Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.05.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The cost of any health care insurance contracts or plans to any department, division or separate agency of state, county, municipal, or other political subdivision of state government shall be deemed additional compensation to the employees or officials covered thereby for services rendered, and any officer authorized to disburse such funds shall pay to the trustee for payment of the contributions due pursuant to any such contract authorized by the board.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 7,

Retired or disabled state employees, or employees of county, municipal, or other political subdivisions covered by this chapter who are retired, may continue their participation in insurance plans and contracts after retirement or disablement, under the qualifications, terms, conditions, and benefits set by, the board: PROVIDED, That the rates charged such retired or disabled [state] employees for health care coverage shall be identical to that charged active participants: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such retired or disabled employees shall bear the full cost of premiums required to provide such coverage. The term “retired state employees” for the purpose of this section shall include but not be limited to members of the legislature whether voluntarily or involuntarily leaving state office.

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Buffington, Cunningham, Day, Henry, Knoblauch, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: “Mr. President, I took that as the quickest and easiest way to bring the question up. I was not aware that the cost of insurance was deemed additional compensation under the law and I am wondering whether that is an additional amount added to the final average two years of compensation for retirement purposes. I was never aware of that before until I just started to glance through this measure and I am wondering if anyone has any knowledge on the subject.”

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, in answer to Senator Mardesich, I think that the attorney general’s office ruled that in the case of a legislator, such as a county commissioner or some other elected official, that if they adopted an insurance plan during their term of office, that it was classed as an increase in compensation and they could not participate in it until such a time as their term had expired and they were elected to a new term.”

Senator Mardesich: “... then to get these people into the pension system or what?”

Senator Rasmussen: “No.”

Senator Mardesich: “No? If my reaction is correct, should we not put a proviso on here that for pension purposes the term ‘compensation’ shall not be deemed to include these people within the pension’s...”

Senator Rasmussen: “In answer to that, Mr. President, to the best of my knowledge, that is one of the fringe benefits that is not classed as compensation for wages as far as the pension is concerned.”

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1257 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: “Will Senator Francis yield? Does this in any way rule out the use of a non-attorney police judge in these small towns?”

Senator Francis: “Not at all, Senator Bailey, and it is certainly not intended to do so. All it does is strike the language in the present law which is RCW 3.50.040 which in listing the qualifications for a judge requires they practice law in that community or live in that community and that is the only part it strikes. It does not affect whether or not it is an attorney that they are going to hire.”

Senator Bailey: “Senator Francis, one further question. In striking that language, though, have you made it necessary that a person has to practice law in order to be a police judge?”

Senator Francis: “No, nor have we reduced the requirements.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: “Mr. President, will Senator Walgren yield? In your opinion, this solid waste disposal bill, 721, is that an energy bill, Senator?”
Senator Walgren: "There is no reference directly of energy in that measure, Senator Day, but as I recall the bill, it does indicate that the county commissioners would have the power of making the determination as to how by-products might be utilized from solid waste disposal plant. I think it is common knowledge that one of those by-products is methane gas and that, of course, would be an energy product with an energy growth."

Senator Day: "It would be my feeling that it would be an energy matter. Thank you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute House Bill No. 802 will be considered following House Bill No. 1436.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1291, by Representatives May and Gaines:

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1291, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator North: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? In all the time that I have been here and in the House, this bill has been on the agenda year after year and in all the floor discussions there has been serious question of the safety of a forty foot school bus. In fact, that has been the overriding reason for the defeat of this bill in the past. I would appreciate any comments about the testimony before the transportation committee as to the safety of these buses for school children."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and Senator North, the testimony in the committee pointed out that the bill specifically provides three axles, and the point was made that under the federal standards, this then requires a double braking system and that this would mean ten tires on the road as opposed to six tires on the road. That under the new safety standards there may not be children standing any longer and it also requires padding of the seat backs. The total effect, in my opinion, was that these buses will be much safer than what we are currently using."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1291, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

With a four-o'clock deadline facing us, I recognize the bill is not before us, would you please rule as to whether we could consider that bill after the four-o'clock deadline today?"

On motion by Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1436 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Would Senator Van Hollebeke yield to a question? Senator, even during committee I never was too certain, but will this allow these specialty electricians working in residences to work on other than one hundred and ten volts?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "That will be up to the Department of Labor and Industries, Senator."

Senator Cunningham: "There is no restriction then on the voltage they can work with, whether it is romex or conduit?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "The department will make that determination, what the restrictions will be. It will be for a lesser license."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Have you got an answer to the one I just asked?"
THIRTY-NINTH DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1976

Senator Woody: "I know that if it deals with home builders that that has got to include two-twenty because that includes your heat elements for your dryers and your hot water tanks. I can tell you that I never fiddle with it unless they cut off the line between the house and the power line. I am that much concerned with it. I don't see it defined in here."

Debate ensued.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "I would like to ask Senator Lewis a question. Is it your intention to offer this amendment then, Senator Lewis, that is on our desks which changes the date from the fifteenth day to the first of March?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Rasmussen, that is actually the bill. This is the House bill. We are not trying to amend anything. This is the House bill that was passed by the House by a vote of sixty-five to twenty-seven with five absent. Sixty-five members of the House voted for this bill and we are not trying to amend it."

Senator Rasmussen: "This would then say that that little old widow comes up there with her few dollars, her widow's mite in her hand to pay her taxes on the appropriate time that she has paid it for years and years, being a conscientious citizen and knowing how the district needs the money, that he will then turn her down and say that the legislature said, 'no, you come back in two weeks.' Is this your intention?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Rasmussen, we all respect widows very much and our purpose is to prevent that widow from having to pay taxes that she may not have to pay and have to go through the problem of trying to get the money back to her which would be a difficulty if Senator Bottiger's plan, or a combination of plans, were to pass.

"So what we are really trying to do is to protect that widow that you are concerned about. All this will do is make it possible for us to deal more easily with possible solutions to the school problems. Unless we do this and pass this bill, it will be much more difficult and perhaps impossible, and that, very frankly, is all we are trying to accomplish. What solution we have, we don't know. This will be the will of the legislature but I think many people on both sides of the aisle, sixty-five house members agreed, that this could be necessary and that is all we are trying to do. This is not a partisan effort at all."

Senator Rasmussen: "In effect, you are saying, Senator Lewis, then, that because the legislature has not been able to make up its mind, we are going to confound and confuse all the little taxpayers for a two weeks' delay? I agree with Senator Odegaard that there is at the present time, you only pay one-half of your taxes and they can make the adjustment on your last half just as easily as they can in making this delay that is going to confuse all of those people that want to be loyal citizens and pay their taxes early. Being one of those confused taxpayers, Senator Newschwander, this is the picture that I arrive at. You are going to have a lot of people that are going to be just as confused as Senator Rasmussen is. It may not be as clear to those taxpayers as it is to you people but I am sure there are many other methods. Now the valentine roll-back is being handled without any change and the taxpayers are aware of what is going on. They are going to get their regular statements. Many of them will be delivered tomorrow morning and the rest will be delivered by Monday. Then they are going to be faced with the fact that — Oh Ho, those fellows down there, those ladies and gentlemen with that wisdom, they have changed the law on us.

"I agree with Senator Odegaard. We should not move in this fashion at all."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Mardesich demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators von Reichbauer, Day, Sandison, Woody, Odegaard, Donohue, Herr, Goltz and Washington.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion, on reconsideration, that the Senate suspend the rules and advance Engrossed House Bill No. 1166 to second reading.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

February 13, 1976.

EXPLANATION FOR VOTING "NO" ON HOUSE BILL 1166

(EXTEND PROPERTY TAX DATE)

Mr. President, those of us who voted no on this proposal would like to enter into the record some of our many objections and concerns about not only the need for this measure, but also we question whether the body has been properly informed as to total implications. As you know, the proposal to extend the property tax date back fifteen days did not go through the normal legislative process; it was not heard in committee; members did not get the opportunity to examine the impact this would have on tax districts, taxpayers, and the tax collectors. We feel that votes from the Democratic side of the aisle that helped pass this bill came from knowledgeable members who did not have the chance to fully appreciate all of the implications of the bill.

House Bill 1166 is a political move by the Governor to force the legislative majority, the Democrats, into voting for a tax increase such as the so-called Newschwander Plan advocates. If there is a need for this legislation, and we question the need, why was it not done earlier. Everyone is aware that tax statements go out February 15th each year. This extension comes too late. It will be costly to the counties and confusing to the taxpayer. Who is to notify the Treasurers that they cannot accept tax payments Monday? Who is to help the taxpayers who get their property tax payments returned? For those counties that can get the tax statements back from the post office before they are delivered, who reimburses the county for lost postage credits? These questions could have been answered in committee, there should have been a chance to do so.

There are many other serious problems besides administrative that the passage of this measure suggests. On a purely emotional and speculative appeal, the Republicans, along with some of our caucus members have passed an assurance package that is too costly to local government with no assurance that the legislature will act. What acts are the Governor and his Republican followers trying to force us into? A tax increase and rollback plan. This plan is completely incompatible with the Democratic philosophy; it asks for additional tax money for all school districts, regardless of need; it could give double rollbacks to some districts which would be more than the amount of their special levy. These are just some of the concerns of those of us who voted no on this bill.
We also might add that this action today may eliminate any consideration of a supplemental budget and salary increase for state employees without massive tax increases. We, this legislature, have given substantial property tax relief to all citizens for this year calendar 1976 already. Now is the time to consider the needs of our children and their education.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Senator Henry, will you yield? Senator Henry, it would appear that the bill does provide for less revenue from this source because of the proration of fees for partial use during the year's time. What is the impact of the reduction? How much reduced revenue or license fees will be . . . ."

Senator Henry: "There is no reduction, Senator Grant. That law is in effect now. All this does is make the staggered license law conform as far as the way they now purchase their truck licenses. They purchase them quarterly but when you go into a staggered license situation where you are buying licenses on the month instead of at the first of the year, they had to make some provision for this and they had left it out of the original bill. It was a departmental request."

Senator Grant: "I am not sure then, Senator Henry, just what the bill does. I wish you would explain it a little further."

Senator Henry: "I am not sure I can explain it any plainer than that to you, Senator Grant."

ordered placed on today's second reading calendar following Second Substitute House Bill No. 721.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 721.

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 721, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Zimmerman, Douthwaite, Moon, Haussler, Hawkins, Blair, Sommers, Brown and Charnley):

Revising laws relating to county solid waste collection and disposal.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendments were adopted:
On page 1, line 26, strike "provided" and insert "provide"
On page 2, line 26, after "valuable" insert "items"

On motion of Senator North, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 721, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator North yield to a question, please? Senator North, in section four there is a proviso that provides that the ownership of the waste material will remain with the original owner until some kind of a transfer. Is there anything else in this bill or the intent of the committee that would permit the county to restrict the methods by which an owner might do reclaiming himself?"
Senator North: "None at all, Senator Bottiger."
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator North yield? Senator North, is it possible that the counties can establish a fee for people taking individual pick-up loads of garbage to the transfer station site?"
Senator North: "I think they can now, Senator Guess. You see, in order to get into this at all, every county had to adopt a comprehensive garbage disposal plan and it has to be approved by the legislative body. You just don't suddenly open up a disposal site. It is something that has had hearings on it. It has been worked over and had the approval of the county legislative body."
Senator Guess: "I suppose I did not ask my question correctly. Can they levy a tax on all of the individual households within the county to defray the cost of picking up the garbage at these sites? I don't see it in the language is the reason I asked. It says that the legislative authority of each county may, by ordinance, provide for the establishment of a system but it does not say in the unincorporated areas but it does not say that they can establish a tax for that."
Senator North: "No, Senator Guess, it is my understanding that the county is not permitted to go into the collection business at all. That is strictly in the hands of the present people who hold the franchises. It is done by a private enterprise system and they are not in the garbage collection. This is to allow them to control the final disposal, the end disposing of the garbage, and that is all."
Senator Guess: "That is all. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, will Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, I would be glad to join with you in sponsoring legislation that would allow the PUDs to go into the garbage and sewer business."
Senator Guess: "Senator Talley, I think that I would sponsor legislation that would put the PUDs into other businesses that are far more reaching than garbage disposal; solid waste, liquid waste and others. I don't think it would make a great deal of difference now."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator North yield to a question? Senator North, I noted on line three, page two it says 'nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the operation of a solid waste collection system by counties.' Is there anything in there that would prohibit them from operating a part of a system? In effect, it prohibits a county-wide system but in an area where it is not now presently served, could they start a system?"
Senator North: "No, Senator Rasmussen. It is my understanding that they are not to be in the collection business at all."
Senator Rasmussen: "Then that leads to my second question. Is it possible that they could force a person that has a disposal franchise to take in an area of the county not presently served?"

Senator North: "No. That remains under the control of the Utilities and Transportation Commission."

Senator Rasmussen: "What I am trying to find out is why my county officials opposed this — and they do. They say that presently the disposal sites are under the control of the county. They say that the local franchise people are doing an excellent job at a less cost than the counties and this is what I fail to understand is why they would be in opposition to this bill."

Senator North: "I can't answer your Pierce County situation, Senator Rasmussen. I am sorry, I don't know."

Senator Rasmussen: "We have an excellent franchise hauler and you maybe could tell us what are the difficulties that King County is having that they are sponsoring this bill. That might clear up the matter."

Senator North: "All right, I will try that. At present, the King County system has a one point seven million dollars per year subsidy of the final disposal of garbage in King County. Senator Rasmussen, that money has to come out of the county road millage fund. King County would like to have that money to apply to its roads. It has a large road system that it needs to repair and to take care of. If this bill goes through and the county puts in extensive investments in leaching to preserve the quality of the ground water to install large scales to weigh the amount of garbage that comes so they can charge the proper fees, there is a big capital investment involved and the county wants to be sure that the volume of garbage disposal will justify that big capital expense."

"At present when you have a private collection franchise if you want to pick up the garbage in the unincorporated part of the county and you want to truck it down to Senator Talley's Cowlitz County and dump it there, you can do so. This bill would prohibit that. If a private collection group wants to take its garbage to another county then it would be up to an inter-local cooperation agreement between the two counties to work this out so that it is very clear as to who is receiving the ultimate garbage disposal."

"This also assures King County or any county that it is going to continue to have in the future quite a garbage disposal business to justify that huge capital investment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator North, there is something in this that is going to cost the people a lot of money and to help King County out. At the present time King County is dumping tons of sludge from the metro sewer plant in Pierce County. You mean this will give us the authority to charge mucho additional for all of these tons of sludge that they are dumping up in the Eatonville area? If so, I might vote for it."

Senator North: "I can't speak to that particular problem. Let me use another example. Maybe I can make this clear. Presently, King County, the collection group in the county, charge about two-fifty a month per household for collecting garbage. In the city it runs about four-fifty a month. Now, when King County installs all of this environmentally pure equipment and we stop subsidizing it out of our county road fund, then the county is going to have to increase the charges it makes to the private haulers when they collect the garbage and bring it there for ultimate disposal. What we are doing is asking for an honest, open, above-board accounting."

"Instead of the taxpayers of the county subsidizing something, you are going to see the true value and the true cost of this thing. It undoubtedly will result in an increase to the people in unincorporated King County for the collection of their garbage because right now they are not breaking even. It is not a true reflection of what it actually costs."

"Now, Senator Rasmussen, I know that you are a firm believer in honesty in government and you certainly want the charges out there reflecting the true charges of collecting garbage."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator North. My only concern is that the government as a whole does not keep the charges down where the people can afford to live in the area."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator North yield to another question? Senator North, on page two in section three it says when you have developed a comprehensive plan which incorporates the use of transfer stations such stations shall be considered part of the disposal site and they shall be exempt from regulation by the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission. Does that mean, Senator North, that if you have a transfer station that the county may, if they see fit, use any kind of vehicle for transportation of the garbage from one of those stations to a landfill, or any place within the county, or if the intergovernmental cooperation act is entered into, they can use any kind of vehicle for transportation? You don't have to be concerned with the normal safety standards because it would be considered part of a disposal site? And we are going to have some potentially unsafe vehicles — vehicles that are overloaded, really a hazard — traveling between transfer stations and disposal sites? I would like to know, basically, why section three is necessary, what is intended to be accomplished by that particular section."

Senator North: "Okay, I am not on the transportation and utilities committee so perhaps somebody who is more expert in this field can address the safety regulations that are required for any vehicle that is passing along on a public road. I will leave that to somebody else on the transportation committee to address. In the disposal site, Senator Grant, I think authority is here. We are trying to encourage all local governments in resource reclamation, recycling, making something out of their garbage — not just figuring that it is a lost cause. This would enable at your county transfer stations that you can sort that out, that you can if it is feasible, start to do some kind of resource recovery and reclamation and I read that as part of the reason for this particular language.

"Perhaps someone on the transportation committee would like to address your question regarding the safety of vehicles on the public roadways."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, if I may answer that, the vehicles coming on the state highway system will be under the rules and regulations of the patrol and that body of law is not touched at all by this. The uniform committee on uniform equipment has the rules and regulations that have been enacted into law and they would have to have the same brakes, the same lights, as every other vehicle. So I do not believe that they would be exempt in any way. I think what the law is driving at is that the public utility commission would not set the rates for hauling. You see a dump truck, for instance, is regulated by the public utility commission and they set the price per cubic yard for a ton mile, in other words. But this would exempt the garbage hauler from the PUC rate and it would let the counties bid the rate of haul so I think that this is the purpose of the section."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator North yield? Senator North, is my understanding correct that this bill does not compel any county to do anything?"

Senator North: "That is correct, Senator Wilson, and being a strong believer in local government, you know that is important."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Talley moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2088.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Talley yield to a question?, Senator Talley, you said that the House amendment did away with the personal license?"

Senator Talley: "We require the fisherman himself to have a two hundred dollar license. It did say a man who was helping him had to have a ten dollar license. It took out the ten dollar license."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is taking it out of conformity. At the present time on a troller or any other commercial salmon fishing boat the helper has to have a license also."

Senator Talley: "He still has to have his — I think that is the reason the House took it out was the fact that when he is fishing for salmon, he has to have that license. They didn't think he should have to buy another ten dollar license if he helps somebody fish for smelt."

MOTION

At 12:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:25 p.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senator Herr was excused.
On motion of Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Senator Clarke was excused.
The Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2996 and the House amendments thereto.
Prior to the noon recess, Senator Rasmussen had moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2996.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, what are left with here now compared to the way we sent it over to the House — with more holidays or less holidays, or where are we?"

Senator Rasmussen: "There has been no change in the number of holidays. What you will have under the bill is general election day as a holiday is stricken, and moved over to the day after Thanksgiving. Columbus Day will no longer be a legal holiday, but in lieu of that the employee will be able to select some other day of his choice to take that day off. There is no change in the number of holidays. I mentioned before when we were debating the bill, when the wage and salary survey is completed which includes the fringe benefits, we will have a better basis for determining whether or not state employees are better off, or worse off than employees in private employment. Other than the technical corrections, there were some corrections to — some male chauvinist drew the bill and they had 'his' in there and that was changed to 'the employee' so that it conformed to the general use of persons rather than individuals his or her.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: “Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator, does the bill still permit local government to set rules and regulations governing the wild card holidays so that, for example, they don't lose an employee in the license department during the peak of the license-issuing season and that sort of thing?”

Senator Rasmussen: “This is correct. The determination will be handled by rules and regulations and each department head, of course, is expected to release no more employees than will allow the department to run efficiently. Just like holidays or vacation days, they have to schedule that so that the departments can continue running.”

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2996.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2996, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 6.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bailey, Gould, Pullen, Sellar—4.

Excused: Senators Clarke, Francis, Herr, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich—6.

The location, excavation, and study of the state's archaeological resources, the providing of information on archaeological sites for their nomination to the state and national registers of historic places, the maintaining of a complete inventory of archaeological sites and collections, and the providing of information to state, federal, and pri-ivate construction agencies regarding the possible impact of construction activities on the state’s archaeological resources, are proper public functions; and the Washington archaeological research center, created under the authority of chapter 39.34 RCW as now existing or hereafter amended, is hereby designated as an appropriate agency to carry out these functions. The director of the state parks and recreation commission in

On the private and public lands of this state it shall be unlawful for any person, portions or fragments thereof without having obtained [the] written permission [of] from the director of the state parks and recreation commission for such activities on public property or from the private landowner for such activities on private land. A pri-ivate landowner may request the director of the state parks and recreation commission to assume the duty of issuing such permits. The director must obtain the consent of the public property owner or agency responsible for the management thereof, prior to issuance of the permit. The director of the state parks and recreation commission in consult-for the issuance and processing of such permits. Such written permission shall be physishall not apply to the removal of artifacts found exposed on the surface of the ground high tide.

each amended to read as follows:

It is the declared intention of the legislature that field investigations on privately owned lands should be discouraged except in accordance with both the provisions and spirit of this chapter and persons having knowledge of the location of archaeological sites or resources are encouraged to communicate such information to the Washington archaeological research center. Such information shall not constitute a public record which requires disclosure pursuant to the exception authorized in RCW 42.17.310, as now or hereafter amended, to avoid site depredation.

Sec. 4. Section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misde-mearor. Each day of continued violation of any provision of this chapter shall constitute a distinct and separate offense. Violations shall be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency or to the director of the state parks and recreation commission.

Sec. 5. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 17, chapter 294,
Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following shall be exempt from public inspection and copying:
(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to such taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, except as the complainant may authorize: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to persons who file complaints with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for elective office: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(2) The exemptions of this section shall be inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption shall be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records, exempt under the provisions of this section, may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records, is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 27.53 RCW a new section to read as follows:
The director of the state parks and recreation commission may require as a condition to granting a permit required pursuant to RCW 27.53.060 as now or hereafter amended that the grantee agrees to provide an appropriate, secure area to display and interpret for the public interest a representative sample of those artifacts recovered.

MOTION

Senator Beck moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3056.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, would Senator Beck yield to a question? Senator Beck, looking at this amendment, it is not numbered so you have to bear with me. It is about the tenth line down. It reads, 'service or for the purpose of mailing or delivering any solicitation for money.' Would a candidate who sent out a brochure, included with that would be a request for aid in door belling, etc. which also often includes a solicitation for contributions fall into this?"

Senator Beck: "If you are asking for money, that would be a solicitation, and you are not allowed to do that with this."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "If I may respond to that question, Senator von Reichbauer. There is a specific proviso in the amendment, 'Provided however, That such lists and labels may be used for any political purpose,' and of course, as we all know, our solicitations for money in campaigns is a political purpose."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Will Senator Beck yield to a question? The wording of the amendment with the stricken language would appear that the one free copy to each of the major political parties is gone, and is that the intent of the amendment?"
FORTY-THIRD DAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1976 531

Senator Beck: "This has that you go to the county auditor and it is a public record. You pay the cost of it, anyone that wants it. It is a public record. You can go and get it and you have to pay him the cost of the record."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, will Senator Beck yield to a question? You stated in your answer to Senator Benitz that anybody could go to the county auditor and get a copy of this. Not all counties, particularly Pierce County for example, maintain the quality of lists perhaps that we have in King County. Would this make a county such as Pierce County maintain a list that we can buy?"

Senator Beck: "Pierce County does maintain it and I bought it. You can get it up there anytime. If you will start reading the amendment it says right here, 'all poll books or current lists of registered voters shall be public records and shall be made available for inspection under such reasonable rules and regulations that the county auditor may prescribe. The county auditor shall promptly furnish lists . . . ' and so on, 'at actual reproduction cost.' You can get them in Pierce County. We are not so old fashioned up there we haven't got to the computer yet."

The motion by Senator Beck carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3056.

Excused: Senators Clarke, Francis, Herr, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesic—6.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Someone asked where the pituitary gland was located in the body, and of course, it is inside the skull in the sella turcica of the sphenoid bone. It is the master gland which controls the endocrine system which are the glands of internal secretion. It is very important to growth factor and they do use the extract from these glands to help children who have growth problems. This is a very important bill for them."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has concurred in the Senate amendments to EN- GROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1470, except the following amendment: "On page 2, beginning on line 6, delete all of section 3, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.", and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and said bill, together with the Senate amendments thereto, are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Woody moved that the Senate recede from the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1470 to page 2, beginning on line 6, and pass the bill with the remaining amendments.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, to what extent would this cut down on the possibility of suits that are brought on if they were able to get these records before? Are the chances that they would cut down, or would this have any effect on it in one way or another?"

Senator Woody: "In answer, there is no question about that. It would cut down on some losses that are brought merely to get the records in order that you obtain finances. Let me tell you from a practical matter what happens.

"A client comes in and says, 'I think wrong was done to me. I know that I hurt, so was injured as a result, but I think something wrong was done.' You are talking to a person who has never seen their medical records. They are usually in bed, and can't see their charts which are usually at the other end of the bed. They don't even leave them there any more. They take them back to the medical records librarian. You don't know the essential facts as a patient or a client and the attorney doesn't know either. It doesn't do you very much good to call up the proposed defendant doctor and say, 'will you agree with me that you were negligent, or not?' because he is going to say, 'call my carrier.' He can't discuss the matter with you.

"Oftentimes in order to take a highly complex matter to other physicians and say, 'I would appreciate it if you would review this and give me your opinion as to whether or not you think that there was some professional negligence.' The first thing they are going to ask for is the doctor's and hospital's records. They cannot rely solely upon what the patient says because, like in an operation, all the patient knows is that 'they rolled me in, and they gave me anesthesia. They rolled me out several hours later. I woke up, and I have this problem.' You absolutely need those records in order to make any sort of a determination whether you can bring a claim or not. Currently, you bring the law suit. You issue a subpoena duces tecum to the medical records librarian and to the doctor's office, and you just get copies of those records before a court reporter. You take those copies, not the originals — the copies, and you go around and find out whether or not there is any professional negligence based upon what some doctor can examine those and find out what he thinks."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Woody, would you yield? Senator Woody, the last thing that you said bothers me greatly. You said that he could take these records around and find out if there was some damage. Now, is this going to be the new route for the ambulance chaser — if he finds somebody that is complaining of a backache out on the golf course and he says, 'Well, gee whiz, let me take a look at your records and I might be able to find you some money'."

Senator Woody: "To answer your question, it is not the original records. It is the copies. You never get the original records. The original records retain the ownership of the hospital and the doctor. Number two, under current practice, if somebody comes in and says, 'something negligent was done to me and I was injured,' you bring a lawsuit, you get those same copies, and since the lawyer is for the most part — there are a few lawyers who are also doctors — but, for the most part, they do not qualify as expert medical or chiropractic health care witnesses — they must then take that to somebody who is an expert witness. Oftentimes, for example, on a very complicated case they will take them to the chief person at the University of Washington Hospital in that expertise area and say, 'I would appreciate it if you would review this and tell me, is there anything here or has my client just had an unfortunate result?'"

Senator Guess: "Senator Woody, if the records contain a series — an extensive series of x-rays and most of the time when you go in for something these days they take about forty or fifty of them, are you going to get copies of all of those x-rays?"

Senator Woody: "You cannot copy x-rays except in a very unusual form. What is the normal practice is you get authority for whoever your expert witness is to look at those in the doctor or hospital's office in their own shadow box."

Senator Guess: "And they don't take them out of the building, out of the office?"

Senator Woody: "No, I have seen situations in which x-rays have been subpoenaed into court and after the lawsuit is all over whether it be a malpractice or an automobile accident case, they sort of languish there in the clerk's office for years. But that is a wholly different issue. They just sit there gathering dust."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Buffington: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I have tried to keep still on this particular issue but I am afraid I do have to ask Senator Woody a question. Senator Woody, tell me, if I understand what you are saying, you are saying that under the present law you can obtain patients' records from a physician's office under subpoena after you have started a claim."

Senator Woody: "That is correct."

Senator Buffington: "And did the section three that you are hoping to retain in the House Bill No. 1470 — it would allow an attorney to go to a physician's office and obtain patients' records before filing for a suit?"

Senator Woody: "Yes, copies with the authorization signed by the patient."

Senator Buffington: "Yes, copies, I understand, signed by a patient. An attorney or his representative may walk into a physician's office and obtain copies of said records."

Senator Woody: "That is correct."

Senator Buffington: "I have a difficult time there. My question to you is, would that not encourage more lawsuits?"

Senator Woody: "No, first, you have to have a client walk into your office and unless you get a client who is an ex-patient who feels that they have an injury which was the result of a medical malpractice walk into an attorney's office, there is nothing to start a claim about."

Senator Buffington: "Well, I understand that. But if a patient walks into your office and the attorney can go and acquire the patient's records without having filed the claim, it appears to me that that might just be a little more availability for a claim to be filed, as opposed to having to go through the procedures. And I understand what the argument is, Senator Woody. I just wanted to bring this point out to the floor, to the body of this Senate, so you would understand why I would encourage a vote 'no' on this particular motion."

Senator Woody: "Well, I assume you are still asking me a question. The difference between the two is thirty-two dollars, not just thirty-two dollars, but thirty-two dollars plus probably about two thousand dollars worth of defense attorney’s expenses.”

The motion by Senator Woody failed on a rising vote.

The Senate refused to recede from the Senate amendment to page 2, beginning on line 6 and asks the House to concur therewith.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 721, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 721, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 42; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Grant, Pullen—2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Herr, von Reichbauer—2.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich—3.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 721, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1340, by Representative Smith (Rick):

Making lesser traffic law violations noncriminal offenses.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1340. On February 16, 1976, the committee amendments were adopted.
MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, and have served prior notice, Senator Woody moved the Senate reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment to page 1, line 14, as amended, was adopted.

Debate ensued.

The motion for reconsideration failed on a rising vote.

There being no objections, an amendment by Senator Woody on the Secretary's desk, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1340, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wanamaker: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question, please? I notice here that it includes driving under the influence of liquor and drugs. What does this do to the implied consent law?"

Senator Clarke: "My understanding is that those particular offenses are not included in the amendment. These are minor traffic offenses. Senator Francis could probably answer that question."

Senator Francis: "Senator Wanamaker, the exceptions that are listed in the amendment and the amendment doesn't change the exceptions that are listed in the bill. The exceptions except all of those things relating to driving while drinking, reckless driving, and so forth. With all those things that are generally regarded as serious and ought to be handled as criminal matters with the potential for jail time. So, none of that is changed. Therefore, the answer to your question would be there is no effect on the implied consent law at all or on anything relating to it."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1340, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich—3.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1340, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 64.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 131, by Senators Bailey, Walgren and Lewis (Harry):
Suspension of Rules for Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 64.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the rules be suspended and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 131 be advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Debate ensued.
Senator Guess: "Will Senator Fleming yield? Senator Fleming, would you tell the body what county you come from?"
Senator Fleming: "I come from King County."
Senator Guess: "Senator Fleming, would you tell the body that King County already has a home rule charter?"
Senator Fleming: "King County already has a home rule charter, but, Senator Guess, I am the chairman of the local government committee and I am concerned about all areas of local government not just King County. I am a state senator not a Seattle senator."
Senator Guess: "I am glad to hear that, Senator, but would you also tell us the amount of money and the percentage that the cost of King County government rose at the time that King County adopted the home rule charter and also adopted a number of commissioners instead of the three they had, they went up to seven. How many dollars extra does it cost a year?"
Senator Fleming: "No, Senator Guess, I don't know those figures and that is not in my purview. The fact of the matter is this has nothing to do with whether I think King County government has rose in cost or what have you. The matter before us is all we have to give the local government units alternative methods of framing their charters. I think that is the question and then they, as local government people, have to stand before the people on the local level as to, whether they are willing to accept this.
And thirdly, this is just a measure to put to the vote of the people and you usually like to do that."
Senator Guess: "Senator Fleming, would you also tell us that in the bill that it—"

Senator Knoblauch: "Point of order. It would seem to me that Senator Guess is going far beyond the motion before the Senate."

The President: "The motion before the Senate is nondebatable, Senator."
Debate ensued.

Senator Fleming: "Senator Guess, I would just like to close and say that some of the questions that you are asking are very obvious questions and I think that the members of this body will be able to recognize that and cast an intelligent vote."
Senator Guess: "We hope it is negative."

Senator Herr: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, you know I know you believe in local government. Is this correct?"
Senator Guess: "That is correct."
Senator Herr: "And don't you think that we, here in Olympia, should probably give more local control rather than trying to direct everything for the counties from the State Senate?"
Senator Guess: "Senator Herr, I am awfully glad you asked that question because this says that if the commission that is elected cannot come up with a home rule charter to the satisfaction so it contrives (sic) then the governor rewrites that. Now, this is what I don't want to happen. I don't want the governor coming in and writing the charters for local government."
Senator Herr: "Would you answer my question on local government?"

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President, I have to restate my point of order, I think we are far beyond the scope of the motion."

On page 2, line 6, beginning with “Notwithstanding” strike everything down to and including the “.” on line 12.
Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; McDermott, North, Walgren, Wilson.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 64 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, did you amend off on page two, line four? This is striking the income tax?”
Senator Fleming: (inaudible).
Senator Rasmussen: “I am glad you struck that because we would not want thirty-nine separate income taxes in thirty-nine counties and a new one that Senator Grant is working on, it would be forty counties then. But, on line four the home rule charter, including ‘shall become the organic law of the county, and supersede any existing charter, including amendments thereto or any existing form of county government and all special laws inconsistent with such charter.’ That is my question now. As I understand it, when a county adopts a new charter, it does not abolish all laws and ordinances they have been operating by.
“This apparently would abolish … I don’t know of any special laws but I presume it would be all laws and ordinances that they had adopted in previous — what would you call ‘special laws inconsistent with such charter’?”
Senator Fleming: “I would think, Senator Rasmussen, that there have been laws, that have passed in the area that they would be redrafting of the charter. Things that they have done they would like to do a little different and then drawing up that charter, they would be able to submit that to a vote of the people to say that from this point on, we would like to do business in this fashion. The people would have the right to vote that up or down. I think that that is what you are talking about and as far as special laws are concerned, I wouldn’t know but I think this is the normal language that you would have in a situation like this.”
Senator Rasmussen: “Did you say there was a termination date on this?”
Senator Fleming: “I didn’t say. Termination date on what?”
Senator Rasmussen: “On this ability to draft and keep on redrafting proposals? I didn’t see it in the bill and I was going to get it — terminated in 1977?”
Senator Fleming: “In implementing legislation which this legislature would have to draft up, that question would be addressed. We will draft the enabling legislation to decide what this commission will do, when and how long. They have to come back to us.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: “Will Senator Fleming yield? On line two, Senator, it says the charter ‘shall become the organic law.’ What is the ‘organic law’?”

Senator Fleming: “I have asked two or three attorneys around here and I can’t find out the definition.”

Senator Donohue: “’It shall become the organic law of the county.’ I am not so confused about—”

Senator Fleming: “I am not going to touch that one.”

Senator Donohue: “Mr. President, I have had several calls during the noon hour from several of my county commissioners and they seem to be in favor of this. However, as I read it, I suddenly wonder if they really know what is in this bill. On line four, Senator Fleming, it says that ‘charter shall become the organic law of the county or supersede any existing charter including amendments thereto or any existing form of county government and all special laws inconsistent with such charter.’ What are those special laws you are talking about?”

Senator Fleming: “Senator Donohue, that is the same question Senator Rasmussen asked.”

Senator Donohue: “This has nothing to do with ‘organic’, Senator.”

Senator Fleming: “I mean the latter part of your question is the same question that Senator Rasmussen asked and I am sure that he did not ask about organic but he did ask about the existing—”

Senator Donohue: “In other words, you don’t have the answer to that. Is that correct?”

Senator Fleming: “Senator Donohue, I would think that what you are talking about in that matter is whenever you draw up a new charter, such as King County, there are certain kinds of things, laws that are on the books, and as a result of that the county legislative body and others might have passed as they relate to that charter. If a new charter is drawn up and if the people of the area vote that new charter in, in that charter it would indicate certain kinds of things, for instance, how the legislative body would be elected, and these kinds of things whether one would be partisan or non-partisan. They are all laws on the books with ordinances and so forth that deal with parts of the county charters and if you drew up a new charter, one of the reasons you would be drawing up a new charter is to do some things different from what you do now. That would be submitted to a vote of the people and they would decide whether they wanted to live under that form of government or not.”

Senator Donohue: “Then, also, Senator, the way the explanation that I have heard on the floor, I think Senator Guess raised the point, it is very possible that at a later date the King County charter could be changed by some other device other than the people involved in that county.”

Senator Fleming: “No, anyway, this is just another form of changing your charters but with the approval or rejection of the voters in that area. All this says is that now you can elect freeholders to draw up a charter. This gives you other alternative methods. Whereas recognizing the different parts of the state have different needs if they wanted to go the freeholder route, they could elect to do so. If they wanted to go the other route and accept one of these other charters that would be drawn up, as Senator Rasmussen said, a small commission. We don’t know whether it would be small or not because this legislative body will decide how many people will serve on that commission, what will be the make-up of that commission. If the people vote for this, the legislature has to come back and come forth with enabling legislation and those kinds of things that you are concerned about. If the people say they want to go this route, then the legislature will deal with those and come with implementing legislation.”

Further debate ensued.
PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Guess: “Mr. President, actually, it is a parliamentary question here. Senator Washington has misquoted the resolution and I would like to point out to him that it says that the home rule charter may be submitted to the voters for approval and ratification, rejection by either a resolution of the county legislative authority. Now, this means that the county could approve it by a resolution of the county commissioners.”

Senator Washington: “But it still has to be submitted to the people—”

Senator Guess: “No, not to the people. That is the second way. Now, this is the thing that I want to bring out. The bill is very poorly drafted.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: “Point of order, Senator Guess. I think that Senator Guess should allow argument from anyone that is on the floor and should not try to inject with a question that goes in the record to state his own point of view.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Senator Bailey’s remarks are well taken.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 64, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 64, as amended by the Senate, and the resolution failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 17; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Guess, Matson, Morrison, Newschwander, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Wanamaker, Woody—17.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich—3.

ENGROSSED HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 64, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Fleming served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 64, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2130, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 13, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2243, with the following amendments:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to Title 26 RCW a new chapter to read as set forth in sections 2 through 21 and in sections 42 through 45 of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "parent and child relationship" means the legal relationship existing between a child and his natural or adoptive parents incident to which the law confers or imposes rights, privileges, duties, and obligations. It includes the mother and child relationship and the father and child relationship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The parent and child relationship extends equally to every child and to every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The parent and child relationship between a child and

(1) the natural mother may be established by proof of her having given birth to the child, or under this chapter;

(2) the natural father may be established under this chapter;

(3) an adoptive parent may be established by proof of adoption or under the provisions of chapter 26.32 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A man is presumed to be the natural father of a child if:

(1) He and the child's natural mother are or have been married to each other and the child is born during the marriage, or within three hundred days after the marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, divorce, or dissolution, or after a decree of separation is entered by a court;

(2) Before the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have attempted to marry each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and the child is born within three hundred days after the termination of cohabitation;
(3) After the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have married, or attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and
(a) he has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with the registrar of vital statistics,
(b) with his consent, he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate, or
(c) he is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order;

(4) While the child is under the age of majority, he receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his child; or

(5) He acknowledges his paternity of the child in a writing filed with the registrar of vital statistics, who shall promptly inform the mother of the filing of the acknowledgment, and she does not dispute the acknowledgment within a reasonable time after being informed thereof, in a writing filed with the registrar of vital statistics.

If another man is presumed under subsections (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section to be the child's father, such acknowledgment shall give rise to the presumption of paternity only with the written consent of the otherwise presumed father or after such other presumption has been rebutted.

A presumption under this section may be rebutted in an appropriate action only by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence. If two or more presumptions arise which conflict with each other, the presumption which on the facts is founded on the weightier considerations of policy and logic controls. The presumption is rebutted by a court decree establishing paternity of the child by another man.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If, under the supervision of a licensed physician and with the consent of her husband, a wife is inseminated artificially with semen donated by a man not her husband, the husband is treated in law as if he were the natural father of a child thereby conceived. The husband's consent must be in writing and signed by him and his wife. The physician shall certify their signatures and the date of the insemination, and file the husband's consent with the registrar of vital statistics, where it shall be kept confidential and in a sealed file.

(2) The donor of semen provided to a licensed physician for use in artificial insemination of a woman other than the donor's wife is treated in law as if he were not the natural father of a child thereby conceived unless the donor and the woman agree in writing that said donor shall be the father. The agreement must be in writing and signed by the donor and the woman. The physician shall certify their signatures and the date of the insemination and file the agreement with the registrar of vital statistics, where it shall be kept confidential and in a sealed file.

(3) The failure of the licensed physician to perform any administrative act required by this section shall not affect the father and child relationship. All papers and records pertaining to the insemination, whether part of the permanent record of a court or of a file held by the supervising physician or elsewhere, are subject to inspection only in exceptional cases upon an order of the court for good cause shown.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A child, his natural mother, or a man presumed to be his father under section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act may bring an action
(a) at any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act; or
(b) for the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 5(1), (2), (3) or (4) of this 1976 amendatory act only if the action is brought within a reasonable time after obtaining knowledge of relevant facts. After the presumption has been rebutted, paternity of the child by another man may be determined in the same action, if he has been made a party.

(2) Any interested party or the department of social and health services or the state of Washington may bring an action at any time for the purpose of determining the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship.

(3) In an action brought by the state pursuant to this chapter, the state may be represented by either the prosecuting attorney for the county where the action is brought or by the attorney general.

(4) An action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship with respect to a child who has no presumed father under section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act may be brought by the child, the mother or personal representative of the child, the department of social and health services, the state of Washington, the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor. If a child has no presumed father under section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act and the action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship has not been brought and proceedings to adopt the child have not been instituted within one year after the child's birth, an action to determine the existence of the relationship may be brought promptly on behalf of the child by the department of social and health services or the state of Washington.

(5) Regardless of its terms, no agreement between an alleged or presumed father and the mother or child, shall bar an action under this section.

(6) If an action under this section is brought before the birth of the child, all proceedings may be stayed until after the birth, except service of process and discovery, including the taking of depositions to perpetuate testimony.

(7) No action may be brought by the department of social and health services to establish the duty of someone who is not a presumed parent under section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act to support a child after five years (a) from the date of the child's birth, or (b) from any date the alleged parent ceases to contribute to the care, education, and support of the child, as required by chapter 26.20 RCW, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That the time during which the alleged parent is absent from the state shall not be included in the time periods described above.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The petitioner in an action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship may petition the court to issue a warrant for the arrest of the alleged father at any stage of the proceeding including after a judgment has been entered. When such petition is filed, the court shall examine on oath the petitioner and any witnesses the court may require, take their statements, and cause the statements and the petition to be subscribed under oath by the person or persons making such.

(2) If it appears from such evidence that there is reasonable cause to believe that the father and child relationship exists as alleged in the petition the court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the alleged father: PROVIDED, That in the case of a prejudgment petition, a warrant shall only be issued if there is reasonable cause to believe that: (a) The alleged father will not appear in response to a summons; or (b) the summons cannot be served; or (c) the alleged father is likely to leave the jurisdiction; or (d) the safety of the petitioner would be endangered if the warrant did not issue.

(3) In the case of a petition for the arrest of a person pursuant to the continuing jurisdiction of the court described in section 17 of this 1976 amendatory act or as an aid to enforcement of a judgment and order previously rendered under this chapter, a warrant shall issue only if there is reasonable cause to believe that: (a) The respondent is delinquent in complying with court's order and conceals himself or has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode in this state so that ordinary process of law may not be served upon him; or (b) the respondent has or is about to remove any of his property from this state with the intent to delay or otherwise frustrate the court's order; or (c) the respondent has or is about to assign, secrete, convert, or dispose of any of his property with the intent to delay or otherwise frustrate the court's order.

(4) Any person arrested pursuant to this section shall be entitled upon request to a preliminary hearing as soon as practically possible, and in any event not later than the close of business of the next judicial day following the day of arrest. The court may, for good cause stated, enlarge the time prior to preliminary hearing.

(5) If a person arrested pursuant to this section is not afforded a preliminary hearing upon request as required by subsection (4) of this section, the court shall order such person brought before the court forthwith, and in default thereof, the court shall order his immediate release unless good cause to the contrary be shown.
(6) Any person arrested pursuant to this section shall at this first court appearance be ordered released on his personal recognizance pending trial, unless the court determines that such recognizance will not reasonably assure (a) his appearance, when required, or (b) compliance with the court’s order. When such determination is made the court shall order the person returned to custody or impose such other conditions as will reasonably assure his appearance or compliance with the court’s order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The superior courts have jurisdiction of an action brought under this chapter. The action may be joined with an action for divorce, dissolution, annulment, declaration of invalidity, separate maintenance, filiation, support, or any other civil action in which paternity is an issue including proceedings in juvenile court.

(2) A person who has sexual intercourse in this state thereby submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state as to an action brought under this chapter with respect to a child who may have been conceived by that act of intercourse. In addition to any other method provided by statute, personal jurisdiction may be acquired by personal service of summons outside this state or by service in accordance with RCW 4.28.185 as now or hereafter amended.

(3) The action may be brought in the county in which the child or the alleged father resides or is found or, if the father is deceased, in which proceedings for probate of his estate have been or could be commenced.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The child shall be made a party to the action. If he is a minor he shall be represented by his general guardian or a guardian ad litem appointed by the court. The child’s mother or father may not represent the child as guardian or otherwise. The natural mother, each man presumed to be the father under section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act, and each man alleged to be the natural father, shall be made parties or, if not subject to the jurisdiction of the court, shall be given notice of the action in a manner prescribed by the court and an opportunity to be heard. The court may align the parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, mother, or alleged father to submit to blood tests. The tests shall be performed by an expert qualified as an examiner of blood types, appointed by the court.

(2) The court, upon reasonable request by a party, shall order that independent tests be performed by other experts qualified as examiner of blood types.

(3) In all cases, the court shall determine the number and qualifications of the experts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Evidence relating to paternity may include:

(1) Evidence of sexual intercourse between the mother and alleged father at any possible time of conception;

(2) An expert’s opinion concerning the statistical probability of the alleged father’s paternity based upon the duration of the mother’s pregnancy;

(3) Blood test results, weighted in accordance with evidence, if available, of the statistical probability of the alleged father’s paternity;

(4) Medical or anthropological evidence relating to the alleged father’s paternity of the child based on tests performed by experts. If a man has been identified as a possible father of the child, the court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, the mother, and the man to submit to appropriate tests; and

(5) All other evidence relevant to the issue of paternity of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) An action under this chapter is a civil action governed by the rules of civil procedures. The mother of the child and the alleged father are competent to testify and may be compelled to testify.

(2) Upon refusal of any witness, including a party, to testify under oath or produce evidence of any other kind on the ground that he may be incriminated thereby, and if a prosecuting attorney requests the court to order that person to testify or provide the evidence, the court shall then hold a hearing and shall so order, unless it finds that to do so would be clearly contrary to the public interest, and that person shall comply with the order.

If, but for this section, he would have been privileged to withhold the answer given or the evidence produced by him, the witness may not refuse to comply with the order on the basis of his privilege against self-incrimination; but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to criminal penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or fact concerning which he has been ordered to testify pursuant to this section. He may nevertheless be prosecuted for failing to comply with the order to answer, or for perjury or for offering false evidence to the court.

(3) Testimony of a physician concerning the medical circumstances of the pregnancy and the condition and characteristics of the child upon birth is not privileged.

(4) In an action against an alleged father, evidence offered by him with respect to a man who is not subject to the jurisdiction of the court concerning his sexual intercourse with the mother at or about the probable time of conception of the child is admissible in evidence only if he has undergone and made available to the court blood tests the results of which do not exclude the possibility of his paternity of the child. A man who is identified and is subject to the jurisdiction of the court shall be made a defendant in the action.

(5) The trial shall be by the court without a jury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The judgment and order of the court determining the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship is determinative for all purposes.

(2) If the judgment and order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order that an amended birth certificate be issued.

(3) The judgment and order may contain any other provision directed against the appropriate party to the proceeding, concerning the duty of support, the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. The judgment and order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement.

(4) Support judgment and orders shall be for periodic payments which may vary in amount. The court may limit the father's liability for the past support to the child to the proportion of the expenses already incurred as the court deems just: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That the court shall not limit or affect in any manner the right of nonparties including the state of Washington to seek reimbursement for support and other services previously furnished to the child.

(5) In determining the amount to be paid by a parent for support of the child and the period during which the duty of support is owed, the court shall consider all relevant facts, including, but not limited to:

(a) the needs of the child;
(b) the standard of living and circumstances of the parents;
(c) the relative financial means of the parents;
(d) the earning ability of the parents;
(e) the need and capacity of the child for education, including higher education;
(f) the age of the child;
(g) the responsibility of the parents for the support of others; and
(h) the value of services contributed by the custodial parent.

(6) In determining custody, a court, in accordance with the best interests of the child, shall consider all relevant facts including:

(a) The wishes of the child's parents or parent as to his custody and as to visitation;
(b) The wishes of the child as to his custodian and as to visitation privileges;
(c) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with his parent or parents, his siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;
(d) The child's adjustment to his home, school, and community; and
(e) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved.

The court shall not consider conduct of a proposed custodian that does not affect the welfare of the child.

(7) In any dispute between the natural parents of a child and a person or persons who have (a) commenced adoption proceedings or who have been granted an order of adoption, and (b) pursuant to a court order, or placement by the department of social and health services or by a licensed agency, have had actual custody of the child for a period of one year or more before court action is commenced by the natural parent or parents, the court shall consider the best welfare and interests of the child, including the child's need for situation stability, in determining the matter of custody, and the parent or person who is more fit shall have the superior right to custody.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The court may order reasonable fees of counsel, experts, and the child's guardian ad litem, and other costs of the action, including blood tests, to be paid by the parties in proportions and at times determined by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) If existence of the father and child relationship is de­ declared, or paternity or a duty of support has been acknowledged or adjudicated under this chapter or under prior law, the obligation of the father may be enforced in the same or other proceedings by the mother, the child, the state of Washington, the public authority that has furnished or may furnish the reasonable expenses of pregnancy, confinement, education, support, or funeral, or by any other person, including a private agency, to the extent he has furnished or is furnishing these expenses.

(2) The court may order support payments to be made to the department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW, to a parent, the clerk of the court, or a person, corporation, or agency designated to administer them for the benefit of the child under the supervision of the court.

(3) All remedies for the enforcement of judgments apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The court has continuing jurisdiction to prospectively modify a judgment and order for future education and future support, and with respect to matters listed in sections 14 (3) and (4), and 16(2) of this 1976 amendatory act upon showing a substantial change of circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Any interested party may bring an action to determine the existence or nonexistence of a mother and child relationship. Insofar as practicable; the provisions of this chapter applicable to the father and child relationship apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Any promise in writing to furnish support for a child, growing out of a supposed or alleged father and child relationship, does not require consideration and is enforceable according to its terms, subject to section 7(5) of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If a parent relinquishes or proposes to relinquish for adoption a child, the other parent shall be given notice of the adoption proceeding and have the rights provided under the provisions of chapter 26.32 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Notwithstanding any other rule of law concerning public hearings and records, any hearing or trial held under this chapter shall be held in closed court without admittance of any person other than those necessary to the action or procceeding. All papers and records, other than the final judgment, pertaining to the action or proceeding, whether part of the permanent record of the court or of a file in the department of social and health services, are subject to inspection only upon an order of the court for good cause shown following reasonable notice to all parties of the hearing where such order is to be sought.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 131, Laws of 1959 and RCW 4.28.185 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person, whether or not a citizen or resident of this state, who in person or

(3) Only causes of action arising from acts enumerated herein may be asserted against a defendant in an action in which jurisdiction over him is based upon this section.

(4) Personal service outside the state shall be valid only when an affidavit is made and filed to the effect that service cannot be made within the state.

(5) In the event the defendant is personally served outside the state on causes of action enumerated in this section, and prevails in the action, there may be taxed and allowed to the defendant as part of the costs of defending the action a reasonable amount to be fixed by the court as attorney's fees.

(6) Nothing herein contained limits or affects the right to serve any process in any other manner now or hereafter provided by law.

the part of the persons so married, or either of them, that they have been lawfully joined in marriage. [Illegitimate children become legitimate by the subsequent marriage of their parents with each other.]

Written consent to such adoption must be filed prior to a hearing on the petition, as follows:

(1) By the person to be adopted, if such person is fourteen years of age or older, but the filing of such consent shall not obviate the necessity of securing any other consent herein required;

(2) If the person to be adopted is [of legitimate birth or legitimized thereafter, and] a minor, then by each of his living parents, except as [hereinafter] provided in RCW 26.32.040 and 26.32.050 as now or hereafter amended; approved agency, then by such approved agency, in which event neither notice to nor consent by its parents in the adoption proceeding shall be necessary: PROVIDED, That if the approved agency refuses to consent to the adoption, the court, in its discretion, may order that such consent be dispensed with.

Sec. 27. Section 4, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No consent for the adoption of a minor shall be required as follows:

(1) From a parent deprived of civil rights when in a hearing for that purpose, as provided in RCW 26.32.050, the court finds that the circumstances surrounding the loss of said parent's civil rights were of such a nature that the welfare of the child would be best served by a permanent deprivation of parental rights;

(2) From a parent who has been deprived of the custody of the child by a court of competent jurisdiction, after notice: PROVIDED, That a decree in an action for divorce, separate maintenance, [or] annulment, dissolution, declaration of invalidity, declaration of paternity, or any other order in a civil or criminal proceeding including proceedings in juvenile court, which grants to a parent any right of custody, control, or visitation of a minor child, or requires of such parent the payment of support money for such child, shall not constitute such deprivation of custody;

(3) From a parent who, more than one year prior to filing of a petition hereunder, has been adjudged to be mentally ill or otherwise mentally incompetent, and who has not thereafter been restored to competency by the court making such adjudication, and the court at a hearing called for such purpose, as provided in RCW 26.32.050, finds that the best interests of the child will be served by a permanent deprivation of custody;

(4) From a parent who has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction, upon notice as herein provided to such parent, to have deserted or abandoned such child under circumstances showing a wilful substantial lack of regard for parental obligations;

(5) From a parent of [an illegitimate] a child who has not been acknowledged by such parent and action has not been taken to establish such relationship in accordance with sections 3 through 20 of this 1976 amendatory act, and who prior to entry of the interlocutory decree of adoption has not contested the proposed adoption after having been provided with notice of a hearing on an adoption petition pursuant to the notice provisions of RCW 26.32.085;

(6) From a parent who has surrendered the child pursuant to RCW 26.37.010.

