POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Benitz: "Senator Newhouse, is it your intent in section 4 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4566 that this section be interpreted that agricultural commodity commissions not be subject to paying for periodic audits conducted by the state auditor's office?"

Senator Newhouse: "It is the intent of this bill that agricultural commodity commissions not be treated any differently than other state departments operating from nonappropriated funds in regards to paying for periodic audits by the state auditor. Therefore, commodity commissions would pay the cost of periodic audits.

"The intent of the amendment in section 4 is to assure that commodity commissions will not be subject to the 'annual audits' requirement that appears in the existing language. What is envisioned is to conduct audits about once every three years with the flexibility to conduct more frequent audits if the reason exists or if requested by the commodity commission."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On motion of Senator Bluechel, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4569 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Bluechel, among the many things in this world that I don't know what is inside them, is this bill. And I see in the digest a statement that the commissioner is authorized to allow good will to be considered an asset. Now apparently the commissioner could not consider a look on good will as an asset previously. Obviously if he can now do that, an insurance company would require a lower level of other assets and more material assets in order to meet with the approval of the commissioner.

"And I wonder why this change is being made and if grievous injustices were being perpetuated under the previous procedure which did not recognize good will."

Senator Bluechel: "No, Senator Wilson, the issue of good will was the only contested issue in the presentation of the bill to the committee. And it was solved by the adoption of the amendment which this body just adopted.

"What it says is that 'Good will will not be considered except when the holding company is acquiring stock of a corporation that will become a subsidiary;' then good will can be taken into place. In practice, the testimony was that there were no that this was being allowed all the time and the insurance commissioner's office said 'We're doing it now, there is no reason to change the wording' and the insurance people said, 'Well, we think that, our lawyers say that you are not interpreting right' and between the two of them, they came up with this amendment. And both sides said 'That solves the problem, to do exactly what is being done at the present time.'

MOTION
On motion of Senator Ridder, Senator Rasmussen was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lysen, if we pass this bill and they can assess property for the street lights and the electric rates go up, and the people don't pay for their street lighting, they could lose their houses and their $20,000 mortgages and everything. It's a hell-and-high-water bond. Do you have any comments? This is in your area as well as Senator Talmadge's."

Senator Lysen: "Well, I am deeply amazed that you are concerned about this, Senator. This is a whole new orientation for you. I am really impressed about your concern. The attorney general may represent a class of individuals composed of veterans who may have been injured because of contact with Agent Orange or other chemical defoliants in a suit for release of information relating to exposure to such chemicals during military service and for release of individual medical records."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Metcalf: "I respectfully raise the question of scope and object on this. I think it is a very laudatory thing but I think it is another bill and I don't believe we should take it up here without taking a look at what may be involved. This gets the attorney general into this, makes a very complex bill out of what is now a very simple bill."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the amendment by Senator Talmadge together with the Point of Order raised by Senator Metcalf was ordered held for a Ruling by the President on February 17, 1982.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The motion by Senator Kiskaddon carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the following amendment by Senators Kiskaddon, Gaspard and Wilson was adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 18, strike everything through "districts." on line 30 and insert the following:

(1) Define the recommended student eligibility formula and identify the assumptions used in developing the recommendation;

(2) Compare the distribution of transportation operating funds to each local school district under the interim methodology approved for the 1982–83 school year and the methodology requiring use of eligible ridership established in section 3 of this amendatory act;

(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;

(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the "eligible student" definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students; and

(5) Describe the fiscal impact of the phase-in on school districts.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, line 33, before "NEW SECTIONS." insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Article IX, Sect. 1 of the Washington State constitution prohibits discrimination between students on the basis of race. No part of any state appropriation may be expended on any program in which racial discrimination is a factor in student transportation."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I appreciate Senator Metcalf keeps bringing this out in the open; I would hate to be hiding behind some other issue.

"The question is, Mr. President, I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. I think the bill that is before us now is merely a bill dealing with the technical changes in the school district transportation allocation formula, and the amendment by Senator Metcalf, goes far beyond the scope of this bill by dealing with busing that would be affected, that would have something to do with racial discrimination as a factor in student transportation. So I raise the question of scope and object."
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1982

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the amendment by Senator Metcalf together with the Point of Order raised by Senator Fleming was ordered held for a Ruling by the President during the evening session today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4522, by Senators Gallaghan, Conner and Fuller:
Modifying provisions relating to salmon fishing.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4522 and an amendment by Senator Rasmussen. On February 15, 1982, Senator Gallaghan had raised a Point of Order on that amendment.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Gallaghan, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4522 is a measure which restricts some current practices of non-Indian fishermen and further clarifies the meaning of the words "Treaty Indian Fisherman" and the fishing rights to which they are entitled.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen deals with the totally distinct subject of wholesale fish dealer's licenses.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Rasmussen was ruled out of order.
Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 4, strike the balance of the bill and insert:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature declares that it is a fundamental duty of the state to protect and conserve the salmon resources of the state. It is a major objective of the state to manage and conserve the state's salmon resources in the best interest of the citizens of the state. The legislature finds that the effect of recent court decisions has been to substantially thwart the state's efforts to achieve this objective, leaving the state's salmon management program in chaos and placing our salmon resources in jeopardy.

"Notwithstanding any judicial decision or injunctive orders, outside tribal Indian reservation lands, the department of fisheries is directed to manage and conserve the state's salmon resources and enforce the laws of the state in the best interest of all citizens of the state of Washington."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Metcalf, would you mind an amendment, that if the court finds us in contempt, that you will volunteer to be the one that goes to jail on behalf of all of us?"

Senator Metcalf: "Absolutely, I cannot think of a better political gimmick, I mean you . . . ."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gallaghan: "I believe that here is another case that totally expands, I reluctantly say so, but it expands the scope an object of this particular bill, and I believe that we ought to drop that matter and get on with the business of the bill at hand."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Gallaghan, the President finds that Senate Bill 4522 is a measure which restricts some current practices of non-Indian fishermen and further clarifies the meaning of the words 'treaty Indian fishermen' and the fishing rights to which they are entitled."

"The amendment proposed by Senator Metcalf deals with the much broader subject of the management and conservation of the state's salmon resources and directs that the state not be limited in its options by court decisions."

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled out of order.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator von Reichbauer, you use a term here in the digest that says 'The OFM arbitrarily reduced the department of transportation's budget request.'

"Well, didn't we know about this when we passed the budget before? Wasn't this an issue before?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator, I don't know your question; will you repeat your question, please?"

Senator Lysen: "My point is, I guess, is that this 'arbitrarily reduction' in their budget when it came through the legislature, I assume. Weren't we aware of this at the time?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "No, we were not."

Senator Lysen: "... department aware of it?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "The OFM did it, it has an obligation to make adjustments when they feel the funds are not there and they made the adjustments, any adjustments, when we were out of session."

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the department rejecting, conditionally approving, or approving proposed adjustments to a local government master program may seek review by the shorelines hearings board of such decision by filing a request for the same with the board within thirty days of the date of the decision by the department: PROVIDED, That any such decision of the department made within one year prior to the effective date of this act may be reviewed by the shorelines hearings board if a request for review is filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act. The review by the shorelines hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW.

All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Williams failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Lysen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 28, after "water" and before "." insert "and Department shall estimate the costs of mitigating any such damage and shall require appropriate surety from any person granted a permit that would do damage to the ecology and environment of the shoreline area"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Lysen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Lysen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 32, following "for" strike all material through "commercial" and insert "development which is reasonably compatible with shore-dependent industrial"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Lysen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Lysen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 33, following "activities" insert ": PROVIDED, That the legislature finds that such activities do not include a terminus for petroleum products pipelines or coal slurry pipelines"

On page 3, line 35, after "considerations" insert ", including consideration of the economic loss to the state due to damage to environment, fisheries, and related interests and proper assurance of mitigation approved by the department."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Quigg, I am really reassured by your comment, and could you make reference to the particular language that might be equivalent in effect in terms of this amendment? If I am mistaken on this, I will withdraw the amendment. If your assurances are, you know, are valid and I assume they are ......."

Senator Quigg: "Senator Lysen, I refer you to the committee amendment, it is really, it is the last committee amendment we adopted, I believe; it is at the top of page 34, line 8, after page 36, line 35, it is the one that puts the attorney general, 'on behalf of the citizens of the state shall have . . . to bring a civil action to enforce,' implementation of any mitigation measures required.

"You see we have the attorney general doing just exactly what we are concerned about here, and I think that the fact we have one of the statewide elected official whose jobs it is to see to it the laws of the state are carried out, as the person on point indicates and I think rightfully so, Senator Goltz' concern that what is being promised in terms of mitigation in fact be delivered.

"And for that reason I think that, well I support, as I said, the concern that you are expressing in your amendment, I think that the amendment, Senator Goltz' committee amendment, is sufficient to cover those concerns."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Goltz, maybe could bring me up to speed on what these local, your local government has done. I used to have a lot of faith in local government, too, until the pension system came to my attention, that we have had some cases where local government has not been responsible. So I do not think this is an automatic cure—all — I wish it were."
Senator Goltz: "I somehow thought that was an exclamation mark rather than a question mark; but I am somewhat concerned that the local government, very concerned that local government must take into account the potential loss of economic activity associated with the permit that would be granted. It does seem to me that the present language and the permit process does require them to evaluate what it is that the permit will possibly damage in the way of another resource. And if those resources are identified and if the potential loss is identified, you have to have that before you can mitigate. In other words, if there is going to be a mitigation there has to be a potential loss and it is the explanation of the potential loss that would lead to the mitigation and therefore you will have it in the record.

"So local government will have to take into account whether or not the fishing industry, in their judgment, will be adversely affected by the granting of such a permit.

"I hope that answers the question; I think your amendment isn't all that bad as a matter of fact, to make it clear that they have to take that into account but I think that is already a part of the process."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Lysen, I could support this amendment if you could agree to accept an oral amendment to remove the last four words in your proposed amendment. In other words, the process of not, at this time, involving the department in giving approval to the mitigation process and if you would be willing to accept an oral amendment to remove 'approved by the department', I would be glad to support the rest of that amendment."

Senator Lysen: "What would be the effect then? Who would have to approve it then?"

Senator Goltz: "The mitigation steps are already outlined in the bill as being the responsibility of the local government and I think it better to place all the responsibility right there to be sure that they take into account all those steps. We have already rejected an amendment which would involve the department and this would be sneaking in the back door twice."

Senator Lysen: "I would accept that."

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Lysen was adopted:

In the amendment by Senator Lysen to page 3, line 35, after "mitigation" and before the comma, strike "approved by the department"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the amendment by Senator Lysen, as amended by Senator Goltz, was ordered held temporarily.

Senator Talmadge moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 8, line 18, strike entire new subsection (f) and insert:

"(f) "Shorelines of state-wide economic significance" means those shorelines so designated by the shorelines hearings board."

On page 13, following line 33 insert:

"(f) Shorelines of state-wide economic significance shall be designated by the shorelines hearings board upon their finding that:

(i) Local government has requested the designation after public hearings;

(ii) That the purpose for which the designation is sought will provide long term economic advantage to the state;

(iii) That shorelines proposed to be designated have unique characteristics vitally necessary to the proposed economic use; and

(iv) That appropriate mitigation for environmental or resource loss is adequate to protect statewide needs."
Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively and correct internal cross references.
Page 37, beginning on line 1, strike all of sections 11 and 12 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal cross-references.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Quigg, the concern I had is that what we seem to be saying in this thing, is that the shorelines of statewide economic significance means only one single point in the state in this bill, and that is the Cherry Point area, the area bounded by Powder Plant Road on the north and the Intalco pier on the south, extending from the line 200' above the ordinary high-water mark to a line 2000' seaward of the line of extreme low tide.
"Is any other location in the state meant to be impacted by this particular bill?"

Senator Quigg: "Well, I imagine any place where unemployed workers gather to fish, Senator, or do anything else along the beach, around a shoreline of statewide significance, the impact of the job that this kind of legislation would allow to go to work up in that area will impact, I imagine, unemployed folks all around, not only Whatcom county, but western Washington and some of the eastern side of the state as well."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, if I might, what you are saying then, is that the bill is intended to deal with other areas in the state besides shorelines in Whatcom county? Or just that one single spot in Whatcom county?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator, this bill relates to shorelines of economic significance, not a single shoreline."

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendments were not adopted.
The Senate resumed consideration of the following amendment by Senator Lysen as amended by Senator Goltz:
On page 3, line 35, after "consideration" insert ", including consideration of the economic loss to the state due to damage to environment fisheries, and related interests and proper assurance of mitigation."
The motion by Senator Lysen carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.
Senator Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 8, line 19, after "following" strike "shorelines" and insert "shoreline"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Goltz, again, to clarify the intent, is it intended by you as one of the proponents of this legislation, to affect any location in the state of Washington, any other shoreline, than the one that is designated in the bill at Cherry Point?"

Senator Goltz: "Not any others than the ones that are identified at Cherry Point. In other words, from the northern part of that definition to the southern part of that definition, the shorelines within that are included in the bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Jones, why is the shorelines of the statewide economic significance designation restricted to the real estate described in the act?"

Senator Jones: "Senator Bottiger, the real estate referenced in the act has been studied more than almost any land in the state. The other land in the area has some unstable bluffs whereas this land is stable; it contains some low bank area which differs from the other low bank area to the north; and it contains some salt marshland.

"This land area also differs from adjacent areas in that its configuration produces less wave energy and consequently less lateral drift."

The motion by Senator Charnley failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 8, line 22, strike "two thousand" and insert "seven hundred fifty"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Goltz, I am uncertain as to what you mean in terms of the mitigating effects being proposed in that additional 2000' out; in other words, my understanding would be that they would disturb as little as possible, and in their fill, only fill out this 550'.

"Now from there on out, as I understand it, it is a natural herring-spawning ground. I am uncertain as to what you mean by 'mitigating' work in that area."

Senator Goltz: "Well, Senator Williams, I am not sure of the technical aspects of this, either, but I am telling you that if the rigs that are put out from that graving yard are located in front of that graving yard within a zone beyond the distance that you have described, and there is no mitigating effort which would require them to keep them out of there during certain times of the year, and so forth, I think it is important that we include as large a size as we can for mitigation, rather than to restrict it too much.

"I think, if you look at the plan that CBI has, it is obvious that you are correct, that they cannot build out where the yellow coloring is extended on this map, which is described in the bill.

"But I think the county has an obligation to, as it were, put a zone of control around this project so that they can actually lessen the impact of the project by having some right to exercise mitigating efforts within that zone."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "I would like to speak to that a little as well.

"It is my understanding that there will be provided there an underwater laboratory which will study mitigation effects for future consideration in any construction that affects any kind of shorelines, and it is necessary they have this and that additional land speaks to an enhancement of this herring spawn. I am not a technician nor can I describe this, but in the mitigation plan, it was definitely required that they have that additional space in order, and in effect, it is a belief, and there were three experts, that they could, in time, actually enhance and increase the herring-spawn area."

The motion by Senator Williams failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 18, line 17, beginning with "Amendments" strike all material through "board" and insert "Any adjustment, amendment and/or segment of the master plan relating to shorelines of state-wide economic significance shall only become effective if approved by a majority of the voters of a county or counties in which such amendment, adjustment and/or segment is proposed"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Goltz, in your home rule charters, do the people also have the right to petition for a referendum?"
Senator Goltz: "Yes, they do."

Senator Charnley: "So that putting this language in then, would not change that in any way, would simply make clear they could do that?"

Senator Goltz: "No, I think that language would require a referendum."

Senator Charnley: "That is very true; thank you."

Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Charnley.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 9; nays, 39; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Clarke—1.

On motion of Senator Williams, there being no objection, the amendments to pages 18 and 25, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, were withdrawn.

Senator Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 18, line 19, after "board" insert ": PROVIDED, That local government amendment, adjustments, and/or segments of their master plan which have the effect of creating, allowing, or facilitating a shoreline of state-wide economic significance and which were adopted prior to the effective date of this 1982 amendatory act do not qualify for approval under this section"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Williams, I am not exactly sure, Senator Williams, what all is included in the matters which would not be considered as effective prior to the date that we have here. But would the environmental impact statement that was presented by the Chicago Bridge and Iron Company in support of their permit application have to be redone?"

Senator Williams: "I would not think that those would have to be redone. I am talking strictly about the decision on the part of the council itself, in other words it could adopt the present EIS or other work that has already been done. But it would require that they take new action in relation to those documents."

Senator Goltz: "Then, secondly, if the county council were to reconsider and repass the same kinds of action that they did when they submitted them to the department of ecology, would those new actions have the effect of being effective, or would they be considered here to be not qualifying because they are the same actions they took before?"

Senator Williams: "I would think that they would be considered qualifying actions because they were actions taken place after the adoption of the law."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Williams, would it require, in your judgment, that the applicant would have to prepare a new application and a new environmental impact statement? Or are we referring only to the actions of the county council?"
Senator Williams: "It is my understanding we are only dealing with the actions of the county council."
President Pro Tempore Guess assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Jones, in relation to this amendment, just to clarify, for my purposes then, if this amendment did not pass, would it be your understanding then that the actions of the council already having taken place, would then constitute the kind of council action that would implement this legislation?"
Senator Jones: "I am hard-pressed to answer that question. I know that it is my feeling that the passage of this would throw an existing applicant back two or three years and probably stop the project; and that is my concern. And it is a very valid concern. So that is the only answer I can give, but it is a definite roadblock and I think it is a delaying action and not being an attorney, nor are you, I don't believe this thing has been written to smooth the course in any way."
Further debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Williams failed and the amendment was not adopted.
Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 18, line 21, after "within" strike "ten" and insert "thirty"
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.
Senator Talmadge moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:
On page 18, line 25, beginning with "The" strike all the material through "capricious." on line 31 and on page 25, line 33, beginning with "Judicial" strike all the material through "capricious." on page 26, line 8
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendments were not adopted.
Senator Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 25, line 26, beginning with "Applications" strike all of the material through "programs" and insert "No application for a permit issued pursuant to this subsection may be heard by a local government which has amended or adjusted its master program for purposes of this 1982 amendatory act until at least thirty days subsequent to the effective date of the amendment or adjustment to the master plan or the effective date of this 1982 amendatory act, whichever is later"
Debate ensued.
Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Williams.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 35; excused, 1.
Excused: Senator Clarke—1.
Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 25, line 26, after "significance." insert "Permits for developments within shorelines of statewide significance shall contain requirements that successful applicants must hire 90% or more of its employees from the state of Washington."

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted.
Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 25, line 28, following "programs" insert "Nothing in this 1982 act shall be construed as allowing local governments to grant substantial development or conditional use permits for the development of a major energy project within shorelines of state-wide economic significance. For purposes of this act, major energy project means a plant or installation capable, or intended to be capable, of generating electricity in an amount greater than two hundred fifty megawatts."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Quigg, the question is this: is the process set in motion by this act intended in any way to supersede the actions of any other state agencies, for instance, EFSEC, or any one of a series of other agencies that might have ability to set policy. It clearly overrides shorelines hearings board and the department of ecology.

"Now is it intended to override any other departments of state government?"
Senator Quigg: "Could you give me some examples, Senator McDermott?"
Senator McDermott: "Well, I gave you EFSEC."
Senator Quigg: "The EFSEC siting requirements would still apply to the siting of a nuclear power station, or a power plant over 250 megawatts, or a pipeline or those kinds of projects."

Senator McDermott: "So it's your testimony, your statement then that even if, let's say some county to the south were to decide they wanted to put a power plant on the shore and use the provision of this bill to obviate the shorelines management act, they would still have to go through EFSEC?"
Senator Quigg: "That is my understanding, Senator.

"Further, if the heat from the welding on the construction of an offshore drilling platform could somehow be the excess heat corralled together and headed off in the direction of Bellingham to warm the houses of the folks in that municipal heating district, I imagine that could be done from this site. I don't know if we would ever get over 250 megawatts or not, I would hate to have that precluded but I imagine local government that has to get up over 250 megawatts EFSEC would get into a project of that magnitude should it come along.

"This is strictly for shorelines of statewide economic significance, has simply to do with the kinds of projects that are applied to for local government for the purposes of developing shorelines of, of dedicating or setting out, shorelines of statewide economic significance within the period of the act which is limited in the law. So we've only got a very short amount of time that we are dealing with right here anyway.

"And so while we can generate all sorts of 'what-ifs' and 'maybes' about great projects of all kinds being developed on these sites around the state, the fact is the time allowed here is very narrow."

Further debate ensued.
The motion by Senator McDermott failed and the amendment was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Talmadge, there being no objection, an amendment to page 25, line 29, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate was withdrawn.
Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 25, line 30, following "effective" strike "upon adoption and approval" and insert "not less than ninety days subsequent to the issuance of such permits"
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Goltz, I read portions of the letter that was placed on our desk, dated February 8, from Mr. William Roehl, Whatcom county council chairman as to the problems they have had with attempting to negotiate with Chicago Bridge and Iron and of the fact that no one had contacted the elected officials of Whatcom county as to their concerns. And he makes it quite clear, if you have a copy of the letter, I would ask what has transpired when the discussion on the floor here has been that the local elected officials, or the local people, have strongly desired the bill and yet you have, by this letter, what I would have to consider direct contradiction to some of the testimony on the floor."

Senator Goltz: "Well, first of all, Senator Bluechel, I suppose it could be somewhat of an indictment against the people who run the legislature to ask a question and try to answer it as to who is responsible for not inviting the county council and the county executive to appear in Olympia at some of our hearings."

"But I am not going to suggest that because I am not sure what happened."

"I do know that the county officials were not consulted in the preparation of this bill. I know that. Neither were the legislators from Whatcom county consulted, nor did they participate in the drafting of this bill."

"There is another bill in the House which the Whatcom county delegation, with the exception of Senator Peterson, have been involved in, and that is on the second reading calendar, and I hope that that bill comes over here and we can address that bill, too. But those two bills are mutually exclusive."

"I think Will Roehl's letter is an indication that even in Whatcom county the issue is not clear as to how this will eventually be resolved. It is not the testimony of all of the members of the county council that this kind of legislation is good. Some of them would like to see the whole issue go away."

"And I don't know whether I have answered your question but I think, I have a great deal of respect for Will Roehl, the council chairman, and I suspect that what he is expressing here is the same frustration many of us feel from time to time on an issue like this."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "A point of order was raised by Senator Metcalf that the amendment was beyond the scope and object of the bill.
"In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf the President finds that Senate Bill 4619 is a measure which directs the department of veterans affairs to make available information on the delayed stress syndrome and the effects of agent orange to physicians and mental health centers.
"The amendment proposed by Senator Talmadge goes beyond the original limited purpose of the bill by authorizing the attorney general to represent veterans in lawsuits seeking release of information on the effects of agent orange.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4647, by Senator Lee:
Enlarging scope of losses covered by permanent insurance fund of first class school district.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4647 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Lee, once money is put into that permanent insurance fund, can they take it out for other than insurance purposes?"

Senator Lee: "No, this particular fund is set aside specifically for that; it can be used to pay for losses or it can be used to increase the amount of deductible, or actually buy additional insurance. But it has to go for insurance purposes."

Senator McDermott: "So there is no way that the school districts could put their cash reserve in the insurance fund to avoid having it taken by the legislature?"
Senator Lee: "The school district can take cash reserves and they can put them into any sort of fund that they see fit to do so. There are a number of reserve funds in the school district. This is one of them. An unrestricted cash balance, which is one of the things you may be referring to and part has been of the subject of debate as to one of the means for some of the richer school districts to help out some of the poorer school districts, does not fit in this particular category. If they had a huge cash balance and put it all in that insurance fund, it could only be used for insurance; they couldn't later take it out and use it to increase an administrator's salary, for example."

Senator McDermott: "What is it that prevents them from taking it out of the insurance fund? They put it in by vote of the board, why couldn't they vote it out by vote of the board?"

Senator Lee: "Because it says 'to be used to meet losses,' that's on line 11."

Senator McDermott: "So you are absolutely certain they could not get the money out?"

Senator Lee: "Not without a change in state law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Lee, I haven't read the bill, but could you tell me, what happens when there are a sufficient number of losses which exhausts the fund which would render a school unable to rebuild; where would they go for the money? Could they come back to the legislature for appropriation request?"

Senator Lee: "I presume that your question covers the fact that if the amount of the permanent school fund did not cover the total amount of their deductibles as far as their insurance was concerned, where would they find the additional funds? They would have to take it out of other resources which is what they do now.

"The reason for setting up the insurance fund was so that they could put mon­eys in it over a period of time so that they would have a reserve to take care of their deductible expenses."

All of the county roads in each of the several counties shall be established, laid out, constructed, altered, repaired, improved, and maintained by the [[board of county commissioners]] legislative authority of the respective counties as agents of the state, or by private individuals or corporations who are allowed to perform such work under an agreement with the county legislative authority. Such work shall be done in accordance with adopted county standards under the supervision and direction of the county engineer.

Sec. 7. Section 36.82.110, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.82.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Such work shall be done in accordance with adopted county standards under the supervision of and direction of the county engineer.

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.
On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Wojahn to the title was adopted:

On page 1 of the printed bill, in line 11 strike "and" and in line 13 of the title, after "47.48.020" insert "; amending section 36.75.020, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.75.020; and amending sections 36.80.110, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.80.110"

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4690 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4690 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 6; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Lysen—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4690, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 9:02 p.m., Senator Vognild moved the Senate adjourn until 9:30 a.m., February 17, 1982.

The motion by Senator Vognild failed.

SECOND READING

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4691 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Talmadge, based upon your explanation of Senate bill 4691 am I correct in my understanding of it that the purpose of these technical corrections is to expressly conform the statute to that which was intended at the time of the original enacting enactment during the 1981 legislative session?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, Senator Hemstad, your understanding is exactly correct."
MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Bill No. 4691 be held on third reading for further consideration on February 17, 1982.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY,

Senator Wilson: "Senator Talmadge, I am sure that you can appreciate when we see a bill sponsored by Senators Talmadge, Bottiger and Hemstad, the rest of us become quite suspicious. During the consideration of the products liability bill which went on for a long while, the laymen among this group, including myself, were in frequent contact with lawyers back home whose opinions we respected of which there are not too many, but there are some. And as a result of the evolution of the bill and the good work that you did, and their comments, most of us I believe, were able to support that bill.

"Now this is amending what we understood to be a very delicately balanced bill that did attract, as far as I know, almost the universal support of attorneys.

"And I guess I would like to know a little more about why this is necessary and what we are doing to it and receive just a little more assurance that we are not unbalancing the situation in any noticeable respect."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Wilson, in response to your question, no one testified against the bill in the judiciary committee, to my recollection. The issues that were raised in the bill are very technical in nature. There are very small interpretive items not relating to the substance of the act that we passed last April. In specific, we left out a section, for example, that should have been in the 1981 act or just a reference to a section, we put that reference back in. There is another question about the fit between the concept of 'comparative negligence' and concept of 'comparative fault;' the fit between the concept of 'indemnity between joint tort-feasors' and 'contribution among joint tort-feasors.'

"None of the organizations that were at issue in this controversy have indicated any opposition to the bill, and that includes the trial bar, the defense bar, industry or anyone else. And I don't know that it will upset the balance that we achieved in April. No one indicated any substantial opposition to the bill."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried. Senate Bill No. 4691 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for February 17, 1982.

MOTION

Senator Clarke moved that the Senate now consider all Gubernatorial Appointments on the calendar with the exceptions of 424, 464, 486, 487, 521 and 522 and that the appointments be confirmed by a single roll call vote and each member recorded as if voting on each appointment separately.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, under what rule is this an acceptable motion?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Gubernatorial appointments have been confirmed in the past en masse by a single motion such as made by Senator Clarke."
REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, with the consent of each individual member this has been done on several occasions. I might point out that if you will look at the number there and the length of time that it takes to call the roll, the whole purpose is to enable each Senator to, in effect, make up his mind as to whether he would vote for the confirmation, and that is the reason that the motion was made with the exceptions stated, because we were informed that at least one senator would wish to vote 'no' on each of those which are exceptions.

"So what is occurring is that, with the consent of each senator, his vote is being recorded on a single vote as if it were separately cast on a separate roll call for each of those embodied in the motion."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. We have one member absent tonight, he was advised that this was coming up, but I would, for his protection, like to have inserted in the journal the fact that we did it all in a single vote. I don't know if I need to amend your motion or I can just insert a statement in the journal that it was adopted."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Senator Lysen was excused on February 16, 1982 during the roll calls on gubernatorial appointments. Although only one roll was taken for the confirmation on the appointments, Senator Lysen will be shown as excused on each of them. The Senator was aware that the confirmations would be considered during the evening session but was unable to be present. This is by way of an explanation for his not voting on those confirmations.

Signed: SENATOR R. TED BOTTIGER

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I would like to question the scope and object of this amendment. The bill is a conformity bill for the department of employment security. The amendment is structured so that it goes into a definition section where it doesn't fit."

Debate ensued.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Senate Bill No. 4661, together with the pending amendment by Senator McDermott and the Point of Order raised by Senator Newhouse, will be held for a Ruling by the President on February 17, 1982.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Senator Kiskaddon):

School district transportation apportionment.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4675 from earlier today. At that time, the bill had been amended and an amendment by Senator Metcalf had been moved for adoption. A Point of Order had been raised by Senator Fleming on the amendment by Senator Metcalf.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Fleming, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 4675 is a measure which has as its sole purpose the perfecting of the law relating to public school's transportation allocation system.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Metcalf goes beyond the limited purpose of the bill by restricting when state funds can be used for school transportation.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4675 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Thank you, Senator Pullen."

Senator Pullen: "Well, I was wondering if the President would uphold my point of order or not?"

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Senator Pullen, Senator McDermott sat down."

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, what rule is Senator Pullen violating by not being by his desk when he is speaking, addressing the body?"

President Pro Tempore Guess: "He was recognized by the chair, Senator."

Senator Pullen: "I object to the words that it is 'a nothing bill' and I would ask for assurance that item number 2 of rule 7, that those words be taken down at the secretary's desk. Item 2 of rule 7."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Pullen may be able to get away with that but I am sure glad I didn't say that."

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, in defense of this, that is what Senator Newhouse said about the bill, it doesn't do anything. It has been worked so much that there is nothing to the bill. I was merely quoting him when I said it was a 'nothing' bill."

President Pro Tempore Guess: "So noted in the journal."

Senator Talley: "If Senator Newhouse didn't talk so much we might get more bills passed; or McDermott, excuse me."

President Pro Tempore Guess: "The Senate will be in order and proceed with the orders of the day."

Senator Pullen: "I would move that pursuant to item number 2 of rule 7, that the punishment would be delayed until the next working day. If the President would so note, item number 2 of rule 7 specifies that in the event of a breach of decorum of the rules of the Senate, that the Senate may impose whatever punishment it desires and I would move that we decide on the punishment tomorrow."

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I don't recall you ruling that Senator McDermott was out of order or the breach of decorum had been made. You have not made that ruling. So if you have not made that ruling, I don't see how we can delay any punishment."

President Pro Tempore Guess: "The Secretary will call the roll on the final passage of 4718."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 385.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 385, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development and Representatives Sanders, Patrick, Eberle, Flanagan, Barrett, Hankins, Clayton, King (J.), Monohon, Smith, Ellis, Vander Stoep, Isaacson, Addison and McGinnis:

Enacting the regulatory fairness act.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 385 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Quigg, I do not see a fiscal note on this bill. Is there one drawn?"

Senator Quigg: "There is one drawn, Senator McDermott. I could get that note for you if you would like."

Senator McDermott: "Would you be well to hold the bill down so we can have a look at it? At this point, it says in here, 'none available,' and I am not sure, it says 'available,' but where is it? Give me the figures off it. What you are doing here is creating a whole new agency of government to make up fiscal notes for rules and regs. And I want to know what it is going to cost because nothing is for free; there is no free lunch. This bill is not a free lunch; and I would like to know what the cost is."

Senator Quigg: "Senator McDermott, I can have that fiscal note for you here this morning but once again I think the question of the cost of those burdensome regulations that have been growing at an increasing rate over the last few years is one that is becoming apparent in the unemployment statistics we see here in our state; and I don't really think that whatever we can do to slow down that tide and eventually reverse it, should be something we would be knitpicking on."

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that House Bill No. 385 be held for further consideration following the next two measures on the calendar today.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Quigg, the Digest reads 'Each agency, within one year after the effective date of the act, is to provide the office of financial management with a plan for review of all its rules having an economic impact on small businesses to determine whether any changes are to be made.' My question is and probably Senator Lee would be interested in this, at the same time that they file with OFM, why should they not file with the rules review committee?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator, this is to be, as I understand it, the setting out of a plan to amend these rules over the next ten years and I suppose they could file them with the rules review committee, but OFM as being the executive financial and efficiency management unit, would be probably the most logical one which is really what this is aimed at, for the executive branch to review these plans and see to it that the economic regulations can be minimized and consolidated.

"So they could . . . ."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I have no objection to that, filing with OFM. But I think, in addition, they should file with the rules review committee so that that committee could have the opportunity to review at the same time, and it may need a little amendment if you are going to hold the bill down."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, I am concerned about what I call 'expectation levels.' We pass a bill and everybody thinks it is going to do something and they create a great, big expectation and then it doesn't do what they expected, and all of a sudden government is 'ineffective' and 'laborious' and 'burdensome,' and things of this nature.

"And I would like to take you through a scenario. There is a regulation that requires a handrail when you go down a set of stairs in a commercial building. Senator McDermott, it applies to him and his office; it applies to me, I am sure it applies to you in your office. Now that is a regulation required by a state agency. How would you draw a fiscal note as that applies to the economic effect of small business? Just tell me how you would do it."

Senator Quigg: "Senator Bottiger, that is a very miniscule kind of a regulation. We are talking about regulations here that have an impact of between ten and twenty percent on a business or industry, and particularly a small business.

"But I think that the question that is even being reviewed at all, is one that we are really dealing with here. Right now it is not being reviewed. It is not being reviewed and looked at from the standpoint of the folks that are going to have to decide whether or not the kickrail on that handrail has to be a 2 x 4 or a 2 x 6, and that it has to be standard and better or shop grade, and all the rest of that. I think the question when the rules writers get involved in design rather than performance, and that is one thing that is addressed in this bill, when they get involved in design, we can actually get in situations as we have had with WICHE where we are getting into the wooden toilet seat regulation. The question is 'slivers,' you know, I think and certainly not the design of the mechanical instruments or safety protection if it were a handrail."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, you miss my point. I am after 'expectation.' You got these small businessmen that candidly think this is apple pie and our gift to them, and all of sudden things are going to be better. But on my little handrail example, I would like you to look at page 3. This fiscal note is going to analyze the '(1) Cost per employee; (2) Cost per hour of labor; (3) Cost per $100 of sales;' and '(4) Any combinations of (1), (2), or (3).' Now are you going to go to Senator McDermott's office and find out how many employees he has, you are going to come to my office and find out how many employees I have, figure out the cost of the handrails, divide it by the cost per employee, that is what the bill says you are supposed to do.

"Now I think you are pulling a fraud here on some people on passing this bill and claiming it is God's gift to everybody, because the volume of record and reporting that I would have to do to cooperate with this rule and regulation is burdensome on me. It is another form I am going to have to fill out to send in to some department so they can analyze all the costs of all the rules and regulations. I think you are just misleading people."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEE

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, I would like to answer some of the questions that have been raised regarding this bill and the process of the rulemaking.

"First of all, the question was asked by Senator Rasmussen whether or not the joint administrative regulatory rules committee that I chair would be involved in this particular process without an amendment. The answer to that question is 'Yes.' First of all the bill deals with two different parts of the rulemaking process. It adopts, first of all, with the rules that are not yet adopted, those that are promulgated. State law already requires that any new rule, whatever the spot, will be filed with the joint administrative rules review committee. So that will be taken care of automatically under existing law and does not require any amendment to this act.

"And it is always those new rules, by the way, to answer a couple of the other questions, that, at the present time, would require some additional work on the part of the agency that is promulgating that rule. It is saying that they must, in promulgating that rule, make some analysis of it.

"As far as reporting requirements, if there should be different compliance standards for small businesses to have performance rather than design standards, for that is an appropriate thing to do and also give them the option which many agencies feel they do not now have. . . . very important to exempt small businesses from certain rules and regulations. I think that is a very important thing that we are granting to agencies and that in itself does not create any additional financial impact: they all have people who write those rules who are in this business doing that all the time.

"The second part of the act which deals with existing rules is where they are asked, to within one year, analyze those existing rules and make a report to the office of financial management. Now that needs to be done because that is where a future financial impact indeed may come about, and that cannot be determined until that kind of review is made. When that is done, then the legislature will have the opportunity to see whether or not, indeed, additional funds need to be appropriated to agencies in order to have those rules changed to conform with the kinds of standards that will now be in place for new rules."
"I would suggest that every agency which has rulemaking authority already has the personnel and ability to carry out the portion of the act that needs to be carried out in this first year. Now they never admit that but I would suggest that that is the case."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President. I was wondering if Senator Quigg or Senator Lee would respond to a question. I tend to be favorable to the concept of the bill and the idea that we want to exempt small business from inordinate regulation. The question I have relates to the kick-in feature, the 20% of all industries or 10% of any one industry.

"The question I have is, does that mean 10% of the number of businesses in an industry, or does that mean 10% of the dollar volume done by the businesses in an industry? Because there is a distinct difference and it is not clear from the bill what you have in mind."

(No reply by anyone.)

On motion of Senator McDermott, there being no objection, the motion to hold House Bill No. 385 for later consideration was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that House Bill No. 385 be rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lee, on page 7 of the bill is some new language talking about a declaratory judgment. Now I, Senator Guess has left, and I am just using the state building code as an example; we just passed a law authorizing through this house and it is over in the other house at this time, the new state building code. Now there is no economic impact statement on those building codes that I know of that complies with the statute. So here comes a declaratory judgment action which will be effective as soon as the bill becomes effective, challenging any rule or regulation that has been adopted, and you throw them all out because we didn't do it. Now I heard what you said but I keep reading the bill as to what it says, and that is my difficulty.

"Senator Guess, I wish he were still here because if he intends that this bill not apply to that we ought to at least get it in the record."

Senator Lee: "Senator Bottiger, this bill applies to rules adopted under the administrative procedures act and only to those rules that have not yet been adopted or proposed. That does not apply to statutory statutes, those are not rules per se. The definition of 'rule' in the administrative procedures act is very clear."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McDermott: "Senator Bottiger, on this section on page 7 beginning on line 5, I don't understand, not being an attorney I don't understand the nature of the declaratory judgment they are talking about. Does this give a business the ability to come in and ask for merely relief from the rules, does it also carry with it the possibility of a financial benefit to the business if the rules are not within the scope of the bill, or . . . I don't understand; I always think a declaratory judgment as perhaps being money and/or some kind of administrative relief."
Senator Bottiger: "No, generally declaratory judgment goes to the validity of an action. It could be an action between two parties as to building a fence or in the context here it would be a petition to declare the rule invalid because it had not complied with its economic impact statement. And my concern is that despite the protestations of other members that it does not apply, if the building code is adopted by the legislature, be updated, adopted, it must be implemented by rules and regulations and nobody has done the impact statement. So we are in a 'Catch 22' situation."

Senator McDermott: "Would that be then a basis for throwing out the rules and regulations, the fact that no impact statement has been done?"

Senator Bottiger: "Just the same, you know, proper notice and proper hearing and it's another reason you can declare the rule or regulation invalid."

Senator McDermott: "On that basis alone could it thrown out?"

Senator Bottiger: "As I read the section, '... declaratory judgment ... may not be solely based on the contents of the small business economic ...' and that they didn't comply."

Senator Quigg demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator McDermott that House Bill No. 385 be rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

ROLL CALL.

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; absent or not voting, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—25.

Absent or not voting: Senator Gallaghan—1.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved the rules be suspended and House Bill No. 385 be returned to second reading.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Fleming failed.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Scott, there is no fiscal on this but I understand there is a fiscal note which is substantial; as a matter of fact the utilities and transportation commission says it is 'indeterminate, but substantial,' the cost it will be to them. Also if this is to be started immediately and I understand it is to be according to the bill, that the departments are supposed to go back and start writing the fiscal, the economic impact of the existing rules so there is going to be an immediate fiscal impact on this bill and I wondered if you have something, something is in the current budget to take care of this project?"

Senator Scott: "The answer, Senator Wojahn, is that I can only believe the figures that we both have before us, and as to the budget, 'no.'"

Senator Wojahn: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Quigg, it is the same question I asked before and I did not get a response to it. "The kick-in mechanism, is it intended to be 10% of dollar volume or 20% of the dollar volume in the industry, or is it intended to be the numbers of businesses?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Talmadge, my understanding is it is intended to be the numbers of businesses in the industry."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 385 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 3; absent or not voting, .

Absent or not voting: Senators Charnley, Vognild, Williams—3.

HOUSS BILL NO. 385, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, last evening after lengthy debate, an issue was decided in the affirmative and the president pro tem so ruled. Senator Bauer rose to his feet to ask to be recognized for the purpose of notice of reconsideration. The president pro tem failed to recognize Senator Bauer and instead recognized Senator Clarke who moved to adjourn.

"Under senate rule 39, a motion to adjourn is not debatable. Senate rule 37 stipulates that 'After the final vote on any resolution or bill, before the adjournment of that day's session, any member who voted with the prevailing side may give notice of reconsideration.' When used in the context of this rule, does the 'may' grant to a member who actively seeks in a timely manner to exercise the option of reconsideration, the opportunity to do so? It would not seem logical . . ."

President Cherberg: "For what purpose does Senator Clarke rise?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Point of order. The matter is not now presently before the body concerning which the inquiry is made; the inquiry with respect to a point of order should relate to something currently before the body."

Senator Woody: "Senator Clarke, I am asking the President to make that ruling, if I may finish my question, I would appreciate that."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, Senator Woody has requested that she be permitted to ask a parliamentary question; the President will not make a ruling but he will try to answer your question. Senator Woody."
PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Mr. President. First question is, when used in the context of this rule, does the 'may' grant to a member who actively seeks in a timely manner to exercise the option of reconsideration, the opportunity to do so? It would not seem to be logical or expeditious for the body to allow the use of Senate Rule 39 to vacate Senate Rule 37. Certainly in this situation a motion to reconsider could be permanently stifled and Senate Rule 37 rendered useless by consistent use of Senate Rule 39 to adjourn for even short periods of time.

"Question two, Senate Rule 37 (2) states in part that 'and when the Senate adjourns while a motion to reconsider is pending or before passing the order of motion, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day's sitting.' Mr. President, is the notice of reconsideration also deemed to continue to the next day? Thank you."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In answer to your last question, a notice of reconsideration is not deemed to continue until the next day, Senator Woody."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4661.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4661, by Senator Quigg (by Department of Employment Security request):
Modifying provisions relating to unemployment compensation.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4661. On February 16, 1982, Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 11, after "factors.", insert:
"There is established an eligibility period for "additional benefits" payable to individuals who were exhaustees with respect to both regular and extended benefits after December 31, 1981. Benefit amounts will be calculated pursuant to the provisions of RCW 50.22.050 (1) and (2) and shall be paid in the same manner as extended benefits. Eligibility will be determined under the same terms and conditions as for extended benefits. The Commissioner of the Employment Security Department may adopt rules as required for the proper administration of this section. The eligibility period for "additional benefits" will begin on the third Sunday after the effective date of this section of this act and will continue through December 31, 1982."

Senator Newhouse had raised a Point of Order on the amendment. The measure was held for a Ruling by the President until February 17, 1982.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "in ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Newhouse, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4661 is a measure which makes various changes to the state's unemployment compensation laws, including the method by which extended benefits are calculated.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McDermott also deals with the method by which extended benefits are calculated.

"The President finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and the Point of Order is not well taken."
The amendment by Senator McDermott was ruled in order.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator McDermott to Senate Bill No. 4661.
Debate ensued.
Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Senator Quigg, you and I represent the same district. We know what unemployment is. The figures are over twenty-five percent. You know that for sure. And I think it is our responsibility as elected officials from this district, this area, to provide all the help we can to the people that are unemployed. This just is a handful maybe here, but, a lot of them need it and need it damn bad. You know that, Senator."

Senator Quigg: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. Senator Talley and Senator Rasmussen, that is exactly why I brought up the question of the dates that are used here. It is interesting that in October of 1979, when interest rates were raised by the feds and the cedar export ban went on, unemployment began to ripple at an even greater than seasonal levels throughout the forest products industry. And I think you will find that it is equally interesting that it was in the following June that we triggered in the extended benefit period, June of are not going to be a player under the McDermott amendment. They are excluded. It has got to be folks from the Snohomish, King County, Spokane area that have just exhausted their benefits in the last month and a half or so that will be able to participate under this program. So while it appears as though, and we are being used as a lever to say, 'by golly, we have got to help those folks in the forest products industry,' this one doesn't even come close. This one doesn't even come within eight months of helping our constituents. So I think we have got to see it for what it is, Senator Talley. It is a fine bit of showmanship and it is using, as Senator Vognild well said, the unemployed . . . ."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I would like to employ the same mechanism that Senator Pullen employed yesterday to say that showmanship is a bad word."

SENIOR QUIGG (continues)

Senator Quigg: "Mr. President, I consider that to be a compliment. But nonetheless, and I think that is what we have got to realize is that the folks in our district that want to go back to work in the woods need to have real jobs to go back to work to. And right now this amendment is not going to provide those anywhere close. It is not going to provide training. It is not going to provide relocation. It is not going to provide job search or anything else. And I think that as you well know, the people from where we are from want to work. They don't want to sit home. They don't want to draw rocking chair. They want to work. And I guess what we have got to realize is that this amendment isn't going to help them go to work or put any bread on the table."

Senator Talley: "Senator Quigg, I think you are wrong. It does provide some relief. We have families that, as Senator Vognild has said, have exhausted their resources. They have lived off what little reserves they had. They have completely exhausted them. Now we say to them, all right, if you get a divorce you can get on welfare. The old man can come home at night but he can't come home in the daylight. Is that what we want, John? We don't want that. We want some help. We want these kids to be fed and that is all we should be worried about right now."

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator McDermott:
Strike "December 31, 1981" and insert "July 1, 1981"

Debate ensued.

Senators Hayner, Jones and Guess demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator McDermott to the amendment by Senator McDermott.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 25.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—25.

MOTION

At 1:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate recessed until 7:00 p.m. this evening.

EVÉNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 7:00 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

MOTION

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, I move that each member be limited to one three-minute speech on each subject or motion that comes before the Senate for the remainder — until Friday. Friday — what was it, Senator Clarke, we agreed on? Except that the mover of the motion or the sponsor of a bill or amendment may have the privilege of closing debate. I would further move that members be prohibited from yielding time to another member. It is intended to expedite the process through Friday and we are approaching certain deadlines."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I understand that motion to be an amendment to the Senate Rules and I also understand would require a twenty-four hour notice."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to Senator Bottiger's inquiry, the President finds that to limit a member to one speech would require a rule change and/or a suspension of the rules. However, if a majority concurs, each member can be limited to no more than three minutes."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "I believe we are on the sixth order of business and if I understand the procedures here, motion is only acceptable on the eighth order of business unless it is an amendment to the bill, and I don't think he is planning to amend the bill before us."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The point is well taken, Senator Vognild. However in the interest of expediting business, the President will permit the motion."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Each member may speak no more than three minutes on any one subject and he can be limited to no more than two speeches. Senator Jones: "Two time three is six as I remember."
President Cherberg: "The President believes that is the intent of your motion."
Senator Jones: "That is the intent of the motion."
President Cherberg: "No Senator may speak more than two times for a total of three minutes on any one subject. The President has one inquiry, Senator. What do you suggest on the closing of debate? Is that also . . . ."
Senator Jones: "I would suggest that the mover of the motion or the sponsor of the bill may have the privilege of closing debate and be limited to an additional three minutes."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Earlier, Mr. President, Senator Woody made an inquiry of you in regards to Rule 37 and some of us on this side still are not quite clear and I guess I would like an additional interpretation. It was the view of many of us that a rather arbitrary and capricious action was taken by the presiding officer in ignoring an attempt by Senator Bauer to gain the attention of the presiding officer so as to make a traditional parliamentary maneuver of suggesting that a motion be brought up for reconsideration. That is a basic element of the parliamentary rules of operation of this body and has been for many years, and I guess my inquiry is, Mr. President, may an action by the presiding officer . . ."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Hughes, with your permission and that of the other members, the President believes that the question of limiting speeches should be decided upon first."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HUGHES

Senator Hughes: "I guess the concern that many of us have is that this has been traditionally a procedure available, particularly to the minority, to bring a measure once again before the body, and if the presiding officer can act in a fashion so as not to recognize a member who votes in the affirmative, then that action in effect is denied. As you will recall, Senator Woody brought up the fact that a motion to adjourn was brought forward and, in effect, Senator Bauer was not recognized and we lost the ability to exercise Rule 37, and it is a matter of grave concern to us that, in effect, a motion to adjourn now will in effect wipe out that rule, and I guess I would like your explanation on that."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Hughes, the President in reply to Senator Woody's inquiry, stated that the notice to reconsider is not deemed to carry over to another day. The notice must be given on the day the subject was considered. Inasmuch as it was not considered at that time, if you wish to consider it now it would take a suspension of the rules which would require a two-thirds vote."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HUGHES

Senator Hughes: "If I might continue, Mr. President, I understand that, but I guess my concern is that a motion to adjourn, even though I believe the maker of that motion was second in reaching the floor after Senator Bauer, was accepted prior to Senator Bauer's attempt to give a notice of reconsideration. And I guess my inquiry is, if the presiding officer refuses to recognize a member of this body, is the minority denied Rule 37 in effect?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In the statement that Senator Woody gave me, the President believes that the presiding officer acted exactly in the manner that I would. Namely, this report indicated that Senator Bauer stood to ask to be recognized for the purpose of giving notice. Her statement also said that Senator Clarke was recognized by the presiding officer who then moved that the Senate adjourn. The President believes that Rule 28 should have been followed; namely, that when any Senator is about to speak in debate or submit any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his/her seat and standing in place respectfully address himself/herself to Mr. President, and when recognized shall in a courteous manner confine himself/herself to the question under debate, avoiding personalities, and when finished shall resume his/her seat."
"The President doesn't know what transpired because he was not present, but the President believes that the orderly procedure was followed, at least from the report made to him by Senator Woody."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAUER

Senator Bauer: "For the record, Mr. President, I did call out 'Mr. President' on two occasions and I thought I had the eye of the President Pro Temp, but apparently didn't and he turned and caught the eye of Senator Clarke, who made the motion to adjourn, and I didn't pursue the matter any further at that time."

I questioned that under a point of order and it was deemed expedient, I believe, at that time to allow the motion. If a motion can be made from the other side of the aisle, I suggest it should be made from this side of the aisle as well."

Senator Vognild: "I have made motions to adjourn at night because I firmly believe that it affects my health and the health of other people on this floor, the health of our staff to do what we are doing, particularly when we do it in the manner we have been doing it tonight. I fear that I am getting close to an obstructionist and I do not want to be that way, so you have heard the last motion from me to adjourn. But I want it fully understood and I want the records to show that I think this is a horrible way to do the state's business. I do not approve. However, I will be on this floor to represent the people of my district."

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 6 after "person" strike "unless waived by the court"
On page 4, line 16 after "and" strike "participation" and insert "satisfactory progress"
On page 5, line 3 after "purposes." strike all material down to and including "1980." on line 6 and insert "(((7) The provisions of this section limiting the authority of a court to defer or suspend a sentence shall not take effect until January 1, 1980.))"

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4819 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Hemstad, we have had this law on the books now for a short period of time, I forget the date. Has there been any indication that requiring a person to spend twenty-four hours in jail indeed had the kind of effect — in other words, has it 'frightened,' has it 'gotten somebody's attention' so that he doesn't drink while driving? I am just curious as to the effect of a mandatory sentence such as we have had here. Can you give me any feeling on that?"

Senator Hemstad: "To my knowledge there has not been an evaluation that would, that I can advise you of, at least, that would indicate the impact of that. On the other hand, there has been some evaluation of the impact of deferred prosecutions that suggests on an overall basis that they have, if anything, on balance probably been counterproductive, and hence that aspect of the bill is one of the reasons why, the motivation for this kind of a bill here and its elimination.

"But on the other I do not have any direct information on that but I might just make the reference. We have the most lenient laws of any western nation in this regard. I am quite familiar with the laws in Scandinavia where, for example in Norway, on a first offense there is a mandatory twenty-one day jail term and a six-month loss of license, and on second offense a five-year loss of license with a six-month jail term, and the consequence of that is in that country, people when they go to parties simply don't drive their cars or whoever is driving the car agrees in advance not to drink or if they do, they take taxis home and go get their cars the next day. They understand there are sanctions that are tough and the response to that has been a significant control of the use of alcohol which we do not have in our society."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Hemstad, I am sorry, I did not have a chance to check with you earlier on this, but on page 2 of the bill on line 6 where it says that 'The costs of the evaluation screening . . . ' of the 'alcohol information school shall be paid by the convicted person, unless waived by the court.'

"I have had correspondence in regard to that part about the waiving by the court action who will pay for it and this has been a problem. Could you respond?"

Senator Hemstad: "All right. Again that phrase now is deleted from the bill when it says 'unless waived by the court.' But under the normal circumstances, a substantial number of persons will pay for this themselves, of course, if they have the capacity to do so; and for example insurance policies typically will cover this kind of thing. If they are indigent, that situation, then, is covered by an appropriation in the department of social and health services which then funnels that money back to the local level to deal with those persons who do not have the resources to pay for the charges."

Senator Zimmerman: "It was in regard to local services that there was a quirk concerning a question . . . . "

Senator Hemstad: "That is correct. There is a DSHS appropriation to deal with it."

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Hemstad, a few months ago my wife and I were hit in the rear end of our car by a very much larger heavier car than ours, and if it weren't for the fine, collapsible qualities of the back end of our car, I may not have been here this evening. And after the driver of that car plowed through us, the driver proceeded on for about two or three miles and when they finally pulled the driver over, the driver had no idea that she had been involved in any kind of an accident at all. And when I walked up, she says 'Oh, I know you.' And we had a nice conversation like we were out doorbelling or something, but when the police showed up, this individual had been picked up eight times in the last year for similar performances, and only because the individual had a great, big old Caddy that could survive all those wrecks, nothing had been done about it. And when they asked her if she had insurance, she said 'Yes,' you know, and she said it was homeowners.

"Is this bill going to help get these kind of people some help, or off the streets, or make it a little safer to be out on the streets?"

Senator Hemstad: "Well, assuming that person is cited for driving while intoxicated, at that point she would have to go through this mandatory evaluation which is now not the case for determination of whether she, along with the other sanctions, should be required to enter a different program. Yes, at least there would be the opportunity, if the law enforcement people are doing their job, to see that that happens."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4819 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4819, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Modifying provisions relating to pistols.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 4470, modifying provisions relating to pistols (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 1, line 21, after "person," insert "or"

On motion of Senator Williams, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On line 5, strike "property" and insert "campus"

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On line 12, strike "city, town, or county"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Pullen, if I support this floor amendment, would I be accused of supporting gun control?"

Senator Pullen: "Well, I can't speak for the various organizations in the state, but I would strongly suspect that the Washington State Sportsmen's Council, the NRA, and many other groups, would be opposed to this particular amendment."

Senator Patterson: "Could you, then, identify to this amendment wherein this could be interpreted as a gun control measure?"

Senator Pullen: "Well, one of the items which remains in this amendment as amended thus far, would prohibit a citizen with a concealed weapon permit who has to carry a pistol for his or her protection, it would prohibit such a person from even going into the Seattle downtown Bon Marche or Frederick and Nelson. For example, . . . ."

Senator Patterson: "That is, you mean if they carry a valid, Class A, B, C or D liquor license. . . ."

Senator Pullen: "Right; and that is true for the Bon Marche and Frederick and Nelsons, in Seattle, for example."

Senator Patterson: "Could you devise an amendment to this that would just restrict it to taking it into the licensed premises?"

Senator Pullen: "I don't think so, Senator Patterson; there are so many other things wrong with the amendment besides, that even if we made that minor improvement, we would still have a long, long way to go. It is a perfect illustration of trying to set forth a philosophy on the floor of the Senate to a measure that has been worked over very carefully in committee."

On motion of Senator Fleming the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On line 13, following "courtroom" insert "and any municipal or legislative chamber"

Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Williams and Bottiger, as amended.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 15; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Bottiger—1.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4470 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Clarke, the summary says, the bill says if the pistol is carried on the licensee's person; is that an error in printing in the summary?"

Senator Clarke: "The bill itself is quite specific with respect to what may be done with respect to a gun in a car. I read you provision 2. 'A person who is in possession of an unloaded pistol; well, first place it says that 'he shall not carry a pistol unless you have a concealed weapon permit.' Then if you have an unloaded pistol you should not leave it in the vehicle unless it is locked within the vehicle and concealed from outside the vehicle. Provision 3. A person shall not carry or place a loaded pistol in any vehicle unless the person has a license to carry a concealed weapon and (a) the pistol is on the licensee's person, (b) the licensee is within the vehicle at all times that the pistol is there or (c) the licensee is away from the vehicle and the pistol is locked within the vehicle, concealed from view from outside the vehicle.'"

Senator Peterson: "Well, that is in contradiction to what you said. As I listened to you read that, . . ."

Senator Clarke: "I missed the point you are making."

Senator Peterson: "Well, all right. Does it still say that when you are in your car, if I am on a hunting trip, and I am taking a sidearm with me, do I have to have a holster and wear that thing in my automobile all the time I am . . ."

Senator Clarke: "No, no, no; that is the entire purpose of the bill, is to permit you to take it off and lay it on the seat . . ."

Senator Peterson: "I wanted to clarify that and get it in the record because it doesn't read that way in the summary."

On page 1, on line 12 after "labor dispute" insert "in progress"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Talmadge, could you please give us an example of how your amendment would change the law and how it would take effect? Again, I didn't understand that first explanation."

Senator Talmadge: "Well, Senator, it may be indicative of debate and discussion at midnight, I would simply point out that there is some concern about an individual who shall be disqualified for benefits for any week with respect to which the commissioner finds that his unemployment is due to labor dispute at the factory, etc., etc.

"The concern in particular is that it be an actual labor dispute in progress, not a labor dispute in which there might be a lockout or something of that variety. In particular, the concern would be that you could have a conflict between labor and management; management could, for example, go out of business, say that 'We could not afford to pay various members of a particular union the wages to which they otherwise would have been entitled,' and then after several months of intervening time, decide that the economic circumstances have improved substantially, and therefore could, in fact, start to pay workers, unemployment compensation to those workers, or could resume business, in effect.

"In other words, the idea is for the labor dispute actually to be in progress, to have a strike in progress."

