds of problems. And I have no patent on this thirty or forty inches but this is what the committee felt would be appropriate size and this is the type of ramp and size of ramp that they have been using in other areas in Seattle and so forth.”

Senator Stender: “Do you have any idea what the difference in cost would be—between thirty and forty inches?”

Senator Fleming: “No. I know the cost for the ramp would approximately run about ten dollars apiece and my understanding from the city of Bellevue is that the ramps would cost less than the regular curbs because of using less cement.”

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

Amend the committee amendment to section 1, line 11 as follows: After “thirty” insert “six”.

The motion by Senator Fleming carried. The committee amendment to section 1, line 11, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to section 1, line 11, after “wide” and before “and” add “at a slope not to exceed one-inch rise per eight-inch run”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: “Would Mr. Fleming yield? How long would this ramp be?”
Senator Fleming: "I do not know. I would have to refer you to one of the prime sponsors."

Senator Canfield: "I am talking about a one-inch rise in eight. I just wanted to get the length of this ramp clearly in mind."

Senator Fleming: "It depends on how high your sidewalks would be."

Senator Canfield: "I am talking about an eight-inch rise."

Senator Fleming: "Not being an engineer, Senator Canfield, I could not answer. Maybe Senator Guess might want to answer."

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, it would be something over five feet and my question is whether it is necessary to have a five-foot ramp go up eight inches."

Senator Guess: "If I may, I would like to correct Senator Canfield. If it is one inch of rise per eight inches of width—and the term ‘run’ is strictly a colloquialism that I have never heard of—it should be one inch of rise per eight inches of horizontal measurement. It comes out the same but it is not the proper way of speaking of it. If you have an eight-inch high curb it is going to take sixty-four inches. And that is five feet and four inches."

Senator Canfield: "That was the point that I raised and I thought that Senator Guess said it was an error. Do you now say I was correct, Senator Guess? I understood you to say that my figures were in error. And my statement was I thought you would have to have a ramp something over five feet long and you said I was in error. Do you now say I was correct?"

Senator Guess: "You are correct."

Senator Canfield: "Thank you, Senator Guess."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the committee amendment to section 1, line 11, after "wide", and before "and", add "at a slope not to exceed one-inch rise per eight-inch run" was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendment to section 1, line 13, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2039 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jolly: "Will Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, I have a problem with the tenth line of this bill, ‘per lineal block’. Would you define a lineal block for me? The question that comes up in my mind is that my little town of Connell last summer built two sidewalks from the city limits to school. These two sidewalks are about a quarter of a mile long. Would that be classified as a lineal block under this bill? There are no intersections. Would they have to put two ramps in every three hundred feet as in a city block?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Jolly, the word ‘block’ here does not refer to a lineal distance but refers to the period between intersections and later in that same line it says, ‘at the crosswalks at intersections’. In other words the lineal blocks they are talking about, it does not matter how long the blocks are. The point is it is where another street crosses and there is an intersection that the ramp should be put in in any new construction or reconstruction."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2039 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar,
ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2039, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-19

By Senators Metcalf and Talley:

WHEREAS, The Meadowdale Senior High School Band and the Kelso High School Band have been invited to represent our State and Nation at the Second Annual Invitational Mexican Band Festival this spring; and

WHEREAS, This invitation to two bands from the Evergreen State does great honor to the musical achievement of these bands and of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to recognize these schools and their achievement and this honor done to our State and its citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That the Meadowdale Senior High School Band and the Kelso High School Band are officially recognized for their great achievement in receiving this honor from the Mexican Government; and that the support, encouragement and best wishes of the Senate are extended to the members of these two bands.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably inscribed copy of this resolution be prepared and forwarded to Meadowdale Senior High School and Kelso High School by the Secretary of the Senate.

PERMISSION GRANTED

Senator Peterson (Lowell) was given permission by the Senate Chamber on Thursday afternoon, February 8, 1973, for the purpose of a hearing on Indian Fishing Rights by the Committee on Natural Resources.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2246, by Senators Walgren, Sandison and Guess:
Requiring slow moving vehicles to turn off roadways under certain conditions.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2246, requiring slow moving vehicles to turn off roadways under certain conditions (reported by Committee on Transportation and Utilities):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 8, after "which" strike "three" and insert "five"
On page 1, section 1, line 13, after the period, add "The provisions of this section shall not apply to trucks carrying perishable commodities."
Signed by: Senators Walgren, Chairman; Henry, Vice Chairman; Stortini, Vice Chairman; Guess, Jolly, Knoblauch, Lewis (Bob), Matson, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sellar, Wanamaker, Whetzel.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Walgren, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8 was adopted.
Senator Walgren moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 13.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Matson yield? Senator, what are you getting at with this amendment that you placed on in committee pertaining to the perishables?"
Senator Matson: "Senator Donohue, we have a rather small number of special trucks that haul basically perishable fruit. During certain seasons of the year when it is quite warm, if these trucks had to pull off every time three or five cars got behind them they would be hours on the road getting any place. It is not a big problem but I think in this case, of course, it is a necessary amendment."
Senator Donohue: "I cannot understand this because we raise apples too and I did not understand why it was necessary to put it in the bill."
Senator Matson: "I do not think it is in the case of apples but we are talking about peaches and apricots and cherries which are extremely perishable commodities."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jolly: "Would Senator Matson yield? Senator Matson, how are these perishable trucks identified? If the state patrol saw one coming down the road and there were five or six cars behind him, they would have to pull him over to be identified? Are they easily identified?"

Senator Matson: "They are very easily identified. Most of them, in fact nearly all of them are the straddle type trucks and carriers. There is nothing else on the road like them. They are a specialty truck for that purpose."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Will Senator Matson yield? Would it be possible to perhaps tighten the definition of a perishable product? I think the way you have explained it here on the floor there would only be several products involved and yet I can visualize any number of other agricultural products that are only semi-perishable. We do not establish the degree. It seems to me that this amendment might be tightened somewhat so that it could take care of the particular problem you are interested in without making it so broad that many other types of vehicles would be involved."

Senator Matson: "Well that is entirely possible if someone would like to hold the bill over and we can work on that amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senate Bill No. 2246, the adopted committee amendment, and the pending committee amendment were ordered placed at the end of the second reading calendar for today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2111, by Senators Stender, Greive, Connor, Marsh and Dore: Implementing law relating to credit unions.

On motion of Senator Dore, Senate Bill No. 2111 and the pending committee amendments were ordered held following consideration of Senate Bill No. 2033.

On motion of Senator Odegard, Senate Bill No. 2033 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 5, 1973.

MOTION

At 11:10 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 10:30 a.m., Monday, February 5, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore, Durkan, Francis, Guess and Jones. On motion of Senator Keefe, Senator Durkan was excused. On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Jones was excused. There being no objection, Senators Dore, Francis and Guess were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages John Cleary and Eleanor Bowden, presented the Colors. Reverend William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"GOD, CREATOR AND LAWGIVER, THE MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE ARE SEEKING TO ENACT LAWS FOR THE GOOD OF THE PEOPLE IN THIS STATE. THROUGH THE CENTURIES MEN HAVE ENDURED LAWS MADE BY TYRANTS AND DICTATORS, LAWS THAT WERE CRUEL, UNJUST AND INHUMAN. HERE IN THIS CHAMBER MEN WITH DIFFERENT RELIGIOUS BACKGROUNDS SEEK TO ENACT LAWS THAT ARE JUST AND RESPECT THE BASIC RIGHTS OF EACH INDIVIDUAL. PROSPER THEIR EFFORTS, WE PRAY. AS WE GIVE THANKS FOR PEACE IN VIETNAM AND HOPE BROTHER WILL BE RECONCILED TO BROTHER IN THAT TROUBLED COUNTRY, WE PRAY FOR THY ASSISTANCE IN RECONCILING AND REUNITING US THAT IN SPITE OF OUR POLITICAL DIFFERENCES, WE MAY JOIN TOGETHER IN COMMON EFFORTS TO SERVE ALL THE CITIZENS OF OUR STATE. AMEN."
MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: “Would Senator Wanamaker yield? What if any effect would this enactment have upon the proposed third bridge across Lake Washington? If, for instance, the other impediments are removed and the go-ahead is received for that bridge, would it then be permissible under this bill for the Highway Commission to adopt other priorities or would this have any effect upon that particular project?”

Senator Wanamaker: “It would have no effect on that particular project nor would it change any other project. It is still up to the Highway Commission and they would not be able to divert. That has already been gone through. It would make no difference in this present biennium.”
Senator Clarke: "If I understand you correctly that money has already been allocated and could not be diverted even with the passage of this bill."

Senator Wanamaker: "That is right."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2136 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

SENATE BILL NO. 2146, by Senators Gardner, Sellar, Walgren and Twigg (by Municipal Committee request):
Permitting the chief of the Washington state patrol to employ special deputies.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2146, permitting the chief of the Washington state patrol to employ special deputies (reported by Committee on State Government):
Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
In section 1, line 13, after "employees" and before "the" strike "to" and insert "of".
Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Day, Henry, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Scott, Wanamaker.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 17, after "not" and before "qualify" strike "be deemed to" and on line 19 after "it" and before "grant" strike "be construed to."

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2146 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, with the purpose of getting Senator Gardner's testimony in the record, I would like to have the permission of the Senate to ask him a question. Senator Gardner, would you describe the intent of the legislation before us please."

Senator Gardner: "The intent of the legislation is twofold. One, within the state department there is a drug detection unit and currently in work pursuing drug distribution problems the state patrol has not had the authority to deputize its agents to go in to perform a specialized form of work. The local sheriff and state municipal and municipal chiefs have requested that the chief of the state patrol be allowed to do this deputization himself. And the intent of the bill is that employees that are currently on the payroll, not new employees, will be deputized in certain specific circumstances to perform specific duties which when completed will then be taken off of the deputization.
"There is a second intent to the bill which is with terms of the weight control stations around the state. These weight control personnel have been issuing citations but it is pretty clear in the law that they are not by law authorized to do so. This would in essence clear that problem up."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2146 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; excused, 5.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Francis, Guess, Jones—5.

SENATE BILL NO. 2053, by Senators Grant, Durkan and Matson:
Changing date for organizational meeting of county central committees.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2053, changing date for organizational meeting of county central committees (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

In section 1, beginning on line 10, after "organization at" strike "the county court house at two o'clock p.m." and insert "[the county court house at two o'clock p.m.] an easily accessible location within the county with the meeting commencing between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m."

In section 1, line 12, after "election" and before "[unless]" insert "in the odd-numbered year"

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Metcalf, Stender, Stortini, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendments were not adopted.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 9, after "county." strike all the material down to and including "notice]." on line 17 and insert: "[This committee shall meet for the purpose of organization at the county court house at two o'clock p.m. on the second Saturday in December after each state general election unless some other time and place are designated by a sufficient notice to all the newly elected committee members by the authorized officers of the retiring committee. For the purpose of this paragraph, a notice mailed at least seventy-two hours prior to the date of the meeting shall constitute sufficient notice.] Following each state general election held in even-numbered years, this committee shall meet for the purpose of organization at an easily accessible location within the county, subsequent to the certification of precinct committee members by the county auditor and no later than the second Saturday of the following January. The authorized officers of the retiring committee shall cause notice of the time and place of such meeting to be mailed to each precinct committee member at least seventy-two hours prior to the date of the meeting."

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2053 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, I note in the last paragraph it says they shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman who must be of opposite sexes. My question is this, in the event that a woman were to be elected chairman, would this be discrimination against women if some other woman could not be elected vice chairman?"

Senator Grant: "That is the present law, Senator Rasmussen, that they must be of opposite sexes, and I do not think there would be any problem. There would be equal representation."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2053, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Francis, Guess, Jones—4.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Francis, Guess, Jones—4.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sandison, the appointment of JAMES FURMAN as a member of the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF JAMES FURMAN

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Francis, Guess, Jones—4.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President and members of the Senate, with the permission of the Senate I would like the record to show that Senator Guess, who was excused today, is attending a committee meeting in Phoenix, Arizona, which is writing an interstate compact on workman's compensation. Senator Guess is the only representative on the committee from the Northwest and I would like to have that in the record, with the permission of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, the members of the State Government Committee would like a little additional time, about one week, to consider the changes in the Nixon resolution. We have had considerable difficulty contacting the Executive. He has been flitting from Biscayne to California and Kissinger is on his way and we are not able to contact him, but we are working very fast on that project and it just is going to take a little more time. If the Senate would grant us an additional week."

Debate ensued.

There being no further objection, the Senate Committee on State Government was given an additional week to consider Senate Resolution 1973-15.

MOTION

At 12:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, February 6, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Philip Devitte and Diane Simonton, presented the Colors. Reverend William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"GOD, CREATOR AND FATHER OF US ALL, YOU ARE THE GIVER OF UNITY. WE SEE IN THE HUMAN FAMILY THE TERRIBLE CONSEQUENCES OF DISUNITY COMPOUNDED BY RELIGIOUS PREJUDICE IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND IN NORTHERN IRELAND. HELP THE MEMBERS OF THIS LEGISLATURE TO OVERCOME THE PREJUDICES DEEP DOWN IN ALL OF US, THAT WE TRY TO HIDE EVEN FROM OURSELVES, PREJUDICES WHICH MANIFEST THEMSELVES IN THE LAWS WE SEEK TO HAVE ENACTED, IN THE LAWS THAT WE DO NOT LEGITIMATELY SEEK TO CHANGE. GIVE US THY SPIRIT LORD, TO HELP US TO UNDERSTAND THE NEEDS OF OTHERS AND NEVER TO USE RELIGION, BUSINESS FELLOWSHIP, OR POLITICAL POWER TO INTERFERE WITH THE RIGHTS WITH WHICH ALL PEOPLE ARE ENDOURED BY YOU, OUR CREATOR. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SENATE BILL NO. 2174, by Senators Walgren, Sandison, Twigg and Stortini (by Joint Committee on Higher Education and by Municipal Committee request):

Setting forth minimum standards for police forces of state colleges and universities.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Sandison, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2174 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

At 10:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

There being no objection, Senators Odegaard, Day, Marsh and Greive were excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of gubernatorial appointments.

CONFIRMATIONS OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sandison, the appointment of JOHN B. TROUP as a member of the Higher Education Personnel Board was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF JOHN B. TROUP

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 6.
Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Murray—2.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the appointment of SAM KINVILLE as a member of the State Personnel Board was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF SAM KINVILLE

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 6.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesch, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwaner, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—42.
Absent or not voting: Senator Murray—1.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Members of the Senate, I have had circulated on your desks the amendment to Senate Bill No. 2033 which we have held on the calendar until tomorrow. Because the amendments are quite lengthy I asked that they be circulated today. This is the bill that has to do with punch card voting and these are amendments that were prepared to clarify this situation. I would suggest that you look them over ahead of the session tomorrow.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: “Would Senator Lewis yield to a question? These amendments are quite long and complicated. I wonder if it would not be good procedure to send it back to the committee and to have the committee do it rather than try to labor through it here on the floor.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Dore, I discussed this with the sponsor, Senator Odegaard, as well as members of both caucuses here in the Senate. I have enclosed a digest of the floor amendment. The floor amendment, while it is lengthy, is really in reality quite a simple one. I have no great desire to hold up the legislation and it was Senator Odegaard’s feeling that we should try to handle this amendment on the floor. However, if you feel it is such that it should be considered by the committee, I have no objection but I would suggest you check with your own caucus member, Senator Odegaard.”

NOTICE FROM SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington served notice that on Thursday, February 8, 1973 he would move for consideration by the Senate of a Rule change. Senator Washington had previously served notice that he would move for consideration on Tuesday, February 6, 1973.

THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2174, by Senators Walgren, Sandison, Twigg and Stortini (by Joint Committee on Higher Education and by Municipal Committee request):
Setting forth minimum standards for police forces of state colleges and universities.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator Sandison, for the record, so that there will be no doubt as to the intent of the legislature, is it not your position that this bill not only would not authorize these people to fall under the LEFF retirement system but in fact it is the intention of the legislature specifically to not include them under that act by the passage of this measure?"
Senator Sandison: "That is a correct statement."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2174, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaner, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—42.

Voting nay: Senators Durkan, Rasmussen, Ridder—3.
Absent or not voting: Senators Herr, Talley, Whetzel—3.
Excused: Senator Dore—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2174, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2386.

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Whetzel was excused.
SECOND READING

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Stender, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2386 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2386, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody--46.
Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming--1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2386, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Stender, Senate Bill No. 2386 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Mrs. Ernest Lennart, wife of former Senator Ernest Lennart, and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Woodall, Canfield, Atwood, Guess, Keefe, Greive, Peterson (Ted) and Knoblauch to escort Mrs. Lennart to a place of honor upon the rostrum. With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Mrs. Lennart to speak to the Senate.
The special committee escorted the honored guest from the Senate Chamber.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2106, by Senators Donohue and Lewis (Harry) (by Executive request):
Adopting the supplemental budget.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2106, and the substitute bill was read the second time in full.
Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore, Ridder, Stortini, Washington, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Connor:
On page 1, section 2, line 17, strike all the material down through and including "$10,732,139" on page 2, line 11 and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION Sec. 2. FOR THE GOVERNOR—SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS
Based upon the salary schedule in effect on January 1, 1973 the governor shall allot the amounts necessary for a salary adjustment of $40 per month effective February 1, 1973: For all state employees except faculty and exempt staff of community colleges and certificated staff of local school districts.

General Fund Appropriation ........................................ $10,139,660"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, is this an increase in pay for employees from February through June, 1973?"

Senator Durkan: "That is correct."

Senator Woodall: "Is the theory that there has been a cost of living increase which has made this necessary? That is the theory for the justification?"

Senator Durkan: "That is correct."

Senator Woodall: "Don't you think the man who is already getting twenty or twenty-five thousand can limp along the next five months with only a forty dollar increase the same as the man who is earning six thousand is going to have to get by on forty dollars for the next five months?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, that is the argument Senator Ridder makes and it is a telling argument and I think there is an honest difference of opinion between Senator Ridder and myself. I think that I have listened to the arguments, both pro and con, on it. I told the Governor that I would present his views on the Senate floor and that I support them. In direct response, I honestly believe that this is not an unfair approach."

Senator Woodall: "Some of these people who are very anxiously taking these new appointments are happy to take them at their present pay of twenty-three thousand. They are asking us to immediately confirm them. They suddenly get a four percent increase over what they are getting the minute we swore them in. Is that correct under this?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, let me answer you. That in a sense will be correct but it is not untrue of legislators also. We have been elected and there are those who are sitting on the floor now and who are looking for salary increases. So it is not fair to pick out appointed officials nor is it fair to pick out state employees and make this criticism. I think it is a criticism which if it is to be made can be made against all those who depend upon state government for income."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator Atwood, do we in the legislature set the salaries at the various colleges?"

Senator Atwood: "No, we do not."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, the Ways and Means measure gives these increases to all state employees except faculty and exempt staff of institutions of higher learning and classified local school districts."

Senator Ridder: "All this comes back in the second part and it has a proviso to limit it to a million and a half."

Senator Canfield: "Well, I am not through with my question yet. On your amendment you say it is for all state employees except faculty and exempt staff at community colleges, and certificated staff of local school districts. So, if I read this correctly you can still give this increase to the faculty of the University of Washington, for instance. So you are not really getting at the high paid people because they would get it."

Senator Ridder: "Well, we would be giving them the forty dollars. It is forty dollars for everyone."

Senator Canfield: "It does not say that, does it?"

Senator Ridder: "Well then I would ..."
Washington, for instance, but you are not going to give it to the faculty and exempt staff at community colleges and certificated staff of local school districts. So my question is, it is not clear to me exactly to whom you expect these increases to be given."

Senator Ridder: "The increases would not go to faculty and exempt staff of community colleges and certificated staff of local school districts because they have contracts. And it is impossible to give them this raise under the federal guidelines. However, if this does not speak to the needs of higher education, then I would suggest that we hold this bill and we draft an amendment to include them if we have left them out. My understanding was this took care of it, Senator."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 2106 and the pending amendment by Senators Dore, Ridder, Stortini, Washington, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Connor were made a special order of business for 1:30 today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2111, by Senators Stender, Greive, Connor, Marsh and Dore:
Implementing law relating to credit unions.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2111. The committee amendment to page 5, section 6, beginning on line 22 was adopted February 2, 1973.
On February 5, 1973, Senator Dore moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, section 10, beginning on line 30. On motion of Senator Dore on February 5, 1973, an amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, section 10, beginning on line 10, as amended.

MOTIONS

Senator Greive moved that Senate Bill No. 2111 and the pending committee amendments be returned to the Committee on Financial Institutions.
Senator Talley moved that the motion by Senator Greive be amended that the Committee on Financial Institutions report back within five days.
The motion by Senator Greive, as amended by Senator Talley, carried. Senate Bill No. 2111 and the pending committee amendments were returned to the Committee on Financial Institutions.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2339, by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted) and Sandison (by Interim Committee on Fisheries, Game and Game Fish request):
Creating an advisory council to the department of fisheries.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the following amendments were adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 23, after "jurisdictions" and before the period insert ":
PROVIDED, That any expenses incurred pursuant to this subsection shall not be reimbursable pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of this act"
On page 2, section 2, line 2 after "game fish" and before the period insert "or if such committee is not in existence, then such appointments shall be made by a concurring vote of the senate and house standing committees on natural resources"
Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 2, line 1, after the comma, strike "by the legislative interim committee on fisheries, game, and game fish" and insert "by the Governor"

MOTION

At 11:55 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.
THIRTY-FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1973

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2106, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Donohue and Lewis (Harry) (by Executive request):
Adopting the supplemental budget.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106 and the pending amendment by Senators Dore, Ridder, Stortini, Washington, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Connor.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, the amendment by Senators Dore, Ridder, Stortini, Washington, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Connor was withdrawn.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore, Ridder, Stortini, Washington, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Connor:

On page 1, section 2, line 17, strike all the material down through and including "$10,732,139" on page 2, line 11 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. FOR THE GOVERNOR—SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS

Based upon the salary schedule in effect on January 1, 1973 the governor shall allot the amounts necessary for a salary adjustment of $40 per month effective February 1, 1973: For all local school district classified employees, for all employees of four year units of higher education, and for all state employees except faculty and exempt staff of community colleges and certificated staff of local school districts.

General Fund Appropriation

.................................................. $10,139,600"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, in the event this amendment is adopted, do you have another amendment that would kill all pay raises for state employees pending?"

Senator Ridder: "I do have one up there. It would be my judgment that if this passes ....

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Thank you, Senator Ridder. That was the only question I had to ask you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Ridder yield further? Senator Ridder, in the wording of your new amendment, I think these definitions that we are using here are a little bit different than we are in the habit of using. We have been talking about certificated personnel and non-certificated and now you are talking about classified employees. You are talking about employees of four-year units of higher education. And in discussing this matter with you a little while ago I believe that your interpretation of an employee of a four-year unit of higher education includes the professors and so on, the teachers, in other words. Is that correct?"

Senator Ridder: "Right."

Senator Canfield: "And so I would like for you to carefully explain that these so-called classified employees and employees and state employees are in fact all employees, teachers and non-certificated and all."

Senator Ridder: "The term classified is interchangeable with non-certificated. In other words, everyone not having a valid teaching certificate is non-certificated or classified."

Senator Canfield: "But all the teachers are employees as you are interpreting it here."

Senator Ridder: "But they are called certificated employees. This distinguishes them between classified and certificated."
Senator Canfield: “Are you making a distinction here?”
Senator Ridder: “There is a great distinction.”
Senator Canfield: “For all local school districts classified employees. Then whom does that apply to specifically?”
Senator Ridder: “Under the Attorney General’s ruling, all employees in higher education. They do not hold certification as such. They hold various degrees but they are hired by the university and therefore become employees of the state government.”
Senator Canfield: “They are teachers and professors, are they not?”
Senator Ridder: “Yes, but they are hired in a completely different way. They are not certificated.”
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, the statement you made concerned those higher salaried officials that were leaving because salaries were higher in other states. Does the legislature set those salaries?” Senator Donohue: “Senator Rasmussen, the legislature appropriates the money and this money is distributed by the board of regents at the university, but not to exceed four percent in this case. It is at their discretion. If they have an individual that they feel that is the type of individual that they want to retain and that is very much needed in a certain department, then they have the prerogative of giving him more money. If they have an individual who they think is not competent they have the prerogative of not giving him any raise, or a lesser amount.”
Debate ensued.
Senator Greive demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Stortini and Mardesich.
Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bailey, Atwood, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Connor, Wanamaker, Clarke, Washington and Kno blauch.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Metcalf was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Dore, Ridder, Stortini, Washington, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Connor was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Jolly, Keefe, Kno blauch, Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Odeg aard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Seilar, Stender, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Washington, Woodall,

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Durkan, Gardner, Guess, Herr, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Matson, Murray, Newschwan der, Peterson (Ted), Sandison,

Absent or not voting: Senator Henry—1.

Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Odeg aard and Donohue:

On page 6, section 7, line 16, after “1973” insert “: PROVIDED, That the funds herein appropriated are to be utilized for the purpose of providing early implementation of a five percent cost of living increase for Old Age Assistance categorical recipients insofar as the effects of cost of living increases have had a greater impact upon that category of recipients than upon any other category of recipients: PROVIDED FURTHER, That to the extent that RCW 74.08.040 might be construed to be in conflict with the intent of the Legislature respecting grant standards for Old Age Assistance recipients the statute shall be liberally construed to effectuate these purposes”
THIRTY-FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, since I was the first person to raise the question as to whether or not the language used would do what we all intended that it do, let me pose a hypothetical question for legislative intent. If an old age recipient would be entitled to receive one hundred and fifty dollars from the department of public assistance and if that person were not receiving any pension or social security, would this five percent increase be based upon that one hundred and fifty dollars or an amount less than one hundred and fifty if social security were to be subtracted?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, it will be an average of five percent and the social security will not be treated as a resource."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Murray moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Murray, Whetzel, Scott and Jones:

Debate ensued.

Senator Scott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Peterson (Ted), Stender, Jones, Whetzel, Washington, Day, Bottiger and Donohue.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Murray, Whetzel, Scott and Jones was not adopted by the following vote: Yea, 10; nays, 37; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Newschwaner, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall, Woody—37.

Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question for the record? Senator Durkan, the employees of the supreme court are exempt employees and I am wondering whether this bill includes those people as distinguished from judges under the . . . ."

Senator Durkan: "The answer, Senator Mardesich, is that we have checked and it is the intent of the legislature that the employees of the supreme court would be included in this. The amount is forty-five hundred dollars and it does not include the supreme court itself. It is the employees of the supreme court and I have talked to Senator Ridder and his amendment is all encompassing so it would be included under this."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, speaking under a point of personal privilege, there should be no misunderstanding on those of us who did not vote to include Senator Murray's amendment. We are dedicated to the fact that this initiative shall be fully funded, shall be fully operable and the disagreement between us was the method by which it will be done. The Governor can implement it immediately. There is not any question about the fact that the funds can be used. And the fact that some of us voted no on your amendment does not in any way, and I hope that you will understand, indicate that we are not prepared to see to it that the initiative is fully funded in the main bill."
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 9; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Clarke, Francis, Jones, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Sellar, Wanamaker – 9.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2106, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERMISSION GRANTED

Senator Grant was given permission to use the Senate Chambers on Monday night, February 12, 1973 for the purpose of a hearing on presidential preference primaries.

MOTION

At 2:20 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Thursday, February 8, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
THIRTY-SECOND DAY

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I will be a little out of order and make the speech before I make the motion.

"Gentlemen, for your information we will be meeting this Saturday at 9:30 a.m. and working until at least early afternoon on a calendar. You are aware that we have committee meetings scheduled for 10:30. We are late right now for committee meetings.

"Those committees which have been meeting at the ten-thirty to twelve-thirty hour on Tuesdays and Thursdays will no longer hold morning meetings. They will be rescheduled to the afternoon two to four period. Those afternoon meetings scheduled from two to four p.m. will be reduced to one hour. One hour will be allocated for those committees that are now scheduled from the ten-thirty to twelve-thirty meetings. The purpose for this is to allow us to spend every morning on floor action on bills.

"You are well aware that this weekend is the last day which you will be allowed to introduce bills. We have only next week to act on Senate bills so what we are doing is clearing the mornings for floor action. We are also very possibly facing evening meetings at least two days of the week. We are not certain yet what days, possibly Tuesday and Thursday. But in any event, that possibility is very strong that we may have a couple of evening meetings for floor action if we are not able to clear our calendar fast enough. So that you may schedule yourself, you be aware that we will be meeting 9:30 Saturday, working until the early afternoon and then every morning from now on we will be on floor action from 9:30 until 12:30."

MOTION

At 10:45 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Friday, February 9, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
THIRTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Atwood, Dore and Scott. On motion of Senator Newschwaner, Senators Atwood and Scott were excused. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Bill Talley and Janet Wend, presented the Colors. Reverend Thomas Hesselbrock, associate pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"FATHER, GIVE US COURAGE: THE COURAGE TO SEE THINGS AS THEY REALLY ARE, THE COURAGE TO FORM OUR PRINCIPLES ACCORDING TO YOUR DECREES AND LAWS AND TO STAND UP FOR THOSE PRINCIPLES AT ALL TIMES, AND THE COURAGE TO TRY TO UNITE THE REALITY WE SEE AND THE PRINCIPLES WE BELIEVE. MAY OUR VERY LIVES AND OUR SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE WE GOVERN REFLECT THAT UNITY, AND BRING ALL OF US CLOSER TO THE REALIZATION OF THE PEACE YOU HAVE PROMISED. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2339, by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted) and Sandison (by Interim Committee on Fisheries, Game and Game Fish request):

Creating an advisory council to the department of fisheries.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2339 on second reading. Amendments to page 1, section 1, line 23 and page 2, section 2, line 2 by Senator Peterson (Lowell) were adopted on February 7, 1973. An amendment to page 2, section 2, line 1 by Senator Lewis (Harry) was moved for adoption on February 7, 1973. There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) was withdrawn.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 1, after the comma, strike "by the legislative interim committee on fisheries, game, and game fish" and the Peterson amendment inserting "or if such committee is not in existence, then such appointments shall be made by a concurring vote of the senate and house standing committees on natural resources" and insert "by the Governor"

Debate ensued.

Senators Greive, Bailey and Day demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Atwood, Dore and Scott who had previously been excused. On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Ted Peterson yield to a question? Senator, what is the name of the present committee or commission that the Governor appoints?"

Senator Peterson (Ted): "It just says it is the Governor's Fisheries Commission. It does not say it is an advisory council or any terminology like that. I have not even seen them in print anywhere and I do not even know who the members are."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Was this created by the legislature, this commission?"

Senator Peterson (Ted): "No, no, no."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Thank you, Senator Peterson."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) be laid upon the table.

Senator Lewis (Harry) demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Connor, Guess, Rasmussen, Clarke, Jones, Newschwaner, Murray, Herr and Wanamaker.

Excused: Senators Atwood, Dore, Scott—3.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 2, line 1, after "state," and before "by" insert "at least one member of whom shall, whenever possible, be of Indian or other minority extraction."
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 2, line 7, after "fish" and before the period insert "or if such committee is not in existence, then the chairman of the respective senate and house committees on natural resources shall be nonvoting members of the council and shall serve as liaison between the advisory council and their respective standing committees."
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 2, line 14, strike the period and insert "PROVIDED, That four of the nine members initially appointed shall be appointed for a one-year term and five of the nine members initially appointed shall be appointed for a two-year term."
Senator Peterson (Lowell) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 3, line 22 after "fish" and before "a" insert "or if such committee is not in existence, then to the respective natural resources committees of the house and senate."
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Peterson (Lowell) to page 2, section 3, line 22 was adopted:
Amend the Peterson amendment on page 2, section 3, line 22, on line 4 of the amendment after "senate," insert "and to the legislature"
The motion by Senator Peterson (Lowell) carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2339 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2339, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 14; excused, 2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2339, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2033, by Senator Odegaard:
Recounting of state ballot measures to be at state expense.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2033, recounting of state ballot measures to be at state expense (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

In section 1, line 6, beginning with “Whenever” strike all the material down to and including “expense.” on line 13 and insert:

“When the official canvass of returns of any election reveals that the difference in the number of votes cast for the approval of a statewide measure and the number of votes cast for the rejection of such measure is not more than one-half of one percent of the total number of votes cast on such measure, the secretary of state shall direct that a recount of all votes cast on such measure be made on such measure, in the manner provided by RCW 29.64.030 and 29.64.040, and the cost of such recount shall be at state expense.”

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Metcalf, Stender, Stortini, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Odegard moved adoption of the committee amendment.
Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Odegard carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Lewis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, following section 1 insert a new section as follows: “Section 2. Sec. 29.64.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.64.030 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time and place fixed for making a recount of paper ballots, the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives, in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the sealed containers containing the ballots to be recounted, and shall recount them. Ballots shall be handled only by the members of the canvassing board, their duly authorized representatives or by the clerk or other employees of the board. Witnesses shall be permitted to see the ballots but they shall not be permitted to touch them, and the canvassing board shall not permit the counting or tabulation of votes shown on the ballots for any nomination, or for election to any office or position, or upon any question or proposition, other than the votes shown on such ballots for the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount of ballots was applied for.

At the time and place fixed for making a recheck of the votes cast on voting machines the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the voting machines to be rechecked, and shall recheck them. Witnesses shall be permitted to watch the recheck of the voting machines, and the canvassing board shall not permit the rechecking of votes for any nomination, or for election to any office or position, or upon any question or proposition, other than the votes shown on such voting machines for the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount of voting machines was applied for.

At the time and place fixed for making a verification of the votes cast by punchcard ballots, the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall select at random a number of precincts equal to five percent of the total number of such precincts or fifty of such precincts, whichever number is the smaller. The punchcard ballots cast at such precincts shall be manually counted by persons equally representing each major political party appointed by and under the direction of the county auditor or officer charged with the conduct of such election. If the total results of such manual count combined with the count of the applicable absentee, questioned, and challenged ballots involved can be reconciled within one-half of one percent of the official election returns for such precincts, and such difference would not change the outcome of the election, no further recount shall be made and the election returns as reported for the remaining punchcard voting precincts shall be deemed to have been verified. However, if the results of such manual recount cannot be so reconciled with the official returns, the county canvassing board shall direct that either:

(a) All the remaining punchcard ballots be manually counted or;
(b) A new computer program be prepared at county expense and subject to certification as provided by chapter 29.34 RCW and that all punchcard ballots voted at the election concerned be recounted by computer by use of such new program and the results of such count shall be deemed the final and official election returns.

At any time before the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for the recount have been recounted, the applicant may file with the board a written request to stop the recount and not recount the ballots from the precincts so listed and which have not been recounted prior to the time of such request: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to a recount when a recount is being made of any regular or special district election whereat the precincts were consolidated and as a result thereof the application for a recount embraced all ballots cast at such election.

If, upon such request, the board finds that the results of the votes in the precincts recounted, if substituted for the results of the votes in such precincts as shown in the abstract of the votes in such precincts, would not cause the applicant, if a person for whom votes were cast for nomination or election, to be declared nominated or elected or if an election upon a question or proposition would not cause a result contrary to the result thereof as declared prior to such recount, it shall grant such request and shall not recount the ballots of the precincts listed in the application for recount which have not been recounted prior to such time. If the board finds otherwise, it may deny such request and shall continue to recount ballots until the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for recount have been recounted: PROVIDED, That if such request is denied it may be renewed from time to time. Upon any such renewal the board shall consider and act upon the request in the same manner as provided in this section in connection with an original request.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: “I contend that this particular amendment enlarges the scope and object of the bill. It deals with other than statewide measures. The procedure for recounting punchcard voting which is not in any way included in the original measure.”

Providing for mandatory death penalty in specified cases.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2077, providing for mandatory death penalty in specified cases (reported by Judiciary Committee):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, line 15, after “officer” insert “in uniform”
Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Dore, Greive, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Woodall, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 1, line 2, insert a new subsection to read as follows:
“(6) The victim was killed without design to effect death by a person engaged in the commission of or in an attempt to commit, or in withdrawing from the scene of, a robbery, rape, burglary, larceny, or arson in the first degree.”
Debate ensued.
Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen:
On page 2, section 1, line 1, strike “without” and insert “with”
Further debate ensued.
The amendment by Senator Ridder to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was not adopted on a rising vote.
The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to page 2, section 1, line 2 was not adopted.
Senator Knoblauch moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 1, line 2, following line 2 insert a new subparagraph to read as follows:
“(6) The defendant has caused the death of a person by selling heroin to the victim.”
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Knoblauch failed and the amendment to page 2, section 1, line 2 was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Senator Stender was excused.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment was adopted:
After Section 4, add the following sections:
“Sec. 5. Section 16, page 78, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 2, chapter 49, Laws of 1970 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:
Any homicide other than, murder in the first degree, [or] murder in the second degree, or murder in the third degree, and not being excusable or justifiable is manslaughter.
Manslaughter is punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both fine and imprisonment.
Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1955 and RCW 9.95.010 are each amended to read as follows:
When a person is convicted of any felony, except treason, murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, or carnal knowledge of a child under ten years, and a new trial is not granted, the court shall sentence such person to the penitentiary, or, if the law allows and the court sees fit to exercise such discretion, to the reformatory, and shall fix the maximum term of such person’s sentence only.
The maximum term to be fixed by the court shall be the maximum provided by law for the crime of which such person was convicted, if the law provides for a maximum term. If the law does not provide a maximum term for the crime of which such person was convicted the court shall fix such maximum term, which may be for any number of years up to and including life imprisonment but in any case where the maximum term is fixed by the court it shall be fixed at not less than twenty years.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 133, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1961 and RCW 9.95.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Within six months after the admission of a convicted person to the penitentiary, reformatory, or such other state penal institution as may hereafter be established, the board of prison terms and paroles shall fix the duration of his confinement. The term of imprisonment so fixed shall not exceed the maximum provided by law for the offense of which he was convicted or the maximum fixed by the court where the law does not provide for a maximum term.

The following limitations are placed on the board of prison terms and paroles with regard to fixing the duration of confinement in certain cases, notwithstanding any provisions of law specifying a lesser sentence, to wit:

1) For a person not previously convicted of a felony but armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of his offense, the duration of confinement shall not be fixed at less than five years.

2) For a person previously convicted of a felony either in this state or elsewhere and who was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of his offense, the duration of confinement shall not be fixed at less than seven and one-half years.

The words “deadly weapon,” as used in this section include, but are not limited to, any instrument known as a blackjack, sling shot, billy, sand club, sandbox, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than three inches, any razor with an unguarded blade, and any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club, any explosive, and any weapon containing poisonous or injurious gas.

3) For a person convicted of being an habitual criminal within the meaning of the statute which provides for mandatory life imprisonment for such habitual criminals, the duration of confinement shall not be fixed at less than fifteen years. The board shall retain jurisdiction over such convicted person throughout his natural life unless the governor by appropriate executive action orders otherwise.

4) Any person convicted of embezzling funds from any institution of public deposit of which he was an officer or stockholder, the duration of confinement shall be fixed at not less than five years.

Except when an inmate of the reformatory, penitentiary or such other penal institution as may hereafter be established, has been convicted of murder in the [first or] second or third degree, the board may parole an inmate prior to the expiration of a mandatory minimum term, provided such inmate has demonstrated a meritorious effort in rehabilitation and at least four board members concur in such action: PROVIDED, That any inmate who has a mandatory minimum term and is paroled prior to the expiration of such term according to the provisions of this chapter shall not receive a conditional release from supervision while on parole until after the mandatory minimum term has expired.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 239, Laws of 1951 and RCW 9.95.055 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of prison terms and paroles is hereby granted authority, in the event of a declaration by the governor that a war emergency exists, including a general mobilization, and for the duration thereof only, to reduce downward the minimum term, as set by the board, of any inmate confined in the Washington state penitentiary or reformatory, who will be accepted by and inducted into the armed services: PROVIDED, That a reduction downward shall not be made under this section for those inmates who are confined for treason, murder in the [first] second degree or carnal knowledge of a female child under ten years: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no such inmate shall be released under this section who is found to be a sexual psychopath under the provisions of and as defined by chapter 71.12.

Sec. 9. Section 58, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 10.19.010 are each amended to read as follows:
Every person charged with an offense, except that of murder in the first or second degree where the proof is evident or the presumption great, may be bailed by sufficient sureties, and bail shall justify and have the same rights as in civil cases, except as otherwise provided by law. The amount of bail in each case shall be determined by the court in its discretion and may from time to time be increased or decreased as circumstances may justify.

Sec. 10. Section 87, page 115, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1062, Code of 1881 and RCW 10.49.010 are each amended to read as follows:

If, on the arraignment of any person, he shall plead guilty, if the offense charged be not murder, the court shall, in their discretion, hear testimony, and determine the amount and kind of punishment to be inflicted; but if the defendant plead guilty to a charge of murder, a jury shall be impaneled to hear testimony, and determine the degree of murder and the punishment therefor: PROVIDED, That the jury shall not determine the punishment for murder in the first degree."

Renumber section 5 as section 11.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Before we leave second reading, would Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator Woodall, I understand that the contention is that there must be a premeditated killing. But this language says, 'the premeditated killing of a human being is murder in the first degree.' Then jumping down to lines twenty and twenty-one in subsection 3, 'if the defendant was resisting lawful arrest.' Is there a presumption that arises out of the resisting of lawful arrest, that there was premeditation, by this language?"

Senator Woodall: "No, not of itself, no."

Senator Mardesich: "If that is true, I think by some questioning we should make it clear here on third reading that that is in fact the case."

Senator Woodall: "A man is always presumed that he intended the natural and logical consequences of his act. But the premeditation in and of itself would not be presumed. No."

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2077 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2077, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 6; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Atwood, Scott, Stender—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2077, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Bailey yield? What does the bill deal with?"
Senator Bailey: "It has to do with the study of a pilot program in education."
Senator Atwood: "Does it have a fiscal impact?"
Senator Bailey: "I will have Senator Gardner answer this."
Senator Atwood: "Senator Gardner, would you yield to a question? Does it carry any fiscal impact, regardless of whether it carries an appropriation?"
Senator Gardner: "No, it does not."
Senator Atwood: "It won’t cost anybody any money?"
Senator Gardner: "No, it just provides the community an opportunity to use the schools in conjunction with the schools for programs but at their own expense. And the bill states in essence that they have to cover whatever costs, such as custodian or whatever else is done."

Senator Atwood: "Has a fiscal note been prepared in connection with the bill?"
Senator Gardner: "No, it has not."
There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2033, by Senator Odegaard:
Recounting of state ballot measures to be at state expense.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2033. The committee amendment to section 1, line 6 having been adopted on Friday, February 9, 1973. An amendment to page 1, following section 1, inserting a new section was moved for adoption by Senator Lewis (Harry) on Friday, February 9, 1973 and a point of order was raised by Senator Greive on the scope and object of that amendment. On motion of Senator Henry on Friday, February 9, 1973, Senate Bill No. 2033 and the pending Ruling by the President were held for consideration on Saturday, February 10, 1973.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling on the point of order as raised by Senator Greive, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 2033 is a measure which requires recounts on state-wide ballot issues if the official tabulation indicates that the proposition has either failed or passed by not more than one-half of one percent.

"The amendment as proposed by Senator Harry Lewis, however, pertains not only to state-wide ballot issues but to other elections and provides in substance that a random sampling of ballots may be taken in a specified manner and that if the results of this random sampling indicate that a discrepancy of less than one-half of one percent exists that no further recount is necessary.

"The proposed amendment, therefore, in several respects does increase the scope and object of Senate Bill No. 2033.

"The point of order as presented by Senator Greive is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2033 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2033, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.
Excused: Senators Keeffe, Stender, Twigg—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2033, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2235, by Senators Walgren and Herr:
Requiring precinct officers to appear on absentee ballots.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEES

SENATE BILL NO. 2235, requiring precinct officers to appear on absentee ballots (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, following the enacting clause, strike the remainder of the bill in its entirety and insert the following:
"Section 1. Section 29.36.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

[Amendment text follows]
Upon receipt of the certificate, either signed by the voter or attached to the voter's signed application, the officer having jurisdiction of the election, or his duly authorized representative, shall issue an absentee ballot for the election concerned.

At each general election in the even-numbered year, each absentee voter shall also be given a separate ballot containing the names of the candidates that have filed for the office of precinct committeeman in the absentee voter's precinct and providing space for writing in the name of additional candidates.

In addition, if other elections, including special or general, are also being held on the same day and it can be determined that the absentee voter is qualified to vote at such elections, such additional absentee ballots shall be automatically issued to the end that, whenever possible, each absentee voter receives the ballots for all elections he would have received if he had been able to vote in person.

The election officer, or his duly authorized representative, shall include the following additional items when issuing an absentee ballot:

1. Instructions for voting.
2. A size #9 envelope, capable of being sealed and free of any identification marks, for the purpose of containing the voted absentee ballot.
3. A size #10 envelope, capable of being sealed and preaddressed to the issuing officer, for the purpose of returning the #9 envelope containing the marked absentee ballot.

Upon the left hand portion of the face of the larger envelope shall also be printed a blank statement in the following form:

State of .......................................................... ) COUNTY OF ................................................. )
I, ................. do solemnly swear under the penalty as set forth in RCW 29.36.110 (see below), that I am a resident of and qualified voter in ........... city in ............ county, Washington; that I have the legal right to vote at the election to be held in said precinct on the ............ day of ............, 19 .... ;
That I have not voted another ballot and have herein enclosed my ballot for such election.

(signed) ......................................................

Voter

PENALTY PROVISION: Any person who violates any of the provisions, relating to swearing and voting, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2. Section 29.36.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.36.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the canvass of the votes, if there are on file one or more absentee ballot inner envelopes, the canvassing authority shall cause such envelopes to be opened and the [ballots to] absentee precinct committeeman ballot, if any, shall be physically separated from the remainder of the absentee ballot. The absentee precinct committeeman ballot shall be, subject to the provisions of RCW 29.36.075 and 29.36.077, counted separately. The remainder of the absentee ballot shall be grouped and counted without regard as to precinct by legislative districts if the election is a state primary or state election, special or general.

These ballots shall be made a part of the returns and handled accordingly.

Sec. 3. Section 29.36.095, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 39, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.36.095 are each amended to read as follows:

After the completion of the canvass of the election returns of any primary or election, the canvassing authority shall cause the names of the persons casting absentee ballots to be listed alphabetically and by precincts. Such lists of absentee voters shall be used to enter on the respective voters registration record in the space provided for that purpose, the month, day and year of the primary or election (for example 11/2/54) or otherwise credit the voter with having participated in that election [ : PROVIDED, That no precinct office shall appear upon the absentee ballot]."

On page 1, strike all of the title and insert the following:

"AN ACT Relating to absentee voting; amending section 29.36.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.36.030; amending section 29.36.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.36.070; and amending section 29.36.095, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 39, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.36.095."

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Stender, Stortini, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2235, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Stender, Twigg—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2235, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2058, by Senators Bottiger, Henry and Woodall (by Legislative Council request):

Permitting service of traffic citations for offenses not witnessed by citing officer.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2058, permitting service of traffic citations for offenses not witnessed by citing officer (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 1, line 3, strike all the amendatory language beginning with line 3 and down to but not including the period on line 6 and insert: "the citation and notice may be issued or served pursuant to section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act."

On page 2, section 2, line 14, after the word "probable" strike the words "and reasonable grounds" and insert "cause"

On page 2, section 2, line 15, after the word "accidents" and before the comma insert "pursuant to section 3 of this 1973 amendatory act"

On page 2, following section 2, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 32, Laws of 1967, and to chapter 46.64 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A law enforcement officer investigating at the scene of a motor vehicle accident may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident if the officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has committed in connection with the accident a violation of the traffic laws or regulations. The detention arising from any arrest under this section shall not be for a period of time longer than is reasonably necessary to issue and serve a citation and notice, except that such time limitation shall not apply under any of the following circumstances:

(1) where the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the arrested person had been driving the motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in violation of state law or any county, city, or town ordinance; or
(2) where the arrested person refuses to sign a written promise to appear in court as required by the citation and notice provisions of section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "RCW 46.64.015;" strike "and"
On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "RCW 46.64.030" and before the period insert ", and adding a new section to chapter 32, Laws of 1967, and to chapter 46.64 RCW"
Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No.
2058 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Would Senator Francis yield? As I understand the bill, it is only traffic citations, it is not a general power of arrest for misdemeanors, is it?"
Senator Francis: "That is correct, Senator. As a matter of fact it does give the power of arrest but specifies under the committee amendment that the detention arising from any arrest under this section shall not be for a period of time longer than is reasonably necessary to issue and serve a citation and notice. I might add, although I recognize what Senator Dore is saying and it is a serious thing we are undertaking, that usually an arrest for purposes of a citation at the scene is a lot more palatable to the individual citizen than being arrested or served a warrant on the job two or three weeks later and having all his co-workers aware of it. That is quite an extreme experience. I should also point out that there are two exceptions to that limitation and that is where the law enforcement officer has probably cause to believe that the person is driving while under the influence or where the arrested person refuses to sign the citation."
Senator Durkan: "Now we will go back and I will ask the question again. Does it permit arrest for misdemeanors other than traffic citations? Not in the presence of the officer?"
Senator Francis: "Only for driving while under the influence."
Senator Durkan: "That is all right. But then for other misdemeanors, as Senator Dore has said, they have to occur in the presence of the officer."
Senator Francis: "That is correct."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2058, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 4; excused, 3.

SENATE BILL NO. 2096, by Senators Gardner, Murray and Odegaard (by Joint Committee on Education request):
Setting out conditions whereby superintendent of public instruction can by rule or regulation allow apportionment of less than regular 180-day school year.
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE
REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2096, setting out conditions whereby superintendent of public instruction can by rule or regulation allow apportionment moneys for less than regular 180-day school year (reported by Committee on Education):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 21, after “God” and before the period insert “: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the superintendent of public instruction shall obtain the approval of the interim legislative budget committee or in the event no such legislative budget committee exists as a result of the action of the 1973 legislature, then with approval of each of the standing committees of house and senate ways and means. Said approval shall be obtained prior to apportionment of state monies to a school district unable to meet the requirements of a full school year as provided for in this 1973 amendatory act”
Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted).
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator Gardner, does this require approval of the Legislative Budget Committee?”
Senator Gardner: “Yes, it does and in the event that we go into some type of a continuing session, then it would require the approval of whatever standing committees resulted from the Ways and Means Committee of both houses. Legislative Budget Committee first, then subsequent committees that would succeed them under a different structure.”