Sec. 28. Section 5, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 4, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court in an adoption proceeding, after a hearing for that purpose upon notice thereof as hereinafter provided having been given to a parent, finds any of the conditions set forth in RCW 26.32.040 as now or hereafter amended to be a fact as to the parent, the court may decree that consent of such parent shall not be required prior to adoption.

Sec. 29. Section 7, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The written consent shall be acknowledged before a notary public and filed with the petition or at all events before any action is taken by the court in such proceeding. Such consent shall recite that it is given subject to the approval of the court to be requested in an adoption proceeding and to have no force or effect until such court has approved the same. Such consent shall also provide therein that, after it is approved by the court and the order of relinquishment issued and filed, as required by RCW 26.36.010 as now or hereafter amended, and the child relinquished to the petitioners, it is not revocable except for fraud practiced by the petitioners or mental incompetency of the person signing the consent at the time of signing the same;

(2) If the parent signing the consent is a minor, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem, who shall make an investigation and report prior to the order of relinquishment, covering the competency of the person signing the consent and certifying that the consent was voluntarily made and for the best interests of the child;

(3) The court, prior to signing an order of relinquishment, may appoint a next friend, as hereinafter provided in RCW 26.32.090, who shall report to the court either orally or in writing as to the competency of the parent signing the consent, whether or not such consent is voluntary, and whether or not at that time anything affirmatively appears that the best interests of the child would not be served by the adoption. The order of relinquishment shall not be signed without the written approval of the next friend and without the court calling a hearing as to the advisability of the relinquishment, whenever the court appoints a next friend.

Sec. 30. Section 8, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 5, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall direct notice of any hearing under RCW 26.32.050 to be given to any nonconsenting parent or guardian, if any, and to any person or association having the actual care, custody, or control of the child: PROVIDED, That where a parent has been deprived of the custody of such child and such child has been set over for adoption by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, after due notice in a proceeding regularly had for such purpose, no notice need be given to the parent so deprived and the record of such deprivation proceedings shall be deemed prima facie proof of such deprivation;

(2) Such notice shall be given in the following manner: The court shall direct the clerk to issue a notice of such hearing directed to the persons entitled to notice, notifying such persons of the filing of the petition, stating briefly the object of the petition and the purpose of the hearing, and notifying such persons of the date, time and place of the hearing. A copy of the notice shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of the summons upon the persons entitled thereto at least ten days prior to the hearing;

(3) In the event it shall appear by the affidavit of the petitioners that the persons entitled to notice, or either of them, are nonresidents of the state or that they cannot, after diligent search, be found within the state, and that a copy of said notice has been deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, directed to such person or persons at their last known place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is unknown to petitioners, then the court shall order said notice published in a legal newspaper printed in the county, qualified to publish summons, once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first publication of said notice to be at least twenty-five days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. Proof of service of notice shall be filed in the cause as required by law for making proof of the service of summons or summons by publication;

(4) Personal service of the notice out of the state, made twenty-five days or more prior to the date fixed for the hearing, shall be deemed equivalent to service by publication;

(5) [If the court is satisfied of the illegitimacy of the child to be adopted, and so finds, then] Notice to any nonconsenting parent of such child shall be made as required under the provisions of RCW 26.32.085 as now or hereafter amended.

(6) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a notice in substantially the following form will be deemed sufficient:

Judge of said Superior Court, and the seal of said court hereunto affixed this ____ day of ________, 19__
Sec. 32. Section 10, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.32.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Where a natural parent (or parents) of an illegitimate child successfully petitions to have the adoption of the child set aside, the parent shall be liable to the adoptive parents (or parent) for their direct and indirect costs in supporting such child.

The term "direct and indirect costs" as used in this section shall include both actual expenditures and the value of services rendered by the adoptive parents in caring for the child.

Sec. 33. Section 11, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.32.310 are each amended to read as follows:

In each action brought by a natural parent (or parents) of an illegitimate child to set aside the adoption of the child, no hearing or trial on the merits of the action shall be conducted until such time as the natural parent (or parents) posts a bond equal to one hundred dollars for each period of thirty days which the adoptive parents (or parent) had custody of the child. Such bond shall be used to satisfy the adoptive parents' right under RCW 26.32.300 to compensation for support in the event the adoption is set aside.

Sec. 34. Section 1, chapter 49, Laws of 1903 as amended by section 7, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.37.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of receiving, caring for or placing out for adoption, or improving the condition of orphan, homeless, neglected or abused minor children of this state shall have authority to receive, control, and dispose of children under eighteen years of age under the following provisions:

(1) When the father and mother or the person or persons legally entitled to act as guardian of the person of any minor child shall, in writing, surrender such child to the charge and custody of said society, such child shall thereafter be in legal custody of such society for the purposes herein provided.

(2) In case of death or legal incapacity of a father or his abandonment or neglect to provide for his family, the mother shall have authority to make such surrender, and in case of the death or legal incapacity of a mother, or her abandonment of such child, then the father shall have authority to make such surrender.

(3) In all cases where the person or persons legally authorized to make such surrender are not known, any judge of superior court may cause a notice of hearing to be published in any newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county, and if he deems it best for such orphan, homeless, neglected or abused child, he may surrender it to any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of Washington and having for its object the care of such children.

(4) In cases where the child to be surrendered is not been acknowledged by either parent and action has not been taken to establish such relationship in accordance with sections 3 through 20 of this 1976 amendatory act, and is surrendered in writing by either parent, but not both parents, then the court shall hold a hearing on the surrender in the manner provided under RCW 26.37.015, and if the parent who has not agreed to the surrender in writing does not contest the surrender at such hearing, then such parent shall be deemed to have surrendered the child and the court shall authorize the surrender. This subsection shall not apply to or bar surrenders authorized under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) When any child shall have been surrendered in accordance with any of the preceding clauses and such child shall have been accepted by such society, then, (but not otherwise), the rights of its natural parents or of the guardian of its person (if any) shall cease and such corporation shall become entitled to the custody of such child, and shall have authority to care for and educate such child or place it either temporarily or permanently in a suitable private home in such manner as shall best secure its welfare. Such corporation shall have authority when any such child has been surrendered to it in accordance with any of the preceding provisions, and it is still in its control, to consent to its adoption under the laws of Washington. The custody or control of any such child by any such corporation or by any other corporation, institution, society or person may be inquired into, and, in the discretion of the court, terminated at any time by the superior court of the county where the child may be, upon the complaint of any person, and a showing that such custody is not in the interest of the child.

Sec. 35. Section 8, chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and RCW 26.37.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever one parent, but not both parents, of [an illegitimate] a child who has not been acknowledged by either parent and action has not been taken to establish such relationship in accordance with sections 3 through 20 of this 1976 amendatory act, surrenders the child in writing pursuant to subsection (4) of RCW 26.37.010, the surrender shall not be valid unless a petition for surrender is granted by the court in conformity with the provisions of this section. The court shall grant such petition if the parent who did not provide the surrender in writing fails to contest the petition at the hearing held thereon.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Francis, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2243, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2243, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Goltz—2.

Excused: Senators Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2243, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

RECONSIDERATION OF MOTION TO CONCUR (WITH EXCEPTION)
The Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003 and the House amendments thereto.

On February 17, 1976, on motion of Senator Washington, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003 with the exception of Section 6.

MOTION
Senator Washington moved the Senate, on reconsideration, concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003 with the exception of Section 6 and ask the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, you spoke of all House amendments. I only have one House amendment."

Senator Washington: "It is one amendment and I am asking that we accept all of that amendment with the exception of section six which is the last of that whole amendment. They struck the Senate bill and inserted in lieu thereof their own House bill on the same subject."

Senator Rasmussen: "Oh, and then the separate one is the amendment to the House amendment."

Senator Washington: "So, we are accepting everything in the House amendment except the last one which is section six."

Senator Rasmussen: "Let me ask this question, Senator Washington. May an individual, on his own property, knowing that he has Indian arrow heads on his property, go out and dig—"

Senator Washington: "Yes, oh yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "—without receiving permission from the parks department?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Where does it say that?"

Senator Washington: "It doesn't say that. No place is that taken away. Now, there is no effort to take away anyone's right on their own property. It does provide, however, the bill as it now stands provides that if you wanted to go on my property you would have to get written permission from me to go on the property. This new bill provides that there are some large landowners that have a substantial number of archeological sites that they are not too familiar with. This provides that they themselves could turn over to the parks department the right to grant permission but that would have to be at their own request. This takes no one's right away from their own property but it does prevent someone from trespassing on your property and digging on it."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. As I understand it, this is one House amendment. Is it proper, Mr. President, I thought that when there was a single amendment made by the House that the only procedure that the Senate could follow was either to accept or to reject the entire amendment. Frankly, it is a new procedure to me where we are purporting to accept a part of a single amendment and reject another portion of a single amendment. I am asking merely for a clarification of the procedural problem."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Not presupposing what the ruling will be, in the past when there has been a situation where an entire bill has been taken and another new bill has been put on, there are precedents where we have done this before, where we have not gone into the middle of the bill but where we have agreed to accept all of this large amendment with the exception of stated paragraphs. In other words, it is real simple for the House to know what we have done. They can either accept it or reject it. If they don't want to accept it, they will have to come back, of course, and have a conference."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I did not wish to raise a parliamentary objection. It was merely a question on my part."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Clarke, the Secretary advises that the remarks of Senator Washington are correct in the sense that this procedure has been followed on the budget bill and, I believe, the landlord-tenant bill."

The motion by Senator Washington carried. The Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003 with the exception of Section 6 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Gould yield? Senator Gould, are you sure that the motion that you want to put is that we adhere to our position because if the House does not demand a conference on this that means that the bill is dead? Senator Gould: "Whatever does the job, Senator."

Senator Day: "Adhere means that we are immovable, you know, and that is our final word."

Senator Gould: "I would be very glad if somebody would suggest the proper wording to do what I want to do. — Insist on our position. All right, thank you."

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Day, Henry, Knoblauch.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Scott and Goltz to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 15, after "personnel," strike all material through "education," on line 17.
Debate ensued.
The motion failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.
Senator Bluechel moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:
On page 1, line 17, after “authority,” strike “forest practices board, forest practices appeals board,”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: “Will Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Senator, since you spoke to me just a few minutes ago on this bill I have had a chance to look down on the list of exemptions and while I certainly share your concern on the Forest Practices Board, you and I have both worked on it for about two years in setting up the forest practices act. I am wondering, and it is a serious question in my mind, is there any difference between the forest practice boards in the University of Washington, the department of highways, the transportation system or anything else. If this is the bill and if we are going to act on this bill in good faith and good conscience, why, in your opinion, is the forest practice appeal board any different from any other board or commission that is covered under this bill?”

Senator Bluechel: “Senator Peterson, this is the reason I put these particular two boards up. I think when you get in the area which requires substantial expertise to be able to render a judgment, you narrow the field of possible candidates to serve on that board. On a community college board, you have a very wide range of interests you can choose from. When you get into something, as you and I know, as technical as the forest practices act, we need all the expertise we can get. There are very few people who are qualified and will be willing to serve on it in the first place and when we add these requirements to serving, I think that those people will not serve and we simply will lose quality.

“We can go through and we can pick out various boards and commissions. Some, in my opinion, are much more technical than others and this is one of the most technical and for that reason I put this amendment up.”

Senator Peterson: “Senator, I can agree with your thinking to a degree but if this bill has any merit and it is the judgment of this body that we elect to pass it, in all due respect to the forest practices situation I don’t really feel that it is any different than the University of Washington or any of the rest of them. For that reason I would have to oppose the amendment. Let’s knock them all down or let them all have their day in court just like you and I do.”

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Bluechel failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 19, after “game commission,” strike “council for postsecondary education”

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment by Senators Scott and Goltz to the committee amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 19, after “council” strike “on higher education” and insert “for postsecondary education”
There being no objection, the amendment by Senators Scott and Goltz to page 1, line 24, to the committee amendment, on the Secretary's desk, was withdrawn.
Senator Bluechel moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:
On page 3, line 12, after “compensation” insert “: PROVIDED, That this information shall be kept confidential by the public disclosure commission: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the public disclosure commission finds there is a potential conflict of interest with any specific entity listed, the public disclosure commission after conferring with the individual candidate or office holder may make such information a matter of public record”
Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "Point of order, Mr. President. This language as I gather relates to the third page of the committee amendment, the same being lines four through twelve and then it adds language after that, but I look at the language of lines four through twelve and my recollection is that is not the law today. We are amending rather than the laws that exist today, the language of a bill which we passed but is not yet law. I could be mistaken with respect to that. It was my impression that we now have the law at twenty-five hundred dollars. That is the law today."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Mardesich, the RCW states five hundred dollars."

The motion by Senator Bluechel failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Bluechel to page 3, line 42, to the committee amendment, on the Secretary's desk, was withdrawn.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 42 after "service" and before the semicolon insert "[; (iii) The name, address, and occupation of every other director and /or officer of any bank or commercial lending institution, the name of which is required to be reported under this subsection or all interest paid by a borrower on loans from and all interest paid to a depositor by such bank or commercial lending institution if such interest exceeds six hundred dollars]: PROVIDED FURTHER, That with respect to any bank or commercial lending institution in which is held any such office, directorship, partnership interest, or ownership interest, it shall only be necessary to report either the name, address, and occupation of every director and officer of such bank or commercial lending institution and the average monthly balance of each account held during the preceding twelve months by such bank or commercial lending institution from the governmental entity for which the individual is an elected official or candidate, or all interest paid by a borrower on loans from and all interest paid to a depositor by such bank or commercial lending institution if such interest exceeds six hundred dollars"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, February 20, 1976.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Francis and Keefe. On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senators Francis and Keefe were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Steven Sundstrom and Debbie Bryant, presented the Colors. Reverend Willard B. Airhart, pastor of First Church of the Nazarene of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR LOVING AND EVERLASTING FATHER, WHEN THE PREVAILING CHARACTERISTIC OF OUR SOCIETY IS UNCERTAINTY AND CONFUSION, IT IS COMFORTING TO KNOW THAT YOU ARE AVAILABLE TO US AS AN UNFAILING GUIDE. THE LAW FOR LIFE THAT WILL LEAD US UNSWERVINGLY TO THE RIGHT PATH IS THE LAW OF YOUR WORD. TEACH US TO HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE YOU. IF WE WOULD SINCERELY SEEK TO DO GOOD, LET IT BE DONE UNSELFISHLY. GIVE US AN UNDERSTANDING OF WHAT TRUTH REALLY IS; AND MAY IT BE UNTARNISHED BY ARROGANCE, HYPOCRISY OR SELF-INDULGENCE. INCLINE OUR HEARTS AND MINDS TOWARD LOVE FOR GOD AND MANKIND, LEST WE BE VICTIMS OF COVETOUSNESS AND THE LUST FOR POWER. ENLARGE OUR SYMPATHIES AND MAKE US EAGER TO EASE THE SORROW AND DISTRESS OF MEN. MAY WE KNOW THE JOY OF SERVICE FREELY GIVEN. LIFT OUR VISION UNTIL THAT FRESH PERSPECTIVE WILL ASSURE US THAT OUR HELP COMES FROM THE LORD. GIVE US WISDOM TO REALIZE THAT ULTIMATELY THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS OF GREATER IMPORTANCE THAN THE JUDGMENT OF THE CONSTITUENCY. WE PRAY IN THE NAME OF OUR LORD. AMEN.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, present in the hallowed halls of the Senate today are two very important visitors; His Excellency, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, and the Honorable Charles Ralls, past national commander of the Veterans’ of Foreign Wars. Would Senator Sellar, Senator Wanamaker, Senator Marsh and Senator Stortini please serve as a committee of honor to escort our esteemed visitors to the rostrum?”

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President: “The President at this time should like to respectfully request of Senator Bailey, Senator Henry, Senator Mardesich, Senator Rasmussen, Senator Sandison, Senator Washington—who are all former colleagues of Senator Knoblauch’s in the House, and also respectfully request of Speaker Pro Tempore O’Brien, Representative Gaspard and Representative Sawyer that you please join with the committee of honor to escort the eminently respected and illustrious Reuben A. Knoblauch to the rostrum.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, this beautiful sunny day of February 20, 1976 in the year of our Lord will be known as Rhubarb Day to all posterity. This is Reuben’s day, and the President thought that the only one who could conduct a program of this magnitude is the effervescent and ebullient member from Bremerton, the Honorable C. W. (Red) Beck. Senator Beck.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: “Thank you, Governor Cherberg. You know there was a good editorial about the way you are a sure thing for the Governor because of the way you introduce people down here. Thank you. That is just the way I asked you to say it.

“Yes, folks, we are gathered here today to pay honor to a fellow who has served thirty years in these marble halls. You know, I first got acquainted with Reuben exactly twenty-five years ago. I was down here on a little business for a chamber of commerce and became aware that there was a Reuben Knoblauch in this legislature in the 1951 session. Senator Knoblauch is getting to be an old man. Welcome to the ranks here, Reuben. He was born in Sumner here in 1914 and he has represented the Twenty-fifth District in this legislature for the last thirty years.

“You know, we had a representative from the twenty-fifth district named Ted Schroeder when I first knew Reuben. Ted Schroeder sponsored Senator Knoblauch as a bill clerk down here in 1937, 1939 and 1941 sessions. Then the war came along and Senator Knoblauch went down in the South Pacific and fought all during the war from 1941 until 1945. While he was down there, I might say that he won a bronze star. They don’t come cheaply. Believe me, it’s a high honor to win the bronze star.

“He is a retired farmer. He has been active in veterans’ affairs. He is the past commander of the local VFW and the American Legion, belongs to the Elks, the Knights of Columbus, and he is probably as proud of belonging to the Grange as I am.

“He was elected to serve three terms in the House in 1947, 1949 and 1951, and has served six terms in the Senate, beginning with 1953 up until the present time. Representative Knoblauch was mentioned in the House journal the first time on the twenty-seventh day. He sponsored a memorial to the Congress pertaining to the terminal pay of military and then he was mentioned quite frequently. He has always been active in vet-ers' affairs and working for the veterans, and believe me, I think Reuben is — in the twenty-five or thirty years that I have been coming down here — probably the most humanitarian legislator that I have seen serve in these halls.

"Reuben began his big life's crusade on March 6, 1951, and the record is found on page seven hundred and eighty-six of the House journal of that session. Senator Carlton Sears, over here, had had a bill passed that designated the gold finch as the official state bird of the State of Washington. Representative Bob Ford was presiding over in the House when the bill came up for consideration over there. It got a 'do pass' from the committee and Senator Knoblauch in his typical fashion got up and in his crusade offered an amendment striking everything after the enacting clause and inserting a new section one. I would like to read that to you. 'The Puyallup Valley rhubarb is hereby designated as the official vegetable of the State of Washington.' That is down in the journal, and you know, Reuben, Representative Bob Ford was presiding that day and he ruled you out of order. He said that the subject was not germane. The bill pertained to birds and he wants to introduce vegetables into the thing, and I might just inject a little side light into this here. Reuben, that was the first time I ran for the legislature and I ran against Bob Ford. If you would have come up there and helped me a little bit more, by golly, I would have been down here and maybe I would have been presiding and I wouldn't have ruled you out of order, just out of respect to you.

"Yes, the 1951 session was a rather hectic session as it was in that session that one man went to jail. I happened to be up in the north gallery over there in the House. I didn't get to see the rhubarb and the ruckus that was going on down on the floor but I sure heard about it and that was when I first became aware of Reuben Knoblauch. He was a seat mate of Representative Ken Simmons over there and they had a real hot public versus private power fight over there. Some joker came in and offered Reuben and Ken Simmons twenty-five dollars if they would vote for the bill. When that guy offered the twenty-five dollars I thought the whole dome was going to — I have sat through an earthquake and any number of storms in this building, but I never heard the dome rattle the way it did that day when Reuben Knoblauch got up there on a point of personal privilege and informed the House and everybody else that his vote wasn't for sale, even for twenty-five thousand dollars. Reuben has been representing the people honestly and very dignified down here in this legislature ever since.

"I am closing my introduction here of Reuben. I would like to tell you that in those days, just like in these days, you can't trust a member of the House. Senator Ted Schroeder moved over here to the Senate from the House and Reuben got his seat over there in the House. And you know what? After three sessions over there, Reuben filed against him and came over here and defeated him and got his seat over here in the Senate. So, Reuben, good luck to you. I am glad you are retiring here so Mark Gaspard or Lennie Sawyer there in the Twenty-fifth District won't have to file against you and defeat you this time. But anyway, Reuben took his Senator's seat away from him.

"Right now I have just been introducing Reuben here but I am going to call on His Excellency, the Governor of the State of Washington, to say a few things that he knows about Senator Knoblauch. Governor Evans."

REMARKS BY GOVERNOR EVANS

Governor Evans: “Thank you. This is such a rare privilege to come and have the opportunity to address the Senate. The fact is I remember the last occasion was the day we joined in honoring Davy Cowan, which was a good many years ago, another Senator who served for many, many years in these halls. You know, I can't equal John Cherberg at all in introducing people but I can sure remember what you said, Senator Beck. Senator Beck talked about all those House members you can't trust and I remember where you came from, too. But before you say it, I did, too.

"It is a privilege to come here and to join in this day. I had the opportunity just before coming out on the floor to meet many of Reuben's family and friends who were gathered in the Lieutenant Governor's office. I think that is first a pretty clear indication of the love and the honor in which we are held when our family is joined together to help provide this kind of recognition.
“But it is really a fact that for thirty years Reuben has served this state, and he served the state — you can't serve for thirty years in any legislative district without doing a good job for the people of that district and a good job for the people of the state. And there are not many in the whole history of this state who have served consecutively for thirty years in this legislative body. During that time, at least during that period of time that I have known Reuben — and it goes back for twenty of those thirty years — I have never heard him say an unkind word, never heard him once try to take special advantage. I never heard him once try to get some advancement for himself. He was always a gentle and kind man who was devoted to a number of very special citizen interests and in representing his own district well. And if that includes, Reuben, making the rhubarb the state vegetable, that is all right, too. That is a favorite of mine and perhaps before you leave these halls somebody who is presiding will recognize that as a suitable order of business and when that comes to my desk, I can only say it will be more significant and better than any bills I have gotten so far this session, but I still have high hopes.

“Ultimately we are remembered by what we have done and a person's place in whatever length of time they have on this earth depends pretty much on how he is viewed after he is gone. I am delighted that we all have this opportunity today while Reuben is here and active—and Senator Beck, you said he was getting old. Heck, he has still got plenty of years left, plenty of years to not only enjoy himself and his family but to continue to provide advice and counsel for a good many people in the years to come. But someday when he is gone, and most of us are gone, people will be remembered. Many will be forgotten but I am confident that Reuben Knoblauch will always be remembered by the people of this state and particularly the people of the Twenty-fifth district as a kind and gentle and dedicated Senator who always kept the people's view and the people's concern foremost in his mind and there is no better way a legislator or a public servant can be remembered.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: “You know, going back to World War II days, one of Reuben Knoblauch's very warmest friends is Judge Charles Ralls. Judge Ralls is a past national commander of the VFW and he knows an awful lot of VFW stories and some military stories that I would like to call on the Honorable Judge Charles Ralls to say a few remarks about our distinguished guest.”

REMARKS BY JUDGE CHARLES RALLS

Judge Ralls: “Senator Beck, Governor Evans, Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, and ladies and gentlemen. Governor, you are a pretty hard act to follow. I hope that I don't foul this up because I feel very keenly about Reuben Knoblauch. I have known him for many years and I want him to remember me as handling this pretty well. I have in mind when I was commander of the VFW and the pace was pretty hectic. We had a little single motor plane and we would be in one state on Monday, another state on Tuesday, and so on. If you are speaking before a variety of groups, and during those years the various legislatures were in session and I was introduced at a joint session of the legislature in Arkansas early one morning. I had prepared my text pretty well but I think the travel was getting me and I thanked the governor who was present and the lieutenant governor and the speaker for allowing me to speak to the representatives of the sovereign people of Arizona.

“I would just like to tell you a few things about the VFW because that is where I met Senator Knoblauch. And we were — years ago — very active in a variety of endeavors with that organization. It is important because the things we are doing, I think, portray the man that you are honoring — that we are honoring — this morning. The VFW was formed by Spanish American war veterans many years ago. Their main purpose was to provide help and comfort to the disabled veterans and to the widows and the orphans. And to this day this organization maintains a service office in all our posts in our states and a very adequate appeal group in Washington, D.C. We have attorneys, specialists and administrative practices for the Veterans' Administration and it is our pleasure to represent any veteran who applies for assistance.
"On top of that, the organization every year has as one of its primary objectives community service. In other words, working with boy scouts, girl scouts, the disabled, the handicapped, any person who in this country needs help, needs some companionship, needs some friendship. And it was in this context that I met Reuben. He was the post commander of the Sumner post in those days and I think that every time that I came into the Puyallup Valley and to Pierce County this man was there with his effervescent personality participating heavily in an interesting manner in things that we were trying to do.

"Now, we were all just out of the service. None of us really knew what we wanted to do. We were just trying to get our lives back together again but we did have one idea and that was trying to perfect a program that would help our fellow citizens and make life just a little better for every American citizen in our own community and in our state at large. I don't know any man who gave more wholeheartedly to these endeavors than Reuben Knoblauch. I just know that everybody in those days who contacted him left enriched, left feeling just a little better, left feeling that there was friendship, left feeling that there was comradeship in this country and that we had made some contributions towards the betterment of our fellow citizen.

"As Governor Evans stated, I have never heard Reuben Knoblauch say an ill word of any person. I have never heard him be highly critical in a personal matter of anybody and in fact as I stated, his presence enriched the people who met him. I have two thoughts in mind as I stand before this body. One is that I feel very flattered and I thank Senator Beck for inviting me to participate. At the same time I feel saddened because, Reuben, I know I speak for every veteran, I am saddened because we are going to miss your leadership, We are going to miss your counsel. I know I speak for your constituency in your district. They, too, are going to miss you. And whatever road you wish to travel, Reuben, I wish you great health, and Godspeed and God bless you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "You know, you have met all the people who served with Senator Knoblauch in the House over there. We have one other very distinguished gentleman here whom we have learned to know and love around these hallowed halls. He has written a letter to me and asked that I read it. It is a letter, Reuben, from Speaker Charlie Hodde. Charlie Hodde has a lot of fond memories of the time that he served — five terms over there — four terms as Speaker of the House — and he has written a very nice letter. I am going to present this to you on behalf of Charlie Hodde and I would like to recognize Mr. Hodde — Speaker Hodde. He is in the gallery. Let's give him a big hand. Just one of the greatest Speakers that we ever had over in the House and believe me he is one of the foremost, most astute persons we have. We have a little tax bill here that Charlie Hodde — we are going to know what we really think of him when we get to voting on that bill, Charlie. It is not known as the Hodde Plan, though. It is known as some other plan.

"Now you know Senator Knoblauch is an alumni of the bill room down here and I would like to ask if Stephanie Ball, one of our upcoming bill clerks, would come out here and Reuben, would you stand over there? Stephanie has here a great big box of cigars all wrapped up in those old, outmoded bills down there. Reuben, you know a lot of us that don't like those stinky old black cigars but we used to like the way Davy Cowan used to sit there. He would chew on them. He would never light those things and as stinky in his office as they looked — that still wasn't as bad as the stench coming out of those things when you smoke them. But anyway, I know you are going to enjoy them.

"And that fine, lovely lady who has been Senator Knoblauch's secretary for years down here. I would like to call on Edna Connell. Edna, would you bring the candy here? You know, Vi Hirst is sitting up there. Vi is the sister of Reuben's who lives up in Bremerton and she is the one who is always sending the fudge down. Reuben says, 'Here, my sister made it. Take one piece because I haven't got very much. I have to spread it around.' We don't want any more of that 'one piece' stuff this time. Here is another box of fudge.
"Stephanie, come up here. You are not supposed to leave. Here is another box to go with that, Reuben, and we will have another one after Charlie Johnson gets it down here. The candy store doesn't open up — no, and none of that 'one piece at a time' with this candy.

"Now, that lovely lady who takes care of all of Reuben's committee work over here, the secretary of his parks committee, and she is speaking for the entire parks department, Charlie Odegaard. Reuben, Muriel has got here — we knew that after thirty years of these hallowed halls that you would — you can't be here and then claim it as your office any more — here is a little piece of the halls, of your building here — a little piece of marble that we went down in the trash box the other day and had picked up. Zou have a little piece of trash here to take home with you.

"Now, Reuben, don't laugh. Why don't you open it up and show it to them? It is just an old piece of trash. A friend of mine out here went out and polished it a little bit. It doesn't look like a capitol building but it is a part of the capitol here.

"You know, as long as Reuben has been down here he has had an awful lot of nice cooks who have fed him and treated him well but I don't think any of them have done quite as good a job as Maxine Mulholland. Maxine, have you got a present here for the Senator? Here is some of that famous Washington State Puyallup Valley rhubarb.

"Now, before I turn Reuben loose at this microphone, the governor has business to attend to. He thinks the House has a budget down there to him. He wants to go see if they got one, so would all of you people come up here and let the photographers get this part of the program over with? Yes, the escort, too.

"Now, Reuben, we will give you not more than two minutes to defend yourself."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Governor Evans, you will never know what it means to me that you took time out from your busy schedule to come here this morning. You are not even a member of my own political party yet you thought enough of me to attend this nice affair. From the bottom of my heart, thank you very much. I like this so well I might decide to run again. Governor, you have been so kind and you have taken so much from the Democrats that I want you to take home this bouquet of rhubarb to Nancy and I hope that you enjoy it very much.

"Mr. President, Speaker O'Brien, my second Speaker, Mr. Hodde, my old pal Mayor Joe Vraves of Fife, and I hope that my good friend, Mayor Foster from Sumner is here. Judges of the state supreme court, my old colleague in the House and friend from the Twenty-fifth District, Buster Brouillet, Gentlemen of the Senate, and Nancy, Susan, Lois and Ruthe, all of our staff members whom I hoped would be here today because you are my kind of people, members of the third house, many whose friendships I have enjoyed for so many years. Members of the fourth estate, I am so happy that you are here today, and Ladies and Gentlemen. How do you say goodbye to someone you are come to love like your own? Each and every member of the Senate seems like a member of my family. You are part of me. I don't look at you now as being a Republican or a Democrat. I look at you, good friends, as being citizens and public servants doing your best to be good citizens of our state and doing a good job.

"To my long time secretary, Edna, we decided we were going to go out together and I want to thank Edna for her many years of loyal support and assistance.

"Governor Cherberg, I have a special place in my heart for you. You are a man of all seasons; fair, and so well respected by every member of the Senate, regardless of political affiliation; always ready to meet with people from home. Your office is packed all day long and you always have time to meet with those people who come down to visit — members of your Senate. You have a heart of gold, Governor. Thanks for being such a fine person.

"To our sergeant at arms and members of his staff — Charlie Johnson, you fellows are always available when help is needed. To Duffy, that lovable Irishman and my close friend, Frank Connor, a million thanks.

"To those of you in the bill room where I started my service in 1939 and again, in 1941. You young people are close to my heart because this is where I started as a state legislator. Thank you for your Uncle Reuben Fan Club and for calling me Uncle Reuben. It makes me feel real good and means so much to me.

"To all of you loyal employees — some of you have been here for a long time — thank you so much for your cooperation. You work behind the scenes. You are a most important part of the legislature. Thanks to Florence Kendersi for her kindness throughout the years. Thanks to everyone's friend, Sid Snyder, a man for the job as Secretary of the Senate; and Bill Gleason, Verne Sawyer, Dorothy Greeley and Ole Scarpelli. You are a great bunch of people.

"I must speak from the heart when I say that this is a tragic time in the history of our nation when public officials are no longer respected. It's tragic that all public officials are put in one basket because of the mistakes of a very few. I can always have a great respect for those people in public service. Sad, but true, it is easy to criticize, to find fault. Let us remember that we are not perfect, that credit goes to each and every man and woman in the Senate here in the State of Washington — every man and woman — for being sincere, hard working and decent. I defy anyone to say differently. We are just plain citizens trying to do our best. Sometimes I wonder why anyone with any common sense wants to submit himself to continual criticism for so little compensation. I am proud of being a public servant, proud of my fellow legislators, and it is time they received a little credit — not constant throat-cutting. Even with all the faults in our government in this country, show me a better system of government. And in our bicentennial year let's recognize that we are a great country and a great people, and that we are trying to do our best.

"As a freshman in Sumner High School in 1928, I decided that some day I wanted to be a member of the House of Representatives. That dream came true in the 1946 election. How wonderful it has been to be trusted for so long. I shall be forever grateful to those folks at home for trusting me so much and giving me the opportunity to be of public service. Nothing in life can be finer than being a public servant and so I am most grateful to those people whom I represent.

"As a public servant I had two goals in mind when I came to Olympia. The first was to be the best possible public servant, and the second was to bring respect to the name Knoblauch. My father came to Sumner in 1888. He was an intensely proud man; proud of his family and of his reputation. And so I had a proud mother and father and I am most fortunate in having a wonderful family. The most important thing to me and my hope is that they feel that I have brought pride to the family name. This has been my goal and I hope that I have succeeded.

"It is going to be terribly hard to leave this building and this job. I am really crying on the inside and trying to smile on the outside. This is my second home. Part of my heart will always remain in this building. Every slab of marble, every desk, the galleries, everything in this building is part of me. Today is one of the most exciting and gratifying days of my life. To stand here and be paid a tribute by the Governor of the State of Washington, the Lieutenant Governor and members of the Senate, state officials, long-time friends, members of the news media, and employees — you really made public service worthwhile. From the bottom of my heart, there is a lot of gratitude that goes out to you good people today. Thank you very, very much."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "Thank you, Senator Reuben. You took just the two minutes that you were allocated and I think that if you would just give us two more minutes — if you would introduce your family up here. I think the people would like to know."

INTRODUCTIONS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "You bet I would like to introduce my family. There is one missing. Allan and his wife are in Alaska. She is president, or governor of Quota International for three states and they couldn't be here. I would like to first introduce my brother, Melvin, and his wife, Grace. My sister, Viola and husband, Ossie. I have also a Reuben Knoblauch, a namesake and a former page. Reuben, would you and your girl friend please stand? From Portland, my sister Marian and husband, Vince. From Sum­ner, I think it is the oldest one in the family, my brother, Leo, and his wife, Babe.

"And may I introduce the Mayor of Fife, Joe Vraves; City Councilman Jerry Ludden of Sumner. And a close friend, the Mayor of Sumner and — is Mrs. Foster here? — the Mayor of Sumner, Everett Foster; the Budget Director of Pierce County and one of my bosses, Dave Gago. Now, if I have missed anyone, I apologize."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, Mr. Chairman, I would like to offer an amendment to line three. Following 'chairman of the' insert 'all powerful'."

Senator Beck: "Your point is well taken."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Thank you, Senator Beck. Would Senator Knoblauch yield to a question? Senator Knoblauch, you know we have served in joint offices together and I have been worried about you all session. I have been down here thirteen years, Senator. Of course, you are retiring, is this correct?"

Senator Knoblauch: "Yes, the answer is affirmative."

Senator Herr: "Well, looking around the Senate I see a few single Senator women, and have you any plans for the future?"

Senator Knoblauch: "Well, let me tell you, Senator Herr, I could do a lot worse."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Reuben said he was smiling on the outside and crying on the inside. I have been doing the same thing. I have been smiling a lot on the outside because this has been a happy occasion. It is a happy occasion when someone with the long service that you have, Reuben, does step down with honor and dignity and all that goes with it. So while there is the feeling of maybe some tears, there still is that feeling of gladness. But it is mixed in, and I had that same feeling that you had. Now I, perhaps, may feel it a little stronger than most. You and I sat here together. I haven't tried to count the years but we sat here in this front row for a long time. I know many times I come in and it's a tough day ahead and you are usually there. You are one of the first ones here. And that smiling face you have, Reuben, that kindness that you have, has really made it so much easier for me to do my job. Just having you sitting there beside me. There are times when — maybe I am not quite as, let's say, agreeable as I should be — and many times I think you have at least helped me to maybe come to a more compromising position.

"You may have noted, Reuben, when we stood back there I kind of pushed ahead of a number of people and grabbed you by the arm and walked down the aisle with you. I wasn't going to let somebody else just step in there. I had your left arm as we walked down the aisle. And, Reuben, we are going to miss you for all the qualities that we have talked about; your kindness, the fact that you work hard.

"There have been very few members of this legislature, I think, whom we can really say have left no enemies. And strangely enough, I think of another name, Ernie Lennart. He sat on the same seat that you sat on, on the other side of the aisle. You two sat in those seats and I think both of you contributed to that kind of a bringing together of ideas. In this legislative assembly we have our differences of opinion but somewhere we have to come together, and Reuben, you have been one of those who have helped to bring us together. And the other thing, there are times when the right thing needs to be said. Reuben, you have stood there and so many times I have sat in this seat just kind of feeling, 'I wish I knew something that needed to be said' and you have had that gift of being able to say something that made the person who was being honored to feel, 'I am really being honored.'

"You have had the ability to talk sometimes to people in the gallery and to really make them feel what it means to be an American. And, Reuben, there have been some great orators on the floor of this legislature. Some of the last, of course — Ernie Lennart, although he spoke in his Swedish broken language, yet he was an orator. John McCutcheon, Perry Woodall, and Reuben, you are the last of the orators. There are many people who can speak but you are the last of those who can really be an orator. The last of those who can really bring out some emotion. The last of those who really have that kind of lost ability. Reuben, we are all going to miss you and I am going to miss you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CUNNINGHAM

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Senator Beck. Senator Reuben, I, being junior, would just like to offer a few comments. If I were any more junior to you, my desk would be outside and there has been talk of that.

"But I look at this resolution and I am delighted to vote on it as I know we all are but it is always tough to try and resolve thirty years of service on a little piece of paper."
One thing it leaves out that I find most remarkable about you and the thing I will remember the most is your dedication to the heritage of this country and it is summed up best in the last sentence of the Declaration of Independence. I think you live that sentence which in recognizing the defense of our Constitution and of our government says, 'our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honors.' God bless you, Reuben."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN
Senator Walgren: "Senator Beck, just a few comments. Probably that motion should have been made before we made any other comments. Now if Reuben had been down here on the floor, he could have given me that little bit of advice to do this properly.

"Reuben, I just want to say that in the very short time that I have occupied this position but certainly during the period of time that I have had the pleasure of working with you, you have been not only a good friend but certainly a real leader here on the Senate floor. I want you to know that from the bottom of my heart we are certainly going to miss you. You have provided not only all those things that have already been referred to but you have provided truly the conscience of the Senate on many occasions and I want you to know that I appreciate it.

"The one thing you did say that gave me a little hope though, Reuben, was the very fact that you said that you appreciated this day today and that maybe you might stick around a little bit more and run one more time. You know, I am always looking for good candidates."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS (HARRY)
Senator Lewis (Harry): "You know, I remember, Reuben, a few years ago when I was in the back row and made my first speech. And for those of you in the gallery who are not aware of it, Reuben has over the years been the Senator who called the freshmen Senators on their speech and asked them to volunteer some candy and cigars for the members of the Senate. I suppose Senator Beck is going to take over your job.

"I also remember that good home made fudge which brightened my day and brought me back to reality. I remember things like your attendance record. I don't think any member of the Senate has ever been in his seat or worked as hard as you have and I am not aware of a single vote that you have missed though you may have missed one if you were flat on your back in bed but I wasn't aware of it if you did. I think probably in the history of the Senate your attendance record and attendance to duty has been stronger than any other member of the Senate.

"I remember a few years ago when you called attention to a couple of young gals in the gallery who failed to salute the flag. I think Senator Cunningham's remarks about your patriotism, a constant reminder for all of us in the Senate, bringing us sharply to attention of our purposes, that we are going to miss Reuben, and I hope that we can measure up to the standard that you have set for us.

"I guess you have made us feel a little more human here. You have always respected our point of view and have made it easy and you have been helpful to me as floor leader on this side. For those of us on this side, for all of the members of the Senate, we wish you well for the good life you have earned and I guess we thank you most of all for a life of dedicated service. And each year in the spring, Reuben, when that spring tonic from the valley that you love comes to us, we will remember you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR STORTINI
Senator Stortini: "Senator Knoblauch, you have been described in many words today; sentimental, proud, patriotic, integrity, a heart as big as this room, but I think one thing that you, yourself, have stated many times on this floor, in meetings in Pierce County that you have attended, is the word, a 'friend.' And I think it would only be fitting at this time if you would honor this body and the galleries with your words, since you are a friend's friend."
REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "Oh, yes. Reuben has a little poem here that he composed sometime ago. I think some of us have heard it. Reuben."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "First, before I recite the poem, I forgot to thank Charlie Ralls. How wonderful it is that Charlie took time out from his job to come to pay tribute to me. He is a long-time friend I haven't seen for many years and so this is a special day.

"I want to tell you that Senator Keefe called me yesterday to wish me well on my retirement and to tell you people that he probably won't be back this session. I must say he didn't sound too well. He is taking cobalt treatments and lots of antibiotics and finds it very difficult even to talk on the telephone. How I wish that he could have been here today.

"Many years ago I memorized a poem called 'Friends,' and life would be awfully empty if you didn't have someone to turn to, to call a friend. I like it so well I want to repeat it to you. But before I do that, I have one more opportunity to say thanks to you — you people who have stood up and spoken so well. It's nice to have you do that. I am going to get a transcription of this occasion and put it in my photo book. I want to thank you people who have taken time out to write me letters. It takes away a lot of pain to receive nice letters from friends. Now, let me recite this poem and dedicate it to all of you people here.

'Life is sweet because of the friends we have made.
And the things which in common we share.
We want to live on, not because of ourselves,
But because of the people who care.
It's giving and doing for somebody else
On this, all of life's splendor depends.
And the joy of this world when you've summed it all up,
Is found in the making of friends.'

"And God has blessed me with many friends. Thank you so much."

The motion by Senator Walgren carried and Senate Resolution 1976-191, as amended, was unanimously adopted.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "Reuben, I guess this concludes our program. Don't forget the rhubarb. I know you won't because I don't think there is a bouquet of American Beauty roses that has the fragrance or looks as beautiful to Senator Knoblauch as those rhubarbs. There you are, Reuben, it's all your day."

(Prolonged applause.)

The committee of honor escorted the guests from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

FOR WHAT HAS BEEN ACHIEVED, WE GIVE YOU THANKS; FOR THE WORK THAT STILL REMAINS, WE SEEK YOUR GUIDANCE. DEEPEN OUR DEDICATION SO WE MAY WORK TOGETHER TO BUILD THE CITY OF LASTING PEACE. EVEN THOUGH WE ARE FILLED TODAY WITH THANKSGIVING FOR ALL OUR COUNTLESS BLESSINGS, WE REGRET THAT ALL OUR HOPES FOR JUSTICE AND LOVE HAVE NOT BEEN REALIZED. "FORGIVE US LORD, FOR VIEWING THE WORLD WITH DRY EYES. BUT IN SPITE OF OUR ACKNOWLEDGED UNWORTHINESS, WE ASK YOU, FATHER, TO GRANT THIS LAND ASSURANCE OF FREEDOM AND IMMUNITY FROM HARM. GIVE PEACE AND ORDER TO ALL NATIONS AND MAKE THE EARTH RESOUND FROM POLE TO POLE WITH ONE CRY: PRAISE TO THE DIVINE SOURCE OF OUR CREATION, TO HIM BE GLORY AND HONOR FOREVER. AMEN."

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Lewis (Harry) and Walgren:

"Sec. 3. Section 90, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 173, Laws of 1975, 1st ex. sess. and RCW 66.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler, or person financially interested, directly or indirectly, in such business, whether resident or nonresident, shall have any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any licensed retail business, nor shall any manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler own any of the property upon which such licensed persons conduct their business, nor shall any such licensed person, under any arrangement whatsoever, conduct his business upon property in which any manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler has any interest, nor shall any such licensed person receive, under any arrangement whatsoever, any such advance of moneys or moneys' worth. No manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler shall be eligible to receive or hold a retail license under this title, nor shall such manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler sell at retail any liquor as herein defined:

Provided. That nothing in this section shall prohibit a licensed brewer or domestic winery from being licensed as a retailer pursuant to chapter 66.24 RCW for the purpose of selling beer or wine of its own production at retail on the brewery or winery premises. Such beer and wine so sold at retail shall be subject to the taxes imposed by RCW 66.24.290 and RCW 66.24.210 and to reporting and bonding requirements as prescribed by regulations adopted by the board pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Financial interest, direct or indirect, as used in this section, shall include any interest, whether by stock ownership, mortgage, lien, or through interlocking directors, or otherwise. Pursuant to rules promulgated by the board in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW manufacturers, wholesalers and importers may perform, and retailers may accept the service of building, rotating and restocking case displays and stock room inventories; rotating and rearranging can and bottle displays of their own products; provide point of sale material and brand signs; price case goods of their own brands; and perform such similar normal business services as the board may by regulation prescribe."

Renumber remaining section.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: “Point of inquiry. This might be rather hypothetical, Mr. President, but I see another amendment following this by Senator Grant upon which I was going to ask that you rule whether it was outside the scope and object of the bill. The question I have is, if we adopt Senator Lewis’s amendment whether that would change the scope and object of the bill to such a point that Senator Grant’s amendment would be within the scope and object?”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woody: “Point of order, Mr. President. I think that is improper to get a preliminary ruling on the scope of an amendment when the amendment is not before us.”

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “Your point is well taken.”

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 3, following section 2, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 66.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, on and after the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act any holder of a beer retailers license issued pursuant to RCW 66.24.330, and having a tavern which has a seating capacity for five hundred or more persons and provides live entertainment at regular intervals at least five evenings each week shall be entitled upon application and the proper payment of fees therefore to a class H license as provided for in RCW 66.24.400."

Renumber the remaining section.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: “Point of order, Mr. President. Senator Grant’s proposed amendment clearly expands the scope and object of the bill and I would ask that you so rule.”

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: “That is what they call a directed verdict? In ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 771 is a measure relating to the conduct of representatives beer, wine and liquor manufacturers and permits limitations on the numbers of such agents. The proposed amendment by Senator Grant, however, deals not with the agents but is an amendment which would permit certain taverns to obtain Class H licenses by mere application and payment of fees. The amendment does increase the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken.”

The amendment by Senator Grant was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment to the title was adopted:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

On this date I have approved in its entirety SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1470, entitled:

"An Act relating to civil recompense and claims."

This bill represents the Legislature's first attempt to enact changes in the various statutory components of medical malpractice actions as a response to the developing crisis in the entire health care provider system resulting from sharply increasing professional liability insurance premiums. Those principally responsible for the passage of this bill, in particular the Select Committees on Malpractice in the two houses, and individual legislators, should be highly commended for the long and hard hours of work devoted to the subject.

I believe, however, that Substitute House Bill No. 1470 must not be looked upon as a definitive or final answer to the malpractice problem. In terms of its ability to reduce or stem the rise in malpractice insurance premiums now or in the foreseeable future, and its ability to channel a greater portion of the malpractice insurance premium dollar to the consumer-patient, the bill falls short of the expectations of both providers and consumers in the health care system. It is my strong hope that the Legislature will look on this as only a first step in the ultimate resolution of the problem, and that it will continue to grant priority consideration to development of a comprehensive reform package to be enacted in the 1977 regular session.

In addition, I wish to bring to the attention of the Legislature a potentially serious problem contained in certain amendatory language in section 1 of the bill. In that section, the statute of limitations on medical malpractice actions has been changed so that an action must be commenced within "three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused" by said action or omission. I am concerned over lack of definition either in statute or in case law of the term "representative" as used in this context. The issue of who constitutes such a representative will likely be the subject of litigation causing further diversion of malpractice insurance premium dollars. I would suggest that the Legislature either define the term as precisely as possible or delete it altogether.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

When filing a declaration of candidacy for any office, the person making such filing shall bear the burden of showing that he is eligible for such office. The auditor or clerk designated by law to receive the filing may require identification or documents necessary to establish that the candidate meets the citizenship, residency, and other requirements of the office. If the candidate cannot meet the burden of showing his eligibility, the auditor or clerk shall not accept the filing, except as provided in section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 29.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If an auditor or clerk refuses to accept a filing pursuant to section 1 of this act, the person desiring to make such a filing may appeal the refusal to the superior court of the county in which the filing is to be made. Such appeal shall be made in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) Upon receiving written notice that the person has filed notice of appeal with the superior court, the auditor or clerk shall then accept the filing of the declaration of candidacy and mark it "accepted under protest";

(2) The superior court shall conduct an expedited hearing and shall issue its order at the earliest possible time, recognizing that a final determination in such cases is a matter of the highest priority in order to allow the preparation of ballots within the time requirements imposed by Title 29 RCW;

(3) If the court finds that the person desiring to file a declaration of candidacy is eligible for such office, the court shall issue an order directing the auditor or clerk to fully accept the filing. If the court finds that the person is not eligible for such office, the appeal shall be dismissed and an order directed to the auditor or clerk to reject the filing.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Bailey yield to a question? Senator Bailey, the burden of proof is on the candidate according to this new section. What type of proof is he going to have to have?”
Senator Bailey: “Senator Rasmussen, the only thing this refers to is eligibility, mainly residential eligibility. It is a matter of where a county auditor knows and the candidate knows that they do not live in a district and as of now they just go in and sign up. The burden of proof has to be on the state to say they cannot file and the auditor cannot deny the filing. They have to take it to court and have them ruled off the ballot at the expense of the public.
“All this does is where they are knowingly not eligible, the auditor can refuse it and the candidate can go to superior court and get an immediate ruling as to whether or not they are eligible and that way the burden of proof is on the candidate.
“I am striving to eliminate those candidates that knowingly run for office when they don’t live in the district in which they are eligible and they, in doing so, take a loophole in the law that says that unless they are challenged in court they are eligible to proceed. The county auditors and the people we talked to thought it was a good amendment. Senator Grant had a bill just about the same type and I imagine he had a problem in his own area about the same thing but as it is now, the auditor has to accept any filing even though the person is not eligible.”
Further debate ensued.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE
February 12, 1976.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1364, changing law relating to contractual rights of school district certificated employees (reported by Committee on Education):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 28A.67.070 as now or hereafter amended, every person employed by a school district in a teaching or other nonsupervisory certificated position shall be subject to nonrenewal of employment contract as provided in this section during the first full three consecutive school years of employment by such district: PROVIDED, That if any such employee has been previously employed in such position by another school district in the state of Washington for three or more consecutive school years, the provisions of this section shall apply only to the first full school year of such employment. Employees as defined in this section shall hereinafter be referred to as "provisional employees".
In the event the superintendent of the school district determines that the employment contract of any provisional employee should not be renewed by the district for the next ensuing term, such provisional employee shall be notified thereof in writing on or before May 15th preceding the commencement of such school term, which notification shall state the reason or reasons for such determination. Such notice shall be served upon the provisional employee personally, or by certified or registered mail, or by leaving a copy of the notice at the place of his or her usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein. The determination of the superintendent shall be subject to the evaluation requirements of RCW 28A.67.065, as now or hereafter amended.

Every such provisional employee so notified, at his or her request made in writing and filed with the superintendent of the district within ten days after receiving such notice, shall be given the opportunity to meet informally with the superintendent for the purpose of requesting the superintendent to reconsider his or her decision. Such meeting shall be held no later than ten days following the receipt of such request, and the provisional employee shall be given written notice of the date, time and place of meeting at least three days prior thereto. At such meeting the provisional employee shall be given the opportunity to refute any facts upon which the superintendent’s determination was based and to make any argument in support of his or her request for reconsideration.

Within ten days following the meeting with the provisional employee, the superintendent shall either reinstate the provisional employee or shall submit to the school district board of directors for consideration at its next regular meeting a written report recommending that the employment contract of the provisional employee be nonrenewed and stating the reason or reasons therefor. A copy of such report shall be delivered to the provisional employee at least three days prior to the scheduled meeting of the board of directors. In taking action upon the recommendation of the superintendent, the board of directors shall consider any written communication which the provisional employee may file with the secretary of the board at any time prior to that meeting.

The board of directors shall notify the provisional employee in writing of its final decision within ten days following the meeting at which the superintendent’s recommendation was considered. The decision of the board of directors to nonrenew the contract of a provisional employee shall be final and not subject to appeal.

