MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The Washington State Legislature has all but concluded the 1982 Regular Session without resolving the major issues critical to our state. It is therefore necessary for me to convene the legislature in extraordinary session for the purpose of addressing only the following:

- The state budget
- State and local revenues
- Unemployment insurance
- New state correctional facilities
- The Washington Public Power Supply System
- Ferry-labor relations
- Bills in dispute

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Spellman, Governor of the state of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article II, Section 12 (Amendment 68), and Article III, Section 7 of the State Constitution, do hereby convene the Washington State Legislature in extraordinary (special) session for a period not to exceed ten days in the Capitol at Olympia at 12:00 noon on March 12, 1982.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 11th day of March, A.D. nineteen hundred and eighty-two.

JOHN SPELLMAN
Governor of Washington.

By the Governor:
RALPH MUNRO
Secretary of State.
(Seal of the State of Washington)

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1982—203

By Senators Hayner, Jones, Bottiger and Fleming:

BE IT RESOLVED, That a committee of three be appointed to notify the House that the Senate is now organized and ready to transact business.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed Senators Guess, Sellar and Rasmussen as a committee of three under the provisions of Senate Resolution 1982—203 to notify the House the Senate is organized and ready to transact business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the committee appointments were confirmed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following resolution was adopted:

By Senators Hayner, Jones, Bottiger and Fleming:

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE, That all requests for new legislation to be considered during the 1982 First Special Session be on the request list of the Code Reviser's Office by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 15, 1982, the fourth Legislative day; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Wednesday, March 17, 1982, the sixth Legislative day, under the proper order of business, shall be the final day for introduction of bills to be considered during the Special Session.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1982—204

By Senators Hayner, Jones, Bottiger and Fleming:

WHEREAS, The offices of President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Vice President Pro Tempore, Secretary of the Senate and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate were filled by competent persons during the forty-seventh, 1982, regular session of the legislature; and

WHEREAS, These officers served in a distinguished and satisfactory manner; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That said officers, committee chairmen and committee members of the said regular session shall constitute the officers and committees of the 1982 special session of the forty-seventh legislature.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 149, by Senators Hayner, Jones, Bottiger and Fleming:

Reintroduction and reprinting of measures.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Clarke moved the rules be suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Bottiger, there is some question about which bills are actually in dispute. Would you agree that they could be the 'dispute calendar,' the concurrent calendar, the conference committee bills and bills which have passed both houses and then have been referred to committee following a scope and object ruling?"

Senator Bottiger: "With the exception of the scope and object ruling I would agree. I hadn't thought about the scope and object. They would not be in 'dispute' as we had discussed it last night in preparing the resolution because they are back in committee and they wouldn't"

Senator Hayner: "That is why I think that I would like to ask you whether you have any objection to putting those at the highest level that they were when they left this body so that they would not go back to committee?"

Senator Bottiger: "I would think we would want to have a caucus on that. I have the printout of what I understood was in dispute and it did not include those bills and I think our interest would be what was in that bunch."

Senator Hayner: "I think there are some bills in there that you are very interested in as well."

Senator Bottiger: "Sure, it could cut both ways. It would be without the amendment that caused them to be referred?"

Senator Hayner: "That's right."

Senator Bottiger: "I think perhaps I would like to take that up in caucus, Senator Hayner. . . ."

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, may we hold off on the final determination of that?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, as a friendly suggestion to the majority leadership, I wonder if it would be possible to prepare a list of bills that are considered in dispute? For one thing, various individual members such as myself are extremely concerned that certain bills are considered to be in dispute and therefore still alive; and secondly, it might save a wrangle later on as to whether a bill qualified under the resolution or not."

Senator Hayner: "It is our intention to do so, Senator Wilson. The problem is that the bill had not physically returned to this body because there was some question about the passage of the resolution last night that actually sent them back, and that is being taken care of this morning. As soon as they are over here we will make a list and indicate to you exactly what the differences are."

Senator Wilson: "And the list will be available to the caucuses before this resolution is acted on? Thank you, Senator Hayner."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I might further add that you will see by the note at the end of the sheet that has just been handed to you that all the House measures are actually in rules in the House because they did not have the problem of the scope and object ruling and our rules happened to be different in this body, and I think they are proper but they don't have the same problem that we have with respect to that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149 was ordered held on third reading.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House of Representatives consisting of Representatives Barnes, Hine and Nickell appeared before the bar of the Senate to notify the Senate the House of Representatives was organized and ready to transact business.

The report was received and the committee retired to the House of Representatives.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hayner, within the resolution is the phrase on line 5, 'fiscal issues.' And it is of concern to us that that include, or I will ask it in the form of a question, does that include both bills that raise the fees as in House bills 975 and 976, or expend money as in Senator Bauer's education study bill? Are those bills alive under the phrase 'fiscal issues?'"

Senator Hayner: "Well, Senator Bottiger, as you know 'fiscal issues' is a term which could cover a lot of things and we interpret that to mean that it would be appropriation and revenue matters and those things affecting that. It is very difficult to define the exact words, but it would be our interpretation that that would include the bills to which you have referred."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150 was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Hayner, I look at this list of bills we are considering today and I am not quite sure how they were selected. I notice that 4661 is not on the list and I wondered if you could explain to us the reason for that."

Senator Hayner: "The bills which are on the list are all bills which we thought, in a sense, in looking on the amendments that were put on in the House and so forth, that they were consent bills as far as we were concerned, that they could go out of this body in the same form that they previously went out. And then if the House insists on putting our amendments on again, then we are in some kind of dispute."

"The bills that were held over were held because, for example, we were looking at the amendments the House had put on to see if we wanted to roll them back to second reading and put the House amendments on to simplify it, and as far as the bills to which you refer, Senator Quigg wanted to look at the bills to be sure that the amendment was what he intended for it to be."

When a cogeneration facility is operational and a certificate pertaining thereto has been issued, a credit may be claimed against taxes imposed under chapter 82.04 RCW, if the due date for payment of the taxes is after the effective date of the certificate: PROVIDED, That the date on which the facility is operational is no more than four years after the date of issuance of the certificate. The amount of the credit shall be ~~((two))~~ ten percent of the cost of a facility covered by the certificate for each year the certificate remains in force. The credits shall be cumulative and shall be subject only to the following limitations:

(1) The tax credit shall apply to capital costs only and shall not apply to operating costs.

(2) A person, firm, corporation, or organization which acquires a cogeneration facility shall be entitled to the credit only to the extent that it has previously not been taken. Under no circumstances may a credit be taken more than once against any cost or portion thereof of a cogeneration facility.

(3) No credit exceeding fifty percent of the taxes payable under chapter 82.04 RCW shall be allowed in any reporting period.

(4) The total cumulative amount of the credits allowed for any cogeneration facility covered by a certificate shall not exceed fifty percent of the cost of the cogeneration facility less the total amount of federal investment credit or other federal tax credits applicable to the cogeneration facility.

(5) ~~((The total cumulative amount of credits against state taxes authorized by this chapter shall be reduced by the total amount of any federal investment credit or other federal tax credit actually received by the certificate holder applicable to the cogeneration facility. This reduction shall be made as an offset against the credit claimed in the first reporting period following the allowance of the investment credit;~~

~~or other credit, and thereafter as an offset against any credit balance as it shall become available to the certificate holder)) State credits shall not become available until one year after final cost verification by the department.~~

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 191, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 82.35.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) The department shall provide a copy of the application to the energy office within ten days after receipt thereof. Within sixty days after receipt of the application from the department, the office shall approve the application but only if it first determines that construction of the cogeneration facility began or will begin after September 1, ((1979)) 1975, that the cogeneration facility is designed and is operated or will be operated primarily for cogeneration, and that the cogeneration facility is suitable, reasonably adequate, and meets the intent and purposes of this chapter.

(3) Within ten days after approval of the application, the office shall provide a copy thereof to the department. Within thirty days after receipt thereof the department shall issue the certificate but only if it finds that the cost data in the application is accurate.

If the application contains estimated cost data, the certificate shall be conditioned upon the applicant providing sufficient information for the department to determine the actual cost of the cogeneration facility on the date it becomes operational. Within sixty days after the cogeneration facility is operational the department shall review the certificate. If the actual cost of the cogeneration facility is less than the cost shown in the certificate, the department shall issue a modified certificate or a supplement to the original certificate, showing the actual cost of the cogeneration facility.

The rules shall apply to administrative procedures before both the office and the department. An applicant shall have the opportunity for a hearing before the office and the department in respect to their respective decisions granting or denying approval or certification.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1984.

(1) No certificate or supplement may be issued after December 31, 1984. No certificate including a supplement thereto may be issued for cogeneration facility costs in excess of ten million dollars for any application submitted under this chapter.

(2) The department shall keep a running tabulation of the total cogeneration facility costs incurred or planned to be incurred pursuant to certificates or supplements issued under this chapter. The department may not issue any new certificate or any supplement if the certificate or supplement would result in the tabulation exceeding one hundred million dollars. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to bar any certificate holder from amending the certificate or obtaining a supplement thereto so long as the amendment or supplement is issued prior to December 1,

1984, and does not increase the total amount of cogeneration facility costs incurred or planned to be incurred under the original certificate.

(3) The department may adopt any rules under chapter 34.04 RCW it considers necessary for the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 15, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675 with the following amendments originally adopted March 4, 1982:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41-.162 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with (~~RCW 28A.41.160~~) this chapter, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Each district's annual student transportation allocation shall be based on differential rates determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the following manner:

(1) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard student mile allocation rate for each district. "Standard student mile allocation rate," as used in this (~~section~~) chapter, means the per mile allocation rate for transporting an eligible student. The standard student mile allocation rate may consist of no more than (~~five~~) eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall include but not be limited to such factors as climate and terrain; restricted passenger load; nonpassenger miles; and the costs of insurance, district or contracted employee salaries, and benefits, maintenance, fuel, supplies, and materials to the extent that they are not under the direct control of the district." The standard student mile allocation rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(1).

(2) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard unit mile rate for each district. "Standard unit mile rate," as used in this section, means the cost of operating an approved transportation vehicle for one mile. The standard unit mile rate may consist of no more than ~~((five))~~ eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall be based on the factors used in subsection (1) of this section. The standard unit mile rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(2) and (3). For purposes of allocating funds for RCW 28A.41.505(2), the superintendent shall use the average number of miles reported by the district for the two school years, excluding field trips.

(3) Prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, and the committees on education and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives a report outlining the methodology and rationale used in determining the student mile and unit mile rates to be used the following year.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the preliminary, estimated student transportation allocation for each district and notify districts of their preliminary student transportation allocation by June 15. ~~((The superintendent shall include not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated student transportation allocation in the following September apportionment payment to school districts:))~~ By the following October 15th, every district shall notify the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary student transportation allocation. The superintendent shall then make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final student transportation allocation before the following December 1st ~~(, and shall make the balance of the student transportation allocation in approximately equal parts as a part of the December, February, and April apportionment payments to school districts)).~~ If the number of eligible students in a school district changes ten percent or more from the final October 15 number, and the change is maintained for a period of twenty consecutive school days or more, the district may submit revised eligible student data to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent shall, to the extent funds are available, recalculate the district's allocation for the transportation of pupils to and from school.

The superintendent shall make the student transportation allocation in accordance with the apportionment payment schedule in RCW 28A.48.010, as now or hereafter amended. For the 1982-83 school year, no school district shall receive a reduction or increase in funds of over three percent of what it received the previous year as adjusted to its proportional share of funds appropriated by the legislature for 1982-83 transportation services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature which shall:

(1) Identify the factors that will be used to recognize cost differentials between districts, and the data elements that will be used to measure the factors that contribute to these cost differentials;

(2) Collect the appropriate financial and workload data necessary to measure cost differentials between districts;

(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;

(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the "eligible student" definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one-half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students;

(5) Compare the distribution of transportation operating funds to each local school district under the interim methodology approved for the 1982-83 school year and the methodology requiring use of eligible student for 1983-84; and

(6) Present options for a continued phase-in of the eligible student allocation formula, with a description of the fiscal impact on school districts.

The report shall be submitted to the senate and house committees on education no later than December 15, 1982.

All data collected by the superintendent and requested by the committees on ways and means or education of the house or senate pertaining to the funding of pupil transportation shall be delivered to the legislative evaluation and accountability program (LEAP) as soon as possible in a machine readable form acceptable to the LEAP committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this amendatory act shall take effect September 1, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Establishing a temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, setting forth its duties, and providing for its abolishment.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3609 was returned to second reading.

Senator Bauer moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bauer and Lee:

On page 1, line 8, after "Section 1." strike everything through line 16 and insert "Washington's citizens have long placed a high value on a system of education that contributes to individual development, to the health of communities, and to the quality of life in the state as a whole. While many excellent programs exist, there is need to build public confidence in the ability of the education system amply to educate students. The legislature has evidence of a lack of coordination between education institutions, a weak response to the progressive academic and vocational needs of students, an unclear statement as to roles and missions, an inconsistency between programs, duplications of effort, and inefficient uses of public dollars. The possibilities for improving this structure require comprehensive examination."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Bauer, let me describe my problem to you and see if we can"

"I have no problem with about the first eight or nine lines of your amendment, but then when you say that 'the legislature has evidence of,' and then you go on down and say 'an inefficient use of public dollars,' I am not sure if that is a correct statement then we have no defense. If we have evidence of inefficient use of public dollars, we should have taken it out long ago.

"And then you other statement in there that we have 'an unclear statement as to roles and missions,' well, I worked with the council on post-secondary education a long time defining the role of missions of, at least of the post-secondary, so I don't, I find some problems with the second half of the statement. If you are only putting on about the first lines on to what is on there, well, then that is one thing; but I"

Senator Bauer: "Well, Senator Shinpoch, that particular paragraph has been discussed and cussed for six years now. In the initial form of the bills we have had before us here, I think that all those parties that focused in on some length on that and discussed it in the various committees, recognize that every session we come to Olympia, we come to introduce legislation that will get the best use of the public dollars. And I don't think that any of us would be naive to think that if there is any rationale for this study at all, one rationale would be that there is a possibility for the citizens looking at a delivery systems that there are more efficient ways of using the public dollars than we are. And maybe that shouldn't have been so explicitly put; however, I think we are going to be honest with ourselves, that is the real life out there, and I think this reflects that."

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, Senator Bauer, are you indicating that the manner in which we appropriate funds leads to inefficiencies and we should change the manner in which we appropriate them?"

Senator Bauer: "I am not quarelling with the question of the appropriation, I am quarelling with the question of the utilization; and our appropriation is utilization. If we appropriate 'X' number of dollars to the commission for vocational education and it isn't getting the best bucks in the return, well, then it is inefficient use of appropriation as well as utilization, I would think."

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Bauer, would you have any objections to setting this down for another bill or two and you and I discuss this? I have problems with preambles that make statements that I don't think are true, and, or can't be necessarily demonstrated and I think that there is a better way to do what both you and I would like to do with this particular section."

Senator Bauer: "If it is technical in nature, that is one thing; but this is the House's best offer to their compromise to that statement that we previously had in the original bill. And I am afraid that that House committee then will need to quibble with us for another five years over that language and I would regret that if that were to happen. And I think we all would regret that. So Senator Shinpoch, I don't want to be an obstructionist to try to satisfy your particular objective but I think in doing so, we might destroy the initiative here we have before us."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3609 together with the pending amendment by Senators Bauer and Lee was ordered held for consideration following Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 143.

Sec. 13. Section 11, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

"Employment", subject only to the other provisions of this title, means personal service, of whatever nature, unlimited by the relationship of master and servant as known to the common law or any other legal relationship, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract calling for the performance of personal services, written or oral, express or implied.

No employing unit which contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor who is an employer under the provisions of this title shall make any payment or advance to, or secure any credit for, such contractor or subcontractor or on account of any contract or contracts to which said employing unit is a party unless such contractor or subcontractor has paid contributions, due or to become due for wages paid or to be paid by such contractor or subcontractor for personal services performed pursuant to such contract or subcontract, or has furnished a good and sufficient bond acceptable to the commissioner for payment of contributions, interest, and penalties. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said employing unit directly liable for such contributions, interest, and penalties and the commissioner shall have all of the remedies of collection against said employing unit under the provisions of this title as though the services in question were performed directly for said employing unit.

For the purposes of this section, a contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW shall not be responsible for any contributions for the work of any subcontractor if:

(1) The subcontractor is currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

(2) The subcontractor has a principal place of business which would be eligible for a business deduction for internal revenue service tax purposes other than that furnished by the contractor for which the business has contracted to furnish services;

(4) The subcontractor has contracted to perform:

(b) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

Sec. 15. Section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 33, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with his or her work and thereafter until he or she has obtained work and earned wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks. Alcoholism shall not constitute a defense to disqualification from benefits due to misconduct.

(2) An individual who has been discharged because of a felony or a gross misdemeanor of which he or she has been convicted, or has admitted committing to a competent authority, and which is connected with his or her work shall be disqualified from receiving any benefits for which base year credits are earned in any employment prior to the discharge. Such disqualification begins with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged, and all benefits paid during the period the individual was disqualified shall be recoverable, notwithstanding RCW 50.20.190, 50.24.020, or any other provision of this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 50.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Additional benefits are payable to eligible persons who are "exhaustees" with respect to extended benefits. The term "exhaustee" is deemed to have the same meaning with respect to extended benefits as with respect to regular benefits.

(2) Additional benefit amounts shall be calculated pursuant to RCW 50.22.050(1) and (2).

(3) Eligibility for additional benefits shall be determined and benefits shall be paid under the same terms and conditions as for extended benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 50.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding RCW 50.22.010(8)(a), an additional benefit period is established for weeks of unemployment which begin on or after the third Sunday following the effective date of this section: PROVIDED, That this additional benefit period will be suspended during any week in which an extended benefit period is not in effect.

(2) Additional benefits are payable to otherwise eligible persons who have exhausted extended benefits on their most recent claim after July 1, 1980.

(3) The department of employment security shall develop proposals for a permanent program of additional benefits. The proposals shall address alternatives in trigger mechanisms, benefit levels, eligibility requirements, and unemployment insurance financing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 50.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Benefits under sections 16 and 17 of this act are not payable for weeks of unemployment beginning after June 30, 1983, unless extended by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The term "employment" does not include services performed in a barber shop licensed under chapter 18.15 RCW or a hairdressing or cosmetology shop licensed under chapter 18.18 RCW if:

(1) The use of the shop facilities by the individual performing the services is contingent upon compensation to the shop owner; and

(2) The individual performing the services receives no compensation or other consideration from the owner for the services performed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 2, 9, 10, 11, 16, and 17 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. Section 4 of this act shall take effect on September 26, 1982."

On motion of Senator Williams, there being no objection, an amendment to the amendment to page 14, line 11 on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate was withdrawn.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment.

"Mr. President, the bill as it was originally written, dealt with triggers for unemployment benefits and what we now have in this amendment are provisions, section 19 which denies coverage to barbers; sections 13 and 14 which deny coverage to subcontractors; it also has disqualifications for alcoholism. All of that expands the scope and object of the bill that was originally merely a bill dealing with the triggers for unemployment benefits. It had nothing to do with coverage."

At 8:18 p.m., there being no objection, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 8:48 p.m.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDermott, the President would like to advise the members of the Senate that in the previous ruling regarding Senate Bill 4661, the bill made various changes to the state's unemployment compensation laws, including the method by which extended benefits are calculated. However, the bill in no way dealt with the subject of elimination of unemployment coverage for certain classes of workers.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Quigg does deal with this subject.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Quigg was ruled out of order.

MOTION

At 8:50 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 17, 1982.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4717 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hurley: "Mr. President, I would like to speak on a point of personal privilege.

"Since this is March 17th, St. Patrick's day, and the birthday of my oldest son, I want to wish everybody a very happy St. Patrick's day.

"A number of years ago I made a vist to Ireland and although it was off season and there weren't any of the fun places that were open, the people said, 'Oh, come back in June or July,' which, of course, just isn't all that easy from the state of Washington.

"But when I returned, I wrote a poem and although the House has heard it, because I think I read it in about 1977, I would like to read it for you today. It just sort of starts the spirit out for a happy St. Patrick's day.

"And I call it 'Ode to St. Patrick' or 'Keep Washington Green.'

"'Twas on the 17th of March
In a year so long ago
St. Patrick came to Ireland
And he made the shamrocks grow.

Then he beckoned to the serpents
That crawled o'er hill and lea
And they followed dear St. Patrick
'Til he drowned them in the sea.

'Twas then he looked around him
Seeing boulders everywhere.
And he piled them into fences
So they could grow potatoes there.

Then God sent down a paint brush,
The biggest ever seen.
And St. Patrick took it in his hand
And painted Ireland green.

The folks forgot their hunger,
Their sorrows fled away.
And all they've done is sing and dance
Until this very day.

So let's all beg dear St. Patrick
To hold that paint brush in his hand
To help us keep our state as green

As he did that Emerald Land."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hughes: "I haven't had a son born on St. Patrick's day but the chances are 50/50 I will today, so I am, on the basis of that possibility, I would like to speak today.

"Last week when the Counsel General of Ireland was here, I had a lovely conversation with Mrs. Doran and she reminded me of many of the very positive and some of the tragic things involved in the history of Ireland. I promise that I won't make a long-winded speech like last year.

"But I would like to read the final epitaph of Robert Emmet, with the permission of the Senate. It will only take about three or four minutes. It is the final words that Mr. Emmet spoke as he was executed on the dock in Dublin in the 1820s.

"Robert Emmet was eighteen years of age and he was executed as a spy against the crown of England. His words, I think, speak very well, not only of Irish patriotism, but I think of patriotism throughout the world, and I think many Americans can reflect on this. So with the permission of the Senate, I would like to read it.

"Let no man dare, when I am dead, to charge me with dishonor. Let no man attain my memory by believing that I could have engaged in any cause but that of my country's liberty and independence; or that I could have become the pliant minion of power in the oppression and misery of my countrymen. The proclamation of the Provincial Government speaks my view, no inference can be tortured from it to countenance barbarity or debasement at home, or objection, humiliation or treachery from abroad.

"I would not have submitted to a foreign oppressor for the same reason that I would resist the domestic tyrant.

"In the dignity of freedom, I would have fought upon the threshold of my country, and its enemies should only enter by passing over my lifeless corpse.

"And am I who lived but for my country, who have subjected myself to the dangers of the jealous and watchful oppressor, and now the bondage of the grave, only to give my countrymen their rights and my country, her independence — am I to be loaded with calumny and not suffer to resent it? No; God forbid!

"At this point the British minister turned to Mr. Emmet and said, 'That's all fine and dandy, but you have disgraced your family,' particularly his father who was a very prominent statesman in Irish history.

"Emmet goes on 'If the spirits of the illustrious dead participate in the concerns and cares of those who were dear to them in this transitory life, O! ever dear and venerated shade of my departed father, look down with scrutiny upon the conduct of your suffering son, and see if I have, even for a moment, deviated from those principles of morality and patriotism which it was your care to instill into my youthful mind, and for which I am now about to offer my life.

"My Lords, you seem impatient for the sacrifice. The blood for which you thirst is not congealed by the artificial terrors which surround your victim. It circulates warmly and unruffled through the channels which God created for noble purposes, but which you are now bent to destroy, for purposes so grievous that they cry to Heaven.

"Be yet patient! I have but a few more words to say. I am going to my cold silent grave; my lamp of life is nearly extinguished; my race is run; the grave is open to receive me, and I sink into its bosom. I have but one request to ask at my departure from this world; it is the clarity of its silence. Let no man write my epitaph; for as no man who knows my motives dare now vindicate them, let them and me rest in obscurity and peace, and my name remain unscribed until other times and other men can do justice to my character.

"When my country takes her place among the nations of the earth, then, and not until then, let my epitaph be written."

"Now that's a more serious vein, but we couldn't end St. Patrick's day on that serious a note, so I would like to talk a little bit about the subtlety and the sensitivity of the Irish, who are sometimes accused of not being the most sensitive of people.

"And I want to give you a quote of one Irishman, apparently, to a maiden as he asked for her hand in marriage, and I think this is as about a romantic proposal as I have ever hear, and it goes, 'Would you like to be buried with my people?'

"Now I would like to continue with one other to show that the Irish have a deep sense of humor, (some of you are beginning to get that now, I'll repeat it later). Another one deals with how the Irish handle bad publicity and one Irish politician was to have said to another, 'There's no real bad publicity except the final obituary,' and with that, I wish you all a happy St. Patrick's Day."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 16, 1982.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3946 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3242. On March 16, 1982, the House Message was read. Senator Gaspard raised a Point of Order on the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3242.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Gaspard, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3242 is a measure which makes revisions of a procedural nature to the law relating to educational service districts.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives, while incorporating the provisions of Senate Bill No. 3242 also makes major changes in the areas of school district bonding authority and school year schedule, which could institute a pilot program for a four-day school week.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken.

"Pursuant to Senate Rule 72, Senate Bill No. 3242 is referred to the Committee on Education."

The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the vehicle to the claimant upon a determination by the hearing officer or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession.

No manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler shall be eligible to receive or hold a retail license under this title, nor shall such manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler sell at retail any liquor as herein defined: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall prohibit a licensed brewer or domestic winery from being licensed as a retailer pursuant to chapter 66.24 RCW for the purpose of selling beer or wine of its own production at retail on the brewery or winery premises. On page 7, after line 29, insert a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 30, Laws of 1967 ex.sess., as last amended by section 21, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex.sess., and RCW 74.09.520 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "medical assistance" may include the following care and services: (1) Inpatient hospital services; (2) outpatient hospital services; (3) other laboratory and x-ray services; (4) skilled nursing home services; (5) physicians' services, which shall include prescribed medication and instruction on birth control devices; (6) medical care, or any other type of remedial care as may be established by the secretary; (7) home health care services; (8) private duty nursing services; (9) dental services; (10) physical therapy and related services; (11) prescribed drugs, dentures, and prosthetic devices; and eyeglasses prescribed by a physician skilled in diseases of the eye or by an optometrist, whichever the individual may select; (12) other diagnostic, screening, preventive, and rehabilitative services: PROVIDED, That the department may not cut off any prescription medications, oxygen supplies, respiratory services, or other life-sustaining medical services or supplies.

"Medical assistance," notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall not include routine foot care, (~~chiropractic~~) or dental services delivered by any health care provider, that are not mandated by Title XIX of the social security act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Quigg, I wondered if you could explain to me why, if this is a good idea, and I am listening very carefully to the debate here, we don't clean that whole thing up and also remove the words 'foot care' and 'dental services.' Why don't we just make the sentence read 'Medical assistance notwithstanding any provisional loss shall not include services that are not mandated by Title 19 of the social security act'?"

Senator Quigg: "Are you proposing that we . . ."

Senator Charnley: "I am asking before I propose. I would like to know why we are taking the one out but leaving the other exclusions in."

Senator Quigg: "The matter of chiropractic care is one that has been brought to my attention by people from my district, Senator, and so with that kind of a concern coming from those folks, that is the emphasis for the amendment. I hadn't heard from the folks on the matter of the others that you are discussing."

Senator Charnley moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Quigg and others:

In the last paragraph of the amendment, on the second line, following "include" strike "routine foot care, or dental"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment and I would like to speak to it, please."

"This refers only to the deductible. The bill itself refers only to a change in the deductible amount for a person who is medically indigent and is eligible for Federal aid program. And the amendment before us is an entirely different concept and it adds a new section to this bill. I think it is beyond the scope and object, and the purpose of this bill is a very important and laudable one which must be taken care of if we are going to save some of our hospitals. And I think by adding this amendment it could be in jeopardy."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Charnley, the amendment to the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4285, together with the pending amendment by Senators Quigg and others, and the Point of Order raised by Senator Hayner, was ordered held for a Ruling by the President during the afternoon session today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4841, by Senator Bluechel:
Relating to winter recreation.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4841 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4841 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4841 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Bluechel, I am concerned about the state becoming more involved in winter recreation as far as using state funds. I don't object to property being made available to private enterprise to increase the private sector and to offer business opportunities throughout the state.

"Does this bill, 4841, allow the state to become more involved, that it will cost the taxpayers more money, or will this open opportunities for private enterprise?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator McCaslin, as I mentioned in my statement, 98.6% of all land above 3,000-foot elevation in this state is owned by the federal government. The intent of the bill is to trade what are called 'base areas,' forty to one hundred acres at each potential or existing ski area site, from the federal land to the state land. At that point, the state's involvement would be to provide a management base because they would own the land to invite private enterprise to come in and expand existing areas and to establish new areas.

"Presently there is no way this can be done. The state should not be involved in any cost; as a matter of fact, the whole intent and purpose of the bill is to allow for substantial expansion of winter resources in the state with the total cost being borne by private enterprise.

"The issue of the money involved here is simply to set up the commission which would set up the mechanism to make the trade."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4841 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 17; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Patterson, Scott, Woody—25.

Voting nay: Senators Conner, Goltz, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, Newhouse, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn—17.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bottiger, Deccio, Quigg, Zimmerman—4.

Excused: Senators McDermott, Sellar, Talley—3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4841, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

(1) Any person aggrieved by any final decision of a state agency, as defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended, contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to RCW 90.62.060(6) may obtain review thereof by filing a request, with the board, within thirty days of the transmittal under RCW 90.62.060(6) by the department of ecology of the document, for all final decisions other than a final decision relating to the granting or denial of a substantial development permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 in which case the filing of such request shall be with the shorelines hearings board. Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the board shall review all final decisions other than a final decision on a substantial development permit which shall be reviewed by the shorelines hearings board. In the event a request for review includes a final decision involving a substantial development permit and other permits, there shall be single staged hearing of the permits by the boards. The board shall be authorized to adopt rules and regulations implementing such staged hearings and the filing of requests so as to eliminate all unnecessary duplication.

(2) Any hearing held pursuant to this section by the pollution control hearings board or the shorelines hearings board or by the boards jointly shall be a de novo quasi judicial hearing and shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) The board or boards shall make written findings of fact based upon a preponderance of the evidence and shall prepare written conclusions of law and an order, which order may affirm with or without condition, remand for further proceedings, or reverse the appealed decision in accordance with the findings and conclusions.

(4) Judicial review of decisions of the boards shall be controlled by RCW 43.21B.180 through 43.21B.200 except as they relate to decisions pertaining to substantial development permits under RCW 90.58.140 which shall be controlled by RCW 90.58.180.

(5) (a) Any person aggrieved by and desiring to appeal any final decision of a local government contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to RCW 90.62.060(6) as now or hereafter amended shall obtain review thereof in the same manner as would apply had the local government not utilized the procedures provided by this chapter.

(b) The provisions of subsection (5)(a) of this section shall not apply to a decision concerning any permit required by a "state agency" as that term is defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended.

(6) The board shall keep a record of all appeals of amendments or revisions to shoreline master programs that have been reviewed by the shorelines hearings board. If a request for review of a final decision of a state agency is filed for a proposed project or activity that would be constructed or conducted within the area of land or water governed by such an amendment or revision, the board shall relinquish jurisdiction to the shorelines hearings board which shall review the request. For the purposes of this section, the phrase "area of land or water" applies, but is not limited to applying, to marine lands or waters lying not more than six hundred feet seaward from the line of ordinary high tide of lands that are governed by such a revision or amendment and are adjacent to tidal saltwater."

In line 3 of the title, strike "and"

In line 5 of the title, after "90.58.030" and before the period, insert "; and amending section 8, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 54, Laws of 1977 and RCW 90.62.080"

On page 8, after line 36, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the department made within one year prior to the effective date of this act, that rejected, conditionally approved, or approved proposed adjustments to a local government master program may seek review by the shorelines hearings board of such decision by filing a request for the same with the board if a request for review is filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act. The review by the shorelines hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The shorelines hearings board shall consider if the proposed adjustment is consistent with the policies of chapter 90.58 RCW in accordance with that chapter as now or hereafter amended, and shall specifically include the contemplation of maintaining and promoting the economic vitality of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any adjustment to its master program made after the effective date of this act, by a local government shall become effective sixty days after its adoption without approval by the department, except when an appeal is filed as hereinafter provided. An adjustment may only be adopted by the local government if, prior to its adoption, a public hearing was held on the proposal. At least three weeks prior to this hearing the local government proposing to adjust its master program shall provide written notification of the proposal to the department. The department, as the primary state agency responsible for the administration of this chapter, shall both notify other affected state agencies of the proposal and provide advice and counsel to the local government proposing the adjustments. After a local government adopts an adjustment to its master program, it shall immediately send a copy of its adjustment to the department. The department shall send copies of the adjustment to any state agency which may have an interest in the adjustment.

During this sixty-day period any state agency or any aggrieved person may appeal such adjustment to the shorelines hearings board as not being consistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW, except that an appeal to the superior court from a final decision of the hearings board shall only be made to the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located, and venue for any such action shall lie in that county. The review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located. The board, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the aggrieved party or agency, shall make a balanced determination of the validity of the local government's ordinance in light of the policies and standards for implementation set forth in the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the shorelines hearings board under sections 3 or 4 of this act may, within thirty days of that decision, seek judicial review thereof by filing a petition in the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustments is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the hearing required to be held by a local government seeking to adjust its master program is conducted as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW and a record is made of that hearing, the shorelines hearings board shall be confined to a review of that record. In any other circumstance, the shorelines hearings board may conduct a de novo hearing on the local government adjustment and may conduct the hearing as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with sections 3, 4, and 5 of this 1982 act: (1) RCW 34.04.090, 34.04.100, and 34.04.105 do not apply to the review by the shorelines hearings board of proposed adjustments to a local government master program; and (2) RCW 34.04.130 does not apply to the superior court where review of a final decision by the shorelines hearings board on proposed adjustments to a local government master program may be sought. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each repealed. This section shall take effect only if section 11, chapter ... (ESB 4831), Laws of 1982 fails to become law. If that section does become law, this section shall be of no force or effect.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4285 from earlier today. The following amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Moore, Talmadge, Gaspard and Kiskaddon had been moved for adoption. Senator Hayner had raised a Point of Order on the amendment.

On page 7, after line 29, insert a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 30, Laws of 1967 ex.sess., as last amended by section 21, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex.sess., and RCW 74.09.520 are each amended to read as follows:

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Hayner, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4285 is a measure which deals with the subject of state medical care available to medically indigent and needy persons.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Quigg and others also deals with the subject of state medical care by broadening the type of medical assistance that is available to such persons to include chiropractic care.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Quigg and others was ruled in order.

As a condition of probation, the court shall require the payment of the penalty assessment required by RCW 7.68-.035. The court may also require the defendant to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (1) to comply with any order of the court for the payment of family support, (2) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question, (3) to pay such fine as may be imposed and court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, and (4) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and may require bonds for the faithful observance of any and all conditions imposed in the probation. The court shall order the probationer to report to the secretary of corrections or such officer as the secretary may designate and as a condition of said probation to follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary. If the probationer has been ordered to make restitution, the officer supervising the probationer shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain whether restitution has been made. If restitution has not been made as ordered, the officer shall inform the prosecutor of that violation of the terms of probation not less than three months prior to the termination of the probation period. The secretary of corrections will promulgate rules and regulations for the conduct of such person during the term of his probation: PROVIDED, That for defendants found guilty in justice court, like functions as the secretary performs in regard to probation may be performed by probation officers employed for that purpose by the board of county commissioners of the county wherein the court is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 2.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Beginning in 1983, the administrator for the courts shall annually compile a report, covering the previous year, showing: (1) For each superior court district, the number of convictions and the amount of assessments paid and amount due for felonies, gross misdemeanors, and misdemeanors; (2) for each county, the number of gross misdemeanor and misdemeanor convictions in courts of limited jurisdiction and the amount of assessments paid and the amount due. This information shall be provided by class of crime (felony, gross misdemeanor, and misdemeanor). "Assessment" means the crime victims compensation assessment required under RCW 7.68.035.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is appropriated to the department of labor and industries from the crime victims compensation account in the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of three million two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purposes of chapter 7.68 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is appropriated to the department of labor and industries from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of chapter 7.68 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except sections 2 through 6 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The intent of the legislature is that the victim of crime program will be self-funded. Toward that end, the department of labor and industries shall not pay benefits beyond the resources of the account. The department of labor and industries and the administrator for the courts shall cooperatively prepare a report on the collection of penalty assessments and the level of expenditures, and recommend adjustments to the revenue collection mechanism to the legislature before January 1, 1983. It is further the intent of the legislature that the percentage of funds devoted to comprehensive programs for victim assistance, as provided in section 1 of this act, be re-examined to ensure that it does not unreasonably conflict with the higher priority of compensating victims. To that end, the county prosecuting attorneys shall report to the legislature no later than January 1, 1984, either individually or as a group, on their experience and costs associated with such programs, describing the nature and extent of the victim assistance provided."

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "crime;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 10, chapter 302, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 7.68-.035; amending section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 26, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 7.68.070; amending section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1905 as last amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1979 and RCW 9.92.060; amending section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 42, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.95.210; adding new sections to chapter 7.68 RCW; creating a new section; making appropriations; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 987, by House Committee on Appropriations—General Government and Compensation (originally sponsored by House Committee on Appropriations—General Government and Compensation and Representatives Williams, Wang, McDonald, Ellis and James):

Placing limitations on certain payments to school employees.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No school district board of directors or administrators may:

(a) Increase an employee's salary or compensation to include a payment in lieu of providing a fringe benefit;

(b) Allow payment to any employee for unused vacation leave; except, that contracts may provide a mechanism for all accumulated vacation leave to be taken as vacation leave; or

(c) Allow any payment to an employee which is partially or fully conditioned on the termination or retirement of the employee, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A school district board of directors may compensate an employee for termination of the employee's contract in accordance with the termination provisions of the contract. If no such provisions exist the compensation must be reasonable based on the proportion of the uncompleted contract. Compensation received under this subsection shall not be included for the purposes of computing a retirement allowance under any public retirement system in this state.

(3) Provisions of any contract in force on the effective date of this act which conflict with the requirements of this section shall continue in effect until contract expiration. After expiration, any new contract including any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of an existing contract executed between the parties shall be consistent with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of retirement systems shall make a review of each member employed by a school district being retired on and after July 1, 1982, and whose benefits are determined by RCW 41.32.497 or 41.32.498. The purpose of the review is to identify any retiree whose average annual earnable compensation for purposes of determining retirement benefits exceeds the average annual earnable compensation during the two year period immediately preceding the years used in computing retirement benefits by more than the percentage increase determined as set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(1) For the retirees average final compensation period, the basis for making the comparison required by this section, shall be a percentage increase equal to one percentage point in excess of the average percentage salary increase granted to certificated employees of such employees district in accordance with the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the salary is payable, adjusted for incremental increases for seniority and educational attainment and staff position changes.

(2) For all retirees identified in this section, the department of retirement systems shall calculate the increase in the basic retirement benefit which results from any increase in salary granted an employee in excess of the district average certificated salary increase. The department of retirement systems will then, utilizing tables developed by the state actuary, determine the extra pension cost attributable to exceeding such average and shall bill the retiree's employer who shall remit the entire amount determined to the retirement system within thirty days, except that the director of the department of retirement systems shall be empowered to omit billing an amount less than fifty dollars.

(3) Any post-retirement increases resulting from the excess benefit identified in subsection (2) of this section shall be billed to the last employer as they occur on the basis set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Scott, as I understand the RCW number, this refers only to the public school K through 12 system; it does not refer to any retirement system or bumping of pension systems in community colleges, four-year institutions or general administration? Is that correct?"

Senator Scott: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Goltz: "Was any thought given to expanding the scope and object of the bill?"

Senator Scott: "There was a thought given to it but caution prevailed."

