Sec. 6. Section 12, chapter 137. Laws ol 1981 as last amended by section 2, chapter 163,
Laws ol 1983 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as lollows:
When a person is convicted ol a lelony. the court shall impose punishment as provided In this section.
(I) Except as authorized In subsections (2) and (5) ol this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range tor the offense.
(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range tor that offense if it finds. considering the purpose ol this chapter. that there are substantial and compelling reasons juslilylng an exceptional sentence.
(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set lorih the reasons tor its decision In written findings ol lact and conclusions ol law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.
(4) An offender convicted ol the crime ol murder In the first degree shall be sentenced to a term ol total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted ol the crime ol assault In the first degree where the offender used lorce or means likely lo result In death or Intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term ol total confinement not less than live years. An offender convicted ol the crime ol rape In the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.


(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:
   (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
   (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
   (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
   (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the ((probation)) community corrections officer of any change in the offender’s address or employment;
   (e) Report as directed to the court and a ((probation)) community corrections officer; or
   (f) Pay a fine, make restitution, and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant’s crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, restitution, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds ((that the sentence otherwise authorized by this subsection would pose an unacceptable threat to community safety)), considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of any violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020, or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:
   (I) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
   (ii) Undergo available outpatient sexual offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sexual offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
   (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender’s address or employment;
   (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
   (v) Pay a fine, make restitution, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
   (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender’s crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender’s amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court’s order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of ((sixty)) thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than ((sixty)) thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(((((a))) (9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. (No such period of time may exceed ten years subsequent to the entering of the judgment of conviction.)) In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(((b))) (10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(((c))) (11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of social and health services, and so far as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The power to defer or suspend the imposition or execution of sentence is hereby abolished in respect to sentences prescribed for felonies committed after June 30, 1984, except for offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a), the special sexual offender sentencing alternative, whose sentence may be suspended.

Sec. 8. Section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 6, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) The terms of the sentence may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures developed and promulgated by the department. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the department. In no case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence;

(2) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers:
(3) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances;

(4) If the sentence of confinement is in excess of ((eighteen)) twelve months but not in excess of three years, no more than the final three months of the sentence may be served in partial confinement designed to aid the offender in finding work and reestablishing himself or herself in the community. If the sentence of confinement is in excess of three years, no more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in such partial confinement:

(5) The governor may pardon any offender; ((and))

(6) The department of corrections may release an offender from ((total)) confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section((c)); and

(7) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the governor finds that an emergency exists in that the populations of county jails exceed their reasonable, maximum capacity in a significant manner as a result of increases in the sentenced felon population due to implementation of chapter 9.94A RCW, the governor may do any one or more of the following:

(1) Call the sentencing guidelines commission into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating the standard ranges and other standards. The commission may adopt any revision or amendment to the standard ranges or other standards that it believes appropriate to deal with the emergency situation. The revision or amendment shall be adopted in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW and shall take effect on the date prescribed by the commission. The legislature shall approve or modify the commission's revision or amendment at the next legislative session after the revision or amendment takes effect. Failure of the legislature to act shall be deemed as approval of the revision or amendment. The commission shall also analyze how alternatives to total confinement are being provided and used and may recommend other emergency measures that may relieve the overcrowding.

(2) Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

Sec. 10. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

A sentence ((which)) that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. A sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, a community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest of the offender without a warrant, pending a determination by the court. If there is reasonable cause to believe that an offender has violated a condition or requirement of the sentence, an offender may be required to submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property. A community corrections officer may also arrest an offender for any crime committed in his or her presence. The facts and circumstances of the conduct of the offender shall be reported by the community corrections officer, with recommendations, to the court.

If a community corrections officer arrests or causes the arrest of an offender under this section, the offender shall be confined and detained in the county jail of the county in which the offender was taken into custody, and the sheriff of that county shall receive and keep in the county jail, where room is available, all prisoners delivered to the jail by the community corrections officer, and such offenders shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the court, pursuant to a written order.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, the ((defendant may receive)) court may modify its order of judgment and sentence and impose further punishment in accordance with this section.

(2) If ((the defendant)) an offender fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of a sentence the following provisions apply:

(a) The court, upon the motion of the state, or upon its own motion, shall require the ((defendant)) offender to show cause why the ((defendant)) offender should not be ((continued)) punished for the noncompliance. The court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest for the ((defendant)) offender's appearance;

(b) ((The state has the burden of showing noncompliance by a preponderance of the evidence.)) The defendant has the burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the noncompliance was not a willful refusal;) If the court finds that the violation ((was willful)) has occurred, it ((shall)) may order the ((defendant)) offender to be confined for a period not to exceed sixty days for each violation, and may convert a term of partial confinement to total confinement. Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing on noncompliance shall be credited against any confinement order by the court; and

(c) If the court finds that the violation was not willful, the court may ((reduce or extend the payment period or eliminate the fine or reduce or relieve the defendant of the obligation of community service work or of making restitution)) modify its previous order regarding payment of fines or other monetary payments and regarding community service obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of escape charges if appropriate.

Sec. 13. Section 21, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 7, chapter 192. Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence within the standard range for the offense shall not be appealed. For purposes of this section, a sentence imposed on a first offender under RCW 9.94A.120(5) shall also be deemed to be within the standard range for the offense and shall not be appealed.

(2) (lf) A sentence ((is)) outside ((of)) the sentence range for the offense((,(the defendant or prosecutor may seek review of the sentence before)) is subject to appeal by the defendant or the state. The appeal shall be to the court of appeals in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court.

(3) Pending review of the sentence, the sentencing court or the court of appeals may order the defendant confined or placed on conditional release, including bond.

(4) To reverse a sentence which is outside the sentence range, the reviewing court must find: (a) Either that the reasons supplied by the sentencing judge are not supported by the record which was before the judge or that those reasons do not justify a sentence outside the standard range for that offense; or (b) that the sentence imposed was clearly excessive or clearly too lenient.

(5) A review under this section shall be made solely upon the record that was before the sentencing court. Written briefs shall not be required and the review and decision shall be ((heard within thirty days following the date of sentencing and a decision shall be rendered within fifteen days following the oral argument)) made in an expedited manner according to rules adopted by the supreme court.

(6) The court of appeals shall issue a written opinion in support of its decision whenever the judgment of the sentencing court is reversed and may issue written opinions in any other case where the court believes that a written opinion would provide guidance to sentencing judges and others in implementing this chapter and in developing a common law of sentencing within the state.

Sec. 14. Section 22, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.220 are each amended to read as follows:

When an offender has completed the requirements of the ((offender's)) sentence, the secretary of the department or his designee shall notify the sentencing court, which shall discharge the offender and provide the offender with a certificate of discharge. The discharge shall have the effect of restoring all civil rights lost by operation of law upon conviction, and the certificate of discharge shall so state. Nothing in this section prohibits the use of an offender's prior record for purposes of determining sentences for later offenses as provided in this chapter. Nothing in this section affects or prevents use of the offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution either as an element of an offense or for impeachment purposes. A certificate of discharge is not based on a finding of rehabilitation.

Upon release from custody, the offender may apply to the department for counseling and help in adjusting to the community. This voluntary help may be provided for up to one year following the release from custody.

Sec. 15. Section 2, chapter 207. Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a punishment imposed under this chapter requires ((probation)) community supervision services to be provided, the sentencing court shall require((,(as a condition of probation))) that the offender pay to the department of corrections the monthly assessment, prescribed under subsection (2) of this section, which shall be for the duration of the probation and which shall be considered as payment or part payment of the cost of providing probation supervision to the probationer. The court may exempt a person from the payment of all (or)) any part of the assessment based upon any of the following factors:

(a) The offender has diligently attempted but has been unable to obtain employment ((which)) that provides the offender sufficient income to make such payments.

(b) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment.

(c) The offender has an employment handicap, as determined by an examination acceptable to or ordered by the court.

(d) The offender's age prevents him from obtaining employment.

(e) The offender is responsible for the support of dependents and the payment of the assessment constitutes an undue hardship on the offender.

(f) Other extenuating circumstances as determined by the court.
(2) The department of corrections shall adopt a rule prescribing the amount of the assessment. The department may, if it finds it appropriate, prescribe a schedule of assessments \((\text{which})\) that shall vary in accordance with the intensity or cost of the supervision. The department may not prescribe any assessment \((\text{which})\) that is less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

(3) All amounts required to be paid under this section shall be collected by the department of corrections and deposited by the department in the state general fund.

(4) This section shall not apply to probation services provided under an Interstate compact pursuant to chapter 9.95 RCW or to probation services provided for persons placed on probation prior to June 10, 1982.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Definitions:
Serious Violent: Murder 1, Murder 2, Assault 1, Kidnapping 1, Rape 1
Escape: Escape 1, Escape 2, Willful Failure to Return From Work Release or Furlough.
Serious Traffic: Driving While Intoxicated, Actual Physical Control, Reckless Driving, Hit-and-Run.
Felony Traffic: Felony Hit-and-Run, Vehicular Assault, Attempting to Elude a Police Officer.
Drug: All felony violations of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance.

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330.

The offender score is computed in the following way:

1. Include juvenile felony convictions if the offender was 15 or older at the time the offense was committed and the offender was less than 21 ((or less)) at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

2. If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnapping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for each prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

3. If the present conviction is for a violent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110) and not covered in subsection (2) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction (rounding down for uneven scores):

4. If the present conviction is for Burglary 1 or 2, count two points for each prior adult Burglary 1 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

5. If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110), count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction (rounding down for uneven scores):

6. If the present conviction is for escape, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores):

7. If the present conviction is for Negligent Homicide, only count the following crimes as part of the offender score: Negligent Homicide, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504). Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500). Count each adult prior conviction as one point and each juvenile prior conviction as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores):

8. In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the most serious offense, using the seriousness levels to define most serious, is scored:

9. If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count priors as in subsection (5) of this section, however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

10. If the present conviction is for Vehicular Homicide, only count the following crimes as part of the offender score: Vehicular Homicide, Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504). Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500). Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500). Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.

11. If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this section, count two points for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

12. If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A 76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A 76-.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

13. If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (9) of this section; however count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

14. If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.

(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.

(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.

(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.

Sec. 20. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310. (Table 1)). ((The judge may sentence anywhere within this range. Except in decisions concerning first-time, nonviolent offenders, any sentence imposed by a sentencing judge which is outside the presumptive range is a departure from the guidelines, requires written reasons from the judge, and is reviewable on appeal.)) The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

In determining any sentence, the trial (judge) court may use no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, and admitted to or acknowledged at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the (judge) court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The real facts shall be deemed proven at the evidentiary hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Real facts (which) establish elements of a higher crime, a more serious crime, or additional crimes cannot be used to go outside the ((guidelines)) presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation.

Sec. 21. Section 9, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.380 are each amended to read as follows:

For sentences of nonviolent offenders for (less than) one year or less, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall (justify) state its reasons if they are not used.

(With the exception of the first-time offender, the judge shall establish the sentence in terms of total confinement. This sentence can be converted as follows: One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service can replace one day of total confinement. The community service conversion is limited to 240 hours or 36 working days. In addition, the judge may impose up to one year of community supervision to ensure that the terms of the alternative sentence are met. Fines can be assessed according to the following formula:

- Class A felonies $0 - 50,000
- Class B felonies $0 - 20,000
- Class C felonies $0 - 10,000)

These alternatives include the following sentence conditions that the court may order as substitutes for total confinement: (1) One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service may be substituted for one day of total confinement. (2) The community service conversion is limited to two hundred forty hours or thirty days. The conversion of total confinement to partial confinement may be applied to all sentences of one year or less, including those for violent offenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:
On all sentences of confinement for one year or less the court may impose up to one year of community supervision. For confinement sentences, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the period of community supervision begins at the date of release from confinement. For non-confinement sentences, the period of community supervision begins at the date of entry of the judgment and sentence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

On all sentences under this chapter the court may impose fines according to the following ranges:

- Class A felonies: $0 - $50,000
- Class B felonies: $0 - $20,000
- Class C felonies: $0 - $10,000

Sec. 24. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The presumptive sentence shall be the midpoint of the standard range as established by the crime of conviction and any applicable enhancements. The sentencing court shall impose the presumptive sentence or other sentence within the indicated standard range that it determines to be appropriate.

2. If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the court may impose any sentence deemed appropriate within the statutory term. If the court sentences outside the standard range, it shall set forth its justification for doing so in written findings and conclusions, and any sentence outside the standard range shall be subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence:

Mitigating Circumstances

1. To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.
2. Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.
3. The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.
4. The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.
5. The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).
6. The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.
7. The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Aggravating Circumstances

1. The defendant's conduct during the commission of the offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.
2. The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.
3. The offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:
   a. The offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;
   b. The offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;
   c. The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;
   d. The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the offense.
4. The offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify an offense as a major VUCSA:
   a. The offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or
   b. The offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or
   c. The offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or
   d. The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or
(e) The circumstances of the offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(f) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(g) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

(h) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.400.

The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

Sec. 25. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, ((at least one of which is a violent offense, and the offenses arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions, the sentences imposed shall run consecutively; provided that under this section, the presumptive sentence only for the most serious offense shall be determined by using the offender's actual criminal history score whereas the presumptive sentences for all other offenses shall be determined by using a criminal history score of zero)) the sentencing range for each offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct shall be counted as one crime in determining history.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) (Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, and either: (a) All of the offenses are nonviolent and they arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions; or (b) at least one of the offenses is a violent offense but they all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently; provided that the presumptive sentence for the most serious offense shall be enhanced by counting all other current offenses as prior offenses for purposes of calculating the criminal history score.

(4) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more nonviolent offenses which all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently)) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run consecutively with felony sentences previously imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, the presumptive sentence is determined by using the offender's actual criminal history score whereas the presumptive sentences for all other offenses shall be determined by using the offender's criminal history score whereas the presumptive sentences for all other offenses shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct shall be counted as one crime in determining history.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 26. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of ((attempted offenses or conspiracies to commit an offense)) the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the ((conviction)) crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 71.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

With respect to sexual psychopaths, this chapter applies only to crimes or offenses committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 28. Section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 72.65.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary is authorized to extend the limits of the place of confinement and treatment within the state of any prisoner convicted of a felony, sentenced to a term of confinement and treatment by the superior court, and serving such sentence in a state correctional institution under the jurisdiction of the department, by authorizing a work release plan for such prisoner, permitting him, under prescribed conditions, to do any of the following:

(a) Work at paid employment.

(b) Participate in a vocational training program: PROVIDED. That the tuition and other expenses of such a vocational training program shall be paid by the prisoner, by someone in his behalf, or by the department: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any expenses paid by the department shall be recovered by the department pursuant to the terms of RCW 72.65.050.

(c) Interview or make application to a prospective employer or employers, or enroll in a suitable vocational training program.

Such work release plan of any prison shall require that he be confined during the hours not reasonably necessary to implement the plan, in (1) a state correctional institution, (2) a county or city jail, which jail has been approved after inspection pursuant to RCW (79.01.426) 70.48.050, or (3) any other appropriate, supervised facility, after an agreement has been entered into between the department and the appropriate authorities of the facility for the housing of work release prisoners.

(2) (The secretary may lease or permit the use of a portion of any correctional facility, including necessary buildings, for a term not to exceed twenty years, to a private business organization for the purpose of establishing and operating a commercial enterprise deemed by the secretary to be consistent with the appropriate training and rehabilitation of prisoners.

Any business organization operating a commercial enterprise under this section may employ any inmates of the institution upon whose grounds it operates after such inmates have been authorized by the secretary to participate in the program. For the purposes of Washington law, the inmates participating in the program are deemed work releasees and are subject to all of the provisions of chapter 72.65 RCW.

Participants in the program are deemed to be parolees within the purview of 49 U.S.C. Sec. 69, and, except as prohibited by applicable provisions of the United States Code, prisoner participants in the program may be employed in the manufacture and processing of goods, wares, and merchandise for introduction into interstate commerce.

Any business organization established or participating in the program authorized under this section shall be deemed a private enterprise and subject to all the laws, rules, and regulations of this state governing the operation of similar business enterprises elsewhere in the state; and shall in no event pay prisoner participants in the program less than sixty percent of the prevailing wages for work of a similar nature performed by employees with similar skills in the locality in which the work is being performed: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subsection (2) shall expire and be of no further force and effect after January 1, 1984) (This section applies only to persons sentenced for crimes that were committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 29. Section 3, chapter 17, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 276, chapter 141. Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.65.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any prisoner serving a sentence in a state correctional institution may make application to participate in the work release program to the superintendent of the institution in which he is confined. Such application shall set forth the name and address of his proposed employer or employers and shall specify the vocational training program, if any, in which he is enrolled. It shall include a statement to be executed by such prisoner that if his application be approved he agrees to abide faithfully by all terms and conditions of the particular work release plan adopted for him. It shall further set forth such additional information as the department or the secretary shall require.

(2) This section applies only to persons sentenced for crimes that were committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 30. Section 4, chapter 17, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 277, chapter 141. Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.65.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of the state correctional institution in which a prisoner who has made application to participate in the work release program is confined, after careful study of the prisoner's conduct, attitude and behavior within the institutions under the jurisdiction of the department, his criminal history and all other pertinent case history material, shall determine whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe that the prisoner will honor his trust as a work release participant. After having made such determination, the superintendent, in his discretion, may deny the prisoner's application, or recommend to the secretary, or such officer of the department as the secretary may designate, that the prisoner be permitted to participate in the work release program. The secretary or his designee, may approve, reject, modify, or defer action on such recommendation. In the event of approval, the secretary or his designee, shall adopt a work release plan for the prisoner, which shall constitute an extension of the department as the secretary may designate, that the prisoner be permitted to participate in the work release program, such approval may be revoked, and if the prisoner has been released on a work release plan, he may be returned to a state correctional institution, or the plan may be modified, in the sole discretion of the secretary or his designee. Any prisoner who has been initially rejected either by the superintendent or the secretary or his designee, may reapply for permission to participate in a work release program after a period of time has elapsed from the
The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Voegild, Senator McDermott was excused.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1247, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1247, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1247, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 46; nays, 0; absent, 0; excused, 0.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen - 1.

Absent: Senator Deccio - 1.

Excused: Senator McDermott - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1247, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 880, by Representative Heck

Regulating payment procedures for certain health care providers not participants in a health service contract.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Moore moved the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment be adopted:

Beginning on line 8, after "18.53" strike "or 18.71" and insert "18.57, 18.71, 18.83 or 18.88"

On motion of Senator Moore, the following amendment to the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment was adopted:

On line 2 of the amendment, after "18.71," insert "18.74."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Bender moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 12, after "That" insert "If any financial institution as defined in RCW 30.04-505 pays any check which does not contain the endorsements required by this section, such financial institution shall be liable for three times the face value of the check together with reasonable attorneys' fees and any costs of collection; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the proposed amendment enlarges the scope and object of the bill. The purpose of the bill is to provide, with respect to, the method of payment of providers' checks and so forth and this brings in a completely new concept, which, as I recall, was not heard before the committee and would make banks liable for three times the amount of the check. I think that is something that certainly the financial institutions should have an opportunity to be heard. It's an entirely new and quite expansive subject."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of House Bill No. 880 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1164, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Heck, Sutherland, Allen, Rust, Dellwo, J. King, Tanner and D. Nelson)

Revising solid waste management procedures.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
The legislature finds:

(1) Continuing technological changes in methods of manufacture, packaging, and marketing of consumer products, together with the economic and population growth of this state, the rising affluence of its citizens, and its expanding industrial activity have created new and ever-mounting problems involving disposal of garbage, refuse, and solid waste materials resulting from domestic, agricultural, and industrial activities.

(2) Traditional methods of disposing of solid wastes in this state are no longer adequate to meet the ever-increasing problem. Improper methods and practices of handling and disposal of solid wastes pollute our land, air and water resources, blight our countryside, adversely affect land values, and damage the overall quality of our environment.

(3) Considerations of natural resource limitations, energy shortages, economics and the environment make necessary the development and implementation of solid waste recovery and/or recycling plans and programs.

(4) The following priorities in the management of solid waste are necessary and should be followed in order of descending priority as applicable:

(a) Waste reduction;
(b) Waste recycling;
(c) Energy recovery or incineration; and
(d) Landfill.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 41. Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "City" means every incorporated city and town.
(2) "Committee" means the solid waste advisory committee.
(3) "Department" means the department of ecology.
(4) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology.
(5) "Disposal site" means the location where any final treatment, utilization, processing, or depository of solid waste occurs.
(6) "Functional standards" means criteria for solid waste handling expressed in terms of expected performance or solid waste handling functions.
(7) "Jurisdictional health department" means city, county, city-county, or district public health department.
(8) "Person" means individual, firm, association, copartnership, political subdivision, government agency, municipality, industry, public or private corporation, or any other entity whatsoever.
(9) "Solid waste" means all putrescible and nonputrescible solid and semisolid wastes including, but not limited to, garbage, rubbish, ashes, industrial wastes, swill, demolition and construction wastes, abandoned vehicles or parts thereof, and discarded commodities.
(10) "Solid waste handling" means the management, storage, collection, transportation, treatment, utilization, processing, and final disposal of solid wastes, including the recovery and recycling of materials from solid wastes, the recovery of energy resources from such wastes or the conversion of the energy in such wastes to more useful forms or combinations thereof.
(11) "Waste reduction" means reducing the amount or type of waste generated.
(12) "Waste recycling" means reusing waste materials and extracting valuable materials from a waste stream.
(13) "Energy recovery or incineration" means reducing the volume of wastes by use of an enclosed device using controlled flame combustion.
(14) "Landfill" means a disposal facility or part of a facility at which waste is placed in or on land and which is not a land treatment facility.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The department in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, (may) shall adopt (such) minimum functional standards for solid waste handling (as it deems appropriate). These standards shall be designed to use the best available technology to protect the environment and human health, and shall be revised periodically to reflect new technology and information. Any such standards shall be reviewed and approved by the solid waste advisory committee established pursuant to RCW 70.95.040 during their promulgation and prior to their adoption. The department in adopting such standards may classify areas of the state with respect to population density, climate, geology, and other relevant factors bearing on solid waste (disposal) handling standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Each county or city siting a solid waste disposal facility shall review each potential site for conformance with the standards as set by the department for:
(a) Geology:
(b) Ground water;
(c) Soil;
(d) Flooding;
(e) Surface water;
(f) Slope;
(g) Cover material;
(h) Capacity;
(i) Climatic factors;
(j) Land use;
(k) Toxic air emissions; and
(l) Other factors as determined by the department.

(2) The standards in subsection (1) of this section shall be designed to use the best available technology to protect the environment and human health, and shall be revised periodically to reflect new technology and information.

(3) Each county shall establish a local solid waste advisory committee to assist in the development of programs and policies concerning solid waste handling and disposal and to review and comment upon proposed rules, policies, or ordinances prior to their adoption. Such committees shall consist of up to nine members and shall represent a balance of interests including, but not limited to, citizens, public interest groups, business, the waste management industry, and local elected public officials. The members shall be appointed by the county legislative authority. A county or city shall not apply for funds from the state and local improvements revolving account, Waste Disposal Facilities, 1980, under chapter 43.99F RCW, for the preparation, update, or major amendment of a comprehensive solid waste management plan unless the plan or revision has been prepared with the active assistance and participation of a local solid waste advisory committee.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 293, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county and city solid waste management plan shall include the following:

(1) A detailed inventory and description of all existing solid waste handling facilities including an inventory of any deficiencies in meeting current solid waste handling needs.

(2) The estimated long-range needs for solid waste handling facilities projected twenty years into the future.

(3) A program for the orderly development of solid waste handling facilities in a manner consistent with the plans for the entire county which shall:

(a) Meet the minimum functional standards for solid waste handling adopted by the department and all laws and regulations relating to air and water pollution, fire prevention, flood control, and protection of public health;

(b) Take into account the comprehensive land use plan for the county;

(c) Contain a six year construction and capital acquisition program for solid waste handling facilities; and

(d) Contain a plan for financing both capital costs and operational expenditures of the proposed solid waste management system.

(4) A program for surveillance and control.

(5) A current inventory and description of solid waste collection needs and operations within each respective jurisdiction which shall include:

(a) Any franchise for solid waste collection granted by the utilities and transportation commission in the respective jurisdictions including the name of the holder of the franchise and the address of his place of business and the area covered by his operation;

(b) Any city solid waste operation within the county and the boundaries of such operation;

(c) The population density of each area serviced by a city operation or by a franchised operation within the respective jurisdictions;

(d) The projected solid waste collection needs for the respective jurisdictions for the next six years.

(6) A review of potential areas that meet the criteria as outlined in section 4 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 6. Section 10, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall provide to counties and cities technical assistance in the preparation, review, and revision of solid waste management plans required by this chapter. Each comprehensive county solid waste management plan shall be submitted to the department for technical review and approval. The department may recommend revisions essential to the achievement of effective solid waste management and the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive county solid waste management plans and any city solid waste management plans prepared in accordance with RCW 70.95.080 shall be maintained in a current condition and reviewed and revised periodically by counties and cities as may be required by the department. The department shall be extended to show long-range needs for solid waste handling facilities for twenty years in the future, and a revised construction and capital acquisition program for six years in the future. Each revised solid waste (handling) management plan shall be submitted to the department (of environmental quality).

Each plan shall be reviewed and revised within five years of the effective date of this 1984 act, and thereafter shall be reviewed and revised if necessary, at least once every five years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to be codified between RCW 70.95.180 and 70.95.190 a new section to read as follows:

Every permit issued by a jurisdictional health department under RCW 70.95.180 shall be reviewed by the department to ensure that the proposed site or facility conforms with:

1. All applicable laws and regulations including the minimal functional standards for solid waste handling; and

2. The approved comprehensive solid waste management plan.

The department shall review the permit within thirty days after the issuance of the permit by the jurisdictional health department. The department may appeal the issuance of the permit by the jurisdictional health department to the pollution control hearings board, as described in chapter 43.21B RCW, for noncompliance with subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

No permit issued pursuant to RCW 70.95.180 after the effective date of this act shall be considered valid unless it has been reviewed by the department.

Sec. 9. Section 19, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Every permit for a solid waste disposal site shall be renewed annually on a date to be established by the jurisdictional health department having jurisdiction of the site. Prior to renewing a permit, the health department shall conduct such inspections as it deems necessary to assure that the solid waste disposal site and facilities located on the site meet minimum functional standards of the department (of environmental quality and), applicable local regulations, and are not in conflict with the approved solid waste management plan. The department shall review and may appeal the renewal as set forth for the approval of permits in section 8 of this 1984 act.

A renewal issued under this section shall not be considered valid unless it has been reviewed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department is authorized to use funds under chapter 43.99F RCW to disburse to local governments in developing solid waste recovery or recycling projects. Priority shall be given to those projects that use incineration of solid waste to produce energy and to recycling projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.120 are each repealed."

HOUSE BILL NO. 1159, by Representatives Niemi, Hankins, Sommers, Johnson, Galloway, Sayan, Walk and Miller (by Office of Financial Management request)

Establishing uniform compensation for boards and commissions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following Committee on State Government amendment was adopted:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that members of part-time boards, commissions, councils, committees, and other similar groups established by the executive, legislative, or judicial branches of state government make a valuable contribution to the public welfare. This time and talent so generously donated to the state is gratefully acknowledged.

The legislature further finds that membership on certain part-time groups involves responsibility for major policy decisions and represents a significant demand on the time and resources of members. The demands and responsibilities are well beyond reasonable expectations of an individual's gratuitous contribution to the public welfare. It is therefore appropriate to provide compensation to members of specific qualifying groups and further to provide three levels of compensation based on the responsibilities of the group and the time required to perform the group's statutory duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS ONE GROUPS. (1) Any part-time board, commission, council, committee, or other similar group which is established by the executive, legislative, or judicial branch to participate in state government and which functions primarily in an advisory, coordinating, or planning capacity shall be identified as a class one group.

(2) Absent any other provision of law to the contrary, no money beyond the customary reimbursement or allowance for expenses may be paid by or through the state to members of class one groups for attendance at meetings of such groups.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:
CLASS TWO GROUPS. (1) Any agricultural commodity commission established pursuant to Title 15 or 16 RCW shall be identified as a class two group for purposes of compensation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each member of a class two group is entitled to receive compensation in an amount not to exceed thirty-five dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any compensation from such government for working that day.

(3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the members of that specific group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS THREE GROUPS. (1) Any part-time, statutory board, commission, council, committee, or other similar group which has rule-making authority, performs quasi-judicial functions, has responsibility for the administration or policy direction of a state agency or program, or performs regulatory or licensing functions with respect to a specific profession, occupation, business, or industry shall be identified as a class three group for purposes of compensation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each member of a class three group is eligible to receive compensation in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any compensation from such government for working that day.

(3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the members of that specific group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS FOUR GROUPS. (1) A part-time, statutory board, commission, council, committee, or other similar group shall be identified as a class four group for purposes of compensation if the group:

(a) Has rule-making authority, performs quasi-judicial functions, or has responsibility for the administration or policy direction of a state agency or program;

(b) Has duties that are deemed by the legislature to be of overriding sensitivity and importance to the public welfare and the operation of state government; and

(c) Requires service from its members representing a significant demand on their time that is normally in excess of one hundred hours of meeting time per year.

(2) Each member of a class four group is eligible to receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any compensation from such government for working that day.

(3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the members of that specific group.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 157, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 1, chapter 21. Laws of 1969 and RCW 1.08.005 are each amended to read as follows:

For attendance at meetings of the committee or in attending to such other business of the committee as may be authorized thereby, each legislative member of the committee shall receive the per diem and travel allowances provided for such members by RCW 44.04.120, and each other member shall be ((entitled to allowances at rates equivalent thereto)) compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 185, Laws of 1943 as amended by section 1, chapter 42. Laws of 1971 and RCW 2.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a commission to supervise the publication of the decisions of the supreme court and court of appeals of this state in both the form of advance sheets for temporary use and in permanent form, to be known as the commission on supreme court reports, and to consist of six members, as follows: The chief justice of the supreme court, who shall be chairman of the commission, the reporter of decisions of the supreme court, the state law librarian, a judge of the court of appeals designated by the chief judges, the public printer, and a representative of the Washington state bar who shall be appointed by the president thereof. Memers of the commission shall serve as such without additional or any compensation: PROVIDED.
That members shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 8. Section 5. chapter 268. Laws of 1981 and RCW 2.64.040 are each amended to read as

Commission members and alternate members shall (serve without compensation but) be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060((as now or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter
34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon appointment of the initial membership the commission shall meet at a time and place designated by the governor and proceed to organize, electing one of such members as chairman of the commission who shall serve until July 1, 1974; thereafter a chairman shall be elected annually.

(2) A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the commission: PROVIDED, That all actions of the commission relating to the regulation of licensing under this chapter shall require an affirmative vote by three or more members of the commission.

(3) The principal office of the commission shall be at the state capitol, and meetings shall be held at least quarterly and at such other times as may be called by the chairman or upon written request to the chairman of a majority of the commission.

(4) Members shall be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall receive ((fifty dollars for each day or major portion thereof spent in performance of their duties plus)) reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now or hereafter amended)).

(5) Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of ((said)) the members of the commission shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor, in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for elective state officers, which oath and bond shall be filed with the secretary of state. The premium for said bond shall be paid by the commission.

(6) Any member of the commission may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance, or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final.
Removal of any member of the commission by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

Sec. 10. Section 6. chapter 137. Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission consists of fifteen voting members, one of whom the governor shall designate as chairperson. With the exception of ex officio voting members, the voting members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(2) The voting membership consists of the following:

(a) The head of the state agency having general responsibility for adult correction programs, as an ex officio member;

(b) The director of financial management, as an ex officio member;

(c) Until July 1, 1988, the chairman of the board of prison terms and paroles, as an ex officio member, and thereafter the chairman of the clemency and pardons board, as an ex officio member;

(d) Two prosecuting attorneys;

(e) Two attorneys with particular expertise in defense work;

(f) Four persons who are superior court judges;

(g) One person who is the chief law enforcement officer of a county or city;

(h) Three members of the public who are not and have never been prosecutors, attorneys, judges, or law enforcement officers.

In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of Washington prosecutors in respect to the prosecuting attorney members, of the Washington state bar association in respect to the attorney members, of the association of superior court judges in respect to the members who are judges, and of the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs in respect to the member who is a law enforcement officer.

(3) All voting members of the commission, except ex officio voting members, shall serve terms of three years and until their successors are appointed and confirmed. However, the governor shall stagger the terms by appointing four of the initial members for terms of one year, four for terms of two years, and four for terms of three years.
(4) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint two nonvoting members to the commission, one from each of the two largest caucuses in each house. The members so appointed shall serve two-year terms, or until they cease to be members of the house from which they were appointed, whichever occurs first.

(5) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended). Legislative members shall be reimbursed by their respective houses as provided under RCW 44.04.120, as now existing or hereafter amended. Members shall be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 11. Section 3, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.025 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is established a juvenile disposition standards commission to propose disposition standards to the legislature in accordance with RCW 13.40.030 and perform the other responsibilities set forth in this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 15.24.050, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 12, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall be composed of the secretary or the secretary's designee and the following eight members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate: (a) A superior court judge; (b) a prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney; (c) a law enforcement officer; (d) an administrator of juvenile court services; (e) a public defender actively practicing in juvenile court; and (f) three other persons who have demonstrated significant interest in the adjudication and disposition of juvenile offenders. In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of the association of superior court judges in respect to the member who is a superior court judge; of Washington prosecutors in respect to the prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney member; of the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs in respect to the member who is a law enforcement officer; of juvenile court administrators in respect to the member who is a juvenile court administrator; and of the state bar association in respect to the public defender member.

(3) The secretary or the secretary's designee shall serve as chairman of the commission.

(4) The secretary shall serve on the commission during the secretary's tenure as secretary of the department. The term of the remaining members of the commission shall be three years. The initial terms shall be determined by lot conducted at the commission's first meeting as follows: (a) Four members shall serve a two-year term; and (b) four members shall serve a three-year term. In the event of a vacancy, the appointing authority shall designate a new member to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

Sec. 13. Section 10, chapter 129, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 13, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.26.100 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event a position becomes vacant due to resignation, disqualification, death, or for any other reason, such position until the next annual meeting shall be filled by vote of the remaining members of the commission. At such annual meeting a commissioner shall be elected to fill the balance of the unexpired term.

A majority of the voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business and the carrying out of the duties of the commission.

Each member of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with section 3 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for actual travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

Employees of the commission may also be reimbursed for actual travel expenses when out of state on official commission business.

Sec. 14. Section 15.28.090, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.28.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with section 3 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for actual travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. Employees of the commission may also be reimbursed for actual travel expenses when out of state on official commission business.
section 3 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for actual travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. Employees of the commission may also be reimbursed for actual travel expenses when out of state on official commission business.

Sec. 15. Section 15.44.038, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 15, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.44.038 are each amended to read as follows:

A majority of the commission members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business and the performance of all duties of the commission. Each member shall (receive a sum not to exceed thirty-five dollars per day for each day spent in actual attendance at or traveling to and from meetings of the commission or when conducting business of the commission as authorized by the commission, together with) be compensated in accordance with section 3 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses at the rates allowed by RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

Sec. 16. Section 27, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 19, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.66.270 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event of a vacancy on the board, the remaining members shall select a qualified person to fill the unexpired term. A majority of the voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business and the carrying out of all duties of the board. Each member of the board shall (receive a specified sum as provided in the marketing agreement or order not in excess of thirty-five dollars per day for each day spent in actual attendance on or traveling to and from meetings of the board or on special assignment for the board, together with) be compensated in accordance with section 3 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses at the rates allowed state employees in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

Sec. 17. Section 15.66.130, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.66.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Each commodity commission shall hold such regular meetings as the marketing order may prescribe or that the commission by resolution may prescribe, together with such special meetings that may be called in accordance with provisions of its resolutions upon reasonable notice to all members thereof. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business of the commission. In the event of a vacancy in an elected or appointed position on the commission, the remaining elected members of the commission shall select a qualified person to fill the unexpired term.

Each member of the commission shall (receive a specified sum as provided in the marketing order but not in excess of thirty-five dollars per day for each day spent in actual attendance at or traveling to and from meetings of the commission or on special assignments for the commission, together with) be compensated in accordance with section 3 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

(xv) Knowingly concealing information concerning a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 35. Section 3, chapter 283. Laws of 1947 as amended by section 37, chapter 34. Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 18.43.030 are each amended to read as follows:
A state board for professional engineers and land surveyors is hereby created which shall exercise all of the powers and perform all of the duties conferred upon it by this chapter. The board shall consist of five registered professional engineers, who shall be appointed by the governor and shall have the qualifications as hereinafter required. The members of the first board shall be appointed within thirty days after the effective date of this act June 11, 1947, to serve for the following terms: One member for one year, one member for two years, one member for three years, one member for four years, and one member for five years, from the date of their appointment, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. Every member of the board shall receive a certificate of his appointment from the governor and before beginning his term of office shall file with the secretary of state a written oath or affirmation for the faithful discharge of his official duty. On the expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall in the manner hereinbefore provided appoint for a term of five years a registered professional engineer having the qualifications as hereinafter required, to take the place of the member whose term on said board is about to expire. Each member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor shall have been duly appointed and shall have qualified.

Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and shall have been a resident of this state for at least five years immediately preceding his appointment, and shall have been engaged in the practice of the profession of engineering for at least twelve years, and shall have been in responsible charge of important engineering work for at least five years. The governor may remove any member of the board for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor as hereinafter provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There has been established an escrow commission of the state of Washington, to consist of the director of licensing as ex officio member and chairman, and five members who shall act as advisors to the director as to the needs of the escrow profession and who shall be appointed by the governor, each of whom shall have been a resident of this state for at least five years and shall have at least five years experience in the practice of escrow as an escrow agent or as a person in responsible charge of escrow transactions. The members of the first commission shall serve for the following terms: One member for one year, one member for two years, one member for three years, one member for four years, and one member for five years, from the date of their appointment, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. Every member of the commission shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor and before beginning the member's term of office shall file with the secretary of state a written oath or affirmation for the faithful discharge of the member's official duties. On the expiration of the term of each member, the governor shall appoint a successor to serve for a term of five years or until the member's successor has been appointed and qualified.

The governor may remove any member of the commission for cause. Vacancies in the commission for any reason shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Members shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).
Sec. 39. Section 11, chapter 117, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 65, chapter 211. Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The governor shall appoint ((an)) a nursing home advisory council. The council shall be comprised of:

1. Five members of the general public who are not owners or employees of a nursing home or engaged by a nursing home. Of these five members, one shall be a representative of senior citizens, one shall be a representative of a health care consumer group, and one shall be a licensed certified public accountant;

2. Three members who are nursing home operators, one of whom shall operate a nonprofit nursing home;

3. One member of the association of nursing home administrators;

4. One member of the state medical association; and

5. One member of the state nurses association.

The governor shall choose one of the five members from the general public to be chairman of the advisory nursing home council. Each member of the council shall receive ((twenty-five dollars per day as compensation for each day spent upon official business of the council and)) travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)). Each member shall hold office for a term of four years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term and the terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated at the time of appointment, two at the end of the first year, three at the end of the second year, three at the end of the third year, and two at the end of the fourth year after the date of appointment. Thereafter all appointments shall be for four years. The council shall meet as frequently as the chairman deems necessary, but not less than quarterly each year. Upon request by four or more members, it shall be the duty of the chairman to call a meeting of the council.

Sec. 40. Section 6, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 45, chapter 158. Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.52.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall elect from its membership a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary-treasurer, and shall adopt rules and regulations to govern its proceedings. The chairman or four board members by signed written request may call board meetings upon reasonable written notice to each member. Each member shall ((receive twenty-five dollars for each day or major portion thereof actually spent on official business, plus)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)). A full-time or part-time executive secretary for the board may be employed by the director through the department of licensing, and the director through the department of licensing shall provide the executive secretary and the board with such secretarial, administrative, and other assistance as may be required to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Employment of an executive secretary shall be subject to confirmation by the board. The position of executive secretary shall be exempt from the requirements of chapter 41.06 RCW.

Sec. 41. Section 13, chapter 25, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 39, chapter 34. Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 18.54.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Members of the board are entitled to receive their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)). Each member of the board will also be ((paid twenty-five dollars for each day or portion thereof spent in discharge of his official duties)) compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 42. Section 2, chapter 117, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.57.003 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created an agency of the state of Washington, consisting of seven individuals appointed by the governor to be known as the Washington state board of osteopathic medicine and surgery.

The members of the first board shall be appointed to serve the following terms from the date of their appointment: Two members for two years, two members for three years, and three members for five years, or until their successors are appointed and fully qualified. The respective terms of office of such initial appointees shall be designated by the governor at the time of appointment. On expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall appoint for a period of five years an individual of similar qualifications to take the place of such member. Each member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor shall have been appointed and shall have qualified. Initial appointments shall be made and vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor.

Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and must be an actual resident of this state. One member shall be a consumer who has neither a financial nor a fiduciary relationship to a health care delivery system, and every other member must have been in active practice as a licensed osteopathic physician and surgeon in this state for at least five years immediately preceding appointment.
The board shall meet as soon as practicable after appointment and elect a chairman and a secretary from its members. Meetings of the board shall be held at least four times a year and at such place as the board shall determine and at such other times and places as the board deems necessary.

It shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the board to take any official action.

FORTY-SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1984 731
There is hereby created a state higher education personnel board composed of three members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate. The first such board shall be appointed within thirty days after the effective date of this chapter for terms of two, four, and six years. Each odd-numbered year thereafter the governor shall appoint a member for a six-year term. Persons so appointed shall have clearly demonstrated an interest and belief in the merit principle. shall not hold any other employment with the state. shall not be or become a candidate for partisan elective public office during the term to which they are appointed. The members of the authority shall act by resolution. All actions taken by the authority shall take effect immediately without need for publication or other public notice. A vacancy in the membership of the authority does not impair the power of the authority to act under the authority's official seal.

The members of the authority shall serve as chairperson of the authority. The authority shall elect annually one of its members as secretary. If the governor shall be absent from a meeting of the authority, the secretary shall preside. However, the governor may designate an employee of the governor's office to act on the governor's behalf in all other respects during the absence of the governor at any meeting of the authority. If the designation is in writing and is presented to the person presiding at the meetings of the authority who is included in the designation, the vote of the designee has the same effect as if cast by the governor.

Motions shall be adopted upon the affirmative vote of a majority of a quorum of members present at any meeting of the authority. All actions taken by the authority shall take effect immediately without need for publication or other public notice. A vacancy in the membership of the authority does not impair the power of the authority to act under this chapter. Any person designated by resolution of the authority shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be the custodian of all books, documents, and papers filed with the authority, the minute book or a journal of the authority, and the authority's official seal. All persons dealing with the authority may rely upon the certificates. Four members of the authority constitute a quorum. The authority may act on the basis of a motion except when authorizing the issuance and sale of bonds, in which case the authority shall act by resolution. Bond resolutions and other resolutions shall be adopted upon the affirmative vote of members present at any meeting of the authority. All actions taken by the authority shall take effect immediately without need for publication or other public notice. A vacancy in the membership of the authority does not impair the power of the authority to act under this chapter.
reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(3) At its first meeting following the appointment of all of its members, and annually thereafter, the board shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its members to serve one year. The presence of at least two members of the board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. A written public record shall be kept by the board of all actions of the board.

(4) The board shall appoint a personnel director who shall be the chief staff officer for the board. In preparing matters for consideration by the board and in coordinating the implementation of the board's rules and regulations, the personnel director shall work in conjunction with the campus personnel officers and their staffs at each institution of higher education, and in the case of community colleges, with the state board for community college education. When necessary, the personnel director may request the creation of task forces drawn from the four-year institutions of higher education, and representatives of the various state community colleges through the state board for community college education, for the accomplishment of any projects undertaken by the board. The director may employ necessary personnel for the board, and the board may appoint and compensate hearing officers to hear and conduct appeals. The board shall establish an office for the conduct of its business.

Sec. 64. Section 28B.50.050, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 30, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the "state board for community college education", to consist of eight members, one from each congressional district, as now or hereafter existing, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. The successors of the members initially appointed shall be appointed for terms of four years except that any persons appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term. Each member shall serve until the appointment and qualification of his successor. All members shall be citizens and bona fide residents of the state. No member of the college board shall be, during his term of office, a member of the state board of education, a member of the K-12 board, a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution, a member of a community college board of trustees, or an employee of any of the above boards, or have any direct pecuniary interest in education within this state.

The board shall not be deemed unlawfully constituted and a member of the board shall not be deemed ineligible to serve the remainder of the member's unexpired term on the board solely by reason of the establishment of new or revised boundaries for congressional districts.

(((No))) Members of the college board shall ((receive any salary for his services to)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)) for each day actually spent in attending to ((his)) the duties as a member of the college board.

The members of the college board may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office, in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500.

Sec. 65. Section 12, chapter 277, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 77, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28B.80.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Members of the council ((with)) shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(g) Representing school systems with large concentrations of academically, socially, economically, and culturally handicapped students;

(h) Possessed of special knowledge, experience, or qualifications, with respect to the special educational needs of physically or mentally handicapped persons; and

(i) Representative of the general public, including a person or persons representative of and knowledgeable about the poor and disadvantaged, who are not qualified for membership under any of the preceding clauses of this paragraph.

The advisory council shall meet at least four times a year at the call of the chairman, who shall be selected by vote of the members; provided, however, that the term of office of the chairman shall be for three years. Meetings of the board shall be at the call of the chairman, who shall act as trustee; one representative of an employee association certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees and one representative of of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, both to be appointed by the governor; one person who is retired and is covered by a program under the jurisdiction of the board; to be appointed by the governor; one member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. The terms of office of the administrative officer representing higher education, the two higher education faculty members, the representative of an employee association, the retired person, and the representative of an employee union shall be for four years: PROVIDED, That the first term of one faculty member and one employee association or union representative member shall be for three years.

Meetings of the board shall be at the call of the director of personnel. The board shall prescribe rules for the conduct of its business and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually. Members of the board shall be paid for their travel expenses while engaged in the business of the advisory council in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The board shall hereafter created a state employees' insurance board to be composed of the members of the present board holding office on the day prior to July 1, 1977, which such members shall serve until the expiration of the period of time for which they were appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Thereafter the board shall be composed as follows: The governor or the governor's designee; one administrative officer representing all of higher education to be appointed by the governor; two higher education faculty members to be appointed by the governor; the director of the department of personnel who shall act as trustee; one representative of an employee association certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees and one representative of an employee union certified as exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, both to be appointed by the governor; one person who is retired and is covered by a program under the jurisdiction of the board, to be appointed by the governor; one member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. The terms of office of the administrative officer representing higher education, the two higher education faculty members, the representative of an employee association, the retired person, and the representative of an employee union shall be for four years: PROVIDED, That the first term of one faculty member and one employee association or union representative member shall be for three years. Meetings of the board shall be at the call of the director of personnel. The board shall prescribe rules for the conduct of its business and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually. Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this act and shall be paid for their travel expenses while on official business in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The board shall from time to time devise specifications, analyze carrier responses to advertisements for bids, determine the terms and conditions of employee participation and coverage, and decide on the award of contracts which shall be signed by the trustee on behalf of the board: PROVIDED, That all contracts for insurance, health care plans, including panel medicine plans, or protection applying to employees covered by RCW 28B.10.660 and chapters 41.04 and 41.05 RCW shall provide that the beneficiaries of such insurance, health care plans, or protection may utilize on an equal participation basis the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the boards of trustees and boards of regents of the several institutions of higher education shall retain sole authority to provide liability insurance as provided in RCW 28B.10.660. The board shall from time to time review and amend such plans. Contracts for all plans shall be rebid and awarded at least every five years.

The board shall develop and provide as a part of the employee insurance benefit program an employee health care benefit plan which may be provided through a contract or contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW, and a plan to be provided by a panel medicine plan in its service area only when approved by the board. The board may but shall not be required to pay more for health benefits under a panel medicine plan than it would otherwise be required to pay for health benefits by a contract with a regularly constituted insurance carrier or health care service contractor in effect at the time the panel medicine plan is included in the employee health care benefit plan. Except for panel medicine plans, the board may but is not required to contract with more than one insurance carrier or health care service contractor to provide similar benefits: PROVIDED, That employees may choose participation in only one of the health care benefit plans sponsored by the board. Active employees, as defined in RCW 41.05.010(2), eligible for medicare benefits shall have the option of continuing participation in health care programs on the same basis as all other employees or participation in medicare supplemental programs as may be developed by the board. These health care benefit plans shall provide coverage for all officials and employees and their dependents without premium or subscription cost to the individual employees and officials, unless the board approves a panel medicine plan at a subscription rate in excess of the premium of the regularly constituted insurance carrier or health care service contractor, in which circumstances an employee contribution may be authorized at an amount equal to such excess. Rates for self pay segments of state employee groups will be developed from the experience of the entire group. Such self pay rates will be established based on a separate rate for the employee, the spouse, and children.

(4) The board shall review plans proposed by insurance carriers who desire to offer property insurance and/or accident and casualty insurance to state employees through payroll deduction. The board may approve any such plan for payroll deduction by carriers holding a valid certificate of authority in the state of Washington and which the board determines to be in the best interests of employees and the state. The board shall promulgate rules setting forth criteria by which it shall evaluate the plans.

Sec. 69. Section 8, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 and RCW 41.06.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state personnel board composed of three members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate. The first such board shall be appointed within thirty days after December 8, 1980, for terms of two, four, and six years. Each odd-numbered year thereafter the governor shall appoint a member for a six-year term. Each member shall continue to hold office after the expiration of the member's term until a successor has been appointed. Persons so appointed shall have clearly demonstrated an interest and belief in the merit principle, shall not hold any other employment with the state, shall not have been an officer of a political party for a period of one year immediately prior to such appointment, and shall not be or become a candidate for partisan elective public office during the term to which they are appointed;

(2) Each member of the board shall be ((paid fifteen dollars for each day in which he has actually attended a meeting of the board officially held)) compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act. The members of the board may receive any number of daily payments for official meetings of the board actually attended. Members of the board shall also be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(3) At its first meeting following the appointment of all of its members, and annually thereafter, the board shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its members to serve one year. The presence of at least two members of the board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. A written public record shall be kept by the board of all actions of the board.
The director of personnel shall serve as secretary.

(4) The board may appoint and compensate hearing officers to hear and conduct appeals until December 31, 1982. Such compensation shall be paid on a contractual basis for each hearing, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW and rules adopted pursuant thereto, as they relate to personal service contracts.

Sec. 70. Section 4, chapter 263, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 87, chapter 34.
Laws of 1975-’76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.24.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the state board shall ((receive twenty-five dollars per day for each day actually spent in attending meetings of the state board)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act. Each member shall also receive travel expenses, including going to and from meetings of the state board or other authorized business of the state board, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 71. Section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1975-’76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 146. Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.58.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each member of the commission shall be ((paid one hundred dollars for each day during which the member attends a meeting of the commission officially held or attends to other business of the commission authorized by the commission)) compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act. Members of the commission shall also be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties on the same basis as is provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(2) The commission shall appoint an executive director whose annual salary shall be determined under the provisions of RCW 43.03.028. The executive director shall perform such duties and have such powers as the commission shall prescribe in order to implement and enforce the provisions of this chapter. In addition to the performance of administrative duties, the commission may delegate to the executive director authority with respect to, but not limited to, representation proceedings, unfair labor practice proceedings, mediation of labor disputes, arbitration of disputes concerning the interpretation or application of a collective bargaining agreement, and, in certain cases, fact-finding or arbitration of disputes concerning the terms of a collective bargaining agreement. Such delegation shall not eliminate a party's right of appeal to the commission. The executive director, with such assistance as may be provided by the attorney general and such additional legal assistance consistent with chapter 43.10 RCW, shall have authority on behalf of the commission, when necessary to carry out or enforce any action or decision of the commission, to petition any court of competent jurisdiction for an order requiring compliance with the action or decision.

(3) The commission shall employ such employees as it may from time to time find necessary for the proper performance of its duties, consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) The payment of all of the expenses of the commission, including travel expenses incurred by the members or employees of the commission under its orders, shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 72. Section 1, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 2, chapter 54, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.60.015 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the productivity board. The board shall administer the employee suggestion program under this chapter and shall review applications for incentive pay for state employees under RCW 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120.

(2) The board shall be composed of:

(a) The secretary of state who shall act as chairperson;
(b) The director of personnel or the director's designee;
(c) The director of financial management or the director's designee; and
(d) Three persons with experience in administering incentives such as those used by industry, with the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house of representatives each appointing one person. The governor's appointee shall be a representative of an employee organization certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, but no one organization may be represented for two consecutive terms.

Initially, the person appointed by the governor shall serve a one-year term, the person appointed by the lieutenant governor shall serve a two-year term, and the person appointed by the speaker shall serve a three-year term. Thereafter, these members shall serve three-year terms.

Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 73. Section 4, chapter 311, Laws of 1981 and RCW 41.64.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall operate on either a part-time or a full-time basis, as determined by the governor. If it is determined that the board shall operate on a full-time basis, each member of the board shall receive an annual salary to be determined by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.03.040((as now existing or hereafter amended)). If it is determined that the board shall operate on a part-time basis, each member of the board shall receive compensation of one hundred dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the board or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson. Such part-time compensation may not, however, exceed twelve thousand dollars for any one member in a fiscal year be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act. Each board member shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of his or her duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(2) Members of the board shall report their financial affairs to the public disclosure commission pursuant to RCW 42.17.240((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 74. Section 35, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 15, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.350 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established a "public disclosure commission" which shall be composed of five members who shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. All appointees shall be persons of the highest integrity and qualifications. No more than three members shall have an identification with the same political party. The original members shall be appointed within sixty days after January 1, 1973. The term of each member shall be five years except that the original five members shall serve initial terms of one, two, three, four, and five years, respectively, as designated by the governor. No member of the commission, during his tenure, shall (1) hold or campaign for elective office; (2) be an officer of any political party or political committee; (3) permit his name to be used, or make contributions, in support of or in opposition to any candidate or proposition; (4) participate in any way in any election campaign; or (5) lobby or employ or assist a lobbyist: PROVIDED, That a member or the staff of the commission may lobby to the limited extent permitted by RCW 42.17.190 on matters directly affecting this chapter. No member shall be eligible for appointment to more than one full term. A vacancy on the commission shall be filled within thirty days of the vacancy by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and the appointee shall serve for the remaining term of his predecessor. A vacancy shall not impair the powers of the remaining members to exercise all of the powers of the commission. Three members of the commission shall constitute a quorum. The commission shall elect its own chairman and adopt its own rules of procedure in the manner provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor, but only upon grounds of neglect of duty or misconduct in office.

(Each) Members shall ((receive seventy-five dollars for each day or portion thereof spent in performance of his duties as a member of the commission)) be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and in addition shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred while engaged in the business of the commission as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now or hereafter amended)). The compensation provided pursuant to this section shall not be considered salary for purposes of the provisions of any retirement system created pursuant to the general laws of this state.

Sec. 75. Section 43.20.030, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 11, chapter 18, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 43.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of health shall be composed of six members. These shall be the secretary or his designee and five other persons to be appointed by the governor, including four persons experienced in matters of health and sanitation and one person representing the consumers of health care. The chairman shall be selected by the governor from among the five members appointed by him.

Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 76. Section 18, chapter 62, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 100, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.21A.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall meet quarterly at a date and place of its choice, and at such other times as shall be designated by the director or upon the written request of a majority of the commission. Members of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive reimbursement for their travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060((as now or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 77. Section 6, chapter 44, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 104, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.22.475 are each amended to read as follows:

The governor shall appoint a factory built housing and factory built commercial structures advisory board consisting of eleven members. Members appointed shall be broadly representative of the industries and professions involved in the development and construction of factory built housing or factory built commercial structures and shall include representation from building code enforcement agencies, architectural and engineering associations, building construction trades, the contracting and manufacturing industries, legislative bodies of local government, and the general public. The factory built housing and factory built commercial structures advisory board shall periodically review the rules promulgated under RCW 43.22.450 through 43.22.490 and shall recommend changes of such rules to the department when it deems changes advisable. Members (may receive up to twenty-five dollars for each day or portion thereof actually spent in attending upon the duties of the board, the rate to be determined by the board, and in addition thereto,) shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060((as now or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 78. Section 43.24.060, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 15, chapter 227, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing shall, from time to time, fix such times and places for holding examinations of applicants as may be convenient, and adopt general rules and regulations prescribing the method of conducting examinations.

The governor, from time to time, upon the request of the director of licensing, shall appoint examining committees, composed of three persons possessing the qualifications provided by law to conduct examinations of applicants for licenses to practice the respective professions or callings for which licenses are required.

The committees shall prepare the necessary lists of examination questions, conduct the examinations, which may be either oral or written, or partly oral and partly written, and shall make and file with the director of licensing lists, signed by all the members conducting the examination, showing the names and addresses of all applicants for licenses who have successfully passed the examination, and showing separately the names and addresses of the applicants who have failed to pass the examination, together with all examination questions and the written answers thereto submitted by the applicants.
Each member of a committee shall receive twenty-five dollars per day for each day spent in conducting the examination and in going to and returning from the place of examination, and travel expenses, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

(2) The director of licensing may appoint advisory committees to advise the department regarding the preparation of examinations for professional licensing and such other specific aspects of regulating the professions within the jurisdiction of the department as the director may designate. Such a committee and its members shall serve at the pleasure of the director.

Each member of an advisory committee shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in attending meetings of the committee in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Whenever there is filed with the director of licensing any complaint charging that the holder of a license has been guilty of any act or omission which by the provisions of the law under which the license was issued would warrant the revocation thereof, verified in the manner provided by law, the director of licensing shall request the governor to appoint, and the governor shall appoint, two qualified practitioners of the profession or calling of the person charged, who, with the director or his duly appointed representative, shall constitute a committee to hear and determine the charges and, in case the charges are sustained, impose the penalty provided by law. The decision of any two members of such committee shall be the decision of the committee.

The appointed members of the committee shall (receive twenty-five dollars per day for each day spent in the performance of their duties and in going to and returning from the place of hearing; and) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

Sec. 80. Section 5, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.33A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Members of the state investment board who are public employees shall serve without compensation but shall suffer no loss because of absence from their regular employment. Members of the board who are not public employees shall (receive fifty dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the board or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act. Members of the board who are not legislators shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended). Legislative members shall receive allowances provided for in RCW 44.04.120 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

There shall be a nonsalaried commission to be known as the Columbia Basin commission, which shall consist of seven members, namely: One member designated by and from among the directors of the Quincy—Columbia Basin irrigation district, one designated by and from among the directors of the East Columbia Basin irrigation district, one designated by and from among the directors of the South Columbia Basin irrigation district; three members appointed by the governor, and removable by him at his pleasure; and the director of conservation who shall be chairman of the commission.

Not later than the first day of February each year, each of the respective irrigation district boards shall select one of its members to serve on the Columbia Basin commission for the ensuing year, and shall thereupon forthwith certify such selection to the governor. The term of any member designated by an irrigation district shall terminate when his successor has been certified to the governor or upon the expiration of his term as irrigation district director.

Each member of the commission, except the director of conservation, shall (receive fifteen dollars per day and transportation while actually engaged in the performance of his duties within the state) be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 82. Section 43.51.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 116, chapter 34, Laws of 1975—76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.51.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a "state parks and recreation commission" consisting of seven members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate and shall serve for a term of six years, expiring on December 31st of even-numbered years, and until their successors are appointed. In case of a vacancy, the governor shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of the commissioner whose office has become vacant.

The commissioners incumbent as of August 11, 1969, shall serve as follows: Those commissioners whose terms expire December 31, 1970, shall serve until December 31, 1970; the elector appointed to succeed to the office, the term for which expired December 31, 1968, shall serve until December 31, 1974; the terms of three of the four remaining commissioners shall each expire on December 31, 1972.

To assure that no more than the terms of three members will expire simultaneously on December 31st in any one even-numbered year, the term of not more than one commissioner incumbent on August 11, 1969, as designated by the governor, who was either appointed or reappointed to serve until December 31, 1972, shall be increased by the governor by two years, and said term shall expire December 31, 1974.

In making the appointments to the commission, the governor shall choose electors who understand park and recreation needs and interests. No person shall serve if he holds any elective or full-time appointive state, county, or municipal office. Members of the commission shall be entitled to be paid twenty-five dollars for each day actually spent on duties pertaining to the commission; compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and in addition shall be allowed their travel expenses incurred while absent from their usual places of residence in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

Payment of expenses pertaining to the operation of the commission shall be made upon vouchers certified to by such persons as shall be designated by the commission.

Sec. 83. Section 43.57.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 119, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.57.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission representing the state on the interstate compact commission shall have full authority to consider and carry on negotiations for such agreement or compact, to attend meetings of the joint commission convening in or out of the state, to employ clerical, legal, and engineering assistance, and generally to perform such duties as shall be required of the members thereof in carrying out the purpose and intent of this chapter; the term of office of the commissioners shall be from June 11, 1953, until an agreement or compact binding on the state of Washington under the provisions of RCW 43.57.030 has been entered into: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That when a member of the commission is a member of the house of representatives, his term on the commission shall expire when he ceases to be a member of the house, and when a member of the commission is a member of the senate, his term on the commission shall expire when he ceases to be a member of the senate. Any vacancies occurring in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the appointive power shown in RCW 43.57.010. Members of the commission representing the state who are not in the regular employment of the state shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred while away from their respective places of abode in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended). Members of the commission who are in the regular employment of the state shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred while away from their respective places of abode in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended). Payment of all expenses incurred by the interstate compact commission, including the expenses of its members, shall be made on vouchers approved by its chairman.

Sec. 84. Section 11, chapter 5, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 206, Laws of 1981 and by section 7, chapter 338, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.99.110 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

There is created the interagency committee for outdoor recreation consisting of the commissioner of public lands, the director of parks and recreation, the director of game, the director of fisheries, and, by appointment of the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, five members from the public at large who have a demonstrated interest in and a general knowledge of outdoor recreation in the state. The terms of members appointed from the public at large shall commence on January 1st of the year of appointment and shall be for three years or until a successor is appointed, except in the case of appointments to fill vacancies which shall be for the remainder of the unexpired term; provided the first such members shall be appointed for terms as follows: One member for one year, two members for two years, and two members for three years. The governor shall appoint one of the members from the public at large to serve as chairman of the committee for the duration of the member's term. Members employed by the state shall serve without additional pay and participation in the work of the committee shall be deemed performance of their employment. Members from the public at large shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be entitled to reimbursement individually for travel expenses incurred in performance of their duties as members of the committee in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

Sec. 85. Section 7, chapter 94, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 126, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.101.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Members of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended). Attendance at meetings of the commission shall be deemed performance by a member of the duties of his employment.
Sec. 86. Section 5, chapter 219, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 128, chapter 34. Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.105.032 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the Washington state data processing authority consisting of eleven members appointed by the governor, and serving at his pleasure. The governor shall make such appointments within thirty days after April 25, 1973.

Members of the authority shall ((not)) be compensated for service on the authority ((not)) in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (((as now existing or hereafter amended))).

The authority shall elect a chairman from among its members and shall appoint an executive director within sixty days after April 25, 1973, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the senate.

Sec. 87. Section 3, chapter 4. Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.121.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Council members shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (((as now or hereafter amended))). Attendance at meetings of the council shall be deemed performance by a member of the duties of a member’s employment.

Sec. 88. Section 7, chapter 273, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.126.075 are each amended to read as follows:

Members of the board who are not otherwise public employees shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, which shall be paid by the agency that each member represents and, for the four members of the general public, by the department of natural resources.

Sec. 89. Section 3, chapter 40, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 60, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.160.030 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The community economic revitalization board is hereby created to exercise the powers granted under this chapter.

2. The board shall consist of nine persons appointed by the governor and the director of commerce and economic development, the director of planning and community affairs, the director of revenue, the commissioner of employment security, and the chairman of the committee on commerce and economic development of the house of representatives and the committee on commerce and labor of the senate, or the equivalent standing committees, for a total of seventeen members. The appointive members shall be as follows: A recognized private or public sector economist selected from the governor’s council of economic advisors; one port district official; one county official; one city official; one representative of the public; one representative of small businesses each from: (a) The area west of Puget Sound, (b) the area east of Puget Sound and west of the Cascade range, (c) the area west of the Columbia river, and (d) the area east of the Columbia river; one executive from large businesses each from the area west of the Cascades and the area east of the Cascades. The appointive members shall initially be appointed to terms as follows: Three members for one-year terms, three members for two-year terms, and three members for three-year terms which shall include the chairman. Thereafter each succeeding term shall be for three years. The representative from the governor’s council of economic advisors shall serve as chairman of the board. The director of the department of commerce and economic development shall serve as vice chairman.

3. Staff support shall be provided by the department of commerce and economic development.

4. All appointive members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (((as now or hereafter amended))).

5. If a vacancy occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise of appointive members of the board, the governor shall fill the same for the unexpired term. Any members of the board, appointive or otherwise, may be removed for malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges by the governor, under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 90. Section 4, chapter 161, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.180.040 are each amended to read as follows:

1. There is hereby established a public body corporate and politic, with perpetual corporate succession, to be known as the Washington state housing finance commission. The commission is an instrumentality of the state exercising essential government functions and, for purposes of the code, acts as a constituted authority on behalf of the state when it issues bonds pursuant to this chapter. The commission is a “public body” within the meaning of RCW 39.53.010.

2. The commission shall consist of the following voting members:

(a) The state treasurer, ex officio;

(b) The director of the planning and community affairs agency, ex officio;
Chapter 151. Laws of 1979 and RCW 44.60.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No legislative member shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this chapter, but shall be reimbursed, solely from the funds of the commission, for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties under this chapter. A majority of the commission constitutes a quorum. Designees shall be appointed in such manner and shall exercise such powers as are specified by the rules of the commission.

Sec. 91. Section 4. Chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall consist of the following members: The chairman of the advisory council who shall also serve as chairman of the review board, the director of the department or the director's designee, the director of the energy office or the director's designee, the commissioner of public lands or the commissioner's designee, the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, the chairman of the energy facility site evaluation council or the chairman's designee, four members of the state senate, appointed by the president of the senate, and four members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker, who shall be selected from each of the caucuses in each house, but no more than two members of each house shall be of the same political party.

Legislative members shall be nominated by the governor, other than the chair, shall be nonvoting members of the board and shall serve while members of the legislature, at the pleasure of the appointing officer. The board shall be responsible for identifying and reviewing state agency policies relating to the management of radioactive wastes; analyzing recommendations of the advisory council to determine how state agencies may be responsive to the needs of the department in carrying out its duties under this chapter; assisting the department in determining ways in which coordination among state agencies can be improved; carrying out such review activities that will enable the governor to effectively evaluate federal actions; reviewing the activities of advisory and technical committees created by the governor; advising the director on the need for additional advisory and technical committees; and assisting the department to participate in the consultation and concurrence process provided for in the federal waste management act of 1982 and the low-level waste policy act of 1980 to monitor and comment on decisions of the respective state agencies.

Nonlegislative members shall be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this chapter, but shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this chapter. A majority of the commission constitutes a quorum. Designees shall be appointed in such manner and shall exercise such powers as are specified by the rules of the commission.
appointed for terms of live years each, except that any person chosen to serve for a term of two years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. Their successors shall be appointed by the governor from the names of persons qualified to serve, one of whom shall be a member of the commission with the consent of the senate. The commission shall consist of three members: One member to be appointed from labor, one member from industry, and one member from the public who has significant knowledge of maritime affairs. The public member shall be chair of the commission. One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for a term of less than one year.

All expenses incurred by a board or any member thereof shall be paid upon voucher forms as provided by the director of financial management and signed by the chairman of the board or his designee; PROVIDED, That vouchers for the expenses of the joint board shall be signed and attested by the chairman of the joint board.

Sec. 93. Section 3, chapter 51, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.82.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall be assisted in the duties and responsibilities of this chapter by the driver instructors’ advisory committee, consisting of five members. Members of the advisory committee shall be appointed by the director for two-year terms and shall consist of a representative of the driver training schools, a representative of the driving instructors (who shall not be from the same school as the school member), a representative of the superintendent of public instruction, a representative of the department of licensing, and a representative from the Washington state traffic safety commission. Members shall (receive compensation not to exceed twenty-five dollars for each day spent on official business and shall) be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended). A member who is receiving a salary from the state shall not receive compensation other than travel expenses incurred in such service.

(2) The advisory committee shall meet at least semiannually and shall have additional meetings as may be called by the director. The director or the director’s representative shall attend all meetings of the advisory committee and shall serve as chairman.

(3) Duties of the advisory committee shall be:
   (a) Advise and confer with the director or the director’s representative on matters pertaining to the establishment of rules necessary to carry out this chapter;
   (b) Review violations of this chapter and to recommend to the director appropriate enforcement or disciplinary action as provided in this chapter;
   (c) Review and update when necessary a curriculum consisting of a list of items of knowledge and the processes of driving a motor vehicle specifying the minimum requirements adjudged necessary in teaching a proper and adequate course of driver education; and
   (d) Prepare the examination for a driver instructor’s certificate and review examination results at least once each calendar year for the purpose of updating and revising examination standards.

Sec. 94. Section 6, chapter 151, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 29, chapter 53, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.01.061 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall meet at such times as it deems advisable but at least once every month. It may adopt its own rules and regulations and may establish its own procedure. It shall act collectively in harmony with recorded resolutions or motions adopted by majority vote of at least four members. The commission may appoint an administrative secretary, and shall elect one of its members chairman for a term of one year. The chairman shall be able to vote on all matters before the commission.

The commission shall submit to each regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year its own budget proposal necessary for the commission’s operations separate from that proposed for the department.

Each member of the commission shall ((receive compensation of sixty dollars per day for each day actually spent in the performance of duties, and)) be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for actual necessary travel and other expenses in going to, attending, and returning from meetings of the commission, and actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties as may be requested by a majority vote of the commission or by the secretary of transportation, but in no event shall a commissioner be compensated in any year for more than one hundred twenty days, except the chairman of the commission who may be paid compensation for not more than one hundred fifty days. Service on the commission shall not be considered as service credit for the purposes of any public retirement system.

Sec. 95. Section 19, chapter 15, Laws of 1983 and RCW 47.64.280 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created the marine employees’ commission. The governor shall appoint the commission with the consent of the senate. The commission shall consist of three members: One member to be appointed from labor, one member from industry, and one member from the public who has significant knowledge of maritime affairs. The public member shall be chair of the commission. One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he succeeds. Commission members are eligible for reappointment. Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor, upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause. Commission members are not eligible for state retirement under chapter 41.40 RCW by virtue of their service on the commission. Members of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall receive reimbursement for official travel and other expenses at the same rate and on the same terms as provided for the transportation commission by RCW 47.01.061. The payments shall be made from the Puget Sound ferry operations account.

(2) The marine employees' commission shall: (a) Adjust all complaints, grievances, and disputes between labor and management arising out of the operation of the ferry system as provided in RCW 47.64.150; (b) provide for impasse mediation as required in RCW 47.64.210; (c) conduct fact-finding and provide salary surveys as required in RCW 47.64.220; and (d) provide for the selection of an impartial arbitrator as required in RCW 47.64.240(5).

(3) In adjudicating all complaints, grievances, and disputes, the party claiming labor disputes shall, in writing, notify the marine employees' commission, which shall make careful inquiry into the cause thereof and issue an order advising the ferry employee, or the ferry employee organization representing him or her, and the department of transportation, as to the decision of the commission.

The parties are entitled to offer evidence relating to disputes at all hearings conducted by the commission. The orders and awards of the commission are final and binding upon any ferry employee or employees or their representative affected thereby and upon the department.

The commission shall adopt rules of procedure under chapter 34.04 RCW.

The commission has the authority to subpoena any ferry employee or employees, or their representatives, and any member or representative of the department, and any witnesses. The commission may require attendance of witnesses and the production of all pertinent records at any hearings held by the commission. The subpoenas of the commission are enforceable by order of any superior court in the state of Washington for the county within which the proceeding may be pending. The commission may hire staff as necessary, appoint consultants, enter into contracts, and conduct studies as reasonably necessary to carry out this chapter.

Sec. 96. Section 14, chapter 150, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 142, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 48.17.135 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created an insurance advisory examining board, hereafter referred to as the examining board or the board.

(2) The examining board shall consist of seven members, the commissioner who shall serve ex officio as a member and shall act as chairman, and six members appointed by the commissioner. Appointments shall be made within thirty days after June 8, 1967.

(3) The insurance commissioner as chairman shall keep a record of all proceedings of the board, send out notices of meetings of the board, draft rules and regulations of the board, and perform such other duties as may be required.

(4) The members of the board appointed by the commissioner shall have been licensed insurance agents or brokers of this state for at least five years prior to their appointments, three of whom shall have been engaged in the life or disability fields and the remaining three in other insurance fields. Consistent with the representation on the board, it may function as two separate committees, at which meetings the commissioner shall preside.

(5) The first terms for members of the examining board appointed by the commissioner shall be as follows: Two members for one year; two members for two years; two members for three years. Thereafter, the terms shall be for three years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(6) The examining board, or any committee of the board, shall meet at the call of the commissioner. A majority of the members of the board or of a committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by the board or a committee of the board.

(7) The board shall have the advisory power:

(a) To recommend general policy concerning the scope, contents, procedure and conduct of examinations to be given for respective licenses as agent, broker and solicitor.

(b) To recommend the questions comprising each particular such examination and from time to time to change such questions as the board deems advisable, and where examinations are composed by the board results of these examinations shall be evaluated by the board.

(c) To review other state insurance examination papers and the grading thereof.

(d) To recommend the scope and contents of material furnished agent, broker or solicitor examination applicants by the commissioner under RCW 48.17.120 for the purpose of preparing for any such examination.

(e) To recommend rules and regulations for the procedure to be followed in the conduct of such examinations, including, but not limited to, application for examination, frequency and place of examinations, minimum waiting period before reexamination, monitoring, and the safeguarding of examination questions and papers. The board shall file copies of all such rules.
and regulations, and of all amendments or modifications thereof, with the commissioner and with the code reviser for public inspection and information.

(5) To make such recommendations to the commissioner in regard to the administration of the examination requirement as the board from time to time deems appropriate.

(8) Members may be removed by the commissioner for any cause which unreasonably interferes with the proper discharge of the responsibilities of the board or any member thereof. Any vacancy shall be filled by the commissioner within ninety days after it occurs by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(9) Appointed members of the examining board ((shall receive compensation from the appropriation to the insurance commissioner at the rate of twenty-five dollars per day while discharging their duties as directed and approved by the commissioner, and)) shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses incurred in the actual performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(10) The powers and recommendations of the examining board shall be advisory only.

Sec. 97. Section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 39, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 49.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of labor and industries shall appoint an apprenticeship council, composed of three representatives each from employer and employee organizations, respectively. The terms of office of the members of the apprenticeship council first appointed by the director of labor and industries shall be as follows: One representative of employers and employees shall be appointed for one year, two years, and three years, respectively. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of three years. The governor shall appoint a public member to the apprenticeship council for a three-year term. The appointment of the public member is subject to confirmation by the senate. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified and any vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired portion of the term. The state official who has been designated by the commission for vocational education as being in charge of trade and industrial education and the state official who has immediate charge of the state public employment service shall ex officio be members of said council, without vote. Each member of the council, not otherwise compensated by public moneys, shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)) and shall be ((paid not more than twenty-five dollars for each day spent in attendance at meetings of the council)) compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act. The apprenticeship council with the consent of employee and employer groups shall: (1) Establish standards for apprenticeship agreements in conformity with the provisions of this chapter; (2) issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of this chapter, including a procedure to resolve an Impasse should a tie vote of the council occur; and (3) perform such other duties as are hereinafter imposed. Not less than once a year the apprenticeship council shall make a report to the director of labor and industries of its activities and findings which shall be available to the public.

Sec. 98. Section 4, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 145, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and, while in session or on official business, shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred during such time in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 99. Section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1977 and RCW 67.08.003 are each amended to read as follows:

Before entering upon the duties of his office, each commissioner shall enter into a surety bond, executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state, and approved by the attorney general, in the penal sum of two thousand dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, which bond shall be filed with the secretary of state. Each member of the commission shall be reimbursed for the cost of his bond ((and receive forty dollars per day)), be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act, and be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)) while in the performance of his duties.

Sec. 100. Section 2, chapter 233, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 155, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 67.16.017 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the Washington horse racing commission shall ((receive forty dollars for each day actually spent in the performance of his duties)) be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)) in going to, attending, and returning from meetings of the commission, and travel expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties as may be requested of him by a majority vote of the commission, but in no event shall a commissioner be paid in any one fiscal year in excess of one hundred twenty days, except the chairman of the commission who may be paid for not more than one hundred fifty days.
Sec. 101. Section 27, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 67.70.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the commission shall ((receive compensation of one hundred dollars per day for each day actually spent in the performance of duties, and)) be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for actual necessary traveling and other expenses in going to, attending, and returning from meetings of the commission((c)) and actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties as may be requested by a majority vote of the commission or by the director.

Sec. 102. Section 29, chapter 90, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 156, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 68.05.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the board shall ((receive no compensation for his services, but)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 103. Section 3, chapter 147, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 210. Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.37.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established a public body corporate and politic, with perpetual corporate succession, to be known as the Washington health care facilities authority. The authority shall constitute a political subdivision of the state established as an instrumentality exercising essential governmental functions. The authority is a “public body” within the meaning of RCW 39.53-010, as now or hereafter amended. The authority shall consist of the governor who shall serve as chairman, the lieutenant governor, the insurance commissioner, the chairman of the Washington state hospital commission, and one member of the public who shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, on the basis of the member’s interest or expertise in health care delivery, for a term expiring on the fourth anniversary of the date of appointment. In the event that any of the offices referred to shall be abolished the resulting vacancy on the authority shall be filled by the officer who shall succeed substantially to the powers and duties thereof. The members of the authority shall ((serve without compensation, but)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be entitled to reimbursement, solely from the funds of the authority, for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties under this chapter, subject to the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03-060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)). A majority shall constitute a quorum.

The governor may designate an employee of the governor’s office to act on behalf of the governor during the absence of the governor at one or more of the meetings of the authority. The vote of the designee shall have the same effect as if cast by the governor if the designation is in writing and is presented to the person presiding at the meetings included within the designation.

The governor may designate a member to preside during the governor’s absence.

Sec. 104. Section 6, chapter 5. Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The member representing consumers of health care services shall serve as chairman. The commission shall elect from its members a vice-chairman biennially. Meetings of the commission shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The commission shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions.

Three members shall constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the commission shall not impair its power to act. No action of the commission shall be effective unless three members concur therein.

The members of the commission shall ((receive no compensation but)) be compensated in accordance with section 5 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses ((while attending meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as in RCW 44.04.120)) in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 105. Section 2, chapter 32. Laws of 1951 as amended by section 159, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.79.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of the board shall ((serve without salary)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall receive travel expenses incurred while in the performance of their duties as members of the board, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 106. Section 7, chapter 139. Laws of 1973 as amended by section 161, chapter 34, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.958.070 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, a board of examiners for wastewater operator certification shall be appointed. This board may serve in a common capacity for the certification of both water and wastewater plant and system operators. One member shall be named from the department of ecology, by its director to serve at his pleasure, and one member from the department of social and health services by its secretary, to serve at his pleasure, and one member who is required to employ a certified operator and who holds the position of city manager, city engineer, director of public works, superintendent of utilities, or an equivalent position who will be appointed by the governor. The governor shall also appoint two members who are operators holding a certificate of at least the second highest operator classification for wastewater plant operators established by regulation of the director, and if authorized in a water supply system operator certification act, two members who are operators holding a certificate of at least the second highest classification for wastewater operators established pursuant to such act.

The employer representative shall be appointed for an initial one-year term and the operators for initial terms of two and three years respectively. Thereafter, the members appointed by the governor shall serve for a three-year period. Vacancies shall be filled for the remainder for an unexpired term by the appointing authorities.

This board shall assist in the development of rules and regulations, shall prepare, administer, and evaluate examinations of operator competency as required in this chapter, and shall recommend the issuance or revocation of certificates. The board shall determine when and where the examinations shall be held. The examination shall be held at least three times annually.

Each member appointed by the governor shall (serve without compensation, but) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses while engaged in the business of the board as prescribed in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 ((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

Sec. 107, Section 21, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The corrections standards board shall consist of nine voting members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. The secretary of corrections shall serve as an ex officio member without a vote. In addition, the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall each appoint two nonvoting members, one from each of the two largest caucuses in their respective houses.

(2) The voting members shall serve four-year staggered terms. No member may serve more than two consecutive terms. Of the voting members, initially one-third shall be appointed for two-year terms, one-third for three-year terms, and one-third for four-year terms. The legislative members shall serve two-year terms, or until they cease to be members of the house from which they were appointed, whichever occurs first.

(3) The voting membership of the board shall be divided so that two-thirds of the members reside west of the Cascade mountains and one-third reside east of the Cascade mountains. One-third of the members shall be elected county, city, or town officials, one-third shall be elected or appointed state officials or their designees, and one-third shall be private citizens. In 1983, the members appointed to take the positions of the persons previously appointed to the two-year terms provided under subsection (2) of this section shall have been members of the state jail commission as local government representatives on June 30, 1983. The board shall include women and members of "minority groups" as that term is commonly understood.

(4) The members of the board shall ((not receive any compensation for their services but)) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for nonlegislative members and under RCW 44.04.120 for legislative members (((as now existing or hereafter amended)).

(5) The members shall elect a chairman and such other officers as they deem necessary.

Sec. 108, Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 173, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the forest practices board of the state of Washington as an agency of state government consisting of members as follows:

(a) The commissioner of public lands or his designee;

(b) The director of the department of commerce and economic development or his designee;

(c) The director of the department of agriculture or his designee;

(d) The director of the department of ecology or his designee;

(e) An elected member of a county legislative authority appointed by the governor: PROVIDED, That such member's service on the board shall be conditioned on his continued service as an elected county official; and

(f) Six members of the general public appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be an owner of not more than five hundred acres of forest land, and one of whom shall be an independent logging contractor.

(2) The members of the initial board appointed by the governor shall be appointed so that the term of one member shall expire December 31, 1975, the term of one member shall expire December 31, 1976, the term of one member shall expire December 31, 1977, the terms of two members shall expire December 31, 1978, and the terms of two members shall expire December 31, 1979. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of four years. Vacancies on the board shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments. Each member of the board shall continue in office until his successor is appointed and qualified. The commissioner of public lands or his designee shall be the chairman of the board.
The board shall meet at such times and places as shall be designated by the chairman or upon the written request of the majority of the board. The principal office of the board shall be at the state capital.

Members of the board, except public employees and elected officials, shall (receive forty dollars for each day or major portion thereof actually spent in attending to their duties as board members) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act and in addition they shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

The board may employ such clerical help and staff pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW as is necessary to carry out its duties.

Sec. 109. Section 22, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 47, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The appeals board shall operate on either a part-time or a full-time basis, as determined by the governor. If it is determined that the appeals board shall operate on a full-time basis, each member shall receive an annual salary to be determined by the governor. If it is determined that the appeals board shall operate on a part-time basis, each member shall (receive compensation on the basis of seventy-five dollars for each day spent in performance of his duties) be compensated in accordance with section 4 of this 1984 act: PROVIDED, That such compensation shall not exceed ten thousand dollars in a fiscal year. Each member shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 (as now existing or hereafter amended).

(2) The appeals board shall as soon as practicable after the initial appointment of the members thereof, meet and elect from among its members a chairman, and shall at least biennially thereafter meet and elect or reelect a chairman.

(3) The principal office of the appeals board shall be at the state capital, but it may sit or hold hearings at any other place in the state. A majority of the appeals board shall constitute a quorum for making orders or decisions, promulgating rules and regulations necessary for the conduct of its powers and duties, or transacting other official business, and may act though one position on the board be vacant. One or more members may hold hearings and take testimony to be reported for action by the board when authorized by rule or order of the board. The appeals board shall perform all the powers and duties granted to it in this chapter or as otherwise provided by law.

(4) The appeals board shall make findings of fact and prepare a written decision in each case decided by it, and such findings and decision shall be effective upon being signed by two or more members and upon being filed at the appeals board’s principal office, and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

(5) The appeals board shall either publish at its expense or make arrangements with a publishing firm for the publication of those of its findings and decisions which are of general public interest, in such form as to assure reasonable distribution thereof.

(6) The appeals board shall maintain at its principal office a journal which shall contain all official actions of the appeals board, with the exception of findings and decisions, together with the vote of each member on such actions. The journal shall be available for public inspection at the principal office of the appeals board at all reasonable times.

(7) The forest practices appeals board shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear appeals arising from an action or determination by the department.

(a) Any person aggrieved by the approval or disapproval of an application to conduct a forest practice may seek review from the appeals board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of the approval or disapproval. Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. The attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with.

(b) The review proceedings authorized in subparagraph (a) of this subsection are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases.

Sec. 110. Section 77.04.060, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 6, chapter 78, Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The office of financial management shall review the compensation levels established for the various boards and commissions by sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this act. The conclusions of the review, together with any proposed legislation, shall be submitted to the legislative budget committee and the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1988, and every four years thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. Section headings and captions used in sections 2 through 5 of this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1985.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following title amendment was adopted:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1159, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Warnke, the question I have is about the escrow commission members. This section deals solely and exclusively with the compensation of the members of that board or commission and does not deal with the issue of who can or cannot act as an escrow agent."

Senator Warnke: "The portions of the bill—there are three amendments given to the escrow—the third amendment does. The first one deals with compensation; the second brings the compensation language into the escrow portion; and the third one clarifies that portion of the Supreme Court's decision which said the escrow people were practicing law and this amendment portion of the bill was agreed to by all parties."

Senator Talmadge: "That included the Bar Association?"
Senator Warnke: "To my recollection, yes."
Senator Talmadge: "Where does that appear in the bill?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of House Bill No. 1159 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1205, by Committee on Commerce and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick, Barrett, Powers, Silver, Ellis, Brough, McClure, Sommers, Brekke, Sayan, Braddock, Smitherman, Ebersole, Fisher, Johnson, Tanner, Van Dyken, B. Williams, J. Williams, Wilson, Van Luven, Hine, Kaiser, Niemi, Schoon, Stratton, Todd, Miller and Halsan)

Establishing a provisional center for international trade in forest products.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendments be considered simultaneously and not be adopted:

On page 1, line 14, after "expand" strike "forest-based"
On page 1, line 15, after "trade" insert "of manufactured forest products"
On page 3, line 2, after "in" insert "manufactured" and after "products" insert "from Washington state"

Debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger to not adopt the three Committee on Commerce and Labor amendments.
The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the committee amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved the following amendments by Senators Goltz and Vognild be considered and adopted simultaneously:
On page 1, line 15, after "trade" add ". emphasizing trade in manufactured forest products"
On page 3, line 2, after "products" insert ". including barriers to manufactured forest products from Washington state"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of order. It would appear to me that the amendments expand the scope and object of the bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Do you wish to speak to it?"

Senator Pullen: "I've learned over the years, Mr. President, that you do such an outstanding job that it probably wouldn't do much good to point out why it expands the scope and object. I'm sure you and your staff will find out very quickly once you look into the actual language."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1205 was deferred.
SECOND READING

MOTION

Senator Patterson moved the following amendment be adopted:

On page 10, after line 35, insert:

"(4) The terms of a collective bargaining agreement relating to salaries, wages and fringe benefits by the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative shall not be mutually agreed upon until adoption by the legislature and approval by the governor of the biennial budget. No collective bargaining agreement shall extend beyond the end of the biennium covered by the agreement."

Debate ensued.

Senator Goltz: "Senator Patterson, as I read your proposed amendment, even if the bargaining process—the employer and the bargaining representative were to agree upon salaries, wages and fringe benefits, which would be less than that appropriated by the Legislature—they could not do that according to this. They would have to wait until the Legislature had adjourned and the Governor had signed the bill or until the Legislature had passed the appropriation and the Governor signed the bill. Is that correct?"

Senator Patterson: "Well, there's nothing in this that says that you couldn't agree upon something less. In other words, you could go ahead and go through the whole process and the thing that I wanted to make sure is that we didn't delay the process and the opportunity for them to go ahead and bargain. When it came down to that final factor on salaries, wages and fringe benefits, that they didn't agree to something that might include a proviso in the budget bill, for example, prohibiting something to happen. You can do the bargaining in good faith and feel that you have something that is going to be workable in your community college district, but in the end the Legislative Budget Bill could take that away."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment to the Patterson amendment was adopted:

On line 3 of the amendment, strike "mutually" and insert "finally"

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rinehart demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

On page 1, line 5, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1980 and RCW 19.27.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature declares that it is the intent of RCW 19.27.030 to preclude local governments from adopting building codes more stringent than the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.030. The state building code, or any successor state building code, shall preemption requirements adopted by local governments which exceed the state-wide code: PROVIDED, That the amendment set forth herein to RCW 19.27.030(6) shall remain in effect and together with RCW 19.27.200 through 19.27.300 shall supercede any rules enacted before August 1, 1983, pursuant to RCW 19.27.075 or any other administrative authority over energy conservation until the Legislature adopts thermal performance and design standards based upon the results of the Residential Standards Demonstration Program administered by the Washington State Energy Office.

There shall be in effect in all cities, towns, and counties of the state a state building code which shall consist of the following codes which are hereby adopted by reference:

(3) The Uniform Fire Code ((with appendices thereto)), ((1976)) 1982 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any wording in this code, participants in religious ceremonies shall not be precluded from carrying hand-held candles;

(4) The Uniform Plumbing Code, ((1976)) 1982 edition, published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials: PROVIDED, That chapter ((H)) 12 of such code is not adopted; (PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any wording in this code, nothing in this code shall apply to the installation of any gas piping, water heaters, or vents for water heaters));

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided for in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160; and

(6) The thermal performance and design standards for dwellings as set forth in RCW 19.27-.210 through 19.27.290. This subsection shall be of no further force and effect when RCW 19.27-.220 through 19.27.290 expire as provided in RCW 19.27.300.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams: "Mr. President, I would like to raise a scope and object on the amendment. The object of House Bill No. 596 deals only with changes to four specific statewide codes—the building codes, mechanical codes, fire and plumbing codes. It simply updates the references to the most recent additions of those four codes.

The amendment expands the scope and object of the bill by adding consideration of energy standards. The amendment rolls back the 1980 state energy code and establishes the 1977 code as the state energy code. The amendment expands the scope and object of the bill by dealing with local government authorities to amend all codes, which goes well beyond the object of adopting uniform codes."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Williams, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 596 is a measure which simply updates the edition of the Uniform Building, Mechanical, Fire and Plumbing Codes, which together constitute the major portion of the state building code.

The amendment proposed by Senator Bender, et al. while incorporating the provisions of the original bill, would preempt local governments from adopting building construction standards which are more restrictive than those contained in the state building code.

The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.
MOTION

Senator Bender moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 11, strike “Uniform Building Code Standards”.
On page 1, line 18, strike “and Uniform Fire Code Standards”.
On page 1, line 24, strike “and Uniform Plumbing Code Standards”.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams: “Mr. President, I’d like to raise the scope and object on these amendments, also. The object of the uniform building code is to establish uniform standards and our codes have always referenced uniform standards one way or another. It’s only in the last few years that the process of codifying these uniform codes have set the standards out separately from the codes themselves. If, in fact, we were to adopt these amendments, we would not be adopting the standards along with the codes and, therefore, we would not end up with uniform standards. So, the whole principal of uniform codes with standards that are uniform would be negated by these amendments.”

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 596 was deferred.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255, and the pending amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to page 4, line 23, proposed by Senator McDermott earlier today;

On motion of Senator McDermott and there being no objection, the amendment to page 4, line 23, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 5, line 4, after “1983” strike all material through “services,” on line 8 and insert “and may provide compensation for those municipal corporations in the county which are parties to the agreement and which provide boating safety services, including fire suppression and rescue services only as related to boating safety”.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Newhouse was excused.

Senator Bottiger moved the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 7, after line 1, insert:

The power and duty to levy on property and collect any tax due and unpaid shall continue in and devolve upon the county treasurer and his successors in office after his return to the county auditor, and until the tax is paid; and the warrant attached to the assessment roll shall continue in force and confer authority upon the treasurer to whom the same was issued, and upon his successors in office, to collect any tax due and uncollected thereon. This section shall apply to all assessment rolls and the warrants thereto attached; PROVIDED, That taxes imposed but not collected on boats for the years 1980 through 1982 may not be collected.”

Renumber the remaining section.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Metcalf to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment:

On page 7, line 1, after “repealed,” insert:

The power and duty to levy on property and collect any tax due and unpaid shall continue in and devolve upon the county treasurer and his successors in office after his return to the county auditor, and until the tax is paid; and the warrant attached to the assessment roll shall continue in force and confer authority upon the treasurer to whom the same was issued, and upon his successors in office, to collect any tax due and uncollected thereon. This section shall apply to all assessment rolls and the warrants thereto attached. PROVIDED. That no taxes imposed on boats for the years 1980 through 1982 may be collected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Property taxes paid on a boat for the years 1980 through 1982 shall be allowed as a credit against any taxes due under chapter 82.49 RCW for the boat. This credit shall apply to the current owner regardless of who owned the boat during the period 1980 through 1982.

Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I challenge the amendment on scope and object. I apologize to the body. I thought logic would prevail and it never occurred to me that anyone would pass that last amendment, or I would have challenged it. To me, at least, we have a bill that deals with registration and I don't see anything that deals with property taxes. It seems to me like it clearly expands the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255 was deferred.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Peterson served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 4767 failed to pass the Senate earlier today.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 271, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Vekich, Fiske, Charnley and Zellinsky) (by State Patrol request)

Modifying provisions relating to survivors' benefits under the state patrol retirement system.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 3, beginning on line 17, delete all of section 2 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall apply only to surviving spouses receiving benefits under RCW 43.43.270(2) on or after the effective date of this act. No surviving spouse whose benefits under RCW 43.43.270(2) were terminated before the effective date of this act due to remarriage shall be governed by this act, and this act shall neither retroactively nor prospectively restore such terminated benefits. This act shall apply only to surviving unmarried children receiving benefits under RCW 43.43.270 (3) or (4) on or after the effective date of this act. No benefits shall be paid under RCW 43.43.270 (3)(b) or (4)(b) for any period before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

In line 3 of the title, after "43.43.270," strike "and"

In line 4 of the title, after "section" and before the period, insert ": and declaring an emergency"
MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading. The President declared the question before the Senate to be a roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 271, as amended by the Senate. The bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas: 47; nays: 0; absent: 0; excused: 0.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quig, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 47.

Voting nay: Senator Barr - 1.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 271, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 880 and the pending amendment to page 1, line 12, proposed by Senator Bender earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Clarke, the President finds that House Bill No. 880 is a measure which deals with the subject of assuring that certain health care providers who are not participants in a health care service contract are reimbursed for their services.

The amendment proposed by Senator Bender also deals with the subject of assuring that certain health care providers who are not participants in a health care service contract are reimbursed for their services.

The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken.

The amendment was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

Senator Clarke demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained. The President declared the question before the Senate to be a roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Bender.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Bender carried and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas: 26; nays: 21; absent: 0; excused: 0.

Absent: Senator Owen - 1.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 10, after "contractor," insert "shall be mailed directly to the provider, and"

On page 1, line 13, after "Insured," insert "shall be mailed directly to the Insured,"

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be a roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator Vognild.
The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendments were adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended. House Bill No. 880, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 880, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 880, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas: 31; nays: 16; absent: 0; excused: 0.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Granlund, Guess, McCaslin, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Owen, Quiigg, Rinehart - 16.

Absent: Senator Conner - 1.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 880, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Woody served notice that she would move to reconsider the vote by which the Bottiger amendment on page 7, line 1, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255 was adopted by the Senate earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1413, by Representatives Walk and Egger

Revising regulation of railroads.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Whenever any public service company (shall have) other than a railroad company, files with the commission any schedule, classification, rule, or regulation, the effect of which is to change any rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll (therefore) previously charged, the commission (shall have) has power, either upon its own motion or upon complaint, upon notice, to (enter upon) a hearing concerning (such) the proposed change and the reasonableness and justness (thereof and) of it. Pending (such) the hearing and the decision (thereon) the commission may suspend the operation of (such) the rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll. If (such) the change is proposed by a common carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, for a period not exceeding seven months, and, if proposed by a public service company other than such a common carrier, for a period not exceeding ten months from the time the (same) change would otherwise go into effect. After a full hearing the commission may make such order in reference (thereof) to the change as would be provided in a hearing initiated after the (same) change had become effective.

At any hearing involving any change in any schedule, classification, rule, or regulation the effect of which is to increase any rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll theretofore charged, the burden of proof to show that such increase is just and reasonable (shall be) is upon the public service company (provided, however, that). When any common carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commission (shall) files any tariff, classification, rule, or regulation the effect of which is to decrease any rate, fare, or charge, the burden of proof to show that such decrease is just and reasonable (shall be) is upon (such) the common carrier.

Whenever the commission (shall) finds, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint as (therein) provided in this chapter, that any rate, toll, rental, or charge (which) has been the subject of complaint and inquiry is sufficiently remunerative to the public service company, other than a railroad company, affected (thereby) by it, the commission may order that (such) the rate, toll, rental, or charge shall not be changed, altered, abrogated, or discontinued, nor shall there be any change in the classification (which) that will change or alter (such) the rate, toll, rental, or charge without first obtaining the consent of the commission authorizing (such) the change to be made.

The commission (shall have) has the power upon complaint or upon its own motion to prescribe and authorize just and reasonable rates for the transportation of persons or property by carriers other than railroad companies, and shall exercise (such) that power whenever and as often as it (shall) deems necessary or proper. The commission shall, before any hearing is had upon (such) the complaint or motion, notify the complainants and the carrier concerned of the time and place of (such) the hearing by giving at least ten days' written notice thereof, specifying that at the time and place designated a hearing will be held for the purpose of prescribing and authorizing (such) the rates (which). The notice (shall be) is sufficient to authorize the commission to inquire into and pass upon the matters designated in this section.

In exercising (its discretion) this power the commission may use any standard, formula, method, or theory of valuation reasonably calculated to arrive at the objective of prescribing and authorizing just and reasonable rates.

In the exercise of (its discretion) this power the commission may (in its discretion) give consideration, in (thereof) addition to other factors, to the following:

1. To the effect of (such) the rates upon movement of traffic by (such) the carriers;
2. To the public need for adequate transportation facilities, equipment, and service at the lowest level of charges consistent with the provision, maintenance, and renewal of (such) the facilities, equipment and service, and
3. To the carrier need for revenue of a level (which) that under honest, efficient, and economical management is sufficient to cover the cost (including all operating expenses, depreciation accruals, rents, and taxes of every kind) of providing adequate transportation service, plus an amount equal to (such) the percentage of (said) that cost as (shall be) is reasonably necessary for the provision, maintenance, and renewal of (said) the transportation facilities or equipment and a reasonable profit to the carrier. The relation of carrier expenses to carrier revenues may be deemed the proper test of a reasonable profit.

This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Every common carrier shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open (to the) for public inspection, schedules showing the rates, fares, charges, and classification for the transportation of persons and property within the state between each point upon (its) the carrier's route and all other points thereon; and between each point upon its route and all points upon every route leased, operated, or controlled by it; and between each point on its route or upon any route leased, operated, or controlled by it and all points upon the route of any other common carrier, whenever a through route and joint rate (shall) have been established or ordered between any two such points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the several carriers participating in (such) the through route shall file, print, and keep open (to the) for public inspection, (as aforesaid) the separately established rates, fares, charges, and classifications (as applied) that apply to the through transportation. The schedules printed (as aforesaid) shall plainly state the places between which property and persons will be carried. (and) shall also contain classification of passengers or property in force, and shall also state separately all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges, and all other charges (which) that the commission may require to be stated, all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations (which) that may in (anywise) any way change, affect, or determine any part, or the aggregate of, such (aforesaid) rates, fares, and charges, or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, shipper, or consignee. (Such) The schedule shall be plainly printed in large type, and a copy (thereof) of it shall be kept by every (such) carrier readily accessible to (such) for inspection by the public in every station or office of (such) the carrier where passengers or property are respectively received for transportation, when (such) the station or office is in charge of any agent (and in every station or office of such carrier where passenger tickets for transportation or tickets covering sleeping or parlor car or other train accommodation are sold or bills of lading or receipts for property are issued). All or any of (such) the schedules kept as (aforesaid) provided in this section shall be immediately produced by (such) the carrier for inspection upon the demand of any person. A notice printed in bold type and stating that (such) the schedules any on file with the agent and open to inspection by any person and that the agent will assist any (such) person to determine from (such) the schedules any transportation rates or fares or rules or regulations (which) that are in force shall be kept posted by the carrier in two public and conspicuous places in every such station or office. The form of (every such) each schedule shall be prescribed by the commission ((and shall conform in the case of railroad companies as nearly as may be to the form of schedules required by the interstate commerce commission under the act of congress entitled "An act to regulate commerce," approved February 4, 1906, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereeto)). The commission (shall have) power, from time to time, (in its discretion) to determine and prescribe by order such changes in the form of (such) the schedules as may be found expedient, and to modify the requirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting, and filing of schedules either in particular instances or by general rule or order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions.

The commission may, in its discretion, suspend the operation of this section in whole or in part as applied to vessels engaged in jobbing business not operating on regular routes. This section does not apply to rail transportation contracts regulated by section 16 of this act or to railroad services or transactions exempted under section 20 of this act.

