(i) License service providers who meet state minimum standards;

(j) Establish criteria to evaluate the performance of counties in administering mental health programs as established under this chapter. Evaluation of community mental health services shall include all categories of illnesses treated, all types of treatment given, the number of people treated, and costs related thereto; and

(k) Prior to September 1, 1982, adopt such rules as are necessary to implement this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW: PROVIDED. That such rules shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature for review and comment prior to adoption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

By November 1, 1986, the department shall identify: (1) The number of children in each priority group, as defined by this chapter, who are receiving mental health services funded in part or in whole under this chapter. (2) the total amount of funds under this chapter used for children's mental health services. (3) an estimate of the number of unserved children in each priority group, and (4) the estimated cost of serving these additional children and their families.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The county shall:

(1) Submit biennial needs assessments beginning January 1, 1983, and mental health service plans which incorporate all services provided for by the county authority consistent with state minimum standards and which provide access to treatment for the county's residents who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed. The county program shall provide:

(a) Outpatient services;

(b) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(c) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;

(d) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine appropriateness of admission;

(e) Consultation and education services;

(f) Residential and inpatient services, if the county chooses to provide such optional services; and

(g) Community support services for acutely and chronically mentally ill persons which include: (i) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals, other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (ii) sufficient contacts with clients, schools, families, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (iii) medication monitoring.

The county shall develop the biennial needs assessment based on clients to be served, services to be provided, and the cost of those services, and may include input from the public, clients, and licensed service providers. Each county authority may appoint a county mental health advisory board which shall review and provide comments on plans and policies developed by the county authority under this chapter. The composition of the board shall be broadly representative of the demographic character of the county and the mentally ill persons served therein. Length of terms of board members shall be determined by the county authority:
(2) Contract as needed with licensed service providers. The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provider entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers.

(3) Operate as a licensed service provider if it determines that doing so is more efficient and cost-effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective. Whenever a county authority chooses to operate as a licensed service provider, the secretary shall act as the county authority for that service.

(4) Monitor and perform biennial fiscal audits of licensed service providers who have contracted with the county to provide services required by this chapter. The monitoring and audits shall be performed by means of a formal process which insures that the licensed service providers and professionals designated in this subsection meet the terms of their contracts, including the minimum standards of management and service delivery as established by the department.

(5) Assure that the special needs of minorities, the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in RCW (71.24.035(5)(b)) 71.24.155:

(6) Maintain patient tracking information in a central location for the chronically mentally ill;

(7) Use no more than two percent of state-appropriated community mental health funds, which shall not include federal funds, to administer community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.155: PROVIDED That county authorities serving a county or combination of counties whose population is equal to or greater than that of a county of the first class may be entitled to sufficient state-appropriated community mental health funds to employ up to one full-time employee or the equivalent thereof in addition to the two percent limit established in this subsection when such employee is providing staff services to a county mental health advisory board.

(8) Coordinate services for individuals who have received services through the community mental health system and who become patients at a state mental hospital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

By January 1, 1987, and each odd-numbered year thereafter, the county authority shall identify: (1) The number of children in each priority group, as defined by this chapter, who are receiving mental health services funded in part or in whole under this chapter, (2) the amount of funds under this chapter used for children's mental health services, (3) an estimate of the number of unserved children in each priority group, and (4) the estimated cost of serving these additional children and their families.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the secretary from consolidating within the department children's mental health services with other departmental services related to children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secretary of social and health services shall study the desirability and feasibility of consolidating children and family services presently provided by the department. The analysis of consolidation shall include, at a minimum, children's services related to: Mental illness; juvenile rehabilitation; maternal and child health; crippled children; women, infants, and children; alcohol and substance abuse; child welfare; children's protection; developmental disabilities; nutrition; and learning problems. The scope of this review shall include prevention and early intervention services, in-home care, residential care, and institutional care.

The secretary and the superintendent of public instruction shall examine ways to more closely link children and family services with the public school system.

The secretary shall report to the social and health services committee of the house of representatives and the human services and corrections committee of the senate no later than December 1, 1986. The report shall include an analysis of consolidating these services, ways to improve linkages with the public school system, and appropriate recommendations. It shall also include all options considered but not accepted and reasons for rejection, and the legislative and organizational changes necessary for the implementation of the recommendations.

Sec. 9, Section 9, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.155 are each amended to read as follows:

Grants shall be made by the department to counties for community mental health programs totaling not less than ninety-five percent of available resources. The department may use up to forty percent of the remaining five percent to provide community demonstration projects, including early intervention or primary prevention programs for children, and the remainder shall be for emergency needs and technical assistance under this chapter. The department shall provide a biennial accounting of the use of these funds to the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:
The department shall waive postgraduate educational requirements applicable to mental health professionals under this chapter for those persons who have a bachelor's degree and on the effective date of this act:

1. Are employed by an agency subject to licensure under this chapter, the community mental health services act, in a capacity involving the treatment of mental illness; and
2. Have at least ten years of full-time experience in the treatment of mental illness.

In order to provide ongoing points of contact with the handicapped individual and his family so that they may have a place of entry for state services and return to the community as the need may appear; to provide a link between those individuals and services of the community and state operated services so that the individuals with handicapping conditions and their families may have access to the facilities best suited to them throughout the life of the individual; to offer viable alternatives to state residential school admission; and to encourage the placement of persons from state residential schools, the secretary of social and health services or his designee, pursuant to rules and regulations of the department, shall receive applications of persons for care, treatment, hospitalization, support, training, or rehabilitation provided by state programs or services for the handicapped. Written applications shall be submitted in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) In the case of a minor person, the application shall be made by his parents or by the parent, guardian, limited guardian where so authorized, person or agency legally entitled to custody, which application shall be in the form and manner required by the department; and

(3) After determination of eligibility because of a handicapping condition, the secretary shall determine the necessary services to be provided for the individual. Individuals may be temporarily admitted, for a period not to exceed thirty days, to departmental residential facilities for observation prior to determination of needed services, where such observation is necessary to determine the extent and necessity of services to be provided.

(a) That the alternative plan proposes a less dependent program than the current services provide;

(b) That the alternative plan is appropriate under the goals and objectives of the individual program plan;

(c) That the alternative plan is not in violation of applicable state and federal law; and

(d) That necessary services can reasonably be made available.

(6) If the alternative plan meets all the criteria of subsection (5) of this section, it shall be implemented as soon as reasonable, but not later than one hundred twenty days after completion of the determination process, unless the secretary determines:

(a) That the alternative plan is more costly than the current plan; or

(b) Current appropriations are not sufficient to implement alternative services without reducing services to existing clients; or

(c) The alternative plan would take precedent over other priority placements.

(7) ((One year after April 21, 1963, the secretary shall forward to the appropriate legislative committees of the senate and house of representatives a report that includes a description of each application that was denied and the basis for denial.)) The secretary shall by July 1st of each even-numbered year report to the legislature on the use of program options. MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, this is a bill that would prohibit separate property agreements for senior citizens when they're going into nursing homes?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it would not prohibit separate property agreements. Senator Rasmussen. What it would do, would be to recognize such separate property agreements as to income, only in a limited fashion, In other words, in certain circumstances, depending upon which spouse it was that had the limited income, you would not recognize a separate property agreement as income in certain situations. We are permitting some of those to exist where the greatest hardship is present and that's why the appropriation is 2.7 million dollars to deal with that particular issue."

Senator Rasmussen: "My further question, Senator Talmadge. At what time is it recognized, if you made a separate property agreement? Let's suppose that your wife or you are in the hospital or nursing home or whatever and you had made a separate agreement eight or ten years before. I presume this bill would say it was illegal if you made the agreement just at the point of going into a separate home. Is that—?"

Senator Talmadge: "My understanding, Senator Rasmussen, is that if the separate property agreement were entered into after the effective date of the act, then it would not be recognized if it was not recognized under the bill. If the separate property agreement was something that was in agreement for a period of seven or eight years, that would be valid. The bill would not affect such a previously entered into separate property agreement."

Senator Rasmussen: "Even after the act?"

Senator Talmadge: "Even after the act. If the separate property agreement were dated and entered into prior to the effective date of the act, my understanding is that it would not be subject to the provisions of this bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Further question. Does it require filing of the separate agreement with the auditor?"

Senator Talmadge: "No. Ordinarily, such agreements, either separate property agreements or community property agreements are not, in fact, filed with the auditor."

Senator Rasmussen: "I was wondering where they were establishing a valid date. There is no requirement for filing, then they could just hold it in their safety deposit or whatever?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, in view of the House amendments which I haven't read--one more time--does this in any way affect the transfer of assets between one spouse and another?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it will not affect the Deccio amendment as stated in the editorial of the Yakima Herald Republic of March 4, 1986. The Deccio amendment from 1982 is not affected."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottger, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJamatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcall, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn - 38.

Absent: Senator Warnke - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4659, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 and the pending motion by Senator Owen that the Senate do concur in the House amendments, with the exception of Section 3, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, and there being no objection, the motion to concur in the House amendments with the exception of Section 3 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The department of transportation shall consult with the legislative transportation committee prior to revising the programming of these projects or adding new projects. The department of transportation shall implement the terminal projects as delineated in 1986 Supplemental Budget Request for Marine Division Capital Construction Program (dated January 16, 1986) as presented to the joint house and senate transportation committees in accordance with state procurement regulations. Should the commission determine it is not feasible to refurbish the ferry "Rhododendron", and with the approval of the legislative transportation committee, the capital appropriation of $2,500,000 provided for that purpose may be used to purchase a passenger-only vessel, provided that the marine division shall make application for reimbursement from the federal urban mass transportation administration (UMTA) for the cost of the initial vessel and any subsequent vessel purchase.

(5) Savings realized in marine operations as of the end of the fiscal period shall be placed into reserve status and no expenditure shall be made from that reserve without consulting with the legislative transportation committee and obtaining the approval of the office of financial management pursuant to RCW 43.88.110.

(6) (The results of the passenger-only ferry study using leased vessels shall be reported to the legislative transportation committee during the 1986 regular session of the legislature.) Prior to the implementation of any passenger-only project, the department of transportation shall request approval from the legislative transportation committee. If the project is not implemented, then $560,000 of the moneys appropriated in this section for that purpose shall not be expended for any other purpose.

(7) The traditional and customary ferry transportation service supported by these appropriations shall receive priority in the implementation of all directives contained in this section. It is the intent of the legislature that the motor vehicle fund appropriation—state of $1,140,000 contained in this section shall be expended exclusively for the support of costs associated with EXPO '86 services. Any additional costs associated with the EXPO '86 services shall be funded by taxes generated from EXPO '86 traffic. The marine division shall provide the legislative transportation committee with a monthly financial report concerning the status of the EXPO '86 services.

(8) Pursuant to the limitations authorized in RCW 47.64.180(1), for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1986, none of the Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation, the Puget Sound capital construction account appropriations, or moneys in the ferry system, 1963, revolving fund may be expended to effect an increase in the base salaries for ferry employees, as ferry employee is defined in RCW 47.64.011(5), or to effect an increase in insurance benefits for any ferry employee, except as may be required by state or federal law.

(9) Pursuant to the limitations authorized in RCW 47.64.180(1), for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1987, no more than $1,135,000 of the Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation, the Puget Sound capital construction account appropriations, or moneys in the ferry system, 1963, revolving fund may be expended to effect an increase in the base salaries for ferry employees or to effect an increase in insurance benefits for ferry employees. The amount determined for base salary increases shall be reduced by the amount by which the ferry system's contribution for employees' and dependents' insurance and health care plans exceeds that provided for other state agencies, as specified in RCW 47.64.270.

(10) After all possible internal management economies have been achieved, if an operating budget deficit still exists, the transportation commission is authorized to request authority from the legislative transportation committee to effect an interfund loan from the motor vehicle fund to the Puget Sound ferry operations account for some or all of the deficit as authorized by the legislative transportation committee: PROVIDED, That any amount loaned to the Puget Sound ferry operations account shall be repaid to the motor vehicle fund from ferry system operating revenues collected in the 1987-89 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The transportation commission shall provide a detailed analysis of feasible alternatives that will achieve a long-range balance between funding requirements of the marine division's operating and capital programs and funding sources. The commission shall identify the alternative that it believes should be implemented and the rationale for its choice. The analysis and the commission's recommended alternative shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee and the office of financial management no later than September 1, 1986.

If the commission's recommendation includes changes in the funding sources for the marine division, it shall provide an assessment of the impact such changes will have on other state-funded transportation programs.
Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 169, Laws of 1982 and RCW 35.21.850 are each amended to read as follows:

No demand for a fee or tax or penalty shall be made by a city or town against a motor carrier of freight for hire on gross income derived from providing transportation services more than four years after the close of the year in which the same accrued except (1) against a taxpayer who has been guilty of fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact; or (2) where a taxpayer has executed a written waiver of such limitations; (3) against a taxpayer who has not registered as required by the ordinance of the city or town imposing such tax or fee, provided this subsection shall not apply to a taxpayer who has registered in any city or town where the taxpayer maintains an office or terminal; or in the case of a taxpayer who has paid a license fee or tax based on such gross receipts to any city or town levying same which may reasonably be construed to be the principal market of the taxpayer but in which he maintains no office or terminal).

Sec. 17. Section 43.10.100, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 amended by section 42, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.10.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The attorney general, by February 1st of each year, shall annually prepare and report to the governor and the legislature a concise statement, in layman’s terms, of all matters pertaining to his official duties, making such suggestions for lessening the public expenses and promoting frugality in the public offices as he deems expedient and proper. The attorney general shall include in his report a comprehensive summary of all cases involving tort claims against the department of transportation involving highways which were concluded and closed in the previous calendar year. The report shall include for each case closed:

(1) A summary of the factual background of the case;
(2) Identification of the attorneys representing the state and the opposing parties;
(3) A synopsis of the legal theories asserted and the defenses presented;
(4) Whether the case was tried, settled, or dismissed, and in whose favor;
(5) The amount of any settlement or verdict reached, and the terms for payment;
(6) A summary of all settlement offers made by the parties where a verdict was returned against the state;
(7) The approximate number of attorney hours expended by the state on the case, together with the corresponding dollar amount billed therefor; and
(8) Such other matters relating to the case as the attorney general deems relevant or appropriate, especially including any comments or recommendations for changes in statute law or agency practice that might effectively reduce the exposure of the state to such tort claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.“

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4717 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The long-range health and economic and environmental goals for the state of Washington require the protection of the state's surface and underground waters for the health, safety, use, and enjoyment of its people. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide public bodies an additional means by which to provide for financing, development, and operation of water pollution control facilities needed for achievement of state and federal water pollution control requirements for the protection of the state's waters. It is the intent of the legislature that public bodies be authorized to provide service from water pollution control facilities by means of service agreements with public or private parties as provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Water pollution control facilities" or "facilities" means any facilities, systems, or subsystems owned or operated by a public body, or owned or operated by any person or entity for the purpose of providing service to a public body, for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, or recycling of wastewater, including but not limited to sanitary sewage, storm water, residential wastes, commercial wastes, industrial wastes, and agricultural wastes, that are causing or threatening the degradation of subterranean or surface bodies of water due to concentrations of conventional, nonconventional, or toxic pollutants. Water pollution control facilities do not include dams or water supply systems.

(2) "Public body" means the state of Washington or any agency, county, city or town, political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi-municipal corporation.

(3) "Water pollution" means such contamination, or other alteration of the physical, chemical, or biological properties of any surface or subterranean waters of the state, including change in temperature, taste, color, turbidity, or odor of the waters, or such discharge of any liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive, or other substance into any waters of the state as will or is likely to create a nuisance or render such waters harmful, detrimental, or injurious to the public health, safety, or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish, or other aquatic life.

(4) "Agreement" means any agreement to which a public body and a service provider are parties by which the service provider agrees to deliver service to such public body in connection with its design, financing, construction, ownership, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

(5) "Service provider" means any privately owned or publicly owned profit or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, or other person or entity that is legally
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Public bodies may enter into agreements with service providers for the furnishing of service in connection with water pollution control facilities pursuant to the process set forth in section 4 of this act. The agreements may provide that a public body pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the service actually available without regard to the amount of service actually used during all or any part of the contractual period. Agreements may be for a term not to exceed forty years or the life of the facility, whichever is longer, and may be renewable.

(2) The source of funds to meet periodic payment obligations assumed by a public body pursuant to an agreement permitted under this section may be paid from taxes, or solely from user fees, charges, or other revenues pledged to the payment of the periodic obligations, or any of these sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislative authority of a public body may secure services by means of an agreement with a service provider. Such an agreement may obligate a service provider to design, finance, construct, own, operate, or maintain water pollution control facilities by which services are provided to the public body. Service agreements and related agreements under this chapter shall be entered into in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The legislative authority of the public body shall publish notice that it is seeking to secure certain specified services by means of entering into an agreement with a service provider. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the public body, or if there is no official newspaper then in a newspaper in general circulation within the boundaries of the public body, at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. The final notice shall appear not less than sixty days before the date for submission of proposals. The notice shall state (a) the nature of the services needed, (b) the location in the public body’s offices where the requirements and standards for construction, operation, or maintenance of projects needed as part of the services are available for inspection, and (c) the final date for the submission of proposals. The legislative authority may undertake a prequalification process by the same procedure set forth in this subsection.

(2) The request for proposals shall (a) indicate the time and place responses are due, (b) include evaluation criteria to be considered in selecting a service provider, (c) specify minimum requirements or other limitations applying to selection, (d) insofar as practicable, set forth terms and provisions to be included in the service agreement, and (e) require the service provider to demonstrate in its proposal that a public body’s annual costs will be lower under its proposal than they would be if the public body financed, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained facilities required for service.

(3) The criteria set forth in the request for proposals shall be those determined to be relevant by the legislative authority of the public body, which may include but shall not be limited to: The respondent’s prior experience, including design, construction, or operation of other similar facilities; respondent’s management capability, schedule availability, and financial resources; cost of the service; nature of facility design proposed by respondents; system reliability; performance standards required for the facilities; compatibility with existing service facilities operated by the public body or other providers of service to the public body; project performance warranties; penalty and other enforcement provisions; environmental protection measures to be used; and allocation of project risks. The legislative authority shall designate persons or entities (a) to assist it in issuing the request for proposals to ensure that proposals will be responsive to its needs, and (b) to assist it in evaluating the proposals received. The designee shall not be a member of the legislative authority.

(4) After proposals under subsections (1) through (3) of this section have been received, the legislative authority’s designee shall determine, on the basis of its review of the proposals, whether one or more proposals have been received from respondents which are (a) determined to be qualified to provide the requested services, and (b) responsive to the notice and evaluation criteria, which shall include, but not be limited to, cost of services. These chosen respondents shall be referred to as the selected respondents in this section. The designee shall conduct a bidder’s conference to include all these selected respondents to assure a full understanding of the proposals. The bidder’s conference shall also allow the designee to make these selected respondents aware of any changes in the request for proposal. Any information related to revisions in the request for proposal shall be made available to all these selected respondents. Any selected respondent shall be accorded a reasonable opportunity for revision of its proposal prior to commencement of the negotiation provided in subsection (5) of this section, for the purpose of obtaining best and final proposals.

(5) After such conference is held, the designee may negotiate with the selected respondent whose proposal it determines to be the most advantageous to the public body, considering the criteria set forth in the request for proposals. If the negotiation is unsuccessful, the legislative authority may authorize the designee to commence negotiations with any other selected respondent. On completion of this process, the designee shall report to the legislative authority on his or her recommendations and the reasons for them.

(6) Any person aggrieved by the legislative authority's approval of a contract may appeal the determination to an appeals board selected by the public body, which shall consist

Such grants or loans shall be used by the public body for all or part of its ownership interest in the facility, and/or to defray a part of the payments it makes to the service provider under a service agreement if such uses are permitted under the grant or loan program.

MOTION

Senator Moore move that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: Senator Moore, if an insurance company is required, as it would under this language, to make a discount on an insurance policy, is there any standard by which you can expect the size of that discount to be available to us today? Can you tell us what a discount minimum would have to be or is likely to be under such language?

Senator Moore: Well, we're talking basically about a ten percent discount, but the problem, of course, is somewhat similar to when you hear all these ads about come in and get a forty percent discount on your glasses. You know, forty percent of what?

Senator Goltz: Does the same problem that hospitals have in cost shift, will the cost shift then go to other buyers of insurance? Or is this truly a discount, because it will bring down the rates?

Senator Moore: Since we have no federal regulation governing insurance companies, you know anything can happen. This will be largely up to the Insurance Commissioner to see to it that it's enforced.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: Senator Moore, this House amendment says—that the persons of fifty-five or older who successfully complete a motor vehicle accident prevention course—does that mean that they have to take a test or that they just have to be present, or is there any assurance that it's going to make them a better driver?

Senator Moore: I think that that probably comes under the general heading of when one passes the driver's test, does that make him or her a better driver? To answer the first part of your question, yes it will be actually required that they pass a test and, hopefully, it will not be as easy as some of the tests that are given to real estate and security salesmen.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: Senator Moore, please, would you answer a very pertinent question? In the event that you and I—we're approaching that age when we would qualify—we take the examination and fail the examination—would that mean that our insurance would cost ten percent more?

Senator Moore: No. The rates will stay the same. This is just a benefit to those people who may be fortunate enough to reach that golden age.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Moore that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458, as amended by the House.
ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 14; excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Croswell, Guess, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Owen, Pullen, Zimmerman - 14.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3458, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the third order of business.

to the prevailing party, in addition to costs and disbursements, reasonable attorney fees at trial and appeal.

director shall suspend the license of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpared by unsatisfied judgment claims has been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished.

If the farm labor contractor has filed other security with the director in lieu of a surety

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4724 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 2 through 8 of this act may be known and cited as the Washington award for excellence in education program act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual award program for excellence in education to recognize teachers, principals, school district superintendents, and school boards for their leadership, contributions, and commitment to education. The program shall recognize annually:

(a) Three teachers from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary level teacher, one must be a junior high or middle school level teacher, and one must be a secondary level teacher;

(b) Three principals from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary building principal, one must be a junior high or middle school building principal, and one must be a secondary building principal;

(c) One school district superintendent from the state; and

(d) One school district board of directors from the state.

Not more than three teachers and three principals from each congressional district and one superintendent and one school board from the state may be recognized and receive awards in any school year.

(2) The awards for teachers and principals shall include certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations.

(3) In addition to certificates under subsection (2) of this section, awards for teachers and principals shall include:

(a) A waiver of tuition and fees under section 6 of this act and a stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses for which the tuition and fees have been waived under this subsection and section 6 of this act. The stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095; or

(b) Teachers and principals, at their discretion, may elect to forego the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section and apply for a grant not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of section 7 of this act. Within one year of receiving the award for excellence in education, teachers and principals shall notify the superintendent of public instruction in writing of their decision to apply for a grant or to receive the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The award for teachers under the Washington award for excellence in education program shall be named the "Christa McAuliffe Award, in honor and memory of Sharon Christa Corrigan McAuliffe." As the first teacher and private citizen selected nationally to voyage into space, Christa McAuliffe exemplified what is exciting and positive about the teaching profession. Her contributions within the scope of the nation's education system helped to show that education can and should be a vital and dynamic experience for all participants.
Christa McAuliffe's chosen profession encompasses learning by discovery and her desire to make new discoveries was reflected by her participation in the nation's space program.

The selection of Christa McAuliffe as the first teacher in space was directly linked to Washington state in that superintendent of public instruction Dr. Frank Brouillet both appointed and served as a member of the national panel which selected Christa McAuliffe.

The tragic loss of the life of Christa McAuliffe on the flight of the space shuttle Challenger on January 28, 1986, will be remembered through the legacy she gave to her family, friends, relatives, students, colleagues, the education profession, and the nation: a model example of striving toward excellence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The awards for the superintendent and school board shall include:

(1) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations;

(2) A grant to the superintendent not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of section 8 of this act; and

(3) A grant to the school board not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, which grant shall be awarded under section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the purposes of this chapter. These rules shall include establishing the selection criteria for the Washington award for excellence in education program. The superintendent of public instruction is encouraged to consult with teachers, principals, superintendents, and school board members in developing the selection criteria. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2(1)(a) and (b) of this act, such rules may allow for the selection of individuals whose teaching or administrative duties, or both, may encompass multiple grade level or building assignments, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

Teachers and principals who have received an award for excellence in education under section 2 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived for one full academic year at any state institution of higher education: PROVIDED, That the waiver shall begin to be used within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Teachers and principals who have received an award for excellence in education under section 2 of this act shall be eligible to apply for an educational grant in lieu of receiving a waiver of tuition and fees and a stipend as provided under section 2(3) of this act. The superintendent of public instruction shall award the grant as long as a written grant application is submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within one year after the award was received. The grant application shall identify the educational purpose toward which the grant shall be used.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent and school board who have received an award for excellence in education under section 4 of this act shall be eligible to apply for an educational grant. The superintendent of public instruction shall award the grant as long as the written grant application is submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within one year after the award was received. The grant application shall identify the educational purpose toward which the grant shall be used.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The sum of sixty thousand five hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction for the purposes of this act.

Sec. 205. Section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 5, chapter 206. Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.120 are each amended to read as follows:

1. It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing or maintaining equipment to be operated by electric current as it pertains to the electrical industry, without having an unrevoked, unsuspended, and unexpired electrical contractor license, issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. All electrical contractor licenses expire on the thirty-first day of December following the day of their issue. Application for an electrical contractor license shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee. The application shall state the name and address of the applicant; in case of firms or partnerships, the names of the individuals composing the firm or partnership; in case of corporations, the names of the managing officials thereof; the location of the place of business of the applicant and the name under which the business is conducted; and whether a general or specialty electrical contractor license is sought and, if the latter, the type of specialty. Electrical contractor specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and non-residential maintenance. A general electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder the right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electric current, and installing or maintaining equipment, or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current, in the state of Washington. A specialty electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder a limited right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electrical current, and installing or maintaining equipment; or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current in the state of Washington as expressly allowed by the license.

2. The application for a contractor license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars with the state of Washington named as obligee in the bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the department. The bond shall at all times be kept in full force and effect, and any cancellation or revocation thereof, or withdrawal of the surety thereon, suspends the license issued to the principal until a new bond has been filed and approved as provided in this section. Upon approval of a bond, the department shall on the next business day deposit the fee accompanying the application in the electrical license fund and shall file the bond in the office. The department shall upon request furnish to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity a certified copy of the bond upon the payment of a fee that the department shall set by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of furnishing the certified copy. The bond shall be conditioned that in any installation or maintenance of wires or equipment to convey electrical current, and equipment to be operated by electrical current, the principal will comply with the provisions of this chapter and with any electrical ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2) that is in effect at the time of entering into a contract. The bond shall be conditioned further that the principal will pay for all labor, including employee benefits, and material furnished or used upon the work, taxes and contributions to the state of Washington, and all damages that may be sustained by any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity due to a failure of the principal to make the installation or maintenance in accordance with this chapter or any applicable ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the license applicant may file with the department a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the department. If the license applicant has filed a cash deposit, the department shall deposit the funds in a special trust savings account in a commercial bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association and shall pay annually to the depositor the interest derived from the account.

3. The department shall issue general or specialty electrical contractor licenses to applicants meeting all of the requirements of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity including the requirement of a bond with the state of Washington named as obligee therein and the collection of a fee therefor, are exclusive, and no political subdivision of the state of Washington may require or issue any licenses or bonds or charge any fee for the same or a similar purpose. No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity holding more than one specialty contractor license under this chapter may be required to pay an annual fee for more than one such license or to post more than one three thousand dollar bond, equivalent cash deposit, or other negotiable security.

(4) To obtain a general or specialty electrical contractor license the applicant must designate an individual who currently possesses an administrator's certificate as a general electrical contractor administrator or as a specialty electrical contractor administrator in the specialty for which application has been made. Administrator certificate specialties include but are not limited to: Residential, domestic, appliance, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance. To obtain an administrator's certificate an individual must pass an examination as set forth in RCW 19.28.123 unless the applicant was a licensed electrical contractor at any time during 1974. Applicants who were electrical contractors licensed by the state of Washington at any time during 1974 are entitled to receive a general electrical contractor administrator's certificate without examination if the applicants apply prior to January 1, 1984. The board (of electrical examiners) shall certify to the department the names of all persons who are entitled to either a general or specialty electrical contractor administrator's certificate.

Sec. 206. Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 57, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.28.123 are each amended to read as follows:

((There is hereby created a board of electrical examiners consisting of nine members to be appointed by the governor.)) It shall be the purpose and function of ((this)) the board to establish in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, such classifications of specialty electrical contractors' licenses as it deems appropriate with regard to individual sections pertaining to state adopted codes in chapter 19.28 RCW. In addition, it shall be the purpose and function of ((this)) the board to establish and administer written examinations for general electrical contractors' qualifying certificates and the various specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates. Examinations shall be designed to reasonably insure that general and specialty electrical contractor's qualifying certificate holders are competent to engage in and supervise the work covered by this statute and their respective licenses. The examinations shall include questions from the following categories to assure proper safety and protection for the general public: (1) Safety, (2) state electrical code, and (3) electrical theory. It shall be the further purpose and function of ((this)) the board to advise the director as to the need of additional electrical inspectors and compliance officers to be utilized by the director on either a full-time or part-time employment basis. ((Meetings of the board shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of February, May, August, and November of each year. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and each member shall also receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries.))