This section applies to any person employed by a school district in a teaching or other nonsupervisory certificated position after the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act. This section provides the exclusive means for nonrenewing the employment contract of a provisional employee and no other provision of law shall be applicable thereto, including, without limitation, RCW 28A.58.450 through 28A.58.515, 28A.67.070, and chapter 28A.88 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 2. Section 28A.58.450, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section I, chapter 49, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.58.450 are each amended to read as follows:

[Every board of directors determining] In the event it is determined that there is probable cause or causes for a teacher, principal, supervisor, superintendent, or other certificated employee, holding a position as such with the school district, hereinafter referred to as “employee”, to be discharged or otherwise adversely affected in his or her contract status, [shall notify] such employee shall be notified in writing of [its] that decision, which notification shall specify the probable cause or causes for such action. Such determinations of probable cause for certificated employees, other than the superintendent, shall be made by the superintendent. Such notices shall be served upon that employee personally, or by certified or registered mail, or by leaving a copy of the notice at the house of his or her usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein. Every such employee so notified, at his or her request made in writing and filed with the president, chairman of the board or secretary of the board of directors of the district within ten days after receiving such notice, shall be granted opportunity for a hearing pursuant to section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act to determine whether or not there is sufficient cause or causes for his or her discharge or other adverse action against his contract status. [In the request for hearing, the employee may request either an open or closed hearing. The board upon receipt of such request shall call the hearing to be held within ten days following the receipt of such request, and at least three days prior to the date fixed for the hearing shall notify such employee in writing of the date, time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be open or closed as requested by the employee, but if the employee fails to make such a request, the board or its hearing officer may determine whether the hearing shall be open or closed. The board may employ as a hearing officer any person not currently employed by the district to conduct on its behalf any hearing required by this section, who shall transmit to the board a record of the proceedings together with his recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law, and an advisory recommended decision for the board's final disposition. The board or its hearing officer may reasonably regulate the conduct of the hearing. The employee may engage such counsel and produce such witnesses as he or she may desire. The board of directors, within ten days following the conclusion of such hearing, shall notify such employee in writing of its final decision. Any decision to discharge or to take other adverse action against such employee shall be based solely upon the cause or causes for discharge specified in the notice of probable cause to the employee and established by a preponderance of the evidence at the hearing to be sufficient cause or causes for discharge or other adverse action against his contract status.]

In the event any such notice or opportunity for hearing is not timely given by the district, or in the event cause for discharge or other adverse action is not established by a preponderance of the evidence at the hearing, such employee shall not be discharged or otherwise adversely affected in his contract status for the causes stated in the original notice for the duration of his or her contract.

If such employee does not request a hearing as provided herein, such employee may discharged or otherwise adversely affected as provided in the notice served upon the employee.

RCW 28A.58.450 through 28A.58.515, as now or hereafter amended, shall not be applicable to "provisional employees" as so designated in section 1 of this 1976 amenddatory act; transfer to a subordinate certificated position as that procedure is set forth in section 9 of this 1976 amendatory act shall not be construed as a discharge or other adverse action against contract status for the purposes of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 22, chapter 34, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 288, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.67.065 are each amended to read as follows:

[Every board of directors, in accordance with procedure provided in RCW 41.59.010 through 41.59.170, 41.59.910 and 41.59.920, shall establish an evaluative cri-tera and procedures for all certificated employees. Such procedure shall require not less than annual evaluation of all employees. New employees shall be evaluated within the first ninety calendar days of their employment. Every employee whose work is judged unsatisfactory shall be notified in writing of stated areas of deficiencies along with recommendations for improvement by February 1st of each year. A probationary period shall be established from February 1st to April 15th for the employee to demonstrate improvement. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall, on or before January 1, 1977, establish and may amend from time to time minimum criteria for the evaluation of the professional performance capabilities and development of certificated classroom teachers and certificated support personnel. For classroom teachers the criteria shall be developed in the following categories: Instructional skill; classroom management, professional preparation and scholarship; effort toward improvement when needed; the handling of student discipline and attendant problems; and interest in teaching pupils and knowledge of subject matter. For certificated support personnel minimum evaluation criteria shall be developed by the superintendent of public instruction. Such criteria shall be subject to review by November 1, 1976, by four members of the legislature, one from each caucus of each house, including the chairpersons of the respective education committees.

Every board of directors shall, in accordance with procedure provided in RCW 41.59.010 through 41.59.170, 41.59.910 and 41.59.920, establish evaluative criteria and procedures for all certificated classroom teachers and certificated support personnel.
The evaluative criteria must contain as a minimum the criteria established by the superintendent of public instruction pursuant to this section and must be prepared within six months following adoption of the superintendent of public instruction's minimum criteria. The district must certify to the superintendent of public instruction that evaluative criteria have been so prepared by the district.

It shall be the responsibility of a principal or his or her designee to evaluate all certificated personnel in his or her school. During each school year all classroom teachers and certificated support personnel, hereinafter referred to as "employees" in this section, shall be observed for the purposes of evaluation at least twice in the performance of their assigned duties. Total observation time for each employee for each school year shall be not less than sixty minutes. Following each observation, or series of observations, the principal or other evaluator shall promptly document the results of the evaluation in writing, and shall provide the employee with a copy thereof within three days after such report is prepared. New employees shall be observed at least once for a total observation time of thirty minutes during the first ninety calendar days of their employment period.

Every employee whose work is judged unsatisfactory based on district evaluation criteria shall be notified in writing of stated specific areas of deficiencies along with a suggested specific and reasonable program for improvement on or before February 1st of each year. A probationary period shall be established beginning on or before February 1st and ending no later than May 1st. The purpose of the probationary period is to give the employee opportunity to demonstrate improvements in his or her areas of deficiency. The establishment of the probationary period and the giving of the notice to the employee of deficiency shall be by the school district superintendent and need not be submitted to the board of directors for approval. During the probationary period the evaluator shall meet with the employee at least twice monthly to supervise and make a written evaluation of the progress, if any, made by the employee. The evaluator may authorize one additional certificated employee to evaluate the probationer and to aid the employee in improving his or her areas of deficiency; such additional certificated employee shall be immune from any civil liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed. The probationer may be removed from probation if he or she has demonstrated improvement to the satisfaction of the principal in those areas specifically detailed in his or her initial notice of deficiency and subsequently detailed in his or her improvement program. Lack of necessary improvement shall be specifically documented in writing with notification to the probationer and shall constitute grounds for a finding of probable cause under RCW 28A.38.450 or 28A.67.070, as now or hereafter amended.

The establishment of a probationary period shall not be deemed to adversely affect the contract status of an employee within the meaning of RCW 28A.38.450, as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Every board of directors shall establish evaluative criteria and procedures for all superintendents, principals, and other administrators. It shall be the responsibility of the district superintendent or his or her designee to evaluate all administrators. Such evaluation shall be based on the administrative position job description. Such criteria, when applicable, shall include at least the following categories: knowledge of, experience in, and training in recognizing good professional performance, capabilities and development; school administration and management; school finance; professional preparation and scholarship; effort toward improvement when needed; interest in pupils, employees, patrons and subjects taught in school; leadership; and ability and performance of evaluation of school personnel.

(3) Each certificated employee shall have the opportunity for confidential conferences with his or her immediate supervisor on no less than two occasions in each school year. Such confidential conference shall have as its sole purpose the aiding of the administrator in his or her professional performance.

(4) The failure of any evaluator to evaluate or supervise or cause the evaluation or supervision of certificated employees or administrators in accordance with this section, as now or hereafter amended, when it is his or her specific assigned or delegated responsibility to do so, shall be sufficient cause for the nonrenewal of any such evaluator's contract under RCW 28A.67.070, as now or hereafter amended, or a dismissal of such evaluator under RCW 28A.58.450, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 16, chapter 15, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 133, chapter 275, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.67.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No teacher, principal, supervisor, superintendent, or other certificated employee, holding a position as such with a school district, hereinafter referred to as "employee", shall be employed except by written order of a majority of the directors of the district at a regular or special meeting thereof, nor unless he is the holder of an effective teacher's certificate or other certificate required by law or the state board of education for the position for which the employee is employed.

The board shall make with each employee employed by it a written contract, which shall be in conformity with the laws of this state, and except as otherwise provided by law, limited to a term of not more than one year. Every such contract shall be made in triplicate, one copy to be retained by the school district superintendent or secretary, one copy to be retained, after having been approved and registered, by the educational service district superintendent, and one copy to be delivered to the employee thereafter. No contract shall be offered by any board nor approved and registered by the educational service district superintendent for the employment of any [teacher] employee who has previously signed [a] an employment contract [to teach] for that same term in another school district of the state of Washington unless such [teacher] employee shall have been released from his or her obligations under such previous contract by the board of directors of the school district to which he or she was obligated. Any contract signed in violation of this provision shall be void.

[Every board of directors determining] In the event it is determined that there is probable cause or causes that the employment contract of an employee should not be renewed by the district for the next ensuing term [shall notify that] such employee shall be notified in writing on or before [April] May 15th preceding the commencement of such term of that determination [of the board of directors], which notification shall specify the cause or causes for nonrenewal of contract. Such determination of probable cause for certificated employees, other than the superintendent, shall be made by the superintendent. Such notice shall be served upon the employee personally, or by certified or registered mail, or by leaving a copy of the notice at the house of his or her usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein. Every such employee so notified, at his or her request made in writing and filed with the president, chairman or secretary of the board of directors of the district within ten days after receiving such notice, shall be granted opportunity for hearing pursuant to section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act to determine whether [or not the facts constitute] there is sufficient cause or causes for nonrenewal of contract. [In the request for hearing, the employee may request either an open or closed hearing. Such board upon receipt of such request shall call the hearing to be held within ten days following the receipt of such request, and at least three days prior to the date fixed for the hearing shall notify the employee in writing of the date, time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be open or closed as requested by the employee, but if the employee fails to make such a request, the board or its hearing officer may determine whether the hearing shall be open or closed.]

The board may employ as a hearing officer any person not currently employed by the district to conduct on its behalf any hearing required by this section, who shall transmit to the board a record of the proceeding together with his recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law, and an advisory recommended decision for the board's final disposition. The board or its hearing officer may reasonably regulate the conduct of the hearing. The employee may engage such counsel and produce such witnesses as he or she may desire. The board of directors, within ten days following the conclusion of such hearing, shall notify the employee in writing of its final decision either to renew or not to renew the employment of the employee for the next ensuing term. Any decision not to renew such employment contract shall be based solely upon the cause or causes for nonrenewal specified in the notice of probable cause to the employee and established by a preponderance of the evidence at the hearing to be sufficient cause or causes for nonrenewal.] If any such notification or opportunity for hearing is not timely given [by the district], the employee entitled thereto shall be conclusively presumed to have been reemployed by the district for the next ensuing term upon contractual terms identical with those which would have prevailed if his or her employment had actually been renewed by the board of directors for such ensuing term.

This section shall not be applicable to "provisional employees" as so designated in section 1 of this 1976 amendatory act; transfer to a subordinate certificated position as that procedure is set forth in section 9 of this 1976 amendatory act shall not be construed as a nonrenewal of contract for the purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(3) The employee may engage counsel who shall be entitled to represent the employee at the prehearing conference held pursuant to subsection (4) of this section and at all subsequent proceedings pursuant to this section. At the hearing provided for by this section, the employee may produce such witnesses as he or she may desire.

(4) Within ten days following the receipt of a request by an employee for a hearing pursuant to RCW 28A.58.450 or 28A.67.070, as now or hereafter amended, the board of directors of the district shall appoint a hearing officer pursuant to subsection (5) of this section and shall also schedule a prehearing conference to be held within such ten day period. The employee shall be given written notice of the date, time, and place of such prehearing conference at least three days prior to the date established for such conference. If the employee objects to the person selected as the hearing officer, the employee may at the prehearing conference file an affidavit of prejudice, whereupon the board shall promptly appoint a replacement hearing officer and schedule the prehearing conference to convene within ten days. An employee may not file more than one affidavit of prejudice in a single proceeding.

(5) Any hearing officer appointed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall be a member in good standing of the Washington state bar association. No person shall be eligible to serve as a hearing officer if: He or she is currently employed as legal counsel or in any other capacity by any school district; or, he or she is a member of the board of directors of any school district, or, he or she is associated in the practice of law with any such person: PROVIDED, That appointment as a hearing officer pursuant to this subsection shall not constitute employment by a school district for purposes of this section. The district appointing a hearing officer shall pay all costs and expenses associated with such appointment.

(6) The hearing officer shall preside at any prehearing conference scheduled pursuant to subsection (4) of this section and in connection therewith shall:

(a) Issue such subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum as either party may request at that time or thereafter; and

(b) Authorize the taking of prehearing depositions at the request of either party at that time or thereafter; and

(c) Provide for such additional methods of discovery as may be authorized by the civil rules applicable in the superior courts of the state of Washington; and

(d) Establish the date for the commencement of the hearing, to be within ten days.
following the date of the prehearing conference, unless the employee requests a continuance, in which event the hearing officer shall give due consideration to such request.

(7) The hearing officer shall preside at any hearing and in connection therewith shall:

(a) Make rulings as to the admissibility of evidence pursuant to the rules of evidence applicable in the superior courts of the state of Washington; and

(b) Make other appropriate rulings of law and procedure.

(8) Except as provided in subsection (9) of this section, the board of directors of the district shall have the following duties and responsibilities in connection with any hearing conducted pursuant to this section:

(a) Not less than a quorum of the board shall hear all of the evidence admitted during the hearing.

(b) At the conclusion of the hearing board members who have heard all of the evidence shall deliberate in private and shall reach a final decision by vote of a majority of the members participating at the hearing.

(c) Written notice of the final decision of the board of directors shall be sent to the employee as promptly as possible and in no event later than ten days after the conclusion of the hearing.

(9) In lieu of the hearing procedures provided for in subsections (7) and (8) of this section, the board at the time it schedules the prehearing conference pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, may elect to have the hearing conducted by the hearing officer without board participation and if the board so elects, it shall give written notice thereof to the employee at or before the time of said prehearing conference. The hearing officer shall have the following duties at any hearing conducted by the hearing officer without board participation:

(a) The hearing officer shall make rulings as to the admissibility of evidence pursuant to the rules of evidence applicable in the superior court of the state of Washington.

(b) The hearing officer shall make other appropriate rulings of law and procedure.

(c) Within ten days following the conclusion of the hearing the hearing officer shall transmit in writing to the board and to the employee, findings of fact and conclusions of law and final decision.

(10) Any final decision by the board or the hearing officer to nonrenew the employment contract of the employee, or to discharge the employee, or to take other action adverse to the employee's contract status, as the case may be, shall be based solely upon the cause or causes specified in the notice of probable cause to the employee and shall be established by a preponderance of the evidence at the hearing to be sufficient cause or causes for such action.

(11) All subpoenas and prehearing discovery orders shall be enforceable by and subject to the contempt and other equity powers of the superior court of the county in which the school district is located upon petition of any aggrieved party.

(12) A complete record shall be made of the hearing and all orders and rulings of the hearing officer and school board.

Sec. 6. Section 28A.58.480, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 34, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.480 are each amended to read as follows:

Any appeal to the superior court by an employee shall be heard [de novo] by the superior court without a jury. Such appeal shall be heard expeditiously. The superior court's review shall be confined to the verbatim transcript of the hearing and the papers and exhibits admitted into evidence at the hearing, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure not shown in the transcript or exhibits and in cases of alleged abridgment of the employee's constitutional free speech rights, the court may take additional testimony on the alleged procedural irregularities or abridgment of free speech rights. The court shall hear oral argument and receive written briefs offered by the parties.

The court may affirm the decision of the board or hearing officer or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if the substantial rights of the employee may have been prejudiced because the decision was:
(1) In violation of constitutional provisions; or
(2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the board or hearing officer; or
(3) Made upon unlawful procedure; or
(4) Affected by other error of law; or
(5) Clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in the act of the legislature authorizing the decision or order; or

Sec. 7. Section 28A.58.490, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 16, chapter 34, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.490 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court enters judgment for the employee, and if the court finds that the probable cause determination was made in bad faith or upon insufficient legal grounds, the court in its discretion may award to the employee a reasonable attorney's fee for the preparation and trial of his appeal, together with his taxable costs in the superior court. If the court enters judgment for the employee, in addition to ordering the school board to reinstate or issue a new contract to the employee, the court may award damages for loss of compensation incurred by the employee by reason of the action of the school district.

Sec. 8. Section 18, chapter 34, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 49, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.58.515 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that an employee receives a notice of probable cause pursuant to RCW 28A.58.450 or 28A.67.070, as now or hereafter amended, stating that by reason of a lack of sufficient funds or loss of levy election the employment contract of such employee should not be renewed for the next ensuing school term or that the same should be adversely affected, the employee may appeal any said probable cause determination directly to the superior court of the county in which the school district is located. Such appeal shall be perfected by serving upon the secretary of the school board and filing with the clerk of the superior court a notice of appeal within ten days after receiving the probable cause notice. The notice of appeal shall set forth in a clear and concise manner the action appealed from. The superior court shall determine whether or not there was sufficient cause for the action as specified in the probable cause notice, which cause must be proven by a preponderance of the evidence, and shall base its determination solely upon the cause or causes stated in the notice of the employee. The appeal provided in this section shall be tried as an ordinary civil action:

PROVIDED, That the board of directors' determination of priorities for the expenditure of funds shall be subject to superior court review pursuant to the standards set forth in RCW 28A.58.480, as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of RCW 28A.58.490 and 28A.58.500, as now or hereafter amended, shall be applicable thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any certificated employee of a school district employed as an assistant superintendent, director, principal, assistant principal, coordinator, or in any other supervisory or administrative position, hereinafter in this section referred to as “administrator”, shall be subject to transfer, at the expiration of the term of his or her employment contract, to any subordinate certificated position within the school district. “Subordinate certificated position” as used in this section, shall mean any administrative or non-administrative certificated position for which the annual compensation is less than the position currently held by the administrator.

Every superintendent determining that the best interests of the school district would be served by transferring any administrator to a subordinate certificated position shall notify that administrator in writing on or before May 15th preceding the commencement of such school term of that determination, which notification shall state the reason or reasons for the transfer, and shall identify the subordinate certificated position to which the administrator will be transferred. Such notice shall be served upon the administrator personally, or by certified or registered mail, or by leaving a copy of the notice at the place of his or her usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein.

Every such administrator so notified, at his or her request made in writing and filed with the president or chairman, or secretary of the board of directors of the district within ten days after receiving such notice, shall be given the opportunity to meet informally with the board of directors in an executive session thereof for the purpose of requesting the board to reconsider the decision of the superintendent. Such board, upon receipt of such request, shall schedule the meeting for no later than the next regularly scheduled meeting of the board, and shall notify the administrator in writing of the date, time and place of the meeting at least three days prior thereto. At such meeting the administrator shall be given the opportunity to refute any facts upon which the determination was based and to make any argument in support of his or her request for reconsideration. The administrator and the board may invite their respective legal counsel to be present and to participate at the meeting. The board shall notify the administrator in writing of its final decision within ten days following its meeting with the administrator. No appeal to the courts shall lie from the final decision of the board of directors to transfer an administrator to a subordinate certificated position: PROVIDED, That in the case of principals such transfer shall be made at the expiration of the contract year and only during the first three consecutive school years of employment as a principal by a school district; except that if any such principal has been previously employed as a principal by another school district in the state of Washington for three or more consecutive school years the provisions of this section shall apply only to the first full school year of such employment.

This section applies to any person employed as an administrator by a school district on the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act and to all persons so employed at any time thereafter. This section provides the exclusive means for transferring an administrator to a subordinate certificated position at the expiration of the term of his or her employment contract and no other provision of law shall be applicable thereto, including, without limitation, RCW 28A.58.450 through 28A.58.515, 28A.67.065, 28A.67.070, and chapter 28A.88 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter __ (HB 1356), Laws of 1975-1976 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.137 are each amended to read as follows:

In all districts the board of directors shall elect a superintendent who shall have such qualification as the local school board alone shall determine. (He) The superintendent shall have supervision over the several departments of the schools thereof and carry out such other powers and duties as prescribed by law. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 28A.58.100(1), the board may contract with such superintendent for a term not to exceed three years when deemed in the best interest of the district. The right to renew a contract of employment with any school superintendent shall rest solely with the discretion of the school board employing such school superintendent. Regarding such renewal contracts of school superintendents the provisions of RCW 28A.58.450 through 28A.58.515, 28A.67.065, 28A.67.070, 28A.67.074 and 28A.88.010 shall be inapplicable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Nothing in this 1976 amendatory act shall be construed to annul or to modify or to preclude the continuation of any lawful agreement entered into prior to the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this 1976 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Will Senator Gould yield? Do you mean that principals and vice principals will be frozen into the position after three years so that they cannot be removed by the superintendent?"

Senator Gould: "The intention of this section was that principals and vice principals would have the same protection after the three-year provisional period as teachers would have, and I will be glad to respond to . . . ."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Gould, then, in case that you have a modification of your administration, you have a new superintendent coming into your school and he happens to fall into a group of principals that will not cooperate that have been there more than three years, he then is stuck in the same position he is now. He cannot remove them without going to court and really getting into trouble. Is that right?"

Senator Gould: "Yes. He will have to go through the same process for the principals as he will have to go through for the teachers and I will be glad to explain the rationale behind it."

Senator Bailey: "In other words, the rationale given us the last time was that you are providing the administrators with the right to organize their administrations. Now you are saying that under this bill they would not have it again after three years."

Senator Gould: "We are talking only about principals and assistant principals and we are extending this particular provision of the continuing contract to principals for a specific reason and not to other administrators. First of all, may I back up to say this, it was originally suggested in the House on the floor, and it got lost on a technicality, but the reason for this is that principals themselves often have to go out on point. They are the ones that are responsive to the students. They have to work with the parents in the area and they have to work with their own teachers in their buildings and sometimes they go out and point for those teachers. Sometimes they have to say to the rest of the administration, 'No. I think you are wrong.' In order to have the protection to be able to do that, we felt it was necessary to give them the protection of the continuing contract law when, as principals they have those protections now. With the bill as it is, they will have less protection because also the teachers will have less protection.'

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "I have another question of Senator Gould. Senator Gould, would you yield? Yes, or no, probably, but is this not a change of position from the original 3002?"

Senator Gould: "Yes, it is. A lot of this bill is different than 3002. It was the provision that was written into the bill that the Senate education committee made as an amendment."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, another question. I really think — and this does not have a question mark on the end of it. This is a complete subject that was not discussed in caucus nor even brought up in caucus. It is a change in the original content of the bill and I think it is subject to either further discussion or further amendment. I can see protecting a principal and giving him his job back but I cannot see freezing a principal into the position that he has over and above the protests of a new administrator."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

With the permission of Senator Gould, the amendment by Senators Stortini and Gould to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Gould mentioned another part of the bill, though, that this was buried into. I would like to know where that is so by withdrawing this one, we haven't left the other objectionable part in the bill."

Senator Gould: "Senator, I am not sure I mentioned there was another part of the..."

Senator Bailey: "I thought you said this was to doubly enforce another part of the bill. Is there someplace else we are giving protection to these people?"

Senator Gould: "No — it..."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Gould yield to a question, please? Senator Gould, now, with the withdrawal of this amendment, I understand that a new superintendent coming into a school district could simply wipe out all of the principals and administrators, send them all back to being school teachers, bump the school teachers that are there. That would be the price of bringing a new administrator in. You wouldn't have to have any reason. He could just say, 'I have my own boys and I am going to have my own principals and my own assistant principals and my own administrators'."

Senator Gould: "You are the lawyer, Senator, but I would say it would remove the protection of the continuing contract but they would still be under regular contract law. So they would have to have the due process that regular contract laws..."

Senator Bottiger: "Isn't it correct that as to principals and assistant principals, we don't have all of this. They are the people who are doing the evaluations. There isn't anybody evaluating them so they don't have all this protection and without this amendment that you just withdrew, now the superintendent just got a free hand. He cleans house right at assistant principals on up."

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bailey, Marsh, Matson, Donohue, Scott, Stortini, Goltz, Ridder and Newschwander.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mardesich: "Point of personal privilege. I would assume that the clerk would transmit immediately to the House without motion — I would like to point out that I see some members of the House standing by. I hope that they will remember that just some ten months ago this Senate indicated that when reform was accomplished work would begin on solution of the financial problems of the schools. We have begun that step and I hope the House will recognize it and do something about this bill."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the second order of business.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Pro Tempore Henry appointed Senators Wilson, Day, Sellar, Benitz, Walgren and Newschwander as a committee of honor to escort Senator Dan Jolly and his wife, Harriet; also Mr. Jack Silvers, Master of the Washington State Grange, to a place of honor upon the Senate rostrum.

President Pro Tempore Henry turned the gavel over to Senator Wilson.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, and honored guests, one day last Fall, after Senator Dan Jolly had harvested another fabulously profitable wheat crop, he and Mrs. Jolly decided to spend a weekend in Spokane just to relax so they got a room at the Davenport Hotel. That evening Mrs. Jolly felt she would just like to stay around the room and take it easy and Senator Jolly felt like taking in a movie so he went out to a show. Driving back from the show he saw, to his amazement, a penguin wandering around the freeway and he knew the bird would probably get it good unless something were done and so he picked it up and put it in his car.
“I can assure you that Mrs. Jolly was a little surprised when her husband arrived back in the hotel room with this real live penguin.

“She said, ‘That bird is not going to stay here in our room tonight.’

“Dan said, ‘What can we do with a penguin in the middle of the night?’

“Finally, Mrs. Jolly agreed that it could stay there that night but first thing the next morning that bird must be taken to the zoo. Next morning they got up and Harriet said, ‘Now, Dan, the first thing you are going to do today is take that penguin to the zoo.’

“And Dan said, ‘All right. Okay. I will.’ So he went off with the penguin.

“About noon, Senator Jolly reappeared at the hotel room and he still had the penguin, and Harriet said, ‘What in heaven’s name are you doing? I told you to take that penguin to the zoo.’ and Dan replied, ‘Well, I did and he enjoyed it so much I am going to take him to a ball game this afternoon.’

“This morning we are going to have a short and simple program paying tribute to a colleague who will be departing after fourteen years service in the Washington State Legislature. And aside from being a compassionate protector of wildlife, Senator Dan Jolly is and has been many things.

“He is a legitimate pioneer, having been born in 1907 in a homestead shack near Leahy in Douglas County. A devoted husband and father, a wheat farmer for over sixty years, a Grange member for fifty years, and a member of the State Grange Executive Committee for twenty-eight years, a hospital district commissioner for twelve years, the Mayor of Connell for fourteen years, a Franklin County public utility district commissioner for twenty-two years, and president of the State PUD Association and the Northwest Public Power Association, and finally, a state legislator since 1963; eight years in the House and six in the Senate. Always active — particularly in the areas of transportation and agriculture — and presently chairman of the Senate committee on agriculture.

“It is clear, is it not, that here is a man to whom his own friends and neighbors — the people who know him best — repeatedly have turned to when the interests of the community demanded attention and when there were things that needed to be done. Quiet, unassuming, totally honest, highly respected by all who know him. Truly, Dan Jolly epitomizes the best we might expect to find in an American citizen whose first concern was his family but who, beyond that, has devoted thousands of hours over the past half century to serving the public good.

“Dan, I can tell you we could have filled this Chamber with people who would like to come up here and pay tribute to you today. I want you to know that your secretary, Phyllis Sartain, is here; a large delegation from the state Grange office in Seattle; many other friends of yours and theirs. But in the interest of brevity — for Dan Jolly himself, as you might have expected — asked for a short program if one were to be held at all. We have selected one person whom we think might speak on behalf of all those in attendance who would like to pay tribute to you today. I doubt that we could have selected a more appropriate person. It is my pleasure to present the Master of the Washington State Grange, Jack Silvers.”

REMARKS BY JACK SILVERS

Mr. Silvers: "Senator Wilson, Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is a privilege for me to have the opportunity to join with you in recognizing Senator Dan Jolly. As Senator Wilson indicated, next month Senator Jolly will have completed fifty years of active service to the Grange organization. He has served as a member of the State Grange executive committee more than half of this time. I have had the privilege of serving with him many years on that executive committee. Dan here was reelected to this position last June, making his tenth consecutive three-year term, and overlapping the terms of three state masters.

"Over this period of time his advice and counsel have been sought and greatly appreciated by the three state masters, Henry Carstensen, Lars Nelson, and myself. His progressive attitude projected in his own quiet manner has been a strong influence in guiding the direction and destiny of the Washington State Grange over these many years.

"In 1971 he was the recipient of the Washington State Grange leadership award which was presented in recognition of distinguished service in the areas of agriculture, resource development, civic betterment and organizational leadership. The active participation of Senator Jolly and his wife, Harriet, and their willingness to give of their time and talent has been of great benefit to the Grange organization.

"During his legislative career he has played an important part in the development of meaningful agricultural legislation, particularly in the areas of marketing and commodity self-help programs. His understanding and support of agricultural programs have been of benefit to the agricultural industry and the state.

"I am pleased to have this opportunity to publicly thank Senator Jolly and Harriet for directing their energies and so disciplining their lives in such a manner as to benefit their own community, the agricultural community and the Grange organization. Thank you, Senator Wilson and Mr. President."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

Senator Wilson: "Thank you, Jack. At this time our distinguished presiding officer, Senator Al Henry, has a presentation to make."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "There are only a few of the members here who know that my association with Dan and Harriet goes back far beyond the time of entering these marble halls. As a comparative youngster in those days — 1940 during my first campaign and before I was redistricted five times trying to find a combination that would get me out of here — my district took in Connell and the tri-cities — one of my strongest boosters and his wife, Harriet. They gave me encouragement. They helped me get elected in one of those landslides by thirty-one votes and I have been eternally grateful to them. I was pleased that Dan decided to get into the field of politics where he has served so well. At the time he was serving fourteen years as mayor of his small town, I was serving the same fourteen years as the mayor of my small town. So we have a lot in common except he has a wheat crop and I didn't have.

"At this time I would like to present to Harriet these roses in a token of our love and affection for the Jolly family."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

"Senator Wilson: "Fellow Senators, I should to say to Dan, we have prepared the customary resolution expressing our gratitude toward you, Dan. I have to be perfectly honest with you. While you were off the floor a couple of days ago, we brought this resolution up and it failed to pass by a vote of twenty-five to twenty-three. We have it up for reconsideration now, and we have done quite a bit of arm twisting and hope we are going to be able to get it through today."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENITZ

Senator Benitz: "Senator Wilson said there would only be one speech but I really requested that I have a chance to make just a couple remarks about my friend, Senator Jolly. Members of the Senate, family and friends, it has been my special privilege to work very closely with Senator Jolly for the last number of years in the House of Representatives and in the last two years in the Senate. But I have a special reason to cite Dan Jolly as a very cherished friend and respected leader; truly a great Senator for the State of Washington.

"Back in the 1960's there was, in the farm organizations, a long and sometimes bitter battle fought over the direction of federal farm programs. That is when I first became acquainted with Senator Jolly and I have a great respect for his conduct at that time. He was, and as you have heard today is, still active in the Washington State Grange. I, in another farm organization known as the Farm Bureau. The issue at that time was known as the 'wheat referendum' and as farmers can do, sometimes we argued rather heatedly and sometimes a bit bitterly. But through that period of time when I came to know Dan Jolly, he always kept his cool. And that is all history now. Those farm organizations have a fine spirit of cooperation and I feel sure that a lot of it came because of the efforts of Senator Dan Jolly."
“So I feel that through the last two years with the great respect I have for him and serving on the agricultural committee with him, we have never had anything except free and open discussion and certainly the committee on agriculture has never allowed partisan politics to enter in any discussion that would have anything to do with the production of your food. I think that is a very important issue. To Senator Jolly, members of the sixteenth district and the people of the State of Washington, here is truly a dedicated public servant. I am sure the entire citizenship of the State of Washington is much better off today because of the leadership of Senator Jolly.

“Many, many happy years of retirement, Dan. It has been great to work with you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: “Mr. Chairman, and may I use the words, ‘Brother Dan and Harriet,’ members of the Grange, ladies and gentlemen in the galleries, and my colleagues in the Senate. Dan, as of today you have three hundred and seventeen days to go. I have to say that the retirement of Senator Dan Jolly is a loss to the entire State of Washington. Dan Jolly looks like a Senator. He talks like a Senator. He carries himself like a Senator and he is an outstanding Senator. The list read by the chairman of the background of Senator Jolly is like one taken from ‘Who’s Who’.

“What a wonderful life of dedication by a very fine gentleman. The resolution, the words, ‘Dan Jolly, quiet and yet strong. Kind, yet persuasive.’ Arent those truly the beautiful words that typify our good Senator? Then they call him a devoted public servant and a devout family man. I watched Senator Jolly and Harriet throughout the years and these two people are still in love. A wonderful thing in this day of 1976. Two very fine people whom God blessed and placed upon this earth.

“Now, the name Jolly means just what it means — jolly and good natured. I found a letter — or someone gave it to me — written by Dan Jolly’s mother to him many years ago and I would like to read it to you.

‘Dear son, your paw has a good job now, the first in forty-eight years. We are a great deal better off than we were. Your paw gets fourteen ninety-five every Thursday, so we thought we would do a little fixing up. We went to Monkey Ward’s for one of them new-fangled things called a bathroom that you hear tell of in some houses. It is put in place by a man called a plumber. One side of the room is a big long thing like the pigs drink out of only you get in it and wash your body all over. On the other side of the room is a little white thing called a sink. This is to wash little things like your face and hands. But over in the corner, son, we have got something there. A little contraption that you put one foot in and wash it, and then you pull a chain and get fresh water to wash the other foot in. Two lids come with the darn thing and we don’t have any use for them so I am using one for a bread board and the other one has a big hole in it so we took it and framed grandpaw’s picture with it. They are awful nice people to deal with. They gave us a big roll of writin’ paper with it.’

“I couldn’t help but read this because Dan Jolly came from a farm and he is proud of it. I know I have spoken too long, but it is an honor and a pleasure to say a very few kind words about a very nice Senator and his wife.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: “Dan and Mrs. Jolly, we are going to miss you. It is pretty tough to follow an act like Senator Knoblauch but I thought I would just have to get up and say a few words. I think, although my relationship has not been over as many years as some of the members in this body, it has been somewhat unique. I don’t know whether you recall it as well as I do, but a couple of years after you came to the legislature when I was young and raring to go, I was the committee clerk for the local government committee. Coming from the big city, I didn’t know that much about — as a matter of fact I had not been to other parts of the State of Washington. It was you and Representative Haussler that from your point of view from the farm side of the state — from the smaller cities — from the smaller counties — added to the knowledge that I was to gain about local government. Dan, I appreciate that.

“Now, as chairman of local government, you have done the same thing. When I took over chairmanship of local government I felt as though I had to learn as much — and know as much, or more — than any member of that committee to be able to do a good job. And you helped. When I have had to be away and couldn’t attend to my responsibilities as chairman — and I haven’t missed many days since because you did such a good job.

“[Senator] I would like to say just on behalf of the members of the committee on local government, we are going to miss you and we have prospered by the fact that you were there. Best of luck.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR R. H. ("BOB") LEWIS

Senator Lewis: “Yes, Mr. President, I first met Dan Jolly when he was serving the dual capacity as Mayor of Connell and as a state legislator and I was holding an office at the time in the Association of Washington Cities. I have since had the pleasure of serving with him on the local government committee — and Dan, I mean this in a very complimentary fashion when I say that you have been fair. You have approached these things on a local government level in a nonpartisan manner and with your approach and philosophy I regret that we didn’t get to you earlier because you would have made a darn good Republican. I offer that as a compliment, Dan. It is intended that way.

“Mr. Chairman, if your name were not on the resolution I would not offer an oral amendment to the resolution — but knowing of your concern for the English language and correctness — I must offer the amendment that on the last line after the word ‘wife’ and before the word ‘Harriet’ a comma be inserted. Now, Senator Wilson, you know what an appositive is. Not everyone might know what an appositive is but unless that comma is inserted, it could create a doubt. The comma will imply that ‘lovely wife’ and ‘Harriet’ mean one and the same thing. Without the comma it is restrictive and could mean that she is one of several wives. I don’t think that is the case.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: “Mr. President, I want to take this opportunity to recall some things that I feel strongly about as far as Senator Dan Jolly is concerned. Five of us began our legislative careers together in 1963. We are still here. We are all on the Democratic side of the aisle — a pretty small freshman class — Dan Jolly, Gordon Herr, Chuck Moon, Joe Haussler and myself. There couldn’t have been two guys — I don’t think — who had a greater contrast than Dan Jolly and myself. He has a few years on me. He was an Eastern Washington farmer. I have since picked up a little farm but I have been known primarily as a labor goon over the years. He is a pretty soft spoken guy and I probably speak too often and too loudly and am a little agitated from time to time and a little agitative from time to time as well. Dan is not that way. He is a real gentleman and one for whom I have a great deal of respect.

“We were at a party last year, the five of us freshmen, and the freshmen from 1963 — I should say a little bit about 1963 when Dan came to the House of Representatives. We thought we were going to be in the majority and Senator Day, there, kind of upset the apple cart—formed a coalition. Dan Jolly was one of the loyal forty-three in 1963, and so was I. He was a good Democrat then and he is a good Democrat now. I am sure he is proud of that. He has been a good man for the people of his district and the people of this state.

“I will miss you, Dan and Harriet. Good luck.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HERR

Senator Herr: “Thank you, Senator Wilson. I appreciated serving with you. Like Senator Grant said, I served in the House with you and I think you are probably one of the finest Senators the State of Washington Will ever have.

“You are a man of high ideals. You are a man of integrity and I don’t think there is a Senator on either side of the aisle who could say an ill word about you, how you voted, how you have treated us, and I would just like, in closing, to say that it has been a pleasure for myself personally, Dan, to have served with you and God bless you on your retirement.”
REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "I am commenting with regard to the resolution and some of the comments that have been made, Dan. Having had some contact with local government, I know the dedication that goes into serving as the mayor of a small town and of course the active participation that you had in utility districts and all the work that you have done. Many people who are visitors to the legislature go away with the feeling that the work is done on the floor of the Senate. Those of us who are closely connected with the legislators and legislative work know that that work really goes on in committee. I suppose that I got the opportunity of knowing you best as a result of your work with the transportation and utilities committee in the Senate and of course the legislative transportation committee.

"I can recall that as chairman, there have been several times that you and I have been the only ones who have been up at that committee meeting. As a matter of fact, we got our best bills out when there was just the two of us up there, Dan. I was there because I was the chairman and you were there because you had the dedication to be there at those committee meetings. We know that they go many times on and on and they get sometimes pretty boring but that is where the real work of the legislature is done. You have been not only prompt in attendance but constant in attendance. I can say the same with regard to work in the caucus.

"Many times we have a tendency to stray from there but you are there and you have always been there when you have been needed and I appreciate that very much, Dan."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Senator Jolly, and Harriet — I am going to correct something that Senator Lewis stated. Having known your ninety-nine year old father who still lives in my district or just north of my district — used to be in my district in Coulee City — and your Uncle Floyd, who lived to a ripe old age — they were real, solid Democrats all of those years. Senator Lewis, I don't think it would have made any difference if you had got to him first. I think he would still have remained a Democrat.

"Dan, of course coming from the thirteenth legislative district and having the Columbia Basin as a major part of my district and knowing what we need in the way of agricultural legislation, I just have to say I am not going to repeat all of these fine things that other people have said. I could, if we wanted to take the time, but we are particularly going to miss you in the thirteenth district. Your knowledge, as far as agriculture is concerned — and of course our area also has a big stake in power. The fact that you were a public utilities district commissioner for so long — that is, of course, where I first met you many years ago. We are going to miss that expertise. We are going to have too few people here in the legislature who have had your background in farming and agriculture and too few who really have had the ins and outs and the practical knowledge of the operation of a utility. With the power shortage coming to us, we are particularly going to miss your knowledge in that field.

"There are so many ways we are going to miss you, Dan, but these two particular things, I can just say from our own district we are going to miss you and we wish you could stay longer. But I can say this, that I am sure the Jollys are a family that know how to retire. I know your father who at ninety-nine years old is living a full and active life in Coulee City. I know that your Uncle Floyd, whom I knew as a boy, also after he retired — they had the background, they had the feeling, just as you have, of a life of service well done — so that you can really enjoy that retirement that you so richly deserve."

REMARKS BY SENATOR Van HOLLEBEKE

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Wilson and Mr. President, Senator Dan and Harriet, and members of the Senate. After Senator Knoblauch spoke, Senator Fleming said, 'that's a pretty hard act to follow.' You are a pretty hard act to follow, yourself, Senator Fleming. I think all of my colleagues have done far better than I could to express the wishes of the Senate and the love for Senator Dan and his wife."
"But the late Senator Perry Woodall and a group of us were out together one night and he told me about all the offices he had run for in his whole career. He had lost a race for governor and I think once for Congress and maybe one or two others, but the people of his district, he said, had never said no to Perry Woodall. Senator Dan, I think that when the people of your district repeatedly elected you to the hospital district commission, repeatedly elected you as a school board member, as a public utility district commissioner, as mayor of the City of Connell, as a House member and as a Senator, they have said it far better than we can ever say it. The people who know you best have never said no — have always said yes to Senator Jolly. We will miss you, Dan."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ODEGAARD

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I have a couple of school groups waiting for me to talk to them in the reception room but I really wanted to express some words for Senator Jolly that I have asked the hostess to hold them for a little while so I could do so.

"Now, I try to keep active in the local Grange activities and wherever I travel throughout my district to the different Granges, I am almost always asked wherever I go, 'I imagine that you know Senator Jolly,' and all of these different Grange people have met Senator and Mrs. Jolly over the years and always have the best words to say about Senator Jolly. I have certainly appreciated serving with him and sitting next to him and taking his advice and counsel on many of the heavy deliberations that we have here. We were really concerned about Senator Jolly the other day when he had to leave us for a few days for a health problem and we are glad to see him back and hope that he can overcome those health problems in the time ahead."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JOLLY

Senator Jolly: "Senator Wilson, Mr. President, members of the Senate. I appreciate this that you have done for me this morning. When I entered these legislative halls fourteen years ago I didn't have any idea that I would be here this long. When Senator Herr and Senator Grant, Representative Moon, Representative Haussler and I occupied the back row in 1963 we were all ignorant of the legislative process but we had a lot of fun back there. We are, all five of us, still here. I guess I am the first one to break the chain. "I will be retiring this year and I wish to say that I appreciate every one of you and I am going to miss you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

Senator Wilson: "Thank you. I think we might well agree that we are saying goodbye and away to one of the finest persons any of us has ever known. "I would ask the committee to come up here for a picture for Dan's scrapbook and then the ceremony will be concluded."

Mr. President: The House has passed REEN GROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3038, with the following amendments:
FIFTY-THIRD DAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1976

On page 1, beginning on line 11, strike all the material down to and including "invitees" on line 21 and insert: "(1) Any person who wilfully refuses to leave any motor vehicle, building, grounds or other property which is owned, operated or controlled by a public school district, upon being ordered to do so by a superintendent, or a principal or a vice principal or other designated official of the school district or by a law enforcement officer, when such person is committing or threatens to commit any act which would materially endanger the health, welfare, or safety of any school district students, officials, employees, or invitees shall be guilty of violating this section."

On page 1, beginning on line 21, after "invitees" strike all the material down to and including "amended." on line 30 and insert:

"(2) Any person guilty of violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction therefor, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in jail for not more than six months or both so fined and imprisoned."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION
Senator von Reichbauer moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 3038 and the House be asked to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Van Hollebeke: "I think there were perhaps more votes 'no' than 'yes' but all I would ask is for an explanation of the amendment."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, Senator Van Hollebeke, the proposal that passed this body some time ago had been modified by the House in many ways including deletion of authority over the adjacent property which was a key issue discussed here. Also, the extent of the penalty that the House imposed from sixty days to six months. We felt — those of us who sponsored the bill — and it was brought to my attention by Senator Guess who asked me specifically to help draft some amendatory language with the House attorneys, which we have done — that we do not concur. That is why I am glad the Senate voted not to concur."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "What was the penalty change again? From what to what?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Sixty days to six months."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "The maximum penalty."

Senator von Reichbauer: "We had sixty days and they have changed it to six months."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Okay, thank you."

The motion by Senator von Reichbauer carried. The Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 3038, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1345.

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1345, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Bauer, Bender and Ehlers):
Providing for a priority program of education.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE
February 12, 1976.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1345, providing for a priority program of education (reported by Committee on Education):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
After the enacting clause strike all the material and substitute the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 a new section to read as follows:
(1) It shall be the intent and purpose of sections 1 and 2 of this 1976 act to direct the office of superintendent of public instruction to conduct standardized reading, writing and mathematics and language arts achievement level surveys of approximately two thousand students distributed throughout the state in each of the grade levels 4, 8 and 11 during such testing cycles as provided for in subsection (2) of this section. The survey testing shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from these grade levels sufficient to generalize about all of the students at each of the selected grade levels from the state's school districts. The purpose of these surveys is to allow the public and the legislature to evaluate how Washington students in these grades compare to students in the same grades tested in other comparable national achievement surveys. The office of superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate such tests and provide such information as obtained therefrom to the legislature no less often than once every four years.
(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare a report to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades 4, 8 and 11 based on the achievement level surveys conducted in the 1975-77 biennium and for each of the subsequent testing cycles as designated by the superintendent of public instruction's office. Such report shall include a comparison of the achievement levels, including input variables attained by Washington students to the levels attained by students outside of the state, with special emphasis placed on the basic skills of reading, mathematics, and language arts. Such report shall also focus on appropriate input variables.
(3) Results of the first survey test shall be made available to the school districts and the legislature no later than June 30, 1977.
(4) In addition to the survey testing for grades 4, 8 and 11 as set forth in this 1976 Act, all pupils in grade two will be tested annually by an assessment device designed or selected by the local school districts. This test shall be used to help teachers in identifying those pupils in need of assistance in the skills of language and computation. The test results are not to be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, but are only to be used by the local school district.

On page 1, line 4 of the title after "RCW" strike the remainder of the title and insert a period.
Signed by: Senators Stortini, Chairman; Gould, McDermott, Murray, Newschwander.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
Senator Stortini moved adoption of the committee amendment.
On motion of Senator North, the following amendment by Senators Stortini and North to the committee amendment, was adopted:
On page 2, on line 2 of subsection (4) strike "all pupils in grade two will be tested annually" and insert "every school district is encouraged to test pupils in grade two"
On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:
On page 2, subsection (4) on line 5 of subsection (4) after "language" insert ", reading,

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Stortini yield? Senator Stortini, under section one, subsection one, the word 'writing' is included, but I can't find writing in subsections two or four. Is there a particular reason for that?"
Senator Stortini: "I am going to refer that to Senator North."
Senator Odegaard: "I guess, Mr. President, my concern is that maybe we should be consistent throughout the bill and if 'writing' is in one section maybe it should be in the others but maybe there is a good reason why it is not."
Senator North: "Senator Odegaard, this is the exact language as we perfected it and worked it. It is the Senate bill. If you remember, we discussed it over a period of two days and the heavy emphasis that was brought up time and again was that this was purely in the area of basic skills. There was general agreement in this body that it should be reading, writing, language arts. Really, we are talking about the three arts. I don't believe there is any intention of omitting anything here. It was felt that these would be standardized tests that we were going to test on these three grade levels — all with the same subject areas involved."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Will Senator North yield? Senator North, there are forty-nine members of this Senate, all pretending that they know what societal skills mean and I am sure none of us do. Perhaps you could explain that."

Senator North: "Senator Wilson, where is societal skills? Would you tell me page and line?"

Senator Wilson: "It is on page two, line nineteen."

Senator North: "Of the substitute bill? I believe, Senator Wilson, it was in the origi­ inal House bill but it is not in the substitute bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator North, I think you explained well the reasons for consistency throughout the bill but my point is;
if we are going to have that consistency, why is the word, 'writing' the writing skills included in subsection one, but not in the other subsections?"

Senator North: "It is not intentional. If you would like to make an oral amendment, that is perfectly agreeable. Would you like to do so?"

Senator Odegaard: "I would like to do so."

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 2, after "reading" insert "writing," and on line 9 after "language" insert "writing."

The motion by Senator Stortini carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the committee amendment to the title was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the following amendments to the title were adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education" strike everything up to ";" on line 3.
On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "adding" strike "new sections" and insert "a new section"
On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "28A." strike "41" and insert "03"
On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "RCW" strike the remainder of the title and insert a period.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1345, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stortini: "Mr. President, will Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator, as you know, there is no specific appropriation in this bill. A preliminary fiscal note was given to us about three or four weeks ago that amounted to roughly two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. How will the ways and means committee handle this appropriation?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, the budget bill will include somewhere between two hundred and forty and two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the purpose of the testing bill that we are addressing at the present time."

HOUSE BILL NO. 1310, repealing certain equalization of property valuation procedures (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass as amended.

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Clarke, Fleming, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Scott, Washington.

MINORITY recommendation: Do not pass as amended.

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Sandison, Woody.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved the rules be suspended and House Bill No. 1310 be advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Has that bill been in rules committee yet?”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Senator Rasmussen has asked if the bill has ever been in rules. No, it has not, Senator Rasmussen.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, I don't know what Senator Lewis has in mind but I have a tremendous lot of confidence in the rules committee that when they screen a bill that at least it is a viable bill — it should be out here for our consideration. It has not been screened as yet. Would that take a suspension of the rules?”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woody: “Point of order, Mr. President. I believe that Senator Rasmussen has raised a point of order which has not made the subject matter open for full debate as to the issues of House Bill No. 1310.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Senator Woody's remarks are well taken. The motion is not debatable although a short explanation and rebuttal have generally been permitted.”
RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Woody, the President finds that rule fifty-nine states in essence that Senator Lewis's motion is in order; however, it will require a two-thirds majority to advance the bill. Rule fifty-nine states that after the forty-ninth day of every regular session the rule may be suspended by a majority vote. Inasmuch as this is a special session, the forty-ninth day does not apply."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Will Senator Lewis yield? If we don't do it, will we be called back to special session tomorrow morning?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I don't have that power, Senator Bailey, nor do I seek it."

Senator Scott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Rasmussen, Sandison, Jones, Donohue, Matson, Newschwander, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob") and Jones.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) that the rules be suspended and House Bill No. 1310 be advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 11; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Mardesich—1.

Excused: Senators Francis, Guess, Keefe—3.

On motion of Senator Donohue the following committee amendment was adopted:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 84.56.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.010 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the first Monday in January next succeeding the date of levy of taxes the county auditor shall issue to the county treasurer his warrant authorizing the collection of taxes listed on the tax rolls of his county as certified by the county assessor for such assessment year, and said rolls shall be preserved as a public record in the office of the county treasurer. The amount of said taxes levied and extended upon said rolls shall be charged to the treasurer in an account to be designated as treasurer's "Tax roll account" for _______ and said rolls with the warrants for collection shall be full and sufficient authority for the county treasurer to receive and collect all taxes therein levied: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall in no case collect such taxes or issue receipts for the same or enter payment or satisfaction of such taxes upon said assessment rolls before the [first] fifteenth day of [March] February following: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That for the calendar year 1976 such collection or issuance of receipts shall not be before the eighth day of March following.

Sec. 2. Section 84.56.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 10, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.070 are each amended to read as follows:

On the [first] fifteenth day of [March] February succeeding the levy of taxes, the county treasurer shall proceed to collect all personal property taxes: PROVIDED, That for the calendar year 1976 the county treasurer shall proceed to collect such taxes on the eighth day of March. He shall give notice by mail to all persons charged with personal property taxes, and if such taxes are not paid before they become delinquent, he shall forthwith proceed to collect the same. In the event that he is unable to collect the same when due, he shall prepare papers in distraint, which shall contain a description of the personal property, the amount of taxes, the amount of the accrued interest at the rate provided by law from the date of delinquency, and the name of the owner or reputed owner, and he shall without demand or notice distrain sufficient goods and chattels belonging to the person charged with such taxes to pay the same, with interest at the rate provided by law from the date of delinquency, together with all accruing costs, and shall proceed to advertise the same by posting written notices in three public places in the county in which such property has been distrained, one of which places shall be at the county court house, such notice to state the time when and place where such property will be sold. The county treasurer, or his deputy, shall tax the same fees for making the distraint and sale of goods and chattels for the payment of taxes as are allowed by law to sheriffs for making levy and sale of property on execution; traveling fees to be computed from the county seat of the county to the place of making distraint. If the taxes for which such property is distrained, and the interest and costs accruing thereon, are not paid before the date appointed for such sale, which shall be not less than ten days after the taking of such property, such treasurer shall proceed to sell such property at public auction, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay such taxes, with interest and costs, and if there be any overplus of money arising from the sale of any personal property, the treasurer shall pay such overplus to the owner of the property so sold or to his legal representative: PROVIDED, That whenever it shall become necessary to distrain any standing timber owned separately from the ownership of the land upon which the same may stand, or any fish trap, pound net, reef net, set net or drag seine fishing location, or any other personal property as the treasurer shall determine to be incapable or reasonably impracticable of manual delivery, it shall be deemed to have been distrained and taken into possession when the said treasurer shall have, at least thirty days before the date fixed for the sale thereof, filed with the auditor of the county wherein such property is located a notice in writing reciting that he has distrained such property, describing it, giving the name of the owner or reputed owner, the amount of the tax due, with interest, and the time and place of sale; a copy of said notice shall also be sent to the owner or reputed owner at his last known address, by registered letter at least thirty days prior to the date of sale: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the county treasurer has reasonable grounds to believe that any personal property upon which taxes have been levied, but not paid, is about to be removed from the county where the same has been assessed, or is about to be destroyed, sold or disposed of, the county treasurer may demand such taxes, without the notice provided for in this section, and if necessary may forthwith distrain sufficient goods and chattels to pay the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 10, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following committee amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "taxation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 84.56.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.010; amending section 84.56.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 10, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.070; repealing section 3, chapter 10, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess.; and declaring an emergency."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, pursuant to rule 59, and this may come as a shock to those of you who have read these things so often, I move that this bill be referred to the committee on claims and auditing. That is in rule 59, page 313 at the bottom of the page."
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, point of order. I can't find that section in the rules. It seems to me that we removed that section in previous rules adjustments. Could you point out the section that you are talking about?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that Senator Woody is referring to the bottom paragraph on page 313. The President believes that if there is a claims and auditing committee, it is an internal committee within the Senate committee on ways and means. Senator Donohue, do you have a claims and auditing committee?"

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, on the point of order raised by Senator Woody, could you rule that just a simple majority vote could pass or defeat that motion? Is that correct?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "If there is a claims and auditing committee, Senator Woody's motion is in order and it would only take a simple majority to refer the bill to the committee."