Senator Quigg: "So in other words, then, Senator, if the employer in the case you cited or the example you gave went out of business, then the employee would be eligible for the benefits?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, if you have a lockout, in other words the employer simply refuses to negotiate and he locks the employees out, is that a labor dispute that would then make all of his employees who are, or would like to go to work or willing to work, but who simply cannot work, now ineligible for unemployment comp?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Bottiger, I believe that further down in the bill, it would, it is set out whether or not the employee in this case is participating in that labor dispute or has a financial interest in the labor dispute, in that case, the employee would be denied benefits. On the other hand, if the employee were not in that position or if the employee, I think you will see in the next section, there is sub (2) there, that if the employee is not in the particular grade or class of employees that are involved in the dispute, then that employee would be eligible to draw benefits because that employee would be out of work because of a labor dispute of which he or she had no part."

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved Senate Bill No. 3944 together with the pending amendment by Senators Talmadge and Vognild, be the first order of business on February 18, 1982 on the second reading calendar.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Talley moved that Senate Bill No. 3944 be indefinitely postponed.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Talley that Senate Bill No. 3944 be indefinitely postponed.

Senator Vognild: "Any time you say, Senator Quigg."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried. At 12:17 a.m. the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Thursday, February 18, 1982.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 18, 1982.

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed: THIRD SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 179, and the same is herewith transmitted.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Yes, Mr. President, I would like to make an announcement as to our schedule for the next few days. I think it is only fair that you should have some idea exactly what your time schedule will be.

"We will break for lunch after running about an hour, we will then go from about 1 p.m. to 5:30, and we will come back perhaps at 7, perhaps at 7:30, depending a little bit on the exact hour that we recess.

"On Friday, we will be in session from 8 a.m. 'til noon; and then we will adjourn. We will not be here Saturday unless we simply do not finish our work or if there is undue delay.

"On Monday we are going to have caucus time from 8 until noon, and the committee meetings that are normally held on Monday morning will be cancelled, and then we will have a session from about 1 until 1:30 or 2, and committee meetings all afternoon. No session on Tuesday. We will have committee meetings all day and we will move some of the committee meetings into that slot so we can deal with as many House bills as possible.

"In addition I would like to announce that it is our position that from now on to the end of the session, we will have lunch between 12 and 1:30. Now that doesn't mean you are going to get an hour—and—a-half every day but that lunch will be between those hours, and dinner will be between 5:30 and 7:30 as nearly as we can stick to that schedule. And hopefully, at least, an hour—and—a-half at dinner."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CHARNLEY

Senator Charnley: "Thank you, Mr. President, and I want to thank Senator Hayner for making clear the schedule, and particularly to plan clearly when we are having lunch and dinner. Many of us, on both sides of the aisle, have been very upset because we make appointments, we have constituents to see us, we make lunch dates, and we cannot meet them; so I really appreciate the majority holding to that schedule. It helps very much in running this place and running it more effectively."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Hayner, could you give us an idea on the record what you plan in terms of any projected evening meetings next week?"

Senator Hayner: "Well, since we are now concluding our consideration of Senate bills this week and we will be going into quite a concentrated period of dealing with the House bills in committee, it is possible that we will not have any night meetings next week. I will not be held to that but it is not our feeling now that it is necessary."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hayner, the House/Senate Republican caucus resolution reads in part: 'Commencing Thursday, February 18, the thirty-ninth day of the session, except for appropriations, blank, blank, blank, the senate will consider only house bills.'

"Now today is that day and are we going to run House bills or Senate bills today and has this been amended?"

Senator Hayner: "That, as you know, is not a resolution that has been adopted on the floor. It was a tentative agreement between the House and the Senate Republican caucuses, because we have to run this shop in some kind of an orderly manner. We are trying to stick to that as much as possible. Obviously, there will be a few bills, Senate bills, that will be considered beyond that time. But we are doing that because we need to get out of here in sixty days and we have backed the schedule up so that it is possible for us to do that."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Betty J. Mage appointed February 11, 1982, for a term ending June 30, 1987, succeeding Dorothy W. McClellan as a member of the Council for Postsecondary education.

Referred to Committee on Higher Education.

Sincerely,

JOHN SPELLMAN
Governor.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Hayner, the question I had was that, ordinarily we have, in a cutoff resolution or any other kind of resolution relating to the expeditious dealing with business, some kind of time certain or date certain for the consideration of various bills. We have been given to understand from people on your side of the aisle that today is the cutoff day, but do you have any specific time or anything like that that you have in mind for the actual cutoff time or date for the consideration of the bills of the senate?"

Senator Hayner: "Senator Talmadge, it will probably be adjournment tonight unless there is too much delay and we have some important legislation that we canot bump, or something of that sort, we will probably take it tomorrow. We have a program to conclude with and we are going to do that as best we can.
"If you have seen the tentative agreement, you know that there are some things that are not cut off; and that includes regulatory, reform of the executive branch of government; it includes revenue and budget and some of those things that are normally excluded from the cutoff."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hayner, I am concerned with no Saturday session 'unless delaying efforts.' I recall Senator Clarke who is a very eloquent speaker, getting up on the floor and saying that he had thirty-nine other people that would also be able to talk after he got through, and he was talking very slowly, as a matter of fact, I thought he was quite tired, the way he talked. Would you call that 'delaying efforts'. . . . if that is what you are speaking of, I see you have it here in writing, 'unless delaying efforts'. . . . Democrats do not do that."

Senator Hayner: "There are all sorts of procedural methods to arrive at a goal and I think you have used them very effectively and we try to do the same."

Senator Rasmussen: "We always try to put the ball through the goal."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I would respond very briefly to Senator Rasmussen. He loves to get up and pull our leg once in awhile because he knows as well as we do, and as a matter of fact, better than we do, how a majority can operate. And he also knows as well as we do and this is one of the things he has been adept at exploiting, as it were, and that is that when we are not a majority temporarily, then there is a possibility that the majority has shifted to that extent.
"Senator, I know that you and I both understand that procedure. I don't think we gain very much by, in effect, tossing it back and forth periodically in various remarks as to who is the majority and what the majority can and should do."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would like for Senator Clarke just to stretch his memory a little bit. I wanted to let you know that Senator Rasmussen is consistent. He is many other things, but at least we know he is consistent because when we had the majority, I remember Senator Rasmussen standing up, making some of those same motions. So it is not just pointed at you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Mr. President.
"Mr. President and fellow members. This morning we have been discussing the issue of cutoff dates. We have a real problem in this body in attempting to adequately and procedurally deal with cutoff day. When there is no formal cutoff date resolution before the body and where apparently twenty-five members of the body are functioning under an informal resolution or an informal agreement which the other twenty-four members of this body are not privy to.
"Now I certainly would not, if the members on this side of the aisle were in the majority at this time, I would not approve of that procedure being followed and I would like to ask that, in the future, if we have, in the absence of an official formal
REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Responding briefly to Senator Woody. The fact that you have been furnished with and have knowledge of our proposed procedure, I think is an evidence on our side that we have endeavored to keep you informed.

"Now, let's look at it from a strictly practical matter. We are well aware as has been brought to our attention last night, that we have a one-man majority and that sometimes it is difficult to have all of our people on the floor. Now if we adopted formal cutoffs as is normally done on this, and this hasn't even been done on the House side, then in order to consider any bill that is beyond the cutoff, it would take a suspension of the rules and a two-thirds vote. Now we are endeavoring to keep our house in order so that we do have, to the best of our ability, a schedule as to what bills shall be considered and we have made an effort to keep you informed of that.

"Now you don't have to think back very far to the Mardesich and Walgren situation where we had a long list of bills on the calendar and we considered them, bill by bill, as the majority floor leader at that time might see fit to call them. So we have endeavored to keep you posted, we have endeavored to proceed in such a way as the only practical way for us as a majority, to act. What we could do, was to have no program whatsoever that we announced to you and simply come out, as a majority, and say, 'Here are the bills we are going to consider and here is when we are going to consider them' without giving you any prior notice at all.

"We are making every effort to be cooperative, to keep you informed as well as we are, as to what our proposed procedure is."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Clarke, I believe your remarks are well taken on the issue of the order of the bills. However, the point that I wish to make most strongly was on the issue of the cutoff date resolution. Now it was not my understanding that this resolution had been discussed or proposed to leadership on this side of the aisle; and in fact, rather than being handed to our leadership, I believe we first found it in the waste paper basket which caused some speculation amongst our leadership and members.

"I am only asking that there be a better understanding and agreement between our two caucuses on this issue, because it does leave almost half of the Senate in the dark on one of the most important procedural questions that comes before this body and that is in what manner are our cutoff dates going to be addressed, and when are we going to handle Senate and House bills?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate proceeded in order.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4526, by Senators Benitz, Charnley, Newhouse and Hansen:

Permitting breweries, wineries, or wholesalers to offer instruction on beer or wine to licensees.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Quigg, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4526 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4526 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Benitz, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4526 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Benitz, I am confused. Are we on the substitute bill or are we on the regular bill?"

Senator Benitz: "Substitute bill."

Senator Wojahn: "The substitute bill will permit groups to go in and be served wine if they are studying wine, is that correct?"

Senator Benitz: "Very specified groups."

Senator Wojahn: "Well, I understood you to say in your explanation that it only permitted wine wholesalers and others to sample the wine, but it isn't that, it is the other, it is the person, nonprofit or groups that are studying wine, may go in and have samplings of it. Is that correct? It isn't the wine wholesalers that are going to be doing it, it is going to be the individual, nonprofit or interested study groups?"

Senator Benitz: "The recipients of the serving of the wine would have to be people involved in the nonprofit groups and very specific . . . tightened up considerably by requests of the liquor board."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Benitz, this is an attempt to get people educated in how to drink wine and provide it to them free?"

Senator Benitz: "Senator Rasmussen, yes. But provided to them free only in very specified situations. What would be the value of going to a group and talking about the difference in a cabernet sauvignon and a chardonnay, for example, provide you couldn't taste it and that has been the problem. It is hard to visualize the difference and so it is part of the educational process. I am not concerned about the winery or the wholesaler giving away an undue amount of his product."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, no, but as you recall . . . , Senator Benitz, and the repeal of prohibition, they also prohibited bartenders from hosting. And the idea was that you were not to encourage people to drink and if you were to discourage them to the effect they would have to pay money for it and that, of course, is discouraging. But I am minded, Senator Benitz, of those people that have studied wine and there is a whole lot of them down on First Avenue and Pioneer Square, and they sit there and they are studying that Thunderbird bottle, that white lightning. And they probably have studied wine too much. And that is why I am concerned here with the fact that, you all know what that white lightning does, it softens your brain, so that you cannot tell chardonnay from chablis or whatever.

"That is what I am concerned with, that we are pushing advertising to get people to drink wine when people should go in of their own volition and, friendly Safeway store has hundreds of varieties, pay their money and then sample it. That way, you kind of restrain it. This way, it is something like giving cigarettes to kids and tell 'em to try it out.

"I am concerned with this type of legislation."

Senator Benitz: "Senator Rasmussen, the group or groups that you have just mentioned, it is a possibility that one of them might, at some time, qualify as a member of the groups we are talking about here. But it is highly unlikely. The wine industry, which is coming of age in the state of Washington, hopefully, because it is one of the bright spots in our future. With the way this legislation is drawn, you have to be a member of that viticulture group or enology group and active and the liquor board has tightened it so that I felt it was almost restrictive, but I think it is a step in the right direction."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Benitz, following up a little bit on what Senator Rasmussen said, I think much of the advertising and much of the instruction associated with the liquor industry, including wine and beer, attempts to glamorize these beverages. They are always cast in the best possible light of, you know, candlelight and wine, and all these good things.

"And I wonder if any effort is being made in this instruction to also call attention to the possible undesirable effects of alcoholic beverages if they are not properly consumed and so forth. Is this sort of an informed consent kind of drinking instruction, or is it something that will attempt to put it in only its best possible light?"

Senator Benitz: "The goal of the viticulture group, enology societies, and others, is one that wine is the oldest manufactured product in the history of man and is to be used correctly. And at no time have I ever seen any of these groups promote undue use. It is simply one of the finest products used in moderation, and that is the philosophy of these groups and it is to educate the people in that philosophy."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No.
4526 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talley, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—45.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4526, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3944, by Senator Guess:
Modifying labor dispute disqualification for unemployment benefits.
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 3944 and a pending amendment by Senators Talmadge and Vognild which had been moved for adoption on February 17, 1982.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, there being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the following amendments by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Talmadge were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 9, insert: "(1)"
On page 1, line 16 strike "(1)" and insert: "(a) ((f))"
On page 1, line 19, strike "(2)" and insert: "(b) ((f2))"
On page 1, after line 29 insert: "(2) The disqualification under subsection (1) of this section shall not apply following settlement of the labor dispute by the negotiating parties."
Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Quigg, the amendment that was adopted solves one problem. What does this do for those people that are locked out in an industry?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Rasmussen, the people that are locked out, that situation is addressed in sub (1) and sub (2). If there is a lockout and the individual is involved in either financially or directly interested in that lockout, then that person could not draw. For example, if the carpenters went on strike against an employer that was a member of the multi-employer bargaining group, and then other contractors walked out, other carpenters, and yet there were other crafts who could still be able to work on those projects for some, well, let's say for awhile; but now with the carpenter's lockout situation and the project grinds to a halt and those other crafts could no longer be employed, the crafts, other than carpenters that are laid off because of that, would be laid off through no fault of their own and they would be eligible to draw benefits. And that is discussed, as I say in sub (1) and sub (2) of the bill, before, now, especially as amended."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is your intent, then, not to deny them benefits?"

Senator Quigg: "The intent is not to deny benefits to workers involved indirectly, in a walkout. Those workers will be able to draw benefits."

Senator Lysen: "Senator Quigg, what about the carpenters that work for other employers that were not striking those other employers? Sometimes they have an industry shutdown. Would they be eligible, even though they are willing to work for the other employers under the existing contract?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator, if they are working for employers that are a member of that multi-employer bargaining group, then they would, under this example, I believe, that Senator Rasmussen and I were discussing, would be locked out."

Senator Lysen: "But would they be eligible then for the other . . . . . ."

Senator Quigg: "No, they wouldn't."

Senator Lysen: "Even though they were willing to go to work for the other employers of that multi- . . . . . ."

Senator Quigg: "Well, once again, you see because you have a multi-employer bargaining situation, so in effect, a strike against one is a strike against all. And since that group, let's say in this case the carpenters, could be any other particular, that's what gets in here under the sub (2) whether or not the worker belongs to a grade or class of workers, okay? So if it is a carpenter, the fellow is a carpenter and he is a member of a union that is involved in a strike or lockout situation, and even though his employer may not have been the one struck but now finds because of the multi-employer agreement must lock out that carpenter, then that carpenter would not be eligible for unemployment compensation benefits.

"However, because of that lockout and because of the interruption of work or whatever, teamsters and pipefitters and boilermakers and electricians and other folks are laid off, then all of those other folks would qualify for unemployment compensation benefits because they would not be participating in financially or directly interested in a labor dispute nor would they be belonging to the greater class of workers immediately involved in it.

"So I think that was the concern that the lockout that we discussed and worked on to see to it that we wouldn't have people that were locked out through no fault of their own, being denied benefits. And I believe the people involved feel that this language protects those folks from being denied benefits when they are locked out through not fault of their own."

Senator Lysen: "I will give you an example of another situation that is of concern to me and . . . grocery store industry, I think we had a labor dispute or a strike in effect in the tri-cities area last year where there are about two or three, four major chains and a few independents; and the union was unsuccessful, retail clerks were unsuccessful in getting a new contract negotiated with any of the chains, and they can't strike all of them because people have to eat, so they selected one of the chains, of course, that they thought would be the most responsive. So in that case, when they get locked out on others, when this would apply, so they would be denied benefits?"

Senator Quigg: "If they had a multi-employer, if those four stores were negotiating as one, then the clerks could be denied benefits if the dispute was with the clerks. The butchers, the bakers, any other . . . ."

Senator Lysen: "They have all consolidated now into one union."

Senator Quigg: "Well, okay, if that is the case, and if all those employers have consolidated together, then in that case, and you have a single union, none of those people, employees, would be able to draw worker compensation benefits during the period of that labor dispute."

Senator Lysen: "What is happening here is, we are escalating the struggle from people that aren't involved and this is strictly a second way of approach, Senator Quigg; we should be developing more of a third wave of breaking down the structures so we can have more dialogue and more open, rather than the solidifying and the dichotomies that are building against the solution, so I am not sure that this really contributes to that concern."

Senator Quigg: "Well, Senator, I guess I should say that the matter of multi-employer bargaining is something that has been deemed to be beneficial to both parties, second wave notwithstanding. And in that light when they do get together and bargain in a multi-employer format, then the uniformity and the synchronized wage and benefit package is what results."

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3944 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Quigg, as a sponsor of the amendment which is now on the bill, in the case of the Cudahy plant where ownership changed and the plant went back into operation, would it be your feeling that your amendment was intended to say that those people, when it changed ownership, went back into operation, that the people who were now unemployed would be unemployed and qualified under the amendment?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Vognild, that is the case now, those people did qualify and did receive unemployment benefits, and it would be the case with the bill we have before us."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Quigg, my question is really this: during a labor dispute, if an employer hires scabs and keeps production and profits up, will the workers be denied benefits (who have been laid off)?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator McDermott, if the worker is participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute, that worker would be. If the worker is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute, then that worker would be allowed to draw benefits."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Yes, Mr. President, we had just read in a report from the social and health services committee which would have recommended a study on mandated health care benefits. At that particular meeting there were four votes, two for, two against and by the chairman's traditional ruling, that failed. I think that it is inappropriate that it be before us at this time. It was defeated in the committee. There has been no formal convening of that committee since that time."

Senator Clarke: "I respectfully suggest that the Senator's inquiry be delayed until the chairman, Senator Deccio, is on the floor."

Senator Ridder: "That's fine, I simply wanted to have it before us in as timely a fashion as possible."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The measure has been referred to the rules committee, Senator. The report of the standing committee shows five signatures, Senator Deccio's, Senator Kiskaddon, Senator McCaslin, Senator Metcalf. . . ."

Senator Ridder: "Mr. Chairman, I am challenging that as inappropriately before us."

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, McCaslin, Pullen—3.
Absent or not voting: Senators Conner, Metcalf, Newhouse—3.

SENATE BILL NO. 4769, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Hayner, just for clarification, on the lunch schedule for next week, it was my understanding that next week we would be breaking for lunch between the hours of 12 and 1:30, not necessarily saying that we would have an hour-and-a-half for lunch every day, but we would be assured within our schedules to have lunch within that period of time, be it an hour or an hour-and-a-half. Is that right?"

Senator Hayner: "That is right."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4153, by Senator Pullen:
Relating to crimes and punishments.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hemstad, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4153 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4153 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 16, after "may", strike the underlined material down to and including "department" on line 18 and insert "submit"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4153 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I think I understand the bill but I don't think I understand the summary on the blue sheet. And I would just like to ask Senator Hemstad if that summary is, in fact, correct, because it sounds contradictory to the wording of the bill. If Senator Hemstad would answer the question, is this inconsistent with the bill and therefore incorrect? . . . because as I read this is says that a 'person must both refuse a Breathalizer and be convicted or plead guilty before he is allowed to petition.' So the only way you can petition, under this, for an occupational driver's license, is to refuse the Breathalizer. And that, obviously, isn't something we want to encourage."

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Goltz, the summary I don't believe is an accurate statement of the law with regard to occupational licenses which are available. The thrust of this bill is to make somewhat easier an access to an occupational driver's license by a person who has refused to take a Breathalizer test. If one refuses to take a Breathalizer test, there is a six-month suspension of license that automatically follows; and without opportunity for an occupational license.

"If the bill is adopted there will be, then, an opportunity for that person who has refused the Breathalizer test, to petition for an occupational license."

Senator Goltz: "I appreciate that answer because the way this is written, it says that he must refuse a Breathalizer to be able to petition, and that is not correct."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate.
"In response to Senator Goltz, there are two sections, I think Senator Hemstad is correct. Would Senator Clarke yield to a question?
"Senator Clarke, very briefly, I think Senator Newhouse's amendment that makes it an 'and,' there has to be both the refusal to blow the Breathalyzer and a conviction for DWI is appropriate. But this is essentially the bill that Governor Spellman vetoed after the April '81 session. Do you have any idea or any indication from the Governor that he will, in fact, sign this if it comes to his desk?"

Senator Clarke: "No, Senator, I do not. I have not discussed the bill with the Governor."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Clarke, I do not think I am clear on how much driving and what kind of driving is permitted by an occupational driver's license. Does that permit people who use their cars, say for certain types of jobs, can take them home at night and drive back to work in the morning, or what is permitted?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator Bottiger could probably answer that more accurately than I."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator Hurley, the court sets the rules and you go in and convince the court as to what your need and your occupation for your driving would be. And generally it is a direct route. I have seen them drafted where 'Thou shalt drive on Pacific Avenue to there and back again and not deviate off that route.'

"And it is usually a half an hour before and after work.

"So that the courts set the parameters and they can set them very, very narrrowly. If you are a truck driver it would include driving your truck."

REMARKS BY SENATOR METCALF

Senator Metcalf: "For the record, those remarks of Senator Bottiger do not apply in any sense to Snohomish count — wide open."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No.
4153 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 14.

Peterson, Quigg, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talley, Talmadge, Vognild, Metcalf, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, von Reichbauer, Wilson, Wojahn, majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3916, by Senators Quigg and Goltz:
Requiring modification of shorelines classifications to reflect changed circumstances.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 27, 1981.

SENATE BILL NO. 3916, requiring modification of shoreline classifications to reflect changed circumstances (reported by Committee on Parks and Ecology):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 3, line 16, after "causes" insert "Any areas resulting from alterations of the natural condition of the shorelines and wetlands of the state no longer meeting the definition of "shorelines of the state" shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 90.58 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Fuller, Chairman; Goltz, Haley, Hansen, Hurley, Quigg, Williams, Zimmerman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fuller moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, line 3, after "state" insert "by natural causes"

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Charnley, there being no objection, the amendment to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Charnley, there being no objection, an amendment on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Fuller carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3916 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Quigg, for clarification of the purpose of this act, would you assure the body that the intent of this is to deal with lands which have been filled in under the permit process, if they are manmade and not open up the shoreline management act to a situation where an individual or organization might cause land to be filled in illegally, and then be able to, under this new language, to have that section of land declared outside the shorelines management act?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Charnley, the intent of this act is to allow legally placed fills that were placed under the permit process to be, those new lands developed, to not be considered shorelines of statewide significance. When they are developed under the permit process, illegal fills placed without a permit, would still be illegal and would still be subject to the sanctions and penalties of the department."

Senator Charnley: "It is my understanding those sanctions include even requiring the person who does it to have to come in and remove the material."

Senator Quigg: "That sanction could require the person placing it to come in and remove the material; that is correct."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Quigg, I have in mind the Tokeland area where the shoreline, of course, has receded, the ocean has taken it for about a mile. This, in effect, puts the shorelines act in control on a floating basis where the shoreline has been obliterated down there in Tokeland; so that you would have a commercial zone, then, be within a shoreline... I can understand the other, the accreted land, where you get a long ways away from what would be classed as shorelines, but I am wondering about that. Then you would have a nonconforming."

Senator Quigg: "Senator Rasmussen, this deals with fills that have been placed by other than natural causes. These are permitted fills and until Mother Nature gets a permit, I guess we are not going to be able to do much about the accretion and the erosion that is occurring like out at the Tokeland-North Cove area where you speak. Those are natural occurrences."

Senator Rasmussen: "Has no effect on natural occurrences?"
Senator Quigg: "No, sir."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Quigg, I think you meant shorelines of the state, not necessarily shorelines of statewide significance of the state, right?"
Senator Quigg: "That is correct, Senator Zimmerman. Shorelines of the state."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3916 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 12.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3916, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Bill No. 4593 be considered at this time.
The President ruled Senator Bottiger's motion out of order.

SECOND READING

Authorizing payment of share work unemployment insurance benefits.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4745 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

SENATE BILL NO. 4745, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Senate Bill No. 3567 will be considered following Senate Bill No. 3025.

MOTION

Senator Ridder moved that the Committee on Rules be relieved from further consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 137 and the resolution be returned to the Committee on Social and Health Services.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "If I might make a parliamentary inquiry and explain why I am concerned.

Yesterday we had, in social and health services committee, a very full meeting on the complex subject of mental health and we ran into a time difficulty. As that meeting closed, some of us were expecting that the next bill on the agenda might come up because there were people who were waiting to testify. However, rather than that particular bill, SCR 137 was brought up, very hurriedly explained and a vote was requested.

At that time, under the procedures which we ordinarily follow in that committee, we were told that the vote had failed, it was a two-to-two vote and by the custom it had failed the passage. At that point, those of us who had been at the committee meeting did leave, as did the audience, expecting that it had failed.

However, today it did appear, was reported out of committee with signatures and was assigned to the rules committee.

"I would ask a ruling and a question because I think that it is a bad precedent and I think it was a misunderstanding. I am not indicating bad faith on the part of the chairman and I want to make that clear. However, as we get into more heated subjects in the closing days of the session, there may be some items which have a greater substance and a greater polarization so that I would make the inquiry whether, after having had an announcement of a vote as 'failed,' that can then be circulated for signatures and submitted; and I must say, in discussing with the chairman, he is perfectly willing to hold another meeting, but I think it is important that we set the precedent and I would hold that if a vote is announced, then that should be the position that is maintained until there is another meeting of that committee."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DECCIO

Senator Deccio: "Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I would like to clarify a couple of points Senator Ridder made. The sheet was not circulated, what actually happened was, it was a very full day and we were anxious to vacate the room because of the next meeting, and just at the time we were voting, Senator Moore reentered the room and I did not realize the vote had been announced, although I was sitting there; but Senator Moore did sign the sheet so I thought we did have the proper number of signatures and in checking with Senator Moore, he indicates he did not vote so Senator Ridder is right."
"I would like to suggest that we have the opportunity of hearing SCR 137 again before the committee and I think it is an important issue to bring before this body.

"We could do it very quickly whenever there is a short recess on the floor."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Ridder, rather than put the Senate at ease in order to study your inquiry, the President will deliver, if it meets with your approval, a decision tomorrow."

Senator Ridder: "Mr. President, if you find an opportunity prior to tomorrow, the chairman has indicated his willingness to convene . . . ."

President Cherberg: ". . . perhaps at this evening's session."

Senator Ridder: "That would be fine, thank you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Senate Bill No. 3567 will be considered following Senate Bill No. 3025.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4703, by Senators Vognild, Quigg and Bottiger:

Modifying provisions relating to class K liquor licenses.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 14, restore the stricken material on line 14.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Vognild, we may need an attorney for this one, but . . . ."

"I can see why you are striking line 15 and part of 16, but striking the word 'invited,' I don't see the problem there, Senator."

Senator Vognild: "The problem is that the liquor control board has interpreted the present language to say that invited guests are only those guests who receive a personal invitation or who are personally invited. I know of very few fund-raising efforts of any nonprofit organization that can function on that basis."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, has anyone ever been arrested or fined for being a guest? . . . in other words, if you showed up at one of my shindigs, I would say 'Hi, Larry, come on in.' I would assume, then, you would be an invited guest. Here comes an attorney now."

Senator Vognild: "That probably would work, I have seen it work, if you are not utilizing the extra facilities of any place that presently has a Class H. Now if you are utilizing the extra room at the Eagles, the downstairs at the Elks, away from their regular bar but part of their premises, then the liquor board will come in and shut the whole operation down and they will also fine the club and may even revoke their license and yes, it has happened."

Senator McCaslin: "Are you saying they are a bunch of nit-picking bureaucrats?"

Senator Vognild: "No, I am not saying that."
REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, so we don't lose sight of what we are trying to do. Pantages theater has an opening night. They advertise 'The Pantages theater opening night,' and they would like to sell a glass of champagne to drink a toast to the opening night of the Pantages theater. Can't do it, unless they invite each guest. They don't do that — they run an ad in the paper.

"Same thing would be true of different art museums that have done this.

"And this is the solution, to take out the word 'invited' so that they are the guests and the liquor board, as Senator Vognild says, has found no problem with that."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4703 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Renumber the remaining subsection accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Williams, have you and Senator Guess ever cosponsored an amendment before?"

Senator Williams: "As a matter of fact, I think we have."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "I would like to inform Senator Wilson that we signed on the bill; and this is a little grandfather clause that just makes sure that the contract grows some whiskers."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would like to inform Senator Wilson, if he is surprised, even Senator Guess and I have sponsored amendments together and as a matter of fact, we have sponsored a couple of bills together; and someone said 'Who could be against it?'"

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Fuller, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3025 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Guess, I agree with you on historical preservation — I sponsored the first horseless carriage license bill.

"However, this is something a little bit different. For instance, two lawyers buy a historical building, it is on the register. They remodel it and use it for offices. That would qualify for the tax exemption?"

Senator Guess: "I believe it would. Senator, you have to remember, though, that because of the painstaking nature and the delicate craftsmanship that is required, that they sometimes put three or four times more money into the restoration and creation of offices. I remember Mr. Brooks who is an architect in Spokane, is right in downtown Spokane, has created a very unique office out of an old office building and it is a very, very interesting place."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am thinking of another instance. Our old city hall, the bricks in that, in Tacoma, came over on the Mayflower, or very close to it. Very valuable brick. We sold that building for $17,500. It was renovated into small stores and shops, went broke. Renovated again now into offices for architects and lawyers and various people. Very valuable property, rent wise. This then, would also be exempted? It is on the historical register, by the way. It can never be touched from the outside and has to remain the same; they can remodel the inside. That also would be covered in the tax exemption?

Senator Guess: "Senator Williams would better be able to answer that question."

Senator Williams: "Senator Rasmussen, if the local government has a landmark ordinance, which Tacoma does, and if that building, if no changes are made which would affect the reason that it has been declared a landmark or is a historic building in the first place, as long as those conditions are met and the owner does apply for this tax free, yes, they could then have it granted. Now have I answered your question?"

Senator Rasmussen: "It would then be eligible for the tax exemption?"

Senator Williams: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "For fifteen years?"

Senator Williams: "Yes; tax free."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3025 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 5.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 23, following "The" strike "defendant shall not be imprisoned, but the"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Senator Talmadge, would your purpose be served if the 'shall' were changed to 'need, need not be imprisoned. . .'"?

Senator Talmadge: "That would be just as well, Senator; that would be fine with me."

Senator Clarke: "Would you accept that amendment in substitute for yours, just change the 'shall' to 'need'?"

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, with that in mind I would withdraw my amendment and I would move the Clarke amendment to strike 'shall' and insert 'need.'".

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Fleming: "Senator Benitz, it is old language, but what is the reason for the last proviso that 'No more than two Class J licenses shall be issued in any one given year.' Do you know?"
Senator Benitz: "Yes, this is a special class, Class J, and for special purposes and highly restricted. One member of the House of Representatives, on your side of the aisle, wanted to propose an amendment to make that 'twelve,' and representatives from the liquor board were in my office very promptly with her and convinced her that we should keep it at two, and keep it very restricted."
Senator Fleming: "That is just one they picked out of the hat, there is no real reason for two; it could be three, four, or whatever."
Senator Benitz: "The 'two' is an arbitrary figure but you note that that was put in a couple of years ago when I worked it again with the liquor board and I wanted four or six and we settled on two."

On page 4, following line 9, insert:

"Section 7. Section 51.52.095, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 78, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.095 are each amended to read as follows:

The board, upon request of the worker, beneficiary, or employer, or upon its own motion, may direct all parties interested in an appeal, together with their attorneys, if any, to appear before it, a member of the board, or an authorized ((hearing examiner)) industrial appeals judge, for a conference for the purpose of determining the feasibility of settlement, the simplification of issues of law and fact, the necessity of amendments to the notice of appeal or other pleadings, the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof, the limitation of the number of expert witnesses, and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the appeal. Such conference may be held prior to the hearing, or it may be held during the hearing, at the discretion of the board member or ((hearing examiner)) industrial appeals judge conducting the same, in which case the hearing will be recessed for such conference. Following the conference, the board member or ((hearing examiner)) industrial appeals judge conducting the same, shall state on the record the results of such conference, and the parties present or their representatives shall state their concurrence on the record. Such agreement as stated on the record shall control the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified at a subsequent hearing to prevent manifest injustice. If agreement concerning final disposition of the appeal is reached by the parties present at the conference, or by the employer and worker or beneficiary, the board may enter a final decision and order in accordance therewith, providing the board finds such agreement is in conformity with the law and the facts.

Sec. 8. Section 51.52.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 79, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Hearings shall be held in the county of the residence of the worker or beneficiary, or in the county where the injury occurred, at a place designated by the board. Such hearing shall be de novo and summary, but no witness’ testimony shall be received unless he or she shall first have been sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth in the matter being heard, or unless his or her testimony shall have been taken by deposition according to the statutes and rules relating to superior courts of this state. The department shall be entitled to appear in all proceedings before the board and introduce testimony in support of its order. The board shall cause all oral testimony to be stenographically reported and thereafter transcribed, and when transcribed, the same, with all depositions, shall be filed in, and remain a part of, the record on the appeal. Such hearings on appeal to the board may be conducted by one or more of its members, or a duly authorized ((hearing examiner)) industrial appeals judge, and depositions may be taken by a person duly commissioned for the purpose by the board.

Members of the board, its duly authorized ((hearing examiners)) industrial appeals judges, and all persons duly commissioned by it for the purpose of taking depositions, shall have the power to administer oaths; to preserve and enforce order during such hearings; to issue subpoenas for, and to compel the attendance and testimony of, witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths, and it shall be their duty so to do to examine witnesses; and to do all things conformable to law which may be necessary to enable them, or any of them, effectively to discharge the duties of his or her office.
If any person in proceedings before the board disobeys or resists any lawful order or process, or misbehaves during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same, or neglects to produce, after having been ordered so to do, any pertinent book, paper or document, or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed, or upon appearing refuses to take oath as a witness, or after having the oath refuses to be examined according to law, the board or any member or duly authorized industrial appeals judge may certify the facts to the superior court having jurisdiction in the place where said board or member or industrial appeals judge is sitting; the court shall thereupon, in a summary manner, hear the evidence as to the acts complained of and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the proceedings, or in the presence of the court.

Sec. 9. Section 6, chapter 148, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 22, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.104 are each amended to read as follows:

After all evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by an industrial appeals judge, who shall be an active member of the Washington state bar association, the industrial appeals judge shall enter a proposed or recommended decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The industrial appeals judge shall file the original of the proposed decision and order, signed by him, with the board, and copies thereof shall be mailed by the board to each party to the appeal and to his attorney of record. Within twenty days, or such further period as the board may allow on written application of a party, filed within said twenty days from the date of communication of the proposed decision and order to the parties or their attorneys of record, any party may file with the board a written petition for review of the same. Such petition for review shall set forth in detail the grounds therefor and the party or parties filing the same shall be deemed to have waived all objections or irregularities not specifically set forth therein.

In the event no petition for review is filed as provided herein by any party, the proposed decision and order of the industrial appeals judge shall be adopted by the board and become the decision and order of the board, and no appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts.

Sec. 10. Section 51.52.106, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 58, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.106 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of a petition or petitions for review as provided for in RCW 51.52.104, the proposed decision and order of the industrial appeals judge, petition or petitions for review and, in its discretion, the record or any part thereof, may be considered by the board and on agreement of at least two of the regular members thereof, the board may, within twenty days after the receipt of such petition or petitions, decline to review the proposed decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions. In such event all parties shall forthwith be notified in writing of said denial: PROVIDED, That if a petition for review is not denied within said twenty days it shall be deemed to have been granted. If the petition for review is granted, the proposed decision and order, the petition or petitions for review and the record or any part thereof deemed necessary shall be considered by a panel of at least two of the members of the board, on which not more than one industry and one labor member serve. The chairman may be a member of any panel. The decision and order of any such panel shall be the decision and order of the board. Every final decision and order rendered by the board shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the board’s order based thereon. The board shall, in all cases, render a final decision and order within one hundred and eighty days from the date a petition for review is filed. A copy of the decision and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal and to his attorney of record."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, it is an awful easy way to make a judge. Senator Talmadge, would you reveal to a question?"
"Senator Talmadge, with the title of 'judge' and I suspect that is kind of a status symbol, does that mean any more money or will they . . . ask us for more money?"
Senator Talmadge: "For the record: not at all Senator."
The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, there being no objection, Senate Bill No. 4947 and the adopted amendment by Senators Talmadge, Quigg and Vognild were ordered held for consideration at a later time.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the rules were suspended. Senate Bill No. 3864 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Goltz, if this money is held, would it be held in escrow? I mean, how would the money be held and if the money was being held and the person was found innocent, would he or she gain interest on their money that was being held?"
Senator Goltz: "The appeal does not make provision for, it says 'If the conviction of a member is reversed, then the salary, per diem, and expense amounts denied the member since his sentencing shall be immediately paid to him and the member shall thereafter have the rights and privileges of other members.' There is no provision in here for paying interest on that. . . ."
Senator Fleming: "I guess the question I would probably . . . ."
Senator Goltz: " . . . and I would be glad to have an oral amendment to say 'plus interest.'"
Senator Fleming: "Well, I would like to ask one of the attorneys in similar situations, do we have situations such as this when these awards are made that the person would receive interest on the money, is this common practice?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "My offhand impression is that in the event, the way the bill now reads since there is no specific provision for interest, I do not believe that the court would award interest. I think there would have to be a specific provision including interest in order to make it . . . ."
Senator Fleming: "Well, as one form of practice . . . because I don't think you are practicing in this particular area, maybe you are, one that has been involved, do you think that is something that we should allow in a case such as this, in your opinion?"

Senator Clarke: "That, Senator, is entirely a question of policy as to whether you do or do not want to award interest. It is not a legal proposition, it is a question of policy."

Senator Fleming: "Well, would we be setting a precedent by doing this, I guess that is what I am asking?"

Senator Clarke: "I think the bill in itself probably is setting a precedent all the way through."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Quigg, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4597 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4597 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit a local public agency from promulgating, by ordinance or resolution, restrictions on the sale of fireworks which are greater than those provided by this chapter."
Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Williams, in the reference to 'local public agency,' would that include a tribal governing body?"

Senator Williams: "Senator Ridder, I am not sure that I am qualified to say. The language says 'local public agency.' If that can be construed or if somebody better than I can say that includes tribal agencies. . . ."

Senator Ridder: "I don't know, I hesitate to say I would have reservations, but I would have some concerns about that possibility."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILLIAMS

Senator Williams: "Yes, Mr. President, just to make some final comments on it.
"I am in favor of the idea of having a state maximum restriction in terms of maximum levels of fireworks available in the state. However, it reminds you that the bill is taking away some rights that local governments do have now to make self-determination in terms of tightening down and restricting more than that, if, in fact, they see fit to do so. And also, remind you that the bill does allow fireworks to be used in the state that are not presently allowed, that presently are illegal, as I understand it: Roman candles and perhaps some other things that presently are not allowed in the state.

"So at the same time that we are raising the level of dangerous items that are allowed, we are taking away the ability of local government to maintain at least present level.
"So while I am supportive of the bill, I think we do need to have some ability of a local government to be a little bit more restrictive, if in fact, they see fit. In other words, they cannot go above the restrictions but they can be more restrictive.

"So in answer to Senator Ridder's question about tribal councils, if, in fact, tribal councils were covered by my language, they would not be able to sell things that were more dangerous than what this bill provides for."

The motion by Senator Williams failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the following amendment by Senators Vognild and Zimmerman was adopted:

On page 8, line 8, after "one" strike "hundred thousand" and insert "million"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having given prior notice, on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate moved to reconsider, on a rising vote, the failure of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4759 to pass the Senate on February 17, 1982.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage, on reconsideration, of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4759.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, will this require 60% of those present or 60% of the total membership?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The measure will require 60% of the members elected, a minimum of thirty favorable votes."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Metcalf, I would like to ask you, you referred to something like a 'machine' that apparently got into high gear over night. Who is this? What manner of machine is this? Of what are you speaking? Please."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Mr. President. In answer to Senator Moore and to Senator Talley, no, I didn't mean in any way that the local Eagles were part of the Mafia; I meant a machine, a profit-making machine. I don't think the Mafia is involved in this small-time stuff, but I'll tell you the profit-motive machine is what I meant. And the basic tavern owners are the ones I believe; that is what I was referring to."

Senator Moore: "Well, that isn't what I thought you meant and I will tell you something about the profit-making motive in this country, Senator Metcalf. In this last twelve months, ending December 31, 1981, we have six banking chains in this state, four of them turned in the largest earnings in their history, two of them turned in the second best earnings in their history, and on equity, they are making more money than these taverns, small businesses that you are speaking of; and I just think your argument is totally specious."

Senator Jones, Sellar and Metcalf demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call, on reconsideration, on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4759.

The President signed: HOUSE BILL NO. 385.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4597, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Zimmerman, Vognild and Bauer):
Modifying state fireworks law.
The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4597, as amended earlier today. The following amendment by Senator Rasmussen and Wilson had been moved for adoption at that time:

On page 16, line 13, strike all language down to and including the period on line 14 and insert "((A local public agency shall not charge more than ten dollars as a permit fee for any one year:)) A local public agency is authorized to provide by ordinance for permit fees."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "... I am not sure who I should ask whether it should be Senator Vognild or Senator Quigg, but the question I would like to ask deals with page 6, lines 20 and 21, and in that particular section it says the state fire marshal 'is vested with the necessary police powers to enforce the criminal provisions of this chapter.' I always get very, very nervous when we delegate police powers to anyone and I guess I was hoping someone might be able to tell me a little bit more about why it is necessary to delegate police powers to the state fire marshal."

Senator Vognild: "Is that a question you are asking me?"

Senator Pullen: "Well, since you are so highly regarded for having a great deal of expertise in this area, I would be very pleased if you would be the one who might try to answer it."

Senator Vognild: "I am questioning, after today's action, if I am highly regarded. But nevertheless the fire marshal presently, under law, has the police authority necessary to enforce the various ordinances that he is required to enforce. And I believe that this very simply falls in line with the rest of the fire marshal's ordinances."

Senator Pullen: "Well, you can guess what my next question will be. If he already has the police power, then why are we putting in lines 20 and 21 into the bill?"

Senator Vognild: "I guess I would have to ask you that by simply saying that the code reviser would probably have a better answer than I do."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, the answer is the fire marshal has police power in fire marshal bills. This bill gives him police powers, the same power, in fireworks' bills."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 1, after "visible" insert "or audible"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Senator Pullen, these huge fireworks displays have got to be shot off by people who know their job. This fire marshal checks the qualifications of the men, the men who do the firing of the sky rockets and bombs and such as that."

Senator Pullen: "No, that is not relative to my question. My question is, under the definition of 'common fireworks' at the bottom of page 3 and the top of page 4, the bill defines 'common fireworks' as follows: it 'includes any fireworks which are designed primarily for sale at retail to the public during prescribed dates and which produce visible effects through combustion,' and my amendment would merely add the words 'or audible' effects through combustion."

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Senator Ridder was excused.
On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4597 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4947 as amended earlier today. The following amendment by Senator Lee had been moved for adoption as corrected by Senator Clarke:

A single warrant may be drawn in favor of such financial institution, for the total amount due the recipients involved, and written directions provided to such financial institution of the amount to be credited to the account of a recipient or to be transferred to an account in another financial institution for such recipient. The issuance and delivery by the disbursing officer of a warrant in accordance with the procedure set forth in this section and proper indorsement thereof by the financial institution shall have the same legal effect as payment directly to the recipient.

For the purposes of this section "financial institution" shall have the meaning given in RCW 41.04.240 as now or hereafter amended.

On motion of Senator Lee, the following amendments to the amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 24 of the amendment strike ": PROVIDED, That" and insert "unless the"

On line 29, strike "Further"

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3567, by Senators Craswell, Conner, Quigg and Gallagher:

Fixing rate of increase for harbor area rental fees.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 25, 1981.

SENATE BILL NO. 3567, fixing rate of increase for harbor area rental fees (reported by Committee on Natural Resources):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 7, after "releasing" insert "tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, fresh water harbor areas and tidal"

On page 1, line 8 after "a" insert "tideland, shoreland, beds of navigable waters, fresh water harbor area and tidal"

On page 1, line 10, after "the" strike "harbor" and insert "((harbor)) such"

Signed by: Senators Gallagher, Chairman; Lee, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Vognild, von Reichbauer.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Gallagher, the committee amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously.

Senator Shimpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Shimpoch and Goltz:

On page 1, in line 9, strike "((six))" and insert "twelve".

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Shinpoch, what is so magic about 'twelve'?

Senator Shinpoch: "The magic thing about twelve was that that was the rate of inflation last year when we submitted this amendment."

Senator Moore: "By what index, Senator?"

Senator Shinpoch: "The only one that we normally use around here, and that is the CPI."

Senator Moore: "That is not accurate — twelve is not accurate on this case."

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, neither is six."

Senator Moore: "But six is not the question here; your amendment is twelve."

Senator Shinpoch: "There is absolutely nothing magic about twelve; it was twelve at the time we put this amendment up about ten months ago, the CPI was running eleven, twelve and sometimes thirteen percent a month. We simply picked twelve at that point in time. The amendment has been here for a year, we are finally getting around to the bill and that is what is magic about twelve."

Senator Moore: "Is that twelve percent a month, did you say, Senator?"

Senator Shinpoch: "No, I said on the CPI per month, on the individual month we are running eleven, twelve and thirteen percent about a year ago."

Senator Moore: "On an annualized basis?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Yes, yes."

Senator Moore: "Well, I mean, you didn't make that clear Senator. Now Senator Shinpoch has made it very clear that he picked this out of the air, you know, twelve . . . ."

Senator Shinpoch: "Did you have another question?"

Senator Moore: "I do have a few more, yes."

Senator Shinpoch: "Could we get them now?"

Senator Moore: "Senator, let me ask you this, is this a compounded figure or are you suggesting that it goes up twelve percent a year on the base rate?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, I think the bill makes it very clear that it is on twelve percent a year."

Senator Moore: "So you are saying that this will go up, in other words if a person is paying a thousand dollars a year now, he will pay eleven twenty in the following year? And then another hundred and twenty dollars each year thereafter? And for what period is this intended?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Moore, the same period that the six percent is and it would be calculated on the same basis that the six percent would be calculated."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Senate Bill No. 3567, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senators Shinpoch and Goltz, was ordered held for further consideration on February 19, 1982.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon Senator Ridder's Point of Parliamentary Inquiry, the President finds that Senate Rule 47 in its present form does not specifically refer to the vote of the members of the committee regarding the passage of any measure. However, the President finds that the language contained in subsection 4 and 8 of Rule 47 and the rules of Parliamentary Procedure and of the Senate indicate that when a vote is taken a majority of the members present and voting must vote in favor before a measure is deemed passed.

"Notwithstanding the issue of the number of members voting in favor of a measure, it is quite clear that the majority report must contain the signatures of a majority of the total membership of the committee."
"The President respectfully suggests that the Senate consider examining Senate Rule 47 to determine if clarification of Senate Committee Voting Procedures is warranted."

MOTION BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. In view of the fact that it is rather obvious that the President in referring the bill to rules was acting without knowledge of the fact as recited by Senator Ridder, I move that, in order to correct the error, with the consent of the Senate, the record be corrected to show that the bill is still in social and health services committee."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RIDDER

Senator Ridder: "Thank you, Mr. President. And Senator Clarke, thank you. I appreciate that and as I expressed earlier, I am pleased also that we have the opportunity to clarify our procedures at a time in which it is not a bill on which we might become polarized on a partisan issue. I thank you."

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 137 was returned from the Committee on Rules to the Committee on Social and Health Services.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Kiskaddon, you caught my attention when you talked about a cigarette tax that was apparently put on for a specific purpose? And is now being left on, is that correct?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "It has been left on for quite some time, yes."

Senator Vognild: "Where will that money be going now?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "The general fund."

Senator Vognild: "I think I will support the bill but I would like to point out that apparently what we have done here is another one of the dedicated taxes that was put on for a purpose, is now going to be left on and rolled into the general fund; and I think we should all be aware of that."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4707 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILLIAMS

Senator Williams: "Mr. President, I was just looking at that RCW. The penalty is $100 and/or 30 days in jail."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "I stress again that in order for there to be a crime, there has to be a criminal intent, so obviously it does not apply in situations where workmen are working and inhale the vapor."

SENATE BILL NO. 4748, permitting breweries and wineries to conduct courses in beer and wine (reported by Committee on Commerce and Labor):

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Benitz, I need a little more information. You are allowed to instruct licensees on the subject of beer or wine, they may furnish beer or wine, I guess that has been deleted, they will have to buy that.

"What type of instructions do they need to pour wine out of a jug? Most of them hook their little finger in it and throw it over their shoulder and gurgle. I don't know whether you have some definite ideas what they are going to instruct in."

Senator Benitz: "Senator Rasmussen, we are not interested in teaching those people any further perfection of their habits but we are interested in teaching people the differences in wine and the courses, what you can expect from the taste to go with the food that makes good food better; that is what we are attempting to address here."

Senator Rasmussen: "This includes California wine?"

Senator Benitz: "It could include California wine but it is not likely; wholesalers, and certainly the manufacturers of Washington state wine will be interested in promoting their own. I would guess about the only reason we would use California wine is to prove the superiority of the Washington state wine."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, thank you, Senator Benitz. I just wanted to know. I have seen a lot of wine on the shelves and people just go eenie, meenie, miney, mo and gurgle, gurgle, and there we go."

Senator Haley: "Is there anyone here who is on duty?"

Senator Bottiger: "Yes, there is, Senator Haley, there is one member of this legislature who is a member of the United States military service. If we do not enact this bill repealing this whole section, then I presume that a captain in the United States Army National Guard would not be eligible to serve."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Williams, you have passed out to each member a very interesting draft which shows a large increase in the volume of cubic feet of low-level radioactive waste, and in 1981, we are up to 1,600,000 cubic feet. Could you tell me how many curies of radioactivity that is?"

Senator Williams: "No."

Senator Pullen: "Okay, well, the only reason I would ask is that as you know the volume of material really doesn't mean too much, it is the total intensity of the radiation that is really significant. For example, you yourself are radioactive. A lot of people don't realize this but potassium is an essential element of every human being and potassium has one naturally occurring radioactive isotope. So in this room right here I would estimate there are several hundred cubic feet of radioactivity and yet the number of disintegrations per second, expressed in curies, is really the key factor that one should be interested in."

Debate ensued.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

"Repealing Article VI, section 1A (Amendment 46); Repealing Article XXII; and Amending Article II, section 34 to read as follows:
Article II, section 34. There shall be established, in the office of the secretary of state, a bureau of statistics( agriculture and immigration,) under such regulations as the legislature may provide."

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 142 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered he third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Pullen, if this is passed by the people, will this totally remove all previous language from the Constitution as it is printed in the future?"

Senator Pullen: "No, not at all. All this does is remove obsolete language dealing with three sections of the Constitution. We could have selected more but we didn't want to go too far in trying out the keyhole method of amending the Constitution. This goes, I think, just far enough that it will be manageable for the voters, but at the same time will eliminate some clutter in the Constitution."

Senator Vognild: "I don't believe I made my question clear, let me try again. My concern is, if this is approved by the people, it will remove this particular language, having been amended, totally from the Constitution and it would not show in the Constitution, the original language, any place."

Senator Pullen: "Well, no, it would completely remove the language from the Constitution, but in all the printed forms of the Constitution that I have ever seen, they always show the old language in italics for completeness and for historical purpose."

Senator Vognild: "Okay, that relieves my mind a little. I would hate very much to see the original language ever totally removed, italics, or some way shown that it has now been amended, I agree with; but not totally removed from that kind of a document."

Senator Pullen: "Right; you need not worry, there will be a continuous record."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 142 and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Ridder,
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3921, by Senators Goltz, Gallaghan, Wilson and Sellar:
Extending scope of legislative ethics law and establishing a statute of limitations for complaints thereunder.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Goltz, the question I had with respect to this bill was, was it your intention to make the provisions of this act retroactive?"

Senator Goltz: "It is not the intention to make it retroactive."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Senator Goltz."

On motion of Senator Goltz, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3921 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Senator Goltz, I haven't followed this very closely but I do have this question: what if you do find that a former legislator or employee has been in violation, what if any thing can you do about it? A member can be brought to the attention of the body and be disciplined and so forth; but someone who is no longer with us, if we do find something, how do we have jurisdiction doing anything about it?"

Senator Goltz: "Well, we have the same jurisdiction that we have over members, and you say that we can reprimand. We can reprimand a former member or a former employee just as we can reprimand a current member. And I would suggest that the reprimand of a former member may be just as much a punishment or restraint as to reprimand a member.

"So we do have those options available to us under the current law. We also have the power to require restitution if there was anything to be returned."

Senator Clarke: "How do you enforce restitution?"

Senator Goltz: "Well, you could enforce that, I think, through the courts. But we do have the responsibility under our present law to require restitution if that is an appropriate thing to do."

Senator Clarke: "Well, yes, you can enforce restitution as to a member by disciplining him if he does not comply. I do think, however, that..."

President Cherberg: "Senator Lysen will state his point of order."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lysen: "I thought we were on the consent calendar. Does this qualify for the consent calendar, Senator Clarke? I think we have kind of gone beyond the realm of the consent calendar here. I think it should be either..."

Further debate ensued.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3921 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 11; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Guess, Hansen, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Vognild, Woody—11.

Excused: Senator Conner—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 3921, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1981—45

By Senators Goltz, Charnley, Bluechel and Fuller:

WHEREAS, The Pacific Northwest Trail is one of several interstate wilderness trails in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Pacific Northwest region is abundantly blessed with natural beauty, especially in its mountains and forests; and

WHEREAS, The enjoyment of the region's natural environment through involvement in outdoor recreational activities is an important part of the lives of many of the residents of the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The establishment and maintenance of trails is essential to provide access to wilderness areas; and

WHEREAS, The Pacific Northwest Trail offers a unique opportunity to experience the variety of nature in the Pacific Northwest region by linking this state's natural areas with those of neighboring states;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That the administration and Congress are urged to recognize the valuable contribution to outdoor recreational activity made by the Pacific Northwest Trail by including it within the national trail system; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States, the Secretary of the Interior, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the State of Washington.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Goltz, I certainly support this concept. My question is, what happens when a trail is added to the national trails system and a portion of the trial crosses private property?"

Senator Goltz: "Senator Wilson, there is no condemnation authority granted by this memorial whatsoever. This simply makes it possible for the various units of government and private property owners to participate and cooperate in putting this together. I do not think there would be any possibility of any unit of government entering into a condemnation procedure over private property."

Senator Wilson: "So the participation of private landowners would be entirely voluntary?"
Senator Goltz: "It would be entirely voluntary, as I understand it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BLUECHEL

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Concurring with Senator Goltz that this is an outstanding project, and to answer further the questions by Senator Wilson. Most, at least of the large property owners have volunteered to assist in this type of trail and have worked out any of the problems that may be encountered. As a matter of fact, over the last few years we have passed bills to protect just such volunteer allowing of passage over the land by various timber owners and other landowners.

"And I would suggest that this trail encompasses something for almost everybody in this chamber here because there are very easy parts and there are very difficult parts and some parts of this are spectacularly beautiful and you can get to them within a simple, less than an hour's walk."

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the resolution was adopted.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4119, by Senators Zimmerman, Fleming, Patterson and Bauer: Authorizing tax increment obligations.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Senate Bill No. 4119 was rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3915, by Senators Lee, Hurley and Vognild:

Establishing the recreation guide revolving fund.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3915.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lee, at least Senator Clarke and I have been noticing the number of new revolving accounts that are being created by departments in the state, and I notice here is another one.

"As I understand this, there is $70,000 comes out of the general fund and then this revolving account will live on the sale of the guides that it sells. If it doesn't sell enough to make the next reprint, then the thing is just down the tube."

Senator Lee: "I would suggest that that would be the case, it would have to come, they would have to find some other means of funding it. It is assumed that it will, first of all repay the loan from the general fund and from then on be self-sustaining."

Senator Bottiger: "So we have no legislative oversight and there is nobody that is going to check the FTEs, the thing will just go on and on and on as long as they can sell it. This is a kind of private enterprise bill."

Senator Lee: "You will notice that the engrossed bill does have an amendment that was proposed by the committee that does get OFM into the act so that we can keep track of what is going on. And also to, hopefully, look at other agencies so that duplicative publications can be removed from state funding."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3915 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Moore, Shinpoch—3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bauer—1.

Excused: Senator Conner—1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4846, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the bill.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4708, by Senators Jones, McDermott, Deccio, Bottiger, Benitz and McCaslin (by Horse Racing Commission request):

Implementing laws relating to horse racing.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Scott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4708 was substituted for Senate Bill No 4708 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, following line 28, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as amended by Section 1, chapter 39, Laws of 1973, 1st ex. sess. and RCW. 67.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person making application for license to hold a race meet, under the provisions of this chapter shall file an application with the commission which shall set forth the time, the place, the number of days such meet will continue, and such other information as the commission may require. The commission shall be the sole judge of whether or not the race meet shall be licensed and the number of days the meet shall continue. No person who has been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude shall be issued a license, nor shall any license be issued to any person who has violated the terms or provisions of this chapter, or any of the rules and regulations of the commission made pursuant thereto, or who has failed to pay to the commission any or all sums required under the provisions of this chapter. The license shall specify the number of days the race meet shall continue and the number of races per day, which shall be not less than six nor more than ten, and for which a fee shall be paid daily in advance of ((one)) five hundred dollars for each day for those meets which had gross receipts from parimutuel machines in excess of fifty million dollars in the previous year fifty million dollars in the previous year and two hundred dollars for each day for meets which had gross receipts from parimutuel machines at or below fifty million dollars in the previous year; in addition any newly authorized race meets shall pay two hundred dollars per day for the first year:

PROVIDED, That if unforeseen obstacles arise, which prevent the holding, or completion of any race meet, the license fee for the meet, or for a portion which cannot be held may be refunded the licensee, if the commission deems the reasons for failure to hold or complete the race meet sufficient. Any unexpired license held by any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any of the rules or regulations of the commission made pursuant thereto, or who fails to pay to the commission any and all sums required under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to cancellation and revocation by the commission. Such cancellation shall be made only after a summary hearing before the commission, of which three days' notice, in writing, shall be given the licensee, specifying the grounds for the proposed cancellation, and at which hearing the licensee shall be given an opportunity to be heard in opposition to the proposed cancellation."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 9 after "affected." insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6, This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Scott, just today I had a telephone call from a constituent, and he has read about the number of million-dollar days out at the horse track and he suggested that one way the state could achieve some money would be to put an additional ten percent surcharge on the daily handle. Do you suppose that the ways and means committee could prepare that and get it adopted on the other side? It would certainly provide a little bit of money to help out in the tough straits that we are in. I am sure the people that play the horses, the gentlemen's name is Mr. Davis, a very sincere individual, people that play the horses pay and play, would not object to that additional tax because they don't know what happens anyway. Could you arrange that please?"

Senator Scott: "I read your letter, Senator, to that effect. I suggest that you deal as vigorously with Morrie Alhadeff as I just dealt with Senator Deccio and Senator Durkan and we will be all set."

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, following "67.16.020;" insert "amending section 6, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as amended by section 1, chapter 39, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.16.050;"

On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4708 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Scott, I think I heard something that Longacres is going to get sixteen days and Playfair is going to get six days? Is that the old division of the stew, are you going to bring a horse and a rabbit? Why did we get short-changed so much?"