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 3 of the title after "28A.58 RCW;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 41.32 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 987, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1084, by House Committee on Education and Representative Taylor (by State Board of Education request):

Clarifying law relating to terms and qualifications of state board of education members.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3 following section 2 add three new sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 28A.04.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 179, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28A.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of education shall be comprised of two members from each congressional district of the state, not including any congressional district at large, elected by the members of the boards of directors of school districts thereof, as hereinafter in this chapter provided, and one ((nonvoting)) member elected at large, as hereinafter in this chapter provided, by the members of the boards of directors of all private schools in the state meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.04.020, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Not later than the twenty-fifth day of August of each year, the superintendent of public instruction shall call for the following elections to be held: An election in each congressional district within which resides a member of the state board of education whose term of membership will end on the second Monday of January next following, and an election of the ((nonvoting)) member of the state board of education representative of the private schools if the term of membership will end on the second Monday of January next following. The superintendent of public instruction shall give written notice thereof to each member of the board of directors of each common school district in such congressional district, and to the chairperson of the board of directors of each private school who shall distribute said notice to each member of the private school board. Such notice shall include the election calendar and rules and regulations established by the superintendent of public instruction for the conduct of the election.

Sec. 5. Section 28A.04.050, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 38, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the board of directors of each school district in each congressional district shall be eligible to vote for the candidates who reside in his congressional district. Each chairperson of the board of directors of each eligible private school shall cast a vote for the candidate receiving a majority in an election to be held as follows: Each member of the board of directors of each eligible private school shall vote for candidates representing the private schools in an election of the board, the purpose of which is to determine the board's candidate for the ((~~nonvoting~~)) member representative of the private schools of the state board. Not later than the first day of October the superintendent of public instruction shall mail to each member of each common school district board of directors and to each chairperson of the board of directors of each private school, the proper ballot and voting instructions for his congressional district together with biographical data concerning each candidate listed on such ballot, which data shall have been prepared by the candidate."

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator Hemstad, I am wondering what percentage of the issues that come before the state board of education are related to private school matters? Do you know what that percentage might be?"

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Woody, I can't give you a percentage response to that, but I simply would point out that we are talking about one-seventeenth of the board. But in their regulatory control over private education, the state board of education has a very massive impact on what they can and cannot do. And the state board strongly asserts that it has the authority and responsibility to do that. So its impact on private education is very high and the translation is one-seventeenth of the total board, hardly an overwhelming percentage participation in those decisions."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Hemstad, all I can see here is ' . . . one member elected at large . . . by the members of the boards of directors of all private schools' Is there any indication or direction in either your amendment or in existing law that that representative should not be a representative from a school that may have very, very tight religious grounds or other things that would be contrary to the Constitution in terms of church and state?"

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Charnley, this representative would be a representative of those approved private schools. In other words, those that already fall within the approval mechanisms of the state board of education."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Talmadge, I would be interested in your opinion in the sense of the constitutionality of inserting a member of private school on a state public school board, in the terms of the Constitution."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Charnley, as I think I said in my remarks no more thorny cases have ever confronted the United States Supreme Court or the Washington State Supreme Court, than the question of the intersection of parochial education and the first amendment. I would submit that on certain issues there may be some serious questions and some of the issues that are facing public education today include vouchers, which have a first amendment implication; aid to parochial education which has always had a first amendment question attached to it; and many others may, in fact, be affected by the presence of a private school or parochial school representative on the state board of education, should the board have decision-making powers with respect to that issue."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Gaspard moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Hemstad:

On page 1, line 29, after "amended" strike the period and insert: ": PROVIDED, That the member elected by the private schools shall vote only on matters directly relating to private schools."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Deccio is violating the Senate rules when he called my amendment, adopting it would be a sham. I think he is impugning the motives of one of the members of the Senate."

President Cherberg: "Will you please confine your remarks to the adoption of the amendment, Senator Deccio."

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4824, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Gallagher, Zimmerman and Peterson): Providing separate chapters of laws of aquatic lands.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Goltz, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4824 was returned to second reading.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 82, line 5, strike all of New Section 145.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct the cross references.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Talmadge, if I understand your amendment correctly, the long-standing reversionary rights which the oyster growers have on the property which they use to grow oysters would be taken away by this amendment. Is that correct?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it is not my understanding, Senator Goltz, that that would be the case. The concern has been whether or not the state could sell those reversionary rights. My understanding was that the position of the department of natural resources was that you could not sell those reversionary rights. The position of the oysterers, I think is they can be sold based on that pre-existing law. I think they would like to take advantage of that."

Senator Goltz: "I would like to ask another question, then. From the standpoint of the oyster growers, do they support your amendment or are they opposed to your amendment?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I have not run it by them; I think it was their position in the committee, that the old law, the 1925 and 1927 enactments, should be the law. If you supported that position you would be in opposition to my amendment. If you supported the position of the department of natural resources, you would be in favor of my amendment which would strike the old law and reinsert in its place, the shoreline management act."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Goltz moved the following amendments by Senators Goltz, Newhouse, Gallagher and Moore be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 100, after line 20, insert the following:

"Sec. 176. Section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 79.01.525 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((During the term of an existing lease and in issuing or renewing leases or releasing harbor areas pursuant to RCW 79.01.520, the annual rental fee for a harbor area lease shall not increase at a rate of more than six percent per year, regardless of the reappraised value of the harbor area unless the reappraisal is conducted by an independent fee appraiser who is a member of the Appraisal Institute and designated M.A.I. or a member of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers who is designated S.R.P.A. or S.R.E.A. and who uses local comparable land values.)) From the effective date of this 1982 amendatory act, until July 1, 1983, the annual rental fee for an existing lease, and renewal lease or re-lease of tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, waterways and harbor areas shall not increase at a rate of more than six percent per year beyond the rental fee in effect on January 1, 1981, for such existing lease, renewed lease or re-lease. Any new lease issued after the effective date of this 1982 amendatory act shall be at a rental rate of not more than six percent per year above the rental rates in effect on January 1, 1981, for comparable state-owned aquatic lands leased for similar purposes. This rate shall be in effect from the effective date of the lease until July 1, 1983. This section does not apply to geoduck harvesting leases, clam harvesting leases or oyster bed leases which are established by a competitive bid process. When state aquatic lands and harbor areas are used or leased for a dock and are used for personal recreational use by the upland owner, no rent or fee shall be charged in addition to any rent or fee now being paid by an upland owner. This section shall expire and have no further legal effect after July 1, ((1982)) 1983."~~

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

On page 101, following line 18, insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 178. A joint legislative committee on aquatic lands shall be convened to study the laws governing the management of state-owned marine lands, shorelands, and harbor areas and the manner in which the department of natural resources has interpreted and administered these laws in fulfillment of trust management responsibilities. The purpose of the study is to propose legislation which will (1) clearly define aquatic lands; (2) articulate a management philosophy; (3) provide procedures for managing and appraising these lands; (4) establish an administrative fee for residential recreational docks; and (5) address such other issues to be determined by the committee. The committee membership shall include three members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker; and three members of the senate appointed by the president. The committee shall elect a chairman from among its members. The chairman shall appoint an aquatic lands task force to be comprised of other public and private entities affected by the administration of aquatic lands to make recommendations to the committee. The committee shall report its findings, not later than January 1, 1983, to the natural resources and environmental affairs committee of the house of representatives and the natural resources committee of the senate."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

On page 108, after line 18, add sections as follows:

Sections 176 (amending RCW 79.01.525) and 178 (creating a new section providing for an aquatic lands joint legislative committee) of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 186. Except as provided in section 185 of this act, this act shall take effect July 1, 1983."

Senator Goltz moved the following amendments to the amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 2 of the amendment, between "used" and "for" add "only"

On page 2, under "NEW SECTION, Sec. 178." line 6, after "fulfillment of" strike "trust"

On page 2, under "NEW SECTION, Sec. 178." line 17, after "comprised of" insert "Department of Natural Resources representatives and"

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment to the amendments were adopted.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendments, as amended, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the following amendments to the title by Senator Goltz were adopted.

On page 2, line 23 of the title after "79.01.414;" insert "amending section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1979 and RCW 79.01.525;"

On page 2, beginning on line 26 of the title after ".521" strike "and 79.01.525"

On page 7, line 4 of the title after "79.20.170;" strike "and" and on line 6 after "79.20.180" insert "; declaring an emergency and providing an effective date;"

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4824 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gallagher: "Senator Goltz, in new section 178, there is established a joint legislative committee which is to conduct a study of aquatic lands law policing policy. Subsection (4) calls for establishment of an administrative fee for residential, recreational docks. What is your intent of the meaning of 'administrative fee' and will this, in any way, be used to tie the legislature's hands on the type of fee to be charged, if any?"

Senator Goltz: "Well, Senator Gallagher, the section that you refer to is really instructions to the joint committee to undertake a study of certain subjects within the total area of aquatic lands. One of those subjects is to make a recommendation concerning the establishment of an administrative fee for residential recreational dock. The Senate ad hoc committee who had studied this before, came to the conclusion that for the department of natural resources to establish a lease agreement, would have to have an appraisal which would be a very costly process to administer for each recreational dock for each private property owner.

"We recommended, at that time, that an alternative to that should be the establishment of some kind of an administrative fee in lieu of a rental agreement based upon an appraised price. Our recommendation at that time was that the administrative fee should be enough to cover the cost of administration and also the cost of the value of the property on which the dock is located. So the fee should be, in effect, a rental alternative."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. The commissioner shall by regulation establish the amount of the filing fee for filing insurance rates and forms. VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Sellar moved the Senate concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4201.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SELLAR

Senator Sellar: "Thank you, Mr. President. This is the valuation and nonforfeiture life insurance bill. Basically, the House put a section, a new section on the bill that allows the insurance commissioner to charge a fee up to, but not exceeding, $20.00 for filing. And the fee will go into the general fund and will be subject to legislative appropriation in whatever amount the insurance commissioner needs to handle the action of the act."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I move that Senator Sellar's remarks concerning the explanation of the bill be included in the journal, and I may speak to the motion.

"Mr. President, I would just like to explain why. Normally, I was going to ask a question, and the reason I want it in the journal is to make sure that it is understood that it is subject to appropriation as opposed to being a revolving fund."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SELLAR

Senator Sellar: "Mr. President, that is correct. It will not be a revolving fund, it will be subject to legislative approval."

The motion by Senator Sellar carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4201.

It appears as if we can't get out of the next occurrence, but at any rate, the President would like to respectfully request of Senator Jones and Senator Fleming, that you please act as a committee of two to escort the shifty, shilly-shallying, simple-minded Senator from Omak to the rostrum. (You wrote it!!)

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, thank you. It is my honor to introduce Senator Wilson's wife, Lynn. Would you please stand? His son, 'Duff,' his mother-in-law, Mrs. Laskey; and his friends from Omak Mr. Tom McKay and his wife, Louise. Please stand."

President Cherberg: "A resolution. The Secretary will please read."

Senator Woody: "From the top, please."

Cherberg; Sid Snyder, Secretary of the Senate; Marilyn Brachtenbach, Deputy Secretary of the Senate; and Fred Hildebrand, Sergeant at Arms:

WHEREAS, He built a solid reputation as a perceptive, incisive and crusading publisher and editor of the Ritzville Journal-Times, the Lind Leader, and the Omak Chronicle; and

WHEREAS, Bruce Wilson also became known far and wide as a civic leader, master of ceremonies and raconteur par excellence; and

WHEREAS, His interest in politics was truly whetted when he joined forces with the inimitable Henry "Hank" Gay to form the "Wilson Weakly Players," whose sole objective was to puncture the balloons of bombast among the nattering nabobs of Olympia; and

WHEREAS, Once elected Senator, Bruce came to represent the largest single geographic district in our glorious state of Washington, requiring him to stump farther for a vote than any other legislator; and

WHEREAS, As Senator and Chairman of the Local Government Committee, he will be remembered for many achievements, among which are:

— The bid limit law for county government, which settled many years of conflict;

— The school transportation allocation formula, one of the landmark laws which assists both local and state governments, providing a lasting symbol of true respect; and — The Washington Sunset Act, which really gives us an opportunity to retire those in state government who deserve peace and rest; and

WHEREAS, He has always been an advocate of a free press, a free lunch and a free sip of good cheer, but has never been known to extend that philosophy to his newspaper advertisers; and

WHEREAS, The _____, _____ and _____ (to be completed with words of your choice from the attached "All-purpose Senatorial Identification Catalogue") Merilynn Wilson has also served, as a community college trustee and as a notable singer at newspaper conventions; and

WHEREAS, Bruce and his gracious wife, Merilynn, have brightened these marble halls since 1969 with their wit, charm, good humor and wisdom, including sage advise as to what murals should or should not adorn these hallowed walls; and

WHEREAS, We should be mindful of the timeless prose uttered by Bruce on one of the many occasions when he himself was a resolution presenter:

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, I feel personally that all of us should be grateful that though there are about three and one-half million citizens of Washington State, only 37 are in the gallery watching the performance tonight."

(Journal of the Senate – April 23, 1981)

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Washington, all of its members and families concurring, duly recognize the continuing achievements of this singular grammarian, humorist and Mark Twain of our day with a heartfelt, "Thank you;" and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Bruce and Merilynn will be sorely missed, she in the gallery with her knitting and he on the floor with his nitpicking; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Bruce not be allowed to remove himself far enough from us to prevent our seeking his counsel in time of need to come; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Bruce and Merilynn Wilson be extended our deepest good wishes for coming days of serenity and contentment, whether at their peaceful cabin in Secret Cove, on their famous world travels or in any other place they choose to be.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "I move the adoption of the resolution. I would like to, at least say a few remarks, very briefly. I would like to say that, first of all, unlike many of us, Bruce doesn't talk enough in these halls because when he does, like that Hutton fellow, everybody listens. There's one thing I think that Bruce ought to be able to do in retirement, and that is to be able to improve his cribbage game. I have been entered into three tournaments with Bruce, and we have lost each one to our wives, by rather substantial margins, even though Bruce sometimes uses a technique which he calls a 'point enhancement procedure,' the 'PEP' procedure, and it is, if you play cribbage, the time when you can move the peg across into another lane and completely disrupt the current score; and if nobody knows where the peg was before, you can usually gain a couple of holes from time to time.

"Anyway, when I saw those three blanks there to put in the adjectives, I found three that weren't in the list. I went to the complimentary side of the list, incidentally, and I would like to add three words on my resolution that I think describe Bruce Wilson. He is kind and gentle and thoughtful, and I am going to miss him."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ZIMMERMAN

Senator Zimmerman: "Members of the Senate, and of course Bruce himself. Bruce Wilson, having been a midwesterner and actually having known him before he was in the legislature, it was my privilege and pleasure to watch him as president of the weekly newspapers association and I was also privileged to be a member and participant in one of those roles of 'Wilson's Weekly Players,' because I played the role of Bert Cole, the land commissioner in the script that Bruce and Hank Gay wrote, and of course Bruce's ability as a writer is, probably about here, in terms of the state's weekly editor-publishers.

"He also, of course, was one who participated in all of the activities of that organization through the years, and of course this is a nostalgic touch for me, personally, that Lynn and Bruce and their youngsters, particularly their son Terry was of an era of the particular age of our kids, and so consequently we had a good time before getting into politics.

"And it was my privilege, of course, to serve with Bruce and to follow Bruce in the terms of the local government activity, having been on the other side of the building and then at the time that we changed here.

"I just want to express the fact of the gentlemanly way in which he has functioned and the incredible manner that all of us know; and I picked off of my sheet, 'eloquent, level-headed, and statesman-like,' and of course there are many others that fit Bruce and of course I really prefer to sing with Merilynn, with Lynn, and as far as Bruce's tolerance of that, thank you very much, and best to you both."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McCASLIN

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I rise to speak on a point of personal privilege because in introducing, one of the great things about being a freshman, is you can sit back here and see all the heads and faces of you senior Senators. And when the President was introducing Senator Wilson, you were all talking until he got to 'simple-minded,' and then everyone stopped talking because they wanted to see who the President was talking about.

"Unfortunately, it was Senator Wilson, so I would ask that you strike the word 'simple-minded' and replace it with something so we can identify Senator Wilson."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CHARNLEY

Senator Charnley: "Thank you, Senator Woody. I guess there's only one word that is missing on here and it is the word I would use in my association with Bruce and my pleasure working with him, and that's 'friend' and I am proud to call him one of mine."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HURLEY

Senator Hurley: "I want to say a few words in support of the resolution and to say how much I appreciate my colleague from eastern Washington. I especially appreciate his humor that I enjoyed so much; his long-winded speeches in caucus; his three-part questions, four-part, five-part, six-part that always amazed and befuddled everybody in caucus.

"But I certainly value his friendship and admire his talent, and I certainly wish that you, Bruce, will have a most happy retirement."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BLUECHEL

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President and Senator Wilson. I would like to tell you my thoughts about how I feel about you leaving. You and I have had many battles in the local government committee. You have won most of them, occasionally you lost one, and I will say that of all the people who have ever lost a battle, a hard-fought battle, in particular the 'bidding wars' which were referred to, you have been the most genial and accepting and thoughtful person on that, and it brought out your true character as a real person with feeling for everybody and I commend you very highly for your service to the legislature."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SELLAR

Senator Sellar: "Thank you. Having shared mutual borders district-wise with Bruce, I very much appreciate the cooperation that he has given me. The first time I campaigned, I acquired through redistricting, a part of Bruce's district, and the most difficult thing I had to do is knock on doors and ask for their vote and they said, 'But I want to vote for Bruce Wilson,' and I said 'Well, I do too, but neither one of us can.' And that was the difficulty that I had because I found out the reverence that the people had in the seventh district for Bruce Wilson, and very justifiably so.

"And I, too, had the privilege of serving on a committee with Bruce as chairman, and the word that comes to mind is 'first always and foremost, a gentleman.'

"Thank you, Bruce, we'll miss you a lot."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Thank you, madam chairman. I'd like to add my accolades to a person who I think I first got to know when we were in the sunset committee, and since then, have learned to appreciate in local government committee, and particularly in the energy committee, which is not easy for anybody on that committee.

"I found that Bruce is one who always knows how to get to the heart of an issue, and to sum it into something all of us can understand. So many of the issues in the energy committee are very technical or seem complex, and he was always able to come up with a situation, presenting it to us in its simplest terms and we could all find out what we really felt about the issue.

"I also want to thank him for his wise counsel on matters of procedure, even when I didn't need them. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GASPARD

Senator Gaspard: "Thank you, Bruce. Now you know why we're all here today — it's not the budget.

"But in researching the journal, I think an appropriate quote for an occasion like this, is that we are really looking for that 25th vote to pass this resolution. We tried it a couple of days ago but you weren't here.

"Bruce, my introduction to you was by the way of Senator Knoblauch. He called me up after he had retired from the Senate and I was elected to replace him. He suggested that I give good consideration to Senator Wilson for caucus secretary, that he was a good man, and Bruce, I've never been disappointed.

"I think that if I can just think of a few words that would describe my feeling about your performance and your career in the legislature and my friendship with you, that you've always been seeking the common good; and I think you symbolize, to me anyway, a legislator's legislator.

"And I wish you and Merilynn many happy island vacations."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, I will miss Bruce. When the going got rough, Bruce would say, 'Now is the time to get up, get up!' And then I would get up on the floor. Now I won't know what to do.

"But I did want to tell you that I'm sure his wife, Merilynn, has kept him in stitches, I know she taught my wife some new stitches in watching that knitting going on and she is a real expert. And Bruce is a real expert on legislation. I hope he comes back, keeps us in line; if nothing else, just send us a line and tell us when we get out of line. And you are good at that.

"Appreciated having you on my left hand, and call me up and tell me when to get up. Thank you, Bruce. I am sorry you're leaving. You can see my powers of persuasion — I've been telling him all session, he ought to run again; haven't convinced him yet, but there are still a few days left, I guess — Senator Clarke, a few days left of this session? One; I got one more day to work on you then, Bruce."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Bruce, I support Slim and I have had the pleasure of your immediate counsel on all matters at all moments. You told Slim to stand up, and me to sit down. There's nothing like being in the middle of a speech and having somebody in front of you mumble, 'What do you mean by that?' I don't know how I am ever going to do without you.

"I think others have said it but I think it deserves to be said again. There's no one in our caucus whoever was any better at asking a question to lay the matter open on the table than you. And that's the very thing that we will miss a great deal in our caucus — somebody who could pierce to the heart of the matter and make us stop and look at the issue; and we'll miss you a lot for that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEE

Senator Lee: "Bruce, I think I will never forget you being one of the very best teachers, counselors, and gentlemen of all the persons that I've known in my legislative experience so far. I could well recall several times when there were issues that I felt needed to be taken care of, and no one could seem to give me a clue as to how was the best way to proceed, speaking particularly as being a freshman legislator in that particular year.

"And when I would go to you, you'd say, 'Well, sure, there's a way to do that,' and could solve the problem and see that the job got done in a most chivalrous manner. Many times if you would wish to do so, you probably could have decided either to claim credit or to see that someone from the opposite party didn't get the opportunity to make that kind of progress. But that was never your objective. It always seemed your objective was to see that the very best in legislation was promoted and passed and that which did not meet that criteria, was thwarted, but still in a gentlemanly manner.

"I appreciate it and will miss you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HANSEN

Senator Hansen: "Thank you. Bruce, I am going to miss you in a different way. As you know the Democrats across central Washington are few and far between, and when you leave I stand alone; so I am going to leave it up to you to get a strong candidate to help me protect central Washington."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DECCIO

Senator Deccio: "Well, I was going to vote for this resolution, Madam Chairman, but I just heard that Senator Wilson was responsible for first getting Senator Rasmussen on his feet, which you know what has happened — he won't sit down.

"And also, I think that anybody's that prejudiced and would not vote for the geoduck and clam bill just because he hadn't heard from them, makes me wonder whether all these things I've heard all these years are true.

"In the little message that I put in the scrap book, I referred to Bruce as the 'Mark Twain' of the Okanogan and I think I am right. And I wish you lots of luck."

Senator Woody: "Senator Wilson, these four honorable gentlemen have a few words to say in your behalf. As I put it to them: to you, for you, or about you. Senator Lewis."

REMARKS BY FORMER SENATOR BOB LEWIS

Senator Lewis: "Thank you, Senator Woody. Governor Cherberg, members of the Senate and friends, Senator Wilson especially.

"Will Rogers said he never met a man he didn't like. I think something can be said about Bruce Wilson that can't be said about Bob Lewis and probably can't be said about very many other people in this room. But honestly, I have never met a person who did not like Bruce Wilson. I think all of us can consider ourselves privileged to be counted among his friends. Bruce."

REMARKS BY FORMER SENATOR REUBEN KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President, Senator and Mrs. Wilson and son, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, friends of Senator Wilson in the gallery, members of the press, ladies and gentlemen.

"Today is a very important day in the life of a very fine man, a man who made a record the first two years that he was in the Washington State Senate, a most unusual thing that freshman could become so respected in such a short time.

"Today Senator Wilson is surrounded by friends who come to say 'good-bye' to a man who has brought credit to the word 'politician.' Senator Wilson is a very rare individual with the fine sense of humor and a person so well respected.

"Five years ago I stood here and made my retirement speech after twenty-four years in the state Senate. And I wanted to thank my many friends who have been good to me for so many years; and I recited a poem called 'Friends That Mean So Much To Me,' and today let me dedicate that poem to Senator Wilson and to tell him that he is surrounded by so many friends.

" Life is sweet because of the friends we have made
And the things which in common we share.
We want to live on, not because of ourselves
But because of the people who care.

" It's giving and doing for somebody else
On this all of life's splendor depends.
And the joy of this world when you've summed it all up
Is found in the making of friends.

"Senator and Mrs. Wilson, I'd like to also wish you many, many years of happy retirement and to thank you for our many years of friendship and to say to you 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'

"Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY FORMER SENATOR GORDON SANDISON

Senator Sandison: "Thank you, Senator Woody; Governor Cherberg, members of the Senate, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. Nice to see you leaving.

"I have been around here long enough to know that when it comes close to dinner time you don't talk too long in this place — you'd get your head torn off.

"I was a member here when Bruce came in to the place. Several of my friends had told me he was an unusual person, and I certainly agreed with them after I'd been around him for a while.

"Bruce, I can't help but think you're going to have a good retirement; you are a very relaxed person; you understand things and you handle them very well. I always appreciated when you spoke; I didn't know what you were talking about but I liked the way you said it.

"And I just wish you and your wife the best."

REMARKS BY FORMER SENATOR BOB BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, and Bruce and Lynn.

"I haven't been over for five years and quite a few changes have taken place and faces, and I even see one face that changed here since I was here.

"Senator Wilson, this is not your first retirement. I don't know how many more we are going to go through but I remember in 1970, about, you retired once before because we redistricted him out of office; and at that time we had a Senate tradition that you took care of yourself and to hell with the other guy, and Bruce lost his job.

"And I noticed the other day when I was looking at the new district lines, that you haven't abandoned that position at all.

"I think that in the Senate caucus you and I have had kind of a parallel career; I was Senate caucus chairman for a long, long time, forever almost, and Bruce always wanted to have the caucus job and he couldn't get me out; he wanted to get Reuben out, he wanted to be secretary and he had to wait for both of us to retire and he made a darned good secretary; we maybe should have called on him sooner.

"Bruce was in the newspaper business; I was in the newspaper business; I went broke and he went out and sold his so he's doing pretty well in retirement, I think, I hope.

"But Bruce, just in case you want to run again, I got a little pin here for you and I want to pin it on you. It's a pin that says, 'Elect Wilson,' the only trouble with it, it says 'Elect Woodrow Wilson.'" Senator Woody: "Thank you, Bob. That is a real collector's item.

"I would like to ask at this time if Mr. Eugene Green would approach the rostrum."

REMARKS BY EUGENE GREEN

Eugene Green: "Governor, members. Staff, too, has put together a resolution and it's Senate staff resolution 1982—1.

"WHEREAS, Senate staffers are known for their judicious characterization of the honorable members who have graced this chamber; and

"WHEREAS, Senator Bruce A. Wilson who has eaten in some of the world's finest restaurants, insists on stirring his coffee with a pencil, eraser pointed down; and

"WHEREAS, Senate Wilson once passed out of committee, twenty-two bills in thirteen minutes and the following day had the nerve to ask staff what was in them; and

"WHEREAS, Only Senator Wilson could jump for joy when informed that a third traffic light had been installed in his legislative district; and

"WHEREAS, When asked where he found the time to correct the grammar in so many bills, he curtly responded that he lets his wife do all the driving; and

"WHEREAS, It appears that a number of staff questions will never be answered, for example, why must all notes be on magenta colored paper? Why do you insist on thirty copies of each floor speech and proceed to lose them all? Why have you never cleaned out the l's in your ancient typewriter? And why do you insist on staff playing devil's advocate, and yet continue to get angry when staff presents the more logical arguments? And why have you never competed in the Omak stam-pede?; and

"WHEREAS, When asked by a certain urban geographer after he had testified at your local government hearing, if the members had any questions, you immediately asked him why he had previously redistricted you out of the legislature; and

"WHEREAS, In response to a staff query as to how it felt to be in the minority, you replied, "it is great; you just bitch, bitch, bitch and vote no, no, no.'

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the many victims of your wry and dry wit have had their day in court.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Senator Bruce A. Wilson, extra-ordinary observer of human nature and folly, and your gracious wife, Merilynn, enjoy your much-deserved retirement from the Washington State Senate and staff.

"Senator Wilson, I know that I am speaking for all staff who have had the honor of serving you, that you will be sorely missed, wit and all, and that we are all better people for having made your acquaintance. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Thank you very much. At this time it is my pleasure to introduce Senator John Jones who will make a presentation to Senator Wilson on behalf of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "Thank you, fellow members, and guests. Bruce, all the good lines are gone, I think they have stolen every good line going along here. I was going to use the geoduck thing and your expertise as an art critic, or really, just a critic of art.

"One thing before you leave, you've got my good gold pen; I don't want you to leave without handing it back to me here.

"Would you step up here so I can make a presentation to you, Bruce? You've always appreciated humor and I think that's been one of the things that has been particularly beneficial to me in understanding; and there are a few tips I want to get out of that caucus from you, and later on we'll talk about it, because of the members of the majority seem to think it's okay to bitch, bitch, bitch and vote no, no, no. (God, I've been waiting for that opportunity!)

"If I may read the inscription, it's a microphone, a marble plaque and it says, 'To Senator Bruce Wilson from your colleagues in the Washington State Senate; who said you can't take it with you?'

"Alaskan marble is from the state capitol, circa 1928. Bruce."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "It is now my honor to introduce Senator George Fleming."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Bruce, Mrs. Wilson, it is indeed an honor today. I guess I could stand here and tell a lot of old war stories and try and repeat some of the things that other members have had to say but I think I'll not do that.

"But I would like to express my appreciation, as caucus chairman and you as vice-chairman for filling in for me so many times, and the next time I come back to caucus, there's a motion before the caucus to replace me. You do such a great job and we're going to miss you. We're not only going to miss you from a selfish point of view by the fact that you are that democrat out there in eastern Washington that we'd like to see run again this year; but also because you, as an individual, high above anything, I think it's important to know that not only have you helped me in the caucus, but when I first came to the Senate, and then you came back to the Senate again and as chairman of local government, I think you and Senator Talley, more than anyone else, helped me struggle my way through as chairman of local government and get half-way knowledgeable about the issues.

"I'd like to take this time to make this presentation to you, Bruce. In making this presentation, I hope that you and your wife have many, many wonderful and warm hours together in your retirement. We will miss you; we will not forget you.

"I would like to read the inscription: 'Senator Bruce A. Wilson, in appreciation of your public service, Washington State Senate, District No. 2 in 1969 through 1973; and Washington State Senate District No. 1975 through 1982.'

"Bruce, we want to thank you for your many hours of public service to your district and also to your colleagues here in the Senate. Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "At this time I am going to return the gavel to the President of the Senate, the Honorable — my coach says John Cherberg. Thank you, John."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT CHERBERG

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Senator Woody; you've done a grand job and we are all proud of you.

"Lynn, Bruce and other ladies and gentlemen of the Senate and our very friendly guests in the gallery. As one of the great golfers of all time, Walter Hagen, once said, 'It's always nice to smell the flowers while still around to enjoy them.'

"Now this genuine outpouring of affection, admiration and respect for you and Lynn is something that you truly deserve and have certainly honestly earned. Over the years — and believe me, it's over twenty-five now — it has been my sincere privilege to have served with many, many outstanding members of the Senate, many of whom are present here today. And I'm not going to say that your name like Abou Ben Adhem lead all the rest, but believe you me, your name is up at the top. And I am sure that every member that's ever served with you joins with me in that particular thought.

"Now I have a little something here for you that the members of the legislature have requested on your behalf; it's a little presumptuous in my mind to designate you a 'distinguished citizen' because that's something that you've been all your life; but at any rate, it's in recognition and appreciation of your courtesy, kindness and dedication; political acumen, economic foresight, and responsibility to the people as a journalist and state Senator which has resulted in a remarkable contribution to the well-being of the world.

"And we hope that you and Lynn are going to travel a lot, and therefore you are being designated an 'ambassador of good will.' May your persistent enthusiasm, your wisdom, and the warmth of your personality be dedicated to extolling the charms of Washington state as you travel the thoroughfares of the world.

"I don't know whether you are a Washington general or not, but you are now. You have been commissioned a Washington general.

"I had a real flashy ending, but I, the memory is the second thing to go, I forgot. But anyhow, Betty and I wish you the very best of everything and many, many years to come."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

Senator Wilson: "Well, Governor, what was your name again? Governor Cherberg, Senator Woody and all of you — I've decided to run again. I want to thank you for the wonderful send-off.

"I didn't deserve anything like this. It's really wonderful to have the McKays and Maybelle and my son 'Duff' there, and my secretary Hazel Lowe who has been with me all these twelve years and has simply been indispensable and has been my partner in so many things; and Dianna Mitzner, my legislative aide; and of course my wife Merilynn who has meant everything to me and has helped me far more than I can ever express to you.

"I think this was — except for the staff resolution — I think this was a wonderful program which took too much of the Senate's time and I feel very honored. I want you to know that I shall miss all of you greatly; that I will be leaving the Senate with no bitterness or hostility or disappointment, or whatsoever. It has been a tremendous experience to represent the people of my area in this body and to work and be associated with really, such a fine group of people as all of you are.

"It is simply that Merilynn and I felt that twelve years was sufficient; it has been a great time and there are some other things we'd like to do and we thought it was time to move into some other areas. But I will look back upon these days with great affection with nothing but the fondest of memories.

"I want to thank, particularly, of course, the former members of the Senate who have dropped by. I saw them in the wings there, and decided, 'Well, I guess if this is the only way we can get enough votes to pass the budget, they'll have to participate.'

"I am sure there are a lot of things I ought to be saying that I am neglecting; I thank so many of you for your kind words and also Eugene Green, of course; it has simply been a great privilege and the greatest experience of my life to serve in this body. I shall always remember the days that I spent here and Governor, members of the Senate, former members, McKays and 'Duff' and Hazel and everybody else, I do thank you for the events of the past hour or whatever it took.

"Thank you very, very much."

Senator Hurley lead everyone is singing "Auld Lang Syne."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HURLEY

Senator Hurley: "Mr. President, I would like to invite all members, friends and staff, to the reception that is to be held in Senators Wilson's and Mrs. Wilson's honor in the members' lounge immediately after recess, or whatever; we are pretty fluid around here."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT CHERBERG

President Cherberg: "Senator 'Eagle-eye' Rasmussen has called the President's attention to the presence of three other very distinguished former members of the Washington State Senate, the Honorable Senator Bob Ridder, and the Honorable Nat Washington.

"And lurking among the pillars in the outer foyer, is the Honorable Senator Mardesich. Where are you? Senator August Mardesich. Where are you? Senator August Mardesich surrenders.

"Well, ladies and gentlemen, it's a beautiful day but also a sad day."

Thank you."

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3783, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Craswell, Jones and Scott):

Authorizing physical revaluation of property every six years if statistical adjustments are made.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3783. On March 17, 1982, the substitute bill had been substituted for the original bill. Senator Hansen had moved adoption of an amendment and an amendment to the amendment by Senator Hansen had been moved for adoption by Senator Deccio.

On motion of Senator Hansen, there being no objection, the amendment moved for adoption on March 17, 1982 was withdrawn.

Senator Hansen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 22, insert:

"If the property owner believes that the valuation of the property as listed by the assessor is not the current true and fair value of the property, the owner may authorize a public auction of such property pursuant to the procedures provided in chapter 6.24 RCW. If, at the time of the auction, the selling price of the property is less than the valuation as listed by the assessor, the county shall be liable to the pre-auction owner for the difference. If, at the time of the auction, the selling price of the property is more than the valuation as listed by the assessor, the county treasurer shall receive the difference on behalf of the county."

On line 7, following "RCW" and before the period insert:

": PROVIDED, That such auction may not occur prior to a formal administrative appeal, as provided in title 84 RCW, if such appeal did not result in a reasonable reduction in assessment"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Clarke, following up on your remarks, I would like to ask your opinion about whether or not this is covered by initiative 62; and whether or not the imposition of this particular obligation upon a county by the state, would, in itself, turn back upon the state the obligation to pick this up?"

Senator Clarke: "If I were representing the county, I would certainly so urge, Senator."

Senator Hansen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Hansen as amended by Senator Shinpoch.

MOTION

Senator McCaslin moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, after line 15, insert the following:

"Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 155, Laws of 1980 and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be valued at one hundred percent of its true and fair value in money and assessed on the same basis unless specifically provided otherwise by law. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 84.34.060, in determining the true and fair value of all property and improvements, the assessor shall consider only the use to which such property and improvements are currently applied and shall not consider potential uses of such property: PROVIDED, That vacant structures shall be valued at their current market value.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued (~~at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash~~) without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or of any other statute, when the value of any taxable leasehold estate created prior to January 1, 1971 is being determined for assessment years prior to the assessment year 1973, there shall be deducted from what would otherwise be the value thereof the present worth of the rentals and other consideration which may be required of the lessee by the lessor for the unexpired term thereof: PROVIDED, That the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any extension or renewal, made after December 31, 1970 of the term of any such estate, or to any such estate after the date, if any, provided for in the agreement for rental renegotiation.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar property with respect to sales made within the past five years. The appraisal shall take into consideration (~~political restrictions such as zoning as well as~~) physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account, (a) in the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (b) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(2) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, or reconstruction cost less depreciation(~~(or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property)~~). In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (2) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (2) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(3) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

(4) In valuing any building with an unconventional heating, cooling, domestic water heating or electrical system before December 31, 1987, the value placed on the building shall not exceed the value which would be placed on the building if it had a conventional system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 4 of this act shall be effective for assessments for taxes due in 1983 and thereafter."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator McCaslin, it looks to me, going over your amendment, that the operative part of the amendment that does what you want it to do is on page 1 between lines 13 and 24; but I notice there is also some stricken language in the rest of the amendment that doesn't really seem to fit. Is it your intention to have all that in there? That stricken language as well?"

Senator McCaslin: "No, the main thrust of my amendment, Senator Quigg, is from line 13 through line 24. I would yield to an oral amendment to put the other language back in."

Senator Quigg: "Thank you."

On motion of Senator Quigg, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator McCaslin were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, lines 26 and 27, reinsert the stricken material.

On page 2, lines 27 and 28, reinsert the stricken material.

The department of revenue shall have power to direct and to order any county board of equalization to raise or lower the valuation of any taxable property, or to add any property to the assessment list, or to perform or complete any other duty required by statute. The department may require any county board of equalization to reconvene at any time for the purpose of performing or completing any duty or taking any action it might lawfully have performed or taken at any of its previous regular July, November or April meetings. Such notice shall give the legal description of each tract of land involved, or a general description in case of personal property; the tax record-owner thereof; the assessed value thereof determined by the county board of equalization in case the property is on the assessment roll; and the assessed value thereof as determined by the department of revenue and shall state that the department of revenue proposes to increase the assessed valuation of such property to the amount stated and to add such property to the assessment list at the assessed valuation stated. The necessary expense incurred by the department of revenue in making such reassessment and/or adding such property to the assessment list shall be borne by the county or township in which the property as reassessed and/or so added to the assessment list is situated and shall be paid out of the proper funds of such county upon the order of the department of revenue."

Urging state investment board to make investments to stimulate state's economy.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Scott, there is absolutely nothing binding in this concurrent resolution. It is just merely a 'wish' list."

Senator Scott: "It is a follow-up, Senator Rasmussen, on a number of bills that we have seen appear around here in the last four years, suggesting that somehow the state's investible income should be either put in state-based, in the state economy regardless of the return, or that the state limit itself to the state investments first before it looks to the outside. This is a mild edition of the same thing that puts no mandatory stricture on the state investment board whatsoever. It is a statement of intent, us saying to them, in effect, 'We hope you'll look closely and first, what is available within the state insofar as the return is at least as high and the risk is at least as low.'"

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 37, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Vognild:

On page 18, beginning on line 3, strike all of section 19 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Quigg and Vognild:

On page 14, line 10, after "RCW;" insert the following and renumber the remaining subsections appropriately:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Quigg, in the homebuilding industry, it is customary for one man to contract for inserting bathroom tile around the tub enclosure and he will give bids to the general contractor and he will be the only man on the job. This is a customary method of doing business in that particular industry. What does that do to this type of subcontractor?"

Senator Quigg: "This amendment would not impair that kind of a subcontractor at all, Senator Bluechel. However, if you were doing a project where you had, let's say, an apartment building where you had a number of tub and tile installing operations within that project and it would normally require a subcontractor with a number of employees working for that subcontractor, only in this case we find it is a situation where the prime has required a number of subcontractors; instead of having five employees, he is now gone out and got five subcontractors to do the tub and tile work. And the reason they do that is to get around the payment of unemployment benefits, premiums, and workmen's compensation insurance premiums. That is what this is intended to get out; with a single subcontractor working on a project, it won't affect that single, sole proprietor subcontractor at all."

Senator Bluechel: "Okay, so that the man who comes along and say did sixty tile and tub enclosures at a project, which would be typical of apartment buildings, would not be affected?"

Senator Quigg: "He would not be affected."

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4216, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4216, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guss, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman—46.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Quigg, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4216 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTION

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, in order that we save time and expedite the business of the state, I would make a motion.

"Mr. President, I move that each member be limited to one 3-minute speech on each subject or motion that comes before the Senate for the remainder of the session, whatever that may be; except that the mover of the motion or the sponsor of a bill or amendment may have the privilege of closing debate.

"I further move that members be prohibited from yielding time to another member.