The motion by Senator Woody failed.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1310, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senators Talley, Washington and Murray demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1310, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1310, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Francis, Guess, Keefe—3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1310, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill remains as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newschwander, House Bill No. 1310, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the fourth order of business.
MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 27, 1976.

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed HOUSE BILL NO. 971, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
HOUSE BILL NO. 971.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 77.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 77, by Committee on Constitution and Elections (originally sponsored by Representatives King, Brown and Chandler):
Implementing the law relating to elections generally.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 77, as amended by the Senate on February 25, 1976, and the pending amendment by Senators Beck and Bailey.

There being no objection, the pending amendment was withdrawn by Senator Bailey. There being no objection, the amendment by Senators Beck and Bailey on the Secretary's desk, was withdrawn.

Senator Van Hollebeke moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 25, insert an additional section as follows:
"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.18.015 are each amended to read as follows:
Not less than ten days before the time for filing declarations of candidacy for the office of state representative in representative districts embracing more than one county, the secretary of state shall in each case designate the positions to be filled by consecutive number commencing with the number, "No. 1". The county auditor shall do likewise for state representative positions in counties wherein the representative districts are confined to the whole or part of a single county.
The state representative position so designated shall be dealt with as separate offices for all election purposes. The provisions of this section shall not apply to those representative districts assigned a single state representative position.
When a person has been elected to a state representative position so designated, he may not at any subsequent election, file for or be elected to any other designated state representative position in the same representative district to which he was first elected."
Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I raise the question of the scope and object on this amendment and for the purpose of explaining it, I think that my previous amendment was withdrawn because it expanded the scope and object. It referred to partisan elections as well as nonpartisan elections and the whole bill is tied to nonpartisan elections and here we are in the middle of a legislative election that is a partisan election and should therefore, in my mind, be an expansion of the scope and object of this nonpartisan election bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Will Senator Beck yield? Senator Beck, should the President rule in your favor, would you be willing to support this kind of legislation in the future so that non-incumbents may know who they are running against?"

Senator Beck: "Well, Senator Van Hollebeke, to spring something like this on us here after we have called for the second reading of the bill, I don't know. My mind is never closed. I represent the people, no special interests. I would like to know if there are any special interests or pressure groups lobbying for this bill. I don't know what this amendment even means here. I cannot answer your question affirmatively or negatively either one. I would give it due consideration."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the remarks of Senator Bailey and Senator Beck are correct and well taken and that the amendment by Senator Van Hollebeke does increase the scope and object of Substitute House Bill No. 77."

The amendment by Senator Van Hollebeke was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Beck, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Beck, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 77, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Beck yield to a question? Senator Beck, I would like you to look at the bill on page five, and section five amends the bill by striking language which says, 'PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of article four, section twenty-nine of the Washington Constitution shall apply to the office of the judge of the court of appeals.' Now, by striking that language does it have the effect of permitting judges who are candidates for the office of judge of the court of appeals to have their name only on the primary election ballot?"

Senator Beck: "This does not change the election of any constitutional officers, namely the judges. It is only for small, nonpartisan offices such as school districts."

Senator Grant: "What is the purpose of the striking language in that particular section, Senator Beck?"

Senator Beck: "Well, Senator Grant, I am glad you asked that. You were on the committee when we studied this. It is self explanatory. Read section five."

Senator Grant: "I would like to know what is the effect of the striking language in that particular section? When will judges of the court of appeals be required to run? In the primary election if they are the only ones filed, or in the general election, or just what effect does that have, Senator Beck?"

Senator Beck: "The court of appeals is not a constitutional office. That is an inferior court which the legislature created. This in no way affects the way that an appellate court judge runs for office."

Senator Grant: "I think it does, Senator Beck, and until I have a satisfactory explanation of that, I wish someone would offer it here because I am not certain — I don't believe it is an inferior court in any respect — the court of appeals. It may not be a constitutionally required court but the same constitutional requirements for elections for — let's see — that would be superior court judges — applies to the court of appeals judges. Okay, Senator Woody informs me that it is a constitutional court. It is in section thirty of article four. I am interested — before I am going to vote on this — is what effect that particular amendment has with regard to election of judges of the court of appeals."

Senator Beck: "If you will read, it says that 'the name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary election for a single nonpartisan position shall appear on the general election ballot under the designation thereof, provided that in elections for justices of the peace, supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the superior court, and for state superintendent of public instruction, if any candidate in the primary receives a majority of all of the votes cast for the position, then only his name shall appear on the ballot.' That is the way that it is now. It does not affect that. Does that answer your question?"

Senator Grant: "I can read the language but I still don't know when they will be running. In the event that there is one candidate filed for the office of justice of the court of appeals, when would he run? In the primary election? If he gains the majority of the votes in the primary, is he elected or would he run in the general election?"

Senator Beck: "If he receives a majority of the votes, he is on the ballot unopposed."

Senator Grant: "When is he running, in the primary?"

Senator Beck: "No, if there is just one person on the ballot in the primary, he is not on the ballot. That is the purpose of the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, I am not on the committee but understand there is a subtle difference between superior court judges and other constitutional judges and the appellate court and that is with the striking language that is there, Senator Grant, the judge running for the court of appeals if receiving a majority of votes in the primary election — his name appears — just as other judges uncontested on the general election ballot, except that there can be write-in opposition against him. That is the only difference between the appellate court and superior court judges."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Washington: "Point of information. We had a long question and answer by Senator Grant and Senator Beck. Now, what section and page were we referring to and what line so we could get the import of the question and answer?"

REPLY BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "We are referring to section five. Section five provides that the two persons receiving the greatest number of votes in the primary shall appear on the general election ballot, that in elections for justice of the supreme court, the judge of the court of appeals, the judge of the superior court, superintendent of public instruction, if one candidate receives a majority of all votes cast for the position, then the candidate shall appear alone on the general election ballot, followed by a write-in space. Now that is very clear to me, Senator Grant. I don't know what it is you don't understand."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS (R. H. "BOB")

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"): "Mr. President, I lay no claim to being an authority on this matter except that checking with an attorney on this very thing, Senator Grant, it was your desire that there be the opportunity for a write-in for appellate courts in the general election. He assures me that the striking of this language, as was done, is what does assure the writing in possibility for candidates for appellate court. Superior court judges, I understand, do not have that problem of having to face write-in candidates but this allows that appellate courts in those elections, there would be the possibility of a write-in. That is what our attorney just briefed me on this one."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Beck yield? Senator Beck, I may be wrong in this but one time when I read this it said that write-ins would not be counted. Is that changed now?"

Senator Beck: "In the primary, you must get five percent of the votes cast in order to have your name on the general election ballot. In other words, if there is just one person that files for the office, and then the primary comes along, you have to get five percent of the votes in order to get your name on there. This law says that the two people who get the highest number of votes will be on the general election ballot. But you just can’t come along and write on it and just have one or just have a few votes there. You have to get at least five percent of the votes in order to be the second person on the ballot in the general election.”

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended and Substitute House Bill No. 77, as amended by the Senate, was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute House Bill No. 77, as amended by the Senate, was ordered placed on today’s second reading calendar following Substitute House Bill No. 90.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 90, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Randall, Smith (Rick), Berentson, Conner, Fortson and Leckenby):

Imposing a tax on coin operated gaming devices subject to federal tax credit and authorizing certain forms of gambling.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 18 after “deposited” strike all the material down through “chapter” on line 20 and insert “in the state general fund”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Will Senator Donohue yield? Does this cover the expenses of the gambling commission or is that in your budget?”

Senator Donohue: “This does not cover the expenses of the gambling commission, Senator. I don’t think I quite understand that because we did appropriate expenses for the gambling commission just nine months ago and it seems inappropriate to me that all of a sudden we have to put money into this revolving fund available without appropriation for their purposes without review and appropriation.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Have you talked to the gambling commission about the . . .”

Senator Donohue: “I have, and he tells me he needs thirty-eight thousand dollars.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “I see. But that will be an item that will be before ways and means for a decision.”

Senator Donohue: “It will be before ways and means.”

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Thank you.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: “Would Senator Donohue yield? Isn’t this the same thing that happened the other day? If we adopt your amendment it is practically a guarantee that the Governor will veto this bill?”

Senator Donohue: “I don’t think that this particular section has anything to do with the balance of the bill. I have no idea what the Governor might do, Senator. It is very possible that he will. I don’t know — but the issue before us is not whether he will veto the other sections of the bill just because we remove this one. I would think it would be inappropriate for him to do that but then you never can tell what the Governor might do in this area.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: “Would Senator Donohue yield to a question, please? Senator, when this bill came before the commerce committee, Al Bjork, a man that I respect very much, came before the committee and said nothing about how much money the gambling commission needs to operate. He said nothing about that. He said they would like to have what they figure is four hundred and fifty thousand dollars and didn't explain any more than that. Was there any testimony — did they come before the ways and means committee with any request other than a request for thirty-eight thousand dollars that you have mentioned?"

Senator Donohue: "Based upon staff reports that indicate that we will have about four hundred and fifty thousand dollars available. The only thing that I have is a letter on my desk which indicates that the costs necessary to come up with this four hundred and fifty thousand dollars from the federal would be about thirty-eight thousand dollars.

"There is another point here that I think is very important — that these are tax dollars paid on these machines and so forth and are a little bit different than those fees collected at the present time that go into the revolving fund as has been suggested by Senator Wanamaker. These are tax dollars — federal moneys that we are not receiving at the present time. If this bill passes with my amendment, those tax dollars, of course, would go in the general fund. If they don't, they will go in the gambling revolving fund and it is my understanding that they will be there until they are appropriated by the legislature."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "My understanding, Senator, I think maybe we are saying the same thing — is if they are not appropriated — if the bill is not passed, we are losing the eighty percent. If the Governor vetoes this, he is just giving the money to the federal government — is my understanding of it. But I am still not clear. Is it true that the gambling commission — then what you are saying is that they did not come before your committee with a request for funds. Is that correct?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct, Senator, because they figured if they had the four hundred and fifty thousand dollars in the revolving fund that they would have sufficient money for every purpose that they so desire."

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 12, line 20, following "raffles," strike "and amusement games" and insert "cake walks, and fish ponds"

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Talley, the amendment by Senator Pullen was laid upon the table.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 12, line 35 following "calendar year; and" insert "the net loss to any individual does not exceed one hundred dollars during any week; and"

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Pullen the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 90, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2742, by Senators Sandison and Newschwander:
Authorizing duty related benefits for disabilities for university and state college sworn police officers.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Cunningham moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Cunningham and Marsh:
On page 2, after section 1, line 2 add Sections 2 and 3 as follows:
"Section 2. Section 28B.10.550, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.550 are each amended to read as follows:
The boards of regents of the state universities, and the boards of trustees of the state colleges and community colleges, acting independently and each on behalf of its own institution:
(1) May each establish a police force for its own institution, which force shall function under such conditions and regulations as the board prescribes; and
(2) May supply appropriate badges and uniforms indicating the positions and authority of the members of such police force.
Section 3. Section 28B.10.560, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.560 are each amended to read as follows:
The boards of regents of the state universities, and the boards of trustees of the state colleges and community colleges, acting independently and each on behalf of its own institution, may each establish and promulgate rules and regulations governing pedestrian traffic and vehicular traffic and parking upon state lands devoted mainly to the educational or research activities of its own institution."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I can't find the floor book number of that bill but I would raise the question of scope and object — not because I am against what he is trying to do — but it seems that this is a measure to make possible additional payments on workmen's compensation. We are now extending the police powers of community college police forces. I don't have a copy of the original bill to read the title."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Bailey, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 2742 is a bill relating to death, disability or injury benefits for duly sworn police officers, state colleges and universities, and this bill specifically for the University of Washington.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Cunningham does extend police powers to community colleges, and therefore the point of order presented by Senator Bailey is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Cunningham and Marsh was ruled out of order.

Senator Sandison moved the rules be suspended and Senate Bill No. 2742 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, before we advance this bill to third reading I wonder if Senator Sandison would respond to a question. Senator Sandison, does this bill tend to extend to the police force of the universities the same benefits that are earnable under LEFF by firemen and policemen, or does it place a lid of that amount due under workmen's compensation upon those same people?"

Senator Sandison: "No, this would be in excess of workmen's compensation. However, if you will notice on the bill, the duty related benefits of this section will be reduced to the extent of any amounts received or eligible to be received on account of disability, injury or any other such event, and the benefits be no greater than if they were under LEFF."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, when we brought this bill out of rules, in answer to Senator Mardesich, there were some sure that it had something to do with the LEFF system. It has nothing to do with the LEFF system but provides the mechanism where the University of Washington, out of its own budget, can pay the difference between the amount received on workmen's compensation and the difference in that amount and the amount to pay the full salary of the man that was disabled while he was on the job. There have been no cases in the last six years.

"It isn't very likely to be a very big issue but it follows the practice of the state patrol in that when a man is off the job he is covered by certain compensation policies but the patrol makes up the difference between what the compensation pays and what his salary would be and it's just that simple. It is a matter of taking it out of the general budget of the University of Washington. A small amount. It only amounts to a couple of hundred dollars a month, I think, if a person is injured on the job. It has nothing to do with the current pension systems at all."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I understand that it does not relate to pensions but rather to disabilities and deaths. However, I am wondering — this, as I understand it, extends to the police force of those universities the same benefits as are due under LEFF. Would this be the case of the police officer who broke a finger and then was retired on full disability? Are we extending to those people the same benefits, is the question I am asking. If so, I am wondering why we are doing it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "I would raise the same question. What are we doing this for? As I understand it, the University is in trouble already financially and I just don't understand it. Who is asking for this measure?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR SANDISON

Senator Sandison: "We haven't advanced the bill yet. Am I correct?"

The President: "Not as yet."

Senator Sandison: "This bill is the result of the fact that you have in the University of Washington about the fourth or fifth largest city in the state of Washington. At any one given time — particularly during daylight hours — you have anywhere from fifty to sixty thousand people on the campus. They are not just handling parking. They are not just handling the ordinary theft of a camera from a locker. They are handling pretty se­rious crime up there. They have everything from burglaries, robberies, attempted and completed rape; they have assaults. They are the focal point for a great many of the un­settled people of the community who are not students who come up there on the campus.

"These people are well trained. Most of them have degrees. Most of them, and all of them, are professionals in college work. Many have been accepted by the FBI academy. If we do not give them somewhat the same benefits that the rest of the police depart­ments have, we are going to continue losing them every time they get someone trained. For a few hundred dollars you are able to put a man almost into as good a shape as the surrounding police departments. You are not quite up there in salary and you don't have the total benefit of LEFF but they would be happy with just part of it. They have to stick their life on the line almost weekly."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Speaking also in favor of the bill, I think Senator Sandison has well outlined the basic purpose behind it. We do have a unique situation insofar as the University of Washington police force is concerned. I think in days past it was not looked upon as a very well managed or well operating force. However, the problems at the University have become accentuated to the extent that in reality these people are doing exactly the same thing that policemen in the City of Seattle are doing. Now, why should somebody continue to work for the University under those considerations when they could get greater benefits by working for the City of Seattle?

"This is a permissive situation only. It is still completely within the power of the regents. It authorizes them to offer these benefits if they so desire. I think that there are sufficient restrictions and I think these people are entitled to be on a par with other po­lice departments."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Jones suggested that Senate Bill No. 2742 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "As I understand Senator Jones’s objection, he is afraid this in­volves pensions. It is my understanding this bill has nothing to do with pensions at all nor is it the intent of the legislature to include members of the University of Washington police department under the LEFF system. That is not our intent in this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESIICH

Senator Mardesich: "I agree that that is not the intent of the bill. What the intent of the bill is, is to extend to those members of the security forces of the University and the state colleges the rights under LEFF which flow to the LEFF members in relation to disabilities and medical expense. The only question I raise is whether it put those people in the same position as the young officer in Seattle who broke his trigger finger and upon a slight stiffening thereof was allowed full disability retirement. Now, that is an injury. That is a medical disability and one to which, I think, none of us subscribes. And yet, it happened and I am wondering whether this extends to the universities those same bene­fits. I have no argument with the general intent of this bill but I am wondering do we go that far when we pass it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President and all Senators, in the hearing in the committee these points were brought out and it does not involve the LEFF system. I don't think this is the time or the place for us to get into an argument about pension reform. We have a police force here that is entitled to a little more protection for disabilities and injuries on the job and they are doing a good job. Those of you who have students in the Univer-

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, MARCH 1, 1976 657
senity of Washington should be very happy to hear of a well operated police force there for the protection of your children and the children of our constituents."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SANDISON

Senator Sandison: "In answer to Senator Mardesich about the stiff finger — trigger finger — I would point out to him that first we are merely authorizing here. The regents and trustees can adopt.

"Then, secondly, they would set the final coverage and what it should be and what benefits should be. I might also point out there isn't a regent or trustee that we don't confirm on the floor of the Senate and if we have no more faith in our confirmations than that then I think we are in real trouble. But these are responsible gentlemen and ladies and they are certainly not going off the deep end and give someone a lifetime benefit for an injured digit."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Sandison, to qualify what you just said, are you saying that the regents themselves, a group of five people, would have the authority to set the amount of payment at any level they desired?"

Senator Sandison: "No, not necessarily. They are covered already under workmen's compensation. This is above workmen's compensation, and they could set the level there. That is an administrative decision."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "But the only lid that there would be on the level of disability pay or allotment and so forth would be the limits as are set now in the LEFF system? Is that correct?"

Senator Sandison: "That is right. It could be no greater than the LEFF system."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Then why is not Senator Mardesich's argument valid? Because a group of five regents could — they have that potential. You are assuming that they would not but when you have all other police officers in the state having the limits of that disability level, why would they then not treat those university people at the same level as every other police officer, and I don't see that."

Senator Sandison: "The obvious reason is that they not only administer police officers in this case, they also administer academic and nonacademic personnel. I am sure they would not want to set a pattern of disability payments that would bind them to a great expense on the whole panorama of the university and collegiate employee."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would you yield to one more question?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "We have two universities and a number of state colleges. What provisions are there for uniformity then, from one college or university to another, in the amount of benefits that would be received by police officers at one school or another?"

Senator Sandison: "This has to be adopted by each institution. I would assume there would be uniformity but not necessarily so. That is left up to each individual campus over workmen's compensation."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "It just appears to me, Senator, wouldn't that tend to cause some chaos if there were differences which there is a potential for differences? We have given the same leap frog for the universities and colleges we have now with the other pension systems."

Senator Sandison: "But we are already under differing salary systems and we seem to work out all right."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. Further commenting upon the recent exchange, I would assume that what the regents would do, would make arrangements for this type of reimbursement which could either be through some sort of an insurance plan or they could arrange for it out of the regular budget of the university. However, with respect to this determination of when there is a service incurred disability, I think all of our attentions have been called to the abuses that have been alleged with respect to the LEFF system."
“However, the method of determining the fact of service incurred disability would be subject to being set by the regents either through an insurance program or if they wanted to front it themselves, they could set up a board or something of that nature which would determine when there was a service incurred disability.

“So the fact that there have been abuses in the LEFF system, I don’t think infers that there would be similar abuses under this act, unless as Senator Sandison sets forth, you are assuming that your board of regents are just going to, in effect, open the door and let anything go. I don’t think we should make that assumption. I think we should assume that these people are going to use due judgment in connection with setting up whatever plan they do set up.

“And, of course, there can be variations, as among the various institutions. I think perhaps this is entirely proper because we may well have at the University of Washington, which is located in the City of Seattle, a situation where perhaps greater benefits should be afforded because their duties are different than they would be in other areas. I find nothing wrong in this. If you believe in local control and in difference between your institutions, then it seems to me that this bill makes ample provision for it.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: “Senator Sandison, would you please yield? Do I understand that the bill as it is presently written would allow a campus police officer to receive, if the board of regents allowed it, the same type of off-duty disability that a police officer can now get under the LEFF system?”

Senator Sandison: “No, it would not be as great.”

Senator Washington: “What is the provision in this bill relating to off-duty disability?”

Senator Sandison: “No off-duty.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: “Mr. President, I think this is a good bill and I think that because we get near the LEFF system, we get gun shy. The problem in the LEFF system — I have never begrudged and I don’t think anyone here has — the payment of disability or death benefits to someone who was hurt in the line of duty. We are talking about those people who go out and fall in holes when they get drunk and break their leg and then collect a disability forever and they weren’t in the line of duty and the LEFF system covers those people.

“Now this bill really is an augmentation or a complementary bill to workmen’s compensation. If the current salary is eleven hundred and fifty dollars a month, they can get benefits up to eleven hundred and fifty dollars a month so workmen’s compensation would pay them five hundred and sixty and the University board of regents could make up the difference so that they got full payment during that time.

“Now, we are not going to the LEFF system, we are going back to workmen’s compensation to determine whether or not that man was injured on the job and whether he has any benefits coming and I can’t see where there could be any abuse.

“Following Senator Mardesich’s question, it provides further that if they receive any social security or any insurance income because of that injury, that is further deducted before the University makes any complementary payments to bring that payment up. So, you are taking into consideration every possible thing that could come in — private insurance, social security or anything. I think this is a step in the direction of the reform that Senator Mardesich has been kind of badgering us about for a little while. I think it is a good step forward and it is not going to cost very much but it brings these people up on the same par as the state patrol for on-duty injuries only and on-duty disability.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESISCH

Senator Mardesich: “I might point out that there is one distinction, at least, on line sixteen that provides that these payments would relate only to those officers who are injured or killed in line of duty, which is quite a distinction of course from our LEFF system as we have it today. Those benefits extend to even off-duty injuries and at least to that extent this is a distinction."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "I would like to ask Senator Sandison to yield to a question. Senator Sandison, I wonder if the matter of who a police officer is — he is a duly sworn police officer. Does that mean he is commissioned or would this apply to persons who would not be commissioned?"

Senator Sandison: "Commissioned police officers."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried. The rules were suspended and Senate Bill No. 2742 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3172, with the following amendments:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that energy in various forms is increasingly subject to possible shortages and supply disruptions, to the point that there may be foreseen an emergency situation, and that without the ability to institute appropriate emergency measures to reduce and/or allocate the usage of energy through a program of mandatory usage curtailment and/or allocation, a severe impact on the health, safety, and general welfare of our state's citizens may occur. The prevention or mitigation of the effects of such energy shortages or disruptions is necessary for preservation of the public health and welfare of the citizens of this state.

It is the intent of this chapter to:
(1) Establish necessary energy emergency powers for the governor and define the conditions under which such powers are to be exercised;
(2) Provide penalties for violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter:
(1) "Energy facility" means a facility which produces, extracts, converts, transports, or stores energy.
(2) "Energy" means petroleum or other liquid fuels; natural or synthetic fuel gas; solid carbonaceous fuels; fissionable nuclear material, or electricity.
(3) "Person" means an individual, partnership, joint venture, private or public corporation, association, firm, public service company, political subdivision, municipal corporation, government agency, public utility district, joint operating agency or any other entity, public or private, however organized.
(4) "Council" means the energy advisory council created by section 3 of this 1976 amendatory act.
(5) "Distributor" means any person, private corporation, partnership, individual proprietorship, utility, including investor-owned utilities, joint operating agencies, municipal utility, public utility district, or cooperative, which engage in or are authorized to engage in the activity of generating, transmitting or distributing energy in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby created an energy advisory council consisting of eleven members.
(1) Members of the council shall be named within thirty days of the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act. The membership shall include the following:
(a) A member appointed by the governor who shall serve as chairman;
(b) The governor shall appoint four other members as follows:
(i) One member experienced and knowledgeable in the affairs and operations of electric utility operations;
(ii) One member experienced and knowledgeable in the affairs and operations of the natural gas industry;
(iii) One member experienced and knowledgeable in the affairs and operations of the petroleum products industry;
(iv) One member shall be from an industrial user of electricity, natural gas, and petroleum products; and

(c) The president of the senate shall appoint two members;

(d) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint two members.

(e) In addition to appointments made pursuant to subparagraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection the president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives shall each appoint one additional member who represents the interests of residential consumers of energy.

(2) No person appointed to the council under subsections (c), (d), and (e) of subsection (1) of this section shall receive, while a member of the council, any substantial portion of his income directly or indirectly from any utility or other person owning or operating any energy facility, or from any manufacturer or seller of any major component of any energy facility. No such member of the council shall be employed by any utility or other person owning or operating any energy facility, or by any manufacturer or seller of any major component of any energy facility during the three-year period following termination as a member of the council.

(3) No member of the council shall hold any state elective office, or hold an appointment to a state elective office.

(4) Members shall be appointed to four-year terms except for initial terms as provided for in this subsection as follows:

(a) Two of the initial terms of members appointed by the governor shall expire on January 15, 1978, and two on January 15, 1980;

(b) One of the initial terms of members appointed by the president of the senate shall expire on January 15, 1978, one on January 15, 1979, and one on January 15, 1980;

(c) One of the initial terms of members appointed by the speaker of the house shall expire on January 15, 1978, one on January 15, 1979, and one on January 15, 1980;

(d) The term of the chairman shall be for four years.

(5) Subsequent appointments shall be made for a four year term. Members may be removed from office only because of inability or failure to perform their duties, as determined by a majority vote of the council, following a recommendation by the governor that a member be removed. Vacancies shall be filled by appointments for the unexpired term.

(6) Members of the council shall be compensated at the rate of forty dollars per day for each day engaged in the business of the council and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and RCW 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. Six members of the council shall constitute a quorum for conducting business. No person appointed to membership on the council who is compensated for service as a member of the council for less than ten days or seventy hours in any month, whichever amount is less, shall receive service credit for such service for that month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The council shall have the following duties:

(1) To make recommendations to the governor for appropriate emergency curtailment and/or allocation plans and procedures to be used in the event of an energy alert or energy emergency;

(2) To advise the governor of the time or times, if any, based on pertinent information, when energy supply conditions require execution of energy alert or energy emergency curtailment and/or allocation procedures, and also the time or times when such procedures can prudenty be terminated; and

(3) To monitor and review compliance with and effectiveness of orders of the governor issued under sections 6 and 13 of this 1976 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That compliance by regulated distributors shall be reviewed by the Washington utilities and transportation commission and the results thereof shall be reported to the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. It is the intent of the legislature that the governor and the council, in developing provisions for the allocation, conservation, and consumption of energy give due consideration to supplying vital public services such as essential governmental operations, health and safety functions, emergency services, public mass transportation systems, food production and processing facilities, and energy supply facilities during conditions of an energy supply alert or energy emergency. In developing any energy allocation programs, provisions should be made for the equitable distribution of energy among the geographic areas of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In addition to his existing powers and duties, the governor shall have the following duties and special energy emergency powers subject to the definitions and limitations in this chapter.

(1) The governor may, upon finding that a situation exists which threatens to seriously disrupt or diminish energy supplies to the extent that life, health, or property will, in the expectable course of events be jeopardized, declare a condition or state of "energy supply alert", at which time all of the general and specific emergency powers further enumerated in this section shall become effective. Concurrent with such declaration the governor shall convene the council which shall then meet within five days of the declaration of the alert, if it is not already in session.

(2) The condition of "energy supply alert" shall terminate after sixty consecutive days unless a continuing condition of "energy supply alert" exists, which shall be defined as the occurrence of either of the following: (a) Extension by the governor based on a declaration by the president of the United States of a national state of emergency in regard to energy supply, or (b) declaration of the legislature by concurrent resolution of a continuing condition of "energy supply alert".

(3) The conditions of an energy supply alert shall alternatively cease to exist upon a declaration to that effect by either of the following: (a) the governor; or (b) the legislature, by concurrent resolution, if in regular or extraordinary session.

(4) In a declared state of energy supply alert, the governor may, upon recommendation or approval of the energy advisory council, (a) implement such programs, controls, standards, priorities, and quotas for the production, allocation, conservation, and consumption of energy; (b) suspend and modify existing pollution control standards and requirements or any other standards or requirements affecting or affected by the use of energy, including those relating to air or water quality control; and (c) establish and implement regional programs and agreements for the purposes of coordinating the energy programs and actions of the state with those of the federal government and of other states and localities.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any program, control, standard, priority, quota, or other policy created under the authority of the emergency powers authorized by this chapter shall have any continuing legal effect after the cessation of a declared state of energy supply alert.

If any provision of this chapter is in conflict with any other provision, limitation, or restriction which is now in effect under any other law of this state, this chapter shall govern and control, and such other law or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder shall be deemed superseded for the purposes of this chapter.

Because of the emergency nature of this chapter, all actions authorized or required hereunder, or taken pursuant to any order issued by the governor, shall be exempted from any and all requirements and provisions of the state environmental policy act of 1971, chapter 43.21C RCW, including, but not limited to, the requirement for environmental impact statements.

Except as provided in this section nothing in this chapter shall exempt a person from compliance with the provisions of any other law, rule, or directive unless specifically ordered by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. To protect the public welfare during conditions of energy alerts or emergencies, the chief executive of each political subdivision of the state and each state agency is hereby authorized and directed to carry out in his jurisdiction such energy supply alert or energy emergency measures as may be ordered by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In order to attain uniformity, as far as is practicable throughout the country in measures taken to aid in energy crisis management, all action taken under this chapter and all orders and rules made pursuant hereto, shall be taken or made with due consideration for and consistent when practicable with the orders, rules, regulations, actions, recommendations, and requests of federal authorities.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Notwithstanding any provision of law or contract to the contrary, all persons who are affected by an order issued or action taken pursuant to this chapter shall comply therewith immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The governor may order any distributor to take such action on his behalf as may be required to implement orders issued pursuant to this chapter, and no distributor shall be liable for actions taken in accordance with such order: PROVIDED, That orders to regulated distributors shall be issued by the Washington utilities and transportation commission in conformance with orders of the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order issued pursuant to this chapter may petition the governor and request an exception from or modification of such order. The governor may grant, modify, or deny such petition as the public interest may require.

(2) An appeal from any order issued or action taken pursuant to this chapter may be taken to the state supreme court. Such an appeal shall take the form of a petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition under Article IV, section 4 of the state Constitution, and the supreme court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and act upon such an appeal. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 7.16 RCW, or any other applicable statute, the superior courts of this state shall have no jurisdiction to entertain an action or suit relating to any order issued for action taken pursuant to this chapter, nor to hear and determine any appeal from any such order. The provisions of Rule on Appeal I-58 shall apply to any proceedings in the supreme court brought pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any person wilfully violating any provision of an order issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 43.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In the event of an energy emergency as defined in RCW 43.06.200 as now or hereafter amended, the governor, after proclaiming a state of emergency therefor, may order such prohibition or curtailment of energy use or allocation, production, or distribution of energy as he deems necessary to preserve and protect public health, welfare, and safety, and to minimize, to the fullest extent possible, the injurious economic, social, and environmental consequences of such an emergency: PROVIDED, That such controls regarding energy use and any other emergency order made by the governor in the event of an energy emergency shall not have any continuing legal effect after the cessation of the declared state of energy emergency.

Any person wilfully violating any provision of an order issued by the governor under this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Section 43.06.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 186, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.06.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(4) He is the sole official organ of communication between the government of this state and the government of any other state or territory, or of the United States;

The legislature finds that the present and predicted growth in [electric power] energy demands in the state of Washington requires the development of a procedure for the selection and utilization of sites for energy facilities and the identification of a state position with respect to each proposed site. The legislature recognizes that the selection of sites and the routing of associated transmission lines will have a significant impact upon the welfare of the population, the location and growth of industry and the use of the natural resources of the state.

It is the policy of the state of Washington to recognize the pressing need for increased energy facilities, and to ensure through available and reasonable methods, that the location and operation of thermal power plants such facilities will produce minimal adverse effects on the environment, ecology of the land and its wildlife, and the ecology of state waters and their aquatic life.

It is the intent to seek courses of action that will balance the increasing demands for energy facility location and operation in conjunction with the broad interests of the public. Such action will be based on these premises:

(1) To assure Washington state citizens that, where applicable, operational safeguards are at least as stringent as the criteria established by the federal government and are technically sufficient for their welfare and protection.

(2) To preserve and protect the quality of the environment; to enhance the public's opportunity to enjoy the esthetic and recreational benefits of the air, water and land resources; to promote air cleanliness; and to pursue beneficial changes in the environment.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2989, and has passed the bill as amended by the Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE
February 25, 1976.
Mr. President: Mr. Speaker:
We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989, making changes in the laws relating to election schedules, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the House amendments be adopted and the bill do pass as amended by the House.

Signed by: Senators Stortini and Beck; Representatives Fortson, Sherman and Chandler.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Beck, the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989 was adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, I remember your remarks when this bill was before us before. You spoke to the same concerns about the smaller districts having their elections at this time, but I was advised by the auditor, or the de facto auditor of King County who stated that most of these little districts did not have their elections at the same time that we are referring to. Could you explain?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is exactly true, Senator von Reichbauer. Right now, they don't all run on the same date on purpose. They avoid each other because they know if they are on the same date they will all go down the tubes. So this bill is forcing them to do that.

"I don't know about King county but in the rural areas we have many of these junior taxing districts that are unfamiliar to the city people that must have special levy elections from mosquito control on down."
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989, as amended by the Conference Committee, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 11; nays, 35; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Beck moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989, as amended by the Conference Committee, failed to pass the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the motion for reconsideration by Senator Beck was ordered held for the proper order of business on Friday, March 5, 1976.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that the Senate commence consideration of the Message from the House on Senate Bill No. 3026.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Mr. President, I believe there is a petition on the Secretary's desk and I want to know what the disposition of that petition is with regard to House Joint Resolution Number 5."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Point of order, Mr. President. It would seem to me that Senator Grant's question is out of order because that business is not before us at this time."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President recognized Senator Grant, Senator Pullen. Senator Grant stated that he wished to make a parliamentary inquiry and the President requested that he do so. The President believes that the inquiry is in order, and in reply to your inquiry, Senator Grant, the President finds what may be a conflict in the rules and is still studying the situation. With your indulgence and that of the other members, the President would appreciate more time to deliberate this matter and possibly render a decision later today or tomorrow."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I understand there will be a rules committee meeting today and that is one of the reasons that I would like to have a response, if possible, before we are to adjourn today. I am not sure how many more rules committee meetings there might be. The petition, as you know, calls for referral of that particular measure to the rules committee. It is not a petition that bypasses your rules committee but it does put it in that particular committee. It doesn't bring it to the floor and I would like to have the rules committee have an opportunity to consider it if they meet today."
FIFTY-NINTH DAY, MARCH 4, 1976

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Perhaps prior to any rules committee meeting that may be held today, the President can give you a decision and the other members, Senator Grant."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, I believe that I had a motion before the body that was presented that we consider Senate Bill No. 3026 and that came somewhat before all the other discourse."

The motion by Senator Walgren carried. The Senate commenced consideration of the Message from the House on Senate Bill No. 3026.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1345, providing for a priority program of education, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to propose the following:

Strike all of the Senate amendments and substitute the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the intent and purpose of this 1976 act to direct the office of superintendent of public instruction to conduct standardized reading, mathematics, and language arts achievement level surveys of approximately two thousand students distributed throughout the state in each of the grade levels eight and eleven during such testing cycles as provided for in subsection (2) of this section. The survey testing shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from these grade levels sufficient to generalize about all of the students at each of the selected grade levels from the state's school districts. The purpose of these surveys is to allow the public and the legislature to evaluate how Washington students in these grades compare to students in the same grades tested in other comparable national achievement surveys. The office of superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate such tests and provide such information as obtained therefrom to the legislature no less often than once every four years.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare a report to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades eight and eleven based on the achievement level surveys conducted in the 1975-77 biennium and for each of the subsequent testing cycles as designated by the superintendent of public instruction's office. Such report shall include a comparison of the achievement levels attained by Washington students to the levels attained by students outside of the state, with special emphasis placed on the basic skills of reading, mathematics, and language arts. Such report shall also focus on appropriate input variables and comparisons of variables reported by other states' testing programs.

(3) Results of the first survey test shall be made available to the school districts and the legislature no later than June 30, 1977.

(4) In addition to the survey testing for grades eight and eleven as set forth in this 1976 act, every school district is encouraged to test pupils in grade two by an assessment device designed or selected by the local school districts. This test shall be used to help teachers in identifying those pupils in need of assistance in the skills of reading, writing, mathematics, and language arts. The test results are not to be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, but are only to be used by the local school district.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare, with the assistance of local school districts, and conduct a standardized achievement test to be given annually to all pupils in grade four. The test shall assess students' skills in reading, mathematics, and language arts and shall focus upon appropriate input variables. Results of such tests shall be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, who shall make those results available annually to the legislature, to all local school districts and subsequently to parents of those children tested. The results shall allow parents to ascertain the achievement levels and input variables of their children as compared with the other students within the district, the state and, licable, the nation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated to the superintendent of public instruction the sum of three hundred thousand dollars from the state general fund to be expended only in the amount necessary and exclusively for implementing the provisions of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1976 amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1976."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Scott yield to a question? Senator Scott, the original term proposed was five years and that person became ineligible to serve any longer. They are raising it from five to seven years and the person will still be ineligible to serve after the seven years. My question is this: where do these people come from? Are they independent practitioners or are they in firms?”

Senator Scott: “Senator Rasmussen, in line with the previous amendment that we just looked at, the actuary would be chosen from those persons who are associates in the American Society of Actuaries and have reached that level of competency.”

Senator Rasmussen: “That wasn't my question. They may be an associate, or a fellow, or a good fellow but are they practicing independently or are most of them in large actuarial firms?”

Senator Scott: “I think that you had best refer to Senator Clarke or someone else, Senator Mardesich. The question by Senator Rasmussen is where is this individual likely to come from? Is he going to come as an independent practitioner from a large firm?”

Senator Mardesich: “A member of the academy? I would assume he could come from wherever he might. It could be a firm, he could be an individual practicing as an actuary, he could come from the State of Washington, he could come from some other state, I would assume. We will leave that open to the members of the legislature to make the determination from those applicants who applied for the job once the position was advertised.”

Senator Rasmussen: “That is why I asked the question. You are on the committee, Senator Mardesich. You picked a part of the committee. You picked that actuary and seven years from now under Senator Scott's amendment another group would be here so the logical thing would be — that individual would be ineligible — but to pick somebody else from that firm that he may be a partner in, and there are no restrictions against partnerships or any other associations within the firm, so you would have one firm continuing on. It would be a possibility.”

Senator Mardesich: “I assume that is a possibility but of course, that firm could not be dealing with the state as a consultant with respect to pension programs under the conflicts law.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, on page four, line twenty-seven, ‘Each retirement board shall continue to perform all functions. Those are vested in it by law with respect to applications for benefits paid upon either a temporary or a permanent disability with such staff assistance from the department as may be required.’ What does that section mean? Does that mean that this is the only powers that the board has?”

Senator Mardesich: “No, that does not. If you will look-up above on that same page — at the top of the page, you will note that they keep their powers and those powers relating to the administration of the various retirement systems are those which will be handled by the director. This measure leaves with the board those authorities which they now have. That follows all through the rest of that page.

“There is one further distinction which I might make with respect to bills which are introduced relating to retirement systems. With respect to bills introduced affecting any retirement system, the actuary will cause a review to be made and that review must consider not only the effect on the system which is affected by the change. In other words, if there is a change proposed for PERS, he must not only show us the actuarial effect on that system but he must also consider the other systems and show us the actuarial effect on the other systems for the same amendment to be adopted by those other systems. That, of course, is to clarify for us the full impact of the leap-frogging effect which we have tried to avoid. That does not happen under the law today and that is one place... where this goes beyond the law today. We would have an actuarial report. That report would indicate the effect on the total system and then once those retirement board members have proposed a change, presented it to the director, and the actuary passed on to the legislature for consideration. That is one change from the law today."

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Mardesich and Walgren, as amended.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I recall during the last session that there was a bill which did essentially at least some of the features of this particular bill. Could you explain — I supported that bill at that time — the ways in which this amendment differs from that bill in any substantive way?"

Senator Mardesich: "The primary difference may be found on page four in which boards retain all the authority they now have. That last bill transferred much of the authority of the boards to the new department, the new director, and that of course is the prime difference. It leaves with the boards the complete review and right to approval of all rule-making by the director. The director cannot impose rules and regulations and adopt them without approval from the boards of the various systems and the boards retain all the control they used to have with respect to investments and all other authority that they had. So, it is quite different. It really gets down to mere consolidation of administrative functions."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, I understand you are joining now as a sponsor of those amendments."

Senator Walgren: "That is correct."

Senator Talley: "And, in your opinion, this does no way consolidate any of the pension systems?"

Senator Walgren: "Senator Talley, all I can reiterate is the statement that has been made here on the floor by Senator Mardesich in response to other questions and also an argument with regard to the adoption of this amendment. It is a consolidation matter. It does not go beyond that."

Senator Talley: "Senator Walgren, I have no question what Senator Mardesich said. I am trying to get you to make the same statement."

Senator Walgren: "I endorse the statement that was made by Senator Mardesich."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, is the intent of this amendment to eliminate, at least eventually, the consulting actuary that we currently employ?"

Senator Mardesich: "The consulting actuary that we currently employ could be retained and probably would be retained because he does have the background on the system. At some future time it is very possible that some other actuary might be called in as a consultant. That could happen."

Senator Murray: "But the state actuary would not replace the outside consulting actuary that normally sets our evaluations for us, our actuarial standards?"

Senator Mardesich: "Not necessarily — but it could."

Senator Murray: "Then, further, under new section twenty-four, on page eight, item number three — under the powers of the state actuary it says, 'consult with the legislature, and the governor concerning determination of actuarial assumptions used by the department of retirement systems.' Now, I point out that this says the power of the state actuary will be to consult with the legislature and the governor concerning the actuarial assumptions. Is the intent of this bill that the governor and the legislature would then make the actuarial assumptions?"
Senator Mardesich: "I would say the answer to that would be at least the legislature would know. We would receive a report so that we would know what items are going into determining the actuarial soundness of the system. If the consultant comes in or the director comes in and says 'we are assuming a fifteen percent inflation rate from now on in the system, then it is up to the legislature to react to what it considers that to be, logical or illogical, and suggest that perhaps something should be done about it, and in fact, we could direct other approaches if we desired to. I don't think the legislature wants to get into the position of making all these determinations that an actuary makes. However, we will be in the position of at least reviewing those assumptions to see are they reasonable.'

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Herr, Grant, Murray, von Reichbauer, Goltz, Wilson, Mardesich and Marsh.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Mardesich and Walgren, as amended.

NONE OF US KNOWS HOW LONG WE ARE GOING TO LIVE, NONE OF US IS EVEN SURE HOW LONG WE WILL BE ABLE TO LEARN, OR THINK, OR LOVE. WE COME TO YOU, THEREFORE, WITH GRATITUDE FOR THIS A NEW DAY IN A NEW WEEK. WE COME TO YOU WITH HAPPY HEARTS FOR BEING ALIVE, ABLE TO THINK AND MOVE, AND SPEAK AND RELATE TO ONE ANOTHER. HELP US IN EACH OF THESE ACTIVITIES TODAY. MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended and Engrossed House Bill No. 1343 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed House Bill No. 1343 was ordered held on the second reading calendar.

SECONDED READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3246, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senator Donohue):
Making changes in the laws relating to retirement systems authorized pursuant to general laws of the state.
The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3246. On March 5, 1976, an amendment by Senators Mardesich and Walgren, as amended, was adopted.
Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 18, after "state" insert:
PROVIDED,
That subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to persons who have accumulated less than fifteen years service credit in any such system.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, what you provide is a person who has accumulated less than fifteen years. What about the person that has accumulated fifteen and a half years, working on a highly skilled job and receiving a fairly high salary, gets disabled, is rehabilitated and comes back on another job, which we try to encourage. The fact of the matter is that it is against the law now to discriminate against those physically disabled — or mentally disabled if they are not too bad."

Senator Mardesich: "The amendment as proposed does not apply to the disabled, if you will look at it, Senator Rasmussen. Subsections one and two apply to retirement other than disability. Subsection three applies to disability, and disability benefits would not disqualify him. The amendment applies solely to subsections one and two and not to three, although it is added, and the language after three is a proviso. It says, in effect, that this proviso, this fifteen years, applies only to subsections one and two. That is the reason for putting it that way."

Senator Rasmussen: "What about three?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, if he came back then he would not continue to receive his disability allowance."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, he could. He could be disabled under the workmen's compensation. He could be in a situation where he is getting a small amount. Workmen's compensation doesn't make a person whole. It only gives him partial and yet he would be barred forever from increasing his pension benefits. He could come back to work, yes. But he would not be allowed to make himself whole in regards to pension benefits."

Senator Mardesich: "Well, he wouldn't be coming back to work in another pension system, though. If you look at subsection three, all that does is prohibit him from coming back to work under another pension system so he could come back into PERS. That is the distinction. Take a look at section three and all that says is he is estopped from entering, a member of, or incurring any contractual rights whatsoever in any other public retirement system. Of course, the reason for that is the problem we have seen that has come up with respect to the LEFF system and—"

Senator Rasmussen: "I would say that he could not come back even under the PERS system."

Senator Mardesich: "If you will read section three, subsection three, that provides that the only thing he can't do—"

Senator Rasmussen: "Could I go one step further? What would be these sections one, two and three in particular do to the person that is in military service, retired?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, it does nothing, unfortunately, — we have been through that before. I have no problem, myself, with even having it apply to those people but there are apparently a lot of people who feel that if a person is retired under a public pension system other than a state system that he should not be precluded. It is speaking, I assume, specifically of the military."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I could raise the question of railroad retirement."

Senator Mardesich: "That is a public system under U.S."

Senator Rasmussen: "But not a state system."

Senator Mardesich: "Then he would be allowed, that is correct. Then, as I say, I have no problem with that—"

Senator Rasmussen: "What does that do to the constitutionality of equal treatment?"

Senator Mardesich: "I don't think you have any problems with that because setting up conditions under which people should be eligible to the state and be eligible for pension benefits."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that is my point. You are saying that people covered under railroad retirement, people covered under civil service federal pensions, people covered under military pensions, all those people could come in, go to work, and earn additional benefits under the PERS system or the teachers or whatever system they may be employed in. Then they would put this restriction against only those people that are residents of this state."

Senator Mardesich: "Not particularly residents of this state but members of the state retirement system. As I say, I am inclined to agree with you but there are those who feel we should not get into other systems because if you apply it to the military, what is the sense of not applying it to a retiree of the Boeing Company or Weyerhauser and you go on ad infinitum. That is a subject that should probably be the subject of another bill and be fully debated on the floor but that is a much broader question and this bill does not address itself to that question."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I think perhaps Senator Rasmussen has raised a good question with regard to subsection three which you have explained. It is conceivable that a person may be injured on the job under the state workmen's compensation laws and be permanently and partially disabled, not totally, but be capable of working in other employment, and possibly public employment. In that language in subsection three when you say if he is a beneficiary of a disability allowance in any public retirement system, would it be your intent to include in public retirement systems the workmen's compensation system in the state of Washington?"

Senator Mardesich: "I don't think you can characterize, strictly speaking, the workmen's compensation system as a 'retirement system'. It is, in fact, a disability system but even so, if you stretch the interpretation to include workmen's comp, there is no prohibition in this subsection, as I read it, against that person coming back to work under PERS if he was a member of PERS and continuing to earn credits."

Senator Grant: "I was thinking, Senator Mardesich, and it would have some bearing on my consideration of the measure. But I was thinking of a person working in private employment, as an example, who, and almost all workers in the state are covered by the industrial insurance system, would be injured under the private employment situation and might be capable and able to return to work in a public job. Would he be estopped in your view from working in the public job if he is capable?"

Senator Mardesich: "It is my opinion that he would not be because the disability system is not in a strict sense, a retirement system. It is a system of reimbursement for injuries received."

There being no objection, the amendments to the title to lines 2 and 3, on the Secretary's desk, were withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments to the title by Senators Bailey, Lewis (Harry) and Walgren were adopted:

On line 1 of the title after "Relating to" strike all the material down to and including "state;" on line 2 of the title and insert: "the creation of a department of retirement systems, providing for a state actuary, and estopping a member of a retirement system created by the general laws of the state from becoming a member of or accruing any contractual rights to another such retirement system under certain conditions; amending section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1971 and RCW 43.17.010; amending section 2, chapter 11, Laws of 1971 and RCW 43.17.020; amending section 9, chapter 103, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.33.070; creating a new chapter in Title 41 RCW; creating a new chapter in Title 44 RCW;"

On line 3 of the title, after "41.04 RCW;" and before "and" insert "defining crimes; prescribing penalties;".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I realize this is Senator Donohue's question, but he is not on the floor. I have a further question regarding those people who would be excluded. What about the person that earns his social security in outside employment, does not elect to take his social security but comes to work for the state? That is another retirement system that is authorized by the state. That would exclude him from then going into state service and becoming a member of the state retirement systems, any one of them. Is that correct?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, I don't believe so, because under the federal social security he is not eligible until he has reached either age sixty-three or sixty-five. It would have to be an extremely rare case, perhaps an exempt person of some kind, who might fit into that category but that would be a very rare occasion. I am not so sure that even social security would fall within the language although I would not make that statement for sure without—"

Senator Rasmussen: "It is a system that is authorized within the state.

Senator Mardesich: "I don't think this is a system authorized by the general law except that we are members. It is a federal system authorized by federal law and we are simply members. And that distinction, I think, would prevail."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it is a public retirement system authorized by general laws of this state. At the time that the employees, both the teachers and state employees were allowed to come into the system, we passed a general law authorizing full coverage under social security."

Senator Mardesich: "Then the same laws would apply to here that we had in fifteen years — but nevertheless, I still feel that would not apply and would not apply to disability, most certainly. I don't see what the problem is except for that person who has actually reached age sixty-two I guess it is, or age sixty-five, and that would have to be an extremely rare circumstance."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3246 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3246, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 5.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Donohue—2.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Francis, Keefe, Murray, Ridder—5.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3246, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, point of personal privilege. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would just like to register my personal feelings with regard to the situation we have in the House. We have a situation where six conferees agreed on a conference report. A major concession was made in that report where we reduced the trial period from three years to one year. All six conferees signed that report.

"The attempt now is, by the majority in the House, to take the power away from the school board and directly (sic) people, and I think that the people of the state should be aware of what is happening over there. What we are witnessing is the unprecedented interference in the legislative process. The testimony of the power and influence of special interest groups, the WEA.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I think it is time that the House got its act together and started representing the people of the state of Washington."

"O GOD, THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A GOOD LAW AND A BAD ONE IS SO SMALL ON PAPER AND SO GLARING IN PRACTICE. THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HELPING PEOPLE AND HURTING PEOPLE COMES FROM SO SLIGHT A SHIFT IN WORDING AND SYNTAX. THE MEMBERS OF THIS BODY KNOW THAT IN THE FACE OF EVERY ACTION THEY TAKE, SOMEBODY WILL TAKE IT WRONG AND SOMEBODY WILL BE BITTERLY OPPOSED AND WILL DENOUNCE THE LEGISLATURE'S GOOD INTENTIONS AS A VICIOUS HOAX. SOMETIMES IT MUST SEEM TO THESE LAWMAKERS THAT WHATEVER THEY DO, THEY CAN NEVER DO IT RIGHT.

"IN THE FACE OF THESE CONTRADICTIONS, OUR FATHER, IT IS SO EASY FOR THEM TO SAY, 'IT DOESN'T MATTER,' SO EASY TO ENCOURAGE CALOUSED OVER THE SENSITIVE AND TENDER PARTS OF THEIR LIVES.

"OUR PRAYER TODAY IS THAT THIS MAY NOT HAPPEN. LET THE LOVING SPIRIT OF OUR MASTER BE THEIR EXAMPLE, THAT IN THE FACE OF CRITICISM AND EVEN PERSECUTION, THEY MAY STAND NOBLY FOR THE WHOLE TRUTH, STEADFASTLY FOR EQUAL JUSTICE, AND ALWAYS FOR LOVE. IN THE MASTER’S NAME. SO BE IT."

I always thought this was a very fine beginning of a day and would hope that every one present would be kind enough to salute the flag as it is brought down the aisle and posted."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SENATE BILL NO. 3038.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.
On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of bills on the second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3077, by Senator Talley (by Board of Pilotage Commissioners request):
Revising qualifications for pilots in state waters.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senators Bottiger and Francis were excused.
Senator Walgren moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Walgren:
On page 1, beginning on line 30, add the following new section:
NEW SECTION. Section 2. There is added to chapter 88.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
No private pilot association shall (1) prevent in any manner a duly licensed Washington state pilot from serving and being compensated as a pilot; (2) excluded from membership any person duly licensed as a Washington state pilot when the Board of Pilotage Commissioners determine additional pilots are required for maintaining a safe, competent and efficient pilotage service on the waters covered by this chapter; or (3) suspend or discipline a pilot and thereby affect his livelihood except on recommendation from the board of pilotage commissioners.
The board shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement the provisions of this section and shall receive and finally determine all claims of alleged violations of this section or such rules.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on the amendment. I would like to speak to the point. Mr. President and members of the Senate, if you will notice the amendment that is on our desks has to do with a private pilot's association that is not now under the purview of the state of Washington. The bill has a very broad title but the problem is that the bill was passed by the legislature establishing the commission. It hasn't got anything to do with this, and by this motion we would put a private pilot's association which is organized under international laws under the control of the state of Washington. It would be as though we took the collective bargaining agreements between management and labor, organized under the Taft-Hartley Act, and the state intervened in between management and labor. This is the situation that is exactly occurring here.

"It somewhat appalls me that we would try to interpose and prevent an organization from disciplining their own people. And I dare say that none of us would want to impose ourselves in between the business agent of the operating engineers union and tell him that he couldn't discipline his people. The first thing you know, you would have nothing but utter chaos.