Senator Scott: "What do you mean 'we,' Senator?"

Senator Guess: "Spokane."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Scott, would you consider this a gambling bill?"

Senator Scott: "I am a 'revenuer,' not a gambling man — I can't afford to."

Senator Vognild: "One further question, Senator Scott. Is there anything in this bill that limits the betting so that people will not be spending their entire paychecks at the race-track?"

Senator Scott: "Ten thirty at night and you want to try that one on? I don't believe so, Senator. The rules of the game are changed, the constituents and fellow citizens have the same access to all the tracks that they have had lo these many years."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Could you tell me whether Senate Bill 4708 takes a 60% constitutional majority?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Substitute Senate Bill 4708 takes a constitutional majority of the members elected. It does not require 60% majority."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Scott, I am fully aware, as I am sure you are, that there is currently pending, an application for harness racing and a new track at Auburn. And my question is, if that license is granted by the horse racing commission and the track at Auburn is created, will they have to come back here to get their days of meet and if so, looking at the inverse income tax which you have in this bill, will we then have the harness races competing with the Longacres' days, or will they be competing with Playfair and Yakima?"

Senator Scott: "Senator Bottiger, the horse racing commission suggests the number of days, yes, we have to approve them. I suspect those who are looking at harness race proposition will be negotiating with both the other three tracks and the commission and we'll find out about it after the fact."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator Scott, correct me if I am wrong, but it occurs to me that if the harness racing or Arabian Horse Racing Association or any additional organization supplies the licenses, are we really talking about two hundred dollars a day ... a hundred dollars a day, is that correct?"

Senator Scott: "That is correct — assuming they are under the $.50,000,000 handle."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4708 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 7; excused, 1.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.
On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 4907.

SECOND READING
SENATE BILL NO. 4907, by Senators Rasmussen, Jones and Deccio:
  Increasing additional tonnage for garbage trucks.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4907 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Rasmussen, since you have been acknowledged as the all-time 'great red herring,' I am sure that you probably recognize one when you hear one; was that one you just heard?"
Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it was loaded in the garbage truck but it kind of sounded like it was a red herring, all right."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Guess, I don't know very much about garbage trucks either excepting the ones that come by my house. But I am wondering if you could give me something to relate this to, a two-axle or a three-axle, I guess I don't exactly know how big it would be, how long it would be. Could you give me some of those 'for instances'?'"
Senator Guess: "Senator Hurley, the eighteen wheelers which you see on the highway, are normally standard loaded to 72,000 pounds. The normal truck that the garbage is hauled on, is limited because of a short wheelbase, of about 34 feet — the other truck is about 72 feet, 70 feet, rather.
"The weight there is limited to, normally, 40,000 pounds on the front and back axles. The shorter the wheelbase, the more concentrated the load. But the damage, I suppose, is done because of a very short area over which you impose the load, will make the failure occur. When you stretch it out over the long and put the eighteen tires on the ground, you are keeping your pressures to the point that you are only giving 500 pounds per inch width of tire. Now I am afraid that is a little technical; but if you have a tire on the ground that you have to have the sufficient width on there to hold the thing up, the larger the truck, the larger the print that the tire makes on the ground, the better the load is spread.
"So what they try to do is design each one of these vehicles according to the standard and this just exceeds those standards by several thousands of pounds."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senator Goltz was excused.
On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Sellar was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 4907 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 30; excused, 3.
Excused: Senators Goltz, McDermott, Sellar—3.
SENATE BILL NO. 4907, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4919, by Senators Quigg, Hemstad and Fuller (by Department of Employment Security request):
Making an appropriation to employment security department.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4919 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Quigg, my understanding of the main problem with employment security these days, is that a large number of employees whose responsibility was to try to bring unemployed people and jobs together, were eliminated because of federal curtailment. My question is, two questions, first is, is anything being done about that problem? And the second question is, will this 2.8 million dollars, to what extent will it be of real help to unemployed people, and to what extent will it simply make the department's life easier?"

Senator Quigg: "First question, Senator Wilson, this bill does not address the layoffs at the job service center. There is another bill that is moving through that does that. It does it through an appropriation from the trust fund rather than a general fund appropriation. And that is at the request of the employment security department.

"In answer to your second question, the processing of employment security department information, including claims, is not as efficient as it could be and if that is made more efficient and if we can more quickly and accurately make claims determinations and administer employer contributions, the trust fund will have more of the premiums paid in, kept in it, because of the more effective collection of effort by the department to see that employers are in compliance with their premium obligations and benefits pay-out will also be monitored more closely and effectively with this kind of equipment.

"So the net is for both employers and employees for the deserving out-of-work employee, there will be a larger fund from which to draw. And from the employer's standpoint, the employer can be better assured that when the employer is paying his fair share, that he is not going to be subsidizing somebody else, another employer who isn't, because the department will be able to accurately track both the premium and the benefits side of the department's operation."

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4562 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator von Reichbauer, this is the kind of bill that looks real good on the surface, but I always wonder about these kinds of bills. Is it really going to save us that $500,000, and do we have any provision to go back and take a look a year or two from now to see if it really works? I think that is a critical point, the legislative follow-up and oversight on this, because we are giving, we are consolidating power in the bureaucracies in other states far beyond our reach. So I would really like to be reassured that there are some plans to review this in the next year or two."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Lysen, you are a member of the Senate transportation committee and while you have only had a chance this session to only attend one meeting of all our committee hearings, I am sure that if you come to attend our meetings, you will appreciate the oversight responsibilities the Senate transportation committee has."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4917, by Senator Kiskaddon:
Redefining superintendent of public instruction position on state board of education.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4917 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kiskaddon, you are an experienced counselor. Do you feel inhibited somewhat serving in the Senate and having the President of the Senate, being it is Lieutenant Governor Cherberg who was elected statewide by all the people of the state by an overwhelming margin? I just wondered if that inhibited you in some way, and you felt that the Senate was not properly doing its work because the Lieutenant Governor was elected statewide?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "I do not feel inhibited; however, if the Lieutenant Governor was the one that set our agenda every day, that, I think, could make a difference, that we do set our own agenda even though he is part of the rules committee, that we do have the ability to have the sense of setting our own agenda."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, thank you, Senator Kiskaddon."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Kiskaddon, we are trying to fix, evidently, some problem that the legislative budget committee in their audit, found or perceived in the relationship between the board, executive secretary being hired by the superintendent. What are the dynamics of that problem, and how is this going to fix that problem, or hopefully fix it?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "My understanding the perception of the audit committee person was that the superintendent basically hired the staff and he set the agenda and so in essence, had complete control of most of the basic functions of what the board was doing and the recommendation of the audit was that the board would have some bit of a separate entity, in fact it went much further than this bill, that it would recommend that they could could hire their own secretary as a person of their choice rather than just use the person that the superintendent had described for them and so that they would have a little bit of a sense of independence from the superintendent."

Senator Lysen: "I guess my concern would be, you mean a board member is not able to get things placed on the agenda at his request? It would seem to me that that would be a basic courtesy, a requirement that the superintendent and his staff would be quite responsive to the board members. Is this the point here where the problem is?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "I think that the audit was looking from the technical way of seeing it. At the present moment there does not seem to be any major problem between the board and the superintendent as far as setting an agenda. I would sense that if you did ask, it would be put on. And yet, as any of you who have been chairman of a committee will know that the way you schedule an agenda and the way you do things can have quite a bit of an effect on what the outcome is. And so the sense of the report that I had was that they believe that there would be a more effective operation of the board if there was a little more sense of balance between who is in charge."

Senator Lysen: "Well, I think my response is and what my concern would be to that, is that, I don't think we should have two competing bureaucracies here, and the superintendent has the authority and I guess maybe that is all right because he is elected by the people and if we don't like it, we can change him. And to set up another competing organization."
President Cherberg: "For what purpose does Senator Clarke rise?"

Senator Clarke: "I don't think, Mr. President, the question-and-answer situation should be used in order to circumvent the three-minute rule and I have had an exchange here of debate, as it were, when I am not sure anybody much is listening to it."

Senator Lysen: "Senator Clarke, how could you say that?"

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, Senator Lysen has nine seconds left."

Senator Lysen: "Does his time count against my time?"

President Cherberg: "Yes. You have nine seconds, Senator."

Senator Lysen: "Well, I think I have made my point, or Senator Kiskadden clarified the situation to me and I thank you, Senator."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 20; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator McDermott—1.

By Senators Lysen, Shinpoch, Bottiger, Talley, Conner, Williams, McDermott, Metcalf, McCaslin, Goltz, Ridder, Vognild, Hughes, Talmadge, Gaspard, Fleming, Quigg, Fuller, Patterson, Hemstad, Gould, Zimmerman, Peterson, Rasmussen, Wojahn, Hurley, Moore, Charnley, von Reichbauer, Lee and Wilson:

WHEREAS, The voters of the sovereign state of Washington overwhelmingly approved Initiative 394; and
WHEREAS, The Washington Public Power Supply System, which is limited by Initiative 394, is a municipal corporation of the sovereign state of Washington, and is subject to laws of this sovereign state; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of the state of Washington, in their wisdom and sovereignty, and in spite of over 1.2 million dollars spent to defeat their initiative, overwhelmingly chose Initiative 394 as the legal vehicle by which to protect their electricity costs, the state's credit rating, and our economic stability; and

WHEREAS, The Bonneville Power Administration is a federal agency which has contracted to purchase power from the utilities participating in the first three WPPSS plants, in contracts which explicitly recognize that WPPSS is a municipal corporation created and empowered by this legislature, and subject to all the laws of this legislature; and

WHEREAS, The bond fund trustees have filed a lawsuit naming the sovereign state of Washington as defendant, in an effort to have Initiative 394 declared invalid; and

WHEREAS, The Bonneville Power Administrator, Mr. Peter Johnson, has indicated his intention to allow the plaintiffs to charge the costs of their effort to overturn the law of the sovereign state of Washington to WPPSS, which would require that Washington state ratepayers pay the costs for the plaintiffs at the same time they are funding the Attorney General in his effort to enforce the law of this sovereign state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That the efforts to charge the electric ratepayers for the costs of a lawsuit against this law enacted by the people of this sovereign state be declared contrary to the public policy of this sovereign state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to each member of the Washington Congressional delegation, to the Bonneville Power Administrator, and to the Attorney General.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Senator Lysen, I know you and Senator Quigg are going to have a hearing in Longview on Monday night. I have had reports that in Aberdeen, you publicly advocated the shooting or hanging of some PUD commissioners: is this true?"

Senator Lysen: "That is not true, Senator Talley."

Senator Talley: "Thank you very much."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended and any member may sign as an additional sponsor to Senate Resolution 1982—181.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on Senator Resolution 1982—181.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, as you know the Constitution says that the one body of the legislature cannot adjourn for more than three days without permission from the other body.

"At one time you made a ruling that a day constitutes the period when the sun rises to when the sun sets, yet on another time I got the impression it was twenty-four hours. I was wondering if you could clarify for us whether we can adjourn until one o'clock on Monday?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that you can if a majority of the members of the Senate agree."

SENATE BILL NO. 4612, by Senators Gallaghan, Vognild and Haley:
Authorizing private salmon release-recapture facilities.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SENATE BILL NO. 4612, authorizing private salmon release-recapture facilities (reported by Committee on Natural Resources):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 13, line 16, after "(8)" strike all material down through and including "department" on line 24 and insert the following:

"If the director determines that activity under a permit is significantly depleting a salmon run or game fish population he shall so notify the permittee, amend the permit as necessary to prevent further depletion and prescribe action by the permittee to restore the affected run or population to its pre-depletion level. If the permittee fails to implement the prescribed action the department shall do so, and the permittee shall be liable for the cost of such action. The director may amend his action prescription and further amend the permit as he determines is necessary to achieve restoration.

(9) If activity under a permit causes any environmental degradation other than depletion of a salmon run or game fish population the permittee shall be required to correct or mitigate such degradation. If the permittee fails to do so the department shall take such action and their permittee shall pay the costs of said action.

On page 14, line 34, after "43.88 RCW" strike ", but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from the fund"

On page 15, line 3, after "director" strike the period and insert ", subject to legislative appropriation."

Signed by: Senators Gallaghan, Chairman; Lee, Patterson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Gallaghan, the committee amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously.

On page 2, line 14, after "sources." insert "The primary objective of this new industry is to produce a profit for investors and only secondarily to enhance the existing recreational and commercial fisheries."

Debate ensued.

Senator Gallaghan demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Peterson.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 35; absent or not voting, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Talley—1.

Senator Peterson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 18, after line 17, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of fisheries for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Lysen: "If this amendment were to hang, would that require this bill to go to the ways and means committee? Maybe I could ask the majority leader that question. This would make it an appropriation measure. Senator Scott, Senator Hayner. What is the rule on that? This amendment hangs, several hundred thousand dollars; would this bill be required to go to the ways and means committee?"
REPLY BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, normally anything over about $50,000 does go to ways and means. It is not required to."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Scott, this amendment is for a $200,000 appropriation to the department of fisheries to implement the salmon ranching program. The bill is not an appropriations matter but if this amendment passes, would you insist or request or require this measure to go to your committee to review the fiscal impact given the financial situation of the state?"

Senator Scott: "... the answer is 'No,' I would not insist. At the same time, to be forthright I would say that the standard rule here is, original bills having over $125,000 in them, by convention have gone to ways and means. Here we have an amendment, so no I won't insist."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I know that things do move around here from day to day and I would just like to know from the majority leader over there, is this a new rule you are setting, this $50,000 limit? Because last week we had a couple of them out here less than that; a week before we wanted to send them to ways and means and you resisted. So I just wanted to know if this was one of those soft ones again, or is this one of those hard and fast ones?"

Senator Hayner: "I do not think there ever has been any hard and fast rules, Senator Fleming. I don't think you had one, nor do we."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Peterson failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 23, beginning with "While" strike everything through "state."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senator Talley was excused.

Senator Lysen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On pages 2 and 3, following the period on page 2, line 32, strike everything through line 2 on page 3.

Debate ensued.

Senator Gallaghan demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Lysen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.
On motion of Senator Gallaghan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4612 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Gallaghan, is this bill a department of fisheries' request bill, or an executive request bill in any way, shape or form?"

Senator Gallaghan: "If it is, I am not aware that it is so, no, I would say it is not."

Senator Talmadge: "Did the director of the department of fisheries testify in favor of this bill?"

Senator Gallaghan: "He was not there."

Senator Talmadge: "Has he indicated a position on the bill?"

Senator Gallaghan: "I would like to, I was going to get to that point. I can only tell this body that shortly after the last session when we had a meeting with the director and the private salmon growers of the state of Washington, the director was asked what his position would be on ocean ranching again if those things that he was concerned about were addressed, he would have no further objection to that type of an operation. Very tight piece of legislation that he could accept because we did, indeed, address those points that he had the concern with."

Senator Talmadge: "His present position now is in opposition to the bill, though, is it not?"

Senator Gallaghan: "He has not spoken to me in that regard at all, no."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Gallaghan, in the absence of the amendment that I offered which would have provided seed money to enact this measure, to start it, is it the intent of the legislature that we should take enhancement money from other programs to fund ocean ranching?"

Senator Gallaghan: "Absolutely not."

Senator Peterson: "One further question then. The bill states that the department shall provide surplus eggs to the best of their ability. This, I assume, would be surplus to all the needs of the existing state-run hatcheries, is that right?"

Senator Gallaghan: "True; that is correct."

Senator Peterson: "Okay; well, one final comment Mr. President and members of the Senate. I think, Senator Gallaghan, you called the bill just what it was or what it is. You said it was 'corporate welfare,' and that is just exactly what we are doing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Gallaghan, I did not catch a response from you to Senator Lysen's question which was fairly specific about the placement of the fish weir or traps, in the immediate vicinity of the facility. Can you assure the members of the Senate that by that language it would not be a situation in which one of these fish traps extended across a stream, or across the mouth of a stream, or river, in the state of Washington, if this bill should pass?"

Senator Gallaghan: "I would rather imagine that it would not extend across the entire stream if there was a wild run of fish on there. That outfit is going to have to protect them. And the way I read this and it is still in there says 'This subsection does not authorize the construction or operation of a weir, seine, net or other recapture mechanism outside the immediate vicinity of the facility. I would rather imagine that would be on the side like we do, they do in Oregon that way, they do in Alaska that way, to allow those fish to not be totally restrained within a restrained system.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Gallaghan, how would you split this return to the ranching facility on the Indian catch?"

Senator Gallaghan: "I beg your pardon, Senator?"

Senator Peterson: "How would the allocation to the Indians come into the return, to the weir?"

Senator Gallaghan: "If I understand the question correctly, that probably would be, in my mind, a part of the allocation formula. Those fish are in the open water for both, either and/or, to catch. That group of fish that may or may not return after they have run the fishing season, directed by the director of the department of fisheries, he cannot manage the fishery in such a manner, it says right in there, in order to get an escapement for any particular ocean ranch. That is in there.
I would rather imagine that those would be counted as part of the catch. Now the reason I think they should be, too, is that they paid for them, they have the facility, they have the risk, when they return they should therefore be their property under the direction of the department of fisheries, I might add."

Senator Peterson: "Does the director have the authority to keep the Indian fishermen away from the return, recapture facility?"

Senator Gallaghan: "Only for conservation measures I rather imagine. You know, you are bringing up a very sticky wicket where who knows, what that may or may not be? I think that that is a determination that needs to be made by the court, however, like we have done in other things."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Gallaghan, speaking on the issue. I foresee down the line some place, the issue becoming where. . . . how far from the returning area, do the rules pertain. Do they pertain at the mouth of the river? Do they pertain upstream? Do we go to the 3-mile limit? Or how do we determine where those fish can be taken?"

Senator Gallaghan: "I don't want to play on words, but 'immediate' to me means right where I am and my facility would be. This body is going to be in session every single year and I rather imagine there is going to 400,000 sport fishermen out there watching what is going on, all the commercial fishermen are going to be watching how it is managed, and I have no fear that the department is going to run over all the people in this state that are interested in that resource merely because it might expand. Everything we do expands or contracts it when the legislature is in session. I don't know if that answers the concern, or was it a question or statement?"

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 2, chapter 273, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever used in chapter 28B.15 RCW:

(1) The term "institution" shall mean a public university, college, or community college within the state of Washington.

(2) The term "resident student" shall mean (a) a financially independent student who has had a domicile in the state of Washington for the period of one year immediately prior to the time of commencement of the first day of the semester or quarter for which he has registered at any institution and has in fact established a bona fide domicile in this state primarily for purposes other than educational (purposes) or (b) a dependent student, if one or both of his parents or legal guardians have maintained a bona fide domicile in the state of Washington for at least one year immediately prior to commencement of the semester or quarter for which the student has registered at any institution: PROVIDED, That a nonresident student enrolled for more than six hours per semester or quarter shall be considered as attending for primarily educational purposes (only), and for tuition and fee paying purposes only such period of enrollment shall not be counted toward the establishment of a bona fide domicile of one year in this state unless such student proves that he has in fact established a bona fide domicile in this state (for) primarily for purposes other than educational (purposes)."
(3) The term "nonresident student" shall mean any student who does not qualify as a "resident student" under the provisions of RCW 28B.15.011 through 28B.15.014 and section 4 of this amendatory act, each as now or hereafter amended. A nonresident student shall include:

(a) A student attending an institution with the aid of financial assistance provided by another state or governmental unit or agency thereof, such nonresidency continuing for one year after the completion of such semester or quarter.

(4) The term "domicile" shall denote a person's true, fixed and permanent home and place of habitation. It is the place where he intends to remain, and to which he expects to return when he leaves without intending to establish a new domicile elsewhere. The burden of proof that a student, parent or guardian has established a domicile in the state of Washington primarily for purposes other than educational lies with the student.

(5) The term "((minor)) dependent" shall mean a ((male or female)) person who is ((not deemed and taken to be of full age and majority for all purposes under RCW 26.28.010, as now law or hereafter amended; the term "emancipated minor" shall mean a minor whose parents have entirely surrendered the right to the care, custody, and earnings of such minor and whose parents no longer in any way support or maintain such minor)) not financially independent. Factors to be considered in determining whether a person is financially independent shall be set forth in rules and regulations adopted by the council for postsecondary education and shall include, but not be limited to, the state and federal income tax returns of the person and/or his parents or legal guardian filed for the calendar year prior to the year in which application is made and such other evidence as the council may require.

(6))) The terms "he" or "his" shall apply to the female as well as the male sex unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 273, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.013 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The establishment of a new domicile in the state of Washington by a ((qualified)) person formerly domiciled in another state has occurred if such person is physically present in Washington primarily for purposes other than educational and can show satisfactory proof that such person is without a present intention to return to such other state or to acquire a domicile at some other place outside of Washington.

(2) ((Except as provided in subsection (3)(d) of this section, an unemancipated minor shall be classified as a resident student only if such minor's parents or legally appointed guardian or person having legal custody shall have established a domicile in this state.

(3))) Unless proven to the contrary it shall be presumed that:
The domicile of an unemancipated minor is that of such minor's father, or if no father, that of such minor's mother, or if there is a legally appointed guardian, that of such guardian: PROVIDED, That if one parent has legal custody of the minor, the domicile of such minor shall be that of such parent except as otherwise provided in subsection (3)(d) of this section.

The domicile of any qualified person, including a married woman, shall be determined according to the individual's situation and circumstances rather than by marital status or sex.

A person does not lose a domicile in the state of Washington by reason of residency in any state or country while a member of the civil or military service of this state or of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this state or of the United States or of the high seas if that person returns to the state of Washington within one year of discharge from said service with the intent to be domiciled in the state of Washington; any resident dependent student who remains in this state when such student's parents, having theretofore been domiciled in this state for a period of one year immediately prior to the time of commencement of the first day of the semester or quarter for which the student has registered at any institution, remove from this state, shall be entitled to continued classification as a resident student so long as such student's attendance (except summer sessions) at an institution in this state is continuous.

The establishment of a domicile in the state of Washington in accordance with the provisions of this section by the parent of a parent-qualified student shall entitle the student to classification as a resident student.

To aid the institution in deciding whether a student, parent, legally appointed guardian or the person having legal custody of a student is domiciled in the state of Washington (the following rules shall be applied) primarily for purposes other than educational, the rules and regulations adopted by the council for postsecondary education shall include but not limited to the following:

- Registration or payment of Washington taxes or fees on a motor vehicle, mobile home, travel trailer, boat, or any other item of personal property owned or used by the person for which state registration or the payment of a state tax or fee is required (is conclusive) will be a factor in considering evidence of a Washington domicile.
- Attendance at an institution with the aid of financial assistance provided by another state or governmental unit or agency thereof is conclusive evidence of a failure to establish a Washington domicile.
- Permanent full time employment in Washington by a person will be a factor in considering the establishment of a Washington domicile.

- Any person not a citizen of the United States cannot establish a Washington domicile until such person is eligible and has applied for an immigration visa, unless such person is the dependent minor of a parent or legal guardian who is domiciled in Washington.
- After a student has registered at an institution such student's classification shall remain unchanged in the absence of satisfactory evidence to the contrary. A student wishing to apply for a change in classification shall reduce such evidence to writing and file it with the institution. In any case involving an application for a change from nonresident to resident status, the burden of proof shall rest with the applicant. Any change in classification, either nonresident to resident, or the reverse, shall be based upon written evidence maintained in the files of the institution and, if approved, shall take effect the semester or quarter such evidence was filed with the institution: PROVIDED, That applications for a change in classification shall be accepted up to the thirtieth calendar day following the first day of instruction of the quarter or semester for which application is made. Any determination of classification shall be considered a ruling on a contested case subject to court review only under procedures prescribed by chapter 28B.19 RCW.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 273, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.014 are each amended to read as follows:

((Regardless of age or domicile, the following shall be entitled to classification as resident students)) The following nonresidents shall be exempted from paying the nonresident tuition and fee differential:

Signed by: Senator Scott, Chairman; Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Haley, Hayner, Jones, Lee, Zimmerman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the committee amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Mr. President, is it possible to divide the question? A motion was made to accept the amendment as presented by the committee. This amendment contains many sections dealing with quite a variety of subjects and I would be curious to know if the question could be divided so we could consider some of these subjects individually?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Charnley, this amendment strikes everything after the enacting clause and the President doesn't see how the question could be divided. Possibly you could achieve your objective by offering amendments to the amendment."

Senator Charnley: "Thank you, Mr. President."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Scott, I would like to ask you two questions at this point because I may want to prepare an amendment, depending upon the answer.

"Have the number of credits which a community college student can take been extended also to eighteen so the community college student and the 4-year institutional students are treated exactly alike?"

Senator Scott: "The regulation is uniform, Senator Goltz."

Senator Goltz: "On page 20, line 30, if I read the bill correctly, that section applies only to the 4-year institution; and I couldn't find a similar section for the community college student, but if it is in there . . . ."

Senator Scott: "My understanding the explanation to the committee was the eighteen which was offered by Senator Patterson with the amendment was inclusive of all students."

Senator Goltz: "The second question I have is relative to the status of waivers for children of fire fighters and law enforcement officers who are killed or totally disabled in line of duty. Has that particular waiver been eliminated?"

Senator Scott: "The answer is that it has, Senator."

Senator Goltz: "It has been eliminated?"

Senator Scott: "It was among the list of need-based waivers, and again if you will refer to page 63 of your summary you will see that covered."

Senator Goltz: "And one final question, going back to the maximum number of credits, I would like an explanation, if possible, of whether or not this ought to be a revenue-generator or a cost-saver or the motivation force, because it seems to me that one of the objectives ought to be for us to encourage people to use the facilities to the maximum to get out of the institutions as quickly as possible by taking as many credits as they can possibly take and pass; and to put it at eighteen makes it sound like we are going to generate some additional revenue, but in reality we may keep those students in college and universities longer than they should be there."

Senator Scott: "Senator Goltz, those students taking more than the eighteen hours in a given quarter semester at 4-year institutions, comprise less than 10% of the whole. I would respond in two ways: (1) the traditional number of hours considered a load has been fifteen; to the extent that the student is taking more than that, be it eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-five, he is getting a greater subsidy than the average student. He is paying less money, in effect, for a greater number of hours of credit.

"So with regard to the revenue question, the amount of revenue loss is minimal, less than $2,000,000 so the motivation is not to collect revenue, it is to provide a basic equity in the amount of dollars per credit hour paid by an given student."

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Metcalf, Bottiger, Gaspard and McDermott to the committee amendment:

On page 9, after line 31, insert on the following line a new paragraph to read as follows:

"(3) Military personnel residing or stationed in the State of Washington and spouses and dependents of such military personnel."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Scott, could you tell me what the practice is in other states of the nation with regard to military personnel and like in this situation. Do they, indeed, give those people the same courtesy of the resident tuition or do they charge them nonresident?"

Senator Scott: "Senator Charnley, there are roughly thirty states that give exemptions for military people and/or for their spouses and dependents. I venture to guess quite apart from the quality, policy question, that each and every one of them is better off fiscally than the state of Washington to date."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Scott, I understand the military serviceman in the furtherance of a program that is endorsed by the base commander does have 75% paid; in other words if he is working on advancing himself, he would have to be in a program that has been approved. Is that correct?"

Senator Scott: "You are accurate, Senator. Anything that would fall into the general and rather liberally construed basic requirements or professional enhancement, he is not going to get that for an avocational course, etc."

Senator Bottiger: "My question is more concerned with his children. What would be the change in rate for the child of that military service from resident to nonresident?"

Senator Scott: "The difference between resident status and nonresident status in the community colleges is the difference of roughly 50% — the difference between $175.00 and $300.00 a quarter."

Further debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Scott, has your fiscal note taken into account servicemen who would wait, as you say, because they couldn't afford the tuition during the first year so they wait until they become resident status?"

Senator Scott: "No, it has not, Senator. It was on actual numbers not on a supposition of how many people would wait a year. The basic here and the issue that is going to recur through another three or four amendments before us is, are we going to have need-based waivers for which there is 4% of the tuition amount set aside or are we going to go back to the prior system of individual exemptions?"

Further debate ensued.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Guess, I was contacted by some wheat farmers over there who are concerned about the coal emission, the SO2 emissions from this plant. They claim that it will be a 10% reduction in their wheat crop due to this plant being put in. And so I am concerned about that impact. Have you heard anything about that or is this bill in any way, is this going to deal with that when you say 'mitigate the cost' are you talking about that 10% reduction in wheat that they are concerned about?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Lysen, in all of my life in public office I have never seen a company more concerned and spent more time and more money in mitigating and making sure that they did not do any environmental damage. I assure you that they have hired the very best of brains, their design is the high state of the art, and it should produce a very fine quality product."

Senator Lysen: "I am reassured by your comment when you said they hired the very best of brains. I recall WPPSS did the same thing, I am sure and we didn't quite solve the problem.

"I am sure the electricity will be of high quality. Coal electricity will be a much higher quality than the so-far WPPSS' electricity has been but the concern is the environmental impact, in this case of the local industry which is the wheat ranches that surround it. And I understand they are so concerned that they have raised $60,000 to help get input on the environmental impact statement and so forth.

"Will this mitigating issue be taken into consideration, is what I am concerned about?"

On page 1, line 20, after "transportation." On the fourth line of the amendment, strike "forty-five" and insert "fifteen"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator von Reichbauer, does this mean two miles around or two miles from either end of the runway?"
Senator von Reichbauer: "That is in the bill, I am just talking about the amendment now. The amendment we are dealing with now is the question of notification of whether 45 days or 15 days. We are not dealing yet with the distance. I will answer that when we get to that part of the amendment, we are now just dealing with the oral amendment."
Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I am speaking to that, too. I think shortening that up to 15 days; first place, there is a lot . . . . a plat is filed and maybe doesn’t even have a chance of getting approved. But you are going to have all plats filed with the department of transportation even before it has been processed by the planning commission, and I am just wondering about the huge amount of paper work that you are going to have involved there. More particularly if it is two miles surrounding any airport, there could be lots of plats filed in that area, so I don’t know if that is considered in the bill."
Senator von Reichbauer: "Again, Senator Rasmussen, we are dealing now with the oral amendment and I will gladly discuss the merits of that question of the distance around the airport when we deal with the bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator von Reichbauer, the committee amendment that you are amending, the reason that we put that amendment on in committee, from 15 days to 45 days, was that there was concern in testimony in the committee that 15 days was an unreasonably short period of time for them being able to get out and respond.

*Now your oral amendment, the substitute amendment, we are taking it right back to the original bill and I would like to know why after the testimony that was received in the committee, why you are reverting back to the original language when we had testimony that said that they needed that extra time?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "In consultation with the department, we were told that 15 days was adequate time for them to respond to the issue. This is subsequent to that meeting. As it happens I was not present at that one meeting of the committee on transportation; but in communication with the department, we were advised that 15 days was adequate time to respond. People that asked for 15 days response rather than 45, was obviously the folks who were directly affected by the Washington Association of Realtors."

Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator von Reichbauer carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.
The motion by Senator von Reichbauer carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Lee, I think it is important to set forth legislative intent as far as this being a new program is concerned. Is it your intent that this should be a new program which will cost money beyond our current expenditures?"

Senator Lee: "Senator Pullen, it is not the intent that this cost any additional funds. It is simply a provision that authorizes the superintendent of public instruction to, in fact, work with private groups and existing agencies. In fact, the first 'whereas' says 'The legislature has previously recognized that child abuse and sexual exploitation has existed and has enacted legislation,' so this is simply a means of carrying out an existing program."

ROLL CALL

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4418, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Senator Deccio):

DSHS—financial responsibility.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418 from earlier today. At that time, the Secretary had commenced reading an amendment by Senator Deccio. On motion of Senator Talmadge, the amendment and the bill were ordered held for later consideration.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, there being no objections, amendments by Senator Talmadge on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate were withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Deccio, the following amendment was adopted:

Beginning on page 4, line 15, strike all material down through line 12 on page 16.

Renumber remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.

On page 45, line 29, strike all material down to and including "Title 43 RCW."

On line 30.

Renumber remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 40, line 14, after "RCW 74.09.010." insert "No co-payment, deductible or co-insurance requirements shall be imposed on federally matched medical assistance programs unless mandated by the federal government."
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Deccio, we had, in social and health services and I think it passed out for action in the rules committee, the study resolution on mandated coverages. And I think one of the provisions of that was that we should not go ahead with additional mandated coverages until we had gone ahead with the study. Am I not correct on that? And would this not fall under a mandated coverage?"

Senator Deccio: "No, I don't think this would have any effect on the coverage that is now provided by any insurance company. It really says that whatever those costs are that are incurred, that there will be a co-payment on the part of those recipients. So this really has nothing to do with the resolution that we have dealing with mandated coverages."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator McDermott.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—25.

On page 38, line 18, after "section, RCW" delete "6.16.020 and"
On page 38, line 19, after "chapter" delete "((s))"
On page 38, line 19, after "6.12" reinstate the stricken material
On page 39, line 15, after "under RCW" strike "6.16.020 and"
On page 39, line 16, after "chapter" delete "((s))"
On page 39, line 16, after "6.12" reinstate the stricken material

Senator Deccio moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 40, line 14, after "74.09.010" insert "but shall not establish co-payment, deductible or co-insurance requirements for legend drugs as defined in RCW 69.41.210"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Deccio failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Deccio, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 45, after line 34, insert a section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. A joint select committee on financial responsibility for residential and nonresidential services shall be created. A report of the findings of this study shall be submitted to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate no later than January 17, 1983, along with recommendations for legislative action."

On page 2, line 25 of the title, strike "adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW;"
On page 2, line 25 of the title, after "43 RCW;" insert "creating a new section;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, before we consider that amendment, I wonder if Senator Deccio would yield to a question?

"Senator Deccio, on page 42 of the bill, line 25 in section 51, language has been deleted which puts in the office of support enforcement; it looks like the effect of this is to put support enforcement in the position of going after everybody. This language that was deleted, says 'No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state hospital for the developmentally disabled as defined in chapter 72.33.' Now that would say that they can go after support enforcement for all children except these. We have now taken that exemption out which it seems to me says the department then has the power to go after the parents of developmentally disabled children. Is that the intention of this particular provision of the bill?"

Senator Deccio: "Senator McDermott, I cannot answer that for you at the moment but I would be very happy to check it and get back to you with the answer."

Senator McDermott: "Perhaps we ought to set the bill down then for a moment?"

Senator Deccio: "That's fine."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, there being no objection, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418, as amended, will be held for consideration at a later time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 4944.
SENATE BILL NO. 4944, by Senators Gallaghan, Zimmerman, Guess, Hansen, Peterson and Newhouse: Modifying provisions on oil and gas.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Scott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4944 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4944 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 9, after line 15, insert:
"(3) The committee and the department are strictly prohibited from granting permits authorizing drilling, whether slant-drilling or otherwise, in or affecting the waters of Puget Sound without prior authorization of the legislature."

Debate ensued.

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator McDermott.

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 26; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, von Reichbauer—2.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, line 9, after "others" insert ": PROVIDED That any interest in coal, oil and gas, and other minerals, shall, if unused for a period of twenty years be extinguished and the ownership shall revert to the then owner of the surface rights out of which it was carved: PROVIDED FURTHER, That after the effective date of this act mineral rights shall not be separated from surface rights in any deed, deed of trust or other writing providing for the ownership of property".

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, what I fear here is that this is the state entering into the private arena to take the property of one and give it to another for unjust enrichment or for condemnation without any reimbursement. Makes no difference what the court said in the Indiana case, it still leaves me with a great deal of apprehension that we are walking in the area that has had no testimony in committee. There are thousands of people that this thing would affect, and I am sure if they had known that this was in the bill, then we would have heard from them. But we have not had testimony on it."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, for eighteen years I have heard from the railroads and the coal companies and the timber companies that exact argument. And that was addressed by the United States Supreme Court just last January. And it says that that argument doesn't hold, that the state can require people to pay taxes on 'property they own,' and they have never paid; they can require them to use them or lose them which they have never done; and the argument was clearly before the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court turned it down."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Bottiger, the question I had in particular was the doctrine of adverse possession in this state which says that if you use a piece of property contrary to the ownership of the actual owner, it becomes your property after a period of ten years."

"Why wouldn't the doctrine of adverse possession apply to the mineral rights in effect that you are talking about in your amendment, why wouldn't the right become that of the person in adverse possession after ten years instead of twenty?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, as you are aware, in order to have adverse possession you have to conduct an act detrimental to the right of the property owner. So unless you went out and drilled and started extracting oil and got away with it for ten years, you wouldn't have done the adverse act that was necessary."

Senator Talmadge: "To pursue, Senator Bottiger, why wouldn't the opportunity to simply use my property without interference from another person, use my property in the full sense of the word, entitle me to bring an action to clear title when those mineral rights haven't been used for long periods of time, far beyond ten years?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, in responding, I don't know. The body of law as I understood it when we held all the other hearings is, these are valid and they are there and we tried to tax them, we tried to do everything else; we were never able to get it through the legislature."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Gaspard demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Bottiger.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Deccio, Newhouse—2.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

INTRODUCTION OF GUEST

Senator von Reichbauer announced the presence in the Senate today, Tom Flick, former University of Washington football star.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418, as amended, from earlier today.
SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4418, by Committee on Social and Health services (originally sponsored by Senator Deccio):

DSHS—financial responsibility.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418 as amended earlier today.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment by Senators Fleming, Talmadge and McDermott was adopted:

On page 42 beginning on line 10, strike all of section 51:

MOMENT OF SILENCE OBSERVED

At the request of Senator Peterson and in conjunction with the House, the Senate observed a moment of silent prayer at 12:15 p.m. for the recovery of the young son of Representative Fiske.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment by Senators Fleming, Talmadge and McDermott to the title was adopted:

On page 2, line 16 of the title, after "74.20.040" strike all material through "74.20A.030;" on line 18.

On motion of Senator Deccio, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Deccio, as you know, a while back the body accepted an amendment exempting the volunteer fire departments, and so forth, from inspection or licensing fees applied by DSHS. It is my understanding that after that amendment was adopted, you proposed an amendment which was adopted which took out the whole passage that I had just amended. And if that is true, did you take out any authority for the DSHS to charge for licensing and inspecting emergency vehicles?

"And I guess my question really is, does the bill in the present form permit the department to begin charging inspection and licensing fees to entities such as the volunteer fire departments with respect to their aid, first aid, and ambulance vehicles?"

Senator Deccio: "Senator, what now exists is what existed before this bill was written. Any sections that we took out would automatically revert to present law.

"Now the answer to your question fully, I don't know just exactly what jurisdiction the department had over those entities. If they did have under present law, that still exists."

Senator Wilson: "If the department did not have the authority to charge such fees previous to the passage of this bill, it will not have that authority following the passage of this bill?"

Senator Deccio: "That would be correct. If there was no authority in the present law, then with that passage out, why the state would revert back to the status quo, whatever that might be."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Mr. President and members of the body."
"In additional response to Senator Wilson's question, I would like to state that the fiscal note which enumerates the fees and licenses that can be added, does not include those that you are concerned about. So the answer would be 'No,' that does not include those."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Gallaghan, Pullen—2.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "An editorial from the Edmonds paper is being passed out without the name of a Senate sponsor on that, which is in contravention to the Senate rules, and I feel if we are going to enforce the rule the material should be picked up."

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I distributed the article and I have on, the sheet that I sent, I had distribution in the Senate and signed my name. And then I turned it in and when they folded it over, they folded that over, and so I am sorry, they made an error, I didn’t. And if there is any question on who distributed it, I did, and I did have it signed."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Gallaghan, in reading the bill and in reading the synopsis, I agree. I think it is a good piece. I am just wondering why it is limited to Hood Canal? We have many other areas, particularly Padilla Bay, in which there is taking of shellfish and crab and so forth. Could you explain to me why this is limited to Hood Canal and not made for all state waters?"

Senator Gallaghan: "That's a very interesting point. It is because that is the way they wrote it and we had no one testifying against it. I agree with you it should be in all waters of the state. There are occasions on the coast where large commercial pots would not be able to be pulled by anyone and I believe the isolation, and the biggest problem has been occurring in the Hood Canal area. That, the shrimp pots, and it is the greatest majority of those people that request the legislation."

Senator Charnley: "All right, thank you very much. I guess I will and urge the members to support it, but I am disappointed that there wasn't a question raised in the committee that maybe we should, if it's good and good in Hood Canal, it should be good everywhere. Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 46 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Zimmerman served notice that he would, at the proper time, move for reconsideration of the vote by which the amendment by Senator Bottiger to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4944 was adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, we were on the second reading of that bill, we passed off to another bill and have since enacted two bills since that period of time. And I raise the point of order that there has been intervening business and therefore the notice is too late."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I believe the practice has been that the Senate could reconsider the vote on any amendment at any time prior to final passage of the bill. I submit, therefore, that the notice is timely."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President will take the remarks of the individual Senators into consideration and try to have a Ruling when the Senate convenes again."

MOTION

At 12:14 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate recessed until 7:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 7:30 p.m.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hayner, every day I come out here and on my desk are missiles. Today Senator Pullen has two of them, yesterday it was a whole package, and I am wondering is there any limit to how much we can each run the Xerox machine and distribute the Communist Manifesto and editorials from the Tribune, and a whole bunch of things. Is there any limit, or are we all free to just run the thing 'til it comes off its wheels?"

Senator Hayner: "Senator Bottiger, I think that might be a nice thing to take up before the operation and facilities committee meeting."
MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "At least in my bill book for the floor, the amendments from the House are not even present."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator Clarke, I can't find it on my desk, I have thrown all of the Pullen material away and maybe I threw it away, too, but, could you set it down? Normally you have given us a little bit of a warning when we are going to concur on something."

Senator Clarke: "I am informed they had some trouble with the Xerox machine and they are on part of the desks but not the rest, so with the permission of the Senate, we will delay action until such time as they have been circulated to each member."

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I understand the amendment is now on the desk and ready to proceed with the message from the House."

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, I don't know who to ask the question, is it you, Senator Scott? They have, in their amendment on page 3, for instance, line 16, stricken the word 'recovery' instead of 'emergency recovery.' Can you give me a definition of what an 'emergency' is, in terms of the meaning of this bill?"

Senator Scott: "Senator, it was defined in the early part of the bill. I would have to get my bill book out to read it to you, but it was defined as 'limited time duration' and specific to this project."

Senator McDermott: "I do not see that language in the bill.
"I think, Senator Scott, in talking with staff, I have clarified it for myself; maybe I can answer my own question."

Senator Scott: "Well, I think it is included in the specs set out in section 3 and also in section 5 where it refers to SEPA."

Senator McDermott: "Yes, I recognize that. The question was the use of the word 'emergency,' and I now recognize that in order to use their emergency powers under the act, once they declare an emergency and tell the department of ecology, they can then go ahead and do so on an emergency basis."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Scott, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4510.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senator Gaspard was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4510, as amended by the House.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4510, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Senator Zimmerman: "Mr. President, having given notice and having voted on the prevailing side, I now move for reconsideration of the Bottiger amendment to Substitute Senate Bill 4944."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "On Senator Zimmerman's motion, I believe we are on the wrong order of business to make that motion. We are not currently on the sixth order, and therefore the bill is not before us."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Bottiger's remarks are well taken."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4510.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.
POINT OF ORDER

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4944.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Actually, the President has to answer a parliamentary inquiry first, Senator.

"In responding to the point of parliamentary inquiry raised by Senator Bottiger, the President finds that senate rules provide that a motion to reconsider the vote upon which an amendment has been adopted, may be considered by the body at any time while the bill is still on second reading.

department of revenue shall deposit monthly in the general fund sixty-five and two-tenths percent of the money collected by it under section 25 of this act.

(2) The local government severance taxation account is hereby established in the general fund into which thirty-four and eight-tenths percent of the severance taxes collected under section 25 of this act shall be deposited monthly. This account shall be for the purpose of holding and making distributions of all severance tax revenues deposited in the account to those counties in which oil and gas production activity occurs. The state treasurer shall distribute monthly to each such county a percentage of the money deposited in this account equal to the county's proportionate share of the total oil and gas production in the state, as determined by the department of revenue.

(3) The treasurer of each county which receives a distribution under subsection
(2) of this section shall establish an energy impact assistance account within the county current expense fund into which all such distributions to the county shall be deposited. Moneys in this account shall be disbursed to the county, and to cities and special purpose districts within the county, as determined by the energy impact

(4) There is hereby created in each county in which oil and gas production consider the socio-economic impacts described in subsection (4) of this section and distribute funds from the county energy impact assistance account or, if a joint committee, from the participating counties' accounts, to mitigate those impacts to the maximum degree possible from the revenues available. Excess revenues not needed to mitigate socio-economic impacts shall be returned to the current expense fund of the county to which the revenues were initially distributed.

(7) The distribution formula provided for in this section shall be subject to legislative review during the 1985 regular legislative session.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Benitz, if Shell Oil ever comes to the time they want to release the knowledge they have and we don't [price little], (sic) I call them
'wildcatters' and was chastised for it, but I still call them 'wildcatters,' will be drilling right across the line in Yakima county. Senator Deccio will profit from that end. At least, I think if there is oil found it will be found in all of those sagebrush countries over there that don't get to participate in the timber tax outside of the portion that goes to the state. Sixty-six and two-tenths percent of this goes to the state so if one county could get more powerful or more rich than the state, they would just be more frugal with their percentage than the state is with their’s.

"Senator Sam, I am surprised at you. I really am — talking about redistribution of wealth at your age? I can’t believe it. And you know well and good that when, if any of these wells do come in, the county will write a bill to the OFM, it will be just like writing a bill to Santa Claus. And I have seen a lot of them written. Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Charnley demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Prior to each fiscal year the director shall calculate the amount of taxes which would be collected under this act and adjust the sales and use tax rate accordingly for the fiscal year."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Talmadge were adopted:
In sub(a), line 6, following "by" strike "certified" and in sub(b), line 1, after "for" strike "certified"

Reletter the remaining items.
Debate ensued.
The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted.
Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 6, line 26, following "service" strike "or public program".

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator McDermott: "Senator Lee, is there a fiscal note for this bill?"
Senator Lee: "There is not a fiscal note, and if your next question is 'How are we going to pay for this service?', there was a specific appropriation made in the budget that we passed, the biennial budget, and that appropriation remains, the software and so on is currently being put on line and the next step is the programming. And therefore this is the important time for this determination to be made so that that programming includes everything we really want to have, otherwise they have to go back and add it at other times."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Lee, the money that you refer to in the budget for tracking system, was that money in the budget for the division of mental health? Or was it the whole of DSHS?"

Senator Lee: "The money is in the budget for the division of mental health. However, as you are probably aware, at the time when you do programming, when you decide what you are going to put on that computer, develop your software package, that is the time to determine what you want to use for your total matrix; costs you money if you have to go back and do it, in fact doesn't cost any more to put those little extra bites in at the beginning and the actual implementation, however, putting it on line and putting all the information into it, so that it is indeed usable, won't really be up to speed until the next biennium rolls around."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, there being no objection, the amendments to page 8, following line 36 and page 12, line 9 on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, were withdrawn.

Senator Haley moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

- On page 6, section 4(f), line 27 after "program." insert "provided under this chapter."
- On page 6, section 4(g), line 32 after "license" insert "entities as" and after "providers" strike "(who)" and insert "which".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Haley failed and the amendments were not adopted.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:

- On page 7, following line 11, insert a new subsection as follows:
  "(6) The department shall propose in its biennial budget document the formulas used to distribute available resources to county authorities for the priorities listed in subsection (4)(b) of this section. The formula shall be based on the needs assessment required by section 5(1) of this act."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Haley moved adoption of the following amendment:

- On page 8, section 5 (3), line 25 after "which" insert "protects client confidentiality and"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Haley failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Kiskaddon moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Kiskaddon and Talmadge:

- On page 8, line 33, after "act" insert ", EXCEPT THAT county authorities serving a county or combination of counties whose population is equal to or greater than that of a county of the first class shall be entitled to sufficient state-appropriated community mental health funds to employ up to one (1) full-time employee or the equivalent thereof in addition to the 2% limit established in this subsection when such employee is providing staff services to a county mental health advisory board".
FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1982 1085

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Kiskaddon, as I read your proposed amendment, you are talking about entitlement of state-appropriated mental health funds. How does that entitlement take place? Is that something that they get from other appropriated funds that other counties would have or is this an extra appropriation that the state would have to make?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "My understanding, the goal of the amendment is that each county, in essence, is entitled to 2% of the money they get for administration.
This says that if they have a mental health advisory board, they will be able to get enough extra money to fund up to one full-time employee that would be used for the purpose."

Senator Goltz: "From whom do they get this extra money?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "From the state. It would be the same, they would be getting from the state, the 2% for administration plus the extra for this person, also."

Senator Goltz: "Well, this sounds to me like an appropriation bill. I wonder if this is really a backdoor appropriation? I think I would vote against the amendment on the basis that it is, in effect, committing the state to funds without having a budget in front of it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Kiskaddon, how many members, how often does a mental, county mental health advisory board meet? How often do they meet?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "That would be up to the work of the county to be an effective advisory board and one that would be understanding enough about what is going on. I would sense that they would need to meet once or twice a month and be able to have subcommittee meetings and working on other groups, so any board that would be effective towards really an input would have to put a fair amount of time in on it."

Senator Zimmerman: "I guess I am concerned about the fact that a board would meet once or twice a month, would not need a full-time person to be able to serve them. It seems to me that we could get into an incredible problem if we, for every advisory board that we offer or suggest at county level, that we would have full-time person serve that board. It could really be at a great deal of, additional money. I think we have a lot of voluntary boards that work in certain capacities on a lot of things, but certainly we don't expect a full-time person to be available to service them. I guess I am concerned that there would be a cost here that is really beyond measure and if we really aren't including it here, I guess I would have some questions about the amendment."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Kiskaddon failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Lee moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, line 1, insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A joint select committee on community residential beds for the mentally shall be created. Such committee shall study the types and locations of current residential bed resources. The committee shall also develop a community residential beds needs plan, which shall include alternative types of residential settings."
The speaker of the house of representative and the president of the senate shall appoint the joint select committee composed of six members of the house of representatives and six members of the senate, three members of the majority caucus and three members of the minority caucus each. A report of the findings of this study shall be submitted to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate no later than January 17, 1983, along with recommendations for legislative action.

Renumber remaining sections.

On motion of Senator Lee, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On the first line of the amendment, following "mentally" insert "ill"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Lee carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Haley, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 12, after line 6, insert the following:

"Sec. 15. Section 5, chapter 50, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 170, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.01.454 are each amended to read as follows:

On page 12, beginning on line 9, strike "by reason of mental infirmity"

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 16, after line 14, insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) There is created a joint committee on community residential care to conduct a comprehensive study of the need for additional community beds in group homes, adult family homes, congregate care facilities, nursing homes and in-patient psychiatric facilities to serve the mentally ill, aged and chemically dependent residents in the state. The committee shall be bipartisan in nature and shall be composed of four senators appointed by the president of the senate and four representatives appointed by the speaker of the house.

(2) In conducting its study, the committee shall consider, but not be limited to, the following areas:

(a) Population trends;
(b) Projections of bed need; and
(c) Capability of existing reimbursement mechanisms to finance additional community bed capacity.

(3) The committee shall hold meetings and hearings at the times and places it designates to accomplish the purposes of this section. It shall make use of existing legislative facilities and the staff of the house and senate and the legislative budget committee."
(4) The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than January 1, 1983.

On motion of Senator Haley, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 23 of the title, after "69.54.090;" insert "amending section 5, chapter 50, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 170, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.01.454;"

On motion of Senator Deccio, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Lee, you half-way answered my question but not entirely. Now that we have gone through the debate and we have turned down most of the amendments that I thought most of them were good, I would like to know, for Senator Goltz' edification and my own, what have we done? Or what will we do if we pass this bill, for the mentally ill?"

Senator Lee: "I think that is an appropriate question on final passage because the bill, as it came out of the committee, is essentially intact. And what that bill does is to set up a uniform system of community mental health care by saying that the state is the agency that sets the minimum standards and requirements for licensing and contracts.

"Then we say it is the counties' responsibility to contract for the community mental health services from licensed service providers. And that the county itself may not set up its own program, it is there, in fact, as a licensed provider in that community. So the county isn't putting somebody out of business that is already there providing the service.

"We also say that if the county doesn't do its job or doesn't wish to, then in that case and that case only, then the state becomes, in fact, the county mental health authority.

"One of the reasons that these lines of responsibility have not been clear for some time is because the community mental health act grew by having individual groups within communities get together and say, 'Well, we want to provide a community mental health program.' They, in turn, went directly to the federal government for federal funding. After that, then, the state started providing funding, and so on. So it grew like Topsy and so we have now cleaned up the system. We know who is responsible for what; we will be able to take care of those folks that were, shall we say, kicked out of Northern State Hospital, know where they are, clear responsibility that says they shall be taken care of and this is what this bill does. It hopefully stops that revolving door and gets the care provided that all of us wish to see provided."

Senator Peterson: "Well, Senator Lee, we are going to study this thing some more. We are going to leave those people out there. This bill doesn't do anything to take care of them; we are going to study it some more, isn't that right?"

Senator Lee: "No, sir. The study portion was not adopted. There aren't any studies in this bill at all."

Senator Peterson: "But you said there wasn't any fiscal impact."

Senator Lee: "That is correct."

Senator Peterson: "How can we take care of the mentally ill without a fiscal impact?"
Senator Lee: "One of the things we discovered when we put a lid, for example, on the county administration and the amount of money that the state would repay out of community mental health funds, I asked the staff, I said 'Let's assume that this bill had been in place when this budget year began. Where would the money have gone?', and we found that in every case, if this bill had been in place, that the people who provide service to the mentally ill out there in the community, the mental health providers would have gotten from one-third to two times as much money to actually provide that service than what they are now receiving."

Senator Peterson: "You lose me some place along the line because the federal funds are being kept for the mentally ill and you say there is no fiscal impact on the state budget in this bill. If there is no fiscal impact, then we are not doing a damned thing for the mentally ill."

Senator Lee: "It uses current funds, it rearranges them so that they get to the folks that need the help and doesn't get siphoned off in administration. It also does what the federal block grant funding from Congress says we now must do, which is to provide a process for those funds to go to the communities. Well, it used to go directly from the Feds to the community and they now go from the state to the community. Well, this sets up the process to be sure that they get there."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 4, 1982.

HOUSE BILL NO. 357, modifying provisions on the preservation and destruction of public records (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 241, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 54, Laws of 1973 and RCW 40.10.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide for the continuity and preservation of civil government, each elected and appointed officer of the state shall designate those public documents which are essential records of his office and needed in an emergency and for the reestablishment of normal operations after any such emergency. A list of such records shall be forwarded to the state archivist (and director of the department of emergency services) on forms prescribed by the state archivist. This list shall be reviewed at least annually by the elected or appointed officer to insure its completeness. Any changes or revisions following this review shall be forwarded to the state archivist (and director of the department of emergency services). Each such elected and appointed officer of state government shall insure that the security of essential records of his office is by the most economical means commensurate with adequate protection. Protection of essential records may be by vaulting, planned or natural dispersal of copies, or any other method approved by the state archivist (and director of the department of emergency services). Reproductions of essential records may be by photo copy, magnetic tape, microfilm or other method approved by the state archivist. Local government offices may coordinate the protection of their essential records with the state archivist (and director of the department of emergency services) as necessary to provide continuity of local government under emergency conditions."
Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 54, Laws of 1973 and RCW 40.10.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The state archivist is authorized to reproduce those documents designated as essential records by the several elected and appointed officials of the state and local government by microfilm or other miniature photographic process and to assist and cooperate in the storage and safeguarding of such reproductions in such place as is recommended by the (director of the department of emergency services) state archivist with the advice of the director of the department of emergency services. The state archivist shall coordinate the essential records protection program and shall carry out the provisions of the state emergency plan as they relate to the preservation of essential records. The state archivist is authorized to charge the several departments of the state and local government the actual cost incurred in reproducing, storing and safeguarding such documents: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall authorize the destruction of the originals of such documents after reproduction thereof.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 4, chapter 32, Laws of 1981 and RCW 40.14.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, public records shall be classified as follows:

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 51, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 40.14.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Inventory, or manage the inventory, of all public records at least once during a biennium for disposition scheduling and transfer action, in accordance with procedures prescribed by the state archivist and state records committee: PROVIDED, That essential records shall be inventoried and processed in accordance with chapter 40.10 RCW at least annually.
(3) Consult with any other personnel responsible for maintenance of specific records within his state organization regarding records retention and transfer recommendations.

If a particular agency or department does not wish to transfer records at a time previously scheduled therefor, the records officer shall, within thirty days, notify the archivist and request a change in such previously set schedule, including his reasons therefor.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 52, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 40.14.060 are each amended to read as follows:

((Official public records shall not be destroyed until they are either photographed, microphotographed, photostated, or reproduced on film, or until they are seven years old, except on a showing of the department of origin, as approved by the records committee, that the retention of such records for a minimum of seven years is both unnecessary and uneconomical, particularly where lesser federal retention periods for records generated by the state under federal programs are involved: PROVIDED, That)) (1) Any destruction of official public records shall be pursuant to a schedule approved under RCW 40.14.050. Official public records shall not be destroyed unless:

(a) The records are six or more years old;

(b) The department of origin of the records has made a satisfactory showing to the state records committee that the retention of the records for a minimum of six years is both unnecessary and uneconomical, particularly if lesser federal retention periods for records generated by the state under federal programs have been established; or

(c) The originals of official public records less than six years old have been copied or reproduced by any photographic or other process approved by the state archivist which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original.

(2) Any lesser term of retention than ((seven)) six years must have the additional approval of the director of financial management, the state auditor and the attorney general, except ((where)) when records have federal retention guidelines the state records committee may adjust the retention period accordingly((: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That)). An automatic reduction of retention periods from ((ten to)) seven to six years ((as provided for in this 1973 amendatory section)) for official public records on record retention schedules existing on the effective date of this 1982 act shall not be made ((as to records on existing record retention schedules)), but the same shall be reviewed individually by the state records committee for approval or disapproval of the change to a retention period of ((seven)) six years.

Recommendations for the destruction or disposition of office files and memoranda shall be submitted to the records committee upon approved forms prepared by the records officer of the agency concerned and the archivist. The committee shall determine the period of time that any office file or memorandum shall be preserved.
and may authorize the division of archives and records management to arrange for its destruction or disposition.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 5, chapter 54, Laws of 1973 and RCW 40.14.070 are each amended to read as follows:

County, municipal, and other local government agencies may request authority to destroy noncurrent public records having no further administrative or legal value by submitting to the division of archives and records management lists of such records on forms prepared by the division. The archivist and the chief examiner of the division of municipal corporations of the office of the state auditor and a representative appointed by the attorney general shall constitute a committee, known as the local records committee, which shall review such lists and which may veto the destruction of any or all items contained therein.