Sec. 5. Section 81.28.050, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 116, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change (shall) may be made in any classification, rate, fare, charge, rule, or regulation filed and published by a common carrier other than a rail carrier, except after thirty days’ notice to the commission and to the public. The notice shall be published as provided in RCW 81.28.040 (which) and shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force (and) the time when the changed rate, classification, fare, or charge will go into effect (and). All proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing, and publishing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to public inspection. In the case of a change proposed by a rail carrier, except for changes to rail contracts between a rail carrier and a shipper authorized under section 16 of this act, which changes become effective in accordance with that section, a proposal resulting in a rate increase or a new rate shall not become effective for twenty days after the notice is published, and a proposal resulting in a rate decrease shall not become effective for ten days after the notice is published. The commission, for good cause shown, may by order allow changes in rates without requiring the notice and the publication time periods specified in this section. When any change is made in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule, or regulation, attention shall be directed to (such) the change by some character on the schedule (and) The character and its placement (and) shall be designated by the commission. The commission may, by order, for good cause shown, allow changes in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule, or regulation without requiring any character to indicate each and every change to be made.

((No)) A common carrier shall not, directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device or method, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person or corporation a greater or lesser compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of persons or property, except as authorized in this title, than charges.
demands, collects, or receives from any person or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under the same or substantially similar circumstances and conditions. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

((Ne)) A common carrier shall not make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person or corporation or to any locality or to any particular description of traffic in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person or corporation or locality or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

((Ne)) A common carrier((;)) subject to the provisions of this title((;)) shall not charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property, for a shorter time than for a longer distance over the same line in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or to charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates, subject to the provisions of this title((;bet)). This shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier to charge and receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul. Upon application of a common carrier the commission may by order authorize it to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property in special cases after investigation by the commission, but the order must specify and prescribe the extent to which the common carrier making ((such)) the application is relieved from the operation of this section((;and)). Only to the extent so specified and prescribed ((such)) is any common carrier ((be)) relieved from the operation and requirements of this section. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Whenever the commission ((shall)) finds, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as ((herein)) provided in this chapter, that the rates, fares, or charges demanded, exacted, charged, or collected by any common carrier for the transportation of persons or property within the state or in connection therewith, or that the regulations or practices of ((such)) the common carrier affecting ((such)) those rates are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or in ((anywise)) any way are in violation of the provisions of law, or that ((such)) the rates, fares, or charges are insufficient to yield a reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine and fix by order the just, reasonable, or sufficient rates, fares, or charges, or the regulations or practices to be thereafter observed and enforced ((and shall fix the same by order)). This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In determining whether a rate established by a railroad company is reasonable for purposes of this title, the commission shall follow the Interstate Commerce Commission policy, which provides that railroad companies shall earn adequate revenues. Further, in regulating railroad company rates under this title, the commission has no jurisdiction over general rate increases, inflation-based rate adjustments, or fuel adjustment surcharges approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission shall exercise the authority granted under this chapter to regulate railroads in a manner consistent with the Interstate Commerce Act and in a manner that allows the state of Washington to continue to regulate railroad rates to the maximum extent allowable under federal law and to be certified, in accordance with 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10501 by the federal government to continue such regulation. In compliance with this chapter, the commission, in addition to such other procedures as it may establish, shall administer and follow the provisions of this chapter as nearly as practicable in accordance with the statutes, regulations, and decisions construing federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The commission shall use the standards and procedures established in this chapter to determine reasonableness when acting upon any complaint or protest or in any proceeding concerning any railroad's rate or a classification, rule, or practice related to a rate subject to regulation under this chapter. The commission shall adopt rules relating to the determination of market dominance. The rules shall allow rate increases, not subject to suspension, if the rail carrier proposing the increase is found by the commission not to have market dominance. Market dominance is defined as an absence of effective competition from other carriers or modes of transportation for the transportation to which a rate applies.
When a rate for transportation by a rail carrier is challenged as being unreasonably high, the commission shall not make such a finding until it has determined that there is market dominance and that the rate exceeds a maximum reasonable level for the transportation to which the rate applies. A finding of market dominance does not presumptively establish that the proposed rate exceeds a reasonable maximum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) A railroad company subject to the jurisdiction of the commission may not charge or receive from a person a different compensation by using a special rate, rebate, drawback, or other means, for a service rendered, or to be rendered, than it charges or receives from another person for performing a like or contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under substantially similar circumstances. A railroad company that charges or receives such a different compensation for that service engages in unreasonable discrimination.

(2) A railroad company providing transportation or service subject to the jurisdiction of the commission may not subject a person, place, port, or type of traffic to unreasonable discrimination.

(3) Differences of rates, classifications, rules, and practices of railroad companies subject to the jurisdiction of the commission do not constitute a violation of this section if the differences result from different services provided by rail carriers.

(4) This section does not apply to: (a) Contracts approved under sections 16 and 17 of this act; (b) surcharges or cancellations authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission; (c) separate rates for distinct rail services; (d) rail rates applicable to different routes; or (e) expenses authorized under 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10751 by the Interstate Commerce Commission, except that with respect to rates described in (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection, nothing in this subsection affects the commission’s authority under this section with respect to rate relationships between ports or within the same port.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The commission may suspend the filing of a schedule, classification, rule, or regulation by a railroad company only upon complaint and only when it is determined that: (1) It is substantially likely that the protesting party will prevail on the merits; (2) without suspension the proposed change will cause substantial injury to the protesting party; (3) and because of the peculiar economic circumstances of the protesting party the provisions requiring refund of moneys in excess of amounts found to be reasonable do not protect the protesting party.

The suspension period for a proceeding to determine the reasonableness of a filing by a railroad company shall not exceed five months. If the commission has not reached a final decision at the end of the fifth month after the schedule, classification, rule, or regulation was to become effective, it shall, if suspended take effect, and if in effect, remain in effect and not be subject to suspension. If a suspension is not ordered, but an investigation is instituted, the commission shall require the railroad to account for all amounts received under the increase until final determination is made and the proceeding is completed. The accounting shall specify by whom and for whom the amounts are paid. When the commission makes its final determination, it shall require the carrier to refund to the person for whom the amounts were paid that part of the increased rate found to be unreasonable, plus interest. If a rate is suspended and any portion of the rate is later found to be reasonable, the carrier shall collect from each person using the transportation to which the rate applies the difference between the original rate and the portion of the suspended rate found to be reasonable for any services during the period of suspension, plus interest. Interest, if required, shall be paid at a rate equal to the average yield, on the date the statement is filed, of marketable securities of the federal government having a duration of ninety days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The commission shall adopt rules in conformance with 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a allowing: (a) Rate increases not subject to suspension based upon an adjusted base rate of rail carriers in this state, including a cost-adjustment factor; (b) rate increases that do not exceed a specified percentage of the adjusted base rate.

(2) A rate increase under subsection (1)(b) of this section is not subject to suspension except: (a) Upon complaint by an interested party alleging that the rate increase violates the provisions of this chapter; or (b) if the rate increase is equal to or greater than revenue-variable cost percentage limits specified in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a(e).

(3) For the purposes of this chapter “adjusted base rate” has the same meaning with respect to rail carriers in this state as in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a(a).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A railroad company providing transportation of property may enter into a contract with one or more purchasers of that transportation to provide specified services under specified rates and conditions. Contracts, together with summaries of them, shall be filed with the commission under special rules adopted by the commission relating to contents of contracts, summaries of contracts, and other rules relating thereto. Contents of summaries shall contain nonconfidential information and shall be available for public inspection.

Contracts filed under this section shall be approved by the commission to be effective at any date determined by the commission within sixty days after the filing of the contract or if not disapproved in a proceeding under this section, sixty days after filing.
A contract may, after hearing, be disapproved if the commission determines that the contract does any of the following:

1. As to contracts other than contracts for the transportation of agricultural products, forest products, and paper: (a) Upon complaint filed by a shipper, that the contract unduly impairs the ability of the contracting railroad company or railroad companies to meet their common carrier obligations; (b) upon complaint filed by a port, that the contract harms or causes unjust discrimination against such port.

2. As to contracts for the transportation of agricultural products, including forest products and paper, upon showing of a shipper: (a) That the railroad company unjustly discriminates against the shipper by refusing to enter into a contract with the shipper for rates and services for transportation of the same type of commodity under similar conditions to the contract at issue, and that the shipper is ready, willing, and able to enter into the contract at a time essentially contemporaneous with the period during which the contract at issue was offered; or (b) that the railroad company provides rates, services, or other practices that constitute destructive competition. For the purpose of making a determination of what constitutes destructive competition, the commission shall consider the difference between contract rates and published single car rates.

3. As to contracts that apply only to the transportation of agricultural commodities (including forest products but not including wood pulp, woodchips, pulpwood, or paper) the contract may be disapproved if it requires the use of more than forty percent of the capacity of the railroad's owned or leased equipment, by major car type, in the performance of the terms of the contract. On request of a railroad or other party or on its own initiative, the commission may grant relief from the limitation, as it considers appropriate, if it determines that the additional equipment may be made available without harming the railroad company's ability to meet its carrier obligations.

A contract that is approved under this section and transportation under the contract may not be subsequently challenged before the commission or in any court on the grounds that the contract violates a provision of this section. The exclusive remedy for any alleged breach of a contract entered into under this section is in an appropriate state or federal court, unless the parties otherwise agree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commission may hold a proceeding to review contracts filed under section 16 of this act under the following conditions:

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the proceedings must begin no later than thirty days after the filing of the contract;

2. A proceeding may be initiated by the commission, or:
   (a) By a shipper to determine whether a contract violates section 16(1)(a) or 16(2)(a) or (b) of this act, but only upon a showing of harm to the shipper;
   (b) By a port to determine violation of section 16(1)(b) of this act, but only upon a showing of harm to the port;
   (c) By any person the commission finds has an interest under section 16(3) of this act.

If a proceeding is initiated under this section the commission must determine whether the contract is in violation of section 16 of this act within thirty days after commencement of the proceeding. If the commission finds that the contract is not in violation of section 16 of this act, the contract shall become effective. If the commission finds that the contract violates section 16 of this act, the commission shall disapprove the contract, unless the contract unjustly discriminates against a shipper as stated in section 16(2)(a) of this act. In which case the carrier shall be ordered, subject to section 16 of this act, to provide rates and services substantially similar to the contract at issue with such differentials in terms and conditions as are justified by the evidence at the proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. In addition to the liability limitations and exceptions allowed under RCW 81.29.020, a railroad company providing transportation or service subject to jurisdiction of the commission may establish rates for transportation of property under which the liability of the carrier for the property is limited to a value established by written declaration of the shipper or by a written agreement between the shipper and the carrier, and may provide in the written declaration or agreement for specified amounts to be deducted from any claim against the carrier for loss or damage to the property or for delay in the transportation of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all railroad companies providing transportation subject to the commission's jurisdiction shall maintain rates for the transportation of recyclable or recycled materials, other than recyclable or recycled iron or steel, at revenue-to-variable-cost ratios that are equal to or less than the average revenue-to-variable-cost ratio that rail carriers would be required to realize, under honest, economical, and efficient management, in order to cover total operating expenses, including depreciation and obsolescence, plus a reasonable and economic profit or return, or both, on capital employed in the business sufficient to attract and retain capital in adequate amounts to provide a sound transportation system.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. In a matter related to a railroad company providing transportation, the commission shall, upon its own motion or the motion of any interested person, exempt persons, classes of persons, transactions, or service from the provisions of this chapter as the commission determines are appropriate and in the public interest. The commission may begin a proceeding either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any interested person. Exemptions established under this section may be temporary, may be subject to revocation, or may be subject to any other conditions that the commission determines are required in the public interest.

Sec. 21. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 10, chapter 133, Laws of 1983 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigatory, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission. If disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property; PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern; PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulæ, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under section 16 of this act, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(2) The exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the non-disclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.
(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 64.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Railroad properties, including but not limited to rights-of-way, land held in fee and used for railroad operations, bridges, tunnels, and other facilities, are declared to be suitable for public use upon cessation of railroad operations on the properties. It is in the public interest of the state of Washington that such properties retain their character as public utility and transportation corridors, and that they may be made available for public uses including highways, other forms of mass transportation, conservation, energy production or transmission, or recreation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 64.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Public utility and transportation corridors are railroad properties (a) on which railroad operations have ceased; (b) that have been found suitable for public use by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States; and (c) that have been acquired by purchase, lease, donation, exchange, or other agreement by the state, one of its political subdivisions, or a public utility.

(2) A public utility and transportation corridor retains its public use character as long as it is owned by a public agency or utility. A public utility and transportation corridor is not subject to reversion, taking by adverse possession, or any similar property interests ripening on the cessation of railroad operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 10 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 81 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
On motion of Senator Peterson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2, after “RCW 46.37” insert “467”

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended. Engrossed House Bill No. 1427, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1427, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1427, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 42; nays, 00; absent, 03; excused, 04.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCasin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, McCalif, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 42.

Absent: Senators Conner, Williams, Woody - 3.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1427, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 739, by Representatives Clayton, Ellis, Wilson, Martinis, Hankins, C. Smith, Dickie and Barrett

Authorizing special operating permits to be granted for antique boilers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 739, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 739.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 739, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 00; absent, 04; excused, 04.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCasin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, McCalif, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 41.

Absent: Senators Benitz, Conner, Williams, Woody - 4.

HOUSE BILL NO. 739, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1191, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Ebersole, Wang, Lux, Rust, Todd, Fisher, Grimm, Haugen and Hine)

Mandating water quality testing by public water supply systems.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hughes, the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) In order to protect public health from chemical contaminants in drinking water, the state board of health shall conduct public hearings and, where technical data allow, establish by rule standards for allowable concentrations. For purposes of this chapter, the words "chemical contaminants" are limited to synthetic organic chemical contaminants and to any other contaminants which in the opinion of the board constitute a threat to public health. If adequate data to support setting of a standard is available, the state board of health shall adopt by rule a maximum contaminant level for water provided to consumers' taps. Standards set for contaminants known to be toxic shall consider both short-term and chronic toxicity. Standards set for contaminants known to be carcinogenic shall be consistent with risk levels established by the state board of health.

(2) The board shall consider the best available scientific information in establishing the standards. The board may review and revise the standards. State and local standards for chemical contaminants may be more strict than the federal standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The state board of health shall conduct public hearings and establish by rule monitoring requirements for chemical contaminants in public water supplies. Results of tests conducted pursuant to such requirements shall be submitted to the department of social and health services and to the local health department. The state board of health may review and revise monitoring requirements for chemical contaminants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each local health department serving a county of the first class or larger may establish water quality standards for its jurisdiction more stringent than standards established by the state board of health. Each local health department establishing such standards shall base the standards on the best available scientific information.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Public water supply systems as defined by RCW 70.119.020 that the state board of health or local health department determines do not comply with the water quality standards applicable to the system shall immediately initiate preparation of a corrective plan designed to meet or exceed the minimum standards for submission to the department of social and health services. The owner of such system shall within one year take any action required to bring the water into full compliance with the standards: PROVIDED, That the department of social and health services may require compliance as promptly as necessary to abate an immediate public health threat or may extend the period of compliance if substantial new construction is required: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the extension shall be granted only upon a determination by the department, after a public hearing, that the extension will not pose an imminent threat to public health. Each such system shall include a notice identifying the water quality standards exceeded, and the amount by which the water tested exceeded the standards, in all customer bills mailed after such determination. The notification shall continue until water quality tests conducted in accordance with this chapter establish that the system meets or exceeds the minimum standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state board of health in determining monitoring requirements for public water supply systems shall take into consideration economic impacts as well as public health risks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1191, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1191, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1191, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent, 0; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinnopch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman – 41.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen – 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1191, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1649, by Representatives J. King, Ellis, Silver and Heck

Expanding ex parte communications in quasi-judicial proceedings.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Thompson moved the following Committee on Local Government amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 229, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

During the pendency of any quasi-judicial proceeding, no member of a decision-making body may engage in ex parte communications with opponents or proponents with respect to the proposal which is the subject of the proceeding unless that person:

1. Places on the record the substance of any written or oral ex parte communications concerning the decision of action; and

2. Provides that a public announcement of the content of the communication and of the parties' rights to rebut the substance of the communication shall be made at each hearing where action is considered or taken on the subject to which the communication related. This prohibition does not preclude a member of a decision-making body from seeking in a public hearing specific information or data from such parties relative to the decision if both the request and the results are a part of the record. Nor does such prohibition preclude correspondence between a citizen and his or her elected official if any such correspondence is made a part of the record when it pertains to the subject matter of a quasi-judicial proceeding."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President. I want to raise a point of order on scope and object on the amendment to the bill. The original bill requires notarized affidavits by both parties and the proposed amendment completely changes that and changes the intent of the bill that they have notarized statements that they have met. I would urge the President to look at that with a careful eye as he usually does."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of House Bill No. 1649 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 392, by Representatives Ebersole, Smitherman and Fisher

Modifying the hearing procedures for the formation of local improvement districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Thompson moved the following amendment by Senators Thompson, Benitz, Hansen and Hayner be adopted:

On page 2, after line 12, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 35A.05.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.05.040 are each amended to read as follows:

When a sufficient petition, as determined by the rules set forth in RCW 35A.01.040, is filed with the legislative body of each of such contiguous municipal corporations, signed by electors of each such corporation in number equal to not less than ten percent of the votes cast at the last general municipal election therein, seeking consolidation of such contiguous municipal corporations as a noncharter code city under one of the plans of government authorized by this title, naming such plan and setting forth a name for the proposed consolidated city, the legislative body of the municipal corporation in which the largest number of inhabitants reside (hereinafter called principal legislative body) shall cause to be submitted to the electors of each of such corporations, at the next general municipal election, if one is to be held within one hundred and eighty days, or at a special election to be called for that purpose not less
FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1984

...than ((ninety)) sixty nor more than ((one)) two hundred and ((eighty)) twenty days after the filing of the petition, the question whether such corporation shall become consolidated as a non-charter code city under the plan of government proposed in the petition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Thompson, your reference to the tri-city legislation consolidation bill that we did pass—if we pass this amendment, they could apply that extended period of time and put it at a different time for their election. Is that what you're saying—a little further down the road than the May date?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Patterson, if we don't pass this, there is substantial confusion as to when the election could be held. Opinions differ with regard to it, but it's general law and special law that could be read against this problem. This would settle the question and provide certain opportunity to hold the election either at the special election date—I think it's the third Tuesday of May—or wait until the regular September primary date to hold that referendum election."

Senator Patterson: "Who would make that decision in the situation of the tri-cities? What body would make that decision?"

Senator Thompson: "My understanding is it would have to be an agreement among the city councils of those three communities."

Senator Patterson: "And all three would have to agree to it? Is that what's in mind?"

Senator Thompson: "That would be my understanding."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following title amendments were adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government:" strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title after "35.43.140" Insert "amending section 35A.05.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.05.040; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended. Engrossed House Bill No. 392, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 392, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 392, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yea's, 44; nays, 0; absent, 0; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Kiskadden, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Melcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellier, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman — 44.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen — 1.

Absent: Senator McDonald — 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 392, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 29, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Haugen, Allen, Galloway, Moon, Ellis, Brough, Armstrong, Charnley, Brekke, Taylor, Rust, Powers and Johnson)

Removing forty percent validation requirement for excess levy elections.

The bill was read the second time.
MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved the following Committee on Education amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 11, after "for" strike "the support of".
On page 2, line 34, after "for" strike "the support of".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, I guess I have to take a look at the amendments for a minute. I'm opposed to the bill—I don't know what the amendments do. Do they take away the forty percent, Senator Gaspard?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "Does this take away the forty percent of vote requirement?"

Senator Gaspard: "That's the intent of the bill. That's what we have before us. These two amendments would clarify other than maintenance and operation levies. There are such levies that are used for capital purposes, building purposes and for transportation and for vehicle funds."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the two Committee on Education amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the committee amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 12; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 35.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Clarke, Croswell, Guess, Haley, Hansen, McCaslin, Melcalf, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen - 12.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 16, strike "the support of the common schools may provide such support". and insert "((the support of the common schools may provide such support)) the common schools may be provided"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Second House Joint Resolution No. 29 was deferred.

At 10:31 a.m., on motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 11:41 a.m.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3133.
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3620.
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4313.
SENATE BILL NO. 4513.
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4775.
SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 127.
SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 131.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 29.
MOTION

Senator Craswell moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2. line 12. after "schools" insert "at a November general election".
On page 2. line 34. after "schools" insert "at a November general election".

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator Craswell.

The motion by Senator Craswell failed and the amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Craswell moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1. after line 7. strike everything down to and including "resort." on page 3. line 12. and insert the following:

"Article 7. section 2. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution. the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created. shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: PROVIDED. HOWEVER. That nothing herein contained shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision. municipal corporation. district. or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy. or have levied for it. ad valorem taxes on property. other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period. either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district. at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: PROVIDED. That notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution. any proposition pursuant to this subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools may provide such support for a two year period;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes. for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes. other than the replacement of equipment. when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds. submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year. at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district. at which election the total number of persons voting ((on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election)) "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: PROVIDED. That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only. and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein. AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII. Section 6. of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6. 1934. or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort."
Senator Gaspard demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Croswell.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Croswell failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas. 16; nays. 30; absent. 02; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Benitz, Clarke, Croswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Hayner, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, Zimmerman - 16.

Absent: Senators McDonald, von Relchbauer - 2.
Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Second Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 29, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Second Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 29 was deferred.

At 11:54 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION
The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Haley and von Reichbauer were excused.

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION
On motion of Senator Peterson, the appointment of Captain M. R. Flavel as a member of the Board of Pilotage Commissioners was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF CAPTAIN M. R. FLAVEL

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 41; nays. 00; absent. 05; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 41.

Absent: Senators Conner, Hurley, Quigg, Thompson, Williams - 5.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Peterson, the appointment of Burt A. Shearer as a member of the Board of Pilotage Commissioners was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF BURT A. SHEARER

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 42; nays. 00; absent. 05; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 42.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1227, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Jacobsen, Allen, Chamley, Rust and Belcher)

Providing for management of state park land.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Hughes moved the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 12, insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.51 a new section to read as follows:

There is created a Washington state parks and recreation commission conservation area to be known as West Hylebos Creek wetlands conservation area. The area is an approximately seventy-five acre urban wilderness, contiguous to the industrially zoned part of Federal Way, Washington, bounded by So. 348th and So. 356th streets on the sides and by Highway 99 and First Avenue South on the ends. The area shall be preserved, as much as possible, in the pristine ecological state of the wetlands, consistent with the development of an interpretive center and a lengthened nature trail necessary for the increased public enjoyment of the area.

The state parks and recreation commission is authorized and directed to acquire such real property, easements, or rights in the West Hylebos Creek wetlands in King County, together with such real property, easements and rights as is necessary for the creation and operation of the West Hylebos Creek wetlands conservation area.

The state parks and recreation commission shall encourage private entities, tax-exempt organizations, and volunteers to support the acquisition, development, operation and maintenance of the West Hylebos Creek wetlands conservation area."

On motion of Senator Hughes, the following amendment by Senator Haley to the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the amendment, after "Sec" strike "3" and insert "5"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment expands the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1227 was deferred.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1138, by Representatives Ebersole, Rust, Allen, Brekke, Burns, Brough, Charnley, Crane, Fisher, Galloway, Wang, Kaiser, Lux, Nealey, Todd and Miller

Requiring comprehensive plans to provide for protection of ground water.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Hughes moved that the following amendment by Senators Hughes and Lee be adopted:

On page 3, following section 4, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 90.54.RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature hereby declares that the protection of groundwater aquifers which are the sole drinking water source for a given jurisdiction shall be of the uppermost priority of the state department of ecology, department of social and health services, and all local government agencies with jurisdiction over such areas. In administration of programs related to the disposal of wastes and other practices which may impact such water quality, the department of ecology, department of social and health services, and such affected local agencies shall explore all possible measures for the protection of the aquifer, including any appropriate incentives, penalties, or other measures designed to bring about practices which provide for the least impact on the quality of the groundwater."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hughes, I understand that this is to insure pure drinking water for the city of Spokane."

Senator Hughes: "Well, that's not quite accurate, Senator. It will also include aquifer protection for Camano and Whidbey as well."

Senator Bottiger: "But, aquifer means under the ground water. It wouldn't apply to providing clear, pure drinking water out of a river."

Senator Hughes: "Hopefully, the water that would come out of it would be pure and clean."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Hughes, would you explain to us what those excess baggage amendments do to 3415?"

Senator Hughes: "There's a little disagreement between some of the members of this body and the House on some other ground water issues and they have been tied to the bill. I suspect that there will be some heads popping out and I would just as soon keep this clean bill separate from those larger ships and leave it as we have passed it here twice previously."

Senator Deccio: "I guess if Senator Hughes would explain what those amendments do--I think for the benefit of the body we probably should have some explanation of what they do."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator Hughes, on the last part of your amendment, it says 'local agencies shall explore all possible measures for the protection of the aquifer, including any appropriate incentives, penalties or other measures.' Could that also be the closing down of a total watershed, for example?"

Senator Hughes: "I don't think this gives any authority that doesn't already exist in current law. It's just a restatement of that, Senator Warnke. I would seriously doubt that there is any additional authority. I would suspect that they may have that authority now in the local statutes and as I said this is no enhancement of that at all. The essence of this amendment is that it gives priority to sole source aquifer protection and that basically addresses three areas, but my understanding when we've had discussion on this bill before is that it gives no greater authority in those areas."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Mr. President, I asked a question and I don't think I got an answer on it and I would like to ask it again, if I might."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Senator Hansen has volunteered to answer Senator Deccio."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HANSEN

Senator Hansen: "Yes, Senate Bill 3415 is the exact bill that this amendment is. We sent 3415 over to the House and the House sent 1138 back to us with their ruling that as far back in history as you wanted, anyone who interfered would have to make restitution to the other water rights. This would fill the courts for twenty years. I cut the retroactive part out of the bill, because we have the Odessa sub area up there—about six hundred wells and all of these wells costing from fifty thousand to two hundred thousand dollars and they've got a drop in the water table there and the hundred million dollar bond issue that we put in, would put water into that area and alleviate that decline in that water table.

"So, they're sitting on a hundred million dollar bond bill and then they amend this other bill on that that would put that area into litigation and so whatever the Department of Ecology would say would further sustain yields, whether a hundred and seventy-five wells or four hundred wells. Then the balance of the other wells would be liable for all the draw down and have to make restitution to the other four hundred. We can't have that, Senator Deccio. We'll never live long enough to watch all those claims fought in court, so the best thing to do is to not make it retroactive and when they found out I did that then they amended that bill onto Senator Hughes' bill and so we're taking Senator Hughes' bill, putting it back on this one and we'll fight the other battle when that bill gets back.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HUGHES

Senator Hughes: "Mr. President, if I could respond to Senator Deccio. That issue will be before us again, because 3415 is coming over with that baggage and I'd just as soon move this good clean bill that has passed this place twice without getting involved in that competition."

Senator Deccio: "Then we will be acting on concurrent 3415?"

Senator Hughes: "3415 will be before us again."

Senator Deccio: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Barr: "Mr. President, I respectfully challenge this amendment as to scope and object. The bill requiring comprehensive plans to provide for protection of ground water, even though it deals with ground water comes, in my humble opinion, a long ways from including what another complete bill like this one would—where the legislature declared the protection of aquifers. It sets up a very simple straight forward special piece of legislation that does not have much to do with county comprehensive plans."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of House Bill No. 1138 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1438, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Brekke, Patrick, Rust and Allen)

Modifying provisions relating to dangerous wastes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hughes, the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 70.105 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Independent of the processing or issuance of any or all federal, state, and local permits for disposal of dangerous wastes, no disposal of dangerous wastes at a commercial off-site land disposal facility may be undertaken prior to July 1, 1986, unless:

(a) The disposal results from actions taken under RCW 70.105A.060 (2) and (3), or results from other emergency situations; or

(b) Studies undertaken by the department under RCW 70.105.160 to determine the best management practices for various waste categories under the priority waste management methods established in RCW 70.105.150 are completed for the particular wastes or waste categories to be disposed of and any regulatory revisions deemed necessary by the department are proposed and do not prohibit land disposal of such wastes; or

(c) Final regulations have been adopted by the department that allow for such disposal.

(2) Construction of facilities used solely for the purpose of disposal of wastes that have not met the requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not be undertaken by any developer of a dangerous waste disposal facility.

(3) The department shall prioritize the studies of waste categories undertaken under RCW 70.105.160 to provide initial consideration of those categories most likely to be suitable for land disposal. Any regulatory changes deemed necessary by the department shall be proposed and subjected to the rule-making process by category as the study of each waste category is completed. All of the study shall be completed, and implementing regulations proposed, by July 1, 1986."
Any final permit issued by the department before the adoption of rules promulgated as a result of the study conducted under RCW 70.105.160 shall be modified as necessary to be consistent with such rules.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 70, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.105.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall conduct a study to determine the best management practices for categories of waste for the priority waste management methods established in RCW 70.105.150, with due consideration in the course of the study to sound environmental management and available technology. As an element of the study, the department shall review methods that will help achieve the priority of RCW 70.105.150(1)(a), waste reduction. Before issuing any proposed regulations, the department shall conduct public hearings regarding the best management practices for the various waste categories studied by the department. After conducting the study, the department shall prepare new rules or modify existing rules as appropriate to promote implementation of the priorities established in RCW 70.105.150 for management practices which assure use of sound environmental management techniques and available technology. The preliminary study shall be completed by July 1, 1986, and the rules shall be adopted by July 1, 1987. The solid waste advisory committee shall review the studies and the new or modified rules and submit recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1988, regarding policy options (such as fee incentives, disposal bans, etc.) that will be used to reduce the production of dangerous and extremely hazardous waste in Washington state.

The studies shall be updated at least once every five years. The funding for these studies shall be from the hazardous waste control and elimination account, subject to legislative appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1438, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1438, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1438, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 40; nays, 05; absent, 03; excused, 01.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Clarke, Deccio, Haley, Hayner - 5.

Absent: Senators Owen, Quigg, Thompson - 3.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1438, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1142, by Representatives Dellwo, R. King, Belcher, Sayan, Fisher, Fisch, Brekke, McMullen and Lux

Modifying procedures for filing claims for occupational disease.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

No application shall be valid or claim thereunder enforceable unless filed within one year after the day upon which the injury occurred or the rights of dependents or beneficiaries accrued, except as provided in RCW 51.28.055."
Sec. 2. Section 51.28.055, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 34, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.28.055 are each amended to read as follows:

Claims for occupational disease or infection to be valid and compensable must be filed within ((one year)) two years following the date the worker had written notice from a physician: (1) Of the existence of his or her occupational disease, (without reference to its date of origin) and (2) that a claim for disability benefits may be filed. The notice shall also contain a statement that the worker has two years from the date of the notice to file a claim. The physician shall file the notice with the department. The department shall send a copy to the worker and to the self-insurer if the worker's employer is self-insured. However, a claim is valid if it is filed within two years from the date of death of the worker suffering from an occupational disease.

Sec. 3. Section 51.28.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 33, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.28.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Where a worker is entitled to compensation under this title he or she shall file with the department or his or her self-insuring employer, as the case may be, his or her application for such, together with the certificate of the physician who attended him or her, and it shall be the duty of the physician to inform the injured worker of his or her rights under this title and to lend all necessary assistance in making this application for compensation and such proof of other matters as required by the rules of the department without charge to the worker. The department shall provide physicians with a manual which outlines the procedures to be followed in applications for compensation involving occupational diseases, and which describes claimants' rights and responsibilities related to occupational disease claims. If application for compensation is made to a self-insuring employer, he or she shall forthwith send a copy thereof to the department.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendment was adopted:

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended. Engrossed House Bill No. 1142, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1142, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1142, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 44; nays, 02; absent, 02; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bolliger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hunley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Melcauf, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shimpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 44.

Voting nay: Senators Haley, Quigg - 2.

Absent: Senators Deccio, Moore - 2.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1142, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore advanced the Senate to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 29, which had been amended and placed on third reading earlier today.
THIRD READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 29, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Haugen, Allen, Galloway, Moon, Ellis, Brough, Armstrong, Charnley, Brekke, Taylor, Rust, Powers and Johnson)

Removing forty percent validation requirement for excess levy elections.

The resolution was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 29, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 29, as amended by the Senate, and the resolution failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 16; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 29, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared lost.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1227 and the pending Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment, as amended, to page 3, line 12, proposed earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Bottiger, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1227 is a measure which deals with the subject of the management of state park land, but does not provide for the acquisition of any land.

"The amendment proposed by the Senate Committee on Parks and Ecology establishes an entirely new Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission conservation area, to be known as the West Hylebos Creek Wetlands Conservation Area.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The committee amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1227, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1227.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1227, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1174, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Rust, Allen, Kreidler, Van Dyken, Lux, Fisher, Todd, Charnley and Jacobsen)

Regulating acid deposition pollution.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hughes, the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that:
(1) Acid deposition resulting from commercial, industrial or other emissions of sulphur dioxide and nitrogen oxides pose a threat to the delicate balance of the state's ecological systems, particularly in alpine lakes that are known to be highly sensitive to acidification;
(2) Failure to act promptly and decisively to mitigate or eliminate this danger may soon result in untold and irreparable damage to the fish, forest, wildlife, agricultural, water, and recreational resources of this state;
(3) There is a direct correlation between emissions of sulphur dioxides and nitrogen oxides and increases in acid deposition;
(4) Acidification is cumulative; and
(5) Once an environment is acidified, it is difficult, if not impossible, to restore the natural balance.

It is therefore the intent of the legislature to mitigate or eliminate the acid deposition problem by curbing sources of acid deposition within the state and to assure that adequate monitoring is conducted in alpine lakes in order to allow for early detection of acidification and the resulting environmental degradation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. "Acid deposition," as used in sections 1 through 5 of this act means the wet or dry deposition from the atmosphere of chemical compounds with a pH of less than 5.6.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The joint legislative committee on science and technology is directed to establish a consultant selection committee that includes the chairs of the senate parks and ecology committee and the house environmental affairs committee and one member appointed by the department of ecology. A consultant shall be selected to:
(a) Evaluate existing information and research on acid deposition in the Pacific Northwest region;
(b) Identify data gaps that need to be filled to provide sound baseline information on acid deposition in the region; and
(c) Coordinate with the department of ecology the evaluations specified under subsections (a) and (b) of this section.
(2) In addition to the consultant selected under subsection (1) of this section, the joint committee on science and technology may execute an interagency agreement with the department of ecology for the purpose of providing financial assistance for the department's comprehensive evaluation of the phenomenon known as acid rain. The amount of financial assistance to be provided under this subsection shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars or be less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The joint legislative committee on science and technology shall report the results of the study authorized in section 3 of this act to the legislature by January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The joint legislative committee on science and technology is authorized to apply for and receive moneys from the federal government or other sources, public or private, to finance any of the activities authorized or mandated by sections 1 through 3 and 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of ecology is responsible for periodic monitoring of the alpine lakes and other appropriate areas of the state to ensure early detection of acidification and environmental degradation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department of ecology shall initiate in consultation with the joint science and technology committee a comprehensive evaluation of the phenomenon known as acid deposition or acid rain. The study shall evaluate the:
(1) Scope and extent of acid rain, if any, that is present within the various geographic areas of the state, including lakes and other water bodies;
(2) Present and potential effects on the state’s land and water bodies;
(3) Present and potential impacts of acid rain upon the economic and environmental welfare of the state;
(4) Factors which contribute to creation of acid rain now existing in the state;
(5) Means and methods for controlling, reducing, and eliminating acid rain now in place within the state as well as preventing its recurrence in the future;
(6) Range of funds needed, on a continuing basis, to implement the means and methods set forth in subsection (5) of this section together with the proposed funding sources as well as the economic impacts associated with these means and methods; and
(7) Sufficiency of existing pollution control laws of the state to resolve satisfactorily the problems of the state associated with acid rain.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) There is appropriated from the general fund to the house of representatives for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.
(2) There is appropriated from the general fund to the senate for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 3, and 5 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.020 are each amended to read as follows:
The department of ecology is herein designated as the executive branch agency to nuclear waste board shall carry out the authority and responsibility set forth in this chapter. The department of ecology is designated as the executive branch agency for participation in the federal nuclear waste policy act of 1982 and the federal low-level radioactive waste policy act of 1980, however the legislature retains an autonomous role with respect to participation in all aspects of the federal nuclear waste policy act of 1982. The board and the department may receive federal financial assistance for carrying out radioactive waste mangement activities, including assistance for expenses, salaries, travel, and monitoring and evaluating the program of repository exploration and siting undertaken by the federal government.

The board shall submit a written report at least semiannually to the governor and to each member of the legislature on the radioactive waste program. Its progress in carrying out its responsibilities, and any recommendations for legislative or administrative action that will improve the state's management and control activity in maximizing public health and safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The board shall be responsible for identifying and reviewing state agency policies relating to the management of radioactive wastes; analyzing recommendations of the advisory council to determine how state agencies may be responsive to the needs of the board in carrying out its duties under this chapter; determining ways in which coordination among state agencies can be improved; carrying out such review activities that will enable to effectively evaluate federal actions; reviewing the activities of advisory and technical committees; studying the need for additional advisory and technical committees; and participating in the consultation and concurrence process provided for in the federal waste management act of 1982 and assisting the department to participate in the low-level waste policy act of 1980 and to monitor and comment on decisions of the northwest interstate compact committee on low-level radioactive waste management.

(2) The board shall disseminate or arrange with the federal department of energy or other federal agency to disseminate information received pursuant to its activities under this chapter to the legislature, appropriate state agencies, local units of government, regional planning commissions, American Indian tribal governing bodies, the radioactive waste advisory council, and persons who have requested in writing to receive this information.

(3) The board shall serve as a spokesman on behalf of the citizens of this state before the federal department of energy and other federal agencies on matters related to the disposal of high-level radioactive waste.

(4) The board shall promote and coordinate through the radioactive waste advisory council educational programs which provide information on the nature of high-level radioactive waste, the disposal of these wastes, the activities of the board, the activities of the federal department of energy and other federal agencies related to the disposal of high-level radioactive waste, and the opportunities of the public to participate in procedures and decisions related to the disposal of high-level radioactive waste.

(5) The board shall monitor activity in congress and the federal government related to the disposal of high-level radioactive waste. The board may advise the congressional delegation from this state of action which is needed to protect the interests of the state.

(6) The board may request and delegate to the department the undertaking of any of the activities assigned to the board by the provisions of this chapter. The board may delegate administrative matters to the department to assist the board in carrying out its activities under this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All departments, agencies, and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall cooperate with the board in the furtherance of any of its activities pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a nuclear waste policy and review board (to assist the department in carrying out its responsibilities under this chapter). The board shall consist of the following members: The chairman of the advisory council who shall also serve as chairman of the board, the director of the department, the director of the energy office or the director's designee, the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, the chairman of the energy facility site evaluation council or the chairman's designee, the director of the Washington state water research center or the director's designee, four memers of the state senate, appointed by the president of the senate, and four members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker, who shall be selected from each of the caucuses in each house, but no more than two members of each house shall be of the same political party. Legislative members shall be ex officio nonvoting members of the board and shall serve while members of the legislature, at the pleasure of the appointing officer.

((The board shall be responsible for identifying and reviewing state agency policies relatting to the management of radioactive wastes, analyzing recommendations of the advisory council to determine how state agencies may be responsive to the needs of the department in carrying out its duties under this chapter. The board shall report to the department in determining how in which coordination among state agencies can be improved; carrying out such review activities that will enable the governor to effectively evaluate federal actions; reviewing the activities of advisory and technical committees created by the governor, advising the director on the need for additional advisory and technical committees; and assisting the department to participate in the consultation and concurrence process provided for in the federal waste management act of 1972 and the low-level waste policy act of 1980 and to monitor comment on decisions of the northwest interstate compact committee on low-level radioactive waste management;

(2) Nonlegislative members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 44.04.120. The legislature shall seek reimbursement from available sources, including the federal government, for legislative expenditures incurred pursuant to the provisions of this (section) chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An advisory council is hereby established of not less than fifteen members appointed by the governor to provide advice, counsel, and recommendations to the (department) board on all aspects of the radioactive waste management program. The council shall particularly advise the (department) board on maximizing opportunities for public involvement in the program, soliciting public input, and assisting in the need for wide understanding of the issues involved in nuclear waste management. The governor shall appoint the chairman of the advisory council who shall also serve as chairman of the nuclear waste (policy and review) board. Members of the council shall be selected from all areas of the state and shall include a broad range of citizens, representatives of local governments, and representatives of such other interests as the governor determines will best further the purposes of this chapter. A representative of an affected Indian tribe may be an ex officio nonvoting member of the council. Terms of council members shall not exceed two years and they shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. Members may be reappointed. The governor may appoint a replacement for any council member who is temporarily unable to fulfill the responsibilities required of a council member. The replacement shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. Members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The (department) board may establish such additional advisory and technical committees as it deems necessary. Members of any advisory or technical committee established under this section may receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The board and/or the department of ecology (is) are authorized to adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out (its responsibilities) responsibilities under this chapter. The department of social and health services is authorized to adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out its responsibilities under chapter 43.145 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The board shall be the lead agency in negotiations and shall negotiate agreements and modifications to agreements with the federal department of energy. The legislature may appoint one or more representatives to participate in the negotiations. Additionally the board shall consult with the radioactive waste advisory council, the department of ecology, and the legislature during the negotiation of any agreement or modification to an agreement with the federal department of energy.

(2) The board shall conduct more than one public hearing on any proposed agreement or modification to an agreement negotiated under subsection (1) of this section. The board shall provide fourteen days notice of the date and location of hearings conducted under this subsection. The board shall prepare a written summary of testimony presented at hearings conducted under this subsection and shall consider the need for modifications to the negotiated agreement as a result of the hearings.

(3) No agreement or modification to an agreement negotiated under subsection (1) of this section may take effect unless it is recommended to be approved by a majority of the members of the full board.

(4) No agreement or modification to an agreement negotiated under subsection (1) of this section may take effect unless it is reviewed under section 10 of this act.

(5) In performing their responsibilities under this section, the board and its membership shall use good faith efforts and their best judgments to: (a) Develop an ongoing program to inform the public of its actions and to address concerns of the public as they arise; (b) to ensure, to the maximum extent feasible, that:

(i) No right or opportunity for participation to which the state is entitled under the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 10101 et seq.) be waived by written agreement;

(ii) The state be afforded adequate remedies in the event of breach of the written agreement;

(iii) Wherever possible, the state obtain through agreement additional rights and privileges which are not inconsistent with the Nuclear Waste Policy Act;

(iv) The written agreement incorporate the provisions of section 116 of the Nuclear Waste Policy Act as a federal contractual obligation with the state of Washington;

(v) The written agreement contain provisions specifying the level of funding that the state will receive from the United States department of energy under the Nuclear Waste Policy Act with respect to but not limited to public health and safety, environmental, socioeconomic, and related impacts which are anticipated at the time of agreements; allows for cost escalation and scope of project changes; and further contains provisions specifying how the amount of funding will be determined with respect to later environmental, socioeconomic and related impacts;

(vi) The consultation and cooperation agreement provided for in the Nuclear Waste Policy Act be executed by the earliest possible date reasonably attainable in order that the state be adequately protected by such agreement at all points in the federal-state relationship; and

(vii) The Washington state legislature be fully apprised of the status of the negotiation of the written agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The board shall submit any written agreement or modification of an agreement recommended to be approved by the board and approved by the federal department of energy to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, and to the chairs of the energy and utilities committees of the house of representatives and the senate.

(2) The energy and utilities committees of the house of representatives and the senate shall review the proposed written agreement or modification to an agreement on behalf of the legislature within thirty days after receipt of the board recommendation under subsection (1) of this section. The committees may recommend approval or disapproval of the written agreement or modification of the agreement via a concurrent resolution if the legislature is in session or a written statement from either committee to the speaker of the house and/or the president of the senate.

(3) The board may execute an agreement or modification recommended under subsection (1) of this section at any time after sixty days of receipt of the agreement or modification as provided in subsection (2) of this section unless, prior to its execution, the board receives a disapproval thereto embodied in either a concurrent resolution if the legislature is in session or a written statement from either committee if the legislature is not in session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The board may negotiate what in the board's judgment are technical revisions to any agreement approved under section 10 of this act.

(2) No technical revision to an agreement negotiated under subsection (1) of this section may take effect unless it is recommended to be approved by a majority of the members of the full board.

(3) No technical revision to an agreement negotiated under subsection (1) of this section may take effect unless it is considered approved under section 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The board shall submit any technical revision to a written agreement negotiated under section 11(1) of this act, approved by the board and approved by the federal department of energy or other federal agency, to the presiding officer of each house of the legislature and to the governor.

(2) Each presiding officer shall refer the technical revision to the committee on energy and utilities of the appropriate house within seven working days after the day on which the revision is received. Each presiding officer shall cause a statement to appear in the journal of the appropriate house that a technical revision to an agreement approved under section 10 of this act is submitted for review.

(3) Either committee on energy and utilities may object to the technical revision by taking action in executive session within thirty days after the revision is referred to the committee. If a committee objects to the revision, it shall submit a written notice of the objection to the presiding officer of that house for review by the legislature. The presiding officer shall cause the written notice of the objection to appear in the journal of the appropriate house. If the legislature is not in session, the committees shall transmit a written notice of the objection to the presiding officer of each house.

(4) The governor may object to the technical revision by taking action within thirty days after the revision is received. If the governor objects to the revision, the governor shall submit a written notice of the objection to the presiding officer of each house of the legislature and each presiding officer shall cause the written notice of the objection to appear in the journal of the respective house.
(5) If neither committee nor the governor objects to a technical revision within the thirty-day review period, the revision is considered approved and shall take effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) If the federal department of energy recommends a site in the state to the president of the United States for the development of a repository for the long-term disposal of high-level radioactive waste, the board shall review the selected site. The review shall include a full review of the adequacy of the selected site. The board shall solicit written comments on the selected site from the radioactive waste advisory council. The board shall use recognized experts in conducting its review. The board shall conduct more than one public hearing concerning the selected site and shall make available to the public arguments and evidence for and against the selected site. The board shall provide at least fourteen days notice of the date and location of the public hearings. The board shall solicit comments from appropriate state agencies, local units of government, regional planning commissions, American Indian tribal governing bodies, the general public, and interested citizen groups on the adequacy of the selected site. The board shall make these comments available to the public.

(2) After completing this review but not later than fifteen days after the date on which the president recommends a site for repository development to the congress, the board shall submit a recommendation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the governor, and the committees on energy and utilities of the house of representatives and senate on whether the state should accept the site selected by the federal department of energy. The recommendation to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall be accompanied by a request for the introduction of a concurrent resolution to approve the site selected or by a request for the introduction of a concurrent resolution to disapprove the site.

(3) Pursuant to Article II, section 12 of the state Constitution, the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives shall poll the members of the legislature if the president recommends a site in the state for the development of a repository for disposal of high-level radioactive waste to determine if the legislature desires a special session to address the repository site selection issue.

(4) The energy and utilities committees of the house of representatives and the senate shall review the board’s recommendation within thirty days after receipt of the board’s recommendation under subsection (2) of this section. The committees may recommend approval or disapproval of the recommendation or modification of the recommendation via a concurrent resolution if the legislature is in session to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate for review and action by the full legislature. If the legislature is not in session and has not convened a special session pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the committees may recommend approval or disapproval of the written agreement or modification of the agreement by a written statement from either committee submitted to the speaker of the house and/or the president of the senate.

(5) After the governor or the legislature take action under subsection (4) of this section, the chief clerk of the house of origin or the governor shall notify the board of the action taken and the board shall send a report to the president of the United States, the members of the United States senate, the members of the United States house of representatives, the federal department of energy, and other appropriate federal agencies. The report shall contain a summary of the review undertaken by the board in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the recommendation made by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and the action of the legislature under subsection (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The department shall provide administrative and technical staff support as requested by the board. As directed by the board, the department shall be responsible for obtaining and coordinating technical expertise necessary for board participation in nuclear waste programs and shall be responsible for ongoing technical coordination and administration of program activities. Other state agencies shall assist the board in fulfilling its duties to the fullest extent possible. The board and/or the department may contract with other state agencies to obtain expertise or input uniquely available from that agency.

Sec. 15. Section 10, chapter 19. Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.200.900 are each amended to read as follows:

The rules of strict construction do not apply to this ((chapter)) chapter and it shall be liberally construed in order to carry out the objective for which it is designed, in accordance with the legislative intent to give the ((department of ecology)) board the maximum possible freedom in carrying the provisions of this ((chapter)) chapter into effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1, 3, and 9 through 14 of this act are each added to chapter 43.200 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Debate ensued.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment.

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the following title amendment was adopted:

and declaring an emergency

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1637, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Senator Williams, on page 9, lines 35 and 36 of the adopted amendment, it indicates that the Legislature may appoint one or more. If it's only one, would you interpret that to be a possible unlawful delegation of authority?"

Senator Williams: "I'm not sure that I can answer that. The reason the language is put in there was primarily to recognize the fact that we have appointed two staff members, actually, to serve on that negotiating team and, basically, it recognizes the circumstances that have occurred as opposed to dealing, in essence, with what may happen. But in any case, I think, we were trying to recognize that both houses should be represented on that negotiating team."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Guess, what firm was it that made the study there on Hanford regarding waste disposal?"

Senator Guess: "Rockwell."

Senator Rasmussen: "Rockwell? Then, what department of the government was it that came in and knocked holes in that report?"

Senator Guess: "U.S.G.S. and I'm not so sure, Senator, that they knocked any holes in it. The U.S.G.S. says that there is a possibility of ground water infiltration in the area to some thirty-seven hundred feet below the ground surface, and it might be that the ground water would be impregnated with it. They did not take into consideration, Senator, that those fuel rods will be in a stainless steel case and inside the stainless steel case there will be a lead case and inside of that there will be iron cases."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Guess: "A point of personal privilege. Senator Rasmussen hasn't got the slightest conception of what he's talking about. I never have worked for the U.S.G.S. in my life and I don't and I won't."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1637, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1637, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 15; absent, 01; excused, 01.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1637, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1138 and the pending amendment to page 3, proposed by Senators Hughes and Lee earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Barr, the President finds that House Bill No. 1138 is a measure which deals with protecting the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Hughes and Lee also deals with the subject of protecting the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Hughes and Lee was ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Hughes and Lee.

The motion by Senator Hughes carried and the amendment was adopted.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255 and the pending amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to page 7, line 1, proposed by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Metcalf on February 23, 1984.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Quigg and there being no objection, the amendment to page 7, line 1, proposed by Senators Quigg, Vognild and Metcalf was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Quigg moved the following amendment be adopted:

On page 7, line 1, after "repealed." insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Property taxes paid pursuant to operation of law as determined by RCW 84.04.080 and RCW 84.36.005 on a boat for the years 1980 through 1982 shall be allowed as a credit against any taxes due under chapter 82.49 RCW for the boat. This credit shall apply to the current owner regardless of who owned the boat during the period 1980 through 1982."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Specifying requirements for political advertising.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 15, after "rule" delete "or on a case-by-case basis":

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended. Engrossed House Bill No. 1133, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "In the days in the state when politics was colorful, we had some great names on the ballot, such as radio speaker, John C. Stevenson; we have progressive Jack Taylor and others. Now I would like to ask Senator Talmadge, if one were to use an epithet like 'honest Slim Rasmussen,' would that be an assumed name?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, in Senator Rasmussen's case, of course not."
"With respect to that question, I think the assumed name is the problem of using a name that is completely different than the name by which you are accustomed to passing. For example, if you all of a sudden were campaigning as Dianne Woody when, in fact, you were Ray Moore, I think that would present a problem. That's the kind of assumed name that we're talking about."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1133, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1133, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 05; absent, 02; excused, 01.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1123, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Monohon, Grimm, J. King, Wang and Hansan)

Permitting the state employees' insurance board to expand its methods for providing insurance coverage.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 136, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 91, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.05.025 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state employees' insurance board to be composed of the members of the present board holding office on the day prior to July 1, 1977, which such members shall serve until the expiration of the period of time of the term for which they were appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Thereafter the board shall be composed as follows: The governor or the governor's designee; one administrative officer representing all of higher education to be appointed by the governor; two higher education faculty members to be appointed by the governor; the director of the department of personnel who shall act as trustee; one representative of an employee association certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees and one representative of an employee union certified as exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, both to be appointed by the governor; one person who is retired and is covered by a program under the jurisdiction of the board, to be appointed by the governor; one member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. The terms of office of the administrative officer representing higher education, the two higher education faculty members, the representative of an employee association, the retired person, and the representative of an employee union shall be for four years: PROVIDED, That the first term of one faculty member and one employee association or union representative member shall be for three years. Meetings of the board shall be at the call of the director of personnel. The board shall prescribe rules for the conduct of its business and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be paid for their travel expenses while on official business in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, and legislative members shall receive allowances provided for in RCW 44.04.120.

(2) The board shall study all matters connected with the providing of adequate health care coverage, life insurance, liability insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, and disability income insurance or any one of, or a combination of, the enumerated types of insurance and health care plans for employees and their dependents on the best basis possible with relation both to the welfare of the employees and to the state: PROVIDED. That liability insurance shall not be made available to dependents. The board shall design benefits, devise specifications, analyze carrier responses to advertisements for bids, determine the terms and conditions of employee participation and coverage, and decide on the award of contracts which shall be signed by the trustee on behalf of the board: PROVIDED. That all contracts for insurance, health care plans, including panel medicine plans, or protection applying to employees covered by RCW 28B.10.660 and chapters 41.04 and 41.05 RCW shall provide that the beneficiaries of such insurance, health care plans, or protection may utilize on an equal participation basis the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER. That the boards of trustees and boards of regents of the several institutions of higher education shall retain sole authority to provide liability insurance as provided in RCW 28B.10.660. The board shall from time to time review and amend such plans. Contracts for all plans shall be rebid and awarded at least every five years.

(3) The board shall develop and provide as a part of the employee insurance benefit program an employee health care benefit plan which may be provided through a contract or contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW, and a plan to be provided by a panel medicine plan in its service area only when approved by the board. The board may but shall not be required to pay more for health benefits under a panel medicine plan than it would otherwise be required to pay for health benefits by a contract with a regularly constituted insurance carrier or health care service contractor in effect at the time the panel medicine plan is included in the employee health care benefit plan. Except for panel medicine plans, the board may but is not required to contract with more than one insurance carrier or health care service contractor to provide similar benefits: PROVIDED. That employees may choose participation in only one of the health care benefit plans sponsored by the board. Active employees, as defined in RCW 41.05.010(2), eligible for medicare benefits shall have the option of continuing participation in health care programs on the same basis as all other employees or participation in medicare supplemental programs as may be developed by the board. These health care benefit plans shall provide coverage for all officials and employees and their dependents without premium or subscription cost to the individual employees and officials, unless the board approves a panel medicine plan at a subscription rate in excess of the premium of the regularly constituted insurance carrier or health care service contractor, in which circumstances an employee contribution may be authorized at an amount equal to such excess. Rates for self pay segments of state employee groups will be developed from the experience of the entire group. Such self pay rates will be established based on a separate rate for the employee, the spouse, and children.

(4) The board shall review plans proposed by insurance carriers who desire to offer property insurance and/or accident and casualty insurance to state employees through payroll deduction. The board may approve any such plan for payroll deduction by carriers holding a valid certificate of authority in the state of Washington and which the board determines to be in the best interests of employees and the state. The board shall promulgate rules setting forth criteria by which it shall evaluate the plans.

(5) (a) The state employees' insurance board may self-fund, self-insure, or enter into other methods of providing for programs under its jurisdiction, except property and casualty insurance authorized under subsection (4) of this section. The board may contract for payment of claims or other administrative services including the purchase of reinsurance for programs under its jurisdiction. If a program does not require the prepayment of reserves the board shall establish that such reserves be maintained for the payment of claims as are normally required for that method of providing that type of insurance. Reserves established by the board shall be held in a separate trust account of the state employees' insurance fund by the state treasurer and shall be known as the state employees' insurance fund—reserve account hereby created. The state investment board is authorized to invest moneys in the state employees' insurance fund in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.84.150. Except as provided in RCW 43.33A.160, one hundred percent of all earnings from these investments shall accrue directly to the state employees' insurance fund.

(b) Any savings realized as a result of a program created under this subsection (5) shall not be used to increase benefits unless such use is authorized by statute.

(c) The state employees' insurance board shall keep or cause to be kept full and adequate accounts and records of the assets, obligations, transactions and affairs of any program created under this subsection (5).

(d) The state employees' insurance board shall file an annual report of the financial condition, transactions and affairs of any program under the board's jurisdiction. The report shall also contain actuarial information regarding the adequacy of the reserves established for the type of insurance being offered. A copy of the annual report shall be filed with the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, and the office of the state auditor. The statement shall be signed by a member of the American Academy of Actuaries certifying that the actuarial amounts are computed in accordance with commonly accepted actuarial standards; and include all actuarial reserves and related statement items required for the sound operation of any employee benefits program.

(e) Members of the board shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relationship to the employees covered by any insurance program created under this subsection (5) and shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith and with that diligence, care and skill which ordinary prudent persons would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the state employees’ insurance fund to the department of personnel, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the contractual services to assist the board in the conversion to a self-insured health benefit program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.”

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after “insurance;” strike the remainder of the title and insert “amending section 2, chapter 136, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 91, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.05.025; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.”

Including driving records of owner-operators within the employment driving record.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Haley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 26, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 27, chapter 21, Laws of 1961 ex. sess. as last amended by section 84, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any request for a certified abstract must specify which part is requested, and only the part requested shall be furnished. The employment driving record part shall be furnished only to the individual named in the abstract, an employer, the insurance carrier that has insurance in effect covering such employer, or a prospective employer. The other part shall be furnished only to the individual named in the abstract, the insurance carrier that has insurance in effect covering such named individual, or the insurance carrier to which such named individual has applied. The director, upon proper request, shall furnish a certified abstract covering the period of not more than three years last past, and such abstract whenever possible, shall include an enumeration of motor vehicle accidents in which such person was involved; the total number of vehicles involved; whether the vehicles were legally parked or moving; whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident; and any reported convictions, forfeitures of bail, or findings that an infraction was committed based upon a violation of any motor vehicle law. Such enumeration shall include any reports of failure to appear in..." response to a traffic citation or failure to respond to a notice of infraction served upon such person by an arresting officer.

The abstract herein provided to an insurance company shall have excluded therefrom any information pertaining to any occupational driver's license when the same is issued to any person employed by another or self-employed as a motor vehicle driver who during the five years preceding the request has been issued such a license by reason of a conviction or finding of a traffic infraction involving a motor vehicle offense outside the scope of his principal employment, and who has during such period been principally employed as a motor vehicle driver deriving the major portion of his income therefrom. The abstract provided to the insurance company shall also exclude any information pertaining to law enforcement officers or fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030, or any member of the Washington state patrol, while driving official vehicles in the performance of occupational duty during an emergency situation if the chief of the officer's or fire fighter's department certifies on the accident report that the actions of the officer or fire fighter were reasonable under the circumstances as they existed at the time of the accident. The abstract provided to the insurance company shall also exclude any traffic infraction of violating energy use restrictions under RCW 46.61.400(2).

The director shall collect for each such abstract the sum of one dollar fifty cents which shall be deposited in the highway safety fund.

Any insurance company or its agent receiving such certified abstract shall use it exclusively for its own underwriting purposes and shall not divulge any of the information therein contained to a third party: PROVIDED, That no policy of insurance shall be canceled on the basis of such information unless the policyholder was determined to be at fault: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no insurance company or its agent for underwriting purposes relating to the operation of commercial motor vehicles shall use any information contained in the abstract relative to any person's operation of motor vehicles while not engaged in such employment.

Any employer or prospective employer receiving such certified abstract shall use it exclusively for his own purpose to determine whether the licensee should be permitted to operate a commercial vehicle or school bus upon the public highways of this state and shall not divulge any information therein contained to a third party.

Any violation of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 54, chapter 155. Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (((No))) A person (shall) commits the traffic infraction of violating the basic speed rule if he drives a vehicle on a highway at a speed greater than is reasonable and prudent under the conditions and having regard to the actual and potential hazards then existing. In every event speed shall be so controlled as may be necessary to avoid colliding with any person, vehicle or other conveyance on or entering the highway in compliance with legal requirements and the duty of all persons to use due care.

(2) A person commits the traffic infraction of violating energy resource use restrictions if he operates a motor vehicle on: (a) A highway posted at fifty-five miles per hour at a speed in excess thereof but not over the speed that would have been posted for the highway before October 1, 1973, if the speed were set using the criteria set forth in RCW 46.61.400, 46.61.410, and 46.61.430.

(3) The traffic infractions described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are separate and distinct infractions, but no person may be cited for both infractions simultaneously.

(4) Except when a special hazard exists that requires lower speed for compliance with subsection (1) of this section, the limits specified in this section or established as hereinafter authorized shall be maximum lawful speeds, and no person shall drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed in excess of such maximum limits.

(a) Twenty-five miles per hour on city and town streets;

(b) Fifty miles per hour on county roads;

(c) Sixty miles per hour on state highways.

The maximum speed limits set forth in this section may be altered as authorized in RCW 46.61.405, 46.61.410, and 46.61.415.

(((5))) (5) The driver of every vehicle shall, consistent with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, drive at an appropriate reduced speed when approaching and crossing an intersection or railroad grade crossing, when approaching and going around a curve, when approaching a hill crest, when traveling upon any narrow or winding roadway, and when special hazard exists with respect to pedestrians or other traffic or by reason of weather or highway conditions.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 36, chapter 151, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.415 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever local authorities in their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that the maximum speed permitted under RCW 46.61.400 or 46.61.440 is greater or less than is reasonable and safe under the conditions found to exist upon a highway or part of a highway, the local authority may determine and declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which;
(a) Decreases the limit at intersections; or
(b) Increases the limit but not to more than sixty miles per hour; or
(c) Decreases the limit but not to less than twenty miles per hour.

(2) Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions shall determine by an engineering and traffic investigation the proper maximum speed for all arterial streets and shall declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which may be greater or less than the maximum speed permitted under RCW 46.61.400 but shall not exceed sixty miles per hour.

(3) The secretary of transportation is authorized to establish speed limits on county roads and city and town streets as shall be necessary to conform with any federal requirements which are a prescribed condition for the allocation of federal funds to the state.

(4) Any altered limit established under this section is effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. Such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon such signs:
and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs.

(5) Any alteration of maximum limits on state highways within incorporated cities or towns by local authorities shall not be effective until such alteration has been approved by the secre­ retary of transportation.

Sec. 5. Section 46.48.026, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.61.465 are each amended to read as follows:

The unlawful operation of a vehicle in excess of the maximum lawful speeds provided in this chapter at the point of operation and under the circumstances described other than a violation of RCW 46.61.400(2), is prima facie evidence of the operation of a motor vehicle in a reckless manner by the operator thereof.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. Just briefly, Mr. President, I think Senator Haley is going too fast."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No.
1409 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1105, by Committee on Social and Health Services
(originally sponsored by Representatives Ebersole, Kreidler, Dellwo, Miller, Braddock, Stratton, Crane and Fisch)

Requiring the reporting of sentinel birth defects and the surveillance of environmental hazards.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McManus, the following Committee on Social and Health Services amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 14, after "registrar" insert "and to the parents, or legal guardians of the child."

On page 2, beginning on line 22, strike all material down to and including line 35 and insert the following:

"(1) The department shall not disclose the identity of a sentinel birth defect child from reports required under RCW 70.58.320 unless:
(a) There is a demonstrated public health need for the individual identity;
(b) The department obtains written consent of the parent or guardian of the child; and
(c) The department assures that the identity of the child shall not be released without the written consent of the parent or guardian.

(2) If there is a demonstrated need for the individual identity of children without sentinel birth defects to conduct a case-control investigation, subsection (1) (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall apply."

On page 3, line 7, after "act." insert "A parent or legal guardian of a child who is the subject of a report required by RCW 70.58.320 shall have access to such report or reports."

MOTIONS

Senator McManus moved that the following Committee on Social and Health Services amendment not be adopted:
On page 1, line 15, after "services." insert "No report shall be made without the parents' or legal guardians' consent."

Senator Craswell moved that the Committee on Social and Health Services amendment to page 1, line 15, be adopted.

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1105 was deferred.

At 4:47 p.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate recessed until 5:45 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 6:19 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1105 and the pending Committee on Social and Health Services amendment on page 1, line 15.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Craswell to adopt the Committee on Social and Health Services amendment.

The motion by Senator Craswell failed and the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1105, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1105, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1105, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 02; absent, 05; excused, 01.

Voting nay: Senators Croswell, Pullen - 2.

Absent: Senators Bluechel, Deccio, Owen, Quigg, von Reichbauer - 5.

Excused: Senator Newhouse - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1105, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 596 and the pending amendments proposed by Senator Bender to page 1, line 11, page 1, line 18, and page 1, line 24, proposed February 23, 1984.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Williams, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 596 is a measure which updates the edition of the Uniform Building, Mechanical, Fire and Plumbing Codes, which together constitutes the major portion of the state building code.

"The amendments proposed by Senator Bender simply delete language contained in the bill with regard to Uniform Building, Fire and Plumbing Code standards.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments were ruled in order.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bender, and there being no objection, the three amendments were withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Bluechel, Deccio and von Reichbauer were excused.

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senator Owen was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 596 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 596.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 596, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 01; absent, 04; excused, 05.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen – 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 596, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 255 and the pending amendment, proposed earlier today by Senator Quigg on page 7, line 1, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, I challenge the amendment on scope and object. The first portion of this may only be unconstitutional. It may not be outside the scope and object of the bill. However, the second portion which applies the credit to the current owner, regardless of who owned the boat between 80 and 83 is probably, also, unconstitutional, but in addition to that, I find nothing in the bill that would allow you to apply a credit of any taxes that were paid to apply to the credit. I challenge it on scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 255 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1123, which was amended and deferred earlier in the day.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the striking Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted earlier in the day.

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, I move that the rules be suspended and the Senate reconsider the vote by which the striking amendment by the Committee on Ways and Means was adopted earlier today. I do this with a certain amount of reluctance. We have adopted a striking amendment which would preclude the offering of amendments that, apparently, were prepared and just did not get placed on the desk. In order to give a semblance of fairness to this whole process, I think we should go back to second reading, so I urge you adopt the motion."
Debate ensued.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question be adoption of the motion by Senator McDermott to reconsider the vote by which the striking amendment by the Committee on Ways and Means to Substitute House Bill No. 1123 passed the Senate earlier today.
The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the Senate resumed consideration of the striking amendment by the Committee on Ways and Means to Substitute House Bill No. 1123.

MOTION
On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendments to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment were considered simultaneously and adopted:

- On page 6 of the amendment, line 22, after "a program does" and insert "programs do"
- On page 6 of the amendment, line 30, after "a separate trust account" and insert "respective separate trust accounts"
- On page 6 of the amendment, beginning on line 32, delete "shall be known as the state employees' insurance fund--reserve account hereby created"
- On page 7 of the amendment, line 6, after "fund" insert "and the separate accounts which may be created"

MOTION
Senator McDonald moved the following amendments to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

- On page 6 of the committee amendment, line 18, after "board" strike "may" and insert "shall"
- On page 6 of the committee amendment, line 19, after "claims" strike "and" and insert "or"

Debate ensued.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator McDonald to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.
The motion by Senator McDonald failed and the amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted.

MOTION
On motion of Senator McDonald, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

- On page 7 of the committee amendment, after "fund," insert: "(b) Group disability coverage provided as a self-insured program of the state employees' insurance board shall provide conversion rights in accordance with RCW 48.21.210."

Realphabetize the remaining subsections accordingly.

MOTION
Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Deccio to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment:

- (c) Group disability coverage provided as a self-insured program of the state employees' insurance board shall conform with the requirements of RCW 48.21.200 (1) and (2)."

Realphabetize the remaining subsection accordingly.

MOTIONS
On motion of Senator McDermott, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1123 was deferred.
On motion of Senator Shinpoch, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 146 was placed at the bottom of the second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1119, by Representatives Walk, Sayan and Todd
Clarifying provisions of emergency purchases by state agencies.
The bill was read the second time.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended. House Bill No. 1119 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1119.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 1119, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 0; absent, 0; excused, 05.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bolliger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 44.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, Deccio, Newhouse, Owen, von Reichbauer - 5.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1119, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1649 and the pending striking amendment by the Committee on Local Government, proposed February 23, 1984.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that House Bill No. 1649 is a measure which deals with the subject of ex parte communications in quasi-judicial proceedings.

"The amendment proposed by the Senate Committee on Local Government also deals with the subject of ex parte communications in quasi-judicial proceedings.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The committee amendment was ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Local Government amendment.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1649, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1649, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 1649, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 10; absent, 0; excused, 05.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Kiskaddon, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 34.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1649, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1123 and the pending amendment by Senator Deccio on page 7, line 6, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, proposed earlier today.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Deccio to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the Deccio amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved the following amendments by Senator Deccio to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be considered simultaneously and not be adopted:

- On page 7 of the committee amendment, line 24 after "jurisdiction" insert: "on a form prescribed by the insurance commissioner"
- On page 7 of the committee amendment, line 32, after "senate" insert: "the insurance commissioner:"
- On page 8 of the committee amendment, line 15, after "positions." insert: "Sec. 2. Section .03.01, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 181, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.03.010 are each amended as follows:
  1) The commissioner shall examine the affairs, transactions, accounts, records, documents, and assets of each authorized insurer or self insurer as authorized by RCW 41.05.025 as often as the commissioner deems advisable. (He) The commissioner shall so examine each domestic insurer not less frequently than every five years. Examination of an alien insurer may be limited to its insurance transactions in the United States.
  2) As often as the commissioner deems advisable and at least once in five years, the commissioner shall fully examine each rating organization and examining bureau licensed in this state. As often as the commissioner deems it advisable (he) the commissioner may examine each advisory organization and each joint underwriting or joint reinsurance group, association, or organization.
  3) The commissioner shall in like manner examine each insurer or rating organization applying for authority to do business in this state.
  4) In lieu of making (his own) an examination, the commissioner may accept a full report of the last recent examination of a nondomestic insurer or rating or advisory organization, or joint underwriting or joint reinsurance group, association or organization, certified to by the insurance supervisory official of the state of domicile or of entry.
  5) The commissioner may elect to accept and rely on an audit report made by an independent certified public accountant for the insurer in the course of that part of the commissioner's examination covering the same general subject matter as the audit. The commissioner may incorporate the audit report in (his) the commissioner's report of the examination."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be to not adopt the three amendments by Senator Deccio to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The three amendments by Senator Deccio to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment were not adopted.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the Committee on Ways andMeans amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted.

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "insurance," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 136, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 91, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.05.025; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1123, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "A point of parliamentary inquiry—I would like, since we have adopted some amendments that do make substantial differences and since it is such a tight bill anyway, as far as the cost benefits, I would, pursuant to RCW 43.88A.040, request a fiscal note of OFM to be drawn up on the bill as passed by this body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, the fiscal note on this bill is the amount of money that we appropriate for health care benefits for state employees."

Senator McDonald: "I don't know if you're speaking to the parliamentary inquiry, but that's clearly not true. There was a fiscal note on House Bill 1123 and it's outdated now. I would like to see, and indeed we do have a right to ask, for a fiscal note to be drawn up on this bill as it stands—if, indeed, it is passed by this body."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. Chairman, could I request Senator McDonald to give me the citation again?"

Senator McDonald: "It's 43.88A.040. If you're worried, Senator Shinpoch, that you have to have this before final passage, that's not part of the law. We can roll right along, but I do request that fiscal note."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "The request has been noted."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1123, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1123, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 14; absent, 01; excused, 05.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Clarke, Craswell, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Patterson, Quigg, Sellar - 14.

Absent: Senator Zimmerman - 1.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, Deccio, Newhouse, Owen, von Reichbauer - 5.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1123, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255 and the pending amendment by Senator Quigg on page 7, line 1, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, proposed by Senator Quigg earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, Senator Benitz was excused.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Shinpoch, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255, as amended by the Senate, is a measure which modifies provisions with regard to boat registration and taxation, and specifically deals with those taxes imposed between the years 1980 and 1982.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Quigg also deals with boat taxes imposed between the years 1980 and 1982."
"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment to the committee amendment was ruled in order. Debate ensued.

Senator Quigg demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, I'm not sure—how do you go about asking—well, a parliamentary inquiry—I don't know how to go about in this body to find out who is voting that has a personal interest and how do you go about doing that?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "The matter of personal interest has been a matter of individual conscience and personal declaration."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hemstad: "A point of personal privilege. I want to state that having spoken on the issue that I want it to be known that I do not own a boat and I never have."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bottiger: "A point of personal privilege. I own a boat and I am going to vote against the tax refund."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Quigg to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Quigg failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas. 17; nays. 25; absent. 01; excused. 06.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Clarke, Craswell, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Kissaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Patterson, Quigg, Sellar, Zimmerman - 17.

Absent: Senator Pullen - 1.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Deccio, Newhouse, Owen. von Reichbauer - 6.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On line 23 of the title, after "82.49.070;" insert "amending section 84.56.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.56.260;"

On page 7, line 21, after "RCW 88.02.030;" strike all material through "RCW 82.49.070;" on line 23.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "watercraft;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 43, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.49.020; amending section 16, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 44, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 88.02.030; amending section 49, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.49.070; adding a new section to chapter 84.08 RCW; creating a new section; repealing section 53, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. (uncodified); and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 36; nays. 06; absent. 01; excused. 06.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, McTavish, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellal, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 36.

Absent: Senator Pullen - 1.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Deccio, Newhouse, Owen, von Reichbauer - 6.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 255, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1409 and the pending amendment on page 2, line 26, proposed by Senator Haley earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Fleming, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1409 is a measure which provides that the driving abstract of an owner-operator of a commercial vehicle is separable into employment and personal driving records.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Haley establishes the traffic infraction of violating energy resource use restrictions and provides that these violations will be excluded from an individual's driving abstract.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1409 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Granlund: "Senator Peterson, is it the intent of this bill that only those infractions by an owner-operator occurring while driving in the course of business be included on the commercial driving record, and that infractions while driving for pleasure or other personal use would continue to be included on the personal driving record?"

Senator Peterson: "Yes, that is correct, Senator Granlund. I'm glad you raised that point, because it does clarify the intent of the bill."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1409.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1409, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 41; nays. 00; absent. 02; excused. 06.

Absent: Senators Pullen, Quigg - 2.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Deccio, Newhouse, Owen, von Reichbauer - 6.
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1409, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Rules Committee was relieved of further consideration of House Bill No. 1582.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, House Bill No. 1582 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

At 7:51 p.m., on motion of Senator Shimpoch, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Saturday, February 26, 1984.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
Senate Chamber, Olympia, Saturday, February 25, 1984
The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Goltz. SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1124, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Moon, Van Dyken, Brough, Isaacson, D. Nelson and Miller)

Simplifying government borrowing.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following Committee on Local Government amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this 1984 act is to provide simplified and uniform authorities for various local governments to issue and sell general obligation bonds. It is not the purpose of this 1984 act to alter the indebtedness limitation of local governments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 39.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) General obligation bonds of local governments shall be subject to this section. Unless otherwise stated in law, the maximum term of any general obligation bond issue shall be forty years.

(2) General obligation bonds constitute an indebtedness of the local government issuing the bonds that are subject to the indebtedness limitations provided in Article VIII, section 6 of the state Constitution and are payable from tax revenues of the local government and such other money lawfully available and pledged or provided by the governing body of the local government for that purpose. Such governing body may pledge the full faith, credit and resources of the local government for the payment of general obligation bonds. The payment of such bonds shall be enforceable in mandamus against the local government and its officials. The officials now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes pledged for the payment of general obligation bonds and interest thereon shall, in the manner provided by law, make an annual levy of such taxes sufficient together with other moneys lawfully available and pledge therefor to meet the payments of principal and interest on said bonds as they come due.

(3) General obligation bonds issued as physical instruments shall be executed in the manner determined by the governing body or legislative body of the issuer.

(4) Unless another statute specifically provides otherwise, the owner of a general obligation bond, or the owner of an interest coupon, issued by a local government shall not have any claim against the state arising from the general obligation bond or interest coupon.

(5) As used in this section, the term "local government" means every unit of local government, including municipal corporations, quasi municipal corporations, and political subdivisions, where property ownership is not a prerequisite to vote in the local government's elections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 39.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The governing body of a taxing district desiring to place a ballot proposition authorizing indebtedness before the voters may submit the proposition at any special election held on the dates authorized in chapter 29.13 RCW. The ballot proposition shall include the maximum amount of the indebtedness to be authorized, the maximum term any bonds may have, a description of the purpose or purposes of the bond issue, and whether excess property tax levies authorized under RCW 84.52.056 will be authorized.

When it is required that such bonds be retired by excess property tax levies, or when the governing body desires such bonds be retired by excess property tax levies, the ballot proposition shall also include authorization for such excess bond retirement property tax levies provided under RCW 84.52.056.

Notice of the proposed election shall be published as required by RCW 29.27.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 39.46 RCW a new section to read as follow:
Notice of intent to sell general obligation bonds at a public sale shall be provided in a reasonable manner as determined by the legislative authority or governing body of the issuer.

Sec. 5. Section 26, chapter 153, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 18, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 17.28.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(((H))) A mosquito control district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds and to pledge the full faith and credit of the district to the payment thereof, for ((any)) authorized ((purpose or)) capital purposes of the mosquito control district (((PROVIDED: That)), and to provide for the retirement thereof by excess property tax levies whenever a proposition authorizing both the issuance of such bonds (((shall have been submitted to the electors of the mosquito control district at a special or general election and assented to)) and the imposition of such excess levies has been approved by the voters of the district, at an election held pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act, by three-fifths of the persons voting on said proposition at said election at which such election the total number of persons voting on such bond proposition shall be at least not less than one percent of the total number of votes cast within the area of said mosquito control district at the last preceding county or state general election. Mosquito control districts may become indebted for capital purposes up to an amount equal to one and one-fourth percent of the value of the taxable property in the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015.

((General obligation bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the board of trustees. The various annual maturities shall commence not more than two years from the date of issue of the bonds and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds of such issue, be met by equal annual tax levies.))

Such bonds shall never be issued to run for a longer period than ten years from the date of issue and ((may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030: the bonds shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees and shall be attested by the secretary of the board, one of which signatures may be a facsimile signature and the seal of the mosquito control district shall be impressed thereon. Any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. General obligation bonds shall be sold at public sale as provided by law for sale of general obligation bonds of cities and towns and at a price not less than par and accrued interest. There shall be levied by the officers or governing body now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes in the manner provided by law an annual levy in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of the principal and interest on the said bonds maturing as herein provided upon the taxable property within the mosquito control district.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 19, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(((I))) The board of library trustees of this district may contract indebtedness, and evidence it by issuing and selling, at par plus accrued interest, general obligation bonds of the district in such form as the board of library trustees shall determine, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030: Such bonds, signed by the chairman and the secretary of the board of library trustees, shall be payable at such times as the board of library trustees shall provide, but shall not have a maximum term in excess of six years.

The bonds shall provide for the payment of interest semiannually on the first day of January and of July. At the option of the district board, the aggregate amount of bonds may include a sum sufficient to pay the annual interest for a period not exceeding one year from the issuing date of the bonds and, in that event, such interest shall be taken from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and immediately placed in the general obligation bond fund of the district for payment of interest becoming due during the first year of the bonds.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such general obligation bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW:

(3)) A rural county library district shall be a public corporation with such powers as are necessary to carry out its functions and for taxation purposes shall have the power vested in municipal corporations for such purposes.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 6, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 27.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

((At no time shall the total indebtedness of the district exceed an amount that could be raised by one dollar per thousand dollars of assessed value levy on the then existing value of the taxable property of the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, except as provided in RCW 27.12.222 or RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.056:)) The county treasurer of the county in which any rural county library district is created shall receive and disburse all district revenues and collect all taxes levied under this chapter.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 11, chapter 123, Laws of 1982 and RCW 27.12.222 are each amended to read as follows:
((In addition to the indebtedness authorized by RCW 27.12.150 and 27.12.070.)) A rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, or island library district may contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness, equal to one-tenth of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. The maximum term of nonvoter approved general obligation bonds shall not exceed six years. A rural county library district((s)), island library district((s)), or intercounty rural library district((s)) may ((incur)) additionally contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes ((to the full extent permitted by the Constitution and may issue general obligation bonds to pay therefor)) only, together with any outstanding general indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015((((Any such indebtedness shall be authorized by resolution of the board of library trustees, and the board of library trustees shall submit the question to the qualified electors of the district for their ratification or rejection whether or not such indebtedness shall be incurred and such bonds issued. Such proposition to be effective must be authorized by an affirmative vote of three-fifths of the electors within the district voting at a general or special election to be held for the purpose of authorizing such indebtedness and bond issue)) whenever a proposition authorizing the issuance of such bonds has been approved by the voters of the district pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act, by three-fifths of the persons voting on the proposition at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election. If the voters shall so authorize at an election held pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act, the district may levy annual taxes in excess of normal legal limitations to pay the principal and interest upon such bonds as they shall become due. The excess levies mentioned in this section or in RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.056 may be made notwithstanding anything contained in RCW 27.12.050((((27.12.070)) or 27.12.150 or any other statute pertaining to such library districts.))

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 20, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.12.223 are each amended to read as follows: (((+))) Bonds authorized by RCW 27.12.222 shall be ((serial in form and maturity and numbered from one upward consecutively. Only bond No. 1 of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds shall fix the rate or rates of interest the bonds shall bear, and the place and date of payment of principal and interest. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030. The bonds shall be signed by the chairman of the board of library trustees and attested by the secretary. Any coupons in lieu of being signed may bear the facsimile signature of such officers. Bonds shall be sold in such manner as the board of library trustees deems for the best interests of the district)) issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. All such bonds shall be legal securities for any bank or trust company for deposit with the state treasurer or any county or city treasurer as security for deposits in lieu of a surety bond under any law relating to deposits of public moneys.

(((2) Notwithstanding subsection (4) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.))

Sec. 10. Section 28A.51.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.51.010 are each amended to read as follows: The board of directors of any school district may borrow money and issue negotiable bonds therefor for the purpose of:

1. Funding outstanding indebtedness or bonds theretofore issued; or
2. For the purchase of sites for all buildings, playgrounds, physical education and athletic facilities and structures authorized by law or necessary or proper to carry out the functions of a school district; or
3. For erecting all buildings authorized by law, including but not limited to those mentioned in subparagraph (2) immediately above or necessary or proper to carry out the functions of a school district, and providing the necessary furniture, apparatus, or equipment therefor; or
4. For improving the energy efficiency of school district buildings and/or installing systems and components to utilize renewable and/or inexhaustible energy resources; or
5. For major and minor structural changes and structural additions to buildings, structures, facilities and sites necessary or proper to carrying out the functions of the school district; or
6. For any and all of these and other capital purposes.

Neither the amount of money borrowed nor bonds issued therefor shall exceed the limitation of indebtedness prescribed by chapter 39.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Bonds may be issued only when authorized by the vote of the qualified electors of the district as provided by law.

The bonds ((so-issued)) shall ((be in such form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030, for such terms, bear such rate or rates of interest, be sold in such manner, and be payable and redeemable, as the board of directors shall determine in accordance with this chapter and chapter 39.44 RCW. PROVIDED: That such bonds may also) be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 11. Section 28A.51.020, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.51.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The question whether the bonds shall be issued, as provided in RCW 28A.51.010, shall be determined at an election to be held (in the manner prescribed by law for holding annual school elections. Notice therefor to be given in such manner as provided in RCW 29.27.000 shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued; time they are to run, and the purpose for which the money is to be used. The ballots must contain the words "Bonds, yes, or Bonds: no") pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act. If a majority of the votes cast at such election (are) in favor of the issuance of such bonds, the board of directors must issue such bonds: PROVIDED, That if the amount of bonds to be issued, together with any outstanding indebtedness of the district that only needs a simple majority voter approval, exceeds three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in said district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, then three-fifths of the votes cast at such election must be (are) in favor of the issuance of such bonds, before the board of directors is authorized to issue said bonds. (Except as otherwise provided for facsimile signatures on bonds and coupons in chapter 39.44 RCW, or as otherwise in this chapter provided: bonds with the coupons shall be signed in the corporate name of the district by the president or chairman of the board of directors thereof and attested by the school district superintendent as secretary of the board: in districts of the first class the corporate seal of the said district shall be affixed to each bond by the school district superintendent thereof.)

Sec. 12. Section 28A.51.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 24, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.51.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At the time named in said notice it shall be the duty of said board of directors to meet with the county treasurer at his office, and with him open said bids, and sell said bonds or any portion thereof to the person or persons making the most advantageous offer. PROVIDED: That said bids and the acceptance or rejection thereof and the sale of such bonds shall be in accordance with the provisions of RCW 39.44.030. Upon the sale of the bonds, the board of directors, as soon thereafter as practicable, shall deliver the bonds, properly executed, to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. The county treasurer, upon payment of the price agreed upon, shall deliver the same to the person or persons to whom sold, and place the moneys arising from such sale to the credit of the general school fund of the district: PROVIDED, That where) When the bonds have been sold (for the purchase of a schoolhouse site or sites or building one or more schoolhouses and providing the same with all necessary furniture, apparatus or equipment, or for any or all of these purposes, he), the county treasurer shall place the money derived from such sale to the credit of the (building)) capital projects fund of the district, and such fund is hereby created. (The board of directors may provide that costs incurred relating to the sale and issuance of the bonds shall be paid from the bond proceeds: if the board of directors and the person or persons to whom the bonds are sold agree that the delivery of said bonds shall be in installments, the county treasurer shall hold said bonds, and deliver to purchasers only on written order of the board of directors to deliver at specified times the bonds designated by number and series:

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW).

Sec. 13. Section 28A.51.180, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 25, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.51.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any bonds lawfully issued by any school district under the provisions of this chapter shall reach maturity and shall remain unpaid, or may be paid under any option provided in the bonds, the board of directors thereof shall have the power without any vote of the school district to fund the same by issuing bonds conformable to the requirements of this chapter (and sell the same at not less than their par value) and use the proceeds exclusively for the purpose of retiring and canceling such outstanding bonds as aforesaid, or the said directors in their discretion may exchange such refunding bonds par for par for such outstanding bonds: PROVIDED, That such bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the school district shall determine and in accordance with RCW 39.44.011, shall be redeemable within the time provided by RCW 39.44.070, shall be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030, and shall draw a rate of interest not to exceed that allowed by law and as the school district issuing such bonds so designates:

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW).

Sec. 14. Section 28A.52.050, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 28, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the indebtedness of such school district is validated and ratified, as provided in this chapter, by three-fifths of the voters voting at such election, the board of directors of such school district, without any further vote, may borrow money and issue and sell negotiable bonds therefor in accordance with (the provisions of chapter 39.44 RCW. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.44.030.

Except as provided in RCW 39.44.100 for facsimile signatures, in all school districts of the second class, said bonds must be signed by the board of directors and countersigned by the school district superintendent and in school districts of the first class said bonds and any coupons must be signed in the corporate name of the district by the president of the board of directors thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 15. Section 35.37.040, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 12, chapter 42. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 35.37.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city and town, may, without a vote of the people, contract indebtedness or borrow money for strictly municipal purposes on the credit of the city or town and issue negotiable bonds therefor in an amount which when added to its existing nonvoter approved indebtedness will not exceed the amount of indebtedness authorized by chapter 39.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, to be incurred without the consent of the voters.

When bonds are issued under this section the ordinance providing therefor shall contain a statement showing the value of the taxable property in the city or town, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, together with the amount of the existing nonvoter approved and total indebtedness of the city or town, which indebtedness shall include the amount for which such bonds are issued. (Passage of such ordinance shall require the votes of at least four councilmen.)

Every city and town may, (with a vote of the people) when authorized by the voters of the city or town pursuant to Article VIII, section 6 of the state Constitution at an election held pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act, contract indebtedness or borrow money for strictly municipal purposes on the credit of the city or town and issue negotiable bonds therefor in an amount which when added to its existing indebtedness will exceed the amount of indebtedness authorized by chapter 39.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, to be incurred without the consent of the voters but will not exceed the amounts of indebtedness authorized by chapter 39.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, to be incurred with the consent of the voters. (The amount of the indebtedness desired to be created or the amount of the money desired to be borrowed shall be stated in an ordinance passed by the council and referred to the voters of the city or town for their ratification or rejection at a special election of which fifteen-day notice shall be given in the newspaper which is doing the city or town printing by publication in every issue of that paper during that period.)

Sec. 17. Section 35.37.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 36, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.37.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(((All general indebtedness bonds (and any coupons shall be printed, engraved, or lithographed on good bond paper, signed by the mayor, and attested by the clerk under the seal of the city or town. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.)))

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 47, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.58.450 are each amended to read as follows:

(((Notwithstanding the limitations of chapter 39.36 RCW and any other statutory limitations otherwise applicable and limiting municipal debt, a metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to (authorize) contract indebtedness and (to) issue general obligation bonds and to pledge the full faith and credit of the corporation to the payment thereof, for any authorized capital purpose of the metropolitan municipal corporation (provided, that a proposition authorizing the issuance of any such bonds to be issued in excess of three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property therein, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, shall have been submitted to the electors of the metropolitan municipal corporation at a special election and assented to), not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, shall have been submitted to the electors of the metropolitan municipal corporation at a special election and assented to), not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when a proposition authorizing the indebtedness has been approved by three-fifths of the persons voting on said proposition at said election at which such election the total number of persons voting on such bond proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast within the area of said metropolitan municipal corporation at the last preceding state general election. Such general...)) obligation bonds may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authorization may exceed the amount of bonds which could then lawfully be issued. Such bonds may be issued in one or more series from time to time out of such authorization ((but at no time shall the total general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation exceed five percent of the value of the taxable property therein, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015)). The elections shall be held pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act.

Whenever the voters of a metropolitan municipal corporation have, pursuant to RCW 84.52.056, approved excess property tax levies to retire such bond issues, both the principal of and interest on such general obligation bonds may be made payable from annual tax levies to be made upon all the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limit ((or)). The principal of and interest on any general obligation bond may be made payable from any other taxes or any special assessments which the metropolitan municipal corporation may be authorized to levy or from any otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership or operation of properties or facilities incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or may be made payable from any combination of the foregoing sources. The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of such bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, urban design and other services incident to acquisition or construction solely for authorized capital purposes and may include an amount to establish a guaranty fund for revenue bonds issued solely for capital purposes.

General obligation bonds shall be issued and sold by the metropolitan council as provided in ((RCW 39.44.030)) chapter 39.46 RCW and shall mature in not to exceed forty years from the date of issue. (The various annual maturities shall commence not more than five years from the date of issue of the bonds and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds of such issue, be met by equal annual tax levies. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.)

Such bonds shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the metropolitan council, one of which signatures may be a facsimile signature and the seal of the metropolitan corporation shall be impressed or imprinted thereon. Any interest coupons which may be attached shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials. General obligation bonds shall be sold at public sale as provided by law for sale of general obligation bonds of cities and towns at a price not less than par and accrued interest:

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 19. Section 6, chapter 110, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 49, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.59.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(((H))) To carry out the purposes of this chapter any municipality shall have the power to appropriate and/or expend any public moneys available thereto and to issue general obligation bonds within the limitations now or hereafter prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this state. Such general obligation bonds shall be ((authorized, executed)) issued and ((made payable)) sold as provided in (Title 39) chapter 39.46 RCW. (Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.) If the governing body of any municipality shall submit a proposition for the approval of general obligation bonds at any general or special election and shall declare in the ordinance or resolution setting forth such proposition that its purpose is the creation of a single integrated multi-purpose community center or a city-wide or county-wide system of such centers, all pursuant to this chapter, and that the creation of such center or system of centers constitutes a single purpose, such declaration shall be presumed to be correct and, upon the issuance of the bonds, such presumption shall become conclusive. (The governing body of the issuing municipality may include in the principal amount of such bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, and other services incident to the acquisition or construction of multi-purpose community centers.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.) Any such election shall be held pursuant to section 3 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 20. Section 35.60.040, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 51, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.60.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((((H)))) Any bonds to be issued by any municipality pursuant to the provisions of RCW 35.60.030, shall be authorized and issued in the manner and within the limitations prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this state or charter of the municipality for the issuance and authorization of bonds thereof for public purposes generally and secured by a general tax levy as provided by law. (PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 39.44.070 and 36.67.546 shall not apply in respect to bonds issued and sold as provided in this section. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.)

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (((1))) of this section, such bonds (may) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.
Sec. 21. Section 35.61.100, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 61. Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.61.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Every metropolitan park district through its board of commissioners may contract indebtedness and evidence such indebtedness by the issuance and sale of warrants, short-term obligations as provided by chapter 39.50 RCW, or general obligation bonds, for park, boulevard, aviation landings, playgrounds, and parkway purposes, and the extension and maintenance thereof, not exceeding, together with all other outstanding nonvoter approved general indebtedness, three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such metropolitan park district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. General obligation bonds shall not be issued with a maximum term in excess of twenty years. Such general obligation bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

If the state board of health has ordered the adopting of and construction and operation of such system of sewerage or system for collection and disposal of refuse or the proposition has been adopted by vote of the people, who have authorized a general indebtedness thereto, general city or town bonds may be issued. The bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

((H)) When the voters have adopted a proposition for any public utility and have authorized a general indebtedness, general city or town bonds may be issued. The bonds shall be ((registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.050 or bearer bonds; numbered from one up consecutively; bear the date of their issue; and bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the city or town council; payable semiannually; and the principal and interest shall be made payable at such place as may be designated. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 39.44.100; the bonds and any coupon shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk under the seal of the city or town)) issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

There shall be levied each year a tax upon the taxable property of the city or town sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the bonds then due, which taxes shall become due and collectible as other taxes; PROVIDED. That it may pledge to the payment of such principal and interest the revenue of the public utility being acquired, constructed, or improved outside the proceeds of sale of such bonds. Such pledge of revenue shall constitute a binding obligation, according to its terms, to continue the collection of such revenue so long as such bonds or any of them are outstanding, and to the extent that revenues are insufficient to meet the debt service requirements on such bonds, the governing body of the municipality shall provide for the levy of taxes sufficient to meet such deficiency.

((The bonds shall be printed and engraved, or lithographed, on good bond paper. The bonds shall be sold in such manner as the corporate authorities shall deem for the best interest of the city or town:))

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW).

Sec. 24. Section 35A.40.010, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Municipal accounts and funds, the contracting of indebtedness for municipal purposes and the issuance and payment of bonds therefor, the validation of preexisting obligations by the voters of a consolidated city, debt limitations, elections for authorization of the incurring of indebtedness, and provisions pertaining to the issuance, sale, (payment, term, term, interest); funding and redemption of general obligation bonds and remedies for nonpayment thereof are governed and controlled by the general law as contained in, but not limited to chapters 35.37, 39.40, (39-44) 39.46, 39.52, 39.56, and 43.80 RCW, and are hereby recognized as applicable to code cities. (As applied to code cities, the vote prescribed by RCW 35.37.040 for passage of an ordinance to contract indebtedness shall be construed to mean a majority of the whole membership of the legislative body.)

(1) A solid waste disposal district shall not have the power to levy an annual levy without voter approval, but it shall have the power to levy a tax, in excess of the one percent limitation, upon the property within the district for a one year period to be used for operating or capital purposes whenever authorized by the electors of the district pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 and Article VII, section 2(a) of the state Constitution.

A solid waste disposal district may issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, (not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligated indebtedness of the district, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district) subject to the limitations prescribed in RCW 39.36.020(1), and may provide for the retirement of the bonds by voter-approved bond retirement tax levies pursuant to Article VII, section 2(b) of the state Constitution and RCW 84.52.056. Such general obligation bonds...
((may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46-030)) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

A solid waste disposal district may issue revenue bonds to fund its activities. Such revenue bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46-030.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such (general obligation bonds or) revenue bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 26. Section 36.62.070. chapter 4. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 72. chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.62.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(((I) Should a majority of all the votes cast upon the proposition be in favor of establishing the hospital, the county legislative authority shall proceed to issue bonds of the county not to exceed the amount specified in the proposition; in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, bearing interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the county legislative authority, and payable annually or semiannually;)) The bonds issued for such hospital shall ((be serial bonds with)) not have maturities (not)) in excess of twenty years. ((Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46-030:))

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section; Such bonds (may) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 27. Section 36.67.010. chapter 4. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1. chapter 76. Laws of 1971 and RCW 36.67.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A county may contract indebtedness for general county purposes subject to the limitations on indebtedness provided for in RCW 39.36.020(2). Bonds evidencing such indebtedness shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 28. Section 36.67.060. chapter 4. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 77. chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.67.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Bonds issued under this chapter shall be (serial in form and maturity and interest shall be paid and the principal of the bonds) retired by an annual tax levy (in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.44 RCW) and by any other moneys lawfully available and pledged therefor: (PROVIDED: That such bonds may also be issued in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW)

Sec. 29. Section 13. chapter 218. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 83. chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.68.520 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A park and recreation service area shall not have power to levy an annual authorized levy, but it shall have the power to levy a tax upon the property included within the service area in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

The special voted levy may be either for operating fund or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund.

(2) A service area may issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district: (and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of dollar rate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution and RCW 84.52.050: PROVIDED: That). Such districts additionally may issue general obligation bonds equal to two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when such bonds are approved by the voters of the district at a special election called for the purpose in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII, section 6 of the Constitution. Such bonds (may be in any form, including coupon bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46-030:

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, such bonds may)) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Bonds may be retired by excess property tax levies when such levies are approved by the voters at a special election in accordance with the provisions of Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution and RCW 84.52.056.

Any elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 30. Section 36.69.140. chapter 4. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 84. chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.69.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(4) A park and recreation district shall have the power to levy an excess levy upon the property included within the district, in the manner prescribed by Article VII, section 2, of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052. Such excess levy may be either for operating funds or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund. A park and recreation district may issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within such district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW
39.36.015, when such bonds are approved by three-fifths of the voters of the district at a general or special election called for that purpose and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of dollar rate limitations in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.52.056. When authorized by the voters of the district, the district may issue interest bearing warrants payable out of and to the extent of excess levies authorized in the year in which the excess levy was approved. These elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. Such bonds and warrants (may be in any form, including coupon bonds or coupon warrants, or registered bonds or registered warrants as provided in RCW 39.46.030).

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds and warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 31. Section 36.76.090, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 91, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.76.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(((Hier)) The election (may) shall be held (at such times and in the manner provided for holding general elections in this state, or it may be held as a special election on one of the special election dates provided in RCW 29.130.018 as the county legislative authority may designate. The ballots used must contain the words, "Bonds. Yes." and "Bonds. No.") as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on the question of issuing bonds for the improvement contemplated in RCW 36.76.080 are in favor of ((bonds)) the bond issue, the county legislative authority must issue ((negotiable bonds in due and legal form, and)) negotiate them in such manner as they may deem to the best advantage of the county, at not less than par value. The bonds authorized by this section shall be issued in the name of the county, in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; they shall not have a maximum term in excess of twenty years, and shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the county legislative authority, payable semiannually. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or may be registered as provided in RCW 39.46.030. They may be made payable in any city of the United States containing a national bank. They shall bear the signature of the chairman of the county legislative authority, and be countersigned by the county auditor of the county with the seal of the county thereunto attached, and any interest coupons shall be signed by said chairman and said county auditor. The county seal need not be affixed to any coupons. Any coupon must show the number of the bond to which it belongs. The bonds and any coupons shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on good bond paper:

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the general obligation bonds. Such bonds (may) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 32. Section 36.76.100, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.76.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(((Hier)) The board must give notice in some newspaper having a general circulation in the county for a period of at least four weeks next preceding the date of the election, setting forth the proposition as to amount and duration of the bonds to be issued, and the rate of interest thereon which is not to be exceeded, and stating the) The notice of this election shall state which road or roads are to be built or improved. The notice need not describe the road or roads with particularity, but it shall be sufficient either to describe them by termini and with a general statement as to their course, or to use any other appropriate language sufficient to show the purpose intended to be accomplished. The (commissioners) county legislative authority may, at (their) its option, give such other or further notice as (they) or may deem advisable. (When the bonds are issued they may be made to bear the rate of interest stated in the notice or any less rate;)

The county legislative authority must ascertain and levy annually a tax sufficient to pay the interest on all such bonds whenever it becomes due and to meet the annual maturities of principal (as required by Title 39 RCW. All taxes levied either for interest or principal shall be a lien upon all property within the county and must be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected). The county treasurer must pay out of any money accumulated from the taxes levied to pay the interest as aforesaid, the interest upon all such bonds when it becomes due as provided on the bond or, if coupons are attached to a bond, upon presentation at the place of payment of the proper coupon. Any interest payments or coupons so paid must be reported to the county legislative authority at its first meeting thereafter. Whenever ((any coupons are)) interest is payable at any place other than the city in which the county treasurer keeps his office, the county treasurer shall reasonably remit the state fiscal agent the amount of money required for the payment of any ((coupons)) interest which ((are)) is about to fall due. When any such bonds or any ((coupons are)) interest is paid, the county treasurer shall suitably and indelibly cancel them.