Senator Rasmussen: “Just a majority of the Budget Committee?”

SENATE BILL NO. 2071, by Senators Marsh, Talley and Herr:
Establishing an additional justice of the peace in specified districts.
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1973

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2071, establishing an additional justice of the peace in specified districts (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 2, section 1, line 14, after “more” and before the “period” insert “:
PROVIDED, FURTHER, That in a justice court district having a population of two hundred thousand or more that borders or surrounds a military reservation or reservations which have a combined population in excess of twenty thousand that the county commissioners may resolve to provide for the election or appointment of one fulltime justice in addition to the number authorized above and without regard to RCW 3.34.010, and that the extra fulltime justice be used in a night court capacity, to conduct court business on normal court days until at least the hour of nine o’clock in the evening”.

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Dore, Greive, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following section 1, add a new section to read as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 3.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:
In counties of the second class and larger counties all justices of the peace and district court judges are required to have been admitted to the practice of law in the state of Washington before they may exercise the functions of their office.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: “Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, how many people that are grandfathered in under the justice court act, would you displace under this amendment? I am not against lawyers taking over everything, they are going to do it eventually anyway, but the thing is that I do think that where we have grandfathered some of these people in that we should not just turn around and say that you are out now. I do not know whether it affects many people. Before I voted on that amendment, I would like to know what it does and how many it dislocates.”

Senator Woody: “It only applies in counties of the second class and larger counties, and I do not know how many that might affect.”

Senator Bailey: “Mr. President, maybe Senator Woodall knows something about this.”

Senator Woodall: “I will be glad to respond to that. The original bar bill which provided for all counties and it was at my insistence originally that we did have this for the smaller counties. This measure simply provides it in the larger counties where they have an abundance of qualified people. It probably would not affect over a half a dozen people state-wide. And it is part of the upgrading program that Senator Woody has in mind. It does not affect any of your counties at all.”

Senator Bailey: “My question was not counties. I can understand that. But my question was, how many people that are now justices that are not members of the bar would have their terms terminated, you might say, and have to give it to a lawyer? Three?

“Well, Mr. President, it would seem to me that if this amendment were to pass it would not pass in a very good form. There should be some provision in there at least for finishing out the term they have or something of that sort rather than just saying that these people are no longer qualified. It just seems like this is a bad way to do it unless we really study the measure and know what we are doing to individuals in areas where the people have elected them under the grandfather clause. There may not be many affected but the way to do it would be to say that after their term expires, then this would be effective, if we are going to do that at all.”

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "RCW 3.34.020" and before the period insert ""; and adding a new section to chapter 3.34 RCW

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2071 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, just a small item. Senator Marsh, are you the sponsor of this bill? Senator, for my edification, are all the JP's paid with local funds?"

Senator Marsh: "To my understanding that is true."

Senator Durkan: "Do we know?"

Senator Marsh: "I think they are all paid out of the county fund or out of the city funds."

Senator Durkan: "Are there any state funds involved?"

Senator Marsh: "Not to my knowledge."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2071, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Stender, Twigg—3.

ENGROSGED SENATE BILL NO. 2071, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2074, by Senators Ridder, Henry and Lewis (Harry):

Allowing fire district commissioners to waive compensation.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2074, allowing fire district commissioners to waive compensation (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, section 1, line 3, after "filed" insert "any time"
On page 2, section 1, line 4, after "the" strike "period for" and insert "date on"
Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Talley, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2074 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2074, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Matson—1.
Excused: Senators Keefe, Stender, Twigg—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2074, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 110, by Senators Day and Matson (by Legislative Council request):

Providing for a study on grass seed production.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 110, providing for a study on grass seed production (reported by Committee on Agriculture):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, beginning on line 3 strike all the material down to and including the period on line 6 and insert “NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, that Washington State University is authorized and directed to undertake a study of the use of agricultural burning.”

On page 2, line 8, after “Council” and before “and” insert “or if such council is not in existence, then to the respective agriculture committees of the house and senate”

On page 2, beginning on line 10 strike all the material down to and including the period on line 16 and insert “AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Department of Ecology shall promulgate no further regulation prohibiting the use of field burning for grass seed production until considering the results of the Washington State University’s research program or until a satisfactory and viable alternative is found consonant with both environmental quality, disease and insect control, and an efficient and economically feasible method for the production of bluegrass seed.”

Signed by: Senators Jolly, Chairman; Day, Donohue, Matson, Sellar, Twigg, Washington.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Jolly, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Jolly, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 110 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: “Would Senator Day yield? I heard that last remark. I was assured in caucus that this had no fiscal impact. I take it now that it does.”

Senator Day: “No, the concurrent resolution has none. The amendment to the amendment took the reference to the money out of the bill. Now it certainly could have a fiscal impact if Ways and Means sees fit to do what the concurrent resolution asks. The fiscal impact will be very minimal, however.”
Senator Atwood: "Well, let me ask you this then. I notice the study is directed to Washington State University. Are they the ones that are going to be asking for additional money in their budget or is the Legislative Council going to be asking us to fund additional moneys for this study?"

Senator Day: "I believe it will be done through WSU."

Senator Atwood: "Do you have any idea how much they are going to ask us for?"

Senator Day: "I think it is about one hundred and forty thousand dollars. But this is a nine million dollar industry, Senator, and if we do not find a substitute for grass burning there is not going to be any grass seed production in this state."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Day yield further? Senator Day, I am not at all opposed to the concept of this resolution and I know what the problem is and I know the trouble with the Department of Ecology, but I was just wondering about an independent study. Would this properly be a cooperative project between the states of Washington and Oregon so it could be done through established agencies rather than creating a new research program with a price tag on it that might run to a quarter of a million dollars?"

Senator Day: "I do not believe it is going to run that high but you never know about research. You cannot anticipate what they are going to find with this study. Maybe this study will not do it and it is also true that it is possible that the research will produce a method which will be beneficial to both Idaho and Oregon. The problem is time relative to the present situation in our state on air pollution control. And if we do not do something we are going to have the situation in Spokane county where some of this grass is raised within five or six miles of the Idaho line. We will have Idaho polluting our air, raising grass seed and our people will be prohibited from polluting the same air and raising any grass seed. So I think that it is pretty important."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 110, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Matson—1.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Stender, Twigg—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 110, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SENATE BILL NO. 2069, by Senators Marsh, Francis, Woodall and Woody: Permitting defense counsel payments in justice courts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2069, permitting defense counsel payments in justice courts (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "providing" strike all of the material down to the period on line 16 and insert "services necessary for the preparation and presentation of a defense at public expense except costs of defense to be paid by a city pursuant to RCW 3.62.070"

On page 1 add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 111, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.62.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Except in traffic cases wherein bail is forfeited to a violations bureau, and except in cases filed in municipal departments established pursuant to chapter 3.46, in every criminal action filed by a city for an ordinance violation the city shall be charged a four dollar filing fee. In such criminal actions the cost of providing services necessary for the preparation and presentation of a defense at public expense are not within the four dollar filing fee and shall be paid by the city. In all other criminal actions, no filing fee shall be assessed or collected.

PROVIDED, That in such cases, for the purposes of RCW 3.62.010, four dollars of each fine or penalty shall be deemed filing costs."

Renumber the old Sec. 2 to read "Sec. 3."

In line 5 of the title after "3.62.050;" and before "and" insert "amending section 111, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.62.070;"

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Dore, Greive, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, and the two committee amendments were adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2069 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2069, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Matson - 1.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Stender, Twigg - 3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2069, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senator Matson was excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 107, by Senators Stortini, Rasmussen, Newschwander, Knoblauch and Walgren:

Requesting the Congress to make the proposed Tacoma Spur a part of the National System of Interstate Highways.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Joint Memorial No. 107 was substituted for Senate Joint Memorial No. 107 and Substitute Senate Joint Memorial No. 107 was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Joint Memorial No. 107 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Joint Memorial No. 107, and the memorial passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 107, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SENATE BILL NO. 2008, by Senator Bottiger:

Providing that a parent may obtain the address of his children under the care of the department of social and health services.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2008, providing that a parent may obtain the address of his children under the care of the department of social and health services (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 23, after "the" and before "court" insert "visitation provisions of the"

On page 1, section 1, line 25, after "enforcing" and before "provisions" strike "specific" and insert "visitation"

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Van Hollebeke, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Connor, Greive, Jones, Keefe, Murray, Woodall, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 23 was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, Senate Bill No. 2008, the adopted committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 23 and the pending committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 25, were ordered to be held on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 12, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2282, by Senators Francis, Marsh, Jones, Day and Talley:

Providing interpreters in legal proceedings to certain persons with speech or hearing impairments.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Before we call for that vote, I think it would not be out of order to ask Senator Atwood his reasons for his objection."

Senator Atwood: "I have a series of questions about the definitions that appear in this bill. I think they are deficient and it may require some tightening up. But before I ask that it be held I would like to find out from you... I would rather keep it on second reading until I get my questions answered because you have got some definitions in there that appear to be redundant and are not clear."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, in new section 2, you define what an impaired person is. And on line 16 beginning with the word 'or' you go on with the definition, 'or who when involved as a party to a legal proceeding is unable by reason of such defects to obtain due process of law,' and I am not sure what that means. I know what the first part is. That is clear enough. But the second clause is very imprecise and it could mean any number of things. I think the definition of impaired person should not include that particular clause."

Senator Francis: "Senator, I am satisfied that the way the sentence is constructed it is talking about such defects and therefore refers back to defects of ability to understand or communicate spoken language. So we are talking of the deaf or who for some other reason of some other impairment which I would not know cannot understand spoken language. And for that reason cannot obtain due process. I also would point out that is the same language that was used in the bill which passed the Senate two years ago and died in the House. I would have no objection to holding the matter over and certainly think that Senator Atwood is trying to work towards improving the bill."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2282 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 12, 1973.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2099 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 12, 1973.

PERMISSION GRANTED

On motion of Senator Connor, permission was granted for use of the Senate Chambers on Friday, February 16, 1973 at 4:00 p.m. for the purpose of a hearing.

On motion of Senator Day, permission was granted for use of the Senate Chambers on Monday, February 12, 1973 at 1:20 p.m. for the purpose of a hearing on the Blind Commission by the Senate Committee on Social and Health Services.

MOTION

Senator Odegaard moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-21

By Senators Odegaard, Ridder, Donohue, Metcalf, Canfield and Bailey:

WHEREAS, The duties of the State Board of Education were substantively established by the Legislature in 1909 and their function and value have not been systematically reviewed since that time; and WHEREAS, There are statutory inconsistencies between the rule-making authority of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education; and WHEREAS, The effectiveness of the current method of selecting the state board and the state superintendent should be reviewed;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate requests the Joint Committee on Education, or such other appropriate committee pertaining to education, with the cooperation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education, review the function and value of the State Board of Education; provide recommendations for eliminating current statutory inconsistencies between the responsibilities of the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction; review the current state board election process, noting its effectiveness and responsiveness; review alternative methods of electing or selecting the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, noting the possible effectiveness and cost.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this study and its recommendations be submitted to the Forty-fourth Session of the Legislature.
AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate, upon the passage of this resolution, transmit copies thereof to the Joint Committee on Education, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the State Board of Education.
On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment by Senator Odegaard to Senate Resolution 1973-21 was adopted:
On line 11, after “Education,” insert “or such other appropriate committee pertaining to education,”
The motion by Senator Odegaard carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woody, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-23

By Senators Woody and Mardesich:
WHEREAS, Noting the achievement of Doctors Gene and Lucille Mason and their children, Robert, age 16; Jeff, age 15; Linda, age 13 and Lori, age 9, who, on December 29, 1972, made their first climb of Mount Kilimanjaro, Africa, which stands 19,565 feet in height; and
WHEREAS, The members of the Senate recognize that Lori Mason is the youngest person to have climbed Mount Kilimanjaro;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate commends the members of the Mason family for their accomplishment;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably inscribed copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Gene, Lucille, Robert, Jeff, Linda and Lori Mason.

MOTION

At 12:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 10:30

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore, Durkan and Madesich. On motion of Senator Bailey, Senators Durkan and Madesich were excused. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages James Kafer and Joyce Kusky, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen D. Cole, pastor of Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"WE THANK YOU, HEAVENLY FATHER, ON THIS THE BIRTHDAY OF THE SIXTEENTH PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, FOR YOUR CONTINUED HELP, GUIDANCE AND STRENGTH. WE AGREE WITH THE STATEMENT MR. LINCOLN MADE AFTER HIS SECOND ELECTION ... 'I SHOULD BE THE MOST PRESUMPTUOUS BLOCKHEAD UPON THIS FOOTSTOOL IF I HAD FOR ONE DAY THOUGHT I COULD DISCHARGE THE DUTIES WHICH HAVE COME UPON ME SINCE I CAME INTO THIS PLACE WITHOUT THE AID AND ENLIGHTENMENT OF ONE WHO IS STRONGER AND WISER THAN ALL OTHERS. WE IN THIS LEGISLATIVE HALL TODAY WOULD BE PRESUMPTUOUS IF WE THOUGHT WE COULD PROCEED WITHOUT THE AID AND ENLIGHTENMENT OF YOUR HOLY SPIRIT. BLESS AND GUIDE TODAY, AND THROUGH THIS WEEK THAT WHAT NEEDS TO BE ACCOMPLISHED SHALL BE ACCOMPLISHED. WE ALSO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO THANK YOU FOR THE RELEASE OF OUR PRISONERS OF WAR. WE HAVE BEEN MOVED, HEAVENLY FATHER, AS WE HAVE SEEN THEM GET OFF THE PLANES IN THE PHILIPPINES. GIVE THEM JUST WHAT THEY NEED DURING THIS TIME OF ADJUSTMENT. BE THEIR STRENGTH AND STAY. BLESS THEIR FAMILIES IN A SPECIAL WAY AND BRING THEM TOGETHER WITH REJOICING. NOW WE COMMIT THE DAY TO YOU LORD. MAY IT BE PROFITABLE IN EVERY WAY, FOR THE GOOD AND YOUR GLORY. IN CHRIST'S NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2055, and the same is herewith transmitted.
DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

Mr. President: The House has adopted HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 21, and the same is herewith transmitted.
DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: SENATE BILL NO. 2055.

MOTION

At 10:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 11:35 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:35 a.m.
There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2194, by Senators Gardner, Keefe, Fleming, Dore, Metcalf, Ridder, Murray and Francis (by Joint Committee on Education request):
Allowing grants to certain disadvantaged elementary and secondary students.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2194 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

Senator Peterson (Ted) moved that Senate Bill No. 2194 be laid upon the table.
Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Washington, Connor, Grant, Woody, Marsh, Donohue, Francis and Van Hollebeke.
Senators Greive, Connor and Washington demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.
THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1973

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Dore, Durkan and Mardesich who had previously been excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Peterson (Ted) that Senate Bill No. 2194 be laid upon the table.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Peterson (Ted) failed by the following vote: Yeas, 4; nays, 42; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Canfield, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Stender—4.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Mardesich—3.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator Gardner, Could you tell me why the provision that says at least twenty-five percent shall be spent on students going to public schools? Why is there that disproportionate ratio?”

Senator Gardner: “I could, Senator Rasmussen, but this was a provision that Senator Francis specifically studied during the interim and I think his answer would be more complete if you would like to hear it from him.”

Senator Francis: “Senator Rasmussen, during the interim I insisted that a provision be put in that at least twenty-five percent of the students who are affected by this be in private schools to make sure that as administered as well as is written, this bill will be constitutional and will be for students who are disadvantaged and will affect a substantial number of public school students as well as private school students. Now as far as the ratio is concerned, there is no minimum number of private school students. We could say the same thing, and say at least twenty-five percent also be private school students. But I think the emphasis has to be the other way because when you start talking about students’ needs, tuition is a big item of expense and therefore there are natural pressures towards trying to help out those private school students who might not be able to afford tuition. The point I am trying to make with that amendment is to make certain that at least a substantial minimum of public school students are involved. I would hope, of course, the ratio would be closer to fifty-fifty but I do not think we want to write that into the bill because I think that the people who administer the bill are going to have to have some flexibility in it.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: “Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, section 7 of the bill states, ‘A state financial aid recipient under this 1973 act shall apply the award solely toward the cost of supplies, books, tuition, incidental and other fees or such other authorized expenditures as the state board of education shall deem proper’. How is that provision to be policed?”

Senator Ridder: “I presume it would be policed by the board itself. They would set the rules and regulations for maintaining this money. There is a level on the appropriation so you can only go so far and then under the guise of the amount of the appropriation and the rules as set forward this program would go on. It would be audited, of course, just as any agency would be.”
Senator Guess: "Senator Ridder, do you mean that the individual is then going to have to put in a statement to the state school board is exactly the expenditure of these funds?"

Senator Ridder: "I presume this would work through the school that was accepting the student and how much it cost to do this or do that or do the other thing. Again I can see that perhaps it would be some sort of a filling out a form that says 'I spent so much for transportation,' and then this would be paid. This again would be the rules and regulations as set up by the board. They would, in their wisdom, set up a system."

"Senator Guess: "But Senator Ridder, isn't this conjecture on your part? There is nothing that requires this in the bill?"

Senator Ridder: "Personally, in this state we allow our agencies terrific latitude through rules and regulations to maintain certain programs and we are doing exactly the same thing here."

Senator Guess: "Nevertheless you will admit that this bill does not contain that paragraph which is standard to most bills that the department shall write the rules and regulations. This bill is deficient in that regard."

Senator Ridder: "I think that many other bills go through here exactly in the same format and do the same thing. They will be responsible; we say that they are going to write these rules; they will do it."

Senators Herr, Greive and Ridder demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2194.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2194 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 12; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Lewis (Bob), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Scott, Stender, Stortini, Walgren, Wanamaker – 12.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Mardesich – 3.

SENATE BILL NO. 2194, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 2194 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.
At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the rules were suspended and the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-24.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following resolution:
THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1973

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-24

WHEREAS, The story of Abraham Lincoln from his humble beginnings through a political career that had its ups and downs to the exacting job as president during this nation's greatest crisis, is one of the greatest stories ever told; and

WHEREAS, By his leadership he took a confederation of sovereign states and shaped it into a nation, in the course of which this noble experiment in a democratic republic survived its severest test; and

WHEREAS, Our heritage is the inspiration of the accomplishments of this self-taught frontier lawyer whose steadfastness of purpose, sound judgment and indomitable will brought order out of chaos, and in addition, a legacy of writings of incomparable dignity, strength and simplicity not only profound, compassionate and inspirational but classic in content and style as well;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate in legislative session assembled, that we here highly resolve to rededicate ourselves to finish the work Abraham Lincoln started in order to provide a new birth of freedom and equality of opportunity for everyone within this state to the end that the government of the people by the people and for the people of the State of Washington shall flourish and be a model for all to emulate.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended and all members were permitted as sponsors to Senate Resolution 1973-24.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, a copy of Senate Resolution 1973-24 is to be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to Mrs. Ernest Lennart, wife of former Senator Ernest Lennart.

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Metcalf was excused. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages John Hicks and Arlene Abbott, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen C. Cole, pastor of Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER, AS WE BEGIN THIS DAY OF WORK, WE ARE REMINDED OF WHAT DAVID SAID CENTURIES AGO . . . 'THIS IS THE DAY THE LORD HAS MADE, I WILL REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT.' WE WANT TO GIVE YOU OUR PERSONAL THANKS FOR THIS WONDERFUL MORNING. YOU HAVE GIVEN US WONDERFUL FAMILIES, GREAT FRIENDS, AND A GLORIOUS OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE OUR FELLOW MAN. WE ALSO KNOW THAT WE HAVE MADE OUR SHARE OF MISTAKES, THAT SOME THINGS HAVE NOT BEEN DONE AS WELL AS THEY SHOULD. BUT YOUR GREAT LOVE SEES BEYOND THAT AND REACHES OUT TO HELP US IN THE TASKS OF TODAY. GIVE US WISDOM FOR WHAT LIES AHEAD AND HELP US TO KNOW THAT YOU WILL TAKE CARE OF US ALL. HELP US, ABOVE EVERYTHING ELSE, TO KNOW THAT JESUS CHRIST, WHO DIED ON THE CROSS FOR SALVATION AND OUR REDEMPTION, IS THE GREATEST GUIDE AND THE GREATEST FRIEND OF ALL. THAT HIS LOVE IS UNCONDITIONAL. THANK YOU, FATHER, FOR THE HELP THESE SENATORS NEED TODAY TO CARRY OUT THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THEIR OFFICE. ENDOW THEM WITH COURAGE TO DO THE RIGHT AND WITH WISDOM THAT IS NOT FROM THIS EARTH, BUT FROM ABOVE. IN JESUS' NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardisich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2008, by Senator Bottiger:
Providing that a parent may obtain the address of his children under the care of the department of social and health services.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2008. The committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 23 was adopted on Saturday, February 10, 1973.

On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 25 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, following line 18 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 74.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Upon written request of a person who has been properly identified as an officer of the law with a felony arrest warrant or a properly identified United States Immigration official with a warrant for an illegal alien the department shall disclose to such officer the current address and location of the person properly described in the warrant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On line 1 of the title after "assistance;" strike "and" and on line 2 after "74.04.060" and before the period insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 74.04 RCW"

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2008 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2008, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2008, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
SENATE BILL NO. 2282, by Senators Francis, Marsh, Jones, Day and Talley:
Providing interpreters in legal proceedings to certain persons with speech or hearing impairments.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2282, the bill having been read by sections on Saturday, February 10, 1973.
On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendments by Senators Francis and Atwood were adopted:
On page 1, section 2, line 16, after “language” and before “who” strike “or” and insert “and”
On page 1, section 2, line 22, after “state” and before “or” insert “, at grand jury hearings or hearings before an inquiry judge,”

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2282 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2282, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—47.
Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2282, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2099, by Senators Bottiger, Murray and Grant:
Authorizing a fire protection district service charge.

MOTION

Senator Durkan moved that Senate Bill No. 2099 be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: “Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, I am quite impressed with your remarks. My information is, some of these districts lost their special levy elections and the people apparently are not as concerned as you seem to believe they are if they vote in the district that is being served against the levy and now come along and say we are going to impose something on them that they do not vote on. I just wondered if it were so that these districts that have not been able to pass their levies are now, through this vehicle, attempting to raise money without the approval of the people they serve.”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Stender, I did not want to get into a debate on the bill but I think every one of us that have studied the question of special levies realize that the people are revolting against a higher property tax. The same fire districts that are in the crunch also are in school districts that have extremely high levies. We do have fire districts in this state in the very rural areas that do not use the levies they have now because they frankly say the fire engine will not get there to save the house anyhow because it is so far away. But if you will go out and look carefully at what the people are saying, they are not saying they do not want good education for their kids or they do not want good fire protection or hospitals or libraries. They are saying, ’We do not want to pay for it in the property tax method.’”
Senator Stender: “The question is a question of money and the people under this bill would still be required to pay it and apparently if they turn down a millage and then we come around this way and this does not allow for a vote as I read it. So you are going to do the same thing that they resisted by vote by just passing a bill that would let them do it through a commissioner and a hearing.”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Stender, Senator Durkan passed a bill two years ago that prohibits them from increasing their budget more than six percent without a vote of the people. So even if this bill passed there would have to be a vote of the people in support of the increase in the budget. The vote is there.”

The motion by Senator Durkan carried. Senate Bill No. 2099 was re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SENATE BILL NO. 2394, by Senators Gardner, Murray and Bottiger (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):
Including preliminary planning costs for purposes of determining state aid for certain school plant facilities.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 2394 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING
SENATE BILL NO. 2179, by Senators Talley, Murray and Jolly:
Authorizing use of rental guarantee insurance in place of surety bonds in the lease of port district property.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2179, authorizing use of rental guarantee insurance in place of surety bonds in the lease of port district property (reported by Committee on Local Government):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, section 2, line 28, after “of” and before “property”, strike “real” and insert “all lands, wharves, docks and real and personal”
In section 2, line 29, before “shall”, strike “one year or more” and insert “more than one year”
Signed by Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Gardner, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Talley.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2179 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Whetzel: “Would Senator Murray yield? Presently there is a restriction on leases for airport purposes where there is certain construction work involved. Apparently the amendatory language takes that out so that if the property is involved in any sort of airport purpose the lease may be made for a longer period of time. Can you explain if I interpret this correctly and if so, what the justification for that change is?”

Senator Murray: “In essence there is an exception so that there can be longer leases for airport purposes just because their commitments are so large that it is felt that it is necessary to have something in excess of the lease agreements we have on other properties.”
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1973

Senator Whetzel: "I can understand that when there is construction but if it is simply a renewal of a hangar lease where the hangar has already been built, why should that be a special exception so the lease can go up to seventy-five years instead of a normal fifty years?"

Senator Murray: "My understanding is that the amount of total dollar commitments necessary are such that they would like to have a longer term commitment on that particular facility."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2179, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keeffe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—42.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bailey—1.

Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2179, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2213, by Senators Day, Bottiger and Stender:
Implementing the law relating to the practice of registered nurses.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2213, implementing the law relating to the practice of registered nurses (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):
Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 3, section 3, subsection (3), line 29, after "practice" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall affect the authority of any hospital, hospital district, medical clinic or office, concerning its administration and supervision"
On page 4, section 3, line 2, after "state" and before the period insert "or specifically authorized by any other law of the state of Washington"
On page 18, section 27, line 2, after "hospitals" and before "or elsewhere" insert "nursing homes"
On page 18, section 27, line 18, after "duties" and before the period insert ";
(8) permitting the measurement of the powers or range of human vision, or the determination of the accommodation and refractive state of the human eye or the scope of its functions in general, or the fitting or adaptation of lenses or frames for the aid thereof;
(9) permitting the prescribing or directing the use of, or using, any optical device in connection with ocular exercises, visual training, vision training or orthoptics;
(10) permitting the prescribing of contact lenses for, or the fitting or adaptation of contact lenses to, the human eye;
(11) prohibiting the performance of routine visual screening;
(12) permitting the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene as defined in chapter 18.32 and 18.29 RCW respectively;
(13) permitting the practice of chiropractic as defined in chapter 18.25 RCW including the adjustment or manipulation of the articulations of the spine;
(14) permitting the practice of chiropody as defined in chapter 18.22 RCW; permitting the performance of major surgery, except such minor surgery as the board may have specifically authorized by rule or regulation duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW; permitting the prescribing of controlled substances as defined in schedules I through IV of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW” Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Van Hollebeke, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Connor, Francis, Greive, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Murray, Twigg, Woodall, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 1, line 23, after “to the” insert “individual”
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2213 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2213, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yees, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.
Absent or not voting: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2213, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2278, by Senators Durkan, Dore and Lewis (Harry):
Restricting use of abstracts of driving experience for insurance purposes.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2278, restricting use of abstracts of driving experience for insurance purposes (reported by Committee on Transportation and Utilities):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 2, section 1, line 17, after “vehicles” and before “use” insert “shall”
Signed by: Senators Walgren, Chairman; Henry, Vice Chairman; Stortini, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Guess, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sellar, Wanamaker, Washington.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Walgren, the committee amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2278 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, do I gather from your comments that if this bill passes we will require less information about someone who hauls children than we are going to require information about someone who hauls cargo? Would that be the practical effect?"

Senator Clarke: "The practical effect well could be, in that connection, although this bill relates both to cargo and to school busses. I am not raising any particular point with respect to the cargo but I am saying that any information that would lead people to reasonably evaluate the probability of accidents in connection with school busses is not something that should be prohibited and made a criminal act to use."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2278, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 19; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Matson, Murray, Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Twigg, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

Absent or not voting: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.

Excused: Senators Dore, Metcalf—2.

ENGROSGED SENATE BILL NO. 2278, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2342, by Senators Gardner, Peterson (Ted) and Odegaard:

Authorizing the establishment of nonprofit meal programs for feeding elderly persons in school lunchrooms.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2342, authorizing the establishment of nonprofit meal programs for feeding elderly persons in school lunchrooms (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, following line 26, add new subsections as follows:

“(3) Any non-profit meal program established pursuant to this act may not be operated so as to interfere with the normal educational process within the schools.

(4) No school district funds may be used for the operation of such a meal program.

(5) For purposes of this act, “elderly persons” shall mean persons who are at least sixty years of age.”

Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Murray.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2342 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Would Senator Gardner yield? Senator Gardner, how are the funds provided and what is the definition of an elderly person? Does it make any difference as to level of income or as I read it you have just an age definition? Are public funds going to be used or all private funds?"

Senator Gardner: "There was a lot of discussion over the matter of who should be trying to define 'elderly' and the people who spoke before the committee strongly urged that we try not to define it for a number of obvious purposes so we did decide in the end to put the age limit on it but not go into social or economic factors, Senator Durkan.

"As far as how the finances of this plan would work, it is simply this, Senator Durkan. If you and I wanted to provide for elderly a meal program and were willing to raise the funds we would then raise those funds and go to the school and provide them with the check from which they could then buy the merchandise."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Gardner yield to further question? Senator Gardner, being only thirty-nine and not quite up to the meal limit yet, as some Senators are here, is it the intent of this bill that we be allowed to go in and socialize with the students at lunch period so that we can get over our loneliness? Or would the meal be specified outside of the time that they are regularly serving meals in the school cafeterias?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Rasmussen, if you will check on the second page of the bill in your bill book you will see that item number three in the amendment tab pretty basically answers the question which you asked."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would we be allowed to socialize with the children?"

Senator Gardner: "You would be. The purpose of the program, Senator Rasmussen, is so it will not interfere with the normal school process. Now if the school administrators decide for one reason or another it is healthy with regard to that particular instance to have the students and the elderly mix they can so do so but we did not want to impose upon them a program which would, in their opinion, interfere with their programs they would have to accept. So it is optional."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is it the intent of your legislation that any group would be able to provide three meals a day in the school facilities?"

Senator Gardner: "Not necessarily three meals, Senator Rasmussen. Maybe just one a day, maybe just one a week."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Gardner yield? Senator Gardner, in the Senate amendment 'No school district funds may be used for the operation of such a meal program,' do I understand that to mean and is it the intent of the amendment that state funds appropriated to the common schools or to the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall not be used for the purposes of this act?"

Senator Gardner: "That is correct, Senator Lewis."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Gardner yield further? Under this same subsection, what would you include under school district funds? Are you including overhead? Are you including the supervisory costs or just the cost of the meals or what? Now when you appropriate school district funds, it covers all these things and are you just going to charge for the cost of the food or are you going to also include the cost of service and the overhead which you do not charge to the kids?"

Senator Gardner: "Senator Canfield, the intent here is that cash, school cash, shall not be used. Now there is a certain factor of overhead in operating any facility. If the heat is already on and your custodial service is already there and in the opinion of the school administrators this does not add to that burden, then you could make a technical argument that perhaps there is some use of school funds here but basically, no. The intent here is that school dollars appropriated, cash on hand, shall not be used to go out and make advance payments for this type of project."

Senator Canfield: "Would the elderly persons then be charged more than the students to take care of the overhead and the supervisory cost?"

Senator Gardner: "No."
Senator Canfield: "They would be charged just the same?"
Senator Gardner: "Just the same."
Senator Canfield: "Then you would be using appropriated funds for ..."
Senator Gardner: "Senator Canfield, there are two ways to look at this problem. One, if you already have the facility in use and the heat is on and the people on site and there is a down period in the process, what is to say that we should not come in and make constructive use of those facilities and that heat that is already in existence? Technically you are correct."
Senator Canfield: "One more minor question. In the case of children you generally have a pretty good idea of how many are going to be there and how many you will prepare meals for and how do you know how many of the elderly are going to drop in for these meals?"
Senator Gardner: "Senator Canfield, that was one of the reasons I insisted as chairman of the committee that heard this bill that provision number four be placed into the bill which calls for no use of school funds. My intent with regard to how this legislation would work would be that a group representing the elderly would come and ask to use the school facilities and they would provide the funds which would be used to buy the food that would feed the people that attended. And therefore it is their responsibility to see, in effect, that the attendance is there to use the food that was purchased."
Senator Canfield: "I am concerned about one more thing, Senator Gardner. These lonely sixty-year old people who go there, are the local food merchandisers concerned about this bill or would there be so few it would not be of any importance?"
Senator Gardner: "The question was raised in the committee and while there was no one there to speak against it, the matter was discussed reasonably thoroughly and there were some of us in attendance who are in the area of wholesale buying of food. The feeling was basically, Senator Canfield, that this would not be a situation which will compete with local purveyors or restaurant owners or food service operations."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Gardner further yield? As I now understand it, anyone over sixty, regardless of their economic status, they could come in for one of these meals. Is that correct?"
Senator Gardner: "That is correct, Senator Woodall."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Peterson yield? Senator, you stated that in Seattle there was a pilot program. Are you acquainted with how that operates?"
Senator Peterson (Ted): "Yes, I am."
Senator Stender: "In Seattle now . . . ."" Senator Peterson (Ted): "Senator, this is not in the school. This is in the school program. The one that I referred to was a church program and it is called the Columbia Club through the Methodist Church."
Senator Stender: "It is not a school sponsored . . . ?"
Senator Peterson (Ted): "That is right. It is not school sponsored."

MOTION

At 12:02 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:00 p.m.

Establishing certification procedures for court reporters.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 5, line 2, after “holds” and before “equivalent” strike “and” and insert “an”
On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 5, section 9, line 30 after “(3)” strike “Gross incompetency” and insert “Incompetency”
On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 3 of the title, after “2.32.180;” and before “and” insert “prescribing penalties;”
On motion of Senator Woody, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2248 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senators Durkan and Sandison were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2248, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Sandison—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2248, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gardner, Senate Bill No. 2196 was ordered placed at the end of the second reading calendar for today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2084, by Senators Henry, Francis and Twigg:
Allowing judges retirement credit for pro tempore services.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2084 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator Woody, after this judge works as a pro tem for a year or so to qualify, what would his retirement benefits be per year?”

Senator Woody: “I am sorry, I do not know. I am sure that Senator Greive knows.”

Senator Greive: “I wish I did know for sure. It is my understanding that he has to wait until he reaches retirement age, which I understand in his case is some twenty years away and at that time he would receive fifty percent which is what the judges’ retirement provides. Maybe somebody has got it better than I have. Twelve-eighteenths is what they said he would receive.”

Senator Woodall: “To answer the question specifically, when he reaches retirement age of sixty, if he quits practicing law at that time, which he would have to do, he would then get twelve-eighteenths of fifty percent of the salary of a superior court judge. That is the specific answer.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: “Would Senator Woodall yield? Would not this legislation also apply if somebody else were in the same situation where a judge were defeated and then went through the same procedure and for a number of times was appointed a judge pro tem?”

Senator Woodall: “If someone had served a total of ten years and then was defeated and if he could find enough attorneys who would accept him in counties where there was a need and where the then presiding superior court expressed a need and he was accepted enough times it could apply to someone else. You are correct.”

Senator Washington: “Now, one other point, Senator Woodall. How are you going to determine the amount of salary that he receives each year to determine whether or not he has worked enough as a judge in order to make sure that he just does not sit on one or two cases a year and gets his retirement on that basis?”
Senator Woodall: "As I understand the bill, he has to put enough judicial days in as a trial judge to complete the amount of days that he is short. I understand in this case he is short some thirty to forty-five days."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2084, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Fleming, Guess, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel—20.

Setting standards for granting furloughs to prisoners.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2125 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2125, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Atwood—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Sandison—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2125, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2175, by Senators Marsh, Day and Jones:

Providing housing authority with certain additional powers to deal with the developmentally disabled, etc.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2175 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 2, line 24, strike the period and insert:
": PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provision of law or statute to the contrary, in the acquisition, construction, or operation of housing projects including group homes and halfway houses an authority shall be subject to the same procedures, and in the same manner and to the same effect as provided for any other person or corporation with regard to planning, zoning, sanitary and building laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the locality in which the housing project is situated."

On motion of Senator Marsh, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Connor, Fleming, Francis, Greive, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Murray, Peterson (Lowell), Stender, Talley, Washington, Whetzel—16.
Absent or not voting: Senator Henry—1.
Excused: Senator Dore—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2175, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Marsh served notice that he would, on the next working day, move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175 failed to pass the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2187, by Senators Grant, Gardner, Woody and Rasmussen:
Prohibiting the use of lie detector tests as a condition of employment or continued employment.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2187, prohibiting the use of lie detector tests as a condition of employment or continued employment (reported by Committee on Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "security]" and before the "period" insert ": PROVIDED, That this section shall not apply to persons making initial application for employment with any law enforcement agency: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not apply to either the initial application for employment or continued employment of persons who dispense controlled substances as defined in Ch. 69.50 RCW, or to persons in sensitive positions directly involving national security."

Signed by: Senators Connor, Chairman; Grant, Matson, Ridder, Stender.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment.
Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:
Amend the committee amendment by adding the following after "security" on the last line of the amendment: "... or to persons in the field of public law enforcement who are seeking promotion to a rank of captain or higher"

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Mardesich carried on a rising vote and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Will Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, I missed some of the testimony in the committee and I was wondering, was there any indication as to a tremendous amount of harassment in some areas of the police department throughout the state after someone was on the payroll and employed by these departments?"

Senator Grant: "I did not hear all the testimony either, Senator Fleming. I think it was testified that there were twenty-six cases in King County Public Safety Department in which the lie detector test was used over a year's period. I do not know how many in the city of Seattle. As far as harassment through that procedure, I do not know that there was any testimony as to actual harassment. However, the potential for harassment exists and that is the reason for this bill."

The committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2187 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2187, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 11; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2187, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Francis, the Committee on Social and Health Services was relieved of further consideration of Senate Bills Nos. 2126 and 2295.

Senator Francis moved that Senate Bills Nos. 2126 and 2295 be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Francis carried. Senate Bills Nos. 2126 and 2295 were re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

MOTION

At 8:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until Wednesday, February 14, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President Pro Tempore that all Senators were present except Senators Dore and Whetzel. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages John Livingston and Janet Kinsman, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen C. Cole, pastor of Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR GREAT GOD AND HEAVENLY FATHER, WE THANK YOU FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF TALKING WITH YOU THIS MORNING. WE WANT TO AVAIL OURSELVES TO YOUR MERCY, YOUR WISDOM, AND TO YOUR POWER TODAY. WE KNOW NOT HOW TO GO OUT OR TO COME IN, BUT OUR EYES ARE UPON YOU THIS HOUR. WE AFFIRM IN PRAYER WHAT PAUL SAID IN WRITING TO THE PHILIPPANS, 'I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHO IS STRENGTHENING ME.' THIS VERSE TELLS US THAT YOU DO NOT SIT IN YOUR LOFTY PLACE DREAMING UP FAILING SITUATIONS FOR US. WE BELIEVE IT SAYS, 'BE SUCCESSFUL! I WILL GIVE YOU THE STRENGTH TO DO SOMETHING GREAT.' WE THANK YOU, LORD, FOR THE POSITIVENESS OF THE GOSPEL. JUST AS YOU WERE NOT INTERESTED IN USING THE PEOPLE TO BUILD A GREAT GOSPEL, BUT RATHER IN USING THE GOSPEL TO BUILD A GREAT PEOPLE; IN OUR HEARTS TODAY IS THE DESIRE, NOT TO USE PEOPLE TO BUILD A GREAT GOVERNMENT, BUT TO USE THE GOVERNMENT TO BUILD A GREAT PEOPLE! SO, WE ASK YOU, HEAVENLY FATHER, TO USE OUR MINDS, USE THE VARIOUS PERSONALITIES ASSEMBLED HERE. TOUCH THE SPIRIT OF US ALL THAT YOUR WILL MAY BE DONE ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.

"WE WOULD ALSO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO PRAY FOR SENATOR DORE IN THE HOSPITAL IN SEATTLE. WE ASK YOU, DEAR FATHER, TO TOUCH HIM TODAY, RESTORE HIM TO HEALTH AND TO STRENGTH AND TO HIS RESPONSIBILITIES HERE IN THIS LEGISLATIVE BODY. THANK YOU FOR DOING IT. WE ASK ALL OF THESE THINGS IN THE NAME OF YOUR SON AND OUR SAVIOR, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. AMEN!"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woodall, a copy of the prayer was ordered sent to Senator Fred Dore who is ill in a Seattle hospital.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

EXTENSION REQUESTED

Senator Rasmussen asked that the Committee on State Government be given an additional two weeks for consideration of Senate Resolution 1973-15.

MOTION

Senator Durkan moved that the following Senate Bills be re-referred to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means: 2183, 2004, 2066 and 2140.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: “Would Senator Durkan yield please? Will this journeyman electrician bill produce revenue, Senator?”

Senator Durkan: “That is the claim of the proponents, Senator. Incidentally, I am for the bill, but I think just because I am for it is no reason why it should stay on the Senate floor if it has a fiscal impact. I think that all bills with fiscal impact have been put into Ways and Means Committee. I intend to then hold a hearing on all the substantive matter bills with a fiscal impact and let the committee vote on them. I feel as chairman of the Senate Ways and Means Committee I have the responsibility to bring it to their attention.”

MOTION

Senator Day moved that the motion by Senator Durkan be divided.
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Day carried.
The motion by Senator Durkan to re-refer Senate Bill No. 2183 to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means carried.
The motion by Senator Durkan to re-refer Senate Bill No. 2004 to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means carried.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Greive served notice that he would move for reconsideration of the vote by which Senate Bill No. 2183 was re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the motion of Senator Durkan that Senate Bill No. 2066 be re-referred to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that the Senate recess for the purpose of a Democratic Caucus.
The motion lost on a rising vote.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Pro Tempore Henry announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Miss Washington, and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Grant, Stender, Mardesich and Lewis (Harry) to escort Becky Posey, Miss Washington, to a place of honor upon the rostrum. With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit the honored guest to address the Senate.
The special committee escorted Miss Washington from the bar of the Senate.

MOTION

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2362, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2287, by Senators Bottiger, Stortini, Fleming and Ridder (by Joint Committee on Education request):

Implementing law relating to school district organization.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2287, implementing law relating to school district organization (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 19, after “by” and before the comma on line 20, strike “the members of the school board and approved by the county committee on school district organization” and insert “a qualified demographer commissioned by the superintendent of public instruction”

On page 1, section 1, line 23, after “district” and before the period, insert “without regard to its political characteristics or the residence of incumbent directors”

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 24, strike “the school board and approved by the county committee” and replace with “a qualified demographer commissioned by the superintendent of public instruction”

On page 1, section 1, line 25, after “thereof” and before “to” beginning on line 26, insert “,, in the judgment of the superintendent of public instruction,”

On page 2, section 1, line 2, after “district” and before the period, insert “except as provided for in section 2 of this amendatory act”

On page 2, section 2, line 24, after “Within” strike the remainder of the entire section and insert “ninety days after the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, the superintendent of public instruction shall notify the school boards of school districts, other than school districts of the first class having an enrollment of seventy thousand pupils or more in Class AA counties, having had an enrollment of one thousand or more pupils for any past three consecutive years, of their director district boundaries as established pursuant to section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act. Whenever such district is divided into director districts or director districts are adjusted and notice provided by the superintendent of public instruction, the incumbent directors thereof shall continue to serve for the terms for which they were elected and if two or more such directors reside in the same director district, the school board of directors shall determine which one of the directors shall be assigned to that director district and which director(s) shall be assigned to a director district(s) without a resident director. Directors assigned to director districts in which they are not residents shall serve until their current terms expire at which time successors shall be elected as provided by this 1973 amendatory act to serve terms as provided by law.”

On page 5, after section 8, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

In line 8 of the title after “sections” and before the period insert “; and declaring an emergency”

Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Odegaard.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator Gardner, there are several of us over on this side questioning this bill and its effect on districts other than Tacoma. Can you describe to me what school districts in the state would be affected? Specifically, am I correct that any district with over a thousand students would be affected?”

Senator Gardner: “Senator Lewis, Senator Bottiger has the report in front of him and he can answer that specifically if you will allow me to defer to him.”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Lewis, it is true that every school district over a thousand would be affected. However, I think every school district in the state is affected by the one man one vote proposition. So when we are talking about a portion of this bill, you have to understand that the theory of one man one vote would affect many school districts boundary sizes and population scope.”

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendments to page 1, section 1, lines 23, 24 and 25 and the committee amendment to page 2, section 1, line 2 were adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, section 2, line 24.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: “Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, does this restrict those class AA counties with seventy-thousand people or more? What is the relation there?”

Senator Bottiger: “It exempts out the Seattle school board and the purpose of that language that I think you are directing your attention to is to not affect the Seattle school district.”

Senator Guess: “Thank you.”

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the committee amendment to page 2, section 2, line 24, was adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, after section 8 adding a new section.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: “Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, does this bill affect all first class school districts?”

Senator Bottiger: “I think it affects second class school districts too.”
THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1973

Senator Atwood: "You are asking that this bill go into effect immediately. Can the demographer do all these districts? There are over a hundred of them, aren't there?"

Senator Bottiger: "Yes, there are but I think you have to look at the report to see whether there will be a change. Many of the second class school districts already have this provision and for others there will be no change in their existing pattern. There is still another group that have already redistricted, as for example the district I am from. They have already complied with the one man one vote. So they are exempted. Having worked on the redistricting of the legislature with all of its problems, I can tell you that if you will turn the demographer loose and tell him to forget where people live and what the political complexion are, it is just not that difficult a job."

Senator Atwood: "How many districts would have to comply if this goes into effect immediately?"

Senator Bottiger: "I do not know."

Senator Atwood: "I think we should know that. Are there fifty, a hundred or what?"

Senator Bottiger: "I will know. After the motion to set over I will be able to tell you next time we consider the bill."

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Bill No. 2287, the adopted committee amendments, and the pending committee amendment to page 5, after section 8, adding a new section, hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, February 15, 1973.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I object until I ask a question which I think he might be able to answer without holding it over. Senator Bottiger, when you say you have to hire a demographer, are you confining it to the point that if the school board itself can divide these districts up equally that they are going to be held up until they can find somebody that qualifies for this map twisting job or do you really mean that they have the power to hire a demographer if they wish but that if they can do the job themselves there is nothing to keep them from doing it? The question is one I want you to look into while you are looking at the other matter. The question is, if we are going to confine it just to a demographer that qualifies under this title, are we hamstringing these boards so they cannot get their own job done right away?"

Senator Bottiger: "Well, Senator Bailey, demographers are not that scarce. A demographer is a geographer who is conditioned to economic, social, ethnic things and there are plenty of them. I think the Senate recommended five or six and the House Democratic Caucus recommended several. We did not have any shortage of them I can assure you. The job is just not that difficult if all you are talking about is population. The census tracts are laid out. You take the population of the district divided into five and then just start plotting. Now there are several people down here that can do this job very easily. I think that Senator Greive and I could probably get qualified as demographers after our experiences."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried. Senate Bill No. 2287, together with the adopted committee amendments and the pending committee amendment, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, February 15, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, Senate Bill No. 2350 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, February 15, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2251, by Senators Francis, Bottiger and Clarke (by Secretary of State request):

Setting requirements for corporate names for miscellaneous and mutual corporations.
REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2251, setting requirements for corporate names for miscellaneous and mutual corporations (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 17, after "(4)" strike "Shall" and insert: "The name of any corporation formed under this section after the effective date of this amendatory act shall"

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2251 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, in your committee there was a proposal that they require nonprofit corporations to the Secretary of State to send notice back to the local area. Was that incorporated in this bill?"

Senator Francis: "No, it is not, Senator Rasmussen. We have several other Secretary of State request bills, however, and each one of them only contains a small part. I believe we do still have that bill pending."

Senator Rasmussen: "Can you incorporate that in some future bill or should we get the House to put it on this one?"

Senator Francis: "No, it is in another bill and we will be moving it but it is a separate item and could not be covered under the same title as this one."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Francis."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2251, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea 47; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaelder, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody 47.

Absent or not voting: Senator Whetzel 1.

Excused: Senator Dore 1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2251, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2415, by Senators Washington, Bailey and Wanamaker:

Defining "ground waters".

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2415 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Senator Washington, will this in any way affect my area? Several people irrigate out of wells. Will this have any effect on any rights that anyone has at the present time?"

Senator Washington: "No, it affects no rights that anyone has at the present time."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jolly: "Would Senator Washington yield to another question? As you know, Senator Washington, the ground water table in the Columbia Basin area has risen considerably due to irrigation. And the landowners that drill wells to tap this water must pay a charge to the irrigation district. Now my question is, does this bill affect this procedure any?"

Senator Washington: "No, this bill does not affect that right. As a matter of fact, irrigation districts will continue to be able to make such charges for water relating to presently drilled wells and they will continue to be able to make the charge for wells which are drilled in the future."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2415, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Stender, Whetzel—2.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2415, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2324, by Senators Day, Bailey and Atwood (by Department of Personnel request):

Amending the duties of the state committee on salaries.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2324 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2324, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblach, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—47.

Absent or not voting: Senator Whetzel—1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.
SENATE BILL NO. 2324, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2196, by Senators Gardner, Fleming, Murray, Peterson (Ted), Francis and Stortini (by Joint Committee on Education request):
Authorizing community education pilot programs and appropriating funds therefor.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2196, authorizing community education pilot programs and appropriating funds therefor (reported by Committee on Education):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 10 after “education” strike “pilot”
On page 1, section 1, line 12, after “supplies” and before “for” strike “or materials,” and insert “, materials, or instructor costs,”
On page 1, section 1, line 18, after “schools” and before “community” strike “and” and insert “,”
On page 1, section 1, line 18, after “districts” insert “, and other civic and governmental organizations,” Beginning on page 1, line 22, strike all of Section 2.
On line 1 of the title, after “education” strike “pilot”
On line 3 of the title, after “28A.58 RCW” insert a period and strike the remainder of the title.
Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted).
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 21, strike the period and insert “: PROVIDED FURTHER, That state funds appropriated to the common schools or to the superintendent of public instruction shall not be used for the purpose of this act.”
On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Gardner moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2196 be advanced to third reading.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Francis yield? How do you protect the district from liability? Do you get waivers from these groups when they come in or does the district take out additional coverage? How is that handled?”

Senator Francis: “I have not asked. I assume they could get a waiver. I do not know of any situation where the district would be liable unless there were some inherent hazard or some latent hazard in the physical facilities and as far as I know there are not any at Lincoln High School, but I can understand your concern there.”
The motion by Senator Gardner failed. Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2196 was passed to third reading.