A local government agency, as an alternative to submitting lists, may elect to establish a records control program based on recurring disposition schedules recommended by the agency to the local records committee. The schedules are to be submitted on forms provided by the division of archives and records management to the local records committee, which may either veto, approve, or amend the schedule. Approval of such schedule or amended schedule shall be by unanimous vote of the local records committee. Upon such approval, the schedule shall constitute authority for the local government agency to destroy the records listed thereon, after the required retention period, on a recurring basis until the schedule is either amended or revised by the committee.

(No public record other than office files and memoranda of any local government agency shall be destroyed until it is either photographed, microphotographed, photostated, or reproduced on film, or until it is seven years old, and) Except as otherwise provided by law, no public records shall be destroyed until approved for destruction by the local records committee. Provided, that where records have federal retention guidelines the local records committee may adjust the retention period accordingly; provided further, that official public records shall not be destroyed unless:

1. The records are six or more years old;
2. The department of origin of the records has made a satisfactory showing to the state records committee that the retention of the records for a minimum of six years is both unnecessary and uneconomical, particularly where lesser federal retention periods for records generated by the state under federal programs have been established; or
3. The originals of official public records less than six years old have been copied or reproduced by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, miniature photographic, or other process approved by the state archivist which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original.

An automatic reduction of retention periods from (ten to) seven to six years (as provided for in this 1973 amendatory section) for official public records on record retention schedules existing on the effective date of this 1982 act shall not be made (as to records on existing record retention schedules), but the same shall be reviewed individually by the local records committee for approval or disapproval of the change to a retention period of (seven) six years.

The state archivist may furnish appropriate information, suggestions, and guidelines to local government agencies for their assistance in the preparation of lists and schedules or any other matter relating to the retention, preservation, or destruction of records under this chapter. The local records committee may adopt appropriate regulations establishing procedures to be followed in such matters.

Records of county, municipal, or other local government agencies, designated by the archivist as of primarily historical interest, may be transferred to a recognized depository agency (selected by the archivist, in order to relieve local offices of the burden of housing them, to insure their preservation, and to make them available for reference or study)."

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 454, by Representatives Clayton, King (R.), McGinnis; Lux and Sanders:

Enacting Workers' Compensation Vocational Rehabilitation Reform Act of 1981.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 17, 1982.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 454, enacting the Workers' Compensation Vocational Rehabilitation Reform Act of 1981 (reported by Committee on Commerce and Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 8, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of rehabilitation in workers' compensation is to return the injured worker to suitable gainful employment as soon as possible. The policy of the state is to provide early notification and referral of qualified injured workers to vocational rehabilitation services, development of comprehensive rehabilitation plans, and independent review and evaluation of service delivery. This policy shall be implemented with the express intent of assisting the qualified injured worker while avoiding expensive litigation and unnecessary time lost from work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter, a "qualified injured worker" means an employee who because of the effects of work-related injury or disease, whether or not combined with the effects of a prior industrial injury or disability:

(1) Is permanently precluded or likely to be precluded from engaging in the usual occupation or position in which the worker was engaged at the time of injury; and

(2) Can reasonably be expected to benefit from rehabilitation services which would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in the worker's employability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created an office of rehabilitation review within the industrial insurance division of the department of labor and industries. The office shall:

(1) Establish specific definitions, eligibility criteria, and timetables and procedures for the provision of vocational rehabilitation services;

(2) Mediate disputes;

(3) Review and approve or disapprove vocational rehabilitation plans; and

(4) Establish procedures for registration of rehabilitation counselors employed by the state, public, or private agencies and establish criteria and procedures for removal of registered rehabilitation counselors from the list for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules and regulations established by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of labor and industries shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in the manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The vocational rehabilitation plan may include modification of the worker's occupation at the time of injury, provisions for alternative work with the same employer, modification of the worker's previous employment with a new employer, direct job placement assistance, on-the-job training, or short-term retraining subject to limitation by RCW 51.32.095. The plan shall define the responsibilities of the worker, employer, and other parties in implementing the plan.

(2) The following order of priorities is preferred in determining suitable gainful employment and developing vocational rehabilitation plans:

(a) Return to the previous job with the same employer;

(b) Modification of the previous job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

(c) A new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions;

(d) Modification of the previous job with a new employer;

(e) A new job with a new employer or self-employment based upon transferable skills;

(f) A new job with a new employer or self-employment involving on-the-job training;

(g) Short-term retraining and job placement.

Prior to any modification of the order of these priorities, the plan shall first be submitted in writing to the office of rehabilitation review for authorization. In the cases involving return to the previous job with the same employer, modification of the previous job with the same employer, or a new job with the same employer, selfinsurers shall submit a written, summary report to the office of vocational rehabilitation review but shall not be required to submit a complete, documented vocational rehabilitation plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If a determination of ineligibility is unacceptable to a worker or employer, or if a vocational rehabilitation plan is unacceptable to a worker or employer, the worker or employer may petition the supervisor of industrial insurance to review the decision. The supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, shall render a final decision within thirty days of receipt of the petition for review.

(2) The worker or employer may appeal a final decision of the supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, to the board of industrial insurance appeals for an expedited appeal which shall be heard as provided in this section. Board review of such decisions shall be limited to matters of law. A final decision rendered within thirty days of the closing of the hearing proceeding, and the procedures relating to recommended decisions and orders, and petitions for review of same, as contained in RCW 51.52.104 and 51.52.106, shall not be applicable to appeals filed under this section. Further appeals taken from the final decision of the board shall be governed by the provisions relating to judicial review of administrative decisions contained in RCW 34.04.130 and 34.04.140 as now existing or hereafter amended. The department shall have the same right of review of the board's decision as does any other aggrieved party.

(3) For purposes of this section, "expedited appeal" means an appeal filed with the board within fifteen working days after receipt of notice of the decision from the office of rehabilitation review. An expedited appeal shall be heard within thirty calendar days following receipt of (a) the notice of appeal from an aggrieved party, or (b) a legible copy of the records of the office of rehabilitation review, whichever is later. The hearing held under this section shall be recorded and shall be confined to review of the records of the office of rehabilitation review. However, in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure not revealed by the records, testimony concerning such irregularities may be received by the board. The board shall in addition have authority, upon request by the worker or the employer, to hear oral argument and receive written information concerning the matter in dispute.

(4) The board of industrial insurance appeals shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in a manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On or before January 1st of each year, the office of financial management shall submit to the legislature a rehabilitation performance audit of the activities of the office of rehabilitation review, the industrial insurance division, self-insurers, and private rehabilitation agencies. The performance audit shall include a statistical summary of all rehabilitation cases, a cost-benefit analysis of vocational rehabilitation plans, return-to-work data, and a comparison of public and private vocational rehabilitation services. The office of financial management may contract with a private firm to conduct the performance audit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Qualified injured workers shall participate in the approved vocational rehabilitation plan. For each week that a qualified injured worker does not participate without a showing of good cause, benefits shall be reduced by one-half on the order of the supervisor. Implementation of the plan shall begin as soon as the qualified injured worker is capable of participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A qualified injured worker shall be entitled to continuation of temporary total disability benefits as defined in RCW 51.32.090:

(1) During rehabilitation; and

(2) During the pendency of any petition for review to the supervisor or appeal to the board of industrial insurance appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing in this chapter may be construed to annul or modify any lawful employment agreement entered into before the effective date of this act between an employer and an organization of workers. If a conflict exists between an employment agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or regulation adopted under this chapter, the terms of the employment agreement shall prevail only if the employment agreement was entered into before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

One of the primary purposes of this title is the restoration of the injured worker to gainful employment. To this end, the department shall utilize the services of individuals and organizations, public or private, whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation, retraining, and job placement as may be reasonable to qualify the worker for employment consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals or organizations and prior to final evaluation of the worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor or supervisor's designee, whether or not medical treatment has been concluded, vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement is both necessary and likely to restore the injured worker to a form of gainful employment, including self-employment, the supervisor or supervisor's designee may, in his or her sole discretion, pay or, if the employer is a self-insurer, direct the self-insurer to pay the cost of books, tuition, fees, supplies, equipment, transportation, child or dependent care, and other necessary expenses for any such worker in an amount not to exceed three thousand dollars in any fifty-two week period, and continue the temporary total disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 while the worker is actively and successfully undergoing a formal program of vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement. Such expenses may include training fees for on-the-job training and the cost of furnishing tools and other equipment necessary for self-employment or reemployment: PROVIDED, That such compensation or payment of vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement expenses may not be authorized for a period of more than fifty-two weeks: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such period may, in the sole discretion of the supervisor after his or her review, be extended for an additional fifty-two weeks or portion thereof by written order of the supervisor.

In cases where the worker is required to reside away from his or her customary residence, the reasonable cost of board and lodging shall also be paid. Said costs shall be chargeable to the employer's cost experience or shall be paid by the self-insurer as the case may be.

Sec. 12. Section 51.36.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 57, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the injury to any worker is so serious as to require his or her being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, his or her employer shall, at the expense of the medical aid fund, or self-insurer, as the case may be, furnish transportation to the nearest place of proper treatment.

(2) Every worker whose injury results in the loss of one or more limbs or eyes shall be provided with proper artificial substitutes and every worker, who suffers an injury to an eye producing an error of refraction, shall be once provided proper and properly equipped lenses to correct such error of refraction and his or her disability rating shall be based upon the loss of sight before correction.

(3) Every worker whose accident results in damage to or destruction of an artificial limb, eye, or tooth, shall have same repaired or replaced.

(4) Every worker whose hearing aid or eyeglasses or lenses are damaged, destroyed, or lost as a result of an industrial accident shall have the same restored or replaced. The department or self-insurer shall be liable only for the cost of restoring damaged hearing aids or eyeglasses to their condition at the time of the accident.

(5) All mechanical appliances necessary in the treatment of an injured worker, such as braces, belts, casts, and crutches, shall be provided and all mechanical appliances required as permanent equipment after treatment has been completed shall continue to be provided or replaced without regard to the date of injury or date treatment was completed, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(6) A worker, whose injury is of such short duration as to bring him or her within the time limit provisions of RCW 51.32.090, shall nevertheless receive during the omitted period medical, surgical, and hospital care and service and transportation under the provisions of this chapter.

(7) Whenever in the sole discretion of the supervisor it is reasonable and necessary to provide residence modifications necessary to meet the needs and requirements of the worker who has sustained catastrophic injury, the department or self-insurer may be ordered to pay an amount not to exceed the state's average annual wage for one year as determined under RCW 50.04.355, as now existing or hereafter amended, toward the cost of such modifications or construction. Such payment shall only be made for the construction or modification of a residence in which the injured worker resides. Only one residence of any worker may be modified or constructed under this subsection, although the supervisor may order more than one payment for any one home, up to the maximum amount permitted by this section.

(8) Whenever in the sole discretion of the supervisor it is reasonable and necessary to modify a motor vehicle owned by a worker who has become an amputee or becomes paralyzed because of an industrial injury, the supervisor may order up to fifty percent of the state's average annual wage for one year, as determined under RCW 50.04.355, as now existing or hereafter amended, to be paid by the department or self-insurer toward the costs thereof.

(9) The benefits provided by subsections (7) and (8) of this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 51.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Modification of the injured worker's previous job is recognized as a desirable method of returning the injured worker to suitable gainful employment. In order to assist employers in meeting the costs of job modification, and to encourage employers to modify jobs to accommodate retaining or hiring workers with disabilities resulting from work-related injury, the supervisor in his or her discretion may pay job modification costs in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars per worker per job modification. This payment is intended to be a cooperative participation with the employer and funds shall be taken from the appropriate account within the second injury fund.

Sec. 14. Section 51.44.040, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 21, chapter 323, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There shall be in the office of the state treasurer, a fund to be known and designated as the "second injury fund", which shall be used only for the purpose of defraying charges against it as provided in RCW 51.16.120 and section 13 of this 1982 act, as now or hereafter amended. Said fund shall be administered by the director. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the second injury fund and shall be authorized to disburse moneys from it only upon written order of the director.

(2) Payments to the second injury fund from the accident fund shall be made pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the director.

(3) Assessments for the second injury fund shall be imposed on self-insurers pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the director to ensure that selfinsurers shall pay to such fund in the proportion that the payments made from such fund on account of claims made against self-insurers bears to the total sum of payments from such fund.

Sec. 15. Section 51.12.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 128, Laws of 1981 and RCW 51.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Said election shall become effective upon the filing of said notice in writing. (Any worker in the employ of such applicant shall be entitled at any time within five days after the posting of said notice by his or her employer, or within five days after he or she has been employed by an employer who has elected to become subject to this title as herein provided, to give a written notice to such employer and to the department of his or her election not to become subject to this title.) The employer and (such of) his or her workers (as shall not have given such written notice of their election to the contrary) shall be subject to all the provisions of this title and entitled to all of the benefits thereof: provided, that those who have heretofore complied with the foregoing conditions and are carried and considered by the department as within the purview of this title shall be deemed and considered as having fully complied with its terms and shall be continued by the department as entitled to all of the benefits and subject to all of the liabilities without other or further action. if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of ((eight)) one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs((and)). However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) [(He or she shall receive)] Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 1, 1971, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect((;)); or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in ((subsection (2)(i)) (2)(f)(i) of this section(;) to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from ((exercising the option granted in subsection (2)(i)) claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage ((and)), or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment ((provided in this section: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)).

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided ((herein)) in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser((: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of this 1976 amendatory act the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund)).

(h) The effective date of ((an award)) resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death((;)) or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums.
(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of the death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums. If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) If the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

Sec. 19, Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For persons under the age of sixty-two receiving compensation for temporary or permanent total disability pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.32 RCW, such compensation shall be reduced by an amount equal to the benefits payable under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act as now or hereafter amended not to exceed the amount of the reduction established pursuant to 42 USC 424a. However, such reduction shall not apply when the combined compensation provided pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW and the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act is less than the total benefits to which the federal reduction would apply, pursuant to 42 USC 424a. Where any person described in this section refuses to authorize the release of information concerning the amount of benefits payable under said federal act the department's estimate of said amount shall be deemed to be correct unless and until the actual amount is established and no adjustment shall be made for any period of time covered by any such refusal.

(2) Any reduction under subsection (1) of this section shall be effective the month following the month in which the department or self-insurer is notified by the federal social security administration that the person is receiving disability benefits under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act: PROVIDED, That in the event of an overpayment of benefits the department or self-insurer may not recover more than the overpayments for the six months immediately preceding the date the department or self-insurer notifies the worker that an overpayment has occurred: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon determining that there has been an overpayment, the department or self-insurer shall immediately notify the person who received the overpayment that he or she shall be required to make repayment pursuant to this section and RCW 51.32.230.

(3) Recovery of any overpayment must be taken from future temporary or permanent total disability benefits or permanent partial disability benefits provided by this title. In the case of temporary or permanent total disability benefits, the recovery shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the monthly amount due from the department or self-insurer or one-sixth of the total overpayment, whichever is the lesser.

(4) No reduction may be made unless the worker receives notice of the reduction prior to the month in which the reduction is made.

(5) In no event shall the reduction reduce total benefits to less than the greater amount the worker may be entitled to under this title or the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act.

(6) The director, pursuant to rules adopted in accordance with the procedures provided in the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, may exercise his discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any overpayment where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

(7) The amendment in subsection (1) of this section by this 1982 act raising the age limit during which the reduction shall be made from age sixty-two to age sixty-five shall apply with respect to workers whose effective entitlement to total disability compensation begins after the effective date of this 1982 act.

Sec. 20. Section 51.48.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 69, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer shall be liable for the penalties described in this title and may also be liable if an injury or occupational disease has been sustained by a worker prior to the time he or she has secured the payment of such compensation to a penalty in a sum not less than fifty percent nor more than one hundred percent of the cost for such injury or occupational disease. Any employer who has failed to secure payment of compensation for his or her workers covered under this title may also be liable to a maximum penalty in a sum of two hundred dollars or in a sum double the amount of premiums incurred prior to securing payment of compensation under this title, whichever is greater, for the benefit of the medical aid fund.

Sec. 21. Section 51.48.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 64, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer who fails to keep the records required by this title or fails to make the reports provided in this title shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed two hundred percent of the quarterly premium for each such offense.

Sec. 22. Section 51.52.120, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 81, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for an attorney engaged in the representation of any worker or beneficiary to charge for services in the department any fee in excess of a reasonable fee, of not more than thirty percent of the increase in the award secured by the attorney's services. Such reasonable fee shall be fixed by the director for services performed by an attorney for such worker or beneficiary, prior to the notice of appeal to the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary.

(2) If, on appeal to the board, the order, decision, or award of the department is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the board, the board shall fix a reasonable fee for the services of his or her attorney in proceedings before the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary. In fixing the amount of such attorney’s fee, the board shall take into consideration the fee allowed, if any, by the director, for services before the department, and the board may review the fee fixed by said director. Any attorney’s fee set by the department or the board may be reviewed by the superior court upon application of such attorney, worker, or beneficiary. The department or self-insured employer, as the case may be, shall be served a copy of the application and shall be entitled to appear and take part in the proceedings. Where the board, pursuant to this section, fixes the attorney’s fee, it shall be unlawful for an attorney to charge or receive any fee for services before the board in excess of that fee fixed by the board. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 23. Section 51.52.130, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 82, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, on appeal to the court from the decision and order of the board, said decision and order is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker’s or beneficiary’s right to relief is sustained by the court, a reasonable fee for the services of the worker’s or beneficiary’s attorney shall be fixed by the court. In fixing the fee the court shall take into consideration the fee or fees, if any, fixed by the director and the board for such attorney’s services before the department and the board. If the court finds that the fee fixed by the director or by the board is inadequate for services performed before the department or board, or if the director or the board has fixed no fee for such services, then the court shall fix a fee for the attorney’s services before the department, or the board, as the case may be, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court. If the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified and if the accident fund is affected by the litigation then the attorney’s fee fixed by the court for services before the departement, or board, as the case may be, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court. If the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified and if the accident fund is affected by the litigation then the attorney’s fee fixed by the court for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable out of the administrative fund of the department. In the case of self-insured employers, if the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified resulting in additional benefits by the litigation that would be paid from the accident fund if the employer were not self-insured, then the attorney fees fixed by the court for services before the court, only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable directly by the self-insured employer.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Would Senator Newhouse or Senator Quigg yield to a question?"

"The question I had, in specific, it is not clear from the reading of the Senate committee amendment that a vocational rehabilitation plan is required in each instance in which a worker is seriously injured. Is that the intent of this bill?"

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Talmadge, I think you would have to answer two ways, that "Yes, there is a plan required in new section 5 and I think this would apply except in the case of the self-insured; and obviously in the case of the self-insured company, it is very much to their advantage to have a similar plan, but it need not be quite so structured as it would be for an employer who is covered directly with labor and industries."

Senator Talmadge: "The second question I had, Senator Newhouse, was in the list of priorities in subsection 2 of section 5, it provides that the preferable order is first 'To return to the previous job with the same employer.' One of the controversies, as you know, is the question of whether or not it is mandatory that an injured worker be rehired by that injured worker's employer in the event that they sustain a disabling injury.

"Is it intended by that list of priorities that there be a right vested in the employee to return to the employ of that particular employer with whom they were employed prior to the time of the injury?"
Senator Newhouse: "I don't believe that we can legislate such a right, would have to be my answer, but we indicate that this is the most highly preferable answer to this situation."

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 454, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Updating statutory references within the Model Traffic Ordinance.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Point of order, Mr. President. It seems to me this bill is improperly before us because it is in violation of rule 25 in that it is amending the law by mere reference to the title, and it is not setting forth the entire section to be revised."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that House Bill number 1067 does not violate Senate rule 25 in that the three RCW sections being amended in the bill are set forth in full."

Senator Wilson: "That is correct, Senator Benitz, and it is now being Xeroxed in the work room."

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President and members, I think we should wait for it, it is rather lengthy and fairly heavy, then I don't think we should attack it without having it before us."

Senator Wilson: "I concur and I appreciate that."

Senator Wilson moved adoption of the following amendment:

Beginning on page 2 after line 27 insert the following sections after section 3 of the bill:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any repeal of RCW 28B.15.710, those residents of the Canadian province of British Columbia who were enrolled as full-time students in undergraduate programs during the spring quarter or second semester of the 1980–81 academic year at Washington state universities and regional universities and The Evergreen State College shall be entitled to pay, while completing their present or planned programs or courses of study and as long as they hereafter remain continuously enrolled except for summer quarter or semester as full-time undergraduate students, the same amount of general tuition, operating, and services and activities fees charged Washington residents enrolled in the same programs.

The council for postsecondary education shall seek to negotiate with appropriate governmental officials or agencies of the Canadian province of British Columbia on establishing a fair and equitable cost-sharing tuition and fee reciprocity program for the residents of the state of Washington and the Canadian province of British Columbia. On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4507 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Scott, the last paragraph of section 7, says 'Commercial paper, so long as it is given the highest attainable rating by at least two nationally recognized rating agencies.' I am thinking about the bond rating of the state of Washington and compared to that of the state of Georgia as they discussed in our caucus. Would this mean that the state would not be allowed to invest in its own paper because there is a higher rating in other states?"

Senator Scott: "Senator, this means that unless Moodys or both major bond rating agencies give a triple A rating and it is also on the state financial investment board's list, that 'No, we would not be able to invest.'"

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "I want to explain that we have chosen to consider the Senate bill first because we feel it is important that any bills that we want out of here and have a chance of passing, must get over to the House soon. So that is the reason for changing this order somewhat."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 4963.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4963, by Senators von Reichbauer and Talley: Relating to port districts.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4963 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4963 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 1, line 18, delete the underlined language.
Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Talmadge, if I heard you correctly that your language is just the same as the language in the first Craswell amendment, if we defeat your amendment, we then will not be able to consider that particular language of the Craswell amendment, is that correct?"

Senator Talmadge: "That is my understanding, Senator Ridder."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Is it correct that a negative vote on this amendment would have the effect of preventing consideration of the Craswell amendment which embraces, in part, the same and some additional? If that is so, I would request delay in consideration of this amendment until we do consider the Craswell which is sort of a combination of a perfecting and striking."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke's remarks are well taken in that the Secretary has just advised the President that the amendment by Senator Craswell should be considered first. If no objection, the amendment by Senator Craswell."

The amendment by Senator Talmadge will be considered following the amendment by Senator Craswell and others.

On motion of Senator Craswell, the following amendment by Senators Craswell, Patterson, Shinpoch and Sellar was adopted:

On page 1, line 18, strike "and chapter 84.55 RCW"

On page 1, after line 25, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 84.55 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For purposes of applying the provisions of this chapter:

(1) A levy by or for a port district pursuant to RCW 53.36.100 shall be created in the same manner as a separate regular property tax levy made by or for a separate taxing district; and

(2) The first levy by or for a port district pursuant to RCW 53.36.100 after the effective date of this act shall not be subject to RCW 84.55.010."

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, following line 25, insert a new paragraph to read as follows:

"Any improvement or development and levy therefor, authorized by this section shall be submitted to the voters of the district for their approval or rejection at the next regularly scheduled election following authorization of the improvement or development."

Debate ensued.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Patterson, I did not catch all of that historical perspective you were giving us a little earlier. When these development districts were established initially, was the vote of the district voters required to set up this bonding?"

Senator Patterson: "Well, as I understand, originally it was a constitutional amendment that provided the port districts this opportunity. Now I could be corrected on that, I am not that familiar with it, historically. All I can say is that back in 1955 was when this law was put in place and at that time there was no consideration of a 106% limit. None of us were concerned about it at the time. But by law, we gave the port districts the opportunity of levying on their own vote, the commissioners, this 45¢ a thousand.

"This legislation merely extends and for a six-year period. There are fifteen court districts that have run out their original 15, 45¢ a thousand, would be in that six-year period. And what this does, this bill would do, is give them an opportunity to extend that for another six-year period.

"And what I am suggesting to you is that if we do not adopt our amendment, what we are doing, is we are placing all of those districts that did not opt back in the early days into a situation where now they would have to put their levy to a vote of the people before it could be put in place."

Further debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Craswell, Senator Talmadge has got me at least interested in this amendment in this respect. If there is a total 106% limit on how much my property tax can go up and we create a new taxing district that can get its own budget over and above the revenue that it was getting formerly, who is the loser? Where will this money that I now pay, where would it have gone? The fire districts? The county? The city? How are we going to share with this new taxing district that you created in your amendment?"

Senator Craswell: "Thank you, Senator Bottiger, I am glad you gave me a chance to speak to that. That was what I was rising to do.

"The original bill as it came out of the Senate committee was the breach in the 106% levy lid. It wiped out the 106% limit for the port and my amendment puts the 106% lid back on as Senator Talmadge wanted to do, but also treats the industrial revenue levy separately so that when it goes off after six years, it does not expand that total base. They are separate. They are all under the 106% lid.

"I agree with Senator Talmadge, we do need Senator Vognild's amendment and I urge you to support that."

Senator Bottiger: "Well, Senator Craswell, you didn't answer my question. If we created a new district and they are going to get some money, but there is still this magic limit of 106% for all of government on that property tax, who is the loser? If a dollar goes to this new revenue bond, who used to get it?"

Senator Craswell: "The taxpayer is the loser, that is why they need to be able to vote on it."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Vognild.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Newhouse, Williams—2.

Excused: Senators Rasmussen, Talley—2.

Senator Patterson moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Patterson and Charnley:

On page 1, after line 25, insert the following:

"If a port district intends to levy a tax under this section for one or more years after the first six years authorized in this section, the port commission shall publish notice of this intention, in one or more newspapers of general circulation within the district, by June 1 of the year in which the first levy of the seventh through twelfth year period is to be made. If within sixty days of the date of publication a petition is filed with the county auditor containing the signatures of eight percent of the number of voters registered and voting in the port district for the office of the governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election, the county auditor shall canvass the signatures in the same manner as prescribed in RCW 29.79.200 and certify their sufficiency to the port commission within two weeks. The proposition to make these levies in the seventh through twelfth year period shall be submitted to the voters of the port district at a special election, called for this purpose, no later than the date on which a primary election would be held under RCW 29.13.070. The levies may be made in the seventh through twelfth year period only if approved by a majority of the voters of the port district voting on the proposition.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Patterson, I was wondering if the staff of the Senate constitutions and elections committee, or the secretary of state's office, or any auditor associations, have taken a look at the wording of your amendment?"

Senator Patterson: "I have no knowledge as to whether they have or not."

Senator Pullen: "Okay, thank you."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment
by Senators Patterson and Charnley:

On line 16 of the amendment, strike "sixty" and insert "ninety"

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment
by Senators Patterson and Charnley:

On line 19 of the amendment, strike "eight" and insert "four"

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect May 1, 1982."

Senator Patterson moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On the last line of the amendment, strike "May" and insert "April"
Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President, I thought that when we adopted the last amendment as amended, that that emergency clause with that date was adopted with that amendment. The issue divided, or was it?"

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the question was divided, Senator."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you very much."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Patterson, if I understood your explanation correctly, you should change 'May' to 'June' instead of back to April. Is that not correct? Are you trying to extend the time or are you trying to contract the time?"

Senator Patterson: "Well, by putting the emergency clause in, then the effective date would be, Senator, on April first. That allows for the 90-day period for petitioning. That is the effective date through the emergency clause, that will be the effective date of the act, rather than becoming law upon the signature of the Governor."

The motion by Senator Patterson carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Patterson carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Craswell, the following amendment by Senators Craswell, Patterson, Shinpoch and Sellar to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "districts;" delete "and" and on line 3, after "53.36.100" insert "; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency"

MOTION
On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 4877.

SECOND READING
SENATE BILL NO. 4877, by Senators Newhouse and Lee:
Authorizing expenditure of certain bond moneys for new sewer lines.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE
February 15, 1982.
SENATE BILL NO. 4877, authorizing the expenditure of certain bond moneys for new sewer lines (reported by Committee on Commerce and Labor):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 2, after line 16, insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Department shall give priority to projects in counties having countywide average unemployment exceeding the statewide average unemployment.
The Department shall also give priority to projects which expedite development of industrial districts which are currently delayed due to inadequate sewer line development.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and to existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."
Signed by: Senators Quigg, Chairman; Hurley, Jones, Newhouse.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Quigg, the committee amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Quigg, the following amendment to the title was adopted:
On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "050" insert "and declaring an emergency"
On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4877 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Talmadge: "Senator Newhouse, the question I have is whether or not the proposed language in this bill has been passed by bond counsel? The concern that I have heard expressed is that this is an amendment to referendum 39, and there have been bond contracts outstanding with language that was incorporated from the original bond issue. The concern that has been expressed to us by Mr. Johnson, the lobbyist for the city of Seattle, is that there may be, in fact, a problem with the bond counsel, should the language of referendum 39 be amended."

Senator Newhouse: "I have not consulted bond counsel. The issue was not raised. I cannot conceive that it would create any problem. Obviously the referendum was passed by the people in 1980, sets down certain types of projects that would be available, could use these types of funds.
Partly in answer to Senator Metcalf's remarks, the bonds are already approved and all this bill does, would expand and include under the statute that the referendum now has become a statute, that new sewer lines are part of the facilities that could be approved.
"And I think it is very clear in our law that by a 60% vote, we can amend the statutes."
Further debate ensued.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4877 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 11; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Rasmussen, Talley—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4877, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 4200.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4200, by Senators Metcalf, Rasmussen and Deccio (by Department of General Administration request):

Revising law on public works.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Metcalf, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4200 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4200 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Fleming:

On page 3, line 19 after "roster" insert:

": PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the agency shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. Such invitation shall involve an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Fleming, I believe I understand what you are trying to do here but do you intend that this be from a contractor who is presently within the state of Washington, or do you intend that this would be a nationwide search?"

Senator Fleming: "No, I intend, if you read the bill, Senator Vognild, it says 'If the agency is unable to solicit quotations from five qualified contractors on small works roster for a particular project, then the project shall be advertised and competitively bid. The agency shall solicit quotations randomly from contractors on the small works roster in a manner which will equitably distribute the opportunity for these contracts among contractors,' and basically it is setting out a criteria and all I am saying is, within that criteria they ought to at least consider within those contractors, the minority contractors. Basically, one of the reasons, contrary to what Senator Pullen said, one of the reasons that you put forth a small works roster is to allow the small contractors and minority and women contractors an opportunity to participate in the process because if not all the large contractors would gobble all this up.

"And so what we are saying is, if we are going to try to deal in this and we are going to be putting out these contracts, then these people ought to at least be considered from wherever they seek these contractors. But I am not specifically saying where you seek these people from when you set forth this project, at least consider this."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Fleming, the last line of that last sentence of your proposal, the amendment, says 'Such invitations shall involve an estimate of the scope and the nature of the work to be performed and the materials and equipment to be furnished.' All bids have the proposal but they do not tell you what the materials are or what equipment is to be used. The thing that I am bothered about your amendment is that it goes further than the normal bid procedure.

"Now contractors are equipped and used to making materials take off. Do you mean by this amendment that you're now going to require the department to do the materials take off for them?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Guess, this language was taken directly out of the small works roster bill that we passed here, 3361, if you would like to look in your book. It is the identical language, I have not added anything to it or taken anything from it. I just felt as though that if it was good for the support then the state ought to participate also.

"And it is identical, identical language."

Senator Guess: "Well, Senator, the passage of one measure in one bill does not make it sacrosanct in any way."

Senator Fleming: "I am not saying that it is sacrosanct but evidently it didn't bother you there or you didn't catch it."

Senator Guess: "I didn't catch it."

Senator Fleming: "That is what I was pointing out, not that it was sacrosanct. And you don't usually miss too many things.

"Senator Guess, if that bothers you, I don't think it does anything to the amendment. If you want to strike that last sentence, I have no problem with that. It is not that big of a problem. But this was, and I think the language that was in the small works roster for the ports as I recall several years ago, I am the one that put that language in there, and you . . . at that particular time you didn't have an objection then, that is why it is in there."

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Fleming was adopted:

Strike the last sentence of the amendment.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator Fleming, as amended by Senator Guess. Debate ensued.

Senator Pullen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Fleming as amended by Senator Guess.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment, as amended, was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 13; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Rasmussen, Talley—2.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Goltz and Metcalf:

On page 4, line 17, delete "and regional universities" and after "state universities" add ", the Evergreen State College and regional universities"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Senator Goltz, I wasn't privy to the discussions as to the purpose of this bill in committee and I am wondering what rationale was offered. Is it supposedly more streamlined or less expensive? What is the counter argument?"

Senator Goltz: "There are a number of provisions in this bill, you know, the public works' roster that we just talked about still would apply to all these other institutions and places.

"But the section of the bill we are dealing with here is the administration of the department activity over other state agencies with respect to contracting and contract management. And if you look at the bill, this is new language, and I think for all I know they may very well have meant to exclude the regional universities. Regional universities now prepare all their capital projects' budgets. They do all of their contract administration and supervision; they issue contracts through the department of administration and that still would be available to them.

"But the section that we are in right here is a section which has two or three purposes. It sets the qualifications for the assistant to the director, or the supervisor of engineering and architecture as is his title; it then defines the state facilities which are included; it then goes down to describe some of the functions, eliminating some of the previous language; it talks about the materials and cost estimates and technical information to accompany the capital budget and in these cases, all of these institutions do this now themselves.

"So I think this is a perfectly good amendment."

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4200 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Quigg: "Senator Williams, would this include hell-or-high-water revenue bonds?"
Senator Williams: "I am not an expert in this area, but I would assume that a dead instrument secured solely by revenue could be hell-or-high-water revenue bonds.
"We can check on that, but that is the best answer I can give at the moment."

On page 5, line 8, after "account." insert "Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this section."
On page 2, beginning on line 26, after "general" strike all material down to and including "bond retirement" on line 27
Signed by: Senators Scott, Chairman; Bluechel, Deccio, Fleming, Haley, Jones, Lee, McDermott, Ridder, Zimmerman.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Scott, the committee amendment to page 5, line 8 was adopted.
Senator Scott moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, beginning on line 26.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Scott, with your amendment we just adopted, is it not true that if this is financially not fully successful, the bond obligation will revert to the general taxpayers of the state of Washington, is that correct?"

Senator Scott: "That is true, Senator Lysen. It is also true that the proposed tax on hotels and motels which I will describe when we are on third reading, has a large reserve ratio in it so that it is virtually impossible, short of a full depression situation where you come anywhere near the margin. The second provision in the bill is that the state has the power to cause those rates to be raised to cover whatever is needed in the way of revenues. The state is never left with its back to the wall as it were, holding the bag."

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the committee amendment to page 2, line 26 was adopted.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 12, after "a" and before "lesser" insert "measurable but much"

On motion of Senator Scott, the amendment by Senator Pullen was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the following amendment by Senators Kiskaddon and Scott was adopted:

On page 1, line 18, strike everything beginning with "The" and ending with "corporation." on line 20, and add the following:

"The Governor is authorized to form a public nonprofit corporation in the same manner as a private nonprofit corporation is formed under chapter 24.03 RCW. The public corporation shall be an instrumentality of the state and have all the powers and be subject to the same restrictions as are permitted or prescribed to private nonprofit corporations, but shall exercise those powers only for carrying out the purposes of this act and those purposes necessarily implied therefrom. The governor shall appoint a board of nine directors for the corporation who shall serve terms of six years, except that two of the original directors shall serve for two years and two of the original directors shall serve for four years. The directors may provide for the payment of their expenses."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Pullen, Craswell and McCaslin:

On page 2, line 1, after "purchase," strike "condemnation of privately owned land,"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 4, after "is" strike "necessary or appropriate" and insert "authorized by law"

On motion of Senator Scott, the amendment was laid upon the table.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Pullen was excused.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Pullen:

Debate ensued.

Senator Goltz demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Pullen.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Deccio—1.

Excused: Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Talley—3.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 11, after "may" insert "increase the rate of tax imposed in section 9(1) and 9(2) or may".

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 2, after "Seattle" strike "and two percent in King County outside the city of Seattle" and on line 5, after "Seattle" strike "and two percent in King County outside the city of Seattle"

On motion of Senator Scott, the amendment by Senator Pullen was laid upon the table.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 35 after "units." insert "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The provisions of RCW 43.17.200 as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to projects built under this chapter."

 Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Shinpoch, perhaps, I don't mean to put you on the spot, could anybody say how much is the art work, you said that the art is cheap, and I just wondered how much was the art work for this chamber? Does anyone know?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, I am sure that Representative O'Brien knows, but I do not recall. For the two chambers, I think it was something in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars. However, I don't know how many hours of man-hours went in on it. I was talking with representatives of the arts commission last night and in the portion that they have looked at, that most artists on their grants that they receive out of the arts commission, most artists do not make minimum wage. And that was the basis of my statement."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Metcalf, it occurs to me that it might be possible, and I wonder if you would believe that this might be a good idea, that we perhaps sell what we have here and could we use that money to sell these pictures or acrylats to the convention center, because I think they would fit quite nicely?"

Senator Metcalf: "I think that would be an excellent idea. If we can get anybody to pay anything at all for these I think we should sell them. Maybe this is a good thing too if they will agree to buy these I would withdraw my amendment."

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.
On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1015, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Scott, I have, as you well know, a lot of concern with down the road, the possibility that the state of Washington will be asked to pick up a default on the bonds that will be issued. And I would like to have, for the record, what kind of assurance you can give this body that this convention center will not come back to us with a request that we generate additional dollars to pay off the bonded indebtedness."

Senator Scott: "Senator Patterson, in these days, I would be unwise indeed to give you absolute assurance that there is no risk in this project. There is, however, the provision that Senator Shinpoch added that the state legislature has the authority to raise the local revenue base to whatever level is required to pay the bonds.

"And I think the second assurance is that the operating, projected operating costs for the center are less than the surplus, one being $4,000,000, and the other $5,000,000 and that the amount required to retire the bonds on a regular basis is less than two-thirds of the amount of the surplus.

"A third assurance is that the taxes levied only on those hotels and motels with more than sixty units and by that we mean the biggest and nationally based operations, places like the Benjamin Franklin and the new Olympic and the new Sheraton, and so forth, that have financial stability. I think that if you had looked at the proforma that came with the bill as carefully as the committee did, you would be convinced it is a very conservative document."

Senator Patterson: "Thank you, that is on the record and the reason I wanted it on the record was to remind of some other projects that the state of Washington was not going to be asked to come back and fund and that came home to haunt us.

"We are talking about $100,000,000 just in the principal and I am expressing deep concern, that at this particular point in time, we are going into a bond market that is bad, at best, and I am extremely concerned and I think all of you should be that we may be in over our heads and we may be asked to pick up the tab.

"I am going to support it based upon the assurances that were just given, but I hope I am not around here long enough to have to stand up and say 'We told you so.'"

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Scott, in all the consideration and deliberation in putting this bill together, can you tell me why it wasn't King county or Seattle who guaranteed these bonds, for example, King County did the Kingdome, the city of Seattle has done other projects. Why is it they didn't do that, and why did they come to the state?"

Senator Scott: "Senator Bottiger, the answer has to do with two things, one, the limitations on the city of Seattle for a bonding base; secondly, under current market situations and given the budget in the city of Seattle, its known needs over the next three years versus its income base which was restricted by the state of Washington. The state credit is at least as good, even at 13.3, as the city of Seattle."
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1015, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 13; excused, 3.

On page 2, line 32, after "structure." insert ": PROVIDED, That locally regulated utilities which have adopted an inverted rate structure by January 1, 1983, are exempt from the provisions of this section"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Bauer, will you please explain to me the proviso, 'Provided that locally regulated utilities ... '. Are you now claiming that a PUD is a regulated utility?"

Senator Bauer: "Regulated in the sense that they elect a board of commissioners that make those determinations. It is strictly local control and locally regulated and that is where the decision ought to be made."

Senator Guess: "I was afraid that you were trying to confuse me by posing that the PUDs are regulated by the UTC and I just wanted to make sure of that."

Senator Bauer: "Senator, I would never try to do that to you, you are too wise for that."

Senator Guess: "That doesn't get my support on the bill, though — only amendments."

The motion by Senator Bauer carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Sellar moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

- On page 2, line 18, delete "and cooperatives and mutual corporations"
- On page 2, after line 19 add "(8) self regulated private utility" means a private electric company not regulated by the utilities and transportation commission, including cooperatives and mutual corporations."
- On page 2, after line 33 add "(3) Each self regulated private utility shall establish by January 1, 1983 a schedule of rates for residential customers which incorporates at least two blocks of electricity (an initial block and at least one additional block) and an inverted rate structure. Each self regulated private utility shall specify the size of the blocks of electricity."

The resolution was read the second time in full.
On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 139 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Wilson: "Senator Guess, as we prepare to vote on this, can you give me some assurance that if this resolution is passed and such a select committee is created that it will give at least some consideration to developing a feasible means of acquainting members of the legislature with the more important changes that will be made in various revised codes before they are called upon to vote on those changes?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Wilson, there is a document put out with each code and each time a new code is suggested by the UBC or the National Fire Underwriters code, it is what they call the addenda to the old code. And this could be digested, I think, you wouldn't want the whole thing because it sometimes gets pretty involved. The last one that I remember reading had about 75 pages of changes that were bringing the new standards in so that you could take advantage of the advancing technology in construction.
"We could, as a part of the legislative report, suggest that each time that digest be further digested for perusal by the legislature and I think that it would help educate them."

Senator Wilson: "Yes, I am sure you are as familiar as I am with the problem where every year or every other year we all vote for a bill out here that adopts certain revised codes having no idea as to what is in them.
"So what is needed, clearly, is not only greatly condensed material, but also the material that will translate certain important technical areas of these codes into terms all the members can understand; and if the joint select committee created by SJR 139 will consider this aspect of the entire process, I would be most grateful and I am sure many members of the legislature would, too."

Senator Guess: "Senator, the science and technology committee that has been meeting regularly on Monday mornings has just this past Monday adopted the procedure that we will have a short bulletin on the advancing technology that we believe is of interest to all legislators, and this could be the vehicle by which this new information could be disseminated and I think your idea is a very good suggestion."

(1) Subject to other provisions of this chapter, each authorized insurer except title insurers shall on or before the first day of March of each year pay to the state treasurer through the commissioner's office a tax on premiums. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, such tax shall be in the amount of two and sixteen one-hundredths percent of all premiums, excluding amounts returned to or the amount of reductions in premiums allowed to holders of industrial life policies for payment of premiums directly to an office of the insurer, collected or received by the insurer during the preceding calendar year in the case of foreign and alien insurers, and in the amount of one and sixteen one-hundredths percent of all such premiums in the case of domestic insurers, for direct insurances, other than ocean marine and foreign trade insurances, after deducting premiums paid to policyholders as returned premiums, upon risks or property resident, situated, or to be performed in this state. For the purposes of this section the consideration received by an insurer for the granting of an annuity shall not be deemed to be a premium.

(2) In the case of insurers which require the payment by their policyholders at the inception of their policies of the entire premium thereon in the form of premiums or premium deposits which are the same in amount, based on the character of the risks, regardless of the length of term for which such policies are written, such tax shall be in the amount of two and sixteen one-hundredths percent of the gross amount of such premiums and premium deposits upon policies on risks resident, located, or to be performed in this state, in force as of the thirty-first day of December next preceding, less the unused or unabsorbed portion of such premiums and premium deposits computed at the average rate thereof actually paid or credited to policyholders or applied in part payment of any renewal premiums or premium deposits on one-year policies expiring during such year.

(3) Each authorized insurer shall with respect to all ocean marine and foreign trade insurance contracts written within this state during the preceding calendar year, on or before the first day of March of each year pay to the state treasurer through the commissioner's office a tax of ((three-quarters)) ninety-one hundredths of one percent on its gross underwriting profit. Such gross underwriting profit shall be ascertained by deducting from the net premiums (i.e., gross premiums less all return premiums and premiums for reinsurance) on such ocean marine and foreign trade insurance contracts the net losses paid (i.e., gross losses paid less salvage and recoveries on reinsurance ceded) during such calendar year under such contracts. In the case of insurers issuing participating contracts, such gross underwriting profit shall not include, for computation of the tax prescribed by this subsection, the amounts refunded, or paid as participation dividends, by such insurers to the holders of such contracts.

(4) The state does hereby preempt the field of imposing excise or privilege taxes upon insurers or their agents, other than title insurers, and no county, city, town or other municipal subdivision shall have the right to impose any such taxes upon such insurers or their agents.

(5) If an authorized insurer collects or receives any such premiums on account of policies in force in this state which were originally issued by another insurer and which other insurer is not authorized to transact insurance in this state on its own account, such collecting insurer shall be liable for and shall pay the tax on such premiums.

(6) This section shall be effective as to and shall govern the payment of all taxes ((falling due after the effective date of this code)) due for calendar year 1982 and thereafter."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 15, 1982

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 878, expanding the business license program including creating the business license center (reported by Committee on Commerce and Labor):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 8, beginning on line 16, after "(i)" strike "((Secretary, department of social and health services, and (j)) State radiological control officer;", and insert "Secretary, department of social and health services; ((and))"

On page 8, following line 24, insert "(iii) A representative of a recognized statewide organization of employers, representing a large cross section of the Washington business community, to be appointed by the Governor."

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 878, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Quigg, no corporate welfare references, Senator. The question I had was, is there any general fund obligation involved in the passage of this bill?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Talmadge, I don't believe there is an appropriation in the bill, but I think that really what we are doing here is consolidating these license procedures, and we are using existing positions within the state government, existing agency heads come together to serve on their board from time-to-time as needed. So I think that our fiscal impact is negligible, if any at all, and that is the initial. Down the road, though, if it is at all successful as a pilot program, we will have substantial savings as those licensing activities are centralized and made more efficient."

Senator Talmadge: "There is no commitment by the passage of this bill that there be a general fund obligation for the additional areas subject to the business license center down the road?"

Senator Quigg: "That is correct."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Quigg, my question relates to the data processing requirement. You had answered Senator Talmadge's question there was no general fund money and I guess I was wondering how you are going to handle the data processing requirements if there is no general fund money in it?"

Senator Quigg: "As I mentioned earlier, Senator Shinpoch, there is no appropriation in this bill for such a data processing function. From what I can see from the operation of the present pilot program, the data processing system presently handling the pilot program, as I understand, should be sufficient to handle this initial expansion of the program to the additional half-dozen or so licenses that will come under the bill we have here. So to my knowledge there will not be a need for additional or expanded data processing capacity on the part of the business license center.
"Down the road, if the board we are setting up here expands the business license center operations substantially, greater than it is under this bill, such a need could arise, but as you know the state presently, going through a review of its DP operation and we will probably see capacity changes there as well. So quite frankly the data processing requirements of this act, presently, are within the business license center's ability to handle them without additional expenditures. Down the road there may be additional data processing authorities, or requirements, but once again we are simply shifting a lot of those from licensing agencies to this business license center. So I think we would see a concurrent reduction in those, in the business licenses that are being reduced at those other agencies."

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Quigg, you may be correct, however, the testimony that was in Representative Williams' committee, as I recall, indicated that it would require about 1.6 million of new data processing equipment in order to handle this. Maybe there has been something worked out that was not presented in front of that committee that I am not aware of, but that is my recollection of it, that it was about 1.6 and if that is correct, well, then, somewhere soon there certainly has to be an appropriation."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 878, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; excused, 1.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1013, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development and Representatives Nelson (G.), Sanders, King (J.), Patrick, Cole, Barr, Lux and Johnson:

Establishing a limited small business innovators' opportunity program.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1013 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Quigg, this appears to be a service that is needed and the bill proposes that the costs will be recovered so the people paying the service will be charged for it. This being the case if there is a needed service, one that people will be willing to pay for, why shouldn't private enterprise supply this service rather than the government getting involved?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Wilson, the universities, the colleges of the state of Washington are going to be involved in this; provides an opportunity for university students to work with the innovators and inventors in developing these programs and as such it is, I think, a legitimate role for the state to be involved in, and since we have these resources available, and that is students interested in learning their professions in a real world application to provide them with pilot project opportunities to develop these inventions and innovations, I think it is something the public sector can do and do quite well."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, I think this is an excellent idea but I do have one problem with it. The small business inventors and innovators that I have had contact with, their highest cost is the patent search which is something that has turned off more good ideas than I have ever seen. You will have somebody come in with what looks like a good idea to me, I take it from this we can submit that to the school of engineering or whatever other department of one of our institutions of higher learning, they will evaluate it and we will sort out the perpetual motion machines and things like that.

"But is there anything in here that will help them pick up that patent search cost or the patent attorney cost which is what usually turns off more good ideas than anything else I have seen?"

Senator Quigg: "Well, Senator Bottiger, responding to your first point that patent searches turn off products development innovation, I guess it depends, maybe as you know, on the intensity and detail of the patent search; there are patent searches and patent searches and as you get further along the path of development, you get involved in much more detailed and much broader patent searches, and this bill, on page 2, Sec. 3 sub (3), says that the department will 'Cooperate with institutions of higher education to evaluate proposals for marketability, suitability for patent rights and for . . . professional research and counseling'. So while that is probably not paying the attorney fees, I think that some of those cursory searches could be accomplished with the assistance of these folks in the higher education institutions."

Debate ensued.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, would the state institution be bound by the terms of confidentiality that would apply to an attorney–client relationship so that submitting it to a state university and the use of state funds would not be a publication that would render the patent inapplicable because it had been published with a public institution?"

Senator Quigg: "That is the intent of the legislation, Senator Bottiger."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1013, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Hughes, Lysen, McDermott, Rasmussen—5.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hansen, would you explain to us what this does? I realize that Senator Newhouse is doing what I asked him to do, but we had hoped to have some circulation before this bounces up on the calendar."

Senator Hansen: "Really and truly what it does, the House is playing its usual act that they have to change things so they change it out of one section, put it in another section and then had to change the section they had taken it out of. They haven't changed the bill two bits worth but they had to make a change."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator von Reichbauer, you are going to strike this, has this label, how are they going to be labeled? What colors are you going to use so you know whether they are handling . . . ."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Under United States department of transportation, the lading requirement is not encircled with red but the list is on the sheet itself that it is hazardous material in it. The United States department of transportation has declared that it must be listed as hazardous on the sheet itself."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Senator, suppose that tanker truck overturns out here some place, the bill of lading is not available, how are the fire fighters or whomever, even the state patrolmen, going to know whether they can approach this vehicle safely or whether it has an extra-hazardous cargo? It should have something else besides the bill of lading."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Rasmussen, as you are well aware of the transportation, trucks in this state and nationally under the United States department of transportation, are placarded if they are hazardous. POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Talmadge: "Senator Metcalf, I had a couple of questions. The first one was, is this a major gubernatorial reorganization request bill for this session?"

Senator Metcalf: "No, Senator, it isn't. If you will remember we passed that a few days ago when we reorganized the planning and community affairs agency. This is just the one that they were abolishing the unneeded boards and commissions."

Senator Talmadge: "The second question I had, Senator, was after putting back in the grass burners, are we going to save a whole lot of money by the passage of this piece of legislation?"

Senator Metcalf: "We will save a little money but I don't think, most of these we are not spending a lot of money. But it is a money-saving operation, too; not a lot of money but we are in times where every dollar counts, Senator."

SECOND READING
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 268, by House Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice (originally sponsored by House Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice and Representatives Ellis, Hine, Burns and Rust):
Delaying vehicle license renewal until unpaid parking fines are paid.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE
February 16, 1982.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 268, delaying vehicle license renewal until unpaid parking fines are paid (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 9, line 24, strike "1981" and insert "1984"
On page 9, line 26, strike "1981" and insert "1984"

Signed by: Senators Clarke, Chairman; Hemstad, Vice Chairman; Hayner, Hughes, Pullen, Talmadge, Woody.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Hemstad, the committee amendments were not adopted.
On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 9, line 21, after "act" strike all the material down through "institutions, and" on line 24.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, this question is out of order because it is probably best asked on final passage. But as I read this bill, if a truck gets a parking ticket and one of those trucks that says on the back 'We paid $7,000 in highway transportation costs,' and if they get a parking ticket and they come up to renewal time, there will be a 25% surcharge on their $7,000 because they didn't pay the parking ticket in time. Is that your understanding?"

Senator Guess: "The bill has been discussed in the context of automobiles that make a habit of parking on the streets and ignoring the tickets. And the bill has actually, that concept has not been discussed at all."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, I would suggest you look at section 1 on page 1 which relates to a vehicle license; and then over on page 2, subsection (2) that imposes 25% fine, and I would suggest Senator, that there would be a 25% surcharge on the renewal of that truck."

Senator Guess: "Senator, I don't think they would ignore a parking ticket with that kind of a 'meat cleaver' hanging over their heads."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Hemstad, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 268 were not adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the committee amendments, on reconsideration, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendment by Senators Clarke and Hemstad was adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 8, strike all of section 4, and insert the following: "Sec. 4. Section 13, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 19, Laws of 1981 and by section 7, chapter 330, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.63.110 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

1) A person found to have committed a traffic infraction shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No penalty may exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense unless authorized by this chapter or title.

2) The supreme court may prescribe by rule a schedule of monetary penalties for designated traffic infractions.

3) There shall be a penalty of twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction except where the infraction relates to overtime parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution or failure to pay a monetary penalty imposed pursuant to this chapter. The monetary penalty for failure to respond to a notice of a traffic infraction relating to overtime parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution shall be set by the local legislative body which originally enacted the local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution creating the parking offense. The local court, whether a municipal, police, or district court may impose the monetary penalty set by the local legislative body. Such locally set monetary penalty is not subject to the assessments required by RCW 46.81.030 and 43.101.210 and related court rules.

4) Monetary penalties provided for in chapter 46.70 RCW which are civil in nature and penalties which may be assessed for violations of chapter 46.44 RCW relating to size, weight, and load of motor vehicles are not subject to the limitation on the amount of monetary penalties which may be imposed pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment the court shall notify the department of the failure to pay the penalty and the department may not renew the person’s driver’s license, or in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation the vehicle license, until the penalty has been paid and the penalty provided in subsection (3) of this section has been paid.

(6) There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury, a five-dollar fee in addition to the monetary penalty imposed for a traffic infraction other than a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction. The five-dollar fee shall not be suspended by the court."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Clarke, on page 8, line 15, 'Every municipality having jurisdiction over offenses committed under this chapter, or any other act of this state or municipal ordinance adopted by a local authority regulating the operation of motor vehicles . . . .' So this enlarges the scope of the bill in that it is not related just to standing, stopping, or parking. Is that correct?"

Senator Clarke: "I do not believe so, because if you will read the rest of the underlined language there, that relates to 'a violation of any statute, ordinance, or regulation relating to standing, stopping, or parking, . . . ,' so forth and so on. I believe that is adequately covered by the following language."

Senator Rasmussen: "I pose another question to you, Senator Clarke. Of course Senator Guess has admitted that his favorite truck driver has a ticket blown off of his windshield, or rained off, that he will pay a 25% increase in his license fee of $7,000. But in this case, presume that our municipality says 'No truck may stop within the city limits of the town,' and that then if the truck did stop, that then would be a traffic infraction that would be subject to this penalty?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, what you are assuming in effect is that if there is a law and it is broken that is an infraction and I would have to agree with you."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I think places like Roseburg where they had a dynamite truck blow up and blew the town apart, why I think they have ordinances like that so this would be taking something else besides just general parking violations?"

Senator Clarke: "I do not think that that is the intent of the bill."

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendments by Senators Clarke and Hemstad to the title were adopted:

On page 1, line 11 of the title, after "RCW;" strike "declaring an emergency;" In line 6 of the title after "46.63.070;" insert "reenacting and"

In line 7 of the title after "as" strike everything through and including "1980" on line 8, and insert "last amended by section 6, chapter 19, Laws of 1981 and by section 7, chapter 330, Laws of 1981"

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 268, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hemstad, there is some confusion as to what the 25% applies to. Does it apply to the ticket that you got which is a surcharge; if you get a ten-dollar ticket, it now becomes twelve-fifty? Or does it apply to the license for the vehicle which might, for a truck or a very expensive car, be, in the case of a new car, I hesitate to say a Datsun or Thunderbird, but it might be up in the two- or three-hundred dollar class as the surcharge for the failure to pay the ticket."

(No reply from Senator Hemstad.)

Senator Guess: "In answer to that, Senator Bottiger, it appears to me from reading page 1 and page 2, that the surcharge goes on to the amount of fine that is posted against that licensed truck."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator Guess, then why, on line 16, does it refer to 'To renew a vehicle license, ... ', and on page 2, '... twenty-five percent' of the 'surcharge referred to in subsection (1) ...' and the only place I can find a surcharge referred to in section 1 applies to the license fee, not to the ticket."

REMARDS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "My reading of the section it applies to the surcharge on the ticket itself."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Hemstad, is there anything in this bill that says that you have to be notified that you have a parking ticket outstanding?"

Senator Hemstad: "Well, if one has a parking ticket outstanding, you have been notified of that because you have been given the infraction itself. And that has happened, and typically what would happen then would have been the followup notices that occur on a local ordinance; and then again the mechanisms of this bill triggered only after there are at least three of those against a particular offender."

Senator Vognild: "But if a parking ticket blows off your car, rained off, as somebody mentioned, is there anything that says you have to be notified before that 25% surcharge can be levied?"

Senator Hemstad: "I can't respond to that with regard to state law, but as a typical local ordinance would do exactly that, and again I repeat, you would have to have at least three of those events occur before this would trigger in. It is a little bit hard to imagine that it would blow off the front of your car three times in a row. The typical situation is one where you have multiple offenders who can have anywhere from fifteen to a hundred of these violations and the impact of the bill will tend to be focused on those repeat violators."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Wilson, Clarke and Guess demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 268, as amended by the Senate.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 268, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays 30; excused, 2. On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 378, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Quigg, I just have one concern and I wish to draw a corollary to you. In the areas of nursing we have had some, shall we say, fractious discussions between the state board of nursing and the community colleges and other post-secondary schools that offered nursing because the board of nursing wants to write rules as to what the nurses should pass and what kind of courses, and yet the institutions themselves feel that that is an infringement in their area.

"In the area of cosmetology, I recognize it is different and there are some different areas, different questions, but I just want to be, I guess have your views on, is there any potential here for a similar conflict between the mechanisms being set up here and those schools and voc-tech colleges that do offer cosmetology in terms of that conflict? I think you know what . . . ."

Senator Quigg: "Yes, Senator Charnley, the portion of the law we are dealing with here is not going to affect that relationship at all. And the training that was suitable to get into voc-tech or community college curriculum would be consistent and didn't fit into the law as it is being amended now. So there is no problem there.

"Really the only relationship between the education, the government education programs for cosmetology and the private education programs for cosmetology is that we are, in this bill, requiring that before another program is set up or an existing one is expanded, that they consider the existing supply of that cosmetology education service in that area and if it is not there and they decide to go ahead with it, then that is fine."

Senator Charnley: "Thank you very much, Senator. I appreciate your words on that and I certainly agree with the concept of checking the market for that thing. In that case I urge the members' support."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Quigg, sorry I didn't ask you about this earlier, but I had some communication relative to whether or not anything in this bill denies access to those schools by the students of the common schools. Would they be denied any access, or change it in any way that junior or seniors or whatever now are allowed to enter as part of their high school program, is that changed in any way?"
Senator Quigg: "Senator Bauer, that access is not impacted by this bill in any way. As I said in my response to Senator Charnley, the only real connection between, as I say, the private cosmetology school and the public is this will simply require the public to evaluate the market before they initiate or expand the cosmetology program."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 378, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Conner—1.