Sec. 207. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant for an electrical contractor's license, other than an individual, shall designate a supervisory employee or member of the firm to take the required administrator's examination. This person shall be designated as administrator under the license. No person may quality as administrator for more than one contractor. If the relationship of the administrator with the electrical contractor is terminated, the contractor's license is void within ninety days unless another administrator is qualified by the board (of electrical examiners). However, if the administrator dies, the contractor's license is void within one hundred eighty days unless another administrator is qualified by the board (of electrical examiners). A certificate issued under this section is valid for the calendar year of issuance, unless revoked or suspended, and further is nontransferable. The certificate may be renewed without examination by appropriate application unless the certificate has been revoked, suspended, or not renewed within ninety days after the expiration date. If the certificate is not renewed before the expiration date, the individual shall pay twice the usual fee. An individual holding more than one administrator's certificate under this chapter shall not be required to pay annual fees for more than one certificate. A person may take the administrator's test as many times as necessary without limit.

(2) The administrator shall:

(f) Notify the department in writing within ten days if the administrator terminates the relationship with the electrical contractor.
The director shall cause an inspector to inspect all wiring, appliances, devices, and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt or approve any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter except those pertaining to cities and towns pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect electrical power to the installation if the necessary electrical work permit is displayed. Whenever the installation of any wiring, device, appliance, or equipment is not in accordance with this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity owning, using, or operating it shall be notified by the department and shall, within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger to life or property and to make it conform to this chapter.

The director, through the inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to conductors or equipment that are found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with this chapter. Upon making a disconnection the inspector shall attach a notice stating that the conductors have been found dangerous to life and property and are not in accordance with this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or equipment without the approval of the department, and until the conductors and equipment have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in a condition that complies with this chapter. The director, through the electrical inspector, has the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his or her official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment, or material contained in or on the buildings or premises. Electric utilities may connect to the installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the electrical work permit required to be affixed to each installation or by reasonable means, except that increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately at the discretion of the utility before approval if an electrical work permit is displayed. The permits shall be furnished upon payment of the fee to the department. The director, subject to the recommendations and approval of the ((advisory)) board, shall set by rule a schedule of license and electrical work permit fees that will cover the costs of administration and enforcement of this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. No fee may be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances.

Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity desiring a decision of the ((advisory)) board pursuant to RCW 19.28.260 shall, in writing, notify the director of such desire and shall accompany the notice with a certified check payable to the department in the sum of two hundred dollars. The notice shall specify the ruling or interpretation desired and the contention of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity as to the proper interpretation or application on the question on which a decision is desired. If the ((advisory)) board determines that the contention of the applicant for a decision was proper, the two hundred dollars shall be returned to the applicant; otherwise it shall be used in paying the expenses and per diem of the members of the ((advisory)) board in connection with the matter. Any portion of the two hundred dollars not used in paying the per diem and expenses of the board in the case shall be paid into the electrical license fund.

Any portion of the two hundred dollars not used in paying the per diem and expenses of the board in the case shall be paid into the electrical license fund.
The department has the power, in case of continued noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter, to revoke or suspend for such a period as it determines, any electrical contractor license or electrical contractor administrator certificate issued under this chapter. The department shall notify the holder of the license or certificate of the revocation or suspension by certified mail. Any revocation or suspension is effective fifteen days after the holder of the license or certificate receives the notice. Any revocation or suspension is subject to review by an appeal to the board (electrical examiners). The filing of an appeal stays the effect of a revocation or suspension until the board makes its decision. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days after notice of the revocation or suspension is given by certified mail sent to the address of the holder of the license or certificate as shown on the application for the license or certificate, and shall be effected by filing a written notice of appeal with the department, accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars, which shall be returned to the holder of the license or certificate if the decision of the department is not sustained by the board. If the board sustains the decision of the department, the two hundred dollars shall be applied by the department to the payment of the per diem and expenses of the members of the board incurred in the matter, and any balance remaining after payment of per diem and expenses shall be paid into the electrical license fund.

(1) When the state (commission on equipment) patrol has reason to believe that an approved device does not comply with the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state (commission on equipment) patrol, it may, after giving thirty days' previous notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this state, conduct a hearing upon the question of compliance of said approved device. After said hearing the state (commission on equipment) patrol shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this chapter and regulations issued by the (commission) state patrol. If said device does not meet the requirements of this chapter or the (commission's) state patrol's regulations it shall give notice to the one to whom the certificate of approval has been issued of the (commission's) state patrol's intention to suspend or revoke the certificate of approval for such device in this state.

(2) If at the expiration of ninety days after such notice the person holding the certificate of approval for such device has failed to satisfy the state (commission on equipment) patrol that said approved device as thereafter to be sold or offered for sale meets the requirements of this chapter or the (commission's) state patrol's regulations, the state (commission on equipment) patrol shall suspend or revoke the approval issued therefor and shall require the withdrawal of all such devices from the market and may require that all said devices sold since the notification be replaced with devices that do comply.

(3) When a certificate of approval has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this chapter or regulations by the state (commission on equipment) patrol, the device shall not be again approved unless and until it has been submitted for reapproval and it has been demonstrated, in the same manner as in an application for an original approval, that the device fully meets the requirements of this chapter or regulations. The state (commission on equipment) patrol may require that all previously approved items are being effectively recalled and removed from the market as a condition of reapproval.

The driver of a motor vehicle shall when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway.

(2) No vehicle shall be equipped with nor shall any person use upon a vehicle any siren, whistle, or bell, except as otherwise permitted in this section.

(3) It is permissible for any vehicle to be equipped with a theft alarm signal device so long as it is so arranged that it cannot be used by the driver as an ordinary warning signal. Such a theft alarm signal device may use a whistle, bell, horn, or other audible signal but shall not use a siren.

(4) Any authorized emergency vehicle may be equipped with a siren, whistle, or bell, capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred feet and of a type approved by the state (commission on equipment) patrol, but

(2) No tire on a vehicle moved on a highway may have on its periphery any block, flange, cleat, or spike or any other protuberance of any material other than rubber which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire, except that it is permissible to use farm machinery with tires having protuberances that will not injure the highway, and except also that it is permissible to use tire chains or metal studs imbedded within the tire of reasonable proportions and of a type approved by the state ((commission on equipment)) patrol upon any vehicle when required for safety because of snow, ice, or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to skid. It is unlawful to use metal studs imbedded within the tire between April 1st and November 1st. The state department of transportation may, from time to time, determine additional periods in which the use of tires with metal studs imbedded therein is unlawful.

(3) The state department of transportation and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may issue special permits authorizing the operation upon a highway of traction engines or tractors having movable tracks with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of the movable tracks or farm tractors or other farm machinery, the operation of which upon a highway would otherwise be prohibited under this section.

(4) Tires with metal studs imbedded therein may be used between November 1st and April 1st upon school buses and tire department vehicles, any law or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 722. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 73, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.425 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall drive or move or cause to be driven or moved any vehicle, the tires of which have contact with the driving-surface of the road, subject to registration in this state, upon the public highways of this state unless such vehicle is equipped with tires in safe operating condition in accordance with requirements established by this section or by the state ((commission on equipment)) patrol.

The state ((commission on equipment)) patrol shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth requirements of safe operating condition of tires capable of being employed by a law enforcement officer by visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges. These rules shall include effects of tread wear and depth of tread.

A tire shall be considered unsafe if it has:

(1) Any ply or cord exposed either to the naked eye or when cuts or abrasions on the tire are probed; or

(2) Any bump, bulge, or knot, affecting the tire structure; or

(3) Any break repaired with a boot; or

(4) A tread depth of less than 2/32 inch measured in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire, or for those tires with tread wear indicators, a tire shall be considered unsafe if it is worn to the point that the tread wear indicators contact the road in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire; or

(5) A legend which indicates the tire is not intended for use on public highways such as, "not for highway use" or "for racing purposes only"; or

(6) Such condition as may be reasonably demonstrated to render it unsafe; or

(7) If not matched in tire size designation, construction, and profile to the other tire and/or tires on the same axle.

No person, firm, or corporation shall sell any vehicle for use on the public highways of this state unless the vehicle is equipped with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section. If the tires are found to be in violation of the provisions of this section, the person, firm, or corporation selling the vehicle shall cause such tires to be removed from the vehicle and shall equip the vehicle with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section.

It is a traffic infraction for any person to operate a vehicle on the public highways of this state, or to sell a vehicle for use on the public highways of this state, which is equipped with a tire or tires in violation of the provisions of this section or the rules and regulations promulgated by the state ((commission on equipment)) patrol hereunder: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the violation relates to items (1) to (7) inclusive of this section then the condition or defect must be such that it can be detected by a visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles, including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1986

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4738 with the following amendments:

On page 3, after line 31, insert the following:

Sec. 3. Section 61, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Complaints referred to the juvenile court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint to determine whether:
(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and
(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile did commit the offense.
(2) If the identical alleged acts constitute an offense under both the law of this state and an ordinance of any city or county of this state, state law shall govern the prosecutor's screening and charging decision for both filed and diverted cases.
(3) If the requirements of subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section are met, the prosecutor shall either file an information in juvenile court or divert the case, as set forth in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section. If the prosecutor neither files nor diverts the case, he shall maintain a record, for one year, of such decision and the reasons therefor. In lieu of filing an information or diverting an offense a prosecutor may file a motion to modify community supervision where such offense constitutes a violation of community supervision.
(4) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

(5) Where a case is legally sufficient, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if:
(a) An alleged offender is accused of a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, assault in the third degree, rape in the third degree, or any other offense listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) (b) or (c); or
(b) An alleged offender is accused of a felony and has a criminal history of at least one class A or class B felony, or two class C felonies, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least two misdemeanors and one additional misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, or at least one class C felony and one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor; or
(c) An alleged offender has been referred by a diversion unit for prosecution or desires prosecution instead of diversion; or
(d) An alleged offender is accused of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor and has previously entered into a total of three diversion agreements for separate offenses, not in the same course of conduct.

(6) Where a case is legally sufficient the prosecutor shall divert the case if the alleged offense is a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or violation and the alleged offense(s) in combination with the alleged offender's criminal history do not exceed three offenses or violations and do not include any felonies: PROVIDED, That if the alleged offender is charged with a related offense that must or may be filed under subsections (5) and (7) of this section, a case under this subsection may also be filed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an alleged misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor shall be filed pursuant to subsection (5)(d) of this section.

(7) Where a case is legally sufficient and falls into neither subsection (5) nor (6) of this section, it may be filed or diverted. In deciding whether to file or divert an offense under this section, the prosecutor shall be guided only by the length, seriousness, and recency of the alleged offender's criminal history and the circumstances surrounding the commission of the alleged offense.

(8) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversionary interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile.

(9) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through (8) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult. If the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

Sec. 4. Section 70, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the respondent is found to be a serious offender, the court shall commit the offender to the department for the standard range of disposition for the offense.

If the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusion, that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition outside the standard range shall be determinate and shall be comprised of confinement or community supervision, or a combination thereof. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. A disposition outside the standard range is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Where the respondent is found to be a minor or first offender((s) the court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision: if the court determines that a disposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice the court may impose another disposition: A disposition other than a community supervision may be imposed only after the court enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusions that imposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

Any disposition other than community supervision may be appealed as provided in RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition of community supervision may not be appealed under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended).

(a) The court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision; and
(b) If the minor or first offender has a criminal history of two or more offenses, the court may impose a term of confinement not to exceed seven days in addition to a term of community supervision. If confinement has been imposed, the court shall state aggravating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition under (a) or (b) of this subsection would cause a manifest injustice, the court may impose a disposition other than community supervision and/or up to seven days' confinement. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the range shall be determined under RCW 13.40.030(5). The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition under (c) of this subsection is appealable under RCW 13.40.230. A disposition under (a) or (b) of this subsection is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230.

(3) Where a respondent is found to have committed an offense for which the respondent declined to enter into a diversion agreement, the court shall impose a term of community supervision limited to the conditions allowed in a diversion agreement as provided in RCW 13.40.080(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(4) If a respondent is found to be a middle offender:

(a) The court shall impose a determinate disposition within the standard range(s) for such offense: PROVIDED, That if the standard range includes a term of confinement exceeding thirty days, commitment shall be to the department for the standard range of confinement; or

(b) The court shall impose a determinate disposition of community supervision and/or up to thirty days confinement in which case, if confinement has been imposed, the court shall state either aggravating or mitigating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150 as now or hereafter amended.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition as provided in subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) A disposition pursuant to subsection (4)(c) of this section is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition pursuant to subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) Whenever a juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time spent in detention prior to a dispositional order, the dispositional order shall specifically state the number of days of credit for time served.

(6) In its dispositional order, the court shall not suspend or defer the imposition or the execution of the disposition.

(7) In no case shall the term of confinement imposed by the court at disposition exceed that to which an adult could be subjected for the same offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislature finds that children who are dependent or in conflict with their families and who violate court-ordered placements or other terms of a court order which may detrimentally affect their emotional or physical well-being should face the consequences of their actions. The legislature further finds that use of the power of contempt of court can accomplish this while maintaining the distinction between these children and juveniles who have violated the criminal laws. It is the intent of the legislature to broaden the court's contempt powers and emphasize that contempt is the appropriate tool for punishing violations of court orders.

Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by a fine of up to one hundred dollars and imprisonment for up to (seven) fourteen days, or both.

(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be imprisoned only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding held under this section is governed by RCW 7.20.040 through 7.20.080, as now law or hereafter amended.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, a child, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.34.165 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by confinement for up to (seven) fourteen days.
(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be confined only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding under this section is governed by RCW 7.20-040 through 7.20.080.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order entered pursuant to this chapter.

On page I, line 1 of the title, after "juveniles; strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending 13.40.200, 13.40.300, 13.40.070, 13.40.160, 13.32A.250 and 13.34.165; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

If such shares are issued pursuant to approved stock option plans, the consideration received for such shares shall not be less than the higher of par value or one hundred percent of fair market value of the shares at the time the option is granted; if such shares are issued pursuant to approved stock purchase plans, the consideration received for such shares shall not be less than the higher of par value or one hundred percent of fair market value of the shares at the time of purchase; if such shares are issued in order to qualify a new director of the corporation, the consideration received shall not be less than the higher of par value or ninety-five percent of the fair value of the shares at the time of issue. The shares may be issued for such consideration as shall be established by the board from time to time but for not less than the par value, if any, and all consideration received therefor shall be allocated to the capital stock or surplus of the corporation."

Prior to the issuance of authorized but unissued stock, the bank shall notify the supervisor of the proposed issuance and the consideration to be received therefor and receive the supervisor's approval thereof, except that such notification and such approval shall not be required if the authorized but unissued stock is issued to employees of the bank pursuant to approved stock option, stock purchase, stock bonus or other similar plans approved by the supervisor.

Sec. 28. Section 30.08.090, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 140, Laws of 1965 and RCW 30.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

A certificate of the fact and the terms of the amendment shall be executed by a majority of the directors and filed as required herein for articles of incorporation. ((Except when an amendment provides for authorized but unissued shares as permitted in this title;)) No ((increase of authorized)) issuance of capital stock shall be valid, until the amount thereof shall have been ((subscribed and)) actually paid in and a certificate of increase is received from the supervisor. No reduction of the capital stock shall be made to an amount less than is required for capital((; nor be valid, nor warrant the cancellation of stock certificates, nor diminish the personal liabilities of the stockholders until such reduction has been approved by the supervisor, nor shall any reduction relieve any stockholder from any liability of the corporation incurred prior thereto)) by the supervisor. No amendment shall be made whereby a bank becomes a trust company unless such bank shall first receive permission from the supervisor.

Banks having authorized but unissued stock shall disclose on all statements of condition the amount of authorized stock and the amount of issued and paid in stock, as certified by the supervisor. The supervisor shall certify to each bank having authorized but unissued stock the amount of its issued and paid in capital stock and this amount shall be used in all statements of condition and in computing the capital of the bank for purposes of determining loan or investment limits ((and branching powers)) until a new certificate is issued by the supervisor. In cases where a bank issues authorized but unissued stock as permitted by this title, a new certificate need not be requested upon each stock issue. However, if the bank so requests and the supervisor approves, a certificate of issued and paid in capital stock shall be issued by the supervisor. A new certificate must be requested at such time as any increase of paid in capital stock represents five percent of the authorized capital stock and at such time as there is no remaining authorized but unissued stock.

Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the board.

Sec. 31. Section 30.12.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who has been a shareholder of record at least six months immediately preceding his or her demand or who is the holder of record of at least five percent of all the outstanding shares of a bank or trust company. upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, has the right to examine, in person. or by agent or attorney. at any reasonable time or times. for any proper purpose, the bank or trust company's minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, its shareholder records, and its existing publicly available records. The person is entitled to make extracts therefrom, except that the person is not entitled to view or make extracts of any portion of minutes that refer or relate to information which is confidential.

Any officer or agent who, or a bank or trust company that, refuses to allow any such shareholder or his or her agent or attorney. to examine and make extracts from its minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders. record of shareholders. or existing publicly available books and records, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to the shareholder for actual damages or other remedy afforded the shareholder by law.

It is a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has. within two years: (1) Sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders for shares of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; (2) aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders for any such purpose; (3) improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of existing publicly available books and records, or minutes, or record of shareholders of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; or (4) not acted in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his or her demand.

Nothing in this section impairs the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which the shareholder has been a shareholder of record, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or her, to compel the production for examination by the shareholder of the existing publicly available books and records, minutes, and record of shareholders of a bank or trust company.

Upon the written request of any shareholder of a bank or trust company, the bank or trust company shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. As used in this section. "shareholder" includes the holder of voting trust certificates for shares.
Sec. 33. Section 30.12.030, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise permitted by the supervisor under specified terms and conditions, the board of directors of each bank and trust company shall direct and require good and sufficient surety company fidelity bonds issued by a company authorized to engage in the insurance business in the state of Washington on all active officers and employees, whether or not they draw salary or compensation, which bonds shall provide for indemnity to such bank or trust company, on account of any losses sustained by it as the result of any dishonest, fraudulent or criminal act or omission committed or omitted by them acting independently or in collusion or combination with any person or persons. Such bonds may be individual, schedule or blanket form, and the premiums therefore shall be paid by the bank or trust company.

(2) The said directors shall also direct and require suitable insurance protection to the bank or trust company against burglary, robbery, theft and other similar insurance hazards to which the bank or trust company may be exposed in the operations of its business on the premises or elsewhere.

The said directors shall be responsible for prescribing at least once in each year the amount or penal sum of such bonds or policies and the sureties or underwriters thereon, after giving due consideration to all known elements and factors constituting such risk or hazard. Such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors ((and thereafter be reported to the supervisor and be subject to his approval)).

Sec. 34. Section 30.12.050, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A director, officer, employee or other agent of any bank shall not purchase, or be interested in the purchase, directly or indirectly, of any of its assets without the previous ([written]) consent of ((the supervisor and of)) a majority of ((the)) disinterested directors of the bank: PROVIDED, That if the fair market value of the asset or assets exceed ten thousand dollars, not less than ten days' prior notice of the sale shall be given to the supervisor. ((Whoever knowingly does or participates in or aids in the doing of any act in violation of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and be punished accordingly, and also shall forfeit to the state double the amount of any loss suffered by the bank or trust company in the operations of its business on the premises or elsewhere. The said directors shall be responsible for prescribing at least once in each year the amount or penal sum of such bonds or policies and the sureties or underwriters thereon, after giving due consideration to all known elements and factors constituting such risk or hazard. Such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors ((and thereafter be reported to the supervisor and be subject to his approval)).

Sec. 35. Section 30.12.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a transaction is fair to a corporation at the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified, the fact that a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in the transaction is not a ground for either invalidating the transaction or imposing liability on the director or officer.

(2) In any proceeding seeking to invalidate a transaction with the corporation in which a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation, the person asserting the validity of the transaction has the burden of proving fairness unless:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the board of directors, or a committee of the board, and the board or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote, and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(3) For purposes of this section, a director or an officer of a corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation if:

(a) Another entity in which the director or officer has a material financial interest, or in which such person is a general partner, is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which the director or officer is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction, and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3)(a) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (3)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(5) For purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the vote of a majority of shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. All outstanding shares entitled to vote under this title or the articles of incorporation are entitled to be counted under this subsection except shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section shall not be counted to determine whether shareholders have authorized, approved, or ratified a transaction for purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section. The vote of the shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this title and for purposes of determining a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation and in accordance with and subject to the provisions of RCW 30.08.088, the board of directors of a bank or trust company may grant options enabling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class of its stock. The instrument evidencing the option shall state the terms upon which, the time within which, and the price at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of such option. If any such options are granted by contract, or are to be granted pursuant to a plan, to officers or employees of the bank or trust company, then the contract or the plan shall require the approval, within twelve months of its approval by the board of directors, of the holders of a majority of its voting capital stock. Subsequent amendments to any such contract or plan which do not change the price or duration of any option, the maximum number of shares which may be subject to options, or the class of employees eligible for options may be made by the board of directors without further shareholder approval.

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation, the board of directors of a bank or trust company shall have the authority to enter into any plans or contracts providing for compensation for its officers and employees, including, but not being limited to, incentive bonus contracts, stock purchase or bonus plans and profit sharing plans.

Such regulations and any amendments thereto shall be posted in a conspicuous place in a room where the (savings account) deposit business of (any such) the bank or trust company shall be transacted and shall (be) remain available to depositors upon request. All such rules and regulations and all amendments thereto from time to time in effect shall be binding upon all depositors. At the option of the bank, a passbook shall be issued to each savings account depositor, or a (ledger) record maintained in lieu of a passbook (covering such deposits in which shall be entered each deposit by and each payment to such depositor, and no payment or checks against any savings account shall be made unless accompanied by and entered in any passbook issued therefor, except for good cause and assurance satisfactory to the corporation: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in any event, a passbook shall be issued upon request). A deposit contract may be adopted by the bank or trust company in lieu of or in addition to account rules and regulations and shall be enforceable and amendable in the same manner as provided herein for account rules and regulations or as provided in the deposit contract. A copy of such contract shall be provided to the depositor.

branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title. The supervisor’s approval of a branch in a foreign country shall be conditioned on a finding that the proposed location offers a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed branch, that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title, and that the principal purpose for establishing such branch is to aid in financing or facilitating exports and/or imports and the exchange of commodities with any foreign country or the agencies or nationals thereof.

The aggregate paid-in capital stock of every bank or trust company operating branches shall at no time be less than the aggregate of the minimum capital required by law for the establishment of an equal number of banks or trust companies in the cities or towns wherein the principal office or place of business of such bank or trust company and its branches are located.

No bank or trust company shall establish or operate any branch, except a branch in a foreign country, in any city or town outside the city or town in which its principal place of business is located in which any bank, trust company or national banking association regularly transacts a banking or trust business, except by taking over or acquiring an existing bank, trust company or national banking association or the branch of any bank, trust company or national banking association operating in such city or town. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

1. "Real estate" or "real property" means real property but includes used mobile homes and used floating homes.

2. "Used mobile home" means a mobile home which has been previously sold at retail and (the immediately preceding sale) has (already) been subjected to tax under chapter 82.08 RCW, or which has been previously used and (the immediately preceding use) has (already) been subjected to tax under chapter 82.12 RCW, and which has substantially lost its identity as a mobile unit at the time of sale by virtue of its being fixed in location upon land owned or leased by the owner of the mobile home and placed on a foundation (posts or blocks) with fixed pipe connections with sewer, water, and other utilities.

3. "Mobile home" means a mobile home as defined by RCW 46.04.302, as now or hereafter amended.

4. "Used floating home" means a floating home in respect to which tax has been paid under chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW.

5. "Floating home" means a building on a float used in whole or in part for human habitation as a single-family dwelling, which is not designed for self propulsion by mechanical means or for propulsion by means of wind, and which is on the property tax rolls of the county in which it is located.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.033 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax imposed by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to:

2. The renting or leasing of mobile homes ((where such)) if the rental agreement or lease exceeds thirty days in duration and ((where)) if the rental or lease of such mobile home is not conducted jointly with the provision of short-term lodging for transients.

The tax imposed by RCW 82.12.020 shall not apply in respect to:

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 22, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1985 and by section 1, chapter 395, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.44.170 and 46.44.171 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Any person moving a mobile home as defined in RCW 46.04.302 upon public highways of the state must obtain a special permit from the department of transportation and local authorities pursuant to RCW 46.44.090 and 46.44.093 and shall pay the proper fee as prescribed by RCW 46.44.0941 and 46.44.096.
(2) A special permit issued as provided in subsection (1) of this section for the movement of any mobile home shall not be valid until the county treasurer of the county in which the mobile home is located shall endorse or attach thereto his certificate that all property taxes (due in the calendar year and all delinquent taxes) which are a lien or which are delinquent or both, upon the mobile home being moved have been satisfied. Further, any mobile home required to have a special movement permit under this section shall display an easily recognizable decal: PROVIDED, That endorsement or certification by the county treasurer and the display of said decal is not required when a mobile home is to enter the state or is being moved from a manufacturer or distributor to a retail sales outlet or directly to the purchaser's designated location or between retail and sales outlets. It shall be the responsibility of the owner of the mobile home or the agent to obtain such endorsement from the county treasurer and said decal.

(3) Nothing herein should be construed as prohibiting the issuance of vehicle license plates for a mobile home, but no such plates shall be issued unless the mobile home for which such plates are sought has been listed for property tax purposes in the county in which it is principally located and the appropriate fee for such license has been paid.

(4) The department of transportation and local authorities are authorized to adopt reasonable rules for implementing the provisions of this section. The department of transportation shall adopt rules specifying the design, reflective characteristics, annual coloration, and for the uniform implementation of the decal required by this section.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1986

Mr. President:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4620 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Advertisement" means any written or printed communication or any communication by means of recorded telephone messages or spoken on radio, television, or similar communication media published in connection with an offer or sale of a franchise.

(2) "Affiliate" means any person, firm, or corporation who controls or is controlled by any motor fuel refiner-supplier, and includes any subsidiary or affiliated corporation in which the motor fuel refiner-supplier or its shareholders, officers, agents, or employees hold or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares.

(3) "Community interest" means a continuing financial interest between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer in the operation of the franchise business.

(4) "Marketing area" means an area five miles or less in any direction from a motor fuel retailer selling products of any trademark of the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(5) "Motor fuel" means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use in self-propelled motor vehicles and includes gasohol.

(6) "Motor fuel franchise" means any oral or written contract, either expressed or implied, between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the motor fuel retailer is supplied motor fuel for resale to the public under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier or for sale on commission or for a fee to the public, or any agreements between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the retailer is permitted to occupy premises owned, leased, or controlled by the refiner-supplier for the purpose of engaging in the retail sale of motor fuel under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier supplied by the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(7) "Motor fuel retailer" means any person, firm, or corporation, including any affiliate of the person, firm, or corporation, engaged in the refining of crude oil into petroleum who supplies motor fuel for sale, consignment, or distribution through retail outlets and has an operable refinery capacity of three hundred twenty-five thousand barrels a day or more as reported to the federal department of energy.

(8) "Motor fuel retailer" means a person, firm, or corporation that resells motor fuel entirely at one or more retail motor fuel outlets pursuant to a motor fuel franchise entered into with a refiner-supplier.

(9) "Offer or offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of or solicitation of an offer to buy a franchise or an interest in a franchise.

(10) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity and in the case of an entity, it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such an entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in act of control of the activities of each such entity.

(11) "Price" means the net purchase price, after adjustment for commission, brokerage, rebate, discount, services or facilities furnished, or other such adjustment.

(12) "Publish" means publicly to issue or circulate by newspaper, mail, radio, or television or otherwise to disseminate to the public.

(13) "Retail motor fuel outlet" means any location where motor fuel is distributed for purposes other than resale.

(14) "Sale or sell" includes every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of a franchise.
"Trademark" means any trademark, trade name, service mark, or other identifying symbol or name.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is unlawful for any motor fuel refiner-supplier to discriminate in price between motor fuel retailers in the same marketing area for purchases of motor fuel of like grade and quality, where the effect of the discrimination may be substantially to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any motor fuel retailer who receives the benefit of the discrimination, or with the customers of either motor fuel retailer. Nothing in this section prevents differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the fuel is sold to motor fuel retailers. Upon proof being made of discrimination under this section, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification is upon the refiner-supplier. A refiner-supplier may show justification by establishing that a differential price was only made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor if the price was also offered to all other motor fuel retailers under any trademark of the refiner-supplier within the same marketing area as the motor fuel retailer receiving the lower price.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, a motor fuel refiner-supplier shall not absolutely prohibit or unreasonably withhold its consent to any sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise by a motor fuel retailer to a third party without fairly compensating the motor fuel retailer for the fair market value, at the time of expiration of the franchise, of the motor fuel retailer's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and good will, exclusive of personalized materials which have no value to the motor fuel retailer-supplier, and inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business. A motor fuel refiner-supplier may offset against amounts owed to a motor fuel retailer under this section any amounts owed by the motor fuel retailer to the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may prohibit or prevent the sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise to a corporation in which the motor fuel retailer has and maintains a controlling interest if the motor fuel retailer offers in writing personally to guarantee the performance of the obligations under the motor fuel franchise.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the interest of a motor fuel retailer under such an agreement shall be considered personal property and shall devolve on the death of the motor fuel retailer to a designated successor in interest of the retailer, limited to the retailer's spouse, adult child, or adult stepchild or, if no successor in interest is designated, to the retailer's spouse, if any. The designation shall be made, witnessed in writing by at least two persons, and delivered to the motor fuel refiner-supplier during the term of the franchise. The designation may be revised at any time by the motor fuel retailer and shall be substantially in the following form:

I (motor fuel retailer name) at the ............. service station located at ............., in the City of ............., Washington, designate ............. as my successor in interest under section 4 of this act and ............. as my alternate successor if the originally designated successor is unable or unwilling so to act.
I so specify this ............ day of ............., 19 ..........