MOTION

At 12:00 noon, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Thursday, February 15, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
THIRTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Day and Dore. On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Senators Day and Dore were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Damon Filan and Susan Ridder, presented the Colors. Dr. Henry S. Rahn, pastor of First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD, OUR FATHER, FOR THIS NEW DAY BRIGHT WITH HOPE AND FULL OF PROMISE, WE GIVE THEE THANKS. WE ARE GRATEFUL ALSO FOR THESE LEADERS OF STATE GOVERNMENT ASSEMBLED HERE, WHO HAVE SEEN THE NEEDS, ARE FACING THE PROBLEMS, AND HAVE ASSUMED THE BURDEN OF SOLUTION. AS THEY WORK WITH INSIGHT AND DEDICATION, GRANT TO EACH THE JOY OF ACHIEVEMENT. FOR THIS WE PRAY IN OUR MASTER'S NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Appointing pro tempore judges of the court of appeals.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2350, appointing pro tempore judges of the court of appeals (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1 (1), line 8, after “,” and before “may” on line 9 strike “a majority of a division of the court of appeals” and insert “the chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Washington”

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Clarke. Greive, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 5, after “service” and before the period insert “:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the total amount of combined compensation received as salary and retirement by any judge in any calendar year shall not exceed the yearly salary of a full-time judge”.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2350, together with the adopted committee amendment, and the adopted amendment by Senator Mardesich, was ordered placed at the end of the second reading calendar for today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2464, by Senators Guess and Fleming (by Department of Highways request):
Providing for competitive bidding for highway construction and maintenance.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 2, line 8 after "deems necessary" strike all the matter down through "for bids" on line 15 and insert the following ": PROVIDED, That when the estimated cost of any contract to be awarded is less than twenty-five thousand dollars, the call for bids need only be published in one paper of general circulation in the county where the major part of the work is to be performed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when the estimated cost of a contract to be awarded is [five-thousand] seven thousand five hundred dollars or less, including the cost of materials, supplies, engineering, and equipment, the state highway commission need not publish a call for bids."

On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2464 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2464, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.
Voting nay: Senators Canfield, Clarke, Matson, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Stender, Woodall—7.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Will Senator Lewis (Harry) yield to a question? Does this mean then that the money set aside in the supplementary budget for the Employment Security
THIRTY-NINTH DAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1973

Department then would be reverted and that item in the supplemental budget would not stand?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "No, it means that the raises that are included in the supplemental budget will come out of the Reed Act funds."

Senator Ridder: "Where does that appropriation go then that was appropriated to take care of those people?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "There was no appropriation. It was appropriated in the supplemental from the Reed Act funds. There was no appropriation in the supplemental other than the one that we are describing here. There were no general fund dollars ever intended to go to Employment Security to pay for the raises over there."

Senator Ridder: "So this authorizes that increase then from Reed Act funds?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "This legislation is a technical amendment which permits the use of Reed Act funds for a period of twenty-five years to comply with a change in federal."

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblach, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—45.

Absent or not voting: Senators Scott, Twigg—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 18, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2287, by Senators Bottiger, Stortini, Fleming and Ridder (by Joint Committee on Education request):

Implementing law relating to school district organization.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2287, all committee amendments with the exception of the committee amendment to page 5, section 8 were adopted on Wednesday, February 14, 1973. Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, section 8 on Wednesday, February 14, 1973.
The motion by Senator Bottiger carried.
Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Clarke and Bottiger:
On page 1, section 1, line 16, strike “one” and insert “twenty-five”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegard: “Mr. President, would Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, why are you particularly selecting the figure of twenty-five thousand? If the philosophy of the bill was good down to one thousand, which the committee felt it was, why is twenty-five thousand a particularly magic figure?”

Senator Clarke: “The reason for that was that in discussions with various members there was an objection to the mandating at a state level that school districts must, in effect, have director districts and that those director districts must be chosen in the manner specified in the bill. So the reason for picking that particular figure was merely to restrict the bill to the very few districts which we understood were the ones that wanted a rifle shot at the problem. We felt in reality it was a little unfair to some of the other districts who probably were not aware of this particular situation and had not had an adequate opportunity to consider the application of this particular bill to their situation. Twenty-five thousand pretty much restricts this to the very large districts and the understanding was at this time that is the only place the problem existed.”

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Clarke and Bottiger:
Amend the Clarke-Bottiger amendment to page 1, section 1, line 16, by striking “twenty-five thousand” and inserting “thirty-three thousand five hundred”
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: “Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator Atwood, if your amendment passes or Senator Guess’s amendment passes, will you then support the bill?”

Senator Atwood: “Probably.”
The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senators Clarke and Bottiger was adopted.
The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.
On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended and the following amendment by Senators Clarke and Bottiger to the committee amendment was adopted:
Amend the Committee Amendment to page 2, section 2, line 24 as follows: On line 7 of the committee amendment strike “one thousand” and insert “thirty-three thousand five hundred”

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Guess and Lewis (Harry):
On page 1, section 1, line 17, strike “shall” and insert “may”
Debate ensued.
The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2287 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2287, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 20; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Voting nay: Senators Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Sellar, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Wnamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—20.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2287, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2350, by Senator Francis (by Judicial Council request):
Appointing pro tempore judges of the court of appeals.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2350, the committee amendment and amendment by Senator Mardesich having been adopted previously today.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "appeals" and before the period insert ":
PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no judge pro tempore appointed to serve on the court of appeals may serve more than ninety days in any one year: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the court of appeals shall not utilize the services of judges pro tempore to exceed two hundred forty court days during any one year"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Woodall yield to a question?. Senator Woodall, the appeals court at the present time has three members. Is there any restriction that two members cannot hear cases?"
Senator Woodall: "Yes, that is the whole point. There is a positive restriction. All they can do is sit around and write opinions on cases they have heard before. They cannot sit as a court until they have a third member there. That is the whole thrust of this measure."
Senator Rasmussen: "Why don't we change that law? There would not be any objection to having two members of the appeals board hear the cases unless they divided on and then they could not come to any decision."
Senator Woodall: "Well, that would change the basic structure. Most people felt that when you appeal that they wanted a minimum of three to hear the cause. Now that is a new concept that you are injecting right now."
The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2350 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2350, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wnamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—45.
Absent or not voting: Senators Peterson (Ted), Stender—2.
ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2350, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2504, by Senators Sandison and Bailey:
Establishing a board on geographic names.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 7, line 29, after "duties" and before the period insert "which shall be paid by the agency that each member represents and, for the two members of the general public, by the department of natural resources"
On motion of Senator Sandison, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2504 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator Sandison, under this section eight, if a person in a radio advertisement said, 'Come on out on the Northgate freeway to Northgate,' would that be in violation of this section; and, secondly, if someone in an advertisement referred to the George Washington Memorial Bridge in Seattle as the Aurora Bridge and said that they are located at the north end of the Aurora Bridge, would they be in violation of this section?"

Senator Sandison: "No, not as I interpret the bill nor was this the testimony of any of the people supporting it. What they are trying to get at in this section are these people that will take over an existing lake and because it is named some particular esthetic name such as Conifer, we will say, and they want to change the name to Lake Conifer because they are starting a promotion, they start calling it Lake Conifer and using it that way. That would be certainly in violation. But not anyone that wants to advertise their business separately because of common usage."*

Senator Francis: "Senator, would that mean then that perhaps the reverse would be true, that—it says, 'No person shall in any advertisement or publication attempt to change local usage,' etc. If someone decided to refer to the Aurora Bridge by its proper name, the George Washington Memorial Bridge, would they then be in trouble in this section?"

Senator Sandison: "Of course, the first thing is that the George Washington Memorial Bridge is not a geographic area. It does not come under the bill. And I think that is the biggest problem. We would be talking about mountains, lakes and streams and so on."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2504, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Clarke, Francis, Guess, Lewis (Bob), Metcalf, Murray, Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—14.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis (Harry), Peterson (Ted), Stender—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2504, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
MOTION
At 12:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 7:00 p.m.

SENATE BILL NO. 2275, by Senators Guess, Woodall and Keefe:
Changing the effective date of the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2275, changing the effective date of the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Act (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 8, after “effective” strike the balance of the sentence and Add a new section immediately following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and chapter 70.96A RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall make and deliver a written progress report on the implementation of the uniform alcoholism and intoxication treatment act every ninety days up to the effective date of the act, January 1, 1975 to the appropriate committee of the legislative council, or its successor."

On line 3 of the title, after "sess." insert ""; and adding a new section to chapter 70.96A RCW."

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Van Hollebeke, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Connor, Francis, Jones, Murray, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, you are looking at a state-wide problem and you are worrying about Expo '74 and there are other legislators in this body that have deep concern about the implementation of this act. Can we justify one particular community in the state prolonging this program? Can you justify the action that this body should take to put this off for an additional year?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Peterson, I think that the program is already in operation in Seattle and it will not hurt in any way the operation there. I have had correspondence from the group in Wenatchee. The Wenatchee World ran an article on this. The editor happened to be down in Portland, Oregon and he found out that down there they had put it into effect without having the proper facilities and so there was a half a page story with photographs in the Wenatchee World about the possibility that the bill would go into effect in the state of Washington without the necessary facilities. I also just this week have had a letter from the Clark County alcohol and treatment unit and they urge that we put this off until 1975 because they do not have the necessary facilities. If the pilot project that is going to give them some money goes through then they will build the facilities and they figure that it would be better to put it off another year."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Senate Bill No. 2275 with the pending committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Friday, February 16, 1973.

SENATE BILL NO. 2093, by Senators Atwood, Newschwaner and Marsh:

Establishing procedures for the disposition of certain monies not otherwise provided for by law.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2093, establishing procedures for the disposition of certain monies not otherwise provided for by law (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 2, line 23, before "a statement" strike "and to the legislative budget committee"

On page 2, section 2, line 2, after "received," add a new sentence as follows: "A copy of any proposal submitted to the governor to expend money from an appropriated fund or account in excess of appropriations provided by law which is based on the receipt of unanticipated revenues shall be submitted to the legislative budget committee and also to the standing committees on ways and means of the house and senate if the legislature is in session at the same time as it is transmitted to the governor.

On page 2, section 3, line 12, after "committee" and before the period insert: "and also to the standing committee on ways and means of the house and senate of all executive approvals of proposals to expend money in excess of appropriations provided by law"

On page 2, after line 12, insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No state department, agency, board, or commission shall expend money in excess of appropriations provided by law based on the receipt of unanticipated revenues without complying with the provisions of this act."

Renumber the remaining section.

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Canfield, Gardner, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Marsh, Metcalf, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted).

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that Senate Bill No. 2183 be placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "I would like to ask Senator Mardesich a question. Senator, I am a little reluctant to put it at the foot of the calendar. How long is it going to be before we get the fiscal note or do you have any information at all?"

Senator Mardesich: "We plan to run until we finish this calendar today, including another one."

Senator Greive: "Okay, fine. I have no objection."
The motion by Senator Mardesich carried. Senate Bill No. 2183 was placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2081, by Senators Whetzel, Bottiger and Woody:
Providing for the adoption of the uniform management of institutional funds act.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2081. The committee amendment to page 5, striking all of section 13 was adopted on Thursday, February 15, 1973.
An amendment by Senator Clarke to page 2, section 3, line 27 had been moved for adoption on Thursday, February 15, 1973.
The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Whetzel, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 2081 was ordered placed at the end of the second reading calendar for today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2275, by Senators Guess, Woodall and Keefe:
Changing the effective date of the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Act.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2275 on second reading. Senator Guess having moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8, on Thursday, February 15, 1973.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, I have in mind a specific measure that is yet to be presented to this body in the reallocation and the distribution of services at Northern State Hospital, and the alcohol detoxification center and treatment center is part of this program. Do you consider your amendment to the effect that you would halt all alcoholism and detoxification treatment to people of the state?”

Senator Guess: “Senator Peterson, in talking with my attorney I am told that this would not slow down the detoxification units. They are already in existence. The one in Seattle is working very successfully. They have been most fortunate in receiving federal funds to support that and we do not believe that the amendment would deter the agencies from going ahead if they have the funds.”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Thank you.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: “Would Senator Guess yield? Senator, will your attitude be the same if the money for the pilot program in Spokane is taken out of the budget?”

Senator Guess: “The pilot program for Spokane is going to last only six months.”

Senator Durkan: “They still had more in it. They had more money provided for. If that money comes out of the budget, will your feelings be the same as far as the amendment is concerned on this act?”

Senator Guess: “I would be willing to see the money come out if it does not extend through the period of 1974.”

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 8, was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the committee amendment adding a new section was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2275 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2275, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 26; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Connor, Donohue, Durkan, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Scott, Sellar, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Woodall—26.

Absent or not voting: Senator Rasmussen—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2275, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2378, by Senators Walgren, Guess and Stortini (by Department of Highways request):
Providing for the sale of certain property held by the highway department.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 4, line 12, add a new section to read as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Before any sale shall be final, the commission shall cause to be reported in a legal newspaper of the county in which the property is located a legal advertisement setting forth the legal description of the property, the commonly known address, the name of the purchaser, the purchase price, the name of the agent, attorney, or real estate broker handling the transaction, the terms of the sale including the price and interest rate on any deferred payments, in three consecutive editions thereof. Any individual may within thirty days after the first publication of such advertisement offer subject to the same terms or conditions a purchase price of ten percent more than the offer advertised and the commission shall make such sale to the second purchaser subject again to like advertisement bid procedure as provided hereinabove."
Renumber the following section.
Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger:
Amend the Bottiger amendment to page 4, line 12, as follows:
On line 4 of the amendment, after "advertisement" insert ", and such other advertisement as the commission shall deem advisable,"

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Washington yield? This particular amendment does not mandate them to do anything, does it?"
Senator Washington: "No, it does not."
Senator Woodall: "Well now, everyone is concerned about disclosures and so forth. It seems to me that here is an area where there certainly ought to be minimal publicity given. Here would be an area where someone might have a specialized knowledge that a certain little block of land was available and he could slip a bid in, unless they happen to read a little item on the classified ad page, would never know that a certain tract of land was available. Don't you think there ought to be some minimal standards written in? We used to get a book that would come around when the state was selling land. Shouldn't there be some kind of a requirement of general circulatorization where everyone gets a chance to bid on this land?"
Senator Washington: "If you have some additional suggestions I would certainly go along with you. This is my effort to add something to what has already been put in in the form of an amendment. I think it is important that there be more than just the plain legal advertisement which, as you and I both know, many times is not widely read. Now I certainly have no pride of authorship in this particular amendment. I put it out rather hastily right here at the last minute. If you can think of some language to tighten that up, I would be very pleased to go along with you on it."

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Woodall, Senate Bill No. 2378, together with the amendment by Senator Bottiger and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Washington was ordered held at the end of the second reading calendar for today.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 17, 1973.
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2183, by Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted) and Herr:
Licensing journeymen electricians.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2183, relating to licensing journeymen electricians (reported by Committee on Commerce):

On page 7, section 14, line 3, after "communications" and before "circuits" insert "or electronic".

On page 7, section 14, line 3, after "apparatus" and before "nor" strike ";" and insert ", radio or television stations;".

On page 7, section 14, line 10, before "working" strike "electricians" and insert "employees".

Signed by: Senators Greive, Chairman; Herr, Lewis (Bob), Peterson (Lowell), Wamamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Greive, the committee amendments to page 1 were adopted.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, section 14, line 3, after "communications" and before "circuits" insert "or electronic".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Bill No. 2183, together with the adopted committee amendments and the pending committee amendment to page 7, section 14, line 3, was ordered held for consideration following Senate Bill No. 2432.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2066, by Senators Durkan, Newschwander, Gardner, Marsh and Canfield (by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Modifying insurance programs for state employees and expanding the state employees' insurance board.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2066 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2066 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, section 1, line 9, after "18.25" insert "18.32".

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2066 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 17, 1973.

MOTION

At 10:15 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease.
The President called the Senate to order at 11:05 a.m.
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2432, by Senators Walgren, Guess, Metcalf and Matson:
Regulating sale and transfer of devices adapted for the use of drugs by injection.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2432 and the pending amendment by Senator Guess to page 1, section 1, line 5, striking "use," which was moved for adoption on Thursday, February 15, 1973.
The motion of Senator Guess carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 7, after "injection" and before the comma insert "into the human body".
On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 2, line 15, after "develop," insert "and" and after "prescribe" strike ", and enforce".
Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive and Guess:
On page 1, section 2, line 18, after "RCW" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such regulations of the state board of pharmacy shall not apply to hospitals, physicians, nurses, and other medical practitioners authorized by virtue of their license to administer medications by means of the devices described in section 1 of this act".
Debate ensued.
There being no objection, on motion of Senator Greive, the amendment was withdrawn.
Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Donohue:
On page 2, line 3, following section 5, add a new section to read as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The provisions of this act shall be inapplicable to farmers and veterinarians using the devices described in section 1 for purposes of animal husbandry."
Renumber the following sections.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Could your provisions be reworded to say that the provisions of the act shall be inapplicable to farmers using devices of a veterinary type rather than using devices described in one, because you have taken them out of the requirement for registering if they buy from a veterinary house? A veterinary house does carry the small needle as well as the large, and what we would like to see is them keep the small needle out of the hands of those people who should not be getting them."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, I tried to do that. Senator Woody could get up and tell you his wife raises registered Persian cats. Shots at the veterinary shop are thirteen dollars apiece. His wife has had a little nurse's training so they bought a hypodermic needle and give their own shots. We raise registered boxer dogs and the hypodermic needle we use on the dogs is the same kind that the doctor uses for penicillin in his office. So I cannot say there is the exact example that Senator Donohue used which we also used on our horses. I think we have got about eight or nine hypodermic needles of varying sizes. All of which are used for animal husbandry but could be used on human beings."

Senator Guess: "What I am trying to do is to leave within the bill the requirement that those people who buy syringes from the veterinary houses that are susceptible to use by human beings will just register them."

MOTION

Senator Guess moved that Senate Bill No. 2432 and the pending amendment by Senator Bottiger be held at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 17, 1973.
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Guess carried. Senate Bill No. 2432 and the pending amendment by Senator Bottiger was placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 17, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2183, by Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted) and Herr:
Licensing journeymen electricians.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2183, the committee amendments to page 1 having been adopted previously today. On motion of Senator Greive, the committee amendments to page 7, section 14, lines 3 and 10, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 6, line 26, after "certificate" and before the period insert "": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any person, firm or corporation, licensed and bonded pursuant to the provisions of RCW 19.28.120 shall not be assessed and shall not be required to pay the annual renewal fee or take the examination for certification of competency"

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, section 12, beginning on line 10, after "the" strike the balance of the section down to and including "fund" on line 17 and insert "state general fund"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator, the amendment as I understand it would require a general fund appropriation. Is it your thinking that the general fund be a vehicle to underwrite these specialty programs such as this is?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, it is just the opposite. The fund will generate about ninety thousand dollars and the estimated expenditures are about fifty thousand so I do not want forty thousand left in that fund which can be used for purposes other than which the legislature wants designated."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? What happens to the money if there is an overage in this special fund at the end of a fiscal period?"

Senator Durkan: "The legislature can use it for auditing, it can use it for pension programs, it can use it to meet the additional salary increases of the inspectors, it can use it for any number of things. It is like the premium tax on insurance. Senator Clarke is listening now. The amount of money that goes to the Insurance Commissioner is minimal as to the amount of money that comes from the industry."

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved that Senate Bill No. 2183 be referred to the Senate Committee on Commerce.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, I do not understand. How can you say that when Senator Lewis wants to send a bill to a committee that you are chairman of that his motives are less than pure? Would you enlarge on that?"

Senator Greive: "Well, I think that is a very good question and a very embarrassing one. I do not have a good answer to that."
The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) failed.
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment was adopted.
Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 7, section 14, lines 9 and 10, as amended by the committee amendment, strike "regularly employed maintenance employees working on the premises of their employer" and insert "persons employed by others as maintenance employees who construct, install, repair or modify electrical installations in the course of their employment". Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved that Senate Bill No. 2183, as amended, and the pending amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) be placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 17, 1973.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? What is the schedule for today and tomorrow?"

Senator Mardesich: "It was our intention to attempt to finish this calendar but it is obvious we are not going to do it. I think that we will probably run until about 12:15 and then adjourn because we have committee meetings scheduled at 2:00 and Rules at 1:00. We will convene at eleven o'clock tomorrow."

Senator Greive: "If it can be the first bill on tomorrow's calendar, I have no objection."

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried. Senate Bill No. 2183, as amended, and the pending amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) was ordered placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 17, 1973.

SENATE BILL NO. 2140, by Senator Francis:
Fixing remuneration for salaries and actual expenses of a judge pro tempore.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2140, fixing remuneration for salaries and actual expenses of a judge pro tempore (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "[traveling]" and before "expenses" insert "travel".
On page 1, section 1, line 12, after "his residence]" and before "during" insert "at ten cents per mile from his residence and in addition his actual living expenses not to exceed forty dollars per day"
On page 1, section 1, line 19, after "[traveling]" and before "expenses" insert "travel" and after "expenses" insert "at ten cents per mile from his residence and in addition his actual living expenses not to exceed forty dollars per day"
On page 3, section 2, line 9, after "lawyer" and before "pro tempore" insert "serving as judge"

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Greive, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, the committee amendments to page 1, section 1, lines 11 and 12 were adopted.
Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, why was the figure forty dollars? My understanding for most interim committee work and for other state employees the per diem is twenty-five dollar limit. I was just wondering why the judges should have forty?"

Senator Mardesich: "Is the chairman of the Judiciary or his vice chairman able to answer that question?"

Senator Francis: "The forty dollars was a committee amendment to put a limitation on it. We have shifted from twenty dollars a day to actual expenses. But the committee members felt that under no circumstances should they be getting more than the legislature and accordingly we put a forty dollar a day ceiling on it. The indications are or were, in testimony, that many of them would be getting less than they do now. Instead of getting an automatic twenty dollars a day they will have to document their actual expenses."

The motion of Senator Mardesich carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the committee amendment to page 3, section 2, line 9 was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, line 2, after "service" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the total amount of combined compensation received as salary and retirement by any judge in any calendar year shall not exceed the yearly salary of a full time judge".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "May I ask Senator Mardesich a question? I went along with your amendment yesterday, Senator. I just wonder if I discovered a flaw in it or if you missed a word. Do you mean that compensation as a pro tempore judge cannot exceed a full compensation or do you mean the compensation of their pension plus what they would get as a pro tempore judge could not exceed a full time judge?"

Senator Mardesich: "It reads that the total amount of combined compensation received as salary and retirement by any judge in any calendar year. Now he would be a judge in a calendar year and would include not only that compensation he received as pro tempore but the dollars he received as retirement."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "I wonder if Senator Francis would yield? I think I agree, Senator Francis, with the amendment offered by Senator Mardesich. When we considered the matter relative to the appellate court pro tempore judges the other night I offered an amendment that limited the number of pro tempore judges that could be serving in the appellate court. Now it would be a little difficult to offer a similar amendment on this particular measure because of the fact that there is different work loads in different counties and different numbers of judges. And I think this does deal with the superior court as well as pro tempore judges of the superior court—as well as those in the supreme court. Can you tell me, Senator Francis, what testimony was given to indicate that pro tempore judges and how many pro tempore judges are necessary in, for example, King County?"

Senator Francis: "Senator, I am sorry, I do not know the answer to that. I know that pro tempore are fairly frequently used in King County and that has been one of the means by which King County has been able to keep from getting as far behind in their work load as otherwise might be expected. But I cannot tell you the exact number. In fact, that has not come up. I would say that amending this bill the way we amended the other one would be outside the scope and object of the bill since this is simply a matter of compensation and not a matter of authorizing the use of them."

Senator Woodall: "Well, I could answer that in Yakima County we have used one very extensively and we are only eleven months behind. We are having a hearing tonight. Hopefully the body will see fit to grant the fifth judge there, but without the use of the pro tempore our calendar would have been in much worse shape than it is."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, after section 2, add a new section as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect."

Senator Odegaard moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:
Amend the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 as follows:
On line 4 of the amendment strike "forty" and insert "twenty-five".

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "After a committee amendment has been adopted, is a further amendment at this time to the adopted committee amendment in order?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Woodall, the President believes that the point as raised by Senator Woodall is in order and it would take reconsideration of the adoption of the committee amendment in order to open it up for further amendment."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Odegaard moved the rules be suspended and the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 was adopted.
The motion carried.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 19 on reconsideration.
Senator Odegaard moved adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment.
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Odegaard carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.
The committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "RCW 2.08.180" and before the period insert ";"; and creating a new section".
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2140 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2140, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 33; nay, 13; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.
Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Fleming, Grant, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Newschwaertner, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Stortini—13.
Absents or not voting: Senator Stender—1.
ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2140, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2081, by Senators Whetzel, Bottiger and Woody:
Providing for the adoption of the uniform management of institutional funds act.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2081, as amended.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 3, line 18, strike all of section 3. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2081 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2081, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.
Absent or not voting: Senator Stender—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2081, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Saturday, February 17, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FORTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Dore. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages John Cleary and Constance Hix, presented the Colors. Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of The First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER, AS THIS WEEK DRAWS TO A CLOSE, WE WOULD EXPRESS OUR DEEP GRATITUDE FOR THE JOY THAT HAS COME TO ALL AMERICANS IN THE RETURN OF OUR PRISONERS OF WAR. OUR FAITH IN THY PROVIDENCE AND WATCHFUL CARE HAS BEEN RENEWED AND STRENGTHENED. WE COME TO THEE, ASSURED THAT THOU HAST AN INTEREST IN OUR WELL BEING, AND A CONCERN IN WHAT WE DO HERE. HELP US THEN IN THE TASKS OF THIS DAY. IN OUR MASTER'S NAME. AMEN.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Gardner, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Metcalf, Newschwaner, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Scott.
Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.
MOTION
At 12:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Marden, the Senate recessed until 1:45 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION
The President called the Senate to order at 1:45 p.m.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Francis, Senator Greive was excused.
On motion of Senator Newschwan, Senator Twigg was excused.

SECOND READING
SENATE BILL NO. 2800, by Senators Durkan, Donohue and Odegaard:
Adopting the budget for the department of social and health services and allied agencies.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2800 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE
President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended and the following amendments were considered in toto:
Senator Fleming moved adoption of the following amendments:
On page 1, line 21, strike "$584,612,919" and insert "$586,484,870".
On page 1, line 22, strike "$431,101,166" and insert "$433,031,624".
On page 3, line 24, strike "$1,015,714,085" and insert "$1,019,516,490".
On page 5, line 16, after "recipients" strike "$338,922,873" and insert: "PROVIDED FURTHER, That $3,802,409 of which $1,871,951 shall be the state share shall be utilized exclusively for the purpose of providing a cost of living increase to the standards for recipients of aid to families with dependent children and general assistance recipients of public assistance effective July 1, 1973: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such increases shall be maintained throughout the coming biennium .... $342,725,282".

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Fleming failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendments were adopted in the order shown:
On page 4, section 2, line 2, strike "$52,572,215" and insert "$50,771,674".
On page 3, section 3, line 24, strike "$1,015,714,085" and insert "$1,013,913,544".
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment by Senators Lewis (Harry), Durkan, Fleming and Atwood was adopted:
On page 10, section 16, line 17, strike the period and insert "PROVIDED, That provisions of this appropriations act shall not take effect until the legislature shall have approved the entire 1973-75 biennial budget for the state of Washington."

Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800 was considered in the Committee of the Whole and reported back to the Senate with the recommendation that it do pass as amended.
President Cherberg resumed the Chair.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, as I understand it, Rainier School for the mentally retarded lost several necessary positions because of the Governor’s economic measures in the last year or so. Are these positions now back in the budget for this school for the 1973-75 biennium?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, this was specifically discussed in the Senate Ways and Means Committee. One of the particular aspects of this budget is that both the man years and the amount of dollars have been provided for to Rainier and the department to fill those necessary vacancies. And we think the budget is flexible enough and there is a clear intent that the money is there for Rainier School."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Durkan further yield? Senator Durkan, how much money is included in this budget for the artificial kidney treatment program?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator Odegaard and members of the Senate, eight hundred and twenty four thousand dollars have been included in the voc hab rehabilitation appropriation. Two hundred thousand of this appropriation is state general fund money and is to be used for subsidizing treatment for those kidney patients who cannot qualify under other federal programs. These are the same funds that were previously, and this is important to understand, these are the same funds that were previously appropriated to the Division of Health. And I might add on this that we are not actually able at this time to make a sound estimate as to how much money is going to be available until such time as we have had an opportunity to determine what the federal government is going to do under HR 1."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, will Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, is it the intent of the Ways and Means Committee and will be the intent of this Senate that there shall be no ratable reductions?"

Senator Durkan: "There is no reason for ratable reductions in this budget and specifically we considered this in the manner in which we made the reductions. We reduced in the area of employment and we reduced in the area of case loads. The action of the Ways and Means Committee was intended so that, and I would specify ratable reduction as far as grants or vendor payments or anything else, there is plenty of money in this budget based upon the present economic rate."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Durkan yield? I would like to know about Larch Mountain Honor Camp. I do not see anything in the budget on it."

Senator Durkan: "In the Governor’s proposal Larch Mountain has been phased out. In the Department of Social and Health Services we have accepted the Governor’s proposal. However, in the Ways and Means Committee meeting the Department of Natural Resources has now come forward and pointed out to the legislature that in the event that we are going to close Larch Mountain that it is going to cost the Department of Natural Resources an additional quarter of a million dollars to provide fire protection and fire control in that area. Based upon that it is my intention to hold extensive hearings with the Department of Natural Resources and probably towards the effort of keeping or opening Larch Mountain in some degree and using the labor that we have there now."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator, when you were making your remarks you made a statement that this would be a 'cut back' in the employment of people for the department. I think it would be well if we would set the record straight. Is it not true that you are really saying this is a cut back from the projections of the Governor's budget, that we will maintain the present employment level, at least in that department?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, Senator, that is correct. If I gave anyone reason to believe that this budget provides for any layoffs that is not correct. This budget provides for the level of employment that is presently in the department and probably with a minimal increase of about one hundred and seventy-nine man years. So there is no reason for anyone in state government or in the department to say that they are going to lose their jobs because of this budget being passed. There might be a reason to think that there might be a little more productivity."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, along those same lines as the inquiry from Senator Bailey, you indicated this cut back in man hours. Was there something mentioned in the committee as it related to the specific money's running out on the EEA jobs and what effect this would have?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator Fleming, the question was raised by the chairman to the department to EEA and were these people going to be laid off if it did expire before the beginning of the biennium. The conversation between the chairman and the department representatives was to the extent that there is sufficient vacancies available in which there should be no need to lay these people off on the grounds that EEA was running out."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator, on page two, lines ten to seventeen, there is 'PROVIDED' that says that the department will initiate negotiations with the federal government and so on, on two areas. One, the administration of the state supplementary security income program and also the Medicaid program. Is the intent here that the department will not only initiate negotiations but will complete negotiations so that the federal government will be responsible for the administration of those two programs?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, we do not know the answer to that. The language was in there, the department is negotiating with them. The only additional language that we put in there was that before any negotiation is completed it will have to have legislative authorization."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Atwood yield? Senator Atwood, has there been any figures supplied as to cost if we go along with the Governor's scheme of closing these centralized treatment places and start setting them up in different communities around the state? I have not seen any firm figures as to how many different places are contemplated. Have there been any figures or costs? What is the difference when we close, like Sedro Woolley, and then when we start putting them in different communities, has it been outlined how many are we going to have and what the cost factor? Does anybody know?"

Senator Atwood: "No, Senator, it has not. The state has told the communities, 'Get ready', and the communities are feverishly trying to get ready. Our area is particularly hard hit as is Senator Lowell Peterson's and Senator Wanamaker's and Senator Mardesch's areas. All of these areas are feverishly trying to prepare to meet these needs. And I have seen no figures. I have seen no over-all plan and as a matter of fact none of the local communities have had any word as to what they can expect in this area. The people from my area in the mental health field testified they thought they could meet the need. But now they are feverishly trying to prepare. I object to this way of doing it. I think the department could ask what wherewithal they need in the local communities in all their areas. And most of these communities are not ready for this. In the area of alcoholism, we just delayed the date because the state does not have an over-all plan ready to implement that. I am very concerned in the area of the retarded, Senator. There is just no planning on the amounts of money it is going to take, or the number of group homes in all these areas, or the amounts of sheltered workshops in this area, and I have seen no over-all figures on what this over-all effort is going to mean in terms of dollars or even base programs and I think it is incumbent on the department to really get together with these local communities and start in earnest on these things."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, am I correct in what I have been hearing? I am not a member of the committee, of course. How many people are there and do we have any other facility ready where they go to if at the end of the biennium Sedro Woolley is closed?"

Senator Durkan: "The positions and the money, Senator, have been built into Western and those at Northern State Hospital will be transferred to Western."

Senator Talley: "I would suggest to Senator Woodall that he go down to some of these rest homes and he will see where these mental patients are going."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 7; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Francis, Guess, Lewis (Harry), Metcalf, Murray, Woodall—7.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2800, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would like to take this time to explain the reason why I changed my vote after standing on the floor saying that I would vote for the measure. I did change my vote for the purpose of trying to get on the conference committee."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive: "And the reason I changed my vote was for the same reason. Once he changed his it was not necessary."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Durkan: "Mr. Chairman, I would like to thank the members of the Ways and Means Committee for the hard work they put in on this. I would also like to thank my two vice chairmen because really they did the work. Particularly Senator Odegaard who has been diligently chairing these joint hearings. He is to be congratulated. We feel that he has got great potential and in about twenty years there will be room for him. But more than that, Mr. President, and I think it has been clearly demonstrated as to the effectiveness of the Legislative Budget Committee staff, without their help in directing the activities of both the Senate and House Ways and Means Committee staff, we would not have been able to proceed as we did. If there is any one thing that should lend a strong support of this legislature toward increasing the strength and the availability for the Legislative Budget Committee, it is the manner in which they operated on this. I think they have done an excellent job, and in conclusion I would like to thank you for the vote. I think it is indicative that we can take segments of the budget and do things and pass it and continue with our work. It to me is gratifying."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2378, by Senators Walgren, Guess and Stortini (by Department of Highways request):

Providing for the sale of certain property held by the highway department.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2378 and the pending amendment by Senator Bottiger and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Washington from Friday, February 16, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, the Senate commenced consideration of the following amendment by Senators Washington and Woodall:

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Washington and Woodall:

On page 1, section 1, line 23, after "sale" strike the semicolon and insert "in the following manner: By posting a written notice particularly describing the property to be sold and the time and place of the sale, in three public places in the county where the sale is to take place, for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the date of the proposed sale. Further, there shall be notice of the proposed sale published in a display advertisement of no less than two column by two inch or one column by four inch size in any daily or weekly legal newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated. This advertisement shall appear in the legal notices section and the real estate classified section. This publication shall appear for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the proposed sale and the notice shall particularly describe the property to be sold and the time and place of the proposed sale: PROVIDED, That if there is no legal newspaper published in this county, then such notice shall be published in the legal newspaper published in this state nearest to the place of sale".

The motion carried and the amendment by Senators Washington and Woodall was adopted.

The amendment by Senator Washington to the amendment by Senator Bottiger moved for adoption on Friday, February 16, 1973 was adopted on a rising vote.

The amendment by Senator Bottiger, as amended by Senator Washington, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2378 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2378, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblach, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Voting nay: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2378, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2183, by Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted) and Herr:
Licensing journeymen electricians.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2183, as amended.
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the amendment moved for adoption on Friday, February 16, 1973 was withdrawn.
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment was adopted:
On page 7, section 14, line 9, strike "maintenance".

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Bailey moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Bailey to page 3, section 6, line 26 was adopted on Friday, February 16, 1973.
The motion carried.
Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, section 6, line 26, after "certificate" and before the period insert "; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any person, firm or corporation, licensed and bonded pursuant to the provisions of RCW 19.28.120 shall not be assessed and shall not be required to pay the annual renewal fee or take the examination for certification of competency".
On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:
Amend the Bailey amendment to page 3, section 6, line 26, as follows: On the seventh line of the amendment, after "fee" and before "for" on line 8, strike "or take the examination".
The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.
Senator Stender moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, section 13, line 21, after "chapter" and before the period insert "; PROVIDED, That in the administration of this act the director shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardisich: "Would Senator Stender yield? Senator Stender, the thing that is bothering me about your amendment perhaps could best be put by way of an example. What if two trades enter into a controversy, one trade takes the position that a job is not an electrician’s job and happens to prevail and at the same time the department has classified that as electrical work under this bill, we would be in the position of having the trades having agreed that it is not electrical work and the department holding that it is electrical work under this bill and it would be an impossible situation?"

Senator Stender: "I am not so sure that the hypothetical analogy that you mention would ever come about. The question of whether or not it is electrical work is not the question that is involved. That particular question would be determined at the outset of the job when the assignment of work was made. In other words, if there are differences between a couple of trades with regard to certain phases of the work, those then of course are separated and the parties confer separately in regard to those particular differences. If they cannot agree the contractor, by virtue of the rules of the National Joint Board, must make an assignment based on jurisdictional agreements or practices within the industry or in the trade over the country. Once that is done the contractor is obligated to carry that assignment out until he is directed otherwise, either by the two disputing unions or by the authority of the National Joint Board for settlement of jurisdictional disputes. And to overlay a state law onto this procedure, they are just completely out of context with what is being done in the industry. Now in this case, if this work was clearly electrical work that is involved in, then of course the contractor on his staff is going to have electricians. He is not going to put blacksmiths on electrical work. The fact of the matter involved with welding of steel rods between two bars is what it amounted to and it required a welder, not an electrician, to weld those. And of course that just happens to be this particular dispute."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Is this explanation completely clear to you now?"
Senator Mardesich: "I am more confused than ever."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Stender yield to a question? Senator Stender, I am concerned about your amendment as it might affect the powers of Labor and Industry in their assigned responsibility in arbitration. In another section they can be invited in to settle disputes in industry and it appears that your amendment might strike that power in any controversy arising over work assignments. I do not have the other statutes but I have the caucus attorney talking to Labor and Industries now. Have you checked to see that this will not affect that area?"
Senator Stender: "Senator, you are talking about state employees and this is not state employees. This is in the construction industry. The Department of Labor and Industries has no powers at all to enter in the jurisdictional disputes between the trades and the construction industry. This is under the National Labor Relations Board."
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Stender carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment by Senator Durkan was adopted:
On page 7, after section 16, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect."
On motion of Senator Talley, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 7, section 16, line 22, after "Title" and before "RCW" strike "19" and insert
"18"
On motion of Senator Talley, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "RCW" and before the period insert "; prescribing penalties; and creating a new section."
On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No.
2183 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Greive would yield to a question?
Senator Greive, I am reading on page two, line sixteen which says: 'To be eligible to take the examination the applicant must have worked as an apprentice electrician for four years or shall furnish written evidence that he has had at least four years practical experience in wiring for the installation of electrical equipment of light, heat and power'. Now I am wondering by this act are we in some way locking into law a union apprenticeship program and in effect are we doing perhaps what Senator Guess is saying, screening out people and letting somebody decide by quotas or some other way whether or not people are going to be able to become electricians?"

Senator Greive: "No, I do not believe we are. I think we have got this problem in any kind of a craft whether it be an engineer or a lawyer, a doctor or an electrician or anybody that has a skilled craft. You have to have some sort of a requirement so you can be sure that the person has, in addition to the ability to pass a written examination, some practical experience. And that is all that this demands. It does not argue about where he gets his experience. It does not even require that it be done in the state of Washington. It merely requires that he have some practical experience in addition to the written examination and I think all of us would be for that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, what concerns me about this bill is a situation, and I will give you an illustration. I have a small contractor that I call in on occasion to do some remodeling work on my house and he and his partner do substantially all of the work. Now in connection with that work he does a little wiring, a little plumbing and things of that nature. Now if this and the plumbing bill were to pass, would this mean from a practical standpoint that instead of that contractor being able to do the work that I want him to do, it would be necessary for him to have a separate licensed electrician and a separate licensed plumber?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Clarke, if the person in question does this work for you for money, and I would assume that the way you described it he does, then he will be required to (1) either be licensed himself or to bring on the job a licensed journeyman plumber or electrician. He will no longer be able to pursue his occupation as he has in the past. This will mean that he will have to cut down on his earnings in order to spread the earnings of his firm to satisfy the requirements of this law."

Senator Greive demanded a Call of the Senate and the demand was not sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 26; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Rasmussen—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2183, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Greive served notice that he would, on the next working day, move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 failed to pass the Senate.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Is this subject to the cut off of Senate consideration of Senate bills on Monday?"
REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In reply to the inquiry by Senator Atwood, House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 states that commencing at 4:00 p.m. on the forty-third day of the regular session, except for appropriation and revenue bills, the Senate will only consider House bills and the House will only consider Senate bills. The only measures that could be considered other than House bills during that period of time would be appropriation and revenue measures."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973.

At 4:20 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 5:00 p.m., Sunday, February 18, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FORTY-SECOND DAY

EVENING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 5:00 p.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore and Durkan. On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senator Durkan was excused. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Bill Talley and Roberta Sneed, presented the Colors. Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of The First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD, THOU DOEST HOLD IN THE HOLLOW OF THY HAND THE DESTINY OF EACH OF US, BECAUSE OF THY PROVIDENTIAL CARE WE ARE HERE. LIKE THOSE WHO THROUGH AGES HAVE SOUGHT THY COUNSEL, SO WE COME ASKING THY HELP. QUICKEN OUR CONSCIOUSNESSES WITH THY HOLINESS, FEED OUR MINDS WITH THY TRUTH, PURGE OUR IMAGINATIONS WITH THY BEAUTY, AND FILL OUR LIVES WITH THY LOVE. HELP US TO DEVOTE OUR WILLS TO THY PURPOSE. THROUGH CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2025, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2066 on second reading.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2066, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Durkan, Newschwander, Gardner, Marsh and Canfield—by Legislative Budget Committee request):
Modifying insurance programs for state employees and expanding the state employees' insurance board.

The following amendment by Senator Newschwander which was moved for adoption on Friday, February 16, 1973 was adopted:
On page 3, section 1, line 9, after "18.25," insert "18.32,"
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, section 1(2), beginning on line 10, after "RCW:" strike all the material down to and including "otherwise:" on line 17.
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment by Senators Durkan and Day was adopted:
On page 4, section 2, line 20, after "care" and before "plans" insert "and other insurance"
On motion of Senator Wanamaker, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 5, section 3, line 17, after "funds" and before the colon insert "as specifically appropriated by the legislature for that purpose"
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 9, beginning on line 30, strike all of section 11.
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment by Senator Durkan was adopted:
On page 10, after section 11, add a new section as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. ... This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect."
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment by Senators Day and Rasmussen was adopted:
On page 9, section 9, beginning on line 22, strike all of section 9 and renumber the remaining sections.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment to the title:
On page 1, line 17 of the title, after "RCW 41.06.370;" insert "and creating a new section" and strike "and declaring an emergency"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "With the addition of the Durkan-Day amendment, is it possible to have an emergency clause? Are they not contradictory?"

Senator Day: "Well, it would take effect immediately predicated on a legislative appropriation."

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2066 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2066, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea's, 45; nays, 2; excused, 2.

Permitting public employees’ retirement system contributions for classified employees working on nine month basis as if they were working twelve months.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2358, permitting public employees’ retirement system contributions for classified employees working on nine month basis as if they were working twelve months (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

In section 1, line 7, after “board,” strike the remainder of the section and insert “contributions to the retirement system relating to any classified employee of a school district actually employed by the district on a continuous nine month basis shall be pro-rated on a twelve month basis and counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefits provided for in this chapter as for twelve months of service.”

Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted).
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2358 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
FORTY-SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Does the amendment we adopted deal with the contributions by the employee also? What I am concerned about in the situation, if you are handling the contributions on a twelve month basis and maybe the teacher's contract is not renewed over the summer. . . ."

Senator Ridder: "This has nothing to do with teachers. It is just classified."

Senator Whetzel: "Are they employed on a twelve month basis or are they also off during the summertime?"

Senator Ridder: "Some work nine months and some ten months."

Senator Whetzel: "After they leave in the summertime would we miss collecting the employee's contributions? I guess that is what I am trying to get at."

Senator Ridder: "No, this would be done exactly as they do the teachers today. They have a nine month contract but the contract is prorated over twelve months so everything is taken out on a twelve month basis."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2358, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 47; excused, 2.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Twigg, Senate Bill No. 2532 was re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SENATE BILL NO. 2559, by Senators Sandison and Donohue:
Relating to fairground capital improvements.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2559, relating to fairground capital improvements (reported by Committee on Agriculture):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 7, after "property" and before "from" strike "for a long term";

Signed by: Senators Jolly, Chairman; Donohue, Sellar, Twigg, Washington.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Jolly, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 7, after "property" and before "from" strike "for a long term"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, would Senator Canfield yield to a question? Senator Canfield, under the wording of this amendment it simply states that such leasehold and such leased property shall be exempt from taxation. The implication is that it is during the term of the lease but that is not explicit."

Senator Canfield: "I would take it that if it is leased that it would be in effect only during the term of the lease."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Canfield yield to a question? Senator Canfield, your amendment reads, 'and in the event such property and capital improvements are leased to any organization,' is there any way that you could tighten that down rather than to any organization? An organization might conduct an agricultural fair purely as a side line or a front for operating something else, and it would be part of it. The way that is worded, any organization could say, 'Well, I am conducting an agricultural fair.'"

Senator Canfield: "Gentlemen of the Senate and Senator Rasmussen, you will notice if you read on, 'pursuant to chapter 15.76' which is the agricultural fairs chapter which permits the operation of the fairs in the state under the fairs program. So it is pinpointed exactly."

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Sandison, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2559 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2559, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; excused, 2.
Voting nay: Senators Grant, Whetzel—2.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2559, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2568, by Senator Gardner (by Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction request):
  Authorizing second class school districts to draw and issue their own warrants.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2568 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2568, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; excused, 2.
Voting nay: Senator Mardesich—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2568, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 102, by Senators Atwood, Newschwander and Day:
  Requesting congress to allow federally-related public assistance mail to be sent under frank or at negotiated rates.
The memorial was read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Senate Joint Memorial No. 102 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial was placed on final passage.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? You said that this was an idea submitted to the department. Why is not this a departmental request?"

Senator Atwood: "It was an employee, I do not know what the department did about it. I just thought it was a whale of an idea and I put it into this form."

Senator Fleming: "I did not know whether they had objections to it . . . ."

Senator Atwood: "No, not as far as I know. Senator Day could answer that because he had the committee, but I do not think there is any objection from the department on this."

Senator Fleming: "I am just wondering because it was suggested to them why they did not do this themselves."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Joint Memorial No. 102, and the memorial passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 47; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 102, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having given prior notice, Senator Greive moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 failed to pass the Senate.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved that the motion for reconsideration be considered as the first order of business on Monday, February 19, 1973.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Under Rule 21, I think it is pretty obvious that you cannot do much with a motion to reconsider. It is the number two motion and the only motion that outranks it is the motion to adjourn."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Greive, in ruling upon your point of order, the President believes that Senator Lewis's (Harry) motion is in order and that the measure could be put over until tomorrow morning if the Senate so decides."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "If you will look at Rule 21 which rates the motions, you will find that a motion to postpone to a time certain is third under subsidiary motions, where a motion to reconsider is second under privileged motions. Now I do not know how under any circumstances you could, looking at Rule 21, rule that a motion to postpone could in any way take precedence over a motion to reconsider."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I believe that Senator Greive is correct as to his point. However, the motion before us is not the motion to reconsider and so therefore his argument is not valid and I believe that you did rule correctly."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the point is not as to the position. The President believes an incidental motion could be placed in regard to a privileged motion. Senator Greive, the Secretary has reminded the President that on the measure to loan the state's credit that you yourself had that measure held over for several days."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Greive will refer to Senate Rule 31, 'A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn'. The President believes that this fits this particular situation and that Senator Greive's point is well taken."

Senators Greive, Washington and Ridder demanded a Call of the Senate. The demand was not sustained.

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) to consider the motion for reconsideration on Monday, February 19, 1973 was withdrawn.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call on the motion for reconsideration and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Washington, Van Hollebeke, Herr, Talley, Knoblauch, Metcalf, Woody, Ridder and Connor.

ROLL CALL ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration carried by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Fleming, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Rasmussen, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—18.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Twigg—2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

The motion for reconsideration carried.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 4, line 18 of the printed bill, being line 24 of the engrossed bill, after "act" and before "for four" insert "or have satisfactorily attended for up to a maximum of two years an accredited vocational or technical school program related to the electrical trade" and after "for" and before "four years" insert "a combined total of".

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 3, line 7, strike the period and insert ": PROVIDED, That completion of a course of study in the electrical trade at an accredited school shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, would a motion to put over further consideration until tomorrow be in order at this time for this motion pending?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling upon the query, rules that a motion would be in order."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator, is there any indication of how long we are going to be going tonight?"

Senator Mardesich: "If we keep fooling around here the way we are we will be here until midnight."

Senator Fleming: "I do not have any place to go."

Senator Mardesich: "I intend to finish this calendar."

Senator Fleming: "You do? Okay."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 was ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2432, by Senators Walgren, Guess, Metcalf and Matson:
Regulating sale and transfer of devices adapted for the use of drugs by injection.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2432, as amended and the amendment by Senators Bottiger and Donohue to page 2, line 3 which was moved for adoption on Friday, February 16, 1973.
The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2432 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Ridder moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2432 be referred to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, will Senator Walgren yield? Was there a fiscal note prepared with this bill?"

Senator Walgren: "I do not know. Senator Day might be able to answer that."

Senator Atwood: "Appreciated Senator Ridder has raised the point, along with his motion, that this bill will entail additional costs in terms of man years and we just heard the Department of Pharmacy here the other day. Maybe we have not heard them yet. Senator Guess, is there going to be an additional cost entailed if this function is given to the department or Board of Pharmacy?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Atwood, the Board of Pharmacy appeared over at a committee meeting and I talked to them for fifteen or twenty minutes afterwards. I asked them how they would enforce the thing and how the job would be done. They said that they will make the same type of lists available and put them in the drugstores as are already there. They will just furnish them more copies of it. Yes, the cost of paper that the form will be printed on to go into the drugstores to be signed where the signing will be taking place is a very minor amount of money. Now the fiscal impact is negligible, absolutely negligible, and I think this is another bogeyman that is being raised at the bill."