Excused: Senators Talley, Williams—2.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 378, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Ridder moved the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 751 passed the Senate tonight.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Hayner? Would anybody on this bill yield to a question? I guess I want to find out just exactly what is happening. Somebody said we are really not raising the salaries but the way that I read this bill, for districts of 20,000 or more the upper limit is raised from $22,000 to $40,000; must mean something I guess; I want somebody to explain it to me."

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, this just gives the local options to them, to raise them if they want to. It does not require it at all. And if they locally, they do not have the funds and they do not think that they want to do that, they certainly do not have to."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "Mr. President, in further response to Senator Deccio's inquiry, this is the responsibility of the county and the county commissioners. And they have to determine the level of need in that county and we are talking about part-time justices of the peace, and they have to negotiate with somebody at a level to take of whatever the volume of workload is in that particular area. That is why you have the upper and lower limits. I suppose . . . (sic) we have this in state law at all, because, at least it has to have some relationship to the level that other judges are paid. But this is a local issue and we put these lids on, but then allow the county commissioners to negotiate that based upon their level of need. That is all we are doing here."
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Ridder that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 751 passed the Senate.

The motion for reconsideration by Senator Ridder failed on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Scott, we have had a general discussion of what the bill might be used for and so forth, but I have never really heard of any specifics and I know that the city of Seattle is very interested in the bill.

"Can you tell me if, after all the planning and the number of years we have worked on this, some particular things that it might be used for in the city of Seattle?"

Senator Scott: "Senator Williams, I cannot give you a list of specifics. I know that most of the areas that are south of Yesler Way, down through the Duwamish valley where there are old hotels that can be remodeled into senior citizen housing was a project that I was cooperating with between the banks and the city as little as four years ago.

"The same might be the case in decayed commercial areas in smaller towns. I think of the downtown area, I use Tenino as an example. A lot of sixty- and seventy-year-old buildings there that are dilapidated. It is the only commercial area for ten or fifteen or twenty miles around. And soon they are going to need renewal and I don't think it is exclusive to city by size, it is more a case of age and deterioration. It may be also a case of opportunity where a developer comes in, wants to put up some commercial structures and is willing to, in effect, help pay for the extension of the utilities and the improvement of streets that have to go therewith.

"So I can't give you a specific list. I would suspect that every major city in the state, including Vancouver, Seattle and Spokane can give you one, though."

Senator Sellar moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 3, after "18.22" insert "18.53"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Sellar, this health insurance is provided by the state?"

Senator Sellar: "Yes, sir."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is counted as part of the employee's wages?"
Senator Sellar: "That would, yes, fringe benefits to me are part of wages; other people say they are not but I guess that is a debatable issue, to me they should be."

Senator Rasmussen: "Okay. Then my question is, 'Why should the health provider have his name on that check that comes from the insurance company?' It is part of the employee's wages just the same as his paycheck. Now there isn't any health provider going to have his name on the employee's paycheck, the state employees, or any other.

"But here, with this amendment, you are proposing that that state employee have the health provider's name on the check. It does not make sense; and the fact of the matter is, it is probably illegal what you are providing here. The health provider can pay the employee, give him the check, and then the employee in turn pays the health provider. But the state shall be joined, I can't go along with that and that is why I am asking you where you could get the authority to take part of the employee's wages by insisting the health provider's name be on his check."

Senator Sellar: "Senator Rasmussen, the answer to that, I guess, about 50% of the providers are participants, and if they are participating in the contract, they have a hold-harmless clause and the check goes directly to the provider and the employee never sees that check.

"In the case where they go to a provider that is not a participant then there is not a hold-harmless clause and the patient can be charged the difference . . . . In that case the check goes directly to the patient in this case, or the employee. Of course, this deals with other than employees of the state, obviously, and it also deals with people who pay for them, the service out of their own.

"Now what is happening is this particular case is the health care provider is providing this service and in many instances, not all, but in some, they are not receiving their money and as a result they have a bad debt. If this continues, then the only alternative that the health care provider will have, would be to charge cash up front for the service. Now that is not good for the patient to have every patient that comes in have to pay cash up front for their service and this prevents that. It gets out of the problem, it will give the health care provider the confidence that he is, in fact, going to receive his money for his services that he performs, and solves the problem that is getting to be more. I think it will be a benefit to the employees rather than a disservice to the employee."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. Senator Rasmussen, you have it a little bit backwards. The bill, as it came over from the House, provides that if the patient desires, he can sign an assignment of the benefit and the check will go directly to the health care provider. Some of the insurance companies objected to that; the amendment says that if the employee signs the slip, the check will come to the employee with both names on it.

"Now, frankly, I would have preferred the way the bill came from the House but sometimes you have to make compromises. But this bill gives the employee the check with the doctor's name on it and his name on it, ONLY if he signs the slip in the doctor's office.

"The problem that Senator Sellar mentioned out there is the accounts receivable are going up on the part of the provider and they are reaching the position where they are no longer agreeing to accept these covered employees unless the employee pays them in advance. They will continue to accept them if the check is made copayment. And I think it is a compromise, while I would prefer the original bill, that is the way it is probably going to pass."
REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "In further answer, perhaps, I do not believe, Senator Rasmussen, that it is wages or salary. As a matter of fact, it is the insurance payment and there would be no check were it not for services delivered to that employee as the insured. And the one who provides those services is the health care provider. And I have had word from some of the providers in my area that of the checks made to the employee for services which they have provided, about 10% do not get to the dentist or whoever provided the services because the employee has cashed that check. And I don't really believe that it is his money, I believe that money should go to the health care provider and this will see that that no longer happens."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Sellar, Senator Bottiger mentioned something about a compromise, and I realize that no bill or amendment that comes out here on this floor is sacrosanct. But speaking of that compromise, I was told that the bill as it came out of committee was one of those bills that would delicately compromise, that all the people involved were very interested in the measure staying as it is and if certain amendments were attached to it, it might fall apart over in the House, or what have you.

"Is this that amendment that is supposed to make this compromise fall apart?"

Senator Sellar: "Senator Fleming, the amendment to the amendment includes optometrists into the bill. That is not the delicately balanced amendment. In committee they wanted out because they don't have any contracts; however, we now find that they are negotiating a contract . . . ."

Senator Fleming: "Who wanted out?"

Senator Sellar: "The optometrists. They asked to be out. And now we find out that they are negotiating a contract and if they are successful, then they would like the provisions of the bill. So that is that amendment; there is no controversy there.

"The main amendment is the one that is the result of the compromise and the moving to the center; and I would be very candid with you. I would fault if I said that everybody is totally happy with that compromise, but I think that the opposite poles are at least accepting that as a compromise."

Senator Fleming: "Are they going to be less satisfied with your amendment?"

Senator Sellar: "No, that will have no effect on that, really it won't."

The motion by Senator Sellar carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Sellar carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Sellar, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the secretary of the department, or his designee, in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations proposed by the department and adopted by the board of health pursuant to this chapter. Rules and regulations shall establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program. The secretary may reconsider a decision of denial based on evidence, justification, or other information not considered in the certificate of need review process.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

(b) The relationship of services reviewed to the long-range development plan, if any, of the persons providing or proposing such services;

(c) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(d) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(f) The relationship of the services proposed to be provided to the existing health care system of the area in which such services are proposed to be provided;

(g) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of resources including health manpower, management personnel, and funds for capital and operating needs for the provision of the services, (ii) the availability of alternative uses of such resources for the provision of other health services, (iii) the effect of the means proposed for the delivery of such services on the clinical needs of health professional training programs in the area in which such services are to be provided, (iv) the extent to which health professions schools in the area will have access to the services for training purposes if such services are to be available in a limited number of facilities, and (v) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served. When an application is made by an osteopathic or allopathic facility for a certificate of need to construct, expand, or modernize a health care facility, acquire major medical equipment, or add services, the need for that construction, expansion, modernization, acquisition of equipment, or addition of services shall be considered on the basis of the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact..."

(i) The special needs and circumstances of health maintenance organizations;

(j) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;

(o) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed; and

(p) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds (in accordance with criteria prescribed by the secretary of the United States department of health and human services by regulation):

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(5) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(6) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(7) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. If the applicant is a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, any substantial evidence, justification, or other information developed subsequent to the decision of the secretary may be introduced at the hearing.

(8) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved as specified in PL 93-641, section 1527(c)."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Vognild, I could swear that we had on our desks two or three days ago a letter from the attorney general expressing the hope that this bill could be passed without amendments. I guess we have heard, in fact, Senator Rasmussen has provided a copy of it. Now I think we have heard this evening that all parties agree to these amendments. May I ask if the attorney general agreed to them?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, Mr. Adams was there at the meeting and agreed."

Senator Wilson: "And it is felt that Senator Goltz has suggested that twelve days is too long for people who may buy an allotment at a campground, in an office in some community, and should not have twelve days to go out and look at the property that he is, or the right that he has invested in. Can you tell me why that was agreed upon and decided?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, I think you should be aware that under the present law as it stands today, the time is three days for either on-sight or off-sight sales; it is only three days. By going to the sixth, we were able to achieve a consumer protection bill that there was enough agreement on that we all felt could pass.

"I had some concerns along that line and I have requested of the attorney general's office that by next year that they furnish me — if I am here — with a list of what kinds of complaints they have had throughout the year so that we may review this and be sure that the six working days is long enough. I think it is vastly improved over the three we presently have. And if it is not sufficient, I am sure we will know it by next year and we can look at it again."

Senator Wilson: "Thank you, Senator Vognild. I can't help but feel while not being an expert in this area at all, that the bill has been considerably weakened and I am certainly going to vote against it."

Relating to timber sales.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Quigg, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4663 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.
Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild, Goltz, Conner and Bottiger:

On page 3, line 28 after "1985." strike all material down to and including "act." on page 5, line 32 and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) In addition to the extension provisions of section 4 of this act, any person who purchased state timber under a timber sale contract prior to October 1, 1980, may elect before the expiration date, or before the termination date of any previously allowed extension thereof, to extend the contract under the conditions specified in subsection (2), (3), or (4) of this section. The election shall be made by written notification to the commissioner.

(2) Any person extending a timber sale contract pursuant to this section during calendar year 1982 or 1983 may pay the applicable extension fee. The extension fee paid on the contract during calendar years 1982 and 1983 shall be credited to the purchase price for any state timber contract. The credits earned pursuant to this subsection may only be utilized as a credit toward the purchase of any state timber contract until December 31, 1985.

(3) Any person extending a timber sale contract on which that person has paid extension fees prior to the effective date of this act is entitled to an equivalent extension of time without payment on that contract up to a maximum of one year per contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Prior to July 15, 1982, any purchaser who defaults on any state timber sale contract entered into prior to October 1, 1980, is subject to the forfeitures provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) Any purchaser of state timber sale contracts purchased prior to October 1, 1980, may default on the timber contract or contracts up to a total of fifteen million board feet of timber, one time only, and forfeit only his initial bid deposit. That person shall also be charged a fee of twenty-five hundred dollars for the administrative costs of reselling the timber.

(3) Any person defaulting on a contract shall not be refunded any cash moneys paid to the department or any other moneys expended as a result of the contract including but not limited to cash deposits, extension fees, bond deposit, or interest charges.

(4) Any purchaser defaulting under subsection (2) of this section shall receive a credit from the department for the value of any road work completed. The credit of the road work shall be the value of the percentage of road work completed based on the original appraisal for the entire road work on the sale as determined by the department of natural resources.

(5) The credit shall be used, at the choice of the purchaser of state timber, as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one half of the price of stumpage being purchased, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one half of any cash security deposits required on a contract for the purchase of state timber, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one half for any extension fee due on a contract for the purchase of state timber.

(6) Any purchaser defaulting on any timber contract or contracts which, in the aggregate, exceed fifteen million board feet shall be liable for such amounts in excess of fifteen million board feet as provided for in the applicable provisions of state law, regulations, and timber sale contracts in existence prior to the effective date of this act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Quigg, I am all in favor of providing relief for the forest products industry, but Article I, Section 23 of the State constitution says the legislature shall pass no law impairing the obligations of contracts. I was wondering how you reconcile this amendment and the bill itself with Article I, Section 23 of the Constitution."

Senator Quigg: "Senator Pullen, the state of Washington is a part to the contract that we are discussing here, these sales contracts and they are the party to those contracts. I imagine the people that are going to be taking advantage of these do so with their own volition, and for that reason, the impairment of contract provision would not apply and the amendment would not be affected by it."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Vognild, Conner, McDermott, Bottiger and Talmadge:

On page 5, line 32, after subsection (6), insert:

"(7) All timber covered by contracts made before October 1, 1980 and defaulted pursuant to this section must be resold, harvested and processed in the United States within two year of the date of default, and resale contracts will so provide. Where timber formerly covered by a defaulted contract is resold the new contract may not be extended; if resold timber is not harvested and processed within two years the contract will be terminated, the defaulting buyer will be liable for loss of income to the state related to timber remaining unharvested, and payments made on the contract will be forfeited. The amount forfeited will be the percentage of total payment equal to the percentage of timber covered by the contract that remains unprocessed at the end of the two year period. 'Processed' means (1) sawed into lumber; (2) pulp and pulp products broken down to a condition of separation of wood fibers; (3) veneer or plywood; (4) poles, posts or pilings, cut and treated with preservative, intended for use as such and not intended to be processed further; (5) rendered into chips; or (6) rendered into shakes or shingles conforming to the uniform building code as in effect in this state. Any timber harvested but not processed at the end of the two year period remains the property of the owner at that time (the buyer of harvested timber paid for; the state of harvested timber not paid for)."

Debate ensued.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Vognild, Conner, McDermott and Bottiger and Talmadge.

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 27; excused, 2.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 571, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Hankins, Owen, Issacson, Grimm, Bickham, Erak, Smith, Hastings, King (R.), Scott, Struthers and Heck):

Implementing law relating to control of alcoholic beverages.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 571 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Quigg, I didn't hear any mention of the liquor board's position in this regard. Do you recall the liquor board's testimony at this committee hearing?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Rasmussen, the liquor board attended the committee hearings, it did not testify against the bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Did they testify for it?"

Senator Quigg: "I don't recall."

Senator Rasmussen: "Were they mute?"

Senator Quigg: "They attended the hearing when the bill was heard, Senator Rasmussen, and they did not testify against the bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Beer under 8%, is that sixteen by volume?"

Senator Quigg: "That is 8% by weight."

Senator Rasmussen: "Sixteen percent by volume?"

Senator Quigg: "That is 8% by weight."

Senator Rasmussen: "You are leaning again, Senator Quigg. That is pretty strong beer. Thank you."

Debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, could Senator Quigg or somebody explain to me whether we are changing the alcohol content of malt liquor, whether it be beer or otherwise, that can be sold in a grocery store? Are we increasing the percentage of alcohol in the Safeway store, and if so, we are taking it from 3.2 to what?"

Senator Newhouse: "I don't claim to be an expert but I learned this much, that we presently have a 4% maximum alcoholic content on beer that is sold in a grocery store or tavern or whatever. But that doesn't mean that that beer is really 4%, actually the taste of the American consumer is for a beer with somewhat less alcoholic content, and in fact the light beers, they tell me, are about 3.2, which is a famous percentage we remember from our boyhood days, maybe.

"Now, this is a strong beer and it is accomplished and makes a different tasting beverage and probably not that appealing to most of us. Strong beer would be up to 8% and we have some beers that are only sold now in the liquor store, I think it is 'Country Club' and so forth, that are strong beer and are up to 8%.

"Even with raising the allowed alcoholic percentage to the 8%, the present varieties of beer that we have on the shelves will probably remain the same because they very carefully blend their taste for the taste of the American consumer, which is quite mild and not very high in alcoholic content."

Senator Bottiger: "Just a simple question: will the 8% be available in the Safeway store?"

(no reply by Senator Newhouse)

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4663, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senator Gallagher):
Relating to timber sales.
The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663 from March 4, 1982.
The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Scott, we were supplied in our caucus this morning with three documents which purported to show the impact of this bill in the current biennium as well as in future bienniums. And I am concerned only with the current biennium."
"The information we received indicated that if we do nothing, according to the department of natural resources, we will suffer a fifteen to thirty-five million dollar reduction in current expected income. That is a new figure for any of our discussions on our status of the deficit as far as I know."

Senator Scott: "No, there has already been a $19,000,000 deduct out of the local timber funds that are, let me back up. Nineteen million dollars has been accounted for that will not now be present in local timber funds that is, of course, credited against the apportionment schedule. There is another $4,000,000 in other types of timber money that has already been accounted for.

"The answer is that $23,000,000 has been accounted for. Another $7,000,000 has to do with the cash flow that goes to the University of Washington's timber account which is $7,000,000 that you will not see in this afternoon's budget document. We are very much aware of it, we are working with the University to find other ways of covering it; so that gets you to $32,000,000 of the figure you gave of thirty-three."

Senator Bottiger: "Secondly, if the bill passes, according to the industry, they are claiming that we will have a plus $15,000,000, but department of natural resources says if the bill passes we will have a negative $34,000,000; so I have a $50,000,000 spread here and my only question is, which figure or what figure are we going to be using in determining the amount of the deficit that we are currently faced with?"

Senator Scott: "Senator Bottiger, there are two halves to the picture. The first half is the figure you just gave and the fiscal note you saw this morning. It shows that minus $77,000,000 figure which was the one Senator Bauer was asking about last night.

"On page 2 of that same memo, there are outlined four major components that have been changed in this edition of the bill that should be subtracted from that original $77,000,000. The lieu-time provision has been changed and that takes a $47,000,000 loss out. The extension payments have changed for 9.6. The initial deposit provision has been changed for 9.3. The extension credits have been changed for 2.2. All of that eliminates $69,000,000 of the $77,000,000 minus cited in this fiscal note. That is the net effect of the bill. The overall position, when you come out in the year 1985 using the economic assumptions that are in the bill and the overall provisions, is the original $37,000,000 plus figure that we have dealt with for the past three days."

Senator Bottiger: "To wrap it up and get it down to my simple . . . ."

Senator Scott: "The wrap-up, Senator, is that on the best assumptions of those in the industry and timber economists as a result of cutting more timber, albeit at a lower rate of return per board foot, for the state, you show a net over the next three-and—one-half years plus to the trust fund of $37,000,000. Inside that figure are the costs of this particular bill which are minus $9,000,000, not the minus $77,000,000 reflected on the original note. We are dealing with a revised bill, not the bill that this note was originally written for. So you have two different things: the effect of the bill which is a minor downside and the overall 5-year effect of the change of approach which leaves you plus thirty-seven."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Scott, I just want to get the next sixteen months."

Senator Scott: "Well, Senator, I am telling you that is the simplest way of doing it. The next sixteen months will be a minor plus."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Scott, you said by cutting more timber at a lower cost, lower receipts for the price of timber, we are going to have more money. Number 1, how are you going to increase the logging when the mills are shutting down all of the time now because there is no demand?"
"The other thing is because of your cutting more timber at lower cost, you are depleting the trust fund which would have a chance, educational, school trust fund, because the next two to three years, that trust fund will probably expand by increasing prices. I don't understand your reasoning. If the mills wanted to log, they would be logging right now but there is no demand for the lumber."

Senator Scott: "On several high points, the mechanics of the bill, Senator Quigg will go over some of those particulars that he did last night.

"The problem is now that in 1979 and '80, in part due to the export market, in part, due to the demand curve, and part of the time interest rates took off and cramped the building industry, the price of timber being sold on public lands was bid up from $200 figure to over $400 per thousand board feet so there is a; if you look at the bar chart from DNR, it goes along like this for a decade, it goes up like this for two years, and now we are back down to where we were two years ago.

"On the one hand what you are losing if you buy this bill, is those paper profits from the two years, those high contracts that are in there, now the companies are down, they can't sell the timber in the same volume, although there is some being sold, but they can't get the price for it. The price is back down to where it should have normally been before the bid-up period.

"So they have, they are in this situation, particularly the small and middle-sized ones. They have to pay a penalty of about 10% of their contract price to get an extension. They don't have any cash flow so they can't put up the added prices so they go out of business, some of them never to come back in.

"By getting rid of that penalty and secondly giving them credit for cutting at a lower price, credit against a future contract, it improves their cash flow situation, it keeps them cutting at a level that the economists believe can be sold, 220, 280 board feet per thousand, and the result is that the state shows no net loss and a minor gain over the next three-and-one-half years.

"Again the basic principle is to keep them cutting, albeit at a smaller rate per board foot, and keep the trust funds up. The alternative is to have defaults of which there are now twelve, there has never been one before, and get nothing."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, a matter of parliamentary inquiry. The questions and answers have obviously related to Senate Bill 4663 and I think an error which was my error, the bill originally called was House Bill 1087, so I would ask to have the record corrected to show that the remarks and calling have to do with Senate Bill 4663."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Hayner, I attempted to amend this bill last night to take care of what I thought was the second half of the problem. And at the same time I was aware that there were negotiations on this bill and a companion House Concurrent Resolution 42, or possibly a Senate Concurrent Resolution, regarding timber sales which DNR felt would help the small mills that I was concerned about.

"If this bill passes, could I have reasonable assurance from you that we will hear one of these two?"

Senator Hayner: "I am not even aware of those other bills to which you refer."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I would like to ask a question of someone who is more familiar with the Constitution than I am with regard to the contract rights which would be in jeopardy, I believe, or the contract responsibility which would be in jeopardy if this bill passes.

"I have in my possession a memorandum written by a staff member from the Senate natural resources committee relative to legislation of this type in which, as I read it, makes a fairly clear case that this probably is unconstitutional legislation, both with respect to the U. S. Constitution as well as the state Constitution. And the U.S. Constitution says that no state may pass a law impairing the obligation of contracts. That is in Sec. 10 of Article I of the Constitution.

"The Washington State Constitution, Article IX, Sec. 3, with amendment 43, also commits timber revenues exclusively to school purposes. And it seems that there is a possibility that if we pass this legislation, we will be in litigation over a constitutional issue which would, as it were, close down the whole process of cutting timber in the state; and that seems to me to be a serious enough threat to raise the question, either of Senator Clarke or Senator Hemstad or our jurist, Senator Pullen (our in-house jurist)."

Senator Clarke: "In response to your question, I will say first that I have not researched the problem and for that reason anyone who gives a legal opinion without having researched it, has that caveat.

"You will recall, however, that in response to a similar question yesterday, Senator Quigg pointed out that one of the parties to the contract is, in substance, the state itself. Now the prohibition against impairment of contracts, prevents the state in substance, from in any way interfering or detracting with the rights of contracts between two persons other than the state itself. And I would suggest to you that it is a rather different situation when the state, as incidentally many times is done with private contracts, when there has been a change of situation where it is indicated that perhaps it would be to the interest of the state to change or renegotiate a contract that has previously been put into existence, that the state should have the right as with any other private party to a contract, to renegotiate or change the terms of such contract with the consent of the other contracting party."

Senator Goltz: "I take that that Senator Quigg is rising to further answer the question that I was . . . ."

Senator Quigg: "Yes, Mr. President. In response to the second part of Senator Goltz' question about the fund and the use of these lands as assets of the fund, and the management of the lands and the income from those lands for the benefit of the fund, I think that you can see from the debate out here there is developing a very clear picture that if these contracts are allowed to default and if the industry is broken down . . . ."

President Cherberg: "Time, Senator."
Senator Quigg: " . . . the trust would be in worse shape . . . ."
President Cherberg: "Your time is his time."
Senator Goltz: "Would you sing a few bars of that Governor?"
Senator Quigg: " . . . the trust would be worse off without the law, the bill we have before us."

Further debate ensued.
Senator Jones, Clarke and Gallagher demanded the previous question.
The demand was not sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, Mr. President, and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I don't have any knowledge on this bill but I would like to ask one question and I don't know who could answer it. But I believe Senator Vognild said the bidding procedures were different on the east side versus the west side. Now do we have an attorney here, somebody that could answer that question?"
Senator Peterson: "I am not an attorney but I can partially answer your question, I think.

"The difference in the bidding procedures on the east side and the west side is, that if you bid timber and these eighty-some people that are subject to default that we are speaking to, or eighty-some corporations, if we bid it on the west coast and we bid $450 a thousand for it, and that is our contract bid, that is what you are bound to pay for every board foot of timber that is harvested.

"On the east side of the mountains, if they bid $250 a thousand for the timber, the market goes down, fluctuates, either down or up, that $250 could go down to $125 a thousand for the amount that is harvested; or it could go up to theoretically, $350 a thousand.

"So that is the difference in the bidding procedure."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, Senator. Would Senator Patterson yield to a question? Senator Patterson, have you found a difference in the bidding procedures on the east and west?"

Senator Patterson: "I have been advised by people on the east side that when you are bidding on state timber that the bidding procedures are the same. Now that comes from the people that are involved in the timber business; talking only about state timber.

"Now there is a difference when you are bidding on Federal timber, as I understand it. But on state timber there is no difference regardless of where you are in the state."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

March 5, 1982.

In line 1 of the title, after "substances;" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "reenacting and amending section 69.50.505, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 48, Laws of 1981 and by section 32, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 69.50.505; and providing an effective date." Signed by: Senators Clarke, Chairman; Hemstad, Vice Chairman; Hayner, Newhouse, Pullen.

The bill was read the second time by sections. Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the committee amendment. On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendment by Senators Hemstad and Talmadge to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 8 of the Committee Amendment, after line 3, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that imitation controlled substances are being manufactured to imitate the appearance of the dosage units of controlled substances for sale to school age youths and others to facilitate the fraudulent sale of controlled substances. The legislature further finds that manufacturers are endeavoring to profit from the manufacture of these imitation controlled substances while avoiding liability by accurately labeling the containers or packaging which contain these imitation controlled substances. The close similarity of appearance between dosage units of imitation controlled substances and controlled substances is indicative of a deliberate and wilful attempt to profit by deception without regard to the tragic human consequences. The use of imitation controlled substances is responsible for a growing number of injuries and deaths, and the legislature hereby declares that this chapter is necessary for the protection and preservation of the public health and safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Controlled substance" means a substance as that term is defined in chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) "Distribute" means the actual or constructive transfer (or attempted transfer) or delivery or dispensing to another of an imitation controlled substance.

(3) "Imitation controlled substance" means a substance that is not a controlled substance, but which by appearance or representation would lead a reasonable person to believe that the substance is a controlled substance. Appearance includes, but is not limited to, color, shape, size, and markings of the dosage unit. Representation includes, but is not limited to, representations or factors of the following nature:
   (a) Statements made by an owner or by anyone else in control of the substance concerning the nature of the substance, or its use or effect;
   (b) Statements made to the recipient that the substance may be resold for inordinate profit; or
   (c) Whether the substance is packaged in a manner normally used for illicit controlled substances.

(4) "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, compounding, processing, encapsulating, packaging or repackaging, or labeling or relabeling of an imitation controlled substance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute, an imitation controlled substance. Any person who violates this subsection shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a class C felony.

(2) Any person eighteen years of age or over who violates subsection (1) of this section by distributing an imitation controlled substance to a person under eighteen years of age is guilty of a class B felony.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to cause to be placed in any newspaper, magazine, handbill, or other publication, or to post or distribute in any public place, any advertisement or solicitation offering for sale imitation controlled substances. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a class C felony.

(4) No civil or criminal liability shall be imposed by virtue of this chapter on any person registered under the Uniform Controlled Substances Act pursuant to RCW 69.50.301 or 69.50.303 who manufactures, distributes, or possesses an imitation controlled substance for use as a placebo or other use by a registered practitioner, as defined in RCW 69.50.101(t), in the course of professional practice or research.

(5) This chapter shall not apply to offenses defined and punishable under the provisions of RCW 69.50.401(c).

(6) No prosecution under this chapter shall be dismissed solely by reason of the fact that the dosage units were contained in a bottle or other container with a label accurately describing the ingredients of the imitation controlled substance dosage units. The good faith of the defendant shall be an issue of fact for the trier of fact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Imitation controlled substances shall be subject to seizure, forfeiture, and disposition in the same manner as are controlled substances under RCW 69.50.505.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The attorney general is authorized to apply for injunctive action against a manufacturer or distributor of imitation controlled substances in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any manufacturer of controlled substances licensed or registered in a state requiring such licensure or registration, may bring injunctive or other action against a manufacturer or distributor of imitation controlled substances in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 69 RCW."

title, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Substitute House

Bill No. 259 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Senator Rasmussen, does this do away with legal-sized documents?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No."

Senator Jones: "Okay, fine. Thank you."

Senator Rasmussen: "Some talk about that but they didn't do it."

Senator Jones: "Thank you, Senator."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No.
259, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Haley, Modifying regulation of automotive repairs.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 375 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Newhouse, I would certainly agree that this is a good bill and a worthy objective until I get down to the point where it is going to cost $14,000 a year or more, to send out notices to people that this law is in effect.

"There are a lot of laws in this state that are more important than this one. Now why are we going to spend $14,000 a year, according to calendar digest, to send out reminders to people that we have a law like this on a topic which, while important, is scarcely a monumental one? There are a lot of other laws in this state that might well require justifying $14,000 a year to notify the populace of their existence, but it doesn’t seem to me that this one fits in that category."

(No reply by Senator Newhouse.)

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senators Fleming and Lysen were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 375, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Gould, Quigg—2.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Lysen, Talley—3.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 401, by Representatives Galloway, Vander Stoep, Bender and Heck:
Authorizing educational service districts to establish direct student services programs.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 401 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Kiskaddon, I am just curious how this would work. Will they actually hire teachers and conduct classes and that sort of thing, and if so, where do they get the money to do that?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "My understanding is that the local district would be providing the money and the place that it could be useful would be if a number of districts that were too small to have a program would then go together and ask the ESD to provide a program so, say there might be one roving teacher going to 3, 4 or 5 small districts, somehow to conduct a program that otherwise could not happen; but it would come out, my understanding, from the local school districts' budget."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kiskaddon, there is, of course, a strong move to abolish these educational service districts as being just a duplication of what is already available. It is my understanding that what you are proposing or suggesting this bill would do is already available under the superintendent of public instruction, that they can form joint classes in the local school districts and they may well go ahead with this without having the educational service district get into it.

"It would seem to me, Senator Kiskaddon, unless you can change my mind, that this is building a new base for the educational service districts that we all wonder whether they are going to be in existence very long because there hasn't been anything for them to do."

Senator Kiskaddon: "I think there is a difference between the function of an ESD in a suburban area, an area like where you live and I live, and areas where there are really remote and rural districts. And I sense myself that there is an appropriate use for an ESD in remote districts that makes a different kind of an operation than what there is when you might have an ESD in a suburban area where the school districts are large.

"So I perceive this being used mostly in areas where there are many small school districts, over in Senator Patterson's territory, he was just saying. And maybe even Senator Wilson."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senators Gould and Quigg were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 401, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 10; excused, 4.

The board of county commissioners of each county shall divide their county into three commissioner districts so that each district shall comprise as nearly as possible one-third of the population of the county: PROVIDED, That the territory comprised in any voting precincts of such districts shall remain compact, and shall not be divided by the lines of said districts. PROVIDED FURTHER, That the foregoing requirement of equal population among commissioner districts may be disregarded, at the discretion of the county commissioners, in the following instances:

However, the commissioners of any county composed entirely of islands and with a population of less than thirty-five thousand may divide their county into three commissioner districts without regard to population, except that if any single island is included in more than one district, the districts on such island shall comprise, as nearly as possible, equal populations;

(2) The commissioners of any county having a population of fifteen thousand inhabitants or less, in which no totally intracounty highway connection exists between the county seat and a major geographic area of the county, may disregard population in the formation of commissioner districts to the extent that one commissioner district encompassing the unconnected portion of the county may be established without regard to its population.

The lines of the districts shall not be changed oftener than once in four years and only when a full board of commissioners is present. The districts shall be designated as districts numbered one, two and three.

Sec. 5. Section 36.32.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the qualified electors of each county commissioner district, and they only, shall nominate from among their own number, candidates for the office of county commissioner of such commissioner district to be voted for at the following general election. Such candidates shall be nominated in the same manner as candidates for other county and district offices are nominated in all other respects.

(2) Where the commissioners of a county composed entirely of islands with a population of less than thirty-five thousand have chosen to divide the county into unequal-sized commissioner districts pursuant to the exception provided in RCW
FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, MARCH 7, 1982

36.32.020, the qualified electors of the entire county shall nominate from among their own number who reside within a commissioner district, candidates for the office of county commissioner of such commissioner district to be voted for at the following general election. Such candidates shall be nominated in the same manner as candidates for other county offices are nominated in all other respects.

"Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1980 and RCW 35.82.300 are each amended to read as follows:

This section applies to all counties.

(1) Joint city-county housing authorities are hereby authorized when the legislative authority of the county and the legislative authority of any city or cities within the county have authorized such joint city-county housing authorities by ordinance.

(2) ((The ordinance enacted by the legislative authorities creating the joint housing authority shall prescribe the number of commissioners, the method for their appointment and length of their terms, the election of officers, and the method for removal of commissioners)) When the legislative authorities adopt an ordinance as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the mayor, or mayors, involved and the county legislative authority shall appoint five persons as commissioners of the joint city-county housing authority created. The commissioners who are first appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of one, two, three, four, and five years, respectively, from the date of their appointment, but thereafter commissioners shall be appointed for a term of office of five years, except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term: PROVIDED, That in the event existing city and/or county housing authorities are merged into the newly created joint city-county housing authority, the existing members of the respective boards of commissioners shall be appointed as members of the board of commissioners of the newly created city-county housing authority, except that where the aggregate number of existing commissioners exceeds five, those five commissioners having the greatest length of service shall serve as commissioners of the joint city-county housing authority.

(3) No commissioner of an authority may be an officer or employee of the city or county for which the authority is created. Commissioners shall hold office until a successor has been appointed and has qualified, unless sooner removed according to this chapter. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner shall be filed with both the city and county clerks, and the certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of the commissioner. Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services for the authority, in any capacity, but are entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties.

(4) The powers of each authority shall be vested in the commissioners thereof in office from time to time. Three commissioners shall constitute a quorum of the authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws of the authority shall require a larger number. The mayor or mayors involved and the county legislative authority shall designate which of the commissioners appointed shall be the first chairman and he shall serve in the capacity of chairman until the expiration of his term of office as commissioner. When the office of the chairman of the authority thereafter becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chairman from among its commissioners. An authority shall select from among its commissioners a vice chairman, and it may employ a secretary (who shall be executive director), technical experts, and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. For such legal services as it may require, an authority may call upon the chief law officer of the city or the county or may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

(5) The ordinances enacted by the legislative authorities creating the joint housing authority shall prescribe the allocation of all costs of the joint housing authority (and any other matters necessary for the operation of the joint housing authority).

((4)) (6) A joint city-county housing authority shall have all the powers as prescribed by this chapter for any housing authority. The area of operation of a joint city-county authority shall be the combined areas of each as they are defined by RCW 35.82.020(6).

((5)) (7) The provisions of RCW 35.82.040 (and 35.82.060) as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to a joint city-county housing authority created pursuant to this section.

Sec. 5. Section 35.82.060, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.82.060 are each amended to read as follows:

For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of a city housing authority may be removed by the mayor (in the case of an authority for a county, by the governing body of said county), but a commissioner of a county housing authority may be removed by the county legislative authority, and a commissioner of a joint city-county housing authority may be removed by concurrence of the mayor, or mayors, involved and the county legislative authority. A commissioner shall be removed only after receiving a copy of the charges at least ten days prior to the hearing thereon and having an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. In the event of the removal of any commissioner, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the respective city or county clerk, and if a joint city-county housing authority commissioner is involved it shall be filed with both the city and county clerks."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 58, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 58, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 15, by House Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice (originally sponsored by Representatives Tilly and Patrick):

Regulating forfeiture of property exchanged for controlled substances.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended and Substitute House Bill No. 15 was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 2, strike "county or city" and insert "state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency"

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 15, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Senator Hemstad, in a proceeding where personal property is seized because one of these medications is found to be substituted for the real thing, is there any limit on what can be seized? Is there any, I suppose if it were found in an automobile that the vehicle would be seized? What about a house? It seems to me maybe there ought to be some kind of limitation on . . . "

Senator Hemstad: "It is not personal property."

Senator Haley: "There ought to be some kind of limitation if it is personal property on what could be seized it seems to me."

Senator Hemstad: "The bill in front of us doesn't deal with tangible property, it deals with intangible, but the present law authorizes the seizure of tangible personal property that is used in connection with the sale or distribution of the controlled substances. And, Senator Haley, I am not sure I can give you a precise definition without sitting down and carefully rereading the statute as a whole."

Senator Haley: "Have you ever known of anything as large as, maybe many, many thousands of dollars worth being seized in a minor kind of a violation?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Haley, there have been boats, there have been motor homes, things like this that are used in the transportation of drugs that are seized."
Senator Haley: "Is there any recourse by the victim? Suppose the . . ."
Senator Bottiger: "He is carrying the drugs, that is the risk he takes."
Senator Haley: "... violation is very minor. Seems there should be some limit on what could be seized. I mean in this land we supposedly make the punishment fit the crime and so many crimes carry appropriate punishment but I wonder if we shouldn't be thinking about whether it is an inappropriate punishment to fit a crime that is relatively minor along this line."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS
Senator Guess: "Mr. President, last spring there was a drug seizure in Spokane; there were over a half a million pills that were seized there. It has gotten to be a very, very big business and so I think that we need the bill in order to tighten it up."

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 15, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:
Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.
Absent or not voting: Senator Zimmerman—I.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL
EXPLANATION OF FAILURE TO VOTE ON SHB 15
March 7, 1982.
I had stepped out of the Chamber to discuss another measure to be considered later. I missed voting on SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 15. I would like to be recorded as voting in favor of Substitute House Bill No. 15.
Signed: Senator Hal Zimmerman

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 22, by Representative Sprague:
Making it unlawful to sell, give, dispose, or deliver explosives to persons under eighteen.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE
February 25, 1982.
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 22, making it unlawful to sell, give, dispose, or deliver explosives to persons under eighteen (reported by Judiciary Committee):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:
On page 2, line 22, after "under" strike "twenty—one" and insert "((twenty=one)) eighteen"
FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, MARCH 7, 1982

Signed by: Senators Clarke, Chairman; Hemstad, Vice Chairman; Hayner, Hughes, Newhouse, Talmadge, Woody.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Hemstad, the committee amendment was not adopted.
Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 27 after "ammunition" insert "and handloader components"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Pullen, would you describe for me what you con­sider handloader components to be?"
Senator Pullen: "This would include, for example, powders that are authorized under federal law to be purchased by people under the age of twenty-one. It would include the shell casings, for example. It would include the machinery to insert the bullet into the empty casing."
Senator Shinpoch: "You answered on the first portion, the powders, any kind of explosive powder and that is what I was really looking for."
Senator Pullen: "That is right; any explosive powder in the sense of small arms ammunition is already exempted under current law. It has been exempted for all the time we have lived in this state and it is also exempted in the bill as it now stands. All my amendment would merely do is try to maintain what has been reasonable for so many years."
Further debate ensued.
Senator Pullen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Pullen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.
Absent or not voting: Senator Sellar—1.
Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 24, after "including" strike "smokeless gunpowder,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Pullen, as I understand it there are still a lot of people using black powder for their flintlocks, where they actually do the pounding and all the rest of the things. How many people are we excluding by leaving black powder in?"
Senator Pullen: "Well, certainly we are excluding some and someone may want to offer an amendment to exclude black powder. If that were to be done, perhaps that amendment could be adopted also.
"But right now, by exempting smokeless gunpowder, we are taking care of at least 95% and probably 99% of the reloaders."
The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.
On motion of Senator Bottiger, there being no objection, an amendment to page 2, line 27, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 22, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Hemstad, the question of shotgun shells came up, and I am not clear whether this bill would ban the sale of shotgun shells to a person under twenty-one. Could you enlighten me?"

Senator Hemstad: "It is my understanding that this would not apply to the sale of shotgun shells."

Senator Vognild: "It is your understanding this would not?"

Senator Hemstad: "That is correct."

Senator Vognild: "Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and Senator Hemstad. A shotgun isn't a small arms ammunition, a shotgun shell doesn't as I understand it, fall into that definition. How, in the bill then, do you authorize someone under eighteen, or twenty-one, to buy it?"

(No reply by Senator Hemstad.)

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 22, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Satisfactory reforestation is the obligation of the owner of the land as defined by forest practices regulations, except the owner of perpetual rights to cut timber owned separately from the land is responsible for satisfactory reforestation. The reforestation obligation shall become the obligation of a new owner if the land or perpetual timber rights are sold or otherwise transferred.

Prior to the sale or transfer of land or perpetual timber rights subject to a reforestation obligation, the seller shall notify the buyer of the existence and nature of the obligation and the buyer shall sign a notice of reforestation obligation indicating the buyer's knowledge thereof. The notice shall be on a form prepared by the department and shall be sent to the department by the seller at the time of sale or transfer of the land or perpetual timber rights. If the seller fails to notify the buyer about the reforestation obligation, the seller shall pay the buyer's costs related to reforestation, including all legal costs which include reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the buyer in enforcing the reforestation obligation against the seller. Failure by the seller to send the required notice to the department at the time of sale shall be prima facie evidence, in an action by the buyer against the seller for costs related to reforestation, that the seller did not notify the buyer of the reforestation obligation prior to sale.

The forest practices regulations may provide alternatives to or limitations on the applicability of reforestation requirements with respect to forest lands being converted in whole or in part to another use which is compatible with timber growing. The forest practices regulations may identify classifications and/or areas of forest land that have the likelihood of future conversion to urban development within a ten year period. The reforestation requirements may be modified or eliminated on such lands: PROVIDED, That such identification and/or such conversion to urban development must be consistent with any local or regional land use plans or ordinances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1982."

On page 3, line 27, add a new section:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The provisions of the act shall not apply to sales of ten acres or less."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Bottiger, from the language of your amendment you say that this act shall not apply. Now do you mean that this land must not be reforested or do you mean the seller must not notify the buyer?"

Senator Bottiger: "I mean the entire act. My intent, Senator Newhouse, was that neither the buyer nor seller on that small tract has to go through the lengthy process and the paper work of getting a conversion or reforesting."

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Gallaghan carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gallaghan, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Quigg, what recourse does the individual have in the event that the board levies say that $1000 fine? Does he have a right of appeal or . . .?"
Senator Quigg: "Senator Patterson, the aggrieved party or the party in this case involved in a sanction action by the board, would have all the relief available to him as provided under the administrative procedures act which would mean taking it all the way to judicial review if they chose to."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILLIAMS

Senator Williams: "Yes, Mr. President. Supporting the bill but just making one correction. It does not apply to architects; it is simply engineers and land surveyors."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Quigg, I was wondering if the Seattle professional engineering employees association, otherwise known as SPEEA, was invited to testify before your committee and if so, what their position on this bill was?"

Senator Quigg: "I am not aware whether, I don't think that they were invited, Senator Pullen, and I don't recall them testifying and if they had a position on the bill, I am not aware of it. The people that testified on the bill were from the architects and engineers society here in the state of Washington."

Now obviously a rodeo, we do chase some bulls and we chase them and we ride 'em and we worry 'em, and occasionally we injure 'em. Is this a violation and a misdemeanor?"

Senator Newhouse: "It would not be so, my interpretation, Senator Bottiger, and I have seen quite a few rodeos in this state and others and I have never seen a bull injured; maybe you have. I have seen the men injured, but not the bull."

Alcohol of any proof that is sold in this state for use as fuel in motor vehicles, farm implements and machines, or implements of husbandry (is exempt from the motor vehicle fuel tax under this chapter. In addition, a tax credit of sixty percent of the tax rate imposed by RCW 82.36.025) shall be given a tax credit equal to fifty cents per gallon for every gallon of alcohol used in an alcohol-gasoline blend which contains at least nine and one-half percent or more by volume of alcohol: PROVIDED, That in no case may the tax credit claimed be greater than the tax due on the gasoline portion of the blended fuel.

Renumber the sections consecutively.

On page 2, on line 13, strike "This act" and insert "Section 1 of this act"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Guess, I think I understand what you are attempting to do here, but the stricken language is a little bit ambiguous, the tax credit is 60% and then you say the 'tax credit is equal to 50¢ per gallon.' The 50¢ per gallon is a little bit better break for the alcohol producers?"
Senator Guess: "It is, Senator; it is, the present tax is about 2.8¢ a gallon and this makes it 4.8 or almost 5¢."
Senator Peterson: "I would support the amendment."
Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, if nobody else is worried about it, I am. Senator Guess, what is the fiscal impact of a tax credit of 50¢ per gallon?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, Senator, this would be approximately $300,000 a year. But it is a business we do not have now. It will enable us to have a greater dependence, or a less dependency on OPEC and a greater dependency upon our own capability of producing alcohol."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. As I read this, Senator Guess, I understand tax credits and I am not too sure I didn't sponsor the original language; but as this is written, 'shall be given a tax credit equal to 50¢ per gallon for every gallon of alcohol used in an alcohol-gasoline blend,' and we use, those are 9%, so a gallon of gasoline which is selling for $1.22 or $1.50, there is going to a 50¢ a gallon credit?"

Senator Guess: "Out of ten gallons of gasohol, Senator, you would have nine gallons of gasoline and one gallon of alcohol. So what it does is, that it gives them the 50¢ credit for every gallon of alcohol used in the gasoline mixture."

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment by Senators Guess and Hansen to the title was adopted:

On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 854, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, would you yield to a question on the original bill?

"Senator Guess, as I understand from the digest, the defense department says that it may be in violation for us to collect the excise tax on fuel sold to the Federal government. My understanding from our service on the transportation committee that they have been claiming that for years, but still paying. Has anything transpired recently that would allow us to give in to them and . . . ?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, this does delete the obsolete Federal emergency administration requirement. It was originally enacted in 1977. And the bill deletes the requirement that the state fuel taxes be included as an increment in the price of the fuel sold to the Federal government. This enables the state to continue to collect the state fuel taxes on the sale of motor vehicle and special fuel to the Federal government."

Defining and limiting appearance of fairness doctrine.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 25, 1982.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1011, defining and limiting the appearance of fairness doctrine (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Application of the appearance of fairness doctrine to local land use decisions shall be limited to the quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies as defined in this section. Quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies are those actions of the legislative body, planning commission, hearing examiner, zoning adjuster, board of adjustment, or boards which determine the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties in a hearing or other contested case proceeding. Quasi-judicial actions do not include the legislative actions adopting, amending, or revising comprehensive, community, or neighborhood plans or other land use planning documents or the adoption of area-wide zoning ordinances or the adoption of a zoning amendment that is of area-wide significance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. No member of a local decision-making body may be disqualified by the appearance of fairness doctrine for conducting the business of his or her office with any constituent on any matter other than a quasi-judicial action then pending before the local legislative body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No legislative action taken by a local legislative body, its members, or local executive officials shall be invalidated by an application of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Prior to declaring as a candidate for public office or while campaigning for public office as defined by RCW 42.17.020(5) and (25) no public discussion or expression of an opinion by a person subsequently elected to a public office, on any pending or proposed quasi-judicial actions, shall be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A candidate for public office who complies with all provisions of applicable public disclosure and ethics laws shall not be limited from accepting campaign contributions to finance the campaign, including outstanding debts; nor shall it be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine to accept such campaign contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. During the pendency of any quasi-judicial proceeding, no member of a decision-making body may engage in ex parte communications with opponents or proponents with respect to the proposal which is the subject of the proceeding. This prohibition does not preclude a member of a decision-making body from seeking in a public hearing specific information or data from such parties relative to the decision if both the request and the results are a part of the record. Nor does such prohibition preclude correspondence between a citizen and his or her elected official if any such correspondence is made a part of the record when it pertains to the subject matter of a quasi-judicial proceeding.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Participation by a member of a decision-making body in earlier proceedings that result in an advisory recommendation to a decision-making body shall not disqualify that person from participating in any subsequent quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Anyone seeking to rely on the appearance of fairness doctrine to disqualify a member of a decision-making body from participating in a decision must raise the challenge as soon as the basis for disqualification is made known to the individual. Where the basis is known or should reasonably have been known prior to the issuance of a decision and is not raised, it may not be relied on to invalidate the decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In the event of a challenge to a member or members of a decision-making body which would cause a lack of a quorum or would result in a failure to obtain a majority vote as required by law, any such challenged member(s) shall be permitted to fully participate in the proceeding and vote as though the challenge had not occurred, if the member or members publicly disclose the basis for disqualification prior to rendering a decision. Such participation shall not subject the decision to a challenge by reason of violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the restriction or elimination of the appearance of fairness doctrine by the appellate courts. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to expand the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Nothing in this chapter prohibits challenges to local land use decisions where actual violations of an individual's right to a fair hearing can be demonstrated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 42 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

SENATE BILL NO. 4705, by Senators Gallaghan, Rasmussen, Shinpoch, Deccio, Metcalf, Quigg, Vognild and Haley:
Authorizing use of credit cards for state purchases.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Gallaghan, I was wondering how large the state's line of credit was because if it is large enough, maybe we can put the state deficit on Master Charge or Visa?"
Senator Gallaghan: "Eighteen, twenty percent; yes, it would be a good one."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Gallaghan, will there be an initial charge or a monthly charge from the financial institution, or both?"
Senator Gallaghan: "As I understand it, of course, it tells the director to adopt this type of a system. He will put it out to contract to bid to the various agencies who offer credit card system. So I rather imagine it would be a competitive bid for that type of a service."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, further answering Senator Hurley. Some of the banks, of course, you know now, do not make a charge. And it is entirely possible that the state would be able to have a bid process and get that same service.
"The first time we proposed this credit card, state, Visa or Master Charge or whatever form of card, they said 'Well, it is crazy.' But of course they have been doing this crazy thing for many, many years; they have been allowing all the gasoline be checked out on credit cards. And this will, as Senator Gallaghan has said, have a potential for saving many, many dollars in the processing of vouchers. I urge your support."

The board shall, prior to calling the said election, name three registered resident electors who are property owners or are purchasing property under contract within the boundaries of the district as candidates for election as cemetery district commissioners. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall receive expenses necessarily incurred in attending meetings of the board or when otherwise engaged in district business. The board shall fix the compensation to be paid the secretary and other employees of the district. On page 3, line 21 after "RCW" insert "amending section 6, chapter 6, laws of 1947 and RCW 68.16.060; amending section 14, chapter 6, laws of 1947 as amended by section 40, chapter 126, laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 68.16.140"

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 40, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Pullen, the digest says 'The public disclosure commission is temporarily empowered to suspend any of the reporting requirements of the public disclosure law,' and so forth. My question is, is it accurate that the commission is empowered to exempt entities if it so decides, or are they automatically exempted?"

Senator Pullen: "They are automatically suspended. An amendment that was adopted to the bill does provide for a few exemptions; in other words, the people can petition under a form to be prescribed by the public disclosure commission, to have the reporting requirements reinstated and so there are a few exemptions in there, but it automatically takes effect unless some of those exemptions are applied."

Senator Wilson: "In other words the statement in the digest is inaccurate?"

Senator Pullen: "Yes it is."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 40, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 35; nays, 13; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 40, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 923, by House Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Addison, Fiske, Salatino and others):

Creating a state center for voluntary action.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator McDermott:

On page 4, line 35, after "center" strike "may charge reasonable" and insert "shall charge such"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Fleming failed and the amendment by Senator McDermott was not adopted on a rising vote.

There being no objection, an amendment by Senator McDermott to page 5, line 4, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 31, strike all of new section 9 and renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Scott, in the budget that we discussed an hour ago or so, there is $968,800 mandated that must be spent on a volunteer program. Now why can't this $82,500 come out of that? Nobody has yet explained to me what that $968,800, or more, is to do."

Senator Scott: "Senator, you are not talking about the same program."

Senator Moore: "Excuse me, we are talking about 'volunteerism,' and there is no reason that this $82,500 can't come out of that $968,800."

Senator Scott: "If your assumption is that the $968,800 is not fully utilized in the first instance, that is true. On the one hand, argument has been made here that things have been squeezed down too far, and on the other hand the argument is made, when it comes to this, that we can take and effect another 8 to 10% out and make it work. Which way is it?"

Senator Moore: "Well, what is the $968,800 for?"

Senator Scott: "The $968 is for individuals within existing programs in the department of social and health services, including those that are involved in chore services, volunteering, senior citizens, elder action, the whole gamut of services that are provided different clients through DSHS, or as an adjunct of."

Senator Moore: "Well, does it take $968,000 to keep the volunteers working on the chore services, and assorted other things?"

Senator Scott: "Senator, you are talking about tens of thousands of individuals, and hundreds of communities, and hundreds of thousands of hours. People don't get their correct assignments, they aren't fully utilized, without someone pointing the direction."

Senator Moore: "Well, I guess we are going to get nowhere on this one. Thank you, Mr. President."
POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Scott, this was a gleam in Dan Evans’ eye at one time, in 1968. And then we discontinued the funding for it in 1977. As I recall the reason for it, at that time; was it was not necessary to have a new state department in charge of voluntary services, that it was being handled at the local level, and very adequately through the various organizations we have at the local level. Do you have that same recollection?"

Senator Scott: "Senator, if you want me to get into debate on the floor tonight about the decisions of the Evans’ administration, I respectfully decline."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, but you were here at that time, in '77, when the funding was discontinued and that was the recommendation we had that it was an unnecessary department. Thank you, Senator Scott, you agree with me but you just don't want to say so."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page I, line 2, after "date" strike "; and making an appropriation"

Debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amend­ment by Senators Pullen and Rasmussen:

On line 5 of the amendment after ",," insert "felony sale of a controlled substance,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Bottiger, I assume you are going to vote for the entire amendment if it is amended with your amendment?"

Senator Bottiger: "I don't even think I am going to vote for the bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Pullen, to answer the objection of Senator Kiskaddon, would you accept an oral amendment in that first line there, after 'sec­tion' for the purposes of this section and just add 'Sub. (6),' then it would relate to participate as a volunteer in community services, and it wouldn't prevent these people, if they were well-guarded (whether they are or not I don't know), to go to the bedside of a wife or a husband at the time of death."

Senator Pullen: "Certainly I would accept that amendment, although Senator Kiskaddon is quite wrong in his concerns. In other words, minimum security would apply to the entire section, to the entire bill, as I defined it in my amendment. However, minimum security is only used in subsection (6), so Senator Kiskaddon is quite wrong when he says that this would prevent people from going to the bedside of an inmate's wife because the way the whole bill is worded anyone could go to the bedside of their wife whether they are a rapist or a murder of a kidnapper or someone who has been convicted of arson.

"In other words, the way I define 'minimum security' would apply to the whole bill, but only subsection (6) sets a restriction of minimum security, so it would only apply to subsection (6) so the amendment to the amendment would be perfectly fine with me but it wouldn't change anything one way or another, and Senator Kiskaddon's concerns are not really valid."

Senator Hurley: "I think you are right, Senator Pullen, and I won't offer the amendment."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senators Pullen and Bottiger was adopted.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Signed by: Senators Hemstad, Vice Chairman; Hayner, Newhouse, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Woody.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 381, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Clarke, I think that the bill is probably all right. I am questioning the amendment that was added to it, 'some time in the county jail or other local facility while awaiting a court hearing or placement is limited for no more than seven days.' What do you do with a criminally insane person that is out there, just like the last one where he murdered his mother and a couple of sisters and things, and he hasn't been put in the court yet for arraignment; what are you going to do with him?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, I assume that the intent is to send him back to where he was being treated for being criminally insane. The purpose of the amendment was just to restrict the time you could hold him in a local jail. In other words, you just put him in a local jail and there should be some limit to the time he can be confined there."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, except the person has never been committed as yet."

Senator Clarke: "Oh, yes, this is a . . ."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is only on those people that have previously been committed and . . . been released."

Senator Clarke: "As I understand it, for revoking a conditional release, now I will have to look at the bill, Senator, to be sure, but that is my impression."

Senator Sellar: "That is correct, Senator Talmadge. There has been a prohibition from insurance companies doing this. It is felt that they should have the same opportunity as other businesses, however, the prohibition for a contribution to the insurance commission office stays in place."

Making miscellaneous changes in laws relating to education.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 849. On March 7, 1982, a committee amendment had been moved for adoption. Senator Shinpoch raised a Point of Order on the amendment and the measure was held for a Ruling by the President.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Shinpoch, Substitute House Bill No. 849 is a bill making numerous changes in laws relating to education.

"The committee amendment is simply another proviso restricting the purchase of art works during the period July 1, 1982 through July 1, 1984.

"Therefore, the amendment does not expand the scope and object of Substitute House Bill No. 849 and the Point of Order is not well taken."

The committee amendment was ruled to be in order.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute House Bill No. 849, together with the pending committee amendments, was ordered held for consideration at a later time.
SECOND READING

Designating a portion of a state-employed chaplain's salary as rental value for a home.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1072 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Shinpoch, you have raised a little flag to me, Senator, I am wondering where the housing allowance comes in the allocation. At this point is there a pension involved to that chaplain?"

Senator Shinpoch: "I cannot answer that question, I simply don't know. I would suggest you ask Senator Fuller."

Senator Ridder: "Senator? In your discussions on 1072, was there a discussion of pension application?"

Senator Fuller: "This would have the effect of reducing their pension benefits because it would not qualify the part that was designated as housing."

Senator Ridder: "I see. And testimony at that point, was that raised and was that accepted by those who are interested in it?"
Senator Fuller: "There was no testimony given at the Senate hearing, and I did not attend the House hearings, so I do not know whether it was or not."

REMARKS BY SENATOR METCALF

Senator Metcalf: "I believe that the pension would be reduced under this bill; in other words, their salary is that much and if some of it is counted as a housing allowance, then there would be less that would be eligible for pensions. It was the way I understood it."

Senator Ridder: "Well, that would seem logical. I am wondering, though, if those who were advocating this, since we represented it as being of an income tax advantage to those people, if they also recognize the pension disadvantage that they would be under and if that was discussed at all."

Senator Fuller: "If I may respond to Senator Ridder, the persons who came to me a year ago and asked that this be done, I think were well aware of what they were doing. They were more concerned about the immediate advantages than in the retirement in the future because basically they are quite often part-time people. They don't work the full week, full year."

Senator Ridder: "I see; okay, thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Fuller, the digest refers to 'ministers in the private sector,' and it says that it is a common practice there for part of their reimbursement to take the form of a tax deductible housing allowance. And I can well understand that because ministers in the private sector often receive a salary considerably lower than a lot of salaries.

"However, now we are talking about state-employed chaplains and I would assume that they do not receive lower salaries than other state employees simply because they are chaplains, that, to the contrary, they are paid at the same level as other state employees, generally speaking.

"My question would be then, if that is the case, if their salaries are comparable to many of their peers where the salaries of ministers in the private sector are not, as to why this tax advantage would be justified?"

Senator Fuller: "In the private sector there are well-paid and poorly-paid ministers; and I think that many of the ministers that worked in the chapels of the state institutions have worked both places and they have had the advantages of allowance in one instance and they somewhat resent not being able to have it now I guess, when they can go into state employment.