Sec. 34. Section 4, chapter 109. Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 99, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.89.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(((Hier))) To carry out the purposes of this chapter counties shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds within the limitations now or hereafter prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this state. Such general obligation bonds shall be ((authorized)) issued and (made payable)) sold as provided in (fifteen 39) chapter 39.46 RCW. (The county legislative authority shall determine the manner of execution of such bonds and may provide in the principal amount of such bond issue for costs of engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal and other services incidental to the purpose of such bonds. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.)

The question of issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different highways or parts thereof, whether situated wholly or partly within the limits of any city or town within the county, and whether such bonds are intended to supply the whole expenditure or to participate therein, may be submitted to the voters of the county as a single proposition. If the county legislative authority in submitting a proposition relating to different highways or parts thereof declare that such proposition has for its object the furtherance and accomplishment of the construction of a system of connected public highways within such county and constitutes a single purpose, such declaration shall be presumed to be correct and upon the issuance of the bonds the presumption shall become conclusive.

The question of the issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different open spaces, park, recreation and community facilities, whether situated wholly or partly within the limits of any city or town within the county, and whether such bonds are intended to supply the whole expenditure or to participate therein may be submitted to the voters as a single proposition. If the county legislative authority in submitting a proposition relating to different open spaces, park, recreation and community facilities declare that such proposition has for its object the furtherance, accomplishment or preservation of an open space, park, recreation and community facilities system available to, and for the benefit of, all the residents of such county and constitutes a single purpose, such declaration shall be presumed to be correct and upon the issuance of the bonds the presumption shall become conclusive.

The question of the issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different public health and safety facilities, whether situated wholly or partly within the limits of any city or town within the county, and whether such bonds are intended to supply the whole expenditure or to participate therein may be submitted to the voters as a single proposition. If the county legislative authority in submitting a proposition relating to different public health and safety facilities declare that such proposition has for its object the furtherance or accomplishment of a system of public health and safety facilities for the benefit of all the residents of such county and constitutes a single purpose, such declaration shall be presumed to be correct and upon the issuance of the bonds the presumption shall become conclusive.

The question of the issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different storm water control facilities, whether situated wholly or partly within the limits of any city or town within the county, and whether such bonds are intended to supply the whole expenditure or to participate therein may be submitted to the voters as a single proposition. If the county legislative authority in submitting a proposition relating to different storm water control facilities ((declare(s))) declares that such proposition has for its object the furtherance, accomplishment or preservation of a storm water control facilities system for the benefit of all the residents of such county and constitutes a single purpose, such declaration shall be presumed to be correct and upon the issuance of the bonds the presumption shall become conclusive.

The question of the issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different open spaces, park, recreation and community facilities system available to, and for the benefit of, all the residents of such county and constitutes a single purpose, such declaration shall be presumed to be correct and upon the issuance of the bonds the presumption shall become conclusive.

Elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 35. Section 20, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 101, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.94.200 are each amended to read as follows:

"(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, any of these bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW;"

Any county, city or town in the state of Washington which now has or may hereafter have an outstanding indebtedness evidenced by warrants or bonds, including warrants or bonds of any city or town which are special fund obligations of and constitute a lien upon the waterworks or other public utilities of such city or town, and are payable only from the income or funds derived or to be derived therefrom, whether issued originally within the limitations of the Constitution of this state, or of any law thereof, or whether such outstanding indebtedness has been or may hereafter be validated or legalized in the manner prescribed by law, may, by its corporate authorities, provide by ordinance or resolution for the issuance of funding bonds with which to take up and cancel such outstanding indebtedness in the manner hereinafter described. said bonds to constitute general obligations of such county, city or town: PROVIDED, That special fund obligations payable only from the income funds of the public utility, shall not be refunded by the issuance of general municipal bonds; however, where voter approval is required before general municipal bonds may be issued for such public utility purposes, unless such general municipal bonds shall have been previously authorized (at an election held in the manner prescribed by section 8606 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington for the issuance of general municipal utility bonds. The notice of said election: in describing said bonds or warrants, need only refer to the bonds or warrants sought to be so funded by naming the utility or utilities in aid of which the bonds or warrants were issued and shall state the total amount sought to be so-funded: PROVIDED: HOWEVER, That). Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent any such county, city or town from funding its indebtedness as now provided by law.

Sec. 37, Section 2, chapter 170, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 113, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Funding bonds authorized to be issued by this chapter shall be in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, and shall be signed by the following corporate authorities: When issued by a county, the chairman of the county legislative authority, countersigned by the county treasurer and attested by the county auditor, who shall affix his official seal: when issued by a city or town, by its mayor, countersigned by its treasurer and attested by its clerk, who shall affix his official seal. They shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the corporate authorities, payable semiannually. Such corporate authorities shall, by ordinance or resolution, provide for the manner of issuing and the form of said bonds; including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030; and the time or times when the same shall be made payable; but) No bonds issued under this chapter shall be issued for a longer period than twenty years; and when they shall be made payable at different periods within said twenty years, they shall be divided into series not to exceed twenty in number, but there shall be as many series as there are different times of payment and all bonds included in each series shall be made payable at the same time. The principal and interest may be made payable at any place in the United States designated by the corporate authorities of such county, city or town. Such bonds shall not be issued to an aggregate amount in excess of the warrants or other outstanding indebtedness proposed to be funded thereby. They may be exchanged at not less than their par value for such warrants or other outstanding indebtedness, or may be sold at not less than their par value, and the proceeds used exclusively for the purpose of retiring and canceling such warrants and interest thereon or other indebtedness: PROVIDED: That). Nothing in this chapter (contains) shall be deemed to authorize the issuing of any funding bonds which (other than that proposed to be funded under the provisions of this chapter) shall exceed any constitutional or statutory limitations on indebtedness (or any indebtedness which might be incurred with the consent of a majority of the voters of such county, city or town voting at an election to be held for that purpose.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, Such bonds (may) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 38. Section 6, chapter 170, Laws of 1895 and RCW 39.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The words "corporate authorities", used in this chapter, shall be held to mean the county (commissioners, common) legislative authority, or the council or (other managing body of any county) commission of the city or town.

Sec. 39. Section 3, chapter 176, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 122, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 52.16.061 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of fire commissioners of the district shall have authority to contract indebtedness and to refund same for any general district purpose, including expenses of maintenance, operation and administration, and the acquisition of firefighting facilities, and evidence the same by the issuance and sale (at par plus accreted interest) of general obligation bonds of the district (in such denominations, in such form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030; and) payable at such time or times not longer than six years from the issuing date of the bonds (said date to be specified thereon at the board shall determine and provide. Such bonds shall pay interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board, payable semiannually on the first day of January and of July following in each year. PROVIDED: That at the option of district board the aggregate amount of bonds may include a sum sufficient to pay the annual interest thereon for a period not exceeding one year from the issuing date of the bonds and in that event such interest shall be taken from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and immediately placed in the general obligation fund of the district for the payment of the interest payments becoming due during the first year of the bonds. Such bonds (may also) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Such bonds shall not exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the fire protection district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015.

Sec. 40. Section 3, chapter 24, Laws of 1951 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 50, chapter 195. Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 52.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Fire protection districts additionally are (thereby) authorized to incur general indebtedness for capital purposes (which shall include replacements of equipment which may be damaged or lost and for the purpose of refunding outstanding coupon warrants issued for capital purposes only;) and to issue general obligation bonds not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within such district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. and to ((issue general obligation bonds evidencing such indebtedness on the terms and provisions hereinafter set forth; the principal and interest thereof to be payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory limitations)) provide for the retirement thereof by excess property tax levies, when the voters of the district have approved a proposition authorizing such indebtedness and levies by an affirmative vote of three-fifths of those voting on the proposition at such election, at which election the total number of persons voting shall constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in the fire protection district who voted at the last preceding general state election. The maximum term of such bonds may not exceed twenty years. Such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Such elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 41. Section 12, chapter 65. Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 32, chapter 42. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 53.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A district may at any time contract indebtedness or borrow money for district purposes and may issue general obligation bonds therefor not exceeding an amount, together with any existing indebtedness of the district not authorized by the voters, of one-fourth of one percent of the value of the taxable property in the district; and, with the assent of three-fifths of the voters voting thereon at a general or special port election called for that purpose, may contract indebtedness or borrow money for district purposes and may issue general obligation bonds therefor provided the total indebtedness of the district at any such time shall not exceed three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in the district: PROVIDED FURTHER. That port districts having less than two hundred million dollars in value of taxable property and operating a municipal airport may at any time contract indebtedness or borrow money for airport capital improvement purposes and may issue general obligation bonds therefor not exceeding an additional one-eighth of one percent of the value of the taxable property in the district without authorization by the voters; and, with the assent of three-fifths of the voters voting thereon at a general or special port election called for that purpose, may contract indebtedness or borrow money for airport capital improvement purposes and may issue general obligation bonds therefor for an additional three-eighths of one percent provided the total indebtedness of the district for all port purposes at any such time shall not exceed one and one-fourth percent of the value of the taxable property in the district. Any district may issue general district bonds evidencing any indebtedness, payable at any time not exceeding fifty years from the date of the bonds. Such elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. The term "value of the taxable property" shall have the meaning set forth in RCW 39.36.015.

Such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 42. Section 1, chapter 239, Laws of 1947 and RCW 53.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of commissioners of any port district of the state may fund or refund any of the general bonded indebtedness and/or warrants of the district now or hereafter existing and accrued interest thereon, and may combine various series and/or issues of warrants and/or bonds into a single issue of funding or refunding bonds, by the issuance of general obligation funding or refunding bonds, when the board, by resolution, finds, determines, and declares that such proposed funding or refunding will inure to the benefit and credit of the district and will not result in an increase of the district's indebtedness or in an increase in the rate of interest borne by the indebtedness so funded or refunded. Such funding or refunding may be accomplished by the sale of said funding or refunding bonds or by their exchange for the bonds and/or warrants to be refunded. General obligation bonds of a port district which do not provide for prior redemption, may also be refunded with the consent of the holders thereof. Such bonds shall be issued in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Such bonds shall be issued in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Such bonds shall be issued in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 43. Section 3, chapter 239, Laws of 1947 and RCW 53.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Such funding or refunding bonds shall run for a period of not exceeding twenty years from date thereof and shall mature and be payable on the amortization plan prescribed by RCW 39.44.010. PROVIDED. That any such funding or refunding bonds may be issued to mature commencing at the end of the first year after date thereof, and the foregoing amortization plan may be departed from when, in view of other taxation and financial burdens of the district, it is in the advantage of the district and of the owners of the property therein, in the judgment of the board thereof, expressed in a written resolution, to depart from such amortization plan, and the funding or refunding bonds or any part thereof maturing on or after ten years from date thereof may be made redeemable on any interest payment date prior to their dates of fixed maturity, at the option of the district, upon such prior notice thereof as shall be determined by resolution of said board and as expressed upon the face of the bonds thus subjected to the right of prior redemption)). The board may apply to the payment of the funding or refunding bonds and to the prior redemption thereof any other moneys or funds belonging to the district which are legally available for such purpose.

Sec. 44. Section 8, chapter 390, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 144, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 54.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A district may contract indebtedness or borrow money for any corporate purpose on its credit or on the revenues of its public utilities, and to evidence such indebtedness may issue general obligation bonds or revenue obligations; (the general obligation bonds not to be sold for less than par and accrued interest); may issue and sell local utility district bonds of districts created by the commission, and may purchase with surplus funds such local utility district bonds, and may create a guaranty fund to insure prompt payment of all local utility district bonds. The general obligation bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such revenue obligations and local utility district bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

(1) Whenever the commission shall deem it advisable that the public utility district purchase, purchase and condemn, acquire, or construct any such public utility, or make any additions or betterments thereto, or extensions thereof, the commission shall provide therefor by resolution, which shall specify and adopt the system or plan proposed, and declare the estimated cost thereof, as near as may be, and specify whether general or utility indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of such indebtedness, the amount of interest and the time in which all general bonds (if any) shall be paid, not to exceed thirty years. In the event the proposed general indebtedness to be incurred will bring the nonvoter approved indebtedness of the public utility district to an amount exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property of the public utility district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, the proposition of incurring such indebtedness and the proposed plan or system shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said public utility district for their ((assent)) approval or rejection at the next general election held in such public utility district. Elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act.

Whenever the commission (or a majority of the qualified voters of such public utility dis­trict, voting at said election, when it is necessary to submit the same to said voters) shall have adopted a system or plan for any such public utility, as aforesaid, and shall have authorized indebtedness therefor by a three-fifths vote of the qualified voters of such district, voting at said election, general or public utility bonds may be used as hereinafter provided. (Said general bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one upwards consecutively. The various annual maturities shall commence not later than the tenth year after the date of issue of such bonds. The general bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.050. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds shall fix the rate or rates of interest the bonds shall bear and the place and date of the payment of both principal and interest. The bonds shall be signed by the president of the commis­sion, attested by the secretary of the commission, and the seal of the public utility district shall be affixed to each bond, but not to any coupons. PROVIDED. HOWEVER. That any coupons, in lieu of being so signed, may have printed thereon facsimiles of the signature of such officers.))

The principal and interest of such general bonds shall be paid from the revenue of such public utility district after deducting costs of maintenance, operation, and expenses of the public utility district, and any deficit in the payment of principal and interest of said general bonds shall be paid by levying each year a tax upon the taxable property within said district sufficient to pay said interest and principal of said bonds, which tax shall be due and collectible as any other tax. Said bonds shall be issued and sold in ((such manner as the commission shall deem for the best interest of the district))) accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

All bonds and warrants issued under the authority of this chapter shall be legal securities, which may be used by any bank or trust company for deposit with the state treasurer, or any county or city treasurer, as security for deposits, in lieu of a surety bond, under any law relating to deposits of public moneys.

(3) When the commission shall not desire to incur a general indebtedness in the purchase, condemnation and purchase, acquisition, or construction of any such public utility, or addition or betterment thereto, or extension thereof, it shall have the power to create a special fund or the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of the additions and betterments to the general comprehensive plan as provided in RCW 56.16.010. Upon ratification by the voters of the entire district, of the proposition to incur such indebtedness, the additions and betterments may be carried out by the sewer commissioners to the extent specified or referred to in the proposition to incur such general indebtedness. The sewer district may issue revenue bonds to pay for the construction of the additions and betterments by resolution of the board of sewer commissioners.

Sec. 46. Section 14. chapter 210. Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 63, chapter 195. Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The sewer commissioners may submit ((at any general or special election;)) to the sewer district voters a ballot proposition (that said)) authorizing the sewer district to incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of any part or all of the comprehensive plan for the district. ((If such general indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of such indebtedness and the terms thereof shall be included in the proposition submitted to the qualified voters as aforesaid, and such proposition, to be effective, shall be adopted and assented to)) Elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. The proposition authorizing both the bond issue and bond retirement levies must be approved by three-fifths of the qualified voters of the said sewer district voting on said proposition, at ((said election in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as otherwise amended)) which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the sewer district at the last preceding general election. Such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 47. Section 17, chapter 210. Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 4, chapter 300. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In the same manner as herein provided for the adoption of the general comprehensive plan, and after the adoption of the general comprehensive plan, a plan providing for additions and betterments to the general comprehensive plan, or reorganized district may be adopted. Without limiting its generality "additions and betterments" shall include any necessary change in, amendment of, or addition to the general comprehensive plan. The sewer district may incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of the additions and betterments in the same way the general indebtedness may be incurred for the construction of the general comprehensive plan as provided in RCW 56.16.010. Upon ratification by the voters of the entire district, of the proposition to incur such indebtedness, the additions and betterments may be carried out by the sewer commissioners to the extent specified or referred to in the proposition to incur such general indebtedness. The sewer district may issue revenue bonds to pay for the construction of the additions and betterments by resolution of the board of sewer commissioners.

Sec. 48. Section 18, chapter 210. Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 155, chapter 167. Laws of 1963 and RCW 56.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((If))) Whenever any such sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for a sewer system as herein provided, or any additions and betterments thereto, or whenever any reorganized sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for any additions or betterments thereto, and the qualified voters of any such sewer district or reorganized sewer district shall hereafter authorize both bond retirement property tax levies and a general indebtedness for all the said plan, or any part thereof, or any additions and betterments thereto or for refunding in whole or in part bonds theretofore issued. general obligation bonds for the payment thereof may be issued ((as hereinafter provided):

The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of sewer commissioners. payable semiannually from date of said bonds until principal thereof is paid. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of issue of the bonds, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of said bonds and interest. PROVIDED. That only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.090).

The general obligation bonds shall never be issued to run for a longer period than thirty years from the date of the issue and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will ((be equivalent to)) not exceed the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issue of the bonds. ((The bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the secretary of such board under the seal of the sewer district and any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of such board.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes in the manner provided by law an annual levy in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the said bonds maturing as herein provided upon all taxable property within such sewer district.

Said bonds shall be sold in such manner as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interest of the sewer district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section.)) Such bonds ((may)) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 49. Section 42. chapter 210. Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 34, chapter 42. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Each and every sewer district hereafter to be organized pursuant to this title, or reorganized under ((this amendment (1945 c 149)) chapter 140. Laws of 1945, may contract indebtedness pursuant to the provisions of RCW 56.16.040, but not exceeding in amount, together with existing indebtedness two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property in said district, as the term “value of the taxable property” is defined in RCW 39.36.015, whenever three-fifths of the voters voting at said election in such sewer district assent thereto, at ((an)) which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast at the last preceding general election. The election ((to)) shall be held ((in said sewer district in the manner provided by this title; which election may either be a special or a general election; and the board of sewer commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to submit the question of incurring such indebtedness; and issuing negotiable bonds of such sewer district to the qualified voters of such sewer district at any time they may so order)) as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. All bonds so to be issued shall be subject to the provisions regarding bonds as set out in RCW 56.16.040.

Sec. 50. Section 16. chapter 250. Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 8. chapter 300. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.115 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of sewer commissioners may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, authorize the issuance of refunding general obligation bonds to refund any outstanding general obligation bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof, if they are subject to call for prior redemption, or if all of the holders thereof consent thereto. The total cost to the district over the life of said refunding bonds shall not exceed the total cost, which the district would have incurred but for such refunding, over the remainder of the life of the bonds being refunded. Uncollected assessments originally payable into the revenue bond fund of a refunded revenue bond issue shall be paid into the revenue bond fund of the refunding issue.
The provisions of RCW 56.16.060 specifying the form and maturities of revenue bonds shall apply to the refunding revenue bonds issued under this title.

Refunding general obligation bonds or refunding revenue bonds may be exchanged for the bonds being refunded or may be sold in such manner as the water commissioners shall deem for the best interest of the sewer district.

Sec. 51. Section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioners may submit to the voters of the district at any general or special election, a proposition that the district incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of any part or all of the general comprehensive plan. The elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. The ((amount of the indebtedness and the terms thereof shall be included in the proposition submitted to the voters, and the)) proposition authorizing both the bond issue and imposition of excess bond retirement levies shall be adopted by three-fifths of the voters voting thereon ((in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended)), at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of persons voting in the water district at the last preceding general election. Such bonds shall not be issued to run for a period longer than twenty years from the date of the issue. Such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. When the general comprehensive plan has been adopted the commissioners shall carry it out to the extent specified in the proposition to incur general indebtedness.

Sec. 52. Section 9, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 6, chapter 299, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In the same manner as provided for the adoption of the original general comprehensive plan, a plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general comprehensive plan may be adopted. Without limiting its generality "additions and betterments" shall include any necessary change in, amendment of or addition to the general comprehensive plan.

The district may incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of the additions and betterments in the same way that general indebtedness may be incurred for the construction of the original general comprehensive plan after submission to the voters of the entire district in the manner the original proposition to incur indebtedness was submitted as provided in RCW 57.16.020. Upon ratification the additions and betterments may be carried out by the commissioners to the extent specified or referred to in the proposition to incur the general indebtedness.

The district may issue revenue bonds to pay for the construction of the additions and the betterments pursuant to resolution of the board of water commissioners.

Sec. 53. Section 11, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 162, chapter 167, Laws of 1973 and RCW 57.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(((TT))) When general district indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations has been authorized, the district may issue its general obligation bonds in payment thereof. ((The bonds shall be serial-in-form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively and shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of water commissioners payable semiannually. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second-year after the date of the issue, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of the bonds and interest. Only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. The bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds and registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.))

The bonds shall not have terms in excess of twenty years and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will (the equivalent to) not exceed the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issuance of the bonds. The bonds shall be ((signed by the president of the board and attested by the secretary, under the seal of the district. Any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the president and attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary)) issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. The election at which the voters are presented with a ballot proposition authorizing both the bond issue and imposition of excess bond retirement levies shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act.

Whenever the proposition to issue such bonds and impose such excess bond retirement levies has been approved, there shall be levied by the officers or governing body charged with the duty of levying taxes, ((the annual (levy))) levies in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the bonds upon all taxable property within the district.

((The bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commissioners deem for the best interest of the district and at a price not less than par and accrued interest:))
(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 54. Section 16, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 163, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 57.20.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of water commissioners of any water district may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, provide for the issuance of refunding general obligation bonds to refund any outstanding general obligation bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof if they are subject to call for prior redemption or all of the owners thereof consent thereto.

(2) The total cost to the district over the life of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total cost to the district which would have incurred but for such refunding over the remainder of the life of the bonds to be refunded thereby.

(3) The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded thereby, or may be sold in such manner as the board of water commissioners deems to be for the best interest of the district, and the proceeds of such sale used exclusively for the purpose of paying, retiring, and canceling the bonds to be refunded and interest thereon. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.

(4) The provisions of RCW 57.20.010, concerning the (form and maturities) issuance and sale of general obligation bonds and providing for annual tax levies in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations shall apply to the refunding general obligation bonds issued under this section.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (4) of this section, such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 55. Section 20, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 36, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Each and every water district hereafter to be organized pursuant to this (section) title, may contract indebtedness in excess of the amount named in RCW 57.20.110, but not exceeding in amount, together with existing indebtedness, two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property in said district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, whenever three-fifths of the voters voting at said election in such water district assent thereto, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the water district at the last preceding general election, at an election to be held in said water district in the manner provided by this (act, which election may either be a special or a general election, and the board of water commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to submit the question of incurring such indebtedness, and issuing negotiable bonds of such water district to the qualified voters of such water district at any time they may so order) title and section 3 of this 1984 act: PROVIDED, That all bonds so to be issued shall be subject to the provisions regarding bonds as set out in RCW 57.20.010.

Sec. 56. Section 8, chapter 236, Laws of 1987 and RCW 67.28.150 are each amended to read as follows:

To carry out the purposes of this chapter any municipality shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds within the limitations now or hereafter prescribed by the laws of this state. Such general obligation bonds shall be authorized, executed, issued and made payable as other general obligation bonds of such municipality: PROVIDED, That the governing body of such municipality may provide that such bonds mature in not to exceed forty years from the date of their issue, may provide that such bonds also be made payable from any special taxes provided for in RCW 67.28.150, and may provide that such bonds also be made payable from any otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership or operation of any properties (or to establish a guarantee fund for revenue bonds issued solely for stadium facility-capital purposes)

Sec. 57. Section 11, chapter 22, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 169, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 67.38.110 are each amended to read as follows:

To carry out the purpose of this chapter, any cultural arts, stadium and convention district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of taxable property within such district, as the term "value of taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A cultural arts, stadium and convention district is additionally authorized to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, and to provide for the retirement thereof by excess levies when (approved by) the voters approve a ballot proposition providing for both the bond issuance and imposition of such levies at a special election called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by section 6, Article VIII and section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056. Elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. General obligation bonds may not be issued with maturities in excess of forty years. Such bonds (may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.036).

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 58. Section 11, chapter 6, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 6, chapter 164, Laws of 1967 and RCW 68.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Cemetery districts created under this chapter shall be deemed to be municipal corporations within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington. They shall constitute bodies corporate and possess all the usual powers of corporations for public purposes. They shall have full authority to carry out the objects of their creation, and to that end are empowered to acquire, hold, lease, manage, occupy and sell real and personal property or any interest therein; to enter into and perform any and all necessary contracts; to appoint and employ necessary officers, agents and employees; to contract indebtedness((c)), to borrow money, and to issue general obligation bonds in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW: to levy and enforce the collection of taxes against the lands within the district, and to do any and all lawful acts to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 59. Section 6, chapter 264, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 172, chapter 167, Laws of 1963 and RCW 70.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All public hospital districts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have power:

(1) To make a survey of existing hospital and other health care facilities within and without such district.

(2) To construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, lease, add to, maintain, operate, develop and regulate, sell and convey all lands, property, property rights, equipment, hospital and other health care facilities and systems for the maintenance of hospitals, buildings, structures, and any and all other facilities, and to exercise the right of eminent domain to effectuate the foregoing purposes or for the acquisition and damaging of the same or property of any kind appurtenant thereto, and such right of eminent domain shall be exercised and instituted pursuant to a resolution of the commission and conducted in the same manner and by the same procedure as in or may be provided by law for the exercise of the power of eminent domain by incorporated cities and towns of the state of Washington in the acquisition of property rights: PROVIDED, That no public hospital district shall have the right of eminent domain and the power of condemnation against any health care facility.

(3) To lease existing hospital and other health care facilities and equipment and/or other property used in connection therewith, including ambulances, and to pay such rentals therefor as the commissioners shall deem proper: to provide hospital and other health care services for residents of said district by facilities located outside the boundaries of said district, by contract or in any other manner said commissioners may deem expedient or necessary under the existing conditions; and said hospital district shall have the power to contract with other communities, corporations, or individuals for the services provided by said hospital district; and they may further receive in said hospitals and other health care facilities and furnish proper and adequate services to all persons not residents of said district at such reasonable and fair compensation as may be considered proper: PROVIDED, That it must at all times make adequate provision for the needs of the district and residents of said district shall have prior rights to the available hospital and other health care facilities of said district, at rates set by the district commissioners.

(4) For the purpose aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any district so organized to take, condemn and purchase, lease, or acquire, any and all property, and property rights, including state and county lands, for any of the purposes aforesaid, and any and all other facilities necessary or convenient, and in connection with the construction, maintenance, and operation of any such hospitals and other health care facilities, subject, however, to the applicable limitations provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) To contract indebtedness or borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation or the revenues of the hospitals thereof, and the revenues of any other facilities or services that the district is or hereafter may be authorized by law to provide, and to issue and sell: (a) Revenue bonds, revenue warrants, or other revenue obligations therefor payable solely out of a special fund or funds into which the district may pledge such amount of the revenues of the hospitals thereof, and the revenues of any other facilities or services that the district is or hereafter may be authorized by law to provide, to pay the same as the commissioners of the district may determine, such revenue bonds, warrants, or other obligations to be issued and sold in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as provided for the issuance of revenue bonds, warrants, or other obligations by cities or towns under the Municipal Revenue Bond Act, chapter 35.41 RCW, as may hereafter be amended(13); (b) general obligation bonds therefor in the manner and form as provided in RCW 70.44.110 ((to)) and 70.44.130. ((taxative)) as may hereafter be amended(14); or (c) interest-bearing warrants to be drawn on a fund pending deposit in such fund of money sufficient to redeem such warrants and to be issued and paid in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the board of commissioners may deem to be in the best interest of the district; and to assign or sell hospital accounts receivable, and accounts receivable for the use of other facilities or services that the district is or hereafter may be authorized by law to provide, for collection with or without recourse. (Any of such bonds, warrants, or other obligations may be in any form, including bearer or registered as provided in RCW 39.46.030. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, such)) General obligation bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW. Revenue bonds, revenue warrants, or other revenue obligations may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

(6) To raise revenue by the levy of an annual tax on all taxable property within such public hospital district not to exceed seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value or such further amount as has been or shall be authorized by a vote of the people: PROVIDED FURTHER. That the public hospital districts are hereby authorized to levy such a general tax in excess of said seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when authorized so to do at a special election conducted in accordance with and subject to all of the requirements of the Constitution and the laws of the state of Washington now in force or hereafter enacted governing the limitation of tax levies. The said board of district commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to call a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the hospital district a proposition to levy a tax in excess of the seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value herein specifically authorized. The superintendent shall prepare a proposed budget of the contemplated financial transactions for the ensuing year and file the same in the records of the commission on or before the first Monday in September. Notice of the filing of said proposed budget and the date and place of hearing on the same shall be published for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper printed and of general circulation in said county. On the first Monday in October the commission shall hold a public hearing on said proposed budget at which any taxpayer may appear and be heard against the whole or any part of the proposed budget. Upon the conclusion of said hearing, the commission shall, by resolution, adopt the budget as finally determined and fix the final amount of expenditures for the ensuing year. Taxes levied by the commission shall be certified to and collected by the proper county officer of the county in which such public hospital district is located in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the certification and collection of port district taxes. The commission is authorized, prior to the receipt of taxes raised by levy, to borrow money or issue warrants of the district in anticipation of the revenue to be derived by such district from the levy of taxes for the purpose of such district, and such warrants shall be redeemed from the first money available from such taxes when collected, and such warrants shall not exceed the anticipated revenues of one year, and shall bear interest at a rate or rates as authorized by the commission.

(7) To enter into any contract with the United States government or any state, municipality, or other hospital district, or any department of those governing bodies, for carrying out any of the powers authorized by this chapter.

(8) To sue and be sued in any court of competent jurisdiction: PROVIDED. That all suits against the public hospital district shall be brought in the county in which the public hospital district is located.

(9) To pay actual necessary travel expenses and living expenses incurred while in travel status for (a) qualified physicians who are candidates for medical staff positions, and (b) other qualified persons who are candidates for superintendent or other managerial and technical positions, when the district finds that hospitals or other health care facilities owned and operated by it are not adequately staffed and determines that personal interviews with said candidates to be held in the district are necessary or desirable for the adequate staffing of said facilities.

(10) To make contracts, employ superintendents, attorneys, and other technical or professional assistants and all other employees; to make contracts with private or public institutions for employee retirement programs; to print and publish information or literature; and to do all other things necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 60. Section 12, chapter 264, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 3, chapter 165. Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.44.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission deems it advisable that the district acquire or construct a public hospital, or other health care facilities, or make additions or betterments thereto, or extensions thereof, it shall provide therefor by resolution, which shall specify and adopt the plan proposed. (amdt) declare the estimated cost thereof, and specify the amount of indebtedness; (the amount of interest, and the time in which all bonds shall be paid;) to be incurred therefor. General indebtedness may be incurred by the issuance of general obligation bonds or short-term obligations in anticipation of such bonds. General obligation bonds shall mature in not to exceed thirty years. The incurring of such indebtedness shall be subject to the applicable limitations and requirements provided in section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1917, as last amended by section 4, chapter 107, Laws of 1967, and RCW 39.36.020, as now or hereafter amended. (If a proposition to incur any such indebtedness is to be submitted to the electorate of the district if it may be submitted at any general election or a special election called for that purpose pursuant to the applicable election laws)) Such general obligation bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.
Sec. 61. Section 14, chapter 264, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 3, chapter 218. Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.44.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The principal and interest of such general bonds shall be paid by levying each year a tax upon the taxable property within the district sufficient, together with other revenues of the district available for such purpose, to pay said interest and principal of said bonds, which tax shall be due and collectible as any other tax. (Secd bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commission shall deem for the best interests of the district) All bonds and warrants issued under the authority of this chapter shall be legal securities, which may be used by any bank or trust company for deposit with the state treasurer, or any county or city treasurer, as security for deposits, in lieu of a surety bond, under any law relating to deposits of public moneys.

Sec. 62. Section 17, chapter 153, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 211, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and by section 21, chapter 315. Laws of 1983 and RCW 86.15.170 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The supervisors may authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds to finance any flood control improvement or storm water control improvement and provide for the retirement of the bonds with ad valorem property tax levies. The general obligation bonds may be issued and the bond retirement levies imposed only when ((authorized by)) the voters of the flood control zone district approve a ballot proposition authorizing both the bond issuance and imposition of the excess bond retirement levies pursuant to Article VIII, section 6 and Article VII, section 2(b) of the state Constitution and RCW 84.52.056. Elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act. The bonds shall be issued on behalf of the zone or participating zones and be approved by the voters of the zone or participating zones when the improvement has by the resolution, provided in RCW 86.15.110, been found to be of benefit to a zone or participating zones. The bonds may not exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of taxable property within the zone or participating zones, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. The bonds ((may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds)) shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 63. Section 134, chapter 254. Laws of 1927 as amended by section 38, chapter 42. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 89.30.400 are each amended to read as follows:

Reclamation districts created under the provisions of this chapter are hereby authorized and empowered to contract indebtedness for district purposes in any manner, when they deem it advisable, not exceeding an amount, together with the existing nonvoter approved indebtedness, of three-fourths of one percent of the value of taxable property in such district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015.

Sec. 64. Section 135, chapter 254. Laws of 1927 as amended by section 39, chapter 42. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 89.30.403 are each amended to read as follows:

Such reclamation districts may contract indebtedness for strictly district purposes in excess of the amount specified in the preceding section, but not exceeding in amount, together with existing indebtedness, two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. Whenever three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose assent thereto. Elections shall be held as provided in section 3 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 65. Section 138, chapter 254. Laws of 1927 as amended by section 250, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 89.30.412 are each amended to read as follows:

The reclamation district board shall have authority to evidence district indebtedness by the issuance and sale of negotiable general obligation bonds of the district. Such bonds ((may)) be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. There is added to chapter 35.45 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislative authority of any city or town may issue and sell bonds to refund outstanding local improvement district or consolidated local improvement district bonds issued after the effective date of this act on the earliest date such outstanding bonds may be redeemed following the date of issuance of such refunding bonds. Such refunding shall be subject to the following:

1. The refunding shall result in a net interest cost savings after paying the costs and expenses of the refunding, and the principal amount of the refunding bonds may not exceed the principal balance of the assessment roll or rolls pledged to pay the bonds being refunded at the time of the refunding.

2. The refunding bonds shall be paid from the same local improvement fund or bond redemption fund as the bonds being refunded.

3. The costs and expenses of the refunding shall be paid from the proceeds of the refunding bonds, or the same local improvement district fund or bond redemption fund for the bonds being refunded, except the city or town may advance such costs and expenses to such fund pending the receipt of assessment payments available to reimburse such advances.

4. The last maturity of the refunding bonds shall be no later than one year after the last maturity of bonds being refunded.
(5) The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds being refunded or may be sold in the same manner permitted at the time of sale for local improvement district bonds.

(6) All other provisions of law applicable to the refunded bonds shall apply to the refunding bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. There is added to chapter 36.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislative authority of any county may issue and sell bonds to refund outstanding road improvement district or consolidated road improvement district bonds issued after the effective date of this act on the earliest date such outstanding bonds may be redeemed following the date of issuance of such refunding bonds. Such refunding shall be subject to the following:

(1) The refunding shall result in a net interest cost savings after paying the costs and expenses of the refunding, and the principal amount of the refunding bonds may not exceed the principal balance of the assessment roll or rolls pledged to pay the bonds being refunded at the time of the refunding.

(2) The refunding bonds shall be paid from the same local improvement fund or bond redemption fund as the bonds being refunded.

(3) The costs and expenses of the refunding shall be paid from the proceeds of the refunding bonds, or the same road improvement district fund or bond redemption fund for the bonds being refunded, except the county may advance such costs and expenses to such fund pending the receipt of assessment payments available to reimburse such advances.

(4) The last maturity of refunding bonds shall be no later than one year after the last maturity of bonds being refunded.

(5) The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds being refunded or may be sold in the same manner permitted at the time of sale for road improvement district bonds.

(6) All other provisions of law applicable to the refunded bonds shall apply to the refunding bonds.

Sec. 68. Section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1973 ex. sess. and RCW 39.53.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Except where the context otherwise requires, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings herein specified:

(1) “Governing body” means the council, commission, board of commissioners, board of directors, board of trustees, board of regents, or other legislative body of the public body designated herein in which body the legislative powers of the public body are vested: PROVIDED, That with respect to the state it shall mean the state finance committee.

(2) “Public body” means the state of Washington, its agencies, institutions, political subdivisions, and municipal and quasi municipal corporations now or hereafter existing under the laws of the state of Washington.

(3) “Bond” means any revenue bond or general obligation bond.

(4) “Revenue bond” means any bond, note, warrant, certificate of indebtedness, or other obligation for the payment of money issued by a public body or any predecessor of any public body and which is payable from designated revenues, special assessments, or a special fund but excluding any obligation constituting an indebtedness within the meaning of the constitutional debt limitation [(and any obligation payable solely from special assessments or special assessments and a guaranty fund)].

(5) “General obligation bond” means any bond, note, warrant, certificate of indebtedness, or other obligation of a public body which constitutes an indebtedness within the meaning of the constitutional debt limitation.

(6) “Advance refunding bonds” means bonds issued for the purpose of refunding bonds first subject to redemption or maturing one year or more from the date of the advance refunding bonds.

(7) “Issuer” means the public body issuing any bond or bonds.

(8) “Ordinance” means an ordinance of a city or town or resolution or other instrument by which the governing body of the public body exercising any power hereunder takes formal action and adopts legislative provisions and matters of some permanency.

(9) “Government obligations” means any of the following: (a) Direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America and bank certificates of deposit secured by such obligations; (b) bonds, debentures, notes, participation certificates, or other obligations issued by the banks for cooperatives, the federal intermediate credit bank, the federal home loan bank system, the export-import bank of the United States, federal land banks, or the federal national mortgage association; (c) public housing bonds and project notes fully secured by contracts with the United States; and (d) obligations of financial institutions insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, to the extent insured or to the extent guaranteed as permitted under any other provision of state law.

(10) Words used herein importing singular or plural number may be construed so that one number includes both.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. There is added to chapter 39.53 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Bonds payable solely from special assessments or special assessments and a guaranty fund issued on or prior to the effective date of this act shall not be subject to refunding under this chapter.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: “Senator Talmadge, what about the state’s anti-collusion provisions we have already? How does that impact this—in particular talking about highway funds? I know in the southeast, there’s some contract paving contractors that have colluded and so forth and got caught. How does this interplay on that?”

Senator Talmadge: “In RCW 19.86, we have a parallel anti-trust enforcement mechanism to the federal. I don’t know if the issue of direct purchase/indirect purchase has been addressed in this state or not, but, I think, clearly under federal law we would want to make sure that we have the opportunity to proceed.”

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Joint Memorial No. 34.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Joint Memorial No. 34, and the memorial passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 04.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1666 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1666.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1666, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 0; absent, 0; excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Barr, Deccio, Newhouse, Pullen - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1666, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1162, by Representatives Stratton, Mitchell, Halsan and Van Dyken

Correcting double amendments and making other technical corrections in the fisheries code.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, after line 30, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 75.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall be lawful to take, fish for, land, or possess Dungeness crabs for commercial purposes in coastal, Pacific Ocean, Grays Harbor, Willapa Harbor, and Columbia River waters throughout the year.

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Owen: "A point of order, Mr. President. I challenge the amendment on scope and object. The bill merely corrects several amendments—when we rewrote the fisheries code last year—and this amendment sets seasons and I think it's clearly outside the scope of the bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, prior to your ruling, I wonder if Senator Rasmussen would yield to a question that might help clarify the situation?

"Senator Rasmussen, as you know, I'm from the eastside and we don't see too many crabs and lobsters. Could you tell me how you differentiate between a crab that is migrating and one that is immigrating?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I tell you the crabs are native. They never immigrate. They are native to Washington and they travel up and down the coast. One month you can have a tremendous amount of good quality crab and the next month they have migrated and British Columbia, which is open year-around, has the ability to catch them."

Senator McCaslin: "Do you know, Senator Rasmussen, I swear I heard you say 'migrate.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "They do. Migrate means to travel from here to there."

Senator McCaslin: "How about immigrate—what does that mean?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That means to come in from outside of the country."

Senator McCaslin: "I knew you'd pick up on something. Thank you."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Owen, the President finds that House Bill No. 1162 is a measure which simply makes technical corrections to the fisheries code.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen would permit year-around crab fishing in certain areas.
The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken. The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended. House Bill No. 1162 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1386, by Representatives R. King and Betzoff (by Attorney General request)

Modifying provisions relating to third party actions for industrial injuries.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following Committee on Judiciary amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Actions against third persons that are assigned by the claimant to the department, voluntarily or by operation of law in accordance with chapter 51.24 RCW, may be prosecuted by special assistant attorneys general.

(2) The attorney general shall select special assistant attorneys general from a list compiled by the department and the Washington state bar association. The attorney general, in conjunction with the department and the Washington state bar association, shall promulgate rules and regulations outlining the criteria and the procedure by which private attorneys may have their names placed on the list of attorneys available for appointment as special assistant attorneys general to litigate third party actions under subsection (1) of this section.

If injury (or death) results to a worker from the deliberate intention of his or her employer to produce such injury (or death), the worker, surviving spouse, child, or dependent) shall have the privilege to take under this title and also have cause of action against the employer as if this title had not been enacted, for any damages in excess of damages over the amount received or receivable compensation and benefits paid or payable under this title.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If (the) an injury to a worker for which benefits and compensation are provided under this title is due to the negligence or wrong of a third person not in the same employ, the injured worker or beneficiary may elect to seek damages from the third person.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, "injury" shall include any physical or mental condition, disease, ailment or loss, including death, for which compensation and benefits are paid or payable under this title.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An election not to proceed against the third person operates as an assignment of the cause of action to the department or self-insurer, which may prosecute or compromise the action in its discretion in the name of the injured worker, beneficiary or legal representative.

(2) If an injury to a worker results in the worker's death, the department or self-insurer to which the cause of action has been assigned may petition a court for the appointment of a special personal representative for the limited purpose of maintaining an action under this chapter and chapter 4.20 RCW.

(3) If a beneficiary is a minor child, an election not to proceed against a third person on such beneficiary's cause of action may be exercised by the beneficiary's legal custodian or guardian.

(4) Any (award or settlement recovered) recovery made by the department or self-insurer shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The department or self-insurer shall be paid the expenses incurred in making the recovery including reasonable costs of legal services.

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the (award or settlement) recovery made, which shall not be subject to subsection ((3))) (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent.

(c) The department of self-insurer shall be paid the compensation and benefits paid to or on behalf of the injured worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer; and

(d) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid any remaining balance.

(5) After no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation (or) and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no (third party person claim) recovery had been made from a third person.
In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation or benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

When the cause of action has been assigned to the self-insurer and compensation and benefits have been paid and/or are payable from state funds for the same injury:

(a) The prosecution of such cause of action shall also be for the benefit of the department to the extent of compensation and benefits paid and payable from state funds;

(b) Any compromise or settlement of such cause of action which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department;

(c) The department shall be reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid from state funds;

(d) The department shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by the self-insurer in obtaining the award or settlement; and

(e) Any remaining balance under subsection (4)(d) of this section shall be paid, under subsection (5) of this section, to reduce the obligations of the department and self-insurer to pay further compensation and benefits in proportion to which the obligations of each bear to the remaining entitlement of the worker or beneficiary.

The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien.

The department and/or self-insurer shall be reimbursed for compensation ((or)) and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by the ((claimant)) worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys’ fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys’ fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department’s and/or self-insurer’s proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation ((or)) and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no ((third-party person claim)) recovery had been made from a third person.

The ((award or settlement)) recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer’s experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation or benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribut the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 6.06 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and per sonal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execu tion or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court.
Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any author ized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's author ized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with Costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the party found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW which the wage earner may be entitled.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.070 are each amended read as follows:

(1) The department or self-insurer may require the injured worker or beneficiary to exer cise the right of election under this chapter by serving a written demand by registered mail, certified mail, or personal service on the worker or beneficiary.

(2) Unless an election is made within sixty days of the receipt of the demand, and unless an action is instituted or settled within the time granted by the department or self-insurer, the injured worker or beneficiary is deemed to have assigned the action to the department or self insurer. The department or self-insurer shall allow the worker or beneficiary at least ninety days from the election to institute or settle the action. When a beneficiary is a minor child the amount claimed by the director in the notice together with the unpaid lien plus interest accrued shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(3) If an action which has been filed is not diligently prosecuted, the department or self insurer may petition the court in which the action is pending for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. Upon a sufficient showing of a lack of diligent pros ecution the court in its discretion may issue the order.

(4) Any written demand, notice, or order provided by this chapter is deemed to have been received by the injured worker, beneficiary, or legal custodian if it is delivered to his or her last known address as shown by the records of the department, or the last known address of the person whom such injured worker, beneficiary, or legal custodian selected to receive notices or orders under this chapter.

(5) If the department or self-insurer has taken an assignment of the third party cause of action under subsection (2) of this section, the injured worker or beneficiary may, at the discre tion of the department or self-insurer, exercise a right of reelection and assume the cause of action subject to reimbursement of litigation expenses incurred by the department or self-insurer.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any compromise or settlement of the third party cause of action by the injured worker or beneficiary which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department or self-insurer; PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this chapter, "entitlement" means benefits and compensation paid and payable.

(2) If a compromise or settlement is void because of subsection (1) of this section, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action was filed for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. If an action has not been filed, the department or self-insurer may proceed as provided in chapter 7.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department may adopt, amend, and rescind under chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This act applies to all causes of action against third persons in which judgment or settlement of the underlying action has not taken place before the effective date of this act.

MOTION

Senator Benitz moved adoption of the following amendment to the Committee on Judiciary amendment:

On page 2, line 31 of the Senate Judiciary Committee amendment, after "third person" insert:

"... except that where the United States, or any of its agencies, and one or more independent prime contractors enter into contracts which:

(a) Relate to projects, buildings, constructions, improvements, and property belonging to the United States on land and premises owned or held by the United States to which the workers’ compensation laws apply under RCW 51.12.060; and

(b) Provide that workers’ compensation payments and payments on accounts of liability to third persons are to be paid by the United States as an allowable cost under the contract; no employee or beneficiary of an employee of the independent prime contractor may bring an action for injuries received acting in the course of employment under the contract against any other independent prime contractor or its employees under the contract."

((ct-he)) (a) The individual is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute ((which caused the stoppage of work)) and ((ct-he)) the individual does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the ((stoppage)) labor dispute, there were members employed at the premises at which the ((stoppage)) labor dispute occurs, any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute ((provided, That))
(b) The individual is unemployed due to a lockout by his or her employer, except for lockouts by employers who are members of a multi-employer bargaining unit if the employees locked out belong to the same bargaining unit which has struck a member of the multi-employer bargaining unit;
(c) The labor dispute has been settled by the negotiating parties, or the labor organization has provided written notice to the employer that the labor dispute is terminated.
(3) For the purposes of this section, if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall ((for the purpose of this subdivision)) be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises.
Renumber the remaining sections and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

MOTION
Senator Bottiger moved that the amendments by Senators Deccio, Quigg and McDonald be laid on the table.
Senator Hemstad demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Bottiger to lay the amendments by Senators Deccio, Quigg and McDonald on the table.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Bottiger carried by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; absent, 00; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Klskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcall, Patterson, Guigg, Seller, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 20.

Excused: Senators Barr, Newhouse, Pullen - 3.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Senator Bottiger does not seem to be on the floor. He does not choose to yield."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bluechel: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President, would you explain to the body how we are supposed to debate the issues here if all of our legitimate amendments are being laid on the table without debate?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: The President can only conduct the meeting of the Senate in accordance with the rules, and as far as I know the rules so far have been followed.

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, may I speak?"

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Is this on the point of personal privilege?"

Senator Bluechel: "Yes, Mr. President."

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "State your point of personal privilege."

Senator Bluechel: "My point of personal privilege is that how do we debate this measure if we are not allowed any amendments, whatsoever? How do we give a good public hearing? How do we express the viewpoints of those who may be in the minority as regard to this bill?"

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "I believe, Senator Bluechel, that is not a point of personal privilege, and I cannot answer your question under this point of personal privilege."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President. I think you might address as to what order of business we are speaking under, but I just said that if the Senator would like to express his opinion, we will have it on third reading and he can express his opinion on it on final passage. I am sure."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President—Senator Hemstad, would you yield to a question?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "There is no matter before the body at the moment."

Senator McCaslin: "I think there is a matter of importance, Mr. President, whether or not the minority can pass legislation."

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "We are trying to put an amendment by Senator Lee before the body. Otherwise, there is nothing before the body at the present time."

MOTIONS

Senator Lee moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, strike all material after the enacting clause and insert:

"Sec. 1. Section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 9, chapter 33, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:
Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer (except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions and those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions) for each calendar year in which the employer is subject to this title at the rate of ((two) five and ((seven-tenths)) four-tenths percent of wages paid each employee ((except for such rates as determined for qualified employers according to chapter 50.29 RCW; PROVIDED. That if, as of any June 30th, the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than three and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year; contributions for the following calendar year for all employers shall be payable at the rate of three percent of wages subject to tax)) for the 1984 calendar year and the 1985 calendar year.

((The amount of wages subject to tax for each individual as of January 1, 1971, shall be four thousand two hundred dollars. If the amount in the unemployment compensation fund on any June 30th, after January 1, 1971, is less than four and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year)) In each rate year, the amount of wages subject to tax for each individual shall increase on the January 1st next following by six hundred dollars: PROVIDED. That the amount of wages subject to tax in any calendar year shall not exceed eighty percent of the average annual wage for the second preceding calendar year rounded to the next lower multiple of three hundred dollars: PROVIDED FURTHER. That the amount subject to tax shall be seven thousand dollars for the 1984 calendar year and the 1985 calendar year.

In making computations under this section ((and RCW 50.29.010)). wages paid based on services for employers making payments in lieu of contributions shall not be considered remuneration. Moneys paid from the fund, based on services performed for employers who make payments in lieu of contributions, which have not been reimbursed to the fund as of any June 30 shall be deemed an asset of the unemployment compensation fund, to the extent that such moneys exceed the amount of payments in lieu of contributions which the commissioner has previously determined to be uncollectible: PROVIDED, FURTHER. That the amount attributable to employment with the state shall also include interest as provided for in RCW 50.44.020.

Contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the treasurer for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe. and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in employment of the employer. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this section shall be unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:
(2) Section 11, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., section 6, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.020;
(3) Section 12, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.030;
(5) Section 16, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., section 14, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 19, chapter 23, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.070; and
(6) Section 17, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.29.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act shall apply to contributions made after January 1, 1984.

On page 1, beginning on line 8, strike all material through "time." on page 2, line 19 and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 33, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 6, chapter 23, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of payment of contributions, "wages" means;
(a) The remuneration paid by one employer during any calendar year to an individual in its employment under this title or the unemployment compensation law of any other state in the amount specified in RCW 50.24.010((c));
(b) Tips reported to an employer pursuant to the United States Internal Revenue Code; and
(c) If an employer (hereinafter referred to as a successor employer) during any calendar year acquires substantially all the operating assets of another employer (hereinafter referred to as a predecessor employer) or assets used in a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor employer, and immediately after the acquisition employs in his trade or business an individual who immediately before the acquisition was employed in the trade or business of the predecessor employer, then, for the purposes of determining the amount of remuneration paid by the successor employer to the individual during the calendar year which is subject to contributions, any remuneration paid to the individual by the predecessor employer during that calendar year and before the acquisition shall be considered as having been paid by the successor employer.

(2) For the purpose of payment of benefits, "wages" means;
(a) The remuneration paid by one or more employers to an individual for employment under this title during his base year: PROVIDED, That at the request of a claimant, wages may be calculated on the basis of remuneration payable. The department shall notify each claimant that wages are calculated on the basis of remuneration paid, but at the claimant's request a redetermination may be performed and based on remuneration payable; and
(b) Tips reported to employers pursuant to the United States Internal Revenue Code.

(3) "Remuneration" means all compensation paid for personal services including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of compensation paid in any medium other than cash and the reasonable value of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner.

"Remuneration" does not include payments to members of a reserve component of the armed forces of the United States, including the organized militia of the state of Washington, for the performance of duty for periods not exceeding seventy-two hours at a time.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

February 25, 1984

Mr. Bill Gleason
Assistant Secretary of the Senate
Washington State Senate

Dear Bill:

While attempting to prepare a series of complicated amendments, I mistakenly voted in favor of EHB 1462.

I felt at the time, and still feel the bill will negatively impact the operation and economic viability of small businesses. I recognize the concern of some individuals regarding inclusion of tips in determining wages for computing unemployment benefits. However, I believe the legislation could cause some employers to reduce the number of employees, therefore, causing far more harm to both groups.

I regret my affirmative vote on EHB 1462 and request this statement be included in the record.

Sincerely,

Senator Mike McManus

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1246, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Galloway, P. King and Taylor)

Providing programs for educational excellence.

The bill was read the second time.
MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each school district board of directors is encouraged to revise its goal-setting process and to begin immediately to establish an annual process of identifying measurable goals which concentrate on improving educational excellence in the district. This process of identifying goals should involve teachers, administrators, school directors, students, parents, business persons, and other community members. The annual goals and recognition of accomplishments shall be reported by the school district to the community each year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All public high schools in the state shall have a curriculum designed to provide an opportunity for the acquisition of competency skills including effective written and oral communication skills; thinking and reasoning skills; student appreciation of or participation in the arts; knowledge of American civilization and government; substantive exposure to at least one language other than English; computation skills and the ability to use computers; understanding of geography, economics, and history; job acquisition and retention skills; appreciation of what constitutes desirable mental and physical health and human growth and development; and ability to assume future roles as parents, consumers, home managers, and citizens.

School district boards of directors shall identify courses with content that assist in the acquisition of these competency skills. Such courses may be applied or theoretical, academic or vocational.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 305, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors, being accountable to the citizens within its district as to the education offered to the students therein, (on or before September 1, 1977, for grades kindergarten through eight, and on or before September 1, 1978, for grades nine through twelve, by rule and regulation;) shall, based on the timeline established by the superintendent of public instruction, develop a program identifying student learning objectives for their district (in the areas of language arts, reading, and math, and initiate implementation of such program on or before September 1, 1978, for grades kindergarten through eight, and on or before September 1, 1981, for grades nine through twelve; PROVIDED, That such student learning objectives for grades kindergarten through eight shall be reviewed by the superintendent of public instruction and a report of such review shall be submitted to the legislature on or before January 31, 1978; PROVIDED FURTHER, That;) in all courses of study included in the school districts programs. The school district must evidence community participation in defining the objectives of such a program. (Such) The program of student learning objectives shall assure that the district's resources in (such) the educational program, such as money, facilities, time, materials and personnel, (shall be utilized) are used so as to provide both economies in management and operation, and quality education in (the aforesaid) all subject areas and courses.(Provided Further, That such). The learning objectives shall be measurable as to the actual student attainment; student attainment shall be locally assessed annually and the student learning objectives program shall be reviewed at least every two years. In developing and reviewing the learning objectives, districts shall give specific attention to improving the depth of course content within courses and in coordinating the sequence in which subject matter is presented.

The superintendent of public instruction shall review implementation of the learning objectives law biennially and shall submit a report of such review to the legislature on or before January 30 of each year.

The state board of education shall examine the programs in each school district in the state for reasons of program approval as required in accordance with RCW 28A.41.130, as now or hereafter amended.

School districts may obtain assistance in carrying out their duties under this section from the educational service district of which they are a part.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 305, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.092 are each repealed.

The office of the superintendent of public instruction, in consultation with the state board of education, shall prepare model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines in three subject areas each year. These model curriculum programs or curriculum guidelines shall span all grade levels and shall include statements of expected learning outcomes, content, integration with other subject areas, recommended instructional strategies, and suggested resources.
Certificated employees with expertise in the subject area under consideration shall be chosen by the superintendent of public instruction from each educational service district. From a list of persons suggested by their peers, to work with the staff of the superintendent of public instruction to prepare each model curriculum program or curriculum guidelines. Each participant shall be paid his or her regular salary by his or her district, and travel and per diem expenses by the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall make selections of additional experts in the subject area under consideration as are needed to provide technical assistance and to review and comment upon the model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines before publication and shall be paid travel and per diem expenses by the superintendent of public instruction as necessary. The model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines shall be made available to all districts. Participants in developing model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines may be used by school districts to provide training or technical assistance or both. After completion of the original development of model curriculum programs or curriculum guidelines, the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall schedule, at least every five years, a regular review and updating of programs and guidelines in each subject matter area. Any travel and per diem expenses provided to employees involved in the development of model programs or guidelines shall not be considered salary or compensation for purposes of the limitations established in RCW 28A.58.095.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall establish high school graduation requirements or equivalencies for students who commence the ninth grade subsequent to July 1, 1985, that meet or exceed the following:
   (a) English for three years:
   (b) Mathematics for two years:
   (c) Science for two years, including at least two credits of laboratory science:
   (d) Social science for three years which shall include courses in United States history and government and Washington state history and government as required under RCW 28A.05.050:
   (e) Occupational education and consumer and life skills in any manner which when combined total one year:
   (f) An additional two years chosen from the above areas or art, music, or foreign language or any combination thereof:
   (g) Health and physical education for two years: PROVIDED, that individual students may be excused on account of physical disability, employment, or religious belief, or because of participation in directed athletics or military science and tactics: PROVIDED FURTHER, that individual high school students shall be excused therefrom upon the written request of parents or guardians.

(2) The state board of education shall develop and establish procedures for students to meet equivalencies for courses required for graduation in subsection (1) of this section. Such procedures may include provisions for competency testing in lieu of such courses.

(3) The state board of education shall establish procedures for establishing high school graduation requirements for students with special educational needs, in accord with limitations on their ability to fulfill these high school graduation requirements.

(4) The local school districts shall consider the relevant of vocational and applied courses in fulfilling these high school graduation requirements.

(5) The state board of education, upon request from local school districts, shall be authorized to grant temporary exemptions from the graduation requirements in subsection (1) of this section for reasons relating to school district size and availability of staff authorized to teach required subjects. The state board of education may adopt reasonable and necessary rules regarding exemptions for students who transfer between districts.

(6) In recognition of the statutory authority of the state board of education to establish and enforce minimum high school graduation requirements, the state board shall continuously re-evaluate the graduation requirements and shall report such findings to the legislature and the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management in a timely manner as determined by the state board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall develop for use by all public school districts a standardized high school transcript. The state board of education shall establish clear definitions for the terms "credits" and "hours" so that school programs operating on the quarter, semester, or trimester system can be compared.

(2) Transcripts are important documents to students who will apply for admission to post-secondary institutions of higher education. Transcripts are also important to students who will seek employment upon or prior to graduation from high school. It is recognized that student transcripts may be the only record available to employers in their decision-making processes regarding prospective employees. The superintendent of public instruction shall require school districts to inform annually all high school students that prospective employers may request to see transcripts and that the decision to release transcripts can be an important part of the process of applying for employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) School districts shall issue diplomas to students signifying graduation from high school upon the students' satisfactory completion of all local and state graduation requirements. Districts shall grant students the option of receiving a final transcript in addition to the regular diploma.

(2) School districts or schools of attendance shall establish policies and procedures to notify senior students of the transcript option and shall direct students to indicate their decisions in a timely manner. School districts shall make appropriate provisions to assure that students who choose to receive a copy of their final transcript shall receive such transcript after graduation.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.03.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the intent and purpose of this section to direct the office of superintendent of public instruction to conduct standardized reading, mathematics, and language arts achievement level surveys of approximately two thousand students distributed throughout the state in each of the grade levels eight and eleven during such testing cycles as provided for in subsection (2) of this section. The survey testing shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from these grade levels sufficient to generalize about all of the students at each of the selected grade levels from the state's school districts. The purpose of these surveys is to allow the public and the legislature to evaluate how Washington students in these grades compare to students in the same grades tested in other comparable national achievement surveys. The office of superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate such tests and provide such information as obtained therefrom to the legislature no less often than once every four years:

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare a report to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades eight and eleven based on the achievement level surveys conducted in the 1975-'77 biennium and for each of the subsequent testing cycles as designated by the superintendent of public instruction's office. Such report shall include a description of the achievement levels attained by Washington students in the selected grade levels from the state's school districts. The test shall be administered to students outside of the state, with special emphasis placed on the basic skills of reading, mathematics, and language arts. Such report shall also focus on appropriate input variables for each of the comparable variables reported by other states' testing programs.

(3) Results of the first survey test shall be made available to the school districts and the legislature no later than June 30, 1977.

(4) In addition to the survey testing for grades eight and eleven as set forth in this section:

Every school district is encouraged to test pupils in grade two by an assessment device designed or selected by the local school districts. This test shall be used to help teachers in identifying those pupils in need of assistance in the skills of reading, writing, mathematics, and language arts. The test results are not to be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, but are only to be used by the local school district.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, a standardized test to be given annually to all pupils in grade four. The test shall assess students' skill in reading, writing, mathematics, and language arts and shall focus upon appropriate input variables. Results of such tests shall be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, who shall make those results available annually to the legislature, to all local school districts and subsequently to parents of those children tested. The results shall allow parents to ascertain the achievement levels and input variables of their children as compared with the other students within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, an assessment to be administered annually to all grade eight students. The purposes of the assessment are to assist students, parents, and teachers in the planning and selection of appropriate high school programs and courses for the students and to provide comparisons within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation. The assessment shall include but not be limited to tests in reading, mathematics, and language arts and a student interest inventory. The superintendent of public instruction shall make the results available to all local school districts which shall in turn make them available to students, parents, and teachers in a timely fashion.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, an assessment to be administered annually to all grade ten students. The purposes of the assessment are to assist students in meeting district graduation requirements and in making decisions regarding potential career options. The results of the assessment shall be used to provide comparisons within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation. The superintendent of public instruction shall make the results available to all local school districts which shall in turn make them available to students, parents, and teachers in a timely fashion.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter
28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:
School districts are encouraged to prepare and administer a program of assessment tests to be periodically administered to students as they progress from the eighth through eleventh grades for the purpose of identifying andremedying deficiencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 223. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter
28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:
(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare, in consultation with and with the assistance of school districts, a model test to assess students' ability to perform various functions common to everyday life. This model test shall be called the "Washington life skills test" and shall be made available to school districts for use at the district's option. The test shall include questions designed to determine students' academic growth and proficiency in skills generally thought to be useful in adult life, including but not limited to English, vocabulary, communications, and mathematical skills as such skills relate to career, consumer, economic, health, and other issues important to individuals becoming productive citizens. The superintendent of public instruction shall develop and implement a process to review periodically the contents of the test and make changes as may be appropriate or necessary.

(2) School districts may establish their own policies and procedures governing the use of the test. Districts may use the test as a requirement for graduation in conjunction with other state and local graduation requirements, for counseling-related purposes, or for other purposes as districts may determine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 223. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter
28A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the administration of this chapter, the superintendent of public instruction shall carry out a program for highly capable students. Such program may include conducting, coordinating and aiding in research (including pilot programs), disseminating information to local school districts, providing statewide staff development, and allocating to school districts supplementary funds for additional costs of district programs, as provided by section 14 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 223. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter
28A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Local school districts may establish and operate, either separately or jointly, programs for highly capable students. Such authority shall include the right to employ and pay special instructors and to operate such programs jointly with a public institution of higher education.
Local school districts which establish and operate programs for highly capable students shall adopt identification procedures and provide educational opportunities as follows:

(1) In accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent of public instruction, school districts shall implement procedures for nomination, assessment and selection of their most highly capable students. Nominations shall be based upon data from teachers, other staff, parents, students, and members of the community. Assessment shall be based upon a review of each student's capability as shown by multiple criteria intended to reveal, from a wide variety of sources and data, each student's unique needs and capabilities. Selection shall be made by a broadly based committee of professionals, after consideration of the results of the multiple criteria assessment.

(2) Students selected pursuant to procedures outlined in this section shall be provided, to the extent feasible, an educational opportunity which takes into account each student's unique needs and capabilities and the limits of the resources and program options available to the district, including those options which can be developed or provided by using funds allocated by the superintendent of public instruction for that purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter
28A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Supplementary funds as may be provided by the state for this program, in accordance with RCW 28A.41.162, shall be categorical funding on an excess cost basis based upon a per student amount not to exceed three percent of any district's full-time equivalent enrollment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:
(1) Section 28A.16.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.16.010;
(2) Section 28A.16.020, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.16.020; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 223. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter
28A.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:
(1) All public schools of the state shall provide a program, directly or otherwise, for students whose educational plans include application for entrance to a baccalaureate-granting institution after being granted a high school diploma. The program shall help these students to meet at least the entrance requirements under section 18 of this act.

(2) The state board of education, upon request from local school districts, shall be authorized to grant temporary exemptions from providing the program described in subsection (1) of this section for reasons relating to school district size and availability of staff authorized to teach subjects which must be provided.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The boards of regents and trustees of the regional universities, state universities, and The Evergreen State College shall waive tuition, operating, and service and activities fees for recipients of the Washington scholars award under RCW 28A.58.820 through 28A.58.832. To qualify for the waiver, recipients shall enter the college or university within three years of high school graduation and maintain a minimum grade point average at the college or university equivalent to 3.50. Such waivers shall not extend beyond completion of the baccalaureate degree or five consecutive school years, whichever is sooner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The boards of regents or trustees of the state universities, regional universities, and The Evergreen State College shall establish minimum admissions requirements which include the completion of the following program of high school study or comparable college coursework:
   (a) English for four years;
   (b) Mathematics for three years, including one year of algebra and one year of geometry;
   (c) Science for two years, including one year of laboratory science;
   (d) Social science for three years;
   (e) Foreign language for two years;
   (f) Two years of electives chosen from the areas in this subsection, one year of which may be in art or music.

(2) The boards of regents or trustees shall ensure that special admission procedures shall be available to applicants who may be unable to meet the requirements specified in subsection (1) of this section for admission. Such applicants must be able to submit additional evidence of academic capability sufficient to ensure that the applicant will benefit from or contribute to the institutions' undergraduate program: PROVIDED, That such special admission procedures shall not be interpreted as guaranteeing admittance to the institutions. The special admission of students into educational opportunity programs shall be included in this special admission procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The boards of regents or trustees of the state universities, regional universities, and The Evergreen State College, in consultation with the council for postsecondary education, shall mutually set uniform academic transfer policies for students who complete Washington state community college associate degrees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall develop procedures for project grants to school districts to assist in the development of innovative programs for the retention of students in the common school system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Implementation of sections 5, 11, and 20 of this act and the amendment to RCW 28A.03.360 by section 9 of this act are each subject to funds being appropriated or available for such purpose or purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section 18 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved the following amendments to the Committee on Education amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 4, line 21, after "January", strike "30" and insert "1"

On page 4, line 22, after "each" insert "odd-numbered"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would like to challenge the committee amendments to House Bill 1246 on scope and object. Substitute House Bill 1246 originally was a simple bill on curriculum improvements and student evaluations. This committee amendment would add thirteen new sections to the bill ranging on some things as graduation requirements, standardized high school transcripts, high school diploma requirements, college tuition and fee waivers, college admissions standards, community college credit transfer ability, and a number of other sections that are completely out of scope and object with the bill that was intended to make curriculum improvements and student evaluations. I think that upon looking at it you will find it's completely out of scope and object."

Debate ensued.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1246 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1660, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Grimm, Dickie, Isaacson and Clayton)

Improving the quality of education.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, in consultation with representatives of the state and regional universities, the council for postsecondary education, and the state board of education, shall develop a program to implement at least one campus educational research center located in the state of Washington. Any research center shall be located at an existing state or regional university campus and may be utilized by school districts and all teacher preparation institutions to assist in educational research and the field testing of new innovations in curriculum design, teaching methodology, management practices, and school organizational structures. The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature and the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management by January 1, 1985, on the plan for the organization and operation of any research center, locations, and costs related thereto.

The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final plan, such information as may be developed in the preparation of the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to grant funds for selected school improvement research projects, including improvements in curriculum, instruction, and classroom management developed by teachers.

(2) The superintendent shall appoint an advisory committee on research and development composed of certificated and noncertificated staff, administrators, curriculum specialists, parents, school directors, postsecondary educators, business persons, and others as the superintendent finds necessary. The committee shall propose criteria to the superintendent to evaluate proposed school improvement research projects proposed by educational employees. The criteria approved by the superintendent shall: (a) Assure to the extent possible that projects will be chosen which represent the various geographical locations, school or district sizes, and grade levels existent in the state; (b) provide for evaluation of each project upon completion; and (c) include such other requirements as the superintendent finds necessary. The committee shall recommend to the superintendent of public instruction the awarding of grants to fund those proposals showing the most potential for developing knowledge which will be helpful to local districts in their efforts to enhance educational equity and excellence. Projects may involve the collaboration of personnel from higher education institutions and kindergarten through grade twelve educators.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall award grants to selected project participants in such amounts as recommended by the advisory committee on research and development under subsection (2) of this section and the sum of all grants awarded per year shall not exceed that amount appropriated by the legislature for such purposes. Grants may be awarded to individual teachers or teams of teachers including teacher's aides and volunteers.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall maintain a clearinghouse of information on these research projects for the use of local districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Recent and expanding activity in educational research has produced and continues to produce much valuable information. The legislature finds that such information should be shared with the citizens and educational community of the state as widely as possible. To facilitate access to information and materials on education, the superintendent of public instruction shall act as the state clearinghouse for educational information.
(2) In carrying out this function, the superintendent of public instruction's primary duty shall be to collect, screen, organize, and disseminate information pertaining to the state's educational system from preschool through grade twelve. Including but not limited to in-state research and development efforts: descriptions of exemplary, model, and innovative programs; and related information that can be used in developing more effective programs.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall maintain a collection of such studies, articles, reports, research findings, monographs, bibliographies, directories, curriculum materials, speeches, conference proceedings, legal decisions that are concerned with some aspect of the state's education system, and other applicable materials. All materials and information shall be considered public documents under chapter 42.17 RCW and the superintendent of public instruction shall furnish copies of educational materials at nominal cost, including information on the school improvement research projects under section 2 of this act.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate the dissemination of information with the educational service districts and shall publish and distribute, on a monthly basis, a newsletter describing current activities and developments in education in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each school district board of directors shall develop a schedule and process by which each public school within its jurisdiction shall undertake self-study procedures on a regular basis. Each school may follow the accreditation process developed by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.120(4), although no school is required to file for actual accreditation. or the school may follow a self-study process developed locally. Whatever process is used must focus upon the quality and appropriateness of the school's educational program and the results of its operational efforts.

Any self-study process must include the participation of staff, parents, members of the community, and students, where appropriate to their age.

Emphasis throughout the process shall be placed upon:

(1) Achieving educational excellence and equity;
(2) Building stronger links with the community; and
(3) Reaching consensus upon educational expectations through community involvement and corresponding school management.

The initial self-study process within each district shall begin by September 1, 1985, and should be completed for all schools within a district by the end of the 1989-90 school year.

The state board of education shall develop rules and regulations governing procedural criteria. Such rules and regulations should be flexible so as to accommodate local goals and circumstances. Rules and regulations may allow for waiver of the self-study for economic reasons and may also allow for waiver of the initial self-study if a district or its schools have participated successfully in an official accreditation process or in a similar assessment of educational programs within the last three years. The self-study process shall be conducted on a cyclical basis every seven years following the initial 1989-90 period.

The superintendent of public instruction shall provide training to assist districts in their self-studies.

Each district shall annually report to the superintendent of public instruction on the scheduling and implementation of their self-study activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to grant funds to local school districts to establish pilot projects in building-based management from funds appropriated to include that purpose or from funds otherwise available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall develop, with the advice of the state board of education, school board members, administrators, the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management and the institutions of higher education offering teacher training programs, a plan for an administrators training academy. The plan shall include components to develop management skills of board members, superintendents, principals, and other supervisory personnel. The plan should focus on developing leadership skills, curriculum improvement and upgrading, teacher evaluation and counseling, linkages with the community, enhancement of a positive learning environment, planning and goal setting, effective school research, finance, school law, and classroom management techniques and methods to make better use of the school day for learning and to reduce disruptions and nonteaching tasks for teachers.

The plan shall provide for the shared cost of the academy.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 229, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.41.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall be determined in accordance with the following procedures:
The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula based on a ratio of students to staff for the distribution of a basic education allocation for each annual average full-time equivalent student enrolled in a common school. The distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts within the state:

1. Certificated staff and their related costs;
2. Classified staff and their related costs;
3. Nonsalary costs;
4. Extraordinary costs of remote and necessary schools and small high schools; and
5. The attendance of students pursuant to RCW 28A.58.075 and 28A.58.245, as each now or hereafter amended, who do not reside within the servicing school district.

This formula for distribution of basic education funds shall be reviewed biennially by the superintendent and governor. The recommended formula shall be subject to approval, amendment or rejection by the legislature. Commencing with the 1980-81 school year, the formula adopted by the legislature shall reflect a ratio of not less than fifty certificated personnel to one thousand annual average full-time equivalent students and one certificated person to three certificated personnel. In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous school year shall remain in effect: PROVIDED, That the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions of local school districts other than those program requirements identified in RCW 28A.58.754. The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full-time equivalent students and part-time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended, enrolled on the first school day of each month. The definition of full-time equivalent student shall be determined by rules and regulations of the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That the definition shall be included as part of the superintendent's biennial budget request: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any revision of the present definition shall not take effect until approved by the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the office of financial management shall make a monthly review of the superintendent's reported full-time equivalent students in the common schools in conjunction with RCW 43.62.050.

Certificated staff shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, educational staff associate, learning resources specialist, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated employees as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent: PROVIDED, That in exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certificated person exercises general supervision: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the hiring of such noncertificated people shall not occur during a labor dispute and such noncertificated people shall not be hired to replace certificated employees during a labor dispute. Each annual average full-time equivalent certificated classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall average at least twenty-five hours per week. Direct classroom contact hours shall be exclusive of time required to be spent for preparation, conferences, or any other nonclassroom instruction duties. Up to two hundred minutes per week may be deducted from the twenty-five contact hour requirement, at the discretion of the school district board of directors, to accommodate authorized teacher/parent-guardian conferences, recess, passing time between classes, and informal instructional activity. Implementing rules to be adopted by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.58.754(6) shall provide that compliance with the direct contact hour requirement shall be based upon teachers' normally assigned weekly instructional schedules, as assigned by the district administration. Additional record-keeping by classroom teachers as a means of accounting for contact hours shall not be required. However, upon request from the board of directors of any school district, the provisions relating to direct classroom contact hours for individual teachers in that district may be waived by the state board of education if the waiver is necessary to implement a locally approved plan for educational excellence and the waiver is limited to those individual teachers approved in the local plan for educational excellence. The state board of education shall develop criteria to evaluate the need for the waiver. Granting of the waiver shall depend upon verification that: (a) The students' classroom instructional time will not be reduced; and (b) the teacher's expertise is critical to the success of the local plan for excellence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual teacher excellence award program for teachers in diverse grades or subject areas. Not more than one award per educational service district may be granted in any school year.

(2) The awards shall include:
(a) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at public ceremonies in appropriate locations;
(b) Waiver of tuition and fees under section 9 of this act; and
(c) A stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses, which stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Teachers who have received a teacher excellence award under section 8 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived at any state institution of higher education for eighteen quarter hours or twelve semester hours taken within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

School district boards of directors are encouraged to develop and implement incentives which recognize and encourage staff excellence. School districts may provide monetary incentives in the form of compensation to staff for additional work or assigned projects conducted in addition to a district's basic education program. Such compensation shall not be deemed an increase in salary or compensation for purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 nor shall such compensation be applied to the district's salary schedule or be provided in a manner which would increase the state's basic education funding obligation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is established for the 1984-85 school year a pilot program to permit up to one hundred fifty teachers who are assigned to supervise field experience of students teachers to receive a stipend and up to three quarter hour credits or the equivalent at a state institution of higher education.
(2) The objective of the program is to: (a) Enhance the quality of teachers entering the profession through improved practical field experience; and (b) recognize the value of instruction provided by supervisory teachers.
(3) Each supervisory teacher shall assure that the student teacher receives practical teaching experience and direct supervision throughout the assignment.
(4) Each participating school or college of education shall provide training in supervisory skills for the supervisory teacher.
(5) School districts shall provide supervisory teachers with release time the district deems necessary to be able to supervise the student teachers.
(6) For the purposes of this section, "student teacher" means an individual who receives training experiences under supervision in school or school-related settings while participating in a teacher education program approved by the state board of education.
(7) The state board of education shall administer, coordinate, and evaluate the program and report back to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 15, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state board of education shall recommend a plan to establish a graduate level professional teacher preparation program for teacher certification. The plan shall be based on an analysis of the need for and design of: Explicit entry and exit competency criteria, which shall include testing and assessments of competency in various subject matters or in pedagogy including the ability to encourage students to learn and relate to others in a mutually respectful manner, or both; breadth and depth of subject matter; training and research relevant to teaching skills; extensive experience in local districts including internship, a portion of which may be paid; research on education; continued involvement of program units as defined by the state board of education; and other criteria as the board may determine appropriate. The state board shall also recommend enabling legislation and changes in certification needed to establish such program, provide data relative to costs, and recommend a process for certifying teachers who have been certified in another state. The state board of education shall submit to the legislature by December 1, 1984, recommendations for legislation required to implement such a graduate level professional teacher preparation program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After June 30, 1987, each applicant for initial certification shall have completed the necessary coursework and field training requirements. shall submit letters of evaluation from academic and field training supervisors, shall pass an examination or examinations that measure the applicant's subject area knowledge, and shall satisfy other procedures prescribed by the state board of education before receiving initial certification to teach or perform other professional duties in the schools of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The Washington state legislature intends to address the appropriate salary levels of teachers, for both current preparation standards and the increased professional preparation standards under section 12 of this act, to a level similar to persons in public and private occupations in this state holding positions requiring or imposing similar training, responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills, and working conditions. The superintendent of public instruction shall contract for a study to assist the legislature in a determination of those appropriate salary levels. The study shall compare teachers to public and private occupations on both an hourly wage basis and on an annual salary basis. The study shall be completed and the results reported to the legislature and the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management by January 1, 1985. The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final report, such data as may be developed in the compilation of the salary survey. The legislature is not obligated to implement any or all of the results contained in such study.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to equate credits for district in-service training with college credits for the purpose of salary allocation. Certificated employees may receive up to three additional education credits per year for advancement on the salary schedule for staff development courses taking place after September 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The plan shall be established prior to September 1, 1985, and shall provide for staff development training programs which are of professional benefit to employees. School districts shall review and approve staff development training courses. Courses shall be recognized by a school district if such courses:

1. Enable employees to maintain or improve proficiency in their current or anticipated assignments; or
2. Respond to an area of district-needed expertise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. Local districts shall assign secondary teachers holding initial level certificates to endorsed areas and levels only. Teachers holding initial level elementary endorsement shall be assigned to elementary grades only. Teachers holding continuing level certificates should be assigned to recommended areas and levels or to areas and levels in which they have demonstrated competency during professional service: PROVIDED, That teachers holding certificates endorsed for grades kindergarten through eight or seven through twelve may be assigned to junior high schools and middle schools: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when it is considered justifiable the superintendent of public instruction may, if requested by the school district superintendent who will provide evidence of the need for such assignment, authorize initially certificated teachers to serve at different grade levels or in different subject matter fields from those recommended: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when a certificated teacher is assigned outside his or her recommended areas or levels, or outside areas or levels where competence has been demonstrated, the school district shall provide training equivalent to that needed for endorsement in the new assignment and the district shall develop with each affected teacher a plan for this training, and the teacher may not continue teaching outside his or her recommended areas or levels for more than one year unless substantial progress has been made on this planned training.

2. Assignments to serve in educational staff associate roles shall be limited to persons holding valid educational staff associate certificates with appropriate endorsements.

3. Assignment of persons to serve as principals or vice principals shall be limited to persons holding valid administrator certificates with the appropriate endorsement or endorsements: PROVIDED, That principals holding certificates endorsed for grades kindergarten through eight or seven through twelve may be assigned to junior high schools and middle schools.

4. School districts shall assign beginning teachers who hold provisional certificates to the elementary, junior high, or senior high school levels and to subject fields in accordance with the beginning teacher's qualifications. Such assignment shall obtain during the beginning teacher's first year of teaching: PROVIDED, That when it is considered justifiable the superintendent of public instruction may, if requested by the school district superintendent who will provide evidence of the need for such assignment, authorize beginning teachers to teach at different grade levels or in different subject matter fields from those recommended: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when a beginning teacher is assigned outside his or her areas or levels of qualification, the school district shall provide training equivalent to that needed for endorsement in the new assignment and the district shall develop with each affected teacher a plan for this training, and the teacher may not continue teaching outside his or her areas or levels of qualification for more than one year unless substantial progress has been made on this planned training.

Sec. 18. Section 7, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.0284 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to equate credits for district in-service training with college credits for the purpose of salary allocation. Certificated employees may receive up to three additional education credits per year for advancement on the salary schedule for staff development courses taking place after September 1, 1985.
The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of ((computers; computer components, computer accessories, or computer software)) tangible personal property irrevocably donated to and accepted by any public or private nonprofit school or ((college)) institution of higher education, as defined under chapter 84.36 RCW, in this state. ((For purposes of this section, "computer" means a data processor that can perform substantial computation, including numerous arithmetic or logic operations, without intervention by a human operator during the run.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Implementation of sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16 of this act are each subject to funds being appropriated or available for such purpose or purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Croswell: "Mr. President, I challenge this committee amendment on scope and object. The original bill as it came from the House was a bill to improve staff training and recognize staff excellence. We now have twelve new sections to add in picking up all or parts of at least four other bills ranging from establishing campus research centers, to an SPI clearing house, building-based management programs, administrative training academies, contract hour waivers, salary surveys, youth tax exemptions for donations of tangible property to schools and a number of other things. I think this is a far cry from what the original bill did, which was improving staff training and recognizing staff excellence. I do believe it is out of scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660 was deferred.

Vice President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1613, by Committee on Higher Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Powers, Sutherland, Burns, Jacobsen, McMullen, Fisch, D. Nelson, Kreidler, Smitherman, Ebersole, Taylor, Wang, Tanner, Miller, Todd and Allen)

Creating the Washington award for vocational excellence program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment by Senator Goltz was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 28C.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The commission for vocational education, in consultation with representatives from the state board for community college education and the superintendent of public instruction and representatives from business, industry, and labor organizations having an interest in vocational education, shall devise a recognition program comparable to the Washington scholars program under RCW 28A.58.820 through 28A.58.830 for outstanding accomplishments by vocational education students. The vocational education student recognition program shall be effective starting with the 1985-86 school year.

(2) The commission may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devises, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from any federal, state, or local agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the recognition program for vocational students. The commission shall encourage maximum participation from business, labor, and community groups. The commission shall also coordinate, where feasible, the contribution activity of the various participants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Secondary vocational education students recognized for outstanding performance under section 1 of this act are eligible for two consecutive years of tuition and fee waivers at state Institutions of higher education or fee waivers at a public vocational technical institute post-secondary education program commenced within five years after the award is received.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, on line 2 of the title, after “excellence,” strike the remainder of the title and insert “adding a new section to chapter 28C.04 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW.”

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senator Goltz was excused.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1613, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1613, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1613, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:
Yeas. 44; nays. 00; absent. 01; excused. 04.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Granlund, Guess, Hailey, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman – 44.

Absent: Senator Quigg – 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1613, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1456, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Galloway, P. King, Ebersole and Powers) (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request)

Revising requirements for transitional bilingual education.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be known and cited as "The Transitional Bilingual Instruction Act ((of 1979)). The legislature finds that there are large numbers of children who come from homes where the primary language is other than English. (Experience has shown that classes which are taught in English are inadequate to meet the needs of these children.)
The legislature finds that a transitional bilingual education program can meet the needs of these children. Pursuant to the policy of this state to insure equal educational opportunity to every child in this state, it is the purpose of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 to provide for the implementation of transitional bilingual education programs in the public schools, and to provide supplemental financial assistance to ((help local)) school districts to meet the extra costs of these programs.
Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.802 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810, unless the context thereof indicates to the contrary:
(1) "Transitional bilingual instruction" means;"
(a) A system of instruction which uses two languages, one of which is English, as a means of instruction to build upon and expand language skills to enable the pupil to achieve competency in English. Concepts and information are introduced in the primary language and reinforced in the second language: PROVIDED, That the program shall include testing in the subject matter in English; or

(b) In those cases in which the use of two languages is not practicable as established by the superintendent of public instruction and unless otherwise prohibited by law, an alternative system of instruction which may include English as a second language and is designed to enable the pupil to achieve competency in English.

(2) "Primary language" means the language most often used by the student for communication in his/her home.

(3) "Eligible pupil" means any enrollee of the school district whose primary language is other than English and whose English language skills are sufficiently deficient or absent to impair learning ((when taught only in English, but shall not include pupils who are equally or almost equally competent in English and other languages)).

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 95. Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.804 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors shall:

(1) Make available to each eligible pupil transitional bilingual instruction to achieve competency in English, in accord with rules of the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That such rules shall provide that any school district with a limited number of pupils of the same non-English dominant language shall not be required to activate a new bilingual program, but may carry on an alternative instructional program utilizing resources available to the district).

(2) Wherever feasible, ensure that communications to parents emanating from the schools shall be appropriately bilingual for those parents of pupils in the bilingual instruction program.

(3) ((Annually)) (5) Determine, by administration of ((a)) an English test approved by the superintendent of public instruction the number of eligible pupils enrolled in the school district at the beginning of a school year and thereafter during the year as necessary in individual cases. If, however, a preliminary interview indicates little or no English speaking ability, eligibility testing shall not be necessary.

(4) Before the conclusion of each school year, measure each eligible pupil's improvement in learning the English language by means of a test approved by the superintendent of public instruction.

(5) Provide in-service training for ((all)) teachers, counselors, and other staff, who are involved in the district's transitional bilingual (education within the district) program. Such training shall include appropriate instructional strategies for children of culturally different backgrounds, use of curriculum materials, and (bilingual) program models.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 95. Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.806 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors may appoint, maintain, and receive recommendations from an advisory committee ((of persons including)) which includes parents whose children are in the transitional bilingual instruction program ((and bilingual)), teachers, and other staff members.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 95. Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.808 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall ((prepare and)): (prepare and):

(1) Promulgate and issue ((prior to September, 1979)) program development guidelines to assist school districts in preparing their programs;

(2) Promulgate rules for implementation of (this bilingual instruction act shall be promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction) RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW ((no later than May 15, 1980)). The rules shall be designed to maximize the role of school districts in selecting programs appropriate to meet the needs of eligible students. The rules shall identify the process and criteria to be used to determine when a student is no longer eligible for transitional bilingual instruction pursuant to RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to be codified between RCW 28A.58.800 and 28A.58.810 to read as follows:

School districts may enrich the programs required by RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810: PROVIDED, That such enrichment shall not constitute a basic education responsibility of the state.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 95. Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.810 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and submit biennially to the governor and the legislature a budget request for transitional bilingual instruction programs. Moneys appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be allocated by the superintendent of public instruction to school districts for the sole purpose of operating an approved transitional bilingual instruction program. Priorities for funding shall exist for the early elementary grades. No moneys shall be allocated pursuant to this section to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for each eligible pupil within a district. PROVIDED, That such moneys may be allocated to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for any pupil who fails to demonstrate improvement in English language skills adequate to remove impairment of learning when taught only in English. The superintendent of public instruction shall set standards and approve a test for the measurement of such English language skills.

An eligible student may receive no more than three school years of transitional bilingual instruction as defined in RCW 28A.58.802(1)(a).

School districts are hereby empowered to accept grants, gifts, donations, devices and other gratuities from private and public sources to aid in accomplishing the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall review annually the transitional bilingual instruction program and shall submit a report of such review to the legislature on or before January 1 of each year."

Debate ensued.
The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Education amendment.
The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 7 of the title, strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 12; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Craswell, Decio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Kiskaddon, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Seiler, Zimmerman - 12.

Absent: Senator Quigg - 1.

Excused: Senators Barr, Newhouse, Pullen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1456, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

February 25, 1984

STATEMENT ON ESHB 1456

I voted "No" on the Senate version because I hope the House will insist on its original version. The House version is superior to the Senate amendments, because it recognizes bilingual as transitional, and focuses strongly on English.

Hal Zimmerman.
State Senator, 17th District

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.
SECOND READING

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: “Mr. President, a point of order. Is it possible that we could consider all these amendments on this page as one, with permission of the body—rather than being unfair and trying to lay something on the table?”

REMARKS BY SENATOR CRASWELL

Senator Craswell: “Mr. President, we are considering all the remainder of the amendments on this page.”

Senator Fleming: “I mean on all three pages.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: “I believe, Senator Fleming, it’s rather difficult to discuss amendments which are unrelated to one another as though it were one amendment. If you will not accept a formal interpretation of your point of order, I think we’ll proceed with the amendments in good faith.”

Further debate on the amendments by Senators Craswell and Lee to the Committee on Education amendment ensued.

On page 2, line 34, after "improvement" Insert "and"

Senator Croswell moved the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:
On page 22 of the amendment, after line 33, insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:
"Church educational ministry", for the purposes of section 2 of this act, means an educational ministry that is integral to and inseparable from its sponsoring religious organization offering educational programs for children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:
"If a child of mandatory attendance age is attending an unapproved private school which is operated as part of a church educational ministry under this section and section 1 of this act, the parents, guardians, or custodians of the child shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That this shall not preclude the application of chapter 26.44 RCW."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object of this amendment. This bill clearly relates to improving schools and deals with staff excellence, staff development training, school level improvement and other improvements to our public school system. The amendment before us defines a new category of schools called church educational ministries and simply says that any school-age student attending such a church educational ministry is not subject to the mandatory attendance law and, further, that the parents of those children are not responsible for any of the fines that may result from that non-attendance. I believe it is clearly outside the scope and object.

"Just an additional comment. We tried to deal with this issue in the Education Committee and I think we had an excellent plan to bring out here for this body to look at, but because of some insistence of Senator Craswell and others who would not agree with the plan that reached a compromise, that plan did not come before us. So, Senator Craswell, to say that we have not tried to deal with the issue is not correct. We tried to deal with the issue, but because you just wanted to go in one particular way of handling it, it did not come up."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Gaspard, the President finds that Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660 is a measure which deals with staff excellence and development as well as various school improvements.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Craswell exempts parents from compliance with the compulsory school attendance law if their children attend an unapproved private school that is operated as a part of a church educational ministry. "The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment to the committee amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment by Senator Goltz to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

On page 22 of the amendment, after line 33, insert the following:

"Sec. 19. Section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.02.201 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature hereby recognizes that private schools should be subject only to those minimum state controls necessary to insure the health and safety of all the students in the state and to insure a sufficient basic education to meet usual graduation requirements. The state, any agency or official thereof, shall not restrict or dictate any specific educational or other programs for private schools except as hereinafter in this section provided.

Principals of private schools or superintendents of private school districts shall file each year with the state superintendent of public instruction a statement certifying that the minimum requirements hereinafter set forth are being met, noting any deviations. After review of the statement, the state superintendent will notify schools or school districts of those deviations which must be corrected. In case of major deviations, the school or school district may request and the state board of education may grant provisional status for one year in order that the school or school district may take action to meet the requirements. Minimum requirements shall be as follows:

(1) The minimum school year (shall be the same as that required of public schools in RCW 28A.01.025 as now or hereafter amended)) for instructional purposes shall consist of no less than one hundred eighty school days or the equivalent in annual minimum program hour offerings as prescribed in RCW 28A.58.754.

(2) The (length of the) school day shall be the same as that required (of public schools) in RCW 28A.01.010 and 28A.58.754, each as now or hereafter amended, except that the percentages of total program hour offerings as prescribed in RCW 28A.58.754 for basic skills, work skills, and optional subjects and activities shall not apply to private schools or private sectarian schools.

(3) All classroom teachers shall hold appropriate Washington state certification except as follows:

(a) Teachers for religious courses or courses for which no counterpart exists in public schools shall not be required to obtain a state certificate to teach those courses.

(b) In exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certified person exercises general supervision. Annual written statements shall be submitted to the office of the superintendent of public instruction reporting and explaining such circumstances.

(4) Appropriate measures shall be taken to safeguard all permanent records against loss or damage."
(5) The physical facilities of the school or district shall be adequate to meet the program offered by the school or district: PROVIDED, That each school building shall meet reasonable health and fire safety requirements.

(6) Private school curriculum shall include instruction of the basic skills of occupational education, science, mathematics, language, social studies, history, health, reading, writing, spelling, and the development of appreciation of art and music, all in sufficient units for meeting state board of education graduation requirements.

(7) Each school or school district shall be required to maintain up-to-date policy statements related to the administration and operation of the school or school district.

All decisions of policy, philosophy, selection of books, teaching material, curriculum, except as in subsection (6) above provided, school rules and administration, or other matters not specifically referred to in this section, shall be the responsibility of the administration and administrators of the particular private school involved.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and renumber any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, a point of order. I challenge this on scope and object. I believe that it, also, has to deal with private schools, as the last amendment did, and so I would suggest that your ruling must have meant that any private school bills are out of scope and object."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE GOLTZ

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Craswell, the President finds that Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660 is a measure that deals with staff excellence and development as well as various school improvements.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Golz does not follow what's in that, and therefore, it is out of the scope and object and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment to the committee amendment was ruled out of order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Education amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Kiskaddon was excused.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 229, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.41.140; amending section 7, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.0284; adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.70 RCW; and creating new sections."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Gaspard, this is for my information and it need not be on the record for that matter, if that's possible. The school superintendents and school board members were in town last week and there has been a lot happen since then. Bills have been combined and it's a little confusing because of the combinations—the House and the Senate—part of this and part of that. Their attitude at that time, you know, from the local level was pretty negative and with the combinations—your answer depends on how I'm going to vote on this bill— with this combination now in relation to their attitude last week on what was before the House at that time?"
Senator Gaspard: "It appears that their concerns really focus on two issues and the first was the self study part of it. Now, we have changed that self study to still say that they have to do it, but we allow them to come up with their own plan, if they wish to use their own plan instead of going through the accreditation process of the SPI. We felt that even with the accreditation process that they could develop their own plan and we spelled it out, specifically, for them that they can do that.

"Now, as far as taking an official position, I don't know if they have or not. We have talked to some individual school board members and talked to some individuals in the Association and they have told us privately, anyway, that they can now support this, but they haven't taken any official position, so I can't speak as to how the Association will react to this section. The other section they had concerns about was the section that encouraged local districts to have both monetary and nonmonetary incentives for teachers and that has been changed dramatically. Basically, what we are saying now is that school districts may provide monetary incentives in the form of compensation for staff for additional work or assigned projects and if you look at what that is telling us, basically, it's no different than what school districts are doing right now. When they require additional work, they pay additional money, so this section has been amended to say that if there is additional work you can get additional money.

"Those are the two main concerns that I can recall, anyway, that the school directors and administrators were concerned about. Whether or not they have changed their official position, I am not sure, but talking with individuals they seemed to be much more receptive with what we're doing now."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 13; absent, 00; excused, 06.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, McCaslin, Patterson, Sellar - 13.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Metcalf, Newhouse, Pullen, Quigg, von Reichbauer - 6.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1660, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Honorable John Cherberg
President, Washington State Senate
Legislative Building
Olympia, Washington 98504

Dear Sir:

The Senate Journal recorded my vote as being in support of the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill 1660 on February 25, 1984. I was opposed to this legislation and spoke of its detrimental fiscal and policy impacts on the Senate floor during consideration of amendments to the bill on the same day as final passage. The contents of this omnibus education bill encompassed spending procedures, program expansions, and granting unnecessary new authorities I have consistently opposed.

My intention was to vote against Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill 1660 when considered for final passage. Circumstances drew me off the Senate floor while the roll was originally being read on final passage of the bill. I returned as the roll was being re-read and my vote recorded.

Although the President Pro-Tempore announced my vote as in favor of the passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660, I request this statement of my opposition to the passage of this bill be incorporated into the edited Senate Journal for the 1984 session.

Your prompt consideration of my request is appreciated.

Sincerely,
Dan McDonald
State Senator, 48th Legislative District

(Editor's Note--The tape of the proceedings of the roll call vote on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660 indicates that President Pro Tempore Goltz repeated that Senator McDonald voted 'aye'.)

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1178, by Committee on Social and Health Services
(originally sponsored by Representatives Kreidler, Lewis, Wang and B. Williams)

Regulating health and health-related professions and businesses.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McManus, the following Committee on Social and Health Services amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 33, after line 32, insert the following:

"Sec.

65. Section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

((On or after July 1, 1970)) Nursing homes operating within this state must be under the active, overall administrative charge and supervision of an administrator licensed as provided in this chapter. An administrator may delegate functions and duties to other persons. No person acting in any capacity, unless he is the holder of a nursing home administrator's license issued under this chapter, shall be charged with the overall responsibility to make decisions or direct actions involved in managing the internal operation of a nursing home, except as specifically delegated in writing by the administrator to identify a responsible person to act on the administrator's behalf when the administrator is absent during the administrator's normal working hours. The administrator shall review the decisions upon the administrator's return and amend the decisions if necessary. Nothing in this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter applies to a sanatorium or nursing home operated, or listed and certified, by any well-established and generally recognized church or religious denomination which teaches religious or spiritual means alone for healing through prayer.

Sec.

66. Section 7, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 243, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the director's receipt of an application and examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, and completed application forms provided by the director, a nursing home administrator's license shall be issued to any person who:

(1) Is at least twenty-one years of age and of good moral character.

(2) Has presented evidence satisfactory to the board of practical experience, education, and training which, when evaluated according to criteria developed by the board, is equivalent to two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home: PROVIDED, That after January 1, 1980, no license shall be issued to any applicant unless such applicant has either successfully completed at least two years of formal education beyond the high school level or holds an associate degree from a recognized institution of higher learning: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the educational degree required by this subsection may be waived for individuals who present evidence satisfactory to the board of sufficient practical experience.

(3) Has passed an examination administered by the board which shall be designed to test the candidate's competence to administer a nursing home on the basis of the candidate's formal (instruction) education and training or actual experience: PROVIDED HOWEVER: That nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations thereunder shall be construed to require an applicant for a license or provisional license as a nursing home administrator who is certified by any well-established and generally recognized church or religious denomination which teaches reliance on spiritual means alone for healing as having been approved to administer institutions certified by such church or denomination for the care and treatment of the sick in accordance with its teachings, to demonstrate proficiency in any medical techniques or to meet any medical educational qualifications or medical standards not in accord with the medical care and treatment provided in such institutions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any such individual shall demonstrate in the process of application for the examination his membership in such church or religious denomination and his license shall indicate the limited extent of his authority to act as an administrator).
(4) The initial administrator members of the board shall be selected and appointed by the governor to meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and RCW 18.52.040 and 18.52.050. The three nonadministrator members of the first board shall administer to the initial administrator members an appropriate examination, and the initial administrator members shall thereafter be issued their licenses under this chapter as nursing home administrators. The three nonadministrator members of the first board may exercise the powers of the board to carry out licensing of the initial administrator members, regardless of the normal quorum or procedural requirements for board action. The licensing of the initial administrator members of the first board shall be carried out within thirty days after appointment of the board, and in all events prior to April 1, 1970.

Sec. 67. Section 7, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2 of this act and RCW 18.52.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the director's receipt of an application and examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, and completed application forms provided by the director, a nursing home administrator's license shall be issued to any person who:

(1) Is at least twenty-one years of age and of good moral character.

(2) Has presented evidence satisfactory to the board of practical experience, education, and training which, when evaluated according to criteria developed by the board, is equivalent to two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home: PROVIDED, That after January 1, 1987, no license shall be issued to any new applicant unless such applicant has either successfully completed at least four years of formal education beyond the high school level or holds an associate degree from a recognized institution of higher learning: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the educational degree required by this subsection may be waived for individuals who present evidence satisfactory to the board of sufficient practical experience.

(3) Has passed an examination administered by the board which shall be designed to test the candidate's competence to administer a nursing home on the basis of the candidate's formal education and training or actual experience.

(4) The initial administrator members of the board shall be selected and appointed by the governor to meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and RCW 18.52.040 and 18.52.050. The three nonadministrator members of the first board shall administer to the initial administrator members an appropriate examination, and the initial administrator members shall thereafter be issued their licenses under this chapter as nursing home administrators. The three nonadministrator members of the first board may exercise the powers of the board to carry out licensing of the initial administrator members, regardless of the normal quorum or procedural requirements for board action. The licensing of the initial administrator members of the first board shall be carried out within thirty days after appointment of the board, and in all events prior to April 1, 1970.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Section 67 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1987.

Sec. 69. Section 9, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall have the administrative duty and responsibility to:

(1) Issue nursing home administrator's licenses to individuals who meet the licensing requirements of RCW 18.52.070 (and 18.52.086); (and 18.52.086); (and 18.52.086);

(2) Investigate complaints against nursing home administrators, and upon order of the board reprimand any licensee, or revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to reregister the license of any licensee or applicant who fails to meet the applicable requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 70. Section 11, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 54, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every holder of a nursing home administrator's license shall reregister it annually with the director on dates specified by the director by making application for reregistration on forms provided by the director. Such reregistration shall be granted automatically upon receipt of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. In the event that any license is not reregistered within thirty days after the date for reregistration specified by the director, the director shall, in accordance with rules prescribed by the board, give notice to the license holder, and may thereafter in accordance with rules prescribed by the board charge up to double the normal reregistration fee. In the event that the license of an individual is not reregistered within three years from the most recent date for reregistration it shall lapse and such individual must again apply for licensing and meet all requirements of this chapter for a new applicant. The board may prescribe rules for maintenance of a license at a reduced fee for temporary or permanent withdrawal or retirement from the active practice of nursing home administration.

(2) A condition of reregistration shall be the presentation of proof by the applicant that he has attended the number of classroom hours of approved educational programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings set by the board. The board shall have the power to approve programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings offered in this state or elsewhere by any accredited institution of higher learning or any national or local group or society if such programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings are reasonably related to the administration of nursing homes. The board shall establish rules and regulations providing that the applicant for reregistration may present such proofs yearly, or may obtain the cumulative number of required hours over a three year period and present such proofs over periods of three years. In no event shall the number of classroom hours required for any time period exceed the number of such board approved classroom hours reasonably available over such time period on an adult or continuing education basis to nonmatriculating participants in this state.