"I introduce this with the hope that we are approaching close to the end of the session, hopefully, and that it would be in the best interest of all concerned."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Jones, I can understand the need for the shortening of the speeches on the floor, but I am concerned about the major items that we will have before us very shortly, one probably today and that is the general appropriations that we will be taking up. And we have yet the general revenue tax package.

"I am wondering if you can give an exclusion to that 3-minute rule for those two packages only because those are probably the two most important packages that we have yet to deal with in this session, and at the same time we would be eliminating any floor debate on them, and I think we ought to have open and full debate on those packages.

"I am not looking, in any way, to try to subvert the rule; I just think we need some variance from the rule that you are about to propose."

Senator Jones: "I kind of thought I had those two in mind when I was introducing this motion, frankly; and 3 times 48 works out to be a lot of minutes."

Senator Gaspard moved adoption of the following amendment to the motion by Senator Jones:

"All General appropriation and general revenue items will be exempted from the three-minute rule."

Senator Gaspard demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator Gaspard to the motion by Senator Jones.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—25.

Excused: Senators Haley, Talley—2.

The motion by Senator Jones carried. The three-minute rule will be enforced through the end of the first special session of the forty-seventh legislature.

TENTH DAY

AFTERNOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Sunday, March 21, 1982.

The Senate was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Fleming, Lysen, Pullen, Sellar and Talley. On motion of Senator Ridder, Senators Fleming and Talley were excused.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 854.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 854, by House Transportation Committee and Representative Wilson (by Department of Transportation request):

Permitting motor fuel distributors to omit gas tax from selling price.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Guess, there being no objection, an amendment on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Charnley:

On page 2, following line 12, insert: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 19.94 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All gasoline retailers shall post written notice which is clearly legible and visible from the contiguous street or highway of the price per gallon of the grades of gasoline sold at such establishment."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Peterson: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of scope and object on House Bill 854. We are amending not only a section of the RCW but another chapter and title. This bill was narrowly drawn to conform with Federal regulations that state fuel taxes be included in the price of fuel sold to the Federal government. It has nothing to do with retail service stations and we would have to amend both the chapter and title of the bill.

"This may have some merit but it doesn't belong in this particular measure and for that reason, I would raise the point of scope and object."

There being no objection, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 2:43 p.m.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Peterson, the President finds that House Bill 854 is a measure which deals with the motor vehicle fuel tax and removes the requirement that this tax be passed along from the wholesaler to the consumer.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Charnley would require gasoline retailers to post the price per gallon of each grade of gasoline sold in a manner so that it would be visible from the contiguous street or highway.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and the the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Charnley was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Guess, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 854 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Guess, if I recall correctly, well, in your statement just now you said there is a possibility, would you elaborate on that just a little bit for me; when you say there is a possibility, you mean there is some kind of an appeal on this process?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, the way the language is written, was written in 1977, it required that the tax be a part of the selling price. The federal government did then pay the taxes on the gasoline purchases in the state of Washington. But there was a change in the federal law and so with the change in the federal law, the feds could then come back, as I understand it, and claim that tax that they had been paying.

"It had to do with the ruling of the federal energy orders of that particular time."

Senator Charnley: "Well, Senator Guess, does that, as I recall from the committee meeting, that there was an appeal being put forward by the state or by somebody on this ruling, the energy department?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, there was a concern that the mandatory pass-through of the tax to the U. S. Government may be in conflict with the U.S. Constitution, and applicable federal law. And so if we go in now and strike this, then we will be in a position where that claim could not be made."

Senator Charnley: "But there is no appeal that you are aware of, then. . . .?"

Senator Guess: "Not that I am aware of."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, I am not as concerned about the past as I am the future. Is there anything in the outcome of that hearing that would indicate that the federal government will take the position in the future that the B & O tax paid by refiners is not includable in the price of gasoline that they buy?"

Senator Guess: "It was only the fuel tax that was mentioned in the hearing, Senator Bottiger. Nothing was said about the B & O tax."

Senator Bottiger: "Which fuel tax?"

Senator Guess: "The state gasoline tax that we are talking about."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 854 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 2.

The levying, collection and enforcement of such assessments and issuance of bonds shall be as provided for the levying, collection, and enforcement of local improvement assessments and the issuance of local improvement bonds by cities of the first class insofar as consistent herewith. The duties devolving upon the city treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located for the purposes hereof. The mode of assessment shall be determined by the water commissioners by resolution. When in the petition or resolution for the establishment of a local improvement district, and in the comprehensive plan or amendment thereto or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original plan, previously adopted, it is provided that the assessments shall be for the sole purpose of payment into the revenue bond fund for the payment of revenue bonds, then the local improvement district shall be designated as a "utility local improvement district." No warrants or bonds shall be issued in a utility local improvement district, but the collection of interest and principal on all assessments in the utility local improvement district shall be paid into the revenue bond fund.

Sec. 16. Section 11, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 7, chapter 299, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts to carry out the whole or any portion of the general comprehensive plan of improvements or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general comprehensive plan previously adopted may be initiated either by resolution of the board of water commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the office of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of the land within the limits of the local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of water commissioners shall desire to initiate the formation of a local improvement district or a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district, and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

In case any such local improvement district or utility local improvement district shall be initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of the proposed improvement requested to be ordered and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall determine whether the same shall be sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person shall withdraw his name from the petition after the same has been filed with the board of water commissioners. If the board shall find the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of said improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of water commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing said notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located at the address shown thereon. Whenever such notices are mailed, the water commissioners shall maintain a list of such reputed property owners, which list shall be kept on file at a location within the water district and shall be made available for public perusal. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. Said notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time and place of the hearing before the board of water commissioners. In the case of improvements initiated by resolution, said notice shall also: (1) State that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of water commissioners before the time fixed for said public hearing; (2) state that if owners of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed district file written protests with the secretary of the board, the power of the water commissioners to proceed with the creation of the proposed district shall be divested; (3) provide the name and address of the secretary of the board; and (4) state the hours and location within the water district where the names of the property owners within the proposed district are kept available for public perusal. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land or other property.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in the plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary: PROVIDED, That the board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included therein without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time herein provided for the original notice.

After said hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution: PROVIDED, That the jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by protests filed with the secretary of the board prior to said public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the applicable county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution order the improvement, provide the general funds of the water district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the water district such eminent domain proceedings as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board shall thereupon proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

Sec. 17. Section 12, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Before approval of the roll a notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the local district, stating that the roll is on file and open to inspection in the office of the secretary, and fixing the time, not less than fifteen or more than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice, within which protests must be filed with the secretary against any assessments shown thereon, and fixing a time when a hearing will be held by the commissioners on the protests. Notice shall also be given by mailing, at least fifteen days before the hearing, a similar notice to the owners or reputed owners of the land in the local district as they appear on the books of the treasurer of the county in which the ~~((water district))~~ real property is located. At the hearing, or any adjournment thereof, the commissioners may correct, change or modify the roll, or any part thereof, or set aside the roll and order a new assessment, and may then by resolution approve it. If an assessment is raised a new notice similar to the first shall be given, after which final approval of the roll may be made. When property has been entered originally upon the roll and the assessment thereon is not raised, no objection thereto shall be considered by the commissioners or by any court on appeal unless the objection is made in writing at, or prior, to the date fixed for the original hearing upon the roll.

Sec. 18. Section 13, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 126, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 57.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the water district commission upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the secretary of said water district commission and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which ~~((such water district))~~ the real property is situated within ten days after publication of a notice that the resolution confirming such assessment roll has been adopted, and such notice of appeal shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of ~~((said))~~ the court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and ~~((his))~~ the appellant's objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the water district commission with reference to ~~((said))~~ the assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by ~~((such))~~ the secretary of ~~((said))~~ the water district commission ~~((and by him))~~ certified by the secretary to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful to pay all costs to which the water district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, ~~((as aforesaid,))~~ the appellant shall give written notice to the secretary of such water district, that such transcript is filed. ~~((Said))~~ The notice shall state a time ~~((t))~~, not less than three days from the service thereof~~(?)~~, when the appellant will call up the ~~((said))~~ cause for hearing; and the superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury; and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in ~~((said))~~ the court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain ~~((in such water district))~~ and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment roll, ~~((and he))~~ who shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the judgment of the superior court, as in other cases: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such appeal must be taken within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court; and the record and opening brief of the appellant in ~~((said))~~ the cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this ~~((act))~~ title. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. ~~((And))~~ The supreme court or the court of appeals on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.

Sec. 19. Section 23, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 and RCW 57.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any land against which there has been levied any special assessment by any water district shall have been sold in part or subdivided, the board of water commissioners of such district shall have the power to order a segregation of the assessment.

Any person desiring to have such a special assessment against a tract of land segregated to apply to smaller parts thereof shall apply to the board of commissioners of the water district which levied the assessment. If the water commissioners determine that a segregation should be made, they shall by resolution order the ~~((county))~~ treasurer of the county in which the real property is located to make segregation on the original assessment roll as directed in the resolution. The segregation shall be made as nearly as possible on the same basis as the original assessment was levied, and the total of the segregated parts of the assessment shall equal the assessment before segregation. The resolution shall describe the original tract, the amount and date of the original assessment, and shall define the boundaries of the divided parts and the amount of the assessment chargeable to each part. A certified copy of the resolution shall be delivered to the ~~((county))~~ treasurer of the county in which the real property is located who shall proceed to make the segregation ordered upon being tendered a fee of three dollars for each tract of land for which a segregation is to be made. In addition to such charge the board of water commissioners may require as a condition to the order of segregation that the person seeking it pay the district the reasonable engineering and clerical costs incident to making the segregation.

Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 20, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 57.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every water district in the state is hereby authorized to create a fund for the purpose of guaranteeing, to the extent of such fund, and in the manner hereinafter provided, the payment of all of its local improvement bonds issued, subsequent to

~~((the effective date of this act))~~ June 9, 1937, to pay for any local improvement within its confines. Such fund shall be designated "Local Improvement Guaranty Fund, Water District No.," and shall be established by resolution of the board of water commissioners. For the purpose of maintaining such fund, every water district, after the establishment thereof, shall at all times set aside and pay into such a fund such proportion of the monthly gross revenues of the water supply system of such water district as the commissioners thereof may direct by resolution. This proportion may be varied from time to time as the commissioners deem expedient or necessary: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That under the existence of the conditions set forth in subsections (1) and (2) next hereunder, then the proportion must be as therein specified, to wit:

(1) Whenever any bonds of any local improvement district have been guaranteed under this act and the guaranty fund does not have a cash balance equal to twenty percent of all bonds originally guaranteed under this act, (excluding issues which have been retired in full) then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues derived from all water users in the territory included in said local improvement district (but not necessarily from users in other parts of the water district as a whole) shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever, under the requirements of this subsection, said cash balance accumulates so that it is equal to twenty percent of all bonds guaranteed, or to the full amount of all bonds guaranteed, outstanding and unpaid (which amount might be less than twenty percent of the original total guaranteed), then no further moneys need be set aside and paid into said guaranty fund so long as said condition shall continue.

(2) Whenever any warrants issued against the guaranty fund, as hereinbelow provided, remain outstanding and uncalled for lack of funds for six months from date of issuance thereof; or whenever any coupons or bonds guaranteed under this act have been matured for six months and have not been redeemed either in cash or by issuance and delivery of warrants upon the guaranty fund, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues (or such portion thereof as the commissioners of the water district determine will be sufficient to retire said warrants or redeem said coupons or bonds in the ensuing six months) derived from all water users in the water district shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever under the requirements of this subsection all warrants, coupons, or bonds specified in this subsection above have been redeemed, no further income need be set aside and paid into said guaranty fund under the requirements of this subsection until and unless other warrants remain outstanding and unpaid for six months or other coupons or bonds default.

(3) For the purpose of complying with the requirements of setting aside and paying into the local improvement guaranty fund a proportion of the monthly gross revenues of the water supply system of any water district, as hereinabove provided, said water district shall bind and obligate itself to maintain and operate said system and further bind and obligate itself to establish, maintain and collect such rates for water as will produce gross revenues sufficient to maintain and operate said water supply system and to make necessary provision for the local improvement guaranty fund as specified by this section and RCW 57.20.080 and 57.20.090. And said water district shall alter its rates for water from time to time and shall vary the same in different portions of its territory to comply with the said requirements.

(4) Whenever any coupon or bond guaranteed by this act shall mature and there shall not be sufficient funds in the appropriate local improvement district bond redemption fund to pay same, then the applicable county treasurer shall pay same from the local improvement guaranty fund of the water district; if there shall not be sufficient funds in the said guaranty fund to pay same, then the same may be paid by issuance and delivery of a warrant upon the local improvement guaranty fund.

(5) Whenever the cash balance in the local improvement guaranty fund is insufficient for the required purposes, warrants drawing interest at a rate determined by the commissioners may be issued by the applicable county auditor (~~((of the county in which the water district is located))~~), against the said fund to meet any liability accrued against it and must be issued upon demand of the holders of any maturing coupons and/or bonds guaranteed by this (~~((act))~~) section, or to pay for any certificates of delinquency for delinquent installments of assessments as provided in subsection (6) (~~((hereunder))~~) of this section. Guaranty fund warrants shall be a first lien in their order of issuance upon the gross revenues set aside and paid into said fund.

(6) Within twenty days after the date of delinquency of any annual installment of assessments levied for the purpose of paying the local improvement bonds of any water district guaranteed under the provisions of this act, it shall be mandatory for the county treasurer of the county in which (~~((said water district))~~) the real property is located to compile a statement of all installments delinquent, together with the amount of accrued interest and penalty appurtenant to each of said installments. Thereupon the applicable county treasurer shall forthwith purchase (for the water district) certificates of delinquency for all such delinquent installments. Payment for all such certificates of delinquency shall be made from the local improvement guaranty fund and if there shall not be sufficient moneys in said fund to pay for such certificates of delinquency, the applicable county treasurer shall accept said local improvement guaranty fund warrants in payment therefor. All such certificates of delinquency shall be issued in the name of the local improvement guaranty fund and all guaranty fund warrants issued in payment therefor shall be issued in the name of the appropriate local improvement district fund. Whenever any market is available and the commissioners of the water district so direct, the applicable county treasurer shall sell any certificates of delinquency belonging to the local improvement guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That any such sale must not be for less than face value thereof plus accrued interest from date of issuance to date of sale.

Such certificates of delinquency, as above provided, shall be issued by the county treasurer of the county in which the (~~((water district))~~) real property is located, shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum, shall be in each instance for the face value of the delinquent installment, plus accrued interest to date of issuance of certificate of delinquency, plus a penalty of five percent of such face value, and shall set forth:

- (a) Description of property assessed;
- (b) Date installment of assessment became delinquent;
- (c) Name of owner or reputed owner, if known.

Such certificates of delinquency may be redeemed by the owner of the property assessed at any time up to two years from the date of foreclosure of such certificate of delinquency.

If any such certificate of delinquency be not redeemed on the second occurring first day of January subsequent to its issuance, the county treasurer who issued the certificate of delinquency shall then proceed to foreclose such certificate of delinquency in the manner specified for the foreclosure of the lien of local improvement assessments, pursuant to (~~((chapter 9 of the Session Laws of 1933 and amendments thereto))~~) chapter 35.50 RCW and if no redemption be made within the succeeding two years shall execute and deliver a deed conveying fee simple title to the property described in the foreclosed certificate of delinquency.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Zimmerman, on page 8, line 20. My question is 'Upon entry of the findings of the final hearing on the petition if one or more county legislative authorities . . .'. There is no requirement for both county legislative authorities or three counties, just one or more?'"

Senator Zimmerman: "Throughout the bill it does give the individual legislative authority in that specific county where those particular residents reside as far as that part of the district to deal with their particular issue. No matter what, throughout the entire bill we have, each county is still functioning as far as the legislative authority to do that which they would do individually. But it is such that this particular measure makes that possible, that they can do it and still have the district cross county lines.

"We didn't take away from an authority that opportunity."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, what you have is one county can say that it is needed and the other county may say that it is not needed, and stymie the election then."

Senator Zimmerman: "I am sure that, from our discussion at the time, the terms of the water district, people talked to us about it, that they were of the assumption that the county, either county, would be able to approve that there was not a question of one county prohibiting the other county from so approving. I guess that the actual details of that, I don't have any more, maybe Senator Wilson will want to add a bit on that."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am going to miss Senator Wilson, I understand he is not going to come back."

Senator Wilson: "Sit down, Senator Rasmussen."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

Senator Wilson: "Senator Zimmerman, I recognize we want to accomplish a lot today but we don't want to pass defective legislation in our rush, and I would simply suggest that you might wish to hold this for one or two bills and we will talk with Senator Rasmussen and try to clarify what might be a valid objection to the bill."

"I am wondering if that is a good neighbor policy that we want to have in print, that we are appointing a committee to mitigate the problems. I can recall when we had the World's Fair in Seattle, and I can't recall any committee from British Columbia being appointed to mitigate the problem of the tourists, in fact they encouraged tourists to come up to British Columbia after they came to the World's Fair or else, the other way around. And that would seem to me unfortunate wording in there; I wondered if you wanted to strike that portion?"

Senator Goltz: "If I may answer, because I think that language is, in part, attributed to the language that I had in the resolution.

"And actually there are problems that occur when 13,000,000 visitors to British Columbia find their way through the state of Washington; and part of the problem may be at the border crossings where additional border services might need to be provided.

"I cannot tell you what the committee will find or recommend but we are not talking about problems with individual citizens, we are talking of problems of bottlenecks, of traffic, of housing, and so on, which, and to mitigate those simply means to reduce them to the lowest possible level so that everyone will enjoy and profit from this expo."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Quigg, I notice there is neither an appropriation nor a fiscal note and I would assume, since this seems to be legislative committee, that it would probably be conducted under the existing staff effort, and essentially within the parameters of regular meetings?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Hemstad, I think that members on both sides of the aisle would agree that you are an advocate of good government, and good, sensible procedures here in the legislature.

"At nine minutes after seven this evening, a twenty-nine page striking amendment was passed out. Since then I think six or seven amendments have been attached to the striking amendment, and now at about seven fifteen, we are expected to vote on this. I would have to guess that, if a written quiz were conducted among members of this body on the contents of this bill, that 90 to 95% of the members would fail.

"Do you really think that this is a good idea to be rushing this sort of important legislation through this body at seven fifteen in the evening with virtually no one knowing what we are doing?"

Senator Hemstad: "Thank you, Senator Wilson. In responding to your question, first, House Bill 600 was considered during the regular session in the normal course, the striking amendment contains the contents of House Bill 600 as we formerly adopted it. It passed from here by a very substantial majority and the reason that it is back here, is that the House did not have time to consider it before the end of the regular session.

"If you wish, I will take the time at this point to summarize the contents of the bill, if you so desire."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Hayner was excused.

Continuing the displaced homemaker program.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 2, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that homemakers are an unrecognized part of the work force who make an invaluable contribution to the strength, durability, and purpose of our state.

The legislature further finds that there is an increasing number of persons in this state who, having fulfilled a role as homemaker, find themselves "displaced" in their middle years through divorce, death of spouse, disability of spouse, or other loss of family income of a spouse. As a consequence, displaced homemakers are very often left with little or no income; they are ineligible for categorical welfare assistance; they are subject to the highest rate of unemployment of any sector of the work force; they face continuing discrimination in employment because of their age and lack of recent paid work experience; they are ineligible for unemployment insurance because they have been engaged in unpaid labor in the home; they are ineligible for social security benefits because they are too young, and many never qualify because they have been divorced from the family wage earner; they may have lost beneficiaries' rights under employer's pension and health plans through divorce or death of spouse; and they are often unacceptable to private health insurance plans because of their age.

It is the purpose of this chapter to establish (~~(a two-year pilot project)~~) guidelines under which the council for postsecondary education shall contract to establish multipurpose service centers and programs to provide necessary training opportunities, counseling, and services for displaced homemakers so that they may enjoy the independence and economic security vital to a productive life.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The council, in consultation with state and local governmental agencies, community groups, and local and national organizations concerned with displaced homemakers, shall receive applications and may contract with public or private nonprofit organizations to establish multipurpose service centers for displaced homemakers. In determining sites and administering agencies or organizations for the centers, the council shall consider the experience and capabilities of the public or private nonprofit organizations making application to provide services to a center.

(2) Not later than ninety days after June 7, 1979, the council shall issue rules prescribing the standards to be met by each center in accordance with the (~~(policies)~~) policies set forth in this chapter. Continuing funds for the maintenance of each center shall be contingent upon the determination by the council that the center is in compliance with the contractual conditions and with the rules prescribed by the council.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each center contracted for under this chapter shall include or provide information and referral to the following services:

(a) Job counseling services which shall:

(i) Be specifically designed for displaced homemakers;

(ii) Counsel displaced homemakers with respect to appropriate job opportunities; and

(iii) Take into account and build upon the skills and experience of a homemaker and emphasize job readiness as well as skill development;

(b) Job training and job placement services which shall:

(i) Emphasize short-term training programs and programs which expand upon homemaking skills and volunteer experience and which lead to gainful employment;

(ii) Develop, through cooperation with state and local government agencies and private employers, model training and placement programs for jobs in the public and private sectors;

(iii) Assist displaced homemakers in gaining admission to existing public and private job training programs and opportunities, including vocational education and apprenticeship training programs; and

(iv) Assist in identifying community needs and creating new jobs in the public and private sectors;

(c) Health counseling services, including referral to existing health programs, with respect to:

(i) General principles of preventative health care;

(ii) Health care consumer education, particularly in the selection of physicians and health care services, including, but not limited to, health maintenance organizations and health insurance;

(iii) Family health care and nutrition;

(iv) Alcohol and drug abuse; and

(v) Other related health care matters;

(d) Financial management services which provide information and assistance with respect to insurance, taxes, estate and probate problems, mortgages, loans, and other related financial matters;

(e) Educational services, including:

(i) Outreach and information about courses offering credit through secondary or postsecondary education programs, and other re-entry programs, including bilingual programming where appropriate; and

(ii) Information about such other programs as are determined to be of interest and benefit to displaced homemakers by the council;

(f) Legal counseling and referral services; and

(g) Outreach and information services with respect to federal and state employment, education, health, public assistance, and unemployment assistance programs which the council determines would be of interest and benefit to displaced homemakers.

(2) The staff positions of each multipurpose center contracted for in accordance with RCW ((~~28B.04.030~~) 28B.04.040), including supervisory, technical, and administrative positions, shall, to the maximum extent possible, be filled by displaced homemakers.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The council may contract, where appropriate, with public or private nonprofit groups or organizations serving the needs of displaced homemakers for programs designed to:

(1) Provide direct services to displaced homemakers, including job counseling, job training and placement, health counseling, financial management, educational counseling, legal counseling, and referral services as described in RCW ((~~28B.04-040~~) 28B.04.050);

(2) Provide state-wide outreach and information services for displaced homemakers; and

(3) Provide training opportunities for persons serving the needs of displaced homemakers, including those persons in areas not directly served by programs and centers established under this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The council shall submit to the legislature (~~(a final)~~) an evaluation at the end of the ((two-year project)) first two years and a biennial evaluation beginning in January 1984. The evaluations may include recommendation for future programs as ((submitted by the centers established under this chapter)) determined by the council.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28B.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The council shall consult and cooperate with the department of social and health services; the state board for community college education; the superintendent of public instruction; the commission for vocational education; the employment security department; the department of labor and industries; sponsoring agencies under the federal comprehensive employment and training act (87 Stat. 839; 29 U.S.C. Sec. 801 et seq.), and any other persons or agencies as the council deems appropriate to facilitate the coordination of centers established under this chapter with existing programs of a similar nature.

(2) Annually on July 1st, each agency listed in subsection (1) of this section shall submit a description of each service or program under its jurisdiction which would support the programs and centers established by this chapter and the funds available for such support.

(3) The council shall serve as a clearinghouse for displaced homemaker information and resources and shall compile and disseminate ~~((the))~~ state-wide information to the centers, related agencies, and interested persons upon request.

Sec. 7. Section 36.18.010, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 12, chapter ... (3SHB 179), Laws of 1982 and RCW 36.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the committee amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously.

Senator Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Newhouse and Hurley:

On page 1, after line 28, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 and RCW 49.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Local and state (~~joint~~) apprenticeship committees (~~may~~) shall be approved, in any trade or group of trades, in cities or trade areas, by the apprenticeship council, whenever the (~~apprentice training needs of such trade or group of trades justifies such establishment~~) committee meets the requirements of this section. Such local or state (~~joint~~) apprenticeship committees shall be composed of: (1) An equal number of employer and employee representatives chosen from names submitted by the respective local or state employer and employee organizations in such trade or group of trades~~(:);~~ (2) in a trade or group of trades in which there is no bona fide employer or employee organization, ~~((the joint committee shall be composed of))~~ persons known to represent the interests of employer and of employees respectively, or ~~((a state joint apprenticeship committee may be approved as, or))~~ the council may act itself as the ~~((joint))~~ committee in such trade or group of trades; or (3) where the employees to be trained have no collective bargaining agent, an employer or group of employers. Subject to the review of the council and in accordance with the standards established by this chapter and by the council, such committees shall devise standards for apprenticeship agreements and give such aid as may be necessary in their operation in their respective trades and localities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. It is the intent of the legislature that the fees authorized under section 1 of this act to operate the state apprenticeship program be used to ensure equal opportunity to all citizens to participate in apprenticeship programs and that apprentice programs shall be established in compliance with the provisions of this title to afford all citizens the equal opportunity to participate in apprenticeship programs. In order to ensure equal opportunity:

(1) Effective September 1, 1982, all rules adopted under chapter 49.04 RCW prior to the effective date of this act shall be repealed.

(2) By September 1, 1982, the director shall adopt rules under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, to implement chapter 49.04 RCW. The rules shall be consistent with 29 CFR Parts 29 and 30.

(3) The director of labor and industries shall report to the legislature, before January 15, 1983, and include in the report changes to chapter 49.04 RCW as recommended by the United States Department of Labor for consistency with the intent of 29 CFR Parts 29 and 30."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, I would raise the question of scope and object.

"House Bill 796 deals solely with the method of funding the state apprenticeship program through a combination of user fees and general fund appropriation. This proposed amendment would alter the method and requirements for approving local and state apprenticeship committees and allow unilateral apprenticeship programs. These changes go far beyond the purpose of the bill which is to provide a new method of financing the existing apprenticeship program. The proposed amendment would also make changes in RCW 49.04.040 which is not included in the original bill.

"I therefore believe that this amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, House Bill No. 796, as amended, the pending amendment by Senators Newhouse and Hurley and the Point of Order raised by Senator Vognild, was ordered held pending a Ruling by the President.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I would like to announce to the body that we have before us, a proclamation by the Governor which amends his proclamation of March 11, 1982, to extend the period of time seven more days."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hayner, I did not know that the executive power extended to the legislative. My understanding there were three separate, the judicial, the executive, and the legislative, and I understand from the remarks you have just made, he evidently is getting his nose under the tent in a legislative matter."

Senator Hayner: "Senator Bottiger and I went down to the Governor's office, and it was his view that he had the authority to call us for ten days and he was extending it for seven days. I am not sure I agree with that but that was his viewpoint."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. I think, in just talking to people in the legislature, both the House and the Senate, I think it is almost unanimous that the Governor does not have the authority to limit the 30-day special session. My concern about even reading the proclamation in would be an implication that we recognize the item (1), ten days; and item (2), the 7-day extension."

"I think most of us understand we are here for up to thirty days and we ought to get out of here as quick as we can."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, we acceded to your request that we do not read it in and I would agree with the remarks that have been made that there is a very serious legal question. However, it seems to me that the legal question insofar as action we may take on bills between the expiration of the 10-day period and the time within which we may see fit to adjourn, has been removed because those who would support the posture that the Governor had a right to limit to 10 days, couldn't very well say that if he has the right to limit, he could not also have the right to extend."

"So my own personal reaction is that the action on the part of the Governor, is, in reality, an acquiescence to the fact that he does not have authority to so limit us, and I think that, from a practical matter, he has removed the possible legal question as to the effectiveness of enactments which we might make between the expiration of the original 10-day period and the period when we adjourn sine die, because he was the one who set the original 10-day period. If it had any efficacy by virtue of that, he has now removed that by having extended it."

"So I support the posture that it is entirely within the prerogative of the legislature to determine when we adjourn sine die and I think the legal problem has pretty well now been removed by the Governor's action."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President. I stand by the analysis that I had of the Constitutional amendment that is in the record, on a point of personal privilege. It seems pretty clear that the Governor is now waffling on the length of the special session even; it is kind of ironic."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, notwithstanding the exchange of information we have had here on the floor, I would assume by the fact that Senator Hayner made a pronouncement that this item is on the desk, she was merely adhering to one of the rules of the Senate that information such as this not be passed out on the desks of the Senators without a Senator's name on it so she was notifying us that she is the one that is passing this around."

MOTION

At 9:03 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 9:10 p.m.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 796, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development and Representative Sanders (by Department of Labor and Industries request):

Establishing user fees to allow department of labor and industries to defray the cost of administering the prevailing wage law and the minor work permit law.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 796.

Earlier today, the committee amendments had been adopted and an amendment by Senators Newhouse and Hurley had been moved for adoption. A Point of Order had been raised by Senator Vognild on the amendment.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Vognild, the President finds that House Bill No. 796 is a measure which deals with the state apprenticeship program administered by the department of labor and industries for the singular purpose of allowing the department to impose user fees in order to help finance the program.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Newhouse and Hurley makes major changes regarding the functioning of the apprenticeship program, including the method for approving apprenticeship committees and programs.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Newhouse and Hurley was ruled out of order.

MOTION

At 9:12 p.m., Senator Clarke moved the Senate adjourn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4616, by Senators Gould, Moore, Hemstad and Williams:

Requiring inverted electric rate structure.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4616.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gould, in the background here it mentions, 'Utility forecasts predict a possibility of power shortages in the future. One of the ways to avoid shortages is to lower the future rate of increase and consumption.' My question is this: do you agree with that statement now, and that's a pretty old statement in view of the fact that most of the cost of nuclear plants is in construction; operation costs are very nominal compared with construction costs.

"We are faced with three plants that all of them will be completed, construction costs are the same, skyrocketing. We are going to have to sell that power in order to pay off the bonds. We are going to raise the dams in eastern Washington. We are going to have a surplus of power now rather than a shortage. All the predictions are, by King Lysen and the experts that made the study of the nuclear plants, is that we will not need these plants Four and Five maybe never, but at least not before the year 2000.

"So what would be the need of inverted rates? You may be discouraging the use of electricity when you do want to sell it. We had that experience with natural gas and they said the operating costs went up when people cut the use. We had the same thing with our water system, had to have to move the rates up because the construction costs, you people were conserving water.

"The same thing may happen here to electricity. What do you have to say to that? And I know you've studied it."

Senator Gould: "Senator Rasmussen, I am not sure what the question was after all of that, but I think what you are asking is, will we have a shortage of electricity and are the forecasts accurate?"

"One of the recommendations as I mentioned in the Hinman report is that we make all conservation possible because that is the cheapest form of electricity we can have.

"Yes, you are right. The independent review does indicate that the power from Four and Five probably will not be needed even under normal circumstances until the mid-1990s and, under even more strong conservation measures until the late 1990s.

The point is, the more we use, the more that does have to be replaced, because we are out of hydro; and we will be out of hydro. And the more we have to build, whether it's Four and Five or whether it's Creston or whether it's renewable, the more it's going to cost. And in any event, it's cheaper to have conservation, that's a cheaper form of electricity."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question, Senator Gould, was, we have the cost. We are going to have to encourage use of electricity in order to absorb the cost of our nuclear plants. So we are going to have to pay for them, whether generating electricity or not; and that's my direct question. Conservation will make the need for these plants less and less, because hydro is cheaper. Shouldn't we be encouraging the use of electricity until we get the plants paid for?"

Senator Gould: "Senator Rasmussen, the plants, even if we, well, as we are terminating them now, Dr. Hinman in his recommendation states it would be cheaper in 1990 when we need that, if and when we need the electricity then, to continue from there, yes; but the plant, to continue now would be exorbitant. Still we will get cheaper electricity out of conservation than we do by continuing those plants at this time.

"I don't know how much more"

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILLIAMS

Senator Williams: "Mr. President and members. Also speaking in favor of the bill, but perhaps also trying to answer the question that Senator Rasmussen just raised. To continue to encourage the use of electricity, I think is one of the reasons why we are in the problem we are in today. In other words, in the past, there was a concentrated effort to encourage use of electricity to create and build these new plants and so forth, to answer that continuing demand. And there was a straight line kind of acceleration of projection of the need for electricity which was the reason we ended up starting to build all these plants.

"And I think, in essence, that's why we have the problem we have today is because we falsely encouraged just an abundant use of electricity without understanding the end result. If we continue to, even to justify paying for the plants today, I think to encourage the use of electricity without being mindful of a prudent use of it and being efficient and conserving and so forth, is really the wrong way to go. We are just going to continue in the same path we have gone before.

"It makes eminently good sense to have an incentive built in to a rate structure which says if you use so much power, you pay a certain base rate; if you use more, you are going to pay more. It just makes good sense, and the world today in terms of the shortage of energy, in an overall sense, would encourage us to be more prudent, more careful, less wasteful and I think that is a basic standard that we should abide in, in a lot of our ways, and not just in energy. So I encourage the passage of this bill."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4616, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Peterson, Ridder, Scott, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wojahn, Woody—28.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Haley, Hansen, McCaslin, Newhouse, Patterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Wilson, Zimmerman—18.

Absent or not voting: Senator Pullen—1.

Excused: Senators Hayner, Talley—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4616, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

THIRD READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3033, by Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Goltz, Williams and Ridder): Authorizing municipal corporation heating systems.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gould, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3033 was returned to second reading.

Senator Gould moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Gould and Goltz:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Counties, cities, towns, irrigation districts which distribute electricity, and port districts are authorized pursuant to this chapter to establish heating systems and provide heating services from heat sources including, but not limited to, geothermal heat, steam or water heated by a biomass energy system, waste heat, and energy from a cogeneration facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Biomass energy system" means a system that provides for the production or collection of organic materials that are primarily waste materials and the conversion or use of that material for the production of energy or substitute fuels. Biomass conversion can be achieved by several processes including, but not limited to, burning, pyrolysis, distillation, or anaerobic digestion.

(2) "Cogeneration" means the sequential generation of two or more forms of energy from a common fuel or energy source.

(3) "Cogeneration facility" means any machinery, equipment, structure, process, or property or any part thereof, installed or acquired for the primary purpose of cogeneration by a person or corporation.

(4) "Geothermal heat" means the natural heat of the earth and the medium by which such heat is extracted from the earth, including liquids or gases, as well as any minerals contained in any natural or injected fluids, brines and associated gas, but excluding oil, hydrocarbon gas, and other hydrocarbon substances.

(5) "Waste heat" means the heat released to the environment from an industrial process, electric generation, or other process.

(6) "Heat" or "heating services" means space or process heating and cooling, and hot water.

(7) "Heat source" includes but is not limited to any integral part or process of an industrial facility, cogeneration facility, electric power generation facility, geothermal well or spring, biomass energy system, solar collection facility, or energy extraction process.

(8) "Municipality" means a county, city, town, port district, or irrigation district which distributes electricity.

(9) "Heating facilities" means all real and personal property, or interests therein, necessary or useful for: (a) The acquisition, production, or extraction of heat; (b) the storage of heat; (c) the distribution of heat from its source to the place of utilization; (d) the extraction of heat at the place of utilization from the medium by which the heat is distributed; (e) the distribution of heat at the place of utilization; and (f) the conservation of heat.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A municipality may construct, purchase, acquire, add to, extend, maintain, and operate a system of heating facilities, within or without its limits, for the purpose of supplying its inhabitants and other persons with heat, with full power to regulate and control the use, distribution, and price thereof, and to enter into agreements for the maintenance and operation of heating facilities under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the legislative authority of the municipality. The provision of heat and heating facilities and the establishment and operation of heating systems by a municipality pursuant to this chapter are hereby declared to be a public use and a public and strictly municipal purpose. However, nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to restrain or limit the authority of any individual, partnership, corporation, or private utility from establishing and operating heating systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In addition to the general powers provided in section 3 of this act, and not by way of limitation, municipalities have the following specific powers:

(1) The usual powers of a corporation, to be exercised for public purposes;

(2) To acquire by purchase, gift, or condemnation property or interests in property within and without the municipality, necessary for the construction and operation of heating systems, including additions and extensions thereof. No municipality may acquire by condemnation any heat source. To the extent judged economically feasible by the municipality, public property and rights of way shall be utilized in lieu of private property acquired by condemnation. The municipality shall determine in cooperation with existing users that addition of district heating facilities to any public property or rights of way shall not be a hazard or interference with existing uses or, if so, that the cost for any relocation of facilities of existing users shall be a cost and expense of installing the heating facility;

(3) To acquire, install, add to, maintain, and operate heating facilities at a heat source or to serve particular consumers of heat, whether such facilities are located on property owned by the municipality, by the consumer of heat, or otherwise;

(4) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of heating facilities;

(5) To contract for the operation of heating facilities;

(6) To apply and qualify for and receive any private or federal grants, loans, or other funds available for carrying out the objects of the municipality;

(7) Full and exclusive authority to sell and regulate and control the use, distribution, rates, service, charges, and price of all heat supplied by the municipality, free from the jurisdiction and control of the utilities and transportation commission, in all things;

(8) To utilize fuels other than the heat sources described in section 1 of this act on a standby basis, to meet start up and emergency requirements, to meet peak demands, or to supplement such heat sources as necessary to provide a reliable and economically feasible supply of heat;

(9) To the extent permitted by the state Constitution, to make loans for the purpose of enabling suppliers or consumers of heat to finance heating facilities;

(10) To enter into cooperative agreements providing for the acquisition, construction, ownership, financing, use, control, and regulation of heating systems and heating facilities by more than one municipality or by one or more municipalities on behalf of other municipalities;

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no municipality shall issue general obligation bonds to finance such heating systems without a vote of the people.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If the legislative authority of a municipality deems it advisable that the municipality purchase, acquire, or construct a heating system, or make any additions or extensions thereof, the legislative authority shall provide therefor by ordinance or resolution, which shall specify and adopt the system or plan proposed, declare the estimated cost thereof, as near as may be, and specify the method of financing and source of funds: PROVIDED, That any construction alteration or improvement of a heating system by any county, city, town, irrigation district, or port district shall be in compliance with the competitive bidding requirements in Titles 35, 36, 53, and 87 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A municipality may impose rates, charges, or rentals for heat, service, and facilities provided to customers of the system, provided that the rates charged are uniform for the same class of customers or service. In classifying customers served or service furnished, the legislative authority may in its discretion consider all of the following factors: The difference in cost of service to the various customers; location of the various customers within or without the municipality; the difference in cost of maintenance, operation, repair, and replacement of the various parts of the system; the different character of the service furnished various customers; the quantity and quality of the heat furnished; the time of its use; the demand on the system; capital contributions made to the system including, but not limited to, assessments or the amount of capital facilities provided for use by the customer; and any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If prompt payment of a heating rate, charge, or rental is not made, a municipality may shut off the heating supply to the building, place, or premises to which the municipality supplied the heating. A municipality may also make an additional charge for late payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A municipality may charge property owners seeking to connect to the heating system, as a condition to granting the right to so connect, in addition to the cost of such connection, such reasonable connection charge as the legislative authority determines to be proper in order that the property owners bear their pro rata share of the cost of the system: PROVIDED, That no potential customer may be compelled to subscribe or connect to the heating system. The cost of connection to the system shall include the cost of acquisition and installation of heating facilities necessary or useful for the connection, including any heating facilities located or installed on the property being served. Connection charges may, in the discretion of the municipality, be made payable in installments over a period of not more than thirty years or the estimated life of the facilities installed, whichever is less. Installments, if any, shall bear interest and penalties at such rates and be payable at such times and in such manner as the legislative authority of the municipality may provide.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. For the purpose of paying all or a portion of the cost of heating facilities, a municipality may form local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts, levy, collect, and foreclosure assessments, reassessments, and supplemental assessments; and issue local improvement district bonds and warrants in the manner provided by law for cities of the first class. In addition, municipalities may provide by ordinance that assessments will be deposited in a fund created for the payment of voted general obligation bonds and, to the extent that assessments are so deposited, taxes for the payment of such general obligation bonds shall not be levied.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. For the purpose of providing funds for defraying all or a portion of the costs of planning, purchase, leasing, condemnation, or other acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, extension, repair, maintenance, or operation of a heating system, and the implementation of the powers set forth in sections 3 and 4 of this act, a municipality may authorize, by ordinance or resolution, the creation of a special fund or funds into which the municipality shall be obligated to set aside and pay all or any designated proportion or amount of any or all revenues derived from the heating system, including any utility local improvement district assessments, any grants received to pay the cost of the heating system, and any municipal license fees specified in the ordinance or resolution creating such special fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If the legislative authority of a municipality deems it advisable to finance all or a portion of the costs of planning, purchase, leasing, condemnation, or other acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, and extension of a heating system, or for the implementation of the powers set forth in sections 3 and 4 of this act, or for working capital, interest during construction and for a period of up to one year thereafter, debt service and other reserves, and the costs of issuing revenue obligations, a municipality may issue revenue bonds against the special fund or fund created from revenues or assessments. The revenue bonds so issued may be issued in one or more series and shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, and shall mature at such time or times as may be determined by the legislative authority of the municipality, and may be made redeemable before maturity at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the legislative authority of the municipality prior to the issuance of the bonds. The legislative authority of the municipality shall determine the form of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest. If an officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on any bonds or coupons ceases to be such officer before the delivery of the bonds, the signature shall for all purposes have the same effect as if the officer had remained in office until the delivery. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both, and provisions may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to the principal alone and also as to both principal and interest and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest. Bonds may be sold at public or private sale for such price and bearing interest at such fixed or variable rate as may be determined by the legislative authority of the municipality.