"I don't say that they are any better or any worse off than other state employees, but they have used this previously and would like to have the advantage when they are working for the state in the same capacity."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, House Bill No. 1072 was ordered held on third reading for consideration at a later time.

SECOND READING

Upon receipt of any petition proposing an initiative to the people or an initiative to the legislature, and prior to giving a serial number thereto, the secretary of state shall submit a copy thereof to the office of the code reviser and give notice to the petitioner of such transmittal. Upon receipt of the measure, the assistant code reviser to whom it has been assigned may confer with the petitioner and shall within ((ten)) seven working days from receipt thereof review the proposal for matters of form and style, and such matters of substantive import as may be agreeable to the petitioner, and shall recommend to the petitioner such revision or alteration of the measure as may be deemed necessary and appropriate. The recommendations of the reviser's office shall be advisory only, and the petitioner may accept or reject them in whole or in part. The code reviser shall issue a certificate of review certifying that he has reviewed the measure for form and style and that the recommendations thereon, if any, have been communicated to the petitioner, and such certificate shall issue whether or not the petitioner accepts such recommendations. Within fifteen working days after notification of submittal of the petition to the reviser's office, the petitioner, if he desires to proceed with his sponsorship, shall file the measure together with the certificate of review with the secretary of state for assignment of serial number and the secretary of state shall thereupon submit to the reviser's office a certified copy of the measure filed. Upon submitting the proposal to the secretary of state for assignment of a serial number the secretary of state shall refuse to make such assignment unless the proposal is accompanied by a certificate of review.

The secretary of state shall give a serial number to each initiative or referendum measure, using a separate series for initiatives to the legislature, initiatives to the people, and referendum measures, and forthwith transmit one copy of the measure proposed bearing its serial number to the attorney general. The secretary of state may limit the number of observers to not less than two on each side, if in his or her opinion, a greater number would cause undue delay or disruption of the verification process. STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

The amendment to Substitute House Bill 849 adopted by the Senate Committee on Education on page 4, section 2, line 1, which provided that "no expenditures of moneys shall be made for acquisition of art works during the period July 1, 1982 through July 1, 1984," was not adopted by the Senate.
The undersigned hereby signify that they cast their vote for adoption of the amendment for the following reasons: a) in a time of fiscal crisis it is held that every effort must be made to conserve tax dollars; b) local agencies and private citizens should be encouraged to supply art objects; and c) as a minimum number of school buildings will be started in the time period, it is more reasonable to supply classrooms of a utilitarian nature and supply the art in times of more affluence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may appoint a designee, or designees, to preside over hearings in contested cases which may result in the denial, restriction, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license or driving privilege, or in the imposition of requirements to be met prior to issuance or reissuance of a driver's license, under Title 46 RCW. The director may delegate to any such designees the authority to render the final decision of the department in such cases. Chapter 34.12 RCW shall not apply to such cases.
Sec. 4. Section 36, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 28, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.20.329 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receiving a request for a formal hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.328, the department shall fix a time and place for hearing as early as may be arranged in the county where the applicant or licensee resides, and shall give ten days' notice of the hearing to the applicant or licensee, except that the hearing may be set for a different place with the concurrence of the applicant or licensee and the period of notice may be waived.

Any decision by the department suspending or revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or, during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction of a moving violation or a finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during pendency of hearing and appeal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the department from seeking an order setting aside the stay during the pendency of such appeal in those cases where the action of the department is based upon physical or mental incapacity, or a failure to successfully complete an examination required by this chapter:

A formal hearing shall be conducted by the director or by ((an administrative law judge or hearing board appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW. Such administrative law judge or hearing board may be authorized by the director to make final determinations regarding the issuance, denial, or suspension, or revocation of a license)) a person or persons appointed by the director from among the employees of the department.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 75, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 29, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 47.52.135 are each amended to read as follows:

At the hearing any representative of the county, city or town, or any other person may appear and be heard even though such official or person is not an abutting property owner. Such hearing may, at the option of the highway authority, be conducted in accordance with federal laws and regulations governing highway design public hearings. The members of such authority shall preside, or may ((request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW)) designate some suitable person to preside as examiner. The authority shall introduce by competent evidence a summary of the proposal for the establishment of a limited access facility and any evidence that supports the adoption of the plan as being in the public interest. At the conclusion of such evidence, any person entitled to notice, who has entered a written appearance shall be deemed a party to this hearing for purposes of this chapter and may thereafter introduce, either in person or by counsel, evidence and statements or counterproposals bearing upon the reasonableness of the proposal. Any such evidence and statements or counterproposals shall receive reasonable consideration by the authority before any proposal is adopted. Such evidence must be material to the issue before the authority and shall be presented in an orderly manner.

Sec. 6. Section 69.50.505, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 48, Laws of 1981 and by section 32, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 69.50.505 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(b) Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(3) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(4) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(c) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (b), proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) of this section. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(4) of this section.

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 141, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 239, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.33.670 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases where a determination is made that the estate of a mentally or physically deficient person who resides at a state residential school is able to pay all or any portion of the monthly charges, a notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be personally served on the guardian of the resident's estate, or if no guardian has been appointed then to his spouse or parents or other person acting in a representative capacity and having property in his possession belonging to a resident of a state residential school and the superintendent of the state residential school. The notice shall set forth the amount the department has determined that such estate is able to pay per month, not to exceed the monthly charge as fixed in accordance with RCW 72.33.660, and the responsibility for payment to the department of social and health services shall commence thirty days after personal service of such notice and finding of responsibility. An appeal from the determination of responsibility may be made to the secretary by the guardian of the resident's estate, or if no guardian has been appointed then by his spouse, parent or parents or other person acting in a representative capacity and having property in his possession belonging to a resident of a state residential school, within such thirty day period upon written notice of appeal being served upon the secretary by registered or certified mail. If no appeal is taken, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final. If an appeal is taken, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision of such appeal. Appeals may be heard in any county seat most convenient to the appellant. The hearing of appeals may be presided over by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW and the proceedings shall be recorded either manually or by a mechanical device. Any such appeal shall be a "contested case" as defined in RCW 34.04.010, and practice and procedure shall be governed by the provisions of RCW 72.33.650 through 72.33.700, the rules and regulations of the department of social and health services, and the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 8. Section 25, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent or parents a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent or parents to appear and show cause in a hearing held by the department why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, but should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent or parents are in need. Said hearing shall be held pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules and regulations of the department, which shall provide for a fair hearing.

(2) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or may be served on the responsible parent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within sixty days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice is not served within sixty days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the sixty–day period and before the date of notification: PROVIDED, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire sixty–day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing. If no timely written request for a hearing has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for a hearing as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely request for hearing. The filing of the petition for a hearing after the twenty-day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of a request for the hearing shall operate as a stay on any future collection action, pending the final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee on the hearing. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the request for the hearing shall be delivered to the department and shall be held in trust by the department pending the final order of the secretary or during the pendency of any appeal to the courts made under chapter 34.04 RCW. The department may petition the administrative law judge to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the petition for an untimely hearing is granted. The administrative law judge shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the scale of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the hearing examiner, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the hearing or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the hearing or appeal shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise appropriate when received by the department. If the final decision of the department, or of the courts on appeal, is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.

(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent. Any such hearing shall be a "contested case" as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the need alleged. The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is alleged.

(4) The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future.

The notice and finding shall include a statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to request a hearing, the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

(5) If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing, including a hearing on prospective modification, shall be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW. After evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by the administrative law judge, the administrative law judge shall enter an initial decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall file the original of the initial decision and order, signed by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, with the secretary or the secretary's designee. Copies of the initial decision and order shall be mailed by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge to the department and to the appellant by certified mail to the last known address of each party. Within thirty days of filing, either the appellant or the department may file with the secretary or the secretary's designee a written petition for review of the initial decision and order. The petition for review shall set forth in detail the basis for the requested review and shall be mailed by the petitioning party to the other party by certified or registered mail to the last known address of the party.

The petition shall be based on any of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of the petitioner:

(a) Irregularity in the proceedings of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge or adverse party, or any order of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, or abuse of discretion, by which the moving party was prevented from having a fair hearing;

(b) Misconduct of the prevailing party;

(c) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(d) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which the party could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing;

(e) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the decision, or that it is contrary to law;

(f) Error in mathematical computation;

(g) Error in law occurring at the hearing and objected to at the time by the party making the application;

(h) That the moving party is unable to perform according to the terms of the order without further clarification;

(i) That substantial justice has not been done;

(j) Fraud or misstatement of facts by any witness, which materially affects the debt;

(k) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or

(l) That the decision and order entered because the responsible parent failed to appear at the hearing should be vacated and the matter be remanded for a hearing upon showing of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

In the event no petition for review is made as provided in this subsection by any party, the initial decision and order of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge is final as of the date of filing and becomes the decision and order of the secretary. No appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts and the debt created is subject to collection action as authorized by this chapter.

After the receipt of a petition for review, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall consider the initial decision and order, the petition or petitions for review, the record or any part thereof, and such additional evidence and argument as the secretary or the secretary's designee may in his or her discretion allow. The secretary or the secretary's designee may remand the proceedings to the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge for additional evidence or argument. The secretary or the secretary's designee may deny review of the initial decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions at which time the initial decision and order shall be final as of the date of the denial and all parties shall forthwith be notified, in writing, of the denial, by certified mail to the last known address of the parties.
Unless the petition is denied, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall review the initial decision and order and shall make the final decision and order of the department. The final decision and order shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each contested issue of fact and law. A copy of the decision and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal by certified mail to the last known address of the party. The decision and order shall authorize collection action, as appropriate, under this chapter.

(6) The (hearing examiner) administrative law judge in his or her initial decision, or the secretary or the secretary's designee in review of the initial decision, shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. In making these determinations, the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge, and the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall include in his or her considerations:

(a) All earnings and income resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;
(b) The earnings potential of the responsible parent;
(c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent;
(d) The ability of the responsible parent to borrow;
(e) The needs of the child for whom the support is sought;
(f) The amount of assistance which would be paid to the child under the full standard of need of the state's public assistance plan;
(g) The existence of other dependents; and
(h) That the child, for whom support is sought, benefits from the income and resources of the responsible parent on an equitable basis in comparison with any other minor children of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge shall enter an initial decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

(7) The final decision entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt to the amounts stated in said decision: PROVIDED, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances. The decision and order for prospective modification entered by the (hearing examiner) administrative law judge shall be an initial decision subject to review by the secretary or the secretary's designee as provided for in this section.

(8) The ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, in making the initial decision and the secretary or the secretary's designee in the final decision determin­ing liability and/or future periodic support payments, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

(9) Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, or the secretary or secretary's designee.

(10) "Need" as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the schedule of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270, based on the earnings, resources, and property of the alleged responsible parent, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: PROVIDED, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The administrative hearings revolving fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of centralized funding, accounting, and distribution of the actual costs of the services provided to agencies of the state government by the office of administrative hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The amounts to be disbursed from the administra­tive hearings revolving fund from time to time shall be transferred thereto by the state treasurer from funds appropriated to any and all agencies for administrative hearings expenses on a quarterly basis. Agencies operating in whole or in part from nonappropriated funds shall pay into the administrative hearings revolving fund such funds as will fully reimburse funds appropriated to the office of administrative hearings for any services provided activities financed by nonappropriated funds. The funds from the employment security department for the administrative hearings services provided by the office of administrative hearings shall not exceed that portion of the resources provided to the employment security department by the department of labor, employment and training administration, for such administrative hearings services. To satisfy department of labor funding requirements, the office of administrative hearings shall meet or exceed timeliness standards under federal regulations in the conduct of employment security department appeals.

The director of financial management shall allot all such funds to the office of administrative hearings for the operation of the office, pursuant to appropriation, in the same manner as appropriated funds are allocated to other agencies under chap­ ant to vouchers executed by the chief administrative law judge or his designee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The chief administrative law judge shall keep such records as are necessary to facilitate proper allocation of costs to funds and agencies served and the director of financial management shall prescribe appropriate accounting procedures to accurately allocate costs to funds and agencies served.
Billings shall be adjusted in line with actual costs incurred at intervals not to exceed six months.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In cases where there are unanticipated demands for services of the office of administrative hearings or where there are insufficient funds on hand or available for payment through the administrative hearings revolving fund or in other cases of necessity, the chief administrative law judge may request payment for services directly from agencies for whom the services are performed to the extent that revenues or other funds are available. Upon approval by the director of financial management, the agency shall make the requested payment. The payment may be made on either an advance or reimbursable basis as approved by the director of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. RCW 34.12.040 shall not apply to transportation tariff docket hearings conducted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The Washington utilities and transportation commission may, however, on its own motion, refer any transportation docket item to an administrative law judge where it is determined that the transportation tariff item in question may have an overall economic impact on transportation costs.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3847.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Metcalf, if we adopt this amendment, does this essentially put us back to the law as we currently are? Would it be the same as, couldn't we just let the bill die if this is what we are going to do and have the same outcome?"

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you; no, it still allows the . . . but the way we passed the bill allowed, and the House found it, we didn't think was a problem but they did, allowed that amount to go 'way up and the wording now would keep it from going 'way up to raise it and the limit is still there. I think the bill still has validity even with that."

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Metcalf, what is changed in current law if we reinstate the uniform allowance as it was, as it currently is? Then what is being changed?"

Senator Metcalf: "I think the difference between having to do it and 'may.' Now this is their option. They can save a little money if they can. That is my understanding, Senator. I haven't gotten the bill book out."

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3847.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 4461.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Hemstad, I notice in the digest of the House floor amendment that a hospital administrator, a doctor, may detain a child without notifying law enforcement or child protective services for as long as 72 hours. Isn't that an unprecedented authority to give to a hospital administrator or doctor?"
Senator Hemstad: "Well, again, I believe the phrasing is 'as soon as possible but not to exceed 72 hours,' and the notification is to be to the child protective services, and, but put that kind of a time limit. That is, currently, there is no present standard for the time within which the notification had to occur. Actually this is a tightening of that requirement rather than loosening of it."

Senator Goltz: "Well, as I read this, you know what this means is that a child can literally disappear and even though the parents may have no right, as it were, to get that child back at that particular time, to protect that child, I don't understand why a hospital administrator or doctor would not contact a law enforcement official. 72 hours is typically done because you can go over a weekend, and in this case, it looks like a law enforcement officer would always be available, and it seems like a very . . . ."

Senator Hemstad: "If I can pursue the matter, Senator Goltz. The impact of section 8 is that the hospital administrator is required to notify child protective services within 72 hours from the time the police or the parent is notified of the intent to detain. In other words, the police or the parent have been advised of the problem. This is only saying that child protective services within DSHS which has responsibilities for abused children, must be notified within 72 hours."

Senator Goltz: "Thank you very much."

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4461.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4559 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act may be known and cited as the forms reduction act of 1982.

NE Wi 5 SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that the functioning of state government, business, and individual activities is becoming increasingly more cumbersome as the number, length, and complexity of forms increase and that the forms burden imposed by the state can be a hindrance to the citizens of the state and can add to the costs of products and services. Eliminating unnecessary forms will simplify paperwork, increase efficiency, effect productivity improvements, and reduce costs related to the amount of time individuals and businesses are required to take to complete various forms and to the procurement, printing, storage, use, and distribution of forms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 7 of this act.

(1) "State agency" means any executive branch office, department, board, commission, or other separate unit or division, however designated. The term includes any unit of state government established by law of which the executive officer or each member is either elected or appointed, and upon which the statutes confer powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a governmental or proprietary nature. It also includes every state-supported institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) By July 30, 1983, and by July 30 of each even-numbered year thereafter, each state agency shall report the following information to the office of financial management for the previous fiscal year ending on June 30:

(a) The estimated total number of hours required to fill out each form; and
(b) The estimated number of people filling out each form.
(2) The product of the numbers provided under (a) of subsection (1) of this section multiplied by the numbers provided under (b) of subsection (1) of this section constitutes the form burden for each form.

(3) The sum of all the products in subsection (2) of this section for each agency constitutes the agency's form burden for that fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) For the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1984, each agency shall satisfy the director that it has reduced by fifteen percent its form burden that it had for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1983. The director of financial management may specifically waive this requirement for an agency if necessary for the efficient and effective administration of the agency and the carrying out of its duties.

(2) An agency's form burden established under subsection (1) of this section for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1984, shall not be increased except with the specific authorization of the director after a finding by the director that the increase is necessary for the efficient and effective administration of the agency and the carrying out of its duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The director shall adopt rules governing the reports required under section 4 of this act. The director shall review each report to determine whether it is an accurate estimate of the agency's form burden. By November 1, 1983, and by November 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter, the director shall provide a report to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate showing the agencies, if any, which have not complied with sections 2 through 5 of this act and shall report each agency's form burden and the total state-wide form burden.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The director of financial management shall place one-half of one percent of all funds appropriated to an agency in reserve if the agency does not comply with section 5(1) of this act. The director shall hold such funds in reserve until the agency complies or the appropriation expires.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 8 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1985, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 8 of this act are each added to chapter 43.41 RCW.

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1011, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by House Committee on Local Government and Representatives Isaacson and Martinis):
Defining and limiting appearance of fairness doctrine.
The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1011. On March 7, 1982, the following committee amendments had been moved for adoption.
Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:
*NEW SECTION. Section 1. Application of the appearance of fairness doctrine to local land use decisions shall be limited to the quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies as defined in this section. Quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies are those actions of the legislative body, planning commis­sion, hearing examiner, zoning adjuster, board of adjustment, or boards which determine the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties in a hearing or other contested case proceeding. Quasi-judicial actions do not include the legislative actions adopting, amending, or revising comprehensive, community, or neighborhood plans or other land use planning documents or the adoption of area-wide zoning ordinances or the adoption of a zoning amendment that is of area-wide significance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. No member of a local decision-making body may be disqualified by the appearance of fairness doctrine for conducting the business of his or her office with any constituent on any matter other than a quasi-judicial action then pending before the local legislative body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No legislative action taken by a local legislative body, its members, or local executive officials shall be invalidated by an application of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Prior to declaring as a candidate for public office or while campaigning for public office as defined by RCW 42.17.020(5) and (25) no public discussion or expression of an opinion by a person subsequently elected to a public office, on any pending or proposed quasi-judicial actions, shall be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A candidate for public office who complies with all provisions of applicable public disclosure and ethics laws shall not be limited from accepting campaign contributions to finance the campaign, including outstanding debts; nor shall it be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine to accept such campaign contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. During the pendency of any quasi-judicial proceed­ing, no member of a decision-making body may engage in ex parte communications with opponents or proponents with respect to the proposal which is the subject of the proceeding. This prohibition does not preclude a member of a decision-making body from seeking in a public hearing specific information or data from such parties rela­tive to the decision if both the request and the results are a part of the record. Nor does such prohibition preclude correspondence between a citizen and his or her elected official if any such correspondence is made a part of the record when it per­tains to the subject matter of a quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Participation by a member of a decision-making body in earlier proceedings that result in an advisory recommendation to a decision­making body shall not disqualify that person from participating in any subsequent quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Anyone seeking to rely on the appearance of fairness document to disqualify a member of a decision-making body from participating in a decision must raise the challenge as soon as the basis for disqualification is made known to the individual. Where the basis is known or should reasonably have been known prior to the issuance of a decision and is not raised, it may not be relied on to invalidate the decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In the event of a challenge to a member or members of a decision-making body which would cause a lack of a quorum or would result in a failure to obtain a majority vote as required by law, any such challenged member(s) shall be permitted to fully participate in the proceeding and vote as though the challenge had not occurred, if the member or members publicly disclose the basis for disqualification prior to rendering a decision. Such participation shall not subject the decision to a challenge by reason of violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the restriction or elimination of the appearance of fairness doctrine by the appellate courts. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to expand the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Nothing in this chapter prohibits challenges to local land use decisions where actual violations of an individual's right to a fair hearing can be demonstrated.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 42 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

The following amendment to the committee amendment had been moved for adoption by Senator Hemstad on March 7, 1982:

On page 1 of the Committee amendment, line 22, after "proceeding," strike the remainder of section 1, through and including "significance," on line 30

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hemstad, not too far from where I live, a developer is trying to put in a large mobile home park, 300 plus units. The neighbors are incensed. They have a petition and they are demanding to see the county commissioners. Now if your amendment is adopted, can they see the county commissioners or not?"

Senator Hemstad: "First I want to be a bit cautious in my response since I am not an active practitioner in land use affairs and that, if what is going to be proposed in front of the city council will be a spot-zone change in how that land can be used, and they will then sit and make that determination, then whether this stays in or not, under the bill they could not be, the members of that, other than in the open hearing as part of the record."

The motion by Senator Hemstad failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, there being no objection, amendments to the committee amendment to page 1, line 22, page 3, line 20 and page 3, line 29 on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, were withdrawn.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 12, strike all of section 4 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal cross-references.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, what you are saying is that, and I anticipate there will be a lot of these cases coming up, where somebody is running for PUD commissioner, and he takes a position and says 'I think whatever they have done there on WPPSS is wrong; I am going to go in and try to correct it.' later on he is elected and he has to make quasi-judicial decisions. He wouldn't be permitted to do that because he has already declared himself as a candidate, right?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator Rasmussen, because the decision with respect to WPPSS would not relate to land use. The doctrine of appearance of fairness has only been involved in the land use process where somebody is attempting to zone or rezone, change a comprehensive plan or something like that."
"The concern I have, in specific, is, say it is Senator Rasmussen who is running for the Pierce county council and you are asked to comment on a particular land use decision. How do you know, at the time you are making that comment, whether it is a quasi-judicial act you are talking about or a legislative act? You only know after the court has decided it, so you may go ahead and talk about it and find it is a quasi-judicial act that you have talked about, your decision will be invalidated on appearance of fairness grounds.

"I guess what I am saying is we are not going to cure the defects that we are attempting to cure by the enactment of this particular section because no local elected official or local candidate is going to be able to know in advance whether the decision that they are commenting on is quasi-judicial or legislative."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I think as Senator Clarke explained it, that is what this would do, it would say that that doesn't disqualify you; you are allowed to make that statement or any statement you want to, because you are allowed to make that statement or any statement you want to, because you are not in a position where you could assume quasi-judicial position until after you are elected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Talmadge, let us set up a hypothetical situation where a county council candidate is running in Whatcom county and during the course of his campaign, he says, 'If I am elected I will look with favor upon a permit from the Chicago Bridge and Iron.' Under the present law, is he disqualified from voting under the appearance of fairness doctrine?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think he would be, Senator Goltz."

Senator Goltz: "And what would happen under the proposed amendment?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think under the proposed amendment if it were a legislative act, he would not be subject to any violation for appearance of fairness purposes. In reading this section, it appears to say that if it is a public discussion or expression of an opinion by a person subsequently elected to public office, on any pending or proposed quasi-judicial action, none of those discussions or expressions would be in violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

"I guess, I spoke earlier, it may in fact not be a violation of appearance of fairness. The difficulty would be that the courts of the state may come along and find that appearance of fairness is a Constitutional thing. A judicial officer cannot express in advance what his or her decision is going to be when they are running for elected office. That is the problem I see."

Senator Goltz: "I think you have just confused me; I thought I had your answer, and now I think you have changed it. But . . ."

Senator Talmadge: "I may have confused myself."

Senator Goltz: "I think, Senator Talmadge, what I am concerned about is, that I agree with Senator Clarke, that if a person is running for office and the issue is, 'Should a permit be granted to Chicago Bridge and Iron?', I think that candidate has an obligation to say what his position would be as a legislator on that particular issue; so if I understand this motion correctly I want to be on Senator Clarke's team for this one. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Clarke, let us take this example. We have a commissioner running for reelection and we have a challenger, and what advantage or disadvantage is it to the incumbent in this situation, because the challenger, obviously, can start in in January or March or April or June, while the incumbent, perhaps, has his hands tied?"
Senator Clarke: "I don't think that that distinction is really applicable to whether this amendment is or is not adopted. My understanding is that any candidate for office, whether he is an incumbent or not, unquestionably has a right to take a position on any legislative matter and say what he would do. Now, under the doctrine of fairness, the supreme court has injected a question as to whether he can make an expression of what his opinion is with something that would later be held to be quasi-judicial. The purpose of this wording was to say that when he is running for office, he doesn't have to try to make a determination of whether his statement has to do with the legislative or semi-judicial; he can just state what his position would be or what he thinks about it and without fear of, after he is elected, that it is going to be claimed that he made some comment on it quasi-judicial."

"The only reason for having the wording in, is because of the question raised as to whether he can make a statement on something that is later determined to be quasi-judicial."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. Responding further to Senator Goltz' question. It seems to me quite clear that that candidate could, under this bill, comment and take a position on Chicago Bridge and Iron in Whatcom county.

"I think the concern Senator Talmadge is raising is that there may be some Constitutional overtones here that the statute cannot touch; but there is nothing much we can do about that.

"But further, in response to Senator Moore's question, it is an interesting point, that I don't think section 4 adequately addresses. As I read section 4 it probably does result in the incumbent's hands being tied but the nonincumbent candidate can say whatever he wishes."

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3 of the Committee Amendment, beginning on line 20, strike all of section 7, renumber the remaining sections consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hemstad failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 4, line 5, strike all of section 9 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal cross-references.

Debate ensued.

Senators Peterson, Hayner and Scott demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator Talmadge to the committee amendment.
The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1011, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Hemstad, we just added an emergency clause. Can you tell me what the nature of the emergency is that makes this vital to, I think the term is 'the public health, safety and welfare'?"

Senator Hemstad: "I do not believe there is in effect an emergency, and it probably would have been better without it."

Senator Ridder: "Senator Clarke, you have been speaking quite a bit to this, can you tell me?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, the emergency, I think, is to remove an uncertainty in many, many instances as to how public bodies may properly act. There are many cases that are pending and would be pending where they need clarification as to what the doctrine of fairness is.

"And if you are going to adopt a law of this kind, I think that it ought to go into effect so that it can be used immediately."

Senator Ridder: "Thank you." It would seem to me that if there are indeed cases pending, it is a shame to send this flying through here now in such a way that it will intervene with those. It would seem better to have them follow their resolution without the legislature's intervention."

Senator Clarke: "You will note that, I have two answers to that: number one is that this is a doctrine, appearance of fairness was adopted by the courts; and there have been some instances, as a matter of fact one of the very well-known justices in affirming a case, stated, in substance, that he thought this doctrine should probably be abandoned.

"So I suggest that it is very advantageous for the legislature to endeavor to clarify this matter, and I think it will be of assistance rather than detrimental."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Clarke, this would appear to be an issue involving rights rather than procedure, so I take it you would agree with me that it cannot be retroactive?"

Senator Clarke: "I think that would be a matter for the courts to decide as to whether it was a substantial change in right, rather than procedure. I would hesitate to voice an opinion on that."

Senator Bottiger: "May I rephrase it? Is it your intent that it be retroactive?"

Senator Clarke: "My personal intent is that it would apply to all pending matters, yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Bottiger, would it be your understanding that the application of the bill that, if it were to pass here, will, in fact, be retroactive, in effect?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I have to disagree with Senator Clarke. I don't see how it could be. This affects rights rather than procedures, and I don't think we can pass a bill that retroactively affects existing litigation."

Further debate ensued.
REMARKS BY SENATOR SHINPOCH

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, I would just like to make one clarification. It is my understanding that the Boeing company has no litigation going on currently that this bill would affect or would impact, that the litigation they had through corporate headquarters was over with some three months ago."

Debate ensued.

Signed by: Senators Clarke, Chairman; Hemstad, Vice Chairman; Hayner, Newhouse, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 3 of the committee amendment, after line 8, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 64, Laws of 1933 and RCW 9.41.190 are each amended to read as follows:

((That)) It ((shall)) is unlawful for any person to manufacture, own, buy, sell, loan, furnish, transport, or have in possession((;)) or under control, any machine gun, or any part thereof capable of use or assembling or repairing any machine gun: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such limitation shall not apply to any peace officer in the discharge of official duty, or to any officer or member of the armed forces of the United States of the state of Washington: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section does not apply to a person, including an employee of such person, who or which is exempt from or licensed under the National Firearms Act (26 U.S.C. section 5801 et seq.), and engaged in the production, manufacture, or testing of weapons or equipment to be used or purchased by the armed forces of the United States, and having a United States government industrial security clearance."

Renumber the sections following consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, following line 8, insert a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is unlawful for a person other than a federal, state, or local law enforcement officer, licensed security guard, members of the National Guard, members of the federal military, or a person authorized by the school authorities to be in possession or physical control of any firearm or pistol in any public or private elementary or secondary school building, or on the campus of such school.

Any violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Bottiger, as I read this, 'a public or private elementary or secondary school would not' then you speak of 'on the campus of such school would not include an institution of higher learning.' Is that correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "The amendment as I drafted was pretty much aimed at the K through twelve. I can see on a campus you may have a different problem and if you would care to offer another amendment I would have no objection."

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Rasmussen to the committee amendment:
On page 3 of the committee amendment, after line 8, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 4, chapter 124, Laws of 1961 and RCW 9.41.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(No person shall carry a pistol in any vehicle unless it is unloaded or carry a pistol concealed on his person, except in his place of abode or fixed place of business; without a license therefor as hereinafter provided) (1) Except in the person's place of abode or fixed place of business, a person shall not carry a pistol concealed on his or her person without a license to carry a concealed weapon.

(2) A person who is in possession of an unloaded pistol shall not leave the unloaded pistol in a vehicle unless the unloaded pistol is locked within the vehicle and concealed from view from outside the vehicle.

(3) A person shall not carry or place a loaded pistol in any vehicle unless the person has a license to carry a concealed weapon and: (a) The pistol is on the licensee's person, (b) the licensee is within the vehicle at all times that the pistol is there, or (c) the licensee is away from the vehicle and the pistol is locked within the vehicle and concealed from view from outside the vehicle."

tinue indefinitely, and which constitutes a substantial handicap to such individual."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 922, by House Committee on Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Amen, Williams, Sommers, Greengo, Nelson (G.), Struthers, Houchen, Thompson and Becker) (by Legislative Budget Committee request):

Authorizing parole board to reduce prison overcrowding.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

An amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen and Hurley will be considered at a later time.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen:

On page 1, line 21, after "section" insert ": PROVIDED, That certification, in writing, by the Governor and concurrence of the Secretary of the Department of Corrections that reductions to reduce prison overcrowding are necessary, shall precede any action by the board"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Talmadge, I see the triggering—in mechanism but I don't see any way to trigger out. I guess what I am asking is, is there any time when once a certification is made that the prison goes back to a state which is not one of being overcrowded so that the authority given under the triggering is terminated?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, we did not have a trigger-out provision, Senator Goltz. I think we left that pretty much up to the discretion of the governor and the secretary of corrections. The feeling was that the protection was more important at the trigger-in stage than at the trigger-out stage; and we would rely on the discretion of the governor and the secretary to so declare.

"But I think the triggering-in section is one that is important for invoking the authority of the board to release someone on the basis of overcrowding."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Talmadge, while we are doing this, why don't we delete the words 'or treason?' Treason is a federal crime and not a state crime and I don't know anybody that has ever been convicted in the state court for treason."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, for the life of me, I couldn't figure out why the House or the proponents of the measure here in the Senate would keep 'treason' in as one of the crimes to be concerned about."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge, the amendment under consideration by the Senate is on page 1, line 21, after section insert 'Provided that certification in writing by the governor and concurrence of the secretary of the department of corrections, that reductions to reduce prison overcrowding are necessary, shall precede any action by the board.' That is the amendment under consideration?"

Senator Talmadge: "That is correct, Mr. President. Senator Bottiger's remarks were directed I believe to the third of the three amendments that are on that page."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Thank you, Mr. President, but the word 'treason'—such a wonderful word and it occurs so many times in all the childhood and boyhood books like 'Kidnapped' and Robert Louis Stevenson's 'Treasure Island' and so forth. Too bad to leave it out.

"But what I really am standing for, would Senator Talmadge mind yielding to a question?

"What about the phasing out of the board of prison terms and paroles? What about your amendment that involves them and they are supposed to phase out, what, 1983?"

Senator Talmadge: "1984, Senator."

Senator Haley: "Well, what happens after they phase out with this amendment that tells them to do certain things?"

Senator Talmadge: "This amendment would also phase out. The authority to release prisoners is under House Bill 440. Once the board of prison terms and paroles phases out at the end of 1983, the board of clemency and pardons, I believe is the new organization under House Bill 440 then takes over and effects the authority of the board of prison terms and paroles. The board of prison terms and paroles and all of the issues contained in this bill would themself phase out once the board itself phases out at the end of 1983."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.
MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Deccio moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen was adopted.

Senator Deccio demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Deccio that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen was adopted.

ROLL CALL ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration failed by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 27; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, McCaslin, Hurley, Vognild, Craswell, Rasmussen and von Reichbauer:

On page 1, section 1, line 13 after "consequences." add

"The Legislature also recognizes that any immediate reduction in prison inmate population must be balanced with the need to protect society by ensuring that unrehabilitated inmates convicted of violent crimes are not prematurely released into society."

Debate ensued.

Senator Pullen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Pullen and others.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McCaslin, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson—23.

Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming—1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge:

On page 1, line 21, after "shall not" strike "be inconsistent with any" and insert "apply to inmates serving"

Debate ensued.
Senator Riddet: "Senator Pullen, I am not quite sure of the application of your amendment. Unlike you, perhaps, or perhaps you read so clearly, I can't understand the original language.

"I am wondering, however, if, and you know more about sentencing I think than I do, but (from your studies), but where it says 'apply to inmates serving.' If, in a case where there is a mandatory minimum sentence and someone has been sentenced to a term longer than the minimum, would those inmates then be eligible for earlier release or not? Or would your amendment exclude those? If they had already served their mandatory minimum?"

Senator Pullen: "No, this amendment and the language of the bill would apply only to those inmates who are convicted of a very serious life-endangering crime. And when that happens, a minimum period of confinement is set by the parole board.

"Under RCW 9.95.040 which is cited in the bill, that minimum is ordinarily five years. It could be higher. But the minimum is invariably far less than the maximum sentence. For example for a Class A felony, the maximum sentence is life. Normally a person sentenced to a Class A felony would, in far less than life, usually less than ten years, in fact, it is frequently the five-year mandatory minimum.

"So both the bill and some of these subsequent amendments, including the one that I am offering here, would merely refer to the minimum period of confinement set by the parole board."

Senator Riddert: "So that a person had a mandatory five-year sentence who say had been sentenced to ten, would still be eligible for some early reduction because he would have gone beyond the mandatory minimum — is that correct? I am trying to determine whether you are putting out those who are in that category, or whether you are simply trying to see that the mandatory minimum is not invaded."

Senator Pullen: "No; I believe that that is the intent of the bill and it also would be my intent to merely see that the mandatory minimum is not invaded."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge was adopted.

Senator Talmadge moved the following amendments by Senators Talmadge and Pullen be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 23, after "for treason" strike all of the material down to and including "degree" on line 24 and insert ", any class A felony"

On page 1, beginning on line 26, after "(2) The" strike all of the material down to and including "resources" on page 2, line 8 and insert the following: "board of prison terms and paroles shall adopt, within ninety days of the effective date of this act, guidelines for the reductions of the inmate population. These guidelines shall be applied to all inmates except those with mandatory minimums under RCW 9.95.040 or those confined for a class A felony. The rules shall be adopted pursuant to Chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) In establishing these guidelines, the board shall give priority to sentence reductions for inmates incarcerated for nonviolent offenses, inmates who are within six months of a scheduled parole, and inmates with the best records of conduct during confinement.

(4) In adopting this program, the board shall consider the public safety, the detrimental effect of overcrowding upon inmate rehabilitation, and the best allocation of limited correctional facility resources.

(5) The rules adopted according to the provisions of Section 2 of this act shall not be implemented until the rules are submitted to the senate social and health services and the house institutions committee for their consideration and review"

Renumber remaining sections accordingly.
MOTION
At 2:34 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.
The President called the Senate to order at 3:50 p.m.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4584.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Newhouse, as I understand the amendment, it changes, or for this portion of racing, it does not allow this to be distributed through the county fairs, is that correct?"

Senator Newhouse: "This is not the part that goes to the fair fund, Senator Goltz. This is an interest on an account that is accumulated in some few thousand dollars per year, presently divided into three counties which have this type of track. It so happens that Walla Walla county has two tracks, so any track, each one of those four tracks will get directly, my interpretation, one-fourth of that fund rather than each county getting one-third and then Walla Walla county having to divide that third into two tracks."

Senator Goltz: "Then the digest, concerning the House amendment, on page 13, is incorrect?"

Senator Newhouse: "That is my interpretation. The chairman of the committee and I went over and talked to the House people who were responsible for the amendment."

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4584.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 4584, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 878, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the bill.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1982.

Mr. President: The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 183, and asks the Senate recede therefrom, and said bill with the attached amendments thereto is herewith transmitted.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

President Pro Tempore Guess assumed the Chair.

MOTION

Senator Fuller moved the Senate recede from the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 183.

Debate ensued.
Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hemstad, Senator Sid Morrison was asked one time whether the energy fair would require an appropriation from the general fund and I would like to ask you, is it the intent of the local community to come to us to fund the Thurston county centennial fair?"

Senator Hemstad: "I cannot answer that as to the intent of any local group. The bill, I believe, calls for the creation and the appointment by the Governor of a centennial commission to come back with a plan, and it is really the makeup of that commission that will come back with the plan.

"We are looking seven years down the road; obviously there are going to be plenty of opportunities for this body to take a further look at how this issue is proceeding over the next several years.

"The reason for getting a bill adopted now is so that the process can actually start and so we can go on with a centennial celebration that is going to be appropriate and not be the shambles that the bicentennial was a few years ago at the national level."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Goltz demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Fuller that the Senate do recede from the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 183.

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 922, by House Committee on Institutions (originally sponsored by Representatives Amen, Williams, Sommers, Greengo, Nelson (G.), Struthers, Houchen, Thompson and Becker) (by Legislative Budget Committee request):

Authorizing parole board to reduce prison overcrowding.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 922 from earlier today. The following amendments by Senators Talmadge and Pullen had been moved for adoption at that time:

On page 1, line 23, after "for treason" strike all of the material down to and including "degree" on line 24 and insert ", any class A felony"

On page 1, beginning on line 26, after "(2) The" strike all of the material down to and including "resources" on page 2, line 8 and insert the following: "board of prison terms and paroles shall adopt, within ninety days of the effective date of this act, guidelines for the reductions of the inmate population. These guidelines shall be applied to all inmates except those with mandatory minimums under RCW 9.95.040 or those confined for a class A felony. The rules shall be adopted pursuant to Chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) In establishing these guidelines, the board shall give priority to sentence reductions for inmates incarcerated for nonviolent offenses, inmates who are within six months of a scheduled parole, and inmates with the best records of conduct during confinement.

(4) In adopting this program, the board shall consider the public safety, the detrimental effect of overcrowding upon inmate rehabilitation, and the best allocation of limited correctional facility resources.

(5) The rules adopted according to the provisions of Section 2 of this act shall not be implemented until the rules are submitted to the senate social and health services and the house institutions committee for their consideration and review"

Debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen:

On page 1, line 23 after "treason", insert "felony sales of controlled substance" and on page 2, line 3 after "treason", insert "felony sales of controlled substance"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Bottiger, the concern I have with respect to your amendment is the drafting of it. It leaves, I think, something to be desired."
"Do you know what the punishment is for the violation of drug pushing these days?"

Senator Bottiger: "A felony sale of a controlled substance would, I believe that the minimum is supposed to be five years. You see all these drug pushers getting off with five years or something even less, so I just don't know the details, I think that is one of the crimes in which the judge has a lot of discretion."

Senator Talmadge: "What I was getting at was the classification of penalty for the felony: class D, class B, class A felony?"

Senator Bottiger: "I don't have any idea."

Senator Talmadge: "Do you have any idea if the felony sale of controlled substances is something that is defined in the RCW these days?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I see it in the paper all the time; I don't do any criminal work but I see the charge 'felony sale of controlled substance' what the person is charged and convicted under."

Senator Talmadge: "I don't do any criminal work either, Senator Bottiger, but I think my concern is that that doesn't relate to anything that now exists in the RCW and what I guess I would move, Mr. President, we set the bill down a couple of bills in order that Senator Bottiger have the amendment prepared in a form that recognizes what is properly in the RCW relating to drug pushing."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Yes, Mr. President. If the motion to set it down is the one before us, I would also ask that during that intervening time, the President take a look to see whether the Bottiger amendment to the Talmadge amendment expands the scope and object of the Talmadge amendment.

"I would offer that suggestion in utter seriousness because in the Talmadge amendment you have a list of very violent life-endangering crimes and the Bottiger amendment, which may be meritorious as a separate amendment, I think does change radically the character of the Talmadge amendment, and while it may not be proper to raise the question of scope and object at this point because the Talmadge motion to put it down, a bill is pending, perhaps we can begin to take a look at that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 922, together with the pending amendments and the Point of Order raised by Senator Pullen, was ordered held for consideration at a later time.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 143, Laws of 1981 a new section to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

(1) For design, site preparation including land acquisition at a nominal cost, and utilities for a 500-bed medium security corrections center.

(2) For design, site preparation including land acquisition at nominal cost, and utilities to provide for the future construction and equipping of a 500-bed medium security corrections center. The design of this correction center shall be in common with the 500-bed medium security correction center to be constructed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

General Fund—State Social and Health Services

Construction Account Appropriation $10,550,000

(3) To repair heating and ventilation systems at the McNeil Island Corrections Center: PROVIDED, That these funds shall not be expended until the department of general administration completes an engineering energy audit of this facility as authorized under RCW 43.19.675.

General Fund—State Social and Health Services

Construction Account Appropriation $500,000

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 234, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.83H.172 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, improving, and equipping of social and health services and department of corrections facilities, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one hundred fifty-four million eight hundred fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance these projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by RCW 43.83H.172 through 43.83H.182 may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation.

The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 43.17.200 are each amended to read as follows:

All state agencies or departments shall expend, as a nondeductible item, out of any moneys appropriated for the original construction of any state building, an amount of one-half of one percent of the appropriation for the acquisition of works of art which may be an integral part of the structure, attached to the structure, detached within or outside of the structure, or can be exhibited by the agency in other public facilities. In case the amount shall not be required in toto or in part for any project, such unrequired amounts may be accumulated and expended for art in other projects of the agency. Expenditures for works of art as provided for herein shall be contracted for separately from all other items in the original construction of any state building. In addition to the cost of the works of art the one-half of one percent of the appropriation as provided herein shall be used to provide for the administration by the contracting agency, the architect and Washington state arts commission and all costs for installation of the works of art. For the purpose of this section building shall not include highway construction sheds, warehouses or other buildings of a temporary nature, or correctional facilities."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "Point of order, Mr. President. I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment and I would like to speak to that, please.

"Mr. President, actually my raising the point of order on scope and object only deals with the new section 3 that is in it and could be corrected by an amendment to remove section 3. However, section 3 deals with chapter 176 in RCW 43.17.200 which is merely the conditions under which agencies start to expend money for acquisition of art. The title of the bill deals with chapter 234 and chapter 143 and 43.83H.172 which deals with the issuance and sales of GO bonds, general obligation bonds, and there's nowhere in the bill or in the title, does it deal with the conditions under which agencies may expend monies for the acquisition of art. And therefore I feel that section 3 of the proposed amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. As used in this chapter, the terms in this section shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Agency" means the state of Washington, any of its political subdivisions, including any city, town, or county, and any other public body exercising regulatory authority or control over the use of real property in the state.

(2) "Permit" means any governmental approval required by law before an owner of a property interest may improve, sell, transfer, or otherwise put property to use.

(3) "Property interest" means any interest or right in real property in the state.
"Damages" means reasonable costs, expenses, and losses incurred between the time a cause of action arises and the time the owner is granted relief as provided in section 2 of this act. Damages must be caused by an act, necessarily incurred, and actually suffered, realized, or expended, but are not based upon diminution in value of or damage to real property, or litigation expenses.

(5) "Regulation" means any ordinance, resolution, or other rule or regulation adopted pursuant to the authority provided by state law, which imposes or alters restrictions, limitations, or conditions on the use of property.

(6) "Act" means a final decision by an agency which places requirements, limitations, or conditions upon the use of land in excess of those allowed by applicable regulations in effect on the date an application for a permit is filed. "Act" also means the failure of an agency to act within time limits established by law in response to a property owner's application for a permit: PROVIDED, That there is no "act" within the meaning of this section when the owner of a property interest agrees in writing to extensions of time, or to the conditions or limitations imposed upon an application for a permit. "Act" shall not include lawful decisions of an agency which are designed to prevent a condition which would constitute a threat to the health, safety, welfare, or morals of residents in the area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Owners of a property interest who have filed an application for a permit to obtain relief from acts of an agency which are arbitrary, capricious, unlawful, or exceed lawful authority, or relief from a failure to act within time limits established by law, have an action for damages and costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee: PROVIDED, That the action is unlawful or in excess of lawful authority only if the final decision of the agency was made with knowledge of its unlawfulness or that it was in excess of lawful authority, or it should reasonably have been known to have been unlawful or in excess of lawful authority.

(2) No cause of action is created for relief from unintentional procedural or ministerial errors of an agency.

(3) Invalidation of any regulation in effect prior to the date an application for a permit is filed with the public entity shall not constitute a cause of action under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any action to assert claims under the provisions of this chapter shall be commenced only within thirty days after all administrative remedies have been exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The remedies provided by this chapter are in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 22, following "put" insert "real"

On page 1, line 26, following "(4)" strike all of the subsection and insert: "Damages" means reasonable expenses and losses, other than speculative losses or profits, incurred between the time a cause of action arises and the time a holder of an interest in real property is granted relief as provided in section 2 of this act.
Damages must be caused by an act, necessarily incurred, and actually suffered, realized, or expended, but are not based upon diminution in value of or damage to real property, or litigation expenses."

On page 2, line 9, following "of" insert "real" and on line 13, strike "land" and insert "real property"

On page 2, following line 33, insert a new paragraph to read as follows: "In any action brought pursuant to this act, a defense is available to a political subdivision of this state that its act was mandated by a change in statute or state rule or regulation and that such a change became effective subsequent to the filing of an application for a permit."

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1006, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Hemstad, this does, then, make it substantially easier to develop property? This is a development bill, this is a real estate development bill or is it, make it more difficult or more easy to develop property?"

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Metcalf, I can't answer the question in either, your 'either/or' arrangement. What it is doing is providing to a party with a grievance for arbitrary, capricious, or unlawful conduct by local officials in failure on a timely basis to authorize the development of the property to recover damages for that period of time in which the property was improperly withheld from development.

"I don't think that translates into say, at this point, as finally drafted, now after careful wording, I don't think that that translates into an ability to say this is a bill that favors or disfavors development. I suppose you can say it is a bill that is attempting to deal fairly with the developer if he has been improperly treated."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Senator Hemstad."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Hemstad, I suppose it will be much easier to develop property than it will be to develop legislation if we keep having all these questions. "But I would like to ask the question, does this bill encompass the concept that a property owner could sue for damages if a city downgrades a zone of the property owned by a property owner? It does not encompass that, does it?"

Senator Hemstad: "It does not encompass that concept."

Senator Goltz: "Thank you."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Quigg moved the committee amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, there was a section in this bill that allowed the subcontractor to be paid his retainage when his part of the job was done and accepted. And for some reason that has been amended out and I would like to have an explanation of that."
"And I would like to tell you a little story about the stadium bowl. The subcontractor that built the bathhouses and the rest rooms had his work not only accepted but used for two-and-one-half years, and because the general is in trouble, he still hasn't been paid for his retainage. And why did we amend that section out?"

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President, Senator Bottiger, we worked this whole thing really, really hard and we worked between the subcontractors and the general contractors. And I cannot answer your question specifically on that point. If you would, we could hold the bill if you would like to get an answer on it; I can't answer it right now, I . . . ."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I am wise enough to know if we hold the bill, it is probably dead, and so I don't want to hold the bill; but I think that this is a case where the generals really ran over the subs and I wish that somebody on that committee had had just a little bit more to tell them where to go."

REMARKS BY SENATOR QUIGG

Senator Quigg: "Well, maybe to better respond as a member of the committee who is both a 'sub' and a 'general,' a sub who is often at the front end of a job, Senator Bottiger, you know the foundation work — right — I understand exactly what you are talking about. That was not brought up during the committee discussion of the bill; so whether it was stricken in the House side, I don't know, but it was not in the bill when it came to the Senate and so it must have been knocked out over there, because I know exactly what you are talking about is a front end sub, so to speak, that is involved with earth work or foundation work and ends up waiting for the end of the job to be paid by a general who could find himself in financial problems; but when the bill came to the Senate state government committee that language was not in there; that was not an issue in the bill. It was more a matter of retainage and interest on the retainage."

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the committee amendments were adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the following amendments were adopted:
On page 1, line 19, strike "equal to" and insert "((equal to)) not to exceed".
On page 2, line 15 after "contractor" insert ": PROVIDED, That the contractor may request that retainage be reduced to one-hundred percent of the value of the work remaining on the project."
On page 3, line 12 after "contractor" insert "or subcontractor."
On page 3, line 12 after "to the subcontractor" insert "or sub subcontractor."

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 931, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Quigg, when I was attending part of the hearing, there was a lady from one of the local sewer districts, as I recall, who had some concerns about the retainage, the reduction or taking the retainage responsibility of the prime contractor, because when these contracts are finally signed off on, which was her responsibility, you have to go through and check and see that all the subs have paid their unemployment comp, and a number of other areas because if that is not done, the local, in this case the local district, would be liable for these things. And she expressed some real concerns about that in meeting the leverage on that retainage to, in some cases to get the contractors, subcontractors to perform.

"Were her concerns met by these amendments that you offered, and what are the protections we have in this area of unemployment comp payments, and so forth?"
Senator Quigg: "Senator Lysen, the committee amendment as well as the other amendments that we adopted here on the floor, don't deal with that but her concern was addressed by seeing to it that the use of a bond instead of retainage and the amount of retainage, to be retained, is to be determined by the contracting agency. So the case of a contractor that may not have established a record with this contracting agency, then she would have the latitude or let's say the water district or sewer district or wherever she was from, would be able to use the full force and effect of the retainage provisions that are in the law and they have agreed to these provisions that are now in the bill."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 931, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Second Reading

Engrossed House Bill No. 999, by Representatives Fiske, Lundquist and McDonald:

Authorizing island library districts.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 999 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considering the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Point of Inquiry

Senator Hansen: "Senator Zimmerman, when they up the portion of the tax revenue that ordinarily goes to the library district, is this coming out of the revenue that is already there or will this be a special levy over the top of what, the one percent . . . ?"

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Hansen, as far as I know, it will not be over and above; it will be out of the regular library . . . ."

Senator Hansen: "In other words, it will be taken out of the fire district . . . ?"

Senator Zimmerman: "No, no, it will not be taken out of the fire district. It will be out of the revenue that is allocated for the purpose of library districts; no, it would not be taking it away from the fire district."
Senator Hansen: "Well, they are already paying that portion, that portion is already going into their county library district, and so if you add any extra on to it, you would have to take it out of the existing taxes of the one percent property tax."

Senator Zimmerman: "Let me read this part of it here. It says that 'A library district can impose regular property taxes of up to 50¢ per thousand of assessed valuation for library purposes.' And they can issue general obligation bonds, retire such bonds with multi-voter approved excess property tax levies if they go voter approved, they can have an excess levy and they can impose for a single year, voter approved property tax levies. As I understand it, it will not have an adverse effect on the rural fire districts. But it obviously is, could be by such levy . . . could compete."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 999 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 999, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 848, by House Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by House Committee on Human Services and Representative Mitchell) (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Modifying provisions relating to child welfare services.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Hansen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hansen and Guess:

On page 8, line 6, after the period add

"(1) Private family day care homes which regularly provide care during any part of the twenty-four hour day for not more than twelve children, expectant mothers, or developmentally disabled persons, including the providers own children if under the age of six years, in the family abode, and the compensation for which is paid directly by the parent or legal guardian."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Ridder: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would raise the question of scope and object on the amendment; would speak to that.

"Thank you, Mr. President. The amendment deals with the bill that went through here earlier, it's true. However, it deals with family day care homes and the bill, House Bill 848, deals exclusively with foster home care and adoption services; and I do think that is outside the scope of the bill."

There being no objection, the Senate was declared to be at ease at 1:56 p.m. The President called the Senate to order at 2:13 p.m.
RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Ridder, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 848 is a measure which deals with the subject of foster care for children.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Hansen and Guess deals with the distinct subject of the deregulation of private family day care homes.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Hansen and Guess was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Deccio, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 848 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 848 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Conner—1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 848, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, with the consent of the Senate, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 600.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 600, by House Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice and Representatives Ellis, Patrick, Schmidt, Becker, Tilly, Winsley, Bickham, Pruitt and Granlund:

Making various changes in criminal law.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 600. On March 9, 1982, the committee amendment had been moved for adoption. An amendment by Senator Newhouse to the committee amendment had been adopted. An amendment by Senator Bottiger to the committee amendment failed. The following amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Rasmussen to the committee amendment had been moved for adoption and a point of order had been raised by Senator Charnley on that amendment.

On page 3 of the Committee Amendment, after line 8, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 4, chapter 124, Laws of 1961 and RCW 9.41.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(No person shall carry a pistol in any vehicle unless it is unloaded or carry a pistol concealed on his person, except in his place of abode or fixed place of business, without a license therefor hereinafter provided) (1) Except in the person’s place of abode or fixed place of business, a person shall not carry a pistol concealed on his or her person without a license to carry a concealed weapon.

(2) A person who is in possession of an unloaded pistol shall not leave the unloaded pistol in a vehicle unless the unloaded pistol is locked within the vehicle and concealed from view from outside the vehicle.

(3) A person shall not carry or place a loaded pistol in any vehicle unless the person has a license to carry a concealed weapon and: (a) The pistol is on the licensee's person, (b) the licensee is within the vehicle at all times that the pistol is there, or (c) the licensee is away from the vehicle and the pistol is locked within the vehicle and concealed from view from outside the vehicle."

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Charnley, the President finds that House Bill No. 600 is a measure which makes numerous changes to the state's criminal code.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Rasmussen deals with the subject of firearms which is included in the bill and is also the subject of Senator Newhouse's recently adopted amendment.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Rasmussen to the committee amendment was ruled in order.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendment by Senators Hemstad, Wojahn, Gould, Metcalf, Pullen and Woody to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 18 of the Committee Amendment, after line 23, insert the following: "Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 10.05-.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon arraignment in a court of limited jurisdiction a person charged with a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor may petition the court to be considered for a deferred prosecution program. A person charged with a traffic infraction, misdemeanor, or gross misdemeanor under Title 46 RCW shall not be eligible for a deferred prosecution program.

Sec. 24. Section 62, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 176, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.515 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61-.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ((one day)) twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars. The person shall, in addition, be required to ((complete a course at an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services. One day)) undergo an evaluation screening at a program approved by the department of social and health services or such other evaluation screening as the court shall designate. The screening shall employ standardized tests prescribed by the department of social and health services pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, to assess the person's need for alcoholism or drug abuse treatment. Based upon the outcome of that screening, the person shall be required to complete either a course at an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or a program of alcoholism or drug abuse treatment approved by the department of social and health services. The costs of the evaluation screening and alcohol information school shall be paid by the convicted person and be approved by the court. A convicted person who objects to the evaluation decision may petition the court to review the decision. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction (under RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504) for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine not more than one thousand dollars. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If such person at the time of a second or subsequent conviction is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete diagnostic evaluation and, if required, treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center, and a copy of the evaluation and treatment report shall be sent to the department of licensing.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor: PROVIDED, That all funds derived from such penalty assessment shall be in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.030 and shall be for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. Such penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from such penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section.
(5) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of ((either of the offenses named in RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504)) driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either such offense, be suspended by the department for not less than thirty days: PROVIDED, That the court may recommend that no suspension action be taken. The court shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either such offense within a five year period, be suspended by the department for not less than sixty days. The court shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports as provided in RCW 46.20.031 and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction under either such offense within a five year period, be revoked by the department.

(6) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, such revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case such conviction is sustained on appeal such revocation or suspension shall take effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

(7) The provisions of this section limiting the authority of a court to defer or suspend a sentence shall not take effect until January 1, 1980. The division of criminal justice, no later than December 31, 1980, shall submit a study to the house of representatives and to the senate which details the impact of the sentencing provisions established by this section. The impact study shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following information: The impact of the provisions upon county jail conditions and bed space, the cost impact of the provisions upon local and state governments, and the existence of alternative facilities to which individuals sentenced under this section may be committed.)"
The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the committee amendment to the title, as amended, was adopted.

Absent or not voting: Senators Benitz, Conner, Gallagher, von Reichbauer—4.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 922 was ordered held for later consideration.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1174, by House Committee on Ways and Means and Representatives Chandler and Wang:

Requiring joint operating agencies to pay costs of elections authorizing sale of bonds for major public energy projects.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1174 was placed on third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Pullen, how many people in the state of Washington will vote on one of these ballots?"

Senator Pullen: "Well, it could be literally in the millions; it might depend on whether the upcoming issue would be on the primary ballot or the November ballot. There is some question as to when that would be."

Senator Vognild: "Well done; I just raised the question. Let's try again. Will all citizens of the state of Washington who are registered voters be allowed to vote on this issue?"

Senator Pullen: "I think Senator Gould would like to answer that question."
REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "It is my understanding that under the provisions of 394, the people that will vote are those who are voters within the member districts, in other words, the PUDs and the utilities of the state, of municipal utilities in the state; but not those who are in the private power areas."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Gould, do any of the auditors know which people within a precinct are supplied by private or public power? And I would just like to tell you that on the street I live on you have a choice, some people are on Puget and some are on Elmhurst and we are right in the middle of a precinct. Does any auditor know the answer to that question?"

Senator Gould: "I haven't told the auditor, Senator, but I'll be sure, I can be assured that they will know by the time the vote comes."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENITZ

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. I guess I have been off the floor, I begged to be excused for that. But I did want to make the statement that there are some questions about this bill as whether or not the costs of an election can legally be considered legitimate costs of construction, of constructing a project. "If they cannot, and this act is held invalid, the election costs will apparently revert to the general fund, and that is a point that I think should be made now so that later on when it happens, not too many of us come unglued. But it is one of distinct possibility and I feel it should be mentioned here."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1174 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 13; excused, 3.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1149, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Bond, Galloway, McGinnis and others):

Modifying state fireworks law.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1149, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Bond, Galloway, McGinnis and others):

Modifying state fireworks law.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, line 1 after "visible" insert "or audible"

On page 7, line 18 after "display." strike all the material down to and including "county."

Signed by: Senators Quigg, Chairman; Jones, Newhouse, Sellar, Vognild.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the committee amendments to page 4, line 1 and page 7, line 18 were adopted.