MOTION

Senator Talley moved that the motion by Senator Ridder be laid upon the table. Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was not sustained. The motion by Senator Talley failed on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2432 was referred to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senate Bill No. 2216 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2321, by Senators Fleming, Matson and Grant:
Providing that school districts shall elect to cover services of employees under unemployment compensation.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 9, 1973

SENATE BILL NO. 2321, providing that school districts shall elect to cover services of employees under unemployment compensation (reported by Committee on Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 8, strike "July 1" and insert "September 30".
On page 1, section 1, line 10, after "RCW 50.44.040" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any employee of a school district receiving payments under contract shall be deemed employed and not eligible for benefits until the expiration of said contract".

Signed by: Senators Connor, Chairman; Fleming, Grant, Ridder, Stender.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendments were adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2321 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2321 was ordered placed on the third reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2294 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2329, by Senators Atwood and Mardesich:
Providing for changes in the legal services revolving fund.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2329 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: “I was attempting to get the floor before that motion was made to ask Senator Atwood if he would yield to a question. Senator, I was attempting to, and I have not given it a careful perusal, but attempting to ferret out before a move to advance this, just what this bill did. I do not think I object to it but I do not understand it. I was asking our caucus and nobody could explain it.”

Senator Atwood: “During the interim period the Budget Committee took a look at these revolving funds. If you recall earlier, the General Administration’s revolving fund had a ceiling put on it. This bill puts a ceiling on what the Attorney General can charge, it makes it actual costs. And they have now developed a cost table for all of the various agencies they are billing. If you will take a close look at it, it also says that the billings must be made once within every six months or quarterly and it must go through the revolving fund. We got a lot of complaints during the interim of people getting horrendous bills for attorney fees. I think the Lieutenant Governor got one for use of the Attorney General. We do not get charged by that revolving fund but all the colleges and universities that do not have full time AG’s on their staff get huge bills now, and this bill puts a cap on what he can charge and how the charge is to be handled.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Atwood further yield? Is there any provision to get a refund in case you get bad advice?”

Senator Atwood: “Well, I think we might set up a procedure where you can sue and get some back from the revolving fund.”

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2329, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 46; nay, 1; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2329, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
SENATE BILL NO. 2552, by Senators Walgren, Wanamaker and Sandison:
Authorizing continued support of the Puget Sound reserve account.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2552 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jolly: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, it is my understanding that this bill does not change the present formula. Is this correct?"
Senator Walgren: "That is correct."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2552, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 47; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day,
Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray,
Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison,
Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—47.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2552, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2113, by Senators Day, Keefe and Murray:
Establishing a state hospital commission to study hospital costs and approve hospital rates.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2113 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendments were adopted:
On page 2, section 4, line 28, after "individually" and before the semicolon insert ":
PROVIDED, That when rate review and approval determination are to be made concerning osteopathic hospitals, the osteopath who is a member of the advisory committee shall sit on the commission in place of a practitioner who is not an osteopath".
On page 4, section 7, line 12 before "health" insert "hospital".
On page 5, section 8, line 9, after "members" insert "a chairman and".
On page 5, section 9, line 25, after "of" and before "health" insert "hospital".
On page 5, section 10, line 30, after "fields" insert "related to the functions of hospitals,"
On page 7, section 13, line 25, before "health" insert "hospital".
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendments to the title were adopted:
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "Relating to" insert "hospital", and on line 2 of the title, after "RCW" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "defining crimes and prescribing penalties."
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill
No. 2113 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Washington, Woodall, Woody—39.

Absent or not voting: Senator Twigg—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2113, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2340, by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted) and Sandison (by Interim Committee on Fisheries, Game and Game Fish request):
Providing for adoption of rules and regulations of the department of fisheries according to the administrative procedure act.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2340 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2340, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Twigg—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 2340, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2345, by Senators Atwood, Durkan and Canfield:
Providing for a legislative auditor.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 10, after “appoint” and before “a” insert “, with the consent of the senate.”

On motion of Senator Atwood, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2345 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator, I note in your remarks that you say the legislative auditor is limited to seven years. Is there some rationale that you could forward to that?"

Senator Atwood: "No, that was what the Hawaiian and Michigan statutes had. Our auditor talked to them. They thought it was a long enough period for any one man. This is a tough job. It is an arbitrary figure. You could have made it nine or five or four, but we just picked the seven because the other states were using that length of time."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sandison: "Will Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator, it struck me that if we have a man for seven years, he probably is going to spend seven years wherein he will have no retirement benefits accrued because he probably will not want to participate. What is planned along this line?"

Senator Atwood: "I cannot answer that because you are right, we would probably have trouble getting somebody. The salary on this job, though, is equivalent to the director of OPP&FM. So it is high enough so that that would be one of the major incentives to this job."

Senator Sandison: "It would have to be high."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Atwood, as prime sponsor of this bill I note that we appoint the legislative auditor. What effect in turn does this have on our auditor downstairs, Bob Graham?"

Senator Atwood: "It has no effect. Our auditor has performance audits only. We passed the performance audit bill here two years ago. Bob Graham will continue to be the auditor on the fiscal legal part of the budget expenditures. We do not intend to get into that field at all. We are strictly doing the performance audits and auditing the budget. We will do the management surveys which now are the performance audits that I am referring to."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Atwood, the reason that my question is raised is that the auditor that we have now performs performance audits on our individual legislative committees. I had the authority as chairman of an interim committee from the auditor to expend some state funds out of the pre-existing committee. The auditor told me that I could expend these funds in the last biennium. I set up an interim committee office and staff, spent the money and the auditor then comes down and tells me that I made an illegal expenditure and I had basis in fact in his authority to expend these funds. Are we now getting into a different situation here which is going to be in conflict with the auditor's duties downstairs?"

Senator Atwood: "In answer to Senator Peterson's question, the auditor, Bob Graham, will continue to be the fiscal legal auditor of the state. The Budget Committee auditor does not now nor does he under this bill have the power to do the fiscal legal audit. That is what he was doing when he told you that you were expending funds illegally. Our auditor would never tell you that. All our auditor would do is say, 'You are doing a lousy job.' Our auditor is going to be evaluating a program and reporting whether it is good or no good or should be changed. But he will not be saying that expenditures you made are illegal or legal. That is Bob Graham's job. This bill does not change that in any way, shape or form. Two years ago Bob Graham did attempt to do some performance audits on legislative committees and that was the end of his performance audit function. But in any event, Senator, the legislative auditor will not be doing that type of an audit. That is Bob Graham's job."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Do I interpret your remarks to say then that the legislative auditor will be performing in an advisory function?"

Senator Atwood: "No. He will make recommendations to the legislature on whether the agency is doing its job or not but that is all. We will be the final arbiters of whether we wish to continue the program or discontinue it."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator Atwood, you would be hiring a very key and essential man for the legislature. It is extremely critical that the right man be selected. I wonder if you would comment on the intent of the hiring practice as you visualize it as far as a probationary period or other precautions are concerned."

Senator Atwood: "I would assume, Senator, that we would probably have not less than a six month probation period. He is now subject to Senate confirmation so with those two additional safeguards I would assume that we would have a probation period and the Senate would also have a chance to look at him."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, will Senator Atwood yield to another question? Senator Atwood, there have been a number of queries about this seven year term. You have a six month probation and then freeze the man into a seven year term. This also is bad. People of equal importance like school superintendents get three year terms and things like that. I am all in accord with the internal auditor concept. I think he can do a wonderful job for the legislature, but I would hope that you would take out that once he is confirmed he is locked into his seven year term. Now, what is the practice in general accounting in Washington, D.C.? Is he appointed for a four year term by the President?"

Senator Atwood: "The comptroller-general of the United States, I believe, is appointed by the President but he serves under Congress, I believe, and I do not know what the length of his term is. I think it changes with the presidency but I could be in error on that. Maybe Senator Bailey could answer that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Senator Rasmussen asked me about the comptroller-general of the United States. He is appointed for a term of fifteen years by the President and confirmed by the Senate. And both he and his assistant hold office for fifteen years and they are not eligible for reappointment. Neither one."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2345, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senator Knoblauch—1.
Absent or not voting: Senator Twigg—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2345, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 104, by Senators Francis, Metcalf, Gardner and Murray (by Joint Committee on Education request):

Providing for development of a comprehensive plan for revision of the state's current school financing and distribution systems.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendments in toto:
On page 1, line 21, after "Instruction" strike "is requested to" and insert "shall".
On page 1, beginning on line 26, strike all the material down to and including "disregarded." on page 2, line 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Gardner yield? It is the intent by this amendment that the superintendent from his own budget undertakes this study so there is no question in anybody's mind about this. I know he has about ten people over there doing it all the time anyway. But just so it is very clear that he is to continue to use his own funds to do this and not ask us for more."

Senator Gardner: "Yes, sir."
The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Gardner, Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 104 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, do you mean that we are asking the Superintendent of Public Instruction to do the job of the legislature, or is he just going to move dollars around that he has within his present budget?"

Senator Francis: "Neither one, Senator Rasmussen. We are asking that the method of distribution and financing of the schools be studied and a proposal be made. Of course the legislature is going to be the one to decide."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is not exactly clear to me what they are proposing. I see Senator Ridder has the answer."

Senator Ridder: "Senator Rasmussen, we in the Appropriations Committee have already heard a part of this proposal, a change in the formula, the idea of going back to unit cost and a generalized salary schedule for implementing staff weighting characteristics. These have come before us already and they look to be in good form. We are working on them and this is being implemented already."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 104, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea's, 36; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Twigg—2.
Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 104, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SENATE BILL NO. 2453, by Senators Guess, Lewis (Harry) and Newschwendter: Raising compensation of city councilmen in third and fourth class cities.
REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2453, raising compensation of city councilmen in third and fourth class cities (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 16, after “amount” and before “as” on line 17 strike “not exceeding twenty-five dollars per meeting for not more than two such meetings each month,” and insert “[not exceeding twenty dollars per meeting for not more than two such meetings each month.]”

On page 2, section 2, line 5, after “salary” and before “as” on line 7 strike “not exceeding twenty-five dollars per meeting for not more than two council meetings per month” and insert “[not exceeding twenty dollars per meeting for not more than two council meetings per month].”

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Talley, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 16.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

Amend the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 16, as follows: After “monthly]” insert “[as the city council may fix by ordinance which shall be fixed by ordinance and may be revised from time to time by ordinance, but any increase or reduction in the compensation attaching to an office shall not be applicable to the term then being served by the incumbent].”

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 16 as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the committee amendment to page 2, section 2, line 5 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2453 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2453, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Twigg—1.

Excused: Senators Dare, Durkan—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2453, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2101, by Senators Durkan, Connor and Peterson (Ted):

Providing for the regulation and licensing of plumbers.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, line 15, after “plumber” strike the period and insert: “:

PROVIDED, That completion of a course of study in the plumbing trade at an accredited school shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Will Senator Newschwander yield to a question? Senator, would you have any objections to an amendment to your amendment which says, ‘A study in a plumbing trade at an accredited school of three years duration or more shall constitute sufficient?’ In other words, the point is do you want to fix it so some people can shorten the course or are we willing to give them the same period of time of instruction as the next person?"

Senator Newschwander: "I would be happy to answer that. In the vocational school in Tacoma we have no terms, years, semesters. You can start a course in April and as soon as you have attained a successful completion where they think that you are capable, then you are eligible. And so just to tie this thing down to three years, why slow a young man down if he has got the brains and the energy to get through the course in one year or one and one half years or whenever the school feels that he is capable?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Newschwander yield? Senator Newschwander, I think that Senator Greive does have a point. I think that I know what accredited means but I think that it might be clearer if we were to make that an accredited public school so that we would not have the correspondence type courses and that type of thing enter into this problem."

Senator Newschwander: "Senator Mardesich, Senator Gardner just came over to me and proposed the same correction. I said draw up an amendment if you wish so that it would definitely be tied to, say our community college system."

Senator Mardesich: "I think if you put public in there that would solve that problem."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Guess moved that Senate Bill No. 2101 be held on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973.

The motion failed on a rising vote.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment:
On line 2 of the Newschwander amendment to page 2, section 3, line 15, after “trade” strike “at an accredited school” and insert “in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the Coordinating Council on Occupational Education”.

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Newschwander was adopted.

The amendment by Senator Newschwander, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 4, line 25, after “years” strike the period and insert “or have completed a course of study in the plumbing trade at an accredited school.”

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Newschwander was adopted:
On line 2 of the Newschwander amendment to page 2, section 4, line 25, after “trade” strike “at an accredited school” and insert “in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the Coordinating Council on Occupational Education”.

The motion by Senator Newschwander carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Newschwander, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 7, line 12, after “plumbing” and before “in” insert “as a journeyman plumber”.

Senator Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment:
.On page 4, section 7, line 13, after “sub-divisions” and before “without” insert “on any job or any employment”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “Would Senator Newschwandter yield? Senator Newschwandter, by this amendment is there any intent that this would have any effect on the question of union jurisdiction or any other union involvement?”

Senator Newschwandter: “Not to my knowledge.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: “Would Senator Newschwandter yield? Senator Newschwandter, I would like to ask the question a little more directly. By the insertion of this language, is it intended that anyone who has a certificate of competency can work on a job where a union security clause requires union membership without adhering to that union security clause?”

Senator Newschwandter: “To my knowledge I would say no because you cannot go across—there would be a picket line up within ten minutes if this came out. If you are a journeyman plumber and if you want to go out and do a little job somewhere on your own then you can do it. Closed shop, a union shop, I do not think it would have any effect on.”

Senator Grant: “That is not your intent then?”

Senator Newschwandter: “No.”

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Newschwandter carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, section 7, line 15, after “work” insert “: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this shall not preclude employees from adhering to a union security clause in any employment where such a requirement exists”.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 8, line 16, after “examination” and before “shall” insert “or fee”.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 2101 as amended was ordered held on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973 on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 and Senate Bill No. 2063 were ordered to hold their places on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 19, 1973.

At 10:08 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Monday, February 19, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FORTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Laird McCoy and Susan Gallup, presented the Colors. Reverend Arthur I. Anderson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ON THIS DESIGNATED PRESIDENT’S DAY, MAY EACH OF US PERMIT THIS PRAYER OF OUR FIRST PRESIDENT TO GUIDE OUR MINDS AND HEARTS IN THESE MEDITATIVE MOMENTS. ETERNAL AND EVERLASTING GOD, I PRESENT MYSELF THIS DAY BEFORE THY DIVINE MAJESTY, BESeeching Thee to accept my humble and hearty thanks, that it hath pleased thy great goodness to keep and preserve me the past night. Direct my thoughts, words and work; teach me how to live in thy fear, labor in thy service and ever to run in the ways of thy commandments. Preserve and bless our rulers in church and state. Bless the people of this land; be a father to the fatherless, a comforter to the comfortless, a deliverer to captives and a physician to the sick. Let thy blessing be upon our friends, kindred and families. Be our guide this day and forever; for Jesus Christ’s sake. Amen."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Chris Richard Calkins, president of the Snohomish County Future Farmers of America and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Jolly, Woody, Metcalf, Mardesich and Canfield to escort the guest to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

PRESIDENT’S PRIVILEGE

The President: “Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is a delightful privilege to have the opportunity to present to you President Chris Richard Calkins, who is president of the Snohomish County Future Farmers of America. Chris has a long and illustrious record in his work. In the beginning of his sophomore year he was elected as chapter delegate to the state FFA convention. One year later he was elected delegate to the national convention. In 1971 Chris received the Star Chapter Farmer Award and the Outstanding Citizen and Scholarship Plaque. In 1972 Chris was accepted to the Red Cross District Leadership Conference. As already mentioned, he is now president of the Snohomish County Chapter of the FFA. It is indeed a pleasure to present to you at this time Mr. Chris Richard Calkins."

REMARKS BY CHRIS RICHARD CALKINS

Chris Calkins: "Governor Cherberg, it gives me great pleasure to give you some promotional and educational information on the Future Farmers of America program.

"Good morning. It gives me a great privilege and honor to be here this morning to have the opportunity to express to you some of the views of the Future Farmers of America program and to explain a little bit about the FFA Week this week, February 17 through 24.

"President Nixon has said that he knows of no other youth organization that holds in its hands not only the power to feed America but to lead America than the Future Farmers of America.

"The FFA Organization has adopted as this year's theme; FFA—Unites Youth with Opportunities. It is these opportunities that make able the President's comment. For the FFA offers more than just leadership development. It offers the opportunity to develop a foundation for the future. This is made possible by the many activities that the FFA provides. Such competition in public speaking, parliamentary procedure, record keeping, leadership conferences, community projects, proficiency awards ranging from agribusiness to home improvement serve as stepping stones to develop a foundation for the future of the members and of America. Judging contests accompanied by oral reasons helps develop the concept of organized thinking. Communication of one's ideas is important, and the FFA strives to improve this. The primary aim of the FFA is to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship. It is this aim that guides our accomplishments.

"The feelings of FFA members have best been expressed many times by the returning numerous prisoners of war. We are proud of America and we are proud to be Americans."

The special committee escorted the honored guest from the Senate Chamber.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woody, the remarks by Chris Calkins were ordered sent by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the United States and the Washington State Congressional Delegation.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2004, by Senators Herr, Stortini and Van Hollebeke:
Providing for a state lottery.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Madesich, Senate Bill No. 2004 was made a special order of business immediately following the noon recess.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2317, by Senator Matson:
Changing penalties under Washington clean air act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2317, changing penalties under Washington Clean Air Act (reported by Committee on Ecology):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 1, line 18, after "RCW 70.94.205" and before "shall" insert "or any other provision of this act".
On page 1, section 2, line 24, after the colon, strike the remainder of the section and insert:
"In addition to or as an alternate to any other penalty provided by law, any person who violates any of the provisions of chapter 70.94 RCW or any of the rules and regulations of the [state board] department or the board shall incur a penalty in the form of a fine in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars per day for each violation. Each such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation."
Each act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the same penalty. The penalty shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the [executive] director [of the state board] or his designee or the control officer of the authority or his designee describing the violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due unless a request is made for a hearing to the [state board or] hearings board as provided for in chapter 43.21 RCW. When a request is made for a hearing, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order affirming the penalty in whole or part. [The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04. RCW.] If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the [state board] department or the board within [fifteen] thirty days after [receipt of notice imposing the same] it becomes due and payable, and a request for a hearing has not been made, the attorney general, upon the request of the [executive] director or his designee, or the attorney for the local authority, upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty in the superior court of the county in which the violation occurred. All penalties recovered under this section by the state board shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund or, if recovered by the authority, shall be paid into the treasury of the authority and credited to its funds.

To secure the penalty incurred under this section, the state or the authority shall have a lien on any vessel used or operated in violation of this chapter which shall be enforced as provided in RCW 60.36.050.

In all actions brought in the superior court for the recovery of penalties hereunder, the procedure and evidence shall be the same as in an ordinary civil action.”

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Murray, Van Huliebeke, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment by Senators Washington, Whetzel and Matson was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, following line 17, add a new paragraph as follows:

“Any person who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Each day upon which such wilful violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense. Upon conviction the offender shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars for each offense.”

Senator Newschwarder moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, after line 29 of the printed bill, being page 3, line 12 of the engrossed bill, add a new section to read as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 70.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law or statute a householder shall not be prevented from burning leaves, chippings, prunings or brush: PROVIDED, That the governmental authority of any city or town may regulate such burning by local law or ordinance.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: “The bill itself is very narrow in scope, relating only to the penalties for the violation of the Clean Air Act. On the other hand, the amendment by Senator Newschwarder would virtually gut the Clean Air Act and virtually prevent it from being effective in any way. It is very difficult for me to consider or think about an amendment which could more expand the scope and object of a bill.”

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “The President in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Washington finds that Senate Bill No. 2317 essentially does two things, reducing the fine from one thousand dollars to two hundred and fifty dollars and that usual civil rules of procedure apply in case of an appeal. The President believes that the amendment proposed by Senator Newschwander does change the scope and object of the bill and therefore is not in order."

The amendment by Senator Newschwander was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2317 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2317, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2317, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2592, by Senator Day:
Prohibiting certain discrimination against licensed optometrists.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2592 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2592, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Sellar, Whetzel—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Newschwander, Twigg—3.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2592, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 105, by Senators Washington, Grant, Ridder, Metcalf and Whetzel:
Amending the Constitution to provide for annual sessions and allowing the legislature to convene itself for extraordinary sessions of no more than thirty days.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardisich, Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was made a special order of business for 2:00 p.m. today.

On motion of Senator Mardisich, Senate Bill No. 2216 and Senate Bill No. 2294 were re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2101, by Senators Durkan, Connor and Peterson (Ted):
Providing for the regulation and licensing of plumbers.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2101, as amended, and the pending amendment by Senator Bailey to page 4, section 8, line 16 moved for adoption on Sunday, February 18, 1973.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Bailey was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Stender, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 7, section 14, line 2, after "chapter" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, That in the administration of this act the director shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry".

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 7, section 15, line 16, after "any" and before "business" insert "farm,"

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 7, section 15, line 20, after "neighbor" strike "or" and insert a comma, and after "relative" insert "or other person".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Clarke submit to a question? 'Or any other person,' Senator Clarke? Wouldn't that just wipe the bill out?"

Senator Clarke: "No, I do not think so, Senator, because if you will read the proviso, it relates to the right of any householder to have these minor things done when none of the individuals doing such plumbing hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of plumbing. If I am having some sprinkler work done on the yard and want to have a minor change in some pipes I can have a common laborer do that. I know he is not a plumber but I do not need a plumber. Or if I have a carpenter who is working on a minor type of repair and wants to move a pipe a little ways then I should be able to ask him to do that, knowing that he is not a plumber. This is a consumer protection type amendment."

Senator Talley: "Well under this then, if you wanted to move a sink, a bathtub and a shower you could just go ahead and do it then, right?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, Senator."

Senator Talley: "That would be incidental, wouldn't it?"

Senator Clarke: "No, that would be up to me to make my determination. And I think that you have some protection there in that this relates to the right of someone to assist or to receive assistance to the householder. I suppose in order to come within this I would have to hand the fellow a wrench so that I was doing part of the work and he was assisting me. But this is the right of the householder to employ whom he may desire to do the type of work that he wishes to designate."

Senator Talley: "He would not need a plumber then?"

Senator Clarke: "Not if the householder did not think he needed a plumber."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, I want this for the record. Do you feel that the term 'householder' would include a farmer? In other words, here is a farmer who is feeding a thousand or five thousand head of cattle and a pipe breaks. Now it is rather important that these animals be watered and do you think the term 'householder' is broad enough to include the farmer or does the farmer have to call up a certified plumber and wait for him to come out there? Now it is real important because, as Senator Donohue can tell you, the loss in weight factor if the feed program or the watering program is upset is great. So I am a little bit interested in what happens to the farmer."

Senator Greive: "In answer to Senator Woodall, I think it is pretty clear, especially with Senator Canfield’s amendment, that if you have a farm business or industrial plant or corporation and you do work on premises, that anybody that works for you can do it. Now that is the first thing. We also have the second proviso. Let us assume that you do not have anybody on the premises, such as a hired man or even a laborer that is doing other things, then it would seem to me that you become a householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor or any person or relative. The only exception I can think of and I want to be quite frank with you, that would be that if there was some farm upon which somebody did not live. That might present a problem here. But I would say that if you lived on the farm why there would not be any problem at all."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegard: "Mr. President, would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, the last proviso starting on line eighteen said 'That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the right of any householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor, relative.' Now it adds 'or other person when none of the individuals doing such plumbing hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of plumbing.' Does this mean that the work would have to be free gratis or does this mean that the friend, neighbor, relative or other person could charge for his labor?"

Senator Greive: "I think it is pretty clear that he could charge. It would seem to me that it is assumed that any work that is done anywhere is that which is done for compensation and I do not see how it could have any other interpretation. I appreciate that those who are sponsoring these two bills, the sponsors themselves, have given different arguments, but at least it is my legal conclusion that unless you say somebody is not to charge, it is to be expected they are going to."

Senator Greive moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2101 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Jolly, Connor, Talley, Metcalf, Francis, Van Hollebeke, Stortini and Herr.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Greive failed by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Fleming, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwanter, Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Wamak, Whetzel, Woodall—18.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Stender—2.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2101 was passed to third reading.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2183, by Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted) and Herr: Licensing journeymen electricians.
The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183, on reconsideration, and a pending amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) to page 2, section 3, line 7.

There being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, line 7 of the printed bill, being line 13 of the engrossed bill, after "electrician" strike the period and insert "Provided, That successful completion of a course of study in the electrical trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the Coordinating Council on Occupational Education shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency."

Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry):

On line 3 of the Lewis (Harry) amendment, after "education" and before "shall" insert "plus one year practical job experience."

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senator Gardner to the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) and the demand was sustained by Senators Connor, Washington, Talley, Day, Herr, Francis, Donohue, Bottiger and Ridder.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Guess, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwan, Odegard, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall—29.

Absent or not voting: Senator Stender—1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) to page 2, section 3, line 7 of the printed bill, being line 13 of the engrossed bill.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Talley: "Senator Greive made a statement last night that kind of frightened me then and it just scared the hell out of me now. He said we would be turning out seven hundred new lawyers a year. God help the state of Washington."

MOTIONS

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 6, line 29 of the printed bill, being page 4, line 5 of the engrossed bill, after "installation" insert "as a journeyman electrician" and on page 3, section 6, line 30 of the printed bill, being page 4, section 6, line 6 of the engrossed bill, after "subdivisions" insert "and on any job or in any employment."

On motion of Senator Newschwan, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) was adopted:

Amend the Lewis (Harry) amendment as follows: After "electrician" on line 3 of the amendment, strike the balance of the amendment.

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment was adopted on a rising vote:
ON PAGE 7, SECTION 14, LINE 13 OF THE PRINTED BILL, BEING LINE 18 OF THE ENGROSSED BILL, AFTER "NEIGHBOR," STRIKE "OR" AND INSERT A COMMA, AND AFTER "RELATIVE" INSERT "OR OTHER PERSON".

ON MOTION OF SENATOR TALLY, THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENT TO THE TITLE WAS ADOPTED: ON PAGE 1, LINE 2 OF THE TITLE, AFTER "RCW" AND BEFORE THE PERIOD INSERT "; PRESCRIBING PENALTIES; AND CREATING A NEW SECTION".

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

THE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION CARRIED.

THE PRESIDENT DECLARED THE QUESTION BEFORE THE SENATE TO BE ADOPTION OF THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENT BY SENATOR GARDNER:
ON PAGE 2, SECTION 4, LINE 18 OF THE PRINTED BILL, BEING LINE 24 OF THE ENGROSSED BILL, AFTER "ACT," AND BEFORE "FOR FOUR" INSERT "OR HAVE SATISFACTORY ATTENDED FOR UP TO A MAXIMUM OF TWO YEARS AN ACCREDITED VOCATIONAL OR TECHNICAL SCHOOL PROGRAM RELATED TO THE ELECTRICAL TRADE" AND AFTER "FOR" AND BEFORE "FOUR YEARS" INSERT "A COMBINED TOTAL OF".

SENATOR LEWIS (HARRY) MOVED ADOPTION OF THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDMENT BY SENATOR GARDNER: ON LINE 3 OF THE GARDNER AMENDMENT, STRIKE "ACT," AND INSERT "YEARS," AND STRIKE "FOR FOUR" AND INSERT "OR," AND ON LINE 5 OF THE AMENDMENT AFTER "YEARS" INSERT "AND SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED" AND STRIKE LINES 7 AND 8 OF THE AMENDMENT.

MOTIONS

ON MOTION OF SENATOR GREIVE, ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2183, THE PENDING AMENDMENT BY SENATOR GARDNER AND THE AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDMENT BY SENATOR LEWIS (HARRY) WERE ORDERED HELD FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION FOLLOWING SENATE BILL NO. 2456.

AT 12:20 P.M., ON MOTION OF SENATOR MARDESICH, THE SENATE RECESS TO 1:30 P.M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

THE PRESIDENT CALLED THE SENATE TO ORDER AT 1:30 P.M.

THERE BEING NO OBJECTION, THE SENATE WAS DECLARED TO BE AT EASE.

THE PRESIDENT CALLED THE SENATE TO ORDER AT 1:40 P.M.

On page 10, section 17, line 10, after "institutions" and before "in" insert "and elsewhere, which are involved in the education, maintenance or vocational training of the handicapped as directed by the legislature".

On page 11, section 22, line 24, after "of" and before "the" insert "programs in".

On page 11, section 22, line 25, after "institutions" and before "as" insert "and elsewhere, which are involved in the education, maintenance or vocational training of the handicapped as directed by the legislature".

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Day, Henry, Knoblauch, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendments to page 1 were adopted.

There being no objection, the Senate commenced consideration of the remaining committee amendments simultaneously.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the remaining committee amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield? It seems to me this amendment, Senator, would take the connotation that they are going to spend $x number of dollars for certain vocational training. How do you know what dollars are going to be available when you do this? Is there any way of knowing?"

Senator Rasmussen: "At the present time there is no way of knowing. All you can have is a rough estimate and I would hesitate to give that. However, Senator Stender, it leaves it under direction of the legislature. The legislature is not going to adopt programs without the ability to pay for it."

Senator Stender: "Your remarks demonstrated that you are going to take it out of the general fund and it is going to be financed by the general fund and going to fund it on this basis. Are you going to take it away from the general fund and put it in this special category? How do you know how much there is and whether or not there is enough to fund the programs that they now already have under the general fund financing?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Probably I did not explain it clearly. At the present time we are financing these programs out of the general fund. If this money supplements or takes the place of the general fund money it actually does not make a great deal of difference to the legislature. And there is not any question that the institutional program that we have will cost and does cost more than what you can raise in a lottery. But the people of the state have indicated that they desire a lottery and if they have a little clean fun and raise some money for good purposes, we have no objection. It helps the general fund in that respect."

Senator Stender: "Well, so that I get it clear in my mind what you are doing here is making a specific direction to the legislature or to somebody that x number of dollars is to be used in a specific manner to train the handicapped in a vocational area. Now you are going to have this in addition to the general fund or is it going to be in lieu of the general fund appropriations?"

Senator Rasmussen: "To the extent that this money is raised it will be in lieu of the general fund. And if there is more than sufficient money raised for this purpose it still would be under the control of the legislature."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the remaining committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

Following the enactment clause on page 1, line 14 strike everything after "Washington:" and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "State Lottery Law"."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a lottery to be operated by the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:
(1) "Commission" shall mean the state lottery commission established by this chapter;
(2) "Division" shall mean the division of the state lottery created by this chapter;
(3) "Lottery" or "state lottery" shall mean the lottery established and operated pursuant to this chapter;
(4) "Director" shall mean the director of the division of the state lottery.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is hereby established in the department of revenue a division of the lottery, which shall include a state lottery commission and a director.

The commission shall consist of five members, all of whom shall be citizens and residents of this state and all of whom shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the state senate. The members shall be appointed for one term of five years, except that of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. The term of each of the members first appointed shall be designated by the governor. No more than three commissioners shall be members of the same political party and none shall serve for more than one term. Commission members shall, annually, elect one from among their number as chairman of the commission.

Any vacancy in the commission occurring for any reason other than the expiration of term, shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment.

No commissioner or employee of the commission shall directly or indirectly, individually or as a member of a partnership or as a shareholder of a corporation, have any interest whatsoever in dealing in any lottery, or in the ownership or leasing of any property or premises used by or for any lottery.

Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, malfeasance and misfeasance in office, upon written notice and an opportunity to be heard at a public hearing.

Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same manner as provided for state officials generally in chapter 43.03 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

Upon his appointment, each commissioner shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, this bond shall be filed with the secretary of state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The division shall be under the immediate supervision and direction of a director, who shall be a person qualified by training and experience to direct the work of such a division. The director shall be appointed by the governor from a list of five qualified applicants submitted by the lottery commission. He shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

Any vacancy occurring in the office of the director shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

The director shall devote his full time and attention to the duties of his office and shall not engage in any other profession or occupation. He shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The attorney general shall be the general counsel of the state lottery commission and shall institute and prosecute all actions and proceedings which may be necessary in the enforcement of this chapter.

He shall assign such assistants as may be necessary to the exclusive duty of assisting the commission in the enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, the commission shall have the power to promulgate, amend, and repeal rules and regulations regarding, but not limited to:
(1) The type of lottery to be conducted;
(2) The price, or prices, of tickets in the lottery;
(3) The numbers and sizes of the prizes on the winning tickets;
(4) The manner of selecting the winning tickets;
(5) The manner of payment of prizes to the holders of winning tickets;
(6) The frequency of the drawings or selections of winning tickets;
(7) Without limit as to number, the type or types of locations at which tickets may be sold;
(8) The method to be used in selling tickets;
(9) Subject to the provisions of section 9 of this chapter, the licensing of agents to sell tickets: PROVIDED, That no person under the age of eighteen shall be licensed as an agent;
(10) The manner and amount of compensation, if any, to be paid licensed sales agents necessary to provide for the adequate availability of tickets to prospective buyers and for the convenience of the public.

In addition the commission shall have the power to:
(11) Advise and make recommendations to the director regarding the operation and administration of the lottery;
(12) Report monthly to the governor the total lottery revenues, prize disbursements and other expenses for the preceding month. Make an annual report to the governor and the legislature which should include a full and complete statement of lottery revenues, prize disbursements and all other expenses, plus any recommendations for changes in this chapter the commission deems necessary and desirable;
(13) Carry on a continuous study and investigation of lottery operations throughout this state, similar lottery laws in other states, all federal laws which affect lottery operations and citizen reaction to existing and potential features of the lottery, in order (a) to ascertain any defects in the state lottery law or in the rules and regulations issued thereunder whereby any abuse in the administration and operation of the lottery or any evasion of said law or said rules and regulations may arise or be practiced; (b) to formulate recommendations for changes and innovations in said law and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder to prevent such abuses and evasions, to better serve and implement the purposes of the state lottery; and (c) to guard against the use of said law and rules and regulations issued thereunder as a cloak for the carrying on of organized gambling and crime;
(14) The commission shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, papers, books, records and other evidence before it in any matter over which it has jurisdiction, control and supervision. The commission shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to persons whose testimony is required. If a person subpoenaed to attend in any such proceeding or hearing fails to obey the command of the subpoena without reasonable cause, or if a person in attendance in any such proceeding or hearing refuses, without lawful cause, to be examined or to answer a legal and pertinent question or to exhibit any book, account, record or other document when ordered to do so by the commission, the commission may apply to any judge of the superior court, upon proof by affidavit of the facts, for an order directing such person to show cause before the court why he should not comply with such subpoena or such order.

Upon return of the order, the court before whom the matter shall come for hearing shall examine such persons under oath, and if the court shall determine, after giving such person an opportunity to be heard, that he refused without legal excuse to comply with such subpoena or such order, the court shall order this person to comply herein forthwith and any failure to obey the order of the court may be punished as a contempt of the superior court;
(15) No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which at least three of the five are present and shall vote in favor thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director shall have the power, and it shall be his duty to:
(1) Supervise and administer the operation of the lottery in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and with the rules and regulations of the commission.
(2) Subject to the approval of the commission, appoint such deputy directors and such other professional, technical and clerical assistants and employees as may be necessary pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW.
(3) Act as secretary and executive officer of the commission.
(4) In accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission, license as agents to sell lottery tickets such persons as in his opinion will serve the public convenience and promote the sale of such tickets. The director may require a bond from every licensed agent, in such amount as provided in the rules and regulations of the commission. Every licensed agent shall prominently display his license, or a copy thereof, as provided in the rules and regulations of the commission.

(5) Confer as regularly as is necessary or desirable and not less than once every month with the commission on the operation and administration of the lottery; make available for inspection by the commission, upon request, all books, records, files and other information and documents of the division; advise the commission and recommend such matters as he deems necessary and advisable to improve the operation and administration of the lottery.

(6) Suspend or revoke any license issued pursuant to this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(7) Subject to the approval of the commission and the applicable laws relating to public contracts, to enter into contracts for the operation of the lottery, or any part thereof, and into contracts for the promotion of the lottery. No contract awarded or entered into by the director may be assigned by the holder thereof except by specific approval of the commission.

(8) Certify monthly to the state treasurer and the commission a full and complete statement of lottery revenues, prize disbursements and other expenses for the preceding month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Before issuing such license the director shall consider such factors as (1) the financial responsibility and security of the person and his business or activity, (2) the accessibility of his place of business or activity to the public, (3) the sufficiency of existing licenses to serve the public convenience, and (4) the volume of expected sales.

In addition, no license shall be issued to any person to engage in business exclusively as a lottery ticket agent, or to anyone who has violated any rule, regulation or order of the commission.

Any three persons objecting to the issuance of a license, or any person applying for and being denied such a license, may request and be granted a public hearing before the lottery commission.

For the purpose of this section, the term "person" shall be construed to mean and include an individual, association, corporation, club, trust, estate, society, company, joint stock company, receiver, trustee, assignee, referee, or any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, whether appointed by a court or otherwise, and any combination of individuals. "Person" shall also be construed to mean and include all departments, commissions, agencies and instrumentalities of the state, including counties and municipalities and agencies and instrumentalities thereof.

No federal employee and no state, county or municipal employee, or member of their immediate family shall sell or be issued a license to sell lottery tickets.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person licensed as provided in this chapter is hereby authorized and empowered to act as a lottery sales agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. No right of any person to a prize drawn shall be assignable, except that payment of any prize drawn may be paid to the estate of a deceased prize winner, and, except that any person pursuant to an appropriate judicial order may be paid the prize to which the winner is entitled. The director shall be discharged of all further liability upon payment of a prize pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. No person shall sell a ticket at a price greater than that fixed by rule or regulation of the commission. No person other than a licensed lottery sales agent shall sell lottery tickets, except that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any person from giving lottery tickets to another as a gift.

Any person convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. No tickets shall be sold to any person under the age of eighteen, but this shall not be deemed to prohibit the purchase of a ticket for the purpose of making a gift by a person eighteen years or older to a person less than that age. Any licensee or the employee or agent of any licensee who sells or offers to sell a lottery ticket to any person under the age of eighteen shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
All officers and personnel of the division and their immediate families shall be prohibited from purchasing lottery tickets and ineligible for all prizes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Anyone who fails to comply or attempts to evade any rule or regulation of the commission with regard to licensing, ticket accounting, claims validation or the handling of lottery receipts, or who wilfully makes any false statement or any false entry in any book or record required to be maintained by the commission or in any report required to be submitted by the commission, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than one hundred thousand dollars or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. No other law providing any penalty or disability for the sale of lottery tickets or any acts done in connection with a lottery shall apply to the sale of tickets or acts performed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Unclaimed prize money for the prize on a winning ticket shall be retained by the director for the person entitled thereto for one year after the drawing in which the prize was won. If no claim is made for said money within this year, the prize money shall be paid into the state lottery fund and allocated for purposes as otherwise here provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) There shall be a fund, known as the “state lottery fund”, which shall consist of all moneys, income, or revenue received by the commission. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the fund. All moneys received by the commission or any employee thereof, except for change funds and an amount of petty cash as fixed by the commission within the authority of law shall be deposited each day in a depository approved by the state treasurer and transferred to the state treasurer to be credited to the state lottery fund. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the commission or a duly authorized representative thereof. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control the state lottery fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from such fund.

(2) (a) Such moneys, to the extent necessary, shall be used for the payment of lottery prizes, and (b) for the expenses of the commission in administering and operating the lottery, but the amount so used shall in no event exceed forty-five percent and fifteen percent respectively. The balance of this fund, in no event less than forty percent of the total amount, shall be credited to the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The director may, in his discretion, require any or all lottery agents to deposit to the credit of the state lottery fund in banks, designated by the state treasurer, all moneys received by such agents from the sale of lottery tickets, less the amount, if any, retained as compensation for the sale of the tickets, and to file with the division reports of their receipts and transactions in the sale of lottery tickets in such form and containing such information as he may require. The director may make such arrangements as he deems advisable pursuant to this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission, and such functions, activities and services shall constitute lawful functions, activities and services of the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The state auditor shall conduct an annual post audit of the lottery division, its procedures and transactions. The post audit report shall be submitted to the governor, the lottery commission and the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. All state agencies, departments and political subdivisions shall cooperate with the director and the lottery commission in carrying out their legally prescribed duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 1 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 67 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(3) Section 214, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.59.030;
(4) Section 215, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.59.040; and
(5) Section 216, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.59.050.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: “Senator Rasmussen, did this amendment come before your committee in your deliberations on this bill?”

Senator Rasmussen: “No, it did not. However, it is a pretty good amendment as I briefly had the opportunity to skim it. If you desire to set it down one bill or two on the calendar we can complete it. As Senator Mardesich has explained it and as I have had the opportunity of looking the bill over I think it does strengthen the lottery bill considerably and would probably be just as palatable as the one that the committee had the opportunity to consider.”

Senator Ridder: “It seems to me that in the light of that that we should set this down a couple of bills so some of us at least could read the amendment.”

Senator Rasmussen: “I would have no objection.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2004, as amended, with the pending amendment by Senator Mardesich, was ordered held following consideration of Senate Bill No. 2459.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 105, by Senators Washington, Grant, Ridder, Metcalf and Whetzel:
Amending the Constitution to provide for annual sessions and allowing the legislature to convene itself for extraordinary sessions of no more than thirty days.
The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 105.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Atwood, Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was substituted for Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 and the substitute resolution was read the second time in full.
There being no objection, Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was made a special order of business for 3:45 p.m.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “On legislation that we would be working on when we reach the hour of four, if we continue working on that legislation would it be considered part of this legislative day’s work?”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Yes, it would, Senator Lewis.”
SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2183, by Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted) and Herr: Licensing journeymen electricians.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183, the amendment by Senator Gardner, under reconsideration, pending, and an amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) to the amendment under consideration.

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption on reconsideration of the amendment by Senator Gardner as amended by Senator Lewis (Harry).

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2183 was re-referred to the Committee on Rules on second reading.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2456, by Senators Washington, Guess and Henry: Providing uniformity of definition relating to motor vehicle laws.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, Senate Bill No. 2456 was referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2321, by Senators Fleming, Matson and Grant: Providing that school districts shall elect to cover services of employees under unemployment compensation.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2321 was returned to second reading.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Matson:
On page 1, section 1, line 25 of the printed bill, being page 2, line 1 of the engrossed bill, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is appropriated to the state superintendent of public instruction for distribution to school districts from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1975, the sum of $4,540,000 or so much thereof as shall be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this 1973 act."

Rerumber section 2 as section 3.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Matson was adopted:

Amend the Matson amendment to page 1, section 1, line 25 of the printed bill, being page 2, line 1 of the engrossed bill, as follows: On line 8 of the amendment, strike "$4,540,000" and insert "$750,000".

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment by Senator Matson, as amended by Senator Grant, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Matson, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "title" insert "pursuant to compensation schedules in effect prior to July 1, 1971."

On motion of Senator Matson, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On line 2 of the title of both the printed and engrossed bills, after "50.44 RCW: " insert "making an appropriation;".
MOTION

On motion of Senator Atwood, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2321 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2459, by Senators Bottiger and Scott: Providing for rights of parents of illegitimate children as to certain domestic relations proceedings. The bill was read the second time by sections. On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2459 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2459, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.
Excused: Senator Dore—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2459, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SENATE BILL NO. 2618,
SENATE BILL NO. 2619.

SECOND READING

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I have been reading your amendment and there are a couple of questions that I have to ask. The members of the commission or any other personnel involved in the lottery commission cannot purchase tickets or win prizes. Is this correct?"
Senator Mardesich: "Correct."
Senator Rasmussen: "Another section provides that a person could buy a ticket for a gift to minors. Would this section prohibit a minor of any one of the children of the family of people involved in the personnel from keeping that gift?"
Senator Mardesich: "It probably would."
Senator Rasmussen: "It says in new section fifteen, 'Unclaimed prize money for the prize on a winning ticket shall be retained by the director for the person entitled thereto for FORTY-THIRD DAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1973

one year after the drawing in which the prize is won. If no claim is made for said money within this year, prize money shall be paid into the state lottery fund and allocated for purposes as otherwise herein provided'.

Senator Mardesch: "Are you suggesting that 'as otherwise herein provided' would complicate it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I am not sure exactly—'herein provided.' Under our Unclaimed Properties Act why it goes to the state treasurer in custody and you can pick it up anytime."

Senator Mardesch: "But 'as otherwise herein provided' I believe, in this case, would refer to the money going to the general fund because the law in other sections provides that the money does go to the general fund."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is my question. Shouldn't it go to the Unclaimed Properties and then be picked up?"

Senator Mardesch: "No, I think by this language it would go into the general fund."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then the winner, after one year, would not have any claim?"

Senator Mardesch: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Mr. President, would Senator Mardesch yield? In the original bill I see where it calls for a throwback to the treasury of around thirty percent. This sounds more like the IRS or Internal Revenue where we give them a dollar and they give us thirty percent back. What is your estimate on what this would bring in and then what is the percentage that would be returned to the state?"

Senator Mardesch: "The projections are that this will raise somewhere between fifteen and twenty million dollars per year. Other people have suggested that it would raise more money than that but the department of revenue has suggested the figure is in that range. That is what the forty percent net would theoretically raise for the state."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Is your cost then around sixty percent? Is that because you have to set up a whole new department for the collection of this money?"

Senator Mardesch: "No, it simply says that these are limits. And we use those figures as limits. Forty-five percent for prizes, fifteen percent for operating. Based on those percentages, it would result in thirty to thirty-five million dollar income to the state. The history in other states has proven that after a few years of operation these figures come down. Where that would end up we do not know. Part of the reason for putting the limits in was that if the revenue fell off too much they would necessarily have to come back to us to take another look at it because they would be exceeding the fifteen percent. And that was also part of the reason for putting those limitations in there."

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesch:

On page 11, following section 22, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This bill shall not take effect until the funds necessary for its implementation have been specifically appropriated by the legislature and such appropriation itself has become law. It is the intention of the legislature that if the governor shall veto this section or any item thereof, none of the provisions of this bill shall take effect."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Durkan yield? I am trying to arrive at some conclusion to that amendment that says that the action of the Governor could veto the section of the bill and when he does that he vetoes the whole bill. I just question the constitutionality of such a type of . . ."

Senator Durkan: "I think that is a valid question, Senator, whether or not we have the right to put in the veto in the section. We have made the policy decision that measures which carry fiscal impact and move through the legislature, will have a section added that will permit it to go on its way without being sent to Ways and Means."
“Now the purpose of the amendment or the amendment that I have put up there simply says three things. It says this bill will not be operative if there is not enough money appropriated by the legislature to operate it. Two, it says this bill will not be operative if there is not enough money appropriated by the legislature and also if that appropriation is not signed by the Governor. We could pass the measure and not appropriate the money and the Governor would then decide that he would want the bill anyway without the money and go ahead against the legislative intent. So with those two things in mind the third thing was put on, which raises your issue, and that is whether or not the self-triggering device which says if this section is vetoed the entire bill is void, I would be very honest that I do not know. It has never been questioned, nor has it ever been decided by our supreme court. There is precedent both ways that the legislature can do this and there is precedent that the Governor has the right to veto the section and that such right would include his right to veto the particular amendment that I have offered. But the Constitution provides, and which supports our position, in Article VIII, Section 4, among other things it says, ‘and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated ….’ ‘Specify the sum,’ and that is not in this bill. It does not specify the sum. And so what we are trying to do is to comply with the Constitution.”

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the Mardesich amendment strike “State” and insert “Clyde Tisdale”.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Herr, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2004 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senators Day, Herr and Mardesich demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2004.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2004, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 17; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore – 1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2004, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Following is a statement by Senator Ridder concerning his vote on Senate Bill No. 2004:

Having received Senator Mardesich’s amendment (11 pages in length) five minutes prior to the second reading of Senate Bill No. 2004 in its original form, I requested with Senator
Odegaard, a summary. The caucus attorney advised us that it would take five hours to summarize the Mardesich amendment. I fully realize that this is desired legislation by the people but this amendment (which rewrote the entire bill) had ample time to be discussed in the proper committee (as per Senator Rasmussen, chairman of the State Government Committee who had the bill, testified on the floor) with testimony and legal input. Since this came up without proper due notice and had insufficient hearing, I voted no.

(Signed) Senator Robert Ridder

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2037, by Senators Donohue, Henry, Walgren and Jolly (by Legislative Transportation Committee request):
Regulating farm vehicle widths on public highways.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2037 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2037, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2037 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2037, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2037, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2517, by Senators Lewis (Harry), Durkan, Dow, Walgren, Clarke, Donohue, Sandison, Ridder, Canfield, Newschwendter, Matson, Fleming, Jolly, Henry, Metcalf, Wamanaker, Scott, Peterson (Ted), Lewis (Bob), Woodall and Murray:

Authorizing members of the legislative budget committee and its staff to attend executive hearings on the budget.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2517 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Durkan yield, please? Senator Durkan, I have an idea that this is an invasion of the executive branch. The executive is charged with preparing the budget. Now, are we going to start meddling in the executive, as he sometimes meddles in the legislative?"
Senator Durkan: "Absolutely not. Let me recall to you, Senator, in 1963 when the Budget and Accounting Act was passed. There is a provision in there which provides that the legislative auditor shall sit in on the compiling of the budget. And after it was passed both Governors Rosellini and Evans indicated that they would rather have some type of privacy in putting their budgets together and so the legislative auditor has recognized this and has not done it. But what we are saying here now is that we want to be part of the overall gathering information. We are not going into the executive offices and sit down when the Governor sits down with his OPP&FM director and determines what he is going to do. What we are trying to do is keep enough information available to the legislative branch of government so that they in turn can advise us in the legislature. We still have not availed ourselves of the '63 act in which the legislative auditor himself has a right to go right in there and do it."

Senator Guess: "Is it not possible with the open meeting law that we now have that the Legislative Budget Committee could get this same information by just requesting it rather than sitting in on the meetings?"

Senator Durkan: "Well, Senator, you have served in this chamber for some time now and you know how difficult it is when you request information and sit back and wait for it. Time goes by and in the press of time other things come up. So what I am saying simply is that no one is trying to preempt anybody's authority. We are trying to do a job that will get information for all of us. As a matter of fact, Senator, we are not asking any more in the legislative end of it on the Ways and Means Committee than you already have in Transportation."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2517, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore-1.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 14, after “title” insert “, pursuant to compensation schedules in effect prior to July 1, 1971,”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: “How would the Chair rule on this bill as to whether or not it would qualify under appropriations or revenue measures? In view of the fact that it does raise revenue and it does appropriate moneys, I was just wondering as to what the ruling would be?”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “The President believes that this measure would fall within the provisions of the resolution providing for consideration of this measure after today, that in essence it is a revenue producing measure.”