The principal of and interest on any revenue bonds shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues and receipts derived from the heating system, including any amounts pledged to be paid into a special fund in accordance with section 10 of this act, and may be secured by a mortgage covering all or any part of the system, including any enlargements of and additions to such system thereafter made. The revenue bonds shall state upon their face that they are payable from a special fund, naming it and the ordinance creating it, and that they do not constitute a general indebtedness of the municipality. The ordinance or resolution under which the bonds are authorized to be issued and any such mortgage may contain agreements and provisions respecting the maintenance of the system, the fixing and collection of rates and charges, the creation and maintenance of special funds from such revenues, the rights and remedies available in the event of default, and other matters improving the marketability of the revenue bonds, all as the legislative authority of the municipality deems advisable. Any revenue bonds issued under this chapter may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the municipality and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the state. Any such trust agreement or ordinance or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Revenue warrants may be issued and such warrants and interest thereon may be payable out of the special fund or refunded through the proceeds of the sale of refunding revenue warrants or revenue bonds. Every revenue warrant and the interest thereon issued against the special fund is a valid claim of the holder thereof only as against that fund and the amount of revenue pledged to the fund, and does not constitute an indebtedness of the authorized municipality. Every revenue warrant shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming it and the ordinance or resolution creating it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If a municipality fails to set aside and pay into the special fund created for the payment of revenue bonds and warrants the amount which it has obligated itself in the ordinance or resolution creating the fund to set aside and pay therein, the holder of any bond or warrant issued against the bond may bring suit against the municipality to compel it to do so.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 35 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Gould, as I read section 1, 'said counties, cities, towns, irrigation districts which distribute electricity.' Do you mean by this language then that any county or city or town which gets involved in this project, must also distribute electricity?"

Senator Gould: "Doesn't mean they have to, it is only the ones that do that confines it to those districts that do."

Senator Newhouse: "I am not sure; for instance"

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "The wording has been reworded to avoid that particular problem by adding after 'irrigation districts which distribute electricity,' we now add 'port districts.' In other words, we insert 'irrigation districts which distribute electricity' into a place where each one of these stands independently.

"So if this is for the record, the record should show that counties do not have to distribute electricity; cities do not have to; towns do not have to; only irrigation districts have to if they want to be a municipality in this sense."

The motion by Senator Gould carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gould, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3033, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "I would like to ask Senator Goltz to describe to us the House amendments that have been incorporated. This is an awful lot of amendments to throw at us in one minute without even having them distributed by the time we are talking about it."

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, there are six amendments which we have incorporated into this striking amendment from the House. There is one that says, on page 5, it was on page 5, 17 of the original bill, that we will provide 'That no potential customer may be compelled to subscribe to or connect to the heating system.' I think that one is easy to understand.

"On page 5, line 16 of the original bill we used the word 'pro rata' instead of 'equitable' to better describe the share that people would pay for the system.

"On page 4, line 23 of the original bill, we have provided 'That any construction, alteration, or improvement . . . be done . . . in compliance with . . . the . . . bidding requirements in titles 35, . . . 36, 53, and 87.' In other words, we are reaffirming, as Senator Gould said, that the bidding procedures for the various municipal governments would have to be complied with.

"On page 2, line 9 there is a new definition of a heat source, and if you look in the striking amendment this is the subsection (7) where the heat source in the definition section is described. It is a little more inclusive or limiting, I should say, than we had before.

"And finally there are two amendments on page 1, the one that reinserts 'irrigation districts which distribute electricity' into a different location and we changed the spelling of 'anerobic digestion.'"

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3033 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 10; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Peterson, Quigg, Ridder, Scott, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—36.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Guess, Newhouse, Patterson, Rasmussen, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—10.

Absent or not voting: Senator Pullen—1.

Excused: Senators Hayner, Talley—2.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3033, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 111, by Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Williams, Fuller, McCaslin and Bauer):

Authorizing loans for energy conservation and renewable energy resources.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 111.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Williams, is it the intent, granting this power for the public utilities, that they be allowed to loan this money to take the insulation out of the homes that they scared the people into putting in the homes? I understand it is quite an expensive job to take this formaldehyde insulation, urea insulation out of the home. Will they be able to loan the money to these people at no interest, or lowered rates?"

Senator Williams: "Senator Rasmussen, this particular measure does not deal with residential whatsoever; so this bill would not affect that particular program at all. This only deals with conservation loans for industrial and commercial customers."

Senator Rasmussen: "Do we have anything in the mill to help these people?"

Senator Williams: "No, not that I am aware of."

Senator Rasmussen: "That's a tragedy."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Well, Mr. President, members of the Senate. Senator Rasmussen, the tragedy you were referring to, probably 99% was done by a private company not the public company. It was the natural gas company that installed the formaldehyde insulation program and not the PUDs or City Light."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 111 and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Quigg, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognil, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman—33.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Guess, Hurley, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Rasmussen, Shinpoch, von Reichbauer—13.

Absent or not voting: Senator Pullen—1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 111, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 145, by Senators Gould, McCaslin, Williams, Fuller, Woody, Quigg, Moore, Wilson, Hurley, Newhouse and Hemstad:

Providing for monitoring WPPSS by a legislative subcommittee.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Gould, is there an advantage to making a smaller committee which the Senate energy committee has the jurisdiction to do these same things, anyway? And we have had an active committee since the WPPSS inquiry, or somewhat active, anyway. What is the advantage of constricting this? The effect of this is to actually eliminate the participation of a number of other Senators who may like to participate in this who have been participating in the past. That is my concern. I think it actually does the opposite of what you may be aspiring to do here."

Senator Gould: "Senator Lysen, there are about three things I think I could respond to. First of all, using a subcommittee as opposed to the Senate energy committee maintains the bipartisan balance of the committee rather than one that is dominated by the majority party.

"Secondly, it includes the House, and certainly the House wants and needs to be up to date on all the issues just as the Senate is, and I think getting the same information for both Houses is very important.

"Thirdly, I have never seen any time which any member of the Senate or the House has been excluded from this committee; and I think you can attest to that completely as far as participating, asking questions, and the opportunity to make comments.

"And we would not want to keep any Senator from doing this.

"This is a smaller group, it would be, frankly, less expensive to have a smaller organization meet and I think it serves the purpose."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 145 and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 6; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 26; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Moore, Newhouse, Pullen, Scott, Sellar—21.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Zimmerman served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Moore moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass.

The President advised Senator Moore that he had not voted on the prevailing side and therefore would be unable to move for reconsideration.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Williams moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass.

MOTION

Senator Clarke moved the motion by Senator Williams be laid upon the table. Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "As I understand it, Senator Zimmerman gave notice of reconsideration. Senator Moore, then, notice having been given, as I understand it, anyone then who was on the prevailing side may make motion for consideration.

"Do I understand that Senator Moore, then, made a motion for immediate consideration? That is my understanding.

"Now if that motion is tabled, what is the effect of a vote on the motion to table that particular motion? Would it still keep alive the right on the next preceding day for another Senator to move to reconsider?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The motion to reconsider would be in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lysen: "Is it not the motion to reconsider of higher priority than the motion to lay on the table? The higher rank?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, the second highest motion there is but the motion to lay on the table is in order."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Clarke that the motion for immediate reconsideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, on failure to pass be laid upon the table.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by House Committee on Local Government and Representatives Isaacson and Nelson (G.)):

Permitting establishment of cultural arts, stadium, and convention districts.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1156. On March 21, 1982, on motion of Senator Gould, the rules were suspended, the bill was returned to second reading and held for consideration at a later time.

Senator Zimmerman moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. PURPOSE. The legislature finds that expansion of a cultural tourism would attract new visitors to our state and aid the development of a nonpolluting industry. The creation or renovation, and operation of cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities benefiting all the citizens of this state would enhance the recreational industry's ability to attract such new visitors. The additional income and employment resulting therefrom would strengthen the economic base of the state.

It is declared that the construction, modification, renovation, and operation of facilities for cultural arts, stadium and convention uses will enhance the progress and economic growth of this state. The continued growth and development of this recreational industry provides for the general welfare and is an appropriate matter of concern to the people of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, for the purposes of this chapter the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Cultural arts, stadium and convention district," or "district," means a quasi municipal corporation of the state of Washington created pursuant to this chapter.

(2) "Component city" means an incorporated city within a public cultural arts, stadium and convention benefit area.

(3) "City" means any city or town.

(4) "City council" means the legislative body of any city.

(5) "Municipality" means a port district, public school district or community college district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. CULTURAL ARTS, STADIUM AND CONVENTION DISTRICT—CREATION. (1) The process to create a cultural arts, stadium and convention district may be initiated by:

(b) The governing bodies of two or more cities located within the same county adopting resolutions calling for a public hearing on the proposed creation of such a district and delineating proposed boundaries of such a district: PROVIDED, That this method may not be used more frequently than once in any twelve month period in the same county; or

(c) The filing of a petition with the county legislative authority, calling for a public hearing on the proposed creation of such a district and delineating proposed boundaries of the district, that is signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters residing in the proposed district at the last general election.

(2) Within sixty days of the adoption of such resolutions, or presentation of such a petition, the county legislative authority shall hold a public hearing on the proposed creation of such a district. Notice of the hearing shall be published at least once a week for three consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation within the proposed boundaries of the district. The notice shall include a general description and map of the proposed boundaries. Additional notice shall also be mailed to the governing body of each city and municipality located all or partially within the proposed district. At such hearing, or any continuation thereof, any interested party may appear and be heard on the formation of the proposed district.

The county legislative authority shall delete the area included within the boundaries of a city from the proposed district if prior to the public hearing the city submits to the county legislative authority a copy of an adopted resolution requesting its deletion from the proposed district. The county legislative authority may delete any other areas from the proposed boundaries. Additional territory may be included within the proposed boundaries, but only if such inclusion is subject to a subsequent hearing, with notice provided in the same manner as for the original hearing.

(3) A proposition to create a cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall be submitted to the voters of the proposed district within two years of the adoption of a resolution providing for such submittal by the county legislative authority at the conclusion of such hearings. The resolution shall establish the boundaries of the district and include a finding that the creation of the district is in the public interest and that the area included within the district can reasonably be expected to benefit from its creation. No portion of a city may be included in such a district unless the entire city is included. The boundaries of such a district shall follow school district or community college boundaries in as far as practicable.

(4) The proposition to create a cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall be submitted to the voters of the proposed district at the next general election held sixty or more days after the adoption of the resolution or at a special election called for such purpose. The district shall be created upon approval of the proposition by simple majority vote. The ballot proposition submitted to the voters shall be in substantially the following form:

FORMATION OF CULTURAL ARTS, STADIUM AND CONVENTION DISTRICT.....

Shall a cultural arts, stadium and convention district be established for the area described in a resolution of the legislative authority of county, adopted on the day of, 19.., which permits the district to levy an ad valorem property tax of up to fifty cents per one thousand dollars of assessed valuation of property located within the district?

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. MULTI-COUNTY DISTRICT—CREATION.

No governing body may consist of more than nine members. The resolution may also provide for additional, ex officio, nonvoting members consisting of elected officials or appointed officials from the counties, cities, or municipalities which are located all or partially within the boundaries of such a district and who do not have elected or appointed officials sitting on the governing body.

Any member of the governing body, or any ex officio member, who is not an elective official whose office is a full-time position may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses actually incurred in attending meetings or engaging in other district business as provided in RCW 42.24.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. COMPREHENSIVE PLAN—DEVELOPMENT—ELEMENTS. The cultural arts, stadium and convention district, as authorized in this chapter, shall develop a comprehensive cultural arts, stadium and convention plan for the district. Such plan shall include, but not be limited to the following elements:

(1) The levels of cultural arts, stadium and convention services that can be reasonably provided for various portions of the district.

(2) The funding requirements, including local tax sources, state and federal funds, necessary to provide various levels of service within the district.

(3) The impact of such a service on other cultural arts, stadium and convention systems operating within that county or adjacent counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. COMPREHENSIVE PLAN—REVIEW—APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL—RESUBMISSION. The comprehensive cultural arts, stadium and convention plan adopted by the district shall be reviewed by the state planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, to determine:

(1) Whether the plan will enhance the progress of the state and provide for the general welfare of the population; and

(2) Whether such plan is eligible for matching state or federal funds.

After reviewing the comprehensive cultural arts, stadium and convention plan, the state planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall have sixty days in which to approve such plan and to certify to the state treasurer that such district shall be eligible to receive state funds. To be approved a plan shall provide for coordinated cultural arts, stadium and convention planning, and be consistent with the public cultural arts, stadium and convention coordination criteria in a manner prescribed by chapter 35.60 RCW. In the event such comprehensive plan is disapproved and ruled ineligible to receive state funds, the state planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall provide written notice to the district within thirty days as to the reasons for such plan's disapproval and such ineligibility. The district may resubmit such plan upon reconsideration and correction of such deficiencies cited in such notice of disapproval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. ANNEXATION ELECTION. An election to authorize the annexation of contiguous territory to a cultural arts, stadium and convention district may be submitted to the voters of the area proposed to be annexed upon the passage of a resolution of the governing body of the district. Approval by simple majority vote shall authorize such annexation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. DISTRICT AS QUASI MUNICIPAL CORPORATION—GENERAL POWERS. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district is a quasi municipal corporation, an independent taxing "authority" within the meaning of Article VII, section 1, of the state Constitution, and a "taxing district" within the meaning of Article VII, section 2, of the state Constitution. A district shall constitute a body corporate and shall possess all the usual powers of a corporation for public purpose. In addition to the powers specifically granted by this chapter, a district shall have all powers which are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district may contract with the United States or any agency thereof, any state or agency thereof, any other cultural arts, stadium and convention district, any county, city, metropolitan municipal corporation, special district, or governmental agency, within or without the state, and any private person, firm or corporation for the purpose of receiving gifts or grants or securing loans or advances for preliminary planning and feasibility studies, or for the design, construction or renovation or operation of cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities. In addition, a district may contract with any governmental agency or with any private person, firm or corporation for the use by either contracting party of all or any part of the facilities, structures, lands, interests in lands, air rights over lands and rights of way of all kinds which are owned, leased or held by the other party and for the purpose of planning, constructing or operating any facility or performing any service which the cultural arts, stadium and convention district may be authorized to operate or perform, on such terms as may be agreed upon by the contracting parties. Before any contract for the lease or operation of any cultural arts, stadium and convention district facilities shall be let to any private person, firm or corporation, competitive bids shall be called upon such notice, bidder qualifications and bid conditions as the district shall determine.

A district may sue and be sued in its corporate capacity in all courts and in all proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. ADDITIONAL POWERS. The governing body of a cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the following powers in addition to the general powers granted by this chapter:

(1) To prepare, adopt and carry out a general comprehensive plan for cultural arts, stadium and convention service which will best serve the residents of the district and to amend said plan from time to time to meet changed conditions and requirements.

(2) To acquire by purchase, gift or grant and to lease, convey, construct, add to, improve, replace, repair, maintain, and operate cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities and properties within the district, including portable and mobile facilities and parking facilities and properties and such other facilities and properties as may be necessary for passenger and vehicular access to and from such facilities and properties, together with all lands, rights of way, property, equipment and accessories necessary for such systems and facilities. Cultural arts, stadium and convention facilities and properties which are presently owned by any component city, county or municipality may be acquired or used by the district only with the consent of the legislative authority, council or governing body of the component city, county or municipality owning such facilities. A component city, county or municipality is hereby authorized to convey or lease such facilities to a district or to contract for their joint use on such terms as may be fixed by agreement between the component city, county or municipality and the district, without submitting the matter to the voters of such component city, county or municipality.

(3) To fix rates and charges for the use of such facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. ISSUANCE OF GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS—MATURITY—METHODS OF PAYMENT. To carry out the purpose of this chapter, any cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of taxable property within such district, as the term "value of taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district is additionally authorized to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, and to provide for the retirement thereof by excess levies when approved by the voters at a special election called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by section 6, Article VIII and section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056. General obligation bonds may not be issued with a maturity in excess of forty years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. REVENUE BONDS—ISSUANCE, SALE, TERM, PAYMENT. To carry out the purposes of this chapter, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the power to issue revenue bonds: PROVIDED, That the district governing body shall create or have created a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the governing body may obligate the district to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of all or any part of the facilities constructed, acquired, improved, repaired or replaced pursuant to this chapter, as the governing body shall determine: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the principal of and interest on such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners and holders of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue pledged to such fund.

The governing body of a district shall have such further powers and duties in carrying out the purposes of this chapter as provided in RCW 67.28.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. CULTURAL ARTS, STADIUM AND CONVENTION DISTRICT TAX LEVIES. The governing body of a cultural arts, stadium and convention district may levy or cause to levy the following ad valorem taxes:

(1) A regular ad valorem property tax for general district purposes of up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation of property located within the district in each year for six consecutive years.

In the event cultural arts, stadium and convention districts are levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts result in taxes in excess of the one percent limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2, of our state Constitution, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this limitation shall apply to taxing districts existing as of the effective date of this amendatory act.

(2) An annual excess ad valorem property tax for general district purposes when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

(3) Multi-year excess ad valorem property tax levies used to retire general obligation bond issues when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056.

The district shall include in its regular property tax levy for each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal on all outstanding general obligation bonds issued without voter approval pursuant to section 11 of this amendatory act and may include a sum sufficient to create a sinking fund for the redemption of all outstanding bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CONTRIBUTION OF SUMS FOR EXPENSES.

The county or counties and each component city included in the district collecting or planning to collect the hotel/motel tax pursuant to RCW 67.28.180 may contribute such revenue towards the expense for maintaining and operating the cultural arts, stadium and convention system in such manner as shall be agreed upon between them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TREASURER AND AUDITOR—BOND—DUTIES—FUNDS—DEPOSITARIES. Unless the cultural arts, stadium and convention district governing body, by resolution, designates some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district, the treasurer of the county in which a cultural arts, stadium and convention district is located shall be ex officio treasurer of the district: PROVIDED, That in the case of a multi-county cultural arts, stadium and convention district, the county treasurer of the county with the greatest amount of area within the district shall be the ex officio treasurer of the district. The district may, and if the treasurer is not a county treasurer shall, require a bond for such treasurer with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington, in an amount and under the terms and conditions as agreed to by the district, by resolution, in such amount from time to time which will protect the authority against loss. The premium on any such bond shall be paid by the authority.

All district funds shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be disbursed by the treasurer only on warrants issued by an auditor appointed by the district, upon orders or vouchers approved by the governing body. The treasurer shall establish a "cultural arts, stadium and convention fund," into which shall be paid district funds as provided in section 14 of this amendatory act and the treasurer shall maintain such special funds as may be created by the governing body into which said treasurer shall place all moneys as the governing body may, by resolution, direct.

If the treasurer of the district is a treasurer of the county, all district funds shall be deposited with the county depository under the same restrictions, contracts, and security as provided for county depositories; the county auditor of such county shall keep the records of the receipts and disbursements, and shall draw, and such county treasurer shall honor and pay all warrants, which shall be approved before issuance and payment as directed by the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. FINANCIAL SUPPORT PAYMENTS. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district that has been established in accordance with section 3 or 4 of this amendatory act is eligible to receive a one-time advanced financial support payment from the state to assist in the development of the initial comprehensive plan required by sections 6 and 7 of this amendatory act. The amount of this support payment is established at two dollars per person residing within each cultural arts, stadium and convention district, as determined by the office of financial management, but no single payment shall exceed one hundred thousand dollars. Repayment of an advanced financial support payment shall be made to the cultural arts, stadium and convention account in the general fund, or if such account does not exist, to the general fund. The state planning and community affairs agency, or its successor agency, shall provide technical assistance in the preparation of local plans, and administer the advanced financial support payments authorized by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district established in accordance with this chapter shall be dissolved and its affairs liquidated when so directed by a majority of persons in the district voting on such question. An election placing such question before the voters may be called in the following manner:

(1) By resolution of the cultural arts, stadium and convention district governing authority;

(2) By resolution of the county legislative body or bodies with the concurrence therein by resolution of the city council of a component city; or

(3) By petition calling for such election signed by at least ten percent of the qualified voters residing within the district filed with the auditor of the county wherein the largest portion of the district is located. The auditor shall examine the same and certify to the sufficiency of the signatures thereon: PROVIDED, That to be validated, signatures must have been collected within a ninety-day period as designated by the petition sponsors.

With dissolution of the district, any outstanding obligations and bonded indebtedness of the district shall be satisfied or allocated by mutual agreement to the county or counties and component cities of the cultural arts, stadium and convention district.

Sec. 18. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by any taxing district except school districts in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and RCW 84.52.043, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, ((or)) town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 64 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the county legislative authority, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city ((or)), town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. LEGISLATIVE DIRECTIVE. Sections 1 through 17 of this amendatory act are added to Title 67 RCW as a new chapter thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. CAPTIONS NOT LAW. Section captions as used in this amendatory act shall not be construed as and do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any city with a population of twenty-five thousand or more, but less than four hundred thousand, may impose a special excise tax of up to three percent on the sale or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, or trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, except that no such tax may be levied on any premises having fewer than fifteen lodging units. It shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same. The proceeds of this tax may only be used to fund the acquisition, design, and construction of convention or trade facilities.

This tax is in addition to the sales taxes that cities are authorized to impose in chapter 82.14 RCW and RCW 67.28.180. The tax shall not be a deduction from sales taxes imposed by the state.

Any city imposing the sales tax authorized in this section may contract with the state department of revenue for its collection and distribution as provided in chapter 82.14 RCW for the collection and distribution of general sales taxes imposed by cities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. EMERGENCY. This amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Charnley: "I do not have those amendments in front of me; where I trust Senator Shinpoch quite a lot, very much, I would appreciate very much having a copy of the amendments. I am not sure that anybody else has."

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 8, line 5, after "sources" strike ", state and" and insert "or"

On page 8, line 28, after "matching" strike "state or"

On page 8, line 38, after "receive" strike "state"

On page 9, line 10, after "receive" strike "state"

Senator Shinpoch moved the following amendments by Senators Shinpoch, Scott and Woody to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 15, line 19, following "PROVIDED," strike the remainder of the subsection and insert: "That no cultural arts, stadium, and convention district may pledge anticipated revenues derived from the property tax herein authorized as security for payments of bonds issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and : PROVIDED, FURTHER, That such limitation shall not apply to property taxes approved pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section."

On page 18, line 8, strike all of "NEW SECTION. Sec. 16" and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would that, however, not have the effect of foreclosing those other minor districts? If you go in and sell these bonds and the other minor districts then want to make up the difference between the 1%, doesn't your amendment, in effect, foreclose those other minor taxing districts, Senator?"

Senator Shinpoch: "I assumed you were asking me; I will try to respond. The way the language is now, it says that if those districts want to come in then the stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated. And as Senator Scott indicated, what we are trying to do is keep people from getting into that. And you still have the revenue bonds in this and you still have the ad valorem taxation in this that you can put in the bank but what it does is keep you from getting into that 'Catch 22' where you are using someone's credit, in effect, and they come in and say, 'Okay, now I need my money,' and you have done it to the bondholders and the district, too."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Senator Bauer, this isn't just a hundred thousand net, this is a hundred thousand dollars for every district of this type that starts up, dozens of them.

"My trouble is, can you tell us how many there are going to be? And can you tell us what effect it is going to have on our cash flow? We have a new revenue plan that you will be excited to see. It still shows us, come September, 1.7 million down on the cash flow side. How many of these draws are there? That is the reason for the amendment."

Senator Bauer: "Mr. President, I am assuming that was a question he was asking of me. With permission of the President, I will respond.

"If building a convention center in Seattle is going to be lucrative for the state coffers, as a good concept, well then maybe some of these little ones out in the hinterland might also be. So if you can justify the one, I think you can justify the other.

"I don't think they are going to sprout up like mushrooms. There are a couple of areas in the state that are really interested and have been working for years in trying to get to this position here. And I would be surprised if there are two or three, Senator Scott."

The motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and the amendments to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman were adopted.

Senator Wojahn moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Wojahn, Haley and Rasmussen to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman:

On page 23 of the amendment, after line 10, insert the following:

"Sec. 22. Section 82.08.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to four and one-half percent of the selling price: PROVIDED, That from and after the first day of December, 1981, until the thirtieth day of June, 1983, such tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to five and five-tenths percent of the selling price: Provided, That from and after the effective date of this 1982 act, until the thirtieth day of June 1983, such tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to four and one-half percent of the selling price on sales of labor, material, or services for the development and construction commenced by December 1, 1981, by a county, city, or town of a multipurpose public facility that costs over five million dollars which promotes through tourism the economic well-being of the county, city, or town in which it is located and of the state.

(2) The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gould: "The proposed amendment expands the scope and object of this bill.

"Mr. President, to quote Senator Wojahn, this just adds a little bit to the bill and it certainly does. The bill is designed to establish a mechanism for establishing and funding cultural arts, stadium and convention districts; and the amendment obviously deals with the sales tax on construction which has already been started and is well outside of the object of the bill."

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senators Wojahn, Haley and Rasmussen to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman and the Point of Order raised by Senator Gould, be held for March 23, 1982.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed.

MOTION

At 5:24 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 5:30 p.m.

The Senate resumed considered of Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended, and the Point of Order raised by Senator Gould on the amendment by Senators Wojahn, Haley and Rasmussen to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Gould, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1156 is a measure which provides local government with additional funding mechanisms for constructing stadiums and cultural arts and convention facilities.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Wojahn, Haley and Rasmussen would lower the sales tax from 5½% to 4½% on the sale of labor, material and services for local government public facility construction projects commenced by December 1, 1981, which promote tourism and exceed $5 million in costs.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Wojahn, Haley and Rasmussen to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman was ruled out of order.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman:

On page 23, line 20, strike all of New Section 23.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman was adopted:

On page 3, line 17, after "election," insert "Such signatures will be certified by the county auditor or the county elections department."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman:

On page 3, line 26, after "in" delete "one or more" and insert "each"

On line 27, delete "newspapers" and insert "newspaper"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Bauer moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the amendment striking new section 23 by Senator Pullen was adopted earlier today to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bauer failed on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator Zimmerman, as amended.

The motion by Senator Zimmerman carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 16 of the title, following "RCW;" insert "and", and on line 17, following "RCW" strike "; and declaring an emergency"

MOTION

Senator Zimmerman moved the rules be suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Zimmerman, I am looking at page 4, starting on line 34. My question has to do with the formation of a district. 'No portion of a city may be included in such a district unless the entire city is included.' Then it goes on to say 'The boundaries of such a district shall follow school district or community college boundaries in as far as practicable.' How far could that be extended? You're saying 'they shall follow school district boundaries.' They don't coincide with community college boundaries and at what point would you say was practical or impractical? The school district boundaries do not follow city limits or anything, they cross all the lines, in some cases cross county lines."

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Rasmussen, the idea was that they would try to follow a boundary that would be an elective boundary in which, for the sake of the county auditor or the elections officer, it is easier for them to handle an election when it follows a specific boundary of some unit of government.

"Now in this case they are saying, as far as practical simply, that there would be obviously, the logic that you would decide what size of an area you figure you would be forming the district, and hopefully that you could see that there would be boundaries that would not make the county auditor, in this case the elections officer, have to prepare ballots for a few people in a block that is just across the street from a boundary zone. That is the purpose primarily of specifically stating those election boundaries.

"I think that that, as practical as the idea of giving some flexibility to the officers."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Just to add a note. Senator Rasmussen, community college district boundaries do follow school district boundaries. They are composed of school districts and would be very consistent. It is an opportunity of a center of interest to be the focal point for, and boundary for, convention center or a stadium, obviously, which would be an interest of the school district. And I think it is a very appropriate one."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Zimmerman, I know that there is a vote of the people but I am wondering, in your striking amendment or your amendment here, if there are adequate hearings and is there an adequate time period and explanation of the taxes that are going to be imposed and information so that the people know what they're voting on?"

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Hurley, I appreciate your question because I know that this has been a concern of yours on these elections of this sort.

"And in this particular issue, we discussed the possibility of being sure that this election would be held at the time of a general election, so first of all, there would be a major election being held and hopefully with that, there would be lots of discussion.

"Now the fact that this is a new idea and a rather unusual procedure that is involved — it is quite a pioneering-type step. It will be my personal opinion and I think Senator Gould's and Representative Nelson's that there would be a considerable amount of publicity involved in the process of, first of all the forming of it, secondly, the means by which it would be funded, and I can't recall exactly the details as far as the notices, but I do know they have to go through, as we have already noted, the publicity, the publishing of notice.

"I am fully in favor of very adequate notice on this, and I would hope that there would be no way that, somebody how they would pull something over anybody's eyes in terms of forming this district. I guess we have to, in the sense of probably request, because I don't believe that we say that they 'must' hold it at the general election. We talked about this in caucus and I guess we didn't put such an amendment up. Maybe Senator Gould can add to that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, a couple of comments about the bill and also in response to Senator Hurley.

"First of all, Senator Hurley, if section 3 has very specific language about hearings, about notification, number of days that have to be notified so that there is a complete process. The second part is that this follows all the rules of the 40/60, in the constitutional, forty percent of the last election and sixty percent vote by the people. So that protection is in there. I think every protection that we can have is in this bill."

The motion by Senator Zimmerman carried.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Metcalf, Patterson, Quigg, Sellar, Vognild, Woody, Zimmerman—23.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Gaspard, Goltz, Hurley, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Moore, Newhouse, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Shinpoch, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn—24.

Excused: Senators Hayner, Talley—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McDermott served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the failure of Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, to pass the Senate.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1102, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Nelson (G.), Martinis, Struthers, Scott, Monohon, Hastings and Owen):

Implementing law relating to control of gambling.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody:

On page 1, line 15, following the enacting clause, strike the remainder of the bill and insert:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 139, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.46.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Amusement game" means a game played for entertainment in which:

- (a) The contestant actively participates;
- (b) The outcome depends in a material degree upon the skill of the contestant;
- (c) Only merchandise prizes are awarded;
- (d) The outcome is not in the control of the operator;

(e) The wagers are placed, the winners are determined, and a distribution of prizes or property is made in the presence of all persons placing wagers at such game; and

(f) Said game is conducted or operated by any agricultural fair, person, association, or organization in such manner and at such locations as may be authorized by rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to this chapter as now or hereafter amended.

Cake walks as commonly known and fish ponds as commonly known shall be treated as amusement games for all purposes under this chapter.

The legislature hereby authorizes the wagering on the outcome of the roll of dice or the flipping of or matching of coins on the premises of an establishment engaged in the business of selling food or beverages for consumption on the premises to determine (i) which of the participants will pay for certain items of food or beverages served or sold by such establishment and therein consumed, or (ii) whether the establishment or the patron will pay for records selected by the patron for play from the list in any jukebox on the premises. Such establishments are hereby authorized to possess dice and dice cups on their premises, but only for use in such limited wagering. Persons engaged in such limited form of wagering shall not be subject to the criminal or civil penalties otherwise provided for in this chapter: PROVIDED,

That minors shall be barred from engaging in the wagering activities allowed by this chapter.

(2) "Bingo" means a game conducted only in the county within which the organization is principally located in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and in which no cards are sold except at the time and place of said game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which does not conduct or allow its premises to be used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week and which does not conduct bingo in any location which is used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week, or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than twelve consecutive days in any calendar year, and except in the case of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a bona fide member or an employee of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of said game takes any part in the management or operation of any game conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization, unless approved by the commission, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game. For the purposes of this subsection the organization shall be deemed to be principally located in the county within which it has its primary business office. If the organization has no business office, the organization shall be deemed to be located in the county of principal residence of its chief executive officer: PROVIDED, That any organization which is conducting any licensed and established bingo game in any locale as of January 1, 1981 shall be exempt from the requirement that such game be conducted in the county in which the organization is principally located.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means: (a) any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, or any nonprofit organization, whether incorporated or otherwise, when found by the commission to be organized and operating for one or more of the aforesaid purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter; or (b) any corporation which has been incorporated under Title 36 U.S.C. and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. ((Such)) Except for a political campaign committee who has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office, an organization must have been organized and continuously operating for at least twelve calendar months immediately preceding making application for any license to operate a gambling activity, or the operation of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter for which no license is required. Except for a political campaign committee who has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office, it must have not less than fifteen bona fide active members each with the right to an equal vote in the election of the officers~~((, and))~~ or board members, if any, who determine the policies of the organization in order to receive a gambling license. Such an organization must demonstrate to the commission that it has made significant progress toward the accomplishment of the purposes of the organization during the twelve consecutive month period preceding the date of application for a license or license renewal. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Any person, association or organization which pays its employees, including members, compensation other than is reasonable therefor under the local prevailing wage scale shall be deemed paying compensation based in part or whole upon receipts relating to gambling activities authorized under this chapter and shall not be a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(5) "Commercial stimulant". An activity is operated as a commercial stimulant, for the purposes of this chapter, only when it is an incidental activity operated in connection with, and incidental to, an established business, with the primary purpose of increasing the volume of sales of food or drink for consumption on that business premises. A business holding a class B or H license issued by the Washington state liquor control board is deemed to be an established business primarily engaged in the sale of food and drink for consumption on the premises, and any authorized gambling activity operated in connection with said business is deemed an incidental activity thereto. The commission may by rule establish guidelines and criteria for applying this definition to its applicants and licensees for gambling activities authorized by this chapter as commercial stimulants.

(6) "Commission" means the Washington state gambling commission created in RCW 9.46.040.

(7) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

(8) "Fishing derby" means a fishing contest, with or without the payment or giving of an entry fee or other consideration by some or all of the contestants wherein prizes are awarded for the species, size, weight, or quality of fish caught in a bona fide fishing or recreational event.

(9) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include fishing derbies as defined by this chapter, parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance. In addition, a contest of chance which is specifically excluded from the definition of lottery under subsection (14) of this section shall not constitute gambling.

Member and bona fide member shall also mean a person who participates on a political campaign committee which has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office if that person is identified as such to the commission by the political candidate prior to the operation of any activity authorized under this chapter. (22) "Whoever" and "person" include natural persons, corporations and partnerships and associations of persons; and when any corporate officer, director or stockholder or any partner authorizes, participates in, or knowingly accepts benefits from any violation of this chapter committed by his corporation or partnership, he shall be punishable for such violation as if it had been directly committed by him.

(23) "Fund raising event" means a fund raising event conducted during any seventy-two consecutive hours but exceeding twenty-four consecutive hours and not more than once in any calendar year or a fund raising event conducted not more than twice each calendar year for not more than twenty-four consecutive hours each time by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization as defined in subsection (3) of this section other than any agricultural fair referred to thereunder, upon authorization therefor by the commission, which the legislature hereby authorizes to issue a license therefor, with or without fee, permitting the following activities, or any of them, during such event: Bingo, amusement games, contests of chance, lotteries and raffles: PROVIDED, That (a) gross wagers and bets received by the organization less the amount of money paid by the organization as winnings, taxes, license fees, and for the purchase cost of prizes given as winnings do not exceed ((five)) ten thousand dollars during the total calendar days of such fund raising event in the calendar year; (b) such activities shall not include any mechanical gambling or lottery device activated by the insertion of a coin or by the insertion of any object purchased by any person taking a chance by gambling in respect to the device; (c) only bona fide members of the organization who are not paid for such service shall participate in the management or operation of the activities, and all income therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses, shall be devoted solely to the lawful purposes of the organization; and (d) such organization shall notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency of the time and place where such activities shall be conducted. If the tax is not received by the last day of the month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, there shall be assessed a total penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax. If the tax is not received by the last day of the second month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, there shall be assessed a total penalty of twenty percent of the amount of the tax. The penalty imposed under this subsection shall be at least two dollars.

(b)(i) A county, city-county, city, or town assessing a penalty as provided in subsection (2)(a) of this section shall provide the commission with a report of the amount of the total penalty assessed.

Any person or association or organization operating any gambling activity who or which, directly or indirectly, shall in the course of such operation:

(1) Employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud any person; or

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator Hemstad moved the following amendments by Senators Hemstad and Zimmerman to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 5, line 9 after "same." strike "~~((Such))~~ Except for a political campaign committee who has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office," thus restoring the original language.

On page 5, line 22 after "required." strike "Except for a political campaign committee who has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office," thus restoring the original statutory language.

On page 14 line 1, after "activity." strike "Member and bona fide member shall also mean a person who participates on a political campaign committee which has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office if that person is identified as such to the commission by the political candidate prior to the operation of any activity authorized under this chapter."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hemstad failed and the amendments to the amendment were not adopted.

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Shinpoch, Quigg and Vognilid to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognilid and Woody:

On page 7, following "thereto" insert ": PROVIDED, That no person who has been issued a license pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may allow in a public card room on its premises more than five separate tables at which card games are played, nor shall such licensee allow more than eight players to participate at any one table at any given time: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no licensee which allows a social card room on its premises shall allow more than eight players to participate at any one table at any time: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding the foregoing prohibitions the commission may permit a licensee to exceed these limits on specific occasions for good cause shown. Requests to exceed the limit shall be submitted to the commission in writing not less than thirty days preceding the date upon which the licensee wishes to exceed the limit. The request shall indicate the date(s) involved, the reasons for the request, and the number of games and players in the games which the licensee desires to allow on such occasion."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Senator Shinpoch, if we adopt this amendment . . . Two questions. Tell me again what it does to the food and alcohol consumption regulation."

Senator Shinpoch: "In my judgment, or in the judgment of our attorney, well then the gambling commission would no longer have anything to say about that equity question."

Senator Gould: "And who would have that control?"

Senator Shinpoch: "There would simply be no control. If you had 75% income from gambling and 25 from food and drink, that's the way it would be. The control would simply be on the five tables."

Senator Gould: "And that could be changed by the legislature, would have to be changed by the legislature and could be at any time through legislation?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Oh, yes. And the WAC could be changed any time as the gambling commission. Did I answer you?"

Senator Gould: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Shinpoch, in reading your amendment, I believe I understand the first part of it but the second part that permits the variations to occur, and let's see, ' . . . shall be submitted to the commission' and so on. Is that currently in the regulation or is that new language in the statute?"

Senator Shinpoch: "No, that, Senator Hemstad, that is currently, I will read it to you: 'The commission may permit a licensee to exceed these limits,' (these limits being five tables), 'on specific occasions for good cause shown. Request to exceed the limit shall be submitted to the commission in writing no less than thirty days. . . That's for tournaments and those types of things.'"