Senator Quigg moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 8, line 10.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Quigg, every once in a while a goof is engaged to come around and shoot off fireworks at the Okanogan county fair. And the extent of my question is, this won't make the premium so high as to interrupt that patriotic process?"
Senator Quigg: "As you know, Senator Wilson, the commerce and labor committee is very sensitive about interrupting patriotism; we have checked this with these people, the proponents of the amendment that were from the industry that puts on those kinds of displays and they said that this would not cause a problem of insurance premiums and that it was a level that they could live with and it would also provide accrued coverage. There have been cases where folks have really been injured by these kinds of displays, so the industry that puts on those displays, like a 4th of July celebration, supports the amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Quigg, in many small towns around the state, including my own, on the 4th of July the fire department is the technicians that put off the community displays. Does this mean that every little local fire district is going to have to have a million-dollar insurance policy before they can do their civic duty?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Peterson, in the case of a fire department, I imagine they probably have substantial insurance limits anyway; but as I read the section, that if they were putting on a commercial display that they would have to have this kind of coverage; and once again, the testimony of the committee was presented by the insurance commissioner's office as well as the people who sell the fireworks to folks like the volunteer firemen and as well as to the commercial fireworks display operators. This was an amendment they supported so what I can see from the support, both the fire service community as well as the fireworks industry, I don't imagine they would find this a burden."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Quigg, we passed another bill, I think it is a Senate bill, earlier this session, and as I recall, in it, it had two things that I was concerned about; but one of them was, and I will ask you, does this bill set the requirements in terms of what fireworks may be sold and no individual community may set higher standards, or more restrictive standards, in terms of the sale of fireworks in their jurisdiction?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator, I believe the bill sets the maximum standard. It does not set a minimum, it sets a maximum. I think this was also addressed on the question of the permit cost; in other words we didn't want, there was a concern about ... about adjoining jurisdictions or because of either limits on the kinds of fireworks that could be sold or permit prices, you could find borderline fireworks stands that would be right across the border from the jurisdiction either had tighter fireworks restrictions or higher permit costs.

"My understanding that the local jurisdiction cannot require a lower standard or tougher standard for the fireworks that were authorized to be sold, in effect, the state determining what that is by the passage of this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR QUIGG

Senator Quigg: "This is for the body; this is the amendment that increases the bodily injury, the liability insurance limits. This is not final passage of the bill; strictly an increase in the insurance requirement as agreed to by the industry and the fire commissioners' office."

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the committee amendment to page 8, line 10 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1149, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1149, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 13; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Conner, Talley—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1149, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.04.020, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Each chairperson of the board of directors of each eligible private school shall cast a vote for the candidate receiving a majority in an election to be held as follows: Each member of the board of directors of each eligible private school shall vote for candidates representing the private schools in an election of the board, the purpose of which is to determine the board’s candidate for the (nonvoting) member representative of the private schools of the state board. Not later than the first day of October the superintendent of public instruction shall mail to each member of each common school district board of directors and to each chairperson of the board of directors of each private school, the proper ballot and voting instructions for his congressional district together with biographical data concerning each candidate listed on such ballot, which data shall have been prepared by the candidate.

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

Signed by: Senators Kiskaddon, Chairman; Craswell, Gaspard, Hemstad, Wojahn.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Kiskaddon moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the question of scope and object on the committee amendment. This is a bill which relates to the state board of education membership in order to take care of the situation of having an additional congressional district by which membership to the state board is determined, while the amendment proposed by the committee would grant to the private schools a vote upon the state board. For that reason, I feel that it is outside the scope and object and in fact, it amends a different section of the law than those stated in the title of the act."

MOTION

At 3:34 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 5:12 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the third order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 8, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41-.162 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with ((RCW 28A.41.160)) this chapter, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Each district's annual student transportation allocation shall be based on differential rates determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the following manner:

(1) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard student mile allocation rate for each district. "Standard student mile allocation rate," as used in this ((section)) chapter, means the per mile allocation rate for transporting an eligible student. The standard student mile allocation rate may consist of no more than ((five)) eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent , and shall include but not be limited to such factors as climate and terrain; restricted passenger load; nonpassenger miles; and the costs of insurance, district or contracted employee salaries, and benefits, maintenance, fuel, supplies, and materials to the extent that they are not under the direct control of the district. The standard student mile allocation rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(1).

(2) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard unit mile rate for each district. "Standard unit mile rate," as used in this section, means the cost of operating an approved transportation vehicle for one mile. The standard unit mile rate may consist of no more than ((five)) eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall be based on the factors used in subsection (1) of this section. The standard unit mile rate shall be used to determine the..."
transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(2) and (3). For purposes of allocating funds for RCW 28A.41.505(2), the superintendent shall use the average number of miles reported by the district for the two school years, excluding field trips.

(3) Prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, and the committees on education and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives a report outlining the methodology and rationale used in determining the student mile and unit mile rates to be used the following year.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the preliminary, estimated student transportation allocation for each district and notify districts of their preliminary student transportation allocation by June 15. (The superintendent shall include not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated student transportation allocation in the following September apportionment payment to school districts.) By the following October 15th, every district shall notify the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary student transportation allocation. The superintendent shall then make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final student transportation allocation before the following December 1st. If the number of eligible students in a school district changes ten percent or more from the final October 15 number, and the change is maintained for a period of twenty consecutive school days or more, the district may submit revised eligible student data to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent shall, to the extent funds are available, recalculate the district's allocation for the transportation of pupils to and from school.

The superintendent shall make the student transportation allocation in accordance with the apportionment payment schedule in RCW 28A.48.010, as now or hereafter amended. For the 1982-83 school year, no school district shall receive a reduction or increase in funds of over three percent of what it received the previous year as adjusted to its proportional share of funds appropriated by the legislature for 1982-83 transportation services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature which shall:

(1) Identify the factors that will be used to recognize cost differentials between districts, and the data elements that will be used to measure the factors that contribute to these cost differentials;

(2) Collect the appropriate financial and workload data necessary to measure cost differentials between districts;

(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;

(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the "eligible student" definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one-half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students;

(5) Compare the distribution of transportation operating funds to each local school district under the interim methodology approved for the 1982-83 school year and the methodology requiring use of eligible student for 1983-84; and

(6) Present options for a continued phase-in of the eligible student allocation formula, with a description of the fiscal impact on school districts.
The report shall be submitted to the senate and house committees on education no later than December 15, 1982.

All data collected by the superintendent and requested by the committees on ways and means or education of the house or senate pertaining to the funding of pupil transportation shall be delivered to the legislative evaluation and accountability program (LEAP) as soon as possible in a machine readable form acceptable to the LEAP committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this amendatory act shall take effect September 1, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 8, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 4557 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Section 1. SHORT TITLE. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall be known as the "self-service storage facility landlord-tenant act".

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Self-service storage facility" means any real property designed and used for the purpose of renting or leasing individual storage space to tenants who are to have access to such for the purpose of storing and removing personal property, or any use permitted by the rental agreement. No tenant shall use a self-service storage facility for residential purposes. If a landlord issues a warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the provisions of this chapter do not apply. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to imply that prior to the effective date of this act, the definition of self-service storage facilities differed from the definition given in this subsection.

(2) "Landlord" means the landlord, operator, lessor, or sublessor of a self-service storage facility, his agent, or any other person authorized by him to manage the facility, or to receive rent from a tenant under a rental agreement.

(3) "Tenant" means a person, his sublessee, successor, or assign, entitled to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility under a rental agreement, to the exclusion of others.

(4) "Rental agreement" means any agreement or lease, written or oral, that establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules, or any other provisions concerning the use and occupancy of real property in a self-service storage facility.

(5) "Personal property" means movable property not affixed to land, and includes, but is not limited to, goods, merchandise, and household items.

(6) "Last known address" means that address provided by the tenant in the latest rental agreement, or the address provided by the tenant in a subsequent written notice of a change of address.
(7) "Abandoned" as it relates to personal property of a tenant in a self-service storage facility means the tenant has defaulted in rent and by words or actions reasonably indicates the intention not to continue tenancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. NOTICE OF APPARENT ABANDONMENT. (1) If the tenant defaults in rent and the landlord in good faith believes that the tenant has abandoned the tenancy and the personal property stored within the self-service storage facility, but does not know so for certain, the landlord may terminate the tenancy and declare the tenant's personal property abandoned if the following occurs subsequent to default:

(a) The landlord sends by first class and certified mail, return receipt requested, a notice of intent to declare the abandonment of the tenancy and the personal property to the last known address of the tenant. The landlord shall also send notice to any other addresses known to the landlord where the tenant might reasonably be expected to receive the notice; and

(b) No reply is received within thirty days of the mailing of the notice. This notice shall state that if no reply is received within thirty days that the landlord shall determine the tenancy and the personal property abandoned and subject to sale.

(2) This section is intended to provide landlords with assurance that a determination of abandonment is proper in the circumstances, and is not intended to be exclusive.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. TAKING POSSESSION. Upon abandonment, the landlord may immediately enter and take possession of any property of the tenant found on the premises and may remove the same to and store the same in a reasonably secure place.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. DISCOVERY OF SECURED CREDITORS. Upon taking possession, the landlord shall submit an information request under RCW 62A.9-407 to the department of licensing. Any secured creditors of the tenant discovered as a result of this information request shall receive notice as provided in section 7(l)(d) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. NOTICE TO TENANT. (1) A notice must be mailed by the landlord by first class and certified mail, return receipt requested, within three days after taking possession of the tenant's property to the last known address of the tenant.

(2) The notice shall state:
(a) The tenant's name;
(b) That the landlord is holding in safe storage property of the tenant;
(c) A description of the property;
(d) The location of the property;
(e) The name and address of the landlord;
(f) That if the tenant does not reclaim the tenant's property within sixty days after the specified date of default in rent, or thirty days after the date the notice required in subsection (1) of this section is sent, whichever is later, the landlord intends to sell the personal property stored and apply the proceeds as specified in section 10 of this act; and

(g) The conditions on which any person could reclaim the property, as specified in section 8 of this act, with the amounts set out where applicable as much as is reasonably practical.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. SALE OF TENANT'S PROPERTY. (1) The landlord may sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of the property taken possession of and stored by the tenant after the latest of the following:
(a) Sixty days after mailing of the notice under section 3 of this act;
(b) Thirty days after mailing of the notice prescribed in section 6 of this act;
(c) After reasonable efforts to locate the absent tenants;
(d) Ten days' notice to secured creditors of the tenant discovered through the information request submitted under section 5 of this act. This notice shall contain the same information as the notice to the tenant set forth in section 6(2) of this act.

(2) The property may be sold in its condition "as is" or following any commercially reasonable preparation for sale. Disposition of the property may be by public or private proceedings and may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms, but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place, and terms must be commercially reasonable. Reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or of the time of which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the landlord to the tenant and secured creditors identified in (1)(d) of this section. The landlord may buy at any public sale. If the property is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, no notice of time and place of sale is required and the landlord may buy such property, as well as any other property which is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations.

(3) The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method, or in a different place, from that selected by the landlord is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the landlord sells the property in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold, he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The principles stated in the two preceding sentences with respect to sales also apply as may be appropriate to other types of disposition.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. REDEMPTION. (1) At any time before the landlord has disposed of property or entered into contract for its disposition under this chapter, the tenant, unless otherwise agreed in writing, may redeem the property by tendering to the landlord fulfillment of all obligations owed by the tenant to the landlord as set out in section 12 of this act which have accrued up to the date of redemption.

(2) At any time before the landlord has disposed of property or entered into a contract for disposition under this chapter, any person who has a security interest in the property may, unless otherwise agreed in writing, redeem the property by tendering to the landlord:

(a) Any unpaid rent or charges specified in the rental agreement accrued up to the date of redemption: PROVIDED, That the amount of rent required to be tendered by the secured creditor shall not exceed two months' rent due; and

(b) The reasonable costs of taking possession, moving, storing, safeguarding, preparing the property for sale, the costs of arranging the sale, and selling the tenant's property plus reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred taking such actions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. EFFECT OF SALE. (1) When property is disposed of by a landlord under this chapter, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the tenant's rights therein and discharges any security interest in or lien upon the property. The purchaser takes free of any such rights and interests even if the landlord fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter or of any judicial proceedings (a) in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he does not buy in collusion with the landlord, other bidders, or the person conducting the sale; or (b) in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith as defined in RCW 62A.1-201(19).

(2) The director of licensing shall promulgate rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the application for and the reissuance of the certificate of title showing ownership of any property sold or otherwise disposed of under the provisions of this chapter which property is required by Title 46 RCW to have a certificate of title.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS FROM SALE. (1) Any proceeds from the sale may be applied in the following order:
(a) To any reasonable costs of storing, moving, safeguarding, and selling the property;
(b) To any secured creditors of the tenant discoverable by an information request under RCW 62A.9-407 sent to the department of licensing;
(c) To any other moneys due the landlord as specified in section 11 of this act.
(2) Any excess proceeds from the sale of the property shall be paid to the state treasurer subject to a claim by the tenant within one year of sale.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. REMEDIES FOR NONCOMPLIANCE. If it is established that the landlord is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of sections 3 through 10 of this act, disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred in violation of this chapter, the tenant or any person entitled to notice has a right to recover from the landlord any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter, including but not limited to legal costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. TENANT’S LIABILITY TO LANDLORD UPON ABANDONMENT. If a tenant abandons a tenancy the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to mitigate the damages resulting from the abandonment, and after such reasonable efforts are made, is entitled to the following from the tenant:
(1) The reasonable costs of taking possession of, moving, storing, safeguarding, preparing the property for sale, and the costs of arranging the sale, plus reasonable attorney’s fees and legal expenses incurred in taking such actions if not otherwise reimbursed by the provisions of section 10 of this act;
(2) Any unpaid rent or charges specified in the rental agreement; and
(3) Any damages to the landlord’s property caused by the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. LIEN GRANTED. The landlord has a lien upon all personal property located at a self-service storage facility for unpaid rent or charges specified in the rental agreement, and for expenses reasonably incurred in its sale or other disposition under this chapter: PROVIDED, That the landlord’s lien for rent shall not exceed two months’ rent due. The lien provided for in this section is superior to any other lien or security interest. Foreclosure shall be by the sale provisions of sections 3 through 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REMEDIES NOT EXCLUSIVE. The remedies specified in sections 3 through 12 of this act are not exclusive and the parties retain the rights to all other actions or remedies. If a landlord sells a tenant’s personal property as permitted by this chapter and the proceeds from the sale of those goods are insufficient to pay the landlord all that the tenant owes to the landlord, the tenant shall remain liable for the remainder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. DECLARATION OF PURPOSE. The purpose of sections 1 through 14 of this act is to clarify the manner and circumstances in which self-service storage facility landlords may take possession of and sell the personal property of persons renting space at such facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Nothing in sections 1 through 14 of this act shall be construed to imply that self-service storage facilities subject to the operation of sections 1 through 14 of this act are or are not engaged in the business of warehousing or that the rental of storage space as defined herein does or does not constitute the rental of real property, or that the rent from which, as defined herein, does or does not constitute income from the rental of real property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 14 and 18 of this act constitute a new chapter to be added to Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Section captions as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.
Sec. 19. Section 31, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 59.18-.310 are each amended to read as follows:

If the tenant defaults in the payment of rent and reasonably indicates by words or actions his intention not to resume tenancy, he shall be liable for the following for such abandonment: PROVIDED, That upon learning of such abandonment of the premises the landlord shall make a reasonable effort to mitigate the damages resulting from such abandonment:

(1) When the tenancy is month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the rent for the thirty days following either the date the landlord learns of the abandonment, or the date the next regular rental payment would have become due, whichever first occurs.

(2) When the tenancy is for a term greater than month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the lesser of the following:
   (a) The entire rent due for the remainder of the term; or
   (b) All rent accrued during the period reasonably necessary to rerent the premises at a fair rental, plus the difference between such fair rental and the rent agreed to in the prior agreement, plus actual costs incurred by the landlord in rerenting the premises together with statutory court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

In the event of such abandonment of tenancy and an accompanying default in the payment of rent by the tenant, the landlord may immediately enter and take possession of any property of the tenant found on the premises and may store the same in any reasonably secure place. A notice containing the name and address of landlord and the place where the property is stored must be mailed promptly by the landlord to the last known address of the tenant. After sixty days from the date of default in rent, and after prior notice of such sale is mailed to the last known address of the tenant, the landlord may sell such property and may apply any income derived therefrom against moneys due the landlord, including drayage and storage. After deducting the actual costs of transfer, storage, and sale of such property, any excess income derived from the sale of such property shall be held by the landlord for the benefit of the tenant for a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no claim is made or action commenced by the tenant for the recovery thereof prior to the expiration of that period of time, the balance shall be the property of the landlord. If the landlord reasonably determines that any of the property, other than memorabilia, official papers, documents, correspondence, or photographs, is of such little value that the cost of storage and sale probably exceeds the amount realizable from sale, the landlord may list such property on a notice to be mailed to the tenant's last known address indicating that such property may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of not less than fifteen days after the mailing.

POINT OF ORDER

On March 8, 1982, a Point of Order had been raised by Senator Talmadge on the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4557.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4557 is a measure which deals with that portion of the residential landlord tenant act relating to the abandonment of property by a tenant."
"The amendment proposed by the House is a striking amendment, and deals not only with this aspect of the residential landlord tenant act, but also deals with the distinct subject of self-service storage facilities or mini-warehouses as they are commonly called.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

"Pursuant to Senate Rule 72, Senate Bill No. 4557 is referred to the Judiciary Committee."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3112, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.350 are each amended to read as follows:

In any action for damages, whether based on tort or contract or otherwise, a claim or counterclaim for damages may be litigated in the principal action for malicious prosecution on the ground that the action was instituted with knowledge that the same was false, and unfounded, malicious and without probable cause in the filing of such action, or that the same was filed as a part of a conspiracy to misuse judicial process by filing an action known to be false and unfounded. In any action for malicious prosecution, whether brought by an independent lawsuit or brought in the principal action by claim or counterclaim, the injured party may recover actual damages or liquidated damages of five hundred dollars, a reasonable attorney's fee, and other costs of litigation. In an action for malicious prosecution, an arrest or seizure of property need not be an element of the claim nor do special damages need to be proved. The elimination of these requirements and permitting the recovery of actual damages or liquidated damages, a reasonable attorney's fee, and other costs of litigation is intended to be in derogation of the common law.

Sec. 2. Section 367, page 201, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 505, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.84.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The measure and mode of compensation of attorneys and counselors, shall be left to the agreement, expressed or implied, of the parties, but there shall be allowed to the prevailing party upon the judgment certain sums by way of indemnity for his expenses in the action, which allowances are termed costs, including, but not limited to, the following expenses:

(1) Filing fees;
(2) Fees for the service of process;
(3) Fees for service by publication;
(4) Notary fees;
(5) Reasonable expenses, exclusive of attorneys' fees, incurred in obtaining reports and records, including but not limited to medical records, tax records, personnel records, insurance reports, employment and wage records, police reports, school records, bank records, and legal files;
(6) Witness fees and expenses; and
(7) The reasonable expense of the transcription of depositions used at trial: PROVIDED, That the expenses of depositions shall be allowed on a pro rata basis for those portions of the depositions introduced into evidence or used for purposes of impeachment.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 60, Laws of 1929 and RCW 4.56.100 are each amended to read as follows:

When any judgment for the payment of money only shall have been paid or satisfied, the clerk of the court in which such judgment was rendered shall note upon the record in the execution docket satisfaction thereof giving the date of such satisfaction upon either the payment to such clerk of the amount of such judgment, costs and interest and any accrued costs by reason of the issuance of any execution, or the filing with such clerk of a satisfaction entitled in such action and identifying the same executed by the judgment creditor or his attorney of record in such action or his assignee acknowledged as deeds are acknowledged. Every satisfaction of judgment and every partial satisfaction of judgment, prior to its filing with the clerk, shall clearly designate the judgment creditor, his or her attorney, if any, the judgment debtor, the amount or type of satisfaction, whether the satisfaction was in full or partial, the cause number, the judgment number, if any, and the date of entry of the judgment and shall contain a signed, notarized, and dated authorization to the clerk to enter the satisfaction or partial satisfaction of judgment. A certificate by such clerk of the entry of such satisfaction by him may be filed in the office of the clerk of any county in which an abstract of such judgment has been filed. When so satisfied by the clerk or the filing of such certificate the lien of such judgment shall be discharged."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "procedure;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.350; amending section 367, page 201, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 505, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.84.010; and amending section 6, chapter 60, Laws of 1929 and RCW 4.56.100." and the same is herewith transmitted.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object with respect to the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill 3112. "Mr. President, the original version of Senate Bill 3112 dealt with RCW 4.84, the award of costs in a civil litigation. The amendment by the House purports to establish a cause of action for malicious prosecution that has nothing to do with civil costs or the award thereof and it would be my judgment, Mr. President, that that expands the scope and object of the bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3112 is a measure of limited scope which enumerates the types of expenses that the prevailing party in a lawsuit is entitled to recover. "The amendment proposed by the House, while incorporating the provisions of Senate Bill No. 3112, also amends the law relating to malicious prosecution and satisfaction of judgments. "The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken. "Pursuant to Senate Rule 72, Senate Bill No. 3112 is referred to the Judiciary Committee."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

(3) Any amount deducted and withheld under subsection (2) of this section shall be paid by the commissioner to the appropriate state or local child support enforcement agency.
(4) Any amount deducted and withheld under subsection (2) of this section shall be treated for all purposes as if it were paid to the individual as unemployment compensation and paid by that individual to the state or local child support enforcement agency in satisfaction of the individual's child support obligations.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "unemployment compensation" means any compensation payable under this chapter including amounts payable by the commissioner under an agreement under any federal law providing for compensation, assistance, or allowances with respect to unemployment.

and his or her dependents for or during the period for which time loss compensation is payable: PROVIDED, That (where public assistance has been furnished to one or more persons to whom such a recipient owes a duty of support, whether such duty has been expressed by an order of court or otherwise, the department's right to recover any time loss compensation shall be limited to that part of such compensation allocated to such persons by RCW 51.32.090. PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the amount to be repaid to the department of social and health services shall bear its proportionate share of attorney's fees and costs, if any, incurred by the injured workman or his dependents. The department of social and health services may assert and enforce a lien and notice to withhold and deliver as hereinafter provided to secure reimbursement of any public assistance paid for or during the period and for the purposes expressed in this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no claim for payment under chapter 73.34 RCW shall be subject to garnishment, attachment, levy, or execution.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1981 and RCW 74.04.700 are each amended to read as follows:
Any person who owes a debt to the state for an overpayment of public assistance (obtained as a result of a wilfully false statement, or representation, or impersonation, or other fraudulent device, or wilful failure to reveal resources or income)) and/or food stamps shall be notified of that debt by either personal service or certified mail, return receipt requested. Personal service, return of the requested receipt, or refusal by the debtor of such notice is proof of notice to the debtor of the debt owed. Service of the notice shall be in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action. The notice shall include a statement of the debt owed; a statement that the property of the debtor will be subject to collection action after the debtor terminates from public assistance and/or food stamps; a statement that the property will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver; and a statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the overpayment debt. Action to collect the debt by lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver, is lawful after ninety days from the debtor's termination from public assistance and/or food stamps or the receipt of the notice of debt, whichever is later. This does not preclude the department from recovering (fraudulent) overpayments by deduction from subsequent assistance payments, not exceeding (ten percent of each subsequent assistance payment) deductions as authorized under federal law with regard to financial assistance programs: PROVIDED, That subject to federal legal requirement, deductions shall not exceed five percent of the grant payment standard if the overpayment resulted from error on the part of the department or error on the part of the recipient without wilful or knowing intent of the recipient in obtaining or retaining the overpayment.

Any debtor who alleges defenses to the debt or disputes the stated amount of the debt has the right to request in writing a hearing pursuant to RCW 74.08.070. If no such request is made, the debt will be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of collection action on the debt shall be stayed pending the decision of the hearing or termination of the debtor from public assistance and/or food stamps, whichever occurs later. The right to an appeal shall be governed by RCW 74.08.070, 74.08.080, and the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 74.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department is authorized to establish copayment, deductible, or coinsurance requirements for recipients of any medical programs defined in RCW 74.09.010 but shall not establish copayment, deductible or coinsurance requirements for legend drugs as defined in RCW 69.41.210, unless required by federal law.

Sec. 20. Section 5, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the department of social and health services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child (and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the department that said child has been abandoned by its parents or that the child and one parent have been abandoned by the other parent or that the parent or other person who has a responsibility for the care, support, or maintenance of such child has failed or neglected to give proper care or support to such child)), the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter, (the abandonment or nonsupport statutes) chapter 74.20A RCW, or other appropriate statutes of this state to (insure that such parent or other person responsible shall pay for the care, support, or maintenance of said dependent child) establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay support moneys.

The department shall collect data from cases of support under RCW 74.20.270 where there is no court-ordered support obligation. Such data shall include: Income characteristics of those obligated to pay support, obligation established, and resulting payments. The department shall report its findings to the appropriate legislative committees by January 1, 1983. The department shall reconsider its administrative standards under RCW 74.20.270 in light of relevant data and shall, to the extent feasible without substantial impact on aid to families with dependent children, bring those standards into conformity with payment standards based on actual experience.

(2) The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action as he deems appropriate to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay moneys. Applications accepted under this section may be conditioned upon the payment of a fee as required through regulation issued by the secretary. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, such reasonable standards as he deems necessary to limit applications for support enforcement services. Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said person for whom a support obligation exists.

(3) The secretary may charge a fee to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be agreed on in writing with the custodian or guardian of the person for whom a support obligation is owed, or that person if no custodian or guardian exists and shall be limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to all applicants for support enforcement services. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee.

(4) The secretary may impose a fee on the individual who owes a child support or spousal support obligation with respect to all such child and spousal support obligations for which collection is made on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance.

Fees, due and owing, may be collected as delinquent support moneys utilizing any of the remedies in chapter 74.20 RCW, chapter 74.20A RCW, chapter 26.21 RCW, or any other remedy at law or equity available to the department or any agencies with whom it has a cooperative or contractual arrangement to establish, enforce, or collect support moneys or support obligations.

(5) The secretary may waive the fee, or any portion thereof, as a part of a compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge off of said fee if the secretary finds there are no available, practical, or lawful means by which said fee may be collected or to facilitate payment of the amount of delinquent support moneys owed.

Sec. 21. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title ((56-or)) 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., section 307, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.04.305 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A joint select committee on financial responsibility for residential and nonresidential services shall be created. Such committee shall study the equity and fairness among the various services provided to clients and families of similar needs and the fees charged to clients and families of similar needs. The committee shall determine whether there is justification for differences in responsibilities of parents for residential services provided to children, and further determine whether fees for residential services are in excess of or less than what parents of similar income would likely expend for a child at home.

The study shall further examine methods for instituting a common, uniform and consistent approach to charging fees for residential and nonresidential services provided by the department which includes but is not limited to the following considerations:

(1) The ability of parents to pay for services;
(2) Financial considerations for encouraging parental contact with institutionalized children; and
(3) Appropriate offsets to any liabilities to be imposed on parents.

In addition, the study committee shall take the following into consideration when developing its recommendations:

(1) Methods to maximize support from third party payors, including the military where appropriate;
(2) The need to minimize disruption to the current service level because of diminished general state revenues;
(3) The financial responsibility programs utilized by other states for similar services; and
(4) The need to ensure that the financial obligations of the parent do not discourage the participation in necessary residential and nonresidential services.

The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall appoint the joint select committee composed of six members of the house of representatives and six members of the senate, three members of the majority caucus and three members of the minority caucus each. A report of the findings of this study shall be submitted to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate no later than January 1, 1983, along with recommendations for legislative action.

On page 1, on line 27 of the title, after "74.04.700;" strike all material down through "74.04.710;" on line 28, and the same is herewith transmitted.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4655.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, the House amendment clearly expands the scope and object of the bill.

"I think even Senator Kiskaddon admitted that in his own discussion. He said that we, the House went back and added into the bill some of the substantial and significant language that we had been looking at before. I would point out to the President that the bill, as it passed the Senate, was a very, very minor bill which made only housekeeping changes. However, the bill, as it came back from the House, has a very, very major policy change amendment within the bill which would make radical changes in the basic education act.

"The President, in his wisdom, has always looked at the intent of the bill rather than the mere wording of the title, and I would submit when that tradition is followed that the House amendment is clearly out of scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the House Message on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4655, together with the Point of Order raised by Senator Pullen was held for a Ruling by the President.

The Secretary again commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418 and the House amendments thereto. Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Senator Newhouse moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4470.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Point of Order, Mr. President. The House amendment clearly expands the scope and object of the bill, if I might speak to that.

"Senate Bill 4470 is a bill of very limited scope and merely sets forth circumstances under which a pistol may be possessed within a vehicle. The House amendment, however, greatly expands the scope and object of the bill by attaching a gun control amendment to the bill dealing with the possession of pistols, rifles, shotguns, non–chu–ka sticks, throwing stars, and other weapons on private and public property."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the House Message on Senate Bill No. 4470, together with the motion by Senator Newhouse that the Senate do concur in the House amendments thereto, and the Point of Order raised by Senator Pullen, was ordered held for further consideration during the evening session tonight.

Mr. President: The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 4619 with the following amendment:
On page 1, line 5, after "all" insert "licensed" and on line 6, after "centers" strike "licensed", and the same is herewith transmitted.
VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTION
Senator Metcalf moved the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 4619.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Talmadge: "Senator Metcalf, does this House amendment mean that information on agent orange and the delayed stress syndrome must be furnished the mental health centers whether or not they are licensed?"
Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Senator Talmadge. Our original intent was to insure that the information would go to licensed physicians and mental health centers. I believe moving the term 'licensed' as shown in the House amendment should read to apply to both. I urge you to pass the bill now."
The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 4619.

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 4619, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 2.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Newhouse, the question I had was with respect to the liability. We think the bill is necessary, also; but the question we had was with respect to the ability of the director to say in certain instances that an operator was liable, and in certain instances to say that the operator was not liable. The Senate version said that under no circumstances would the operator be liable. "Could you tell us how that would work, with the director having the authority to say who is or who is not subject to liability?"

Senator Newhouse: "I recognize that that is an awfully good legal question and I feel, in my mind, that the director should determine that the state is liable if the operator were not negligent and if the operator's negligence caused damage, then the operator himself should be liable."

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4684.

MOTION

Senator Quigg moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4706.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Quigg, the first question is, 'What does it cost?' The second question really dealt with what I understood you to rather refer to, that they would be able to acquire land as the highway department does, and it sounds like we are attempting to give eminent domain authority to a private company, and those are the two questions."

Senator Quigg: "First of all, 'The owner,' sub (2), Senator, 'The owner of the right of way shall convey to the state, right of way for the highway extension ...' the language used; and so there is no use of eminent domain. In fact, in this case as you probably realize, there is really only one major owner of property in the area between Maple Flat and the north fork of the Toutle river debris dam — it's the Weyerhaeuser Company, and Weyerhaeuser Company has agreed to cooperate in this effort and see to it that there is a road opened up in there for the purposes of providing tour bus access to that Mount St. Helens site."

Senator Shinpoch: "Do they own all the land or is there ...?"

Senator Quigg: "There is an interspersal. A small portion of it is owned by the department of natural resources. And so this is being done simply because of the short time between now and the tourism season and with the problems they have with people getting in there in 4-wheel drive vehicles and getting around, the idea is to provide an access so that all folks can get up and see the Mount St. Helens area."
Senator Shinpoch: "How about the cost?"
Senator Quiqq: "The cost, the latest cost estimate that I have heard is somewhere in the area of $200,000."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Quigg, Senator Talley was prime sponsor on this measure, and before it came back from the House his principal reason for introducing the bill was to rename 504 to the 'Spirit Lake Memorial Highway.'

We have broadened the bill and I have no objections to that but what I am fearful of, is that perhaps we will lose the original intent of Senator Talley's motive for the introduction of this measure by reverting back to highway 4, and I would suggest an oral amendment to the bill which wouldn't affect the House amendment. On page 8, 'The Spirit Lake Memorial Highway, 504.' I think we may lose the memorial highway if we don't put this in the bill or make it clear by legislative intent, that it is to be named . . . . Well, all right; is this going to be state route 504 or is this going to be known as the Spirit Lake Memorial Highway?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Peterson, the intent of the bill is that this be known as the 'Spirit Lake Memorial Highway.' It was previously state route 504."

Senator Peterson: "And it will be designated so?"
Senator Quigg: "And it will be so designated."

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4706.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 4706, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bottiger—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 4706, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

It is the purpose of this chapter ((and RCW 71.24.020 and 71.24.030)) to provide the financial assistance necessary to enable the department of social and health services to offer a meaningful program of rehabilitation for those persons suffering problems related to narcotic drugs, dangerous drugs, and alcohol and to develop a community educational program as to those problems for the benefit of the state's population generally. Such programs can develop in the people of this state a knowledge of the problems caused by alcohol and drug abuse, an acceptance of responsibility for alcohol and drug related problems, an understanding of the causes and consequences of the use and abuse of alcohol and drugs, and thus may prevent many problems from occurring.
It is the further purpose of this chapter (and RCW 71.24.020 and 71.24.030) to provide for qualified drug treatment centers approved by the department of social and health services.

Consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of a person less than eighteen years of age shall not be necessary to authorize such care, except that such person shall not become a resident of such treatment center without parental permission. The parent, parents or legal guardian of a person less than eighteen years of age shall not be liable for payment of care for such persons pursuant to this chapter (and RCW 71.24.020 and 71.24.030), unless they have joined in the consent to such counseling, care, treatment or rehabilitation.

Sec. 22. Section 9, chapter 304, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 69.54.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When an individual submits himself for care, treatment, counseling, or rehabilitation to any organization, institution or corporation, public or private, approved

No such person, organization, institution or corporation or their agents acting in the scope and course of their duties, providing such care, treatment, counseling or rehabilitation shall divulge nor shall they be required to provide any specific information concerning individuals being cared for, treated, counseled or rehabilitated, nor shall pharmacists or their agents provide such information when or if they become aware of or receive such information when requested to or for the purpose of providing products or performing services relevant to said care, treatment, counseling or rehabilitation. Should any person, organization, institution or corporation, or their agents, breach confidentiality as provided for in this section, such information and any product thereof shall not be admissible as evidence or be considered in any criminal proceeding. The fact of an individual of authorized age being cared for, treated, counseled or rehabilitated pursuant to this chapter ((and RCW 71.24.020 and 71.24.030)) shall likewise be held confidential and shall not be admissible as evidence or be considered in any criminal proceeding.

Nothing contained in this chapter ((and RCW 71.24.020 and 71.24.030)) shall prohibit or be construed to prohibit the divulging or providing of statistical or other substantive information pertaining to care, treatment, counseling or rehabilitation, pursuant to this chapter ((and RCW 71.24.020 and 71.24.030)), so long as no individual is identified or reasonably identifiable, and individual privacy and confidentiality is retained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. It is the intent of the legislature that licensed service providers hold administrative cost to a minimum and that available resources be utilized to the maximum extent for direct services to clients. For that purpose, the department of social and health services shall conduct a study to determine the appropriate limitation of the total available resources spent by licensed service providers for administrative purposes and report its recommendations to the legislature by the 1984 session of the legislature.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Lee, one of the amendments that was accomplished in the House deleted a section that we had in the Senate that said that you could not charge fees to any persons with incomes less than 38% of the state median income level.

"Is it the intent of the sponsor of the bill that there be a proviso or requirement to the department of social and health services that people be charged fees only based on an ability to pay?"

Senator Lee: "Yes, the ability-to-pay concept is the one that is currently in the bill that will govern the setting of those particular fees. One of the things that was pointed out when it went over to the House is that there are, indeed, some people who are in that below 38% of median income level, who, in fact, have been paying fees to community mental health centers and they would have lost a considerable portion of their income. There are others who are higher than that particular median but because of other demands upon their income, their ability to pay, indeed, is lessened, so the ability-to-pay concept is still there without pegging it at a particular level."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Lee, is this the bill that still has or used to have a provision regarding the size of the county? In other words, any county of any population conduct its own mental health program if it wants to? Or is it compelled to consider regionalization or a state (sic) program?"

Senator Lee: "There is no requirement that any county has to consider regionalization. Every county is free to decide for itself whether it wishes to be a county mental health authority or whether it wishes to turn that authority over to the state itself. The only place where a county size is in the bill is in the case of the very large counties to enable them to use something beyond their administrative funds for up to a salary for one individual to staff a volunteer or advisory group. That is the only place where any size county enters in."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 4.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen-I.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Fleming, Quigg—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4786, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

They shall be credited by any county or city against any future tax that may become due from a taxpayer: PROVIDED, That the taxpayer with the concurrence of the legislative authority may designate a particular fund of such county or city against which such prepayment of tax is made. Prepayment of taxes under this section shall not relieve any taxpayer from remitting the full amount of any tax imposed under the authority of this chapter upon the occurrence of the taxable event.*

MOTION

Senator Gould moved the Senate do concur in all of the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3394 with the exception of the House amendment to page 1, line 13 and ask the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Gould, in light of that explanation about the retroactive nature of one of the amendments, I think it should be put in the record that it is the intention of that, making this retroactive to 1975, it is, in fact, to include only one company that has started a project in March of 1979 and that project is the Baagen Brothers Lumber Company of Colville, who were, on a technicality, denied what they thought they were entitled to, and that is the tax credit, because they started the project too soon. Is that correct?"

Senator Gould: "That is correct. It certainly is the intent. I asked the sponsor of the amendment if that was the only company affected and I was assured that that is true and that is our intention."

The motion by Senator Gould carried.
The Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3394 with the exception of the House amendment to page 1, line 13 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Senate Bill No. 4470.

Earlier today, Senator Newhouse had moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4470. At that time, Senator Pullen raised a Point of Order on the House amendments.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4470 is a measure which deals with the circumstances under which a pistol can be carried in a vehicle or on one's person. "The amendment proposed by the House imposes limits on the possession of firearms and other dangerous weapons on elementary or secondary schools' premises. "The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object to the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken. "Pursuant to Senate Rule 72, Senate Bill No. 4470 is referred to the Judiciary Committee."

The Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4655 from earlier today. At that time Senator Kiskaddon had moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4655. Senator Pullen raised a Point of Order on the House amendments.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4655 through amendment became a measure of limited scope which modifies the state's review requirements for school district compliance with the student learning objectives act. "The amendment proposed by the House makes a substantial policy change in the Basic Education Act by allowing school districts to establish their own course percentage mix requirements. "The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken. "Pursuant to Senate Rule 72, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4655 is referred to the Senate Committee on Education."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1084.
SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1084, by House Committee on Education and Representative Taylor (by State Board of Education request):
Clarifying law relating to terms and qualifications of state board of education members.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1084. Earlier today, the committee amendments were moved for adoption. At that time, Senator Lee raised a Point of Order on the committee amendments and the measure was held pending a Ruling by the President.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Lee, the President finds that House Bill No. 1084 is a measure which deals with the membership structure of the state board of education.

"The amendment proposed by the Senate Committee on Education also deals with the membership structure of the state board of education, by permitting the member representing private schools a vote on matters directly relating to private schools.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendments do not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is not well taken."

The Senate Committee amendment to House Bill No. 1084 was ruled in order.
Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hemstad and Bottiger to the committee amendment:
On line 27 of the committee amendment, after "amended;" strike the new language through line 31.
 Debate ensued.
Senator Goltz demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Talmadge, when this bill came up I would like to have asked you a couple of instances in the education committee. I won't ask Senator Bottiger since he did not make that particular meeting.

"But we are talking about this bill giving these private school board representatives more say in what goes on in state regulations regarding private schools. But isn't it a fact that we have had very serious accounts by the private schools to be relieved of any type of state regulation that they are asking the legislature to exempt them from the laws and the state superintendent's regulations?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, I think they have and Senator Bottiger acknowledged that in his remarks also."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "The 3-minute rule and one time speaking for each person, can you still get up and engage in a question-and-answer colloquy when you have already spoken on a bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President thought that perhaps the question would be permissible, but if it is not, the President will strictly adhere to the rule."
PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bottiger: "A full and accurate answer to the question of Senator Gaspard would have disclosed that a very small minority of the private schools asked for exemption; that the vast majority of the private schools either took no position or actually opposed the exemption of state regulations."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Gaspard, wasn't it true in the education committee that this amendment that was offered by Senator Bottiger did come up and there was a request to expand the voting privilege of the private schools? And wasn't the vote on that that the education committee would agree to expand it only to the extent of the questions that occurred on private schools? If anything occurred on private schools, then they would be a participating voter, but if it occurred on all public schools they would not be. Is that not true?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Wojahn, that is correct. I believe the chairman of education would concur with that understanding. I think the records would also show that, too."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Hemstad and Bottiger to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 15; excused, 4.

The motion by Senator Kiskaddon carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1084, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 883, by Representatives Garson, Clayton, Martinis, Patrick, Walk, Wilson, Hankins and McCormick:

Limiting liability for persons rendering aid in hazardous materials incidents.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, after line 4, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislature finds that a growing number of unfounded lawsuits, claims, and liens are filed against law enforcement officers, prosecuting authorities, and judges, and against their property, having the purpose and effect of deterring those officers in the exercise of their discretion and inhibiting the performance of their public duties.

The legislature also finds that the cost of defending against such unfounded suits, claims and liens is severely burdensome to such officers, and also to the state and the various cities and counties of the state. The purpose of the amendment of RCW 4.24.350 by this 1982 act is to provide a remedy to those public officers and to the public.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any action for damages, whether based on tort or contract or otherwise, a claim or counterclaim for damages may be litigated in the principal action for malicious prosecution on the ground that the action was instituted with knowledge that the same was false, and unfounded, malicious and without probable cause in the filing of such action, or that the same was filed as a part of a conspiracy to misuse judicial process by filing an action known to be false and unfounded.

(2) In any action, claim, or counterclaim brought by a judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer for malicious prosecution arising out of the performance or purported performance of the public duty of such officer, an arrest or seizure of property need not be an element of the claim, nor do special damages need to be proved. An officer prevailing in such an action may be allowed an amount up to one thousand dollars as liquidated damages, together with a reasonable attorneys' fee, and other costs of suit. No action may be brought against an attorney under this subsection solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Judicial officer" means a justice, judge, magistrate, or other judicial officer of the state or a city, town, or county.

(b) "Prosecuting authority" means any officer or employee of the state or a city, town, or county who is authorized by law to initiate a criminal or civil proceeding on behalf of the public.

(c) "Law enforcement officer" means a member of the state patrol, a sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a member of the police force of a city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The provisions of this 1982 act are remedial and shall be liberally construed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct all internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I raise the scope and object on the amendment. The bill is the 'Good Sam' act to protect the people who go to the rescue of the hazardous waste spills on the highways or wherever they might be, railroads, other forms of transportation. And this has to do with the, 'The legislature finds that a growing number of unfounded lawsuits, claims and liens were filed against law enforcement officers, prosecuting attorneys. . . ."

"It is clearly and patently beyond the scope and object of the original act."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, House Bill No. 883, together with the pending amendment by Senator Talmadge, and the Point of Order raised by Senator Guess, was ordered held for a Ruling by the President on March 11, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Sections 5 and 6 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1983. The remaining sections of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect March 1, 1982."

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 778, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Quigg, as you know, one of the principal gripes of the public pertains to charitable organizations which raise a great deal of money and spend an inordinate amount of it on administration and so-called 'fund raising expenses.'

"Now does this bill in any way weaken the state's control over what ratio of the money being raised an organization can spend on administrative overhead rather than seeing that it goes for the purpose for which it was intended?"

Senator Quigg: "What it does, Senator, is put that under the department of licensing rather than under a board; the regulatory requirements are still there, it's just that rather being under a board they will go to the department of licensing.

"And what we have here, in the fiscal note, it indicates a biennial savings of around $150,000, because of the cost of a board that really wasn't doing anything. This will now be transferred over to the department of licensing so that those kinds of charitable organizations whose greatest charity is the officers and directors of that organization will be under the regular scrutiny of the licensing department rather than under the periodic but expensive scrutiny of a board that hasn't proved very effective."

Senator Wilson: "Did we previously have a 20% limitation which now may be waived under terms of this bill?"

Senator Quigg: "No, Senator, the regulations are still there. It is just that the board that enforces them is replaced by the department of licensing."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 778, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yea, 41; nays, 4; excused, 4.

Investments shall be made in accordance with investment policy duly established and published by the board. In discharging its duties under this section, the board shall act with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims; shall diversify the investments of the employees' pension system so as to minimize the risk of large losses; and shall act in accordance with the documents and instruments governing the employees' pension system, insofar as such documents and instruments are consistent with the provisions of this title.

With respect to the securities, the nominee shall act only on the direction of the retirement board. All rights to the dividends, interest, and sale proceeds from the securities and all voting rights of the securities shall be vested in the actual owners of the securities, and not in the nominee.

"And I guess I would ask, along those lines, could we be assured that this bill would be placed number one on tomorrow's calendar, and be heard?"

President Cherberg: "Senator Hayner."
Senator Hayner: "It will be taken up tomorrow."

Senator Vognild: "Well, Senator, I am fearful if it is not number one on the calendar tomorrow that there will be absolutely no way that we can move this through the legislature."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1982.

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

Signed by: Senators Lee, Metcalf and Rasmussen; Representatives Addison, Walk and McGinnis.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the report of the Conference Committee was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen. We come to that stage of our session when we have got to review what is still before us and the mechanical possibilities of what the work room could do.

"For the information of the members, we are either going to have to kill some bills that the House has amended or shortcut our normal procedure a little. And I am going to suggest that of four bills before us on the concurring calendar, we have consensus on both sides on 3242, 4153, 4201, that the House amendments are not acceptable to either side and I am going to suggest that we short-cut our usual process procedure and not concur in those bills rather early this morning in the hopes that we can get the basic bill through.

"As a matter of information for amendments to be adopted in the House, go through the procedure of engrossing, send down to the bill drafters, and then go through our analyst, takes at least four hours. So it is actually impossible to accomplish what the House is asking us. And I understand that there are still some bills acted on last night in the House, with amendments, that we have not mechanically received here, and if those bills are of value to both sides, we'll talk it over and try to short-cut the procedures on those."
Senator Shinpoch: Mr. President, for the information of our members, the ranking member on each committee or the individual responsible for it has seen all the amendments and have worked the bills that Senator Newhouse enumerated and we, those members at least, and I are in agreement with this procedure."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I would rise to a point of order on the personal remarks of the last speaker. I would move that they be taken down under Reed's 222."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHINPOCH

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, speaking on the point of order, Senator Talmadge only spoke about one person on that side of the aisle, the chairman of the transportation commission was making personal remarks about our majority leader. I don't find it any different. I wonder what makes it so different when it comes from this side of the aisle than it was when the chairman of the transportation commission spoke. If you want to call Reed's order, the rule, well then get up and do it when the chairman of the transportation commission is doing it also. Don't wait just until it gets to this side of the aisle."

Further debate ensued.

announced as 27 yeas, 21 nays, and 2 excused. I have checked the voting record with that, and there were 26 yeas, 21 nays, 2 excused, and I wish to have the journal corrected."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 883.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 883, by Representatives Garson, Clayton, Martinis, Patrick, Walk, Wilson, Hankins and McCormick:

Limiting liability for persons rendering aid in hazardous materials incidents.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Guess, the President finds that House Bill No. 883 is a measure which grants civil immunity to those who assist public authorities during a hazardous materials incident. Public employees acting in their official capacity are specifically excluded.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Talmadge amends the law relating to malicious prosecution in actions where judicial officers, prosecuting attorneys and law enforcement officers are involved.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Talmadge was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 883 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 448 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Quigg, as I understand this bill, it is the pull-off and throw-away that we are prohibiting. The punch-out, punch-down is still permissible?"

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 221, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Thompson and Flanagan):

Authorizing county solid waste disposal districts.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 21, after the word "tax" insert the following: "on the privilege of living in or operating a business in a solid waste disposal taxing district"

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Shinpoch and Lee:

Following line 26, page 5, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 36.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

County owned solid waste facilities shall not be subject to any tax or excise imposed by any city or town. Cities or towns may charge counties to mitigate impacts directly attributable to the solid waste facility: PROVIDED, That any city or town establishes that such charges are reasonably necessary to mitigate such impacts and that revenue generated from such charges is expended only to mitigate such impacts. Impacts resulting from commercial and residential solid waste collection within any city or town shall not be considered to be directly attributable to the solid waste facility."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Shinpoch, the 'Provided,' the first sentence there is a very puzzling sentence. I wonder if you would mind explaining to me exactly what that sentence says. There are about three 'thats' in there that . . . ."

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, what I think it says and what it is intended to say is that any city or town can establish the charges that a reasonable person would say was necessary in order to fix up the streets, or those kinds of things that are caused by those large trucks coming in and out of the facility, of the disposal facility.

"And the rest of it is to say that the normal pickup of garbage within a town is excluded from that impact."

Senator Charnley: "So that a city or town may recover the cost necessary to mitigate those expenses . . . fees or whatever."

Senator Shinpoch: "Right. If in this town the normal life of a road is say, twenty years, and the main road leading to the facility is breaking down within six, then they can impose charges that would redo the road."

Senator Charnley: "All right, thank you very much. I just wanted to be sure that we weren't just shutting a door on cities and towns unnecessarily or unfairly."

Senator Shinpoch: "No, it is not intended to be that. If it is, I will help you fix it next time, if it turns out that way."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Shinpoch, I want to turn this thing around and reverse, Senator Shinpoch, where the solid waste facilities are on rural county roads and the cities are using the disposal site on these county roads. How are we going to answer that one if it goes from your direction where the facilities are outside?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Hansen, I guess it is, the problem that you describe is not one, and it was the counties that brought the amendment, not the cities and towns. It was the county that brought the amendment to solve some of their problems, not with the cities and towns. And they did not indicate to me that they had a problem such as you describe. But I could see where that is possible. In my area it does not exist that way. They are located all within city limits, down through the valley, Renton, Kent, Auburn; and as far as that goes, Algona Pacific, but I would have to assume that the counties did not have the problem or they would have been talking to it in this bill."

The motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 221, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Zimmerman, on page I, it reads the '. . . solid waste disposal district is a quasi-municipal corporation, an independent taxing "authority" within the meaning of Article VII, section 1. . . .' How independent is that? Can they just go ahead and levy any tax that they want to in excess of the 106%?"

Senator Zimmerman: "No, no they are very tightly bound as to what they can do. They have the ability, of course, to collect disposal fees; they have the ability to have a voter-approved excess levy for capital purposes, that would have to of course go to the voters for that privilege. They have to have an issuance of general obligation which would be also only for capital purposes, so they can issue revenue bonds, of course, which would be funded in the usual manner of that sort. And they can have excess tax levies.

"It will be a tightly controlled district. There were some heavy concerns in the early stages of this bill in the past two years but through that time the bill was modified appreciably to assure that they would have a very tight control on their taxing ability."

Senator Rasmussen: "Another question, Senator Zimmerman. Also in section 5, it reads that they shall '... levy and collect an excise tax. ...' and further down it says '... shall have lien for delinquent taxes and penalties. ...' and '... lien shall be attached to. . . property. . . The lien shall be foreclosed in the same manner as the foreclosure of real property taxes.'

"So if you form a waste disposal taxing district and a person is unable to pay the taxes that are levied on them on a home within this taxing district, there then will be a lien that can be foreclosed. The present time, of course, liens for taxes are foreclosed after three years' delinquency. It used to be five. This would provide for the three years or would it be a one-year like a LID?"

Senator Zimmerman: "My understanding it would be under the usual procedure of the three-year period as far as I know. Our friends from the counties are saying it would be the three-year period."

Senator Rasmussen: "But it does become a lien on the property?"

Senator Zimmerman: "Oh, it is a lien it is ..."

Senator Rasmussen: "And it can be sold out, you may own your own home but you can't pay the waste disposal tax that they have levied on it and it can be sold out?"

Senator Zimmerman: "It is in the usual system of what liens deal with but we would hope that county local officials would be sensitive to those problems and would do their utmost to see that people were not pushed out of their houses and we hope they will be very, very sympathetic and understanding."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, of course, you understand . . . in the Seattle area, a lot of people were sold out of their houses for very small charges."

Senator Zimmerman: "That problem, we hope, will not arise under this bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senator Vognild was excused.

When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records, and a record of the response and order shall be furnished to the department in accordance with RCW 46.20.270.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the infraction wishes to contest the determination the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. Such a lessor shall, upon the request of the municipality issuing the notice of infraction, supply the municipality with the name and driver's license number of the person leasing the vehicle at the time of the infraction.

(5) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment the court shall notify the department of the failure to pay the penalty and the department may not renew the person's driver's license, or after July 1, 1984, in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation, the vehicle license, until the penalty has been paid and the penalty provided in subsection (3) of this section has been paid.

(6) There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury, a five-dollar fee in addition to the monetary penalty imposed for a traffic infraction other than a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction. The five-dollar fee shall not be suspended by the court.

(1) Whenever any person is convicted of any offense for which this title makes mandatory the suspension or revocation of the driver's license of such person by the department, the privilege of the person to operate a vehicle is suspended until the department takes the action required by this chapter, and the court in which such conviction is had shall forthwith secure the immediate forfeiture of the driver's license of such convicted person and immediately forward such driver's license to the department, and on failure of such convicted person to deliver such driver's license the judge shall cause such person to be confined for the period of such suspension or revocation or until such driver's license is delivered to such judge: PROVIDED, That if the convicted person testifies that he or she does not and at the time of the offense did not have a current and valid vehicle driver's license, the judge shall cause such person to be charged with the operation of a motor vehicle without a current and valid driver's license and on conviction punished as by law provided, and the department may not issue a driver's license to such persons during the period of sus­pension or revocation: PROVIDED, ALSO, That if the driver's license of such con­victed person has been lost or destroyed and such convicted person makes an affidavit to that effect, sworn to before the judge, the convicted person may not be so confined, but the department may not issue or reissue a driver's license for such convicted person during the period of such suspension or revocation: PROVIDED, That perfection of notice of appeal shall stay the execution of sentence including the suspension and/or revocation of the driver's license.

(2) Every court having jurisdiction over offenses committed under this chapter, or any other act of this state or municipal ordinance adopted by a local authority regulating the operation of motor vehicles on highways, or any federal authority having jurisdiction over offenses substantially the same as those set forth in Title 46 RCW which occur on federal installations within this state, shall forward to the department within ten days of a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure the defendant's appearance in court, a payment of a fine or penalty, a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt, or a finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction an abstract of the court record in the form prescribed by rule of the supreme court, showing the conviction of any person or the finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction in said court for a violation of any said laws other than regulations governing standing, stopping, parking, and pedestrian offenses.

Such violations may not have occurred while the vehicle is stolen from the reg­istered owner or is leased or rented under a bona fide commercial vehicle lease or rental agreement between a lessor engaged in the business of leasing vehicles and a lessee who is not the vehicle's registered owner. The department may enter into agreements of reciprocity with the duly authorized representatives of the states for reporting to each other violations of laws governing standing, stopping, and parking.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order and scope and object on the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill 4492.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. My motion to not concur would have, perhaps, the same effect, Senator Rasmussen, and then we would send it back to the House, telling them that we will not accept their amendment."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen, the President believes that Senator Newhouse's remarks are well taken. The President, in retrospect, believes that in the event that the motion to not concur fails, the essence is that the Senate has concurred in the amendment, thus would eliminate the point of order as to scope and object."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen not have the right to raise the point of order and scope up until final passage of the bill?"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Should I make a motion at this time that the Chair delay a ruling on the point of order until the body has considered the motion to concur or not concur with the caveat that the point would still be reserved and if the body should elect to affirmatively act on that motion, would the chair move that that motion was in order?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't know, I can't follow Senator Clarke; but it was my understanding you must raise the point of order and the scope and object immediately or you lose that right to do that once you start working on the bill."
REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Once an amendment is adopted, you lose the right."

Senator Rasmussen: "And that is why I raised the point of order."

President Cherberg: "The President would suggest a gentlemen's agreement between Senator Clarke and you, Senator Rasmussen, that you would have the right to raise the point up until final passage of the bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would like to raise it right now so I would know whether we are going to be working on it or not. I am not withdrawing the point of order, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "That is your privilege, Senator Rasmussen."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, further consideration on the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492 was held following consideration of the House Message on Substitute House Bill No. 4663.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 10, 1982

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4663, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) The legislature finds as follows:

(a) A competitive, financially healthy forest products industry is important to the economic well-being of the state and the trust beneficiaries of the state forest lands administered by the department of natural resources. The forest products industry provides employment, tax revenues, and a long-term, continuous source of income for the state educational system and other trust beneficiaries. A reduction in the number of timber companies would increase unemployment, decrease tax revenues, and reduce competition and the levels of short-term and long-term income for the trust beneficiaries.

(b) The forest products industry is currently suffering an economic downturn. Current economic conditions will hinder certain purchasers from meeting timber contract obligations to the state and may lead to business failures.

(c) The United States forest service and the state of Oregon have provided certain relief to some timber sales purchasers. Action by this state is necessary to maintain a competitive timber sales program and to insure a regular and timely harvest of timber from state lands.

(d) The interests of the state and the trust beneficiaries will be best served by modifying current state law as it applies to the state's timber sales program.

(e) The measures provided for in this act balance the needs of the trust beneficiaries for short-term revenue and cash flow with the long-term need for a competitive forest products industry which will provide a sustained income to the trusts in the future.

(2) The legislature further finds that the department of natural resources should have authority to take certain steps to:

(a) Help retain the values of existing sales of timber;

(b) Promote harvesting and the production of income to the state;

(c) Stimulate employment in the forest products industry; and

(d) Assist the forest products industry to assure future diversity and competitiveness.

(3) The legislature further finds that the board of natural resources, as the designated trust land manager, is the appropriate body to establish annual sales levels of timber from state trust lands, and that a significant volume of short-term sales offered over the course of the next two years will aid in efforts to generate sufficient trust income and help meet the goals outlined in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Sections 3 through 9 of this act shall be known as the forest products industry recovery act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 3 through 9 of this act.

(1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public lands.

(2) "Department" means the department of natural resources.

(3) "Timber sale contract" means a contract for the purchase of state timber from the department which has a minimum appraisal value over twenty thousand dollars and has been purchased at public auction by voice or sealed bid.

(4) The term "purchaser" shall include any affiliate, subsidiary or parent company thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 79.01.132, the department, upon application by the purchaser of an existing state timber sale contract entered into between January 1, 1978, and July 1, 1980, or any Lincoln day blowdown sales contracts purchased in 1980, is authorized to extend such contract without charge one day for every day the purchaser engages in or has agreed to engage in the removal of timber purchased by that purchaser under a timber sale contract: PROVIDED, That no more than sixty percent of the timber sales sold in calendar years 1982 and 1983 shall be designated by the department as sales on which a purchaser may earn extension time credits. Such extension shall be in accordance with and computed on the basis of rules adopted by the department, including specifying the minimum volume required to be removed on a daily basis to earn an extension time credit. The department's authority to grant the extensions under this section expires on December 31, 1983. The extension days earned as provided in this section may only be utilized to extend a state timber sale without charge up to and including December 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The department of natural resources is authorized for existing sales of timber purchased at auction between January 1, 1978, and July 1, 1980, or any Lincoln day blowdown sales contracts purchased in 1980, which sales had a minimum appraised price of more than twenty thousand dollars, to enter into agreements with a purchaser authorizing the credit of the extension fee to the purchase of timber if the extension fee is paid prior to the expiration date of the existing contract or an extension thereof. The credit shall be applied to payments for the removal, processing, or cutting of timber or other forest products conveyed. The department of natural resources may enter into agreements under this section upon application by a purchaser of a qualifying sale in accordance with rules adopted by the department.