The motor fuel refiner-supplier shall assist the designated successor in interest temporarily in the day-to-day operation of the service station to insure continued operation of the service station.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the motor fuel retailer shall be given the right of first refusal to purchase the real estate and/or improvements owned by the refiner-supplier at the franchise location, and at least thirty days' advance notice within which to exercise this right, prior to any sale thereof to any other buyer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may:

1. Require any motor fuel retailer to meet mandatory minimum sales volume requirements for fuel or other products unless the refiner-supplier proves that its price to the motor fuel retailer has been sufficiently low to enable the motor fuel retailer reasonably to meet the mandatory minimum;

2. Alter, or require the motor fuel retailer to consent to the alteration of, any provision of the motor fuel franchise during its effective term without mutual consent of the motor fuel retailer;

3. Interfere with any motor fuel retailer's right to assistance of counsel on any matter or to join or be active in any trade association; and

4. Set or compel, directly or indirectly, the retail price at which the motor fuel retailer sells motor fuel or other products to the public.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. It is unlawful for any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any motor fuel franchise directly or indirectly:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, the following specific rights and prohibitions shall govern the relation between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and the motor fuel retailers:

(1) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter and without limiting its general application, it shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition and therefore unlawful and a violation of this chapter for any person to:

(a) Require a motor fuel retailer to purchase or lease goods or services of the motor fuel refiner-supplier or from approved sources of supply unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that such restrictive purchasing agreements are reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose justified on business grounds, and do not substantially affect competition: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to the initial inventory of the motor fuel franchise. In determining whether a requirement to purchase or lease goods or services constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition the courts shall be guided by the decisions of the courts of the United States interpreting and applying the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(b) Discriminate between motor fuel retailers in the charges offered or made for royalties, goods, services, equipment, rentals, advertising services, or in any other business dealing, unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that any classification of or discrimination between motor fuel retailers is reasonable, is based on motor fuel franchises granted at materially different times and such discrimination is reasonably related to such difference in time or on other proper and justifiable distinctions considering the purposes of this chapter, and is not arbitrary.

(c) Sell, rent, or offer to sell to a motor fuel retailer any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price.

(d) Require motor fuel retailer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any person who sells or offers to sell a motor fuel franchise in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the motor fuel retailer or motor fuel refiner-supplier who may sue at law or in equity for damages caused thereby for rescission or other relief as the court may deem appropriate. In the case of a violation of section 8 of this act rescission is not available to the plaintiff if the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the facts concerning the untruth or omission or that the defendant exercised reasonable care and did not know or if he had exercised reasonable care would not have known of the untruth or omission.

(2) The suit authorized under subsection (1) of this section may be brought to recover the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff: PROVIDED, That the prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorneys’ fee.

(3) Any person who becomes liable to make payments under this section may recover contributions as in cases of contracts from any persons who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(4) A final judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered against a person in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings under the United States anti-trust laws, under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or this chapter shall be regarded as evidence against such persons in any action brought by any party against such person under subsection (1) of this section as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The pendency of any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings against a person brought by the federal or Washington state governments or any of their agencies under the anti-trust laws, the Federal Trade Commission Act, or any federal or state act related to anti-trust laws or to franchising, or under this chapter shall toll the limitation of this action if the action is then instituted within one year after the final judgment or order in such proceedings: PROVIDED, That said limitation of actions shall in any case toll the law so long as there is actual concealment on the part of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any motor fuel retailer who is injured in his or her business by the commission of any act prohibited by this chapter, or any motor fuel retailer injured because of his or her refusal to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him or her, or both, together with the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney’s fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. The prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of such action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exception or an exemption from definition is upon the person claiming it. Any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring a motor fuel franchise at the time of entering into a motor fuel franchise or other agreement to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The provisions of this chapter apply to any motor fuel franchise or contract entered into or renewed on or after the effective date of this act between a motor fuel retailer-supplier and a motor fuel retailer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall whenever applicable herein govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be interpreted consistent with chapter 19.100 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its beneficial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter shall be known as the "Gasoline Dealer Bill of Rights Act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The Washington state attorney general shall conduct a study to determine whether motor fuel retailer-suppliers are injuring competition from motor fuel retailers, by charging retailers that sell products under their trademark, prices for motor fuel which equal or exceed the prices charged for motor fuel in the same geographic market to retail customers at retail motor fuel outlets operated by company personnel, a subsidiary company, or commissioned or contract agents. The attorney general shall report his findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986. Periodic reports shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. For the purposes of this study, the attorney general is authorized to use all of the civil investigative demand powers enumerated in RCW 19.86.110, subject to the procedures and requirements specified in RCW 19.86.110: PROVIDED, That disclosure of documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or the contents thereof, to members of the legislature and legislative staff shall not require a court order unless the documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony are identified at the time they are furnished as containing trade secrets. When seeking a court order allowing disclosure of material containing trade secrets, the attorney general shall give reasonable notice of such proceeding to the party furnishing the material.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. To carry out this act, the sum of forty-nine thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the office of attorney general from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) Sections 20 and 21 are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.
(2) Sections 1 through 19, 22 and 23 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1986."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Peterson, does this mandate that everybody who has a car licensed in the state of Washington has to buy new license plates?"

Senator Peterson: "No, it doesn't. The bill originally started out as a repealer of the mandatory five-year replacement law which is still in the bill. This bill is optional. You can purchase the centennial license plates when they're ready, but it's not mandatory that you do."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Peterson that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4675.

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4675.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 4675, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; excused, 4.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 159, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 144. Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 4.92.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Payment of claims and judgments arising out of tortious conduct or pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Liability for and payment of claims arising out of tortious conduct or under and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Within any agency or department the charge shall be apportioned among such appropriated and other available moneys in the same proportion that the moneys finance the activity causing liability. Whenever the operations and activities of more than one agency or department combine to give rise to a single liability, the ((director of financial)) risk management office shall determine the comparative responsibility of each agency or department for the liability.

State agencies shall make reimbursement to the tort claims revolving fund for any payments made from it for the benefit of such agencies. The director of financial management is authorized and directed to transfer or order the transfer to the tort claims revolving fund, from moneys available or appropriated to such agencies, that sum of money which is a proper charge against them. Such amounts may be expended for the purposes for which the tort claims revolving fund was created by RCW 4.92.130 (as herein or hereafter amended) without further or additional appropriation((provided that)). In any case where reimbursement would seriously disrupt or prevent substantial performance of the operations or activities of the state agency, the director of financial management may relieve the agency of all or a portion of the obligation to make reimbursement.

The ((director of financial)) risk management office shall report on request to the legislature on the status of the tort claims revolving fund, all payments made therefrom, all reimbursements made thereto, and the identity of agencies and departments of state government whose operations and activities give rise to liability((including those agencies and departments over which he does not have authority to revise allotments under chapter 43.08 RCW)).

The ((director of financial)) risk management office may authorize agencies, in accordance with chapter 41.05 RCW to the extent that it is applicable, to purchase insurance to protect and hold personally harmless any officer or employee of the state, or any classes of such officers or employees or for other persons performing services for the state, whether by contract or otherwise, from any action, claim, or proceeding for damages arising out of the performance of duties for, employment with, or the performance of services on behalf of the state and to hold (him) the officer or employee harmless from any expenses connected with the defense, settlement, or monetary judgment from such actions.

The ((director of financial)) risk management office shall adopt rules ((and regulations)) governing the procedures to be followed in making payment from the tort claims revolving fund((c)). The office of financial management shall adopt rules governing the procedures to be followed in reimbursing the tort claims revolving fund and in relieving an agency of its obligation to reimburse the tort claims revolving fund.

Sec. 11. Section 77.12.270, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 45, chapter 78. Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission may compromise, adjust, settle, and pay claims for damages caused by deer or elk in accordance with RCW 77.12.280 through 77.12.300. Payments for claims shall not exceed ((one)) two thousand dollars. The payment of a claim by the commission constitutes full and final payment for the claim.

Sec. 12. Section 77.12.280, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 46, chapter 78. Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.280 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Claims under RCW 77.12.270 ((not exceeding one thousand dollars)) may be filed ((with the director of financial management)) under RCW 4.92.040(5) if within one year of filing with the commission the claim is not settled and paid. (((Claims shall conform to the tort-claim-filing requirements in RCW 4.92.100 as now or hereafter amended.)) The ((director of financial)) risk management office shall recommend to the legislature whether the claim should be approved. If the legislature approves the claim, the department shall pay it from moneys appropriated for that purpose.

(2) If a claim for damages under RCW 77.12.270 has been refused or has not been settled and paid by the commission within one hundred twenty days of the filing of the claim, either the claimant or the commission may serve upon the other personally or by registered mail a notice of intent to arbitrate. The notice shall contain the name of an arbitrator. Within ten days of receiving the notice, the person served shall serve the name of an arbitrator personally or by registered mail upon the other party. The two arbitrators, within seven days of the naming of the second arbitrator, shall select a third arbitrator who shall not be an employee of the department or member of the commission. If the two arbitrators cannot agree upon a third arbitrator, either party may petition the superior court in the county in which the claim arose to select the third arbitrator. Upon receiving the petition, the court shall appoint a third arbitrator.

Filing fees or court costs arising from the petition shall be shared equally by the claimant and the department.

(3) The award of the arbitrators is advisory only and shall be filed with the department within ninety days following the naming of the third arbitrator. Payment shall not be made by the commission until the arbitrators have made their advisory award.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4790 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

After January 1, 1988, the department of ecology may prohibit disposal of municipal sewage sludge or septic tank sludge (septage) in landfills for final disposal, except on a temporary, emergency basis, if the jurisdictional health department determines that a potentially unhealthful circumstance exists. Beneficial uses of sludge in landfill reclamation is acceptable utilization and not considered disposal.

The department of ecology shall adopt rules that provide exemptions from this section on a case-by-case basis. Exemptions shall be based on the economic infeasibility of using or disposing of the sludge material other than in a landfill.

The department of ecology, after consulting with representatives from cities, counties, special purpose districts, and operators of septic tank pump-out services, shall adopt rules for the environmentally safe use of municipal sewage sludge and septage in this state.

The department of ecology, after consulting with representatives from the pulp and paper industry and the food processing industry, may adopt rules for the environmentally safe use of appropriate industrial sludges, such as pulp and paper sludges or food processing wastes, used to improve the texture or nutrient content of soils.

The department of ecology, in conjunction with the department of social and health services and the department of agriculture, shall adopt rules establishing labeling and notification requirements for sludge material sold commercially or given away to the public. The department shall specify mandatory wording for labels and notification to warn the public against improper use of the material. The department shall submit a report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1987, on its implementation of this chapter."

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, are there any prohibitions in this proposal that would keep them from putting heavy metals that are in the sludge in the landfill?"

Senator Kreidler: "Well, most of the heavy metals are going to be certainly still bound up in that sludge, there's no question about it. But at the same time it is just specifying that they should get away from using it as a landfill material but they could still use it as a part of the material that's used to do the surface type work—essentially restoring the soil and so forth on the top of the landfill, but to get away from using it as landfill material."

Senator Rasmussen: "My concern, Senator Kreidler, is all of this that they put on the land will then eventually sometime run down into our streams and into the drainage system and I don't like them doing that with sludge that has heavy metals in it."
Senator Kreidler: "Senator, there are adequate protections built into the bill to make sure that any of those uses where there would be any doubt or question as to how it might contaminate the environment would be taken into account before they would ever be used for any purpose where that might occur."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would hope so. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "I would like to tell Senator Rasmussen that experiments that have been done in the Spokane area using the sludge for fertilizer that the barley that has been produced has not shown excessive levels of heavy metals. There are some increases in the heavy metals in the barley, but not beyond that which is allowed by DOE. I think this is a very good approach and then when we get the negotiations completed on the Cesium 137 capsules we will be able to use it even more than we are now."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kreidler that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790, as amended by the House.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4814.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Croswell: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe this House amendment goes beyond the scope and object of the bill. The bill relates to child abuse education for children and as it passed the Senate it amends the compulsory education curriculum statute. Under the bill schools would be required to provide instruction on child abuse prevention to all grades K thru 12 and there is money appropriated for it.

"The portions of the House striking amendment relating to parental use of force goes well beyond education. The amendment relates to criminal law while the original bill deals only with the educational curriculum. The bill in the amendment adds sections to completely different sections of the RCW. In greater detail, the amendment would add to the section of the criminal code that includes the various defenses that defendants might assert in criminal trials. The amendment sets forth a list of the various uses of force which are presumed to be unreasonable means of correcting or restraining children. Those uses listed would not constitute defenses at trials for assault.

"Since the bill and the proposed amendment deal with such separate and distinct areas of law, it seems clear to me that the child discipline sections of the amendment exceed the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4814 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator McDermott, that matter of the loans not being made for projects in political subdivisions where public surtax on refuse businesses has not been passed on? I can't quite understand what you're saying here. Is this in regard to a situation we've had because of the public works bill last year when we had the error? I just can't remember the explanation."

Senator McDermott: "We passed the public works bill last year with some taxes which we expected to be passed through and some of the garbage haulers have been forced to take it out of their pockets. That was not the intent, either in the House or the Senate Ways and Means Committee or on the floor and an interpretation by some governmental units has been misinterpreted and we want to make it very clear."

Senator Zimmerman: "And this does make it in conformity with some of the other measures that we've passed dealing with the same issue that have been passed through?"

Senator McDermott: "That's correct."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDermott that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4897.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, a process server can be a deputy sheriff, police officer or anybody delegated to do that?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "It also can be private firms?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Now my question is, do these private firms wear a uniform that they can be recognized as a process server or are they somebody that you would think was selling you aluminum ware?"

Senator Talmadge: "They do not wear a uniform, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "How would an innocent victim determine that this was a legal officer?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, this, as I said, provides for a deletion of any crime for assaulting a process server. That is out of this bill. The only thing that this bill does is provide that a person who is legitimately serving process would not themselves be guilty of criminal trespass if they identify themselves and were doing the appropriate things that a process server does."

Further debate ensued.
Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, I assume the effect of the House amendment which deletes making assault on a process server a class C felony does not mean that if you assault a process server that you would necessarily be exempt from charges. It simply means that the potential assault or the alleged assault has to be investigated in the way that any assault on any other person would be investigated."

Senator Talmadge: "That's correct, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4897.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the

A second offense is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A. 20 RCW. A violation of this section is also a per se violation of chapter 19. 86 RCW and is considered a deceptive practice. The department of licensing, the Washington state patrol, the attorney general's office, and the department of revenue shall cooperate in the enforcement of this section. A distributor, factory branch, or factory representative shall not be required to have a vehicle manufacturer license so long as the vehicle manufacturer so represented is properly licensed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An "established place of business" requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. An established place of business shall have an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining the building, or a display area large enough to display six or more vehicles of the type the dealer is licensed to sell, whichever area is larger. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, boarding house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an "established place of business" unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency. PROVIDED. That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location.

(6) A wholesale vehicle dealer shall have office facilities in a commercial building within this state, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the department, and shall meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street shall identify the business name and the nature of business. A wholesale dealer need not maintain a display area as required in this section. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if any, must be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(7) A retail vehicle dealer shall be open during normal business hours, maintain office and display facilities in a commercially zoned location or in a location complying with all applicable building and land use ordinances, and maintain a business telephone listing in the local directory. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

A vehicle dealer is accountable for the dealer's employees, sales personnel, and managerial personnel while in the performance of their official duties. Any violations of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW committed by any of these employees subjects the dealer to license penalties prescribed under RCW 46.70.101. A retail purchaser who has suffered a loss or damage by reason of a breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer, salesperson, managerial person, or other employee of a dealership, that constitutes a violation of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW may institute an action for recovery against the dealer and the surety bond as set forth in RCW 46.70.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Listing dealers shall transact dealer business by obtaining a consignment for sale, and the buyer's purchase of the mobile home shall be handled as dealer inventory. A complete account of all funds received and disbursed shall be given to the seller or consignor after the sale is completed.

Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse "on deposit" instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside "on deposit" cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement; vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

Sec. 19. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer pursuant to RCW ((46.70.180(7)(b))) 46.70.180(11)(b) and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of RCW ((46.70.180(7(b)))) 46.70.180(11)(b), with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

The director shall revoke or refuse to issue a ((motor)) vehicle dealer's license for a franchise replacing a canceled or terminated franchise if a civil action pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 is pending and was filed within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of an existing franchise and a certified copy of ((said)) the complaint alleging the date of said notification is filed with the department within said sixty days by the complaining motor vehicle dealer. The court may, however, in order to maintain adequate and competitive service in the area or upon a showing of good cause by the manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch order the director to issue ((said motor)) the vehicle dealer's license if the dealer complies with other sections of chapter 46.70 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 18, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 by a complaining ((motor)) vehicle dealer within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of the existing franchise, any canceled or nonrenewed franchise of said complaining dealer shall stay in full force and effect until the complaint has been expeditiously disposed of, unless the court, pursuant to RCW 46.70.200, has ordered the director to issue a ((motor)) vehicle dealer's license to a new franchisee.

If a new franchise is given by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the sale of the same make of ((motor)) vehicle in the same area of responsibility in that covered in ((said)) the canceled or terminated franchise, ((such act shall be)) that act is prima facie evidence that the new franchise replaced the canceled or terminated franchise.

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to all franchises and contracts existing between ((motor)) vehicle dealers and manufacturers or factory branches and to all future franchises and contracts.

MOTION

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4497.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: “Senator Bottiger, I am concerned about the possibility of requiring dealers to have two bonds if, because of space limitations, they maintain two locations. Is it your understanding that two bonds are required in this situation?”

Senator Bottiger: “Senator Newhouse, the dealers should not be required to have two bonds in the case that you’ve illustrated. If it’s a sub-agency, the exemption that is provided in this bill should result in only one bond being required where space limitations necessitate two locations. With your agreement, Senator Newhouse, I will make sure that the Department of Licensing receives a copy of this colloquy so that they will understand our instructions in this regard.”

Senator Newhouse: “Thank you, Senator.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Warnke that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed

In order to effectively accomplish such purpose and to assure that the industrially injured worker receives such services as are paid for by the state of Washington, the acceptance by the industrially injured worker of such services, and the request by a provider of services for reimbursement for providing such services, shall authorize the director of the department of labor and industries or the director's authorized representative to inspect and audit all records in connection with the provision of such services.

Sec. 702. Section 702, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—COMPARABLE WORTH IMPLEMENTATION AND LAWSUIT
General Fund Appropriation $26,790,000
Special Fund Salary Increase Revolving Fund Appropriation $19,120,000
Total Appropriation $45,910,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $644,500 of the general fund appropriation and $326,250 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation are provided solely for a salary increase for those job classifications tied to salary survey benchmarks falling 8 ranges or more below the January 1, 1985, actual average comparable worth line as calculated under the formula of $983.72 + ($3.28 x points) and rounded to the nearest Step G or equivalent step for shortened ranges. However, a job classification shall receive an increase only if its salary range as of January 1, 1985, is also 8 or more ranges less than the salary range of that classification as calculated under the aforementioned formula using the evaluation points of that classification as adopted by the respective personnel board. This adjustment shall take place July 1, 1985, and shall equal $75 a year for all affected classes and employees and shall terminate on March 30, 1986.

(2) $350,000 of the general fund—state appropriation shall be used solely by the office of the governor to hire an independent consultant with expertise in developing and evaluating public employee job classification systems and implementing comparable worth. The consultant shall:

(a) Review the Willis methodology;
(b) Update job class specifications for all job classes with incumbents that have not been reviewed for the past five years;
(c) Develop a new benchmark and indexing structure which reflects the evaluated worth of the job classes; and
(d) Evaluate the job class specifications for the implementation of comparable worth.

(3) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide any assistance needed by the consultant to perform the activities in subsection (2) of this section. Both the state personnel board and higher education personnel board must submit joint reports to the legislature on the progress to date in implementing the consultant's recommendations no later than January 1, 1986, and July 1, 1986. On January 1, 1987, both boards shall submit a final report to the legislature.

(4) $150,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $100,000 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation shall be used solely for the office of the governor to allocate to agencies that provide technical assistance to the consultant hired under subsection (2) of this section.
(5) $25,546,500 of the general fund appropriation and $(46,793,750) $18,693,750 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation, along with all moneys currently included in agencies' budgets for payment of the $100 per year comparable worth salary increase pursuant to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess., are provided for the settlement of all claims of all plaintiffs and class members of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., Cause Nos. C82-4657, 84-3569, and 84-3590 and the implementation of comparable worth pursuant to RCW 28B.16.116 and RCW 41.06.155. The settlement shall result in complete discharge of all claims of any nature whatsoever of all plaintiffs and class members. It is the intent of the legislature that salary adjustments for affected class members not exceed the adjustment calculated using the average actual comparable worth salary line as applied to the Willis evaluation points of the affected job classification and adopted by the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That on or before the dates on which comparable worth increases become effective, the higher education personnel board shall review the salaries of all job classifications receiving comparable worth increases which are also receiving special pay to determine whether the requirements of WAC 251-09-090 continue to be met and shall make any reductions in special pay necessary to adjust for the increases in base pay resulting from comparable worth adjustments. The governor as the chief executive officer of the state, with the assistance of the attorney general, is authorized to seek a proposed settlement. However, any such settlement is tentative and subject to legislative ratification. $100,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the office of the governor to retain any special consultants or negotiators to work with the attorney general in seeking a settlement of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., within the terms of the appropriation as set out in this subsection. If a tentative settlement is reached within the terms of the appropriation within this subsection, the governor and the attorney general shall jointly present a report on the tentative settlement to the legislature no later than January 1, 1986, for ratification. No funds shall be released before April 1, 1986, or until such time as stipulated final judgment is entered under the terms of the tentative settlement ratified by the legislature, whichever is later. The appropriation provided for settlement in this subsection shall lapse if no proposal is brought before the legislature before January 1, 1986, if the tentative settlement brought before the legislature is not ratified by the legislature during the 1986 legislative session, or if stipulated final judgment is not entered before June 30, 1986.

(6) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide monthly reports to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee regarding the steps each has taken, or proposes to take, to implement the settlement agreement referred to in subsection (5) of this section. The legislative evaluation and accountability program committee shall report to the legislature regarding the implementation steps taken by, and potential disputes facing, the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board. Such reports shall be provided as often as deemed necessary by the committee, but no later than June 1, 1986, December 1, 1986, and April 1, 1987.

(7) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1986, with a report identifying those job classifications not covered by the lawsuit that would be entitled to receive adjustments under the average actual comparable worth line. The report shall include recommendations regarding implementation of comparable worth adjustments for these affected job classes.

(8) To facilitate payment of salary increases from special funds, the state treasurer is directed to transfer sufficient income from each special fund to the special fund salary and insurance contribution increase revolving fund hereby created in accordance with schedules provided by the office of financial management.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, last evening the request for free conference and so on was on our desks at 5:05 and along with it, of course, the large report. However, it seems that most of the members do not have another page that amends—in other words, an addendum to that report. I was just wondering if that was distributed to the members at the same time?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President and Senator Lee, on the report of the Free Conference Committee, you will notice the two amendments—New Section 904 and then on page 106—I personally laid this on everyone's desk. The one that I gave you originally was just the amendments. It did not have the Free Conference Report so they didn't get the same thing. You actually had a special piece of paper."

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, then the record will show that it's not only the Conference Report piece with 5:05 on it, but also the material that is labeled S-5101/86, second draft. It constitutes the request for Free Conference. Is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is correct."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4762 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1722, requiring an air contaminant source operating permit, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. In the interest of the public health and welfare, and in keeping with the objectives of RCW 70.94.011, the legislature declares it to be the public policy of the state to control, reduce, and prevent air pollution caused by woodstove emissions and emissions from other indoor and outdoor air pollution sources. The legislature further declares it to be the public policy of the state to reduce woodstove and other emissions by encouraging the department of ecology to continue efforts to educate the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(2) "Woodstove" means a solid fuel burning device other than a fireplace, including any fireplace insert, woodstove, wood burning heater, wood stick boiler, coal-fired furnace, coal stove, or similar device burning any solid fuel used for aesthetic, cooking, or space-heating purposes and designed to be installed or used in a private residence or commercial establishment, which has a heat input less than one million btu's per hour.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Before March 31, 1988, the department shall establish by rule consistent with rules adopted by the environmental protection agency:

(1) Emission performance standards for new woodstoves:
(2) A program to determine (a) whether a woodstove complies with the emission performance standards established in subsection (1) of this section, and (b) to approve the sale of stoves that comply;

(3) Application fees to be assessed by the department on wholesalers, retailers, or manufacturers of woodstoves. These fees will be set to reflect the direct and indirect cost of administering the program described in subsection (2) of this section less any general fund or federal grant moneys appropriated to cover the start-up costs of the program, and shall not be assessed for testing previously performed in accordance with federal woodstove emission performance standards;

(4) Procedures for administering the program and for collecting fees for the approval of new woodstoves; and

(5) The form and content of an emission performance and heating efficiency label to be attached to a new woodstove meeting the emission performance standards.

In developing the rules, the department shall review regulations adopted by the federal government or other states and develop regulations compatible with the federal rules, remaining consistent with the purposes of this chapter. Local governments may adopt more stringent emission performance standards than those adopted by the United States environmental protection agency, as long as performance testing procedures are consistent with federal rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. By March 1, 1988, the department shall provide the appropriate standing committees of the legislature with a copy of the rules proposed in accordance with section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall establish a program to educate woodstove dealers and the public about:

(1) The effects of woodstove emissions on health and air quality;

(2) How to achieve better woodstove efficiency and emission performance;

(3) Woodstoves that have been approved by the department; and

(4) The benefits of replacing or retrofitting inefficient used woodstoves, as defined in section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall establish an advisory committee to aid and advise the department in the adoption of emission performance standards and establish means to inform the public. The members of the advisory committee shall include, but shall not be limited to, Washington woodstove manufacturers and retailers, and a certified chimney sweep from a recognized state chimney sweep guild.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On and after January 1, 1989, no person shall advertise to sell, offer to sell, or sell a new woodstove in this state unless:

(1) The woodstove has been approved by the department under the program established under section 3 of this act and the proper application fee has been paid;

(2) An emission performance and heating efficiency label is attached to the woodstove, according to section 3 of this act; and

(3) An extension to January 1, 1990, shall be granted for:

(a) Woodstoves that are part of a retail inventory already existing on or before the official notification of state emission performance standards rules; and

(b) Woodstoves that have been ordered by a retailer from a manufacturer or wholesaler before the official notification of state emission performance standards rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If, on or after January 1, 1989, a person advertises to sell, offers to sell, or sells a new woodstove in this state which does not comply with the conditions in section 7 of this act, such person shall be subject to the penalties and enforcement actions under RCW 70.94.430, 70.94.431, and 70.94.435.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department shall provide assistance to local governments in developing strategies to reduce woodstove air pollution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) This chapter does not apply to a used woodstove.

(2) As used in this section, "used woodstove" means a woodstove that has been sold at retail, bargained, exchanged, given away, or has had its ownership transferred from the person who first acquired the woodstove from the manufacturer, the manufacturer’s dealer or agency, or a retailer, and so used to have become what is commonly known as second hand within the ordinary meaning of that term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be added to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department of ecology shall establish a study team consisting of representatives of local air authorities, environmental organizations, and business organizations. The department, with the assistance of the study team, shall:

(1) Conduct a comprehensive study on the need for better management systems for controlling air pollution sources and, if determined necessary, methods to improve management;

(2) Thoroughly assess the existing stationary air pollution source regulatory system, its deficiencies, and ways to remedy them;

(3) Define the objectives of an air pollution source operating permit system:
(4) Assess programs in other states using permits or otherwise and compare their progress with the accomplishments achieved in Washington state;

(5) Evaluate the need for an air pollution source operating permit program, including: (a) A comparison with the accomplishments of the existing regulatory system, (b) the sources and emissions included and excluded, (c) government and private resources needed, (d) fees anticipated, (e) schedule for implementation, (f) time involved to establish and maintain the program, (g) its effect on air quality, (h) its impact on sources covered, and (i) its overall cost-effectiveness; and

(6) Identify alternatives to an air pollution source permit program and analyze the advantages and disadvantages of each.

By December 15, 1986, the department of ecology shall report the conclusions of the study to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) No person may smoke in any portion of a state owned or leased building that is occupied by state employees, except as provided in sections 13 through 17 of this act.

(2) Sections 13 through 17 of this act apply to all employees of the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of state government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Because the smoking of tobacco or any other weed or plant is a danger to health and is a cause of material annoyance and discomfort to those who are present in confined places, the legislature declares that the purposes of sections 13 through 17 of this act are (a) to protect the public health and welfare by regulating smoking in state agencies and (b) to minimize the toxic effects of smoking in the workplace by requiring state agencies to adopt a policy that will accommodate, insofar as possible, the preferences of non-smokers and smokers.