"The only way that a union can operate is for the people within that union to subscribe to rules and regulations and in the state of Washington, this is what has happened with the pilot's association. As each person comes into that organization he subscribes to the bylaws and if he breaks the bylaws and does not want to live by the bylaws, then that association has the right to chastise him. Only part of the question is considered here because I think that the problem started much sooner than 1973 — 1975 in fact it did, to my knowledge — start in 1973 with testimony. And so, I think that we are in an area that is totally without the purview and the very best interests of the state of Washington for us to put this amendment on the bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, I think that if you would take a look at the language, and you say in there, 'no private pilot's association' and I am going to skip 'shall suspend or discipline a pilot and thereby affect his livelihood.' Now this is the thing I think we are doing. We are saying to an association of employees — they are actually their own — they are entrepreneurs because they don't work for one particular person, they work for a group of persons from time to time. But you are now saying that the private — and mark the word well — you are saying that a private pilot's association is prevented from disciplining any member. That is going very much farther than saying that a man can't come down here and testify."

Senator Walgren: "But Senator Guess, this private association, as you refer to it, is the association that is solely involved with providing the pilots to take ships across the waters of Puget Sound. Now, if this particular person is disciplined for the very fact, the very fact that he came down and testified before a Senate committee and kicked out of the organization and cannot continue his profession, I think that is very serious. I think it is something that we here in the state should be concerned about."

Senator Guess: "Senator Walgren, I agree with you it is a serious thing. The amendment, though, does not say that. It should say that no private pilot's association shall prevent or suspend or discipline a pilot who comes down and testifies in an open meeting. It doesn't say that. It says that he cannot be suspended or disciplined in any way."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Point of order, Mr. President. I believe the issue before us is still whether or not we have a scope and object problem."
REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "I believe, Mr. President, that I realize this is the only way that we can ever get it before the body, that the nature of the language is the thing that is disturbing to me. I believe we are going further here in the control of an organization because the language is so encompassing."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, this can go on forever, and we are getting now the debate on the bill and whether the bill is a good bill or the amendment is a good amendment. I think the issue is whether it enlarges the scope and object and I don't think it has anything to do with conversation between Senator Walgren and Senator Guess."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point is well taken."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "I am trying to show to the body and to you that it is broader than it is on the face, and therefore it has to do not with the state pilotage—the operation of the state organization—but it has to do with the private organization."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Well, Senator Guess, I think you ought to quit while you are ahead. The President finds in looking at the bill and the amendment that the bill deals basically with two things, question of residency and the raising the pilot fees to one hundred and fifty dollars. The amendment clearly goes beyond that and your point is well taken. It does increase the scope and object of the bill."

The amendment by Senators Bottiger and Walgren was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3077 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3077, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3025, with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 7, after "1977," insert "and pursuant to chapters 41.56 and 41.59 RCW,", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.
SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, MARCH 9, 1976

MOTION
Senator Stortini moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3025.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Grant: "Will Senator Stortini yield? Senator Stortini, in the event that the reference to those two RCW's is included in the measure, and you say that it is a negotiable item anyway under 41.56 and 41.59, what harm does it do to refer to the RCW?"

Senator Stortini: "What I am saying is that if this amendment is adopted, though, it would include budget priorities that would also be negotiable and that is not the intent of this measure."

Senator Grant: "Senator Stortini, would you yield further? The whole bill, the body of the bill itself, refers to reduction in force and reemployment."

Senator Stortini: "That is right."

Senator Grant: "I see nothing in here with regard to budget."

Senator Stortini: "The addition of 41.56 and 41.59 that you are familiar with would also include negotiating priorities in school budgets. I think that priority should be left up to the local school districts."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Stortini carried. The Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3025 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to four and one-half percent of the selling price: PROVIDED, That from and after the first day of June, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, such tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to four and six-tenths percent of the selling price. The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property.

Sec. 2. Section 82.12.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1975 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected from every person in this state a tax or excise for the privilege of using within this state as a consumer any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail, or acquired by lease, gift, repossession, or bailment, or extracted or produced or manufactured by the person so using the same, or otherwise furnished to a person engaged in any business taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsections (2) or (7). This tax will not apply with respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased, extracted, produced or manufactured outside this state until the transportation of such article has finally ended or until such article has become commingled with the general mass of property in this state. This tax shall apply to the use of every article of tangible personal property, including property acquired at a casual or isolated sale, and including byproducts used by the manufacturer thereof, except as hereinafter provided, irrespective of whether the article or similar articles are manufactured or are available for purchase within this state. Except as provided in subdivision (2) of RCW 82.12.030, payment by one purchaser or user of tangible personal property of the tax imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW shall not have the effect of exempting any other purchaser or user of the same property from the taxes imposed by such chapters. The tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate of four and one-half percent: PROVIDED, That from and after the first day of June, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, such tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate of four and six-tenths percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after the first day of June, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, there is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities, as a part of the tax imposed by the provisions of RCW 82.04.220 through 82.04.290, inclusive, an additional tax in the amount of six percent of the tax payable under the provisions of RCW 82.04.220 through 82.04.290, inclusive. To facilitate collection of this additional tax, the department of revenue is authorized to adjust the basic rates of persons to which this section applies in such manner as to reflect the exact amount of the additional tax hereby imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Washington, Day, Fleming, Knoblauch, McDermott, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer and Rasmussen.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Donohue.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 12; nays, 35; excused, 2.

Senator Cunningham moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 6, line 29, after "of" strike "six" and insert "four"

On page 6, line 36, add the following new sections:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of growing or producing for sale upon his own lands or upon land in which he has a present right of possession, any agricultural or horticultural produce or crop, including the raising for sale of any animal, bird, or insect, or the milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substance obtained therefrom, or in respect to the sale of such products at wholesale by such grower, producer, or raiser thereof; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of such business multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 82.04.330, chapter 15, Laws of 1961, section 7, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.330 are each hereby repealed."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, I do raise the point of order and I believe that it does raise the scope and object of the bill. In the present taxation involves raising the rates of those businesses which are already included. This adds a completely new and large segment of business to this particular tax and obviously greatly expands the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President, in ruling on the point of order, agrees that the remarks made by Senator Francis — this is a broad bill. As a matter of fact, it doesn't expand the scope and object. It reduces the exemption. Your point is not well taken."

Senator Herr moved the amendment by Senator Cunningham be laid upon the table.
Senator Francis demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Lewis (Harry), Bailey, Van Hollebeke, Woody, North, Gould, McDermott, Sandison and Talley.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Cunningham.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 31; excused, 2.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-222

By Senators Cunningham, Bailey, Lewis (Harry), McDermott, Wilson and von Reichbauer:

WHEREAS, Certain species of marine mammals are, or may be, in danger of extinction or depletion as a result of man’s activities and such species should not be permitted to diminish beyond the point at which they cease to be a significant functioning element in the ecosystem of which they are a part; and

WHEREAS, There presently exists within Puget Sound and the salt waters contiguous thereto a species of mammal commonly known as the “killer whale”; and

WHEREAS, There is inadequate knowledge of the ecological and population dynamics of such mammals and of the factors which bear upon their ability to reproduce and survive in an atmosphere of continuing encroachment by man; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of the Washington Legislature that the killer whales should be protected and encouraged to develop in a natural state and that the primary objective of their management should be to maintain the health and stability of the marine ecosystem; and

WHEREAS, Present methods and techniques of pursuing and capturing the killer whales present substantial and serious questions as to their efficiency, humaneness and effect on marine life in this delicate ecosystem;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that the United States Congress be requested to declare an immediate moratorium on the intimidation, harassment, hunting and capturing of killer whales in Puget Sound and adjacent salt waters;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the United States Congress be requested to direct the appropriate federal agencies to cease issuing permits to hunt and/or capture this mammal and revoke all such existent permits;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be sent to the United States Department of Commerce, the National Marine Fisheries Service, members of the Congressional delegation from this state, the Marine Mammal Commission, and the Scientific Advisors on Marine Mammals.

Senator Peterson moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Peterson and Rasmussen:

Following paragraph five of the resolution insert the following:

“WHEREAS, The capture of five killer whales in Budd Inlet at Olympia has been widely publicized; and

WHEREAS, The Senate is opposed to the capture of this endangered species in the waters of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Governor Evans in 1974 was requested to approve the designation of Puget Sound as a sanctuary for killer whales, as provided in laws administered by the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration; and

WHEREAS, At that time Governor Evans refused to make the designation of Puget Sound as a sanctuary for this endangered species; and

WHEREAS, Now is the time for the Governor to take definite action;”

Immediately preceding the last paragraph of the resolution insert the following:

“BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington that Governor Evans reconsider his objections and immediately notify the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration that the State of Washington withdraws its previous objection to the designation of Puget Sound as a killer whale sanctuary and approves of such action by the federal government; and”

On the last line of the resolution after “Mammals” and before the period insert “and that this Resolution immediately be transmitted to Governor Evans”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Cunningham: “Point of order, Mr. President. Is it possible to expand the object of a resolution?”

President Pro Tempore Henry: “I would seriously doubt, Senator Cunningham, that it is.”
Senator Cunningham: "Then I would question whether or not this amendment doesn't expand the scope and object of my initial resolution."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "It is pretty hard to enlarge the scope and object of a whale, I would think, offhand. I know of no constitutional provision enlarging the scope and object of a resolution."

Senator Peterson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Talley, Matson, Rasmussen, Bottiger, Bailey, Donohue, Goltz and Peterson.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Clarke would yield to a question. Senator Clarke, to your knowledge, does the Governor have authority to restrict the use of the waters of Puget Sound as a state action? Would you comment on that, please."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Peterson yield to a question? Senator Peterson, before we vote on this, I am a little concerned about the number of tons of salmon that a killer whale eats, and if we are trying to conserve the salmon, I wonder if we couldn't send these killer whales to Canada or something."

Senator Peterson: "Senator Bottiger, I can only respond to this point as chairman of the natural resources committee. No one has ever determined the amount of salmon that the killer whale eats in the Puget Sound sanctuary. What this does, NOAA had requested from the Governor two years ago for his support in declaring Puget Sound a sanctuary. We don't know — the department of fisheries doesn't know — the Governor's office doesn't know — no one knows the confirmation of what the killer whales eat in the way of salmon but I am sure that if we want to get into Indians, we can talk about that, too. But I don't think anybody knows that answer."

Senators Walgren, Talley and Herr demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Peterson and Rasmussen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yea, 21; nay, 23; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Grant, Scott—3.

THERE ARE YOUR PARENTS, PERHAPS ALIVE, PERHAPS LONG-SINCE DEAD, WHO GAVE YOU THE COURAGE TO TRUST YOUR OWN ABILITIES. THEY WOULD BE PROUD THIS MORNING TO KNOW YOU ARE HERE. THERE ARE TEACHERS WHO SAW IN YOU THE POTENTIAL GOOD AND TEACHABLENESS TO BE ABLE TO INTEGRATE YOUR EDUCATION INTO RESPONSIBLE ACTION. THERE IS THAT PERSON IN YOUR PAST WHO GAVE YOU YOUR FIRST RESPONSIBLE JOB, WHO BELIEVED YOU COULD MAKE IT. THERE IS THAT SOMEONE WHO BELIEVED IN YOU ENOUGH TO SUGGEST THAT YOU RUN FOR POLITICAL OFFICE. A SHIVER RAN UP YOUR SPINE, AND YOU WONDERED IF THEIR TRUST IN YOU WAS WELL PLACED. AND THERE ARE THE VOTERS WhOSE BALLOTS DECLARED TO YOU, 'I GIVE YOU THE RIGHT TO REPRESENT ME, TO TAKE ALL NECESSARY POLITICAL ACTION ON MY BEHALF', WITH THE MEMORY OF ALL THESE CLUSTERING AROUND US IN THIS MOMENT, LET US PRAY:

"OUR FATHER, THOSE WHO HAVE TRUSTED US AND INSPIRED US MAKE OF THIS A HOLY MOMENT. THEIR SPIRITS CHALLENGE US. BUT BEHIND THEM ALL, WE SEE YOUR HAND, WE EXPERIENCE YOUR TRUST IN US, AND WE CELEBRATE THE FREEDOM OF WILL AND CHOICE YOU GIVE US TODAY. HELP THE MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE TO ACT FREELY, WISELY, AND WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF YOUR HOLY PRESENCE THROUGHOUT THIS DAY. IN THE MASTER'S NAME. SO BE IT."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, is this amendment as extensive as House Bill No. 933 was?"

Senator Washington: "No, it is just a simple amendment. There are a couple of very minor corrective amendments and simply an amendment at the end which provides for the appropriation. No, they didn't strike any portion of the Senate bill and add their very extensive bill to it."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Washington carried. The Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2038.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2038, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 2.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2537, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

At 10:15 a.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 11:55 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 11:55 a.m.
SIXTY-FIFTH DAY, MARCH 10, 1976

MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
On March 9, 1976, a motion for reconsideration was made by Senator Washington on the failure of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 to pass the Senate. At that time, the motion was held for the eighth order of business to March 10, 1976.

The Senate resumed consideration of the motion.

Debate ensued.

Senator Scott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Walgren, Washington, Sandison, Bailey; Lewis (Harry), Bluechel, von Reichbauer, Gould and Van Hollebeke.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Washington that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 failed to pass the Senate.

ROLL CALL ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration carried by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. “Bob”), Mardesich, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker—20.

Absent or not voting: Senator Francis—1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2778 was placed on third reading, on reconsideration.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senator Francis was excused.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING
SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 131, by Committee on Ways and Means:
Authorizing a state net income tax with limitations.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the rules were suspended and Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 131 was returned to second reading.

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 8, after “(1)” strike “Income” and insert “Net income, defined as gross income less expenses incurred to achieve it, and less deductions, exemptions and credits as determined by the legislature,”

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Rasmussen: “Senator Clarke, your amendment will have ‘net income defined as gross income, less expenses incurred to achieve it.’ That would presumably be based on your federal income tax?”
Senator Clarke: "Not necessarily because there are adjustments also by the federal Congress as to how they define expenses. This would not create a situation where, in effect, we would be delegating to Congress the right to determine what were necessary expenses. That would be a matter, I think, that would be left to our own legislature."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, did you look at the other amendment that I have passed out? It has no name on it. In the rush to get amendments ready, we forgot to slip the name on it. It is proposed by myself in which you would specify any statute providing a net income tax upon taxpayers shall be based upon, and shall not exceed, and whatever the figure we determine on there, the taxpayers' federal income tax liability for the same tax year. Wouldn't that solve the problem?"

Senator Clarke: "No, Senator, I don't think it would. As a matter of fact, I think that any proposal to include in our Constitution a delegation of authority to the federal Congress to make determinations would be an undesirable act upon our part. I think we want to retain within this state the right to make those decisions."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Clarke:

Amend the amendment to page 1, line 8 as follows:

After "achieve it," strike the remainder of the amendment.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, if we were to adopt Senator Rasmussen's amendment to your amendment, would that preclude the state from then correcting the inadequacies in the federal exemption laws such as deals with the single versus married or joint returns?"

Senator Clarke: "I think it would definitely have that danger, and again, I know of no other provision in our Constitution which would have the effect of delegating to the federal government the right to make determinations for the state. I think it would be a very unwise step for us to take to put in our Constitution that we follow some unknown future federal enactment. That is the substance of what you are suggesting."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, Senator Rasmussen made the statement that if we had a state income tax, the amount we paid would be deductible from the federal income tax."

Senator Clarke: "That is a matter that would be determined by the federal Congress. We would have no ability to make a determination as to what would be deductible from the federal income tax. Currently, the law, in further answer — however, as the federal tax now stands, it would be deductible."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Walgren, Washington and Herr demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Francis, Keefe and Ridder, who were previously excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate. There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen, the amendment to the amendment by Senator Clarke was withdrawn.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Marsh and Clarke to the amendment by Senator Clarke:

Amend the amendment to page 1, line 8 as follows:

After "achieve it" strike ", and less deductions, exemptions and credits"

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, under the current federal income tax code, interest from your home mortgage is now deductible not because it is an expense incurred to achieve gross income but rather it is an itemized deduction. If we were to adopt your amendment, would interest payable on your home mortgage be an expense incurred to achieve gross income?"

Senator Marsh: "No, it would not. It would not be deductible. What you are getting in lieu of that deduction for interest is a credit, a personal credit for each taxpayer and for each dependent in your household equal to the product of one thousand dollars multiplied by the lowest rate of tax applicable to taxpayers other than corporations.

"To translate that into something concrete, if the lowest tax rate were three percent, you would be getting a thirty dollar credit for yourself and for each dependent in your household. If you have a household of four, including yourself, you would be getting a hundred twenty dollar credit against your tax bill in lieu of that interest deduction."

Senator Woody: "And if, however, we used the federal approach and you had about fourteen hundred dollars worth of interest to be deducted from fifteen thousand dollars worth of adjusted gross income you would then compute that to arrive at your ultimate reportable income for tax computation purposes before you get your credit. Is that not correct?"

Senator Marsh: "Yes, that is correct, and whether or not you are better off having a deduction for interest or a credit against your taxes depends upon what your tax bracket is, as I am sure you would agree."

Senator Woody: "Well, that would illustrate the point that by making a credit would apply to everyone, no matter what their own circumstances would be, would be to ignore their own circumstances, that is a person who does not have a home mortgage that they are paying interest on, as opposed to a young family with two point three children who has a thirty-five thousand dollar mortgage."

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Marsh, the amendment by Senators Marsh and Clarke to the amendment by Senator Clarke was withdrawn.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? I may be wrong but it seems to me what we are doing here rather than just having regular deductions — Senator Woody and others have mentioned the necessity of having deductions — but should those deductions come from net income? In other words, don't you define net income and then of course, in your income tax you have various other deductions, but they don't necessarily come off of net income. I think that is the problem with your definition here. You would have one definition for net income and then there should be a separate provision that would state what other deductions you can have."

Senator Clarke: "Well, Senator, I just want to remove any question by including the additional wording of deductions and exemptions as determined by the legislature. I want to be sure that we are not, by defining net income, preventing the legislature from making those additional deductions from net income in connection with the application of the tax because in other portions of the bill then, you refer to percentages of net income. That should be net income after. You have not only the expense deletions but also take away the other deductions and so forth, so I think it merely clarifies the proposition that it is necessary to have that in there."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Clarke:

Amend the amendment to page 1, line 8 as follows:

After "achieve it," strike the remainder of the amendment.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Clarke was not adopted.
The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page I, line 28, strike subsections (c) and (d) through page 2, line 13 and insert:

"(c) The highest rate of any tax imposed upon or measured by the net income of taxpayers other than corporations shall not exceed 3.5%. The rate schedule of any tax imposed upon or measured by the net income of taxpayers other than corporations shall not be graduated. The lowest amount of income subject to the tax rate shall not be less than one thousand dollars nor more than four thousand dollars.

(d) The rate of tax imposed on or measured by the net income of corporations shall not be higher than 7%. The rate of tax on corporate taxpayers shall not be graduated."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I would like to respond a little bit to Senator Pullen and perhaps I can do so by asking my expert on biblical matters, Senator Van Hollebeke, if he will yield to a question. Senator Van Hollebeke, as I read thirty here, I detect the possibility that they are talking about a graduated income tax. Do you have an opinion on that?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I have had my research staff going over this for the last hour or two and the conclusion reached was that in Leviticus thirty where it speaks of all the tithe of the land, and whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree is the Lord's, that is speaking directly to the tithe and thus only to the ten percent. But where it reads to the effect that if a man will at all redeem aught of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof, it comes graduated and I think that the 'Pullen Plan' is really a graduated net income tax with that interpretation."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, in addition to that, on behalf of the farm bloc, I see that rather than the Lord, somebody else — about the time of Moses — had a terribly discriminatory clause in here for the farm bloc because we have to give away our first animal and you city people don't."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Scott, the amendment by Senator Pullen was laid upon the table.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 18, beginning with subsection (b) strike all the material down to and including "dollars" on page 2, line 9, and insert:

"(b) Any statute imposing a net income tax upon taxpayers shall be based upon and shall not exceed 6% of the taxpayer's federal income tax liability for the same tax year."

Debate ensued.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Talley, Fleming, Beck, Gould, Herr, Wilson, Grant, Van Hollebeke and Stortini.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators, Grant and Van Hollebeke:

On page 2, after line 16, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(3) During any time a tax imposed upon or measured by net income on corpora­tions and individuals is in effect, no sales or use tax shall be imposed on (a) food prod­ucts for off premises human consumption, and (b) prescription drugs as defined by the legislature."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, as I just mentioned to you again, in the seventy-five edition of the taxpayer's guide on page fourteen, it uses figures as to the percentage that lower, intermediate and higher income people are paying for food, housing, etc. These figures do not jibe with the tax inequities that you just referred to. Could you tell me what your source is, please?"

Senator Grant: "My source, Senator Cunningham, is the department of revenue. The current tax structure in the State of Washington for families with an income of four thousand dollars or less, just the sales taxes paid, the equivalent — the amount of that income that goes towards sales tax — you know, the rate is four point five — is four point one. Four point one. Because, obviously, they have to eat. The present sales tax rate for families with an income of ten thousand — the effective rate, just on the sales tax — is three point three. Fifteen thousand dollar income, the effective rate is two point eight. Twenty-five thousand dollar income, it is two point one; fifty thousand dollar incomes, it is one point four. So that is roughly three times the amount paid by those in the low income range for sales taxes. I am not just talking about food but if you adjusted the tax on food, I can show you other examples and these are figures that have been supplied me by the department of revenue. If you adjust the tax, take it off food, increase it by seven-tenths of one percent on all items — all other items — that is just a wash insofar as revenue, the tax structure becomes more progressive insofar as ability to pay. It is still not equal. It doesn't resemble the proposal that Senator Pullen was advancing here but it certainly makes the system less regressive than we have now. My source is the department of revenue."

Debate ensued.

Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Grant, Washington, Van Hollebeke, Talley, Goltz, Gould, Stortini, McDermott and Herr.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Grant and Van Hollebeke.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment by Senators Clarke, Marsh and Jones as amended by Senator Odegaard was laid upon the table.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: “Mr. President, will Senator Fleming yield to a question? Do you know of any tax in this state that has ever been reduced?”

Senator Fleming: “I don’t ever recall us passing an income tax either but there is always a first time, and we — two years ago — reduced the inventory tax.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: “Mr. President, would Senator Matson yield to a question? I would like to possibly support your amendment but I would like one question. If I support your amendment, will you vote for the bill?”

Senator Matson: “You already know the answer to that. The answer is ‘no’, because this kind of a proposition is ridiculous, but understand that while we are here — whether we support or oppose a bill — we do have the responsibility of attempting to perfect and make it fair.”

Senator Herr: “Thank you very much. You answered my question.”

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Mardesich moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Mardesich, as amended, was not adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? In view of the constitutional authority allowing special levies with the sixty percent and unlimited amounts, how can you take care of it by statute later unless it is simply by some limitation that would be contrary to the constitution?"

Senator Clarke: "You may have a point. I am not sure whether that constitutional provision is simply by way of a limitation provision or whether the legislature could. I would concede that there would be a question there, though."
Senator Mardesich: "Wouldn't your problem rather be answered by a change in the percentage of assessed valuation which would allow the maximum? Even here you have a maximum of one hundred and fifty dollars. A hundred and fifty dollars is more than ten percent — is about ten percent of your current school budget."

Senator Clarke: "Senator, this is simply a limitation, and in the event the limitation, or something that could be more easily understood, like six dollars per thousand, which was what I had in my proposed 136, that in reality would reduce the amount of special levies that we customarily do levy on the east side. But nevertheless it would be an acceptable amount. Now, the proposal that you have restricts us to the extent that I am quite sure that it would lose you votes on the entire proposition."

Senator Mardesich: "I fail to accept that argument because the limitation and people are prone to go with limitations. It seems to me you had a very good amendment with respect to statewide equalization of special levies except that was even more complicated and that is why I didn't include it."

Senator Clarke: "In answer to that, I had in my 136 proposed a further amendment with respect to equalization of special levies which would by constitution have permitted the legislature to make provision for equalization which to me is the ideal method of taking care of it in the Constitution. That, then, would permit the legislature to adopt equitable methods of distributing this present big inequality as related to the number of students and assessed valuation but the way we are approaching it now I can't go along with."

The motion for reconsideration by Senator Mardesich failed.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 9 after "time" insert:

": PROVIDED, That any such adoption by reference after the enactment of the original implementing legislation shall not result in an increase in income taxes"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Cunningham, the following amendment by Senators Cunningham, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Pullen and Lewis (Harry) was adopted:

On page 3, section 1, after line 11, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution, the total amount of all taxes imposed by the state of Washington shall not exceed nine percent of the total personal income of the residents of the state of Washington as determined on an annual basis."

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the resolution by increasing the figure 6% in the Rasmussen amendment to 10%.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gould: "Point of order, Mr. President. Mr. President, is it possible to amend an amendment that has already been adopted?"

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Part of the bill can perfect at any time, Senator."

FURTHER RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Washington, if I may interrupt, Senator Gould's point of order, under paragraph 209 of Reed's states that the general rule of parliamentary procedure is that when an assembly has come to a conclusion or decision, that result shall be regarded as final. Her point is well taken."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, in all due respect, I believe at least it is the custom to allow a member of the Senate to respond to a . . . ."
REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "You may speak to a point of personal privilege if you like."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON
Senator Washington: "... no, I prefer to speak on the point of order, and I believe I have that right to speak on the point of order."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "Proceed."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON
Senator Washington: "Thank you, Mr. President. This particular point — the matter has been completed. The point which has been called to your attention does not apply in this situation. The Rasmussen amendment became complete when it was placed upon the bill. It became a part of the bill. It is now a part of the bill before us and we have the right to amend a bill which is before us. It isn't necessary. The only other way you could do it would be to call for a reconsideration and that certainly would not be essential in a situation such as this."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "The general rule of parliamentary proceedings is when the assembly has come to a conclusion or decision that result shall be regarded as final. This is necessary for the orderly action of the assembly itself. If what has once been decided could at all times again be opened by each member, there would be no end of confusion. Now, what else would you like me to do?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON
Senator Washington: "The point which was raised that you cannot — upon reconsidering. You can have one reconsideration of the adoption of an amendment. You can't keep on reconsidering. This is true, and that is what that rule means but once you have decided to amend the bill — I don't know whether we have the votes to reconsider or whether you would get it back on again."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "Well, Senator Washington, you can argue from now and on. You can appeal the decision of the Chair if you want to. I made the ruling. Her point was well taken."

The amendment by Senator Washington was ruled out of order.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 8, beginning with "Article VII" strike the remainder of the joint resolution and insert the following:
"Article VII, section 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the legislature shall have the power to impose a tax upon income from whatever source derived: PROVIDED, That the first statute enacting an income tax shall be referred to the people and approved by a majority vote thereon: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the enactment of any increase in the rate or rates of any tax allowed by this Constitution shall be subject to the referendum procedures provided by Article II of this Constitution.
Income shall not be deemed property within the meaning of this Constitution, and a tax upon income shall not be deemed to be a property tax.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."
Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Would Senator Goltz yield to a question, please? Senator Goltz, is it your intent with this to offer to the people the statutory enactment of the income tax at the same time as you are offering the constitutional amendment?"

Senator Goltz: "No, it is not."

Senator Morrison: "In other words, you are asking them to vote on an income tax without any specific provisions."

Senator Goltz: "This would be asking them to vote on the authorization of an income tax with the understanding that they would have back as a referendum, the enacting legislation."

Senator Morrison: "Could you predict a timetable on this procedure?"

Senator Goltz: "Thirty-four days."

Senator Morrison: "Thank you."

Senator Cunningham moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Goltz:

After line 21 of the Goltz amendment, insert the following:

"(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution, the total amount of all taxes imposed by the state of Washington shall not exceed nine percent of the total personal income of the residents of the state of Washington as determined on an annual basis."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Cunningham yield to a question? Senator Cunningham, my understanding of, quote, 'taxes imposed by the state of Washington' would include all of the subdivisions of the state."

Senator Cunningham: "You mean local government?"

Senator Bottiger: "Yes."

Senator Cunningham: "It is our understanding that is not true in that local taxation is addressed separately in this bill."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Cunningham, the publicity of the proponent of this idea, the lady that is filing the amendment, thinks otherwise. She says this is all taxes, the group that does so. Now, the problem with your amendment is, you take a fire district or a school district that wants to run a levy and maybe they want to buy the fire hall one time or they build the school building and the swimming pool one time and they are willing to vote for a larger amount. When we added all those up, which one of them goes over the nine percent? Are we going to decide that Fife gets to build theirs, or pass their levy, or Senator Clarke's area does not have their levy because they have, quote, 'somehow broken the rule in that area of the nine percent'?"

"For this reason, that idea, while very worthwhile, and very popular to consider, simply isn't practical."

Senator Cunningham: "Mr. President, in an attempt to respond to the question, it is our understanding with the caucus attorney and with some others that I have talked to that this, by stating 'taxes imposed by the state of Washington' will simply be just state taxes and have nothing to do with local taxation or those taxing entities. I would urge and request your support of this amendment."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Matson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Lewis (Harry), Morrison, Guess, Jones, Benitz, Pullen, Bluechel, North and Buffington.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Cunningham, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Pullen and Lewis (Harry) to the amendment by Senator Goltz.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 30; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Clarke, Cunningham, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Pullen, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker—16.

Excused: Senators Francis, Keefe, Ridder—3.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 131 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 131, and the resolution failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 23; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Scott, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Wilson—23.

Excused: Senators Francis, Keefe, Ridder—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 131, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared lost.

MOTION

At 4:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the Call of President Pro Tempore Henry.

EVENING SESSION

President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 8:25 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1624.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1624, by Representatives Shinpoch and Bagnarol:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. FOR THE LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD

Liquor Board Revolving Fund Appropriation. $ 1,000

The Washington State Liquor Control Board is authorized in its discretion to negotiate for and exchange its warehouse site and building, located at 4201 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, for a warehouse site and building which, with this appropriated amount, shall be of equal or greater value to be provided by the Port of Seattle at a different location in King County.

Sec. 52. Section 187, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

In accordance with the provisions of this section the office of program planning and fiscal management shall use the allotment process during the 1975-77 biennium to control the funding of the formula portion of the instruction and departmental research programs of all the four year institutions of higher education and the community colleges. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, deviations in the formula entitlements for faculty staffing shall be the controlling factor. For the purpose of this section, the "contract level" is defined as the formula entitlement level upon which the budget is base, and the "base level" is defined as the formula entitlement level corresponding to the prior years' contract or actual enrollment level, whichever is lower.

[Controls]: PROVIDED, That for the initial year of the biennium for community colleges the base for implementing the contract level shall be the budgeted enrollment level as determined by the state board for community college education at which each college district was funded for the 1974-75 year. The provisions of contract enrollment shall be applied to each four year institution separately and to the community college education system as a total entity. “Growth funding” is defined as that portion of the appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level. All growth funds shall be reserved at the time of annual allotments. Such reserves shall be released only to the extent that the contract level is achieved, based upon the office of program planning and fiscal management’s population studies section projections of full year enrollments from actual enrollments on the tenth day of the fall term. Growth funding not so released shall lapse at the end of a fiscal year. [In any case where actual formula faculty entitlement, as computed from full year enrollments in spring, exceeds the contract level by more than one and one-half percent, appropriated funds equal in amount to the student operating fees derived from such excess enrollment shall be withheld during the same or subsequent year and shall revert to the state general fund following the close of the 1975-77 biennium.]

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. If, on the basis of revenue estimates and projections effective May 1, 1976, the governor determines that general fund expenditures are likely to exceed general fund revenues for the current biennium, he shall order reductions in expenditures by agencies in the executive branch, excluding higher education and the state common school system, up to an aggregate amount not to exceed $20,000,000, of which not more than $15,000,000 shall be absorbed by the department of social and health services. The office of program planning and fiscal management, at the direction of the governor, shall determine the amount of savings by each agency: PROVIDED, That if a reduction in force is required to implement the provisions of this section, such reduction shall be based on FTE staff years and applied in a proportional manner among (a) all merit system classifications and exempt personnel; and (b) programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. There is hereby appropriated to the general fund the sum of $5,508,264 from Suspense Fund 705.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. If any provision of this 1976 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On line 1 of the title after “AN ACT Relating to” strike the remainder of the title and insert “expenditures by state agencies and offices of the state; making appropriations for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1975 and ending June 30, 1977; amending section 11, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified); amending section 67, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified); amending section 149, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, Senator Henry in the Chair, for the purpose of considering Engrossed House Bill No. 1624.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Engrossed House Bill No. 1624 was considered in the Committee of the Whole and on motion of Senator Walgren, the committee arose without a report.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 on third reading.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2778, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Donohue, Odegaard and Wilson):

Relating to revenue and taxation.

MOTION

Senator Washington moved Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 be held on the third reading calendar for March 11, 1976.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Washington was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved the rules be suspended and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 be returned to second reading.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Walgren, would you yield to a question? Senator Walgren, the tax bill that we reconsidered the other day on a motion by Senator Washington — that is the bill that contains approximately thirty-six million dollars to fund the budget that Senator Donohue, the chairman of ways and means committee, has presented to us tonight?"

Senator Walgren: "That is correct, Senator Rasmussen. That tax measure needs to pass in order to fund the budget bill that we have been working on. It would not, of course, fund the two hundred and eighty million dollars that is going to be required to take care of the Newschwander plan. On the other hand, if that tax bill goes down to defeat then of course all the items that we have contained in the budget that came out of the ways and means committee cannot be funded and that budget will not be able to go into effect."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Walgren."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Donohue, would you yield to a question? Senator Donohue, in the event that we were to receive enough votes for this budget, if we pass this tax bill, and then we pass the budget as you have presented it to us, that will provide for a raise for state employees, some for nursing homes, and a major portion of it for schools. Is this correct?"

Senator Donohue: "If I understand you correctly, Senator, the budget that we are working on at the present time needs the thirty-six million dollar tax package which is in the present Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 to balance this particular budget — the budget you have in your pink sheet. It would take care of those items that you mentioned."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Donohue."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "Point of order, Mr. President. Is the motion to suspend the rules debatable?"

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "No."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Mardesich demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators
President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger that the rules be suspended and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 be returned to second reading.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE
March 6, 1976.
Mr. Speaker:
Mr. President:
We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3172, creating a state energy policy commission, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request powers of free conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds and declares that it is the continuing purpose of state government, consistent with other essential considerations of state policy, to foster wise and efficient energy use and to promote energy self-sufficiency through the use of indigenous and renewable energy sources, consistent with the promotion of reliable energy sources, the general welfare, and the protection of environmental quality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the policy of the state of Washington that:
(1) The development and use of a diverse array of energy resources with emphasis on renewable energy resources shall be encouraged;
(2) The development and use of energy resources shall be consistent with the statutory environmental policies of the state;
(3) Energy conservation and elimination of wasteful and uneconomic uses of energy and materials be encouraged. This conservation should include, but not be limited to, resource recovery and materials recycling;
(4) In energy emergency shortage situations, energy requirements to maintain the public health, safety, and welfare shall be given priority in the allocation of energy resources, and citizens and industry shall be assisted in adjusting to the limited availability of energy in order to minimize adverse impacts on their physical, social, and economic well being; and
(5) State government shall provide a source of impartial and objective information in order that this energy policy may be enhanced.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this chapter:
(1) "Energy" means: Petroleum or other liquid fuels; natural or synthetic fuel gas; solid carbonaceous fuels; fissionable nuclear material; electricity; solar radiation; geoth-eral resources; organic waste products; wind; tidal activity; or any other substance or process used to produce heat, light, or motion;

(6) "Energy facility" means an energy facility as defined in RCW 80.50.020 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The "state energy office" is hereby created as an agency of state government, responsible to the governor and the legislature for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The director shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The salary of the director shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of RCW 43.03.040. The director shall employ such personnel as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The employment of such personnel shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, except as provided in section 10 of this 1976 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That the state energy office and its powers, duties and functions shall be dissolved and this act as it relates thereto shall have no further force and effect after April 1, 1981: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the legislature may extend this time period through legislative enactment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The energy office shall have the following duties:

(1) To establish and maintain a central repository in state government for collection of data on energy resources, including but not limited to:

(a) Data on energy supply, demand, costs, projections, and forecasts;

(b) Inventory data on energy research projects in the state conducted under public and/or private auspices, and the results thereof;

(2) To prepare analyses of such data as well as analyses of projections and/or forecasts of energy supply and demand in the state and region as are necessary for development of recommendations with respect to the timing of construction of additional facilities and other energy programs and the development of other information as is necessary to support the performance of its duties;

(5) To prepare in conjunction with the energy advisory council, contingency plans for implementation by state government in the case of a clear and foreseeable danger of energy shortages or actual energy emergencies. Such plans shall include procedures for determining when such shortages or emergencies exist, the state officers and agencies to participate in such determination, and actions to be taken by various agencies and officers of state government in order to reduce hardship and maintain the general welfare during such emergencies. The components of such plans that require legislation for their implementation shall be presented to the legislature in the form of proposed legislation at the earliest practicable date;

(6) To advise and support agencies of state government whose plans and programs involve the production, conversion, transmission, or end-use of significant amounts of energy, or which require knowledge of the present and projected supply and demand of energy, so that such agencies may evaluate the consequences of such actions with respect to state energy goals;

(7) To advise and support the regulatory functions of state agencies through information, reports, and studies;

(8) To present state interests and concerns on energy matters to local governments, other states, regional interstate energy organizations, federal agencies, and private interests: PROVIDED, That nothing in this subsection shall be construed to abrogate or diminish the functions, powers, or duties of other state agencies established by law;

(11) To serve as the official state agency responsible for coordination of energy-related activities;

(12) To adopt rules, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, necessary to carry out the powers and duties enumerated in sections 5 and 6 of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In addition to the duties prescribed in section 5 of this 1976 amendatory act, the energy office shall have the authority to:

(1) Obtain all necessary information from energy producers, suppliers, and consumers, doing business within the state of Washington, from political subdivisions in this state, or any person as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such information may include but not be limited to:

(a) Sales volume;
(b) Forecasts of energy requirements; and
(c) Inventory of energy.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, information furnished under this subsection shall be confidential and maintained as such, if so requested by the person providing the information, if the information is proprietary.

It shall be unlawful to disclose such information except as hereinafter provided. A violation shall be punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars for each offense. In addition, any person who wilfully or with criminal negligence, as defined in RCW 9A.08.010, discloses confidential information in violation of this subsection may be subject to removal from office or immediate dismissal from public employment notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary.

Nothing in this subsection prohibits the use of confidential information to prepare statistics or other general data for publication when it is so presented as to prevent identification of particular persons or sources of confidential information.

(2) Receive and expend funds obtained from the federal government or other sources by means of contracts, grants, awards, payments for services, and other devices in support of energy-related scientific and technical programs, studies, operations, and other activities beneficial to the state of Washington: PROVIDED, That expenditures of such funds shall be subject to prior approval by the legislative budget committee.

Sec. 11. Section 5, chapter 10, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.31.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of the department of commerce and economic development through the division of nuclear energy development, known as the office of nuclear energy development, in cooperation with the state energy office, shall, in addition to the powers and duties otherwise imposed by law, have the following special powers and duties:

(1) Expend such state funds as may be appropriated by the legislature in order to acquire, develop and operate land and facilities which the director believes will foster the development of the state's nuclear economic potential. Such acquisition may be by lease, dedication, purchase, or other arrangement: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the state to acquire nuclear facilities or property to engage in competition with organizations or persons. The leasing from the [Atomic Energy Commission] Energy Research and Development Administration of one thousand acres of land lying within the boundaries of the Hanford works near Richland, Washington, in a lease executed on September 10, 1964, is an example of the proper exercise of powers within the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Lease, sublease, or sell real and personal properties to public or private bodies on a competitive basis and at a fair market value when the director believes that such transactions will foster the development of the state's nuclear economic potential.

The director may, however, on a competitive basis lease real and personal properties at less than fair market value on a short term basis if he believes that the long term gain to the state's economic growth justifies such an agreement. Where the lease or sale requires the lessee or purchaser to use the premises for the operation of a specific type of activity, the notice to bidders shall specify the type of business activity required. Final selection among bidders shall, subject to the provisions herein, be by the director with the advice and consent of the [governor's advisory council on nuclear energy and radia-
(3) Enter into contracts with state and private institutions within the state for the carrying out of basic research in such uses of nuclear energy as may be helpful to the economic development of the state.

(4) Assure the maintenance of such insurance coverage by state licensees, lessees, or sublessees as will adequately, in the opinion of the director, protect the citizens of the state of Washington against nuclear incidents that may occur on privately or state controlled nuclear facilities.

(5) Assume responsibility for perpetual surveillance and/or maintenance of radioactive materials held for waste management purposes at any publicly or privately operated facility located within the state, in the event the parties operating such facilities abandon said responsibility, and whenever the federal government or any of its agencies has not assumed said responsibility.

In order to finance such perpetual surveillance and maintenance as the director may undertake, he may collect fees from private or public parties holding radioactive materials for waste management purposes at a total charge of not less than [five cents per cubic foot of space occupied by materials so held, stored, or buried] the prevailing rates at similar sites in the nation: PROVIDED. That in the event the estimated total of such fees will be insufficient to defray the estimated cost of administration of this responsibility for any next ensuing fiscal biennium, the director may prescribe additional fees not exceeding fifty cents per cubic foot] as may be necessary to defray estimated waste management expenses for future fiscal bienniums. All such fees, when received by the director, shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall act as custodian. The treasurer shall place the money in a special account, in the manner prescribed by chapter 42.24 RCW, and shall be subject to post audit by the state auditor. No appropriations shall be required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from such fund, but the condition of the fund and its administration shall be reported biennially to the legislature by the director. Moneys in the perpetual maintenance fund shall be invested by the state finance committee in the manner as other state moneys: PROVIDED. HOWEVER. That any interest accruing as a result of investment shall accrue to the perpetual maintenance fund.

Additional moneys as may be specifically appropriated by the legislature, or received from any public or private source, may be placed in the perpetual maintenance fund. The perpetual maintenance fund shall be used exclusively for surveillance and maintenance costs, or for otherwise satisfying surveillance and maintenance obligations.

(6) Enter into an agreement with the federal government or any of its authorized agencies to assume perpetual surveillance and/or maintenance of lands leased or purchased from the federal government or any of its authorized agencies and used as a burial or storage site for radioactive wastes.

Sec. 12. Section 1, chapter 207. Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.98.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the policy of the state of Washington in furtherance of its responsibility to protect the public health and safety and to encourage, insofar as consistent with this responsibility, the industrial and economic growth of the state:

(1) and to institute and maintain a regulatory and inspection program for sources and uses of ionizing radiation so as to provide for [(a)] (1) compatibility with the standards and regulatory programs of the federal government. [(b)] (2) a single, effective system of regulation within the state, and [(c)] (3) a system consonant insofar as possible with those of other states; and

(2) To institute and maintain a program to encourage widespread participation in the development and utilization of sources of ionizing radiation and atomic energy for peaceful purposes to the maximum extent consistent with the health and safety of the public.

Laws of 1965 and RCW 70.98.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to effectuate the policies set forth in RCW 70.98.010 as now or hereafter amended by providing for:

(1) A program of effective regulation of sources of ionizing radiation for the protection of the occupational and public health and safety;

(2) A program to promote an orderly regulatory pattern within the state, among the states and between the federal government and the state and facilitate intergovernmental cooperation with respect to use and regulation of sources of ionizing radiation to the end that duplication of regulation may be minimized;

(3) A program to establish procedures for assumption and performance of certain regulatory responsibilities with respect to byproduct, source, and special nuclear materials;

(4) A program to permit maximum utilization of sources of ionizing radiation consistent with the health and safety of the public.

Sec. 14. Section 24, chapter 207, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.98.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The agency [and the council] shall study, formulate, and recommend to the legislature from time to time specific recommendations to further the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The legislature finds that energy in various forms is increasingly subject to possible shortages and supply disruptions, to the point that there may be foreseen an emergency situation, and that without the ability to institute appropriate emergency measures to reduce and/or allocate the usage of energy through a program of mandatory usage curtailment and/or allocation, a severe impact on the health, safety, and general welfare of our state's citizens may occur. The prevention or mitigation of the effects of such energy shortages or disruptions is necessary for preservation of the public health and welfare of the citizens of this state.

It is the intent of this chapter to:

(1) Establish necessary energy emergency powers for the governor and define the conditions under which such powers are to be exercised;

(2) Provide penalties for violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Energy facility" means a facility which produces, extracts, converts, transports, or stores energy.

(2) "Energy" means petroleum or other liquid fuels; natural or synthetic fuel gas; solid carbonaceous fuels; fissionable nuclear material; or electricity.

(3) "Person" means an individual, partnership, joint venture, private or public corporation, association, firm, public service company, political subdivision, municipal corporation, government agency, public utility district, joint operating agency or any other entity, public or private, however organized.

(4) "Council" means the energy advisory council created by section 8 of this 1976 amendatory act.

(5) "Distributor" means any person, private corporation, partnership, individual proprietorship, utility, including investor-owned utilities, joint operating agencies, municipal utility, public utility district, or cooperative, which engage in or are authorized to engage in the activity of generating, transmitting or distributing energy in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. It is the intent of the legislature that the governor and the council, in developing provisions for the allocation, conservation, and consumption of energy give due consideration to supplying vital public services such as essential governmental operations, health and safety functions, emergency services, public mass transportation systems, food production and processing facilities, and energy supply facilities during conditions of an energy supply alert or energy emergency. In developing any energy allocation programs, provisions should be made for the equitable distribution of energy among the geographic areas of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. In addition to his existing powers and duties, the governor shall have the following duties and special energy emergency powers subject to the definitions and limitations in this chapter.

(1) The governor may, upon finding that a situation exists which threatens to seriously disrupt or diminish energy supplies to the extent that life, health, or property may be jeopardized, declare a condition or state of "energy supply alert", at which time all of the general and specific emergency powers further enumerated in this section shall become effective. Concurrent with such declaration the governor shall convene the council which shall then meet within five days of the declaration of the alert, if it is not already in session.

(2) The condition of "energy supply alert" shall terminate after sixty consecutive days unless a continuing condition of "energy supply alert" exists, which shall be defined as the occurrence of either of the following: (a) Extension by the governor based on a declaration by the president of the United States of a national state of emergency in regard to energy supply, or (b) declaration of the legislature by concurrent resolution of a continuing condition of "energy supply alert".

(3) The conditions of an energy supply alert shall alternatively cease to exist upon a declaration to that effect by either of the following: (a) The governor; or (b) the legislature, by concurrent resolution, if in regular or extraordinary session.

(4) In a declared state of energy supply alert, the governor may, upon recommendation or approval of the energy advisory council, (a) implement such programs, controls, standards, priorities, and quotas for the production, allocation, conservation, and consumption of energy; (b) suspend and modify existing pollution control standards and requirements or any other standards or requirements affecting or affected by the use of energy, including those relating to air or water quality control; and (c) establish and implement regional programs and agreements for the purposes of coordinating the energy programs and actions of the state with those of the federal government and of other states and localities.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any program, control, standard, priority quota, or other policy created under the authority of the emergency powers authorized by this chapter shall have any continuing legal effect after the cessation of a declared state of energy supply alert.

If any provision of this chapter is in conflict with any other provision, limitation, or restriction which is now in effect under any other law of this state, this chapter shall govern and control, and such other law or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder shall be deemed superseded for the purposes of this chapter.

Because of the emergency nature of this chapter, all actions authorized or required hereunder, or taken pursuant to any order issued by the governor, shall be exempted from any and all requirements and provisions of the state environmental policy act of 1971, chapter 43.21C RCW, including, but not limited to, the requirement for environmental impact statements.

Except as provided in this section nothing in this chapter shall exempt a person from compliance with the provisions of any other law, rule, or directive unless specifically ordered by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. To protect the public welfare during conditions of energy alerts or emergencies, the chief executive of each political subdivision of the state and each state agency is hereby authorized and directed to carry out in his jurisdiction such energy supply alert or energy emergency measures as may be ordered by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. In order to attain uniformity, as far as is practicable throughout the country in measures taken to aid in energy crisis management, all action taken under this chapter and all orders and rules made pursuant hereto, shall be taken or made with due consideration for and consistent when practicable with the orders, regulations, actions, recommendations, and requests of federal authorities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Notwithstanding any provision of law or contract to the contrary, all persons who are affected by an order issued or action taken pursuant to this chapter shall comply therewith immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The governor may order any distributor to take such action on his behalf as may be required to implement orders issued pursuant to this chapter, and no distributor shall be liable for actions taken in accordance with such order: PROVIDED. That orders to regulated distributors shall be issued by the Wash-

Washington utilities and transportation commission in conformance with orders of the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order issued pursuant to this chapter may petition the governor and request an exception from or modification of such order. The governor may grant, modify, or deny such petition as the public interest may require.

(2) An appeal from any order issued or action taken pursuant to this chapter may be taken to the state supreme court. Such an appeal shall take the form of a petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition under Article IV, section 4 of the state Constitution, and the supreme court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and act upon such an appeal. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 7.16 RCW, or any other applicable statute, the superior courts of this state shall have no jurisdiction to entertain an action or suit relating to any order issued for action taken pursuant to this chapter, nor to hear and determine any appeal from any such order. The provisions of Rule on Appeal 1-58 shall apply to any proceedings in the supreme court brought pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Any person wilfully violating any provision of an order issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 25. Section 43.06.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 186, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 43.06.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) He shall supervise the conduct of all executive and ministerial offices;

(2) He shall see that all offices are filled, and the duties thereof performed, or in default thereof, apply such remedy as the law allows; and if the remedy is imperfect, acquaint the legislature therewith at its next session;

(3) He shall make the appointments and supply the vacancies mentioned in this title;

(4) He is the sole official organ of communication between the government of this state and the government of any other state or territory, or of the United States;

(6) He may require the attorney general or any prosecuting attorney to inquire into the affairs or management of any corporation existing under the laws of this state, or doing business in this state, and report the same to him, or to any grand jury designated by him, or to the legislature when next in session;

(7) He may require the attorney general to aid any prosecuting attorney in the discharge of his duties;

(8) He may offer rewards, not exceeding one thousand dollars in each case, payable out of the state treasury, for the apprehension of any person convicted of a felony who has escaped from the state prison or of any person who has committed or is charged with the commission of a felony;

Sec. 29. Section 1, chapter 45, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 80.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the present and predicted growth in [electric power] energy demands in the state of Washington requires the development of a procedure for the selection and utilization of sites for [thermal generating facilities] energy facilities and the identification of a state position with respect to each proposed site. The legislature recognizes that the selection of sites [and the routing of associated transmission

It is the policy of the state of Washington [that, while recognizing] to recognize the pressing need for increased [power generation] energy facilities. [the state shall] and to ensure through available and reasonable methods, that the location and operation of [thermal power plants] such facilities will produce minimal adverse effects on the environment, ecology of the land and its wildlife, and the ecology of state waters and their aquatic life.

It is the intent to seek courses of action that will balance the increasing demands for [thermal power plant] energy facility location and operation in conjunction with the broad interests of the public. Such action will be based on these premises:

(1) To assure Washington state citizens that, where applicable, operational safeguards are at least as stringent as the criteria established by the federal government and are technically sufficient for their welfare and protection.

(2) To preserve and protect the quality of the environment; to enhance the public's opportunity to enjoy the esthetic and recreational benefits of the air, water and land resources; to promote air cleanliness; and to pursue beneficial changes in the environment.

The full cost of the study shall be paid by the potential applicant: PROVIDED. That such costs exceeding a total of ten thousand dollars shall be payable subject to the potential applicant giving prior approval to such excess amount.

(4) Any study prepared by the council pursuant to subsection (3) of this section [shall] may be used in place of the “detailed statement” required by RCW 43.21C.030(2)(c) by any branch of government except the [thermal power plant site evaluation] council created pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW. March 10, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 779, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

February 26, 1976.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 779, permitting employees of political subdivisions of the state to join the state employee's insurance and health care system, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the Senate amendment be adopted with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 23 of the Senate amendment, after “RCW” insert “: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the event of a special district employee transfer pursuant to this section, members of the governing authority shall be eligible to be included in such transfer if such members are authorized by law as of the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act to participate in the insurance program being transferred from and subject to payment by such members of all costs of insurance for members”

On page 2, line 26 of the Senate amendment, after “or” strike “the legislative branch of any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state” and insert “of the legislative authority of any county, city, or town”

Signed by: Senators Bailey, Buffington and Rasmussen; Representatives Sommers, McKibbin and Kuehnle.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 779 was adopted.
SIXTY-SIXTH DAY, MARCH 11, 1976

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 779, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Herr, Peterson, Pullen, Sellar—4.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 779, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of the motion for reconsideration by Senator Beck on the failure of the Senate to pass Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989, as amended by the Conference Committee, on March 4, 1976.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry. The bill, as I understand it, is in conference. There is a Free Conference committee report which the Senate rejected — in effect, killing the bill. Senator Beck is asking us to reconsider that and I know of no way he can get it back to second or third reading or anything else."

Debate ensued.

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Well, of course. I think that the correct procedure would be for this body to reconsider this vote where the bill failed to pass and then reconsider the vote by which we adopted the Free Conference committee report. Then having failed to adopt the Free Conference committee report, it goes back into conference. That is the only procedure I think will work."