(2) Any person extending a timber sale contract on which that person has paid extension fees prior to the effective date of this act is entitled to an equivalent extension of time without payment on that contract up to a maximum of one year per contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section shall only apply to defaults by purchasers of any state timber sale contract entered into between January 1, 1978, and July 1, 1980, or any Lincoln day blowdown sales contracts purchased in 1980:

(a) If the default is after the effective date of this act; and

(b) If the department receives notification from the purchaser in writing prior to July 15, 1982; and

(c) Limited to a total number of sales having a cumulative volume remaining under contract of not more than fifteen million board feet of timber. Such volume of each sale shall be determined by utilizing the original cruise estimates.
(2) Any purchaser defaulting on a contract under subsection (1) of this section shall not be refunded any cash moneys paid to the department or any other moneys expended as a result of the contract, including, but not limited to, cash deposits, extension fees, bond deposits, or interest charges. That purchaser shall also be charged a fee of twenty-five hundred dollars for the administrative costs of reselling the timber.

(3) The purchaser shall receive a credit from the department for the value of any road work completed. The value of the road work shall be the value of the percentage of road work completed based on the original appraisal for the entire road work on the sale as determined by the department of natural resources. Additional credits shall not be allowed on the defaulted contract and additional damages, fees, or penalties shall not be assessed by the department against the purchaser.

(4) The credit for road work completed shall be used, at the choice of the purchaser of state timber, as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of the price of stumpage being purchased, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of any cash security deposits required on a contract for the purchase of state timber, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half for any extension fee due on a contract for the purchase of state timber.

(5) Defaults by a purchaser on sales not falling within the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be governed by the applicable provisions of state law, rules, and timber sale contracts in existence prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a timber sale contract otherwise eligible for extension or default under sections 3 through 6 of this act is in default, it may be extended by paying the extension fee at the rate provided under the contract of sale from the date of the expiration of the contract, or from the date of the last extension, to the date of application for extension or default under sections 3 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary for the administration of sections 2 through 9 of this act. However, the failure to adopt such rules shall not prevent the immediate implementation of sections 2 through 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The interest rate on extensions granted after the effective date of this act on existing state timber sale contracts purchased prior to December 31, 1980, shall not exceed thirteen percent per year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 2 through 9 of this act do not apply to any sales of timber damaged by the eruption of Mount St. Helens.

Sec. 11. Section 33, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.01.132 are each amended to read as follows:

When any timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, or other valuable material on state lands is sold separate from the land, it may be sold as a lump sum sale or as a scale sale: PROVIDED, That upon the request of the purchaser, any lump sum sale over five thousand dollars appraised value shall be on the installment plan. Lump sum sales under five thousand dollars appraised value shall be paid for in cash. The initial deposits required in RCW 79.01.204, not to exceed twenty-five percent of the actual or projected purchase price, but in the case of lump sum sales over five thousand dollars not less than five thousand dollars, shall be made on the day of the sale. The purchaser shall notify the department of natural resources before any timber is cut and before removal or processing of any valuable materials on the sale area, at which time the department of natural resources may require, in the amount determined by the department, advance payment for the removal, processing, and/or cutting of timber or other valuable materials, or payment bonds or assignments of savings accounts acceptable to the department as adequate security. The amount of such advance payments and/or security shall at all times equal or exceed the value... of timber cut and other valuable materials processed or removed until paid for. The initial deposit shall be maintained until all contract obligations of the purchaser are satisfied: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That all or a portion of said initial deposit may be applied as the final payment for said materials in the event the department of natural resources determines that adequate security exists for the performance or fulfillment of any remaining obligations of the purchaser under the sale contract.

In all cases where timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, or other valuable material is sold separate from the land, the same shall revert to the state if not removed from the land within the period specified in the sale contract. Said specified period shall not exceed five years from the date of the purchase thereof: PROVIDED, That the specified periods in the sale contract for stone, sand, fill material, or building stone shall not exceed twenty years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in all cases where, in the judgment of the department of natural resources, the purchaser is acting in good faith and endeavoring to remove such materials, the department of natural resources may extend the time for the removal thereof for any period not exceeding twenty years from the date of purchase for the stone, sand, fill material or building stone or for a total of ten years beyond the normal termination date specified in the original sale contract for all other material, upon payment to the state of a sum to be fixed by the department of natural resources, based on the estimated loss of income per acre to the state resulting from the granting of the extension but in no event less than fifty dollars per extension, plus interest on the unpaid portion of the contract. The interest rate shall be fixed, from time to time, by rule adopted by the board of natural resources and shall not be less than six percent per annum. The applicable rate of interest as fixed at the date of sale and the maximum extension payment shall be set forth in the contract. The method for calculating the unpaid portion of the contract upon which such interest shall be paid by the purchaser shall be set forth in the contract. The department of natural resources shall pay into the state treasury all sums received for such extension and the same shall be credited to the fund to which was credited the original purchase price of the material so sold: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any sale of timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, sand, fill material, or building stone of an appraised value of five hundred dollars or less may be sold directly to the applicant for cash at full appraised value without notice or advertising.

The provisions of this section apply unless otherwise provided by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 2 through 9 of this act shall expire December 31, 1984. Such expiration shall not, however, modify or terminate any rights created by this act prior to its expiration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 79.01 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 79.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When timber situated on state lands is sold separately from the land, the sale contract shall include provisions for adjustments in the sale price to reflect changes in the market index subsequent to the time of sale. The price to be paid by a purchaser for timber removed during a calendar quarter shall equal the sum of the contract bid price and the market index change amount for that quarter.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Market index" means a composite index established by the department of natural resources. Each index shall consist of either the current market prices of various species and grades of logs harvested in this state, or the current market price of wood products made from logs harvested in this state. The department shall establish as many distinct indexes as it finds necessary to accurately reflect changes in market prices of various species and grades of logs or wood products made from logs.
(b) "Market index change amount" means an amount calculated by:

(i) Subtracting the market index for the calendar quarter during which the timber was sold from the market index for the calendar quarter in which the timber was removed; and

(ii) Dividing the remainder calculated under (b)(i) of this subsection by two.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. Section 13 of this act shall take effect April 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. An advisory committee on timber contract price indexing is hereby created. The committee shall have eleven members. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint two representatives, one from each party, to be members of the committee. The president of the senate shall appoint two senators, one from each party, to be members of the committee. The commissioner of public lands shall appoint seven members of the committee representing the department of natural resources, the timber products industry, the beneficiaries of the trusts, and the public. The committee shall study section 13 of this act and make recommendations to the department of natural resources regarding the implementation of the section. The department of natural resources shall provide such assistance as may be required by the committee. The department shall report its proposed rules for timber contract price indexing to the legislature prior to January 15, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4824.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the House amendment expands the scope and object of the bill and I would like to speak to it. "Senate Bill 4824, when it came through here, was professed to be, advertised to be, and testified to be no substantive change in the existing law. It was simply a single codification in one place of all of the aquatic land statutes; in fact, your own digest says that, that there is no substantive change of any kind in the existing law, it is simply a single codification.

"The House amendment is a very substantive change in existing law, modifying the rights of the landlord, the state, and the tenant, the renters of the property; and I think it clearly expands the scope and object of the proposed statute."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the House Message on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4824, together with the Point of Order raised by Senator Bottiger, was ordered held for a Ruling by the President.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492 from earlier today. At that time, Senator Newhouse had moved the Senate not concur in the House amendments. A Point of Order was raised by Senator Rasmussen and the matter was held for later consideration.

MOTION

Senator Clarke moved the Point of Order by Senator Rasmussen not be considered until a vote is had on the motion by Senator Newhouse that was made previously, that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, there being no objection, the Point of Order was withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having served prior notice, Senator Hurley moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 221, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate earlier today.

Debate ensued.

Senator Hurley demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Hurley that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 221, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate earlier today.

ROLL CALL ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Metcalf—1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Charnley, Substitute House Bill No. 221, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Statement by Senator Margaret Hurley on passage of SHB-221.

After having voted "Yes" on passage of SHB-221, I learned of the lien provision which would permit a lien on the property of an owner who was delinquent on payment of taxes and penalties in a solid waste disposal district (relating to a garbage dump.)

Following is the Senate Floor Transcript of my attempt for reconsideration of the bill so I could change my vote to "No":

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

I was off the floor briefly and I think, if this portion of the bill was discussed, I did miss it. But it gives me a great deal of concern, section 5, page 3, that reads, 'A solid waste disposal district shall have a lien for delinquent taxes and penalties, plus an interest rate equal to the interest rate for delinquent property taxes. The lien shall be attached to each parcel of property in the district that is occupied by the person so taxed and shall be superior to all other liens and encumbrances except liens for property taxes.', and it goes on about liens.

And I think the business of liens on people's property, especially the homes, homes for the poor, the homes for senior citizens—anybody's home. I have a great respect for homes because ordinarily homes are the only things that a family acquires in a whole lifetime and to make that home subject to a lien just for the purpose of collecting a garbage fee, a garbage tax, I think is absolutely against the desires of this Senate. It certainly isn't going to be one of those things they are going to welcome us home with open arms for, when we come home. I think everybody ought to realize what they voted for and I think we ought to do something about having passed that portion of the bill."

Signed: Senator Margaret Hurley

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended and any member wishing to be added as a sponsor to Senate Resolution 1982—198 will be permitted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 828, continuing compensation for crime victims (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 10, chapter 302, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 7.68.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person is found guilty in any court of competent jurisdiction of having committed ((an act prohibited under the provisions of Title 9A RCW as now or heretofore amended, which act involved a victim and is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor)) a crime, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there shall be imposed by the court upon such convicted person a penalty assessment ((in the amount of twenty-five dollars or ten percent of any other penalty or fine, whichever is greater, which penalty assessment shall be in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law)) of fifty dollars for a felony or gross misdemeanor and twenty-five dollars for a misdemeanor. The assessment shall be in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law.

(2) The assessment imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to motor vehicle crimes defined in Title 46 RCW except those defined in the following sections: RCW 46.61.520, 46.61.024, 46.52.090, 46.70.140, 46.65.090, 46.61.502, 46.61.504, 46.52.100, 46.20.410, 46.52.020, 46.10.130, 46.09.130, 46.61.525, 46.61.685, 46.61.530, 46.61.500, 46.61.015, 46.52.010, 46.44.180, 46.10.090(2) and 46.09.120(2)."
(3) Whenever any person accused of having committed a criminal act (prohibited under the provisions of Title 9A RCW as now or hereafter amended, which act involved a victim and is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor), posts bail pursuant to the provisions of chapter 10.19 RCW, and such bail is forfeited, there shall be deducted from the proceeds of such forfeited bail a penalty assessment (of twenty-five dollars), in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law, equal to the assessment which would be applicable under subsection (1) of this section if the person had been convicted of the criminal act.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such penalty assessments shall be paid by the clerk of the court to the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, who shall monthly transmit eighty percent of such penalty assessments to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall deposit such assessments in an account within the state general fund to be known as the crime victims compensation account, hereby created, and all moneys (derived from such assessments) placed in the account shall be used exclusively for the administration of this chapter, after appropriation by statute. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the remaining twenty percent of such assessments shall be provided to the county prosecuting attorney to be used exclusively for comprehensive programs to encourage and facilitate testimony by the victims of crimes and witnesses to crimes. A program shall be considered "comprehensive" only after approval of the department upon application by the county prosecuting attorney. The department shall approve as comprehensive only programs which:

(a) Provide comprehensive services to victims and witnesses of all types of crime with particular emphasis on serious crimes against persons and property. It is the intent of the legislature to make funds available only to programs which do not restrict services to victims or witnesses of a particular type or types of crime and that such funds supplement, not supplant, existing local funding levels;

(b) Are administered by the county prosecuting attorney either directly through the prosecuting attorney's office or by contract between the county and agencies providing services to victims of crime;

(c) Make a reasonable effort to inform the known victim or his surviving dependents of the existence of this chapter and the procedure for making application for benefits;

(d) Assist victims in the restitution and adjudication process; and

(e) Assist victims of violent crimes in the preparation and presentation of their claims to the department of labor and industries under this chapter.

(5) If a county prosecuting attorney has failed to obtain approval of a program from the department under subsection (4) of this section, the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, shall monthly transmit one hundred percent of such penalty assessments to the state treasurer for deposit in the crime victims compensation account within the state general fund.

(6) County prosecuting attorneys are responsible to make every reasonable effort to insure that the penalty assessments of this chapter are imposed and collected.

(7) Penalty assessments under this section shall also be imposed in juvenile offense dispositions under Title 13 RCW.

time, not exceeding the maximum term of sentence, except as hereinafter set forth and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine.
The court in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, may in its discretion imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year or may fine the defendant any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars plus the costs of the action, and may in connection with such probation impose both imprisonment in the county jail and fine and court costs. As a condition of probation, the court shall require the payment of the penalty assessment required by RCW 7.68-
.035. The court may also require the defendant to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (1) to comply with any order of the court for the payment of family support, (2) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question, (3) to pay such fine as may be imposed and court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, and (4) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and may require bonds for the faithful observance of any and all conditions imposed in the probation. The court shall order the probationer to report to the secretary of corrections or such officer as the secretary may designate and as a condition of said probation to follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary. If the probationer has been ordered to make restitution, the officer supervising the probationer shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain whether restitution has been made. If restitution has not, been made as ordered, the officer shall inform the prosecutor of that violation of the terms of probation not less than three months prior to the termination of the probation period. The secretary of corrections will promulgate rules and regulations for the conduct of such person during the term of his probation: PROVIDED, That for defendants found guilty in justice court, like functions as the secretary performs in regard to probation may be performed by probation officers employed for that purpose by the board of county commissioners of the county wherein the court is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 2.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Beginning in 1983, the administrator for the courts shall annually compile a report, covering the previous year, showing: (1) For each superior court district, the number of convictions and the amount of assessments paid and amount due for felonies, gross misdemeanors, and misdemeanors; (2) for each county, the number of gross misdemeanor and misdemeanor convictions in courts of limited jurisdiction and the amount of assessments paid and the amount due. This information shall be provided by class of crime (felony, gross misdemeanor, and misdemeanor). "Assessment" means the crime victims compensation assessment required under RCW 7.68.035.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is appropriated to the department of labor and industries from the crime victims compensation account in the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of three million two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purposes of chapter 7.68 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is appropriated to the department of labor and industries from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of chapter 7.68 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except sections 2 through 6 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The intent of the legislature is that the victim of crime program will be self-funded. Toward that end, the department of labor and industries shall not pay benefits beyond the resources of the account. The department of labor and industries and the administrator for the courts shall cooperatively prepare a report on the collection of penalty assessments and the level of expenditures, and recommend adjustments to the revenue collection mechanism to the legislature before January 1, 1983. It is further the intent of the legislature that the percentage of funds devoted to comprehensive programs for victim assistance, as provided in section 1 of this act, be re-examined to ensure that it does not unreasonably conflict with the higher priority of compensating victims. To that end, the county prosecuting attorneys shall report to the legislature no later than January 1, 1984, either individually or as a group, on their experience and costs associated with such programs, describing the nature and extent of the victim assistance provided.

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "crime;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 10, chapter 302, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 7.68-035; amending section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 26, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 7.68.070; amending section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1905 as last amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1979 and RCW 9.92.060; amending section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 42, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.95.210; adding new sections to chapter 7.68 RCW; creating a new section; making appropriations; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Scott, Chairman; Bauer, Bluechel, Fleming, Haley, Hayner, Jones, Lee, Ridder, Zimmerman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 8, line 13, after "three" insert "thousand seven"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Scott, even though the bill is set down, I have a couple of questions that might be relevant. On the comparison sheet you distributed, the last page, items 7 through 11 are crossed out . . . ."

Senator Scott: "They are underlined, Senator."

Senator Wilson: "That's supposed to be underlining?"

Senator Scott: "I would be as startled as you are . . . ."

Senator Wilson: "I would have to say you missed again, Senator."
"My other question is, the last question, 'Can awards be terminated or reduced due to lack of funding?', and both versions remain silent; and the question is, could we run up an enormous latent obligation after we had run out of the money appropriated for this program?"

Senator Scott: "The answer is 'yes,' Senator, but the change in format here to broaden the number of penalties against which fines will be assessed, the specific stipulation in the bill that prosecutors, judges, and court administrators are to be informed that they have to impose the fine, the surtax, and that they have to collect it.

"The provision in the bill that they get 20% of the take, as it were, to encourage them to do that, is expected to bring a much higher return, in the neighborhood of 40%, which will more than adequately fund the program as opposed to the current 15% level. We frankly don't know, we don't claim that that is anything more than a conservative guess, so you are right, there is no contingency clause or clauses there; however, we will know more in January when this whole process has been going for a while and make the necessary adjustments.

"We believe that the features I just described make for a very conservative estimate which should cover the added costs. Obviously there are going to be more claimants, too."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, Second Substitute House Bill No. 828, together with the pending committee amendment and the amendment by Senator Scott to the committee amendment, was ordered held following consideration of House Bill No. 1082.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 987, by House Committee on Appropriations-General Government and Compensation (originally sponsored by House Committee on Appropriations-General Government and Compensation and Representatives Williams, Wang, McDonald, Ellis and James):

Placing limitations on certain payments to school employees.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 4, 1982.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 987, placing limitations on certain payments to school employees (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No school district board of directors or administrators may:

(a) Increase an employee's salary or compensation to include a payment in lieu of providing a fringe benefit;

(b) Allow payment to any employee for unused vacation leave; except, that contracts may provide a mechanism for all accumulated vacation leave to be taken as vacation leave; or

(c) Allow any payment to an employee which is partially or fully conditioned on the termination or retirement of the employee, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A school district board of directors may compensate an employee for termination of the employee's contract in accordance with the termination provisions of the contract. If no such provisions exist the compensation must be reasonable based on the proportion of the uncompleted contract. Compensation received under this subsection shall not be included for the purposes of computing a retirement allowance under any public retirement system in this state.

(3) Provisions of any contract in force on the effective date of this act which conflict with the requirements of this section shall continue in effect until contract expiration. After expiration, any new contract including any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of an existing contract executed between the parties shall be consistent with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of retirement systems shall make a review of each member employed by a school district being retired on and after July 1, 1982, and whose benefits are determined by RCW 41.32.497 or 41.32.498. The purpose of the review is to identify any retiree whose average annual earnable compensation for purposes of determining retirement benefits exceeds the average annual earnable compensation during the two year period immediately preceding the years used in computing retirement benefits by more than the percentage increase determined as set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(1) For the retirees average final compensation period, the basis for making the comparison required by this section, shall be a percentage increase equal to one percentage point in excess of the average percentage salary increase granted to certificated employees of such employees district in accordance with the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the salary is payable, adjusted for incremental increases for seniority and educational attainment and staff position changes.

(2) For all retirees identified in this section, the department of retirement systems shall calculate the increase in the basic retirement benefit which results from any increase in salary granted an employee in excess of the district average certificated salary increase. The department of retirement systems will then, utilizing tables developed by the state actuary, determine the extra pension cost attributable to exceeding such average and shall bill the retiree's employer who shall remit the entire amount determined to the retirement system within thirty days, except that the director of the department of retirement systems shall be empowered to omit billing an amount less than fifty dollars.

(3) Any post-retirement increases resulting from the excess benefit identified in subsection (2) of this section shall be billed to the last employer as they occur on the basis set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

In line 3 of the title after "28A.58 RCW;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 41.32 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Scott, Chairman; Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Gaspard, Haley, Lee, Ridder, Zimmerman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Scott, the committee amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Scott, I was interested in the second portion of this where it says it applies only to school district employees. I am under the impression that the service districts are also covered under this retirement act. Would they be excluded from the provisions of this act, the way that it is written?"

Senator Scott: "This is written to include those that are members of TRF or the state PERS, so it is inclusive."

On motion of Senator Scott, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 987, as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Scott, in committee we discussed the impact of districts that may have increased its salary beyond the LEAP run in the last year and the way the language was written that this impact would go back one year, two years, whatever the case might have been.

"My question in committee was, would those school districts be obligated to pay a part of the retirement, repay that to the state? Would they be in violation of the provisions of this?"

Senator Scott: "I have the language of the act in front of me, Senator. The act is prospective; with another minute I could locate the section for you.

"Section 2 on page 2 says 'Department of retirement systems shall make a review of each member being retired on or after July 1, 1982.'

"You can't, of course, constitutionally retract benefits once granted to the member, nor would it be fair to the district to reach back a year, as it were, and make that imposition for them to pick up the overage."

Senator Bauer: "So in other words, those districts that exceeded the guidelines, would not be penalized . . . ."

Senator Scott: "That's right, the act is prospective from this coming July first."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senators Moore and Peterson were excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Scott, I am glad to see the program being funded again because it is very important to have some protection when we take care of the prisoners in pretty good style. But at the bottom of your sheet it says, 'State residency required for benefits, not specified.' 'Not being specified,' where does that leave the crime victim?"

Senator Scott: "It leave it, if the crime takes place in the state of Washington, the individual is covered. The important thing is that the individual is the victim."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Scott, the concern that some people have was with respect to those people who were crime victims during the 'window' period between July 1, of '81 and the present.

"Could you tell us about whether or not those people will be entitled, under this act, to present a claim for benefits if they were a victim of crime during that time?"

Senator Scott: "Indeed they will, Senator Talmadge. Our budget provides the necessary amount for those who applied prior to July 1, 1981 for which we have not heretofore paid and this bill picks up all those in the hiatus between the effect of the act and that previous date."

Senator Talmadge: "One other question if I could. In the present law, or the former law of crime victim's compensation, there was a bar against the lawsuit by the crime victim against the state of Washington. Is that bar still in the law?"

Senator Scott: "I have to confess I can't answer that question on horseback; I am searching my memory for the testimony on the subject in the committee, and my memory is that that person cannot; you can appeal, cannot sue."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1092, by Representatives Struthers, Hastings and McGinnis:
Modifying unfair cigarette sales act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 10, 1982.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1092, modifying the unfair cigarette sales act (report by Committee on Ways and Means):
MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
On page 8, line 11, after "of the" strike all material down to and including "thereof." on line 11 and insert "legislature."
On page 8, line 14, after "RCW" strike all material down to and including "fund" on line 16.

Signed by: Senators Scott, Chairman; Bluechel, Deccio, Haley, Hayner, Jones, McDermott, Wojahn, Zimmerman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Scott, the committee amendments were not adopted.
On motion of Senator Scott, there being no objection, an amendment by Senators Scott and Deccio on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 8, line 1, after "general fund" strike all material down to and including "fund" on line 16.

On page 8, after line 16, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, from the general fund the sum of seventy thousand seven hundred dollars or so much thereof, as necessary to carry out the purposes of this act."

On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1092, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Scott, are there other products who we ought to get involved in some price fixing in order to prevent the employment of loss leaders that would be disadvantageous to small business?"

Senator Scott: "You phrase that beautifully, Senator. Not to my knowledge."

Senator Wilson: "Well, think about it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Zimmerman, you caught my attention. You implied that this is a revenue measure above and beyond its own self-auditing? What kind of loopholes . . . ?"

Senator Zimmerman: "The loss leaders are selling at a lower price. We are not getting sales tax, we are not getting B&O tax from those businesses. Now you would have to figure it out. Be apt to be quite a bit of figuring, but there is an obvious missing. We are missing some dollars that would normally be revenue that we would get."

Senator Ridder: "Well, the summary, of course, just implies that the money that is raised from the licensing will go to the auditing to insure that they are not sold below level and it is expressed in terms that I would feel it was a regulatory"

Senator Zimmerman: "I just have been hearing so much about loopholes over the years, I thought this was a nice little loophole to close and we might as well do it."

Senator Ridder: "Senator Scott is about to tell me how much revenue this raises. Senator — is it a revenue measure?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "A revenue measure. What it is, it just raises the license fees so that they can have some enforcement on the law that is on the books. That is all; and the small businessmen are asking for that because they are being put out of business by the large businesses, some of whom had only a small part of this in their inventory and yet they cut prices way below the cost, and then they put the cost on all of their other products and that is unfair to the individual; it is unfair competi­tion, really, and it is in the Federal law as well."

Senator Ridder: "I would say that it does seem to be a bit adverse to the philo­sophy that usually comes from that side of the aisle. It seems to me it is increased regulation, and I see Senator Scott's a little uncomfortable with the whole thing."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1092, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 17; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Newhouse, Patterson, Williams—3.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1092, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitu­tional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

Senator McDermott moved the Committee on Commerce and Labor be relieved from further consideration of House Bill No. 796 and the measure be con­sidered by 10:00 p.m. tonight.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "I don't think we are in the proper order of business for this motion."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke's point is well taken. The motion is not in order."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Clarke, I am concerned. We have sent messages and called your attention to two things that are in House Bill 795 and also House Bill 796. One major thing is, and I hope everybody understands it, if you are under 18 and you want to work, you have to get a work permit and as of this year there is no more money to issue work permits, so unless we pass this bill, and that is 795, all of the kids that are working at McDonald's can't work there any more."

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I won't respond to such a question because I don't think it is the proper order and we do have business that we have to get through."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, as long as you understand it, that is my whole point, that you are not doing it accidentally, it's on purpose."
MOTION

Senator Fleming moved the Senate advance to the eighth order of business. Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Fleming that the Senate advance to the eighth order of business.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallaghan, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—25.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ridder: "Mr. President, I think it is a point of personal privilege. I would like some information and I have a question to address to Senator Scott.

Yesterday morning I find two sheets of paper as a member of the ways and means committee, one was for 795 and one was for 796. Now on the strength of that, I corresponded with people and told them that the apprenticeship bills about which they have so much concern, were out of ways and means . . . ."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "It is not personal privilege, it relates to a matter before the body; and I would call attention for the benefit of those listening, that we have a calendar here and a limited time that we are endeavoring to take care of and I hope that you people on the other side will assist us in handling this calendar, instead, in effect, of raising objections which are improper and endeavoring to speak on personal privilege when it is not personal privilege, but relates to matters before the body."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, the President believes that Senator Ridder's remarks up to this time, at least, have been on personal privilege."

Senator Ridder: "I am dismayed; my, I have a great deal of correspondence on these particular bills . . . ."

President Cherberg: "You have explained that, Senator."

Senator Ridder: "I have therefore given out incorrect information on the basis of . . . ."

President Cherberg: "You have explained that, so would you please ask your question?"

Senator Ridder: "Sure. I would like to know why those were presented to me to sign after what I understood was a meeting of the ways and means committee at which those were properly before us?"
REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Those bills were heard in commerce and labor. What happened was that the bills were never transferred from commerce and labor to ways and means."

President Cherberg: "Senator Hayner is endeavoring to answer the question?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Senator Ridder asked Senator Scott a question, not Senator Hayner."

President Cherberg: "Perhaps Senator Scott did not respond. Do you respond to the question, Senator?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCOTT

Senator Scott: "... The correct explanation has been rendered."

Senator Ridder: "I am sorry; perhaps I didn't hear it. Were the bills heard in ways and means? And I did sign them out, at least it was a green sheet of the kind I usually sign."

Senator Scott: "I have to view that as a rhetorical question, Senator. The proper explanation is that mechanically, the bills were never transferred to ways and means, and I will take responsibility. It was thought that they had been and we heard them and indeed we did sign them, but we have no legal possession of them, therefore our signatures are irrelevant."

Senator Ridder: "Thank you."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 436, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives North, Clayton, O'Brien and Garrett):

Require auctioneering licensing.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 436 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Newhouse, I have a couple of questions. I was concerned, how does this affect the, I suppose the fund-raising type auction, the amateur auction, or situations that you have used, some other people have used as fund-raisers or at nonprofit organizations where a volunteer is asked to be an auctioneer, and so forth? Does that person . . . ?"

Senator Newhouse: "Those are exempted from the act; I can't quote the section number but I recall . . . ."

Senator Charnley: "All right. That is fine. How would this go about, you say it is consumer protection and I think that is good. But how would this go about preventing the ripoff that has occasionally happened? What is the procedure . . . .?"

Senator Newhouse: "The auctioneer would be in violation of the law if he operated without the trust account or the bond. And any time he would hold such a sale, the department of licenses is empowered to supervise that operation to go and see if he is properly protected, that is, the customers are protected, and if he were operating illegally, of course it would be a violation of this act."
Senator Charnley: "Is it possible; even if we have this, that somebody might come in who is a professional, set up something, hold a sale, and take off, and the department would never know about it?"

Senator Newhouse: "That would be possible but I would suggest that there are enough auctioneers in the state who would be watching the competition and would know if they were licensed and could blow the whistle."

Senator Charnley: "So you do see some self-policing . . . ?"

Senator Newhouse: "I see a good deal of self-policing and protection for the public."

Senator Charnley: "The last question I had, it was suggested to me and I can't remember now where it came from, that there might be some concern here for restraint of trade. Is there any concern in what we are doing here that that would be an effect or a question raised?"

Senator Newhouse: "I honestly, Senator Charnley, do not believe that there is any more restraint of trade here than in licensing any other profession such as doctors or dentists or whatever, maybe a little less, because in this one we don't have a board setting exams and so forth. They are licensed to practice."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Newhouse, on page 7 of the bill, line 14, it talks about trainees. Is this an apprenticeship kind of traineeship or how do you get to be a trainee?"

Senator Newhouse: "If you look back in the previous page, it mentions the application for a trainee's license, so not only would you auctioneer, the journeyman auctioneer get a license but there would be an intermediate step, a trainee's license."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 436, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; excused, 1.

State timber sales procedure.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that consideration of Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42 be indefinitely postponed.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Quigg, I have heard of the rape of the state and all the bad things here, and as I read this, I would like to have you inform me, what does this force the department to do? What will they do under this that they couldn't do presently? This isn't a law, this just says 'requested,' 'the department of natural resources be requested.' What can they do under this that they couldn't otherwise do? What power and force does this have? Senator Vognild or whoever?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, during the discussions on 4663, the department said that they could do this. They said that they would do it. And then at a later time they said they would like to have a resolution from the legislature asking them to or advising them that we would like them to do this. That is exactly where it came from."

Senator Metcalf: "Then they could do nothing under this. They are not forced to do anything. This is just an intent that they should do it?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, Senator, that is correct."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "If Senator Clarke would answer the question as to the effect of a resolution. I note, for example, in the second 'Resolved,' we say '... That the department of natural resources be requested ...' which seems like perfectly good language for a resolution, '... to require purchasers to remove timber in not more than twenty-four months in eighty percent of its timber sales volume offered for sale ...', and then we go on to say, '... that such sale shall not be granted contract extensions. ...'"

"Now the language becomes very firm all of a sudden, it says, '... shall not be granted ...'; in the first part we say, we are requesting them to require purchasers to remove timber. I just wonder, Senator Clarke, if it is appropriate for a resolution to carry mandatory language about contract extensions as though they have the force and effect of law?"

Senator Clarke: "My answer to that would be that they are requested to do these various things, in other words to put these contracts into effect with these limitations, into effect. I think it all goes back to the request which constitutes a desire on the part of the legislature that they do this, but it is merely a request to them."

Senator Goltz: "That is the way I first was reading it, too, but when you get past the first request, we are requesting ..."

Senator Clarke: "Request them to require and then those required months are rather definite, but the request is that they make those rather definite requirements."
I can appreciate your concern if that was a direction rather than a request, but it seems to me that it all goes back to the request.∗
Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTIONS

Senator Lysen moved that Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42 be referred to the Committee on Natural Resources.
On motion of Senator Clarke, the motion by the Senator Lysen was laid upon the table.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 980, by House Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representative Mitchell)(by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Modifying the energy allowances for public assistance recipients.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 980 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Talmadge, it is my understanding that the reason that the energy is considered separately and is not considered a part of income, is to make more people qualify for other kinds of assistance. In other words, it is to help people who receive these energy grants from not counting that as income which places them above a level of income which would make them ineligible for other forms of assistance. Is that correct?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I think you may be right, but I think its net effect in terms of dollars to the public assistance recipient is minor and what it does do, is it creates a policy, it ratifies what was done last April. It ratifies the Federal policy which I happen to believe was unwise and I think that the statement you made is essentially correct but it still doesn't do much in the way of the policy of public assistance in establishing what is a real need-level for the people who are receiving that kind of assistance."

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 980 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Scott, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Zimmerman—32.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Metcalf, Sellar—3.
Excused: Senator Talley—1.

Modifying provisions relating to county alcoholism and drug abuse programs.
The bill was read the second time by sections.
On motion of Senator Deccio, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 410 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 410, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.
Absent or not voting: Senator Bottiger—1.
Excused: Senator Talley—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 410, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Charnley: Mr. President, my point is simply this. I have had an order for consideration calendar as all of us had in front of us all evening and we have been going down in order; the last bill we considered before recess was 980; when you called us back we were down to 410, now we are down to 1145. Is there a new calendar or new sequence of bills? If so, I have certainly not been informed of it.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: The Secretary advises that this is the order that was suggested to the Secretary, but over many years, Senator, the dying days of the session generally speaking, this is the procedure that is followed to try to consider those bills that are considered to be the most important.

Senator Charnley: Well, Mr. President, as I am very conversant with dying days (I have gone through a few myself), but I think it would be, out of courtesy, I would like to at least have some idea what bills are coming so I could have a chance to look ahead; so I wondered if maybe the floor leader could at least inform us, what are we going to be considering?

Senator Clarke: Senator, I get those bills about two minutes before they are sent up to the desk, and leadership is continually evaluating them and sending them in to me and that is the only answer I can give you. You know about it two minutes after I do.
Senator Charnley: "I appreciate your problems, Senator Clarke, and I am certainly not criticizing you, but I would like to suggest to the leadership over there that this is a very bad way to run a legislative session."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1145, by House Committee on Local Government and Representative Isaacson:
Modifying provisions relating to special purpose districts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 8, 1982.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1145, modifying provisions relating to special purpose districts (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 56.02 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever the boundaries or proposed boundaries of a sewer district include or are proposed to include by means of formation, annexation, consolidation, or merger (including merger with a water district) territory in more than one county, all duties delegated by Title 56 RCW to officers of the county in which the district is located shall be delegated to the officers of the county in which the largest land area of the district is located, except that elections shall be conducted pursuant to RCW 56.02-.050, actions subject to review and approval under RCW 56.02.060 and 56.02.070 shall be reviewed and approved by only the officers or boards in the county in which such actions are proposed to occur, verification of electors’ signatures shall be conducted by the county election officer of the county in which such signators reside, and comprehensive plan review and approval or rejection by the respective county legislative authorities under RCW 56.08.020 shall be limited to that part of such plans within the respective counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 56.02 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All actions taken in regard to the formation, annexation, consolidation, or merger of sewer districts prior to the effective date of this act but consistent with this title, as amended, are hereby approved and ratified and shall be legal for all purposes.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 56.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The territory adjoining or in close proximity to ((and in the same county with)) a district may be annexed to and become a part of the district in the following manner: Twenty percent of the number of registered voters residing in the territory proposed to be annexed who voted at the last election may file a petition with the district commissioners and cause the question to be submitted to the electors of the territory whether such territory will be annexed and become a part of the district. If the commissioners concur in the petition, they shall file it with the county election officer, who shall, within ten days, examine the signatures thereon and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and for such purpose ((the)) the county election officer shall have access to all registration books in the possession of the officers of any city or town in the proposed district. If the petition contains a sufficient number of signatures, the election officer shall transmit it, together with ((a)) a certificate of sufficiency attached thereto to the sewer commissioners of the district. If there are no electors residing in the territory to be annexed, the petition may be signed by such a number as appear of record to own at least a majority of the acreage in the territory, and the petition shall disclose the total number of acres of land in the territory and the names of all record owners of land therein. If the commissioners are satisfied as to the sufficiency of the petition and concur therein, they shall send it, together with their certificate of concurrence attached thereto to the ((board of)) county ((commissioners)) legislative authority.

The county ((commissioners)) legislative authority, upon receipt of a petition certified to contain a sufficient number of signatures of electors, or upon receipt of a petition signed by such a number as own at least a majority of the acreage, together with a certificate of concurrence signed by the sewer commissioners, at a regular or special meeting shall cause to be published for at least two weeks in two successive issues of some weekly newspaper ((printed in the county, and)) in general circulation throughout the territory proposed to be annexed((, and in case no such newspaper is printed in the county, then in some such newspaper of general circulation therein,)) a notice that the petition has been filed, stating the time of the meeting at which it shall be presented, and setting forth the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 56.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any water district, acting alone or in conjunction with any other water district or districts similarly situated as hereafter described, the territory of which lies wholly or partly within, or which is adjoining or in proximity to((, and in the same county with,)) a sewer district, may merge into the sewer district, and the sewer district will survive under its original name. The term "in proximity to" as used herein shall mean within one mile of each other, measured in a straight line between the closest points of approach of the territorial boundaries of the respective districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 57.02 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the right to foreclose provided in this section, the district may also cut off all or part of the service after charges for water supplied are delinquent for a period of sixty days.
Sec. 14. Section 4, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 39, chapter 126, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 57.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The general laws of the state of Washington governing the registration of voters for a general or a special city election shall govern the registration of voters for elections held under this chapter. The manner of holding any general or special election for said water district shall be in accordance with the laws of this state. All elections in a water district shall be conducted (by the canvassing board of the county within which it is located) under section 6 of this 1982 act. All expenses of elections for a water district shall be paid for out of the funds of (such) the water district: PROVIDED, That if the voters fail to approve the formation of a water district, the (county shall pay all) expenses of the formation election shall be paid by each county in which the proposed district is located, in proportion to the number of registered voters in the proposed district residing in each county.

Except as in this section otherwise provided, the term of office of each water district commissioner shall be six years, such term to be computed from the first day of January following (his) the election, and one (such) commissioner shall be elected at each biennial general election, as provided in RCW 29.13.020, for the term of six years and until his or her successor is elected and qualified and assumes office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire water district.

Sec. 15. Section 9, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 13, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A district may establish local improvement districts within its territory; levy special assessments under the mode of annual installments extending over a period not exceeding twenty years, on all property specially benefited by a local improvement, on the basis of special benefits to pay in whole or in part the damage or costs of any improvements ordered in the district; and issue local improvement bonds in the improvement district to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments. The levying, collection and enforcement of such assessments and issuance of bonds shall be as provided for the levying, collection, and enforcement of local improvement assessments and the issuance of local improvement bonds by cities of the first class insofar as consistent herewith. The duties devolving upon the city treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located for the purposes hereof. The mode of assessment shall be determined by the water commissioners by resolution. When in the petition or resolution for the establishment of a local improvement district, and in the comprehensive plan or amendment thereto or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original plan, previously adopted, it is provided that the assessments shall be for the sole purpose of payment into the revenue bond fund for the payment of revenue bonds, then the local improvement district shall be designated as a "utility local improvement district." No warrants or bonds shall be issued in a utility local improvement district, but the collection of interest and principal on all assessments in the utility local improvement district shall be paid into the revenue bond fund.

Sec. 16. Section 11, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 7, chapter 299, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts to carry out the whole or any portion of the general comprehensive plan of improvements or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general comprehensive plan previously adopted may be initiated either by resolution of the board of water commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the office of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of the land within the limits of the local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of water commissioners shall desire to initiate the formation of a local improvement district or a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district, and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

In case any such local improvement district or utility local improvement district shall be initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of the proposed improvement requested to be ordered and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall determine whether the same shall be sufficient, and the board’s determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person shall withdraw his name from the petition after the same has been filed with the board of water commissioners. If the board shall find the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of said improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of water commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing said notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located at the address shown thereon. Whenever such notices are mailed, the water commissioners shall maintain a list of such reputed property owners, which list shall be kept on file at a location within the water district and shall be made available for public perusal. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. Said notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time and place of the hearing before the board of water commissioners. In the case of improvements initiated by resolution, said notice shall also: (1) State that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of water commissioners before the time fixed for said public hearing; (2) state that if owners of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed district file written protests with the secretary of the board, the power of the water commissioners to proceed with the creation of the proposed district shall be divested; (3) provide the name and address of the secretary of the board; and (4) state the hours and location within the water district where the names of the property owners within the proposed district are kept available for public perusal. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land or other property.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in the plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary: PROVIDED, That the board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included therein without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time herein provided for the original notice.

After said hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution: PROVIDED, That the jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by protests filed with the secretary of the board prior to said public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the applicable county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution order the improvement, provide the general funds of the water district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the water district such eminent domain proceedings as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board shall thereupon proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

Sec. 17. Section 12, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Before approval of the roll a notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the local district, stating that the roll is on file and open to inspection in the office of the secretary, and fixing the time, not less than fifteen or more than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice, within which protests must be filed with the secretary against any assessments shown thereon, and fixing a time when a hearing will be held by the commissioners on the protests. Notice shall also be given by mailing, at least fifteen days before the hearing, a similar notice to the owners or reputed owners of the land.
in the local district as they appear on the books of the treasurer of the county in which the (water district) real property is located. At the hearing, or any adjournment thereof, the commissioners may correct, change or modify the roll, or any part thereof, or set aside the roll and order a new assessment, and may then by resolution approve it. If an assessment is raised a new notice similar to the first shall be given, after which final approval of the roll may be made. When property has been entered originally upon the roll and the assessment thereon is not raised, no objection thereto shall be considered by the commissioners or by any court on appeal unless the objection is made in writing at, or prior, to the date fixed for the original hearing upon the roll.

Sec. 18. Section 13, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 126, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 57.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the water district commission upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the secretary of said water district commission and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which (such water district) the real property is situated within ten days after publication of a notice that the resolution confirming such assessment roll has been adopted, and such notice of appeal shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of (such) the court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and (his) the appellant's objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the water district commission with reference to (such) the assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by (such) the secretary of (such) the water district commission (and by him) certified by the secretary to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful to pay all costs to which the water district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, (as aforementioned) the appellant shall give written notice to the secretary of such water district, that such transcript is filed. (Said) The notice shall state a time (f) not less than three days from the service thereof, when the appellant will call up the (said) cause for hearing; and the superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury; and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in (said) the court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain (in such water district) and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment roll, (and he) who shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the judgment of the superior court, as in other cases: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such appeal must be taken within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court; and the record and opening brief of the appellant in (said) the cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this (act) title. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. (And) The supreme court or the court of appeals on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.

Sec. 19. Section 23, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any land against which there has been levied any special assessment by any water district shall have been sold in part or subdivided, the board of water commissioners of such district shall have the power to order a segregation of the assessment.

Any person desiring to have such a special assessment against a tract of land segregated to apply to smaller parts thereof shall apply to the board of commissioners of the water district which levied the assessment. If the water commissioners determine that a segregation should be made, they shall by resolution order the (county) treasurer of the county in which the real property is located to make segregation on the original assessment roll as directed in the resolution. The segregation shall be made as nearly as possible on the same basis as the original assessment was levied, and the total of the segregated parts of the assessment shall equal the assessment before segregation. The resolution shall describe the original tract, the amount and date of the original assessment, and shall define the boundaries of the divided parts and the amount of the assessment chargeable to each part. A certified copy of the resolution shall be delivered to the (county) treasurer of the county in which the real property is located who shall proceed to make the segregation ordered upon being tendered a fee of three dollars for each tract of land for which a segregation is to be made. In addition to such charge the board of water commissioners may require as a condition to the order of segregation that the person seeking it pay the district the reasonable engineering and clerical costs incident to making the segregation.

Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 20, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 57.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every water district in the state is hereby authorized to create a fund for the purpose of guaranteeing, to the extent of such fund, and in the manner hereinafter provided, the payment of all of its local improvement bonds issued, subsequent to (the effective date of this act) June 9, 1937, to pay for any local improvement within its confines. Such fund shall be designated "Local Improvement Guaranty Fund, Water District No. .......", and shall be established by resolution of the board of water commissioners. For the purpose of maintaining such fund, every water district, after the establishment thereof, shall at all times set aside and pay into such a fund such proportion of the monthly gross revenues of the water supply system of such water district as the commissioners thereof may direct by resolution. This proportion may be varied from time to time as the commissioners deem expedient or necessary: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That under the existence of the conditions set forth in subsections (1) and (2) next hereunder, then the proportion must be as therein specified, to wit:

(1) Whenever any bonds of any local improvement district have been guaranteed under this act and the guaranty fund does not have a cash balance equal to twenty percent of all bonds originally guaranteed under this act, (excluding issues which have been retired in full) then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues derived from all water users in the territory included in said local improvement district (but not necessarily from users in other parts of the water district as a whole) shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever, under the requirements of this subsection, said cash balance accumulates so that it is equal to twenty percent of all bonds guaranteed, or to the full amount of all bonds guaranteed, outstanding and unpaid (which amount might be less than twenty percent of the original total guaranteed), then no further moneys need be set aside and paid into said guaranty fund so long as said condition shall continue.

(2) Whenever any warrants issued against the guaranty fund, as hereinbelow provided, remain outstanding and uncalled for lack of funds for six months from date of issuance thereof; or whenever any coupons or bonds guaranteed under this act have been matured for six months and have not been redeemed either in cash or by issuance and delivery of warrants upon the guaranty fund, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues (or such portion thereof as the commissioners of the water district determine will be sufficient to retire said warrants or redeem said coupons or bonds in the ensuing six months) derived from all water users in the water district shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever under the requirements of this subsection all warrants, coupons, or bonds specified in this subsection above have been redeemed, no further income need be set aside and paid into said guaranty fund under the requirements of this subsection until and unless other warrants remain outstanding and unpaid for six months or other coupons or bonds default.

(3) For the purpose of complying with the requirements of setting aside and paying into the local improvement guaranty fund a proportion of the monthly gross revenues of the water supply system of any water district, as hereinabove provided, said water district shall bind and obligate itself to maintain and operate said system and further bind and obligate itself to establish, maintain and collect such rates for water as will produce gross revenues sufficient to maintain and operate said water supply system and to make necessary provision for the local improvement guaranty fund as specified by this section and RCW 57.20.080 and 57.20.090. And said water district shall alter its rates for water from time to time and shall vary the same in different portions of its territory to comply with the said requirements.

(4) Whenever any coupon or bond guaranteed by this act shall mature and there shall not be sufficient funds in the appropriate local improvement district bond redemption fund to pay same, then the applicable county treasurer shall pay same from the local improvement guaranty fund of the water district; if there shall not be sufficient funds in the said guaranty fund to pay same, then the same may be paid by issuance and delivery of a warrant upon the local improvement guaranty fund.

(5) Whenever the cash balance in the local improvement guaranty fund is insufficient for the required purposes, warrants drawing interest at a rate determined by the commissioners may be issued by the applicable county auditor (of the county in which the water district is located), against the said fund to meet any liability accrued against it and must be issued upon demand of the holders of any maturing coupons and/or bonds guaranteed by this (act) section, or to pay for any certificates of delinquency for delinquent installments of assessments as provided in subsection (6) (hereunder) of this section. All such certificates of delinquency shall be issued in the name of the local improvement guaranty fund and all guaranty fund warrants issued in payment therefor shall be issued in the name of the appropriate local improvement district fund. Whenever any market is available and the commissioners of the water district so direct, the applicable county treasurer shall sell any certificates of delinquency belonging to the local improvement guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That any such sale must not be for less than face value thereof plus accrued interest from date of issuance to date of sale.

Such certificates of delinquency, as above provided, shall be issued by the county treasurer of the county in which the (water district) real property is located, shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum, shall be in each instance for the face value of the delinquent installment, plus accrued interest to date of issuance of certificate of delinquency, plus a penalty of five percent of such face value, and shall set forth:

(b) Date installment of assessment became delinquent;
(c) Name of owner or reputed owner, if known.

Such certificates of delinquency may be redeemed by the owner of the property assessed at any time up to two years from the date of foreclosure of such certificate of delinquency.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 852, by House Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by House Committee on Human Services and Representative Mitchell) (by Department of Social and Health Services request):

Modifying provisions relating to nursing homes.
No. 852 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Deccio, Substitute House Bill No. 852 states in section 4, that 'The resident's attending or staff physician or authorized practitioner shall order all medications for the resident.' The bill then defines who 'authorized practitioners are.' It simply states that 'authorized practitioners are osteopathy assistants, physician assistants and registered nurses.'

"Is it the intent of the language of this bill to prevent any properly licensed physician from serving as an attending or staff physician?"

Senator Deccio: "Senator Kiskaddon, the answer is 'no.' Attending or staff physicians may be licensed under RCW 18.22, 18.57, and 18.71. Nothing in this bill would change the ability of physicians licensed under these sections from being an attending or staff physician in a nursing home. Does that answer your question?"

Excused: Senator Talley—I.

Continuing the displaced homemaker program.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 23, 1982.

REENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 286, continuing the displaced homemaker program (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 2, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.020 are each amended to read as follows: The legislature finds that homemakers are an unrecognized part of the work force who make an invaluable contribution to the strength, durability, and purpose of our state."
The legislature further finds that there is an increasing number of persons in this state who, having fulfilled a role as homemaker, find themselves "displaced" in their middle years through divorce, death of spouse, disability of spouse, or other loss of family income of a spouse. As a consequence, displaced homemakers are very often left with little or no income; they are ineligible for categorical welfare assistance; they are subject to the highest rate of unemployment of any sector of the work force; they face continuing discrimination in employment because of their age and lack of recent paid work experience; they are ineligible for unemployment insurance because they have been engaged in unpaid labor in the home; they are ineligible for social security benefits because they are too young, and many never qualify because they have been divorced from the family wage earner; they may have lost beneficiaries' rights under employer's pension and health plans through divorce or death of spouse; and they are often unacceptable to private health insurance plans because of their age.

It is the purpose of this chapter to establish (a two-year pilot project) guidelines under which the council for postsecondary education shall contract to establish multipurpose service centers and programs to provide necessary training opportunities, counseling, and services for displaced homemakers so that they may enjoy the independence and economic security vital to a productive life.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The council, in consultation with state and local governmental agencies, community groups, and local and national organizations concerned with displaced homemakers, shall receive applications and may contract with public or private nonprofit organizations to establish multipurpose service centers for displaced homemakers. In determining sites and administering agencies or organizations for the centers, the council shall consider the experience and capabilities of the public or private nonprofit organizations making application to provide services to a center.

(2) Not later than ninety days after June 7, 1979, the council shall issue rules prescribing the standards to be met by each center in accordance with the policies set forth in this chapter. Continuing funds for the maintenance of each center shall be contingent upon the determination by the council that the center is in compliance with the contractual conditions and with the rules prescribed by the council.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each center contracted for under this chapter shall include or provide information and referral to the following services:

(a) Job counseling services which shall:

(i) Be specifically designed for displaced homemakers;

(ii) Counsel displaced homemakers with respect to appropriate job opportunities; and

(iii) Take into account and build upon the skills and experience of a homemaker and emphasize job readiness as well as skill development;

(b) Job training and job placement services which shall:

(i) Emphasize short-term training programs and programs which expand upon homemaking skills and volunteer experience and which lead to gainful employment;

(ii) Develop, through cooperation with state and local government agencies and private employers, model training and placement programs for jobs in the public and private sectors;

(iii) Assist displaced homemakers in gaining admission to existing public and private job training programs and opportunities, including vocational education and apprenticeship training programs; and

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Deccio, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill
iv) Assist in identifying community needs and creating new jobs in the public and private sectors;

(c) Health counseling services, including referral to existing health programs, with respect to:

(i) General principles of preventative health care;

Signed by: Senators Hemstad, Vice Chairman; Hayner, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Hemstad, it seems like we are driving the cost of marriage licenses ever higher. Earlier this session we passed a bill, dealing with abused children which would fund the program by putting a surcharge on marriage licenses. With that prior surcharge plus the basic fee plus this particular surcharge, just how high are we driving the cost of marriage licenses?"

Senator Hemstad: "I believe the total cost now will be twenty-three dollars or, I may be fifty cents off or so, but approximately twenty-three dollars. To put that into perspective, the state of Oregon charges, I believe, fifty or fifty-five dollars for a marriage certificate. So at least on a state-by-state comparison it is still quite inexpensive."

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the committee amendment to the title of was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed House Bill No. 286, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

(6) The director of general administration shall adopt by rule a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. Each agency shall follow the procedure adopted by the director of general administration. MOTION

Senator Lee moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4717.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lee, the journal of the Senate which each of us gets, a copy of the House and Senate journals, we distribute them to a library in our area so people can have a chance to go in and read, get roll calls, when people have asked us 'What is your voting record?', we have sent those journals to libraries.

"As I understand it now, we will not be getting those journals as members of the legislature."

Senator Lee: "We will not be getting the two copies, that is correct. They will continue to be available and the price is established in the RCW."

Senator Bottiger: "So if we continue to do that, we will pay $15 a volume, $35 per volume and it will be our expense then if we want to keep this library functioning?"

Senator Lee: "That is correct. Those that we will need ourselves will be kept in the House and the Senate."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Lee, this relates to the session laws which I use in my district office to answer constituent's questions. Will we be receiving the paperback volumes of the session laws in order to answer those questions?"

Senator Lee: "Yes, we will continue to receive the session laws and the paperback copy. The number of paperback copies is actually being increased to replace some of the sets of hardbound copies that have been previously distributed."

Senator Talmadge: "Would that also be true of paperback volumes of the journals?"

Senator Lee: "That is correct, the paperback volumes of the journal will replace some of the hardbound volumes that have previously been distributed."

Senator Talmadge: "So members will be receiving a paperback volume of the session laws, and a paperback volume of the journals?"

Senator Lee: "That is correct."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator Lee, I hear some consternation on this side of the aisle in terms of your response to the question to whether or not we will be receiving as members of the House and Senate, paperback volumes of the journal. Now I see the digest clearly says that we will not receive, free of charge, the hardback volume unless we wish to pay for them. But the question that remains to be answered is whether or not we will receive free of charge the paperback volumes?"

Senator Lee: "That amendment is on ... page 302, 301. Yes, the amendments, there should be a little blue amendment, House amendment to the Senate Bill 4717, adopted 3/11/82. The first section is the session laws that they amended. The journal is section 2."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHINPOCH

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen. On section 2 on the amendment reads that 'The set shall be distributed as follows:' and it is speaking about House and Senate journals, 'one set to each' and it has struck 'members of the legislature.' So I don't think there are any hard copies or soft copies of the journal that are going to the legislature at all unless you intend to buy them. On page 5, Senator Lee, under section 2 under sub (1) it struck 'members of the legislature' and I think that clearly takes the legislature out of receipt of any free copies of the journal."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEE

Senator Lee: "And in sub (2), then, on page 6, says the 'House and senate journals ... shall be' distributed 'in the house and senate chambers for use of legislators as directed by the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate; ...' "And that is right, and those are the ones that are to replace copies to every individual member."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHINPOCH

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, I think Senator Lee is reading that wrong. It says 'House and senate journals of the preceding regular session during an odd- or even-numbered year, and of any intervening special session, shall be placed ...' and I think that is the key word. '... shall be placed in the house and senate chambers for use of legislators as directed by the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate; ...' "I think there is going to be one journal placed in the House and one placed in the Senate, and that is it; and that is for our use as directed by the chief clerk and the secretary. We now have them directing us."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, and members of the Senate. You know I think it is kind of important that the people have access to the voting records of the members of the legislature, and that is where they find it, and that is in that journal. And I don't know about anybody else, Senator Talmadge has it in his office in the district; some of us contribute them to libraries; Senator Goltz has mentioned he sends his to a library; and then when people call and want your voting record, you have some place to refer them, where they have access to it. I think it is a mistake, I think it is very short-sighted, I looked for the fiscal note on how much was going to be saved by this and all I am told is it is 'negligible.' Now if they thought I was going to balance the budget with this savings, but that may have been why they told me that.

"But is it really that important that we save a hundred or so copies of the journal that are being distributed statewide through the members of the legislature?"

On motion of Senator Lee, there being no objection, the motion that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4717 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate concurred in all sections of the House amendment with the exception of section 3 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The annual amount due and apportionable shall be the amount apportionable for all apportionment credits estimated to accrue to the schools during the apportionment year beginning September first and continuing through August thirty-first. Appropriations made for school districts for each year of a biennium shall be apportioned according to the schedule set forth in this section for the fiscal year starting September 1st of the then calendar year and ending August 31st of the next calendar year. The apportionment from the state general fund for each month shall be an amount which will equal the amount due and apportionable to the several educational service districts during such month: PROVIDED, That any school district may petition the superintendent of public instruction for an emergency advance of funds which may become apportionable to it but not to exceed ten percent of the total amount to become due and apportionable during the school districts apportionment year. The superintendent of public instruction shall determine if the emergency warrants such advance and if the funds are available therefor. If he determines in the affirmative, he may approve such advance and, at the same time, add such an amount to the apportionment for the educational service district in which the school district is located: PROVIDED, That the emergency advance of funds and the interest earned by school districts on the investment of temporary cash surpluses resulting from obtaining such advance of state funds shall be deducted by the superintendent of public instruction from the remaining amount apportionable to said districts during that apportionment year in which the funds are advanced.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the 1982–83 school year, one-half of the September, October, March, and April payments under RCW 28A.48.010 shall be made on the last business day of the respective month and the remainder on the fifteenth day of the following month. Interest shall be paid on the amounts deferred under this section at the rate for state interfund loans as established by the state finance committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 340, Laws of 1981 a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall allow local school districts, upon request, to defer up to four percent of the funds provided by section 87, chapter 340, Laws of 1981, as now existing or hereafter amended, for the 1981–82 school year to the 1982–83 school year. For the purposes of the 1982 maximum qualification calculation under RCW 84.52.0531, the 1981–82 basic education allocation shall exclude such deferred funds. Any funds received in the 1982–83 school year pursuant to this section shall not be included in the calculation of the 1984 levy lid pursuant to RCW 84.52.0531. Local school districts shall receive the full amount deferred under this section with the June, 1983 apportionment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, two million two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, solely for the purposes of paying interest costs associated with section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 3 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder to this act shall take effect September 1, 1982."

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Scott moved the Senate concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4502.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Scott, my question, when you change from 2% to 4%, what that does to levy? Does that increase the amount of levy that can be collected at the local level?"

Senator Scott: "That increases the base for purposes of additional levies by that amount, Senator."

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Scott, do we know how much that is and how many millions of dollars we would be increasing the levy amount?"

Senator Scott: "In the case of Seattle, it is $3,000,000. It, also in Seattle's case doesn't actually increase the amount of authorization. They are within their authorization amount that raises their base."
"In other districts, some twenty-eight in all, it increases capacity and in some instances increases authorization."

Senator Shinpoch: "It is my understanding that somewhere between sixty and eighty additional districts may come under the grandfather clause and also may collect additional levies if this bill passes. Is my understanding correct about that?"

Senator Scott: "You are correct."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4502.