(2) If a satisfactory accommodation cannot be reached, to prohibit smoking in the workplace.

(3) Sections 13 through 17 of this act are not intended to create any right to smoke or to impair or alter a state agency's prerogative to prohibit smoking in the workplace. Rather, if a state agency allows employees to smoke in the workplace, then sections 13 through 17 of this act require (a) that the agency make accommodations for the preferences of both nonsmoking and smoking employees, and (b) if a satisfactory accommodation cannot be reached, that the agency prohibit smoking in the workplace.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 13 through 17 of this act:

(1) "Agency" means any agency or commission of the state government.

(2) "Employee" means any person who is employed by any state agency in consideration for direct or indirect monetary wages or profit.

(3) "Workplace" means any enclosed area of a structure or portion thereof intended for occupancy.

(4) "Smoking" or "to smoke" means and includes inhaling, exhaling, burning, or carrying any lighted smoking equipment for tobacco or any other weed or plant.

(5) "Enclosed" means closed-in by a roof and four walls with appropriate openings for ingress and egress and is not intended to mean areas commonly described as public lobbies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) Each state agency that operates a workplace in this state shall within three months of the effective date of this act adopt, implement, and maintain, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a written smoking policy that contains, at a minimum, the following provisions and requirements:

(a) Any nonsmoking employee may object to the agency about smoke in the workplace.

Using already available means of ventilation or separation or partition of space, the agency shall attempt to reach a reasonable accommodation, insofar as possible, between the preferences of nonsmoking and smoking employees. However, an agency is not required by sections 13 through 17 of this act to make any expenditures or structural changes to accommodate the preferences of nonsmoking or smoking employees.

(b) If an accommodation that is satisfactory to all affected nonsmoking employees cannot be reached in any given workplace, the preferences of nonsmoking employees shall prevail and the agency shall prohibit smoking in that workplace. If the agency prohibits smoking in a workplace, the area in which smoking is prohibited shall be clearly marked with signs.

(2) The smoking policy shall be announced within three weeks of adoption to all employees working in workplaces in the state and posted conspicuously in all workplaces under the agency's jurisdiction.

(3) The director of the department of labor and industries may adopt rules to exempt workplaces from this section if the workplace meets the minimum standards established by the department. The standards shall include a minimum volume of air per occupant, a minimum frequency of air changes in the workplace, and a minimum proximity of smokers to nonsmokers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) It is unlawful for an agency to discharge or in any manner discriminate against any employee who exercises his or her rights under sections 13 through 17 of this act if the dominant intent of the agency is retaliation against the employee for exercising those rights.
(2) In undertaking the enforcement of sections 13 through 17 of this act, the state is assuming an undertaking only to promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any person who claims that the breach proximately caused injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 13 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "air act," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 70.94 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and creating a new section."

Signed by Senators Kreidler and Talmadge; Representatives Rust, Lux and Allen.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, this bill that we have before us has a series of other bills attached to it, one of which I intend to raise scope and object, or at least--excuse me--a member intends to raise scope and object. Would it be appropriate to do it at the time of request for Free Conference or would we waive it if we did not raise it here?"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "I guess I apologize for not having been here when the question was raised, but is the point of order of scope and object appropriate to raise at this time concerning the Free Conference Committee Report?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President would like a few minutes to study the situation. If there's no objection, I should like to defer making the judgment until a later time."

Senator Goltz: "Thank you, Mr. President. I may be off the floor for awhile, so if I'm not here I would hope that it would be held until I come back to make the motion."

President Cherberg: "Thank you, we'll honor that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the Conference Committee Report on Substitute House Bill No. 1722 was deferred.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1447, modifying accounting and reporting requirements for public works contracts, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1982 and RCW 39.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term state shall include the state of Washington and all departments, supervisors, commissioners and agencies thereof.

Whenever the state, or any municipality shall determine that any public work is necessary to be done it shall cause plans (and/or) specifications, or both thereof and an estimate of the cost of such work to be made and filed in the office of the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board or agency having by law the authority to require such work to be done. The plans, specifications, and estimates of cost shall be approved by the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency and the original draft or a certified copy filed in such office before further action is taken.

If the state, or such municipality shall determine that it is necessary or advisable that such work shall be executed by any means or method other than by contract or by a small works roster process, and it shall appear by such estimate that the probable cost of executing such work will exceed the sum of ((twenty-five hundred dollars, or twenty-five thousand dollars if such work is let from a small works roster created pursuant to RCW 39.04-150)) fifteen thousand dollars, then the state or such municipality shall at least fifteen days before beginning work cause such estimate, together with a description of the work, to be published at least once in a legal newspaper of general circulation published in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done: PROVIDED. Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state or any municipality shall execute any public work by any means or method other than by contract or small works roster, it shall cause to be kept and preserved a full, true and accurate account and record of the costs of executing such work in accordance with the budgeting, accounting, and reporting system provisions prescribed by law for the state agency or municipality.

((Such account and record shall show in accurately tabulated form and under appropriate headings the totals of all classes and kinds of work performed: the total cost and unit cost of each class: together with the costs of executing such work, including: under separate headings: the costs of labor; material; equipment purchased; provisions and supplies; rental of equipment; industrial insurance and medical aid; superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service; the reasonable value, including depreciation, of the use of equipment owned by the state or municipality: and all other expenses incurred therein.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.090 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is imposed on each person using the services of a refuse collection business a refuse collection tax equal to three and six-tenths percent of the consideration charged for the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The person collecting the charges made for using the refuse collection business shall collect the tax imposed in section 6 of this act. If any person charged with collecting the tax fails to bill the taxpayer for the tax, or in the alternative has not notified the taxpayer in writing of the imposition of the tax, or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of the person's own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond the person's control, he or she shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Taxes collected under this chapter shall be held in trust until paid to the state. Taxes so received by the state shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050. Any person collecting the tax who appropriates or converts the tax collected shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the date payment is due. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter to the person charged with collection of the tax and the person charged with collection fails to pay the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the taxpayer for collection of the tax.

The tax shall be due from the taxpayer within twenty-five days from the date the taxpayer is billed by the person collecting the tax.

The tax shall be due from the person collecting the tax at the end of the tax period in which the tax is received from the taxpayer. If the taxpayer remits only a portion of the total amount billed for taxes, consideration, and related charges, the amount remitted shall be applied first to payment of the refuse collection tax and this tax shall have priority over all other claims to the amount remitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The refuse collection tax shall not apply to any agency, division, or branch of the federal government or to services rendered under a contract therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. To prevent pyramiding and multiple taxation of a single transaction, this tax shall not apply to any refuse collection business using the services of another refuse collection business for the transfer, storage, or disposal of the waste collected during the transaction.

To be eligible for this exemption, a person first must be certified by the department of revenue as a refuse collection business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department of revenue shall have the power to enforce the tax imposed in this chapter through appropriate rules.

Sec. 14. Section 82.16.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 471, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 35.92 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any city, the legislative authority of a city or town may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the city or town, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the city or town at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall (a) state in summary form, the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the city or town who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the city or town decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the city or town, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract. PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the city or town must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the city or town is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Every city (or town) may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of garbage collection and disposal for the entire city or town or for portions thereof, and award contracts for garbage collection and disposal or provide for it under the direction of officials and employees of the city or town. Contracts for solid waste handling may provide that a city or town pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contract period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 36.58 RCW to read as follows:

Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the county, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the county at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall state in summary form (a) the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the county who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the county decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the county, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. Two or more vendors may be interviewed and selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth above. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the county must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the county is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1975—76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.58.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of each county may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of solid waste disposal for all the unincorporated areas of the county or for portions thereof. Each county may designate disposal sites for all solid waste collected in the unincorporated areas pursuant to the provisions of a comprehensive solid waste plan adopted pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW: PROVIDED, That for any solid waste collected by a private hauler operating pursuant to a certificate granted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission under the provisions of chapter 81.77 RCW and which certificate is for collection in a geographic area lying in more than one county, such designation of disposal sites shall be pursuant to an interlocal agreement between the involved counties.

Such systems may also provide for the processing and conversion of solid wastes into other valuable or useful products with full jurisdiction and authority to construct, lease, purchase, acquire, manage, regulate, maintain, operate, and control such system and plants, and to enter into agreements with public or private parties providing for the conversion, purchase, acquisition, lease, maintenance, and operation of systems and plants for the processing and conversion of solid wastes and for the sale of said products. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW.

The legislative authority of a county may award contracts for solid waste handling, and such contracts may provide that a county pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contractual period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the operation of a solid waste collection system by counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 16 through 20 of this act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes. Sections 16 through 20 of this act shall be deemed to provide an alternative method for the performance of those subjects authorized by these sections and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by the Washington state Constitution, other state laws, and the charter of any city or county.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That Jerry Thomas be deeply and gratefully thanked for his long-time service to the people of this state, and furthermore, that his retirement as assistant secretary of the Department of Social and Health Services be marked with our sincere best wishes for the next chapter of his distinguished career.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUEST

The President introduced Mr. Gerald E. Thomas who was seated with him on the rostrum.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1722 and the pending parliamentary inquiry by Senator Bottiger, deferred earlier today.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to the point of inquiry raised by Senator Bottiger with regard to Substitute House Bill No. 1722, the President believes that Joint Rule 8 applies. That rule provides in pertinent part, 'In case of failure of the conferees to agree on matters directly at issue between the two houses, the committee may in addition consider new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference for purpose of requesting the powers of free conference.'

"This language allowing the conferees to consider 'New proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill' leads the President to the conclusion that a point of order questioning whether the proposed Free Conference Report is within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference, for purpose of requesting the powers of free conference."

"The President takes this opportunity to remind the members that 'New proposed items' in Free Conference Reports need only fit the scope and object of the title of the bill in Free conference. This is a broader rule than used in proceedings prior to Free Conference."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I take that means we have no knowledge if the Free Conference Committee might change their minds after we've approved—or it's concerned only in what they tell us in their Free Conference Report they're going to adopt."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the Free Conference Report will be on the desk twenty-four hours prior and that will give you an opportunity to decide what you wish to do."

Senator Rasmussen: "And at the time that we've come to the final adoption of the bill, can we still raise scope and object?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, sir."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1722 was deferred.
MOTION

At 11:41 a.m., on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Cherberg.

These initial proceedings shall be confidential, unless confidentiality is waived by the judge or justice, but all subsequent hearings conducted by the commission shall be open to members of the public.

Whenever the commission adopts a recommendation that a judge or justice be removed, the judge or justice shall be suspended immediately, with salary, from his or her judicial position until a final determination is made by the supreme court.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 136.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Talmadge, in the second part---'Whenever a commission adopts a recommendation that a judge be removed, the judge will be suspended immediately until a final decision is made by the court.' In that particular part of it, would you explain the procedure as to just why that is a good idea?"
Senator Talmadge: "Well, the concern is, under present law, Senator Zimmerman, a judge that was subject to a recommendation from the commission that he or she be suspended or fully removed from office would technically be entitled to continue in their role as a judge until such time as the Supreme Court actually made the final decision. Actually the work of the commission is as of an entity making recommendations to the Supreme Court which has the final word, so consequently you could have a time period of some duration during which the judge would be sitting and hearing cases even though a recommendation had been made to remove or suspend that judge."

Senator Zimmerman: "I appreciate that. He would still be paid, however, until he is removed—he would still be paid until such a time—"

Senator Talmadge: "That's right because of the presumption of innocence until such time that that judge is found to be subject to removal."

Senator Zimmerman: "That's fine. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 136.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 136.

Upon request being made by the transportation commission, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.42 RCW. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under the provisions of RCW 47.10.790 through 47.10.798 in any biennium may not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

If the state of Washington is able to obtain matching funds from the urban mass transportation administration or other federal government agencies for the acquisition of passenger-only vessels capable of operating as an integral part of the Washington state ferries on Puget Sound and the Straits of Juan de Fuca, a sufficient amount of the proceeds of the bonds authorized herein shall be used to pay the state’s share of the acquisition cost of the passenger-only vessels. Upon request being made by the department, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW. The bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress in constructing the ferries. The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations were issued. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4630 with the following amendments:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 100. PREAMBLE. Tort law in this state has generally been developed by the courts on a case-by-case basis. While this process has resulted in some significant changes in the law, including amelioration of the harshness of many common law doctrines, the legislature has periodically intervened in order to bring about needed reforms. The purpose of this chapter is to enact further reforms in order to create a more equitable distribution of the cost and risk of injury and increase the availability and affordability of insurance.

The legislature finds that counties, cities, and other governmental entities are faced with increased exposure to lawsuits and awards and dramatic increases in the cost of insurance coverage. These escalating costs ultimately affect the public through higher taxes, loss of essential services, and loss of the protection provided by adequate insurance. In order to improve the availability and affordability of quality governmental services, comprehensive reform is necessary.

The legislature also finds comparable cost increases in professional liability insurance. Escalating malpractice insurance premiums discourage physicians and other health care providers from initiating or continuing their practice or offering needed services to the public and contribute to the rising costs of consumer health care. Other professionals, such as architects and engineers, face similar difficult choices, financial instability, and unlimited risk in providing services to the public.

The legislature also finds that general liability insurance is becoming unavailable or unaffordable to many businesses, individuals, and nonprofit organizations in amounts sufficient..." to cover potential losses. High premiums have discouraged socially and economically desirable activities and encourage many to go without adequate insurance coverage.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to reduce costs associated with the tort system, while assuring that adequate and appropriate compensation for persons injured through the fault of others is available.

PART I

ACCELERATED PHYSICIAN-PATIENT PRIVILEGE

Sec. 101. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1982 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED. (a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child’s injury, neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof, and

(b) Within ninety days of filing an action for personal injuries or wrongful death, the claimant shall elect whether or not to waive the physician-patient privilege. If the claimant does not waive the physician-patient privilege, the claimant may not put his or her mental or physical condition or that of his or her decedent or beneficiaries in issue and may not waive the privilege later in the proceedings. (2) In no action seeking damages for personal injury or death may a claimant recover a judgment for noneconomic damages exceeding an amount determined by multiplying 0.43 by the average annual wage and by the life expectancy of the person incurring noneconomic damages, as the life expectancy is determined by the life expectancy tables adopted by the insurance commissioner. For purposes of determining the maximum amount allowable for noneconomic damages, a claimant's life expectancy shall not be less than fifteen years. The limitation contained in this subsection applies to all claims for noneconomic damages made by a claimant who incurred bodily injury. Claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, destruction of the parent-child relationship, and all other derivative claims asserted by persons who did not sustain bodily injury are to be included within the limitation on claims for noneconomic damages arising from the same bodily injury.

APPORTIONMENT OF DAMAGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. A new section is added to chapter 4.22 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In all actions involving fault of more than one entity, the trier of fact shall determine the percentage of the total fault which is attributable to every entity which caused the claimant's damages, including the claimant or person suffering personal injury or incurring property damage, defendants, third-party defendants, entities released by the claimant, entities immune from liability to the claimant and entities with any other individual defense against the claimant. Judgment shall be entered against each defendant except those who have been released by the claimant or are immune from liability to the claimant or have prevailed on any other individual defense against the claimant in an amount which represents that party's proportionate share of the claimant's total damages. The liability of each defendant shall be several only and shall not be joint except:

(a) A party shall be responsible for the fault of another person or for payment of the proportionate share of another party where both were acting in concert or when a person was acting as an agent or servant of the party.

(b) If the trier of fact determines that the claimant or party suffering bodily injury or incurring property damages was not at fault, the defendants against whom judgment is entered shall be jointly and severally liable for the sum of their proportionate shares of the claimants total damages.

(2) If a defendant is jointly and severally liable under one of the exceptions listed in subsections (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this section, such defendant's rights to contribution against another jointly and severally liable defendant, and the effect of settlement by either such defendant, shall be determined under RCW 4.22.040, 4.22.050, and 4.22.060.

(3)(a) Nothing in this section affects any cause of action relating to hazardous wastes or substances or solid waste disposal sites.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect a cause of action arising from the tortious interference with contracts or business relations.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect any cause of action arising from the manufacture or marketing of a fungible product in a generic form which contains no clearly identifiable shape, color, or marking.

Sec. 402. Section 11, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.22.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 401 of this 1986 act, if more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several.

Sec. 403. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1984 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:
If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award. PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid:

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title. PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (l) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person;

(f) If the employer or a co-employee are determined under section 401 of this 1986 act to be at fault, (c) and (e) of this subsection do not apply and benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or...
LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to any action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was engaged in the commission of a felony, if the felony was causally related to the injury or death in time, place, or activity. However, nothing in this section shall affect a right of action under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983.

Sec. 502. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(3) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in subsection (1) of this section, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission; PROVIDED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age or eighteen years. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred (PROVIDED, That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190).

PART VI

INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS

Sec. 601. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.115 are each amended to read as follows:
A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair, addition to, subtraction from, improvement to, or maintenance of, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation, or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate, including moving and demolition in connection therewith, purporting to indemnify against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property:

(1) Caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the indemnitee, his agents or employees is against public policy and is void and unenforceable;

(2) Caused by or resulting from the concurrent negligence of (a) the indemnitee or the indemnitee's agents or employees, and (b) the indemnitor or the indemnitor's agents or employees, is valid and enforceable only to the extent of the indemnitor's negligence and only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor, and may waive the indemnitor's immunity under industrial insurance, Title 51 RCW, only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor and the waiver was mutually negotiated by the parties. This subsection applies to agreements entered into after the effective date of this 1986 section.

PART VII

BUILDER LIMITATION

Sec. 701. Section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1955 and RCW 4.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations prescribed in this chapter shall apply to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of any county or other municipality or quasimunicipality of the state, in the same manner as to actions brought by private parties: PROVIDED, That, except as provided in RCW 4.16.310, there shall be no limitation to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, and no claim of right predicated upon the lapse of time shall ever be asserted against the state: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no previously existing statute of limitations shall be interposed as a defense to any action brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, although such statute may have run and become fully operative as a defense prior to February 27, 1903, nor shall any cause of action against the state be predicated upon such a statute.

Sec. 702. Section 2, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.310 are each amended to read as follows:

All claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 shall accrue, and the applicable statute of limitation shall begin to run only during the period within six years after substantial completion of construction, or during the period within six years after the termination of the services enumerated in RCW 4.16.300, whichever is later. The phrase "substantial completion of construction" shall mean the state of completion reached when an improvement upon real property may be used or occupied for its intended use. Any cause of action which has not accrued within six years after such substantial completion of construction, or within six years after such termination of services, whichever is later, shall be barred: PROVIDED, That this limitation shall not be asserted as a defense by any owner, tenant or other person in possession and control of the improvement at the time such cause of action accrues. The limitations prescribed in this section apply to all claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 brought in the name or for the benefit of the state which are made or commenced after the effective date of this 1986 section.

Sec. 703. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.300 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 4.16.300 through 4.16.320 shall apply to all claims or causes of action of any kind against any person, arising from such person having constructed, altered or repaired any improvement upon real property, or having performed or furnished any design, planning, surveying, architectural or construction or engineering services, or supervision or observation of construction, or administration of construction contracts for any construction, alteration or repair of any improvement upon real property. This section is intended to benefit only those persons referenced herein and shall not apply to claims or causes of action against manufacturers.

PART VIII

PERIODIC PAYMENTS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In an action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage in which a verdict or award for future economic damages of at least one hundred thousand dollars is made, the court or arbitrator shall, at the request of a party, enter a judgment which provides for the periodic payment in whole or in part of the future economic damages. With respect to the judgment, the court or arbitrator shall make a specific finding as to the dollar amount of periodic payments intended to compensate the judgment creditor for the future economic damages.

(2) Prior to entry of judgment, the court shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of future economic damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include provisions for: The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the interval between payments, the number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made, modification for hardship or unforeseen circumstances, posting of adequate security, and any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances. After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select the proposal agreed upon or any other plan submitted by the court. Any plan selected shall revert to the judgment debtor.

(3) If the court enters a judgment for periodic payments and any security required by the judgment is not posted within thirty days, the court shall enter a judgment for the payment of future damages in a lump sum.

(4) If at any time following entry of judgment for periodic payments, a judgment debtor fails for any reason to make a payment in a timely fashion according to the terms of the judgment, the judgment creditor may petition the court for an order requiring payment by the judgment debtor of the outstanding payments in a lump sum. In calculating the amount of the lump sum judgment, the court shall total the remaining periodic payments due and owing to the judgment creditor converted to present value. The court may also require payment of interest on the outstanding judgment.

(5) Upon the death of the judgment creditor, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, modify the judgment to award and apportion the unpaid future damages. Money damages awarded for loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or payments terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor.

(6) Upon satisfaction of a periodic payment judgment, any obligation of the judgment debtor to make further payments shall cease and any security posted pursuant to this section shall revert to the judgment debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. Section 5. chapter 56. Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.56.240 each repealed.

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

A breach of a duty imposed by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule shall not be considered negligence per se, but may be considered by the trier of fact as evidence of negligence; however, any breach of duty as provided by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule relating to electrical fire safety, the use of smoke alarms, or driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, shall be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to an action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug and that such condition contributed more than fifty percent to his or her injuries or death. If the amount of alcohol in a person's blood is shown by chemical analysis of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily substance to have been 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the blood, it is conclusive proof that the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a member of the board of directors or an officer of any nonprofit corporation is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or modify in any manner the duties or liabilities of a director or officer of a corporation to the corporation or the corporation's shareholders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

A member of the board of directors or a superintendent of any school district is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 7.70 RCW to read as follows:

Members of the board of directors or other governing body of a public or private hospital are not individually liable for injuries resulting from health care administered by a health care provider granted privileges to provide health care at the hospital unless the decision to grant the privilege to provide health care at the hospital constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 48.22 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall by regulation require insurers authorized to write casualty insurance in this state to form a market assistance plan to assist persons and other entities unable to purchase casualty insurance in an adequate amount from either the admitted market or nonadmitted market.

For the purpose of this section, a market assistance plan means a voluntary mechanism by insurers writing casualty insurance in this state in either the admitted or nonadmitted market to provide casualty insurance for a class of insurance designated in writing to the plan by the commissioner.

The bylaws and method of operation of any market assistance plan shall be approved by the commissioner prior to its operation.
A market assistance plan shall have a minimum of twenty-five insurers willing to insure risks within the class designated by the commissioner. If twenty-five insurers do not voluntarily agree to participate, the commissioner may require casualty insurers to participate in a market assistance plan as a condition of continuing to do business in this state. The commissioner shall make such a requirement to fulfill the quota of at least twenty-five insurers. The commissioner shall make his or her designation on the basis of the insurer’s premium volume of casualty insurance in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 907. A new section is added to chapter 48.19 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall, in reviewing a casualty rate filing, determine in accordance with sound and reliable actuarial principles whether this act requires an insurer to grant its policyholders a credit in such casualty rate filing. Upon determining that data in support of such a credit is actuarially credible, the commissioner shall approve or disapprove such casualty rate filing in accordance therewith. The commissioner shall not approve any casualty rate that is inadequate, excessive, or unfairly discriminatory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 908. The commissioner shall, as chairman of the tort reform study commission, require the task force to study the effectiveness of joint underwriting authorities throughout the United States to specifically determine:

1. The price as it relates to a filed Insurance Services Organization rate;
2. The solvency of such mechanisms;
3. The effect it has on the admitted market;
4. The effect it has on the nonadmitted market;
5. The effect or availability on the voluntary market; and
6. What effect it has on lines or classes of insurance not designated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 909. The insurance commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 1, 1991, on the effects of this act on insurance rates and the availability of insurance coverage and the impact on the civil justice system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 910. Except as provided in sections 202 and 601 of this act and except for section 904 of this act, this act applies to all actions filed on or after August 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 911. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 912. Section 904 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety; the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "civil actions," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 5.60.060, 4.22.030, 51.24.060, 4.16.350, 4.24.115, 4.16.160, 4.16.310, and 4.16.300; adding a new section to chapter 4.22 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.24 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.56 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 5.40 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.19 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.22 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 4.56.240; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.
MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of information first, if I could. Will the proposed amendment that I offered, had we been able to go back to second reading, be spread upon the journal? If not, I would request that it would be."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Are you referring to the motion or the amendment?"

Senator Talmadge: "The proposed amendment, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that it will not be in the journal."

Senator Talmadge: "I will later submit it for inclusion in the journal, Mr. President."

Senator Newhouse objected to the amendment be included in the journal.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I believe the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 expand the scope and object of Senate Bill No. 4630."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "There has been an objection, therefore, it will be necessary for you to make a motion in order for you to have it printed in the journal."

Senator Talmadge: "I believe, Mr. President, that the objection by Senator Newhouse—does that stand or has it been withdrawn? I won't make a motion, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has moved that the proposed amendment be included in the journal."

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I'll withdraw that motion."

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has withdrawn the motion."

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I do have the point of order relating to scope and object, however."

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has raised the point of order that the proposed House amendments change the scope and object of the bill."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President. To be specific, the original bill as it left the Senate dealt with a number of issues in the tort system and in the civil justice system in the state of Washington. The only provision in the bill, as it left the Senate that related to the issue of insurance was a cap on permitted insurance rate increases in the state of Washington of fifteen percent per annum. That fifteen percent cap was intimately related to the question of whether or not the changes in the tort law and the changes in the civil justice system were enacted."

"The House amendments that come before the Senate include not only changes in the tort system, but include changes in insurance laws. Specifically, there's a proposal made for a market assistance program with a joint underwriting authority provided for in the House amendments."

"Mr. President, this is an act relating to civil actions and civil actions ordinarily in the law connot those actions that can be commenced in court. There's nothing in the proposed title to the bill that would suggest that there would be a market assistance program or anything relating to the issue of insurance unrelated to the issue of civil actions that might be permitted in this bill. For that reason, because of the inclusion of this very major change in the insurance system that has been contained in separate legislation previously, I believe the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 expand the scope and the object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 is an omnibus measure limiting exposure in civil actions for tort claims and reducing the amount of potential court awards with the intention of decreasing future insurance premiums.

"The House amendments are also an omnibus measure limiting exposure in civil actions for tort claims and reducing the amount of potential court awards with the intention of decreasing future insurance premiums.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 were ruled in order.

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, as the maker of the motion to concur, I have a very strange posture in this as the sponsor of the bill that I don't particularly like and as the maker of the motion to concur in the House amendments. But I do have to confess that we are now embarking upon something that would undertake to change literally centuries, in some instances, of law that's been developed in Anglo-American jurisdictions across the world, and something that has been developed over decades of very patient change in this state.

"The changes that we make—the reason that we embarked on this odyssey of sorts originally was to deal with the issue of insurance availability and affordability and I stand before the Senate to suggest in complete earnestness that this bill, with the changes contained in it, will have absolutely no impact whatsoever on the issue of insurance availability nor on the issue of insurance affordability. This is simply a facade for change in the tort law without regard to what might occur in the area of insurance.

"We held hearings in the House of Representatives in the whole chamber on the issue of insurance. Senator Moore and Senator Decicco worked very long and hard in the interim on the Joint Select Committee on Insurance Availability and Affordability and we spent ten hours in the Senate Judiciary Committee hearing testimony on this issue. Notwithstanding what I thought was very pertinent testimony given in all three places about being cautious, about not embarking down roads in this area without consideration of the possible ramifications of the changes that were being suggested, here we have before us the coalition proposal, and a rush to some change without consideration of the ultimate consequences of that change.

"I also stand before the Senate as someone who understands, I think, the legal system from many different perspectives, perhaps differently than many others here on the floor. I've been supported in times past by people in the plaintiffs' trial bar. I, myself, do a lot of insurance defense practice. I get a chance to see, I believe, both sides of the equation and I believe that there are changes that are pertinent in the tort system and changes in the civil justice system that should happen, but these changes are not the kind of changes that we should be attempting to deal with.

"What I suggest to the members of the Senate is that this bill guarantees nothing more than years of uncertainty, years of serious problems and an untold numbers of court challenges to very fundamental doctrines in the law. The members out here don't understand and don't believe the consequences of these changes. Let me suggest to you, first of all, something that I believe will happen when this bill is enacted that members really did not intend and that is a substantial attack on the doctrine of employer immunity under the Industrial Insurance Act. People believe, and I think, support the notion that employers should be immune from suit in cases of work-place injuries, in exchange for employees receiving industrial insurance benefits on a no-fault basis. This change will not impact on the ability of plaintiffs to sue their employer, but what it will impact is the opportunity for the people that I usually represent, the other co-defendant, the insured to bring actions for indemnification against employers, because what you're purporting to do is allocate fault to empty chairs in the lawsuit—the employers who are immune, the parties that have been released and others. As a consequence, you will see what happened in the state of Illinois, the state of New York and a number of others.
where you open up employer immunity by virtue of what you are doing here to actions for indemnification by other persons.

"Additionally, this bill has substantial difficulties in its definition of alternate market-share liability; the problems associated with generic kinds of products, like pharmaceuticals, perhaps like asbestos and a number of others. This is an invitation for great difficulty in the interpretation of that area of the law.

"This bill contains in it more than one subject, as I’ve mentioned by virtue of my point of order. It’s clear that this will be subject to challenge from the two subject issues when you have an act relating to civil action and contained in it is the rather pale insurance proposal relating to a marketing assistance program.