The motion by Senator Beck carried and the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989, as amended by the Conference Committee, failed to pass the Senate.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Beck, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2989, as amended by the Conference Committee, on reconsideration, was ordered held.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

It is therefore the intent of this 1976 amendatory act to make available sufficient financial resources to enable the common school system to provide ample educational opportunities to public school students and to further encourage local support of the common schools by providing supplemental state payments to guarantee and equalize educational opportunity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. After July 1, 1976, each school district which has received authorization for collection of an excess levy for general maintenance and operations in accordance with section 27 of this 1976 amendatory act shall be guaranteed, from funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter, a supplemental amount as follows: To the extent that any levy in the full amount authorized by section 27(1)(b) of this 1976 amendatory act raises less than an amount equal to three hundred dollars per average annual full time equivalent pupil enrolled in the district, the district shall receive a supplemental amount equal to the deficiency: PROVIDED, That in the event a school district levies less than the maximum amount authorized by section 27(1)(b) of this 1976 amendatory act, the supplemental amount shall be proportionately reduced. The average annual full time equivalent pupils enrolled shall be that for the last completed school year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. (1) Each levy proposal submitted to the voters for approval, to be eligible for supplemental payments of state funds as set forth in section 26 of this 1976 amendatory act, in addition to the requirements set forth in chapter 84.52 RCW, shall meet the following requirements: (a) It shall state that it is submitted as qualification for such supplemental payments; (b) the proposal shall not exceed the amount which would be raised by a tax of two dollars per thousand dollars upon the state equalized value of both all taxable property and the timber shown on the timber roll within the school district: PROVIDED, That for purposes of this subsection the term "state equalized value" shall mean a district's assessed value of property and/or, as the case may be, the value of such district's timber as shown on the timber roll divided by the indicated ratio of the county, or portion thereof in which the district is located, fixed by the department of revenue, both of which factors shall be for the assessment year immediately preceding the year in which such proposed levy is to be made; (c) it shall be set forth separately on the ballot in such manner that it can be approved by the voters without concurrent approval of any other proposal for additional levies pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW; and (d) any election(s) on such proposal(s) shall be conducted on the following dates: First election — on the second Tuesday in March; second election — on the second Tuesday in May: PROVIDED, That any election(s) on levy proposals submitted to the voters for collection in 1977 may be held on or before May 25, 1976: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing contained in this 1976 amendatory act shall be construed as authorizing or purporting to authorize more than two such submissions within the twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made.

(2) In the event any school district has called an election for authorization of an excess levy for collection in 1977 (for maintenance and operations purposes, as defined by the superintendent of public instruction) pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 prior to the effective date of this 1976 amendatory act:

(a) In the event that the amount, if any, authorized by such district's electors is less than or equals the maximum amount set forth in section 30 of this 1976 amendatory act, such district shall receive the supplemental amount computed in the manner set forth in section 26 of this 1976 amendatory act;
(b) In the event that the amount, if any, authorized by such district's electors exceeds the aggregate total set forth in section 30 of this 1976 amendatory act, such district is authorized to levy in 1976 no amount greater than the aggregate total levy amount authorized by section 30 of this 1976 amendatory act, and thereafter, such district shall receive the supplemental amount computed in the manner set forth in section 26 of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Prior to November 1st of each year, the superintendent of public instruction, in cooperation with the department of revenue, shall determine the state-wide average assessed valuation per full time equivalent pupil by dividing the assessed valuation used by the state for the collection of taxes in the current calendar year by the state-wide average annual full time equivalent pupils enrolled during the last completed school year. If such state-wide average assessed valuation per full time equivalent pupil exceeds the state-wide average assessed valuation per full time equivalent pupil computed on the basis of the assessed valuation used by the state for state taxes collected in 1976 and the state-wide average annual full time equivalent pupils enrolled in the 1974-1975 school year, the three hundred dollar guarantee level set forth in section 26 of this 1976 amendatory act shall be increased for the following school year by an amount equal to two dollars per thousand dollars of such excess.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The superintendent of public instruction shall compute the entitlement of each school district for payments under the terms of this 1976 amendatory act and apportion such amount from moneys appropriated by the legislature over the school budget year in which the property taxes authorized pursuant to section 27 of this 1976 amendatory act are first payable.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: “Will Senator Morrison yield? The extra money you are talking about, do you have an idea what that amount is?”

Senator Morrison: “Yes, approximately a hundred and twenty-four million dollars per year and if all the state-wide levies passed, if we shifted to the Bottiger portion of the plan — Senator Bottiger, correct me, but approximately a hundred and seventeen to a hundred and twenty million of that would be used. What we are just providing is if all that money is not used that it is still earmarked within the general fund for educational support purposes.”

Senator Donohue: “I understand that. I think staff said that above the needs of the Bottiger plan there would probably be about thirty million dollars.”

Senator Bottiger: “Mr. President, I think that is probably correct because of the lateness of this year and the number of districts that simply could not qualify under the Hodde plan, especially after we wait for the state election it may be even more than that. What Senator Morrison is doing is saying to the people and to us that that excess money collected would stay there and the amount of any tax increase necessary next year is reduced by what we have still got on hand.”

The motion by Senator Morrison carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Bottiger were considered and adopted simultaneously:

MOTION
At 3:47 p.m., on motion of Senator Matson, the Senate was declared to be at ease.
President Pro Tempore Henry called the Senate to order at 4:12 p.m.
President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger, as amended.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Scott: “Would Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, it is plain the pass that we are at right now is — the minority came forth with a plan. It is not dissimilar from that created by Senator Bottiger and former Speaker Hodde, and we are going to have to vote on it. I think we have the right to know how many votes on the most recent count there are in the majority caucus for this plan. Are you going to supply a fair share? Does this measure have any chance of passing? Exactly what is the point?”

Senator Walgren: “Senator Scott, as I indicated before this session even started, we were going to make a determination as to what the level of school funding, what kind of a budget we were going to have and that determination was going to be made out here on the floor. It was one of my desires that we have a bill or bills that come down here to the floor of the Senate so that we could debate it openly, that we could propose whatever amendments had to be proposed. I think that is what we have been doing. Now, we are all going to have an opportunity of voting. I don’t know what each and every individual on this floor thinks or how they are going to vote but they are going to have that opportunity of saying yes or no. So I think we are going to get that count just very shortly. I don’t know how many votes there are for any particular plan out here at the moment.”

Further debate ensued.

Senator Newschwander demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Benitz, Bottiger, Gould, Morrison, Fleming, Washington, Buffington, Bailey and Wanamaker.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger, as amended.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Sections 2 through 13 of this act are added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and Title 84 RCW as a new chapter therein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter unless otherwise required by context:

(1) "Department" means the department of revenue;

(2) "Taxpayer" means any natural person or individual, and every corporation, company, association, partnership, trust, estate or other business entity or organization operated for profit and receiving income;

(3) "Doing business" includes any transaction or transactions within this state by any taxpayer in the course of his or its business or activity;

(4) "Income year" means the calendar year: PROVIDED, That the first income year shall be for the six month period commencing on July 1, 1976.

(5) "Transfer payments" means public assistance payments received pursuant to Title 74 RCW, unemployment compensation payments received pursuant to state or federal law and payments received pursuant to the federal social security act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby levied upon and shall be collected from every taxpayer a tax computed at the rate of seven tenths of one percent of the taxpayer's gross income received from and after July 1, 1976.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. “Gross income” means all income which may be constitutionally taxable as property: PROVIDED, That gross income shall not include transfer payments. No deduction for costs, losses or other expenses whatsoever shall be allowable in determining "gross income". For the purpose of ascertaining the gain derived or loss sustained from the sale or other disposition of property, real, personal, or mixed, the basis shall be the fair market value as of the effective date of this act or the cost of said property on the date of acquisition if acquired after the effective date of this act under regulations prescribed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A taxpayer engaged in business within and without this state shall be taxed only on such gross income as is derived from business transacted within this state. The amount of gross income allocable to this state shall be determined in accordance with standards prescribed in Article IV of RCW 82.56.010 (Multistate tax compact). The department shall prescribe uniform regulations to determine proper apportionment of the gross income of such taxpayer to this state in accordance with such standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided, the first tax due under this chapter shall be due and payable on or before April 30, 1977 for the preceding calendar year, and on or before April 30th each year thereafter: PROVIDED, That the department may by rule prescribe a different filing and payment date for taxpayers whose accounts are maintained on other than a calendar year basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Every employer making a payment of wages or salaries earned in this state shall deduct and withhold a tax in such amount as shall be prescribed in tables promulgated by the department to reasonably reflect the tax liability of the employee under this act, and which shall be computed by the department in such a manner as to result as closely as possible in annual withholding of the taxpayer's annual tax liability. Every employer making a deduction and withholding as outlined above, shall furnish to the employee a record of the amount of tax withheld from such employee on forms to be prescribed and furnished by the department. Remittance of taxes withheld shall be made at such times and in such manner as are prescribed by regulations to be prescribed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Every employer or any other person required under section 7 of this act to deduct and withhold taxes from wages or salaries making payments of wages or salaries earned in this state, regardless of the place where such payment is made, shall be liable for the payment of the tax required to be deducted and withheld under section 7 of this act and shall not be liable to any individual for the amount of any such payment. Whenever any person is required to collect or withhold the tax imposed under this act from any other person and to pay over such tax to the department, the amount of tax so collected or withheld shall be held to be a special fund in trust for this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The amount so deducted and withheld as tax under sections 7 and 8 of this act during any taxable year shall be allowed as a credit against the tax imposed for such taxable year by this act. If the tax liability of any individual shown by the return is less than the total amount of the credit which he is entitled to claim purs-suant to this section, such individual shall be entitled to a refund in the amount of the excess of the credit over the tax otherwise due. No credit or refund shall be allowed purs-suant to this section unless such credit or refund is claimed on a return filed for the taxable year for which such amount was so deducted and withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Returns shall be in such form as the department shall from time to time prescribe and shall be filed with the department on or before April 30th for the preceding calendar year, unless a different filing and payment date has been prescribed by the department. Whenever good cause exists, the department may allow further time for filing returns except that no extension may be granted for more than six months.

(2) There shall be annexed to the return a statement verified by a written declaration of the taxpayer making the return to the effect that the statements contained therein are true.

(3) The department shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the returns and shall cause them to be distributed throughout the state and to be furnished upon application, but failure to receive or secure the form shall not relieve the taxpayer from the obligation of making any return required by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any taxpayer has failed to include in a return filed, either intentionally or through error, any item of gross income which should be included under the provisions of this chapter, the department shall require from such taxpayer a return, or supplementary return under oath, in such form as it shall prescribe, of all items of gross income which the taxpayer received during the year for which the return is made. If from a supplementary return, or otherwise, the department finds that any items of gross income includible under this chapter, have been omitted from the original return, it may require the items so omitted to be disclosed to it, under oath of the taxpayer, and to be added to the original return. No return or supplementary return shall be deemed complete, so as to prevent the application of penalties and interest, unless the correctness of all matters contained therein has been certified by the taxpayer or a reasonable officer therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Any taxpayer, or representative of any taxpayer, who, with intent to evade this tax, fails to make, render, sign or verify any return, or pay the tax imposed by this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor for each such act.

(2) Any person, including any taxpayer, or representative of any taxpayer, who, with intent to evade this tax, wilfully makes any false statement in any notice, estimate, or return required to be filed by this act; or who falsifies his or the taxpayer's books or records, shall be guilty of a felony.

(3) The department shall in writing immediately notify both the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney of the applicable county of each such violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The powers conferred and duties imposed upon the department and the state treasurer with respect to the administration of chapter 82.04

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended and the sponsor of an amendment will be allowed to suspend the three-minute rule to explain the amendment. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Marsh: "Will Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, in reviewing your proposal I do not find the referendum clause on it that you discussed with some of us earlier. Do you intend to add it to this measure?"

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, Senator Marsh, if the measure needed a referendum in order to attract votes, yes I will offer it. I think it is on the desk."

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant:

On page 19, line 12, after "19." strike all the language on lines 12 and 13 and insert:

"This act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Will Senator Grant yield? I also obviously have not had a chance to read the whole bill but is there a proviso that this will only go to education or to schools?"

Senator Grant: "No, there is not."

Senator Gould: "So it will just go into the general fund?"

Senator Grant: "This is not the distribution measure. Senator Gould."

Senator Gould: "Okay, how do you intend to apportion it then, after that?"

Senator Grant: "The apportionment could be taken up by any number of plans. A combination of the Bottiger-Newschwander plan or whatever plan the legislature seems to think is the best. This provides the funding."

Senator Gould: "I have two other questions, if I may. One, could it also just go into the general fund and be used for anything else if we passed it as is?"

Senator Grant: "Yes, it could. If there were other items that were higher priority to the legislature, it could be."

Senator Gould: "I guess my last question is, do you have any idea how much money it would add if we extended this to personal income as well as business income."

Senator Grant: "This is also extended to personal income. This is not just a flat tax on business income."

Senator Gould: "You mean it is a tax on you and me also?"

Senator Grant: "That is correct."

Senator Gould: "Okay, fine. thank you."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant was adopted.

Senator Van Hollebeke demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Marsh, Goltz, Bailey, Washington, Sandison, Donohue, Benitz, Grant and Knoblauch.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Grant, as amended.

A vacancy shall not impair the powers of the remaining members to exercise all of the powers of the commission. Three members of the commission shall constitute a quorum. The commission shall elect its own chairman and adopt its own rules of procedure in the manner provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor, but only upon grounds of neglect of duty or misconduct in office.

Each member shall receive [fifteen] seventy-five dollars for each day or portion thereof spent in performance of his duties as a member of the commission, and in addition shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred while engaged in the business of the commission as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.43.060 as now or hereafter amended. The compensation provided pursuant to this section shall not be considered salary for purposes of the provisions of any retirement system created pursuant to the general laws of this state.
Nothing in this section shall prohibit the commission, or any of its members or staff on the authority of the commission, from responding to communications from the legislature or any of its members or from any state agency or from appearing and testifying at an open public meeting (as defined by RCW 42.30.030) or a hearing to adopt rules held pursuant to RCW 34.04.025 on matters directly affecting the exercise of their duties and powers under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. In lieu of reporting in accordance with RCW 42.17.060, a political committee may report fund-raising activities in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. A fund-raising activity which is to be reported in accordance with the provisions of this section shall conform with the following standards:
   (a) The income resulting from the conduct of the activity is derived solely from either (i) the retail sale of goods or services at prices which in no case exceed a reasonable approximation of the fair market value of each item or service sold at the activity, or (ii) a gambling operation which is licensed, conducted, or operated in accordance with the provisions of chapter 9.46 RCW and at which in no case is the monetary value of any prize exceeded by the monetary value of any single wager which may be made by a person participating in such activity;
   (b) No person responsible for receiving money at such activity shall knowingly accept payment from a single person which would result in a profit to the committee of ten dollars or more unless the name and address of the person making such payment together with the approximate amount of profit to the committee resulting from such payment are disclosed in the report filed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section; and
   (c) Such other standards as shall be established by rule and regulation of the commission to prevent frustration of the purposes of this chapter.

3. All funds obtained through the use of a fund-raising activity which conforms with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall be deposited by the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer in the same bank account into which contributions received by the committee are being deposited pursuant to RCW 42.17.060.

4. Within three days after depositing such funds in accordance with subsection (3) of this section, the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer making the deposit shall file with the commission a report which shall contain the following information:

   (b) The location at which the activity occurred;
   (c) A precise description of the fund-raising methods used in the activity;
   (d) A financial statement noting gross receipts and expenses for the activity, including an inventory list where appropriate;
   (e) The monetary value of wagers made and prizes distributed for winning wagers, where appropriate;
   (f) The name and address of each person who contributed goods or services to the committee for sale at the activity if the fair market value of the goods or services contributed equals ten dollars or more in the aggregate from such person, together with a precise description of each item or service contributed and its estimated market value;
   (g) The name and address of each person whose identity can be ascertained and who makes payments to the committee at such activity which result in a profit of ten dollars or more to the committee, together with the approximate amount of profit to the committee which results from such payments; and
   (h) A complete listing of the names and addresses of the persons responsible for conducting the activity.

5. The statement required by subsection (4) of this section shall be in duplicate upon a form prescribed by the commission, one copy to be filed by the campaign treasurer with the commission, and one copy to be retained by him for his records. Each statement shall be certified as correct by the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer making the deposit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:
On or after July 1st but before August 1st of each calendar year, the state treasurer, each county, public utility district, and port district treasurer, and each treasurer of an incorporated city or town whose population exceeds one thousand shall file with the commission a report disclosing for the previous twelve months ending June 30:

1. The name and address of each financial institution which holds or has held during the reporting period public accounts of governmental entities for which the treasurer is responsible; 2. the aggregate sum of time and demand deposits held in each financial institution on June 30 together with the highest balance held at any time during such reporting period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. Upon the failure of any person to file with the commission or the appropriate county auditor on or before the time specified in this chapter any statement or report herein required to be filed, a civil penalty in the amount of ten dollars shall be forthwith due and payable by the person responsible for the filing thereof. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, payment of such civil penalty shall be made to the commission upon the filing of such statement or report subsequent to its due date.

2. Upon application by the person responsible for such filing the commission may waive the imposition of the civil penalty specified in subsection (1) of this section, if the commission finds that failure to file in timely manner was unavoidable. Application for waiver of penalty shall be by petition in writing, setting forth the circumstances upon which the petitioner relies, and verified under oath by the petitioner. Such written application shall be submitted with the statement or report and shall operate to defer the payment of the civil penalty pending action upon the application by the commission. If the commission finds that failure to file in timely manner was unavoidable, the commission shall enter its order waiving imposition of the penalty.

If no such report is timely filed and if the commission finds that failure to file in a timely manner was avoidable, the commission may either:

(a) Enter an order directing immediate payment of the amount of the penalty. The person against whom such order is directed shall be designated as the respondent; or
(b) Find that an apparent violation of this chapter has occurred and take or direct appropriate action in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

3. No action taken by the commission pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to any provision of law requiring the prior holding of a hearing: PROVIDED, That action taken or directed after a finding of an apparent violation under subsection (2)(b) of this section shall be fully subject to the provisions of this chapter under which the commission chooses to proceed.

4. Any order issued by the commission under this section shall be subject to judicial review under the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW). If the commission's order is not satisfied and no petition for review if filed within thirty days as provided in RCW 34.04.130, the commission may petition the superior court of any county in which a petition for review could be filed under that section, for an order of enforcement. Proceedings in connection with the commission's petition shall be in accordance with section 13 of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. The commission may (a) determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred; and (b) issue and enforce an appropriate order following such determination.

2. The commission, in cases where it chooses to determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred, shall hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW) to make such determination. Any order which the commission issues under this section shall be pursuant to such hearing.

3. In lieu of holding a hearing or issuing an order under this section, the commission may refer the matter to the attorney general or other enforcement agency as provided in RCW 42.17.360.

4. The person against whom an order is directed under this section shall be designated as the respondent. Such order may require the respondent to cease and desist from the activity which constitutes a violation and in addition, or alternatively, may impose one or more of the remedies provided in RCW 42.17.390(1)(b), (c), (d), or (e): PROVIDED, That no individual penalty assessed by the commission shall exceed two hundred fifty dollars, and in any case where multiple violations are involved in a single complaint or hearing, the maximum aggregate penalty shall not exceed five hundred dollars.

(5) An order issued by the commission under this section shall be subject to judicial review under the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW). If the commission's order is not satisfied and no petition for review is filed within thirty days as provided in RCW 34.04.130, the commission may petition the superior court of any county in which a petition for review could be filed under that section, for an order of enforcement. Proceedings in connection with the commission's petition shall be in accordance with section 13 of this 1976 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The following procedure shall apply in all cases where the commission has petitioned a superior court for enforcement of any order it has issued pursuant to this chapter:

(1) A copy of the petition shall be served by certified mail directed to the respondent at his last known address. The court shall issue an order directing the respondent to appear at a time designated in the order, not less than five days from the date thereof, and show cause why the commission's order should not be enforced according to its terms.

(2) The commission's order shall be enforced by the court if the respondent does not appear, or if the respondent appears and the court finds, pursuant to a hearing held for that purpose:

(a) That the commission's order is unsatisfied; and
(b) That the order is regular on its face; and
(c) That the respondent's answer discloses no valid reason why the commission's order should not be enforced or that the respondent had an appropriate remedy by review under RCW 34.04.130 and failed to avail himself of that remedy without valid excuse.

(3) Upon appropriate application by the respondent, the court may, after hearing and for good cause, alter, amend, revise, suspend, or postpone all or part of the commission's order. In any case where the order is not enforced by the court according to its terms, the reasons for the court's actions shall be clearly stated in writing, and such action shall be subject to review by the appellate courts by certiorari or other appropriate proceeding.

(4) The court's order of enforcement, when entered, shall have the same force and effect as a civil judgment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any city, town, county, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district may individually compensate and pay for the necessary travel and living expenses incurred by its officers or employees for services rendered on behalf of the city, town, county, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district in connection with providing information to or communicating with any federal, state, or local elected official or public employee: PROVIDED, That this section shall not permit the use of such funds as a direct or indirect emolument, or direct or indirect campaign contribution, provided to any federal, state, or local elected official or public employee who is so contacted by any officer or employee of a city, town, county, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district.

(2) For the purposes of promoting open government, any city, town, county, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district which expends funds pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall report such funds in the same manner as a state agency would report the expenditures of funds for such purposes pursuant to RCW 42.17.190.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this 1976 amendatory act are intended to be remedial and shall be liberally construed, and nothing in this 1976 amendatory act shall be construed to limit the power of the commission under any other provision of chapter 42.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this 1976 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

"MEDITATE A MOMENT WITH ME. JUST OVER FOUR CENTURIES B.C., THE PHILOSOPHER SOCRATES CONCLUDED THAT THE MOST URGENT BUSINESS ON MANKIND'S AGENDA WAS TO CLOSE THE MORALITY GAP. HISTORIAN ARNOLD TOYNBEE INVITES US TO SUPPOSE — JUST SUPPOSE — WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF THE ABLEST MINDS AND MOST PERCEPTIVE SPIRITS OF OUR TIME WERE TO MAKE THEIR FIRST ORDER OF CONCERN THE CLOSING OF THE MORALITY GAP? THAT WOULD MEAN, FOR US, CONFESSIONING OUR SIN, TRYING TO DISTINGUISH RIGHT FROM WRONG, ATTEMPTING IN EVERY SITUATION TO DO NOT WHAT IS CONVENIENT, OR COMFORTABLE, OR ACCEPTABLE, BUT WHAT IS MORALLY RIGHT. FRANKLY I FIND THAT INSTITUTIONALIZING MORALITY IS AS DIFFICULT IN THE CHURCH AS YOU MAY IN THE SENATE. CAN POLITICS, THE-ART OF THE POSSIBLE, WITH ITS NECESSARY NEGOTIATIONS AND COMPROMISES BE CONDUCTED TO CLOSE THE GAP BETWEEN WHAT IS, AND WHAT IS MORALLY RIGHT? LET US PRAY:

"O GOD, OUR FATHER, FROM WHOM COMES ALL'SENSE OF TRUTH, JUSTICE, AND MORALITY, LET US BE SO COMMITTED TO THESE QUALITIES OF LIFE THAT SOCRATES' HOPE FOR THE MORALITY OF MANY MAY BE REALIZED, JUST A LITTLE MORE FULLY TODAY. IN THE MASTER'S NAME. SO BE IT."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1313, by Representatives Ehlers, Shinpoch, Bagnariol and Zimmerman:
Creating the Washington library network's revolving fund.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE
February 26, 1976.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1313, creating the Washington library network's revolving fund (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 2, line 2, after "costs" on line 1 and before "to" on line 2, strike "incidental" and insert "including but not limited"
Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Jones, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Rasmussen, Scott.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1313, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I am confused on this bill. I wonder, as it stands without the bill passing, what is going to be the practice of the regional libraries and their use of the network program? If it doesn't pass, what is the difference in the way their program reacts without the bill — with things as they are, or with the bill?"
Senator Donohue: "Without the bill, Senator, the state would be picking up the tab for the cost of the computer program that the libraries are involved in. This merely says that the user fee is actually what it is — the users shall provide funds to help offset the cost of the library network. Without the bill, of course, the state would just have to pick up that tab. The biennial cost of the network is about one point four million dollars."
Senator Bailey: "Senator Donohue, do you mean that they can run this bill without an appropriation? If we don't pass this bill, and it costs one and a quarter million dollars, what authority do they have to run a bill and charge the state for it without an outright appropriation given by us?"
Senator Donohue: "We created earlier this session a library network, state library commission. Isn't that right, Senator Wilson?"
Senator Wilson: "Mr. President and Senator Bailey and others, the state's share of the cost of operating this library network has to be appropriated in the budget. They are not out there running up bills and then sending us invoices that we have to pay. The amount that the state wants to put into this network each biennium will come before the Ways and Means Committee and will be established in the budget at a certain level.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, if I could ask Senator Donohue one question. The wording of the bill as I have it on page one, line twenty-two, calls for user fees to pay the full cost of operation and development. I missed your amendment but has that been changed so that in effect there will be an agreement and part of the cost will take the form of user fees and part will be paid by the state?"

Senator Donohue: "No, Senator. I was wrong a moment ago. The language in the bill was not changed and the full cost of this network will be paid by the user fees."

Senator Wilson: " Entirely by the user?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Wilson: "None by the state."

Senator Donohue: "That is correct."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Donohue yield, please? Senator, I think I can see both sides of this issue, and I share Senator Washington's concern about libraries without books having great computer systems. One question. I missed a little bit of the floor debate so if I missed something I apologize, but I don't know exactly what the main use of the computers would be. What kind of data processing would take up the bigger percentage of the use of these machines, for instance? Can you give us a little more information on that, please?"

Senator Donohue: "Could I have Senator Wilson answer that question? He is more familiar with that particular area."

Senator Wilson: "Senator Van Hollebeke and members. One of the functions of computerizing the library resources of the state is to avoid precisely what Senator Guess was referring to. That is the prospect of every library in the state amassing thousands of documents — many of them duplicatory. So, a major function of the network is to put into the computer system, by subject matter, author and other categories, those materials which are already available.

"Now, this will serve two purposes. One purpose is when a library user in Colville wants a certain manuscript, it can be quickly determined whether or not that manuscript is available in Spokane, or in Olympia, or in Bellingham, and arrangements can be made for its delivery to Colville. The second purpose this serves then is if the Colville library is thinking of acquiring a book, it can take a look at a print out from the computer system. It finds that five copies of this same book are already available in the Spokane library for example, so there really is no need for the Colville library to purchase another copy since they are already so accessible." Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator, do you think that one of the prime uses is going to be — or perhaps the prime use is going to be — finding out which books are available where? Because one possible problem I see there is that there really won't be very much transfer of books. First of all, transfer of books is a little bit expensive and I see the possibility there really won't be very much transfer of books. I don't see books moving across state all that much."

Senator Wilson: "Senator, a great deal of that goes on now. Even in our Omak library, which is a good, small town library but has nothing like the collection of the University of Washington — I can obtain any document that is held by any library in the state through the existing interloan program. The development of the computerized system would, among other things, greatly facilitate my being able to obtain such a work."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Do you happen to know at the present time what kind of books are being transferred mainly? Is it reference books? Or can you say?"

Senator Wilson: "No, I don't know, Senator."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Okay, thank you."

Further debate ensued.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended and Senator Herr was excused.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1497, by Representatives Ceccarelli, Pardini, Bagnariol, Ehlers and Deccio (by Insurance Commissioner request):
Revising laws relating to insolvent insurers.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "I wonder, if before we move to third reading — if Senator Woody would yield to a question. Senator Woody, I am just looking at the priorities here in subsection two, with regard to liquidations. Is it normal or customary that expenses of administration would be taken care of prior to compensation of employees?"

Senator Woody: "Usually, for example, in probate proceedings, the employees who are part of the administration of the estate itself are costs of administration and are paid equally as costs of administration.

"To answer the question that Senator Grant raised, if the employee's compensation relates to a period of time before the administration, then it is not a cost of administration and both in probate proceedings and in dissolutions of corporations, those would come in as secondary in priority. They would come second to costs of administration.

"The theory behind this is before you can have any determination of anybody's rights, anybody's claims, you have to have an administration. You have to either go into court or do something to get the matter before whoever is terminating the thing. The entire thesis, both under federal bankruptcy law and our state laws, is that those costs of administration come first. As a practical matter, in all instances in the guarantee fund where this has come into effect, there have always been funds, more than enough funds, to pay not only the costs of administration but all of the compensation costs relating to employees and the federal, state and local taxes. Where the money usually runs out is down in the general claim area — that is — on line twenty it says 'all other claims'. Those are general creditors who come way behind even compensation of employees."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I believe we have a resolution that has to be passed prior to considering the bill. This is not within the cut-off resolution and there is a resolution from the House with the bill."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Your point is well taken. If we don't pass the bill, there is no point in passing the resolution, is there."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

Revising laws relating to insolvent insurers.
The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1497 from earlier today.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Day: "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, in new section seven here — which has some very meritorious language in it — I notice it applies to handi­capped people. What does this section do in effect? It prohibits them from not issuing to the person on the basis of discrimination. What does it do about discrimination relative to rates? Does it in any way prohibit them from making a rate which would be so pro­hibitive that in effect it is not accomplishing what the section says?"
Senator Woody: "You are directing your questions solely as to the rates?"
Senator Day: "Well, yes. In other words, in here it says that no person or entity engaged in the business of insurance in this state shall refuse to issue any contract, etc., on the basis of the sex, or marital status, or the presence of any sensory, mental, physical and other handicaps. Now, you know they could say, 'yes, we will issue the insurance but the rate is five times the base premium.' Is that possible under this, or is there any . . . ?"
Senator Woody: "On page eight, line five, it says the amount of the benefits payable or any term rate, and that language . . . ."
Senator Day: "That applies to the premium rate, then?"
Senator Woody: "That is correct."

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1497, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 50, by Representative Newhouse: Suspension of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 125 for consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1544.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1544, by Committee on Financial Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Ceccarelli, Pardini, Bagnaroli, Deccio and McCormick):
Revising laws relating to insurance.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 11, 1976.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1544, revising laws relating to insurance (reported by Committee on Financial Institutions):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 6, line 29, strike "the insured or by the agent if authorized in writing by [or on behalf of]" and insert "or on behalf of"
On page 8, line 13, after "substantiated." strike the remainder of the paragraph Signed by: Senators Woody, Chairman; Bluechel, Clarke, Jones.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Woody, the committee amendments were adopted.
On motion of Senator Woody, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1544 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Senator Woody, I see on page two, subsection (a), new language that speaks to the question of cancellation of insurance. There is a little more notice in both cases. Apparently earlier it required only five days notice before cancellation?"
Senator Woody: "Yes, five days for any purpose whatever."
Senator Grant: "Now it is twenty days except for nonpayment of premium?"
Senator Woody: "That is correct."
Senator Grant: "Why the distinction? It seems to me, first of all, that five days was a very unrealistic notice requirement and that even the ten days for nonpayment may be an unrealistic notice requirement. Would you like to comment on that?"
Senator Woody: "The thought that the insurance commissioner's office and the industry agreed with this — that five days has turned out to be an insufficient period of time, especially with the mails as they are. Sometimes letters mailed on a Thursday would not even get within Seattle by the following Monday or Tuesday and so that five days was totally unacceptable.

"As to whether or not twenty days should apply to all cancellations, there was absolutely no testimony. I have to tell you that when we had the meeting it was a very quickly called meeting. We only had twenty-four hours notice of it. The people who showed up basically said that five days was too little and that ten days was more like it so far as notification where it was for nonpayment of premium. There was also discussion that under the premium finance act, ten days was also the period of time there. It might have made it a little bit difficult to say twenty days' notice for nonpayment of premium but if you had your premium financed, the finance act says ten days and that is all the discussion that occurred."

Senator Grant: "One additional question, please, Senator Woody. On page five, new subsection (d) permits an assessment of up to fifty dollars for each member insurer. Was there any testimony in the committee as to how much would be generated by that assessment?"
Senator Woody: "To answer your question, no, there was not. If Senator Bottiger were here, he could tell me. I think fairly quickly how many insurer members of the guarantee fund there are in the state of Washington. You just multiply that times fifty."
Senator Grant: "So you really have no idea what kind of a fund you are talking about?"
Senator Woody: "I really can't tell you. I ought to know. I admit I should know how many insurer members there are in the guarantee fund but I have never asked that question. I don't know."
SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, MARCH 12, 1976 857

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Senator Woody, I am not trying to put you over the rack here but I would like to ask you a question. 48.30.290 is the enforcement section that you are repealing. Is that replaced in this bill anywhere? You know, there are a lot of good things in new section seven but if there is no enforcement provision and we are repealing the other one ....

Senator Woody: "I have had a request from Senator Grant that the matter be held till the next working day. I am not sure from our majority floor leader when the next working day will be. Yes, at the top of the third reading calendar."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woody, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1544, as amended by the Senate, was ordered placed at the beginning of the third reading calendar on the next working day.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE
March 12, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1329, and has granted said committee powers of Free Conference.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE
March 11, 1976.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1329, making changes in the public disclosure laws, have had the same under consideration, and that the bill be amended as recommended by the Conference Committee.

Signed by: Senators Matson, Bottiger and Beck; Representatives Hawkins, Moon and Brown.
MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 1329 was adopted.

POINT OF ORDER
Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, on the Free Conference Committee report on Substitute House Bill No. 1329, I cannot find that section that was adopted by both houses and there was no difference. I would like to ask some member of the Free Conference Committee to explain the part that I was looking for that both the House and the Senate had adopted was the continuing political committee. I can't find that in the Free Conference report any place. Both the House and the Senate had adopted that by their votes."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Rasmussen, when the committees came in after the powers of Free Conference, it had the Free Conference Committee report attached and this is exactly what was attached to the report of the Free Conference Committee so we gave them that power of Free Conference; therefore, we gave them the power to write the bill in its present form. They were unable to agree in a Conference Committee."

Senator Rasmussen: "According to the Senate rules and the Joint Rules, the Free Conference Committee only considers those matters of difference. Now, the reason that was put in the rules was because we used to have Free Conference Committees that would come back — it went out of here looking like a giraffe and came back looking like an elephant — and we decided we didn't want that. So if the Free Conference Committees did not have the power to completely rewrite, only to settle those differences that had not been approved by both houses."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY
President Pro Tempore Henry: "Under rule nine, on page 274, 'In case of a failure of conferees to agree on matters at issue between the two houses, a report of the items of such disagreement, including new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill.' Your point is not well taken, Senator Rasmussen."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS
Senator Francis moved that the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1329, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, be held for further consideration on March 13, 1976.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the motion by Senator Francis was amended and further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1329 will be held until later today.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE
March 12, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1364, and has granted said committee powers of Free Conference.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.
Mr. Speaker:
Mr. President:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1364, changing law relating to contractual rights of school district certificated employees, have had the same under consideration, and that the bill be amended as recommended by the Conference Committee.

Signed by: Senators Stortini, Clarke and Beck; Representatives Bauer, Hayner and Clemente.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Stortini, the Free Conference Committee report on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1364 was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President. I wonder if Senator Stortini would yield to a question. I am curious to know what the full impact on just the hearing procedure would be as to the teacher having the right to be heard before the board, period."

Senator Stortini: "Yes, I listened to the debate in the House and due process came up a number of times by two representatives. I assure you that a tremendous amount of due process, and I think in answer to your question, due process really starts during the evaluation period. If you will look at section number three you will find that a tremendous amount of documentation has to take place before that teacher is even put on probation and once during the probation period, a tremendous amount of help has to take place. So there is due process during that period of time. It puts the entire onus squarely on the shoulders of the administrator to do a good job, in number one; evaluation, and then number two; helping during the probation period.

"During the board hearing, first of all, there shall be a prehearing. Is this what you want? A process that does take place? A prehearing does take place. The employee has more rights, actually, than the board in this case. We find, first of all, that the employee can choose either a closed hearing or an open hearing. He also has the right to file an affidavit of prejudice if he doesn't like the hearing officer that has been chosen by the board and the person representing the employee group.

"Now, once it reaches the board level the board can serve with the hearing officer acting as the presiding officer. If the board so desires, though, they may delete that power to the hearing officer upon the consent of the employee. Does that answer your question?"

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1364, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 17; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Gould, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Wanainaker—28.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1364, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1364, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1329, as amended by the Free Conference Committee. Earlier today, the report was adopted on motion of Senator Walgren.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1329, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1329, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 4; excused, 4.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1329, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3246.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, the first section of this bill — this is a pension bill consolidating all pensions under one director appointed by the governor. Under the first section you would prohibit any person from participating in the state retirement system who is now — or is eligible to — draw on another pension authorized by the state. Would this affect the person who was on social security and would then want to go to work for the state? He was eligible for social security but was not drawing it."

Senator Mardesich: "Oh, no. Social security would not be a problem because he is not under a state system. Even though the employees of the state are under the social security system, it is through a contractual arrangement."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is a system authorized by the state and we are paying into it."

Senator Mardesich: "It is not a system authorized by the state. It is a system authorized by the federal government and one in which we participate through contract with the federal government, so they would not be precluded. But I also would think that a person of that age, there is very little likelihood that many of them would be coming under the work force but many of them would not be."

Senator Rasmussen: "They may be elected a legislator and they would then be prohibited."

Senator Mardesich: "No, they would not be prohibited if it were merely a matter of collecting the social security."

Senator Rasmussen: "Let us take the illustration of a person who would be fifty years of age. He would have fifteen years of service under a city system and would be RIF'd for some reason or other, he would come down and go to work for the state. He would be eligible for the city pension, small though it may be, but by reason of having more than fifteen years of service, he would be prohibited from going to work for the state."

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Okay, then he would not be prohibited from going to work, he would be prohibited from participating in the pension."

Senator Mardesich: "Right."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then that person would go to work alongside of another person hired at the same time and even though the state was paying deferred compensation into a fund for the one person, which would amount to about seven and a half percent, this other person would be deprived of that portion of deferred compensation?

Senator Mardesich: "He would."

Senator Rasmussen: "And that would be constitutional?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think it is. The state can make a distinction with respect to whom it hires, depending on age, and anything of that sort and I think the same would be true with respect to the person's retirement benefits. I don't think there would be a constitutional question. There might be some inequity in it."

Senator Rasmussen: "Under the federal law, as it relates to private pensions, it will probably be extended to state and municipalities that portion of the pension paid in by the state or city, or whatever, a person would be entitled to withdraw it as deferred compensation. In this case, you are saying that they would not be able to do that. Under civil service rules, people come to work at the same pay level in the same comparable job. In effect, one person will be working for less money because of deferred compensation than the other person."

Senator Mardesich: "I think that is legal."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, the other question. A person employed, or a retired military, will be able to participate in state pensions?"

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "A person retired federal would be able to participate in the state pension?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, he could."

Senator Rasmussen: "And retired, or a person eligible, it doesn't matter whether they receive or whether they are getting it for their retirement, would be eligible?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, he could."

Senator Rasmussen: "And it is only just one class of citizen that would be prohibited?"

Senator Mardesich: "Those within the system. Those people who were within the system for fifteen years."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Walgren carried. The Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3246.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3246, as amended by the House.

1,357,360,031

The appropriation contained in this section shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. $269,805,590 of the appropriation contained in this section shall be contingent upon voter approval of a state-wide property tax special levy at a rate of two dollars per one thousand dollars of adjusted valuation.

2. Salary increases for classified and certificated employees of common school districts are not mandated by the provisions of this section.

3. Local school districts receiving funds from the appropriation made in this section may expend all or a portion of such funds to retain needed personnel in lieu of salary increases.

4. It is the intent of the legislature that to the extent that any district receives funds through the state apportionment formula in excess of the amount anticipated by such a district when it established its excess levy for collection in 1976 and when such excess can be utilized to relieve special levy burdens, then such a district should place a first priority on reducing its special levy.

5. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to direct from the appropriation contained in this section, such funds as may be necessary to grant salary increases for certificated and classified employees funded through categorical programs, but in no event shall such allocation for the 1975-76 school year exceed the average salary increase amount authorized for state employees during the 1974-75 fiscal year and in no event shall such allocation for the 1976-77 school year exceed the average salary increase amount authorized for state employees during the 1975-76 fiscal year.

6. The weighting schedule used by the superintendent of public instruction during the [1975-77 biennium] 1975-76 program year in computing the apportionment of funds for each school district shall be based on the following factors:

(a) A base weighting factor of 1.0 for each full time equivalent student enrolled;

(b) An additional weighting factor of 1.0 for each full time equivalent student enrolled in vocational education in grades 9-12 which is approved by the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall report the results of a comprehensive study on vocational education to the standing ways and means committees no later than January 1, 1976. Such study shall document the cost of vocational education presently qualifying for 0.2 support on a sample basis. Such study shall include an examination of the criteria for determining full time equivalents and recommendations for alternative funding procedures and a time line for implementation thereof;

(c) Continuation of the weighting factors used by the superintendent of public instruction for the purpose of reimbursement to each school district for costs resulting from staff education and experience greater than the minimum requirements. The superintendent of public instruction shall employ the staff characteristic factor of the respective local districts established in each of the immediately preceding school years for purposes of distribution throughout the 1975-77 biennium;

(d) An additional weighting factor of not more than 2.0 as determined by the superintendent of public instruction for school districts enrolling not more than 250 full time equivalent students in grades 9-12;

(e) An additional weighting factor of not more than 2.0 as determined by the superintendent of public instruction for nonhigh school districts enrolling not more than 100 full time equivalent students which districts have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education;

(f) An additional weighting factor of not more than 2.0 as determined by the superintendent of public instruction for small school plants which are judged remote and necessary within any school district by the state board of education;

(g) An additional weighting factor for a period of not more than four years, for any consolidated school district formed after July 1, 1971, equal to the additional weighting factor in effect in each qualifying district during the school year immediately preceding consolidation, which district consists of one or more former school districts which were either remote and necessary or which contained not more than 250 students in grades 9-12;

(b) An additional weighting factor of 0.25 for full time equivalent students residing on tax exempt property as set forth in RCW 28A.41.140(6)(b) or (c); and

(i) An additional weighting factor of 0.25 for full time equivalent students in an approved interdistrict cooperative program as authorized by RCW 28A.41.140(6)(a) and 28A.58.075.

(7) The superintendent of public instruction, during the 1976-77 program year, shall compute the apportionment of funds for each school district based on the following formula:

(a) Determine the allocation of moneys for financial equalization that each district shall receive an amount which shall insure a dollar support level per full time equivalent enrolled pupil of not less than that used in the apportionment formula calculation for either a 1974-75 base school year or a 1975-76 base school year, whichever insures the largest dollar support level, from federal, state, and local funds as determined by the superintendent of public instruction and including such other funds as determined appropriate thereto by the superintendent, plus special excess levies received during such period, plus such additional allocations as determined by the legislature as necessary for an inflationary factor.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection (6) for districts below the state average revenue per full time equivalent pupil for comparable districts, the state superintendent of public instruction shall provide by rule a plan that increases the revenue per full time equivalent pupil of such school districts to the state average for comparable districts.

(c) The enrollment of any district for the purposes of determining full time pupils for the purposes of this subsection shall be the average number of full time students and part time students as provided for in RCW 28A.41.145 enrolled on the first school day of each month and in accordance with rules and regulations of the superintendent of public instruction."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: “Thank you, Mr. President. I wonder if Senator Stortini would yield to a question? Senator Stortini, I voted against the amendment but I am at the same time concerned about whether or not we are going to do anything for schools. I know, from my own viewpoint, the teachers union has talked to me only about the continuing contract bill.

“As the chairman of the education committee, could you tell me and the rest of this body what you see their number one priority to be? Does it reflect either funding or continuing contract?”

Senator Stortini: “Their number one priority in reference to the educational association, you mean?”

Senator Cunningham: “Yes.”

Senator Stortini: “First of all, let me say this — that we have before us a short range plan. It solves the problem now. We are all concerned, I am sure, about the future and the long range plan. We are concerned about a number of things in education. I, and a number of you — in answer to Senator Cunningham’s question, viewed television the other night and I was really shocked. I listened to a WEA lobbyist state that their number one priority — their number one priority — is school funding and they have been working hard in the legislature to get school funding.

“I was going to look up a word in the dictionary here and look for the various meanings to the word liar but I won’t do that. As a result of that, I talked to each of you yesterday. I took a survey, forty-seven senators, and I asked you two questions. Number one, I asked you, ‘Has a WEA lobbyist come to your office in regard to the continuing contract bill that we just passed?’ and number two, ‘Have they talked to you about school funding?’ I am sure you are interested in the results of that.

“Teacher contracts, all but four of you were contacted — all but four — and most of us a number of times. As far as school funding, the number one priority of the Washington Education Association — their number one priority — they contacted three out of forty-seven Senators — three — and two of those three thought it was some time during the first week of the session. Their number one priority.

“Well, I will tell you something. I would be willing to bet my only bottle of home made wine that that same thing is true over in the House. I talked to Representative Bauer, the chairman of the education committee. He has not been approached and I talked to eleven other House members this morning and not a one had been approached as far as school funding, the number one priority.

“Quality education for children — or personal interest — that is the real question, I think. You know, I think this survey showed that their visits to the various offices consisted of ‘where are you on probation, de novo, the hearing process,’ rather than ‘where are you on improving our educational system?’ or ‘will you support a funding program?’ They are more concerned about the incompetent teacher than the seven hundred and fifty thousand kids in our common schools. I think it is about time that association starts thinking about the kids. I think they would rather have no school funding than lose the continuing contract measure that we just passed. I think most of you feel that way, too. I have a feeling they would just as soon leave the session with no school help and use the legislature as a scape goat for their own failures.
"I have been a member of the Washington Education Association for twenty years and let me tell you that those lobbyists are going to find when they go home after this session that many teachers are disappointed with that association's leadership here in Olympia. They have lost, believe me, members of the Senate — they have lost contact with their membership. The teacher in the classroom is in closer contact and more concerned with educational needs than the leadership of WEA here in Olympia. And, Senator Washington, I agree with you that the WEA leaders and other educational lobbyists have done nothing to encourage a solution to the school funding program."

Debate ensued.

AND WITH HIM OF OLD WE REJOICE THAT YOU HAVE HEARD US, YOU HAVE RESPONDED, YOU HAVE GIVEN US YOUR GUIDANCE. FOR YOUR PRESENCE IN THIS CHAMBER AND FOR YOUR DIVINE GUIDANCE, WE GIVE YOU GRATEFUL THANKS. FOR THE HEALING THAT EVEN NOW IS TAKING PLACE BETWEEN MEMBERS OF HONESTLY DIFFERING POINTS OF VIEW, WE ARE GRATEFUL. LET IT BE COMPLETED.

AND NOW WE EARTHILY PRAY FOR OUR CONTINUING ABILITY TO BE OPEN TO YOUR LEADING. LET THIS BE A GOOD AND A PRODUCTIVE DAY IN WHICH WE LIVE FULLY IN RESPONSE TO THE STILL SMALL VOICE OF YOUR WORD WITHIN. IN THE MASTER'S NAME. SO BE IT!"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, did I hear you say that the judges’ ads were getting swamped out and that nobody could see them? What election were you talking about?”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Rasmussen, what I am talking about is putting them on the November general election when most of the active partisan campaigning is going on. You know and I know the paper is dominated by the partisan ads by candidates such as yourself and I. Maybe not you, Senator, you . . . .”

Senator Rasmussen: “That is what I thought you said, Senator, and I thank you.”

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, lines 18 and 26, strike the proviso beginning on line 18 through “voter” on line 26 and reinsert the stricken material on line 26.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: “Mr. President, I have no objection to the write-in provision but I would have to ask Senator Grant a question. We had originally decided to strike that language but when Mr. Nicolai looked at it, he thought it violated that part of the Constitution which provides that you don’t even print the name of the judge if there is only one running; therefore, it is difficult to leave a write-in there.

“Now, I am from the country and I have never used a voting machine and I don’t know how the situation is now. Does it leave room so that you can write in on a nonpartisan basis or is this a new procedure?”

Senator Grant: “Senator Bailey, the article and section of the Constitution that is stricken in the original bill deals with election of superior court judges and the provision for write-in is available in punch card voting areas. There is no problem with regard to a write-in campaign. It can be conducted. I think they currently use kind of a little gray envelope that they insert the punch card into and write on the inner flap of that little green or gray envelope the candidate and the position for any office that they wish to write-in for.”

MOTION

At 2:48 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the Call of the President.
The President called the Senate to order at 3:00 p.m.
There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Grant was withdrawn.
Debate ensued.

Senator Scott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Clarke, Lewis (Harry), Wanamaker, Talley, Washington, Woody, Herr, Bailey and Walgren.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Bailey and Mardesich.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 8.

Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Francis, Keefe, McDermott, Morrison, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison—8.

ROLL CALL

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after the first day of April, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, there is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities, as a part of the tax imposed by the provisions of RCW 82.04.220 through 82.04.290, inclusive, an additional tax in the amount of 11 percent of the tax payable under the provisions of RCW 82.04.220 through 82.04.290, inclusive. To facilitate collection of this additional tax, the department of revenue is authorized to adjust the basic rates of persons to which this section applies in such manner as to reflect the exact amount of the additional tax hereby imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Walgren carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment by Senators Walgren and Donohue to the title was adopted:

On line 1 of the title after "taxation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW; prescribing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778, and the bill, on reconsideration, passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 17; excused, 4.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2967 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY
Senator Morrison: "Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. How many votes does it take for passage of this particular measure?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE
Senator Donohue: "These bonds are House Joint Resolution 52 bonds, the same kind of bond issues that passed through this Senate yesterday in the area of fisheries and we had, I think, three different bond issues that were House Joint Resolution 52 bonds. They do require, according to law, a sixty percent vote. If I am correct, it would mean that we would have to have thirty votes to pass the measure."

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, you added a little amendment on to the budget act that went through here that, as I understood it, authorized school districts to borrow on their second half collections, to borrow on the October collection, or issue warrants against the October collection?"
Senator McDermott: "The budget bill has a provision in it which authorizes the superintendent of public instruction explicitly to do what is already in the law, that allows people to borrow against their second half collections."

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Donohue then yield to a question? Senator Donohue, if the school districts can currently borrow against the second half collection, then is there anything else other than we pick up the interest on this bond issue?"
Senator Donohue: "With this particular bill we do pick up the interest, as I said before, if, under Senator McDermott's plan and this statute does allow this at the present time, school districts could go on warrants and borrow all of that money and then they would be paying the interest at that level. It was the concensus of many when we talked about this particular issue that this would be a small amount, the interest paid by the state, to help those school districts rather than to ask them to go along with the plan of Senator McDermott's. This just would give them the opportunity to go under this plan and to know that the funds are there and that the superintendent of public instruction would not have to go through the procedures that you are indicating relative to issuing warrants and so forth, and allowing it to be done."
Senator Bottiger: "Senator Donohue, one more question, then. A school district could both borrow from the state and put that money in the bank and get interest on it and also borrow against their second half collections?"
Senator Donohue: "No, that is not true, Senator. There is within the body of the bill does not allow this. The superintendent of public instruction in the bill would only allocate those funds as needed, monthly, so that the school district would not have this money to invest and collect interest upon but would remain under the control of the superintendent of public instruction and the investment procedure of this state.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: “Mr. President, to give you a little more time on your decision, would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, so far nothing has been said about the cost of the state repaying these bonds in order to maintain a revolving fund. Now, we just heard a comment that once the school districts start on these they pretty well have to stay on it unless sometime in the future, we come up with a plan that they no longer need special levies. My understanding of a revolving fund is that the state borrows the hundred and twenty million dollars you are talking about here.

“School districts borrow from it and while we know they are going to be in a position during their second half collection to repay the money, the only way you maintain the revolving fund is to have the state proceed to pay not only the interest but the principal on the hundred and twenty million dollar bond issue. Now, if my thinking is correct, have you calculated ahead as to the cost from general fund tax sources to maintain this revolving fund?”

Senator Donohue: “Senator, the figure is very difficult to come up with because we don’t know as yet how many school districts would, in fact, come under this particular plan, as Senator Francis said. There are many, many districts which will not want to come under the plan. We estimate that maybe we might need to sell approximately thirty million dollars worth of bonds. We also know and have discussed in the ways and means that we will have those obligations and those obligations will be the same as any other bond issue just like those that we passed through here yesterday. For instance, in the fisheries we know that we are going to have those obligations. As far as the total dollar amount of that obligation, I cannot tell you what that is going to be because of the level. I do not have any idea what that level will be. It is just guess at this particular time that about thirty million dollars will be sold and those are the dollars that probably would remain in the revolving fund.

“Now, the payout on that, the principal, would depend of course, on whether they were ten or twenty or thirty year bonds. If you wanted to redeem them it is my understanding that the state finance committee, whoever they sell the bonds to, the agreement that they make with those people, it is very possible that there would not be any penalty. It is possible that there could be a penalty if, in fact, we wanted to pick up out of general fund money those bonds sooner than the maturity date and start funding this particular revolving fund out of general fund money, our own general fund money from tax dollars.

“To answer your question, there are some unknowns, and I understand that, but I don’t think I can tell you exactly what the total appropriation would be next January to start redeeming these.”

Senator Morrison: “Okay. I appreciate your answer, Senator Donohue. Is it likely that they perhaps would go for the thirty year bonds because of the interest rate that might accompany that long term period?”

Senator Donohue: “It is my understanding from bond counsel that it is very possible to write a ten year maturity, twenty, or thirty. Now, I think that would probably be up to the state finance committee relative to the interest but I wanted to be sure that we knew a little bit about the penalties if we wanted to pay off a thirty year bond sooner. It is my understanding that those arrangements many times can be done through the state finance committee with those people who actually buy the bonds, so . . . .”

Senator Morrison: “I understand what you are saying is the hope that we can eliminate special levies before a thirty year period of time is up and repay these bonds over a shorter period.”

Senator Donohue: “I don’t know whether we will ever eliminate special levies, Senator.”
SIXTY-NINTH DAY, MARCH 14, 1976

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Morrison, in reply to your parliamentary inquiry, it will be necessary for this measure to receive a sixty percent majority of those elected, a minimum of thirty votes."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Point of order, Mr. President. While we are being lacerated, there hasn't been a vote yet and I would like to be lacerated after the vote."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2967, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 15; excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Keefe, Pullen, Ridder—4.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2967, having received the constitutional sixty percent majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Day: "Mr. President, point of personal privilege. I think that anyone who has been around here very long knows I am a pretty fiscal conservative, and I want to say that the demonstration by the people from Seattle on this vote was most ridiculous as far as I am concerned.