MOTION

Senator Stender moved that Senate Bill No. 2327 and the pending amendment by Senator Matson be held for consideration on Tuesday, February 20, 1973.

Debate ensued.
The motion failed.
The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2327 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: “Senator Grant, is it possible under this bill that the person could receive a pension in excess of one hundred percent of the average monthly wage? That is if you take the fifty percent regular pension, forty percent if they are handicapped, five percent if they are married and two percent for each child if they have three children or more?"

Senator Grant: "I do not believe that is the case, Senator Whetzel. Under the amendment that was passed by Senator Matson I think that possibility no longer exists."

Senator Greive: "Short answer, the maximum they can get is seventy-five percent of the state-wide average maximum wage."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2327, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2063, as amended, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar immediately following consideration of Senate Bill No. 2347.

SENATE BILL NO. 2625, by Senators Metcalf, Grant, Rasmussen and Canfield:
Requiring Senate confirmation of certain appointees be at first opportunity.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2625, requiring Senate confirmation of certain appointees be at first opportunity (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
Section 1, beginning on line 6 strike the remainder of the paragraph and insert "When any appointment to any office or position is or has been made subject to the advice and consent of the Senate or subject to confirmation of the Senate, as required by either the Constitution or by statute, an appointee who is not confirmed by the Senate during the first legislative session after his appointment or within ten days of the date of such appointment, if the appointment is made during a legislative session and the legislature is in session for at least a ten day period subsequent to such appointment, shall be considered to have been rejected by the Senate and shall not continue to serve in his appointed office or position and may not be reappointed to such office or position."
Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Metcalf, Stortini.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the committee amendment.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments to the committee amendment were adopted:
On line 7 of the committee amendment strike "ten" and insert "thirty".
On line 10 of the committee amendment strike "ten" and insert "thirty".
The motion by Senator Metcalf to adopt the committee amendment, as amended, was held pending.
Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Canfield and Washington:
On page 1, section 1, line 8, after the comma strike all the matter down to the period on line 11 and insert "the governor shall have the right to withdraw such appointment at any time prior to any action by the Senate".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2625 was ordered held for consideration before Senate Bill No. 2063.
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2175, by Committee on Social and Health Services
(originally sponsored by Senators Marsh, Day and Jones):
Providing housing authority with additional powers to deal with the housing problems of the developmentally disabled and others.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175 was substituted for Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175 and the Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2175 was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 9, after "purposes," strike "including but not limited to" and insert "for".
On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 19 strike "chapter 42.32 RCW" and insert "RCW 35.82.280".
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute
Senate Bill No. 2175 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, on line eighteen of the substitute bill provides that the powers of the authority with respect to group homes and halfway houses shall be exercised by resolution adopted on notice at a public hearing as provided by and as amended by Senator Atwood, chapter thirty-five. Now housing authorities operate pretty much under federal rules and regulations. Is it your intent that if upon hearing that the planning commission or the council denies this application for the building in a neighborhood that they will not be permitted to go ahead with the development?"

Senator Marsh: "Under the bill as amended by Senator Atwood, there is going to have to be a hearing on the project and a finding that it is truly a project that fits in with the definition of a supplemental project. That is, they are going to have to find that the low income housing needs have been met, that there is a surplus of funds on hand existing after meeting those needs, and then after making those findings and if it meets with the approval of the housing authority directors, then they can go ahead and adopt this project by resolution. And I point out, Senator Atwood, the next proviso points out that they have to comply with all the existing procedures, ordinances, related to planning, zoning, sanitary and building laws applicable to the locality in which it is located. So I think the answer is they are going to have to comply with the intent of the people and they are going to have to make these formal findings."

Senator Rasmussen: "And that they cannot by simple resolution after they have held all the hearings go ahead anyway?"

Senator Marsh: "Not unless they have made the affirmative findings, that they have complied with the existing ordinances and that they have found that the lower income housing needs have been met and there is a surplus of funds."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is the catch, these affirmative findings, Senator Marsh."
Senator Marsh: "That is the catch."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Will Senator Marsh yield to another question? Senator Marsh, there appears to be some question as to whether or not these types of group homes would be allowed in a first class residential district in some areas of the state. Most zoning codes prohibit that type of an operation. Is it your belief and it would be the intent of this bill that these homes would not be able to come into a first class district if the zoning code prohibited it?"
Senator Marsh: "That is my belief, that they would not be able to come in if the zoning code prohibited it and that is the intent of the sponsor."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, for the record I think that—Senator Lewis called up Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 for consideration at two minutes before four and I think that the fact that it has been called up is enough to establish that we are under consideration with that bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President is of the opinion that through tradition, inasmuch as it was made a special order of business for 3:58 that it was under the consideration of the Senate."

Senator Mardesich: "And a caucus at this time would not be considered a break in that..."

The President: "A caucus at this time for either party would be in order."

MOTION
At 4:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Atwood, the Senate recessed until 4:45 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION
The President called the Senate to order at 4:45 p.m.
The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105.
On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 21, strike all of subsection (2) and renumber the following subsections. On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 27, after "(3)" strike "Extra" and insert "Special" and after "Sessions," strike "Extra" and insert "Special".

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments were adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 10, before "convened" strike "extra session, and any extra session" and insert "special session, and any special session".

On page 2, line 15, strike all of line 15 and insert "special session may not restrict the purpose of such special session."

Senator Newschwendung moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 19, after "ninety" and before "days" insert "consecutive".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Will Senator Atwood yield to a question? Do I understand if we adopt the word 'consecutive' that it is the intention of this body that the legislature would still, under the provisions of Article II, section 11, be able to adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other body?"

Senator Atwood: "Not more than three days."

Senator Whetzel: "Not more than three days."

Senator Atwood: "But not more than. It would have to be seventy-two hours at the most. That would be the limit."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, would Senator Atwood yield? The present constitutional limitation is sixty days without having the word 'consecutive'."

Senator Atwood: "I understand that but we are going into a new constitutional amendment and we felt that the 'consecutive' was necessary so there would not be any misunderstanding because under the Supreme Court ruling we now can go forever in a special session so we want to make it very clear that these were consecutive days."

Senator Washington: "The thing I wanted to make sure that we were not changing perhaps some other Supreme Court decisions that might be adverse."

Senator Atwood: "Not to my knowledge. Our attorneys have been looking at that and we can find no cases on that. The seventy-two hour adjournment is unaffected by this. We can still do that. I mean seventy-two hour recess."

Senator Washington: "Your position that the court has generally said that sixty days means consecutive and all you are putting in the Constitution is the language that the court has already used."

Senator Atwood: "That is correct."

The motion by Senator Newschwendung carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Newschwendung moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 20, after "sixty" insert "forty-five consecutive".

Debate ensued.

The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Newschwendung, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 20, after "sixty" insert "consecutive".

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, line 9, after "convening of" strike "an" and insert "a".

On page 2, line 14, after "calling" strike "an" and insert "a".

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after "adopt," on line 18, and before "Article II" on line 19, insert a new paragraph to read as follows:

"The first regular session of the legislature to be held pursuant to this amendment shall commence on the second Monday of January in the year following the approval by the voters of this amendment."

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendments by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry) were adopted:
On page 2, line 1, after "convened" and before "by" insert "for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days".
On page 2, line 3, after "thirty" and before "days" insert "consecutive".
On page 2, line 9, after "resolution" and before "specify" strike "may" and insert "shall".

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry):
On page 2, line 9, before "resolution" insert "proclamation or".
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Atwood carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry) was adopted:
On page 2, line 10, after "such" and before "resolution" insert "proclamation or".

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry):
On page 2, line 14, beginning with "A" strike all matter down to and including "session," on line 15.
Debate ensued.
There being no objection, the pending amendment was temporarily held for further consideration.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry):
On page 2, lines 16 through 18, strike lines 16 through 18 and substitute therefor the following:

"(3) The legislature shall establish by law a joint committee of twelve members, composed of an equal number of members of both houses, divided equally by major political party, with the chairmanship alternating every two years between the House and Senate which committee may exercise, during such times as the legislature is not in regular or extraordinary session, or has been in recess for three calendar days or more the following powers:

(a) establish rules under which the standing and interim committees of the legislature shall operate;
(b) approve appointment of staff and meeting times and places for the standing and interim committees of the legislature.”

Debate ensued.
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry) the amendment was divided for consideration.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator Lewis, before I can vote intelligently on whether or not to strike that particular subsection that permits standing committees of the legislature to work during the interim, I would like to know what your intention is regarding the balance of the amendment. Would the balance of the amendment then be withdrawn?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Let me just say this, that we are not being facetious about this at all, Senator. I think by dividing the issue we can determine whether there is equity before us or not. If our amendment is not presentable in its present form, then that is an issue for the majority to decide. But we would certainly like to see our amendment carry but my attempt in dividing was to give you an opportunity to determine which direction you are going. And if you are not going in the direction I suggested, then I think you can show that to the public of the state by voting to strike that language from this constitutional amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think what some of us are concerned with is whether or not the other side of the aisle is trying to kill the annual sessions bill. I think this is what we are thinking about and I think that what we are really concerned with here is whether or not we are going to be able to move this bill out and get it over to the House. Could we assume then, Senator Lewis, that if we deleted this language that you would support the bill?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Donohue, if you adopt the amendment as we originally presented it we would support this annual sessions bill."

The amendment as divided was adopted, striking lines 16 through 18 on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the remainder of the amendment by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry) to page 2.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? I am interested in your discussion of a concurrent resolution that is—do you contemplate that we would adopt this proposal of Senator Lewis's by a concurrent resolution rather than in a constitutional amendment?"

Senator Mardesich: "I have not said that we would adopt that specific language but I am saying that I think that we can work out something that will be satisfactory to you people."

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Mardesich, Walgren, Bailey, Whetzel, Grant, Fleming, Greive, Van Hollebeke and Durkan.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Siender, Twigg, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 14, after "purpose" insert "or purposes".

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 19, beginning with "Article" strike all the matter down to and including "Constitution" on line 31.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Grant was adopted:

On page 1, line 6, strike "amendments" and insert "amendment" and after "Article II," strike "sections 12 and 23" and insert "section 12".

The Senate resumed consideration of the amendment by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry) of the amendment to page 2, line 14.

MOTION

At 6:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Atwood, the Senate recessed until 7:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 7:30 p.m.

There being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 7:40 p.m.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105.

There being no objection, the amendment to page 2, line 14 by Senators Atwood and Lewis (Harry) was withdrawn.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, line 12, after "such" and before "resolution" strike "proclamation or" added by the Atwood/Lewis (Harry) amendment.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Grant and Atwood:
On page 2, line 15, beginning with "A" strike all the matter down through and including "session" on line 17 and substitute the following: "The specification of purpose by the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution shall be considered by the legislature but shall not be mandatory".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Atwood yield? This actually does not say anything, does it? What does it say?"

Senator Atwood: "What it says is, Senator, that we have to consider it. Now what is meant by considered . . . ."

Senator Woodall: "What does that mean?"

Senator Atwood: "I do not know. It means that the legislature in its wisdom in committees or something like that and they considered it and that is it. I argued that that is all we needed to do. But the good caucus attorney for the Democrats argued that they did not want to be mandated into some fearful action on our part. So we put in the words, 'but shall not be mandatory'."

The motion by Senator Atwood carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:
Strike "proclamation or" on line 9, added by the Atwood/Lewis (Harry) amendment to page 2, line 9.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, with these amendments that have been proposed to this joint resolution, is it the purpose that when the Governor calls a session under Article III, Section 7, that he will state the purposes for which that particular session is to be held?"

Senator Grant: "He must do that now, Senator, and this does not change that."

Senator Stender: "And then is it the understanding that when he calls that that the session is wide open, we get the whole book full of tricks like we have now?"

Senator Grant: "With the amendment that Senator Atwood and I presented it provides that we shall consider the purpose for which he called it but it will not be mandatory."

Senator Stender: "You covered that. I understand that, but what I am asking is a direct question. I would appreciate a direct answer. Does this mean that when the Governor calls a session the whole thing is open and we go through all the tricks and that anybody can introduce?"

Senator Grant: "Very similar to what we have now."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 4; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar,
Excused: Senator Dore—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 105, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, all bills remaining on the calendar were re-referred to the Committee on Rules.
On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.
At 7:55 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, February 20, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, February 20, 1973.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore, Greive and Woodall. On motion of Senator Francis, Senator Greive was excused. On motion of Senator Twigg, Senator Woodall was excused. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages David Warmuth and Jennie Wilbur, presented the Colors. Reverend Arthur I. Anderson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GIVE THANKS TO THE LORD, FOR HE IS GOD; FOR HIS STEADFAST LOVE ENDURES FOREVER. WE THANK YOU, FATHER, THIS DAY FOR YOUR GIFTS, FOR THE GIFTS OF STRENGTH AND HEALTH, AND FOR FRIENDSHIP'S BOUNDLESS WEALTH, FOR THE POWER TO THINK ARIGHT, AND FOR FREEDOM'S HOLY LIGHT. GRANT US NOW YOUR BLESSING AS WE TAKE UP THE TASKS OF THIS DAY. GRANT UNTO US MINDS WHICH SEEK THE TRUTH AND PERSEVERE UNTIL IT IS FOUND. GRANT UNTO US LIPS WHICH SPEAK THE TRUTH IN LOVE. GRANT UNTO US WILLS TO WORK WITH DILIGENCE AND THE RESOLUTION TO STAND FOR PRINCIPLE; BUT SAVE US FROM THE STUBBORNNESS WHICH MAGNIFIES TRIFLES INTO PRINCIPLES. HELP US TO WORK THIS DAY IN SUCH A WAY THAT WHEN EVENING COMES WE MAY HEAR YOU SAY, 'WELL DONE, GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANTS.' THIS WE PRAY IN THE NAME OF HIM WHO CAME NOT TO BE SERVED BUT TO SERVE, EVEN JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Renumber the remaining section consecutively, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Durkan moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Durkan yield? What is the monetary difference in the bill that went out of here and the one that is the amendment on this particular bill? What is the total difference?"

Senator Durkan: "It is approximately three hundred thousand dollars as I read it."

Senator Atwood: "That is the only difference?"

Senator Durkan: "That is right."

The motion carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 388, by Representatives Maxie, Smythe, O'Brien and Van Dyk (by Joint Committee on Education request):
Making substantive changes to education code.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 388 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stortini: "Would Senator Gardner yield to a question? Senator, each quarter I have a deaf student or two in my class. Does this bill mean that that student would not have to attend class and still get credit?"

Senator Gardner: "No, Senator Stortini. What this means is that if that child felt that he had the capability at his age to satisfy the requirements of the school and because of either physical or mental matters or under the new language which deals with all kinds of factors including the need to have employment, then he could petition for the right to take the test which would give him a certificate of competency in lieu of completing the high school year and obtaining a high school diploma."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 388, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Woodall—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 388, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2106, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

At 2:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, February 21, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FORTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Drew Talley and Jennie Wilbur, presented the Colors. Reverend Arthur I. Anderson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"'I LIFT UP MY EYES TO THE HILLS FROM WHENCE DOES MY HELP COME. MY HELP COMES FROM THE LORD WHO MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.' OUR FATHER, IN THESE OPENING MOMENTS OF MEDITATION, MAY THE MEMBERS OF THIS UPPER CHAMBER SET THEIR SIGHTS AND GET THEIR BEARINGS BY LOOKING UP TO YOU, THE SOURCE AND GROUND OF OUR BEING AND OF OUR BEING ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH OUR ASSIGNED TASKS. WE PRAY NOW THAT YOU WOULD GIVE TO OUR SENATORS EVEN AS IT IS WRITTEN, YOU GAVE TO SOLOMON OF OLD, 'WISDOM AND UNDERSTANDING BEYOND MEASURE, AND LARGENESS OF MIND LIKE THE SAND ON THE SEASHORE.' THIS WE ASK IN THE NAME OF HIM WHOM YOU MADE TO BE OUR 'WISDOM, OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS AND SANCTIFICATION AND REDEMPTION' EVEN JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SENATE BILL NO. 2618: Defining the conditions for use of certain unemployment funds.

SENATE BILL NO. 2619: Appropriating funds for the employment security department.

Sincerely,

JOHN H. BRIGHT
Legislative Counsel to the Governor.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to advise that on February 20, 1973, Governor Evans approved the following Senate Bill entitled:
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2106: Adopting a supplemental budget.

Sincerely,

JOHN H. BRIGHT
Legislative Counsel to the Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have reluctantly signed Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2106, the supplemental budget. It provides for a salary adjustment of $40 per month effective February 1, 1973, for all local school district classified employees, for all employees of four-year units of higher education, and for all state employees except faculty and exempt staff of community colleges and certificated staff of local school districts who because of contract restrictions are not eligible for immediate increases. This provision differs from Senate Bill No. 2106 as originally filed by executive request which provided for a salary adjustment of 4% or $40 per month, whichever is greater.

While a $40 salary increase as a response to rising costs of living will be helpful to all state employees receiving this increase, I believe a great disservice has been done by the action of the Legislature in deleting the alternative of a 4% increase. The failure to allow for this alternative adversely affects key personnel in higher education and other state employment and will make our task increasingly difficult both to hold present employees and to attract high quality new employees who are so essential to the effective and efficient operation of education and government.

I am most concerned that the failure of the Legislature to be responsive to the needs of all state employees will lead to a deterioration in quality in our education, health and administrative programs. This issue cuts broadly across a variety of critical professional skills, including those of educators in our schools for higher education, medical and health personnel in our institutional program for the mentally ill and handicapped and data processing staff in many agencies. The loss of such key personnel will surely result in the state suffering severe long-range damage, both in the quality of our programs and in decreased capacity to control costs, consequences which must not be permitted to occur.

I strongly recommend that the Legislature adequately meet this issue in the operating budget for the next biennium.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MOTION

At 9:35 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 11:10 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:10 a.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following Senate Bills were ordered to hold their places on the second reading calendar for Thursday, February 22, 1973: Engrossed House Bill No. 117 and Engrossed House Bill No. 153.
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2527, by Senators Grant, Stender, Ridder and Metcalf (by Department of Labor and Industries request):

Providing industrial insurance coverage to registered apprentices during supplemental and related instruction classes.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2527 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2527, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 2527, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 2438, by Senators Donohue, Guess, Sandison and Durkan:

Allowing money from liquor revolving fund to universities to be used for alcoholism and drug addiction research.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 18, strike “for” and insert “including”.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 2438, together with the pending amendment by Senator Whetzel, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, February 22, 1973.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 360 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, February 22, 1973.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-25

By Senator Grant:

WHEREAS, In the case of an emergency there is an urgent need to contact public agencies providing police, fire or medical services; and

WHEREAS, Valuable seconds are often lost while locating the appropriate number for such agencies in the telephone directory; and

WHEREAS, A swift procedure for contacting public agencies providing emergency services could limit the loss of property and even the loss of life in many emergency situations;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate requests the Legislative Council or, in the alternative, the appropriate interim standing committee, to undertake a study of the feasibility of establishing state-wide a uniform three digit telephone number for contacting public agencies that provide emergency services;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of the study and any recommendations be presented to any special session of the legislature convened in 1974, and if no such session is convened, to the next regular session of the legislature.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-26

By Senators Rasmussen, Peterson (Ted), Bailey, Mardesich, Stender, Knoblauch and Van Hollebeke:

WHEREAS, The nation faces a well-documented emergency in the provision of fuels to meet all energy needs; and

WHEREAS, Multi-millions of barrels of oil remain undeveloped in the North Slope fields in Alaska; and

WHEREAS, Development of these energy sources will reduce the dependence of the nation on oil supplies from other nations; and

WHEREAS, In times of national defense emergency, it will be absolutely vital to have such energy sources under control of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Congress presently has before it policy questions regarding the implementation of the pipeline project proposed by Alyeska, Inc., of Bellevue, Washington; and

WHEREAS, Every effort should be made to expedite the construction of the pipeline from the North Slope area, with strict adherence to all ecological and environmental laws and regulations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that the Congress immediately take such policy and legislative steps necessary that will provide for construction of the pipeline from the North Slope to tidewater in Alaska.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives and the members of the delegation to the Congress from the State of Washington.

MOTION

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-27

By Senators Mardesich, Guess, Rasmussen, Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greve, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwan, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Riddler, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wnamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall and Woody:

WHEREAS, The prisoners of war returning from Southeast Asia have brought honor to our country and the state of Washington and have endowed us with a sense of pride; and

WHEREAS, These men were sustained by their faith in God and in their country which brought them through their long ordeals in foreign prisons; and

WHEREAS, These men in our armed forces have portrayed courage and moral strength in the face of extreme difficulties; and

WHEREAS, The prisoners of war portrayed the tenacity and fortitude to withstand their imprisonment by organizing and maintaining tight discipline as they were trained to do;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, realizing that we will be ever indebted to these brave men of the state of Washington who have sacrificed so very much for the preservation of freedom and justice; we do now acclaim and dedicate, this Forty-third session of the Senate to the prisoners of war returning to the state of Washington;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, By the Senate, realizing the sacrifices made and the heartaches endured by the wives and families in their long wait for the return of their loved ones, we do hereby commend these wives and families; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate, all of us assembled stand in silent prayer for those prisoners of war and those missing in action who are not returning, for truly they have given far more than what can be measured in words.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably inscribed copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the known prisoners of war returning to the state of Washington.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, all Senate members were added as additional sponsors to Senate Resolution 1973-27.
The Senate members and guests observed a moment of silence in honor of the returned prisoners of war.
The motion by Senator Guess carried and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

MOTION

At 11:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:45 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:45 p.m.
At 1:50 p.m., the Senate retired to the House Chamber to meet in Joint Session to receive a message from United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson.

JOINT SESSION

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the Senate at the bar of the House.
The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the President, President Pro Tempore, and Vice President Pro Tempore of the Senate to seats on the rostrum beside the Speaker.
The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and House to escort the Senators to seats within the House Chamber.
The Speaker turned the gavel over to the President of the Senate.
The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate and all members were present except Senator Dore who had previously been excused.
The Clerk of the House called the roll of the House and all members were present.
The President of the Senate: "Honored and respected members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen, the purpose of this joint session is to receive a message from the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson, United States Senator.

"I have been requested to announce for the benefit of those people who were unable to find accommodations in the galleries that a TV monitor has been placed in the rotunda. If for some reason you are unable to follow the items on the agenda today you might be a little more comfortable watching the monitor.

"I wish to thank you, Mr. Speaker, for your always friendly hospitality and to compliment you and your staff on the wonderful organization and the splendid manner in which you have cooperated with the members of the Senate. Thank you."

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort the Most Reverend Thomas A. Connolly, Archbishop of the Diocese of Seattle, to a seat upon the rostrum: Senators Connor, Mardesich and Twigg and Representatives O'Brien, Eng and Smythe.

The President of the Senate: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the President is sure that you would like to be advised that present in the House Chamber today is an illustrious, renowned and noted former state official, the Honorable Victor Aloysius Meyers.

"With all the discussion on annual sessions, it might be advisable to remind you that once Governor Meyers was asked what he thought about the constitutional limitation of a sixty-day session every two years. Governor Meyers replied that he thought it would be a better idea if they had a two-day session every sixty years."

The Honorable Victor A. Meyers was given a standing ovation.

The committee of honor escorted the Most Reverend Thomas A. Connolly to a seat of honor upon the rostrum.

The President of the Senate appointed the following committee to escort United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson to a seat of honor upon the rostrum: Senators Bailey, Twigg and Donohue; and Representatives Charette, Gaines and Morrison.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of United States Senator Magnuson at the bar of the House, and the President instructed the committee of honor to escort the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson to the rostrum.

The President of the Senate: "Mr. Speaker, Senator Magnuson, members of the Washington State Legislature, university presidents and other distinguished guests, we have with us today one of the most noted philanthropists in the State of Washington, His Excellency, the Archbishop Thomas A. Connolly, who for the past twenty-five years has been the spiritual leader of the Archdiocese of Seattle. Under the Archbishop's unwavering leadership and unparalleled wisdom, the advantages of the poor and the underprivileged in his See have improved immensely. The Archbishop's fights for equal housing for the minority and his constant insistence on rightful progress for the working man are landmarks to his dedicated service.

"It is my honor to request a good friend to every person in the state to deliver the invocation on this auspicious occasion, His Excellency, the Most Reverend Thomas A. Connolly, Archbishop of Seattle."

"HEAR US THEN, O LORD, AND SEND FORTH THY LIGHT AND THY TRUTH. LET THIS COUNTRY NEVER FORGET ITS HIGH VOCATION TO TEACH ALL NATIONS OF THE WORLD BY WORD AND BY EXAMPLE THE PRINCIPLES OF GOD-GIVEN LIBERTY AND REVERENCE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MEN. RESTORE AND PRESERVE IT IN THE WAY OF PEACE. WATCH OVER ITS INSTITUTIONS. LET THY PURITY KEEP IT PURE, THY FAITH ENKINDLE IN ALL HEARTS FAITH AND CONFIDENCE, BY LOVE INCREASE IN ALL A TENDER AND COURAGEOUS LOVE OF GOD AND COUNTRY. BLESS US, WE PRAY THEE, WITH THE INTELLIGENCE AND THE COURAGE WE NEED SO THAT ALL OF US MAY PUT ASIDE ANY SELFISH INTERESTS AND WORK DILIGENTLY TO ACHIEVE THAT CHERISHED GOAL, AN AMERICA IN WHICH ALL PEOPLE REGARDLESS OF RACE, COLOR, CREED OR NATIONAL ORIGIN MAY HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO LIVE IN PEACE AND HAPPINESS. GIVE US WE PRAY AN EXACT UNDERSTANDING OF SOCIAL AND CIVIC UNITY AND HUMAN SOLIDARITY.

"LET US NOT FORGET THAT ALL MEN ARE ONE IN THEIR CREATION, IN THEIR REDEMPTION AND IN THEIR SUBLIME DESTINY. INSPIRE IN US, O HOLY SPIRIT, AND IN ALL THE CITIZENS OF OUR DEARLY BELOVED LAND, A LIFE OF PRACTICAL LOYALTY TO THE TRADITIONAL IDEAL; IN ESSENTIAL THINGS, UNITY; IN NONESSENTIAL THINGS, LIBERTY; IN ALL THINGS, CHARITY. MAKE US AND KEEP US ALL HUMAN INSTRUMENTS OF THY WILL AND THY PEACE AND MAY THE HIGH PURPOSE OF OUR ENDEAVORS SERVE TO DRAW US EVER CLOSER TO THEE, OUR FIRST BEGINNING AND OUR LAST END. THROUGH CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."

The President of the Senate: "Mr. Speaker, Archbishop Connolly, and good Washington citizens all, it is with humility and pride that I am now honored with the distinct privilege of presenting to you a close friend of many years, Warren G. Magnuson, the fourth ranking member in seniority in the United States Senate, the ranking member on the powerful Appropriations Committee, and the Chairman of the Committee on Commerce, from which he has promoted the public interest with his world-wide known consumer protection legislation.

"He is indeed Washington's most respected statesman and humanitarian. His constant dedication to the need for better health care for the citizens of our country and his success in providing an improved educational system for everyone are indicative of the effective representation he renders so willingly.

"When our own Evergreen State was on the brink of economic decline, Senator Magnuson spearheaded those programs which extended unemployment compensation for the many needy within our state and energetically pursued other programs which provided food for hungry people and created necessary public service employment. These various activities permitted us to sustain ourselves through the most difficult time in recent years, so that now we have the opportunity to regain our prized status as one of the most economically sound regions in the United States. We can be confident that his continued efforts will insure that he will be successful in accomplishing this goal.

"Senator Magnuson, we always need your dedicated and humanitarian efforts and I am sure that the people of this State of Washington appreciate your work as their representative in the United States Senate and will continue to select you to protect their interests for many years to come.

"Your Excellency, the Archbishop, Mr. Speaker, members of the Washington State Legislature, university presidents and distinguished guests, I present to you the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson, United States Senator."

A standing ovation was given Senator Magnuson.

Senator Magnuson: "Reverend clergy, Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, and distinguished members of this legislature and your guests here today, I first, John, want to thank you for that very generous introduction. I always like to hear it. If my mother and father were alive my mother would have believed it and my father would have just enjoyed it. But I am very appreciative of your invitation to be here today. For many reasons. First, your welcome that gives me some more courage about legislators. I have been reading lately that we have become sort of appendages to the government operation. And maybe getting a little impotent. But I found your virile and your vigorous welcome might belie that thought.

"Secondly, coming to Olympia is a little bit of a homecoming for me. I know most of you have heard at least that I did serve in this body forty years ago. That is a long time. I do not know that your problems are any different today than they were then. But I can attest to the fact as a legislator too that there are more of them. We were down here in some troublous times. We had hunger marches. We did not know what to do with unemployment which was running about thirty percent. We had a sixty-day session. Times were so tough that we could not last more than two months. And then I came down here once again for a special session and the problem was whether we would stick to the problem at hand. And you know what that was? To repeal the eighteenth amendment. Wasn't much problem there. And that is all. We stuck to that problem because everybody wanted to get home quick and get some real live beer. So we did not stray at all. So I had some experience here and I think, however, that legislators as time goes on, I say it is probably some of the same problems that you have to grapple with. But I think your work becomes more and more important because people are more conscious of what you are doing. People are more informed than usual and that is good. But the legislative branch of any government, state or national or local, is not a useless appendage. The people need you more than ever.

And lastly, probably the best reason why I appreciate your invitation is that in this day of increasing and complex federal, state and local governmental relations and, right or wrong, the interlocked fiscal dependency on each other, state, local and federal, it becomes important that we of the legislative branches touch base as often as possible. And I can speak for the entire Washington delegation on that. And we have enjoyed a good working relationship with the state legislature, our delegation, from the Governor, from state officials and from your legislative committees.

There has grown up in this country because of some of the problems you face locally and nationally even greater independence in legislative matters. I am not talking about fiscal matters—legislative matters. I have been long active, as you know, as Chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee in consumer matters, in safety matters, and all those things that go with it. And at the federal level there is always an attempt to not take away anything from the states, but try to achieve some new uniformity in laws that should be passed and cover the whole country. I could refer to many of them here today but I won't take up your valuable time. And so the states have to follow suit. And sometimes we say to the states, or the federal proposals say to the states, 'Here are some minimum regulations'. They might involve safety, flammable fabrics, truth in packaging, I could name fifteen, twenty that we have offered. But we want the state legislatures to keep in touch and we with them and they with us so we might have some uniformity. Otherwise some people want federal laws to take effect. Supersedes you. That I do not want.

And you have in this session, and I understand you are going on after you quit, you are going to have to take up some of these things. No fault insurance. The President of the United States and I agree on no fault—we do not agree on many things but we do on this. He says it is an idea whose time has come. And it has. But he says, 'Let the states do it. See how they do. How they come out.' And I said, 'Agreed,' and that is what we are doing. I am holding up the bill to see what the states are going to do about it because it is an idea whose time has come. You cannot go on for long paying seventeen billion six hundred million in premiums, the American public, in auto insurance and getting back seven million eight in claims and justify for very long, can you? Something has got to be done.

There are other matters that involve safety the legislature has to fit in; for instance out of Commerce Committee have come some boating regulations, that is a good example. You have got to fit into what you want in the state. And have some minimum regard to some of these things that might be, even if not necessarily in a federal bill, it might be just even in a proposal. So you have much of that to do. And we must maintain that relationship because that is the strength of legislative bodies.

But right now we have the battle of the budget. Now we are talking about dollars, which will tax the strength of any legislative body to the utmost. We are part of a check and balance system. However, it looks like the President has taken the check and things are getting a little out of balance. But the people elected you to exercise check and balance, and if we do not do that as legislators we are going to see our democracy deteriorate. And we are not ready yet in this country, in my opinion, with three branches of government, a democracy that is now functioning, we are not ready yet for one man revolution. I do not think any legislative body is. We are not ready either to give up our responsibilities in the legislative branch because, historically, when that happens, when legislative branches of any government, national or local or state, are rendered not necessarily impotent but their powers are diminished, that is the way you start down the road to a lot of things that we do not want to happen. Read your history if you do not believe me.

So we are adopting, and I am sure you are too, on this battle of the budget this attitude; Budgets are created for the executive branch to give the legislative branch guidelines, to get the thinking of the legislators on fiscal problems so that the two branches can reason together. Budgets were not meant to be edicts or commands. There has got to be a give and a take. And if the President of the United States expects us to accept a budget line for line, dollar for dollar, we might as well fold up and go home. The Constitution says very clearly in the state and in the nation, our national Constitution, that the legislative branch shall raise the taxes and make the appropriations and make decisions on them. And it means just that. The budget is a guideline. And so it means that each branch should examine the advice of the other and arrive at some fiscal reason. And when an executive feels strongly about that he has the right to a veto. And if we feel strongly about it we have a right to override him. I know a little bit about that subject. I am the most vetoed Senator in the United States. I handle the HEW appropriation bill which is the largest money bill in the United States Senate. I have been vetoed three times and I do not want to get vetoed again. I hope that we can work this matter out.

"But Congress has been given the label of being big spenders. I have listened to that. I guess you legislators get that too, don't you, down here, in some shape or form? Well, the truth of the matter is that we appropriated less money last year than the budget asked, to the tune of six billion seven, eight billion one the year before, and very seldom does Congress over-all go over the budget. The President has talked about a spending ceiling which affects you indirectly and directly that should stabilize the national economy and I think it would. And we have no trouble or any problem about a ceiling. What we are talking about is not limits or ceilings but we are talking about priorities, what we spend it for. And there is where the difference occurs. And it would be a foolish politician, in my opinion, who would suggest that all programs have worked perfectly. Some have outlived their usefulness. You ought to know the problems I have with HEW. Every time I turn around there is a new Secretary. I have served under seven in this bill already. And there is a new program. I'll bet the sign painter down there is the busiest fellow in town. He has got to work twenty-four hours a day. Maybe the sign painter over here is the busiest fellow in town too, which confuses you.

"But the Chief Executive or members of our Appropriations Committee or subcommittees, we applaud a President when he points out a bad program in his opinion. But we have the responsibility to assess it, see whether it should go ahead, but when we get a ruling that we must take a budget or leave it, or that they will not spend it even if a veto is overridden, that guts all legislative responsibility. I cannot find out what they are going to impound but I wish I could give you some advice on that. The sign painter down there hasn't changed much. It just says 'Impounded.' It is the biggest ice box in Washington, I will tell you that. For all kinds of programs. But we have not had a chance to examine all the figures and to jointly arrive at some decisions.

"But I want to take advantage of your kind invitation and your time today, if I may, to take a quick look with you at some of the programs we are talking about. On dollars and cents, cold print in the budget, which even if we appropriated more we have no guarantee that anybody will spend it or we have no guarantee that it will not be impounded again even after we override a veto.

"Here are the kinds of programs we are dealing with. Public employment programs, Medicare. It is going to cost everybody if these figures stick on Medicare, in my best opinion, about twenty-five percent more, the people that need it the most. The Regional Medical Programs, pollution control, community mental health centers, Model Cities, the Public Service Hospitals, the one in Seattle, they are going to close that one up. I got word the other day. The one on Beacon Hill. Health research, libraries, and a thing that you people worked on long and hard and come to some judgment, all the funds for coastal zone management, which is pretty important to this state. Housing assistance. I do not know what the housing program is going to be now but surely it is going to change in another direction. Neighbors in Need, which we have been able to get a little money for people that needed to be fed. That is out.

"And how does this affect the state of Washington? The Governor suggests that maybe it is not as bad as it looks. I read that in the paper. I hope he is correct. But my best estimate that you are going to lose, directly or indirectly in the state of Washington between a hundred and fifty million and two hundred million dollars. And I am going to send to the Appropriations Committee, again when we can put this in better perspective, some of the figures. What it looks like. This year the state of Washington will receive under this year's budget about four billion dollars in federal revenue from all sources. About one-fourth of it from the HEW appropriation as it now exists. But that is going to be cut under the programs suggested that we take out. What is going to happen in Kitsap County, Red? Coulee City?
You people from Tacoma, if the impacted area school aid is discontinued? That has been proposed. And there I know the figure. That is fifteen million dollars in the state of Washington. So I just point these out. We can add them all up, but indirectly and directly you people are going to have a real problem because you do not know exactly yet just what is going to happen.

"Well, there has been fourteen billion dollars impounded in the United States. There is no money in for oceanography. Highway funds. But I cannot blame this administration for impounding highway funds. Everybody, every President I have known has always taken a grab at that money. People in Washington administrations and departments just cannot stand to see a trust fund sitting there idle. They have just got to open up and get at it. Many Presidents have done that.

"We passed a bill in the last session of Congress, which the President signed and helped us a great deal on the whole question of higher education, capitation grants. That directly affects you people, what you may do or have to do or not do for state institutions. Up vocational training, which has been cut. And this is a field we thought we were doing some good for the future, to stop some of the unemployment problems. So you have a new federal budget that, unless there is some turnabout or some sitting down and reasoning as was intended, that may require you to abandon or drastically slow up programs that you have once determined and determined over and over again, at least it is your opinion, that they are needed for the well being of the state of Washington. You will have to put up your own millions of dollars or reverse yourselves on some of these programs completely. That I do not think we are going to do. Maybe, as your distinguished Speaker—I read in the paper the other day, we may have to go back and start all over again. I hope that will not be true.

"Now there has been a lot of talk, well you can take care of some of this with revenue sharing, hasn't there? A lot of pious speeches about it. I voted for revenue sharing, as long as you wanted to share the deficit with us I thought it was all right. But I do not see any hope that it can be increased much above what it is now and there are some plans for special revenue sharing, I guess, on school matters. I cannot be optimistic about that. Then there has been a lot of talk along with revenue sharing, oh, a lot of speeches. I listened to them up until November and then they quit for a while. We are going to do something about property taxes. Well, I said we were going to do something too. We all did. There is no way that the federal government can do anything about property taxes, local property taxes, except one thing and give you a tax credit instead of a tax deduction. Now there are some bills in for that. Some for older people, some for people who may be crippled or infirm.
About ten or twelve bills. And there may be some relief for property taxes if we get down to a tax credit. But that again will add to the federal budget. But I would rather do it that way and have it done directly than to collect some more money in the general fund and say,
'Oh, well we are going to do something more about revenue sharing.' Revenue sharing gets lost, you know, sometimes when you pass it out. Cities—oh, every mayor in the state of Washington wants to see me this week. Pretty near every one. So I cannot give you much hope of more revenue sharing, but maybe we can do something with a tax credit. You have deduction now.

"But none of these things can be resolved until July, August, September, whatever have you, the way we go in session. We are in session twelve months out of the year, usually.
So I do not know how you can do much planning yet until we get some of those ducks in the row. The President is asking us, in effect, or the budget people, to mark time while we revolutionize the budget making process. And even if a change of this magnitude should make ultimate sense, and I doubt if it does, I think the brakes should be applied a little slowly and not abruptly, not slammed down to the floor boards in one fell swoop in a one man revolution. And not just because a small coterie of people in somewhat of an ivory tower decide that this is what is best for the American people and that does not necessarily make it so. Legislative bodies are the ultimate to make that decision. They are elected by the people.
“So as an old legislator I am not going to roll over yet. I am going to see what I can do to reason, see what programs can be taken care of. I cannot have everything I want. Nobody else can. See if we can do something to help the states and in my particular case, this state, in taking care of some of these programs, some of them that I know are worthwhile. And if some of them are not, it is not the fault of legislative bodies, it is bad administration. That is what it is in some cases. Bad administration.

“Now it comes back to priorities. I think we all applaud the administration and the President in doing a fine job in laying the groundwork for peace in the world, I do. The beginnings. I hope it works all the way through. People are getting doggoned tired of war everywhere in the world. But when you do this, I am hopeful we will have some kind of a bonus. The money not being spent for the stupid business called war, we ought to have a bonus to do something for the American people at home. But the budget ups the defense department. Five billion seven hundred million dollars. That is kind of a strange paradox, isn’t it? And I do not know what the details are. I am not privy to a lot of things down in the White House any more. I used to be. But I do know that to arrive at this peace, maybe they did not want to do it, to arrive at some of the things, that there had to be a promise that they would try and spend x billions of dollars for the rehabilitation of North Vietnam.

“Now the President has not got any money to spend. He has got to come to Congress to get the money just like the Governor has got to come to you. And I just do not know how I am going to feel about that. But I will tell you one thing, that if I have to make a choice between building a hospital in North Vietnam and an addition to the Orthopedic Hospital in Seattle which was in the budget and vetoed for lack of funds, you know what side I am going to be on, don’t you? Maybe we do not have to make that hard choice. We ought to be able to do it all.

“Balance of payment deficits, that is causing indirectly you people trouble. And now for the last four sessions of Congress the distinguished Senator from Montana, Mr. Mansfield, and I have put an amendment in every foreign aid bill we could think of to bring back at least four divisions or five divisions from Europe. It costs hundreds of thousands of dollars. If they cannot get along over there after twenty-some years they will never get along. This is costing us billions. These are the things we want to use for the things I am talking about. The programs that you are worried about. I did not see anybody over in Europe weeping any tears about devaluing the dollar the other day, did you? Pretty smug, weren’t they? Not a word said that that same good hard American dollars that we put in the Marshall Plan brought them back to their economic prosperity. No sympathy at all for that.

“And these are the kinds of things when I talk about priorities. And I think though that all members of Congress, most of them, if we have not learned that lesson we ought to all go home. We cannot keep on trying to police the whole world. Now I haven’t mentioned EDA. That is out. Some of you people in the smaller counties have had something to do with that. Port commissions, county commissioners and others. And unspent consumer money to enforce consumer bills. I could go on and on. But I am not going to any more.

“But I do not think any executive has a monopoly on what is best for the United States of America. I think we should sit down and reason, accept their advice, maybe if we disagree, all of us, we can arrive at some conclusion that will help us. This country is a good rich country yet. It is a question of what we spend our money for and how we do it.

“I do not like big government particularly. It would make my job much easier if you did not have. I see you all every once in a while. You are back there. Particularly around appropriation time. And I am glad to see you. We should get government out of some of these things as rapidly as possible. But if they are good programs and somebody has to pay for them and they cannot be paid for by the local people or the people at home, then I say it is good business for the welfare of the United States that we take hold of them and see that they are run rightly and they are at least reasonable programs for our future. That is what I think.

“Health manpower, we are forty thousand doctors short in the United States. Dentists, I do not know how many. All you have to do is make an appointment with a dentist and not show up and then you will figure how scarce they are. He will tell you to come back next month sometime. Nurses, libraries for elementary schools. These things are for our future.
FORTY-FIFTH DAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1973

"And if we do not continue the good programs and do the best kind of a job we can within our capabilities, let me tell you something, as an old legislator dealing with appropriations, it is going to cost you much more in the future. This is the best investment you can make.

"Thank you."

The President of the Senate: "Thank you very much, Senator Magnuson, for your most interesting and informative remarks. Ladies and gentlemen, as I listened to the remarks of Senator Magnuson and the prayer of Archbishop Connolly, the thought struck me that it would be well nigh impossible any place in the world to bring together two people at the same time on the same platform who have performed more and greater humanitarian services than these two men. I want you to know, Archbishop Connolly and Senator Magnuson, that we are indeed happy and proud that you honored us with your presence today.

"And now, ladies and gentlemen, it is my pleasure to present to you the only native Washingtonian that is seated on the rostrum. This young man has a long career in public service, starting out as a prosecuting attorney and serving for almost two decades in the state House of Representatives. Lennie is a native of Puyallup, a graduate of the University of Puget Sound where he achieved an outstanding athletic career and a graduate of the University of Washington Law School with honors, had a brilliant career in the United States Navy during World War II and now is Speaker of this state House of Representatives."

The Speaker of the House: "As Senator Magnuson said, I like it and I wish you would come out to my district more often, John. At this time I would like to ask that Senator Knoblauch and Senator Gardner and Representative Gaspard and Representative Bauer form an escort to escort the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Honorable Doctor Frank Brouillet, to the rostrum."

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House and Senate, I would like at this time to present the former junior member from the twenty-fifth legislative district, who has gone on to mightier heights, at least he now has risen to the heights of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Now I think that all the things that Lieutenant Governor Cherberg said about my basic career is paralleled by my former junior member, having also gone to Puyallup, also having been an all state football player and an all state basketball player, going on with athletic scholarships and etc., and then serving some sixteen years in the legislature. I would like to present the Honorable Doctor Frank Brouillet, our Superintendent of Public Instruction."

Dr. Frank Brouillet: "Thank you, Leonard. Mr. Speaker, Governor Cherberg and Archbishop Connolly and Senator Magnuson and fellow elected officials and guests, it is a good deal of pleasure for me to be here today. I first thought maybe I would be able to pick up a little money from the Senator for the schools. I guess that is not going to work out.

"In lieu of that I do have here, though, an award I would like to present to Senator Magnuson on behalf of the National Association for Continuing and Adult Education. Each year the National Association selects one person in the United States who has done the most for continuing and adult education. This year the recipient of that award is Senator Magnuson, because of his strong support of education in general but adult and continuing education in particular. This award was made to the Senator in November in Minneapolis but he was not able to attend, so it is with a great deal of pleasure here today, Senator, that I present to you the Outstanding Merit Award for Continuing and Adult Education from the National Association."

Applause.

The President of the Senate: "Senator Magnuson, it has been a delightful pleasure to have you with us. I am sure everyone in hearing distance certainly enjoyed and appreciated your remarks. Thank you so much for being with us."

The committees of honor escorted Dr. Brouillet, Most Reverend Thomas A. Connolly and United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson from the House Chamber.

The President of the Senate: "Mr. Speaker, members of the House, members of the House staff, ladies and gentlemen, it is always a delightful pleasure to visit you and we only wish we could do it more often. Thank you."

The President of the Senate returned the gavel to Speaker Sawyer.
The Speaker requested the Sergeants at Arms of the House and Senate to escort President Cherberg, President Pro Tempore Henry, and Vice President Pro Tempore Keefe and the Senators to the Senate Chamber.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 3:05 p.m.

MOTION

At 3:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Thursday, February 22, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore and Newschwander. On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senator Newschwander was excused. There being no objection, Senator Dore was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages William Walsh and Diane Collins, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ON THIS DAY WHICH IS THE NATAL DAY OF OUR FIRST PRESIDENT, GEORGE WASHINGTON, I THINK IT IS UNIQUELY FITTING THAT WE REMEMBER HIM NOT ONLY AS THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY AND ITS FIRST ELECTED LEADER, BUT THAT WE ALSO RECALL ANOTHER QUALITY OF HIS LIFE. IN THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH THERE IS A PRAYER FOR THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND ALL IN AUTHORITY WHICH IS THERE EXPRESSLY BECAUSE MR. WASHINGTON, WHEN HE WAS PRESIDENT, ASKED FOR IT TO BE INCLUDED AMONG THE REGULAR PRAYERS OF THE SUNDAY WORSHIP IN THE CHURCH. WITH ONE OR TWO SLIGHT MODIFICATIONS, I WOULD LIKE TO USE THIS PRAYER THIS MORNING. LET US PRAY: ALMIGHTY GOD, WHOSE KINGDOM IS EVERLASTING AND POWER INFINITE, HAVE MERCY UPON THIS WHOLE LAND AND SO RULE THE HEARTS OF THY SERVANTS, THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE GOVERNOR OF THIS STATE, AND ALL
FORTY-SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1973

OTHERS IN AUTHORITY—ESPECIALLY THE MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON—THAT THEY, KNOWING WHOSE MINISTERS THEY ARE, MAY ABOVE ALL THINGS, SEEK THY HONOUR AND GLORY, AND THAT WE AND ALL THE PEOPLE, DULY CONSIDERING WHOSE AUTHORITY THEY BEAR, MAY FAITHFULLY AND OBEIDENTLY HONOUR THEM, ACCORDING TO THY BLESSED WORD AND ORDINANCE. THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD, WHO WITH THEE AND THE HOLY SPIRIT LIVETH AND REIGNETH EVER, ONE GOD, WORLD WITHOUT END. AMEN.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2803, by Senators Donohue, Durkan and Odegaard:

An Act adopting the budget for the superintendent of public instruction; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for the operations of the superintendent of public instruction for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975; designating effective dates for certain appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2803 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 2803 was held for consideration later today.

At 10:10 a.m., on motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate recessed until 11:20 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:20 a.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed House Bill No. 117 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Friday, February 23, 1973.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 153, by Representatives Gaspard, Kelley, Knowles and Parker:

Providing for distribution of session laws, house journals, and court reports to the University of Puget Sound law school.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 153 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 153, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 40; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Canfield, Guess, Matson, Sellar, Talley—5.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Bailey—2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Newschwander—2.
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 153, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Lewis (Harry) served notice that he would, on the next working day, move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 153 passed the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2438, by Senators Donohue, Guess, Sandison and Durkan:
Allowing money from liquor revolving fund to universities to be used for alcoholism and drug addiction research.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2438 and the pending amendment by Senator Whetzel to page 1, section 1, line 18.
There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Whetzel was withdrawn.
Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 23, following "institutions:" insert "PROVIDED, That when the study involves alcoholism it shall be done with the advice of the citizens’ advisory council as set forth in RCW 43.20A.360."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Day yield? Senator Day, will you state for the record that this is not mandatory and that they do not have to be totally guided by the Citizens Advisory Committee?"

Senator Day: "I would certainly state so and I believe that it reads that way. It says, 'Provided that when the study involves alcoholism it shall be done with the advice of the Citizens Advisory Council.' Now I had advice and consent in there and upon discussing this with Senator Sandison we felt that that was a little too strong. That would mandate that they do exactly what they said and that is not the intent at all."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator Day."
The motion by Senator Day carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Sandison, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2438 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2438, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; excused, 2.
Voting nay: Senator Durkan–1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2438, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
HOUSE BILL NO. 360, by Representatives Bauer, Kraabel, Erickson, Ceccarelli, Gaines, Laughlin and Paris:

Authorizing use of school buses to transport elderly persons to beneficial programs or activities.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 11, add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 46.44.030, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 248, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to operate upon the public highways of this state any vehicle having an overall length, with or without load, in excess of thirty-five feet, [except: PROVIDED, That an auto stage or school bus shall not exceed an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, of forty feet, but: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such school bus shall be equipped with three axles: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the operation of any such auto stage upon the public highways shall be limited as determined by the state highway commission, and the operation of any such school bus upon the public highway shall be limited as determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the manner provided for in RCW 46.61.380.