"And lastly, you have the problems that have been present in a number of other states with any caps on damages being an invasion of the province of the court, any effort in the area of joint and several liability being the same.

"What you do, rather than providing certainty and comprehensive change in the area of tort law on a consensual basis is uncertainty, conflict and court challenge that will result in insurance premiums staying right where they are and all of the people you think you’re helping—the long-haul truckers, the day-care operators, the doctors and all the rest—being subject to the problems that they see. Now we need some change in the tort system and changes in the civil justice system. Those were changes that would have been possible in the striking amendment that was going to be offered, but people didn’t even get a chance to take a look at it and apparently didn’t even want to. Unfortunately, those changes would have had some significant impact. If you’d been able to do mandatory arbitration in more cases, if you’d been able to do offers of settlement and mandatory settlement conferences, you’d have gotten rid of a lot of claims quicker and cheaper, but that’s not what we’re going to attempt to do here.

"What we did go through in dealing with this bill, was a facade of negotiation. You know, we talked long and hard about the issues and, unfortunately, whenever there was any opportunity to really deal with the problems in the tort system or the civil justice system, the insurance industry sat on them and all those changes have been removed from the Bristow/Ballard amendment that was adopted in the House.

"I have to tell you, I guess, that when we try to deal with something as significant as this issue, when the only justification from a policy standpoint and one of the bodies of the Legislature is that an amendment is appropriate or an amendment is inappropriate or the coalition approves, or the coalition disapproves, and there’s no discussion of policy, that’s a frustration of this process and a frustration of the need for public debate on an issue as significant as this one and as pervasive as this one as it touches upon the lives of the people perhaps least able to respond.

"The thing that concerns me, I guess, most of all is that all of us are going to go back home to our districts and we’re going to declare a great victory. We’ve changed the tort law. We’ve changed this area of insurance and it’s going to be the second coming. We’re going to have done all these great things for the people who have these problems. Unfortunately, what I think you’re going to see over the months ahead is nothing more than frustration. You’re going to see the challenges. You’re going to see the problems that failing to address this difficulty in a consensual way provide. What you’re going to see is no change in insurance availability or affordability and more frustration from the people who are supposed to be helped. Those day-care operators will be frustrated. The long-haul truckers will be frustrated. The doctors will be frustrated. The lawyers will be frustrated. That’s what you will do by way of legacy in this bill.

"You will see the opposition from the victims groups—the Mothers Against Drunk Drivers, other victims groups, and labor—who have a concern about this. Ultimately, what you guarantee when you deal with an issue as complex as this, in a nonconsensual basis, is some concern down on the second floor, and some concern across the street in the Temple of Justice, when this thing lands over in the Temple of Justice, as we know it will.

"The reason that the 1981 Product Liability and Tort Reform Act sustained or stood up to challenges was that it was consensual change. This is not. This is simply a rapacious effort on the part of the people who are proposing this legislation, without consideration of changes that might make it work, to do whatever they want to do because that's the way they see it and they're not going to admit to any difficulties or differences of opinion on an issue as complex as this.

"Now, I've taken a very long time to tell you that, perhaps, the article that I distributed from The Columbian is correct. The tort reform bill will make a lot of people mad when the impact of it is understood by people across the state. The sad thing is the good intentions, the real strong feelings of people who want to deal with the issue area of torts and civil justice, will be frustrated because this will not do that which you hoped to see done. What you will do is carry back to the people in your home districts nothing more than an empty and hollow promises of fundamental change in their economic situation vis-a-vis insurance companies and you will get nothing for it.

"The last remark I make, members of the Senate, is we have an obligation to one group of people, perhaps more than any other group of people, and that's people least able to come down here and articulate their need or concern about legislation. This is clearly the most comprehensive anti-victim legislation ever passed by the Washington State Legislature. You are telling people who are the victims of wrongful conduct in this state that some people will go free because of that and some people will not be penalized by the financial obligation imposed by the tort system for their wrongful conduct. That's bad public policy and it doesn't meet the needs and concerns of those people least able to respond. I urge you—I implore you—to think about what you're doing in this legislation, to consider the consequences and vote as you will, but remember that a lot of the things that you hope to see in this bill will not happen. A lot of the things that you didn't expect to happen will happen and for some of you, perhaps, when those employers all of a sudden start having to carry insurance for the immunity that no longer exists, you'd better be able to answer their concerns."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I'm going to dwell on two small items and I'd like to ask you to look at your green sheet on page 2, the second item—Industrial Insurance Actions. You will find it in your green sheet, because apparently nobody knew that this language, that I'm going to discuss, was taken out.

"You will find in your green sheet it says, 'In third party actions where the claimant,'—now I'm going to underscore that—'employer or employee are at fault.' Now, if you go to page 12 on the House amendment, you'll find 'the claimant' isn't in here. 'Claimant' was in every version of what we discussed all the way along the line until the last minute when this draft was prepared and the word 'claimant' was left out. I went to the proponents and I said, 'We sat through all those negotiations, all those discussions and I explained to you the impact of doing away with joint and several on the Industrial Insurance Act if you do not do something about the claims under L&I, and at no time did anybody ever ask me about why I had included claimant because I had explained to them why I had.'

"The truck driver going down the road being involved in a multi-accident—a collision, may sometime also be slightly at fault in that and yet he's covered by L&I under a no-fault system in which the award is greatly reduced to him and, therefore, you have to keep 'claimant' in this if you're going to make it all the way fair.

"Now, I've asked and I ask again, why—or if you even knew—did they take 'claimant' out in the last draft, because what they've done is gutted this section. It's my understanding in that State Patrol officer case that he had an action against General Motors for a mis-design of a gas tank on a car and in which he—at least General Motors claims, was partially at fault. By taking 'claimant' out, you took the state patrolman out.

"Now, I've asked and I ask again, what insurance company lawyer wrote this because only they, Phil Talmadge and I, and maybe Halsan and maybe some of the young lawyers in the House would understand the significance of that, but it got all the way through here without anybody ever bringing it up. It makes a big difference and it's a huge hole on innocent people who will now not be able to accept their L&I claim or they will not be able to bring an action against a product designer or someone like that. I think it's a mistake."
"Now, I've asked to go back and to talk about conference and fix a couple of these things and I'm told, 'We've got the votes, forget it.' I'm going to forget it after I've said my piece. The second thing that I would ask you, why is the amendment that Senator Newhouse and I proposed—I can't say that Irv had his name on it—we proposed it before and I thought we were both proposing it when we drafted it. When I took it to the lobbyists for the contracting association, who are most affected by this—and that is the company that comes into this state from out of state, pays no attention to our safety laws, runs up great big L&I claims for which all of us pay and then leaves. Now under our L&I section, if they stay here they're going to pay an experience rating on those accidents, but they don't stay here, and so they don't care. So, I proposed an amendment that was in the Senate version that said that if you repeatedly violate an instruction from L&I to put safety equipment back on machinery or back in ditches, then you lose your immunity for the workmen that are killed or injured because of your refusal to abide by WISHA or OSHA after you've been warned to do so. Everybody agreed in the Senate that that was a good idea and that we ought to do something to protect those claims that came out. Nobody asked me, you know, 'What do you think? What about this?' Well, I went and asked two of the representatives for the contracting industry and I had Senator Vognild there as a witness. I was told why they told them to take it out. They ran it on their computer and it's cheaper to hurt people than to pay them. I could have told them that. They didn't have to run a computer. Of course, it's cheaper to hurt people under L&I than to pay them, and that's why it's out.

"Now, this bill does nothing in a way of a compromise to fix tort systems except take awards away from people that are hurt. There is no give and take to fix things that are wrong. It's simply, 'I got the votes, why talk about compromise?'

"I do want to compliment the people who worked on this for a few things. They took care of it where I could show them politically they were going to get hurt. The senior citizens complained about that sliding scale when you got to the end of the cap and they did fix that and I compliment them. The old people will at least get a hundred thousand dollars and the senior citizens might not be quite as mad, but the Mothers Against Drunk Driving get nothing. Any of the progress we made at getting at taverns or cocktail loungers for over-serving is gone in this bill. They win. The victims of drunk drivers lose, because there was no effort whatsoever to address that question.

"I get a little emotional about this. I thought very seriously about resigning because this is the worst thing that I have ever seen happen in this Senate."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, transcripts of the remarks by Senator Talmadge and Bottiger will be made available to members of the Senate. Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

"Senator Hayner: Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, the reason we're considering this bill—and we are about to pass it—is because there's a crisis out there. There is a crisis among day-care people; there's a crisis in cities and counties who cannot obtain insurance. There is a crisis on the part of some doctors who are going out of certain disciplines because they cannot get any coverage and their rates are so high that they're simply saying, 'We cannot afford it.'

"We must do something and I think this is the first step. Nobody expects the rates to go down tomorrow—of course not—but we do think that over a period of time there is going to be a change and together with the study that will be made by the Insurance Commissioner's Office, I think we'll see some results. We cannot stand by and do nothing. There are too many things at stake and when you talk about the insurance companies and their rates going up, what you're really talking about is that all the people out there are paying for these costs—all of the people. And why aren't the insurance companies insuring some? And why are they raising the rates? Well, one of the chief reasons is that they no longer can buy reinsurance. Lloyds of London will not come in here and help them reinsure and no insurance company can do it on their own. They don't have that much in assets. They have to have enormous reserves. This is a high capital intensive business.
They are highly regulated, as you know. They are audited every three years and they have to pay for the audit. The companies are not reinsuring. Why? Because they cannot tell what their costs will be in the future and so they have to raise their rates. The companies who do reinsurance are saying, 'We cannot come into this country any longer.' No other country in the world has these kinds of limitations.

"Let's talk a minute about joint and several liability. It's something we should have dealt with a long time ago. This bill says that if a claimant is not negligent he may still get his deep pocket benefits from one of the defendants who may have very little fault, but still he can get the total amount from that individual.

"What is fair about someone being involved in a lawsuit and being only fifty percent liable, fifty percent negligent in the accident that happened and paying the total cost? What is fair about that? Somehow I fail to see that.

"We have seen all kinds of crazy cases in which a felon runs across a skylight and falls into a school and sues and gets a quarter of a million dollars. Those kinds of cases are what has driven the cost up and we have to do something to change our tort system to bring it in line. In those states where they have done a few things, and there hasn't been enough time to tell what the total effect will be, but still they can see some changes and I would certainly hope that we did not take things away from juries. I do not want us to bury the jury system: it is a fine system, but we have to change some of the rules. It is not the juries that are at fault, it is some of our laws that are at fault. They are being given the instructions from the court and they're doing what is precisely according to the judges recommendations and why? Because our laws tell them to do that, so let's hope we don't put everything into arbitration. I certainly do not want to see that happen.

"The policy which we are setting here has been carefully considered and it seems to be the implication here that no lawyers have looked at this. Well, I assure you there are many lawyers who have looked at this for the coalition and for others. They have looked at it very carefully and just because the trial lawyers seem to think that this is a terrible, disastrous thing to do, I think for every trial lawyer there are three or four defense lawyers who are saying, 'This is the best thing you can do to change the situation.' I think if we fail to deal with the problem, we are putting our head in the sand and even though the Governor may not have listed this among his priorities, it certainly is a priority for the people of this state and I urge you to vote for this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Hayner, at our caucus today we discussed this at length and I asked every caucus member who was present—and I think we were all there—if this bill passed had any member of our caucus been informed by the insurance industry that affordable insurance would be offered to the day-care centers, the doctors, the hospitals, the taverns, the truckers—the list is endless—and the answer was nobody had any assurance that affordable rates would be available or if they would be lowered. Were you given any indication in your caucus that this would lower insurance rates or make insurance affordable?"

Senator Hayner: "I think that we're going to have to see what the results of this are, but I certainly think it is a step in the direction of keeping them from going up and I believe that in the long run, they will settle back because those who are in the business of reinsuring will be back. When that happens and when they can cut off the long tail that we have done in the case of medical doctors here as far as children ailments are concerned and disabilities, then they can cut their rates and I think it will happen."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, if you please, just a word or two for the people who are unable to get insurance or afford it—the counties, the cities and so forth. Joint and several is still in this bill for the plaintiff who is not at fault—full bore. This is not overturning centuries of judicial tradition. In 1973, we lost contributory negligence in this Legislature and this is just bringing it a little bit back toward where it was—a little bit of equalization."
"Remember that even partially at fault, an injured plaintiff can get up to about three hundred and fifty thousand dollars of general damages, all necessary care, lost wages, all those economic damages in addition. I grant that there is no guarantee of lower insurance rates but the medical association—the company—said that with this bill they would expect their rates to go down twenty-eight percent. Some other companies said fifteen to twenty. The contractor situation mentioned by Senator Bottiger is not quite accurate. The contractors are the only group under Labor and Industries that have a uniform rate among industry and they pay their own. They do not assess the other employers of the state.

"I'm speaking for people who have had trouble getting insurance—counties and cities going bare and it's not because we don't regulate companies. We can't regulate Lloyds of London in this state and that's the big source of excess coverage that we tried to pass off to the foreign insurance companies. I think this is the best answer we could come up with. It may not be perfect. It's certainly a trend in the right direction."

Further debate ensued.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754, encouraging employers to hire recipients of unemployment insurance benefits and public assistance, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that the essential purpose of state economic development programs is to encourage the hiring of the unemployed. It is of even greater benefit to the state if those hired were drawing unemployment benefits or public assistance and the benefits terminate when employment is secured. A targeted program that encourages employers to make a good faith effort to hire public assistance recipients and the unemployed will provide benefits to the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) "Department" means the employment security department.

(2) "First source contract" means an agreement by an employer to screen applicants from a pool of qualified individuals, if any, submitted to the employer by the department and to consider hiring from that pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall encourage the use of first source contracts with employers looking to locate or expand in the state. The department shall make every effort to guarantee easy access by employers to qualified workers. The commissioner may delegate duties under this chapter to a local organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department may provide specific financial incentives to employers who sign first source agreements if state funds are appropriated or if federal funds are made available for that purpose. The incentives may include but shall not be limited to providing an employer with up to fifty percent of a trainee's wages during the first ten weeks of employment and on-the-job training.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An employer and a prospective employee to be hired from the pool may agree to a thirty-day training period. At the end of which time the employer shall make a decision whether to hire the individual. The individual may continue to draw unemployment or public assistance, or both, during the thirty-day training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The funds specified in section 4 of this act shall be available during the thirty-day training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall expire December 31, 1989.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Applicant" means a person applying for a tax deferral under this chapter.
(2) "Person" has the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030.
(3) "Department" means the department of revenue.
(4) "Eligible investment project" means: (a) Construction of new buildings and the acquisition of related machinery and equipment when the buildings, machinery, and equipment are to be used for either manufacturing or research and development activities, which construction is commenced prior to December 31, 1988; or (b) acquisition prior to December 31, 1988, of machinery and equipment to be used for either manufacturing or research and development if the machinery and equipment is housed in a new leased structure: PROVIDED, that the lessor/owner of the structure is not eligible for a deferral unless the underlying ownership of the buildings, machinery, and equipment vests exclusively in the same person.

In addition to the requirements of this section, a project must create at least one new full-time qualified employment position for each three hundred thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested.

(5) "Manufacturing" means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and includes the production or fabrication of specially made or custom-made articles.

(6) "Research and development" means the development, refinement, testing, marketing, and commercialization of a product, service, or process before commercial sales have begun.

(7) "Buildings" means only those new structures used for either manufacturing or research and development activities, including plant offices and warehouses or other facilities for the storage of raw materials or finished goods if such facilities are on an integral part of a factory, mill, plant, or laboratory used for manufacturing or research and development purposes. If a building is used partly for manufacturing or research and development and partly for other purposes, the applicable tax deferral shall be determined by apportionment of the costs of construction under rules adopted by the department.

(8) "Machinery and equipment" means all new industrial and research fixtures, equipment, and support facilities that are an integral and necessary part of a manufacturing or research and development operation. "Qualified machinery and equipment" includes computers; software; data processing equipment; laboratory equipment; manufacturing components such as belts, pulleys, shafts, and moving parts; molds, tools, and dies; operating structures; and all equipment used to control or operate the machinery. For purposes of this definition, new machinery and equipment means either new to the taxing jurisdiction of the state or new to the certificate holder. Used machinery and equipment are eligible for deferral if the certificate holder either brings the machinery and equipment into Washington or makes a retail purchase of the machinery and equipment in Washington or elsewhere.

9. “Qualified employment position” means a permanent full-time employee employed in the eligible investment project during the entire tax year.

10. “Recipient” means a person receiving a tax deferral under this chapter.

Sec. 10. Section 8, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.040 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 82.61.020 and 82.61.030 shall expire July 1, 1988.

Sec. 11. Section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department and the department of trade and economic development shall jointly report to the legislature about the effects of this chapter on new manufacturing and research and development activities in this state. The report shall contain information concerning the number of deferral certificates granted, the amount of sales tax deferred, the number of jobs created and other information useful in measuring such effects. Reports shall be submitted by January 1, 1986, and by January 1 of each year through 1989.

Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 232, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

1. “Applicant” means a person applying for a tax deferral under this chapter.

2. “Department” means the department of revenue.

3. “Eligible area” means a county in which the average level of unemployment for the three years before the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for those years by twenty percent.

4. (a) “Eligible investment project” means that portion of an investment project which:

   i. Is directly utilized to create at least one new full-time qualified employment position for each ((two)) three hundred thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested; and

   ii. Either initiates a new operation, or expands or diversifies a current operation by expanding or renovating an existing building with costs in excess of twenty-five percent of the true and fair value of the plant complex prior to improvement; (and) or

   iii. ((Does not exceed twenty million dollars in value)) Acquires machinery and equipment to be used for either manufacturing or research and development if the machinery and equipment is housed in a new leased structure. PROVIDED, That the lessor/owner of the structure is not eligible for a deferral unless the underlying ownership of the buildings, machinery, and equipment vests exclusively in the same person.

   b. “Eligible investment project” does not include any portion of an investment project undertaken by a light and power business as defined in RCW 82.16.010(5) or investment projects which have already received deferrals under this chapter.

5. “Investment project” means an investment in qualified buildings and qualified machinery and equipment, including labor and services rendered in the planning, installation, and construction of the project.

6. “Manufacturing” means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and shall include the production or fabrication of specially made or custom made articles. “Manufacturing” also includes computer programming, the production of computer software, and other computer-related services, and the activities performed by research and development laboratories and commercial testing laboratories.

7. “Person” has the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030.

8. “Qualified buildings” means new structures used for manufacturing and research and development activities, including plant offices and warehouses or other facilities for the storage of raw material or finished goods if such facilities are an essential or an integral part of a factory, mill, plant, or laboratory used for manufacturing or research and development. If a building is used partly for manufacturing or research and development and partly for other purposes, the applicable tax deferral shall be determined by apportionment of the costs of construction under rules adopted by the department.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 82.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) "Applicant" means a person applying for a tax credit under this chapter.

(2) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(3) "Eligible area" means a county in which the average level of unemployment for the three years before the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for those years by twenty percent.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1754 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986
We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021, creating Washington health care project commission, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:
(a) Good health care for indigent persons is of importance to the state;
(b) To ensure the availability of a good level of health care, efforts must be made to encourage cost consciousness on the part of providers and consumers, while maintaining medical assistance recipients within the mainstream of health care delivery;
(c) Managed health care systems have been found to be effective in controlling costs while providing good health care services;
(d) By enrolling medical assistance recipients within managed health care systems, the state's goal is to ensure that medical assistance recipients receive at least the same quality of care they currently receive.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid capitated programs for both in-patient and out-patient services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under RCW 74.09.520 and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated case management basis.

(2) No later than July 1, 1991, the department of social and health services shall enter into agreements with managed health care systems to provide health care services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children under the following conditions:
(a) Agreements shall be made within one class A county in the eastern part of the state for at least ten thousand recipients; and one class AA county for at least fifteen thousand recipients in the western part of the state; and one first class county of at least five thousand recipients in the western part of the state;
(b) At least one of the agreements shall include enrollment of all recipients of aid to families with dependent children residing in a defined geographical area;
(c) The department shall, to the extent possible, ensure that recipients have a choice of systems in which to enroll and, if necessary and medically appropriate treatment for a recipient is not available from or through a participating managed health care system, the department shall exempt the recipient from any requirement to receive some or all of their medical services from such a system;
(d) To the extent possible, the department shall ensure that participating managed health care systems do not enroll a disproportionate number of medical assistance recipients within the total numbers of persons served by the managed health care systems;
(e) Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the department shall estimate, on an actuarially sound basis, the expected cost of providing the health care services expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems the department shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; and financial integrity of the responding system. The department may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;
(f) The department shall seek waivers from federal requirements as necessary to implement this chapter;
(g) The department shall, wherever possible, enter into prepaid capitation contracts that include inpatient care. However, if this is not possible or feasible, the department may enter into prepaid capitation contracts that do not include inpatient care;
(h) The department shall define those circumstances under which a managed health care system is responsible for out-and-system services and assure that recipients shall not be charged for such services, and
(i) Nothing in this section prevents the department from entering into similar agreements in additional counties or for other groups of people eligible to receive services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

The department shall seek to obtain a large number of contracts with providers of health services to medicaid recipients. The department shall ensure that publicly supported community health centers and providers in rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems are seriously considered as providers in the project.

(3) The department shall work jointly with the state of Oregon and other states in this geographical region in order to develop recommendations to be presented to the appropriate federal agencies and the United States congress for improving health care of the poor, while controlling related costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1987, on progress toward implementation of the requirements of this chapter, but shall not delay implementation on account of this reporting requirement.

The report shall also include an analysis of the possible expansion of the use of managed health care within other medical assistance programs, including making it available to certain recipients of general assistance and supplemental security income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health project" or "project" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health project board created under section 6 of this act.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis to a defined patient population by enrollment in the project and in the managed health care system.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and/or dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five, who resides in a project area, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal department of health and human services, who chooses to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board, and who, at the time of enrollment, does not have access to employer-sponsored health care coverage.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the basic health project trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 10(2) of this act.

(6) "Project area" means one of not more than twelve distinct geographical areas within the state selected by the board as a demonstration site for the Washington basic health project. To the extent possible, the board shall select at least one project area in each congressional district of the state, define project areas coterminously with individual or adjacent cities, counties, or hospital districts, and take into special consideration any formal requests received from local governments or health care providers for selection of particular project areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The basic health project trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenue received under RCW 82.08.020(2) shall be deposited in the basic health project trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health project board. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the project and payment of costs of administering the project. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health project trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1987, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the revenues anticipated to accrue to the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created the Washington basic health project board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. For efficiencies in operation and consultation, the offices of the board may be collocated with those of the hospital commission. The board shall be composed of five members appointed by the governor. The governor shall select one member to serve as chairman. Not more than one member may have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms. However, of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, two shall be appointed to four-year terms, one to a three-year term, one to a two-year term, and one to a one-year term. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board may serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Three members of the board constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless three members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board shall employ a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The executive director, medical director, and up to three other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit.

The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such technical or other advisory committees as it deems necessary. The board shall appoint a standing technical advisory committee that is representative of health care professionals, health care providers, and those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, including consumers and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy. Individuals appointed to any technical or advisory committee shall serve without compensation for their services as members, but may be reimbursed for their expenses in the same manner as members of the board.

The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The board may promulgate and adopt, under chapter 34.04 RCW, rules consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The board has the following powers and duties:

1. To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health project shall be entitled to receive in return for periodic payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the project only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080.

2. To design and implement a structure of periodic payments due from enrollees. The payment structure shall be based upon enrollee family size and shall include a sliding scale whereby payments vary according to enrollee family income. The structure shall be designed so as to include payment amounts for enrollment of children without requiring enrollment of their parents. In each project area, the board shall not enroll such numbers of enrollees who quality for subsidies as might reasonably be expected to result in an overexpenditure for such purposes in the area. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close project enrollment in the area until the board finds the danger no longer exists. Payments to the board by the department of social and health services on behalf of any person eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW, subject to section 15 of this act, shall not be less than the payments the board makes to managed health care systems for coverage of those persons.

3. To select not more than twelve project areas in the state as sites for the project. In selecting the areas, the board shall take into account the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity among project sites, the actual and potential availability of managed health care systems in different parts of the state, levels and rates of unemployment in possible project areas, and the need to assess the financial ability of the project to provide basic health care coverage to a population reasonably representative of the portion of the state’s population that lacks basic health care coverage.

4. To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the project. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available through the project from among a selection of participating managed health care systems in at least some project areas. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the project areas.

(5) To receive periodic payments from enrollees, deposit the payments in the basic health project operating account, keep records of enrollee payments and status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(6) To accept applications from individuals residing in project areas, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health project, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale payments that will be the responsibility of the enrollee. An enrollee who remains current in making periodic sliding-scale payments, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above two and one-half times the poverty level for twelve consecutive months, by making payment at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee schedule. No subsidy shall be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 18 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(7) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW apply for such coverage.

(8) To determine, on a community rating basis, the amount of each periodic per capita or per family payment to a participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the periodic per capita or per family payments to participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating payment levels with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the project area, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(9) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic reports on health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(10) To initiate, at the option of the board, a matching grant program, in up to three project areas, to demonstrate the potential that better coordination of all local primary health care resources in the provision of necessary care to low-income residents who are unlikely or unable to enroll in the project can be more cost-effective. The board may award grants to local governments that sponsor consortia of health care providers, including at least one hospital in each area. Any grant proposal must meet minimum standards set by the board, including requirements for coordination of care by local providers and for coordination of local funding sources, which may include in-kind charity care provided by hospitals and physicians as well as public or private funds and sliding-scale payments from individuals served. Any grants awarded under this subsection shall be made from funds appropriated for such purpose from the Washington basic health project trust account, may be extended for up to three years, and shall be on the basis of one dollar from the board for every four dollars of local or private funds expended in the demonstration program.

(11) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the project shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In each project area, on and after a date set by the board for the area, but in no case before March 31, 1987, enrollees whose payments to the board are current are entitled to receive covered basic health care services as defined by the board from the respective managed health care systems in which they are enrolled. The board shall not at any time maintain enrollment of more than thirty thousand enrollees who are eligible for subsidies. The board shall closely monitor growth patterns so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the project as a whole and in each project area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of a project area may be dropped from enrollment status. The board shall make reasonable efforts to notify delinquent enrollees of their removal from the project and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the project. Upon removal of an enrollee from the project, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the project shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. Subject to board approval and with full disclosure to enrollees and prospective enrollees, a managed health care system may impose nominal copayments upon enrollees as an incentive for proper utilization of services. A participating managed health care system may offer, but not require acceptance of, additional health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the project, that will be the sole responsibility of the enrollee. Any action by or on behalf of any enrollee based on a claim of professional negligence shall, at the option of the enrollee, be submitted for arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than copayments authorized under this section, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The project shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective project areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care systems the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the project, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

1. The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

2. The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

3. The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a project area; and

4. The board may adopt a policy that gives preference, in one or more project areas, to systems substantially supported by public revenues or involving public agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Enrollees of any participating managed health care system may, if offered, execute an agreement on behalf of themselves and/or any dependents enrolled in the project to arbitrate any dispute, controversy, or issue arising out of health care or treatment rendered by or through the managed health care system. The agreement to arbitrate shall provide that its execution is not a prerequisite to enrollment in the project or the provision of any services and shall provide that the enrollee may revoke the agreement within sixty days after execution by notifying the managed health care system in writing.

The agreement shall contain the following provision in at least nine-point boldface type immediately above the space for signature of the parties:

"This agreement to arbitrate is not a prerequisite to enrollment or the provision of any services and may be revoked by the enrollee within sixty days after execution by notification in writing."

Participating managed health care systems that use arbitration agreements shall furnish to the enrollee at the time of enrollment a copy of an information brochure, prepared and approved by the board, which clearly outlines the arbitration process as an alternative dispute resolution process to that of a court and/or jury trial.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. During the life of this project the board shall:
(1) Establish and maintain records on all enrollees that make readily available data on at least the age, sex, family size, place of residence, economic, employment and health status, as well as any utilization of services:

(2) To the extent possible select project areas in those geographic areas where the department of social and health services has existing medical assistance recipients enrolled in managed health care systems;

(3) Give preference, in the selection of project areas and any enrollment procedures, that will ensure that both adequate opportunity for enrollment and the collection of data about enrollees, shall be gathered on those segments of the uninsured population, including but not limited to, the working poor who are uninsured, the recently unemployed uninsured, and the long-term unemployed uninsured; and

(4) Establish liaison and cooperate to the fullest extent with the Washington health care project commission established under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The board shall submit to the 1987 session of the legislature the design plan for a schedule of basic health care services as outlined in section 10 of this act, including appropriate co-payments and/or deductibles, and the schedule of periodic payments that will be the responsibility of any enrollee. For this project to remain in effect it must be approved by the legislature by June 30, 1987, and the level of benefits and periodic payments cannot be changed without legislative approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the project on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee scale, for the services covered by the project, and no premium may be charged to such an enrollee. With respect to enrollees eligible for medical assistance under RCW 74.09.510, the periodic amount payable to the project shall not be greater than the amount with respect to which full federal financial participation is available under Title XIX of the federal social security act. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the project under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making periodic payments based on the enrollee’s own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the project. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of project enrollees and payments on their behalf between the project and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 8 and 10 of this act, the board has the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor or evaluate the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems.