Senator Hemstad: "And that is currently in the WACs?"

Senator Shinpoch: "That is currently in WAC 230.40.030. That is sub (3) of that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR VOGNILD

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. Speaking in favor of this amendment, and I would like to clarify something so when we vote, we all understand it. Senator Gould, you asked the question, what this did. I want to point out to you that the adoption of this amendment has nothing whatsoever to do with the question of trade stimulants of food, drink, versus receipts. This amendment right here does not affect this. This amendment simply puts into the bill the five-table, eight-person-per-table restriction — that's all it will do. The next amendment we talk about after this, would be the one that talks about the trade stimulant."

The motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hemstad and Zimmerman to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody:

On page 7, line 3 after "premises." strike "A business holding a class B or H license issued by the Washington state liquor control board is deemed to be an established business primarily engaged in the sale of food and drink for consumption on the premises, and any authorized gambling activity operated in connection with said business is deemed an incidental activity thereto."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Mr. President, it would be my intent with the adoption of this amendment to carry with it the proviso language that was just adopted in the vote on the Shinpoch amendment."

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen. Whether parliamentarily, whether that is correct or not, I would recommend to the body that that amendment do that, because there is absolutely no reason if Senator Hemstad's amendment passes to have the proviso in that I just put in, in my judgment, because you then, if his amendment passes, what you are doing is putting it back under the control of the gambling commission and the two WACS that I just quoted to you would be in effect then."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that it would take the central amendment out."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, does this bill fit under what we have decided to consider in a special session under Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, the bill qualifies on at least two counts: it was a bill in dispute, and also is a revenue measure."

Senator McCaslin: "Oh I'm sorry; I thought we had voted down the Senate bill. Is this the second time we have heard this bill, Mr. President?"

President Cherberg: "No, this is Substitute House Bill No. 1102."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, Mr. President."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Zimmerman, I would like to inquire of you, has the city council in Vancouver been under a tremendous pressure to repeal cardroom activity in Vancouver? Is there great movement in this direction?"

Senator Zimmerman: "The city council is split on this issue. The city council has some members that think strongly that there is need to do some tightening up on gambling, and there are others that say, 'Hey, let people do whatever they want.' It is like any typical legislative body, it has differences of opinion. And they are happy for the revenue, but they are concerned about some of the possible problems. Obviously, the chief of police is not a member of the council, but is the man that is down there having to be involved in law enforcement, and he is the one that has been most concerned, directly.

"The city council, I think, has enjoyed having some of the revenue but they have not been able to quite figure out how to continue to use it all right there."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Metcalf demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Hemstad and Zimmerman to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Gallagher, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, Metcalf, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Scott, Williams, Wilson, Zimmerman—23.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Haley, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, Moore, Newhouse, Peterson, Quigg, Ridder, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Woody—24.

Excused: Senators Hayner, Talley—2.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hemstad and Zimmerman to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody:

On page 23, line 19, after "have a" strike "~~((twenty-five cent))~~ limit as established by the commission, not to exceed fifty cents" and insert "twenty-five cent limit"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Rasmussen, you care for the people in your district?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, Senator Goltz, I certainly do. My great concern is for those people that are unemployed, they cannot afford to go in there and play those pull-tab machines at 50¢. Their wives and children need that money at home. That is my main concern. And you heard my second concern was that the gambling commission, Mr. Hart, calling me and telling me that they should raise the rates. I have a very deep concern and I don't think that gambling improves the atmosphere around any home."

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1102, by House Committee on Labor and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Nelson (G.), Martinis, Struthers, Scott, Monohon, Hastings and Owen):

Implementing law relating to control of gambling.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102 from March 22, 1982. At that time, an amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended, was adopted. An amendment to the title was also adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Quigg, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Bauer moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended:

On page 25, line 2, following "bingo" strike "~~((and))~~, raffles and punch boards and pull-tabs" and insert "and raffles"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

At 12:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate recessed until 1:20 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

President Pro Tempore Guess called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102 from earlier today.

On motion of Senator Bauer, there being no objection, an amendment to the amendment moved for adoption earlier today was withdrawn.

Senator Bauer moved the following amendments to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended, be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 25, line 2, following "bingo" strike "~~((and))~~, raffles and punch boards and pull-tabs" and insert "and raffles"

On page 25, line 30, following "of" strike "~~((punch boards and pull-tabs shall not exceed five percent of gross receipts, nor shall taxation of))~~ social card games shall not and insert "punch boards and pull-tabs shall not exceed five per cent of gross receipts, nor shall taxation of social card games"

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, at 1:42 p.m., the Senate was declared to be at ease.

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended:

On page 25, line 35, strike ((gross)) net and insert "gross"
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Vognild, if you were to tax the net on a gambling device in a place of business that had a number of sources of income, what expenses would you deduct in order to arrive at the net?"

Senator Vognild: "It is my understanding, Senator Wilson, that you would be deducting the expenses directly related. We attempted in here to take the punch-tabs, or the punch-cards and the pull-tabs and say, gross less payout. That was what we intended to do there. What I feel this would do in terms of the card rooms is take the expenses directly related to the operation of the tables and nothing more."

Senator Wilson: "Not a share of the overhead, you mean?"

Senator Vognild: "I don't really know. I suppose that the gambling commission would have to make that ruling, but my intent would be that the expense would have to be directly related to the operation of the tables. If those tables took up 25% of the floor space, I would have no objection to a deduction to that 25%."

Senator Wilson: "I guess I am just, as is Senator Zimmerman, trying to look at this from the standpoint of local government, and what sort of hornet's nest they might run into in arguing with the proprietor as to what expenses were deductible and which were not."

Senator Vognild: "I agree, Senator Wilson, I would have to check the language in the bill previously."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Charnley, could you tell us about your experience in this field and your knowledge of overhead items and how these places operate and what the margin of profit really is."

Senator Charnley: "It would seem to me, Senator Moore, my experience is very limited, that the amount of profit is quite substantial and I think the tax is fair."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Shinpoch demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Shinpoch to the amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Woody, as amended.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 22; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Fuller, Gallagher, Goltz, Guess, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McDermott, Metcalf, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Shinpoch, Williams, Wilson, Zimmerman—26.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Gould, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Jones, McCaslin, Moore, Newhouse, Peterson, Quigg, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Woody—22.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the title amendment was adopted on March 22, 1982.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the title amendment, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Quigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Zimmerman, by virtue of your last statement, it seems to me you are indicating that you have a concern about this bill and about the concept of gambling in general. Am I correct by that?"

Senator Zimmerman: "I think that gambling is not something that needs to be encouraged. I think that, as far as the city of Vancouver and the state of Washington, that gambling is not necessarily the future of Washington state and I am not trying to promote it."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I have had communication from my senior center and from fraternal and charitable organizations in the thirty-fourth legislative district. Would it be your intention, about this bill, at some point to introduce legislation that would repeal the opportunity for those people to engage in charitable raffles, the gambling 'Reno Night' and things like that that they have now?"

Senator Zimmerman: "The public made a decision a few years ago that has gotten us to where we are and I am not trying to turn the clock back but I guess I am saying I don't think we need to promote it and I don't think we need another Nevada in this state. We have a lot of other things that we don't need."

"But at this point I think we should stay where we are in terms of it. I think it's just okay where we are."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 22; excused, 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1102, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared lost.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and Senator McDermott having given notice on March 22, 1982, Senator Clarke moved the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass on March 22, 1982.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, rule 37 provides that 'A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except the motion to adjourn.' And the motion was not made to adjourn, but ' . . . when the senate adjourns while the motion to reconsider is pending or before passing the order of motions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day . . . ' That did not happen, Mr. President, and it further provides that 'On and after the tenth day prior to adjournment sine die of any regular session a motion to reconsider shall only be in order on the same day upon which notice of reconsideration is given.'

"I submit to the President that the ten days that Governor Spellman called us into session ended on Sunday night. Governor Spellman then issued a proclamation for another 7-day special session. Quite obviously we are within the 10-day limit and that is why I raised my point of order that the motion to reconsider was not made at the proper time and acted on."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Senator Rasmussen, ruling upon the point of order, the Chair believes that the motion was given properly on yesterday and President Cherberg has ruled once before this week that the bill was properly in order before us at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, further on the point of order, the motion was made for reconsideration. No motion was made to put it over 'til today. And you could research the records, find that there was no motion made to put that motion over"

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Senator Rasmussen, he gave notice for reconsideration yesterday. Senator McDermott actually gave the notice. Senator McDermott."

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, my motion was, I gave notice of reconsideration to be considered on the next working day."

Senator Rasmussen: "Which, Mr. President, requires suspension of the rules under rule 37."

President Pro Tempore Guess: "It does not require a suspension of the rules, Senator."

President Pro Tempore Guess declared the question before the Senate to be the motion for reconsideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Bottiger, you caught my eye or my ear when you said our bond rating's been lowered again, the third time now? Do you have any idea . . . ?"

Senator Bottiger: "As I mentioned before in prediction that when the state loses its credit rating that reflects down on our units of local government. In this morning's paper there are fourteen units of local government that now had their bond ratings reduced."

Senator Lysen: "Was that purely because of the state's situation?"

Senator Bottiger: "Partly because of WPPSS and partly because their funding sources are not adequate to meet their own bonded indebtedness."

Senator Lysen: "WPPSS' funding sources aren't adequate . . . ?"

Senator Bottiger: "Part of the utilities, I would suggest, lost their's because of WPPSS."

Senator Lysen: "Thank you very much."

Senator Shinpoch demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

President Pro Tempore Guess declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Clarke that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass on March 22, 1982.

ROLL CALL ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Secretary called the roll and the motion carried by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 17; excused, 1.

(6) The executive board shall select and employ a managing director of the operating agency and may delegate to the managing director such authority for the management and control of the operating agency as the executive board deems appropriate. The managing director's employment is terminable at the will of the executive board.

(7) ~~((Any executive board created under this section shall cease to function upon the initiation of regular operations of the nuclear power plant over which it has exercised construction management powers and duties. If the operating agency is constructing two or more nuclear power plants simultaneously, the executive board shall cease exercising all powers as to each plant as it becomes operational.))~~ Members of the executive board shall be immune from civil liability for mistakes and errors of judgment in the good faith performance of acts within the scope of their official duties involving the exercise of judgment and discretion. This grant of immunity shall not be construed as modifying the liability of the operating agency.

The operating agency shall undertake the defense of and indemnify each executive board member made a party to any civil proceeding including any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact he or she is or was a member of the executive board, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses, actually incurred by him or her in connection with such proceeding if he or she had conducted himself or herself in good faith and reasonably believed his or her conduct to be in the best interest of the operating agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The treasurer shall advise the board on all matters affecting the financial condition of the operating agency. The amount of such bond may be decreased or increased from time to time as the board may by resolution direct.

The board shall also appoint an auditor and may require him to give a bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington in such amount as it shall by resolution prescribe, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. ~~((If the joint operating agency is constructing a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement under chapter 80.50 RCW, the auditor shall be appointed by the executive board.))~~

The premiums on the bonds of the auditor and the treasurer shall be paid by the operating agency. The board may provide for coverage of said officers and other persons on the same bond.

All funds of the joint operating agency shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be disbursed by him only on warrants issued by the auditor upon orders or vouchers approved by the board: PROVIDED, That the board by resolution may authorize the ~~((executive committee or executive board))~~ managing director or any other bonded officer or employee as legally permissible to approve or disapprove vouchers presented to defray salaries of employees and other expenses of the operating agency arising in the usual and ordinary course of its business ~~((and expenses incurred by the executive committee or executive board in the performance of such duties as the operating agency may authorize it to perform)), including expenses incurred by the board of directors, its executive committee, or the executive board in the performance of their duties.~~ All moneys of the operating agency shall be deposited forthwith by the treasurer in such depositories, and with such securities as are designated by rules of the board. The treasurer shall establish a general fund and such special funds as shall be created by the board, into which he shall place all money of the joint operating agency as the board by resolution or motion may direct.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 220, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.378 are each amended to read as follows:

The executive board of any operating agency constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement issued pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall appoint an administrative auditor. The administrative auditor shall be deemed an officer under chapter 42.23 RCW. The appointment of the administrative auditor shall be in addition to the appointment of the auditor for the issuance of warrants and other purposes as provided in RCW 43.52.375. The executive board shall retain a qualified firm or firms to conduct performance audits ~~((including such engineering expertise as the executive board deems necessary.))~~ which is in fact independent and does not have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract with the operating agency other than its employment hereunder. No member or employee of any such firm shall be connected with the operating agency as an officer, employee, or contractor. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall be independently and directly responsible to the executive board of the operating agency. The executive board shall require a firm to conduct continuing audits of the methods, procedures and organization used by the operating agency to control costs, schedules, productivity, contract amendments, project design and any other topics deemed desirable by the executive board. The executive board may also require a firm to analyze particular technical aspects of the operating agency's projects and contract amendments. The firm or firms shall provide advice to the executive board in its management and control of the operating agency. At least once each year, the firm or firms shall prepare and furnish a report of its actions and recommendations to the executive board for the purpose of enabling it to attain the highest degree of efficiency in the management and control of any thermal power project under construction or in operation. The administrative auditor shall assist the firm or firms in the performance of its duties. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall consult regularly with the executive board and furnish any information or data to the executive board which the administrative auditor, firm, or executive board deems helpful in accomplishing the purpose above stated. The administrative auditor shall perform such other duties as the executive board shall prescribe to accomplish this section.

In addition to the powers and duties conferred by chapter 44.28 RCW, the legislative budget committee shall evaluate such management audits as to adequacy and effectiveness of procedure and shall consult with and make reports and recommendations to the executive board. The operating agency shall reimburse the legislative budget committee for all costs of furnishing such services.

The operating agency shall file a copy of each firm's reports, and the legislative budget committee shall file a copy of each of its reports or recommendations in a timely manner, prepared in accordance with this section, with the respective chairmen of the senate and house energy and utilities committees. Upon the concurrent request of the chairmen of the senate or house energy and utilities committees, the operating agency shall report to the committees on a quarterly basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 43.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to RCW 43.52.343, the best interests of all ratepayers affected by the joint operating agency and its projects shall determine the interest of the operating agency and its board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "agencies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 43.52.250, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.250; amending section 43.52.370, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.370; amending section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.374; amending section 43.52.375, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.375; amending section 1, chapter 220, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.378; adding new sections to chapter 43.52 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Gould, Chairman; McCaslin, Vice Chairman; Fuller, Hemstad, Newhouse, Wilson.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Gould moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Gould, on page 5 of the striking amendment the language 'or sell' is stricken; and the words 'terminate or decommission' inserted. And then some other language about 'the board of directors has made a final decision regarding a nuclear power plant, the executive board . . . shall have the authority to make all subsequent decisions regarding the plant and any of its components; . . .'

"What does that mean in English?"

Senator Gould: "Well, if you are concerned about whether or not they can sell, if you look on line 31, it says that they will have 'All other powers and duties of the operating agency, including without limitation authority for all actions subsequent to final decisions by the board of directors, . . .' I guess I don't know specifically what your question is trying to get at."

Senator Quigg: "Senator Gould, if the plants were to be sold, who would sell them, the executive board, the participants' committee, the full board?"

Senator Gould: "The executive board would."

Senator Quigg: "Thank you."

Senator Williams moved the following amendments by Senators Williams, Quigg, Wilson and McCaslin to the committee amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 5, line 24 strike "(1)(a)"

On page 6, line 33, strike "~~((including))~~ except for" and insert "including"

On page 7, beginning on line 2, strike "~~((board of directors))~~ governor and confirmed by the senate" and insert "board of directors"

On page 7, beginning on line 9, strike "~~((board of directors shall choose by lot))~~ governor shall appoint" and insert "board of directors shall choose by lot"

On page 7, beginning on line 22, strike "~~((may be paid additional compensation as established by the board of directors))~~ shall receive a salary from the operating agency as fixed by the governor" and insert "may be paid additional compensation as established by the board of directors"

On page 8, beginning on line 13, strike "~~((The president of the board of directors shall be a nonvoting member of the executive board and shall serve as the presiding officer of the executive board:))~~ The governor may remove outside directors from the executive board for incompetency, misconduct, or malfeasance in office in the same manner as state appointive officers under chapter 43.06 RCW. For purposes of this section, misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, nonfeasance and misfeasance." and insert "The President of the board of directors shall be a nonvoting member of the executive board and shall serve as the presiding officer of the executive board."

On page 9, beginning on line 36, strike "~~((board of directors))~~ governor" and insert "board of directors"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Hemstad, I listened very carefully and we have two attorneys on the floor that I spent a great deal of time listening to and you are now in debate over amendment 60 of the state Constitution.

"I have had, from the outset of this legislation, a concern for the potential liability of the state of Washington and this body and the House in the fiscal liabilities that have been created through WPPSS.

"Can you respond to the statement that Senator Talmadge made on our liability in this issue?"

Senator Hemstad: "Thank you, Senator Patterson. Amendment 60, it seems to me, is proof the other way around, not as Senator Talmadge suggests, but demonstrates that the state does not assume liability. Amendment 60 is the mechanism that says that the state cannot have debt exceeding 9% of the mean general state revenues for the three prior fiscal years. If the state were to assume, accidentally, responsibility for the large WPPSS' debt, of course it would be exceeding those constitutional limits, but it would be beyond the constitutional authority of the state to take on that debt, which simply confirms the statements in this legislation and already in state law, that the state has no responsibility for the WPPSS' liability.

"This legislature could not, under our Constitution, be assuming that obligation. Again this is a matter of state law, state law controls. The only way that federal law comes into it if there was some constitutional question that is going to arise, and there is none in this context of the situation whatsoever. There can be federal constitutional problems with regard to the interest of the bondholders, but there are none with regard to the relationship between WPPSS, the PUDS, and the state because they are purely agents of the state and that is not, in any way, a matter of Federal law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Now that Senator Hemstad's opinion has been entered in the journal, I think it would be fair to ask Senator Talmadge if he would like to comment on the same topic."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Senator Wilson. In response to your question, I guess I still fundamentally disagree with Senator Hemstad about this. You take a look at the language of the 60th amendment and if the state backs up the bonds of WPPSS, if the state undertakes that responsibility on behalf of the language of any state debt, 'The full faith, credit, and taxing power of the state of Washington are pledged to the payment of the debt created on behalf of the state pursuant to this section and the legislature shall provide by appropriation for the payment of the interest upon and the installments of principal of all such debt as the same falls due, but in any event, any court of record may compel such payment.'

"The fact of the matter is, by creating the WPPSS' executive board, by having the Governor of the state of Washington appoint the directors of that executive board, subject to confirmation of the state Senate, there's no other nonstate agency, to my knowledge—unless somebody else out here on the floor can demonstrate one—that has that kind of executive board created by the action of the legislature.

"I would submit that is an action by the state and, in fact, that gives us at least the risk of pledging the full faith and taxing power of the state of Washington to the payment of the debt of that board which has now become a state agency via the way we have organized the agency."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Gould, Senator Hurley mentioned one of the stipulations within the statute itself, regarding protection from state liability. Are there any further protections against that kind of liability in the bill?"

Senator Gould: "Thank you, Senator Lee, for giving me the opportunity to respond. Besides the disclaimer that Senator Hurley referred to, there are three or four other things that happened. A simple gubernatorial appointment, despite Senator Talmadge's statement, does not establish liability as Senator Newhouse mentioned. We also have the case of the state hospital commission where the Governor makes the appointments and they are not liable.

"In the state of New York they have a New York power authority which is quite directly, it is appointed by the Governor and directly related to the Governor and they do not have the liability.

"So there is precedence doing this without state liability.

"Secondly, the gubernatorial appointments are in the minority, there are only four out of eleven. Even the House bill which had five out of nine, the majority were gubernatorial appointments. There was an informal letter from the AG indicating even in that case, there would not be state liability.

"And finally, in the bill, it states the Governor makes the appointments, but they are only removable for cause, they are not removable at the whim of the Governor or at his decision. It is only for cause and that is very specific in the bill."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Moore demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

President Pro Tempore Guess declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendments by Senators Williams, Quigg, Wilson and McCaslin to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendments to the amendment were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 20; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—28.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Lee, Newhouse, Patterson, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—20.

Excused: Senator Talley—1

On motion of Senator Quigg, there being no objection, an amendment to page 5, lines 3 and 4, of the committee amendment, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 5, line 35, after "directors," insert "including but not limited to the authority to sell any power plant, works, and facilities"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Quigg, could you explain to the back row here why, under sub (a) they can do everything; purchase, acquire, construct, terminate, or decommission; but you didn't insert 'sell back' in there but you added it down below. What's the legal reason for that?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator McCaslin, under sub (a) we are talking about the powers of the full board, and in the area where this amendment is being . . . we are talking about the powers of the executive board. And when we are dealing in the assets of the very special type that these are and with the kinds of dollars that we are dealing with, I think it's important to have the expertise of the outside directors as well as the voting power of the utility districts' majority to see to it that the full value be received for the ratepayers and bondholders. So these are people, this is where the executive board outside directors would be having some real critical input on what goes on in the world of high finance and international energy, because that is really the kind of a market where these sources, assets would be marketable. So I think that is the reason to put them with the executive boards."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you very much, Senator Quigg. I certainly support you in this amendment and would hope the body would be behind you on this. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Lysen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Lysen, Vognild, Williams and Haley to the committee amendment:

On page 8, line 12, after "assets," insert "Notwithstanding any other provisions of this 1982 act, at least one of the outside directors shall be a representative of a consumer advocacy organization organized pursuant to chapter 24.03 RCW for purposes of representing residential electric utility ratepayers."

On motion of Senator Quigg, there being no objection, his name was removed as one of the sponsors of the amendment by Senators Lysen, Vognild, Williams and Haley to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Lysen, it seems to me we are all ratepayers in some way or another if we have electricity at all. What kind of ratepayer groups? Are you going to say that everyone on this side of the aisle is a ratepayer group? It seems to me that if you want to deal with that, it has to be more specific than what you have said there."

Senator Lysen: "Well, do you have a suggestion, possibly to improve it? But the idea is that these would be bona fide groups that have taken an active part now, by going through the process of incorporation under this particular RCW and they would put up nominees or someone that they would select. But the board would not necessarily have to, they could choose anyone I suppose, from those groups. But I would expect that they would probably honor their requests or at least pick from a group of nominees that they would put up, to put this type of person on the board."

"We are also providing the other people would be from corporate management, big business backgrounds like we had in the recent experience."

"But this would be to add one person from a ratepayer/consumer/activist kind of group that have recently become active. And it doesn't have to be real strictly structural or mechanical, I think it can be worked out in a rather broad way, which is how I tried to draw this amendment to do."

"If you have a suggestion, I would be open for a friendly amendment."

Debate ensued.

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

President Pro Tempore Guess declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Lysen, Vognild, Williams and Haley to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 26; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Haley, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Woody—21.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, Wilson, Zimmerman—26.

Absent or not voting: Senator Bottiger—1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

Senator Lysen moved the following amendments to the committee amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 18, line 29, following "9." strike the remainder of the section and insert "This act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

On page 19, line 28, following "and" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "providing a referendum."

On motion of Senator Lysen, there being no objection, the amendments to the committee amendment were withdrawn.

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Rasmussen, Hughes, Quigg, Lysen and Pullen to the committee amendment:

On page 11, following line 25, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 250, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 42.30.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Public agency" means:

(a) Any state board, commission, committee, department, educational institution, or other state agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, other than courts and the legislature(;;);

(b) Any county, city, school district, special purpose district, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state of Washington;

(c) Any subagency of a public agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, ordinance, or other legislative act, including but not limited to planning commissions, library or park boards, and other boards, commissions, and agencies;

(d) Any policy group whose membership includes representatives of publicly owned utilities formed by or pursuant to the laws of this state when meeting together as or on behalf of participants who have contracted for the output of generating plants being planned or built by an operating agency.

(2) "Governing body" means the multimember board, commission, committee, council, or other policy or rule-making body of a public agency.

(3) "Action" means the transaction of the official business of a public agency by a governing body including but not limited to a collective decision made by a majority of the members of a governing body, a collective commitment or promise by a majority of the members of a governing body to make a positive or negative decision, or an actual vote by a majority of the members of a governing body when sitting as a body or entity, upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance.

(4) "Meeting" means meetings at which action is taken."

Re-number the remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, any member wishing to be added as a sponsor may do so. Senators Lysen and Pullen were added as additional sponsors.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Talmadge, do you have any instances in mind where this has been a problem? I remember one lawsuit, as I recall, a few years ago, but . . . I don't remember the exact issue."

Senator Talmadge: "I don't remember the exact issue contained in that lawsuit, Senator Lysen, but my recollection was that there was a controversy about six months to a year ago about whether or not the participants' committee was open to the media in the same fashion that any other public agency would be open. This would simply make clear that the participants committee is, in fact, an agency subject to the open meetings act."

Senator Lysen: "So they would also have the exceptions for real estate purchases and personnel matters would, in terms of hiring, reviewing personnel, that exemption that applies to local government would also apply to WPPSS?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, the very same exceptions."

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Gould carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Gould moved adoption of the committee amendment to the title.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment to the committee amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 11 of the title, following "374;" insert "amending section 2, chapter 250, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 42.30.020;"

The motion by Senator Gould carried and the committee amendment to the title, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gould, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1217, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Gould, in 1975 we passed a bill in the legislature, unanimously, as I recall or almost unanimously, that gave the local PUD commissioners complete immunity in the conduct of their actions. And now the ratepayers cannot seek any redress against them.

"I am concerned that we may have the same problem here. With authority goes responsibility and when you make them immune from their responsibility or their liability from the conduct of their responsibility, I am concerned about that; and they do have insurance that the Supply System pays for to cover them in case there is a lawsuit or some liability problem.

"I guess my question is 'Why should they be totally liable, totally immune statutorily, and why isn't the insurance normal . . . in the way corporate executives are covered, and other people in positions like this?' Why wouldn't that be an adequate and appropriate way to handle this liability problem?"

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, Senator Lysen. The way it is devised in the bill is very appropriate, is very much like it is done in other agencies or incorporations of this kind. The reason for it, I think no one can compete with the magnitude of the problems in WPPSS, but let me at least try to give you a microcosm of the same kind of a problem that I found when I was a member of the school board. And that was when you are making some very difficult decisions that have many ramifications, you don't want to be impeded by the possibility that, although you are making a decision in the best interest of the district, or in this case in the best interest of the Supply System, but somebody may sue you for everything you have. You have got to be able to make decisions based on what is in the best interest of that organization, not on your own personal interests.

"I think we can extend that to another issue on this bill and that is that there is a very strong conflict of interest statement here, that says when members serve on the executive board of the Supply System, they have to represent the ratepayers of the whole state, and not just the ratepayers of their district and those two are tied very closely together and I think they are very vital, in order to make the best decisions for the whole system rather than those which they may have some personal interest or only for their district."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Gould, this bill allows the legislature to place one or two nonvoting observers on the executive board. It would allow the observer to participate in all meetings and discussions. Would that include executive sessions?"

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, Senator Hemstad. No, it wouldn't. We wanted to clarify this issue. Unless the board invited the observers to sit with it in executive session and the intent is to give the observer, as I mentioned before, the same role as the BPA observer has now; but they would not participate in executive sessions unless we invited them."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1217, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 8; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—40.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Goltz, Hurley, Lysen, Metcalf, Moore, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—8.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1217, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

The renewal application may be processed by the director or his agents only if the applicant both:

(a) Presents a preprinted renewal application, or in the absence of such presentation, the agent, at his discretion, verifies the information which would be contained on the preprinted renewal application; and

(b) Presents either proof of payment on a form provided by the department or payment of the total standing, stopping, and parking fines stated on the preprinted renewal application and, in the case of payment, payment of a twenty-five percent surcharge on such fines, including penalties.

(2) The twenty-five percent surcharge referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be allocated as follows:

Amounts from the percentage of the surcharge received shall be deposited in the general fund to be used exclusively for the administrative costs of the department of licensing and its agents in implementing this section.

(4) If there is a change in the registered owner of the vehicle, the department shall forward such information regarding the change to the local charging jurisdiction and release any hold on the renewal of the vehicle license resulting from standing, stopping, and parking violations incurred while the certificate of license registration was in a prior registered owner's name.

(5) The department shall send to all registered owners of vehicles who have been reported to have outstanding standing, stopping, and parking violations, at the time of renewal, a statement listing the dates and jurisdictions in which the violations occurred as well as the amounts of unpaid fines and the surcharge to be collected. The preprinted renewal application shall state the total amount of such fines and of the surcharge.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 128, Laws of 1980 and RCW 46.63.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) The form for the notice of traffic infraction shall be prescribed by rule of the supreme court and shall include the following:

(a) A statement that the notice represents a determination that a traffic infraction has been committed by the person named in the notice and that the determination shall be final unless contested as provided in this chapter;

(b) A statement that a traffic infraction is a noncriminal offense for which imprisonment may not be imposed as a sanction; that the penalty for a traffic infraction may include sanctions against the person's driver's license including suspension, revocation, or denial; that the penalty for a traffic infraction related to standing, stopping, or parking may include nonrenewal of the vehicle license;

(c) A statement of the specific traffic infraction for which the notice was issued;

(d) A statement of the monetary penalty established for the traffic infraction;

(e) A statement of the options provided in this chapter for responding to the notice and the procedures necessary to exercise these options;

(f) A statement that at any hearing to contest the determination the state has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the infraction was committed; and that the person may subpoena witnesses including the officer who issued the notice of infraction;

Such a lessor shall, upon the request of the municipality issuing the notice of infraction, supply the municipality with the name and driver's license number of the person leasing the vehicle at the time of the infraction.

(1) Whenever any person is convicted of any offense for which this title makes mandatory the suspension or revocation of the driver's license of such person by the department, the privilege of the person to operate a vehicle is suspended until the department takes the action required by this chapter, and the court in which such conviction is had shall forthwith secure the immediate forfeiture of the driver's license of such convicted person and immediately forward such driver's license to the department, and on failure of such convicted person to deliver such driver's license the judge shall cause such person to be confined for the period of such suspension or revocation or until such driver's license is delivered to such judge: PROVIDED, That if the convicted person testifies that he or she does not and at the time of the offense did not have a current and valid vehicle driver's license, the judge shall cause

(2) Every court having jurisdiction over offenses committed under this chapter, or any other act of this state or municipal ordinance adopted by a local authority regulating the operation of motor vehicles on highways, or any federal authority having jurisdiction over offenses substantially the same as those set forth in Title 46 RCW which occur on federal installations within this state, shall forward to the department within ten days of a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure the defendant's appearance in court, a payment of a fine or penalty, a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt, or a finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction an abstract of the court record in the form prescribed by rule of the supreme court, showing the conviction of any person or the finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction in said court for a violation of any said laws other than regulations governing standing, stopping, parking, and pedestrian offenses.

MOTION

Senator Hemstad moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Hemstad, maybe I misunderstood what the House did. It was my understanding that what they did was amend House Bill 268 on to 4492, and that we just passed 268 yesterday, and I don't understand why it is that you are wanting us to concur in the second passage of 268 as it's incorporated in 4492.

Senator Hemstad: "Because thereby it will end the issue and will be done with it; otherwise if we refuse to concur, we send it back, we are refusing to concur in an amendment which is a form of a bill that we have just adopted."

Senator Shinpoch: "That is too convoluted for me. Could we just have some old 'farmer talk?' (Number) 268 has already passed. Do we agree on that?"

Senator Hemstad: "It passed the Senate."

Senator Shinpoch: "It passed the Senate, and it is a House bill."

Senator Hemstad: "Back over there for various kinds of concurrences; but they are sending it to us in the form, essentially in the form that we passed it here the other day. They are giving back to us essentially as an amendment to our bill, the form of the bill that we passed out of here the other day."

Senator Shinpoch: "We have had this laying on our desks now since, well, March 19 was this latest concurring calendar, and I am sure that I can probably find one before that that had it on it. We have had it around here quite a while and we just passed 268 over to them. So they are now asking us to do something in relationship to what we have just done, because if they want 268 all they have to do is accept it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I think, actually, that the main differences are with respect to 4492 which had to do with straightening out this $25.00 penalty. And my recollection is that we made some corrections in that bill which are preferable to that which the House did, the way they handled it. So, in substance, if we simply pass, or concur with the House and pass this, I think then that we have the bill relating to both subjects in the way that the Senate desired to have it set forth. Senator Hemstad is more conversant with those details than I am, but I think that is where your primary differences lie, is with respect to what we did on 4492."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Clarke is correct and 4492 is somewhat different subject and so if we want both bills passed, and both of them have passed this house already, at that point, they will both go to the Governor."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "I find myself in disagreement with some of the people on my side. (Number) 268 as amended or as the bill, either one, in my opinion, is a bad bill, and tacking it on to a pretty good little bill doesn't make it any better.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would raise the scope and object on the House amendment that they are asking us to concur with; and Mr. President, I think you have an opinion up there on the desk regarding this. . . . I am raising scope and object, Mr. President.

"Mr. President, trying to be courteous to Senator Clarke, I withdrew my scope and object at the time this was before the body. Senator Clarke, at that time, indicated that they were not going to leave this attached to it and he would have the judicial council bill that he so desired.

"And I find out now that I have been double-crossed and I am again raising the scope and object, Mr. President, and if you will inquire of the President of the Senate, you will find there is an opinion on that."

Senator Clarke: "I rather resent the Senator's suggestion that I have double-crossed him. But the question is very obvious, it has to do with a very significant difference of opinion here on this question that relates to the House amendment. The Senate did pass that bill after debate, so it has already passed this body.

"Now, we think we did a better job on 4492 in handling the other portion, and for that reason, I personally would suggest that Senator Hemstad withdraw his motion to concur, but I don't want to lose 4492 which I think is a good bill and I think the Senate did a better job than the House. So if Senator Hemstad would desire to change, that would remove your scope and object problem."

Senator Hemstad: "Mr. President, with the consent of the body, I will withdraw my motion to concur in House amendments and move not to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill 4492."

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Senator Hemstad had moved to withdraw his motion. Hearing no objection it is so ordered. Senator Hemstad had moved that we do not concur. Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "I wish to withdraw my motion on scope and object and if anyone got the inference that it was Senator Clarke that double-crossed me, I want to withdraw that also."

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Senator Rasmussen, you are doubly withdrawn."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Clarke: "To reassure Senator Rasmussen, I move that his withdrawal be without prejudice and could be renewed in the event that the Senate should vote the other way so that I"

President Pro Tempore Guess: "Senator Shinpoch."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHINPOCH

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, Mr. President, I am going to raise scope and object on the amendment, and let me, if I could speak on that, please.

"Mr. President, I would like to explain. Under the ruling of Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, that if we do not accept the motion to not concur, we have, in effect, concurred and we have lost the chance to raise scope and object on the amendment.

"(I am getting a lot of words from people.) Am I getting assurance from the leadership on that side, if the motion to not concur fails, then we have an option and you will help us suspend the rules and scope and object the amendment?"

REPLY BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "A motion primarily, so that the body as a body, not only has my assurance but I move that the body rule that it be without prejudice with the right to renew."

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, Senator Clarke, the problem is that I am an old farm boy, and I don't understand 'without prejudice.' I do understand, though, that you have assured us that we can . . . Thank you."

Senator Clarke: "That's right."

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4492 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Goltz served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass the Senate today.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having served prior notice, Senator Zimmerman moved the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass on March 22, 1982.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the motion for reconsideration on Substitute House Bill No. 1053, as amended by the Senate, was ordered held for consideration on March 24, 1982.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Clarke, I understand the negotiations are going on and that House Bill 796 will be on the calendar for tomorrow? I'm asking, not moving or anything."

Senator Hayner: (House Bill) 796 will be on the calendar soon, I can't guarantee it will be on tomorrow. As soon as the negotiations are completed."

Senator Bottiger: "I understand they are still not completed?"

(No Reply)

MOTION

At 4:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 24, 1982.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senator Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, March 24, 1982.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Talley. There being no objection, Senator Talley was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Cynthia Story and Mark Weber, presented the Colors. Reverend Wallace F. Misterek, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

Senator Clarke moved the following measures be returned to the Committee on Rules:

Senate Bill 4661, Senate Bill 4264, House Bill 935, Senate Bill 4565 and Senate Bill 3405.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Clarke, 4565 is a bill that relates to fees, user fees and contains an appropriation. What is the explanation for that one going back to rules?"

Senator Hayner: (Responding) "Mr. President, in reference to your inquiry, Senator Williams, I think your side requested that 960 be considered. House Bill 960 is still in the House and 4565 is the Senate bill, but the House bill did pass the House and was over here in our rules. Now if they return it to us, we will consider 960."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Charnley: "Senator Clarke, or Senator Hayner, there's one bill I don't see on here which was pulled from rules, the child restraint bill, 4548. I was wondering why that one does not appear on the calendar. It has been a number of days since it was pulled from rules, and it has still not appeared."

Senator Hayner: "It will be on the calendar."

Senator Charnley: "It is on the calendar?"

Senator Hayner: "Yes. We will have to have a joint resolution, however, to bring some life into that and I have no objection to that. When we consider it, that will have to be done."

Senator Charnley: "I appreciate that very much. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the measures were returned to the Committee on Rules.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1982—213.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, on reconsideration.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by House Committee on Local Government and Representatives Isaacson and Nelson (G.)):

Permitting establishment of cultural arts, stadium, and convention districts.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate. On March 22, 1982, the measure failed to pass the Senate. Senator McDermott gave notice of reconsideration on that day. On March 23, 1982, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the measure failed to pass. On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, was returned to second reading and held.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Zimmerman, as amended, was adopted on March 22, 1982.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendments by Senators McDermott, Shinpoch and Hayner to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman, as amended, were adopted:

On page 14, after "taxes:" on line 38 strike all of subsection (1) and insert the following:

"(1) A regular ad valorem property tax levy in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the district in each year for six consecutive years. This six year levy must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting yes on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election.

In the event cultural arts, stadium and convention districts are levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts result in taxes in excess of the one percent limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2, of our state Constitution, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced: PROVIDED, That no cultural arts, stadium, and convention district may pledge anticipated revenues derived from the property tax herein authorized as security for payments of bonds issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That such limitation shall not apply to property taxes approved pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall apply to levies after the first levy authorized under this section following the approval of such levy by voters pursuant to this section."

On page 5, line 29, after "19..." strike all material down to "district?" on line 33.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the following amendment by Senators Zimmerman, Craswell and Hurley to the amendment by Senator Zimmerman, as amended, was adopted:

On page 5, line 11 after "resolution" strike " or at a special election called for such purpose"

The amendment by Senator Zimmerman, as amended on March 22, 1982 and as amended today, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gould, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Gould, as a fellow member of the constitutions and elections committee, you will remember we have had some discussion about the term 'general election' in the past and I notice that with the elimination of a special election under the Zimmerman amendment, the term is 'next general election,' and I am wondering if it was your intent that that be an election to the general body that would be, for instance, a school election that would be held on a regular levy time, whether it would be a special election or whether it would be confined to the general election in November?"

Senator Gould: "It is my understanding with the Zimmerman amendment, it will be only the primary or general election, that no special election dates would be allowed."

Senator Ridder: "Okay, thank you."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Zimmerman, some of us out here are very concerned about what happens to local government finance generally. And I wonder if you could tell us whether or not you believe there will be a bill on the floor that will give local government sufficient ability to deal with their problems."

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator McDermott, this morning at 8 o'clock, two republicans, two democrats and members of the committee that have been working on House Bill 1014 met with the idea of working out what would be agreed upon amendment to deal with that subject. We are hopeful that whenever it is the proper time as far as the flow of business, that that proposal will be before us, that we can deal with what is a comprehensive bill on local option sales tax, real estate excise tax, development fees, and lidding of utility taxes; very, very complete bill which will give considerable option to counties and cities to deal with that side of it, their revenue side, at the same time dealing with some of the problems that have arisen from their very narrow base which they presently have only for cities or utilities and so on.

"So it is my hope that we will be able to deal with it. It will hopefully have support of other members of the floor. Since we had Representative Nelson meeting with us this morning, at this meeting, that he, too, is fully apprised of where we are, what is happening, and I am quite confident that this will take place."