It is unlawful for any person to operate on the highways of this state any combination of vehicles which contains a vehicle of which the permanent structure is in excess of forty-five feet.

It is unlawful for any person to operate upon the public highways of this state any combination consisting of a nonstinger steered tractor and semitrailer which has an overall length in excess of sixty-five feet.

It is unlawful for any person to operate on the highways of this state any combination consisting of a truck and trailer, or any lawful combination of three vehicles, with an overall length, with or without load, in excess of sixty-five feet, or a combination consisting of a tractor and a stinger steered semitrailer which has an overall length in excess of sixty-five feet without load or in excess of seventy feet with load.

"Stinger steered" as used in this section shall mean a tractor and semitrailer combination which has the coupling connecting the semitrailer to the tractor located to the rear of the center line of the real axle of the tractor.

These length limitations shall not apply to vehicles transporting poles, pipe, machinery or other objects of a structural nature which cannot be dismembered and operated by a public utility when required for emergency repair of public service facilities or properties but in respect to night transportation every such vehicle and load thereon shall be equipped with a sufficient number of clearance lamps on both sides and marker lamps upon the extreme ends of any projecting load to clearly mark the dimensions of such load."

Renumber the remaining section.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on the amendment."

The President: "Senator Guess has presented the point that the amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen changes the scope and object of the bill."

Senator Guess: "In the first place, Mr. President, I do not believe that the expense of the three-axle school bus would cause too many problems in the state. I think that rather than larger school buses we need smaller school buses because of the opportunity for multiple deaths when you have the larger school buses. I think this is the wrong direction in which to go and I think it does exceed the scope and object of the bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, the first question is why did you do that, and the second question is why would there be any more reason to think that a thirty-five foot bus would be in any less accidents than a forty-foot bus jammed with children than you have the thirty-five foot bus?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "A point of order has been raised. Discussions as to policy are improper at this time. The only proper discussion is a discussion as to the enlarging the scope and object of the bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Woodall's point is well taken."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Guess finds that House Bill No. 360 is a measure which grants to elderly people as defined in the bill privileges similar to school children with regard to their use of school buses. The amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen, however, pertains to the length of school buses and requires three axles on all school buses and in addition the amendment provides that the use of school buses shall be under the control of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The proposed amendment therefore does increase the scope and object of House Bill No. 360 and the point of order as presented by Senator Guess is well taken."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 3, line 14, after "age." add: "No school district funds may be used for the operation of such a program."

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 360, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Absent or not voting: Senator Matson—1.
Excused: Senators Dore, Newschwander—2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 41, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 321, by Representatives Charette, King, Kilbury, Maxie, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Valle, Fortson, Gallagher, Julin, Swayze, Morrison, Newhouse, Rabel, Benitz, Brown, Hayner, Eikenberry, Hendricks, Cunningham, Tilly and Pardini:
Providing for a limitation on the private practice of law by an attorney general or any of his assistants.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 321 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield? Section 4 deals with special assistant attorneys general employed on less than a full time basis to transact business. On line 14 it says, 'Such assistants and attorneys'. Can you tell me exactly what that means? We are talking about special assistant attorneys general and I am not sure whether that is tied down tight enough. It would look like they are also referring to the attorneys covered in section 3."

Senator Francis: "Senator Atwood, I think you and I could probably have come up with better language but I think it is adequately clear and non-ambiguous. What it is saying is that anyone who is employed only on a part time basis can continue to work in his private capacity."

Senator Atwood: "And which would be categorized as just special attorneys general or part time assistant attorneys general?"
Senator Francis: "That is correct, Senator."
Senator Atwood: "That is the intent of this bill? As long as they are not full time?"
Senator Francis: "That is correct. Once they go on a full time salary, no matter whether it is only for three or four months, they are not to practice outside but if they are only part time then they can continue to handle their private practice."
Senator Atwood: "Thank you."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Atwood's question cleared up some of it, but what do you call part time? Could the attorney general take a special assistant and appoint him as a part-time attorney general and then say 'You will be allowed to practice half day and handle the state's work the other half day as a special assistant'?

Senator Francis: "My understanding of it and my definite understanding as to our intent is that part time people be those who are paid on a fee basis for their work supplementing the work of the attorney general. They do not go on as salaried employees. Once they are on a full time salary they are a straight employee and not a part time or special assistant. So they would not be being paid on a salary. They would be paid fees for the work done."

Senator Rasmussen: "On an hourly rate? Or on a percentage of the recovery?"

Senator Francis: "I do not know if that is limited and we certainly did not get into that. I would hope that the attorney general would restrict himself very much and not use part time employees except when absolutely necessary. I would think an hourly rate would be the only appropriate rate as far as I am concerned."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Francis yield? Would this section also allow the attorneys that work for the attorney general on personal service contracts, of which there are several, to also practice law? Would that be your interpretation of this?"

Senator Francis: "I do not know the kind of contract you are referring to, Senator. Perhaps you could explain it further."

Senator Atwood: "One of the members of our body has worked from time to time on some personal service contract for one of the higher education institutions and I would take it he would be excluded from this. He is no longer a member but we have had two or three in that category. They worked on a personal service contract as assistant attorneys general. Would these people also be included in section 4 so they continue to practice law?"

Senator Francis: "I would ask for one clarifying thing and that is, would these persons be on a full time salary?"

Senator Atwood: "No, they are not. They are paid on a monthly salary but they are paid x number of dollars per month but they do not devote full time to the job at all. Maybe four or five meetings a month."

Senator Francis: "It is my understanding, for the record, that they would be included within this paragraph as being permitted to continue their practice of the law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Francis yield? Did I understand from the remark that it is possible to hire an attorney to try a case on a percent of the amount that you recover? Would that be a proper contract?"

Senator Francis: "That is not my understanding, Senator. I would not think it appropriate."

Senator Woodall: "Well in the Alioto case we would have been a lot better off if we had done it that way."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 321, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar,

INVOCATION

by Father William Treacy
St. Michael's Catholic Church, Olympia

"GOD, SOURCE OF LOVE, GIVE TO ALL OF US HERE PRESENT AN INCREASE OF LOVE THAT WILL MAKE US SENSITIVE TO AND APPRECIATIVE OF OTHERS. LET LOVE ENTER OUR HEARTS TO MAKE US GRATEFUL AND NOT TAKE FOR GRANTED THE SERVICES OF THOSE WHO HAVE SERVED IN THESE LEGISLATIVE HALLS AND WHO HAVE NOW ANSWERED THE LAST AND FINAL ROLL CALL.
"FOR THEIR EFFORTS ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE, WE SAY THANKS.
"LET US SHOW OUR THANKS AND APPRECIATION BY RENEWING OUR FAITH IN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS WHICH THEY HAVE SERVED SO WELL AND HANDED ON TO US AS A PRECIOUS HERITAGE. LET US NEVER FORGET THAT THE OPPORTUNITY TO BE OF SERVICE TO OTHERS IN ANY CAPACITY IS BASICALLY A PRIESTLY MINISTRY."
“TODAY WE RECALL THE MEMORY OF THOSE WHOSE VOICES WILL NEVER AGAIN BE HEARD BENEATH THIS BEAUTIFUL DOME. HELP US TO SEE DEATH NOT AS EXTINGUISHING THE LAMP, BUT PUTTING OUT THE LAMP BECAUSE THE DAWN HAS COME. IN MEMORY AS WE TURN OUR THOUGHTS AND HEARTS TO THOSE LEGISLATORS WHO HAVE DIED, HELP US TO BE SENSITIVE TO THE CAUSES FOR WHICH THEY GAVE THEIR DEVOTION. LET US BE SENSITIVE TO THE VOICES OF THOSE WHO CANNOT SPEAK TO US IN THESE HALLS, NOT BECAUSE DEATH HAS STILLED THEIR VOICES BUT BECAUSE POVERTY, ILLNESS, MISFORTUNE HAS TOUCHED AND SEARED THEM, AND THEIR VOICES ARE MUTED BECAUSE HOPE FOR IMPROVEMENT AND CHANGE IS DEAD IN THEIR HEARTS. AS WE EXPRESS OUR LOVE FOR THE DEAD TODAY, RENEW, OH GOD, OUR LOVE FOR THE LIVING, FOR EACH OTHER, AND ESPECIALLY FOR THE PEOPLE WHO ARE POOR AND DOWNTRODDEN. AMEN.”

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE
by Representative Margaret Hurley

“Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, Mr. Speaker, Father Treacy, Reverend Dr. Rahn, members of the Senate and House, relatives and friends of our departed colleagues, and guests:

“Life and death are nonpartisan. Political differences vanish at the grave. Our activities here, however, by their very nature, must be concerned with different viewpoints. The success of democratic government presupposes that dedicated men and women of honor and integrity will take issue with one another. There will be differences of opinion, which discussion and debate will resolve for the good of all. It is an ancient truth that we bring nothing into the world, and surely take nothing out of it. It is not what we bring in, or what we take out—it is what we leave behind after having been here that makes our record in life. It is most fitting then that once again the Legislature of the State of Washington, in Joint Session, respectfully meditate and recall to our minds the achievements, contributions, merits and dedication of our departed colleagues—colleagues who believed citizen participation in state government to be a precious opportunity—an opportunity to become involved in all that is meaningful in the daily life of the communities in which they lived and worked. A fleeting moment between birth and death, in which to speak, to act, and to fulfill the duties of this high office.

“As our tributes are paid this day, may each of us recall silently the dedication, devotion, achievements, and the delightful individual character traits of each. And above all, let us remember that for a small remuneration, these men and women gave their time and service out of dedication and in an era which seems abundant with attempts to belittle the dedication of public servants. May you and I take firm resolve to renew our dedication, and may this moment be one of renewed devotion. For the greatest tribute which can be paid to our departed colleagues is that the recollection of their lives and deeds has renewed our faith, courage and fervor, and has in the history of the state of Washington made this a finer hour.”

Representative Hurley returned the gavel to the President of the Senate.

The President of the Senate: "Mr. Speaker, Representative Hurley, Reverend Clergy, ladies and gentlemen: The people of our state join with the legislature in expressing our deep appreciation to you, Mrs. Hurley, and the members of your memorialist committee for the magnificent service you have provided, along with the fine memorialists. We appreciate the presence of Dr. Rahn and Father Treacy, and also the musical renditions which were beautiful. We are grateful for those who were with us. Above all, the members of the legislature, and I am sure all of the people of the state, appreciate the presence of so many loved ones who are here to honor those former members who have departed. Thank you so very much for being with us."
MOTION

On motion of Mrs. Hurley, the Joint Session was dissolved.
The President of the Senate returned the gavel to the Speaker of the House.
The Speaker: "Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Cherberg. I want to echo the remarks of our Lieutenant Governor, and I think, Representative Hurley, you did a beautiful job. I think it gave us a chance to reflect on our close relationship with the many people we are honoring here today. I think you all know of their service and also know the comradeship we have lost. We want to thank each and every one of you for your participation."
The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort the President of the Senate and the Senators to the Senate Chamber.
The President called the Senate to order at 2:40 p.m.

MOTION

At 2:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m.,

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Ted Christensen and Sherry Barner, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, rector of St. John’s Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

“ALMIGHTY AND EVERLASTING GOD, THE FATHER OF ALL YOUR CREATION, WE TURN TO YOU AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS LEGISLATIVE DAY TO PRAISE YOU FOR YOUR LOVE AND TO SEEK YOUR GUIDANCE AND DIRECTION FOR THE MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE. WE RECOGNIZE YOU AS THE LORD OF ALL CREATION, OUR FATHER, AND WE PRAY THAT WE MAY BE FAITHFUL STEWARDS OF ALL THAT YOU HAVE GIVEN US. WE THANK YOU FOR THE NATURAL BEAUTY OF OUR STATE OF WASHINGTON AND THE OPPORTUNITY OUR CITIZENS HAVE TO ENJOY THE MAJESTY OF YOUR CREATIVE POWERS. GIVE TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE A SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE PRESENT USE OF OUR NATURAL ENVIRONMENT THAT WE MAY ENJOY IT AND PROTECT IT FOR THOSE GENERATIONS OF WASHINGTONIANS WHO ARE YET TO COME.

“THE PROBLEMS THAT THE MEN IN THIS SENATE CONFRONT, O LORD, ARE COMPLEX AND MANY-SIDED. MAY THEY HUMBLE THEMSELVES BEFORE YOU THAT YOU MAY GIVE TO THEM THE GOOD GRACE OF COMMON SENSE, THE HAPPY SPIRIT OF SERVANTHOOD, AND THE INNER PEACE THAT COMES FROM DOING THE BEST ONE CAN TO DO A GOOD JOB FOR ALL THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE. BY THE LEADING OF YOUR SPIRIT, MAY THEY PASS ONLY SUCH LAWS AS WILL BE FOR THE BENEFIT OF ALL OUR PEOPLE AND DEFEND THE FREEDOMS WE ALL CHERISH. HEAR OUR PRAYER, O GOD, IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST. AMEN.”
MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesch, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2804, by Senators Talley, Fleming and Greive:
An Act relating to revenue and taxation; amending section 5, chapter 44, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.380; amending section 84.56.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.010; amending section 84.56.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.020; and establishing an effective date.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTION

At 9:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease.
The President called the Senate to order at 11:05 a.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2803 on second reading, having been held from Thursday, February 22, 1973.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2803, by Senators Donohue, Durkan and Odegaard:
Adopting a budget for the superintendent of public instruction.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 2803.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

President Pro Tempore Henry in the Chair.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 2, line 20, after "Education:" insert "PROVIDED, That unless clearly required by the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the state of Washington, no portion of these funds shall be allocated by the superintendent of public instruction under this subsection to any school district in which any student is required to attend a particular school solely because of his or her race, creed, sex, or color."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, at this time I would like to raise the question of scope and object on the amendment as offered by Senator Metcalf.

"Speaking to it, Mr. President, this is not something which is new to the legislature. It is a matter which has been thoroughly debated in the past four years and which many of us have some strong convictions about. Essentially today we are talking about an appropriation measure and as I read Senator Metcalf's provision, what he in effect is doing here today is changing the substantive law in relation to the school formula to the extent that the formula would have no full force and effect as it now presently is written. And while I understand that the question is close, it would appear to me that if Senator Metcalf is sincere in his objectives about limiting the right of school districts to permit bussing, that the proper place for this to be is either in a separate bill which could be debated before the legislature with the attention of the legislature only directed toward whether or not we want to stop school districts from having the right to bus and that the place for this is not in the appropriation measure."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "In ruling on the point of order, the President believes that the amendment is in order, does not enlarge the scope and object of the bill."

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf was adopted:
Amend the Metcalf amendment to page 4, section 2, line 20 as follows: On line 9 of the amendment after "is" and before "required" insert "clearly".

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf:

On line 11 of the Metcalf amendment to page 4, section 2, line 20, strike "sex,"

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf was not adopted.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf:

Amend the Metcalf amendment to page 4, section 2, line 20, as follows: On line 10, strike "his"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Metcalf was adopted:

Amend the Metcalf amendment to page 4, section 2, line 20 as follows: On line 10 of the amendment after "his" insert "or her"

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 2, line 18, after "9–12" and before "for" insert "or"

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, section 2, line 9, strike "$8,800,000" and insert "$4,400,000"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Atwood failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Greive demanded a division.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "The gavel fell. The President announced."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point is well taken."

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 9, section 2, line 9, after "1974-75" insert the following: "PROVIDED FURTHER, That any portion of this $8,800,000 appropriation not distributed to the local school districts for the purposes set forth in this provision shall be placed in the General Apportionment formula for distribution through the per pupil guarantee"

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 12, section 13, line 18, after "given," and before "to" strike "where necessary," and insert "when required by state or federal law,"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Canfield: "I raise the question of scope and object of this amendment, of section 13."

Senator Woodall: "Is the objection being raised to an amendment or to part of the bill itself?"

President Pro Tempore Henry: "He is evidently raising the question of scope and object on the amendment, Senator."

Senator Canfield: "Of section 13, not the amendment but section 13. The whole section 13."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Ruling on your point of order, Senator, I have already ruled on that point once. Section 13 is, in my opinion at least, within the scope and object of the bill."
The motion by Senator Clarke failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Durkan and Atwood:

On page 13, line 4, after "immediately" strike the period and insert ":\ PROVIDED, That provisions of this appropriations pact shall not take effect until the legislature shall have approved the entire 1973-75 biennial budget for the state of Washington."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment by Senators Durkan and Atwood was adopted.

Senate Bill No. 2803 was considered in the Committee of the Whole and reported back to the Senate with the recommendation that it do pass as amended.

President Cherberg in the Chair.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the report of the committee was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2803 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question, please? I noticed that the Superintendent of Public Instruction's office budget assumes about three and six-tenths million of federal aid. And it is my understanding that if Richard Nixon has his way there is only going to be about a million and a half in his budget. Now in the light of this, it means that the Superintendent's budget is going to have to be cut about two and one-tenth million. What will be the effect of those cuts?"

Senator Durkan: "It is the intention of the legislature that under this budget the Superintendent of Public Instruction is going to have to reduce his staff probably as much as twenty percent or as much as fifty man years per year. But this is not to say that there is not sufficient moneys in this budget for him to perform all the functions and management that are necessary or required by law. There are positions down there which we think the Superintendent can and will, under this budget, reduce. It is our intent that with this money the Superintendent will have enough leeway in the management programs that those he has to rip will not be in the areas where the law requires the management of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. At the same time it is like every other budget that is going to be coming through here— with the lack of federal funds—we are going to have to require the reduction in man years in all departments."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, recognizing the fact of this one mill going into the formula and recognizing the fact that with that taking place, a district like Seattle will supposedly lose x number of dollars under that plan. I made a vote in committee yesterday that I did not quite understand. I am not an expert in this area and I am still somewhat confused about the over-all impact as it would relate to Seattle. Is it your understanding that those districts such as Seattle that have the problems, in considering this special levy relief in the over-all package before we leave this session we will try and have equity in those districts and the impact will not be as great as it would look on such districts?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, the problem of Seattle is unique in the sense that its assessed valuation continues to rise and its student population continues to decrease. But in direct response, yes, I am committed to a direct special levy relief bill in this session of the legislature. I am committed to the extent that where the Senate has in the past showed responsibility in willing to bite the bullet, so to speak, and have today shown the same responsibility and we have still ahead of us some very tough decisions to make in higher education and in the area of state government. When these are over, the Senate is going to then consider in priority special levies, salaries, pensions and fringe benefits. And at that time I agree and say that there has to be equity and I intend to do the best I can and see that there is."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2803, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 10; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Dore—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2803, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Senator Matson was excused.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 117, by Representatives Bauer and Hoggins (by Joint Committee on Education request):

Implementing law relating to school holidays and programs suitable thereto.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 12, following the semicolon, insert "the third Monday in January, being the anniversary of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.;".

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on the amendment by Senator Fleming, regretfully, that this is a code reviser's bill and I believe his amendment clearly under the rules of the Senate which we have been operating is beyond the scope and object of the legislation."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Lewis finds that House Bill No. 117 is purely a code reviser's type bill which only deletes from the existing laws incorrect and obsolete language. In fact House Bill No. 117 contains no substantive law whatsoever. It neither adds to, subtracts from nor changes school holidays. The amendment proposed by Senator Fleming, however, does establish a school holiday in honor of the late Martin Luther King, Jr., and therefore the President believes the amendment increases the scope and object of the bill. The President would like to point out that in 1969 when the bill which became Section 59, Chapter 283 of the 1969 first extraordinary session and was codified as RCW 28A.02.061 was before the Senate, that this identical amendment was proposed. At that time the President advised the sponsor of the amendment that the amendment was within the scope and object of that bill because the purpose of that bill was to establish and change the laws pertaining to school holidays. However, as indicated above, House Bill No. 117 does not affect the laws pertaining to school holidays and merely deletes from the code obsolete and unnecessary language. Therefore, the point as presented by Senator Lewis is well taken."

The motion by Senator Fleming failed and the amendment was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 117 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 117, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Matson—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 117, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would just like to congratulate the President on being so well prepared and rendering a decision so quickly on such a measure."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2346, by Senators Durkan, Atwood, Donohue and Murray (by Executive request):

Limiting property tax levies.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2346 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

At 1:23 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Monday, February 26, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
The Senate was called to order at 12:00 noon by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Durkan, Scott and Whetzel. On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Durkan was excused. On motion of Senator Matson, Senators Scott and Whetzel were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Chris Simpson and Janet Munson, presented the Colors. Reverend George M. Mitchell, pastor of the First Christian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"WE THANK YOU, OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN, FOR THIS SACRED MOMENT WHEN WE MAY UNITE OUR HEARTS IN PRAYER TO YOU, AND WHEN WE MAY FORGET ALL ELSE EXCEPT FOR OUR NEED OF YOUR GUIDANCE AND HELP DAY BY DAY. AND AS WE DO SO, WE FIND THAT AS WE REACH UP TO YOU, YOU ARE REACHING DOWN TO US. THEREFORE, WE UNITE OUR PRAYERS FOR YOUR CONTINUING PRESENCE CLOSE TO US, AND FOR YOUR GUIDANCE UPON THIS ASSEMBLY AND UPON EACH SENATOR. WHEN WE ARE TEMPTED TO LOSE FAITH IN THE FUTURE, IN OTHERS, IN YOU AND IN OURSELVES, HELP US TO REGAIN THAT FAITH AND TRUST BY PLACING OURSELVES IN YOUR HANDS AND BY RESTING OUR CONFIDENCE IN YOU. MAY WE BE RENEWED THEREBY FOR THE TASKS CONFRONTING US THIS DAY. WE MAKE OUR PRAYERS IN THE NAME OF YOUR SON, JESUS CHRIST. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

SENATE BILL NO. 2812, by Senators Durkan, Matson and Donohue:
An Act relating to revenue and taxation of timber and forest lands.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SENATE BILL NO. 2100,
SENATE BILL NO. 2240,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2362,
SENATE BILL NO. 2592,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2784.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed House Bill No. 48 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Tuesday, February 27, 1973.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 47, by Representatives Eikenberry and Knowles:
Extending age limit for filial support payments.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 47 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 47, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray,
NEW SCHWANDER, ODEGAARD, PETERSON (LOWELL), PETERSON (TED), RASMUSSEN, RIDDER, SANDISON, SELLA, STENDER, STORTINI, TALLEY, TWIGG, VAN HOLLEBEKE, WALGREN, WANA make, WASHINGTON, WOODALL, WOODY—45.

Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming—1.
Excused: Senators Durkan, Scott, Whetzel—3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 47, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 75, by Representatives Conner, Adams, Ceccarelli and Nelson:
Making it a crime to place harmful objects and substances in food.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 17, after “dollars” and before the period insert “: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this act shall not apply to the employer or employers of a person who violates the provisions contained herein without such employer’s knowledge”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: “Mr. President, would Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator Woodall, for the record, are you saying that this amendment would relieve an employer of civil liability who would now under our present law have civil liability for the acts of his agents or employees?”
Senator Woodall: “No, but we are simply trying to safeguard that we are not extending him into new areas of liability.”
Senator Francis: “Thank you very much. I wanted to get that on the record.”
The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 75, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: “Will Senator Francis yield to a question please? Senator Francis, could you give me a little bit of background. What would the present law provide in this case? Are we stiffening the penalty?”
Senator Francis: “Senator, we are stiffening the penalty but we are doing more than that. We are providing for crimes as listed in the bill; this particular section of the law before only involved poisons, did not involve other harmful substances such as needles, razor blades, wire, and so forth. You would have had to go to a more general law such as the law of assault to get at the problem.”
Senator Van Hollebeke: “And what is the penalty under this?”
Senator Francis: “It makes a specific crime and provides specific penalties.”

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 75, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Scott, Whetzel—3.
HOUSE BILL NO. 75, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 580, by Representatives Goltz, Julin, Gaspard, Eikenberry, Sommers and Hayner:

- Increasing the jurisdictional limit for small claims court.
- The bill was read the second time by sections.
- Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
  - Following section 1 insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEPARTMENT AUTHORIZED—JURISDICTIONAL AMOUNT. In every justice court of this state there shall be created and organized by the court a department to be known as the "Residential Landlord-Tenant Department of the Justice Court". If the justice court is operating under the provisions of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, the residential landlord-tenant department of that court shall have original jurisdiction within the justice court in cases arising out of residential tenancies or under chapter . . . ., (Senate Bill No. 2226), Laws of 1973 as enacted or subsequently amended, except for cases initially filed in the small claims department, for any legal or equitable remedies or for the recovery of damages where the amount claimed does not exceed one thousand dollars. If the justice court is not operating under the provisions of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, the residential landlord-tenant department of that court shall have original jurisdiction, in cases arising out of residential tenancies or under Chapter . . . . (Senate Bill No. 2226), Laws of 1973, as enacted or subsequently amended, except for cases initially filed in the small claims department, for any legal or equitable remedies or for the recovery of damages only where the amount claimed does not exceed one thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Whenever an action is commenced within the residential landlord-tenant department of the justice court the defendant in such proceeding may in accordance with court rules transfer the action to any other department of the justice court except for the small claims department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. ACTION, HOW COMMENCED. Actions in such residential landlord-tenant departments shall be deemed commenced by the plaintiff appearing before the justice of the peace and subscribing to and verifying a claim as hereinafter provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. SETTING CASE FOR HEARING—FEES. Upon filing said claim such justice of the peace shall appoint a time for the hearing of said matter and shall cause to be issued a notice of the claim, as hereinafter provided which shall be served upon the defendant.

1. Said justice of the peace shall collect in advance upon each claim the sum of six dollars and fifty cents ($6.50), and this shall be the only fee for such justice of the peace to be charged or taxed against the plaintiff in such action during the pendency or disposition of said claim except for costs of inspection of premises pursuant to section 10 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That when any such residential landlord-tenant department shall be created and organized in any justice court as herein provided, in which the justice is not paid a salary, he may be paid as compensation for conducting such department from the county treasury of his county such monthly salary as the county court and commissioners of said county shall deem just and proper.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. SERVICE OF NOTICE OF CLAIM—FEE. Said notice of claim can be served either as provided for the service of summons or complaint and notice in civil actions or by registered or certified mail provided a return receipt with the signature of the party being served is filed with the court, but no other paper is to be served with the notice. The officer serving such notice shall be entitled to receive from the plaintiff, besides mileage, one dollar for such service, which sum, together with the filing fee and inspection costs named in section 4 shall be added to any judgment given for plaintiff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. REQUISITES OF CLAIM. The claim hereinbefore referred to shall contain the name of the plaintiff and the name of the defendant, followed by a statement, in brief and concise form, of the nature and amount of said claim and the time of the accruing of such claim; and shall also state the purpose of serving the notice of claim on such defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. REQUISITES OF NOTICE. Said notice of claim shall be directed to the defendant, naming him, and shall contain a statement in brief and concise form notifying such defendant of the name, address, amount and nature of the alleged claim of plaintiff, and directing and requiring defendant to appear personally in court before the justice of the peace of said justice’s court at a time certain, which shall not be less than five nor more than ten days from the date of service of such notice; said notice shall further provide that in case of failure to so appear, judgment will be given against defendant for the amount of such claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. VERIFICATION OF CLAIM. All claims must be verified by the real claimant, and no claim shall be filed or prosecuted in such department by the assignee of such claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. HEARING. No attorney at law nor any person other than the plaintiff and defendant, shall concern himself or in any manner interfere with the prosecution or defense of such litigation in said department without the consent of the justice of said justice’s court; nor shall it be necessary to summon witnesses, but the plaintiff and defendant in any claim shall have the privilege of offering evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the justice may informally consult witnesses or otherwise investigate the controversy between the parties, and give judgment or make such orders as may by him be deemed to be right, just and equitable for the disposition of the controversy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. INSPECTIONS AUTHORIZED—FEES.

(1) Where there is a dispute as to the condition of the premises or the cause thereof, either party may request an inspection of the premises or other evidence and the court shall conduct such an inspection or appoint a master to so conduct.

(2) The requesting party must post the reasonable costs of the inspection, such costs not to exceed fifty dollars, and to be assessed against the nonprevailing party on the issue covered by the request for inspection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. INFORMAL PLEADINGS. No formal pleading, other than the said claim and notice, shall be necessary to define the issue between the parties; and the hearing and disposition of all such actions shall be informal, with the sole object of dispensing speedy and quick justice between the litigants: PROVIDED, That no attachment, garnishment or execution shall issue from the residential landlord-tenant department on any claim except as hereinafter provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. PAYMENT OF JUDGMENT—PERFORMANCE OF ORDER. If the judgment or order be against the defendant, it shall be his duty to satisfy same forthwith upon such terms and conditions as the justice of such court shall prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. PROCEDURE ON NONPAYMENT OR NON-PERFORMANCE. The judgment of said court shall be conclusive. If the defendant fails to perform the judgment according to the terms and conditions thereof within twenty days or such time as granted, the justice before whom such hearing was had, shall certify such judgment in substantially the following form:
Washington.

In the Justice's Court of ..................................County, before .........................
.................................................................Justice of the Peace for ..........................Precinct.
..................................................................................Plaintiff, vs.

..............................................................................Defendant.

In the Residential Landlord-Tenant Department.

This is to certify that in a certain action before me, the undersigned had on this the .................. day of .................................. 19 ........, wherein ..................
.................................................................was plaintiff and .....................................defendant, jurisdiction of said defendant having been had by personal service (or otherwise) as provided by law, I then and there entered a judgment (and/or order) against said defendant for (and/or to do the following) .................................................................
.....................................................................................
.....................................................................................

which judgment (or order) has not been performed.

Witness my hand this .................... day of ........................................... 19 ........
...................................................................................

Justice of the Peace sitting in the Residential Landlord-Tenant Department.

(1) The justice of the peace of said justice's court shall forthwith enter such judgment transcript on the judgment docket of such justice's court; and thereafter garnishment, execution and other process on execution provided by law may issue thereon, as obtains in other cases of judgment of justice's courts, and transcripts of such judgments may be filed and entered in judgment lien docket in superior courts with like effect as in other cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. APPEALS. No appeal shall be permitted from a judgment or order of the residential landlord-tenant department of the justice court where the amount claimed was less than one hundred dollars nor shall any appeal be permitted by a party who requested the exercise of jurisdiction by the residential landlord-tenant court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 187, Laws of 1919, and to chapter 3.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

SEPARATE DOCKET FOR RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD-TENANT DEPARTMENT.
Each justice of the peace shall keep a separate docket for the residential landlord-tenant department of his court, in which he shall make a permanent record of all proceedings, orders and judgment had and made in such residential landlord-tenant department.
FIFTIETH DAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1973

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 12.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever an action is commenced within the small claims department and could otherwise be brought before the residential landlord-tenant department, the defendant in such proceeding may in accordance with court rules transfer the action to the residential landlord-tenant department.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 46, Laws of 1967 1st ex. sess. and RCW 4.14.010 are each amended to read as follows:

REMOVAL OF CERTAIN ACTIONS FROM JUSTICE TO SUPERIOR COURT AUTHORIZED—GROUNDS. [JOINT CLAIMS OR ACTIONS.] Whenever the removal of such action to superior court is required in order to acquire jurisdiction over a third party defendant, who is or may be liable to the defendant for all or part of the judgment and resides outside the county wherein the action was commenced, any civil action which could have been brought in superior court may, if commenced in justice court, be removed by the defendant or defendants to the superior court for the county where such action is pending if the court determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a third party may be liable to the plaintiff and issues an order so stating.

Whenever a separate or independent claim or cause of action which would be removable if sued upon alone is joined with one or more otherwise nonremovable claims or causes of action, the entire case may be removed and the superior court may determine all issues therein, or, in its discretion, may remand all matters not otherwise within its original jurisdiction.

Any action commenced within the residential landlord-tenant department of the justice court may be removed upon request by a defendant to the superior court where such action is pending; the entire case may be removed and the superior court may determine all issues therein, or, in its discretion, may remand all matters not otherwise within its original jurisdiction.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I raise the point of scope and object on this amendment. What we have here is an entire new bill that has not been considered in the committee. Whether or not it has merit is not a question I can answer but it is my understanding it has been in committee throughout the session. It has not been considered and I just believe it clearly, we are looking at a bill that increases the amount in the small claims court and what we have here is a bill that deals with landlord-tenant, action in the landlord-tenant and requisites of claims and notice and so forth. It may be handled in the court but the point is that it is an entire piece of legislation being appended on House Bill 580 and I believe it increases substantially the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President in ruling on the point of order, House Bill No. 580 increases the jurisdiction of small claim courts from two to three hundred dollars in one instance and to two hundred in other instance. The amendment proposed by Senator Bottiger is established as an intricate landlord-tenant lease arrangement which defines rights and responsibilities of the parties involved. The President rules the point of order by Senator Lewis is well taken."

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, add a new section following section 1 as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2, Section 11, chapter 187, Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The judgment of said court shall be conclusive. If the defendant fails to pay the judgment according to the terms and conditions thereof within twenty days, the justice before whom such hearing was had [, may, on application of the plaintiff,] shall certify such judgment in substantially the following form:
In the Justice's Court of ...................................County, before...................................................
..................................................Justice of the Peace for ...............................................................Precinct.
..................................................Plaintiff,

vs.

..................................................Defendant.

In the Small Claims Department.

This is to certify that in a certain action before me, the undersigned had on this the ................................day of .................................................19........... wherein.............................................................was plaintiff and...............................................................defendant, jurisdiction of said defendant having been had by personal service (or otherwise) as provided by law, I then and there entered judgment against said defendant in the sum of ..............................................Dollars; which judgment has not been paid.

Witness my hand this ................................day of ................................................................., 19...........

Justice of the Peace sitting in the Small Claims Department.

The justice of the peace of said justice's court shall forthwith enter such judgment transcript on the judgment docket of such justice's court; and thereafter garnishment, execution and other process on execution provided by law may issue thereon, as obtains in other cases of judgments of justice's courts, and transcripts of such judgments may be filed and entered in judgment lien docket in superior courts with like effect as in other cases."

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On line 1 of the title, after "court," strike "and" and on line 3 after "12.40.010" and before the period insert ";" and amending section 11, chapter 187, Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.110".

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 580, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 2125, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.
The President signed:
SENATE BILL NO. 2125.

MOTION

At 9:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease. President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 11:10 a.m.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 381, by Representatives Luders, Bausch, Bauer, Zimmerman, Laughlin and Morrison:
Providing for certification and regulation of operators responsible for the operation of domestic waste treatment plants.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 381, providing for certification and regulation of operators responsible for the operation of domestic waste treatment plants (reported by Committee on Ecology):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 6, section 11, line 19, strike subsection (6).
Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Guess, Murray, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Whetzel.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 1 (5), line 4, after "industrial waste" and before the period insert the following: "", and which by its design requires the presence of an operator for its operation".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, House Bill No. 381, together with the pending amendment by Senator Mardesich, was ordered held for consideration following Engrossed House Bill No. 281.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 48, by Representatives Eikenberry and Knowles:
Providing for disclaimer of interest under will, trust or intestacy.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 2, line 7 of the engrossed bill, after "estate" and before the period insert ", and also a written instrument which exercises a power to invade the corpus or principal of an estate or trust when such exercise has the effect of terminating an interest which would otherwise be succeeded to by a beneficiary".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Whetzel yield to a question? As I understand it, presently, if a property for ten thousand dollars goes to a class C heir and they disclaim any interest in it, then it reverts to a B class heir, will it be taxed at the B rate or the C rate?"
Senator Whetzel: "If the class C beneficiaries disclaim, there still is a tax at the class C rate on the assumption that that interest vested at the moment of death. This bill says if you disclaim, the disclaimer takes place instantaneously before the death so that that interest is never vested and you do not have to pay the higher tax rate.”

Senator Dore: “You would pay the rate of the relationship...”

Senator Whetzel: “Of the person who receives it. Generally it is a class A beneficiary.”

Senator Dore: “Whether it is A, B or C?”

Senator Whetzel: “That is right. And my amendment does the same thing by accomplishing the invasion of the trust principal.”

The motion by Senator Whetzel carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 4, line 24, after “within” insert “the later of six months from the effective date of this act or”.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 48, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 48, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 48, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 477, by Representatives Bauer, Brown, Eng, Amen, King and Maxie:

Providing for the approval, control, and regulation of associated student body activities and moneys.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 477 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 477, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 477, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 194, by Representatives Lysen, Knowles and Kopet:
Including air pollution control authority within the purpose of the interlocal cooperation act.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 194 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 194, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea's, 49.

HOUSE BILL NO. 194, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 217, by Representatives Kopet, Thompson, Bagnariol and Chatalas (by Legislative Budget Committee request):

Providing procedures whereby the state treasurer can invest certain surplus funds in time deposit accounts.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 3, line 19, after "Sec. 3." strike all material down to and including "less" on line 27 and insert the following:

"Funds held in public depositaries not as demand deposits as provided in section 2 of this act, shall be available for a time certificate of deposit investment program in amounts not less than those provided for in the following formula: The state treasurer shall apportion to all participating depositaries an amount equal to five percent of the three year average mean of general state revenues as certified in accordance with Article VIII, section 1(b) of the state Constitution, or seventy percent of the total surplus treasury investment availability, whichever is greater: PROVIDED, That if any treasurer determines that the application of this formula is not feasible, such treasurer may apply to the state depository commission for a waiver of such formula to the extent and for such period of time as shall be determined by the commission".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? I think your amendment is defective. You are going to have to take off the language on page 2, lines 1 through 8. I have not had time to check that out and we have not had a chance to really analyze what this does. Do you have another amendment on the desk, Senator?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I do, to strike section 6 I believe."

Senator Atwood: "You are going to have to take out the remainder of section 3 on page 2 also."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Engrossed House Bill No. 217, together with the pending amendment by Senator Rasmussen, was ordered held for further consideration following House Bill No. 373.
SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 489, by Representatives Perry, Charette, Thompson, Barden, Paris and Ceccarelli:
Allowing bargaining units of public employees to be union shops.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 489, allowing bargaining units of public employees to be union shops (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 18, before "lists" strike "eligibility" and insert "eligibility".
Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Day, Henry, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Wnamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 7, following section 2, insert three new sections to read as follows:
"Sec. 3. Section 11, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.110 are each amended to read as follows:

[A collective bargaining agreement may provide that] Upon the written authorization of any public employee within the bargaining unit and after the certification or recognition of such bargaining representative, the public employer shall deduct from the pay of such public employee the monthly amount of dues as certified by the secretary of the exclusive bargaining representative and shall transmit the same to the treasurer of the exclusive bargaining representative.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 41.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A collective bargaining agreement may:

(1) Contain union security provisions: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall authorize a closed shop provision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to safeguard the right of nonassociation of public employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such public employee is a member, such public employee shall pay to the union, for purposes within the program of the union as designated by such employee that would be in harmony with his individual conscience, an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues, and such employee shall not be a member of the union but shall be entitled to all the representation rights of a union member. When there is a conflict between any collective bargaining agreement reached by a public employer and a bargaining representative on a union security provision and any charter, ordinance, rule, or regulation adopted by the public employer or its agents, including but not limited to, a civil service commission, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

(2) Provide for binding arbitration of a labor dispute arising from the application or the interpretation of the matters contained in a collective bargaining agreement.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 41.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to any other method for selecting arbitrators, the parties may request the department of labor and industries to, and the department shall, appoint a qualified person who may be an employee of the department to act as an arbitrator to assist in the resolution of a labor dispute between such public employer and such bargaining representative arising from the application of the matters contained in a collective bargaining agreement. The arbitrator shall conduct such arbitration of such dispute in a manner as provided for in the collective bargaining agreement: PROVIDED, That the department shall not collect any fees or charges from such public employer or such bargaining representative for services performed by the department under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of chapter 49.08 RCW shall have no application to this chapter."
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment by Senator Grant enlarges the scope and object of the bill clearly. The bill relates basically to union security, whereas the amendment includes providing for binding arbitration which is clearly beyond the scope and the intent of the original legislation as it was presented. This amendment by Senator Grant is, I believe House Bill No. 179 which still resides in committee and it is clearly an attempt to scalp an additional bill which broadens the scope and the object of House Bill 489 substantially."

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, House Bill No. 489 is an act relating to public employment. It provides for procedures whereby state employees may select a union bargaining agent and set up a union security provision. The amendment I have proposed deals with the same general subject, that is certification and recognition of public employees bargaining units. It deals, in addition, with the union security question, local governmental employees, and finally, sets up an arbitrators' schedule, the method of selection of arbitrators within the Department of Labor and Industries. It is the same general subject and as Senator Lewis indicates, it is a bill that is in Rules. It is a measure that has been considered by the Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Committee and by the Legislative Council and it has received their favorable consideration. I think it is within the scope and object of this measure, at least it would be held so in the House."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Ruling upon the point of order as raised by Senator Lewis, the President finds that, as under House rules, the title is germane. Besides that, it deals with local employees where the bill patently deals with state employees and the employees of higher education and therefore the point is well taken. It does enlarge the scope and object of the bill."

The motion by Senator Grant failed and the amendment was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 489, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 489, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 15.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Whetzel, Woodall—15.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 489, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2365, by Senators Durkan, Woodall, Ridder, Connor and Knoblauch (by Lieutenant Governor request):

Creating a state-wide Medic I program.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2365 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2365 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 6, section 10, line 18, after "costs" and before the period insert "or cause substantial reduction or loss of existing service".

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2365 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2365, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardisich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—46.
Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Wanamaker—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2365, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 373, by Representatives Bauer, Hoggins and Charette:
Reconciling certain double amendments and conflicting provisions in education code.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 373 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 373, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

HOUSE BILL NO. 373, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Engrossed House Bill No. 217, together with the pending amendment by Senator Rasmussen, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Wednesday, February 28, 1973.
SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 212, by Representatives Pardini, Hurley, Kopet and May:
Authorizing the Eastern Washington Historical Society to collect art and dispose of unnecessary materials.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 212 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 212, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day,
Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen,
Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren,

HOUSE BILL NO. 212, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 34, by Representatives Parker, Fortson, Erickson and Sommers:
Authorizing precinct committeemen to register voters.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 34, authorizing precinct committeemen to register voters (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 20, after "voters" and before the period insert "if the precinct committeemen so request: PROVIDED, That they meet the requirements as set forth by the rules and regulations of the secretary of state's office".
Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Metcalf, Stortini, Washington.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, section 2, line 5, after "by" strike "giving or sending to the voter" and insert "sending to the voter, by first class non-forwardable mail,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Senator, would you yield to a question please? Doesn't this in effect say that if there are a number of registered voters who no longer live in a precinct, but go back to their old precinct to vote, that would give somebody a handle to wholesale disqualify them?"
Senator Metcalf: "Now this is new registered voters. All they have to do is to live at the address for which they are presently registering. This does not solve the problem that you mentioned, which I think is a problem."
The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 34, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 34, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 30; nays, 19.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Wamanaker, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 34, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 729, by Representatives Luders, Swayne, Charette, Thompson, Martinis, Pardini, Kilbury and North (Lois):

Providing for measures to facilitate pollution control.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardisich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 3, line 26 of the engrossed bill, after “county” and before “, port” insert “, municipal corporation”.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 729, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, in the event of default on these bonds, revenue bonds, who picks up the property and who would you sell a pollution property to?”

Senator Washington: “If the holder, the owner, the private corporation fails to pay, a trustee would be appointed. They could be sold and of course those who have bought the revenue bonds would have to suffer any loss. It would be like any other purchase of revenue bonds. They would have to be sold on the credit of the corporation and undoubtedly only those corporations that would have an excellent credit rating would be able to secure the revenue bonds. No money would have to be paid by any of the municipal corporations involved.”

Senator Rasmussen: “I am thinking of a project that presumably could be abandoned or go bankrupt.”

Senator Washington: “If it went bankrupt, then the bond holder as in any other case, would go into default the bond holders would suffer a loss. However, no payments would have to be made by the municipal corporation; the taxpayer would have no liability whatsoever.”

Senator Rasmussen: “They would still have to find some means of disposing of the bankrupt property.”

Senator Washington: “This is true but you would have a trustee who would be appointed to make the sale as in any other situation where you had a default or a bankruptcy.”
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 729, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 48; nay, 1.

Voting nay: Senator Rasmussen – 1.

ENGROSGSED HOUSE BILL NO. 729, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 89, by Representatives May, Zimmerman and Leckenby:
Requiring asbestos safety gear in certain industries.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Stender, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 89 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 89, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 48; absent or not voting, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Murray – 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 89, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSGSED HOUSE BILL NO. 79, by Representatives Bagnojori, Chatalas and Pardini:
Implementing the law of savings and loan associations.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Walgren, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 5, section 7, line 23 of the engrossed bill, after “section” strike “5” and insert “6”.

On motion of Senator Dore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 79, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 79, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 48; absent or not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day,
FIFTY-FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1973

Absent or not voting: Senator Scott—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 79, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 281, by Representatives Ellis, Kuehnle and Randall:
Authorizing school district boards to have hearing officers.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 281, authorizing school district boards to have hearing officers (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Amend the House Amendment by the Committee on Education on page 2, section 1, line 10, being page 2, section 1, line 10 of the engrossed bill, after "person" and before "not" insert "with demonstrated experience in the conduct of hearings".
Amend the House amendment by Representative Bauer on page 4, section 2, line 19, being page 4, section 2, line 20 of the engrossed bill, after "person" and before "not" insert "with demonstrated experience in the conduct of hearings".
Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted).
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendments were adopted simultaneously.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gardner, is there a hearing officers' association? How would it be determined if he was a qualified hearing officer? You would not go to the board of arbitration, would you?"
Senator Gardner: "No. Anyone who had had any experience in negotiations of any manner would qualify as a hearing officer in this instance."
Senator Rasmussen: "Any member of this Senate then who has held hearings would be qualified?"
Senator Gardner: "It could be determined that that was possible. Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Will Senator Gardner further yield? I think Senator Rasmussen's question is a very valid question and to just simply state they must have experience might be bad. I am just wondering in furtherance of Senator Rasmussen's question who and how could that kind of a qualification be satisfied?"
Senator Gardner: "The bill as it was originally drafted just asked for a hearing officer and that hearing officer could be appointed by the school board. It therefore could be anyone who they felt was qualified to proceed with the hearing process. Now at the request of the WEA, they asked that the language of the amendment that would demonstrate his experience be added. They apparently felt that they would have some ability to go to the school boards involved and suggest as to whether or not a person had had the type of experience which they felt would be beneficial to the hearing process. It is still a relatively open ended matter but nevertheless it does in effect say that a person probably should have had some experience in the negotiation or process of some sort."
Senator Stender: "One further question then. We certainly have hearings in many areas of our community and society generally. Are we talking about a particular qualification in this area or some other area as well?"

Senator Gardner: "I basically answered the best I can. Both Senator Bottiger and Senator Murray may have further answers, Senator Stender."

Senator Murray: "The degree of experience I think we are looking for is someone experienced in the judicial or quasi-judicial areas, so that we would be talking about somebody with experience as a judge or a hearing officer for someplace where they have judicial or quasi-judicial procedures to follow."

Senator Stender: "Not just limited to the schoolhouse?"

Senator Murray: "Right. Not expertise in schools but in the hearing procedure."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, if we adopt this amendment, would it make it possible for any one of these people to go into court and challenge the adequacy of the individual who had just been named by the board?"

Senator Bottiger: "I do not think so, Senator Woodall, any more than I guess you could appeal on an inadequate judge. It is a de facto recognition of the appointed officer. You would make the same arguments that his findings and conclusions are not supported by the evidence and he made a stupid mistake or recommendation."

Senator Woodall: "I mean challenging him in the first place. Could you then go in prior to the time he ever had a hearing and go into court and in effect stay him from doing anything until a judge had determined in advance that he did meet whatever this amendment says he must meet?"

Senator Bottiger: "He has color of title and he would be presumed to be qualified on his appointment. Now, obviously I think, yes, you might get it in on a show cause that the appointee was not 'experienced as a hearing officer' but I think it would be a rather short lived appeal type thing."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the committee amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 281 were adopted.

The motion carried.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the committee amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 281.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "I wonder if Senator Francis would yield to a question? Senator Francis, you are an attorney of some experience and you have been in practice for quite a while and I think you would probably be a good hearing officer but have you had any experience?"

Senator Francis: "Only as a judge pro tem and I suppose that would be the basis for an argument."

Senator Bottiger: "I think it would probably qualify you but I think a good hearing officer might well be an experienced attorney in the community who might not happen to have had any 'hearing officer experience.' Might be the best selection that could be made."

The committee amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 281, on reconsideration, were not adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 281 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 281, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Francis, Ridder—2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 281, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed House Bill No. 381, together with the pending amendment by Senator Mardesich, was ordered placed on today’s second reading calendar following Second Substitute House Bill No. 176.

"Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 213, Laws of 1967 and RCW 41.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby established a special fund in the state treasury to be known as the OASI contribution fund. All interest earnings presently in [this fund shall be transferred by the state treasurer to the state's general fund] and all interest earnings accruing to this fund in accordance with RCW [43.85.060] 39.58.120 shall be deposited in the state's general fund. Such fund shall consist of and there shall be deposited in such fund: (a) All contributions and penalties collected under RCW 41.48.040 and 41.48.050; (b) all moneys appropriated thereto under this chapter; (c) any property or securities belonging to the fund; and (d) all sums recovered upon the bond of the custodian or otherwise for losses sustained by the fund and all other moneys received for the fund from any other source. All moneys in the fund shall be mingled and undivided. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the governor is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the fund, including all moneys and property or securities belonging thereto, and may perform any and all acts whether or not specifically designated, which are necessary to the administration thereof and are consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The OASI contribution fund shall be established and held separate and apart from any other funds of the state and shall be used and administered exclusively for the purpose of this chapter. Withdrawals from such fund shall be made for, and solely for (a) payment of amounts required to be paid to the secretary of the treasury pursuant to an agreement entered into under RCW 41.48.030; (b) payment of refunds provided for in RCW 41.48.040(3); and (c) refunds of overpayments, not otherwise adjustable, made by a political subdivision or instrumentality.

(3) From the OASI contribution fund the custodian of the fund shall pay to the secretary of the treasury such amounts and at such time or times as may be directed by the governor in accordance with any agreement entered into under RCW 41.48.030 and the social security act.