(3) With health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015 and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance. Any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

(4) With any public hospital district established under chapter 70.44 RCW or with any county or city, to administer the project as the board’s agent with respect to enrollees residing in managed health care systems serving a project area within the boundaries of the district, county, or city: PROVIDED, That the district, county, or city shares with the board, on a dollar for dollar matching basis, the cost of payments to participating managed health care systems for coverage of enrollees residing within the boundaries of the district, county, or city less the amounts payable by enrollees to the district, county, or city as agent for the board. However, if the unemployment rate of a participating county exceeds by twenty percent or more the state average as determined by the employment security department, the board may increase the level of its contribution to not more than two dollars for each local dollar.

(5) With any community health center or other public or private nonprofit health care provider participating in a managed health care system under the project and demonstrating financial need, to furnish direct financial assistance in meeting the start-up costs of providing covered basic health care services under the project, for a period not exceeding one year after the managed health care system commences coverage of enrollees.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health project under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the project, are exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this chapter at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this chapter at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall notify in writing any person filing a claim under this chapter who resides in a project area of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health project under chapter 70  ____21 RCW (sections 4 through 21 of this act), unless the Washington basic health project board has notified the commissioner of a closure of enrollment in the area. The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health project enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health project.

Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 12 of this act. The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 1 of each year thereafter.

The review and report will include, as a priority item, recommendations on how to address the incidence of charity care that may be provided by hospitals, including those amounts that patients and/or their families are unable to pay, but not those amounts that any one able to pay shall refuse to pay. Up to fifty thousand dollars of the funds appropriated to the basic health project by section 27 of this act may be expended, upon certification by the director of financial management, in connection with the review, including consultant services that might be required. make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs or access to health care.

The public members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as particular matters deemed necessary and any person serving in such capacity may be reimfollowing information about persons identified in (a) of this subsection:

(i) An estimate of demand for basic health coverage expressed in terms of numbers of potential enrollees if such a program were made available to them, including the basis upon which such an offering should be made; and

(ii) The characteristics of likely enrollees including demographic and economic data, likely utilization and such other actuarial information as needed to estimate the likely cost of the benefit schedule defined by the commission.

(3) The commission shall then use the information obtained pursuant to this section to develop plans that includes:

(a) Methods of delivery for the schedule of basic health care services by managed health care systems, as defined in section 4 of this act, to any persons or distinct groups of persons identified in subsection (2)(a) of this section;

(4) The commission shall submit a final report to the legislature no later than September 1, 1987. The report shall include plans that address the needs for such a basic health care program for any identified groups of persons and an analysis of any alternatives considered, but not adopted.

(5) The commission shall terminate upon the submission of their final report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1870 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO.
1631, modifying provisions relating to nursing home cost reimbursement, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 36, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The depreciation base shall be the historical cost of the contractor or lessor, when the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring the asset in an arm's-length transaction and preparing it for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation which has been incurred during periods that the assets have been used in or as a facility by the contractor.
Such accumulated depreciation to be measured in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section and RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370. If the department challenges the historical cost of an asset, or if the contractor cannot or will not provide the historical costs, the department will have the department of general administration, through an appraisal procedure, determine the fair market value of the assets at the time of purchase. The depreciation base of the assets will not exceed such fair market value.

(2) The historical cost of donated assets, or of assets received through testate or intestate distribution, shall be the lesser of:
(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death; or
(b) The historical cost base of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.
(3) Estimated salvage value of acquired, donated, or inherited assets shall be deducted from historical cost where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years' digits method of depreciation is used.

(4) (a) Where depreciable assets are acquired that were used in the medical care program subsequent to January 1, 1980, the depreciation base of the assets will not exceed the net book value which did exist or would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous contract with the department, except that depreciation shall not be assumed to accumulate during periods when the assets were not in use in or as a facility.
(b) The provisions of (a) of this subsection shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length acquisition if it occurs at least ten years after the ownership of the assets has been previously transferred in an arm's-length transaction nor to the first arm's-length acquisition that occurs after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medical care program prior to January 1, 1980. The new depreciation base for such acquisitions shall not exceed the fair market value of the assets as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. This subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving (a) of this subsection to apply alone to such transfers: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall apply to transfers of ownership of assets occurring prior to January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under medicare cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis or as a related-party lease.

(c) Where depreciable assets are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base shall not exceed the base the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.
(d) Where the depreciable asset is a donation or distribution between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of (i) fair market value, less salvage value, or (ii) the deprecia-cation base the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of the changes in the state reimbursement system for nursing homes. RCW 74.46.840, resulting from requirements of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984. (DEFRA) (P.L. 98-369). The study shall include analysis of the effects of these changes on: (1) Nursing home sales since July 18, 1984, the effective date of DEFRA; (2) capital formation for nursing home purchases and sales; and (3) leased nursing homes. The study shall also review adjustments other states may be making as a result of DEFRA. The legislative budget committee shall report the results of this study, including recommendations for any needed legislation, to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1986.

Sec. 3. Section 41, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 17, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Costs will be unallowable if they are not documented, necessary, ordinary, and related to the provision of care services to authorized patients.

(2) Unallowable costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Costs of items or services not covered by the medical care program. Costs of such items or services will be unallowable even if they are indirectly reimbursed by the department as the result of an authorized reduction in patient contribution;

(b) Costs of services and items provided to recipients which are covered by the department's medical care program but not included in care services established by the department under this chapter;

(c) Costs associated with a capital expenditure subject to section 11.22 approval (part 100, Title 42 C.F.R.) if the department found it was not consistent with applicable standards, criteria, or plans. If the department was not given timely notice of a proposed capital expenditure, all associated costs will be unallowable up to the date they are determined to be reimbursable under applicable federal regulations;

(d) Costs associated with a construction or acquisition project requiring certificate of need approval pursuant to chapter 70.38 RCW if such approval was not obtained;

Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

((18)) (18) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

((19)) (19) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((20)) (20) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

(21) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

(22) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

((23)) (23) "Sex offense" means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

((24)) (24) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

((25)) (25) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

((26)) (26) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, Indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection ((26)(a)) of this section: and
(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection (((9))) (26) (a) or (b) of this section.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.

(2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:

(a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;

(b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and

(c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.

(3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.

(4) In devising the standard sentence ranges of total and partial confinement under this section, the commission is subject to the following limitations:

(a) If the maximum term in the range is one year or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than one-third of the maximum term in the range, except that if the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term may be less than one-third of the maximum:

(b) If the maximum term in the range is greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) The maximum term of confinement in a range may not exceed the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(5) In carrying out its duties under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall give consideration to the existing guidelines adopted by the association of superior court judges and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys and the experience gained through use of those guidelines. The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

(7) (By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. If the commission has prepared an additional list of standard sentence ranges, as provided under subsection (5) of this section, then the commission shall include such list along with its recommendations.

(6) Every two years:) The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

(8) The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

(8) The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At its regular session convening in 1983, the legislature shall enact laws approving or modifying either the standards recommended by the commission, or the additional list of standard sentence ranges consistent with prison capacity in the event an additional list has been submitted pursuant to RCW 9.94A.040(6). The standards so adopted shall take effect on July 1, 1984:

(2) Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years ((and shall become effective as provided under subsection (1) of this section on July first of the year in which they are submitted)).

Sec. 20. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.
(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) and (5) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender (other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020) the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may require that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; or
(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(f) Pay a fine, and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(i) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

(ii) Make a restitution to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.
If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision. The court may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW (9A.20.020).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 21. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Note: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years (y) and months (m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

(a) 24 months ((0)) for Rape I (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery I (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping I ((0)) (RCW 9A.40.020)
(b) 18 months ((0)) for Burglary I ((0)) (RCW 9A.52.020)
(c) 12 months ((0)) for Assault 2 (RCW 9A.36.020), Escape 1 (RCW 9A.76.110), Kidnapping 2 (RCW 9A.40.030), Burglary 2 of a building other than a dwelling (RCW 9A.52.030), (Delivery or Possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver)) or any drug offense

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209. Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules (are), partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, as follows:

The offender score is (computed in the following way): the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (14) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 21 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnapping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for each prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories. Two points for each prior adult and juvenile conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (9) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for (Vehicular Homicide—only) a felony traffic offense count (the following crimes as part of the offender score): two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide (Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit-And-Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)); Hit-And-Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)); Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502); Actual Physical-Control (RCW 46.61.500); Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500); Attempting to Elude-a-Police Officer (RCW 46.61.506); Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic offense or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile nonviolent traffic offense or serious traffic conviction.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1. RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough. RCW 72.66.060, and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.
If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ((9)) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)); and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.

If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.

For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used:

Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment). If any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.390 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment). If any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions:

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections ((1)) through ((12)) of this section:

Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, Table 1). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ((may)) rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ((amend)) or admitted ((to or)), acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgment includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ((real)) facts shall be deemed ((proven)) proved at the ((evidentiary)) hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ((Real)) Facts that establish the elements of ((a higher crime)) a more serious crime((c))) or additional crimes ((cannot)) may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) and (d)

Sec. 27. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence((c)): The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

((9))) (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provocateur of the incident.

((9))) (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

((9))) (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

((9))) (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.
The defendant’s capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

(a) The defendant’s conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by the court on the basis of any of the following factors:

(i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

(iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

(d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify (an) a current offense as a major VUCSA:

(i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

(ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

(iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for sale by other parties; or

(iv) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the current offense; or

(v) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(vi) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(vii) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

(viii) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences."

Sec. 28. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ((convicted of)) to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ((criminal history: All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct)) if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime ((in determining criminal history)). Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender’s ((prior convictions or)) criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using ((criminal history)) an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any ((remaining)) offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.
(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run (consecutively) concurrently with any felony (sentences previously) sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court((subsequent)) subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the (subsequent) current sentence expressly orders that they be served (concurrently) consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed. (this) that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 29. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.
Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;
(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;
(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((14)) below for the crimes within these categories.

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge
(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:
   (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
   (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.
(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:
   (a) Charging a higher degree;
   (b) Charging additional counts.
This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.
GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:
Police Investigation
A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:
(1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
(2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.
If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.
Exceptions
In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:
(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, MARCH 10, 1986 1527

(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

1. Polygraph testing;
2. Hypnosis;
3. Electronic surveillance;
4. Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 31. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

1. A person over thirteen years of age is guilty of statutory rape in the first degree when the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person who is less than eleven years old.

2. Statutory rape in the first degree is a class A felony. No person convicted of statutory rape in the first degree shall be granted a deferred or suspended sentence except (for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility) under RCW 9.94A.120(7).

Sec. 32. Section 9A.56.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Every person who, (without lawful authority and) with intent to sell or exchange and to deprive or defraud the lawful owner thereof, willfully takes, leads, or transports away, conceals, withholds, slaughters, or otherwise appropriates ((to his own use)) any horse, mule, cow, heifer, bull, steer, swine, or sheep ((shall be)) guilty of theft of livestock in the first degree.

2. A person who commits what would otherwise be theft of livestock in the first degree but without intent to sell or exchange, and for the person's own use only, is guilty of theft of livestock in the second degree.

3. Theft of livestock in the first degree is a class B felony.

4. Theft of livestock in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 33. Section 9. chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

1. This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

2. The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

3. All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

5. Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

7. The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

8. Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.
Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim’s family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.
(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 34. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

(1) Section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.300; and
(2) Section 8, chapter 443, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.122.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The sentencing guidelines commission shall consider methods of increasing sentence ranges for offenders who commit a series of physical or sexual abuse offenses. DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Barr be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Sections 1 through 6 of this act may be known and cited as the Colville Indian reservation criminal jurisdiction retrocession act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize a procedure for the retrocession, to the Colville Confederated Tribes of Washington and the United States, of criminal jurisdiction over Indians for acts occurring on tribal lands or allotted lands within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States.

Sections 1 through 6 of this act in no way expand the Colville tribe's criminal or civil jurisdiction. If any, over non-Indians or fee title property. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall have no effect whatsoever on water rights, hunting and fishing rights, the established pattern of civil jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the established pattern of regulatory jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, taxation, or any other matter not specifically included within the terms of sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout sections 1 through 6 of this act:

1. "Colville reservation," or "Colville Indian reservation," means all tribal lands or allotted lands lying within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States, but does not include those lands which lie north of the present reservation which were included in original reservation boundaries created in 1872 and which are referred to as the "diminished reservation."

2. "Indian tribe." "tribe." or "Colville tribes" means the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation.

3. "Tribal court" means the trial and appellate courts of the Colville tribes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the governor receives from the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation a resolution expressing their desire for the retrocession by the state of all or any measure of the criminal jurisdiction acquired by the state pursuant to section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1963 over lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the governor may, within ninety days, issue a proclamation retroceding to the United States the criminal jurisdiction previously acquired by the state over such reservation. However, the state of Washington shall retain jurisdiction as provided in RCW 37.12.010. The proclamation of retrocession shall not become effective until it is accepted by an officer of the United States government in accordance with 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1323 (82 Stat. 78, 79) and in accordance with procedures established by the United States for acceptance of such retrocession of jurisdiction. The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The confederated tribes of the Colville reservation may express their desire under section 4 of this act only by a resolution approved by a majority vote of the enrolled adult members of the tribes voting at the next general tribal election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An action or proceeding which has been filed with any court or agency of the state or local government preceding the effective date of retrocession of jurisdiction under sections 1 through 6 of this act shall not abate by reason of the retrocession or determination of jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 37.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, what does it do?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it does what we talked about before, which is retrosession over criminal jurisdictional responsibility on the reservation. It makes clear that the tribe does not have jurisdiction over non-Indians and provides that there will be a vote of the tribal members on the reservation with respect to the issue of retrosession before the Governor can make such a request to the federal government."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Bolliger: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. It's very rare that this award is ever given in the Senate. It's usually in the House. None of you, since it's rather recent, probably have ever seen it before, but Senator Johnson has been awarded the Pierce County Bull Ring Award for his services in the Senate. Senator, for your information, out on the farm when we have a new bull call, we put a ring in his nose and then we see how well he follows, how many times we have to jerk him. Pretty soon he just follows and all you have to do is like this. Now, there's a penalty if he doesn't follow right. Senator, you're the first Senator ever to receive this award."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry, does the twenty-four hours start at the time the Senate grants the powers of Free Conference?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The twenty-four hours start at the time the report is on the desk."

Senator Rasmussen: "If I could pursue this further, Mr. President. Until we have granted the powers of Free Conference, they really can't write Free Conference Reports and that's what my concern is. Though we have a definite time—if we granted the powers of Free Conference, let us say today at 9:45, from then it would be twenty-four hours then before we could act on the bill."

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the report goes on the desk before the powers of Free Conference are granted."

Senator Rasmussen: "Very unusual."

President Cherberg: "That is the interpretation, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:
We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 1795, requiring additional information in child support orders, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. CIVIL PRACTICE TO GOVERN—DESIGNATION OF PROCEEDINGS—DECREES. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the practice in civil action shall govern all proceedings under this chapter, except that trial by jury is dispensed with.

(2) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall be entitled "In re the marriage of __________ and __________."

Such proceeding may be filed in the superior court of the county where the petitioner resides.

(3) In cases where there has been no prior proceeding in this state involving the marital status of the parties or custody or support obligations, a separate custody or support proceeding shall be entitled "In re the (custody) (support) of _____________."

(4) The initial pleading in all proceedings for dissolution of marriage under this chapter shall be denominated a petition. A responsive pleading shall be denominated a response. Other pleadings, and all pleadings in other matters under this chapter shall be denominated as provided in the civil rules for superior court.

(5) In this chapter, "decree" includes "judgment".

(6) A decree of dissolution, of legal separation, or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall not be awarded to one of the parties, but shall provide that it affects the status previously existing between the parties in the manner decreed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. POLICY. Parents have the responsibility to make decisions and perform other parental functions necessary for the care and growth of their minor children. In any proceeding between parties under chapter 26.09 RCW, the best interests of the child shall be the standard by which the court determines whether, and to what extent, the parties' parental responsibilities should be enforced or their authority to care for the child restricted. The state recognizes the fundamental importance of the parent–child relationship to the welfare of the child, and that the relationship between the child and each parent should be fostered unless inappropriate under the provisions of this chapter. It is recognized that the best interests of the child are served by a parenting arrangement that best maintains a child's emotional growth, health and stability, and physical care. It is recognized that the best interest of the child is ordinarily served when the existing pattern of interaction between a parent and child is altered only to the extent necessitated by the changed relationship of the parents or as required to protect the child from physical, mental, or emotional harm.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. PETITION IN PROCEEDING FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE, LEGAL SEPARATION, OR FOR A DECLARATION CONCERNING VALIDITY OF MARRIAGE—CONTENTS—PARTIES—CERTIFICATE. (1) A petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or for a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, shall allege the following:

(a) The last known residence of each party;

(b) The date and place of the marriage;

(c) If the parties are separated the date on which the separation occurred;

(d) The names, ages, and addresses of any child dependent upon either or both spouses and whether the wife is pregnant;

(e) Any arrangements as to the parenting plan for the children and the maintenance of a spouse;

(f) A statement specifying whether there is community or separate property owned by the parties to be disposed of;

(g) The relief sought.

(2) Either or both parties to the marriage may initiate the proceeding.

(3) The petitioner shall complete and file with the petition a certificate under RCW 70.58.200 on the form provided by the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE—COURT PROCEEDINGS—FINDINGS—TRANSFER TO FAMILY COURT—LEGAL SEPARATION IN LIEU OF DISSOLUTION. When a party who is a resident of this state or who is a member of the armed forces and is stationed in this state, petitions for a dissolution of marriage, and alleges that the marriage is irretrievably broken and when ninety days have elapsed since the petition was filed and from the date when service of summons was made upon the respondent or the first publication of summons was made, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1) If the other party joins in the petition or does not deny that the marriage is irretrievably broken, the court shall enter a decree of dissolution.

(2) If the other party alleges that the petitioner was induced to file the petition by fraud, or coercion, the court shall make a finding as to that allegation and, if it so finds shall dismiss the petition.
(3) If the other party denies that the marriage is irretrievably broken the court shall con­sider all relevant factors, including the circumstances that gave rise to the filing of the petition and the prospects for reconciliation and shall:

(a) Make a finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken and enter a decree of disso­lution of the marriage; or

(b) At the request of either party or on its own motion, transfer the cause to the family court, refer them to another counseling service of their choice, and request a report back from the counseling service within sixty days, or continue the matter for not more than sixty days for hearing. If the cause is returned from the family court or at the adjourned hearing, the court shall:

(i) Find that the parties have agreed to reconciliation and dismiss the petition; or

(ii) Find that the parties have not been reconciled, and that either party continues to allege that the marriage is irretrievably broken. When such facts are found, the court shall enter a decree of dissolution of the marriage.

(4) If the petitioner requests the court to decree legal separation in lieu of dissolution, the court shall enter the decree in that form unless the other party objects and petitions for a decree of dissolution or declaration of invalidity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. PETITION TO HAVE MARRIAGE DECLARED INVALID OR JUDICIAL DETERMINATION OF VALIDITY--PROCEDURE--FINDINGS--GROUNDS--LEGITTMACY OF CHILDREN. (I) While both parties to an alleged marriage are living, and at least one party is resident in this state or a member of the armed service and stationed in the state, a petition to have the marriage declared invalid may be sought by:

(a) Either or both parties, or the guardian of an incompetent spouse, for any cause speci­fied in subsection (4) of this section; or

(b) Either or both parties, the legal spouse, or a child of either party when it is alleged that the marriage is bigamous.

(2) If the validity of a marriage is denied or questioned at any time, either or both parties to the marriage may petition the court for a judicial determination of the validity of such marriage.

(3) In a proceeding to declare the invalidity of a marriage, the court shall proceed in the manner and shall have the jurisdiction, including the authority to provide for maintenance, a parenting plan for minor children, and division of the property of the parties, provided by this chapter.

(4) After hearing the evidence concerning the validity of a marriage, if both parties to the alleged marriage are still living, the court:

(a) If it finds the marriage to be valid, shall enter a decree of validity;

(b) If it finds that:

(i) The marriage should not have been contracted because of age of one or both of the parties, lack of required parental or court approval, a prior undissolved marriage of one or both of the parties, reasons of consanguinity, or because a party lacked capacity to consent to the marriage, either because of mental incapacity or because of the influence of alcohol or other incapacitating substances, or because a party was induced to enter into the marriage by force or duress, or by fraud involving the essentials of marriage, and that the parties have not ratified their marriage by voluntarily cohabiting after attaining the age of consent, or after attaining capacity to consent, or after cessation of the force or duress or discovery of the fraud, shall declare the marriage invalid as of the date it was purportedly contracted;

(ii) The marriage should not have been contracted because of any reason other than those above, shall upon motion of a party, order any action which may be appropriate to complete or to correct the record and enter a decree declaring such marriage to be valid for all pur­poses from the date upon which it was purportedly contracted;

(c) If it finds that a marriage contracted in a jurisdiction other than this state, was void or voidable under the law of the place where the marriage was contracted, and in the absence of proof that such marriage was subsequently validated by the laws of the place of contract or of a subsequent domicile of the parties, shall declare the marriage invalid as of the date of the marriage.

(5) Any child of the parties born or conceived during the existence of a marriage of record is legitimate and remains legitimate notwithstanding the entry of a declaration of invalidity of the marriage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. DEFINITIONS. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Temporary parenting plan" means a plan for parenting of the child pending final res­olution of any action for dissolution of marriage, declaration of invalidity, or legal separation, based on the criteria set forth in section 8 of this act.

(2) "Permanent parenting plan" means a plan for parenting the child, based on the criteria set forth in sections 17 and 18 of this act, to be incorporated in the final order in any action for dissolution of marriage, declaration of invalidity, or legal separation.
(3) “Residential parent” means the parent whose home is designated as the child’s resi­dence, based on the criteria set forth in sections 17 and 18 of this act. The residential parent is the child’s custodian for any purpose requiring such a designation.

(4) “Child’s residence” means the home of the parent designated in the parenting plan as the residential parent, based on the criteria set forth in sections 17 and 18 of this act.

(5) “Parenting functions” means those aspects of the parent–child relationship in which the parent makes decisions and performs functions necessary for the care and growth of the child. Parenting functions include:

(a) Maintaining a loving, stable, consistent, and nurturing relationship with the child;
(b) Attending to the daily needs of the child, such as feeding, clothing, physical care and grooming, supervision, health care, and day care, and engaging in other activities which are appropriate to the developmental level of the child and that are within the social and eco­nomic circumstances of the particular family;
(c) Attending to adequate education for the child, including remedial or other education essential to the best interests of the child;
(d) Assisting the child in developing and maintaining appropriate interpersonal relationships; and
(e) Exercising appropriate judgment regarding the child’s welfare, consistent with the child’s developmental level and the family’s social and economic circumstances.

(6) “Primary caregiver” means the parent who has taken primary responsibility for per­formance of the majority of the parenting functions as defined in subsection (5)(b) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. PROPOSED TEMPORARY PARENTING PLAN. (1) On commencement of a proceeding under this chapter, the petitioner shall file a proposed temporary parenting plan, or the parents jointly, if filing jointly, shall file a proposed temporary plan.

(2) The respondent, if not joining in the petition, shall file a responsive proposed temporary parenting plan no later than twenty days after service of the petitioner’s proposed temporary parenting plan. If no responsive plan is filed in accordance with this subsection, the petitioner may move to have the petitioner’s proposed temporary parenting plan entered as an order of the court. The parents may enter an agreed temporary parenting plan at any time within thirty-five days after service of the petitioner’s proposed temporary parenting plan, unless a continuance is granted by the court upon stipulation of the parents or for necessary adminis­trative convenience of the court.

(3) If the respondent files a responsive proposed temporary parenting plan in accordance with subsection (2) of this section, and no agreed temporary parenting plan is entered within thirty-five days after service of the petitioner’s proposed plan, a hearing shall be held on the proposed plans not later than thirty-five days after service of the petitioner’s proposed temporary parenting plan, unless a continuance is granted by the court upon stipulation of the parties or for necessary administrative convenience of the court. The motion containing the proposed temporary parenting plan may be supported by relevant evidence and shall be accompanied by an affidavit which shall state at a minimum the following:

(a) The name, address, and length of residence with the person or persons with whom the child has lived for the preceding twelve months;
(b) The parent, if any, who has been the primary caregiver for the child as defined in section 6 of this act;
(c) The parents’ work and child-care schedules for the preceding twelve months;
(d) The parents’ present current work and child-care schedules;
(e) Any anticipated changes in the parents’ present work schedule, child care schedules, or residence which would result in a move outside the jurisdiction of the court while the case is pending; and
(f) Any of the circumstances set forth in section 18 of this act that are likely to pose a serious risk to the child and that warrant limitation on the award to a parent of temporary residence or time with the child pending entry of a permanent parenting plan.

(4) At the hearing, the court shall enter a temporary parenting plan that includes:

(a) A schedule for the child’s time with the nonresidential parent where and as appropri­ate, during which the nonresidential parent may make decisions regarding the child’s day-to­day care;
(b) Designation of a temporary residence for the child in accordance with section 8 of this act. The parent whose home is so designated may make all decisions regarding the child’s care other than those specified in (a) of this subsection, pending final resolution of the matter;
(c) Provisions for temporary support for the child in accordance with section 19 of this act; and
(d) Restraining orders, if applicable, under section 9(2) of this act.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this section, a parent may make a motion for an order to show cause and the court may enter a temporary order, including a temporary parenting plan, upon showing of necessity.
A parent may move for amendment of a temporary parenting plan, and the court may order amendment to the temporary parenting plan, if the amendment conforms to the limitations of section 18 of this act and is in the best interest of the child. If the court finds that the moving party brought the motion in bad faith, the court may award attorneys' fees and court costs of the nonmoving party.

If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed, any temporary parenting plan is vacated unless a parent or the child's custodian moves that the proceeding continue as a custody proceeding and the court finds, after a hearing, that the circumstances of the parents and the best interests of the child require that a permanent parenting plan be issued.

If a custody proceeding commenced in the absence of a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, (section 32(1) of this act) is dismissed, any temporary order is vacated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. CRITERIA IN ISSUANCE OF TEMPORARY PARENTING PLAN. (1) After considering the affidavit required by section 7(3) of this act and other relevant evidence presented, the court shall make a temporary parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child. It is presumed that the child's best interest is served by a temporary parenting plan that best maintains the child's emotional stability in the period pending entry of a final parenting plan. If it is further presumed that, absent a showing that any of the limitations in section 18 of this act apply, the child's emotional stability is best fostered by maintaining the pattern of care established over the preceding twelve months.

(2) If one parent has been the primary caregiver during the preceding twelve months, that parent's home shall be designated as the child's temporary residence, unless:
   (a) Any of the limiting factors in section 18 of this act apply;
   (b) The parties have made a voluntary, knowing agreement to the contrary, which the court finds to be in the child's best interest;
   (c) The child's developmental level is sufficiently advanced for the child to decide, and the child desires to reside with the other parent; or
   (d) This designation is not in the best interests of the child.

(3) If neither parent has been the primary caregiver during the preceding twelve months, the court shall designate the child's residence in accordance with the standards set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) In allocating time and activities between the parents with the child, unless limited or precluded by section 18 of this act, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to:
   (a) Agreement of the parents;
   (b) The child's established social or educational activities, if any;
   (c) The child's age and developmental level;
   (d) The parents' geographic proximity to one another;
   (e) The child's desires, where the child's developmental level is sufficiently advanced; and
   (f) The child's need for frequent and continuing contact with each of the parents.

Each parent's relationship with his or her child is of fundamental importance to the welfare of the child. The relationship and interaction between a parent and child should be altered only to the extent necessitated by the changed relationship of the parents or as required to protect the best interests of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. TEMPORARY MAINTENANCE OR CHILD SUPPORT—TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER—PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION—SUPPORT DEBTS. NOTICE. (1) In a proceeding for:
   (a) Dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration of invalidity; or
   (b) Disposition of property or liabilities, maintenance, or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse; either party may move for temporary maintenance or for temporary support of children entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:
   (a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring the person to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;
   (b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in the party's immediate possession or control or subject to the party’s immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding, or to the restrained or enjoined party’s counsel, or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons for a period not to exceed thirty days without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed:

(c) Entering the party’s home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;
(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.
(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) Restraining orders issued under this section restraining the person from molesting or disturbing another party or from entering a party’s home shall bear the legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.09 RCW AND WILL SUBJECT A VIOLATOR TO ARREST.

(6) The court may order that any temporary restraining order granted under this section be forwarded by the clerk of the court on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in the state.

(7) A temporary order, temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction:
(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;
(b) May be revoked or modified;
(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed;
(d) May be entered in a proceeding for the modification of an existing decree.

(8) A support debt owed to the state for public assistance expenditures which has been charged against a party pursuant to RCW 74.20A.040 and/or 74.20A.055 shall not be merged in, or otherwise extinguished by, the final decree or order, unless the office of support enforcement has been given notice of the final proceeding and an opportunity to present its claim for the support debt to the court and has failed to file an affidavit as provided in this subsection. Notice of the proceeding shall be served upon the office of support enforcement personally, or by certified mail, and shall be given no fewer than thirty days prior to the date of the final proceeding. An original copy of the notice shall be filed with the court, and by mailing a copy of the affidavit to the parties or their attorney prior to the date of the final proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. PARENTING ARRANGEMENT—INTERVIEW WITH CHILD BY COURT.—ADVICE OF PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL. The court may interview the child in chambers to ascertain the child’s wishes: (1) As to the child’s custodian and as to visitation privileges pursuant to a proceeding under section 32 of this act: or (2) as to the child’s residence in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity. The court may permit counsel to be present at the interview. The court shall cause a record of the interview to be made and to be made part of the record in the case.