Senator McDermott: "It is your understanding, then, an agreement has been reached in this body as to the form it should take on the floor?"

Senator Zimmerman: "I think that would be verified by Senator Wilson and Senator Charnley and Senator Gould."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Hayner, my question is, 'Do you intend to bring the bill that Senator Zimmerman has worked the compromise on to the floor on local government finances?'"

Senator Hayner: "I really have no objection to that. I think it is in a negotiation stage. I think there is still work being done on it. I know that even though the bill came out of committee there are amendments to be dealt with and I think if we can get closer to some kind of agreement before it comes out here, I think that that would be very admirable."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, I have been accused of being the most liberal member on the floor. And the National Conservative Union did not rank me highest, I was about the fifth."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Rasmussen that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

ROLL CALL

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Scott moved the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4369 and ask the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4369.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "If the motion to concur should fail, that is, in itself, automatically a vote not to concur and the bill, without further vote, then goes back to the House for the request they recede. Am I correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Clarke."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Talmadge, it just occurs to me, under initiative 62 when we mandate local government to take over more expenses, you say it is suppose to reimburse them, would this be covered by these items that you mention in the budget?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Hurley, I think you raised a very good question. I think the language of initiative 62 is that the state must reimburse the local government for the service provided not simply just pass a tax source down to the local government. I think the whole idea of the local option you refer to is fraught with initiative 62 questions and I am sure Senator Scott and his good staff on the ways and means committee have been wrestling with also, but I believe that there are very serious questions about that issue."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senators Conner, Peterson and Shinpoch were excused.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Bottiger that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4369.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 8; nays, 37; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Clarke, Craswell, Gallagher, Guess, Haley, McCaslin, Metcalf, von Reichbauer—8.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McDermott, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognilid, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman—37.

Excused: Senators Conner, Peterson, Shinpoch, Talley—4.

The motion by Senator Scott carried.

The Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4369 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

At 1:52 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 4:23 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Messages on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4369.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 24, 1982.

Mr. President: The House insists on its position on the House amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4369 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 24, 1982.

Mr. President: The Speaker has appointed the following members to serve on the Conference Committee for ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4369: Representatives Chandler, Gary Nelson and Sommers.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Clarke moved the request for a conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4369 be granted.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Rule 6 says that, may I read rule 6? 'In case of difference between the two houses upon any subject of legislation, the house refusing to recede shall request a conference and appoint a committee of three for that purpose, and the other house shall grant the request for a conference.'

"Now the rule requires that the request for a conference be granted and I suggest it's not a proper matter for a vote; or if there was a vote, that it would require a suspension of the rules.

"My point, Mr. President, would be that the Senator's request is out of order unless he is moving for a suspension of the rules."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator Clarke made a motion, I requested a roll call vote on his motion. It isn't an automatic thing that we grant because we have the power to ask the House to again recede. He has made the motion that we agree to the conference committee, and we would like a roll call vote on whether we agree or whether we again ask them to recede from their amendment. It seems to me that he made the motion and we are entitled to have a recorded vote on it."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Members of the Senate, in an effort to clarify the situation, the Senate may grant a conference to the House, or refuse to grant a conference and pursue other parliamentary actions such as to concur in the House amendment or again ask the House to recede from its amendment.

"Therefore the request for roll call by Senator Bottiger is in order, if sustained."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. Senator Clarke has tried to characterize this as a procedural vote, but it is basically a policy vote. I asked the majority leader if we could have a hearing on this bill before we sent it back to the House, but she wasn't interested in that. And I know why. It is pretty clear that nobody wants to publicly air this bill. If we had a public hearing and let people come in and testify on this measure, there would be mud all over the house. A high school civics class, in my opinion, could write a better bill in a couple of class hours, than this. It is really a bush-league performance.

"There have been no major hearings on major changes in this bill. You just take one area, the shifting of responsibility to local governments. If you take one little part of that, they want to save $38,000,000 by shifting state programs down to the local level. If you shift the senior citizens program you will lose the senior citizens program. The federal law requires that there be a state plan and a state program. If you are going to throw all the senior citizens' programs in this state to the wind, without having a public hearing on it, people ought to know that you are doing that.

"Now the second thing is the voluntary incentive program. We managed to get a hearing on that and here they were going to save $10,000,000. We got it down to $5,000,000, but the House came back with a program of mandatory vacation. Forty million dollars they are going to save. Now where is the hearing on that? What is that going to do to the program?

"And I can see that my time is getting close and they are standing up. But let me tell you one other thing. Some of you are concerned about ferry workers. You haven't heard about the bill recently, have you? You know why? It's dead. The burial notice is in section 107; there is a substantive law change buried in there to deal with ferry workers because they are not going to pass that bill. They are going to try and slip it through, it will be unconstitutional just like all the other substantive law changes in the budget. There is no need to take this bill seriously. Until the House can do a better job than this, I think we ought to adhere to our position."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I think when a bill is debated on the floor of the House for two full days and nights, that it has been publicly aired. And I don't believe that you can say that the press or anyone else does not know what is in that bill. If you don't agree with that bill, then it is time that we go to a conference and decide what we can do to bring about a situation where the Senate and the House can both agree on this. I think the people of this state are getting tired of having us sit here. They imagine that we are not doing anything and you are taking the rap for it just as well as we are because when I go home I hear, 'Why don't the legislators do something?' And I think it is high time we get this into a conference committee so that we can come to some conclusion."

MOTION

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I move that this bill be rereferred to the committee on ways and means."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "I don't think that is a proper motion. We are now acting pursuant to rule 6 of the joint rules of the House and Senate and the matter is before us pursuant to that rule."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I would assume that any time a bill is before us, that we have the opportunity to make the correct motion to put it where it belongs. And it seems to me that if it is true that this bill has not had a public hearing, if there are people who have not had the opportunity to testify because of the effect of local government, that one of the logical ways to deal with that particular bill would be to put it into a committee where local government people could come and talk about the effect of shifting these programs to local government.

"State employees and agency directors could come and talk about whether or not it is feasible for volunteers to give up their positions on the wall at Walla Walla and to leave the prisons unattended while our prison guards are on voluntary (mandatory) leave.

"I really wonder if this bill should not profit from having it in the ways and means committee and I know that maybe Senator Scott never wants to deal with this particular document, but there are responsible issues, I think here, that we ought to deal with."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, rule 6 does not necessarily apply to this situation. But rule 73 of the Senate rules does, which states, 'A bill may be committed with special instructions to amend at any time before the final vote.' Therefore, the motion by Senator Goltz is not in order inasmuch as the Senate has already had a final vote on the measure."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. Speaking against the Clarke motion.

"Senator Hayner asked, 'What can we do?' You know what we can do — we can adhere to our position that the Senate has made days ago. This is not, as Senator McDermott said, a procedural matter, but a policy matter. When you are going to look at this measure and this measure is going to substantially overhaul, undo whatever measure you sent over there, that is a policy matter. When you limit special development disability training for people over 60, that is a policy matter. When you transfer DD centers to the county, that is a policy matter. When you transfer home aid to the county, that is a policy matter. When you eliminate funds for the unskilled extended shelter employment slot, that is a policy matter. When you implement waiting lists and reduce clients, close eight small DVR offices, cut case workers, that is a policy matter. When you begin to eliminate all these programs at a time when people most need them, you begin to cut back on those services that they need, that is a policy matter.

"And your members over there are people that don't want to vote for these kinds of policy decisions ought to not support you on your so-called parliamentary procedure.

"I think it is something that you know what we ought to do. When we were on this floor on the budget days ago, it was indicated to you at that time, that members on this side had voted on a level of cuts and it would be very difficult for members on this side that had voted for those level of cuts, to vote for higher level of cuts.

"You know and I know if this bill goes into conference, whatever you come out with is going to be somewhat different, if not substantially different from what we sent over there. So you ought to be prepared for those consequences.

"Yes, we want to do something. We think that budget that you sent over there, many of us didn't like it; but many people feel as though that is the best we could get and they were willing to vote for that.

"Now why don't you adhere to your position. Take your budget, pass that level of budget, and then get on the business about the revenue that will go along with that budget and we can go home and take care of the people's business."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CHARNLEY

Senator Charnley: "Thank you Mr. President. I would like to suggest to the majority that among other things that they are accomplishing by caving in on this point is the concern that you have expressed, of giving up the concern you have expressed in the past about the extent and opportunity for higher education. Just take the community college and voc-tech school levels, which is the entry level. For most of the citizens, a good number of the citizens of our state, you would be going on past post-high school education and every one of you has been taxed by this. It will result in around an 8½% reduction in the teaching faculty, full-time teaching faculty in those institutions. That will mean thousands and thousands more students will not have the opportunity to take advantage, or any hope of taking advantage of that choice. And I know some of you over there campaigned on the position that you would not stand idly by and see your community colleges in your district further damaged by decisions made in this legislature. And I would remind you of those words, they are going to come back and haunt you.

"I would suggest, as Senator Fleming pointed out, that if you cave in on this and allow the conference committee to meet, that the 105 million cut that you felt was the proper cut, is out the window. You are going to be lucky if you see less than 200 million cut as a result of the conference. And that means damage at all levels and all services."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate.

"I can't emphasize more strongly how this is not a mere procedural vote which I know allows the Republican caucus to be locked up, but rather it is a substantive vote. Senator Hayner, in effect, asked us for bi-partisan assistance and yet on this procedural vote which is critical, so called procedural vote which is critical to the substance of the issue, this party has locked up and that is the way it is going to be. I would submit to you that on the conference committee vote, you are going to see straight party lines; I would submit to you that when this budget emerges from conference, when the tax package finally comes forward, when the budget itself is final, you are not going to see a whole lot of assistance if this is going to be your position, that on this kind of major issue, you are going to cave in and you are going to do it in a straight partisan way, and expect to have assistance from this side of the aisle.

"It's a tacit admission that the majority on the other side is not really a majority at all.

"When I say the vote on the conference is something substantive, we know this means cuts in education, additionally; cuts in higher education, additionally; cuts in state employees' salaries and so forth, additionally; and cuts in social services to the extent that we are going to set up a local option social service system.

"Now we on this side, wonder what happened to all those so-called Lincoln Republicans or moderate-to-liberal Republicans. I suspect that their constituencies are not going to be fooled by what it is that is happening here.

"Senator Gould has talked about education issues, the education people are not going to be fooled by this vote. This is substantive vote. Senator Hemstad, state employees are not going to be fooled by this vote; they are going to know what it means. Senator Kiskaddon's friends in the social service system are not going to be fooled. The budget is going to come out of that conference committee in a worse shape that it is right now. It is something to be avoided at all costs.

"The Senate set the policy; we debated the issue, a lot of us didn't agree with that level but that is the level that this body arrived at, and that is the level that we should stick with."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, if I could, a point of order.

"Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object with respect to the House amendment to this Senate bill; if I could speak to the point."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Scope and object doesn't apply to the omnibus appropriation measure, Senator."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I would raise the point with respect to those substantive issues that are outside the scope of the normal omnibus appropriations act. In specific, those issues relating to ferry workers' employment, those issues relating to the substantive abolition of the commission for the blind and the community affairs and planning agency of the state of Washington. I believe those issues are outside the scope of an omnibus appropriations bill and certainly would raise the issue of scope and object with respect to this legislation."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Not in the opinion of the President, Senator Talmadge."

The legislature hereby authorizes the wagering on the outcome of the roll of dice or the flipping of or matching of coins on the premises of an establishment engaged in the business of selling food or beverages for consumption on the premises to determine (i) which of the participants will pay for certain items of food or beverages served or sold by such establishment and therein consumed, or (ii) whether the establishment or the patron will pay for records selected by the patron for play from the list in any jukebox on the premises. Such establishments are hereby authorized to possess dice and dice cups on their premises, but only for use in such limited wagering. Persons engaged in such limited form of wagering shall not be subject to the criminal or civil penalties otherwise provided for in this chapter: PROVIDED, That minors shall be barred from engaging in the wagering activities allowed by this chapter.

which does not conduct or allow its premises to be used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week and which does not conduct bingo in any location which is used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week, or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than twelve consecutive days in any calendar year, and except in the case of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a bona fide member or an employee of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of said game takes any part in the management or operation of any game conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization, unless approved by the commission, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game. For the purposes of this subsection the organization shall be deemed to be principally located in the county within which it has its primary business office. If the organization has no business office, the organization shall be deemed to be located in the county of principal residence of its chief executive officer: PROVIDED, That any organization which is conducting any licensed and established bingo game in any locale as of January 1, 1981 shall be exempt from the requirement that such game be conducted in the county in which the organization is principally located.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means: (a) any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, or any nonprofit organization, whether incorporated or otherwise, when found by the commission to be organized and operating for one or more of the aforesaid purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter; or (b) any corporation which has been incorporated under Title 36 U.S.C. and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. ~~((Such))~~ Except for a political campaign committee who has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office, an organization must have been organized and continuously operating for at least twelve calendar months immediately preceding making application for any license to operate a gambling activity, or the operation of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter for which no license is required. Except for a political campaign committee who has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office, it must have not less than fifteen bona fide active members each with the right to an equal vote in the election of the officers(~~and~~) or board members, if any, who determine the policies of the organization in order to receive a gambling license. Such an organization must demonstrate to the commission that it has made significant progress toward the accomplishment of the purposes of the organization during the twelve consecutive month period preceding the date of application for a license or license renewal. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Any person, association or organization which pays its employees, including members, compensation other than is reasonable therefor under the local prevailing wage scale shall be deemed paying compensation based in part or whole upon receipts relating to gambling activities authorized under this chapter and shall not be a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this chapter.

The commission may by rule establish guidelines and criteria for applying this definition to its applicants and licensees for gambling activities authorized by this chapter as commercial stimulants.

(6) "Commission" means the Washington state gambling commission created in RCW 9.46.040.

(7) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

(8) "Fishing derby" means a fishing contest, with or without the payment or giving of an entry fee or other consideration by some or all of the contestants wherein prizes are awarded for the species, size, weight, or quality of fish caught in a bona fide fishing or recreational event.

(9) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include fishing derbies as defined by this chapter, parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance. In addition, a contest of chance which is specifically excluded from the definition of lottery under subsection (14) of this section shall not constitute gambling.

(10) "Gambling device" means: (a) Any device or mechanism the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won or a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, and which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device: PROVIDED FURTHER, That owning, possessing, buying, selling, renting, leasing, financing, holding a security interest in, storing, repairing and transporting such pinball machines or similar mechanical amusement devices shall not be deemed engaging in professional gambling for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be a violation of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any fee for the purchase or rental of any such pinball machines or similar amusement devices shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put but be based only upon the market value of any such machine, regardless of the location of or type of premises where used, and any fee for the storing, repairing and transporting thereof shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put, but be commensurate with the cost of labor and other expenses incurred in any such storing, repairing and transporting.

(11) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

(12) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. (13) "Gambling record" means any record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation given, made, used or intended to be used in connection with professional gambling.

(14) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following activities do not constitute "valuable consideration" as an element of a lottery:

(a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program or subscribing to a cable television service;

(b) Filling out and returning a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is received through the mail or published in a bona fide newspaper or magazine, or in a program sold in conjunction with and at a regularly scheduled sporting event, or the purchase of such a newspaper, magazine or program;

(c) Sending a coupon or entry blank by United States mail to a designated address in connection with a promotion conducted in this state;

(d) Visitation to any business establishment to obtain a coupon, or entry blank;

(e) Mere registration without purchase of goods or services;

(f) Expenditure of time, thought, attention and energy in perusing promotional material;

(g) Placing or answering a telephone call in a prescribed manner or otherwise making a prescribed response or answer;

(h) Furnishing the container of any product as packaged by the manufacturer, or a particular portion thereof but only if furnishing a plain piece of paper or card with the name of the manufacturer or product handwritten on it is acceptable in lieu thereof: PROVIDED, That where any drawing is held by or on behalf of in-state retail outlets in connection with business promotions authorized under subsections (d) and (e) hereof, no such in-state retail outlet may conduct more than one such drawing during each calendar year and the period of the drawing and its promotion shall not extend for more than seven consecutive days: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the sponsoring organization has more than one outlet in the state such drawings must be held in all such outlets at the same time except that a sponsoring organization with more than one outlet may conduct a separate drawing in connection with the initial opening of any such outlet; or

(i) The payment of an admission fee to gain admission to any agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW where (i) the scheme is conducted for promotional or advertising purposes, not including the promotion or advertisement of the scheme itself; and (ii) the person or organization conducting the scheme receives no portion of the admission fee either directly or indirectly and receives no other money for conducting the scheme either directly or indirectly, other than what might be received indirectly as a result of the success of the promotional or advertising aspect of the scheme.

For purposes of this chapter, radio and television broadcasting is hereby declared to be preempted by applicable federal statutes and the rules applicable thereto by the federal communications commission. Broadcast programming, including advertising and promotion, that complies with said federal statutes and regulations is hereby authorized.

(15) "Member" and "bona fide member". As used in this chapter, member and bona fide member each mean a person accepted for membership in an organization eligible to be licensed by the commission under this chapter upon application, with such action being recorded in the official minutes of a regular meeting or who has held full and regular membership status in the organization for a period of not less than twelve consecutive months prior to participating in the management or operation of any gambling activity. Member and bona fide member shall also mean a person who participates on a political campaign committee which has filed with the public disclosure commission for a candidate who has duly filed for public office if that person is identified as such to the commission by the political candidate prior to the operation of any activity authorized under this chapter. Such membership must in no way be dependent upon, or in any way related to, the payment of consideration to participate in any gambling activity.

Member or bona fide member shall include only members of an organization's specific chapter or unit licensed by the commission or otherwise actively conducting the gambling activity: PROVIDED, That

(a) Members of chapters or local units of a state, regional or national organization may be considered members of the parent organization for the purpose of a gambling activity conducted by the parent organization, if the rules of the parent organization so permit; (~~and~~)

(b) Members of a bona fide auxiliary to a principal organization may be considered members of the principal organization for the purpose of a gambling activity conducted by the principal organization. Members of the principal organization may also be considered members of its auxiliary for the purpose of a gambling activity conducted by the auxiliary; and

(c) Members of any chapter or local unit within the jurisdiction of the next higher level of the parent organization may assist any other chapter or local unit of that same organization licensed by the commission in the conduct of gambling activities.

No person shall be a member of any organization if that person's primary purpose for membership is to become, or continue to be, a participant in, or an operator or manager of, any gambling activity or activities.

(16) "Player" means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant or bettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in this section is not a "player".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Goltz, on page 14 of your amendment, the bottom lines 32 to 39, I would like to have you go over and explain precisely what that does. In my view I am very much concerned about that, relative to the parent organization."

Senator Goltz: "Senator Metcalf, what this means is that a fraternal organization where they start a new organization, that is, another chapter, or they call it a 'sibling' organization, the parent organization or the senior organization will be able to go over and assist them so they do these things right.

"The gambling commission is very strict about how these gambling activities occur even within the fraternal organization, and new organizations are sometimes at a loss without experience, to really do this according to the rules and regulations of the gambling commission.

"So this is an effort to bring that kind of expertise to the sibling organization."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Senator Goltz, to go a little further on this particular subject. My interpretation of this would mean that if the Spokane Rotary wanted to have a casino night at Ocean Shores, under the current situation, they have to have their own members over there running it. With this amendment they would be allowed to have the Ocean Shores' Rotary members run it. Would that be an appropriate interpretation?"

Senator Goltz: "I am not absolutely sure about that but my understanding is not that it would permit that, that we are really talking about a senior organization running it for a junior organization, and I don't know whether it has anything to do with Ocean Shores or not."

Senator Gould: "Well, the interpretation that was given to me by staff was that it would allow that, and from that I would extrapolate to say that that increases the potential of rolling casino nights at, say, Ocean Shores or any other place where they have casino nights because every Rotary could then have, or I hate to pick on the Rotary, but every organization of that sort could have a member from their organization in that community, set up and run a casino night in that area, and I find that difficult. I understand that Senator Metcalf has an amendment to"

Senator Goltz: "If that is the case, it was not my understanding that that is true and I would not be in favor of that kind of ongoing gambling activity in one location in the name of sibling organizations."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Goltz:

On page 14, strike lines 32-39.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Goltz, you mentioned, in regard to this language on page 14, that this would allow parent organizations to assist in order to be sure that they didn't transgress against the gambling commission rules and regulations, and I am wondering if there is anything within the other language of the amendment, that would prohibit anything short of actual participation in the conduct of the gambling activity by members of a parent organization? In other words, they would be able to assist in filling out the forms and being sure that the routines were properly followed; that the regulations were properly implemented; and I assume your concern was for them actually acting actively within that activity."

Senator Goltz: "I am not quite sure how to answer that but as far as I know, they would already have the opportunity to assist in those other ways."

Senator Ridder: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Metcalf to the amendment by Senator Goltz.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 23; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Gallagher, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, Metcalf, Rasmussen, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Zimmerman—20.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Haley, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Ridder, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Woody—23.

Absent or not voting: Senators Pullen, Shinpoch—2.

Excused: Senators Hayner, McDermott, Scott, Talley—4.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Quigg was excused.

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Goltz:

On page 19, line 26, following "of" strike "one" and insert "~~(one)~~ two"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Vognild, I was prepared to support this, but when you said it went from one dollar to two dollars, that clicked in my mind, that's 100% increase. That seems to be well beyond inflation and it seems to me this might be a place where we can hold the line on inflation."

Senator Vognild: "Senator Lysen, I said it went from one dollar to two dollars, 100%. I also said that their license fee went from $500 to $2000, that's 400% that they have suffered."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Vognild, what would you say is the average take from card rooms, and what are you increasing their take as far as the average card room that you are familiar with?"

Senator Vognild: "I haven't done any mathematics on it."

Senator Zimmerman: "You haven't."

Senator Vognild: "No I haven't, Senator Zimmerman, I couldn't make an estimate on that for you."

Senator Zimmerman: "I can tell you the procedure to figure it out."

Senator Vognild: "You'd multiply your. . . . Yes, five tables allowed in there, you have eight chairs to a table so you have potentially forty people that could play. You are looking at $40 a half hour under the present bill, $80 a half hour under the increase here."

Senator Zimmerman: "How many hours are most of them open a day?"

Senator Vognild: "Well, they are bound by, they are 50% trade stimulant and 50% from gambling which we failed to change, which is going to put quite a few in your area out of business. So I really couldn't tell you; I suppose the technical hours would perhaps be as many as ten or twelve hours. I suspect, in reality, that most of them are considerably less than that."

Senator Zimmerman: "How many days a week? Are they open every day?"

Senator Vognild: "I presume."

Senator Zimmerman: "I guess I am just simply saying if there is a fairly heavy increase in your . . . with a 100% increase that Senator Lysen mentioned, and I think the fact that this amendment is offered along with the other amendments, would indicate that this bill still has a great deal of significance, apparently, despite the fact that it was a simple little bill that was going to help one area only. I guess we are still pretty reluctant to see it passed."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Lysen, you are a man who is a student of pricing and rates and things like that. If the rate for a service or a product was increased by 100%, would you consider that the consumption of that service or product would increase or decrease?"

Senator Lysen: "Well, my limited knowledge of the economic field would, I have always followed price elasticity, has been the key component here. But I would think that if something goes up in price, for example, electricity goes up two or three times, you will have a corresponding decrease, in fact, natural gas prices went up two or three times, four or five years ago, and we had a one-third decline in the natural gas consumption here in the northwest.

"And electricity seems to be the same situation here for local consumption.

"However, overseas exports of aluminum have increased many times; we have just exported twenty thousand tons of aluminum, cheap hydro power, to foreign countries, which will come back in the form of Datsuns and engine blocks, and so forth."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Woody and Wojahn to the amendment by Senator Goltz, as amended:

On page 25, following line 21, insert a new section to read as follows: "section 11, chapter 166, Laws of 1975 first ex. sess. are each amended to read as follows:

Any county, city or town which collects a tax on gambling activities authorized pursuant to RCW 9.46.110 shall use the revenue from such tax ((primarily)) solely for the purpose of enforcement of the provisions of this chapter by the county, city or town law enforcement agency."

Debate ensued.

Senator Woody demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Woody and Wojahn to the amendment by Senator Goltz, as amended.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 7; nays, 36; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bluechel, Conner, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Wojahn, Woody—7.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lysen, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson, Zimmerman—36.

Absent or not voting: Senator Pullen—1.

Excused: Senators Hayner, McDermott, Quigg, Scott, Talley—5.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Vognild: "I ask for this opportunity to enter in the record that my 'no' vote on this was a matter of preferring to leave the present language in and allowing the present possible challenges by way of court action, to stand. It in no way reflects my vote as a legislator that I do not believe that the primary purpose of this tax should go to law enforcement."

On motion of Senator Goltz, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1102, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate on reconsideration, by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4992, by Senators Hayner and Scott:

Modifying tax advisory council.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Scott moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Scott, Bauer and McDermott:

On page 2, after line 15, insert the following:

"Sec. . . . Section 5, chapter 58, Laws of 1971 and RCW 19.10.240 are each amended to read as follows:

All references to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall include ~~((future amendments to such sections and corresponding provisions of future internal revenue laws))~~ all amendments thereto adopted by the Congress of the United States on or before the effective date of this 1982 amendatory section."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Scott, maybe I wasn't quite ready for it, but I would like to have you go over again, relative to the large, tax-free foundations that we're talking about and they were required to pay 5% of their, I suppose their net, and now that requirement is being removed, is that . . . ?"

Senator Scott: "It has been removed. The '75 charitable reform act, the federals' passed, said that every year charitable trusts had to pay out at least 5% of their principal or risk losing their charitable status. Last year the Congress revised it back to how it had been prior to 1975, so the trusts can pay out any amount on a given year they can manage it. They can pay out 2% one year and 10% the next year if their portfolio indicates that that is the best management. There is no requirement that they pay out 5% every year.

"And in the interim, there was a case in our own state where the court said that in acquiescing to the 1975 federal act, there was an unconstitutional delegation of our legislature's authority, so this amendment gets us back in line with the revised federal act and away from the mandatory provisions of the 1975 to the 1981 federal act."

Senator Metcalf: "And then the second question: what would happen if we didn't have this amendment on this bill? What is the effect of not having it?"

Senator Scott: "We would still be crosswise with federal law and crosswise with our own Constitution."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ZIMMERMAN

Senator Zimmerman: "Mr. President, members, it also would be said to be some foundations that are doing a tremendous job in this state that would be very adversely affected by the people that they are trying to help and are giving funds to. Right here at the present time, some of those, Murdock Foundation in Vancouver, for example, very definitely would have an adverse effect . . . and my people would be hurt in the long run. Very important . . ."

The motion by Senator Scott carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Scott, the following amendment by Senators Scott, Bauer and McDermott to the title was adopted:

On page 1, on line 5 of the title, after ".020," insert "amending section 5, chapter 58, Laws of 1971 and RCW 19.10.240;"

On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4992 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Scott, I don't disagree with what you said but I was particularly interested in your comments about the need for a well-balanced group to review our tax structure and I wanted to know if there were any representatives of any taxpayer groups or taxpayer associations on this council?"

Senator Scott: "Senator Pullen, eleven members are to be appointed by the Governor representing major segments of the state economy and at least one is to be chosen from each of the eight congressional districts. The President and the Speaker will each appoint two members, one from each of the four caucuses of the legislature."

Revising laws relating to retirement from public service.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, there was an amendment prepared which was sponsored with bipartisan support but I understand that you don't want to consider this? Mr. President, would Senator Hayner yield to a question?"

"Senator Hayner, when this bill went over to the House before, an amendment was attached to it in the House that would permit the borrowing of the teachers' retirement system funds for purposes of balancing budget. I would like to know if you understand that is the plan again or if I have some assurance from you that if such was done that it would be opposed by both sides of the aisle?"

Senator Hayner: "It is not my understanding that there is any intention of putting that amendment on again. The amendment to which you refer there, the other amendment that is being considered, or that would be considered here, is the one that they are talking about over there. We just want to get this out of here right now."

Senator Bottiger: "Perhaps I didn't state my question correctly. Is it our understanding that we would oppose, both sides of the aisle, oppose an amendment that might be proposed in the House to allow the borrowing of these funds for purposes of balanced budget?"

Senator Hayner: "Yes."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved the rules be suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4640 be returned to second reading.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Before I vote on this I would like to have an explanation, if that is possible, as to the purpose of the amendment and what we would have under consideration if we move it back."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. There are two amendments presently on the desks, one sponsored by Senators Newhouse, Shinpoch, Scott and Lysen to page 45, following line 9 of the bill that relates to the question of accrued vacation leave and so forth. Another amendment on page 46 following line 1, by Senators Talmadge, Vognild, Gaspard, Ridder, Williams and Moore, which would establish a commission to study the LEOFF II system. In particular this is a follow-up to the issue that was before the body the other day in discussing the budget, the injured firefighter, Marion Gray, and all of the expressions of concern by people on both sides of the aisle about the need to study the whole system of LEOFF II and this commission was an opportunity for people to tangibly express their views with respect to the need to study the LEOFF system rather than simply talk them up on the floor."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, does this require a two-thirds vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675 and has granted said committee the powers of Free conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 26, 1982.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675, as amended by the House, modifying the funding method for pupil transportation, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we cannot agree and request powers of Free Conference in order to recommend the following: That the House amendment not be adopted and the following substitute amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41-.162 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with (~~RCW 28A.41.160~~) this chapter, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Each district's annual student transportation allocation shall be based on differential rates determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the following manner:

(1) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard student mile allocation rate for each district. "Standard student mile allocation rate," as used in this (~~section~~) chapter, means the per mile allocation rate for transporting an eligible student. The standard student mile allocation rate may consist of no more than (~~five~~) eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall include but not be limited to such factors as climate and terrain; restricted passenger load; nonpassenger miles; and the costs of insurance, district or contracted employee salaries, and benefits, maintenance, fuel, supplies, and materials to the extent that they are not under the direct control of the district. The standard student mile allocation rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(1).

shall use the average number of miles reported by the district for the two school years, excluding field trips.

(3) Prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, and the committees on education and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives a report outlining the methodology and rationale used in determining the student mile and unit mile rates to be used the following year.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the preliminary, estimated student transportation allocation for each district and notify districts of their preliminary student transportation allocation by June 15. ~~((The superintendent shall include not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated student transportation allocation in the following September apportionment payment to school districts.))~~ By the following October 15th, every district shall notify the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary student transportation allocation. The superintendent shall then make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final student transportation allocation before the following December 1st ~~((and shall make the balance of the student transportation allocation in approximately equal parts as a part of the December, February, and April apportionment payments to school districts)).~~ If the number of eligible students in a school district changes ten percent or more from the final October 15 number, and the change is maintained for a period of twenty consecutive school days or more, the district may submit revised eligible student data to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent shall, to the extent funds are available, recalculate the district's allocation for the transportation of pupils to and from school.

The superintendent shall make the student transportation allocation in accordance with the apportionment payment schedule in RCW 28A.48.010, as now or hereafter amended. For the 1982-83 school year, no school district shall receive a reduction or increase in funds of over three percent of what it received the previous year as adjusted to its proportional share of funds appropriated by the legislature for 1982-83 transportation services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature which shall:

(1) Identify the factors that will be used to recognize cost differentials between districts, and the data elements that will be used to measure the factors that contribute to these cost differentials;

(2) Collect the appropriate financial and workload data necessary to measure cost differentials between districts;

(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;

(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the "eligible student" definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one-half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students;

(5) Present a method of measuring potential ridership of eligible students within the formula utilizing factors which account for the variations associated with student demand on the district's transportation system;

(6) Compare the distribution of pupil transportation resources utilizing eligible student data, eligible student data modified by the student demand factor specified in (5) above, and eligible students actually transported plus ten percent, with an analysis of the fiscal and program implications of each distribution method; and

(7) Present options for a continued phase-in of the eligible student allocation formula, with a description of the fiscal impact on school districts.

The report shall be submitted to the senate and house committees on education no later than December 15, 1982.

All data collected by the superintendent and requested by the committees on ways and means or education of the house or senate pertaining to the funding of pupil transportation shall be delivered to the legislative evaluation and accountability program (LEAP) as soon as possible in a machine readable form acceptable to the LEAP committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Sections 2 and 3 of this amendatory act shall take effect September 1, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On line 1 of the title after "transportation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert the following "amending section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.162; amending section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520; amending section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525; creating new sections; repealing section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified); and providing an effective date."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 26, 1982.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4675, as amended by the House, modifying the funding method for pupil transportation, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the House amendment not be adopted and the following substitute amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41-.162 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with (~~RCW 28A.41.160~~) this chapter, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Each district's annual student transportation allocation shall be based on differential rates determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the following manner:

(1) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard student mile allocation rate for each district. "Standard student mile allocation rate," as used in this ~~((section))~~ chapter, means the per mile allocation rate for transporting an eligible student. The standard student mile allocation rate may consist of no more than ~~((five))~~ eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall include but not be limited to such factors as climate and terrain; restricted passenger load; nonpassenger miles; and the costs of insurance, district or contracted employee salaries, and benefits, maintenance, fuel, supplies, and materials to the extent that they are not under the direct control of the district. The standard student mile allocation rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(1).

(2) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard unit mile rate for each district. "Standard unit mile rate," as used in this section, means the cost of operating an approved transportation vehicle for one mile. The standard unit mile rate may consist of no more than ~~((five))~~ eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall be based on the factors used in subsection (1) of this section. The standard unit mile rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(2) and (3). For purposes of allocating funds for RCW 28A.41.505(2), the superintendent shall use the average number of miles reported by the district for the two school years, excluding field trips.

(3) Prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, and the committees on education and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives a report outlining the methodology and rationale used in determining the student mile and unit mile rates to be used the following year.

The superintendent shall determine the preliminary, estimated student transportation allocation for each district and notify districts of their preliminary student transportation allocation by June 15. ~~((The superintendent shall include not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated student transportation allocation in the following September apportionment payment to school districts.))~~ By the following October 15th, every district shall notify the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary student transportation allocation. The superintendent shall then make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final student transportation allocation before the following December 1st ~~((and shall make the balance of the student transportation allocation in approximately equal parts as a part of the December, February, and April apportionment payments to school districts))~~. If the number of eligible students in a school district changes ten percent or more from the final October 15 number, and the change is maintained for a period of twenty consecutive school days or more, the district may submit revised eligible student data to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent shall, to the extent funds are available, recalculate the district's allocation for the transportation of pupils to and from school.

The superintendent shall make the student transportation allocation in accordance with the apportionment payment schedule in RCW 28A.48.010, as now or hereafter amended. (2) Collect the appropriate financial and workload data necessary to measure cost differentials between districts;

(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;

(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the "eligible student" definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one-half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students;

(5) Present a method of measuring potential ridership of eligible students within the formula utilizing factors which account for the variations associated with student demand on the district's transportation system;

(6) Compare the distribution of pupil transportation resources utilizing eligible student data, eligible student data modified by the student demand factor specified in (5) above, and eligible students actually transported plus ten percent, with an analysis of the fiscal and program implications of each distribution method; and

(7) Present options for a continued phase-in of the eligible student allocation formula, with a description of the fiscal impact on school districts.

The report shall be submitted to the senate and house committees on education no later than December 15, 1982.

All data collected by the superintendent and requested by the committees on ways and means or education of the house or senate pertaining to the funding of pupil transportation shall be delivered to the legislative evaluation and accountability program (LEAP) as soon as possible in a machine readable form acceptable to the LEAP committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this amendatory act shall take effect September 1, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTION

Senator Benitz moved the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4748 be adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, could I inquire if the free conference report on 4748 has laid on the desks the appropriate time, twenty-four hours? The reason I ask that question, Mr. President, we, of course, will work on no wine until it is properly aged before its time, but also to bring to the attention of the conference and free conference committees that we do have rules that would specify a free conference report must lay on the desk for twenty-four hours before being adopted."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, the bill has aged twenty-four hours but it has not been aged thirty-six hours as required by the rules."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is my understanding that in the last days of the session only takes twenty-four hours or thirty-six hours"

President Cherberg: "Budget bill twenty-four hours, this bill thirty-six."

Senator Rasmussen: "It has not aged long enough then?"

President Cherberg: "It could be waived, Senator, if you don't mind 'waiving' before your time."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended to waive the 36-hour requirement for consideration of the Free Conference report on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4748.

The motion by Senator Benitz carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4748 was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Vognild, I heard rumors around this chambers and throughout that there was a special interest called the 'Godfather's Pizza' people that wanted an amendment on this bill. Does this amended bill now contain that particular amendment?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, it does, Senator. It contains some restrictive language as well. In restricting, an importer or wholesaler not licensed in this state, they may not hold a majority financial interest in any Class A license retail business, and they may not hold even a partial interest in any more than ten such retail licenses."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Benitz, do you know anything about this 'Godfather Pizza' deal that was referred to by Senator Wojahn?"

Senator Benitz: "Senator Rasmussen, I know what is in the bill. I am not very pleased with it and I would hope that it does not become a part of the bill in the final analysis. I think it is a slight revision of what we call the 'Tied House' amendment to the statutes and it is probably not the best way to go. I don't see anything really wrong with it but I question whether or not it will make it all the way through.

"We do need the first part of the bill and as you sometimes happen to get some decoration and that is what has happened here; we were not able to wipe it off, that is the reason for the free conference committee and it is simply before us and I ask that you bear with us and I think it will finally not survive."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, this is the free conference report, isn't it?"

Senator Benitz: "Yes, but there is one other agency has to act on it before it goes into law."

Senator Rasmussen: "The wine aged too much, Mr. President. As I understand it, Senator Benitz, this is the law once we adopt it. This is the report of the free conference committee that we are adopting and everything that is in here will be part of the law."

Senator Benitz: "Yes, Senator Rasmussen, but the executive still has to act on it."

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't know how much he knows about wine. I have one more question, Senator Benitz. If I have a political campaign committee and been organized for six months as most of our campaign committees are, I could get some winery to come in and have a wine-tasting party if I could get somebody to donate the cheese also?"

Senator Benitz: "No, not under this bill. You would have to be organized for the specific purpose of the study of enology, or the study of viticulture, and political committees are not very interested in either of those two rather dry subjects."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Benitz."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Ridder, Senator Williams was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4748, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer—29.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Gaspard, Goltz, Lysen, McCaslin, Metcalf, Pullen, Rasmussen, Shinpoch, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman—13.

Absent or not voting: Senators Craswell, Gould, McDermott, Quigg—4.

Excused: Senators Hughes, Talley, Williams—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4748, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley: "Thank you, Mr. President. The members of this body will be pleased by some good news — but there is also some bad news.

"The good news is that McNeil Island now has a herd of cattle to occupy the beautiful, somewhere around eleven hundred acres of fine farmland, and to put the very much up-to-date dairy facilities to work and to put many prisoners to work. This, we hope, is the first of very extensive farm programs to be held and taken care of at McNeil Island. And we hope we'll put many prisoners to work and be living in the area where the government formerly had the people working on the farm there, and that those quarters will be renewed. And we should be congratulating the department of corrections and Mr. Amos Reed for doing this and also the fact that they are in the process of building prison industries there at McNeil, that we'll be taking over the former prison industries that were existing when the Feds had it.

"But the bad news is that there are still about 1200 prisoners in our system that have absolutely no productive work for them to do, and also that there are still only about 300 prisoners who are at work in our prison industries' program. And we hope cross our fingers that we don't have any more violence and rioting going on that kills and injures people and destroys millions of dollars worth of state property. And I personally feel it is a shame that we've been so busy this short 60-day session and now the special session, but fiscal matters that we have not had time to consider the bill which is residing in social and health services committee that would allow our prison industries to sell the products that are made in the open market. You know they do not have the authority to do that; and I hope that the next session, this body will consider that issue and hopefully allow prison industries to provide products to be sold at large.

"Thank you for the opportunity to speak on this motion of personal privilege."

MOTION

At 9:20 a.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

"AN ACT Relating to watercraft; adding a new chapter to title 82 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 84.36 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 88 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. An excise tax is imposed for the privilege of using a vessel for which a registration fee is required under chapter 88. RCW (sections 6 through 13 of this act), except vessels covered by a dealer's registration number under this chapter. The annual amount of the excise tax is one percent of fair market value, as determined under this chapter.