3 An individual may obtain and reregister a license under this chapter although he does not actively engage in nursing home administration. The licensee shall meet requirements set by the board to ensure the individual's continued competency.

Sec. 71. Section 12, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 243, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The director, after any notice and hearing before the board which may be required by law, and upon the order of the board, shall, subject to any deferral or condition ordered, refuse to reregister or shall suspend or revoke an administrator's license, or issue a reprimand as directed by the board, as provided in this chapter when proof has been submitted to the board that:

1 The licensee has committed any fraud or material misrepresentation or concealment in obtaining or maintaining the license.

2 The license was obtained due to the mistake or inadvertence of the board or the director.

3 The licensee has (knowingly or) repeatedly violated any of the provisions of this chapter or of the rules promulgated by the board in accordance with this chapter or authorized or directed another so to act.

4 The licensee has (knowingly or) repeatedly violated rules promulgated by the department of social and health services or the state board of health concerning patient care in a manner demonstrating a substantial disregard for patient health and safety.

5 The licensee is unable to administer a nursing home with due regard for patient health and safety by reason of habitual, intemperate use of alcohol, controlled substances, or other chemicals or materials; or the licensee is similarly incapacitated by mental illness, insanity, mental disorder, or some other condition (or situation requiring entry of an order for a guardianship; and such mental status or the need of a guardianship has been determined to exist by a court of competent jurisdiction; PROVIDED, that the board, when considering cases under this subsection, shall endeavor to encourage the recovery and rehabilitation of the administrator and the maintenance of the administrator's livelihood; but always subject to the primary objective of protecting patient health and safety) which creates an undue risk that the person would cause harm to other persons by being a nursing home administrator.

6 The licensee has committed any (acts which, whether or not criminal prosecutions occur, constitute fraud, forgery, wrongful obtaining of funds, theft, larceny by trick, scheme or device, assault in the first, second or third degree, bribery or corrupt influence, or solicitation or conspiracy to commit any of said offenses; PROVIDED, that if some form of intent is required to render any such acts criminal, such intent shall also be required to permit action against the licensee under this subsection, and liability under this subsection may be determined pursuant to the principles of liability set forth in RCW 9A.08.020) act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, committed in the course of his or her duties as a nursing home administrator, whether or not the act constitutes a crime.

7 The licensee has been (grossly) negligent or has committed (gross) misconduct in the administration of a nursing home.

8 The licensee has participated in or has offered or agreed to participate in, any arrangement whereby any payment or rebate is given to any party in return for the referral of a patient to the facility the licensee administers, or for referral by such licensee of a patient to any party for rendition of professional services to such patient.

9 The licensee or applicant has previously been refused a license as an administrator or had renewal thereof refused, or has had such a license suspended or revoked by any competent state, federal, or foreign authority: PROVIDED, that a suspension, revocation, refusal to issue or refusal to reregister a license under this subsection must be based upon a showing in the record of such previous proceedings which would constitute a proper basis for the action proposed under the provisions of this chapter, and the licensee or applicant shall, on request, have the opportunity to challenge the fairness of the previous proceedings or the correctness of the factual determinations involved.

Administrators whose licenses have been revoked, or to whom reregistration has been refused, may, on subsequent application be licensed, relicensed, or reregistered, according to such rules or regulations as may be prescribed by the board and according to standards prescribed by the board. Suspended licenses are automatically in force at the expiration of the period of suspension specified in the board's order, but must be reregistered in the normal course if they expire during the period of suspension.

Sec. 72. Section 17, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.160 are each amended to read as follows:
((On or before March 15, 1979 the governor shall establish the first board which shall immediately meet for organizational purposes and shall thereafter)) The board shall meet as often as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the board under this chapter. ((The first examinations shall be administered and regular and provisional licenses shall be issued under this chapter prior to July 1, 1970. Thereafter)) Examinations shall be administered at intervals not less than semiannually and at such times and places as may be determined by the board. There shall not be a limit upon the number of times a candidate may take the required examination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. There is added to chapter 18.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Members of the board and the board's staff shall be immune from liability in any suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon their duties or other official acts performed in good faith as members or staff of the board, when the action is being brought by or on behalf of the person who is being evaluated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. Section 8, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., section 53, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.080 are each repealed.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 3, line 26, after "RCW" insert "unless a disciplinary committee is established under chapter 18.83 RCW."

On page 4, after line 17, insert the following:

"(x) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18._ RCW (chapter (SB 3074), Laws of 1984);"

Renumber the subsections consecutively.

On page 4, after line 17, insert the following:

"(x) The state board of social work examiners as established in chapter 18._ RCW (chapter (SB 3838), Laws of 1984);"

Renumber the subsections consecutively.

On page 8, line 5, after "violation" insert "of section 18 of this act".

On page 12, line 33, alter "not:" Insert "The disciplinary authority shall define by rule acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession."

On page 14, beginning on line 5, strike all material down to and including line 6

On page 33, line 28, strike "includes" and insert "are limited to."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 27, beginning on line 14, strike all material down to and including line 2 on page 28

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 33, after line 34, insert the following:

"Sec. 66. Section 1, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 67, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.83.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When used in this chapter:

(1) The "practice of psychology" means the application of established principles of learning, motivation, perception, thinking and emotional relationships to problems of evaluation, group relations and behavior adjustment, including but not limited to: (a) counseling and guidance; (b) use of psychotherapeutic techniques with clients who have adjustment problems in the family, at school, at work or in interpersonal relationships; (c) measuring and testing of personality, intelligence, aptitudes, emotions, public opinion, attitudes and skills.

This definition does not include the teaching of principles of psychology for accredited educational institutions, or the conduct of research in problems of human or animal behavior.

Nothing in this definition shall be construed as permitting the administration or prescribing of drugs or in any way infringing upon the practice of medicine and surgery as defined in chapter 18.71 RCW.

(2) "Director" means director of licensing.

(3) "Board" means the ((board of psychologist examiners created by this chapter)) examining board of psychology.

(4) "Committee" means the disciplinary committee established by the board.

(5) "Department" means the department of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is created the examining board of psychology which shall examine the qualifications of applicants for licensing. The board shall consist of seven psychologists and two public members, all appointed by the governor. The public members shall not be and have never been psychologists or in training to be psychologists; they may not have any household member who is a psychologist or in training to be a psychologist; they may not participate or ever have participated in a commercial or professional field related to psychology, nor have a household member who has so participated; and they may not have had within two years before appointment a substantial financial interest in a person regulated by the board. Each psychologist member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States who has actively practiced psychology in the state of Washington for at least three years immediately preceding appointment and who is licensed under this chapter. Each member of the board shall serve for a term of five years. The members of the first board appointed after the effective date of this act shall determine by lot psychologist members to serve for five, four, and three year terms to stagger the terms. With members of the board existing on the effective date of this act serving the shorter terms. Public members of the first board appointed after the effective date of this act shall choose one to serve for five years and one to serve for four years. Upon the death, resignation, or removal of a member, the governor shall appoint a successor to serve for the unexpired term. The board shall elect one of its members to serve as chairperson.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The board shall meet at least once each year and at such other times as the board deems appropriate to properly discharge its duties. All meetings shall be held in Olympia, Washington, or such other places as may be designated by the director. Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum. The board shall determine the subject matter and scope of the examinations and shall forward to the director the names of applicants so eligible.

(((2)) Prepare, give and grade such examinations to applicants as are required by the terms of this chapter. The board shall determine the scope and length of such examinations, and what score shall be deemed a passing score. Such examination shall be oral and written. The board may designate one or more of its members to personally supervise the taking of the examinations by applicants))

(3) The board shall administer examinations to qualified applicants on at least an annual basis. The board shall determine the subject matter and scope of the examinations and shall require both written and oral examinations of each applicant, except as provided in RCW 18.83.170. The board may allow applicants to take the written examination upon the granting of their doctoral degree before completion of their internship for supervised experience.

(4) The board shall keep a complete record of its own proceedings. of the questions given in examinations, of the names and qualifications of all applicants, and the names and addresses of all licensed psychologists. The examination paper of such applicant shall be kept on file for a period of at least one year after examination.

(5) The board shall, by rule, adopt a code of ethics for psychologists which is designed to protect the public interest.

(6) The board shall create a disciplinary committee within the board for the purposes of hearing, examining, and ruling on complaints and evidence of unethical conduct or practices brought by the public, other psychologists, organizations, corporations, public or private agencies, or officers, agents, or instrumentalities of state, county, or local governments.

Sec. 69. Section 5, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 5, chapter 70. Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((1) The board shall adopt such rules as it deems necessary to carry out its functions.
(2) The board shall examine the qualifications of applicants for licensing under this chapter, to determine which applicants are eligible for licensing hereunder and shall forward to the director the names of applicants so eligible.

(((2)) Prepare, give and grade such examinations to applicants as are required by the terms of this chapter. The board shall determine the scope and length of such examinations, and what score shall be deemed a passing score. Such examination shall be oral and written. The board may designate one or more of its members to personally supervise the taking of the examinations by applicants))

(3) The board shall administer examinations to qualified applicants on at least an annual basis. The board shall determine the subject matter and scope of the examinations and shall require both written and oral examinations of each applicant, except as provided in RCW 18.83.170. The board may allow applicants to take the written examination upon the granting of their doctoral degree before completion of their internship for supervised experience.

(4) The board shall keep a complete record of its own proceedings. of the questions given in examinations, of the names and qualifications of all applicants, and the names and addresses of all licensed psychologists. The examination paper of such applicant shall be kept on file for a period of at least one year after examination.

meets the requirements of ((subsections (1) and (2) of)) RCW 18.83.070 (1), (2), and (3), shall constitute a temporary permit to practice psychology until the board ((of examiners)) completes action on the application. The board must complete action within one year of the date such receipt is issued.
(4) A person, not licensed in this state, who wishes to perform practices under the provisions of this chapter for a period not to exceed ninety days within a calendar year, must petition the board for a temporary permit to perform such practices. If the person is licensed or certified in another state deemed by the board to have standards equivalent to this chapter, a permit may be issued. No fee shall be charged for such temporary permit.

Sec. 74. Section 9. chapter 305. Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1. chapter 58.
Laws of 1977 and RCW 18.83.090 are each amended to read as follows:

((Each licensed psychologist shall pay to the state treasurer on or before the tenth day of January of each year, an annual license renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended.)) The board shall establish rules governing mandatory continuing education requirements which shall be met by any psychologist applying for a license renewal. Each licensed psychologist shall pay to the health professions account, created in RCW 43.24.072, annually, at such time as determined by the board, an annual license renewal fee determined by the director under RCW 43.24.086. Upon receipt of the fee, the director shall issue a certificate of renewal in such form as the director shall determine.

Sec. 75. Section 13. chapter 305. Laws of 1955 as amended by section 12. chapter 70. Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(13) Failure to abide by the terms of corrective actions directed under RCW 18.83.150.

(14) Violation of any board rule fixing a standard of professional conduct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The disciplinary committee shall meet at least once each year or upon the call of the chairperson at such time and place as the chairperson designates. A quorum for transaction of any business shall consist of five members, including at least one public member.

The members of the disciplinary committee shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon its disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the committee.

The committee shall have the following authority:

(1) To order investigation of all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct as defined in this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter:
(2) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(3) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(4) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;

(5) In the course of investigating a complaint of unprofessional conduct, to conduct practice reviews;

(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending proceedings by the committee;

(7) To use the office of administrative hearings as authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings; however, the disciplining authority shall make the final decision regarding disposition of the license;

(8) To use consultants or individual members of the board to assist in the direction of investigations and issuance of statements of charges; however, the member of the board shall not subsequently participate in the hearing of the case;

(9) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(10) To contract with licensees or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensees who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to monitoring by the committee;

(11) To grant or deny license application, and in the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;

(12) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement not to violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action;

(13) To maintain records of all activities, and to publish and distribute to all psychologists at least once each year abstracts of significant activities of the committee;

(14) To obtain the written consent of the complaining client or patient or their legal representative, or of any person who may be affected by the complaint, in order to obtain information which otherwise might be confidential or privileged;

(15) To report, when appropriate, statements of complaints and disposition of cases processed by the committee to:

(a) The person or agency initiating the action;

(b) Appropriate national and state organizations which represent the profession of psychology, including counterpart licensing boards in other states; and

(c) The public.

This subsection does not require the reporting of any information which is exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW or is otherwise privileged or confidential.

The committee has, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in this chapter, all of the powers and duties under chapter 34.04 RCW, which include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director has the following authority:

(1) To hire such investigative, administrative, and clerical staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter;

(2) To establish fees to be paid for witnesses, expert witnesses, and consultants used in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding, and to reimburse the individuals for services provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The disciplinary committee may take any of the following actions as a result of investigation of a complaint and the ensuing hearing:

(1) Revocation of the license.

(2) Suspension of the license for a fixed term.

(3) Restriction or limitation upon the licensee's practice.

(4) Establishment of a requirement that a licensee complete a specified program of continuing education or reeducation.

(5) Monitoring of the licensee's practice by a licensed psychologist or other person or organization appointed by the committee.

(6) Censure or reprimand.

(7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time.

(8) Any combination of the foregoing, which may be partly or totally stayed.

(9) Dismissal of the complaint and exoneration of the licensee.
(10) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account.

(11) Denial of the license request.

(12) Corrective action by the license holder.

(13) Refund of fees charged to the consumer by the license holder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The committee shall report to appropriate national and state organizations which represent the profession of psychology any action taken pursuant to an investigation or hearing that finds a licensee has committed unprofessional or unethical conduct.

In the event of an order for revocation or suspension of a psychology license, or for restriction or limitation of a licensee's practice, the committee shall report such action to the public. This public notification shall be suspended for thirty days from date of filing of any appeal.

If the committee finds that a complaint against a licensee is not substantiated, or if there is no finding of unprofessional or unethical conduct, resulting in dismissal of the complaint and exoneration of the licensee, the committee shall attempt to relieve the licensee of any possible odium that may attach by reason of the complaint by such public exoneration as is necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any portion or all of the costs associated with providing a psychologist or other person or organization for monitoring the conditions of probation or of the licensee's compliance with the terms of the committee's decision and order may be assessed by the committee against the licensee, in which event payment of such costs and expenses shall become a legal obligation of the licensee to the department of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. There is added to chapter 18.83 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Orders of the board may be appealed as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. An order, if appealed, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the committee or the court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the committee, which stay shall provide terms necessary to protect the public.

Sec. 83. Section 17, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 76, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.83.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon application accompanied by a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW (43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended) 43.24.086, the board may ((recommend and the direct) grant a license, without written (oral) examination, to any applicant who has not previously failed any examination held by the board of psychology of the state of Washington and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that ((he)) the applicant:

1. Holds a doctoral degree with primary emphasis on psychology from an accredited college or university; and

2. Is licensed or certified to practice psychology in another state or country in which the requirements for such licensing or certification are, in the judgment of the board, essentially equivalent to those required by this chapter and the rules and regulations of the board. Such individuals must have been licensed or certified in another state for a period of at least two years; or

3. Is a ((diplomat)) diplomat in good standing of the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 84. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

2. Section 4, chapter 305, Laws of 1955, section 4, chapter 70, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.040;

3. Section 14, chapter 305, Laws of 1955, section 14, chapter 70, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.140;

4. Section 15, chapter 305, Laws of 1955, section 15, chapter 70, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.150; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 85. There is added to chapter 43.131 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The powers and duties of the board of psychologists examiners shall be terminated on June 30, 1986.*

Renumber the sections consecutively.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 33, after line 34, insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. It is the intent and purpose of this chapter to protect the public by setting standards of qualification, education, training, and experience, by promoting high standards of professional performance, by requiring professional accountability, and by requiring the licensing of those persons who seek to provide licensed social work practice under the title of licensed social worker.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the state board of social work examiners.

(2) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(3) "Chair" means the elected chair of the state board of social work examiners.

(4) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(5) "Licensed social worker" means an individual who has a doctorate or master's degree in social work from an accredited graduate school of social work which is approved by the board and who has obtained a license as provided in this chapter.

(6) "Licensed social work practice" consists of the professional application of social work values, principles, and methods by individuals trained in accredited social work programs. Licensed social work practice includes clinical social work treatment and nonclinical social services delivered to individuals, families, or groups in various public or private settings, either autonomously or under supervision. It requires adherence to the social work code of ethics. "Licensed social work practice" also includes the activities of licensed social workers in policy, planning, administration, research, and education directed toward client services.

(7) "An accredited social work program" is a program whose curriculum has been evaluated and certified by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Within ninety days of the effective date of this act, the governor shall appoint a state board of social work examiners composed of five members, one member initially appointed for a term of one year, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of three years. Thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of three years. No person may serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

The governor may remove any member from the board for neglect of duty required by law, for incompetency, or for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct. In the case of a vacancy, the governor shall appoint a person to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. (1) Members of the board shall be residents of this state. The board shall include:

(a) Four persons qualified under sections 74, 75, and 76 of this act; and

(b) One person who is a member of the public.

(2) Except for the public member, the initial members of the board shall be presumed to be eligible for licensing and, after licensing is established, shall be licensed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. (1) The board has the following duties:

(a) To set educational, ethical, and professional standards for practice under this chapter.

(b) To prepare and administer or cause to be prepared and administered a written examination in subjects determined by the board to all qualified applicants for licensure under this chapter.

(c) To establish criteria for evaluating the ability and qualifications of persons applying for a license under this chapter, including standards for passing the examination and standards of qualification for licensed social work practice.

(d) To set fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086.

(2) The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. The board shall meet at the times and places designated by the chair of the board and shall hold meetings during the year as necessary to transact business. At the board's organizational meeting, the board shall elect a chair and a secretary from among the members of the board.

Each member of the board shall be reimbursed for actual travel expenses necessarily incurred while actually engaged in the services of the board as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. In addition, members of the board shall be paid fifty dollars per day when engaged in the business of the board.

The department shall furnish to the board secretarial, clerical, and other assistance as is necessary to effectively administer this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. After the implementation of the licensing provisions of this chapter, it is a misdemeanor and also grounds for refusal to issue or renew a license:

(1) For any person who does not have a license under this chapter to use a title or description of himself or herself which incorporates the term "licensed social worker" and, under that title or description, and for remuneration in any form, renders or offers to render service as a licensed social worker to any individual, group, corporation, governmental agency, or the public;

(2) For any person licensed under this chapter to render or offer to render licensed social work practice to any individual, group, corporation, governmental agency, or to the public in violation of the restrictions or conditions of the license, or during any period of a license suspension or revocation;
(3) For any person to obtain fraudulently a diploma, license, or record of a doctorate or master's degree of graduation as a social worker;

(4) For any person to knowingly make a false statement in connection with an application under this chapter;

(5) For any person to use in connection with the person's name any designation or initials tending to falsely imply that the person is licensed under this chapter;

(6) For any person to otherwise knowingly violate the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. The director may, by proceedings instituted by the attorney general, enjoin any person from practicing as a licensed social worker or from holding himself or herself out as a "licensed social worker" in violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. An applicant for a license to practice under this chapter shall submit to the department a written application on a form to be determined by the director with the approval of the board, together with the documentary evidence required to establish the applicant's educational attainment, and other documentation that the board determines is necessary. The applicant shall take any examination or examinations required under this chapter.

Upon approval of the application by the board and payment of the fee under section 75 of this act, the department shall issue the applicant a license.

The department shall not permit access to or use of its mailing list of licensees for commercial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. Pursuant to RCW 43.24.086 the director shall determine the amount of any fee to be charged to applicants for a license. The fees shall be sufficient to defray all the costs of the department and board in administering this chapter. The applicant shall transmit the fee to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The director shall set fees for applications, licenses, renewal of licenses, duplicate licenses, late renewal penalty, examination fees, and temporary licenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. Qualifications for the license of a social worker are:

(1) A minimum of a master's degree from an accredited graduate school of social work which is approved by the board;

(2) A minimum of two years of post-master's degree social work practice under the supervision of a licensed social worker under this chapter or a person deemed acceptable to the board, such experience consisting of at least thirty hours per week for two years or at least twenty hours per week for three years; and

(3) Successful completion of the examination identified in section 70(1) of this act, unless the applicant qualifies under an exemption in sections 77 or 78 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. Upon receiving a written application, evidence of qualification, and the required fee, the director may, with the approval of the board, issue a license to practice without examination to an applicant who is currently licensed as a social worker under the laws of another state, territory, or foreign country so long as the requirements of the other jurisdiction are substantially similar to the requirements in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. Except as provided in section 80 of this act, an applicant shall be exempt from the examination provisions of this chapter under the following conditions if application for exemption is made within twelve months after the effective date of this act:

(1) The applicant shall establish to the satisfaction of the board that he or she has been engaged in the practice of social work as defined in section 67 (5) through (7) of this act for two of the previous four years; and

(2) The applicant has the following academic qualifications: (a) A doctorate or master's degree in social work from an accredited graduate school of social work; and (b) two years of postgraduate social work experience under the supervision of a social worker who qualifies for licensing under this chapter or under the supervision of any other professional deemed appropriate by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. A license issued under this chapter shall be renewed annually in the month of the licensee's date of birth. The board may establish rules governing mandatory continuing education requirements which shall be met by a licensed social worker applying for license renewal. A licensee who allows the license to lapse by failing to renew prior to the expiration date shall, upon application for renewal, pay an additional fee as set by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. A person licensed under this chapter who is or desires to be temporarily retired from the practice of social work in this state shall send written notice to the director. Upon receipt of the notice, the person shall be placed upon the nonpracticing list. While on the list, the person is not required to pay the renewal fees and shall not engage in the practice of social work in the state. In order to resume practice under this chapter, application for renewal shall be made in the ordinary course with the renewal fee for the current period. Persons in a nonpracticing status for a period exceeding five years shall provide evidence of current knowledge or skill by examination, as the board may direct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. (1) Subject to chapter 34.04 RCW, the board may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license to any person if the board finds that:
(a) The person has procured or attempted to procure the license by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;
(b) The person's ability to perform the functions for which the person is licensed is substantially impaired by reason of physical or mental disability;
(c) The person has been grossly negligent in the practice of social work;
(d) The person has been convicted of a felony;
(e) The person has wilfully violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rules adopted under this chapter, including rules or standards of ethical conduct.

(2) As used in this chapter, unethical social work practice includes:
(a) Sexual activity between any licensed social worker and client;
(b) Unfair or deceptive business practices;
(c) Wilful action or communication that misleads a client or furnishes a client with information known to be erroneous;
(d) Failure to provide clients with accurate and complete information and reports;
(e) Failure to refer clients to an appropriate professional when services needed are beyond the competency of the licensed social worker;
(f) Failure to respond within thirty days to the board regarding any investigation about the licensed social worker's conduct.

(3) The board may reinstate or renew a license previously revoked, suspended, or rejected for renewal under this section. Application for reinstatement or renewal shall be made in the manner and under the conditions provided by the board.

(4) The private activities of persons licensed under this chapter shall not furnish grounds for disciplinary action unless the actions materially affect the licensee's professional services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. This chapter does not prohibit:

(1) The practice of social work by students attending a school of social work approved by the board of social work examiners during an internship approved by that school, or other training approved by the board. Students enrolled in recognized programs of study leading to social work degrees may practice only under supervision of professionals deemed appropriate by the board;
(2) The offering of counseling or guidance by any other profession or calling, licensed under state law, or under standards of that profession, if the individual or group of individuals offering the counseling or guidance does not hold themselves out to the public by title as a licensed social worker;
(3) The delivery of social services by a person employed by the federal or state government or a political subdivision of the state;
(4) The performance of teaching;
(5) The rendering of social services if the title or description "licensed social worker" is not used by the person or persons rendering the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83. A person licensed under this chapter shall not disclose any information the licensee may have acquired from persons consulting the licensee in a professional capacity that was necessary to enable the licensee to render services in the licensee's professional capacity to those persons except:

(1) With the written consent of that person or, in the case of death or disability, the person's own personal representative, other person authorized to sue, or the beneficiary of an insurance policy on the person's life, health, or physical condition;
(2) That a person licensed under this chapter is not required to treat as confidential a communication that reveals the contemplation or commission of a crime or harmful act;
(3) If the person is a minor, and the information acquired by the licensee indicates that the minor was the victim or subject of a crime, in which case the licensee may testify fully in relation thereto upon any examination, trial, or other proceeding in which the commission of the crime is the subject of the inquiry;
(4) If the person waives the privilege by bringing charges against the licensee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 84. This chapter shall not be construed as permitting the administration or prescription of drugs or in any way infringing upon the practice of medicine and surgery as defined in chapter 18.71 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 85. Sections 66 through 84 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 86. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of licensing for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of one hundred twenty-six thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 66 through 84 of this act."

Renumber the remaining section and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Haley: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of scope and object on the amendment. The substance of the bill does not really include licensing a brand new health provider organization. It simply lays out the process of disciplinary boards and other structures under the Department of Licensing, but does not embrace a brand new licensure act, which should be a separate act.”

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: “In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Haley, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1178 is a measure which deals with the regulation of health and health-related professions that are currently licensed by the State of Washington.

“The amendment proposed by Senator McManus establishes a new license for social workers. While there is a reference to the State Board of Social Work Examiners in the Committee amendment adopted by the Senate, that reference is only effective if a separate licensing bill for social workers is enacted.

“The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken.”

The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 34, insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. It is the intent and purpose of this chapter to protect the public by setting standards of qualification, education, training, and experience, by promoting high standards of professional performance, by requiring professional accountability, and by requiring the licensing of those persons who seek to provide licensed mental health counseling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) “Licensed mental health counselor” means a person with a masters or doctoral degree in counseling from an accredited graduate school. A degree in counseling must show evidence of the following coursework: (a) Counseling theory; and (b) supervised counseling practicum, plus six of the following: (i) Human growth and development; (ii) social and cultural foundations; (iii) human communications; (iv) group dynamics, processing, and counseling; (v) lifestyle and career development; (vi) psychological testing; (vii) research and evaluation; or (viii) professional ethics and law.

(2) The practice of a licensed mental health counselor is the rendering of counseling services to individuals or groups for the purpose of helping to achieve effective interpersonal development.

(3) Licensed therapeutic procedures means engaging in methods and techniques that include but are not restricted to:

(a) “Counseling,” which means assisting individuals and groups in achieving more effective personal, social, educational, and career development and adjustment using eclectic methods and techniques in accordance to therapeutic training.

(b) “Appraisal,” which means selecting, administering, scoring, and interpreting instruments designed to assess an individual’s aptitudes, attitudes, abilities, achievement, interests, and personal characteristics.

(c) “Consulting,” which means the application of therapeutic principles and procedures in counseling, guidance, and human development to provide assistance in understanding and solving some current or potential problem that the counselee may have in relation to a third party, group, or organization.

(d) “Referral,” which means the evaluation of information to identify needs or problems of the counselee in order to determine the advisability of referral to other specialists, informing the person of such judgment, and communicating as deemed appropriate to the referral sources.

(4) “Supervision” means that the counselor has participated in individual or group training for a period of two years with a person deemed knowledgeable by the board. Group participation of supervision can not include more than eight supervisees. One year of group supervision and one year of individual supervision is permissible, based on a weekly or biweekly schedule. No more than two supervisors can be used during the two-year supervisory period in order to provide for consistent learning.

(5) “Board” means the state board of examiners for mental health counseling.

(6) “Director” means the director of licensing.

(7) “Department” means the department of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Within ninety days of the effective date of this act, the governor shall appoint a state board of examiners for mental health counseling composed of seven members, consisting of six members trained in the practice of mental health counseling and one public member. The members of the board must be presumed to be eligible for licensing and after licensing is established must be licensed under this chapter. Initially, three members shall be appointed for a term of one year, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of three years. Thereafter, appointments shall be for terms of three years. No person may serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

The governor may remove any member from the board for neglect of duty required by law, for incompetency, or for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct. In the case of a vacancy, the governor shall appoint a person to serve the remainder of the unexpired term. Members of the board shall be residents of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. (1) The board has the following duties:
   (a) To set educational, ethical, and professional standards for practice under this chapter;
   (b) To prepare and administer or cause to be prepared and administered a written, oral, or presentation examination in subjects determined by the board to qualified applicants for licensure under this chapter;
   (c) To establish criteria for evaluating the ability and qualifications of persons applying for a license under this chapter, including standards for passing the examination and standards of qualification for the practice of a licensed mental health counselor. The board shall direct the director to issue a license to those persons found qualified;
   (d) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine if unprofessional conduct has been committed;
   (e) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;
   (f) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary hearing;
   (g) To investigate complaints or reports of malpractice and unsafe conditions and practices, to analyze equipment, procedures, and training in such cases, and to direct corrective action;
   (h) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of the license of a mental health counselor or limiting a mental health counselor's practice pending proceedings by the board as authorized by RCW 34.04.170;
   (i) To appoint a hearing officer to conduct hearings subject to final determination by the board;
   (j) To enter into contracts for professional services determined by the board to be necessary;
   (k) To contract with licensed mental health counselors or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensed mental health counselors who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to being monitored by the board; and
   (l) To set continuing education requirements.
   (2) The board shall adopt such rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as are necessary to carry out this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. The board shall meet at the time and places designated by the chair of the board and shall hold meetings during the year as necessary to transact business. At the board's organizational meeting, the board shall elect a chair and a secretary from the members of the board.

Members of the board shall be reimbursed for actual travel expenses necessarily incurred while actually engaged in the services of the board as provided by RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. In addition, members of the board shall be paid fifty dollars per day when engaged in the business of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. A license shall not be denied, revoked, or suspended without prior notice and the opportunity for hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. The board may waive formal examination requirements of an applicant if the applicant is licensed to practice mental health counseling by a similar board in another state and the requirements for licensure in the other state are substantially similar to the requirements in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. (1) A license to practice mental health counseling will be granted upon completion to the following qualifications:
   (a) A masters or doctoral degree in counseling showing evidence of work as prescribed in section 67 of this act;
   (b) Two-year postgraduate experience in the field of counseling under the supervision of a licensed mental health counselor, psychologist, or psychiatrist, provided that the supervisory person is not a blood or legal relative;
   (c) Qualification by written, oral, or presentation examination and submission of all necessary documents and payment of required fees.
   (2) No mental health counselor may come before the board for examination without the initial educational and supervisory credentials as is required in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. An applicant is exempt from the examination provisions of this chapter under the following conditions if application for exemption is made within twelve months after the effective date of this act:
(1) The applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant has been engaged in the practice of counseling as defined in section 86 of this act for two of the previous four years; and

(2) The applicant has the academic qualifications required under section 67 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. The following acts are prohibited and are grounds for suspension or revocation of a license under this chapter:

(1) The use of the title licensed mental health counselor by a person not licensed under this chapter.

(2) Sexual activity between licensee and client while seeking or receiving counseling or between a trainee and a mental health counselor who is sponsoring and supervising the trainee, not including a spousal relationship.

(3) Divulging confidential information gathered by the licensee without the permission of the client unless release of the information is required by law.

(4) Failure to refer any person seeking or receiving professional counseling to an appropriate professional if the services needed are beyond the competency of the licensee as determined by the licensee's training and experience.

(5) The procurement of a license by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

(6) Inability to perform the functions for which the person is licensed because of physical impediment.

(7) Conviction of a felony, subject to section 77 of this act.

(8) Unfair or deceptive business practices.

(9) Failure to report information required by law.

(10) Wilful action or communication that misleads a client or furnishes a client with information known to be erroneous.

(11) Failure to respond within thirty days to the board regarding any investigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. A person who violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. The private activities of persons licensed under this chapter do not furnish grounds for disciplinary action unless the actions materially affect the licensee's professional services. Further, the department shall, upon recommendation of the board, reinstate or renew a license previously revoked, suspended, or rejected for renewal under this section. Application for reinstatement or renewal shall be made in the manner and under the conditions prescribed by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. (1) This chapter shall not be construed to limit or prevent the practice of an individual's profession or to restrict a person from counseling if the person does not hold himself or herself out to the public by title or description as being a licensed counselor.

(2) This chapter does not apply to the activities and services of a student, intern, or trainee in counseling pursuing a course of study in counseling in an accredited university if activities are performed under supervision and constitute a part of the supervised course of study.

(3) This chapter does not apply to the activities and services of a rabbi, priest, minister, or clergy of any religious denomination or sect if the activities and services are within the scope of the performance of the person's regular or specialized ministerial duties and for which no separate charge is made, or if the activities are performed, with or without charge, for or under the auspices or sponsorship, individually or in conjunction with others, of an established or legally cognizable church, denomination, or sect, if the persons rendering the services remain accountable to the established authority thereof and do not misrepresent themselves as mental health counselors.

(4) This chapter does not apply to the activities, title, and description of persons offering volunteer services for public and private nonprofit organizations or charities if the persons are not licensed under this chapter, are not called licensed mental health counselors, and are approved by the organizations or agencies for whom they render services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. The director shall:

(1) Set fees for license applications, original licenses, renewal of licenses, duplicate licenses, and examination fees as required in RCW 43.24.086. The fees so collected shall be deposited in the health professions account under RCW 43.24.072; and

(2) Provide such administrative, clerical, and other assistance as may be required to carry out this chapter.

Sec. 80. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1982 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding... under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED. That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(2) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

(3) A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

(4) A regular physician, surgeon, or licensed mental health counselor shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient, but this exception shall not apply in any judicial proceeding regarding a child's injuries, neglect or sexual abuse, or the cause thereof.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. Sections 66 through 79 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of licensing tor the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 66 through 79 of this act:

Renumber the remaining section and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Haley: "Mr. President. I would ask for a ruling on scope and object using the same kinds of remarks and reasons as the previous ruling on scope and object."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Haley, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1178 is a measure which deals with the regulation of health and health-related professions that are currently licensed by the State of Washington.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McManus establishes a new license for mental health counselors.

"The President, therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 34, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Dietetics Practice Act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. In order to safeguard the public health, safety, and welfare, to protect the public from being misled by incompetent, unethical, and unauthorized persons, to assure the highest degree of professional conduct on the part of dietitians, and to assure the availability of nutritional services of high quality to persons in need of such services, it is the purpose of this chapter to provide for the regulation of persons offering dietetics to the public through licensure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of dietetics.

(2) "Dietetics" is the integration and application of scientific principles of food, nutrition, biochemistry, physiology, management, and behavioral and social sciences in counseling people to achieve and maintain health. Unique functions of dietetics include, but are not limited to:

(a) Assessing individual and community food practices and nutritional status using anthropometric, biochemical, clinical, dietary, and demographic data for clinical, research, and program planning purposes;

(b) Establishing priorities, goals, and objectives that meet nutritional needs and are consistent with available resources and constraints;

(c) Providing nutrition counseling and education as components of preventive, curative, and restorative health care; and
(d) Developing, implementing, managing, and evaluating nutrition care systems.
(3) "Dietitian" means any person licensed to practice dietetics.
(4) "Dietetic technician" means a person who is trained to perform specific dietetic functions of a licensed dietitian, as defined by this chapter, under professional supervision as defined by the board, but who does not perform activities that require advanced training in the sciences or practices involved in the profession of dietetics.
(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, unincorporated organization, or corporate body, except that only an individual may be licensed under this chapter.
(6) "Department" means the department of licensing.
(7) "Director" means the director of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. No person may practice dietetics or hold out himself or herself as a dietitian unless the person is licensed in accordance with, or is in compliance with, this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. This chapter shall not be construed as preventing or restricting the practice, services, or activities of:
(1) A person licensed or certified in this state under any other law from engaging in the profession or occupation for which the person is licensed or certified;
(2) A person employed as a dietitian by the government of the United States, if the person engages in dietetics solely under direction or control of the organization by which the person is employed;
(3) A cooperative extension home economist;
(4) A person pursuing a course of study leading to a degree certificate in dietetics in an accredited and approved educational program if the activities and services constitute a part of a supervised course of study, and if the person is designated by a title that clearly indicates the person's status as a student or trainee;
(5) A person fulfilling the supervised fieldwork experience requirements of section 71 of this act if the activities and services constitute a part of the experience necessary to meet the requirements of section 71 of this act;
(6) Any person employed by or supervised by a licensed dietitian as a dietetic technician;
(7) A person practicing dietetics in this state, if the dietetics are performed for no more than one hundred eighty days, and if:
(a) The person is licensed under the laws of another state which has licensure requirements at least as stringent as the requirements of this chapter, as determined by the board; or
(b) The person has met commonly accepted standards for the practice of dietetics, as specifically defined by the board; or
(8) A person with a limited permit. A limited permit may be granted to persons who have completed the education and experience requirements of this chapter, or education and experience requirements that the board deems equivalent to those specified requirements for licensure. The limited permit allows the applicant to practice in association with a dietitian. The limited permit is valid until the results of the next examination have been made public. One extension of this permit may be granted if the applicant has failed the examination, but during this period the person shall be under the direct supervision of a dietitian.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. (1) An applicant applying for a license as a dietitian shall file a written application on forms provided by the department showing to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant meets the requirements specified in this subsection.
(a) The applicant shall be of good moral character.
(b) The applicant shall present evidence satisfactory to the board of having successfully completed the academic requirements of an educational program in dietetics recognized by the board and having received a baccalaureate or higher degree from an accredited college or university, as determined by the board. Such a program shall be approved by rules of the board.
(c) The applicant shall submit to the board evidence of having successfully completed a minimum of six months of supervised fieldwork experience or a coordinated undergraduate program in dietetics, both of which meet the training criteria established by the board. Supervisors of the program shall meet minimum qualifications established by the board.
(d) An applicant for licensure as a dietitian shall pass an examination as provided in section 72 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. (1) A person applying for licensure shall demonstrate eligibility in accordance with section 71 of this act and shall apply for examination upon a form and in such a manner as the board prescribes. The application shall be accompanied by a fee prescribed by section 77 of this act, which fee shall not be refunded. Each application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
(2) An applicant for licensure under this chapter shall be given a written examination to test the applicant's knowledge of basic and clinical sciences relating to dietetics and such other subjects as the board deems useful to determine the applicant's fitness to practice dietetics. The board shall approve the examination and establish standards for acceptable performance.
(3) Applicants for licensure shall be examined at a time and place and under such supervision as the board determines. The examination shall be given at least twice each year at places the board determines. The board shall give reasonable public notice of the examinations in accordance with its rules at least sixty days prior to the administration of the examination.

(4) Applicants may obtain their examination scores and may review their papers in accordance with rules established by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. (1) The board may grant a license to any applicant who presents proof of current licensure as a dietitian in another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory of the United States, which license has standards considered by the board to be equivalent to the requirements for licensure under this chapter.

(2) The board shall waive the education and experience requirements for licensure in section 71(1) of this act for applicants for licensure who present evidence to the board that they have been engaged in the practice of dietetics for three years immediately prior to the effective date of this act. Proof of actual practice shall be presented to the board in a manner the board prescribes by rule. To obtain the waiver, an applicant shall file an application no later than twelve months after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. The director shall issue a license to a person who meets the licensing requirements of this chapter upon payment of the prescribed license fee. The license shall be posted in a conspicuous location at the person's work site.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. (1) Licenses under this chapter shall be renewed at the time and in the manner determined by the director and with the payment of a renewal fee. The board may establish requirements for license renewal that provide evidence of continued competency. The director may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee in accordance with the board's rules.

(2) A suspended license is subject to expiration and may be renewed as provided in this section, but the renewal does not entitle the licensee, while the license remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in dietetics, or in any other conduct or activity in violation of the order or judgment for which the license was suspended. If a license revoked on disciplinary grounds is reinstated, the licensee, as a condition of reinstatement shall pay the renewal fee and any applicable late fee.

(3) A dietitian licensed under this chapter not practicing dietetics or providing services may place his or her license in an inactive status. The board may prescribe requirements for maintaining an inactive status and converting from inactive or active status.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. (1) The board may deny or refuse to renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions if the licensee or applicant for a license has engaged in conduct which has endangered the health, welfare, or safety of the public. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Obtaining a license by means of fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment of material facts;

(b) Engaging in unprofessional conduct or gross incompetence as defined by the rules of the board, or violating the code of ethics adopted and published by the board, which code shall require that a dietitian, after evaluating a patient, refer a medical case to a physician for appropriate medical direction if such direction is lacking. Treatment by a dietitian of such a medical case may take place only upon the referral of a physician licensed to practice medicine in this state;

(c) Being convicted of a crime of moral turpitude or a felony that relates to the practice of dietetics;

(d) Violating an order or rule of the board; or

(e) Violating this chapter.

(2) Such denial, refusal to renew, suspension, revocation, or imposition of probationary conditions on a licensee may be ordered by the board in compliance with chapter 34.04 RCW. One year from the date of revocation of a license, application may be made to the board for reinstatement. The board has discretion to accept or reject an application for reinstatement and may hold a hearing to consider the reinstatement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. The director shall prescribe and publish license and permit fees in amounts determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. (1) There is established a board of dietetics. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor, who may consider the persons who are recommended for appointment by the dietitians of the state. The members of the board shall be residents of the state. Four of the members shall have been engaged in the practice of dietetics with the public, teaching dietetics, or research in dietetics for at least five years immediately preceding their appointments. These four board members shall be dietitians who shall at all times be holders of licenses for the practice of dietetics in the state, except for the initial members of the board, all of whom shall fulfill the requirements for licensure under this chapter. The remaining member of the board shall be a member of the public with an interest in the rights of consumers of health services.

(2) The governor shall, within sixty days after the effective date of this act, appoint one member for a term of one year, two members for a term of two years, and two members for a term of three years. Appointments made thereafter shall be for three-year terms, but no person may be appointed to serve more than two consecutive full terms. Terms shall begin on the first day of the calendar year and end on the last day of the calendar year or until successors are appointed, except for the initial appointed members, who shall serve through the last calendar day of the year in which they are appointed before commencing the terms prescribed by this section. The governor shall make appointments for vacancies in unexpired terms within ninety days after the vacancies occur.

(3) The board shall meet during the first month of each calendar year to select a chairperson and for other purposes. At least one additional meeting shall be held before the end of each calendar year. Further meetings may be convened at the call of the chairperson or the written request of any two board members. A majority of members of the board constitutes a quorum for all purposes. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public, except that the board may hold closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, and administer examinations or, upon request of an applicant who fails examination, to prepare a response indicating the reasons for the applicant's failure.

(4) Members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. (1) The board shall administer, coordinate, and enforce this chapter, evaluate qualifications under this chapter, and provide for supervision of examinations and applicants for licensure under this chapter. The board may issue subpoenas, examine witnesses, and administer oaths and investigate allegations of practices violating this chapter.

(2) The board shall adopt rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, relating to professional conduct to carry out the policy of this chapter, including, but not limited to, rules relating to professional licensure and to the establishment of ethical standards of practice for persons holding a license to practice dietetics in this state.

(3) The board shall conduct such hearings and keep such records and minutes as are necessary to carry out its functions. The board shall provide at least thirty days' notice in writing to the appropriate persons of the times and places of all hearings authorized under this chapter in such a manner and at such times as determined by its rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. The director shall provide an administrative and investigative staff as necessary for the board to carry out its duties under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. A person who violates section 69 of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment. The court may impose a civil fine of up to one thousand dollars for any violation of section 69 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. Sections 66 through 81 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of licensing for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of twenty-five thousand five hundred dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 66 through 81 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 84. Sections 66 through 83 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would raise the question of scope and object. I think the remarks that Senator Haley made pertain to this."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McCaslin, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1178 is a measure which deals with the regulation of health and health-related professions that are currently licensed by the State of Washington.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McManus establishes a new license for dietitians.

"The President, therefore finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved that the following amendment be adopted: On page 33, after line 32, insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Acupuncture" means a health care service based on a traditional Oriental system of medical theory and diagnosis in treatment used to promote health and treat organic or functional disorders by treating specific acupuncture points or meridians. By way of illustration and not limitation, acupuncture includes the following techniques:

(a) Use of acupuncture needles to simulate acupuncture points and meridians;
(b) Use of electrical, mechanical, or magnetic devices to simulate acupuncture points and meridians;
(c) Moxibustion;
(d) Acupressure;
(e) Cupping;
(f) Dermal friction technique (gwa hsa);
(g) Intra-red;
(h) Sonopuncture;
(i) Laserpuncture;
(j) Dietary advice; and
(k) Point injection therapy (aquapuncture).

(2) "Acupuncturist" means an acupuncturist licensed under this chapter.

(3) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(4) "Director" means the director of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. LICENSE REQUIRED. Any person who practices acupuncture in this state shall first obtain from the director a license to do so. The director may grant a license after an examination as provided for in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. EXEMPTIONS. This chapter shall not be construed to apply or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or any kind of treatment by prayer, nor may this chapter be construed to prohibit:

(1) The furnishing of acupuncture assistance in cases of emergency requiring immediate attention;
(2) Domestic administration of acupuncture by members of the patient's immediate family;
(3) The practice of any other health care profession by a holder of a valid license under the methods or means permitted by that license;
(4) The practice of acupuncture under the authority of any instrumentality of the United States government;
(5) The practice of acupuncture by a person who is a regular student in a school of acupuncture approved by the director if the performance of such services is in the regular course of instruction or assignments from an instructor and if such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed under this chapter or any other chapter licensing healing arts the scope of which includes acupuncture;
(6) The practice of acupuncture by any person licensed to perform acupuncture in any other jurisdiction with standards equivalent to or greater than those required in this state if that person is doing so in the course of regular instruction of a school of acupuncture approved by the director or in an educational seminar sponsored by a recognized professional organization of a healing art the scope of which includes the practice of acupuncture. If the person practicing acupuncture is doing so in the course of an educational seminar sponsored by a recognized professional organization of a healing art the scope of which includes the practice of acupuncture, the practice shall be supervised directly by a licensed acupuncturist physically present.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. QUALIFICATIONS FOR PRACTICE. Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director, at least forty-five days before the beginning of the examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require and proof that the candidate has:

(1) A high school degree or its equivalent;
(2) Completed a minimum of two academic years or seventy-two quarter credits of undergraduate college education in the general sciences and humanities prior to entering an acupuncture training program, however obtaining a degree is not required for the educational credits to qualify;
(3) Completed a course of instruction in basic Western sciences and acupuncture over a period of two academic years that includes such subjects as anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, biochemistry, pathology, hygiene, and a survey of Western clinical sciences. The basic science classes must be equivalent to those offered at the collegiate level. However, if the applicant is a licensed chiropractor under chapter 18.25 RCW or a drugless healer under chapter 18.36 RCW, the requirements of this subsection relating to Western basic sciences may be reduced by up to one year depending upon the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the director;
(4) Successfully completed a course of clinical training in acupuncture over a period of one academic year, including a minimum of twenty-five quarter credits of supervised practice, consisting of three hundred fifty separate patient treatments involving a minimum of sixty different patients and a minimum of one hundred hours or nine quarter credits of observation including case presentation and discussion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. ACUPUNCTURE EDUCATION PROGRAMS—APPROVAL PROCEDURE. The department will consider for approval any school, program, apprenticeship, or tutorial that meets the requirements of this chapter and provides the training required under section 68 of this act. Clinical and instructive training may be approved as separate programs or as a joint program. The process for approval shall be established by the director by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. ADMISSION OF CANDIDATE TO EXAMINATION—FEE—REEXAMINATION. If the application is approved and the candidate has deposited an examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, the candidate shall be admitted to the examination. In the case of failure to pass the examination, may be reinspected at any regular examina­tion within one year without the payment of an additional fee. The fee shall be retained by the director after failure to pass the second examination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. EXAMINATION—TIMES AND PLACES—SUBJECTS—PROVISION OF NEEDLES. (1) The director of licensing may implement this chapter and shall offer examinations in acupuncture at least twice a year at such times and places as the director determines. The examination shall be written and practical and shall be in the English language.

(2) The director, with the assistance of the acupuncture board, shall develop or approve a licensure examination in the subjects that the director determines are within the scope of and commensurate with the work performed by licensed acupuncturists and shall include anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, biochemistry, pathology, hygiene, and acupuncture. All application papers shall be deposited with the director and be retained by the director for at least one year, when they may be destroyed.

(3) If a candidate satisfactorily completes the examination, the director shall issue to such candidate a license entitling the candidate to practice acupuncture in the state of Washington.

(4) Each applicant may be required to provide his or her own sterile needles and other equipment necessary for demonstrating the applicant’s skill and proficiency in acupuncture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. ENGLISH FLUENCY. Each applicant must demonstrate sufficient fluency in reading, speaking, and understanding the English language to enable the applicant to communicate with other health care providers and patients concerning health care problems and treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. INVESTIGATION. An applicant for a license to perform acupuncture shall, as part of the application, furnish written consent to an investigation of the applicant’s personal background, professional training, and experience by the department or any person acting on its behalf.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. REFUSAL. SUSPENSION. OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE—REPRIMAND OR CENSURE—GROUNDS—COMPLAINTS—HEARING—APPEAL. (1) The director may refuse to grant or may suspend or revoke any license. may reprimand or censure a license holder. or may place on probation subject to reasonable remedial conditions a license holder for any of the following reasons:

(a) Persistent inebriety or other substance abuse;
(b) The practice of abortion except the practice of acupuncture for anesthetic purposes related to an abortion procedure;
(c) The commission of any crime involving moral turpitude relevant to the practice of acupuncture;
(d) Presentation of a certificate or diploma for licensure illegally obtained;
(e) Application for examination under fraudulent misrepresentation;
(f) Mishandling needles authorized by this chapter;
(g) Neglect or refusal to make proper returns to the department of social and health services of infectious diseases within the required limit of time;
(h) Professional incompetence; or
(i) Wilful violation of any other provisions of this chapter or regulations adopted under it.

(2) In complaints of violations of the provisions of this section, the accused shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and be given a hearing before a hearing examiner, with right of appeal to the director. Proceedings and further appeals under this section shall be governed by chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) Any acupuncturist refused admission to the examination or whose license has been revoked who attempts or continues the practice of acupuncture is subject to the penalties prescribed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. ANNUAL REGISTRATION—RENEWAL FEE—DELINQUENT RENEWALS. (1) Every person licensed to practice acupuncture shall register with the director annually and pay an annual renewal registration fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 on or before the licensee’s birth anniversary date. The license of the person shall be renewed for a period of one year.

(2) Any failure to register and pay the annual renewal registration fee renders the license invalid. The license shall be reinstated upon written application to the director, payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, and payment to the state of all delinquent annual license renewal fees.
(3) Any person who fails to renew his or her license for a period of three years is not entitled to renew that license under this section. In order to obtain a license to practice acupuncture in this state, the person shall file a new application under this chapter, along with the required fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. FORM TO INFORM PATIENT OF QUALIFICATIONS OF ACUPUNCTURIST. The director, with the advice of the acupuncture board, shall develop a form to be used by an acupuncturist to inform the patient of the acupuncturist's qualifications.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. WRITTEN PLAN FOR CONSULTATION, EMERGENCY TRANSFER, AND TRANSPORT. Every licensed acupuncture board shall develop a written plan for consultation, emergency transfer, and referral to other licensed practitioners. The written plan shall be submitted with the initial application for licensure as well as annually thereafter with the license renewal fee to the department. The department may withhold licensure or renewal of licensure if the plan fails to meet the standards contained in rules adopted by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. UNLAWFUL PRACTICE—PENALTIES. Any person practicing acupuncture in this state without first complying with this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in RCW 9.92.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. RULES. The director shall adopt rules in the manner provided by chapter 34.64 RCW as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. ACUPUNCTURE ADVISORY COMMITTEE—CREATED—MEMBERS—APPOINTMENT—TERMS—TRAVEL EXPENSES. (1) The acupuncture board is hereby created. The board shall be composed of one physician licensed under chapter 18.71 or 18.57 RCW, three acupuncturists licensed under this chapter, and one public member who has no financial interest in the rendering of health services.

(2) The governor shall appoint the members of the board, the initial terms shall be staggered. Thereafter, the terms shall be for five years.

(3) The members of the board shall select the chairperson from among the members. The board shall meet regularly at the call of the chairperson.

(4) Members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. PUBLIC REPRESENTATIONS OF PRACTICE OF ACUPUNCTURE. (1) No person may hold himself or herself out to the public as an acupuncturist unless licensed under this chapter.

(2) Persons licensed under this chapter may affix L.Ac. after their name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. PREVIOUSLY REGISTERED ACUPUNCTURE ASSISTANTS. All persons registered as acupuncture assistants under chapter 18.71A or 18.57A RCW shall be issued licenses under this chapter by the director without examination if they otherwise would qualify for licensure under this chapter and apply for a license within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83. RECIPROCITY. The director may issue a license without examination to a person licensed as an acupuncturist in another jurisdiction, if in the director's judgment the requirements of that jurisdiction are equivalent to or greater than those of Washington state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 84. As used in this chapter, section captions constitute no part of the law.

Sec. 85. Section 1, chapter 157, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 56. Laws of 1975—76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) A person licensed by the state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, ((ac)) an acupuncturist, physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative.

(b) An employee or agent of a person described in subparagraph (a) of this subsection, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

(c) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in subparagraph (a) of this subsection, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, trustee, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; shall be immune from civil action for damages arising out of the good faith performance of their duties on such committees, where such actions are being brought by or on behalf of the person who is being evaluated.

(2) No member, employee, staff person, or investigator of a professional review committee shall be liable in a civil action as a result of acts or omissions made in good faith on behalf of the committee; nor shall any person be so liable for filing charges with or supplying information or testimony in good faith to any professional review committee; nor shall a member, employee, staff person, or investigator of a professional society, of a professional examining or licensing board, of a professional disciplinary board, of a governing board of any institution.
or of any employer of professionals be so liable for good faith acts or omissions made in full or partial reliance on recommendations or decisions of a professional review committee or examining board.

Sec. 86. Section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1983 and RCW 4.24.290 are each amended to read as follows:

In any civil action for damages based on professional negligence against a hospital which is licensed by the state of Washington or against the personnel of any such hospital, or against a member of the healing arts including, but not limited to, an acupuncturist; licensed under sections 65 through 84 of this 1984 act, a physician licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW, an osteopathic physician licensed under chapter 18.57 RCW, a chiropractor licensed under chapter 18.25 RCW, a dentist licensed under chapter 18.32 RCW, a podiatrist licensed under chapter 18.22 RCW, or a nurse licensed under chapters 18.78 or 18.88 RCW, the plaintiff in order to prevail shall be required to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant or defendants failed to exercise that degree of skill, care, and learning possessed at that time by other persons in the same profession, and that as a proximate result of such failure the plaintiff suffered damages, but in no event shall the provisions of this section apply to an action based on the failure to obtain the informed consent of a patient.

Sec. 87. Section 7, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 7.70.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter "health care provider" means either:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, (aa) an acupuncturist, physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, midwife, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic. including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in part (1) above, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

(3) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in part (1) above, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 88. Sections 65 through 84 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

Rerenum the sections consecutively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 72.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In recognition of the hazardous nature of employment in state correctional institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse employees of the department of corrections for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of inmate assaults. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(2) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of corrections, or the secretary’s designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) An inmate has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work; and

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee’s negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment.

(3) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee’s accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(4) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the Injury.

(5) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (3) of this section for any workday for which the secretary, or the secretary’s designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(6) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the secretary, or the secretary’s designee, believes are justified.

(7) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(8) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the department of corrections. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(9) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

SECOND READING

Permitting off-duty patrol officers to wear their uniforms while participating in public service educational programs.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Warnke moved that the following Committee on State Government amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 6, after "patrol" strike "shall" and insert "may"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Warnke or Senator Owen yield to a question?

"As I understand it, you took the 'shall' out and put in 'may'--but the bill itself says 'permitting off-duty patrol officers to wear their uniforms while participating in public service educational programs.' It doesn't specify what type of public service educational programs and I really think the amendment we adopted in the State Government Committee, which would say 'may' and with the passage of this bill would indicate to the Chief that we feel certain programs, such as Trooper Bob are meritorious, but I'm not so sure we have a lot of public programs that you may not want the state patrol people out there and they're individuals, too, with different ideas. If you put a 'shall' in there, it just says, 'well, if they're going to wear their uniforms, go do it.' Now, who wants to answer that question? I think it's much better that we have 'may,' unless we specify what type of public service programs we want the patrol to participate in."

Senator Warnke: "Senator Rasmussen, the bill only specifies that it has to be some kind of educational program or in traffic safety or crime prevention. That's part of the problem with the bill in that there will be no control of the use of those uniforms off duty by the patrol."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on State Government amendment.

The motion by Senator Warnke carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following Committee on State Government amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 6, after "patrol" strike "shall" and insert "may"

On page 1, line 12, after "accept" strike "an honorarium" and insert "any meal served in connection with the program and reimbursement for actual expenses for travel and materials used in conjunction with the program."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 552, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 552, as amended by the Senate.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 552, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas. 41; nays. 0; absent. 0; excused. 07.

King, Crane, Schmidt, Wang, Cantu, Locke, West, Betrozoff, Broback, Brough, Charnley, Ebersole, Padden, Patrick, Sanders, Silver, Tanner, Walk, Stratton, Barrett, Ballard, Hine, Schoon, Clayton, Todd, Miller, L. Smith and Powers)

Creating the crime of computer trespass.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 9A.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. A person is guilty of computer trespass in the first degree if the person, without authorization, intentionally gains access to a computer system or electronic data base of another; and
   (a) The access is made with the intent to commit another crime; or
   (b) The violation involves a computer or data base maintained by a government agency.

2. Computer trespass in the first degree is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9A.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. A person is guilty of computer trespass in the second degree if the person, without authorization, intentionally gains access to a computer system or electronic data base of another under circumstances not constituting the offense in the first degree.

2. Computer trespass in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 9A.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A person who, in the commission of a computer trespass, commits any other crime may be punished for that other crime as well as for the computer trespass and may be prosecuted for each crime separately.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9A.48.100 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 9A.48.070 through 9A.48.090 inclusive:

1. "Physical damage", in addition to its ordinary meaning, shall include the total or partial alteration, damage, obliteration, or erasure of records, information, data, ((or)) computer programs, or their computer representations, which are ((electronically)) recorded for use in computers or the impairment, interruption, or interference with the use of such records, information, data, or computer programs, or the impairment, interruption, or interference with the use of any computer or services provided by computers. "Physical damage" also includes any diminution in the value of any property as the consequence of an act;

2. If more than one item of property is physically damaged as a result of a common scheme or plan by a person and the physical damage to the property would, when considered separately, constitute mischief in the third degree because of value, then the value of the damages may be aggregated in one count. If the sum of the value of all the physical damages exceeds two hundred fifty dollars, the defendant may be charged with and convicted of malicious mischief in the second degree.

Sec. 5. Section 9A.52.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:
The following definitions apply in this chapter:

(I) "Premises" includes any building, dwelling, or any real property;

(2) "Enter". The word "enter" when constituting an element or part of a crime, shall include the entrance of the person, or the insertion of any part of his body, or any instrument or weapon held in his hand and used or intended to be used to threaten or intimidate a person or to detach or remove property;

(3) "Enters or remains unlawfully". A person "enters or remains unlawfully" in or upon premises when he is not then licensed, invited, or otherwise privileged to so enter or remain.

A license or privilege to enter or remain in a building which is only partly open to the public is not a license or privilege to enter or remain in that part of a building which is not open to the public. A person who enters or remains upon unimproved and apparently unused land, which is neither fenced nor otherwise enclosed in a manner designed to exclude intruders, does so with license and privilege unless notice against trespass is personally communicated to him by the owner of the land or some other authorized person, or unless notice is given by posting in a conspicuous manner;

(4) "Data" means a representation of information, knowledge, facts, concepts, or instructions that are being prepared or have been prepared in a formalized manner and are intended for use in a computer;

(5) "Computer program" means an ordered set of data representing coded instructions or statements that when executed by a computer cause the computer to process data;

(6) "Access" means to approach, instruct, communicate with, store data in, retrieve data from, or otherwise make use of any resources of a computer, directly or by electronic means.

Sec. 6. Section 9A.56.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 38, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess and RCW 9A.56.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions are applicable in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Appropriate lost or misdelivered property or services" means obtaining or exerting control over the property or services of another which the actor knows to have been lost or mislaid, or to have been delivered under a mistake as to identity of the recipient or as to the nature or amount of the property;

(2) "By color or aid of deception" means that the deception operated to bring about the obtaining of the property or services; it is not necessary that deception be the sole means of obtaining the property or services;

(3) "Credit card" means any instrument or device, whether incomplete, revoked, or expired, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card, or by any other name, issued with or without fee for the use of the cardholder in obtaining money, goods, services, or anything else of value, including satisfaction of a debt or the payment of a check drawn by a cardholder, either on credit or in consideration of an undertaking or guarantee by the issuer;

(4) "Deception" occurs when an actor knowingly:

(a) Creates or confirms another's false impression which the actor knows to be false; or

(b) Fails to correct another's impression which the actor previously has created or confirmed; or

(c) Prevents another from acquiring information material to the disposition of the property involved; or

(d) Transfers or encumbers property without disclosing a lien, adverse claim, or other legal impediment to the enjoyment of the property, whether that impediment is or is not valid, or is or is not a matter of official record; or

(e) Promises performance which the actor does not intend to perform or knows will not be performed.

(5) "Deprive" in addition to its common meaning means to make unauthorized use or an unauthorized copy of records, information, data, trade secrets, or computer programs;(provided that the aforementioned are of a private proprietary nature);

(6) "Obtain control over" in addition to its common meaning, means:

(a) In relation to property, to bring about a transfer or purported transfer to the obtainer or another of a legally recognized interest in the property; or

(b) In relation to labor or service, to secure performance thereof for the benefit of the obtainer or another;

(7) "Wrongfully obtains" or "exerts unauthorized control" means:

(a) To take the property or services of another; or

(b) Having any property or services in one's possession, custody or control as bailee, factor, pledgee, servant, attorney, agent, employee, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, or officer of any person, estate, association, or corporation, or as a public officer, or person authorized by agreement or competent authority to take or hold such possession, custody, or control, to secrete, withhold, or appropriate the same to his own use or to the use of any person other than the true owner or person entitled thereto;
(8) "Owner" means a person other than the actor, who has possession of or any other interest in the property or services involved, and without whose consent the actor has no authority to exert control over the property or services;

(9) "Receive" includes, but is not limited to, acquiring title, possession, control, or a security interest, or any other interest in the property;

(10) "Services" includes, but is not limited to, labor, professional services, transportation services, electronic computer services, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment, the supplying of equipment for use, and the supplying of commodities of a public utility nature such as gas, electricity, steam, and water;

(11) "Stolen" means obtained by theft, robbery, or extortion;

(12) Value. (a) "Value" means the market value of the property or services at the time and in the approximate area of the criminal act.

(b) Whether or not they have been issued or delivered, written instruments, except those having a readily ascertained market value, shall be evaluated as follows:

(i) The value of an instrument constituting an evidence of debt, such as a check, draft, or promissory note, shall be deemed the amount due or collectible thereon or thereby, that figure ordinarily being the face amount of the indebtedness less any portion thereof which has been satisfied;

(ii) The value of a ticket or equivalent instrument which evidences a right to receive transportation, entertainment, or other service shall be deemed the price stated thereon. If no price is stated thereon, the value shall be deemed the price of such ticket or equivalent instrument which the issuer charged the general public;

(iii) The value of any other instrument that creates, releases, discharges, or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege, or obligation shall be deemed the greatest amount of economic loss which the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

(c) Whenever any series of transactions which constitute theft, would, when considered separately, constitute theft in the third degree because of value, and said series of transactions are a part of a common scheme or plan, then the transactions may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said transactions shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(d) Whenever any person is charged with possessing stolen property and such person has unlawfully in his possession at the same time the stolen property of more than one person, then the stolen property possessed may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said stolen property shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(e) Property or services having value that cannot be ascertained pursuant to the standards set forth above shall be deemed to be of a value not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

SECOND READING
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1627, by Committee on Judiciary
(originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Armstrong, Long, Barnes, Wang, Belcher, Tanner, Lux, Isaacson, Miller, Brekke and Addison)

Revising child support provisions and providing new collection mechanism.
The bill was read the second time.

MOTION
Senator Talmadge moved the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that there is an urgent need for vigorous enforcement of child support obligations, and that stronger and more efficient statutory remedies need to be established to supplement and complement the remedies provided in chapters 26.09, 26.21, 26.26, 74.20, and 74.20A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

1) "Dependent child" means any child for whom a support order has been established or for whom a duty of support is owed.

2) "Duty of support" means the duty to provide for the needs of a dependent child, which may include necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and health care. The duty includes any obligation to make monetary payments, to pay expenses, or to reimburse another person or an agency for the cost of necessary support furnished a dependent child. The duty may be imposed by court order, by operation of law, or otherwise.

3) "Obligee" means the custodian of a dependent child, or person or agency, to whom a duty of support is owed, or the person or agency to whom the right to receive or collect support has been assigned.

4) "Obliger" means the person owing a duty of support.

5) "Support order" means any judgment, decree, or order of support issued by the superior court or authorized agency of the state of Washington; or a judgment, decree, or other order of support issued by a court or agency of competent jurisdiction in another state or country, which has been registered or otherwise made enforceable in this state.

6) "Employer" includes the United States government, a state or local unit of government, and any person or entity who pays or owes earnings to the obligor.

7) "Earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

8) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The remedies provided in this chapter are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other remedies provided by law.

(2) This chapter applies to any dependent child, whether born before or after the effective date of this act, and regardless of the past or current marital status of the parents.

(3) This chapter shall be liberally construed to assure that all dependent children are adequately supported.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A proceeding to enforce a duty of support is commenced:
(a) By filing a petition for an original action; or
(b) By motion in an existing action or under an existing cause number.

(2) Venue for the action is in the superior court of the county where the dependent child resides or is present, where the obligor resides, or where the prior support order was entered. The petition or motion may be filed by the obligee, the state, or any agency providing care or support to the dependent child. A filing fee shall not be assessed in cases brought on behalf of the state of Washington.

(3) The court retains continuing jurisdiction under this chapter until all duties of support of the obligor, including arrears, with respect to the dependent child have been satisfied."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A petition or motion may be filed without notice under section 4 of this act to initiate a contempt action if an obligor fails to comply with a support order. If the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe the obligor has failed to comply with a support order, the court may issue an order to show cause requiring the obligor to appear at a certain time and place for a hearing, at which time the obligor may appear to show cause why the relief requested should not be granted. A copy of the petition or motion shall be served on the obligor along with the order to show cause.

(2) Service of the order to show cause shall be by personal service, or in the manner provided in the civil rules of superior court or applicable statute.

(3) If the order to show cause served upon the obligor included a warning that an arrest warrant could be issued for failure to appear, the court may issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the obligor if the obligor fails to appear on the return date provided in the order.

(4) If the court finds, after hearing, that the obligor failed to comply with the support order previously entered and that the obligor has not established that he or she was unable to comply with the order, the court shall find the obligor in contempt of court. Contempt under this section is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of up to one hundred eighty days. The court may suspend all or a part of the sentence upon terms that are reasonably likely to result in compliance with the support order.

(5) If the obligor contends at the hearing that he or she lacked the means to comply with the support order, the obligor shall establish that he or she exercised due diligence in seeking employment, in conserving assets, or otherwise in rendering himself or herself able to comply with the court’s order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation or duty of support shall state that, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order.

(2) If the support order under which the obligor owes the duty of support is not in compliance with subsection (1) of this section or if the obligee cannot show that the obligor has approved or received a copy of the court order or decree that complies with subsection (1) of this section, notice shall be provided to the obligor at least fifteen days prior to the obligee seeking a mandatory wage assignment. The notice shall state that, if a child support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without further notice to the obligor. Service of the notice shall be by personal service, or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. The notice requirement under this subsection is not jurisdictional.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment in an action under section 4 of this act may be filed by an obligee if the obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the wage assignment order, including:

(a) That the obligor, stating his or her name and residence, is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month;

(b) A description of the terms of the support order requiring payment of support, and the amount past due;

(c) The name and address of the obligor’s employer;

(d) That notice has been provided to the obligor as required by section 6 of this act; and

(e) In cases not filed by the state, whether the obligee has received public assistance from any source and, if the obligee has received public assistance, that the department of social and health services has been notified in writing of the pending action.

(2) If the court in which a mandatory wage assignment is sought does not already have a copy of the support order in the court file, then the obligee shall attach a copy of the support order to the petition or motion seeking the wage assignment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Upon receipt of a petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment that complies with section 7 of this act, the court shall issue a wage assignment order, as provided in section 10 of this act and including the information required in section 9(1) of this act, directed to the employer, and commanding the employer to answer the order on the forms served with the order that comply with section 12 of this act within twenty days after service of the order upon the employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The wage assignment order in section 8 of this act shall include:

(a) The maximum amount of current support, if any, to be withheld from the obligor’s earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement; and

(b) The total amount of the arrearage or reimbursement judgment previously entered by the court, if any, together with interest, if any.

(2) The total amount to be withheld from the obligor’s earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement, shall not exceed fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor. If the amounts to be paid toward the arrearage are specified in the support order, then the
The maximum amount to be withheld is the sum of the current support ordered and the amount ordered to be paid toward the arrearage, or fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obliger, whichever is less.

(3) The provisions of RCW 7.33.280 do not apply to wage assignments for child support authorized under this chapter, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor are exempt, and may be disbursed to the obligor.

(4) If an obligor is subject to two or more attachments for child support on account of different obligees, the employer shall, if the nonexempt portion of the obligor’s earnings is not sufficient to respond fully to all the attachments, apportion the obligor’s nonexempt disposable earnings between or among the various obligees equally. Any obligee may seek a court order reapportioning the obligor’s nonexempt disposable earnings upon notice to all interested obligees. Notice shall be by personal service, or in the manner provided by the civil rules of superior court or applicable statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The wage assignment order shall be substantially in the following form:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF

Obligee vs. Obligor

WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER

THE STATE OF WASHINGTON TO: Employer

Obliger

AND TO: Employer

The above-named obligee claims that the above-named obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the child support payable for one month. The amount of the accrued child support debt as of this date is dollars, the amount of arrearage payments specified in the support order (if applicable) is dollars per , and the amount of the current and continuing support obligation under the support order is dollars per .

You are hereby commanded to answer this order by filling in the attached form according to the instructions, and you must mail or deliver the original of the answer to the court, one copy to the obligee or obligee’s attorney, and one copy to the obligor within twenty days after service of this wage assignment order upon you.

If you possess any earnings due and owing to the obligor, then you shall do as follows:

(1) Withhold from the obligor’s earnings each month, or from each regular earnings disbursement, the lesser of:

(a) The sum of the accrued support debt and the current support obligation;

(b) The sum of the specified arrearage payment amount and the current support obligation; or

(c) Fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor.

(2) The total amount withheld above is subject to the wage assignment order, and all other sums may be disbursed to the obligor.

You shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. You shall promptly notify the court if and when the employee is no longer employed by you.

You shall deliver the withheld earnings to the clerk of the court that issued this wage assignment order at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after your receipt of this wage assignment order.

You shall deliver a copy of this order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible. This wage assignment order has priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold or deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE OBLIGOR, YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER AS REQUIRED MAY MAKE YOU LIABLE FOR OBLIGOR’S CLAIMED SUPPORT DEBT TO THE OBLIGEE OR SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT OF COURT.

NOTICE TO OBLIGOR: YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO REQUEST A HEARING IN THE SUPERIOR COURT THAT ISSUED THIS WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER, TO REQUEST THAT THE COURT QUASH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE THE WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER.

DATED THIS day of 19.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) An employer upon whom service of a wage assignment order has been made shall answer the order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the obligor is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer will honor the wage assignment order, and whether there are multiple child support attachments against the obligor.

(2) If the employer possesses any earnings due and owing to the obligor, the earnings subject to the wage assignment order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the wage assignment order. The withheld earnings shall be delivered to the clerk of the court that issued the wage assignment order at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the wage assignment order.

(3) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. The employer shall promptly notify the court when the employee is no longer employed.

(4) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the wage assignment order, even if the remainder is exempt under section 9 of this act. The processing fee may not exceed (a) ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the superior court clerk; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the clerk.

(5) An order for wage assignment for support entered under this chapter shall have priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold and deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

(6) An employer who fails to withhold earnings as required by a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be held liable for the amounts disbursed to the obligor in violation of the wage assignment order, and may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(7) No employer who complies with a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an employee because of the entry or service of a wage assignment issued and executed under this chapter. A person who violates this subsection may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(9) An employer may combine amounts withheld from various employees into a single payment to the superior court clerk, if the payment includes a listing of the amounts attributable to each employee and other information as required by the clerk.

(10) An employer shall deliver a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The answer of the employer shall be made on forms, served on the employer with the wage assignment order, substantially as follows:

------------------------------------------

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Service of the wage assignment order on the employer is invalid unless it is served with four answer forms in substantial conformance with section 12 of this act, together with stamped envelopes addressed to, respectively, the clerk of the court where the order was issued, the obligee’s attorney or the obligee, and the obligor. The obligee shall also include an extra copy of the wage assignment order for the employer to deliver to the obligor. Service on the employer shall be in person or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) On or before the date of service of the wage assignment order on the employer, the obligor shall mail or cause to be mailed a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor at the obligor’s last known post office address; or, in the alternative, a copy of the wage assignment order shall be served on the obligor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on, before, or within two days after the date of service of the order on the employer. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as this subsection provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion, may quash the wage assignment order, upon motion of the obligor promptly made and supported by an affidavit showing that the obligor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail or serve the copy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order, the court may grant relief only upon a showing that the wage assignment order causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice. Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the wage assignment order is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order. If a wage assignment order has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor’s support obligation is current, the court may terminate the order upon motion of the obligor unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the wage assignment order should remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) In any action to enforce a support order under Title 26 RCW, the court may, in its discretion, order a parent obligated to pay support for a minor child to post a bond or other security with the court. The bond or other security shall be in the amount of support due for a two-year period. The bond or other security is subject to approval by the court. The bond or other security must include the name and address of the issuer. If the bond is canceled, any person issuing a bond under this section shall notify the court and the person entitled to receive payment under the order.

(2) If the parent obligated to pay support fails to make payments as required under the court order, the person entitled to receive payment may recover on the bond or other security in the existing proceeding. The court may, after notice and hearing, increase the amount of the bond or other security. Failure to comply with the court’s order to obtain and maintain a bond or other security may be treated as contempt of court.

Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 and RCW 6.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The homestead is subject to execution or forced sale in satisfaction of judgments obtained:

(1) On debts secured by mechanic’s, laborer’s, materialmen’s or vendor’s liens upon the premises;

(2) On debts secured by purchase money security agreements describing as collateral a mobile home located on the premises or mortgages on the premises, executed and acknowledged by the husband and wife or by any unmarried claimant;

(3) On one spouse’s or the community’s debts existing at the time of that spouse’s bankruptcy filing where (a) bankruptcy is filed by both spouses within a six-month period, including as a joint case under 11 U.S.C. Sec. 302, and (b) the other spouse exempts property from property of the estate under the federal exemption provisions of 11 U.S.C. Sec. 522(b)(1);

(4) On debts arising from a lawful court order or decree or administrative order establishing a child support obligation or obligation to pay spousal maintenance.

Sec. 17. Section 11.52.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 7, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

If it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that no homestead has been claimed in the manner provided by law, either prior or subsequent to the death of the person whose estate is being administered, then the court, after hearing and upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration have been paid or provided for, and upon petition for that purpose, shall award and set off to the surviving spouse, if any, property of the estate, either community or separate, not exceeding the value of twenty-five thousand dollars at the time of death, exclusive of general taxes and special assessments which were liens at the time of the death of the deceased spouse. (and) exclusive of the unpaid balance of any contract to purchase, mortgage, or mechanic’s, laborer’s or materialmen’s liens upon the property so set off, exclusive of debts arising out of a lawful court order or decree or administrative order establishing a child support obligation or obligation to pay spousal maintenance and exclusive of funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and administration, which expenses may be deducted from the gross value in determining the value to be set off to the surviving spouse, provided that the court shall have no jurisdiction to make such award unless the petition therefore is filed with the clerk within six years from the date of the death of the person whose estate is being administered.
Sec. 18. Section 11.52.012, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 234, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Such award shall be made by an order or judgment of the court and shall vest the absolute title, and thereafter there shall be no further administration upon such portion of the estate so set off, but the remainder of the estate shall be settled as other estates: PROVIDED, That no property of the estate shall be awarded or set off, as provided in RCW 11.52.010 through 11.52.024, as now or hereafter amended, to a surviving spouse who has feloniously killed the deceased spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER. That if it shall appear to the court, either (1) that there are children of the deceased by a former marriage or by adoption prior to decedent's marriage to petitioner, or (2) that the petitioning surviving spouse has abandoned his or her minor children or wilfully and wrongfully failed to provide for them, or (3) if such surviving spouse or minor children are entitled to receive property not subject to probate, including insurance, by reason of the death of the deceased spouse in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or more, then the award in lieu of homestead and exemptions shall lie in the discretion of the court, and that whether there shall be an award and the amount thereof shall be determined by the court, which shall enter such decree as shall be just and equitable but not in excess of the award provided herein.

Sec. 19. Section 11.52.020, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In event a homestead has been, or shall be selected in the manner provided by law, whether the selection of such homestead results in vesting the complete or partial title in the survivor, it shall be the duty of the court, upon petition of any person interested, and upon being satisfied that the value thereof does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars at the time of the death, exclusive of general taxes and special assessments which were liens at the time of the death of the deceased and exclusive of the unpaid balance of any contract to purchase, mortgage, or mechanic's, laborer's, or materialmen's liens thereon, and exclusive of funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration, which expenses may be deducted from the gross value in determining the value to be set off to the surviving spouse, to enter a decree, upon notice as provided in RCW 11.52.014 or upon longer notice if the court so orders, setting off and awarding such homestead to the survivor, thereby vesting the title thereto in fee simple in the survivor: PROVIDED, That if there be any incompetent heirs of the decedent, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such incompetent heir who shall appear at the hearing and represent the interest of such incompetent heir.

Sec. 20. Section 11.52.022, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.022 are each amended to read as follows:

If the value of the homestead, exclusive of all such liens, be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, the court, upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration, have been paid or provided for, shall set off and award additional property, either separate or community, in lieu of such deficiency, so that the value of the homestead, exclusive of all such liens and expenses when added to the value of the other property awarded, exclusive of all such liens and expenses shall equal twenty-five thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That if it shall appear to the court, either (1) that there are children of the deceased by a former marriage or by adoption prior to decedent's marriage to petitioner, or (2) that the petitioning surviving spouse has abandoned his or her minor children or wilfully and wrongfully failed to provide for them, or (3) that such surviving spouse is, or any minor child entitled to an award under RCW 11.52.030 is, entitled to receive property not subject to probate, including insurance by reason of the death of the deceased spouse in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or more, then the award of property in addition to the homestead, where the homestead is of less than twenty-five thousand dollars in value, shall lie in the discretion of the court, and that whether there shall be an award in addition to the homestead and the amount thereof shall be determined by the court, which shall enter such decree as shall be just and equitable, but not in excess of the award provided herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 26.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall state that, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.17 RCW (sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act) without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order. If the social security number of the person obligated to make child support payments under the support order or decree is available, the court shall require that the social security number of the obligor be included in the order or decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 26.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall state that, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.17 RCW (sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act) without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order. If the social security number of the person obligated to make child support payments under the support order or decree is available, the court shall require that the social security number of the obligor be included in the order or decree.
wage assignment under chapter 26— RCW (sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act) without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order. If the social security number of the person obligated to make child support payments under the support order or decree is available, the court shall require that the social security number of the obligor be included in the order or decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 26.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall state that, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26— RCW (sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act) without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order. If the social security number of the person obligated to make child support payments under the support order or decree is available, the court shall require that the social security number of the obligor be included in the order or decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Nothing in this chapter limits the authority of the attorney general or prosecuting attorney to use any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives public assistance payments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. In any action to enforce a support order under this chapter, the prevailing party is entitled to a recovery of costs, including an award for reasonable attorney fees. An obligor may not be considered a prevailing party under this section unless the obligee has acted in bad faith in connection with the proceeding in question.

Sec. 26. Section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 34, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (Every) Any person who((

(a)) has a child dependent upon him or her for care, education or support and deserts such child in any manner whatever with intent to abandon it((--or)) is guilty of the crime of family abandonment.

((b)) Wilfully omits, without lawful excuse, to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance for his or her child or stepchild or children or stepchildren or ward or wards. PROVIDED: That with regard to stepchildren the obligation shall cease upon termination of the relationship of husband and wife; or

((c)) Has sufficient ability to provide for support of such person's spouse or is able to earn the means for such person's spouse support and wilfully abandons and leaves such person's spouse in a destitute condition; or who refuses or neglects to provide such person's spouse with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance, unless the abandonment is justified by misconduct of the abandoned spouse, shall be guilty of the crime of family desertion or nonsupport.

(2) When children are involved under the age of sixteen years, such act shall be a felony and punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by both fine and imprisonment:

(3) When there is no child under sixteen years, such act shall be a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both fine and imprisonment.

(2) The crime of family abandonment is a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 26.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any person who is able to provide support, or has the ability to earn the means to provide support, and who:

(a) Wilfully omits to provide necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance to a child dependent upon him or her; or

(b) Wilfully omits to provide necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance to his or her spouse, is guilty of the crime of family nonsupport.

(2) The crime of family nonsupport is a gross misdemeanor under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 28. Section 3, chapter 28, Laws of 1913 as amended by section 36, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.20.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Proof of the (abandonment or) nonsupport of a spouse((or)) or (the desertion) of a child or children. (ward or wards) or the omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance for a spouse, or for a child or children. (ward or wards) is prima facie evidence that (such abandonment or) the nonsupport((of)) or omission to furnish food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance is wilful. The provisions of RCW 26.20.030 ((as now or hereafter amended) and section 27 of this 1984 act are applicable ((whether the parents of such child or children are married or divorced and regardless of any decree made in civil divorce action relative to alimony or to the support of the spouse or child or children) regardless of the marital status of the person who has a child dependent upon him or her, and regardless of the nonexistence of any decree requiring payment of support or maintenance.

Sec. 29, Section 5, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 20, chapter 201, Law of 1982 and RCW 74.20.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department of social and health services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child, the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter, chapter 74.20A RCW, or other appropriate statutes of this state to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay support moneys.

((The department shall collect data from cases of support under RCW 74.20.270 where there is no court-ordered support obligation. Such data shall include: income characteristics of those obligated to pay support, obligation established, and resulting payments. The department shall report its findings to the appropriate legislative committees by January 1, 1983. The department shall reconsider its administrative standards under RCW 74.20.270 in light of relevant data and shall, to the extent feasible without substantial impact on aid to families with dependent children, bring those standards into conformity with payment standards based on actual experience.))

(2) The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action as he deems appropriate to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay moneys. Applications accepted under this section may be conditioned upon the payment of a fee as required through regulation issued by the secretary. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, such reasonable standards as he deems necessary to limit applications for support enforcement services. Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said person for whom a support obligation exists.

(3) The secretary may ((charge)) collect a fee from the person obligated to pay support to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be (agreed on in writing with the custodian or guardian of the person for whom a support obligation is owed: or that person if no custodian or guardian exists and shall be) limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The fee charged shall be in addition to the support obligation. In no event may the fee be collected by the department of social and health services until all current support obligations have been satisfied. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to (all applicants for support enforcement services) any person obligated to pay support. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee.

(4) ((The secretary may impose a fee on the individual who owes a child support or spousal support obligation with respect to all such child and spousal support obligations for which collection is made on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance.)) Fees, due and owing, may be collected as delinquent support moneys utilizing any of the remedies in chapter 74.20 RCW, chapter 74.20A RCW, chapter 26.21 RCW, or any other remedy at law or equity available to the department or any agencies with whom it has a cooperative or contractual arrangement to establish, enforce, or collect support moneys or support obligations.

(5) The secretary may waive the fee, or any portion thereof, as a part of a compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge off of said fee if the secretary finds there are no available, practical, or lawful means by which said fee may be collected or to facilitate payment of the amount of delinquent support moneys owed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 6.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When a homestead declaration occurs before a judgment, the judgment creditor has a lien on the value of the property in excess of the homestead exemption. This lien commences when the judgment creditor records the judgment with the auditor of the county where the property is located.

Sec. 31. Section 10, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The child shall be made a party to the action. If the child is a minor, the child shall be represented by the child's general guardian or a guardian ad litem appointed by the court subject to RCW 74.20.310. The child's mother or father may not represent the child as guardian or otherwise. The natural mother, each man presumed to be the father under RCW 26.26.040, and (each) a man or men alleged to be the natural father(ies) shall be made parties or, if not subject to the jurisdiction of the court, shall, if possible, be given actual notice of the action ((in a manner prescribed by the court)) and an opportunity to be heard in a manner as the court may prescribe. ((The court may align the parties:))
(2) Any party may cause to be joined as additional parties other men alleged to be the father of the child or any other person necessary for a full adjudication of the issues.
(3) The failure or inability to join as a party an alleged or presumed father does not deprive the court of jurisdiction to adjudicate some or all of the issues based on the evidence and parties available to it.
(4) If more than one party is alleged to be the father of the child, the default of a party shall not preclude the court from finding any other party to be the father of the child.

Sec. 32. Section 11, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court may, and upon request of any party shall, require the child, mother, and (as previously (or)) any alleged father who has been made a party to submit to blood tests. If an alleged father objects to a proposed order requiring him to submit to paternity blood tests, the court may require the party making the allegation of possible paternity to provide sworn testimony, by affidavit or otherwise, stating the facts upon which the allegation is based. The court shall order blood tests if it appears that a reasonable possibility exists that the requisite sexual contact occurred. The tests shall be performed by an expert in paternity blood testing appointed by the court. The expert's verified report identifying the blood characteristics observed is admissible in evidence in any hearing or trial in the parentage action, if (a) the alleged or presumed father has had the opportunity to gain information about the security, validity, and interpretation of the tests and the qualifications of any experts, and (b) the report is accompanied by an affidavit from the expert which describes the expert's qualifications as an expert and analyzes and interprets the results. Verified documentation of the chain of custody of the blood samples tested is admissible to establish the chain of custody. The court may consider published sources as aids to interpretation of the test results.

((2)) (3) The court, upon (reasonable) request by a party, shall order that additional blood tests be performed by the same or other experts qualified in paternity blood testing, if the party requesting additional tests advances the full costs of the additional testing within a reasonable time. The court may order additional testing without requiring that the requesting party advance the costs only if another party agrees to advance the costs or if the court finds, after hearing, that (a) the requesting party is indigent, and (b) the laboratory performing the initial tests recommends additional testing or there is substantial evidence to support a finding as to paternity contrary to the initial blood test results. The court may later order any other party to reimburse the party who advanced the costs of additional testing for all or a portion of the costs.

((3)) (4) In all cases, the court shall determine the number and qualifications of the experts.

Sec. 33. Section 12, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Evidence relating to paternity may include:

1. Evidence of sexual intercourse between the mother and alleged father at any possible time of conception;
2. An expert's opinion concerning the statistical probability of the alleged father's paternity based upon the duration of the mother's pregnancy;
3. An expert's opinion concerning the impossibility or the statistical probability of the alleged father's paternity based upon blood test results (weighted in accordance with evidence, if available, of the statistical probability of the alleged father's paternity);
4. Medical or anthropological evidence relating to the alleged father's paternity of the child based on tests performed by experts. If a man has been identified as a possible father of the child, the court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, the mother, and the man to submit to appropriate tests; and
5. All other evidence relevant to the issue of paternity of the child.

Sec. 34. Section 13, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.120 are each amended to read as follows:

1. An action under this chapter is a civil action governed by the rules of civil procedures.
The mother of the child and the alleged father are competent to testify and may be compelled to testify.
2. Upon refusal of any witness, including a party, to testify under oath or produce evidence of any other kind on the ground that (the) the witness may be incriminated thereby, and if a prosecuting attorney requests the courts to order that person to testify or provide the evidence, the court shall then hold a hearing and shall so order, unless it finds that to do so would be clearly contrary to the public interest, and that person shall comply with the order.

If, but for this section, (the) the witness would have been privileged to withhold the answer given or the evidence produced (by him), the witness may not refuse to comply with the order on the basis of (this) the privilege against self-incrimination; but (these) the witness shall not be prosecuted or subjected to criminal penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or fact concerning which (these) the witness has been ordered to testify pursuant to this section. (The) The witness may nevertheless be prosecuted for failing to comply with the order to answer, or for perjury or for offering false evidence to the court.

FORTY-NINTH DAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1984 929
(3) Testimony of a physician concerning the medical circumstances of the pregnancy and the condition and characteristics of the child upon birth is not privileged.

(4) In an action against an alleged father, evidence offered by ((his)) the alleged father with respect to a man who ((is not subject to the jurisdiction of the court)) has not been joined as a party concerning ((his)) the nonparty's sexual intercourse with the mother at or about the probable time of conception of the child is admissible in evidence only if ((he)) the nonparty has undergone and made available to the court blood tests, including the human leukocyte antigen (HLA) test or other tests of comparable exclusionary power, the results of which do not exclude the possibility of ((his)) the nonparty's paternity of the child. (A man who is identified and is subject to the jurisdiction of the court shall be made a defendant in the action.)

(5) The trial shall be by the court without a jury.

Sec. 35. Section 15, chapter 42, Laws of 1975–76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may order reasonable fees of ((counsel)) experts((s)) and the child's guardian ad litem, and other costs of the action, including blood test((s)) costs, to be paid by the parties in proportions and at times determined by the court. The court may order that all or a portion of a party's reasonable attorney's fees be paid by another party, except that an award of attorney's fees assessed against the state or any of its agencies or representatives shall be under RCW 4.84.185.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A joint legislative committee on child support is hereby created.

The committee shall be composed of eleven members, five to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and five to be appointed by the president of the senate. Three of the members from each house shall be from the majority party and two from the minority party. The eleventh member shall be a member of the public and shall be appointed by a majority of the legislative committee members. The nonlegislative member of the joint committee shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for travel expenses incurred while attending official meetings of the committee. The legislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The joint committee on child support shall examine, investigate, and study the operation of the state's child support system. The primary purpose of the study shall be to determine the system's success in securing support and parental involvement both for children who are eligible for aid under Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act and children who are not eligible for aid. The joint committee shall give particular attention to the recommendations which were made at the October, 1983 legislative conference on child support and paternity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. The joint committee shall submit to the social and health services committees of the house of representatives and the senate and make available to the public, no later than October 1, 1985, a report of its findings and recommendations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. Sections 36 through 38 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. Sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Section 2, chapter 28, Laws of 1913, section 1, chapter 297, Laws of 1927, section 35, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.20.050 are each repealed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment to the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 24 of the amendment, after line 7, insert the following:

"Sec. 40. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 26.16.205.

No collection shall be made from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys while such person or persons are in such status except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

Sec. 41. Section 18, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.270 are each amended to read as follows:"
The secretary may issue a notice of support debt to any person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision of the state of Washington or any officer or agent thereof who is in possession of support moneys, or who has had support moneys in his or her possession at some time in the past, which support moneys were or are claimed by the department as the property of the department by assignment, subrogation, or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW. If the support moneys have not been remitted to the department as required by law.

The notice shall describe the claim of the department, stating the legal basis for the claim and shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof upon whom service is made to identify the support moneys in issue. The notice may also make inquiry as to relevant facts necessary to the resolution of the issue.

The notice may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in the manner of a summons in a civil action. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The notice shall also either acknowledge the department’s right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department’s claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary’s designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary’s designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary’s designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary’s designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts. The secretary or the secretary’s designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary’s designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.

If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20.040, 74.20A.250, 74.20.320, or 74.20.330. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect moneys determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent’s minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to RCW 74.20.320 and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt of support moneys paid in satisfaction of the debt assigned under RCW 74.20.330 which have been assigned to the department but were received by a recipient or ex-recipient from another responsible parent and not remitted to the department. To collect these wrongfully retained funds from the recipient, the department may not take collection action (during such period of time as) in excess of ten percent of the grant payment standard during any month the public assistance recipient remains in that status unless required by federal law. Payments not credited against the department's debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved the following amendment to the Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

On page 15, after line 35, insert the following:

"Sec. 25. Section 16, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) If a party fails to comply with a provision of a decree or temporary order of injunction, the obligation of the other party to make payments for support or maintenance or to permit visitation is not suspended (but he may move the court to grant an appropriate order) except, upon motion and after hearing, the court may order the suspension of the payment of child support to a custodial parent required by a court order if visitation is not allowed by the custodial parent in compliance with the court order under the following conditions:

(b) The custodial parent is served with a motion and order to show cause setting a hearing, not less than ten days after service of the motion and order, and requiring the custodial parent to appear and show cause why an order suspending support payments should not be entered in accordance with this section;

(c) The obligor parent is current in the child support obligation;

(d) The obligor parent continues to make full child support payments to the clerk of the court, to be held in trust; and

(e) The child support obligation is not assigned to the state under RCW 74.20.330.

(2) If it is a defense to a suspension of child support sought under this section that visitation by the obligor parent would endanger a child's physical, mental, or emotional health.

(3) At any time after the entry of an order suspending support payments under this section, the custodial parent may petition the court for relief from the suspension order. The court shall grant relief from the suspension order, release the support payments held in trust to the custodial parent, and reinstate the original child support order, if the custodial parent demonstrates compliance with the visitation order and gives adequate assurances of continuing compliance, or proves existence of a violation of one of the conditions set forth above.

(4) If relief is not granted from the suspension order within one year of entry, the court may, upon motion of a party, enter an appropriate order disposing of the support moneys held in trust, which may include the release of the moneys to the obligor and relief of the future obligation to pay support."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, I challenge the amendment on scope and object. The Owen amendment expands the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1627. The original bill's scope and object was to revise the child support laws and to provide a new mechanism for collecting child support. The entire purpose of the bill is child support. The Owen amendment provides new mechanism of the court and visitation orders. It amends the visitation order section of the dissolution of marriage chapters in the RCW's. This amendment is cleverly drafted to use child support obligations as a mechanism for enforcing visitation rights and clearly expands the scope and object of the original bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1627 is a measure which deals with the subject of child support by establishing additional remedies for the enforcement of child support orders.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Owen deals with the subject of visitation by establishing an additional remedy for the enforcement of visitation orders.
"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment to the committee amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments to the Committee on Judiciary amendment were considered simultaneously and adopted:

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 626, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representative Grimm)

Modifying provisions concerning adoption.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the purpose of adoption is to provide stable homes for children. Adoptions should be handled efficiently, but the rights of all parties must be protected. The guiding principle must be determining what is in the best interest of the child. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be used only as a means for placing children in adoptive homes and not as a means for parents to avoid responsibility for their children unless the department, an agency, or a prospective adoptive parent is willing to assume the responsibility for the child."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Alleged father" means a person whose parent-child relationship has not been terminated, who is not a presumed father under chapter 26.26 RCW, and who alleges himself or whom a party alleges to be the father of the child. It includes a person whose marriage to the mother was terminated more than three hundred days before the birth of the child or who was separated from the mother more than three hundred days before the birth of the child.

(2) "Child" means a person under eighteen years of age.

(3) "Adoptee" means a person who is to be adopted or who has been adopted.

(4) "Adoptive parent" means the person or persons who seek to adopt or have adopted an adoptee.

(5) "Court" means the superior court.

(6) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(7) "Agency" means any public or private association, corporation, or individual licensed or certified by the department as a child placing agency under chapter 74.15 RCW or as an adoption agency.

(8) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive mother or father of a child, including a presumed father under chapter 26.26 RCW. It does not include any person whose parent-child relationship has been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(9) "Legal guardian" means the department, an agency, or a person, other than a parent or stepparent, appointed by the court to promote the child’s general welfare, with the authority and duty to make decisions affecting the child’s development.

(10) "Guardian ad litem" means a person, not related to a party to the action, appointed by the court to represent the best interests of a party who is under a legal disability.

(11) "Relinquish or relinquishment" means the voluntary surrender of custody of a child to the department, an agency, or prospective adoptive parents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A petition under this chapter may be filed in the superior court of the county in which the petitioner is a resident or of the county in which the adoptee is domiciled.

(2) A petition under this chapter may be consolidated with any other petition under this chapter. A hearing under this chapter may be consolidated with any other hearing under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Every petition filed in proceedings under this chapter shall contain a statement alleging whether the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., applies to the proceeding. Every order or decree entered in any proceeding under this chapter shall contain a finding that the Indian Child Welfare Act does or does not apply.

(2) Every petition filed in proceedings under this chapter shall contain a statement alleging whether the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, 50 U.S.C. Sec. 501 et seq., applies to the proceeding. Every order or decree entered in any proceeding under this chapter shall contain a finding that the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940 does or does not apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any consent, relinquishment, or order of termination that would be valid in the jurisdiction in which it was executed or obtained, and which comports with due process of law, is valid in Washington state, but the burden of proof as to validity and compliance is on the petitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. All hearings under this chapter shall be heard by the court without a jury. Unless the parties and the court agree otherwise, proceedings of contested hearings shall be recorded. The general public shall be excluded and only those persons shall be admitted whose presence is requested by any person entitled to notice under this chapter or whom the judge finds to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. Persons so admitted shall not disclose any information obtained at the hearing which would identify the individual adoptee or parent involved. The court may require the presence of witnesses deemed necessary to the disposition of the petition, including persons making any report, study, or examination which is before the court if those persons are reasonably available. A person who has executed a valid waiver need not appear at the hearing. If the court finds that it is in the child’s best interest, the child may be excluded from the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for any parent or alleged father under eighteen years of age in any proceeding under this chapter. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem for a child adoptee or any incompetent party in any proceeding under this chapter. The guardian ad litem for a parent or alleged father. In addition to determining what is in the best interest of the party, shall make an investigation and report to the court concerning whether any written consent to adoption or petition for relinquishment signed by the parent or alleged father was signed voluntarily and with an understanding of the consequences of the action.

(2) The county in which a petition is filed shall pay the fees of a guardian ad litem or attorney appointed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A parent, the department, or an agency may file with the court a petition to relinquish a child to the department or an agency. The parent’s written consent to
(2) A parent or prospective adoptive parent may file with the court a petition to relinquish a child to the prospective adoptive parent. The parent's written consent to adoption shall accompany the petition. The written consent of the prospective adoptive parent to assume custody shall be filed with the petition. The identity of the prospective adoptive parent need not be disclosed to the petitioner.

(3) A petition for relinquishment, together with the written consent to adoption, may be filed before the child's birth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The court shall set a time and place for a hearing on the petition for relinquishment. The hearing may not be held sooner than forty-eight hours after the child's birth. The court may enter a temporary order giving custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parent, if a preplacement report has been filed, or to the department or agency to whom the child will be relinquished pending the court's hearing on the petition.

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be served on any parent, any alleged father, and the department, agency, or prospective adoptive parent in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

(3) The court may require the parent to appear personally and enter his or her consent to adoption on the record. The court shall determine that any written consent has been validly executed. If the court determines it is in the best interests of the child, the court shall approve the petition for relinquishment.

(4) If the court approves the petition, it shall award custody of the child to the department, agency, or prospective adoptive parent, who shall be appointed legal guardian. The legal guardian shall be financially responsible for support of the child until further order of the court. The court shall also enter an order pursuant to section 13 of this act terminating the parent-child relationship of the parent and the child.

(5) An order of relinquishment to an agency or the department shall include an order authorizing the agency to place the child with a prospective adoptive parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) A petition for termination of the parent-child relationship of a parent or alleged father who has not executed a written consent to adoption may be filed by:

(a) The department or an agency; or

(b) The prospective adoptive parent to whom a child has been or may be relinquished if the prospective adoptive parent has filed or consented to a petition for relinquishment.

(2) If the court approves the petition, it shall, within forty-eight hours after the child's birth, enter an order of relinquishment to an agency or the department. An order of relinquishment to an agency or the department shall include an order authorizing the agency to place the child with a prospective adoptive parent.

(a) The department or an agency; or

(b) The prospective adoptive parent to whom a child has been or may be relinquished if the prospective adoptive parent has filed or consented to a petition for relinquishment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The court shall set a time and place for a hearing on the petition for termination of the parent-child relationship, which shall not be held sooner than forty-eight hours after the child's birth.

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be served on the petitioner, the parents, any alleged lather, the legal guardian of a party, and the guardian ad litem of a party, in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

(3) The notice of the petition shall:

(a) State the date and place of birth. If the petition is filed prior to birth, the notice shall state the approximate date and location of conception of the child and the expected date of birth, and shall identify the mother;

(b) Inform the nonconsenting parent or alleged father that: (i) He or she has a right to be represented by counsel and that counsel will be appointed for an indigent person who requests counsel; and (ii) failure to respond to the termination action within twenty days of service will result in the termination of his or her parent-child relationship with respect to the child;

(c) Inform an alleged lather that failure to file a claim of paternity under chapter 26.26 RCW or to respond to the petition, within twenty days of the date of service of the petition is grounds to terminate his parent-child relationship with respect to the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The parent-child relationship of a parent may be terminated upon a showing by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that it is in the best interest of the child to terminate the relationship and that the parent has failed to perform parental duties under circumstances showing a substantial lack of regard for his or her parental obligations and is withholding consent to adoption contrary to the best interest of the child.