The court may seek the advice of professional personnel whether or not they are employed on a regular basis by the court. The advice given shall be in writing and shall be made available by the court to counsel upon request. Counsel may call for cross-examination any professional personnel consulted by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. PARENTING ARRANGEMENTS—INVESTIGATION AND REPORT. (1) In contested proceedings under this chapter involving minor children of the parties, and in other proceedings under this chapter if a party so requests, the court may order an investigation and report concerning parenting arrangements for the child in an action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity or concerning custodial arrangements for the child in a custody proceeding pursuant to section 32 of this act. The investigation and report may be made by the staff of the juvenile court or other professional social service organization experienced in counseling children and families.

(2) In preparing the report concerning a child, the investigator may consult any person who may have information about the child and the potential parenting or custodial arrangements. Upon order of the court, the investigator may refer the child to professional personnel for...

section, and the names and addresses of all persons whom the investigator has consulted. Any party to the proceeding may call the investigator and any person whom the investigator has consulted for cross-examination. A party may not waive the right of cross-examination prior to the hearing.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY AND LIABILITIES—FACTORS. In a proceeding for dissolution of the marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court shall, without regard to marital misconduct, make such disposition of the property and the liabilities of the parties, either community or separate, as shall appear just and equitable after considering all relevant factors including, but not limited to:
(1) The nature and extent of the community property;
(2) The nature and extent of the separate property;
(3) The duration of the marriage; and
(4) The economic circumstances of each spouse at the time the division of property is to become effective, including the desirability of awarding the family home or the right to live therein for reasonable periods to the parent whose residence is designated as the child's residence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. MAINTENANCE ORDERS FOR EITHER SPOUSE—FACTORS. (l) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, or in a proceeding for maintenance following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, the court may grant a maintenance order for either spouse. The maintenance order shall be in such amounts and for such periods of time as the court deems just, without regard to marital misconduct, after considering all relevant factors including but not limited to:

(a) The financial resources of the party seeking maintenance, including separate or community property apportioned to him, and his ability to meet his needs independently, including the extent to which a provision for support of a child living with the party includes a sum for that party as the residential parent;
(b) The time necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party seeking maintenance to find employment appropriate to his skill, interests, style of life, and other attendant circumstances;
(c) The standard of living established during the marriage;
(d) The duration of the marriage;
(e) The age, physical and emotional condition, and financial obligations of the spouse seeking maintenance; and
(f) The ability of the spouse from whom maintenance is sought to meet his needs and financial obligations while meeting those of the spouse seeking maintenance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Procedure for determining permanent parenting plan. (l) Submission of proposed plans. Each parent shall file and serve a proposed permanent parenting plan, as described in section 19 of this act, on the other parent. Service shall be made not earlier than the date of entry of the temporary parenting plan, and not later than one hundred eighty days after the service of the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity.

If a parent fails to file and serve a proposed permanent parenting plan within the allotted time, the other parent, upon motion to the court, may have his or her proposed permanent parenting plan entered as an order of the court and incorporated in the final decree of dissolution. If neither parent files the proposed permanent parenting plan within the required time, the clerk of the court may move to have the case dismissed for lack of prosecution as required by this section.

(3) Agreed permanent parenting plans. The parents may make an agreed permanent parenting plan, as described in sections 16 and 17 of this act. The court shall incorporate the agreed permanent parenting plan in the decree or order entered unless it finds that the agreed plan was not made in accordance with sections 16 and 17 of this act or finds that the plan is not in the child's best interests.

(4) Mandatory settlement conference. As soon as practicable after the service of the proposed permanent parenting plans, the parents shall attend a mandatory settlement conference. The mandatory settlement conference shall be presided over by a judge or court commissioner, who shall apply the criteria in sections 17 and 18 of this act. The parents shall in good faith review the proposed terms of the parenting plans and any other issues relevant to the cause of action with the presiding judge or court commissioner. Facts and legal issues that are not then in dispute shall be entered as stipulations for purposes of final hearing or trial in the matter. Any parent failing to participate in good faith may be held in contempt of court.

(5) Trial setting. Trial dates for actions brought under this chapter shall be set as soon as practicable after the mandatory settlement conference. The final order or decree shall be entered not sooner than ninety days after filing and service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN. In an action for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity of a marriage, the court shall make or approve as part of any final decree a permanent parenting plan for each child. A permanent parenting plan shall consist of the following:

(l) Permanent parenting plans shall state whether or not the parents will engage in mutual decision making in designated areas in accordance with the criteria in section 17 of this act. If mutual decision making is not ordered, the court shall designate the reason, in accordance with the criteria in section 17 of this act.
(2) If mutual decision making is not precluded by subsection (l) of this section, then the parents or the court shall designate specific areas for mutual decision making. These areas may include, but need not be limited to, religion, nonemergency medical and dental care, education, and extracurricular activities of the child.
(3) The plan shall state that, in areas not designated for mutual decision making, the residential parent has the authority to make any necessary decisions. The plan shall state that the nonresidential parent has the authority to make decisions regarding the child's day-to-day care while the child is residing in that parent's household.
(4) A dispute resolution process. A process for resolving disputes, other than court action, shall be provided unless precluded or limited by section 17 or 18 of this act. A dispute resolution process may include counseling, mediation, or arbitration by a specified individual or agency, or court action. In setting forth a dispute resolution process, the permanent parenting plan shall state that:

(a) Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan;
(b) The parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan and to make decisions in areas specified for mutual decision making prior to seeking court action, unless an emergency exists; and
(c) If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court shall award attorneys' fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

(5) Designation of the child's residence. The permanent parenting plan shall designate a child's residence in accordance with the criteria in sections 17 and 18 of this act.

(6) Time and activities with the parents. The permanent parenting plan shall specify time and activities for the child with each of the parents, unless precluded or limited by section 18 of this act. In allocating between the parents' time and activities with the child, unless limited or precluded by section 18 of this act, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to:

(a) Agreement of the parents;
(b) The child's established social or educational activities, if any;
(c) The child's age and developmental level;
(d) The parents' geographic proximity to one another;
(e) The child's desires, where the child's developmental level is sufficiently advanced; and
(f) The child's need for frequent and continuing contact with each of the parents.

Each parent's relationship with his or her child is of fundamental importance to the welfare of the child. The relationship and interaction between a parent and child should be altered only to the extent necessitated by the changed relationship of the parents or as required to protect the best interests of the child.

(7) Child support. Provisions shall be made for child support in accordance with section 19 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. CRITERIA FOR ESTABLISHING PARENTING PLAN. (1) Mutual decision making. The court shall not order mutual decision making if one of the following circumstances exists:

(a) Any limitation under section 18 applies;
(b) Both parents are opposed to mutual decision making;
(c) One parent is opposed to mutual decision making, where such opposition is reasonable.

(2) If mutual decision making has not been precluded by one of the circumstances in subsection (1) of this section, then, in specifying areas appropriate for mutual decision making, the parents or the court shall consider all relevant factors. Including:

(a) The parents' wishes or agreements and, if the parents have entered into agreements, whether the agreements were made knowingly and voluntarily;
(b) The history of participation of either parent in decision making in any given area;
(c) The demonstrated ability of the parents to cooperate with one another in mutual decision making; and
(d) The unavailability of the parents to each other, especially by lack of geographic proximity, to the extent that it affects their ability to make timely mutual decisions.

(3) Dispute resolution process. The court shall not order a dispute resolution process, except court action, unless the parents have agreed on that process. The court shall not order a dispute resolution process, except court action, despite the agreement of the parents if any precluding or limiting factor under section 18 of this act applies or if either parent is unable to afford the cost of the particular dispute resolution process. If a dispute resolution process is not precluded or limited, then in designating such a process the court shall consider all relevant factors, including:

(a) Differences between the parents that would substantially inhibit their effective participation in any designated process;
(b) The parents' wishes or agreements and, if the parents have entered into agreements, whether the agreements were made knowingly and voluntarily; and
(c) Differences in the parents' financial circumstances that may affect their ability to participate fully in a given dispute resolution process.

(4) Child's residence. In designating the child's residence, the court shall consider the following factors:

(a) The parents' wishes or agreements and, if the parents have entered into agreements, whether the agreements were made knowingly and voluntarily;
(b) Whether any of the limitations in section 18 of this act apply;
(c) The relative strength and nature of the child's relationship with each parent;
(d) Each parent's past and potential for future performance of the parenting functions;
(e) The developmental needs and level of the child; and
(f) The child’s relationship with siblings and with other significant adults, as well as the child’s involvement with his or her physical surroundings, school, and other significant activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. LIMITATIONS IN ISSUANCE OF TEMPORARY OR PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN PROVISIONS. (1) A parent’s home shall not be designated as the child’s temporary or permanent residence, and the permanent parenting plan shall not require mutual decision making or designation of a dispute resolution process other than court action, on a showing that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct:
   (a) Wilful abandonment or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions unless so remote that the court finds it is not adverse to the best interest of the child;
   (b) Physical or sexual abuse of a child; or
   (c) History of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1).

(2) A parent’s time with the child shall be limited by the court as appropriate on a showing that any of the factors in subsection (1) of this section are present.

(3) A parent’s involvement or conduct may have an adverse effect on the child’s best interests, and the court may preclude or limit any or all provisions of the parenting plan, if any of the following factors exist:
   (a) Neglect or substantial nonperformance of parenting functions;
   (b) A long-term emotional or physical impairment which interferes with the parent’s performance of parenting functions as defined in section 6 of this act;
   (c) A long-term impairment resulting from drug, alcohol, or other substance abuse which interferes with the performance of parenting functions;
   (d) The absence or substantial impairment of emotional ties between the parent and the child;
   (e) The abusive use of conflict which creates the danger of serious damage to the child’s psychological development;
   (f) A parent has withheld access to the child from the other party with the intent to intimidate or harass the other parent, or to deprive the other parent of access to the child permanently or for a protracted period without good cause; or
   (g) Such other factors or conduct as the court finds adverse to the best interest of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. CHILD SUPPORT. (1) In entering a decree of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, the court shall consider, approve, or make provision for a parenting plan under section 16 of this act and make provision for the support of any child of the marriage entitled to support, the maintenance of either spouse, and the disposition of property and liabilities of the parties.

(2) In a proceeding under this chapter after considering all relevant factors but without regard to marital misconduct, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to any child of the marriage dependent upon either or both spouses to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for his support. When setting a child support award, the court shall consult the child support guidelines then in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. CHILD SUPPORT—HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE—CONDITIONS. In entering or modifying a support order under this chapter, the court shall require either or both parents to maintain or provide health insurance coverage for any dependent child if the following conditions are met:
   (1) Health insurance that can be extended to cover the child is available to that parent through an employer or other organization; and
   (2) The employer or other organization offering health insurance will contribute all or a part of the premium for coverage of the child.

A parent who is required to extend insurance coverage to a child under this section is liable for any covered health care costs for which the parent receives direct payment from an insurer.

This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the court to enter or modify support orders containing provisions for payment of medical expenses, medical costs, or insurance premiums which are in addition to and not inconsistent with this section. “Health insurance” as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. MINOR OR DEPENDENT CHILD—COURT APPOINTED ATTORNEY TO REPRESENT—PAYMENT OF COSTS, FEES, AND DISBURSEMENTS. The court may appoint an attorney to represent the interests of a minor or dependent child with respect to provision for the parenting plan in an action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, or with respect to the child’s custody, support, and visitations in custody actions pursuant to section 32 of this act. The court shall enter an order for costs, fees, and disbursements in favor of the child’s attorney. The order shall be made against either or both parents, except that, if both parties are indigent, the costs, fees, and disbursements shall be borne by the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. SUPPORT OR MAINTENANCE PAYMENTS—TO WHOM PAID. (1) The court may, upon its own motion or upon motion of either party, order support or maintenance payments to be made to:
(a) The person entitled to receive the payments; or
(b) The department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A
RCW; or
(c) The clerk of court as trustee for remittance to the person entitled to receive the payments.

(2) If payments are made to the clerk of court:
(a) The clerk shall maintain records listing the amount of payments, the date when payments are required to be made, and the names and addresses of the parties affected by the order; and
(b) The parties affected by the order shall inform the clerk of the court of any change of address or of other conditions that may affect the administration of the order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. SUPPORT OR MAINTENANCE PAYMENTS—ORDER TO MAKE ASSIGNMENT OF PERIODIC EARNINGS OR TRUST INCOME—DUTY OF PAYOR TO WITHHOLD AND TRANSMIT. The court may order the person obligated to pay support or maintenance to make an assignment of a part of his periodic earnings or trust income to the person or agency entitled to receive the payments: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 7.33.280 in regard to exemptions in garnishment proceedings shall apply to such assignments. The assignment is binding on the employer, trustee or other payor of the funds two weeks after service upon him of notice that it has been made. The payor shall withhold from the earnings or trust income payable to the person obligated to support the amount specified in the assignment and shall transmit the payments to the person specified in the order. The payor may deduct from each payment a sum not exceeding one dollar as reimbursement for costs. An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary assignment authorized by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. ORDER OR DECREE FOR CHILD SUPPORT—NOTICE OF MANDA­ TOARY WAGE ASSIGNMENT—SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER. (1) Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall state:
(a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.18 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;
(b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;
(c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;
(d) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;
(e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and
(f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered.

(2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. PAYMENT OF COSTS, ATTORNEY'S FEES, ETC. The court from time to time after considering the financial resources of both parties may order a party to pay a reasonable amount for the cost to the other party of maintaining or defending any proceeding under this chapter and for reasonable attorney's fees or other professional fees in connection therewith, including sums for legal services rendered and costs incurred prior to the commencement of the proceeding or enforcement or modification proceedings after entry of judgment.

Upon any appeal, the appellate court may, in its discretion, order a party to pay for the cost to the other party of maintaining the appeal and attorney's fees in addition to statutory costs.

The court may order that the attorney's fees be paid directly to the attorney who may enforce the order in his name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. PROVISIONS FOR PARENTING PLAN—MAINTENANCE—DISPO­ SION OF PROPERTY AND LIABILITIES. In entering a decree of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, the court shall consider, approve, or make provision for a parenting plan for any child of the marriage entitled to support, the maintenance of either spouse, and the disposition of property and liabilities of the parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. DECREE OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE, LEGAL SEPARATION, OR DECLARATION OF INVALIDITY—FINALITY—APPEAL—CONVERSION OF DEGREE OF LEGAL SEPARATION TO DECREE OF DISSOLUTION—NAME OF WIFE. A decree of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is final when entered, subject to the right of appeal. An appeal which does not challenge the finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken or was invalid, does not delay the finality of the dissolution or declaration of invalidity and either party may remarry pending such an appeal.
No earlier than six months after entry of a decree of legal separation, on motion of either party, the court shall convert the decree of legal separation to a decree of dissolution of marriage. The clerk of court shall complete the certificate as provided for in RCW 70.58.200 on the form provided by the department of social and health services. On or before the tenth day of each month, the clerk of the court shall forward to the state registrar of vital statistics the certificate of each decree of divorce, dissolution of marriage, annulment, or separate maintenance granted during the preceding month.

Upon request by a wife whose marriage is dissolved or declared invalid, the court shall order the former name restored and may, on motion of either party, for just and reasonable cause, order the wife to assume a name other than that of the husband.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. SANCTIONS. The performance of parental functions and the duty to provide child support are distinct responsibilities in the care of a child. An attempt by a parent, in either the negotiation or the performance of a parenting plan, to condition one aspect of the parenting plan upon another may be deemed to be in bad faith. If the court finds that a parent acted in bad faith in an attempt to condition parental functions, in a refusal to perform the duties provided in the parenting plan, or in the hindrance of performance by the other parent, the court has broad discretion to punish the conduct by a punitive award or other remedies, including imprisonment, and may consider the conduct in awarding attorneys’ fees. In determining the amount of the punitive award or attorneys’ fees, the court may also consider evidence of hostile conduct by one parent that adversely affected the welfare of the child or interfered with the exercise of parenting functions by the other parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH DECREES OF TEMPORARY INJUNCTION. OBLIGATION TO MAKE SUPPORT OR MAINTENANCE PAYMENTS OR PERMIT VISITATION NOT SUSPENDED—MOTION. If a party fails to comply with a provision of a decree or temporary order of injunction, the obligation of the other party to make payments for support or maintenance or to permit visitation is not suspended, but the party may move the court to grant an appropriate order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. MODIFICATIONS. (1) Not earlier than six months and not later than twelve months from the date of entry of the final order or decree, either parent may seek, upon motion or by informal request, amendments in the provisions of the permanent parenting plan for mutual decision making or dispute resolution. The standard of substantially changed circumstances does not apply in the disposition of such a motion. Any changes made shall be based either on issues omitted in the original order or decree, or on experience showing that the arrangements contemplated in the order do not function in the practical manner in which they were envisioned.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the court shall not modify a prior custody decree or the designation of a residential parent in a parenting plan unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or plan or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior decree or plan, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or his custodian or the residential parent and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards, the court shall retain the custodian or residential parent established by the prior decree or parenting plan unless:

(a) The custodian or residential parent agrees to the modification;

(b) The child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the custodian or residential parent; or

(c) The child’s present environment is detrimental to his physical, mental, or emotional health and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child.

(3) If the court finds that a motion to modify a prior custody order or parenting plan has been brought in bad faith, the court shall assess the attorney’s fees and court costs of the custodian or residential parent against the petitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. MODIFICATION OF DECREE FOR MAINTENANCE OR SUPPORT—PROPERTY DISPOSITION—TERMINATION OF MAINTENANCE OBLIGATION AND CHILD SUPPORT—GROUNDS. Except as otherwise provided in section 12(7) of this act, the provisions of any decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified only as to installments accruing subsequent to the motion for modification and only upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances. The provisions as to property disposition may not be revoked or modified, unless the court finds the existence of conditions that justify the reopening of a judgment under the laws of this state.

Agreements to reduce or terminate a child support order shall be effective only if incorporated in a court order, and such court order shall operate prospectively only. Before entry of a support order, notice must be given to all parties with an interest in the support.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by emancipation of the child or by the death of the parent obligated to support the child.
NEW SECTION Sec. 32. CHILD CUSTODY PROCEEDING—COMMENCEMENT

NOTICE—INTERVENTION. (1) Except as authorized for proceedings brought under chapter 26.50 RCW in district or municipal courts, a child custody proceeding is commenced in the superior court:

(a) By a parent by filing a petition seeking custody of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where the child is found; or

(b) By a person other than a parent, by filing a petition seeking custody of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where he is found, but only if the child is not in the physical custody of one of its parents or if the petitioner alleges that neither parent is a suitable custodian.

(2) Notice of a child custody proceeding shall be given to the child's parent, guardian and custodian, who may appear and be heard and may file a responsive pleading. The court may, upon a showing of good cause, permit the intervention of other interested parties.

(3) Upon filing a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity involving children of the parties, no child custody proceeding involving those children may be commenced nor continued under this section after the effective date of this act. Pending actions under this section shall be merged with the action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity.

NEW SECTION Sec. 33. CHILD CUSTODY—RELEVANT FACTORS IN AWARDING CUSTODY.

In actions under section 32 of this act, the court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interests of the child. The court shall consider all relevant factors including:

(1) The wishes of the child's parent or parents as to his custody and as to visitation privileges;

(2) The wishes of the child as to his custodian and as to visitation privileges;

(3) The interaction and interpersonal relationship of the child with his parent or parents, his siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

(4) The child's adjustment to his home, school, and community; and

(5) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved.

The court shall not consider conduct of a proposed guardian that does not affect the welfare of the child.

NEW SECTION Sec. 34. CHILD CUSTODY—PRIORITY STATUS OF PROCEEDINGS—HEARING—RECORD—EXPENSES OF WITNESSES. Custody proceedings under section 32 of this act shall receive priority in being set for hearing.

Either party may petition the court to authorize the payment of necessary travel and other expenses incurred by any witness whose presence at the hearing the court deems necessary to determine the best interests of the child.

The court without a jury shall determine questions of law and fact. It finds that a public hearing may be detrimental to the child's best interests, the court may exclude the public from a custody hearing under section 32 of this act, but may admit any person who has a direct and legitimate interest in the work of the court.

If the court finds it necessary to protect the child's welfare that the record of any interview, report, investigation, or testimony in a custody proceeding under section 32 of this act be kept secret, the court may make an appropriate order sealing the record.

NEW SECTION Sec. 36. CHILD CUSTODY—POWERS AND DUTIES OF CUSTODIAN.

SUPERVISION BY APPROPRIATE AGENCY WHEN NECESSARY. Except as otherwise agreed by the parties in writing at the time of the custody decree in an action under section 32 of this act, the custodian may determine the child's upbringing, including his education, health care, and religious training, unless the court after hearing, finds, upon motion by the noncustodial parent, that in the absence of a specific limitation of the custodian's authority, the child's physical, mental, or emotional health would be endangered.

In an action under section 32 of this act, if both parents or all contestants agree to the order, or if the court finds that in the absence of the order the child's physical, mental, or emotional health would be endangered, the court may order an appropriate agency which regularly deals with children to exercise continuing supervision over the case to assure that the custodial or visitation terms of the decree are carried out. Such order may be modified by the court at any time upon petition by either party.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. CHILD CUSTODY——ACTION BY RELATIVE. A relative, as defined in

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the question of scope and object on this bill. You gave a very appropriate answer, I think, to an inquiry day before yesterday with respect to whether a scope and object request could be made. You said that it could be made when the Free Conference was asked for or at the time the adoption of the Free Conference Report was before us.

"You also said that the Free Conference Report needs to fit the scope and object of the title of the bill. Now the title of this bill is 'Information in child support orders.' This Free Conference Report contains an entire rewrite of the child custody laws in the state of Washington which in the bill--there was a bill which came out of the Judiciary Committee, but it came out one of the very last days. It never was in hard copy. There was an attempt made to bring it out of Rules. It never came out of Rules. Now it is appears in this Free Conference Report. I think it is definitely out of scope and object of the title of this bill, which were your words and I would urge you to make a decision on this."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vogñild, further consideration of House Bill No. 1795 and the pending Conference Committee Report were deferred.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I have dropped on your desk—from the Department of Energy at Hanford—a flyer which has a blue highlighter for the display and informational workshop that is being held here in the rotunda, out towards the front side of the rotunda, and I would encourage you to visit there and ask any questions. They will be there until 5 o'clock this afternoon and I think it is particularly fitting when there's a poll out by the Seattle Times that says seventy-two percent of the people believe that high-level wastes are liquid. Nothing could be further from the truth. It's not something you pour from a bucket.

"Basically, for the benefit of the body, there are really five kinds of radioactive waste—high level, low level, transuranic, commercial and the last one, which this informational workshop is about, is the defense waste. It is an entirely different category, as far as the handling of it by the government and I would urge you to attend and ask questions."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1722, requiring an air contaminant source operating permit, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. In the interest of the public health and welfare, and in keeping with the objectives of RCW 70.94.011, the legislature declares it to be the public policy of the state to control, reduce, and prevent air pollution caused by woodstove emissions and emissions from other indoor and outdoor air pollution sources. The legislature further declares it to be the public policy of the state to reduce woodstove and other emissions by encouraging the department of ecology to continue efforts to educate the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) “Department” means the department of ecology.

(2) “Woodstove” means a solid fuel burning device other than a fireplace, including any fireplace insert, woodstove, wood burning heater, wood stick boiler, coal-tired furnace, coal stove, or similar device burning any solid fuel used for aesthetic, cooking, or space-heating purposes and designed to be installed or used in a private residence or commercial establishment, which has a heat input less than one million btu’s per hour.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Before March 31, 1988, the department shall establish by rule consistent with rules adopted by the environmental protection agency:

(1) Emission performance standards for new woodstoves;

(2) A program to determine (a) whether a woodstove complies with the emission performance standards established in subsection (1) of this section, and (b) to approve the sale of stoves that comply;

(3) Application fees to be assessed by the department on wholesalers, retailers, or manufacturers of woodstoves. These fees will be set to reflect the direct and indirect cost of administering the program described in subsection (2) of this section less any general fund or federal grant moneys appropriated to cover the start-up costs of the program, and shall not be assessed for testing previously performed in accordance with federal woodstove emission performance standards;
(4) Procedures for administering the program and for collecting fees for the approval of new woodstoves; and

(5) The form and content of an emission performance and heating efficiency label to be attached to a new woodstove meeting the emission performance standards.

In developing the rules, the department shall review regulations adopted by the federal government or other states and develop regulations compatible with the federal rules, remaining consistent with the purposes of this chapter. Local governments may adopt more stringent emission performance standards than those adopted by the United States environmental protection agency, as long as performance testing procedures are consistent with federal rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. By March 1, 1988, the department shall provide the appropriate standing committees of the legislature with a copy of the rules proposed in accordance with section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall establish a program to educate woodstove dealers and the public about:

(1) The effects of woodstove emissions on health and air quality;

(2) How to achieve better woodstove efficiency and emission performance;

(3) Woodstoves that have been approved by the department; and

(4) The benefits of replacing or retrofitting inefficient used woodstoves, as defined in section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall establish an advisory committee to aid and advise the department in the adoption of emission performance standards and establish means to inform the public. The members of the advisory committee shall include, but shall not be limited to, Washington woodstove manufacturers and retailers, and a certified chimney sweep from a recognized state chimney sweep guild.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On and after January 1, 1989, no person shall advertise to sell, offer to sell, or sell a new woodstove in this state unless:

(1) The woodstove has been approved by the department under the program established under section 3 of this act and the proper application fee has been paid;

(2) An emission performance and heating efficiency label is attached to the woodstove, according to section 3 of this act; and

(3) An extension to January 1, 1990, shall be granted for:

(a) Woodstoves that are part of a retail inventory already existing on or before the official notification of state emission performance standards rules; and

(b) Woodstoves that have been ordered by a retailer from a manufacturer or wholesaler before the official notification of state emission performance standards rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If, on or after January 1, 1989, a person advertises to sell, offers to sell, or sells a new woodstove in this state which does not comply with the conditions in section 7 of this act, such person shall be subject to the penalties and enforcement actions under RCW 70.94.430, 70.94.431, and 70.94.435.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department shall provide assistance to local governments in developing strategies to reduce woodstove air pollution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) This chapter does not apply to a used woodstove.

(2) As used in this section, "used woodstove" means a woodstove that has been sold at retail, bargained, exchanged, given away, or has had its ownership transferred from the person who first acquired the woodstove from the manufacturer, the manufacturer's dealer or agency, or a retailer, and so used to have become what is commonly known as second hand within the ordinary meaning of that term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be added to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department of ecology shall establish a study team consisting of representatives of local air authorities, environmental organizations, and business organizations. The department, with the assistance of the study team, shall:

(1) Conduct a comprehensive study on the need for better management systems for controlling air pollution sources and, if determined necessary, methods to improve management;

(2) Thoroughly assess the existing stationary air pollution source regulatory system, its deficiencies, and ways to remedy them;

(3) Define the objectives of an air pollution source operating permit system;

(4) Assess programs in other states using permits or otherwise and compare their progress with the accomplishments achieved in Washington state;

(5) Evaluate the need for an air pollution source operating permit program, including: (a) A comparison with the accomplishments of the existing regulatory system, (b) the sources and emissions included and excluded, (c) government and private resources needed, (d) fees anticipated, (e) schedule for implementation, (f) time involved to establish and maintain the program, (g) its effect on air quality, (h) its impact on sources covered, and (i) its overall cost-effectiveness; and

(6) Identify alternatives to an air pollution source permit program and analyze the advantages and disadvantages of each.
By December 15, 1986, the department of ecology shall report the conclusions of the study to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) No person may smoke in any portion of a state owned or leased building that is occupied by state employees, except as provided in sections 13 through 17 of this act.

(2) Sections 13 through 17 of this act apply to all employees of the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of state government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Because the smoking of tobacco or any other weed or plant is a danger to health and is a cause of material annoyance and discomfort to those who are present in confined places, the legislature declares that the purposes of sections 13 through 17 of this act are (a) to protect the public health and welfare by regulating smoking in state agencies and (b) to minimize the toxic effects of smoking in the workplace by requiring state agencies to adopt a policy that will accommodate, insofar as possible, the preferences of non-smokers and smokers and, if a satisfactory accommodation cannot be reached, to prohibit smoking in the workplace.

(2) Sections 13 through 17 of this act are not intended to create any right to smoke or to impair or alter a state agency’s prerogative to prohibit smoking in the workplace. Rather, if a state agency allows employees to smoke in the workplace, then sections 13 through 17 of this act require (a) that the agency make accommodations for the preferences of both nonsmoking and smoking employees, and (b) if a satisfactory accommodation to all affected nonsmoking employees cannot be reached, that the agency prohibit smoking in the workplace.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 13 through 17 of this act:

(1) "Agency" means any agency or commission of the state government.

(2) "Employee" means any person who is employed by any state agency in consideration for direct or indirect monetary wages or profit.

(3) "Workplace" means any enclosed area of a structure or portion thereof intended for occupancy.

(4) "Smoking" or "to smoke" means and includes inhaling, exhaling, burning, or carrying any lighted smoking equipment for tobacco or any other weed or plant.