(4) The treasurer of the state shall be ex officio treasurer and custodian of the OASI contribution fund and shall administer such fund in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the directions of the governor and shall pay all warrants drawn upon it in accordance with the provisions of this section and with the regulations as the governor may prescribe pursuant thereto."

Renumber the remaining sections.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the following amendments to the title were adopted:

On line 8 of the title after “35.38.040;” and before “amending” insert “amending section 35A.40.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.40.030;”;

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 163, by Representatives Haussler, Curtis, Charette and Schumaker:

Authorizing a review of initiative measures prior to the filing thereof.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 163, authorizing a review of initiative measures prior to the filing thereof (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, section 21, line 12, after "secretary" and before "refuse" strike "may" and insert "of state shall".

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Metcalf, Stortini.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "I ask Senator Grant if this changing of the language from may to shall would not create some constitutional complications and be an unconstitutional impediment to the right of people to file an initiative? Have you checked this out with the constitutional language on initiatives? Are we changing the procedure set forth in the Constitution?"

Senator Grant: "I do not think so, Senator Whetzel. The body of the bill does not require that the measure be given to the code reviser. But if it is given to the code reviser for his advice, then before the Secretary of State assigns it a serial number it would have to have this certificate of review. I do not think you have a constitutional problem involved here."
The motion by Senator Grant carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 163, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen: ‘Mr. President and members of the Senate, in today's Post Intelligencer there is an editorial which says, 'An Act of Cowardice'. There is a further article, 'The Senate Sows the Seed of Race Hatred' by a University of Washington professor. I want to call the attention of the Senate—'Last Friday the state Senate tackled an anti-bussing amendment onto an education appropriations bill.' I am only reading the first paragraph and the last. ' Constituents deserve to know how their Senators vote. In this matter, the people should demand an accounting.'
“Mr. President and members of the Senate, the reason I am raising this as personal privilege is I know that myself as well as all of you are not afraid to cast your vote at any time and in public. The Senate rules provide that in the committee of the whole the rules of the Senate shall apply. Which means that a roll call may be had at any time. Now the particular amendment that they are referring to that is an act of cowardice was an amendment proposed by Senator Jack Metcalf, an able and honorable Senator, and the amendment said that in line with the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the state of Washington that the Superintendent of Public Instruction should withhold any money for mandatory bussing contrary to the provisions of the state Constitution and the United States Constitution. I submit to you, Mr. President, that there is not a Senator on this floor that is guilty of cowardice in supporting the state Constitution and supporting the United States Constitution. I also submit that the editorial writer of the PI who put that editorial in the paper should put a retraction in. The Senate is not afraid to cast its vote in public. And particularly, it is not an act of cowardice to support our state Constitution and the United States Constitution. Thank you, Mr. President.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bailey: “I would echo what Senator Rasmussen says, but I am not arguing the point at issue—for the amendment or against it. I would like to point out that in the Associated Press last weekend, maybe the United Press, the PI, and in the Times, the statement was made that we hid behind the committee of the whole. A year ago we changed our rules so that we can have a roll call in the committee of the whole. These stories betray the total ignorance of the reporters who made those statements.”

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “It also pretty well displays the total ignorance of somebody teaching law at the University of Washington.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: “I would like to also echo some of the remarks of Senator Rasmussen. I too believe that the reporters who report on the activities of the legislature should be apprised of all the facts. But I would also like to deviate a little bit from that because I would have to admit as one member on this floor that I had forgotten that that rule had been changed and I would submit that probably a majority of the members on this floor had also forgotten, were not aware that that rule had been changed. So I would say that maybe it was an error on some members on the floor because I would have definitely asked for a roll call and I would just like to say that I do echo the remarks of Senator Rasmussen. He is right in saying what he is saying but I also would have to look at it on the other end of it, that many of us probably were not aware of it also.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: “I have to stand one more time on a personal privilege to also protect myself. I do not think that—no one said that someone called for the roll call. I have to admit that I was off on the wings when the last speaker spoke on this measure and before I could get back on the floor and ask for a division the gavel had been down as the amendment was passed. And so I would just like to indicate to you, Senator, that you are right. We should ask for a roll call and had I not been inadvertently off the floor talking to someone about the measure I would have asked for that roll call.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Metcalf: “Also speaking on a point of personal privilege, since I was the one mentioned here in this editorial entitled ‘An Act of Cowardice’, one sentence is, ‘We do not know for sure how anyone, including Senator Metcalf, voted.' And I just do not want to leave any doubt in anybody's mind. For the record, I voted yes. I have been accused of a lot of things but cowardice is not one of them."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "I voted for the Metcalf amendment. I will vote for it again and vote for it continually when it comes to supporting the Constitution of the United States and the state of Washington."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I am sure the professor at the Law School and the University will be happy to know that."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 268, by Representatives Thompson, Rabel, Charnley, Kilbury, Kuehnle and McCormick:
Excluding certain casual meetings and collective bargaining, grievance, or mediation proceedings from the public open meetings act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 268, excluding certain casual meetings and collective bargaining, grievance, or mediation proceedings from the public open meetings act (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, line 20, after "(4)" strike the underscored language down to the period on line 25 and insert the following: "Meetings held for the purpose of discussing policies, positions and procedures to be taken by a public agency during the course of any labor negotiations involving wage and benefits, professional negotiations involving wage and benefits, or reviewing the proposals made by such negotiators; negotiations between public agencies and their employees or recognized bargaining representatives; dispute settlement proceedings: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the final adoption or ratification of a collective bargaining agreement by the governing body of a public agency shall be at a meeting open to the public."

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Day, Henry, Knoblauch, Wanamaker.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Debate ensued.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Rasmussen, Connor, Jones, Metcalf, Matson, Dore, Odegaard, Stender and Woody.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays, 30; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Guess, Scott—2.
Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, line 30, after “offense.” insert: “In every action brought for the assessment of a civil penalty the court shall award to the prevailing party reasonable expenses and reasonable attorney fees. Members of a governing body who have been found to be in violation shall be personally liable only for their pro rata share of the expenses and attorney fees.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: “Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, is it your understanding that in the awarding of the reasonable attorney’s fees that the court takes into consideration between two parties that are involved in a lawsuit, the eminence of counsel on the other side?”

Senator Washington: “I do not think officially they do, but I think quite frequently after a verdict has been reached and they are determining the value of attorney’s fees, there are not any very real definite guidelines. If you will look in at our guidelines, the specialty of the attorney who is involved is definitely one of the things that can be taken into consideration. If you will look in the rules of court, I have had this come up and I do know that the specialty of the person involved can be taken into consideration into the reasonableness of the fees which he charges.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: “Will Senator Francis yield? Senator, in your remarks you talked about the adversary proceedings here and it occurs to me that the public body will have counsel furnished them on the basis of their public moneys that are available to public bodies. How does this supposedly even up? You say that we are going to get reasonable counsel fees for bringing suit if you prevail. How is this going to work? The public body has already got counsel that is paid for by the taxpayers and I do not understand just what you are getting at.”

Senator Francis: “Senator Stender, the bill itself says that the members of the public body themselves are only personally liable for their own pro rata share of those expenses. But they are personally liable for the expenses under this bill. This is not something that they have paid for them. If they violate the law willfully, the bill as written and has been in law for eighteen months does provide that they themselves incur those penalties. That is why I feel so strongly that they ought to have some protection against frivolous actions and I think a pretty good deterrent is to let somebody know that they had better be pretty sure they are right before they bring the suit because if they lose it they are going to have to pay some money themselves.”

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 268 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: “I ask Senator Murray to yield. Senator Murray, is it the intent of Engrossed House Bill No. 268 by the change in section 2 relating to the holding of executive sessions to consider the acquisition of real estate by lease or purchase intended to curtail any laws or procedures requiring competitive bidding or to authorize a governing body when considering the purchase or lease of similar real estate such as office space, not to call for bids?”
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, how can Senator Murray tell what the intent of the House bill is? I mean, it seems to me that if he were part of the bill that came out as a Senate bill I could understand. If he is saying what his intent as to the House bill is, that is another thing. But if he is asking what the intent of the House bill is, I think that the only ones that can answer that probably are the sponsors and those who debated it in the House. But he can tell his understanding of it but I do not think he can say what the intent of the House bill is, Mr. President."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Speaking to the point of order raised by Senator Durkan, Mr. President, it seems to me that any Senator has the right to request an opinion of another Senator on the floor of this place and I see nothing dilatory or unresponsive and I think Senator Murray, with his experience and knowledge in this area and his actions on the bill, has as much a right to respond to questions as any House member might have in this case. If we were to follow the point of order raised by Senator Durkan we would not be free to express opinions whatsoever on this floor."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "Briefly and to the point, Senator, I do not object to Senator Murray saying what his intent as to the House bill was. If Senator Whetzel would rephrase the question. He asked the question as to what the intent of the House bill was, not as to what the intent Senator Murray had on the House bill. The only thing I am saying is, and I agree with you, he has the right to express his intent as to the interpretation of the House bill. I have no objection to that. But I do not think he has the right to say what the intent of the House bill is."

Senator Murray: "I was going to answer the question just 'No' to stay within three minutes. I will now add to it and say in my opinion the intent expressed in the House bill is that there would be no change in the existing law."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 268, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 44; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—44.

Voting nay: Senators Durkan, Francis—2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bailey—1.

Excused: Senators Guess, Scott—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 268, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 665, by Representatives Parker, Erickson, Curtis, Jueling and Perry: Providing for the licensing of podiatrists.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 665 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 665, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bottiger—1.

Excused: Senators Guess, Scott—2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 665, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 175, by Representatives King, Jueling and Warnke (by Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Committee request):

Making certain amendments to the public employees' collective bargaining.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 175 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 175, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 11; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Jones, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Twigg, Walgren, Washington, Woodall—11.

Excused: Senators Guess, Scott—2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 175, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 452 was ordered placed on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 1, 1973.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 337, by Representatives Perry, Rabel, Thompson, Morrison, Douthwaite and Pardini (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Removing restrictions on convicted felons from obtaining certain employment.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Day, the following amendments were adopted simultaneously:
On page 1, section 2, line 18 of the engrossed and printed bills, before “or” strike “profession”.
On page 1, section 2, line 27 of the engrossed bill, being line 25 of the printed bill, before “or” strike “profession”.
On page 2, section 2, line 3 of the engrossed bill, being line 1 of the printed bill, before “or” strike “profession”.
On page 2, section 5, line 17 of the engrossed bill, being line 15 of the printed bill, after “business” strike “or profession”.
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 337, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, would the provisions of this bill apply in the case where a doctor has been convicted and is released and as you know there has been an application?”
Senator Day: “We just struck professions from the bill, Senator.”
Senator Rasmussen: “It no longer affects business or professions?”
Senator Day: “It affects business but not professions.”
Senator Rasmussen: “How about lawyers that have been disbarred?”
Senator Day: “Well, of course the same thing. Of course, there was a safety valve here in that the Supreme Court is the final determining factor in that particular instance anyway.”
Senator Rasmussen: “As I read the law, it says ‘Provisions of this chapter shall prevail over any other provisions of law.’ . . . govern the denial of license permits and so forth.”
Senator Day: “However, we just struck professions from the bill.”
Senator Rasmussen: “Only professions?”
Senator Day: “Yes.”

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 337, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 47; excused, 2.
Excused: Senators Guess, Scott—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 337, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Lowering legal age for use of alcoholic beverages.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardisich, Engrossed House Bill No. 240 was made a special order of business for 2:30 p.m. today.
FIFTY-SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1973

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 287, by Representatives Charette, Newhouse and Bauer:
Providing for payment of substitutes for certain certificated personnel.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 287, providing for payment of substitutes for certain certificated personnel (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

In section 1, line 20, after "050," insert "If such substitute is paid by the superintendent of public instruction, no deduction shall be made from the salary of the certificated employee. In no event shall a school district deduct from the salary of a certificated employee serving on such committee more than the amount paid the substitute employed by the district.

Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted).

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Could you tell us what this would mean in terms of dollars and cents to the average classroom teacher with ten years' experience? How much are they being paid now and how much is a substitute paid and would in effect the teacher then be making money as a subsidy on his own absence while he is serving, for instance, here in the state legislature?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Dore, I think everybody on the floor is aware of the school teacher legislator and I cannot answer specifically on the people under this bill but it is not unusual for a school district to deduct as much as eighty dollars a day from a teacher's salary while they are serving on a committee like this and yet only pay the substitute twenty dollars, if anything."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 287, together with the pending committee amendment, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, March 1, 1973.

HOUSE BILL NO. 367, by Representatives Gaspard, Nelson and Kelley:

HOUSE BILL NO. 396, by Representatives Erickson and Brown:
Providing for additional counting boards on election.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 396, providing for additional counting boards on election (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 1, after the enacting clause insert the following new section:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Section 29.33.220, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.33.220 are each amended to read as follows:
Before each primary election at which voting machines or voting devices are to be used or more frequently as the custodian deems necessary, the custodian shall instruct all inspectors, [and] judges, and clerks of election who are to serve thereat in the use of the machine or voting device and their duties in connection therewith. He shall give to each inspector and judge who has received instruction and is fully qualified to conduct the election with a machine or voting device a certificate to that effect. For the purpose of instruction, the custodian shall call such meetings of the inspectors and judges as may be necessary. Every inspector and judge shall attend the meetings and receive instruction in the proper conduct of the election with a machine or voting device. As compensation for the time spent in receiving instruction each inspector and judge who qualifies and serves in the election shall receive an additional two hours' compensation to be paid to him at the same time and in the same manner as compensation is paid him for his services on election day.
FIFTY-SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1973

No inspector or judge of election shall serve in any primary or general election at which a voting machine or voting device is used unless he has received the required instruction and is fully qualified to perform his duties in connection with the machine or voting device and has received a certificate to that effect from the custodian of the machines or voting devices: PROVIDED, That this shall not prevent the appointment of an inspector, or judge of election to fill a vacancy in an emergency."
Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
On line 1 of the title after "elections," and before "amending" insert "amending section 29.33.220, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.33.220;"
Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Metcalf, Stender, Washington.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Grant the committee amendment was adopted.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 601, by Representatives Parker, King, Erickson, Rabel, Fortson, Warnke, Bender, Clemente and Maxie:
Revising voter registration procedures.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 601, revising voter registration procedures (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):
Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 2, add a new section following section 1 as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 29.07 RCW a new section to read as follows:
In addition to other information required by this chapter, each applicant for registration shall establish his identity, unless personally known by the registration officer, by producing at least one of the following items:
(1) A social security card containing the applicant’s signature. Whenever the social security record is so used, the registration officer shall enter the applicant’s social security number upon the appropriate registration forms;
(2) A driver’s license which contains the signature and/or a photograph of the applicant;
(3) A valid Washington state identicard;
(4) A nationally or regionally known credit card containing the signature and/or photograph of the applicant;
(5) An identification card issued by the United States, any state or any agency of either, of a kind commonly used to identify the members or employees of such government agencies (including military I.D. cards), and which contain the signature and/or the photograph of the applicant.
In addition, whenever the registration officer has a doubt as to whether the applicant is of legal voting age, such officer may require the applicant to produce a record which establishes date of birth.
Failure to produce such identification at the time of registration as set forth in this section shall not deter the act of registration: PROVIDED, That registration officials shall indicate on the registration form by checking either “identification produced” or “identification not produced”.
Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Canfield, Gardner, Metcalf, Stender, Stortini, Washington.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, reading this committee amendment, does it mean that if you do not have one of these listed kinds of cards that the registrar could say, 'I am sorry, your identification is not good enough for me and we are not going to let you register to vote'?

Senator Grant: "That is not meant at all, Senator Francis. I think if you will read at the bottom of the amendment it says, 'Failure to produce such identification at the time of registration shall not deter the act of registration.'"
Senator Francis: "What does that mean, Senator Grant? I do not understand. If it says that the registrar can require the production of one of these listed items and if the person does not have it, then what does the bottom part of your amendment mean?"

Senator Grant: "It means that if he does not have it he does not have to produce it."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 601, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 10 of the engrossed bill, being the House committee amendment to page 1, section 1, line 9, after "the" insert "opening of the inner envelopes and".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, do I understand that your amendment would preclude the counting of ballots until what time in the election? Until eight o'clock of the election night?"
Senator Grant: "That is correct."
Senator Lewis (Harry): "Absentee ballots?"
Senator Grant: "Absentee ballots."
Senator Lewis (Harry): "Thank you."
Senator Grant: "This amendment does not do that. The floor amendment, the first one, does not do that."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 2, beginning on line 10 of the engrossed bill, being line 5 of the House committee amendment to page 2, strike the remainder of the section and insert:
"As an alternative to the procedure set forth in section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act, the county canvassing board, or its duly authorized representatives, may elect not to initial the inner envelope but instead place all such envelopes in containers that can be secured with a numbered metal seal and such sealed containers shall be stored in the most secure vault available within the courthouse until after 8:00 o'clock p.m. of the day of the primary or election: PROVIDED, That in the instance of punchcard absentee ballots, such ballots may be taken from the inner envelopes and all the normal procedural steps performed necessary to prepare punchcard ballots for computer count and then placed in said sealed containers."

Requiring the director of the department of labor and industries to notify the county prosecutor of suspected violations.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 98, requiring the director of the department of labor and industries to notify the county prosecutor of suspected violations (reported by Committee on Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 13 of the engrossed bill, being line 8 of the House Committee Amendment, after "penalty" strike "of" and insert "not to exceed".

Signed by: Senators Connor, Chairman; Fleming, Grant, Ridder, Stender.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Woodall moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 13 of the engrossed bill, being line 8 of the committee amendment, after the comma, insert "subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, ".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woodall carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 98, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, just for legislative intent purposes, when you state on line 16 that is the first priority, I realize that under the statute it is already first priority under the contractor's bond provision and that the state of Washington is second priority. Third is materials and fourth is breach of contract. Yet the state of Washington under number two priority comes in and puts a withhold and pay lien immediately on a contractor's bond. Is it the intent of the legislature under this amendment to House Bill No. 98 that the wages be a true first priority even ahead of the state of Washington?"
Senator Ridder: "Yes, because he is the little fellow that has been wronged in this case by the perjuring of the oath."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 98, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 3:20 p.m.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 36, by Representative Smythe:
Permitting disbursement of county funds under the control of the county auditor and treasurer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, House Bill No. 36 was re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 60, by Representatives Johnson, Kuehnle and Haussler (by Legislative Council request):
Authorizing disposal of surplus real property by irrigation districts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

HOUSE BILL NO. 60, authorizing disposal of surplus real property by irrigation districts (reported by Committee on Local Government):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, add a new section following section 1 as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 58.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:
In addition to any other requirements imposed by the provisions of this chapter, the legislative authority of any city, town, or county shall not approve a short plat or final plat, as defined in RCW 58.17.020, for any subdivision, short subdivision, lot, tract, parcel, or site which lies in whole or in part in an irrigation district organized pursuant to chapter 87.03 RCW unless there has been provided an irrigation water right of way for each parcel of land in such district and such rights of way shall be evidenced by the respective plats submitted for final approval to the appropriate legislative authority. Compliance with the requirements of this section together with all other applicable provisions of this chapter shall be a prerequisite, within the expressed purpose of this chapter, to any sale, lease, or development of land in this state."

In line 2 of the title, after "RCW 87.03.820" strike "." and add "; and adding a new section to chapter 58.17 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Connor, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Murray, Sellar, Walgren.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendment to page 2 was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, is it clear that this amendment we just adopted does not in any way affect planning or subdivisions outside of irrigation districts in other areas of the state?"

Senator Fleming: "From my understanding."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "And it does not reflect or involve or include drainage waters as they might affect plats and subdivisions or require irrigation ditches or that sort of thing as a prerequisite for platting or subdivision in other areas of the state?"

Senator Fleming: "From my understanding that is correct. But you might have some expert from the hinterlands that might be able to give you a more specific answer to that question."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, House Bill No. 60, the adopted committee amendment, and the pending title amendment, was ordered held for the second reading calendar on Thursday, March 1, 1973.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 65, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Conner and Martinis):

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 128, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Whetzel yield to a question? Senator Whetzel, do you have any information as to what the reserve fund, the guarantee fund is under the Torenns Title Act?"

Senator Whetzel: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "I wonder if the increasing the amount was to increase the reserve for the guarantees under the Torenns Title."

Senator Whetzel: "It was not explained to us in committee that way. I think it was explained just simply as we have the fees, you know, for filing deeds and such, deeds and mortgages under the more regular system or the more common system of recording titles, as they have been increased from time to time to cover the costs, that is simply the purpose of this bill."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 128, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 273 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
MOTION

Senator Newschwaner moved that Substitute House Bill No. 273 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "I wanted to ask Senator Ridder a question. Seriously, Senator, just what does this committee intend to find? Is it to put ramps out on railroad bridges for people to walk on?"

Senator Ridder: "According to the testimony we heard, they want the Utilities and Transportation Committee of the state of Washington to merely look at the feasibility—now the original bill stated that they would mandate automobile roadways and walkways on new trestles, railway bridges, and that seemed to be way out. So in order to get away from this they decided to put into the Utilities and Transportation Commission a study. I do not think the cost is going to run to anything because it is run by the Utilities and Transportation Commission which is an ongoing group and it merely brings in some people from the railways, both the workers and the companies, just to take a look at the thing and see how feasible it is and what kind of walkways would be built."

Senator Woodall: "Just one more question. You mean you are going to have pedestrians walking across railroad bridges and you are going to have cars driving across them?"

Senator Ridder: "No, the idea is that we anticipate a Federal Railway Safety Act. This is in anticipation. What they want to do is to work with them and what they think is coming. And so they would be prepared when the act came to build into any federal act the necessary statute in Washington to facilitate this. It seems to me it is a very sensible study."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwaner: "You still have not answered my question, though, as to what is this going to cost and where is the money coming from. You said, out of Utility Commission's budget, but we had a hearing several weeks ago on their budget and they are already tight for money and were wanting more. In fact I think an amendment was made in the committee that we are going to try to find them some more money. Now you are setting up a commission, I believe it is seven people, with no guidelines and you say it is not going to cost much. Well, you know what it costs every time a commission gets together for a day's meeting."

Senator Ridder: "This is not a commission, it is a study committee, which means they get together, there is no per diem, there is nothing else connected with it. And it seems to me that if we have a Federal Railway Act coming, regulations being set by them, that it would be wise to study the problem so that we could correlate and coordinate with them when the time comes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, Senator Durkan who is the chairman of Ways and Means is not on the floor but Senator Donohue and Senator Odgaard are and I would like to be assured there is no fiscal impact on this bill."

Senator Donohue: "Senator Canfield, as you know this is a consent calendar. We just got it. We have not received the fiscal notes and I agree with Senator Newschwaner; let us put it up in Ways and Means and take a look at it."

The motion by Senator Newschwaner carried and Substitute House Bill No. 273 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 277, by Representatives Nelson and Douthwaite: Providing a specific day for the legislative body of code cities to meet for the purpose of fixing the budget.

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Thursday, March 1, 1973.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President Pro Tempore that all Senators were present except Senators Guess and Twigg. On motion of Senator Woodall, Senators Guess and Twigg were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Daniel Cooper and Monica Mardesich, presented the Colors. Reverend George W. Mitchell, pastor of The First Christian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD AND LOVING HEAVENLY FATHER, AS THIS BODY OF SENATORS BEGINS THEIR WORK FOR ANOTHER DAY, WE PAUSE TO ASK YOUR BLESSING AND GUIDANCE FOR EACH ONE OF THEM. WHEN THEY ARE HONESTLY PERPLEXED, GIVE THEM WISDOM TO DETERMINE THE REAL ISSUES AND TO CHOOSE RIGHTLY BETWEEN THEM. WHEN THEY ARE PRESSURED FROM EVERY SIDE, GIVE THEM THE COURAGE TO DECIDE WITHOUT PREJUDICE. WHEN THEY ARE CONFRONTED WITH DIFFICULT DECISIONS, GIVE THEM STRENGTH TO ACT WITHOUT DELAY. MAY EACH ONE HERE BECOME AWARE OF YOUR CONSTANT PRESENCE ALONGSIDE THEM, AND OF YOUR CONTINUING CONCERN FOR THEM IN THE DECISION-FILLED DAYS JUST AHEAD. FOR WE MAKE OUR PRAYER IN THE NAME OF YOUR SON, JESUS CHRIST. AMEN."

MOTION.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

FIFTY-THIRD DAY, MARCH 1, 1973

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 240.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 240, by Representatives Rabel, Douthwaite, Swayze, Randall, Kraabel, Blair, Blaechel, Goltz, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charnley, Chatalas, Williams, Bausch, Adams and Perry (by Executive and Secretary of State request):

- Lowering legal age for use of alcoholic beverages.
- The bill was read the second time by sections.
- Senator Stender moved adoption of the following amendments:
  - On page 2, lines 18 and 30, strike “nineteen” and insert “eighteen”.
  - On page 3, lines 7 and 31, strike “nineteen” and insert “eighteen”.
  - On page 4, lines 5, 16, 20, 23, 27, and 31 strike “nineteen” and insert “eighteen”.
  - On page 5, lines 1, 7, 15, 23, 24, 26, and 27, strike “nineteen” and insert “eighteen”.
- Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Francis: “Mr. President, I have no objections to Senator Stender not abiding by the three-minute rule if the rest of us can have the same privilege, but otherwise I understood we were limited to three minutes each.”

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “Your point is well taken.”

Further debate ensued.

- Senator Dore demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Connor, Rasmussen, Peterson (Ted), Van Hollebeke, Woody, Fleming, Grant, Francis and Metcalf.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendments by Senator Stender were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

- Voting yea: Senators Clarke, Durkan, Francis, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Scott, Stender, Van Hollebeke, Walgren—14.
- Absent or not voting: Senators Greive, Mardesich—2.

- Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
  - On page 2, section 1, line 18 after “of” strike all of the material down to the comma on line 19 and insert “[twenty-one years any intoxicating liquor] nineteen years for consumption of intoxicating liquor on the premises of any licensed establishment and twenty-one years for removal of intoxicating liquor from the premises of any licensed establishment”.

- Debate ensued.
- The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted.
- There being no objection, on motion of Senator Bottiger the amendments to pages 3 and 5 on the Secretary’s desk were withdrawn.

- Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, section 11, line 6 after "employees" strike all of the material down to and including "years" on line 7 and insert "[., between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years, nineteen]."

Debate ensued.

The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Bottiger the amendments to page 6, section 11, lines 9 and 11 and page 6, new section 13 on the Secretary's desk, were withdrawn.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, new section 12, line 19 after "are" and before "years" strike "eighteen" and insert "nineteen".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Jones moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, add a new section following section 12 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, any member of the armed forces presenting proper evidence of being eighteen years of age (or older) shall enjoy all the rights and privileges given nineteen year olds under this act."

Renumber new section Sec. 13 as Sec. 14.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Jones failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Stender moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, after the period on line 27, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. It is the intent of the legislature that this act shall be subject to a test period to determine whether the act will result in any increase in alcohol-related crimes by the age group affected. The provisions of this act shall continue in full force and effect until July 1, 1974, at which time the act shall expire unless re-enacted by the legislature."

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Stender was withdrawn.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, after the period on line 27, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. It is the intent of the legislature that this act shall be subject to a test period to determine whether the act will result in any increase in alcohol-related crimes by the age group affected. The provisions of this act shall continue in full force and effect until July 1, 1974, at which time the act shall expire unless re-enacted by the legislature."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, line 22, following section 12, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Every pending charge for violation of RCW 66.44.270, RCW 66.44.290 and RCW 66.44.310 against an individual who had reached the age of nineteen years at the time of such alleged violation shall be dismissed with prejudice."

Renumber the remaining section.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Durkan was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 240 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the rules be suspended and the Senate allow full debate on Engrossed House Bill No. 240.

Debate ensued.
FIFTY-THIRD DAY, MARCH 1, 1973

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Will Senator Stortini yield to a question? I have before me a yellow sheet which has a number of statistics on it and I am unable to fully understand. I wonder if you would explain it to me?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "I would like to know on the point of order raised a few minutes ago, would Senator Bailey yield to a question as to the ruling he gave the other day about the three-minute rule and yielding to questions."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think you ruled wisely. I do not think we intended to cut off the yield when you yield to a question. I do not think that was the point. But I also think that there is a difference in yielding to a question and giving a speech in answer to a question. I think we would have to hear the answer to that question first. If he is going to give another speech then I think he is out of order. The intention was to not be able to use your time and yield—somebody yield their time to the other speaker. I think that was the intention."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "If Senator Washington has one statistic on that chart that he does not understand, he can ask about it."

Senator Washington: "I do believe that when you have a number of statistics before you that we should be able to ask a question. I am asking a simple question for him to explain and I think he can probably do it in thirty seconds if we give him time to do it."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "A simple question calls for a complicated answer. He went through most of the statistics on that sheet when you were not listening."

Senator Washington: "No, I do not believe he did. I would like him to explain the statistics."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Which statistics? Take your choice. You have one."

Senator Washington: "Well, if the President is going to so severely limit the asking of questions, it is going to do very little good for anyone to ask questions on the floor. If you could explain the last column of statistics on the yellow sheet, Senator Stortini?"

Senator Stortini: "Senator Washington, I have taken the percentage increase in Michigan and I have projected it to the state of Washington. I will just take one statistic out of that because I think this is the most important one. And if you look at that column you will find that last year in the state of Washington there were thirty seven young people, nineteen and twenty years of age, that were killed on our highways and on our streets that had been drinking. I think this is a very important statistic because if you take the sixty-six percent increase that we see in Michigan, it is going to project it to some twenty-four more than that next year. The only other point I want to make in conclusion is the fact that in looking at that statistic we find that in the state of Washington in 1972 there were eighty-eight young people, nineteen and twenty years of age, that died on our highways and freeways. Thirty-seven of them had been drinking. And I leave you with that statistic. That one out of almost two died on our highways and freeways that had been drinking. I urge that you, and I have many other statistics here too, that you vote against this measure."

Senator Metcalf: "I made a motion relative to suspension of the rules and I would like to say now that I think that we should act on my motion to suspend the rules. I think that the move to cut Senator Stender off was on an amendment. This is on a bill. I do not see the necessity for limiting debate on a measure. . . ."

Senator Bailey: "If we are going to allow an explanation and a debate on the reason you want to suspend the rules, then we should have a full debate on that and we have some reasons for not suspending rules."

Senator Day: "Have you satisfied this point of order, Mr. President? I have another one."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "No. I intend to put it to a vote at the moment. It takes two-thirds majority."

Senator Day: "Speaking to this point of order, Mr. President, I believe it has been a custom that we allow a short explanation of the reason why the gentleman want the suspension of the rules but it is not debatable otherwise."
RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point is well taken."
The motion by Senator Metcalf failed to suspend the rules and allow unlimited debate on Engrossed House Bill No. 240.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "I rise to a point of order. I believe that when we have the three minute rule invoked that the Chair should keep the three minute time and that we should not interrupt the speaker to request a ruling on whether the three minutes have been utilized, because it interrupts the train of thought of the speaker and I believe it is unfair to him to further encroach upon his three minute allowance."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point is well taken."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Mr. President, I rise to ask Senator Stortini if he will yield to a question but I want you to know why I am asking. I just want to refute possibly some of the things Senator Francis said. I checked with Michigan. I did not get those statistics. Senator Stortini, do you have an answer to that?"

Senator Stortini: "Yes. These statistics I got through correspondence the last two weeks, Senator Peterson, with Representative Tom Anderson of Michigan. He is the assistant majority leader in the House of Representatives and I told him I wanted sound statistics and he assured me in his letter to me just yesterday or the day before that 'Although I supported Michigan's reduction in the legal age, I have since watched with concern as statistics have unrolled and I am not sure now if I would take that same stand.' In fact, he said to me on the phone last Friday he doubted very much if the issue was to come to a vote that Friday that it would pass."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "I would like Senator Francis to yield to a question. I cannot recall, Senator Francis, who did you say you got your statistics from?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Fleming, part of the statistics came from a Department of State Police study called 'Michigan Traffic Accident Facts,' which go into the breathalizer and breath testing matters. My clerk talked to Sergeant Calcotar this morning in Michigan. We also got information from Captain Ambhor, head of the State Patrol Department of Statistics. Again, if you do not think that reduction in the percentage of blood alcohol would have some effect and in the way that the statistics are kept in Michigan would have an effect, then maybe you can go along with that study."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 240, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Canfield, Dore, Lewis (Bob), Mardisich, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwaner, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Washington—15.
Absent or not voting: Senator Greive—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 240, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 497, by Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Bagnoli and Shinpoch):
Making a reappropriation of certain funds to the legislative budget committee.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 497 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 497, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesch, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwendter, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—44.
Absent or not voting: Senators Connor, Greive, Stender—3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 497, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 462, by Representatives Berentson, Perry and Jueling:
Defining “clearing corporation”.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 1, line 8, after “whom” strike all of the material down to and including “and” on line 16 and insert:

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

HOUSE BILL NO. 364, by Representatives Wojahn, Paris and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):
Providing for conditional licensing of department of social and health services employees who are Canadian doctors.
The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 364, as amended, the pending amendments by Senator Woody and the Point of Order by Senator Newschwander.

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “The President in ruling upon the point of order rules the amendments by Senator Woody do increase the scope and object of the bill because the bill is limited to institutions, and even though privately I have a great deal of sympathy, coming from small communities which need doctors, with what you are trying to do, it does by far enlarge the scope and object of the bill.”
The motion by Senator Woody failed and the amendments were ruled out of order.
Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 20, after “thereof” and before the semicolon, insert the following:
“or other countries having similar training and/or licensing programs”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: “I would like to raise the question of scope and object, Mr. President.”
President Pro Tempore Henry: “You think the rest of the world is much larger than Canada?”
Senator Mardesich: “We had better start getting down to defining our rules a little more definitely because before long we will not be able to offer any amendments from the floor and I think this one is slightly different than the other one and may put the question in proper perspective.”

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “The President in ruling upon the question of scope and object of Senator Mardesich’s amendment finds that the amendment does relate to the same general subject matter of trained physicians for institutions and therefore is within the scope and object of the bill.”
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, House Bill No. 364, as amended, and the pending amendment by Senator Mardesich, were ordered held following consideration of House Bill No. 652.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

HOUSE BILL NO. 102, by Representatives Bauer, Berentson, Laughlin, Hansey and Erickson:
Authorizing alternative procedures for payment of condemnation awards subject to benefits setoff.
The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 102. The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Marsh and Gardner:

On page 2, section 2, line 1 after "property" and beginning with the period strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following: "without offsetting the amount of any special benefits accruing to a remainder of the property.

The selection of the option set forth in subsections (3) or (4) of this section is subject to the consent by the property owner to the creation and recording of a lien against the remainder in the amount of the fair market value of any property taken plus the amount of damages caused by such acquisition to the remainder of the property without offsetting the amount of any special benefits accruing to a remainder of the property, plus interest as it accrues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A lien established as provided in section 2 of this 1973 act shall be satisfied or released by:

1. Agreement between the parties to that effect; or
2. Payment of the lien amount plus interest at the rate of five percent per annum; or
3. Payment of the amount of offsetting special benefits as established pursuant to section 2(3) of this 1973 act plus interest at the rate of five percent per annum within four years of the date of acquisition; or
4. Satisfaction of a judgment lien entered as a result of a trial before a jury unless jury be waived to establish the change in value of the remainder of the original parcel because of the construction of the project involved: PROVIDED, That if the result of the trial is to find no special benefits then the lien is extinguished by operation of law. Trial may be had on the petition of any party to the superior court of the county wherein the subject remainder lies after notice of intent to try the matter of special benefits has been served on all persons having an interest in the subject remainder. Such notice shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court and personally served upon all persons having an interest in the subject remainder. Filing a notice of intent to try the matter of special benefits shall be accompanied by a fee in the amount paid when filing a petition in condemnation.

5. Upon expiration of six years time from the date of acquisition without commencement of proceedings to foreclose the lien or try the matter of special benefits to the remainder of the property, the lien shall terminate by operation of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A judgment entered as a result of a trial on the matter of special benefits shall not exceed the previously established sum of (1) the fair market value of any property taken; (2) the amount of damages if any to a remainder of the property, without offsetting against either of them the amount of any special benefits accruing to a remainder of the property; (3) the interest at five percent per annum accrued thereon to the date of entry of the judgment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Attorney fees and expert witness fees of the condemnor may be allowed by the attorney general or other attorney representing a condemnor to the extent provided in RCW 8.25.070 and shall be awarded by the court as authorized by this section to the extent provided in RCW 8.25.070 for trial and trial preparation: (1) in the event a trial is held as authorized by section 2 of this 1973 act except the judgment awarded to the condemnor must exceed by ten percent or more the highest written offer in settlement of the issue to be determined by trial submitted by the condemnor to those condemnees appearing in the action at least thirty days prior to commencement of the trial; (2) in the event of a trial on the matter of special benefits as authorized by section 3(4) of this 1973 act except the judgment awarded to the condemnor must be no more than ninety percent of the lowest written offer in settlement submitted by the condemnor to the condemnees appearing in the action at least thirty days prior to commencement of the trial on the matter of special benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Liens created and recorded as set forth in section 2 of this 1973 act are preferred to any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance which may attach subsequently to the time of creation and recording of the lien and are also preferred to any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance which may have attached previously to that time, and which was not filed or recorded so as to create constructive notice of the same prior to that time.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A condemnor may foreclose the lien authorized by section 2 of this 1973 act by bringing an action and applying for summary judgment pursuant to civil rule 56 and may execute first upon the remainder property but such proceedings shall not be commenced before five years time has passed from the date of acquisition by the condemnor. A property owner may stay proceedings to enforce the lien authorized by section 2 of the 1973 act by commencement of an action to try the matter of special benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this 1973 act shall be added to chapter 8.25 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This 1973 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, does this amendment provide that if I own a piece of property and the highway department decides that they want to run their highway through this locality that they may put a lien on my property?"

Senator Marsh: "They would have a right to place a lien on your property if it was a situation involving special benefits and you elected not to have the special benefits offset against the take by the highway department. That would be a situation where you would be proceeding under options three or four under section 2 in which case, if you proceeded under those options, a lien would be placed on your remainder portion of the property not taken by the highway department for the value of the property taken."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator, would this mean that I may not have desired a highway any place near my property but they decided to run it and then after they decided they would take so much of the property they did not want to pay the fair price? They would say that I achieved a higher benefit from their putting the highway there and that might be quite a dispute. And then they would put a lien on the remainder of my property for the value that they have set as the benefits I have received. Is this correct?"

Senator Marsh: "Well, in any event you would have to be paid 'just compensation.' Now 'just compensation' under the court's decision in these types of cases has been interpreted to mean the value of the property taken less any special benefits to the remainder of the property not taken. Now if you agreed to accept that as 'just compensation', that would be an election under subsections one or two of section 2, then there would be no lien. However, if you refused to accept an offset for the special benefits to the remainder of your property, yes, there would be a lien to the remainder of your property. And that lien would stay on until it was extinguished as provided under one of the five subsections of section 3."

Senator Rasmussen: "And I would have to go to court and spend thousands of dollars to get that lien off of my property?"

Senator Marsh: "There are several options."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would it not be more fair to eliminate the special benefits application principle of that application? Take not the case of a farm but the example of a corner that the road comes by and they take a small piece of that property and they dump traffic out so all of a sudden they say your property has special increased value. They have done nothing to the adjoining piece, which may be much larger in fact and suitably located for a gas station site. That person has received equal special benefits but gets no deduction. So are you not to really achieve equity better off to eliminate the application of this principle rather than to try to monkey with the application of it in this manner?"

Senator Gardner: "The problem with that, Senator Mardesich, is that there is no way that you can provide any compensation for the adjoining land owner who is not affected by this. That is just a separate and distinct issue. The benefit, if I were an attorney I think I would advise my client to take one of the first two options. Because what is going to happen in this instance is if you take the benefit and set that aside for a future date, then you have the problem that the jury, if you go to court at that time, is simply going to argue the benefit argument, whereas if you get them arguing the benefit plus damages argument, juries have a tendency to weigh the two against one another."

Senator Maresich: "My point is, though, why not eliminate special benefits as a consideration? Then you have done nothing to this man and you have put him in the same position as the adjoining property owner. What you are doing is merely perpetuating the inequity that exists between the two adjoining property owners by acts of this sort."

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, House Bill No. 102, as amended by the Senate, was referred to the Judiciary Committee with instructions to report back to the Senate within ten days.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 590, by Representatives Johnson, Kilbury and Benitz:
Providing for representation of breeders of quarterhorses on the racing commission.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Canfield, the rules were suspended and the following amendment by Senators Jolly and Canfield was adopted before consideration of the committee amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "breeder of" strike all the material down to and including "bred" on line 12 and insert "[thoroughbred and/or standard bred] "race".

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 27, 1973.

HOUSE BILL NO. 590, providing for representation of breeders of quarterhorses on the racing commission (reported by Committee on Agriculture):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 10, after "Washington" strike the remainder of the sentence down to the period on line 12 and insert "[, and one of whom shall be a breeder of thoroughbred and/or standard bred horses and he shall be of at least one year's standing]".

Signed by: Senators Jolly, Chairman; Matson, Sellar, Twigg, Washington.
On motion of Senator Jolly, the committee amendment was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 23, after "term" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in the event that an appointment has not been made to fill a vacancy as required by RCW 43.06.030 the member whose term has been vacated or expired shall not be permitted to serve on the commission".

On motion of Senator Jolly, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 590, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I was going to ask Senator Woodall a question but I will ask Senator Jolly if he will answer it. Senator Jolly, is there anything in the current law or in this bill that would restrict the members of the Horse Racing Commission to people not interested in the track, in any particular race track?"
Senator Jolly: "Senator Bailey, none that I know of."

Senator Bailey: "Another question, Senator Jolly. Is there anything in this bill or in the previous bill that would restrict the membership of the Horse Racing Commission to people that do not have an interest in a particular race? I am talking about people that may have entries in horse races and that these people may have the hiring and firing of personnel that govern the races. I was just wondering if this commission could by any chance be loaded with people that could possibly be very interested or have a conflict of interest in horse racing or in a particular horse race?"

Senator Jolly: "Well, I am not an attorney, Senator Bailey, and I am not too well acquainted with the rest of them but according to what I can see in this, there is nothing to hinder anybody from doing this very thing."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I move this bill be held over until the special session.

"Mr. President, it strikes me that we are getting to big business now. We have more than one race track. We have several race tracks. We have a gigantic lottery, you might say, or gambling by law, and it just seems to me we should be sure on the Horse Racing Commission that the people on that commission should have nothing to do with hiring the officials in a race or in any race on these tracks if they have an interest in a particular track or if they have an interest in a particular race. I think this is a direct conflict of interest if this is not provided for in here. They talk about us having a vague interest in letting of a bid or something like that, even school directors having an interest in a bid. It seems to me like this is a direct conflict of interest if we allow anyone to be a Horse Racing Commissioner and have any interest either in the track itself or in any one of the races therein, and I think it deserves a little bit of looking into. If we are so particularly perturbed about lotteries and how they are run, about little bingos and how they are run, I think we ought to look at this one very closely."

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved that House Bill No. 590, as amended by the Senate, be re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, could I ask Senator Bailey a question? Would you with your vast influence see that it gets back to the point in the special session?"

Senator Bailey: "Yes."

The motion by Senator Bailey carried on a rising vote. House Bill No. 590, as amended by the Senate, was re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 567, by Representatives Ehlers, Kilbury, Gaspard, Bagnariol, Smith, Beck, Randall, Erickson, Bauer, Kelley, Barden, Ellis, Gaines and Laughlin:

Prohibiting double taxation of mobile homes and repealing laws requiring mobile home identification tags.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 567, prohibiting double taxation of mobile homes and repealing laws requiring mobile home identification tags (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, add a new section after section 6 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

In line 1 of the title after "creating" and before "new" strike "a".

In line 1 of the title after "section" and before the semicolon add "s".
Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegard, Vice Chairman; Canfield, Fleming, Gardner, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Marsh, Metcalf, Newschwanter, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment by Senators Washington and Henry was adopted:

On page 3, line 30 of the engrossed bill, being page 3, line 25 of the printed bill, add two new sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 6. Section 20, chapter 231, Laws of 1971, 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.104 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of highways shall require every person except a dealer using dealer license plates or a transporter using transporter license number plates moving a mobile home on the public roads and highways of this state to obtain a mobile home movement permit as provided in RCW 46.16.105 and pay the fee therefor. The director of highways shall issue a copy of such permit to the assessor of the county where such mobile home was located and to the assessor of the county where such mobile home will be located: PROVIDED, That when a mobile home is to enter this state, a copy of such permit shall only be sent to the assessor of the county where such mobile home will be located and when a mobile home is to leave this state, a copy of such permit shall only be sent to the assessor of the county where such mobile home was located.

Nothing herein should be construed as prohibiting the issuance of vehicle license plates for a mobile home but no such plates shall be issued unless the mobile home for which such plates are sought has been listed for property tax purposes in the county in which it is principally located and the appropriate fee for such license has been paid.

Sec. 7. Section 22, chapter 231, Laws of 1971, 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.106 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall move a mobile home on the public roads and highways of this state when such mobilehome does not have a mobile home movement permit obtained as required by RCW 46.16.105 or vehicle license plate shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That such person shall be relieved of such criminal liability if such mobile home displays dealer license plates or transporter license number plates and if within ten days of moving a mobile home, the person notifies the director of the department of highways of the origin and destination of the mobile home."

Renumber the remaining sections.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment to the title by Senators Washington and Henry was adopted:

On line 7 of the title following "RCW 82.50.902;" and before "repealing" insert "amending section 20, chapter 231, Laws of 1971, 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.104; amending section 22, chapter 231, Laws of 1971, 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.106;"

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 567, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 567, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 43; nay, 3; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Scott, Whetzel—3.
Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Fleming—2.
Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 567, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 758.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 652, by Representatives Luders, Bagnariol and Pardini:
Regulating insurance company investment.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, section 1, line 3, after “pursuant to” strike all the material down to the period on line 5 and insert “rules and cumulative limitations which shall be promulgated by the commissioner to effectuate the purposes of this chapter”.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 652 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: “Would Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator, I assume that this amendment is to enhance the opportunity of investments of an insurance company.
Enhance the possibilities of making wise and productive investments by the insurance company?"

Senator Dore: "As I understand it, it affects primarily only one company in the state. Other companies like Safeco and Pemco, they have gotten around this provision by their various holding entities and this will just make this company competitive with them and competitive with other large companies nationally."

Senator Stender: "One further question, do the earnings off investments used in considering the rates that these insurance companies . . . ?"

Senator Dore: "As I understand it now, Unigard is the company involved, is that they are allowed to own like six hundred thousand dollars worth of automobiles but under our laws they are not allowed to list that as an asset in their balance sheets, which puts them at a competitive disadvantage. The other companies can, but Unigard cannot. And this is the purpose of this enabling legislation to let them do that, too."

Senator Stender: "I do not think that is the question. Maybe I did not make it clear. They use the accrued earnings from these investments when they are requesting rate adjustments and approval of rates to the commission. Do they use these earnings from investment in addition to the premium paid in these insurance policies?"

Senator Dore: "In answer to your question, that is not involved in this bill and the answer to your question is no, they do not. It has been, of course, a source of contention for a long time that in determining a fair rate of return they should include the income from their investments. That has nothing to do with this bill. This is merely permitting them to purchase income property which they are prohibited from doing. One company, a land-based company here, is prevented from doing now."

Senator Stender: "Well, then why do we want to meddle with the private affairs of investment of a private company? Why do we want to meddle with that by law?"

Senator Dore: "We are trying to make it uniform with the other companies and so this company can also be competitive with other national companies. We are blessed in this state. I think we have four of the largest companies in America with their home bases here. So we are more or less the leaders in the insurance field and, of course, the statute is unadvised and I was not present when they invoked it."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 652, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 42; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Grewe, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblach, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesch, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel--42.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Woodall--2.

Excused: Senator Guess--1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 652, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 364, by Representatives Wojahn, Paris and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Providing for conditional licensing of department of social and health services employees who are Canadian doctors.
The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 364, as amended, and the pending amendment by Senator Mardesich to page 1, section 1, line 20 moved for adoption earlier today.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Mardesich was withdrawn.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 1, line 20, after the semicolon, strike "and" and insert "[and] or".
Debate ensued.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Whetzel, House Bill No. 364, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senator Greive, was ordered held for consideration following House Bill No. 71.

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 594, by Representatives Smith, Kraabel and Goltz:
Providing for water pollution control in the state of Washington.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 594, providing for water pollution control in the state of Washington (reported by Committee on Ecology):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 5, section 6, line 32, after "in" and before "this" insert "sections 1 through 7 of".

On page 6, following section 7 add two sections to read as follows:
"Sec. 8. Section 20, chapter 216, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.48.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person found guilty of wilfully violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or any final written orders or directive of the [commission] department or a court in pursuance thereof shall be deemed guilty of a [gross misdemeanor] crime, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of [not more than one hundred dollars] up to ten thousand dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Each day upon which a willful violation of the provisions of this chapter occurs may be deemed a separate and additional violation.

Sec. 9. Section 14, chapter 139, Laws of 1967, ex. sess., as amended by section 13, chapter 88, Laws of 1970, 1st ex. sess., and RCW 90.48.144 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who:
(1) Violates the terms or conditions of a waste discharge permit issued pursuant to RCW 90.48.180 or this amendatory act, or
(2) Conducts a commercial or industrial operation or other point source discharge operation without a waste discharge permit as required by RCW 90.48.160 or this amendatory act, or
(3) Violates the provisions of RCW 90.48.080, shall incur, in addition to any other penalty as provided by law, a penalty in [the] an amount of [one hundred dollars] up to five thousand dollars a day for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation. Every act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the penalty herein provided for. The penalty herein provided for shall [become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives] be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the director of the [commission] department or his authorized delegate describing such violation with reasonable particularity [and advising such person that the penalty is due]. The director or his authorized delegate may, upon written application therefor[,] received within fifteen days [,] after notice imposing any penalty is received by the person incurring the penalty, and when deemed in the best interest to carry out the purposes of this chapter, remit or mitigate any penalty provided for in this section [or discontinue any prosecution to recover the same] upon such terms as he in his discretion shall deem proper, and shall have authority to ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as he may deem proper. Any person incurring any penalty hereunder may appeal the same to the hearing board as provided for in chapter 43.21B RCW. Such appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, such appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the director or his authorized delegate setting forth the disposition of the application. Any penalty imposed hereunder shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or an appeal is filed. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred hereunder shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed from such disposition. Whenever an appeal of any penalty incurred hereunder is filed, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order confirming the penalty in whole or in part. If the amount of [such] any penalty is not paid to the [commission] department within [fifteen] thirty days after [receipt of notice imposing the same or application for remission or mitigation has not been made within fifteen days after the violator has received notice of the disposition of such application] it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county or of any [other] county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise in this chapter provided. All penalties recovered under this section shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On page 1, line 7 of the title, after "90.48.260;" and before "adding" insert "amending section 20, chapter 216, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.48.140; amending section 14, chapter 139, Laws of 1967, ex. sess., as amended by section 13, chapter 88, Laws of 1970, 1st ex. sess., and RCW 90.48.144;".