(2) The parent-child relationship of an alleged father who appears and claims paternity may be terminated upon a showing by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that it is in the best interest of the child to terminate the relationship and that:

(a) The alleged father has failed to perform parental duties under circumstances showing a substantial lack of regard for his parental obligations and is withholding consent to adoption contrary to the best interest of the child; or

(b) He is not the father.
(3) The parent-child relationship of a parent or an alleged father may be terminated if the parent or alleged father fails to appear after being notified of the hearing in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) If the court determines, after a hearing, that the parent-child relationship should be terminated pursuant to section 9 or 12 of this act, the court shall enter an appropriate order terminating the parent-child relationship.

(2) An order terminating the parent-child relationship divests the parent and the child of all legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations with respect to each other except past-due child support obligations owed by the parent.

(3) The parent-child relationship may be terminated with respect to one parent without affecting the parent-child relationship between the child and the other parent.

(4) The parent or alleged father whose parent-child relationship with the child has been terminated is not thereafter entitled to notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child by another, nor has the parent or alleged father any right to contest the adoption or otherwise to participate in the proceedings unless an appeal from the termination order is pending or otherwise ordered by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Any person may be adopted, regardless of his or her age or residence.

(2) Any person who is legally competent and who is eighteen years of age or older may be an adoptive parent:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) An adoption proceeding is initiated by filing with the court a petition for adoption. The petition shall be filed by the prospective adoptive parent.

(2) A petition for adoption shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the petitioner;
(b) The name, if any, gender, and place and date of birth, if known, of the adoptee;
(c) A statement that the child is or is not an Indian child covered by the Indian Child Welfare Act;
(d) The name and address of the department or any agency, legal guardian, or person having custody of the child.

(3) The written consent to adoption of any person, the department, or agency which has been executed shall be filed with the petition.

(4) The petition shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the petitioner. If the petitioner is married, the petitioner's spouse shall join in the petition.

(5) If a preplacement report prepared pursuant to section 19 of this act has not been previously filed with the court, the preplacement report shall be filed with the petition for adoption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 17 of this act, consent to an adoption shall be required of the following if applicable:

(a) The adoptee, if fourteen years of age or older;
(b) The parents and any alleged father of an adoptee under eighteen years of age;
(c) An agency or the department to whom the adoptee has been relinquished pursuant to section 8 of this act; and
(d) The legal guardian of the adoptee.

(2) The written consent to adoption shall be signed under penalty of perjury and shall state that:

(a) It is given subject to approval of the court;
(b) It has no force or effect until approved by the court;
(c) The consent will not be presented to the court until forty-eight hours after it is signed;
(d) It is revocable by the consenting party at any time prior to its approval by the court;
(e) A consenting party who seeks to revoke the consent must notify the agency or person who obtained the consent verbally or in writing within forty-eight hours of signing the consent, and, if the initial notice is oral, the party seeking to revoke must mail written notification of revocation to the clerk of the court no less than forty-eight hours after the oral notice was given;
(f) The address of the clerk of court where the consent will be presented is included; and
(g) After it has been approved by the court, the consent is not revocable except for fraud or duress practiced by the person, department, or agency requesting the consent or for lack of mental competency at the time the consent was executed by the person signing the consent. A written consent to adoption shall not be revoked more than one year after it is approved by the court.

(3) A written consent to adoption which meets all the requirements of this chapter but which does not name or otherwise identify the adopting parent shall be valid if it contains a statement that it is voluntarily executed without disclosure of the name or other identification of the adopting parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. An agency's, the department's, or a legal guardian's consent to adoption may be dispensed with if the court determines that the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the adoptee and that the refusal to consent to adoption is arbitrary and capricious.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Except as provided in section 22 of this act, a child shall not be placed with prospective adoptive parents until a preplacement report has been filed with the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) Any person may at any time request an agency, the department, an individual approved by the court, or a qualified salaried court employee to prepare a preplacement report. A person may have more than one preplacement report prepared. All preplacement reports shall be filed with the court in which the petition for adoption is filed.

(2) The preplacement report shall be a written document setting forth all relevant information relating to the fitness of the person requesting the report as an adoptive parent. The report shall be based on a study which shall include an investigation of the home environment, family life, health, facilities, and resources of the person requesting the report. The report shall include a list of the sources of information on which the report is based. The report shall include a recommendation as to the fitness of the person requesting the report to be an adoptive parent.

(3) An agency, the department, or a court approved individual may charge a reasonable fee based on the time spent in conducting the study and preparing the preplacement report. The court may set a reasonable fee for conducting the study and preparing the report when a court employee has prepared the report. An agency, the department, a court approved individual, or the court may reduce or waive the fee if the financial condition of the person requesting the report so warrants. An agency's, the department's, or court approved individual's fee is subject to review by the court upon request of the person requesting the report.

(4) The person requesting the report shall designate to the agency, the department, the court approved individual, or the court in writing the county in which the preplacement report is to be filed. If the person requesting the report has not filed a petition for adoption, the report shall be indexed in the name of the person requesting the report and a cause number shall be assigned. A fee shall not be charged for filing the report. The applicable filing fee may be charged at the time a petition governed by this chapter is filed. Any subsequent preplacement reports shall be filed together with the original report.

(5) A copy of the completed preplacement report shall be delivered to the person requesting the report.

(6) A person may request that a report not be completed. A reasonable fee may be charged for the value of work done.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) Except as provided in section 22 of this act, at the time the petition for adoption is filed, the court shall order a post-placement report made to determine the nature and adequacy of the placement and to determine if the placement is in the best interest of the child. The report shall be prepared by an agency, the department, an individual approved by the court, or a qualified salaried court employee appointed by the court. The report shall be in writing and contain all reasonably available information concerning the physical and mental condition of the child, home environment, family life, health, facilities and resources of the petitioners, and any other facts and circumstances relating to the propriety and advisability of the adoption. The report shall also include, if relevant, information on the child's special cultural heritage, including membership in any Indian tribe or band. The report shall be filed within sixty days of the date of appointment, unless the time is extended by the court. The preplacement report shall be made available to the person appointed to make the post-placement report.

(2) A fee may be charged for preparation of the post-placement report in the same manner as for a preplacement report under section 19(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The department or an agency having the custody of a child may make the preplacement or post-placement report on a petitioner for the adoption of that child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the reports required by section 19 of this act are not required if the petitioner seeks to adopt the child of the petitioner's spouse. The reports required by sections 19 and 20 of this act are not required if the adoptee is eighteen years of age or older.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) After the reports required by sections 19 and 20 of this act have been filed, the court shall schedule a hearing on the petition for adoption upon request of the petitioner for adoption. Notice of the date, time, and place of hearing shall be given to the petitioner and any person or agency whose consent to adoption is required under section 16 of this act, unless the person or agency has waived in writing the right to receive notice of the hearing. Notice shall be given in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

(2) Notice of the adoption hearing shall also be given to any person who or agency which has prepared a preplacement report. The notice shall be given in the manner prescribed by section 24 of this act.

(3) If the court determines, after review of the petition, preplacement and post-placement reports, and other evidence introduced at the hearing, that all necessary consents to adoption are valid or have been dispensed with pursuant to section 17 of this act and that the adoption is in the best interest of the adoptee, the court shall enter a decree of adoption pursuant to section 25 of this act.
(4) If the court determines the petition should not be granted because the adoption is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall make appropriate provision for the care and custody of the child.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. The petitioner shall give not less than three days written notice of any proceeding at which a preplacement report will be considered to all agencies, any court approved individual, or any court employee requested by the petitioner to make a preplacement report. The notice shall state the name of the petitioner, the cause number of the proceeding, the time and place of the hearing, and the object of the hearing. Proof of service on the agency or court approved individual in form satisfactory to the court shall be furnished. The agency or court approved individual may appear at the hearing and give testimony concerning any matters relevant to the relinquishment or the adoption and its recommendation as to the fitness of petitioners as parents. The agency or court approved individual may in writing acknowledge notice and state to the court that the agency or court approved individual does not desire to participate in the hearing or the agency or court approved individual may in writing waive notice of any hearing.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. (1) A decree of adoption shall provide, as a minimum, the following information:
   (a) The full original name of the person to be adopted;
   (b) The full name of each petitioner for adoption;
   (c) Whether the petitioner or petitioners are husband and wife, stepparent, or a single parent;
   (d) The full new name of the person adopted, unless the name of the adoptee is not to be changed;
   (e) Information to be incorporated in any new certificate of birth to be issued by the state or territorial registrar of vital records; and
   (f) The adoptee’s date of birth and place of birth as determined under subsection (3) of this section.

   (2) Except for the names of the person adopted and the petitioner, information set forth in the decree that differs from that shown on the original birth certificate, alternative birth record, or other information used in lieu of such a record shall be included in the decree only upon a clear showing that the information in the original record is erroneous.

   (3) In determining the date and place of birth of a person born outside the United States, the court shall:
      (a) If available, enter in the decree the exact date and place of birth as stated in the birth certificate from the country of origin or in the United States department of state’s report of birth abroad or in the documents of the United States immigration and naturalization service;
      (b) If the exact place of birth is unknown, enter in the decree such information as may be known and designate a place of birth in the country of origin;
      (c) If the exact date of birth is unknown, determine a date of birth based upon medical testimony as to the probable chronological age of the adoptee and other evidence regarding the adoptee’s age that the court finds appropriate to consider;
      (d) In any other case where documents of the United States immigration and naturalization service are not available, the court shall determine the date and place of birth based upon such evidence as the court in its discretion determines appropriate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. The entry of a decree of adoption divests any parent or alleged father who is not married to the adoptive parent or who has not joined in the petition for adoption of all legal rights and obligations in respect to the adoptee, except past-due child support obligations. The adoptee shall be free from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance in respect to the parent. The adoptee shall be, to all intents and purposes, and for all legal incidents, the child, legal heir, and lawful issue of the adoptive parent, entitled to all rights and privileges, including the right of inheritance and the right to take under testamentary disposition, and subject to all the obligations of a natural child of the adoptive parent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. An order or decree entered under this chapter shall not disenfranchise a child from any benefit due the child from any third person, agency, state, or the United States. Action under this chapter shall not affect any rights and benefits that a native American child derives from the child’s descent from a member of an Indian tribe or band.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. After a decree of adoption is entered, as soon as the time for appeal has expired, or if an appeal is taken, and the adoption is affirmed on appeal, the clerk of the court shall transmit to the state registrar of vital statistics a certified copy of the decree, along with any additional information and fees required by the registrar.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 29. Upon receipt of a decree of adoption, the state registrar of vital statistics shall:
   (1) Return the decree to the court clerk if all information required by section 25 of this act is not included in the decree;
   (2) If the adoptee was born in a state other than Washington, or in a territory of the United States, forward the certificate of adoption to the appropriate health record recording agency of the state or territory of the United States in which the birth occurred:
(3) If the adoptee was born outside of the United States or its territories, issue a new certificate of birth by the office of the state registrar of vital statistics which reflects the information contained in the decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. The department shall be a depository for statistical data concerning adoption. It shall furnish to the clerk of each county a data card which shall be completed and filed with the clerk on behalf of each petitioner. The clerk shall forward the completed cards to the department which may compile the data and publish reports summarizing the data. A birth certificate shall not be issued showing the petitioner as the parent of any child adopted in the state of Washington until a data card has been completed and filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. (1) Petitions governed by this chapter shall be served in the same manner as a complaint in a civil action under the superior court civil rules. Subsequent notice, papers, and pleadings may be served in the manner provided in superior court civil rules.

(2) If personal service on the parent or any identified alleged father, either within or without this state, cannot be given, notice shall be given: (a) By registered mail, mailed at least twenty days before the hearing to the person’s last known address; and (b) by publication at least once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication date at least twenty-five days before the hearing. Publication shall be in a legal newspaper in the city or town of the last known address within the United States and its territories of the parent or alleged father, whether within or without this state, or, if no address is known or the last known address is not within the United States and its territories, in the city or town where the proceeding has been commenced.

(3) Notice and appearance may be waived by the department, an agency, a parent, or an alleged father before the court or in a writing signed under penalty of perjury. The waiver shall contain the current address of the department, agency, parent, or alleged father. The face of the waiver for a hearing on termination of the parent-child relationship shall contain language explaining the meaning and consequences of the waiver and the meaning and consequences of termination of the parent-child relationship. A person or agency who has executed a waiver shall not be required to appear.

(4) If a person entitled to notice is known to the petitioner to be unable to read or understand English, all notices, if practicable, shall be given in that person’s native language or through an interpreter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. (1) In deciding whether to grant a petition for adoption of a hard to place child and in reviewing any request for the vacation or modification of a decree of adoption, the superior court shall consider any agreement made or proposed to be made between the department and any prospective adoptive parent for any payment or payments which have been provided or which are to be provided by the department in support of the adoption of such child. Before the date of the hearing on the petition to adopt, vacate, or modify an adoption decree, the department shall file as part of the adoption file with respect to the child a copy of any initial agreement, together with any changes made in the agreement, or in the related standards.

(2) If the court, in its judgment, finds the provision made in an agreement to be inadequate, it may make any recommendation as it deems warranted with respect to the agreement to the department. The court shall not, however, solely by virtue of this section, be empowered to direct the department to make payment. This section shall not be deemed to limit any other power of the superior court with respect to the adoption and any related matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1) All records of any proceeding under this chapter shall be sealed and shall not be thereafter open to inspection by any person except upon order of the court for good cause shown.

(2) The state registrar of vital statistics may charge a reasonable fee for the review of any of its sealed records.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. Department and agency files regarding an adoptee shall be confidential except the department or agency may disclose nonidentifying information necessary for medical purposes upon the receipt of a verified written request for the information from the adoptive parent, the adoptee, or the natural parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. (1) If a natural parent unsuccessfully petitions to have an adoption set aside, the court shall award costs, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, to the adoptive parent.

(2) If a natural parent successfully petitions to have an adoption set aside, the natural parent shall be liable to the adoptive parent for both the actual expenditures and the value of services rendered by the adoptive parents in caring for the child.

(3) A natural parent who has executed a written consent to adoption shall not bring an action to set aside an adoption more than one year after the date the court approved the written consent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. (1) Unless otherwise permitted by court order or statute, it is unlawful for any person, partnership, society, association, or corporation, except the parents, to assume the permanent care and custody of a child. Unless otherwise permitted by court order or statute, it is unlawful for any parent to relinquish or transfer to another person, partnership, society, association, or corporation the permanent care and custody of any child for adoption or any other purpose.

(2) Any relinquishment or transfer in violation of this section shall be void.

(3) Violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Every person, firm, society, association, or corporation receiving, securing a home for, or otherwise caring for a minor child shall transmit to the prospective adopting parent prior to placement and shall make available to all persons with whom a child has been placed by adoption a complete medical report containing all reasonably available information concerning the mental, physical, and sensory handicaps of the child. The report shall not reveal the identity of the natural parents of the child but shall include any reasonably available mental or physical health history of the natural parents that needs to be known by the adoptive parents to facilitate proper health care for the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.010;
(2) Section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 26.32.015;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. Sections 1 through 37 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. This act shall take effect January 1, 1985. Any proceeding initiated before the effective date of this act shall be governed by the law in effect on the date the proceeding was initiated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Senator Talmadge, one of the concerns that many of us had on the Judiciary Committee—and I do support this bill—I think it's an excellent bill—are the issues that were brought up to the committee by the WARM people. I'm wondering what the intentions are of the chair and the committee, in the interim, on the subject."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Hughes, my desire was not to address that issue in this bill, because this is an updating and clarifying kind of bill. I, too, share your same concern about access to records and it would be my intention to consider that issue over the interim. The WARM people did not present their bill to the House of Representatives. The sponsors did not get a chance to look at it in detail, but I understand they'd be interested and I know I am—in looking at that issue over the interim."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 626, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 626, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 626, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Gramlund, Guess, Hatley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellor, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 45.

Absent: Senator Fleming - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 626, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1125, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives McClure, Lewis, Sayan, Smitherman, Braddock, Niemi, Dellwo, Ballard, Wang, Brough, Ebersole, Fisher, Jacobsen, J. King, Patrick, Tanner, Vekich, Brekke, Ellis, Barrett, Miller, Halsan and L. Smith)

Mandating a study of children’s mental health services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following Committee on Social and Health Services amendment:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The house social and health services committee, senate social and health services committee, senate judiciary committee, and the legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of children’s mental health services in a manner deemed efficient and appropriate.

(2) The objectives of the study shall be as follows:

(a) To perform a program, management, and fiscal review of existing publicly funded children’s mental health and related services;

(b) To determine the extent to which the following chapters of RCW have been implemented, with particular emphasis on: Continuum of care; prevention; early intervention; and diversion from involuntary commitment, protective services, institutions, out-of-home placements; and reduction of family break-ups — Title 13 RCW, chapters 71.24, 74.13, 74.14A, 71.05, 74.15, and 26.44 RCW;

(c) To determine the need for and type of children’s mental health and related services focusing on categories enumerated in subsection (2)(b) of this section;

(d) To analyze current methods of delivery of children’s mental health and related services;

(e) To submit to the legislature by December 15, 1984 a report including budgetary and statutory recommendations:

(f) To assess the degree to which the proposed 1985-87 state biennial budget places a priority on the service categories listed in subsection (2)(b) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. To assist the legislature in this study, the department of social and health services shall submit to the study committees, no later than June 1, 1984, a summary of the most current needs assessment for children’s mental health services performed by counties pursuant to RCW 71.24.045 and any additional data that supports the children’s portion of the department’s current or proposed mental health plans. The department shall also submit any additional information that it has compiled since January 1, 1979 on the needs for children’s mental health and related service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In conducting the study, the committee shall seek the participation of children’s mental health service providers; related service providers; client advocates; local governments; the department of social and health services; the office of financial management; and the Washington state Institute on public policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and McManus to the Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. It is the purpose of this legislation to ensure that minors in need of mental health care and treatment receive appropriate care and treatment, and to enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs and in accordance with sound professional judgment while also recognizing parents’ rights to participate in treatment decisions for their minor children, and to protect minors against needless hospitalization and deprivations of liberty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter."
(1) "Child psychiatrist" means a person having a license as a physician and surgeon in this state, who has had graduate training in child psychiatry in a program approved by the American Medical Association or the American Osteopathic Association, and who is board eligible or board certified in child psychiatry.

(2) "Children's mental health specialist" means:
(a) A mental health professional who has completed a minimum of one hundred actual hours, not quarter or semester hours, of specialized training devoted to the study of child development and the treatment of children; and
(b) A mental health professional who has the equivalent of one year of full-time experience in the treatment of children under the supervision of a children's mental health specialist.

(3) "Commitment" means a determination by a judge or court commissioner, made after a commitment hearing, that the minor is in need of inpatient diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment or that the minor is in need of less restrictive alternative treatment.

(4) "County-designated mental health professional" means a mental health professional designated by one or more counties to perform the functions of a county-designated mental health professional described in this chapter.

(5) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(6) "Evaluation and treatment facility" means a public or private facility or unit that is certified by the department to provide emergency, inpatient, residential, or outpatient mental health evaluation and treatment services for minors. A physically separate and separately-operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility for minors. A facility which is part of or operated by the department or federal agency does not require certification. No correctional institution or facility, juvenile court detention facility, or jail may be an evaluation and treatment facility within the meaning of this chapter.

(7) "Evaluation and treatment program" means the total system of services and facilities coordinated and approved by a county or combination of counties for the evaluation and treatment of minors under this chapter.

(8) "Gravely disabled minor" means a minor who, as a result of a mental disorder, is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his or her essential human needs of health or safety, or manifests severe deterioration in routine functioning evidenced by repeated and escalating loss of cognitive or volitional control over his or her actions and is not receiving such care as is essential for his or her health or safety or development.

(9) "Inpatient treatment" means twenty-four-hour-per-day mental health care provided within a general hospital, psychiatric hospital, or residential treatment facility certified by the department as an evaluation and treatment facility for minors.

(10) "Less restrictive alternative" or "less restrictive setting" means outpatient treatment provided to a minor who is not residing in a facility providing inpatient treatment as defined in this chapter.

(11) "Likelihood of serious harm" means either: (a) A substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon his or her own person, as evidenced by threats or attempts to commit suicide or inflict physical harm on oneself; (b) A substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon another, as evidenced by behavior which has caused such harm or which places another person or persons in reasonable fear of sustaining such harm; or (c) A substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon the property of others, as evidenced by behavior which has caused substantial loss or damage to the property of others.

(12) "Mental disorder" means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment that has substantial adverse effects on individual's cognitive or volitional functions. The presence of alcohol abuse, drug abuse, delinquency, antisocial behavior, or mental retardation alone is insufficient to justify a finding of "mental disorder" within the meaning of this section.

(13) "Mental health professional" means a psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric nurse, or social worker, and such other mental health professionals as may be defined by rules adopted by the secretary under this chapter.

(14) "Minor" means any person under the age of eighteen years.

(15) "Outpatient treatment" means any of the nonresidential services mandated under chapter 71.24 RCW and provided by licensed services providers as identified by RCW 71.24.025(3).

(16) "Parent" means:
(a) A biological or adoptive parent who has legal custody of the child, including either parent if custody is shared under a joint custody agreement; or
(b) A person or agency judicially appointed as legal guardian or custodian of the child.

(17) "Professional person in charge" means a physician or other mental health professional empowered by an evaluation and treatment facility with authority to make admission and discharge decisions on behalf of that facility.

(18) "Psychiatric nurse" means a registered nurse who has a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, and who has had, in addition, at least two years' experience in the direct treatment of mentally ill or emotionally disturbed persons, such experience gained under the supervision of a mental health professional. "Psychiatric nurse" shall also mean any other registered nurse who has three years of such experience.

(19) "Psychiatrist" means a person having a license as a physician or osteopath in this state who has completed residency training in psychiatry in a program approved by the American Medical Association or the American Osteopathic Association, and is board eligible or board certified in psychiatry.

(20) "Psychologist" means a person licensed as a psychologist under chapter 18.83 RCW.

(21) "Responsible other" means the minor, the minor's parent or estate, or any other person legally responsible for support of the minor.

(22) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department or secretary's designee.

(23) "Start of initial detention" means the time of arrival of the minor at the first evaluation and treatment facility offering inpatient treatment if the minor is being involuntarily detained at the time. With regard to voluntary patients, "start of initial detention" means the time at which the minor gives notice of intent to leave under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Any minor thirteen years or older may request and receive outpatient treatment without the consent of the minor's parent. Parental authorization is required for outpatient treatment of a minor under the age of thirteen.

(2) When in the judgment of the professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility there is reason to believe that a minor is in need of inpatient treatment because of a mental disorder, and the facility provides the type of evaluation and treatment needed by the minor, and it is not feasible to treat the minor in any less restrictive setting or the minor's home, the minor may be admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) A minor under thirteen years of age may only be admitted on the application of the minor's parent.

(b) A minor thirteen years or older may be voluntarily admitted by application of the parent. Such application must be accompanied by the written consent, knowingly and voluntarily given, of the minor.

(c) A minor thirteen years or older may, with the concurrence of the professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility, admit himself or herself without parental consent to the evaluation and treatment facility, provided that notice is given by the facility to the minor's parent in accordance with the following requirements:

(i) Notice of the minor's admission shall be in the form most likely to reach the parent within twenty-four hours of the minor's voluntary admission and shall advise the parent that the minor has been admitted to inpatient treatment: the location and telephone number of the facility providing such treatment; and the name of a professional person on the staff of the facility providing treatment who is designated to discuss the minor's need for inpatient treatment with the parent.

(ii) The minor shall be released to the parent at the parent's request for release unless the facility files a petition with the superior court of the county in which treatment is being provided setting forth the basis for the facility's belief that the minor is in need of inpatient treatment and that release would constitute a threat to the minor's health or safety.

(iii) The petition shall be signed by the professional person in charge of the facility or that person's designee.

(iv) The parent may apply to the court for separate counsel to represent the parent if the parent cannot afford counsel.

(v) There shall be a hearing on the petition, which shall be held within three judicial days from the filing of the petition.

(vi) The hearing shall be conducted by a judge, court commissioner, or licensed attorney designated by the superior court as a hearing officer for such hearing. The hearing may be held at the treatment facility.

(vii) At such hearing, the facility must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence presented at the hearing that the minor is in need of inpatient treatment and that release would constitute a threat to the minor's health or safety. The hearing shall not be conducted using the rules of evidence, and the admission or exclusion of evidence sought to be presented shall be within the exercise of sound discretion by the judicial officer conducting the hearing.

(d) Written renewal of voluntary consent must be obtained from the applicant and the minor thirteen years or older no less than once every twelve months.

(e) The minor's need for continued inpatient treatments shall be reviewed and documented no less than every one hundred eighty days.

(f) A notice of intent to leave shall result in the following:

(g) Any minor under the age of thirteen must be discharged immediately upon written request of the parent.

(b) Any minor thirteen years or older voluntarily admitted may give notice of intent to leave at any time. The notice need not follow any specific form so long as it is written and the intent of the minor can be discerned.
Within twelve hours of the minor’s arrival at the evaluation and treatment facility, the county-designated mental health professional shall serve on the minor a copy of the petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights. The county-designated mental health professional shall file with the court on the next judicial day following the initial detention the original petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights along with an affidavit of service. The county-designated mental health professional shall commence service of the petition for initial detention and notice of the initial detention on the minor’s parent and the minor’s attorney as soon as possible following the initial detention.

(3) At the time of initial detention, the county-designated mental health professional shall advise the minor both orally and in writing that if admitted to the evaluation and treatment facility for inpatient treatment, a commitment hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the minor’s provisional acceptance to determine whether probable cause exists to commit the minor for further mental health treatment.

The minor shall be advised that he or she has a right to communicate immediately with an attorney and that he or she has a right to have an attorney appointed to represent him or her before and at the hearing if the minor is indigent.

(4) Whenever the county designated mental health professional petitions for detention of a minor under this chapter, an evaluation and treatment facility providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment must immediately accept on a provisional basis the petition and the person. Within twenty-four hours of the minor’s arrival, the facility must evaluate the minor’s condition and either admit or release the minor in accordance with this chapter.

(5) If a minor is not approved for admission by the inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, the facility shall make such recommendations and referrals for further care and treatment of the minor as necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) When a county-designated mental health professional receives information that a minor, thirteen years or older, as a result of a mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, has investigated the specific facts alleged and of the credibility of the person or persons providing the information, and has determined that voluntary admission for inpatient treatment is not possible, the mental health professional may take the minor, or cause the minor to be taken, into custody and transported to an evaluation and treatment facility providing inpatient treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a minor, thirteen years or older, is brought to an evaluation and treatment facility or hospital emergency room for immediate mental health services, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the minor’s mental condition, determine whether the minor suffers from a mental disorder, and whether the minor is in need of immediate inpatient treatment. If it is determined that the minor suffers from a mental disorder, inpatient treatment is required, the minor is unwilling to consent to voluntary admission, and the professional person believes that the minor meets the criteria for initial detention set forth herein, the facility may detain or arrange for the detention of the minor for up to twelve hours in order to enable a county-designated mental health professional to evaluate the minor and commence initial detention proceedings under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Each minor approved by the facility for inpatient admission shall be examined and evaluated by a children’s mental health specialist as to the child’s mental condition and by a physician as to the child’s physical condition within twenty-four hours of admission. Reasonable measures shall be taken to ensure medical treatment is provided for any condition requiring immediate medical attention.

(2) The admitting facility shall take reasonable steps to notify immediately the minor’s parent of the admission.

(3) During the initial seventy-two hour treatment period, the minor has a right to associate or receive communications from parents or others unless the professional person in charge determines that such communication would be seriously detrimental to the minor’s condition or treatment and so indicates in the minor’s clinical record, and notifies the minor’s parents of this determination. In no event may the minor be denied the opportunity to consult an attorney.

(4) If the evaluation and treatment facility admits the minor, it may detain the minor for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours from the time of provisional acceptance. The computation of such seventy-two hour period shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. This initial treatment period shall not exceed seventy-two hours except when an application for voluntary inpatient treatment is received or a petition for fourteen-day commitment is filed.

(5) Within twelve hours of the admission, the facility shall advise the minor of his or her rights as set forth in this chapter.

(c) The staff member receiving the notice shall date it immediately, record its existence in the minor’s clinical record, and send copies of it to the minor’s attorney. If any, the county-designated mental health professional, and the parent.

(d) The professional person in charge of the evaluation and treatment facility shall discharge the minor, thirteen years or older, from the facility within twenty-four hours after receipt of the minor’s notice of intent to leave, unless the county-designated mental health professional files a petition for initial detention within the time prescribed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a minor, thirteen years or older, is brought to an evaluation and treatment facility or hospital emergency room for immediate mental health services, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the minor’s mental condition, determine whether the minor suffers from a mental disorder, and whether the minor is in need of immediate inpatient treatment. If it is determined that the minor suffers from a mental disorder, inpatient treatment is required, the minor is unwilling to consent to voluntary admission, and the professional person believes that the minor meets the criteria for initial detention set forth herein, the facility may detain or arrange for the detention of the minor for up to twelve hours in order to enable a county-designated mental health professional to evaluate the minor and commence initial detention proceedings under the provisions of this chapter.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility where a minor has been admitted involuntarily for the initial seventy-two hour treatment period under this chapter may petition to have a minor committed to an evaluation and treatment facility for fourteen-day diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment.

(2) A petition for commitment of a minor under this section shall be filed with the superior court in the county where the minor is residing or being detained.

(a) A petition for a fourteen-day commitment shall contain the following:

(i) The name and address of the petitioner;

(ii) The name of the minor alleged to meet the criteria for fourteen-day commitment;

(iii) The name, telephone number, and address if known of every person believed by the petitioner to be legally responsible for the minor;

(iv) A statement that the petitioner has examined the minor and finds that the minor's condition meets required criteria for fourteen-day commitment and the supporting facts therefor;

(v) A statement that the minor has been advised of the need for voluntary treatment but has been unwilling or unable to consent to necessary treatment;

(vi) A statement recommending the appropriate facility or facilities to provide the necessary treatment; and

(vii) A statement concerning whether a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment is in the best interests of the minor.

(b) A copy of the petition shall be personally delivered to the minor by the petitioner or petitioner's designee. A copy of the petition shall be sent to the minor's attorney and the minor’s parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) A commitment hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the minor's admission, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, unless a continuance is requested by the minor or the minor's attorney.

(2) The commitment hearing shall be conducted at the superior court or an appropriate place at the facility in which the minor is being detained.

(3) At the commitment hearing, the evidence in support of the petition shall be presented by the county prosecutor.

(4) The minor shall be present at the commitment hearing unless the minor, with the assistance of the minor's attorney, waives the right to be present at the hearing.

(5) At the commitment hearing, the minor shall have the following rights:

(a) To be represented by an attorney;

(b) To present evidence on his or her own behalf;

(c) To question persons testifying in support of the petition.

(6) If the minor has received medication within twenty-four hours of the hearing, the court shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication.

(7) Rules of evidence shall not apply in fourteen-day commitment hearings.

(8) For a fourteen-day commitment, the court must find by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The minor has a mental disorder and presents a "likelihood of serious harm" or is "gravely disabled";

(b) The minor is in need of evaluation and treatment of the type provided by the inpatient evaluation and treatment facility to which continued inpatient care is sought or is in need of less restrictive alternative treatment found to be in the best interests of the minor; and

(c) The minor is unwilling or unable in good faith to consent to voluntary treatment.

(9) If the court finds that the minor meets the criteria for a fourteen-day commitment, the court shall either authorize commitment of the minor for inpatient treatment or for less restrictive alternative treatment upon such conditions as are necessary. If the court determines that the minor does not meet the criteria for a fourteen-day commitment, the minor shall be released.

(10) Nothing in this section prohibits the professional person in charge of the evaluation and treatment facility from releasing the minor at any time, when, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, further inpatient treatment is no longer necessary. The release may be subject to conditions if appropriate.

Whenever a minor is released under this section, the professional person in charge shall within three days, notify the court in writing of the release.

(11) A minor who has been committed for fourteen days shall be released at the end of that period unless a petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment is pending before the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) At any time during the minor’s period of fourteen-day commitment, the professional person in charge may petition the court for an order requiring the minor to undergo an additional one hundred eighty-day period of treatment.

(2) The petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment shall contain the following:

(a) The name and address of the petitioner or petitioners;

(b) The name of the minor alleged to meet the criteria for one hundred eighty-day commitment.
(c) A statement that the petitioner is the professional person in charge of the evaluation and treatment facility responsible for the treatment of the minor;
(d) The date of the fourteen-day commitment order; and
(e) A summary of the facts supporting the petition.

(3) The petition shall be supported by accompanying affidavits signed by two examining physicians, one of whom shall be a child psychiatrist, or by one examining physician and one children's mental health specialist. The affidavits shall describe in detail the behavior of the detained minor which supports the petition and shall state whether a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment is in the best interests of the minor.

(4) The petition for one hundred eighty-day commitment shall be filed with the clerk of the court at least three days before the expiration of the fourteen-day commitment period. The petitioner or the petitioner's designee shall within twenty-four hours of filing serve a copy of the petition on the minor and notify the minor's attorney and the minor's parent. A copy of the petition shall be provided to such persons at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing.

(5) At the time of filing, the court shall set a date within seven days for the hearing on the petition. The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of the minor or the minor's attorney for not more than ten days. The minor shall be afforded the same rights as in a fourteen-day commitment hearing. Treatment of the minor shall continue pending the proceeding.

(6) For one hundred eighty-day commitment, the court must find by clear and convincing evidence that the minor:
(a) Is suffering from a mental disorder;
(b) Presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled; and
(c) Is in need of further treatment.

(7) If the court finds that the criteria for commitment are met and that less restrictive treatment in a community setting is not appropriate or available, the court shall order the minor committed to the custody of the secretary for further inpatient treatment. If the court finds that a less restrictive alternative is in the best interest of the minor, the court shall order less restrictive alternative treatment upon such conditions as necessary.

(8) If the court determines that the minor does not meet the criteria for one hundred eighty-day commitment, the minor shall be released.

(9) Successive one hundred eighty-day commitments are permissible on the same grounds and under the same procedures as the original one hundred eighty-day commitment. Such petitions shall be filed at least five days prior to the expiration of the previous one hundred eighty-day commitment order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) If a minor is committed for one hundred eighty-day inpatient treatment and is to be placed in a state-supported program, the secretary shall accept immediately and place the minor in a state-funded long-term evaluation and treatment facility.

(2) The secretary's placement authority shall be exercised through a designated placement committee appointed by the secretary and comprised of children's mental health specialists, including at least one child psychiatrist who represents the state-funded, long-term, evaluation and treatment facility for minors. The responsibility of the placement committee will be to:
(a) Make the long-term placement of the minor in the most appropriate, available state-funded evaluation and treatment facility, having carefully considered factors including the treatment needs of the minor, the most appropriate facility able to respond to the minor's identified treatment needs, the geographic proximity of the facility to the minor's family, the immediate availability of bed space, and the probable impact of the placement on other residents of the facility;
(b) Approve or deny requests from treatment facilities for transfer of a minor to another facility;
(c) Receive and monitor reports required under this section;
(d) Receive and monitor reports of all discharges.

(3) The secretary may authorize transfer of minors among treatment facilities if the transfer is in the best interests of the minor or due to treatment priorities.

(4) The responsible state-funded evaluation and treatment facility shall submit a report to the department's designated placement committee within ninety days of admission and no less than every one hundred eighty days thereafter, setting forth such facts as the department requires, including the minor's individual treatment plan and progress, recommendations for future treatment, and possible less restrictive treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) If the professional person in charge of an outpatient treatment program, a county-designated mental health professional, or the secretary determines that a minor is failing to adhere to the conditions of the court order for less restrictive alternative treatment or the conditions for the conditional release, or that substantial deterioration in the minor's functioning has occurred, the county-designated mental health professional, or the secretary may order that the minor be taken into custody and transported to an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility.
(2) The county-designated mental health professional or the secretary shall file the order of apprehension and detention and serve it upon the minor and notify the minor's parent and the minor's attorney, if any, of the detention within two days of return. At the time of service the minor shall be informed of the right to a hearing and to representation by an attorney. The county-designated mental health professional or the secretary may modify or rescind the order of apprehension and detention at any time prior to the hearing.

(3) A petition for revocation of less restrictive alternative treatment shall be filed by the county-designated mental health professional or the secretary with the court in the county ordering the less restrictive alternative treatment. The court shall conduct the hearing in that county. A petition for revocation of conditional release may be filed with the court in the county ordering involuntary treatment or the county where the minor on conditional release is residing. A petition shall describe the behavior of the minor indicating violation of the conditions or deterioration of routine functioning and a dispositional recommendation. Upon motion for good cause, the hearing may be transferred to the county of the minor's residence or to the county in which the alleged violations occurred. The hearing shall be held within seven days of the minor's return. The issues to be determined are whether the minor did or did not adhere to the conditions of the less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release, or whether the minor's routine functioning has substantially deteriorated, and, if so, whether the conditions of less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release should be modified or whether the minor should be returned to inpatient treatment. Pursuant to the determination of the court, the minor shall be returned to less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release on the same or modified conditions or shall be returned to inpatient treatment. If the minor is returned to inpatient treatment, section 13 of this act regarding the secretary's placement responsibility shall apply. The hearing may be waived by the minor and the minor returned to inpatient treatment or to less restrictive alternative treatment or conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The professional person in charge of the inpatient treatment facility may authorize release for the minor under such conditions as appropriate. Conditional release may be revoked pursuant to section 14 of this act if leave conditions are not met or the minor's functioning substantially deteriorates.

(2) Minors may be discharged prior to expiration of the commitment period if the treating physician or professional person in charge concludes that the minor no longer meets commitment criteria.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) A minor receiving treatment under the provisions of this chapter and responsible others shall be liable for the costs of treatment, care, and transportation to the extent of available resources and ability to pay.

(2) The secretary shall establish rules to implement this section and to define income, resources, and exemptions to determine the responsible person's or persons' ability to pay.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The county or combination of counties is responsible for development and coordination of the evaluation and treatment program for minors, for incorporating the program into the county mental health plan, and for coordination of evaluation and treatment services and resources with the community mental health program required under chapter 71.24 RCW.

(2) The county shall be responsible for maintaining its support of involuntary treatment services for minors at its 1983 level, adjusted for inflation, with the department responsible for additional costs to the county resulting from this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Necessary transportation for minors committed for one hundred eighty-day treatment shall be provided by the department in the most appropriate and cost-effective means.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Absent a risk to self or others, minors treated under this chapter have the following rights, which shall be prominently posted in the evaluation and treatment facility:

(1) To wear their own clothes and to keep and use personal possessions;

(2) To keep and be allowed to spend a reasonable sum of their own money for canteen expenses and small purchases;

(3) To have individual storage space for private use;

(4) To have visitors at reasonable times;

(5) To have reasonable access to a telephone, both to make and receive confidential calls;

(6) To have ready access to letter-writing materials, including stamps, and to send and receive uncensored correspondence through the mails;

(7) To discuss treatment plans and decisions with mental health professionals;

(8) To have the right to adequate care and individualized treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) If a minor is not accepted for admission or is released by an inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, the facility shall release the minor to the custody of the minor's parent or other responsible person. If not otherwise available, the facility shall furnish transportation for the minor to the minor's residence or other appropriate place.

(2) If the minor is released to someone other than the minor's parent, the facility shall make every effort to notify the minor's parent of the release as soon as possible.
(3) No indigent minor may be released to less restrictive alternative treatment or setting or discharged from inpatient treatment without suitable clothing, and the department shall furnish this clothing. As funds are available, the secretary may provide necessary funds for the immediate welfare of indigent minors upon discharge or release to less restrictive alternative treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The fact of admission and all information obtained through treatment under this chapter is confidential. Confidential information may be disclosed only:

(1) In communications between mental health professionals to meet the requirements of this chapter, in the provision of services to the minor, or in making appropriate referrals:

(2) In the course of guardianship or dependency proceedings:

(3) To persons with medical responsibility for the minor's care:

(4) To the minor, the minor's parent, and the minor's attorney, subject to RCW 13.50.100;

(5) When the minor or the minor's parent designate in writing the persons to whom information or records may be released:

(6) To the extent necessary to make a claim for financial aid, insurance, or medical assistance to which the minor may be entitled or for the collection of fees or costs due to providers for services rendered under this chapter:

(7) To the courts as necessary to the administration of this chapter;

(8) To law enforcement officers or public health officers as necessary to carry out the responsibilities of their office. However, only the fact and date of admission, and the date of discharge, the name and address of the treatment provider, if any, and the last known address shall be disclosed upon request;

(9) To law enforcement officers, public health officers, relatives, and other governmental law enforcement agencies. If a minor has escaped from custody, disappeared from an evaluation and treatment facility, violated conditions of a less restrictive treatment order, or failed to return from an authorized leave, and then only such information as may be necessary to provide for public safety or to assist in the apprehension of the minor. The officers are obligated to keep the information confidential in accordance with this chapter;

(10) To the secretary for assistance in data collection and program evaluation or research, provided that the secretary adopts rules for the conduct of such evaluation and research. The rules shall include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that all evaluators and researchers sign an oath of confidentiality substantially as follows:

"As a condition of conducting evaluation or research concerning persons who have received services from (fill in the facility, agency, or person) I, , , agree not to divulge, publish, or otherwise make known to unauthorized persons or the public any information obtained in the course of such evaluation or research regarding minors who have received services in a manner such that the minor is identifiable. I recognize that unauthorized release of confidential information may subject me to civil liability under state law.

11) To persons who are identified by the minor as being in possible danger of serious harm at the hands of that minor. The disclosure shall be limited to making the threatened person aware of the facts and circumstances that lead the professional person to assume there is a potential danger;

(12) To a minor's next of kin, attorney, guardian, or conservator, if any, the information that the minor is presently in the facility or that the minor is seriously physically ill and a statement evaluating the mental and physical condition of the minor as well as a statement of the probable duration of the minor's confinement;

(13) Upon the death of a minor, to the minor's next of kin;

(14) To a facility in which the minor resides or will reside.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the compilation and publication of statistical data for use by government or researchers under standards, including standards to assure maintenance of confidentiality, set forth by the secretary. The fact of admission and all information obtained pursuant to this chapter are not admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding outside this chapter, except guardianship, dependency, or custody proceedings, without the written consent of the minor or the minor's parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. When in the judgment of the department the welfare of any person committed to or confined in any state juvenile correctional institution or facility necessitates that the person be transferred or moved for observation, diagnosis, or treatment to an evaluation and treatment facility, the secretary or the secretary's designee is authorized to order and effect such move or transfer for a period of up to thirty days, provided that the secretary notifies the original committing court of the transfer. No person committed to or confined in any state juvenile correctional institution or facility may be transferred to an evaluation and treatment facility for more than thirty days unless that person has been committed for one hundred eighty-day treatment under this chapter or under chapter 71.05 RCW if eighteen years of age or older. Underlying jurisdiction of minors transferred or committed under this section remains with the state correctional institution. Minors committed under this section and no longer meeting the criteria for one hundred eighty-day commitment shall be returned to the state correctional institution to serve the remaining time of the underlying dispositional order or sentence. The time spent by the minor at the evaluation and treatment facility shall be credited towards the minor's juvenile court sentence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. No minor received as a voluntary patient or committed under this chapter may be detained after his or her eighteenth birthday unless the person, upon reaching eighteen years of age, has applied for admission to an appropriate evaluation and treatment facility or unless involuntary commitment proceedings under chapter 71.05 RCW have been initiated: PROVIDED, That a minor may be detained after his or her eighteenth birthday for purposes of completing the fourteen-day diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The records and files maintained in any court proceeding under this chapter are confidential and available only to the minor, the minor's parent, and the minor's attorney. In addition, the court may order the subsequent release or use of these records or files only upon good cause shown if the court finds that appropriate safeguards for strict confidentiality will be maintained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. When disclosure of information or records is made, the date and circumstances under which the disclosure was made, the name or names of the persons or agencies to whom such disclosure was made and their relationship if any, to the minor, and the information disclosed shall be entered promptly in the minor's clinical record.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. Attorneys appointed for minors under this chapter shall be compensated for their services as follows:

(1) Responsible others shall bear the costs of such legal services if financially able according to standards set by the court of the county in which the proceeding is held.

(2) If all responsible others are indigent as determined by these standards, the costs of these legal services shall be borne by the county in which the proceeding is held.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Court procedures and proceedings provided for in this chapter shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The department shall adopt such rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW as may be necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this chapter, which shall include but not be limited to evaluation of the quality, effectiveness, efficiency, and use of services and facilities operating under this chapter, procedures and standards for commitment, and other action relevant to evaluation and treatment facilities, and establishment of criteria and procedures for placement and transfer of committed minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. (1) The superior court has jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter.

(2) A record of all petitions and proceedings under this chapter shall be maintained by the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the petition or proceedings was initiated.

(3) Petitions for commitment shall be filed and venue for hearings under this chapter shall be in the county in which the minor is being detained. The court may, for good cause, transfer the proceeding to the county of the minor's residence, or to the county in which the alleged conduct evidencing need for commitment occurred. If the county of detention is changed, subsequent petitions may be filed in the county in which the minor is detained without the necessity of a change of venue.

Sec. 30. Section 8, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 179, chapter 3. Laws of 1983 and RCW 71.05.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Persons suffering from a mental disorder may not be involuntarily committed for treatment of such disorder except pursuant to provisions of this chapter, chapter 10.77 RCW or its successor, chapter 71.06 RCW, sections 4 through 29 of this 1984 act, transfer pursuant to RCW 72.68.031 through 72.68.037, or pursuant to court ordered evaluation and treatment not to exceed ninety days pending a criminal trial or sentencing.

Sec. 31. Section 71.06.010, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 42, chapter 80. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 71.06.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Psychopathic personality" means the existence in any person of such hereditary, congenital or acquired condition affecting the emotional or volitional rather than the intellectual field and manifested by anomalies of such character as to render satisfactory social adjustment of such person difficult or impossible.

"Sexual psychopath" means any person who is affected in a form of psychoneurosis or in a form of psychopathic personality, which form predisposes such person to the commission of sexual offenses in a degree constituting him a menace to the health or safety of others.

"Sex offense" means one or more of the following: Abduction, incest, rape, assault with intent to commit rape, indecent assault, contributing to the delinquency of a minor involving sexual misconduct, sodomy, indecent exposure, indecent liberties with children, carnal knowledge of children, soliciting, enticing or otherwise communicating with a child for immoral purposes, vagrancy involving immoral or sexual misconduct, or an attempt to commit any of the said offenses.
("Psychopathic delinquent" means any minor who is psychopathic, and who is a habitual delinquent, if his delinquency is such as to constitute him a menace to the health, person, or property of himself or others, and the minor is not a proper subject for commitment to a state correctional school, a penal institution, to a state school for the developmentally disabled, or to a state hospital as a mentally ill person.)

"Minor" means any person under eighteen years of age.
"Department" means department of social and health services.
"Court" means the superior court of the state of Washington.
"Superintendent" means the superintendent of a state institution designated for the custody, care and treatment of sexual psychopaths or psychopathic delinquents.

Sec. 32. Section 71.06.260, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 132, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 71.06.260 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time any person is committed as a sexual psychopath (or psychopathic delinquent) the court shall, after reasonable notice of the time, place and purpose of the hearing has been given to persons subject to liability under this section, inquire into and determine the financial ability of said person, or his parents if he is a minor, or other relatives to pay the cost of care, meals and lodging during his period of hospitalization. Such cost shall be determined by the department of social and health services. Findings of fact shall be made relative to the ability to pay such cost and a judgment entered against the person or persons found to be financially responsible and directing the payment of said cost or such part thereof as the court may direct. The person committed, or his parents or relatives, may apply for modification of said judgment, or the order last entered by the court, if a proper showing of equitable grounds is made therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:
(1) Section 71.06.150, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.150:
(2) Section 71.06.160, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.160:
(3) Section 71.06.170, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.170:
(4) Section 71.06.180, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.180:
(5) Section 71.06.190, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.190:
(6) Section 71.06.200, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.200:
(7) Section 71.06.210, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.210:
(8) Section 71.06.220, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.220:
(9) Section 71.06.230, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.230:
(10) Section 71.06.240, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.240:
(11) Section 71.06.250, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.06.250; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 4 through 29 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 71 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The department shall prepare a report on standards and regulations proposed to implement chapter 71... RCW (sections 4 through 29 of this act). on facilities and services available for minors committed under this chapter, and on additional resources required to address the needs of children committed under this chapter. This report shall be presented to the legislature in January 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Sections 4 through 34 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1985.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Deccio: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to challenge scope and object on this amendment. This amendment lost in committee. It's a very clear question, because the bill deals with mandating the study of children's mental health services and Senator Talmadge's amendment has the full scope of addressing those services to children. I think that it expands the bill and clearly is outside the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bolliger, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1125 was deferred.
SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1137, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Kreidler, Fiske, Dellwo, Stratton, Wang, McClure, Braddock, Ballard, Niemi, Belcher, Broback, Johnson, R. King, Lewis, Mitchell, Silver, Van Dyken, West, Wilson, Long, Brekke, Barrett, Lux, Miller and Addison)

Authorizing demonstration projects on respite care services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that:

(1) Most care provided for functionally disabled adults is delivered by family members or friends who are not compensated for their services. Family involvement is a crucial element for avoiding or postponing institutionalization of the disabled adult.

(2) Family or other caregivers who provide continuous care in the home are frequently under substantial stress, physical, psychological, and financial. The stress, if unrelieved by family or community support to the caregiver, may lead to premature or unnecessary nursing home placement.

(3) Respite care and other community-based supportive services for the caregiver and the disabled adult could relieve some of the stresses, maintain and strengthen the family structure, and postpone or prevent institutionalization.

(4) With family and friends providing the primary care for the disabled adult, supplemented by community health and social services, long-term care may be less costly than if the individual were institutionalized.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to provide for a demonstration of the possible cost-effectiveness of both in-home and out-of-home respite care services which are provided by a range of service providers. The respite care services shall:

(1) Provide relief and support to family or other unpaid caregivers of disabled adults;

(2) Encourage individuals to provide care for disabled adults at home, and thus offer a viable alternative to institutionalization;

(3) Ensure that respite care is made generally available on a sliding-fee basis to eligible participants and caregivers in the program; and

(4) Be provided in the least restrictive setting available consistent with the individually assessed needs of the functionally disabled adult.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 7 of this act.

(1) "Respite care services" means relief care for families or other caregivers of disabled adults, not exceeding five hundred seventy-six hours in not more than twenty-four days in any twelve-month period for each household. The services provide temporary care or supervision of disabled adults in substitution for the caregiver. The term includes social day care.

(2) "Eligible participant" means an adult (a) who needs substantially continuous care or supervision by reason of his or her functional disability, and (b) who is assessed as requiring institutionalization in the absence of a caregiver assisted by home and community support services, including respite care.

(3) "Caregiver" means a spouse, relative, or friend who has primary responsibility for the care of a functionally disabled adult, who does not receive financial compensation for the care, and who is assessed as being at risk of placing the eligible participant in a long-term care facility if respite care is not available.

(4) "Institutionalization" means placement in a long-term care facility.

(5) "Social day care" means nonmedical services to persons who live with their families, cannot be left unsupervised, and are at risk of being placed in a twenty-four-hour care facility if their families do not receive some relief from constant care.

(6) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department shall administer sections 1 through 8 of this act and shall establish such rules and standards as the department deems necessary in carrying out sections 1 through 8 of this act. The department shall not require the development of plans of care or discharge plans by nursing homes providing respite care service.

The department shall develop program standards for the demonstration projects in conjunction with the selected area agencies on aging. The program standards shall serve as the basis for soliciting bids, entering into subcontracts, and developing sliding fee scales to be used in determining the ability of eligible participants and caregivers to participate in paying for respite care.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall select at least two but not more than three area agencies on aging to conduct one-year respite care demonstration projects ending June 30, 1985. One of the selected area agencies on aging shall be east of the crest of the Cascade range and one shall be west of the crest of the Cascade range. The area agencies on aging will be responsible for negotiating rates of payment and developing sliding-fee scales to enable eligible participants and caregivers to participate in paying for respite care. Rates of payment to respite care service providers shall not exceed, and may be less than, rates paid by the department to the same providers for other than respite care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall insure that the respite care program is designed to meet the following criteria:

1. Make maximum use of services which provide care to the greatest number of eligible participants with the fewest number of staff consistent with adequate care;
2. Provide for use of one-on-one care when necessary;
3. Provide for both day care and overnight care;
4. Provide personal care to continue at the same level which the caregiver ordinarily provides to the eligible participant; and
5. Provide for the utilization of family home settings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The area agencies administering respite care demonstration projects shall:

a. Maintain data which indicates demand for respite care, and which includes information on in-home and out-of-home day care and in-home and out-of-home overnight care demand; and

b. Make a comparison of the relative cost-effectiveness of the several types of respite care with all other programs and services which are intended to forestall institutionalization.

(2) The department shall conduct a survey of all public assistance patients accepted by long-term care facilities in each participating planning and service area to determine the extent to which each of them availed themselves of services designed to defer institutionalization.

(3) The department shall provide a progress report to the legislature on the respite care demonstration projects authorized in this act, not later than January 1, 1985. The department shall report the results of the data collection, cost comparison, and survey as required in this section to the legislature not later than thirty days prior to the 1986 legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Nothing in this act shall impair the practice of any licensed health care practitioner or licensed health care facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is appropriated to the department of social and health services from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1137, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator McDermott, I'm sorry I didn't get to you quick enough. I did want to ask a question about page 5, lines 4 and 5. This was discussed in committee. This has to do with eligible participants and caregivers in developing a sliding scale for fees charged for this thing in this pilot program. It seems to me that we ought to tack this down as was the discussion in the Ways and Means Committee. It is the intent, is it not, for both the eligible participant's and caregiver's income to be considered, in total, in putting together this sliding scale fee? Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, Senator McDonald, we had a long discussion about the question of whether or not the caregiver's income should be considered. The problem here, I think, is one this pilot project, hopefully, will help us answer. Everyone agrees that if the patient—their income should be considered, but the question is who is the caregiver. You may have a situation in which one out of six children has taken the parent under their care and they may be, in fact, the least able economically to do it, so we wanted to discover, by this pilot project, if there is an equitable way to include the caregiver's income as a basis for determining how much they have to pay in this situation."
Further debate ensued.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1137, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1137, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 01; absent, 04; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senator Haley - 1.

Absent: Senators Bender, Fleming, Hughes, Patterson - 4.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1137, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1526, by Representatives Scott, Lewis, Kreidler, Wang and Isaacson (by Department of Social and Health Services request)

Modifying child placement and review hearing.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 8, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislature finds, based on input from the public, that there is a demonstrated need for an objective evaluation of the activities of child protective services. The legislature further finds that a joint select committee on child protective services could accomplish such an evaluation in an objective and thorough manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created a joint select legislative committee on child protective services. The committee shall be composed of sixteen legislative members, four each from the majority and minority party in the house of representatives, to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and four each from the majority and minority party in the senate, to be appointed by the president of the senate. The members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The joint select legislative committee on child protective services shall examine the operation of the child protective services system. The primary purpose of the study shall be to determine whether child protective services are delivered in accordance with chapters 26.44 and 13.34 RCW and that the services are delivered in a fair and uniform manner, while preserving the health and safety of children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The joint select legislative committee on child protective services shall have the power to subpoena witnesses in accordance with chapter 44.16 RCW as necessary to obtain information relevant to its responsibilities under section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Staff support for the joint select legislative committee shall be provided by the house and senate committees on social and health services with additional and specialized staff to be employed with money from the appropriation provided in section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The joint select legislative committee on child protective services shall issue a written report of its findings by December 30, 1984, to the committees on social and health services of the senate and house of representatives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the general fund to the joint select legislative committee on child protective services, the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of conducting the study described in section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 5 through 11 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Granlund: "Thank you, Mr. President. I raise the point of order that the McManus amendment expands the scope and object of House Bill 1526. The amendment creates a new study of child protective services. The bill is strictly limited to court determination necessary prior to granting petitions to place the child out of the home of the parent. I believe that the McManus amendment to House Bill 1526 clearly expands the scope and object of the original bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Granlund, the President finds that House Bill No. 1526 is a measure which requires a juvenile court to determine that reasonable efforts have been made to keep the child and the family together prior to granting a petition to place the child out of the home.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McManus establishes a joint select committee on child protective services.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved the following amendment be adopted:

On page 8, after line 8.
Insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 6, chapter 118, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.15.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to designate categories of facilities for which separate or different requirements shall be developed as may be appropriate whether because of variations in the ages, sex and other characteristics of persons served, variations in the purposes and services offered or size or structure of the agencies to be licensed hereunder, or because of any other factor relevant thereto:

(2) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to adopt and publish minimum requirements for licensing applicable to each of the various categories of agencies to be licensed.

The minimum requirements shall be limited to:

(a) The size and suitability of a facility and the plan of operation for carrying out the purpose for which an applicant seeks a license;

(b) The character, suitability and competence of an agency and other persons associated with an agency directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons. ((In investigating the character of an agency and the persons employed by or under contract to an agency, the secretary may have access to conviction records or pending charges of the agencies and its staff.) In consultation with law enforcement personnel, the secretary shall investigate the conviction record or pending charges of each agency and its staff seeking licensure or relicensure. Such investigation shall include an examination of the child abuse and neglect registry established under chapter 26.44 RCW on all agencies seeking a license under this chapter. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining eligibility for a license and for determining the character, suitability, and competence of those persons or agencies, excluding parents, not required to be licensed who are authorized to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons, and shall safeguard the information in the same manner as the child abuse registry established in RCW 26.44.070. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose:

(c) The number of qualified persons required to render the type of care and treatment for which an agency seeks a license;

(d) The safety, cleanliness, and general adequacy of the premises to provide for the comfort, care and well-being of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons;

(e) The provision of necessary care, including food, clothing, supervision and discipline; physical, mental and social well-being; and educational, recreational and spiritual opportunities for those served;

(f) The financial ability of an agency to comply with minimum requirements established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031; and
(g) The maintenance of records pertaining to the admission, progress, health and discharge of persons served.

(3) To investigate any person, including relatives by blood or marriage except for parents, for character, suitability, and competence in the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons prior to authorizing that person to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons.

(4) To issue, revoke, or deny licenses to agencies pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031. Licenses shall specify the category of care which an agency is authorized to render and the ages, sex and number of persons to be served:

((4))) (5) To prescribe the procedures and the form and contents of reports necessary for the administration of chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and to require regular reports from each licensee;

(((5))) (6) To inspect agencies periodically to determine whether or not there is compliance with chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and the requirements adopted hereunder;

(((6))) (7) To review requirements adopted hereunder at least every two years and to adopt appropriate changes after consultation with the children's services advisory committee; and

(((7))) (8) To consult with public and private agencies in order to help them improve their methods and facilities for the care of children, expectant mothers and developmentally disabled persons."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McManus.

The motion by Senator McManus carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McManus, the following title amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 7 of the title, after "13.34.060;" strike "and"

On page 1, line 10 of the title, after "13.34.130" insert "; and amending section 3, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 6, chapter 118, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.15.030"

On motion of Senator Granlund, the rules were suspended. House Bill No. 1526, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1526, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 1526, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 46; nays, 00; absent, 00; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, McCall, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warmke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 46.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1526, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1125 and the pending amendment by Senators Talmadge and McManus to the Committee on Social and Health Services amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Deccio, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1125 is a measure which directs the House Social and Health Services Committee, the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Legislative Budget Committee to conduct a study of children's mental health and related services and report to the Legislature by December 15, 1984."
"The amendment proposed by Senators Talmadge and McManus enacts a juvenile involuntary treatment act.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment to the Committee on Social and Health Services amendment was ruled out of order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Social and Health Services amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Committee on Social and Health Services amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McManus, the following title amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "sections;" and before the period insert "; and declaring an emergency"

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1125, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1125, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Absent: Senator Metcalf - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1125, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1655, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Belcher, Kreidler, Lewis, Allen, Miller, Wang, Galloway, Halsan and Jacobsen)

Establishing a child care demonstration project for state employees.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following Committee on State Government amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that on-site child day care for employees of public and private organizations is a worthwhile pursuit. To further the goals of affordable, accessible, and quality child care for working parents, the legislature intends to establish a self-supporting child care demonstration project for employees of state government. The legislature recognizes that appropriate child day care services may enhance productivity and lower absenteeism among state employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of general administration shall identify an amount of suitable space in state-owned or state-leased buildings in the Olympia area for use as child day care centers for the children of state employees.

The department of general administration shall establish a fair rental rate for the organization to pay for the space used.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The department of personnel shall conduct a needs assessment to determine the need for and interest in child day care facilities for the children of state employees;

(2) The department of personnel shall determine the number of children which may participate in the demonstration project required under sections 1 through 3 of this act; and

(3) If the suitable space is determined to be available, the department of personnel shall contract with one or more organizations to operate child day care facilities for the children identified under this section. Such facilities may be located in one or more buildings as identified under section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of general administration and the department of personnel shall report on the project to the state government committees of the senate and house of representatives at the following times:

(1) Upon completion of the needs care assessment;

(2) After space has been identified in buildings and child day care programs are established; and

(3) After six months of operation of the child day care programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of personnel for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to conduct a needs assessment to determine the need for and interest in child day care services for state employees and for start-up costs to implement this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are each added to chapter 41.04 RCW.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1655, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Peterson and Conner demanded the previous question.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be shall the main question be now put.

The demand for the previous question was not sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, all around the state—particularly in my area—and I am sure it is true in other parts of the state, businesses and particularly hospitals are providing their own day care centers at their own expense. My question is, why should the taxpayers of the state of Washington have to pay out their dollars, so that we can set up a demonstration project for state employees for day care facilities?"

Senator Talmadge: "For a very simple reason, Senator, and that's as hospitals stand in relationship with their employees, we stand in relationship to state employees. We're their employer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Talmadge, would you yield just briefly? My point is a matter of public policy in this area. You speak only to state employees. Now coming from where I do, I'm wondering whether or not, if we established this as public policy, whether this would also include students—for example, at the U of W or WSU who have the same problem in trying to go to school at the same time? I'm just wondering whether or not it is the intent of the legislation to, also, expand it to include that segment of our society that has similar problems?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Patterson, that's a question, perhaps, we'd better direct to Senator Warnke, as chairman of the committee. My understanding now is that at the University of Washington, for example, the students through the student activity fees—and it may be true at Washington State, also, I don't know—but the University of Washington through student activity fees—pay for and provide for themselves a child care service. I guess the question, with respect to University employees as with other state employees, is whether or not, as an employer—and that was the point I was trying to make with Senator Deccio—should as are other private employers provide child care assistance to those of our employees who have that need—and that's the question of the study."
Senator Patterson: "So, actually the intent—as far as you see it—is that you must be an employee of the state in order to develop such a program, and this being a pilot project, it would seem to me that if it’s feasible here in Olympia it would certainly be feasible in other parts of the state. I just want to have that part of the record—for Universities, is it the University employees only?

Senator Talmadge: "That’s my understanding, Senator."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1655, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1655, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 18; absent, 02; excused, 03.

Absent: Senators BluecheL McManus - 2.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1655, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652 be made a special order of business at 4:55 p.m.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the Shinpoch motion be amended to read 'at 4:00 p.m.'

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the Rasmussen motion to amend the Shinpoch motion.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the Shinpoch motion was amended to read 'at 4:00 p.m.'

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the motion by Senator Shinpoch, as amended by Senator Rasmussen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on adoption of the motion by Senator Shinpoch, as amended by Senator Rasmussen, and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 25; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Lee, McDonald, McManus, McCall, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Sellar, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Zimmerman - 25.

Absent: Senator Wojahn - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1514, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Kreidler, Niemi, J. Williams, Lewis, Long, Miller, Dellwo, Clayton and Powers)

Removing juveniles from adult jails.

The bill was read the second time.
MOTION

Senator Granlund moved that the following Committee on Institutions amendments be considered simultaneously and not be adopted:
On page 3, line 5, after "of" strike "local" and insert "county"
On page 3, line 7, after "staff" strike ".g." and insert ".A."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be to not adopt the Committee on Institutions amendments.

The motion by Senator Granlund carried and the Committee on Institutions amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Granlund, the following amendment by Senators Granlund and McCaslin was adopted:
On page 2, beginning on line 24, strike all material down to and including line 20 on page 3

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "This is a serious question, Senator Granlund. With your great knowledge of the subject of which I have not had a chance to really study, this indicates that we cannot put juveniles—even though we have a modern jail, let's say like in Pierce County and several others are building them—that we may not incarcerate juveniles in an adult facility. Is that correct?"

Senator Granlund: "Absolutely. That's what the juvenile justice bill has been all about—to keep juveniles out of the adult status jails."

Senator Rasmussen: "Excuse me, but I would like to ask one more question and then you can answer it all at once. Is this for minor offenses or felonies?"

Senator Granlund: "The bill addresses those traffic offenses, hunting and fishing offenses, boating offenses—this is what this bill is all about."

Senator Rasmussen: "It does not go on up and include the higher—"

Senator Granlund: "No, no."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Granlund, the following title amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "jails;" insert "and"
On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "13.04.030" strike all material down to and including "13.04.115"

On motion of Senator Granlund, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1514, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. That little oral amendment saved two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars and I want to assure the members that it has already been spoken for by at least nine people."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1584 was placed at the bottom of the second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 689, by Committee on Commerce and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Silver, J. King, B. Williams, Tanner, Schmidt, Schoon, Brough, Padden, Johnson, Tilly, Long and Sanders)

Establishing the small business assistance coordinating council.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Vognild moved that the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the small businesses in the state of Washington are essential to the well-being of the state's economy and that these businesses have unique needs and problems that must be dealt with to insure a healthy economy for all of the citizens of the state. The legislature further recognizes that small businesses represent a majority of the businesses in this state and that it is vital that the ability of small businesses be enhanced to provide more jobs for Washington workers, insure essential economic competition, and broaden the industrial base of Washington industries. To stimulate the expansion of small business growth and resultant new jobs, the legislature finds that:

(1) There is a need for an overall coordination within the state that can integrate, coordinate, and provide services to small businesses and more efficiently use the individual operating entities as they now exist; and

(2) There is a need for additional services for the small business community in the areas of financing, dealing with regulatory problems, and encouraging more small businesses to export their products and services overseas.

(3) There is a need for an advisory council to establish long-range policy recommendations for state delivered small business programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, a "small business assistance program" is any service offered by a unit of state government where the majority of the services attempt to aid or assist in the establishment, expansion, or management of a small business as defined in RCW 43.31.920.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) There is established the small business assistance coordinating council, referred to in this chapter as "the council."

(2) The council shall consist of nine persons, three of whom shall be appointed by the governor. The council shall include the director of commerce and economic development or its successor, the director of planning and community affairs or its successor, two members of the house of representatives, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from the house committee on commerce and economic development or its successor, and two members of the senate, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the president of the senate from the senate committee on commerce and labor or its successor. The members appointed by the governor shall include representatives of small businesses from the various geographic areas of the state one or two of whom shall also represent minority-owned business and women-owned business. A representative of the federal small business administration shall be a nonvoting member. The council shall elect a chairman from among the voting members. The planning and community affairs agency or its successor is responsible for providing administrative support to the council and shall keep a record of the proceedings of each council meeting.

(3) All voting members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060."
(4) If a vacancy in an appointive position on the council occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor shall fill the position for the unexpired term. Any members of the council, appointive or otherwise, may be removed for malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The council shall be responsible for:

(1) Reviewing the small business assistance programs now being offered by all units of state government except the federally funded service centers administered by the department of transportation and approved by the federal highway administration;

(2) Reviewing the contract between the small business development center and the federal small business administration, and the contract between the small business development center and the federal economic development administration; and

(3) Reviewing the coordination of all small business assistance programs and making recommendations to reduce duplication of services and to increase the efficiency of available programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. To enable the council to carry out its responsibilities, every unit of state government which provides a small business assistance program shall report to the small business assistance coordinating council in writing by September 1, 1984. The report shall include:

(1) A description of the small business assistance program offered by the unit of state government;

(2) The amount of state funds expended to operate the small business assistance program;

(3) The sources and amount of any other funds available to the unit of government to operate a small business assistance program and the extent to which the funds are being used by the unit of state government;

(4) The method by which the activity is being delivered by the unit of state government to the small business community;

(5) Information on the benefits derived from the program; and

(6) Any other information as may be requested by the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The small business assistance coordinating council shall report to the legislature and governor by December 31, 1984, on recommendations to improve the dissemination of small business assistance in the state. The report shall include:

(1) A description of the types, quantity, and benefits of small business assistance available in the state including federal, state, and local programs;

(2) A description of the available services and the unmet need for small business assistance in the following areas:

(a) General small business management and technical assistance;

(b) Community development assistance, including loan packaging, proposal writing, development planning, and commercial development;

(c) Entrepreneurial development, innovative assessment, and technology transfer; and

(d) Export assistance and financing;

(3) A set of recommendations to improve the delivery and efficiency of small business assistance and to reduce duplication of effort where possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is appropriated from the general fund for the year ending December 31, 1984, to the planning and community affairs agency or its successor the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of the small business assistance coordinating council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act shall expire on December 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following amendment by Senators Vognild and Quigg to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 3, beginning on line 18 after "business," strike all material through "member" on line 21.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved the following amendments to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 6, after line 16 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) There is established the small business improvement council to consist of at least fifteen but not more than thirty members to be appointed by the governor. In making the appointments, the governor shall consider the recommendations of business organizations and persons operating small businesses. At least fifteen percent of the members of the council shall be women or members of minority groups, and at least one member of the council shall represent agribusiness concerns. Members of the small business improvement council shall be appointed for terms of four years, but the governor may modify the terms of the initial members as necessary to achieve staggered terms.

(2) Members of the small business improvement council shall not be compensated or be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The department of commerce and economic development or its successor agency shall provide staff support and administrative assistance to the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The small business improvement council shall seek to identify regulatory, administrative, and legislative proposals that will improve the entrepreneurial environment for small businesses. In consultation with the department of commerce and economic development and the appropriate standing committees of the senate and house of representatives, the small business improvement council shall submit its proposals to the governor and the legislature prior to the convening of each regular session of the legislature. The proposals shall include the recommendations of the council’s subcommittees established under section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The small business improvement council may establish such subcommittees and task forces as the council deems necessary. Membership of subcommittees and task forces need not be limited to members of the council.

(2) Subcommittees of the council shall include:
   (a) A subcommittee on small business taxation;
   (b) A subcommittee on small business venture and management education;
   (c) A subcommittee on private sector contract services; and
   (d) Other subcommittees as deemed necessary on appropriate subjects, i.e., capital formation and retention, marketing, unemployment compensation, and rules and regulations.

(3) The department of commerce and economic development shall assist in the formation of local advisory councils in each legislative district throughout the state. The persons serving on the local advisory councils shall not be compensated or reimbursed for travel expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The subcommittee on small business taxation shall study the present business tax structure and investigate related proposals to attract and encourage small businesses in the state. In fulfilling this function, the subcommittee shall establish local small business advisory councils throughout the state. Members of the local advisory councils shall not be compensated or reimbursed for travel expenses.

The subcommittee on small business taxation may conduct studies, hold public hearings, and employ consultants as necessary to carry out the purposes of the subcommittee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The subcommittee on small business venture and management education shall encourage the implementation of small business venture and management education programs in the state’s community colleges and vocational-technical institutes. Such education programs shall provide instruction in the formation, operation, and management of a small business. The subcommittee shall assist in curriculum development, promotion, and marketing of these education programs. Emphasis shall be given to part-time, evening, and weekend class offerings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The subcommittee on private sector contract services shall have as its mission the identification of program and service areas within state and local government which can and should be contracted out on a competitive bid basis to private sector organizations. In particular, the subcommittee shall identify those governmental services that the private sector can perform more efficiently than the public sector, with equal or better quality of service. The goal of this program is to reduce the cost of government while improving the delivery of services.

The subcommittee on private sector contract services shall include representatives of government, business, and industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This chapter shall expire June 30, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 7 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is appropriated to the small business improvement council for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the general fund the sum of thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 7 through 12 of this act.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 6, line 35 of the amendment, strike "This" and insert "Sections 1 through 6 of this"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, a point of order. The Senator McManus amendment establishes a fifteen to thirty-man committee appointed by the Governor. I have not had a chance to read it completely—I just got it on my desk—but it funds thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars as a budgetary item. The existing bill sets up a small business assistance program for the state and I believe this entire subject is limited to that program, whereas the other one sets up the commission and funding."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 689 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1511, by Committee on Commerce

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment not be adopted:

On page 8, line 6, after "made.· strike down to and including "39.84.020.· on line 9 and insert:

"The board shall only fund those projects whose specific private development and expansions are primarily involved in manufacturing, processing, production, assembly, warehousing, and distribution. The board may consider other projects which substantially trade goods and services outside of the state's borders."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild to not adopt the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 8, line 11, after "completed" insert "or where existing permanent or seasonal employment will be significantly damaged if the project does not occur."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 8, line 6, after "made." strike all of the material down to and including "39.84.020.· on line 9 and insert "The board shall only fund (1) those projects whose specific private development and expansions are primarily involved in manufacturing, processing, production, assembly, warehousing, and distribution; and (2) those projects which substantially support the trading of goods and services outside of the state's borders."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment was adopted:

In order to assure payment of the bonds, the board shall consider and may require users to provide appropriate security. Such security may include but is not limited to letters of credit, deeds of trust, guarantees, mortgage insurance or cash reserves. If federal funds are used to provide additional security for the protection of bond purchasers, the board shall require a credit analysis by a financial institution of each user of an umbrella board in order to ensure the marketability of the bonds."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 8, after line 34, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. All funds remaining or hereafter deposited in or repaid to any accounts created under RCW 43.31A.320 shall be automatically transferred to the public works revolving fund established in chapter — (SSB 4404). Laws of 1984."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1262, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Vognild. I notice under the definition of 'financial institutions' on page 2 and 'sponsor' on page 3, there is a long list of financial institutions which may be considered eligible by CERB to provide financing for industrial development facilities. This list, however, does not include the National Association of Securities Dealers. Does this mean they are excluded from acting as financial institutions or sponsors?"

Senator Vognild: "No, Senator Moore, it is not the intention to exclude members of the National Association of Securities Dealers. In reviewing this issue with committee staff and individuals involved with the bill, members of the National Association of Securities Dealers would fall under the definition of 'any other financial institution' on page 3, line 14."

Senator Moore: "I am glad to hear N.A.S.D. security underwriters are allowed to be involved in the financing of these industrial development bonds, because we've had a long history in this state of cooperation between the financial institutions and members of the National Association of Securities Dealers."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1262, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1262, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 12; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Absent: Senator Croswell – 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1262, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1531, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representative Grimm)

Modifying provisions on flooding.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendments by Senators Shinpoch and Bottiger were considered simultaneously and adopted:

Beginning on page 1, line 18, after "follows:" strike all material down to and including "disbursements." on page 2, line 2, and insert:

"The flood control assistance account is hereby established in the general fund. At the beginning of each biennium after June 30, 1985, the state treasurer shall transfer from the general fund to the flood control assistance account an amount of money which, when combined with money remaining in the account from the previous biennium, will equal four million dollars. Moneys in the flood control assistance account may be spent only after appropriation for a specified list of projects under this chapter:

On page 3, line 15, after "assistance" strike "fund" and insert "account"
On page 4, line 4, after "assistance" strike "fund" and insert "account"
On page 4, line 23, after "assistance" strike "fund" and insert "account"

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 5, beginning on line 21, strike all of new section 10 and 11. Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Clarke, as I read this bill, this is transferring the responsibilities to the Department of Natural Resources and that they, also, have the responsibility for the selling of the gravel and so forth that they are taking out of the rivers. Why would you oppose the responsibility if they let the gravel build up in the rivers—and they do nothing about it? They're going to have floods along the meander ways and the flood plain. You have millions of dollars worth of property there that could very well be destroyed."

Senator Clarke: "Senator, we're talking about two different kinds of equity. That in a way could be true. We all know that we're going to have floods and we endeavor to do what we can, governmentally, to prevent those kinds of damages, but as you aptly point out the amount of damages that can result from a flood can be catastrophic and there can always be the allegation that the governmental agency was in some way negligent in not having taken some action in order to prevent that. I just think it's an extremely dangerous situation, and I would be in opposition to the suggested striking of that immunity."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Fleming, Bottiger and Peterson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Clarke demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 19; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Croswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Patterson, Pullen, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 19.

Absent: Senator Hughes - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1531, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1531, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 16; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hurley, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, McCaslín, McDonald, Metcalf, Patterson, Sellar - 16.

Absent: Senator Hughes - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1531, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

Extending funding for enforcement of DWI laws.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1582 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator McDermott, it is my understanding that section 8 of the bill implies that OFM can use a reasonable, but small proportion of the appropriated three million dollars for the orderly administration of this act. Is that interpretation correct?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, they asked us for around twenty thousand dollars and we thought they could find that in the three million dollars."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1582.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1582, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Absent: Senator Hughes - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1582, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652 was made a special order of business for 4:59 p.m.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1311, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Galloway, Sayan, Charnley, Holland, Tilly, Miller, D. Nelson and Halsan)

Requiring preschool education for handicapped children.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 28A.13.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 66, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established in the office of the superintendent of public instruction a division of special education for handicapped children, to be known as the division for handicapped children.

Handicapped children are those children in school or out of school who are temporarily or permanently retarded in normal educational processes by reason of physical or mental handicap, or by reason of emotional maladjustment, or by reason of other handicap, and those children who have specific learning and language disabilities resulting from perceptual-motor handicaps, including problems in visual and auditory perception and integration.

The superintendent of public instruction shall require each school district in the state to insure an appropriate educational opportunity for all handicapped children (of common school age) between the ages of five and twenty-one, but when the twenty-first birthday occurs during the school year, the educational program may be continued until the end of that school year. Special education and training programs provided by the state and school districts for handicapped children shall be extended to include preschool age children four years of age and older commencing with the 1984-85 school year and shall be extended to include preschool age children three years of age and older commencing with the 1985-86 school year. The superintendent of public instruction, by rule and regulation, shall establish for the purpose of excess cost funding, as provided in this chapter, RCW 28A.24.100 and 28A.41.053, functional definitions of the various types of handicapping conditions and eligibility criteria for handicapped programs. For the purposes of this chapter, an appropriate education is defined as an education directed to the unique needs, abilities, and limitations of the handicapped children. School districts are strongly encouraged to provide parental training in the care and education of the children and to involve parents in the classroom.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the establishment or continuation of existing cooperative programs between school districts or contracts with other agencies approved by the superintendent of public instruction, which can meet the obligations of school districts to provide education for handicapped children, or prohibit the continuation of needed related services to school districts by the department of social and health services.

This section shall not be construed as in any way limiting the powers of local school districts set forth in RCW 28A.13.050.

No child shall be removed from the jurisdiction of juvenile court for training or education under this chapter without the approval of the superior court of the county.

Prior to the start of the 1984-85 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules setting standards on the selection and use of a limited number of assessment instruments to establish program eligibility.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 217, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.772 are each amended to read as follows:

Each school district within which there is located a residential school shall, singly or in concert with another school district pursuant to RCW 28A.58.075 and 28A.58.245 or pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW, each as now or hereafter amended, conduct a program of education, including related student activities, for residents of the residential school. Except as otherwise provided for by contract pursuant to RCW 28A.58.776, as now or hereafter amended, the duties and authority of a school district and its employees to conduct such a program shall be limited to the following:

(1) The employment, supervision and control of administrators, teachers, specialized personnel and other persons, deemed necessary by the school district for the conduct of the program of education;

(2) The purchase, lease or rental and provision of textbooks, maps, audio-visual equipment, paper, writing instruments, physical education equipment and other instructional equipment, materials and supplies, deemed necessary by the school district for the conduct of the program of education;

(3) The development and implementation, in consultation with the superintendent or chief administrator of the residential school or his or her designee, of the curriculum;

(4) The conduct of a program of education, including related student activities, for residents who are five and less than twenty-one years of age until the 1984-85 school year and, commencing with the 1984-85 school year, for residents who are four years of age and less than twenty-one years of age and, commencing with the 1985-86 school year, for residents who are three years of age and less than twenty-one years of age, and have not met high school graduation requirements as now or hereafter established by the state board of education and the school district which includes:

(a) Not less than one hundred and eighty school days each school year;

(b) Special education pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and vocational education, as necessary to address the unique needs and limitations of residents; and
(c) Such courses of instruction and school related student activities as are provided by the school district for nonresidential school students to the extent it is practical and judged appropriate for the residents by the school district after consultation with the superintendent or chief administrator of the residential school: PROVIDED, That a preschool special education program may be provided for handicapped residential school students;

(5) The control of students while participating in a program of education conducted pursuant to this section and the discipline, suspension or expulsion of students for violation of reasonable rules of conduct adopted by the school district; and

(6) The expenditure of funds for the direct and indirect costs of maintaining and operating the program of education that are appropriated by the legislature and allocated by the superintendent of public instruction for the exclusive purpose of maintaining and operating residential school programs of education, and funds from federal and private grants, bequests and gifts made for the purpose of maintaining and operating the program of education.

Sec. 3. Section 72.40.040, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 68, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 72.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The schools shall be free to residents of the state between the ages of (five) five and twenty-one years until the 1984-85 school year, between the ages of four and twenty-one years commencing with the 1984-85 school year, and between the ages of three and twenty-one years commencing with the 1985-86 school year, and who are blind or deaf, or otherwise sensory handicapped, and who are free from loathsome or contagious diseases: PROVIDED, That children under the age of six, who are otherwise qualified may be admitted to the school, if in the discretion of the superintendent they are proper persons to receive the training given in the school and the facilities are adequate for proper care, education, and training. PROVIDED FURTHER, That students over the age of twenty-one years, who are otherwise qualified may be retained at the school, if in the discretion of the superintendent in consultation with the faculty they are proper persons to receive further training given at the school and the facilities are adequate for proper care, education, and training.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is appropriated to the superintendent of public instruction from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of three hundred seventy thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

MOTION

Senator Woody moved that the following amendments by Senators Woody and Bluechel to the Committee on Education amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2 of the committee amendment, line 8, after "year," strike all material through "year:" on line 19.

On page 3 of the committee amendment, after line 28, insert a new section as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The legislature intends to provide additional educational opportunities for three and four-year old preschool age handicapped children for enrichment purposes only. It is the intent of the legislature that such additional educational opportunities are not to be a part of the basic program of education mandated by Article IX, Sections 1 and 2 of the Washington State Constitution.

(2) School districts shall enrich the educational opportunities for handicapped children by providing special education and training programs for preschool age children four years of age and older, commencing with the 1984-85 school year and for preschool age children three years of age and older commencing with the 1985-86 school year.

(3) In no event shall state expenditures for the preschool handicapped program exceed the amounts specified for such purposes in the biennial appropriations act or other substantive legislation. School districts may enrich the program authorized under this act: PROVIDED, That such enrichment shall not constitute a responsibility of the state.

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

Senator Bluechel demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senators Woody and Bluechel.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Woody failed and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 23; absent, 02; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hemstad, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 23.
FORTY-NINTH DAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1984

Absent: Senators Deccio, Hughes - 2.
Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved the following amendments by Senators Shinpoch and Gaspard to the Committee on Education amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3 of the committee amendment, after line 21, strike all the material down to and including "eligibility." on line 28.

On page 3 of the committee amendment, after line 28, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Prior to the start of the 1984-85 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules setting standards on the selection and use of a limited number of assessment instruments to establish eligibility for preschool handicapped programs. Prior to the start of the 1984-85 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules revising the eligibility criteria for preschool handicapped programs. The legislature intends that the new rules shall address the following legislative concerns:

(1) The rules setting assessment standards shall result in use of a limited number of appropriate assessment instruments to produce consistent, equitable, and reliable eligibility decisions.

(2) Delays of twenty-five percent or less from chronological age in any two of the developmental areas under WAC 392-171-381 do not constitute an actual handicapping condition requiring early intervention by special education programs. Greater attention shall be directed to defining the scope of the developmental areas and to establishing the extent of a significant delay.

(3) Articulation problems and mild language delays unaccompanied by significant delays in other developmental areas shall be treated as communication disorders under WAC 392-171-391 and not as developmental handicaps under WAC 392-171-381.

(4) Subjective exceptional provisions of WAC 392-171-381 shall be modified or eliminated, including the provision for placement in preschool handicapped programs of children who do not manifest significant developmental delays but who are judged by the assessment team to have a high predictability of future developmental delays.

The superintendent of public instruction shall report in writing to the legislature by December 14, 1984, on the implementation of this section."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I think we have a special order of business at 4:59."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "I believe, with the consent of the body, that we will finish this bill and then take up that bill. It looks like we are very close to coming to the end of this bill, unless the body would like to interrupt this bill and take up the other bill at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, it doesn't matter to me and I am not speaking as either a friend or opponent of either of these bills. However, I believe prior rulings by the President have been that if you have started a bill then you can finish it after the five o'clock cut off, but I don't believe there has ever been a ruling that says that if you set a special order of business at 4:59 and then you go past the deadline without taking up that order of business that you can then take it up afterwards. In other words, I believe the prior rulings have been that if you go past the deadline that you set without taking it up, then you lose the right to take that issue up."

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore deferred further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1311 and the Senate commenced the special order of business, the consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Mr. President. I wanted to ask a point of order. My understanding that since the body had begun deliberation—and seriously intended to complete deliberation of the preschool handicap bill—that we really will be able to address the bill—"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "That is correct. We will come back to the bill that was before us at the time of the special order of business.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Owen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I don't know if Senator Pullen had asked for a ruling, but I would, on the fact that we did not start on the fireworks bill at 4:59 as it was supposed to be done in the special order of business, and that it was, in fact, after five o'clock when we started on it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I am speaking to the point of order. Since we do have a special order of business, I did raise the question of the special order of business before five o'clock and then subsequent conversation continued."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "The chair would rule that the bill before us is properly before us."

SECOND READING

Modifying the regulation of fireworks.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 3, beginning on line 20, after "Include" strike "(a) Fireworks" and insert "fireworks"

Senator Vognild moved the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be adopted:

On page 3, beginning on line 22, after "rockets" strike all material down to and including "section" on line 25

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Vognild, would the fact of adopting the amendment then be to prohibit combination items?"

Senator Vognild: "No, adopting the amendment would remove the combination language from the bill. We were unable to identify combination fireworks that contained any firecrackers or loud noises."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Vognild, if we adopt the committee amendment, will that place the fireworks bill in the same condition that it was when it was here before us as a Senate Bill?"

Senator Vognild: "No, Senator Hurley, the fireworks bill will still contain the language banning firecrackers, mines and ground audible devices."

Senator Hurley: "Will it have local control?"

Senator Vognild: "This amendment does not affect the local control portion of the bill."
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sellar: "A point of order. Mr. President, not really pertaining to this bill, but just so we will know in the future—so we know the rules of operating the Senate. When you ruled this bill was properly before us, was that based on the fact that even though the bill was not started before the hour, but after the hour—it was a special order of business—so that if there were ten or fifteen bills in that time frame, they could all be taken up? I just want a clarification, so for the future we will know what rules we are operating under."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "I believe, Senator Sellar, that your point of order is not timely. We are currently discussing an amendment to the bill and I would ask if there is any further discussion on the amendment. We can rule on that point of order at a later time."

Senator Sellar: "Excuse me, then you said you will give us a ruling on that at some appropriate time."

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Yes."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be adopted:

On page 16, after line 17, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership or corporation to print or broadcast any advertisement for the sale of fireworks in violation of this chapter."

Renumber the following sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Zimmerman, as the protector of the first amendment in the Federal Constitution, does this—"

Senator Zimmerman: "It bothers me slightly—it bothers me somewhat. If something is illegal to be sold, I have a concern about whether we should promote it—I have a concern about that. At the same time, I recognize the obvious conflict of concern as to whether we are prior censorship of what people are allowed to know and see, but things that are illegal. I personally feel strongly that we should do everything possible to not have them sold, and for those reasons, I would certainly support this."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Bauer moved the following amendment by Senators Bauer, Thompson and Zimmerman be adopted:

On page 16 of the engrossed bill, beginning on line 24, strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. Sections 2, 3, and 38 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1985. All other sections of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Bauer, Thompson and Zimmerman.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Bauer carried and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 17; absent, 03; excused, 03.

Absent: Senators Hughes, Lee, Sellar - 3.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Newhouse, Quigg - 3.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved the following amendment be adopted:

On page 16 of the engrossed bill, a new section is added to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. In an action based on fault seeking to recover damages for injury or death to person or harm to property resulting from the sale of fireworks in violation of this chapter, no contributory fault is chargeable to the claimant to diminish an award of compensatory damages for any such injury, death or harm."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Haley moved the following amendment be adopted:

Beginning on page 2, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Any person who manufactures, imports, or sells any fireworks at wholesale or retail for any use contrary to the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Section 56, chapter 228, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 31, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.395 are each amended to read as follows:

No common fireworks ((shall)) may be sold or discharged within this state except from twelve o'clock noon on the twenty-eighth of June to twelve o'clock noon of the sixth of July of each year. No common fireworks may be sold or discharged between the hours of eleven o'clock p.m. and nine o'clock a.m.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. It is unlawful to possess any class or kind of fireworks in violation of this chapter.

It is unlawful to possess any class or kind of fireworks in violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful to transport any class or kind of fireworks in violation of this chapter. The attorney general is authorized to bring suit to enforce this section.

Sec. 5. Section 74, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.77.485 are each amended to read as follows:

The unlawful possession of any class or kind of fireworks in violation of this chapter ((shall be a misdemeanor)) is:

(1) A misdemeanor if involving up to one pound of fireworks, exclusive of external packaging; or

(2) A gross misdemeanor if involving an amount greater than one pound of fireworks, exclusive of external packaging.

For the purposes of this section, "external packaging" means any materials that are not an integral part of the operative unit of fireworks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. It is a gross misdemeanor for a wholesaler or retailer to knowingly sell or give fireworks to a person under sixteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Except with the supervision of an adult, it is a misdemeanor for a person under the age of sixteen years to possess or discharge any fireworks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It is a gross misdemeanor for a person to discharge fireworks with a willful or reckless disregard for persons or property.

Sec. 9. Section 85, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.77.540 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 70.77.485 and sections 1, 6, and 8 of this act, any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations issued thereunder is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter limits the power of state and local law enforcement officers to enforce the provisions of this chapter or of any provision of Title 9 or 9A RCW or limits the power of any local government from adopting more restrictive regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In an action based on fault seeking to recover damages for injury or death to person or harm to property resulting from the sale of fireworks in violation of this chapter, no contributory fault is chargeable to the claimant to diminish an award of compensatory damages for any such injury, death or harm.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11 of this act are each added to chapter 70.77 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its public institutions, and shall take effect June 1, 1984."

Debate ensued.
Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Haley.

ROLL CALL

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 689 and the pending amendment by Senator McManus on page 6, line 16 to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment, proposed earlier today.
RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Bluechel, the President finds that Second Substitute House Bill No. 689 is a measure which deals with the issue of the enhancement of small business in Washington State.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McManus also deals with the issue of the enhancement of small business in Washington State.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point or order is not well taken."

The amendment to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McManus to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment.

The motion by Senator McManus carried and the amendment to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1311, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Gaspard, it's a known fact, in those small school districts way out in the mountains, that the handicapped programs have been very unfair to them in a financial way. How's this going to affect them? How's the relationship now with those small schools that are miles and miles away, with only one or two in the community that this might apply to? Will there be an additional financial burden on them in relation to others?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Barr, in the language that we have adopted, we speak to allowing school districts, jointly or in combination, have a program with other school districts, so it becomes economically feasible or if there are not enough children in the school district that you service, you can work with another school district to bring the population up higher. I hope that answers your question."

Senator Barr: "If I might—that program in the past—it worked a terrible hardship on several of the thirty-seven small school districts that I've got in my legislative district and I was in hopes that there would be something more positive in an answer that this will not be a continuing of that financial hardship on those kinds of schools. If there is not, I will have to vote against this bill. I may be the only one in here, but I'm the only one in here with twelve percent of the school districts in the state, too."

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Barr, if you will notice from the language that we adopted, I think there's an appropriation—if I remember correctly without having to look it up—at about three hundred and seventy thousand dollars, and that is for the school districts, basically, who have not provided this type of preschool handicapped."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1311, as amended by the Senate.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1311, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 36; nays. 02; absent. 03; excused. 08.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, McCastlin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellars, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 36.

Absent: Senators Decclo, Owen, von Reichbauer - 3.

Excused: Senators Croswell, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, Metcalf, Newhouse, Pullen, Quigg - 8.

ENGROSGED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1311, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

INQUIRY ON POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sellar: "Mr. President, I wonder if you would rule on my point of order."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Sellar as to what bills can be considered after the 5:00 o'clock cutoff time, the President finds that any bill which the body was either in the process of considering, was being held pending a scope and object ruling or was made a special order of business prior to 5:00 o'clock, may be considered.

"The President is aware that only three bills may currently be considered under this ruling: Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1311, which the body was in the process of considering; Second Substitute House Bill No. 689, which was being held subject to a scope and object ruling; and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652, which was made a special order of business at 4:59."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I respectfully suggest that the ruling of the President is entirely in order, with respect to matters that were presently before us this evening, but I would ask that perhaps you should clarify this as to whether you are purporting, in effect, to give us what amounts to a previous declaratory judgment which would allow a circumstance to exist whereby making special order of businesses of five or six bills a few minutes prior to the expiration of the deadline. I just don't like to see the record stand in that position and I would request a clarification that your remarks related only to the matters that were presently before you."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "That is correct. These were relating to situations of today."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, along that line, I would also suggest that the chairman—if I may, Mr. President—warned me not to try to get away with it by hanging a whole bunch out there."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 25, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4110 with the following amendments:

On page 5, after line 6 insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 68.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:
The human remains of an individual may be buried on the property of the individual or the individual's immediate family or estate if such property is an island in the sole ownership of the individual, or the individual's immediate family or estate, without obtaining a permit or a variance from any zoning ordinance if in compliance with other applicable state laws."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

On page 5, after line 36 insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Section 7 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 10 of the title after "68.46.210;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 68.08 RCW;"

On page 1, line 10 after "RCW;" insert "declaring an emergency;"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4110.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Vognild, the giving the right to people that now own the island to bury kinfolk, would that prevent some future owner of the island--some purchaser--to exhume the bodies of--and well--dump them in the sea or put them any place? That's what I'm wondering, if we're giving rights in perpetuity?"

Senator Vognild: "No, Senator, they would not be able to exhume the bodies. What it does is, it allows a section of that island—if it meets the state cemetery code, to be declared as a cemetery."

Senator Rasmussen: "It does have to meet the cemetery code?"

Senator Vognild: "That is correct."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the body to be adoption of the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4110.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4110 were adopted.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the body to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4110, as amended by the House.

Absent: Senators Guess, von Reichbauer, Warnke - 3.

Excused: Senators Croswell, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, Metcalf, Newhouse, Pullen, Quigg - 8.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4110, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 6:07 p.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Monday, February 27, 1984.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.
The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Goltz. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President Pro Tempore that all Senators were present except Senators Bender, Clarke, Fleming, Haley, Hemstad, Hughes, Newhouse, Pullen, Quigg, von Reichbauer and Woody. On motion of Senator Guess, Senators Clarke, Haley, Newhouse and Pullen were excused. On motion of Senator Vognild, Senators Fleming and Hughes were excused. On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Hemstad and Quigg were excused. On motion of Senator Hayner, Senator von Reichbauer was excused.

On motion of Senator Hayner, Senator von Reichbauer was excused.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Kristi Hicks and Kevin Martin, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul Beeman, senior pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed:
SENATE BILL NO. 4491,
SENATE BILL NO. 4527,
ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4592, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a personal privilege. I've asked the clerk to put out this summary by Joe Taller. He originally put out, according to law, the one that brought the appropriations up and the per capita to 1983-actual expenditures. I asked him to put another column on which will be the 1983-85 appropriations.

"Now that we're going into consideration with appropriations, I thought it might be of interest to have that extra column. I would hope that Joe Taller would put that on regularly, because it helps a whole lot when you're comparing with what we did in previous bienniums. Thank you."

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the appointment of Harold D. Clarke as a member of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF HAROLD D. CLARKE

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 00; absent, 03; excused, 07.

Absent: Senators Bender, McCaslin, Woody - 3.

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the appointment of Hugh R. McGough as a member of the Public Disclosure Commission was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF HUGH R. MCGOUGH

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 00; absent, 03; excused, 06.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Decio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspar, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Woody, Zimmerman - 40.

Absent: Senators Craswell, Hemstad, Owen - 3.

Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the penalty shall become due and payable upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty upon request of the board or control officer, or the attorney for the local authority, designee describing the violation with reason.

(2) Further, the person is subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars to be levied by the director of the department of ecology if requested by the board of a local authority or if the director determines that the penalty is needed for effective enforcement of this chapter. A local board shall not make such a request until notice of violation and compliance order procedures have been exhausted, if such procedures are applicable. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by a local board for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is one thousand dollars.

(3) Each act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the same penalty. Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the penalty shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the director or his designee describing the violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due unless a request is made for a hearing to the hearings board as provided for in chapter 43.21B RCW. When a request is made for a hearing, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order affirming the penalty in whole or part. If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the department or the board within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, and a request for a hearing has not been made, the attorney general, upon the request of the director or his designee, or the attorney for the local authority, upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty in the superior court of the county in which the violation occurred. All penalties recovered under this section by the state board shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund or, if recovered by the authority, shall be paid into the treasury of the authority and credited to its funds.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE
February 24, 1984

At 10:15 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 11:14 a.m.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.
(4) If a penalty is levied under subsection (2) of this section, the director or the director's authorized delegate may, upon written application therefore received within fifteen days after the notice imposing any penalty is received by the person incurring the penalty, and when deemed in the best interest to carry out the purposes of this chapter, remit or mitigate any penalty provided in this section upon such terms as the director in the director's discretion deems proper, and may ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as the director deems proper. The mitigation shall not affect or reduce the penalty imposed by the local board. Any person incurring any penalty under this section may appeal the same to the hearings board as provided in chapter 43.21B RCW. Appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the director or the director's authorized delegate setting forth the disposition of the application. Any penalty imposed under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or an appeal is filed. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed. Any penalty imposed under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed. Any penalty imposed under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed.

On motion of Senator Hughes, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3193 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 14, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3194 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. Section 46.08.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.01.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The director, in his discretion, may destroy applications for vehicle licenses, copies of vehicle licenses issued, applications for drivers' licenses, copies of issued drivers' licenses, certificates of title and registration, or other documents, records, or supporting papers on file in his office which have been microfilmed or photographed or are more than five years old. If the applications for vehicle licenses are renewal applications, the director may destroy such applications when the computer record thereof has been updated.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.12.370 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in this section or in other law specifically authorizing their release, the identities of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles as shown in the records of the department or a county auditor or other public agency are not subject to public inspection or copying.

(1) The department or a county auditor or other public agency may disclose the identities of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles to law enforcement agencies for law enforcement work.

(2) The department or a county auditor or other public agency may confirm or deny the correctness of the alleged identity of a registered or legal owner of a motor vehicle to any person who requests such confirmation or denial and who provides in writing his or her own name and address and the vehicle license number and name of an alleged registered or legal owner of the vehicle.

(3) The department may provide by rule for the disclosure of the identities of registered or legal owners of motor vehicles to certain persons. Persons to whom disclosure may be allowed under this subsection are those who use such ownership information in the course of their businesses and have established an account with the department for billing the cost of disclosure.

(4) In accordance with RCW 42.17.260(5), the department of licensing (may) is authorized to furnish lists of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles, but only for the purposes specified in this (subsection) subsection to:

((H)) (a) The manufacturers of motor vehicles, or their authorized agents, to be used to enable those manufacturers to carry out the provisions of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. sec. 1382-1418), including amendments or additions thereto, respecting safety-related defects in motor vehicles;

(((2))) (b) Any governmental agency of the United States or Canada, or political subdivisions thereof, to be used by it or by its authorized commercial agents or contractors only in connection with the enforcement of motor vehicle or traffic laws by, or programs related to traffic safety of, that government agency. Only such parts of the list as are required for completion of the work required of the agent or contractor shall be provided to such agent or contractor; or

(((3))) (c) Any business regularly making loans to other persons to finance the purchase of motor vehicles, to be used to assist the person requesting the list to determine ownership of specific vehicles for the purpose of determining whether or not to provide such financing.

(5) In the event a list of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles is used for any purpose other than that authorized in subsection((s (I). (2) and (3))) (1) of this ((section)) subsection, the manufacturer, governmental agency, financial institution or their authorized agents or contractors responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or use will be denied further access to such information by the department of licensing.

In line 2 of the title, after "amending" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "section 46.08.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section I, chapter 22, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.01.260; and amending section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.12.370."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3194 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 23, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3415 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 5, strike all material through "system:" on page 3, line 12

On page 1, after the enacting clause, insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 35.63.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 170. Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35.63.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All regulations shall be worked out as parts of a comprehensive plan which each commission shall prepare for the physical and other generally advantageous development of the municipality and shall be designed, among other things, to encourage the most appropriate use of land throughout the municipality; to lessen traffic congestion and accidents; to secure safety from fire; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to promote a coordinated development of the unbuilt areas; to encourage the formation of neighborhood or community units; to secure an appropriate allotment of land area in new developments for all the requirements of community life; to conserve and restore natural beauty and other natural resources; to encourage and protect access to direct sunlight for solar energy systems; and to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage and other public uses and requirements, including protection of the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies.