"I think if I had it to do over again, that if there were enough votes here to reconsider, that is what I would move to do. I cannot imagine after we have been here for thirty days longer than we should have, looking at every way possible to foist upon the people a raise in taxes, that then we turn around and just barely squeak by a method of loaning people the money to get by and the people who are going to ask for the loans vote 'no' on the bill."

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3261.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? In looking over the amendment, Senator Rasmussen, on page one, line fifteen, after 'authority' insert 'department of fisheries' and on page one, line sixteen, after 'game commission' insert 'department of game'. Do these amendments suggest that every employee in the department of fisheries and the department of game will now have to file under the public disclosure law?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, Senator Goltz. It is the appointed members of the department of fisheries and department of game. It is not intended to go down into the civil service level."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question, please? Senator Rasmussen, this talks about adding to this list of people required to file the financial disclosure report each professional staff member of the legislature. Would you describe for me the people who would be covered by that? Is a person professional just because they are paid for work that they perform? Is that your interpretation?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I would not think that it goes down to the stenographer level or the clerk level. It would be those people who were policy makers, things like that, and would be subject to the determination by the public disclosure commission through their rules and regulations."

Senator Morrison: "You are confident then, Senator, that this would not cover everyone who is paid. For instance, pages could be considered at least for the two weeks they are here as professional staff members of the legislature."

Senator Rasmussen: "I have never considered them professionals. They are rather on the order of interns. They are learning government from the ground up. Shoe leather, you might say, up."

Senator Morrison: "Are you sure that is the interpretation we would get as far as . . . ."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, and I am sure that is the interpretation the public disclosure commission would also put on it. They are reasonable people over there."

Senator Morrison: "Oh? Thank you, sir."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3261.

Authorizing state funding of senior citizens' nutrition program.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 12, 1976.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1316, authorizing state funding of senior citizens' nutrition program (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature recognizes the need for the further development and expansion of alternative forms of care for senior citizens. These alternative forms should be developed to assure that senior citizens receive the level of care needed and that appropriate resources are available to match client needs. Furthermore, services received should be designed to restore individuals to, or maintain them at, the level of independent living they are capable of attaining. Such a system of alternative care should be designed to allow senior citizens to move within this system, thus allowing the appropriate services to be rendered according to the care needs at any particular time. The provision of service should continue until the client is able to function independently, moves to an institution, moves from the state, dies, or withdraws from the program.

Therefore, the legislature deems it to be the public policy of this state that programs shall be developed in order to more appropriately meet the care needs of senior citizens through the creation and/or expansion of alternative care services and a resulting reduction in institutional care.

The legislature further deems it to be the public policy of this state that assistance should be given to enhance and redevelop the retention of the family unit, regardless of age, and that this assistance approach be included in the creation and/or expansion of alternative care services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the following meaning unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) “Area agency” means an agency, other than a state agency, designated by the department to carry out programs or services approved by the department in a designated geographical area of the state.

(2) “Area plan” means the document submitted annually by an area agency to the office for approval which sets forth (a) goals and measurable objectives, (b) review of past expenditures and accounting of revenue for the previous year, (c) estimated revenue and expenditures for the ensuing year, and (d) the planning, coordination, administration, social services, and evaluation activities to be undertaken to carry out the purposes of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3024 et. seq.), as now or hereafter amended.

(3) “Department” means the department of social and health services.

(4) “Eligible persons” means senior citizens who are:

(a) Sixty years of age or more and are either (i) nonemployed, or (ii) employed for twenty hours per week or less; or

(b) Are sixty-five years or more of age.

(5) “Low income” means initial resources or subsequent income at or below forty percent of the state median income as promulgated by the secretary of the United States department of health, education and welfare for Title XX of the Social Security Act, or, in the alternative, a level determined by the department and approved by the legislature.

(6) “Income” shall have the same meaning as RCW 74.04.005(12), as now or hereafter amended; except, that money received from section 6 of this act shall be excluded from this definition.

(7) “Resource” shall have the same meaning as RCW 74.04.005(11), as now or hereafter amended.

(8) “Need” shall have the same meaning as RCW 74.04.005(13), as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The program of community based services authorized under this chapter shall be administered by the department, through the office of aging. Such services may be provided by the department or through purchase of service contracts, vendor payments or direct client grants.

The office shall, under stipend or grant programs provided under section 6 of this act, utilize, to the maximum staffing level possible, eligible persons in its administration, supervision, and operation.

(4) The department, through the office, shall develop an annual state plan pursuant to the Older Americans Act of 1965, as now or hereafter amended. This plan shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Area agencies' programs and services approved by the office;
(b) Other programs and services authorized by the department; and
(c) Coordination of all programs and services.

(5) The department shall establish rules and regulations for the determination of low income eligible persons. Such determination shall be related to need based on the initial resources of the person entering into a program or service and subsequent income. This determination shall not prevent the eligible person from utilizing a program or service provided by the office or area agency. However, if the determination is that such eligible person is nonlow income, the provision of section 5 of this act shall be applied as of the date of such determination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The community based services for low income eligible persons provided by the department or the respective area agencies may include, but need not be limited to:

Also, supportive services may be provided in nutritional education, shopping assistance, diet counseling and other services to sustain the nutritional well-being of these persons;
(8) The provisions of services to maintain a person's home in a state of adequate repair, insofar as is possible, for their safety and comfort. These services shall be limited, but may include housing counseling, minor repair and maintenance, and moving assistance when such repair will not attain standards of health and safety, as determined by the department;
(9) Civil legal services, as limited by RCW 2.50.100, for counseling and representation in the areas of housing, consumer protection, public entitlements, property, and related fields of law.

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Fleming, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Marsh, Rasmussen, Washington, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment by Senators Donohue and Rasmussen to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 5, line 24, after "Title II)" insert "or its successor agency," Senator Wanamaker moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 6, line 16, after "used" insert "; except that $15,000 shall be made available from the general fund upon passage of this bill for funding the Island County Nutritional Project to July 1, 1976"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Woody, you are my favorite lawyer. You stand up for the people and sit down for the judges, and that is good. I wish to ask you a technical question, Senator Woody. Senator Wanamaker's amendment has a very good purpose. If we changed that so that it provides that the state department of social and health shall take over these programs at the local level, that would then handle it, wouldn't it?"

Senator Woody: "There is an easier way and that is you can say provided that fifteen thousand dollars shall be used by the department of social and health services for purposes of a continuation of the Island County nutritional projects. That is the same language we used with Yakima, Clark County, Snohomish County and Pierce and King counties for their various projects on — like the Clark County diversion program. That is the sort of language you can use because then you are appropriating two DSA chests with a proviso that says that they shall use it for a continuation of the following projects."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Woody."
Senator Herr moved the amendment by Senator Wanamaker to the committee amendment be laid upon the table.

The motion by Senator Herr failed on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, Reengrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316, together with the pending amendments, was ordered held for further consideration March 15, 1976.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

MOTION

At 7:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, March 15, 1976.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

WE CONFESS OUR FRUSTRATIONS AT THE SHORTNESS OF HUMAN EXISTENCE AND THE INTRACACIES OF HUMAN DECISIONS. GRANT TO US THE GIFT OF PATIENCE, THE ABILITY TO TAKE UPON OURSELVES ONE DAY'S TASK WITH THE WEIGHT OF A THOUSAND YEARS OF HISTORY AND NOT DESPAIR. PERMIT US TO SEE IN OUR PLODDING STEPS THE PATH TO MAKE THIS DEMOCRACY LIVE AND GROW. THEN TRANSFORM OUR PATIENCE INTO THOUGHTFUL ACTION."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1976-238.
On motion of Senator Woody, Senators Woody and von Reichbauer were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Resolution 1976-238.
On motion of Senator Goltz, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-238

By Senators Goltz, Morrison, North, Beck, von Reichbauer and Woody:
WHEREAS, Our Nation was created two-hundred years ago through the efforts of volunteers — the Minutemen, the Committees on Correspondence, and General George Washington's Revolutionary Army; and
WHEREAS, The spirit of volunteer service, of neighbors helping neighbors, was a major contributor to the development of the country across the plains and to the Pacific; and

WHEREAS, That same spirit exists today in the state of Washington where it is estimated that volunteers contribute more than one billion dollars worth of services annually to communities and citizens of our state; and

WHEREAS, Volunteering provides opportunities for personal growth, and satisfaction for every citizen; and

WHEREAS, State agencies and local units of government increasingly recognize the value of volunteers in partnership for meeting the needs of our citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate commends the many thousands of volunteers in this state for their dedication and service, and endorses the week of May 16 to 23, 1976 as VOLUNTEER WEEK 1976 in our Bicentennial Year.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1976-257.

Senator Von Reichbauer moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-257

By Senators von Reichbauer and Walgren:

WHEREAS, The health and safety of our citizens is a matter of vital concern; and

WHEREAS, It is in the public interest to promote the health, safety and welfare of minor children in the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Alcoholism has been recognized by the legislature as a disease and treatment thereof mandated pursuant to Chapter 70.96A RCW; and

WHEREAS, Drinking by minors is becoming a major problem in the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, There exists a need to determine whether or not the existing programs, facilities and statutes of the state are adequate to cope with this problem; and

WHEREAS, Many programs carried on by the state involve numerous entities of government, including the schools, the health departments and various alcoholism programs; and

WHEREAS, There exists a need to determine proper standards, remedies and programs that should be established by appropriate legislation that involve the problem of drinking by minors in the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington that the Senate Committee on Social and Health Services be directed to conduct a study of the problem of alcoholism as it involves minors in the state of Washington, in particular concentrating upon the correlation between programs and statutory enactments to facilitate the resolution of this problem and other facets incidental thereto; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Washington State Liquor Control Commission and the department of Social and Health Services are requested to provide such assistance as may be needed in connection with such study.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Walgren yield to a question? I noticed that most of the resolutions that you have held and have not acted on on the floor are study resolutions. Is that the procedure you have been adopting?"

Senator Walgren: "I am not sure I understand your question, Senator Lewis."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator, you have a packet of resolutions that I assume were looking forward to adopting at the close of the session...."

Senator Walgren: "Right."
Senator Lewis (Harry): "I observed that a number of those had to do with studies by various committees and so forth."
Senator Walgren: "Correct."
Senator Lewis (Harry): "And so I am not really objecting to the resolution in front of us but if you have established that procedure, I was wondering why we are now considering Senate Resolution 257?"
Senator Walgren: "Because Senate Resolution 257 was just recently put on our desks and not included in this list and I thought we would get it out of the way. It is a noncontroversial matter and is one on which we would not have to spend much time. I thought, Senator Lewis, we would go to some of these in the blue packet on your desk."
The motion by Senator von Reichbauer carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1976-209.
Senator Sandison moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-209

By Senators Sandison, Goltz, Benitz, Odegaard, Scott, Guess and Donohue:
WHEREAS, It is the policy of the State of Washington to compensate its employees at the prevailing rate for similar work performed in other comparable jurisdictions as determined by periodic surveys; and
WHEREAS, There is a continuing need for consistent reliable salary survey information for faculty of the public universities, state colleges and community colleges to guide the legislature in determining appropriate compensation levels;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That the Council for Postsecondary Education develop appropriate salary survey procedures to separately determine prevailing wage rates for faculty of the four-year institutions of higher education, and of the state community colleges, such surveys to include information on faculty salaries and fringe benefits from appropriate public institutions in other states which are deemed to be comparable to Washington institutions in size, complexity and scope of programs and shall meet qualitative guidelines established by the Council;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the surveys shall be conducted under the direction of the Council and the survey findings are to be reported by the Council, by November 15 of each year, to the Ways and Means and Higher Education Committees of the House and Senate and to the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the State Board for Community College Education and the public universities and colleges be requested to cooperate in the development and execution of the surveys;
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted immediately upon adoption by the Secretary of the Senate to the House of Representatives, the Council for Postsecondary Education, the State Board for Community College Education, and the public universities and four-year colleges in the state.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I wonder if Senator Sandison would yield? Senator Sandison, in regard to salary survey procedures, are you asking them to compare just with other institutions and/or other states, or just what is the scope of the resolution in that regard?"
Senator Sandison: "We are asking them to come up with a report and based on what their findings, we are not necessarily restricting them to other states. We ask them to first look at the state. If they cannot find enough information there and enough comparability, then of course they would go to other states and very possibly, other states than we have in our traditional salary survey comparison."
SEVENTIETH DAY, MARCH 15, 1976 903

Senator Lewis (Harry): “Senator, in the past here in the legislature, we have looked at comparisons presented by various institutions of higher education in this state where they have compared their salaries to other states. There has been considerable discussion as to the relevance of these other states as they would bear upon the state of Washington. I note that you have no instruction and are leaving this entirely open to the council. Are you satisfied that they will carefully screen the other states that they are going to utilize to the satisfaction of the legislature?

"I am concerned about if they included a Harvard or a public or private . . . . I am sorry, I see that language. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1976-228.

Senator Sandison moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-228

By Senators Odegaard, Sandison, Guess and Benitz:

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 3031, which was introduced in January, 1976, proposed to exempt members of the Washington National Guard from the payment of fifty percent of any tuition charge; and WHEREAS, Such entitlement was to be continuous so long as the member of the Washington National Guard maintained satisfactory performance with the Guard and pursued his courses of study in such institution in a manner which satisfied the normal performance of the institution; and
WHEREAS, The National Guard contends that tuition assistance would be one of the most attractive incentives for nonprior service enlistments and retention in the Guard; and
WHEREAS, It has been proposed that Senate Bill No. 3031 is a revenue producing bill for the state of Washington because it would supposedly increase the inflow of federal funds to our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Council for Postsecondary Education review Senate Bill No. 3031 to determine the impact the bill would have on the state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Council's review include, but not be limited to, a study of (1) the fiscal impact of this legislation on the state as well as the individual institutions of higher education; (2) existing tuition waiver programs for the Guard in other states; (3) exemptions for the Guard with respect to the treatment of other special interest groups; and (4) alternative proposals for offering educational benefits to Washington National Guard members; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Council for Postsecondary Education report its findings and recommendations to the Higher Education Committee and the Washington State Senate on or before December 1, 1976; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted upon adoption by the Secretary of the Senate to the House of Representatives and the Council for Postsecondary Education.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Sandison, does this bill include community colleges?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes, it does. It would speak only to higher education — to postsecondary education. Community college is part of that system."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "What is the reason or pressure for this? Is this pressure from the guard itself?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes, it is."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "They are requesting this?"

Senator Sandison: "It was Senator Woody's bill. They came before us with General McGee of the national guard and said it would be a great recruiting aid to them and it would also be a morale factor in having people continue as members of the guard. However, the committee did not see fit to pass the bill so we did decide to have a study on it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, do you have any idea what the average earnings are for the enlisted men in the guard per month?"

Senator Woody: "I can only tell you I spent nine years with them and my average earnings back then were under three hundred dollars per month."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Was this your full time job while you were in the guard?"

Senator Woody: "My full-time job?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Yes."

Senator Woody: "No, I was earning — what did we earn then — fifty-five dollars per month when we were . . . ."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mostly what I am trying to get at, do most of the national guard members have another profession or business or employment? Is this not in addition to their normal regular earnings?"

Senator Woody: "Some of them are in school, like in high school, as I was when I joined at age fifteen. Some of them are in community college or college, and in the non-commissioned areas and officer areas you get older — you tend to be out of education and hopefully are employed. Most of them are."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Most of those in the national guard, as I understand it, here in Olympia, work in other places. For example, Leo Sweeney is the local Teamster business agent and he has been a member of the national guard for years and this is additional compensation and work for him but he does it on a part-time basis. One other question, if you would yield, Senator Woody."
"I would like you to distinguish between a needy national guardsman who, because he joins and provides a service and is paid at least in part for that service, in addition to the training he receives in the guard—if you could distinguish between his need and the need of a group of people in Yelm or Rainier or Tenino who are earning four, five, six hundred dollars a month, who cannot afford to send their children to community college or to the university. How do you justify giving a national guardsman this cut in tuition and forget about those other needy people?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Walgren: "Point of order, Mr. President. I raise the question whether or not Senator Lewis is discussing the merits of a bill that might come out here after a study. This is simply a study resolution asking this group to come back with a recommendation at which time Senator Lewis can present to the floor of the Senate all of his very fine arguments against the national guard, if that be his desire."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

Consideration should be taken by the Council of factors such as the geographical location of the institutions and the areas served by the institutions as well as the immediate problem of teacher unemployment. MOTION
At 2:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed subject to the Call of the President.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION
The President called the Senate to order at 4:45 p.m.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316.

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1316, by Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Fortson, Bauer, Adams, Bagnarol, Boldt, Charnley, Charette, Cochrane, Ehlers, Eng, Erickson, Fischer, Gaines, Gallagher, Greengo, Hansen, Hansey, Hurley (Margaret), Kalich, Knowles, Laughlin, Leckenby, Lee, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, Moreau, Nelson, North, O'Brien, Parker, Peterson, Sherman, Shinpoch, Smith (Rick), Tilly, Warnke, Williams and Wojahn):
Authorizing state funding of senior citizens' nutrition program.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316. On March 14, 1976, the committee amendment was moved for adoption. An amendment by Senators Donohue and Rasmussen to the committee amendment was adopted. Senator Wanamaker had moved adoption of an amendment to page 6, line 16. There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Wanamaker to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:
On page 3, line 11, after "chapter" insert "but shall avoid duplication of services"

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Wanamaker yield? Senator Wanamaker, are you satisfied that your problem is solved in withdrawing that amendment?"

Senator Wanamaker: "Yes, Senator Lewis. I met this morning with a member of the department and Senator Donohue. We found that the problem could be taken care of within the department, so I withdrew the amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Wanamaker yield to a question? Senator, is there any indication that he would treat all of us equally, or . . . ?"

Senator Wanamaker: "We did not discuss any other problems. We only spoke of the one and so what other problems there are, I don't know anything about and that is up to the department."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Benitz and Gould to the committee amendment:
On page 4, section 4, line 1, strike ", but" and insert "and", also strike "need not" and insert "shall"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Washington: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Do you strongly feel that without this language there is danger that we would not get federal funds for the program?"
Senator Day: "I think that having discussed this with a person who talked to Senator Magnuson's office this morning and said that until he saw the form the bill was in that they are supposed to be funding a pilot program. Now, if all we are going to do is narrow this down to those programs which are already being conducted under title twenty with local government, then there won't be any possibility of the federal government wanting to fund the program as a pilot which is already functioning. So that was the reason why I did not offer that particular amendment myself because I want this to be tight. I want the department to be responsive to the wish of this legislature and particularly this Senate. So I just felt that possibly what we are doing is constricting it in a manner that we, ourselves, could choose what elasticity, if any, we want to give to the program. This way we have locked it into the statute and that's it and if the federal government can't buy what we have in the statute, we are out."

Senator Washington: "Could you point out the specific language again where you think this would have control over the regulations proposed by the department?"

Senator Day: "Section nine, 'in the event the federal funds are applied for — for the purposes of obtaining a demonstration project relative to the implementation of this chapter — the department shall submit the demonstration proposal first to the social and health services standing committees for review and approval' it says. So, they don't just let us review them. We must approve them. Same thing with the ways and means standing committees which have to review and approve them. That is all of those committees and that is a majority of the legislature. That is why I felt that this would be adequate.

"Now, apparently, the department's track record makes people feel that is not adequate and certainly I have not always agreed with them, as you know."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Guess, would you yield? Senator Guess, by that explanation of Senator Day's, doesn't it appear that both your fears and mine would be taken care of by the rules and regulations being brought back as provided there in section nine in the termination of the act?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Washington, the language of section nine is so written, let me just tell you exactly. It says 'in the event federal funds', now who in Heaven's name doesn't think that the funds are going to be applied for? If the language is going to say that when the department gets the money, this will be a demonstration project but it does not say that. It says 'in the event federal funds are applied for.'"

Senator Washington: "Well, don't you think that the department is going to apply for them?"

Senator Guess: "Sure, they are. They will probably be jumping over the hoop when we get out of here this afternoon, if we pass this bill, start to write the application up for the funds. That does not tie to anything. The way that clause is written it does not tie it down and make it mandatory that they bring the funds back to us. It says 'in the event'. I have never heard of such loose language."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "I will repeat the question asked by Senator Guess to Senator Day."

Senator Day: "Of course, the answer is very simply right here, Senator Guess. In section eleven because after we get the amendment on that it will read ‘there is hereby appropriated to the department from the general fund, five million six hundred thousand dollars from federal sources to carry out the provisions of this act except that for matching purposes’ and I have an amendment which will limit it to one million, nine hundred thousand, 'from currently appropriated state general funds to the department may be used.'

"We are making them eat that one point nine million so it is very possible that they are not going to apply because they are going to have to cough up one point nine million from the present appropriation without any additional appropriation if this passes."
“So, what we are saying here, that is the reason for that particular language. Now, I also understand, Senator Washington, that the Older Americans Act is much more inclusive than ours, much more. That was the reason this was written that way.”

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: “I would like to reply to Senator Day. Senator Day, in the ways and means committee last week, I think we sat there some thirteen hours on Wednesday — I believe it was the third of March — when we had the provision in the budget that was going to require that each of the departments would scale down their operations by two percent, we were told then that that would cost the department thirty million dollars. They would have to lay off three thousand people. We shifted that and I am not quite sure exactly how much but I think that we came out and said that that program would cost the department fifteen million dollars.

“We were facing ratable reductions in the department. We cheated the nursing homes out of how many millions? Ten million dollars last year because we did not pay them the going price for care.

“Senator Day, you screamed your head off on this floor asking for another ten or eleven million dollars for the nursing homes. Eleven million. Now, we did not give them the eleven million dollars. The nursing homes are going broke by the dozens. They are going to be kicking these people out on the streets and here we are, we are going to start another program and tell them to eat one point nine million dollars. What if they are already short fifteen to twenty million dollars? Now you are going to ask them to short another two million dollars.

“I think the most tragic thing we can do on this floor is to defraud, to delude, to mislead and to misguide the old people. That is what we are doing today. We are saying, ‘Here, you can have this nice, beautiful plum but it is completely rotten on the inside. There is nothing there’.

“Members of the Senate, we are about to perpetuate one of the worst frauds on the old people we could possibly do. We are going to say to them, ‘We have started this bright, beautiful new program. We are going to solve all your problems. We are going to come to your homes, we are going to make those repairs, we are going to stop those leaking faucets if the federal government comes up with the money.’ If the department can eat two million dollars, if they can take it away from the nursing homes and those old people in there now that are being held in absolute bondage to the department of social and health services.

“Further, it is really a trick on the people that we would pass this thing. We would be standing here at five fifteen on the seventieth day of this session.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: “Would Senator Guess yield to a question? There is still a lot of concern about the state getting into the nursing home business. Do you think it would be possible that through federal funding they might be able to get into the nursing home business through this act?”

Senator Guess: “Senator Jones, I would have to read this rather loosely if I said that. But it says that the in-home care now, and it also says that the provisions of services to maintain a person’s home in a state of adequate repair insofar as possible for their safety and comfort might lead them to conclude that they were not able to do it in the old homes that these people have. They would be back down here next time for a clutch of houses for us to build so they could take care of them easier.”

Senator Herr demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Talley, Stortini, Beck, Day, Francis, Wanamaker, Gould and Mardesich.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Benitz and Gould to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 25; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senators Guess and Gould to page 5, line 12 to the committee amendment, was withdrawn.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Day to page 6, line 8 to the committee amendment, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments to the committee amendment were adopted:

On page 5, after line 11, insert:

“Sections 1 through 9 and section 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 7 4 RCW and shall terminate January 1, 1978.”

On page 6, strike new section 10 and renumber remaining sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 6, line 14, strike “not less than ten percent of that amount” and insert “one million nine hundred thousand dollars”

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Morrison, Senators Clarke, Jones and Lewis (R. H. “Bob”) were excused.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 6; excused, 7.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Senate Bill No. 3077.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 3077, with the following amendments:
On page 1, line 3 of the title after “RCW 88.16.090” insert “and declaring an emergency”
On page 1, after Section 1, add a NEW SECTION. Sec. 2 to read as follows:
“This 1976 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.”
On page 1, line 29, after “account.” insert the following:
“No pilot licensed pursuant to this section shall be in any manner fined, suspended, or censured by any association or board for having participated with or served on any commission, board or other agency related to pilotage or the waters of Washington state, or for having testified before any standing committee, subcommittee or select committee of the Washington state legislature.”, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.
SEVENTY-FIRST DAY, MARCH 16, 1976

MOTION
Senator Bottiger moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3077.

POINT OF ORDER
Senator Talley: "Mr. President, speaking against the amendment and raising the scope and object of the amendment, we passed this bill in the Senate forty-four to nothing and that same amendment was offered here. So I think it completely enlarges the scope and object of the bill and it should take the course of a new bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY
Senator Bailey: "Parliamentary inquiry. Then if we reject, if scope and object is an issue, the bill then is killed."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT
The President: "Pursuant to rule sixty, depending on the decision, the bill would be assigned to the Senate committee on transportation and utilities."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT
The President: "In ruling on the point of order as raised by Senator Talley, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3077 is a measure which pertains to the residence requirements and fees in connection with a pilot's license. The amendment of the House of Representatives, however, pertains to neither of these subjects but on the other hand places restrictions on what activities may be the basis of fines, suspension or censure of pilots. Therefore, as previously ruled by President Pro Tempore Henry, this amendment does enlarge the scope and object of the bill and pursuant to rule sixty, the President hereby assigns the bill to the Senate committee on transportation and utilities."

Senate Bill No. 3077 was referred to the Senate Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1272, by Representatives Sherman, Charnley, Chandler, Barnes and Lee:
Exempting minibus car pools from commercial transportation regulations.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 16, 1976.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1272, exempting minibus car pools from commercial transportation regulations (reported by Committee on Transportation and Utilities):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, line 13, after "employment" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That said transportation or operation shall not compete with nor infringe upon service of an existing auto transportation company certificated under this chapter"

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Bottiger, Vice Chairman; Benitz, Bluechel, Guess, Jolly, Knoblauch, Sellar, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Will Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, assume that the company had a franchise to operate between two points but was not now actually providing that service between those two points and the minibus operation went into effect. Would this foreclose that existing company that is under regulation by the utilities and transportation commission from then going in and providing that service?"

Senator Guess: "No, sir. We did not think that it would, Senator Walgren. The primary purpose of the minibus will be to take those people off a system and to transport them there. They would have to work it out if it did occur. The certified bus will be able to complain to the public utilities commission and then they would have to iron the thing out if the minibus had gotten established in the area."

Senator Walgren: "But it would be your impression then, that as long as that certificate of use or need and necessity had been previously granted to the particular area — even though it was not being serviced — that the company which had the franchise could come in and start service at any time?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, I believe that is the way the law reads."

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1272, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, I don't have anybody to excuse but would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, I believe that I am in favor of this bill as written and the only question in my mind is relative to your amendment. The way that reads is, 'provided that said transportation or operation shall not compete with' — and I agree with that — but it goes on to say, 'nor infringe upon service of an existing auto transport.' For example, if there is an existing bus service to Medical Lake, there are a lot of people who drive to Spokane Medical Lake every day and they pool automobiles and possibly minibuses to get back and forth to work. Would this then say that if there is an existing bus service that they would be precluded from so doing?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, sir. The way that I envision this thing, Senator Day, is that if the employer furnishes the bus to a group of employees then they could go ahead and start the minibus without the certificate of need from the PUC but if they were to parallel and do exactly the same service as a bus company could do, well then, they could not do it. But it would not infringe upon it as long as the bus company did not go into the area and serve the passengers who were riding in it. It is very unlikely that a standard bus operation would be able to get into the byways and all around that would impinge upon the normal company."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, you mentioned a company providing this bus. All other conditions being the same, if it were an individual that worked on the job owning the bus of his own, could he provide these services?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Benitz, it would appear to me that any operation whereby passengers are transported between their places of abode or termini near such places and their place of employment, any motor vehicle whose seating capacity is not exceeding fifteen would be applicable to this. So, it would not require that a company furnish the bus and a group of individuals could, under that arrangement — under that language — arrange for their own bus."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1272, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 2; excused, 10.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 136, amending the Constitution to authorize additional property tax support for the common schools and equalizing school excess levies (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, line 17, after “exceed” and before “per” strike “four dollars” and insert “two dollars and fifty cents”
On page 2, line 35, after “collected” strike all the language down to and including “districts” on line 9 of the page 3, and insert “and distributed pursuant to state law”

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Clarke, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Sandison, Washington, Woody.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended and Senate Joint Resolution No. 136 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, line 17.
On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment by Senators Francis, Clarke and Fleming to the committee amendment was adopted:
On line 2 of the amendment to page 2, line 17, strike “two dollars and fifty cents” and insert “three dollars”

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the committee amendment to page 2, line 17, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woody, the committee amendment to page 2, line 35 was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Talley: “I wonder if Senator Clarke would yield to a question? I did not quite understand your last remarks. Now doesn’t this say that all districts shall receive the same amount?”

Senator Clarke: “No, Senator, it does not. To this extent, it leaves it up to the legislature. If, in the future, the legislature should enact some statute which would provide a different method of distribution of the special levy, I am advised that — and this supposedly was researched by the attorney general’s office — this would enable the legislature to do that.”

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:
On page 1, line 19, after "a" insert "constitutional amendment authorizing a"
On page 1, line 20, strike "imposed by the state" and insert "adopted"
Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 3, after line 36, insert:
"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the foregoing amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state in such a manner that they may vote for or against it separately from the proposed amendment to Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of the state of Washington contained in Senate Joint Resolution No. 137.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That as the amendatory provisions of Senate Joint Resolution No. 137 authorizing special levies for the support of the common schools for a two year period are included in substance in the amendatory provisions of the foregoing amendment, the legislature hereby directs that if both proposed amendments are approved and ratified, then the provisions of the foregoing amendment shall become part of the Constitution and the provisions of Senate Joint Resolution No. 137 shall be null and void."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, will Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, did I misunderstand you? In the first paragraph it appears to me that it is going to be set up so that you can vote for the two parts. In other words, 136 and 137, but down in the second paragraph I am confused about a language that they have inserted there."

Senator Clarke: "You see, 137, as I understand it, relates exclusively to the extension of the authorization of special levies from one year to two years. That also is included in 136 but of course the people should be able to vote for both of these amendments or either one of them alternatively. The problem would arise if they are both adopted because then you would have two separate, simultaneously adopted amendments to the Constitution both of which provided for the change from one year to two years. The intent of this, and as I say, it was prepared by the ways and means staff, presumptively after consultation with the code reviser, that this was the way to do it so that if they were both adopted that then the one which, in substance, would go into the Constitution would be 136 because there would be no sense in having the enactment twice for the two-year period."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I would like to point out the language in 137 which says, 'provided and notwithstanding any provision of this constitution any proposition pursuant to this subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools may provide such support for a two year period.' They replace that and the 136 by saying, and sub two on page two, line sixteen, 'by any school district for each year of not to exceed a two year period and not to exceed three dollars per thousand.' Now is that exactly the same proposition? If we adopt 136 why don't we tell the secretary of state to forget 137?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, you can't do that because the people might want simply to extend the two-year period and not adopt the remaining portions of 136. So, in effect, I don't see any way since 137 has already passed both houses to keep it off the ballot. The only purpose of this is a mechanical situation is to what you can do with the Constitution if you extend it to two years in two separate but simultaneously adopted constitutional amendments."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, I understand what you are trying to get to but the thing that bothers me is what would be the effect in the event that 137 were defeated at the polls as it would affect 136 with your amendment? It seems to me that we could be building a conflict that I am not sure we resolve with your amendment. What would be the position if 137 were defeated?"

Senator Clarke: "If 137 is defeated and 136 is adopted, then it makes no difference whether 137 is defeated or adopted. —Because the reason that they have to both be on the ballot is that some people might prefer not to vote for the other provisions in 136 but to extend the right to vote special levies to a two-year period in which event they would vote against 136 and for 137 and that is what would happen. So, there is no way that I can see that 137 could or should be kept off the ballot."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 136, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, could you tell us what the concurrent resolution deals with? Before we determine to consider this, I should think we ought to know the urgency of the matter."

Senator Walgren: "The concurrent resolution is necessary because the subject of the bill that we are going to be considering is outside of the scope of our original concurrent resolution. SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 77,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1272,
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 54.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 18, 1976.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1355, implementing law relating to the state employee suggestion program (reported by Committee on State Government):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass and be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.
Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Buffington, Henry, Wanamaker.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1355 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1355 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? In just reading this, I am wondering. We are going up to one thousand dollars for any one suggestion. Let's assume for a moment that there is a contest and that one of the contestants comes up with an idea — five or ten people involved, or the different agencies — but that is all that we are involved with, five or ten people who are pursuing this. The savings amount in the suggestion box, of say, twelve hundred dollars and that individual wins the contest. That individual gets a thousand dollars for making a saving of twelve hundred?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I think that that is the intent of the board that they will review that and make that determination. Then the part that says it shall be post audited would pick that up where there was an error in judgment on the awards board. I think that they would be very careful when they were reviewing these cases. Usually the way these awards come about is that some employee that is familiar with the work can see where there is duplication or extra paper work involved. In some instances the saving can amount to thousands of dollars. I would doubt that the awards board would render an award in a case like you said."

Senator Donohue: "What is the experience relative to this? In the past what has happened under the present law? Can you tell me what has been saved or is there a dollar figure that these people have saved state government? I am just a little concerned about the dollar amount relative to what could be saved, you know."

Senator Rasmussen: "There can be tremendous amounts saved if the incentive is great enough that employees will pursue making the suggestions."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would you yield to a question, Senator? From your remarks here, I would consider it one of the major pieces of legislation that we have had this session."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Well, I think it is probably close."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Lewis yield? This is on the level, Senator. I support the concept of a program like this. My question is as follows. If an employee comes up with a suggestion that will save an agency twelve thousand dollars during the next year and he receives an appropriate reward, my question is, what happens to the twelve thousand dollars savings? That is, is that reverted to the general fund or is the agency at liberty to spend it any way it wishes?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Wilson, in answer to your question, the direct result of the suggestion program has been a reduction in budget requests for various processes and methodologies that state government uses. You will find if you look at the agency budgets and you follow the suggestion award program that where a suggestion has been cleared by the committee and has been proven by the department and an award given, that those actual dollar savings really result in a lower budget request in that specific area. This I can document for you and I would be very happy to do so. It really is constructive and it is going to save and has saved and it has been proven over the years.

"I find that a lot of people like Senator Woody, shaking his head back there — and I wonder, Senator Woody, if you have really looked at the program. Have you really looked at the kind of suggestions that have been made? Have you really looked at them — and I wasn't asking you a question for a response on the floor. I am just suggesting that you do look at these sorts of things because they really have been constructive."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Will Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, I assume that these awards are considered salary. Is that correct? I wonder if these awards, in fact, increase the retirement level for that individual and do we pay fringe benefits on those awards?"
Senator Marsh: "They are not considered salary and they have nothing to do with pensions. They are simply awards."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, Senator Lewis, you mentioned my name as if I was shaking my head against the bill. I think the bill and the program is good but your answer to Senator Wilson was, I think, unintentionally inaccurate. He asked you what happened to that twelve thousand and there was some indication by you that the agency was not going to ask for that twelve thousand in the next biennium request whereas in fact every two years the agency request to the governor and the governor's request to us has not been decreased in any area. It used to be that if there were reversionary funds, before they could be spent LBC had to approve them and you, as a member of LBC, recall that sometimes it was a very handy provision but the Governor vetoed that section. So now, that cost saving that was caused by a state employee doing a very good job is just made available for the agency to spend elsewhere and we have no control over it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? I just got back from Seattle, you know. I do have other business besides the Senate business, but did you hold any committee hearings on this bill?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I held a very abbreviated committee hearing, Senator Herr."

Senator Herr: "What type is that?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That is the kind where you talk with your committee members."

Senator Herr: "That kind of makes up my mind to vote 'no' on it."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Herr, I know that you would not participate in abbreviated committee hearings. We have some short ones and we have some long ones. Some go for days, like we are working on the budget bill now. But sometimes it is necessary to expedite bills. While I am on my feet, Mr. President, I wanted to speak a word to Senator Goltz."

"Senator Goltz is one of those people who would be voting on this. You would probably be in conflict of interest if you participated in it until such a time as you were out of the legislature for a period of time. So I would urge you not to leave the legislature but if you wanted to participate, please send your suggestions in, any way, without participating in the monetary award."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1355, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 6; excused, 8.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, it is indeed a very sad day that we note the passing of Lieutenant Kelley and as we extend to his wife and children our sincere condolence, it is difficult to express to someone who is left behind the feeling that we have had for those persons whom we mourn.

"I came to know, to trust and to hold with a great deal of respect Lieutenant Kelley and knew because of his presence here that we were safer and better off for the service and for the devotion that he gave in the line of duty. Lieutenant Kelley was one of those young men who had the ability to express himself, and as we say, to communicate. In the time that I have known him, I have felt that he represented the very, very highest in manhood for the State of Washington and his driving desire was to do a better job.

"I felt that his devotion to the line of duty and to the improvement program that he went through and the studies that he undertook were an outstanding example that could be used by all of us and so it is with a great deal of regret that I mourn his passing today."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

YOU HAVE GIVEN US THE PRIVILEGE OF BEING MORE THAN MEN; WE CAN BE CHILDREN OF GOD THROUGH FAITH IN YOUR SON. AS A RESULT OF THIS UNION, WE ARE GIVEN DOMINION AND THE POWER TO OVERCOME. WE BELIEVE IN THE ORDER THE PSALMIST PRESENTED WHEN HE SAID, 'COMMIT THY WAY UNTO THE LORD. TRUST ALSO IN HIM AND HE SHALL BRING IT TO PASS.' IF WE UNDERSTAND THIS PROPERLY, HE WAS SAYING, THROUGH THE INSPIRATION OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, "DO THE BEST YOU CAN WITH ANY SITUATION. DON'T FILL YOUR LIFE WITH TENSION. DON'T STRUGGLE SO HARD. DON'T GET YOURSELF WORKED UP. PUT IT COMPLETELY IN THE HANDS OF THE LORD, TRUSTING ABSOLUTELY IN HIM, AND HE WILL BRING IT TO PASS IN A RIGHT AND PROPER MANNER.' CAN WE APPLY THIS, LORD, TO THE WORK OF THIS LEGISLATIVE BODY? OUR REASON SEEMS TO ANSWER, 'YES!' MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 20, 1976.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 75, making changes in the laws relating to voter registration (reported by Committee on Rules):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass.
Signed by: Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, Chairman; Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Clarke, Guess, Herr, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Newschwander, Talley, Walgren.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 75 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.
Senator Beck moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Walgren and Lewis (Harry):

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Each county auditor shall prepare and maintain a current and suitable map of the county and of each city or town therein clearly delineating the geographical boundaries of each precinct contained in the county and of the legislative and congressional districts in which each precinct is contained. A legal description of the geographical boundaries of such precincts and districts shall be attached to each map.

(2) On or before March 1, 1977, each county auditor shall send three copies of each current map with its legal descriptions to the secretary of state, and one copy to the clerk of each affected city or town. Within thirty days after any changes in precinct or district boundaries, the county auditor shall file revised maps and descriptions in the same manner and number.

(3) Such maps and descriptions shall be public records and shall be available for inspection by the public in the offices wherein they are kept during normal office hours. Copies shall be made available to the public for a fee necessary to cover the cost of reproduction."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) With regard to functions relating to census, apportionment, and the establishment of legislative and congressional districts, the secretary of state shall:

(a) Promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW governing the preparation, maintenance, distribution, and filing of maps prepared pursuant to section 1 of this 1976 amendatory act;

(b) Coordinate and monitor mapping functions of the county auditors and county engineers;

(c) Maintain official state base maps and maintain an index of all available maps;

(d) Furnish to the United States bureau of the census as needed for the decennial census of population, current, accurate, and easily readable versions of maps of all counties, cities, towns, and other areas of this state, which shall show any streets, highways, railroads, and other physical boundaries, and shall indicate precinct boundaries.

(2) The secretary of state shall serve as the state liaison with the United States bureau of census on matters relating to the preparation of maps and the tabulation of population for apportionment purposes.

Sec. 3. Section 29.04.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 109, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No paper ballot precinct shall contain more than three hundred voters. If at any election three hundred or more votes are cast at any such voting place, the secretary of state as ex officio chief election officer, shall report that fact to the city council, if it is a precinct lying within a first class city or to the board of county commissioners if it is any other precinct. The city council of the first class city or the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall divide, alter, or combine precincts so that, whenever practicable such over populated precincts shall contain no more than two hundred fifty registered voters in anticipation of future growth, subject to the requirements and limitations of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Precinct boundaries may be altered at any time as long as sufficient time exists prior to a given election for the necessary procedural steps to be honored: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no precinct boundaries shall be changed during the period starting as of the thirtieth day prior to the first day for candidates to file for the September primary election and ending with the day of the November general election held in the even-numbered years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no precinct boundaries shall be changed nor shall any precinct be created, divided, abolished, or consolidated during the period between April 1st of any year whose last digit is seven and December 1st of any year whose last digit is one, except whose boundaries are changed due to annexation or detachment.

(3) Precincts in which voting machines or electronic voting devices are used may contain as many as nine hundred registered voters: PROVIDED, That there shall be at least one voting machine or device for each three hundred registered voters or major fraction thereof.

(4) Each county auditor, when reporting the official election returns to the secretary of state as provided by RCW 29.62.090, shall indicate in such report which precincts are voted by paper ballots, [or] by voting machines, or by voting devices. In the instance of a voting machine or voting device precinct, the county auditor shall also indicate the number of such machines or devices used so that the secretary of state will be able to determine that the requirements of this section are being honored.

On petition of ten or more voters resident more than ten miles from any place of election, the board of county commissioners shall establish a separate voting precinct therefor, subject to the requirements and limitations of subsection (2) of this section.

The board of county commissioners of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the same; the county auditor shall thereupon designate the voting place for each such precinct.
Sec. 4. Section 29.04.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 20.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every voting precinct must be established so that it is composed, as nearly as practicable, of contiguous and compact areas having physically defined boundaries clearly observable, and lies wholly within one senatorial or representative district and wholly within one county commissioner district.

(2) Every voting precinct within each county shall be designated consecutively by number.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This 1976 amendatory act shall take effect on February 1, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this 1976 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Another question? Senator Beck, did you make any attempt to do anything about the problems with the computer voting in this bill? I note that it is referred to here in a couple of places in the latter section."

Senator Beck: "This has nothing to do with the computer voting. The computer voting is already . . . ."

Senator Day: "Subsection four on page three refers to 'by voting machines or by voting devices' — by 'voting devices' here in a number of places which I would imagine means computer voting, punchcard voting, and my question is now that we are working the bill and have the bill before us, we should do something to either reverse ourselves and go back to machines or do something to assure that we are not going to have the kind of thing we had in the last election and could well have had in a number of elections that we didn't know anything about. I think if there is anything sacred in this country left, it ought to be that the vote be secure and I don't feel that way about the present system."

Senator Beck: "You are bringing up an entirely different subject, Senator Day. We passed the punchcard voting and the computer voting system and that is already on the statutes."

Senator Day: "Too bad we didn't put a cut-off date on it."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Walgren and Lewis (Harry) was adopted:

On page 3, line 8, after "between" and before "1st" strike "January" and insert "April"

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that Substitute House Bill No. 75 and the pending amendment by Senators Walgren and Lewis (Harry), as amended by Senator Mardesich, be held for further consideration on today's second reading calendar. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Since you are the prime sponsor of the amendment, I guess it would be fair to ask this question of you. The question pertains to the estimated cost that will be incurred by local government in carrying out the mandates of this bill. As I read the guidelines for the maps contained in the department of commerce literature, they set forth very specific requirements for these maps as to what they want on them and what should not be on them. It occurs to me that the type of map the department of commerce is asking for probably is dissimilar from most existing types of maps maintained by county road departments or assessors' offices or other such entities."
"Therefore, I wonder if in this measure we are again dumping a workload on local government without providing any resources for government to employ in coping with the dictates of this bill?"

Senator Walgren: "Senator Wilson, I can't give you the exact dollar figure that might be involved as to additional cost but I would suspect that it would not be any more than is being expended now and it might be substantially less since we are in the process of asking that the precincts be frozen and not subject to the whim of a county auditor to go around and change these every once in a while. At least in my county we have the situation where the county auditor decides by himself if he wants to make a change in the precincts and obviously that is going to be a costly process.

"It seems to me that if we freeze these precincts then we have a one-shot cost but that is the end of it."

The motion by Senator Walgren carried. Substitute House Bill No. 75, together with the pending amendment by Senators Walgren and Lewis (Harry), as amended by Senator Mardesich, was ordered held for further consideration on today's second reading calendar.

MOTION
At 2:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 4:00 p.m.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Grant: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I wasn't here Saturday but I understand there were some remarks made with regard to my seat mate in the House, Representative Shinpoch — some very pointed remarks. I would like to say on behalf of my colleague from the House, he is a very dedicated, hard working, sincere individual member of the House of Representatives.

"I am sorry that Senator Mardesich isn't here now. I would have liked to have made these comments while he was here. I know Bud Shinpoch quite well. I have known him for several years. I knew him before he was a Representative and I know that he has no intention whatever to delay the processes here in the legislature by himself or for any personal advantage that he might gain. When we were here a year ago, a hundred and fifty-five days on some of the same problems that are confronting us today and to place the blame on one Representative, I think, is totally unfair on the part of any Senator.

"To suggest that the House is disorganized and that the leadership in the House has gone from bad to worse, Senator Bailey, is not necessarily the most responsible statement I have ever heard you make, either.

"We have some problems with which we are confronted that are serious problems, and they are problems that I know we all want to try to resolve. I hope we can resolve them but I don't think there will be any resolution of those concerns that we have and I think Representative Shinpoch really is one of the finest Representatives in that body.

"I think I have heard when I was back in high school that a politician looks to the next election and a statesman looks to the next generation. I think that Representative Shinpoch in this position has been looking to the next generation. I hope we can all say that in the next few days."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mardesich: "I am sorry I didn't hear all of Senator Grant's personal privilege, Mr. President. Mr. President, I am sorry I didn't hear all of what Senator Grant had to say. I have never said that Representative Shinpoch is not a hard working, dedicated legislator; he is. I did repeat some remarks which he made and I still feel that my position was right. For one, we were here — I heard a remark about a hundred and fifty-five days — whatever, but I, at least, still am with the position I espoused then.

"Representative Shinpoch has seen fit, for whatever his reasons, to vacillate from a fairly conservative type to a suddenly — in the heat of the leadership battle — to a flaming liberal. Now, that says something to me and if he stays because he is on somebody's payroll, then that is his problem. He could turn that money back to that company and be in the same boat as the rest of us. So, I still stick with my remarks and I am sorry I didn't hear all of yours, Senator."

MOTION

At 5:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 7:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 7:30 p.m.

MOTION

At 7:37 p.m., on motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the Senate recessed until 8:20 p.m.

SECOND EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 8:20 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senators Bottiger, Grant and Woody were excused.

Senators Walgren, Bailey and Francis demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Bottiger, Grant, Keefe, Matson, Ridder, Sellar and Woody who had previously been excused.

MOTION

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 22, 1976.

REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 271, relating to revenue and taxation (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 82.08.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to four and one-half percent of the selling price: PROVIDED, That from and after the first day of June, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, such tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to four and six-tenths percent of the selling price. The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property.

Sec. 2. Section 82.12.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1975 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected from every person in this state a tax or excise for the privilege of using within this state as a consumer any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail, or acquired by lease, gift, repossession, or bailment, or extracted or produced or manufactured by the person so using the same, or otherwise furnished to a person engaged in any business taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsections (2) or (7). This tax will not apply with respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased, extracted, produced or manufactured outside this state until the transportation of such article has finally ended or until such article has become commingled with the general mass of property in this state. This tax shall apply to the use of every article of tangible personal property, including property acquired at a casual or isolated sale, and including byproducts used by the manufacturer thereof, except as hereinafter provided, irrespective of whether the article or similar articles are manufactured or are available for purchase within this state. Except as provided in subdivision (2) of RCW 82.12.030, payment by one purchaser or user of tangible personal property of the tax imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW shall not have the effect of exempting any other purchaser or user of the same property from the taxes imposed by such chapters. The tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate of four and one-half percent: PROVIDED, That from and after the first day of June, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, such tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate of four and six-tenths percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after the first day of June, 1976, until the thirtieth day of June, 1977, there is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities, as a part of the tax imposed by the provisions of RCW 82.04.220 through 82.04.290, inclusive, an additional tax in the amount of six percent of the tax payable under the provisions of RCW 82.04.220 through 82.04.290, inclusive. To facilitate collection of this additional tax, the department of revenue is authorized to adjust the basic rates of persons to which this section applies in such manner as to reflect the amount to the nearest one-thousandth of one percent of the additional tax hereby imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this 1976 amendatory act shall be null and void in the event chapter _ (Substitute Senate Bill No. 2778), Laws of 1975-76 second ex. sess. is approved and becomes law."

On line 1 of the title, after "taxation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 82.08.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 281, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.020; amending section 82.12.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1975 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.020; adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW; prescribing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed House Bill No. 271 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newschwander: "Mr. President, do we have the three-minute rule here now?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator Newschwander."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "I would hope so because we have heard this sales tax pitch about five times. We can stand up and we can talk B and O in the same realm that Senator Marsh is and so I would hope that you could maybe cut it down to one minute and we might listen to you but after that there is not a person on this side who is going to pay any attention. We are all tired and want to go home."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, point of order. I raise the point of order that the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the title. House Bill No. 271 amends chapter 84.12 which has to do with assessments and taxation of public utilities and which is in Title 84 having to do with property taxes in general. The proposed amendment amends three chapters of Title 82 having to do with excise taxes, amending chapter 82.04 having to do with the B and O tax, chapter 82.08 having to do with the sales tax, chapter 82.12 having to do with the use tax. Senator Newschwander, I hope that is within one minute."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The point of order as raised by Senator Marsh is that the amendment changes the scope and object of the title. House Bill No. 271 amends chapter 84.12 which has to do with assessments and taxation of public utilities and which is in Title 84 having to do with property taxes in general. The proposed amendment amends three chapters of Title 82 having to do with excise taxes, amending chapter 82.04 having to do with the B and O tax, chapter 82.08 having to do with the sales tax, chapter 82.12 having to do with the use tax. Senator Newschwander, I hope that is within one minute."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 45 of the amendment, before "Substitute" insert "Engrossed"

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 21; excused, 7.

REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 271, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Bailey moved that the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass the Senate.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage, on reconsideration, of Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate, and on reconsideration the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 17; excused, 7.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, I would like to call attention to rule 34 on the announcement of the vote on a point of order. Rule 34 says 'the announcement of all votes shall be made by the president and the announcement of the result of any vote shall not be postponed.' We have now been here fifteen minutes. I think it is perfectly obvious that the vote is being delayed in its announcement contrary to rule 34."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARSH

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, I will also call attention to rule one which has to do with decorum. I think it is obvious when members are clustered around the desk and discussion of the vote is being made that that is less than total decorum."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The remarks as presented by Senator Marsh are well taken."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Marsh has raised the point of order quoting rule 34: 'the announcement of all votes shall be made by the president and the announcement of the result of any vote shall not be postponed.' Senator Marsh's point of order is well taken."

REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 271, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, on reconsideration, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Reengrossed House Bill No. 271, as amended by

At 9:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

Sec. 17. Section 149, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—GENERAL APPORTIONMENT

General Fund Appropriation:

For General Apportionment ...................................... $ [1,073,195,265]

Total Appropriation ................................................ $ [1,136,687,069]

The appropriation contained in this section shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Salary increases for classified and certificated employees of common school districts are not mandated by the provisions of this section.

(2) Any local school district which does provide a salary increase from funds appropriated by this section shall provide a district-wide salary increase which is equal for both certificated and classified personnel.

(3) Local school districts receiving funds from the appropriation made in this section may expend all or a portion of such funds to retain needed personnel in lieu of salary increases.

(4) It is the intent of the legislature that any district receives funds through the state apportionment formula in excess of the amount anticipated by such a district when it established its excess levy for collection in 1976 or 1977 and when such excess can be utilized to relieve special levy burdens, then such a district should place a first priority on reducing its special levy.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to direct from the appropriation contained in this section, such funds as may be necessary to grant salary increases for certificated and classified employees funded through categorical programs, but in no event shall such allocation exceed the average salary increase amount authorized for state employees during the 1974-75 fiscal year.

(6) The weighting schedule used by the superintendent of public instruction during the 1975-77 biennium in computing the apportionment of funds for each school district shall be based on the following factors:

(a) A base weighting factor of 1.0 for each full time equivalent student enrolled;

(b) An additional weighting factor of 1.0 for each full time equivalent student enrolled in vocational education in grades 9-12 which is approved by the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall report the results of a comprehensive study on vocational education to the standing ways and means committees no later than January 1, 1976. Such study shall document the cost of vocational education presently qualifying for 0.2 support on a sample basis. Such study shall include an examination of the criteria for determining full time equivalents and recommendations for alternative funding procedures and a time line for implementation thereof;

(c) Continuation of the weighting factors used by the superintendent of public instruction for the purpose of reimbursement to each school district for costs resulting from staff education and experience greater than the minimum requirements. The superintendent of public instruction shall employ the staff characteristic factor of the respective local districts established in each of the immediately preceding school years for purposes of distribution throughout the 1975-77 biennium;

(d) An additional weighting factor of not more than 2.0 as determined by the superintendent of public instruction for school districts enrolling not more than 250 full time equivalent students in grades 9-12;

(e) An additional weighting factor of not more than 2.0 as determined by the superintendent of public instruction for nonhigh school districts enrolling not more than 100 full time equivalent students which districts have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education;

(f) An additional weighting factor of not more than 2.0 as determined by the superintendent of public instruction for small school plants which are judged remote and necessary within any school district by the state board of education;

(g) An additional weighting factor for a period of not more than four years, for any consolidated school district formed after July 1, 1971, equal to the additional weighting factor in effect in each qualifying district during the school year immediately preceding consolidation, which district consists of one or more former school districts which were either remote and necessary or which contained not more than 250 students in grades 9-12;

(h) An additional weighting factor of 0.25 for full time equivalent students residing on tax exempt property as set forth in RCW 28A.41.140(6)(b) or (c); and

(i) An additional weighting factor of 0.25 for full time equivalent students in an approved interdistrict cooperative program as authorized by RCW 28A.41.140(6)(a) and 28A.58.075.