On page 1, line 8 of the title, after "RCW;" and before "repealing" strike "and".

On page 1, line 9 of the title, after "RCW 90.48.070;" and before "and" insert "; prescribing civil and criminal penalties;".

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Murray, Stortini, Van Hollebeke.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendment to page 5 was adopted.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 6.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, I presume you are the spokesman for this bill and I certainly do not have any objection but I have one question which I would like to direct to you. On page 5 of the engrossed bill, new section five, beginning along about line 20, we have a law on the books now which establishes, as you know, a Thermal Site Evaluation Council. That was created partly as a result of the work of the Nuclear Committee of which Senator Jolly and I are members and I believe that Senator Matson has also served on this committee. Now this Thermal Site Evaluation Council is supposed to be composed of a number of concerned state agencies including, Senator Washington, the Department of Ecology. When these all pool their testimony on a hearing and they make their recommendation, the recommendation is supposed to be binding upon the entire group. And the report of the committee is then submitted to the Governor for his evaluation and final decision, which is right and proper. However, in section 5 it now sets up the Department of Ecology as a separate evaluation agency and says in here that it shall work with the Thermal Site Evaluation Council and shall cooperate insofar as possible, or words to that effect. In other words, we are dividing now the authority and getting away from the one stop concept. Have you cleared that with the people concerned?"

Senator Washington: "As I understand, you do not have a one stop concept. However, under the federal act it would merely mean that before the thermal plant siting recommendation could take effect it would have to comply with the federal water pollution control and all."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed House Bill No. 594, as amended, and the pending committee amendments were ordered held following consideration of House Bill No. 364.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 71, by Representatives Conner and Gilleland:
Changing powers and responsibilities of the director of motor vehicles.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 71 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 71, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.
Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 71, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 364, by Representatives Wojahn, Paris and Adams (by Department of Social and Health Services request):
Providing for conditional licensing of department of social and health services employees who are Canadian doctors.
The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 364, as amended, and the pending amendment by Senator Mardesich to page 1, section 1, line 20 moved for adoption earlier today.
The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Greive, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 364, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 364, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Guess—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 364, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 183, by Representatives Kraabel, Eng, Brown and Bauer:
Authorizing school districts to pay travel expenses of certain prospective employees.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Gardner moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Gardner, Donohue and Odegaard:
On page 1, following section 1, add a new section as follows:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Each member of the board of directors of every school district may receive compensation for his services as a director in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars per month with the approval of the board by resolution of a majority of the members."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Whetzel: "Is this amendment beyond the scope and object of the bill?"

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "In answer to the point of order, I find that it is an action by the director, by the directors of a school district, whether or not they decide to pay the expenses of a prospective employee or whether or not they decide to increase their own salaries. Therefore, it is well within the scope and object of the bill."

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the following amendment to the title by Senators Gardner, Donohue and Odegaard was adopted:
On page 1, section 1, line 1 of the title, strike "a new section" and insert "new sections".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, House Bill No. 183, as amended by the Senate, was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 359, by Representatives Luders, Flanagan, Maxie, Lysen, Brown and Bauer (by Secretary of State and Joint Committee on Education request):
Authorizing community education pilot programs and appropriating funds therefor.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 359, authorizing community education pilot programs and appropriating funds therefor (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

In section 1, line 12, after "supplies" and before "materials" strike "or" and insert a comma.

In section 1, line 12, after "materials," and before "for" insert "or instructor costs."

In section 1, line 18, after "schools," and before "community" strike "civic groups and."

In section 1, line 19, after "districts" and before "which" insert ", and other civic and governmental organizations."

In section 1, line 23, after "to" strike the remainder of the section and insert "begin new community education programs or expand existing community education programs."

Signed by: Senators Gardner, Chairman; Bottiger, Fleming, Murray, Peterson (Ted).

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the first four committee amendments were adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the committee amendment to section 1, line 23 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gardner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 359, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 359, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Clarke, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Newschwander, Rasmussen, Sellar, Twigg, Whetzel—9.

Absent or not voting: Senators Grant, Matson, Metcalf, Woodall—4.

Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 359, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 594, by Representatives Smith, Kraeler and Goltz: Providing for water pollution control in the state of Washington.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 594. The committee amendment to page 5 was adopted and the committee amendment to page 6 was moved for adoption by Senator Washington earlier today.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator, is it your understanding as well as ours that the administration of this act will be within the funds already provided to the department?"
Senator Washington: "Yes, that is the understanding and that they presented their budget on that basis."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesis: "I wonder if Senator Washington would yield further? Anywhere in this act does it define where a point source discharge is? I think I know what it means in my mind but is there anything in the law that defines it?"

Senator Washington: "Frankly, they have all had some difficulty in very precisely making a definition. However, apparently wherever the refuse or the effluent comes out at a point, whether it comes out of a pipe or whether it is gathered in a canyon and comes out at one point, that would be a point discharge. This is a problem that we have discussed in committee. The Department of Natural Resources has raised the same question you did. We had considerable discussion and they finally withdrew their objection and decided generally what I have stated is the best that could be arrived at."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the committee amendment to page 6 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 594, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, can you assure us now if we vote for this bill that we will be voting for the federal regulations as they will exist ten days from now?"

Senator Washington: "No. It specifically provides the federal regulations as they now exist."

Senator Rasmussen: "Or may hereafter be changed?"

Senator Washington: "No. We would have to amend this act to take care of future regulations."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 594, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea, 41; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Donohue, Lewis (Harry), Odegard, Rasmussen—4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Grant, Woodall—3.

Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 594, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 171, by Representatives Martinis, Zimmerman, Jastad, Schumaker, Luders, Adams, Charette, Hansey, Thompson and Cecarelli (by Interim Committee on Fisheries, Game and Game Fish request):

Enhancing the propagation of wildlife.

The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 171 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwardner: "Will Senator Peterson yield to a question? When I heard this bill up in the Ways and Means Committee I think they made a guess, it was a very wild guess, that only forty or fifty thousand dollars was going into this wildlife program a year. Now do you have any assurance that this money will just be replaced or are they going to use more of this money or is this just kind of a rip off for the whole Game Department? My understanding that you will still get about the forty or fifty thousand dollars a year and that great excess will then go into the Game Department that had been financed by the hunting licenses or the hunters in previous years."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator, your question is a little ambiguous. I am not too sure I follow you. The forty or fifty thousand dollars that they are spending now, if they are spending such, and as a matter of fact it is more than that but the moneys that they are now presently spending are coming out of present license generated funds which are statutorily for the protection of game animals as we have set down in the statute."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 171, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yea's, 45; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Grant—1.

Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 171, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson (Ted): "I just wanted to tell the Senators that they had better get in line for these licenses because you have got a thousand members of the Washington State Sports Council that will bring in say around three hundred thousand. I already have my SEN TED license picked out so figure out what you are going to have and get in there because the sportsmen all through the state are really going to get out and do a job on this thing and sell these licenses."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 404, by Representatives Shinpoch, Pardini, Sommers, Erickson, Kraabel and Maxie (by Washington State Women's Council request):

Implementing laws against discrimination.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 404 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
FIFTY-THIRD DAY, MARCH 1, 1973

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senator Grant was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, on page 7, reference has been made to sex and marital status and I think there is no question there, but what has age got to do with it? Why does this bill say you cannot discriminate on account of age? You mean you have to give credit to five year olds or something like that?"

Senator Francis: "I had a little problem with that and raised some questions in caucus myself, Senator, especially in view of the fact that most of the bill addresses itself to the things that Senator Bottiger referred to. However, the first sections which refer to age are consistent with what we already have in our state law which some people still refer to as the Law Against Discrimination but which is now denominated the state Human Rights Law and that does forbid discrimination on the basis of age. It does not change the age of majority, but basically it forbids discriminating against people on the basis that they are too old, as some companies have tried to get away with not hiring somebody if he is over forty or over forty-five and of course the state Human Rights Law forbids that and people have brought actions under it. These sections are consistent with that and I think we are in effect technical, bringing those in line with the others. I think that is the only reason they threw it in and it certainly is not a basic part of this statute. It does not affect too young because it does not change the age of majority."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, on page 6, line 15 it says unfair practices but then it goes on to say to deny credit to any person. Is that directly related to the section above or is it a flat statement?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, if you will read it, section 1 says it is an unfair practice and then following down, 'race, creed, color, national origin, sex or marital status (a) to deny credit to any person,' so subsection (a) refers to the total section 1."

Senator Rasmussen: "Okay, thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 404, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senator Clarke—1.

Excused: Senators Grant, Guess—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 404, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 332, by Representatives Amen, Haussler, Laughlin, Bauer, Curtis, Schumaker and Tilly:

Exempting minors employed by a parent from extra-hazardous employment classification.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 332 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 332, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.
Absent or not voting: Senators Greive, Twigg—2.
Excused: Senators Grant, Guess—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 332, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, all bills passed at this point today were ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 137, by Representatives O’Brien, Moon, Wojahn and Van Dyk (by Legislative Council request):
Requiring and regulating the use of safety glass and similar materials.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 27, 1973.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 137, requiring and regulating the use of safety glass and similar materials (reported by Committee on Commerce):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 3, section 2, line 10 of the engrossed bill, being page 3, line 11 of the printed bill, after “transparent” and before the period insert “: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the replacement of opaque, non-transparent panels in buildings which are completed prior to the effective date of this amendatory act shall not be subject to the provisions of the act”.
On page 4, section 2, line 22 of the engrossed bill, being page 4, line 23 of the printed bill, after “door” and before the period insert “, but shall not include any glass panel more than 18 inches above the finished floor walking surface”.
Signed by: Senators Greive, Chairman; Lewis (Bob), Wanamaker, Whetzel.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 4, section 2, line 20 of the engrossed bill, being line 21 of the printed bill, after “doors,” strike “forty-eight inches or less” and insert “between eighteen and forty-eight inches”.
Senator Woodall moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, section 10, beginning on line 19 of the engrossed bill, being line 23 of the printed bill, strike all of section 10 and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. It is the intent of the legislature that the application of this act shall be prospective only. The provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall not take effect until January 1, 1974, and shall not apply to contracts awarded on or before the effective date of this act: PROVIDED, That except for replacement or new installations of materials this 1973 amendatory act shall not apply to buildings or construction completed prior to the effective date of this act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator Woodall, your amendment proposes it will not take effect until January 1, 1974."

Senator Woodall: "That provision was in the bill in that area already so that is not new."

The motion by Senator Woodall carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 137, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 137, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Jones—2.

Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 137, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would like to find out whether Engrossed House Bill No. 332 is still physically in the possession of the Senate?"

President Pro Tempore Henry: "No. Transmitted to the House on motion by Senator Woodall."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, my point of order is, as I recall there is a ruling on this, if the bill is still in the possession in the chambers of the Senate that the motions are still in order."

Senator Woodall: "The rule is that the motion constructively passes the measure over. From that point on it is a pure clerical transmission factor. It has left the body for all official purposes."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Mardesich: "Having voted on the prevailing side, I now move to reconsider the motion to transmit immediately."

Senator Greive: "I think if you will look under Rule 31, the motion to reconsider only applies to resolutions or bills."
RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point is well taken."
Senator Durkan: "Further then, Mr. President, on the point of order, I recall the Chair ruling that we had the right to reconsider on a bill during the day in which the bill passed. And the method on moving it, immediately transmitting it, did not prevent a member from rising and asking for a reconsideration. Because, Mr. President, I was the one who moved, in which Senator Woodall is doing now, I moved that the bill be immediately transferred and a point of order was raised on me on a question of reconsideration and the Chair ruled that they had the right to reconsider during that day on the bill."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Fleming moved that the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 332 passed the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, were there any amendments on that bill? I would raise the point of order that Senator Woodall's motion only applied to all of those bills that had been amended and would therefore go to the House in due course, and bills that were not amended, since they go straight to the Governor, would not have been covered by his motion in any event."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point of order is not well taken. I do not recall which Chairman or which President made the ruling before. It certainly was not me. To all intents and purposes, the bills are in the possession of the House of Representatives."
The motion for reconsideration by Senator Fleming was ruled out of order.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 134, by Representatives Moon, Zimmerman, Smith and Gaines (by Legislative Council request):
Authorizing department of natural resources to remove wood debris from navigable waters.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, section 3, line 17 of both the engrossed and printed bills, after "debris" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, That nothing herein provided shall permit removal of wood debris from private property without written consent of the owner".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Will Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, this hit me rather cold. But this in no way would attempt to infringe upon the log patrols' present operations in recovering other merchantable timber, for instance, that is broken up in log booms that drift on, for instance, your property?"
Senator Clarke: "I just stated in my remarks that there was a present Log Patrol Act under which they retrieve branded logs, and that I had no intent whatsoever of preventing that."
The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 134, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Peterson, I am going to ask you a question and I hope your answer is the right one. What I want to establish is the intent of this act. If you will note in new section 3, it defines wood debris as used in this chapter. Then it goes on to spell out what is adrift and stranded on beaches. It is not the intent of this law to have the department pull all the driftwood that is on the beaches off, even though it be classified as wood debris?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Rasmussen, I am sure that this is not the intent. The intent, and the language is obviously a little bit broad, but there are a number of beaches which the state does own and in those cases, in order to clean the beaches, I would assume that in many cases they would. But it certainly is not the intent of the bill to come onto a private owner's beach and remove all the debris without his permission. In fact, if we got into that field we could not finance it anyway. In fact, I question as to what they can do with the limited amount of money they have in this measure anyway."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Peterson. Mr. President, I got the wrong answer. Let me say that I would hope that under this law that the department does not remove all the debris off of the beaches because in the neighboring state of California they have a law that nobody may remove any driftwood from the beach and of course driftwood is what makes the ocean beaches and the bay attractive. And if now the department were to take it as the intent of this legislature that they wanted all of this debris removed, our beaches would not be very attractive any more. I would understand if they wanted to remove the broken glass and things like that left by the fishermen. But I do like to see driftwood on the beaches and it makes it very attractive, both for children and adults. Now, can you give me the right answer, Senator Peterson?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Rasmussen, I thought I did the first time. I am sure it is not the intent of the department to go, with our thousands of miles of beachline and coastline, and remove all the driftwood. We are speaking primarily more to the necessity of cleaning the waters rather than the beaches."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Would Senator Peterson yield? When you remove this debris, are you planning to sell it to somebody and to whom are you going to sell it, or are you going to remove it and burn it and pollute the air?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "This was discussed in committee and obviously under our present laws, it is practically impossible to remove it and burn it. What they are trying to work out and they are experimenting on this and it is a new program as to the susceptibility of perhaps chipping some of it and using it as organic matter, but not to burn it, no."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 134, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Grant, Sellar–3.

Excused: Senator Guess–1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 134, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 280, by Representatives Paris, Conner and Chatalas (by Department of Social and Health Services request):
Changing the terms of certain advisory councils of the department of social and health services and eliminating certain committees.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed House Bill No. 280 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 130, by Representatives Kalich and Smythe:
Allowing revision of county budgets upon receipt of unanticipated funds.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 27, 1973.

HOUSE BILL NO. 130, allowing revision of county budgets upon receipt of unanticipated funds (reported by Committee on Local Government):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
In section 1, line 20, after "which the" and before "resolution" on line 21, strike "appropriation" and insert "supplemental appropriations".
Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Ridder, Vice Chairman; Connor, Gardner, Jolly, Lewis (Bob), Sellars, Whetzel.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Atwood, the committee amendment was adopted.
Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 5, after "Section 1." and before "Section 36.40.100" insert the following:
"Section 36.17.030, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.17.030 are each amended to read as follows:
All county officers shall be entitled to their necessary reasonable traveling expenses in the performance of their official duties, bills therefor to be audited by the county commissioners: PROVIDED, That when using their own cars, they shall be allowed [not to exceed ten cents] such compensation per mile for each mile of necessary travel as is established by the county legislative authority.
Sec. 2."
On line 1 of the title after "counties;" and before "and" insert "amending section 36.17.030, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.17.030;".

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Atwood: "This amendment by Senator Talley is beyond the scope and object of the bill. It deals with mileage for county officials. The bill deals with supplemental appropriations from unanticipated funds and therefore I do not think it is in order."
President Pro Tempore Henry: "You do not think they could pay the mileage out of unanticipated funds?"
Senator Atwood: "No, the amendment is a separate bill. The bill itself deals with unanticipated funds, whether federal or otherwise, and deals with the procedures for passing supplemental appropriations for counties. It does not have anything to do with mileage or compensation for travel of county officials. It is a separate bill. There is a title amendment, as you will notice."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Ruling on the point of order, it clearly does enlarge the scope and object of the bill."
The motion by Senator Talley failed and the amendment was ruled out of order.
On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 130, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 130, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.
Excused: Senator Guess—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 130, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 320, by Representatives Erickson and Ehlers:
Enlarging the area of residence for persons eligible for membership in the state soldiers’ home.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 320 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 320, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.
Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Francis, Gardner, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzell, Woodall, Woody—44.
Voting nay: Senators Newschwander, Scott—2.
Absent or not voting: Senators Connor, Fleming—2.
Excused: Senator Guess—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 320, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

SENATE BILL NO. 2473, regulating the practice of massage (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):
MAJORITY recommendation: That Substitute Senate Bill No. 2473 be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass.

Gubernatorial Appointment

JOHN L. HAGENSEN, to the position of member of the State Board for Community College Education, appointed by the Governor on April 7, 1972 for the term ending April 3, 1976, succeeding himself (reported by the Committee on Higher Education):
MAJORITY recommends that said appointment be confirmed.
Signed by: Senators Sandison, Chairman; Donohue, Durkan, Marsh, Metcalf, Scott.
Passed to Committee on Rules.

Motions

On motion of Senator Mardesich, all bills remaining on today’s calendar were re-referred to the Committee on Rules.
At 4:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Friday, March 2, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore and Herr. On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Senators Dore and Herr were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages David Roebuck and Elizabeth Petrich, presented the Colors. Reverend George M. Mitchell, pastor of The First Christian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, WE COME TO YOU JUST NOW FREELY CONFESSIONING OUR NEED OF YOUR WISDOM AND UNDERSTANDING IN ORDER TO DEAL ADEQUATELY WITH THE ISSUES WHICH FACE EACH OF THESE SENATORS. AND SO WE COME TO YOU IN PRAYER. BUT DON'T ALLOW US TO IMAGINE THAT THIS FORMAL PRAYER CAN TAKE THE PLACE OF PRIVATE PRAYER. AND SO, MAY THERE ARISE FROM EVERY DESK THE SILENT PRAYER THAT SEEKS TO KNOW YOUR WILL. LET NOT FOOLISH PRIDE NOR STUBBORN WILL KEEP US FROM CONFESSIONING OUR NEED OF YOUR GUIDANCE AND INSPIRATION.

"HELP EACH ONE OF US, O LORD, WHEN WE WANT TO DO THE RIGHT THING BUT DO NOT KNOW WHAT IT IS. BUT HELP US EVEN MORE WHEN WE KNOW PERFECTLY WELL WHAT WE OUGHT TO DO BUT DO NOT WANT TO DO IT. IN HIS NAME WE PRAY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardisich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson (Ted): "I just want to express myself to say how wonderful it is to be here and stand here and see these youngsters in the gallery put their hand over their heart and salute the flag as they did and then hear the good Reverend say what he said. I appreciate it."
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the President should like to call your attention to the first page of the House amendments to Senate bills and call your attention to the fact that this is the birthday of a very lovely and gracious lady, the beloved Mrs. Julia Herrmann who has served the members of the Senate and the citizens of our state with such dignity and capability. The President is sure that you all join in wishing Julia a very, very happy birthday."

MOTION

At 9:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 11:10 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:10 a.m.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Doctor R. Franklin Thompson, President of the University of Puget Sound and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Bottiger, Lewis (Harry), Gardner, Stortini, Knoblauch and Sandison to escort Dr. Thompson to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is with great pleasure and pride that the President at this time presents to you one of your own members, the Honorable Booth Gardner, who has achieved great success in many fields. One especially notable is that he was previously Director of the School of Business and Public Administration at the University of Puget Sound, which has provided him a wonderful background to serve the people of his district and the state of Washington. Senator Gardner, who will in turn present our distinguished guest."

Senator Gardner introduced Doctor Thompson and with leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit the honored guest to address the Senate.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-31

By Senators Rasmussen, Knoblauch, Gardner, Stortini, Newschwaner and Bottiger:

WHEREAS, Dr. H. Franklin Thompson was chosen president of the University of Puget Sound in 1942, following a career as a minister of the Methodist Church, university professor and administrator; and

WHEREAS, Since that selection he has become the dean of University Presidents in the United States during a period of continuous service to the University of Puget Sound in excess of thirty years; and

WHEREAS, As a result of his tenure at the University of Puget Sound he has established a national reputation for being a leader among private liberal arts colleges in the nation; and

WHEREAS, During his presidency he has led the University of Puget Sound through a period of dynamic expansion, exemplified in part by the many-fold expansion of the student body, a nine-fold expansion of the university's physical plant, the development of a faculty of outstanding quality and distinction, the diversification and improvement of the curriculum available to the students, the establishment of a school of law to serve the needs of the citizens of the state, and the expansion of the endowment of the university to allow the University of Puget Sound to operate in a fiscally responsible manner; and

WHEREAS, During the same period of service he has shown his involvement in the total community surrounding him by participating in or leading activities of community or statewide impact including the Washington State Historical Society, the Governor's Commission on Institutional Industries, the Tacoma General Hospital, the State Officials' Salary Review Board, and Rotary International; and

WHEREAS, He has continued to play a vital role in the shaping of the Methodist Church through constant participation in, and leadership of the activities of the church on a national and international level. These activities have included membership on the general board of the National Council of Churches, the Executive Committee of the Commission on Finance Administration, the Board of Education of the Methodist Church and the Presidency of the National Association of Methodist Colleges and Universities; and

WHEREAS, He has been honored for the excellence of his leadership by the granting of honorary degrees from, among others, Nebraska Wesleyan University, American University, Willamette University and the University of the Pacific; and

WHEREAS, Many of the leaders of our state have directly benefited from the example of honesty, directness, diligence, ingenuity, eloquence, and persuasiveness exhibited to them by Dr. Thompson during that formative period of their lives spent as students of the University of Puget Sound; and

WHEREAS, Dr. R. Franklin Thompson has indicated that he will be stepping down from the post of president of the University of Puget Sound in May of 1973;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate extend to Dr. R. Franklin Thompson our sincere appreciation for his services to the citizens of this state and the nation throughout his thirty-one years of leadership in the educational, social, and cultural lives of our area, state and nation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to Dr. R. Franklin Thompson and spread a copy thereof upon the journal of the Senate.

Senator Gardner introduced Mrs. Thompson to the members of the Senate.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Senator Gardner, and thank you, Doctor and Mrs. Thompson, for your presence here today. The members of the Senate and the President are happy that you have had an opportunity to smell some of the Senate flowers while still around to enjoy them."

The honored guests were escorted from the Senate Chamber by the special committee.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate Richard Hannula, the principal of Woodrow Wilson High School, the assistant swimming coach and the swimming team and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Bottiger, Rasmussen, Stortini, Gardner and Knoblauch to escort the honored guests to the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Richard Hannula to address the Senate and introduce the school principal, assistant coach and the swimming team.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1973-29

By Senators Stortini, Bottiger, Rasmussen, Gardner, Knoblauch and Newschwander:

WHEREAS, The swimming program of Woodrow Wilson High School of Tacoma has become nationally recognized for its achievements in the training of youthful contenders; and

WHEREAS, The program has enabled Woodrow Wilson High School to compile a fourteen year record of one hundred ninety-two consecutive victories in meet competition, including fourteen consecutive state swimming championships; and

WHEREAS, The program has developed fifty contenders who have received All-American recognition during a fourteen year span; and

WHEREAS, The program has resulted in the development of eight All-Americans in 1973; and

WHEREAS, The success of the program has generated tremendous widespread interest in swimming as a competitive sport;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Coach Richard Hannula, who has dedicated his efforts to the training of youthful contenders and who has been individually responsible for the success of the program, be commended by the Senate of the State of Washington for his outstanding services as a coach and educator, together with all the participants who have contributed to the success of the program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Richard Hannula, all swim team members, the principal of Woodrow Wilson High School, and the Student Body President.

The honored guests were escorted from the Senate Chamber by the special committee.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Mardesich was excused.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

In lines 2 and 3 of the title, after "90.44.035," strike all material down to and including "90.44.040,"

On page 2, section 3, beginning on line 12, strike all of section 3., and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Washington moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 2415.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, before it defined the existing rights of all natural ground waters and all artificially stored ground waters if they had been abandoned, forfeited or otherwise relinquished. Now what is going to happen to those by striking all of section 3?"

Senator Washington: "You are not going to strike all of section 3 at all. We are only taking it out of the bill. We are not taking it out of the act. When we strike section 3 from here, we just leave the law as it is."

Senator Guess: "Well, it says, 'strike all of section 3',"

Senator Washington: "Yes, but when we take section 3 out, we are leaving RCW 90.44.040 as it is. This is a change in section 90.44.040. If we strike out section 3 we are not going to amend 90.44.040 and it will remain in the law as it now is.”

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 2415.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2415, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 27, 1973.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2350, with the following amendments:
On page 1, section 2, line 25 of the engrossed bill, being line 20 of the printed bill, after "his" insert "actual travel expense or ten cents per mile, whichever is less, from his residence and in addition his".

On page 1, section 2, line 26 of the engrossed bill, being line 21 of the printed bill, after "actual" strike "expenses" and insert "living expenses not to exceed forty dollars per day".

On page 2, section 2, line 5 of the engrossed bill, being page 1, line 27 of the printed bill, after "actual" strike "expenses" and insert "travel expenses or ten cents per mile, whichever is less, from his residence and in addition his living expenses not to exceed forty dollars per day".

On page 2, section 2, line 16 of the engrossed bill, being page 2, line 8 of the printed bill, after "him," strike all material down to and including "expenses" on line 17 of the engrossed bill, being line 9 of the printed bill, and insert "the actual travel expenses or ten cents per mile, whichever is less, from place of residence and in addition the living expenses not to exceed forty dollars per day", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Francis moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2350.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, the action of the House did not repeal the Senate limitations on what the pro tem judges could earn?"

Senator Francis: "No, it did not, Senator Bailey. The limits that we placed on other bills are not affected at all. On this bill we had said 'actual expenses.' The House amendment changed that and says 'actual expenses, however, not to exceed ten cents a mile and not to exceed in any event forty dollars a day.' So they put a ceiling and some limits on what we had not limited."

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2350.

MOTION

At 2:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Marderich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Saturday, March 3, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Charles Smith and Toni DeSanto, presented the Colors. Reverend George M. Mitchell, pastor of The First Christian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"O GOD OUR FATHER, SAVE US FROM OUR TOO-FREQUENT LIP WORSHIP OF YOU, WHILE OUR HEARTS ARE FAR AWAY. LET US NOT BE CONTENT WITH WAITING TO SEE WHAT WILL HAPPEN, BUT GIVE US THE DETERMINATION TO MAKE THE RIGHT THINGS HAPPEN. WHEN WE LONG FOR LIFE WITHOUT PROBLEMS AND WORK WITHOUT DIFFICULTIES, MAY WE SEE IN EVERY CRITICAL SITUATION AN OPPORTUNITY, AND NOT GIVE WAY TO THE PESSIMISM THAT SEES A CALAMITY IN EVERY OPPORTUNITY. KNOWING THAT YOU ARE STILL IN CONTROL IN YOUR UNIVERSE, WE ASK YOU TO HELP US TO PROCEED WITH THE TASKS WHICH CONFRONT US, DOING THE BEST WE CAN AND LEAVING THE REST TO YOU, FOR WE PLACE OUR FAITH AND OUR TRUST IN YOU. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

At 9:50 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 11:00 a.m.
SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:00 a.m.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2740, by the Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Donohue, Scott and Sandison):

Adopting the budget for the institutions of higher education and the community colleges.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of considering Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

President Pro Tempore Henry in the Chair.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment by Senators Atwood, Lewis (Harry), Clarke, Jones and Whetzel was adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 6, after "biennium" insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That the funds contained in this section shall be re-prioritized so that up to $293,200 may be available for arboretum purposes, which funds shall not be expended at any location other than the present University of Washington arboretum located in Seattle without the approval of the legislature".

Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740 was considered in the Committee of the Whole and reported back to the Senate with the recommendation that it do pass as amended.

President Cherberg in the Chair.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the report of the committee was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the reading had in the Committee of the Whole was considered the second reading of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? For the record, Senator Durkan, there has been some confusion even among members of the Senate on the purpose of the committee of the whole, and I would like to have you state for the record what is the purpose when it is used in the Senate."

Senator Durkan: "It is twofold. One, the rules of the Joint Rules require that we go to the committee of the whole. That is the first reason why we are here this morning. The second is that it is the one area in which the Senate has no right to limit debate, and at the request of—we did change the rules, that there can be roll calls within the committee of the whole."

Senator Washington: "I think for the record there is also one other very important reason for keeping the committee of the whole and having the right to have roll calls, is that it is only in the committee of the whole that we have the right to bring witnesses to the floor of the Senate and it also leaves a way open to where we can have informal discussion on many problems on the floor of the Senate. We have not seen fit to do that in the past. I think we have had only one occasion in recent years, where we did bring someone in from the outside. That was Attorney General O'Connell to talk about a constitutional convention. But there could be times in the future when we do have problems that the entire Senate should discuss as in a committee."

Senator Henry: "There is one other little matter in there too, a motion to table is not allowed under the committee of the whole."

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 5.

Voting nay: Senators Guess, Lewis (Harry), Murray, Newschwander, Sandison—5.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2740, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jim Quilliam and Karen Lovsted, presented the Colors. Reverend Jack Finney, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"Today we will have a bidding prayer. I will bring several areas of concern before God and after each there will be time for you to talk with God silently on that matter. Let us pray.

"GOD OUR FATHER, AS THE WASHINGTON STATE SENATE CONVENES TODAY, YOUR FAITHFUL SERVANTS IN THIS BODY REACH OUT IN PRAYER FOR YOUR HELPING HAND KNOWING THAT ONLY YOU CAN MAKE THEM EQUAL TO THE ENORMOUS TASK OF FORMULATING LAWS ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON. HEAR NOW, GOD, AS SENATORS SEEK YOUR HELP, TO SEE CLEARLY HOW THEIR DECISIONS AND VOTES MADE TODAY WILL AFFECT THE LIVES OF PEOPLE IN YEARS TO COME. GOD, LISTEN NOW TO THE PRAYERS CONCERNING THE USE OF WASHINGTON'S FINANCIAL RESOURCES OF WHICH THE LEGISLATURE IS GUARDIAN. LORD, WE NEED A SPIRIT OF UNITY HERE IF YOUR WILL IS TO BE DONE. ANSWER THE PLEADING OF SENATORS AS THEY PRAY FOR YOU TO WORK IN THEIR LIVES SO THAT THEY CAN OVERCOME PARTY DIFFERENCES, DIVERGING LOCAL INTERESTS, AND PERSONAL EGOTISM IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY ACHIEVE THE BEST FOR ALL MEN. FATHER, I PRAY THAT TODAY THE CITIZENS OF THIS STATE WILL BE ABLE TO SAY THEY ARE THRILLED WITH WHAT YOU AND YOUR FOLLOWERS HAVE ACCOMPLISHED IN THE SENATE CHAMBERS ON MARCH 5, 1973. AMEN."

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, March 6, 1973.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Durkan and Peterson (Lowell).

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages John Shaw and Katy McHugh, presented the Colors. Reverend Jack Finney, pastor of Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"LORD, YOU HAVE SURE GIVEN OUR LEGISLATORS A MESS TO DEAL WITH. IT MUST SEEM LIKE AN IMPOSSIBLE TASK AT TIMES. THERE ARE MORE NEEDS THAN MONEY. EVERY SENATOR HAS SELF-SEEKING PEOPLE AMONG HIS CONSTITUENCY. LIKE ALL PEOPLE, OUR LAWMAKERS ARE SOMETIMES TEMPTED BEYOND THEIR ABILITIES TO RESIST. 'HATE IS STRONG AND MOCKS THE SONG OF PEACE ON EARTH, GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN.' FATHER, LIKE ALL OF US, OUR SENATORS NEED TO REMEMBER AND EXPERIENCE YOUR LIMITLESS LOVE AND FORGIVENESS IF THEY ARE TO BE ABLE TO SEEK THE BEST INTERESTS OF THEIR FELLOWMEN. I PRAY THAT EVERY MEMBER OF THE SENATE WILL BE FILLED WITH SUCH GRATITUDE FOR YOUR CARE OF THEM THAT THEY WILL FIND IN THEIR LIVES ENOUGH STRENGTH AND COURAGE TO APPROACH THE LEGISLATIVE TASK IN A GOOD SAMARITAN STYLE EVEN IF IT MEANS A POLITICAL DEATH IN ORDER TO IMPROVE THE LOT OF THE POOR, THE FORGOTTEN, AND THE NEEDY. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardisich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.
REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 2337, making appropriations for city streets, county roads, and other nonstate highways (reported by Committee on Transportation and Utilities):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass.
Signed by: Senators Walgren, Chairman; Henry, Vice Chairman; Stortini, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Guess, Jolly, Knoblauch, Lewis (Bob), Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker.
Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon which I have granted since the adjournment of the 1972 Extraordinary Session of the Legislature.

Leonard Birkinbine was found guilty of assault in the second degree by the Superior Court of the State of Washington for Yakima County on January 27, 1948, and he was thereupon placed on probation for a period of one year and his case was dismissed on January 12, 1949. He is presently serving as Undersheriff for Yakima County, in which position the possession of a firearm is necessary to fulfill his official responsibilities.

Section 1202 of Title 18 of the United States Code prohibits convicted felons from possessing any firearm unless that person shall have received a pardon together with an expressed authorization to receive, possess or transport firearms.

On February 14, 1973, a pardon was granted to Leonard Birkinbine, and thereby authorized him to receive, possess or transport firearms.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1973.

Mr. President: The House refuses to recede from its amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2113, and asks the Senate for a conference thereon, and the Speaker has appointed as the House conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113 and the House amendments thereto: Representatives Adams, Parker and Polk.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113 and the House amendments thereto was granted.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113 and the House amendments thereto: Senators Day, Wanamaker and Greive.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2327, with the following amendments:

On line 1 of the title after "compensation," and before "amending" insert "amending section 51.32.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.060;".

On page 1, line 6, after "Section 1."

"Section 51.32.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the workman shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(1) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his wages but not less than two hundred dollars per month.
(2) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.
(3) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars.
(4) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his wages but not less than three hundred dollars per month.
(5) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.
(6) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month.
(7) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.
(8) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his wages but not less than two hundred twenty dollars per month.
(9) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.
(10) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.
(11) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.
(12) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his wages but not less than three hundred twenty dollars per month.
(13) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workmen, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.
(14) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the workman so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the monthly payment by the department to such [workman] attendant for such services shall be [increased by] an amount [equal to] not to exceed forty percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed in RCW 51.08.018 per month as long as such requirement continues, but such [increases] payments shall not obtain or be operative while the workman is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapters 51.36 and 51.40.
FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY, MARCH 6, 1973

(15) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured workman, he shall receive the pension to which he would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his prior injury.

(16) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, except that this limitation shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection 14 of this section.

Sec. 2."

On page 1, section 1, line 17, after "dollars]") and before "fifty" strike "not less than".

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 19 after "month," strike all the matter down to and including "attendant," [" on line 21 and insert "[and one hundred fifteen dollars per month additional in cases requiring the services of an attendant]."

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 5, insert a paragraph as follows:

"If the character of the injury is such as to render the workman so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the monthly payment by the department to such attendant for such services shall not exceed forty percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed pursuant to RCW 51.08.018 per month as long as such requirement continues but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the workman is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapters 51.36 and 51.40 RCW: PROVIDED, That such payments shall not be considered compensation nor shall they be subject to any limitation upon total compensation payments."

Renumber section 2 as section 3., and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Grant moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2327.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Grant yield? Is this the measure that provides for the payment to the individual injured employee rather than to the accident fund?"

Senator Grant: "The amendments, Senator Stender, simply require a payment directly to the attendant rather than to the injured workman. There are not very many attendants, I think there are fifty-some attendants in the state that are getting payment, but they are being paid to the injured workmen now. As far as the fund is concerned and the bill itself, Senator Stender, this bill requires a contribution from working men in our work force today and also their employers in equal amounts. I understand the cost is less than two cents per day."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2327.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2327, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Donohue, Guess, Twigg, Woodall—5.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Murray, Peterson (Lowell)—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2327, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2096, with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 21 of the engrossed bill, after "God" strike all material down to and including "amendatory act" on page 2, line 1, thus striking the Senate Committee on Education amendment.

On page 1, section 1, line 21 after "of God:" insert "PROVIDED, Failure to complete construction of new facilities shall not be considered an unforeseen emergency: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the loss of school time as a result of employer-employee disputes shall not constitute an unforeseen emergency for the purposes of this act."

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gardner, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2096, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has concurred in the Senate amendment on page 2, section 2, line 5, of ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 34, and refuses to concur in the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 20 after "voters" and before the period insert "if the precinct committeemen so request: PROVIDED, That they meet the requirements as set forth by the rules and regulations of the secretary of state's office". and asks the Senate to recede therefrom., and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Grant moved that the Senate recede from the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 34.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, the Senate amendment proposed that only if a precinct committeeman requested those powers of registering voters. Without this amendment it would rather indicate that that was one of the requirements of the job, that they had to register voters. Now what is your opinion of that?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Rasmussen, no one has to register voters. This requires that the county auditors will make precinct committeemen deputy registrars, but that does not require them to register voters. I think that the first part of the amendment, if they had been separated, is a good part, but we unfortunately cannot separate that question and I intend in the special session, when one is called, to introduce legislation to clarify that issue.

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Grant."
MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the House message on Engrossed House Bill No. 34, and the motion by Senator Grant that the Senate recede from the Senate amendment, were ordered held for further consideration on Wednesday, March 7, 1973.

Debate ensued.
On motion of Senator Washington, further consideration of the House message on Engrossed House Bill No. 601 and the motion by Senator Grant was held for Wednesday, March 7, 1973.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I notice the latest outbreak of foot in mouth disease in the Department of Agriculture when I pick up a copy of a paper in Waitsburg and I learn, to my consternation, on official authority that since Mr. Bledsoe left the legislature and my very esteemed friend Vaughn Hubbard left and Tom Copeland left, the legislature has run out of stand-up guys. Now if he wants to speak for the House where he has served, I suppose it would be up to the House. But he did not spare us. He put us in it. There are no stand-up guys, all intelligence and all courage left when he lost out.

"Now it ill behooves a man who lost his own county by two thousand votes, running against Mike McCormack, and who lost Yakima County by two thousand votes running against the same Mike, and he ran behind in Klickitat—in fact, where he was best known he ran poorest—to come out and state there are no stand-up guys in this legislature. Now I am going to name a few on this side and you can name them on yours. Anyone ever doubt where Sam Guess stood on any subject? Anyone doubt where Twigg stood? Stender has not been exactly timid, has he? Atwood has stood up. Lewis has stood up. Anyone doubt where Metcalf stands? Follow on back. We have got a good dentist; we have got Canfield; Clarke over there is speaking up now. We are doing pretty good. And there happens to be a few on your side, too.

"But it ill behooves a man who wants to come before us for confirmation, who said that if he was appointed he would stay out of politics, to come here and impugn all of us. In an era when the press is trying to downgrade us and belittle us, a member who has served with us joins in this chorus. I would suggest that perhaps someone should get the message to him that he ought to come out and at least exempt the Senate from his remarks in the absence of stand-up guys or he might find several stand-up guys when he comes up for confirmation."

MOTION

At 10:15 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 7, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
FIFTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Walgren.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages John O'Leary and Leslie Clarke, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR THE GIFT OF LIFE AND THE ENRICHMENT AND CHALLENGE THAT COME THROUGH SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS. ENABLE EACH OF US TO BE EQUAL TO THIS DAY'S DEMANDS. BLESS IN A SPECIAL WAY OUR LEGISLATORS. HELP THEM TO WORK THROUGH THEIR PROBLEMS AND RESOLVE THEIR DIFFERENCES IN THE AWARENESS OF THEIR HIGH CALLING TO SPEAK AND ACT FOR THE PEOPLE AND FOR YOU. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 137 and the Senate amendment thereto: Senators Whetzel, Greive and Woody.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SENATE BILL NO. 2008,
SENATE BILL NO. 2258,
SENATE BILL NO. 2327.

MOTION

On Tuesday, March 6, 1973, the Senate considered the House message on Engrossed House Bill No. 34, in which the House concurred in the Senate amendment to page 2, section 3, line 5 and refused to concur in the Senate amendment to page 1, section 1, line 20. On March 6, 1973, Senator Grant moved that the Senate recede from the Senate amendment to page 1, section 1, line 20.

The Senate resumed consideration of the motion by Senator Grant.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "I wonder if Senator Grant would yield to a question? Senator Grant, if we recede from this amendment that provides for precinct committeemen to meet requirements set forth by rules and regulations of the Secretary of State, are there any requirements for the precinct committeemen as registrars that they would have to meet? What I have in mind is something like the training sessions that election officials have to go through to be familiar with the election laws when they handle elections at the polls. Would there be anything that a precinct committeeman would have to do in terms of training or requirements or knowledge of the election laws of the state before they could go out and register people?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Whetzel, this bill does not require any training. It would not be mandatory. I do not see though that the county auditors could not offer a training course to precinct committeemen who intended to be deputy registrars. But to answer you directly, this bill does not require a specific course of training. It is a very difficult area to get into and if I felt that the Senate or a conference committee could resolve this question by setting some reasonable rules and regulations through a conference committee then I would certainly be willing to change my position relative to receding from the amendment. But I am fearful, frankly, that that is just a method of killing the entire measure and I think that it has merit and it should be passed."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Atwood demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Woodall, Peterson (Ted), Matson, Washington, Stender, Metcalf, Clarke, Jones and Newschwander.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Grant carried and the Senate receded from the Senate amendment to page 1, section 1, line 20 by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Gardner, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Stender, Twigg, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—20.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Francis, Walgren—3.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Senator Walgren was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 34, without the Senate amendment to page 1, section 1, line 20.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 34, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 19; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (Bob), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Stender, Twigg, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

Excused: Senator Walgren—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 34, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, you said ‘in the coming days.’ In other words, you do not intend to run Substitute Senate Bill No. 2247 this session?”

Senator Durkan: “My position is, Senator, if we can get a consensus of opinion I would be willing to do it, but until such time as we do, my position simply is that I am not going to try and jam any bill through. I am hopeful that we will have an opportunity to examine it and if the Senate thinks that we could do it in a half a day or a day and a half, I will be very glad to accommodate them.”

Senator Woodall: “Well, of course, I am not interested in the speedy advancement of this thing, but what I wanted to know is, do you have any little inside information you might now share with us as to the probable date of the special session?”

Senator Durkan: “Senator, on the first day of the session I happened to pass Governor Evans in the hall and I said ‘Hello’ and I have not seen him since.”

MOTION

At 11:00 a.m., on motion of Senator Maredesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Thursday, March 8, 1973.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
SIXTIETH DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages William Orth and Terri Orth, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD AND FATHER WHO KNOWS ALL THINGS, BE WITH THE LEGISLATORS WHO ARE EXPECTED TO BUT CANNOT. GIVE THE SENATORS THIS DAY A TRUE SENSE OF THE DIRECTION THEY SHOULD TAKE, SUPPLY THEM WITH RELIABLE FACTS, AND ENABLE THEM TO ENACT LEGISLATION BOTH RESPONSIBLE AND CREATIVE. BE ALSO WITH US CONSTITUENTS WHO ENJOY THE DETACHMENT BUT SUFFER THE FRUSTRATIONS OF SIDEWALK SUPERINTENDENTS. HELP US TO BE LESS EMOTIONAL AND MORE KNOWLEDGEABLE IN OUR POLITICAL OPINIONS. ENABLE US TO RISE ABOVE PERSONAL INTEREST THAT WE MAY ENCOURAGE OUR LEGISLATORS IN THEIR SHOW OF CONCERN FOR THE TROUBLED AREAS OF OUR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL WORLD. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2113, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 6, 1973.

Mr. Speaker:
Mr. President:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTI-
TUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2113, establishing a state hospital commission to study hospital costs and approve hospital rates, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the Senate accept the House amendments but respectfully request the powers of Free Conference for the purpose of restoring a stricken Senate amendment and two technical matters concerning confirmation and the revolving fund in addition as follows:

That the Senate concur in the House amendments to page 2, section 5, beginning on line 32, and to page 3, section 7, beginning on line 31, and that the following sentence be added to the remaining House amendment to page 2, section 4, beginning on line 16: "In cases when proposed rate increases for osteopathic hospitals are to be considered, the representative of osteopathic hospitals on the technical advisory committee shall replace a hospital representative on the commission."

We also recommend that the bill be further amended as follows:

On page 3, section 5, beginning on line 14, after the period following "convenes" strike the balance of the section.

On page 12, section 18, line 15, strike "public service revolving fund in accordance with chapter 80.24 RCW" and insert "hospital commission account in the general fund which is hereby created".

Signed by: Senators Day and Wanamaker; Representatives Adams, Parker and Polk.

MOTION

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON,
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

MR. PRESIDENT:

1, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the state of Washington and custodian of the Seal of the said State, do hereby certify that: I have carefully compared the annexed copy of a proclamation by the Governor calling an extraordinary session of the Legislature to convene on the 9th day of March, 1973 with the original copy of said proclamation now on file in this office, and find the same to be a full, true and correct copy of said original, and the whole thereof, together with all official endorsements thereon.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed hereto the seal of the state of Washington. Done at the Capitol at Olympia on this the date of March 9, 1973.

(Seal of the State of Washington)

A. LUDLOW KRAMER
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The 1973 Session of the Washington State Legislature now has before it substantial legislation of importance to the citizens of our state. This is now the sixtieth day and much of the legislative work required by the people remains unfinished. While final action on many issues has not been taken, the committees and both houses have considered many bills which can be acted upon during an extraordinary session.

The areas of major concern toward which the Legislature should direct its actions include:

1. Tax Reform. Once again tax reform is the major issue needing legislative action. It is absolutely vital that provision be made for dependable and adequate school funding and that the tax system be structured equitably for all the citizens in the state. The Legislature should dedicate itself to the resolution of this most important issue.

2. Fiscal and Financial Affairs. It is of paramount importance that the Legislature adopt a complete, comprehensive and balanced budget for the 1973-75 biennium. In addition, there are several major proposals needing action which would substantially restructure the property tax system, including a measure to place a limit on property taxes related to the income a person earns.

3. Governmental Affairs. The Legislature has before it measures to create a Department of Transportation and a Department of Consumer Affairs. Additionally, the Legislature should consider the bill providing for transportation funding through the gas tax. The future of transportation becomes an increasingly critical issue as the nation’s energy reserves dwindle and the transportation needs of the people increase. These measures deserve thorough consideration by the Legislature.

4. Social Issues. Important legislation is still pending which is designed to restructure and modernize state laws relative to commitment of persons for mental illness. The Legislature needs also to consider proposals to adopt a statewide building code and to provide new methods of computing unemployment compensation for persons employed only part-time.

5. Law and Justice. The Legislature has not yet acted upon legislation to provide compensation to victims of crime. Additionally, there remain other major issues to be dealt with in this area including a probation subsidy program for adult offenders, reorganization of the parole decision-making process, provision of a statewide medical examiner system, enactment of a juvenile court code, and adoption of standards for city and county jails.

6. Citizen and Consumer Affairs. The Legislature has yet to adopt a modern landlord-tenant act or provide for a system of no-fault insurance. Action is still pending on ratification of the federal constitutional amendment providing equal rights for women. In addition, major proposals for the protection of the consumer have yet to be considered. These measures are vital to citizens of our state and deserve consideration.

7. Environment. Substantial issues regarding our environment still face us. Action should be taken to provide funds to clean up oil spills and protect our shorelines. Also, there is need for providing a method of coordinating the various regulatory systems that protect the environment.
SIXTIETH DAY, MARCH 8, 1973

As a result of these conditions, an emergency exists constituting an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of Article III, Section 7, of the Constitution of the State of Washington.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Washington in Extraordinary Session in the Capitol at Olympia on the ninth day of March, A.D. 1973, at the hour of nine o'clock a.m., and

I DO HEREBY SPECIFY, in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution that the purposes for which the Legislature is convened are:

To appropriate sufficient funds, and raise sufficient revenues, to carry on the necessary functions and services of state government; and

To consider the enactment of the several other measures specified above for the benefit of the people of the State of Washington.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia, this 8th day of March, A.D. Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Three.

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor of Washington.

BY THE GOVERNOR:
A. LUDLOW KRAMER
Secretary of State.

(SEAL OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON)

The report was received and the committee was discharged.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, the President at this time during the lull in the proceedings wishes to express his deepest appreciation and gratitude for the wonderful manner in which you have conducted yourselves and the many kindnesses and courtesies that you have shown the President, the principal one being the fact that you have overlooked a number of errors and possible mistakes which were possibly unintentional."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I never noticed too many mistakes myself, but there was that little matter about not swearing someone in over there, but I am not sure that is a mistake."
The President: “Esteemed members, the members of the Senate join with the President, I am sure, in expressing our sincere appreciation and gratitude to our friendly and affable and capable Secretary of the Senate, his wonderful staff who have conducted their affairs in their own inimitably capable style, and all of the various personnel on the various staffs, secretarial, etc., etc., etc.”

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate Journal of the Sixtieth Day, Forty-third Legislature, was approved.

At 6:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate of the Forty-third Legislature, adjourned SINE DIE.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