The excise tax upon a vessel registered for the first time in this state shall be imposed only for the remaining months of the year, including the month in which the vessel is registered. A vessel is registered for the first time in this state when the vessel was not registered in this state for the immediately preceding year, or when the vessel was registered in another jurisdiction for the immediately preceding year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The excise tax imposed under this chapter is due and payable to the department of licensing or its agents at the time of registration of a vessel. The department of licensing shall not issue or renew a registration for a vessel until the tax is paid in full.

The excise tax collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of revenue shall prepare at least once each year a schedule for use in the collection of the excise tax imposed by this chapter. The schedule shall be based upon information available to the department of revenue pertaining to the fair market value of vessels. The vessels may be classified into a convenient number of classes on the basis of purchase price, make, type, length, year of manufacture, year of purchase, or any other reasonable basis, and to the value of vessels within the classes as thus determined shall be applied the rate of tax. In determining fair market value, the department of revenue may use any guidebook, report, or compendium of recognized standing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever a person applies for a registration for a vessel which does not appear upon the schedule, the applicant shall apply to the county assessor of the applicant's county for computation of the amount of excise tax due. Upon application, the assessor shall appraise the vessel at its fair market value from such guidebooks or listings or other information as the assessor may have available and ascertain the amount of excise tax by applying to such appraisal the rate of the tax under this chapter and thereupon the applicant shall be given a certificate showing the excise tax payable under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All ships and vessels registered in the state under chapter 88. RCW (sections 6 through 13 of this 1982 act) and all vessels under sixteen feet in length or whose primary propulsion is human power are exempt from all ad valorem taxes beginning with 1982 assessments for taxes due and payable in 1983.

(5) Vessels used as a ship's tender or lifeboat;

(6) Vessels whose exclusive purpose is related to a commercial enterprise; and

(7) Vessels under sixteen feet in length or whose primary propulsion is human power.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department shall provide for the issuance of vessel registrations and may appoint agents for collecting fees and issuing registration numbers and decals. Fees for vessel registrations collected by the director shall be deposited in the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Application for a vessel registration shall be made to the department or its authorized agent in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. The application shall state the name and address of each owner of the vessel, shall identify the manufacturer and model number of each motor used to propel the vessel, shall be signed by at least one owner, and shall be accompanied by a vessel registration fee and the excise tax imposed under chapter 82.____ RCW (sections 1 through 4 of this act). The fee shall be five dollars for each vessel.

Upon receipt of the application and the registration fee, the department shall assign a registration number and issue a decal for each vessel. The registration number and decal shall be affixed to the vessel in a manner prescribed by the department. A valid decal affixed as prescribed shall indicate compliance with the annual registration requirements of this chapter.

The vessel registrations and decals are valid for a period of one year. Vessel registrations are renewable every year in a manner prescribed by the department upon payment of the vessel registration fee and excise tax. Upon renewing a vessel registration, the department shall issue a new decal to be affixed as prescribed by the department.

A person acquiring a vessel already validly registered under this chapter shall, within fifteen days of the acquisition or purchase of the vessel, apply to the department or its authorized agent for transfer of the vessel registration, and the application shall be accompanied by a transfer fee of one dollar.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Each dealer of vessels in this state shall register with the department in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. Upon receipt of a dealer's application for registration and the registration fee provided for in subsection (2) of this section, the dealer shall be registered and a registration number assigned.

(3) Dealer registration numbers are nontransferable.

(4) Section 7 of this act does not apply to any dealer or employee or prospective customer of the dealer with respect to any vessel covered by the dealer's registration number and used for a business purpose of the dealer, such as a demonstration vessel or for purposes of testing or making repairs.

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Hurley:

On page 2, section 8, strike all of subsection (7)

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Vognild failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The motion by Senator Hurley carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hurley, do I understand that under this bill a person will have to get a decal from the state license department or the department of revenue?"

Senator Hurley: "I think it is the license department."

Senator Rasmussen: "My second question is, at the present time that they have power on the boat, they have to get a Coast Guard number also. So you would have to have the state decal and then the Coast Guard number also. Is that correct?"

Senator Hurley: "Being a landlubber and I am just not sure about Coast Guard requirements, but I know their fee is extremely low, especially when you consider the value of some of the yachts and large boats.

"I think the $250 fee is extremely reasonable also when you consider that for years and years and years no tax at all has been paid by these expensive pieces of equipment and I, of course, would prefer a higher rate but the 1% rate was agreed upon. I think they are coming off very, very easy."

Senator Rasmussen: "I just wondered, I have gotten along without a tax on my gold tooth for a long time, I would hate to have them catch up with me."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEE

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, the question as to whether or not there would need to be two registration numbers, one issued by the U.S. Coast Guard and one with the state of Washington. My understanding, when we were looking at this bill a number of years ago, and by the way, it is one I have always supported . . . boat registration . . . and the state taking over that job is that when the state does have a registration plan in place it substitutes for the Coast Guard's registration of pleasure boats; and that is true in nearly all states except two or three and we are one of those very few states. The Coast Guard, in fact, has been after us for years to take over that kind of responsibility, and maybe this is one of the things that we can do to help along the new Federalism."

On motion of Senator Hurley, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4688 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4688, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 15; nays, 32; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4399, by Senator Shinpoch:

Relating to equalization of timber taxes on public and private property.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Timber county" means any county within which timber is located.

(2) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.071 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the appropriate rate as follows:

For timber harvested between October 1, 1974 and June 30, 1983, inclusive, six and one-half percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Harvester" means every person who from his own (~~(privately owned)~~) land or from the (~~(privately owned)~~) land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) "Stumpage value of timber" means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be

(6) The tax imposed under this section shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments and remittance therefor shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrued. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

(7) The taxes imposed by this section shall be in addition to any taxes imposed upon the same persons pursuant to one or more of sections RCW 82.04.230 to 82.04.290, inclusive, and RCW 82.04.440, and none of such sections shall be construed to modify or interact with this section in any way, except RCW 82.04.450 and ~~((82.04.490))~~ 82.32.045 shall not apply to the taxes imposed by this section.

(8) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter shall be excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 146, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.073 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 84.33.073 and 84.33.074, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Small harvester" means every person who from his own ~~((privately owned))~~ land or from the ~~((privately owned))~~ land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use in an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand board feet in a calendar quarter and not exceeding one million board feet in a calendar year. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester, and it does not include harvesters of forest products classified by the department of revenue as special forest products including Christmas trees, posts, shake boards and bolts, and shingle blocks.

(2) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land.

(3) "Harvesting and marketing costs" means only those costs directly associated with harvesting the timber from the land and delivering it to the buyer and may include the costs of disposing of logging residues but it does not include any other costs which are not directly and exclusively related to harvesting and marketing of the timber such as costs of permanent roads or costs of reforesting the land following harvest."

MOTION

At 3:47 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 4:49 p.m.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4387, by Senators Charnley, Zimmerman, Williams and Bottiger:

Imposing a one percent gross income tax upon individuals.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Charnley, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 9, line 14, strike "January" and insert "July"

On page 9, line 22, after "sum of" insert "one hundred thousand"

Senators Clarke, Quigg and Newhouse demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Talley who was previously excused.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate proceeded subject to roll call.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, lines 10 and 11, after "taxpayer" add "and corporations"

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Senator Lee, I, too, am a little bit concerned that we are not addressing the problem of business and occupation tax. I assume that is what you were talking about. And I would be glad to support you if you wanted to offer an amendment to eliminate the business and occupation tax and to raise the corporate tax of 10% which would bring revenue to the state. Would you consider offering such an amendment? Could be an amendment to Senator McDermott's amendment."

Senator Lee: "This particular bill, I think that your idea is one that probably does deserve to be voted on here and in the House of Representatives, I have always supported the fact that taxes on businesses should be on their net income. It is not possible in this particular bill to put on that particular kind of amendment because this is on the gross."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, it would appear to me that the McDermott amendment is seriously defective. He is adding the word 'corporation' on page 2, line 10, and page 2 line 3; but on page 1, at the bottom of the page in subsection (5), it says 'Taxpayer means a natural person, an estate or a trust, but does not include partnerships, associations, or corporations.' So if this amendment is adopted we are including corporations in one place but leaving them excluded in another place."

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Bill No. 4387, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senator McDermott, be held for consideration following the last measure on the calendar.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, if the amendment is defeated and the bill is technically correct, then we need not set it down. So until the amendment is adopted the bill is perfect. Is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, your remarks would make a very good argument but the President isn't in any position to determine whether the bill is perfect or not."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McCASLIN

Senator McCaslin: "I mean technically perfect, Mr. President."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President did not hear you say 'technically,' Senator. The President is not in a position to determine if the bill would be technically perfect, either, Senator."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, sir."

Debate ensued.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger that Senate Bill No. 4387, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senator McDermott be considered following the last measure on the calendar.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—23.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—25.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

On motion of Senator McDermott, there being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved the Senate return to the fourth order of business. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Clarke, am I to understand from your comments that after we dispose of Senate Bill 4387 that you are willing to adhere to Senator Bottiger's motion to move to the fourth order of business?"

REPLY BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Senator Fleming, we have not had an opportunity to report this bill to our committee in the way in which it was amended in the House, and until we do, we are not ready to act on it."

Senator Fleming: "Which committee is that?"

Senator Hayner: "To the caucus."

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Bottiger that the Senate return to the fourth order of business.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—23.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—25.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

MOTION

At 5:32 p.m., Senator Fleming moved the Senate be at ease for purpose of a Republican caucus.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Fleming failed on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "I note the Republican counsel, who is very eminent and respectable and well-admired, is holding caucuses out here on the Senate floor, which is a very unusual procedure; and I know that the Republicans don't need a caucus, but if they feel they need a slight conference, they should adjourn to the wings and leave the Senate floor. Ordinarily, we don't hold caucuses on the Senate floor; we go into the committee of the whole if we want to discuss things.

"I raise that as a point of order, not because I dislike the counsel, I would like to consult with him, too, once in a while to find out what the Republicans are thinking. But they shouldn't be thinking out here on the floor with their counsel, they should step to one side.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "What is your point of order? Do you simply want a ruling that Senate counsel should stay off the floor completely?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Ordinarily, Senator Clarke, this has been the procedure. The elected officials of the Senate, namely, yourself and the sergeant at arms and the secretary of the Senate, do have that. If we were to have all of the attorneys come out here and confer with each individual as we are proceeding through the legislative process, you can imagine the tremendous confusion that would ensue, and I know you wouldn't like that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "No, Senator, I certainly wouldn't if we were proceeding through the legislative process. Unfortunately, we have been delayed in our effort to proceed through the legislative process by the preparation of a lengthy amendment which we are waiting and giving you the opportunity to prepare.

"Now I notice that just before your caucus was called some time back, we had a complete aggregation in the rear of the room, so I, if you would like, in effect, to establish some sort of a ruling that while the Senate is more or less partially at ease, that we have more rigorous attendance on the floor, you can, in effect, so move."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I don't think Senator Rasmussen is trying to make a big issue or anything of that nature. The question, I guess, arose that we are not really officially at ease; we are just waiting around for an amendment. You did not put us at ease, and in the past, in my fourteen years, twelve at least, in this body, what you are probably saying is, is that the attorneys that we had had before and so forth were not allowed on the floor or any other staff, unless we were at ease. We are not at ease and I think that might have been the point that he was making, but not trying to make a big issue of it."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen, there really is no need for you to withdraw the point. Counsel will not go on the floor any more, but in fairness, the Senate was in a relaxed period waiting for the amendment by Senator McDermott to be prepared. Therefore, times of that nature, why the President has no objection; but when the business is proceeding normally, only Senators, pages and Senate elected officials will be permitted to go on the floor."

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4387, as amended.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 4, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PURPOSE

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Domestic corporations of this state and foreign corporations admitted to do an intrastate business in this state are privileged to carry on innumerable and profitable activities in this state in a corporate form. These corporations are currently subject to nominal and discriminatory annual corporate privilege fees. These fees are limited in amount, have a regressive impact on the smaller corporations, and are measured by authorized capital stock which bears little or not relationship to the extent and to the profitability of the business opportunities afforded corporations by this state.

The purpose of this act is to give recognition to the fact that the privilege of engaging in business activities in this state as a corporation, regardless of the characterization of these activities for commerce clause purposes, is a substantial privilege for which commensurate fees or taxes should be charged. Inasmuch as the profitability of the corporation is a true indication of the nature and extent of the privileges enjoyed, it is the intention of this act to measure the corporate privilege fee by the net income derived by a corporation from the activities it carries on in this state. In order that corporations who do not conduct any intrastate business in this state may be subject to an equivalent tax for comparable privileges but which cannot, because of the commerce clause of the United States Constitution, be subjected to a corporate privilege fee, there is also imposed a compensating tax on corporations doing only an interstate business in this state.

To assure that all corporations pay some fee for the privilege of conducting business activity in this state, the existing corporate fees are not affected by this act. Any existing annual corporate privilege fee, however, is credited against the corporate privilege fee imposed by this act.

If the compensating tax imposed on corporations doing an interstate business in this state is declared invalid, it is nevertheless intended that the corporate privilege fee be imposed pursuant to this act on all profit corporations conducting any intrastate business activity in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. INCIDENCE OF COMPENSATING TAX. Upon and after, 1982, the compensating tax imposed by section 5 of this act shall be paid by every corporation, not subject to the corporate privilege fee and not expressly exempt under this title, which conducts any activity in this state or derives any income from sources within or attributable to this state for which this state can constitutionally impose an income tax. Liability for the compensating tax shall commence at the time and continue for the period of time any such corporation conducts any such activity in this state or derives any such income from this state and is not also subject to the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act on such activity or measured by such income.

PART C TAXABLE INCOME

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. TAXABLE INCOME DEFINED. (1) "Taxable income" for the purpose of computing the corporate franchise privilege fee and the compensating tax means federal taxable income subject to the following adjustments:

(b) Add the amount of any deduction taken under section 613A of the Internal Revenue Code.

If a corporation has not filed a net income tax return in another state for the tax year and that state imposes a net income tax, unless the corporation is expressly exempted from that state's net income tax, the corporation is deemed not to be subject to either a corporate privilege fee or net income tax in that state for that tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. APPORTIONMENT OF NET INCOME. All net income, other than net income from transportation services and financial organizations, shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the net income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, excluding any negligible factor, and the denominator of which is three reduced by the number of negligible factors. "Negligible factor" means a factor the denominator of which is less than ten percent of one-third of the taxpayer's gross income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. PROPERTY FACTOR. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned and used or rented and used in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned and used or rented and used in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. VALUATION OF PROPERTY—RENTED PROPERTY. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals but not less than zero.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. AVERAGE VALUE OF PROPERTY. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the director may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to properly reflect the average value of the taxpayer's property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. PAYROLL FACTOR. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in the state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. COMPENSATION PAID WITHIN STATE. Compensation is paid in this state if:

- (1) The individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or
- (2) The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or
- (3) Some of the service is performed in the state and:
 - (a) The base of operations, or if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state; or
 - (b) The base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. SALES FACTOR. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax year, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in all states.

"Sales", as used in this section means all gross receipts from:

- (1) Sales of tangible personal property;
- (2) Rentals of tangible personal property;
- (3) Sales of real property held for sale in the ordinary course of a taxpayer's trade or business;
- (4) Rentals of real property; and
- (5) Sales of services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SALES OF TANGIBLE PERSONALTY, REAL PROPERTY, RENTALS, AND SERVICES WITHIN STATE. (1) Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

- (a) The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or
- (b) The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and (i) the purchaser is the United States government or (ii) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser; or

(c) The sale is made from an office located in this state to a purchaser (including the United States government) in another state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the property is shipped to the purchaser from a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable.

(2) Sales and rentals of real property are in this state if the property is located in this state.

(3) Rentals of tangible personal property are in this state to the extent that the property is used in this state.

(4) Sales of services are in this state to the extent that the service is performed in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION SERVICES. The taxable income of a taxpayer whose activities consist of transportation services for hire rendered partly within this state and partly within another state shall be determined under sections 19 through 22 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OTHER THAN OIL OR GAS BY PIPELINE OR AIR CARRIERS—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income from transportation services other than that derived from the transportation service of oil or gas by pipeline or air carriers, the net income attributable to Washington sources is that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from transportation services wherever performed that the revenue miles of the taxpayer in Washington bear to the revenue miles of the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable on the services for the tax year. A revenue mile means the transportation for a consideration of one net ton in weight or one passenger the distance of one mile. The net income attributable to Washington sources in the case of a taxpayer engaged in the transportation both of property and of individuals shall be that portion of the entire net income of the taxpayer which is equal to the average of his passenger miles and ton mile fractions, separately computed and individually weighted by the ratio of gross receipts from passenger transportation to total gross receipts from all transportation, and by the ratio of gross receipts from freight transportation to total gross receipts from all transportation, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPELINE—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income derived from the attributable to Washington shall be that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from the pipeline transportation of oil in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year that the barrel miles transported in Washington bear to the barrel miles transported by the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF GAS BY PIPELINE—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income derived from the transportation of gas by pipeline, net income attributable to Washington shall be that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from the pipeline transportation of gas in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year that the thousand cubic feet miles transported in Washington bear to the thousand cubic feet miles transported by the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. AIR CARRIERS—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income derived by a taxpayer as a carrier by aircraft, the portion of net income of the carrier attributable to Washington shall be the average of the following two percentages:

(1) The revenue tons handled by the air carrier at airports within this state for the tax year divided by the total revenue tons handled by the carrier at airports in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year; and

(2) The air carrier's originating revenue within this state for the tax year divided by the total originating revenue of the carrier from all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. FINANCIAL ORGANIZATIONS—APPORTIONMENT. The net income of a financial organization attributable to Washington sources shall be taken to be:

(1) In the case of net income of a taxpayer whose activities are confined solely to this state, the entire net income of the taxpayer.

(2) In the case of net income of a taxpayer who conducts activities as a financial organization partially within and partially without this state, that portion of its net income as its gross business in this state is to its gross business in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the same tax year, which portion shall be determined as the sum of:

(a) Fees, commissions, or other compensation for financial services rendered within this state;

(b) Gross profits from trading in stocks, bonds, or other securities managed within this state;

(c) Interest and dividends received within this state;

(d) Interest charged to customers at places of business maintained within this state for carrying debit balances of margin accounts, without deduction of any costs incurred in carrying the accounts; and

(e) Any other gross income resulting from the operation as a financial organization within this state, divided by the aggregate amount of the items of the taxpayer in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Exceptions. (1) If the apportionment provisions of this title do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's activities in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the director may require, if reasonable:

(a) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(b) The inclusion of one or more additional factors or the substitution of one or more factors; or

(c) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable apportionment.

(2) If the apportionment provisions of this title in combination with the allocation and apportionment provisions of other states in which a corporation is required to pay a tax on or measured by net income results in the apportionment or allocation of more than one hundred percent of the corporation's taxable income for the same year, the director may make any adjustment to the apportionment provisions of this title he deems will fairly represent the corporation's income attributable to this state in light of the attribution rules of other states in which the taxpayer is required to pay a tax on or measured by net income for the same tax year.

PART E CREDITS AND EXEMPTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) EXEMPTIONS. A corporation organized for any purpose set forth in RCW 24.03.015 and whose property or income does not inure directly or indirectly to the private benefit or gain of any individual or shareholder shall be exempt from the corporate privilege fee and compensating tax imposed by this title.

(2) CREDITS. The amount of any annual privilege fees paid by any corporation under RCW 23A.32.075, 23A.32.078, 23A.40.060, and 23A.40.150 is allowed as a credit against the privilege fee imposed by this title for the taxable year.

PART F ACCOUNTING PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. COMBINED REPORTING—ADMINISTRATIVE ADJUSTMENTS. (1) In the case of a corporation liable to report under this title owning or controlling, either directly or indirectly, another corporation, or other corporations except foreign corporations, and in the case of a corporation liable to report under this title and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by another corporation except a foreign corporation, the department may require a combined or consolidated report showing the combined taxable income and apportionment factors of the controlled group, except foreign corporations, and any other information it deems necessary to ascertain the taxable income of any corporation subject to either the corporate privilege fee or the compensating tax. The department may, in such manner as it may determine, assess the tax against the corporations which are liable to report under this title and whose taxable income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire taxable income; or it may adjust the tax in such other manner as it determines to be equitable if it determines the adjustment is necessary to prevent evasion of fees or taxes or to reflect the income earned by the corporations from business done in this state. Direct or indirect ownership or control of more than fifty percent of the voting stock of a corporation constitutes ownership or control for purposes of this section.

(2) If two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in or having income from sources allocable to this state, and whether or not affiliated) are owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the department may distribute, apportion, or allocate income, deductions, credits, or allowances between or among the organizations, trades, or businesses if it determines that the distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary to prevent evasion of the corporate privilege fee or compensating tax imposed by this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. METHOD OF ACCOUNTING. (1) For purposes of the computation of the corporate privilege fee and compensating tax imposed under this title, a corporation's method of accounting under this title, a corporation's method of accounting shall be the same as the corporation's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. If no method of accounting is regularly used by a corporation, taxable income for purposes of this title shall be computed under a method prescribed by or acceptable to the department.

(2) It is the intent of this title that taxable income for the subject taxpayer for computation of the corporate privilege fee and the compensating tax be ascertained and returned as provided in this title on the same accounting method or methods used by the taxpayer in computing his federal income tax liability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. TAX RETURNS FOR PARTIAL YEAR. If the first taxable year of any corporation with respect to which a fee or tax is imposed by this title ends prior to December 31st of the calendar year, the taxable income for this fractional taxable year shall be the taxpayer's taxable income, computed in accordance with the otherwise applicable provisions of this title, for the entire taxable year, adjusted as follows:

(1) The taxable income shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the fractional, taxable year, and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable year; or

(2) If the taxpayer so elects, the taxable income shall be adjusted, in accordance with rules of the department, so as to include only such income and be reduced only by such deductions as are attributable to this fractional taxable year, as can be clearly determined from the permanent records of the taxpayer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. STARTING DATE—TIME AND MANNER OF PAYMENT. (1) The corporate privilege fee and compensating tax is due and payable in reference to the taxable income, as defined by this title, which is earned, received, or otherwise acquired by any corporation subject to the fee or tax imposed by this title after February 28, 1981, for federal income tax purposes.

(2) The time and manner of payment of the fee or tax imposed by this title shall be in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code (including the provisions relating to installment payments of estimated income tax) and the regulations promulgated thereunder providing for the time and manner of the payment of the federal income tax: PROVIDED, That the department by regulation may make these modifications and exceptions to such provisions as it deems necessary to facilitate the prompt and efficient collection of the fee or tax.

(3) regardless of any extension of time granted for filing a final federal income tax for any tax year, the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act shall be paid at the time the corporation files its annual report with the secretary of state or any successor officer. No corporation may be qualified to do business in this state if it is delinquent in the payment of the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS. The general administrative provisions pertaining to the compliance, enforcement, and administration of tax laws administered by the department contained in the following sections of chapter 82.32 RCW are applicable to this title: RCW 82.32.050 (except references therein to registration), 82.32.060, 82.32.070 (except the last paragraph), 82.32.080, 82.32.090, 82.32.100 (except reference therein to registration), 82.32.105, 82.32.110, 82.32.120, 82.32.130, 82.32.140, 82.32.150, 82.32.160, 82.32.170, 82.32.190, 82.32.200, first paragraph of 82.32.210, 82.32.220, 82.32.230, 82.32.235, 82.32.240, 82.32.260, 82.32.290 (except references therein to certificates of registration), 82.32.300, 82.32.310, 82.32.320, 82.32.330, 82.32.340, 82.32.350, 82.32.360, and 82.32.380.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. BOARD OF TAX APPEALS—JURISDICTION. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the state board of tax appeals to review any claim for refund or deficiency assessment of either the corporate privilege fee or compensating tax imposed by this title. In all cases under this section:

(1) The taxpayer or the department may elect either a formal or informal hearing according to rules of practice and procedure promulgated by the board; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. JUDICIAL REVIEW ON APPEAL FROM BOARD. Within thirty days after the final decision of the board in a case in which it has jurisdiction and in which a formal hearing has been elected, the taxpayer or the department may appeal to the court of appeals or the state supreme court as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. TAX COMPACT. To the extent that Article IV of chapter 82.56 rCW is in conflict with sections 9 through 24 of this act, the article is hereby superseded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A corporation, as defined in section 3 of this act, which is subject to a corporate privilege fee or compensating tax under Title 82A RCW is exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Section headings and captions included in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Sections 1 through 33 of this act shall be codified as a new title in the Revised Code of Washington, to be numbered Titled 82A.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. A state-wide special election is hereby ordered by the legislature to be held on the first Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in January, 1982. This act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at such special election, in accordance with the provisions of section 1, Article II of the Constitution of the state of Washington, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof. To the extent RCW 29.13.010 or any other statute is in conflict with the provisions of this section, such statute is hereby superseded."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "I raise the point of scope and object upon the proposed amendment and I would like to speak very briefly to that.

"Senator McDermott has very frankly stated this is an entirely new concept and if it were to be submitted and considered, it should be by a separate bill.

"Now the point has been made in substance, that we were rushing through with enactments that have not been on our desks and we didn't have time to consider; so here comes a brand new amendment, completely changing the very simple issue which is embodied in the original bill, and we are asked, in substance, to vote this thing up or down without having the opportunity to give it any studied consideration.

"Now the entire scope of the bill would be changed by this striking amendment and I submit that it is beyond the scope.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the Point of Order that Senator Clarke's Point of Order was not timely raised with respect to scope and object as to this amendment. I would like to speak to my Point of Order.

"Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Senate. There was an amendment offered to the previous bill that it did essentially the same thing as this amendment does, that's an amendment that would have inserted corporations in the scope of the personages to be taxed. There was no Point of Order raised with respect to that amendment. Now this amendment is before us, this amendment does virtually the same thing, it simply subjects corporations to the same taxation of income as did that previous amendment.

"I would submit that Senator Clarke's point of order was not timely raised because he did not raise the Point of Order with respect to that previous amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President is prepared to rule upon the point of order presented by Senator Talmadge.

"The President finds that Senator McDermott withdrew the previous amendment and is proposing this amendment. This is a brand new amendment; therefore any Senator is entitled to raise the Point of Order that the amendment changes the scope and object of the bill. The Point of Order presented by Senator Talmadge is not well taken."

MOTION

At 6:12 p.m., on motion of Senator Jones, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 6:15 p.m.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 4387 is a measure which imposes a one percent gross upon natural persons trusts or estates, but specifically excludes partnerships, associations and corporations.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McDermott would impose a corporate tax in the amount of ten percent of a corporation's net income and provides that corporations paying such tax are exempt from the B&O tax.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator McDermott was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Senator Shinpoch was excused from the Call of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Charnley, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4387 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4387, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 34; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Fleming, Gould, Hemstad, Lee, McDermott, Ridder, Scott, Williams, Zimmerman—13.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lysen, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—34.

Excused: Senators Shinpoch, Talley—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4367, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved the Senate now consider Senate Bill No. 4930.

MOTION

At 6:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 7:03 p.m.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Talmadge served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Senate Bill No. 4387 failed to pass the Senate.

The President advised Senator Talmadge that the measure must be reconsidered during the present working day.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Talmadge moved the Senate reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 4387 failed to pass the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the motion by Senator Talmadge on reconsideration of the vote by which Senate Bill No. 4387 failed to pass the Senate will be held for consideration during this working day.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 1, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4216 with the following amendments:

On page 9, after line 21, insert the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1981 and RCW 50.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has left work voluntarily without good cause and thereafter until he or she has obtained bona fide work and earned wages of not less than his or her suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks.

The disqualification shall continue if the work obtained is a mere sham to qualify for benefits and is not bona fide work. In determining whether work is of a bona fide nature, the commissioner shall consider factors including but not limited to the following:

- (a) The duration of the work;
- (b) The extent of direction and control by the employer over the work; and
- (c) The level of skill required for the work in light of the individual's training and experience.

(2) An individual shall not be considered to have left work voluntarily without good cause when:

(a) He or she has left work to accept a bona fide offer of bona fide work as described in subsection (1) of this section; or

(b) The separation was because of the illness or disability of the claimant or the death, illness, or disability of a member of the claimant's immediate family if the claimant took all reasonable precautions, in accordance with any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, to protect his or her employment status by having promptly notified the employer of the reason for the absence and by having promptly requested reemployment when again able to assume employment: PROVIDED, That these precautions need not have been taken when they would have been a futile act, including those instances when the futility of the act was a result of a recognized labor/management dispatch system.

(3) In determining under this section whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause, the commissioner shall only consider work-connected factors such as the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness for the work, the individual's ability to perform the work, and such other work connected factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies. Good cause shall not be established for voluntarily leaving work because of its distance from an individual's residence where the distance was known to the individual at the time he or she accepted the employment and where, in the judgment of the department, the distance is customarily traveled by workers in the individual's job classification and labor market, nor because of any other significant work factor which was generally known and present at the time he or she accepted employment, unless the related circumstances have so changed as to amount to a substantial involuntary deterioration of the work factor or unless the commissioner determines that other related circumstances would work an unreasonable hardship on the individual were he or she required to continue in the employment.

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) of this section shall not apply to an individual whose marital status or domestic responsibilities cause him or her to leave employment. Such an individual shall not be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits until he or she has requalified, either by obtaining bona fide work and earning wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks or by reporting in person to the department during ten different calendar weeks and certifying on each occasion that he or she is ready, able, and willing to immediately accept any suitable work which may be offered, is actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices, and is utilizing such employment counseling and placement services as are available through the department."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "50.12.200;" insert "amending section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1981 and RCW 50.20.050;"

On page 16, after line 7 insert the following:

Renumber the remaining subsections appropriately.

On page 18, line 5 after "after," strike "June 30" and insert "February 26", and the same is herewith transmitted.

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

MOTIONS

Senator Quigg moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4216.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the question was divided.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to page 9, commencing on line 21 and page 16, following line 7.

Senator Bottiger moved the Senate not concur in the House amendment to page 18, line 5.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Quigg, can you tell us how many people the department of employment security estimates will not receive benefits as a result of this amendment?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator McDermott, the estimate at present, year out, are sufficiently foggy that they, right now, don't have figures on the folks who would not, if this were not extended at that time. But I think that it is pretty apparent that if we had conditions equivalent or worse than we have today, the legislature would have a very difficult time come February 26th or any day before then not to deal with this issue in 1983."

Senator McDermott: "The figure we got from the department is that 20,000 people will be denied benefits and I urge you to not adopt this amendment. I think that what we have here is a gamble taken by the legislature that somehow we will come back here in January and deal with 20,000 people. Everybody in the department of employment security and they are certainly not being pessimistic, they are being as optimistic as they can and they say this amendment will mean 20,000 people get cut out of extended benefits."

"Now I suppose we are going to adopt this but I urge you not to adopt it because you are going to come back and you are going to have the same fights and waste the same amount of time in February of next year."

Debate ensued.

Senator Wilson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

On motion of Senator Gould, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5006 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator Gould, could you answer a question for me please? The question is on page 2, line 22, I thought this question was raised in ways and means and I see the language is still 10¢ per mile for travel to and from legislative sessions; and it is my understanding that the mileage is more than that. I am wondering why the 10¢-a-mile language is still in the bill."

Senator Gould: "The Constitution provides that the salary for back and forth in the session, the one-time round-trip salary is 10¢ per mile. The rest of our mileage to meetings, et cetera, is on a different level. But that is a Constitutional provision."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5007, by Senator Scott:

Relating to compensation for public employees.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Scott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5007 was substitute for Senate Bill No. 5007 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendment by Senators Shinpoch, Scott, Lysen and Newhouse was adopted:

On page 1, line 12, following "death" insert ": PROVIDED, That contracts may provide a method whereby all accumulated vacation leave may be taken as vacation leave."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. The problem I have with this bill, I understand the purpose of it and I concur with that. But on line 9, the first page, it says, '. . . or political subdivision of the state. . . .' And I would assume that that would cover cities and counties."

Senator Scott: "That is directed to the law officers and firefighters system into which we pay, of course."

Senator Vognild: "But the problem I have is denying the cities the right to pay for vacations will cause replacement problems in police and fire activity where, particularly where there is a disability. You could have a situation here where you may have a vacancy or series of vacancies for over a month that could not be replaced under the laws that the cities work under LEOFF and I wonder if we would not be better off to clarify that so that we would not tie the cities up?"

Senator Scott: "This entire provision says that you can take the thirty days' pay but you have to use it or lose it, unless the individual member dies in which case this does not apply."

"But if you want to write an amendment to clarify it, I would rather doubt, given the discussion we had in committee, that you can do it and maintain uniformity between the systems but that is your privilege."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5007, as amended, was ordered held on the second reading calendar for consideration at a later time.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1158.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1158, by Committee on Appropriations—Human Services (originally sponsored by Appropriations—Human Services and Representatives Nisbet and Brekke):

Authorizing voluntary contributions to offset cost of care provided to publicly supported nursing home patients.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 20, after "fund." insert:

"No contributions provided under this section shall be utilized for the payment of return on investment, property expenses, administrator salaries or management fees."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator McDermott, I understand that the money goes, line 19 indicates ' . . . All contributions shall be deposited in the state general fund.', so I do not know whether that would almost render this amendment unnecessary, the way that I read the bill."

Senator McDermott: "Well, Senator Deccio, that is precisely why the amendment is here. If you put it in the general fund, it is a little bit tough to tell what the state is using voluntary contributions for and I want it to be very clear that whatever we allocate for the funding of nursing homes, not be supplemented in any area except patient care by the voluntary contributions. If you just put it in the general fund, it is like doing an increase in tuition — the students are never sure when they are paying tuition or they are paying for something else and I think if patients' families are making voluntary contributions, they ought to make sure that that goes for patient care."

Senator Deccio: "I understand what you are saying, I don't want it to go there either, except that whatever happens to these monies has to be decided by the legislature and if it is going to be a ROI or property or anything else, we would have to make that determination. Really, the amendment does not bother me all that much but I am just wondering whether you just want to stick something on there or whether you are really serious and mean that we really need to have it. I do not think we need to have it. I think you are just buttering up the bill. And I would suggest that we vote against it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Deccio, I am looking at line 19: ' . . . All contributions shall be deposited in the state general fund.' My dear mother who has long since departed this earth and who is watching us now from up above, supposedly is in a nursing home and I make a contribution. You are not going to be able to solicit me very much to make a contribution to the general fund. If I make a contribution,

I am going to make it directly to that nursing home and hopefully she will get better care. It is plain crazy to think somebody is going to make a contribution to the general fund. How do you explain that to me. You know about this bill, but I cannot read it that way."

Senator Deccio: "Senator Rasmussen, on line 9, it says that the ' . . . department of social and health services shall establish a program which encourages family and friends to publicly supported nursing home patients to contribute toward the costs related to the care of the patients. . . .' And I would suspect that in determining what kind of a system they would use, those payments would be made to the department of social and health services and I think the very fact that line 19 says that it will go into the general fund is to do the very thing that Senator McDermott is talking about.

"The thing is, I do not want to slow up payment of this, the passage of this bill by sending it back to the House with an amendment on it and it has got to be concurred. I would rather just pass it the way it is because it is an important piece of legislation. We are asking the department to set up a system whereby people can voluntarily contribute to their loved ones who are in a nursing home; they cannot do that now."

Senator Rasmussen: "I had one further question. Senator Deccio, I am not going to contribute to the nursing home that my mother is in, so it may go to a nursing home over in Yakima. That is not the way you get voluntary contributions. If you have a loved one in a hospital and they get good service, you make a contribution directly to that hospital to use any way they want to. I think you should send the bill back, Senator, it does not make sense."

Senator Deccio: "Senator, I do not think you understand what this bill does. You cannot make a contribution directly to a nursing home, that money belongs to the state if it is for a state patient, the money has to go directly to the department. You can make the contribution to the nursing home. They must turn around and send it to the department, to go into the general fund."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Speaking against the amendment, Senator McDermott, since this goes into the general fund and will not in any way change, as I see it, the amount of appropriation, monies out of the general fund that go to any individual nursing home and some of the funds that go to a nursing home obviously are used for the purposes which you purport to prohibit here. How, practically, would you expect your proposed amendment to operate?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Clarke, I presume you are asking me a question and I will respond to it. It is not my bill, it is Senator Deccio's bill to come out here and say we are going to make it possible for people to contribute to the general fund. If you put the money in there, you do not know where it is going to go. I do not know where it is going to go. The department of social and health services will have a bag of money for nursing homes and they will do whatever they want with it. And I am saying that if these people contribute their money for their family for additional physical therapists to come in and spend an hour with their mother or their father, it ought to go to that, it should not go to an administrator of a nursing home, nor should it go for a 240Z for the administrator to drive around and charge off his mileage. (280Z - fine, I am sorry.) The fact is if they are making the contribution, they ought to make sure that it goes to the care of their own family member, not into profit or property segments of the reimbursement system."

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, how then, Senator McDermott reading from the bill, and perhaps I simply need to be educated but on line 15, it says ' . . . A provider of nursing home services under this chapter shall not indicate to any resident or family member or friend of any resident that the voluntary contribution under this section is a requirement of care not that it in any way purchases any specific service. . . . So it seems to be the bill itself prohibits the very thing that you are purporting to say that the money should be used for."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Deccio, may I ask, are you planning to withdraw your amendment? You have an amendment on the desk?"

Senator Deccio: "Yes."

Senator Fleming: "Do you plan to withdraw it?"

Senator Deccio: "Right."

Senator Fleming: "Okay, thank you, just wanted to know."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Bottiger, it is not possible for one who is a relative of someone in a nursing home to contribute to that nursing home unless they do give the entire amount, if that person is actually on welfare, and it is being paid by state and federal government. It is not possible for them to do so now; and I have had individuals call me and say, 'I can't pay fifteen hundred dollars for my son or daughter or mother to be in the nursing home but I would like very much to contribute two or three hundred dollars to their care, and I cannot do that. The nursing home directors tell us that that is not possible.'"

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I will take that as a question. Senator Hayner, I will get you the section of the code that permits donations to the general fund and authorizes the issuance for purposes of tax credit as a contribution to a governmental agency. It is permissible right now. We read in the paper every once in a while somebody leaves some money in their will to the state."

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that Substitute House Bill No. 1158 be referred to the Committee on Social and Health Services.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator McDermott.

The motion by Senator McDermott failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Gaspard moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 20, after "deposited" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "in a dedicated account within the general fund for publicly supported nursing home patient care"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute House Bill No. 1158, together with the pending amendment by Senator Gaspard was ordered held for further consideration at the end of the calendar tonight.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5007, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senator Scott):

Relating to compensation for public employees.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5007 as amended earlier today.

On motion of Senator Scott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5007, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lysen: "Senator Scott, I have a question on page 2 of the bill, the new language that is underlined there, it says, 'No agency or department of the state may make any payment to an employee for unused or accrued vacation leave upon termination of employment except in case of death.' With the amendment that we added here a few minutes ago, Senator Shinpoch prime sponsored, it was our intent that in the case where you have a layoff and an employee has accumulated a number of days vacation, that his termination date would be extended, say four days, if he has that much coming, to include payment of those four days before his termination would take place, or in a case of an actual firing, that would also be the case. Where he would not be able to put it into his pension in the case of retirement, at the same time he would be allowed to get paid for the money, for the, I am not making myself clear I understand. Let me start again. To allow the four days as the example I gave to collect that payment, is that correct?"

Senator Scott: "It puts the employee that was under contract the same status as the full-time employee that is paid conventionally, and allows that employee to collect up to thirty days of vacation leave and he is also in the same status as the other employee in that he has to either use it or lose it. There is complete equilibrium between the two."

Senator Lysen: "But there is no danger of an employee being terminated for one reason or another who would then in turn lose his accumulated leave time, vacation . . . ?"

Senator Scott: "No, the reverse is true, Senator Lysen. If he has leave time, he is a contract employee, has leave time due him, he can accrue it up to thirty days and incorporate it into his vacation time and use it. Puts him exactly the same status as the employee that is employed full time."