Sec. 2. Section 35A.63.061, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.63.061 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive plan shall be in such form and of such scope as the code city's ordinance or charter may require. It may consist of a map or maps, diagrams, charts, reports and descriptive and explanatory text or other devices and materials to express, explain, or depict the elements of the plan; and it shall include a recommended plan, scheme, or design for each of the following elements:

(1) A land-use element that designates the proposed general distribution, general location, and extent of the uses of land. These uses may include, but are not limited to, agricultural, residential, commercial, industrial, recreational, educational, public, and other categories of public and private uses of land. The land-use element shall also include estimates of future population growth in, and statements of recommended standards of population density and building intensity for, the area covered by the comprehensive plan. The land-use element shall also provide for protection of the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies.

(2) A circulation element consisting of the general location, alignment, and extent of existing and proposed major thoroughfares, major transportation routes, and major terminal facilities, all of which shall be correlated with the land-use element of the comprehensive plan.

Sec. 3. Section 36.70.330, chapter 4. Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.70.330 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive plan shall consist of a map or maps, and descriptive text covering objectives, principles and standards used to develop it, and shall include each of the following elements:

(1) A land-use element which designates the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of land for agriculture, housing, commerce, industry, recreation, education, public buildings and lands, and other categories of public and private use of land, including a statement of the standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various areas in the jurisdiction and estimates of future population growth in the area covered by the comprehensive plan, all correlated with the land-use element of the comprehensive plan. The land-use element shall also provide for protection of the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies.

(2) A circulation element consisting of the general location, alignment and extent of major thoroughfares, major transportation routes, trunk utility lines, and major terminal facilities, all of which shall be correlated with the land-use element of the comprehensive plan;

(3) Any supporting maps, diagrams, charts, descriptive material and reports necessary to explain and supplement the above elements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of ecology may recommend land-use management policy modifications if it finds appropriate for the further protection of ground and surface water resources in this state. Such advisory recommendations may be made to other state regulatory agencies, local governments, water systems, and other appropriate bodies.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references.

On page 3, line 15, after “of” insert “the quality of”

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after “water resources;” strike all material through “90.54.020;” on line 2

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after “90.54.020;” strike the remainder of the title and insert “amending section 35.63.090, chapter 7. Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 170, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35.63.090; amending section 35A.63.061, chapter 119, Laws of 1987 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.63.061; amending section 36.70.330, chapter 4. Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.70.330; and adding new sections to chapter 90.54 RCW;”

On page 3, after line 26, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislature finds that growth of the state’s population and economy places increasingly greater demands on available water resources, including this state’s ground water supplies. The legislature also finds that chapter 90.44 RCW, popularly known as the Ground Water Code of 1945, protects the public welfare by providing an orderly system of rights to the beneficial use of water based upon the “first in time is first in right” principle of the prior appropriation doctrine. The purpose of sections 7 and 8 of this act is to provide remedies to protect the right of a holder of a senior right to ground water to a safe sustaining yield of water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The remedies to protect the right of the holder of a senior water right to a safe sustaining yield of water include protection of the availability of water in the well or wells used to exercise that senior water right, without the wells or withdrawal works being significantly modified, against interruption or other interference caused by the water works of, or the water withdrawal activities of, a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water. Junior rights to ground water are those established subsequently to a senior right under the prior appropriation doctrine upon which this chapter is based.

(2) The holder of a senior water right is entitled to adequate compensation whenever the water works or water withdrawal activities of a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water cause such an interruption or interference in that availability of water. Adequate compensation for the loss of that availability will be made if the holder of the senior right is provided with:

(a) An amount equivalent to the increased costs reasonably incurred by or reasonably to be incurred by the holder of the senior water right in securing and using water, to the full extent of the senior right, as a result of losing the availability protected by subsection (1) of this section. The full extent of the senior right includes any conditions that applied to the right such as the quantity and quality of the water, the location of use, and time of use;

(b) The delivery of water to the holder of the senior right. To qualify as compensation, the water delivered must be of a quantity equal to and a quality equivalent to that of the senior right. The delivery must also be under such conditions, including but not limited to timing and location, as applied to the senior right without increased costs being incurred by the senior rightholder; or

(c) The payment of just compensation pursuant to the exercise of eminent domain if the holder of the junior rights has been granted the power of eminent domain.

(3) In lieu of the forms of compensation provided by this section, the holder of the senior right to ground water may freely enter contractual agreements establishing other compensation.

(4) In any civil action brought under this section, if the court believes the legal remedies are inadequate or excessively harsh, it may provide such equitable relief as it believes appropriate. The court shall also provide such emergency relief as is appropriate for the protection of ground water rights.

(5) The department of ecology does not have any power to consider subsection (1) of this section when it decides whether to grant or deny a permit for the appropriation of ground water. However, all permits issued and to be issued under this chapter are subject to subsections (1) through (4) of this section. The department of ecology does not have any power to determine the amount of compensation required under this section. The department shall issue an order to stop the exercise of a junior right whenever it finds that sufficient information exists to show that exercising the right has resulted in or would result in such an interruption or interference in the availability of water that a holder of a senior right has the right to the remedy of adequate compensation under this section.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 263. Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No permit shall be granted for the development or withdrawal of public ground waters beyond the capacity of the underground bed or formation in the given basin, district, or locality to yield such water within a reasonable or feasible pumping lift in case of pumping developments, or within a reasonable or feasible reduction of pressure in the case of artesian developments. ((The supervisor of water resources)) Except as provided otherwise in section 7 of this 1984 act, the director of ecology shall have the power to determine whether the granting of any ((each)) permit will injure or damage any vested or existing right or rights under prior permits and may in addition to the records of his office, require further evidence, proof, and testimony before granting or denying any such permits.

The granting of a permit by the director does not relieve the recipient of the permit of any liability for injuring or damaging vested or existing rights to water.

In multiaquifer systems, the director may require, as permit conditions, the casing and sealing of wells or other construction techniques to: (1) Protect the use of the uppermost aquifer or aquifers of the system by persons with senior rights to ground water, or (2) protect the use of waters from the uppermost aquifer or aquifers for future domestic or similar uses, traditionally involving shallower wells, that the director finds to be vital for the support of future development of the overlying land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) This section contains remedies designed to protect the holder of a ground water right against activities that cause damage or injury by adversely affecting the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains. Any holder of a ground water right who sustains any damage or injury, whether to property or person, which is caused by activities that decrease the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains, shall be entitled to recover full compensation for such damage or injury from the person or persons responsible for or conducting the activities. This subsection shall not affect or impair any other rights or remedies, whether prescribed by statute or case law, to recover compensation or obtain other relief for damage or injury caused by the impairment of water quality.

(2) In the case of saltwater intrusion caused by the overuse of a freshwater aquifer, the department shall preserve the rights of senior appropriators to fresh water by reducing the withdrawals authorized for the holders of junior water rights in a manner consistent with the prior appropriation system of rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:
In any civil action brought under section 7 or 9 of this act, the court may award attorney's fees to the prevailing party. The amount of fees awarded shall be reasonable and shall be fixed by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who provides compensation under section 7 or 9 of this act shall provide notice thereof to the department of ecology. The notice shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall be sufficient to show the amount and nature of the compensation and any change in the water rights involved.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 233, Laws of 1967 and RCW 90.14.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this chapter "sufficient cause" shall be defined as the nonuse of all or a portion of the water by the owner of a water right for a period of five or more consecutive years where such nonuse occurs as a result of:

- Drought, or other unavailability of water;
- Active service in the armed forces of the United States during military crisis;
- Nonvoluntary service in the armed forces of the United States;
- The operation of legal proceedings;
- Federal laws imposing land or water use restrictions, or acreage limitations, or production quotas;
- The use of water delivered as compensation under section 7(2) of this 1984 act so long as the nonused water right is not transferred separately from the land to which it is attached.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, there shall be no relinquishment of any water right:

- If such right is claimed for power development purposes under chapter 90.16 RCW and annual license fees are paid in accordance with chapter 90.16 RCW or
- If such right is used for a standby or reserve water supply to be used in time of drought or other low flow period so long as withdrawal or diversion facilities are maintained in good operating condition for the use of such reserve or standby water supply.

(3) If such right is claimed for a determined future development to take place either within fifteen years of the effective date of this act, or the most recent beneficial use of the water right, whichever date is later, or

(4) If such right is claimed for municipal water supply purposes under chapter 90.03 RCW.

- If such waters are not subject to appropriation under the applicable provisions of RCW 90.03.030 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 13. Section 6, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Applications for permits for appropriation of underground water shall be made in the same form and manner provided in RCW 90.03.250 through 90.03.340, as amended, the provisions of which sections, except as provided to the contrary in section 7 of this 1984 act, are hereby extended to govern and to apply to ground water, or ground water right certificates and to all permits that shall be issued pursuant to such applications, and the rights to the withdrawal of ground water acquired thereby shall be governed by RCW 90.03.250 through 90.03.340, inclusive. PROVIDED, That each application to withdraw public ground water by means of a well or wells shall set forth the following additional information: (1) the name and post office address of the applicant; (2) the name and post office address of the owner of the land on which such well or wells or works will be located; (3) the location of the proposed well or wells or other works for the proposed withdrawal; (4) the ground water area, sub-area, or zone from which withdrawal is proposed; provided the supervisor of water resources has designated such area, sub-area, or zone in accord with RCW 90.44.130; (5) the amount of water proposed to be withdrawn, in gallons a minute and in acre feet a year, or millions of gallons a year; (6) the depth and type of construction proposed for the well or wells or other works; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any permit issued pursuant to an application for constructing a well or wells to withdraw public ground water may specify an approved type and manner of construction for the purposes of preventing waste of said public waters and of conserving their head.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "90.54.020;" insert "amending section 7, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.070; amending section 14, chapter 233, Laws of 1967 and RCW 90.14.140; amending section 6, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.060; creating a new section; adding new sections to chapter 90.44 RCW*.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON L. CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk
POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hansen: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise scope and object on the House amendments to Senate Bill 3415. What they've done is taken another bill—1193—and added it to 3415, which is clearly out of the scope and object of 3415. This enters into the restitution of anyone interfering with water rights."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3415 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3827 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 19, strike "No later than June 30, 1984." and insert: "For the first available appointment"

On page 1, line 21, after "and" strike the remainder of subsection (4) and insert "one member shall reside west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3827 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 25, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3815 with the following amendments:

Beginning on page 3, after line 32, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. and renumber the remaining sections consecutively

On page 1, line 3 of the title, strike "making an appropriation."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 23, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4306 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 43.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) "Consumer representative" means any person who is not an elected official, who has no fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, and who has no material financial interest in the rendering of health services.

(2) "Local health board" means a health board created pursuant to chapter 70.05, 70.08, or 70.46 RCW.

(3) "Local health officer" means the legally qualified physician appointed as a health officer pursuant to chapter 70.05, 70.08, or 70.46 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 43.20.030, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 11, chapter 18, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 43.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of health shall be composed of ((ten)) nine members. These shall be the secretary or ((the)) the secretary's designee and ((nine)) nine other persons to be appointed by the governor, including four persons experienced in matters of health and sanitation, an elected city official who is a member of a local health board, an elected county official who is a member of a local health board, a local health officer, and ((one)) two persons representing the consumers of health care. Before appointing the city official, the governor shall consider any recommendations submitted by the association of Washington cities. Before appointing the county official, the governor shall consider any recommendations submitted by the Washington state association of counties. Before appointing the local health officer, the governor shall consider any recommendations submitted by the Washington state association of local public health officials. Before appointing one of the two consumer representatives, the governor shall consider any recommendations submitted by the state council on aging. The chairman shall be selected by the governor from among the ((five)) nine appointed members ((appointed by him)). The department of social and health services shall assign, subject to the continuing approval of the board, an executive director who shall be exempt from chapter 41.06 RCW, and provide such additional staff assistance as necessary for the performance of its function.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) There is created the joint select committee on public health. The committee shall consist of the following members:

(a) Two majority members and two minority members of the senate, to be appointed by the president of the senate;

(b) Two majority members and two minority members of the house of representatives, to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives;

(c) The chair of the state board of health or the chair's designee;

(d) The chair of the state health coordinating council or the chair's designee;

(e) The director of the department of veterans affairs or the director's designee;

(f) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee;

(g) A local public health official to be appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives acting jointly;

(h) A physician licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW to be appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives acting jointly; and

(i) Two persons who have demonstrated an interest in public health. One of these persons shall be appointed by the president of the senate and the other shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(2) Legislative members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses by their respective houses as provided under RCW 44.04.120. Nonlegislative members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The cost of travel expenses for members appointed under subsection (1) (h) and (i) of this section shall be paid by the senate and the house of representatives, the costs to be divided equally between the two houses.

(3) The committee shall study issues pertaining to public health and report its conclusions and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1986, on which date the committee shall cease to exist."
and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON L. CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4306 and asked the House to recede theretofrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 17, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4309 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the prevention of sexual exploitation and abuse of children constitutes a government objective of surpassing importance. The care of children is a sacred trust and should not be abused by those who seek commercial gain or personal gratification based on the exploitation of children.

The legislature further finds that the protection of children from sexual exploitation can be accomplished without infringing on a constitutionally protected activity. The definition of "sexually explicit conduct" and other operative definitions demarcate a line between protected and prohibited conduct and should not inhibit legitimate scientific, medical, or educational activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout the chapter.

(1) To "photograph" means to make a print, negative, slide, motion picture, or videotape. A "photograph" means any tangible item produced by photographing.

(2) "Visual or printed matter" means any photograph or other material that contains a reproduction of a photograph.

(3) "Sexually explicit conduct" means actual or simulated:

(a) Sexual intercourse, including genital–genital, oral–genital, anal–genital, or oral–anal, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals;

(b) Penetration of the vagina or rectum by any object;

(c) Masturbation, for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer;

(d) Sadomasochistic abuse for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer;

(e) Exhibition of the genitals or unclothed pubic or rectal areas of any minor for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer;

(f) Defecation or urination for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer; and

(g) Touching of a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or breast area for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A person is guilty of sexual exploitation of a minor if the person:

(a) Compels a minor by threat or force to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that such conduct will be photographed or part of a live performance;

(b) Aids or causes a minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that such conduct will be photographed or part of a live performance; or

(c) Being a parent, legal guardian, or person having custody or control of a minor, permits the minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that the conduct will be photographed or part of a live performance.

(2) Sexual exploitation of a minor is:

(a) A class B felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW if the minor exploited is less than sixteen years old at the time of the offense; and

(b) A class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW if the minor exploited is at least sixteen years old but less than eighteen years old at the time of the offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A person who:

(1) Knowingly develops, duplicates, publishes, prints, disseminates, exchanges, finances, attempts to finance, or sells any visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in an act of sexually explicit conduct; or

(2) Possesses with intent to develop, duplicate, publish, print, disseminate, exchange, or sell any visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in an act of sexually explicit conduct is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(3) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under sixteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A person who knowingly sends or causes to be sent, or brings or causes to be brought, into this state for sale or distribution, any visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under sixteen years of age.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A person who knowingly possesses visual or printed matter depicting a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under sixteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A person who, in the course of processing or producing visual or printed matter either privately or commercially, has reasonable cause to believe that the visual or printed matter submitted for processing or producing depicts a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct shall immediately report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency. Persons failing to do so are guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under sixteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A person who communicates with a minor for immoral purposes is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, unless that person has previously been convicted of a felony sexual offense under chapter 9.66A, 9A.44, or 9A.64 RCW or of any other felony sexual offense in this or any other state, in which case the person is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under eighteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A person is guilty of patronizing a juvenile prostitute if that person engages or agrees or offers to engage in sexual conduct with a minor in return for a fee, and is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under eighteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) In a prosecution under section 3 of this act, it is not a defense that the defendant was involved in activities of law enforcement and prosecution agencies in the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses. Law enforcement and prosecution agencies shall not employ minors to aid in the investigation of a violation of section 8 or 9 of this act. This chapter does not apply to individual case treatment by a psychiatrist or psychologist licensed under Title 18 RCW, or to lawful conduct between spouses.

(2) In a prosecution under section 4, 5, 6, or 7 of this act, it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the age of the child depicted in the visual or printed matter: PROVIDED. That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense the defendant did not know the alleged victim's age: PROVIDED. That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense, the defendant reasonably believed the alleged victim to be at least eighteen years of age based on deprivations by the alleged victim.

(3) In a prosecution under section 3, 8, or 9 of this act, it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the alleged victim's age: PROVIDED. That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense, the defendant reasonably believed the alleged victim to be at least sixteen years of age based on declarations by the alleged victim.

(4) In a prosecution under section 4 or 5 of this act, it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the alleged victim's age: PROVIDED. That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense, the defendant reasonably believed the alleged victim to be at least eighteen years of age based on declarations by the alleged victim.

(5) In a prosecution under section 4, 5, or 6 of this act, the state is not required to establish the identity of the alleged victim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture:

(1) All visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

(2) All raw materials, equipment, and other tangible personal property of any kind used or intended to be used to manufacture or process any visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct, and all conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels that are used or intended for use to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation of, visual or printed matter in violation of section 4 or 5 of this act.

(a) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter;

(b) No property is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner of the property to have been committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent;

(c) A forfeiture of property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and

(d) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter the conveyance may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest.

(3) All personal property, moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for visual or printed matter depicting a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct, or constituting proceeds traceable to any violation of this chapter.
(4) Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(b) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(c) A law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(d) The law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(5) In the event of seizure under subsection (4) of this section, proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(6) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of seized items within forty-five days of the seizure, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited.

(7) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of seized items within forty-five days of the seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. The hearing before an administrative law judge and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of the seized items. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of the seized items.

(8) If property is sought to be forfeited on the ground that it constitutes proceeds traceable to a violation of this chapter, the seizing law enforcement agency must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the property constitutes proceeds traceable to a violation of this chapter.

(9) When property is forfeited under this chapter the seizing law enforcement agency may:

(a) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release the property to that agency for the exclusive use of enforcing this chapter;

(b) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this chapter shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Fifty percent of the money remaining after payment of these expenses shall be deposited in the criminal justice training account established under RCW 43.101.210 which shall be appropriated by law to the Washington state criminal justice training commission and fifty percent shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, or city of the seizing law enforcement agency; or

(c) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A minor prevailing in a civil action arising from violation of this chapter is entitled to recover the costs of the suit, including an award of reasonable attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 53. Laws of 1980 and RCW 9.68A.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 53. Laws of 1980 and RCW 9.68A.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 53. Laws of 1980 and RCW 9.68A.030;

(4) Section 5, chapter 53. Laws of 1980 and RCW 9.68A.090; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 12 of this act are each added to chapter 9.68A RCW.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4309 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4381 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of sections 2 through 8 of this act is to provide an orderly and predictable election procedure for filling vacancies in the offices of United States representative and United States senator from this state or any congressional district of this state.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 4, chapter 144, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.13.047 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Whenever state officers or measures are voted upon at a state primary or general election held in an odd-numbered year under RCW 29.13.010, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that primary or general election.

2. Whenever a primary or vacancy election is held under chapter 29.68 RCW to fill a vacancy in the position of United States senator or United States representative, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that primary or vacancy election.

3. The county auditor shall apportion the state's share of these expenses when prorating election costs under RCW 29.13.045 and shall file such expense claims with the secretary of state.

4. The secretary of state shall include in his or her biennial budget request sufficient funds to carry out the provisions of this section. Reimbursements for election costs shall be from appropriations specifically provided for such purpose by law.

Sec. 3. Section 29.68.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.68.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When a vacancy occurs in the representation of this state in the senate of the United States, the governor shall make a temporary appointment to that office until the people fill the vacancy by election as provided in this chapter. The person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same political party as the person whose office has been vacated and shall be one of three persons nominated for the appointment by the state committee, as defined in RCW 29.42.020, of that party. The state committee shall submit its list of three nominees to the governor within thirty days of the date the vacancy occurs. If the state committee fails to submit its list of nominees to the governor within the prescribed period, the governor may appoint any person from the same political party as the person whose office has been vacated.

Sec. 4. Section 29.68.080, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.080 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of United States representative ((in the congress of the United States)) or United States senator from this state or any congressional district ((in this state)) of this state, the governor shall order a special election to fill the vacancy.

2. Within ten days of such vacancy occurring, the governor shall ((as the)) issue a writ of election fixing a date for the special vacancy election ((a day)) not less than nineteen days after the issuance of the writ ((He shall fix as the)), fixing a date for the primary for nominating candidates for the special vacancy election ((a day)) not less than thirty days before the day fixed for holding the special vacancy election, fixing the dates for the special filing period, and designating the term or part of the term for which the vacancy exists. If the vacancy is in the office of United States representative, the writ of election shall specify the congressional district that is vacant.

3. If the vacancy occurs ((between or on a date)) less than six months ((prior to)) before a state general ((state)) election and before the second Friday following the close of the filing period for that general election, the special primary and special ((general)) vacancy elections... shall be held in concert with the ((regular)) state primary and ((regular)) state general election((s)) in that year.

(4) If the vacancy occurs on or after the first day for filing ((specified in)) under RCW 29.18.030 and on or before the second Friday following the close of the filing period, a special filing period of three normal business days shall be fixed by the ([(secretary of state)]) governor and notice thereof given (by notifying) to all media, including press, radio, and television within the ([(congressional district concerned)]) area in which the vacancy election is to be held, to the end that, insofar as possible, all interested persons will be aware of such filing period((([PROVIDED. HOWEVER. That]))). The last day of ((such)) the filing period shall not be ((ne)) later than the third Tuesday (((prior to)) before the primary ([(election concerned: Such)]) at which candidates are to be nominated. The names of candidates who have filed valid declarations of candidacy ((validly filed within said)) during this three-day period shall appear on the approaching primary ballot ([(as it made during the earlier filing period)])

(5) If the vacancy ([(should)]) occurs later than the second Friday following the close of the filing period, a special primary and special ([(general)]) vacancy election to fill ([(such vacancy)]) the position shall be held after the (([(regular annual)]) next state general election but. in any event, no later than the ninetieth day following the ((said)) November election.

(6) As used in this chapter. "county" means, in the case of a vacancy in the office of United States senator, any or all of the counties in the state and, in the case of a vacancy in the office of United States representative, only those counties wholly or partly within the congressional district in which the vacancy has occurred.

Sec. 5. Section 29.68.100, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.100 are each amended to read as follows:

((Upon)) After calling a special primary and special vacancy election to fill a vacancy ([(or impending vacancy)]) in the office of United States representative ([(in the congress of the United States)]) or United States senator from this state, the governor shall immediately notify the secretary of state who shall, in turn, immediately notify ([(each)]) the county auditor of each county wholly or partly within ([(the district)]) in which the vacancy exists ([(or is about to exist)])

Each county auditor ([(in the district)]) shall publish notices of the special primary and ([(cot)]) the special vacancy election at least once in any legal newspaper published in the county, as provided by RCW 29.27.030 and 29.27.080 respectively.

Sec. 6. Section 29.68.120, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 46, chapter 3. Laws of 1983 and RCW 29.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The canvass of the votes cast at a special primary ([(held in relation to a special election)]) for a United States ([(congressman)]) representative or senator shall be ([(made)]) completed in each county ([(within the district)]) within ten days after the primary ([(and)]). The returns ([(sent)]) shall be transmitted immediately to the secretary of state, who shall certify ([(said)]) the returns in the ([(same)]) manner ([(as)]) provided by RCW 29.62.100 ([(and)]). As soon as possible ([(thereafter)]) after the canvass, the secretary of state shall certify the names of the ([(successful)]) nominees to the county auditors ([(of the counties within the district)])

(2) The canvass of the votes cast at a special primary election for a United States representative or senator shall be completed in each county within fifteen days after the vacancy election. The returns shall be transmitted immediately to the secretary of state, who shall certify the returns in the manner provided in RCW 29.62.120.

Sec. 7. Section 29.68.130, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.68.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The general election laws and laws relating to partisan primaries shall apply to the special primaries and vacancy elections provided for in RCW 29.68.080 through 29.68.120 ([(insofar as]) to the extent that they are not inconsistent ([(therewith; and shall be construed with and as a part thereof for the purpose of carrying out the spirit and intent thereof)]) with the provisions of these sections. Statutory time deadlines relating to availability of absentee ballots, certification, canvassing, and related procedures that cannot be met in a timely fashion may be modified for the purposes of a specific primary or vacancy election under this chapter by the secretary of state through emergency rules adopted under RCW 29.04.080.

Sec. 8. Section 29.80.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 106, chapter 361. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.80.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, as soon as possible ([(prior to)]) before each even-year state general election at which federal or state officials are to be elected or any special vacancy election held under chapter 29.68 RCW, the secretary of state shall publish and mail to each individual place of residence ([(cot)]) in the state a candidates' pamphlet containing photographs and campaign statements of ([(eligible)]) nominees for federal or state office who desire to participate ([(therein and)]) in this publication. In even-numbered years ([(containing)]) a description of the office of precinct committeeman and its duties ([(in order)]) shall be included so that voters will understand ([(that such office is a state)]) the importance of this office and will be ([(familiar]) aware that it will appear on the ballot ([(cot)]) at the forthcoming general election((([PROVIDED. That]))). In odd-numbered years ([(ne)]) a candidates' pamphlet shall be published ([(unless)]) only if an election is to be held to fill a vacancy in (one or more of the following) a federal or state-wide elective office(3: United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, insurance commissioner, and justice of the supreme court).

(2) If a candidates’ pamphlet is published solely for a special vacancy election for filling the office of United States representative, the secretary of state shall mail the pamphlet to each individual place of residence in the congressional district in which the special vacancy election is to be conducted.

Sec. 9. Section 28A.57.322, chapter 223. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.322 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person elected or appointed to the office of school director, before entering upon the discharge of the duties thereof, shall take an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States and the state of Washington and to faithfully discharge the duties of his office according to the best of his ability. In case any official has a written appointment or commission, his oath or affirmation shall be endorsed thereon and sworn to before any officer authorized to administer oaths. School officials are hereby authorized to administer all oaths or affirmations pertaining to their respective offices without charge or fee. All oaths of office, when properly made, shall be filed with the (officer with whom declarations of candidacy for such positions are filed) county auditor.

Sec. 10. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1980 and RCW 29.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No paper ballot precinct shall contain more than three hundred voters. The county legislative authority may divide, alter, or combine precincts so that, whenever practicable, over populated precincts shall contain no more than two hundred fifty registered voters in anticipation of future growth.

(2) Precinct boundaries may be altered at any time as long as sufficient time exists prior to a given election for the necessary procedural steps to be honored: PROVIDED, (HOWEVER): That, except as permitted under subsection (5) of this section, no precinct boundaries shall be changed during the period starting as of the thirtieth day prior to the first day for candidates to file for the primary election and ending with the day of the general election.

(3) Precincts in which voting machines or electronic voting devices are used may contain as many as nine hundred registered voters: PROVIDED. That there shall be at least one voting machine or device for each three hundred registered voters or major fraction thereof when a state primary or general election is held in an even-numbered year.

(4) On petition of twenty-five or more voters resident more than ten miles from any place of election, the county legislative authority shall establish a separate voting precinct therefor.

(5) The county auditor shall temporarily adjust precinct boundaries when a city annexes county territory to the city. The adjustment shall be made as soon as possible after the approval of the annexation. The temporary adjustment shall be limited to the minimum changes necessary to accommodate the addition of the territory to the city and shall remain in effect only until precinct boundary modifications reflecting the annexation are adopted by the county legislative authority.

The county legislative authority of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the same; the county auditor shall thereupon designate the voting place for each such precinct.

Sec. 11. Section 29.04.055, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 5, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

At any election, general or special, or at any primary, the election authority may combine, unite, or divide precincts and may combine or unite boards of election officials for the purpose of holding such election: PROVIDED, (That in the event such election shall be held upon the day of any state primary or state general election held in an even-numbered year this section shall not apply)).

Sec. 12. Section 29.21.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 31, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All candidates for offices to be voted on at any election in first, second, and third class cities and fourth class municipalities (towns) shall file declarations of candidacy with the county auditor not earlier than the (first) fourth Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such regular city elections are held.

All candidates for district offices subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.010((as now or hereafter amended)) shall file their declarations of candidacy with the county auditor of the county not earlier than the (first) fourth Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such regular district elections are held: PROVIDED, That this chapter shall not change the method of nomination for first district officers at the formation of any district.

Any candidate for city, town, or district offices may withdraw his declaration at any time to and including the first Wednesday after the last day allowed for filing declarations of candidacy.
All candidates required to file declarations of candidacy shall pay the same fees and be governed by the same rules as contained in RCW 29.18.030 through 29.18.100. PROVIDED. That no filing fee shall be charged in the event that the office sought is without a fixed annual salary.

This section shall supersede the provisions of any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different dates for filing declarations of candidacy for such city, town, and district elections, the purpose of this section being to establish a uniform five day period throughout the state of Washington for filing declarations of candidacy.

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 10. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 120, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary for a single nonpartisan position shall appear on the general election ballot under the designation therefor. That in elections for justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the superior court, and for state superintendent of public instruction, if any candidate in the primary receives a majority of all the votes cast for the position, only the name of the person receiving the highest vote shall be printed on the general election ballot under the designation for that position, followed by a space for the writing in of any other name by a voter.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 10. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 183, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.180 are each amended to read as follows:

No primary shall be held (relating to the office of state superintendent of public instruction or, except for any school district of the first class having within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties, officers of other first class school districts) for any nonpartisan position except under RCW 28A.57.425 or except for county offices in counties where a charter adopted under Article XI, section 4 of the state Constitution provides otherwise if, after the last day allowed for candidates to withdraw, there are no more than two candidates filed for each position to be filled. In such event all candidates concerned shall be notified. Names of candidates that would have been printed upon the primary ballot, but for the provisions of this section, shall be printed upon the general election ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates.

Sec. 15. Section 29.27.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 4, Laws of 1977 and RCW 29.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When a proposed constitution or constitutional amendment or other question is to be submitted to the people of the state for state-wide popular vote, the attorney general shall prepare a concise statement posed as a question and not exceeding twenty words containing the essential features thereof expressed in such a manner as to clearly identify the proposition to be voted upon.

Questions to be submitted to the people of a county or municipality shall also be advertised as provided for nominees for office, and in such cases there shall also be printed on the ballot a concise statement posed as a question and not exceeding (twenty words or) seventy-five words (in the case of a school district tax proposition) containing the essential features thereof expressed in such a manner as to clearly identify the proposition to be voted upon, which statement shall be prepared by the city attorney for the city, and by the prosecuting attorney for the county or any other political subdivision of the state, other than cities, situated in the county.

Such concise statement shall constitute the ballot title. The secretary of state shall certify to the county auditors the ballot title for a proposed constitution, constitutional amendment, or other state-wide question at the same time and in the same manner as the ballot titles to initiatives and referendums.

Sec. 16. Section 35.23.190, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.23.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Before entering upon his duties and within ten days after receiving notice of his election or appointment every officer of the city shall qualify by taking the oath of office and by filing such bond duly approved as may be required of him. The oath of office shall be filed with the county auditor. If no notice of election or appointment was received, the officer must qualify on or before the date fixed for the assumption by him of the duties of the office to which he was elected or appointed. The city council shall fix the amount of all official bonds and may designate what officers shall be required to give bonds in addition to those required to do so by statute.

The clerk, treasurer, city attorney, chief of police, police judge, and street commissioner shall each execute an official bond in such penal sum as the city council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is the ex officio incumbent.

All official bonds shall be approved by the city council and when so approved shall be filed with the city clerk except the city clerk's which shall be filed with the mayor. No city officer shall be eligible as a surety upon any bond running to the city as obligee.
The city council may require a new or additional bond of any officer whenever it deems it expedient.

Sec. 17. Section 35.24.080, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In a city of the third class, the treasurer, city attorney, clerk, police judge, chief of police, and such other officers as the council may require shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath of office and execute and file with the clerk an official bond in such penal sum as the council shall determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and otherwise conditioned as may be provided by ordinance. The oath of office shall be filed with the county auditor.

Sec. 18. Section 35.27.120, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.27.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Every officer of a town before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and file with the county auditor his oath of office. The clerk, treasurer, and marshal before entering upon their respective duties shall also each execute a bond approved by the council in such penal sum as the council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made ex officio incumbent.

All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the town clerk, except the bonds of the clerk which shall be filed with the mayor.

Sec. 19. Section 35A.12.080, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any officer before entering upon the performance of his duties may be required to take an oath or affirmation as prescribed by charter or by ordinance for the faithful performance of his duties. The oath or affirmation shall be filed with the county auditor. The clerk, treasurer, if any, chief of police, and such other officers or employees as may be designated by ordinance or by charter shall be required to furnish annually an official bond conditioned on the honest and faithful performance of their official duties. The terms and penalty of official bonds and the surety therefor shall be prescribed by ordinance or charter, and the bond shall be approved by the chief administrative officer of the city. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the city. When the furnishing of an official bond is required of an officer or employee, compliance with such provisions shall be an essential part of qualification for office.

Sec. 20. Section 29, chapter 34, Laws of 1959 and RCW 52.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each fire commissioner before beginning the duties of his office shall take and subscribe an official oath for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, which oath shall be filed in the office of the auditor of the county where the district is situated.

Sec. 21. Section 8, chapter 17, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1983 and RCW 53.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

A vacancy in the office of port commissioner created by death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled as follows:

(1) If there are simultaneously such number of vacancies that less than a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law remain in office, the legislative authority of the county shall within fifteen days of such vacancies appoint the number of commissioners necessary to provide a majority. The commissioners thus appointed, together with any remaining commissioners, shall then, within ((fifteen)) sixty days of their appointment, meet and appoint the number of commissioners needed to complete the board of commissioners. However, if they fail to fill the remaining vacancies within this ((fifteen)) sixty-day period, the legislative authority of the county shall make the necessary appointments.

(2) If a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law remains on the board, the remaining commissioners shall fill any vacancies. However, if they fail to fill any vacancy within ((fifteen)) sixty days of its occurrence, ((or within fifteen days after March 10, 1983;)) the legislative authority of the county shall make the necessary appointment.

(3) (Appointments made pursuant to this section shall be ad interim to the next general election.) A person appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of port commissioner shall continue to serve until a successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 22. Section 10, chapter 265, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Each commissioner before he enters upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his office to the best of his ability. This oath, or affirmation, shall be administered and certified by an officer of the county in which the district is situated who is authorized to administer oaths, without charge therefor. The oath or affirmation shall be filed with the county auditor.

Sec. 23. Section 18, chapter 6, Laws of 1947 and RCW 68.16.180 are each amended to read as follows:
Each cemetery commissioner, before assuming the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe an official oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office, which oath shall be filed in the office of the county ((clerk) auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 95, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.54.180;
(2) Section 29.68.090, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 4, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.090; and
(3) Section 29.68.110, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 6, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.110.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Metcalf: "I raise the question of scope and object. This bill was a small bill that passed unanimously here with no 'nay' votes. This amendment includes provisions for vacancies in the U. S. Congress, ballot measures, port vacancies—it's an entirely new concept and totally foreign to the bill and I raise the question of scope and object."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Shinpoch: "What I want to know is. normally. would a motion to not concur and ask the House to recede therefrom take precedence over a motion relative to scope and object?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, my recollection of this is that the rule provides, regardless of what the ruling is on scope and object, that the other motions are still, more or less, in order. This is—"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Yes, a motion not to concur and to ask the House to recede therefrom would still be in order."
FIFTY-FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1984

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, again, I haven't got the rule before me, but it's my recollection that that motion should be acted upon after we have the ruling, because whether or not it's within or without the scope—"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "I think, Senator Clarke, your point is well taken. We will defer further action, with the permission of the body, to permit the President to consider the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf, and before the gavel falls on that point of order, the motion to refer back to the House without concurring in the amendments would still be in order."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, in ruling on that particular scope and object, would my motion to not concur still be pending?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Yes."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: A further point of parliamentary information. If the ruling is that it is outside the scope and object, then I'm asking how could we then refuse to send it back? It would seem to me that it would take some other action."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4403 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The primary purpose of this chapter is to promote the economic delivery of high quality, necessary, and effective (hospital) health care services to the people by establishing a hospital commission with authority over financial disclosure ((and)), budget ((and)), prospective rate ((review)) approval, and other related matters, including authority to develop a hospital reimbursement control system, which will assure all purchasers of (hospital) health care services that total hospital costs are reasonably related to total services, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that hospital rates are reasonably related to aggregate costs, and that such rates are set equitably among all purchasers of these services without undue discrimination.

The legislature finds and declares that rising hospital costs are a vital concern to the people of this state because of the danger which is posed that hospital and health care services are fast becoming out of the economic reach of the majority of our population. It is further declared that health care is a right of the people and one of the primary purposes for which governments are established, and it is, therefore, essential that an effective cost control program be established ((which will both enable and motivate hospitals to control their spiraling costs)). It is the legislative intent, in pursuance of this declared public policy, to provide for uniform measures on a state-wide basis to control hospital ((costs)) rates without the sacrifice of quality of service or reasonable access to necessary health care.

The legislature further finds and declares that: (1) There is an increased need for comprehensive public oversight of the costs of and expenditures for health care services; (2) no one should be denied access to necessary health care because of poverty or unemployment; (3) access to necessary health care in rural areas must be assured; (4) the hospital commission and the public need additional information to make better-informed decisions about health care costs and charges; (5) there is a need to encourage market penetration of alternative health care delivery systems that have internal incentives to control costs and stimulate market competition, and that some regulatory policies have impeded health care cost containment by unduly restricting competition; (6) there is a need for more effective assessment of the impact of technology on the cost and delivery of health care services so that appropriate public policies may be adopted; and (7) the hospital commission should be more representative of a diversity of public interests so that it can more effectively carry out its mission.

It is the intent of the 1984 amendments to this chapter to strengthen certain regulatory policies which have had limited success in containing hospital costs since this chapter was enacted, and to promote constructive competition among health care delivery systems.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Commission" means the hospital rate commission of the state of Washington as created by this chapter;

(2) "Consumer" means any person whose occupation is other than the administration of health activities or the providing of health services, who has no fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, and who has no material financial interest in the rendering of health services;

(3) "Hospital" means any health care institution which is required to qualify for a license under RCW 70.41.020(2); or as a psychiatric hospital under chapter 71.12 RCW, but shall not include beds utilized by a comprehensive cancer center for cancer research, or any health care institution conducted for those who rely primarily upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any church or denomination.

(4) "Diagnosis-related groups" is a classification system that groups hospital patients according to principal and secondary diagnosis, presence or absence of a surgical procedure, age, presence or absence of significant comorbidities or complications, and other relevant criteria, an example of which has been adopted as the basis for prospective payment under the federal medicare program by the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21.

(5) "Medical technology" means the drugs, devices, and medical or surgical procedures used in the delivery of health care, and the organizational or supportive systems within which such care is provided.

(6) "Technology assessment" means a comprehensive form of policy research that examines the technical, economic, and social consequences of technological applications, including the indirect, unintended, or delayed social or economic impacts. In health care, such analysis must evaluate efficacy and safety as well as efficiency.

(7) "Charity care" means necessary hospital health care rendered to indigent persons, to the extent that the persons are unable to pay for the care or to pay deductibles or co-insurance amounts required by a third-party payer, as determined by the commission.

(8) "Rate" means the maximum revenue which a hospital may receive for each unit of service, as determined by the commission.

(9) "Comprehensive cancer center" means an institution and its research programs as recognized by the National Cancer Institute prior to April 20, 1983.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a hospital rate commission, which shall be a separate and independent commission of the state. The commission shall be composed of (fifteen) nine members appointed by the governor; (five) and generally representative of the public as consumers, labor, business, and hospitals; and shall be individuals concerned with the delivery of quality health care; but in no event shall more than two members have any fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, nor any direct financial interest in the rendering of health services. In cases when proposed rate increases for osteopathic hospitals are to be considered, the representative of osteopathic hospitals on the technical advisory committee shall replace the hospital representative on the commission.) as follows:

(a) Three members representing consumers of health care services, at least one of whom represents the interests of low-income persons;

(b) One member representing private employers;

(c) One member representing labor;

(d) One member representing hospitals, but in cases in which rates for an osteopathic hospital are to be considered, the representative of osteopathic hospitals on the technical advisory committee shall replace the hospital representative on the commission;

(e) One member representing health care professionals licensed under Title 18 RCW;

(f) One member representing commercial health insurers or health care service contractors; and

(g) The secretary of social and health services, or the secretary's designee, representing the interests of the state as a major purchaser of health care services.
(2) Except for the members designated in subsection (1), (d) and (e) of this section, members shall not have any fiduciary obligation to any health care facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Except for the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms. (PROVIDED That upon the expiration of the initial four-year terms, two persons shall be appointed for three-year terms and three persons for four-year terms and thereafter all members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms). Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member shall serve on the commission for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes. Of the three additional members, other than the secretary, appointed after the effective date of this 1984 act, two shall initially be appointed for two-year terms and one for a three-year term.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((The)) A member representing consumers of health care services and designated by the governor shall serve as chairman. The commission shall elect from its members a vice-chairman biennially. Meetings of the commission shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The commission shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions.

((Three)) Five members shall constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the commission shall not impair its power to act. No action of the commission shall be effective unless ((three)) five members concur therein.

The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members but, with the exception of the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, the members shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as in RCW 44.04.120.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission ((shall appoint)) may employ a full time executive director, a deputy director, an associate director for budget and rate review, an associate director for program planning and research, and a confidential secretary who shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW and who shall perform the duties delegated by the commission. The executive director shall be the chief administrative officer of the commission and shall be subject to its direction.

The commission shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the commission, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, and under the supervision of the executive director. In addition, the commission may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise.

Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility, without specific permission of the commission.

The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to hospital health care costs.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to assist the commission in carrying out its duties, the governor shall appoint a technical advisory committee, hereinafter referred to as "committee", which shall consist of seventeen members as follows:

(1) One member who shall be a certified public accountant licensed pursuant to chapter 18.04 RCW and who shall be knowledgeable in the financial affairs of hospitals.

(2) Two members who shall be health care practitioners, one of whom shall be a physician, licensed under the laws of this state and who shall be knowledgeable in hospital administration.

(3) Six members who shall be representative of the interest of investor-owned, district, not-for-profit, osteopathic, university, and rural hospitals.

(4) One member who shall be representative of consumers of health care.

(5) One member who shall be the secretary of the department of social and health services, or the secretary's designee, to provide continuing liaison, data and support from those functions of the department which may affect the responsibilities of the commission and to represent the department as a purchaser of health care services.
purposes of this chapter, the commission shall take into consideration:

(a) Existing systems of accounting and reporting presently utilized by hospitals;

(b) Differences among hospitals according to size; financial structure; methods of payment for services; and scope, type, and method of providing services; and

(c) Other pertinent distinguishing factors.

(3) The commission shall, where appropriate, provide for modification, consistent with the purposes of this chapter, of reporting requirements to correctly reflect these differences among

(4) On any issue related to medical technology or technology assessment in the area of health care; and

(5) On such other matters as the commission may refer.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.090 are each amended to read as follows:

To further the purposes of this chapter, the commission may create committees from its membership, and may create such ad hoc advisory committees in specialized fields, related to the functions of hospitals, the delivery of health care services, economic issues concerning health care, technology assessment, and such other subjects as it deems necessary, to supplement the resources provided by the technical advisory committee.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission, after study and in consultation with advisory committees, if any, shall establish by the promulgation of rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, a uniform system of accounting and financial reporting, including such cost allocation methods as it may prescribe, by which hospitals shall record and report to the commission their revenues, expenses, other income, other outlays, assets and liabilities, and units of service. All hospitals shall adopt the system for their fiscal year period to be effective at such time and date as the commission shall direct. In determining the effective date for reporting requirements, the commission shall be mindful both of the immediate need for uniform hospital reporting information to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and the administrative and economic difficulties which hospitals may encounter in conversion, but in no event shall such effective date be later than two and one-half years from the date of the formation of the commission.

(2) In establishing such accounting systems and uniform reporting procedures, the commission shall take into consideration:

(a) Existing systems of accounting and reporting presently utilized by hospitals;

(b) Differences among hospitals according to size; financial structure; methods of payment for services; and scope, type, and method of providing services; and

(c) Other pertinent distinguishing factors.
hospitals, and to avoid otherwise unduly burdensome costs in meeting the requirements of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting.

(4) The accounting system, where appropriate, shall be structured so as to establish and differentiate costs incurred for patient-related services rendered by hospitals, as distinguished from those incurred with reference to educational research and other nonpatient-related activities including but not limited to charitable activities of such hospitals.

(5) The commission shall collect and maintain patient discharge data, including data necessary for identification of discharges by diagnosis-related groups. So far as possible, the data collection procedures shall be coordinated with any similar procedures or requirements of the federal department of health and human services for the medicare program and the needs of the department of social and health services in gathering public health statistics, in order to minimize any unduly burdensome reporting requirements imposed on hospitals.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 first ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each hospital shall file annually, at such time as the commission may prescribe, its proposed budget for the next fiscal year, showing projected revenues and expenses and including such further information as the commission may require to implement the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Each hospital shall file annually with the commission after the close of the fiscal year:
   (a) A balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the hospital;
   (b) A statement of income and expenses; and
   (c) Such other reports of the costs incurred in rendering services as the commission may prescribe.

(3) Where more than one licensed hospital is operated by the reporting organization, the information required by this section shall be reported for each hospital separately.

The commission shall require certification of specified financial reports by the hospital's certified public accountant, and may require attestation as to such statements from responsible officials of the hospital that such reports have to the best of their knowledge and belief been prepared in accordance with the prescribed system of accounting and reporting.

The commission shall furnish a copy of any report regarding any hospital to the chief executive officer of the hospital and the presiding officer of the hospital's governing body.

(4) The commission shall from time to time undertake analyses and studies relating to the need for and delivery of health care services, the availability of such services, hospital rates, health care costs, and the financial status of any hospital or hospitals subject to the provisions of this chapter, and may publish and disseminate such information as it deems desirable in the public interest. It shall further require the publication information concerning the total financial needs of each hospital and the resources available or expected to become available to meet such needs. Including the effect of proposals made by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies under chapter 70.38 RCW and the extent to which such needs are being met.

(5) The commission shall have the right of inspection of hospital records, and records as reasonably necessary to implement the policies and purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 first ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall advance the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The commission shall also prepare and file such summaries and compilations or other supplementary reports based on the information filed with the commission hereunder as will advance the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The commission shall furnish a copy of any report regarding any hospital to the chief executive officer of the hospital and the presiding officer of the hospital's governing body.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 first ex. sess. as amended by section 82, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall prepare and, prior to each legislative session beginning in January, transmit to the governor and to the legislature an annual report of commission operations and activities for the preceding fiscal year. This report shall include such findings and recommendations as the commission believes will further the legislative goal of cost containment in the delivery of good quality health care services, including cost-containment programs that have been or might be adopted, and issues of access to good quality care. The report shall also include data on the amount and proportion of charity care provided by each hospital. The commission's report for 1986, to be submitted in January 1987, shall include an analysis of the impact of section 15 of this 1984 act on (1) the use by indigent persons of health care settings other than hospitals and (2) the caseloads and costs associated with the limited casualty program for medical indigents under RCW 74.09.700. The department of social and health services and the health systems agencies established under chapter 70.38 RCW shall provide such information and assistance as the commission may reasonably require in preparing the report on the impact of section 15 of this 1984 act.
Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 163. Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.140 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after a date not less than twelve months but not more than twenty-four months after the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting required by RCW 70.39.100, as the commission may direct, the commission shall have the power to initiate such reviews or investigations as may be necessary to assure all purchasers of (hospital) health care services that the total costs of a hospital are reasonably related to the total services offered by that hospital, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudent and reasonably managed hospitals, that the hospital's (aggregate revenues as expressed by) rates are reasonably related to the hospital's aggregate costs; and that rates are set equitably among all purchasers or classes of purchasers of services without undue discrimination or preference.

In order to properly discharge these obligations, the commission shall have full power to review projected annual revenues and approve the reasonableness of rates proposed to generate that revenue established or requested by any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter. No hospital shall charge for services at rates (other than) exceeding those established in accordance with the procedures established hereunder. After June 30, 1985, rates for inpatient care shall be expressed using an appropriate measure of hospital efficiency, such as that based on diagnosis-related groups, and hospitals may be required by the commission to charge for services at rates proportionately established and expressed in terms of a comparable unit of total payment, such as diagnosis-related groups. In the event any hospital reimbursement control system is implemented, children's hospitals shall be exempted until such time as a pediatric based classification system which reflects the unique resource consumption by patients of a children's hospital is perfected. For the purposes of this exemption, children's hospitals are defined as hospitals whose patients are predominantly under eighteen years of age.

In the interest of promoting the most efficient and effective use of (hospital) health care service, and providing greater promise of hospital cost containment, the commission may (promote and approve alternative methods of rate determination and payment of an experimental nature that may be in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of this chapter) develop a hospital reimbursement control system in which all payers or purchasers participate, that includes procedures for establishing prospective rates, that deals equitably with the costs of providing charity care, and that may include the participation of the federal Medicare program under the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21. The commission shall have the authority to require utilization reviews of patient care to ensure that hospital admissions and services provided are medically justified. The commission may seek approval, concurrence, or participation in such a system from any federal agency, such as the Department of Health and Human Services, prior to securing legislative approval pursuant to concurrent resolution for implementation of any hospital reimbursement control system developed pursuant to this section. The commission shall involve the legislature in the development of any plan for a hospital reimbursement control system.

The commission shall assure that any hospital reimbursement control system will not result in any change in hospital admission practices which result in:

(1) A significant reduction in the proportion of patients (receiving hospital services covered under the system) who have no third-party coverage and who are unable to pay for hospital services;

(2) A significant reduction in the proportion of individuals admitted to hospitals for inpatient hospital services for which payment is (or is likely to be) less than the anticipated charges for or costs of such services;

(3) The refusal to admit patients who would be expected to require unusually costly or prolonged treatment for reasons other than those related to the appropriateness of the care available at the hospital; or

(4) The refusal to provide emergency services to any person who is in need of emergency services if the hospital provides such services.

The commission shall serve as the state agency responsible for coordinating state actions and otherwise responding and relating to the efforts of the (cost of living council or its successor) federal department of health and human services in planning and implementing federal cost containment programs with respect to hospitals and related health care institutions as authorized by the (Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1979) social security amendments of 1983, as now or hereafter amended, or other federal law, and any rules or regulations promulgated thereto. In carrying out this responsibility, the commission may (serve as the state agency responsible for recommending increases in rates for hospitals and related health care institutions to the cost of living council or its successor; may apply to the cost of living council for authorization to administer a control program in Washington state in lieu of the federal controls established and otherwise administered by the cost of living council; may) assume (another) any function or role authorized by appropriate federal regulations implementing the (Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1979) social security amendments of 1983; or assume any combination of such roles or functions as it may determine will most effectively contain the rising costs of the varying kinds of hospitals and related health care institutions in Washington state. In determining its functions or roles in relation to ((the)) federal efforts ((to the cost of living council or its successor)), the commission shall seek to ensure coordination, and the reduction of duplicatory cost containment efforts, by the state and federal governments, as well as the diligent fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter and declared public policy and legislative intent herein ("PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the rates of nursing homes or similar health institutions are subject to review pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 or any rules or regulations promulgated therein, the members of the commission representing hospitals shall not sit in the proceedings nor vote, and the governor shall appoint an ad hoc member representing nursing homes or similar health institutions in lieu thereof, who shall have the same powers as the other members with respect to such review only").

Nothing in this chapter limits the ability of the department of social and health services to establish hospital payment rates pursuant to RCW 74.09.120 or in accord with a federally approvable state plan under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 70.39 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within six months of the effective date of this act, the commission shall establish by rule, consistent with the definition of charity care under RCW 70.39.020, the following:

1. Uniform procedures, data requirements, and criteria for identifying patients receiving charity care;

2. A definition of residual bad debt as a component of hospital rate-setting and budget review, including reasonable and uniform standards for collection procedures to be used in efforts to collect the unpaid portions of hospital charges that are the patient's responsibility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. By January 1, 1985, a select committee of the legislature shall develop legislative recommendations for programs that will promote the state-wide development of comprehensive cost-effective managed health care systems and shall recommend programs that will promote use of such managed health care systems. The select committee shall be composed of twelve members of the legislature, six appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and six appointed by the president of the senate, three from each of the two largest political caucuses in each house, upon recommendation of the majority and minority caucuses of their respective bodies.

The committee shall elect a chairperson from among its membership.

The committee is authorized to appoint a technical advisory committee to prepare proposals under which cost-effective managed health care systems could be used to control health care costs, to more equitably distribute charity care among hospitals and licensed health care practitioners, and more effectively provide publicly and privately financed patient care.

For the purposes of this study "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract comprehensive health care services to one or more defined patient populations by enrollment or other prior agreement or arrangement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. By January 1, 1985, the governor shall submit a six-year state health care purchasing plan to the legislature. The plan shall identify the number and type of health care services purchased by the state through the department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the state employees' insurance board, the office of superintendent of public instruction, and other agencies of government where state funds are used to purchase health care. The plan shall contain objectives for realizing specific dollar savings in the purchase of these health care services by obtaining discounts from providers, contracting with managed health care systems, altering copayment and deductible requirements, instituting improved utilization controls, using prospective payment arrangements, or by other means.

The governor or the governor's designee shall report the governor's progress in completing this plan to the legislative budget committee and the social and health services and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 30, 1984.

Sec. 16. Section 16, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.150 are each amended to read as follows:

To properly carry out its authority the commission shall:

1. Compile and maintain all relevant financial data in order to have available the statistical information necessary to properly conduct rate review and approval. Such data shall include necessary operating expenses, appropriate expenses incurred for charity care and for rendering services to patients who ((cannot)) do not pay, all properly incurred interest charges, and reasonable depreciation expenses based on the expected useful life of the property and equipment involved. The commission shall define and prescribe by rule and regulation the types and classes of charges which cannot be changed except as provided by the procedure contained in RCW 70.39.160 and it shall also obtain from each such hospital a current rate schedule as well as any subsequent amendments or modifications of that schedule as it may require. So far as possible, the commission shall compile and maintain the same patient discharge data with respect to all patients as that required under the federal medicare program and the uniform billing procedures applicable to third-party payers.

(2) Permit any (nonprofit) hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render necessary, effective, and efficient service in the public interest (and on a solvent basis).

(3) (Permit any proprietary profit-making hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render effective and efficient service in the public interest and which includes an allowance for a fair return to stockholders based upon actual investment or: if the hospital elects, upon the fair value of the investment on the effective date of this section: PROVIDED: That once the election is made it may not be changed without the approval of the commission.

(4)) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section, that it is its obligation to assure access to necessary, effective, economically viable, and efficient hospital health care capability throughout the state, rather than the solvency or profitability of any individual hospital subject to this chapter except where the insolvency of a hospital would seriously threaten the access of the rural public to basic health care services.

(4) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section for each hospital, the recommendations of appropriate area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies to ensure compliance with Washington comprehensive health planning law, chapter 70.38 RCW.

((5) Permit in considering a request for change in or initiating a review of rate schedules or other charges, any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge rates which will in the aggregate produce sufficient total revenue for the hospital to meet all of the reasonable obligations specified in this chapter:))

(5) Permit any hospital, whether proprietary, district, public, or not-for-profit, to retain the excess of its revenues, if any, that exceed the actual cost of providing services, generated as a result of cost-effective practices, if the hospital charges do not exceed rates permitted by the commission.

(6) On or before October 1 of each year, after notice and public hearing, and in full consideration of the intent and purpose of this chapter as expressed in RCW 70.39.010, adopt a target dollar amount of total state-wide hospital revenue for the ensuing calendar year. To set the target amount, the commission shall develop a standard methodology that considers such factors as changes in the economy, affordability of hospital care, cost of hospital-purchased goods, numbers and age of the population, technology, and severity of illness of hospital patients. The commission shall endeavor, in establishing rates, to assure that total hospital revenues do not exceed the target amount for the applicable year.

Sec. 19. Section 17, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.160 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after the date determined by the commission pursuant to RCW 70.39.140, no hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter shall change or amend that schedule of rates and charges of the type and class which cannot be changed without prior approval of the commission, except in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) Any request for a change in rate schedules or other charges must be filed in writing in the form and content prescribed by the commission and with such supporting data as the hospital seeking the change deems appropriate. Unless the commission orders otherwise as provided for in subsection (4) of this section, no hospital shall establish such changes except after publication and notice to the commission of at least thirty days from the time the rate is intended to go into effect. All proposed changes shall be plainly indicated on the schedule effective at that time and shall be open to public inspection. Upon receipt of notice, the commission may suspend the effective date of any proposed change. In any such case a formal written statement of the reasons for the suspension will be promptly submitted to the hospital. Unless suspended, any proposed change shall go into effect upon the date specified in the application.

(2) In any case where the change is deemed necessary, the commission shall promptly, but in any event within thirty days, institute proceedings as to the reasonableness of the proposed changes. The suspension may extend for a period of not more than thirty days beyond the date the change would otherwise go into effect: PROVIDED, That should it be necessary, the commission may extend the suspension for an additional thirty days. After the expiration of ninety days from the date the rate is intended to go into effect the new rate will go into effect, if the commission does not approve, disapprove, or modify the request by that time.

(3) Such proposed changes shall be considered at a public hearing, the time and place of which shall be determined by the commission. The hearing shall be conducted by the commission. Evidence for and against the requested change may be introduced at the time of the hearing by any interested party and witnesses may be heard. The hearing may be conducted without compliance with formal rules of evidence.
(4) The commission may, in its discretion, permit any hospital to make a temporary change in rates which shall be effective immediately upon filing and in advance of any review procedure when it deems it in the public interest to do so. Notwithstanding such temporary change in rates, the review procedures set out in this section shall be conducted by the commission as soon thereafter as is practicable.

(5) Every decision and order of the commission in any contested proceeding shall be in writing and shall state the grounds for the commission’s conclusions. The effects of such orders shall be prospective in nature.

Sec. 20. Section 11, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 235, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.38.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the designee of the secretary of the department in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the department which establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

(b) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(c) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(d) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals. An application by a hospital shall be denied if the state hospital commission does not recommend approval, unless the secretary provides the commission with a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons, and citing the applicable subsection or subsections of this section, for approving an application that the commission has determined to be not feasible;

(e) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;

(f) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals.

(g) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals (and), nonallopathic services and children’s hospitals;

(h) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster cost containment and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;

(i) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed; (end)

(j) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past; and

(k) In the case of hospital certificate of need applications subject to concurrent review, preference may be given to hospitals which meet or exceed the regional average for the provision of charity care as determined by the state hospital commission.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(6) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(7) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(8) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(9) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

(10) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration. The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(11) The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

(12) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

(a) A new service;
(b) An expansion of a service beyond that originally approved;
(c) An increase in bed capacity;
(d) A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

(13) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 70.39 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each hospital under this chapter shall print and make available for public inspection as prescribed by the commission by rule a schedule of its rates as approved by the commission.
Every commercial health insurer registered and doing business in the state under Title 48 RCW, every health care service contractor as defined in RCW 48.44.010, and the department of social and health services shall, upon request by the commission but not more frequently than annually, furnish to the commission such information as is readily available which may assist the commission in developing cost containment proposals with respect to the fees of licensed health care practitioners. The commission may request such information from the entities identified in this section, and from the federal department of health and human services, if and when the commission deems appropriate to accord with any requirements of federal law which may be imposed.

Sec. 23. Section 9, chapter 223, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.131.253 are each amended to read as follows:

The hospital commission and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, (1984) 1989, as provided in RCW 43.131.254.

Sec. 24. Section 10, chapter 223, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.131.254 are each amended to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repeated, effective June 30, (1985) 1990:

(1) Section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 1 of this 1984 act and RCW 70.39.010;
(2) Section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2 of this 1984 act and RCW 70.39.020;
(3) Section 4, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 3 of this 1984 act and RCW 70.39.030;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. It is the intent of the legislature to ensure that the citizens of this state receive quality health care services in the most efficient and cost-effective manner. The legislature reaffirms its commitment to the state policy of containing the spiraling costs of health care, which continue to rise at rates about three times the consumer price index. In furtherance of this intent, it is declared to be in the public interest that price competition and economic incentives in the health care delivery system should be encouraged in order to promote and strengthen a more efficient and economic delivery of quality health care.
The legislature finds that such competition may be fostered by recognizing the potentials and authorizing the establishment of "preferred provider organizations," to enter into preferred provider arrangements between insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or other purchasers, and health care providers, which contractual arrangements provide for health benefits at alternative rates or under alternative methods of payment that ensure to the benefit of the persons who select such providers. The prospects for avoiding costs without sacrifice to quality care may be achieved internally with appropriate utilization review procedures and sound management controls consistent with requirements for solvency. The promise of more far-reaching cost avoidance in the health sector can yet be realized with the inculcation of economic incentives in the market place between competing preferred provider arrangements and other methods of providing or paying for health care costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. "Provider" means any person or entity lawfully licensed or authorized to render any health care service in this state.

2. "Preferred provider" means any provider who or which has contracted in writing with an authorized insurer or registered health care service contractor to provide health care services at alternative rates or under alternative methods of payment.

3. "Preferred provider arrangement" means a contractual agreement between an authorized insurer or registered health care service contractor, registered health maintenance organization, or other entity purchasing coverage, and preferred providers in order to provide health care services at alternative rates or under alternative methods of payment to such preferred providers for insureds or subscribers who select such preferred providers.

4. "Preferred provider organization" means an entity formed to enter into preferred provider arrangements and registered as a preferred provider organization under chapter 48.44 RCW. A preferred provider organization may be formed by one or more persons, organizations, health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, and health maintenance organizations, including purchasers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. (1) A person, organization, or entity, including health care providers, insurers, or health care service contractors, may enter into preferred provider arrangements. Such preferred provider arrangements may limit payments under a policy or contract to alternative rates or methods of payment regardless of the preferred provider chosen by insureds or subscribers, and may offer the benefit of such alternative rates or methods of payment to such persons who select such providers. A preferred provider organization shall register with the insurance commissioner in the same manner as for a health care service contractor pursuant to chapter 48.44 RCW.

2. A health maintenance organization may offer a preferred provider arrangement by registering as a health care service contractor in accordance with this chapter. Nothing in this act may be construed as limiting the authority of a health maintenance organization registered under chapter 48.46 RCW from negotiating and entering into arrangements with institutions, entities, and persons, including contracts providing for alternative rates or methods of payment, to provide health services to its enrolled population.

3. Nothing in this chapter affects the provisions of chapter 48.44 RCW applicable to a health care service contractor or the provisions of chapter 48.46 RCW applicable to a health maintenance organization. All preferred provider arrangements offered in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 48.44 RCW.

4. When the preferred provider organization is sponsored by an insurer, a health care service contractor, or a health maintenance organization, the financial and security requirements applicable to those particular types of organizations are deemed sufficient.

5. A preferred provider organization may limit the number and types of preferred providers rendering health care services pursuant to rules adopted by the insurance commissioner to ensure an adequate number of providers to render health care services offered by the preferred provider organization. Nothing in a preferred provider arrangement may be construed to unreasonably limit the access of subscribers or insureds to any preferred provider within the preferred provider organization.

Preferred provider organizations shall establish terms and conditions which shall be met by providers in order to qualify for payment as preferred providers. The terms and conditions shall not discriminate unreasonably against or among such providers. Neither differences in prices among providers produced by a process of individual negotiations nor based on market conditions or price differences among providers shall be deemed unreasonable discrimination.

6. Nothing in this section affects the statutory provisions for mandated offerings or benefits required under Title 48 RCW.

7. No preferred provider arrangement may hold the preferred provider organization harmless for actions against a preferred provider if the cause of action is claimed to be associated with treatment or lack of treatment by the preferred provider on account of utilization review and management controls imposed on such provider.

8. For the purposes of encouraging price competition in the health care sector, this chapter shall be liberally construed. However, nothing in this chapter may be construed to authorize... any activity which would violate any provision of the unfair business practices act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

Sec. 28. Section 5, chapter 122, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 100, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.100.050 are each amended to read as follows:

An individual or group of individuals duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same professional services within this state may organize and become a shareholder or shareholders of a professional corporation for pecuniary profit under the provisions of Title 23A RCW for the purpose of rendering professional service: PROVIDED, That one or more of such legally authorized individuals shall be the incorporators of such professional corporation: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, registered architects and registered engineers may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: Provided further, That licensed health care professionals, providing services to enrolled participants either directly or through arrangements with a health maintenance organization registered under chapter 48.46 RCW or federally qualified health maintenance organization, may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That licensed health care professionals providing health care services to persons through contractual arrangements with preferred provider organizations as defined under chapter 48.--- RCW (sections 25 through 27 of this 1984 act) may own stock in and render their individual professional services through a professional service corporation.

Sec. 29. Section 15, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.140 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after a date not less than twelve months but not more than twenty-four months after the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting required by RCW 70.39.100, as the commission may direct, the commission shall have the power to initiate such reviews or investigations as may be necessary to assure all purchasers of hospital health care services that the total costs of a hospital are reasonably related to the total services offered by that hospital, that the hospital's aggregate revenues as expressed by rates are reasonably related to the hospital's aggregate costs, and that rates are set equitably among all purchasers or classes of purchasers of services without undue discrimination or preference, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing in this section precludes an insurer, a preferred provider organization, a health care service contractor, a self-funded program, or a health maintenance organization from negotiating directly with hospitals with respect to payments for inpatient hospital services.

In order to properly discharge these obligations, the commission shall have full power to review projected annual revenues and approve the reasonableness of rates proposed to generate that revenue established or requested by any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter. No hospital shall charge for services at rates (other than) exceeding those established in accordance with the procedures established hereunder, or charge rates which will increase rates otherwise charged to nonpreferred provider subscribers.

In the interest of promoting the most efficient and effective use of hospital health care service, the commission may promote and approve alternative methods of rate determination and payment of an experimental nature that may be in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

The commission shall serve as the state agency responsible for coordinating state actions and otherwise responding and relating to the efforts of the cost of living council, or its successor, in planning and implementing federal cost containment programs with respect to hospitals and related health care institutions as authorized by the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as now or hereafter amended, and any rules or regulations promulgated thereto. In carrying out this responsibility, the commission may serve as the state agency responsible for recommending increases in rates for hospitals and related health care institutions to the cost of living council, or its successor: may apply to the cost of living council for authorization to administer a control program in Washington state in lieu of the federal controls established and otherwise administered by the cost of living council: may assume another function or role authorized by appropriate federal regulations implementing the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970: or assume any combination of such roles or functions as it may determine will most effectively contain the rising costs of the varying kinds of hospitals and related health care institutions in Washington state. In determining its functions or roles in relation to the efforts to the cost of living council, or its successor, the commission shall seek to ensure coordination, and the reduction of duplicative cost containment efforts, by the state and federal governments, as well as the diligent fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter and declared public policy and legislative intent herein: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the rates of nursing homes or similar health institutions are subject to review pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 or any rules or regulations promulgated thereto, the members of the commission representing hospitals shall not sit in the proceedings nor vote, and the governor shall appoint an ad hoc member representing nursing homes or similar health institutions in lieu thereof, who shall have the same powers as the other members with respect to such review only.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Sections 25 through 27 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. There is appropriated to the state hospital commission from the general fund, for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act: PROVIDED, That at least twenty-five thousand dollars of the amount available for development of a hospital reimbursement control system, authorized pursuant to section 14 of this act shall be reserved as the state share, in conjunction with funds that may be made available by hospitals, professional associations, health care service contractors, commercial health insurance companies, or other third party payers and major purchasers of hospital services, in order to secure the professional services of national experts in health care economics, hospital financing or similar fields that might be necessary to develop such a system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4403 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4490 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. Section 35.21.290, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.290 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Cities and towns owning their own waterworks, or electric light or power plants shall have a lien against the premises to which water, electric light, or power services were furnished for four months' charges therefor due or to become due, but not for any charges more than four months past due: PROVIDED, That the owner of the premises or the owner of a delinquent mortgage thereon may give written notice to the superintendent or other head of such works or plant to cut off service to such premises accompanied by payment or tender of payment of the then delinquent and unpaid charges for such service against the premises together with the cut-off charge, whereupon the city or town shall have no lien against the premises for charges for such service thereafter furnished, nor shall the owner of the premises or the owner of a delinquent mortgage thereon be held for the payment thereof.

(2) No lien shall be allowed under subsection (1) of this section against premises leased or rented to a tenant for unpaid electric light or power service charges which the tenant or former tenant was directly or solely obligated to pay.

Sec. 2. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The lien for charges for service by a city waterworks, or electric light or power plant may be enforced only by cutting off the service until the delinquent and unpaid charges are paid, except that until June 30, 1986, electricity for residential space heating may be terminated between November 15 and March 15 only as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In the event of a disputed account and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount he claims to be due before the service is cut off, the right to refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city and judgment entered in the case.

(2) Until June 30, 1986:

(a) Electricity for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:
   (i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;
   (ii) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state’s plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;
   (iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;
   (iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;
   (v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer’s monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan, and
   (vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(b) The utility shall:
   (i) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent, that service may be subject to termination and a description of the customer’s duties in this subsection;
   (ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this subsection;
   (iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this subsection moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and
   (iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this subsection.

(c) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make all payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(3) All municipal utilities shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A district providing utility service for residential space heating shall not terminate such utility service between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:
   (a) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;
(b) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(c) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(d) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(e) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(f) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(2) The utility shall:

(a) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent, that service may be subject to termination, and a description of the customer's duties in this section;

(b) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this section;

(c) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this section moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(d) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program.

Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this section.

(3) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(4) This section shall expire June 30, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All districts shall offer to residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan.

Sec. 5. Section 80.28.010, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 80.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All charges made, demanded or received by any gas company, electrical company or water company for gas, electricity or water, or for any service rendered or to be rendered in connection therewith, shall be just, fair, reasonable and sufficient.

(2) Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall furnish and supply such service, instrumentalities and facilities as shall be safe, adequate and efficient, and in all respects just and reasonable.

(3) All rules and regulations issued by any gas company, electrical company or water company, affecting or pertaining to the sale or distribution of its product, shall be just and reasonable.

(4) Until June 30, 1986:

(a) Utility service for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(ii) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan, and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(b) The utility shall:

(i) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent, that service may be subject to termination and a description of the customer's duties in this subsection;

(ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this subsection;

(iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this subsection moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program.

Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this subsection.

(c) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make all payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(d) A payment plan implemented under this subsection is consistent with RCW 80.28.080.

(e) Every gas company and electrical company shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan.

(f) Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall construct and maintain such facilities in connection with the manufacture and distribution of its product as will be efficient and safe to its employees and the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Until 1986, cities and towns distributing electricity shall report annually to the legislature for utilities subject to its jurisdiction: (1) The extent to which chapter ____ (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490). Laws of 1984 benefits low income persons, and (2) the costs and benefits to other customers.

This section shall expire June 30, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Until 1986, districts distributing electricity shall report annually to the legislature for utilities subject to its jurisdiction: (1) The extent to which chapter ____ (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490). Laws of 1984 benefits low income persons, and (2) the costs and benefits to other customers.

This section shall expire June 30, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 80.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Until 1986, the Washington utilities and transportation commission shall report annually to the legislature for utilities subject to its jurisdiction: (1) The extent to which chapter ____ (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490). Laws of 1984 benefits low income persons, and (2) the costs and benefits to other customers.

This section shall expire June 30, 1986.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "healing:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 35.21.290, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.290; amending section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.300; amending section 80.28.010, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 80.28.010; adding a new section to chapter 35.21 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 54.16 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 80.28 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490, with the exception of Section 1 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 23, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4578 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 21, after "damaged" insert ": PROVIDED. That this requirement shall not apply to operators of vessels when they are participating in an organized competitive event covered by a permit issued by the United States coast guard."
On page 3, line 18, after "squadron" strike "and" and insert "((and))."
On page 3, line 19, after "auxiliary" insert "and boating clubs, associations, and foundations".

On page 4, after line 8 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 43.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) There is created in the Washington state parks and recreation commission a boating advisory committee composed of seven members who have experience with either boating operation, boat safety, boat law enforcement, or recreational boating.

(2) The advisory committee shall consist of:

(a) One member who is an owner of a sailing vessel;
(b) One member who is an owner of a vessel not powered by machinery;
(c) One member who is an owner of a vessel powered by outboard machinery;
(d) One member who is an owner of a vessel powered by inboard machinery;

None of these members may be appointed for more than two consecutive terms.

(4) The members of the advisory committee listed in subsection (2) (f) and (g) of this section shall be appointed by the organization which each represents.

(5) The members of the advisory committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Reimbursement for travel expenses shall not render these advisory committee members employees or officials of the state of Washington for any purpose.

(6) A representative of the commission shall serve as recording secretary to the advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 43.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The boating advisory committee shall:

(1) Assist and advise the commission on its administration of this 1984 act:
(2) Select by a majority vote from among its members a chairperson who shall serve for a period of one year;
(3) Meet not less than twice each year and additionally upon request of the commission, the chairperson of the advisory committee, or a majority of the advisory committee members; and
(4) Conduct at least one meeting a year coincident with a meeting of the commission and provide the commission with an annual report on the activities of the advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The advisory committee created under section 5 of this 1984 act shall cease to exist on June 30, 1988, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is appropriated to the state parks and recreation commission from the general fund, for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 5 of the title, strike "a new section" and insert "new sections".

On page 1, line 6 of the title, after "43.51 RCW:" insert "creating a new section; making an appropriation:"

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4578 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4579 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 72, Laws of 1925 ex. sess. as amended by section 31, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

..."
The governor may dismiss any commissioned or warrant officer of the organized militia of Washington for any of the following reasons:

1. Conviction of an infamous crime;
2. Absence from his command for more than thirty days without proper leave;
3. Sentence of dismissal by court martial, duly approved;
4. Upon muster out of the organization to which the officer is then assigned;
5. Acceptance of the resignation of the officer, but no officer may be discharged or his resignation accepted while under arrest or against whom military charges have been preferred, or until he has turned over to his successor or satisfactorily accounted for all state and federal money and military property for which he is accountable or responsible;
6. Removal of his actual residence to such distance from the station of his command as to render it impracticable for him to perform the duties of his office;
7. Incompetence or unfitness for military service as determined by the duly approved findings of a board of inquiry appointed for that purpose by the adjutant general.

The adjutant general shall annually appoint and convene qualitative retention boards to review the military personnel records of officers who have completed three or more years service in the Washington state guard to determine their retention potential and acceptability for continuation in an active status. In the conduct of the reviews, the regulation issued by the adjutant general to implement this provision shall conform to the extent practicable to that governing the army national guard.

Sec. 2. Section 33, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.12.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Commissioned officers of the organized militia of Washington shall be retired by order of the commander-in-chief with the rank respectively held by them at the time of such retirement for the following reasons:

1. Unfitness for military service by reason of permanent physical disability.
2. Upon request after at least five years continuous service as an officer in the organized militia of Washington.

Commissioned officers of the state guard shall upon reaching the age of sixty-four years be retired by order of the commander-in-chief in the next higher rank to that held at the time of such retirement.

Retired officers shall draw no pay or allowance except when on active duty.

(They shall be) Retired officers are subject, with their consent, to temporary detail on active duty by the commander-in-chief, and while on such duty shall receive the same pay and allowances as officers of like rank on the active list.

Sec. 3. Section 43, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 as last amended by section 81, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 38.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted personnel of the organized militia of Washington, while in active state service, are entitled to and are authorized to perform the duties of officers and enlisted personnel of the United States army if federal pay and allowances are not authorized. Officers shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for periods of such active state service.

For periods of such active state service other than for annual field training, commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted personnel of the organized militia of Washington shall receive either such pay and allowances or thirty dollars per day. whichever is greater.

(Extra duty pay or allowances to enlisted men rated as cooks may be authorized by the commander-in-chief during periods of field service or any other duty on which pay is authorized but in no case shall such additional extra duty pay or allowances exceed two dollars per day.)

The value of articles issued to any member and not returned in good order and condition may be deducted from the member's pay.

All members detailed to serve on any board or commission ordered by the governor, or on any court of inquiry or court martial ordered by proper authority, may, at the discretion of the adjutant general, be paid a sum equal to one day's active duty for each day actually employed on the board or court engaged in the business thereof, or in traveling to and from the same; and in addition thereto travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended when such duty is at a place other than the city or town of his residence.

Necessary transportation, quartermasters' stores, and subsistence for troops when ordered on active duty may be contracted for and paid for as are other military bills.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 38.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:
All members of the organized militia of Washington who are called to state active duty shall, upon return from such duty, have (the same rights of employment or reemployment as they would have if they had been called to active duty in the United States army)) those rights accorded under RCW 73.16.031, 73.16.035, 73.16.041, 73.16.051, and 73.16.061.

Sec. 5. Section 40, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If any (officer or enlisted man) member of the organized militia is (wounded) injured, incapacitated, or otherwise disabled while in active state service as a member of the military force of the state, he or she shall receive from the state of Washington just and reasonable relief in the amount to be determined as (hereinafter) provided in this section, including necessary medical (aid; in case such officer or enlisted man) care. If the member dies from disease contracted or injury received or is killed while in active state service under order of the governor, then the dependents of (such) the deceased shall receive such compensation as may be allowed as (hereinafter) provided in this section. If the United States or any agent thereof, in accordance with any federal statute or regulation, furnishes monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief to militia members or to their dependents for injuries arising out of and occurring in the course of their activities as militia members, but not including Social Security benefits, then the amount of compensation which any militia member or his or her dependents are otherwise entitled to receive from the state of Washington as provided in this section shall be reduced by the amount of monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief the militia member or his or her dependents have received and will receive from the United States or any agent thereof as a result of his or her injury. All claims arising under this section shall be inquired into by a board of three officers, at least one being a medical officer, to be appointed by the adjutant general. (Such) The board (to have) has the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, issue subpoenas ((and) compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and punish their failure to do so as is possessed by a general court martial. The amount of compensation or benefits payable shall conform as nearly as possible to the general schedule of payments and awards provided under the workmen's compensation law in effect in the state of Washington at the time the disability or death occurred. The findings of the board shall be reviewed by the adjutant general and submitted to the governor for final approval. The reviewing officer or the governor may return the proceedings for revision or for the taking of further testimony. The action of the board when finally approved by the governor ((shall be)) is final and conclusive and ((shall)) constitutes the fixed award for (such) the injury or loss and ((shall be)) is a debt of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 23, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.12.090;
(2) Section 51, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.24.030; and

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4607 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 25, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4653 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 4. Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.121.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is established in the executive office of the governor a Washington council (on) for the prevention of child abuse and neglect subject to the jurisdiction of the governor. As used in this chapter, "council" means the Washington council (on) for the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

(2) The council shall be composed of the chairperson and ten other members as follows:

(a) The chairperson and four other members shall be appointed by the governor and shall be selected for their interest and expertise in the prevention of child abuse. A minimum of four designees by the governor shall not be affiliated with governmental agencies. A minimum of two of the designees shall reside east of the Cascade mountain range. Members appointed by the governor shall serve for two-year terms, except that the chairperson and two other members designated by the governor shall initially serve for three years. Vacancies shall be filled for any unexpired term by appointment in the same manner as the original appointments were made.

(b) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee and the superintendent of public instruction or the superintendent's designee shall serve as voting members of the council.

(c) In addition to the members of the council, four members of the legislature shall serve as nonvoting, ex officio members of the council, one from each political caucus of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and one from each political caucus of the senate to be appointed by the president of the senate.

Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 4. Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.121.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The council shall report (before the regular session of the legislature in 1983) annually to the governor and to the legislature concerning the council's activities and the effectiveness of those activities in fostering the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 4. Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.121.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The council may accept contributions, grants, or gifts in cash or otherwise from persons, associations, or corporations. All moneys received by the council or any employee thereof from contributions, grants, or gifts and not through appropriation by the legislature shall be deposited in a depository approved by the state treasurer to be known as the children's trust fund. Disbursements of such funds shall be on the authorization of the council or a duly authorized representative thereof. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, such funds shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditure of such funds.

Sec. 4. Section 36.18.010, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 15, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

County auditors shall collect the following fees for their official services: For filing each chattel mortgage, renewal affidavit, or conditional sale contract, and entering same as required by law, two dollars; for each assignment, modification, transfer, correction, or release of chattel mortgage, conditional sale contract, or miscellaneous instrument, two dollars; for recording instruments, for the first page, legal size (eight and one-half by thirteen inches or less), three dollars; for each additional legal size page, one dollar; for indexing each name over two, fifty cents; for marginal release of mortgage or lien, one dollar; for preparing and certifying copies, for the first legal size page, two dollars; for each additional legal size page, one dollar; for preparing noncertified copies, for each legal size page, fifty cents; for administering an oath or taking an affidavit, with or without seal, two dollars; for issuing marriage license, eight dollars; and a fee of five dollars for issuing marriage certificate, and a fee of two dollars for recording marriage license; all such fees shall be paid at the time of filing the instrument, and no charge shall be made when the release of any of the above instruments is filed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4788 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4798 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 16, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 163, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If the governor finds that an emergency exists in that the population of a state residential correctional facility exceeds its reasonable, maximum capacity, then the governor may do any one or more of the following:

1. Call the sentencing guidelines commission into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating the standard ranges and other standards. The commission may adopt any revision or amendment to the standard ranges or other standards that it believes appropriate to deal with the emergency situation. The revision or amendment shall be adopted in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW and shall take effect on the date prescribed by the commission. The legislature shall approve or modify the commission's revision or amendment at the next legislative session after the revision or amendment takes effect. Failure of the legislature to act shall be deemed as approval of the revision or amendment;

2. If the emergency occurs prior to July 1, 1988, call the board of prison terms and paroles into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating its guidelines and procedures for release of prisoners in a way that it believes appropriate to deal with the emergency situation. Pursuant to this section, the board shall not reduce the terms of inmates serving mandatory minimum prison terms under RCW 9.95.040, an inmate confined for treason, an inmate confined for any violent offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030, or an inmate who has been found to be a sexual psychopath under chapter 71.06 RCW. The board may take any action authorized by law to modify the terms of prisoners under its jurisdiction;

3. Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

Sec. 2. Section 51, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

1. COMMUNITY SERVICES

(a) $2,153,000 is appropriated from the general fund for the continuation and expansion of the alternatives to street crime programs in Pierce, Snohomish, Clark, King, Spokane, and Yakima counties. $38,000 of the appropriation in this subsection (1)(a) is provided solely for the current Pierce county and Snohomish county treatment alternatives to street crime programs to implement the expansion program.

(b) $51,803,000 is appropriated from the general fund, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(i) $235,000 is provided solely for community diversion programs.

(ii) $200,000 is provided solely for a program to notify victims and witnesses of any parole, work release placement, furlough, or unescorted leave of absence from a state correctional facility of any inmate convicted of a violent offense.

(iii) $25,458,000 is provided for probation and parole, other than for drug and alcohol specialized officers in counties currently or proposed to be served by the treatment alternatives to street crime programs.

(iv) $4,054,000 is provided for intensive parole.

(v) $16,952,000 is provided to operate and/or contract with nonprofit corporations for work training release for convicted felons.

(vi) $4,026,000 is provided to operate the Geiger community work release facility for convicted felons.
(vii) $877,000 is provided for support of the state director's office of community services.

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) $712,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for drug and alcohol rehabilitation treatment programs at appropriate state correctional institutions, as defined in RCW 72.01.050 for persons who: (i) Are defined as inmates under RCW 72.09.020; (ii) in the opinion of a qualified health professional designated by the department, are in need of such treatment; and (iii) have less than one year remaining in their confinement to a state correctional facility. Such programs may include facilities for both residential and outpatient treatment.

(b) The superintendents of each correctional institution, as defined in RCW 72.65.010, shall establish community-based volunteer alcohol and drug rehabilitation programs in their respective correctional institution. The superintendents shall encourage groups conducting such programs outside the institutions to participate in such programs inside the institution. An employee at each correctional institution shall be designated to coordinate the programs mandated in this subsection.

(c) The department shall contract with appropriate counties for the use of up to 200 beds in county jails. Contracted jail space shall be used for inmates who have not fully entered the state prison system and for inmates who are nearing their release date who are not appropriate for parole, work release, or early release.

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations: $1,480,000 is provided solely for the one-time cost impact to communities associated with locating additional state correctional facilities and for the one-time cost impact associated with the double bunking at the Washington Corrections Center due to the significant increase in the inmate population and the consequent impact on the community.

(4) INSTITUTIONAL INDUSTRIES

General Fund Appropriation $5,463,000

(5) The appropriations in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section are made solely for those purposes and no transfer shall be made among said subsections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The sentencing reform act of 1981 which established the sentencing guidelines commission and directed the commission to devise a system of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses, required the commission, in setting the standards, to emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for nonviolent offenders.

(2) There is a need to plan and develop a system through which alternatives to total confinement can be used to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes but who, in the judgment of the courts and appropriate corrections personnel, can best serve their sentences without substantial danger to the community in local community programs rather than in state prisons or local jails.

(3) The department of corrections, which, under RCW 72.09.060 and 72.09.100(5), is charged with developing, establishing, and administering community service programs state-wide, has the expertise, and personnel to enable the development of a comprehensive system of alternative programs for nonviolent offenders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 8 of this act.

(1) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(2) "Secretary" means the secretary of corrections.

(3) "Alternatives to total confinement" means residential and nonresidential programs that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW and that are operated by the department or local government entities to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes, in lieu of incarceration in state prisons or local jails.

(4) "Nonviolent offender" means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under chapter 9.94A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall formulate a comprehensive plan for the development, implementation, and operation of alternatives to total confinement for nonviolent offenders that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW.
The plan shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committee of the house of representatives and the senate for review by December 1, 1984. The plan shall include, but is not limited to:

1. The establishment of goals and objectives for the development, implementation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement;

2. A delineation and evaluation of current state and local alternatives to total confinement, including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service programs authorized under RCW 72.09.100(5);

3. An evaluation of the existing organizational structure and of the services provided by the department's division of community services and its role in providing or administering programs that are alternatives to total confinement after July 1, 1984;

4. The establishment of policies and procedures to improve and expand existing alternatives to total confinement including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service, and to develop new alternatives to total confinement. Policies and procedures on program site selection, offender intake assessment, program and offender monitoring, and evaluating and reporting the effectiveness of alternatives to total confinement should be included;

5. The identification of the projected numbers of nonviolent offenders who may be eligible for alternatives to total confinement;

6. A delineation of the role and functions of affected state and local government entities and state and local service providers with respect to the administration and operation of programs that are alternatives to total confinement;

7. The identification of funding sources, funding responsibility, and costs associated with alternatives to total confinement and how funding for such programs can occur within state and local budget limitations;

8. An analysis of the legal liability of state and local government entities and private sector service providers, and a determination of what types of insurance or other mechanisms are available to provide legal and financial safeguards;

9. An identification of the statutory changes which may be necessary to permit full implementation of the plan; and

10. An analysis of the role local correctional facilities should assume under chapter 9.94A RCW. The analysis shall determine: (a) Whether the state should assume financial responsibility for operating local correctional facilities, (b) whether the state should contract for county jail beds to house state prisoners, (c) whether new jail facilities have adequate programs to meet the needs of state prisoners, and (d) the feasibility of counties using minimum security facilities for low-risk offenders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department, in developing the plan, shall consult with and receive input from representatives of affected state and local government entities including the governor's interagency criminal justice work group, correctional organizations and associations, prosecuting attorneys, the defense bar, the legislature, private nonprofit agencies, and private citizens. The plan shall be submitted to the governor's interagency criminal justice work group for review prior to the submission of such plan to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department's plan for the development, implementation, operation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement shall reflect regional differences. The department shall consult with and receive input from affected agencies, organizations, service providers, and individuals working at the regional level.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department, in developing the plan, may request from the office of financial management, the board of prison terms and paroles, the administrator for the courts, the sentencing guidelines commission, the corrections standards board, and the department of social and health services such staff assistance, data, information, and data processing assistance as it may need to accomplish its task, and such services shall be provided without cost to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 72.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. In recognition of the hazardous nature of employment in state correctional institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse employees of the department of corrections for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of inmate assaults. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

2. An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of corrections, or the secretary's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) An inmate has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work; and

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment.

3. The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;
(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(4) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(5) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (3) of this section for any workday for which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(6) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, believes are justified.

(7) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(8) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the department of corrections. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(9) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 72.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In recognition of prison overcrowding and the hazardous nature of employment in state correctional institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse employees of the department of corrections for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of inmate assaults. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(2) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of corrections, or the secretary's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) An inmate has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work; and

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment.

(3) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(4) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(5) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (3) of this section for any workday for which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(6) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, believes are justified.

(7) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(8) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the department of corrections. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(9) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of corrections for the period ending December 30, 1984, the sum of forty-five thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 2, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 72.13.091 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 3 through 8 of this act shall expire December 30, 1984.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "overcrowding;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 16, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 163, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.160; amending section 51, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified); adding new sections to chapter 72.09 RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 2, chapter 2, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 72.13.091; making an appropriation; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency;".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Granlund moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4798 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the issue of scope and object on the amendments. I realize that the other motion will ultimately take precedence in an effort to get the two Houses together, but I would still like to issue a scope and object to be brought before the body."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4798 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3415 and the pending House amendments, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Hansen, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3415 is a measure which deals with the protection of the quality and quantity of ground water aquifers by state and local government.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives, while dealing with this issue, also deal with individual water rights and provides for statutory legal remedies for interference with those rights.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives were ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3415 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 26, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4435 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context requires the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Creditor" means a person making an extension of credit or a person claiming by, under, or through a person making an extension of credit.

(2) "Debtor" means a person to whom an extension of credit is made or a person who guarantees the repayment of an extension of credit or in any manner undertakes to indemnify the creditor against loss resulting from the failure of a person to whom an extension is made to repay the same.

(3) "Extortionate extension of credit" means an extension of credit with respect to which it is the understanding of the creditor and the debtor at the time the extension is made that delay in making repayment or failure to make repayment could result in the use of violence or other criminal means to cause harm to the person, reputation, or property of any person.

(4) "Extortionate means" means the use, or an express or implicit threat of use, of violence or other criminal means to cause harm to the person, reputation, or property of any person.

(5) "To collect an extension of credit" means to induce in any way a person to make repayment thereof.

(6) "To extend credit" means to make or renew a loan or to enter into an agreement, tacit or express, whereby the repayment or satisfaction of a debt or claim, whether acknowledged or disputed, valid or invalid, and however arising, may or shall be deferred.

(7) "Repayment of an extension of credit" means the repayment, satisfaction, or discharge in whole or in part of a debt or claim, acknowledged or disputed, valid or invalid, resulting from or in connection with that extension of credit.

(8) "Dealer in property" means a person who buys and sells property as a business.

(9) "Stolen property" means property that has been obtained by theft, robbery, or extortion.

(10) "Traffic" means to sell, transfer, distribute, dispense, or otherwise dispose of stolen property to another person, or to buy, receive, possess, or obtain control of stolen property, with intent to sell, transfer, distribute, dispense, or otherwise dispose of to another person.

(11) "Combination" means persons who collaborate in carrying on or furthering the activities or purposes of a criminal syndicate even though the persons may not know each other's identity, or membership in the combination changes from time to time, or one or more members may stand in a wholesaler-retailer or other arm's-length relationship with others as to activities or dealings between or among themselves in an illicit operation.

(12) "Criminal syndicate" means any combination of persons or enterprises engaging, or having the purpose of engaging, in conduct which violates any one or more provisions of any felony statute of this state.

(13) "Control" means the possession of a sufficient interest to permit substantial direction over the affairs of an enterprise.

(14) "Enterprise" includes any individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, business trust, or other profit or nonprofit legal entity, and includes any union, association, or group of individuals associated in fact although not a legal entity, and both illicit and licit enterprises and governmental and nongovernmental entities.

(15) "Financial institution" means any bank, trust company, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, credit union, or loan company under the jurisdiction of the state or an agency of the United States.

(16) "Racketeering" means any act, including any anticipatory or completed offense committed for financial gain, which is chargeable or indictable under the laws of the state in which the act occurred and, if the act occurred in a state other than this state, would be chargeable or indictable under the laws of this state had the act occurred in this state and punishable as a felony and by imprisonment for more than one year, regardless of whether the act is charged or indicted, involving:

(a) Homicide;
(b) Robbery;
(c) Kidnapping;
(d) Forgery;
(e) Theft;
(f) Bribery;
(g) Gambling;
(h) Usury;
(i) Extortion;
(j) Extortionate extensions of credit;
(k) Delivery or manufacture of controlled substances or possession with intent to deliver or manufacture controlled substances under chapter 69.50 RCW;
(l) Trafficking in explosives, weapons, or stolen property;
(m) Leading organized crime;
(n) Obstructing or hindering criminal investigations or prosecutions;
(o) Asserting false claims including, not but limited to, false claims asserted through fraud or arson;
FIFTY-FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1984

(p) False statements or publications concerning land for sale or lease or sale of subdivided lands or sale and mortgaging of unsubdivided lands;
(q) Resale of realty with intent to defraud;
(r) Fraud in the purchase or sale of securities;
(s) Sale of unregistered securities or real property securities and transactions involving such securities by unregistered dealers or salespersons;
(t) A scheme or artifice to defraud;
(u) Obscenity;
(v) Child pornography;
(w) Prostitution;
(x) Arson; or
(y) Violence or the threat of violence, or property damage or the threat of property damage occurring during a labor dispute.

(17) "Pattern of racketeering activity" requires at least two acts of racketeering activity, one of which occurred after the effective date of this act and the last of which occurred within ten years (excluding any period of imprisonment) after the commission of a prior act of racketeering activity.

(18) "Records" means any book, paper, writing, record, computer program, or other material.

(19) "Documentary material" means any book, paper, document, writing, drawing, graph, chart, photograph, phonograph record, magnetic tape, computer printout, other data compilation from which information can be obtained or from which information can be translated into usable form, or other tangible item.

(20) "Unlawful debt" means any money or other thing of value constituting principal or interest of a debt that is legally unenforceable in the state in whole or in part because the debt was incurred or contracted:
(a) In violation of any one of the following:
(i) Chapter 67.16 RCW relating to horse racing;
(ii) Chapter 9.46 RCW relating to gambling; or
(iii) Chapter 19.52 RCW relating to interest and usury; or
(b) In a gambling activity in violation of federal law or in the business of lending money at a rate usurious under federal or state law.

(21) (a) "Beneficial interest" means:
(i) The interest of a person as a beneficiary under a trust established under Title 11 RCW in which the trustee for the trust holds legal or record title to real property;
(ii) The interest of a person as a beneficiary under any other trust arrangement under which a trustee holds legal or record title to real property for the benefit of the beneficiary; or
(iii) The interest of a person under any other form of express fiduciary arrangement under which one person holds legal or record title to real property for the benefit of the other person.
(b) "Beneficial interest" does not include the interest of a stockholder in a corporation or the interest of a partner in a general partnership or limited partnership.

(c) A beneficial interest shall be considered to be located where the real property owned by the trustee is located.

(22) "Real property" means any real property or interest in real property, including but not limited to a land sale contract, lease, or mortgage of real property.

(23) (a) "Trustee" means:
(i) A person acting as a trustee under a trust established under Title 11 RCW in which the trustee holds legal or record title to real property;
(ii) A person who holds legal or record title to real property in which another person has a beneficial interest; or
(iii) A successor trustee to a person who is a trustee under subsection (23)(a)(i) or (ii) of this section.
(b) "Trustee" does not mean a person appointed or acting as:
(i) A personal representative under Title 11 RCW;
(ii) A trustee of any testamentary trust; or
(iii) A trustee of any indenture of trust under which a bond is issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) A person who knowingly makes an extortionate extension of credit is guilty of a class B felony.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, if it is shown that all of the following factors are present in connection with the extension of credit, there is prima facie evidence that the extension of credit was extortionate:
(a) The repayment of the extension of credit, or the performance of any promise given in consideration thereof, would be unenforceable at the time the extension of credit was made through civil judicial processes against the debtor in the county in which the debtor, if a natural person, resided or in every county in which the debtor, if other than a natural person, was incorporated or qualified to do business.
(b) The extension of credit was made at a rate of interest in excess of an annual rate of forty-five percent calculated according to the actuarial method of allocating payments made on a debt between principal and interest, pursuant to which a payment is applied first to the accumulated interest and the balance is applied to the unpaid principal.

(c) At the time the extension of credit was made, the debtor reasonably believed that either of the following:

(1) One or more extensions of credit by the creditor had been collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means, or the nonpayment had been punished by extortionate means.

(2) The creditor had a reputation for the use of extortionate means to collect extensions of credit or to punish the nonpayment thereof.

(d) Upon the making of the extension of credit, the total of the extensions of credit by the creditor to the debtor then outstanding, including any unpaid interest or similar charges, exceeded one hundred dollars.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence of any of the circumstances described in subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing the understanding of the debtor and the creditor at the time the extension of credit was made, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation as to collection practices of the creditor in any community of which the debtor was a member at the time of the extension.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A person who knowingly advances money or property, whether as a gift, loan, investment, or pursuant to a partnership or profit-sharing agreement or otherwise, to any person, with reasonable grounds to believe that it is the intention of that person to use the money or property so advanced, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of making extortionate extensions of credit, is guilty of a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A person who knowingly participates in any way in the use of any extortionate means to collect or attempt to collect any extensions of credit or to punish any person for the nonpayment thereof, is guilty of a class B felony.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, for the purpose of showing an implicit threat as a means of collection, evidence may be introduced tending to show that one or more extensions of credit by the creditor were, to the knowledge of the person against whom the implicit threat was alleged to have been made, collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means or that the nonpayment was punished by extortionate means.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence at the time of the extension of credit in question was made of the circumstances described in section 2(2)(a) or (b) of this act, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing that words or other means of communication, shown to have been employed as a means of collection, in fact carried an express or implicit threat, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation of the defendant in any community of which the person against whom the alleged threat was made was a member at the time of the collection or attempt at collection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A person who recklessly trafficks in stolen property is guilty of trafficking in stolen property in the second degree.

(2) A person who knowingly initiates, organizes, plans, finances, directs, manages, or supervises the theft of property for sale to others, or who knowingly traffics in stolen property, is guilty of trafficking in stolen property in the first degree.

(3) Trafficking in stolen property in the second degree is a class C felony. Trafficking in stolen property in the first degree is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A person commits the offense of leading organized crime by:

(a) Intentionally organizing, managing, directing, supervising, or financing a criminal syndicate; or

(b) Knowingly inciting or inducing others to engage in violence or intimidation to promote or further the objectives of a criminal syndicate.

(2) A person shall not be convicted under this section on the basis of accountability as an accomplice unless the person aids or participates in violating this section in one of the ways specified.

(3) Leading organized crime is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whoever knowingly gives, promises, or offers to any professional or amateur baseball, football, hockey, polo, tennis, horse race, or basketball player or boxer or any player or referee or other official who participates or expects to participate in any professional or amateur game or sport, or to any manager, coach, or trainer of any team or participant or prospective participant in any such game, contest, or sport, any benefit with intent to influence the person to lose or try to lose or cause to be lost or to limit the person's or person's team's margin of victory or defeat, or in the case of a referee or other official to affect the decisions or the performance of the official's duties in any way, in a baseball, football, hockey, or basketball game, boxing, tennis, horse race, or polo match, or any professional or amateur sport or game, in which the player or participant or referee or other official is taking part or expects to take part, or has any duty or connection therewith, is guilty of a class C felony.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) It is unlawful for a person who has knowingly received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt to use or invest, whether directly or indirectly, any part of the proceeds, or the proceeds derived from the investment or use thereof, in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise.

(2) It is unlawful for a person, through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt, to acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any interest in or control of any enterprise or real property.

(3) It is unlawful for a person to conspire or attempt to violate subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

(4) A knowing violation of subsection (1) or (2) of this section is a class B felony. A knowing violation of subsection (3) of this section is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. During the pendency of any criminal case charging an offense included in the definition of racketeering in section 1 of this act or a violation of section 8 of this act, the superior court may, in addition to its other powers, issue an order pursuant to section 10 (2) or (3) of this act. Upon conviction of a person for an offense included in the definition of racketeering or a violation of section 8 of this act, the superior court may, in addition to its other powers of disposition, issue an order pursuant to section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) A person who sustains injury to his or her person, business, or property by racketeering or by a violation of section 8 of this act may file an action in superior court for the recovery of treble damages and the costs of the suit, including reasonable investigative and attorney's fees. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action filed to prevent, restrain, or remedy racketeering or a violation of section 8 of this act after making provision for the rights of all innocent persons affected by the violation and after hearing or trial, as appropriate, by issuing appropriate orders.

(2) Prior to a determination of liability, the orders may include, but are not limited to, entering restraining orders or prohibitions or taking such other actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, in connection with any property or other interest subject to damages, forfeiture, or other restraints pursuant to this section as the court deems proper.

(3) Following a determination of liability, the orders may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Ordering any person to divest him or herself of any interest, direct or indirect, in any enterprise.

(b) Imposing reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of any person, including prohibiting any person from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise engaged in, the activities of which affect the laws of this state, to the extent the Constitutions of the United States and this state permit.

(c) Ordering dissolution or reorganization of any enterprise.

(d) Ordering the payment of treble damages to those persons injured by racketeering or a violation of section 8 of this act.

(e) Ordering the payment of all costs and expenses of the prosecution and investigation of any offense included in the definition of racketeering in section 1 of this act or a violation of section 8 of this act, civil and criminal, incurred by the state or county as appropriate, to be paid to the antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county which brings the action. If the county has not established an antiracketeering revolving fund, the payment shall be deposited in the county current expense fund.

(f) Ordering forfeiture to the general fund or antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county as appropriate to the extent not already ordered to be paid in other damages:

(i) Any property or other interest acquired or maintained by a person in violation of section 8 of this act.