(5) "Enclosed" means closed-in by a roof and four walls with appropriate openings for ingress and egress and is not intended to mean areas commonly described as public lobbies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) Each state agency that operates a workplace in this state shall within three months of the effective date of this act adopt, implement, and maintain, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a written smoking policy that contains, at a minimum, the following provisions and requirements:

(a) Any nonsmoking employee may object to the agency about smoke in the workplace. Using already available means of ventilation or separation or partition of space, the agency shall attempt to reach a reasonable accommodation, insofar as possible, between the preferences of nonsmoking and smoking employees. However, an agency is not required by sections 13 through 17 of this act to make any expenditures or structural changes to accommodate the preferences of nonsmoking or smoking employees.

(b) If an accommodation that is satisfactory to all affected nonsmoking employees cannot be reached in any given workplace, the preferences of nonsmoking employees shall prevail and the agency shall prohibit smoking in that workplace. If the agency prohibits smoking in a workplace, the area in which smoking is prohibited shall be clearly marked with signs.

(2) The smoking policy shall be announced within three weeks of adoption to all employees working in workplaces in the state and posted conspicuously in all workplaces under the agency’s jurisdiction.

(3) The director of the department of labor and industries may adopt rules to exempt workplaces from this section if the workplace meets the minimum standards established by the department. The standards shall include a minimum volume of air per occupant, a minimum frequency of air changes in the workplace, and a minimum proximity of smokers to nonsmokers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) It is unlawful for an agency to discharge or in any manner discriminate against any employee who exercises his or her rights under sections 13 through 17 of this act if the dominant intent of the agency is retaliation against the employee for exercising those rights.

(2) In undertaking the enforcement of sections 13 through 17 of this act, the state is assuming an undertaking only to promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any person who claims that the breach proximately caused injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 13 through 17 of this act shall be added to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "air act:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 70.94 RCW; and creating a new section."

Signed by Senators Kreidler and Talmadge: Representatives Rust, Lux and Allen.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 1722 be adopted and the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the question of scope and object on the Conference Committee Report. Substitute House Bill No. 1722, as it left the Senate, was strictly a study bill. It said, 'The Department of Ecology shall establish a study team. They shall conduct a comprehensive study of the needs of better management.' This is for controlling all air pollutions.

'The final instruction is that by December 15, 1986, the Department of Ecology shall report the conclusion of the study to the appropriate standing committees. The Conference Committee Report, as it came back, contains the study and it really shouldn't, because it also contains two other bills that this body did not consider. The first bill deals with wood stoves and attempts to establish procedures by which wood stoves can be tested, how they can be sold and actually almost says you can't sell them unless agreed upon. The next bill in it establishes smoking standards for state offices. It indicates, if there cannot be an agreement between smokers and nonsmokers, then all smoking will be banned. The scope and object argument that I make here is that as it left, it was a study to determine if the two bills contained in the Conference Committee Report are, in fact, beneficial to the air and needed by this state. I believe it truly expands the object of this bill—the scope of the bill as it left."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1722 and the Conference Committee Report were deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4814 and the pending motion by Senator Bender to grant the request of the House for a conference on the bill, deferred earlier today.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4990, regulating river running, have had the same under consideration and report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to further the public interest, welfare, and safety by providing for the protection and promotion of safety in the operation of watercraft carrying passengers for hire on the rivers of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Watercraft" means every type of watercraft carrying passengers for hire used as a means of transportation on a river, including but not limited to power boats, drift boats, open canoes, inflatable crafts, decked canoes, and kayaks.

(2) "Carrying passengers for hire" means carrying passengers by watercraft for valuable consideration, whether given directly or indirectly or received by the owner, agent, operator, or other person having an interest in the watercraft. This shall not affect trips where expenses for food, transportation, or incidentals are shared by participants on an even basis. Anyone receiving compensation for skills or money for amortization of equipment and carrying passengers shall be considered to be carrying passengers for hire. Individuals licensed under chapter 77.32 RCW and acting as a fishing guide are exempt from this chapter.

(3) "Operate" means to navigate or otherwise use a watercraft.

(4) "Operator" means any person operating the watercraft or performing the duties of a pilot or guide for one or more watercraft in a group."
(5) "Passenger" means every person on board a watercraft who is not an operator.
(6) "Rivers of the state" means those rivers and streams, or parts thereof, within the boundaries of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) No person may operate any watercraft in a manner that interferes with other watercraft or with the free and proper navigation of the rivers of this state.
(2) Every operator of a watercraft shall at all times operate the watercraft in a careful and prudent manner and at such a speed as to not endanger the life, limb, or property of any person.
(3) No watercraft may be loaded with passengers or cargo beyond its safe carrying capacity taking into consideration the type and construction of the watercraft and other existing operating conditions. In the case of inflatable crafts, safe carrying capacity in whitewater shall be considered as less than the United States Coast Guard capacity rating for each watercraft. This subsection shall not apply in cases of an unexpected emergency on the river.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, watercraft proceeding downstream have the right of way over watercraft proceeding upstream.
(2) In all cases, watercraft not under power have the right of way over motorized craft underway.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) No person may operate on the rivers of this state a watercraft carrying passengers for hire unless the person has been issued a valid Red Cross standard first aid card or at least its equivalent.
(2) This section does not apply to a person operating a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States in this state and who is licensed by the United States Coast Guard for the type of vessel being operated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. While carrying passengers for hire on whitewater river sections in this state, the operator and owner shall:
(1) If using inflatable watercraft, use only watercraft with three or more separate air chambers;
(2) Ensure that all passengers and operators are wearing a securely fastened United States Coast Guard approved type III or type V life jacket in good condition;
(3) Ensure that each watercraft has accessible a spare type III or type V life jacket in good repair;
(4) Ensure that each watercraft has on it a bagged throwable line with a floating line and bag;
(5) Ensure that each watercraft has an adequate first-aid kit;
(6) Ensure that each watercraft has a spare propelling device;
(7) Ensure that a repair kit and air pump are accessible to inflatable watercraft; and that the aforesaid rates are presumptively fair and equitable because of the traditional and continuing expenditures of the department of transportation for the construction, operation, and maintenance of storm water control facilities designed to control surface water or storm water runoff from state highway rights of way. The utility imposing the charge and the department of transportation may, however, agree to either higher or lower rates with respect to the construction, operation, or maintenance of any specific storm water control facilities based upon the extent and adequacy of storm water control facilities constructed by the department and upon the actual benefits to state highway rights of way from the storm water control facilities constructed by the local government utility. If a different rate is agreed to, a report so stating shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. If the local government utility and the department of transportation cannot agree upon the proper rate, and after a report has been submitted to the legislative transportation committee and after ninety days from submission of such report, either may commence an action in the superior court for the county in which the state highway right of way is located to establish the proper rate. The court in establishing the proper rate shall take into account the extent and adequacy of storm water control facilities constructed by the department and the actual benefits to the sections of state highway rights of way from storm water control facilities constructed, operated, and maintained by the local government utility. Control of surface water runoff and storm water runoff from state highway rights of way shall be deemed an actual benefit to the state highway rights of way. The rate for sections of state highway right of way as determined by the court shall be set forth in terms of the percentage of the rate for comparable real property, but shall in no event exceed the rate charged for comparable city street or county road right of way within the same jurisdiction.
(8) Ensure that equipment to prevent and treat hypothermia is accessible to all watercraft on a trip.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Watercraft operators and passengers on any trip carrying passengers for hire shall not allow the use of alcohol during the course of a trip on a whitewater river section in this state.

The legislature finds that increasing the surface water or storm water accumulation on or flow over real property, beyond that which naturally occurs on the real property, may cause severe damage to the real property and limit the gainful use or enjoyment of the real property, resulting in a tort, nuisance, or taking. The damage can arise from activities increasing the point or nonpoint flow of surface water or storm water over the real property, or altering or interrupting the natural drainage from the real property. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to permit the construction and operation of public improvements to lessen the damage. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest to provide for the equitable imposition of special assessments, rates, and charges to fund such improvements. This shall include the imposition of special assessments, rates, and charges on real property to fund that reasonable portion of the public improvements that alleviate the damage arising from activities that are the proximate cause of the damage on other real property. Sec. 64. Section 84.64.050, chapter 15. Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 179, Laws of 1984 and by section 19, chapter 220. Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.64.050 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

After the expiration of three years from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county for all years' taxes, interest, and costs: PROVIDED. That the county treasurer, with the consent of the county legislative authority, may elect to issue a certificate for fewer than all years' taxes, interest, and costs to a minimum of the taxes, interest, and costs for the earliest year.
The county treasurer may include in the certificate of delinquency any assessments which are due on the property and are the responsibility of the county treasurer to collect. For purposes of this chapter, "taxes, interest, and costs" include any assessments which are so included by the county treasurer.

The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1983. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county legislative authority shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PROVIDED. That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners, and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or, if a mailing address is unavailable, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to describing the property as the same is described on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address. If any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be issued in one general certificate in book form including all property, and the proceedings to foreclose the liens against said property may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codefendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder: PROVIDED. That if any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4741, relating to commercial fishing licenses, have had the same under consideration and report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:
The director of the department of fisheries shall waive the landing and other permit requirements under RCW 75.30.120 if such requirements were not fulfilled by the license holder due to procedures initiated by a foreign government.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

Any commercial salmon fishing license issued under RCW 75.28.110 or salmon delivery permit issued under RCW 75.28.113 shall revert to the department when any government confiscates and sells the vessel to which the license or permit was issued. Upon application of the person named on the license or permit and the approval of the director, the department shall transfer the license or permit to the original owner. Application for transfer of the license or permit must be made within the calendar year in which the vessel was licensed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that maintaining a commercial whiting fishery in Puget Sound affects the public welfare. Excessive fishing for Puget Sound whiting, especially at the time of spawning, severely affects the abundance of whiting. The legislature further finds that as a result of increases in the number of vessels fishing for whiting, the amount of gear used in fishing, and the limited whiting resource, it is proper and necessary to limit the number of vessels and amount of gear used in taking whiting in Puget Sound.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

Commercial Puget Sound whiting license endorsements issued under section 6 of this act shall be valid for the owner and the vessel for which the endorsement was issued. The endorsement may be transferred through gift, devise, bequest or descent to members of the immediate family which shall be limited to spouse, children or stepchildren. Only a natural person may possess an endorsement. The owner of the endorsement must be present on any vessel taking whiting under terms of the endorsement. In no instance may temporary permits be issued.

The director may adopt rules necessary to implement sections 3 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

To obtain a Puget Sound commercial whiting endorsement, the owner of the vessel must have delivered at least fifty thousand pounds of whiting during the period from January 1, 1981, through February 22, 1985 as verified by fish delivery tickets and must have possessed, on January 1, 1986, all equipment necessary to fish for whiting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to any other license, a Puget Sound commercial whiting endorsement is required to take whiting in the waters of marine fish-shellfish fish management and catch reporting areas 24B. Port Susan; 24C. Saratoga Passage; 26A. Possession Sound; or any other area designated by the department. An annual endorsement fee is two hundred dollars for residents and four hundred dollars for nonresidents. The license shall be affixed to the licensed vessel.

To obtain a Puget Sound commercial whiting endorsement, the owner of the vessel must have delivered at least five thousand pounds of whiting during the period from January 1, 1981, through February 22, 1985 as verified by fish delivery tickets and must have possessed, on January 1, 1986, all equipment necessary to fish for whiting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 106, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 138, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.30.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall appoint three-member advisory review boards to hear cases as provided in RCW 75.30.060. Members shall be from:

(a) The salmon charter boat fishing industry in cases involving salmon charter boat licenses or angler permits;
(b) The commercial salmon fishing industry in cases involving commercial salmon licenses;
(c) The commercial crab fishing industry in cases involving Puget Sound crab license endorsements; and
(d) The commercial Puget Sound whiting fishery in cases involving Puget Sound whiting license endorsements.

Members shall serve at the discretion of the director and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 171, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 103, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.014 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may establish by rule license application deadlines for types of gear and licensing districts. An applicant for a commercial salmon fishing license shall submit a license application in accordance with this subsection.

(a) If an application is postmarked or personally delivered to the department in Olympia by ((April 15th of the license year)) the application deadline, it shall be accompanied by the prescribed license fee.

(b) If an application is postmarked or personally delivered to the department in Olympia after ((April 15th of the license year)) the application deadline, it shall be accompanied by the prescribed license fee and a late application fee of two hundred dollars.

(2) Columbia River smelt license applications accompanied by the license fee shall be made in person or postmarked by January 10 of the license year.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "licenses," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 75.30.050 and 75.28.014; and adding new sections to chapter 75.30 RCW."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the point of order that the Conference Committee Report may expand the scope and object of the title of the bill. I draw your attention to the title of the bill which is an act relating to commercial fishing and licenses. Licenses is obviously a very, very narrow aspect of the title and it would appear that the Conference Committee has added on about three bills dealing with commercial fishing, but they don't all deal with commercial fishing licenses. Therefore, I would submit it does exceed the scope and object of the title." Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 is a measure entitled 'An Act Relating to Commercial Fishing Licenses.'

"The amendment proposed by the Conference Committee grants commercial fishing licenses to owners of vessels seized by a foreign government and provides for commercial Puget Sound Whiting fishing licenses.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by the Conference Committee was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 and to grant the powers of Free Conference.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Senate adopted the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 and granted the powers of Free Conference.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4872 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.
MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Vognild moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the powers of Free Conference were granted on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905 earlier today.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the powers of Free Conference were granted to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905, on reconsideration.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, and there being no objection, the motion to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905 and to grant the powers of Free Conference was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Peterson moved that the Senate adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Peterson, I'm just a little confused, has the House receded from their amendments and we are now adopting the original Senate Bill or are we adopting the Conference Committee Report which is timed at 4:45?"

Senator Peterson: "Senator Lee, my information is that the House receded from that amendment this morning and sent it back to us, so we're adopting the original supplemental budget."

Senator Lee: "The House has receded from their amendments. We have the original as it passed, so we don't have to pass it again, do we?"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Mr. President, are we adopting the Conference Report or working on the bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The question pending is the adoption of the Conference Committee Report."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "A point of order, Mr. President. I notice that my Conference Committee Report which the reader just read—the same words—is timed at 4:45 and so I raise the point of order as to whether or not this adoption is timely. I have no objection—in fact I intend to vote for the bill. It's just that I would raise that as a point of order as to whether or not it has been on our desks for twenty-four hours prior to being presented for final adoption."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, if the members decide to vote ahead of time, that's well within their privilege. If they are ready to vote, they might as well expedite business and go ahead. It isn't mandatory that you have to wait twenty-four hours."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, where does the so-called twenty-four hour rule come from? Is there a rule in our Joint Rules or otherwise that specifies that it must be on our desk for twenty-four hours?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President understands that, but if the members of the body wish to proceed it is certainly well within their province."

Senator Pullen: "Would that then take a motion to suspend the rules? Would that not be the proper way to make the motion? And, do we have the authority to suspend the Joint Rules? We have the authority to suspend our own rules, but I can't see that we have the authority to suspend the Joint Rules."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, we're of the understanding that we would be told when the twenty-four hour rule be strictly adhered to. My understanding was that there was no objection to running this one forty-five minutes early, but if there is we will set it down."

Further debate ensued.

The President suggested that if there was no objection, further consideration of the Conference Committee Report on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905 be deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Guess, the Senate continued consideration of the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Peterson that the Senate adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905.

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the Senate adopted the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Johnson was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905, as amended by the Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905, as amended by the Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 8; absent, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, Melcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams - 37.

Absent: Senators Barr, Owen - 2.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4905, as amended by the Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 11, 1986

Mr. President:
The House ruled the Conference Committee Report on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4463 beyond the scope and object of the title of the bill and requests further conference. The Speaker has appointed the following members as new conferees: Representatives McMullen, Day and Lundquist. The Report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. President:
Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4463, encouraging the promotion of Washington products, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature declares that:

(1) The development and sale of Washington business products is a vital element in expanding the state economy.

(2) The marketing of items produced in Washington state contributes substantial benefits to the economic base of the state, provides a large number of jobs and sizeable tax revenues to state and local governments, and provides an important stimulation to the economic strength of Washington companies.

(3) State government should play a significant role in the development and expansion of markets for Washington products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of trade and economic development is directed to develop and promote means to stimulate the expansion of the market for Washington products and shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To develop a pamphlet for state-wide circulation which will encourage the purchase of items produced in the state of Washington:

(2) To include in the pamphlet a listing of products of Washington companies which individuals can examine when making purchases so they may have the opportunity to select one of those products in support of this program:

(3) To distribute the pamphlets on the broadest possible basis through local offices of state agencies, business organizations, chambers of commerce, or any other means the department deems appropriate:

(4) In carrying out these powers and duties the department shall cooperate and coordinate with other agencies of government and the private sector.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The sum of ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the purposes of sections 1 and 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature acknowledges that other states have successfully promoted the sale of their lottery tickets when the proceeds of a game are used for a specific purpose. People who buy lottery tickets in those states recognize that they are helping to support a particular state program. If the legislature authorizes an additional lottery game which designates the proceeds to be used for a particular purpose, the sales of Washington lottery tickets should increase without any reduction in state general fund moneys. It is the intent of the legislature to help stimulate the sale of Washington state lottery tickets by authorizing the lottery commission to conduct one additional lottery game each year for the benefit of urban parks.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 89, Laws of 1980 and RCW 43.51.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Recognizing the fact that the demand for park services is greatest in our urban areas, that parks should be accessible to all Washington citizens, that the urban poor cannot afford to travel to remotely located parks, that few state parks are located in or near urban areas, that a need exists to conserve energy, and that local governments having jurisdiction in urban areas cannot afford the costs of maintaining and operating the extensive park systems needed to service their large populations, the legislature hereby directs the interagency committee for outdoor recreation to place a high priority on the acquisition, development, redevelopment, and renovation of parks located in or near urban areas that will be particularly accessible to and used by the populations of those areas. For purposes of RCW 43.51.380 and 43.51.385, "urban areas" mean any incorporated city with a population of five thousand persons or greater, any county of the second class or greater. (This section shall be implemented by January 1, 1988.)

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 5, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 54, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.99.060 are amended to read as follows:

There is created the outdoor recreation account in the state treasury, in which shall be deposited all moneys received from the marine fuel tax refund account pursuant to RCW 43.99.070, the proceeds of the bond issue authorized by chapter 12, Laws of 1963, extraordinary session, all proceeds transferred from the state lottery account pursuant to section 9 of this 1986 act, and any moneys made available to the state of Washington by the federal government for outdoor recreation not specifically designated for another fund or agency. All earnings of investments of balances in the outdoor recreation account shall be credited to the general fund.

Grants, gifts, or other financial assistance awarded or designated for a particular purpose, or proceeds received from public bodies as administrative cost contributions, may be received and, when appropriated by the legislature, may be expended in accordance with the general budget and accounting act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.99 RCW to read as follows:

Moneys transferred to the outdoor recreation account from the state lottery account shall be used solely for the acquisition, development, redevelopment, and renovation of urban area parks as defined in RCW 43.51.380.
Sec. 8. Section 24, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 375, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.70.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The moneys in the state lottery account shall be used only: (1) For the payment of prizes to the holders of winning lottery tickets or shares; (2) for purposes of making deposits into the reserve account created by RCW 67.70.250 and into the lottery administrative account created by RCW 67.70.260; (3) for purposes of making deposits into the state's general fund; (4) for the purpose of making deposits into the outdoor recreation account pursuant to section 9 of this 1986 act; (5) for the purchase and promotion of lottery games and game-related services; and (((5))) (6) for the payment of agent compensation.

The office of financial management shall require the allotment of all expenses paid from the account and shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives any changes in the allotments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 67.70 RCW to read as follows:

The commission may conduct one lottery game each year for the benefit of urban area parks. The commission shall transfer the net proceeds received from the sale of lottery tickets or shares under this game to the outdoor recreation account created by RCW 43.99.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature hereby acknowledges the growing importance of trade development services in increasing the promotion and export of Washington products and facilitating trade through the state. It is important for the state to act as a partner to other public and private organizations to provide for a coordinated trade information network for users of trade services.

(1) The department is directed to utilize a sum of up to fifty thousand dollars from the surplus funds in the state trade fair fund, as permitted by RCW 43.31.832, for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The department shall assist in the analysis and development of recommendations to provide for coordinated, accurate, and up-to-date trade information services between users and providers of trade services. A feasibility study shall be conducted of the best and most efficient process available to provide essential trade services to public and private organizations. The department shall encourage private sector involvement and utilize existing resources whenever possible to support product marketing and coordinated trade services.

(3) The department shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1987, on its activities and findings under this section.

(4) This section shall expire on June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This chapter may be cited as the employee cooperative corporations act. Employee cooperatives have long been a tradition in this state, especially in forestry and agriculture, where many Washington products are produced for export. Assistance to employee cooperatives will affect directly the expansion of markets for Washington products, increase tax revenues and provide stability for the state's base industries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given:

(1) "Employee cooperative" means a corporation that has elected to be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

(2) "Member" means a natural person who has been accepted for membership in and owns a membership share issued by an employee cooperative.

(3) "Patronage" means the amount of work performed as a member of an employee cooperative, measured in accordance with the articles of incorporation and bylaws.

(4) "Written notice of allocation" means a written instrument which discloses to a member the stated dollar amount of the member's patronage allocation and the terms for payment of that amount by the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state may elect to be governed as an employee cooperative under the provisions of this chapter, by so stating in its articles of incorporation or articles of amendment filed in accordance with Title 23A RCW.

A corporation so electing shall be governed by all provisions of Title 23A RCW, except chapter 23A.20 RCW, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. An employee cooperative may revoke its election under this chapter by a vote of two-thirds of the members and through articles of amendment filed with the secretary of state in accordance with chapter 23A.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. An employee cooperative may include the word "cooperative" or "co-op" in its corporate name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) The articles of incorporation or the bylaws shall establish qualifications and the method of acceptance and termination of members. No person may be accepted as a member unless employed by the employee cooperative on a full-time or part-time basis.

(2) An employee cooperative shall issue a class of voting stock designated as "membership shares." Each member shall own only one membership share, and only members may own these shares.
(3) Membership shares shall be issued for a fee as determined from time to time by the directors. RCW 23A.08.140 and 23A.08.200 do not apply to such membership shares.

Members of an employee cooperative shall have all the rights and responsibilities of stockholders of a corporation organized under Title 23A RCW, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) No capital stock other than membership shares shall be given voting power in an employee cooperative, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 11 through 21 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 23 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The legislature finds that many business closures, especially in traditional industries, have detrimentally affected the well-being of citizens in this state. The legislature further finds that many citizens may need to enter new fields to gain secure, meaningful employment. Employee ownership of new and existing businesses is one method of creating and retaining needed jobs. Since federal approval of employee stock ownership plans under the employee retirement income security act of 1974, approximately five thousand companies nationwide have adopted employee stock ownership plans, and experts estimate that another one hundred thousand businesses could be subject to such plans. Employee cooperatives have... long been a tradition in this state with many forest products companies, agricultural concerns, and other businesses being run on a cooperative basis. Appropriate and effective use of employee-owned businesses in this state can reduce unemployment caused by plant closings; can increase the income and financial security of citizens of this state, assure citizens greater control of their economic future, strengthen productivity; and can produce more efficient businesses, strengthen labor-management relations, and contribute to a more vital state economy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department of community development shall, by January 1, 1987, develop educational, training, and technical assistance programs to assist in the formation, development, and management of employee-owned businesses. The department shall publicize these programs throughout the state on a continuing basis through the small business development center under RCW 28B.30.530.

As used in this section, the term “employee-owned businesses” includes employee stock ownership plans and employee cooperatives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of community development for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 23 and 24 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to be codified within RCW 82.04.020 through 82.04.212, to read as follows:

“Plantation Christmas trees” means Christmas trees which are exempt from the timber excise tax under RCW 84.33.170.

Sec. 27. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

of a residential school to address the needs of children who, pursuant to law, may be ordered into an alternative residential placement. A residential school may be funded and operated, in whole or in part by private contributions;

In reviewing the implementation and administration of chapters 13.04, 13.32A, 13.34, and 74.13 RCW the joint select legislative committee may inquire into instances where it is alleged that a law enforcement officer: school employee, department employee, judge, or juvenile

The joint select legislative committee, unless recreated by the legislature, shall cease to exist after submitting the report required under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that there is evidence of failure to implement and enforce juvenile justice laws. This failure may be due to a number of factors, including, but not necessarily limited to, resource limitations within the various units of government charged with responsibility for such implementation and enforcement.
The commitment to the department. then jurisdiction is automatically extended to include a period of execution and enforcement of the court's order of disposition. If an order of disposition imposes a sentence extending beyond the eighteenth birthday, the court may order that the unpaid fine or monetary penalty be converted to community service. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty or fines. penalty assessments. or confinement of less than thirty days. the court upon motion of the prosecutor or its own motion. may modify the order after a hearing on the violation.

The hearing shall afford the respondent the same due process of law as would be afforded an adult probationer. The court may issue a summons or a warrant to compel the respondent's appearance. The state shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the fact of the violation. The respondent shall have the burden of showing that the violation was not a willful refusal to comply with the terms of the order. If a respondent has failed to pay a fine. penalty assessments. or restitution or to perform community service hours.

It may impose a penalty of up to thirty days confinement for each twenty-five dollars or eight hours owed. In no case may a juvenile offender be committed by the juvenile court to the department of social and health services for placement in a juvenile correctional institution beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday. A juvenile may be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or the authority of the department of social and health services beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday only if prior to the juvenile's eighteenth birthday:

(a) (The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence consisting of the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday; or

(b) The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence outside the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile offender for that period; or

(c) Proceedings are pending seeking the adjudication of a juvenile offense (or seeking a disposition order or the enforcement of such an order) and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile beyond his or her eighteenth birthday.

(b) The juvenile has been found guilty after a fact finding or after a plea of guilty and an automatic extension is necessary to allow for the imposition of disposition; or

(c) Disposition has been held and an automatic extension is necessary to allow for the execution and enforcement of the court's order of disposition. If an order of disposition imposes commitment to the department, then jurisdiction is automatically extended to include a period of up to twelve months of parole, in no case extending beyond the offender's twenty-first birthday.

(2) If the juvenile court previously has extended jurisdiction beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday and that period of extension has not expired, the court may further extend jurisdiction by written order setting forth its reasons.

(3) In no event may the juvenile court have authority to extend jurisdiction over any juvenile offender beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday.

(4) Notwithstanding any extension of jurisdiction over a person pursuant to this section, the juvenile court has no jurisdiction over any offenses alleged to have been committed by a person eighteen years of age or older.

Sec. 1018. Section 3, chapter 139, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 69.41.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of pharmacy may make such rules for the enforcement and administration of this chapter as are deemed necessary or advisable. The board shall identify, by rule-making pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, those drugs which may be dispensed only on prescription or are restricted to use by practitioners, only. In so doing the board shall consider the toxicity or other potentiality for harmful effect of the drug, the method of its use, and any collateral safeguards necessary to its use. The board shall classify a drug as a legend drug where these considerations indicate the drug is not safe for use except under the supervision of a practitioner.

In identifying legend drugs the board may incorporate in its rules lists of drugs contained in commercial pharmaceutical publications by making specific reference to each such list and the date and edition of the commercial publication containing it. Any such lists so incorporated shall be available for public inspection at the headquarters of the department of licensing and shall be available on request from the department of licensing upon payment of a reasonable fee to be set by the department of licensing.

Sec. 1019. Section 69.50.201, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 69.50.201 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) The state board of pharmacy shall enforce this chapter and may add substances to or delete or reschedule all substances enumerated in the schedules in RCW 69.50.204, 69.50.206, 69.50.208, 69.50.210, or 69.50.212 pursuant to the rule-making procedures of chapter 34.04 RCW. In making a determination regarding a substance, the board shall consider the following:
   (1) the actual or relative potential for abuse;
   (2) the scientific evidence of its pharmacological effect, if known;
   (3) the state of current scientific knowledge regarding the substance;
   (4) the history and current pattern of abuse;
   (5) the scope, duration, and significance of abuse;
   (6) the risk to the public health;
   (7) the potential of the substance to produce psychic or physiological dependence liability; and
   (8) whether the substance is an immediate precursor of a substance already controlled under this Article.

(b) After considering the factors enumerated in subsection (a) the board may issue a rule controlling the substance if it finds the substance has a potential for abuse.

(c) If the board designates a substance as an immediate precursor, substances which are precursors of the controlled precursor shall not be subject to control solely because they are precursors of the controlled precursor.

(d) If any substance is designated, rescheduled, or deleted as a controlled substance under federal law and notice thereof is given to the board, the substance shall be similarly controlled under this chapter after the expiration of thirty days from publication in the Federal Register of a final order designating a substance as a controlled substance or rescheduling or deleting a substance, unless within that thirty day period, the board objects to inclusion, rescheduling, or deletion. In that case, the board shall proceed pursuant to the rule-making procedures of chapter 34.04 RCW.

(e) Authority to control under this section does not extend to distilled spirits, wines, malt beverages, or tobacco as those terms are defined or used in Title 66 RCW and Title 26 RCW.

(f) The board shall exclude any nonnarco substance from a schedule if such substances may, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, and under regulations of the bureau, and the laws of this state including RCW 18.64.250, be lawfully sold over the counter.