Senator Lysen: "I just wanted to be sure that was the case, Senator Scott. Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5007, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 10; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Woody, Zimmerman—37.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5007, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

When tangible personal property is rented or leased under circumstances that the consideration paid does not represent a reasonable rental for the use of the articles so rented or leased, the "selling price" shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the value of such use at the places of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules as the department of revenue may prescribe;

(2) "Seller" means every person making sales at retail or retail sales to a buyer or consumer, whether as agent, broker, or principal;

(2) The department of revenue may authorize a seller to pay the tax levied under this chapter upon retail sales of tangible personal property or services made through vending machines and similar devices or where sales are made under conditions of business such as to render impracticable the collection of the tax as a separate item and waive collection of the tax from the customer.

(3) Where sales are made by receipt of a coin or coins dropped into a receptacle that results in delivery of the merchandise in single purchases of smaller value than the minimum sale upon which a one cent tax may be collected from the purchaser, according to the schedule provided by the department under authority of RCW 82.08.060, and where the design of the sales device is such that multiple sales of items are not possible or cannot be detected so as practically to assess a tax, in such a case the selling price for the purposes of the tax imposed under RCW 82.08.020 shall be sixty percent of the gross receipts of the vending machine through which such sales are made. No such authority shall be granted except upon application to the department and unless the department, after hearing, finds that the conditions of the applicant's business are such as to render impracticable the collection of the tax in the manner otherwise provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. EVASION—PENALTY. Any person required to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this title who wilfully fails to collect the tax or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, or who wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, is, in addition to other penalties provided by law, liable for a penalty equal to the total amount of the tax evaded, not collected, or not accounted for and paid over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. SERVICE OF PROCESS. (1) Any person who incurs tax liability under this title and who removes from this state or conceals his whereabouts shall be considered to appoint the secretary of state of this state as the person's agent for service of process or notice in any judicial or administrative proceeding under this title. This process or notice shall be served by the department on the secretary of state by leaving at the office of the secretary of state, at least fifteen days before the return day of the process or notice, a certified copy thereof and by sending to the person, by registered or certified mail, a certified copy with an endorsement thereon of the service upon the secretary of state, addressed to the person at the person's last known address.

(2) Service of process or notice in the manner and under the circumstances provided in this section shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon the person personally within this state. Proof of this service may be made in any judicial or administrative proceeding by the affidavit of the authorized agent of the department who made the service, with a copy of the process or notice that was so served attached to the affidavit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. DEFICIENCY PROCEDURE. All provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to income tax deficiency procedures, including the provisions thereof relating to notice of deficiency, jurisdiction to review deficiencies, and procedures for invoking this jurisdiction shall apply under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. CONFIDENTIALITY. Any facts or information contained in any return filed by any taxpayer or disclosed in any investigation or examination of the taxpayer's books and records made in connection with the administration of this title shall be subject to RCW 82.32.330.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. RULES. The department may adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the administration and enforcement of this title. The rules, insofar as possible without being inconsistent with this title, shall follow the rulings of the United States internal revenue service with respect to the federal income tax. NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. BOARD OF TAX APPEALS JURISDICTION. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the state board of tax appeals to review income tax deficiencies. In all cases under this section:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. JUDICIAL REVIEW ON APPEAL FROM BOARD. Within thirty days after the final decision of the board in a case under section 37 of this act in which a formal hearing is elected, the taxpayer or the department may appeal to the court of appeals. The appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court of appeals a petition for review and by serving a copy thereof by mail or personally on the opposing party. The petitioner shall pay the costs of preparing the record of the hearing, and thereafter the board shall file with the clerk of the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. RCW 34.04.130(6) shall apply to this review, and a bond shall be required for the review if requested by the department. The appropriate division of the court of appeals in which the petition for review is to be filed shall be, at the option of the petitioner, either division II or that division containing the district in which is located the petitioner's residence or principal place of business.

The method of judicial review of the board of tax appeals decision provided for in this section is exclusive. Nothing in this section prevents an appeal from the court of appeals to the state supreme court in the same manner as in other civil cases. There shall be no judicial review of a final decision of the board in which a formal hearing has not been elected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF CLAIM FOR REFUND. Any person having filed a claim for refund or credit on any tax, penalty, or other sum collected under this title may, within the applicable period of limitation provided for in section 28 of this act, sue for a refund or credit on the tax, penalty, or other sum in the superior court of Thurston county. This subsection does not apply to hot prepared food products, other than food products which are heated after they have been dispensed from the vending machine.

For tax collected under this subsection, the requirements that the tax be collected from the buyer and that the amount of tax be stated as a separate item are waived.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 82.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of food products for human consumption.

"Food products" include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products.

"Food products" include all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquid or frozen.

"Food products" do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts.

The exemption of "food products" provided for in this paragraph shall not apply: (a) When the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables, chairs, or counters or from trays, glasses, dishes, or other tableware whether provided by the retailer or by a person with whom the retailer contracts to furnish, prepare, or serve food products to others, except for food products furnished as meals under a state administered nutrition program for the aged as provided for in the Older American Act (P.L. 95-478 Title III) and RCW 74.38.040(6), or (b) when the food products are ordinarily sold for immediate consumption on or near a location at which parking facilities are provided primarily for the use of patrons in consuming the products purchased at the location, even though such products are

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Sections 16 through 41 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. Sections 16 through 39 of this act shall be codified as a new title in the Revised Code of Washington, to be numbered Title 82A.

Section captions constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. Sections 15 through 42 of this act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof.

Senator Pullen moved the following amendments by Senators Pullen, McCaslin, Hurley, Rasmussen, Quigg, Vognild, Gallagher, Haley, Craswell, and von Reichbauer to the amendment by Senators Gould and Hemstad be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 25, line 29, strike "by substituting for this tax" and insert "or to approve or reject"

On page 42, after line 21, insert "This referendum shall be placed on the ballot as two interdependent propositions. The first proposition will allow the people to accept or reject either tax. If a majority of the voters reject the first proposition neither tax shall take effect. The second proposition will allow the people to choose which tax they would prefer and shall take effect only if a majority of the voters accept the first proposition. Only the tax receiving the most affirmative votes will take effect."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Pullen, I am a little confused the way this amendment is drafted, because it appears to me that a voter would not be able to vote in favor of both taxes if they wanted to. Is that correct?"

Senator Pullen: "That is exactly the way the Gould amendment would provide for. The Gould amendment would provide that they get a choice either the sales tax on food or an income tax, and this amendment merely says that they can reject both taxes if they so desire."

Senator Goltz: "Can they accept both taxes if they desire?"

Senator Pullen: "No, they cannot and they cannot under the terms of the original Gould amendment, either."

Senator Goltz: "If you trust the voters, why not give them the opportunity for those thousands of voters that would like to have both taxes? Why don't you give them an opportunity?"

Senator Pullen: "If you would like to do that, Senator Goltz, I am sure that this legislature will take your amendment and vote on it accordingly."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Gould, recognizing that this is somewhat of a new concept, innovative and all those good words you might call it, could you tell me what most of the testimony at the hearing on this measure, was it for it or against it?"

Senator Gould: "Senator Fleming, as you well know, there was not hearing on this"

Senator Fleming: "I do not know that, that is why I am asking."

Senator Gould: "Are you on the ways and means committee?"

Senator Fleming: "Yes, but they had them when I was not there and they have them when none of us was there. . . ."

Senator Gould: "There was no hearing"

Senator Fleming: "No hearing; thank you very much."

Further debate ensued.

Senator von Reichbauer demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Pullen and others to the amendment by Senators Gould and Hemstad.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Haley, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Moore, Newhouse, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—27.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Deccio, Fuller, Gould, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Metcalf, Patterson, Ridder, Scott, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Williams, Zimmerman—20.

Absent or not voting: Senator Lee—1.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

MOTION

Senator Gould moved the amendment by Senators Gould and Hemstad as amended be withdrawn.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "What is before the body?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The question raised by Senator Gould that she would like to withdraw the amendment. And Senator Bottiger"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Is that a debatable, if a member moves to withdraw an amendment, unless there is an objection to withdrawal, is that a debatable item?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I think that Senator Bottiger was making a motion, and Senator Gould just amended the motion, and I think the motion can be spoken to."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Gould made the motion and Senator Bottiger requested the opportunity to speak upon the motion. The President believes a word of explanation might clarify the situation."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "By the person who wishes to withdraw the amendment, Mr. President?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "If Senator Gould would like to speak first, that is certainly her privilege, Senator Clarke."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Senator Bottiger,"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Gould, I was about to comment that we have set a record here tonight; we have passed two bills in the 5000 area and never before have we ever even duped one in the 5000 area, let alone pass it. As to this amendment, the unfortunate thing is that it came out so late. Forty-three pages of amendments which apparently Senator Pullen saw an earlier draft so he could even prepare an amendment. This was one of the ideas we tried to circulate through the committees that were appointed trying to look for a solution, but that was obviously run out here as just a trial just like the income tax was last night and I think that is very unfortunate. It does not appear to me to be the workmanship of somebody trying to resolve the issues before this legislature and get out of here this weekend."

Senator McDermott objected to the withdrawing of the amendment by Senator Gould and Hemstad, as amended.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gould: "Was that accepted as a form of a motion? If not, I would like to make it as a motion."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Gould, the President believes that this particular question lies in the same area as 'reconsideration.' If one Senator objects to the withdrawal of the amendment that is sufficient."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Then I cannot make a motion to withdraw?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Not if one objects."

Senator Gould: "Thank you, Mr. President."

MOTION

Senator Hemstad moved that further consideration of the amendment by Senators Gould and Hemstad as amended be considered following consideration of other amendments on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Peterson: "A point of further information, Mr. President. Whose amendment is this and where is it coming from? There is no name on the amendment and it is pretty customary that anything that is distributed, at least is identified.

"I will raise a point of order, Mr. President, as to whether this was on our desk in proper form?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point of order is well taken, Senator Peterson. The rules state that no one shall distribute anything on the Senators' desks without a signature."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "A point of further parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. If that is the case, and there is nothing else waiting and pending before the body, the Gould and Hemstad amendment is up for consideration at this moment, would it not be?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The body has not acted upon Senator Hemstad's motion, Senator."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "A matter a parliamentary inquiry. It is proper, is it not, when there are several striking amendments, for the body to consider them in order until one striking amendment has been adopted?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "And that, in substance, is the procedure which we are intending to follow, thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Hemstad, I was one of those who voted on the prevailing side on the amendment. I would be willing to reconsider that vote if you would withdraw your amendment, or your motion. Would you be willing to do that?"

Senator Hemstad: "No."

Senator McDermott: "So you really do not want this proposal considered?"

Senator Hemstad: "I would prefer to have it considered last."

Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Hemstad that the Gould/Hemstad amendment, as amended, be deferred following consideration of other amendments on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 26; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Deccio, Fuller, Gallagher, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Newhouse, Patterson, Quigg, Scott, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman—22.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Charnley, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Hughes, Hurley, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—26.

Excused: Senator Talley—1.

Senator Gould moved that the amendment by Senators Gould and Hemstad, as amended, not be adopted.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Gould that the amendment by Senators Gould and Hemstad, as amended, not be adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion carried by the following vote: Yeas, 1; nays, 47; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, Lysen, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman—47.

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.020(5), 82.44.030 and 82.44.070, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department of licensing shall make the following apportionment and distribution of motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the general fund except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(5). (b) Any remaining amounts in the state school equalization fund from the motor vehicle excise taxes not required for debt service on the above bond issues shall be transferred and credited to the general fund.

(3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state ratably, on the basis of the population as last determined by the office of financial management.

(4) When so apportioned, the amount payable to each such city and town shall be transmitted to the city treasurer thereof, and shall be utilized by such city or town for the purposes of police and fire protection and the preservation of the public health therein, and not otherwise. In case it be adjudged that revenue derived from the excise tax imposed by this chapter cannot lawfully be apportioned or distributed to cities or towns, all moneys directed by this section to be apportioned and distributed to cities and towns shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

Any municipality that has not submitted the report by April 1 shall cease to be eligible to receive motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section until the report is received by the director of licensing. If a municipality has received more or less money under subsection (5) of this section for the period covered by the report than it is entitled to receive by reason of its locally-generated collected tax revenues, the director of licensing shall, during the next ensuing quarter that the municipality is eligible to receive motor vehicle excise tax funds, increase or decrease the amount to be remitted in an amount equal to the difference between the locally-generated budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted for a calendar year exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during that same calendar year. At the time of the next fiscal audit of each municipality, the state auditor shall verify the accuracy of the report submitted and notify the director of licensing of any discrepancies.

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to ~~((the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the appropriate rate as follows))~~:

(a) For timber harvested between October 1, 1974 and June 30, 1983, inclusive, the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by six and one-half percent (:); plus

To facilitate collection of this additional tax, the department of revenue is authorized to adjust the total tax rate under this section to the nearest one-tenth of one percent, adjusting one-hundredths equal to or greater than five one-hundredths to the greater tenth.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Harvester" means every person who from his own privately owned land or from the privately owned land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Any municipality that has not submitted the report by April 1 shall cease to be eligible to receive motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section until the report is received by the director of licensing. If a municipality has received more or less money under subsection (5) of this section for the period covered by the report than it is entitled to receive by reason of its locally-generated collected tax revenues, the director of licensing shall, during the next ensuing quarter that the municipality is eligible to receive motor vehicle excise tax funds, increase or decrease the amount to be remitted in an amount equal to the difference between the locally-generated budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted for a calendar year exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during that same calendar year. At the time of the next fiscal audit of each municipality, the state auditor shall verify the accuracy of the report submitted and notify the director of licensing of any discrepancies.

(2) For purposes of this section:

The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. POINT OF ORDER

Senator Scott: "Mr. President, I would raise the question of scope and object. The bill has to do with excise taxes, the proposed amendment has to do with a fee."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Scott, the President finds that the striking amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No.

"The President therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the Point of Order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Goltz, Zimmerman, Peterson and Gallagher was ruled out of order.

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Scott:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1982—190

By Senators Hurley, Hughes, Bauer, Bottiger, Moore, Lysen, Charnley, Ridder, Goltz, McCaslin, Williams, Wojahn, Rasmussen, Hansen, Talmadge, Gaspard, McDermott, Conner, Wilson, Pullen, Shinpoch, Gallagher, Fleming, Peterson, Woody and Metcalf:

WHEREAS, Washington State is in a fiscal crisis equal to or greater than any faced before; and

WHEREAS, All state agencies have been severely cut back and required to use remaining funds and human resources in the most prudent and efficient manner possible; and

WHEREAS, The number of employees in the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission maintaining the 102 state parks has steadily declined, reducing important protections and services to a growing number of families who find camping their only affordable recreation; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission has recently approved a resolution which purports to increase efficiency by eliminating local level district supervisors and creating two new regional headquarters in addition to the three now existing; and

WHEREAS, The proposed elimination of district supervisors and creation of more regional managers, assistant managers and other office staff has resulted in a deterioration of morale as evidenced by a recent overwhelming no-confidence vote; and

WHEREAS, The proposed reorganization would result in increased bureaucracy and additional costs by adding regional directors, assistant directors and office staff, while decreasing the number of uniformed on-site personnel;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Director and members of the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission be hereby admonished to discontinue plans for increasing the number of administrative personnel and instead make every effort to maintain or improve the level of services at on-site park locations; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Governor be requested to investigate the proposed reorganization as well as the management performance of the Parks and Recreation Commission and take whatever action is needed to correct the problem; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission be directed to report to the Senate Parks and Ecology Committee within sixty days with full details on the proposed reorganization and justification, and after the Senate Parks and Ecology Committee has received the reports from the Parks Commission, and after the Governor has had sufficient time to complete his investigation, and if either find cause not to implement such reorganization, then the Parks and Recreation Commission shall take no action to implement such reorganization.

Senator Fuller moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Fuller and McCaslin:

On page 1, line 13 after "and" strike all material down to and including "and" on line 16.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Senator Fuller, if your concern is that they are not normally uniform and I do not know that to be the case, but I will take your word on it, why don't we just have an amendment that strikes the word 'uniformed' and I think your concern will be well addressed."

Senator Fuller: "I think we had better just strike that because it does not have much meaning if you take out the word 'uniformed.'"

Senator Hughes: "Senator, you say that was your intention that you did not want any confusion if the word 'uniformed' caused the confusion. If we remove that word, where is the confusion?"

Senator Fuller: "Well, I do not think the sentence still makes sense to say that the district supervisors are service delivery personnel. And that is what you would have left if you took out"

Senator Hughes: "You mean changing the 'not delivery service personnel'?"

Senator Fuller: "Not as such, they have managerial responsibilities also."

Senator Hughes: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Senator McCaslin, as you know, you have had an opportunity to review this resolution now, I believe, for over three weeks. And I guess I am a little bit surprised that you suddenly discovered something in there that concerns you. And as I look at the list of these amendments, particularly some of the later ones, they actually gut the effect of this resolution which is to prevent the parks department from going ahead until this study comes in, and I am just wondering why you did not discover this material sooner?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, to correct you, Senator Hughes, I have not viewed this for three weeks. I may have signed this resolution three weeks ago, and tonight when it came on the floor, after it had passed and discussing it with Senator Fuller, he pointed out that he felt some of these were incorrect and should be modified. I think, with the adoption of this amendment and the other amendments submitted by Senator Fuller, I think we will have reached a negotiated or agreed upon resolution that I would hope both sides would be happy with."

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Fuller and McCaslin.

On the first line of the amendment to page 1, line 35, strike "each" and insert "either"

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Saturday, April 3, 1982.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators McDermott and Talley. On motion of Senator Ridder, Senators McDermott and Talley were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jodi Ulery and Lonnie Herington, presented the Colors. Reverend Lester G. Olson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 2, 1982.

Mr. President: The House has passed: ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1230, and the same is herewith transmitted.

VITO CHIECHI, Chief Clerk.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1230, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Committee on Ways and Means and Representative Chandler):

Modifying appropriations for capital facilities.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4548, by Senators Haley, Charnley, Hemstad and Bluechel:

Requiring children under five in their parents' vehicles to be secured in a child passenger restraint system.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4548.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Clarke, my primary concern, really, is for grandparents, that is my primary concern, Senator, is for the grandparents, who, as all of us know, have the children with us from time-to-time, and maybe the seat was not available and I am concerned for what kind of liability they would have under this law? If there was a bad accident and even if the child was killed or badly injured, I want to know what their liability is?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, in my humble opinion, and it is just the off the top of my head opinion of one attorney, but the grandparents would be in really no different situation than any other person who happened to have custody of the child at the time and had the child riding in the automobile with them.

"Now, it is true that passage of a law such as this, regardless of who happens to be operating the car at the time, a good plaintiff's lawyer will call attention to the fact that the legislature has, by enactment of this law, evidenced the fact that they favor the use of this kind of protection and so I certainly cannot assure you that this would make no difference whatsoever in litigation with respect to anyone who is driving a car and a child is injured because of the fact they did not have the restraint, but actually, that could be argued even if you do not pass this law. It could be shown that if you are claiming that it was negligence that even without this law, if it is common practice or if evidence could be shown that this type of precaution could be taken, that is properly entered, can be properly introduced in evidence. The passage of this law simply gives it an additional stature. We will say, before a jury, because plaintiff's counsel can then tell the jury, 'Look, the legislature has enacted this.'

"Now maybe I have overblown the thing but I have gone as far as I can in my own analysis of it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Clarke, on page 1, ' . . . After December 31, 1982, the parent or legal guardian of a child less than five years old, when the parent or legal guardian is operating anywhere in the state his or her own motor vehicle . . . ', this does not limit that to only owners of vehicles in Washington state, does it? Anybody that comes in here? I am thinking we have a $4,000,000 tourist program that we are spending money on to invite people to come into the state. And as I read this, Senator Clarke, this would affect anyone who comes, drives his or her own vehicle in the state. Is that correct? Whether or not they are a resident here?"

Senator Clarke: ". . . correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "That would seem to be, and I agree with Senator Hansen and Senator Patterson that we all want to have children in restraints as much as possible and we all should use our own seat belts but I think this is wrong to have this kind of a law where some visitor coming into the state, not knowing anything about our law, can be subject to arrest and citation and I know how much I appreciate getting a ticket in some other state and then having to come back to their courts four or five days later."

MOTION

Senator Clarke moved the rules be suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4548 be returned to second reading.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Clarke, as a follow-up Senator Rasmussen's question about visitors, it seems to me that the language on line 20 of section 2 which describes the motor vehicles that are covered, must be registered under chapter 46.16 RCW, that we are, in effect, limiting this law to only those vehicles which are registered in the state of Washington so visitors to the state would not be covered by this law and I think the question that was raised therefore, is moot."

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I think you are correct and I was in error in my response to Senator Rasmussen."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4548 was returned to second reading.

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hemstad and Talmadge:

On page 2, line 10, after "constitute" insert "evidence of negligence." and strike the remaining language through "guardian." on line 11.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Senator Hemstad, would adoption of this amendment, then, substantially or entirely remove this law, if it passes, as a factor in civil litigation?"

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Wilson, perhaps Senator Talmadge may wish to comment further on this, but it would be my opinion it would entirely eliminate it as a factor."

Senator Wilson: "And with respect to grandparents or anybody else?"

Senator Hemstad: "With respect to grandparents and with respect to parents."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President. In response to Senator Wilson's question, I concur with Senator Hemstad. I think it does exactly that. There would be no liability for parents or grandparents, civilly. The only responsibility left in the act is with respect to traffic infractions and that is confined only to parents and legal guardians."

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of a facetious amendment regarding Senator Hurley's grandchildren in response to remarks made by Senator Hurley during floor debate.

On motion of Senator Hurley, the amendment by Senator Pullen was withdrawn.

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Charnley, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 4548 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Talmadge, my question relates to the $30.00 penalty. I understand that if there is no restraint system for the child, then there is going to be a warning and if they are caught without the seat, then there is going to be a $30.00 penalty. But is that penalty also attached to the fact that the child might not be in the seat? The seat might be there but what if the seat is vacant and the child is sitting down beside it instead of in it?"

Senator Talmadge: "My understanding is the child must be confined in the auto restraint system in the automobile, if they are 5 years old or under."

Senator Hurley: "But then, if they are not, then they receive this $30.00 penalty, is that right?"

Senator Talmadge: "Initially, they would receive the warning, later on they would be guilty of a traffic infraction and the ticket would be issued."

Senator Hurley: "The only other alternative would be to stay home, I guess."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "In further answer to Senator Hurley, any legal system has to have some 'give' in it and any police officer, of course, knows that every time he or she is out on the beat, or a traffic policeman in the same way, and he has to make a judgment as to whether he is going to issue a ticket or not. And that goes on every day and it will surely go on here, too.

"And I would assume that that traffic policeman or highway patrolman would make the kind of judgment that we would hope he would make as to what is an appropriate time to issue, first the warning, and later on a traffic infraction, depending on what the particular circumstances are.

"You have that kind of 'give' in the system that allows for that kind of dealing with particular circumstances as they may arise and the kind of explanation that can be given by the driver as to why the child, at that particular time, was not in the restraint; but then beyond that, going to the merits of it, at the national level now, there is increasing focus of attention on this as one of the easiest, fastest ways to reduce the carnage on our highways and save lives and reduce the significant number of injuries.

"Very inexpensive, not millions and millions of dollars kinds of impacts that we are talking about in changing design of highways, but a very simple device that will save lives and reduce injuries; and one that a responsible parent ought to be doing anyway.

"A law does a couple of things: it sets standards, but it also has the mechanism of informing and communicating value; and that is what this is doing here; and not only on the standards setting, but a value communication, this is a highly desirable piece of legislation."

Senators Peterson, Wilson and Quigg demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 4548.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 4548, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 11; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bluechel, Bottiger, Charnley, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Haley, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lysen, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman—33.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I would like to share with the body some of my ruminations and cogitations over the events of the past few hours and days.

"As I reflect on the society that we live in, I find that there are halls of fame for basketball players and football players and baseball players and cowboys and pioneers and founding fathers and others, but not for retired legislators.

"I would like to move that a hall of fame be established for this latter group and I would like to nominate one of our members to be Number One. He is a man, who, first of all, is courageous beyond all measure, he possesses a unique quality of clairvoyance, known to be possessed by no other member of this body. His perception of his duties to his fellow man inspired his decision to take his leave from these hallowed halls.

"This most laudable, foresighted, forthright and masterful action caused for him a position of preeminence attained by not one of us, save this one.

"I give to you that distinguished, ebullient, efficacious and voracious Senator, Senator Bruce Wilson. I hope you will join me."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson: "I am staggered by this message, Senator, and will never forget it, along with a lot of other things that have happened around here."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Senator Guess. It is a remarkably good idea, extremely well done."

Interest shall be charged at the rate set by the director of retirement systems from the date of return to active duty or from the effective date of this amendatory section, whichever is later, until the date of payment. The Washington state patrol shall pay into the retirement system the amount which it would have contributed had the person not been disabled. The payment shall become due and payable, in total, when the person makes the first payment. If the person fails to complete the full payment required within the time period specified, any payments made to the retirement fund under this section shall be refunded with interest and any payment by the Washington state patrol to the retirement fund for this purpose shall be refunded.

Sec. 31. Section 43.43.310, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 8, chapter 205, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 43.43.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The right of any person to a retirement allowance or optional retirement allowance under the provisions hereof and all moneys and investments and income thereof are exempt from any state, county, municipal, or other local tax and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or the insolvency laws, or other processes of law whatsoever and shall be unassignable except as herein specifically provided.

(2) Benefits under this chapter shall be payable to a spouse or ex-spouse to the extent expressly provided for in any court decree of dissolution or legal separation or in any court order or court-approved property settlement agreement incident to any court decree of dissolution or legal separation.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a beneficiary of a retirement allowance from authorizing deductions therefrom for payment of premiums due on any group insurance policy or plan issued for the benefit of a group comprised of members of the Washington state patrol or other public employees of the state of Washington.

~~((4) Deductions made in the past from retirement benefits are hereby expressly recognized, ratified and affirmed. Future deductions may only be made in accordance with this section:))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. There is added to chapter 2.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The right of any person to a retirement allowance or optional retirement allowance under the provisions of this chapter and all moneys and investments and income thereof are exempt from any state, county, municipal, or other local tax and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or the insolvency laws, or other processes of law whatsoever and shall be unassignable except as herein specifically provided.

(2) Benefits under this chapter shall be payable to a spouse or ex-spouse to the extent expressly provided for in any court decree of dissolution or legal separation or in any court order or court-approved property settlement agreement incident to any court decree of dissolution or legal separation.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a beneficiary of a retirement allowance from authorizing deductions therefrom for payment of premiums due on any group insurance policy or plan issued for the benefit of a group comprised of public employees of the state of Washington.

(4) Deductions made in the past from retirement benefits are hereby expressly recognized, ratified, and affirmed. Future deductions may only be made in accordance with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. There is added to chapter 41.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Every employer participating in one or more of the retirement systems listed in RCW 41.50.030 shall fully cooperate in the administration of the systems in which its employees participate, including the distribution of information to employees, and shall accept and carry out all other duties as required by law, regulation, or administrative instruction.

(2) If an employee is entitled to retroactive service credit which was not previously established through no fault of the employee, or through an employer error which has caused a member's compensation or contributions to be understated or overstated so as to cause a loss to the retirement funds, the director may bill the employer for the loss, to include interest, if applicable. The employer contributions, with interest thereon, will be treated as if in fact the interest was part of the normal employer contribution and no distribution of interest received shall be required.

(3) Employer-paid employee contributions will not be credited to a member's account until the employer notifies the director in writing that the employer has been reimbursed by the employee or beneficiary for the payment. The employer shall have the right to collect from the employee the amount of the employee's obligation. Failure on the part of the employer to collect all or any part of the sums which may be due from the employee or beneficiary shall in no way cause the employer obligation for the total liability to be lessened.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of retirement systems shall make a review of each member employed by an employer being retired on and after July 1, 1982, and whose benefits are determined by RCW 41.40.185. The purpose of the review is to identify any retiree whose average compensation earnable for purposes of determining retirement benefits exceeds the average annual compensation during the two-year period immediately preceding the years used in computing retirement benefits by more than the percentage increase determined in subsection (1) of this section.

(1) For the retiree's average final compensation period, the basis for making the comparison required by this section shall be a percentage increase equal to one percentage point in excess of each of the average percentage general salary increases granted during such average final compensation period to all employees of that employer who are members of the retirement system under this chapter, adjusted for incremental increases for seniority and/or performance, and staff position changes.

(2) For all retirees identified in this section, the department shall calculate the increase in the basic retirement benefit which results from any increase in salary granted an employee in excess of the authorized salary increase. The department will then, utilizing tables developed by the state actuary, determine the extra pension cost attributable to exceeding such average and shall bill the retiree's employer, who shall remit the entire amount determined to the retirement system within thirty days, except that the director is empowered to omit billing for an amount less than fifty dollars.

(3) Any post-retirement increases resulting from the excess benefit identified in subsection (2) of this section shall be billed to the last employer as they occur on the basis set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. There is hereby created a select committee which shall review the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' (LEOFF) retirement system. The committee shall be made up of the following individuals: Four members of the Washington senate, two from each caucus, chosen by the president of the senate; four members of the house of representatives, two from each caucus, chosen by the speaker of the house; three members chosen by the governor, at least one of whom shall be a member of the LEOFF II system. The committee shall prepare a report, including any recommendations, for the January, 1983 session of the legislature. The committee shall cease to exist upon presentation of its report.

MOTION

Senator Scott moved the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4640.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, Mr. President, if Senator Scott is right well then, I am sure that I do not have to tell you that your rulings have not indicated that. I think you have always been consistent in your rulings that just because you are dealing with pensions, in fact Senator Scott raised the point of order on a tax bill the other night that dealt with timber tax on a little amendment that I had that all I was doing was changing the timber tax and that was clearly outside the scope and object, and I agreed with it. I understood that, but I think is clearly outside the scope and object of this bill, too, and I think Senator Scott, probably deep in his heart or in the dark of night or wherever it is that he talks to himself, would probably agree that this is outside the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

At 6:40 p.m., there being no objection, the Senate was declared to be at ease. The President called the Senate to order at 7:25 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4640 together with the motion by Senator Scott that the Senate concur in the House amendments, was ordered held for a Ruling by the President on April 5, 1982.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1226.

On page 33 of the Committee Amendment, beginning on line 10, strike all of subsection (1), through and including line 26, and insert the following:

"(1) After consultation with institution heads, employee organizations, and other interested parties, the personnel director shall develop employee performance evaluation standards, procedures, and forms which shall be used by institutions of higher education for the appraisal of employee job performance at least annually. The performance evaluation procedures shall include means whereby individual institutions and related boards may develop special performance factors peculiar to the organizational needs of particular employing institutions. Performance evaluation standards shall not include detailed work expectations, which shall be developed by the employing institution."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Hemstad, the last sentence that you have added on to these amendments which say 'Performance evaluation standards shall not include detailed work expectations which shall be developed by the employing agency.' I guess I am curious as to why you think this is an essential part of this particular amendment?"

Senator Hemstad: "At least two points should probably be emphasized. First is, that each employee should be made aware of the supervisor's expectations, which of course will be important in the context of using performance as a major component in determining both salary and status in an agency.

"And second that those expectations are more properly developed by the local agency or the local institution than by the central personnel board because it is at the local level that they can be more tailored to the individual position or the individual need of that position."

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

Senator Hemstad moved the following amendments by Senators Hemstad, Pullen, Fuller and Quigg, to the committee amendment, be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 19 of the Committee Amendment, line 19, after "chapter" and before the period, insert ", or if the performance rating category received in the performance evaluation would result in a withdrawal of the increment increase previously received other than the increment increase received under section 8(3) of this act"

On page 34 of the Committee Amendment, line 12, after "chapter" and before the period, insert ", or if the performance rating category received in the performance evaluation would result in a withdrawal of the increment increase previously received other than the increment increase received under section 21(3) of this act"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hemstad, the section you are dealing with and amending here applies to promotions and salary step increases. Is that correct?"

Senator Hemstad: "Yes."

Senator Bottiger: "It does not apply to layoffs, they would have no appeal rights under layoffs, no appeal rights on promotions, and no appeal rights on rehires. Is that correct?"

Senator Hemstad: To clarify my first answer, I believe the section pertains to the step increases only."

Senator Bottiger: "Okay. This is the salary, the increment salary."

Senator Hemstad: "That is right. But further to your point. There is the entire existing civil service structure in place with its elaboration of the rules and regulations that deal with external appeals on the question of promotions and layoffs."

Senator Bottiger: "Is it your understanding, Senator, that those sections are amended here and the internal, within the department only appeal, will still apply to layoffs, promotions, and rehires? The external appeal to the board claiming that the rehire was for reasons other than the internal department evaluation will not be founded in the state personnel board. You will only be able to go within your own department?"

Senator Hemstad: "I am a bit uncertain in my answer to that because I am unclear as to the relationship of this to the overall rulemaking authority of the personnel board with regard to those other issues."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I am not unclear. There is no external appeal to layoffs, promotions, or rehires which go now under this act."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCOTT

Senator Scott: "Senator Bottiger is correct that we are not changing the status quo here. The Hemstad amendment speaks to changes that are negative from the employees point of view as to issues of money under this system. If they do not get, if, for instance the increment is taken away from them, on matters of procedure, the level playing field the rules of the game, the rules under which all of this takes place, on matters of procedure, they can now and will continue to be able to appeal up to the board, outside the agency."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I assume that the illustration you give would be in violation of other existing statutes and I am sure could be proceeded against. I think, perhaps, your illustration was not particularly apt."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, that is a question of when the personnel people were in our caucus, I asked the very same question, and they made the very same assumption that you did, that no one has yet been able to point out to me, specifically, where such an activity might run afoul of existing law, what existing law that might be.

"The fact of the matter is, when you go to a performance-based system, I think you run this kind of risk. There isn't anything in law now that we know of that would bar that."

Senator Clarke: "My understanding is that the situation that you have outlined would constitute a violation of existing law and it is hard for me to conceive that if a discharge was based upon a violation of existing law that there would be no right to contest that particular termination."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendments by Senators Hemstad, Pullen, Fuller and Quigg to the committee amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 20 of the Committee Amendment, beginning on line 25, after "on" delete "above-satisfactory" and insert "satisfactory"

On page 36 of the Committee Amendment, beginning on line 14, after "on" delete "above-satisfactory" and insert "satisfactory"

On page 19, line 19, after "chapter" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act,"

On page 19, line 23, after "shall" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act,"

On page 21, line 18, after "board" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act"

On page 22, line 22, after "shall" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act,"

On page 33, line 33, after "shall" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act,"

On page 34, line 12, after "chapter" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act"

On page 37, line 8, after "board" insert " ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act"

On page 40, line 5, after "shall" insert: ", subject to legislative approval under section 30 of this act,"

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Hemstad and Fuller to the committee amendment:

On page 42 of the Committee Amendment, after line 21, insert the following:

"For the purposes of this section the proposed rules and regulations relating to employee performance evaluations presented to the legislature as provided herein shall not become effective nor shall any employee be subject to written evaluation thereunder prior to approval of such rules and regulations by the senate and house of representatives in the form of a concurrent resolution. Such rules and regulations shall not become effective until a minimum of thirty days after approval by the legislature in the form of a concurrent resolution. If the legislature fails to adopt such concurrent resolution before July 1, 1986, sections 6 through 9, 11 through 13, 18, 20 through 22, and 25 through 29 of this act are null and void and without further force or effect.

The rules and regulations as approved herein shall become effective as provided herein and thereafter may be amended or revised by the state personnel board pursuant to the terms and conditions of chapter 41.06 RCW and by the higher education personnel board as provided in 28B.16 RCW, but such rules and regulations shall not be amended or revised by the state personnel board or the higher education personnel board within one hundred eighty days from the effective date of the initial approval by the legislature. In addition to submission of any amendment or revision to the joint legislative rules review committee pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, any such amendment or revision shall be submitted to the senate and house of representatives committees on ways and means and state government."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Pullen, would it be your intent that the legislature in a concurrent resolution might very well write the performance for standards review itself?"

Senator Pullen: "Definitely not. The intent of this is that we simply say 'yes' or 'no' to the rules and regulations that will be presented to us. We will not have the authority to rewrite them ourselves; of course, we could make suggestions as to how the rules could be amended and if our suggestions are not carried out, we would have the right to vote 'no' on a concurrent resolution or not adopt a concurrent resolution altogether."

Senator Shinpoch: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger, Ridder, Talmadge, Vognild, Hurley and Wojahn to the committee amendment:

This section shall apply to any form of salary increase, but shall not include fringe benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) It is the policy of the state of Washington that, when conditions require reductions or layoffs in the workforce of any state agency, the state maintain those positions providing direct care or service to the public, clients, or residents of the state that are essential for their health and well-being, as well as maintain those positions maintaining the facilities and properties of the state.

(2) In furtherance of this policy, each agency head shall develop plans for implementing reductions or layoffs in the workforce. Plans shall identify those management and nonmanagement positions scheduled for reduction or layoff. Pursuant to these plans, reductions or layoffs in the nonmanagement workforce shall not result in a greater ratio of management to nonmanagement positions in the agency than existed immediately prior to the reductions or layoffs.

(3) All plans shall be submitted to the office of financial management. The director of financial management may grant exceptions to the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section when the director finds that compliance would inordinately disrupt the delivery of services or maintenance of facilities and properties of the state.

(4) Whenever a reduction or layoff in workforce is required, each agency head shall prepare a list indicating the actual number of layoffs among management and nonmanagement positions. Each agency head shall also prepare a detailed organizational chart indicating all agency positions and their interrelationships. All lists and organizational charts shall be submitted to and reviewed by the office of financial management. On or before January 15, 1982, and each year thereafter, the office of financial management shall file a report with the committees on state government of the senate and the house of representatives. After consultation with institution heads, employee organizations, and other interested parties, the board shall develop standardized employee performance evaluation procedures and forms which shall be used by institutions of higher learning for the appraisal of employee job performance at least annually. These procedures shall include means whereby individual institutions may supplement the standardized evaluation process with special performance factors peculiar to specific organizational needs. This evaluation procedure shall place primary emphasis on recording how well the employee has contributed to efficiency, effectiveness, and economy in fulfilling institution and job objectives. A standardized performance evaluation procedure shall be instituted not later than July 1, 1978, for all employees. This section applies to both classified employees and employees who occupy exempt positions for which the board determines salaries.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Hemstad, would you yield to a question, please?"

"Senator Hemstad, you said that with the amendments that we have now drafted, the bill is essentially a study, and I understand that we have had some discussion about a study of the performance aspect of the bill.

"My concern is with another portion of the bill and that is the portion of the bill that speaks to layoffs. In the present system, layoffs are made on the basis of seniority, and when people are rehired on the basis of seniority; so you really have a rule of one. As you get down to the point where your name is on the list, the next person up gets rehired.

"Now, with the bill in its form as I last saw it yesterday, that was changed to reemployment on the basis of seniority yes, but with the rule of five, so that there would be five names on the list and from those names one person would be selected for a rehire, and my problem with the section of the bill is that when you got to the point where there were no longer five names of people who had been laid off, to submit, then you start going to other lists to make up your five names, so you could have three names, let us say, from people who had been laid off and two names of people who had either transferred or people who were new applicants to state employment.

"Effectively, this would allow an agency personnel director or another agency person to freeze out from state employment, permanently, for political or personal reasons. Now the study aspects of the bill that you have spoken to in the amendments, do they . . . ?"

Senator Clarke: "Simply point of order. Is Senator Woody asking a question?"

Senator Woody: "I just asked it."

Senator Clarke: "The point of order is you are not asking a question, you are speaking, which is perfectly in order but I don't want the record to be cluttered up with a 10-minute exposition which purports to be a question."

Senator Woody: "Well, Mr. President, I am sorry, Senator Clarke, I honestly had a question to ask, but I felt that I should explain my problem. The question is with the amendments that we have now adopted. Is this particular problem also going to be an issue of study or is this an issue which has not been dealt with by the adoptive amendment? Thank you."

(No reply by Senator Hemstad.)