(6) Not more than three million dollars of such funds appropriated by this section shall be allocated to districts, during the 1976-77 school year, which have submitted but failed to authorize one or more excess levies for maintenance and operations for collection in 1976 and with a relatively high percentage of urban, rural, racial, and disadvantaged children, to continue quality educational programs for the 1976-77 school year at approximately the same student-teacher ratio that existed during the 1975-76 school year for any such districts or schools within such districts.

(7) [It is the intent of the legislature that] A portion of the funds appropriated by this section for general apportionment may be used by school districts for costs associated with public use of school gymnasiums during evening and weekend hours.

(8) During the 1975-77 biennium the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute not more than $960,000 of the funds appropriated by this section for general apportionment, outside of the apportionment formula to school districts for the following purposes:

(a) To pay fire protection districts at a rate of $1.00 per year for each student attending a school located in an unincorporated area within a fire protection district as mandated by the provisions of RCW 52.36.020 by the expenditure of not more than $560,000;

(b) To pay for school district emergencies by the expenditure of not more than $400,000.
(9) During the 1975-77 biennium the superintendent of public instruction may direct the expenditure of funds contained in this appropriation to fund the percentage of school psychologists, speech therapists and other ancillary personnel not funded in the handicapped excess cost appropriation for the 1975-77 biennium.

(10) Not more than $125,000 of such funds appropriated by this section shall be expended for conversion of first class school district financial reports into machine readable form; to assist second class school districts in subscribing to data processing cooperative services and implementing financial accounting changes; and to pay expenses of state-wide school data processing task force and staff coordinator necessary for developing uniform reporting and processing systems for data processing cooperative usage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. FOR THE LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD

Liquor Board Revolving Fund Appropriation. $1,000

The Washington State Liquor Control Board is authorized in its discretion to negotiate for and exchange its warehouse site and building, located at 4201 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, for a warehouse site and building which, with this appropriated amount, shall be of equal or greater value to be provided by the Port of Seattle at a different location in King County.

Sec. 38. Section 187, chapter 269, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

In accordance with the provisions of this section the office of program planning and fiscal management shall use the allotment process during the 1975-77 biennium to control the funding of the formula portion of the instruction and departmental research programs of all the four year institutions of higher education and the community colleges. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, deviations in the formula entitlements for faculty staffing shall be the controlling factor. For the purpose of this section, the "contract level" is defined as the formula entitlement level upon which the budget is base, and the "base level" is defined as the formula entitlement level corresponding to the prior years' contract or actual enrollment level, whichever is lower. [\textbf{Controls}] \textit{PROVIDED, That for the initial year of the biennium for community colleges the base for implementing the contract level shall be the budgeted enrollment level as determined by the state board for community college education at which each college district was funded for the 1974-75 year. The provisions of contract enrollment shall be applied to each four year institution separately and to the community college education system as a total entity. "Growth funding" is defined as that portion of the appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level. All growth funds shall be reserved at the time of annual allotments. Such reserves shall be released only to the extent that the contract level is achieved, based upon the office of program planning and fiscal management's population studies section projections of full year enrollments from actual enrollments on the tenth day of the fall term. Growth funding not so released shall lapse at the end of a fiscal year. [In any case where actual formula faculty entitlement, as computed from full year enrollments in spring, exceeds the contract level by more than one and one-half percent, appropriated funds equal in amount to the student operating fees derived from such excess enrollment shall be withheld during the same or subsequent year and shall revert to the state general fund following the close of the 1975-77 biennium.

\textbf{NEW SECTION.} Sec. 39. If, on the basis of revenue estimates and projections effective May 1, 1976, the governor determines that general fund expenditures are likely to exceed general fund revenues for the current biennium, he shall order reductions in expenditure by agencies in the executive branch, excluding higher education and the state common school system, up to an aggregate amount not to exceed $20,000,000. For the purposes of this section, the 1975-77 general fund appropriations made to state agencies headed by persons elected or appointed pursuant to Article III of the Washington state Constitution or RCW 48.02.010, including the office budget of the superintendent of public instruction and the appropriation to the educational service districts within the superintendent of public instruction's budget, shall be reduced proportionally to those reductions required of executive agencies by the standing committees on ways and means of the House and Senate under the provision of RCW 43.88.115. The office of program planning and fiscal management, at the direction of the governor, shall determine the amount of savings by each agency: \textbf{PROVIDED, That if a reduction in force is required to implement the provisions of this section, such reduction shall be based proportionally among merit system classifications and exempt personnel without prohibiting a higher percentage of reductions among exempt or administrative personnel: \textbf{PROVIDED, That if the claim made by the state to the United States department of health, education and welfare on October 24, 1972, for reimbursement in the amount of $32,876,903 is sustained or settled in whole or in part, there is hereby appropriated $20,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the general fund from Suspense Fund 705 which may be used in lieu of the reduction in expenditures provided by this section: \textbf{PROVIDED FURTHER, That the reduction in expenditures provided for above must be initiated as of July 1, 1976, and the reimbursement may be used, after receipt thereof and to the extent available, to return the expenditure level to a level no higher than that in existence as of July 1, 1976.

\textbf{NEW SECTION.} Sec. 40. There is hereby appropriated to the general fund the sum of $5,508,264 from Suspense Fund 705.

\textbf{NEW SECTION.} Sec. 41. If any provision of this 1976 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

\textbf{NEW SECTION.} Sec. 42. This 1976 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1626, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, the reduction enforced in preparing this budget is the recommendation of the Governor?"

Senator Donohue: "It is based upon his recommendation. It was in his budget, Senator, and was talked about last December."

Senator Rasmussen: "And there was another question, Senator Donohue. I understand this budget contains enough in the school appropriation for a small salary increase for school employees?"

Senator Donohue: "I would assume, Senator, that some of these dollars would be used for salary increase. I can't verify that this would occur, but it is possible that..."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is available if they can manage it in their budget?"

Senator Donohue: "Yes, Senator."
Senator Rasmussen: "Then is there enough money in here for any salary increase for state employees?"

Senator Donohue: "No, Senator, there is not."

Senator Rasmussen: "For higher education?"

Senator Donohue: "No, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, in this bill now before us, within the bonding authority language of this bill, does it or does it not cap special levies?"

Senator Donohue: "Yes, Senator, it does cap special levies. It allows that the districts shall not exceed ten percent of increase in the next go-around for the levy requests. Yes, it does."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, I take it that means for those districts that would buy the bonding system."

Senator Donohue: "That is true, Senator, but of course the language that is in this bill — the same as the language that is in the previous bill that we sent over — will not be effective unless the House does, in fact, vote on the bond bill that we sent over."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1626, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 16; excused, 7.

Excused: Senators Francis, Grant, Jones, Keefe, Matson, Ridder, Woody—7.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1626, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Cunningham, Francis, Jones, Keefe, Matson, Murray and Ridder. On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senators Francis, Keefe and Ridder were excused. On motion of Senator Lewis (R. H. “Bob”), Senators Cunningham, Jones, Matson and Murray were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Colleen Crowley and Ken Beare, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen D. Cole, pastor of the Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer: “OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, WE ARE DEPENDING UPON YOU AS WE COME TO THIS PRAYER TIME TODAY. HOW MANY TIMES IN LIFE DO PEOPLE GIVE UP, TURN FROM THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DAY AND ARE DEFEATED. YOUR WORD HAS DECLARED THAT WE CAN BE 'MORE THAN CONQUERORS THROUGH HIM THAT LOVED US.' WE, THEREFORE, TAKE TIME TO BUILD INTO OUR PERSONALITIES A LIVING RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST, BY WHICH WE CAN ALWAYS WIN THE DAY AND ACCOMPLISH THE MAXIMUM GOOD.

“BLESS, WE PRAY, THIS GROUP OF LAWMAKERS TODAY. GRANT THEM YOUR WISDOM AS THEY ENDEAVOR TO BRING THIS SESSION TO AN END. ASSIST THEM IN THEIR DECISIONS. MAY THERE COME TO THEM THE DIRECTION NEEDED TO BRING ABOUT SATISFACTORY CONCLUSIONS TO MATTERS BEFORE THEM.

"THANK YOU SO MUCH, LORD, FOR YOUR LOVE, YOUR FORGIVENESS, AND FOR YOUR CONSTANT HELP. WITHOUT IT WE FUMBLE AND STUMBLE. WITH IT WE RISE UP LIKE THE WINGS OF AN EAGLE. FOR ALL YOUR FAVOR AND BLESSING, WE GIVE YOU OUR THANKS. IN OUR SAVIOR’S NAME. AMEN."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 24, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1316, and has granted said committee powers of Free Conference.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 22, 1976.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1316, as amended by the Senate, authorizing state funding of senior citizens' nutrition program, have had the same under consideration, and that the bill be amended as recommended by the Conference Committee.

Signed by: Senators Day, Cunningham and von Reichbauer; Representatives Adams and Shinpoch.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted on Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator North: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, could you explain to me the thinking of the conference committee as to why you are striking the material — public policy attempting to retain the family unit?"

Senator Day: "I don't know. We would have to ask Senator Cunningham about that because that was in the amendments that were presented to me as the amendments that should be and had to be adopted before he would sign the report. Although it does not change the implementation of the thing, it certainly changes the intent in that first section or deletes from the intent public policy that I think is a good public policy and that is doing everything to retain the family unit that we possibly can.

"I think particularly in society today that that is one of the problems that even this Legislature confronts financially is the deterioration of the family unit, the lack of the background in children to be responsible citizens, take advantage of education and other opportunities. So we end up with more and more of a burden at the state level. I was not in favor of that particular amendment but it was taken out because it was insisted that we have to take it out or we could not get the thing out of a Free Conference — you see we only have five signatures."

Senator North: "I would agree with you. I think that is a real step backward and certainly does not reflect the feeling of this body."
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1316, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 6.

Absent or not voting: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.

Excused: Senators Francis, Jones, Keefe, Matson, Murray, Ridder—6.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1316, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

March 24, 1976.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1316.

My negative vote on this measure at the instance of its original passage and upon final passage of the Free Conference report is based upon two principles.

I will attack the State's dependence upon Federal funds first. The principle of Federal Revenue Sharing originated in the Congress during the 1960's when it appeared that the Federal Government would have large surpluses which could be shared with the states. The situation in 1976 is very much different. The Federal Government expects to chalk up a deficit of $75 billion dollars. Therefore, there is a strong move in the Congress to terminate the program of "deficit sharing."

The Legislature in creating the Department of Social and Health Services created an organization of such tremendous size, so thoroughly enmeshed in bureaucratic red tape, as to be impossible of management. The Legislature in adopting the budget for the DSHS for the 1975-77 biennium appropriated funds and directed the DSHS to increase the pay to nursing homes — an increase of seven percent in 1975 and seven percent in 1976. The DSHS was instructed to reimburse the nursing homes on the basis of audited costs. It is a matter of public record that DSHS has not carried out the directions of the Legislature. It is further a matter of public record that the accounting system of DSHS is so inadequate as to apparently defy correction. The present budget appropriates an additional $12.5 million and specifically instructs that DSHS correct a whole range of deficiencies. The budget orders a reduction in force — estimated to be between 450 and 1300 employees. It directs the Department to cut short the stay in hospitals. It directs the Department to devise an accounting procedure to determine the encumbrances of claims filed so that belated claims may be accurately forecast. Some $8 million dollars in claims were filed timely in Fiscal 1974, but were not paid.

The cost of keeping a patient in a skilled nursing home care is approximately $22 per day. The cost of sending a registered nurse to a home to change a dressing or make an injection is $19.50 per visit. The Department has only had funds sufficient to pay $15.00 per day for skilled nursing home care. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1316 will create the illusion that the State will do more than it can deliver. In my opinion it is a cruel hoax upon the people.

MOTION

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-170

By Senators Donohue, Woody and Marsh:

WHEREAS, The Legislature acknowledged the state's interest in insuring beneficial use of the valuable facilities at Northern State Hospital at Sedro Woolley in Senate Bill No. 3358 which was enacted into law in Chapter 178, Laws of 1974, 1st Ex. Sess.; and

WHEREAS, The Senate recognizes the economic impact of the facilities' use on the communities in the area and on the citizens of the state as a whole; and

WHEREAS, The provisions of Senate Bill No. 3358 were intended to secure the highest benefit to the people in the area affected by the closure of the facility; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature delegated the final disposition of the site and facilities to the Department of General Administration, and management of the adjoining lands to the Department of Natural Resources; and

WHEREAS, The governor vetoed the language in the act which reserved for the Legislature its appropriate role in approving the final disposition of the facility; and

WHEREAS, It now appears that adequate analysis has not been made regarding possible public or private uses of the facility; and

WHEREAS, There is a continuing need for lands and facilities for essential public programs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate Ways and Means Committee conduct a study to consider:

(I) All possible potential public, community, and private uses;

(2) The lease and/or sale procedures to insure beneficial operation of the facility and lands;

(3) The economic effect on the surrounding communities of alternative proposals; and

(4) The potential advantages of preserving the facilities against the cost of building additional facilities for either state or local programs. The study shall encourage maximum public participation in the decision-making process; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Ways and Means Committee conduct the study in cooperation with the Department of General Administration, the Department of Natural Resources, and units of local government affected by potential uses of these facilities and properties; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That it is the explicit intent of the Senate that the Department of General Administration and the Department of Natural Resources take no further action on the disposition of the facilities and surrounding lands at Northern State, nor enter into further negotiation for lease or sale until the Senate Ways and Means Committee study is completed and recommendations are approved by the Legislature; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Departments of General Administration and Natural Resources continue to manage the property, improvements and appurtenances thereto in a manner which will protect the site and the state's vital interest in it; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the survey and report by the Senate Ways and Means Committee be submitted to the Legislature no later than next regular session; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Commissioner of Public Lands, the Department of Natural Resources, the Director of the Department of General Administration, the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, the Director of the Department of Social and Health Services, and to the appropriate officials of local governments in the area of the facility.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Mr. President, would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, I don't know whether you are abreast or aware of the past negotiations of the disposal of Northern State. As you well know, this property is in the joint jurisdiction, as of now, by legislative edict, in the department of general administration and the department of natural resources. Negotiations have been in progress on the lease of this property by a developer for the past year, or somewhat over a year. The lease arrangements are, according to my latest information yesterday afternoon, the letter of intent was almost ready to be signed with just a couple of technicalities.

"Now, is it the intent of your resolution to either postpone or negate the disposal or the lease of this property?"

Senator Woody: "No, it is not. The purpose of this resolution is so that the ways and means committee can look into its best possible uses, and in fact if they determine that the best possible use is the proposed lease which is not really in final form yet, then of course that report will advance to the full legislature rather than just general administration. At that point, of course, the green light will be on and the Canadian developer will be able to have his lease executed.

"I might correct you in one instance. It is in joint ownership now, not because of any legislative action but the department of social and health services felt they were a little pressed for time so they issued a quit claim deed covering the entire property to two joint holders right now; general administration and the department of natural resources. Right now, neither one of those by themselves can issue a clear title in the form of a lease or sale. It has to be with both general administration and the department of natural resources unless there is a separation of the buildings and immediate grounds as opposed to the surrounding land." Senator Peterson: "I understand that, Senator Woody, and I could correct you a little bit. I don't think DSHS had control over the surrounding lands. The DNR had that."

Senator Woody: "Excuse me. They issued the deed. As I said, DSHS issued a quit claim deed covering the entire property and the vendees under that deed were the department of natural resources and general administration."

Senator Peterson: "Thank you, Senator Woody."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator North: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? General administration has told us that the maintenance costs in this facility alone runs about five hundred thousand a year. Before we take any vote on this, I would like to ask you for the record — and as I read your resolution — it is not the intent . . . there isn't anything in here to impede or to stop the lease or the sale of this property. The study could continue at the same time that negotiations move forward and this is not to say in effect, 'you cannot lease or sell.'"

Senator Woody: "That is correct, and the reason that it is correct is because this is a Senate Floor Resolution; it is not a concurrent resolution. No more could the House pass something in the form of a resolution that would stop something that we have already appropriated monies for. We have appropriated monies in just about every budget, including the bare-bones budget, some additional funds for maintenance of Northern State. It is not five hundred thousand dollars a year. In the last budget we appropriated four hundred and some thousand for a biennium, and then a supplemental was — I can't recall — I think a hundred thousand or so — two hundred and some thousand — so for a biennium if those monies were expended totally, we would have four hundred plus two and six hundred thousand dollars for a two-year period of time and we have appropriated those funds."

Senator North: "Thank you, Senator Woody."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody failed and the resolution was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-193

By Senators Talley, Peterson and Marsh:

WHEREAS, There is a great need to preserve and enhance the fisheries resources of the Columbia River for the benefit of the citizens of the bordering states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho; and
WHEREAS, Such preservation and enhancement efforts can only be recognized and accomplished by an agreement between the respective governments of the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho; and
WHEREAS, Federal legislation and federal judicial decisions have great potential impact on such interstate compacts; and
WHEREAS, Certain fact-finding studies must be accomplished to determine what elements should be included in such a compact; and
WHEREAS, No such fact-finding studies have ever been undertaken by either of the legislative bodies of the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho; and
WHEREAS, The lack of such study efforts has resulted in the passage of dissimilar compact legislation by the states of Oregon and Idaho, and the failure of the state of Washington to pass any such legislation;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled, That the Senate Natural Resources Standing Committee in cooperation with the House Natural Resources Committee undertake such a compact study in conjunction with the cooperative efforts of the states of Oregon and Idaho; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee be empowered to meet in public forums and in other meetings as deemed necessary with similar such committees from the states of Oregon and Idaho to establish the necessary public and technical input from affected user groups of the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee be requested to document its findings and recommendations for needed legislative action and that the Senate Natural Resources Committee present its findings to the 1977 legislative session; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives and the Secretary of the Senate in the states of Oregon and Idaho.

MOTION

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-271

By Senators Rasmussen, Buffington, Henry, Knoblauch, Van Hollebeke, Morrison and Peterson:
WHEREAS, The state licenses and regulates more than thirty businesses, professions and occupations and that number is increasing; and
WHEREAS, The services provided by such businesses, professions and occupations affect both individual consumers and the general public; and
WHEREAS, State licensing and regulatory procedures should periodically be reviewed to assure that licensees are meeting established standards and that such standards are adequate; and
WHEREAS, State licensing also affects the individuals within those businesses, professions or occupations; and
WHEREAS, The organizational structure for licensing and regulation should be reviewed in terms of efficiency and effectiveness; and
WHEREAS, The Senate Committee on Commerce has traditionally considered measures dealing with licensing of businesses, professions and occupations; and
WHEREAS, The Senate Committee on State Government has a continuing interest in the organization of state agencies;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate Committee on Commerce conduct a study to determine whether present licensing and examination procedures best serve the general public and the licensees; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Committee on State Government conduct a study to determine whether the present organizational structure for business, professional and occupational licensing and regulation is adequate; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the appropriate state agencies which license and regulate businesses, professions and occupations shall provide such assistance as may be needed to complete the studies outlined above; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Committees on Commerce and State Government report the findings of their studies and any recommendations to the 45th Legislature.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On line 12, insert the following:

"WHEREAS, Regulating bodies have no consumer advocates to represent the public interest, such study and review should include the subject of consumer advocacy pertaining to membership on professional boards; and"

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I would like to suggest that these resolutions — I know we had pads of them available here — and over the weeks they have gone into the wastebasket. I would suggest that if resolutions are going to be considered, copies be made available to the membership; otherwise, I am going to start demanding that they be made available."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I think we have a motion before us, Senator Mardesich's motion before us."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Not as yet, Senator. The Senate for the present will place your motion later."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that all Senate Resolutions requesting a study be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Mardesich, would you be willing to withdraw that for the purpose of at least this . . . . . . ."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I would be happy to withdraw that for the purpose of those resolutions which are on the desk at this time, being namely 275, 276 and 274, and that the motion be presented after the consideration of those resolutions."

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Mardesich was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-194

By Senators Day, Woody, Buffington and McDermott:

WHEREAS, Costs of health care are rising in the state of Washington as a direct result of recent substantial increases in professional liability insurance premiums paid by health care providers; and

WHEREAS, Insurance companies presently do not report their professional liability insurance experience in Washington in a standardized manner; and

WHEREAS, Standardized reporting of insurance company professional liability experience in Washington State would greatly assist the legislature in developing short and long range solutions to the professional liability problem;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Wash-
WASHINGTON hereby requests that the insurance commissioner mandate that each insurer who issues professional liability insurance to health care providers in this state file with the insurance commissioner, annually or more frequently as the commissioner may require, a report of all claims for injury occurring as a result of health care, amounts of aggregate reserves for such claims, information relating to amounts of awards and settlements paid on such claims, and such other information as the commissioner may prescribe by regulation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington hereby requests that the insurance commissioner formulate and promulgate a form upon which such information shall be reported.

RESPONSE TO GOVERNOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE

March 24, 1976.

The Governor's budget message stated there was a deficit condition existing within the Department of Social and Health Services. His supplemental budget request proposed an approach to rectify this deficit.

The Governor's budget makes the following state general fund assumptions:

1. The Department of Social and Health Services has an operational deficit of $26.9 million.

In addition, the governor has imposed a cut-back in DSHS of $11.3 million 'to help finance more pressing needs elsewhere.'

The Governor proposed to reduce this deficit by requesting:

- Transfer authority between programs of five percent of the total DSHS appropriation;
- Authority to pay belated claims from current appropriations;
- Release of 1975-77 budget contingencies; and
- Not implement twice monthly grant payments.

This budget responds to the Governor's proposal in the following manner:

1. It denies the five percent transfer authority because the 1975-77 budget provides for the department to request authority to transfer above the current $10 million authority from OPP&FM and both Ways and Means.
2. It gives authority to pay 1973-75 belated medical claims from 1975-77 appropriations and which must be absorbed by the department.
3. It does release the $28 million state funds in contingency. However, two items should be noted:
   A. The department has given a gentlemen's agreement to provide the reports which were a part of the contingencies; and
   B. The Governor's intended use of the released contingent funds are to be as specified in the 1975-77 budget; except, certain contingencies were to be allowed to be transferred between programs:
      (1) The FTE-related expenditures within the income maintenance and medical assistance caseload contingency ($1.1 million);
      (2) Foster care caseload review contingency ($1.2 million); and
      (3) Administration and support services contingency ($6.0 million).
4. This budget does provide for the non-implementation of twice monthly grant payments.

Items No. 3 and No. 4 above provide $10.8 million toward the reduction of the deficiency. The executive projects an accounting surplus amounting to $7.5 million. This leaves a final deficiency of $19.9 million. The department has, with the Governor's knowledge and approval, begun to exercise its management responsibility to resolve that problem.

Finally, the reduction in the hospital length of stay from the 75th percentile provided in this budget is not related to the existing deficiency in DSHS. Rather, it is to be utilized only if the Governor determines there is a deficiency in state general fund revenue as provided in section 39 of this act.

EIGHTIETH DAY

AFTERNOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, March 25, 1976.

The Senate was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Benitz, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Francis, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, North, Pullen, Ridder, Wanamaker and Woody. There being no objection, Senator Keefe was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jim Edgington and Kim Olsin, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen D. Cole, pastor of the Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, WITH HUMILITY AND A SENSE OF NEED, WE LOOK TO YOU THIS DAY. WE COME ASIDE FOR THESE FEW MOMENTS TO RENEW OUR SPIRITS THROUGH PRAYER. GRANT, O LORD, YOUR BLESSING UPON THIS BODY OF PUBLIC SERVANTS. WE ARE ENCOURAGED IN WHATEVER LINE OF WORK WE ARE ENGAGED TO 'LIFT UP OUR EYES UNTO THE HILLS FROM WHENCE COMETH OUR HELP. OUR HELP COMETH FROM THE LORD WHO MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.' THANK YOU, GOD, FOR THAT PRIVILEGE. HELP MARVELOUSLY IN THE AFFAIRS OF OUR STATE TODAY. ASSIST THESE LEGISLATORS IN THE PROBLEMS THEY ARE FACING. SOME ARE FACING PRESSURES OF BUSINESS AND OF FAMILY. GRANT TO THEM A SENSE OF INNER PEACE. PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, this morning while I was still home I sat and listened to the announcement of Governor Evans that he intended to retire. When I returned to Olympia this morning I wrote him a letter to tell him that I thought that coming from a member of the loyal opposition, I told Governor Evans that I thought he had done a very fine job as Governor.

"You know, in public life you receive so few bouquets; it is always criticism. To criticize is the easiest thing in the world to do, and it is nice sometimes to have someone tell you thanks. I told the Governor I was glad that he was retiring because I knew that throughout the twenty years of public service he had given up many hours of pleasure with his wife and his boys and no man with a family likes to be gone so long. I told the Governor that he had brought credit to the name Evans, to his mother and father, to his wife Nancy, to his children and mostly, to himself, he brought credit.

"I was speaking as a Democrat, but proudly saying that I am glad to have served under Governor Evans, that he has a right to hold his head high, that he was a credit to the word 'politician,' and that he was a fine Governor of the State of Washington."

EIGHTY-FIRST DAY, MARCH 26, 1976 1003

EIGHTY-FIRST DAY

AFTERNOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, March 26, 1976.

The Senate was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Benitz, Francis, Keefe, Matson, Morrison, North, Ridder and Wanamaker. On motion of Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Senators Benitz, Matson, North and Wanamaker were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Douglas Lee and Susan Hintz, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen D. Cole, pastor of the Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"FAATHER IN HEAVEN, WE TURN OUR ATTENTION FROM THE BUSINESS, OR THE 'BUSINESS' OF LIFE, AND LOOK TO THEE. YOUR WORD HAS TOLD US THAT 'THE PRAYER OF A RIGHTEOUS MAN HAS A POWERFUL EFFECT.' WE FEEL THAT THERE ARE SOME THINGS AROUND US THAT NEED A POWERFUL EFFECT. HEARKEN TO THE PRAYER WE MAKE IN THIS PLACE TODAY AND COME TO HELP US, O GOD. WE NEED GUIDANCE, WE NEED WISDOM, WE NEED UNDERSTANDING, WE NEED TOLERANCE. AS WE APPROACH HOLY WEEK WE ARE REMINDED ALSO THAT WE NEED FORGIVENESS. MAY WE BOW AT THE FOOT OF THE OLD RUGGED CROSS, AND OUTSIDE AN EMPTY TOMB FIND ALL THAT WE HAVE NEED OF. NOT THROUGH NATURAL MEANS BUT THROUGH THE POWER OF THE SUPERNATURAL.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That other solutions to control undesirable activities in state parks be pursued by the Parks and Recreation Commission; and

WHEREAS, Judge Finley, who served as the Chief Justice two terms and as a member of the state's highest court for twenty-five years; and

WHEREAS, Judge Finley was a devout family man and is survived by his charming wife, Werdna, and three exceptionally talented children; Pat, Randy and Mary Ellen; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate be and he is hereby instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the family of Judge Finley and to the Chief Justice of the Washington State Supreme Court.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, many of you have known Judge Finley for as long as I have. I met him first back in 1960 when I was a clerk of the supreme court here in Olympia. I can tell you that in the legal community he has been known throughout his career on the supreme court as one of the most far reaching, thinking jurists that this court has ever known. I know when I worked there on the court as a clerk, he has always challenged the thinking of every person who worked there either as a judge, or clerk, or every lawyer who appeared before the supreme court on an argument on a case before the court."
"It was with a great deal of regret that in the middle part of this week we learned of his untimely death in Olympia. The citizens here in Olympia have grown to know Judge Finley over these twenty-five years. I think it was perhaps ironic that one of his close Jazz friends was the person who discovered the incident.

"I think it will be probably many years in the future before we will find a jurist of his capabilities. I was very disturbed to hear of his loss."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I also wanted to join the Senator in expressing the great knowledge and benefits that Judge Finley contributed to the legal profession. I had the privilege of serving with him for a considerable period of time on the Judicial Council and got to know him quite well. He worked very hard on the judicial articles and I know that it was quite a disappointment to him when that failed because he very thoroughly believed that it was a step forward.

"He was a very sincere and able judge and the state has suffered a loss by his passing."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, having worked with Judge Finley for many, many years, both in the House and the Senate, I always found him an advocate of improving the judicial branch of the government and always found him willing to work with the legislative branch. I well remember his daughter, Patty, when she was a page and did an excellent job, as she is doing today. It must have been a terrible shock for the family.

"I, too, join in mourning his passing. He was an excellent judge and an excellent worker for the good of the state."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 19, 1976.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1502, placing timber tax funds A and B into the state general fund (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 8, add sections as follows:

"Section 1. Section 43.84.090, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 50, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.84.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Twenty percent of all income received from such investments shall be set aside in a reserve account: PROVIDED, That the legislature may appropriate such amounts from this account as may be necessary to pay operating expenses of the state treasurer for the servicing of investments and outstanding bonded indebtedness of the state and for operating expenses of the state finance committee and the state building authority, and may transfer further amounts from the reserve account to the general fund on a periodic basis.

Investments purchased for more or less than par shall be amortized to obtain the true amount of income, and the amortized value of the principal, at any time, shall be the cost of the security plus or minus such portion of the income as has been assigned to principal.

Any loss sustained by selling investments for less than the amortized value of the principal may be charged to the reserve fund. Any profits obtained from selling investments for more than the amortized value of the principal shall be considered as income. All income other than that set aside in the reserve fund shall be credited to the deposit interest [fund in the state treasury] account in the state general fund.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 180, Laws of 1949 and RCW 73.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

All disbursements required by this chapter for compensation shall be made upon the presentation of a certificate upon a form to be prescribed by the state auditor, which form shall be duly verified, by the claimant under oath, and shall set forth his name, residence at the time of entry into the service, date of enlistment, induction or entry upon active federal service, beginning and ending dates of overseas service, date of discharge or release from active federal service, or if the claimant has not been released at the time of application, a statement by competent military authority that the claimant during the period for which compensation is claimed did not refuse to subject himself to full military discipline and unqualified service, and that he has not been separated from service under circumstances other than honorable. The state auditor may require such further information to be included in such certificate as he deems necessary to enable him to determine the eligibility of applicants. Such certificates shall be presented to the state auditor or his representative, together with evidence of honorable service satisfactory to the state auditor. The state auditor shall draw warrants in payment of such compensation claims against the war veterans' compensation [fund] account, which is hereby established in the state [treasury] general fund. The state auditor is given power to make such reasonable requirements for applications as are necessary to prevent fraud or the payment of compensation to persons not entitled thereto.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.040 are each amended to read as follows:

All disbursements made under this chapter for compensation shall be made upon the presentation of a certificate or claim form to be prescribed by the state treasurer.

Such form for persons applying for benefits shall be duly verified by the claimant under oath, and shall set forth his name, residence at the time of entry into the service, date of enlistment, induction, or entry upon active federal service, beginning and ending dates of overseas service, date of discharge or release from active federal service, or if the claimant has not been released at the time of application, a statement by a competent military authority that the claimant during the period for which compensation is claimed did not refuse to subject himself to full military discipline and unqualified service, and that he has not been separated from service under circumstances other than honorable. The state treasurer may require such further information to be included in such certificate as he deems necessary to enable him to determine the eligibility of applicants. Such certificates shall be presented to the state treasurer or his representative, together with evidence of honorable service satisfactory to the state treasurer. The claim for institutions seeking reimbursement under RCW 73.34.020(2) shall contain such information as the treasurer shall deem necessary to determine the authenticity thereof.

The state treasurer shall furnish free of charge upon the application therefor certificates or claim forms upon which applications may be made and may establish at different points within the state offices at which there shall be kept on file for the use of persons covered by this chapter a sufficient number of such certificates, so that there is no unnecessary delay in the payment of compensation. The state treasurer may authorize the county auditor or county clerk, or both, of any county of the state to act for him in receiving such certificates, and shall furnish them with sufficient certificates to enable them to accept the same. The state treasurer shall procure such printing, office supplies and equipment and employ such persons as may be necessary to properly carry out the provisions of this chapter. All expenses incurred by him in the administration of this chapter shall be paid by warrants drawn upon the war veterans' compensation [fund] account.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The executive officer of the veterans' rehabilitation council shall advise with and assist the state treasurer in the performance of the duties of the treasurer under this chapter, and when so called upon, the executive officer shall employ such persons and incur such expenses as may be necessary, such expenses to be paid by warrant drawn upon the war veterans' compensation [fund] account.

Sec. 6. Section 12, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the death of any person qualified to receive compensation pursuant to this chapter or who would have been qualified to receive compensation except for death occurring while serving in federal service as a member of the armed military or naval forces of the United States, there shall be paid to his widow, parent, child, next of kin or other person assuming responsibility or having the duty to provide for his burial, the sum of two hundred fifty dollars to aid in defraying funeral and other burial costs. Payment shall be made, after application therefor, in the same manner as is provided in this chapter for payment of compensation. The state treasurer shall promulgate such rules and regulations and provide such procedures as may be necessary to properly administer the provisions of this section.

Any payment under this section shall be deemed and construed to be a part of the term "compensation" as used in this chapter and shall be made from the war veterans' compensation [fund] account."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 8, following line 35, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of this 1976 amendatory act shall expire on June 30, 1979."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

On line 1 of the title after "taxation;" insert "amending section 43.84.090, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 50, Laws of 1969 and RCW 43.84.090; amending section 3, chapter 180, Laws of 1949 and RCW 73.32.040; amending section 4, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.040; amending section 6, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.060; amending section 11, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.100; amending section 12, chapter 154, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 73.34.110;"

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1502, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: “Will Senator Lewis yield? Senator Lewis, you and I worked very hard to get this timber tax legislation through. Now this vitally affects your county, Cowlitz County, Lewis County, Pacific County, Wahkiakum County. In your opinion and from authority, would you say that this will not affect the distribution of the timber tax funds to the counties?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "The answer is yes."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator Lewis, knowing the circumstances that the state of New York and more particularly the city; the state of Massachusetts, the state of Illinois, but the most vivid example we have is the state of New York where they were issuing bonds to pay the interest on the bonds that they had out. Finally, they could not sell the bonds to anybody.

"Would you say that, as Senator Mardesich has suggested, could happen? That we could be drawing checks on all of the funds that we have within the treasury? The people would cash those checks and consider them good warrants but then the day comes when we no longer — we borrowed from all of the funds that are available and we are paying interest but we don’t have the money to pay the interest much less pay back the principal. Of course you realize we are paying out a hundred and one million dollars a biennium in interest with the additional bonds that are being issued now. We just sold fifty seven million. We are going to have probably another sixty million that will be issued, so we are well over a billion.

"It looks like we are digging a deeper hole for ourselves, would you say, Senator Lewis?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Rasmussen, I don’t think there is any question about that. I have listened to you up in ways and means over the year talk about the need to spend more money for the aged, more money for the cities, to meet our responsibilities. There is no question that this legislature has spent money — has spent to the point where the cash flow balances are difficult to manage.

"I don’t think there is any correlation between this state and New York today, to answer your question number one. Number two, if I believed and had not been assured by the state treasurer that there was no chance of diverting the timber tax funds or the other funds from their legislative purpose, then I would not be supporting this. Number three, to answer your third question, I think that, yes, the answer is yes, that we must tighten our belts and stop the kind of frivolous spending that has happened in the past number of years. That is the reason we are in this position.

"But finally, I would like to accent and try as best I can to describe the situation. The dollars flowing into the treasury at the end of the year exceed the dollars that will be spent out of the treasury but the flow in does not always coincide or match on an exact date or even a week with the expenditures going out. From a technical standpoint, when that does not happen, it is in effect like using the credit of these funds but not actually using the dollars out of them. The state treasurer has said that if we do not pass this bill that the effect of getting in that position just for a week or two or a short period of time where those revenues and expenditures do not match, could result in the state having to go on warrants. I don’t think that that is a good thing to do. I also know that in the event that we don’t do this, with the state selling bonds frequently month after month, you know in the last bonds we just sold last week, we dropped about half a percent interest from what we sold bonds for in January. I believe that one of the reasons for that was the failure of this legislature to enact this bill.

"The net result of that could be, according to OPP and FM, at the end of this biennium a six million dollar increase in cost to you and to me and to the other citizens of the state. I don’t like to have to do this, and yes, I would like to join with you in the future to do a better job than all of us have done, but for this period of time, with the cut-off that is in the bill which will end it in 1979, I believe that this is the proper thing to do and I would hope that you would support it for those reasons."

Further debate ensued.
Senator Guess: "Would Senator Murray yield? Senator Murray, until you started talking, I thought I knew what we were talking about."

Senator Murray: "That is what I was afraid of."

Senator Guess: "There was a newspaper story on either yesterday or the day before that said that there are two periods in the year in which the treasury is very low. In February the treasurer got down to two and a half million dollars in the checking account. It took two and a half million, and this is on a three point two billion dollar budget, and I knocked the ciphers off of the amounts and it was apparent that it was very similar to the analogy of having a three hundred and twenty dollar amount to run your household on. You got down to within twenty-five cents in your checking account. But now, you say that this amount of money — the thirty million dollars that is going to be flowing through this account — is going to save you from going onto interest bearing warrants on particular days but the only two periods of the year of February and October, just before the money comes in. I would like to ask a practical question. Don't the forest fund taxes come in at the same time that the other taxes come in?"

Senator Murray: "I think the difference here really is in the day to day variations rather than the month to month variations. That is a different problem. This may or may not help that problem."

Senator Guess: "But you see, if all of the money is going to come in on between February fifteenth and April thirtieth, forest tax money as well as the property tax money, then why is it going to help this fund to have the thirty million dollars in it extra? It still doesn't seem to me that it is going to help the treasurer on that day to day cash balance or that low period of February and October. I really thought that this — the answer was until you started talking. Now I would like for somebody to prove to me that this is really of any value at all. I thought I understood it, but can you see where this amount of money is going to save that February and October period of low cash flow?"

Senator Murray: "It may not save a month to month, year to year variation. It is available on a day to day variation. That is where it would be helpful. A given day of the week, a given day of the month, having that extra money available is going to mean that they don't have to borrow money for those particular days."

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Guess, the answer lies in the fact that those funds are now drawn on for some time, and there are surpluses sitting there, but the payouts come on specific dates in the future out of the trust fund."

Senator Guess: "But, Senator Mardesich, you said a while ago that these funds are going to be credited to the local agencies and Senator Talley asked the very pointed question, are they going to be credited to the account of those counties."

Senator Mardesich: "But only paid out at a future date. That is what builds the float."

Senator Guess: "Are you going to hold the counties' money and operate on that?"

Senator Mardesich: "We do right now. We do right now, and that is what we are taking advantage of."

Senator Guess: "And we are not going to pay them anything for their money."

Senator Buffington: "Mr. President, will Senator Mardesich yield to a question, please? Would the passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1502 then just take care of the problem until Senate Bill No. 3268, which was passed by the House and Senate and signed by the Governor goes into effect in 1977 which changes the August tenth back to the July tenth collection? Wouldn't this bill really only have to — although it has an expiration date of 1979 — doesn't it really only have to cover us until Senate Bill No. 3268 goes into effect?"

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, would you ask her to repeat that question?"

No reply.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1502, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 26; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 7.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Donohue, Grant, Knoblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Wilson, Woody—15.

Absent or not voting: Senator Francis—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1502, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed House Bill No. 1502, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed House Bill No. 1624.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 26, 1976.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1624, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 20, 1976.

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1624, relating to appropriations, have had the same under consideration, and that the bill be amended as recommended by the Conference Committee.

Signed by: Senators Donohue, Newschwander and Odegaard; Representatives Bagnariol, Shinpoch and Polk.

MOTION

Senator Donohue moved the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 1624 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I am concerned about three or maybe four bond bills that have to go with this budget. Have they all passed both houses?"

Senator Donohue: "No, Senator, we just passed a bond bill relative to fisheries, House Bill No. 1447. We have a department of social and health services bond bill before us that will be necessary to pass in the next few minutes to pick up these things that I just mentioned; Rainier School, and so forth."

Senator Bailey: "Is that the only one left?"
Senator Donohue: "We do have one more that I am going to ask to bring down from ways and means in a few moments, Senator, relative to the Indian Culture Center."

Senator Bailey: "I am only concerned that the House may get the budget, pass the budget, and adopt the Sine Die resolution and go home without funding the bond program."

Senator Donohue: "I think, Senator, that the House is very interested in these bond bills and I am sure that we will be in contact with them."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, regarding the salary increases that are provided within the bill, the consultant presented three alternative methods of determining the salary rates for the non-surveyed state job classifications. Which method is reflected in this bill?"

Senator Donohue: "Those alternative methods are defined as indexing system one, two and three, and this bill reflects indexing system one, which is the system that ties non-surveyed jobs whenever possible directly to surveyed positions. The other two indexing systems make extensive use of averaging."

Senator Odegaard: "Senator Donohue, what percentage of the salary increase as indicated by the survey will be implemented by passage of this bill?"

Senator Donohue: "The appropriation contained in this bill will implement fifty percent of the indicated increase based on the survey of medium and large employers, and when the salary level and the fringe benefits of employers with less than fifty employees are included, the effect is to fund approximately two-thirds or sixty-six percent of the increase indicated by the survey."

Senator Odegaard: "Is it correct that no salary reduction has been assumed due to the partial implementation of the Survey?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Odegaard: "Senator Donohue, in section fifty-five which refers to a reduction in state expenditures, what is the intent of excluding higher education faculty?"

Senator Donohue: "Higher education faculty are on a contract basis and therefore it would be very difficult to reduce such personnel without adequate notice, therefore they were excluded from the possible reduction."

Senator Odegaard: "What does the reduction relate to as far as higher education goes?"

Senator Donohue: "The reduction in higher education is a dollar amount associated with a personnel reduction and does not include other operating expenses."

Senator Odegaard: "What then would be the total expenditure reduction which might be required from higher education?"

Senator Donohue: "Throughout the community college system and the four year institutions, Senator, the total reduction would be approximately one point six million dollars."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield to a question? In section twenty-six which deals with low assessed evaluation districts, equalization of them, subsection two says any school district which has been authorized — has authorized their levy, will roll it back. Is it possible under this subsection for districts which have not yet authorized their levies but which may yet have it, to lower their levies by that amount before they ask for it, or do they have to ask for the higher levy and then they have to roll it back?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, the language in there would indicate that they would have to roll back, and the reason for this, I think, is because the emphasis here of the last several weeks has indicated that there are many, many people who believe that property taxes are too high, and this would benefit those taxpayers by providing for that type of rollback."

Senator Gould: "One other question. If a levy fails twice, so they do not have a levy, would they then be eligible for this money?"
EIGHTY-FIRST DAY, MARCH 26, 1976

Senator Donohue: “They would be eligible for the money but they would not, of course, have to roll back.”

Senator Gould: “Thank you.”

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the Free Conference report on Engrossed House Bill No. 1624 was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1624, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 7.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. “Bob”), Mardesich, Murray, Newschwander, Pullen, Sellar—14.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

On this date I have approved ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3097, entitled:

"AN Act relating to state economic policy."

This bill directs state and local government agencies to give appropriate consideration to economic values in its decisions along with environmental, social, health and safety considerations.

I believe the concept of encouraging government agencies to consider the economic impact of their decisions is a good one. However, I do not believe the bill, as passed, either accomplishes as much as its proponents would desire or is as harmful as its detractors would fear. In fact, I am advised that the consideration of economic impact is already a part of the decision making process in a number of governmental agencies by virtue of guidelines established in rules and regulations.
My own concern, now that the Legislature has declared its concern over the economic impact of governmental decision-making, is that government agencies at both the state and local level implement this concept in such a manner as to minimize unnecessary paperwork and excessive administrative regulation. I would hope that procedures could be developed whereby both environmental and economic factors could be considered in the same impact statement in order to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort. I believe it would also be advisable for the Legislature to consider at its next session the need for more specific guidelines under the act and the designation of an agency to administer such guidelines.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

On March 18, 1976, I approved SENATE BILL NO. 3281, entitled: "AN Act relating to drug treatment programs."

This bill repeals a number of antiquated statutes which required the Department of Social and Health Services to provide drug treatment and quarantine programs for criminal offenders who are drug abusers, and makes the provision of such programs discretionary with the department.

I do not look on this bill as an abdication by the Legislature and state government of its responsibilities in the drug abuse area. It is generally conceded by those knowledgeable in the drug treatment field that the statutes repealed, originally enacted in 1959, were ineffectual both in concept and practice.

My concern, which I have already conveyed to the Department of Social and Health Services, is that the discretion now allowed by law be exercised at an early date to utilize available resources and address the problems of drug abuse by criminal offenders, particularly for those now incarcerated in our state penal institutions.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Walgren, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1976-282
By Senators Bailey and Matson:
BE IT RESOLVED, That all bills, joint or concurrent resolutions and memorials in the hands of the Secretary of the Senate, committees or committee clerks be indefinitely postponed.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
The President: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, the President wishes to thank each and every member of the Senate for their patience and forbearance during a very trying and arduous session. You have been very cooperative and I am very grateful to you.

"I should also like to thank the Secretary of the Senate, the Honorable Sid Snyder, and the members of his staff for the wonderful job they have done for each and every one of us. I would also like to compliment the committee chairmen on the outstanding job that they have turned in and, in general, I think that you have all done a grand job and we are proud of you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, we also enjoyed your services and wish you good luck in whatever office you may run for."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Thank you, Senator Rasmussen. The same to you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, my wish for good luck to both of you two candidates, also.

"Mr. President, I wanted to thank you very much for the fine cooperation that you have given to me, particularly your expert vote that one time when it was tied twenty-two to twenty-two."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Thank you, Senator Walgren. It should be noted too, that the members of the press have done a fine job. We appreciate the manner in which you have conducted yourselves, along with your colleagues here in the Senate Chamber. You have been cooperative to the 'nth' degree."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS (HARRY)

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, speaking for the Republican Caucus, I would just like to thank the majority for their courtesy during the session and remind them, Senator Walgren, that the rule change which was flagrantly thrown on the desk earlier in the session that was never used, never had to be used, we pointed that out, and you never passed it. I think that was a remarkable thing — that show of confidence between the two parties.

"I would also like to express to all of the staff, the minority staff, and the majority staff, our appreciation for the long hours that were put in, for the intelligent responses that were received by those of us who needed them very much. The kind of courtesy that I think we all received from the staff was particularly appreciated and I would just like to express that for all of us on this side.

"I see the old gray fox up in the balcony, and he and his staff, and Eleanor and Lyle, as well as the staff of all the committees, we really appreciate the courtesies extended and it enabled us to do a better job and I just would like to say thanks."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Senator Lewis, thank you particularly for those kind compliments and several others that you have made during this session.

"We, too, would like to thank the minority for their help on several occasions and of course, understand sometimes when that help wasn't forthcoming on some other occasions.

"That rule change that you convinced us not to pass, and I think perhaps appropriately so, might have been of a little help to you on at least one occasion, I guess, when we were trying to get a little extension. But, all in all, I think Senator Lewis, and the rest of the Republican side, we have certainly appreciated the assistance that you have given to us. I think it hasn't been so much your extending the courtesies to us as much as to the people of the state of Washington to bring this session to a successful conclusion, and I think it has been a successful session.

"I, too, of course, would like to thank particularly the staff of the Senate and those who have worked so long, hard and diligently trying to perfect the legislation that we eventually passed.

"I am looking forward to seeing you all over here in the Senate again except that those persons who have indicated that they are going to be retiring. I certainly hope that I am going to be in the position of saying the same thing later."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON SENATE BILLS VETOED AND PARTIALLY VETOED

1975-1976

FORTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2990 entitled:

"An Act relating to revenue and taxation."

This bill imposes a state tax on coin operated gambling devices in an amount equal to 80% of the federal excise tax on such devices set by section 4461 of the Internal Revenue Code. Proceeds of the tax would be paid into the state general fund. The tax had been requested by the State Gambling Commission to defray increasing administrative and enforcement costs resulting from increased legalized gambling activities. Licensees paying the tax would be entitled to take a credit in the amount of state taxes paid against their federal tax liability.

In June, 1975, I vetoed Substitute House Bill No. 29. One of the main reasons for the veto was the abolishing of the gambling revolving fund and the requirement that the Gambling Commission be subject to general fund appropriation for its budgetary needs. I stated then that the key to the development of a capable and expert enforcement mechanism is the Gambling Commission independent of the general fund appropriation process and empowered by law to set such fees as are necessary to fund all of its operational and enforcement costs. Diversion of the proceeds of taxes imposed by this bill into the general fund runs contrary to such a policy. Moreover, the bill would require the Gambling Commission to collect the tax, and I am advised the cost to the commission therefor is estimated to be in excess of $38,000 each year. The net result of all this would be to cut further into the effectiveness of a commission already short of funds to administer and enforce the law in the face of steadily increasing legalized gambling activities.

It has been brought to my attention that Substitute House Bill No. 90 provides for the same tax on coin operated gambling devices but places the proceeds thereof into the gambling revolving fund. That bill has passed the House and now rests in the Senate Rules Committee awaiting second reading. It would seem highly desirable at this time for Substitute House Bill No. 90 to be enacted into law so that this source of revenue for the Gambling Commission is not lost for the coming fiscal year.

For the foregoing reasons I have determined to veto Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2990.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
APPENDIX

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3127 entitled:

"An Act relating to education; providing for school district budgets."

This bill establishes new budget procedures for school districts to be used starting with the 1978 fiscal year budget to be developed in 1977.

Section 36 declares an emergency and provides for the bill to go into effect on March 1, 1976. I am advised by the Superintendent of Public Instruction that, inasmuch as the present school district budget act in RCW 28A.65 has been repealed in section 34 of the bill, there will be a period of time when school districts will have no specific guidelines to follow in developing their budgets. In removing the emergency clause, it is hoped that the Superintendent of Public Instruction will be able, during the 90 day period before the bill goes into effect, to develop the necessary rules and regulations to implement this new act. Accordingly, I have determined to veto section 36.

With the exception of section 36, which I have vetoed for the reasons stated, the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to several sections ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3172 entitled:

"An Act relating to energy."

This bill provides for the creation of a state energy office and energy advisory council, sets forth certain powers of the Governor that may be invoked under specified conditions during energy shortage emergencies, and reconstitutes the Thermal Power Plant Site Evaluation Council into the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council.

Section 8 creates the energy advisory council and specifies the membership of the council. Of the 11 members, six are to be appointed by the Legislature, with the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House each appointing three. Notwithstanding its name, there is no question but that the council is one charged with substantive powers going well beyond an advisory role. I believe the provision for legislative appointment of six members of the council is a serious breach of the doctrine of separation of powers, and places the legislative branch of government squarely in the realm of the executive. I fully realize that a veto of this section results in no council at all. But it is my intention, until such time as the Legislature can enact into law a new advisory council, to appoint a committee of persons with much the same expertise and experience as contemplated by the Legislature in this section to serve in an advisory capacity to the Governor and the state energy office and to fill thereby a void created by this veto. For these reasons, I have determined to veto section 8.

Section 9 delineates the powers and duties of the energy advisory council. Portions thereof provide for the council to oversee the work of the state energy office by a majority vote of its membership and likewise to oversee certain actions of the Governor with respect to the designation of state agencies to implement federal energy programs on the state level. I must object to these provisions for the same reasons as stated above for section 8. Advice and counsel are both necessary and proper. But to give the council a supervisory role in approving or disapproving the actions of the energy office and the Governor violates the fundamentals of good government. Accordingly, I have vetoed section 9.

Section 28 sets forth the powers of the Governor in the event of an energy emergency. An energy emergency is elsewhere defined to mean a condition involving "immediate and grave threat to life, health, property, or the public peace" resulting from the unavailability or disruption of energy supplies. A proviso in that section restricts the Governor to taking only such actions as have been developed by the advisory council. I believe it is unwise to limit a governor in this manner during a time of obvious catastrphic conditions, and I do not believe it possible for a council to foresee during times of normalcy the exigencies of such an energy emergency and thereby prescribe all necessary courses of action. Accordingly, I have vetoed section 28.

With the exception of sections 8, 9 and 28 which I have vetoed for the above stated reasons, I have approved the remainder of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3172. I wish to take this opportunity also to commend the Legislature for its development of this important legislation, and in particular, to express my appreciation to those members who toiled long and hard in directing the bill through the legislative process:

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3233 entitled:

"An Act relating to insurance or protection programs for university regents, employees, agents, and students, and their dependents."

This bill authorizes the University of Washington to arrange for a program of self insurance in the area of liability claims.

Section 4 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. I have on several occasions in past sessions vetoed emergency clauses from bills that did not measure up to the standard and urgency contained in Article II, section 1(b) of our Constitution. I am increasingly apprehensive that repeated use on unwarranted occasions will render emergency clauses wholly without meaning in the eyes of both the people and the courts.

I am advised that the University of Washington is hopeful that the bill will go into effect prior to July 1, 1976, so that a program of self-insurance can be prepared for the new fiscal year. I am reasonably confident that the Legislature will adjourn sine die sometime before April 1, so that the bill would go into effect by July 1, 1976 in any event.

With the exception of section 4 which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3233 is approved.

Respectfully submitted.
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.