(ii) Any interest in, security of, claims against or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of influence over any enterprise which a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of in violation of section 8 of this act.

(iii) Any proceeds traceable to an offense included in the definition of racketeering in section 1 of this act and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and other things of value used or intended to be used to facilitate commission of the offense.
(g) Ordering payment to the general fund or antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county as appropriate of an amount equal to the gain a person has acquired or maintained through an offense included in the definition of racketeering.

(5) In addition to or in lieu of an action under this section, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action for forfeiture to the general fund or antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county as appropriate, to the extent not already ordered paid pursuant to this section, of:

(a) Any interest acquired or maintained by a person in violation of section 8 of this act.

(b) Any interest in, security of, claims against or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of influence over any enterprise which a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of or in violation of section 8 of this act.

(c) All proceeds traceable to an offense included in the definition of racketeering and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and other things of value used or intended to be used to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(6) A defendant convicted in any criminal proceeding is precluded from subsequently denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense of which the defendant was convicted in any civil proceeding. For the purposes of this subsection, a conviction shall be deemed to have occurred upon a verdict or plea of guilty, notwithstanding the fact that an appeal has been or may be lodged upon any judgment and sentence entered thereon.

(7) The initiation of civil proceedings related to violations of any offense included in the definition of racketeering or a violation of section 8 of this act shall be commenced within seven years after actual discovery of the violation.

(8) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may, in a civil action brought pursuant to this section, file with the clerk of the superior court a certificate stating that the case is of special public importance. A copy of that certificate shall be furnished immediately by the clerk to the chief judge or presiding chief judge of the superior court in which the case is pending and, upon receipt of the copy, the judge shall immediately designate a judge to hear and determine the action. The judge so designated shall promptly assign the action for hearing, participate in the hearings and determination, and cause the action to be expedited.

(9) The standard of proof in actions brought pursuant to this section is the preponderance of the evidence test.

(10) A person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney who files an action under this section shall serve notice and one copy of the pleading on the attorney general within thirty days after the action is filed with the superior court. The notice shall identify the action, the person, and the person's attorney. Service of the notice does not limit or otherwise affect the right of the state to maintain an action under this section or intervene in a pending action nor does it authorize the person to name the state or the attorney general as a party to the action.

(11) Except in cases filed by a county prosecuting attorney, the attorney general may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under this section if the attorney general certifies that in the attorney general's opinion the action is of special public importance. Upon intervention, the attorney general may assert any available claim and is entitled to the same relief as if the attorney general had instituted a separate action.

(12) In addition to the attorney general's right to intervene as a party in any action under this section, the attorney general may appear as amicus curiae in any proceeding in which a claim under this section has been asserted or in which a court is interpreting section 1, 8, 9, 11, or 12 of this act, or this section.

(13) A civil action under this section is remedial and does not limit any other civil or criminal action under this chapter or any other provision. Civil remedies provided under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

(14) In bringing a civil action under this chapter, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may grant a witness immunity in exchange for testimony in the civil case. The immunity bars the use or derivative use of the witness' testimony in any subsequent criminal prosecution of the witness except for perjury or false swearing committed during the course of the testimony.

NEW SECTION Sec. 11. (1) (a) There is established in the custody of the state treasurer an antiracketeering revolving fund to be administered by the attorney general under the conditions and for the purposes provided by this subsection. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the attorney general. No appropriation is required for disbursements.

(b) Any prosecution and investigation costs, including attorney's fees, recovered for the state by the attorney general as a result of enforcement of civil and criminal statutes pertaining to any offense included in the definition of racketeering, whether by final judgment, settlement, or otherwise, shall be deposited, as directed by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the fund established by this subsection. When the fund exceeds seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, all funds in excess of the seven hundred fifty thousand dollars shall be deposited in the state general fund.
(c) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the attorney general for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the attorney general, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

(2) (a) The county legislative authority may establish an antiracketeering revolving fund to be administered by the county prosecuting attorney under the conditions and for the purposes provided by this subsection. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the county prosecuting attorney. No appropriation is required for disbursements.

(b) Any prosecution and investigation costs, including attorney's fees, recovered for the state by the county prosecuting attorney as a result of enforcement of civil and criminal statutes pertaining to any offense included in the definition of racketeering, whether by final judgment, settlement, or otherwise, shall be deposited, as directed by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the fund established by this subsection.

(c) The county legislative authority may prescribe a maximum level of moneys in the antiracketeering revolving fund. Moneys exceeding the prescribed maximum shall be transferred to the county current expense fund.

(d) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the county prosecuting attorney for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the county prosecuting attorney, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The state, upon filing a civil action under section 10 of this act, may file in accordance with this section a racketeering lien. A filing fee or other charge is not required for filing a racketeering lien.

(2) A racketeering lien shall be signed by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney representing the state in the action and shall set forth the following information:

(a) The name of the defendant whose property or other interests are to be subject to the lien;

(b) In the discretion of the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, any aliases or fictitious names of the defendant named in the lien;

(c) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, the present residence or principal place of business of the person named in the lien;

(d) A reference to the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed, including the name of the court, the title of the action, and the court's file number for the proceeding;

(e) The name and address of the attorney representing the state in the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed;

(f) A statement that the notice is being filed pursuant to this section;

(g) The moneys In the fund shall be used by the attorney general for the Investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the attorney general, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

(h) The moneys In the fund shall be used by the county prosecuting attorney for the Investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the county prosecuting attorney, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

(i) Such other information as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien deems appropriate.

(3) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien may amend a lien filed under this section at any time by filing an amended racketeering lien in accordance with this section which identifies the prior lien amended.

(4) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien shall, as soon as practical after filing a racketeering lien, furnish to any person named in the lien a notice of the filing of the lien. Failure to furnish notice under this subsection does not invalidate or otherwise affect a racketeering lien filed in accordance with this section.

(5) A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in personal property by filing the lien with the department of licensing. A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in real property by filing the lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located. The state may give such additional notice of the lien as it deems appropriate.

(6) The filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section creates a lien in favor of the state in:

(a) Any interest of the defendant, in real property situated in the county in which the lien is filed, then maintained, or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien;

(b) Any interest of the defendant, in personal property situated in this state, then maintained or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien; and

(c) Any property identified in the lien to the extent of the defendant's interest therein.

(7) The filing of a racketeering lien under this section is notice to all persons dealing with the person or property identified in the lien of the state's claim. The lien created in favor of the state in accordance with this section is superior and prior to the claims or interests of any other person, except a person possessing:

(a) A valid lien perfected prior to the filing of the racketeering lien;
(b) In the case of real property, an interest acquired and recorded prior to the filing of the racketeering lien; or

(c) In the case of personal property, an interest acquired prior to the filing of the racketeering lien.

(8) Upon entry of judgment in favor of the state, the state may proceed to execute thereon as in the case of any other judgment, except that in order to preserve the state's lien priority as provided in this section the state shall, in addition to such other notice as is required by law, give at least thirty days' notice of the execution to any person possessing at the time the notice is given, an interest recorded subsequent to the date the state's lien was perfected.

(9) Upon the entry of a final judgment in favor of the state providing for forfeiture of property to the state, the title of the state to the property:

(a) In the case of real property or a beneficial interest in real property, relates back to the date of filing the racketeering lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located or, if no racketeering lien is filed, then to the date of recording of the final judgment or the abstract thereof with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located; or

(b) In the case of personal property or a beneficial interest in personal property, relates back to the date the personal property was seized by the state, or the date of filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section, whichever is earlier, but if the property was not seized and no racketeering lien was filed then to the date the final judgment was filed with the department of licensing and, if the personal property is an aircraft, with the federal aviation administration.

(10) This section does not limit the right of the state to obtain any order or injunction, receivership, writ, attachment, garnishment, or other remedy authorized under section 10 of this act or appropriate to protect the interests of the state or available under other applicable law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A trustee who receives written notice that a lien notice has been recorded or a civil proceeding or criminal proceeding has been instituted against any person for whom the trustee holds legal or record title to real property, shall immediately furnish to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney the following:

(a) The name and address of the person, as known to the trustee;

(b) To the extent known to the trustee, the name and address of all other persons for whose benefit the trustee holds title to the real property; and

(c) If requested by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, a copy of the trust agreement or other instrument under which the trustee holds legal or record title to the real property.

(2) The recording of a lien notice shall not constitute a lien on the record title to real property owned by a trustee at the time of recording except to the extent that trustee is named in the lien notice. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may bring a civil proceeding in superior court against the trustee to recover from the trustee the amounts set forth in section 15 of this act. In addition to amounts recovered under section 15 of this act, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney also may recover its investigative costs and attorneys' fees.

(3) The recording of a lien notice does not affect the use to which real property or a beneficial interest owned by the person named in the lien notice may be put or the right of the person to receive any avails, rents, or other proceeds resulting from the use and ownership except the sale of the property, until a judgment of forfeiture is entered.

(4) This section does not apply to any conveyance by a trustee under a court order unless the court order is entered in an action between the trustee and the beneficiary.

(5) Unless a trustee receives written notice that a person having a beneficial interest in the trust is named in a lien notice or is otherwise a defendant in a civil proceeding, this section does not apply to:

(a) A conveyance by a trustee required under the terms of any trust agreement if the trust agreement is a matter of public record before a lien notice is filed; or

(b) A conveyance by a trustee to all persons who have a beneficial interest in the trust.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The term of a lien notice shall be six years from the date the lien notice is recorded. If a renewal lien notice is filed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, the term of the renewal lien notice shall be for six years from the date the renewal lien notice is recorded. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney is entitled to only one renewal of the lien notice.

(2) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien notice may release in whole or in part any lien notice or may release any specific property or beneficial interest from the lien notice upon such terms and conditions as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney considers appropriate. A release of a lien notice executed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney shall be recorded in the official records in which the lien notice covering that property was recorded. No charge or fee may be imposed for recording any release of a lien notice.
(3) (a) A person named in the lien notice may move the court in which the civil proceeding giving rise to the lien notice is pending for an order extinguishing the lien notice.

(b) Upon the motion of a person under (a) of this subsection, the court immediately shall enter an order setting a date for hearing, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days after the motion is filed. The order and a copy of the motion shall be served on the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney within three days after the entry of the court's order. At the hearing, the court shall take evidence on the issue of whether any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is covered by the lien notice or otherwise subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act. If the person shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the lien notice is not applicable to the person or that any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is not subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act, the court shall enter a judgment extinguishing the lien notice or releasing the property or beneficial interest from the lien notice.

(c) The court may enter an order releasing from the lien notice any specific real property or beneficial interest if, at the time the lien notice is recorded, there is pending an arms length sale of the real property or beneficial interest in which the parties are under no undue compulsion to sell or buy and are able, willing, and reasonably well informed and the sale is for the fair market value of the real property or beneficial interest and the recording of the lien notice prevents the sale of the property or interest. The proceeds resulting from the sale of the real property or beneficial interest shall be deposited with the court, subject to the further order of the court.

(d) At the hearing held pursuant to (b) of this subsection, if the court releases from the lien notice any property or beneficial interest, the person shall post security equal to the fair market value of the property or beneficial interest owned by the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) If a trustee conveys title to real property for which, at the time of the conveyance, a lien notice has been recorded in the county in which the real property is situated and the notice names a person who the trustee knows holds a beneficial interest in the trust, the trustee shall be liable to the state for the greater of:

(a) The amount of proceeds received by the person named in the lien notice as a result of the conveyance;

(b) The amount of proceeds received by the trustee as a result of the conveyance and distributed to the person named in the lien notice; or

(c) The fair market value of the interest in the lien notice in the real property so conveyed.

(2) If the trustee conveys the real property for which a lien notice has been recorded at the time of the conveyance and holds the proceeds that would otherwise be paid or distributed to the beneficiary or at the direction of the beneficiary or beneficiary's designee, the trustee's liability shall not exceed the amount of the proceeds so held so long as the trustee continues to hold the proceeds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A trustee who fails to comply with section 13(1) of this act is guilty of a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) A custodian of the records of a financial institution shall, at no expense to the financial institution, produce for inspection or copying the records in the custody of the financial institution when requested to be inspected by the attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney, provided the person requesting the information has served a subpoena issued by a court or obtained a court order for the information. The attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney or any peace officer or other person designated by the county prosecuting attorney or the attorney general shall be prohibited from using or releasing the information except in the proper discharge of official duties. If directed by the court in the subpoena or court order, neither the custodian nor any other employee of the institution shall disclose to the institution's customer the fact that the customer's records have been examined or copied. The furnishing of records in compliance with this section by a custodian of records is a bar to civil or criminal liability against the custodian or financial institution in any action brought alleging violation of the confidentiality of the records.

(2) Disclosure by the attorney general, county prosecuting attorney, or any peace officer designated by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney of information obtained under this section, except in the proper discharge of official duties, is a misdemeanor.

(3) Disclosure by the custodian or employee of the financial institution contrary to subsection (1) of this section is a misdemeanor.

(4) This section does not preclude the use of any other legally authorized means of obtaining the information.

Sec. 18. Section 9A.04.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 129, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Prosecutions for the offenses of murder, and arson where death ensues, may be commenced at any period after the commission of the offense; for offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, committed by any public officer in connection with the duties of his office or constituting a breach of his public duty or a violation of his oath of office, and arson where death does not ensue, within ten years after their commission; for violations of RCW 9A.44.070, 9A.44.080, and 9A.44.100(1)(b), within five years after their commission; for violations of section 6 or 8 of this 1984 act, within six years after their commission; for all other offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, within three years after their commission; two years for gross misdemeanors; and for all other offenses, within one year after their commission. PROVIDED. That any length of time during which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this state shall not be reckoned within the one, two, three, five, and ten years respectively; AND FURTHER PROVIDED. That where an indictment has been found, or complaint or an information filed, within the time limited for the commencement of a criminal action, if the indictment, complaint or information be set aside, the time of limitation shall be extended by the length of time from the time of filing of such indictment, complaint, or information, to the time such indictment, complaint, or information was set aside.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 9A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1985.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3059 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the senior citizens of this state, particularly those living in low-income public housing or in nursing homes, often lead lonely and harsh lives. The legislature recognizes that the warmth and companionship provided by pets can significantly improve the quality of senior citizens' lives. This legislation is intended to insure that senior citizens and persons in nursing homes will not be deprived of access to pets.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A nursing home licensee shall give each patient a reasonable opportunity to have regular contact with animals. The licensee may permit appropriate animals to live in the facilities and may permit appropriate animals to visit if the animals are properly supervised.

(2) The department shall adopt rules for the care, type, and maintenance of animals in nursing home facilities.*

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "disabled;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 18.51 RCW; and creating a new section."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 25, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3064 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that privately operated taxicab transportation service is a vital part of the transportation system within the state and provides demand-responsive services to state residents, tourists, and out-of-state business people. Consequently, the safety, reliability, and economic viability and stability of privately operated taxicab transportation service are matters of state-wide importance. The regulation of privately operated taxicab transportation services is thus an essential governmental function.
Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to permit political subdivisions of the state to regulate taxicab transportation services without liability under federal antitrust laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. To protect the public health, safety, and welfare, cities, towns, counties, and port districts of the state may license, control, and regulate privately operated taxicab transportation services operating within their respective jurisdictions. The power to regulate includes:

1. Regulating entry into the business of providing taxicab transportation services;
2. Requiring a license to be purchased as a condition of operating a taxicab and the right to revoke, cancel, or refuse to reissue a license for failure to comply with regulatory requirements;
3. Controlling the rates charged for providing taxicab transportation service and the manner in which rates are calculated and collected, including the establishment of zones as the basis for rates;
4. Regulating the routes of taxicabs, including restricting access to airports;
5. Establishing safety, equipment, and insurance requirements; and
6. Any other requirements adopted to ensure safe and reliable taxicab service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A city, town, county, or port district may enter into cooperative agreements with any other city, town, county, or port district for the joint regulation of taxicabs. Cooperative agreements may provide for, but are not limited to, the granting, revocation, and suspension of joint taxicab licenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall be added to Title 81 RCW.

In line 1 of the title, after "taxicab companies:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and creating a new chapter in Title 81 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3064.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3064, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3064, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 07; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Craswell, McCaslin, McDonald, Quigg, Rasmussen, Zimmerman – 7.

Absent: Senator Conner – 1.

Excused: Senators Bender, Newhouse, Wojahn – 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3064, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Copies of all appropriation resolutions approved by the superintendent of public instruction shall be filed by the office of the superintendent of public instruction with the educational service district (and the appropriate county auditor(s)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 42.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In order to expedite the payment of claims, the legislative body of any taxing district, as defined in RCW 43.09.260, may authorize the issuance of warrants or checks in payment of claims after the provisions of this chapter have been met and after the officer designated by statute, or in the absence of statute, an appropriate charter provision, ordinance, or resolution of the taxing district, has signed the checks or warrants, but before the legislative body has acted to approve the claims. The legislative body may stipulate that certain kinds or amounts of claims shall not be paid before the board has reviewed the supporting documentation and approved the issue of checks or warrants in payment of those claims. However. all of the following conditions shall be met before the payment:

(1) The auditing officer and the officer designated to sign the checks or warrants shall each be required to furnish an official bond for the faithful discharge of his or her duties in an amount determined by the legislative body but not less than fifty thousand dollars:
(2) The legislative body shall adopt contracting, hiring, purchasing, and disbursing policies that implement effective internal control;

(3) The legislative body shall provide for its review of the documentation supporting claims paid and for its approval of all checks or warrants issued in payment of claims at its next regularly scheduled public meeting; and

(4) The legislative body shall require that if, upon review, it disapproves some claims, the auditing officer and the officer designated to sign the checks or warrants shall jointly cause the disapproved claims to be recognized as receivables of the taxing district and to pursue collection diligently until the amounts disapproved are collected or until the legislative body is satisfied and approves the claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 28A.66.090, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.66.090 are each repeated."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3128.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, does this amendment eliminate the judge’s discretion in awarding of attorney fees? As I read the amendment, it says ‘customarily charged for general trial work by the condemnee’s attorney for actual trial time and his or her hourly rate.’ Now at the rate, as the law stands now, the judge has the discretion and the attorney might—say his customary hourly rate is a hundred and fifty dollars an hour and the judge says ‘you’re not worth it’ and he gives you the going rate of about seventy dollars an hour. Will this amendment eliminate that discretion by the judge?"

Senator Talmadge: "My understanding is that it does not, Senator. It simply establishes a maximum. The provision that is being amended is the old fee schedule that used to exist for the eminent domain proceedings. A fee schedule for this variety customarily violates the anti-trust laws and the DOT had some concern about contention fee awards in eminent domain proceedings—and a number of other concerns. This simply sets the maximum for the attorney’s fees that can be recovered."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well. I’m concerned because it looks like it’s a positive statement that whatever that attorney usually charges, that’s what he’s going to get—and there’s quite a lot of difference in their hourly rate. Some attorneys are worth more than the others."

Senator Talmadge: "As I say, I understand that this is a maximum. It was the language that was requested by the Department of Transportation in dealing with the problem of eminent domain and I doubt they’re going to be anxious to be giving away the public fisc in attorney’s fees. It’s intended to be a cap."

Senator Rasmussen: "It was not intended to do away with the judge’s discretion? Thank you."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3128.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3128.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3128, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3128, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 16, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3158 with the following amendments:
On page 3, line 26, strike all of section 4.
Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.
On page 4, line 14, after "act." strike everything through "act." on line 18 and insert: "Within three years of the effective date of this act, the department of licensing shall devise and implement a no-fee system for identifying and purging trade name registrations that have become inactive."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3158.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, according to the amendment, the Department of Licensing has developed a system of purging. The Department of Licensing develops their system, but doesn't have the authority of law other than what we've given them here. They purged my trade name and I don't want it purged and I'm perfectly legitimate, what do I have to do--do I sue the Department of Licensing?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I think you could always bring the issue up with the Department of Licensing. The idea is to clear the list of assumed names that exist of those names that are no longer being used by various business entities across the state. The alternative to this kind of arrangement is a requirement that the permit—or the ability to use the trade name—be done every five years or some time period, and a new fee paid for that reconsideration process.

"The feeling on the House side was that the Department of Licensing could adopt rules and regulations to assure that those trade names that were initially paid for, were ones that are still being used and if they're not any longer being used then to remove them from the list of trade names."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, my concern, Senator Talmadge, is that we're giving them the full authority to develop it and purge—and I would think a better approach would be to forfeit licenses and requiring a renewal ever so often to find out if they are alive."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, that's what we originally had in the Senate Bill—the House did not agree with that. I don't think that their approach is necessarily a bad one. It's certainly less expensive for the businesses that don't have to pay a new fee to renew their license. I think it's something we'll keep an eye on, for certain, from the Department of Licensing."

Senator Rasmussen: "It all depends on the rule. Thank you."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3158.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3158.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3158, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3158, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 01; absent, 00; excused, 02.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of sections 3 through 6 of this act is to clarify requirements necessary for voters to authorize certain local governments to impose regular property tax levies for a series of years. Sections 3 through 9 of this act only clarify the existing law to avoid confusion being given to an erroneous opinion that has been rendered by the attorney general. As cogently expressed in Attorney General Opinion Number 14, Addendum, opinions rendered by the attorney general are advisory only and are merely a "prediction of the outcome if the matter were to be litigated." Nevertheless, confusion has arisen from erroneous opinions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 29.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Shall the .... (insert the name of the taxing district) be authorized to impose regular property tax levies of ........... (insert the maximum rate) or less per thousand dollars of assessed in such taxing. district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition when the number of electors voting yes on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election.

Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act.

In the event a cultural arts, stadium and convention district is levying property taxes in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts (resulting in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in Article V, section 2, of our state Constitution result in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced: PROVIDED, That no cultural arts, stadium, and convention district may pledge anticipated revenues derived from the property tax herein authorized as security for payments of bonds issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That such limitation shall not apply to property taxes approved pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall apply to levies after the first levy authorized under this section following the approval of such levy by voters pursuant to this section.

(2) An annual excess ad valorem property tax for general district purposes when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

(3) Multi-year excess ad valorem property tax levies used to retire general obligation bond issues when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056.

The district shall include in its regular property tax levy for each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal on all outstanding general obligation bonds issued without voter approval pursuant to RCW 67.38.110 and may include a sum sufficient to create a sinking fund for the redemption of all outstanding bonds.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.069 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "taxing district" means a county, emergency medical service district, city or town, public hospital district, or fire protection district.

(2) A taxing district may impose additional property tax levies in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the taxing district in each year for six consecutive years when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percent of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition when the number of electors voting yes on the proposition exceeds forty percent of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election.

Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act.

(3) Any tax imposed under this section shall be used only for the provision of emergency medical care or emergency medical services, including related personnel costs, training for such personnel, and related equipment, supplies, vehicles and structures needed for the provision of emergency medical care or emergency medical services.

(4) If a county levies a tax under this section, no taxing district within the county may levy a tax under this section. No other taxing district may levy a tax under this section if another taxing district has levied a tax under this section within its boundaries: PROVIDED, That if a taxing district within a county levies this tax, and the voters of the county subsequently approve a levying of this tax, then the tax levy for emergency medical services shall cease being levied in the taxing district originally levying it and shall be replaced with the county-wide levy. Whenever a tax is levied county-wide, the service shall, insofar as is feasible, be provided throughout the county; PROVIDED FURTHER, That no county-wide levy proposal may be placed on the ballot without the approval of the legislative authority of each city exceeding fifty thousand population within the county; PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section and RCW 36.32.480 shall not prohibit any city or town from levying an annual excess levy to fund emergency medical services.

(5) The tax levy authorized in this section is in addition to the tax levy authorized in RCW 84.52.043.

(6) The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall not apply to the first levy imposed pursuant to this section following the approval of such levy by the voters pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

Sec. 6. Section 18, chapter 210. Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.69.145 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A park and recreation district may impose (a) regular property tax (levy) levies in an amount equal to fifteen cents or less per thousand dollars of assessed value of property in the district in each year for five consecutive years when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the voters thereof (voting on the) approving a proposition (to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the last tax levies are made and not oftener than twice in the twelve month period, either) authorizing the levies submitted at a special election or at the regular election of the district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition if the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. A proposition authorizing the tax levies shall not be submitted by a park and recreation district more than twice in any twelve-month period. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act. In the event a park and recreation (districts are) district is levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts (result in taxes in excess of) subject to the one percent limitation provided for in Article 7, section (2) 2. of our state Constitution result in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the park and recreation district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced.

(2) The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall not apply to the first levy imposed under this section following the approval of the levies by the voters under subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 210. Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.480 are each amended to read as follows:

If the petition or resolution initiating the formation of the proposed park and recreation service area proposes that the initial (improvements of services) capital or operational costs are to be financed by regular property tax levies for a six-year period as authorized by section 9 of this 1963 act, or an annual excess levy, or that proposed capital costs are to be financed by the issuance of general obligation bonds and bond retirement levies, a (special election) proposition or propositions for (that) such purpose or purposes shall be (conducted) submitted to the voters of the proposed service area at the same election (within the boundaries of the proposed service area). A proposition or propositions for regular property tax levies for a six-year period as authorized by section 9 of this 1984 act, an annual excess levy, or the issuance of general obligation bonds and bond retirement levies, may also be submitted to the voters at any general or special election.

Sec. 8. Section 13, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 83, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.68.520 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A park and recreation service area shall (not have power to levy an annual authorized levy, but it shall) have the power to levy (a tax) an annual excess levy upon the property included within the service area if authorized at a special election called for the purpose in the manner prescribed by section 2. Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052. (The special voted) This excess levy may be either for operating fund or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund.

(2) A service area may issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of dollar rate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution and RCW 84.52.056; PROVIDED, That such districts may issue bonds equal to two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when such bonds are approved by the voters of the district at a special election called for the
Such bonds may be in any form, including coupon bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 36.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A park and recreation service area may impose regular property tax levies in an amount equal to fifteen cents or less per thousand dollars of assessed value of property in the service area in each year for six consecutive years when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the voters thereof approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed initial levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve-month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of the service area, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percent of the total votes cast in the service area at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty percent of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition if the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per cent of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. A proposition authorizing such tax levies shall not be submitted by a park and recreation district more than twice in any twelve-month period. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this act. If a park and recreation service area is levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts result in taxes in excess of the nine-dollar and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the park and recreation service area property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 271, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 is repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All conservation futures on agricultural lands acquired pursuant to RCW 64.04.130 or 84.34.200 through 84.34.240, that are held by any nonprofit corporation or association, the primary purpose of which is conserving agricultural lands and preventing the conversion of such lands to nonagricultural uses, shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation if:

1. The conservation futures are of an unlimited duration;

2. The conservation futures are effectively restricted to preclude nonagricultural uses on such agricultural land; and

3. The lands are classified as farm and agricultural lands under chapter 84.34 RCW; PROVIDED, That at such time as these property interests are not used for the purposes enumerated in RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 the additional tax specified in RCW 84.34.108(3) shall be imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 1 of this act applies to taxes payable in 1985 and thereafter.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "taxation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 84.56.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.56.020; amending section 13, chapter 22, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.38.130; amending section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.069; amending section 18, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.69.145; amending section 9, chapter 218. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 210. Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.480; amending section 13, chapter 218. Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 83, chapter 167. Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.68.520; adding a new section to chapter 29.30 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.68 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 84.36 RCW; creating new sections; and repealing section 271, chapter 167, Laws of 1983."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 16, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3181 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 20, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 215, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) When a mental health professional designated by the county receives information alleging that a person, as a result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, such mental health professional, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged, and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons, if any, providing information to initiate detention, may ((summons such person to appear at an evaluation and treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period, the summons shall state whether the required seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment services may be delivered on an outpatient or inpatient basis. The mental health professional shall also designate, at the time of the summons, from a list provided by the court, an attorney who will be appointed, if any, to be appointed, and state the name, business address, and telephone number of this attorney in the summons)), if satisfied that the allegations are true and that the person will not voluntarily seek appropriate treatment, file a petition for initial detention. Before filing the petition, the county designated mental health professional must personally interview the person, unless the person refuses an interview, and determine whether the person will voluntarily receive appropriate evaluation and treatment at an evaluation and treatment facility.

(b) ((The summons shall state a date and time to appear not less than twenty-four hours after the service of the summons. The summons)) Whenever it appears, by petition for initial detention, to the satisfaction of a judge of the superior court that a person presents, as a result of a mental disorder, a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself, or is gravely disabled, and that the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate evaluation and treatment voluntarily, the judge may issue an order requiring the person to appear not less than twenty-four hours after service of the order at a designated evaluation and treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period. The order shall state the address of the evaluation and treatment facility to which the person is to report and whether the required seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment services may be delivered on an outpatient or inpatient basis and that if the person named in the order fails to appear at the evaluation and treatment facility at or before the date and time stated in the order, such person may be involuntarily taken into custody ((--Accompanying the summons to such person shall be a copy of the petition for initial detention and a notice of rights)) for evaluation and treatment. The order shall also designate retained counsel or, if counsel is appointed from a list provided by the court, the name, business address, and telephone number of the attorney appointed to represent the person.

(c) ((If such mental health professional decides to summon such person for up to a seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment period, the mental health professional must file in court the summons, the petition for initial detention, and all documentary evidence.)) The mental health professional shall then serve or cause to be served on such person, his guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the order to appear together with a notice of rights and a petition for initial detention. After service on such person the mental health professional shall file the return of service in court and provide copies of all papers in the court file to the evaluation and treatment facility and the designated attorney. The mental health professional shall notify the court and the prosecuting attorney that a probable cause hearing will be held within seventy-two hours of the date and time specified on the summons if such person is not releas(0) prior to the expiration of such period)) of outpatient evaluation or admission to the evaluation and treatment facility. The person shall be permitted to remain in his home or other place of his choosing prior to the time of evaluation and shall be permitted to be accompanied by one or more of his relatives, friends, an attorney, a personal physician, or other professional or religious advisor to the place of evaluation and, with the permission of the evaluation and treatment facility, the individual or individuals who accompany him may be present during the admission evaluation.

(d) If the person ((summoned)) ordered to appear does appear on or before the date and time specified, the evaluation and treatment facility may admit such person as required by RCW 71.05.170 or may provide treatment on an outpatient basis. If the person ((summoned)) ordered to appear fails to appear on or before the date and time specified, the evaluation and treatment facility shall immediately notify the mental health professional designated by the county who may notify a peace officer to take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility. Should the mental health professional notify a peace officer authorizing him to take a person into custody under the provisions of this subsection, he shall file with the court a copy of such authorization and a notice of detention. At the time such person is taken into custody there shall commence to be served on such person, his guardian, and conservator, if any, a copy of the original ((summoned)) order together with a notice of detention, a notice of rights, and a petition for initial detention.

2) When a mental health professional designated by the county receives information alleging that a person, as the result of a mental disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing the information if any, the mental health professional may take such person, or cause by oral or written order such person to be taken into emergency custody in an evaluation and treatment facility for not more than seventy-two hours as described in RCW 71.05.180.

3) A peace officer may take such person or cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation and treatment facility pursuant to subsection (1)(d) of this section.

4) A peace officer may, without prior notice of the proceedings provided for in subsection (1) of this section, take or cause such person to be taken into custody and immediately delivered to an evaluation and treatment facility:

(a) Only pursuant to subsections (1)(d) and (2) of this section, or

(b) When he has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a mental disorder and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled.

5) Persons delivered to evaluation and treatment facilities by peace officers pursuant to subsection (4)(b) of this section may be held by the facility for a period of up to twelve hours: PROVIDED, That they are examined by a mental health professional within three hours of their arrival. Within twelve hours of their arrival the designated county mental health professional must file a supplemental petition for detention, and commence service on the designated attorney for the detained person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3181.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, I am concerned with the fact that the facility—that is according to the House amendment—the facility doing the evaluation can deny the parent or legal representative or anybody from coming in to where they’re doing the evaluation. That’s like it was in the old days. They used to take you in and dope you up and evaluate you. Of course, you were nutty as a fruitcake after they got through with you—and and we stopped that. Now, this would indicate that you’re going back to that. I would think that the facility doing the evaluation—of course, they may consent, but if they say ‘no,’ it doesn’t do much good if you’re protecting the person involved or representing them to be outside the door. Those doors are pretty solid. That’s my concern."

Senator Talmadge: "The concern, as I understand it, Senator Rasmussen, that was expressed over on the House side was with the language of having a person actually present at the evaluation. The language that remains in the bill is contained on page 4, lines 25 through 38 of the amendment—that permits the person to remain in his or her own home until such time as the evaluation is to take place and also permits the person to bring any of the following people: relatives, friends, an attorney, personal physician and other professional religious advisor to the place of evaluation. With the permission of the evaluation treatment facility, those individuals may, in fact, accompany that individual into the examination, if that's appropriate. The difficulty is, and I think probably Doctors McDermott and Haley can speak to it, of having people present—actually at the evaluation when an evaluation is occurring—those people can accompany the individual. The protections, I think, in the bill are sufficient to guarantee and safeguard the individual's rights, but they might be disruptive of the therapeutic process to have someone actually present during the evaluation by the professional.

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, my concern is that the therapeutic process doesn't happen until after you have the evaluation. I would be glad to have the doctors thoughts on it because my concern is what goes on behind that green door when I'm on the other side and I can't hear the questions that are asked when the general evaluation is going on. Now, that has happened in the past and we had corrective legislation—now it would appear that the facility may not grant the permission for a representative and I would like to hear from a doctor or somebody on it."

Senator Talmadge: "Well, Mr. President, it if I could respond to Senator Rasmussen's comment. It is not the law, now, that a person may be present in the evaluation process, there actually in the therapeutic evaluation now. The fact that you can have the individual there in the evaluation facility, and upon the consent of the people of the evaluation facility, be present in the examining room, is a departure from present law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, did the original form of the bill, as it originally passed the Senate and went over to the House, allow a friend or other professional at the request of the person being detained to be there in the examining room, itself?"

Senator Talmadge: "As I understand it, Senator, yes it did."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3181.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the Senate did not concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3181.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 23, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3238 with the following amendment:

On page 5, after line 4 insert the following new sections:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 43.63A RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall establish a community development finance program. Pursuant to this program, the department shall: (1) develop expertise in federal, state, and local community and economic development programs; (2) assist communities and businesses to secure available financing; and (3) work closely with the department of commerce and economic development on financial and technical assistance programs available to small and medium sized businesses. To the extent permitted by federal law, the department is encouraged to use federal community block grant funds to make urban development action grants to communities which have not been eligible to receive such grants prior to the effective date of this 1984 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 43.63A RCW a new section to read as follows: The department shall develop and administer a local development matching fund program. To be eligible to receive funds under this program, an organization must be a local government or a nonprofit local development entity. Any local government or entity requesting... funds must demonstrate the participation of a cross-section of the local community in the economic development project, including business, labor, education and training, and the public sector. Under this program, the department shall provide matching funds which shall be used for the formulation of local economic development strategies, including the technical analysis necessary to designate and carry out the strategies. A technical analysis can include, but is not limited to, the development and dissemination of data on local markets, demographics, comparative business costs, site availability, labor force characteristics, and local incentives. Funds are to be used primarily to foster new developments and expansions which result in the trading of goods and services outside of the state's borders. Funds may be made available for assisting local businesses in utilizing state and federal programs in exporting, training, and financing. Funds may also be used to provide technical assistance to businesses in the areas of land use, transportation, site location, and manpower training. Matching funds cannot be used for entertainment, capital expenses, hosting, or marketing. Funds granted for economic development projects must be matched by local resources on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Not more than fifty thousand dollars of state matching funds as provided by this section may be used for any one project.

The department shall report annually on December 31 to the governor and the legislature on funds expended and projects developed using matching funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 43.63A RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall assist in the fostering of local community and economic development strategies which facilitate effective partnerships between the public and private sectors.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 16, 1984

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3262 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 84.12.230. chapter 15. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 161, chapter 278. Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.12.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Each company doing business in this state shall annually on or before the 15th day of March, make and file with the department of revenue an annual report, in such manner, upon such form, and giving such information as the department may direct; PROVIDED, That the department, upon written request filed on or before such date and for good cause shown therein, may allow an extension of time for filing not to exceed sixty days. At the time of making such report each company shall also be required to furnish to the department the annual reports of the board of directors, or other officers to the stockholders of the company, duplicate copies of the annual reports made to the interstate commerce commission and to the utilities and transportation commission of this state and duplicate copies of such other reports as the
The superior court shall have jurisdiction to hear any such petition and to enter such order as it shall deem proper in the premises.

Department may direct: PROVIDED, That the duplicate copies of these annual reports shall not be due until such time as they are due to the stockholders or commissioners.

Sec. 2. Section 84.12.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 164, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.12.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If any company shall fail to materially comply with the provisions of RCW 84.12.230, the department shall add to the value of such company, as a penalty for such failure, five percent for every thirty days or fraction thereof, not to exceed ten percent, that the company fails to comply.

(2) If any company, or any of its officers or agents shall refuse or neglect to make any report required by this chapter, or by the department of revenue, or shall refuse to permit an inspection and examination of its records, books, accounts, papers or property requested by the department of revenue, or shall refuse or neglect to appear before the department in obedience to a summons, the department shall inform itself the best it may of the matters to be known, in order to discharge its duties with respect to valuation and assessment of the property of such company, and the department shall add to the value so ascertained twenty-five percent as a penalty for such failure or refusal and such company shall be estopped to question or impeach the assessment of the department in any hearing or proceeding thereat. Such penalty shall be in lieu of the penalty provided for in subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 84.16.036, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 178, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.16.036 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If any company shall fail to comply with the provisions of RCW 84.16.020, the department shall add to the value of such company, as a penalty for such failure, five percent for every thirty days or fraction thereof, not to exceed ten percent, that the company fails to comply.

(2) If any company, or its officer or agent, shall refuse or neglect to make any report required by this chapter, or by the department of revenue, or shall refuse or neglect to permit an inspection and examination of its records, books, accounts, papers or property requested by the department of revenue, or shall refuse or neglect to appear before the department in obedience to a summons, the department shall inform itself the best it may of the matters to be known, in order to discharge its duties with respect to valuation and assessment of the property of such company; and the department shall add to the value so ascertained twenty-five percent as a penalty for the failure or refusal of such company to make its report and such company shall be estopped to question or impeach the assessment of the department of revenue in any hearing or proceeding thereat. Such penalty shall be in lieu of the penalty provided for in subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 17, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.48.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Within three days after the record of the proceedings of the state board of equalization is certified by the director of the department, the department shall transmit to each county assessor a copy of the record of the proceedings of the board, specifying the amount to be levied and collected on said assessment books for state purposes for such year, and in addition thereto it shall certify to each county assessor the amount due to each state fund and unpaid from such county for the seventh preceding year, and such delinquent state taxes shall be added to the amount levied for the current year. The department shall close the account of each county for the seventh preceding year and charge the amount of such delinquency to the tax levy of the current year. All taxes collected on and after the first day of July last preceding such certificate, on account of delinquent state taxes for the seventh preceding year shall belong to the county and by the county treasurer be credited to the current expense fund of the county in which collected.

For taxes due in 1985, the department shall add the delinquent taxes for the fifth, sixth, and seventh preceding year to the taxes due, and beginning with taxes due in 1986, the department shall add only the delinquent taxes for the fifth preceding year to the amount of taxes due each year.

Sec. 5. Section 84.56.270, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.56.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer of any county of the state of Washington, after he has first received the approval of the board of county commissioners of such county, through a resolution duly adopted, is hereby empowered to petition the superior court in or for his county to finally cancel and completely extinguish the lien of any delinquent personal property tax which appears on the tax rolls of his county, which is more than (five) five years delinquent, which he attests to be beyond hope of collection, and the cancellation of which will not impair the obligation of any bond issue nor be precluded by any other legal impediment that might invalidate such cancellation. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to hear any such petition and to enter such order as it shall deem proper in the premises."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate did not concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3429 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 16, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3437 with the following amendment:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that a growing number of unfounded lawsuits, claims, and liens are filed against law enforcement officers, prosecuting authorities, and judges, and against their property, having the purpose and effect of deterring those officers in the exercise of their discretion and inhibiting the performance of their public duties.

The legislature also finds that the cost of defending against such unfounded suits, claims and liens is severely burdensome to such officers, and also to the state and the various cities and counties of the state. The purpose of section 2 of this 1984 act is to provide a remedy to those public officers and to the public.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.350 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) In any action for damages, whether based on tort or contract or otherwise, a claim or counterclaim for damages may be litigated in the principal action for malicious prosecution on the ground that the action was instituted with knowledge that the same was false, and unfounded, malicious and without probable cause in the filing of such action, or that the same was filed as a part of a conspiracy to misuse judicial process by filing an action known to be false and unfounded.

(2) In any action, claim or counterclaim brought by a judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer for malicious prosecution arising out of the performance or purported performance of the public duty of such officer, an arrest or seizure of property need not be an element of the claim, nor do special damages need to be proved. A judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer prevailing in such an action may be allowed an amount up to one thousand dollars as liquidated damages, together with a reasonable attorneys' fee, and other costs of suit. A government entity which has provided legal services to the prevailing judicial officer, prosecuting authority, or law enforcement officer has reimbursement rights to any award for reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs, but shall have no such rights to any liquidated damages allowed.

(3) No action may be brought against an attorney under this section solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) "Judicial officer" means a justice, judge, magistrate, or other judicial officer of the state or a city, town, or county.

(b) "Prosecuting authority" means any officer or employee of the state or a city, town, or county who is authorized by law to initiate a criminal or civil proceeding on behalf of the public.

(c) "Law enforcement officer" means a member of the state patrol, a sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a member of the police force of a city, town, university, or state college, or a "wildlife agent" or "ex officio wildlife agent" as defined in RCW 77.08.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The provisions of section 2 of this 1984 act are remedial and shall be liberally construed.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, I'm wondering about subsection 3—'no action may be brought against an attorney under this section solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit.' Your part on the offices and things like that—if I feel my attorneys do not properly represent me, that's always open to question and is subject to suit. This would say that I can't sue my attorneys.

Senator Talmadge: 'Senator, if you look at the original bill, as it passed the Senate, it contained the very same provision. What this is designed to do is to prevent an ever escalating round of counterclaims for malicious prosecution against the attorneys who would bring the action. This is designed to say that where the judge, the prosecutor, or the police officer was filing the action for malicious prosecution, they would be filing this counterclaim against the other party who initiated the lawsuit and not against the attorney for that party who was representing the party in the bringing of the lawsuit.

'The theory is that the lawyer is the agent for the party who is bringing the lawsuit and if it's malicious and harassing, it's the intention of that person to be malicious and harassing and not the attorney.'

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, my understanding is that the attorney is only doing what his client wants him to do and he doesn't get blamed in that respect, even if it does go to trial."

Senator Talmadge: "That's right. Senator, I would also point out that if the lawyer is the one that is bringing a malicious and harassing lawsuit that has no foundation in the law, that the attorney would be subject to discipline by the Bar Association, because attorneys are proscribed from bringing lawsuits without merit in the course of their practice."
The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 41; nays, 06; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluecheil, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goitz, Granlund, Guess, Hately, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCasin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Melcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Woody, Zimmerman - 41.

Voting nay: Senators Hansen, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, von Reichbauer - 6.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3437, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 17, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3449 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 8, after "(1)" strike all material through "herself," on line 9
On page 1, line 13, after "congress." insert "Statements referring to an opponent are prohibited."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the Senate considered the House amendments separately.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the Senate concurred in the first House amendment on page 1, beginning on line 8, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

MOTION

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the second House amendment on page 1, line 13, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of order. The second amendment clearly expands the scope and object of the bill and I would like you to so rule. The basic bill before us, without the House amendment, is a nice little bill that makes some grammatical changes. As you can see, we changed a 'which' to a 'that' and a 'nor shall any' to a 'no.' Those are all nice grammatical changes, whereas the House amendment adds a major philosophical addition to the bill. The House amendment on page 1, line 13, states that statements are prohibited in the voters' pamphlet against your opponent. In other words, if your opponent is a dirty, rotten SOB, you can't say so and that's a restriction of freedom, and that's a major philosophical addition to this nice little bill that makes some grammatical changes in the bill.

"Now, the President might or someone might note that the original bill did have, in there, the third sentence which says, 'the candidates' pamphlet shall be limited to those about the candidate himself, but we just took that out—that has been stricken from the bill. The President has forever ruled, in this body, that when you raise scope and object, you raise it on the language that’s before you, at that time, and not on the language that previously existed and since we concurred with the first amendment, we have taken that language out. Therefore, that language is not in there and the only language remaining in the bill is a nice little grammatical update and I think those grammatical changes are good changes and I think they should be adopted. However, the second amendment is a major deviation from those nice little grammatical changes and, therefore, it clearly expands the scope and object of the bill.

"I would conclude by reminding that prior precedent in this body is that scope and object is applied solely to the language that’s before us, and not to any language that might have existed in the past."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 was deferred.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Kiskaddon was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 24, 1984

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3561, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechei, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warken, Williams, Woody, Zimmerman – 45.

Absent: Senator Sellar – 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3561, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 and the pending second House amendment on page 1, line 13, deferred earlier today.
President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raise by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 is a measure which deals with the subject of the candidates' pamphlet.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives also deals with the subject of the candidates' pamphlet. The amendment merely phrases, in a different way, the requirement that the statements in the pamphlet are limited to those pertaining to the candidate.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The second House amendment was ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Warnke to concur in the second House amendment on page 1, line 13, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on concurring with the second House amendment on page 1, line 13, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Warnke carried and the Senate concurred in the second House amendment on page 1, line 13, by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 19; absent, 00; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Woody – 27.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Pullen served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which the Senate concurred in the first House amendment on page 1, line 8, to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 was deferred.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 151. Laws of 1979 and RCW 3.30.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used ((herein)) in this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

"City" means an incorporated city or town.

"Department" means ((the designation of)) an administrative unit of a ((justice)) district court established for the orderly and efficient administration of ((justice-court)) business and may include, without being limited in scope thereby, a unit or units for determining ((one or more of the following)) traffic cases, violations of city ordinances, violations of state law, criminal cases, civil cases, or jury cases.

"Population" means the latest population of the judicial district of each county as estimated and certified by the office of financial management. The office of financial management, on or before May 1, 1970 and on or before May 1st each four years thereafter, shall estimate and certify to the ((board of county commissioners)) county legislative authority the population of each judicial district of each county.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 73. Laws of 1971 and RCW 3.30.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The judges ((of the justice court)) of each ((justice)) district court district shall be the justices of the peace of the district elected or appointed as provided in chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW. Such courts shall alternately be referred to as district courts and the judges thereof as district judges.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.30.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((justice)) district courts shall be open except on nonjudicial days. Sessions of the court shall be held at such places as shall be provided by the ((justice)) district court districting plan. The court shall sit as often as business requires in each city of the ((justice-court)) district which provides suitable courtroom facilities, to hear causes in which such city is the plaintiff.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2. chapter 73. Laws of 1971 and RCW 3.30.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Each ((judge is authorized to organize his court not inconsistent)) court may be organized in a manner consistent with the departments created by the districting plan.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.30.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The supreme court may adopt rules of procedure for ((justice)) district courts((Provided That the justice courts)). A district court may adopt local rules of procedure which are not inconsistent with state law or with the rules adopted by the supreme court. If the rules of the supreme court ((therein)) authorized ((shall be)) under this section are adopted, all procedural laws in conflict ((therewith)) with the rules shall ((hereafter)) be of no effect.

Sec. 8. Section 11, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 29. Laws of 1982 and RCW 3.34.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In each ((justice-court)) district having a population of forty thousand or more but less than sixty thousand, there shall be elected one full time justice of the peace; in each ((justice-court)) district having a population of sixty thousand but less than one hundred twenty-five thousand, there shall be elected two full time justices; in each ((justice-court)) district having a population of one hundred twenty-five thousand but less than two hundred thousand, there shall be elected three full time justices; and in each ((justice-court)) district having a population of two hundred thousand or more there shall be elected one additional full time justice for each additional one hundred thousand persons or fraction thereof((Provided That)) if a ((justice-court)) district having one or more full time justices should change in population, for reasons other than change in district boundaries, sufficiently to require a change in the number of judges previously authorized to it, the change shall be made by the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority without regard to RCW 3.34.010 as now or hereafter amended and shall become effective on the second Monday of January of the year following((Provided Further That)). Upon any redistricting of the county thereafter ((RCW 3.34.010 as now or hereafter amended shall again designate)) the number of justices in the county((Provided That)) shall be designated under RCW 3.34.010. In a ((justice-court)) district having a population of one hundred twenty thousand people or more adjoining a metropolitan county of another state which has a population in excess of five hundred thousand, there shall be one full time justice in addition to the number otherwise allowed by this section and without regard to RCW 3.34-030 or resolution of the county ((commissioners-PROVIDED FURTHER That)) legislative authority. The county ((commissioners)) legislative authority may by resolution make a part time position a full time office(:\-PROVIDED FURTHER That)) The county ((commissioners)) legislative authority may by resolution provide for the election of one full time justice in addition to the number of full time justices authorized ((hereinbefore)).

Sec. 9. Section 12, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 66. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.34.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the limitations of RCW 3.34.010 and 3.34.020 in any district having more than one justice of the peace, if any city or town elects to select under the provisions of chapter 3.50 RCW a person other than a justice of the peace to serve as municipal judge, the the (board of) county ((commissioners)) legislative authority may reduce the number of justices of the peace required for the county and district by one for each one hundred and fifty thousand persons or fraction thereof residing in all such municipalities, selecting to serve as a municipal judge who is not also a justice of the peace: PROVIDED. That in no case shall the number of justices of the peace in any county be less than one for each one hundred thousand persons or major fraction thereof in such county, nor shall the number of justices of the peace in any district be less than one for each one hundred and fifty thousand persons or major fraction thereof.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 195. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.34.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((Justices of the peace)) A district judge serving a district(s) having a population of forty thousand or more persons, and ((justices)) a district judge receiving a salary greater than the maximum salary provided in RCW 3.58.020(1) x 6 ((for serving as a justice,)) shall be deemed full time ((justices)) judges and shall devote all of their time to the office and shall not engage in the practice of law. Other ((justices)) judges shall devote sufficient time to the office to properly fulfill the duties thereof and may engage in other occupations ((but such justice shall not use the office or supplies furnished by the judicial district for his private business)) but shall maintain a separate office for (his) private business (here) and shall (the) not use for private business the services of any clerk or secretary paid for by the county ((for his private business)) or office space or supplies furnished by the judicial district.

Sec. 11. Section 14, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 8, chapter 120. Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 3.34.050 are each amended to read as follows:

At the general election in November, 1962 and quadrennially thereafter, there shall be elected by the voters of each ((justice)) district court district the number of ((justices of the peace)) judges authorized for (each) the district by the ((justice)) district court districting plan. ((Justices of the peace)) Judges shall be elected for each district by the qualified electors of the ((justices of the peace)) district in the same manner as judges of courts of record are elected. Not less than ten days before the time for filing declarations of candidacy for the election of ((justices of the peace)) judges, the county auditor shall designate each such office of ((justice of the peace)) district judge to be filled by a number, commencing with the number one and numbering the remaining offices consecutively. ((Each candidate)) At the time of the filing of (this) the declaration of candidacy, each candidate shall designate by number which one, and only one, of the numbered offices for which he or she is a candidate and the name of (each) the candidate shall appear on the ballot for only the numbered office for which the candidate filed (this) a declaration of candidacy.

Sec. 12. Section 15, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.060 are each amended to read as follows:

To be eligible to file a declaration of candidacy for and to serve as a ((justice of the peace)) district court judge, a person must:

(1) Be a registered voter of the ((justice)) district court district; and
(2) Be either:
(a) A lawyer admitted to practice law in the state of Washington; or
(b) A person who has been elected and has served as a justice of the peace, district judge, municipal judge, or police judge in Washington; or
(c) In those districts having a population of less than ten thousand persons, a person who has taken and passed (each) the qualifying examination for the office of ((justice of the peace)) district judge as shall be provided by rule of the supreme court.

Sec. 13. Section 16, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Every ((justice of the peace)) district judge shall hold office for a term of four years and after the second Monday in January next succeeding his or her selection and continuing until (this) a successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 14. Section 17, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Each ((justice of the peace, justice of the peace)) district judge, district judge pro tempore and ((justice)) district court commissioner shall, before entering upon the duties of (each) office, take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, and to perform the duties of the office faithfully and impartially and to the best of his or her ability.

Sec. 15. Section 18, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 73. Laws of 1971 and RCW 3.34.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The county ((commissioners)) legislative authority shall provide for the bonding of each district judge, ((justice of the peace, justice of the peace)) district judge pro tempore, ((justice)) district court commissioner, clerk of the district court, and court employee, at the expense of the county, in such amount as the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority shall prescribe, conditioned that each such person will pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into ((this hands)) the person's custody in cases tried in ((this)) the district court. Such bond shall not be less than the maximum amount of money liable to be under the control, at any one time, of each such person in the performance of his or her duties. Such bond may be a blanket bond. If the county obtains errors and omissions insurance covering district court personnel, the costs of such coverage shall be a reimbursable expense pursuant to RCW 3.62.050 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 16. Section 19, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If ((any justice)) a district judge dies, resigns, is convicted of a felony, ((or)) ceases to reside in the district ((there)) to serve for any reason except temporary disability, or if his or her term of office is terminated in any other manner, the office shall be deemed vacant. The ((board of county commissioners)) county legislative authority shall fill all vacancies by appointment and the ((justice)) judge thus appointed shall hold office until the next general election and until ((this)) a successor is elected and qualified. ((Justices of peace)) District judges shall be granted sick leave in the same manner as other county employees.

Sec. 17. Section 20, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A ((justice of the peace)) district judge shall not act as judge in any of the following cases:

(1) In an action to which ((the)) the judge is a party, or in which ((the)) the judge is directly interested, or in which ((the)) the judge has been an attorney for a party.

(2) When ((the)) the judge or one of the parties believes that the parties cannot have an impartial trial before ((him, PROVIDED that)) the judge. Only one change of judges shall be allowed each party under this subsection.

When a ((justice)) judge is disqualified under this section, the case shall be heard before another ((justice)) judge or ((justice)) judge pro tempore of the same county.

Sec. 18. Section 21, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.120 are each amended to read as follows:

((If a justice of the peace be a lawyer, his)) The partner and associates of a judge who is a lawyer shall not practice law before ((him)) the judge.

Sec. 19. Section 22, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 195, Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each ((justice)) district court shall designate one or more ((justices of the peace)) persons as judge pro tempore who shall serve during the temporary absence, disqualification, or incapacity of a ((justice of the peace)) district judge. The qualifications of a ((justice of the peace)) judge pro tempore shall be the same as for a ((justice of the)) district judge, except that with respect to RCW 3.34.060(1), the person appointed need only be a registered voter of the (county in which the justice court district or portion thereof is located) state. A ((justice of the peace)) judge pro tempore may sit in any district of the county for which he or she is appointed. A ((justice of the peace)) judge pro tempore shall be paid for each day he or she holds a session one-two hundred fiftieth of the annual salary of a full time ((justice of the)) district judge. For each day that a ((justice of the peace)) judge pro tempore serves in excess of thirty days during any calendar year, the annual salary of the ((justice of the peace)) judge in whose place he or she serves shall be reduced by an amount equal to one-two hundred fiftieth of such salary: PROVIDED, That each full time ((justice of the peace)) district judge shall have up to fifteen days annual leave without reduction for service on judicial commissions established by the legislature or the chief justice of the supreme court. No reduction in salary shall occur when a judge pro tempore serves while a district judge is using sick leave granted in accordance with RCW 3.34.100.

(2) The legislature may appropriate money from the judiciary education account to the administrator for the courts pursuant to RCW 2.56.100 for the purpose of reimbursing counties for the salaries of ((justices of the peace)) judges pro tempore for certain days in excess of thirty worked per year the ((justice of the peace)) judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service by a ((justice of the peace)) judge on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. No later than September 1 of each year, each county treasurer shall certify to the administrator for the courts for the year ending the preceding June 30, the number of days in excess of thirty that any ((justice of the peace)) judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service by a (justice of the peace) judge on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. Upon receipt of the certification, the administrator for the courts shall reimburse the county from money appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 20. Section 23, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 186. Laws of 1981] and RCW 3.34.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (justice of the peace) district judge may hold a session in any (justice court) district in the state, at the request of the (justice) judge or majority of the (justice) judges in (such) the district if the visiting (justice of the peace) judge determines that the state of (justice court) business in his or her district (will permit him to be absent: PROVIDED, That) allows the judge to be absent. The (board of county commissioners of the) county legislative authority in which (such justice) the district court is located shall first approve (such) the temporary absence and (no justice of the peace) the judge pro tempore shall not be required to serve during (this) the judge's absence. A visiting (justice) judge shall be entitled to reimbursement for subsistence, lodging, and travel expenses in accordance with the rates applicable to state officers under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended while so acting, to be paid by the visiting district((: PROVIDED. That no such)). These expenses shall not be paid to the visiting (justice) judge unless the (county commissioners) legislative authority of the county in which the visited district is located ((shall have consented and)) has approved ((thereto prior to such)) the payment before the visit.

Sec. 21. Section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(Whereas justice court) If a district has more than one (justice) judge, the supreme court may by rule provide for the manner of selection of one of the (justice) judges to serve as presiding judge and prescribe (his) the presiding judge's duties.

Sec. 22. Section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.38.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established in each county a (justice) district court districting committee composed of the following:

(1) The judge of the superior court, or, if there be more than one such judge, then one of the judges selected by that court;
(2) The prosecuting attorney, or a deputy selected by (him) the prosecuting attorney;
(3) A practicing lawyer of the county selected by the president of the largest local bar association. If there be one, and if not, then by the county (commissioners) legislative authority;
(4) A judge of (an interior court of) a court of limited jurisdiction in the county selected by the president of the Washington state magistrates' association; and
(5) The mayor, or (his) representative appointed by the mayor, of each first, second, and third class city of the county;
(6) One person to represent the fourth class cities of the county, if any, to be designated by the president of the association of Washington cities: PROVIDED, That if there should be neither a first class nor a second class city within the county, the mayor, or (his) the mayor's representative, of each fourth class city shall be a member;
(7) The chairman of the (board of county commissioners) county legislative authority; and
(8) The county auditor.

Sec. 23. Section 26, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 110. Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 3.38.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The boundaries of each (justice court) district proposed to be established;
(2) The number of (justice) judges to be elected in each (justice court) district;
(3) The location of the central office, courtrooms and records of each court;
(4) The other places in the (justice court) district. If any, where the court shall sit;
(5) The number and location of (justice) district court commissioners to be authorized, if any;
(6) The departments, if any, into which each (justice) district court shall be initially organized, including municipal departments provided for in chapter 3.46 RCW;
(7) The name of each (justice court) district; and
(8) The allocation of the time and allocation of salary of each (justice) judge who will serve part time in a municipal department.

(Not later than three months after the classification of the county as class A or the adoption of the elective resolution by the county commissioners, the plan shall be transmitted to the county commissioners.)
Sec. 24. Section 1, chapter 213, Laws of 1963 and RCW 3.38.022 are each amended to read as follows:

The districting plan may provide that the offices and courtrooms of more than one ((justice court)) district may be in the same building: PROVIDED, That no office or courtroom of any district shall be located further than two miles outside the boundary of the district which it serves.

Sec. 25. Section 27, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 110. Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 3.38.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of the ((justice court)) districting plan, the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority shall hold a public hearing, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 36.32.120(7), as now or hereafter amended. At the hearing, anyone interested in the plan may attend and be heard as to the convenience which will be afforded to the public by the plan, and as to any other matters pertaining thereto. If the ((commissioners)) county legislative authority finds that the plan proposed by the districting committee conforms to the standards set forth in chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW and is conducive to the best interests and welfare of the county((such)) as a whole it may adopt such plan. If the ((commissioners)) county legislative authority finds that ((each)) the plan does not conform to the standards as provided in chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, ((they)) the county legislative authority may modify, revise or amend the plan and adopt such amended or revised plan as the county's ((justice)) district court districting plan. The plan decided upon shall be adopted by the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority not later than six months after the classification of the county as class A or the adoption of the elective resolution.

Sec. 26. Section 3, chapter 110. Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 3.38.031 are each amended to read as follows:

As a part of the ((justice court)) districting plan, the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority shall designate a date on which the terms of the ((justices of the peace)) district judges of the county shall end.

For each ((justice)) judicial position under the districting plan, the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority shall appoint a person qualified under RCW 3.34.060 who shall take office on the date designated by the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority and shall serve until the next quadrennial election of ((justices of the peace)) district judges as provided in RCW 3.34.050.

Pending cases, proceedings, and matters shall be transferred to the appropriate court as provided in RCW 3.74.900.

Sec. 27. Section 28, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 66, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.38.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The districting committee may meet for the purpose of amending the districting plan at any time on call of the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority, the ((chairman)) chairperson of the committee or a majority of its members. Amendments to the plan shall be submitted to the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority not later than March 15th of each year for adoption by the ((commissioners)) county legislative authority following the same procedure as with the original districting plan. Amendments shall be adopted not later than May 1st following submission by the districting committee. Any ((such)) amendment which would reduce the salary or shorten the term of any judge shall not be effective until the next regular election for ((justice of the peace)) district judge. All other amendments may be effective on a date set by the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority.

Sec. 28. Section 29, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.38.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((Justice)) District court districts shall be established in accordance with the following standards:

(1) Every part of the county shall be in some ((justice court)) district.
(2) The whole county may constitute one ((justice court)) district.
(3) There shall not be more ((justice court)) districts than there are ((justices of the peace)) judges authorized for the county.
(4) ((No justice court)) A district boundary shall not intersect the boundary of an election precinct.
(5) ((No)) A city shall not lie in more than one ((justice court)) district.
(6) Whenever a county is divided into more than one ((justice court)) district, each district shall be so established as to serve the convenience of the people of ((such)) the district, considering the distances which must be traveled by parties and witnesses in going to and from the court and any natural barriers which may obstruct such travel.

Sec. 29. Section 30, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.38.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Joint ((justice court)) districts may be established containing all or part of two or more counties. The county containing the largest portion of the population of ((such)) a joint district shall be known as the "principal county" and each joint ((justice court)) district shall be deemed to lie within the principal county for the purpose of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW. A joint ((justice court)) district may be established by resolution of one county concurred in by a resolution of each other county: PROVIDED, That the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority of a county containing the largest portion of the population of a city may include the portions of such city lying outside the county in a joint (justice court) district without concurrence of the other counties.

Elections of (justice) judges in joint (justice court) districts shall be conducted and canvassed in the same manner as elections of superior court judges in joint judicial districts.

Sec. 30. Section 31. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 7, chapter 162. Laws of 1980 and RCW 3.42.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When so authorized by the (justice court) districting plan, one or more (justice) district court commissioners may be appointed in any (justice court) district by the (justices of the peace of such) judges of the district. Each commissioner shall be a registered voter of the county in which the (justice court) district or a portion thereof is located, and shall hold office (during) at the pleasure of the (justices of the peace appointing him; PROVIDED, That) appointing judges. Any person appointed as a commissioner authorized to hear or dispose of cases shall be a lawyer who is admitted to the practice of law in the state of Washington or who has passed the qualifying examination for lay (justices of the peace) judges as provided under RCW 3.34.060.

Sec. 31. Section 32. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 16, chapter 136. Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 3.42.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Each (justice) district court commissioner shall have such power, authority, and jurisdiction in criminal and civil matters as the (justices of the peace who appointed him) appointing judges possess and shall prescribe. (Justice court commissioners shall not have power to hear and determine civil matters other than traffic infractions.)

Sec. 32. Section 33. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.42.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any party may have a case transferred from a (justice) district court commissioner to a (justice of the peace) judge of the same district for hearing, by filing a motion for transfer. The commissioner shall forthwith transfer the case to (such justice) the judge.

Sec. 33. Section 34. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 66. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.42.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(Justice) District court commissioners shall receive such compensation as the county (commissioners) legislative authority or city council shall provide.

Sec. 34. Section 98. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 73. Laws of 1971 and RCW 3.54.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The clerk and deputy clerks of district courts shall receive such compensation as shall be provided by the county ((commissioners) legislative authority.

Sec. 35. Section 101. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 29. Laws of 1982 and RCW 3.58.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The annual salaries of part time (justices of the peace) district judges shall be set by the county ((commissioners) legislative authority in each county in accordance with the minimum and maximum salaries provided in this subsection:

(a) In (justice court) districts having a population under two thousand five hundred persons, the salary shall be not less than one thousand five hundred dollars nor more than twelve thousand dollars;

(b) In (justice court) districts having a population of two thousand five hundred persons or more, but less than five thousand, the salary shall be set at not less than one thousand eight hundred dollars nor more than fifteen thousand five hundred dollars;

(c) In (justice court) districts having a population of five thousand persons or more, but less than seven thousand five hundred, the salary shall be set at no less than one thousand eight hundred or more than twenty-five thousand dollars;

(d) In (justice court) districts having a population of seven thousand five hundred persons or more, but less than ten thousand, the salary shall be set at not less than two thousand two hundred fifty dollars or more than thirty thousand dollars;

(e) In (justice court) districts having a population of ten thousand persons or more, but less than twenty thousand, the salary shall be set at no less than three thousand dollars or more than thirty-two thousand dollars;

(f) In (justice court) districts having a population of twenty thousand persons or more, but less than thirty thousand, the salary shall be set at not less than five thousand two hundred fifty dollars or more than forty thousand dollars.

Sec. 36. Section 102. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The compensation of (justices of the peace) judges, clerks, judges pro tempore, deputy clerks, and court commissioners payable by the county shall be paid monthly out of the county treasury from the same funds out of which other salaried county officers are paid.

Sec. 37. Section 103. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 3. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.58.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((Justice of the peace, justices of the peace)) District judges, judges pro tempore, court commissioners, and (justice) district court employees shall receive their reasonable traveling expenses when engaged in the business of the court as provided in chapter 42.24 RCW.
Sec. 38. Section 104, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 213, Laws of 1963 and RCW 3.58.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The county (commissioners) legislative authority shall furnish all necessary facilities for the district courts, including suitable courtrooms, furniture, books, stationery, postage, office equipment, heat, light and telephone and may lease or construct courtrooms and offices for such purpose (provided, that). The county (commissioners) legislative authority shall not be required to furnish courtroom space in any place other than as provided in the districting plan.

Sec. 39. Section 111, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 128, Laws of 1980 and RCW 3.62.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Except in traffic cases wherein bail is forfeited or a monetary penalty paid to a violations bureau, and except in cases filed in municipal departments established pursuant to chapter 3.46 RCW and except in cases where a city has contracted with another city for such services pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW, in every criminal or traffic infraction action filed by a city for an ordinance violation, the city shall be charged a filing fee determined pursuant to an agreement as provided for in chapter 39.34 RCW, the interlocal cooperation act, between the city and the county providing the court service. In such criminal or traffic infraction actions the cost of providing services necessary for the preparation and presentation of a defense at public expense are not within the filing fee and shall be paid by the city. In all other criminal or traffic infraction actions, no filing fee shall be assessed or collected: PROVIDED, That in such cases, for the purposes of RCW 3.62.010, four dollars or the agreed filing fee of each fine or penalty, whichever is greater, shall be deemed filing costs. In the event no agreement is reached between a municipal corporation and the county providing the court service within ninety days of September 1, 1979, the municipal corporation and the county shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration pursuant to chapter 7.04 RCW, and the municipal corporation and the county shall be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration pursuant to chapter 7.04 RCW. In the event that such issue is submitted to arbitration, the arbitrator or arbitrators shall only consider those additional costs borne by the county in providing (district) court services for such city.

Sec. 40. Section 112, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 20, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 3.66.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The justices of the peace elected in accordance with chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW are authorized to hold court as judges of the (district) court for the trial of all actions enumerated in chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW or assigned to the (district) court by law; to hear, try, and determine the same according to the law, and for that purpose where no special provision is otherwise made by law, such court shall be vested with all the necessary powers which are possessed by courts of record in this state; and all laws of a general nature shall apply to such (district) court as far as the same may be applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW. The (district) court shall, upon the demand of either party, impanel a jury to try any civil or criminal case in accordance with the provisions of chapter 12.12 RCW (provided, that the in the trial of actions brought for violating any city ordinance, a jury trial shall be allowed only for criminal offenses involving the revocation or suspension of a driver's license or other gross misdemeanor (provided further, that)). No jury trial may be held in a proceeding involving a traffic infraction.

Sec. 41. Section 113, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 331, Laws of 1981 and RCW 3.66.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The (district) court shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of the following civil actions and proceedings:

1. Of an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only in which the sum claimed does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars;
2. Of an action for damages for injuries to the person, or for taking or detaining personal property, or for injuring personal property, or for an injury to real property when no issue raised by the answer involves the plaintiff's title to or possession of the same, when the amount of damages claimed does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars; also of actions to recover the possession of personal property when the value of such property as alleged in the complaint, does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars;
3. Of an action for a penalty not exceeding ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars;
4. Of an action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money, when the amount claimed does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars, though the penalty of the bond exceeds that sum, the judgment to be given for the sum actually due, not exceeding the amount claimed in the complaint;
5. Of an action on an undertaking or surety bond taken by (him or his predecessor in office) the court, when the amount claimed does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars:
(6) Of an action for damages for fraud in the sale, purchase, or exchange of personal property, when the damages claimed do not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars; and

(7) To take and enter judgment on confession of a defendant, when the amount of the judgment confessed does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars; and

(8) To issue writs of attachment, garnishment and replevin upon goods, chattels, moneys, and effects, when the amount does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars; and

(9) Of all other actions and proceedings of which jurisdiction is specially conferred by statute, when the amount involved does not exceed ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollars and the title to, or right of possession of, or a lien upon real property is not involved.

The ((three thousand)) seven thousand five hundred dollar((s)) amounts provided in subsections (1) through (9) of this section shall remain in effect until June 30. ((Effective July 1, 1985;)) 1985; effective July 1, 1985, such amount shall be increased to ((five)) ten thousand dollars. (Effective July 1, 1985, the amounts shall be increased to seventy-five thousand dollars.))

The amounts of money referred to in this section shall be exclusive of interest, costs and attorney's fees.

Sec. 42. Section 115. chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.66.040 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) An action arising under RCW 3.66.020((; subsections)) (1), (2) except for the recovery of possession of personal property, (4), (6), (7), and (9) may be brought in any ((justice court)) district in which the defendant or, if there be more than one defendant, where some one of the defendants, resides at the time the complaint is filed or in which the defendant, or if there be more than one defendant, where some one of the defendants may be served with the notice and complaint in which latter case, however, the ((justice court)) district where the defendant or defendants is or are served must be within the county in which the said defendant or defendants reside.

(2) An action arising under RCW 3.66.020((; subsection)) (2) for the recovery of possession of personal property and ((subsection)) RCW 3.66.020((8)) shall be brought in the district in which the subject matter of the action or some part thereof is situated.

(3) An action arising under RCW 3.66.020((; subsection)) (3) and (5) shall be brought in the district in which the cause of action, or some part thereof arose.

(4) An action arising under RCW 3.66.020((; subsection)) (2)((c)) for the recovery of damages for injuries to the person or for injury to personal property arising from a motor vehicle accident may be brought, at the plaintiff's option, either in the district in which the cause of action, or some part thereof, arose, or in the district in which the defendant, or, if there be more than one defendant, where some one of the defendants, resides at the time the complaint is filed.

(5) An action against a nonresident of this state may be brought in any district where service of process may be had, or in which the cause of action or some part thereof arose, or in which the plaintiff or one of them resides.

(6) For the purposes of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, the residence of a corporation defendant shall be deemed to be in any district where the corporation transacts business or has an office for the transaction of business or transacted business at the time the cause of action arose or where any person resides upon whom process may be served upon the corporation, unless therein otherwise provided.

Sec. 43. Section 116, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.66.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If a civil action is brought in the wrong ((justice court)) district, the action may nevertheless be tried therein unless the defendant, at the time ((he)) the defendant appears, requests a transfer of the action to the proper district. Upon such demand an order shall be entered transferring the action to the proper district and awarding the defendant a reasonable attorney's fee to be paid by the plaintiff.

Sec. 44. Section 117, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 176, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 3.66.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((justice)) district court shall have jurisdiction: (1) Concurrent with the superior court of all misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors committed in their respective counties and of all violations of city ordinances((; PROVIDED. That)) it shall in no event impose a greater punishment than a fine of ((one)) five thousand dollars, or imprisonment for one year in the county or city jail as the case may be, or both such fine and imprisonment, unless otherwise expressly provided by statute((; and)) it may suspend and revoke vehicle operator((s))' licenses in the cases provided by law; (2) to sit as a committing magistrate((s)) and conduct preliminary hearings in cases provided by law; (3) concurrent with the superior court of a proceeding to keep the peace in their respective counties; (4) concurrent with the superior court of all violations under Title 75 RCW; and (5) to hear and determine traffic infractions under chapter 46.63 RCW.

Sec. 45. Section 7, chapter 110, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1975 and RCW 3.66.065 are each amended to read as follows:
If a defendant is found guilty, a (justice) judge holding office pursuant to chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, or chapter 35.20 RCW, and not the jury, shall assess (fine) punishment, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 10.04.010. If (such justice) the judge determines that the punishment (to be) authorized (to assess) is inadequate compared to the gravity of the offense he or she may order such defendant to enter recognizance to appear in the superior court of the county and may also recognize the witnesses and shall proceed as a committing magistrate.

Sec. 46. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 156. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.66.067 are each amended to read as follows:

After a conviction, the court may defer sentencing the defendant and place (him) the defendant on probation and prescribe the conditions thereof, but in no case shall it extend for more than two years from the date of conviction. During the time of the deferral, the court may, for good cause shown, permit a defendant to withdraw (fine) the plea of guilty (against him) and to enter a plea of not guilty, and the court may dismiss the charges (against him).

Sec. 47. Section 118, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 32, chapter 165. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.66.070 are each amended to read as follows:

All criminal actions shall be brought in the (justice court) district where the alleged violation occurred: PROVIDED, That (1) the prosecuting attorney may file felony cases in the district in which the county seat is located, (2) with the consent of the defendant criminal actions other than those arising out of violations of city ordinances may be brought in or transferred to the district in which the county seat is located, and (3) if the alleged violation relates to driving, or being in actual physical control of, a motor vehicle while intoxicated and the alleged violation occurred within a judicial district which has been designated an enhanced enforcement district under RCW 2.56.110. the charges may be filed in that district or in a district within the same county which is adjacent to the district in which the alleged violation occurred.

Sec. 48. Section 119, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.66.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If a criminal action is commenced in an improper district under RCW 3.66.070, the (justice) court (of the district) may of its own volition or at the request of either party order the case removed for trial to a proper district.

Sec. 49. Section 120. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 241. Laws of 1967 and RCW 3.66.090 are each amended to read as follows:

A change of venue may be allowed upon motion:

(1) Where there is reason to believe that an impartial trial cannot be had in the district or municipal court in which the action was commenced; or

(2) Where the convenience of witnesses or the ends of justice would be forwarded by the change.

When such change is ordered, it shall be to the (justice) district court of another district in the same county, if any, otherwise to the (justice) district court of an adjacent district in another county: PROVIDED, That where an affidavit of prejudice is filed against a judge of a municipal court the cause shall be transferred to another department of the municipal court, if one exists, otherwise to a judge pro tempore appointed in the manner prescribed by law. The court to which a case is removed on change of venue under this section shall have the same jurisdiction, either civil or criminal to hear and determine the case as the court from which the case was removed.

Sec. 50. Section 123. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.70.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established in the state an association, to be known as the Washington state magistrates' association, membership in which shall include all duly elected or appointed and qualified (interior court) judges of courts of limited jurisdiction, including but not limited to (justices of the peace) district judges, police court judges and municipal court judges.

Sec. 51. Section 124, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.70.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The first meeting of the Washington state magistrates' association shall be held at the next regular meeting of the present organization after June 7, 1961 to be held during the month of August or September. 1961, at which meeting those (interior court) judges of courts of limited jurisdiction, as provided in RCW 3.70.010, attending shall temporarily organize themselves for the purpose of adopting a Constitution and bylaws and may either adopt or amend the present Constitution and bylaws of the Washington state magistrates' association or provide for bylaws only, electing officers as provided therein and doing all things necessary and proper to formally establish a permanent Washington state magistrates' association, after which meeting the association may meet each year during the month of August or September, beginning in 1962. Meetings shall be held in the state of Washington.

Sec. 52. Section 125, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.70.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For attendance at the annual meetings of the association, beginning in 1962 and thereafter, (an interior court) a judge of a court of limited jurisdiction shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for judge's reasonable travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and...
3.4:0.0.0.0 from the county or city responsible for the operating cost of the court over which he or she presides ((twenty dollars per day or major portion thereof)) while attending meetings of the association; (c) plus first class transportation or mileage allowance at the rate of ten cents per mile. PROVIDED: That)), The per diem and transportation or mileage allowance authorized by this section shall not be paid to any judge for more than five days in any one calendar year.

Sec. 53. Section 126, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 10, chapter 162.

Laws of 1980 and RCW 3.70.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state magistrates' association shall:

(1) Continuously survey and study the operation of the courts served by its membership, the volume and condition of business of such courts, the methods of procedure therein, the work accomplished, and the character of the results;

(2) Promulgated suggested rules for the administration of the ((justice)) courts of limited jurisdiction not inconsistent with the law or rules of the supreme court relating to such courts;

(3) Report annually to the supreme court as well as the governor and the legislature on the condition of business in the courts of limited jurisdiction, including the association's recommendations as to needed changes in the organization, operation, judicial procedure, and laws or statutes implemented or enforced in these courts.

Sec. 54. Section 130, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.74.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All ((justice-courts)) district judges under chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW shall remain members of the state retirement system.

Sec. 55. Section 131, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.74.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The full time judges of the ((justice)) district court shall be ineligible to any other office, or public employment than a judicial office or employment during the term for which they shall have been elected.

Sec. 56. Section 1, chapter 6. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.74.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A ((justice-court)) district judge shall retire from judicial office at the end of the calendar year in which he or she has attained the age of seventy-five years. This provision shall not affect the term to which any such judge shall have been elected or appointed prior to August 11, 1969.

Sec. 57. Section 1, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as last amended by section 10, chapter 331. Laws of 1981 and RCW 12.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

((That)) In every ((justice)) district court ((of this state)) there shall be created and organized by the court a department to be known as the "small claims department of the ((justice's)) district court". (If the justice court is operating under the provisions of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW)) The small claims department ((of that court)) shall have jurisdiction, but not exclusive, in cases for the recovery of money only ((where)) if the amount claimed does not exceed one thousand dollars. (If the justice court is not operating under the provisions of chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW, the small claims department of that court shall have jurisdiction, but not exclusive, in cases for the recovery of money only where the amount claimed does not exceed five hundred dollars;)

Sec. 58. Section 2, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

((Actions in such)) A small claims ((departments)) action shall be ((deemed)) commenced by the plaintiff ((appearing before the justice of the peace and subscribing to and verifying a claim as hereinafter provided)) filing a claim, in the form prescribed by RCW 12.40.050, in the small claims department. A filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid when the claim is filed.

Sec. 59. Section 2, chapter 83. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 12.40.025 are each amended to read as follows:

A defendant in a ((justice)) district court proceeding ((wherein)) in which the claim is within the jurisdictional amount for the small claims department ((of the justice court)) may in accordance with court rules transfer the action to the small claims department((provided, however, That))), In the event of such a transfer the provisions of RCW 12.40.070 shall not be applicable if the plaintiff was an assignee of the claim at the time the action was commenced nor shall the provisions of RCW 12.40.080 prohibit an attorney from representing the plaintiff if he was the attorney of record for the plaintiff at the time the action was commenced.

Sec. 60. Section 3, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as last amended by section 3, chapter 330. Laws of 1981 and RCW 12.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon filing ((said)) of a claim ((such justice of the peace shall appoint a)), the court shall set a time for ((the)) hearing of ((said)) the matter and ((shall)) cause to be issued a notice of the claim((as hereinafter provided)) which shall be served upon the defendant.

((Said justice of the peace shall collect in advance upon each claim the sum of ten dollars; and this shall be the only fee for such justice of the peace to be charged or taxed against the plaintiff in such action during the pendency or disposition of said claim. PROVIDED: HOWEVER, That when any such "small claims department" shall be created and organized in any justice court as herein provided. In which the justice is not paid a salary, he may be paid as compensation for conducting such department from the county treasury of his county such monthly salary as the county court and commissioners of said county shall deem just and proper.

Sec. 61. Section 4, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as last amended by section 3, chapter 194. Laws of 1981 and RCW 12.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((Said)) The notice of claim can be served either as provided for the service of summons or complaint and notice in civil actions or by registered or certified mail ((provided)) if a return receipt with the signature of the party being served is filed with the court. No other paper is to be served with the notice. The officer serving (such) the notice shall be entitled to receive from the plaintiff, besides mileage, the fee specified in RCW 36.18.040 for such service, which sum, together with the filing fee named in RCW 12.40.030, shall be added to any judgment given for plaintiff.

Sec. 62. Section 5, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((The)) A claim (hereinbefore referred to) filed in the small claims department shall contain: (1) The name and address of the plaintiff (and the name of the defendant, followed by); (2) a statement, in brief and concise form, of the nature and amount of (such) the claim and (the time of the accruing of such claim) when the claim accrued; and (shall also state) (3) the name and residence of the defendant. If (same be) known to the plaintiff, for the purpose of serving the notice of claim on (such) the defendant.

Sec. 63. Section 6, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as amended by section 11, chapter 331. Laws of 1981 and RCW 12.40.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The notice of claim directed to the defendant shall contain (a statement in brief and concise form notifying such defendant of the nature, address, amount and nature of the alleged claim of plaintiff; and): (1) The name and address of the plaintiff; (2) a brief and concise statement of the nature and amount of the claim; (3) a statement directing and requiring defendant to appear personally in the (justice court) small claims department at a time certain, which shall not be less than five days from the date of service of (such) the notice; (shall notice shall further provide); and (4) a statement advising the defendant that in case of his or her failure to (so) appear, judgment will be given against defendant for the amount of (such) the claim.

Sec. 64. Section 7, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

((All)) A claim((s)) must be verified by the real claimant, and no claim shall be filed or prosecuted in (such) the small claims department by the assignee of (such) the claim.

Sec. 65. Section 8, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as amended by section 12, chapter 331. Laws of 1981 and RCW 12.40.080 are each amended to read as follows:

No attorney at law, legal paraprofessional, nor any person other than the plaintiff and defendant, shall concern himself or herself in any manner interfere with the prosecution or defense of (such) litigation in (such) the small claims department without the consent of the (justice of said justice's) judge of the district court. If a corporation plaintiff is represented by an attorney at law, legal paraprofessional, the (justice) judge shall at the request of the defendant transfer the case to the regular civil docket. In the small claims department it shall not be necessary to summon witnesses, but the plaintiff and defendant in any claim shall have the privilege of offering evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the (justice) judge may informally consult witnesses or otherwise investigate the controversy between the parties, and give judgment or make such orders as the judge may (by him be deemed) deem to be right, just and equitable for the disposition of the controversy.

Sec. 66. Section 9, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.090 are each amended to read as follows:

((No)) A formal pleading, other than the (said) claim and notice, shall not be necessary to define the issue between the parties. The hearing and disposition of (all such) the actions shall be informal, with the sole object of dispensing speedy and quick justice between the litigants. An attachment, garnishment or execution shall not issue from the small claims department on any claim except as (hereinbefore) provided in this chapter.

Sec. 67. Section 10, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as amended by section 1, chapter 254. Laws of 1983 and RCW 12.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If a monetary judgment or order is entered, it shall be the judgment debtor's duty to pay the judgment (forthwith) upon such terms and conditions as the (judge of such court) judge shall prescribe. If the judgment is not paid to the prevailing party at the time the judgment is entered and the judgment debtor is present in court, the court may order a payment plan.

Sec. 68. Section 11, chapter 187. Laws of 1919 as last amended by section 3, chapter 254. Laws of 1983 and RCW 12.40.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the losing party fails to pay the judgment according to the terms and conditions thereof within twenty days or is in arrears on any payment plan, and the prevailing party so notifies the court, the (justice) judge before whom such hearing was had shall certify (such) the judgment in substantially the following form:
In the District Court of County, Plaintiff, vs.

Defendant,

In the Small Claims Department.

This is to certify that: (1) In a certain action before me, the undersigned, had on this the day of , 19 , wherein was plaintiff and defendant, jurisdiction of said defendant having been had by personal service (or otherwise) as provided by law, I then and there entered judgment against in the sum of Dollars; (2) the judgment has not been paid within twenty days or the period otherwise ordered by the court; and (3) pursuant to RCW 12.40..., the amount of the judgment is hereby increased by any costs of certification under this section and the amount specified in RCW 36.18.020(3).

Witness my hand this day of , 19 .

District Judge sitting in the Small Claims Department.

The judge shall forthwith enter the judgment transcript on the judgment docket of the district court; and thereafter garnishment, execution, and other process on execution provided by law may issue thereon, as in other judgments of district courts.

Transcripts of such judgments may be filed and entered in judgment lien dockets in superior courts with like effect as in other cases.

Sec. 69. Section 4. chapter 83, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 12.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

No appeal shall be permitted from a judgment of the small claims department of the district court where the amount claimed was less than one hundred dollars nor shall any appeal be permitted by a party who requested the exercise of jurisdiction by the small claims department.

Sec. 70. Section 680. page 171. Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 738. Code of 1881 and RCW 7.20.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party to a judgment in a proceeding for a contempt, may appeal therefrom in like manner and with like effect as from judgment in an action, but such appeal shall not have the effect to stay the proceedings in any other action, suit or proceeding, or upon any judgment, decree or order therein, concerning which, or wherein such contempt was committed. (Contempts of justices' courts are punishable in the manner specially provided for in chapter 3:28 RCW.)

Sec. 71. Section 35.20.100, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 35.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be three departments of the municipal court, which shall be designated as Department Nos. 1, 2 and 3: PROVIDED, That when the administration of justice and the accomplishment of the work of the court make additional departments necessary, the legislative body of the city may create additional departments as they are needed. The departments shall be established in such places as may be provided by the legislative body of the city, and each department shall be presided over by a municipal judge. The judges shall select, by majority vote, one of their number to act as presiding judge of the municipal court for a term of one year, and he shall be responsible for administration of the court and assignment of calendars to all departments. A change of venue from one department of the municipal court to another department shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of RCW 3.66.090(3 and 3.20.100) in all civil and criminal proceedings. The city shall assume the costs of the elections of the judges in accordance with the provisions of RCW 29.13.045.

Sec. 72. Section 35, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city may secure the establishment of a municipal department of the district court, to be designated "The Municipal Department of (city)." Such department may be designated "The Municipal Court of (city)."

Sec. 73. Section 36. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Each judge of a municipal department shall be a judge of the district court in which the municipal department is situated. Such judge may be alternately designated as a municipal judge or police judge.

Sec. 74. Section 38. chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Establishment of a municipal department shall be initiated by a petition from the legislative body of the city to the county legislative authority. Such petition shall be filed with the commissioners not less than thirty days prior to February 1, 1962, or any subsequent year, and shall set forth: (1) The number of full time and part time judges required for the municipal department; (2) The amount of time for which a part time judge will be required for the municipal department; and (3) Whether the full time judge or judges will be elected or appointed. In a petition filed subsequent to 1962 provision shall be made for temporary appointment of a municipal judge to fill each elective position until the next election for (justice of the peace) district judges. The petition shall be forthwith transmitted to the districting committee. The organization of the municipal department shall be incorporated into the districting plan. The districting committee in its plan shall designate the proportion of the salary of each (justice) judge serving as a part time municipal judge to be paid by the city, which shall be proportionate to the time of such judge allotted to the municipal department by the districting plan. A city may withdraw its petition any time prior to adoption of the districting plan by the county legislative authority, and thereupon the municipal department pursuant to this chapter shall not be established.

Sec. 75. Section 40, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In (justice) district court districts having more than one (justice of the peace) judge, appointment of part time municipal judges shall be made from the (justice of the peace) judges of the district by the mayor in such manner as the city legislative body shall determine.

Sec. 76. Section 41, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In each (justice) district court district where an election is held for the position of municipal judge, the county auditor, prior to the date for filing declarations for the office of (justice of the peace) district judge, shall designate the proper number of municipal judge positions, commencing with number one, and if there is more than one municipal judge in any municipal department, one or more positions may, at the request of the legislative body of the city, be further designated as municipal traffic judge positions. Only voters of the city shall vote for municipal judges.

Sec. 77. Section 42, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A municipal judge shall serve in such capacity for his or her term as (justice of the peace) district judge and may be removed from so serving in the same manner and for the same reasons as he or she may be removed from the office of (justice of the peace) district judge.

Sec. 78. Section 43, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 66. Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.46.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The salary of a full time municipal judge shall be paid wholly by the city. The salary of a (justice of the peace) district judge serving a municipal department part time shall be paid jointly by the county and the city in the same proportion as the time of the (justice of the peace) judge has been allocated to each. Salaries of court commissioners serving the municipal department shall be paid by the city.

Sec. 79. Section 44, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.100 are each amended to read as follows:

A vacancy in a position of full time municipal judge shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment in such manner as the city may determine. In districts having more than one (justice of the peace) judge, a vacancy in a position of part time municipal judge shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment in such manner as the city shall determine from the (justice of the peace) judges of the district, including any (justice) judge appointed by the county commissioners to fill an unexpired term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 90. There is added to chapter 3.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All references to justices of the peace in other titles of the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed as meaning district judges. All references to justice courts or justice of the peace courts in other titles of the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed as meaning district courts.

Sec. 91. Section 4, chapter 221, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1971 and RCW 2.06.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall sit in panels of three judges and decisions shall be rendered by not less than a majority of the panel. In the determination of causes all decisions of the court shall be given in writing and the grounds of the decisions shall be stated. All decisions of the court having precedential value shall be published as opinions of the court. Each panel shall determine whether a decision of the court has sufficient precedential value to be published as an opinion of the court. Decisions determined not to have precedential value shall not be published. Panels in the first division shall be comprised of such judges as the chief judge thereof shall from time to time direct. Judges of the respective divisions may sit in other divisions and causes may be transferred between divisions, as directed by written order of the chief justice. The court may hold sessions in such of the following cities as may be designated by rule: Seattle, Everett, Bellingham, Tacoma, Vancouver, Spokane, Yakima, Richland, Wenatchee, and Walla Walla.

No judge of the court shall be entitled to per diem or mileage for services performed at either his legal residence or the headquarters of the division of the court of which he is a member.

The court may establish rules supplementary to and not in conflict with rules of the supreme court.

Sec. 92. Section 367, page 201, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 7, chapter 45, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 4.84.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The measure and mode of compensation of attorneys and counselors, shall be left to the agreement, expressed or implied, of the parties, but there shall be allowed to the prevailing party upon the judgment certain sums by way of indemnity for the prevailing party’s expenses in the action, which allowances are termed costs, including, in addition to costs otherwise authorized by law, the following expenses:

1. Filing fees;
2. Fees for the service of process;
3. Fees for service by publication;
4. Notary fees, but only to the extent the fees are for services that are expressly required by law and only to the extent they represent actual costs incurred by the prevailing party;
5. Reasonable expenses, exclusive of attorneys’ fees, incurred in obtaining reports and records, which are admitted into evidence at trial or in mandatory arbitration in superior or district court, including but not limited to medical records, tax records, personnel records, insurance reports, employment and wage records, police reports, school records, bank records, and legal tiles;
6. Statutory attorney and witness fees; and
7. To the extent that the court or arbitrator finds that it was necessary to achieve the successful result, the reasonable expense of the transcription of depositions used at trial or at the mandatory arbitration hearing; PROVIDED, That the expenses of depositions shall be allowed on a pro rata basis for those portions of the depositions introduced into evidence or used for purposes of impeachment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 93. Section 7, chapter 84, Laws of 1973 and RCW 4.84.310 are each repealed.

Sec. 94. Section 4, chapter 254, Laws of 1983 and RCW 12.24.135 are each amended to read as follows:

In any proceeding brought under this chapter to enforce a judgment which has been certified under RCW 12.40.110, the execution issued by the justice shall include the amount of the judgment owed plus reasonable costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by the judgment creditor in seeking enforcement of the judgment under this chapter.

Sec. 95. Section 4, page 404, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 186, Laws of 1983 and RCW 26.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The following named officers and persons are hereby authorized to solemnize marriages, to wit: Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior courts, any regularly licensed or ordained minister or any priest of any church or religious denomination ((anywhere within the state)), and judges of ((any)) courts of limited jurisdiction (as defined in RCW 3.02.010((within their respective counties)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:
The legislature finds that there is a multitude of statutes governing the municipal courts of the state. This situation is confusing and misleading to attorneys, judges, court personnel, and others who work with the municipal courts. The legislature therefore finds that a reorganization of the municipal courts of the state would allow those courts to operate in a more effective and efficient manner. This chapter provides a court structure which may be used by cities and towns with a population of four hundred thousand or less which choose to operate under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After January 1, 1985, cities and towns with a population of four hundred thousand or less which are operating a municipal court under Title 35 or 35A RCW shall operate the court pursuant to this chapter. In the alternative, a city or town may establish a municipal department of a district court under chapter 3.46 RCW.

Municipal judges holding office on the effective date of this section shall continue to hold office until expiration of their term or January 1, 1986, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 103. Section 50, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city or town with a population of ((twenty)) four hundred thousand or less may by ordinance provide for an inferior court to be known and designated as a municipal court, which shall be entitled "The Municipal Court of ... (insert name of city or town)". The court shall be designated and referred to as "municipal court", which court shall have jurisdiction and shall exercise all powers by this chapter declared to be vested in the municipal court, together with such other powers and jurisdiction as are generally conferred upon such court in this state (by) either by common law or by express statute (upon said court).

Sec. 104. Section 51, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 17, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 3.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The municipal court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction over traffic infractions arising under city ordinances and exclusive original jurisdiction of all violations of city ordinances duly adopted by the city in which the municipal court is located and shall have original jurisdiction of all other actions brought to enforce or recover license penalties or forfeitures declared or given by such ordinances or by state statutes. The municipal court is empowered to forfeit cash bail or bail bonds and issue execution thereon, and in general to hear and determine all causes, civil or criminal, including traffic infractions, arising under such ordinances and to pronounce judgment in accordance therewith.

Sec. 105. Section 52, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 18, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 3.50.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city or town may establish and operate under the supervision of the municipal court a violations bureau to assist the court in processing traffic cases. Each municipal court shall designate the specific traffic offenses and traffic infractions under ((the)) city or town ordinances which may be processed by the violations bureau.

A violations bureau may be authorized to process traffic infractions in conformity with chapter 46.63 RCW.

A violations bureau may be authorized to receive the posting of bail for specified offenses and, to the extent authorized by court order, permitted to accept forfeiture of bail and payment of penalties. Any violations bureau, upon accepting the prescribed bail, shall issue a receipt therefor to the alleged violator, acknowledging the posting thereof and informing the accused of the legal consequences of bail forfeiture. Any person charged with any criminal traffic offense or violation of a city or town ordinance shall be entitled to a trial by jury, which may be had in the city or town in which the offense was committed, unless, in the discretion of the court, the case shall be continued to a later date for good cause shown. Any person charged with a traffic offense may, upon application to the violations bureau, be released on personal recognizance or other sufficient security, or be placed on probation. The court may, in its discretion, fix the conditions or limitations under which such bail or recognizance shall be imposed. Any person charged with any traffic offense or violation of a city or town ordinance may, upon written consent of the violations bureau, enter a written plea of guilty and a written waiver of trial. Pay to the violations bureau the fine and, to the extent authorized by court order, permitted to accept forfeiture of any traffic offense or violation of a city or town ordinance.

A violations bureau may, upon sentencing a person convicted of a traffic violation, issue a receipt to the alleged violator acknowledging the posting thereof and informing the accused that the conviction will be treated as a criminal conviction.

Any person charged with a traffic offense or violation of a city or town ordinance may, upon written consent of the violations bureau, enter a written plea of guilty and a written waiver of trial. Pay to the violations bureau the fine and, to the extent authorized by court order, permitted to accept forfeiture of any traffic offense or violation of a city or town ordinance.

Municipal judges holding office on the effective date of this section shall continue to hold office until expiration of their term or January 1, 1986, whichever occurs first. The terms of their successors shall commence on January 1, 1986, and on January 1 of each fourth year thereafter, pursuant to appointment or election as provided in this chapter. Appointments shall be made on or before December 1 of the year next preceding the year in which the terms commence.
The legislative authority of a city or town that has the general power of confirmation over mayoral appointments shall have the power to confirm the appointment of a municipal judge.

(There) A person appointed as a full-time or part-time municipal judge shall be a citizen of the United States of America and of the state of Washington: and an attorney ((duly) admitted to practice law before the courts of record of the state of Washington: PROVIDED, That in a municipality having a population less than five thousand persons, a person other than an attorney may be the judge. Any city or town shall have authority to appoint a ((duly elected justice of the peace)) district judge as its municipal judge when the municipal judge is not required to serve full time. In the event of the appointment of a ((justice of the peace)) district judge, the city or town shall pay a pro rata share of ((his)) the salary.

Sec. 107. Section 54, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of ((each)) the city or town may, by ordinance, provide that the position of municipal judge within the city or town shall be an elective position. The ordinance shall provide for the qualifications of the municipal judge which shall be the same as the qualifications necessary for the appointment thereof; and further, shall provide that the municipal judge shall be elected in the same manner as other elective city officials are elected to office, and that the term of the municipal judge shall be ((concurrent with other city officials of the city or town)) for a term of four years commencing on January 1, 1986, and every four years thereafter.

Sec. 108. Section 55, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.060 are each amended to read as follows:

A city or town electing to establish a municipal court pursuant to this chapter may terminate such court by ((ordinance adopted on or before January 2, 1966 or not more than ten days before January 2nd of any fourth year thereafter)) adoption of an appropriate ordinance. However no municipal court may be terminated unless the municipality has complied with sections 203 through 209 of this act.

((On and after January 2, 1966:)) A city or town ((electing to establish)) newly establishing a municipal court pursuant to this chapter shall do so by ((resolution adopted not more than ten days before January 2, 1966 or any fourth)) adoption of an appropriate ordinance on or before December 1 of any year, to take effect January 1 of the following year ((thereafter)).

Sec. 109. Section 56, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Additional full or part time judges may be appointed ((by the mayor, subject to the approval)) or elected, as provided by ordinance of the legislative body of the city or town ((in the same manner as set forth in RCW 3.50.060))) when public interest and the administration of justice makes ((necessary the appointment of an additional judge or judges necessary)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 110. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every judge of a municipal court, before entering upon the duties of the office, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Washington, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of judge of the municipal court of the city of (naming such city) according to the best of my ability." The oath shall be filed in the office of the county auditor. The judge shall also give such bonds to the state and city for the faithful performance of the judge's duties as may be by law or ordinance directed.

Sec. 111. Section 57, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.080 are each amended to read as follows:

((The salary of the)) Salaries of municipal court ((judge or)) judges((or together with))) shall be fixed by ordinance. All costs of operating the municipal court, including but not limited to salaries of judges and court employees, dockets, books of records, forms, furnishings, and supplies, shall be paid wholly out of the funds of the city or town ((and the compensation of the municipal court judge and)) The city shall provide a suitable place for holding court and pay all expenses of maintaining it.

All employees of the municipal court shall, for all purposes, be deemed employees of the city or town. They shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the court.

Sec. 112. Section 58, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The mayor shall, in writing, appoint judges pro tem who shall act in the absence or disability of the regular judge of a municipal court or subsequent to the filing of an affidavit of prejudice. The judges pro tem shall be qualified to hold the position of judge of the municipal court as provided herein. The municipal court judges pro tem shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the ordinances of the legislative body of the city or town wherein the municipal court is located. The term of the appointment shall be specified in writing but in any event shall not extend beyond the term of the appointing mayor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 113. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Any vacancy in the municipal court due to a death, disability, or resignation of a municipal court judge shall be filled by the mayor, for the remainder of the unexpired term. The appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the legislative authority of the city or town if the legislative authority has the general power of confirmation over mayoral appointments. The appointed judge shall be qualified to hold the position of judge of the municipal court as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 114. Section 60, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The municipal court shall be open and shall hold such regular and special sessions as may be prescribed by the legislative body of the city or town: PROVIDED, That (such) the municipal court shall not be open on nonjudicial days.

Sec. 115. Section 79, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 84. Laws of 1969 and RCW 3.50.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of conviction, unless otherwise provided in chapters 3.30 through 3.74 RCW as now or hereafter amended, where a jail sentence is given to the defendant, execution shall issue accordingly and where the judgment of the court is that the defendant pay a fine and costs, (the) the defendant may be committed to jail ((to be placed at hard labor)) until the judgment is paid in full.

A defendant who has been committed shall be discharged upon the payment for such part of the fine and costs as remains unpaid after deducting from the whole amount any previous payment and after deducting the amount allowed for each day of imprisonment, which amount shall be the same and computed in the same manner as provided for superior court cases in RCW 10.82.030 and 10.82.040, as now or hereafter amended. In addition, all other proceedings in respect of such fine and costs shall be the same as in like cases in the superior court.

Sec. 116. Section 81, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 156. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.50.320 are each amended to read as follows:

After a conviction, the court may delay sentencing ((the defendant)) and place (him) the defendant on probation and prescribe the conditions thereof, but in no case shall it extend for more than two years from the date of conviction. During the time of the deferral, the court may, for good cause shown, permit a defendant to withdraw ((his)) the plea of guilty, permit ((him)) the defendant to enter a plea of not guilty, and dismiss the charges ((against him)).

Sec. 117. Section 82, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 156. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.50.330 are each amended to read as follows:

For a period not to exceed two years after imposition of sentence, the court shall have continuing jurisdiction and authority to suspend the execution of all or any part of ((the)) the sentence upon stated terms, including installment payment of fines.

Sec. 118. Section 83, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 as amended by section 7, chapter 156. Laws of 1983 and RCW 3.50.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Deferral of sentence and suspension of execution of sentence may be revoked if the defendant violates or fails to carry out any of the conditions of the deferral or suspension. Upon the revocation of the deferral or suspension, the court shall impose the sentence previously suspended or any unexecuted portion thereof. In no case shall the court impose a sentence greater than the original sentence, with credit given for time served and money paid on fine and costs.

Any time before entering an order terminating probation, the court may revoke or modify its order suspending the imposition or execution of the sentence. ((Whenever)) If the ends of justice will be served and when warranted by the reformation of the probationer, the court may terminate the period of probation and discharge the person so held.

Sec. 119. Section 92, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.430 are each amended to read as follows:

All criminal prosecutions for the violation of ((any)) a city ordinance shall be conducted in the name of the city and may be upon the complaint of any person.

Sec. 120. Section 93, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.440 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person convicted by the municipal court of a violation of the criminal provisions of an ordinance for which no punishment is specifically prescribed in the ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than five ((hundred)) thousand dollars or imprisonment in the city jail for a period not to exceed ((ninety days)) one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 121. Section 94, chapter 299. Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.50.450 are each amended to read as follows:

Pleadings, practice and procedure in cases not governed by statutes or rules specifically applicable to municipal courts shall, insofar as applicable, be governed by the statutes and rules now existing or hereafter adopted governing pleadings, practice and procedure applicable to ((justice)) district courts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 122. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:
A transfer of a case from the municipal court to either another municipal judge of the same city or to a judge pro tempore appointed in the manner prescribed by this chapter shall be allowed in accordance with RCW 3.66.090 in all civil and criminal proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 123. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The municipal court shall have a seal which shall be the vignette of George Washington, with the words "Seal of The Municipal Court of . . . . . . . . (name of city), State of Washington," surrounding the vignette.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 124. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A municipal judge shall be removed only upon conviction of misconduct or malfeasance in office, or because of physical or mental disability rendering the judge incapable of performing the duties of the office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Mayor:" as used in this chapter, means the chief administrative officer of the city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In all civil cases, the plaintiff or defendant may demand a jury, which shall consist of six citizens of the state who shall be impaneled and sworn as in cases before district courts, or the trial may be by a judge of the municipal court: PROVIDED. That no jury trial may be held on a proceeding involving a traffic infraction. A party requesting a jury shall pay to the court a fee which shall be the same as that for a jury in district court. If more than one party requests a jury, only one jury fee shall be collected by the court. The fee shall be apportioned among the requesting parties. Each juror may receive up to twenty-five dollars but in no case less than ten dollars for each day in attendance upon the municipal court, and in addition thereto shall receive mileage at the rate determined under RCW 43.03.060: PROVIDED, That the compensation paid jurors shall be determined by the legislative authority of the city and shall be uniformly applied. Jury trials shall be allowed in all criminal cases unless waived by the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All criminal process issued by the municipal court shall be in the name of the state of Washington and run throughout the state. and be directed to and served by the chief of police, marshal, or other police officer of any city or to any sheriff in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. The enactment of sections 101 through 139 of this act shall not affect any case, proceeding, appeal, or other matter pending in any court operating under Title 35 or 35A RCW on the effective date of this act. The enactment of sections 101 through 139 of this act shall not have the effect of terminating or in any way modifying any right or liability, civil or criminal, which may be in existence on the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. RCW JSA.20.150 is recodified as a section in chapter 35A.21 RCW.

Sec. 136. Section 46.08.190, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.08.190 are each amended to read as follows:
Every district and municipal court judge shall have concurrent jurisdiction with superior court judges of the state for all violations of the provisions of this title and may impose any punishment provided therefor.
Sec. 137. Section 6, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 221, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.63.040 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) All violations of state law, local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution designated as traffic infractions in RCW 46.63.020 may be heard and determined by a district court, except as otherwise provided in this section.
(2) Any municipal court has the authority to hear and determine traffic infractions pursuant to this chapter.
(3) Any city or town with a municipal court may contract with the county to have traffic infractions committed within the city or town adjudicated by a district court.
(4) District court commissioners have the authority to hear and determine traffic infractions pursuant to this chapter.
(5) The boards of regents of the state universities, and the boards of trustees of the regional universities and of The Evergreen State College have the authority to hear and determine traffic infractions under RCW 28B.10.560.
Sec. 138. Section 46.83.050, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.83.050 are each amended to read as follows:
Every municipal court, district court, juvenile court, superior court, and every other court handling traffic cases within the limits of a county wherein a traffic school has been established may, as a part of any sentence imposed following a conviction for any traffic law violation, or as a condition on the suspension of sentence or deferral of any imposition of sentence, order any person so convicted, whether that person be a juvenile, a minor, or an adult, to attend the traffic school for a number of days to be determined by the court, but not to exceed the maximum number of days which the violator could be required to serve in the city or county jail as a result of his or her conviction.
Sec. 139. Section 3, page 121, Laws of 1890 and RCW 78.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:
Upon the filing of the notice, as provided in RCW 78.12.020, the district or municipal court shall issue an order, directed to the sheriff of the county or to any constable or city marshal therein, directing such officer to serve a notice in manner and form as is prescribed by law for service of summons upon any person or persons or the authorized agent or agents of any company or corporation named in the notice on file, as provided in RCW 78.12.020.
Sec. 130. Section 35A.20.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 33, Laws of 1975 and RCW 35A.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) There is hereby created and established in each incorporated city of this state having a population of more than four hundred thousand inhabitants, as shown by the federal or state census, whichever is the later, a municipal court, which shall be styled the Municipal Court of (name of city), hereinafter designated and referred to as the municipal court, which court shall have jurisdiction and shall exercise all the powers by this chapter declared to be vested in such municipal court, together with such powers and jurisdiction as is generally conferred in this state either by common law or statute.
(2) A municipality operating a municipal court under this section may terminate that court if the municipality has reached an agreement with the county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the termination. The agreement shall provide for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If a municipality has, prior to the effective date of this section, repealed in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes but continues to hear and determine traffic infraction cases under chapter 46.63 RCW in a municipal court, the municipality and the appropriate county shall, prior to January 1, 1985, enter into an agreement under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs incurred after January 1, 1985, associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. If the municipality and the county cannot come to an agreement within the time prescribed by this section, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration pursuant to chapter 7.04 RCW. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

(2) The agreement between the municipality and the county shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. There is added to chapter 3.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A municipality operating a municipal court under this chapter shall not terminate that court unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county or another municipality under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county or municipality is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district or municipal court as a result of the termination. The agreement shall provide for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county or municipality are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county or municipality have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. A municipality that has entered into agreements with other municipalities that have terminated their municipal courts may not thereafter terminate its court unless each municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county in accordance with this section.

(2) A municipality operating a municipal court under this chapter may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes while retaining the court's authority to hear and determine traffic infractions under chapter 46.63 RCW unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall provide for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

(3) A municipality operating a municipal court under this chapter may not repeal a provision of its municipal code which defines a crime equivalent to an offense listed in RCW 46.63.020 unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall provide for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. There is added to chapter 35.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:
A city of the first class operating a municipal court may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes or repeal a provision of its municipal code which defines a crime equivalent to an offense listed in RCW 46.63.020 unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. There is added to chapter 35.23 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A city of the second class operating a municipal court may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes or repeal a provision of its municipal code which defines a crime equivalent to an offense listed in RCW 46.63.020 unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. There is added to chapter 35.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A city of the third class operating a municipal court may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes or repeal a provision of its municipal code which defines a crime equivalent to an offense listed in RCW 46.63.020 unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. There is added to chapter 35.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A town operating a municipal court may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes or repeal a provision of its municipal code which defines a crime equivalent to an offense listed in RCW 46.63.020 unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. There is added to chapter 35.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A city operating a municipal court may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. There is added to chapter 35A.11 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A code city operating a municipal court may not repeal in its entirety that portion of its municipal code defining crimes unless the municipality has reached an agreement with the appropriate county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the repeal. The agreement shall include provisions for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

Sec. 210. Section 49, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city, having established a municipal department as provided in this chapter may, by written notice to the county legislative authority not less than thirty days prior to February 1st of any year, require the termination of the municipal department created pursuant to this chapter. However, the city may not give the written notice required by this section unless the city has reached an agreement with the county under chapter 39.34 RCW under which the county is to be paid a reasonable amount for costs associated with prosecution, adjudication, and sentencing in criminal cases filed in district court as a result of the termination. The agreement shall provide for periodic review and renewal of the terms of the agreement. If the municipality and the county are unable to agree on the terms for renewal of the agreement, they shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement to submit the issue to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. Pending conclusion of the arbitration proceeding, the terms of the agreement shall remain in effect. The municipality and the county have the same rights and are subject to the same duties as other parties who have agreed to submit to arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. It is the intent of the legislature to assure accountability, uniformity, economy, and efficiency in the collection and distribution by superior, district, and municipal courts of fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties assessed and collected for violations of state statutes, and county, city, and town ordinances.

Sec. 302. Section 22, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19 of this 1984 act and RCW 3.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each district court shall designate one or more persons as judge pro tempore who shall serve during the temporary absence, disqualification, or incapacity of a district judge. The qualifications of a judge pro tempore shall be the same as for a district judge, except that with respect to RCW 3.34.060(1), the person appointed need only be a registered voter of the state. A judge pro tempore may sit in any district of the county for which he or she is appointed. A judge pro tempore serves while a district judge is using sick leave granted in accordance with RCW 3.34.100.

(2) The legislature may appropriate money (from the judicial education account to the administrative court) for the purpose of reimbursing counties for the salaries of judges pro tempore for certain days in excess of thirty worked per year that the judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service by a judge on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. No reduction in salary shall occur when a judge pro tempore serves in excess of thirty days during any calendar year, the annual salary of the judge in whose place he or she serves shall be reduced by an amount equal to one-twentieth of such salary: PROVIDED, That each full time district judge shall have up to fifteen days annual leave without reduction for service on judicial commissions established by the legislature or the chief justice of the supreme court. No reduction in salary shall occur when a judge pro tempore serves while a district judge is using sick leave granted in accordance with RCW 3.34.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. Section 49, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.46.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All money received by the clerk of a municipal department including penalties, fines, bail forfeitures, fees and costs assessed and collected in whole or in part by the court shall be paid by the clerk to the city treasurer (for the use of the city).
Sec. 304. Section 59, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 241, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 3.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Costs in civil and criminal actions may be imposed as provided in district court. All fees, costs, fines, forfeitures and other money imposed by any municipal court for the violation of any municipal or town ordinances shall be collected by the court clerk and, together with any other revenues received by the clerk, shall be deposited with the city or town treasurer as a part of the general fund of the city or town, or deposited in such other fund of the city or town, or deposited in such other funds as may be designated by the laws of the state of Washington.

(2) The city treasurer shall remit monthly thirty-five percent of the money received under this section, other than for parking infractions, to the state treasurer. Money remitted under this subsection to the state treasurer shall be deposited as provided in section 338 of this 1984 act.

(3) The balance of the money received under this section shall be retained by the city and deposited as provided by law.

Sec. 305. Section 105, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.62.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The district court may at the time of sentencing or at any time thereafter suspend a portion or all of a fine or penalty (except that costs of the action shall not be suspended) provided: That the court may suspend costs in the case of juvenile or indigent defendants. "Costs" for the purpose of this section, does not include jury fees, witness fees or sheriff's fees.

Sec. 306. Section 106, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 8, chapter 73, Laws of 1971 and RCW 3.62.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties assessed and collected in whole or in part by district courts, except fines, forfeitures and penalties assessed and collected, in whole or in part, because of the violation of city ordinances, shall be collected and remitted by the clerk of the district court to the county treasurer at least monthly, together with a financial statement as required by the division of municipal corporations, noting the information necessary for crediting of such funds as required by law. (The county treasurer shall place these moneys into the justice court suspense fund);

(2) The county treasurer shall remit thirty-five percent of the money received under subsection (1) of this section to the state treasurer. Money remitted under this subsection to the state treasurer shall be deposited as provided in section 338 of this 1984 act.

(3) The balance of the money received by the county treasurer under subsection (1) of this section shall be deposited in the county current expense fund.

(4) All money collected for county parking infractions shall be remitted by the clerk of the district court at least monthly, with the information required under subsection (1) of this section, to the county treasurer for deposit in the county current expense fund.

Sec. 307. Section 108, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 3.62.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, all costs, fines, forfeitures and penalties assessed and collected, in whole or in part, by district courts because of violations of city ordinances shall be collected and remitted by the clerk of the district court at least monthly directly to the treasurer of the city wherein the violation occurred.

(2) The city treasurer shall remit monthly thirty-five percent of the money received under this section, other than for parking infractions, to the state treasurer. Money remitted under this subsection to the state treasurer shall be deposited as provided in section 338 of this 1984 act.

(3) The balance of the money received under this section shall be retained by the city and deposited as provided by law.

(4) All money collected for city parking infractions shall be remitted by the clerk of the district court at least monthly to the city treasurer for deposit in the city's general fund.

Sec. 308. Section 109, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 3.62.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((Quarterly, the county treasurer shall determine)) The total expenditures of the justice courts, including the cost of providing courtroom and office space, the cost of probation and parole services and any personnel employment therefor, and the cost of providing services necessary for the preparation and presentation of a defense at public expense, except costs of defense to be paid by a city pursuant to RCW 3.62.070(1) (The treasurer shall then transfer an amount, equal to the total expenditures from the justice court suspense fund to), shall be paid from the county current expense fund. (The treasurer shall then, using the percentages established in RCW 3.62.015 provided remit the appropriate amounts of the remaining balance in the justice court suspense fund to the state general fund and to the appropriate city treasurer(s).)
The final remaining balance of the justice court suspension fund shall then be remitted as specified by the county commissioners;

Sec. 309. Section 110, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 330. Laws of 1981 and RCW 3.62.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In any civil action commenced before or transferred to a (justice) district court, the plaintiff shall, at the time of such commencement or transfer, pay to such court a filing fee of twenty dollars. (Fees for the support of county law libraries provided for in RCW 27.24.070 shall be paid by the clerk out of the filing fee provided for in this section.) No party shall be compelled to pay to the court any other fees or charges up to and including the rendition of judgment in the action.

((Three dollars of the filing fee collected under this section shall be transmitted each month to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund;))

Sec. 310. Section 1, chapter 249. Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 1, chapter 126. Laws of 1979 and RCW 27.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In each county pursuant to this chapter, the (clerk of the superior court shall pay from each fee collected for the filing in his office of)) county treasurer shall deposit in the county or regional law library fund a sum equal to seven dollars for every new probate or civil matter, including appeals, (the sum of seven dollars) filed with the clerk of the superior court and three dollars for every civil action commenced in district court for the support of the law library in that county or the regional law library to which the county belongs. (Which shall be paid to the county treasurer to be credited to the county or regional law library fund). PROVIDED. That upon a showing of need the seven dollar (fee) contribution may be increased up to nine dollars upon the request of the law library board of trustees and with the approval of the county legislative body or bodies. (There shall be paid from the filing fee paid by each person instituting an action, when the first paper is filed, to each justice of the peace in every civil action commenced in such court where the demand or value of the property in controversy is three hundred dollars or more, in addition to the other fees required by law, the sum of three dollars as fees for the support of the law library in that county or for the regional law library which are to be paid as a part of costs in each case.

The justice of the peace shall pay such fees so collected to the county treasurer to be credited to the county or regional law library fund;)

Sec. 311. Section 10, chapter 302. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 239. Laws of 1983 and RCW 7.68.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person is found guilty in any superior court (of competent jurisdiction) of having committed a crime, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there shall be imposed by the court upon such convicted person a penalty assessment. The assessment shall be in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law and shall be fifty dollars for each case or cause of action that includes one or more convictions of a felony or gross misdemeanor and twenty-five dollars for any case or cause of action that includes convictions of only one or more misdemeanors.

(2) The assessment imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to motor vehicle crimes defined in Title 46 RCW except those defined in the following sections: RCW 46.61-520, 46.61.022, 46.61.024, 46.52.090, 46.70.140, 46.65.090, 46.61.502, 46.61.504, 46.52.100, 46.20.410, 46.52.020, 46.10.130, 46.09.130, 46.61.525, 46.61.685, 46.61.530, 46.61.500, 46.61.015, 46.52.010, 46.44.180, 46.10.090(2), and 46.09.120(2).

(3) Whenever any person accused of having committed a crime posts bail in superior court pursuant to the provisions of chapter 10.19 RCW and such bail is forfeited, there shall be deducted from the proceeds of such forfeited bail a penalty assessment, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by law, equal to the assessment which would be applicable under subsection (1) of this section if the person had been convicted of the crime.

(4) ((Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section;)) Such penalty assessments shall be paid by the clerk of the superior court to the (city or) county Treasurer; (as the case may be;)) who shall monthly transmit (eighty percent of such penalty assessments to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall deposit such assessments in an account within the state general fund to be known as the crime victims compensation account, hereby created, and all moneys placed in the account shall be used exclusively for the administration of this chapter. After appropriation by statute. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the remaining twenty percent of such assessments shall be provided to the county prosecuting attorney to be used exclusively for the money as provided in RCW 10.82.070. Until June 30, 1987, each county shall deposit not less than one and seventy-five one-hundredths percent of the money it retains under RCW 10.82.070 and chapter 3.62 RCW and all money it receives under subsection (8) of this section into a fund maintained exclusively for the support of comprehensive programs to encourage and facilitate testimony by the victims of crimes and witnesses to crimes. After that date, each county shall continue to provide for such comprehensive programs. A program shall be considered "comprehensive" only after approval of the department upon application by the county prosecuting attorney. The department shall approve as comprehensive only programs which:
(a) Provide comprehensive services to victims and witnesses of all types of crime with particular emphasis on serious crimes against persons and property. It is the intent of the legislature to make funds available only to programs which do not restrict services to victims or witnesses of a particular type or types of crime and that such funds supplement, not supplant, existing local funding levels;

(b) Are administered by the county prosecuting attorney either directly through the prosecuting attorney’s office or by contract between the county and agencies providing services to victims of crime;

(c) Make a reasonable effort to inform the known victim or his surviving dependents of the existence of this chapter and the procedure for making application for benefits;

(d) Assist victims in the restitution and adjudication process; and

(e) Assist victims of violent crimes in the preparation and presentation of their claims to the department of labor and industries under this chapter.

Before a program in any county west of the Cascade mountains is submitted to the department for approval, it shall be submitted for review and comment to each city within the county with a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand. The department will consider if the county’s proposed comprehensive plan meets the needs of crime victims in cases adjudicated in municipal, district or superior courts and of crime victims located within the city and county.

(5) Upon submission to the department of a letter of intent to adopt a comprehensive program ((by a prosecuting attorney, the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, may transmit monthly eighty percent of such penalty assessments to the state treasurer and provide the remaining twenty percent of such assessments to the county prosecuting attorney to be used exclusively for a comprehensive program for victims and witnesses, and)), the prosecuting attorney ((may)) shall retain ((such twenty percent)) the money deposited by the county under subsection (4) of this section until such time as the county prosecuting attorney has obtained approval of a program from the department. Approval of the comprehensive plan by the department must be obtained within one year of the date of the letter of intent to adopt a comprehensive program. The county prosecuting attorney shall not make any expenditures from the ((twenty percent penalty assessments)) money deposited under subsection (4) of this section until approval of a comprehensive plan by the department. If a county prosecuting attorney has failed to obtain approval of a program from the department under subsection (4) of this section or failed to obtain approval of a comprehensive program within one year after submission of a letter of intent under this section, the (city or) county treasurer ((as the case may be)) shall monthly transmit one hundred percent of ((such penalty assessments and shall transmit all previously retained penalty assessments and interest, if any,)) the money deposited by the county under subsection (4) of this section to the state treasurer for deposit in the ((crime victims compensation account within the state general fund)) public safety and education account established under section 338 of this 1984 act.

(6) County prosecuting attorneys are responsible to make every reasonable effort to insure that the penalty assessments of this chapter are imposed and collected.

(7) Penalty assessments under this section shall also be imposed in juvenile offense dispositions under Title 13 RCW. Upon motion of a party and a showing of good cause, the court may modify the penalty assessment in the disposition of juvenile offenses under Title 13 RCW.

(8) Until June 30, 1987, every city and town shall transmit monthly one and seventy-five one-hundredths percent of all money, other than money received for parking infractions, retained under RCW 3.46.120, 3.50.100, and 35.20.220 to the county treasurer for deposit as provided in subsection (4) of this section. After that date, every city and town shall transmit to the county a percentage of such money, up to one and seventy-five one-hundredths percent, which matches the percentage of court revenue the county provides under subsection (4) of this section.

Sec. 312. Section 16, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 11, chapter 232, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.41.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any violation of any provision of this chapter, except as otherwise provided, shall be a misdemeanor and punishable accordingly. (There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all violations of this chapter.)

Sec. 313. Section 3, page 421, Laws of 1873 as last amended by section 11, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess and RCW 10.82.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(Except as otherwise provided by law): (1) All sums of money derived from costs, fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed or collected, in whole or in part, by a superior court for violation of orders of injunction, mandamus and other like writs. (For contempt of court. (And the net proceeds of all fines collected within the several counties of the state)) or for breach of the penal laws. (And all funds arising from the sale of lost goods and estrays, and from penalties and forfeitures;) shall be paid in cash by the person collecting the same, within twenty days after the collection, to the county treasurer of the county in which the same have

Any person who shall insult or abuse a teacher anywhere on the school premises while such teacher is carrying out his official duties, or shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That said fine shall be turned over to the county treasurer and by him transmitted to the state treasurer who shall place the same to the credit of the current school fund of the state.

Sec. 315. Section 28A.87.060, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 57, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.87.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall wilfully create a disturbance on school premises during school hours or at school activities or school meetings shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine in any sum not more than fifty dollars: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

Sec. 316. Section 28A.87.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 58, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.87.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person having access to any question or questions prepared for the examination of teachers or common school pupils, who shall directly or indirectly disclose the same before the time appointed for the use of the questions in the examination of teachers or pupils, or who shall directly or indirectly assist any person to answer any question submitted, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

Sec. 317. Section 28A.87.130, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 60, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.87.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any school district official or employee who shall refuse or fail to deliver to his qualified successor all books, papers, and records pertaining to his position, or who shall wilfully mutilate or destroy any such property, or any part thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That for each day there is a refusal or failure to deliver to a successor books, papers, and records, a separate offense shall be deemed to have occurred: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

Sec. 318. Section 28A.87.140, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 61, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.87.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any teacher who shall maltreat or abuse any pupil by administering any unreasonable punishment, or who shall inflict punishment on the head of a pupil, upon conviction thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

Sec. 319. Section 35.20.220, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 147, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35.20.220 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The chief clerk, under the supervision and direction of the court administrator of the municipal court, shall have the custody and care of the books, papers and records of said court; he shall be present by himself or deputy during the session of said court, and shall have the power to swear all witnesses and jurors, and administer oaths and affidavits, and take acknowledgments. He shall keep the records of said court, and shall issue all process under his hand and the seal of said court, and shall do and perform all things and have the same powers pertaining to his office as the clerks of the superior courts have in their office. He shall receive all fines, penalties and fees of every kind, and keep a full, accurate and detailed account of the same; and shall on each day pay into the city treasury all (money) money received for said city during the day previous, with a detailed account of the same, and taking the treasurer's receipt therefor.

(2) The city treasurer shall remit monthly thirty-five percent of the money received under this section, other than for parking infractions, to the state treasurer. Money remitted under this subsection to the state treasurer shall be deposited as provided in section 338 of this 1984 act.

(3) The balance of the money received under this section shall be retained by the city and deposited as provided by law.

Sec. 320. Section 35A.42.010, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.42.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to authority granted and duties imposed upon code city treasurers by this title, code city treasurers, or the officers designated by charter or ordinance to perform the duties of a treasurer, shall have the duties and the authority to perform the following: (1) As provided in RCW 8.12.500 relating to bonds and compensation payments in eminent domain proceedings; (2) as provided in RCW 68.12.050 relating to cemetery improvement funds; (3) as provided in RCW 41.28.080 relating to custody of employees' retirement funds; (4) as provided in RCW 47.08.100 relating to the use of city street funds; (5) as provided in RCW 46.68.080 relating to motor vehicle funds; (6) as provided in RCW 46.68.050 relating to fines and forfeitures and additional assessments for driver education; (7) as provided in RCW 41.16.020 and chapter 41.20 RCW relating to police and firemen's relief and pension boards; (8) as provided in chapter 42.20 RCW relating to misappropriation of funds; and (9) as provided in chapter 39.60 RCW relating to investment of municipal funds. The treasurer shall be subject to the penalties imposed for the violation of any of such provisions. Where a provision of this title, or the general law, names the city treasurer as an officer of a board or other body, or assigns duties to a city treasurer, such position shall be filled, or such duties performed, by the officer of a code city who is performing the duties usually performed by a city treasurer, although he may not have that designation.

Sec. 321. Section 35A.47.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 69, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35A.47.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of Title 47 RCW shall apply to code cities, its officers and employees to the same extent as such provisions are applicable to any other class of city within the state, including, without limitation, the following: (1) The acquisition by the state of municipal lands and the exchange of state highway and municipal lands, as provided in chapter 47.12 RCW; (2) the dedication of public land for city streets as provided by RCW 36.34.290 and 36.34.300; (3) the allocation of fines and forfeitures for highway violations as provided in RCW 46.68.050 and 47.08.080; (4) city contributions to finance toll facilities as provided in RCW 47.56.250; (5) contracts with the department of transportation, as provided in RCW 47.01.210; (6) the construction, maintenance, jurisdiction, and control of city streets, as provided in chapter 47.24 RCW; (7) agreements between the department of transportation and a city for the benefit or improvement of highways, roads, or streets, as provided in RCW 47.28.140; (8) sales, leases, or transfers as authorized by RCW 47.12.063, 47.12.066, and 47.12.080; (9) the erection of information signs as regulated by RCW 47.42.050 and 47.42.060; (10) provisions relating to limited access highways under chapter 47.52 RCW; (11) the acquisition and abandonment for state highways as provided by RCW 36.75.090 and 90.28.020; and (12) the sharing of maintenance of streets and alleys as an extension of county roads as provided by RCW 35.77.020.

Sec. 322. Section 2, chapter 20, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 36.18.025 are each amended to read as follows:

(An amount equal to seven dollars from each filing fee) Thirty-five percent of the money received from filing fees paid pursuant to (subsections (3), (5), (11) and (12) of RCW 36.18.020, as now or hereafter amended, (shall be allocated to the payment of the monthly salaries of the judges of the superior courts, the court of appeals and the supreme court in the following manner:

(1) Three dollars of each such amount shall be paid into the county treasury and allocated to payment of the salaries of judges of the superior courts in the county; and

(2) Four dollars of each such amount shall be collected by the county treasurer and shall be transmitted by (him) the county treasurer each month to the state treasurer for deposit (in the state general fund to aid in the payment of salaries of the judges of the superior courts, the court of appeals and the supreme court) in the public safety and education account established under section 338 of this 1984 act.
Sec. 323. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.08.172 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established an account within the general fund of the state treasury to be known as the "state capitol vehicle parking account". All unpledged parking rental income (and fines) collected by the department of general administration from rental of parking space (and the enforcement of traffic regulations) on the capitol grounds and the east capitol site shall be deposited in the "state capitol vehicle parking account".

The "state capitol vehicle parking account" shall be used to pay costs incurred in the operation, maintenance, regulation and enforcement of vehicle parking and parking facilities at the state capitol.

Sec. 324. Section 24, chapter 121. Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 16, chapter 165. Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.20.285 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall forthwith revoke the license of any driver for the period of one ((calendar)) calendar year unless otherwise provided in this section, upon receiving a record of the driver's conviction of any of the following offenses, when the conviction has become final:

(1) For vehicular homicide the period of revocation shall be two years;
(2) Vehicular assault;
(3) Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug, or under the influence of any other drug to a degree which renders him incapable of safely driving a motor vehicle, upon a showing by the department's records that the conviction is the second such conviction for the driver within a period of five years. Upon a showing that the conviction is the third such conviction for the driver within a period of five years, the period of revocation shall be two years. A revocation imposed under this subsection shall run concurrently with any corresponding revocation which may be imposed by the department pursuant to RCW 46.20.610 or 46.61.515(5)(5)) arising out of the same arrest;
(4) Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used;
(5) Failure to stop and give information or render aid as required under the laws of this state in the event of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death or personal injury of another;
(6) Perjury or the making of a false affidavit or statement under oath to the department under Title 46 RCW or under any other law relating to the ownership or operation of motor vehicles;
(7) Reckless driving upon a showing by the department's records that the conviction is the third such conviction for the driver within a period of two years.

Sec. 325. Section 27, chapter 121. Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 165. Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.20.311 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and gives and thereupon maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 or was imposed under RCW 46.20.610(1) (a) or (b), the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.
(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (a) After the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department; (b) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.61.515((5)(5)) (b) or (c); (c) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; (d) after the expiration of one year in cases of revocation for the first refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; or (e) after the expiration of two years in cases of revocation for the second refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308. After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with a reinstatement fee in the amount of twenty dollars, but if the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereupon maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was denied under RCW 46.20.610 shall give and thereupon maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.
(3) Whenever the driver's license of any person is suspended pursuant to Article IV of the nonresident violators compact or RCW 46.23.020, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars. If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of another state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

Sec. 326, Section 11, chapter 165, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.20.680 are each amended to read as follows:

When the department is required to suspend, revoke, or deny a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive under either RCW 46.20.610 or under RCW 46.61.515((55))((3)), and (1) the department has earlier imposed a suspension, revocation, or denial under the other of those two provisions or is preparing to do so, and (2) each of those two sanctions has been required as the result of civil or criminal proceedings arising from the same arrest, the department shall proceed as follows:

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions:

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under RCW 46.20.610 but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

Sec. 327, Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 58, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.44.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, and 46.44.041, or failure to obtain a permit as provided by RCW 46.44.090 and 46.44.095, or misrepresentation of the size or weight of any load or failure to follow the requirements and conditions of a permit issued hereunder is a traffic infraction, and upon the first finding thereof shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than fifty dollars; and upon a second or subsequent finding thereof shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than seventy-five dollars: and upon a third or subsequent finding shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than one hundred dollars.

(2) In addition to the penalties imposed in subsection (1) of this section, any person violating RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 shall be assessed three cents for each pound of excess weight. Upon a first violation in any calendar year, the court may suspend the penalty for five hundred pounds of excess weight for each axle on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, not to exceed a two thousand pound suspension. In no case may the basic penalty assessed in subsection (1) of this section be suspended.

(3) Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is involved in two violations of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 during any twelve-month period, the court may suspend the certificate of license registration of the vehicle or combination of vehicles for not less than thirty days. Upon a third or succeeding violation in any twelve-month period, the court shall suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days. Whenever the certificate of license registration is suspended, the court shall secure such certificate and immediately forward the same to the director with information concerning the suspension.

(4) Any person found to have violated any posted limitations of a highway or section of highway shall be assessed a monetary penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars, and the court shall in addition thereto upon second violation within a twelve-month period involving the same power unit, suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days.

(5) Any police officer is authorized to require the driver of any vehicle or combination of vehicles to stop and submit to a weighing either by means of a portable or stationary scale and may require that the vehicle be driven to the nearest public scale. Whenever a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load, determines that the weight is unlawful, the officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable location and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to the limit permitted by law.

Any vehicle whose driver or owner represents that the vehicle is disabled or otherwise unable to proceed to a weighing location shall have its load sealed or otherwise marked by any police officer. The owner or driver shall be directed that upon completion of repairs, the vehicle shall submit to weighing with the load and markings and/or seal intact and undisturbed. Failure to report for weighing, appearing for weighing with the seal broken or the Intensive treatment in a program approved by the Department of Social and Health Services, or a qualified probation department approved by the Department of Social and Health Services for the imposition of any penalties authorized under this section.

For the purpose of determining additional penalties as provided by subsection (2) of this section, "excess weight" means the poundage in excess of the maximum gross weight prescribed by RCW 46.44.042 and 46.44.041 plus the weights allowed by RCW 46.44.047, 46.44.091, and 46.44.095.

The penalties provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section (shall be distributed as prescribed in RCW 46.46.030. However, all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law) shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW or RCW 10.82.070. For the purpose of computing the basic penalties and additional penalties to be imposed under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the convictions shall be on the same vehicle or combination of vehicles within a twelve-month period under the same ownership.

The additional penalty for excess poundage provided in subsection (2) of this section shall be transmitted by the court to the county treasurer and transmitted by him to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund. However, all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW. It shall then be allocated annually on or before June 30th of each year in the amounts prescribed in RCW 46.46.100.

Any state patrol officer or any weight control officer who finds any person operating a vehicle or a combination of vehicles in violation of the conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.037, 46.44.090, and 46.44.095 may confiscate the permit and forward it to the state department of transportation which may return it to the permittee or revoke, cancel, or suspend it without refund. The department of transportation shall keep a record of all action taken upon permits so confiscated, and if a permit is returned to the permittee the action taken by the department of transportation shall be endorsed thereon. Any permittee whose permit is suspended or revoked may upon request receive a hearing before the department of transportation or person designated by that department. After the hearing the department of transportation may reinstate any permit or revise its previous action.

Every permit issued as provided for in this chapter shall be carried in the vehicle or combination of vehicles to which it relates and shall be open to inspection by any law enforcement officer or authorized agent of any authority granting such a permit. Upon the third finding within a calendar year of a violation of the requirements and conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.095 as now or hereafter amended, the permit shall be canceled, and the canceled permit shall be immediately transmitted by the court or the arresting officer to the department of transportation. The vehicle covered by the canceled permit is not eligible for a new permit for a period of thirty days.

For the purposes of determining gross weights the actual scale weight taken by the arresting officer is prima facie evidence of the total gross weight. The chief of the state patrol, with the advice of the department, may adopt reasonable rules to aid in the enforcement of this section.

Sec. 328. Section 62, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 165. Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.61.515 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not more than seven hundred fifty dollars. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepentence, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The convicted person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services, as determined by the court. A diagnostic evaluation and treatment recommendation shall be prepared under the direction of the court by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. A copy of the report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. Based on that evaluation, the court shall determine whether the convicted person shall be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. Standards for approval for alcohol treatment programs shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a diagnostic evaluation by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. The report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) (There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. All funds derived from the penalty assessment are in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.690 and are for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. The penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence:

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from the penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section:

(5)) The license or permit to drive and any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age nineteen or for ninety days, whichever is longer. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated alcoholism agency or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified:

(b) On a second conviction under either offense within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for one year. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated alcoholism agency or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified:

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, or any combination thereof within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for two years.

((f))) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case the conviction is sustained on appeal the revocation or suspension takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.
Sec. 322. Section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess, as amended by section 1, chapter 57, Laws of 1977 and RCW 46.61.587 are each amended to read as follows:

Any violation of RCW 43.51.320 or 46.61.585 or any rule promulgated by the parks and recreation commission to enforce the provisions thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars (plus court costs, and said fine shall be deposited in the winter recreational parking account. Upon payment of the fine, a special winter recreational parking permit for the calendar year in which the violation occurs shall be issued by the commission to the owner of the vehicle subject to compliance with the rules and regulations governing the issuance of such permit).

Sec. 330. Section 13, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess, and by section 4, chapter 14. Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.63.110 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) A person found to have committed a traffic infraction shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No penalty may exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense unless authorized by this chapter or title.

(2) The supreme court may prescribe by rule a schedule of monetary penalties for designated traffic infractions. The legislature respectfully requests the supreme court to adjust this schedule every two years for inflation.

(3) There shall be a penalty of twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction except where the infraction relates to parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution or failure to pay a monetary penalty imposed pursuant to this chapter. A local legislative body may set a monetary penalty not to exceed twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction relating to parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution. The local court, whether a municipal, police, or district court, shall impose the monetary penalty set by the local legislative body. (Any monetary penalty imposed under this subsection is not subject to the statutory assessments applicable to traffic offenses, including but not limited to the assessments required by RCW 46.61.030, 43.101.210, 2.56.100, 3.02.060, and 13.40.260.)

(4) Monetary penalties provided for in chapter 46.70 RCW which are civil in nature and penalties which may be assessed for violations of chapter 46.44 RCW relating to size, weight, and load of motor vehicles are not subject to the limitation on the amount of monetary penalties which may be imposed pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment the court shall notify the department of the failure to pay the penalty, and the department may not renew the person's driver's license until the penalty has been paid and the penalty provided in subsection (3) of this section has been paid.

(6) There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury: a five-dollar fee in addition to the monetary penalty imposed for a traffic infraction other than a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction. The five-dollar fee shall not be suspended by the court.

Sec. 331. Section 8, chapter 39, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 4, chapter 76, Laws of 1977 and RCW 46.81.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((Subject to RCW 46.61.060)) Each school district shall be reimbursed from ((the traffic safety education account)) funds appropriated for traffic safety education; PROVIDED, That the state superintendent shall determine the per pupil reimbursement amount for the traffic safety education course to be funded by the state. Each school district offering an approved standard traffic safety education course shall be reimbursed or granted an amount up to the level established by the superintendent of public instruction as may be ((provided from the traffic safety education account)) appropriated.

(2) The board of directors of any school district or combination of school districts may establish a traffic safety education fee, which fee when imposed shall be required to be paid by any duly enrolled student in any such school district prior to or while enrolled in a traffic safety education course. Traffic safety education fees collected by a school district shall be deposited with the county treasurer to the credit of such school district, to be used to pay costs of the traffic safety education course.

Sec. 332. Section 75.08.230, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 23, chapter 46. Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.08.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, state and county officers receiving the following moneys shall deposit them in the state general fund:

(a) The sale of licenses required under this title;

(b) The sale of property seized or confiscated under this title;

(c) Fines and forfeitures collected under this title;

(d) The sale of real or personal property held for department purposes;

(e) Rentals or concessions of the department;

(f) Moneys received for damages to food fish, shellfish or department property; and

(g) Gifts.
(2) The director shall make weekly remittances to the state treasurer of moneys collected by the department.

(3) ([The courts may retain fifty percent of fines, forfeitures, and all costs collected under this title. The courts shall remit the remainder of the fines and forfeitures to the state treasurer monthly. Where a portion of a fine assessed by a court is suspended, deterred, or otherwise not collected, the entire amount collected shall be remitted to the state treasurer.)]) All fines and forfeitures collected or assessed by a justice court for a violation of this title or rule of the director shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW.

(4) Proceeds from the sale of food fish or shellfish taken in test fishing conducted by the department, to the extent that these proceeds exceed the estimates in the budget approved by the legislature, may be allocated as unanticipated receipts under RCW 43.79.270 to reimburse the department for unanticipated costs for test fishing operations in excess of the allowance in the budget approved by the legislature.

(5) Proceeds from the sale of salmon and salmon eggs by the department, to the extent these proceeds exceed estimates in the budget approved by the legislature, may be allocated as unanticipated receipts under RCW 43.79.270. Allocations under this subsection shall be made only for hatchery operations partially or wholly financed by sources other than state general revenues or for purposes of processing human consumable salmon for disposal.

(6) Moneys received by the director under RCW 75.08.045, to the extent these moneys exceed estimates in the budget approved by the legislature, may be allocated as unanticipated receipts under RCW 43.79.270. Allocations under this subsection shall be made only for the specific purpose for which the moneys were received, unless the moneys were received in settlement of a claim for damages to food fish or shellfish, in which case the moneys may be expended for the conservation of these resources.

Sec. 333. Section 15, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 and RCW 69.50.505 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture:

(1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, or acquired in violation of this chapter;

(2) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter;

(3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs (1) or (2);

(4) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation, for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in paragraphs (1) or (2), but:

(i) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter;

(ii) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without his knowledge or consent;

(iii) A conveyance is not subject to forfeiture for a violation of RCW 69.50.401(d);

(iv) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and

(v) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter the conveyance may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest;

(5) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter;

(6) All drug paraphernalia; and

(7) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other intangible property of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this chapter. PROVIDED: That no property may be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission which that owner establishes was committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent.

(b) Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter:
(3) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(4) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(c) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (b), proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person’s claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited.

(e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person’s claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer’s designee, except where the seizing agency is a state agency as defined in RCW 34.12.020(4), the hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney’s fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section.

(f) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

1. Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

2. Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this title shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Fifty percent of the money remaining after payment of such expenses (shall be deposited in the criminal justice training account established under RCW 43.101.210 which shall be appropriated by law to the Washington state criminal justice training commission and fifty percent)) shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency, and fifty percent shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the public safety and education account established in section 338 of this 1984 act;

3. Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

4. Forward it to the Bureau for disposition.

(g) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the board.

(h) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(i) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.
Sec. 334. Section 77.12.170, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 284, Laws of 1983 and by section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 77.12.170 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) There is established in the state treasury the state game fund which consists of moneys received from:

(a) Rentals or concessions of the department;
(b) The sale of real or personal property held for department purposes;
(c) The sale of licenses, permits, tags, stamps, and punchcards required by this title;
(d) Fees for informational materials published by the department;
(e) Fees for personalized vehicle license plates as provided in chapter 46.16 RCW;
(f) Articles or wildlife sold by the commission under this title;
(g) ((Penalty assessments collected under RCW 77.21.050;))

(h) Compensation for wildlife losses or gifts or grants received under RCW 77.12.320; and

(((f))) ((Penalty assessments collected under RCW 77.21.050;))

(i) Reimbursements collected under RCW 77.21.070; and

(j) ((Penalty assessments collected under RCW 77.21.050;))

(2) Except as provided in RCW 77.12.260, the treasurer shall credit forty percent of these fines and forfeitures to the state game fund and shall return the remainder to the county in which it was collected.

(3) State and county officers receiving any moneys listed in subsection (1) of this section shall deposit them in the state treasury to be credited to the state game fund.

(4) The term "fines and forfeitures" includes amounts, by whatever name known, levied by courts for violations of this title or rules of the commission but does not include penalty assessments under RCW 77.21.050, actual court costs, or reimbursements required under RCW 77.21.070.

Sec. 335. Section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 36, chapter 78, Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.201 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of a county may elect, by giving written notice to the director and the treasurer prior to January 1st of any year, to obtain for the following year an amount in lieu of real property taxes on game lands equal to that which would be paid on similar parcels of real property situated in the county. (Upon the election, all fines and forfeitures received by the county during that year under RCW 77.12.170 shall be deposited in the state treasury to be credited to the state game fund.)

The election shall continue until the department is notified differently prior to January 1st of any year.

Sec. 336. Section 3, chapter 8, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 77.21.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a person is convicted of illegal hunting or possession of wildlife listed in this subsection, the convicting court shall order the person to reimburse the state in the following amounts for each animal killed or possessed:

(a) Moose, antelope, mountain sheep, mountain goat, and all wildlife species classified as endangered by rule of the commission $1,000
(b) Elk, deer, black bear, and cougar $500

(2) For the purpose of this section, the term "convicted" includes a plea of guilty, a finding of guilt regardless of whether the imposition of the sentence is deferred or any part of the penalty is suspended, and the payment of a fine.

(3) If two or more persons are convicted of illegally hunting or possessing wildlife listed in this section, the reimbursement amount shall be imposed upon them jointly and separately.

(4) The reimbursement amount provided in this section shall be imposed in addition to and regardless of any penalty, including fines, or costs, that is provided for violating any provision of Title 77 RCW. The reimbursement required by this section shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence and may not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect. Nothing in this section may be construed to abridge or alter alternative rights of action or remedies in equity or under common law or statutory law, criminal or civil.

(5) A defaulted reimbursement or any installment payment thereof may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of orders of the court or collection of a fine or costs, including vacation of a deferral of sentencing or a suspension of sentence.

(((6) All moneys derived from reimbursements required under this section shall be remitted within five days after the end of each fiscal quarter to the state treasurer to the credit of the state game fund;)))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 337. There is added to chapter 3.62 RCW a new section to read as follows:
There shall be assessed and collected in addition to any fines, forfeitures, or penalties assessed, other than for parking infractions, by all courts organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW a public safety and education assessment equal to sixty percent of such fines, forfeitures, or penalties, which shall be remitted as provided in chapters 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, and 35.20 RCW. The assessment required by this section shall not be suspended or waived by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 338. There is added to chapter 43.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The money received by the state treasurer from fees, fines, forfeitures, penalties, reimbursements or assessments by any court organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW, or chapter 2.08 RCW, shall be deposited in the public safety and education account which is hereby created in the state general fund. The legislature shall appropriate the funds in the account to promote traffic safety education, highway safety, criminal justice training, crime victims' compensation, judicial education, the judicial information system, winter recreation parking, and state game programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 339. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 7, chapter 132, Laws of 1981, section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 2.56.100;
(3) Section 4, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.62.055;
(4) Section 2, chapter 330, Laws of 1981 and RCW 3.62.080;
(6) Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 36.18.026;
(7) Section 2, chapter 70, Laws of 1980, section 6, chapter 330, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.18.027;
(9) Section 3, chapter 130, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.518;
(10) Section 46.68.050, chapter 12, Laws of 1961, section 10, chapter 99, Laws of 1969, section 23, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.050;
(11) Section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 26, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 97, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.81.030;
(12) Section 5, chapter 39, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.81.040;
(13) Section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 46.81.050;
(14) Section 7, chapter 39, Laws of 1963, section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.81.060;
(15) Section 47.08.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961, section 26, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.08.030; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 340. All money which represents fines, fees, forfeitures, or penalties collected before July 1, 1985, under the sections amended or repealed in this act and held in trust by courts on July 1, 1985, shall be transferred to the appropriate county, city, and town treasurers no later than July 15, 1985. All unexpended money contained in the accounts abolished by this act shall be transferred to the account established in section 338 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. There is added to chapter 2.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The annual salary of justices of the supreme court shall be prescribed by the legislature in the biennial omnibus appropriations act. No salary warrant may be issued to a justice of the supreme court until the justice files with the state treasurer an affidavit that no matter referred to the justice for opinion or decision has been uncompleted or undecided for more than six months.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. There is added to chapter 2.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The annual salary of the judges of the court of appeals shall be prescribed by the legislature in the biennial omnibus appropriations act. No salary warrant may be issued to any judge until the judge files with the state treasurer an affidavit that no matter referred to the judge for opinion or decision has been uncompleted for more than six months.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. There is added to chapter 2.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The annual salary of the judges of the superior court shall be prescribed by the legislature in the biennial omnibus appropriations act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed, including any amendments enacted during 1984:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 405. There is added to chapter 2.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There shall be a state office to be known as the office of administrator for the courts who shall be appointed by the supreme court of this state from a list of five persons submitted by the governor, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointing power. The administrator for the courts shall receive a salary prescribed by the legislature in the biennial omnibus appropriations act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. (1) The legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The resolution of many disputes can be costly and complex in a judicial setting where the parties involved are necessarily in an adversary posture and subject to formalized procedures; and

(b) Alternative dispute resolution centers can meet the needs of Washington’s citizens by providing forums in which persons may voluntarily participate in the resolution of disputes in an informal and less adversarial atmosphere.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that programs established pursuant to this chapter:

(a) Stimulate the establishment and use of dispute resolution centers to help meet the need for alternatives to the courts for the resolution of certain disputes.

(b) Encourage continuing community participation in the development, administration, and oversight of local programs designed to facilitate the informal resolution of disputes between and among members of the community.

(c) Offer structures for dispute resolution which may serve as models for resolution centers in other communities.

(d) Serve a specific community or locale and resolve disputes that arise within that community or locale.

(e) Educate the community on ways of using the services of the neighborhood dispute resolution center directly and in a preventive capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. (1) A dispute resolution center may be created and operated by a municipality, county, or by a corporation organized exclusively for the resolution of disputes or for charitable or educational purposes. The corporation shall not be organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings may inure to the benefit of any private shareholders or individuals. The majority of the directors of such a corporation shall not consist of members of any single profession.

(2) A dispute resolution center may not begin operation under this chapter until a plan for establishing a center for the mediation and settlement of disputes has been approved by the legislative authority of the municipality or county creating the center or, in the case of a center operated by a nonprofit corporation, by the legislative authority of the municipality or county within which the center will be located. A plan for a dispute resolution center shall not be approved and the center shall not begin operation until the legislative authority finds that the plan adequately prescribes:

(a) Procedures for filing requests for dispute resolution services with the center and for scheduling mediation sessions participated in by the parties to the dispute;

(b) Procedures to ensure that each dispute mediated by the center meets the criteria for appropriateness for mediation set by the legislative authority and for rejecting disputes which do not meet the criteria;

(c) Procedures for giving notice of the time, place, and nature of the mediation session to the parties, and for conducting mediation sessions that comply with the provisions of this chapter;

(d) Procedures which ensure that participation by all parties is voluntary;

(e) Procedures for obtaining referrals from public and private bodies;

(f) Procedures for meeting the particular needs of the participants, including, but not limited to, providing services at times convenient to the participants, in sign language, and in languages other than English;

(g) Procedures for providing trained and certified mediators who, during the dispute resolution process, shall make no decisions or determinations of the issues involved, but who shall facilitate negotiations by the participants themselves to achieve a voluntary resolution of the issues; and

(h) Procedures for informing and educating the community about the dispute resolution center and encouraging the use of the center’s services in appropriate cases.

(3) A dispute resolution center established under this chapter annually shall provide to the administrator for the courts such data regarding its operation as the administrator requires. The administrator shall report annually beginning January 1, 1986, to the governor, the supreme court, and the legislature regarding the operation of centers established under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. A dispute resolution center established under this chapter shall provide dispute resolution services either without charge to the participants or for a fee which is based on the participant’s ability to pay.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 504. (1) In conducting a dispute resolution process, a center established under this chapter shall require:

(a) That the disputing parties enter into a written agreement which expresses the method by which they shall attempt to resolve the issues in dispute; and

(b) That at the conclusion of the dispute resolution process, the parties enter into a written agreement which sets forth the settlement of the issues and the future responsibilities, if any, of each party.

(2) A written agreement entered into with the assistance of a center at the conclusion of the written dispute resolution process is admissible as evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 505. All memoranda, work notes or products, or case files of centers established under this chapter are confidential and privileged and are not subject to disclosure in any judicial or administrative proceeding unless the court or administrative tribunal determines that the materials were submitted by a participant to the center for the purpose of avoiding discovery of the material in a subsequent proceeding. Any communication relating to the subject matter of the resolution made during the resolution process by any participant, mediator, or any other person is a privileged communication and is not subject to disclosure in any judicial or administrative proceeding unless all parties to the communication waive the privilege. The foregoing privilege and limitation on evidentiary use does not apply to any communication of a threat that injury or damage may be inflicted on any person or on the property of a party to the dispute, to the extent the communication may be relevant evidence in a criminal matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 506. Any person who voluntarily enters a dispute resolution process at a center established under this chapter may revoke his or her consent, withdraw from dispute resolution, and seek judicial or administrative redress prior to reaching a written resolution agreement. The withdrawal shall be in writing. No legal penalty, sanction, or restraint may be imposed upon the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 507. A dispute resolution center established under this chapter may seek and accept contributions from counties and municipalities, agencies of the state and federal governments, private sources, and any other available funds, and may expend the funds to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 508. Any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled as to participants in dispute resolution at a center established under this chapter during the period which begins with the date of the participants’ execution of the written agreement required by section 504(1)(a) of this act and ends on the date that a written agreement at the conclusion of the dispute resolution process is executed under section 504(1)(b) of this act or a participant’s written notice of withdrawal from the dispute resolution process is executed under section 506 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 509. Nothing in this chapter precludes any person or persons not operating under section 502 of this act from providing dispute resolution services. However, the provisions of section 505 of this act, relating to confidentiality, and section 508 of this act, relating to statutes of limitation, apply only to proceedings conducted by a dispute resolution center established under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 510. Sections 501 through 509 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 7 RCW.

Sec. 511. Section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1979 and RCW 7.06.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In counties of the second class and larger, the superior court of ((the)) the county, by majority vote of the judges thereof, or the county legislative authority may authorize mandatory arbitration of civil actions under this chapter. In all other counties, the superior court of the county, by a majority vote of the judges thereof, may authorize mandatory arbitration of civil actions under this chapter.

Sec. 512. Section 206, page 168, Laws of 1854 as amended by section 248, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall order all or any of the issues in ((the)) a civil action, whether of fact or law, or both, ((may—be)) referred to a referee upon the written consent of the parties ((but either)) which is filed with the clerk. Any party shall have the right in an action at law, upon an issue of fact, to demand a trial by jury. No referee appointed under this chapter may preside over a jury trial. The written consent of the parties constitutes a waiver of the right of trial by jury by any party having the right.

Sec. 513. Section 207, page 168, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 249, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Where the parties do not consent, the court ((or judge)) may upon the application of either party, direct a reference in all cases formerly cognizable in chancery in which reference might be made:

(1) When the trial of an issue of fact shall require the examination of a long account on either side, in which case the referees may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or to report upon any specific question of fact involved therein; or.

(2) When the taking of an account shall be necessary for the information of the court, before judgment upon an issue of law, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect; or.

(3) When a question of fact other than upon the pleadings shall arise, upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of the action: or.

(4) When it is necessary for the information of the court in a special proceeding.

Sec. 514. Section 208, page 168, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 250, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A reference may be ordered to any person or persons not exceeding three, agreed upon by the parties. If the ((parties do not agree)) reference is not agreed to by the parties, the court ((or judge)) may appoint one or more persons, not exceeding three.

Sec. 515. Section 209, page 169, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 251, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((When the appointment of referees is made by the court or judge, each referee)) A person appointed by the court as a referee or who serves as a referee with the consent of the parties shall be:

(1) Qualified as a juror as provided by statute.

(2) Competent as juror between the parties.

(3) A duly admitted and practicing attorney.

Sec. 516. Section 256, page 61, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 252, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((When the)) If a referee((s)) are chosen)) is appointed by the court, each party shall have the same right ((or)) to challenge ((as to such referees which)) the appointment. Challenges shall be made and determined in the same manner and with like effect as in the formation of juries, except that neither party shall be entitled to a peremptory challenge.

Sec. 517. Section 210, page 169, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 253, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the limitations and directions prescribed in the order of reference, the trial conducted by a referee((s)) shall be conducted in the same manner as a trial by the court. ((They)) Unless waived in whole or in part, the referee shall apply the rules of pleading, practice, procedure, and evidence used in the superior courts of this state. The referee shall have the same power to grant adjournments, administer oaths, preserve order, punish all violations thereof upon such trial, compel the attendance of witnesses, and to punish them for nonattendance or refusal to be sworn or testify, as is possessed by the court.

(2) A referee appointed under RCW 4.48.010 shall provide clerical personnel necessary for the conduct of the proceeding, including a court reporter.

Sec. 518. Section 210, page 169, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 254, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The report of ((the)) a referee((s)) appointed by the court under RCW 4.48.020 shall state the facts found, and when the order of reference includes an issue of law, it shall state the conclusions of law separately from the facts. The referee((s)) shall file with ((their)) the report the evidence received upon the trial. If evidence offered by either party shall not be admitted on the trial and the party offering the same excepts to the decision rejecting such evidence at the time, the exceptions shall be noted by the referees and they shall take and receive such testimony and file it with the report. Whatever judgment the court may give upon the report, it shall, when it appears that such evidence was frivolous and inadmissible, require the party at whose instance it was taken and reported, to pay all costs and disbursements thereby incurred.

Sec. 519. Section 259, page 62, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1957 and RCW 4.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The report of a referee appointed by the court under RCW 4.48.020 shall be filed with the clerk within twenty days after the trial concludes. Either party may, within such time as may be prescribed by the rules of ((the)) court, or by special order, move to set the same aside, or for judgment thereon, or such order or proceeding as the nature of the case may require.

Sec. 520. Section 260, page 62, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 256, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may affirm or set aside the report of a referee appointed under RCW 4.48.020 either in whole or in part. If it affirms the report it shall give judgment accordingly. If the report be set aside, either in whole or in part, the court may make another order of reference as to all or so much of the report as is set aside, to the original referees or others, or it may find the facts and determine the law itself and give judgment accordingly. Upon a motion to set aside a report, the conclusions thereof shall be deemed and considered as the verdict of the jury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 521. There is added to chapter 4.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. Within twenty days after the conclusion of a trial before a referee appointed under RCW 4.48.010, unless a later time is agreed to by the parties, the referee shall mail to each party a copy of the referee's proposed written report. The proposed report shall contain the findings of fact and conclusions of law by the referee and the judgment of the referee.

2. Within ten days after receipt of the copy of the proposed report, any party may serve written objections and suggested modifications or corrections to the proposed report on the referee and the other parties. The referee shall without delay consider the objections and suggestions and prepare a final written report. If requested by any party, the referee shall conduct a hearing on the proposed report and any suggested corrections or modifications before preparing the final written report.

3. Upon completion of the final written report, the referee shall file with the clerk of the superior court:
   (a) Copies of all original papers in the action filed with the referee;
   (b) Exhibits offered and received or rejected during the trial;
   (c) The transcript of the proceedings in the trial; and
   (d) The final written report containing the findings of fact and conclusions of law by the referee and the judgment of the referee.

4. The presiding judge of the superior court may allow the referee to file the final written report under subsection (3) of this section without any of the items listed in subsection (3)(a) through (c) of this section. However, the presiding judge shall require the referee to file those items if a timely notice of appeal of the judgment is filed.

5. When the referee files the written report under subsection (3) of this section, the referee shall also mail to each party a copy of the report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 522. There is added to chapter 4.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. Upon receipt by the clerk of the court of the final written report filed under section 521 of this act, the referral of the action shall terminate and the presiding judge of the superior court shall order the judgment contained in the report entered as the judgment of the court in the action. Subsequent motions and other post trial proceedings in the action may be conducted and disposed of by the referee appointed under chapter 4.48 RCW.

2. The decision of a referee entered as provided in this section may be reviewed in the same manner as if the decision was made by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 523. There is added to chapter 4.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

1. If an action is to be tried by a referee appointed under RCW 4.48.010, at least five days before the date set for the trial the referee shall advise the clerk of the court of the time and place set for the trial. The clerk shall post in a conspicuous place in the courthouse a notice that includes the names of the parties to the action, the time and place set for the trial, the name of the referee, and a statement that the proceeding is being held before a referee agreed to by the parties under chapter 4.48 RCW.

2. A person interested in attending a trial before a referee appointed under RCW 4.84.010 is entitled to do so as in a trial of a civil action in superior court. Upon request by any person, the referee shall give the person notice of the time and place set for the trial.

Sec. 524. Section 376, page 202, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 514, Code of 1881 and RCW 4.48.100 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The compensation of a referee appointed under RCW 4.48.020 shall be five dollars to each, for every day necessarily spent in the business of the reference and twenty cents per folio for writing testimony, but the parties may agree in writing upon any rate of compensation, and thereupon such rate shall be allowed) the same as that established for a superior court judge pro tempore under RCW 2.08.180.

2. If a referee is appointed pursuant to RCW 4.48.010, the referee's compensation shall be at the rate prescribed by subsection (1) of this section, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

3. Payment of the compensation of a referee appointed under RCW 4.48.010 and the expense of the trial before the referee shall be the obligation of the parties. The obligation shall be borne equally unless the parties agree to a different allocation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. (1) There is created a commission on judicial administration to study Washington's courts and report its findings and recommendations to the legislature, the governor, and the supreme court in accordance with section 603 of this act.

(2) The chief justice of the supreme court shall chair the commission. The commission shall be composed of members appointed in accordance with this section.
The following members shall be appointed by the chief justice from a list of nominees submitted by the appropriate organization:

(a) A county clerk from a list submitted by the Washington association of county clerks;
(b) A district or municipal court administrator from a list submitted by the Washington state association for court administration;
(c) A superior court administrator from a list submitted by the Washington association of superior court administrators;
(d) A judge of the court of appeals from lists submitted by the chief judge of each division of that court;
(e) A superior court judge from a list submitted by the association of superior court judges;
(f) A district judge and a municipal court judge from a list submitted by the Washington state magistrates association;
(g) A prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney from a list submitted by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys;
(h) Two attorneys, one of whom practices primarily as a criminal defense lawyer, from a list submitted by the Washington state bar association;
(i) A juvenile court director from a list submitted by the association of juvenile court directors;
(j) An elected member of a county legislative authority from a list submitted by the Washington state association of counties;
(k) An elected member of a municipal legislative authority from a list submitted by the Washington association of cities;
(l) A law enforcement officer from a list submitted by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs; and
(m) A shorthand court reporter from a list submitted by the Washington shorthand reporters association.

The chief justice shall appoint three persons to the commission who have demonstrated a significant interest in the administration of justice in this state and who are not affiliated with any of the organizations submitting nominees under subsection (3) of this section.

The president of the senate shall appoint two members of the senate, one each from the majority and minority party, to the commission. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint two members of the house of representatives, one each from the majority and minority party, to the commission.

Commission members shall serve without compensation. Commission members appointed under subsection (4) of this section shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall be reimbursed pursuant to RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 602. The administrator for the courts shall provide technical and administrative assistance to the commission on judicial administration in the performance of its duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 603. (1) The commission on judicial administration shall evaluate the existing structure of Washington’s judicial system, the jurisdiction of each level of courts, and the existing means of administering and financing the state’s courts and related court services, including probation, family court, court reporting, and juvenile court services.

(2) The commission shall report its findings and any recommendations for improvements in the structure, administration, and funding of the state’s court system, including changes in court rule, statute, or the state Constitution, to the legislature, the governor, and the supreme court. The commission shall provide the legislature, the governor, and the supreme court with an interim report on its activities on January 1, 1985. The commission shall issue its final report by October 1, 1985, and the commission shall terminate on July 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 604. There is added to chapter 2.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The office of the administrator for the courts, in cooperation with appropriate legislative committees and legislative staff, shall establish a procedure for the provision of judicial impact notes on the effect legislative bills will have on the workload and administration of the courts of this state. The administrator for the courts and the office of financial management shall coordinate the development of judicial impact notes with the preparation of fiscal notes under chapters 43.88A and 43.132 RCW.

(2) The administrator for the courts shall provide a judicial impact note on any legislative proposal at the request of any legislator. The note shall be provided to the requesting legislator and copies filed with the appropriate legislative committees in accordance with subsection (3) of this section when the proposed legislation is introduced in either house.

(3) When a judicial impact note is prepared and approved by the administrator for the courts, copies of the note shall be filed with:
(a) The chairperson of the committee to which the bill was referred upon introduction in the house of origin;
(b) The senate committee on ways and means;
(c) The house of representatives committee on ways and means:
(d) The senate judiciary committee;
(e) The house of representatives judiciary committee;
(f) The legislative budget committee; and
(g) The office of financial management.

(4) This section shall not prevent either house of the legislature from acting on any bill before it as otherwise provided by the state Constitution, by law, and by the rules and joint rules of the senate and house of representatives, nor shall the lack of any judicial impact note as provided in this section or any error in the accuracy thereof affect the validity of any measure otherwise duly passed by the legislature.

Sec. 701. Section 121. chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.66.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every (justice) district judge having authority to hear a particular case may issue (civil process in and to any place in the county or counties in which his district is located; and) criminal process in and to any place in the state.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision in the justice court civil rules to the contrary, every district judge having authority to hear a particular case may issue civil process in and to any place in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 702. There is added to chapter 12.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person may be compelled to attend as a witness before a district court in accordance with chapter 5.56 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 703. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(2) Section 66, page 234, Laws of 1854, section 177, page 371, Laws of 1873, section 1878, Code of 1881 and RCW 12.16.100;
(3) Section 67, page 234, Laws of 1854, section 178, page 371, Laws of 1873, section 1879, Code of 1881 and RCW 12.16.110; and
(4) Section 68, page 234, Laws of 1854, section 179, page 372, Laws of 1873, section 1880, Code of 1881 and RCW 12.16.120.

Sec. 801. Section 35.20.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 23, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The municipal court shall have (exclusive original) jurisdiction to try violations of all city ordinances and all other actions brought to enforce or recover license penalties or forfeitures declared or given by any such ordinances. It is empowered to forfeit cash bail or bail bonds and issue execution thereon, to hear and determine all causes, civil or criminal, arising under such ordinances, and to pronounce judgment in accordance therewith: PROVIDED, That for a violation of the criminal provisions of an ordinance no greater punishment shall be imposed than a fine of five (hundred) thousand dollars or imprisonment in the city jail not to exceed (six months) one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. All civil and criminal proceedings in municipal court, and judgments rendered therein, shall be subject to review in the superior court by writ of review or on appeal: PROVIDED, That an appeal from the court’s determination or order in a traffic infraction proceeding may be taken only in accordance with RCW 46.63.090(5). Costs in civil and criminal cases may be taxed as provided in ((justice of the peace)) district courts.

Sec. 802. Section 35.22.280, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 20, chapter 316, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 35.22.280 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city of the first class shall have power:

(1) To provide for general and special elections, for questions to be voted upon, and for the election of officers;
(2) To provide for levying and collecting taxes on real and personal property for its corporate uses and purposes, and to provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the corporation;
(3) To control the finances and property of the corporation, and to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, such lands and other property as may be necessary for any part of the corporate uses provided for by its charter, and to dispose of any such property as the interests of the corporation may, from time to time, require;
(4) To borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation, and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, on such conditions and in such manner as shall be prescribed in its charter; but no city shall, in any manner or for any purpose, become indebted to an amount in the aggregate to exceed the limitation of indebtedness prescribed by chapter 39.36 RCW as now or hereafter amended;
(5) To issue bonds in place of or to supply means to meet maturing bonds or other indebtedness, or for the consolidation or funding of the same;
(6) To purchase or appropriate private property within or without its corporate limits, for its corporate uses, upon making just compensation to the owners thereof, and to institute and maintain such proceedings as may be authorized by the general laws of the state for the appropriation of private property for public use;
To lay out, establish, open, alter, widen, extend, grade, pave, plank, establish grades, or otherwise improve streets, alleys, avenues, sidewalks, wharves, parks, and other public grounds, and to regulate and control the use thereof, and to vacate the same, and to authorize or prohibit the use of electricity at, in, or upon any of said streets, or for other purposes, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which the same may be so used, and to regulate the use thereof;

To change the grade of any street, highway, or alley within its corporate limits, and to provide for the payment of damages to any abutting owner or owners who shall have built or made other improvements upon such street, highway, or alley at any point opposite to the point where such change shall be made with reference to the grade of such street, highway, or alley as the same existed prior to such change;

To authorize or prohibit the locating and constructing of any railroad or street railroad in any street, alley, or public place in such city, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any such railroad or street railroad shall be located or constructed; to provide for the alteration, change of grade, or removal thereof; to regulate the moving and operation of railroad and street railroad trains, cars, and locomotives within the corporate limits of said city; and to provide by ordinance for the protection of all persons and property against injury in the use of such railroads or street railroads;

To provide for making local improvements, and to levy and collect special assessments on property benefited thereby, and for paying for the same or any portion thereof;

To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, lands for public parks within or without the limits of such city, and to improve the same. When the language of any instrument by which any property is so acquired limits the use of said property to park purposes and contains a reservation of interest in favor of the grantor or any other person, and where it is found that the property so acquired is not needed for park purposes and that an exchange thereof for other property to be dedicated for park purposes is in the public interest, the city may, with the consent of the grantor or such other person, his heirs, successors, or assigns, exchange such property for other property to be dedicated for park purposes, and may make, execute, and deliver proper conveyances to effect the exchange. In any case where, owing to death or lapse of time, there is neither donor, heir, successor, or assignee to give consent, this consent may be executed by the city and filed for record with an affidavit setting forth all efforts made to locate people entitled to give such consent together with the facts which establish that no consent by such persons is attainable. Title to property so conveyed by the city shall vest in the grantee free and clear of any trust in favor of the public arising out of any prior dedication for park purposes, but the right of the public shall be transferred and preserved with like force and effect to the property received by the city in such exchange;

To construct and keep in repair bridges, viaducts, and tunnels, and to regulate the use thereof;

To determine what work shall be done or improvements made at the expense, in whole or in part, of the owners of the adjoining contiguous, or proximate property, or others specially benefitted thereby; and to provide for the manner of making and collecting assessments therefor;

To provide for erecting, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring waterworks, within or without the corporate limits of said city, to supply said city and its inhabitants with water, or authorize the construction of same by others when deemed for the best interests of such city and its inhabitants, and to regulate and control the use and price of the water so supplied;

To provide for lighting the streets and all public places, and for furnishing the inhabitants thereof with gas or other lights, and to erect, or otherwise acquire, and to maintain the same, or to authorize the erection and maintenance of such works as may be necessary and convenient therefor, and to regulate and control the use thereof;

To establish and regulate markets, and to provide for the weighing, measuring, and inspection of all articles of food and drink offered for sale thereat, or at any other place within its limits, by proper penalties, and to enforce the keeping of proper legal weights and measures by all vendors in such city, and to provide for the inspection thereof:

To erect and establish hospitals and pesthouses, and to control and regulate the same;

To provide for establishing and maintaining reform schools for juvenile offenders;

To provide for the establishment and maintenance of public libraries, and to appropriate, annually, such percent of all moneys collected for fines, penalties, and licenses as shall be prescribed by its charter, for the support of a city library, which shall, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by ordinance, be open for use by the public;

To regulate the burial of the dead, and to establish and regulate cemeteries within or without the corporate limits, and to acquire land therefor by purchase or otherwise; to cause cemeteries to be removed beyond the limits of the corporation, and to prohibit their establishment within two miles of the boundaries thereof;

To direct the location and construction of all buildings in which any trade or occupation offensive to the senses or deleterious to public health or safety shall be carried on, and to regulate the management thereof; and to prohibit the erection or maintenance of such buildings or structures, or the carrying on of such trade or occupation within the limits of such corporation, or within the distance of two miles beyond the boundaries thereof;

(22) To provide for the prevention and extinguishment of fires and to regulate or prohibit the transportation, keeping, or storage of all combustible or explosive materials within its corporate limits, and to regulate and restrain the use of fireworks;

(23) To establish fire limits and to make all such regulations for the erection and maintenance of buildings or other structures within its corporate limits as the safety of persons or property may require, and to cause all such buildings and places as may from any cause be in a dangerous state to be put in safe condition;

(24) To regulate the manner in which stone, brick, and other buildings, party walls, and partition fences shall be constructed and maintained;

(25) To deepen, widen, dock, cover, wall, alter, or change the channels of waterways and courses, and to provide for the construction and maintenance of all such works as may be required for the accommodation of commerce, including canals, slips, public landing places, wharves, docks, and levees, and to control and regulate the use thereof;

(26) To control, regulate, or prohibit the anchorage, moorage, and landing of all watercrafts and their cargoes within the jurisdiction of the corporation;

(27) To fix the rates of wharfage and dockage, and to provide for the collection thereof, and to provide for the imposition and collection of such harbor fees as may be consistent with the laws of the United States;

(28) To license, regulate, control, or restrain wharf boats, tugs, and other boats used about the harbor or within such jurisdiction;

(29) To require the owners of public halls or other buildings to provide suitable means of exit; to provide for the prevention and abatement of nuisances, for the cleaning and purification of watercourses and canals, for the drainage and filling up of ponds on private property within its limits, when the same shall be offensive to the senses or dangerous to health; to regulate and control, and to prevent and punish, the settlement or pollution of all streams running through or into its corporate limits, and for the distance of five miles beyond its corporate limits, and on any stream or lake from which the water supply of said city is taken, for a distance of five miles beyond its source of supply; to provide for the cleaning of areas, vaults, and other places within its corporate limits which may be so kept as to become offensive to the senses or dangerous to health, and to make all such quarantine or other regulations as may be necessary for the preservation of the public health, and to remove all persons afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease to some suitable place to be provided for that purpose;

(30) To declare what shall be a nuisance, and to abate the same, and to impose fines upon parties who may create, continue, or suffer nuisances to exist;

(31) To regulate the selling or giving away of intoxicating, malt, vinous, mixed, or fermented liquors as authorized by the general laws of the state: PROVIDED, That no license shall be granted to any person or persons who shall not first comply with the general laws of the state in force at the time the same is granted;

(32) To grant licenses for any lawful purpose, and to fix by ordinance the amount to be paid therefor, and to provide for revoking the same: PROVIDED, That no license shall be granted to continue for longer than one year from the date thereof;

(33) To regulate the carrying on within its corporate limits of all occupations which are of such a nature as to affect the public health or the good order of said city, or to disturb the public peace, and which are not prohibited by law, and to provide for the punishment of all persons violating such regulations, and of all persons who knowingly permit the same to be violated in any building or upon any premises owned or controlled by them;

(34) To restrain and provide for the punishment of vagrants, mendicants, prostitutes, and other disorderly persons;

(35) To provide for the punishment of all disorderly conduct, and of all practices dangerous to public health or safety, and to make all regulations necessary for the preservation of public morality, health, peace, and good order within its limits, and to provide for the arrest, trial, and punishment of all persons charged with violating any of the ordinances of said city. The punishment shall not exceed a fine of five thousand dollars or imprisonment in the city jail for (six months) one year, or both such fine and imprisonment;

(36) To project or extend its streets over and across any tidelands within its corporate limits, and along or across the harbor areas of such city, in such manner as will best promote the interests of commerce;

(37) To provide in their respective charters for a method to propose and adopt amendments thereto.

Sec. 803. Section 35.23.440, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 28, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35.23.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council of each second class city shall have power and authority:

(1) Ordinances: To make and pass all ordinances, orders, and resolutions not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States or the state of Washington, or the provisions of this title, necessary for the municipal government and management of the affairs of the city, for the execution of the powers vested in said body corporate, and for the carrying into effect of the provisions of this title.

(2) License of shows: To fix and collect a license tax, for the purposes of revenue and regulation, on theatres, melodeons, balls, concerts, dances, theatrical, circus, or other performances, and all performances where an admission fee is charged, or which may be held in any house or place where wines or liquors are sold to the participators; also all shows, billiard tables, pool tables, bowling alleys, exhibitions, or amusements.

(3) Hotels, etc., licenses: To fix and collect a license tax for the purposes of revenue and regulation on and to regulate all taverns, hotels, restaurants, banks, brokers, manufactories, livery stables, express companies and persons engaged in transmitting letters or packages, railroad, stage, and steamboat companies or owners, whose principal place of business is in such city, or who have an agency therein.

(4) Auctioneers' licenses: To license and regulate auctioneers for the purposes of revenue and regulation.

Sec. 804. Section 35.24.290, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 23, chapter 316, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 35.24.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council of each third class city shall have power:

(1) To pass ordinances not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this state or of the United States;

(2) To prevent and regulate the running at large of any or all domestic animals within the city limits or any part thereof and to cause the impounding and sale of any such animals:
(3) To establish, build and repair bridges, to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, open, widen, vacate, improve and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish and reestablish the grades thereof; to grade, plunk, pave, macadamize, gravel and curb the same, in whole or in part; to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and crosswalks therein or upon any part thereof; to cultivate and maintain parking strips therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places; to provide by local assessment for the leveling up and surfacing and oiling or otherwise treating for the laying of dust, all streets within the city limits;

(4) To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and shall have power to compel all property owners on streets and alleys or within two hundred feet thereof along which sewers shall have been constructed to make proper connections therewith and to use the same for proper purposes, and in case the owners of the property on such streets and alleys or within two hundred feet thereof fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such council, it may cause such connections to be made and assess against the property served thereby the costs and expenses thereof;

(5) To provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires;

(6) To impose and collect an annual license on every dog within the limits of the city, to prohibit dogs running at large and to provide for the killing of all dogs not duly licensed found at large;

(7) To license, for the purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business authorized by law, and transacted and carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein and within one mile of the corporate limits thereof, to fix the rate of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise;

(8) To improve rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten and deepen the channel thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the water-front of the city, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow; to prevent the filling of the water of any bay, except such filling over tide or shorelands as may be provided for by order of the city council; to purify and prevent the pollution of streams of water, lakes or other sources of supply, and for this purpose shall have jurisdiction over all streams, lakes or other sources of supply, both within and without the city limits. Such city shall have power to provide by ordinance and to enforce such punishment or penalty as the city council may deem proper for the offense of polluting or in any manner obstructing or interfering with the water supply of such city or source thereof;

(9) To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes:

(10) To permit, under such restrictions as it may deem proper, and to grant franchises for, the laying of railroad tracks, and the running of cars propelled by electric, steam or other power thereon, and the laying of gas and water pipes and steam mains and conduits for underground wires, and to permit the construction of tunnels or subways in the public streets, and to construct and maintain and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph, telephone and electric lines therein;

(11) In its discretion to divide the city by ordinance, into a convenient number of wards, not exceeding six, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time: PROVIDED. That no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of a general municipal election, nor within twenty months after the wards have been established or altered. Whenever such city is so divided into wards, the city council shall designate by ordinance the number of councilmen to be elected from each ward, apportioning the same in proportion to the population of the wards. Thereafter the councilmen so designated shall be elected by the qualified electors resident in such ward, or by general vote of the whole city as may be designated in such ordinance. When additional territory is added to the city it may by act of the council, be annexed to contiguous wards without affecting the right to redistrict at the expiration of twenty months after last previous division. The removal of a councilman from the ward for which he was elected shall create a vacancy in such office;

(12) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both, but no such fine shall exceed five (hundred) thousand dollars nor the term of such imprisonment exceed the term of (six months) one year;

(13) To establish fire limits, with proper regulations;

(16) To punish the keepers and inmates and lessors of houses of ill fame, gamblers and keepers of gambling tables, patrons thereof or those found loitering about such houses and places;

(17) To make all such ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations and resolutions, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the corporation and its trade, commerce and manufactures, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and to enact and enforce within the limits of such city all other local, police, sanitary and other regulations as do not conflict with general laws;

(18) To license steamers, boats and vessels used in any bay or other watercourse in the city and to fix and collect such license; to provide for the regulation of berths, landings, and stations, and for the removing of steamboats, sail boats, sail vessels, rafts, barges and other watercraft; to provide for the removal of obstructions to navigation and of structures dangerous to navigation or to other property, in or adjoining the waterfront, except in municipalities in counties in which there is a city of the first class.

essary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of and convey the same for the benefit of the town; to acquire, own, and hold real estate for cemetery purposes either within or without the corporate limits, to sell and dispose of such real estate, to piar or repiait such real estate into cemetery lots and to sell and dispose of any and all lots therein, and to operate, improve and maintain the same as a cemetery;

(3) To contract for supplying the town with water for municipal purposes, or to acquire, construct, repair and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, or other works necessary or proper for supplying water for use of such town or its inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein;

(4) To establish, build and repair bridges, to establish, lay out, alter, widen. extend, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares and other public highways and places within the town, and to drain, sprinkle and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, plank, macadamize, gravel and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and crosswalks therein, or on any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out and cultivated trees therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places;

(5) To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and shall have power to compel all property owners on streets along which sewers are constructed to make proper connections therewith, and to use the same for proper purposes when such property is improved by the erection thereon of a building or buildings; and in case the owners of such improved property on such streets shall fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such council, they may cause such connections to be made, and to assess against the property in front of which such connections are made the costs and expenses thereof;

(6) To provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires;

(7) To impose and collect an annual license on every dog within the limits of the town, to prohibit dogs running at large, and to provide for the killing of all dogs found at large and not duly licensed;

(8) To levy and collect annually a property tax. for the payment of current expenses and for the payment of indebtedness (if any indebtedness exists) within the limits authorized by law;

(9) To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business, authorized by law and transacted and carried on in such town; and all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein and within one mile of the corporate limits thereof; to fix the rate of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same, by suit or otherwise; to regulate, restrain, or prohibit the running at large of any and all domestic animals within the city limits, or any part or parts thereof, and to regulate the keeping of such animals within any part of the city; to establish, maintain and regulate a common pound for estrays, and to appoint a poundkeeper, who shall be paid out of the fines and fees imposed on, and collected from, the owners of any impounded stock;

(10) To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such town or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten and deepen the channels thereof, and to remove obstructions therefrom; to prevent the pollution of streams or water running through such town, and for this purpose shall have jurisdiction for two miles in either direction; to improve the waterfront of the town, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such town from overflow;

(11) To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes;

(12) To grant franchises or permits to use and occupy the surface, the overhead and the underground of streets, alleys and other public ways, under such terms and conditions as it shall deem fit. for any and all purposes, including but not being limited to the construction, maintenance and operation of railroads, street railways, transportation systems, water, gas and steam systems, telephone and telegraph systems, electric lines, signal systems, surface, aerial and underground tramways;
(13) To punish the keepers and inmates and lessors of houses of ill fame, and keepers and lessors of gambling houses and rooms and other places where gambling is carried on or permitted, gamblers and keepers of gambling tables;
(14) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance, to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed five ((thousand)) thousand dollars, nor the term of imprisonment exceed ((six months)) one year;
(15) To operate ambulance service which may serve the town and surrounding rural areas and, in the discretion of the council, to make a charge for such service;
(16) To make all such ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations and resolutions not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the town and its trade, commerce and manufacturers, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 806. Section 35.30.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.30.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The council, or other legislative body, of all cities within the state of Washington which were created by special charter prior to the adoption of the state Constitution, and which have not since reincorporated under any general statute, shall have, in addition to the powers specicially granted by the charter of such cities, the following powers:

(1) To construct, establish and maintain drains and sewers.
(2) To impose and collect an annual license not exceeding two dollars on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city.
(3) To levy and collect annually a property tax on all property within such city.
(4) To license all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein; and to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.
(5) To permit, under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the construction and maintenance of telephone, telegraph and electric light lines therein.
(6) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances; and for any breach or violation of any ordinance, to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment or both.
but no such fine shall exceed ((three hundred)) five thousand dollars nor the term of imprisonment exceed ((three months)) one year.
(7) To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets or other public property or works within the city.

stitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the city, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of the municipal corporation.

Sec. 807. Section 35A.11.020, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.11.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of each code city shall have power to organize and regulate its internal affairs within the provisions of this title and its charter, if any; and to define the functions, powers, and duties of its officers and employees; within the limitations imposed by vested rights, to fix the compensation and working conditions of such officers and employees and establish and maintain civil service, or merit systems, retirement and pension systems not in conflict with the provisions of this title or of existing charter provisions until changed by the people: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section or in this title shall permit any city, whether a code city or otherwise, to enact any provisions establishing or respecting a merit system or system of civil service for firemen and policemen which does not substantially accomplish the same purpose as provided by general law in chapter 41.08 RCW for firemen and chapter 41.12
RCW for policemen now or as hereafter amended, or enact any provision establishing or respecting a pension or retirement system for firemen or policemen which provides different pensions or retirement benefits than are provided by general law for such classes. Such body may adopt and enforce ordinances of all kinds relating to and regulating its local or municipal affairs and appropriate to the good government of the city, and may impose penalties of fine not exceeding five ((hundred)) thousand dollars or imprisonment for any term not exceeding ((six months)) one year; or both, for the violation of such ordinances, constituting a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor as provided therein. The legislative body of each code city shall have all powers possible for a city or town to have under the Constitution of this state, and not specifically denied to code cities by law. By way of illustration and not in limitation, such powers may be exercised in regard to the acquisition, sale, ownership, improvement, maintenance, protection, restoration, regulation, use, leasing, disposition, vacation, abandonment or beautification of public ways, real property of all kinds, waterways, structures, or any other improvement or use of real or personal property, in regard to all aspects of collective bargaining as provided for and subject to the provisions of chapter 41.56 RCW, as now or hereater amended, and in the rendering of local social, cultural, recreational, educational, governmental, or corporate services, including operating and supplying of utilities and municipal services commonly or conveniently rendered by cities or towns. In addition and not in limitation, the legislative body of each code city shall have any authority ever given to any class of municipality or to all municipalities of this state before or after the enactment of this title, such authority to be exercised in the manner provided, if any, by the granting statute, when not in conflict with this title. Within constitutional limitations, legislative bodies of code cities shall have within their territorial limits all powers of taxation for local purposes except those which are expressly preempted by the state as provided in RCW 66.08.120, RCW 82.36-440, RCW 48.14.020, and RCW 48.14.080.

Sec. 808. Section 9A.20.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Classified Felonies. (a) The particular classification of each felony defined in Title 9A RCW is expressly designated in the section defining it.

(b) For purposes of sentencing, classified felonies are designated as one of three classes, as follows:

(i) Class A felony; or

(ii) Class B felony; or

(iii) Class C felony.

(2) Misdemeanors and Gross Misdemeanors. (a) Any crime punishable by a fine of not more than (three hundred) one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment is a misdemeanor. Whenever the performance of any act is prohibited by any statute, and no penalty for the violation of such statute is imposed, the committing of such act shall be a misdemeanor.

(b) All crimes other than felonies and misdemeanors are gross misdemeanors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. There is appropriated from the general fund to the administrator for the courts for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of eight thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of section 601(6) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. (1) Sections 1 through 210, 511, 601 through 808, and 901 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1984.

(2) Sections 501 through 510 and 512 through 524 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 14, 1984

Mr. President:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3868 with the following amendments:

On page 4, after line 1, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 62, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.018 are each amended to read as follows:

Two or more irrigation districts may create a separate legal authority to carry out any or all of the powers described in RCW 87.03.015. To enable such a legal authority to carry out its delegated powers, the irrigation districts creating the authority may assign, convey, or otherwise transfer to it any or all of their respective property, rights, or obligations, including, without limitation, the power to issue revenue obligations and the power of condemnation. Such a legal authority shall be created and organized by contract in the manner described in chapter 39.34 RCW and shall be a separate legal entity.

A separate legal authority shall only have power to incur indebtedness that is repayable from rates, tolls, charges, or contract payments for services or electricity provided by the authority and to pledge such revenues for the payment and retirement of indebtedness issued for the construction or acquisition of hydroelectric facilities. An authority shall not have power to levy taxes or to impose assessments for the payment of obligations of the authority. Every bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued by an authority shall provide (1) that repayment shall be limited solely to the revenues of the authority; and (2) that no member of the authority shall be obligated to repay directly or indirectly any obligation of the authority except to the extent of fair value for services actually received from the authority. No member may pledge its revenues to support the issuance of revenue bonds or other indebtedness of an authority."

On page 1, on line 6 of the title, after "87.03.460;" insert "amending section 1, chapter 62, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.018;"

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

Sec. 207. Section 57. chapter 76. Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—INCOME ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation—State $ (359,127,900) 374,252,000

General Fund Appropriation—Federal $ (314,361,900) 329,528,000

Total Appropriation $ (673,489,800) 703,780,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility determinations are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(a) The process implementing such medical criteria shall involve consideration of the opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontradicted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(b) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient incapacitated.

((4))) (2) Public assistance grants shall not be prorated or otherwise reduced solely because of the presence in the household of an individual not legally responsible for the support of the assistance unit, and the department shall not assume any contribution from such individual for the support of the assistance unit.

((4))) (3) $12,766,400 of which $7,893,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely for aid to families with dependent children for two-parent families beginning on July 1, 1983, and continuing through June 30, ((1984)) 1985. Additional funds appropriated in this section may be expended for the program during such period. The department shall amend its state plan under title IVA of the federal social security act in order to secure federal matching funds for the program during such period.

((5))) (4) $2,982,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for general assistance to pregnant women under the 1983 amendments to RCW 74.04.005.

((5))) (5) Grant payment standards will be increased 2.5% on July 1, 1983, and 3.0% on July 1, 1984, for aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, consolidated emergency assistance, and refugee assistance.
It is the continuing intention of the legislature that payment levels in the aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, and refugee assistance programs contain an energy allowance to offset the high and rising costs of energy, and that such allowance be excluded from consideration as income for the purpose of determining eligibility and benefit levels of the food stamp program to the maximum extent such exclusion is authorized under federal law and RCW 74.08.046. To this end, up to $65,000,000 is so designated for exemptions of the following amounts:

Total Appropriation $609,817,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $((33,321,000)) 33,321,000, of which $((16,681,000)) 16,681,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely for medical assistance and limited casualty program coverage for persons in two-parent families who are categorically related to the aid to families with dependent children program, between July 1, 1983, and June 30, 1985. Additional funds appropriated under this section may be expended for the coverage during such period. The department shall amend its state plan under title XIX of the federal social security act in order to secure federal matching funds for the coverage during such period.

(2) Vendor rate adjustments for fee-for-service providers shall average 2.5% on July 1, 1983, and 3.0% on July 1, 1984.

(3) The legislature finds and declares that rising hospital costs are a vital concern. Therefore, it is essential that an effective cost control program be pursued. The department shall pay for inpatient hospital services under the federal medicaid program through the use of rates that are reasonable and adequate to meet the costs that must be incurred by efficiently and economically operated providers to provide services in conformity with applicable state and federal laws, regulations, and quality and safety standards.

(4) $7,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation ((shall be placed in a reserve account. The department is directed to report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1984, on its methods for establishing inpatient hospital payment rates; the changes it anticipates in such rates during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1985; the reasons therefor; and any anticipated additional expenditures for inpatient hospital treatment during such fiscal year. No expenditure shall be made from the reserve account established in this subsection until specifically authorized by law)) is released from reserve status. These funds are provided solely for fiscal year 1985 hospital payments.

(5) The department is directed to seek increased participation of 3,000 additional recipients over those currently enrolled in health maintenance organizations and individual practice associations. By December 31, 1984, the department shall report to the legislature on progress in these efforts.
(6) The department shall establish by rule a system to ensure that the appropriations in this section are not expended to cover persons who are already covered by private or other public programs.

(7) The department shall provide payment for chiropractic services under RCW 74.09.035 and 74.09.520.

(8) The department shall reimburse health care providers licensed under chapters 18.53, 18.71, 18.22, and 18.57 RCW for comparable services at equal rates.

Sec. 209. Section 60, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

For districts enrolling not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students (except as otherwise specified) and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, certificated staff units shall be determined as follows:

      i. For grades K-6, for enrollments of not more than sixty annual average full time equivalent students, three certificated staff units;
(ii) For grades K-6, for enrollments above sixty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per twenty annual average full time equivalent students;

(iii) For grades 7 and 8, for enrollments of not more than twenty annual average full time equivalent students, one certificated staff unit;

(iv) For grades 7 and 8, for enrollment above twenty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per twenty annual average full time equivalent students:

(v) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a K-8 program or a 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated staff unit;

(vi) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a K-6 or 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated staff unit.

(d) For districts operating high schools with enrollments of not more than three hundred annual average full time equivalent students, certificated staff units shall be determined as follows:

(i) Nine and one-half certificated staff units for the first sixty annual average full time equivalent students;

(ii) Additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per forty-three and one-half annual average full time equivalent students.

(3) (a) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit determined under subsection (2)(a), (c), and (d) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $5,287 per staff unit in the 1983-84 school year and a maximum of $5,462 per staff unit in the 1984-85 school year.

(b) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit determined under subsection (2)(b) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $10,074 per staff unit in the 1983-84 school year and a maximum of $10,408 per staff unit in the 1984-85 school year.

(4) Formula allocation of classified staff units shall be determined as follows:

(a) One classified staff unit for each three certificated staff units determined under subsection (2)(a), (c), and (d) of this section;

(b) One classified staff unit for each sixty full time equivalent vocational students enrolled;

and

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(5) The superintendent shall distribute a maximum of $17,088,000 outside the basic education formula as follows:

(a) A maximum of $636,000 may be distributed to school districts for fire protection at a rate of $1,056 in fiscal year 1984 and $1,119 in fiscal year 1985 for each student attending a school located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW.

(b) A maximum of $1,650,000 may be expended for operation of vocational programs at each of the skill centers during the summer months, beginning in 1983.

(c) A maximum of $272,000 may be distributed for school district emergencies.

(d) A maximum of $3,613,000 may be expended for districts which experience an enrollment decline of at least four percent or more than three hundred full time equivalent students, whichever is less, from the enrollment of the prior year. For a qualifying district, the superintendent of public instruction shall increase the enrollment as otherwise computed by twenty-five percent of the full time equivalent enrollment loss from the previous school year.

(e) A maximum of $3,720,000 in fiscal year 1984 and $7,197,000 in fiscal year 1985 may be expended for substitute teachers. Funds shall be distributed to school districts at a rate not to exceed $150 per year per full time equivalent classroom teacher in the basic education and handicapped programs for 1983-84 and $250 per year for 1984-85.

(6) For the 1982-83 school year, if a school district is in violation of RCW 28A.58.095 the superintendent shall withhold the lesser of five percent or an amount equal to the level of violation, applied to the district's basic education allocation.

Sec. 503. Section 101, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

"BASIC EDUCATION ALLOCATION—CALCULATION OF CERTIFICATED STAFF COMPENSATION

(1) The certificated compensation allocation for school year 1983-84 shall be the sum of the following subsections:

(a) Maintenance of compensation shall be calculated using each district's 1982-83 base salary established in LEAP Document 5 times the number of certificated staff units generated in section 97 (2) (a) through (d) of this act in each district times each district's particular 1982-83 average staff mix factor improved by 7.43%:"
(b) Health benefits shall be calculated at the rate of $137 per month per certificated full time equivalent staff units generated in section 97 (2) (a) through (d) of this act.

(2) The certificated compensation allocation for school year 1984-85 shall be the sum of the following subsections:

(a) Maintenance of compensation calculated by using each district's 1982-83 base salary established in LEAP Document 5 times the number of staff units generated in section 97 (2) (a) through (d) of this act times each district's particular 1983-84 average staff mix factor improved by 7.66%.

(b) Health benefits shall be calculated at the rate of $137 per month per certificated full time equivalent staff units generated in section 97 (2) (a) through (d) of this act.

Sec. 504. Section 102, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

BASIC EDUCATION ALLOCATION——CALCULATION OF CLASSIFIED STAFF COMPENSATION

(1) The 1983-84 basic education classified compensation allocation for each district shall be the sum of the following subsections:

(a) Maintenance of classified compensation shall be calculated using the staff units generated in section 97 (4) (a) through (c) of this act times each district's 1982-83 average classified salary, established in LEAP Document 5, improved by 16.55%.

(b) Health benefits shall be calculated at the rate of $137 per month per classified full time equivalent staff units generated in section 97 (4) (a) through (c) of this act.

(2) The 1984-85 basic education classified compensation allocation for each district shall be the sum of the following:

(a) Maintenance of classified compensation shall be calculated using the staff units generated in section 97 (4) (a) through (c) of this act times each district's 1982-83 average classified salary, established in LEAP Document 5, improved by 16.78%.

(b) Health benefits shall be calculated at the rate of $137 per month per classified full time equivalent staff units generated in section 97 (4) (a) through (c) of this act.

Sec. 505. Section 103, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION——SALARY AND COMPENSATION INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation ................................................................. $ (71,983,000) 77,328,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Increases provided by this section shall be included for purposes of calculating the levy lid pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW.

(2) Salary and insurance benefit increase funds provided by this section shall be distributed by the superintendent of public instruction as specified in this section on an allocation basis only and may be expended by school districts for any state-funded activity.

(3) A maximum of $26,311,000 shall be distributed for insurance benefit increases for full time equivalent state-supported staff as defined in section 98(1) of this act at a rate of $22 per month per full time equivalent staff unit in the 1983-84 school year and such amount shall be maintained in the 1984-85 school year.

(4) A maximum of $4,286,000 shall be distributed in the 1984-85 school year for insurance benefit increases for full time equivalent state-supported staff as defined in section 98(1) of this act at a rate of $8 per month per full time equivalent staff unit.

(5) (a) A maximum of $10,185,000 is provided, effective (November 1, 1984) January 1, 1985, for incremental fringe benefits in section 98(2) of this act and ((5.0%)) 7.0% of the 1982-83 LEAP Document 5 state-wide average salary for state-supported basic education classified staff as defined in section 98(1) of this act. With respect to the remaining state-supported classified staff of a district as defined in section 98(1) of this act, the superintendent shall distribute a ((5.6%)) 7.0% salary increase using the pertinent program state-wide average salary for such staff.

(b) The salary increase authorized by subsection (((4)(a))) (5)(a) of this section shall be the maximum level of state-supported salary increase unless the legislature makes an upward adjustment in a subsequent legislative session.

(c) During the 1983-84 school year, the superintendent of public instruction, as part of the regular classified data reporting process, shall collect data regarding the length of service of each basic education classified employee in their particular job classification. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature prior to March 1, 1984, regarding the proposed allocation methodology as required by subsection (((4)(d))) (5)(d) of this section. Such a report shall consider present practices by the state personnel board in granting increments.

(d) The superintendent of public instruction shall, during the 1984-85 school year, allocate $400,000 of the funds allocated by subsection (((4)(a))) (5)(a) of this section to each district in accordance with its particular 1983-84 complement of staff.
(e) Pursuant to RCW 84.52.0531(3), any school district having an average classified salary as shown on LEAP Document 5 of less than $16,513 for the 1982-83 school year may grant salary increases to classified staff in the 1983-84 school year to achieve a maximum average classified salary of $16,513. For purposes of allocating basic education funds in the 1984-85 school year, the superintendent shall modify LEAP Document 5 to reflect any increases given in accordance with this provision.

(f) A district shall not be in violation of RCW 28A.58.095 as a result of reporting revised staff mix data for the 1983-84 school year in accordance with the revised S-275 staff mix reporting instructions promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction. For 1984-85, the superintendent of public instruction shall modify LEAP Document 5 to assure that the average certified salary for a district shall neither increase nor decrease for apportionment purposes as a result of this subsection (5)(d).

(g) For purposes of allocating basic education funds, the superintendent shall modify LEAP Document 5 to reflect a derived base of $15,637 effective September 1, 1983, for any district whose LEAP Document 5 certified salary as calculated is less than the LEAP Document 4 derived base.

(b) Any skilled maintenance employee (electrician, plumber, mechanic, carpenter, or roofer, etc.) who is a member of any trade union or association is exempt from LEAP Document 5, effective July 1, 1985.

(((5:6%)) (6) (a) A maximum of $36,540,000 is provided effective November 1, 1983, for the LEAP Document 5 derived base salary times the district's (4993-64) 1983-84 staff mix factor (as defined in section 99(6) of this act) for state-supported basic education staff as defined in section 98(1) of this act. With respect to the remaining state-supported certificated staff of a district as defined in section 98(1) of this act, the superintendent shall distribute a (5:6%) 7.0% salary increase times the pertinent state-wide average derived base salary improved by the 1983-84 staff mix of each district for such staff.

(b) The salary increase authorized by subsection (((5:6%)) (6)(a)) of this section shall be the maximum level of state-supported salary increase unless the legislature makes an upward adjustment in a subsequent legislative session.

(c) A district that qualifies for a derived base change as specified in subsection (5)(g) of this section shall receive its salary increase as described in subsection (6)(a) of this section five percent salary increases to classified staff in the 1983-84 school year to achieve a maximum average classified salary for the district.

(((5:6%)) (7) For purposes of RCW 28A.58.095, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(a) The sum of salary and insurance benefit increases granted by each school district for nonstate-supported staff shall not exceed those specified for state-supported staff of a district.

(b) Increment granted by school districts to certificated staff in the year in which the increments are given by a district shall constitute salary increase only to the extent that the aggregate of increments granted by a district in accordance with its salary schedule exceeds the aggregate of increments pursuant to LEAP Document 1.

(c) Salary increases provided by this section shall be applied to the respective district base salaries for certificated staff and the respective district average salaries for classified staff, each as specified in LEAP Document 5 as revised in accordance with this act.

(d) During the 1984-85 school year, districts may grant increases in insurance benefits to achieve a rate of $179.00 per month per full time equivalent staff unit.

(e) For the 1984-85 school year, for the purpose of insurance benefit increases for classified employees, a full time equivalent employee is an employee contracted to work 1,440 hours per year or more. It is intended that the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute funds during July and August 1985 to support such increases for classified entitlements in state-funded programs as defined in section 98(1) of this act.

Sec. 506. Section 104, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st Ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION——FOR PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

General Fund Appropriation ........................................ $ ((166,894,000)) 171,057,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. A maximum of $25,110,400 may be expended in the 1983-84 fiscal year.

2. A maximum of $5,712,000 may be expended for regional transportation coordinators.

3. A maximum of $53,000 may be expended for driver training.

4. A maximum of $1,746,400 shall be allocated in the 1983-84 fiscal year to only those school districts that, assuming the 1983-84 formula operating allocation was funded at one hundred percent, would receive less than sixty-five percent of their respective 1982-83 transportation operating expenditures.

(b) An eligible district shall receive money sufficient to either restore its preliminary allocation specified by bulletin 24-83 or the difference between its 1982-83 operating expenditures at sixty-five percent and the 1983-84 formula operating allocation calculated at one hundred percent, whichever is less.
The superintendent of public instruction is directed to report to the ways and means committees of both houses no later than September 1, 1984, identifying:

(a) The specific problems associated with the implementation of chapter 61, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (Substitute House Bill No. 296) which resulted in a transportation funding shortfall in many school districts during the 1983-84 school year;

(b) The steps which the superintendent is following to alleviate all such shortfalls in 1983-84 transportation allocations and to prevent similar problems from occurring in future school years;

(c) A plan to retroactively reimburse in the 1985 supplemental budget those districts whose transportation programs were underv funded in the 1983-84 school year due to the problems of implementing chapter 61, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (Substitute House Bill No. 296).

Sec. 507. Section 105, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:
